THE OLD TESTAMENT

Genesis

Gen 1:1

Back to Table of Contents

Gen 1:1 - In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. - Utilizing the literary style of Summary Followed by Detail, the LORD, through Moses, summarizes the entire creation story in one verse. The balance of Gen chapters 1 and 2 are dedicated to providing the details of this one verse. If you Learn the principles of the Bible, you will understand the entire Bible. The creation story is one that reveals the works of an Almighty, All Knowing, All Loving, Intelligent Creator. It is to be embraced by faith by all who profess the name of Jesus Christ. See Heb 11:3 Faith in God and His Word presents a different standard by which we are to evaluate and understand all truths, whether in the natural or the spiritual. The Christian rejects evolutionary theories of the origins of the earth and universe because they do not agree with Biblical truth. Geology attempts to explain natural origins and establish chronologies based on faulty tools for measuring time. It fails because of the very principle mentioned in Heb 11:3, that the things which are seen have not come from pre-existing matter but were called forth in their day from the mouth of the All-Powerful Creator of the heavens and the earth. Science attempts to mark the age of matter, but again fails due to its inability to understand apparent age; the fact that God called things into existence in their complete and perfected form, without millions of years of evolutionary processes. Consider that the ground upon which Adam stood, the day in which he was created, was not millions of years old but rather, only three days old (see Gen 1:9-31). Consider that all things, animate and inanimate were made in their complete form when called forth by the word of God. Adam himself was made in God's image and likeness, a complete adult from his creation. Such are mysteries to modern science but accepted truths and principles for the one that walks by faith. Verses Highlighting the Creation: Ps 104; 148; Isa 40:21-26; 42:5; 45:1-18; Eph 3:9; Col 1:12-20; Rev 4:11, 10:5, 6

Gen 1:1

Gen 1:1 - God created the heaven and the earth - Creative power is the distinguishing mark of divinity. Jesus Christ, Who is God, is responsible for the Creation on behalf of His Father. Similarly, the same creative power exercised by Christ is redemptive power unto salvation. (Joh 1:1-3, 14, 10:30; Col 1:14, 16, 17; Heb 1:2, 3, 5, 8, 10) There is a constant effort to explain creation as the result of natural causes, and human reasoning is accepted even by professed Christians in opposition to Scripture facts. Many oppose the investigation of the prophecies, especially Dan and the Rev, declaring that we cannot understand them. Yet these very persons eagerly receive the suppositions of geologists in contradiction of the Mosaic record. Just how God accomplished the work of creation He has never revealed to men; human science cannot search out the secrets of the Most High. - {EP 66.2} See Deut 29:29; Isa 55:9 There has been a great deal of idle speculation as to which is the greater, redemption or creation. Many have thought that redemption is a greater work than creation. Such speculation is idle, because only infinite power could perform either work, and infinite power cannot be measured by human minds. But while we cannot measure the power, we can easily settle the question of which is the greater, because the Scriptures give us the information. Neither is greater than the other, for both are the same. Redemption is creation. Redemption is the same power that was put forth in the beginning to create the world and all that is in it, now put forth to save men and the earth from the curse of sin. {The Gospel of Creation by E.J. Waggoner} Creative works were completed demonstrating the cycle of 7 - God is God of completeness, thoroughness and perfection - Creation follows this principle - whatever God started, He's going to complete it (7-days). The same with redemption, just as God started it, He will complete that which He started (7000years) - we can bank on Him that He will perfect those things which concern us (Ps 138:8)

Gen 1:2 - And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep - Man is attempting to explain a mystery, shown by inspiration of God but yet not fully conceived, in words too feeble to explain the infinite. Moses suggests a primordial earth without form and void, yet, man's limitation to understand and therefore, even more limited ability to explain that which is hardly understood, must be understood by the heart and mind of faith. God has been pleased to communicate His truth to the world by human agencies, and He Himself, by His Holy Spirit, qualified men and enabled them to do this work. He guided the mind in the selection of what to speak and what to write. The treasure was entrusted to earthen vessels, yet it is, nonetheless, from Heaven. The testimony is conveyed through the imperfect expression of human language, yet it is the testimony of God; and the obedient, believing child of God beholds in it the glory of a divine power, full of grace and truth. - {GC vi.3}

Gen 1:2

Gen 1:2 - Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters - The Holy Spirit moved upon the primordial waters, awaiting the spoken Word, so that He might bring power and life to the barren earth (Joh 1:3). Similarly, the Spirit of God moves upon the masses of people, awaiting to bring light and (eternal) life, once the written Word of God is spoken (faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word of God - Rom 10:17), directing all to the Living Word, Jesus. Joh 1:4, 5; Ps 33:6; 119:130

Gen 1:3

Gen 1:3 - And God said, Let there be light: and there was light - the act of God calling forth light from the darkness did not involve any evolutionary processes. According to the apostle Paul: For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart (Heb 4:12). We must believe that what God pronounces for us is made effectual and is furnished with ample power to be accomplished immediately, by faith. As Jesus commanded the once blind man when pronouncing His blessing of sight, "According to your faith be it unto you" Mt 9:29 This is not given as an example of how the Lord spoke the earth into existence in the beginning, for we cannot know how He did it, but it will serve to help us to grasp the fact.

Man is made in the image of God, but he has no creative power. In his breath there can be only the forms of living things; but in the breath of God there are not only the forms, but the very living things themselves, for He is the living God, and with Him is "the fountain of life." When He speaks, the word which names the thing, contains the very thing itself. Whatever the word describes exists in living form in that word. {The Gospel of Creation by E.J. Waggoner}

Gen 1:3 - Let there be light - Outer space is not really darkness but light. As Creation advances, God continues to turn on light switch after light switch - The source of the light is Jesus Himself - Jesus is the Light of the World - God gave Himself on the 1st Day of Creation - Light before the sun depends wholly upon God. See Joh 8:12, 9:5

Gen 1:3

Gen 1:3 - and there was light - See Ps 36:9

Gen 1:4

Gen 1:4 - God saw the light that it was good - See Joh 1:5, 9

Gen 1:5

Gen 1:5 - And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night - God gave names to the daily periods of light and darkness, Day and Night respectively.

Gen 1:5

Gen 1:5 - evening and the morning were the first day - God establishes the ordinance of time in separating the light from the darkness, and giving them a defined period, called a day. From the Bible's account, this is the first instance of measurable time described and it is for this creation, the earth and its "universe". United States railroad companies began utilizing Fleming's standard time zones on November 18, 1883. In 1884 an International Prime Meridian Conference was held in Washington D.C. to standardize time and select the prime meridian. The conference selected the longitude of Greenwich, England as zero degrees longitude and established the 24 time zones based on the prime meridian. Although the time zones had been established, not all countries switched immediately. Though most U.S. states began to adhere to the Pacific, Mountain, Central, and Eastern time zones by 1895, Congress didn't make the use of these time zones mandatory until the Standard Time Act of 1918. <https://www.thoughtco.com/what-are-time-zones-1435358> Commercial lighting was not available until after 1880 and therefore for nearly 5880 years the world used natural light, gas/fuel lamps for lighting. Work was primarily confined to daylight hours and dusk till dawn was family and sleep time A "day": 1. Literal 24hour period - Gen 1 2. 1000years - 2Pet 3:8 3. 1day=1prophetic day=1year (Num 14:33, 34; Ezek 4:6) 4. Indefinite period - the day that the Lord made (Gen 2:4)

Gen 1:6

Gen 1:6 - firmament in the midst of the heavens - God establishes fixed bounds above the waters upon the earth and beneath the earths upper atmosphere where life would be sustained. See Prov 8:27-29; Col 1:17 Air is a symbol of the Holy Spirit - Joh 3:8 - the wind comes, you know it is there though you can not see it - Atmosphere, we can not see the molecules but yet it gives life - God is telling the story of Himself that He will re-tell in other areas of the Bible

Gen 1:7

Gen 1:7 - divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament - the upper atmosphere of the earth is made up of various gases combined with water. The waters under the breathable atmosphere speaks of the rivers, lakes and seas upon the earth.

Gen 1:7

Gen 1:7 - and it was so - "and thus it came to pass"

Gen 1:8

Gen 1:8 - God called the firmament heaven - The Lord uses the word "heaven" to define three distinct entities (see Ps 115:16): 1. Earth's atmosphere and the sky (Gen 1:8, 20; Job 38:29) - atmospheric heaven 2. Outer Space (Gen 15:5, 1:14-19) - stellar or planetary heaven 3. Heaven of heavens where God Himself dwells with the heavenly hosts (Neh 9:6; 2Cor 12:2). 3rd Heaven - God exists outside of time and space, beyond the sun, moon and stars

Gen 1:9

Gen 1:9 - Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear - The large masses of waters we call seas and oceans was once one large expanse that surrounded the dry land that the Lord called forth. So it remained until the former world was destroyed by a world-wide flood. See Prov 8:29; 2Pet 3:5-7

Gen 1:9

Gen 1:9 - and it was so - "and thus it came to pass"

Gen 1:10

Gen 1:10 - And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good - Jesus, the Mighty Angel (Rev 10:1-3) descends and places one foot on earth and sea - Christ is Master of Land and the Sea - All of Creation belongs to Him.

Gen 1:10

Gen 1:9 - Earth - The terraqueous globe which we inhabit. The earth is nearly spherical, but a little flatted at the poles, and hence its figure is called an oblate spheroid. It is one of the primary planets, revolving round the sun in an orbit which is between those of Venus and Mars. It is nearly eight thousand miles in diameter, and twenty five thousand miles in circumference. Its distance from the sun is about ninety five millions of miles, and its annual revolution constitutes the year of 365 days, 5 hours, and nearly 49 minutes.

Gen 1:10

Gen 1:10 - and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas - the term seas implies multiple seas present in the creation.

Gen 1:11

Gen 1:11 - Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind - the LORD has given command that the vegetation shall cover the earth and so this ordinance has remained for all generations. See Ps 119:89-91 Through His power vegetation flourishes, the leaves appear, and the flowers bloom. He “maketh grass to grow upon the mountains” (Ps 147:8), and by Him the valleys are made fruitful. “All the beasts of the forest ... seek their meat from God” (Ps 104:20, 21), and every living creature from the smallest insect to man is daily dependent upon His providential care. - {EP 67.5}

Gen 1:10 - the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind - the LORD establishes species and classes. The trees would be a place for birds to perch in time. See Ps 104:12 Every seed brings forth fruit after its kind. Sow the seed under right conditions, and it will develop its own life in the plant. Receive into the soul by faith the incorruptible seed of the word, and it will bring forth a character and a life after the similitude of the character and the life of God. [38] - {CSA 20.1}

Gen 1:11

Gen 1:11 - whose seed is in itself - God in His wisdom, devised a plan for species and classes of trees and vegetation to continually exist and repopulate themselves.

Gen 1:11

Gen 1:11 - and it was so - “and thus it came to pass”

Gen 1:12

Gen 1:12 - earth brought forth grass, herb yielding seed... tree yielding fruit - God called forth vegetation upon the earth with its seed within itself in order to self populate. The ordinance of vegetation filling the earth will continue uninterrupted until God says so! See Ps 104:14 Grass is a symbol of God’s people, trees are an example of leadership, flowers - we are compared to flowers that God adorns and takes care of. The God that created and sustains it will also sustain us. See Isa 40:7, 8

Gen 1:14

Gen 1:14 - And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years: - See Ps 33:6

Gen 1:14

Gen 1:14 - Lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night - the sun, the moon and the stars are created to perpetuate the ordinance of day and night. It is to be noted that vegetation, which requires light and warmth to grow and flourish were created before the creation of the sun, moon and stars. This is to affirm that all things that have life are made and sustained of God, not the heavenly bodies which He has created. See Ps 74:16, 17; Joh 1:4

Gen 1:14

Gen 1:14 - signs, seasons, days and years - the heavenly objects created would fulfill the purpose of shedding light upon the earth, marking time, the changing of seasons, and lastly for signs. Herein, God foretells the prophetic gift as something to be recognized as prominently as the sun, moon and stars. See Joel 2:31; Lk 1:70; Act 3:21; Isa 8:18

Gen 1:14

Gen 1:14 - for days and years - "In the context of eternity, "time" is the result of sin. It is but a little interruption in eternity and would never have come into being except because of sin. It had a "beginning" and it has an "end." It is the sin era between infinite past and infinite future." When the Plan of Redemption is completed, the sun will not even have a purpose because the abiding Christ and Father, Who dwell with men, will be the light to lighten the world. See Rev 21:21, 22 Excerpt From: Donald Karr Short. "Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed." iBooks. This material may be protected by copyright.

Gen 1:16

Gen 1:16 - And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also - The sun the greater light, would rule the day and the moon, the lesser light, would rule the night.

Gen 1:16

Gen 1:16 - he made the stars also - See Ps 147:4

Gen 1:18

Gen 1:18 - and to divide the light from the darkness: - that which God originally performed and regulated, He continues to do, however, through the delegation of the sun, moon and stars. See Gen 1:4, 5

Gen 1:20

Gen 1:20 - Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life - Not until God had established an atmosphere where life could be sustained and Seas would He call forth sea creatures.

Gen 1:20

Gen 1:20 - fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven - Not until God had established an atmosphere to sustain life, vegetation for food and trees upon which birds could perch, would he bring forth the fowl of the air.

Gen 1:21

Gen 1:21 - after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good - God created species of birds and sea creatures that would reproduce after their kind and He made them so... it was good. When God ordains things to reproduce after its kind, we see a foretaste of the Image of God - everything after its kind

Gen 1:22

Gen 1:22 - God blessed them - God bestowed the gift of procreation to the sea creatures and winged birds. This gift was not even bestowed upon the angels. See Mt 22:29, 30; Ps 84:3 Life did not have to struggle to survive but all things were adequately made provision for [air, food, light, warmth, etc.] - God makes provision for success, not failure.

Gen 1:24

Gen 1:24 - cattle, creeping thing, beast of the earth - God established all living creatures that dwelt upon the earth and differentiated them by type: 1. Cattle - "clean" land dwelling animals, eventually "good" for food (Gen 30:27; Lev 11; Deut 14:3-21) 2. Beasts of the Earth - all other, "unclean", non-edible animals that clean the earth (See Jer 15:3) 3. Creeping things See Gen 7:2; Lev 20:25

Gen 1:24

Gen 1:24 - creeping thing - bugs, insects, amphibians (lizards, frogs, snails), rodents (squirrel, rabbit, mice, etc.)

Gen 1:25

Gen 1:25 - And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good - Animals were created in pairs, but mankind was initially made by himself so that he would realize he was by himself - man was supposed to appreciate woman in a way that animals do not appreciate their mates. We were to be viewed apart from the rest of the animal kingdom, we had a relationship with God that the animals did not. Animals were to procreate and fill the world after their kind

Gen 1:26

Gen 1:26 - And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: - The Godhead took part in the first "Small Group" Ministry when they came together to perform the Creation. This is a Biblical principle established for the Lord. Small groups are an effective way of getting great works done. Adam was to be a type of the Godhead, bearing It's image and likeness and having dominion even as the Lord has dominion. See Rom 5:14 All heaven took a deep and joyful interest in the creation of the world and of man. Human beings were a new and distinct order. They were made "in the image of God," and it was the Creator's design that they should populate the earth. They were to live in close communion with heaven, receiving power from the Source of all power. Upheld by God, they were to live sinless lives. [1] - {SD 7.2} Next to the angelic beings, the human family, formed in the image of God, are the noblest of His created works.—The Review and Herald, December 3, 1908. - {TA 48.2} God created man a superior being; he alone is formed in the image of God, and is capable of partaking of the divine nature, of cooperating with his Creator and executing His plans. [3] - {SD 7.4} When Adam came from the Creator's hand, he bore, in his physical, mental, and spiritual nature, a likeness to his Maker. "God created man in His own image" (Gen 1:27), and it was His purpose that the longer man lived the more fully he should reveal this image—the more fully reflect the glory of the Creator. All his faculties were capable of development; their capacity and vigor were continually to increase. Vast was the scope offered for their exercise, glorious the field opened to their research. The mysteries of the visible universe—the "wondrous works of Him which is perfect in knowledge" (Job 37:16)—invited man's study. Face-to-face, heart-to-heart communion with his Maker was his high privilege. {Ed 15.1}

Gen 1:26

Gen 1:26 - God - "Elohim" - a plural word used to refer to a plural "Strong Authority", a reference to the One True God.

Gen 1:26

Gen 1:26 - Let Us - God here refers to themselves in the plural. We see here the conversation among Father, Son and Holy Spirit to create ones to reflect Their glory in a special manner. See Gen 3:22; Ps 8:4-9

Gen 1:26

Gen 1:26 - after Our image - man was to reflect the image (characteristics of God): Col 3:10; 2Cor 3:18; Rom 8:29 1. Having feelings and emotions like God 2. In harmony with God From the first dawn of reason the human mind should become intelligent in regard to the physical structure of the body. Here Jehovah has given a specimen of himself; for man was made in the image of God.—Unpublished Testimonies, January 11, 1897. - {HL 9.2} “To bear God’s image means that we aren’t like robots, mindlessly doing God’s will. We aren’t like animals, doing God’s will instinctively. Neither are we slaves, doing God’s will because we don’t have the freedom to choose to do anything else. To be made in His image means that we were not only created with the facility of choice but also with the power and freedom to exercise that choice in reference to God’s will.” {Surrender, G. Jackson, pg 19} The knowledge of God as revealed in Christ is the knowledge that all who are saved must have. This is the knowledge that works transformation of character. Received into the life, it will re-create the soul in the image of Christ. This is the knowledge that God invites His children to receive, beside which all else is vanity and nothingness. - {AA 475.1}

Gen 1:26

Gen 1:26 - after Our likeness - man was to be an intelligent social being that would have a mind that would, reason, understand, conceptualize, make/create. As Adam came forth from the hand of his Creator, he was of noble height, and of beautiful symmetry. He was more than twice as tall as men now living upon earth, and was well proportioned. His features were perfect and beautiful. His complexion was neither white, nor sallow, but ruddy, glowing with the rich tint of health. Eve was not quite as tall as Adam. Her head reached a little above his shoulders. She, too, was noble—perfect in symmetry, and very beautiful.—Spiritual Gifts 3:34 (1864). - {LDE 291.4}

Gen 1:26

Gen 1:26 - let them have dominion - Just as God has dominion over all of heaven and earth and everything therein, He desired to have a set of beings who shared in the privilege and responsibilities of having dominion over a creation. Man was honored to be granted dominion over all of earth's creatures [Adam named the animals] and the earth itself [Adam was to tend and keep the earth]. See Gen 2:15, 20; Ps 8:4-9. Heb 1:1-14, 2:6-8; Ps 103:19 A king is one who wears a crown. God made man and crowned him with honour and glory (Ps 8:5). God made man to be a king, bearing a crown of glory to rule over the earth and everything in it. Man’s glory was to have the abiding presence of God’s Spirit within Him and to reflect God’s character (Ex 34:5-8) to all the universe. Mt 25:34 Adam was made to be the vassal king, a vicegerent over the earth with God bearing the Suzerainty over heaven and earth. This is seen in the Lord’s model prayer which reads “Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, On earth AS IT IS IN HEAVEN.” Similarly, the prophet Daniel, when speaking of God’s authority in appointing kings upon the earth including Nebuchadnezzar wrote: “that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men” (Dan 4:17) .Adam bore autonomy over the earth but would recognize God’s Sovereignty over all things as a vassal, subordinate king. The principle that the servant is not greater than his lord (Joh 13:16, 15:20) is made plain in the fall of man. When Adam and Eve died spiritually, the entire creation would be subjected to mortality as both Adam and Eve were subjected to it. Therefore, Adam’s Spiritual Life which was eternal, enabled the sustenance of eternal life among all of earth’s inhabitants. The converse is true as well. See Rom 8:20-22; 1Cor 15:21, 22

Gen 1:27

Gen 1:27 - So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them - the man was the appointed representative of God on earth. God created man in two steps 1. Formed of the dust of the earth 2. Breathed His Spirit into mankind It is the breath of life that was breathed into mankind that made man into God's image and likeness. This is in contrast to the rest of creation that was spoken into existence. See Ps 33:6

Gen 1:27

Gen 1:27 - male and female created He them - God made both male and female to be in His image. Both were to bear characteristics that were similar and yet distinct. However, their union and cooperation were to be a reflection of the unity that exists in the Godhead.

Gen 1:28

Gen 1:28 - God blessed them - God again bestowed the gift of procreation to mankind that He had similarly bestowed upon the sea creatures, birds of the air and land dwelling animals. God created man for His own glory, that after test and trial the human family might become one with the heavenly family. It was God's purpose to repopulate heaven with the human family.—The S.D.A. Bible Commentary 1:1082. - {TA 48.7} The vacancies made in heaven by the fall of Satan and his angels will be filled by the redeemed of the Lord.—The Review and Herald, May 29, 1900. - {TA 49.1} Satan has an accurate knowledge of the sins that he has tempted God's people to commit, and he urges his accusations against them, declaring, that by their sins they have forfeited divine protection, and claiming that he has the right to destroy them. He pronounces them just as deserving as himself of exclusion from the favor of God. "Are these," he says, "the people who are to take my place in heaven, and the place of the angels who united with me? They profess to obey the law of God; but have they kept its precepts? Have they not been lovers of self more than lovers of God? Have they not placed their own interests above His service? Have they not loved the things of the world? Look at the sins that have marked their lives. Behold their selfishness, their malice, their hatred of one another. Will God banish me and my angels from His presence, and yet reward those who have been guilty of the same sins? Thou canst not do this, O Lord, in justice. Justice demands that sentence be pronounced against them." - {PK 588.3}

Gen 1:28

Gen 1:28 - Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth - these three statements are all parallel, to be fruitful - to procreate, to multiply and to replenish with ones of like kind. God instructed Adam and Eve to recreate with the same life (breath of life) that includes the presence of His divine Spirit, and in the perfect image He created them. The earth was to be populated by a race of individuals filled with the Spirit of God who all perfectly reflected the divine character, and lived to fulfill God's divine will. This was God's original plan. Eph 2:10

Gen 1:28

Gen 1:28 - replenish the earth - Adam and Eve were created to replenish the earth with holy beings like unto themselves, filled with the Spirit of God. God's eternal purpose will be fulfilled through the mystery of God, Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col 1:25-29; Rev 10:7; Mt 25:34

Gen 1:28

Gen 1:28 - subdue it - regulate, govern, control and maintain the earth and its inhabitants.

Man was to dress, keep, replenish and subdue the earth by the power of the Spirit of God that abode within him. See Gen 1:28, 2:5, 15

Gen 1:28

Gen 1:28 - and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth - A king is one who wears a crown. God made man and crowned him with honour and glory (Ps 8:5). God made man to be a king, bearing a crown of glory to rule over the earth and everything in it. See Ps 8:4-9; Mt 25:34; Dan 7:27

Gen 1:29

Gen 1:29 - given you every herb bearing seed - the herb of the field and fruit were the original diet of humanity and all the animals.

Gen 1:31

Gen 1:31 - God saw everything... it was very good - The Creation of God He beheld and it was very good. Nothing more could be done that was not done. All was perfect and as planned. See Eccl 3:14 In the day the Lord made the heavens and earth, He saw that which He had made, and behold, it was very good (Gen 1:31). He made the earth to be inhabited and filled by things that are very good (Gen 1:28). This was and is His divine purpose and plan, and it will be fulfilled. See Isa 45:18, 14:24, 46:9, 10, 55:11; Num 14:21, 23:19; 2Tim 2:13; Titus 1:2

Gen 1:31

Gen 1:31 - And the evening and the morning were the sixth day - the repetition of evening and morning with each day of creation, revealed in the daily cycle of the sun, moon and stars, is to make it known that a 24-hour period was employed for each day of creation and not an indefinite period of time.

Gen 2:1

Gen 2:1 - Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them - Everything that was to be made had been made in the six days of creation. See Heb 11:3; Job 38:4-7

Gen 2:2

Gen 2:2 - And on the seventh day - God ordained that the seventh day, the seventh rotation of the earth, be for man to pursue rest in Him, even as He Himself rested from His labors over 6-days in the week. See Mk 2:27, 28 "For those who may be perplexed as to how a Sabbath in heaven fits into this concept [eternity with no time], it must be noted that the Sabbath was "made" at the end of the sixth rotation of the earth. On the seventh rotation "God ended His work which He had made and He rested on the seventh day." Each rotation was and is identical. It was and is only the word of the Lord that said every seventh rotation will be "blessed" and "sanctified." This was not dependent upon a "time" factor as such. It depended then and still depends solely upon the word of the Lord. The Word and the word of the Lord are eternal." Excerpt From: Donald Karr Short. "Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed." iBooks. Gen 2:2

Gen 2:2 - ended His work which He had made - God's work was that of creation, forming all things by the power of His Word and by His hands. The end of His work was to create a day for man to engage in that which he was created to do, to worship God - this marked the end of God's work. See Joh 1:1-4; Isa 43:7; Rev 4:11

Gen 2:2 - rested on the seventh day - God rested and was refreshed on the seventh-day (Ex 31:17). God is a Spirit (Joh 4:24) and all who worship Him must worship Him in Spirit and in truth. The rest that God rested on the Sabbath is a spiritual rest, and so our rest must be spiritual as well (1Jo 5:11-14). The refreshing that God received was Him delighting in the finished works and the joy in brought Him. See Isa 58:13; Heb 4:9, 10; 1Jo 2:3-6 All who love Jesus will follow in His footsteps, resting and being refreshed on the seventh day as per His commandment. See Ex 20:8-11, 31:17; Joh 14:15; Mt 16:24; Lk 4:16; Isa 58:13 The Lord neither sleeps nor slumbers, nor does He grow weary, yet He leads by example: Isa 40:28; Ps 121:4; 1Cor 11:1 Rest in God - Trust in His finished redemption: 2Cor 5:18, 19; Mt 25:34; Heb 4:3 Rest with God - Our walk with God is a restful one as we trust in His power to keep us from falling - Rom 6:6-8; Ps 23; Isa 32:17; Jude 1:24; 1Pet 5:7 Mankind began his first full day on earth resting, not working - we think of rest as a session of work or rather rest because of tiredness from work - rest as a principle has more to do with relationship than with work - relationship with one another and relationship with God - Rest principle reflected in Heb 4: entering into God's rest - The Hebrew's never entered into God's rest because they lacked faith - they depended on their own works - The creation was one of the big statements on Righteousness by Faith - true rest is all about relationship with God and with one another - If we live a life of rest, we will get more work done.

Gen 2:3

Gen 2:3 - blessed the seventh day - God pronounced special blessings upon the 24-hour period, making it sacred and holy. It is God's very presence throughout those hours which sanctify (hallow) the time (Ex 3:1-5) and wherein mankind may find his greatest blessings, being in the presence of the LORD (Ex 33:14; 1Chron 13:14). Though man was blessed on the sixth day, when he was created, He received additional blessings when he came to the Sabbath and experienced God's Rest, the Sabbath of the LORD. See Ps 16:11, 84:10;

Gen 2:3

Gen 2:3 - sanctified it - to set apart for holy uses and purposes. To hallow or make holy. All who honor God by keeping the Sabbath are sanctified by doing so. It is a sign that God abides and dwells in/among us and that He is our God and we are His people. See Ex 3:1-5, 31:13, 33:14-16; Eze 20:12; Isa 58:12-14; Rev 4:11

Gen 2:3

Gen 2:3 - because that in it He had rested from all His work - the acts of blessing and sanctifying the Sabbath day was in response to His resting from labor. In this we see an object lesson that with the cessation of work comes a blessing and sanctification. Therefore, Jesus, in counseling all to "Come, all ye who are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest... you shall find rest for your souls" (Mt 11:28), is giving the assurance of blessings and sanctification to all who rest from their efforts to save themselves and embrace His gracious gift of salvation. Further, God is a Spirit and all who worship Him must worship in Spirit and in Truth (Joh 4:23, 24). The rest that the LORD took was a spiritual rest and goes beyond the cessation of work. Again, it speaks of entering in to a relationship with Jesus such that we find rest in His completed works on our behalf.

Gen 2:4

Gen 2:4 - The Creation story describes the following about God: God is Love God is Caring
God is Sharing

Gen 2:4

Gen 2:4 - generations - towldah Noun Feminine to-led-aw' from (03205) or toldah {to-led-aw'}; from ; (plural only) descent, i.e. family; (figuratively) history:--birth, generations. descendants, results, proceedings, generations, genealogies account of men and their descendants genealogical list of one's descendants one's contemporaries course of history (of creation etc) begetting or account of heaven (metaph)

Gen 2:4

Gen 2:4 - in the day - indefinite time noted. See Isa 2:11, 17, 28:5; 29:18; 30:23 a day as 1 day (24hrs) - Gen 1 a day as 1 year - Eze 4:6; Num 14:33, 34 a day as 1000yrs - 2Peter 3:8 Time is an interruption in the eternity that existed before Lucifer's fall and the eternity that will resume once God puts an end to sin

Gen 2:5

Gen 2:5 - God had not caused it to rain upon the earth - not until the LORD purposed to destroy the earth by flood in the time of Noah, had it rained. See Gen 6:11-13, 17

Gen 2:5

Gen 2:5 and there was not a man to till the earth - the creation is a miraculous work of God that His sons accept by faith. There was no man on earth to behold the creation by design so that all, including Adam must choose to believe God and His Word. Adam was created to have the Spirit of God dwelling within. It was by the power of the Spirit of God that Adam would tend and keep the garden - See Heb 11:3

Gen 2:6

Gen 2:6 - But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground - the earth today still is watered by condensed water known as dew. However, the atmosphere has changed and the surface of the earth has vastly changed where we now have large parts of land that are arid and covered by rock or sand where once stood lush forests. The earth that then was is not the earth we know today. See 2Pet 3:6, 7

Gen 2:7

Gen 2:7 - And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul - "It is also important to note that mankind was created in two stages; first the body, then God's breath/Spirit. However, the body had no life until the Spirit of God was breathed into it. This denotes the fact that Adam and Eve were created to live by the power of the Spirit and not the flesh. Such was not the case with the living creatures: God did not form them, neither did God breathe His Spirit into them: God simply spoke them into existence (see Gen 1:20-25; Ps 33:6, 9). This denotes the fact that they lived by the power of the flesh." - {The Abiding in Jesus Bible Study #2 - The Truth About Life and Death - Part 1; by Gregory Jackson} See: John 6:63

Gen 2:7

Gen 2:7 - formed man of the dust of the ground - unlike all other creation that was called forth by the mouth of God, the Bible states that God formed man of the dust of the ground.

Later in the chapter, we are told that God took a rib from man and formed a woman. The act of forming man suggests a more intimate work than calling forth. Further, breathing His own breath into man similarly implies God's personal detailed (hands-on) attention given to the formation of man. God created man for His own glory, that after test and trial the human family might become one with the heavenly family. It was God's purpose to repopulate heaven with the human family.—The S.D.A. Bible Commentary 1:1082. - {TA 48.7}

Gen 2:7 - breathed into his nostrils the breath of life - (breath of lives) the lives of all humanity was contained in Adam from the creation. See Job 27:3, 33:4; Isa 42:5

Gen 2:7

Gen 2:7 - breath of life - God breathed in the breath of lives, the collective life of all humanity was breathed into the first Adam. All of the human race was given life through the one man Adam. Thus, the Second Adam too, must be a life quickening Spirit to give new life to all mankind. That which was breathed into Adam was not only the life giving power of God, but God's own Spirit. Since we are made in God's image and likeness, we also have a spiritual nature. See 1Cor 15:45; 1Cor 6:19||Joh 14:16-20

Gen 2:7

Gen 2:7 - man became a living soul - See Ps 66:8, 9 - only after God breathed the life giving breathe of the Holy Spirit into the lifeless form of man, fashioned of the dust of the ground did man become a "living soul" or living being (compare Ezekiel 37:1-10). Mathematically, the transaction is described: Body of Dust + Breath of Life = Living Soul Should either the body or breath be missing, man would cease to exist. God holds our soul (being) in life. See Ps 66:9 "We have been redeemed in order to fulfill the original purpose for which we were created. This is why Paul said in Christ we are a new creation. Therefore, the original purpose for the creation of mankind was for mankind to be the temple of the Holy Spirit. This is what it means to be a living soul; it is also what it means to be created in the image of God." {The 7th Day Sabbath, God's Finishing Work, by Gregory Jackson, pg 9} (1Cor 6:19, 20, 2Cor 5:17; Gen 2:7)

Gen 2:8

Gen 2:8 - And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed - If the follower of Christ will believe His Word and practice it, there is no science in the natural world that he will not be able to grasp and appreciate. There is nothing but that will furnish him means for imparting the truth to others. Natural science is a treasure house of knowledge from which every student in the school of Christ may draw. As we contemplate the beauty of nature, as we study its lessons in the cultivation of the soil, in the growth of the trees, in all the wonders of earth and sea and sky, there will come to us a new perception of truth. And the mysteries connected with God's dealings with men, the depths of His wisdom and judgment as seen in human life—these are found to be a storehouse rich in treasure. - {LHU 112.5}

Gen 2:8

Gen 2:8 - God planted a garden eastward in Eden - God was the first farmer and planted a garden, even before the creation of man. There is a principle here. We are to ensure we have food to eat before even our housing.

Gen 2:8

Gen 2:8 - Eden - Eden ay'-den the same as (05730) the same as (masculine); Eden, the region of Adam's home:--Eden. Eden= "pleasure" n pr m loc the first habitat of man after the creation; site unknown n pr m

Gen 2:9

Gen 2:9 - pleasant to the sight - God Himself has an appreciation for beauty. He has made the earth lush and green by design. The cones (of the eye) respond to light under these conditions. As mentioned previously, cones are composed of three different photo pigments that enable color perception. This curve peaks at 555 nonometer, which means that under normal lighting conditions. the eye is most sensitive to a yellowish-green color. {Education Resources}

Gen 2:9

Gen 2:9 - good for food - the trees also had function, not just aesthetic beauty.

Gen 2:9

Gen 2:9 - the Tree of Life - this tree yields a different fruit every month. See Rev 22:2 In the midst of the garden stood the tree of life, surpassing in glory all other trees. Its fruit appeared like apples of gold and silver, and had the power to perpetuate life. { PP 46.4} The tree of life was a type of the one great Source of immortality. Of Christ it is written, "In Him was life; and the life was the light of men." He is the fountain of life. Obedience to Him is the life-giving, vivifying power that gladdens the soul. Through sin man shut himself off from access to the tree of life. Now, life and immortality are brought to light through Jesus Christ.... - {MM 233.6}

Gen 2:9

Gen 2:9 - Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil - a tree placed in the midst of the garden as a test for Adam and Eve. The tree would unveil to humanity and all that it bore dominion over, a knowledge of good and evil. When God finished His creation, everything was very good. God never intended for mankind to know evil - See Jam 1:13||1Cor 10:13||Job 1:6-12, 21, 22

Gen 2:11

Gen 2:11 - The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold - the geographic location of the Garden is here described as being in what today would be northern Africa, and the Middle East (Egypt, Sudan, Ethiopia, Eritrea, Saudi Arabia, Israel/Palestine, Syria, Lebanon, Jordan,Iraq) - there were plenty of gems on the ground: onyx, bdellium, gold, etc.: See Ezekiel 28:13 Adam and Eve did not seek to wear the gold and gems found in the Garden as adornments, because these stones which we call precious stones, were as common stones. Also they had no selfishness within them that would desire that they be worn. Self (sin) selfishness, self-awareness, self-centeredness causes us to put such things on to draw attention to ourselves - they do not intrinsically add value to us but make us appear to have wealth and supposedly enhance our beauty.)

Gen 2:11 - Pison - Piyshown Noun pee-shone' from (06335) from ; dispersive; Pishon, a river of Eden:--Pison. Pison = "increase"

Gen 2:11

Gen 2:11 - Havilah - the sand region

Gen 2:13

Gen 2:13 - Gihon - meaning a stream

Gen 2:13

Gen 2:13 - Ethiopia - Kuwsh koosh probably of foreign origin probably of foreign origin; Cush (or Ethiopia), the name of a son of Ham, and of his territory; also of an Israelite:-- Chush, Cush, Ethiopia. Cush = "black" n pr m a Benjamite mentioned only in the title of Ps 7 the son of Ham and grandson of Noah and the progenitor of the southernmost peoples located in Africa the peoples descended from Cush n pr loc the land occupied by the descendants of Cush located around the southern parts of the Nile (Ethiopia)

Gen 2:14

Gen 2:14 - Hiddekel - Chiddeqel Proper Name Masculine khid-deh'-kel probably of foreign origin probably of foreign origin; the Chiddekel (or Tigris) river:--Hiddekel. Hiddekel = "rapid" one of the rivers of Eden which coursed east toward Assyria; better known as the Tigris (the LXX equivalent)

Gen 2:14

Gen 2:14 - Euphrates - Prath Proper Name Masculine per-awth' from an unused root meaning to break forth from an unused root meaning to break forth; rushing; Perath (i.e. Euphrates), a river of the East:--Euphrates. Euphrates = "fruitfulness" the largest and longest river of western Asia; rises from two chief sources in the Armenian mountains and flows into the Persian Gulf

Gen 2:15

Gen 2:15 - And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it - that God created man first, placed him in the garden to tend and keep it, and then to name the animals shows clearly the headship of man as ordained by God. Some suggest that male headship came as a result of the fall of mankind rather than at man's Creation. This assertion leads to the argument of the cancellation of male headship at the Cross of Jesus Christ which reconciles the sins of the world. This suggestion however, is not Scriptural. Adam and Eve received knowledge through direct communion with God; and they learned of Him through His works. All created things, in their original perfection, were an expression of the thought of God. To Adam and Eve nature was teeming with divine wisdom. {Ed 16.3}

Gen 2:15

Gen 2:15 - dress it and to keep it - the tilling of the ground is a work that would occur after the fall of mankind. Man was to dress, keep, replenish and subdue the earth by the power of the Spirit of God that abode within him. See Gen 1:28, 2:5; Prov 18:21; Mt 21:19-21 Mankind (Adam and Eve) had been given dominion over the earth and were commanded to tend and keep the garden. As the Spirit of God abode within Adam and Eve, and as the Lord commanded all things to come into existence by the word of His mouth, so too, Adam could speak to the creation and order it according to the power of the Spirit within him (See Mt 21:19-21). Since no weeds of a strange or noxious sort grew before sin entered the world, Adam and Eve's work may have consisted in planting and transplanting vegetation; forming a natural canopy for their rest and relaxation; forming flower beds; studying the interaction of plant life to other life organisms on earth; heeding God's counsels for preserving the harmony within the garden and avoiding that which would cause suffering, pain, and death (eating of the forbidden tree).

Gen 2:16

Gen 2:16 - And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: - every tree in the garden was made for man's enjoyment and pleasure except the one upon which the LORD place a restriction.

Gen 2:17

Gen 2:17 - But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: - the tree of the knowledge of good and evil provided the one essential ingredient required for true worship, choice. The tree presented the opportunity for Adam to exercise his will for or against the will of God. God never intended man to know evil, only good. The Bible records that with all that God created it was "very good". God would further communicate the dangers associated with the tree through the angels who were the first prophets. God who can not sin nor be tempted with sin (Jam 1:13), appointed the angels who were subject to sin and temptation and prevailed to give counsel to the pair of the dangers and subtleties of Satan and his deception. See Gen 1:31; Jam 1:17; Act 3:21; Rev 1:1, 22:9, 19:10

Gen 2:17

Gen 2:17 - knowledge of good and evil - "Knowledge can only reside in the mind. This means that in the event of disobedience and sin, it would be the mind that would become involved and become corrupted. Once man chose to serve "self" instead of the Creator, he would know something he had not known before. What he came to know by his rebellion was guilt." {Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short; pg 114}

Gen 2:17

Gen 2:17 - for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die - the Bible here gives an indefinite interpretation for the word "day". Adam lived to be 930 years old and then he died. According to the Apostle Peter, a day for the Lord is as 1000 years (2Pet 3:8). Therefore, it was within the day of the Lord that Adam died, in fulfillment of His word. 4 Biblical definitions of a day: 1. 1day = 24hour period - Gen 1:3, 2. 1day = year - Num 14:34; Ezek 4:6 3. 1day = 1000yrs - 2Pet 3:8 4. 1day = indefinite period God can not lie - Titus 1:2; Rom 3:3, 4

Gen 2:17

Gen 2:17 - thou shalt surely die - the day Adam should choose to separate from God, His Father, He would surely die. Adam choosing death over the eternal life He had in the presence of the Holy Spirit abiding within Him, would result in the Holy Spirit's departure. See Deut 30:19 THE LAW DEMANDS PURITY OF CHARACTER - Prov 23:7 Broad in Its Requirements—The law of God, as presented in the Scriptures, is broad in its requirements. Every principle is holy, just, and good. The law lays men under obligation to God; it reaches to the thoughts and feelings; and it will produce conviction of sin in everyone who is sensible of having transgressed its requirements. If the law extended to the outward conduct only, men would not be guilty in their wrong thoughts, desires, and designs. But the law requires that the soul itself be pure and the mind holy, that the thoughts and feelings may be in accordance with the standard of love and righteousness.—The Review and Herald, April 5, 1898. (Selected Messages 2:211.) - {2MCP 564.1} Man Alone Disobedient—Man alone is disobedient to the laws of Jehovah. When the Lord bids nature bear testimony to the things which He has made, instantly they witness to the glory of God.—MS 28, 1898. (The S.D.A. Bible Commentary 3:1144.) - {2MCP 564.2} Everyone Required to Conform to God's Law—Christ came to give an example of the perfect conformity to the law of God required of all—from Adam, the first man, down to the last man who shall live on the earth. He declared that His mission was not to destroy the law but to fulfill it in perfect and entire obedience. In this way He magnified the law and made it honorable. In His life He revealed its spiritual nature. In the sight of heavenly beings, of worlds unfallen, and of a disobedient, unthankful, unholy world, He fulfilled the far-reaching principles of the law. - {2MCP 564.3} He came to demonstrate the fact that humanity, allied by living faith to divinity, can keep all the commandments of God. He came to make plain the immutable character of the law, to declare that disobedience and transgression can never be rewarded with eternal life. He came as a man to humanity, that humanity might touch humanity, while divinity laid hold upon the throne of God. - {2MCP 564.4} But in no case did He come to lessen the obligation of men to be perfectly obedient. He did not destroy the validity of the Old Testament Scriptures. He fulfilled that which was predicted by God Himself. He came, not to set men free from that law, but to open a way whereby they might obey that law and teach others to do the same.—The Review and Herald, November 15, 1898. - {2MCP 565.1} A foreigner, dwelling in his native land, may have a high regard for the principles and the rulers of our Government without disparagement to his loyalty to his own; because the two Governments maintain friendly relations with each other. Each has its own territory, and each has paramount right and jurisdiction in its own dominion. But the very nature of the Government of God forbids that there shall, in it, be any parallel to this condition. {1882 JHW, JBF 19.2} 1. His dominion, his right of jurisdiction, is universal. No contrary Government has any right to exist. {1882 JHW, JBF 20.1} 2. His law, the rule of his Government, is a moral law. It takes cognizance, not of actions alone, but of motives and intentions. {1882 JHW, JBF 20.2} 3. As no contrary rule has any right to exist, there can of right to no neutrality in case of usurpation or rebellion. When war is waged against a Government, every good and loyal citizen is bound to support the Government. A refusal to do so is equivalent to giving aid to the enemy. {1882 JHW, JBF 20.3} Now inasmuch as all have gone astray—all have departed from God—the world is in the condition of a mighty rebellion against its rightful ruler. There is a general disregard of his authority and of the rights of his subjects. And no one is on neutral ground; says the Governor: "He that is not for me is against me." And so far has man fallen from his "first estate," that it is declare that "the carnal mind," the natural, unchanged heart, "is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be." Rom. 8:7. Hence, all are by nature the children of wrath, because all are aliens, or more properly, in a state of rebellion against the Supreme Ruler of the universe. Can any doubt the necessity of naturalization, or of the acceptance of the amnesty offered, that we may be brought into friendly and loyal relations to the one Lawgiver? Can any deny the reasonableness of the declaration, "Ye must be born again"? {1882 JHW, JBF 20.4}

Gen 2:18 - And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him. - It was not good for man to be alone because man by himself could not fulfill God's divine purposes and plans for the creation, to have a perfect world, filled with very good people. Even before we ask, the Lord knows our needs and purposes to supply all of our needs according to His riches in glory. - See Mt 6:32; Isa 40:8; Phil 4:19; 1Cor 11:9; Prov 18:22 God saw that man needed: 1. Money is a false god that the world worships and gives those who believe the lie the belief that they can BE GOD.

Gen 2:18

Gen 2:18 - I will make him an help meet for him - God takes the initiative to make a help meet, an aid for Adam. See Gen 2:22; 1Cor 11:8, 9

Gen 2:18

Gen 2:18 - help meet - `ezer Noun Masculine ay'-zer from (05826) from ; aid:--help. help, succour help, succour one who helps

Gen 2:18

Gen 2:18 - for him - the woman was to be the compliment, to the man and not vice versa. Consider typical marriage ceremonies, all eyes are on the bride and the groom is a compliment to her. This is not how it was in the beginning. God brought Eve to Adam to be his aid because Adam represented God here on earth. The woman was to strive to make life with the man a blessing not a curse. See Prov 21:19, 9, 12:4, 30:23; Ps 31:8, 14:1

Gen 2:19

Gen 2:19 - and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof - Adam, created in the image of the God, with the Holy Spirit abiding in Him, was merely carrying out the will and purpose of His Father in naming the animals. Adam was fulfilling the will of His Father and thus worshipping Him; the very purpose for Adam's existence.

Gen 2:19

Gen 2:19 - whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof - the Spirit of God that abode within Adam gave Adam inspiration so that whatever Adam called the animals was in harmony with God's will.

Gen 2:20

Gen 2:20 - And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field - though the Bible speaks of God forming the animals, birds and fish from the ground, the narrative of chapter one states that it was the spoken word that caused everything to come into existence. God spoke "and it was so". Unlike the creation of man which specifies only that man was formed of the dust and the Spirit of God was breathed into him.

Gen 2:20

Gen 2:20 - but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him - Adam realized that he was alone and that there was not a help meet for him, one comparable to himself.

Gen 2:21

Gen 2:21 - And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam - God would not permit Adam to behold the creation of Eve. Like Eve and all of the other creation, Adam was to believe by faith that God had created them all, and had given them to him for his blessings and pleasures.

Gen 2:21

Gen 2:21 - deep sleep to fall upon Adam - God performed the first operation upon man in his unfallen state. When God removes our stoney hearts of sin and gives us a new heart, that too is an operation of God. See Ezek 36:26, 27; Col 2:12

Gen 2:21

Gen 2:21 - and he took one of his ribs - God took a rib from Adam to form Eve to show that the two flesh became one. Further the symbolism is to further show that the two should work as one and should love as one, where never a man hates his own leash, but nourished and cherisheth it. See Eph 5:29

Gen 2:22

Gen 2:22 - And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man - Before the fatal departure from obedience to God's requirements, which resulted in the degradation of the whole earth, it was the plan of God that woman should be on a complete equality with man, but sin made necessary a change in that plan, and woman was placed in subordination to man (see Gen. 3:16; PP 46, 58, 59). {SDA Bible Commentary, vol 6, on 1Cor 11:12}

Gen 2:23

Gen 2:23 - And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man - a wife and her husband are to become one, one flesh, one bone and co-laborers in spirit and in purpose. See 1Cor 11:8

Gen 2:23

Gen 2:22 - Woman - ishshah Noun Feminine ish-shaw' from (0376) or (0582) feminine of or ; irregular plural, nashiym {naw-sheem'}; a woman (used in the same wide sense as):- (adulter)ess, each, every, female, many, + none, one, + together, wife, woman. Often unexpressed in English. woman, wife, female woman (opposite of man)

Gen 2:24

Gen 2:24 - Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife - See Ps 45:10, 11

Gen 2:24

Gen 2:24 - The Creation story ends with God blessing the man and wife in matrimony, establishing His original Church. God's original Church, comprised of Adam and Eve, had the following characteristics: 1. A prescribed diet (Gen 1:29,30) 2. A dressing - the two were naked but unashamed (Gen 2:25), meaning they were covered with a robe of righteousness (sinless) and bore no shame: Ps 104:1; Rev 12:1; Psa 8:4-8 3. Had a day to worship God (Gen 2:2,3) 4. Had a temple - The Garden was the sanctuary where God would dwell among His people (Ex 25:8). They offered the sacrifice of praise (Jer 33:11*) 5. Given authority/dominion over something 6. Had a particular work - Tend and keep the Garden (Gen 2:15); be fruitful and multiply (Gen 1:28) 7. Builder and Maker is God

Gen 2:25 - naked - The term naked before sin is distinct from the word naked after sin; namely, without shame. The two were naked physically, however they were covered with a garment of light, God's glory, not having sin (Rom 3:23, Ps 104:1, 2 ; Ps 8:5; 1Tim 6:16). Because sin had not entered and neither of the pair were selfish, self-centered or self-aware, they took no heed to their unrobed bodies. Consider Moses stood in God's presence faultless [bearing Christ's righteousness (Phil 3:9)]; without food or water for 40 days and afterwards his face shone with God's glory (Ex 34:28, 29; Ju 24) Compare Gen 3:7) When the Lord presented Eve to Adam, angels of God were witnesses to the ceremony.—In Heavenly Places, 203. - {TA 48.5} This sinless pair wore no artificial garments. They were clothed with a covering of light and glory, such as the angels wear.—The Signs of the Times, January 9, 1879. - {TA 48.6}

Gen 2:25

Gen 2:25 - man and his wife - The Lord established an order of male headship from the Creation where the man was to lead his wife and family. This is established as a precedent in this and the preceding verses describing the creation of Eve. Notice the role reversal when Eve in self-exaltation assumes a role/position not ordained by engaging the serpent and ultimately falling to sin. Notice that she "gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat" (Gen 3:6). Male headship is further established in the fact that sin did not enter the human race until Adam ate of the fruit, at which point both he and his wife realized they were naked and sought to hide themselves.

Gen 2:25

Gen 2:25 - were not ashamed - before the entrance of sin, man was clothed with the garments of God, light, and though naked, was not self aware. Shame, pride, selfishness were foreign to the couple who possessed the mind of Christ (Phil 2:5-8), selfless, generous, loving and kind.

Gen 3:1

Gen 3:1 - subtle - Sleight of tongue - See 2Sam 14:1-3, 13:3, 32. How Satan Gains Entrance to the Soul—All should guard the senses, lest Satan gain victory over them; for these are the avenues of the soul. [2] - {AH 401.2} You will have to become a faithful sentinel over your eyes, ears, and all your senses if you would control your mind and prevent vain and corrupt thoughts from staining your soul. The power of grace alone can accomplish this most desirable work. [3] - {AH 401.3} Satan and his angels are busy creating a paralyzed condition of the senses so that cautions, warnings, and reproofs shall not be heard; or, if heard, that they shall not take effect upon the heart and reform the life. [4] - {AH 401.4} Satan gained control over Eve as she yielded her senses to him: Ears: Eve engaged the talking serpent rather than running in fear from it Eyes: Eve gazed upon the forbidden tree and its fruit and saw that it was good for food and a tree desirable to make one wise Touch: Eve took hold of the forbidden fruit, at which point she was hooked; there was no turning back from this point Smell: It is presumed that she smelt the fragrant aroma of the forbidden fruit before eating of it Taste: Eve partook of the forbidden fruit at which time she immediately became a co-conspirator with the devil to cause Adam to fall Adam saw that something had come over Eve as she was different and he listened to her prodding him to eat of the fruit. He immediately took of the fruit as well, not wanting to separate from his wife.

Gen 3:1 - Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? - The devil asks the woman: "Is it true that God has said you can NOT eat of every tree of the garden?" The question is stated in the negative, suggesting that God has put a restraint on eating of every tree of the garden. This is a lie cloaked in a riddle. See Gen 2:16, 17

Gen 3:2

Gen 3:2 - the woman said unto the serpent - Three observations can be made in the scene: 1. Eve, who was created to be Adam's helpmate, having received a rib from his side, departed from his side to seek her own interest 2. Eve had a curiosity about the forbidden tree and found herself in its proximity 3. Rather than fleeing from the very appearance of evil, Eve engaged the serpent in discussion. Adam would be no match for the devil alone, neither Eve. The two together would still be no match for the wiley foe, but a three fold cord of Adam, Eve and Jesus would be invincible. The bewitching act of Satan upon the woman caused her to be lured and ensnared in the enemies plot. Eve, unlike Jesus who dared not engage the evil angels when He walked the earth, should not have engaged the serpent at all. See Mk 1:24-26

Gen 3:3

Gen 3:3 - neither shall ye touch it - Eve misquoted God's statement to Adam, adding that they should neither touch the fruit lest they die. This gave the enemy additional weaponry to use against her.

Gen 3:4

Gen 3:4 - Ye shall not surely die - the first lie uttered on earth. The serpent, a medium of Satan, was used as a ruse to Eve and directly contradicted God's words spoken to Adam in Gen 2:16, 17. See Joh 8:44 From the very beginning of the great controversy in heaven it has been Satan's purpose to overthrow the law of God. It was to accomplish this that he entered upon his rebellion against the Creator, and though he was cast out of heaven he has continued the same warfare upon the earth. To deceive men, and thus lead them to transgress God's law, is the object which he has steadfastly pursued. {GC 582.1}

Gen 3:5

Gen 3:5 - God doth know - God is love and every good and perfect thing comes down from the Father of Lights in Whom there is no variableness, neither shadow of turning (Jam 1:17). The devil however is a murderer and the Father of Lies (Joh 8:44). The devil is projecting [Projection] his corrupted character, knowing both good and evil, upon the One Who is Faithful and True. Satan's insinuation is that God is a deceiver and has Himself had an experience with both good and evil. Further, God is said to be withholding something from the pair [jealous/selfish devilish wisdom from below, not God's loving jealousy for our good from above (Jam 3:14-16)], a trait of an evil character (Joh 8:12, 13). By assassinating God's character, the devil was suggesting that Adam too assassinate his Creator so that he might be "liberated" and himself become a god, needing to serve no other.

Gen 3:5

Gen 3:5 - that in the day ye eat thereof - the devil quotes God, just as he quoted Scriptures to Jesus when testing Him in the wilderness. The devil utilizes God's words but wrests (twists) them for his own purposes. See Mt 4:6; 2Pet 3:16

Gen 3:5

Gen 3:5 - eyes shall be opened - Adam and Eve's eyes were already open to Good and God never intended for their eyes to be opened to evil. The suggestion is that by disobeying God and eating of the fruit, their eyes would be opened to evil which apparently had no negative effect upon the serpent, he being alive, and even granting him power to speak. pupil dilation as a result of being exposed to darkness. Once the pair took the paths of darkness and death, their eyes would be opened to a reality God never intended for them to know or experience, darkness. 2Cor 4:4; Mt 6:24||1Tim 6:9, 10; CONTRAST Joh 8:12 Spiritualists claim superior light and power. They have opened the door and invited the prince of darkness in, and have made him their honored guest. They have allied themselves to the powers of darkness which are developing in these last days in signs and wonders, that if it were possible they would deceive the very elect. Spiritualists claim that they can do greater miracles than Christ did. {Con 87.2} The mysteries of the visible universe—the “wondrous works of Him which is perfect in knowledge” (Job 37:16)—invited man's study. Face-to-face, heart-to-heart communion with his Maker was his high privilege. Had he remained loyal to God, all this would have been his forever. Throughout eternal ages he would have continued to gain new treasures of knowledge, to discover fresh springs of happiness, and to obtain clearer and yet clearer conceptions of the wisdom, the power, and the love of God. More and more fully would he have fulfilled the object of his creation, more and more fully have reflected the Creator's glory. - {Ed 15.1}

Gen 3:5

Gen 3:5 - ye shall be as gods - the Bible later states and Jesus affirms, that "ye are gods" (Ps 82:6; Joh 10:34). As sons of the Most High God, we are gods. Satan's suggestion was not offering Eve anything that she was not already. However, his insinuation of becoming a god was as he desired, to become a god at the exclusion of the True God; to have existence outside of God. The Author of Paganism is here promoting his doctrine of the multiplicity of gods, with the absence of the One True God of Creation. Such were Lucifer's suggestions to the heavenly hosts, that as free intelligent and moral agents, angels needed no law to govern themselves but could self-govern, based on their innate nature. This same doctrine would in future millennia find residence in the hearts of the humanists, those who suggest human reason to be the highest form of knowledge; and those who exalt human grandeur, aspiring to be celebrities and "Stars". The love of money and its pursuit is thus a trap the enemy uses to “empower” men to live without God. Men find no need for God when they have the resources to purchase whatever they desire. This false security and the admiration, praise, and honor one receives of men, though one may lack character and moral worth, makes men “gods”, created in the image their father, Satan. Mt 6:24; 1Tim 6:9, 10; John 8:44

Gen 3:5

Gen 3:5 - knowing good and evil - the last hook was the suggestion that only the gods comprehended both good and evil. Eve was led to feel that she was being limited in her development by a 'controlling' God. Such sentiments, being controlled, and the need to liberate oneself from imposed restraints (by God and her husband Adam) in order to attain a higher level of existence would centuries later give birth to the feminist movement, which in turn has spawned other norm-altering agendas (homosexual movement, gender neutrality, etc.). That God alone fully understands both good and evil (v22), and yet remains only Good, reveals His true character and shows that He has power to rule over such knowledge, unlike Satan. God only desired His creation to know good because He is a kind, merciful, gracious and loving God and Father (Rom 16:19)!!! Praise His Holy Name!!!!

Gen 3:6 - And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food - by listening to the words of Satan, the woman came to see good in the very thing that was evil. By listening to Satan and his suggestions, his power to deceive is so strong that we see good in the very things that are bad for us (Rev 12:9). Our only hope is to resist the devil and hold on tenaciously to the Word of God. Adam and Eve came to find out that eternal life is not found in physical food but the spiritual (Joh 6:32, 27, 35, 51) Consider the polar shift that has come upon the mind of Eve, just through her discourse with the serpent. The influence of mind on mind, so strong a power for good when sanctified, is equally strong for evil in the hands of those opposed to God. This power Satan used in his work of instilling evil into the minds of the angels, and he made it appear that he was seeking the good of the universe. As the anointed cherub, Lucifer had been highly exalted; he was greatly loved by the heavenly beings, and his influence over them was strong. Many of them listened to his suggestions and believed his words. "And there was war in heaven; Michael and His angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought, and his angels, and prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven." - Cast out of heaven, Satan set up his kingdom in this world, and ever since, he has been untiringly striving to seduce human beings from their allegiance to God. He uses the same power that he used in heaven—the influence of mind on mind. Men become tempters of their fellow-men. The strong, corrupting sentiments of Satan are cherished, and they exert a masterly, compelling power. Under the influence of these sentiments, men bind up with one another in confederacies, in trades-unions, and in secret societies. {7MR 63.2, 3}

Gen 3:6

Gen 3:6 - a tree to be desired to make one wise - the desire for higher wisdom or knowledge (a knowledge of evil particularly, since all she knew was good) entrapped Eve. She aspired to be God, according to Satan's insinuation, which was the exaltation of self - self wanting to be God which is the spirit of Satan. Through the devil's lies and deceptions (creating lust for ungodly power, and wisdom outside of God) in the Garden of Eden, the serpent murdered the spirit of love in Eve's heart towards her Father.

Gen 3:6 - and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat - This was the ultimate act of rebellion and disobedience on the part of Adam. Though God made both Adam and Eve and consummated the first, perfect marriage with them in the Garden of Eden, Eve had sinned and no longer could fulfill the divine purpose she was created to fulfill, to be a comparable helpmate to the un fallen Adam. Though God hates divorce, God's wish for Adam was not to continue with Eve, to choose Him, and allow Him to fulfill His purposes in his (Adam's) life and in Eve's life, who had become corrupted. Adam sinned in choosing Eve over God, doubting that God could not fulfill his needs and, in essence, making Eve a god. See 1Tim 2:14 Adam and Eve persuaded themselves that in so small a matter as eating of the forbidden fruit there could not result such terrible consequences as God had declared. But this small matter was the transgression of God's immutable and holy law, and it separated man from God and opened the floodgates of death and untold woe upon our world. Age after age there has gone up from our earth a continual cry of mourning, and the whole creation groaneth and travaileth together in pain as a consequence of man's disobedience. Heaven itself has felt the effects of his rebellion against God. Calvary stands as a memorial of the amazing sacrifice required to atone for the transgression of the divine law. Let us not regard sin as a trivial thing. - {SC 33.1} By rebellion and apostasy man forfeited the favor of God; not his rights, for he could have no value except as it was invested in God's dear Son. This point must be understood. He forfeited those privileges which God in His mercy presented him as a free gift, a treasure in trust to be used to advance His cause and His glory, to benefit the beings He had made. The moment the workmanship of God refused obedience to the laws of God's kingdom, that moment he became disloyal to the government of God and he made himself entirely unworthy of all the blessings wherewith God had favored him. - {1888 813.2} This was the position of the human race after man divorced himself from God by transgression. Then he was no longer entitled to a breath of air, a ray of sunshine, or a particle of food. And the reason why man was not annihilated was because God so loved him that He made the gift of His dear Son that He should suffer the penalty of his transgression. Christ proposed to become man's surety and substitute, that man, through matchless grace, should have another trial—a second probation—having the experience of Adam and Eve as a warning not to transgress God's law as they did. And inasmuch as man enjoys the blessings of God in the gift of the sunshine and the gift of food, there must be on the part of man a bowing before God in thankful acknowledgement that all things come of God. Whatever is rendered back to Him is only His own who has given it. - {1888 814.1}

Gen 3:6 - and he did eat - See 1Tim 2:14; Rom 5:12; Heb 7:9, 10 Adam was just before God at his creation. He had not sinned; neither had he done any good. He had yet to form a character for himself. The God of love had created him with capacities, and given him opportunities, for the formation of a character. The past was all of the free act and gift of God. The future rested with himself. {1882 JHW, JBF 8.1} By rebellion and apostasy man forfeited the favor of God; not his rights, for he could have no value except as it was invested in God's dear Son. This point must be understood. He forfeited those privileges which God in His mercy presented him as a free gift, a treasure in trust to be used to advance His cause and His glory, to benefit the beings He had made. The moment the workmanship of God refused obedience to the laws of God's kingdom, that moment he became disloyal to the government of God and he made himself entirely unworthy of all the blessings wherewith God had favored him. - {1888 813.2} This was the position of the human race after man divorced himself from God by transgression. Gen 3:7

Gen 3:7 - And the eyes of them both were opened - it was not until Adam had eaten of the forbidden fruit that their eyes were opened. Adam, as the head of the human race governed the fate of all the creation. See 1Tim 2:12-14 The instant man accepted the temptations of Satan, and did the very things God had said he should not do, Christ, the Son of God, stood between the living and the dead (Num 16:48), saying, "Let the punishment fall on Me. I will stand in man's place. He shall have another chance." - {FLB 75.3}

Gen 3:7 - knew that they were naked - Adam and Eve now knowing evil have had an experience WITH Satan (Heb 9:9 - See conscience). Adam and Eve, having been stripped of their garments of light (Rom 3:23; Ps 104:1, 2; Rev 21:23; Jam 1:17; Lk 10:30) and having taken on sin, became selfish, self-aware and self-centered. Their self-centered disposition realized it was naked (lacking, falling short, incomplete, exposed, undone) and shamefully sought to clothe themselves. See Isa 6:5 Satan uncovers, while God covers - speaking of the modern styles of dress that are revealing, a form of Strange Fire. When we play with Strange Fire, we are subject to the death penalty as were Nadab and Abihu

Gen 3:7

Gen 3:7 - and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons - the effects of rebellion were first seen in the works (man's efforts to save himself) to cover their nakedness the pair performed. This is a principle of paganism, the religion of Satan, the mystery of iniquity which mankind submitted to in lieu of the freedom found in God and godliness.

Gen 3:7

Gen 3:7 - fig leaves - This is the covering that the transgressors of the law of God have used since the days of Adam and Eve's disobedience.... The fig-leaves represent the arguments used to cover disobedience.... - {CC 17.3}

Gen 3:7

Gen 3:7 - made themselves aprons - the works of man's hands can never suffice in covering, remedying, or pardoning our sins. Only the blood of the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world can cover that which has been exposed. See Joh 1:29; Heb 9:22; Gen 3:21

Gen 3:8

Gen 3:8 - And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day - the miracle of grace is seen in the fact that Adam and Eve still had breath to breathe, and life in their being despite having broken God's immutable law and dying spiritually. That their lives were not instantly snuffed out, that they could hear God's voice in the cool of the day is a miracle of mercy and grace that the Lord has extended to humanity before the foundation of the world through His Son Jesus Christ. (Heb 4:3; Rev 13:8; Eph 1:4; 3:9; 1Cor 2:7; 1Pet 1:19, 20; Act 2:23; 1Tim 3:16) By rebellion and apostasy man forfeited the favor of God; not his rights, for he could have no value except as it was invested in God's dear Son. This point must be understood. He forfeited those privileges which God in His mercy presented him as a free gift, a treasure in trust to be used to advance His cause and His glory, to benefit the beings He had made. Gen 3:8

Gen 3:8 - the LORD God walking in the garden - The 2nd Person of the Godhead is here shown walking in the garden. See Joh 1:18; Col 1:15, 2:9; 1Jo 4:12 This is the essence of the gospel, God came looking for us when we had sinned, and not we looking for Him. The love of God would not let His beloved creation perish without offering a second chance. Eph 2:4, 5 The Science of Salvation: Challenges for the Plan of Redemption: Plan was not an after-thought: Rev 13:8 1. Man became sinful and lost his ability to please God. God is perfect and expects perfection. Answer: Must be in Christ who is our Righteousness. We do perfect works as we abide in Christ Who is our sufficiency. Jesus came, not for sacrifices but to do the will of His Father, perfect works. We receive credit for Jesus' perfect works as we abide in Him: Heb 10:5-7; Jer 23:6 2. Heaven is based on the principle of love and preferring others: Phil 2:5-8 3. Sin is about self going higher: 1Jo 3:4 4. We are not only sinful but we fall short of God's standard. Rom 3:23 5. We all were created when Adam was created. Sin ruined humanity. One man's sin has brought sin upon all men and death. : Gen 2:7; Heb 7:9, 10, Rom 5:12, 18 6. The Law requires a separation from God (death). 7. God is Love: 1Jo 4:8; Rom 5:8 8. Law says "the soul that sinneth, it shall die" Ezekiel 18:4. God could not just come and die for the human race because the law would not permit one person dying for another. He had to become a part of the problem. He had to take on a sinful nature without being sinful Himself. 9. God is a consuming fire. Heb 12:29. Man in his sinful condition would be consumed in the presence of God, at His 2nd Coming. Need a way to ensure men would not be consumed by the brightness of God's coming.

Gen 3:8 - cool of the day - late afternoon

Gen 3:8

Gen 3:8 - hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God - Adam and Eve sought the counsel of another advisor who convinced them to rebel against God. As a result, they became enemies of God, taking on the enmity born of Satan and therefore, hid from God's presence. Sin includes falling short and running from God (Rom 3:23). Realizing their naked (lacking, falling short, exposed, incomplete) condition, they hid in shame, guilt and fear from the One Who first gave them counsel and with Whom they had rebelled.

Gen 3:9

Gen 3:9 - And the LORD God called unto Adam - God seeks for mankind, while mankind runs from God. This is the case for every human that has entered the world.

Gen 3:9

Gen 3:9 - Where art thou? - One of the most precious statements in the entire Bible is that of God, the Creator and Father of all, seeking His lost and rebellious children. The question is not related to location and one's whereabouts, but rather deals with a relationship that has been severed and the need to acknowledge the breach (See Mt 26:50). The love of God in the everlasting gospel is shown in His gracious search for the hiding pair. This is the theme for the entirety of the Bible, God's pursuit of humanity, humanities need to acknowledge its lost condition so that God may find and rescue him from destruction. See Gen 4:9; Mt 26:50; Rom 5:18; Eph 1:4; 1Tim 4:10

Gen 3:10

Gen 3:10 - I heard thy voice - Praise be to God that in mercy God had not allowed Adam's rebellion to reach the point where he would neither hear the voice of God nor answer. See Joh 10:16

Gen 3:10

Gen 3:10 - because I was naked - God made man to be open and now he was seeking to conceal himself. Man's nakedness was not the problem but how man now viewed/perceived nakedness, that was the problem, that is what had changed (the mindset). Adam selfishly (sinfully) concealed the fact that he had rebelled against God and had eaten of the forbidden fruit. Adam stated that his fear was due to nakedness, the symptom, rather than the fact that he had rebelled/sinned, the cause. God addresses the diversion by asking, "Who told you that you were naked?" and "hast thou eaten of the tree whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?". In his sinless state, man held joyful communion with Him "in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge." Col 2:3. But after his sin, he could no longer find joy in holiness, and he sought to hide from the presence of God. Such is still the condition of the unrenewed heart. It is not in harmony with God, and finds no joy in communion with Him. The sinner could not be happy in God's presence; he would shrink from the companionship of holy beings. Could he be permitted to enter heaven, it would have no joy for him. The spirit of unselfish love that reigns there—every heart responding to the heart of Infinite Love—would touch no answering chord in his soul. {Steps to Christ 17.2}

Gen 3:11

Gen 3:11 - Who told thee that thou wast naked? - Adam and Eve acquired knowledge that God never intended for them to acquire. God questions, "Who told thee...", inquiring what was the source of you gaining this forbidden knowledge? This and the subsequent statement was intended to cause introspection and evoke a confession from the pair. See Gen 4:10

Gen 3:11

Gen 3:11 - Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat? - The question was to cause self-inspection, bringing forth a confession of sin so that God might abundantly pardon. The direct question should have resulted in a direct answer, and yet Adam chose to blame both God who Eve before acknowledging his part in the matter. Gen 2:17; 1Jo 1:9

Gen 3:12

Gen 3:12 - The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat - Adam accuses God of giving him a woman that caused him to sin. Sin has so perverted us that in self-defense, self-righteousness, we as the guilty, blame the innocent. Adam no longer reflected the selfless image of God he was created with. In contrast, he bore the image of the dragon, Satan, the accuser who is foremost in misrepresenting and accusing God. No longer was Adam the caring and protective partner to Eve. He sought Eve's destruction over his own, laying the blame for transgression upon her, and ultimately God. Rom 8:5-8 God was to be manifest in Christ, "reconciling the world unto Himself." 2 Corinthians 5:19. Man had become so degraded by sin that it was impossible for him, in himself, to come into harmony with Him whose nature is purity and goodness. But Christ, after having redeemed man from the condemnation of the law, could impart divine power to unite with human effort. Thus by repentance toward God and faith in Christ the fallen children of Adam might once more become "sons of God." 1Jo 3:2. - {PP 64.1} "This guilt has caused the human race to invent countless different cults and philosophies. It is the cornerstone of every pagan concept of God and the root of all the expiation doctrines of appeasement and vain hope of placating deity. It plagues the life of every unrepentant sinner and creates the desire for freedom from the oppression it brings. It is the root of much physical and mental suffering and plays a prominent part in producing neuroses. This mental suffering of guilt was the reason Adam charged his wife with his transgression. The one he loved most dearly became the object of his accusation, for his guilt burdened his mind and pressed down his soul (Gen 3:12, 13). His beloved Eve was caught in the same trap and sought to relieve her anguish of soul by accusing the serpent.” {Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short, pg 115}

Gen 3:12 - Adam accuses God of giving him a woman that caused him to sin. Sin has so perverted us that in self-defense, self-righteousness, we as the guilty, blame the innocent.

Gen 3:13

Gen 3:13 - And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat. - 1Tim 2:14; 2Cor 11:3 When the woman was asked, “What is this that thou hast done?” she answered, “The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.” “Why didst Thou create the serpent? Why didst Thou suffer him to enter Eden?”—these were the questions implied in her excuse for her sin {PP 58.1}

Gen 3:14

Gen 3:14 - God said unto the serpent - The means by which the serpent caused humankind to fall in sin, through man's senses, would be used by God to rescue and redeem humanity from sin. God spoke to the serpent in the hearing and view of the hapless pair, His Plan of Redemption for saving humanity.

Gen 3:14

Gen 3:14 - thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field - the serpent, once one of the most glorious and majestic animals of God's creation, was abased because it was used as a medium to bring about the fall of humanity. This is a fitting typification of Satan, once the most highly exalted of angels who through his pride, himself fell, caused the downfall of 1/3 of the angels of heaven, and was abased to become an object of scorn. See Isa 14:12-20

Gen 3:14

Gen 3:14 - upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life - the curse pronounced upon the animal used as a medium for the devil was to be a perpetual reminder to all of mankind's fall in the Garden of Eden. That the serpent was relegated to go upon its belly as a curse, implies that it may have had legs and perhaps even fly. See Isa 14:29, 30:6

Gen 3:15

Gen 3:15 To Adam was given an assurance of the coming of the Redeemer. The sentence pronounced on Satan, “I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel” (Gen 3:15), was to our first parents a promise of the redemption to be wrought out through Christ. - {AA 222.1} As the guilty pair listened to these words (Gen 3:15), they were inspired with hope; for in the prophecy concerning the breaking of Satan's power they discerned a promise of deliverance from the ruin wrought through transgression. Though they must suffer from the power of their adversary because they had fallen under his seductive influence and had chosen to disobey the plain command of Jehovah, yet they need not yield to utter despair. The Son of God was offering to atone with His own lifeblood for their transgression. To them was to be granted a period of probation, during which, through faith in the power of Christ to save, they might become once more the children of God. - {PK 681.3} After the Fall of man, God established the Everlasting Covenant with Mankind, stating that He is our Rock of Salvation in Whom we must trust (Heb 2:3). The covenant identifies: *Enmity between the woman (Church) and the serpent (Devil) *Enmity between the serpent and the woman's seed (Christ) *Enmity between the seed of the serpent (sons of men) and the woman's seed A consequence of the fall of man are the 2 Classes of people that would exist on earth, the righteous and the wicked. The righteous, who make up God's church exhibit the following characteristics in this era: [Diet/Dress/Worship/Work/Authority/Temple/City or Home/ 1. Expelled from their Eden home, Adam and all who would in faith follow in his footsteps, longed for the time that Eden would be restored (Heb 11:13-16) Both a prophecy and the Gospel: A PROPHECY "The spirit which put Christ to death moves the wicked to destroy His followers. All this is foreshadowed in that first prophecy: 'I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed.' And this will continue to the close of time." "In Eden, Adam and Eve transgressed the law of God. God had forbidden them to eat of the tree of knowledge of good and evil. But instead of obeying the voice of God, they listened to the words of the tempter. 'Hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?' Satan asked. 'And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die. And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: for God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.'" But the infinite sacrifice of God in giving Jesus, His beloved Son, to become a sacrifice for sin, enables Him to say, without violating one principle of His government, "Yield yourself up to Me; give Me that will; take it from the control of Satan, and I will take possession of it; then I can work in you to will and to do of My good pleasure." When He gives you the mind of Christ, your will becomes as His will, and your character is transformed to be like Christ's character.— Messages to Young People, 151-154. Gen 3:15

Gen 3:15 - I will - the eternal purposes of God are too deep for man to comprehend. That God purposed to become the Savior of mankind before the foundation of the world (Rev 13:8), that God affirmed His covenant upon His own faithfulness and righteousness (Heb 6:13), promising to provide the Savior in His time Who would deliver mankind and eradicate evil; that He calls those things that are not as though they were (Rom 4:17; Isa 44:7; 45:23) all attest to His omniscience, omnipotence and unbounded love. Heb 8:10; Jer 31:33 In contrast, the revelations made to men through time by God's prophets was the revelation that the enemy of souls, Satan received regarding the plan of salvation. The devil would gain knowledge of God's eternal purposes only as the Lord revealed it to men. See Eph 3:3-10

Gen 3:15 - put enmity - See Heb 8:10, 10:15-17; Jer 31:33 To Adam was given an assurance of the coming of the Redeemer. The sentence pronounced on Satan, "I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel" (Gen 3:15), was to our first parents a promise of the redemption to be wrought out through Christ. - {AA 222.1} When man was filled with the mind of self, the mind of Satan, God interposed. If He had not "there never could have been in any man's mind in this world any impulse other than that of Satan himself, because the whole natural mind is of self and Satan only. But God said, I will break that up. "I will put enmity between thee and the woman and between thy seed and her seed." God put the enmity there, the hatred against Satan's power, the hatred against the things that are in the mind even. God has placed that hatred there, and there is the source of every impulse to good, or to right, or anything of the kind that ever comes into any man's mind in this world." {GCDB 258.5} When Satan heard that enmity should exist between himself and the woman, and between his seed and her seed, he knew that his work of depraving human nature would be interrupted; that by some means man would be enabled to resist his power. Yet as the plan of salvation was more fully unfolded, Satan rejoiced with his angels that, having caused man's fall, he could bring down the Son of God from His exalted position. He declared that his plans had thus far been successful upon the earth, and that when Christ should take upon Himself human nature, He also might be overcome, and thus the redemption of the fallen race might be prevented. - {PP 66.1} The enmity that God instills in us towards self, the nature of Satan is what "sets free the will"— the choice, so that man can choose the other mind, the mind of Christ. This is that light "which lighteth every man that cometh into the world". If we follow the light, we will come to Jesus Christ. After the Fall of man, God established the Everlasting Covenant with Mankind, stating that He is our Rock of Salvation in Whom we must trust (Heb 2:3). The covenant identifies: *Enmity between the woman (Church) and the serpent (Devil) *Enmity between the serpent and the woman's seed (Christ) *Enmity between the seed of the serpent (sons of men) and the woman's seed A consequence of the fall of man are the 2 Classes of people that would exist on earth, the righteous and the wicked (Prov 29:27). Gen 3:15

Gen 3:15 - put - shiyth Verb sheeth a primitive root a primitive root; to place (in a very wide application):--apply, appoint, array, bring, consider, lay (up), let alone, look, make, mark, put (on), + regard, set, shew, be stayed, take. to put, set (Qal) to put, lay (hand upon) to set, station, appoint, fix, set mind to to constitute, make (one something), make like, perform to take one's stand to lay waste (Hophal) to be imposed, be set upon God would appoint and apply a hatred for sin in the hearts of those who in faith, embrace His covenant/promises: 1. Promise of probationary life to accept deliverance from evil through the Seed - Gen 3:15 2. Promise of being covered by Jesus' grace and robe of righteousness - Gen 3:21 3. Promise of eternal life with God through Jesus Christ - Gen 5:24 4. Promise of salvation in Jesus Christ - Gen 6, 7 5. Promise to become children of promise, born of God - Gen 21 6. Promise of God giving His own Son, and His Son laying down His life for the sins of the world - Gen 22:1-18 7. Promise of an inheritance, the LORD Himself, and the earth made new - Gen 15:1, 13:14-18; Rom 4:13; Heb 11:8-10; Rev 21 8. Promise of a new name as we overcome in Jesus' strength - Gen 32:24-29 9. Promise of a new heart through Christ Jesus - Rom 2:25-29; Deut 10:16, 30:5, 6; Jer 4:4, 9:25, 26, 31:31-34; Gal3:7

Gen 3:15 - the woman - a symbol of God's church, His bride. See 2Cor 11:2; Hos 2:19, 20; Rev 12:1; Jer 31:32; Ex 19:4-6; Eze 16:8

Gen 3:15

Gen 3:15 - thy seed - the seed of Satan is sin and all who partake of it, following in Satan's footsteps. Isa 1:4; Luk 3:7; Joh 8:38, *41-44; 1Cor 5:6, 7; Eph 2:2; Mt 12:34; Mt 13:38

Gen 3:15

Gen 3:15 - her seed - Jesus, the Son of God is prophesied to be the Seed of the Woman, Who is also the Chief Cornerstone of the church (Gal 3:16; 1Pet 2:5-8). This Incorruptible Seed (1Jo 3:9; Act 13:37) is He Who was born of the woman clothed in the glory of God (Ps 104:1, 2) in the Rev 12:1. Jesus is also the Corn of Wheat that falls into the ground and dies in order to bring forth much fruit (Joh 12:24). Jesus, as the Living Word of God, is He Who feeds the seed that He implants in those who are born again (1Pet 1:23; 1Jo 3:9). There are not many ways to heaven. Each one may not choose his own way. Christ says, "I am the way: ... no man cometh unto the Father, but by Me." Since the first gospel sermon was preached, when in Eden it was declared that the seed of the woman should bruise the serpent's head, Christ had been uplifted as the way, the truth, and the life. He was the way when Adam lived, when Abel presented to God the blood of the slain lamb, representing the blood of the Redeemer. Christ was the way by which patriarchs and prophets were saved. He is the way by which alone we can have access to God. - {DA 663.3} He [Abraham] believed that the Messiah Who was to come of Isaac's line, and Whose death alone could destroy death and bring the resurrection, and who had not yet come into the world, had power to raise up Isaac from the dead, in order that the promise might be fulfilled, and He be yet born into the world. Greater faith than that of Abraham could not possibly exist. {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 88, 89}

Gen 3:15 - bruise thy head - The ultimate destruction of the devil and his evil seed are foretold (Isa 14:15-24). At the Cross of Calvary on the place of the Skull (Golgotha), Jesus died to conquer he who had reigned over death, that is the devil (Heb 2:14; Joh 12:31). Jesus' cross on Golgotha was the devil's judgment, making way for his head to be soon bruised (crushed). In a secondary sence, we too are the seed of the woman (remnant of her seed) who as joint heirs with Christ, will bruise the devil's head. See Rom 16:20 shuwph Verb shoof a primitive root a primitive root; properly, to gape, i.e. snap at; figuratively, to overwhelm:--break, bruise, cover. to bruise, crush, gape upon, desire?, seize?, strike out?

Gen 3:15

Gen 3:15 - thou shalt bruise his heel - the redemption of mankind would come at a cost, as foretold in the prophecy. The Woman's Seed (Jesus) would be bruised for our transgressions, wounded for our iniquities, the chastisement of our peace was upon Him and with His stripes we are healed" (Isa 53:5; 1Pet 2:24)! Herein is the righteousness of God revealed in that the atonement for man's sins would satisfy the righteous justice of the Law. Jesus, Who became sin for me (Gal 3:13), would endure a mortal wound to redeem me from the curse of sin and to give me power over sin that I might have a right to the Tree of Life (Ps 22:16, 11-15; Zech 13:6; Rev 22:13, 14)! Bless your Holy and Glorious Name Dear LORD! God foretells the eventual destruction of sin and the restoration of the perfection lost in a world made new. See Heb 2:5-8 Christ was to die as man's substitute. Man was a criminal under the sentence of death for transgression of the law of God, as a traitor, a rebel; hence a substitute for man must die as a malefactor, because He stood in the place of the traitors, with all their treasured sins upon His divine soul. It was not enough that Jesus should die in order to fully meet the demands of the broken law, but He died a shameful death. The prophet gives to the world His words, "I hid not my face from shame and spitting. - {5BC 1127.4}

Gen 3:16

Gen 3:16 - Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee - Interestingly, God spoke to Eve first when pronouncing the consequences of rebellion, unlike His seeking Adam and inquiring of him what happened in their rebellion. God addressed Eve first because she was the first to sin in (1) departing from Adam's side, (2) being at the wrong place at the wrong time and (3) exalting herself, going out of line and order in engaging with the serpent rather than running to Adam. See 1Tim 2:13-15 Even after man's fall and the loss of dominion resulting from it, God planned that man should have the responsibility of leadership/headship in the affairs of the home (see Gen. 3:16; PP 58, 59). There is no indication in the Bible that this order of things has ever been changed since that time, but it appears that some women in the church at Corinth tried to change it. {SDA Bible Commentary vol 6, on 1Cor 11:7}

Gen 3:16

Gen 3:16 - thy desire shall be to thy husband - defined: a stretching out for, longing. God is re-establishing male headship in the marriage relationship, even though Adam forfeited it by following after his wife. Compare Gen 4:7. In Gen 4:7, God counsels Cain that sin's (the devil's) desire for him was to have dominion in his life, but that he should not yield to it but rule over it as he humbles himself and seeks the Lord. Similarly, the verse suggests that woman's desire would be to her husband or to rule over her husband, suggesting a natural (sin-born) tension that would arise in marriages, bringing forth strife, contention and disagreement as opposed to peace, cooperation and unity.

