

Biblical Feast Days & Festivals

The God of all graces appointed annual feasts to be honored by the Children of Israel as part of the ceremonial teachings and laws penned on parchment by Moses. The symbols, shadows, and types represented in the feast days all pointed to aspects of Christ's work in the great Plan of Redemption, the purpose of which is to restore the image of God in humankind and to eradicate sin from the universe. The enemy of souls and author of all confusion has beclouded with mystery the intent and meaning of these once sacred ceremonies. Men are led to cast-off the educational benefits offered through these types, and go so far as to claim obsolete, both the types and the antitypes, the true, to which all the types point. The same casting-off of truth has, unfortunately, been applied to the eternal Law of God, written by the finger of God upon stone. The tables below are to help clarify the workings of Jesus Christ, prefigured through the seven ceremonial holi-days, celebrated and "enacted" by the Nation of Israel, in order to enlighten to men today, the hidden mysteries and purposes of the One and Only God!

Passover - (aka: Feast of Unleavened Bread)	14 th day of the 1 st month [Nisan]	Independence Day celebration, commemorating the deliverance of Israel by God from the bondage	From Adam's fall, to Jesus' Crucifixion (Spring of A.D.31) – John the Baptist proclaimed, "Behold the Lamb of God	John 1:29; Rev 13:8; Roman 3:25 1 Cor 5:7; Ex 12:23, 43-45;

(Pesach)		of sin (Egypt) and the destroyer through Christ, the Passover Lamb. God promised that when “He saw the blood... the Lord will pass over the door and not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to strike you”. Passover pointed back to God’s deliverance for Israel but was also a type of the sacrifice to be made by Jesus Christ. Celebrated by eating unleavened bread for 7 days and ending on the Passover day when a lamb without blemish was slain and eaten. The entire roasted lamb was to be eaten with bitter herbs [typifying a bitter sweet experience – first a self-reflection of our bitter service/bondage in Egypt (to sin) and the pain it has brought upon our Redeemer, and secondly that our deliverance from bondage and sin will come at a high cost, the death of our Redeemer] and none of its bones broken. Future generations were to celebrate the feast annually and the service was reserved for those alone who were circumcised, no foreigner was	that takes away the sins of the world.” John, the Revelator declared, Jesus, “the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world”. Before the fall of Adam and even the creation of the world, the Godhead made provision for the crisis in the event that humanity should sin. The “Council of Peace” (Zechariah 6:12, 13; Isa 48:16) among the Godhead made provision for a Savior, Jesus, Who would rebuild God’s temple and be sent to redeem humanity. Thus, from Adam’s fall, God’ “passed-over” the sins of humanity, through His forbearance, until Jesus would come to re-establish that which was lost (Romans 3:25; Eph 2:11-18). Jesus’ sinless life qualified Him to be the atonement for men’s sins and to become the Second Adam for all who believe in His name. In place of the Passover celebration, the communion service is given in honor of the death of Christ for our sins. The unleavened bread and unfermented wine are symbols of Christ’s broken sin-free body and His blood, shed for mankind. Preceding the communion service, Jesus left an example of humility for all to follow, in the ordinance of foot	Lev 23:4; Daniel 9:24-27; John 1:29; John 6:53, 54, 63; John 6:47-59; John 13:1-30; John 19; 1 Corinthians 5:7, 8, 11:23-26; Romans 12:1, 2; Deuteronomy 10:16

