~1050-1011BC Reign of King Saul
~1011-971BC Reign of King David
~971-931BC Reign of King Solomon

797BC Cyrus identified by God through Isaiah the prophet to be the eventual conqueror of Babylonian Empire approx. 150yrs prior to his birth (Isa 45:1-3).

742BC Isaiah gives prophecy of Isaiah 7:8 foretelling captivity of Samaria and Judah within 65yrs for apostasies spoken in Lev 26. 19yrs later, in 723BC, Samaria is subdued and 65yrs later, 677BC, the progressive fall of Judah with the capture of Manassah occurs, according to Jeremiah 50:17-20 (Patriarchs & Prophets 382.3).

723BC Last of 10 tribes of Israel (Northern Kingdom) under Hoshea (during 22yr of ruling) subdued by King of Assyria. Paganism - the daily desolation is set-up. 1st Time of Scattering started. (2 Kings 17:6-18)

677BC Southern kingdom under Manasseh taken captive by Esarhaddon, king of Assyria and Babylon; 2nd [and Last] Time of Scattering started; fulfillment of prophecies of Isaiah 7:8, 21:10-16, 2 Chronicles 33:1-13, 2 Kings 17:19-23, and Jeremiah 15:1-4 (Prophets & Kings pg 382.3).

612BC Nineveh prophetically destroyed by combined forces of Medes and Babylonians (Nah 3:2-7)

607BC Babylon conquered Israel, destroying the temple by the hands of Nebuchadnezzar during the 3rd year of the reign of King Jehoiakim of Judah. Babylon was one of the wealthiest kingdoms known to man, portrayed as a head of gold in prophetic image of Daniel. Year marks the beginning of 70yrs of captivity for Israel and Daniel is taken as a captive to Babylon (4:20-22; 9:2). Date marks the commencement of the 2,450 year prophecy based on the teaching by Adventist Pioneers of the Great Jubilee [49x50yrs], concluding in 1844AD with what was believed to be the coming of Jesus Christ (Dan 1:1).

599BC Nebuchadnezzar besieges Jerusalem again, taking captive Jehoiachin and others, including Ezekiel the prophet (Ezekiel 1:2)

History & the Bible: HIS-Story

Jan 596- Dec 595 Babylonian Revolt suppressed by Nebuchadnezzar, resulting in statue on plain of Dura

586BC Final destruction of Jerusalem under Zedekiah, at the hands of Nebuchadnezzar. Exiles in Babylon get word of the utter destruction in 585BC (Jeremiah 1:3)

575BC Tyre is destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar as prophesied in Isaiah Chapter 23

549BC Daniel is in vision on his bed at approx 76yrs old (Dan 8:1), 1st year of Belshazzar- grandson of Nebuchadnezzar.

547BC Daniel is in vision on his bed at approx 78yrs old (Dan 8:1), 3rd year of Belshazzar- grandson of Nebuchadnezzar.

539BC Darius the Mede (Cyaxares, son of Ahasuerus or Xerxes - Gr), the uncle of Cyrus the Persian, at the age of 62, slays Belshazzar, ending the Babylonian nation. Daniel 5:30, 31. Medes & Persians: were known for their strict conformity to government and legislation. When the king made a decree, whether written or verbal, it became law- not to be revoked. The king was as a god with his words and judgments. (Dan 6:7-9, 15)

538BC Daniel thrown into the lion's den but delivered by God (Dan 6)

536BC End of 70yr captivity for Israel, King Cyrus of the Persians issues a decree to rebuild the temple in Jerusalem (Ezra 1:1-4, 6:14; Daniel 10:13, 20); the first of 3 decrees granting privileges for the restoration of the Nation of Israel.

519BC Darius issues a decree to continue the stalled work of rebuilding the temple in Jerusalem (Ezra 6:1-14). The second of three decrees to complete and restore the Nation of Israel

*Autumn 457BC King Artaxerxes Longimanus of the Persian Empire in his 7th yr issued third of three decrees (Ezra 6:14, 15; 7) authorizing Israelites to rebuild the temple in Jerusalem and become an autonomous nation (Ezra 7:13). It took 49 years to rebuild the temple, wall and streets in Jerusalem, completed in 408BC. 457BC marks beginning of 2300yr and 490yr prophecies of Daniel 8 and 9 respectively. Israel exodus from literal Babylon prefigures Spiritual Israel's exodus from Spiritual Babylon in 1844.

444BC Artaxerxes, in his 20th year of reigning commissions his cup bearer, Nehemiah to go forth and complete the work of rebuilding the walls, streets and the city of Jerusalem (Nehemiah 2). The restoration of Jerusalem was completed in 408BC.

History & the Bible: HIS-Story

408BC Completion of the temple, walls, and streets in Jerusalem and reinstatement of self-rule for the Nation of Israel. Fulfillment of the first 7-weeks of the 70-week prophecy of Daniel 9:24, 25.

331 BC Alexander the Great crossed the Euphrates into Mesopotamia and conquered Darius II (Codomannus) in the battle of Arbela, ending Medo-Persian empire rule and starting Hellenistic dominion.

June 13, 323BC Alexander dies of alcoholism at 32. After his death, his four generals: Ptolemy, Lysimachus, Seleucus and Cassander would take over, divide and rule the Macedonian (Greek) empire. (Dan 8:7, 8 11:3, 4)

158BC, March 1 - Suffering from oppression of the Syrians, the Jews form alliance with Rome, submitting themselves to this dominant power and gaining its protection from other threats. The letter read: "The decree of the senate concerning a league of assistance and friendship with the nation of the Jews..." (Dan 11:24)

63BC Israel becomes an ethnarchy where one of their own is appointed "king" over their territories yet subject to the Emperor of Rome; robbing the nation of its independence.