Gen 3:16

Gen 3:16 - he shall rule over thee - God re-establishes the order of male headship that He ordained from the beginning, where the man has headship over the family, despite Adam's relinquishing it as he yielded and followed his wife in rebellion. See Ex 34:19, 20; Lk 2:23

Gen 3:17

Gen 3:17 - because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife - when man's words are placed above God's word, the scourge of Spiritualism is the result. See Isa 3:12, 4; Judges 4:1-4; Rev 16:13, 14; Gen 16:1-16; 1Tim 2:11-15 "By following his own way, by acting in harmony with Satan's temptations and in opposition to the known will of God, man vainly attempted to elevate and bless himself. Thus he gained an experimental knowledge of disobedience to God's commandments. Thus he knew good and evil; thus he lost his fidelity and loyalty to God and opened the floodgates of evil and suffering to the whole human family. How many today are making the same experiment! When will man learn that the only means for his safety is through a full confidence in a 'thus saith the Lord'? {MR v18; pg 30-36}

Gen 3:17

Gen 3:17 - and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it - See Gen 2:16, 17

Gen 3:17

Gen 3:17 - cursed is the ground for thy sake - The earth, as a result of Adam's rebellion, was under the management of an enemy. Satan usurped the ownership of the earth from Adam and thus a curse was upon the earth. Righteousness is not the tenor of Satan's principality, but cursing, pain, sufferings and death (Heb 2:14, 15; Eph 2:2, 3). God cursed the ground because of their sin in eating of the tree of knowledge, and declared, "In sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life." He had apportioned them the good, but withheld the evil. Now He declares that they shall eat of it, that is, they should be acquainted with evil all the days of their life. - {SR 40.1} The race from that time forward was to be afflicted by Satan's temptations. A life of perpetual toil and anxiety was appointed unto Adam, instead of the happy, cheerful labor he had hitherto enjoyed. They should be subject to disappointment, grief, and pain, and finally come to dissolution. They were made of the dust of the earth, and unto dust should they return. - {SR 40.2}

Gen 3:17

Gen 3:17 - in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life - pain labour, hardship, toil, sorrow of spirit - Gen 3:19

Gen 3:18

Gen 3:18 - Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee - briars, thorns and thistles are a result of the curse of sin upon the earth. The pain and challenge they present are a reminder of the effects of sin - See Rom 8:19-23 Christ never planted the seeds of death in the system. Satan planted these seeds when he tempted Adam to eat of the tree of knowledge which meant disobedience to God. Not one noxious plant was placed in the Lord's great garden, but after Adam and Eve sinned, poisonous herbs sprang up. In the parable of the sower the question was asked the master, "Didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?" The master answered, "An enemy hath done this" (Mt 13:27, 28). All tares are sown by the evil one. Every noxious herb is of his sowing, and by his ingenious methods of amalgamation he has corrupted the earth with tares. - {2SM 288.2} Satan has sown the seeds of sin in our hearts that when cultivated, brings forth death - Rom 7:5 Through heathenism, Satan had for ages turned men away from God; but he won his great triumph in perverting the faith of Israel. By contemplating and worshiping their own conceptions, the heathen had lost a knowledge of God, and had become more and more corrupt. So it was with Israel. The principle that man can save himself by his own works lay at the foundation of every heathen religion; it had now become the principle of the Jewish religion. Satan had implanted this principle. Wherever it is held, men have no barrier against sin. - {DA 35.2} - See Jude 1:24; Rom 8:1-11; Ps 119:11

Gen 3:19

Gen 3:19 - In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread - God gave man activity in order to keep him out of trouble. As men would seek the Lord and His righteousness, the Lord promised to add all the necessities of life to him. See Prov 6:6-11; Mt 6:25-34; Lam 3:27 Gen 5:29: Lamech apparently felt the burden of tilling the ground that God had cursed and looked forward in faith to the time when the existing misery and corruption would cease and redemption from the curse would come. His hope that this might be realized in his son was not fulfilled, at least in the way he expected. Nevertheless, Noah was destined to proclaim a bold warning against evil and to play an important role by becoming the progenitor of all who have lived since his time. {SDA Bible Commentary, vol 1}

Gen 3:19

Gen 3:19 - till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return - to Adam is communicated his fate as a result of sin and rebellion. Adam now knows that he will have an end because of sin. See Eccl 3:19, 20 The verse also establishes God's intention for men's vocation through life, that we were to work and therefore eat until we die (2Thess 3:10). The idea of retirement as promoted by the world today is not Scriptural.

Gen 3:20

Gen 3:20 - And Adam called his wife's name Eve; because she was the mother of all living - This verse is not a disturbing interpolation in the context of the story of the Fall and its consequences, as some commentators maintain. It shows that Adam believed the promise with regard to the woman's seed and manifested this faith in the name that he now gave to his wife. Eve, chawwah. Chawwah means "life," and is here translated Zoe by the LXX. It is an old Semitic form, found also in old Phoenician inscriptions, but was no longer used in the Hebrew language at the time the Bible was written. This has been suggested as indicating that Adam spoke an old Semitic language. If Moses had used a contemporary Hebrew equivalent, he would have written the woman's name chayyah instead of chawwah, but by giving the name in an unusual archaic form he shows that his knowledge goes back into the remote past. In ch. 4:1 chawwah was roughly transliterated Eua by the LXX, whence comes our English "Eve." {SDA Bible Commentary, vol 1}

Gen 3:20

Gen 3:20 - Eve; because she was the mother of all living - meaning "life" or "living". See Act 17:26, 10:34; Mal 2:10 Also written as Zoe

Gen 3:21

Gen 3:21 - Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make coats of skins, and clothed them - From the day the Lord declared to the serpent in Eden, "I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed" (Gen 3:15), Satan has known that he can never hold absolute sway over the inhabitants of this world. When Adam and his sons began to offer the ceremonial sacrifices ordained by God as a type of the coming Redeemer, Satan discerned in these a symbol of communion between earth and heaven. During the long centuries that have followed, it has been his constant effort to intercept this communion. Untiringly has he sought to misrepresent God and to misinterpret the rites pointing to the Saviour, and with a great majority of the members of the human family he has been successful. - {PK 685.1} But let none deceive themselves with the thought that God, in His great love and mercy, will yet save even the rejecters of His grace. The exceeding sinfulness of sin can be estimated only in the light of the cross. When men urge that God is too good to cast off the sinner, let them look to Calvary. It was because there was no other way in which man could be saved, because without this sacrifice it was impossible for the human race to escape from the defiling power of sin, and be restored to communion with holy beings,—impossible for them again to become partakers of spiritual life,—it was because of this that Christ took upon Himself the guilt of the disobedient and suffered in the sinner's stead. The love and suffering and death of the Son of God all testify to the terrible enormity of sin and declare that there is no escape from its power, no hope of the higher life, but through the submission of the soul to Christ. - {SC 31.2}

Gen 3:21 - coats of skin - through rebellion, Adam forfeited the blessings of God including life in the Spirit, causing him to lose his garment of light which covered him. In exchange he took on a life in the flesh and was covered by garments of animal skins (flesh). Adam took an animal, a friend, and killed it and God made coats of skin to place upon Adam and Eve. Those skins cost the life of a friend. The shed blood of the friend foreshadowed the cleansing blood of man's Greatest Friend (Heb 9:22). Adam heard, understood, and accepted God's promise of a Savior, demonstrated in his act of killing an animal, from which God made coats of skins to cloth he and his wife (Lev 1:4, 5; 4:27-31; Lk 22:19). The coats of skin foreshadow the robes of righteousness He purposes to restore to those who choose Jesus. We will not radiate Jesus' glory of ourselves like Adam and Eve once did because of the sinful flesh that we are bound to until our redemption (Rom 7:18, 21-23). But Jesus' robe of righteousness covers our nakedness. See Rev 3:5, 19:7, 8, 6:11, 16:15 Without the shedding of blood there is no remission for sins: Heb 9:22; 1Jo 1:7 The sacrificial offerings were ordained by God to be to man a perpetual reminder and a penitential acknowledgment of his sin and a confession of his faith in the promised Redeemer. They were intended to impress upon the fallen race the solemn truth that it was sin that caused death. To Adam, the offering of the first sacrifice was a most painful ceremony. His hand must be raised to take life, which only God could give. It was the first time he had ever witnessed death, and he knew that had he been obedient to God, there would have been no death of man or beast. As he slew the innocent victim, he trembled at the thought that his sin must shed the blood of the spotless Lamb of God. This scene gave him a deeper and more vivid sense of the greatness of his transgression, which nothing but the death of God's dear Son could expiate. And he marveled at the infinite goodness that would give such a ransom to save the guilty.

A star of hope illumined the dark and terrible future and relieved it of its utter desolation. - {PP 68.1} Although gloom and darkness hung, like the pall of death, over the future, yet in the promise of the Redeemer, the Star of hope lighted up the dark future. The gospel was first preached to Adam by Christ. Adam and Eve felt sincere sorrow and repentance for their guilt. They believed the precious promise of God, and were saved from utter ruin. - {FLB 75.5} The heathen systems of sacrifice were a perversion of the system that God had appointed; and many a sincere observer of heathen rites learned from the Heb the meaning of the service divinely ordained, and in faith grasped the promise of a Redeemer. - {DA 28.3}

Gen 3:22 - And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil - God alone understands the depth of pain and misery that evil will bring and thus never intended that man should experience it. God, Who is Omniscient, demonstrates His pure and holy character in that with full knowledge of evil, He is fully, and entirely its opposite, Good and Love.

Gen 3:22

Gen 3:22 - know - {yada - Heb} to know, perceive, recognize, acknowledge

Gen 3:22

Gen 3:22 - put forth his hand - It was now necessary to prevent man from continuing to partake of the fruit of the tree of life lest he become an immortal sinner (PP 60). Through sin man had fallen under the power of death. Thus the fruit that produced immortality could now do him only harm. Immortality in a state of sin, and thus of endless misery, was not the life for which God designed man. Denying man access to this life-giving tree was an act of divine mercy which Adam may not have fully appreciated at that time, but for which he will be grateful in the world to come. There he will eat forevermore from the long-lost tree of life (Rev. 22:2, 14). By partaking of the emblems of Christ's sacrifice, we have the privilege of eating by faith of the fruit of that tree today, and of looking forward with confidence to the time when we may pluck and eat its fruit with all the redeemed in the Paradise of God (8T 288). {SDA Bible Commentary, vol 1}

Gen 3:22

Gen 3:22 - and live forever - In mercy God sent Adam and Eve from the Garden of Eden, lest they stretch for their hands and take of the Tree of Life and live forever. The thought of perpetual sin, pain and suffering without end was unimaginable for God so He purposed that man should sleep in death, returning to the dust until His plan of Redemption should be fulfilled.

Gen 3:23

Gen 3:23 - Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from whence he was taken - the fact that God drove the pair from the Garden proves a law existed that had been offended. The two angels sent to guard the Tree of Life were eyewitnesses to the scene in the Garden in accordance with Mt 18:15. See Gen 18

Gen 3:23

Gen 3:23 - to till the ground from whence he was taken - Adam was to work the very ground from which his physical body was made/derived. See Gen 2:7

Gen 3:24

Gen 3:24 - So he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubims - The Garden of Eden remained upon the earth long after man had become an outcast from its pleasant paths. The fallen race were long permitted to gaze upon the home of innocence, their entrance barred only by the watching angels. At the cherubim-guarded gate of Paradise the divine glory was revealed. Hither came Adam and his sons to worship God. Here they renewed their vows of obedience to that law the transgression of which had banished them from Eden. When the tide of iniquity overspread the world, and the wickedness of men determined their destruction by a flood of waters, the hand that had planted Eden withdrew it from the earth. But in the final restitution, when there shall be "a new heaven and a new earth" (Revelation 21:1), it is to be restored more gloriously adorned than at the beginning. { PP 62.2}

Gen 3:24

Gen 3:24 - and a flaming sword which turned every way - See Ps 104:4; Heb 1:7

Gen 3:24

Gen 3:24 - to keep the way of the tree of life - God, after the fall of mankind, needed to restrain access to the Tree of Life, a tree from which Adam and Eve freely ate before sin. A provision of the Plan of Redemption is to grant access once again, to the Sons of the Second Adam, Jesus, through His atoning blood. See Rev 22:1, 2, 14, 2:7

Gen 4:1

Gen 4:1 - And Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived and bare Cain - The Saviour's coming was foretold in Eden. When Adam and Eve first heard the promise, they looked for its speedy fulfillment. They joyfully welcomed their first-born son, hoping that he might be the Deliverer. But the fulfillment of the promise tarried. {DA 31.2} The dedication of the first-born had its origin in the earliest times. God had promised to give the First-born of heaven to save the sinner. This gift was to be acknowledged in every household by the consecration of the first-born son. He was to be devoted to the priesthood, as a representative of Christ among men. - {DA 51.1}

Gen 4:1

Gen 4:1 - Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD - Qayin kah'-yin the same as (07013) (with a play upon the affinity to (07069)) the same as (with a play upon the affinity to); Kajin, the name of the first child, also of a place in Palestine, and of an Oriental tribe:- Cain, Kenite(-s). n pr m Cain = "possession"

Gen 4:2

Gen 4:2 - Abel - Hebel Proper Name Masculine heh'-bel the same as (01892) the same as ; Hebel, the son of Adam:-Abel. Abel = "breath"

Gen 4:2

Gen 4:2 - And Abel was a keeper of sheep - Abel prefigured the way of the Great Shepherd, the One Who cared for the life of His sheep and was willing to lay down His life for His sheep. Though man had not eaten of the flesh of animals at this time, the sheep's milk may have been beneficial as a compliment to the vegetarian diet given to man. The livestock would also be used for clothing, just as God made tunics of skin for Adam and Eve. Lastly, the sheep also needed one to care for them given the curse had altered the world and caused wild animals to see them as prey. See Joh 10:11

Gen 4:2

Gen 4:2 - Cain was a tiller of the ground - Cain followed in the original profession of his father Adam, who was instructed to till the ground for his sustenance after sin. See Gen 3:17-19

Gen 4:3

Gen 4:3 - And in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD - When Cain and Abel had reached the age of accountability, after having witnessed their father worship the Lord at the family altar, they were to give evidence of their faith. See Gen 18:19; 1Jo 3:10

Gen 4:3

Gen 4:3 With the gospel message conveyed to Adam and Eve (Gen 3:15) comes a test of loyalty that all who claim to be followers of Christ must endure. The test rested in believing the promise, that God would be the One to deliver the human race by His grace alone. The sign of accepting this trust was the sacrifice of a spotless clean animal, symbolizing the death of God's Holy Son. In the story of Cain and Abel, worship is the defining characteristic of the sincere and insincere. It also becomes the catalyst for discord and death, a recurring theme throughout history.

Gen 4:3 - Cain brought of the fruit of the ground - with full knowledge of God's covenant promise to redeem mankind through the shed blood of His Son, Cain scorned God's purposes, His covenant and sought to establish righteousness by his own works and devising (sparks of his own kindling). See Ps 50:5, 6; Isa 50:11; Heb 9:22; 1Joh 1:7; Rom 4:4, 5, 7:5 Through heathenism, Satan had for ages turned men away from God; but he won his great triumph in perverting the faith of Israel. By contemplating and worshiping their own conceptions, the heathen had lost a knowledge of God, and had become more and more corrupt. So it was with Israel. The principle that man can save himself by his own works lay at the foundation of every heathen religion; it had now become the principle of the Jewish religion. Satan had implanted this principle. Wherever it is held, men have no barrier against sin. - {DA 35.2} - See Jude 1:24; Rom 8:1-11; Ps 119:11 The offering of Cain was an offense to God, because it was a Christless offering. {GW 162.2} The inquiry of many a proud heart is, "Why need I go in penitence and humiliation before I can have the assurance of my acceptance with God?" - {SC 45.2} But let none deceive themselves with the thought that God, in His great love and mercy, will yet save even the rejecters of His grace. The exceeding sinfulness of sin can be estimated only in the light of the cross. When men urge that God is too good to cast off the sinner, let them look to Calvary. It was because there was no other way in which man could be saved, because without this sacrifice it was impossible for the human race to escape from the defiling power of sin, and be restored to communion with holy beings,—impossible for them again to become partakers of spiritual life,—it was because of this that Christ took upon Himself the guilt of the disobedient and suffered in the sinner's stead. The love and suffering and death of the Son of God all testify to the terrible enormity of sin and declare that there is no escape from its power, no hope of the higher life, but through the submission of the soul to Christ. - {SC 31.2} Man is doing the greatest injury and injustice to his own soul when he thinks and acts contrary to the will of God. No real joy can be found in the path forbidden by Him who knows what is best and who plans for the good of His creatures. The path of transgression is the path of misery and destruction. - {SC 46.2}

Gen 4:4 - Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock - See Lev 1:2-5; Psa 50:5, 6; Joh 1:29, 36; Heb 9:22, 10:4, 11:4 From the day the Lord declared to the serpent in Eden, "I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed" (Gen 3:15), Satan has known that he can never hold absolute sway over the inhabitants of this world. When Adam and his sons began to offer the ceremonial sacrifices ordained by God as a type of the coming Redeemer, Satan discerned in these a symbol of communion between earth and heaven. During the long centuries that have followed, it has been his constant effort to intercept this communion. Untiringly has he sought to misrepresent God and to misinterpret the rites pointing to the Saviour, and with a great majority of the members of the human family he has been successful. - {PK 685.1}

Gen 4:4 - firstlings - First produced; as firstling males. Deuteronomy 15:19

Gen 4:4

Gen 4:4 - had respect unto Abel and unto his offering - Able was counted "righteous" before the LORD by his faith - Lev 9:23, 24; Mt 23:35; Heb 11:4 God sent consuming fire upon Abel's offering as a sign of his approval of Abel and His offering. This visible manifestation of the power of God beckoned the reverence and awe of the sons of Adam. In the Old Testament, God was known as "the God that answers by fire". However, in the last days, the devil will be permitted to masquerade the works of God, and all eyes will behold the counterfeit so that only those who are acquainted with the truths of God's word will stand true. See Gen 15:7; Judges 13:19, 20; Lev 10:1, 2; 1Kin 18:17-24; 1Chron 21:26; 2Chron 7:1, 3; 2Kin 1:10, 12, 14; CONTRAST Rev 13:13, 14; Job 1:16

Gen 4:5

Gen 4:1-12 Cain and Abel typify the two classes of people on earth from the Fall of Man: 1. The one class in faith and humility, recognizes its selfish, mortal nature and the cost it would take to restore a righteous character, the death of the Son of God. These bring the prescribed sacrifice, a symbol of the Ultimate Sacrifice, to the Lord in faith and reverence. 2. The other class in pride, selfishness, and presumption, claim God's blessings by their own righteousness and offer gifts of their own merit (sparks of their own kindling - See Isa 50:11). Cain's offering, which required much effort and work on his part to produce, typifies the false hope of earning through works, the righteous character of God that can only be granted by grace operating in faith.

Gen 4:5

Gen 4:5 - Cain and to his offering he had not respect - Cain chose to dishonor God by doing his own ways, finding his own pleasure, and speaking his own words (Isa 58:13). Cain was not found righteous in God's eyes because he demonstrated a lack of faith, respect and regard for God's prescribed means of worship, foreshadowing His amazing act of grace towards humanity. "Can't serve a Bible based God with doctrines that are not Bible based" - {Joh Lomacang} Cain and Abel typify the two classes of people on earth from the Fall of Man: 1. The one class in faith and humility, recognizes its selfish, mortal nature and the cost it would take to restore a righteous character, the death of the Son of God. These bring the prescribed sacrifice, a symbol of the Ultimate Sacrifice, to the Lord in faith and reverence. 2. The other class in pride, selfishness, and presumption, claim God's blessings by their own righteousness and offer gifts of their own merit (sparks of their own kindling - See Isa 50:11). Cain's offering, which required much effort and work on his part to produce, typifies the false hope of earning through works, the righteous character of God that can only be granted by grace operating in faith.

Gen 4:5 - And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell - the response to rebuke speaks volumes to the condition of the heart. Cain, rather than humbling himself before the One who tries the reigns of our hearts and knows our ways, became defiant in selfish pride. So it is with all the sons of rebellion when reprov'd. The prideful act of defiance, first observed in Cain (Gen 4:4-9), where we reject the Holy Spirit's prompting to confess his sins to God and ask forgiveness of those he offended, is a cover-up and profession that "we have not sinned" (1Jo 1:10). Because all have sinned (Rom 3:10-12, 23; 1Kin 8:46; 2Chron 6:36), we should never seek to hide our sins, but give confession while the LORD is merciful to forgive (Ps 32:1-6).

Gen 4:6

Gen 4:6 - And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen? - As a gentle Father, the Lord inquired of Cain in the same manner in which He inquired of Adam and Eve after sinning in the Garden (Gen 3:11, 12). In mercy, the Lord reasoned with Cain, desiring that he should repent (Rom 2:4; 2Cor 7:10, 11), turn from his selfish ways, and present an offering that would be acceptable to the Lord. As the Lord is no Respector of persons (Act 10:34), the same grace was extended to Lucifer, as the Father sought to reason with him regarding his unwarranted rebellion. God again demonstrates loving grace as He forebears and condescends to acknowledge in a loving way a wayward soul. See Isa 1:18, 19 When a person once neglects to heed the invitations, reproofs, and warnings of the Spirit of God, his conscience becomes seared, and the next time he is admonished, it will be more difficult to yield obedience than before. And thus with every repetition. Conscience is the voice of God, heard amid the conflict of human passions; when it is resisted, the Spirit of God is grieved. - {5T 120.1}. See Rom 2:4, 5; 2Cor 7:10

Gen 4:7

Gen 4:7 - if thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? God asks Cain the question, "If you do well, don't you know that you will be accepted?" In this question was both instruction and a plea to do the right thing. It is made obvious that Cain was well aware of that which God deemed to be "well", just and righteous when it came to worship. That Abel brought of the firstlings of his flock and its fat, consistent with the sacrificial services taught and passed down by his Father Adam, makes plain the common knowledge of what was good and acceptable worship. See *Heb 12:5-1 The LORD speaks to Cain of the mind, heart and the power of the will, to do well or not to do well. We must all make a decision to do the right or the wrong. Sin and the author of sin sits at the door seeking an entrance but God says that Cain, through the power of the will and through God's strength should rule over it. God was reminding Cain of His Everlasting Covenant/Gospel that teaches that God would instill in those who placed their trust in Him an enmity for sin, such that they, by His power might resist sin unto obedience and become heirs of righteousness by faith through grace. See Rom 6:11-18, 5:17; Isa 27:5 God merely seeks those who will consider and appreciate the efforts, sacrifices and blessings He has prepared for those who put their faith in Him. Lord, help me to live a life of gratitude!!

Gen 4:7

Gen 4:7 - if thou doest not well - the choice to do that which was "not well" was the unhallowed ground that Cain sought to tread upon under the influence of the Archdeceiver, Satan.

Gen 4:7

Gen 4:7 - sin lieth at the door - the devil is ever present to work upon our sinful nature, tempting us to fall out of God's will. We must be vigilant in understanding the devil's tactics and willing to place ourselves on the Lord's side so that we do not sin. See 1Chron 21:1-7; 1Pet 5:8

Gen 4:7

Gen 4:5 - And unto thee shall be his desire - God here personifies sin as one who is lying at the door, desiring and waiting to gain entrance and take possession of a soul (an individual). Cain succumbed to the "pride of life", believing himself righteous and that his labors and acts were meritorious of God's praise and salvation. Cain had an inordinate perception of himself and his own goodness, like Lucifer. Jam 1:13-15||1Jo 2:16||Isa 14:12-14

Gen 4:7

Gen 4:7 - and thou shalt rule over him - See Rom 6:14 By nature we are alienated from God. The Holy Spirit describes our condition in such words as these: "Dead in trespasses and sins;" "the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint;" "no soundness in it." We are held fast in the snare of Satan, "taken captive by him at his will." Eph 2:1; Isa 1:5, 6; 2Tim 2:26. God desires to heal us, to set us free. But since this requires an entire transformation, a renewing of our whole nature, we must yield ourselves wholly to Him. - {SC 43.2} The warfare against self is the greatest battle that was ever fought. The yielding of self, surrendering all to the will of God, requires a struggle; but the soul must submit to God before it can be renewed in holiness. - {SC 43.3}

Gen 4:8

Gen 4:8 - And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him. - In the same spirit of his father the devil, Cain, being vexed with God but not able to challenge Him, manifests his rage and vengeance on one who is beloved and close to God. Abel's righteous life was a continual rebuke to the self-seeking rebel, Cain. See Lev 19:17; Rev 12:5-17; *1Jo 3:12; Jam 3:14-16 "The whole life of ancient Israel centered around the sanctuary service and with good reason. It was a dispute over the sanctuary service at the gate of Eden which precipitated the first physical murder in the universe. The child whom Eve hoped would be the Saviour proved to be the first murderer because he rejected the service God gave as the answer to the sin problem. The roots of Israel's existence, indeed the whole human race, go back to that plan God gave in the beginning and which in the end-time is to bring complete salvation and rid the universe of sin. Therefore each day there was confession of known sins. This daily service was to take care of the symptoms of sin. On the yearly Day of Atonement these sins were to be blotted out. This service was to cure the disease. This was the grand prelude to the end-time work to be completed at the close of the 2300 days. "Then shall the sanctuary be cleansed." Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short; pg 140, 141

Gen 4:9

Gen 4:9 - And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? - the LORD, as with Adam and Eve, came to Cain and inquired the whereabouts of his brother Abel. God knew well Cain's murder of Abel but wanted to give him an opportunity to acknowledge and repent of his sin. He did not, just as his parents denied accountability. See Gen 3:9-11

Gen 4:9

Gen 4:8 - Cain's dismissive, irreverent, insubordination lie and statements to the Lord were worthy, according to man's judgment, of instant death. Yet, the Lord mercifully forebore and waited to see if Cain would repent of his course of destruction. See 2Tim 2:24-26; Rom 2:4, 5

Gen 4:9

Gen 4:9 - Am I my brother's keeper? The arrogant, disrespectful and irreverent response of Cain demonstrates a heart that had moved far away from the Lord. Cain's eventual departure from the LORD and anything that pertained to righteousness was just an expression of the barrenness of heart that he already possessed. Yes, Cain was to be his brother's keeper, but because he permitted the enemy to rule over his mind, he fulfilled the ultimate aim of satan's enmity, murder. See Rom 14:7; Prov 30:20; Mt 25:36; Rom 15:1, 12:15 Contrast 2Sam 10:9-12

Gen 4:10

Gen 4:10 - And he said, What hast thou done? - see Gen 3:11

Gen 4:10

Gen 4:10 - the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground - Abel's blood was not literally crying from the ground but the Lord personifies the innocent blood as crying out for justice. See Lev 17:11, 14; Rev 6:10; Mt 23:35; Jam 5:4

Gen 4:11

Gen 4:11 - And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand - See Gen 9:5, 6; Ps 34:21; Num 35:20, 21

Gen 4:11

Gen 4:11 - which hath opened her mouth - God personifies the earth as opening its mouth to receive the blood of righteous Abel. Compare Rev 12:16

Gen 4:12

Gen 4:12 - When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength - those who shed innocent blood would incur a curse from the Lord. See Gen 9:5, 6

Gen 4:12

Gen 4:12 - a fugitive - Unstable; unsteady; fleeting; not fixed or durable. Fleeing; running from danger or pursuit.

Gen 4:12

Gen 4:12 - vagabond - A person who moves from place to place without a permanent home and often without a regular means of support. One who wanders from place to place, having no fixed dwelling, or not abiding in it, and usually without the means of honest livelihood; a vagrant; a tramp; hence, a worthless person; a rascal.

Gen 4:13

Gen 4:13 - My punishment is greater than I can bear - Cain selfishly projects wrong upon the LORD in stating that the punishment pronounced is excessive and unjust. The devil did a mighty work of maligning God and wrongfully persuading Cain that God was unjust.

Gen 4:14

Gen 4:14 - Behold, thou hast driven me out this day - Cain's accusation of God is reflective of the sinful nature he inherited from his father, Adam, who too laid blame for transgression upon the Lord. Cain's own choices of rebellion and actions were what drove him from the face of the earth and the face of the Lord.

Gen 4:14

Gen 4:14 - a fugitive - Unstable; unsteady; fleeting; not fixed or durable. Fleeing; running from danger or pursuit.

Gen 4:14

Gen 4:14 - and it shall come to pass, that every one that findeth me shall slay me - Cain is concerned about his life and the threat of others causing him harm, while he showed no such concern for his innocent brother Abel. - See Gen 9:5, 6

Gen 4:15

Gen 4:15 - And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him - In sparing the life of the first murderer, God presented before the whole universe a lesson bearing upon the great controversy.... It was His purpose, not merely to put down the rebellion, but to demonstrate to all the universe the nature of rebellion....The holy inhabitants of other worlds were watching with the deepest interest the events taking place on the earth.... - {LDE 30.1}

Gen 4:15

Gen 4:15 - And the LORD set a mark upon Cain lest any finding him should kill him - the mark placed upon Cain foreshadows the Mark of the Beast, the symbol of rebellion that will be placed upon the wicked in the last days. The mark upon Cain was for his protection however, that he be not killed as a man slayer. God permitted Cain to live in order to develop the rebellious race and to show the prolonged effects of sin on those living in rebellion.

Gen 4:16

Gen 4:16 - went out from the presence of the LORD - God fills the earth and His eyes behold all of the creation (Ps 139:1-12). Therefore, it must be that Cain in his "evil" heart, having no fear of God (Jer 32:40), departed from God's presence. See Heb 3:12; Job 1:12, 2:7; Jer 17:13; Prov 15:3; Ps 33:13, 14; *Isa 26:10 In sparing the life of Cain, God had demonstrated to the universe what would be the result of permitting sin to go unpunished. The influence exerted upon his descendants by his life and teaching led to the state of corruption that demanded the destruction of the whole world by a flood. {PP 325.2}

Gen 4:16

Gen 4:16 - east of Eden - Cain became the spiritual father of all who practice Spiritualism (Isa 2:6-8) and Sun worship (Eze 8:16) when he journeyed to the east.

Gen 4:17

Gen 4:17 - And Cain knew his wife - obviously a daughter of Adam and Eve who shared in the same rebellious nature and spirit as her brother Cain.

Gen 4:17

Gen 4:17 - Enoch - meaning "dedicated"

Gen 4:18

Gen 4:18 - Irad - Grandson of Cain. Name meaning fugitive; from the same word meaning "wild ass".

Gen 4:18

Gen 4:18 - Mehujael - Great-grandson of Cain. Name meaning "smitten of God"

Gen 4:18

Gen 4:18 - Methusael - 4th generation from Cain. Name meaning "who is from God"

Gen 4:18

Gen 4:18 - Lamech - 5th Generation from Cain. Name meaning "powerful"

Gen 4:19

Gen 4:19 - And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah - Lamech was first to engage in the demeaning, rebellious act of taking multiple wives. God never intended for such practices to occur.

Gen 4:19

Gen 4:19 - Adah - `Adah Proper Name Feminine aw-daw' from (05710) from ; ornament; Adah, the name of two women:--Adah. Adah = "ornament"

Gen 4:19

Gen 4:19 - Zillah - Tsillah Proper Name Feminine tsil-law' from (06738) feminine of ; Tsillah, an antediluvian woman:--Zillah. Zillah = "shade"

Gen 4:20

Gen 4:20 Jabal - Yabal Proper Name Masculine yaw-bawl' the same as (02988) the same as ; Jabal, an antediluvian:--Jabal. Jabal = "stream of water"

Gen 4:21

Gen 4:21 - Jubal - Yuwbal Proper Name Masculine yoo-bawl' from (02986) from ; stream; Jubal, an antediluvian:--Jubal. Jubal = "stream"

Gen 4:22

Gen 4:22 - Tubalcain - Tuwbal Proper Name Masculine apparently from (02986) (compare (02981)) and (07014) apparently from (compare) and ; offspring of Cain; Tubal-Kajin, an antediluvian patriarch:--Tubal-cain. Tubal-cain = "thou will be brought of Cain"

Gen 4:22

Gen 4:22 - Naamah - Na`amah nah-am-aw' from (05277) feminine of ; pleasantness; Naamah, the name of an antediluvian woman, of an Ammonitess, and of a place in Palestine:--Naamah. Naamah = "loveliness" n pr f

Gen 4:23

Gen 4:23 - And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice; ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: for I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man to my hurt. - the provision of an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth was made to halt the unwonted vengeance and cruelty of men such as Lamech, who killed for a mere slight or offense. Ex 21:24; Mt 5:38; Rom 12:19

Gen 4:24

Gen 4:24 - If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold - the boastful, pride and blaspheme exhibited by Lamech illustrates the spirit working in him.

Gen 4:25

Gen 4:25 - Seth - meaning "compensation" or substitute.

Gen 4:25

Gen 4:25 - For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew - the seed that Eve spoke of described both the righteous lineage that Seth would be the forefather of and a possible reference to the anticipated "Seed" that would end the rebellion and crush the serpents head. See Gal 3:16

Gen 4:26 - Enos - meaning "man"

Gen 4:26

Gen 4:26 - then began men to call upon the name of the LORD - As is described in Rom 10:13-15, the Everlasting Gospel was spoken to Seth and His descendants by Adam and they by faith believed in Him Who made the promises. In believing they began to call upon the Lord, looking to Jesus the Author and Finisher (Perfector) of our faith, placing their trust in Him and He declared them righteous, Sons of God. Thus began a holy line that would continue until the fulfillment of the promise and the Second Coming of Christ. See Rom 9:8-23; 1Cor 1:2; DA 34.2 See Zephaniah 3:9; Ps 20:7, 145:19; Joel 2:32; Act 2:21; Prov 18:10; Rom 8:14, 10:13-15; Ps 105:1-5, 145:18, 31:17; Jer 29:11-14. Characteristics of the sons of God, descendants of Seth from whom Jesus descended were that they: 1. Upheld God's Everlasting Covenant and hoped in the promise of a Redeemer (see Ju 1:14, 15) 2. They call on the name of the Lord. (See Ps 105:1, 3, 119:132; Prov 3:5, 6; Rom 10:13) 3. They walk with God (See Gen 5:24) 4. They die in faith, believing in God's promises to be fulfilled (Heb 11:13) Ever since the fall of Adam, Christ had been committing to chosen servants the seed of His word, to be sown in human hearts. During His life on this earth He had sown the seed of truth and had watered it with His blood. The conversions that took place on the Day of Pentecost were the result of this sowing, the harvest of Christ's work, revealing the power of His teaching. - {AA 44.4}

Gen 4:21 - the name of the LORD - God's name is synonymous with His character (the way He thinks and feels) which is a strong tower to the righteous. God's name is Salvation to those who place their trust in Him. See Prov 18:10; Ex 33:18-34:7; Act 4:12; Ps 116:13

Gen 5:2

Gen 5:1-3 Adam was created in the perfect image of God. However, after his rebellion and mankind's fall, Adam brought forth children in his sinful nature. Though born in sin and shapen in iniquity, man's characters could once again be ennobled by the vivifying grace of God and through obedience.

Gen 5:2

Gen 5:2 - called their name Adam - meaning "mankind"

Gen 5:3

Gen 5:3 - And Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image; and called his name Seth: - Mankind receives an inheritance of evil from Adam. By nature we are alienated from God. The Holy Spirit describes our condition in such words as these: "Dead in trespasses and sins;" "the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint;" "no soundness in it." We are held fast in the snare of Satan, "taken captive by him at his will." Eph 2:1; Isa 1:5, 6; 2Tim 2:26. {Steps to Christ 43.2} - See Gen 1:21, 24, 25 Mankind is unrighteous by nature: Rom 3:23, 7:14, 3:10, 7:18, 1:29

Gen 5:3 - Seth - meaning "substitute"

Gen 5:4

Gen 5:4 - And the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years: and he begat sons and daughters: - Adam was 130yrs old when he begat Seth.

Gen 5:5

Gen 5:5 - And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years: and he died - It is true that "in the day Adam ate of the forbidden fruit, he would surely die". Adam died at 930 years, 70 years short of 1000, which is as a day to the Lord. 2Pet 3:8; Ps 90:4

Gen 5:6

Gen 5:6 - Enos - meaning "man"

Gen 5:9

Gen 5:9 - Cainan - also written Kenan, meaning "possession".

Gen 5:12

Gen 5:12 - Mahalaleel - meaning "praise of God"

Gen 5:15

Gen 5:15 - Jared - meaning "descent" or going downward. A possible commentary on the condition of the world as Jared observed.

Gen 5:18

Gen 5:18 - Enoch - meaning "dedicated"

Gen 5:21

Gen 5:21 - Methuselah - meaning "man of the dart" or through decomposition: Methu - meaning "Man of" Selah - meaning "end"

Gen 5:22

Gen 5:22 - And Enoch walked with God - See Amos 3:3; Ps 16:8; Rev 14:4 Holiness is constant agreement with God. Shall we not strive to be that which Christ so greatly desires us to be—Christians in deed and in truth—that the world may see in our lives a revelation of the saving power of truth? This world is our preparatory school. While here we shall meet with trials and difficulties. Continually the enemy of God will seek to draw us away from our allegiance. But while we cleave to Him who gave Himself for us we are safe. - {HP 33.4}

Gen 5:24

Gen 5:24 - Enoch walked with God and was not - See Heb 11:5; 2Kin 2:11; 1Thess 4:17 Enoch walked with God three hundred years previous to his translation to heaven, and the state of the world was not then more favorable for the perfection of Christian character than it is today. And how did Enoch walk with God? He educated his mind and heart to ever feel that he was in the presence of God, and when in perplexity his prayers would ascend to God to keep him. He refused to take any course that would offend His God. He kept the Lord continually before Him. He would pray, "Teach me Thy way, that I may not err. What is thy pleasure concerning me? What shall I do to honor Thee, my God?" Thus he was constantly shaping his way and course in accordance with God's commandments, and he had perfect confidence and trust in his heavenly Father, that He would help him. He had no thought or will of his own; it was all submerged in the will of his Father. - {1SAT 32.2}

Gen 5:25

Gen 5:25 - Lamech - meaning "powerful"

Gen 5:29

Gen 5:27 - Noah - meaning "rest" a possible prophetic reference to the rest from the rebellion by way of a flood that was ever present in the world. In the hope that his first-born might be the promised seed, the redeemer for whose coming the faithful longingly waited, Lamech called him Noah, "rest," saying, "this same one shall comfort us." The name "Noah," nuach, "to rest," and the word "to comfort," nacham, both point back to a common root meaning "to sigh," "to breathe," "to rest," and "to lie down." Lamech was a godly man who followed in the footsteps of his exemplary grandfather Enoch and his pious, long-lived father Methuselah. {SDA Bible Commentary, vol 1}

Gen 5:29

Gen 5:29 - This same shall comfort us concerning our work and toil of our hands, because of the ground which the LORD hath cursed - Noah's obedience in building an ark would provide rest and regeneration for the world. Lamech apparently felt the burden of tilling the ground that God had cursed and looked forward in faith to the time when the existing misery and corruption would cease and redemption from the curse would come. His hope that this might be realized in his son was not fulfilled, at least in the way he expected. Nevertheless, Noah was destined to proclaim a bold warning against evil and to play an important role by becoming the progenitor of all who have lived since his time. {SDA Bible Commentary, vol 1}

Gen 6:2 Those who by faith embraced God's gift of a righteous life and character through obedience to God, adhering to His commandments, and honoring His Everlasting Covenant, became "sons of God" - descendants of Seth who are led by the Spirit of God. (Lk 3:37, 38; 1Jo 3:1, 2; *Rom 8:14-17; Gal 3:7). Those who in self indulgence spurned the grace of God for a life driven by their own warped passions, became the "sons and daughters of men" - descendants of Cain (Rom 8:5-9). The joining of these two groups is an amalgamation, the joining of two things that should not cleave together - spiritual fornication or the mystery of iniquity, the mixing of truth and error. Ever since the fall of Adam, Christ had been committing to chosen servants the seed of His word, to be sown in human hearts. During His life on this earth He had sown the seed of truth and had watered it with His blood. The conversions that took place on the Day of Pentecost were the result of this sowing, the harvest of Christ's work, revealing the power of His teaching. - {AA 44.4} For some time the two classes remained separate. The race of Cain, spreading from the place of their first settlement, dispersed over the plains and valleys where the children of Seth had dwelt; and the latter, in order to escape from their contaminating influence, withdrew to the mountains, and there made their home. So long as this separation continued, they maintained the worship of God in its purity. But in the lapse of time they ventured, little by little, to mingle with the inhabitants of the valleys. This association was productive of the worst results. 'The sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair.' The children of Seth, attracted by the beauty of the daughters of Cain's descendants, displeased the Lord by intermarrying with them. Many of the worshipers of God were beguiled into sin by the allurements that were now constantly before them, and they lost their peculiar, holy character. Mingling with the depraved, they became like them in spirit and in deeds; the restrictions of the seventh commandment were disregarded, 'and they took them wives of all which they chose.' The children of Seth went 'in the way of Cain' (Ju 11); they fixed their minds upon worldly prosperity and enjoyment and neglected the commandments of the Lord. Men 'did not like to retain God in their knowledge;' they 'became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.' Rom 1:21. Therefore 'God gave them over to a mind void of judgment.' Verse 28, margin. {PP 81}

Gen 6:2 - Sons of God - Those who by faith embraced God's gift of a righteous life and character through obedience to God, adhering to His commandments, and honoring His Everlasting Covenant, became "sons of God" - descendants of Seth who are led by the Spirit of God. See Lk 3:37, 38; 1Jo 3:1, 2; Rom 8:14-17; Josh 23:12, 13 God calls the COI my "firstborn" and Moses refers to them as "Children of the Lord thy God" - Ex 4:22; Deut 14:1 Sons of God are not angels because angels do not procreate - See Mk 12:25; Mt 22:30 Those who in self indulgence spurned the grace of God for a life driven by their own warped passions, became the "sons and daughters of men" - descendants of Cain (Rom 8:5-9). Some of the Christians stood firm, declaring that they could make no compromise. Others were in favor of yielding or modifying some features of their faith and uniting with those who had accepted a part of Christianity, urging that this might be the means of their full conversion. That was a time of deep anguish to the faithful followers of Christ. Under a cloak of pretended Christianity, Satan was insinuating himself into the church, to corrupt their faith and turn their minds from the word of truth. - {GC 42.4}

Gen 6:2 - saw that the daughters of men that they were fair - The Sethites, descendants of Seth, sought marriage only by what they beheld, women's appearance, not based on the content of their character. the descendants of Cain, daughters of men, were no more attractive than those of Seth, only that the daughters of men, in their rebellion towards God had adopted lewd and enticing dress that lured the sons of God from their sacred moorings. See Ps 57:4; 2 Kings 9:20-30; Rev 16:15; Josh 23:12, 13

Gen 6:2

Gen 6:2 - took them wives of all which they chose - See Deut 7:2-4; Gen 28:9; Dan 2:43; Ezr 9:1, 2, 12; 2Cor 6:14; Judges 1:21-36 The joining of these two groups is an amalgamation, the joining of two things that should not cleave together - spiritual fornication or the mystery of iniquity, the mixing of truth and error. Compromise is not an option for God. Complete integrity is that which glorifies God (Gen 39:7-9; Dan 1:8, 3:16-18, 6:10). God does not make excuses for compromise. Consider also Moses - Num 20:7-12 Gen 6:2 (SDABC1): They took them wives. These unholy alliances between Sethites and Cainites were responsible for the rapid increase of wickedness among the former. God has ever warned His followers not to marry unbelievers, because of the great danger to which the believer is thus exposed and to which he usually succumbs (Deut. 7:3, 4; Joshua 23:12, 13; Ezra 9:2; Neh. 13:25; 2 Cor. 6:14, 15). But the Sethites did not heed the warnings they surely must have received. Guided by sense attractions, they were not content with the beautiful daughters of the godly race, and often preferred Cainite brides. Moreover, the prevalence of polygamy seems to be suggested by the plural expression used, they took "wives." {SDA Bible Commentary, vol 1} Now the church was in fearful peril. Prison, torture, fire, and sword were blessings in comparison with this. Some of the Christians stood firm, declaring that they could make no compromise. Others were in favor of yielding or modifying some features of their faith and uniting with those who had accepted a part of Christianity, urging that this might be the means of their full conversion. That was a time of deep anguish to the faithful followers of Christ. Under a cloak of pretended Christianity, Satan was insinuating himself into the church, to corrupt their faith and turn their minds from the word of truth. - {GC 42.4}

Gen 6:2 - The Sethites not only left their moorings by seeking the daughters of Cain, but may have adopted the Cainite practice of polygamy, taking wives unto themselves.

Gen 6:3

Gen 6:3 - My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh - the antediluvians are said to have grieved the Spirit of God. Their flagrant disregard of God and their ultimate rejection of the light for their time not only brought about their immediate condemnation and death but eternal banishment. See Mt 12:31, 32

Gen 6:3

Gen 6:3 - For that he also is flesh. This expression may also be translated, "in their going astray man is flesh," from shagag, "to wander," "to go astray." By following after the lusts of the flesh, says God, men have surrendered themselves to its desires to the extent that they are no longer responsive to the control of the Holy Spirit. Insensibility to divine influence is complete; hence, the Spirit of God is to be withdrawn. There is no further use in "striving" to restrain or improve them. {SDA Bible Commentary vol 1}

Gen 6:3

Gen 6:3 - yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years - the Lord pronounced a sentence upon the inhabitants of the earth where unto them would be given 120yrs of probationary time before destruction. God is no Respector of person but shows mercy equally to us all. During these 120yrs, God's Holy Spirit would plead with men to repent of their sins until they were hardened in their rebellion. See 2Chron 30:8-10; Rom 2:4, 5; Eph 6:9; Act 10:28, 34; Amos 3:7; 1Pet 3:19, 20; 2Pet 2:5 God would limit men's lives in time to span no more than 70 or 80yrs (Ps 90:10)

Gen 6:4 - giants - or nphil {nef-eel'}; from ; properly, a feller, i.e. a bully or tyrant--giant. The giants in the antediluvian world were great and mighty men of renown for their wickedness [masters of primitive acquisition - taking whatever they wanted (Mt 12:29)]. In other words, these were men who excelled in cruelty and lawlessness. We see the same "breed" of men arise in the time of the building of the Tower of Babel with Nimrod, the "mighty hunter" [of men - a murderer]. The prophet Isa portrays the great and mean men as idolaters (Isa 2:8, 9). See also Gen 10:9,10; 11:1-9 Those who lived in the days of Noah and Abraham were more like the angels in form, in comeliness and strength. But every generation has been growing weaker.—Spiritual Gifts 1:69. - {TA 69.1} Gen 6:4 There is reason to believe that this Hebrew word may come from the root naphal, and that the nephilim were "violent" ones, or terrorists, rather than physical "giants." Since in those days the entire human race was of great stature, it must be that character rather than height is designated. The antediluvians generally possessed great physical and mental strength. These individuals, renowned for wisdom and skill, persistently devoted their intellectual and physical powers to the gratification of their own pride and passions and to the oppression of their fellow men (PP 80, 84, 90). {SDA Bible Commentary vol 1}

Gen 6:4 - daughters of men - descendants of Cain and his rebellious, pagan lineage.

Gen 6:4

Gen 6:4 - and they bare children to them - the offspring of the Sons of God and daughters of men were great men of renown. Such is the case with the righteous that turn from righteousness, they often excel in the evil they once spoke against.

Gen 6:4

Gen 6:4 - the same became might men which were of old, men of renown - the might men suggest might hunters of men (men slayers - See Nimrod in Gen 10:8, 9) and men of renown suggests men of infamy. "Of old" suggest that because of their long lifespans, they were able to perform their wickedness over several generations, earning them infamy over many years.

Gen 6:5

Gen 6:5- GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth - See Ps 12:1 But if there was one sin above another which called for the destruction of the race by the flood, it was the base crime of amalgamation of man and beast which defaced the image of God, and caused confusion everywhere. {1SP 69.1}

Gen 6:5

Gen 6:5 - every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually - The wicked, when given the Mark of the Beast, will have seared minds such that they can not respond to the promptings of the Holy Spirit. The opposite applies to those who have been sealed by the Holy Spirit, every thought and imagination that exalts itself against the knowledge of God is held in check. Save me LORD!! See Jer 16:12; Prov 6:12-15; 2Cor 10:5; 1Tim 4:1, 2; Jeremiah 6:19; Rom 1:30; Ps 99:8, 106:29, 39; Ecclesiastes 7:29

Gen 6:6

Gen 6:6 - And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart - See 1Sam 15:35; Jer 15:6 Compare Num 23:19, Heb 7:21

Gen 6:6

Gen 6:6 - and it grieved him at his heart - See Isa 63:10; Eph 4:30 Conscience is the voice of God, heard amid the conflict of human passions; when it is resisted, the Spirit of God is grieved. - {5T 120.1}

Gen 6:7

Gen 6:7 - And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them. PRESENT TRUTH: (2Pet 1:12) Time of Noah - Get in the boat a flood is coming (Gen 6:7; Heb 11:7; 2Pet 2:5) Time of Lot - Escape for thy life, do not look back, Leave the city and run for the mountains (Gen 19:17) Time of Jeremiah - the King of the North is coming - (Jeremiah 25:9) Time of Christ - Jesus is Messiah the Prince, Christ the Lord, heed His warning (Act 2:36; Mt 24:15-20) Today - All of the above and the 3 Angel's Messages (1Cor 10:11||1Pet 1:12; Lk 17:26-30; Dan 11:40-45; Rev 14)

Gen 6:8 - Noah - name means "rest". See Gen 5:29

Gen 6:9

Gen 6:9 - Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God - Noah was counted "righteous" by the LORD. See Gen 7:1; Job 1:1

Gen 6:11

Gen 6:11 - The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence - Satan's rebellious spirit of "the survival of the fittest" had taken over the sons of men. Gratuitous violence and murder, claiming the possessions of others by force were all commonplace under the antediluvian world.

Gen 6:12

Gen 6:12 - And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth - the corruptions of men bring corruption upon the land.

Gen 6:13

Gen 6:12 - The end of all flesh is come before me - God foresaw the destruction of all the living upon the earth. See Isa 46:9, 10

Gen 6:14

Gen 6:13 - and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch - the boat was to be sealed within and without. So too, the people of God are to be sanctified and sealed spiritually and intellectually by the truth and God's holy Sabbath day. See Rev 7:1-4; Joh 17:17; Isa 8:16

Gen 7:1

Gen 7:1 - And the LORD said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation - at the end of 120yrs, God commanded Noah, his family and all the animals to enter the ark. God would remove the Garden in the land of Eden and transport it to heaven where the redeemed would be able to partake of its fruit in heaven and in the earth made new. See Gen 3:22-24; Rev 2:7, 22:14; 1Pet 1:9

Gen 7:2

Gen 7:2 - Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female. 3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth. - Every species of animals which God had created was preserved in the ark. The confused species which God did not create, which were the result of amalgamation, were destroyed by the flood. Since the flood, there has been amalgamation of man and beast, as may be seen in the almost endless varieties of species of animals, and in certain races of men. - {1SP 78.2}

Gen 7:7

Gen 7:7 - And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood - Everything was now ready for the closing of the ark, which could not have been done by Noah from within. An angel is seen by the scoffing multitude descending from heaven, clothed with brightness like the lightning. He closes that massive outer door, and then takes his course upward to heaven again.—The Spirit of Prophecy 1:72. - {TA 69.5}

Gen 7:8

Gen 7:8, 9 - Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth, There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah - Angels were sent to collect from the forest and field the beasts which God had created.—The Spirit of Prophecy 1:69, 72. - {TA 69.3} Angels went before these animals and they followed two and two, male and female, and clean beasts by sevens.—Spiritual Gifts 3:67. - {TA 69.4}

Gen 7:10

Gen 7:10 - And it came to pass after seven days - While Noah, his family and the animals abode within the ark, the evil antediluvian world scorned and made mockery of the man of God and his efforts. Their scornful, boast was "Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it!" Isa 5:19

Gen 7:14

Gen 7:14 - They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort - Every species of animals which God had created was preserved in the ark. The confused species which God did not create, which were the result of amalgamation, were destroyed by the flood. Since the flood, there has been amalgamation of man and beast, as may be seen in the almost endless varieties of species of animals, and in certain races of men. - {1SP 78.2}

Gen 7:23

Gen 7:23 - and Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark - See 1Pet 3:20; Isa 24:6

Gen 8:20

Gen 8:20 - Noah builded an alter - the building of alter after exiting the ark marked the start of a new dispensation. Before the flood, all men worshipped at the gate of the Garden of Eden. Now, man is instructed to build an alter of un-hewn stones, representing Jesus Christ, upon which to offer sacrifices. Now received the covenant practice of sacrificing clean animals to the Lord from the first sacrifice performed by Adam in the Garden of Eden. Noah showed his trust in God's word, His promise of a Savior and in God Himself by adhering to the sacrificial system.

Gen 8:21

Gen 8:21 - And the LORD smelled a sweet savour; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done. - Noah understood God's Everlasting Covenant and what it symbolized and as a result, his sacrifice which pointed to Christ was as a sweet savor before the Lord. God does not take pleasure in the blood and sacrifice of animals, but rather in righteousness, faith in believing Him and His promises is what pleases the Lord. See Eph 5:2; Heb 10:6

Gen 8:22 - While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease - God covenants with all inhabitants of the world to maintain the ordinances of seasons and day and night. See Gen 1:14-18

Gen 9:3

Gen 9:3 - Every moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you - it is understood that clean animals of which there was a seven fold abundance above the unclean animals was being referenced in God's command. In addition to the scarcity of vegetables and plant foods due to the flood, God may have sought to limit men's lives lest another episode as that which preceded the flood occur. The history of the antediluvians testifies that long life is not a blessing to the sinner; God's great forbearance did not repress their wickedness. The longer men lived, the more corrupt they became. - {PP 325.2}

Gen 9:5

Gen 9:5, 6 - And surely your blood of your lives will I require; at the hand of every beast will I require it, and at the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man. Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man. - Because of the violence that filled the earth prior to the flood, God felt the need to pronounce the curse once again upon all who shed innocent blood. See Gen 4:11, 12, 6:5, 6, 11

Gen 9:11 - cut off - to be killed. See Lev

Gen 9:22

Gen 9:22 - And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without - See Hab 2:15

Gen 9:22

Gen 9:22 - perverse children are born of the man of God, Noah. Noah, though drunk, was shamed by his own son, Ham.

Gen 10:8

Gen 10:10 - Nimrod - meaning "rebellion". Nimrod was a mighty man of wickedness upon the earth. Nimrod founded 10 cities in opposition to God's command to spread out and repopulate the earth. One city was Babel, where he sought to make a name for himself and build a tower to extend to the heavens, again in defiance of God who promised never to destroy the earth and its inhabitants by a flood. First man to declare himself god and a founder of paganism. When Nimrod died, it was believed that his spirit emanated from the sun and people would bow and worship the sun. Years after his death, his wife Semaramis got pregnant and it was termed an immaculate conception. Her son, Tammuz, did not live long and so the people set aside 40 days for weeping for Tammuz which the church or Rome made to be the festival of Lent.

Gen 10:9

Gen 10:9 - He was a mighty hunter before the LORD - he was a mighty hunter [of men] before the Lord. Nimrod was a rebellious murderer before the Lord.

Gen 11:2

Gen 11:2 - journeyed from the east - Nimrod and his associates journeyed from Mt. Ararat in the eastern most part of Turkey, southwestward to the plain of Shinar in Iraq.

Gen 11:3

Gen 11:3 - they had brick for stone - in erecting an alter, God commanded the children of Israel to use stones untouched and un-hewn by men. Here, in their vain attempt to erect a counterfeit alter, Nimrod use brick, a product of man's own devising. See Ex 20:25

Gen 11:4

Gen 11:4 - a city - symbolizing a kingdom/nation or state-craft. See Rev 11:8, 14:8

Gen 11:4

Gen 11:4 - a tower - symbolizing an altar or a church; an idol altar of worship to the god of self. See Isa 5:2

Gen 11:4

Gen 11:4 - whose top may reach unto heaven - in defiance, Nimrod and company broke God's covenant of peace He established with the world and seen in the rainbow. Fearing God may destroy the earth again, this monument to their greatness and alter represented the false worship of the Image to the Beast.

Gen 11:4

Gen 11:4 - let us make us a name - the builders of the tower in Babel sought to make a great name for themselves, walking in the sparks after their own kindling (Isa 50:11; Isa 14:20). Unlike those who God highly exalts and grants a great name (Gen 12:2; Prov 22:1; Eccl 7:1; Joh 5:44), Nimrod and his cohorts in self-exaltation sought for greatness and honor outside of God. In so doing they were walking in the sparks of their own kindling. See Isa 50:11; Joh 8:54

Gen 11:4 - lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth - in brash defiance of God's expressed command to be fruitful, multiply and fill the earth (Gen 1:22, 9:1), even after the flood, Nimrod and his cohorts sought to build a city and tower to their honor. The counsels of Noah and Shem were openly rejected by Nimrod and his cohorts as they sought to build a tower and city to their glory: But at what a loss to those who had set themselves against God! It was His purpose that as men should go forth to found nations in different parts of the earth they should carry with them a knowledge of His will, that the light of truth might shine undimmed to succeeding generations. Noah, the faithful preacher of righteousness, lived for three hundred and fifty years after the Flood, Shem for five hundred years, and thus their descendants had an opportunity to become acquainted with the requirements of God and the history of His dealings with their fathers. But they were unwilling to listen to these unpalatable truths; they had no desire to retain God in their knowledge; and by the confusion of tongues they were, in a great measure, shut out from intercourse with those who might have given them light. - {PP 120.2}

Gen 11:5 - the LORD came down to see the city and the tower - The descent of Christ marks the commencement of an Investigative Judgment for the living, for Nimrod and his associates; paralleling the descent of the Mighty Angel of Rev 18 Who lightens the earth with His glory while commencing the judgment of the living.

Gen 11:6

Gen 11:6 - nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do - the same spirit of unbounded rebellion that pervaded the antediluvian world was seen two generations after the flood. See Gen 6:5, 6

Gen 11:6

Gen 11:6 - they have imagined to do - God has given them over to a reprobate mind because they despised the truth and God's covenant. Nimrod and the people have fallen away as in the mystery of iniquity. Rom 1:28

Gen 11:7

Gen 11:7 - let us go down - the Godhead will descend the second time and apply their Executive Judgment upon Nimrod and the inhabitants of Shinar.

Gen 11:7

Gen 11:7 - there confound their language - contrary to the descent of the Holy Spirit on the apostles on the day of Pentecost, granting the disciples cloven tongues of fire to communicate the gospel in diverse intelligible languages, the descent of the Godhead in the time of Nimrod was for the scattering of the people through the confusion of languages. See Act 23:6-9

Gen 11:7

Gen 11:7 - that they may not understand one another's speech - In contrast to the Day of Pentecost, when God through the Holy Spirit was poured out in His fulness, granting the gift of tongues so that men may hear the gospel in their own languages, the Godhead here descends in Its fulness and confounded the language of the rebellious hosts of Babel.

Gen 11:8

Gen 11:8 - So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of the all the earth - The LORD's purposes in filling the earth would be accomplished, even if it involved confusing the languages and diversifying the cultures and populations. The scattering of the people marks the Executive Judgment (fall) upon Nimrod and the people and the first Fall of Babylon. See Rev 14:8 As an additional sign of God's bringing down Nimrod and his cohorts, the LORD blasts off the top of the tower: Lightning from heaven, as a token of God's wrath, broke off the top of their tower, casting it to the ground. Thus God would show to rebellious man that He is supreme. - {SR 73.2}

Gen 11:9

Gen 11:9 - from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth - the purposes of the LORD were fulfilled after all. See Gen 9:7

Gen 12:1

Gen 12:1 - Get thee out of thy country - Abraham, being called from Ur of the Chaldeese, was being drawn out of Babylon in a primary sense. Secondly, since Ur was founded by Nimrod, the son of Cush, who founded Egypt, Ur also contained Egypt (spiritually speaking). Therefore, Abraham was drawn out of Egypt as well. Being taken from both Egypt and Babylon are the characteristics of God's remnant people who keep the commandments of God (Ex 20:2) and have the faith of Jesus Christ (Rev 14:12). The command to Abraham to get from his country, kindred and father's house was a declaration of the separation of church and state. God commanded Abraham to leave his country so that he became a pilgrim on earth, having no earthly country to claim. In this work, Abraham, as a representative of God's church, would also be separating himself from the earthly monarch in Mesopotamia and the civil government over which he ruled. Herein is found the separation of church and earthly state which God requires. See Num 23:9; Mt 22:20, 21; 1Pet 1:1 To-day, the word is, "Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." That is Babylon. And in the eleventh chapter of the book of Rev, it speaks of that which is "spiritually called Egypt;" and they who get the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over the mark, and the number of his name "sing the song of Moses"-not something like it-but "the song of Moses the servant of God." What was the song of Moses?-The song of deliverance from Egypt. Then, when those who get the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, sing the song of Moses, it is because they are delivered from Egypt. Because, to-day, and to the end of the world, "Out of Egypt have I called my son." There is to-day a Babylon and an Egypt. To-day there are people of God in Babylon and in Egypt. And to-day the Lord calls, "Come out of her my people;" and, "Out of Egypt have I called my son." {March 15, 1897 ATJ, GCDB Q48.2} Look at it again: Where was Nimrod?-He was in Babylon, and governed the realm of Babylon. Where was Abraham?-He was in the country ruled by the kingdom established by Nimrod. But God called him out of that country. That country was Babylon both spiritually and physically. And more than this: Nimrod was the son of Cush, and Cush was the son of Ham, and Egypt is the land of Ham. So that in Nimrod there was both Egypt and Babylon. And when God called Abraham, he called him out of both Egypt and Babylon. And "if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." And ye are called out of both Egypt and Babylon. {March 15, 1897 ATJ, GCDB Q48.3}

Gen 12:1

Gen 12:1 - unto a land that I will shew thee - See Heb 11:8; Isa 33:17; Rom 4:13 The gift to Abraham and his seed included not merely the land of Canaan, but the whole earth. So says the apostle, "The promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith." Rom 4:13. And the Bible plainly teaches that the promises made to Abraham are to be fulfilled through Christ. All that are Christ's are "Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise"—heirs to "an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away"—the earth freed from the curse of sin. Galatians 3:29; 1Pet 1:4. For "the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High;" and "the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace." Dan 7:27; Ps 37:11. - {PP 169.4}

Gen 12:2

Gen 12:2 - and make thy name great - See Lk 1:48; 2Kin 4:8; Mk 14:9

Gen 12:3

Gen 12:3 - And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee - See Ex 23:22; Num 24:9; Ps 37:22

Gen 12:3

Gen 12:3 - all families of the earth be blessed - God preached the gospel to Abraham in these verses. All, through Jesus Christ and His cross, would have forgiveness of sins, a second chance to salvation and by faith would receive of God's promise of eternal life. See Act 3:25, 26||Gal 3:13, 14; Rom 1:16, 17, 5:18, 19; 1Cor 1:19, 20; Heb 13:20 God, foreseeing that He would bless all people in Jesus Christ and His cross, according to the faith demonstrated by Abraham through the outpouring of His Spirit, spoke these words. God foresaw that His people through the Holy Spirit would once again be partakers of the Divine nature and would be reconciled to the family in heaven. See Isa 49:6, 40:5; Hag 2:7; Rom 4:13; Gal 3:8, 14, 16, 22:18, 28:14; 2Pet 1:1-4; Lk 2:10

Gen 12:4 - So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran - it would take 25years before the Lord brought to pass His promise of an heir to Abram. See Gen 21:5

Gen 12:5

Gen 12:5 - Lot his brother's son - Lot, Abraham's nephew, would be the forefather of the Moabites and Ammonites - See Gen 19:31-38

Gen 12:5

Gen 12:5 - the souls that they had gotten in Haran - with Abraham came a host of servants and hired hands of Babylonian descent

Gen 12:6

Gen 12:6 - And the Canaanite was then in the land - See Gen 15:18-21

Gen 12:7

Gen 12:7 - Unto thy seed will I give this land - The Seed here mentioned is Christ and those who are joint heirs with Him - Gal 3:16, 27-29; Gen 3:15

Gen 12:7

Gen 12:7 - this land - God first appeared to Abraham in Mesopotamia, the land of the Chaldeans, who moved to Haran, and then the land of Canaan. God did not give him any possession of the land, though He promised it to Abraham and his Seed, Jesus and those who are found in Him. Abraham died, not having received the promises. See Act 7:2-5; Heb 11:13

Gen 12:7

Gen 12:7 - builded he an alter unto the LORD - Abram builds an alter and reconfirms the covenant spoken to Him, that he should be the heir of the world as well as the Everlasting Covenant (Gen 3:15), in that all the world would be blessed through Jesus, of whom he would be progenitor.

Gen 12:13

Gen 12:13 - Abraham, the Father of the Faithful, initially lacked faith to trust that God would take care of him and deliver him from his enemies. Abraham, also ashamed of the fact that he married his half-sister, uses it to his advantage in this instance. Abraham's fault in character would be passed down to Issac, Jacob, and many of the sons of Jacob.

Gen 12:13

Gen 12:13 - Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee - Abraham, the Father of the Faithful, initially lacked faith to trust that God would protect him and deliver him from his enemies. Abraham, also ashamed of the fact that he married his half-sister, uses it to his advantage in this instance. Abraham's fault in character would be passed down to Issac (Gen 26:9-9), Jacob (Gen 25:31-33, 27:1-41), and many of the sons of Jacob (Gen 34:13, 35:22, 37:20, 38:11-26).

Gen 12:17 - And the LORD plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai Abram's wife - See Ps 105:14, 15

Gen 13:9

Gen 13:9 - Is not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left - There is nothing like the presence and blessing of Christ to settle all disputes, or to prevent them. In the action of Abraham, we have a true Christian example. As the eldest he might have stood upon his dignity, and have claimed his "rights". But he could not have done so as a Christian. Love "seeketh not her own." Abraham manifested the true Spirit of Christ. When professed Christians are eager to grasp the things of this world, and are fearful lest they shall be deprived of some of their rights, they show that they are unmindful of the enduring inheritance which Christ offers. {The Everlasting Gospel, E.J. Waggoner, pg 57}

Gen 13:10

Gen 13:10 - And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto Zoar. - Lot selfishly beheld the land towards Sodom and saw that it was lush, well watered and thus desired it for himself and his flocks. Rather than deferring to his elder uncle Abram, to whom the promises of God had been given, he sought this blessing for himself. Lot chose Sodom for his home because he saw that there were advantages to be gained there from a worldly point of view. But after he had established himself, and grown rich in earthly treasure, he was convinced that he had made a mistake in not taking into consideration the moral standing of the community in which he was to make his home. - {4T 110.1} The dwellers in Sodom were corrupt; vile conversation greeted his ears daily, and his righteous soul was vexed by the violence and crime he was powerless to prevent. His children were becoming like these wicked people, for association with them had perverted their morals. Taking all these things into consideration, the worldly riches he had gained seemed small and not worth the price he had paid for them. His family connections were extensive, his children having married among the Sodomites. - {4T 110.2}

Gen 13:14 - And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward: - God reconfirms the covenant He originally made with Abram now that Lot had departed from him. The last requirement being fulfilled, removing himself from his father's house, God now showed Abram the land that he would inherit - See Gen 12:1-3

Gen 13:18

Gen 13:18 - which is in Hebron - the land of Hebron would be in time territory belonging to Judah, where David would be anointed king by his brethren. See 2Sam 2:1-4

Gen 14:11

Gen 14:11 - victuals - Food for human beings, prepared for eating; that which supports human life; provisions; meat; sustenance. We never apply this word to that on which beasts or birds feed, and we apply it chiefly to food for men when cooked or prepared for the table.

Gen 14:14

Gen 14:14 - And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his trained servants, born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto Dan - Abraham had his own personal army of men, valiant and ready for war.

Gen 14:18

Gen 14:8 - And Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the most high God - Bread and wine are emblems of Jesus - See Heb 7:1-4; 1Cor 11:26-28

Gen 14:17 - Melchizedek - Malkiy-Tsedeq Proper Name Masculine mal-kee-tseh'-dek from (04428) and (06664) from and ; king of right; Malki-Tsedek, an early king in Palestine:-- Melchizedek. Gen 14:20

Gen 14:20 - And he gave him tithes of all - See Heb 7:2, 9, 10

Gen 14:22

Gen 14:22 - And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lift up mine hand unto the LORD, the most high God, the possessor of heaven and earth, 23 That I will not take from a thread even to a shoelatchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, lest thou shouldest say, I have made Abram rich: - Abraham wanted it to be said that all of his wealth and possessions came from the Lord, not by men enriching him. See Isa 33:15, 16

Gen 15:1

Gen 15:1 - I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward - God is promising Abraham the "reward" of Himself - See Heb 11:6; Ps 16:5

Gen 15:2

Gen 15:2 - And Abram said, Lord GOD, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus? - Abraham was not to be the progenitor of a race of servants, but of free men - See John 8:31, 32, 36; Gal 4:22-31

Gen 15:5

Gen 15:5 - Look now toward heaven - that which Abraham perceived when commanded of God was different than that which Abraham would have seen if looking only with his natural eyes (2Kin 6:15-17; Act 7:55, 56; Num 24:1-9; Ps 119:18). The Lord not only showed Abraham the stars of the heaven but gave him a glimpse of the Sea of Glass (Rev 7:9, 21:24||Mt 8:11) and Jesus' eternal kingdom, such that he forever henceforth saw himself as a pilgrim upon the earth. The earth was no longer his home and therefore he could claim no earthly citizenship! See Heb 11:12-16; Jer 33:3; Deut 1:10, 10:22

Gen 15:5

Gen 15:8- So shall thy seed be - See Deut 1:8-11, 10:22; Rom 9:27; Mt 8:11||Rev 21:24 Though Jesus is the perfect fulfillment of the Seed of Abraham (Gal 3:16), the innumerable multitude that appears on the sea of glass is here referenced. See Rev 7:9

Gen 15:6

Gen 15:6 - he believed in the LORD; and He counted it to him for righteousness - The LORD saw Abram's unflinching trust in His promise and proclaimed him righteous, godly, upright, of a character like His own. The Creative power of God, when He speaks it exists. So may we be declared as we believe in Jesus unflinchingly! See Lk 1:35-38; Rom 4:16-19, 9; Gal 3:14; Deut 6:24, 25; Joh 4:50 "And he believed in the Lord." The root of the verb rendered believed, is the world "amen.". It's idea is that of firmness, a foundation. When God spoke the promise, Abraham said "Amen," or, in other words, he built upon God, taking His word as a sure foundation. Compare this with Matt. 7:24, 25. {The Everlasting Gospel, E.J. Waggoner, pg 64} - See Lk 1:35, 38

Gen 15:6

Gen 15:6 - believed - the root of the word believe is "amen". See Mt 7:24, 25 áman Verb aw-man' a primitive root a primitive root; properly, to build up or support; to foster as a parent or nurse; figuratively to render (or be) firm or faithful, to trust or believe, to be permanent or quiet; morally to be true or certain; once (Isa. 30:21; interchangeable with) to go to the right hand:-hence, assurance, believe, bring up, establish, + fail, be faithful (of long continuance, stedfast, sure, surely, trusty, verified), nurse, (-ing father), (put), trust, turn to

Gen 15:7

Gen 15:7 - I am the LORD that brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees - the LORD uses the same language in describing Abraham's deliverance from Ur of the Chaldees (Babylon), as He uses to describe the deliverance of Abraham's biological descendants from Egypt. See Ex 20:2

Gen 15:7

Gen 15:7 - to give thee this land to inherit it - the land of promise was understood to be the land upon which Abraham's feet stood, but moreso, the heavenly kingdom that God revealed to Abraham in vision. See Gen 15:5, 6; Act 7:5 What does this demonstrate?— Simply this, that the promise in the fifteenth chapter of Gen, that Abraham and his seed should possess the land, had reference to the resurrection of the dead, and to nothing short of that. {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 66}

Gen 15:9

Gen 15:9, 10 - And he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon. 10 And he took unto him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: but the birds divided he not - The Lord commanded Abraham to enter into a Vassal Covenant with Himself, where Abraham was to divide sacrifices in half and walk between the divided halves, indicating that he promised to remain faithful to the covenant, otherwise he would allow the same fate of the sacrifices to be done to him. Consider that later that night (v17), Abraham saw not himself but the Lord pass through the sacrifices, stating that if Abraham were to sin, God Himself would pay the penalty for the broken covenant. I PRAISE AND THANK YOU MY LORD!!! See Gen 22:8; Isa 53:10

Gen 15:13

Gen 15:13 - a stranger in a land that is not theirs - Just as the COI were foreigners in Egypt, the saints of God are foreigners in the world, distant from their heavenly home wherein is found their citizenship. See Heb 11:13-16

Gen 15:13

Gen 15:13 - and shall serve them - Jacob would serve Laban 20 years; Joseph would serve Pharaoh while in Egypt; Joseph and the COI children would serve the Egyptians until they were delivered by the Lord.

Gen 15:13

Gen 15:13 - they shall afflict them - Isaac was afflicted by Ishmael; Jacob was afflicted by Laban and Esau; Joseph was afflicted by his brothers and the Egyptians; the descendants of Joseph and his brothers would be afflicted but he Egyptians. similar to the afflictions faced by the COI in Egypt, the saints in the last days will be persecuted by those in the world. Rev 6:9-11

Gen 15:13

Gen 15:15 - four hundred years - On the “self-same day” appointed in the divine promise, “it came to pass, that all the hosts of the Lord went out from the land of Egypt” {DA31.3} See Ex 12:41;

Gen 15:14

Gen 15:14 - And also that nation whom they shall serve will I judge - Just as Egypt was judged of God for their heavy hand upon the COI, the United States will be judged for its near future persecution of the saints of God with the enforcement of a Sunday Law. See Rev 13:14-17; Isa 10:1; Ps 94:20

Gen 15:14

Gen 15:14 - And also - the LORD has pronounced judgment on three distinct things: 1. His People - The COI were to be judged on the night of Passover, whether they exercised faith in believing His words regarding the 10th plague 2. Oppressors of His People - the Egyptians too were judged the night of Passover, where all the firstborn in Egypt were slain. Pharaoh would be judged as he and his army were destroyed in the Red Sea (See Isa 43:16, 17) 3. The Amorites - the 10 tribes inhabiting the promised land were called the Amorites, foreshadowing the 10 kings of Rev 17. Their probation had come to an end and God would judge them through their overthrow on behalf of the COI

Gen 15:14

Gen 15:13 - shall they come out with great substance - Jacob came from his treacherous father-in-law Laban with great possessions; Joseph became Prime Minister of Egypt and bore great possessions; The COI spoiled the Egyptians for their years of unlawful servitude. just as the COI came forth from Egypt (the world) with great substance, the saints shall inherit (Rev 11:18): 1. A crown of glory 2. A Kingdom 3. Thrones to sit upon and rule w/ Christ 4. Immortality & Eternal Life 5. Christ's Righteousness 6. A new heaven and earth See also Rev 2:7, 17, 28, 29

Gen 15:16

Gen 15:16 - But in the fourth generation - the Lord specifies that the fourth generation (generation of Moses/Aaron/Miriam) would come out of Egypt and the LORD would enter into covenant with them. Similarly, it is unto the 4th generation of Adventism that God will enter into covenant with and will see the promised land. See Gen 23:23 4 Generations of Adventism (compare 4 abominations of Eze 8) 1st Generation: 1844-1888 - Image of Jealousy - jealousy for the Adventist pioneers inspires production of 1863 chart 2nd Generation: 1888 - 1919 - Rejection of Truth and beginning of the Apostasy [Rejection of 1888 Message and introduction of Pantheism by Kellogg] 3rd Generation: 1919 - 1989 - Apostasy and turning away from truth [Thoughts on Doctrine by WW Prescott undermines prophecy and Spirit of Prophecy - Jesus and Love without truth] 4th Generation: 1989+ [Jer 6:16; - Returning to the Old Paths See also Joe 1:1-3

Gen 15:18 - the Amorites - the Amorites make up the 10 nations listed in vs 20 and 21 that were to be displaced by God on behalf of the COI. See Joshua 24:15, 18; Deut 18:9-12 On reaching the border of the Amorites, Israel had asked permission only to travel directly through the country, promising to observe the same rules that had governed their intercourse with other nations. When the Amorite king refused this courteous solicitation, and defiantly gathered his hosts for battle, their cup of iniquity was full, and God would now exercise His power for their overthrow. - {PP 434.3}

Gen 15:16

Gen 15:16 - is not yet full - God grants probationary time to all the nations of the earth. During that time, the nations are to seek the LORD if haply He may be found and they will be saved (Act 17:27). If the nations refuse the graces extended to them during their probationary time, the cup of their wrath will come to the full and their end is determined. The land of promise was to be inhabited by righteous people. See Jer 12:14-17 God has given us probationary time in order that it may be made manifest whether we will be loyal, obedient children, rendering obedience to his commandments, his statutes, and his laws, or whether we will persist in following a course of disobedience, and prove ourselves unworthy of eternal life. Those who will be doers of the words of Christ will have their names written in the Lamb's book of life; but those who will not obey God's law after light has come to them from the holy Scriptures, will be written among those whose fate is to perish. For those who choose to follow the traditions of men, and are willing to be turned from the truth of God unto fables, and who train themselves to walk away from the path of God's commandments, and will not listen to the law of God, but take up with the vain excuses devised by man to continue in disobedience, would not listen to the voice of God in the heavenly courts, and would bring rebellion a second time into heaven. When the Father speaks, they hear him not; but their ears are open to hear the suggestions of the enemy of God and man. - {RH October 9, 1894 Par. 9}

Gen 15:17

Gen 15:17 - And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces - God confirmed the Vassal Covenant by Himself passing through the pieces of the sacrifice, signifying, if the covenant should be broken, He Himself would pay the penalty of the broken sacrifice. AMAZING LOVE, HOW CAN IT BE, THAT THOU MY GOD SHOULDST DIE FOR ME!!! Gen 22:8; Heb 6:13; 9:13-18 The instant man accepted the temptations of Satan, and did the very things God had said he should not do, Christ, the Son of God, stood between the living and the dead, saying, "Let the punishment fall on Me. I will stand in man's place. He shall have another chance." - {FLB 75.3}

Gen 15:17

Gen 15:17 - behold a smoking furnace, and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces - Because God could not swear by any higher, swore upon His Own life that He would fulfill the covenant He was making to Abraham. The smoking furnace and burning lamp showed the presence of the Father and Son. See Deut 4:24; Jer 34:18-20; Heb 6:13, 9:13-18

Gen 15:18

Gen 15:18 - In the same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram - in the day of God's covenant with His people the 10 Kings are mentioned.

Gen 15:18

Gen 15:18 - Unto thy seed have I given this land - the promise of a land inheritance was to Abraham and to His Seed - Gal 3:16, 26-29

Gen 15:18

Gen 15:18 - from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates - the promised land for the descendants of Abraham represented the breadth of territory encompassing prophecy but typifying the entire world. This territory, which is divided into 10 tribes/parts, typifies the division of the world by the rulers, globalists and kings of the earth in the last days. See Rev 17:12

Gen 15:19

Gen 15:19-21 - The Kenites... - the 10 kings are mentioned as God is entering into covenant with His people. So too, the 10 kings of the Rev establish their confederacy as God is entering into covenant with His remnant people. See Rev 17:12; Ps 83:5-8; Esther 9:13; Deut 7:1

Gen 16:2

Gen 16:2 - And Sarai said unto Abram, Behold now, the LORD hath restrained me from bearing: I pray thee, go in unto my maid; it may be that I may obtain children by her - Sarai paid no heed to the promise of God spoken to Abram in Gen 15:1-6. In her impatience, she sought to help God in fulfilling His promise. It was not until she had developed faith the victorious faith in God, that He would fulfill His promise to Abraham and her. See Heb 11:11

Gen 16:2

Gen 16:2 - And Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai - Just like Adam, Abram listened to the voice of his wife rather than being still and waiting for God to fulfill His promise. See Gen 3:17 "... we learn the folly of man's trying to fulfill the promises of God.... Yet how shortsighted the whole thing was. God had made the promise; therefore He alone could fulfill it. If a man makes a promise, the thing promised may be performed by another, but in that case the one who made the promise fails to carry out his word. So even though that which the Lord had promised could have been gained by the device which was adopted, the result would have been to shut the Lord out from fulfilling His word. They were therefore working against God. But His promises cannot be performed by man. In Christ alone can they be performed." {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 69, 70}

Gen 16:3

Gen 16:3 - after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife - Abram was 85 and Sarai 75 when she gave Hagar to be Abram's wife.

Gen 16:4

Gen 16:4 - And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes - Hagar despised Sarai and looked down upon her because she had conceived a child of Abram and Sarai could not.

Gen 16:6

Gen 16:6 - when Sarai dealt hardly with her - The rebuke and punishment inflicted upon Hagar by Sarai illustrates the first restraint placed upon Islam.

Gen 16:7

Gen 16:7 - the angel of the LORD found her - Hagar is visited by Jesus, the Angel of the LORD, a manifestation of the power of God. Thus, with each future restraint of Islam we behold a manifestation of the power of God. See Rev 10:1-5; 9:17; 18:1, 2

Gen 16:9

Gen 16:9 - Return to thy mistress, and submit thyself under her hands - God ordained that Hagar should submit to Sarai as the second wife of Abram.

Gen 16:10

Gen 16:10 - And the angel of the LORD said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be numbered for multitude - because God favored His friend Abram, He would bless his seed born of Hagar, as well as the seed born to Sarai. However, the Seed of Sarai is the seed of promise unlike the seed of Hagar. See Gen 15:1-6; Gal 4:22-31

Gen 16:11

Gen 16:11 - and shalt call his name Ishmael - Yishma`e'l Proper Name Masculine yish-maw-ale' from (08085) and (0410) from and ; God will hear; Jishmael, the name of Abraham's oldest son, and of five Israelites:--Ishmael. Ishmael = "God will hear"

Gen 16:12

Gen 16:12 - And he will be a wild man - Ishmael would be a person of loose temperament and unconstrained; one given to a capricious temper and violent.

Gen 16:12

Gen 16:12 - his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him - Ishmael and his descendants would be provoking and warlike. See Gen 21:9

Gen 16:12

Gen 16:12 - he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren - Ishmael and his descendants would not mingle with others but would be insular in their disposition.

Gen 16:14

Gen 16:14 - Beerlahairoi - "the God that seest me"

Gen 16:15

Gen 16:15 - Abraham faltered in faith, thinking he would help God by bearing a son by his own methods. God purposed to give him a son from his aged wife Sarah.

Gen 17:1

Gen 17:1 - I am the Almighty God - God identifies Himself to Abraham as the One Who is more than capable of fulfilling His promises and thus he should trust Him with an undivided heart. Gen 15:1-6

Gen 17:1

Gen 17:1 - walk before me, and be thou perfect - margin has it, "upright, sincere", meaning single-hearted as opposed to double-hearted. See 1Chron 12:33, 38; Col 1:27-29; Jam 1:8, 4:8

Gen 17:1

Gen 17:1 - perfect - single hearted as opposed to double-hearted (sincere and upright). See 1Chron 12:33, 38

Gen 17:2

Gen 17:2 - And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly - See Gen 12:1-3, 15:1-6; Rev 7:9

Gen 17:4

Gen 17:4 - As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee - See Gen 15:5-21; Act 7:17

Gen 17:5

Gen 17:5 - Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram - The name Abram signifies "Father of height." Abram's father was heathen, and the name may have had some reference to heathen worship in high places. {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 73}

Gen 17:5

Gen 17:5 - but thy name shall be Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee - See Isa 62:2; Rev 2:17, 3:12; Gen 32:28

Gen 17:5

Gen 17:5 - for a father of many nations have I made thee - Abraham has become the Father of many nations, comprised of every kindred, tongue and nation. See Rev 14:6

Gen 17:7

Gen 17:7 - and thy seed after thee in their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee - See Gal 3:25-29; Heb 13:20

Gen 17:10

Gen 17:10 - This is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; Every man child among you shall be circumcised - God's promise to Abraham had been made long before the time of which we are writing; the making of the covenant is recorded in the fifteenth chapter of Gen. But after the covenant was made, Abraham fell into the error recorded in the sixteenth chapter. He saw his mistake and repented of it, and turned to the Lord again in full faith, and thus received the assurance of forgiveness and acceptance; and circumcision was given as the reminder of it... Abraham and Sarah believed that the promise was to be theirs, but they thought that they could work it out. But since the promise was of an inheritance of righteousness, the thought that they could work it out was in reality the very common idea that men can work out the righteousness of God. So when God repeated the covenant, He gave to Abraham a sign which should always be a reminder of his attempt to work out the promise of God, and his failure. It did not give him anything, but was on the contrary a reminder that he could do nothing of himself, and that everything was to be done in him, and for him by the Lord. The cutting off of a portion of the flesh showed that the promise was not to be gained by the flesh, but by the Spirit". {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner pg 82, 83}

Gen 17:11

Gen 17:11 - it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt Me and the - the circumcision of the flesh was a token, a foreshadowing of the heart circumcision that God purposed for those who obey Him and keep His commandments in love. See Deut 10:16, 30:6; Jer 4:4

Gen 17:14

Gen 17:14 - And the uncircumcised man child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant - See Ex 4:24-26

Gen 17:15

Gen 17:15 - God changed Abram and Sarai's names to reflect what they would become, father and mother of a great nation.

Gen 17:15

Gen 17:15 - Sarai - meaning "princess"

Gen 17:15

Gen 17:15 - Sarah - meaning "noblewoman"

Gen 17:17

Gen 17:17 - Then Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is an hundred years old? and shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear? - Abraham, like Sarah, laughed at God at what he thought was an impossibility. See Gen 18:9-14; Lk 1:37

Gen 17:18

Gen 17:18 - And Abraham said unto God, O that Ishmael might live before thee! - Abraham did not realize what he was asking of the Lord in unbelief. Abraham was petitioning that God acknowledge a bond servant/slave as the son of the covenant. In so doing, Abraham was committing himself and all of his descendants to perpetual bondage under Ishmael, a bondservant. See Gal 4:22-31

Gen 17:19

Gen 17:19 - And God said, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him - God would not honor nor permit this curse which Abraham pled for in ignorance. God would provide a Son of Promise that would be free, foreshadowing the freedom He purposed for Abraham and all of his descendants. This is another example of the Everlasting Gospel; that in our ignorance we chose something that could never make the mark, but God in His mercy would provide a solution that would be exceeding abundantly above all that we could imagine - even eternal life. 1Jo 5:11, 12

Gen 17:19

Gen 17:19 - thou shalt call his name Isaac - God would have Abraham name his son Isaac, meaning laughter, as a rebuke for laughing at God's power to fulfill His promises. See Gen 17:17; Gen 18:10-15

Gen 18:2

Gen 18:2 - And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground - Jesus brought two angels as eyewitnesses to give evidence of the covenant to Abraham and Sarah and of the wickedness of Sodom and Gomorrah before their destruction (Mt 18:15-17). See Heb 13:2; Lk 24:27-29

Gen 18:10

Gen 18:10 - And he said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life; and, lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son - See 2Kin 4:16

Gen 18:14

Gen 18:14 - Is any thing too hard for the LORD? - See Lk 1:37

Gen 18:19

Gen 18:19 - For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him - Jesus declares that He knows Abraham, meaning He has full confidence in how he will conduct himself because he has proven himself faithful. Not only would Abraham command his household, but the results would be effective in that "they shall keep the way of the Lord". Abraham consistently demonstrated a character of full submission and reverence to God so that God could speak confidently of Abraham's conduct. This is akin to the boast the LORD made of Job, a faithful and upright man who eschewed evil. See Job 1:8 Jesus does not excuse their sins, but shows their penitence and faith, and, claiming for them forgiveness, He lifts His wounded hands before the Father and the holy angels, saying: I know them by name. I have graven them on the palms of My hands. "The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise." Ps 51:17.