*Feast of Unleavened Bread (Hag HaMatzah)	15 th day of the 1 st month	Commemorated the Exodus from Egypt in haste, where unleavened bread was eaten 7-days. Leaven, being a symbol for sin, was not to be present in the camp as the Lord purposed to divorce His people from Egypt (the world) and sin. The holy day marked a mandatory convocation for all males in the Nation of Israel.	From the fall of Adam, God began to dispense unleavened, unadulterated words of truth regarding the effects of sin, the coming Messiah, and the cost for man's transgression. These words of truth were to be eaten with bitter herbs, signifying the bitterness that would accompany the blessed hope in our redemption. This unleavened bread would continue to be dispensed through God's messengers, the prophets (including John the Baptist), until the coming of Jesus Christ and His glorification on the cross. Christ lying in the grave; the sinless Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world rested from His labors of redemption on the seventh-day Sabbath, even in death. As the bread commemorating Christ had no leaven (yeast), So Jesus was without spot or blemish of sin; a Perfect Lamb and sacrifice unto the LORD. The followers of Christ are to be "a new lump" without the leaven of sin in their lives. Feast of First Fruits (Yom Bikkurim)	16 th day of the 1 st month	The feast celebrated the first fruit of the harvest, once the Children of Israel arrived into the Promised Land. A sheaf offering of barley, the first of the cultivated harvest (very similar to a tithe) was waived before the Lord, acknowledging that all belongs to Him and in promise of a bountiful harvest the people anticipated by faith, from the Lord. No crops could be harvested until the First Fruits were offered to the Lord.	Christ's resurrection – Jesus led captivity captive and gave gifts to men. Jesus Himself, the First Fruit of the Resurrection, presented Himself before His Father as an earnest of those who He would grant the gift of eternal life by virtue of His merits. "First at His birth, and then in His glorification, Jesus was worthy of the angel's adoration. When the great sacrifice had been consummated, Christ ascended on high, refusing the adoration of angels until He had presented the request, "I will that they also, whom Thou has given Me, be with Me where I am." [John 17:24.] Then with inexpressible love and power came forth the answer from the Father's throne, "Let all the angels of God worship Him!" *Feast of Weeks or Feast of Harvest [Pentecost] (Shavuot)	16 th day of the 1 st month to the 5 th day of the 3 rd month	The Law of God was spoken to the Children of Israel from Mt. Sinai, 49-days after the Exodus, and were given to Moses on tablets, 50-days after the Exodus (counting inclusively from the 16 th of the 1 st month). The two loaves typify the two tablets given to Moses written by the hand of God as well as the two prophetic tablets God commissioned to be written for the end-time people (1843 and 1850 tables) to reveal His last day truths and draw men's hearts back to the true God. The wave loaves were an expression of gratitude for the grain prepared as food. The holy, mandatory convocation for all males of the Nation of Israel marked the first harvest of wheat.	leaven in the typical service was symbolic of those who once had sin in their lives (leaven) but have had it thoroughly "baked-out" or purged by the Holy Spirit's refining fire. With Christ at His resurrection, a special group was also resurrected to be presented to God the Father at Jesus' dedication as High Priest, 50-days later. Jesus, the First Fruit of the resurrection, presented to the Father a "wave loaf" of the redeemed dead, as a promise of the great multitude that He will "even so" bring to His Kingdom. Similarly, the era from Christ's Resurrection until the 2 nd Great Awakening (1798-1844) is a prophetic fulfillment of the Feast of Weeks. God will raise up a people, the 144,000, a remnant of God's last day denominated church, stands as "First Fruits" and "wave loaves" of the redeemed, namely those who will not see death at Christ's 2 nd Coming. Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur)	10 th day of the 7 th month	Annual atonement was made for the Holy Place, the tabernacle of congregation, the altar, the priest and the congregation. This was a holy convocation where all were required to afflict their souls with fasting, petitions and prayers or be cut-off. Every 49yrs on the Day of Atonement, a trumpet was sounded inaugurating the year of Jubilee, taking place the 50 th year	Commencing on October 22, 1844 when Jesus left the Holy Place and entered the Most Holy Place of the heavenly sanctuary to begin an Investigative Judgment . A solemn time for members of the human race where their life records are reviewed and their sins are either blotted out of the Book of Records by the blood of Jesus Christ, or the record of sin remains for the impenitent for future payment and their names are blotted out of the Book of Life. *Feast of Tabernacles or Festival of Lights or Feast of Ingathering (Sukkot)	15 th day of the 7 th month	Held for 7 consecutive days where the people were to commemorate being brought out of Egypt (a symbol for sin) by the mighty hand of God: being sustained in tabernacles in the wilderness for 40 years and being led by God's marvelous light (a cloud by day and pillar of fire by night) to the Promised Land. The people were to dwell in booths made from tree branches during the celebration in honor of the Exodus. This year-end (harvest time) feast commemorated the bountiful harvest God had provided and had been gathered in. This was a jubilant celebration after being approved of God and at peace with God and man following the Day of Atonement. The last day of the festival was honored by a	John proclaimed that Jesus was the Light of the World that could not be (comprehended) overcome/diminished/extinguished a reference to the eternal lights in the sanctuary that were to burn continually before the Lord (Lev 24:1-4). Jesus also invited the people to take of him the waters of life that would be as a well spring flowing to eternal life. Jesus was that Rock struck by Moses that brought forth abounding waters for all to drink. All of God's people are to drink from the fountain of living waters found in Jesus. God's end-time people are to reflect the radiant glory of God, having been purified, made white and tried (Dan 12:3, 10; Rev 21:23; Rom 3:23). Scriptural Study:

Below is a list of Bible verses often misunderstood, misapplied, or misinterpreted by well meaning Christians that all speak of the nature and significance of the feast days, festivals, and mysteries of God, cloaked in types and shadows foretelling things to come within God's Plan of Redemption.