46BC Julius Caesar introduces the Julian calendar

September 2, 31BC battle of Actium between Octavian (Caesar Augustus, nephew of Julius Caesar) and Mark Antony w/ Cleopatra signaled the official establishment of the city of Rome as the seat of government. The city of Rome would prophetically bear its authority for 360yrs (Dan 11:24) until 330AD, when the seat of authority was displaced by Roman Emperor Constantine to Constantinople, Turkey.

4BC Caesar Augustus calls a census and tax of the kingdom (Dan 11:20; Luke 2:1, 2)

4BC Christ born. King Herod attempts to kill Christ through his decree to kill all male children in Bethlehem ages 2< in fulfillment of prophecy (Jeremiah 31:15, Matt 2:16-18, Rev 12:4)

Jesus Christ Divides Time (BC)

Jesus Christ Divides Time (AD)

27AD in autumn, Christ baptized and anointed by the Holy Spirit in the Jordan in the Fall, 15th year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar in fulfillment of prophecy (Dan 9:24,27) ["... to anoint the Most Holy"; "...confirm a covenant w/ many..."]

History & the Bible: HIS-Story

27AD Herod's remodeling of the temple in Jerusalem is completed after 46 years. See John 2:20

31AD Spring, Christ crucified on 14th day of 1st month of the year (Abib) during the Spring (a Friday) at 12:00pm and died at 3:00pm (Passover day) in fulfillment of prophecy (Dan 9:26, 27, Matt 27:46).

34AD in the autumn, Stephen is stoned by Jews, ending 70-week prophecy and 490yr probation for Nation of Israel. Paul is converted to Christianity. The Apostles are scattered due to persecution and the gospel message is taken to the Gentiles (Dan 9:24-27; Acts 7, 8:4, 9:1-31)

~54AD Epistle to Galatians written by Paul

~55AD Epistle to Romans written by Paul from Corinth

64AD Nero begins attacks on Christians

~65AD Epistle to Ephesians written by Paul

66AD Roman General Cestius surrounds Jerusalem to attack; All the Christians saw the sign that Christ prophesied and fled (Luke 21:20). No Christians were killed in 70AD

67AD Paul and Peter martyred in Rome

70AD Divine mercy had met its end for the corporate Nation of Israel, one generation after the death of Christ. It is God's mercy that was extended to the very children who sat on Christ's knees, whom He blessed, those who cried Hosanna in the temple for Jesus upon His triumphal entry to the city, and to those whose parents jeered, the blood of Christ "be on us and our children" (Matthew 7:25). God would not allow the children to suffer the sins of the parents (Ezekiel 18:1-18) so He, through the Apostles and early converts to Christianity attempted to win these children, now grown adults over to the truth of Jesus, the Messiah. When these children, the final generation of the corporate Nation of Israel, rejected the Desire of Ages and their true King (John 19:15), God's mercy had met its end. The Temple in Jerusalem was destroyed by Roman Emperor Titus' army as prophesied by Moses and Jesus (Deuteronomy 28:47-57; Luke 21:20-22). Pagan Rome places its banner in the temple of God marking an abomination of desolation which is parallel to the passing of the Sunday law which sets-up Papal Rome's banner, an abomination of desolation.

95AD John exiled to Patmos by Emperor Domitian and wrote the Revelation of Jesus Christ

135AD Bar-Kokkbah staged revolt against Rome; Emperor Hadrian crushed the revolt and levels the entire city of Jerusalem.

History & the Bible: HIS-Story

(233AD-c. 304) the Neoplatonist and defender of paganism, Porphyry, asserts that the book of Daniel was fabricated after the historical events had taken place but was couched in the future tense as if a prediction. His assertions also ascribe the desolating power, fourth kingdom of Daniel 2, and the Little Horn of Daniel 7 to Antiochus Epiphanes.

250AD Emperor Decius, exploiting mass unpopularity of Christians, begins mass persecution to attempt to unify nation of Rome

303AD Emperor Diocletian enacts edict ushering in an infamous decade of widespread killing of Christians (Rev 2:10, Rev 6 -Red Horse era)

312AD Emperor Constantine baptized

313AD Constantine issues Edict of Milan ending Christian persecution

321AD March 7, - Emperor Constantine issued the Edict of Constantine stating "On the venerable day of the sun, let the magistrates and the people residing in the cities...rest, and let all the workshops be closed" in order to reinstate political stability in the Roman nation. The law restricted those living in the city to abstain from work but made no provision for those living in the country-sides. With the passage of the law, men attended the Roman Circus rather than attending church services, which was the primary intent of the control-minded Bishops who were responsible for having Constantine pass the law. Through the decree, Constantine committed a transgression of desolation that would commence the downfall of the Roman Empire. God permitted this act of Satan and would soon bring desolation upon the empire by way of Barbarian Tribes from the North. Satan was beginning to forsake his long used tool of paganism for his plans to enter the Christian church through this Trojan horse.

325AD 1st Council of Nicaea, Church of Rome condemned Arianism, founded by Arius in Alexandria. Church of Rome claims that Arians denied the full deity of the preexistent Son of God, though no historic writings remain to verify the assertion.

330AD Constantine moves seat of the empire's authority from Rome to Constantinople (Turkey), bringing added instability to a divided empire and signaling the commencement of Roman prelate authority; ending 360yr period spoken of in Dan 11:24. Church officials of Rome remained as a "governing body" for central Roman province, fulfilling prophecy of Rev 13:2 where the dragon gives the beast his "seat" of authority. Move caused a schism in the Roman Empire and church, resulting in an Eastern and Western empire and church. This schism may prophetically have been given by the two legs of the image of Daniel 2. With national apostasy in the Edict of Constantine, comes national ruin.

History & the Bible: HIS-Story

331AD Constantine commissions Eusebius, a follower of Origen, to write an ecumenical bible, one that would bring Christianity and paganism closer together as opposed to the Christian bibles' texts of the time that state the "Jesus Christ is the Way, the Truth, and the Life".