Gen 18:19

Gen 18:19 - the commands of Abraham were not grievous, as are the commandments of God. See 1Jo 5:3

Gen 18:27

Gen 18:27 - I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am but dust and ashes - See Ps 103:14

Gen 19:1

Gen 19:1 - Lot seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground - Lot apparently sat at the gates of the city to intercept any foreigner not familiar with the lewd ways of the men of the city. Lot sought to give safety to all who needed refuge from the dangers abroad. See 2Pet 2:8; Heb 13:2

Gen 19:2

Gen 19:2 - And they said, Nay; but we will abide in the street all night - the angels tested the sincerity of Lot's offer by proposing to stay in the streets at night. Further, they sought to hear testimony of Lot of the wickedness of the city and the wisdom of taking shelter under his roof. See Gen 19:3

Gen 19:4

Gen 19:4 - But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter - See Judg 19:22

Gen 19:5

Gen 19:5 - And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may know them - See Rom 1:24-27

Gen 19:8

Gen 19:8 - Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof - The Bible declares Lot a just and righteous man (2Pet 2:7). It is assumed that Lot's offer was in jest as he knew the character of the men of Sodom, that they had not interest in his daughters. His proposal was to arise in them the conviction of their wrong and to consider the right course. It is believed that Lot would not have given his daughters to be abused by the men of Sodom as he loved his daughter. Rom 1:26, 27

Gen 19:9

Gen 19:9 - And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee, than with them - the men of Sodom felt judged by Lot's righteous life. They were reprov'd for their reprobate conduct and sought to harm the object of their shame.

Gen 19:10

Gen 19:10, 11 - But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door. And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door. The angels here demonstrated that they were more than mere men but divine messengers from God. Lot should have recognized God's favor towards him in sending these messengers for he and his household.

Gen 19:13

Gen 19:13 - For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it - apparently, the Lord saw that there were not 10 righteous individuals living in Sodom according to the vow made to Abraham. Therefore, He purposed to destroy the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah.

Gen 19:15 - And when the morning arose - at the crack of dawn

Gen 19:16

Gen 19:15 - And while he lingered - Lot may have lingered because he was leaving loved ones and family behind and he was also leaving behind all of his great wealth and possessions. Lot showed his desire for the world's riches when separating from his uncle Abraham, preferring the more fertile lands towards Sodom. This selfish decision backfired in his safety, having been taken captive by warring nations that seized him and the people of Sodom (Gen 14); and cost him now all of his worldly possessions that he would have to leave behind in the destruction.

Gen 19:17 - And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed - The angels instructed Lot to: 1. Escape for thy life 2. Do not look behind thee 3. Do not stay in the plains 4. Escape to the mountain; Lk 21:21

PRESENT TRUTH: (2Pet 1:12) Time of Noah - Get in the boat a flood is coming (Gen 6:7; Heb 11:7; 2Pet 2:5) Time of Lot - Escape for thy life, do not look back, Leave the city and run for the mountains (Gen 19:17) Time of Jeremiah - the King of the North is coming - (Jeremiah 25:9) Time of Christ - Jesus is Messiah the Prince, Christ the Lord, heed His warning (Act 2:36; Mt 24:15-20) Today - All of the above and the 3 Angel's Messages (1Cor 10:11||1Pet 1:12; Lk 17:26-30; Dan 11:40-45; Rev 14)

Gen 19:18

Gen 19:18 - And Lot said unto them, Oh, not so, my Lord - Lot protested the command of the angels of God to flee to the mountains.

Gen 19:19

Gen 19:19 - Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die - lot demonstrated a lack of faith that God would protect him as he fled to the mountains. The same God that insured his safety from Sodom would have preserved his life in the mountains where He commanded Lot to flee. See Num 13:31-33

Gen 19:21

Gen 19:21 - And he said unto him, See, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken - God had purposed to destroy Sodom and all the cities of the plains, but Lot's request to flee to that city spared it from destruction. The wicked do not understand that their blessings are largely a result of God's mercy towards His own people.

Gen 19:23

Gen 19:23 - The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar - perhaps high noon.

Gen 19:33

Gen 19:33 - And they made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose - See Prov 23:33

Gen 19:35

Gen 19:35 - And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose - See Prov 23:33

Gen 19:37

Gen 19:37 - And the firstborn bare a son, and called his name Moab: the same is the father of the Moabites unto this day - Moab means “of his father” indicating the incestuous relationship that produced him. See Dan 11:41

Gen 19:38

Gen 19:38 - And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name Benammi: the same is the father of the children of Ammon unto this day. - See Dan 11:41

Gen 19:38

Gen 19:38 - Benammi - meaning “son of my people”

Gen 20:4

Gen 20:4 - But Abimelech had not come near her: and he said, Lord, wilt thou slay also a righteous nation? - See Gen 18:23-25

Gen 20:6

Gen 20:6 - And God said unto him in a dream, Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart - God shows to be gracious, understanding and compassionate to Abimelech who acted in ignorance after being deceived by Abraham and Sarah.

Gen 20:6

Gen 20:6 - for I also withheld thee from sinning against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her - God affirms that our sins against one another is actually a sin against Him. God prevented Abimelech from sleeping with Sarah and offending her marriage vow with Abraham; yet God states that the act would have been a transgression against Him. See Ps 51:4

Gen 20:7

Gen 20:7 - Now therefore restore the man his wife; for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: - God commands the king to restore the wife of the prophet who lied and he will pray for the king and make him whole. God sees in us things that we can not see in ourselves. Rom 4:17

Gen 20:10

Gen 20:10 - What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing? - Abimelech asks “what did you see in us that would cause you to act so disgracefully as a prophet of God?”. Abraham honorably received the reproof from Abimelech. See 1Sam 25:31

Gen 20:11

Gen 20:11 - Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place - what difference does it make what others believe if you have the fear of God in you. We have nothing to fear of what others do or do not fear. We fear and trust God and that is the bottom line. See Mt 10:28 Abraham was mistaken about the character of Abimelech. Though he did not have the law of God written on tablets, he operated by principles implanted in his heart by the Holy Spirit, letting him know right from wrong. Abraham, in fear prejudged the king and thereby sinned. See Rom 2:14, 15, 3:18

Gen 20:11

Gen 20:11 - the fear of God - the fear of God is the beginning of wisdom. Fearing God causes men to eschew evil and act lawfully (Job 1:1, 28:28).

Gen 20:13

Gen 20:13 - And it came to pass, when God caused me to wander from my father's house - this statement shows the source of Abraham's source and insecurities. Abraham felt that God had abandoned him, causing him to wander from his father's house, due to the hardships that had befallen him. "God didn't take care of me so I had to take care of myself".

Gen 20:15

Gen 20:15 - And Abimelech said, Behold, my land is before thee: dwell where it pleaseth thee - the land where Abimelech dwelt was the land of the Philistines See Gen 21:32, 34

Gen 20:16

Gen 20:16 - And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: behold, he is to thee a covering of the eyes, unto all that are with thee, and with all other: thus she was reproved - Abimelech reproved both Abraham and Sarah in their deceit, calling Sarah Abraham's "sister" as they falsely conveyed to him.

Gen 21:1

Gen 21:1 - And the LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah as he had spoken - See Gen 18:9-15; Num 23:19

Gen 21:2

Gen 21:2 - For Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him - From this case, therefore, we learn most conclusively that the seed which God promised to Abraham, which should be as the sand of the sea and the stars of heaven for number, and which should inherit the land is only a spiritual seed. That is, it is a seed which comes through the agency of the Spirit of God. The birth of Isaac, like that of the Lord Jesus, was miraculous. It was supernatural. Both were brought about through the agency of the Spirit. In both we have an illustration of the power by which we are to become sons of God, and thus heirs of the promise. {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 71} See Lk 1:30-32, 35

Gen 21:3

Gen 21:3 - And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac - as per God's command and as a rebuke for both Abraham and Sarah laughing at God, Abraham's son was called Isaac, laughter. See Gen 17:17-19; 18:10-15

Gen 21:4

Gen 21:4 - And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac being eight days old, as God had commanded him - See Gen 17:10-14

Gen 21:5

Gen 21:5 - And Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him - twenty-five years had elapsed since Abraham left Ur and began his sojourn with the Lord. See Gen 12:4

Gen 21:6

Gen 21:6 - And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear will laugh with me - See Gen 18:10-15

Gen 21:9

Gen 21:9 - Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had born unto Abraham, mocking - Ishmael and Hagar's jealous mocking of Isaac results in them being cast out (v10), just as the foolish virgins are cast out (Mt 25:11, 12). The mocking occurs between the Midnight Cry and the Sunday Law. See Gal 4:29 After the birth of Isaac the great joy manifested by Abraham and Sarah caused Hagar to be very jealous. Ishmael had been instructed by his mother that he was to be especially blessed of God, as the son of Abraham, and to be heir to that which was promised to him. Ishmael partook of his mother's feelings and was angry because of the joy manifested at the birth of Isaac. He despised Isaac, because he thought he was preferred before him. Sarah saw the disposition manifested by Ishmael against her son Isaac, and she was greatly moved. She related to Abraham the disrespectful conduct of Ishmael to her and to her son Isaac, and said to him, "Cast out this bondwoman and her son; for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac." - {SR 79.1}

Gen 21:10

Gen 21:10 - Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac - Son of Promise was an allusion to the Son of God: [READ] Lk 1:31-33; Mt 1:21. The Son of Promise Himself must be free in order to set others free [if the Son shall make you free, you are free indeed - Joh 8:36]. A bondservant/slave can not set anyone free if he himself is enslaved. Only a son born free and remaining free has the authority to set another free. See Gal 4:22-31

Gen 21:11

Gen 21:11 - And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight because of his son - There is an object lesson in this story. Our sins produce consequences that are hard to deal with.

Gen 21:12

Gen 21:12 - for in Isaac shall thy seed be called - Isaac was to be the progenitor of Jesus Christ, the Seed - See Gen 12:3; Rom 9:7; Heb 11:18; Gal 4:28; Now the Lord had already signified, in the case of Eliezer, Abraham's servant, that the seed of Abraham were to be free (Gen 15:1-6). Therefore if Abraham had only thought of the words of the Lord, instead of hearkening to the voice of his wife, he might have been saved much trouble. It is worth while dwelling at length upon this phase of the subject, for if it is rightly understood it will save much confusion as to the true seed of Abraham, and the true Israel. Let the points be stated once more. Ishmael was born after the flesh, and could not be the seed. Therefore those who are only of the flesh cannot be the children of Abraham, and heirs according to the promise. Isaac was born after the Spirit, and was the true seed. "In Isaac shall thy seed be called." (Gen 21:12) Therefore all the children of Abraham are they who are born of the Spirit. "we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise." Gal 4.28 {The Everlasting

Gen 21:13

Gen 21:13 - And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make a nation, because he is thy seed - See Gen 16:9-12, 21:18

Gen 21:14

Gen 21:14 - took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar - Abraham provided provisions to Hagar and Ishmael that would last but a short while. God however, made provisions that would sustain their lives.

Gen 21:14

Gen 21:14 - wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba - Hagar is found wandering as the foolish virgins (Am 8:12, 13) in the wilderness of Beersheba ("well of the oath/covenant") with a lack of water.

Gen 21:15

Gen 21:15 - the water was spent - Gen 21:14 - took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar - Abraham provided provisions to Hagar and Ishmael that would last but a short while. God however, made provisions that would sustain their lives.

Gen 21:18

Gen 21:18 - Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for I will make him a great nation - See Gen 21:13

Gen 21:19

Gen 21:19 - God opened her eyes - it was not until the LORD opened the eyes of Hagar that she was able to see the bountiful provision of the LORD.

Gen 21:19

Gen 21:19 - she saw a well of water - the well that Hagar saw foreshadowed the well of water, springing up into eternal life (Jesus Himself) that Jesus spoke to the Samaritan woman at the well. See Joh 4:10, 13, 14

Gen 21:21

Gen 21:21 - and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt - Hagar returned to her homeland, the land of bondage, and found a wife for Ishmael.

Gen 21:23

Gen 21:23 - Now therefore swear unto me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned. - Abimelech wanted assurance that as the Lord blessed Abraham, making him a mighty man, and his host should multiply, they would not deal harshly with a small people as Abimelech. See Gen 20:14-17, 21:27

Gen 21:31

Gen 21:31 - Wherefore he called that place Beersheba; because there they sware both of them - the place of seven ewe lambs

Gen 21:31

Gen 21:31 - Beersheba - Bér Proper Name Location from (0875) and (07651) (in the sense of (07650)) from and (in the sense of); well of an oath; Beer-Sheba, a place in Palestine:-Beer-shebah. Beer-sheba = "well of the sevenfold oath"

Gen 22:1

Gen 22:1 - God did tempt Abraham - God tested Abraham - See Jam 1:13 Again the Lord saw fit to test the faith of Abraham by a most fearful trial. If he had endured the first test and had patiently waited for the promise to be fulfilled in Sarah, and had not taken Hagar as his wife, he would not have been subjected to the closest test that was ever required of man. The Lord bade Abraham, "Take now thy son, thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of Moriah; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of." - {SR 80.3}

Gen 22:1

Gen 22:11 - and he said, Behold, here I am - God's sheep here His voice and follow Him. See Joh 10:16, 27;

Gen 22:2

Gen 22:2 - And he said, Take now thy son, thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of Moriah; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of - Thus we can see that it was not merely Abraham's fatherly affection that was tried, but his faith in the promise of God. A severer test no man was ever called upon to undergo, for no other man ever could be in the same position [since, "in Isaac, shall thy seed be called" - Gen 21:12]. The entire hope of the whole human race was bound up in Isaac, and Abraham was asked apparently to destroy it with a stroke of the knife. Well might the one who could stand such a test be called "the father of the faithful." We may well believe that Abraham was strongly tempted to doubt if this requirement came from the Lord; it seemed to be so directly contrary to God's promise. {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 89}

Gen 22:2

Gen 22:2 - thine only son Isaac - God acknowledges only the son of promise and so He acknowledges only the children of promise who walk by faith and accept Jesus. See Rom 4:1-22; Gal 4:22-31 Abraham did not disbelieve God and hesitate, but early in the morning he took two of his servants and Isaac, his son, and the wood for the burnt offering, and went unto the place of which God had told him. He did not reveal the true nature of his journey to Sarah, knowing that her affection for Isaac would lead her to distrust God and withhold her son. Abraham did not suffer paternal feelings to control him and lead him to rebel against God. The command of God was calculated to stir the depths of his soul. "Take now thy son." Then, as though to probe the heart a little deeper, He added, "Thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest"; that is, the only son of promise, "and offer him ... for a burnt offering." - {SR 80.4}

Gen 22:2 - Moriah - Mowriyah Proper Name Location mo-ree-yaw' from (07200) and (03050) or Moriyah {mo-ree-yaw'}; from and ; seen of Jah; Morijah, a hill in Palestine:--Moriah. Moriah = "chosen by Jehovah"

Gen 22:2

Gen 22:2 - upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of - God had all the plans laid out for Abraham. Abraham needed only to be obedient and follow the commands of the Lord.

Gen 22:3

Gen 22:3 - And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him - "[Abraham] staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strong in faith, giving glory to God" Rom 4:20

Gen 22:3

Gen 22:3 - clave the wood for the burnt offering - not knowing the conditions of the place he journied, Abraham made provision and prepared beforehand all that was required to perform the duties assigned to him. See Mt 25:1-10

Gen 22:4

Gen 22:4 - Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off - God placed Abraham, Isaac and his servants on a 3-day journey before the place of sacrifice was identified. During this time, Abraham had to wrestle with the thought of killing his one son that he loved (Mt 3:17). So it was, for 3.5 years the Father agonized over the thought of having to kill His Son. Upon seeing the place of sacrifice in the distant, Abraham was encouraged in knowing he had been led of the LORD and could go forth unassailed by doubt to complete the task God had given him. See Gen 22:8

Gen 22:5

Gen 22:5 - And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you - Abraham had full confidence in the resurrection as he said to his servants that he and Isaac would come again to them.

Gen 22:6

Gen 22:6 - And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son - as Isaac bore the wood for the sacrifice, so too, Jesus bore the cross for His crucifixion - See John 19:17

Gen 22:6

Gen 22:6 - and he took the fire in his hand - again, making provision for all that was required, Abraham took fire to perform the final acts of his mission for which he was sent.

Gen 22:7

Gen 22:7 - where is the lamb for a burnt offering? - The question that resonated with all the hosts of heaven until Jesus stepped forward. See Isa 59:16; Rev 5:1-6; Heb 10:7-9

Gen 22:8

Gen 22:8 - God will provide Himself a lamb for a burnt offering - {provide - (yir'eh lo) meaning "provide Himself" or literally, "see Himself"}. the LORD would offer Himself as the Lamb of God, He Who takes away the sins of the world. Flesh and blood had not revealed this truth to Abraham, but the Father Who is in heaven (Mt 16:17). As Abraham prayed, open Thou mine eyes that I might behold wondrous things (Ps 119:18), so the Father showed Abraham Christ's day and he was glad (Joh 8:56)! Praise You LORD! See Gen 3:15; Joh 1:29, 36; Isa 53:10 "And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt offering? And Abraham said, My son, God will provide Himself a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together." Firmly walked on that stern, loving, suffering father by the side of his son. As they came to the place which God had pointed out to Abraham, he built there an altar and laid the wood in order, ready for the sacrifice, and then informed Isaac of the command of God to offer him as a burnt offering. He repeated to him the promise that God several times had made to him, that through Isaac he should become a great nation, and that in performing the command of God in slaying him, God would fulfill His promise, for He was able to raise him from the dead. - {SR 82.1}

Gen 22:9

Gen 22:9 - And they came to the place which God had told him of - Mt. Moriah is the place where the LORD led Abraham - See Gen 22:2 There was Mount Moriah, where the son of promise, an unresisting victim, had been bound to the altar—emblem of the offering of the Son of God. There the covenant of blessing, the glorious Messianic promise, had been confirmed to the father of the faithful. Gen 22:9, 16-18. There the flames of the sacrifice ascending to heaven from the threshing floor of Ornan had turned aside the sword of the destroying angel (1 Chronicles 21)—fitting symbol of the Saviour's sacrifice and mediation for guilty men. {GC 18.2}

Gen 22:9

Gen 22:9 - Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood - Isaac earned the greater love of his earthly and Heavenly Father in that as a type of Christ, he willingly laid down his life in perfect submission and obedience (Joh 10:17). Isaac also typifies Christ in that as the Promised Son, he never entered into Egypt (Gen 26:1-6), meaning he never entered into that which typifies bondage and sin. Isaac's willing submission worked with Abraham's perfect obedience to bring about the promises of God. Isaac believed in God. He had been taught implicit obedience to his father, and he loved and revered the God of his father. He could have resisted his father if he had chosen to do so. But after affectionately embracing his father, he submitted to be bound and laid upon the wood. And as his father's hand was raised to slay his son, an angel of God, who had marked all the faithfulness of Abraham on the way to Moriah, called to him out of heaven, and said, "Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here am I. And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou anything unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from Me. - {SR 82.2}

Gen 22:9

Gen 22:9 - and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood - See John 10:17, 18; Heb 5:7

Gen 22:10

Gen 22:10 - And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son - Gen

3:15, 12:3; Isa 54:7, 8 By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son, 18 Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called: 19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure. Heb 11:17-19 The whole thing from first to last, involved the resurrection of the dead. The birth of Isaac was really the bringing of life from the dead. It was by the power of the resurrection. Abraham had once, through heartening to his wife, failed to trust God's power to bring him a son from the dead. He had repented of his failure, but must needs be tested upon that point. to insure that he had thoroughly learned the lesson. The result proved that he had. {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 88}

Gen 22:11

Gen 22:11 - And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham - Jesus, the "Angel of the Lord" is He Who spoke directly to Abraham from heaven. The event however, was designed not only for future generations of humanity, but was a spectacle for the heavenly hosts, that they may see the wonder working power of redemption to make faithful one who was once a habitual liar when faced with fear, and who took Hagar as a second wife in disbelief of God's promises. Heavenly beings were witnesses of the scene as the faith of Abraham and the submission of Isaac were tested. The trial was far more severe than that which had been brought upon Adam. Compliance with the prohibition laid upon our first parents involved no suffering, but the command to Abraham demanded the most agonizing sacrifice. All heaven beheld with wonder and admiration Abraham's unfaltering obedience. All heaven applauded his fidelity. Satan's accusations were shown to be false. God declared to His servant, "Now I know that thou fearest God [notwithstanding Satan's charges], seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from Me." God's covenant, confirmed to Abraham by an oath before the intelligences of other worlds, testified that obedience will be rewarded. - {PP 155.1} It had been difficult even for the angels to grasp the mystery of redemption—to comprehend that the Commander of heaven, the Son of God, must die for guilty man. When the command was given to Abraham to offer up his son, the interest of all heavenly beings was enlisted. With intense earnestness they watched each step in the fulfillment of this command. When to Isaac's question, "Where is the lamb for a burnt offering?" Abraham made answer, "God will provide Himself a lamb;" and when the father's hand was stayed as he was about to slay his son, and the ram which God had provided was offered in the place of Isaac—then light was shed upon the mystery of redemption, and even the angels understood more clearly the wonderful provision that God had made for man's salvation. 1 Peter 1:12. - {PP 155.2}

Gen 22:12

Gen 22:12 - Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me - The Father loved Abraham all the more because He was willing to do His will in sacrificing his only beloved son. Abraham glorified God by fearing Him, through trust and obedience (Gen 22:18), and gave the world a beautiful object lesson of God's Plan of Redemption.

Gen 22:13

Gen 22:13 - And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son - Jesus is that ram caught in the thicket, a substitute for all of mankind.

Gen 22:14

Gen 22:14 - Jehovahjireh - meaning "the Lord sees or the place where the Lord is seen". Symbolic name given by Abraham to Mount Moriah in commemoration of the interposition of the angel of Jehovah who prevented the sacrifice of Isaac and provided a substitute. Abraham "saw" Christ's day and was glad. See Joh 8:56 Yhovah Proper Name Location from (03068) and (07200) from and ; Jehovah will see (to it); Jehovah-Jireh, a symbolical name for Mount Moriah:--Jehovah- jireh. Jehovah-jireh = "Jehovah sees"

Gen 22:16

Gen 22:16 - By myself have I sworn, saith the LORD - God could swear by none greater than Himself, so He swore by Himself. See Gen 15:10-18; Heb 6:13, 14; Rev 10:6

Gen 22:16

Gen 22:16 - thine only son - Isaac is the only son of Abraham recognized by God. Isaac is the son of promise, just like Jesus. See Gal 4:

Gen 22:17

Gen 22:17 - That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies See Gen 12:1-3. 15:5; Heb 6:14

Gen 22:17

Gen 22:17 - and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies - Jesus will subdue all of His enemies. Therefore, Jesus and all that are His, thy seed (Gal 3:29), will possess the gate of their enemies. Satan, meaning adversary, walks about as a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour (1Pet 5:8). Therefore, the promise is to be victorious over sin and Satan. This is the consummation of the Gospel - See Lk 1:68-75; Rev 12:5; Ps 2:8, 9; 1Cor 15:25, 26

Gen 22:18

Gen 22:18 - And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed - See Gen 12:3; Gal 3:16

Gen 22:18

Gen 22:20 - because thou hast obeyed my voice - God could now fulfill the promise spoken to Abraham almost 62 years prior. See Gen 12:1-3

Gen 22:19

Gen 22:19 - Beersheba - meaning "well of the sevenfold oath"

Gen 22:20

Gen 22:20 - Nahor - Nachowr Proper Name Masculine naw-khore' from the same as (05170) from the same as ; snorer; Nochor, the name of the grandfather and a brother of Abraham:--Nahor. Nahor = "snorting"

Gen 23:1

Gen 23:1 - And Sarah was an hundred and seven and twenty years old: these were the years of the life of Sarah. - Sarah is the only woman mentioned in the Bible whose age at death is recorded. The Lord may have put Sarah to rest before Isaac was given a wife since she was the one responsible for having Abraham marry Hagar. Sarah may have proven to be a poor influence in the choice and decision making process for finding a wife for Isaac.

Gen 23:2

Gen 23:2 - And Sarah died in Kirjatharba; the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan: - Sarah is the first of Abraham's household recorded to have died in the land of promise.

Gen 24:3

Gen 24:3 - And I will make thee swear by the LORD, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell: - Abraham was adamant that Isaac not take a wife from among the Canaanites because of their heathen worship practices and also, God foresaw that He would have to clear the Canaanites from the land in time and did not want Isaac's wife to have any ties to the land or the people therein. See Gen 15:16-21; Judges 3:1-7

Gen 24:6

Gen 24:6 - Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither again. - God strictly forbade Isaac from returning to the land of Shinar (Babylon). Those who would walk by faith in following God must come out of her, but God's people in no way were to go back to Babylon. See Jer 15:19; Gen 19:17, 26

Gen 24:7

Gen 24:7 - The LORD God of heaven, which took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred - See Gen 11:27-12:5

Gen 24:7

Gen 24:7 - he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence - God would guide Abraham's servant Eliazar and direct him to Rebecca, Isaac's future wife.

Gen 24:15

Gen 24:15 - And it came to pass, before he had done speaking - See Isa 65:24

Gen 24:24

Gen 24:24 - Bethuel - meaning Man of God, or virgin of God, or house of God. He was the nephew of Abraham, born to Nahor, Abraham's brother. That he is named in honor of the God of heaven shows that Abraham's household worshipped the true God.

Gen 24:24

Gen 24:24 - which she bare unto Nahor - Nahor was the older brother of both Abraham and Sarah. Rebekah therefore was Nahor's granddaughter, Abraham's great niece and Isaac's second cousin. See Gen 11:29

Gen 24:27

Gen 24:27 - And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who hath not left destitute my master of his mercy and his truth: I being in the way, the LORD led me to the house of my master's brethren - the servant of Abraham, having left Mesopotamia with

Abraham decades ago, recognized the lineage of Abraham, Nahor being Abraham's brother. He blessed the Lord for answered prayer and for prospering his efforts on Abraham's behalf. See Ruth 2:1-20

Gen 24:29 - Laban - meaning "white"; perhaps a description of his complexion.

Gen 24:37

Gen 24:37 - And my master made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell - See Gen 24:3

Gen 24:45

Gen 24:45 - And before I had done speaking in mine heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee - See Gen 24:15; Is 65:24

Gen 24:47

Gen 24:47 - And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him - Rebecca and Laban were Abraham's great niece and nephew, Bethuel was Abraham's nephew, Isaac's first cousin.

Gen 24:52

Gen 24:52 - And it came to pass, that, when Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth - Abraham's servant saw how the Lord worked things out, just as Abraham half forespoke. He blessed the name of the Lord in adoration and praise!

Gen 24:56

Gen 24:56 - Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way; send me away that I may go to my master - See Gen 24:50

Gen 24:58

Gen 24:58 - And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go - interestingly Rebekah did not heed the request to celebrate her for 10 days by her mother and family but was willing to leave her home immediately. This speaks either of the condition of the home, where she was eager to leave or perhaps of her disposition, either not amiable or very accommodating to the servant of Abraham and his God who miraculously led him to her. Rebekah later shows the cunning and shrewdness seen in her brother Laban, when she caused Jacob to swindle his brother out of his birthright and decisive his father Isaac.

Gen 24:60

Gen 24:60 - Thou art our sister, be thou the mother of thousands of millions, and let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them - The blessing pronounced upon Rebekah was similar to the promise given to Abraham, to be the father of many nations and to rule over those which hate him. See Gen 12:3

Gen 25:6

Gen 25:6 - But unto the sons of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his son, while he yet lived, eastward, unto the east country - God sent Ishmael and the sons of Keturah eastward, away from Isaac and his inheritance. These would become the sons of the east. See

Gen 25:17

Gen 25:17 - And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, an hundred and thirty and seven years: and he gave up the ghost and died; and was gathered unto his people - Ishmael was approximately 14-16 when Isaac was born. Isaac was approximately 122 when Ishmael died. See Gal 4:22-31

Gen 25:20

Gen 25:20 - Rebekah - name means "ensnarer"

Gen 25:22

Gen 25:22 - And the children struggled together within her - the two sons of Isaac and Rebekah struggled together from the womb. This was a foretelling of the rivalry that would exist in the two classes of worshippers that would descend from these two sons.

Gen 25:23

Gen 25:23 - two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels - Gen 3:15 an allegory for two classes referenced, the righteous and the wicked, ones loved of God and hated of God. The two nations also represent the two natures that exist within those who have accepted Jesus Christ: 1. The first born is the carnal nature that comes to men first. This elder son naturally has the "birthright" and the pre-eminence. However, God foresaw that in Christ, the older "nature" should serve the younger 2. The second born or spiritual nature is preferred of God, it is of God and is born of God. The spiritual nature is to rule over the older carnal nature through the power of Jesus Christ See Rom 9:13; Mal 1:2

Gen 25:25

Gen 25:25 - Esau - `Esav Proper Name Masculine ay-sawv' apparently a form of the pass. part. of (06213) in the original sense of handling apparently a form of the passive participle of in the original sense of handling; rough (i.e. sensibly felt); Esav, a son of Isaac, including his posterity:--Esau. Esau = "hairy"

Gen 25:26

Gen 25:26 - Jacob - Ya`aqob Proper Name Masculine yah-ak-obe' from (06117) from ; heel-catcher (i.e. supplanter); Jaakob, the Israelitish patriarch:--Jacob. Jacob = "heel holder" or "supplanter" son of Isaac, grandson of Abraham, and father of the 12 patriarchs of the tribes of Israel

Gen 25:26

Gen 25:26 - and Isaac was threescore years old when she bare them - 20 years had elapsed from Isaac's marriage to Rebekah and the birth of her two sons, Esau and Jacob.

Gen 25:30

Gen 25:30 - Edom - Édom Proper Name Masculine ed-ome' from (0122) or (fully) oEdomw {ed-ome'}; from ; red (see Gen. 25:25); Edom, the elder twin-brother of Jacob; hence the region (Idumaea) occupied by him:--Edom, Edomites, Idumea. Edom = "red"

Gen 25:31

Gen 25:29 - Sell me this day thy birthright - If Esau had received the blessing of his father, which was bestowed upon the first-born, his prosperity could have come from God alone; and He would have blessed him with prosperity, or brought upon him adversity, according to his course of action. If he should love and reverence God, like righteous Abel, he would be accepted and blessed of God. If, like wicked Cain, he had no respect for God nor for His commandments, but followed his own corrupt course, he would not receive a blessing from God but would be rejected of God, as was Cain. If Jacob's course should be righteous, if he should love and fear God, he would be blessed of God, and the prospering hand of God would be with him, even if he did not obtain the blessings and privileges generally bestowed upon the first-born. - {SR 88.3}

Gen 25:32

Gen 25:32 - And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point to die: and what profit shall this birthright do to me? - Esau in his profanity, made light of the most important gift he possessed. For a bowl of soup he sold the honor of being in the lineage of Jesus Christ, a son of God. See Heb 12:16; Rom 3:18, 8:14

Gen 25:33

Gen 25:33 - And Jacob said, Swear to me this day; and he sware unto him: and he sold his birthright unto Jacob - It was by self-surrender and confiding faith that Jacob gained what he had failed to gain by conflict in his own strength. God thus taught His servant that divine power and grace alone could give him the blessing he craved. Thus it will be with those who live in the last days. As dangers surround them, and despair seizes upon the soul, they must depend solely upon the merits of the atonement. We can do nothing of ourselves. In all our helpless unworthiness we must trust in the merits of the crucified and risen Saviour. None will ever perish while they do this. The long, black catalogue of our delinquencies is before the eye of the Infinite. The register is complete; none of our offenses are forgotten. But He who listened to the cries of His servants of old, will hear the prayer of faith and pardon our transgressions. He has promised, and He will fulfill His word. - {PP 202.4}

Gen 25:34

Gen 25:34 - and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way - the careless, reckless behavior of Esau was akin to the rebellious, presumptuous act of Caine in bringing an offering of fruit to the Lord (Gen 4:3-7). Neither gave heed to the blessings and promises God had prepared for them, and both despised a most priceless gift. It is this attitude that God "hated" (Rom 9:13). That Esau "rose up, and went his way" (compare Gen 4:16), not seeking to repent of his act though obviously repeatedly prompted by the Holy Spirit (Rom 2:4, 5), is evident of the seared, prideful conscience he chose and brought upon himself. Only when the time came to receive the birthright, did he seek for it with tears and wailing. Heb 12:17

Gen 26:1

Gen 26:1 - beside the first famine that was in the days of Abraham - See Gen 12:10-13. In making reference to the famine in the time of Abraham, the LORD is seeking to establish a parallel for consideration. See Isaac's identical response as his father Abraham in Gen 26:7. This establishes a second witness that these are parallel stories.

Gen 27:38

Gen 27:38 - And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father. And Esau lifted up his voice, and wept. See Heb 12:17

Gen 27:42

Gen 27:42 - Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doth comfort himself, purposing to kill thee - Esau took vengeful comfort in plotting the death of his twin brother. This was an example of one who lacked natural affection for his brother. See 2Tim 3:3

Gen 28:6

Gen 28:6 - Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan - See Gen 24:3

Gen 28:9

Gen 28:9 - Then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife - Esau, like the antedelluvians, created amalgamations when he took the daughter of Ishmael to wife. Not mindful of the need to preserve the holy lineage, Esau intermarried with the descendant of a bondservant, a slave to sin. See Gen 6:1-3; Gal 4:23-26, 30, 31

Gen 28:11

Gen 28:11 - And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep - the place where Jacob slept would become the site of the temple of God, Jerusalem: "The Lord had "chosen Zion," He had "desired it for His habitation." Ps 132:13. There, for ages, holy prophets had uttered their messages of warning. There priests had waved their censers, and the cloud of incense, with the prayers of the worshipers, had ascended before God. There daily the blood of slain lambs had been offered, pointing forward to the Lamb of God. There Jehovah had revealed His presence in the cloud of glory above the mercy seat. There rested the base of that mystic ladder connecting earth with heaven (Gen 28:12; Joh 1:51)—that ladder upon which angels of God descended and ascended, and which opened to the world the way into the holiest of all...". {GC 18.2} When, after his sin in deceiving Esau, Jacob fled from his father's home, he was weighed down with a sense of guilt. Lonely and outcast as he was, separated from all that had made life dear, the one thought that above all others pressed upon his soul, was the fear that his sin had cut him off from God, that he was forsaken of Heaven. In sadness he lay down to rest on the bare earth, around him only the lonely hills, and above, the heavens bright with stars. As he slept, a strange light broke upon his vision; and lo, from the plain on which he lay, vast shadowy stairs seemed to lead upward to the very gates of heaven, and upon them angels of God were passing up and down; while from the glory above, the divine voice was heard in a message of comfort and hope. Thus was made known to Jacob that which met the need and longing of his soul—a Saviour. With joy and gratitude he saw revealed a way by which he, a sinner, could be restored to communion with God. The mystic ladder of his dream represented Jesus, the only medium of communication between God and man. - {SC 19.2}

Gen 28:12

Gen 28:12 - and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it - Jesus is the Ladder which bridges the great fixed gulf between heaven and earth. See Joh 1:47-51; Lk 16:20-26; Isa 59:1, 2; 2Cor 5:18, 19 In the apostasy, man alienated himself from God; earth was cut off from heaven. Across the gulf that lay between, there could be no communion. But through Christ, earth is again linked with heaven. With His own merits, Christ has bridged the gulf which sin had made, so that the ministering angels can hold communion with man. Christ connects fallen man in his weakness and helplessness with the Source of infinite power. - {SC 20.1}

Gen 28:13 0 the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed - See Gen 15:1-6, 13-21, 17:1-8

Gen 28:14

Gen 28:14 - thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth - See Gen 15:1-6

Gen 28:14

Gen 28:16 - and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed - God repeats the covenant to Abraham to his grandson, Jacob. See Gen 12:3

Gen 28:15

Gen 28:15 - behold, I am with thee and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest - The experience of Jacob is an allegory to the lives of all Sons of God and God's plan to redeem each of us. God's promise of His presence and His watch care over His people is that which provides confidence, assurance, peace and blessed hope to the weary traveler. It is not when we are at our best, when we have done great feats of faith by His grace that God may come to us with assurance, but it may be in our lowest points, when we have disappointed Him, others and ourselves, just as Jacob had shamefully stolen his brother's birthright through deception, that God assures us of His love - "while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us" (Rom 5:6-8). See Joh 1:51, 14:16; Ex 33:14, 15; Ps 91:9-12; Isa 49:22-26; Heb 11:9-16; Joshua 1:9

Gen 28:15

Gen 28:15 - and will bring thee again into this land - God's people will experience a scattering or exile due to rebellion. Yet, in loving kindness and tender mercy, God will blot out His people's sins and restore them to land from which they were exiled. See Ps 51:1; Eze 36:19-29

Gen 28:15

Gen 28:15 - for I will not leave thee - See Mt 28:18-20

Gen 28:15

Gen 28:15 - until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of - God reconfirmed the promise to Abraham and Isaac to Jacob. God promised to bring Jacob and his descendants into the land of promise, to receive the heritage from the LORD. This is the everlasting gospel pronounced to Jacob and all who are his heirs. God is faithful to fulfill all of His promise! His name is synonymous with His character and reputation. All of His promises in Jesus are Amen!! See Isa 58:12-14; 1Jo 1:9; Rev 19:11; Isa 43:25; 2Cor 1:20

Gen 28:16

Gen 28:16 - Surely the LORD is in this place - Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place!

Gen 28:19

Gen 28:19 - Bethel - the House of God. See Gen 28:22

Gen 28:22

Gen 28:22 - And this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house - God's house (Bethel) is the pillar that Jacob established for an altar. The theme of God being the Rock and Foundation of His church is prevalent in the Bible. See Gen 28:19

Gen 28:22

Gen 28:22 God's house is the pillar that Jacob established for an altar. The theme of God being the Rock and Foundation of His church is prevalent in the Bible.

Gen 29:6

Gen 29:6 - Rachel his daughter cometh with the sheep - Rachel was a shepherdess. See Gen 29:9

Gen 29:14

Gen 29:14 - Surely thou art my bone and my flesh - we are family, flesh and blood.

Gen 29:17

Gen 29:17 - Leah was tender eyed; but Rachel was beautiful and well favoured - Leah may not have been very pretty where as Rachel was beautiful and well endowed.

Gen 29:23

Gen 29:23 - And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him; and he went in unto her - Leah corroborated and conspired with Laban's scheme to deceive Jacob, the swindler.

Gen 29:26

Gen 29:26 - And Laban said, It must not be so done in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn - Laban quite possibly lied and fabricated this so-called tradition in order to rid himself of his daughter Leah.

Gen 29:31

Gen 29:31 - And when the LORD saw that Leah was hated - the Lord saw that Leah was despised.

Gen 29:32

Gen 29:31 - Reuben - meaning "the Lord has looked upon my affliction"

Gen 29:35

Gen 29:35 - Judah - meaning "Praise"

Gen 30:6

Gen 30:5 - Dan - meaning "Judge"

Gen 30:11

Gen 30:11 - Gad - "a troop or host of people"

Gen 30:13

Gen 30:13 - Asher - meaning "Happy"

Gen 30:27

Gen 30:27 - for I have learned by experience that the LORD hath blessed me for thy sake - Laban confesses that Jacob had been the reason for the Lord blessing him. This was a ministry opportunity to show the power and love of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob's God over the idols which Laban, Bethuel and Nahor worshipped. See Gen 31:30, 53

Gen 30:32

Gen 30:32 - and all the brown cattle among the sheep - the brown sheep which were clean animals (cattle). See Gen 1:24, 25, 30:35

Gen 30:37

Gen 30:37 - And Jacob took him rods of green poplar, and of the hazel and chesnut tree; and pilled white strakes in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods - Jacob performed some superstitious ritual that he felt would cause the animals to bear offspring according to his favor. One may question the integrity of the act, where Jacob sought to gain advantage for himself. Later, the Lord would reveal that He, Himself was the cause for Jacob's success in spoiling the herds of his uncle Laban. See Gen 30:41, 42, 31:9-13

Gen 31:1

Gen 31:1 - And he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this glory - Laban's bad-minded sons spoke against Jacob, turning their father's thoughts against Jacob.

Gen 31:2

Gen 31:2 - And Jacob beheld the countenance of Laban, and, behold, it was not toward him as before - so much for being bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh. See Gen 29:14

Gen 31:9

Gen 31:9 - Thus God hath taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me - God has a way of showing justice in a sometimes humorous way. See Gen 31:11, 12; Esther 6:7-14

Gen 31:15

Gen 31:15 - Are we not counted of him strangers? for he hath sold us, and hath quite devoured also our money - the money gained from Jacob's labor was customarily to be a gift given to the daughters of Laban; yet Laban kept the wages to himself. Laban had withheld the marriage dowry of his daughters and had ever treated Jacob with craft and harshness; but with characteristic dissimulation he now reproached him for his secret departure, which had given the father no opportunity to make a parting feast or even to bid farewell to his daughters and their children. - {PP 193.4}

Gen 31:27

Gen 31:27 - Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp? - Laban speaks with feigned hurt and disappointment when in fact his desire was to cause harm to Jacob. See Gen 31:29, 36

Gen 31:30

Gen 31:30 - yet wherefore hast thou stolen my gods? - Laban was obviously an idolator and worshipped not the God of Abraham and Isaac

Gen 31:32

Gen 31:33 - For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them - the character of Laban's daughters showed they were products of their environment: swindlers, competitive, covetous, deceivers, idolaters, liars. See Gen 31:34, 35, 41

Gen 32:1

Gen 32:2 - and the angels of God met him - God sent angels before and behind Jacob's company to escort them and place terror in the hearts of the inhabitants should they seek their harm. Jacob called the place Mahanaim, meaning two hosts or camps that surrounded him. - See Ps 39:5 gain the Lord granted Jacob a token of the divine care. As he traveled southward from Mount Gilead, two hosts of heavenly angels seemed to encompass him behind and before, advancing with his company, as if for their protection. Jacob remembered the vision at Bethel so long before, and his burdened heart grew lighter at this evidence that the divine messengers who had brought him hope and courage at his flight from Canaan were to be the guardians of his return. And he said, "This is God's host: and he called the name of that place Mahanaim"—"two hosts, or, camps." - {PP 195.3}

Gen 32:2

Gen 32:2 - Mahanaim - gain the Lord granted Jacob a token of the divine care. As he traveled southward from Mount Gilead, two hosts of heavenly angels seemed to encompass him behind and before, advancing with his company, as if for their protection. Jacob remembered the vision at Bethel so long before, and his burdened heart grew lighter at this evidence that the divine messengers who had brought him hope and courage at his flight from Canaan were to be the guardians of his return. And he said, "This is God's host: and he called the name of that place Mahanaim"—"two hosts, or, camps." - {PP 195.3}

Gen 32:10

Gen 32:10 - I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands - Jacob recognizes the blessings of the LORD, none of which he is worthy of. He realizes that God has been good to Him and he is most undeserving.

Gen 32:24 - And Jacob was left alone - it is when we are left alone that we must wrestle with the Lord. God sometimes separates us from the distractions and things that we often sight as the cause of our problems so that we may recognize the problems that lie within us. God visits us when we are alone and holds a conversation with us that we can not avoid. This is when God is closest to us and willing to change the course of our lives if we are willing to humble ourselves, listen and submit while holding on in faith.

Gen 32:25

Gen 32:25 - And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him - Jesus saw that Jacob was gaining the victory in the struggle, fighting and holding on tenaciously with all his life force - See Lk 18:4, 5

Gen 32:26

Gen 32:26 - I will not let thee go, except thou bless me. - Jacob sought the blessing of forgiveness and peace of mind from his running and fear. Jacob realized he acted deceitfully towards his father and brother and stole his brother's birthright and this sin plagued his conscience for over twenty years. Jacob wanted to know he had received pardon and would not let God go until. Jacob had an eminent fear in his brother killing him, however, he feared being outside of God's favor more and sought peace with God. See Gen 32:11 The season of distress and anguish before us will require a faith that can endure weariness, delay, and hunger—a faith that will not faint though severely tried. The period of probation is granted to all to prepare for that time. Jacob prevailed because he was persevering and determined. His victory is an evidence of the power of importunate prayer. All who will lay hold of God's promises, as he did, and be as earnest and persevering as he was, will succeed as he succeeded. Those who are unwilling to deny self, to agonize before God, to pray long and earnestly for His blessing, will not obtain it. Wrestling with God—how few know what it is! How few have ever had their souls drawn out after God with intensity of desire until every power is on the stretch. When waves of despair which no language can express sweep over the suppliant, how few cling with unyielding faith to the promises of God. - {GC 621.2}

Gen 32:28

Gen 32:28 - Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed - Jesus is the True Israel Are the ministers of Christ tempted and fiercely buffeted by Satan? So also was He who knew no sin. In the hour of distress He turned to His Father. Himself a source of blessing and strength, He could heal the sick and raise the dead; He could command the tempest, and it would obey Him; yet He prayed, often with strong crying and tears. He prayed for His disciples and for Himself, thus identifying Himself with human beings. He was a mighty petitioner. As the Prince of life, He had power with God, and prevailed. - {GW 256.2}

Gen 32:30

Gen 32:30 - Peniel - Pnuwél pen-oo-ale' from (06437) and (0410) or (more properly,) Pniylel {pen-oo-ale'}; from and ; face of God; Penuel or Peniel, a place East of Jordan; also (as Penuel) the name of two Israelites:-Peniel, Penuel. Penuel or Peniel = "facing God" n pr m

Gen 35:4

Gen 35:4 - and all their earrings which were in their ears - See Ex 33:4, 5

Gen 35:10

Gen 35:10 - And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be thy name: and he called his name Israel - the name change of Jacob (trickster, supplantor) to Israel, a prince with God and man was indicative of the character change he underwent.

Gen 35:22

Gen 35:22 - Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine - See Gen 49:4; Lev 20:11

Gen 37:9

Gen 37:9 - the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me - the sun, moon and star may possibly refer to the people of God.

Gen 37:24

Gen 37:24 - And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it - See Ps 69:1-4

Gen 37:25

Gen 37:25 - And they sat down to eat bread - the cold, heartlessness Joseph's brothers expressed towards him resonated in his mind for years. That they could express such a lack of natural affection showed the depth of hatred in their hearts. Joseph would later prove their characters, once exalted to the station God had foreordained for him, to see if there was a change in their callous hearts.

Gen 37:27

Gen 37:27 - come let us sell him - these were the words of mankind towards our Elder Brother, Jesus. Our plea was "come let the Holy One cease from before us". see Deut 24:7; Isa 30:11; Zech 11:12, 13; Mt 26:15

Gen 37:32

Gen 37:32 - the sin of the father is here perfected in the sons. The sons of Jacob lie boldly to their father, knowing full well that they were the cause of their brother's disappearance.

Gen 37:33

Gen 37:33 - And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat; an evil beast hath devoured him; Joseph is without doubt rent in pieces - Jacob drew a conclusion based on the evidence he saw. Similarly we draw certain conclusions that steal our lives

Gen 37:35

Gen 37:35 - but he refused to be comforted; and he said, For I will go down into the grave unto my son mourning. Thus his father wept for him. - Jacob refused to be comforted. Sometimes we refuse the comfort that God makes available to us because we will not let go of our preconceived ideas. Jacob held onto the lie that "God let him down", "if God is all loving, why would He permit this to befall Joseph?"; "If God's dreams were Joseph were true, why would this occur?". These thoughts and questions haunted Jacob so that he would not be comforted.

Gen 38:7

Gen 38:6 - And Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD slew him - "It is not the way of the Lord to continue men in life when the only possible use they will make of life is to heap up more misery for themselves." {AT Jones, The Consecrated Way to Christian Perfection, pg 117}. compare to Nabal. See 1Sam 25:10, 36-38

Gen 38:24

Gen 38:24 - And Judah said, Bring her forth, and let her be burnt - men are quick to rush to Judgment. Jesus showed otherwise. See 2Sam 12:5, 6 Compare Joh 8:1-11

Gen 38:25

Gen 38:24 - By the man, whose these are, am I with child: and she said, Discern, I pray thee, whose are these, the signet, and bracelets, and staff - this is a "thou art the man moment" for Judah (2Sam 12:7). Judah acted deceitfully towards Tamar, never intending to give her his son Shelah as a redemption for his older brother that had died.

Gen 38:26

Gen 38:26 - And Judah acknowledged them, and said, She hath been more righteous than I; because that I gave her not to Shelah my son. And he knew her again no more - Judah stood reproved and repented of his sin. He acted nobly in acknowledging her as a wife and providing support to her and his children born to her. Unlike those who cover their sins when reproved, Judah and David received forgiveness of God for not making excuses or attempting to justify their wrong behavior. See 2Sam 12:13; Prov 28:13

Gen 38:29

Gen 38:29 - Pharez - this firstborn would be the progenitor of Jesus Christ. See Lk 3:33

Gen 39:3

Gen 39:3 - the LORD was with him - See Act 7:9; Mic 7:7 Arriving in Egypt, Joseph was sold to Potiphar, captain of the king's guard, in whose service he remained for ten years. He was here exposed to temptations of no ordinary character. He was in the midst of idolatry. The worship of false gods was surrounded by all the pomp of royalty, supported by the wealth and culture of the most highly civilized nation then in existence. Yet Joseph preserved his simplicity and his fidelity to God. The sights and sounds of vice were all about him, but he was as one who saw and heard not. His thoughts were not permitted to linger upon forbidden subjects. The desire to gain the favor of the Egyptians could not cause him to conceal his principles. Had he attempted to do this, he would have been overcome by temptation; but he was not ashamed of the religion of his fathers, and he made no effort to hide the fact that he was a worshiper of Jehovah.... Potiphar's confidence in Joseph increased daily, and he finally promoted him to be his steward, with full control over all his possessions.... - {CC 74.2}

Gen 39:3

Gen 39:3 - and that the LORD made all that he did to prosper in his hand - Ps 1:3 The marked prosperity which attended everything placed under Joseph's care was not the result of a direct miracle; but his industry, care, and energy were crowned with the divine blessing. Joseph attributed his success to the favor of God and even his idolatrous master accepted this as the secret of his unparalleled prosperity. Without steadfast, well-directed effort, however, success could never have been attained. God was glorified by the faithfulness of His servant. It was His purpose that in purity and uprightness the believer in God should appear in marked contrast to the worshipers of idols—that thus the light of heavenly grace might shine forth amid the darkness of heathenism. - {CC 74.3}

Gen 39:6

Gen 39:6 - And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not ought he had, save the bread which he did eat. - It was considered an abomination for a Hebrew to prepare food for an Egyptian. - {SR 101.3}

Gen 39:9

Gen 39:10 - how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God? - He would not be persuaded to deviate from the path of righteousness and trample upon God's law by any inducements or threats. - {SR 101.4} The shield which covered Joseph's heart was the fear of God, which caused him to be faithful and just to his master and true to God. - {SR 102.3} The Lord abhors indifference and disloyalty in a time of crisis in His work. The whole universe is watching with inexpressible interest the closing scenes of the great controversy between good and evil. The people of God are nearing the borders of the eternal world; what can be of more importance to them than that they be loyal to the God of heaven? All through the ages, God has had moral heroes; and He has them now,—those who, like Joseph and Elijah and Daniel, are not ashamed to acknowledge themselves His peculiar people. His special blessing accompanies the labors of men of action; men who will not be swerved from the straight line of duty, but who with divine energy will inquire, "Who is on the Lord's side?" men who will not stop merely with the inquiry, but who will demand that those who choose to identify themselves with the people of God shall step forward and reveal unmistakably their allegiance to the King of kings and Lord of lords. Such men make their wills and plans subordinate to the law of God. For love of Him, they count not their lives dear unto themselves. Their work is to catch the light from the Word, and let it shine forth to the world in clear, steady rays. Fidelity to God is their motto.—Prophets and Kings, 148. - {ChS 236.6}

Gen 39:12 - and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out - See 1Cor 6:18

Gen 39:16

Gen 39:16 - And she laid up his garment by her, until his lord came home - scheming woman sought the righteous man's downfall.

Gen 39:23

Gen 39:23 - The keeper of the prison looked not to any thing that was under his hand; because the LORD was with him, and that which he did, the LORD made it to prosper - See Gen 39:3; Ps 1:3

Gen 40:1

Gen 40:1 - butler and baker - the two typify the wise and foolish virgins in the Millerite history and in our history. The wise and foolish are fully separated and distinguished on Oct 22, 1844.

Gen 40:2

Gen 40:2 - And Pharaoh was wroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers - the king's wrath was hasty and often unpredictable. Servants could be punished if even their countenances displeased the king.

See Nehemiah 2:1, 2

Gen 40:9

Gen 40:9 - vine - Jesus is the True Vine

Gen 40:10

Gen 40:10 - three branches - three represents: 1. The gospel - a 3-step testing process 2. The 3 Angel's messages

Gen 40:10

Gen 40:10 - budded, blossoms - the Latter Rain causes the vine to bud and blossom

Gen 40:11

Gen 40:11 - grapes pressed - New Wine is the Latter Rain message (true doctrine)

Gen 40:16

Gen 40:16 - three white baskets - the papacy wears a triple crown tiera

Gen 40:17

Gen 40:17 - bakemeats - confections and unhealthful baked products

Gen 40:17

Gen 40:17 - birds - Babylon is the hold of every foul spirit and every hateful bird

Gen 40:19

Gen 40:19 - hang the on a tree - the baker will be cursed like Judas.

Gen 40:20

Gen 40:20 - Pharaoh's birthday - one other person is mentioned in the Bible as having a birthday and that is Herod. Herod's birthday is typical of the story of Elijah (Joh the Baptist) who confronted Ahab (Herod), Jezebel (Herodius) and the false prophets (Salome).

Gen 40:23

Gen 40:23 - Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgat him - Jesus was made to suffer just as Joseph suffered in order to refine and purify their characters. See Heb 5:8

Gen 41:1

Gen 41:1 - end of two full years - this day is coincident with Pharaoh's birthday two years later.

Gen 41:16

Gen 41:16 - And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not in me: God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace - like Dan, the Lord could trust His servant Joseph to exalt Him and not himself. See Dan 2:27, 28

Gen 41:23

Gen 41:23 - blasted with the east wind - See Hos 13:15; Ex 10:13

Gen 41:27

Gen 41:27 - seven years of famine - the 7 years of famine occur at the Midnight Cry (August 1844) in the Millerite history and in the repeated End Time history, when the fair virgins run to and fro seeking the word of the Lord and can not find it, falling and never rising again (Am 8:11-14)

Gen 41:32

Gen 41:32 - And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the thing is established by God - Upon the testimony of 2 or 3 witnesses, a thing is established. See Deut 17:6, 19:15; Mt 18:16; 2Cor 13:1; Heb 10:28

Gen 43:28

Gen 43:28 See - Gen 37:6-8

Gen 45:3

Gen 45:3 - And his brethren could not answer him; for they were troubled at his presence - Ps 7:16

Gen 46:3

Gen 46:3 - fear not to go down into Egypt - Jacob had a legitimate concern in going to Egypt as Abraham was called out from Ur of the Chaldees and the world (Egypt) to be separate and a distinct (peculiar) people unto God, so he feared his journeying to Egypt would be contrary to Gods purposes. God however assures him of His protection, provision and intentions to bring his seed back to the promised land.

Gen 46:8

Gen 46:8 - Reuben - Though Reuben was the firstborn of Israel, he lost his birthright due to his sin. This is what is said of Reuben in 1Chron 5:1: Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, (for he was the firstborn; but, forasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright.

Gen 46:28

Gen 46:28 - Goshen - Goshen = "drawing near" a region in northern Egypt, east of the lower Nile, where the children of Israel lived from the time of Joseph to the time of Moses

Gen 46:34

Gen 46:34 - that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination unto the Egyptians - Joseph acted with wisdom in instructing his brethren to speak of their occupations as shepherds, a trade despised by the Egyptians. Joseph purposed that his family be set apart from the Egyptians so that no strange god would be in their midst to lure them to sin against God. Though despised of the world, this was a blessing that God had purposed for His people. See Ps 81:5-16

Gen 47:4

Gen 47:4 - For to sojourn in the land are we come - The children of Israel were not slaves. They had never sold their cattle, their lands, and themselves to Pharaoh for food, as many of the Egyptians had done. They had been granted a portion of land wherein to dwell, with their flocks and cattle, on account of the service Joseph had been to the kingdom. Pharaoh appreciated his wisdom in the management of all things connected with the kingdom, especially in the preparations for the long years of famine which came upon the land of Egypt. He felt that the whole kingdom was indebted for their prosperity to the wise management of Joseph; and, as a token of his gratitude, he said to Joseph, "The land of Egypt is before thee; in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell; in the land of Goshen let them dwell: and if thou knowest any men of activity among them, then make them rulers over my cattle." - {SR 103.3}

Gen 47:4

Gen 47:4 - Goshen - Goshen Proper Name Location go'-shen probably of Egyptian origin probably of Egyptian origin; Goshen, the residence of the Israelites in Egypt; also a place in Palestine--Goshen. Goshen = "drawing near" a region in northern Egypt, east of the lower Nile, where the children of Israel lived from the time of Joseph to the time of Moses

Gen 47:6

Gen 47:5 - in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell; in the land of Goshen let them dwell - Goshen a rich and fertile land, the best of the land, outside of Egypt was the place of refuge during the time of famine for the people of God. See Gen 47:4, 11; Ex 8:22, 23, 9:26

Gen 47:8

Gen 47:10 - How old art thou? - Because of the covenant of health entrusted to the COI, he preserved their lives so that none of the diseases common to the Egyptians befell them. Therefore, Pharaoh had never beheld one as old as Jacob and therefore, asked him his age.

Gen 47:11

Gen 47:11 - And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded - Goshen was the best of the land of Egypt. See Gen 47:4, 6; Ex 8:22, 23, 9:26

Gen 47:14

Gen 47:14 - And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house - Joseph here serves as an agent of the state in gathering/consolidating all the wealth into the hands of the king (government).

Gen 48:1

Gen 48:1 - he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim - Compare Heb 11:24-27 Another important matter demanded attention; the sons of Joseph were to be formally instated among the children of Israel. Joseph, coming for a last interview with his father, brought with him Ephraim and Manasseh. These youths were connected, through their mother, with the highest order of the Egyptian priesthood; and the position of their father opened to them the avenues to wealth and distinction, should they choose to connect themselves with the Egyptians. It was Joseph's desire, however, that they should unite with their own people. He manifested his faith in the covenant promise, in behalf of his sons renouncing all the honors that the court of Egypt offered, for a place among the despised shepherd tribes, to whom had been entrusted the oracles of God. - {PP 234.2}

Gen 48:5 - And now thy two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt before I came unto thee into Egypt, are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine. - Jacob adopted Joseph's two sons as his own in Joseph's stead, showing he and the Lord desired to give Joseph a double portion, a double blessing for his faithfulness.

Gen 48:14

Gen 48:14 - And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, guiding his hands wittingly; for Manasseh was the firstborn - as one bestowed with the Spirit of Prophecy, Jacob foresaw that Ephraim's descendants would exceed his elder brother Manasseh's descendants, but that both sons would be blessed of the Lord. See Gen 48:20

Gen 48:17

Gen 48:17 - And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head - Joseph did not understand that his father Jacob was acting under inspiration when he blessed the younger over the older, just as God had done for him over his older brother Esau. See Gen 25:23

Gen 48:19

Gen 48:19 - And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations - though Joseph protested his father blessing Ephraim over Manasseh, the thing was of the Lord. Jacob understood that he was chosen over his brother Esau, though by right of the firstborn the blessing belonged to Esau. So it was with Ephraim over Manasseh.

Gen 48:21

Gen 48:21 - And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die: but God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers - Gen 50:24-26

Gen 48:22

Gen 48:22 - Moreover I have given to thee one portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow - See 1Chron 5:2

Gen 49:1

Gen 49:1 - I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days - the prophet Jacob is giving an account of the future of His people and their experiences in the last days. See 1Cor 10:1-6

Gen 49:3

Gen 49:3 - Reuben, thou art my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power: - See Deut 33:6

Gen 49:4

Gen 49:4 - because thou wentest up to thy father's bed; then defiledst thou it: he went up to my couch - See Gen 35:22; Lev 20:11

Gen 49:5

Gen 49:5 - Simeon and Levi are brethren; instruments of cruelty are in their habitations - See Deut 33:8

Gen 49:8

Gen 49:8 - Judah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise: thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies; thy father's children shall bow down before thee. - See Deut 33:7

Gen 49:8

Gen 49:8 - thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies - See Joshua 10:24

Gen 49:8

Gen 49:8 - thy father's children shall bow down before thee - The prophet Jacob is foretelling the tribe of Judah to be the Kings among the Children of Israel.

Gen 49:9

Gen 49:9 - Judah, which means "praise" is described as the pup of a lion. A young lion. So too, Jesus, the Lion of the Tribe of Judah was He Who in His youth was cut off for the sins of the world.

Gen 49:9

Gen 49:9 - from the prey, my son, thou art gone up - the statement "the prey" means or signifies something that is torn" - Jesus Himself went up from being torn.

Gen 49:9

Gen 49:9 - he stooped down - Jesus stooped down from His throne in heaven, He condescended to take on our humanity to save us. Phil 2:5-8

Gen 49:9

Gen 49:9 - he couched as a lion - he crouched or laid/stretched himself out like a lion - See Num 24:9; 23:24

Gen 49:10

Gen 49:10 - the scepter shall not depart from Judah - This is the promise that was made to David, that there shall never depart a king from reigning upon his throne (2Sam 7:16). Jesus, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, will reign eternally and His scepter, a scepter of righteousness, will be that with which He rules. See Heb 1:8, 7:14; Ps 45:6; Num 24:17; Isa

33:17 The Messiah was to be of the royal line, for in the prophecy uttered by Jacob the Lord said, "The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto Him shall the gathering of the people be." Gen 49:10. - {AA 223.1} With awed yet exultant spirit he searched in the prophetic scrolls the revelations of the Messiah's coming,—the promised seed that should bruise the serpent's head; Shiloh, "the peace giver," who was to appear before a king should cease to reign on David's throne. Now the time had come. A Roman ruler sat in the palace upon Mount Zion. By the sure word of the Lord, already the Christ was born. - {DA 103.1}

Gen 49:10 - until Shiloh come - meaning "The Peaceful One", a term referring to the Messiah, Jesus, the Prince of Peace and Mighty God. See Isa 9:6; Dan 9:25; Eze 21:25-27 Jer also bore witness of the coming Redeemer as a Prince of the house of David: "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. In His days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is His name whereby He shall be called, The Lord Our Righteousness." And again: "Thus saith the Lord: David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel; neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before Me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually." Jer 23:5, 6; 33:17, 18. - {AA 223.3}

Gen 49:10

Gen 49:10 - unto Him shall the gathering of the people be - Jesus [Shiloh] is He who will gather His people like a hen and hide them under the shadow of the All Mighty God! See Lk 4:18-21; Joh 10:14-16; Isa 60:1-7

Gen 49:11

Gen 49:11 - binding His foal to the vine - Jesus the True Vine would be lowly in His ministry and would ride upon a donkey's foal. The message of Christ (Shiloh) is bound to and rides upon the message of the ass (Islam), both at His first and second comings. See Joh 15:1, 2; Zech 9:9; Mt 21:1-5

Gen 49:11

Gen 49:11 - the choice vine - Jesus is the True and Choice Vine. See Joh 15:

Gen 49:11

Gen 49:11 - He washed His garments in wine, and His clothes in the blood of grapes - a double prophecy foretelling Jesus' being stricken and bruised for our iniquities and chastised for our peace. The message of the ass (Islam) is here seen at the death of Christ as He rides into Jerusalem, triumphantly to the praises of a crowd. Secondly, the prophecy speaks to the fact that Jesus would tread the winepress of the wrath of God alone, Himself for the sins of he righteous, and then as a conquering King over the wicked. See Isa 63:2-4; Rev 14:14-20

Gen 49:12

Gen 49:12 - His teeth white with milk - See Isa 7:15 Behold Him contemplating the price to be paid for the human soul. In His agony He clings to the cold ground, as if to prevent Himself from being drawn farther from God. The chilling dew of night falls upon His prostrate form, but He heeds it not. From His pale lips comes the bitter cry, "O My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me." Yet even now He adds, "Nevertheless not as I will, but as Thou wilt." {DA 687.2}

Gen 49:16

Gen 49:16 - Dan shall judge his people, as one of the tribes of Israel - See Deut 33:22

Gen 49:17

Gen 49:17 - Dan shall be a serpent by the way, an adder in the path, that biteth the horse heels, so that his rider shall fall backward - a possible foretelling of Dan's rebellion (the first to introduce idolatry) that like Ephraim (Hos 4:17), would cause it not to be counted among the righteous in the end. See Judges 18; 2Kings 10:29; Rev 7:4-8

Gen 49:22

Gen 49:22 - Joseph is a fruitful bough - see the blessing of Moses upon Joseph in Deut 33:13-17

Gen 49:24

Gen 49:24 - bow - rod

Gen 49:24

Gen 49:24 - the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob - Jesus' hands were steadied by God so that He would drink of the cup for mankind.

Gen 49:24

Gen 49:24 - the stone of Israel - the stone here represents Jesus and His eternal kingdom, spoken of by Dan the prophet. Dan 2:34, 35, 44, 45

Gen 49:25

Gen 49:25 - blessings of heaven above - eternal (gospel) blessings to be realized in eternity.

Gen 49:25

Gen 49:25 - blessings of the deep that lieth under - Jesus said "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth"

Gen 49:25

Gen 49:25 - blessings of the breasts, and of the womb - Jesus said "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness; for they shall be filled"

Gen 49:26

Gen 49:26 - The blessings of thy father have prevailed above the blessings of my progenitors - the heritage of Jacob is mentioned as the blessings for those who honor God and keep His holy Sabbath. See Isa 58:14

Gen 49:31

Gen 49:31 - and there I buried Leah - the fact that Jacob buried Leah in the place where his forefathers were buried may suggest that Leah was the “reward” the Lord purposed for Jacob from the beginning, rather than Rachel. His honoring Leah in her death showed that he may have repented of the preference he showed her sister and honored her by being buried with her.

Gen 50:11

Gen 50:11 - This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians - the COI looked in appearance as Egyptians. See Ex 2:16-19; Act 21:37, 38

Gen 50:25

Gen 50:25 - Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence - The oath Joseph made with his descendants was that they not bury his bones but that they bring them from Egypt into the land of promise. Joseph had no intention of being buried (compare Gen 49:33-50:13), either in Egypt nor in the land of promise because he saw and believed their deliverance from Egypt as the fulfillment of the covenant to Abraham and his Seed, Jesus, in that they would inherit the New Earth, mankind's redemption. See Josh 24:32; Act 7:17; Heb 11:10, 13

Gen 50:26

Gen 50:26 - So Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old: and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt - Joseph did not want to be buried in this earth and therefore told the COI to take his bones with them into Canaan, knowing that God would fulfill His promise to Abraham and his Seed, Christ, bringing man's salvation. The failure of the COI in the wilderness and beholding Joseph's coffin for those 40yrs was a rebuke to their unbelief. See Ex 13:19 Joseph, like Joshua, died at 110 years of age. See Josh 24:29, 30

Exodus

Ex 1:7

Back to Table of Contents

Ex 1:7 - multiplied - The COI swarmed like bees. This is a fulfillment of God's promise to Abraham - See Gen 12:1-3; 15:5

Ex 1:8

Ex 1:8 - Now there arose up a new king over Egypt, which knew not Joseph - the new king that arose in Egypt could not have known of Joseph because this new king was the founder of a new dynasty and he was an Assyrian. Had it been an Egyptian, remembrance of Joseph's beneficence towards Egypt would have prevented him from treating the COI so cruelly. See Isa 52:4

Ex 1:9

Ex 1:9 - Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we - Joseph established the COI in the land of Goshen, outside of Egypt and sustained them during the 7years of famine throughout the lands. While the Egyptians sold all their possessions and themselves into servitude to Pharaoh (Gen 47:13-21), the COI remained free and began to multiply and become strong under Joseph's watch care (Gen 47:11, 12). Therefore, the COI were an abundant people, living outside the borders of Egypt. See Ps 105:23-25

Ex 1:10

Ex 1:10 - Come on, let us deal wisely with them; let they multiply - See Ps 2:1-3

Ex 1:13

Ex 1:13 - And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour - The faithful servants of God understood that it was because of their unfaithfulness to God as a people, and their disposition to intermarry with other nations, and thus being led into idolatry, that the Lord suffered them to go into Egypt. And they firmly declared to their brethren that God would soon bring them up from Egypt and break their oppressive yoke. - {SR 114.4}

Ex 1:14

Ex 1:14 - And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour - See Isa 52:5

Ex 1:16

Ex 1:15 - if it be a son, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall live. - And because they failed to accomplish their purpose, they hardened their hearts to go still further. The king commanded that the male children should be killed as soon as they were born. Satan was the mover in these matters. He knew that a deliverer was to be raised up among the Heb to rescue them from oppression. He thought that if he could move the king to destroy the male children, the purpose of God would be defeated. The women feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the male children alive. - {SR 105.4} Here Satan was defeated. By moving Pharaoh to destroy the male children, he thought to turn aside the purposes of God and destroy the one whom God would raise up to deliver His people. But that very decree, appointing the Hebrew children to death, was the means God overruled to place Moses in the royal family, where he had advantages to become a learned man and eminently qualified to lead his people from Egypt. - {SR 108.2}

Ex 2:5

Ex 2:5 - daughter of Pharaoh - daughter and wife of Pharaoh

Ex 2:10

Ex 2:10 - Moses - Moses' name and early life experience typifies that of the nation of Israel and all who accept God's covenant by faith: 1. He was delivered from destruction by being placed in an ark - Jesus is our Ark of safety 2. Loving hands guided him to a place of safety 3. He was drawn forth from the waters - similarly Israel would be drawn from the waters, from among the nations (Rev 17:15) 4. Became heir to a kingdom - the COI and all who are Sons of Abraham are heirs to a kingdom (Gal 3:26-29)

Ex 2:18

Ex 2:18 - Reuel - meaning "Friend of God"

Ex 2:19

Ex 2:19 - And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock - See Act 21:37, 38; Gen 50:11

Ex 2:21

Ex 2:21 - And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter - Moses had abandoned hopes of delivering his people from Egyptian bondage and found contentment living as a shepherd with his father-in-law Reuel (Jethro) and family. He however, was not idle during this time in that he penned the book of Job and Gen by inspiration of God. During the first twenty-five hundred years of human history, there was no written revelation. Those who had been taught of God, communicated their knowledge to others, and it was handed down from father to son, through successive generations. The preparation of the written word began in the time of Moses. Inspired revelations were then embodied in an inspired book. This work continued during the long period of sixteen hundred years—from Moses, the historian of creation and the law, to Joh, the recorder of the most sublime truths of the gospel. - {GC v.2}

Ex 2:24

Ex 2:24 - And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob - See Act 7:17

Ex 3:1

Ex 3:1 - Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian - The long years amid desert solitudes were not lost. Not only was Moses gaining a preparation for the great work before him, but during this time, under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, he wrote the book of Gen and also the book of Job, which would be read with the deepest interest by the people of God until the close of time (The Signs of the Times, February 19, 1880). - {3BC 1140.3}

Ex 3:2

Ex 3:2 - the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush - See Joshua 5:14; Dan 9:25, 10:21, 12:1; Judges 13:15-23

Ex 3:4

Ex 3:4 - God - the Second Person of the Godhead is here referenced, Jesus, the Son of God. Jesus again, veiled His glory so that He may be seen by men (2Thess 2:8). See Joh 1:18; Col 1:15

Ex 3:5

Ex 3:5 - Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. - God's presence makes things holy and He gives [spiritual] rest. See Rev 15:4; Joshua 5:13-15; Ex 33:14; Act 7:33 [LORD God] thou only art holy... Rev 15:4

Ex 3:6

Ex 3:6 - And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon God - We know that this is Christ in the burning bush, the very image of the invisible God (Col 1:15), veiled by the bush. Moses understood the reverent glory of God and hid his face lest he look mistakenly, presumptuously upon the face of God and die. See Heb 12:29; Ex 33:20; Judg 13:22

Ex 3:12

Ex 3:12 - token unto thee - God gave Moses a prophetic testing message and sign in that He would make Moses to be the guide for His people out of bondage and would direct them to worship on Mt. Sinai. Moses' faith would be completely strengthened at the fulfillment of this sign, empowering him to command Israel to be of good courage, that the Lord would fulfill all of His promises and bring them ultimately into a land flowing with milk and honey.

Ex 3:12

Ex 3:12 - When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain - The typology in God's words is to be noted in that God, Who brings His people out of sin and bondage (Egypt) will cause them to worship upon His holy mountain (Mt Zion, the New Jerusalem). See Ex 17:6; Deut 4:10-15

Ex 3:14

Ex 3:14 - I AM THAT I AM - Gods Self-declaration. The Self-existing God that is all that His glory/character reveal (The Lord God, Merciful, Gracious, Long-Suffering, Abundant in Goodness and Truth, Keeping Mercy, Forgiving Iniquity, Transgression and Sin, Just). It is not enough that God is I AM, self-existent, but rather I AM THAT I AM - all that He is what He is. See Joh 8:58; Ex 34:6, 7; Ps 119:68 God is what He is: He is first to all things, CREATOR He is to the sons of men, REDEEMER Heb 11:6 - Reward of those that diligently seek Him is Himself - His character, His nature, His disposition

Ex 3:15

Ex 3:15 - the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob - God is not a God of the dead but of the living. That He identifies Himself by these three men, though they sleep, He calls them as those who will live forever. See 1Kin 18:36; Mt 22:32; Mk 12:27; Lk 20:38; Rom 4:17

Ex 3:15

Ex 3:15 - my name forever - The Lord in His great love and condescension for humanity's benefit has associated Himself and His character with once frail men who by faith achieved a new name and demonstrated Christ's righteousness by faith. See Heb 11:13-16

Ex 3:15

Ex 3:15 - this is my memorial unto all generations - God's name and His memorial go together, hand in hand. to every generation, God is I AM THAT I AM and His memorial is the Sabbath: First and foremost, God is CREATOR Similarly, God is REDEEMER God is Love - Love is God God is Peace - Peace is God God is Patience - Patience is God God is Longsuffering - Longsuffering is God God is Meek - Meekness is God God is Joy - Joy is God God is Truth - Truth is God God is Grace - Grace is God God is Mercy - Mercy is God God is Goodness - Goodness is God God is Life - Life is God

Ex 3:16

Ex 3:16, 17 - Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt: 17 And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey - See Ex 6:7, 8 When the Lord sent Moses to the children of Israel, it was with this message: "Say unto them, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visited you, and seen that which was done to you in Egypt; and I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey." Ex. 3:16, 17. Again he said to them: "And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God; and ye shall know that I am the Lord your God, which bringeth you out from under the burden of the Egyptians. And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it to you for an heritage; I am the Lord." Ex. 6:7, 8. Yet, direct and positive as this promise was, the Lord did not bring them into that land, but destroyed them for their disobedience. {1882 JHW, JBF 25.2}

Ex 4:3

Ex 4:1-9 - signs & wonders - Moses was granted the privilege to demonstrate signs and wonders from the Lord to convince the Children of Israel of God's words and that The Lord sent him to be their guide out of Egypt. The people believed the signs and wonders (Ex 4:31)

Ex 4:10

Ex 4:10-12 - not eloquent - God who made the mouth of the dumb, the ears of the deaf can place words in our mouths to His glory if we allow Him. (See Also: Ps 81:10)

Ex 4:12

Ex 4:12 - Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say - See Lk 12:12

Ex 4:15

Ex 4:15 - and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do. See Jer 15:19

Ex 4:21

Ex 4:21 - but I will harden his heart, that he shall not let the people go - that which the Lord does not prevent or thwart is ascribed to Him according to Scripture. In an attempt to describe the supernatural, the ancient writers ascribed all matters, good or evil to God. Consider that Pharaoh's heart was already hardened and God needed to do nothing more to cause this man, who perfectly typified Satan, to rebel and resist righteousness. See Ex 8:19-32

Ex 4:22

Ex 4:22 - Israel is my son, even my firstborn - the COI were a type of Jesus Christ, the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. See Joh 1:14 1. God would call both Israel and Jesus out of Egypt. See Mt 2:15 2. God would ordain both Israel and Jesus to be His Priests. See Ex 19:4-6; Ps 110:4; Heb 5:5, 6; 7:7, 24, 25

Ex 4:23

Ex 4:23 - Let my son go, that he may serve me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay thy son, even thy firstborn. - The LORD upheld His prophetic principle in informing Pharaoh of the final outcome of his rebellion: "Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but He revealeth His secrets to His servants the prophets." Am 3:7

Ex 4:24

Ex 4:24-26 - Moses, because of his wife's protest, failed to keep the covenant spoken to Abraham in Gen 17:11-14 where all male children were to be circumcised or be cut-off by God. No explanation was given; but Moses remembered that he had disregarded one of God's requirements; yielding to the persuasion of his wife, he had neglected to perform the rite of circumcision upon their youngest son. He had failed to comply with the condition by which his child could be entitled to the blessings of God's covenant with Israel; and such a neglect on the part of their chosen leader could not but lessen the force of the divine precepts upon the people. Zipporah, fearing that her husband would be slain, performed the rite herself, and the angel then permitted Moses to pursue his journey. In his mission to Pharaoh, Moses was to be placed in a position of great peril; his life could be preserved only through the protection of holy angels. But while living in neglect of a known duty, he would not be secure; for he could not be shielded by the angels of God. PP 255.5

Ex 5:2

Ex 5:2 - Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Israel go - See 2Kin 18:35, 19:22 This scene was presented before me to illustrate the selfish love of slavery, and the desperate measures which the South would adopt to cherish the institution, and the dreadful lengths to which they would go before they would yield. The system of slavery has reduced and degraded human beings to the level of the brutes, and the majority of slave masters regard them as such. The consciences of these masters have become seared and hardened, as was Pharaoh's; and if compelled to release their slaves, their principles remain unchanged, and they would make the slave feel their oppressive power if possible. It looked to me like an impossibility now for slavery to be done away. God alone can wrench the slave from the hand of his desperate, relentless oppressor. All the abuse and cruelty exercised toward the slave is justly chargeable to the upholders of the slave system, whether they be Southern or Northern men. - {1T 266.1}

Ex 5:4

Ex 5:4 - And the king of Egypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Moses and Aaron, let the people from their works? get you unto your burdens - Upon returning to Egypt, Moses informed the people of his mission from the God of their fathers, The I AM and that they ought to return to upholding the memorial of their God, the seventh-day Sabbath. See Ex 3:14, 15

Ex 5:6

Ex 5:5-9 - keep the Sabbath - Pharaoh was angered that Moses caused the people to keep the Sabbath and cease from their work and therefore he commanded that their labors be made heavier

Ex 5:22

Ex 5:22-23 - Moses returned to the Lord - Moses, after witnessing Pharaoh's obstinence and the burden inflicted upon God's people, went back to The Lord to seek counsel on what next to do. God revealed to Moses that Pharaoh would harden his heart and would not comply (Ex 3:19-22). Moses appears to murmur to God in this initial phase of faith building and The Lord tolerates it...

Ex 6:3

Ex 6:3-8 - JEHOVAH - The Lord presented to the Children of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob His name JEHOVAH (I am The LORD) as He enters into covenant with them personally.

Ex 6:5

Ex 6:5 - I have remembered my covenant - the time had come for God to fulfill His covenant that He made with Abraham and his See, Jesus Christ. God was purposing to bring salvation to His people upon entering the Promised Land as He had promised, provided they exercise faith in His purposes. See Rev 16:19, 18:5; Gal 3:16; Heb 3:15-4:1; Gen 50:26; Ex 13:19

Ex 6:7

Ex 6:7 - And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God - See Ex 19:3-6; Jer 31:33, 34

Ex 6:8

Ex 6:8 - And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for an heritage: I am the LORD - See Gen 13:14-17; 22:17; Ex 3:16, 17; Rom 4:13 When the Lord sent Moses to the children of Israel, it was with this message: "Say unto them, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visited you, and seen that which was done to you in Egypt; and I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey." Ex. 3:16, 17. Again he said to them: "And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God; and ye shall know that I am the Lord your God, which bringeth you out from under the burden of the Egyptians. And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it to you for an heritage; I am the Lord." Ex. 6:7, 8. Yet, direct and positive as this promise was, the Lord did not bring them into that land, but destroyed them for their disobedience. {1882 JHW, JBF 25.2}

Ex 6:14

Ex 6:14-25 - genealogy - God presents the genealogy of the eldest three heads of the House of Israel: Reuben- Simeon- Levi-

Ex 7:3

Ex 7:3 - And I will harden Pharaoh's heart - But many of the Heb were content to remain in bondage rather than to go to a new country and meet with the difficulties attending such a journey. Therefore the Lord did not deliver them by the first display of His signs and wonders before Pharaoh. He overruled events to more fully develop the tyrannical spirit of Pharaoh, and that He might manifest His great power to the Egyptians, and also before His people, to make them anxious to leave Egypt and choose the service of God. - {SR 112.3} God takes responsibility for that which he allows or does not prevent. See Ex 8:32; 1 Chronicles 10:4, 13, 14

Ex 7:11

Ex 7:11 - Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments - Janes and Jambres, sons of Belial and seed of the serpent counterfeited Moses' miracle and thus hardened Pharaoh's and the Egyptians' hearts. See 2Tim 3:8 - "According to Jasher, Jannes and Jmbres were the two sons of Balaam. He was present when they withstood Moses. They exercised the same power of enchantment that their father, Balaam, had exercised. They deceived Pharaoh and the Egyptians, by means of those miracles which they had power to do.... This is an example of the two-horned beast [Rev 13:11-18]

Ex 7:13

Ex 7:13 - And he hardened Pharaoh's heart - See Ps 33:15, 25:14

Ex 7:14

Ex 7:14 - Pharaoh's heart is hardened, he refuseth to let the people go - Would that I could make plain to your beclouded senses, my brethren, the great peril you are in. Every action, good or bad, prepares the way for its repetition. How was it in the case of Pharaoh? The statement in Holy Writ is that God hardened his heart, and at every repetition of light in the manifestation of God's power the statement is repeated. Every time he refused to submit to God's will his heart became harder and less impressible by the Spirit of God. He sowed the seed of obstinacy, and God left it to vegetate. He might have prevented it by a miracle, but that was not His plan. He allowed it to grow and produce a harvest of its own kind, thus, proving the truthfulness of the scripture: "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." When a man plants doubts, he will reap doubts. By rejecting the first light and every following ray, Pharaoh went from one degree of hardness of heart to another, until the cold, dead forms of the first-born only checked his unbelief and obstinacy for a moment. And then, determined not to yield to God's way, he continued his willful course until overwhelmed by the waters of the Red Sea. - {5T 119.2} This case is placed on record for our benefit. Just what took place in Pharaoh's heart will take place in every soul that neglects to cherish the light and walk promptly in its rays. God destroys no one. The sinner destroys himself by his own impenitence. When a person once neglects to heed the invitations, reproofs, and warnings of the Spirit of God, his conscience becomes seared, and the next time he is admonished, it will be more difficult to yield obedience than before. And thus with every repetition. Conscience is the voice of God, heard amid the conflict of human passions; when it is resisted, the Spirit of God is grieved. - {5T 120.1}

Ex 7:18

Ex 7:18 - And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall lothe to drink of the water of the river - the LORD struck the Nile river so that it turned to blood. The LORD confronted directly the Egyptian pagan god Hapi, the water bearer, which had a fish's head, showing that it was powerless against the Almighty God of the Heb.

Ex 7:19

Ex 7:19 - that they may become blood - the plague of blood may be a response to the death decree of the Hebrew male children issued by Pharaoh (Ex 1:15-20). Consider Rev 16:4-7

Ex 7:20

Ex 7:20 - he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood - the Nile River, which the Egyptians worshipped as a life giving god was shown to be under the control of the True and Living God. As Moses took his staff and smote the river, so too, Jesus, the River of Living Waters would be smitten and would bring forth cleaning water and blood. See Zech 13:1, 12:10; Joh 19:33, 34; Hymn #332, 336

Ex 8:3 - And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thine house, and into thy bedchamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy kneadingtroughs: - The LORD showed His power over nature by treading upon the Egyptian pagan goddess Heket, which bore a frog's head. His command of frogs to overflow the city then die in smelly heaps (v14) showed that God reigned over heaven and earth.