Galatians 4:9, 10 – “But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage? Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.”

Response: The people in the church of Galatia were bombarded by the dogmas of Jewish converts to Christianity who felt the need to uphold semblances of their former Jewish faith. In so doing, the Jewish converts attempted to persuade members of the church in Galatia to keep all of the ceremonial festivals, feast days, as well as the practice of circumcision as a sign of their conversion (Galatians 3:1-11; 5:1-4; Philippians 3:2, 3). Paul sternly rebukes those who made such arguments and the Galatians for having left the simple faith in Christ as the only means of salvation for a pagan based salvation by works. Paul admonishes the Galatians that the festivals and feasts had their purposes while practiced by the Jews, but have their true realization and fulfillment in Jesus Christ.

Colossians 2:14 – “Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;” [see also Ephesians 2:15; Colossians 2:20-23; Hebrews 9:1, 9, 10]

Response: The bible makes it clear that the handwriting of ordinances that was [a witness] against those who would not fulfill them are none other than the ordinances written by the hand of Moses (2 Chronicles 33:8) in the Laws given to Moses by God (Deuteronomy 31:19, 21, 26-30). God pronounces a curse upon any who would not heed His ordinances, all of which can be grouped into one of three categories:

1. Ordinances pertaining to health and hygiene (i.e. proper burial of waste matter; things made for consumption and things not made for consumption)
2. Ordinances on social conduct (i.e. a man is not to wed or lie with his daughter; restitution for lost property; etc.)
3. Ordinances relating to the priestly ministry in the temple (Ezekiel 44:5) and sabbath [lower case “s”] holy days with their types and symbols, all of which pointed to Jesus Christ. The daily sacrifice of lambs without blemish were all symbols and types of Christ; the offerings, sacrifices and holy-day festivals all prefigured Christ’s work on earth or in the heavenly sanctuary.

It is the last set of ordinances (law of commandments [contained] in ordinances – Ephesians 2:15) that were explicitly nailed to the cross in that Jesus through His life and death fulfilled the symbolism, becoming the antitype for which all the types pointed. To suggest the other ordinances mentioned are no longer relevant or binding would be without merit. Further, to suggest that the above verse implies the abolishment of the eternal Law of God, written in stone with God’s own finger, would be equally incorrect.

Colossians 2:16, 17 – “Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath [days]: Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body [is] of Christ.”

Response: Not to be confused with the weekly seventh-day Sabbath [capital “S”], feast days and festivals were also referred to as sabbath days [lower case “s”]. Paul makes plain that the sabbaths being referenced, namely, feast days and festivals, were “a shadow of things to come” which from our table above can be clearly seen. In no way is Paul casting away the relevance of the weekly Sabbath, a memorial of both the completed Creation and Redemption of mankind, which by Divine writ was codified on tables of stone.

Romans 14:4-6 – “Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand. One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day [alike]. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind. He that regardeth the day, regardeth [it] unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard [it]. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.”

Response: Paul, writing to the church in Rome that was originally founded by Jewish converts to Christianity but grew in ranks from both Jewish and Gentile converts, was a very diverse church in culture and religious origin. Paul, in speaking to the Jewish converts particularly is calling for Christian tolerance and consideration when relating to the Gentile converts. Paul does not disparage the culture, nor feast days and festivals once practiced by the Jews, but rather gave emphasis to the need for Christ-likeness in patience and tolerance among the brethren. Not wanting to directly caste-down the feast days and festivals as mere “shadows of things to come” to those Jews who held dear to such practices, but also recognizing that these rituals have their fulfillment in Jesus Christ, Paul reasons to allow those who are convicted of such practices to continue doing so, while others who do not share such convictions to feel free from guilt or shame for not having done. In no way has Paul deemed “arbitrary” the seventh-day Sabbath that was honored by Jesus Christ Himself and is to continue to be honored by the redeemed throughout time (Isaiah 66:22-24).