356 The Huns under Atilla attack and occupy part of the Eastern Roman Empire

364AD Church Council of Laodicea stated in its 29th Canon regarding "The Lord's Day"-
"Christians shall not Judaize [Keep the Sabbath] and be idle on Saturday but shall work on that day, but the Lord's Day they shall especially honor"

Emperor Augustine's (354-430 AD) interpretation of Luke 14:23 where Jesus in the parable of the great supper says, "Compel them to come in", took this to mean "force them, if they do not come of their own free will."; thus ushering in the Roman Inquisition. Also founder of theory of Catholicism "a universal church" in control of a universal state in his book The City of God. His writings gave basis for the medieval papacy.

378AD Flavius Gratianus (Gratian), Western Roman Emperor defeated the Lentienses, the southernmost branch of the Alamanni

Theodosius I after being baptized, by bishop Acholius of Thessalonica, during a severe illness, as was common in the early Christian world, published an edict with Gratian that all their subjects should profess the faith of the bishops of Rome and Alexandria (i.e., the Nicene faith).

383AD Jerome produces the Latin Vulgate Bible from which the modern Roman bible is derived. Bishop of Rome declares the Vulgate to be infallible.

In 391 Theodosius declared Christianity as the only legitimate imperial religion, ending state support for the traditional Roman polytheistic religion. A partial fulfillment of Daniel 8:11, where the place of paganism's sanctuary is cast down.

393AD A second Sunday Law is passed, requiring all to cease from work on the venerable day of the sun, whether in towns or in the country-sides.

395-410AD Alaric, Gothic Barbarian leader attacks eastern part of Roman Empire, beginning its downfall. Thrace, Macedonia, Attic and the Peloponesus. Prophesied in Rev 8:7 The 1st Trumpet

407AD Radagaisus, German barbarian leader marches from the northeastern part of Germany down through Italy. He is checked in Florence by the Italian forces but advances the Gothic conquest of the Western Empire under the First Trumpet.

History & the Bible: HIS-Story

428-468AD The Vandals, under Genseric invaded the southern portion (1/3) of the Roman Empire, the third of the kingdom given to one of three sons of Constantine, Constans. Constans held Illyricum, Africa and Italy while Constantine II held Britain, Gaul and Spain and Constantius possessed the East, and took up residence in Constantinople. Prophesied in Rev 8:8 The 2nd Trumpet

439AD Zeno & Theodoric the Ostragoth, waged war and conquered the Heruli. Beginning the uprooting of 3 barbarian tribes (Dan 7:8, 20)

440AD Leo I was first Bishop of Rome to proclaim Peter had been the first and original Pope (Petrine supremacy), to assert succession of papacy from Peter, claiming primacy from Christ. According to Leo, all other apostles, as with other bishops, are only assistants to Pope Peter and succeeding Bishops of Rome.

441AD-453AD Attila the Hun, known prophetically as the "Star Wormwood" (Rev 8:10, 11) would begin his attacks upon the Eastern Roman Empire and finish his work in the Western Empire. Unsuccessfully attacking Gaul in 451AD against an allied Roman and Visigoth army, Attila turns undeterred towards Italy, crossing the Alps he subdues the Italian Western Emperor, Senate and people in 452AD. The terms of the treaties to end Attila's ravage of Italy was his marriage to the Roman princess Honoria.

491AD Clovis, the leader of the Franks converted to the Roman faith and became the military arm used by the pope to wage war against the Arian nations of the Vandals & Ostragoths (Dan 7:8, 20; 8:12; 11:31).

496AD Clovis pays homage to Bishop of Rome, renouncing his pagan beliefs and is baptized in Reims, France; pledges to war against the remaining Arian nation in fulfillment of the prophecy of Rev 13:2 where the dragon [pagan Rome] gives the beast its [military] "power". For his conversion, Clovis was given the name "Most Christian Majesty" and "Eldest Son of the Church". In a very real sense, Clovis is a type of President Ronald Regan who through "intelligence" with Pope John Paul II and offering of military might for the overthrow of the Soviet Union, helped re-direct the US and world opinion towards the Papacy as a world influencer.

503AD Pope Symmachus, supported by Gothic King Theodoric, being acquitted of adultery and other offenses, is declared immune to earthly tribunals and accountable only to God by a Council in Rome; part of Catholic Canon Law Chapter 4 - a fulfillment of the claims of Revelation 13:4. (See Crimes of Christianity by G.W. Foote & J.M. Wheeler)

*508AD England elects Arthur, the first "Christian King" who cedes military strength [army] to Papacy to defeat Arian horns; last of 7 nations to pay homage to Rome, replacing paganism as national religion for Catholicism. Beginning of 30-year preparation of Antichrist power, mirroring 30-year preparation of Christ. Begins prophesied displacement of paganism [daily] for 1290yr reign of papacy according to

History & the Bible: HIS-Story

Daniel 11:31 and 12:11. Starting point for the prophetic 1335yr prophecy of Daniel 12:12 which concludes in 1843AD.

508AD Clovis defeats the Visigoths

533AD Justinian and General Belisarius wage war and conquer Vandals, an Arian nation. To settle conflict over the preeminence of the Pope in Rome vs. the Pope in Constantinople, Justinian declares the Bishop of Rome the head over all Christendom, the only one able to interpret scripture, and to pronounce sentence upon "heretics", giving Pope a measure of civil "authority" according to Rev 13:2

March 538AD Ostragoths flee Rome, completing the uprooting of the three horns of Daniel 7

*538AD Begins prophesied displacement of paganism [daily] for 1260yr reign of abomination of desolation (papacy) according to Daniel 11:31 and 12:11: Emperor Justinian gives Bishop of Rome authority to preside over all other bishops, establishing the office of the Pope in Rome. Signaled the demise of Pagan Rome and the beginning of Papal Roman See; signaled start of prophetic 42-month (1260yr) period of religious darkness where God, His sanctuary and His temple would be blasphemed by self-exalting men. (Dan 7:25, Rev 13:5-7)

538AD Justinian and Papacy remove the bible from the people saying that bishops were the only one's capable of interpreting scriptures in response to Arian threat from unconverted barbarian tribes (Ostragoths, Vandals and Heruli). The bible was outlawed, as if it were an object to be shunned by the common man. Began an era of spiritual darkness known as the "Dark Ages" (Rev 6:5, 6; Dan 7:24, 25).