Ex 8:14

Ex 8:14 - And they gathered them together upon heaps: and the land stank - The work of the magicians led him to believe that these miracles were performed by magic, but he had abundant evidence that this was not the case when the plague of frogs was removed. God could have caused them to disappear and return to dust in a moment, but He did not do this, lest, after they should be removed, the king and the Egyptians should say that it was the result of magic, like the work of the magicians. They died, and then they gathered them together into heaps. Their bodies they could see before them, and they corrupted the atmosphere. Here the king and all Egypt had evidences which their vain philosophy could not dispose of, that this work was not magic but a judgment from the God of heaven. - {SR 116.1}

Ex 8:16

Ex 8:16 - And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt - the LORD once again dethroned an Egyptian pagan god, Geb, who was the god of the land and earth, when He caused lice to come upon man and beast from the dust of the earth.

Ex 8:21

Ex 8:21 - I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are - the LORD dethroned the Egyptian god, Kephri, who bore a fly's head when He sent swarms of a diversity of flying (biting) insects to the Egyptians. The LORD here made a distinction between His people and the Egyptians in that no flies affected the land of Goshen where The COI dwelt. See Ps 78:45 Next came the plague of the swarms of flies. They were not such flies as harmlessly annoy us in some seasons of the year, but the flies brought upon Egypt were large and venomous. Their sting was very painful upon man and beast. God separated His people from the Egyptians and suffered no flies to appear throughout their coasts. - {SR 116.3}

Ex 8:22

Ex 8:22 - I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell - God will protect and separate His people in the day of the plagues who dwell in the land of Goshen from the rest who dwell in Egypt. See Ex 9:26

Ex 8:22

Ex 8:22 - to the end thou mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth - God was revealing Himself and His glory to the COI to the Egyptians and to the ends of the earth.

Ex 8:23

Ex 8:23 - I will put a division between my people and thy people - God will make a distinction between His people (seed of the woman) and Pharaoh's people (seed of the serpent).

Ex 8:25

Ex 8:25 - Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land - Pharaoh consented to have Moses, Aaron and the COI to perform their sacrifices to God there in the land of Goshen. This would be an abomination to the Egyptians, that worshipped livestock and would bring a reproach and war against the COI.

Ex 8:32

Ex 8:32 - God takes responsibility for that which he allows or does not prevent. See Ex 7:3; 1 Chronicles 10:4, 13, 14

Ex 9:3

Ex 9:3 - Behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous murrain - The LORD showed again His power over nature by dethroning the Egyptian pagan god Hathor, with a cow's head, by bringing grievous sores upon the cattle of the Egyptians. Through this plague, the LORD began an assault on the wealth and economic strength of the land.

Ex 9:4

Ex 9:4 - And the LORD shall sever between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel. - See Ex 11:6, 7; 2Pet 2:9

Ex 9:9

Ex 9:9 - And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt. - Egyptian goddess Isis (god of medicine) is here being disproved by the LORD.

Ex 9:16

Ex 9:16 - have I raised thee up, for to shew in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth - God chose this particular person to be Pharaoh for his particular hardness of heart and wickedness. God sought one who would be defiant to death, just as his father the devil, so that His glory would shine above his darkness. See Rom 9:17, 18, 22

Ex 9:22

Ex 9:22 - that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt - Egyptian goddess of the sky, Nut

Ex 9:23

Ex 9:23 - and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt - The Lord then sent upon Egypt the plague of the hail mingled with fire, with lightnings and thunder. The time of each plague was given before it came, that it might not be said to have happened by chance. The Lord demonstrated to the Egyptians that the whole earth was under the command of the God of the Heb—that thunder, hail, and storm obey His voice. Pharaoh, the proud king who once inquired, “Who is the Lord, that I should obey His voice?” humbled himself and said, “I have sinned ... : the Lord is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.” He begged of Moses to be his intercessor with God, that the terrific thunder and lightning might cease. - {SR 117.1}

Ex 9:26 - Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail - God separated his people from the Egyptians and made a distinction between them and the worldlings. God preserved His people and the land of Goshen. Praise the Lord! See Gen 44:12; Ex 8:22-24

Ex 9:29

Ex 9:29 - that thou mayest know how that the earth is the LORD'S - See Ps 24:1, 2

Ex 9:34

Ex 9:34 - he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants - Pharaoh swore deceitfully, went back on his word and therefore sinned. See Ps 24:3, 4

Ex 10:4

Ex 10:4 - Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, to morrow will I bring the locusts into thy coast: - the Egyptian god Seth, the god of storms and disorder, is here dethroned by the LORD

Ex 10:16

Ex 10:16 - Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste; and he said, I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you - Pharaoh's repentance was short lived once the pain and suffering were removed. His pride caused him to feel ashamed of his confession such that he doubled down on his obstinate wickedness.

Ex 10:21

Ex 10:21 - And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt. - the Egyptian god Ra, the god of the Sun is here dethroned by the LORD.

Ex 10:21

Ex 10:21 - even darkness which may be felt - The Lord then sent darkness upon Egypt. The people were not merely deprived of light, but the atmosphere was very oppressive, so that breathing was difficult; yet the Heb had a pure atmosphere and light in their dwellings. - {SR 117.2}

Ex 11:6 - And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt - On that night, so terrible to the Egyptians and so glorious to the people of God, was the solemn ordinance of the passover instituted. - {SR 117.3} Similar to the night of the Passover, the Second Coming of the LORD will be a day of rejoicing for some and unspeakable anguish and grief for others. Soon our eyes were drawn to the east, for a small black cloud had appeared, about half as large as a man's hand, which we all knew was the sign of the Son of man. We all in solemn silence gazed on the cloud as it drew nearer and became lighter, glorious, and still more glorious, till it was a great white cloud. The bottom appeared like fire; a rainbow was over the cloud, while around it were ten thousand angels, singing a most lovely song; and upon it sat the Son of man. His hair was white and curly and lay on His shoulders; and upon His head were many crowns. His feet had the appearance of fire; in His right hand was a sharp sickle; in His left, a silver trumpet. His eyes were as a flame of fire, which searched His children through and through. Then all faces gathered paleness, and those that God had rejected gathered blackness. Then we all cried out, "Who shall be able to stand? Is my robe spotless?" Then the angels ceased to sing, and there was some time of awful silence, when Jesus spoke: "Those who have clean hands and pure hearts shall be able to stand; My grace is sufficient for you." At this our faces lighted up, and joy filled every heart. And the angels struck a note higher and sang again, while the cloud drew still nearer the earth. - {EW 15.2}

Ex 11:7 - But against any of the children of Israel shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast: that ye may know how that the LORD doth put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel. - See 2Pet 2:9; Ex 9:4; Ps 105:15

Ex 12:3

Ex 12:3 - In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for an house: - the lamb was to be taken from the sheep or goat and kept close until the 14th day when it would be killed. See Ex 12:5, 6; Joh 11:54

Ex 12:7

Ex 12:7 - And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses - the blood was to be sprinkled over and around the door of the house. Jesus is both the Door to Our Salvation and the One Who presents to each individual an open door which no man can shut. The blood traces the places for which Jesus was struck in His humiliation for humanity, on the out-stretched hands, on the head, and upon the feet (the blood which fell from above the door).

Ex 12:8

Ex 12:8 - unleavened bread - It was expressly enjoined in the law of the Passover, and as strictly observed by the Jews in their practice, that no leaven should be found in their houses during the feast. In like manner the leaven of sin must be put away from all who would receive life and nourishment from Christ. So Paul writes to the Corinthian church, "Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump.... For even Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth." 1Cor 5:7, 8. - {PP 278.1}

Ex 12:8

Ex 12:8 - with bitter herbs - The lamb was to be eaten with bitter herbs, as pointing back to the bitterness of the bondage in Egypt. So when we feed upon Christ, it should be with contrition of heart, because of our sins. {PP 277.4}

Ex 12:9

Ex 12:9 - but roast with fire - fire is that which purifies and purges men of their sins. Jesus' experience typifies the fiery trials that will assail all who will live godly lives. See 1Pet 4:12

Ex 12:9

Ex 12:9 - his head with his legs - The lamb was to be prepared whole, not a bone of it being broken: so not a bone was to be broken of the Lamb of God, who was to die for us. Joh 19:36. Thus was also represented the completeness of Christ's sacrifice. - {PP 277.3}

Ex 12:13

Ex 12:13 - when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you - The blood of Christ, which covers our sins and transgressions and blots them out will be our covert in the Day of the LORD. See Eze 9:4; Ex 12:23; Joshua 2:17-19

Ex 12:22

Ex 12:22 - and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning. - The people were to remain indoors, typifying a sealing where nothing could come in and nothing could depart. See Gen 7:1; Josh 2:17-19; Rev 7:3, 4

Ex 12:29

Ex 12:28 - at midnight, the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt - there was a midnight cry among the Egyptians as the destroying angel killed all the firstborn. This midnight cry, heard in the land of Goshen was a signal that the LORD's deliverance had arrived. See Mt 25:6; Lk 22:53, 54

Ex 12:33

Ex 12:33 - And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead men. - Ps 105:38

Ex 12:35

Ex 12:35, 36 - borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment. See Ezr 7:16

Ex 12:38

Ex 12:38 - a mixed multitude went up with them - the mixed multitude, comprised of Egyptians and other nationalities that had taken residence in the metropolis of Egypt became a snare to the COI in provoking them to sin against the LORD.

Ex 12:40

Ex 12:40 - Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years - The discussion on Gen. 15:13 points out that Paul's statement in Gal. 3:17 and other evidence make it clear that this 430 years includes the period from Abraham's call to leave Haran to Jacob's actual descent into Egypt 215 years later, and that the interval between Jacob's entry into Egypt and the Ex was another 215 years. Since in the time of Moses, Palestine was considered a part of the Egyptian empire, it is not strange to find an author of that period including Canaan in the term "Egypt." Not being familiar with the political situation in Moses' time, but feeling that the 430 years included the patriarchal sojourn in Canaan, the translators of the LXX specifically included within this period the time of their sojourn "in the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan." The prophecy that the fourth generation of those who had entered Egypt would leave it (Gen. 15:16), and its recorded fulfillment (Ex. 6:16-20), make impossible any other explanation of the 430-year period. {SDA Bible Commentary 1 pg}

Ex 12:41 - And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. - 430years to the day after God established His covenant with the COI's forefather Abraham in the land of Ur, the COI left Egyptian bondage and were bound for the land of promise. See Gen 15:13, 14; Gal 3:17; Act 7:6

Ex 12:43

Ex 12:43 - And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the passover: There shall no stranger eat thereof: - only those of the household of faith can partake of the Passover. Only those who have been spiritually circumcised and washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb can partake of the Lord's Passover. See Joh 6:51-55

Ex 12:46 - neither shall ye break a bone thereof - Ps 22:17, 34:20

Ex 13:2

Ex 13:2 - Sanctify unto me all the firstborn, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine - the first born were to be the priests of the family, wholly consecrated to the LORD. Many however, would be killed in the rebellion at the base of Mt. Sinai when Aaron built the golden calf. See Ex 13:12, 32:28, Num 3:6-13; Deut 10:9

Ex 13:19

Ex 13:19 - And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you - Joseph did not want to be buried in this earth and therefore told the COI to take his bones with them into Canaan, knowing that God would fulfill His promise to Abraham and his Seed, Christ, bringing man's salvation. The failure of the COI in the wilderness and beholding Joseph's coffin for those 40yrs was a rebuke to their unbelief. See Gen 50:26; Act 7:17

Ex 13:21

Ex 13:21 - And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night: - See Ps 78:14; 1Cor 10:1

Ex 14:5

Ex 14:5 - Why have we done this, that we have let Israel from serving us - Pharaoh and the Egyptians have willfully denied God's power in delivering Israel and think that it is within their own power to subject them once again. This is their fatal flaw.

Ex 14:11

Ex 14:11 - And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt? - See Ex 15:23, 24, 16:3; Num 11:1, 14:1 Provocation #1

Ex 14:12

Ex 14:12 - Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness. - See Ex 16:3; Num 14:1

Ex 14:14

Ex 14:14 - The LORD shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace - See Lk 21:19

Ex 14:16

Ex 14:16 - Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea - God would go before Moses and Aaron, making a path in the waters for the people to pass upon - See Isa 43:16; Ps 77:19, 20; Josh 3:12-16

Ex 14:17

Ex 14:17 - And I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen - See Isa 43:17

Ex 14:17

Ex 14:17 - and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen - The LORD God of Heaven and Earth gained honor for toppling the world's strongest army while delivering His people, the weakest among the nations. See Judges 4:9

Ex 14:20

Ex 14:20 - And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night - the Lord can be a light to His people while simultaneously confounding the wicked in darkness. The duality of God is here again portrayed. See 1Thess 5:1-5; Mt 13:33

Ex 14:21

Ex 14:21 - And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided - See Ps 78:13; Joshua 3:13-17, 4:23

Ex 14:28

Ex 14:28 And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them. - See Isa 43:17

Ex 15:1

Ex 15:1 - Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying - the song of Moses and the Lamb, the song of the Redeemed - See Rev 15:2-4

Ex 15:1

Ex 15:1 - the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea - See Ex 15:21

Ex 15:2

Ex 15:2 - song - The Lord is compared to music, which is fitting since He created music. Music ought to reflect its Creator and glorify Him (Eph 5:19; Col 3:16). Music is comprised of three parts, which reflect the three persons of the Godhead: 1. Melody - reflects the Father Who is foremost and most highly exalted (Joh 14:28) 2. Harmony - reflects the Son, Who compliments the Father (Melody) and magnifies Him. Jesus brought harmony and reconciliation to God and mankind (Joh 14:9,10, 13) 3. Rhythm - reflects the Holy Spirit Who carries the tempo of the music and causes movement (Gen 1:2; 2Pet 1:21) When God's order of music is perverted, (when the Rhythm takes preeminence, then it becomes bewitching and Satanic)

Ex 15:16 - See Josh 2:11

Ex 15:16

Ex 15:16 - till thy people pass over, O LORD, till the people pass over - While I was praying at the family altar, the Holy Ghost fell upon me, and I seemed to be rising higher and higher, far above the dark world. I turned to look for the Advent people in the world, but could not find them, when a voice said to me, "Look again, and look a little higher." At this I raised my eyes, and saw a straight and narrow path, cast up high above the world. On this path the Advent people were traveling to the city, which was at the farther end of the path. They had a bright light set up behind them at the beginning of the path, which an angel told me was the midnight cry. This light shone all along the path and gave light for their feet so that they might not stumble. If they kept their eyes fixed on Jesus, who was just before them, leading them to the city, they were safe.

Ex 15:24

Ex 15:24 - And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink? - God was proving the people to see if they would endure hardship and still trust in Him. See Ex 15:25, 27; Josh 2:22 Provocation #2 Ex 14:11; Ex 16:3; Num 11:1, 14:1

Ex 15:26

Ex 15:26 - And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the LORD that healeth thee - God promised to preserve the health of Israel if they followed His commands. The people were still eating of the unleavened bread that they had taken from Egypt and had not yet received of the manna, nor demanded of the flesh pots. God sought to restore the original diet in Israel before entering the promised land but they refused. See Num 11:4-10 See Deut 7:15; Compare Eccl 5:17 Eve really believed the words of Satan, but her belief did not save her from the penalty of sin. She disbelieved the words of God, and this was what led to her fall. In the judgment men will not be condemned because they conscientiously believed a lie, but because they did not believe the truth, because they neglected the opportunity of learning what is truth. Notwithstanding the sophistry of Satan to the contrary, it is always disastrous to disobey God. We must set our hearts to know what is truth. All the lessons which God has caused to be placed on record in His word are for our warning and instruction. They are given to save us from deception. Their neglect will result in ruin to ourselves. Whatever contradicts God's word, we may be sure proceeds from Satan. - {PP 55.2}

Ex 16:1

Ex 16:1 - on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt - 29-30 days after the Red Sea crossing the COI encamp in the wilderness of Sin. Here,

God gives them manna from heaven, teaching them to rely upon Him for their daily bread.

Ex 16:3

Ex 16:3 - And the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh pots, and when we did eat bread to the full; for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger - the COI were slaves to appetite and in their vanity, they utter a vain oath, swearing they wished God had struck them dead in Egypt, at least they would have died near their flesh pots with plenty of bread in store rather than to die in the desert. Their lack of faith hurt the Lord Who 30days prior had wrought a wonderful miracle of deliverance on their behalf. See Ex 14:11 Provocation #3; See Ex 14:11; 15:23, 24; Num 11:1, 14:1

Ex 19:1 - This day marks the 47th day after leaving Egypt (counting from the 15th day of the 1st month, the commencement of the Feast of Unleavened Bread) and the 46th day after the resurrection (counting from the Feast of First Fruits - the 16th day of Nisan).

Ex 19:3 - Moses went up unto God - The LORD would enter covenant with His people and provide an illustration of the sanctuary and its ministrations, even before the erection of the typical sanctuary in the wilderness (Ex 19:3-20): 1. God would appoint the people to be a holy nation of priests 2. He would call them to sanctify themselves before entering His presence on Mt. Sinai 3. The people would hear His voice and behold His glory on the mountain 4. Moses, typifying the High Priest in the Most Holy Place, would enter the thick cloud where he would meet with the LORD (Ex 19:9)

Ex 19:8 - All that the LORD hath spoken we will do - This is the Old Covenant, which was to be superseded by the New - *Heb 8:8-13, Jer 31:31-34; Ezekiel 36:24-28; Jeremiah 31:31-34; John 3:16, 17; Ephesians 2:4-10 See Ex 24:7; Nehemiah 9:38; Josh 24:16-18, 21, 24; John 6:28; Mt 19:16; CONTRAST Josh 24:19; Lk 1:35, 38 "Now must come the terrors of Mt. Sinai, which were completely unnecessary for Abraham. Since the people had now instituted the old covenant by making their arrogant promise, the Lord is obliged to communicate His law to them through this method. The Lord did not need to frighten Abraham with "thunders and lightnings" and earthquakes, for He wrote His holy law in his believing heart. The old covenant depends on fear as its motivation to produce "the works of the law," because the motivation of faith has not yet been realized. For example, to refrain from illicit sex because of fear of AIDS or shame is old covenant legalism. To keep the Sabbath because of fear of being lost is also legalism. It is good to refrain from illicit sex, and it is good to keep the Sabbath, but the motive that is truly effective is supplied only by the grace of God in the new covenant." [Grace on Trial pg 172 by Robert J. Wieland] the response of the COI was from an unconverted heart, where they sought to engage God by transaction, rather than by a relationship based on love and faith in His power. They were incapable of saving themselves from Egyptian captivity, they murmured and complained through the course of God's deliverance and now the COI in blind self-confidence believe they will uphold and be faithful to all that the Lord has said. This was a sinful mistake. the COI established the Old Covenant (the Law of Works - Rom 3:27) in their response to God. Knowing the motives and true nature of the peoples heart, God would give the COI a great display of power and might so that they would be fearful of breaking the covenant they established with Him. 40days after speaking the 10 Commandments with an awful display of power, the COI built a golden calf to worship as their god. See Num 14:39-45 Josh 24:19 - "Ye cannot serve the Lord," said Josh: "for He is a holy God; ... He will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins." Before there could be any permanent reformation the people must be led to feel their utter inability in themselves to render obedience to God. They had broken His law, it condemned them as transgressors, and it provided no way of escape. While they trusted in their own strength and righteousness, it was impossible for them to secure the pardon of their sins; they could not meet the claims of God's perfect law, and it was in vain that they pledged themselves to serve God. It was only by faith in Christ that they could secure pardon of sin and receive strength to obey God's law. They must cease to rely upon their own efforts for salvation, they must trust wholly in the merits of the promised Saviour, if they would be accepted of God. - {PP 524.1} Satan had claimed that it was impossible for man to obey God's commandments; and in our own strength it is true that we cannot obey them. But Christ came in the form of humanity, and by His perfect obedience He proved that humanity and divinity combined can obey every one of God's precepts. - {COL 314.4} "As many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name." Joh 1:12. This power is not in the human agent. It is the power of God. When a soul receives Christ, he receives power to live the life of Christ. - {COL 314.5} Through heathenism, Satan had for ages turned men away from God; but he won his great triumph in perverting the faith of Israel. By contemplating and worshiping their own conceptions, the heathen had lost a knowledge of God, and had become more and more corrupt. So it was with Israel. The principle that man can save himself by his own works lay at the foundation of every heathen religion; it had now become the principle of the Jewish religion. Satan had implanted this principle. Wherever it is held, men have no barrier against sin. - {DA 35.2}

Ex 19:9 - a thick cloud - the thick cloud was as the thick veil in the sanctuary, dividing the Holy from the Most Holy Place. So too, God calls us to be Holy, even as He is Most Holy. See 1Pet 1:16

Ex 19:10

Ex 19:10-17 - God calls the people to sanctify themselves so that on the third day, day 49, He would descend and speak the 10 Commandments to them. After the people have purified themselves, Moses GATHERS them together at the base of the mountain, presenting them to The Lord.

Ex 19:10

Ex 19:10-17 - God calls the people to sanctify themselves so that on the third day, day 49, He would descend and speak the 10 Commandments to them. After the people have purified themselves, Moses GATHERS them together at the base of the mountain, presenting them to The Lord.

Ex 19:11

Ex 19:11 - And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai - Preparing to meet God takes time, requires diligent effort and a mindset of faith. See Dan 10:3

Ex 19:16

Ex 19:16 - there were thunderings and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp trembled - Never since man was created had there been witnessed such a manifestation of divine power as when the law was proclaimed from Sinai. "The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God: even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel." Ps 68:8. Amid the most terrific convulsions of nature the voice of God, like a trumpet, was heard from the cloud. The mountain was shaken from base to summit, and the hosts of Israel, pale and trembling with terror, lay upon their faces upon the earth. He whose voice then shook the earth has declared, "Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven." Heb 12:26. {PP 340.1}

Ex 19:16

Ex 19:16 - a thick cloud upon the mount - See Psa 97:2; Mt 27:45; Lk 23:44, 45

Ex 19:17

Ex 19:17 - nether - Lower; lying or being beneath or in the lower part; opposed to upper; as the nether millstone.

Ex 19:18

Ex 19:18 - and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly - See Ps 97:5

Ex 19:19

Ex 19:19 - And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice - See Deut 4:32:35

Ex 19:21

Ex 19:21-25 - not gaze - The Lord speaks to Moses as a parent speaks to his children. Though God counseled Moses to set bounds around the mountain so that neither man nor animal break-forth and die while He descended upon the mount (v10-13), He tells Moses to remind the people not to come near the mountain. Moses as a child says "you already told us that". God, however, knows the mind and the heart of the people and commands Moses to go speak with them again, lest He break-forth and slay someone.

Ex 20:1 - And God spake all these words, saying - the purpose of God giving the Law was so that sins of the people might be ever evident and that the knowledge of sin might abound (Rom 5:20). The law was to reveal the frailty of men and the inadequacy of the Old Covenant that they once established (Ex 19:3-8) in place of God's eternal purpose of producing righteousness by faith of Jesus Christ (Jer 31:31-34). As men looked into perfect law of God, they were to recognize how short they've fallen from the standard, being reproved by the Comforter (the Holy Spirit) of sin and judgment, Who in turn directs them to the sin pardoning Savior. The Law therefore was a means to an end in leading us to Jesus Christ. Once we receive Jesus Christ (believe in Him - Joh 1:12), the Law ultimately testifies of the righteousness of Jesus Christ found in us by faith (Rom 4:5). See Joh 16:8-11; Rom 3:21, 22

Ex 20:2

Ex 20:2 - I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt - It was Jesus Christ, the invisible Leader of Israel that brought them out of Egypt and is therefore also the Law Giver (Deut 5:15; Isa 33:22; Ex 20:18, 19; Heb 12:25, 26). On Jesus as Leader of Israel see: Num 24:4-6; 1Cor 10:4, 10; the LORD uses the same language in describing Israel's deliverance from Egypt as He uses to describe the deliverance of their forefather Abraham from Ur of the Chaldees (Babylon). God delivers His people both from the world (Egypt) and spiritual darkness (Babylon). See Gen 15:7; Rev 18:2-4

Ex 20:2

Ex 20:2 - brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. - As we know that the law is spiritual (Rom 7:14), so the Lord speaks not of deliverance from bondage in the literal land of Egypt, but rather bondage from spiritual Egypt, which is SIN (Heb 11:24-27). Even Jesus, Who became as we are, went into Egypt and was called out of Egypt to fulfill this very prophecy (Hose 11:1; Mt 2:14, 15). All who would keep the commandments of God must be called out of Egypt. See Deut 5:12-15 Egypt = sin (Heb 11:24-27; Gal 4:20-31) Egypt = world = sin = Gal 4:3; Dan 11:42; Heb 11:23-26; Joh 8:32-36; Mt 6:19-24||1Jo 2:15-17 By the paschal service, God was seeking to call His people away from their worldly cares, and to remind them of His wonderful work in their deliverance from Egypt. In this work He desired them to see a promise of deliverance from sin. As the blood of the slain lamb sheltered the homes of Israel, so the blood of Christ was to save their souls; but they could be saved through Christ only as by faith they should make His life their own. There was virtue in the symbolic service only as it directed the worshipers to Christ as their personal Saviour. God desired that they should be led to prayerful study and meditation in regard to Christ's mission. But as the multitudes left Jerusalem, the excitement of travel and social intercourse too often absorbed their attention, and the service they had witnessed was forgotten. The Saviour was not attracted to their company. - {DA 82.2}

Ex 20:2

Ex 20:2 - out of the house of bondage - Jesus came to set the captives free from sin. See Isa 61:1; Heb 2:14-18; Isa 14:17

Ex 20:3

Ex 20:3 - Thou shalt have no other gods before me - See Deut 16:22; Phil 3:19 In rejecting the truth, men reject its Author. In trampling upon the law of God, they deny the authority of the Lawgiver. It is as easy to make an idol of false doctrines and theories as to fashion an idol of wood or stone. Satan leads men to conceive of God in a false character, as having attributes which he does not possess. A philosophical idol is enthroned in the place of Jehovah; while the true God, as he is revealed in his word, in Christ, and in the works of creation, is worshiped by but few. Thousands deify nature, while they deny the God of nature. Though in a different form, idolatry exists in the Christian world today as verily as it existed among ancient Israel in the days of Elijah. The God of many professedly wise men, of philosophers, poets, politicians, journalists,—the God of polished fashionable circles, of many colleges and universities, even of some theological institutions,—is little better than Baal, the sun-God of Phenicia. - {4SP 399.1}

Ex 20:4

Ex 20:4 - Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image - the COI saw no form of God when He spoke from Mt Sinai. He therefore declares men should not make any image or likeness of anything upon the earth to represent God or their conception of God. This is a sin. See Deut 4:11, 12, 16:22; Ex 34:17; Lev 19:4 Contrast Isa 46:6, 7, 44:9-19, 19:3; 45:7-12, 18; Hab 2:18, 19; Dan 5:4; Psa 115:4-8, 135:15-18

Ex 20:5

Ex 20:5 - visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me - [visiting] paqad Verb paw-kad' a primitive root a primitive root; to visit (with friendly or hostile intent); by analogy, to oversee, muster, charge, care for, miss, deposit, etc.--appoint, at all, avenge, bestow, (appoint to have the, give a) charge, commit, count, deliver to keep, be empty, enjoin, go see, hurt, do judgment, lack, lay up, look, make, by any means, miss, number, officer, (make) overseer, have (the) oversight, punish, reckon, (call to) remember(-brance), set (over), sum, surely, visit, want. The Bible speaks of the God ordained heredity that we take on from our parents. We in no wise are guilty for the sins of our parents, however, we may inherit and suffer the consequences of their poor decisions through heredity (Gen 1:21, 24, 25). Additionally, we often imitate that which we see and thus sins can be passed down from generation to generation due to environmental influence. It is inevitable that children should suffer from the consequences of parental wrongdoing, but they are not punished for the parents' guilt, except as they participate in their sins. It is usually the case, however, that children walk in the steps of their parents. By inheritance and example the sons become partakers of the father's sin. Wrong tendencies, perverted appetites, and debased morals, as well as physical disease and degeneracy, are transmitted as a legacy from father to son, to the third and fourth generation. This fearful truth should have a solemn power to restrain men from following a course of sin. - {PP 306.3} visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me - the effects of the fathers sins, if not repented of and turned from will have lasting effects. The rebellion towards God and His holy laws, taught by example of the father will continue for generations unless repented of. Wherever the habits of the parents are contrary to physical law, the injury done to themselves will be repeated in future generations.—Unpublished Testimonies, January 11, 1897. - {HL 18.7} By inheritance and example the sons become partakers of the father's sin. Wrong tendencies, perverted appetites, and debased morals, as well as physical disease and degeneracy, are transmitted as a legacy from father to son, to the third and fourth generation. This fearful truth should have a solemn power to restrain men from following a course of sin. - {PP 306.3} Let old and young remember that for every violation of the laws of life, nature will utter her protest. The penalty will fall upon the mental as well as the physical powers. And it does not end with the guilty trifler. The effects of his misdemeanors are seen in his offspring, and thus hereditary evils are passed down, even to the third or fourth generation. Think of this, fathers, when indulging in the soul and brain numbing narcotic, tobacco. Where will this practice leave you? Whom will it affect besides yourself? { ST March 2, 1882, par. 11 } We rarely pass through a crowd, but men—we cannot call them gentlemen, for they do not deserve the name—will puff their poisoned breath into our face. Is it honest thus to contaminate the air which others must breathe? Wherever we go is the tobacco devotee, enfeebling both mind and body in the enjoyment of his darling indulgence. Have men a right thus to deprive their Maker and the world of the service which was their due? Is such a course Christlike? There is no middle ground. If not in harmony with the divine will, it must be Satanic. { ST March 2, 1882, par. 12 } No one can escape completely the consequences of dissipation, disease, profligacy, evil doing, ignorance, and bad habits handed down by preceding generations. The descendants of degraded idolaters and the offspring of evil and vicious men generally begin life under the handicap of physical and moral sin, and harvest the fruit of seed sown by their parents. Juvenile delinquency proves the truth of the second commandment. Environment also has a decided effect upon each rising generation. But since God is gracious and just, we may trust Him to deal fairly with each person, making due allowance for the disadvantages of birth, the inherited predispositions, and the influence of previous environment upon character. His justice and mercy require this (Ps. 87:6; Luke 12:47, 48; John 15:22; Acts 17:30; 2 Cor. 8:12). At the same time our aim is to be victorious over every inherited and cultivated tendency to evil (COL 315, 330, 331; DA 671). God “visits,” or “appoints,” the results of iniquity, not vindictively, but to teach sinners that a wrong course of action inevitably brings unfortunate results. {SDA Bible Commentary, vol 1}

Ex 20:5 - them that hate me - the corrupt lineage of Cain typifies the wicked throughout time who despise God's counsels, have an evil heart of unbelief, and forsake His goodness towards them. See Gen 4:16; Heb 3:12

Ex 20:6

Ex 20:6 - And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments - See Rom 5:20 God loves to show mercy - where sin abounded, grace much more abounded (Rom 5:20). He delights in extending grace, forgiveness, and reconciliation to those who humbly ask of Him. He will not charge the sons for the sins of the father, nor the father for the sins of the sons. All will be judged according to their works. See Deut 7:9;

Ezekiel 18:14-18Ex 20:6

Ex 20:6 - that love me, and keep my commandments - Hebrew parallelism, where love for God is expressed through keeping His commandments. See Joh 14:15, 23

Ex 20:6

Ex 20:5 - commandments - the commandments of God are the reflection, the transcript, the expressions, of God's righteousness, His right doing, His upright character and His victorious faith.

Ex 20:7

Ex 20:7 - Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain - See Mt 6:9; Isa 57:15; Jer 34:16; 2Tim 2:19; Ezek 39:22-29 By profaning God's name, living carelessly and recklessly while claiming to be a Christian, we malign God's name and His character before the world. We cannot be Christians while we live to please ourselves. We must enter in through the strait gate of self-denial, if we follow the Master. This strait, self-denying path is too narrow for many to walk in who profess godliness. They want an easier path and are climbing up some other way. They refuse to follow in the footsteps of our Redeemer. Christ calls all such thieves and robbers. They take the name of Christian, which does not belong to them, because they do not represent in their life the life of Christ. They claim the privileges which belong to the sons of God while they are none of His. They live selfish lives upon the earth and have done nothing for the truth and the salvation of souls as they ought to have done. Sad indeed for these self-deceived ones. They will never see heaven, because they are not willing to share the shame, the reproach, that Jesus suffered for them. - {TDG 155.5} - See 1Pet 4:12-16 The greatest praise that men can bring to God is to become consecrated channels through whom He can work. Time is rapidly passing into eternity. Let us not keep back from God that which is His own. Let us not refuse Him that which, though it cannot be given with merit, cannot be denied without ruin. He asks for a whole heart; give it to Him; it is His, both by creation and by redemption. He asks for your intellect; give it to Him; it is His. He asks for your money; give it to Him; it is His. "Ye are not your own, for ye are bought with a price." 1 Corinthians 6:19, 20. God requires the homage of a sanctified soul, which has prepared itself, by the exercise of the faith that works by love, to serve Him. He holds up before us the highest ideal, even perfection. He asks us to be absolutely and completely for Him in this world as He is for us in the presence of God. - {AA 566.1}

Ex 20:8

Ex 20:8 - Remember the Sabbath day - "Don't forget the Sabbath...". This is an invitation from the LORD to enter into His rest and refreshing. As we enter the Sabbath physically and spiritually we become holy, because the Lord fills the 24hr period with His presence, making the time holy. See Ex 3:1-5; Ps 111:4; Deut 5:12-15; Nehemiah 9:14

Ex 20:8 - keep it holy - God's law is spiritual (Rom 7:14) and therefore, we must be in the Spirit in order to keep the Law of God. We must have the Spirit of God abiding within in order to keep God's Law (John 15:1-5), and thus we must be "born again". See Rom 7:14, John 4:23, 24; John 3:3-8 the Sabbath has been sanctified and made holy from its creation (Gen 2:2, 3). It is impossible for those who are unholy to keep that which is holy, holy - can the leopard change its spots or the Ethiopian change its skin (Jer 13:23)? It is only by faith, through the power of the Holy Spirit living in one's who have died to self and sin, and are alive again to Christ, to be able to honor and keep the sanctity of that which is already holy. In so doing, we will be empowered to keep God's command to guard/have special regard for/protect the day and what we do on the Sabbath, in order to maintain its sanctity and not profane the day. See Isa 58:13, 14

Ex 20:9 - Six days shalt thou labour and do all thy work - As ambassadors for Christ, our work is to be co-laborers with Him in ministering to the world. Our homes and our work places are our daily mission field and we ought to approach our vocation as unto the Lord, working for the Master. As we do so, our work is no longer work but a joy, where the Lord will renew our strength daily and will buoy our spirits in all test and trial. See Ex 31:14, 15; Joh 6:27-29; Col 1:27-29; Isa 58:13; Mt 6:24-34, 11:28-30; Heb 6:10-12 No man can succeed in the service of God unless his whole heart is in the work, and he counts all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ. No man who makes any reserve can be the disciple of Christ, much less can he be His colaborer. {DA 273}

Ex 20:10

Ex 20:10 - But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God - the definite article, "the", specifies singularity and uniqueness in the Sabbath day being uniquely the 7th day of the week (Saturday), which BELONGS to God. See Mk 1:21, 2:28; Mt 28:1 The Sabbath day is a great equalizer. All status rank and office are put aside so that all may rest in their Creator and Redeemer. The master and servant both rest equally and enjoy the rest from God.

Ex 20:10

Ex 20:10 - Sabbath of the LORD thy God - the "rest" of the LORD is a spiritual rest because God is Spirit, and we must worship Him in Spirit and in truth (Joh 4:23, 24). Therefore, the Sabbath rest far transcends the succession of work, but it involves God's Spirit abiding in the one who has entered that rest and Him giving: 1. Rest - Gen 2:2, 3 2. Blessings - Gen 2:2, 3 3. Sanctification - Gen 2:2, 3; Ezek 20:12, 20 4. Refreshing - Ex 31:17; 5. Delight - Isa 58:12-14

Ex 20:10

Ex 20:10 - the LORD thy God - The Sabbath is Jesus' rest, the LORD thy God. It is Jesus, the Word of God, Who was the active Agent in the creation. Therefore: 1. It is Jesus' rest 2. It was Jesus Who ceased from work 3. It was Jesus Who blessed the day 4. It was Jesus Who sanctified the day 5. It was Jesus Who was refreshed

Ex 20:10

Ex 20:10 - thy God: - a statement that speaks of God being a personal God. It also draws our mind back to the 1st Commandment which commands us not to have any other Gods but the True God.

Ex 20:10

Ex 20:10 - in it thou shalt not do any work - See Jer 17:19-22; Isa 58:13; Num 15:32-36

Ex 20:10

Ex 20:10 - thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle - See Ex 23:12

Ex 20:10

Ex 20:10 - nor thy cattle - God has a regard for the animals, which are one of His creation. He commands that beasts of burden rest also from their labors.

Ex 20:10

Ex 20:10 - nor thy stranger that is within thy gates - even those outside of your immediate family and perhaps outside of the household of faith, if they reside in our dwellings, they too are to rest from their labors. We are not to impose on others that which we would not do ourselves. See Lk 6:31

Ex 20:11

Ex 20:11 - For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it - This point of the commandment is key in that it establishes the distinction between the True God and all idols. Creative power is the distinguishing mark of divinity. God has established the Sabbath as His "memorial" to the Creation, a sign that He is the I AM, THAT I AM - See Gen 2:1-3; Ex 31:14-17, 15:11, 3:14, 15 Ps 86:8-10, 96:4, 5; Isa 44:24-26; Jer 10:10-12; Rom 4:17; Rev 4:11; 10:6

Ex 20:11

Ex 20:11 - and rested the seventh day - God rested and was refreshed (delighted in the Creation and the day). See Gen 2:2; Ex 31:17

Ex 20:11

Ex 20:11 - wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day - For which reason [the fact that He rested from His work] God blessed the Sabbath day. The blessing and making the time holy came only as a result of God resting from His work. No other day did God rest from His work, therefore, no other day is blessed and holy. - See Gen 2:3

Ex 20:11

Ex 20:11 - and hallowed it - made it holy. God alone can make a thing holy. It is His presence that sanctifies and causes something to become holy. See Gen 2:3; Ex 3:1-6; Joshua 5:13-15

Ex 20:12

Ex 20:12 - Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee - We honour our parents through obeying them, in no way humiliating or embarrassing them through a profligate lifestyle, and by caring for them in old age as they cared for us in childhood. See Mk 7:10-13; Col 3:20; Ex 21:15, 17

Ex 20:13

Ex 20:13 - Thou shalt not kill - we must not murder outrightly, nor kill one's spirit, character, or reputation by defaming them. See Ps 64:3

Ex 20:14

Ex 20:14 - Thou shalt not commit adultery - we are not to engage, entertain, condone, or muse upon any illicit relationships. See James 4:4; Lev 18:6-23, 20:15, 16; 1Thess 5:22; Judges

14:15-18

Ex 20:15

Ex 20:16 - Thou shalt not steal - to take possession, ownership, or credit for that which is not one's own. To usurp, commandeer, seize through insurrection. See 2Sam 15:6 We cannot be Christians while we live to please ourselves. We must enter in through the strait gate of self-denial, if we follow the Master. This strait, self-denying path is too narrow for many to walk in who profess godliness. They want an easier path and are climbing up some other way. They refuse to follow in the footsteps of our Redeemer. Christ calls all such thieves and robbers. They take the name of Christian, which does not belong to them, because they do not represent in their life the life of Christ. They claim the privileges which belong to the sons of God while they are none of His. They live selfish lives upon the earth and have done nothing for the truth and the salvation of souls as they ought to have done. Sad indeed for these self-deceived ones. They will never see heaven, because they are not willing to share the shame, the reproach, that Jesus suffered for them. - {TDG 155.5}

Ex 20:16

Ex 20:16 - Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour - we are not to slander, falsely accuse, perjure or misrepresent in any way our fellow-man. See Gen 37:27-36, 39:12-20; 1Kin 21:1-14; 2Sam 15:1-6, 16:1-4, 19:24-30 Ex 20:16: This commandment may be transgressed in a public manner by untruthful witness borne in a court of law (ch. 23:1). Perjury has ever been considered a serious offense against society, and has been punished accordingly. In Athens a false witness was heavily fined. If convicted thrice of this crime, he lost his civil rights. In Rome a law of the Twelve Tables sentenced the transgressor to be hurled headlong from the Tarpeian Rock. In Egypt the penalty was amputation of the nose and ears. This prohibition of the Decalogue is frequently violated by speaking evil of another, whereby his character is blackened, his motives misrepresented, and his reputation depreciated. All too many find it dull and tame to praise and speak well of their fellows. They find a vicious thrill in pointing out flaws in the conduct of others, judging their motives, and criticizing their endeavors. Since, unfortunately, many are ever ready and eager to listen to this supposed wisdom, the thrill is increased and the selfish, sinful ego of the detractor is enhanced. This commandment may also be broken by those who remain silent when they hear an innocent man unjustly maligned. It can be broken by a shrug of the shoulder or by an arching of the eyebrows. Whoever tampers in any way with the exact truth, in order to gain personal advantage or for any other purpose, is guilty of bearing "false witness." The suppression of truth that might result in injury to oneself or others—this too is bearing "false witness." {SDA Bible Commentary Vol 1}

Ex 20:17

Ex 20:17 - Thou shalt not covet - To covet is to: 1. Lust after - Rom 7:7 2. commit idolatry - Col 3:5 "But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth. This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work." James 3:13-16

Ex 20:17

Ex 20:17 - covet - to make an idol of - See Col 3:5

Ex 20:18

Ex 20:18 - And all the people saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet... - "Now must come the terrors of Mt. Sinai, which were completely unnecessary for Abraham. Since the people had now instituted the old covenant by making their arrogant promise, the Lord is obliged to communicate His law to them through this method. The Lord did not need to frighten Abraham with "thunders and lightnings" and earthquakes, for He wrote His holy law in his believing heart. The old covenant depends on fear as its motivation to produce "the works of the law," because the motivation of faith has not yet been realized. For example, to refrain from illicit sex because of fear of AIDS or shame is old covenant legalism. To keep the Sabbath because of fear of being lost is also legalism. It is good to refrain from illicit sex, and it is good to keep the Sabbath, but the motive that is truly effective is supplied only by the grace of God in the new covenant." Ex 20:19

Ex 20:19 - And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear - See Deut 18:16-19

Ex 20:19 - but let not God speak with us, lest we die - the majesty, the grandeur and power of the Lord and His speech shook the earth and caused the people to fear for their lives. See Heb 12:26; Deut 18:16; God performed this great feat to cause fear, so that the people would give heed to His commandments (Ex 20:20). This however was not God's original design. He sought willing, heart-felt obedience, based in gratitude when He besought Israel and betrothed her in Exodus 19:3-6

Ex 20:20

Ex 20:20 - and that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not - God demonstrated His might and power to show them that He was a big God, not to be trifled with. Yet, this too was a means to an end in that He wanted to give them reason not to forsake His commandments and to uphold the vow they made (Ex 19:8). God demonstrated that though fear may motivate for the moment, it loses its effect when the cause for fear is not readily evident. Faith motivated by Love is the greatest motivator.

Ex 20:20 - that ye sin not - See 1Jo 2:1

Ex 20:24

Ex 20:24 - in all places where I record my name - what an honor to have the Mighty God identify our homes, hearts, and minds as the place where He records His name. See Rev 14:1

Ex 20:24

Ex 20:24 - I will come unto thee, and I will bless thee - God's presence brings a blessing. Those who have God's name written on their foreheads are blessed forevermore.

Ex 20:25

Ex 20:25 - thou shalt not build it of hewn stone: for if thou lift up thy tool upon it, thou hast polluted it - alters were not to be of man's devising nor of his craft but were to be naturally built without hands of flesh. Similarly, the fire used in the sanctuary was to be lit by God and was not to have man's intervention. See Dan 2:34, 45; Heb 11:10; Lev 10:1; Num 3:4, 26:61

Ex 20:26

Ex 20:26 - Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto mine altar, that thy nakedness be not discovered thereon - the altar was to be built upon the flat ground and not elevated. The worship of God was not to be detracted by any lewdness or impropriety. See Gen 9:21-25

Ex 21:2

Ex 21:2 - See Lev 25:4

Ex 21:6

Ex 21:6 - and his master shall bore his ear through with an aul; and he shall serve him for ever - when a servant submits to having his ear pierced by an aul by his master, he is stating that his ears will be eternally open to hear the words and commands of his master. This affirms the servant's desire to love and serve his master forever. See Ps 40:6

Ex 23:7

Ex 23:7 - Keep thee far from a false matter; and the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for I will not justify the wicked - we are to act with discernment and turn from evil, not partaking of the acts of the wicked. See Isa 33:15-17

Ex 23:8

Ex 23:8 - And thou shalt take no gift: for the gift blindeth the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous - See Isa 33:15; Deut 16:19; Prov 17:23; Isa 59:14; Ezekiel 18:8; Ps 26:6, 24:4

Ex 23:11

Ex 23:11 - But the seventh year thou shalt let it rest and lie still; that the poor of thy people may eat: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thy oliveyard - See Lev 25

Ex 23:12

Ex 23:12 - Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest: that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed - See Ex 20:8-11

Ex 23:14

Ex 23:14-19 - three times in the year - There were three festivals in the Jewish system that required all males to appear before the Lord in His temple, and to present offerings for the High Priest to offer to the Lord [Unleavened Bread, First fruits, Ingathering]. When Jesus died on the cross, ending the earthly temple services, and He ascended to heaven to become our High Priest, the typical feasts and festivals performed here on earth met their anti-typical fulfillment. Because the three feasts under discussion require the presence of a temple and High Priest, we no longer can or should celebrate them here on earth as in the former type.

Ex 23:28

Ex 23:28 - And I will send hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before thee - God would use nature to war against the enemies of His people.

Ex 23:29

Ex 23:29 - I will not drive them out from before thee in one year; lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee. 30 By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land - As a Good Shepherd, the Lord considers all circumstances for His sheep, to ensure their safety and that they bear no unnecessary burdens, only what is required to refine their characters.

Ex 23:32

Ex 23:32 - Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods - See Deut 11:16, 28

Ex 24:4

Ex 24:4 - And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the hill, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel - Moses, after writing all the words of the covenant spoken by Jesus, the Testator, performed sacrifices, symbolizing the prophetic death of the Testator to ratify the covenant/testament. See Heb 9:16-18

Ex 24:6

Ex 24:6 - sprinkled on the alter - Moses consecrates, purifies and dedicates the alter

Ex 24:7

Ex 24:7 - And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the LORD hath said will we do, and be obedient - See Ex 19:8

Ex 24:8

Ex 24:8 - And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words - Moses was consecrating the people to the covenant they had made with the Lord. The blood of consecration was to seal them in righteousness and holiness to the Lord. Unfortunately, the covenant made was based on man's strength, works, and efforts to finish transgressions, put an end to sin, and bring in righteousness, none of which he could do. See Heb 10:19

Ex 25:8 - And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them - See Ps 77:13
"Had man not agreed to sin, there would have been no need for a temple in the days of Israel. Man as he was created would have continued to be the temple of God and the communion would never have been broken. There would have been no need for a mediator. With special force this tells us who have the sanctuary/judgment truth, that when the "heart of man becomes again His temple," the need for a mediator will cease. Substitution will be at an end for substitution and perfection cannot tolerate each other. The confrontation with "self" in the light of the cross will have removed the excuse to kill God. The depravity of the human heart will be exposed and man will be willing to take his place on the cross with Christ. It was the removal of the veil between Christ's divine nature and man's sinful nature that initiated the despair of Calvary. This confrontation of sin and righteousness is the cup offered to the final generation. When God's people are willing to drink it, they will be ready to see Him face to face. Christ will be able to arise and announce, "It is done." But He cannot do this until it is a fact and it can never become a fact until the remnant understands what is involved. The unknown sin, the enmity of Laodicea must be revealed. For millenniums God has been trying to help His people understand, but the seventh church has been given special counsel:" Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short This material may be protected by copyright. Ex 25:8

Ex 25:8 - sanctuary - called the sanctuary of the first covenant by Paul, was comprised of the two chambers of the tabernacle, the outer court and all the vessels therein. See 2Chron 29:18, 21

Ex 25:8 - that I may dwell among them - God has always wanted His people that He dwelt among them, among the humble and contrite. His presence was to be realized continually, not as a God afar off, nor as one to come in the distant future. He was a very present Help in trouble, a constant Comfort and Friend, and the Holy God Who made His people holy through His presence. See Joel 2:27; Jer 23:23; Isa 7:14, 57:15; Ps 46:1; Ex 33:14-16;

Ex 25:8

Ex 25:8 - dwell - the word "dwell" means to tabernacle, sanctuary, abide with. The term implies acceptance. Just as Jesus abode and ate with the publicans, drawing the ire of the Pharisees, Jesus showed His acceptance of them. See Joh 1:14; Lev 26:11, 12 God commanded Moses for Israel, "Let them make Me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them" (Ex 25:8), and He abode in the sanctuary, in the midst of His people. Through all their weary wandering in the desert, the symbol of His presence was with them. So Christ set up His tabernacle in the midst of our human encampment. He pitched His tent by the side of the tents of men, that He might dwell among us, and make us familiar with His divine character and life. "The Word became flesh, and tabernacled among us (and we beheld His glory, glory as of the Only Begotten from the Father), full of grace and truth." Joh 1:14, R. V., margin. - {DA 23.3}

Ex 25:9

Ex 25:9 - According to all that I shew thee, after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make it - See Heb 8:1-5

Ex 25:21

Ex 25:21 - And thou shalt put the mercy seat above upon the ark - that the mercy seat sits above the ark of the covenant wherein lies the Law, shows that mercy triumphs over judgment. God would rather show mercy than judgment. See Jam 2:13; Eze 33:11; Isa 27:4, 5

Ex 25:21

Ex 25:21 - and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee - The commandments are a written testimony of the character of God and His eternal government - love for God and love for one another.

Ex 25:30

Ex 25:30 - And thou shalt set upon the table shewbread before me alway - the shewbread was to be a perpetual reminder of the presence of God. 1. Christ taught us to pray for our daily bread - Mt 6:11 2. God rained manna from heaven 6-days in the week for the COI and made provision for the people to eat on the Sabbath by providing a double portion on Friday so they wouldn't have to work in gathering and preparing food on the Sabbath day - Ex 16 3. Jesus declared, "I AM the bread of life, he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believe that on me shall never thirst."... "the Bread of God is He which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world." - Joh 6:35, 33 4. Jesus, the Living Bread said "Lo, I am with you alway, [even] unto the end of the world" - Mt 28:20

Ex 25:30

Ex 25:30 - shewbread - (Heb: lechem) Noun Masculine lekh'-em from (03898) from ; food (for man or beast), especially bread, or grain (for making it):--((shew-))bread, eat, food, fruit, loaf, meat, victuals. See also . bread, food, grain bread bread bread-corn food (in general)

Ex 26:35

Ex 26:35 - thou shalt put the table on the north side - the table of shewbread, representing the LORD's throne upon which He and the Son sit is towards the sides of the north. See Isa 14:13

Ex 27:21

Ex 27:21 - the tabernacle of the congregation - this is the place where the heavenly hosts ministered before the Father and Son in the sanctuary on high. See Isa 14:13

Ex 28:3

Ex 28:3 - the spirit of wisdom - See Eph 1:17; 1Jo 2:20, 27

Ex 28:9

Ex 28:9 - And thou shalt take two onyx stones, and grave on them the names of the children of Israel: - the High Priest bore the names and the sins of the people upon himself into the Most Holy Place on the typical day of Atonement. Jesus similarly, knows each name and confesses each name of the righteousness before His Father and the angels. See Rev 3:5

Ex 28:10

Ex 28:10 - Six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth - God is a God of order in all things. The names of the COI were to be engraved on the Onyx stone in the order of their birth. This gives evidence to the symbolic nature of the 144,000 in Revelation 7 which lists the COI in a distinct order, not according to birth. See Rev 7:4-8; Gen 49:3-28

Ex 28:12

Ex 28:12 - Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD upon his two shoulders for a memorial - The High Priest was to bear the COI continually before the Lord, especially on the Day of Atonement. See Ex 28:29

Ex 28:15

Ex 28:15 - And thou shalt make the breastplate of judgment - the breastplate of judgment was to bear the names of the 12 tribes of Israel, engraved on a precious stone and upon the Urim and Thumin of onyx. The priest was to bear the COI upon his heart before the Lord.

Ex 28:21

Ex 28:21 - And the stones shall be with the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet; every one with his name shall they be according to the twelve tribes. - See Ex 28:9, 10, 12, 29

Ex 28:29

Ex 28:29 - And Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment upon his heart - the names of the COI are to be born upon the heart of the Great High Priest, signifying His love, compassion and merciful intercession for His people. See Heb 2:14-18

Ex 28:38

Ex 28:38 - And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead - Aaron's thoughts, which govern his actions, were to be HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD. So it is for all who are called to be a royal priesthood and a holy nation unto God. See 2Pet 2:9

Ex 28:41

Ex 28:41 - thou shalt anoint - Moses stood in the seat of God presiding over Aaron, the High Priest (Ex 4:12-16) just as the Father stands over Jesus, His High Priest. Moses was to anoint Aaron and his two sons. See Ex 30:30, 40:13; Heb 1:7-9

Ex 29:7

Ex 29:7 - Then shalt thou take the anointing oil and pour it upon his head, and anoint him - See Heb 1:9

Ex 29:43

Ex 29:43 - and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my glory - God's glorious presence sanctifies (makes holy) the tabernacle. See Ex 3:1-5; Hag 2:9

Ex 30:7

Ex 30:7, 8 - And Aaron shall burn thereon sweet incense every morning: when he dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it. - the High Priest was to burn incense on the Altar in the morning and the evening. During that time, the people were to be in fervent prayer, where Jesus would receive the prayers, mingled with sweet incense and fragrances, His own righteousness, as we make petitions to God the Father. See Lk 1:8-10; Ps 55:17; Rev 8:3, 4; Song of Solomon 3:5, 6

Ex 30:8

Ex 30:8 - perpetual incense before the LORD - Just as the light of the candlesticks were to be kept burning morning and evening, every day, so too the priest was to keep a perpetual incense burning on the altar. As the light represents the light of Christ that is to be seen in His people continually (Mt 5:16), the prayers of the saints from a pure and contrite heart is to arise before the LORD continually. See 1Thess 5:17

Ex 30:9

Ex 30:9 - Ye shall offer no strange incense thereon - our prayers must be with praise, thanksgiving, humility, contrition, honesty, reverence, persistence, faith and confidence/boldness in Christ. See Phil 4:6; Heb 4:16; Ps 51:3-6, 17; 1Pet 5:6; Jam 4:6, 7; Lk 11:5-13; Jam 1:8; Rom 12:9

Ex 30:10

Ex 30:10 - And Aaron shall make an atonement upon the horns of it once in a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonements: once in the year shall he make atonement upon it throughout your generations: it is most holy unto the LORD - See Lev 16:16-18, 23:27, 28

Ex 30:18

Ex 30:18 - Laver of brass - the laver and its foot were for the purpose of cleansing and sanctifying the priests before entering the Tabernacle of Congregation for service to the LORD. The washing signifies sanctification through baptism, where God cleanses and purges men of sin and sets them apart for holy use. Consider Mal 3:2-4

Ex 31:13

Ex 31:13 - for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the LORD that doth sanctify you - See Ezekiel 20:12; Jer 17:21-27

Ex 31:14

Ex 31:14 - Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death: for whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people - See Num 15:32-36

Ex 31:14

Ex 31:14 - shall be cut off from among his people - being cut off does not only signify the temporal loss of life but the loss of eternal life also. See Num 15:30-36; Ex 31:15

Ex 31:15

Ex 31:15 - holy to the LORD - the Sabbath, the LORD's day, is holy unto Him. See Rev 1:10; Isa 58:13

Ex 31:15

Ex 31:13 - whosoever doeth any work in the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death - See Num 15:30-36

Ex 31:15

Ex 31:15 - he shall surely be put to death - cut off. See Ex 31:14

Ex 31:16

Ex 31:16 - perpetual covenant - an everlasting covenant. See Gen 3:15; Rev 14:6

Ex 31:17

Ex 31:17 - It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: - See Ezekiel 20:12, 20

Ex 31:17

Ex 31:17 - and was refreshed - God delighted in the finish works of creation. See Isa 28:12 naphash Verb naw-fash' a primitive root a primitive root; to breathe; passively, to be breathed upon, i.e. (figuratively) refreshed (as if by a current of air):--(be) refresh selves (-ed). (Niphal) to take breath, refresh oneself

Ex 31:18

Ex 31:18 - two tables of testimony - the 10 Commandments give testimony to the righteousness of God that sanctifies and makes all things in His presence holy/righteous/sanctified.

Ex 32:1

Ex 32:1-4 - molten image - Aaron sinned compromising in making a golden calf (image to a beast) that was a snare for the people.

Ex 32:1

Ex 32:1 - Up, make us gods - the people came to Aaron on threat of death, demanding that he make them molten gods to worship. In fearful duress for self preservation, Aaron complied and made a molten image. Only few days had passed since Israel had made a covenant with God and yet they forgot their commitment.

Ex 32:2

Ex 32:2 - Break off the golden earrings - Aaron cunningly appealed to the peoples pride, thinking they would be reluctant to give of their jewels for the making of the calf, but he was mistaken.

Ex 32:4

Ex 32:4 - he made a molten calf - the calf was in the form of the Egyptian idols so that when the people returned to Egypt, they would show the calf as a sign of their allegiance and would be welcomed back to Egypt. This golden "Image of a Beast" foreshadows the idol to be offered to the Papacy as a token of the people's allegiance to its power and authority. See 1Kin 12:29

Ex 32:5

Ex 32:5 - he built an altar before it - not stopping with the molten image, Aaron goes further in building an altar, a symbol of Christ.

Ex 32:6

Ex 32:6 - and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play. See 1Cor 10:7 Drums, Dancing, and Noise The things you have described as taking place in Indiana, [Note: Reference is here made to the "Holy Flesh" movement of 1900-1901. See Selected Messages 2:31-39.—White Trustees.] the Lord has shown me would take place just before the close of probation. Every uncouth thing will be demonstrated. There will be shouting, with drums, music, and dancing. The senses of rational beings will become so confused that they cannot be trusted to make right decisions. And this is called the moving of the Holy Spirit. - {NL 49.4} The Holy Spirit never reveals itself in such methods, in such a bedlam of noise. This is an invention of Satan to cover up his ingenious methods for making of none effect the pure, sincere, elevating, ennobling, sanctifying truth for this time.... A bedlam of noise shocks the senses and perverts that which if conducted aright might be a blessing. The powers of Satanic agencies blend with the din and noise, to have a carnival, and this is termed the Holy Spirit's working.... Those participating in the supposed revival receive impressions which lead them adrift. They cannot tell what they formerly knew regarding Bible principles. - {NL 50.1} Bodies out of Control No encouragement should be given to this kind of worship. The same kind of influence came in after the passing of the time in 1844. The same kind of representations were made. Men became excited, and were worked by a power thought to be the power of God. They turned their bodies over and over, like a carriage wheel, claiming that they could not do this except by supernatural power. There was a belief that the dead were raised and had ascended to heaven. The Lord gave me a message for this fanaticism; for the beautiful principles of Bible truth were being eclipsed. - {NL 50.2} Nudity Men and women, supposed to be guided by the Holy Spirit, held meetings in a state of nudity. They talked about holy flesh. They said they were beyond the power of temptation, and they sang, and shouted, and made all manner of noisy demonstrations. These men and women were not bad, but they were deceived and deluded.... Satan was moulding the work, and sensuality was the result. The cause of God was dishonored. Truth, sacred truth, was leveled in the dust by human agencies. - {NL 50.3} The authorities of the land interfered, and several of the ring leaders were incarcerated within prison walls. By those who were confined in prison this interference was termed persecution for the truth's sake, and thus truth was clothed with garments spotted with the flesh.... I presented the reproof of the Lord regarding this kind of work, showing that its influence was making the truth objectionable and disgusting to the community... - {NL 51.1} I bore my testimony, declaring that these fanatical movements, this din and noise, were inspired by the spirit of Satan, who was working miracles to deceive if possible the very elect. [Letter 132, 1900 (Portions in Selected Messages 2:36, 37.)] - {NL 51.2}

Ex 32:10 - Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation - God saw that the children of Israel, especially the mixed multitude, were continually disposed to rebel, and, by their works, provoke him to destroy them. He knew that they would murmur against Moses, when in difficulty, and grieve him by their continual rebellion. He proposed to Moses to consume them, and make of him a great nation. Here the Lord proved Moses. He knew that it was a laborious and soul-trying work to lead that rebellious people through to the promised land. He would test the perseverance, faithfulness and love of Moses, for such an erring and ungrateful people. But Moses would not consent to have Israel destroyed. He showed by his intercessions with God that he valued the prosperity of God's chosen people more highly than a great name, or to be called the father of a greater nation than was Israel. - {1SP 245.1} Nobly did Moses stand the test, and show that his interest in Israel was not to obtain a great name, nor to exalt himself. The burden of God's people was upon him. God had proved him, and was pleased with his faithfulness, his simplicity of heart, and integrity before him, and he committed to him, as to a faithful shepherd, the great charge of leading his people through to the promised land. - {1SP 246.2}

Ex 32:10 - and I will make of thee a great nation - God saw that the children of Israel, especially the mixed multitude, were continually disposed to rebel, and, by their works, provoke him to destroy them. Ex 32:12

Ex 32:12 - Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? - Moses was jealous for God's honor to be preserved before the heathen and all the world. He did not want God's character or holy name to be reproached, despite Israel's unbelief. Consider that God condescended to "reason" with His servant Moses! Oh the love of God and His glorious majesty!! See Isa 1:18

Ex 32:12 - repent of this evil against thy people - See Num 23:19

Ex 32:20

Ex 32:21 - made the COI drink of it - Moses prefigures the wrath of God poured out in the Third Angel's message where the wicked will have to drink from the cup of God's indignation, full strength, without mixture. Rev 14:10

Ex 32:22

Ex 32:22 - thou knowest the people, that they are set on mischief - Aaron [a person in a leadership position] blames the people for his transgressing the law of God. When Moses and Aaron returned to Egypt, they commanded the people to keep holy the Sabbath of the LORD. This law as foundational to the faith of the nation and in returning to this truth, God brought forth their deliverance. In making an image to the golden calf and worshipping it (an Image to the Beast - Sunday), Aaron through pressure of the people rejected the foundation of the faith and conceded. {see 1Sam 15:24} "By following his own way, by acting in harmony with Satan's temptations and in opposition to the known will of God, man vainly attempted to elevate and bless himself. Thus he gained an experimental knowledge of disobedience to God's commandments. Thus he knew good and evil; thus he lost his fidelity and loyalty to God and opened the floodgates of evil and suffering to the whole human family. How many today are making the same experiment! When will man learn that the only means for his safety is through a full confidence in a 'thus saith the Lord'? "Satan is seeking to intrude his own inventions upon the children of God through human methods. He is seeking to be received as God, or even to be placed above God. "In changing the Sabbath to the first day of the week, he leads men to disbelieve God's declarations, and so to regard their own ways and plans that they appear exceeding wise in their own eyes and in their perverted judgment. Through human policy he leads men to regard the expressed commandments of God as of less force than human tradition, and to regard a deviation from that law which is always holy and just and good, as of little account. He sees that by thus preventing human agencies from walking as obedient children in harmony with God, he can hinder the accomplishment of God's work in our world. "But Satan's connivings with human agencies who stand in responsible positions are just as much to be feared and shunned now after the experiment of sin has been tried, as it was in the case of our first parents. I am instructed to say that the men who are placed in positions of responsibility in the work of God have overestimated their right to control others. The position a man occupies does not change his character. Some have seemed to feel that they must devise for churches and for sanitariums and that there was to be no questioning of their judgment. Let them learn of Jesus at every step. He should be the chief authority for every man." {18MR 34}

Ex 32:26 - Who is on the LORD'S side - the call has been made throughout Bible history for those who will take a stand for the LORD, denying the world, to come forth.

Ex 32:26

Ex 32:26 - all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him - the sons of Levi was the only tribe among the 12 to take a stand for the LORD. Therefore the Levites would be honored with the priesthood (Num 3:6-13; Deut 10:9) and all the faithful throughout time would be likened to this tribe.

Ex 32:32

Ex 32:32 - Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin-; and if not, blot me, I pray the, out of thy book which thou hast written - The book here referred to is the book of records in heaven, in which every name is inscribed, and the acts of all, their sins, and obedience, are faithfully written. When individuals commit sins which are too grievous for the Lord to pardon, their names are erased from the book, and they are devoted to destruction (The Signs of the Times, May 27, 1880). { 7BC 987.8 See Gen 22:1-12

Ex 32:33 - And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book - See Rev 3:5; Ezek 18:24; Col 3:25

Ex 33:4

Ex 33:4, 5 - and no man did put on him his ornaments - See Gen 35:4

Ex 33:5

Ex 33:5 - I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee - God would come close to judge the people and He demanded they remove all of their jewelry and ornaments. See Mal 3:8; Gen 35:1-4;

Ex 33:7

Ex 33:18 - And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the Tabernacle of the congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which sought the LORD went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp - the tabernacle of the congregation was where all could approach the Lord to seek pardon and forgiveness.

Ex 33:11

Ex 33:11 - And the LORD spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend - See Num 12:6-8

Ex 33:11

Ex 33:11 - but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle - See Josh 1:1, 2

Ex 33:12

Ex 33:12 - And Moses said unto the LORD, See, thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight - Moses is requesting God's presence go with them to the Promised Land. See Ex 33:13

Ex 33:13

Ex 33:13 - shew me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight: and consider that this nation is thy people - Moses is seeking to know Jesus personally, that He may find further grace in His sight. See Ex 33:18; Ps 25:4; John 14:6, 1:14

Ex 33:13

Ex 33:13 - that I may know thee - See Jeremiah 9:23, 24

Ex 33:13

Ex 33:13 - that I may find grace in thy sight - Moses sought grace in order to receive greater grace from the LORD. See John 1:16

Ex 33:14

Ex 33:14 - My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest - In God's presence there is fullness of joy (Prov 16:11). God has promised to be our Good Shepherd to lead us through green pastures, beside still waters and even the valley of the shadow of death (Ps 23:1-6). God is our strength and our defender, a very present help in our times of trouble, therefore will we not be moved (Ps 46:1, 2). See Ps 23:4

Ex 33:14

Ex 33:14 - I will give thee rest - God's presence brings [spiritual] rest. See Mt 11:28-30; Heb 4:9; Isa 32:17

Ex 33:15

Ex 33:15 - If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence - That hand that made the world, that holds the mountains in their places, takes this man of dust,—this man of mighty faith,—and mercifully covers him in a cleft of the rock, while the glory of God and all His goodness pass before him. Can we marvel that the “excellent glory” reflected from Omnipotence shone in the face of Moses with such brightness that the people could not look upon it? The impress of God was upon him, making him appear as one of the shining angels from the throne. - {Pr 14.4} This experience, above all else the assurance that God would hear his prayer, and that the divine presence would attend him, was of more value to Moses as a leader than the learning of Egypt, or all his attainments in military science. No earthly power or skill or learning can supply the place of God’s immediate presence. In the history of Moses we may see what intimate communion with God it is man’s privilege to enjoy. To the transgressor it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. But Moses was not afraid to be alone with the Author of that law which had been spoken with such awful grandeur from Mount Sinai; for his soul was in harmony with the will of his Maker. - {Pr 15.1}

Ex 33:16 - For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? is it not in that thou goest with us? so shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth - We must today seek God and be determined that we will not rest satisfied without His presence. We should watch and work and pray as though this were the last day that would be granted us. How intensely earnest, then, would be our life. How closely would we follow Jesus in all our words and deeds. - {HP 227.6}

Ex 33:16

Ex 33:19 - is it not in that thou goest with us? so shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth - our sanctification comes from the presence of the Lord, by Him going with and before us (1Thess 4:3, 5:23; Ps 46:5, 7, 11; Josh 3:10). As we abide in Him and He in us, we are separated from the world by Christ’s righteousness. Christ’s righteousness within enables us to mingle with the world, being salt and light, without being in any way defiled (Isa 40:9, 52:7, 57:19). Whereas, those who lack Christ’s righteousness, and seek to establish their own righteousness (Rom 10:1-4), are always worried about being contaminated or defiled by others. See Num 23:9

Ex 33:16

Ex 33:16 - so shall we be separated, I and thy people - Israel was consecrated to the Lord, sanctified and made a holy nation, ONLY through the abiding presence of God. So it is with ALL believers in Jesus Christ. See Ex 33:14; Isa 44:2 (Jesurun); Joh 15:4, 5

Ex 33:17

Ex 33:17 - and I know thee by name - See Jer 9:24; Isa 43:1

Ex 33:18

Ex 33:18 - And he said, I beseech thee, shew me thy glory - Moses desired to see God face to face and behold his character. God would not permit him to do so but would declare His glory as Moses saw His form. See Ex 33:20-23; 2Cor 4:6

Ex 33:19 - I will make all my goodness pass before thee and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy - God's Name (which is Holy - Mt 6:9), His Character (Ex 34:5-8), and Who He is (I AM THAT I AM - Ex 3:14), His Goodness, are all synonymous. See Ps 23:6

Ex 33:20 - And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me, and live - See Judg 13:22; Ex 3:6; 2Thess 2:8

Ex 33:21

Ex 33:21 - And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock: - See Ex 17:6; Lk 6:48

Ex 33:21

Ex 33:21-23 We are to stand upon Jesus, the Rock of Ages that was cleft for each of us. See: Lk 6:47-49; Matt 7:24-27

Ex 33:22

Ex 33:22 - I will put thee in a clift of the rock - The Rock of Ages was cleft (broken; cut; gashed open) for mankind and it is in that cleft that we find rest and security. See Ps 91

Ex 33:22

Ex 33:22 - and will cover thee with my hand while I pass by - See Isa 49:2

Ex 33:23

Ex 33:23 - I will take away mine hand - It is after a crisis that we see God's hand guiding and protecting then being removed. God's removal of His hand brings a revelation of His glory, seen in His unfolding of prophetic truths. Consider the experience of the Millerites and God covering a mistake in the figures of the 1843 chart: But God designed to prove them. His hand covered a mistake in the reckoning of the prophetic periods. {EW 235.3} Again they were led to their Bibles to search the prophetic periods. The hand of the Lord was removed from the figures, and the mistake was explained. They saw that the prophetic periods reached to 1844, and that the same evidence which they had presented to show that the prophetic periods closed in 1843, proved that they would terminate in 1844. Light from the Word of God shone upon their position, and they discovered a tarrying time— {EW 236.1}

Ex 34:6

Ex 34:6 - we can not bear to see God's glory. We must wait for Him to pass by. It is usually after a storm, after a test or trial that we behold God's glory.

Ex 34:6

Ex 34:6, 7 - The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, 7 Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation. - See Num 14:18

Ex 34:7

Ex 34:7 - forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin - See Isa 43:25

Ex 34:7

Ex 34:7 - iniquity - INIQUITY, n. [L. iniquitas; in and oequitas, equity.] 1. Injustice; unrighteousness; a deviation from rectitude; as the iniquity of war; the iniquity of the slave trade. 2. Want of rectitude in principle; as a malicious prosecution originating in the iniquity of the author. 3. A particular deviation from rectitude; a sin or crime; wickedness; any act of injustice.

Ex 34:7

Ex 34:7 - transgression - The act of passing over or beyond any law or rule of moral duty; the violation of a law or known principle of rectitude; breach of command. Fault, offense, crime.

Ex 34:7

Ex 34:7 - that will by no means clear the guilty - See Ps 89:14

Ex 34:7

Ex 34:7 - visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation - the things a person does may have consequences upon the generations that follow them, unto the 3rd and 4th generation. See Eze 18:2-32; Contrast Ex 20:6; Deut 7:9

Ex 34:8

Ex 34:8 - And Moses made haste, and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped - when we comprehend God's name, it leads to true worship.

Ex 34:9

Ex 34:9 - And he said, If now I have found grace in thy sight, O Lord, let my Lord, I pray thee, go among us - See Ex 33:14-16

Ex 34:10

Ex 34:10 - And he said, Behold, I make a covenant: before all thy people I will do marvels, such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the people among which thou art shall see the work of the LORD: for it is a terrible thing that I will do with thee - Israel and its God were to be a spectacle before all the people of the world. God was to be glorified and exalted above all the nations.

Ex 34:12

Ex 34:12 - Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee - See Joshua 3:1-7; 9:1+

Ex 34:14

Ex 34:14 - whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God - God is God by Himself. He will not share His glory with another and is jealous for His honor. Deut 4:24

Ex 34:15

Ex 34:15 - Lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice - See Judges 3:1-7; 1Cor 10:20

Ex 34:17

Ex 34:20 - Thou shalt make thee no molten gods - See Ex 20:4-6

Ex 34:19

Ex 34:19 - All that openeth the matrix is mine; and every firstling among thy cattle, whether ox or sheep, that is male - all males that come forth from the womb are consecrated to God. This is the Lord establishing male headship once again. See Lk 2:23; Gen 3:16; Deut 15:19

Ex 34:24

Ex 34:24 - For I will cast out the nations before thee, and enlarge thy borders: neither shall any man desire thy land, when thou shalt go up to appear before the LORD thy God thrice in the year - God would protect the COI's property during the time that the men went up to Jerusalem to worship the Lord. God would preserve and protect their property. See Dan 4:36

Ex 34:26

Ex 34:26 - SEETHE, v.t. pret. seethed, sod; pp. seethed, sodden. [Heb. to seethe, to boil, to swell, to be inflated.] To boil; to decoct or prepare for food in hot liquor; as, to seethe flesh.

Ex 34:28

Ex 34:28 - And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water - Our God shall supply our needs according to His riches in glory! We find fullness of joy and have meat to eat that the world knows not of! See

Ex 34:29

Ex 34:29 - when he came down from the mount, that Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone while he talked with him - Just as Moses did not realize that God's glory was upon Him and that he glowed, so those who will receive of God's Spirit will radiate Jesus' light without ever considering how they may appear to others. This speaks of selflessness; being too preoccupied with doing God's will than to realize how God's glory is shining forth. See Isa 60:1-3; Dan 12:3 That hand that made the world, that holds the mountains in their places, takes this man of dust,—this man of mighty faith,—and mercifully covers him in a cleft of the rock, while the glory of God and all His goodness pass before him. Can we marvel that the “excellent glory” reflected from Omnipotence shone in the face of Moses with such brightness that the people could not look upon it? The impress of God was upon him, making him appear as one of the shining angels from the throne. - {Pr 14.4}

Ex 34:33

Ex 34:33 - he put a vail on his face - the vail which covered Moses face from the glory that was being revealed, foreshadows the glory that would be hid from the Jews in time as they rejected the light of Jesus, The Messiah. See 2Cor 3:7-16

Ex 35:2

Ex 35:2 - Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you an holy day, a sabbath of rest to the LORD: whosoever doeth work therein shall be put to death - See Gen 2:2, 3; Ex 20:8-11

Ex 35:2

Ex 35:2 - whosoever doeth work therein shall be put to death - See Num 15:32-36

Ex 35:5

Ex 35:5 - Take ye from among you an offering unto the LORD: whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the LORD - a free-will offering to the Lord was given by all who were stirred by the Lord among the COI. This is our reasonable service. See Gen 35:21, 29

Ex 35:21

Ex 35:21 - And they came, every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the LORD'S offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments - a free-will offering to the Lord was given by all who were stirred by the Lord among the COI. This is our reasonable service. See Gen 35:29

Ex 35:29

Ex 35:29 - The children of Israel brought a willing offering unto the LORD, every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all manner of work, which the LORD had commanded to be made by the hand of Moses - See Ex 35:5, 21

Ex 35:30

Ex 35:30 - Bezaleel - See Ps 91:1, 2 Btsalél Proper Name Masculine bets-al-ale' probably from (06738) and (0410) with a prepositional prefix probably from and with a prepositional prefix; in (the) shadow (i.e. protection) of God; Betsalel, the name of two Israelites:-Bezaleel. Bezaleel = "in the shadow (i.e. protection) of God"

Ex 35:31

Ex 35:31 - And he hath filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship - the Spirit of God is what inspired and guided craftsmen of the past - See Ex 35:31-35

Ex 36:1

Ex 36:1 - Then wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whom the LORD put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the LORD had commanded - See Ex 35:31-35

Ex 36:3

Ex 36:3 - And they brought yet unto him free offerings every morning - See Ex 35:5, 21, 29

Ex 36:5

Ex 36:5 - And they spake unto Moses, saying, The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work, which the LORD commanded to make - See Ex 36:7; Lk 6:38; John 6:12

Ex 37:6

Ex 37:6 - And he made the mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half was the length thereof, and one cubit and a half the breadth thereof - the mercy seat fit exactly on top of the ark of the covenant.

Ex 37:8

Ex 36:8 - One cherub on the end on this side, and another cherub on the other end on that side: out of the mercy seat made he the cherubims on the two ends thereof - See Lk 1:19

Ex 37:9

Ex 37:9 - even to the mercy seatward were the faces of the cherubims - the cherub angels that stand in God's presence have their faces pointed downward towards the mercy seat in awful reverence.

Ex 38:8

Ex 38:8 - And he made the laver of brass, and the foot of it of brass, of the lookingglasses of the women assembling, which assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation - the brass lavar was covered with mirrors so the priests may see themselves before entering the Holy Place.

Ex 39:14

Ex 39:14 - like the engravings of a signet - the stones on the breastplate of the High Priest were engraved with the names of the tribes of Israel. The engravings or seals of the 12 tribes point to the sealing of the 144,000 made up of the 12 tribes of Israel. Worn on the breast of the High Priest, the 144,000 are near to the heart of God.

Ex 39:23

Ex 39:23 - habergeon -n. A coat of mail or armor to defend the neck and breast. It was formed of little iron rings united, and descended from the neck to the middle of the body.

Ex 39:30

Ex 39:30 - And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote upon it a writing, like to the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD - See Ezek 16:12

Ex 39:31

Ex 39:31 - And they tied unto it a lace of blue, to fasten it on high upon the mitre; as the LORD commanded Moses. The blue lace symbolized obedience and the Law. See Num 15:38-41, Ex 24:9, 10

Ex 40:2

Ex 40:2 - On the first day of the first month shalt thou set up the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation - to inaugurate the new year, Moses was to set-up the tabernacle of congregation and the rest of the sanctuary - See Ex 40:17

Ex 40:17

Ex 40:17 - And it came to pass in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the tabernacle was reared up - See Ex 40:2

Ex 40:34

Ex 40:34 - Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle - Once Moses had set up the tabernacle as commanded by the LORD, the LORD descended in a cloud and consecrated the tabernacle. See Ex 40:38; 2Chron 5:14

Leviticus

Lev 1:5

Back to Table of Contents

Lev 1:5 - shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation - the life of the animal is in the blood. The shed blood gave record of life taken for sin. See Lev 17:11

Lev 2:13

Lev 2:13 - every oblation of thy meat offering shalt thou season with salt - In the ritual service, salt was added to every sacrifice. This, like the offering of incense, signified that only the righteousness of Christ could make the service acceptable to God. {Desire of Ages 439.2}

Lev 3:1

Lev 3:1 - And if his oblation be a sacrifice of peace offering, if he offer it of the herd; whether it be a male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD. - See 1Pet 1:18, 19

Lev 3:8

Lev 3:8 - And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the altar - See Lev 3:13

Lev 3:13

Lev 3:13 - And he shall lay his hand upon the head of it, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof upon the altar round about - See Lev 3:8

Lev 3:17

Lev 3:17 - It shall be a perpetual statute for your generations throughout all your dwellings, that ye eat neither fat nor blood - this statute has health related implications that are applicable today. See Lev 7:23-27

Lev 4:2

Lev 4:2 - If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them - See Num 15:22-29; Act 17:

Lev 4:5

Lev 4:5 - And the priest that is anointed - each priest must be anointed and consecrated to the Lord's work. The special anointing is a blessing for God's power to keep one holy and to perform the duties appointed to the sacred office.

Lev 4:6

Lev 4:6, 7 - And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before the LORD, before the vail of the sanctuary. 7 And the priest shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation - See Lev 16:16

Lev 5:3

Lev 5:3 - when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty - See 1Jo 1:9

Lev 6:9

Lev 6:9 - It is the burnt offering, because of the burning upon the altar all night unto the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be burning in it - the burnt offering burned continually before the Lord, from evening to morning and from morning to evening so that there was never a time when the people were not covered by the atonement of the burnt offering. See Lev 6:12, 13

Lev 6:12

Lev 6:12 - And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it; it shall not be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order upon it; and he shall burn thereon the fat of the peace offerings - See Lev 6:9; Dan 8:11

Lev 6:29

Lev 6:29 - All the males among the priests shall eat thereof: it is most holy - See 1Sam 2:15

Lev 7:6

Lev 7:6 - Every male among the priests shall eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place: it is most holy - the priest that makes atonement for either a sin or trespass offering is to eat the offering made

Lev 7:17

Lev 7:17 - But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire - the meat offered as a sacrifice is not to be eaten the third day and is an abomination. Without refrigeration, the meat would be unhealthy for consumption.

Lev 7:23

Lev 7:23 - Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Ye shall eat no manner of fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat - See Lev 3:17

Lev 7:26

Lev 7:26 - Moreover ye shall eat no manner of blood, whether it be of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings - See Lev 3:17

Lev 8:12

Lev 8:12 - And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him - Ps 133:2

Lev 9:9

Lev 9:9 - And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him: and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar: - the High Priest alone apparently officiated in the sprinkling of the blood on the altar, the priests (Aaron's sons) performed the sacrificial work. See Lev 9:12, 18

Lev 9:12

Lev 9:12 - And he slew the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about upon the altar - the High Priest alone apparently officiated in the sprinkling of the blood on the altar, the priests (Aaron's sons) performed the sacrificial work. See Lev 9:9, 18

Lev 9:18

Lev 9:18 - He slew also the bullock and the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings, which was for the people: and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the altar round about - the High Priest alone apparently officiated in the sprinkling of the blood on the altar, the priests (Aaron's sons) performed the sacrificial work. See Lev 9:9, 12

Lev 9:24

Lev 9:24 - And there came a fire out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, they shouted, and fell on their faces - after Aaron and his sons, the priests, had performed all that the Lord had asked them to do, the Lord showed His approval through His presence and by consuming the sacrifice on the altar. See Gen 4:4, 5

Lev 10:1

Lev 10:1 - offered strange fire before the Lord - The two drunken sons of Aaron (Lev 10:9) offered sparks of their own kindling rather than the sacred fire of the LORD. This foreshadows the strange fire of a counterfeit Holy Spirit that will seize the Christian world in the last days. See Lev 10:6-9; Num 3:4, 26:61; Ez 22:26; Isa 50:11; Act 2:3; 2Thess 2:9, 10
CONTRAST Dan 7:10 Nadab and Abihu had not in their youth been trained to habits of self-control. The father's yielding disposition, his lack of firmness for right, had led him to neglect the discipline of his children. His sons had been permitted to follow inclination. Habits of self-indulgence, long cherished, obtained a hold upon them which even the responsibility of the most sacred office had not power to break. They had not been taught to respect the authority of their father, and they did not realize the necessity of exact obedience to the requirements of God. Aaron's mistaken indulgence of his sons, prepared them to become the subjects of divine judgments.—Patriarchs and Prophets, 360. - {CE 227.1} Both tobacco and liquor break down nerve force, and dull the finer perceptions, so that the slaves to these habits cannot discern between sacred and common things. An example of the demoralizing effect of intoxicants is seen in the case of Nadab and Abihu. They ventured to partake of wine before they entered the tabernacle to perform the duties of their sacred office, and the result was, they could not distinguish between common fire and that which was consecrated to the holy service. For this breach of trust they were slain. Some will say, "If they were intoxicated, and could not discern the difference between these fires, why should they be punished?" When they placed the cup to their lips, they made themselves responsible for all their deeds committed while under its influence. - {CTBH 18.2}

Lev 10:2 - And there went out fire from the LORD, and devoured them, and they died before the LORD - Aaron was a man of amiable disposition, whom God selected to stand with Moses and speak for him.... God might have chosen Aaron as leader; but He who is acquainted with hearts, who understands character, knew that Aaron was yielding and lacked moral courage to stand in defense of the right under all circumstances, irrespective of consequences. Aaron's desire to have the good will of the people sometimes led him to commit great wrongs.... The same lack of firmness for the right in his family resulted in the death of two of his sons.... Nadab and Abihu failed to reverence the command of God to offer sacred fire upon their censers with the incense before Him.... - {CC 102.2} Here is seen the result of loose discipline. As these sons of Aaron had not been educated to respect and reverence the commands of their father, as they disregarded parental authority, they did not realize the necessity of explicitly following the requirements of God.... Contrary to God's express direction, they dishonored Him by offering common instead of sacred fire. God visited them with His wrath; fire went forth from His presence and destroyed them. - {CC 102.3}

Lev 10:3

Lev 10:3 - Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the LORD spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace - Moses rebukes Aaron and says "This is what the LORD meant that He will be sanctified in them the come before Him and He will be glorified before the people". Aaron fully understood the fault was with his sons and by extension himself, as he had not taught his sons to reverence God. See Num 14:21; Lev 16:11; 1Tim 3:2-7

Lev 10:6

Lev 10:6 - Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons, Uncover not your heads, neither rend your clothes; lest ye die, ... for the anointing oil of the Lord is upon you." The great leader reminded his brother of the words of God, "I will be sanctified in them that come nigh Me, and before all the people I will be glorified." Aaron was silent. The death of his sons, cut down without warning, in so terrible a sin—a sin which he now saw to be the result of his own neglect of duty—wrung the father's heart with anguish, but he gave his feelings no expression. By no manifestation of grief must he seem to sympathize with sin. The congregation must not be led to murmur against God. - {PP 361.1}

Lev 10:19

Lev 10:19 - And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, this day have they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and such things have befallen me: and if I had eaten the sin offering to day, should it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD? - Though the works of Aaron and his sons were contrary to what was explicitly instructed of them, their spirit was in the right place in that they sought to humble themselves before the LORD. God accepted their digression from their instructions because their motives were right. See Lk 14:1-6; John 7:24

Lev 10:20 - And when Moses heard that, he was content - Moses heard the contrition in the words and motives of Aaron and recognized that his actions and motives were genuine. Moses refrained any further remonstrance of Aaron and his sons.