610AD Islam's Prophet Mohammad allegedly is visited by the angel Gabriel and given his first revelation. Mohammad shortly thereafter begins to write the Qur'an

638AD - The Arabs build the Dome of the Rock near the former cite of the temple in Jerusalem.

768-814AD Charles the Great (Charlemagne) becomes King of the Franks

787AD - 2nd Council of Nicaea Church of Rome sanctioned image worship in adoration of saints, which is idolatry

Dec 25, 800AD - Charlemagne crowned 1st Holy Roman Emperor by Pope Leo III for extending the spread of Catholicism throughout Europe and saving his life from the Romans who attempted to kill the Pope.

863AD Indulgences, the infallibility of the Pope, and the concept of Purgatory are sanctioned and adopted by Pope Nicholas I.

History & the Bible: HIS-Story

1054 - The Great Schism, divided the medieval Roman Church into Eastern (Greek) and Western (Latin) branches, which later became known as the Eastern Orthodox Church and the Roman Catholic Church, respectively. Divisions were on the grounds of language (Latin vs. Greek), geography, doctrine, theology and politics.

1073 Pope claims the Roman church to be the Universal (catholic) mother of all churches

1081 Doctrine of transubstantiation, where the body and blood of Christ are recreated with each mass is declared canon.

1095 Pope Urban I in Clermont France proclaimed the first Crusade in an effort to unite the Christian world against the Turks of Palestine, as well as to unite it under the papal aegis. Forces defeated Turks and set-up a feudal state in 1099

1095 Pope gains right to canonize saints.

December 1122 - First Council of the Lateran established 22 disciplinary canons for Catholic priests, including Canons 3 and 11 forbidding priests, deacons, subdeacons, and monks to marry or to have concubines (Dan 11:37). Later reinforced by 3rd Lateran Council (March 1179) forbidding clerics from receiving women in their houses, or to frequent the monasteries of nuns.

1163AD Synod of Thoulouse made universal decree against Sabbath Keeping 1181AD Albigensian “heretics” are given a death decree by the Papal See.

1184AD - Waldenses (Vaudois) declared heretics by Pope Lucius III for preaching against doctrines of purgatory, the papacy, the mass and indulgences. Waldenses strongly opposed the Roman bible with its modifications and inclusions that vastly contradicted texts from the bibles derived from the Middle East (Textus Receptus), all of which affirm the divinity of Christ alone.

1199 - Knights Templar Order founded, originally a group of independent mercenaries that became a military Order of Church of Rome supporting the Crusades. Became exceedingly rich through the Pope's safeguarding and exemption of Order from taxes and local laws. Order provided passage to pilgrims visiting Holy Land and bought many of the castles throughout Europe. Knights Templar employed and funded Masons (Masonic Order) for maintenance and upkeep of their castles.

1208AD - Pope Innocent III ordered a crusade to eradicate the Albigenses, reform-minded Christians opposed to the heresies of the Church of Rome (worship of saints and idols, human priesthood, elevation of papal authority over the bible). Being promised paradise and the absolution of sins, the Papacy drafted thousands of mercenaries to bear arms for 40-days in warring a “Holy War” against the reform minded Christians [Foxes Book of Martyrs pg 72]. Within 100yrs, they were nearly exterminated.

1211AD - 80 Waldenses burned at stake in Strasbourg, beginning centuries of persecution against these Christian believers

1215 The Magna Charta was written in England, primarily for the English nobles, barons and dignitaries who opposed the supreme power of King John for a Constitutional Monarchy. Document created a ripple effect that served as a template for promoting freedoms espoused in the U.S. Constitution.

1233AD Pope Gregory IX erected Inquisition as a court tribunal in Toulouse and Carcassone to try heretics identified by Dominican Friars for acts of Judaism, soothsaying, magic and other such heresies. Courts extended to all cities where there were Dominican convents. Inquisition starts in France.

1252AD Pope Innocent IV sanctions the infliction of torture by the civil authorities upon heretics [in fulfillment of prophecy (Daniel 7:25, Rev 13:7)]. "Torture later came to have a recognized place in the procedure of the inquisitorial courts" (New Catholic Encyclopedia vol 14, p208 - Torture and the Church)

1294-1303AD Pope Boniface VIII issued a decree stating “every human creature [was] subject to the Roman Pontiff” in response to King Philip IV of France's attempt to tax clergy members.

1295AD Cessation of the Roman Church sponsored Crusades, an attempt to restore Christianity to Palestine, which opened new trade routes to the east. These routes also opened access to the former Eastern Kingdom (Byzantine Empire) and the Textus Receptus, (meaning: Received Text) a purer version of the Christian New Testament than the Western Bible (Vatican Manuscript). The providentially preserved Eastern Bible, which closely coincided with the bibles used by the Waldenses, was the original translation base for Martin Luther's German Bible, Tyndale, the translators of the King James Bible and other reformers. The Western Bibles were corrupted by Gnostic beliefs during the 4th Century and were further changed by the Church of Rome.

July 27, 1299AD Othman (founder of Ottoman Empire) attacks Nicomedia Greece according to Possinus (historian 1669); beginning of 1st of 3 woes, lasting 150yrs [5 prophetic months through 1449] (Rev 9:2, 5 and Daniel 11:5). Turkish Muslims would conquer N. Africa, Spain and the Near East.

1303 Papal Bull Unum Sanctum, Pope Boniface VIII states: “outside of her (the Church) there is neither salvation nor the remission of sins”; “Furthermore, we declare, we proclaim, we define that it is absolutely necessary for salvation that every human creature be subject to the Roman Pontiff.”; it was further concluded, the temporal authorities must submit to the spiritual authorities, not merely on matters concerning doctrine and morality: "For with truth as our witness, it belongs to spiritual power to establish the terrestrial power and to pass judgment if it has not been good."

1307, 1312 - Abubakari II of the Mali Empire sends expeditions to discover the extent of the Atlantic Ocean and his explorers arrive and settle in Panama, Hispaniola (Cuba), and parts of South and North America

Council of Ravenna (1311): Council ratified baptism by sprinkling as equally valid to water baptism, thus introducing this biblical heresy.

John Wycliffe (c.1320 - December 31, 1384) called "the Morning Star of the Reformation", was an English theologian and early proponent of reform in the Roman Catholic Church during the 14th century. He made an English translation of the Bible (1370) in one complete edition though banned by the Catholic Church. Posthumously exhumed by Catholic Council of Constance in 1415 and burned with John Hus as a heretic.

1342 Pope Benedict XII, in an effort to show his superiority over earthly monarchies, instituted the wearing of the triple crown tiara, comprised of three distinct crowns symbolizing his dominion over heaven, earth, and the underworld. Kings typically wore one crown, the Holy Roman Emperors wore double crowns but the triple crown of the papacy indicated authority over kings and emperors. The headdress of Pope Boniface VIII (1294-1303) alone was comprised of 48 rubies, 72 sapphires, 45 emeralds, numerous little rubies and emeralds, 66 large pearls and a massive rube at the apex. Successive Popes embellished and enlarged upon this design. A reflection of the wealth and pride of the harlot church Babylon mentioned in Revelation 18:7-18.

John Hus, Christian reformer in the Czech Republic, believed that obedience to God was man's highest calling. Hus' quote "My mind is chained by the bible" led to his excommunication in 1411 and his martyred death on July 6, 1415 on the shores of Lake Constance.

July 27, 1449 - End of the prophetic 5 months (150yrs) of torment of those who had not the seal of God on their foreheads, by the Ottoman empire (Rev 9:4, 5, 10, 12); end of 1st of 3 "woes" (Rev 8:13); beginning of 2nd "woe" and 6th trumpet [Turkish Islam comes to power – Sultan Murad II crowns Constantine XI]

July 27, 1449 – Beginning of the 391 year, 15 day prophecy prophecy (Rev 9:14, 15)

May 16, 1453AD Fall of Constantinople and rise of Ottoman Empire. Gun powder was widely used in the assault of Constantinople, denoting the fire and brimstone that seemingly came from the mouths of the horses (Rev 9:17)

1456AD Gutenberg develops printing press in Germany. Originally the Pope thought to outlaw the press but was convinced by a bishop that its use could help to stamp out “heresy”. On the contrary, Protestant Reformation would not have taken off had it not been for this God ordained invention. Printing Press made bibles widely available and stimulated a desire for people to learn to read.

1487AD - Pope Innocent VIII launched attack on Dauphine Waldenses and overwhelmed them. Piedmont Waldenses able to defend themselves.

1491-1498 - Under Spanish Inquisitor General Tommaso di Torquemada, 10,220 "heretics" burned alive, 6,840 burned in effigy, 97,371 condemned to Galleys or perpetual imprisonment

1493 - Pope Alexander VI issues the Papal Bull Inter Caetera granting Spain a free hand to colonize the Americas - to convert Native peoples to Catholicism and subjugate them to European monarchs

1513-1521AD Pope Leo X, whose extravagant taste bankrupted the Papal coffers, began the sale of Vatican furniture, relics and status, along with the controversial issuing of Indulgences, temporal absolution of sins. Martin Luther openly spoke out against this practice stating “As soon as a coin in the coffer rings, a soul from purgatory springs”.

1517AD Martin Luther authors 95 Thesis against deplorable practices in Church of Rome; later is excommunicated by church leaders and founds Lutheran Church. Efforts officially started movement known as Protestant Reformation.

1521AD Edict of Worms banned all Lutheran teachings within the Holy Roman Empire

William Tyndale (circa 1494 - October 6, 1536) translated the Bible into the Early Modern English of his day. Tyndale's translation was the first to take advantage of the new medium of print, which allowed for its wide distribution. In October 1536, he was killed by strangulation and later burned at the stake by Church of Rome

John Calvin publishes "Institutes of the Christian Religion" (1536)

Council of Trent (1545-1563): The Council of Trent began what is known as the Catholic Counter-Reformation (See Satan's Counterfeits: The Counter Reformation), which consisted of 25 Sessions in Trent, Italy. Those 25 Sessions accused and condemned all the doctrines of the Protestant Reformation. Anybody who believed that their salvation is outside the Catholic Church was accused, anathema; anybody who believed in justification by grace through faith-anathema, accused; anybody who believed that the Pope was not the Vicar of Christ-accused, anathema; anybody who rejected the pagan based writings in the Apocrypha as non-canonical was accused, anathema. In the 4th Session, under Pope Paul III and the newly formed Jesuit order, sanctioned the Inquisition and condemnation of free speech, free press, and free thought/conscience to thwart the growth of Protestantism. The bible particularly was under attack where in the fourth of ten rules set out by the Council it strictly prohibited anyone from reading or possessing a bible without prior license from his bishop or inquisitor. The article reads “That if any one shall dare to read or keep in his possession that book, without such a license, he shall not receive absolution till he has given it up to his ordinary.” This rule was followed by a bull by Pope Pius IV in which he declares that those who shall violate them shall be held guilty of mortal sin.

(1549-1612) Hugh Broughton of England resurrects from obscurity the theory of Porphyry (AD 233-c.) which asserts the fourth kingdom of Daniel 2 to the Hellenistic Empire and the Little Horn of Daniel 7 to Antiochus Epiphanes. This Antiochus Epiphanes theory has now become widespread among modernists, and is found in most critical commentaries including the Douay (Romish) Bible.