Lev 11:2

Lev 11:2 - These are the beasts which ye shall eat among all the beasts that are on the earth - See Lev 20:24; Deut 14:3-21

Lev 11:47

Lev 11:47 - To make a difference between the unclean and the clean - making a difference between the clean and unclean, the sanctified (holy) and the common are all fundamental principles of God. As God does not change (Heb 13:8), neither do these principles change. It is the devil's express purpose to cause me to make light of this principle and to even go so far as to make it void. We see this fiendish act in man's attempted transfer of the sanctity and change of God's Sabbath to Sunday (Dan 7:25). In claiming to transfer the holiness of the Sabbath to Sunday, man has made no difference between the common and the holy and has profaned God's law and principle. See 2Tim 2:20||Rom 9:21; Lev 10:10; Eze 22:26, 44:23; Deut 14:2

Lev 12:2

Lev 12:2 - If a woman have conceived seed, and born a man child: then she shall be unclean seven days; according to the days of the separation for her infirmity shall she be unclean - See Lk 2:22

Lev 12:3

Lev 12:3 - And in the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised - See Gen 17:10-14

Lev 12:8

Lev 12:8 - And if she be not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons; the one for the burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be clean - See Lk 2:24

Lev 13:2

Lev 13:2 - When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a rising, a scab, or bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy; then he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sons the priests - See Mk 1:44

Lev 13:45

Lev 13:45 - And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean - the woeful cry of the person afflicted with leprosy was to warn others of the danger of interacting with him and an added insult to his injury.

Lev 14:1

Lev 14:1 - Leprosy was a dreaded plague that God would impose upon: A Person Garments A house or dwelling God made provision for quarantining the person that is affected, destroying the garments that were contaminated and addressing leprosy in a house or dwelling. When leprosy impacted a person, God shows His power to deliver and save by healing the person. The person, once healed of the disease, would present themselves to the priest who would perform a ritual cleansing ceremony that would affirm the person's healing. The ceremony required offerings. God made provision for all, rich and poor to be able to partake of this cleansing process by requiring an offering based on one's means. When a house was found to be leprous, An inspection was made before the case could be assessed. In the cases where just the foundations were found to be leprous, a process would be implemented to remove the leprous stones while maintaining the rest of the structure. Should the leprosy be found to have infected the entire building, it would be cast down and its parts taken to place for disposal. A house is symbolically used later in the Bible to describe the people of God or a Church. The foundation would be the leadership and the rest of the building the congregation. The same inspection, cleansing and punishment applies to the spiritual edifice should leprosy be found in the midst.

Lev 14:1

Lev 14:1-57 - Law of Leprosy - Leprosy was a dreaded plague that God would impose upon: A Person Garments A house or dwelling God made provision for quarantining the person that is affected, destroying the garments that were contaminated and addressing leprosy in a house or dwelling. When leprosy impacted a person, God shows His power to deliver and save by healing the person. The same inspection, cleansing and punishment applies to the spiritual edifice should leprosy be found in the midst.

Lev 15:31

Lev 15:31 - when they defile my tabernacle that is among them - our sins daily defile God's sanctuary. When we are not cleansed (ceremonially), we defile God's temple. See Num 19:13, 20

Lev 16:2

Lev 16:2 - for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat - the LORD God would appear in the Most Holy Place, above the Mercy Seat, before Aaron enter. Similarly, the Father enter the Most Holy Place of the heavenly sanctuary before the opening of the judgment. See Dan 7:9, 10

Lev 16:4

Lev 16:4 - He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, and so put them on. - See Ex 28:3-43

Lev 16:6

Lev 16:6 - make an atonement -words synonymous with atonement are: 1. cleanse - Ex 29:36 2. clean - Lev 12:8, 14:21 3. cleansing - Lev 14:2 4. cleansed -Lev 14:3, 4, 33-57 5. purified/sanctified - Lev 8:15 6. reconciliation - 2Chron 29:24 7. justified - Rom 5:9-11; 2Cor 5:17-19; Eph 2:16 8. purge - Heb 9:13, 14 9. perfect - Heb 10:14 10. blotted out - Act 3:19

Lev 16:6

Lev 16:6 - atonement - kaphar Verb kaw-far' a primitive root a primitive root; to cover (specifically with bitumen); figuratively, to expiate or condone, to placate or cancel:- appease, make (an atonement, cleanse, disannul, forgive, be merciful, pacify, pardon, purge (away), put off, (make) reconcile(-liation). to cover, purge, make an atonement, make reconciliation, cover over with pitch

Lev 16:7

Lev 16:7. - And he shall take the two goats, and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation - Before lots are cast, the priest presents the goats and makes inquiry of the Lord to make the decision for the Lord's Goat and the Scapegoat. See Act 1:24, 25

Lev 16:9

Lev 16:9 - And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the LORD'S lot fell, and offer him for a sin offering - the LORD's lot falls towards the LORD's goat.

Lev 16:10

Lev 16:10 - the scapegoat - The scapegoat does not represent Christ but rather Satan "because, (a) the goat was not sent away until after the High Priest had made an end of cleansing the sanctuary (Lev 16:20, 21; (b) it was sent into a land not inhabited and thus could not be heaven wherein Christ entered; (c) the goat received and retained all the iniquities of Israel but when Christ appears the second time He will be "without sin;" (d) the goat received the iniquities from the hands of the priest and he sent it away and so the goat must be something other than Himself which is sent away; (e) this goat was not sacrificed, its only office was to receive the iniquities and take them into a land not inhabited leaving the sanctuary, priest and people free from their iniquities after the sanctuary cleansing (Lev 16:7-10, 22); (f) the Hebrew name of the scapegoat is Azazel which is the name of the devil; (g) at the appearance of Christ and the beginning of the millennium, Satan is bound which is symbolized by the goat being sent into a land uninhabited." Lev 16:11

Lev 16:11 - And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin offering which is for himself - the Bible says a bishop/elder must rule over his house well.

As atonement is made not only for the High Priest himself but his household also, it is essential that he rule over his home well as it is an extension of himself. See 1Tim 3:2-7; Lev 10:1-3

Lev 16:14

Lev 16:14 - And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy seat eastward; and before the mercy seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times - upon entering the Most Holy place, the priest will be on the eastern side of the apartment and will be facing the Ark of the Covenant on its eastern side. The priest is not to meander in this sacred place but present himself before the Seat of Mercy and sprinkle the blood of the offering 7x (perfect, complete) before the mercy seat.

Lev 16:16

Lev 16:16 - And he shall make an atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins: and so shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation, that remaineth among them in the midst of their uncleanness - the holy place is daily contaminated by the blood shed for sin, placed upon the horn of the Altar of Incense and upon the veil. See Lev 4:6, 7; Ex 30:10

Lev 16:17

Lev 16:17 - And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregation when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for the congregation of Israel - See Heb 9:7, 8; Rev 15:7, 8 Sabbath, March 24, 1849, we had a sweet and very interesting meeting with the brethren at Topsham, Maine. The Holy Ghost was poured out upon us, and I was taken off in the Spirit to the city of the living God. Then I was shown that the commandments of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ relating to the shut door could not be separated, and that the time for the commandments of God to shine out with all their importance, and for God's people to be tried on the Sabbath truth, was when the door was opened in the most holy place in the heavenly sanctuary, where the ark is, in which are contained the ten commandments. This door was not opened until the mediation of Jesus was finished in the holy place of the sanctuary in 1844. Then Jesus rose up and shut the door of the holy place, and opened the door into the most holy, and passed within the second veil, where He now stands by the ark, and where the faith of Israel now reaches. - {EW 42.1} I saw that Jesus had shut the door of the holy place, and no man can open it; and that He had opened the door into the most holy, and no man can shut it (Rev 3:7, 8); [see page 86. See also appendix.] and that since Jesus has opened the door into the most holy place, which contains the ark, the commandments have been shining out to God's people, and they are being tested on the Sabbath question. - {EW 42.2} I saw that the present test on the Sabbath could not come until the mediation of Jesus in the holy place was finished and He had passed within the second veil; therefore Christians who fell asleep before the door was opened into the most holy, when the midnight cry was finished, at the seventh month, 1844, and who had not kept the true Sabbath, now rest in hope; for they had not the light and the test on the Sabbath which we now have since that door was opened. I saw that Satan was tempting some of God's people on this point. Because so many good Christians have fallen asleep in the triumphs of faith and have not kept the true Sabbath, they were doubting about its being a test for us now. - {EW 42.3} The enemies of the present truth have been trying to open the door of the holy place, that Jesus has shut, and to close the door of the most holy place, which He opened in 1844, where the ark is, containing the two tables of stone on which are written the ten commandments by the finger of Jehovah. - {EW 43.1}

Lev 16:18

Lev 16:18 - And he shall go out unto the altar that is before the LORD, and make an atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about - See Lev 4:7

Lev 16:19

Lev 16:19 - and hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel - the shed blood, foreshadowing the blood of Christ, will make clean/pure the sanctuary and it's articles from the defilement of men's sins. See Heb 9:12, 22; Dan 8:14

Lev 16:20

Lev 16:20 - And when he hath made an end of reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar - When the High Priest ends his work of reconciling the sanctuary and the hosts, he exits to place the sins of the people upon the scapegoat. This is typical of Christ exiting the Heavenly Sanctuary where He pronounces, "he who is filthy, let him be filthy still...". See Rev 22:11

Lev 16:21

Lev 16:21 - And Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat - See Ps 7:16

Lev 16:21

Lev 16:20 - shall send him away by the hand of a fit man into the wilderness - Then I saw that Jesus' work in the sanctuary will soon be finished. And after His work there is finished, He will come to the door of the first apartment, and confess the sins of Israel upon the head of the Scape Goat. Then He will put on the garments of vengeance. Then the plagues will come upon the wicked, and they do not come till Jesus puts on that garment, and takes His place upon the great white cloud. Then while the plagues are falling, the Scape Goat is being led away. He makes a mighty struggle to escape, but he is held fast by the hand that leads him. If he should effect his escape, Israel would lose their lives. I saw that it would take time to lead away the Scape Goat into the land of forgetfulness after the sins were put on his head. - {SpM 2.1}

Lev 16:22

Lev 16:22 - And the goat shall bear upon him all their iniquities unto a land not inhabited: and he shall let go the goat in the wilderness - the scapegoat is sent into the land of separation from God's people while bearing their sins. See Rev 20:1-3

Lev 16:23

Lev 16:23 - And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall put off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there - Christ lays aside His priestly robes, and comes to the earth as King of kings and Lord of lords. See Rev 19:11-16; Dan 12:1

Lev 16:27

Lev 16:27 - And the bullock for the sin offering, and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall one carry forth without the camp; and they shall burn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung - the animals for sacrifice will be taken out of the camp and the only thing to remain, the only evidence of once the existence of sin will be their ashes, See Heb 13:11-13; Mal 4:1-3; Mt 13:41-43

Lev 16:29 - that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month - See Dan 8:14

Lev 16:29

Lev 16:29 - ye shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all - the Day of Atonement was a ceremonial sabbath. See Lev 16:31

Lev 16:30

Lev 16:30 - to cleanse you, that ye may be clean from all your sins before the LORD - See Dan 8:14

Lev 16:31

Lev 16:31- It shall be a sabbath of rest unto you - See Ex 31:13

Lev 16:32

Lev 16:32 - And the priest, whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall consecrate to minister in the priest's office in his father's stead - See Heb 5:1-4

Lev 16:33

Lev 16:33 - And he shall make an atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make an atonement for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar, and he shall make an atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation - the entire sanctuary and the people were to be cleansed on the Day of Atonement

Lev 16:34

Lev 16:34 - And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel for all their sins once a year. And he did as the LORD commanded Moses - Unlike the daily service the Day of Atonement would entirely cleanse Israel of its sins once a year.

Lev 16:34

Lev 16:34 - everlasting statute unto you - in order for something to be everlasting, it must be of or pertaining to One Who is everlasting. The statue here spoken is of the LORD and speaks of salvation wrought in Jesus Christ. The Day of Atonement was and is a work of God that would seal the eternal fate of all who participate in the service. Those whose sins were not atoned for were cut off by God. See Lev 23:29, 30; Ex 32:31-33; Rev 3:5

Lev 16:34 - everlasting - `owlam Noun Masculine o-lawm' from (05956) or lolam {o-lawm'}; from ; properly, concealed, i.e. the vanishing point; generally, time out of mind (past or future), i.e. (practically) eternity; frequently, adverbial (especially with prepositional prefix) always:--alway(-s), ancient (time), any more, continuance, eternal, (for, (n-))ever(- lasting, -more, of old), lasting, long (time), (of) old (time), perpetual, at any time, (beginning of the) world (+ without end). Compare , . long duration, antiquity, futurity, for ever, ever, everlasting, evermore, perpetual, old, ancient, world ancient time, long time (of past) (of future) for ever, always continuous existence, perpetual everlasting, indefinite or unending future, eternity

Lev 17:1-9 - offered at sanctuary only - all sacrifices among the COI and those who sojourned among them were to be administered according to the instructions given to Moses and entrusted to the priests. Any sacrifices outside of these instructions were considered offerings made to devils. The person offering a strange offering or sacrifice was to be killed.

Lev 17:7

Lev 17:7 - And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto devils, after whom they have gone a whoring. This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generations - the sacrifices performed but not unto the LORD, were sacrifices to devils. See 1Cor 10:20; Deut 32:17; Ps 106:34-38; Jer 44:16-21; Ex 34:15

Lev 17:10

Lev 17:10-14 - no blood - the blood of an animal, the symbol of life, is to be poured out upon the alter to make atonement. Blood is not to be eaten, lest the person die.

Lev 17:11

Lev 17:11 - For the life of the flesh is in the blood - See Lev 17:14; Eph 1:7

Lev 17:14

Lev 17:14 - For it is the life of all flesh; the blood of it is for the life thereof: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh: for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it shall be cut off - when Jesus shed His blood, His life was poured out for us. See Joh 19:34

Lev 18:1

Lev 18:1-5 - Be not like Egypt or Canaan - God strictly forbade the COI from engaging in practices that were done in Egypt which they had just left, and Canaan where they were to enter in. God wanted His people to be separate and distinct from the heathen and abominable practices of incest, human sacrifice, homosexuality, bestiality (confusion), and other carnality mentioned in the chapter.

Lev 18:21

Lev 18:21 - And thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through the fire to Molech, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD. - The modern equivalent of this abomination is abortion, legalized in the U.S. in 1973. See Jer 32:35

Lev 18:21

Lev 18:21 - thy seed pass through the fire to Molech - See Jer 32:35 While God has desired to teach men that from His own love comes the Gift which reconciles them to Himself, the archenemy of mankind has endeavored to represent God as one who delights in their destruction. Thus the sacrifices and the ordinances designed of Heaven to reveal divine love have been perverted to serve as means whereby sinners have vainly hoped to propitiate, with gifts and good works, the wrath of an offended God. At the same time, Satan has sought to arouse and strengthen the evil passions of men in order that through repeated transgression multitudes might be led on and on, far from God, and hopelessly bound with the fetters of sin. - {PK 685.2}

Lev 18:22 - Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination. - The modern day equivalent is the LGBTQ movement, legalized in the U.S. in 2015.

Lev 18:23

Lev 18:23 - Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion. - the modern day spiritual equivalent is a Sunday Law, which follows legalized abortion and legalized homosexuality.

Lev 18:23

Lev 18:23 - woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto - it is "confusion" [fornication] for a woman to lie with a beast, therefore it is "confusion" [fornication] for the Church of Rome to have relations with the Kings of the earth. See Rev 18:3

Lev 18:24

Lev 18:24-30 - abominations of the nations - all the nations in the Land of Promise that were to be removed were responsible for the abominations which God strictly forbade the COI, including: Incest Homosexuality Bestiality Human Sacrifice (sacrificing one's children to idols)

Lev 19:4

Lev 19:4 - Turn ye not unto idols, nor make to yourselves molten gods: I am the LORD your God - See Ex 20:4, 5

Lev 19:10

Lev 19:10 - And thou shalt not glean thy vineyard, neither shalt thou gather every grape of thy vineyard; thou shalt leave them for the poor and stranger: I am the LORD your God - The Lord is merciful and kind to all His children. Jesus foresaw that His progenitor Ruth, would be in poverty and would rely upon the gleaning of Boaz's field. Jesus makes provision for all of His children if we would but obey His commands. See Deut 24:19-21; Ruth 2:1-16

Lev 19:12

Lev 19:12 - And ye shall not swear by my name falsely, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD - when an oath is taken in court, it is done in the name of the LORD. We are swearing that our testimonies is true and accurate before God.

Lev 19:13

Lev 19:13 - Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him: the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning - See Jam 5:1-6 Religion and business are not two separate things; they are one. Bible religion is to be interwoven with all we do or say. Divine and human agencies are to combine in temporal as well as in spiritual achievements. They are to be united in all human pursuits, in mechanical and agricultural labors, in mercantile and scientific enterprises. There must be co-operation in everything embraced in Christian activity. - {COL 349.3}

Lev 19:15 - Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour - Justice in judgment is an attribute of God that He highly regards (Deut 32:4). He is just, fair and upright and expects His people to reflect this in character. See Lev 19:35, 36; Deut 1:17, 10:17, 18, 16:18-20; 2Chron 19:6; Prov 18:5

Lev 19:16

Lev 19:16 - Thou shalt not go up and down as a talebearer among thy people: neither shalt thou stand against the blood of thy neighbour: I am the LORD - See Prov 18:8

Lev 19:16

Lev 19:16 - neither shalt thou stand against the blood of thy neighbour: I am the LORD - Preferably, "rise up against the life of thy neighbor," either directly or by false witness (see Dan. 8:25; 11:14; 1 Chron. 21:1). The Jews interpret it to mean that he who sees anyone in danger, as from drowning, robbery, or wild beasts, is duty bound to help; or that if a man happens to witness a crime or an injustice, he is bound to go to the rescue of the individual wronged, either by personal assistance or by bearing testimony in court. {SDA Bible Commentary vol 1}

Lev 19:17

Lev 19:17 - Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart - See Gen 4:8; Jam 3:14-16 It is possible to hate and despise a person, and not give any outward evidence of it. Nevertheless, hatred is sin (1 John 2:9-11). He who hates hurts himself most of all. {SDA Bible Commentary vol 1}

Lev 19:19

Lev 19:19 - Thou shalt not let thy cattle gender with a diverse kind - God forbids cross breeding and the sins of amalgamation that was once performed by the antediluvian race. But if there was one sin above another which called for the destruction of the race by the flood, it was the base crime of amalgamation of man and beast which defaced the image of God, and caused confusion everywhere. {1SP 69.1}

Lev 19:19

Lev 19:19 - GENDER, v.i. To copulate; to breed

Lev 19:26

Lev 19:26 - Ye shall not eat any thing with the blood - See Gen 9:4

Lev 19:26

Lev 19:26 - neither shall ye use enchantment, nor observe times - no witchcraft, fortune telling or astrology is permitted among the people of God. We are people of faith in the living God, not of chance or of dark knowledge. See Jer 44:15-19

Lev 19:28

Lev 19:28 - Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the LORD - God is the God of the living and not of the dead (Mt 22:32; Mk 12:27; Lk 20:38). He is not One Who glories in that which is an enemy (1Cor 15:26) and which the devil has gloried over, death (Heb 2:14). Markings and cuttings in the flesh keep a person locked into a confused, rebellious mindset that is at war with God.

Lev 19:30

Lev 19:30 - Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD - Reverence ... is a grace that should be carefully cherished. Every child should be taught to show true reverence for God. - {CSA 15.6}

Lev 19:31

Lev 19:31 - Regard not them that have familiar spirits, neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God - The LORD, Who is my God has commanded that I not seek those who communicate with the dead (dead relatives - familiar spirits) but are actually speaking with devils (1Cor 10:20; Isa 8:19) or observe times (astrology), or perform sorcery which are lying wonders of the devil. See Rev 16:14; 2Thess 2:7-9; Lev 20:27; 1Sam 28:8; 2Chron 33:6

Lev 19:32

Lev 19:32 - Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God: I am the LORD - we are to honor the aged, standing and giving them deference, favor and respect. This is honorable to God.

Lev 19:35

Lev 19:35, 36 - Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in meteyard, in weight, or in measure. 36 Just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin, shall ye have: I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt. - See Lev 19:15; Am 8:5

Lev 19:36

Lev 19:36 - Just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin, shall ye have: I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt - See Eze 45:10

Lev 20:4

Lev 20:4 - And if the people of the land do any ways hide their eyes from the man, when he giveth of his seed unto Molech, and kill him not: - if the people turn a blind eye to evil and do not take action, God Himself will take swift and decisive action against the guilty and complicit.

Lev 20:6

Lev 20:6 - And the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people - See 2Kin 21:6; Isa 8:19, 20

Lev 20:7

Lev 20:7 - Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be ye holy, for I am the LORD your God - Holiness is constant agreement with God. Shall we not strive to be that which Christ so greatly desires us to be—Christians in deed and in truth—that the world may see in our lives a revelation of the saving power of truth? This world is our preparatory school. While here we shall meet with trials and difficulties. Continually the enemy of God will seek to draw us away from our allegiance. But while we cleave to Him who gave Himself for us we are safe. - {HP 33.4}

Lev 20:8

Lev 20:8 - I am the LORD which sanctify you - See Ezekiel 20:12

Lev 20:10

Lev 20:10 - And the man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death - See Joh 8:3-9

Lev 20:11

Lev 20:11 - And the man that lieth with his father's wife hath uncovered his father's nakedness: both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them - See Gen 35:22, 49:4

Lev 20:13

Lev 20:13 - If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them - See Rom 1:27, 28; 1Cor 6:9

Lev 20:24

Lev 20:24 - I am the LORD your God, which have separated you from other people - See Num 23:9; Lev 20:26

Lev 20:25

Lev 20:25 - Ye shall therefore put difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean: and ye shall not make your souls abominable by beast, or by fowl, or by any manner of living thing that creepeth on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean - See Lev 11; Deut 14:3-21

Lev 20:26

Lev 20:26 - And ye shall be holy unto me - we are to be holy and sanctified unto the Lord so that we may receive the seal of God, the Sabbath. See Ezek 20:12, 20; Rev 14:1, 7:2-4

Lev 20:26

Lev 20:26 - and have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine - See Num 23:9; Lev 20:24; Ezekiel 20:12; Deut 7:6-9

Lev 20:27

Lev 20:27 - A man also or woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones: their blood shall be upon them. - See Lev 20:6, 7; Ex 22:18; Deut 18:10, 11; Act 19:19

Lev 21:10

Lev 21:10 - nor rend his clothes - a priest rending his cloths was an offense punishable by death. See Lev 10:6; Mt 26:65; Mk 14:63

Lev 22:10

Lev 22:10 - There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing: a sojourner of the priest, or an hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing - See 1Sam 21:3-6;

Lev 23:3

Lev 23:3 - Six days shall work be done: but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, an holy convocation; ye shall do no work therein: it is the sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings - See Gen 2:2-4; Ex 20:8-11

Lev 23:7

Lev 23:7 - In the first day ye shall have an holy convocation - the first day of the feast of Unleavened bread, a convocation of all men of Israel was to be held where no (servile) work was to be performed. The feast of Unleavened Bread was to span 7 days and would therefore include a weekly Sabbath.

Lev 23:8

Lev 23:8 - in the seventh day is an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein - a reference to the weekly Sabbath that would at some time encompass the 7-day long feast of Unleavened Bread. Like all typical, weekly Sabbaths, no work was to be done.

Lev 23:10

Lev 23:10 - sheaf of the firstfruit of your harvest - See Prov 2:9, 10

Lev 23:11

Lev 23:11 - And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted for you: on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it - the First Fruit sheaf was to be presented on the 16th day of the first month, after the holy convocation and sabbath of the First Fruits.

Lev 23:14

Lev 23:14 - And ye shall eat neither bread, nor parched corn, nor green ears, until the selfsame day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings - the first fruit offering was in the spirit of a tithe, where we remember from Whom all of our blessings come and we give to Him in trust, as an offering of the first and best, in anticipation of His continued blessings so long as we remain faithful. See Deut 8:2-18

Lev 23:15

Lev 23:15-17 - The feast of first fruits celebrated 50 days after the resurrection (from the 15th day of Nisan). A type of Pentecost when the Holy Spirit was poured out.

Lev 23:15

Lev 23:15-17 - The feast of first fruits celebrated 50 days after the resurrection (from the 15th day of Nisan). A type of Pentecost when the Holy Spirit was poured out.

Lev 23:24

Lev 23:24 - seventh month first day - 11 days before the day of Atonement, a rehearsal sounding of trumpets was heard, leading to the actual sounding of the trumpet the following day, celebrating the Feast of Trumpets. This solemn festival called all people to attention to make preparation for the Day of Atonement. The anti-type of this occurred with the stars falling from heaven and Miller receiving his credentials both in 1833 and Miller being officially granted privilege to speak on behalf of the Baptist church in 1844, 10years (1 prophetic day=10 years) before the commencement of the Day of Atonement.

Lev 23:27

Lev 23:27 - it shall be an holy convocation unto you - We are not to forsake the gathering together as parts of the body of Christ. Jesus promised to be in the midst of our Christian fellowship so it is imperative to band together in the bonds of unity. See Heb 10:25

Lev 23:27

Lev 23:27 - and ye shall afflict your souls - See Isa 22:12-14; Lk 21:34-36

Lev 23:27

Lev 23:27 - and offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD - We are to present our bodies a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to the Lord. We are to allow self to be fully consumed so that the Spirit of God may abide and tabernacle in us. We are to be refined by the Refiner's fire so that our faith may be purified (faith working through Love of God). See Rom 12:1, 2; Gal 2:20; 1Thess 5:23

Lev 23:28

Lev 23:28 - And ye shall do no work in that same day: - no servile work is to be performed on that day. We are to afflict our souls and focus on the Lord and His works of atonement. None of man's works can atone for our sins, the precious blood of Christ alone. We are to rest in God's finished works from the foundation of the world. See Lk 21:32-36; Mt 6:32, 33

Lev 23:32

Lev 23:32 - in the ninth day of the month at even, from even unto even, shall ye celebrate your sabbath - God gives counsel on reckoning time where He places the hearer on the 9th day of the month. At evening, signaling the close of the day and the beginning of the new day, the 10th day, until the following evening, the Day of Atonement was to be observed.

Lev 23:37

Lev 23:37, 38 - feasts... beside the sabbaths - the 7 feasts of the Jewish society were to be honored and celebrated as prescribed by the Lord. These feasts, besides the weekly Sabbath (Lev 23:1-3) were to be celebrated.

Lev 23:37

Lev 23:37, 38 - feasts... beside the sabbaths - the 7 feasts of the Jewish society were to be honored and celebrated as prescribed by the Lord. These feasts, besides the weekly Sabbath (Lev 23:1-3) were to be celebrated.

Lev 24:2

Lev 24:2 - Command the children of Israel, that they bring unto thee pure oil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamps to burn continually - See 1Sam 3:3

Lev 24:2

Lev 24:2 - continually - {tamiyd - Heb} - continually, perpetually. See 1Chron 16:40; Compare Job 1:5

Lev 24:6

Lev 24:6 - And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row, upon the pure table before the LORD - the two columns of shewbread represent the seat of the Father and Son in heaven, towards the farthest sides of the north (Isa 14:13)

Lev 24:9

Lev 24:9 - And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the LORD made by fire by a perpetual statute - See Mt 12:4; 1Sam 21:1-6

Lev 24:15

Lev 24:15 - Whosoever curseth his God shall bear his sin - See Mt 12:31

Lev 24:21

Lev 24:21 - and he that killeth a man, he shall be put to death - See Gen 9:5, 6

Lev 25:4

Lev 25:4 - But in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath for the LORD: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard - See Ex 20:9; 21:2; Lev 19:23, 24 The land inheritance is an essential part of God's covenant. The land of promise, typifying heavenly Jerusalem was to be treated with honor and respect. God forbade the selling of any land inherited by a family because it was part of His gift and blessings to each individual. Some received more, some received less, but all were to hold onto their possession. God was the ultimate owner of the land and each person a steward. When the COI disobeyed His command to let the land rest, the Lord was jealous for His land and eventually sent his people into captivity so that the land may rest. See Joel 2:18

Lev 25:8

*Lev 25:4, 8-13 - Note the 7th year is the year of rest/release (Ex 21:1, 2; 23:10, 11) just like the 7th day is the Sabbath rest - establishing the day for a year principle. The trumpet of the Jubilee was to sound in the 49th year, on the 10th day of the 7th month (Day of Atonement). The 49th year marked a Great Year of Release, preceding the Jubilee in the 50th year. Adventist Pioneers taught of a Great Jubilee lasting 2,450 years (49x50), concluding in 1844, based on the first invasion of Israel by Nebuchadnezzar in 607BC.

Lev 25:8

Lev 25:8 - And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years - *Lev 25:4, 8-13 - Note the 7th year is the year of rest/release (Ex 21:1, 2; 23:10, 11) just like the 7th day is the Sabbath rest - establishing the day for a year principle. The trumpet of the Jubilee was to sound in the 49th year, on the 10th day of the 7th month (Day of Atonement). The 49th year marked a Great Year of Release, preceding the Jubilee in the 50th year. Lev 25:9

Lev 25:9 - Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the jubile to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month, in the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land - See Lev 16

Lev 25:10

Lev 25:10 - it shall be a jubilee unto you - The advantages of this institution were manifold. "1. It would prevent the accumulation of land on the part of a few to the detriment of the community at large. 2. It would render it impossible for any one to be born to absolute poverty, since every one had his hereditary land. 3. It would preclude those inequalities which are produced by extremes of riches and poverty, and which make one man domineer over another. 4. It would utterly do away with slavery. 5. It would afford a fresh opportunity to those who were reduced by adverse circumstances to begin again their career of industry in the patrimony which they had temporarily forfeited. 6. It would periodically rectify the disorders which crept into the state in the course of time, preclude the division of the people into nobles and plebeians, and preserve the theocracy inviolate."

Lev 25:23

Lev 25:23 - The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; for ye are strangers and sojourners with me - See Heb 11:8, 9, 13 The Lord declared to Israel: "The land shall not be sold forever: for the land is Mine; for ye are strangers and sojourners with Me." Lev 25:23. The people were to be impressed with the fact that it was God's land which they were permitted to possess for a time; that He was the rightful owner, the original proprietor, and that He would have special consideration made for the poor and unfortunate. It was to be impressed upon the minds of all that the poor have as much right to a place in God's world as have the more wealthy. - {CSA 61.3}

Lev 25:39 - bondservant - BONDSERVANT, n. [bond and servant.] A slave; one who is subjected to the authority of another, or whose person and liberty are restrained.

Lev 25:44

Lev 25:44 - Both thy bondmen, and thy bondmaids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you; of them shall ye buy bondmen and bondmaids - See Gal 4:22-31

Lev 26:1

Lev 26:1 - Ye shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a standing image, neither shall ye set up any image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the LORD your God - Idolatry is a most revolting sin towards God. He continually speaks against the practice of exalting anything above Himself as a god, and particularly, degrading oneself by worshipping an object which is a creation and not the Creator. See Ex 20:3-6; Deut 4:15-19, 25-28, 35, 39 Covenant Blessings and Curses: God hence, set forth blessings and curses that are bound by His covenant. See Ex 19:5; Deut 11:26-28

Lev 26:3

Lev 26:3 - If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them - Covenant Blessings (Lev 26:3-13; Deut 7:12-18): 1. Rain in season - Lev 26:4 2. Peace and safety in the land - Lev 26:5, 6 3. Victory in Battle - Lev 26:7, 8 4. Fruitfulness - Lev 26:9, 10 5. God's presence - Lev 26:11, 12

Lev 26:4

Lev 26:4 - Then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit - See Deut 11:10-14; Jam 5:7

Lev 26:5

Lev 26:5 - And your threshing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing time: and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely - See Deut 11:12, 14

Lev 26:6

Lev 26:6 - And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and I will rid evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land. The land is mentioned 3x in this verse which shows that the place of inheritance for His people bore significance with regards to God's promises and covenant. - See Lev 26:22, 42; Deut 11:21

Lev 26:7

Lev 26:7, 8 -And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. 8 And five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword. - See Deut 11:23-25; Num 23:22-24

Lev 26:9

Lev 26:9 - For I will have respect unto you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you - See Ex 2:24, 25

Lev 26:11

Lev 26:11 - And I will set my tabernacle among you - See Ex 25:8; Deut 12:4-14; Rev 21:3

Lev 26:11

Lev 26:11 - and my soul shall not abhor you. - The Holy and Righteous God loves righteousness (Ps 11:7). God can not dwell in the presence of sin and evil, it is abhorrent and detestable to Him. Yet if we pursue righteousness and humbly seek Him, His tabernacle will be amongst us and He will not abhor us but will rather impute and impart His righteousness unto us. Compare Gen 6:5-7; Ps 104:29

Lev 26:12

Lev 26:12 - And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people - See Deut 12:4-14; 2Cor 6:161; Rev 21:3

Lev 26:13

Lev 26:13 - I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt - God delivered His people to be separate, not counted among the nations and to be a peculiar people under His leadership. They were not to be bound as bondmen or under the yoke of a king or an oppressor. See Ex 19:3-6, 20:2; Num 23:9

Lev 26:13

Lev 26:13 - that ye should not be their bondmen; and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright - the COI were to dwell as free men and never subject to any oppressor, desolator, bondage or king, besides God Himself. This is why God instituted the Year of Jubilee, that none of His people would be in perpetual servitude. God's ideal for His people was for a rich fertile land where His blessings would be evidently seen and where civil and religious liberties would prevail. Palestine was that place but through Israel's rebellion, God's hand of protection would be removed (His indignation) causing a chain of events that would require 2520 years to be resolved. At the conclusion of the 2520 years, God would establish another land, flowing with milk and honey where religious liberty would prevail, the USA. See Joh 8:34-36; Num 23:9; Dan 11:41

Lev 26:13

Lev 26:13 - and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright -

Lev 26:14

Lev 26:14 - But if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments - Covenant Curses (Lev 26:14-39; Jer 11:1-17): 1. God will bring pestilence upon the people that will bring suffering and death: consumption - a disease seated in the lungs; ague - a chill or cold fit 2. Not utterly driving out and destroying the inhabitants of the land that became a snare to them through compromise (Ex 23:22-24; Judges 1:21-36; Gen 6:1, 2), these nations would begin to persecute Israel and seize their crops 3. Shut-up the rain so that famine will be in the land (Lev 26:19) 4. Send wild beasts to consume cattle and children 5. Cause sword of an enemy, pestilence, and famine of food (Lev 26:25, 26) 6. Famine so that people will eat their children (cannibalism), destruction/desolation of the land and of the cities (Lev 26:29)

Lev 26:15

Lev 26:15 - And if ye shall despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant: - See Ex 19:3-5; Judges 2:1-5; Jer 19:15

Lev 26:15

Lev 26:15 - so that ye will not do all my commandments - See Jam 2:10

Lev 26:16

Lev 26:16 - terror - See Deut 32:25

Lev 26:16

Lev 26:16 - consumption - In medicine, a wasting of flesh; a gradual decay or diminution of the body; a word of extensive signification. But particularly, the disease called phthisis pulmonalis, pulmonic consumption, a disease seated in the lungs, attended with hectic fever, cough, etc.

Lev 26:16

Lev 26:15 - burning ague - coldness and shivering as before the onset of a cold.

Lev 26:16

Lev 26:16 - and cause sorrow of heart - the result of the plagues and pestilence will be death, causing sorrow of heart.

Lev 26:16

Lev 26:16 - and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it - See Judges 6:1-11

Lev 26:17

Lev 26:17 - And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you - See Judges 6:12, 13

Lev 26:17

Lev 26:17 - and ye shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you - See Judges 2:13-15

Lev 26:18

Lev 26:18 - times - the word "time" in the context of prophecy is to be interpreted prophetically to mean a prophetic year comprised of 360 prophetic days, or rather 360 literal years (Num 14:34; Ezekiel 4:6). This is the first example of the use of the term, however other examples may be found here: - Dan 7:25 - Dan 11:24 - Dan 12:7 - Rev 12:14 (compare to Rev 12:6) God promised that if Israel turned from observing the words of the Law, He would make their plagues "wonderful... and of long continuance" [to stand firm or lasting]. Deut 28:58, 59; Isa 5:4-6

Lev 26:19

Lev 26:19 - And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass - See Deut 11:17

Lev 26:19

Lev 26:19 - I will break the pride of your power - See Isa 28:1-3 The first form of their punishment stated in connection with the first mention of the period is, "And I will break the pride of your power." If their kingly form of civil government is here referred to, it was never "broken" until the captivity of Manasseh. Although it was the case, after the division of the Heb into the ten tribes and two tribes, that they were several times made tributary to foreigners, still one division remained independent while the other was subdued and tributary until his captivity; but at this period the ten tribes had lost their king, (2Kin xvii. 1-18,) and as soon as Manasseh, the king of the remaining division, was carried into captivity, their "power," as an independent people, was gone. Manasseh was the pride and the ruin of the Jews. {1843 ApH, TSAM 37.1}

Lev 26:20

Lev 26:20 - your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits - See Eze 22:24

Lev 26:21

Lev 26:21 - I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins - See Amos 4:10

Lev 26:22

Lev 26:22 - I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number - the fulfillment of this prophecy occurred literally as in wild beasts devouring souls. However, the same destruction is noted spiritually as false prophets, who like roaring lions, destroyed souls through their lies and deceptions. See Judges 2:15; Eze 22:25, 27; Deut 32:24; Jer 5:6, 15:7, 18:21

Lev 26:22

Lev 26:22 - destroy your cattle - "they have taken the treasure and precious things" See Eze 22:25

Lev 26:24

Lev 26:24 - Then will I also walk contrary unto you - See Ps 104:29

Lev 26:25

Lev 26:25 - And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of my covenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy - In removing His hand of protection (Lam 2:3), God would bring His sword that will avenge the quarrel of His covenant. See Deut 4:23-28; Am 5:25-27

Lev 26:25

Lev 26:25 - quarrel of my covenant - The Lord's covenant contests (quarrels) with the unfaithfulness of men. In its being trampled down, the covenant demands justice, from which God sends a sword of chastisement.

Lev 26:25

Lev 26:25 - when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you - See Eze 22:19-22

Lev 26:26

Lev 26:26 - broken the staff of your bread - broken the support of their bread; when famine sets in and that which is to bring forth food has been cut off. See Amos 4:9

Lev 26:26

Lev 26:26 - and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied - See Deut 28:53-57

Lev 26:27

Lev 26:27 - And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary unto me - See Jer 25:1-8

Lev 26:29

Lev 26:29 - And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat - Deut 28:49-57; Jer 19:9

Lev 26:30

Lev 26:30 - And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and cast your carcases upon the carcases of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you - See Deut 12:1-3; Jer 19:13; Mic 5:13

Lev 26:31

Lev 26:31 - I will make your cities waste, and bring your sanctuaries unto desolation - the sanctuaries here spoken are (Miqdash), holy places or shrines for idols. See Dan 8:11

Lev 26:32

Lev 26:32 - and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished at it - See 2Kin 21:12-17; Jer 19:3-8; Eze 36:18-23

Lev 26:33

Lev 26:33 - And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste - See Nehemiah 1:8; Jer 25:9-11; Jam 1:1

Lev 26:34

Lev 26:34 - Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths - See Lev 25:1-7; Jer 25:11, 17:19-27

Lev 26:35

Lev 26:35 - because it did not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it - See Lev 25:3-6; Eccl 8:11, 12

Lev 26:36

Lev 26:36-39 - And upon them that are left alive of you I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth - See Jer 24:8-10

Lev 26:38

Lev 26:38 - And ye shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up - See Deut 28:36

Lev 26:40

Lev 26:40-42 - If they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me - See Jer 31:18-20, 24:7; Ezekiel 36:20-31

Lev 26:40

Lev 26:40 - confess their iniquity - to not only confess but repent of one's iniquities: 1. To acknowledge the act and one's willfulness or ignorance in the act 2. To recognize its sinfulness [breaking the commandment(s) of God] 3. To recognize the breach it has caused in one's relationship with God and others 4. To repent and show remorse for the offense and regret for having committed it

Lev 26:40

Lev 26:40 - the iniquity of their fathers - the sins to which we have been socialized or have inherited [sins of heredity].

Lev 26:40

Lev 26:40 - with their trespass which they trespassed against Me - how we have crossed over the boarder of right conduct, decency, respect, and honor towards God

Lev 26:40

Lev 26:40 - they have walked contrary unto me - we have played the role of an adversary towards God; we have given the enemies of God cause to boast and to shame God's name and character. See Ezek 36:20, 21

Lev 26:41

Lev 26:41 - And that I also have walked contrary unto them; and have brought them into the land of their enemies - as we have made ourselves enemies unto God, He has played the role of an enemy towards us, causing us to go into captivity. - See Lam 2

Lev 26:41

Lev 26:41 - if then their uncircumcised hearts be humbled - if with our unconverted hearts we confess our sins, repent of our sins, acknowledged we have sinned against God, acknowledged we have acted the part of an adversary towards God and therefore, He has acted the role of an Adversary towards us, leading us into captivity, then... See Ezekiel 36:26, 27

Lev 26:41

Lev 26:41 - they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity - it requires a humble spirit to acknowledge one's sins, to reason from cause to effect and recognize the just payment for iniquity. See Jer 31:18, 19

Lev 26:42

Lev 26:42 - Then will I remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land - See Gen 50:24; Ex 2:24, 25 1. Make of them a mighty nation (Rev 7:1-9) 2. Give them an eternal inheritance. A city whose builder and maker is God (Rev 21) 3. Bless them that bless you and curse those that curse you (Mal 4:3) 4. All families of the earth will be blessed through them (Joh 3:16; Gal 4:4; Rom 5:18)

Lev 26:42

Lev 26:42 - and I will remember the land. - See Jer 44:21-23; Isa 32:18; Eze 36:30, 33-35

Lev 26:43

Lev 26:43 - and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity: because, even because they despised my judgments, and because their soul abhorred my statutes - See Jer 31:18, 19; Compared Ex 9:27

Lev 26:44

Lev 26:44 - And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them: for I am the LORD their God See Jer 24:5, 6, Ps 37:24 It was still the Lord's purpose, as it had been from the beginning, that His people should be a praise in the earth, to the glory of His name. During the long years of their exile He had given them many opportunities to return to their allegiance to Him. Some had chosen to listen and to learn; some had found salvation in the midst of affliction. Many of these were to be numbered among the remnant that should return. They were likened by Inspiration to "the highest branch of the high cedar," which was to be planted "upon an high mountain and eminent: in the mountain of the height of Israel." Eze 17:22, 23. - {PK 599.2}

Lev 26:45

Lev 26:45 - that I might be their God - See Ezek 36:28; Jer 31:33

Lev 26:46

Lev 26:46 - These are the statutes and judgments and laws, which the LORD made between him and the children of Israel in mount Sinai by the hand of Moses - See Isa 65:6

Lev 27:25 - shekel of the sanctuary twenty gerahs shall be the shekel. See Dan 5:25

Numbers

Num 1:1

Back to Table of Contents

Num 1:1 - the book of Num gives an account of the organization instated by God for the COI to: 1. Account for all the people 2. Teach and instruct the COI 3. Establish order because God is a God of order (1Cor 14:33) 4. Establish who God appoints, not man, to be in leadership positions (Num 16-18) 5. Prepare the people to fulfill their calling when entering the Promised Land - a royal priesthood and holy nation The book of Num occurs concurrently with the instructions given in the books of Ex and Lev

Num 3:12

Num 3:12 - And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn that openeth the matrix among the children of Israel: therefore the Levites shall be mine - God substitutes the Levites for the firstborn as a result of their fidelity to God when the Image of Jealousy was presented and for the death of the firstborn at that time. See Ex 13, 32:26; Num 3:43

Num 3:43

Num 3:43 - there were 22,273 firstborn accounted where as only 22,000 Levites, a deficit of 273 that needed to be made up by an offering. The deficit of 273 will be made up between the Midnight Cry and the Sunday Law in earths last history when 273 Levites will come forth to do a work for the LORD. See Act 27:2,

Num 4:3

Numbers 4:3 - From thirty years old and upward even until fifty years old, all that enter into the host, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation - See Num 4:47; Lk 3:23

Num 4:7

Num 4:7 - And upon the table of shewbread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to cover withal: and the continual bread shall be thereon: - the table of Shewbread was covered with a blue cloth, a color signifying obedience. There were implements specific to the work of ministering and attending to the Shewbread.

Num 4:47

Num 4:47 - From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that came to do the service of the ministry, and the service of the burden in the tabernacle of the congregation - See Num 4:3; Lk 3:23

Num 5:14

Num 5:14 - And the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled - if the man is upright and God fearing, the spirit of jealousy may be from the Lord in that it reveals a hidden matter that is an offense to the Lord and to the man. Then again, the last verse of the chapter charges the man with iniquity if he bring a false accusation, meaning the spirit of jealousy was not from the Lord. See Num 5:14-31

Num 6:23

Num 6:23-27 - On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them: - the blessing here spoken was given at the conclusion of the cleansing of the sanctuary on the Day of Atonement. Once Atonement had been made, the High Priest would emerge from the sanctuary and speak the following blessing upon the COI.

Num 6:25

Num 6:25 - The LORD make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee - See Ps 119:135

Num 6:27

Num 6:27 - And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel; and I will bless them - the seal of God, God's name and character will be placed upon His people so that they will never again turn to unrighteousness.

Num 9:15

Num 9:15 - And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up the cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony: and at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning. - on August 11, 1840, God had reared His last day tabernacle in the Advent Movement and the cloud descended (Rev 10:1). The people were to tarry and wait in their tents until the cloud was taken up (Dan 7:13, 14) and then they were to move with Christ.

Num 10:1

Num 10:1-27

Num 10:2

Num 10:2 - Make thee two trumpets of silver; of a whole piece shalt thou make them: that thou mayest use them for the calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps - the two trumpets were to gather, warn, and assemble the people when blown according to the command of the Lord.

Num 10:10

Num 10:10 - day of your gladness - the weekly Sabbath is the day of rest and gladness, a delight! See Isa 58:13; Lev 23:3

Num 10:10

Num 10:10 - solemn days - the seven feast days were holy (holidays) days to be announced with a trumpet during the ceremonial sacrifice: See Lev 23:4-37 Passover - Day 14 of 1st Month 31AD Unleavened Bread- Day 15 of 1st Month 31AD First Fruit - Day 16 of 1st Month

31AD Weeks - 50 days after Day 16 1st Month 31AD Trumpets - November 13, 1833 Day of Atonement - October 22, 1844 (Rev 11:15) In gathering - 2nd Coming of Christ (1Thess 4:15, 16)

Num 10:35

Num 10:35 - And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, Rise up, LORD, and let thine enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee - Moses petitioned the Lord to scatter His enemies and those of His people in their sojourn from one location to the next.

Num 10:36

Num 10:36 - And when it rested, he said, Return, O LORD, unto the many thousands of Israel - Moses petitioned the Lord to return and abide among His people when He ceased to move in the cloud. See Ex 25:8

Num 11:1

Num 11:1 - And when the people complained, it displeased the LORD: and the LORD heard it; and his anger was kindled; and the fire of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp - Apparently the people were upset because of their constant sojourn for 2 years, the direct result of their complaining and murmuring. Provocation #7 Ex 14:11, 15:23, 24, 16:3; Num 14:1

Num 11:4

Num 11:4 - And the mixt multitude that was among them fell a lusting; and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat? - the mixed multitude, comprised of those Egyptians that tagged along in the Ex, were instigators in this case of the murmuring and complaining about leaving Egypt. The COI followed their bad lead in complaining. Provocation #8 Ex 14:11, 15:23, 24, 16:3; Num 11:1, 14:1

Num 11:16

Num 11:16 - And the LORD said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee - Out of frustration, Moses cries to the LORD for help in dealing with the rebellious COI. God mercifully instructs him to take 70 chosen men of good character upon whom the LORD would lay His Spirit that they may assist Moses as elders in judging the people.

Num 11:26

Num 11:26 - of them that were written - Eldad and Medad were numbered among the 70 but had not yet arrived to the Tabernacle. Yet, when the Spirit of the Lord was sent out among the 70, they too prophesied [glorified God, spoke of His wonderful works of the past/present/future], though they were not yet among the group of 70

Num 11:29

Num 11:29 - And Moses said unto him, Enviest thou for my sake? would God that all the LORD'S people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his spirit upon them! - Moses wished that all of Israel would humble themselves so that the Holy Spirit would descend upon them and give them utterance as a prophet. This was the divine call that God had purposed for His people, to be a light to the Gentiles and unto the ends of the earth. See Ex 19:5, 6; Num 14:21

Num 12:1

Num 12:1 - And Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he had married an Ethiopian woman - Racism is here noted in the Bible. The murmuring and jealousy the older siblings (Ex 2:1-9) had for their younger brother Moses was manifested through their prejudiced ridicule of his dark-skinned wife Zipporah. This offense to Moses and towards his wife must have hurt sharply. See Act 6:1

Num 12:1

Num 12:1-7 - spake against Moses - Miriam and Aaron. Miriam's name is given first, since she was the leader in the murmuring. Spake. The verb is feminine, singular number, pointing to Miriam as the instigator. "She spake." Ethiopian woman. Literally, a "Cushite woman" (see on Gen. 10:6). Zipporah's father was actually a Midianite (Ex. 2:16-19; 3:1), and thus a descendant of Abraham (Gen. 25:1, 2 PP 383). Upon rejoining Moses at Mt. Sinai (see on Ex. 4:25 and 18:2), Zipporah had observed the heavy burdens borne by her husband and expressed to Jethro her fears for his well-being. Thereupon Jethro counseled Moses to select others to share the responsibilities of administration with him. When Moses acted upon this counsel without first consulting Miriam and Aaron, they became jealous of him and blamed Zipporah for what they considered Moses' neglect of them (see PP 383). The fact that Zipporah was a Midianite, though a worshiper of the true God, was used by Miriam and Aaron merely as an excuse for rebelling against the authority of Moses. He did not violate the principle of nonmarriage with the heathen when he took her to wife, as they apparently claimed. {SDA Commentary vol 1}

Num 12:2

Num 12:2 - And they said, Hath the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? hath he not spoken also by us? - In pride, jealousy and envy, Miriam, as ringleader of the rebellion, pridefully asks if God has not spoken by her also. See Ex 15:20

Num 12:2

Num 12:2 - And the LORD heard it - whether Moses heard all that was said, the Lord heard it, and it displeased Him.

Num 12:3

Num 12:3 - Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth - Moses, through trial had developed that strength of character that would not permit him to retaliate, murmur, nor complain (James 1:2-4). God saw the injustice towards His faithful servant and took vengeance on his behalf.

Num 12:3

Num 12:3 - meek - meekness is strength under control; being fully capable of acting in one's strength but showing restraint. See Job 42:10

Num 12:4

Num 12:4 - God gathered the three siblings together in the outer court, the Tabernacle of the Congregation, away from the people, but in His midst in the sanctuary.

Num 12:5

Num 12:5 - And the LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth - God calls forth the perpetrators to stand before Him in judgment.

Num 12:6

Num 12:6 - If there be a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream - a prophet is one who speaks for God under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit - see Hosea 12:6; 1 Cor. 12:10, 29; 14:1, 4, 22; 1 Thess. 5:20; cf. 2Pet 1:21). {SDA Bible Commentary vol 6 on 1Cor 11:6}

Num 12:7

Num 12:7 - who is faithful in all mine house - in God's household, Moses was found to be faithful - See Mt 25:21, 23

Num 12:8

Num 12:8 - With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the LORD shall he behold: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses? - God expresses His intimate relationship with His servant Moses. Unlike other prophets who were given veiled messages and even riddles to convey to the people, God spoke directly to Moses as a friend, and even allowed him to see His form. See Eze 17:2; Ex 33:11, 19-23

Num 12:8

Num 12:7 - not in dark speeches - the Lord spoke in parables and in riddles at times so that the people were forced to prayerfully study and meditate on the words given to them. Such was not the cases with Moses. God spoke direct truths to Moses as a Friend communing with a friend. See Ezek 17:2; Mt 11:7-15

Num 12:8

Num 12:8 - and the similitude of the LORD shall he behold - Moses was even granted to see the form (similitude) of God and not be consumed. See Ex 33:19-23

Num 12:8

Num 12:8 - afraid - careful, guarded, cautious, respectful

Num 12:9

Num 12:9 - And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he departed - God is a friend Who sticks closer than a brother. God had anger for the way His friend was being treated and pronounced judgment against the rebels.

Num 12:10

Num 12:10 - And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle; and, behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous - As the ringleader, God pronounced judgment upon Miriam. God perhaps did not curse Aaron with leprosy, for as High Priest, that would have disqualified him from the post.

Num 12:13

Num 12:13 - And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, Heal her now, O God, I beseech thee - In mercy, Moses pled for the one who showed no grace or mercy to himself. Moses' works were doubly righteous (God-like) as he prayed for the just and the unjust, just as his Father in heaven. See Job 42:10

Num 12:15

Num 12:15 - And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days: and the people journeyed not till Miriam was brought in again - Miriam bore her shame publicly for speaking against the Lord's anointed and his household.

Num 13:2

Num 13:2 - Send thou men, that they may search the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, every one a ruler among them - See Josh 18:8

Num 13:6

Num 13:6 - Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh - See Josh 14:6, 7

Num 13:27

Num 13:27 - And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it. - See Deut 1:25

Num 13:31

Num 13:31 - We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we. - See Gen 19:17-19; Deut 1:26 CONTRAST Josh 2:24 The Israelites crossed the river Arnon and advanced upon the foe. An engagement took place, in which the armies of Israel were victorious; and, following up the advantage gained, they were soon in possession of the country of the Amorites. It was the Captain of the Lord's host who vanquished the enemies of His people; and He would have done the same thirty-eight years before had Israel trusted in Him . - {PP 435.1}

Num 13:32

Num 13:32 - The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it are men of a great stature. - In the conquest of Gilead and Bashan there were many who recalled the events which nearly forty years before had, in Kadesh, doomed Israel to the long desert wandering. They saw that the report of the spies concerning the Promised Land was in many respects correct. The cities were walled and very great, and were inhabited by giants, in comparison with whom the Heb were mere pygmies. But they could now see that the fatal mistake of their fathers had been in distrusting the power of God. This alone had prevented them from at once entering the goodly land. - {PP 436.3}

Num 13:33

Num 13:33 - And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, which come of the giants: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight - See Josh 11:21, 22

Num 14:2

Num 14:2 - Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness! - The people, in forgetting the foundations of their faith (God's deliverance of Israel with a mighty outstretched hand from Egypt), rebelled and forsook the rest God purposed for them in entering the promised land (1Cor 10:1-6, 9-11; Heb 3:17-19, 4:2, 6). Provocation #10 Ex 14:11, 15:23, 24, 16:3 "And all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people wept that night." Revolt and open mutiny quickly followed; for Satan had full sway, and the people seemed bereft of reason. They cursed Moses and Aaron, forgetting that God hearkened to their wicked speeches, and that, enshrouded in the cloudy pillar, the Angel of His presence was witnessing their terrible outburst of wrath. In bitterness they cried out, "Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness!" Then their feelings rose against God: "Wherefore hath the Lord brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt? And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt." Thus they accused not only Moses, but God Himself, of deception, in promising them a land which they were not able to possess. And they went so far as to appoint a captain to lead them back to the land of their suffering and bondage, from which they had been delivered by the strong arm of Omnipotence. - {PP 389.2}

Num 14:3

Num 14:3 - And wherefore hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt? - See Num 14:31; Deut 1:27, 39

Num 14:4

Num 14:4 - And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt - See Neh 9:17

Num 14:9

Num 14:9 - Only rebel not ye against the LORD, neither fear ye the people of the land; for they are bread for us: their defence is departed from them, and the LORD is with us: fear them not - See Num 13:20; Deut 1:19-21

Num 14:17

Num 14:17 - according as thou hast spoken saying, The LORD is longsuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression - Moses, in humble and sincere zeal for God and His honor, pleads for the people, that the LORD not destroy them, and reminds the LORD of His promises, embodied in His character - longsuffering, forgiving, merciful, just. See Ex 34:5-8

Num 14:18

Num 14:18 - The LORD is longsuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation - Moses reminded the Lord of Who He is which pleased the Lord. See Ex 34:6, 7

Num 14:21

Num 14:21 - But as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD - See Lev 10:1-3; Rev 18:1; Josh 4:24; Isa 60:1-5; Ps 19:1-3 The LORD speaks prophetically of the end times, when His glory will be revealed in the lives and characters of the remnant. God's Spirit will be poured out in all the world upon God's last day evangelists, and they will be empowered, bearing Christ's character to gather in the LORD's final harvest. See Rev 18:1; Act 3:19. The COI rejected the opportunity to be a type of this great gathering in and "deliverance" when the rejected entering in the promised land for unbelief. Their children, which they claimed would be eaten by the inhabitants of the land, would first subdue Jericho, the stronghold for the rest of the land of promise. Jericho would fall with the sounding of the 7th trumpet (see Joshua 6:15-21), thus foreshadowing the collapse of Modern Babylon under the 7th Trumpet, when God's glory will fill the earth (Rev 18:1-8). See Hab 2:14

Num 14:22

Num 14:22 - Because all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice - See Ps 95:9

Num 14:24

Num 14:24 - But my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto he went; and his seed shall possess it - See Deut 1:36

Num 14:29

Num 14:29, 30 - Your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness; and all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against me, 30 Doubtless ye shall not come into the land, concerning which I swear to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. - See Heb 3:13-4:3

Num 14:31

Num 14:31 - But your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which ye have despised. - See Num 14:3; Deut 1:27, 39

Num 14:34

Num 14:34 - each day for a year - See Eze 4:6; Dan 8:14, 9:24-27; Rev 12:6

Num 14:37

Num 14:37 - Even those men that did bring up the evil report upon the land, died by the plague before the LORD - God did not suffer the 10 leaders of the tribes who doubted Him and brought a bad report which poisoned the minds of the people to live. God caused those men to die of the plague to rid the camp of such scoffers, naysayers and evil men.

Num 14:39

Num 14:39-45 - Lo, we be here - When the COI rebelled against God and found themselves under His curse, they resorted to presumed obedience, thinking they could reverse God's pronounced curse and find His pleasure. They purposed then to go to war with their enemies, as God had originally intended for them to do, only they sought to do it in their own strength, thinking God would honor their "shamed obedience". God's presence, through the Ark of the Covenant, was not with them nor was His prophet Moses and therefore they suffered a staggering loss.

Num 14:40

Num 14:40 - Lo, we be here, and will go up unto the place which the LORD hath promised: for we have sinned - acting out of guilt, impulse, presumption and self-righteousness, the people purposed to do in their own strength the very thing God had purposed to do for them. This is the spirit of self-exaltation. See Ex 19:3-8

Num 14:42

Num 14:42 - Go not up, for the LORD is not among you; that ye be not smitten before your enemies - See Deut 1:42, 43; Act 5:38; 1Sam 3:11-14||4:1-11, 1Sam 15:10-26|| 16:14, 15||31:1-6; Contrast Ex 33:12-23

Num 15:23

Num 15:23 - commanded you by the hand of Moses - It is an established fact that the 10 Commandments were written by the finger of God. However, it is little understood that the LORD had Moses write commandments contained in ordinances and services. See Eph 2:15

Num 15:24

Num 15:24 - Then it shall be, if ought be committed by ignorance without the knowledge of the congregation - See Lev 4

Num 15:32

Num 15:32 - they found a man that gathered sticks upon the sabbath day - the man acted peevishly and frowardly (Prov 4:24), deliberately disregarding the counsels spoken to him regarding the Sabbath. He paid for his rebellion with his own life. See Ex 35:2; Jer 17:19-23

Num 15:35

Num 15:35 - And the LORD said unto Moses, The man shall be surely put to death: all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp - See Ex 31:34.

Num 16:2

Num 16:2 - with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, famous in the congregation, men of renown - Korah and company recruited the most influential men to join their rebellion and coup de ta. Perhaps among them were those chosen to be judges by Moses (Deut 1:12-16). Such it is in politics, to lure men of influence to a position to gain the support of the masses. See Num 16:19

Num 16:3

Num 16:3 - Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy - the same arguments made against God in heaven by the rebellious Lucifer, that God was exalting Himself at the expense of the heavenly hosts who were all holy, are made by the three rebels against Moses and Aaron. The same spirit of self-exaltation and the accusing words of tyranny was projected upon those seeds of the serpent who followed in the devil's footsteps. The assertion that all Israel is holy unto the LORD has been perpetuated in the modern Evangelical conception of end time events. See Rom 9:6, 7; Jer 18:18

Num 16:3

Num 16:3 - wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the congregation of the LORD? - The rebels demonstrate a zeal for God but not according to knowledge. Their condemning accusations show the spirit of the dragon more so than that of God. See Rom 10:1-3; Joh 16:1-3

Num 16:5

Num 16:5 - Even tomorrow the LORD will shew who are His, and who is holy - See Ex 19:5, 6; Rom 9:6-8

Num 16:5

Num 16:5 - and will cause him to come near unto Him; even him whom He hath chosen will He cause to come near unto Him - The distinction between the chosen/called and the usurpers will be that the chosen/called will be drawn closer to the LORD. See Heb 7:19;

Num 16:7

Num 16:7 - it shall be that the man whom the LORD doth choose, he shall be holy - we are not to speak against the LORD's anointed, seeing they are holy and consecrated (chosen) of the LORD.

Num 16:9

Num 16:9 - to bring you near to Himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD - See Num 4:1-33

Num 16:10

Num 16:10 - And he hath brought thee near to Him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also? - Not content with the estate that God ordained and honored them with, the sons of Levi sought to usurp the priesthood ordained for Aaron and his sons. See Ex 28:1; Ju 5, 6

Num 16:12

Num 16:12 - We will not come up - the defiance against the servant of the LORD is marked of the LORD. See Mt 16:19, 18:18

Num 16:13

Num 16:13 - Is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness - the words of the rebels Dathan and Abiram prove that the though God had brought them out physically from the land of Egypt, the house of bondage, their hearts and minds were still enslaved to the world. Their murmuring against Moses and Aaron were in truth against the LORD. See Ex 20:1, 2

Num 16:14

Num 16:14 - wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? Taunting and caviling words spoken by the sons of Belial suggesting that Moses, Aaron and the LORD have pulled a fast one on the entire congregation of Israel.

Num 16:15

Num 16:15 - Respect not their offering - See Jer 18:23; Ex 32:32 The book here referred to is the book of records in heaven, in which every name is inscribed, and the acts of all, their sins, and obedience, are faithfully written. When individuals commit sins which are too grievous for the Lord to pardon, their names are erased from the book, and they are devoted to destruction (The Signs of the Times, May 27, 1880). { 7BC 987.8

Num 16:19

Num 16:19 - And Korah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation - The rebellion by the instigator Korah was carried to all the host of the camp of Israel.

Num 16:21

Num 16:21 - Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment - See Ex 32:7-11

Num 16:35

Num 16:35 - And there came out a fire from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense - Those men who offered profane offerings to the LORD were consumed by His wrathful fire. See Lev 10:1, 2; 2Kin 1:10-12

Num 16:37

Num 16:37 - scatter thou the fire yonder - Apparently the LORD did not desire this holy fire, used to consume the rebels to be used for any other purposes.

Num 16:40

Num 16:40 - To be a memorial unto the Children of Israel, that no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the LORD

Num 16:41

Num 16:41 - But on the morrow all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the LORD - In fickle rebellion, the people showed their perverse hearts, hardened in rebellion towards the LORD (Num 16:30-33), by siding with the rebels Korah, Dathan and Abiram, saying to Aaron and Moses, "Ye have killed the people of the LORD" (See Ps 64:7-9). The LORD showed His great displeasure and swift recompense for the rebellion in immediately sending a plague among the people. The day before, all Israel had fled in alarm at the cry of the doomed sinners who went down into the pit; for they said: "Lest the earth swallow us up also." "But on the morrow all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the Lord." In their indignation they were prepared to lay violent hands upon the men of God's appointment, who they believed had done a great wrong in killing those who were good and holy. - {3T 357.1} Here we find a striking exhibition of the blindness that will compass human minds that turn from light and evidence. Here we see the strength of settled rebellion, and how difficult it is to be subdued. Surely the Heb had had the most convincing evidence in the destruction of the men who had deceived them; but they still stood forth boldly and defiantly, and accused Moses and Aaron of killing good and holy men. "For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry." - {3T 357.3}

Num 18:3

Num 18:3 - only they shall not come nigh the vessels of the sanctuary and the alter, that neither they, nor ye also, die. - See 2Chron 26:16-21; Num 18:7

Num 18:20

Num 18:20 - And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel - See Josh 13:14, 33

Num 20:2

Num 20:2 - And there was no water for the congregation: and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron - See Ex 17:1-6

Num 20:3

Num 20:3 And the people chode with Moses, and spake, saying, Would God that we had died when our brethren died before the LORD! - When the Heb were thirsty and could find no water, they became impatient and did not remember the power of God which had, nearly forty years before, brought them water out of the rock. Instead of trusting God, they complained of Moses and Aaron, and said to them, "Would God that we had died when our brethren died before the Lord!" That is, they wished that they had been of that number who had been destroyed by the plague in the rebellion of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. - {SR 164.2}

Num 20:8

Num 20:8-11 Moses was supposed to speak to the Rock, once cleft for the sins of men, Who would bring forth living waters. Jesus need not be struck again because He died once for the sins of men. See Heb 9:24-28, 10:12; Rom 6:9, 10

Num 20:8

Num 20:8 - speak ye unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall give forth his water - Unlike God's previous command to strike the rock (Ex 17:6), Moses was supposed to speak to the Rock, once cleft for the sins of men, Who would bring forth living waters. Jesus need not be struck again because He died once for the sins of men. See Heb 9:24-28, 10:12; Rom 6:9, 10

Num 20:10

Num 20:11 - must we fetch you water of of this rock? - Here Moses sinned. He became wearied with the continual murmurings of the people against him, and at the commandment of the Lord, took the rod, and, instead of speaking to the rock, as God commanded him, he smote it with the rod twice, after saying, "Must we fetch you water out of this rock?" He here spoke unadvisedly with his lips. He did not say, God will now show you another evidence of His power and bring you water out of this rock. He did not ascribe the power and glory to God for causing water to again flow from the flinty rock, and therefore did not magnify Him before the people. For this failure on the part of Moses, God would not permit him to lead the people to the Promised Land. - {SR 165.3}

Num 20:11

Num 20:11 - And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also - Though

Moses rebelled in performing the direct command of the LORD, He still honored His request in bringing forth water from the rock. This mistake would cost Moses in entering the Promised Land.

Num 20:12

Num 20:12 , 23-29 - Aaron shall be gathered - because Moses and Aaron failed to heed the voice of God in every particular and smote the rock, rather than speaking to the rock, neither would be permitted to enter the Promised Land. Aaron would die upon Mt. Hor. God sought to teach the object lesson that Jesus only needed to be smitten once for the sins of men and thereafter, we only need to come to Him in contrition and repentance to receive the gift of His forgiveness. See Rom 6:10; Heb 7:27, 9:28, 10:10; 1Pet 3:18

Num 20:12

Num 20:12- to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel - to set me apart, to exalt, magnify, glorify and honor Me before the people. This necessity for the manifestation of God's power made the occasion one of great solemnity, and Moses and Aaron should have improved it to make a favorable impression upon the people. But Moses was stirred, and in impatience and anger with the people, because of their murmurings, he said, "Hear now, ye rebels, must we fetch you water out of this rock?" In thus speaking he virtually admitted to murmuring Israel that they were correct in charging him with leading them from Egypt. God had forgiven the people greater transgressions than this error on the part of Moses, but He could not regard a sin in a leader of His people as in those who were led. He could not excuse the sin of Moses and permit him to enter the Promised Land. - {SR 166.1} The Lord here gave His people unmistakable proof that He who had wrought such a wonderful deliverance for them in bringing them from Egyptian bondage, was the mighty Angel, and not Moses, who was going before them in all their travels, and of whom He had said, "Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared. Beware of Him, and obey His voice, provoke Him not; for He will not pardon your transgressions: for My name is in Him." Exodus 23:20, 21. - {SR 166.2} Moses took glory to himself which belonged to God, and made it necessary for God to do that in his case which should forever satisfy rebellious Israel that it was not Moses who had led them from Egypt, but God Himself. The Lord had committed to Moses the burden of leading His people, while the mighty Angel went before them in all their journeyings and directed all their travels. Because they were so ready to forget that God was leading them by His Angel, and to ascribe to man that which God's power alone could perform, He had proved them and tested them, to see whether they would obey Him. At every trial they failed. Instead of believing in, and acknowledging, God, who had strewn their path with evidences of His power and signal tokens of His care and love, they distrusted Him and ascribed their leaving Egypt to Moses, charging him as the cause of all their disasters. Moses had borne with their stubbornness with remarkable forbearance. At one time they threatened to stone him. - {SR 166.3}

Num 20:12

Num 20:12 - therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them - See Deut 1:37

Num 20:13

Num 20:13 - Meribah - Mriybah Proper Name Location mer-ee-baw' the same as (04808) the same as ; Meribah, the name of two places in the Desert:--Meribah. Meribah = "strife" or "contention"

Num 20:14

Num 20:14 - And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the travail that hath befallen us - Moses speak to Edom as if kin, appealing to the familial ties that once bonded the two nations. Unfortunately, the Edomites did not feel the same feelings of fealty. See Num 20:18-21

Num 20:21

Num 20:21 - Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border: wherefore Israel turned away from him - See Obadiah 1:10

Num 20:24

Num 20:24 - Aaron shall be gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land which I have given unto the children of Israel, because ye rebelled against my word at the water of Meribah - See Num 20:1-12

Num 20:28

Num 20:28 - And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there in the top of the mount: and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mount - Aaron's rebellion at Meribah cost his entering the earthly Promised Land. Aaron died at Mount Hor, for the Lord had said that he should not enter the Promised Land, because, with Moses, he had sinned at the time of bringing water from the rock at Meribah. Moses and the sons of Aaron buried him in the mount, that the people might not be tempted to make too great ceremony over his body, and be guilty of the sin of idolatry. - {SR 168.3}

Num 21:4

Num 21:4-9 fiery serpents - the toilsome journey around Edom stirred the spirit of rebellion again in the COI who murmured against God and Moses. God therefore sent them fiery snakes to kill the rebellious. Moses was commanded to make a brazen serpent on a pole that brought healing to all who chose to "look and live".

Num 21:9

Num 21:9 - And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived - See Joh 3:14, 12:32-34; 2Kin 18:4

Num 21:13

Num 21:13-14 - book of the wars of the Lord - God commanded the COI chronicle the wars they fought as they journeyed to the Promised Land.

Num 21:21

Num 21:21 - And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, saying - See Deut 2:24-30

Num 21:24

Num 21:24 - And Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from

Arnon unto Jabbok, even unto the children of Ammon: for the border of the children of Ammon was strong - See Josh 9:10

Num 22:23

Num 22:23 - And the ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and the ass turned aside out of the way - the ass caused Balaam, the false prophet to turn out of the way. So it was on 9/11/2001, when the kings of the earth all looked upon Israel and sought to do it harm but were turned out of the way in haste and in fear. See Ps 48:1-6

Num 22:25

Num 22:25 - And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she thrust herself unto the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall - Balaam's legs are crushed between two walls, typifying the crushing blow the U.S. will face at the Midnight Cry as it passes an Image to the Beast.

Num 22:27

Num 22:27 - And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she fell down under Balaam - As the horse falls, so goes the rider. Balaam's fall typifies the fall of the USA, the False Prophet when it passes a Sunday Law. National apostasy will lead to national ruin.

Num 23:8

Num 23:8 - How shall I curse, whom God hath not cursed? or how shall I defy, whom the LORD hath not defied? - See Isa 14:27

Num 23:9

Num 23:9 - For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him - a possible reference to God's glorious holy mountain, Jesus standing victoriously with the 144,000. See Dan 11:45; Rev 14:1; Mic 4:1, 2

Num 23:9

Num 23:9 - lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations - See Deut 33:27, 28; Lev 20:26; Act 23:17, 18; 1Kin 8:53; Ezra 10:11 God desired that His people would be separate from all other nations. This would be accomplished by them abiding in and with Him (Ex 33:13, 14). They would therefore be consecrated and sanctified by the Lord. They would thus be able to mingle with all peoples of the world, would stand true to God's words and commandments without defilement, while being a light to the rest of the world. God purposed that Israel would not be as any other nation on earth but that it would be unique, peculiar and above all other nations (Deut 4:1-8; Lev 20:26). God would establish them in their own land and they would be set apart from all other nations (2Sam 7:10). God desired to be the One, Eternal ruling King over Israel so that He might fight their battles, impart all of His oracles for them to share with the nations, and bless them that they might be an exalted kingdom of priests. Intrinsic in this desire was a SEPARATION OF CHURCH AND STATE. God did not desire that Israel have any earthly government [God gave Israel Judges who would mediate over social affairs and would direct the people to a love of the Lord], but that love for Him and His laws would be all sufficient to maintain order and a common regard for God and one's fellow men. They however, sought to be like all other nations, rejecting God as King and imitating the abominations of the heathen. (Ex 19:3-6). See Mt 22:21; Mk 12:17; Lk 20:25; Gen 12:1; Heb 11:24, 25; 2Cor 6:17; Lev 20:24

Num 23:10

Num 23:10 - Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? - an innumerable number is being referred to, the redeemed. See Rev 7:9; Hos 1:10

Num 23:10 - Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his! - See Ps 37:37

Num 23:19

Num 23:19 - God is not a man, that he should lie - See Heb 6:17, 18; 1Sam 15:29; 1Cor 14:33, 36, 37, 40; Josh 23:14

Num 23:19

Num 23:19 - hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? - See Isa 46:11, 55:11; Heb 6:17, 13:8; Mal 3:6

Num 23:20

Num 23:20 - Behold, I have received commandment to bless: and he hath blessed; and I cannot reverse it - no weapons formed against the blessed of the Lord shall prosper and every tongue that rises up in judgement shall be condemned. See Isa 54:17;

Num 23:21

Num 23:21 - He hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither hath he seen perverseness in Israel: the LORD his God is with him, and the shout of a king is among them - The sealed of God, the 144,000 is here foreshadowed. See Rev 14:1-5

Num 23:22

Num 23:22 - God brought them out of Egypt - As God has brought ancient Israel out of Egypt (Ex 12:31-42, 19:3-6, 20:2; Hos 11:1; Mt 2:15), He purposes to bring Spiritual Israel both out of Egypt and out Babylon. See Rev 18:1-4; To-day, the word is, "Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." That is Babylon. And in the eleventh chapter of the book of Rev, it speaks of that which is "spiritually called Egypt;" and they who get the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over the mark, and the number of his name "sing the song of Moses"-not something like it-but "the song of Moses the servant of God." What was the song of Moses?-The song of deliverance from Egypt. Then, when those who get the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, sing the song of Moses, it is because they are delivered from Egypt. Because, to-day, and to the end of the world, "Out of Egypt have I called my son." There is to-day a Babylon and an Egypt. To-day there are people of God in Babylon and in Egypt. And to-day the Lord calls, "Come out of her my people;" and, "Out of Egypt have I called my son." {March 15, 1897 ATJ, GCDB Q48.2} Look at it again: Where was Nimrod?-He was in Babylon, and governed the realm of Babylon. Where was Abraham?-He was in the country ruled by the kingdom established by Nimrod. But God called him out of that country. That country was Babylon both spiritually and physically. And more than this: Nimrod was the son of Cush, and Cush was the son of Ham, and Egypt is the land of Ham. So that in Nimrod there was both Egypt and Babylon. And when God called Abraham, he called him out of both Egypt and Babylon. And "if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." And ye are called out of both Egypt and Babylon. {March 15, 1897 ATJ, GCDB Q48.3}

Num 23:23

Num 23:23 - Surely there is no enchantment against Jacob, neither is there any divination against Israel - See Isa 54:17, 10:1; Ps 2:1-4, 91:1-10; 1Jo 5:18

Num 23:23

Num 23:23 - according to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What hath God wrought! - To this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel [the redeemed of the Lord], "Look at What God has done!!"

Num 23:24

Num 23:24 - Behold, the people shall rise up as a great lion, and lift up himself as a young lion: he shall not lie down until he eat of the prey, and drink the blood of the slain - See Isa 41:15, 16; Dan 2:35; Mic 4:11-13; Jer 51:19-24, 33; Rev 12:5

Num 23:24

Num 23:24 - rise up as a great lion, and lift up himself as a young lion - See Gen 49:9

Num 24:1

Num 24:1 - when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he went not, as at other times, to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness. - When the need arises God may use an evil person to bear a true message. God may speak to a man directly or in a dream (Num. 22:9, 20), or by a messenger (v. 32). In harmony with Balaam's experience here, compare Isa. 48:16; 61:1; Mic 3:8. {SDA Commentary}

Num 24:1

Num 24:1 - When the need arises God may use an evil person to bear a true message. God may speak to a man directly or in a dream (Num. 22:9, 20), or by a messenger (v. 32). In harmony with Balaam's experience here, compare Isa. 48:16; 61:1; Mic 3:8. {SDA Commentary}

Num 24:4 - He hath said, which heard the words of God, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open - See Num 24:16; 1Sam 3:1

Num 24:6

Num 24:7 - as gardens by the river's side, as the trees of lign aloes which the LORD hath planted, and as cedar trees beside the waters - See Ps 1:3; Jer 17:7, 8

Num 24:8

Num 24:8 - God brought him forth out of Egypt - See Num 23:22

Num 24:8

Num 24:8 - he shall eat up the nations his enemies, and shall break their bones, and pierce them through with his arrows - See Num 23:24; Isa 41:15, 16

Num 24:9

Num 24:9 - He couched, he lay down as a lion, and as a great lion: who shall stir him up? - See Gen 49:9

Num 24:9

Num 24:9 - Blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee - the blessing pronounced to Abraham is the blessing given to the redeemed, the 144,000. See Gen 12:3

Num 24:16

Num 24:16 - He hath said, which heard the words of God, and knew the knowledge of the most High, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open: - Baal am was given open visions where the Lord revealed to him things to come. See Num 24:4; 1Sam 3:1

Num 24:17

Num 24:17 - there shall come a Star out of Jacob, and a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and shall smite the corners of Moab, and destroy all the children of Sheth. - Jesus, the Bright and Morning Star (Rev 22:16) would arise, first with healing in His wings to draw the world to Himself (Mal 4:2); then as a conquering King to destroy all those that hate Him (Rev 12:5).

Num 24:20

Num 24:20 - Amalek was the first of the nations; but his latter end shall be that he perish for ever - See Ex 17:9-16; 1Sam 15:3

Num 25:2

Num 25:2 - And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods: and the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods - the gods worshipped at Baalpeor were none other than the fallen heroes of the Moabites, worshipped through witchcraft (see Ps 106:28). The sacrifices offered to the dead were miraculously answered by devils, spoken of by Paul in 1Cor 10:20.

Num 25:6

Num 25:1-6 - Midianitish woman - in the midst of the plague of retribution from the Lord, Zimri the Israelite of the tribe of Simeon boldly brings a Midianite woman into the camp and lays with her in the face of Moses. The woman, Cozbi, was the daughter of a Midianite King, Zur (Num 25:15, 31:8). Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, in zeal for God's honor, takes a javelin and kills both together. Because Zimri was a head of his tribe, the Lord promises His blessings and protection over Phinehas from any retribution from man and further that he would succeed his father in the High Priesthood.

Num 25:9

Num 25:9 - And those that died in the plague were twenty and four thousand - See 1Cor 10:8

Num 25:11

Num 25:11, 12 - Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, while he was zealous for my sake among them, that I consumed not the children of Israel in my jealousy. 12 Wherefore say, Behold, I give unto him my covenant of peace: - See Ps 106:30, 31

Num 25:11

Num 25:11 - while he was zealous for my sake among them - See Ps 69:9; Joh 2:17

Num 25:12

Num 25:12, 13 - Wherefore say, Behold, I give unto him my covenant of peace: 13 And he shall have it, and his seed after him, even the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he was zealous for his God, and made an atonement for the children of Israel. - God would establish the lineage of Phinehas as priests of God, under-shepherds to the Good Shepherd Whose Priesthood is eternal. See Mal 3:3, 4

Num 27:12

Num 27:12 - And the LORD said unto Moses, Get thee up into this mount Abarim, and see the land which I have given unto the children of Israel - God took Moses up to Mt. Pisgah where he saw all the inheritance of the COI. He would be later buried by the Lord on Mt. Pisgah. Moses was not permitted to enter the earthly Canaan land but the heavenly. See Deut 3:27, 34:1-4

Num 30:1

Num 30:1-16 - vows - the entire chapter gives counsel on the significance of vows and how they are to be upheld or annulled by a father or a husband if they are not in agreement with the vow.

Num 30:7

Num 30:7 - And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard it: then her vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bound her soul shall stand - See 1Sam 1:23

Num 31:2

Num 31:2 - gathered unto thy people - God commanded Moses to perform one last feat for Him and the COI and then he would lie in death because of his sin at the waters of Meribah

Num 31:8

Num 31:8 - Balaam slain - along with the 5 Kings of Midian, among whom was the father of Cozbi [Zur], the woman who with Zimri the Simeonite profaned God and Moses in the rebellion (Num 25:6), Balaam was also killed. Balaam, for money, instructed Midian to cause the COI to sin against the Lord.

Num 31:13

Num 31:13-18 - spare women - Moses was vexed with the leadership of the army for sparing the women of Midian who were responsible for causing the COI to sin. Moses commanded that all male children and women who knew men be killed but the young girls be spared.

Num 31:21

Num 31:21-23 - ordinance regarding spoil - Any spoil/booty taken in war that is gold, silver, brass, iron, tin or lead must go through the fire to purify it. No molten images were to be preserved in their form. All other spoil that could not withstand the fire was to be purified by water.

Num 35:11

Num 35:11 - cities of refuge - Jesus is our "City of Refuge", a very present help in time of trouble. See Ps 46:1

Num 35:11

Num 35:11 - slayer - those who kill. Jesus expounded the true meaning of the term slayer or murderer when He said: "Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; n whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment; But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall ay to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool shall be in danger of hell fire.

Num 35:12

Num 35:12 - cities for refuge from the avenger - the avenger is Satan, who walks about as a roaring lion seeking whom he may destroy. See 1Pet 5:8

Num 35:12

Num 35:12 - until he stand before the congregation in judgment - See Mt 5:22

Num 35:15

Num 35:15- both for the children of israel and for the stranger, and for the sojourner among them - God desire to give refuge to all who come to Him in faith.

Num 35:24

Num 35:24 - Then the congregation shall judge - a trial by peers determines the fate of the accused. So too, we will judge all who have spurned Jesus' gift of salvation.

Num 35:25

Num 35:25 - shall restore him to the city of his refuge - after trial and being absolved of his sin, the slayer is safely returned to the city of refuge to dwell.

Num 35:25

Num 35:25 - unto the death of the high priest - since Jesus' ministry is eternal, the one who committed a sin and forgiven the sin must remain with the Lord forever. See Heb 7:24, 25; Rev 3:12

Num 35:26

Num 35:26 - come without the borders of the city of his refuge - by turning back and leaving the place of safety and refuge, we put ourselves in jeopardy of the avenger, the devil. If taken by the avenger, we will be kiled.