1558 Spanish Armada, Roman Church sponsored military effort (Pope Sixtus V considered it a crusade) to depose and conquer Protestant Queen, Elizabeth I with goal to convert England to Catholicism and ensure all future colonies were under Spanish (Roman Catholic) rule. God providentially caused a routing victory for England in the British Channel. The victory struck a blow against Spanish naval plans for world domination and empowered (Protestant) Britain to spread English as the global, universal language, in preparation for God’s last day message.

St. Bartholomew's Day Massacre (France) Aug 22, 1572: Catholics under the King of France, stage a trap for Protestants, particularly the noble heads of Protestantism in France to capture and massacre them. (Dan 7:25 beast persecutes the saints)

Pope Gregory XIII in a papal bull, Inter Gravissimas, on February 24, 1582 decrees the Gregorian calendar created by Aloysius Lilius, a physician from Naples. Non-Catholic countries accepted Gregorian calendar between the years 1700-1775AD. The Julian calendar had allowed too many leap years and was out of kilter with the solar system; and further the Christian Pash (Passover) was not aligned with the pagan feast of Ishtar (Easter). In order to rectify it, 10 days were dropped from the calendar in October of 1582 (1, 2, 3, 4, 15, 16, 17, 18...). Even though 10 days were dropped, the weekly cycle was not changed at all. The order of the days of the week remained the same. This fact is confirmed prophetically in that the changing of the calendar occurred during the period of the 2nd Woe noted in Revelation 9:14-15. The order in which time is stated (hour, day, month, year) is distinct and different than all other references in the bible, suggesting time has changed; yet, the prophecies contained within the account are fulfilled in the same manner.

The Edict of Nantes (1610) guaranteed religious freedom to all the French, which included the Protestant, Calvinist, and Huguenots; later revoked by Napoleon who began an onslaught of Huguenots. The revocation of the bible and religious freedom would later spark the French Revolution.

1618-1648 Thirty Year War fought primarily in Germany and primarily between Catholics (Italy) and Protestants (Lutherans); seen as one of the most destructive conflicts in European history.

1620 - English Pilgrims arrive in Plymouth, MA by way of Holland, seeking religious freedom from England that was in large part under the control of the papacy.

(d. 1621AD) Cardinal Bellarmine, ablest of the Jesuit controversialists, suggests that the Roman Church could not be the Little Horn because the Little Horn must arise after the fall of the divided Roman Empire. He ascribes the two legs of iron in the prophecy of Daniel 2 to the divided Eastern and Western Rome. He suggests that when the Western leg fell, the Eastern leg still stood, and when the Eastern Empire collapsed in 1451, the Western leg had by that time been restored in the form of the Holy Roman Empire – hence Rome had always had one leg on which to stand. Further he asserts Rome must be broken up before Antichrist appears, so the papacy could not be the Antichrist.

1633 Galileo was condemned by the Church of Rome for asserting the world was flat. He was arraigned by the Inquisition for asserting that the earth revolved around the sun because the Church of Rome asserted that the earth was the center of the universe.

1678 the papists, Richard Simon and Dr. Alexander Geddes, advocated doctrine of Higher Criticism, where supposed contemporary writings are critiqued against the bible to validate original authorship, authenticity, credibility and legitimacy. Gives men a means to criticize and invalidate scriptural truth.

1694 Bank of England established, instituting a credit system based on debt that has become prevalent throughout the world. Taxes imposed on US colonies due to huge deficit created by Bank was a major reason for American Revolution

Educated men united against the bible and God. Philosophy had its renaissance where philosopher Descartes' body, dead for over 100yrs was exhumed and buried in Pantheon among great French thinkers (Pantheon in Greek means "temple of all the gods"). The prophetic Beast from the Abyss arose during this event and gave birth to the following dogmas: Transformism, Religious Skepticism, Eroticism, Humanism, Romanticism, Pantheism

1838 Josiah Litch, a Methodist Episcopal Preacher, using prophecy of Rev 9:15 and day-year principle, predicts the fall of the Muslim Ottoman Empire to the day (August 11, 1840)

1838-1840 Era prophetically spoken of as the “Distress of Nations” (Luke 21:25) where the nations of the world were grappling with the means to deal with Islam that was reigniting its jihad against the European nations, no longer through Turkey that had waged war for nearly four centuries, but through Muslim Egypt’s financial funding and Saudi Arabian (Wahabian) military might. This is a spiritual parallel to the end time “Nations were Angry” (Revelation 11:18), as a result of radical Islam who again waged war against the nations of the earth on September 11, 2001.

August 11, 1840: 391 yrs and 15 day prophecy of Rev 9:15 (6th trumpet) is completed, ending the Ottoman (Turkish) Empire. The four European nations (Austria, England, Russia, Prussia) came together to place a check on Egypt which sought to promote the Islamic warfare once waged by the Turkish Ottoman Empire. Fulfillment of this prophecy gave great credence to the early Millerite Movement and the day-year principle for time prophecy. This was Holy Fire, the manifestation of God, for the Millerite Movement, characterized prophetically by the church of Philadelphia (Rev 3:7-13). This day marks the event of the Angel from heaven coming down with the little book of Daniel open of which John was to eat, being sweet to the taste but bitter in his stomach (Rev 10:1-3). The Angel that descends, Jesus Himself, proclaims that prophetic time would be no longer following the Great Disappointment which was shortly to occur. The date also marks the restraining of the four angels from the river Euphrates that were let loose in Revelation 9:13, 14 that symbolized Islam.

January 18, 1842 William E. Foy received several visions relating to the soon coming of Jesus that convinced him of the Advent movement. He would write “the duty to declare the things which had thus been shown me, to my fellow creatures, and warn them to flee from the wrath to come, rested with great weight upon my mind.”

May 1842 Boston General Conference Camp Meeting opened with Joseph Bates at the helm. The Advent message is preached with force and 500-600 people were converted to God during it and a second camp meeting held that year.