Num 35:31

Num 35:31 - Moreover ye shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which is guilty of death: but he shall be surely put to death - See Gen 9:5, 6

Num 35:34

Num 35:34 - Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, wherein I dwell: for I the LORD dwell among the children of Israel -

Num 36:4

Num 36:4 - And when the jubile of the children of Israel shall be, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers. - See Lev 25:8-13

Deut 1:39 - Moreover your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, and your children, which in that day had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it - See Num 14:3

Deut 1:41

Deut 1:41 - Then ye answered and said unto me, We have sinned against the LORD, we will go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our God commanded us. And when ye had girded on every man his weapons of war, ye were ready to go up into the hill. - See Num 14:39, 40

Deut 1:42

Deut 1:42 - And the LORD said unto me, Say unto them, Go not up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies - See Num 14:42

Deut 1:43

Deut 1:43 - So I spake unto you; and ye would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and went presumptuously up into the hill. - See Num 14:44, 45

Deut 2:1

Deut 2:1 - Seir - Se`iyer say-er' formed like (08163) formed like ; rough; Seir, a mountain of Idumaea and its aboriginal occupants, also one in Palestine:--Seir. Seir = "hairy" or "shaggy" n pr m patriarch of the Horites, the inhabitants of Edom before the descendants of Esau, the Edomites n pr terr the land of Edom, south of the Dead Sea n pr mont a mountain range in Edom extending from the Dead Sea to the Elanitic Gulf apparently also called 'Mount Seir' and extending most of the distance of the mountain range itself a mountain in northern Judah lying westward from Kirjath-jearim

Deut 2:4

Deut 2:4 - And command thou the people, saying, Ye are to pass through the coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir; and they shall be afraid of you - See Num 20:14-21; Obadiah 1:1-21; Mal 1:1-5

Deut 2:5

Deut 2:5 - Meddle not with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a foot breadth; because I have given mount Seir unto Esau for a possession - God had set the bounds of Israel's conquest and they were not to take not even one foot of the land assigned to Esau and his descendants. This is in stark contrast to the spirit of Modern Israel that still claims chosen status of God and yet disregards all of His tenets and precepts. See Deut 2:9, 19

Deut 2:7

Deut 2:7 - For the LORD thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thy hand: he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: these forty years the LORD thy God hath been with thee; thou hast lacked nothing - Deut 8:2-4

Deut 2:9

Deut 2:9 - And the LORD said unto me, Distress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give thee of their land for a possession; because I have given Ar unto the children of Lot for a possession - Once again, God set bounds to Israel's conquest so that they would not infringe upon the lands given to the foreigners, even their close of kin. See Deut 2:5, 19

Deut 2:13

Deut 2:13 - Zered - Zered Proper Name Location zeh'-red from an unused root meaning to be exuberant in growth from an unused root meaning to be exuberant in growth; lined with shrubbery; Zered, a brook East of the Dead Sea:--Zared, Zered. Zered = "osier brook" a river east of the Jordan, in the region of Moab and Edom, a source of the Arnon river

Deut 2:14

Deut 2:14 - And the space in which we came from Kadeshbarnea, until we were come over the brook Zered, was thirty and eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the LORD sware unto them - The men who opposed God in unbelief all died out within 38years, however, all those who were over the age of 20 were to die off before they COI could enter the promised land. Thus, an additional 2yrs of wandering was required. See Num 14:22-39

Deut 2:15

Deut 2:14 - For indeed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were consumed - See Num 14:28-35

Deut 2:19

Deut 2:19 - And when thou comest nigh over against the children of Ammon, distress them not, nor meddle with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession; because I have given it unto the children of Lot for a possession - See Deut 2:5, 9; Judges 11:12

Deut 2:24

Deut 2:24 - Rise ye up, take your journey, and pass over the river Arnon: behold, I have given into thine hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land: begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle - Sihon was a noted mighty king of the Amorites. His conquest by the COI gain them much fear and respect among the foreigners they would eventually conquer. See Josh 2:10, 9:10

Deut 2:25

Deut 2:25 - This day will I begin to put the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the nations that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of thee - Sihon was a noted mighty king of the Amorites. His conquest by the COI gain them much fear and respect among the foreigners they would eventually conquer. See Num 21:21-24; Josh 2:10, 9:10

Deut 2:30

Deut 2:30 - But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him: for the LORD thy God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as appeareth this day - See Num 21:23

Deut 2:34

Deut 2:34 - And we took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed the men, and the women, and the little ones, of every city, we left none to remain - modern critics and scoffers question the wisdom of God in completely annihilating the heathen nations by the COI. In their ignorance, they do not understand the grace and mercy of God, nor do they understand the heinousness of unchecked rebellion and sin (Gen 4:8-16, 6:1-8; Ex 20:4-6). They do not understand that God has appointed a time for every nation and people wherein His grace and mercy abounds to them and they are to accept His salvation while He may be found (Ps 19:1-3; Rom 1:18-32; Act 17:24-27; Gen 15:13-16). Once they have exceeded their term of probation and have rejected God's bountiful attempts to save them, there is no point in their continued existence as their persistent sin will only be a continual reproach and burden to God and a snare for His people who choose righteousness. See Deut 3:3, 6; Josh 6:21, 8:26, 10:28, 39;

Deut 2:37

Deut 2:37 - Only unto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor unto any place of the river Jabbok, nor unto the cities in the mountains, nor unto whatsoever the LORD our God forbad us - See Deut 2:5, 9, 19

Deut 3:1

Deut 3:1 - Then we turned, and went up the way to Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei - See Deut 2:24, 25; Josh 2:10, 9:10

Deut 3:2

Deut 3:2 - And the LORD said unto me, Fear him not: for I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land, into thy hand; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon - See Deut 2:32-35

Deut 3:6

Deut 3:6 - And we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children, of every city - modern critics and scoffers question the wisdom of God in completely annihilating the heathen nations by the COI. In their ignorance, they do not understand the grace and mercy of God, nor do they understand the heinousness of unchecked rebellion and sin (Gen 4:8-16, 6:1-8; Ex 20:4-6). They do not understand that God has appointed a time for every nation and people wherein His grace and mercy abounds to them and they are to accept His salvation while He may be found (Ps 19:1-3; Rom 1:18-32; Act 17:24-27; Gen 15:13-16). Once they have exceeded their term of probation and have rejected God's bountiful attempts to save them, there is no point in their continued existence as their persistent sin will only be a continual reproach and burden to God and a snare for His people who choose righteousness. See Deut 2:34; Josh 6:21, 8:26, 10:28, 39;

Deut 3:11

Deut 3:11 - For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants - Og, the last of the giants and of the notable kings to be subdued by the COI. See Josh 2:10, 9:10

Deut 3:11

Deut 3:11 - nine by four cubits - Og, the giant's bed was nine cubits long and 4 cubits wide (1 cubit=18inches - 13.5' x 6').

Deut 3:11

Deut 3:11 - nine by four cubits - Og, the giant's bed was nine cubits long and 4 cubits wide (1 cubit=18inches - 13.5' x 6').

Deut 3:16

Deut 3:16-18 - And unto the Reubenites and unto the Gadites I gave from Gilead even unto the river Arnon half the valley, and the border even unto the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon - See Josh 1:12-15

Deut 3:21

Deut 3:21 - And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto these two kings: so shall the LORD do unto all the kingdoms whither thou passest - See Josh 1-9, 2:10, 9:10

Deut 3:26

Deut 3:26 - But the LORD was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said unto me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto me of this matter - As Moses plead with the Lord to permit him to go over to see God's deliverance of the land to the COI and to behold the inheritance, the Lord silenced Moses and said not to speak anything more on the subject. I believe it hurt the Lord to not answer His servant's petition, but He had to be true to His word and upholding the perfect standard of righteousness. See Num 20:8-12; 23:19; Deut 32:49-52

Deut 3:27

Deut 3:27 - Get thee up into the top of Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not go over this Jordan - See Deut 34:1-4

Deut 3:28

Deut 3:28 - But charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see

Deut 3:29

Deut 3:29 - Bethpeor - Beyth Proper Name Location from (01004) and (06465) from and ; house of Peor; Beth- Peor, a place East of the Jordan:--Beth-peor. Beth-peor = "house of Peor" a place east of the Jordan, in the land of the Amorites, allotted to the tribe of Reuben

Deut 4:2

Deut 4:2 - Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you - See Rev 22:18, 19; Prov 30:5, 6

Deut 4:4

Deut 4:4 - But ye that did cleave unto the LORD your God are alive every one of you this day - See Gen 2:25

Deut 4:6

Deut 4:6 - Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people - See Mal 3:12; Deut 8:7-11 The education of the Israelites included all their habits of life. Everything that concerned their well-being was the subject of divine solicitude, and came within the province of divine law. It was because the Lord desired to make them His representatives that He provided them with a special bill of fare. They were placed under careful restrictions in regard to their diet. The use of flesh food was almost entirely prohibited. The people were to be holy, and the Lord knew that the use of flesh meat would be a hindrance to their advancement in spiritual life. By a miracle of mercy He fed them with the bread of heaven. The food provided for them was of a nature to promote physical, mental, and moral strength, and ...the wisdom of God's choice for them was vindicated in a manner that they could not gainsay. Notwithstanding the hardships of their wilderness life, there was not a feeble one in all their tribes. - {TDG 77.2}

Deut 4:7

Deut 4:7 - For what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for? - See Deut 28:1; Jer 23:23; Ex 19:6

Deut 4:9

Deut 4:9 - Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently - See Prov 4:23; Deut 6:4-7

Deut 4:10

Deut 4:10 - Specially the day that thou stoodest before the LORD thy God in Horeb, when the LORD said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children - See Ex 19:9-15

Deut 4:11

Deut 4:11 - And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire unto the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness - See Ex 19:16-25

Deut 4:12

Deut 4:12 - And the LORD spake unto you out of the midst of the fire: ye heard the voice of the words, but saw no similitude; only ye heard a voice - God did not reveal any form to the COI, lest they make an idol and worship that which they saw. See Deut 4:15, 17; Joh 1:18

Deut 4:15

Deut 4:15 - Take ye therefore good heed unto yourselves; for ye saw no manner of similitude on the day that the LORD spake unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire - See Deut 4:12; Joh 1:18; CONTRAST Num 12:6-8

Deut 4:19

Deut 4:19 - And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them, and serve them, which the LORD thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven - See Job 31:26; Ezekiel 8:16; Deut 17:1-5

Deut 4:20

Deut 4:20 - and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt - See 1Kin 8:51; Jer 11:4

Deut 4:20

Deut 4:20 - to be unto him a people of inheritance, as ye are this day - See Gal 3:14, 18, 26-29; Eph 1:11-18; Col 1:12, 3:24

Deut 4:21

Deut 4:21 - Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance: - See Deut 34:1-8

Deut 4:23

Deut 4:23 - Take heed unto yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, which the LORD thy God hath forbidden thee - See Ex 20:4-6; Lev 26:25

Deut 4:24

Deut 4:24 - For the LORD thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God - See Deut 9:3; Heb 12:29

Deut 4:27

Deut 4:27 - And the LORD shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the LORD shall lead you - See Lev 26:28-34

Deut 4:28

Deut 4:28 - And there ye shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell - See Isa 44:9-20

Deut 4:29

Deut 4:29, 30 - But if from thence thou shalt seek the LORD thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart and with all thy soul. 30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the LORD thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice; - See Lev 26:40-46

Deut 4:30

Deut 4:30 - latter days - Literally, "in the afterdays." This expression is frequent in a prophetic sense, pointing to the Messiah and to His second coming and kingdom (see Isa. 2:2; Hos 3:5; Act 2:17; Heb. 1:1, 2; 1Pet 1:20; 1Jo 2:18). {SDA Commentary 1}

Deut 4:30

Deut 4:30 - if thou turn to the LORD thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice - See Deut 8:20

Deut 4:31

Deut 4:31 - For the LORD thy God is a merciful God;) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he sware unto them - See Lev 26:42-26

Deut 4:34

Deut 34:35 - Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, by temptations, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? - See Ex 19:3, 4

Deut 4:35

Deut 4:35 - Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest know that the LORD he is God; there is none else beside him - See Deut 4:39; Isa 46:9, 10

Deut 4:37

Deut 4:37 - And because he loved thy fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought thee out in his sight with his mighty power out of Egypt - See Deut 7:6-8

Deut 4:39

Deut 4:39 - Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that the LORD he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else - See Deut 4:35; Isa 46:9, 10

Deut 4:46

Deut 4:46 - On this side Jordan, in the valley over against Bethpeor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel smote, after they were come forth out of Egypt - See Deut 2:24, 25

Deut 5:8

Deut 5:8 - Thou shalt not make thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the earth: - See Deut 4:15-19

Deut 5:12

Deut 5:12 - Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it - honor/uphold the Sabbath day to set it apart in our minds and hearts. See Ex 20:8-11; Isa 58:13, 14; Nehemiah 9:14

Deut 5:15

Deut 5:15 - And remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt - See Ex 20:2; Deut 15:15 Egypt = sin (Heb 11:24-27; Gal 4:20-31) Egypt = world = sin (Gal 4:3; Dan 11:42; Heb 11:23-26; Joh 8:32-36; Mt 6:19-24||1Jo 2:15-17) By the paschal service, God was seeking to call His people away from their worldly cares, and to remind them of His wonderful work in their deliverance from Egypt. In this work He desired them to see a promise of deliverance from sin. As the blood of the slain lamb sheltered the homes of Israel, so the blood of Christ was to save their souls; but they could be saved through Christ only as by faith they should make His life their own. - {DA 82.2}

Deut 5:24 - we have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and he liveth - the fool says there is no God. See Deut 5:26; Ps 14:1; Heb 3:12

Deut 5:29

Deut 5:29 - O that there were such an heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever! - God wishes that Israel, even in their uncircumcised heart, may desire to fear God, then He would fulfill His will in them and they would be exceedingly blessed. See Isa 48:18; Jer 32:39, 40

Deut 6:2

Deut 6:2 - That thou mightest fear the LORD thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be prolonged - See Deut 6:24, 25

Deut 6:4

Deut 6:4 - Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD: - God is One God. The Godhead are singular in purpose and will and in essence though distinct persons. Unlike the heathen which have gods for the various elements of nature, God is Creator and Ruler over all nature and things seen and unseen. See Mk 12:29

Deut 6:4

Deut 6:4 - LORD - Jehovah = "the existing One" the proper name of the one true God unpronounced except with the vowel pointings of 0136

Deut 6:5

Deut 6:5 - heart - See Prov 23:7, 4:23

Deut 6:5

Deut 6:4 - soul - one's being

Deut 6:5

Deut 6:4 - might - strength, energy, efforts

Deut 6:7

Deut 6:7 - And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up - See Deut 4:9-14, 29:29

Deut 6:8

Deut 6:8 - and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes - Prov 4:25-27

Deut 6:9

Deut 6:9 - And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates - all who pass through the gates and the portals of the house should recognize that the house is one where God is honored and revered.

Deut 6:10

Deut 6:10, 11 - And it shall be, when the LORD thy God shall have brought thee into the land which he swore unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly cities, which thou buildedst not, 11 And houses full of all good things, which thou filledst not, and wells digged, which thou diggedst not, vineyards and olive trees, which thou plantedst not; when thou shalt have eaten and be full; - God is reminding them that He will have done it all. They will inherit that which they did not plant, live in houses that they did not erect, be established in cities they had not built all by the grace and strength of God. So it is with the redeemed. We will not have anything to boast of but Jesus Christ and His righteousness. See Ex 15:16, 17

Deut 6:24

Deut 6:24, 25 - it shall be our righteousness - God has given mankind His commandments, statues and judgments that we should keep for our good and live. We are seen as (God imputes/credits His righteousness) righteous by faithfully heeding God's Word and diligently keeping all of His commandments.

Deut 6:25

Deut 6:25 - And it shall be our righteousness, if we observe to do all these commandments before the LORD our God, as He hath commanded us - God has given mankind His commandments, statues and judgments that we should keep for our good and live. We are seen as (God imputes/credits His righteousness) righteous by faithfully heeding God's Word and diligently keeping all of His commandments. See Gen 15:6

Deut 7:1

Deut 7:1 - When the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath cast out many nations before thee, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than thou - See Gen 15:18-21

Deut 7:2

Deut 7:2 - And when the LORD thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them: - God's mercy and probation would have ended towards those heathen people and therefore, they were to be cut-off. No covenant was to be made with them for in so doing one would be making a pact with the enemy [of the Lord].

Deut 7:3

Deut 7:3, 4 - 3 Neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son. 4 For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly - See Gen 6:1, 2; Ezra 9:12

Deut 7:5

Deut 7:5 - But thus shall ye deal with them; ye shall destroy their altars, and break down their images, and cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire - See 2Kin 23

Deut 7:6

Deut 7:6 - For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth. - See Ex 19:6

Deut 7:7

Deut 7:7 - The LORD did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people - God was not impressed with Israel for its stature among the nations because it was the smallest of the nations. So too, God's remnant will not be those who are from the masses but will be a select people who are small in number, despised among the nations but will be holy in character. See Rev 12:17

Deut 7:8

Deut 7:8 - But because the LORD loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. - See Deut 4:37

Deut 7:8

Deut 7:8 - and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers - See Isa 41:8, 9

Deut 7:9

Deut 7:9 - Know therefore that the LORD thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations - See Ex 20:6

Deut 7:9

Deut 7:9 - Know therefore that the LORD thy God, he is God - See 1Kin 18:39

Deut 7:10

Deut 7:10 - And repayeth them that hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him that hateth him, he will repay him to his face - the cry of the wicked will be to hide from the face of He Who sits upon the throne. See Rev 6:16

Deut 7:12

Deut 7:12-14 - Wherefore it shall come to pass, if ye hearken to these judgments, and keep, and do them, that the LORD thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which he sware unto thy fathers: 13 And he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he swore unto thy fathers to give thee. 14 Thou shalt be blessed above all people: there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle. - See Lev 26:3-13

Deut 7:13 - And he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he swore unto thy fathers to give thee - See Lev 26:4, 5, 9, 10

Deut 7:14

Deut 7:14 - Thou shalt be blessed above all people: there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle - See Lev 26:9

Deut 7:15

Deut 7:15 - And the LORD will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee; but will lay them upon all them that hate thee - See Ex 15:26

Deut 7:16

Deut 7:16 - And thou shalt consume all the people which the LORD thy God shall deliver thee; thine eye shall have no pity upon them: neither shalt thou serve their gods; for that will be a snare unto thee - See Lev 26:7, 8

Deut 7:17

Deut 7:17 - If thou shalt say in thine heart, These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them? - See Num 13:27-29

Deut 7:19

Deut 7:19 - The great temptations which thine eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched out arm, whereby the LORD thy God brought thee out: so shall the LORD thy God do unto all the people of whom thou art afraid - God would reap miraculous deliverance for the COI such that they would not have to fight their enemies who they feared. God would dispose their enemies and drive them out with hornets and wild animals.

Deut 7:20

Deut 7:20 - Moreover the LORD thy God will send the hornet among them, until they that are left, and hide themselves from thee, be destroyed - the Lord would fight the battles of Israel as He had done in Egypt. See Deut 7:22-24; Josh 24:12

Deut 7:21

Deut 7:21 - Thou shalt not be affrighted at them: for the LORD thy God is among you, a mighty God and terrible - See Joshua 1:5, 9

Deut 7:22

Deut 7:22 - lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee - Lev 26:22

Deut 7:24

Deut 7:24 - there shall no man be able to stand before thee, until thou have destroyed them
- See Josh 1:5

Deut 7:25

Deut 7:25, 26 - The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD thy God. 26 Neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing - See Josh 7:1-24, 22:20, 6:17-19

Deut 7:26

Deut 7:26 - Neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing - See Josh 7:1-26, 22:20

Deut 8:2

Deut 8:2 - And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no - See Deut 2:7 By trial the Lord proves the strength of His children. Is the heart strong to bear? Is the conscience void of offense? Does the Spirit bear witness with our spirit that we are the children of God? This the Lord ascertains by trying us. In the furnace of affliction He purifies us from all dross. He sends us trials, not to cause needless pain, but to lead us to look to Him, to strengthen our endurance, to teach us that if we do not rebel, but put our trust in Him, we shall see of His salvation.... {IHP Sept 19}

Deut 8:3

Deut 8:3 - And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live - God desires that we know that all [good] things come of Him. See 1Chron 29:14; Jam 1:17

Deut 8:3

Deut 8:3 - that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live. - Daily prayer is as essential to growth in grace, and even to spiritual life itself, as is temporal food to physical well-being. We should accustom ourselves to often lift the thoughts to God in prayer. If the mind wanders, we must bring it back; by persevering effort, habit will finally make it easy. We cannot for one moment separate ourselves from Christ with safety. We may have His presence to attend us at every step, but only by observing the conditions which He has Himself laid down.—(Messages to Young People, 115.) - {Pr 17.1}

Deut 8:3

Deut 8:3 - but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live - the word of God is quick and powerful [life giving - (Heb 4:12)]. Every word of God is true and pure (Psa 119:160, Prov 30:5).

Deut 8:5

Deut 8:5 - Thou shalt also consider in thine heart, that, as a man chasteneth his son, so the LORD thy God chasteneth thee - See Heb 12:6-8

Deut 8:14

Deut 8:14 - Then thine heart be lifted up, and thou forget the LORD thy God, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage - See Deut 8:17; Hosea 4:7

Deut 8:16

Deut 8:16 - Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end - See Deut

Deut 8:16

Deut 8:16 - and that he might prove thee - See Dan 12:10, 11:35

Deut 8:16

Deut 8:16 - to do thee good at thy latter end - the trying of our faith is so that God may develop characters conformed to the mold of heaven - to do us good in the latter end. See Isa 58:14

Deut 8:17

Deut 8:17 - And thou say in thine heart, My power and the might of mine hand hath gotten me this wealth - See Deut 8:14; Lk 12:16-21; Isa 1:3

Deut 8:18

Deut 8:18 - that he may establish his covenant which he sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day - God gives us strength and power to gain wealth so that He may keep His covenant of blessing us to be the head and not the tail, to be the ones to lend and not borrow. God is Faithful and does it ALL! See Deut 28:12, 13

Deut 8:19

Deut 8:19 - And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the LORD thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you this day that ye shall surely perish - the god most commonly served by men is the god of self. We either forget God and believe the lie that we can be a god, or we embrace the lie that we can save ourselves through our good works (tell us what to do and we'll do it). This is the problem with Laodicea, their works and their riches have blinded them to their true condition. See Rev 3:14-19; Eze 33:13, 18 Through heathenism, Satan had for ages turned men away from God; but he won his great triumph in perverting the faith of Israel. By contemplating and worshiping their own conceptions, the heathen had lost a knowledge of God, and had become more and more corrupt. So it was with Israel. The principle that man can save himself by his own works lay at the foundation of every heathen religion; it had now become the principle of the Jewish religion. Satan had implanted this principle. Wherever it is held, men have no barrier against sin. - {DA 35.2}

Deut 8:20

Deut 8:20 - because ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the LORD your God - See Isa 1:19; Deut 4:30

Deut 9:3

Deut 9:3 - as a consuming fire he shall destroy them - See Deut 4:24; Heb 12:29

Deut 10:9

Deut 10:9 - Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD thy God promised him - See Lam 3:24; Deut 18:1, 2

Deut 11:15 - And I will send grass in thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest eat and be full - See Ps 104:14

Deut 11:16

Deut 11:16 - Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them - See Gen 6:1-3; 2Kin 17:7-12

Deut 11:17

Deut 11:17 - And then the LORD'S wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest ye perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD giveth you - See Lev 26:19, 20

Deut 11:23

Deut 11:23 - Then will the LORD drive out all these nations from before you, and ye shall possess greater nations and mightier than yourselves - See Ex 23:22-24, 27-31

Deut 11:25

Deut 11:25 - There shall no man be able to stand before you: for the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said unto you - See Ex 23:27-31

Deut 12:2

Deut 12:2, 3 - Ye shall utterly destroy all the places, wherein the nations which ye shall possess served their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree: 3 And ye shall overthrow their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their groves with fire; and ye shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and destroy the names of them out of that place. - The COI were to tear down every high place erected to a foreign God. See Lev 26:30; 1Kin 11:4-8

Deut 13:1

Deut 13:1-5 a dreamer of dreams - those under the evil influence of satanic delusion. See Jer 23:25-28, 27:9, 29:8; Zech 10:2

Deut 14:2

Deut 14:2 - For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God, and the LORD hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth - See Ex 19:3-8; Tit 2:11-14; 1Pet 2:9

Deut 14:3

Deut 14:3 - Thou shalt not eat any abominable thing - See Lev 20:24; Lev 11

Deut 14:22

Deut 14:22 - Thou shalt truly tithe all the increase of thy seed, that the field bringeth forth year by year - See Mal 3:8-12; Prov 3:9, 10; 1Chron 29:14

Deut 15:1

Deut 15:1 - At the end of every seven years thou shalt make a release - after 7years, all debts were to be released and forgiven. This principle apparently is the model for bankruptcy forgiveness after 7years.

Deut 15:4

Deut 15:4 - Save when there shall be no poor among you; for the LORD shall greatly bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it - God purposed to bless Israel if they remained obedient such that there would never be any poor among them. This was probably realized in the time of David when Israel flourished. See Deut 15:6, 28:12, 13, 44; CONTRAST Mt 26:11||Mk 14:7||Joh 12:8

Deut 15:6

Deut 15:6 - For the LORD thy God blesseth thee, as he promised thee: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow - See Deut 15:4, 28:12, 13, 44

Deut 15:11

Deut 15:11 - For the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land - See Mt 26:11|Mk 14:7||John 12:8

Deut 15:15

Deut 15:15 - And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing to day - See Deut 5:15

Deut 15:17

Deut 15:17 - Then thou shalt take an aul, and thrust it through his ear unto the door, and he shall be thy servant for ever. And also unto thy maidservant thou shalt do likewise - ear piercing was a sign of indentured servitude or slavery.

Deut 15:19

Deut 15:19 - All the firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sanctify unto the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep - the firstborn male of the herds were to be consecrated to the Lord and a portion of which was to be eaten by the family from which it came. See Gen 4:4; Ex 34:19, 20

Deut 16:19

Deut 16:19 - Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous. - See Isa 5:23; Lev 19:15; Deut 1:17, 10:17, 24:17, 27:19

Deut 16:19

Deut 16:19 - neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous - See Isa 33:15; Ex 23:8; Deut 16:19; Prov 17:23; Isa 59:14; Ezekiel 18:8; Ps 26:6, 24:4

Deut 17:3

Deut 17:3 - And hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded; - See Deut 4:19 ; Ezekiel 8:16

Deut 17:14

Deut 17:14 - When thou art come unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell therein, and shalt say, I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me - See 1Sam 8:5-7

Deut 17:16

Deut 17:16 - But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the LORD hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth return no more that way - See 1Kin 10:28; Isa 31:1; Ps 20:7, 33:17, 18; Mic 5:10, 1:13

Deut 18:2

Deut 18:2 - Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren: the LORD is their inheritance, as he hath said unto them. - See Psa 16:5; Deut 10:9; Lam 3:24

Deut 18:4

Deut 18:4 - The firstfruit also of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep, shalt thou give him - See Deut 26:2

Deut 18:10

Deut 18:10 - useth divination - also called curious arts. See Zech 10:2; Eze 13:9; Lev 20:27; Act 19:19

Deut 18:10

Deut 18:10 - observer of times - those who practice astrology and worship the hosts of heaven (sun, moon, stars).

Deut 18:11

Deut 18 - familiar spirits - a lying satanic spirit that masquerades as a dead family member or close friend.

Deut 18:11

Deut 18:11 - wizard - A conjurer; an enchanter; a sorcerer {1828 Webster's Dictionary}

Deut 18:11

Deut 18:11 - necromancer - One who pretends to foretell future events by holding converse with departed spirits; conjurer {Websters 1828 dictionary}

Deut 18:12

Deut 18:12 - For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD - the LORD hates all who through signs and lying spirits seek to deceive His people. Those who claim to communicate with the dead promote the unscriptural doctrine of life after death, founded by the devil. See Gen 3:4

Deut 18:14

Deut 18:14 - hearkened unto observers of times - See Jer 10:2; Isa 8:19; Ps 106:28

Deut 18:15

Deut 18:15, 18, 19 - Another Prophet - God would bring forth Jesus, the Prophet in Whom dwells the Spirit of God without measure. See Joh 3:34

Deut 18:15

Deut 18:15 - The LORD thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken; - God would bring forth Jesus, the Prophet in Whom dwells the Spirit of God without measure. See Joh 3:34 Moses would be like Jesus in that 1. They both were filled with the Spirit of God: Jesus, without measure 2. As a shepherd, both would lead the flock of God from bondage: Moses from Egyptian bondage; Jesus, from the bondage of sin 3. The Father guided the words that both Moses and Jesus spoke 4. God met out punishment for all who did not give heed to both Jesus and Moses

Deut 18:16

Deut 18:16 - According to all that thou desiredst of the LORD thy God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I die not - See Ex 20:18-20

Deut 18:18

Deut 18:18 - I will raise them up a Prophet from among their bretheren - See Ps 89:19; Act 3:22, 23 A prophetic prefiguring of Jesus, the Greatest Prophet Who would be Immanuel, God with us (Act 3:19-24). However, the chapter and verse (18:18) also speak of William Miller, who after two years of diligently studying the Bible starting in 1816, came to the conclusion about the imminent return of Christ in A.D.1818. God called him [William Miller] to leave his farm, as He called Elisha to leave his oxen and the field of his labor to follow Elijah. With trembling, William Miller began to unfold to the people the mysteries of the kingdom of God, carrying his hearers down through the prophecies to the second advent of Christ. With every effort he gained strength. As Joh the Baptist heralded the first advent of Jesus and prepared the way for His coming, so William Miller and those who joined with him proclaimed the second advent of the Son of God. - {EW 229.2}

Deut 18:18 - from among their brethren - The incarnation of Christ is here foretold. See Mt 13:55-57; Heb 2:9-18

Deut 18:18

Deut 18:18 - and will put my words in his mouth; and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him - Just like Jesus, of Whom the theologians of His day inquired "How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?", so too, learned men of William Miller's day contested his wisdom that they could not gainsay. See Joh 7:15, 16, 17:4 I saw that God sent His angel to move upon the heart of a farmer [William Miller] who had not believed the Bible, and led him to search the prophecies. Angels of God repeatedly visited that chosen one, and guided his mind, and opened his understanding to prophecies which had ever been dark to God's people. The commencement of the chain of truth was given him, and he was led on to search for link after link, until he looked with wonder and admiration upon the Word of God... - {TA 247.2}

Deut 18:19

Deut 18:19 - And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him: See Mk 9:7; Joh 12:48; Act 3:22, 23 1. Korah; Dathan and Abiram - Num 16:27-33 2.

Deut 18:20

Deut 18:20 - But the prophet, which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die - See Jer 28:10-17

Deut 18:22

Deut 18:22 - When a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him. - See Jer 23:16-18, 21, 25-27; Lam 3:37

Deut 19:14

Deut 19:14 - Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour's landmark, which they of old time have set in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land that the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it - See Deut 27:17; Prov 23:10, 22:28 - A curse is pronounced on anyone who: 1. Moves another's property boundary, robbing them of their inheritance 2. Withholds payment of another, robbing the one and his family of their inheritance (contrast Ps 15:4, 5; 1Cor 6:6, 7; 1Thess 4:6)

Deut 19:15

Deut 19:15 - One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established - See Joh 8:17, 18; 2Cor 13:1

Deut 20:4

Deut 20:4 - For the LORD your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you - See Isa 54:17; 1Cor 15:57, 58

Deut 21:6

Deut 21:6 - And all the elders of that city, that are next unto the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley - an oath is to be taken that none have unlawfully murdered the person found dead in the field. The taking of innocent blood was a grave offense. See Deut 21:8, 9

Deut 21:14

Deut 21:14 - but thou shalt not sell her at all for money, thou shalt not make merchandise of her, because thou hast humbled her - women, even captives, were not to be prostituted or exploited by men.

Deut 21:16

Deut 21:16 - Then it shall be, when he maketh his sons to inherit that which he hath, that he may not make the son of the beloved firstborn before the son of the hated, which is indeed the firstborn - See 1Chron 5:1

Deut 21:23

Deut 21:23 - His body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt in any wise bury him that day; (for he that is hanged is accursed of God;) that thy land be not defiled, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance - See Gal 3:13

Deut 22:10

Deut 22:10 - Thou shalt not plow with an ox and an ass together - See 2Cor 6:14

Deut 23:3

Deut 23:3 - even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the LORD for ever: - the Ammonites and Moabites, close descendants of the Jews were not permitted to enter the camp of the Jews and become part of the nation until the 10th generation as punishment for their ungodly turning from the paths of truth which they once knew as well as their harsh treatment towards Israel when fleeing Egyptian captivity. See Gen 19:30-38; Num 21:29, 22:1-4; Zeph 2:8-11

Deut 24:14

Deut 24:14 - Thou shalt not oppress an hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates: - God wanted Israel to deal justly with all who are under their employment. They were not to oppress the laborer, whether of Jewish heritage or a foreigner. God cares for all people, especially those who lack and are at the mercy of others.

Deut 24:15

Deut 24:15 - At his day thou shalt give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it; for he is poor, and setteth his heart upon it: lest he cry against thee unto the LORD, and it be sin unto thee - See James 5:4

Deut 24:16

Deut 24:16 - The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin. - See 2Chron 25:4; Eze 18:3

Deut 24:19

Deut 24:19-21 - When thou cuttest down thine harvest in thy field, and hast forgot a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to fetch it: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow: that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hands. - The Lord is merciful and kind to all His children. Jesus foresaw that His progenitor Ruth, would be in poverty and would rely upon the gleaning of Boaz's field. Jesus makes provision for all of His children if we would but obey His commands. See Lev 19:9, 10; Ruth 2:1-16

Deut 25:5

Deut 25:5 - If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without unto a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of an husband's brother unto her - The principle of kinsman redemption is seen even before the giving of the Law in the life of Judah's son Onan. See Gen 38:7-10; Lk 20:29-35

Deut 25:15

Deut 25:15 - But thou shalt have a perfect and just weight - See Prov 16:11

Deut 25:16

Deut 25:16 - For all that do such things, and all that do unrighteously, are an abomination unto the LORD thy God - See Prov 11:1

Deut 25:19

Deut 25:19 - Therefore it shall be, when the LORD thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; thou shalt not forget it - See 1Sam 15:1-33; Esther 3:1, 10, 8:3, 5

Deut 26:2

Deut 26:2 - That thou shalt take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name there - A first fruit offering is here described. See Deut 18:4, 26:10

Deut 26:5

Deut 26:5 - A Syrian ready to perish was my father - Abraham and Israel are likened to Syrians who sojourned in Egypt for a time.

Deut 26:6

Deut 26:6 - And the Egyptians evil entreated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage - See Gen 15:13, 14; Ex 1:6-14

Deut 26:8

Deut 26:8 - And the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders - See Ex 19:3-6

Deut 26:9

Deut 26:9 - And he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, even a land that floweth with milk and honey - See Ex 3:8; Josh 23:14

Deut 26:10

Deut 26:10 - And now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land, which thou, O LORD, hast given me. And thou shalt set it before the LORD thy God, and worship before the LORD thy God: - See Deut 26:2

Deut 26:12

Deut 26:12 - When thou hast made an end of tithing all the tithes of thine increase the third year, which is the year of tithing, and hast given it unto the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, that they may eat within thy gates, and be filled - apparently, a tithes was to be collected every third year and was to be given for the service of the Lord. See Mal 3:10

Deut 26:13

Deut 26:13 - Then thou shalt say before the LORD thy God, I have brought away the hallowed things out of mine house, and also have given them unto the Levite, and unto the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all thy commandments which thou hast commanded me: I have not transgressed thy commandments, neither have I forgotten them - See Mal 3:8, 9

Deut 26:17

Deut 26:17 - Thou hast avouched the LORD this day to be thy God, and to walk in his ways, and to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and to hearken unto his voice: - We have affirmed that God is our God and we will serve and keep His commandments - See Josh 24:16-18, 21, 24; Ex 19:8; Nehemiah 9:38; John 6:28; Mt 19:16; CONTRAST Josh 24:19; Jer 31:31-34; Lk 1:35, 38

Deut 26:18

Deut 26:18 - And the LORD hath avouched thee this day to be his peculiar people, as he hath promised thee, and that thou shouldest keep all his commandments - God has affirmed us to be His special people as He promised. See Ex 19:5, 6; Ezek 20:12, 20

Deut 26:19

Deut 26:19 - And to make thee high above all nations which he hath made, in praise, and in name, and in honour; and that thou mayest be an holy people unto the LORD thy God, as he hath spoken - See Ex 19:5, 6

Deut 27:2

Deut 27:2 - And it shall be on the day when ye shall pass over Jordan unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, that thou shalt set thee up great stones, and plaister them with plaister: - See Joshua 4:5-9

Deut 27:9

Deut 27:9 - O Israel; this day thou art become the people of the LORD thy God - God entered covenant with those who would enter into the promised the land. The parents of these individuals all died in the wilderness and now the children were to inherit the land God purposed for them. Compare Ex 4:22, 23, 6:1-8

Deut 27:10

Deut 27:10 - Thou shalt therefore obey the voice of the LORD thy God, and do his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day - See Ex 19:3-6

Deut 27:15

Deut 27:15 - Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen. Compare Isa 46:6-8; Jer 44:25

Deut 27:15

Deut 27:15 - putteth it in a secret place - See Ezekiel 8:7-12

Deut 27:16

Deut 27:16 - Cursed be he that setteth light by his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen - dishonors their parents; exposes in an un-Christlike manner. See Ex 20:12; Mk 7:10-13

Deut 27:17

Deut 27:17 - Cursed be he that removeth his neighbour's landmark. And all the people shall say, Amen. - See Deut 19:14; Prov. 22:28, 23:10 - A curse is pronounced on anyone who: 1. Moves another's property boundary, robbing them of their inheritance 2. Withholds payment of another, robbing the one and his family of their inheritance (contrast Ps 15:4, 5; 1Cor 6:6, 7; 1Thess 4:6)

Deut 27:20 - Cursed be he that lieth with his father's wife; because he uncovereth his father's skirt. And all the people shall say, Amen - See 1Cor 5:1-5

Deut 27:25

Deut 27:25 - Cursed be he that taketh reward to slay an innocent person. And all the people shall say, Amen. - See 1Kin 21:1-15

Deut 28:1

Deut 28:1 - And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth: - See Deut 4:5-8

Deut 28:4

Deut 28:4 - fruit of thy body - one's offspring - Ps 132:11; Lk 1:42

Deut 28:7

Deut 28:7 - they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways - the enemy will come upon the people of God as a united front, but God will cause them to be scattered seven ways.

Deut 28:12

Deut 28:12 - and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow - See Deut 15:4, 6

Deut 28:13

Deut 28:13 - And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them: - See Deut 28:12, 44; 15:4, 6

Deut 28:18

Deut 28:18 - fruit of thy body - one's offspring. See Ps 132:11

Deut 28:32

Deut 28:32 - Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people - See Ps 44:12

Deut 28:36

Deut 28:36 - The LORD shall bring thee and thy king which thou shalt set over thee unto a nation which thou nor thy fathers have known - See Dan 1:1-4

Deut 28:36

Deut 28:36 - there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone - See Dan 3:1-7

Deut 28:44

Deut 28:44 - He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail - See Deut 28:12, 13, 15:4, 6

Deut 28:48

Deut 28:48 - and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee -

See Jer 28:13

Deut 28:49

Deut 28:49 - The LORD shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth - By the Spirit of Inspiration, looking far down the ages, Moses pictured the terrible scenes of Israel's final overthrow as a nation, and the destruction of Jerusalem by the armies of Rome: "The Lord shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand; a nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favor to the young." - {PP 467.1}

Deut 28:49

Deut 28:49 - swift as the eagle flieth - An aquila, or eagle, was a prominent symbol used in ancient Rome, especially as the standard of a Roman legion {Wikipedia - "Roman Insignia"}

Deut 28:49

Deut 28:49 - a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand - The Greek Empire ruled the world for nearly 300years and made its language the lingua franca, language of the masses. Therefore when Rome came on the world scene as the ruling empire with Latin, it was a strange tongue and unfamiliar. See Isa 33:19

Deut 28:53

Deut 28:53 - And thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the LORD thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee: - See Lam 2:20

Deut 28:56

Deut 28:56 - The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness - Isa 47:7; Rev 18:7

Deut 28:56

Deut 28:56 - her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter - See Isa 49:15; Lam 4:10

Deut 28:64

Deut 28:64 - Even wood and stone - A possible reference to the last kingdom of Bible prophecy that wars against God's people, the papacy. See Hab 2:18, 19; Isa 44:6-20; Dan 5:4, 11:38

Deut 28:66

Deut 28:66 - And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee; and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life - CONTRAST Isa 32:17

Deut 28:67

Deut 28:67 - In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were even! and at even thou shalt say, Would God it were morning! for the fear of thine heart wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see - See Am 5:18-20

Deut 29:4

Deut 29:4 - Yet the LORD hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day - See Isa 6:9, 10; 2Cor 4:3, 4

Deut 29:5

Deut 29:5 - And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes are not waxen old upon you, and thy shoe is not waxen old upon thy foot - For 40years in the desert God preserved Ancient Israel such that their cloths never ran bare, their feet remained covered and they lacked no thing.

Deut 29:6

Deut 29:6 - Ye have not eaten bread, neither have ye drunk wine or strong drink: that ye might know that I am the LORD your God - God preserved the COI in all ways during their 40year sojourn. They neither ate bread from the earth nor intoxicating wine, but rather heavenly (angel's) food, so that He might consecrated and purify a people unto Himself.

Deut 29:12

Deut 29:12 - That thou shouldest enter into covenant with the LORD thy God, and into his oath, which the LORD thy God maketh with thee this day - See Ex 19:3-8

Deut 29:14

Deut 29:14, 15 - Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath; But with him that standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with him that is not here with us this day - the covenant promises were intended for all who would join themselves to Israel through the preaching of the Gospel.

Deut 29:21

Deut 29:21 - And the LORD shall separate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the law - See Lev 26:14-46

Deut 29:29

Deut 29:29 - The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law - there are mysteries which God has not made known unto men that are not for our speculation but are to be left to Him Who knows all things. However, those things which He has made known through the Spirit of Prophecy, through inspiration and recorded in both the Bible and in nature, God's two great text books, are for our understanding and that of our children. We are to teach, guide and instruct our children in the things of God made known to us. See Deut 6:7 It is presumption to indulge in suppositions and theories regarding matters that God has not made known to us in His Word. We need not enter into speculation regarding our future state.—Selected Messages 1:172, 173 (1904). - {LDE 290.5}

Deut 30:6

Deut 30:6 - And the LORD thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live - true circumcision is that the Lord will cut away the dross from the heart to love the Lord with all the heart, soul and mind. The only way this is possible is for the Holy Spirit to implant the love of God in our hearts. See Rom 5:5

Deut 30:7

Deut 30:7 - And the LORD thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, which persecuted thee - See Gen 12:3

Deut 30:14

Deut 30:14 - But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it - See Rom 10:8

Deut 30:15

Deut 30:15 - See, I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil - See Deut 30:19

Deut 30:19

Deut 30:19 - I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live: - All the hosts of heaven and the un-fallen worlds are observing the choices we make so that God will be just when He judges. See Gen 2:17

Deut 30:19

Deut 30:19 - therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live: - after the option of life or death is placed before us, God through His messenger tells us to "Choose Life". God does not desire that we perish but that we should live! See Deut 30:15; Eze 33:11; 2Pet 3:9 the exceeding rewards for right-doing, the enjoyment of heaven, the society of the angels, the communion and love of God and His Son, the elevation and extension of all our powers throughout eternal ages—are these not mighty incentives and encouragements to urge us to give the heart's loving service to our Creator and Redeemer? - {SC 21.3}

Deut 31:8

Deut 31:8 - And the LORD, he it is that doth go before thee; he will be with thee - God not only goes before us, making provision as a Good Shepherd, He walks with us to ensure our protection and security. See Ex 33:14; Deut 31:23

Deut 31:8

Deut 31:8 - neither forsake thee - God will not abandon us - See Isa 49:15, 16

Deut 31:8

Deut 31:8 - neither be dismayed - See Josh 1:9

Deut 31:9

Deut 31:9-13 - read this law - every seventh year (year of release) during the feast of Tabernacles, the Law was to be read before the entire COI and all who had joined themselves to them so that they might know the ordinances of the Lord and do His will. - See - Deut 31:26

Deut 31:9

Deut 31:9, 10 - read this law - every seventh year (year of release) during the feast of Tabernacles, the Law was to be read before the entire COI and all who had joined themselves to them so that they might know the ordinances of the Lord and do His will. - See - Deut 31:26

Deut 31:11

Deut 31:11 - When all Israel is come to appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose, thou shalt read this law before all Israel in their hearing - God understood that we would forget His statutes and ordinances and would need to be reminded regularly so that we might honor Him and obey Him. Thus, every seven, years, the book of the Law of God was to be read to all of Israel so that they would know to keep His commandments. The amendment to the commandment, written by Joshua (Joshua 24:15-27) was also to be read as a witness against the people in rebelling against the Lord.

Deut 31:16

Deut 31:16 - And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land, whither they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them. - See Eze 36:17

Deut 31:17

Deut 31:17 - Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us, because our God is not among us? - See Eze 36:18

Deut 31:19

Deut 31:19 - Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel. - See Deut 31:28-30

Deut 31:23

Deut 31:23 - Be strong and of a good courage - See Josh 1:9

Deut 31:23

Deut 31:23 - and I will be with thee - See Ex 33:14

Deut 31:26

Deut 31:26 - Take this book of the law, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee. - See Deut 31:9

Deut 31:29

Deut 31:29 - For I know that after my death ye will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter days; because ye will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands. - The Lord revealed to Moses the works of the people after his death and he was commanded to write the song of warning and reproof for the people that they not forget the Lord. See Deut 31:19

Deut 31:30

Deut 31:30 - the words of this song - the verses to follow encompass the Song of Moses which the redeemed, the 144,000 will sing on Mt. Zion. See Deut 32:44, 45; Rev 14:1-4; 15:2, 3

Deut 32:2

Deut 32:2 - doctrine and speech - God's teachings, His precepts and counsels are likened to the waters/rains that drop (fall) and distills upon the earth (the people). The issuing of the Latter Rains in measure in 1888 with the giving of the doctrine of Righteousness by Faith by Jones and Waggoner was to begin the reform movement within Seventh-day Adventism, bringing the people back to the Old Paths so that the breach caused by the Historical Critical Movement and apostasy would be repaired.

Deut 32:2

Deut 32:2 - speech shall distill as the dew - "God who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by His Son..." Heb 1:1, 2; Mic 5:

Deut 32:2

Deut 32:2 - small rain and showers - the falling of the rains are given both as small rain and as showers. The two issuances of the rains speak to the fact that the Holy Spirit, typified by the rains (early and latter) come first in measure and then without measure.

Deut 32:3

Deut 32:3, 4, 13, 15 The Lord God is the Rock of our Salvation upon which the church is built

Deut 32:4

Deut 32:3 - for all His ways are judgment: a God of truth without iniquity, just and right is He. See 1Jo 1:9; Rev 19:11; Ex 34:5-8

Deut 32:5

Deut 32:5 - their spot is not the spot of his children - the markings of their character is not that of the marking of God's true children. They bear the "Mk of the Beast" when they should bear the "Seal of God".

Deut 32:6

Deut 32:6 - do ye thus requite the LORD, O foolish people and unwise - The question is asked "Is this how you thank (show gratitude) to the LORD through our perversity and transgressions (spots)?"

Deut 32:6

Deut 32:6 - is not He thy Father that hath bought thee? - We are twice purchased of the LORD, first in being created by Him and secondly through His redemption through Christ Jesus. See Ex 20:1, 2, 8-11; Deut 5:12-15

Deut 32:7

Deut 32:7 - Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations - We are counseled to look to our past history and to remember the Old Paths. See Jer 6:16; Isa 58:11, 12

Deut 32:7

Deut 32:7 - ask thy father and he will shew thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee - the father of Adventism is William Miller and the Elders are the Pioneers (Jam & EG White, Loughborough, Wagonner, Jones, Edson, etc.) who will show us and teach us the Old Paths.

Deut 32:8

Deut 32:8 - he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel - Israel, those who overcome with Christ have always been God's special people. He has apportioned a special resting place for them and desires for them to dwell safely, far from all care.

Deut 32:9

Deut 32:9 - For the LORD's portion is His people - Jesus' inheritance are the redeemed. It is each individual that Satan seeks to snatch and seize from the Heir, Jesus Christ. See Mt 21:36-38.

Deut 32:13

Deut 32:13 - He made him ride upon the high places of the earth - the children of Israel are a foreshadowing of the 144,000 who are restorers of paths to dwell in and repairers of the breach. See Isa 58:12-14

Deut 32:13

Deut 32:13 - suck honey - eat the Little Book and have their eyes enlightened. See Eze 3:1-3; Rev 10:8-10; 1Sam 14:23-30

Deut 32:13

Deut 32:13 - the Rock - Jesus. See 1Sam 2:3

Deut 32:13

Deut 32:13 - oil out of the flinty rock - The Holy Spirit that comes from the LORD.

Deut 32:14

Deut 32:14 - pure blood of the grape - Jesus proclaimed the unfermented wine of the Passover (communion) to be His blood. See Isa 65:8; 1Cor 11:25; Mt 26:27-29

Deut 32:15

Deut 32:15 - But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked: thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick... then he forsook God - Jesurun - Yshuruwn Proper Name Masculine yesh-oo-roon' from (03474) from ; upright; Jeshurun, a symbol. name for Israel:-Jeshurun. Jeshurun = "upright one" a symbolic name for Israel describing her ideal character Jeshurun, a term of endearment God uses for Israel, is waxen fat with all the blessings from the LORD. They have become increased with goods and thought they had need of nothing. It is in their wealth that they were most poor of discernment to see their spiritual want. See Rev 3:17

Deut 32:15

Deut 32:15 - God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of His Salvation - Here the LORD identifies Himself as the True God of Israel, both his creator and His Redeemer. Thus the Sabbath declares the true God. See Ex 20:8-11; Deut 5:12-15

Deut 32:15

Deut 32:15 - lightly esteemed the Rock of their salvation - Jesus came to His own and they esteemed Him not. See Isa 53:1-3; Joh 1:5, 10, 11; 3:19-21

Deut 32:16

Deut 32:16 - they provoked Him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they Him to anger - See Eze 8:3, 5, 6; Deut 32:21

Deut 32:17

Deut 32:17 - they sacrificed to devils, not to God - See 1Cor 10:20

Deut 32:17

Deut 32:17 - new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not - See Dan 11:39

Deut 32:18

Deut 32:18 - hast forgotten God that formed thee - See Isa 43:1; 44:2, 21, 24

Deut 32:19

Deut 32:19 - And when the LORD saw it, He abhorred them, because of the provoking of His sons and of His daughters - The same sentiments of provocation that prompted the LORD to destroy the antediluvian world was seen in God's people in the Promised Land. See Gen 6:1-8

Deut 32:21

Deut 32:21 - I will move them to jealousy with those which are not a people; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation - Speaking of the time of Israel's ultimate scattering when God would reject them and raise up the Christian Church. See Rom 10:16-21

Deut 32:22

Deut 32:22-25 - for a fire is kindled in mine anger

Deut 32:23

Deut 32:23 - I will heap mischiefs upon them; I will spend mine arrows upon them - God's chastisement would fall upon Israel because of their waywardness and rebellion. See Judges 6:1-6

Deut 32:26

Deut 32:26 - I would scatter them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men - God would scatter Ancient Israel with its ultimate destruction in A.D.70. See Mt 23:37-24:2, 15-18

Deut 32:27

Deut 32:27 - lest their adversaries should behave themselves strangely - God feared to destroy Israel, lest His holy name be profaned by their adversaries. See Isa 10:12-14; Hab 1:11

Deut 32:29

Deut 32:29 - O that they were wise. that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end! - The wisdom of the wise is that they do not live solely for the present time but consider their latter end (Ps 73:1-28; Dan 12:3, 10). They make preparation for the times of trouble and make sure that their faith is moored to the Rock (Isa 28:16, 17)

Deut 32:30

Deut 32:30, 31 God is the Rock who puts to flight the enemies of the saints.

Deut 32:31

Deut 32:31 - For their rock is not as our Rock - the heathen carve gods of stone and rock that neither see nor hear nor have understanding. God's people in rebellion offer sacrifices and oblations to the gods of stone. See Deut 32:37, 38; Hab 2:18, 19; Isa 44:6-20

Deut 32:32

Deut 32:32 - their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter - See Isa 5:1-7

Deut 32:34

Deut 32:32-36 - Is not this laid up in store with me, and sealed up among my treasures? - The Lord records all the deeds of the wicked in the Book of the Dead. See Jer 17:13, 2:22; Hosea 13:12

Deut 32:36

Deut 32:36 - and repent himself of his servants, when He seeth that their power is gone, and there is none shut up or left. See Eze 36:21-24

Deut 32:39

Deut 32:39 - See now that I, even I am He, and there is no god with Me - See Isa 43:10-12; 44:6-8

Deut 32:39

Deut 32:39 - I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand - See Isa 43:11-13; John 10:28, 29

Deut 32:40

Deut 32:40 - For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever - See Dan 12:7; Rev 10:1-6; Ps 90:1, 2

Deut 32:41

Deut 32:41 - whet my glittering sword - sharpen His sword (sword of the Spirit). See Ps 7:11, 12; Mal 3:5

Deut 32:41

Deut 32:41 - I will render vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me - God will rain punishment upon the wicked with His glittering sword, the sword of the Spirit. See Heb 4:12; Psa 7:11-13

Deut 32:43

Deut 32:43 - for He will avenge the blood of His servants, and will render vengeance to his adversaries - See Rev 6:9-11

Deut 32:43

Deut 32:43 - and will be merciful unto His land, and unto His people - See Eze 36:24-30

Deut 32:44

Deut 32:44 - spake all the words of this song in the ears of the people - See Deut 31:30;

Deut 32:52

Deut 32:52 - thou shalt see that land before thee; but thou shalt not go thither unto the land - Our God is a God of great compassion and tender mercy, but He is also a God of justice. He would not allow Moses to enter the Promised Land because of his sin in becoming angry and not glorifying God. However, God is Faithful to His friends (Ex 33:11; Num 12:6-8) and had a better plan in store for Moses that he knew nothing of. Though Moses would never enter the earthly promised land, shortly after his death, the Lord remembered His servant and friend and called him forth from the grave and gave him his eternal inheritance in the true Promised Land, the celestial Kingdom (Isa 58:14)! Praise God from Whom ALL blessings flow! See Jam 5:11; Ju 9

Deut 33:6

Deut 33:6 - Let Reuben live, and not die; and let not his men be few - See Gen 49:3, 4

Deut 33:7

Deut 33:7 - And this is the blessing of Judah: and he said, Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah, and bring him unto his people: let his hands be sufficient for him; and be thou an help to him from his enemies. - See Gen 49:8-12

Deut 33:8

Deut 33:8 - See Gen 49:5, 6

Deut 33:22

Deut 33:22 - And of Dan he said, Dan is a lion's whelp: he shall leap from Bashan - See Gen 49:16, 17 Compare Gen 49:9

Deut 33:25

Deut 33:25 - and as thy days, so shall thy strength be - God will supply all of our needs according to His riches in glory.

Deut 33:28

Deut 33:28 - Israel then shall dwell in safety alone: the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down dew - See Num 23:9

Deut 34:1

Deut 34:1 - And Moses went up from the plains of Moab unto the mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. And the LORD shewed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan - See Num 27:12; Deut 3:23-27

Deut 34:6

Deut 34:6 - And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Bethpeor: but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day - God buried Moses and no one knew the site of his burial. This was by design because the people, in their vanity, would make the site a shrine and a place of worship if they had known where he was buried.

Deut 34:9

Deut 34:9 - And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands upon him: and the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses. - See Deut 1:38

Josh 2:9

Josh 2:9 - And she said unto the men, I know that the LORD hath given you the land, and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you - Rahab tells the Hebrew spies of the terror the people feel for them and that the Lord has given the city into their hands. See Josh 2:11

Josh 2:10

Joshua 2:10 - For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt - Deut 2:25; Ex 14; 1Cor 10:1, 2

Josh 2:10

Josh 2:10 - Sihon - king of the Amorites who would not permit Israel to pass through his land, but armed himself and went to battle, unprovoked, against Israel. See Num 21:21-31

Josh 2:10

Josh 2:10 - Og - king of Bashan, who like Sihon, went out to fight against Israel unprovoked. See Deut 3:1-6; Num 21:33-35

Josh 2:11

Joshua 2:11 - And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the LORD your God, he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath - for the men of the city of Jericho, their hearts melted in fear at the prospect of going to battle against the LORD's people (Ex 15:15, 16. However, for Rahab, she saw hope in One Who might accept her and deliver her from her life of shame, guilt and sorrow. See Josh 5:1

Josh 2:11

Joshua 2:12 - for the LORD your God, he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath - even the "heathen" acknowledge God for Who He is!

Josh 2:14

Joshua 2:14 - And the men answered her, Our life for yours, if ye utter not this our business. And it shall be, when the LORD hath given us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with thee - See Joshua 7:

Josh 2:18

Joshua 2:18 - Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which thou didst let us down by: and thou shalt bring thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household, home unto thee - the scarlet colored rope was as the blood placed upon the door posts and lintel for the COI during the Passover in Egypt. The people placed their faith on the words of God, on His faithful covenant and promise of deliverance that was seen in both the blood and the scarlet colored rope and thus they were saved. See Ex 12:7-13

Josh 2:19

Josh 2:19 - And it shall be, that whosoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless: and whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand be upon him - the scarlett rope that let the spies down the wall of the city of Jericho was reminiscent of the blood over the door posts on the first Passover, all within the doors of the house would be safe, those outside would be slain. See Ex 12:12, 13, 22, 23

Josh 2:21

Josh 2:21 - And she said, According unto your words, so be it - See Lk 1:38

Josh 2:24

Josh 2:24 - And they said unto Joshua, Truly the LORD hath delivered into our hands all the land; for even all the inhabitants of the country do faint because of us - See Josh 2:9-11; CONTRAST - Num 13:26-33

Josh 3:5

Josh 3:5 - And Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for to morrow the LORD will do wonders among you - We are to sanctify ourselves before the Lord. We are to welcome His appearance and be ready to receive His blessings.

Josh 3:7

Josh 3:7 - And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to magnify thee in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee - See Josh 4:14; Num 12:5-9

Josh 3:10

Joshua 3:10 - And Joshua said, Hereby ye shall know that the living God is among you, and that he will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites - The damming of the swollen Jordan so that COI could enter the Promised Land on dry ground was to be an evidence of God's presence to remind them of the deliverance and victory He assured in displacing the inhabitants of the land. See Ex 33:13-16; Josh 1:5

Josh 3:10

Josh 3:12 - and that he will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites - the miracle of crossing the Jordan was to assure Israel of their future victories over all of their foes. As long as they obeyed the Lord and did not forget His covenant and Law, they would never fear nor suffer loss.

Josh 3:13

Josh 3:13 - the Lord of all the earth - See Josh 3:11

Josh 3:15

Josh 3:15, 16 - And as they that bare the ark were come unto Jordan, and the feet of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the brim of the water, (for Jordan overfloweth all his banks all the time of harvest,) That the waters which came down from above stood and rose up upon an heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside Zaretan: and those that came down toward the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, failed, and were cut off: and the people passed over right against Jericho. See Ex 14:14-16

Josh 3:16

Josh 3:16 - That the waters which came down from above stood and rose up upon an heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside Zaretan: and those that came down toward the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, failed, and were cut off: and the people passed over right against Jericho - the people of Jericho beheld the damming of the Jordan and the COI crossing over on dry land. This terrified and robbed them of all hope.

Josh 3:17

Josh 3:17 - And the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the midst of Jordan, and all the Israelites passed over on dry ground - the Lord was glorified before the COI and the foreigners as He dammed the flowing Jordan so that His people could pass over on dry land. See Ex 33:13-16, 14:17

Josh 4:5

Joshua 4:5 - And Joshua said unto them, Pass over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of Jordan, and take ye up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel: - See Deut 27:2-8

Josh 4:7

Joshua 4:7 - and these stones shall be for a memorial unto the children of Israel for ever - See Hosea 12:5; 1Sam 7:12

Josh 4:14

Josh 4:14 - On that day the LORD magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they feared Moses, all the days of his life - See Josh 3:7

Josh 4:19

Josh 4: 19 - And the people came up out of Jordan on the tenth day of the first month -

Josh 4:19

Josh 4:19 - Gilgal - Gilgal Proper Name Location ghil-gawl' the same as (01536) the same as (with the article as a properly, noun); Gilgal, the name of three places in Palestine:--Gilgal. See also . Gilgal = "a wheel, rolling" the first site of an Israelite camp west of the Jordan, east of Jericho, here Samuel was judge, and Saul was made king; later used for illicit worship

Josh 4:23

Josh 4:23 - For the LORD your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, until ye were passed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red sea, which he dried up from before us, until we were gone over - See Num 14:21, 22

Josh 4:24

Josh 4:24 - That all the people of the earth might know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty: that ye might fear the LORD your God for ever - See Ex 14:17; Num 14:21

Josh 5:1

Josh 5:1 - And it came to pass, when all the kings of the Amorites, which were on the side of Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, which were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Israel, until we were passed over, that their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel. - See Josh 2:9-11, Josh 6:2; Gen 15:16

Josh 5:2

Josh 5:2-10 - that time the LORD said unto Joshua, Make thee sharp knives, and circumcise again the children of Israel the second time - God reconfirmed His covenant with the COI as he had all the males circumcised. See Gen 17:9-14 The suspension of the rite of circumcision since the rebellion at Kadesh had been a constant witness to Israel that their covenant with God, of which it was the appointed symbol, had been broken. And the discontinuance of the Passover, the memorial of their deliverance from Egypt, had been an evidence of the Lord's displeasure at their desire to return to the land of bondage. Now, however, the years of rejection were ended. Once more God acknowledged Israel as His people, and the sign of the covenant was restored. The rite of circumcision was performed upon all the people who had been born in the wilderness. {PP 485.2}

Josh 5:4 - And this is the cause why Joshua did circumcise: All the people that came out of Egypt, that were males, even all the men of war, died in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Egypt - Num 14:22-35

Josh 5:6

Josh 5:6 - For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the people that were men of war, which came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: unto whom the LORD sware that he would not shew them the land, which the LORD sware unto their fathers that he would - See Num 14:28-35

Josh 5:6

Josh 5:6 - till all the people that were men of war - all men over 20 years old were to go to war.

Josh 5:10

Josh 5:10 - And the children of Israel encamped in Gilgal, and kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the month at even in the plains of Jericho - See Ex 12:3-32

Josh 5:12

Josh 5:12 - And the manna ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the old corn of the land; neither had the children of Israel manna any more; but they did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year - the Lord caused the manna, which He had faithfully provided 6 days a week, for forty years to cease. As the COI entered the Promised Land, they would have a bounty of food to partake of and would not need to eat of the manna any longer. God is a Wonderful Provider - See Ex 16:4-16; Isa 33:15-17

Josh 5:13

Josh 5:13 - And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there stood a man over against him with his sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries? - Joshua had no fear in approaching the man with the drawn sword because He was assured of the LORD's promises. He however, wanted to know if the strange visitor was for or against the COI and their God.

Josh 5:13

Josh 5:13 - there stood a man over against him - the Lord veiled His glory to appear as a man of war before Joshua.

Josh 5:14

Joshua 5:14 - but as captain of the host of the LORD I am come - Jesus Himself, the Angel of the LORD, the Captain of the Host of the LORD, the Prince over the sons of God, Messiah the Prince, Michael our Prince, had come to the front lines to lead His people in battle. See Ex 3:2; Dan 9:25, 10:21, 12:1; Judges 13:15-23; Ps 24:8 This was no common angel. It was the Lord Jesus Christ, he who had conducted the Heb through the wilderness, enshrouded in the pillar of fire by night, and a pillar of cloud by day. The place was made sacred by his presence, therefore Joshua was commanded to put off his shoes. - {4aSG 61.4} The burning bush seen by Moses was also a token of the divine presence, and as he drew nigh to behold the wonderful sight, the same voice which here speaks to Joshua, said to Moses, "Draw not nigh hither. Put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground." - {4aSG 61.5} The glory of God hallowed the sanctuary, and for this reason the priests never entered the place sanctified by God's presence with shoes upon their feet. Particles of dust might cleave to their shoes, which would desecrate the sanctuary. Therefore, the priests were required to leave their shoes in the court, before entering the sanctuary. In the court, beside the door of the tabernacle, stood the brazen laver, wherein the priests washed their hands and their feet before entering the tabernacle, that all impurity might be removed, "that they die not." All who officiated in the sanctuary were required of God to make special preparations before entering where God's glory was revealed. - {4aSG 62.1} In order to convey to the mind of Joshua that he was no less than Christ, the Exalted One, he says, "Put off thy shoe from off thy foot." The Lord then instructed Joshua what course to pursue in order to take Jericho. All the men of war should be commanded to compass the city once each day for six days, and on the seventh day they should go around Jericho seven times. - {4aSG 62.2}

Josh 5:15

Joshua 5:15 - Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so. - This was no ordinary messenger, this was God Almighty Himself, Michael, the Archangel, Jesus Christ. See Ex 3:5; Heb 1:5, 6, 13

Josh 6:1

Josh 6:1 - Now Jericho was straitly shut up because of the children of Israel: none went out, and none came in - The people of Jericho barricaded themselves within the city for fear of the COI and the LORD's army without the city.

Josh 6:2

Josh 6:2 - And the LORD said unto Joshua, See, I have given into thine hand Jericho, and the king thereof, and the mighty men of valour - The iniquity of the Amorites had come to its full and God had now given their land into the hands of the COI - See Gen 15:16; Josh 5:1, 6:17

Josh 6:8

Josh 6:8, 9 - And it came to pass, when Joshua had spoken unto the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on before the LORD, and blew with the trumpets: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them. And the armed men went before the priests that blew with the trumpets, and the rereward came after the ark, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets. - The LORD made Israel follow strict instructions in the conquest of Jericho to prove them and to demonstrate His power and glory before all the people of that nation. All were to see that it is not be strength, nor by might but by the Spirit of God that His people would reign in victory over their enemies. See Zech 4:6

Josh 6:10

Josh 6:10 - And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, nor make any noise with your voice, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then shall ye shout - The COI were to discipline themselves and not utter a word while marching around Jericho until commanded to shout in victory and conquest by Joshua.

Josh 6:17

Josh 6:17 - And the city shall be accursed, even it, and all that are therein, to the LORD: - See Gen 15:16

Josh 6:17

Josh 6:17 - only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent - See Josh 2:9-21

Josh 6:18

Josh 6:18 - And ye, in any wise keep yourselves from the accursed thing, lest ye make yourselves accursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it - the Lord spoke specifically through Joshua, that the people not defile themselves and the camp of Israel by partaking of the accursed things of Jericho

Josh 6:19

Josh 6:19 - But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are consecrated unto the LORD: they shall come into the treasury of the LORD - All the precious things of silver, gold and other valuable objects were to be taken into the Lord's treasury.

Josh 6:21

Josh 6:21 - And they utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword - modern critics and scoffers question the wisdom of God in completely annihilating the heathen nations by the COI. In their ignorance, they do not understand the grace and mercy of God, nor do they understand the heinousness of unchecked rebellion and sin (Gen 4:8-16, 6:1-8; Ex 20:4-6). They do not understand that God has appointed a time for every nation and people wherein His grace and mercy abounds to them and they are to accept His salvation while He may be found (Ps 19:1-3; Rom 1:18-32; Act 17:24-27; Gen 15:13-16). Once they have exceeded their term of probation and have rejected God's bountiful attempts to save them, there is no point in their continued existence as their persistent sin will only be a continual reproach and burden to God and a snare for His people who choose righteousness - Deut 2:34; 3:6; Josh 8:26, 10:28, 39; CONTRAST 1Sam 15:1-11

Josh 6:23

Josh 6:23 - And the young men that were spies went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had; and they brought out all her kindred, and left them without the camp of Israel - See Josh 2:18-21

Josh 6:24

Joshua 6:24 - And they burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein: only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD - the precious things of Jericho were to be consecrated to God's house and none were to steal and take it for themselves. See Joshua 7:1, 11

Joshua 6:25 - And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had; and she dwelleth in Israel even unto this day; because she hid the messengers, which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho - God's intention was always to graph in the foreigner and stranger who joined hands with the Lord. See Isa 27:5, 56:1-7

Josh 6:26

Josh 6:26 - cursed be the man - Josh pronounced a curse upon any person who sought to rebuild the city of Jericho. Jericho was spiritually a symbol of the stronghold of sin (the chief city of God's enemies whose conquest opened the gate to the rest of the Promise Land) that the COI first subdued. Jericho was never to be rebuilt unless one do so at the expense of his firstborn son and his last, ample deterrent to prevent such an event. However, in the time of Ahab, King of Israel, Hiel the Bethelite rebuilt the city and the curse was fulfilled upon his household (1Kin 16:34).

Josh 7:1

Joshua 7:1 - took of the accursed thing: - See Deut 7:25, 26; Joshua 6:17-19; Joshua 7:21

Josh 7:5

Josh 7:5 - And the men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men: for they chased them from before the gate even unto Shebarim, and smote them in the going down: wherefore the hearts of the people melted, and became as water - the blood of the 36 men who fell in Ai and the demoralized spirit of the people was all owed to Achan, who disobeyed the Lord and partook of the accursed things of Jericho. CONTRAST Josh 3:10

Josh 7:7

Josh 7:7-12 - Alas O Lord God - we are quick to forget God's promises when things go wrong and blame God for unfaithfulness. Josh cried-out (murmured) to the Lord as if He dealt unjustly with the COI in not having them prevail over their enemies. Yet it is God Who was offended, and to add insult to injury, was being accused of infidelity, to which He tells Josh "Get thee up; wherefore liest thou thus upon thy face? Israel hath sinned...". See Josh 1:5, 3:10, 6:17-19

Josh 7:9

Josh 7:9 - For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall environ us round, and cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do unto thy great name? - Joshua began to loose hope with the situation in Ai and started to question God and His promises.

Josh 7:11

Josh 7:11 - for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen - the spoils were consecrated to the Lord and the people were not to covet or take of any abominable thing found in Ai.

Josh 7:11

Josh 17:11 - and dissembled also, and they have put it even among their own stuff - God is speaking of the lying pretense of Achan, who would cause all of Israel to be searched out, rather than coming forth and confessing his sin. See Josh 7:13-21

Josh 7:12

Josh 7:12 - Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you - While we hold in possession an accursed thing, God will not abide with us. Josh 7:13; CONTRAST Ex 33:13-16

Josh 7:21

Joshua 7:21 - When I saw among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it - See Joshua 6:17-19; Deut 7:25, 26

Josh 7:21

Josh 7:21 - Babylonish garment - See Gen 11:1-9

Josh 7:24

Josh 7:25 - Achor - ACHOR, n. [Gr., sordes capitis.] 1. The scald head, a disease forming scaly eruptions, supposed to be a critical evacuation of acrimonious humors; a species of herpes. 2. In mythology, the God of flies, said to have been worshipped by the Cyreneans, to avoid being vexed by those insects.

Josh 7:25

Josh 7:25 - And Joshua said, Why hast thou troubled us? - Achan committed an offense against God and the entire House of Israel. 36 men died and their families were grieved of their deaths because of Achan's selfishness. It was needful to root out such wickedness from among the people.

Josh 8:1

Josh 8:1 - And the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear not, neither be thou dismayed: take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ai: see, I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land - Now that the accursed things were removed from Israel, the Lord returned and comforted Joshua, assuring him that He once again walked with them and would secure their victories over their enemies.

Josh 8:2

Josh 8:2 - And thou shalt do to Ai and her king as thou didst unto Jericho and her king: only the spoil thereof, and the cattle thereof, shall ye take for a prey unto yourselves: lay thee an ambush for the city behind it - God would permit the COI to take the spoil of livestock alone from their conquest of Ai; all other things were to be destroyed by fire. See Josh 8:8

Josh 8:2

Joshua 8:1 - lay thee an ambush for the city behind it - God gave His people instructions in how they were to go to war so that they would prosper.

Josh 8:18

Josh 8:18 - And the LORD said unto Joshua, Stretch out the spear that is in thy hand toward Ai; for I will give it into thine hand. And Joshua stretched out the spear that he had in his hand toward the city - See Ex 17:11-12

Josh 8:20

Josh 8:20 - And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and, behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: and the people that fled to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers - the men of Ai were demoralized as they not only saw that they miscalculated the war, being ambushed from the rear, but they saw their city, homes, and families on fire to their rear. See 1Sam 30:1-16

Josh 8:26

Josh 8:26 - For Joshua drew not his hand back, wherewith he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai - the iniquity of the Amorites had reached its full and it was now time to remove these wicked people that would do nothing more than cause trouble upon the earth. See Gen 15:16; Ex 17:9-17

Josh 8:27

Josh 8:27 - Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took for a prey unto themselves, according unto the word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua - See Josh 8:2

Josh 8:29

Josh 8:29 - And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until eventide: and as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his carcase down from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the city, and raise thereon a great heap of stones, that remaineth unto this day - See Deut 21:21-23; Josh 10:26

Josh 8:34

Josh 8:34 - And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the book of the law - See Deut 30:10-20; Ezra

Josh 9:2

Josh 9:2 - That they gathered themselves together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord - a confederacy of the nations gathered together to war against God and His people.

Josh 9:4

Josh 9:4 - They did work wily, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors, and took old sacks upon their asses, and wine bottles, old, and rent, and bound up - the Gibeonites acted shrewdly and feigned as if they traveled from a far land to establish peace with Israel, though they were neighbors close by.

Josh 9:10

Josh 9:10 - And all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites, that were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan, which was at Ashtaroth - See Deut 2:24, 25; Num 21:21-35

Josh 9:14

Joshua 9:14 - And the men took of their victuals, and asked not counsel at the mouth of the LORD - a fateful mistake among Israel and for any follower of God. We should do nothing without seeking God's counsel (Prov 3:5, 6). Never should we enter league with any (especially marriage) without seeking the guidance of God to ascertain His will and purposes for our lives.

Josh 9:15

Joshua 9:15 - And Joshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, to let them live: and the princes of the congregation swore unto them - See Joshua 34:12

Josh 9:18

Josh 9:18 - And all the congregation murmured against the princes - the congregation in Israel murmured against the princes for making an oath unknowingly with the foreigners. Not so much that the COI wanted to uphold God's word, but they coveted the land that they were to take possession. See Josh 9:26

Josh 9:19

Josh 9:19 - But all the princes said unto all the congregation, We have sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel: now therefore we may not touch them - See Ps 15:4

Josh 9:23

Joshua 9:23 - Now therefore ye are cursed, and there shall none of you be freed from being bondmen, and hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God - Gibeon, the most important of their towns, "was a great city, as one of the royal cities, ... and all the men thereof were mighty." It is a striking evidence of the terror with which the Israelites had inspired the inhabitants of Canaan, that the people of such a city should have resorted to so humiliating an expedient to save their lives. - {EP 359.3} But it would have fared better with the Gibeonites had they dealt honestly with Israel. Their deception brought them only disgrace and servitude. God had made provision that all who would renounce heathenism and connect with Israel should share the blessings of the covenant. With few exceptions this class were to enjoy equal favors and privileges with Israel. - {EP 360.1} Such was the footing on which the Gibeonites might have been received. It was no light humiliation to those citizens of a royal city, "all the men whereof were mighty," to be made hewers of wood and drawers of water. Thus through all their generations, their servile condition would testify to God's hatred of falsehood. - {EP 360.2}

Josh 9:26

Josh 9:26 - And so did he unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not - See Josh 9:18

Josh 10:3

Josh 10:3 - Wherefore Adonizedek king of Jerusalem sent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying - the five kings of the Amorites had been judged of God and their probation had ended. They were therefore slated to be destroyed, they and their people. See Gen 15:16; Josh 10:5, 8

Josh 10:8

Josh 10:8 - And the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear them not: for I have delivered them into thine hand; there shall not a man of them stand before thee - See Gen 15:16; Josh 10:3

Josh 10:11

Josh 10:11 - And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Bethhoron, that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: they were more which died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword - See Job 38:22

Josh 10:12

Joshua 10:12 - Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon - God has ordered and synchronized the universe so that everything affects the other but yet works in harmony. The earth and moon both are a certain distance from one another, are of a particular weight and spin at a certain rotational speed. Any alteration to one impacts the other. So is the entire universe. That God would stop the sun and the moon in their course means that God acted upon the entire universe to honor the prayer of God's faithful steward. God literally moved heaven and earth for a man's prayer. Praise You Lord Jesus! I worship you with all my heart, mind, soul and being!!! - See John 15:5, 6; 1Jo 5:14, 15

Josh 10:14

Josh 10:14 - And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the LORD fought for Israel - See Jam 5:17

Josh 10:24

Josh 10:24 - And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of war which went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them - See Isa 51:22, 23

Josh 10:25

Josh 10:25 - And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight - See Josh 1:9

Josh 10:26

Josh 10:26 - And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening - See Deut 21:21-23; Josh 8:29, 10:28

Josh 10:40

Josh 10:40 - So Joshua smote all the country of the hills, and of the south, and of the vale, and of the springs, and all their kings: he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded - modern critics and scoffers question the wisdom of God in completely annihilating the heathen nations by the COI. In their ignorance, they do not understand the grace and mercy of God, nor do they understand the heinousness of unchecked rebellion and sin (Gen 4:8-16, 6:1-8; Ex 20:4-6). They do not understand that God has appointed a time for every nation and people wherein His grace and mercy abounds to them and they are to accept His salvation while He may be found (Ps 19:1-3; Rom 1:18-32; Act 17:24-27; Gen 15:13-16). Once they have exceeded their term of probation and have rejected God's bountiful attempts to save them, there is no point in their continued existence as their persistent sin will only be a continual reproach and burden to God and a snare for His people who choose righteousness - Deut 2:34; 3:6; Josh 8:26, 10:28, 39, 40; Josh, unlike King Saul, proved obedient to the command of the Lord to remove all of the Amorites whose probation had expired. See 1Sam 15:1-30

Joshua 11:6 - for to morrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel - God would fight the battles for Israel. God wanted His people "to dwell alone, and not be reckoned among the nations." (Num 23:9). See Josh 1:5; 2Chron 20:20-22; Judges 4:13-15; Ex 23:27-33

Josh 11:6

Joshua 11:6 - thou shalt hough their horses, and burn their chariots with fire - the horses were to be hamstrung and the chariots burned because God did not want Israel amassing these things as the other nations. Israel's strength was to be in the Lord, not in chariots and horses as all the other nations trusted. See 2Kings 18:17-24; Deut 20:1-4; Josh 11:9

Josh 11:9

Josh 11:9 - And Joshua did unto them as the LORD bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire - See Josh 11:6

Josh 11:15

Josh 11:15 - As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses - God tests us to see if we will follow His commands explicitly, perfectly. See Gen 22:12-8
CONTRAST 1Sam 15:13-25

Josh 11:20

Josh 11:20 - For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses - It pleased the Lord that the foreign nations hearts were hardened so that they might wage war against Israel and perish. These nations had met the end of their probation and were to be destroyed. This was all in God's plan so that Israel might dwell alone and not be reckoned among the nations (Num 23:9). See Gen 15:16

Josh 11:22

Josh 11:22 - There was none of the Anakims left in the land of the children of Israel: only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, there remained - the Anakims were a race of giant people from which Goliath and his brothers came.

Josh 12:24

Joshua 12:24 - Joshua conquered 31 pagan kings and their nations.

Josh 13:13

Josh 13:13 - Nevertheless the children of Israel expelled not the Geshurites, nor the Maachathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day - this began a dark trend among Israel in not removing all of the judged nations the Lord intended them to destroy. This unfortunately would carry on beyond the time of Joshua judging Israel. The nations that remained would be a snare and an irritant for Israel, all in violation of God's desired plan for Israel - See Num 23:9; Judges 1:21, 27-36

Josh 13:14

Josh 13:14 - Only unto the tribe of Levi he gave none inheritance; the sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as he said unto them - See Num 18:20-24; Josh 13:33, 14:4

Josh 13:22

Josh 13:22 - Balaam also the son of Beor, the soothsayer, did the children of Israel slay with the sword among them that were slain by them - Baalam, the false prophet who sought to curse Israel but could not; who however, caused them to sin at BaalPeor, was slain with the Amorites in battle. See Num 25:1-9; Rev 2:

Josh 13:33

Josh 13:33 - But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave not any inheritance: the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as he said unto them - See Num 18:20-24; Josh 13:14, 14:4

Josh 14:1

Josh 14:1 - Eleazar the priest - Eleazar, the son of Aaron who was made priest after the death of his brothers Nadab and Abihu, was another, with Joshua and Caleb, who came from Egypt and saw the Promised Land. See Lev 10:12

Josh 14:3

Josh 14:3 - but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them - See Josh 13:14, 33; 14:4

Josh 14:4

Josh 14:4 - Joseph received a double blessing of his father Israel, becoming two tribes in stead of one, therefore, the tribes descending from his two sons inherited land in the Promised Land. See Gen 48:5-20, 49:22-26; Josh 16:4

Josh 14:4

Josh 14:4 - therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattle and for their substance - The Levites were given no land allotment, only cities and their suburbs within the territories of the other 12 tribes for them to dwell and to raise their cattle.

Josh 14:6

Josh 14:6 - Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of

Jephunneh the Kenezite said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the LORD said unto Moses the man of God concerning me and thee in Kadeshbarnea - See Num 14:22-24, 30

Josh 14:8

Josh 14:8 - Nevertheless my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people melt: but I wholly followed the LORD my God - See Num 13:25-33

Josh 14:11

Josh 14:11 - As yet I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to go out, and to come in - See Deut 33:25

Josh 14:12

Josh 14:12 - Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the LORD spake in that day; for thou heardest in that day how the Anakims were there, and that the cities were great and fenced: if so be the LORD will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the LORD said - See Num 13:32, 33; Josh 11:21, 22

Josh 14:15

Josh 14:15 - Hebron - Chebrown kheb-rone' from (02267) from ; seat of association; Chebron, a place in Palestine, also the name of two Israelites:--Hebron. Hebron = "association" n pr loc

Josh 14:15

1Sam 17:15 - Kirjatharba - "City of Arba"

Josh 14:15

Josh 14:15 - Arba was a great man among the Anakims - Arba was the father of the Anakims - See Josh 15:13

Josh 15:13

Josh 15:13 - Arba the father of Anak - See Josh 14:15

Josh 15:15

Josh 15:15 - Kirjathsepher - "city of Sepher"

Josh 15:51

Joshua 15:51 - And Goshen - Goshen, meaning "drawing near", was a land of inheritance for the tribe of Judah in the Promised Land. See Joshua 15:20

Josh 15:63

Josh 15:63 - As for the Jebusites the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not drive them out: but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem unto this day - See Gen 15:21

Josh 16:4

Josh 16:4 - So the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance - See Josh 14:4

Josh 16:10

Josh 16:10 - but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites unto this day, and serve under tribute - See Josh 9, 17:13

Josh 17:1

Josh 17:1 - There was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh; for he was the firstborn of Joseph; to wit, for Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead: because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bashan - See Josh 14:4

Josh 17:13

Josh 17:13 - Yet it came to pass, when the children of Israel were waxen strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute; but did not utterly drive them out. - See Josh 9:1-27, 16:10

Josh 17:18

Josh 17:18 - for thou shalt drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots, and though they be strong - See Josh 1:3-9

Josh 18:1

Josh 18:1 - Shiloh - The ark remained at Shiloh for three hundred years, until, because of the sins of Eli's house, it fell into the hands of the Philistines, and Shiloh was ruined. The ark was never returned to the tabernacle here, the sanctuary service was finally transferred to the temple at Jerusalem, and Shiloh fell into insignificance. There are only ruins to mark the spot where it once stood. Long afterward its fate was made use of as a warning to Jerusalem. "Go ye now unto My place which was in Shiloh," the Lord declared by the prophet Jer, "where I set My name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of My people Israel.... Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by My name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh." Jer 7:12-14. - {PP 514.4}

Josh 18:7

Josh 18:7 - But the Levites have no part among you; for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance - See Josh 13:14, 33; 14:4

Josh 18:8

Josh 18:8 - And the men arose, and went away: and Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh - See Num 13

Josh 18:18

Josh 18:18 - Arabah - meaning: desert plain, steppe, desert, wilderness

Josh 19:49

Josh 19:49 - When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their coasts, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them: - See Josh

14:6-13

Josh 19:51

Josh 19:51 - These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. So they made an end of dividing the country - the Levites were given cities around and about Shiloh, where the tabernacle of the LORD was set-up.

Josh 20:1

Josh 20:1-3 - The LORD also spake unto Joshua, saying, 2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, Appoint out for you cities of refuge, whereof I spake unto you by the hand of Moses: 3 That the slayer that killeth any person unawares and unwittingly may flee thither: and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood. - God shows His infinite insight into the hard-hearted ness of men who would seek vengeance as well as great compassion for those who might potentially die in innocence in the formation of refuge cities. See Num 35:11-15

Josh 20:6

Josh 20:6 - And he shall dwell in that city, until he stand before the congregation for judgment - Num 35:24

Josh 20:6

Josh 20:6 - and until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days - See Num 35:25

Josh 20:9

Josh 20:9 - These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whosoever killeth any person at unawares might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation - Unlike Roman Law which assumes a person guilty until proven innocent, God's Law shows grace and assumes a person's innocence until tried. See John 7:50-52

Josh 21:2

Josh 21:2 - And they spake unto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The LORD commanded by the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle - See Num 35:1, 2

Josh 21:11

Josh 21:11 - And they gave them the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, with the suburbs thereof round about it - Hebron was both a city dedicated to the Levites and a city of refuge for the man slayer. See Josh 21:13, 21

Josh 21:13

Josh 21:13 - Thus they gave to the children of Aaron the priest Hebron with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Libnah with her suburb - See Josh 21:21, 38

Josh 21:21

Josh 21:21 - 1 For they gave them Shechem with her suburbs in mount Ephraim, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Gezer with her suburbs - See Josh 21:13, 38

Josh 21:38

Josh 21:38 - And out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Mahanaim with her suburbs - See Josh 21:13, 21

Josh 21:43

Josh 21:43 - And the LORD gave unto Israel all the land which he swore to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein - See Gen 15:15-21

Josh 21:44

Josh 21:44 - And the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that he swore unto their fathers - See Heb 4:8

Josh 21:44

Josh 21:44 - and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand - See Josh 1:1-9

Josh 21:45

Josh 21:45 - There failed not ought of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass - See Isa 55:11; Josh 23:14

Josh 22:4

Josh 22:4 - And now the LORD your God hath given rest unto your brethren, as he promised them - See Josh 21:43, 44, 23:1

Josh 22:5

Josh 22:5 - But take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of the LORD charged you, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave unto him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul - See Deut 6:4, 5; Mk 12:29-31

Josh 22:12

Joshua 22:12 - when the children of Israel heard of it... go up to war against them - the COI were a warlike people - See Deut 12:13, 14

Josh 22:20

Josh 22:20 - Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity - See Deut 7:25, 26; Josh 7:1-24

Josh 22:27

Josh 22:27 - But that it may be a witness between us, and you, and our generations after us, that we might do the service of the LORD before him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the LORD - the Gadites and Reubenites acted with prudence in erecting an altar so that in the passing of time, the other tribes would not disinherit them from among God's people.