1842 Maria Hersey, a teen of 18 accepts the Advent message and on a trip to Schenectady, NY among an audience opposed to women preaching, her father is asked to preach but finds himself speechless. Maria shortly takes the stand and the response is so overwhelming that they have to move to a larger auditorium. Several men are converted who become Advent preachers.

History & the Bible: HIS-Story

May 1842 Charles Fitch, by inspiration of the Holy Spirit, publishes the first of two charts/tables that represent the prophecies of Daniel and Revelation, the doctrine of the Advent Movement as noted in the book of Habakkuk 2:1-3. When the chart was preached by William Miller in June of the same year, this caused the organized Protestant churches to reject the 1st Angel's message (the Judgment of God is soon to come upon the earth) of the ardent Adventist believers within their congregations, bringing in the 2nd Angel's message to flee from Babylon. The rejection of the mainline churches was providential in that it caused a division, forcing Adventist believers to leave the mainline church ranks (come out of her my people) in order to continue promoting their strong conviction of Christ's soon return. After the disappointment of 1844, this separation also gave faithful Adventist believers the independence to "prophecy again" without the derision and criticism as members of the scoffing mainline churches

November 1842 - Joshua V. Himes publishes first edition of the Midnight Cry periodical used to spread the Advent message.

Mid 1843 northern white Adventists commission through monetary funds, John W. Lewis, an esteemed colored preacher, to work full-time "among the much neglected class of our bretheren, with whom he is most closely connected."

March 22, 1844 - Aug 12, 1844 "Tarrying Time" disappointment (Habakkuk 2:3), where people studying the prophecies of Daniel misinterpreted the anticipated 2nd Coming of Christ and searched the scriptures and saw the error in their calculation, which directed them to October 22, 1844. Event helped to separate the tare from the wheat, those who were sincere in awaiting the 2nd Coming of Christ.

May 1844 - Riots erupted in Philadelphia, PA where Protestants battled Catholics when the School Board permitted Catholic students to read from a Catholic version of the Bible in school. Days of riots and church burnings occurred.

Early 1844 Joseph Bates visits the Southern states to spread the Advent Message. Since many northerners and most Adventists were abolitionists, he and his message were viewed with skepticism. By February 1844 Joshua V. Himes, an ardent Adventist publisher working with Miller reported that "many of the colored people have received the doctrine" in Philadelphia.

August 12, 1844 (Midnight Cry - 7th Month of Jewish calendar - 7th Month Movement) Camp Meeting in Exeter NH where through diligent study and revelation by the Holy Spirit, it was understood the start date of the decree by Artexerxes to be in the fall of 457BC, the commencement of the 2300days according to Daniel 8:14. Here at this camp meeting, the exact date of October 22, 1844 was first preached to be the exact day of the Second Coming of Christ. Based on new prophetic light (understanding of the dates) brought forth by Samuel Snow, an obscure Advent preacher, the attendees over the next 66 days spread the message to the entire U.S. by the power of the Holy Spirit. The original, prominent Advent ministers, Joshua Himes, William Miller, Charles Fitch and others were slow to understand and embrace this new light but in time came to see it as the blessed fulfillment of the prophecy of Matthew 25.

*Oct 22, 1844 Prophetic Millerite Movement's Great Disappointment occurs when prophecies of Daniel 8:13, 14 and Rev 10:8-11 were misinterpreted to mean Christ's 2nd Coming rather than the beginning of the heavenly Investigative Judgment. The going forth of the gospel message spoken of as a mystery (Eph 1:9, 10; Col 4:3; Eph 3:3, 6), is to be shortly completed after this date according to the 7th trumpet of Revelation 10:7. End of the 2nd of 3 "woes" spoken of in Rev 8:13; Rev 11:14. Beginning of the 3rd woe Rev 11:15, 18, 19. Nations angry, wrath of God and judgment of dead occur in sequential order; 3rd woe continues until end of 1000yrs with destruction of wicked; 7th trumpet sounds; Spiritual Israel's exodus from Spiritual Babylon. Jesus proclaims prophetic time would be no more (Revelation 10:6). Prophetically, Jesus leaves the Holy Place in the heavenly sanctuary and enters the Most Holy Place (door closes – end of probation for Millerite Adventism – church of Philadelphia), riding upon the clouds of heaven (Luke 21:27; Daniel 7:13) to begin an Investigative Judgment – Antitypical Day of Atonement! God enters into covenant with a denominated people who “keep the commands of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ”. God provides a prophet that guides Spiritual Israel out of Egypt and preserves them (Hosea 12:13).

1846AD - King Charles Albert of Savoy granted Waldenses full civil and religious freedom.

1848 B.F. Westcott and F.J.A Hort, in disguise as Protestants, were self-professed Darwinists and spiritualists: rejected the idea of the infallibility of the bible, rejected substitutionary atonement as “immoral”, rejected the divinity of Christ; believed in purgatory and communication with the dead, advocated Mariolatry, and denied the historicity of Genesis 1 through 3. These two men re-wrote the bible in Greek, based on the Roman codexes, including the Codex Sinaiticus, with the intent of circulating an esoteric bible (for general and common use) [in England] that opposed the Textus Receptus. Their translation has become the basis for ALL MODERN TRANSLATIONS. Later the two would find a club called the “Ghostly Guild” that explored the supernatural and ghost appearances. The club, focused on telepathy, clairvoyance, etc., under Westcott, Hort, Lightfoot and Edward White Benson, the future Archbishop of Canterbury, would evolve into the Society for Psychical Research in 1882. Both Westcott and Lightfoot went on to become Bishops and Hort a Professor of Divinity at Cambridge University. The Society for Psychical Research gave birth and remains the University for Modern Day Spiritualism where medium ship has moved to channeling. Hort and Westcott formed a secret society club called the “Apostles Club” that would have rites of secrecy and initiations similar to Masonry.