Josh 22:30

Josh 22:30 - And when Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation and heads of the thousands of Israel which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh spake, it pleased them. - Phinehas, who had been zealous for the Lord in killing the offenders who prolonged the plague upon Israel (Num 25:7-13), was comforted in knowing and understanding the intentions of the Gadites and Reubenites regarding the erecting of an altar on the other side of Jordan.

Josh 23:1

Josh 23:1 - And it came to pass a long time after that the LORD had given rest unto Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua waxed old and stricken in age - See Josh 22:4; 21:23, 24

Josh 23:3

Josh 23:3 - And ye have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto all these nations because of you; for the LORD your God is he that hath fought for you - See Josh 21:43-45

Josh 23:4

Josh 23:4 - Behold, I have divided unto you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even unto the great sea westward - the COI were to continue the conquests of additional lands after they had enjoyed a season of rest. God would deliver the other nations into Israel's hands as long as they remained obedient and went forth to fight the battles of the Lord.

Josh 23:6

Josh 23:6 - Be ye therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that ye turn not aside therefrom to the right hand or to the left - See Josh 1:1-9

Josh 23:13

Josh 23:13 - Know for a certainty that the LORD your God will no more drive out any of these nations from before you; but they shall be snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you - such was the fate of Ancient Israel as they took wives of the heathen, the foreign people became a thorn in their sides and they eventually departed from the Lord. See Judges 1, 2, 3

Josh 23:14

Josh 23:14 - and ye know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof - See Josh 21:44, 45; Deut 1:10||Gen 15:5

Josh 23:15

Josh 23:15 - Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all good things are come upon you, which the LORD your God promised you; so shall the LORD bring upon you all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you - See Lev 26:14-46

Josh 23:16

Josh 23:16 - When ye have transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them; then shall the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and ye shall perish quickly from off the good land which he hath given unto you - See Jer 3:1-5, 44:15-23; Eze 8:3, 11-18; Hosea 13:2-4

Josh 24:2

Josh 24:2 - Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the flood in old time, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor: and they served other gods - See Gen 11:24-32

Josh 24:8

Josh 24:8 - And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan; and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you - See Gen 15:16

Josh 24:12

Josh 24:12 - And I sent the hornet before you, which drave them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; but not with thy sword, nor with thy bow - See Deut 7:20

Josh 24:14

Josh 24:14 - Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in truth: and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD - See Ex 19:3-6

Josh 24:15

Joshua 24:15 - choose you this day whom ye will serve - The statement demonstrates the free will with which all created beings are granted by their Creator. See Rev 22:17 Identifying Feature of A Cult #3: Each cult uses "pressure" tactics to coerce its members into submission (Rev 22:17)

Josh 24:15

Josh 24:15 - but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD - Joshua purposed in his heart to remain faithful to the Lord and thus motivated others in Israel to do the same. See Dan 1:8

Josh 24:16

Joshua 24:16 - God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods - the same words were uttered by the Pharisees as Jesus conveyed God's rending the kingdom from them and appointing new leaders over His flock. See Lk 20:16

Josh 24:17

Joshua 24:17 - For the LORD our God, he it is that brought us up and our fathers out of the land of Egypt - See Ex 19:3, 4, 20:1, 2

Josh 24:18

Joshua 24:18 - even the Amorites which dwelt in the land - See Gen 15:16

Josh 24:19

Josh 24:19 - ye cannot serve the Lord - Joshua was refuting the Old Covenant which those who died in the wilderness enacted with the Lord. Joshua told the people to believe in God and in His power and promises alone as the only means by which to serve God. Ex 19:8; John 15:5; 5:39; 40; Gal 2:21 "Ye cannot serve the Lord," said Josh: "for He is a holy God; ... He will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins." Before there could be any permanent reformation the people must be led to feel their utter inability in themselves to render obedience to God. They had broken His law, it condemned them as transgressors, and it provided no way of escape. While they trusted in their own strength and righteousness, it was impossible for them to secure the pardon of their sins; they could not meet the claims of God's perfect law, and it was in vain that they pledged themselves to serve God. It was only by faith in Christ that they could secure pardon of sin and receive strength to obey God's law. They must cease to rely upon their own efforts for salvation, they must trust wholly in the merits of the promised Saviour, if they would be accepted of God. - {PP 524.1} - See 1Jo 3:9

Josh 24:19

Josh 24:19 - he is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins - Joshua stood with Moses in the tabernacle of the congregation when the Lord conveyed the fate of Israel, that they would turn their backs on Him, serving other gods and He would forsake them and bring great calamities upon them. Joshua heard the words of the Lord and was forewarned of their rebelliousness and backslidings. See Ex 20:3; Deut 31:14-23

Josh 24:21

Josh 24:21 - Nay; but we will serve the LORD - See Ex 19:8; Josh 24:16-18

Josh 24:22

Josh 24:22 - And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against yourselves that ye have chosen you the LORD, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses - Deut 31:24-30

Josh 24:24

Josh 24:24 - And the people said unto Joshua, The LORD our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey - the people should have said, "Amen, Lord help us to permit you to do this in us". See Ex 19:8 CONTRAST Judges 3:1-7

Josh 24:26

Josh 24:26 - And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone, and set it up there under an oak, that was by the sanctuary of the LORD - the book of the law of God, written by Moses and placed on the side of the Ark of the Covenant (Deut 31:24-30), was amended by Joshua, the servant of God, with the oath of the people, that "they would serve the Lord". The book of the Law of God was to be read in the hearing of the COI every seven years. See Deut 31:10, 11; 2Kin 22:8-13

Josh 24:29

Josh 24:29 - And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old - Joshua died at the age of 110, just like Joseph - See Gen 50:26

Josh 24:32

Josh 24:32 - And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for an hundred pieces of silver: and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph - See Gen 50:24, 25; Ex 13:19; Heb 11:22

Josh 24:32

Josh 24:32 - which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for an hundred pieces of silver: and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph - See Gen 33:19, 20

Judges 1:10 - Hebron - meaning “a community” or alliance

Judg 1:10

Judges 1:10 - Kirjatharba - meaning city of Arba

Judg 1:12

Judges 1:12 - Kirjathsepher - city of Sepher

Judg 1:17

Judges 1:17 - And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they slew the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it - modern critics and scoffers question the wisdom of God in completely annihilating the heathen nations by the COI. In their ignorance, they do not understand the grace and mercy of God, nor do they understand the heinousness of unchecked rebellion and sin (Gen 4:8-16, 6:1-8; Ex 20:4-6). They do not understand that God has appointed a time for every nation and people wherein His grace and mercy abounds to them and they are to accept His salvation while He may be found (Ps 19:1-3; Rom 1:18-32; Act 17:24-27; Gen 15:13-16). Once they have exceeded their term of probation and have rejected God’s bountiful attempts to save them, there is no point in their continued existence as their persistent sin will only be a continual reproach and burden to God and a snare for His people who choose righteousness - Deut 2:34; 3:6; Josh 8:26, 10:28, 39, 40;

Judg 1:17

Judges 1:20 - Hormah - meaning "banning" or placing under a "ban"- See Num 21:1-3

Judg 1:21

Judges 1:21 - the Bible chronicles the fateful mistakes made by Israel in not utterly destroying "Amorites", the nations that inhabited the land of promise. Tribe after tribe in this chapter the LORD shows the rebellion of the various tribes in not forcing out the heathen who would become a snare to them. See Ex 23:22-24, 27-33, 17:14; Num 21:1-3; Deut 11:18-28; Judges 1:27-36; Ps 81:11-16

Judg 1:23

Judges 1:23 - DESCRIBED, v.t. 1. To espy; to explore; to examine by observation.

Judg 1:27

Judges 1:27 - Neither did Manasseh drive out the inhabitants of Bethshean and her towns... - Because the COI did not heed the counsels of God driving out and utterly destroying their enemies in the land, they became as briers and thorns to them. See Eze 28:20-24

Judg 1:28

Judges 1:28 - And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, and did not utterly drive them out - contrary to the command of God to utterly drive out and destroy the inhabitants of the land (Ex 23:23, 24), the COI compromised and allowed them to remain, thus becoming a snare unto the people through intermarriage and by their idolatrous customs. See Gen 6:1-3

Judg 2:1

Judges 2:1 - And an angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I swear unto your fathers; and I said, I will never break my covenant with you - Angel of the Covenant is Jesus Christ. Jacob knows now that it is the Angel of the covenant with whom he has been in conflict. Though disabled, and suffering the keenest pain, he does not relinquish his purpose. Long has he endured perplexity, remorse, and trouble for his sin; now he must have the assurance that it is pardoned. The divine visitant seems about to depart; but Jacob clings to him, pleading for a blessing. The Angel urges, "Let me go; for the day breaketh;" but the patriarch exclaims, "I will not let thee go, except thou bless me." What confidence, what firmness and perseverance, are here displayed! Had this been a boastful, presumptuous claim, Jacob would have been instantly destroyed; but his was the assurance of one who confesses his weakness and unworthiness, yet trusts the mercy of a covenant-keeping God. - {GC88 616.3}

Judg 2:2

Judg 2:2 - ye shall make no league - the COI were to utterly destroy the heathen nations and make no league with them (Deut 7:1-6). Yet, in their rebellion, they disobeyed God and therefore He would not drive those nations out and they would become a stumbling block to Israel. See Ex 23:27-33

Judg 2:5

Judges 2:5 - Bochim - meaning "weepers", where the COI weeped when reproved for having broken God's covenant.

Judg 2:10

Judg 2:10 - arose another generation - after the death of Josh and those who entered into the promised land, there arose another generation that did not know the Lord, His marvelous works towards the COI and kept not His commandments (Deut 6:20-25; Ps 106:7). This is a breakdown in the parenting as the parents forsook their responsibility in teaching their children all that the Lord and Moses commanded them to teach (Deut 6:1-18). Evidences of this error of the parents and leader's parts were seen in the heathen nations not being displaced and destroyed by the COI. (Ex 23:22-24; Deut 6:20-25, 11:18-25; Judg 2:1-5); Ps 78:4-8

Judg 2:11

Judges 2:11 - And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim - See Num 22:41, 25:1-3; Deut 12:29-31

Judg 2:12

Judges 2:12 - And they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed themselves unto them, and provoked the LORD to anger - a curse was upon the COI as they forsook the Lord and turned to idol gods. See Deut 11:28

Judg 2:14

Judges 2:14 - And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies - See Lev 26:17, 22

Judg 2:21

Judg 2:21-24 - I will not drive out - God did not drive out all the enemies of Israel in the time of Josh in order to test them, to see if they would walk in His ways as Josh and his generation or forsake Him.

Judg 3:1

Judg 3:1 - Now these are the nations which the LORD left, to prove Israel by them, even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan - God permitted 5 nations of the Canaanites to remain to see if the COI would remain faithful to Him, to forsake their gods, not intermarry with them, but to be a light to them so that they may hear the gospel of Jesus Christ. This was their first opportunity to obey the Lord and the covenant they established with Him. See Judges 3:5

Judg 3:5

Judges 3:5 - And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, Hittites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Hivites, and Jebusites - the Lord purposed for Israel to be separate from the nations and not reckoned with them. This is not what Israel did. See Num 23:9

Judg 3:6

Judges 3:6 - And they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods - See Gen 24:3, 37, 28:6; Ex 34:12-16; Judg 21:7, 18

Judg 3:7

Judges 3:7 - And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgot the LORD their God, and served Baalim and the groves - See Josh 24:16-18, 21, 24; Judges 10:6

Judg 3:8

Judges 3:8 - Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Chushanrishathaim king of Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel served Chushanrishathaim eight years - See Judges 10:7

Judg 3:8

Judges 3:8 - Chushanrishathaim - Kuwshan Proper Name Masculine apparently from (03572) and the dual of (07564) apparently from and the dual of ; Cushan of double wickedness; Cushan-Rishathajim, a Mesopotamian king:--Chushan-rishathayim. Chushan-rishathaim = "twice-wicked Cushan"

Judg 3:9

Judges 3:9 - And when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer to the children of Israel, who delivered them, even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother - See Judges 10:10-14

Judg 3:9

Judges 3:9 - even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother - Othniel, brother of Caleb, became the third judge to rule over Israel. See Judges 3:10

Judg 3:10

Judges 3:10 - And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him - the Spirit of the LORD would "come upon" individuals under the Old Covenant, empowering them to do the LORD's biddings, unlike under the New Covenant, where the Holy Spirit seeks to abide with and within each individual. See Jer 31:31-34; Act 1:8; Joh 14:16, 17

Judg 3:13

Judges 3:13 - possessed the city of palm trees - Jericho - See Deut 34:3

Judg 3:17

Judg 3:17 - and Eglon was a very fat man - Elgin was morbidly obese.

Judg 3:24

Judges 3:24 - When he was gone out, his servants came; and when they saw that, behold, the doors of the parlour were locked, they said, Surely he covereth his feet in his summer chamber - Eglon's servants thought he was taking a dump.

Judg 3:31

Judges 3:31 - GOAD, n. A pointed instrument used to stimulate a beast to move faster.

Judg 4:4

Judges 4:4 - And Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time - that Deborah was judge over Israel was a sign that Israel was in apostasy, outside of God's will according. See Judges 4:1; Isa 3:12, 4; Gen 3:17

Judg 4:7

Judges 4:7 - I will draw unto thee to the river Kishon Sisera - God's hand was that which drew Sisera as a fisher draws a fish to a hook.

Judg 4:7

Judges 4:7 - I will deliver him into thine hand - the battle would be of the LORD. He would be the One to bring victory to Israel.

Judg 4:8

Judges 4:8 - If thou wilt go with me, then I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, then I will not go - the prophetess declared to Barak the words of the LORD, that he should go with 10K men and confront his enemies. Compare Barak's petition to Deborah to that of Moses to the Lord in Ex 33:11-17. Surely, the COI had not learned to trust in the arm of the LORD over the arm of men. See Jer 17:5-8.

Judg 4:21

Judg 4:21 - Then Jael Heber's wife took a nail of the tent, and took an hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground: for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died - See Judges 9:53, 54

Judg 5:20

Judges 5:20 - They fought from heaven; the stars in their courses fought against Sisera - See Judges 4:14, 15; Rev 17:14

Judg 5:21

Judges 5:21 - river of Kishon - See 1Kin 18:40; Rev 16:14-16

Judg 6:13

Judges 6:12 - Oh my Lord, if the LORD be with us why has this befallen us? - Gideon's question was totally unwarranted given the prevalence of apostasy in the land. Despite Gideon's accusation of the LORD, He still purposed to use him against Israel's enemies, the Midianites.

Judg 6:13

Judges 6:12 - but now the LORD hath forsaken us - It is in man's selfish nature to defend self and accuse when he should humble himself in repentance for his sins committed. The LORD declares: "But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear." Isa 59:2

Judg 6:22

Judges 6:22 - And when Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the LORD, Gideon said,

Alas, O Lord GOD! for because I have seen an angel of the LORD face to face - See Ex 33:20

Judg 6:25

Judg 6:25-30 - throw down alter of Baal - the COI had become so depraved that they erected alters to the foreign gods of the heathen nations. When Gideon threw down the alter and established an alter to the Lord, the people inquired who did it and sought to kill Gideon.

Judg 7:2

Judges 7:2 - lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, Mine own hand hath saved me - Eph 2:9

Judg 7:13

Judg 7:13, 14 - sword of Gideon - God caused the enemies of the COI to prophecy their destruction and to take up their oracle about Gideon's conquest over them.

Judg 7:18

Judges 7:18 - The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon - the statement speaks of a joint effort of God and man. God gives us the grace and the power, but our cooperation through surrender, trust and obedience enables God to will and to do of His good pleasure. All are yet on probation; the present is a state of trial. The decision of the coming Judgment depends upon our manner of life; our diligence or our neglect; our bringing forth fruit or our being unfruitful. Paul warns the converts from the Gentiles by the example of the Jews who were rejected. He says: "Because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear; for if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee." Rom. 11:20, 21. {1882 JHW, JBF 24.2} Is this inconsistent with grace? No; it is free grace that has opened the way for our escape from eternal ruin. Grace has made our salvation possible. Grace guides and assists us every step on the way. Grace opens the way and assists us, but grace does not insure our salvation without our availing ourselves of its provisions, any more than favor and good will would prevent a man starving if he refused to eat the food which was freely provided for him, and freely offered to him. Grace does not destroy the power of choice, nor release us from the duty and necessity of choosing. Grace will assist us in the work of overcoming, but grace will not release us from the necessity of overcoming. Grace will clothe us with an invincible armor; but grace will not fight our battles for us if we sit still and do nothing. It is now as of old: "The sword of the Lord, and of Gideon." Grace threw down the walls of Jericho; but they would not have fallen if the children of Israel had neglected to compass the city as they were commanded to do. Grace saved Noah from the flood but it would not if he had not built an ark. God has done and will do all that is necessary to make full provision for our salvation. He will fulfill all his promises, if we will fulfill their conditions. But he will never do for us that which he has commanded us to do. Grace encourages trust; it does not tolerate presumption.

Judg 8:27

Judg 8:27 - Gideon made an ephod - Because he had been commanded to offer sacrifice upon the rock where the Angel appeared to him, Gideon concluded that he had been appointed to officiate as a priest. Without waiting for the divine sanction, he determined to provide a suitable place, and to institute a system of worship similar to that carried on at the tabernacle. With the strong popular feeling in his favor he found no difficulty in carrying out his plan. At his request all the earrings of gold taken from the Midianites were given him as his share of the spoil. The people also collected many other costly materials, together with the richly adorned garments of the princes of Midian. From the material thus furnished, Gideon constructed an ephod and a breastplate, in imitation of those worn by the high priest. His course proved a snare to himself and his family, as well as to Israel. The unauthorized worship led many of the people finally to forsake the Lord altogether, to serve idols. After Gideon's death great numbers, among whom were his own family, joined in this apostasy. The people were led away from God by the very man who had once overthrown their idolatry. - {PP 555.6}

Judges 9:1 - Abimelech - Ábiymelek Proper Name Masculine ab-ee-mel'-ek from (01) and (04428) from and ; father of (the) king; Abimelek, the name of two Philistine kings and of two Israelites:-Abimelech. Abimelech = "Melek is father" or "my father is king" Abimelech was the son of Gideon's handmade, an illegitimate half brother of Gideon's other 31 sons.

Judg 9:1

Judg 9:1 -Jerubbaal - Yrubba`al Proper Name Masculine yer-oob-bah'-al from (07378) and (01168) from and ; Baal will contend; Jerubbaal, a symbol. name of Gideon:-Jerubbaal. Jerubbaal = "let Baal contend"

Judg 9:2

Judges 9:2 - Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of Shechem, Whether is better for you, either that all the sons of Jerubbaal, which are threescore and ten persons, reign over you, or that one reign over you? remember also that I am your bone and your flesh - Abimelech sought to out maneuver his brothers for succession in the ruling over Israel as a Judge. Rather than pursue righteousness, he used devilish human stratagem to gain power. See Eze 28:16-18

Judg 9:4

Judges 9:4 - Abimelech hired vain and light persons, which followed him - feet that are swift to do evil people who are inclined to evil - See 1Kin 21:10; Prov 6:18; Rom 3:15

Judg 9:5

Judges 9:5 - And he went unto his father's house at Ophrah, and slew his brethren the sons of Jerubbaal, being threescore and ten persons, upon one stone: notwithstanding yet Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself - a son of the serpent with murder in his heart - See John 8:44

Judg 9:5

Judges 9:6 - notwithstanding yet Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself - Jotham would stand for justice and call the people to consider their trespasses against God and the household of Gideon (Jerubbaal). see Judges 9:7-20

Judg 9:6

Judges 9:6 - And all the men of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of Millo, and went, and made Abimelech king, by the plain of the pillar that was in Shechem - this was the first affront to make a king in Israel other than the LORD. See 1Sam 8

Judg 9:15

Judges 9:15 - And the bramble said unto the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow: and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon - the bramble, the basest of men is being chosen to rule over the exalted people of God in Jotham's parable.

Judg 9:23

Judges 9:23 - Then God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech - God caused the devil to get between Abimelech and his kinsmen in Shechem. See 1Kin 22:21-23; Isa 19:13, 14

Judg 9:24

Judges 9:24 - That the cruelty done to the threescore and ten sons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother, which slew them; and upon the men of Shechem, which aided him in the killing of his brethren - See Judes 9:4, 5

Judg 9:41

Judges 9:41 - Arumah - Áruwmah Proper Name Location ar-oo-maw' a variation of (07316) a variation of ; height; Arumah, a place in Palestine:--Arumah. Arumah = "I shall be exalted" See Num 14:21

Judg 9:45

Judges 9:45 - And Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and slew the people that was therein, and beat down the city, and sowed it with salt - Abimelech fights against his kinsmen who placed them in office and slaughters them.

Judg 9:49

Judges 9:49 - And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them to the hold, and set the hold on fire upon them; so that all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women - wicked Abimelech burns over 1000 people in the tower of Shechem.

Judg 9:53

Judges 9:53 - And a certain woman cast a piece of a millstone upon Abimelech's head, and all to brake his skull - a woman gained the victory over Abimelech by dropping part of a millstone upon his head.

Judg 9:54

Judges 9:54 - Then he called hastily unto the young man his armourbearer, and said unto him, Draw thy sword, and slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slew him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died - Abimelech did not want the shame of having a woman kill him as Cisera, so he called his armor bearer to kill him. See Judg 4:17-22

Judg 9:56

Judges 9:56 - Thus God rendered the wickedness of Abimelech, which he did unto his father, in slaying his seventy brethren - See Judges 9:5, 6, 23

Judg 9:57

Judges 9:57 - And all the evil of the men of Shechem did God render upon their heads: and upon them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal - Judges 9:23, 24

Judg 10:1

Judges 10:1 - Tola - Towla` Proper Name Masculine to-law' the same as (08438) the same as ; worm; Tola, the name of two Israelites:--Tola. Tola = "worm"

Judg 10:6

Judges 10:6 - And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim, and Ashtaroth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines, and forsook the LORD, and served not him - See Judges 3:5-7

Judg 10:7

Judges 10:7 - And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the children of Ammon - See Judges 3:8

Judg 10:10

Judges 10:10 - And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, saying, We have sinned against thee, both because we have forsaken our God, and also served Baalim - See Judges 13:9

Judg 10:16

Judges 10:16 - And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the LORD: and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel - God is a God of great compassion, pity and mercy! Thank you Lord!! See Isa 63:7-9

Judg 11:1

Judges 11:1 - Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valour, and he was the son of an harlot: and Gilead begat Jephthah - Jephthah's lineage is nothing to write home about, and yet the Bible does not wink, blink, or mince any words. See Mt 1:5

Judg 11:2

Judges 11:2 - And Gilead's wife bare him sons; and his wife's sons grew up, and they thrust out Jephthah, and said unto him, Thou shalt not inherit in our father's house; for thou art the son of a strange woman - this slight caused Jephthah great pain, seen in his coldness when his brethren came to ask his assistance. See Judges 11:7-10

Judg 11:12

Judges 11:12 - And Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me to fight in my land? - Jephthah inquires with the king of Ammon his cause for waging war against Israel, as they never waged war, nor seized any of their land? See Deut 2:19; Judges 11:27

Judg 11:13

Judges 11:13 - And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Jephthah, Because Israel took away my land, when they came up out of Egypt, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and unto Jordan: now therefore restore those lands again peaceably - the claim of the king of Ammon was not true, Israel never seized any land of Ammon by the command of the LORD - See Deut 2:19

Judg 11:17

Judges 11:17 - Then Israel sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land: but the king of Edom would not hearken thereto. And in like manner they sent unto the king of Moab: but he would not consent: and Israel abode in Kadesh - See Num 20:14-21

Judg 11:19

Judges 11:19 - And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said unto him, Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land into my place - See Deut 2:29-32

Judg 11:27

Judges 11:27 - Wherefore I have not sinned against thee, but thou doest me wrong to war against me: the LORD the Judge be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon. - See Judges 11:12

Judg 11:30

Judg 11:30-40 - Jephthah vowed - Jephthah's vow is an example of a covenant that we should never enter into. His intentions were good in seeking the Lord and asking His mercies but God only requires that we commit to obedience. That Jephthah's daughter was first to come from his gates, he should never have carried forth such a vow of killing/sacrificing his own daughter, a violation of another commandment of God. We must guard our words in committing and swearing lest we profane God. See Prov 6:1-5

Judg 11:30

Judg 11:30-40 - Jephthah vowed - Jephthah's vow is an example of a covenant that we should never enter into. His intentions were good in seeking the Lord and asking His mercies but God only requires that we commit to obedience. That Jephthah's daughter was first to come from his gates, he should never have carried forth such a vain oath and vow of killing/sacrificing his own daughter, a violation of another commandment of God. We must guard our words in committing and swearing lest we profane God. See Prov 6:1-5

Judg 11:39

Judges 11:39 - And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned unto her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she knew no man. And it was a custom in Israel - the fact that Jephthah carried forth the ungodly vow shows how far Israel had wandered from the truths of God. Moses clearly stated that Israel should never cause their children to pass through the fire (Lev 18:31; Deut 18:10). Therefore, this despicable act of sin was a result of not knowing God or His requirements for us. See Judges 21:25; 17:6; Isa 53:6

Judg 12:1

Judg 12:1 - men of Ephraim gathered - the Children of Ephraim confronted Jephthah for not engaging them to fight against Ammon. Similarly the men of Ephraim, who stood back and watched Gideon's conflict and only entered after Gideon's victory was decisive, accused Gideon of a similar slight (Judg 8:1-3). Ephraim apparently had a superiority complex among the COI yet were unwilling to take a lead position when circumstances required brave leadership. This superiority complex was first seen in their proud boast to Josh of being a "great and strong people" and therefore requesting a double-portion of the previously conquered lands. Not wanting to go to war and subdue the unconquered territories given to Israel by the Lord, Ephraim sought ease and comfort. Thinking that Josh, an Ephraimite would play favorites with his tribe the asked him for a double portion which he unequivocally rejected, being a man of integrity (Josh 17:14-18).

Judg 12:4

Judg 12:4-6 - Jephthah fought against Ephraim - the conflict of the Ephraimites and Jephthah the Gileadite is the first noted civil war in Israel, provoked by the cowardly and overbearing Ephraimites.

Judg 13:5

Judges 13:5 - for the child shall be a Nazarite unto God from the womb - Samson's birth and life as a Nazarite was a type of Christ, one who is consecrated to God from birth and whose life was to be an example of purity, discipline and holiness. See Num 6:2-21; Mt 2:23

Judg 13:20

Judges 13:20 - For it came to pass, when the flame went up toward heaven from off the altar, that the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar. And Manoah and his wife looked on it, and fell on their faces to the ground - In the Old Testament, God was known as the God that answers by fire. However, in the last days, the devil will be permitted to masquerade the works of God, and all eyes will behold the counterfeit so that only those who are acquainted with the truths of God's word will stand true. See 1Kin 18:17-24; Rev 13:13, 14

Judg 13:22

Judges 13:22 - And Manoah said unto his wife, We shall surely die, because we have seen

God - See Ex 33:20, 3:6; Isa 6:5

Judg 14:15

Judges 14:15-18 - And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said unto Samson's wife, Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire: have ye called us to take that we have? is it not so... See Ex 20:14

Judg 15:11

Judg 15:11 - 3000 men of Judah - rather than siding with Samson against their common enemy, the sons of Judah cowardly go to apprehend Samson to hand him over to their enemy, the Philistines.

Judg 15:19

Judg 15:19 - clave an hollow place that was in the jaw - God brought forth water out of an asses jawbone!!! PRAISE THE LORD!!!

Judg 16:18

Judg 16:18 - told her all his heart - see Prov 31:3

Judg 17:5

Judges 17:5 - And the man Mic had an house of gods, and made an ephod, and teraphim, and consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest - Mic had a house of gods and made his son the priest over the gods. This level of confusion and apostasy is best described in the next verse, Judges 17:6; Eccl 7:29

Judg 17:6

Judges 17:6 - In those days there was no king in Israel, but every man did that which was right in his own eyes - The statement is made as a prelude to the apostasies to follow in the chapter. See Judges 21:25

Judg 17:7

Judges 17:7 - And there was a young man out of Bethlehemjudah of the family of Judah, who was a Levite, and he sojourned there - the young Levite who dwelt in BethlehemJudah felt out of place, not having a land inheritance but dwelling among his kinsmen in cities dedicated to the Levites to raise their cattle. Not wanting to fulfill his appointed role of ministering to the tribes of Israel, he found himself wandering, seeking a home. See Num 18:20-32; Joshua 14:3, 4

Judg 17:9

Judges 17:9 - and I go to sojourn where I may find a place - the Levite was searching for a place to live as a wanderer. This was unheard of since all had been given their appointed lands and roles to perform within Israel.

Judg 17:10

Judges 17:10 - And Mic said unto him, Dwell with me, and be unto me a father and a priest, and I will give thee ten shekels of silver by the year, and a suit of apparel, and thy victuals. So the Levite went in - Mic, apparently older than the young Levite, welcomes him into his home as his personal priest. See Judges 17:11

Judg 17:11

Judges 17:11 - And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was unto him as one of his sons - Mic, apparently older than the young Levite, welcomes him into his home as his personal priest. See Isa 3:12

Judg 17:13

Judges 17:13 - Then said Mic, Now know I that the LORD will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to my priest - Mic felt good that he now had an official Levite living with him to serve as his personal priest over his household of idols. A foreshadowing of the sins of Israel who in time would worship the gods of the nations as well as the True God and find safety in doing so. See Ezekiel 8

Judg 18:30

Judges 18:30 - And the children of Dan set up the graven image: and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the land - the tribe of Dan was the first to rebel entirely against God by setting up their idols. In the time of Jeroboam, he again established false worship in Dan, setting up a golden calf there and in Bethel. For this cause, Dan, just like Ephraim are excluded from the redeemed. See Hos 4:17; Rev 7

Judg 19:1

Judges 19:1 - And it came to pass in those days, when there was no king in Israel - the Bible identifies the time of the judges, when men did as they pleased. See Judges 21:25

Judg 19:10

Judges 19:10 - Jebus - Ybuwc Proper Name Location yeb-oos' from (0947) from ; trodden, i.e. threshing-place; Jebus, the aboriginal name of Jerusalem:--Jebus. Jebus = "threshing place" an early name for Jerusalem, the city of the Jebusites; also 'Jebusi'

Judg 19:20

Judges 19:20 - And the old man said, Peace be with thee; howsoever let all thy wants lie upon me; only lodge not in the street - the old man, like Lot, knew the wickedness of the city and insisted the Levite, his concubine and servant stay with him. See Gen 19:1-3

Judg 19:22

Judges 19:22 - Now as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain sons of Belial, beset the house round about, and beat at the door, and spake to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house, that we may know him - See Gen 19:4-10

Judg 19:23

Judges 19:23 - And the man, the master of the house, went out unto them, and said unto them, Nay, my brethren, nay, I pray you, do not so wickedly; seeing that this man is come into mine house, do not this folly - See Gen 19:7

Judg 19:24

Judges 19:24 - Behold, here is my daughter a maiden, and his concubine; them I will bring out now, and humble ye them, and do with them what seemeth good unto you: but unto this man do not so vile a thing - See Gen 19:8

Judg 19:28

Judges 19:28 - And he said unto her, Up, and let us be going. But none answered. Then the man took her up upon an ass, and the man rose up, and gat him unto his place - the callousness and utter disregard by the Levite for his concubine is appalling!

Judg 20:1

Judges 20:1 - from Dan even to Beersheba - the term denotes the entirety of Israel and alludes to the two sticks of Eze 37 coming together. There are 10 references of this statement in the Bible, drawing reference to the 10 kings of Rev 17: Judges 20:1 1Sam 3:1, 20 - restoration of the SOP 2Sam 3:10 - translation of the kingdom from Saul to David (at Sunday Law) 2Sam 17:11 - Absalom gathering all to rebel against the king 2Sam 24:2 - David numbers the people 2Sam 24:15- punishment for pride of numbering people 1Kin 4:25 - rest in Solomon's day 1 Chronicles 21:2 - David numbers the people in pride 2Chron 30:5 - all agree to keep the Passover in the time of Hezekiah Am 8:14 - all who practice sin throughout the land of Israel

Judg 20:13

Judges 20:13 - Now therefore deliver us the men, the children of Belial, which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel: - Rather than slay the wicked men who committed the grievous act against the Levite's concubine, the children of Benjamin came to their defense.

Judg 20:15

Judges 20:15 - beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men - rather than surrender the 700 wicked men of Gibeah, the entire tribe of Benjamin sought to go to war against all of their brothers.

Judg 20:18

Judges 20:18 - And the children of Israel arose, and went up to the house of God, and asked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah shall go up first - God gave His consent to going to battle against the children of Benjamin, to wipe out the sin of the men of Gibeah.

Judg 21:25

Judges 21:25 - In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes - See Judges 17:6; Isa 53:6

Ruth

Rut 1:1Back to Table of Contents

Ruth 1:1 - the judges ruled - based on the condition of the nation of Israel during the judges, where "every man did that which was right in his own eyes" (Judges 17:6, 21:25), we deduce that Elimelech, Ruth's father-in-law left Bethlehem-Judah on his own accord without God's blessings, therefore he died and his sons, based on the sins of their father, also died.

Rut 1:1

Ruth 1:1 - there was a famine in the land - Famine in the time of Ruth was probably due to rebellion among the COI (Deut 28:23, 24)

Rut 1:1

Ruth 1:1 - Bethlehemjudah - meaning House of the celebrated bread. This was a blessed place where God's word was to abound but there is a famine in the land. See Am 8:11, 12

Rut 1:1

Ruth 1:1 - Moab (son of Lot born of fornication) was the country of the enemies of God. No Moabite was to be permitted to dwell among the COI because of their wickedness shown the COI as they traveled through the wilderness. See Num 21:29; Deut 23:3-6

Rut 1:2

Ruth 1:2 - Naomi - meaning "the lovable" or "my delight"

Rut 1:2

Ruth 1:2 - Mahlon, the eldest of Naomi's sons, means "sickly".

Rut 1:2

Ruth 1:2 - Chilion - younger of Naomi's sons, meaning the pining one.

Rut 1:2

Ruth 1:2 - Bethlehemjudah - Blessed House of Bread - this was the place to stay in a time of famine, yet Elimelech chooses to leave and go in to the land of the Moabites, the enemies of God. Deut 23:3-6

Rut 1:2

Ruth 1:2 - they came into the country of Moab - In the case of Abraham, God permitted Abraham to move and sojourn in the land of Egypt. In the time of Isaac however, God told Isaac to stay put and He would bless and provide for him. That Elimelech left the "house of the celebrated bread" to dwell in the land of Moab was definitely a bad move. God strictly forbade the Moabites and Ammonites from dwelling among the congregation of Israel. The move to Moab was surely forbidden. See Deut 23:3, 4

Rut 1:3

Ruth 1:3, 5 - Elimelech Naomi's husband died..Mahlon and Chilion died also - reasoning from cause to effect, it is fair to assume that leaving BethlehemJudah was not a correct move and not within God's will. Surely, their strength was to be still and wait on the LORD. Had God blessed Elimelech and his family in their sojourn in the foreign land of Moab which God strictly forbade, that would have given cause for rebellion among others in Israel. See Isa 30:15, 18

Rut 1:4

Ruth 1:4 - And they took them wives of the women of Moab - a direct violation of the law given to Israel. See Deut 23:3-6

Rut 1:4

Ruth 1:4 - dwelled there about ten years - a testing period. See Gen 16:3 - Abram & Sarai tested Gen 31:41 - Jacob's wages changed 10x

Rut 1:5

Ruth 1:5 - Mahlon - Machlown Proper Name Masculine makh-lone' from (02470) from ; sick; Machlon, an Israelite:--Mahlon. Mahlon = "sick"

Rut 1:5

Ruth 1:5 - Chilion - Kilyown Proper Name Masculine kil-yone' a form of (03631) a form of ; Kiljon, an Israelite:--Chilion. Chilion = "pining" (suffer a mental or physical decline due to a broken heart)

Rut 1:6

Ruth 1:6 - Then she arose with her daughters in lw, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard... that the LORD had visited His people in giving them bread - Naomi had a Prodigal Son moment when she thought to return to BethlehemJudah. See Lk 15:17

Rut 1:6

Ruth 1:6 - for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the LORD had visited his people in giving them bread - God showed favor to Israel after they repented and turned their hearts towards Him during their time of famine.

Rut 1:8

Ruth 1:8 - Naomi said unto her two daughters in law, Go, return each to her mother's house: the LORD deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt with the dead, and with me - Naomi issues a command that is as a testing challenge two her two daughters-in-law to see if they will return with her to the land and God of Israel or return to their pagan land. Ruth and Orpah illustrate the Everlasting Gospel, two classes.

Rut 1:10

Ruth 1:10 - And they said unto her, Surely we will return with thee unto thy people - two classes are seen in the daughters-in-law of Naomi. Both tell her that they will surely return with her to her homeland but one, Orpah, drew back to dwell among her former idols. See Mt 25:1-10

Rut 1:13

Ruth 1:13 - for it grieveth me much for your sakes that the hand of the LORD is gone out against me - Naomi speaks as one who has lost all hope. She speaks as if the Lord is punishing her, bringing about her sorrow-filled circumstances. Perhaps she recognized the bad move in leaving BethlehemJudah for the land of Moab and the resulting evils that came from the decision. See Ruth 1:20, 21

Rut 1:14

Ruth 1:14 - Orpah kissed her mother in law; but Ruth clave unto her - one daughter-in-law kissed Naomi in departing for the land of evil, similar to Judas (Lk 22:48); the other daughter-in-law clave to Naomi as Jacob, who would not let go of His Lord until he received a blessing (Gen 32:26).

Rut 1:15

Ruth 1:15 - Behold, thy sister in law is gone back unto her people, and unto her gods - Ephraim is joined to idols, let him alone (Hos 4:17)

Rut 1:16

Ruth 1:16 - thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God - God promised to accept the foreigner that humbly accepted Him. See Isa 56:3-7

Rut 1:18

Ruth 1:18 - Ruth proved true to her words as she journeyed to her new home with Naomi in BethlehemJudah.

Rut 1:19

Ruth 1:19 - So they two went until they came to Bethlehem. And it came to pass, when they were come to Bethlehem, that all the city was moved about them, and they said, Is this Naomi? - all the city was astir with the arrival of Naomi and Ruth to Bethlehem. Apparently, Naomi and her family were highly regarded when they left and the people were astonished by the inglorious return.

Rut 1:20

Ruth 1:20 - Mara - meaning "bitter" or "sad"

Rut 1:22

Ruth 1:22 - and they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest- barley is among the first of the grains to be harvested.

Rut 2:1

Ruth 2:1 - And Naomi had a kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name was Boaz - Boaz was a wealthy and apparently older man who had never married. These facts may give clue to perhaps an uncomely appearance, yet there was evidently nobleness of character in him.

Rut 2:1

Ruth 2:1 - Boaz - meaning "alacrity" which is defined: swift and cheerful willingness. Boaz's response to Ruth's request for marriage fit his name.

Rut 2:2

Rut 2:2 - Let me now go to the field, and glean ears of corn after him in whose sight I shall find grace. - The Lord is merciful and kind to all His children. Jesus foresaw that His progenitor Ruth, would be in poverty and would rely upon the gleaning of Boaz's field. Jesus makes provision for all of His children if we would but obey His commands. See Lev 19:9, 10; Deut 24:19-21

Rut 2:3

Ruth 2:3 - And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers - See Deut 24:19-22

Rut 2:3

Ruth 2:3 - hap - meaning luck or good fortune. Rather, this was the providence of God that guided her to Boaz's field, a close kin. See Ruth 2:20

Rut 2:4

Ruth 2:4 - And, behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said unto the reapers, The LORD be with you. And they answered him, The LORD bless thee - as a descendant of Abraham and heir of the promise, all who blessed Boaz were blessed as well. See Gen 12:3

Rut 2:8

Ruth 2:8 - God showed great favor to Boaz because he had a noble character. He assured Ruth his protection and provision, telling her to go no where else but to glean among his workers.

Rut 2:10

Ruth 2:10 - Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldest take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger? - See Ps 8:4

Rut 2:11

Ruth 2:11, 12 - It hath fully been shewed me, all that thou hast done unto thy mother in law - Ruth's reputation preceded her because of her kindness towards Naomi: humility, compassion, faith, hard work, love for others and love for the God of Israel. See Ruth 3:11, 2:23

Rut 2:12

Ruth 2:12 - under whose wings thou art come to trust - See Ps 91:1-3

Rut 2:17

Ruth 2:17 - So she gleaned in the field until even, and beat out that she had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley - Ruth was not afraid to work. She put in a full day's labor in order to support herself and her mother-in-law.

Rut 2:20

Ruth 2:20 - And Naomi said unto her daughter in law, Blessed be he of the LORD, who hath not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man is near of kin unto us, one of our next kinsmen - Praise God, He connects the dots in our lives. God placed Ruth right where He would be able to bless her with an expected end. See Gen 24:10-27

Rut 2:23

Ruth 2:23 - So she kept fast by the maidens of Boaz to glean unto the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and dwelt with her mother in law - Ruth proved to be diligent in labor and resourceful. She worked for the support of herself and her mother-in-law.

Rut 3:3

Ruth 3:3 - Wash thyself therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: but make not thyself known unto the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking - Naomi is scheming on Ruth's behalf to set her up with Boaz.

Rut 3:3

Ruth 3:3 - but make not thyself known unto the man - hide yourself until he has eaten, drank and is asleep

Rut 3:4

Ruth 3:4 - uncover his feet, and lay thee down - a statement of submission and a request to be taken under one's care. See Ruth 3:9

Rut 3:5

Ruth 3:5 - And she said unto her, All that thou sayest unto me I will do - See Ex 19:8; Lk 1:38

Rut 3:9

Ruth 3:9 - I am Ruth thine handmaid: spread therefore thy skirt over thine handmaid; for thou art a near kinsman - Ruth did not come demanding her redemption from Boaz but humbly submitted herself to his good judgment

Rut 3:9

Ruth 3:8 - spread therefore thy skirt over thine handmaid - the word skirt is translated "wing", suggesting that Ruth desired that Boaz become her covering as the LORD has been to us all. See Ruth 2:12; Ps 91:1-4; Ezekiel 16:8

Rut 3:10

Ruth 3:10 - for thou hast shewed more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as thou followedst not young men, whether poor or rich - Boaz was apparently much older than Ruth and yet she did not seek to be with a younger man.

Rut 3:11

Ruth 3:11 - I will do to thee all that thou requirest - Ruth and Boaz had to act in faith that the other next of kin would not step forward.

Rut 3:11

Ruth 3:11 - for all the city of my people doth know that thou art a virtuous woman - See Ruth 2:11

Rut 3:12

Ruth 3:12 - And now it is true that I am thy near kinsman: howbeit there is a kinsman nearer than I - Boaz was near of kin to Elimelech, but there was one closer in relation to him. If Boaz should fulfill the oath of kinsman redemption, he would forfeit his lineage and in essence, become a son of Elimelech, carrying on his lineage on his behalf. So it was with Jesus, mankind's Kinsman Redeemer. Jesus inserted Himself into the human race as the Son of God and the Second Adam to establish a new lineage based on righteousness for which all who choose could align or graft themselves into by faith. (SDA BC2): The degree of relationship was apparently the determining factor. It was not any kinsman who might claim the right to Ruth's affections and her property. The nearer the kinsman, presumably, the greater would be his interest to protect the rights and privileges of the widow and her deceased husband. Conversely, he was presumed to be less influenced by selfish interests.

Rut 3:17

Ruth 3:17 - And she said, These six measures of barley gave he me; for he said to me, Go not empty unto thy mother in law - Boaz's generosity would be rewarded!

Rut 4:2

Ruth 4:2 - And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here - the ten witnesses to Boaz's contract for Ruth typify the 10 kings of Rev 17 that begin to rule at the Sunday Law. The 10 Kings represent the 7th kingdom, which is preceded by the 6th kingdom, the United States which comes to its end at the Sunday Law.

Rut 4:3

Ruth 4:3 - which was our brother Elimelech's - Ruth 4:3 (SDABC2): The statement of Boaz to the effect that the land belonged to Elimelech implies that the two sons, Mahlon and Chilion, had not yet been given their inheritance. Therefore it is Naomi, and not Ruth, who sells the land. Nevertheless, a child of Ruth would legally fall heir to Elimelech's land, and Naomi is therefore ready to transfer title to the property of her deceased husband to the kinsman who would marry Ruth. This kinsman would hold the land in trust until a child born to Ruth should become eligible to inherit it in his own right. The fact that the land was to be sold—leased, we would say today—to a near kinsman who would marry Ruth and hold it in trust for her offspring by this union, called for the application of two provisions of the Mosaic civil code. The laws on the transfer of land (Lev. 25:23-28) and the marriage of a widow to a near kinsman (Deut. 25:5-10) both applied to the case, with the latter placing a limitation upon the former.

Rut 4:15

Ruth 4:15 - for thy daughter in law, which loveth thee, which is better to thee than seven sons, hath born him. 16 And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse unto it - See Ps 68:6

1 Samuel

1Sam 1:2

Back to Table of Contents

1Sam 1:2 - And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children - the practice of polygamy was frowned upon but winked at by God until Jesus restated the original plan for marriage. See Mt 19:3-5

1Sam 1:2

1Sam 1:2 - and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children - it is obvious that Elkanah's second wife came as a result of the barrenness of his beloved, first wife, Hannah.

1Sam 1:3

1Sam 1:3 - worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in Shiloh - Shiloh was the site where God commanded the COI to set up the tabernacle upon entering the promised land.

1Sam 1:3

1Sam 1:3 - Shiloh - meaning "place of rest", a city in Ephraim and temporary home of the Ark of the Covenant and the Tabernacle, the place where Samuel grew up.

1Sam 1:5

1Sam 1:5 - But unto Hannah he gave a worthy portion; for he loved Hannah: - Elkanah was sensitive to the embarrassment, feelings of rejection and inadequacy Hannah felt in not being able to bear children, so he overcompensated in giving her special gifts. This naturally, caused friction with Peninnah, who bore children to Elkanah, making for a turbulent household.

1Sam 1:5

1Sam 1:5 - but the LORD had shut up her womb - God had a greater plan in store for Hannah and her seed, Samuel. God knew the powerful man of God Samuel would become for His kingdom and needed to provide the right environment to train, develop, nurture and challenge his young mind before service (1Sam 3:19, 20). God may have foreordained to cause Hannah's barrenness in order to bring a deeper dedication from her heart towards the Lord- one that would be willing to return (sacrifice) the greatest and most sought after of her desires. It was not until Hannah vowed to return to the Lord the thing she wanted the most that the Lord opened her womb to bless her with a son. Being a woman of honor and integrity, she held to her vow and dedicated Samuel to the Lord once weaned. See 1Sam 1:11; James 4:3

1Sam 1:6

1Sam 1:6 - And her adversary also provoked her sore, for to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb - introducing another woman into a home naturally will cause controversy. See Gen 16:1-6

1Sam 1:7

1Sam 1:7 - And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and did not eat - this ordeal, the open display of contempt on an annual basis, wore upon Hannah's spirit.

1Sam 1:8

1Sam 1:8 - Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? am not I better to thee than ten sons? - Elkanah was fully aware of the source of Hannah's grief. He thought that he honored her better than 10 sons would, yet, he did not fully understand a woman's true desires.

1Sam 1:10

1Sam 1:10 - And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore - See Prov 14:10 Hannah's bitterness of soul must have involved: 1. The shame of not being able to bear a child for her husband 2. The reproach from men/women that she in some way must have grieved God, or was in some fashion dishonorable, thus God closed her womb 3. The reproach from her adversary, Peninah, who upon every occasion, used the situation to stab her with an insult 4. Her own questioning, brought upon her by the enemy of souls, whether she had offended God 5. Her fear for the future as a woman without a son to care for her. Children are to understand their responsibilities in honoring their parents by caring for them in their old ages

1Sam 1:11

1Sam 1:11 - And she vowed a vow, and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thine handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but wilt give unto thine handmaid a man child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head - Hannah, more than anything, sought that her reproach be removed and that the Lord restore her honor to her. She was willing to return the gift of the Lord to Him, so long as she had peace of mind that she had not offended Him and was not a reproach of men.

1Sam 1:11

1Sam 1:11 - then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head - Hannah demonstrated selflessness, in being willing to dedicate her firstborn son to God and to his service. She believed that if God would care for her in giving her a son, He would care for her in her old age as well.

1Sam 1:13

1Sam 1:13 - Now Hannah, she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken - Hannah's acts were not so strange that such a conclusion should readily jumped to, but rather, Eli was accustomed seeing the reprehensible behavior from his reprobate sons and immediately thought the worst when he saw Hannah praying, moving her lips, without uttering a word.

1Sam 1:14

1Sam 1:14 - And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee - Eli's unwarranted chastisement of Hannah was what should have been spoken to his own sons from their youth.

1Sam 1:15

1Sam 1:15 - I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD - naturally the inference was that Hannah partook of fermented wine, that causes drunkenness. Hannah responded that she was a grieved woman, merely pouring out her soul to God for mercy.

1Sam 1:16

1Sam 1:16 - Count not thine handmaid for a daughter of Belial - Please do not look upon me, your servant, as a reprobate and wicked woman.

1Sam 1:17

1Sam 1:17 - The blessing Eli spoke to Hannah would be granted for her faith, sincerity and the righteousness of Christ God saw in Hannah

1Sam 1:18

1Sam 1:18 - And she said, Let thine handmaid find grace in thy sight. So the woman went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more sad - Hannah found peace and solace in the blessing from Eli, the High Priest and in trusting in the Lord's grace and mercy.

1Sam 1:18

1Sam 1:18 - and her countenance was no more sad - great peace have they that love thy law and nothing shall offend them. See Ps 119:165

1Sam 1:19

1Sam 1:19 - and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and the LORD remembered her - The Lord remembered the sincerity of His daughter and her vow in light of His greater plan, and honored her petition.

1Sam 1:20

1Sam 1:20 - Samuel - meaning "His name is El {God}" - heard of God; Shemuel, the name of three Israelites:--Samuel, Shemuel.

1Sam 1:20

1Sam 1:20 - Because I have asked him of the LORD - The effectual fervent prayer of the righteous availeth much. See James 5:16; 1Joh 5:14, 15

1Sam 1:22

1Sam 1:22 - But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there abide for ever - Hannah remembered her vow to the Lord and purposed to see it through. When she finished weaning Samuel, she purposed to dedicate and leave him to be cared for by the Lord in Shiloh. This took great faith in light of what was openly known by all of Eli and his sons of Belial.

1Sam 1:23

1Sam 1:23 - only the LORD establish his word - Elkanah obviously understood the vow made by Hannah to the LORD and gave his consent to dedicating Samuel forever to God. See Num 30:6-8

1Sam 1:24

1Sam 1:24 - And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bullocks, and one ephah of flour, and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto the house of the LORD in Shiloh: and the child was young - when weaned from breast milk (4, 5) she brought him with an offering to the Lord, to be cared of the Lord.

1Sam 1:27

1Sam 1:27 - For this child I prayed; and the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him - See 1 Sam 1:10, 11, 15, 16, 20

1Sam 1:28

1Sam 1:28 - Therefore also I have lent him to the LORD; as long as he liveth he shall be lent to the LORD - Hannah said she had dedicated Samuel to the Lord forever, as long as he lived, he would be dedicated (lent) to the Lord.

1Sam 2:1

1Sam 2:1 - mine horn is exalted in the LORD - our strength is exalted/established in the LORD. See Ps 46:1, 2

1Sam 2:1

1Sam 2:1 - my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies - See Ps 27:6

1Sam 2:2

1Sam 2:2

1Sam 2:2 - There is none holy as the LORD: for there is none beside thee: neither is there any rock like our God - See Isa 46:9, 10

1Sam 2:3

1Sam 2:3-5 - Talk no more so exceeding proudly; let not arrogancy come out of your mouth: for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed - Hannah sings a song of deliverance, vindication and triumph. She describes how the Lord turns the captivity of those who are humble in spirit and binds the proud and boastful mockers and scorners.

1Sam 2:5

1Sam 2:5 - so that the barren hath born seven; and she that hath many children is waxed feeble - See Isa 54:1-9

1Sam 2:8

1Sam 2:8 - He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the LORD'S, and he hath set the world upon them - See Lk 1:48, 52, 53

1Sam 2:9

1Sam 2:9 - for by strength shall no man prevail - See Ps 20:7; Zech 4:6

1Sam 2:10

1Sam 2:10 - the LORD shall judge the ends of the earth - See Joh 5:22; Act 17:31; Ju 1:15

1Sam 2:10

1Sam 2:10 - and he shall give strength unto his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed - See Ezek 37:24, 25

1Sam 2:12

1Sam 2:13 - sons of Belial - Drunakards, literal and spiritual. Homosexuals/bisexual . See 1Sam 1:13-16, 22; Judges 19:19-22

1Sam 2:15

1Sam 2:15, 16 - Also before they burnt the fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but raw. - The sons of Eli demanded raw, unsodden flesh to eat with the fat, to be roasted rather than boiled. They were truly sons of Belial. - See Lev 6:25-29

1Sam 2:17

1Sam 2:17 - Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD: for men abhorred the offering of the LORD - the offerings of the Lord were most holy, yet they were profaned by the sons of Eli. See Lev 6:27-29

1Sam 2:25

1Sam 2:25 - Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, because the LORD would slay them - Eli's appeals for reform from his two sons was too little, too late. He failed to discipline them in their youth, and therefore, they had no respect for God nor their father.

1Sam 2:30

1Sam 2:30 - Wherefore the LORD God of Israel saith, I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the LORD saith, Be it far from me; for them that honour me I will honour, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed - See Jer 18:7-10; Eze 18:5-24

1Sam 3:1

1Sam 3:1 - the word of the LORD was precious in those days - See Am 8:11-14

1Sam 3:1

1Sam 3:1 - no open vision - open visions were visions given to God's prophets in the presence of others that usually demonstrated a supernatural manifestation from God. Open visions were apparently given only when the people were not in apostasy and were willing to heed the counsels conveyed by God. Where there is no vision, the people perish (Prov 29:38). People perish for lack of knowledge because they have rejected knowledge (Hos 4:6) and keeping the commandments of God. See Num 24:4, 16; Rev 1:10 "Sister White was in vision about twenty minutes or half an hour. As she went into vision every one present seemed to feel the power and presence of God, and some of us did indeed feel the Spirit of God resting upon us mightily. We were engaged in prayer and social meeting Sabbath morning at about nine o'clock. Brother White, my father, and Sister White had prayed, and I was praying at the time. There had been no excitement, no demonstrations. We did plead earnestly with God, however, that he would bless the meeting with his presence, and that he would bless the work in Michigan. As Sister White gave that triumphant shout of 'Glory! g-l-o-r-y! g-l-o-r-y-!' which you have heard her give so often as she goes into vision, Brother White arose and informed the audience that his wife was in vision. After stating the manner of her visions, and that she did not breathe while in vision, he invited any one who wished to do so to come forward and examine her. Dr. Drummond, a physician, who was also a First-day Adventist preacher, who (before he saw her in vision) had declared her visions to be of mesmeric origin, and that he could give her a vision, stepped forward, and after a thorough examination, turned very pale, and remarked, 'She doesn't breathe!' "I am quite certain that she did not breathe at that time while in vision, nor in any of several others which she has had when I was present. The coming out of the vision was as marked as her going into it. The first indication we had that the vision was ended, was in her again beginning to breathe. She drew her first breath deep, long, and full, in a manner showing that her lungs had been entirely empty of air. After drawing the first breath, several minutes passed before she drew the second, which filled the lungs precisely as did the first; then a pause of two minutes, and a third inhalation, after which the breathing became natural." Signed, "M. G. Kellogg, M.D., Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 28, 1890." {The Great Second Advent Movement pg 270}

1Sam 3:3

1Sam 3:3 - ere the lamp of God went out - The Lamp with its daily provision of pure olive oil, furnished by the people as a free-will offering to the Lord for His bountiful provision, and administered by the priests, was to be a perpetual sign of the presence of the Holy Spirit of the LORD (Lev 24:2-4). Eli's eyes had waxed dim, meaning he was made to be blind (spiritually deceived) such that he and his sons neglected the sacred work of the Lord.

1Sam 3:13

1Sam 3:13 - For I have told him that I will judge his house forever - See 1Kin 2:26, 27

1Sam 3:17

1Sam 3:17 - And he said, What is the thing that the LORD hath said unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: God do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from me of all the things that he said unto thee - It was a great cross for me to relate to the erring what had been shown me concerning them. It caused me great distress to see others troubled or grieved. And when obliged to declare the messages, I would often soften them down, and make them appear as favorable for the individual as I could, and then would go by myself and weep in agony of spirit. I looked upon those who had only their own souls to care for, and thought if I were in their condition I would not murmur. It was hard to relate the plain, cutting testimonies given me of God. I anxiously watched the result, and if the persons reproved rose up against the reproof, and afterward opposed the truth, these queries would arise in my mind: Did I deliver the message just as I should? Could there not have been some way to save them? And then such distress pressed upon my soul that I often felt that death would be a welcome messenger, and the grave a sweet resting place. - {1T 73.3}

1Sam 3:18 - And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him - though Samuel was grieved by the message of the Lord and feared to convey the tidings to Eli, he passed the first test of a prophet in speaking exactly what the Lord commanded him to speak. See See 1Kin 22:13, 14; Act 4:18-20

1Sam 3:18

1Sam 3:18 - And he said, It is the LORD: let him do what seemeth him good - Eli showed no great remorse or contrition for the words that he had heard. Unlike the Ninevites who also received words of imminent chastisement and repented with sackcloth and ashes (Jonah 3:5-10) and Hezekiah who was warned to get his house in order for he was to die and petitioned the Lord with great lamentations (2Kin 20:5-8), Eli merely heard the words of the Lord and washed his hands of the matter.

1Sam 3:19

1Sam 3:19 - and the LORD was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground - As Samuel grew in the Lord and committed himself to God's service, God prospered his work such that all that he did and said prospered and came to pass. See Ps 1:3

1Sam 3:20

1Sam 3:20 - And all Israel from Dan even to Beersheba knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the LORD - See 1Tim 4:15

1Sam 4:3

1Sam 4:3 - Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that, when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies - the Lord had forsaken Shiloh and was not present with Israel as they faced their enemies. See Ps 78:60

1Sam 4:4

1Sam 4:4 - So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth between the cherubims: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God - the Ark of the Covenant was profaned in being brought and displayed openly for all to behold. The Ark became nothing more than a talisman for the COI who had consistently turned their back on the Lord and lived in open rebellion to His statutes, laws and commandments.

1Sam 4:5

1Sam 4:5 - And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout - The people were led to believe that despite their rebellion and the sin in the nation, the mere presence of God's ark guaranteed their success. The same spirit existed during the time of Jer, before the Babylonian captivity, where the people thought that as long as they continue the ritual, ceremonial services in the sanctuary, despite the idolatry rampant in society, God's favor would remain upon them and they would never be conquered (Jer 7:1-15). We today as Adventists, being rich and increased with goods, fall under the same delusion, making gods of our weekly Sabbath worship and vegetarian diets. God will remove these practices performed in vanity at the Sunday Law and we will be overthrown unless we repent, be converted so that our sins may be blotted out during the times of refreshing from the presence of the LORD. - See Act 3:19

1Sam 4:11 - And the ark of God was taken - See Ps 78:60, 61

1Sam 4:21

1Sam 4:21 - And she named the child Ichabod - The wife of Phinehas, notwithstanding the impiety of her husband, was a woman who feared the Lord. The death of her father-in-law and her husband, and above all the terrible tidings that the ark of God was in captivity, caused her death. She felt that now the last hope of Israel was gone, and she named the child, born in this hour of adversity, Ichabod, or inglorious; with her dying breath mournfully repeating the words, "The glory is departed from Israel; for the ark of God is taken." - {ST December 22, 1881 Par. 16} That was a never-to-be-forgotten Sabbath to the sorrowing disciples, and also to the priests, rulers, scribes, and people. At the setting of the sun on the evening of the preparation day the trumpets sounded, signifying that the Sabbath had begun. The Passover was observed as it had been for centuries, while He to whom it pointed had been slain by wicked hands, and lay in Joseph's tomb. On the Sabbath the courts of the temple were filled with worshipers. The high priest from Golgotha was there, splendidly robed in his sacerdotal garments. White-turbaned priests, full of activity, performed their duties. But some present were not at rest as the blood of bulls and goats was offered for sin. They were not conscious that type had met antitype, that an infinite sacrifice had been made for the sins of the world. They knew not that there was no further value in the performance of the ritual service. But never before had that service been witnessed with such conflicting feelings. The trumpets and musical instruments and the voices of the singers were as loud and clear as usual. But a sense of strangeness pervaded everything. One after another inquired about a strange event that had taken place. Hitherto the most holy place had been sacredly guarded from intrusion. But now it was open to all eyes. The heavy veil of tapestry, made of pure linen, and beautifully wrought with gold, scarlet, and purple, was rent from top to bottom. The place where Jehovah had met with the high priest, to communicate His glory, the place that had been God's sacred audience chamber, lay open to every eye,—a place no longer recognized by the Lord. With gloomy presentiments the priests ministered before the altar. The uncovering of the sacred mystery of the most holy place filled them with dread of coming calamity. - {DA 774.2}

1Sam 4:22

1Sam 4:22 - And she said, The glory is departed from Israel: for the ark of God is taken - See 1Sam 4:5; Jer 7:14; Mt 23:37-24:2

1Sam 5:1

1Sam 5:1 - And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from Ebenezer unto Ashdod - See 1Sam 4:10, 11; Ps 78:60, 61

1Sam 5:1

1Sam 5:1 - Ebenezer - Ében Noun from (068) and (05828) with the article inserted from and with the article inserted; stone of the help; Eben-ha-Ezer, a place in Palestine:--Ebenezer. Ebenezer = "stone of help" memorial stone erected by Samuel to mark where God helped

Israel to defeat the Philistines - north of Jerusalem

1Sam 5:1

1Sam 5:1 - Ashdod - Áshdowd Proper Name Location ash-dode' from (07703) from ; ravager; Ashdod, a place in Palestine:--Ahdod. Ashdod = "powerful" a major Philistine city on the Mediterranean Sea west from Jerusalem, modern Esdud

1Sam 5:2

1Sam 5:2 - Dagon - Dagown Proper Name Masculine daw-gohn' from (01709) from ; the fish-god; Dagon, a Philistine deity:--Dagon. Dagon = "a fish" a Philistine deity of fertility; represented with the face and hands of a man and the tail of a fish

1Sam 5:3

1Sam 5:3 - And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dagon, and set him in his place again - the LORD has said that we should not make any graven image nor set any other gods before Him. See Ex 20:3-6

1Sam 5:4

1Sam 5:4 - And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold; only the stump of Dagon was left to him - God was being merciful towards the Philistines in their ignorance, not utterly destroying them for this act of idolatrous blasphemy.

1Sam 5:5

1Sam 5:5 - Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod unto this day - the priests and the people forsook the temple of Dagon for fear of the LORD.

1Sam 5:6

1Sam 5:6 - But the hand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he destroyed them, and smote them with emerods, even Ashdod and the coasts thereof - the LORD caused a plague of hemorrhoids to afflict the Philistines in Ashdod and all the neighboring coasts. This plague would go to all the major cities of the Philistines, along with a plague of mice. See 1Sam 5:7; 1Sam 6:4, 5 The inhabitants of Ashdod were smitten with a distressing and fatal disease. Remembering the plagues that were inflicted upon Egypt by the God of Israel, the people attributed their afflictions to the presence of the ark among them. It was decided to convey it to Gath. But the plague followed close upon its removal, and the men of that city sent it to Ekron. Here the people received it with terror, crying, "They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people." They turned to their gods for protection, as the people of Gath and Ashdod had done; but the work of the destroyer went on, until, in their distress, "the cry of the city went up to heaven." Fearing longer to retain the ark among the homes of men, the people next placed it in the open field. There followed a plague of mice, which infested the land, destroying the products of the soil, both in the storehouse and in the field. Utter destruction, by disease or famine, now threatened the nation. - {PP 586.2}

1Sam 5:8

1Sam 5:9 - And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath - the Philistines thought by sending the Ark of the Covenant to one of the primary cities of the Philistines, it would be safe and would stay the plagues that were affecting Ashdod and the neighboring coastal cities.

1Sam 5:8

1Sam 5:8 - Gath - Gath Proper Name Location gath the same as (01660) the same as ; Gath, a Philistine city:--Gath. Gath = "winepress" one of the five royal or chief cities of the Philistines and the native city of Goliath

1Sam 5:9

1Sam 5:9 - And it was so, that, after they had carried it about, the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction: and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts - God smote the men of Gath, small and great, with hemorrhoids.

1Sam 5:10

1Sam 5:10 - Ekron - `Eqrown Proper Name Location ek-rone' from (06131) from ; eradication; Ekron, a place in Palestine:--Ekron. Ekron = "emigration" or "torn up by the roots" the most northerly of the 5 principal cities of the Philistines; located in the lowlands of Judah and later given to Dan

1Sam 6:4

1Sam 6:4 - five golden mice - The inhabitants of Ashdod were smitten with a distressing and fatal disease. Remembering the plagues that were inflicted upon Egypt by the God of Israel, the people attributed their afflictions to the presence of the ark among them. It was decided to convey it to Gath. But the plague followed close upon its removal, and the men of that city sent it to Ekron. Here the people received it with terror, crying, "They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people." They turned to their gods for protection, as the people of Gath and Ashdod had done; but the work of the destroyer went on, until, in their distress, "the cry of the city went up to heaven." Fearing longer to retain the ark among the homes of men, the people next placed it in the open field. There followed a plague of mice, which infested the land, destroying the products of the soil, both in the storehouse and in the field. Utter destruction, by disease or famine, now threatened the nation. - {PP 586.2}

1Sam 6:4

1Sam 6:4 - according to the number of the lords of the Philistines: for one plague was on you all, and on your lords - for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one

1Sam 6:5

1Sam 6:5 - Wherefore ye shall make images of your emerods, and images of your mice that mar the land - God apparently made, with the hemorrhoids that affect all the men of the Philistine cities, an infestation of mice.

1Sam 6:6

1Sam 6:6 - Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? when he had wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let the people go, and they departed? - the wise men and diviners among the Philistines asked why the people hardened their hearts, suffering the plagues of hemorrhoids and mice for 7 months, rather than sending the Ark of the Covenant back to Israel? They told the Philistine leaders to consider what the Egyptians did in letting Israel go after the LORD destroyed their land and first born. God's fame and glory had been known and heard throughout the earth - See 1Sam 6:1; Ex 10:1, 2; Num 14:21

1Sam 6:7

1Sam 6:7 - Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch kine, on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them - the advice given by the Philistine wise men would show the power of God, that He was in control and that He would guide His Ark back to a place that He ordained it to be. See 1Sam 6:9

1Sam 6:7

1Sam 6:7 - and bring their calves home from them - the cows would want to care for their calves, but the LORD will nevertheless guide the cows to the place where He would appoint them to go. - See 1Sam 6:10; Isa 49:15

1Sam 6:9

1Sam 6:9 - And see, if it goeth up by the way of his own coast to Bethshemesh, then he hath done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that smote us: it was a chance that happened to us - See 1Sam 6:7

1Sam 6:10

1Sam 6:10 - And the men did so; and took two milch kine, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home: - See 1Sam 6:10

1Sam 6:12

1Sam 6:12 - And the kine took the straight way to the way of Bethshemesh, and went along the highway, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Bethshemesh - See 1Sam 6:7, 9

1Sam 6:12

1Sam 12:12 - Bethshemesh - perhaps a place of idolatrous worship among the COI Beyth Proper Name Location from (01004) and (08121) from and ; house of (the) sun; Beth-Shemesh, a place in Palestine:--Beth-shemesh. Beth-shemesh = "house of the sun" or "sun-temple" a town in southwest Judah a town in Naphtali a town in Issachar

1Sam 6:15

1Sam 6:15 - And the Levites took down the ark of the LORD, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Bethshemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day unto the LORD - the Levites were wise enough to handle the Ark of the Covenant themselves, lest another be slain of the Lord.

1Sam 6:17

1Sam 6:17 - And these are the golden emerods which the Philistines returned for a trespass offering unto the LORD; for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one - See 1Sam 6:4

1Sam 6:19

1Sam 6:19 - And he smote the men of Bethshemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD, even he smote of the people fifty thousand and threescore and ten men: and the people lamented, because the LORD had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter - God punished the irreverence of the COI that dwelt in the idolatrous city Bethshemesh, meaning sun-temple, for looking into the Ark of the Covenant. 50,070 were killed by the LORD.

1Sam 6:21

1Sam 6:21 - Kirjathjearim - Qiryath Proper Name Location from (07151) and the pl. of (03293) or (05892) or (Jer. 26:20) with the article interposed; or (Josh. 18:28) simply the former part of the word; or Qiryath tAriym {keer-yath' aw-reem'}; from and the plural of or ; city of forests, or city of towns; Kirjath-Jearim or Kirjath-Arim, a place in Palestine--Kirjath, Kirjath-jearim, Kirjath-arim. Kirjath-jearim = "city of forests"

1Sam 7:2

1Sam 7:2 - And it came to pass, while the ark abode in Kirjathjearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD - the Ark of the Covenant abode in Kirjathjearim for 20years before being transported to the home of Obedom by David. See 2Sam 6:4, 9

1Sam 7:10

1Sam 7:10 - And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel: but the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them; and they were smitten before Israel - Israel did not need to fight because the Lord smote the Philistines Himself. See 1Sam 7:13

1Sam 7:12

1Sam 7:12 - and called the name of it Ebenezer, saying, Hitherto hath the LORD helped us - See Hosea 12:5; Josh 4:8, 9

1Sam 7:13

1Sam 7:13 - So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more into the coast of Israel: and the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel - See 1Sam 7:10

1Sam 7:15

1Sam 7:15 - And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life - the role of a judge was a spiritual and social leader, one who officiated in spiritual matters for the Lord, but also oversaw the social matters of society according to the Laws of Moses. See 1Sam 7:16-17

1Sam 8:3

1Sam 8:3 - And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted judgment - See Lev 19:15, Ex 23:8 CONTRAST: 2Sam 8:15

1Sam 8:5

1Sam 8:5 - now make us a king to judge us like all the nations - They who were chosen to be a peculiar people unto God, were throwing away their birthright to become as all the other nations. This blind act of rebellion would begin the slippery slope towards mass idolatry. See Deut 17:14-20; Judges 9:1-6; Ps 96:5

1Sam 8:7

1Sam 8:7 - rejected Me - Compare Joh 13:20 The Children of Israel, in their pride and desire to be as the world, forsook the blessing of having God be their Sovereign Leader and King, for a mortal man. In so doing their rejection of Knowledge (the wisdom of God) for man's wisdom began their peril and decline. The people would in time perish for lack of knowledge because they had rejected knowledge (Hos 4:6, 1Cor 1:18-30, Isa 28)

1Sam 8:7

1Sam 8:8 - that I should not reign over them - See 1Chron 29:23

1Sam 8:22

1Sam 8:22 - And the LORD said to Samuel, Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. - See Hos 13:0, 11

1Sam 9:2

1Sam 9:2 - and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he - Saul had a mind and influence capable of governing a kingdom, if his powers had been submitted to the control of God, but the very endowments that qualified him for doing good could be used by Satan, when surrendered to his power, and would enable him to exert widespread influence for evil. He could be more sternly vindictive, more injurious and determined in prosecuting his unholy designs, than could others, because of the superior powers of mind and heart that had been given him of God. [48] - {CC 149.4}

1Sam 10:6

1Sam 10:6 - And the Spirit of the LORD will come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man - the Spirit of the Lord comes upon us and changes us into another man. 1Sam 10:9; Joh 3:5; 2Cor 5:16-18; Lk 1:35 During the patriarchal age the influence of the Holy Spirit had often been revealed in a marked manner, but never in its fullness. Now, in obedience to the word of the Saviour, the disciples offered their supplications for this gift, and in heaven Christ added His intercession. He claimed the gift of the Spirit, that He might pour it upon His people. - {AA 37.3}

1Sam 10:7

1Sam 10:7 - And let it be, when these signs are come unto thee, that thou do as occasion serve thee; for God is with thee - the Lord was with Saul until Saul departed from the presence of the Lord, as did Cain. See Gen 4:16

1Sam 10:9

1Sam 10:9 - And it was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart - See Joh 3:8

1Sam 11:8

1Sam 11:8 - While the people in general were ready to acknowledge Saul as their king, there was a large party in opposition. For a monarch to be chosen from Benjamin, the smallest of the tribes of Israel—and that to the neglect of both Judah and Ephraim, the largest and most powerful—was a slight which they could not brook. They refused to profess allegiance to Saul or to bring him the customary presents. Those who had been most urgent in their demand for a king were the very ones that refused to accept with gratitude the man of God's appointment. The members of each faction had their favorite, whom they wished to see placed on the throne, and several among the leaders had desired the honor for themselves. Envy and jealousy burned in the hearts of many. The efforts of pride and ambition had resulted in disappointment and discontent. - {PP 611.3}

1Sam 12:19

1Sam 12:19 - And all the people said unto Samuel, Pray for thy servants unto the LORD thy God, that we die not: for we have added unto all our sins this evil, to ask us a king - See Jer 2:1-9

1Sam 13:8

1Sam 13:8 - tarried seven days - tarried seven times (2520).

1Sam 13:9

1Sam 13:9 - bring me a sacrifice - though the people had demanded a king, Samuel made it plain that they were to still put their trust in the Lord and wait on His providence, thus would they prosper. God tested Saul by causing Samuel to be "delayed" in his arrival to see if Saul would place his trust in God. Despite the apparent tarrying, God was in control of the situation. Saul wanted to appear in control of the situation, seeing the people were scattered for seven days (7x) and afraid of the imminent threat of the Philistines. Calling for a sacrifice, typifying the unification of church and state, Saul blasphemed his post and God's sacred work for His prophet (Spirit of Prophecy) The time for the proving of Saul had come. He was now to show whether or not he would depend on God and patiently wait according to His command, thus revealing himself as one whom God could trust in trying places as the ruler of His people, or whether he would be vacillating and unworthy of the sacred responsibility that had devolved upon him. [50] - {CC 150.4} In detaining Samuel, it was the purpose of God that the heart of Saul should be revealed, that others might know what he would do in an emergency. It was a trying position in which to be placed, but Saul did not obey orders. He felt that it would make no difference who approached God, or in what way; and, full of energy and self-complacency, he put himself forward into the sacred office. - {CC 150.5}

1Sam 13:14

1Sam 13:14 - the LORD hath sought him a man after his own heart, and the LORD hath commanded him to be captain over his people - The LORD sought a man after His Own heart, who would honor and uphold God's words, commandments and judgments. David was such a man: 1. As God blessed the COI, the descendants of God's friend Abraham (2Chron 20:7), so Dan blessed Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan 2. God permitted David to endure the rebellion of a beloved son who sought to overthrow his kingdom and kill him, just as God experienced a similar rebellion in heaven from Lucifer I was shown that it was when David was pure, and walking in the counsel of God, that God called him a man after His own heart. When David departed from God, and stained his virtuous character by his crimes, he was no longer a man after God's own heart. God did not in the least degree justify him in his sins, but sent Nathan, His prophet, with dreadful denunciations to David because he had transgressed the commandment of the Lord. - {TSB 94.3}

1Sam 13:19 - Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Lest the Heb make them swords or spears - the Philistines had seized the Israelites ability to make swords to defend themselves. Only farming equipment could be sharpened.

1Sam 14:27

1Sam 14:27 - eyes were enlightened - as Jonathan ate the honey (spiritually symbolizing the Little Book - Rev 10:8; Eph 1:18) his eyes were enlightened and he was ready to continue the battle. However, Saul (Leadership) commanded the people not to eat, leaving them faint and without strength for the battle. See Ezra 9:8

1Sam 15:2

1Sam 15:2 - Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt. - See Deut 25:17-19

1Sam 15:3

1Sam 15:3 - Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have and spare them not - the close of probation for the Amalekites had come after more than 490 years of warring against Israel. They met Israel in the wilderness and ambushed them. Joshua was victorious over the warring hosts as Moses' hands were upheld by Aaron and Hur. God promised to eventually destroy this rebellious people and He sought to do so at the hands of Saul. Yet, Saul rebelled! See Ex 17:9-16; Num 24:20; 1Chron 4:43

1Sam 15:3

1Sam 15:3 - spare them not - God wanted to fully rid the earth of the Amalekites and Saul was not willing to obey. See 1Sam 15:9

1Sam 15:8

1Sam 15:8 - And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword - See 1Kin 20:39-43

1Sam 15:9

1Sam 15:9 - Saul flagrantly disobeyed the voice of the Lord and preserved the life of the detested Agag and the best of the livestock. Saul, like all the other kings of the world sought to possibly make sport of Agag while he withheld from destroying the choice flock so that in covetousness, he may offer a sacrifice of the spoil to the Lord without sacrificing any of the herds that belonged to himself. See Ex 17:14

1Sam 15:13

1Sam 15:13 - I have performed the commandment of the LORD - CONTRAST 1Chron 14:16, 17, 10, 14, 15

1Sam 15:14

1Sam 15:14 - And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear? - See 1Sam 15:1-3

1Sam 15:17

1Sam 15:17 - When thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the LORD anointed thee king over Israel? And the LORD sent thee on a journey, and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they be consumed. - the danger of power, fame, success, and losing sight of where one's prosperity originates is spoken of all too often in the Bible. The lust of the flesh, lust of the eyes and pride of life (1Jo 2:16) takes hold when men forget their God Who has established them (2Chron 20:20) and granted them the blessings they ascribe to themselves. See 2Chron 26:16; 2Sam 11:1-12:10; Act 12:21-23

1Sam 15:19

1Sam 15:19 - bit didst fly upon the spoil - here Saul's motives are exposed as Samuel shows that Saul greedily sought the spoils of the Amalekites so that he would not have to use of his own to offer an offering to the LORD for the victory.

1Sam 15:20

1Sam 15:20 - Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me - Saul deceptively minces words and suggest that he has done God's will when he knows that he has not fulfilled God's purposes. He is lying to Samuel, to God and even to himself in this statement.

1Sam 15:21

1Sam 15:21 - But the people took of the spoil - the people could not have taken of the spoil, the sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed had Saul, the king forbade them to do so. Saul here dissembles and attempts to pass blame on those under his command rather than accepting the fault.

1Sam 15:22

1Sam 15:22 - Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices - See Ps 50:7-14, 51:16; Heb 10:5, 6

1Sam 15:23

1Sam 15:23 - For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry - coincidentally that Samuel warns Saul that his rebellion is as witchcraft. In Saul's latter end, when he can not hear from God, neither by dream, prophet or otherwise, Saul seeks the counsels of a witch for guidance. See 1Sam 28:3-20; Num 16:41 Here we find a striking exhibition of the blindness that will compass human minds that turn from light and evidence. Here we see the strength of settled rebellion, and how difficult it is to be subdued. Surely the Heb had had the most convincing evidence in the destruction of the men who had deceived them; but they still stood forth boldly and defiantly, and accused Moses and Aaron of killing good and holy men. "For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry.” - {3T 357.3}

1Sam 15:24

1Sam 15:24 - I feared the people - Saul, like Aaron, blames the people for their transgressions of God's commandments. The people are used as the excuse for disobedience. The act of fearing man's words above God's word is as the sin of witchcraft (Spiritualism). See Ex 32:21-24; Gen 3:17

1Sam 15:26

1Sam 15:26 - I will not return with thee: for thou has rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee - with this pronouncement, Samuel tells Saul that he no longer will walk in support of him. He has pronounced Saul's departure from God and therefore the LORD's departure from Saul (1Sam 16:14).

1Sam 15:28

1Sam 15:29 - The LORD hath rent the king of Israel from thee this day - the parable of the vineyard, spoken by Jesus is here foreshadowed in the life of Saul. See Lk 20:9-18

1Sam 15:29

1Sam 15:29 - And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent - See Num 23:19

1Sam 15:30

1Sam 15:30 - yet honour me now, I pray thee before the elders of my people - Saul is more concerned about how he appears before men than how he appears before the sight of God (1Sam 15:24). His love of man's praise (the pride of life) rather than that of God was his downfall.

1Sam 15:33

1Sam 15:33 - And Samuel said, As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal - See Deut 25:17-19

1Sam 15:35

1Sam 15:35 - and the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel - See Gen 6:6

1Sam 16:7

1Sam 16:7 - for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart - See 1Cor 4:5; Jer 17:10; Joh 7:24; Ps 139:23, 24, 32:8; Job 10:4; Dan 7:8

1Sam 16:14

1Sam 16:14 - But the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD troubled him - One of the most fearful statements of the Bible as Saul's probation has closed and the LORD has given him over to a reprobate mind. See Hos 4:17

1Sam 16:15

1Sam 16:15 - Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee - God's rejection of Saul was marked by visible evidences to be seen by Saul's servants. The markings of God's rejection and Satan's entrance into Saul were so notable that Saul's servants perceived and commented upon it to him.

1Sam 17:4

1Sam 17:4 - And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span - See Num 13:31-33; Josh 11:21, 22, 14:12

1Sam 17:8

1Sam 17:8 - Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Philistine, and ye servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me. - See 1Pet 5:8

1Sam 17:8

1Sam 17:9 - am not I a Philistine, and ye servants to Saul? - Goliath may have been taunting Saul, who was head and shoulders above all other men in Israel. Goliath may have suggested your larger than life, valiant king ought to come out and fight me. See 1Sam 9:2

1Sam 17:10

1Sam 17:10 - And the Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together. - "the daily", paganism, was exalting itself against God and His armies. See 1Sam 17:43, 45, 46

1Sam 17:11

1Sam 17:11 - When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid - Saul and all the armies of Israel had forgotten the words of the Lord, that He would fight their battles, that He would go before them, and that none of their enemies would be able to stand before Israel. Their rebellion against God, and failure to embrace His promises left them in a state of fear and uncertainty. See Ex 23:27-33; Deut 20:1-4, 28:7; Joshua 11:1-9; Judges 4:13-15; 2Chron 20:21, 22 We have nothing to fear for the future, except as we shall forget the way the Lord has led us, and His teaching in our past history.—Life Sketches of Ellen G. White, 196. - {PM 25.3}

1Sam 17:16

1Sam 17:16 - And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days - in defiance of Israel and its God, the Philistines presented themselves before Israel for battle. That they taunted Israel for 40 days should have been a reminder of their former rebellion in the wilderness in not trusting God to deliver them over their enemies. See Num 13:31-33

1Sam 17:24

1Sam 17:24 - And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were sore afraid - See Lev 26:17, 36

1Sam 17:26

1Sam 17:26 - for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God? - See 1Sam 17:36

1Sam 17:34

1Sam 17:34-37 - And David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock: 35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him. 36 Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God. 37 David said moreover, The LORD that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and the LORD be with thee. David reflected on the mighty hand of the Lord in his life and was assured that the Lord would deliver him, even from Goliath, the Philistine.

1Sam 17:36

1Sam 17:36 - seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God - See 1Sam 17:26

1Sam 17:39

1Sam 17:39 - I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off him. - we must prove all things. We must test/try/prove the weapons of our warfare so that when the trial comes, we may know how to use them. We can not use another's armor, we must be familiar with and use our own. See 1Thess 5:21; Eph 6:11-18

1Sam 17:40

1Sam 17:40 - And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine - It is believed that Goliath had 4 other brothers who too were Giants for which David sought to slay.

1Sam 17:42

1Sam 17:42 - And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a fair countenance - Goliath "misjudged the book by its cover". Goliath did not see the hosts of God's armies standing with David against him, making him unstoppable.

1Sam 17:44

1Sam 17:44 - Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field. - See Rev 19:17, 18

1Sam 17:45

1Sam 17:45 - but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied - David submitted and presented himself to God as a battle ax for the Lord, to be use of Him to subdue those who defy Him. See Jer 51:20; Rom 8:31

1Sam 17:46

1Sam 17:46 - This day will the LORD deliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; and I will give the carcasses of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel. - David based his victory on the power and might of God and for His glory in all the world!

1Sam 17:47

1Sam 17:47 - And all this assembly shall know that the LORD saveth not with sword and spear: for the battle is the LORD'S, and he will give you into our hands. - David sought to minister to his own people, that they know it is not by strength, nor by might of men (we can do nothing of ourselves), but by the Spirit of the Lord that any and all things may be accomplished in Jesus Christ. See Zech 4:6

1Sam 17:47

1Sam 17:47 - for the battle is the LORD'S - See 2Chron 20:15

1Sam 17:48

1Sam 17:48 - And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine - David did not wait for Goliath to come to him but he ran to meet him in battle. The courage David displayed was an inspiration to Israel.

1Sam 17:49

1Sam 17:49 - And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth - God's angels directed and propelled that stone so that it sunk deep into Goliath's forehead. Praise God!!!

1Sam 17:58

1Sam 17:58 - I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Bethlehemite - See Lk 3:32

1Sam 18:23

1Sam 18:23 - And David said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son in law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed? - David had God born wisdom and answered prudently the solicitation to become Saul's son-in-law. David foresaw the contrast in lifestyle with Saul who had let power go to his head, and himself, a poor man of humble estate. See 1Sam 15:17-19

1Sam 19:1

1Sam 19:1 - And Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David - See Saul desired that all in his household be united in seeking to kill David.