1850 John Henry Newman (1801-1890), a member of the Anglican Church and the Oxford Movement in England writes “Letter on Anglican Difficulties” disparaging Protestantism as the Antichrist and advocating Futurist interpretation of prophecy. Later converts to Catholicism and becomes a Cardinal

1850 Charles Fitch and Apollos Hill publish the second chart/table by inspiration of the Holy Spirit, referenced in Habakkuk 2:1-3 that corrects the errors made by Early Adventist believers that God prophetically foreordained according to Revelation 10:8-11. The corrections to the original 1843 chart include a reference to the heavenly sanctuary, a doctrine unknown and unrevealed until after the disappointment, the Third Angel’s message of Revelation 14, the image to the Beast according to the 3rd Angel.

1855 criminal attorney Abraham Lincoln successfully defends in court, Charles Chiniquy, a former Catholic Priest who was being railroaded by Jesuits in Chicago and St. Louis. Lincoln became a “marked” man after this incident.

1859 John Nelson Darby, a member of the Plymouth Brethren in England strongly advocated Pre-Tribulation Rapture followed by one man Antichrist. Known as the Father of Dispensationalism; Dispensationalism is the theory that God deals with mankind in major dispensations or periods (seven). According to Darby, we are now in the “Church Age,” that is, until the Rapture. After the Rapture, then the seven year period of Daniel 9:27 will supposedly kick in and this is when the Antichrist will rise up against the Jews.

1880's Institution of Civil Time in the U.S. and Canada by the railroads to standardize time keeping. Conversion marked a change in the counting of the hours of a day as historically kept by Jews from sunset to sunset. In modern usage, civil time refers to statutory time scales designated by civilian authorities, or to local time indicated by clocks. Modern civil time is generally standard time at a fixed offset from Coordinated Universal Time (UTC) or from GMT, possibly adjusted by daylight saving time during part of the year. Other changes spawned by Industrialization included Consumerism, Commercialism and the resulting decline in religion as a stronghold of U.S. culture.

May 15, 1891 Pope Leo XII pens encyclical Rerum Novarum which aligns the Roman church-state with the proletariat, which in Marxism is the great final enemy of the capitalist order. other forces that made Fundamentalists feel as if the country were heading in the wrong direction. The response was that Fundamentalists became more politically engaged and advocated their religious position through the political mainstream. Pat Robertson, James Robison, Billy Graham and Jerry Falwell's Moral Majority group emerged. The term "Fundamentalism" would be replaced by "Evangelical" in the 1970's when radical followers of Islam were first labeled as Fundamentalists.

1929 Mussolini and Cardinal Gasparri reinstated the Papal power through a $30M financial grant to the Catholic Church and a land grant, now known as Vatican City, under the Lateran Treaty. Treaty established Vatican City as a nation, with a zip code, and governing authority. "The deadly wound was being healed." Ambassadors have been delegated to Vatican City since then. The healing would be complete with the image of the beast and complete world acknowledgement of the image. See Rev 13:11-18; 17:12-18; Daniel 11:40-43

*1929-1931 The USSR changed from the 7-day week to a 5-day week; in 1931 the changed to a 6-day week. The modified calendar was abandoned on June 26, 1940 and the 7-day week reintroduced the following day.

September 10, 1933 Catholic Church signs Reichskonkordat with Nazis. In the Concordat, the German government achieved a complete proscription of all clerical interference in the political field (articles 16 and 32). It also ensured the bishops' loyalty to the state by an oath and required all priests to be Germans and subject to German superiors. Most historians consider the Reichskonkordat an important step toward the international acceptance of Adolf Hitler's Nazi regime. A similar treaty was signed by Protestants around the same time but not with Jews.

April 7-9, 1942 – The National Association of Evangelicals is founded in the U.S. whose primary mission is to unify, serve and represent Evangelicals in the U.S. One of its core tenets is the cooperation of Evangelicals despite their differences. Another tenet is the recognition of constituent member groups in ministry. The group has served as a de facto "vetting agent" for mainline Christian denominations and the identifier of cults.

that point, love indeed becomes an "ecstasy", not in the sense of a fleeting moment of intoxication but as an ongoing exodus from the inward-looking self towards its liberation through self-giving, and thus towards self-discovery and the discovery of God: in this way the eros can uplift the human being "in ecstasy" towards the Divine."

February 2006 Christians United for Israel Movement (CUFI) started under John Hagee. Hagee and other Christian leaders form the "grassroots movement", though John Hagee is a prominent Christian Conservative member of the Republican party. The "grass root movement" has become the largest Christian community in America to date. Based on writings of Paul in Romans 9, 10 and 11 where Paul appeals to Jews to convert to Christianity, movement believes that Jewish nation will play a significant role in last day events prior to Christ's Second Coming. The doctrine is founded in the erred futurist interpretation of bible prophecy whose origin dates back to the Counter Reformation. This doctrine has significantly influenced the US's relations and economic, military, political and social support of the Jewish nation of Israel. (see www.cufi.org). Hagee, in a concession to Catholics claiming he issues "hate speech" towards their church, states: "When I refer to the 'great whore,' I am referring to the apostate church, namely those Christians who embrace the false cult system of Jew-hatred and anti-Semitism."

July 7, 2009 Pope Benedict XVI issues encyclical calling for a "world political authority" to manage the global economy. He says such an authority would have to be "regulated by law" and "would need to be universally recognized and to be vested with the effective power to ensure security for all, regard for justice, and respect for rights." Obviously it would have to have the authority to ensure compliance with its decisions from all parties, and also with the coordinated measures adopted in various international forums.

November 21, 2009 America Magazine, a Jesuit publication on the eve of the enactment of the Lisbon Treaty writes: "Herman Van Rompuy (president of European Union), is, in short, a bearer of the torch first lit by the Catholic architects of European unity — De Gasperi, Schuman, [and] Adenauer — who, like Van Rompuy, were all Christian Democrats for whom faith and Europe went together." Suggesting the agenda of these world leaders is more than political but religious as well.