1Sam 19:2

1Sam 19:2 - But Jonathan Saul's son delighted much in David: and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself until the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself - Jonathan sought to protect David, who he was very fond of.

1Sam 19:5

1Sam 19:5 - But Jonathan Saul's son delighted much in David: and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself until the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself - the LORD reasoned with Saul through Jonathan to not sin against his own soul by shedding innocent blood.

1Sam 19:6

1Sam 19:6 - And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul sware, As the LORD liveth, he shall not be slain - the Spirit of God moved upon Saul and he momentarily conceded to the wisdom offered by Jonathan. However, a conversion had not occurred so the change would be short lived. See 1Sam 19:9

1Sam 19:9

1Sam 19:9 - And the evil spirit from the LORD was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand: and David played with his hand - Because Saul did not abide in the Lord, he permitted the "evil spirit from the LORD" to take hold of his mind - See 1Sam 19:6

1Sam 19:11

1Sam 19:12 - and Michal David's wife told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to night, to morrow thou shalt be slain - like her father Saul, Michal, David's wife vacillated between serving the LORD and her flesh. Here she is showing genuine love and concern for David as her father sought his life. She, unfortunately like her father in the end, permitted the flesh to rule her.

1Sam 19:17

1Sam 19:17 - And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go; why should I kill thee? - Michal did not have the moral uprightness as her brother Jonathan to stand to her father and question his motives for taking innocent life, and thus she dissembled and lied, suggesting David threatened her own life for his own.

1Sam 19:18

1Sam 19:18 - Naioth - Naviyth Proper Name Location naw-veeth' from (05115) from ; residence; Navith, a place in Palestine:--Naioth (from the margin). Naioth = "habitations" a dwelling place of prophets in the time of Samuel

1Sam 19:19

1Sam 19:19 - Raman - Ramah Proper Name Location raw-maw' the same as (07413) the same as ; Ramah, the name of four places in Palestine:--Ramah. Ramah = "hill" a town in Benjamin on the border of Ephraim about 5 miles (8 km) from Jerusalem and near to Gibeah the home place of Samuel located in the hill country of Ephraim a fortified city in Naphtali

1Sam 19:22

1Sam 19:22 - Sechu - Sekuw Proper Name Location say'-koo from an unused root apparently meaning to surmount from an unused root apparently meaning to surmount; an observatory (with the article); Seku, a place in Palestine:--Sechu. Sechu = "the watch-tower"

1Sam 19:23

1Sam 19:20 - and the Spirit of God was upon him also - God poured out His Holy Spirit upon

Saul and he became a different man with a different spirit controlling him for a moment. See 1Sam 10:10, 11:6, 19:23; 2Chron 15:1, 24:20; Eze 39:29

1Sam 20:2

1Sam 20:2 - And he said unto him, God forbid; thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing either great or small, but that he will shew it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? it is not so - in nativity, Jonathan presumes good of his father and his intentions towards David.

1Sam 20:3

1Sam 20:3 - And David sware moreover, and said, Thy father certainly knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but truly as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death - David knew what God revealed and his common sense could see in Saul, despite Jonathan's naive thoughts of his father and his motives.

1Sam 20:7

1Sam 20:7 - If he say thus, It is well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wroth, then be sure that evil is determined by him - the LORD granted David wisdom to discern Saul's motives based on his response to David's absence.

1Sam 20:8

1Sam 20:8 - notwithstanding, if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father? - David tells Jonathan to kill him himself and not bring him before his father, if there is any known iniquity in him.

1Sam 20:15

1Sam 20:15 - But also thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth - Jonathan is having David share that he will not destroy his family when God causes all of David's enemies to be subdued.

1Sam 21:2

1Sam 21:2 - king hath commanded me a business - The king's son returned to Gibeah, and David hastened to reach Nob, a city but a few miles distant, and also belonging to the tribe of Benjamin. The tabernacle had been taken to this place from Shiloh, and here Ahimelech the high priest ministered. David knew not whither to flee for refuge, except to the servant of God. The priest looked upon him with astonishment, as he came in haste and apparently alone, with a countenance marked by anxiety and sorrow. He inquired what had brought him there. The young man was in constant fear of discovery, and in his extremity he resorted to deception. David told the priest that he had been sent by the king on a secret errand, one which required the utmost expedition. Here he manifested a want of faith in God, and his sin resulted in causing the death of the high priest. Had the facts been plainly stated, Ahimelech would have known what course to pursue to preserve his life. God requires that truthfulness shall mark His people, even in the greatest peril. David asked the priest for five loaves of bread. There was nothing but hallowed bread in the possession of the man of God, but David succeeded in removing his scruples, and obtained the bread to satisfy his hunger. - {PP 655.3}

1Sam 21:4

1Sam 21:4 - if the young men have kept themselves at least from women - to eat of the hallowed bread, the men needed to keep themselves from being defiled with women. So, the holy men of God must not defile themselves with women - churches that do not uphold God's truth. See Rev 14:4

1Sam 21:13

1Sam 21:13 - feigned himself mad - David fled to Achish, the king of Gath; for he felt that there was more safety in the midst of the enemies of his people than in the dominions of Saul. But it was reported to Achish that David was the man who had slain the Philistine champion years before; and now he who had sought refuge with the foes of Israel found himself in great peril. But, feigning madness, he deceived his enemies and thus made his escape. - {PP 656.2} The first error of David was his distrust of God at Nob, and his second mistake was his deception before Achish. David had displayed noble traits of character, and his moral worth had won him favor with the people; but as trial came upon him, his faith was shaken, and human weakness appeared. He saw in every man a spy and a betrayer. In a great emergency David had looked up to God with a steady eye of faith, and had vanquished the Philistine giant. He believed in God, he went in His name. But as he had been hunted and persecuted, perplexity and distress had nearly hidden his heavenly Father from his sight. - {PP 656.3}

1Sam 22:2

1Sam 22:2 - And every one that was in distress, and every one that was in debt, and every one that was discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a captain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men - David took under his wings all those who were outcasts, marginalized and in debt. The Lord appointed these men to learn of David, to observe his fidelity to God and to model their lives after his upright life. These men became his trusted servants.

1Sam 22:3

1Sam 22:3 - And David went thence to Mizpeh of Moab: and he said unto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do for me - the House of Jesse fled when they learned that Saul was pursuing David. Saul's senseless rage with David would undoubtedly spill over in the shedding of innocent blood of David's family if he had the chance. See 1Sam 22:16-22

1Sam 22:13

1Sam 22:13 - And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast enquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day? - Jam 3:14-16

1Sam 22:14

1Sam 22:14, 15 - Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king's son in law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house? Did I then begin to enquire of God for him? be it far from me: let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more. - The Spirit of the Lord made one last appeal to Saul's reasoning that he repent of the evil in his heart, but Saul gave himself over to a reprobate mind and pride would not permit him to do the right thing. See Rom 1:28

1Sam 22:16

1Sam 22:16 - And the king said, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy father's house. - the spirit of Satan that consumed and actuated Saul once Saul took the first step in rebellion, is seen in Aaron in building the golden calf: When Aaron took the first step in the wrong direction, the spirit which had actuated the people imbued him, and he took the lead and directed as a general, and the people were singularly obedient. Here Aaron gave decided sanction to the most aggravated sins, because it was less difficult than to stand in vindication of the right. When he swerved from his integrity in giving sanction to the people in their sins he seemed inspired with a decision, earnestness, and zeal new to him. His timidity seemed suddenly to disappear. With a zeal that he had never manifested in standing in defense of the honor of God against wrong he seized the instruments to work out the gold into the image of a calf. He ordered an altar to be built, and, with assurance worthy of a better cause, he proclaimed to the people that on the morrow there would be a feast to the Lord. The trumpeters took the word from the mouth of Aaron and sounded the proclamation from company to company of the armies of Israel. - {3T 299.1} Aaron's calm assurance in a wrong course gave him greater influence with the people than Moses could have had in leading them in a right course and in subduing their rebellion. What terrible spiritual blindness had come upon Aaron that he should put light for darkness and darkness for light! What presumption in him to proclaim a feast to the Lord over their idolatrous worship of a golden image! Here is seen the power that Satan has over minds that are not fully controlled by the Spirit of God. Satan had set up his banner in the midst of Israel, and it was exalted as the banner of God. - {3T 300.1}

1Sam 22:17

1Sam 22:17 - But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD - See 1Chron 16:22; Ps 105:15

1Sam 22:18

1Sam 22:18 - slew 85 priests - This deed filled all Israel with horror. It was the king whom they had chosen that had committed this outrage, and he had only done after the manner of the kings of other nations that feared not God. The ark was with them, but the priests of whom they had inquired were slain with the sword. What would come next? - {PP 659.3}; Prov 6:17; Isa 59:7

1Sam 23:1

1Sam 23:1 - Keilah - Q`iyah Proper Name Location keh-ee-law' perhaps from (07049) in the sense of inclosing perhaps from in the sense of inclosing; citadel; Keilah, a place in Palestine:--Keilah. Keilah = "fortress" a city in the lowlands of Judah northwest of Hebron

1Sam 23:4

1Sam 23:4 - Then David enquired of the LORD yet again. And the LORD answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand - David made the LORD his trusted Counselor. When his men expressed fear in going to battle, David sought the LORD again to gain assurance of His protection and deliverance.

1Sam 23:6

1Sam 23:6 - ephod - éphowd Noun Masculine ay-fode' probably of foreign derivation rarely oephod {ay-fode'}; probably of foreign derivation ; a girdle; specifically the ephod or high-priest's shoulder- piece; also generally, an image:--ephod. ephod priestly garment, shoulder-

cape or mantle, outer garment

1Sam 23:9

1Sam 23:9 - And David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring hither the ephod - David sought the LORD. He took the emblem of God and sought counsel of God, what to do. See 1Sam 30:7

1Sam 23:12

1Sam 23:12 - Then said David, Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, They will deliver thee up. - David inquired of the LORD whether it was safe to dwell among the same people he had just rescued and delivered from the hands of the Philistines. The same people of Keilah would betray David and turn him over to Saul as the LORD revealed to David. Thus David and his men took off from Keilah.

1Sam 23:15

1Sam 23:15 - Ziph - Ziyph zeef from the same as (02203) from the same as ; flowing; Ziph, the name of a place in Palestine; also of an Israelite:--Ziph. Ziph = "battlement" n pr m

1Sam 23:17

1Sam 23:17 - And he said unto him, Fear not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not find thee; and thou shalt be king over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee; and that also Saul my father knoweth - Jonathan loved David as he loved himself, and esteemed him greater than himself. He encouraged David that he was to be the next king of Israel and he would stand at his side as an armor bearer. Jonathan exemplified true humility. Philippians 2:3

1Sam 23:19

1Sam 23:19 - Then came up the Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself with us in strong holds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of Jeshimon? - Like the people of Keilah who would betray David into the hands of Saul, the Ziphites sought to gain favor with Saul as they informed him of David's whereabouts. See 1Sam 26:1

1Sam 23:21

1Sam 23:21 - And Saul said, Blessed be ye of the LORD; for ye have compassion on me - Saul blesses the treacherous Ziphites and praise God to do evil. This is the spirit of those who have a form of godliness but deny the power thereof. Like the blood-thirsty Romanists who celebrated the massacre of the God fearing Huguenots in the St. Bartholomew's Day Massacre See 2Tim 3:1-5; "When the news of the massacre reached Rome, the exultation among the clergy knew no bounds. The cardinal of Lorraine rewarded the messenger with a thousand crowns; the cannon of St. Angelo thundered forth a joyous salute; and bells rang out from every steeple; bonfires turned night into day; and Gregory XIII, attended by the cardinals and other ecclesiastical dignitaries, went in long procession to the church of St. Louis, where the cardinal of Lorraine chanted a Te Deum.... A medal was struck to commemorate the massacre, and in the Vatican may still be seen three frescoes of Vasari, describing the attack upon the admiral, the king in council plotting the massacre, and the massacre itself. Gregory sent Charles the Golden Rose; and four months after the massacre, ... he listened complacently to the sermon of a French priest, ... who spoke of 'that day so full of happiness and joy, when the most holy father received the news, and went in solemn state to render thanks to God and St. Louis.'"—Henry White, The Massacre of St.

Bartholomew, ch. 14, par. 34. - {GC 272.3}

1Sam 23:24

1Sam 23:24 - Maon - Ma`own maw-ohn' the same as (04583) the same as ; a residence; Maon, the name of an Israelite and of a place in Palestine:--Maon, Maonites. Compare , . Maon or Maonites = "habitation" n pr m

1Sam 23:27

1Sam 23:27 - But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come; for the Philistines have invaded the land - the LORD permitted the Philistines to invade Israel while Saul mercilessly sought the life of David.

1Sam 23:28

1Sam 23:28 - Selahammahlekoth - Cela` Proper Name Location from (05553) and the pl. of (04256) with the article interposed from and the plural of with the article interposed; rock of the divisions; Sela- ham-Machlekoth, a place in Palestine:--Sela-hammalekoth. Sela-hammahlekoth = "the cliff of escapes" or "the cliff of divisions"

1Sam 23:29

1Sam 23:29 - Engedi - `Eyn Proper Name Location from (05869) and (01423) from and ; fountain of a kid; En-Gedi, a place in Palestine:--En-gedi. En-gedi = "fount of the kid"

1Sam 24:6

1Sam 24:6 - And he said unto his men, The LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, the LORD'S anointed, to stretch forth mine hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD - David had respect for Saul as the one who was anointed of the Lord. He would never harm or reproach one entrusted with the honors of God, though Saul did not live up to the distinction. See Num 12:7, 8

1Sam 24:17

1Sam 24:17 - for thou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil - See Ps 109:2-13

1Sam 25:2

1Sam 25:2 - and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel - Nabal was very rich, but his character was very poor.

1Sam 25:3

1Sam 25:3 - and she was a woman of good understanding - Abigail was a wise woman who feared the LORD, doing His commandments. See Ps 111:10; Prov 3:1-6

1Sam 25:3

1Sam 25:4 - churlish - Rude; surly; austere; sullen; rough in temper; unfeeling; uncivil.

1Sam 25:7

1Sam 25:7 - And now I have heard that thou hast shearers: now thy shepherds which were with us, we hurt them not, neither was there ought missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel - See 1Sam 25:15, 16, 21

1Sam 25:8

1Sam 25:8 - and to thy son David - David humbled himself to Nabal and requested he return kindness for kindnesses rendered.

1Sam 25:15

1Sam 25:15 - But the men were very good unto us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields: - David's upright character and integrity rubbed off on his men such that they did not seize nor harm any of Nabal's flock. David and his men were as a shield for Nabal, providing a free service to him and his household. See 1Sam 25:16

1Sam 25:21

1Sam 25:21 - Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: and he hath requited me evil for good - David was incensed by the callousness, ingratitude and mean spirit that motivated Nabal - 1Sam 25:7, 15, 16,

1Sam 25:27

1Sam 25:17 - And now this blessing which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord - See Prov 21:14

1Sam 25:28

1Sam 25:28 - because my lord fighteth the battles of the LORD - Abigail presented by implication the course that David ought to pursue. He should fight the battles of the Lord. He was not to seek revenge for personal wrongs, even though persecuted as a traitor.... These words could have come only from the lips of one who had partaken of the wisdom from above. The piety of Abigail, like the fragrance of a flower, breathed out all unconsciously in face and word and action. The Spirit of the Son of God was abiding in her soul. Her speech, seasoned with grace, and full of kindness and peace, shed a heavenly influence. Better impulses came to David, and he trembled as he thought what might have been the consequences of his rash purpose.... - {CC 169.3}

1Sam 25:29

1Sam 25:29 - and the souls of thine enemies, them shall he sling out, as out of the middle of a sling - David's heroism was well known in Israel and his valiant defeat of Goliath he is being reminded of by Abigail.

1Sam 25:31

1Sam 25:31 - That this shall be no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath avenged himself: but when the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid. - Abigail was surely led of the Holy Spirit to give good and timely counsel to David, that he not grieve God nor his own spirit. David too, was honorable in that he was willing to take counsel and correction from Abigail. She saw that he killing Nabal would be a blight upon David's conscience in the future and gave him sound counsel to avoid such a catastrophe. Honorable men take reproof and counsel. See Gen 20:1-18

1Sam 25:32

1Sam 25:32 - And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me - David clearly recognized the hand of the Lord in sending Abigail, His faithful servant, to minister to him and encourage him to do the right thing.

1Sam 25:33

1Sam 25:33 - And blessed be thy advice, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand - David's sin would have been first in taking a wrong and an offense into his own hands to correct and then in the shedding of innocent blood on account of Nabal. See Prov 9:8, 9; Heb 10:30

1Sam 25:38

1Sam 25:38 - And it came to pass about ten days after, that the LORD smote Nabal, that he died - See Gen 38:6

1Sam 25:39

1Sam 25:39 - the LORD hath returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head - see 1Cor 3:19

1Sam 25:44

1Sam 25:44 - Michal - Miykal Proper Name Feminine me-kawl' apparently the same as (04323) apparently the same as ; revulet; Mikal, Saul's daughter:--Michal. Michal = "who is like God"

1Sam 26:1

1Sam 26:1 - And the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon? - once again, the Ziphites conspire to turn David over to the hands of Saul - See 1Sam 23:19-24

1Sam 26:3

1Sam 26:3 - Hachilah - Chakiylah Proper Name Location khak-ee-law' from the same as (02447) from the same as ; dark; Chakilah, a hill in Palestine:--Hachilah. Hachilah = "dark"

1Sam 26:3

1Sam 26:3 - Jeshimon - yshiyomwn Noun Masculine yesh-ee-mone' from (03456) from ; a desolation:--desert, Jeshimon, solitary, wilderness. waste, wilderness, desert, desolate place

1Sam 26:5

1Sam 26:5 - Abner - Ábner Proper Name Masculine ab-nare' from (01) and (05216) or (fully) nAbiyner {ab-ee-nare'}; from and ; father of light (i.e. enlightening); Abner, an Israelite:--Abner. Abner = "my father is a lamp"

1Sam 26:7

1Sam 26:7 - bolster - A long pillow or cushion, used to support the head of persons lying on a bed; generally laid under the pillows.

1Sam 26:9

1Sam 26:9 - And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the LORD'S anointed, and be guiltless? - David honored the fact that Saul was once anointed of the LORD and he would thus not lay hands upon him.

1Sam 26:12

1Sam 26:12 - So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them - God caused all the men to fall into a deep sleep so that no one noticed him or his nephew Abishai as they took Saul's spear and cruse of water.

1Sam 26:16

1Sam 26:16 - This thing is not good that thou hast done. As the LORD liveth, ye are worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master, the LORD'S anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his bolster - David reproved Saul's valiant general, Abner, for neglecting to keep watch over the king.

1Sam 26:18

1Sam 26:18 - And he said, Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand? - David publicly pleads his case before Saul and all the people, petitioning their reason.

1Sam 26:19

1Sam 26:19 - but if they be the children of men, cursed be they before the LORD; for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods - if men have persuaded you to pursue me, than cursed be those men who cause me to flee from God's inheritance and to worship strange gods.

1Sam 26:21

1Sam 26:21 - Then said Saul, I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my soul was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly - Saul's confession of guilt and folly were in the past short lived. He recognized his rage against David was motivated by fear and jealousy and nothing more.

1Sam 26:23

1Sam 26:23 - The LORD render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness: for the LORD delivered thee into my hand to day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the LORD'S anointed - David called heaven to witness his uprightness before God and toward Saul, his enemy, and that God would recompense accordingly.

1Sam 26:25

1Sam 26:25 - So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place - Despite Saul's confession, David still acted with prudence and kept his distance from Saul, who was prone to renege on his words.

1Sam 27:1

1Sam 27:1 - And David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any coast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand - David knew full well that Saul's confession of folly would be short lived and that he would hunt him relentlessly until he killed him. David then reasoned to go dwell in the land of the enemies of God to escape the hand of Saul.

1Sam 27:2

1Sam 27:2 - And David arose, and he passed over with the six hundred men that were with him unto Achish, the son of Maoch, king of Gath - See 1Kin 17:9

1Sam 27:2

1Sam 27:2 - Achish - Ákiysh Proper Name Masculine aw-keesh' of uncertain derivation of uncertain derivation; Akish, a Philistine king:--Achish. Achish = "I will blacken (or terrify)" or "only a man" Philistine king of Gath

1Sam 27:2

1Sam 27:2 - Maoch - Ma`owk Proper Name Masculine maw-oke' from (04600) from ; oppressed; Maok, a Philistine:--Maoch. Maoch = "oppression"

1Sam 27:2

1Sam 27:2 - king of Gath - David smote the Philistine champion from Gath, Goliath. See 1Sam 17:23, 40-51

1Sam 27:3

1Sam 27:3 - Ahinoam - mother of Amnon whose name is: Áchiyno`am Proper Name Feminine akh-ee-no'-am from (0251) and (05278) from and ; brother of pleasantness; Achinoam, the name of two Israelitesses:--Ahinoam. Ahinoam = "my brother is delight"

1Sam 27:3

1Sam 27:3 - Abigail - Ábiygayil Proper Name Feminine ab-ee-gah'-yil from (01) and (01524) or shorter Abiygal {ab-ee-gal'}; from and ; father (i.e. source) of joy; Abigail or Abigal, the name of two Israelitesses:--Abigal. Abigail = "my father is joy"

1Sam 27:6

1Sam 27:6 - Ziklag - Tsiqlag Proper Name Location tsik-lag' of uncertain derivation or Tsiyqlag (1 Chronicles 12:1,20) {tsee-kel-ag'}; of uncertain derivation: Tsiklag or Tsikelag, a place in Palestine:--Ziklag. Ziklag = "winding"

1Sam 27:9

1Sam 27:9 - And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the apparel, and returned, and came to Achish - David would make raids of the lands of the enemies of God and utterly destroy them so that there would be no one to return and give notice to Achish, the Philistine. See 1Sam 27:11

1Sam 27:12

1Sam 27:12 - And Achish believed David, saying, He hath made his people Israel utterly to abhor him; therefore he shall be my servant for ever - Achish was deceived in believing that David was making war against his own people, thus causing them to abhor him. Achish thought, surely David would serve him since he had nowhere else to go and he gave him the land of Ziklag to dwell in.

1Sam 28:6

1Sam 28:6 - And when Saul enquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets - 1Sam 15:10, 11, 16:1 I asked the meaning of the shaking I had seen and was shown that it would be caused by the straight testimony called forth by the counsel of the True Witness to the Laodiceans. This will have its effect upon the heart of the receiver, and will lead him to exalt the standard and pour forth the straight truth. Some will not bear this straight testimony. They will rise up against it, and this is what will cause a shaking among God's people. - {EW 270.2} "...it will be a revelation of the truth of righteousness by faith that precipitates the final shaking among God's professed people today, not persecution. The Lord will do the work, not Satan. He does not need Satan's cooperation in His final work." {Grace on Trial, R. Wieland, Never Become Babylon, pg 121}

1Sam 28:7

1Sam 28:7 - Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and enquire of her - the Spirit of the Lord had departed from Saul because of his persistence in rebellion, therefore Saul sought counsel of the devil. See Deut 18:10-13 When the law of God is made void the church will be sifted by fiery trials, and a larger proportion than we now anticipate, will give heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils. {Ev 361.1}

1Sam 28:8

1Sam 28:7-20 - the witch of Endor raising Samuel from the dead is a sign and lying wonder of the devil, used to deceive and persuade Saul to take his own life. The figure of Samuel being raised from the grave is used by those who believe in an immortal soul to justify life after death. However, the following verses challenge such teachings: 1. Deut 18:10-12 2. Rev 16:13, 14 3. 2Cor 11:13-15

1Sam 28:11

1Sam 28:11 - Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel. - The witch claimed to conjure the dead, however, Samuel, the judge and prophet of God if he were to be conjured, should come from heaven above, rather than below. In the past spirits were supposedly summoned from below but today they are claimed to descend from the third heaven. See 1Sam 28:15

1Sam 28:11

1Sam 28:12 - Bring me up Samuel - See Isa 8:19

1Sam 28:12

1Sam 28:12 - And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul. - to suggest that a wicked woman as the witch of Endor hasd power to summon a dead person, let alone a righteous dead person as Samuel is absurd. "It would be not only absurd, but almost wicked to represent the Lord as sending Samuel to meet Saul on this forbidden ground when he had refused to answer him at all by any prophet, though Saul anxiously sought such answer in a lawful manner before he ventured on the dreadful expedient of consulting a familiar spirit" {1871 JNA. SWE 14.2} This was a cunningly devised miracle of the devil that was good enough to deceive both the witch and Saul. See Rev 16:13

1Sam 28:13

1Sam 28:13 - And the woman said unto Saul, I saw gods ascending out of the earth - The witch perceives beings arising from the earth, suggesting spirits from the dead. The perverse counsel given was intended to lead Saul to his destruction. So, the counsels given to Eliphaz a friend and "counselor" of Job by a spirit in a night vision was intended to discourage Job. See Job 4:12-21

1Sam 28:16

1Sam 28:17-18 - Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy? - The devil is taunting Saul, seeking to cause him to loose all hope.

1Sam 28:19

1Sam 28:19 - Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines - The LORD alone can declare the future (Isa 46:9, 10). The devil is planting a hopeless thought in Saul's mind that will become a self-imposed reality.

1Sam 29:2

1Sam 29:2 - And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands: but David and his men passed on in the rereward with Achish - this was a most awkward parade that David and his men partook of. They knew full well that they had no intentions of fighting along side the Philistines against their brethren, yet, their lives and safety required that they feign allegiance to Achish the Philistine.

1Sam 29:4

1Sam 29:4 - And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, Make this fellow return, that he may go again to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master? should it not be with the heads of these men? - the princes of the Philistines rightly were upset that Achish should think to have David join them in battle.

1Sam 29:5

1Sam 29:5 - Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands? - See 1Sam 18:7, 8, 21:11

1Sam 29:6

1Sam 29:6 - Then Achish called David, and said unto him, Surely, as the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and thy going out and thy coming in with me in the host is good in my sight: for I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless the lords favour thee not - Achish had taken confidence in David and thought highly of him, though deceived. I'm sure this deception was a bit uncomfortable for David.

1Sam 29:8

1Sam 29:8 - And David said unto Achish, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been with thee unto this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my lord the king? - The LORD caused David to dodge another bullet in sending him home, away from the Philistines, as they went to battle against Israel. David masterfully played the part of a jilted ally. See 1Sam 29:11

1Sam 30:2

1Sam 30:2 - And had taken the women captives, that were therein: they slew not any, either great or small, but carried them away, and went on their way - it was a miracle of grace that none of David or his men's wives and children were killed by the Amalekites.

1Sam 30:4

1Sam 30:4 - Then David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep - all mourned bitterly for their personal loss of family.

1Sam 30:6

1Sam 30:6 - And David was greatly distressed; for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters - See Josh 8:20

1Sam 30:6

1Sam 30:6 - but David encouraged himself in the LORD his God - See Ps 43:5, 27:14

1Sam 30:7

1Sam 30:7 - And David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, I pray thee, bring me hither the ephod. And Abiathar brought thither the ephod to David - David remembered the LORD and asked Abiathar for the emblem of God's presence, the ephod. See 1Sam 23:9

1Sam 30:8

1Sam 30:8 - And David enquired at the LORD, saying, Shall I pursue after this troop? shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and without fail recover all. - See Prov 24:6

1Sam 30:10

1Sam 30:10 - But David pursued, he and four hundred men: for two hundred abode behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the brook Besor - this occasion became an object lesson and a military war strategy that David would employ, to leave certain men behind to defend their families while others went forth to battle. See Joshua 8:20

2Sam 1:21

Back to Table of Contents

2Sam 1:21 - Ye mountains of Gilboa - David pronounced a curse on Gilboa so that it would never be a fruitful land.

2Sam 3:2

2Sam 3:2 - And unto David were sons born in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; - See 2Sam 5:13-15

2Sam 3:39

2Sam 3:39 - sons of Zeruah - See 1Chron 2:15, 16

2Sam 5:11

2Sam 5:11 - And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons: and they built David an house - Hiram recognized that Israel had become a great nation, the promise made to Abraham in Gen 12 and built David a house as a sign of friendship. David recognized (knew) that the LORD established him for Israel and His sake.

2Sam 5:13

2Sam 5:12 - And David took him more concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron - God strictly forbade this practice which was made commonplace since the time of Saul. See Deut 17:17

2Sam 5:14

2Sam 5:14 - And these be the names of those that were born unto him in Jerusalem; Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, 15 Ibhar also, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia, 16 And Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphalet - David's sons born in Hebron are found in 2Sam 3:2, 3

2Sam 5:14

2Sam 5:14 - Nathan - Nathan surprisingly is the progenitor of Jesus Christ. See Lk 3:31

2Sam 5:19

2Sam 5:19 - And David enquired of the LORD - David's success lie in acknowledging the LORD in all of his endeavors. The LORD proved faithful in directing David's path. See Prov 3:5, 6

2Sam 6:4

2Sam 6:4 - And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab which was at Gibeah - See 1Sam 7:1, 2

2Sam 6:11

2Sam 6:11 - And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obedom the Gittite three months: and the LORD blessed Obedom, and all his household. - See 1Chron 13:14

2Sam 6:14

2Sam 6:14 - David was girded with a linen ephod - David war the traditional attire of the priests, rather than his royal garb. This was a token of humility as he sang and dance before the LORD.

2Sam 6:16

2Sam 6:16 - she despised him in her heart - Michel may have envied the prosperity enjoyed by David, as well as contempt she may have felt towards him in taking so many wives and concubine. As Saul's daughter, she may have envied the LORD establishing the house of David rather than her father's house.

2Sam 6:20

2Sam 6:20 - Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to day, who uncovered himself to day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovereth himself! - Rather than sharing in the joys of her husband and all of Israel, Michal held a contemptuous grudge against David. See Prov 21:19, 9

2Sam 6:23

2Sam 6:23 - Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death - weather David ignored/banished Michal or the LORD may have shut her womb, she had no children unto the day of her death.

2Sam 7:3

2Sam 7:3 - And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is in thine heart; for the LORD is with thee - the prophet Nathan spoke as a man, speaking presumptuously. He had not consulted with the Lord and spoke his own opinion. God would correct Nathan and give him words to speak to David. See Deut 18:22

2Sam 7:10

2Sam 7:10 - Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more - See Isa 65:

2Sam 7:10

2Sam 7:10 - neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them anymore, as beforetime.

See Nah 1:9; Mal 4:3; Isa 33:21

2Sam 7:11

2Sam 7:11 - And as since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel, and have caused thee to rest from all thine enemies - the judges were "deliverers" to Israel who subdued their enemies and caused them to rest peacefully as long as the judge lived.

2Sam 7:13

2 Samuel 7:13 - He shall build an house for my name, and I will stablish the throne of his kingdom for ever - See Zech 6:12, 13; Jer 23:5, 6

2Sam 7:13

2Sam 7:13 - I will stablish the throne of his kingdom for ever - God here speaks proleptically, foretelling the eternal kingdom of Christ that will have no end. See Isa 7:6, 7; Ps 132:12; Eze 37:22, 24; Mt 1:1

2Sam 7:16

2Sam 7:16 - And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever - See Gen 49:10; Mt 1:1; Eze 37:22, 24

2Sam 8:15

2Sam 8:15 - And David reigned over all Israel; and David executed judgment and justice unto all his people - See Lev 19:15; CONTRAST 1Sam 8:3

2Sam 10:3

2Sam 10:3 - And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it? - bad counsel brings about great harm.

2Sam 10:6

2Sam 10:6 - And when the children of Ammon saw that they stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Bethrehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Maacah a thousand men, and of Ishtob twelve thousand men - they Syrians would regret that they allied themselves with the children of Ammon. See 2Sam 10:18, 19

2Sam 10:11

2Sam 10:11 - Joab and Abishai had one another's back. They were being their brother's keeper in ensuring the battle of the Lord was fought valiantly and in unity. Contrast Gen 4:9

2Sam 10:12

2Sam 10:12 - Be of good courage - See Joshua 1:6, 9

2Sam 10:12

2Sam 10:12 - and the LORD do that which seemeth him good - when we submit ourselves to the will of the Lord, we should have no fear. We must recognize that whatever the Lord brings to us, He will bring us through it as well. We need not fear nor be dismayed.

2Sam 10:19

2Sam 10:19 - So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more - the Syrians regretted engaging with Ammon against Israel. See 2Sam 10:6

2Sam 11:4

2Sam 11:4 - And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and he lay with her - See Prov 6:27-29, 32-35 The danger of power, fame, success, and losing sight of where one's prosperity originates is spoken of all too often in the Bible. The lust of the flesh, lust of the eyes, and the pride of life (1Jo 2:16) takes hold when men forget their God Who has established them (2Chron 20:20) and granted them the blessings that they ascribe to themselves. See 1Sam 15:17-24; 2Chron 26:16; Act 12:21-23

2Sam 11:21

2Sam 11:21 - Who smote Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the wall, that he died in Thebez? why went ye nigh the wall? then say thou, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also - See Judges 9:53, 54

2Sam 12:6

2Sam 12:6 - fourfold - David unknowingly determined his own fate through his sentence upon the wicked man in Nathan's parable. Four sons of David would die as a result of his sin against Bathsheba and Uriah (the son born to Bathsheba, Amnon, Absalom, Adonijah). The rebellion was ripe; the conspirators had assembled at a great feast just without the city to proclaim Adonijah king, when their plans were thwarted by the prompt action of a few faithful persons, chief among whom were Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. They represented the state of affairs to the king, reminding him of the divine direction that Solomon should succeed to the throne. David at once abdicated in favor of Solomon, who was immediately anointed and proclaimed king. The conspiracy was crushed. Its chief actors had incurred the penalty of death. Abiathar's life was spared, out of respect to his office and his former fidelity to David; but he was degraded from the office of high priest, which passed to the line of Zadok. Joab and Adonijah were spared for the time, but after the death of David they suffered the penalty of their crime. The execution of the sentence upon the son of David completed the fourfold judgment that testified to God's abhorrence of the father's sin. - {PP 749.2}

2Sam 12:7

2Sam 12:7 - And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the LORD God of Israel - The LORD was jealous for the soul of David. The LORD desired that David repent of his abominable sin so that his own soul not be jeopardized to condemnation. This was an act of GRACE by the LORD to save David. See Rev 3:18-20

2Sam 12:14

2Sam 12:14 - Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also that is born unto thee shall surely die - Yet he should be punished, because he had given great occasion to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme. This occasion has been improved by the enemies of God, from David's day until the present time. Sceptics have assailed Christianity and ridiculed the Bible, because David gave them occasion. They bring up to Christians the case of David—his sin in the case of Uriah and Bathsheba, his polygamy—and then assert that David is called a man after God's own heart; and if the Bible record is correct, God justified David in his crimes. - {TSB 94.2}

2Sam 12:20 - Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the LORD, and worshipped: then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat - See Isa 38:15

2Sam 12:23

2Sam 12:23 - But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me - See Job 14:12

2Sam 12:24

2Sam 12:24 - And David comforted Bathsheba his wife - David took Bathsheba by force from her husband, Uriah the Hittite.

2Sam 12:24

2Sam 12:24 - Solomon - Shlomoh Proper Name Masculine shel-o-mo' from (07965) from ; peaceful; Shelomah, David's successor--Solomon. Solomon = "peace" son of David by Bathsheba and 3rd king of Israel; author of Proverbs and Song of Songs David may have named his son Solomon as a subtle request for mercy from the LORD in light of the curse he brought upon himself in killing Uriah, taking Bathsheba and seeking to cover it up. See 2Sam 12:10, 11

2Sam 12:24

2Sam 12:24 - and the LORD loved him - God does not chide forever, but is merciful. Because of God's love for David, even after he had given His enemies cause to blaspheme His Holy Name, God loved David's wife he took by force and loved her son, Solomon. God would rename Solomon, Jedidiah, meaning "beloved of Jehovah". 'This was made known through Nathan the Prophet. See 2Sam 12:25

2Sam 12:25

2Sam 12:25 - Jedidiah - Ydiydyah Proper Name Masculine yed-ee-deh-yaw' from (03039) and (03050) from and ; beloved of Jah; Jedidejah, a name of Solomon--Jedidiah. Jedidiah = "beloved of Jehovah" the name given to Solomon through Nathan the prophet The LORD would give Solomon His divinely appointed name, Jedidiah, meaning "beloved of Jehovah".

2Sam 13:3

2Sam 13:3 - very subtle man - Jonadab, cousin of Amnon devised the plan that would allow Amnon to rape his half-sister Tamar, starting a downward spiral of problems in David's house.

2Sam 13:5

2Sam 13:5 - Lay thee down on thy bed... - See Prov 17:4

2Sam 13:22

2Sam 13:22 - neither good nor bad - Absalom waited for two years and neither expressed pleasure nor displeasure towards Amnon, secretly hating him and plotting how to destroy him.

2Sam 13:25

2Sam 13:25 - Nay my son, let us not all - It appears that David may have been a target of Absalom's rage for the defiling of Tamar and David's lack of action towards Amnon. That David declined to attend Absalom's sheep sheering ruse and allowed his sons to attend, gave Absalom the opportunity to kill his eldest brother, Amnon.

2Sam 13:28

2Sam 13:28 - merry with wine - when Amnon's defenses were completely down, then would Absalom seek revenge upon Amnon for his sister Tamar.

2Sam 13:32

2Sam 13:32 - let no my lord's heart - Jonadab arranged that the cry be given that all of the king's sons had perished at the hands of Amnon. He then shortly gave the cry that it was Amnon alone that had perished, lessening the blow of the loss. This again shows Jonadab's subtlety.

2Sam 13:37

2Sam 13:37 - But Absalom fled, and went to Talmai, the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur - Absalom fled to Talmai, his grandfather, father of Absalom's mother Maacah. See 2Sam 3:3

2Sam 14:3

2Sam 14:3 - So Joab put the words in her mouth - David was surrounded with subtle individuals in Jonadab, Joab.

2Sam 15:1

2Sam 15:1 - And it came to pass after this - the rebellion of Lucifer in heaven against God his Father, the mystery of iniquity is illustrated in the mindset and works of David's rebellious son Absalom who sought to unseat his father from the throne. See Isa 14:12-14

2Sam 15:1

2Sam 15:1 - Absalom prepared him chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him - Absalom poses as one having great honor and authority

2Sam 15:2

2Sam 15:2 - Absalom rose up early - Absalom starts early, before anyone is aware or would suspect his plotting, to execute his scheme

2Sam 15:2

2Sam 15:2 - stood beside the way of the gate stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel - Absalom positions himself strategically, in order to intercept the matters to be handled by the king. He used cunning and craft to endear himself to the person having a grievance.

2Sam 15:3

2Sam 15:3 - See, thy matters are good and right - Absalom used flattery to win the persons confidence.

2Sam 15:3

2Sam 15:3 - but there is no man deputed of the king to hear thee - Absalom suggested his father, King David, to be aloof, unconcerned, and indifferent to the person's concerns. That the king, in his negligence, has not assigned an official to address the people's concerns

2Sam 15:4

2Sam 15:4 - Absalom said moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice! - Absalom asserts himself as a viable official who would administer justice if only the careless king would show some concern or interest.

2Sam 15:5

2Sam 15:5 - And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him - Absalom usurped the honor to be shown to the king

2Sam 15:6

2Sam 15:6 - And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment - Absalom spread his rebellion like a cancer to all Israel that came to the king for judgment.

2Sam 15:6

2Sam 15:6 - so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel - Absalom used trickery, flattery and deceit to misalign the character of his father as one aloof and unconcerned with the needs of the people. Absalom contrastingly made himself to appear as one who sought the good of the people and only needed the right opportunity to do them well - "Oh that I were made judge in he land...". See Ex 20:15-17 Satan's policy in this final conflict with God's people is the same that he employed in the opening of the great controversy in heaven. He professed to be seeking to promote the stability of the divine government, while secretly bending every effort to secure its overthrow. And the very work which he was thus endeavoring to accomplish he charged upon the loyal angels. The same policy of deception has marked the history of the Roman Church. It has professed to act as the vicegerent of Heaven, while seeking to exalt itself above God and to change His law. Under the rule of Rome, those who suffered death for their fidelity to the gospel were denounced as evildoers; they were declared to be in league with Satan; and every possible means was employed to cover them with reproach, to cause them to appear in the eyes of the people and even to themselves as the vilest of criminals. So it will be now. While Satan seeks to destroy those who honor God's law, he will cause them to be accused as lawbreakers, as men who are dishonoring God and bringing judgments upon the world. - {GC 591.1}

2Sam 15:6

2Sam 15:4-6 - stole the hearts - Absalom used trickery, flattery and deceit to misalign the character of his father as one aloof and unconcerned with the needs of the people. 2Sam 15:7

2Sam 15:7 - And it came to pass after forty years, that Absalom said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the LORD, in Hebron - On the occasion of Absalom's 40th birthday, he sought to execute upon his plan to seize the throne from his father David.

2Sam 15:10

2Sam 15:10 - Absalom reigneth in Hebron - Absalom deceived his father that he was going to pay a vow to the Lord in Hebron when his plan was to conduct a coup in that region, overthrowing his father's kingdom.

2Sam 15:11

2Sam 15:11 - went in their simplicity - to make the ruse appear widespread, Absalom took 200 men from David's kingdom in Jerusalem (unaware of his plot) that his father would be convinced that there was mass decent among his leadership.

2Sam 15:11

2Sam 15:11 - they went in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing - went in their simplicity - to make the ruse appear widespread, Absalom took 200 men from David's kingdom in Jerusalem (unaware of his plot) that his father would be convinced that there was mass decent among his leadership. These men however, knew nothing of Absalom's plots and dealings.

2Sam 15:12

2Sam 15:12 - Ahithophel... David's coussellor - Absalom schemed, plotted and devised a ruse that would make it appear that the kingdom was slipping out of David's hands, including a revolt among his key counselors. The defection of Ahithophel, the ablest and most wily of political leaders, was prompted by revenge for the family disgrace involved in the wrong to Bathsheba, who was his granddaughter. - {PP 735.3}

2Sam 15:12

2Sam 15:12 - Ahithophel the Gilonite - David's counsellor - Absalom schemed, plotted and devised a ruse that would make it appear that the kingdom was slipping out of David's hands, including a revolt among his key counselors. The defection of Ahithophel, the ablest and most wily of political leaders, was prompted by revenge for the family disgrace involved in the wrong to Bathsheba, who was his granddaughter. - {PP 735.3}

2Sam 15:14

2Sam 15:14 - Arise, and let us flee - David, as a true Shepherd over the people of Israel, did not want to risk an armed conflict in Jerusalem with Absalom, whose heart was set on conquest. David would rather relinquish the throne, become an exile, rather than to see his flock killed or scattered.

2Sam 15:14

2Sam 15:16 - we shall not else escape - David, recognizing the ruthless character of his son Absalom, knew to flee Jerusalem lest all be massacred by the vengeful son.

2Sam 15:23

2Sam 15:23, 24 - all the country wept - A sad tale of a great king in exile because of his closest kin's rebellion. This is the story of the Great Controversy, the King of the Universe, Jesus Christ, has been exiled from His rightful throne on earth and in the hearts of His creation because of the rebellion of His closest kin (Satan and Adam).

2Sam 15:27

2Sam 15:27 - Zadok the priest was also given the prophetic gift to communicate the will of God to the people. David could use his godly counsel and insight from within Jerusalem to direct his path.

2Sam 15:30

2Sam 15:30 - And David went up by the ascent of the mount Olivet, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered - A thousand years before Jesus ascended the Mount of Olives to petition that the cup of God's wrath be removed, nevertheless, God's will be done, David ascends with mourning and humility as an exile from his kingdom. See Lk 22:39-42

2Sam 15:31

2Sam 15:31 - turn counsel into foolishness - Ahithophel, once David's advisor joined Absalom's conspiracy. David prayed the Lord would confound the advise of this traitor - see Ps 41:9, 140

2Sam 16:2

2Sam 16:2 - for the king's household - Ziba sought the favor of David by bringing food, drink and provisions for the exiled people.

2Sam 16:3

2Sam 16:3 - he abideth in Jerusalem - Ziba despised working for Mephibosheth and therefore lied to David, suggesting that Mephibosheth rebelled and sought to see David's kingdom overthrown. (2Sam 19:24-30)

2Sam 16:21

2Sam 16:21 - Go in unto thy father's concubines - in fulfillment of God's prophecy and in retributive vengeance against David who he felt shamed his family, Ahithophel advises Absalom to defile his father's concubine in the open air for all to see. See 2Sam 12:11, 12

2Sam 16:21

2Sam 16:21 - then shall the hands of all that are with thee be strengthened - when the rebels with Absalom realize that he is hated of his father, then they will not have mixed feelings about their rebellion, they will be wholly bent on their rebellion and will make David an enemy.

2Sam 17:14

2Sam 17:15 - defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel - the Lord heard the prayer of David (2Sam 16:31) and confounded Ahithophel's advise with the contrary advise of Hushai, the friend of David.

2Sam 17:23

2Sam 17:23 - And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed - See Prov 22:12

2Sam 19:1

2Sam 19:1-2 And it was told Joab, Behold the king weepeth and mouneth for Absalom. And the victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people: for the people heard say that day how the king was grieved for his son - [Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem] Christ was following the Jewish custom for a royal entry. The animal on which He rode was that ridden by the kings of Israel, and prophecy had foretold that thus the Messiah should come to His kingdom. No sooner was He seated upon the colt than a loud shout of triumph rent the air. The multitude hailed Him as Messiah, their King. Jesus now accepted the homage which He had never before permitted, and the disciples received this as proof that their glad hopes were to be realized by seeing Him established on the throne. {DA 570.1} Jesus gazes upon the scene, and the vast multitude hush their shouts, spellbound by the sudden vision of beauty. All eyes turn upon the Saviour, expecting to see in His countenance the admiration they themselves feel. But instead of this they behold a cloud of sorrow. They are surprised and disappointed to see His eyes fill with tears, and His body rock to and fro like a tree before the tempest, while a wail of anguish bursts from His quivering lips, as if from the depths of a broken heart. What a sight was this for angels to behold! their loved Commander in an agony of tears! What a sight was this for the glad throng that with shouts of triumph and the waving of palm branches were escorting Him to the glorious city, where they fondly hoped He was about to reign! Jesus had wept at the grave of Lazarus, but it was in a godlike grief in sympathy with human woe. But this sudden sorrow was like a note of wailing in a grand triumphal chorus. In the midst of a scene of rejoicing, where all were paying Him homage, Israel's King was in tears; not silent tears of gladness, but tears and groans of insuppressible agony. The multitude were struck with a sudden gloom. Their acclamations were silenced. Many wept in sympathy with a grief they could not comprehend. - {DA 575.3} The tears of Jesus were not in anticipation of His own suffering. Just before Him was Gethsemane, where soon the horror of a great darkness would overshadow Him. The sheepgate also was in sight, through which for centuries the beasts for sacrificial offerings had been led. This gate was soon to open for Him, the great Antitype, toward whose sacrifice for the sins of the world all these offerings had pointed. Near by was Calvary, the scene of His approaching agony. Yet it was not because of these reminders of His cruel death that the Redeemer wept and groaned in anguish of spirit. His was no selfish sorrow. The thought of His own agony did not intimidate that noble, self-sacrificing soul. It was the sight of Jerusalem that pierced the heart of Jesus—Jerusalem that had rejected the Son of God and scorned His love, that refused to be convinced by His mighty miracles, and was about to take His life. He saw what she was in her guilt of rejecting her Redeemer, and what she might have been had she accepted Him who alone could heal her wound. He had come to save her; how could He give her up? - {DA 576.1}

2Sam 19:13 - Amasa captain of the host - for his cruel disposition and for killing Absalom, David's son, Joab was passed over by David as the captain of the host of his army for Amasa. In envy, Joab would kill Amasa (2Sam 20:4-10, 23)

2Sam 19:30

2Sam 19:30 - Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house - "You may have all this world, give me Jesus"

2Sam 19:43

2Sam 19:43 - And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah - the spirit of unrest and dissension was kindled by Absalom's revolt.

2Sam 20:6

2Sam 20:6 - And David said to Abishai - David apparently demoted Joab, passing him by on two occasions to go to war against Sheba. This may be due to Joab's vicious killing of Absalom despite David's petition to deal kindly with him.

2Sam 20:10

2Sam 20:10 - he smote him therewith in the fifth rib - the vicious murder of Amasa by Joab showed the ruthless, jealous and wicked spirit within the man.

2Sam 20:16

2Sam 20:16 - Then cried a wise woman out of the city - See Eccl 9:14, 15

2Sam 20:22

2Sam 20:22 - Then the woman went unto all the people in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba... - that the people of the city took it upon themselves to execute Sheba suggests that: 1. They despised the traitor Sheba for fleeing to their city, endangering all its inhabitants through his rebellion 2. They sought to demonstrate that they in no way agreed or sought to harbor the traitor Sheba. They showed they were not in favor of rebellion against God and the king and were for peace

2Sam 21:2

2Sam 21:2 - and the children of Israel had sworn unto them - The COI made a covenant though unadvised by the LORD, that they would not cut off the Gibeonites but would make them hand servants and laborers within their lands. Saul, in his unrighteous national zeal for Israel, sought to exterminate the people with whom his forefathers entered covenant. This was disgraceful before the LORD. See Joshua 9:3-27

2Sam 21:2

2Sam 21 :2 - sworn unto them - God honors all sworn agreements, even if not in the best interest of His people. The oath made to the Gibeonites was to be upheld, even if they would be an incumbrance upon the COI and inhabit the land the LORD had purposed for the COI. It displeased the LORD that Saul, in his blind and selfish zeal would break the oath and seek to destroy the people at peace with Israel.

2Sam 21:5

2Sam 21:5 - The man that consumed us, and that devised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel, - the Gibeonites demanded restitution from the house of Saul alone, not of Israel. See Esther 7, 8:7

2Sam 21:7

2Sam 21:7 - But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the LORD'S oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul - David, for the love of his friend Jonathan, honored the oath made between them and spared Mephibosheth, Jonathan's son's life.

2Sam 21:9

2Sam 21:9 - and they hanged them in the hill before the LORD - See Deut 21:22, 23

2Sam 21:9

2Sam 21:9 - in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest - in the time of the celebration of the Passover, Unleavened Bread and First Fruits.

2Sam 21:12

2Sam 21:12 - David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh-gilead - The acts of Rizpah prompted David to seek to honor the dead among the house of Saul.

2Sam 21:17

2Sam 21:19 - Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the light of Israel - David was getting too old to go to battle so his men told him to remain and they would go to battle on his behalf.

2Sam 22:2

2Sam 22:1 - The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer - See Ps 18:2; Deut 32:4

2Sam 22:3

2Sam 22:3 - in Him will I trust - See Ps 91:2, 28:1

2Sam 22:3

2Sam 22:3 - horn of my salvation - strength of my salvation. See Ps 18:2; Lk 1:69; Hab 3:18
29-lamp 31-buckler 33-strength 36- shield 47-Rock 47-God 51-tower

2Sam 22:3

2Sam 22:3 - high tower - See Prov 18:10

2Sam 22:4

2Sam 22:4 - I will call on the LORD - Prov 3:5, 6

2Sam 22:4

2Sam 22:4 - so shall I be saved from mine enemies - As we call out to the LORD, He is an ever present help in our time of trouble. See Isa 43:3; Ps 27:6

2Sam 22:5

2Sam 22:5 - waves of death - Ps 23:4; Isa 43:2

2Sam 22:5

2Sam 22:5 - the floods of ungodly men made me afraid - See Ps 32:6; Rev 12:15; Isa 59:19

2Sam 22:7

2Sam 22:7 - In my distress I called upon the ORD, and cried to my God: and He did hear my voice out of His temple, and my cry did enter His ears - See Ps 18:6, 7, 27:7-9; 116:1, 2, 86:7, 118:5, 6

2Sam 22:8

2Sam 22:8 - Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations of heaven moved and shook, because he was wroth - Zech 2:8

2Sam 22:9

2Sam 22:9 - There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it - See Ps 18:8

2Sam 22:10

2Sam 22:10 - He bowed the heavens also, and came down; and darkness was under his feet - When the LORD descended upon Mt Sinai, the mountain was in darkness. See Ex 19:18 the light and the darkness are the same for the LORD; He dwells in both. See Ex 14:20; Ps 139:12; Isa 45:7; 2Sam 22:12

2Sam 22:11

2Sam 22:11 - And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly and He was seen upon the wings of the wind - See Ps 18:10; Dan 7:13, 14

2Sam 22:11

2Sam 22:11 - wings of the wind - speed of the wind

2Sam 22:12

2Sam 22:12 - And he made darkness pavilions round about him, dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies - See Mt. 27:45; Mk 15:33; Lk 23:44

2Sam 22:13

2Sam 22:13 - Through the brightness before Him were coals of fire kindled - See Ps 18:12; Rev 1:

2Sam 22:14

2Sam 22:14 - The LORD thundered from heaven, and the Most High uttered His voice - See Ps 18:13; Joh 12:28, 29

2Sam 22:15

2Sam 22:15 - And he sent out arrows... - See Ps 18:14, 7:13

2Sam 22:16

2Sam 22:16 - And the channels of the sea appeared - A reference to the Creation, the Flood and the parting of the Red Sea. See Ps 18:15; Ex 15:8

2Sam 22:17

2Sam 22:17 - he drew me out of many waters - David was delivered from the snare of many wicked men who sought his life. Peter cried, "Lord, save me" when he took his eyes off of Jesus and began to sink in the sea. A possible reference to Moses. See Mt 14:30, 31; Ps 18:16; Rev 17:15

2Sam 22:18

2Sam 22:18 - He delivered me from my strong enemy - See Ps 18:17; Mt 12:29; Mk 3:27

2Sam 22:19

2Sam 22:19 - They prevented me in the day of my calamity - See Ps 18:18; 121:1, 2

2Sam 22:20

2Sam 22:20 - He brought me forth also into a large place - See Ps 18:19, 118:5, 6

2Sam 22:20

2Sam 22:20 - because he delighted in me - Prov 8:23-31

2Sam 22:21

2Sam 22:21 - The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness - Josph, Job, Dan. See Ps 24:4, 5

2Sam 22:21

2Sam 22:21 - according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me - David acted in integrity and uprightness to the best of his ability and by God's divine strength. See Ps 24:4, 5; Isa 33:15-17

2Sam 22:22

2Sam 22:22 - wickedly departing from their God - Cain, Pharoah, Judas

2Sam 22:24

2Sam 22:24 - have kept myself from mine iniquities - the 144,000 will be they who come out of great tribulation and have washed and kept their robes white in the blood of the Lamb. See Rev 7:14

2Sam 22:25

2Sam 22:25 - according to the my cleanness in his eye sight - See Ps 32:8; Rev 22:12

2Sam 22:26

2Sam 22:26 - With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful - See Mt 5:7

2Sam 22:27

2Sam 22:27 - With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure - See Mt 5:8

2Sam 22:28

2Sam 22:28 - but thine eyes are upon the haughty that thou mayest bring them down - "high looks", the "crown of pride". See Prov 16:18; 6:17; Isa 28:1, 7, 8; Ps 18:27

2Sam 22:29

2Sam 22:29 - For thou art my lamp, O Lord; the LORD will lighten my darkness - God will shine the light of grace in my dark places. See Joh 8:12, 1:9, 3:19-21, 9:4, 5; Ps 119:105

2Sam 22:30

2Sam 22:30 - I have run through a troop -

2Sam 22:31

2Sam 22:31 - His way is perfect - there are no secondary or alternate ways. God's ways are perfect!

2Sam 22:31

2Sam 22:31 - the word of the LORD is tried - God's Word can not be controverted; it has been tried, tested and proven to be true. See Psa 33:4, 12:6, 7; Joh 1:14, 17:17

2Sam 22:32

2Sam 22:32 - Who is a Rock, save our God - See Mt 16:18

2Sam 22:33

2Sam 22:33 - God is my strength and power: and he maketh my way perfect See 1Jo 2:1

2Sam 22:34

2Sam 22:34 - maketh my feet like hind's feet: and setteth me upon my high places - a reference to Naphtali - See Gen 49:21; Isa 58:14; Hab 3:19; Ps 121:3

2Sam 22:35

2Sam 22:31 - so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms. A reference to Joseph See Gen 49:22-26

2Sam 22:36

2Sam 22:36 - Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation - See Eph 6:16

2Sam 22:36

2Sam 22:38 - and thy gentleness hath made me great

2Sam 22:39

2Sam 22:39 - I have consumed them, and wounded them, that they could not arise - a Messianic prophecy of Jesus' ultimate destruction of death and the grave. See Rev 20:14, 15; Nah 1:9; Mal 4:3

2Sam 22:40

2Sam 22:40 - them that rose up against me hast thou subdued under me - Absalom and Sheba. See 2Sam 15-20, 22:49; Ps 35:7-9; 44:5

2Sam 22:41

2Sam 22:41 - given me the necks of mine enemies - See Joshua 10:24, 25; Gen 49:8

2Sam 22:42

2Sam 22:42 - They looked, but there was none to save; even unto the LORD, but he answered them not - See Ps 2:4;

2Sam 22:43

2Sam 22:43 - Then did I beat them as small as the dust of the earth, I did stamp them as the mire of the street - See Ps 2:9; Rev 12:5; Dan 2:35; Isa 10:6

2Sam 22:44

2Sam 22:44 - hast delivered me from the strivings of my people - possibly interpreted as the battles of his people (Israel) against foreign enemies.

2Sam 22:44

2Sam 22:44 - thou hast kept me to be head of the heathen: a people which I knew not shall serve me - See Ps 2:8; Isa 43:3, 4; Deut 28:13, 4:5-8

2Sam 22:45

2Sam 22:45, 46 - Strangers shall submit... Strangers shall fade away - here in these two verses the LORD uses David to typify the two classes of people that will exist upon the earth- those who submit to the truth and those who in rebellion will fade away. Act 13:42-26

2Sam 22:45

2Sam 22:45 - as soon as they hear, they shall be obedient unto me - as in the time of Joshua, the heathen nations feared (Jericho, Gibeonites) the COI as the LORD made them their dread

(Joshua 2:9-11; 9:3-27).

2Sam 22:46

2Sam 22:46 - and they shall be afraid out of their close places - See Rev 6:49-51

2Sam 22:47

2Sam 22:47 - The LORD liveth - See Rev 1:8; Joh 1:13

2Sam 22:47

2Sam 22:47 - blessed be my rock - Isa 28:16; Matt 7:24-27; Deut 32:4

2Sam 22:47

2Sam 22: 47 - and exalted be the God of our salvation - See Joh 12:32

2Sam 22:48

2Sam 22:48 - It is God that avengeth me, and that bringeth down the people under me - See Ps 27:1, 2; Rom 12:19; Isa 63:3-9; Ps 94:1; Isa 66:14-17

2Sam 22:48

2Sam 22:48 - bringeth down the people - those who hate the LORD are destroyed. See Ps 139:21, 22

2Sam 22:49

2Sam 22:49 - thou also hast lifted me up on high above them that rose up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man - See Ps 27:6, 23:5

2Sam 22:50

2Sam 22:50 - Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and I will sing praises unto thy name - See Ps 27:6; Rom 15:9; Dan 4; Ps 66:4; Deut 4:5-8; Ps 95:1-3

2Sam 22:51

2Sam 22:51 - He is the tower of salvation for his king: and sheweth mercy to His anointed - a Messianic prophecy pointing to Jesus as well as David. See Isa 54:7, 8, 49:7, 8; Ps 91:2, 94:14, 15, 144:10

2Sam 22:51

2Sam 22:51 - Jesus is likened to a "tower" [a place of defence, refuge, a look-out point] bringing salvation.

2Sam 22:51

2Sam 22:51 - sheweth mercy to his anointed - See Ps 23:6; Ex 20:6

2Sam 22:51

2Sam 22:51 - his seed - Gal 4:22-31; Heb 11:7; 2Sam 7:15, 16; Mt 22:42-46; Rev 22:16

2Sam 23:2

2Sam 23:2 - The Spirit of the LORD spake by me, and His word was in my tongue - See 1Kin 22:14; Joh 3:27; 2Pet 1:20, 21; Dan 9:10; Isa 61:1-3

2Sam 23:3

2Sam 23:3 - ruling in the fear of God - Prov 1:7

2Sam 23:4

2Sam 23:4 - And he shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds - See Hosea 6:3; Mal 4:2; Isa 9:2

2Sam 23:4

2Sam 23:4 - light of the morning - light of truth - clear and consistent rulership - Prov 4:18

2Sam 23:4

2Sam 23:4 - when the sun riseth - 2Pet 1:19; Ps 89:36;

2Sam 23:5

2Sam 23:5 - Although my house be not so with God - It appears to be a confession of David that his own house was not ruled with uprightness and integrity. Despite this, God maintained His covenant to David.

2Sam 23:5

2Sam 23:5 - yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant - 2Sam 7:12-16

2Sam 23:5

2Sam 23:5 - ordered in all things, and sure - God's eternal Kingdom is founded on the everlasting covenant that is founded on better promises, on Christ's righteousness.

2Sam 23:5

2Sam 23:5 - for this all my salvation, and all my desire - See Ps 27:4; 63:5

2Sam 23:5

2Sam 23:5 - although he make it not to grow - David hoped in God's salvation and held to God's promise to bless his house (David's Seed, the Messiah - Mt 22:42-46, Rev 22:16), though much of it had been humbled and cut-off because of his own sins.

2Sam 23:6

2Sam 23:6 - sons of Belial - sons of worthlessness/wickedness. See Deut 13:13; Judges 19:22; 1Sam 2:12

2Sam 23:6

2Sam 23:7 - shall be all of them as thorns thrust away - See Isa 27:4; Mt 3:12

2Sam 23:6

2Sam 23:6 - because they cannot be taken with hands - the wicked have a corrupting influence and must be handled as an accursed thing.

2Sam 23:7

2Sam 23:7 - the man that shall touch them must be fenced with iron and the staff of a spear - Rev 20:15

2Sam 23:7

2Sam 23:7 - they shall be utterly burned with fire in the same place -

2Sam 23:15

2Sam 23:15 - David longed and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem - Of David's sacred regard for human life, striking evidence had been given, even while he himself was hunted like a beast of prey. One day while he was hidden in the cave of Adullam, his thoughts turning back to the untroubled freedom of his boyhood life, the fugitive exclaimed, "Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!" 2Sam 23:13-17. Bethlehem was at that time in the hands of the Philistines; but three mighty men of David's band broke through the guard, and brought of the water of Bethlehem to their master. David could not drink it. "Be it far from me," he cried; "is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives?" And he reverently poured out the water as an offering to God. David had been a man of war, much of his life had been spent amid scenes of violence; but of all who have passed through such an ordeal, few indeed have been so little affected by its hardening, demoralizing influence as was David. - {PP 736.4} When David was thirsty, and greatly desired water of the well of Bethlehem, three men, without his knowledge, broke through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, and brought it to David. He considered it too sacred to drink and quench his thirst, because three men, through their love for him, had periled their lives to obtain it. He did not lightly regard life. It seemed to him that if he drank the water these brave men had put their lives in jeopardy to obtain, it would be like drinking their blood. He solemnly poured out the water as a sacred offering to God. - {4aSG 91.2}

2Sam 23:15

2Sam 23:15 - water of the well of Bethlehem - the water of life; the fountain of living waters. See Jer 17:13

2Sam 24:16

2Sam 24:16 - And the angel of the LORD was by the threshingplace of Araunah the Jebusite - the threshingplace Araunah was called Jehovah-Jire (the LORD will provide), reminding the people that their strength is in the LORD, not in man's armies. See 2Chron 3:1; Gen 22:2, 10-14; PP 746.3, 748.2

2Sam 24:17

2Sam 24:17 - but these sheep, what have done? - Just as David had become prideful and took glory in his armies and their might, the people too had become prideful in their king and in the battles won, forgetting that God was the source of their strength. PP 748.3

1 Kings

1Kin 1:5

Back to Table of Contents

1Kin 1:5 - Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself - Adonijah, David's 4th son, born of Haggith, rose up to assume the throne. Chileab, David's second son, after Amnon, would have been more deserving but thus we see the character of Amnon. His act was a rebellion against God's authority Who had foreordained that Solomon should reign after his father David.

1Kin 1:6

1Kin 1:6 - And his father had not displeased him at any time in saying, Why hast thou done so? - The statement does not refer to Adonijah's usurpation of the throne but rather the lack of reproof that David had for him and all of his children. See Heb 12:6-9;

1Kin 1:6

1Kin 1:5 - and he also was a very goodly man - despite the words of commendation regarding his person and bearing, Adonijah was "unprincipled and reckless" {From Eternity Past - Chpt 73 pg 545}

1Kin 1:10

1Kin 1:10 - But Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he called not - the blatant omission of the above named individuals reveals that Adonijah knew that his attempted usurpation of the throne was not correct and was contrary to the expressed purposes and will of his father.

1Kin 1:11

1Kin 1:11 - and David our lord knoweth it not? - the matter of Adonijah's usurpation of the throne was not disclosed to David.

1Kin 1:12

1Kin 1:12 - let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon. - Nathan perceived the unscrupulous character of Adonijah, that given the opportunity, he would like the kings of the earth, slay all challenges to his throne. This would have been an abominable act in Israel.

1Kin 1:32

1Kin 1:32 - And king David said, Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king. - To address the crisis caused by Adonijah's usurpation of the throne, David immediately abdicates the throne and appoints Solomon king over Israel.

1Kin 1:47

1Kin 1:47 - And the king bowed himself upon the bed - David bows to his son Solomon as the new king of Israel. See Heb 1:8, 9; Act 2:34, 35

1Kin 2:2

1Kin 2:2 - I go the way of all the earth - See Act 2:29

1Kin 2:2

1Kin 2:2 - be thou strong therefore, and shew thyself a man - See Joshua 1:9

1Kin 2:15

1Kin 2:15 - Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's: for it was his from the LORD - Adonijah shows a lack of repentance and impudence to the mother of Solomon. His death was assured. See 1Kin 1:52, 53

1Kin 2:25

1Kin 2:25 - And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him that he died - the death of Adonijah marked the fulfillment of the curse pronounced upon the house of David by his own mouth. See 2 Samuel 12:5, 6

1Kin 2:27

1Kin 2:27 - So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the LORD; that he might fulfil the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh - Abiathar is demoted as High Priest and Zadok is placed in his stead. See 1Sam 3:11-13

1Kin 2:28

1Kin 2:28 - though he turned not after Absalom - Joab remained faithful to David when Absalom rebelled, however, he did not show remorse for his rebellion with Adonijah, nor respect for the new king Solomon. This moral fall of Joab is noted in Scripture that we who think we stand should take heed lest we fall. That which Joab once proved faithful in, would become his downfall in the end. See 1Cor 10:12

1Kin 2:28

1Kin 2:28 - And Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the altar - though he thought he found refuge in God's sanctuary and by holding onto the horns of the altar of burnt incense, Joab would die in the house of the Lord (1Kin 2:34). Joab typifies those who know of God and seek refuge in the house of the Lord, yet they do not know God for themselves.

1Kin 2:36

1Kin 2:36 - And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither - David warned Solomon of the the rebel, Shimei, who cursed David when Absalom staged his revolt.

1Kin 2:39

1Kin 2:39 - Achish son of Maachah king of Gath - See 1Sam 27:2

1Kin 2:42

1Kin 2:42 - And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word that I have heard is good - See 1Kin 2:37, 38

1Kin 2:44

1Kin 2:44 - The king said moreover to Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore the LORD shall return thy wickedness upon thine own head - See Lev 19:17

1Kin 2:46

1Kin 2:46 - So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon - See 1Kin 2:36

1Kin 3:11

1Kin 3:11 - nor hast asked the life of thine enemies - those who request the life of their enemies have a murderous bent to them which displeases the Lord. See Num 35:31; Gen 9:5, 6; Mk 6:25

1Kin 3:11

1Kin 3:11-13 - but hast asked for thyself understanding to discern judgment... - See Lev 19:15; 1Kin 3:28; Prov 8:20, 21

1Kin 4:25

1Kin 4:25 - every man under his vine and under his fig tree - a statement meaning to be at peace and at rest. See Mic 4:4; Zech 3:10

1Kin 4:25

1Kin 4:25 - from Dan even to Beersheba - a statement meaning the entirety of Israel, end to end.

1Kin 4:26

1Kin 4:26 - forty thousand stalls of horses - God strictly forbade the COI to amass horses and place their strength in them (Deut 17:16)

1Kin 5:3

1Kin 5:3, 4 - could not build an house - God ordained that David would be a mighty warrior to subdue the foes of Israel. In turn God ordained that Solomon, David's son should be a man of peace, dwelling in peace. In this manner, Solomon would be appointed to build the tabernacle of the Lord, a House of Peace and Refuge for all to seek. Similarly, Jesus paved the road for humanity, bearing our sin, grief and shame so that we may abide in His peace.

1Kin 5:5

1Kin 5:5 - And, behold, I purpose to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build an house unto my name. - Solomon was instructed by his father, David to build a house unto the Lord. David and Solomon foreshadowed the true work of building a house of God that would be completed by Jesus Christ alone. See Act 2:30

1Kin 5:6

1Kin 5:6 - and my servants shall be with thy servants - Solomon would have artisans of the COI work along side those of Hiram so that they would learn and perfect the works of building the temple to the LORD. This would require humility on the part of all workers to prioritize the work to God's honor.

1Kin 6:13

1Kin 6:13 - And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel. - See Lev 26:11, 12

1Kin 8:25

1Kin 8:25 - Therefore now, LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me as thou hast walked before me. - See Act 13:22, 23

1Kin 8:27

1Kin 8:27 - But will God indeed dwell on the earth? behold, the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded? - See Isa 66:1; Ps 50:12

1Kin 8:29

1Kin 8:29 - That thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said, My name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make toward this place. - See 1Kin 9:3; 2Kin 23:27

1Kin 8:32

1Kin 8:32 - Then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness - the prayer of the King is that righteousness abide in the land; that God give discernment for that which is honest, true and correct and that justice be served to the offender and the one offended. See 2Chron 6:22, 23; Ps 55:9-111

1Kin 8:33

1Kin 8:33 - When thy people Israel be smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and shall turn again to thee, and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication unto thee in this house: - See Lev 26:18-46

1Kin 8:35

1Kin 8:35 - When heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou afflictest them - Lev 26:19, 20

1Kin 8:38

1Kin 8:38 - What prayer and supplication soever be made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house - See Dan 9

1Kin 8:46

1Kin 8:46 - for there is no man that sinneth not - See 2Chron 6:36; Rom 3:23

1Kin 8:50

1Kin 8:50 - and give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them - See Dan 1:9-11

1Kin 8:51

1Kin 8:51 - For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron - See Ex 20:1

1Kin 9:21

1Kin 9:21 - did Solomon levy a tribute of bondservice unto this day - the foreigners that remained among the COI were appointed to servile work in the camp and within the sanctuary (fetching of water, miscellaneous cleanings, etc.). Those appointed servile work in the temple were called Nethinim. See Ezra 8:20, 2:70 Once more Ezra appealed to the Levites, sending them an urgent invitation to unite with his company. To emphasize the importance of quick action, he sent with his written plea several of his "chief men" and "men of understanding." Ezra 7:28; 8:16. - {PK 614.2} While the travelers tarried with Ezra, these trusted messengers hastened back with the plea, "Bring unto us ministers for the house of our God." Ezra 8:17. The appeal was heeded; some who had been halting, made final decision to return. In all, about forty priests and two hundred and twenty Nethinim—men upon whom Ezra could rely as wise ministers and good teachers and helpers—were brought to the camp. - {PK 614.3}

1Kin 9:25

1Kin 9:25 - And three times in a year did Solomon offer burnt offerings - See Ex 23:14

1Kin 10:28

1Kin 10:28 - And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price - See Deut 17:16; Isa 31:1, 3; Mic 5:7; Ps 20:7

1Kin 11:1

1Kin 11:1 - Solomon loved many strange women - See 2Chron 12:13; 1Kin 11:4

1Kin 11:1

1Kin 11:1 Moabites, Ammonites - God strictly forbade that an Ammonite or Moabite not enter into the congregation of God because of the warring they made against Him and the COI. Yet, Solomon took wives of both Moab and Ammon. See Deut 23:3, 4; 1Kin 11:2-8

1Kin 11:2

1Kin 11:2 - Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you - See Deut 23:3; Joshua 23:7

1Kin 11:6

1Kin 11:6 - And Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD - Solomon committed iniquity before the Lord, with little regard for God and His displeasure with his acts.

1Kin 11:9

1Kin 11:9 - And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, which had appeared unto him twice - Solomon beheld the Lord on two occasions: 1. God inquired of Solomon, what He could do for him and Solomon asked for wisdom to rule His people uprightly - 2. God

1Kin 11:39

1Kin 11:39 - And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not for ever - See 2Kin 17:20

1Kin 12:8

1Kin 12:8 - But he forsook the counsel of the old men - Rehoboam forsook the Old Paths, the Pioneers of the Kingdom of Israel who reigned with David and Solomon for the new paths and counsels. Due to pride and peer pressure, Rehoboam fulfilled the prophecy that the Lord purposed to fulfill, causing the kingdom to be divided. Rehoboam here typifies Jam White who would remove the Old Paths and reject the Adventist Pioneers, also a fulfillment of divine prophecy (spoken through William Miller's dream), in his creation of the 1863 Chart with its omission of the 2520 and the "daily".

1Kin 12:26

1Kin 12:26-33 - two golden calves - Jeroboam feared the kingdom would return to the House of David due to unbelief (failure to believe/have faith in God [1Kin 11:26-38, 14:2]), prompting him to set up two places of worship outside the temple of God in Jerusalem (1Kin 9:1-9) and placing two golden calves.

1Kin 12:28

1Kin 12:28 - Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold - Jeroboam feared the kingdom would return to the House of David due to unbelief (failure to believe/have faith in God [1Kin 11:26-38, 14:2]), prompting him to set up two places of worship outside the temple of God in Jerusalem (1Kin 9:1-9) and placing two golden calves. See 2Kin 17:16

1Kin 12:28

1Kin 12:28 - behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. - As Aaron blasphemously proclaimed, so too Jeroboam was ensnared in the devil's wily trap. See Ex 32:4

1Kin 12:29

1Kin 12:29 - one in Bethel, and the other put he in Dan - The word Bethel means "House of God" and Dan means "Judge". Jeroboam would establish his "Image of the Beasts" in the places representing both church and state, doubling-down on the works of Aaron. All 18 kings of the northern kingdom that would follow Jeroboam are associated with him, as following in his sins. Therefore in essence, Jeroboam is responsible for the eventual scattering of the Northern Kingdom in 723B.C. Similarly in 1863, because of the Civil War in the United States, the Adventist church under Jam White, seeking to get exemptions for combat for its adherents became aligned with the state/government in being established as a registered religion. Therefore, with the establishment of the SDA church and the creation of the 1863 chart, fulfilling the scattering mentioned in William Miller's dream, the scattering of Adventism commenced with Jam White in 1863. See Ex 32:1-4

1Kin 12:31- made priests of the lowest of the people - Jeroboam despised the appointed priests of God (the Levites) who were a rebuke to his profane worship practices, pointing the people to faithfulness to God. In their place, he appointed the lowest (vilest, purchasable) people to the post who in appreciation for his appointment would do his biddings. The king tried to persuade the Levites, some of whom were living within his realm, to serve as priests in the newly erected shrines at Bethel and Dan; but in this effort he met with failure. He was therefore compelled to elevate to the priesthood men from "the lowest of the people." Verse 31. Alarmed over the prospect, many of the faithful, including a great number of the Levites, fled to Jerusalem, where they might worship in harmony with the divine requirements. - {PK 101.1}

1Kin 12:31

1Kin 12:31- made priests of the lowest of the people - See Ps 12:8 Jeroboam despised the appointed priests of God (the Levites) who were a rebuke to his profane worship practices, pointing the people to faithfulness to God. In their place, he appointed the lowest (vilest, purchasable) people to the post who in appreciation for his appointment would do his biddings. 1Kin 12:32

1Kin 12:32, 33 - ordained a feast - Jeroboam's feast he established of his own devising was held on the 15th day of the 8th month (if Sabbath is the 7th day) then the 15th day must be a Sunday. The people followed in Jeroboam's footsteps, despising God and His commandments (Mk 7:7, 8).

1Kin 12:32

1Kin 12:32, 33 - ordained a feast - Jeroboam's feast he established of his own devising was held on the 15th day of the 8th month (if Sabbath is the 7th day) then the 15th day must be a Sunday. The people followed in Jeroboam's footsteps, despising God and His commandments (Mk 7:7, 8).

1Kin 12:32

1Kin 12:32 - like unto the feast that is in Judah - in order to be a "credible" counterfeit, the services and feasts were likened to the true worship held in Jerusalem with sacrifices, alters, incense, ministering priests, sacred days, etc. In time, to the unsuspecting, the casual worshipper and for those who were not aware of the history, it would be impossible to discern the true from the counterfeit.

1Kin 12:32

1Kin 12:32 - like unto the feast that is in Judah - in order to be a "credible" counterfeit, the services and feasts were likened to the true worship held in Jerusalem with sacrifices, alters, incense, ministering priests, sacred days, etc. In time, to the unsuspecting, the casual worshipper and for those who were not aware of the history, it would be impossible to discern the true from the counterfeit.

1Kin 12:33

1Kin 12:33 - The spirit of antichrist was at work in the heart of Jeroboam as he devised his own holy day, on his own month and called a sabbath feast for the day. See 1Jo 4:3

1Kin 13:1

1Kin 13:1 - Bethel - House of God

1Kin 13:1

1Kin 13:1 - Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense - like King Uzziah, who would later pay for his sin of presumptuous rebellion by becoming a leper for the rest of his life, King Jeroboam sought to unite church and state by assuming the post of a priest in offering sacrifices. - See 2Chron 26:16-21

1Kin 13:2

1Kin 13:2 - cried against the alter in the word of the Lord - the man of God would decry the abominations of Samaria, introduced by Jeroboam and testify the alter he erected against God in honor of false gods. See 2Kin 23:15; Isa 27:9

1Kin 13:2

1Kin 13:2 - a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name - the prophecy is accurate in describing future King Josiah, who as a child of 8yrs old would assume the throne of David and would begin a great reform among the people of God. See 2 Kings 22, 23

1Kin 13:2

1Kin 13:2 - upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee - See Isa 27:9

1Kin 13:4

1Kin 13:4 - he put forth his hand from the alter - Just as Jeroboam put forth his hand against the man of God, so the King of the North will stretch forth his hand against the inhabitants of the world, particularly those who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ. See Dan 11:42

1Kin 13:4

1Kin 13:4 - And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him. - See Mt 12:10

1Kin 13:8

1Kin 13:8, 9, 14 - sitting under an oak - the man of God from Judah took his repose after being used mightily of the Lord. Rather than: 1. Making haste to return to Judah, the land of safety, he tarried in the wilderness (Ephraim) 2. Heeding God's Word alone which clearly stated do not eat or drink in the land (internalize their doctrine), he sat to dine with a false prophet speaking lies and deceits. 3. Returning a different way than the path you came... In other words not turning back to the former paths but walking in newness of life by faith in Christ Jesus

1Kin 13:9

1Kin 13:9 - eat no bread, nor drink water - the man of God was explicitly warned not to eat bread or drink water in the foreign land. The bread and water spoken are the doctrines of Babylon that are not to be consumed by God's people. We are to drink from our own cisterns and not be polluted by the precepts of men.

1Kin 13:9

1Kin 13:9 - nor turn again by the same way that thou camest - as the angels counseled Lot and his family not to look back, the Lord speaks to all who have forsaken sin, not to return in the path from whenst you've come. See Gen 19:17; Lk 17:32

1Kin 13:11

1Kin 13:11 - Now there dwelt an old prophet in Bethel - Compare Num 22:5, 6

1Kin 13:14

1Kin 13:14 - And went after the man of God - the old prophet was an emissary of the devil who like Simon the sorcerer, desired the power of God seen through the man of God. See Act 8:18-24

1Kin 13:14

1Kin 13:14 - found him sitting under an oak - There is a danger in resting after a spiritual victory. We must not let down our guards until we have reached our destination (i.e. the Promised Land). Many have lost their way after relaxing after doing a great work for the Lord. See 1Kin 18:30-19:4

1Kin 13:18

1Kin 13:18 - I am a prophet - Like Israel, Christians too often yield to the influence of the world and conform to its principles and customs, in order to secure the friendship of the ungodly; but in the end it will be found that these professed friends are the most dangerous of foes. The Bible plainly teaches that there can be no harmony between the people of God and the world. "Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you." 1Jo 3:13. Our Saviour says, "Ye know that it hated Me before it hated you." Joh 15:18. Satan works through the ungodly, under cover of a pretended friendship, to allure God's people into sin, that he may separate them from Him; and when their defense is removed, then he will lead his agents to turn against them and seek to accomplish their destruction. - {PP 559.1}

1Kin 13:18

1Kin 13:18 - an angel spoke unto me - the man of God was deceived by the old prophet when he failed to heed the counsels of God. Paul admonishes us not to give heed to any word or doctrine from man or angel that contradicts the gospel/truth of God (Gal 1:8, 2Cor 11:14)

1Kin 13:22

1Kin 13:24 - thy carcass shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers - This may denote a dishonor, not being buried among one's relatives. May possibly suggest being cut off from the household of faith. The man of God died in his sin.

1Kin 13:24

1Kin 13:25 - a lion met him by the way, and slew him - See 1Pet 5:8; Rev 12:9

1Kin 13:24

1Kin 13:24 - and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the carcass - a miracle his here witnessed, that the ass and the lion both stand overlooking the carcass of the man of God.

1Kin 13:33

1Kin 13:33 - After this thing Jeroboam returned not from his evil way - the failure of the man of God emboldened the wicked in their wickedness.

1Kin 15:12

1Kin 15:12 - took away the sodomites out of the land - See Rom 1:27-29; Jude 1:7

1Kin 15:13

1Kin 15:13 - And also Maachah his mother, even her he removed from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove; and Asa destroyed her idol, and burnt it by the brook Kidron - Asa was zealous for the Lord and even deposed his mother who made and worshipped idols in the groves and high places.

1Kin 16:31

1Kin 16:31 - Ahab foreshadowed the apostasy to be seen in these last days: 1. As a part of God's people, Ahab was to be an agent of light, but formed an alliance with the agents of darkness 2. The alliance coalesced into a marriage 3. Began to war against God based theology in favor of human based ideologies (doctrines of men) God warned against such an unholy alliance in Deuteronomy 12:29, 30 "Can't serve a Bible based God with doctrines that are not Bible based" - {Joh Lomacang} And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him. - In rejecting the truth, men reject its Author. In trampling upon the law of God, they deny the authority of the Law-giver. It is as easy to make an idol of false doctrines and theories as to fashion an idol of wood or stone. By misrepresenting the attributes of God, Satan leads men to conceive of Him in a false character. With many, a philosophical idol is enthroned in the place of Jehovah; while the living God, as He is revealed in His word, in Christ, and in the works of creation, is worshiped by but few. Thousands deify nature while they deny the God of nature. Though in a different form, idolatry exists in the Christian world today as verily as it existed among ancient Israel in the days of Elijah. The God of many professedly wise men, of philosophers, poets, politicians, journalists—the God of polished fashionable circles, of many colleges and universities, even of some theological institutions—is little better than Baal, the sun-god of Phoenicia. - {GC 583.1}

1Kin 16:34 - In his days did Hiel the Bethelite build Jericho - See Joshua 6:26, 27

1Kin 16:34

1Kin 16:34 - rebuild Jericho - see Josh 6:26

1Kin 17:1

1Kin 17:1 - Deut 11:13-18 - by apostasy the Lord withholds his blessings of rain, the early and latter rain, in their season.

1Kin 17:1

1Kin 17:1 - there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word - The LORD through His prophet expressed the quarrel of His covenant against His wayward people. The Lord forewarned that breaking His covenant would result in severe punishment, including the withholding of rains and famine. It was the sins in the land, idolatry, false gods, intermarriage with pagans among the king no less, that brought God's judgments upon the land. With the drought, comes famine and death for livestock and people. A fitting comparison to the Dead Faith of the Dark Ages when there was a famine for hearing the word of the Lord in the land. See Jam 5:16-18; Deut 28:15-24; Lev 26:25; Am 8:11; Psa 107:3, 4

1Kin 17:3

1Kin 17:3 - hide thyself - Elijah was being hunted by Ahab because of his decree of withholding the rains until his command. Elijah had to deal with the fear of being found and brought to the cruel monarch's wrath "While Elijah was hid by Jordan, the people supposed he was dead. So also after '44, the funeral sermon of Millerism was preached and many supposed that Millerism was dead. But the LORD said to Elijah, 'go shew thyself unto Ahab.' So at the end of three and a half years, Elijah went to shew himself unto Ahab.' So also, the word of the LORD contained in the sealing message of the third angel came to the true people of God, more clearly in 1848, after they had been hid in the wilderness of the people three and a half years." An Appeal to the Laodicean Church, Hiram Edson, The Advent Review Extra, September 1850

1Kin 17:3

1Kin 17:3 - Cherith - meaning "a cutting", separation; a gorge or brook

1Kin 17:4

1Kin 17:4 - I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there - God makes provision for His people when He permits them to pass through strait places. He humbles us to accept any and all kindnesses that are given to us, even if from an abominable raven (Lev 11:13-15). The life of the prophet wasn't always easy! See Isa 43:1, 2; Ps 23:4, 5; Deut 8:2-5

1Kin 17:5

1Kin 17:5 - So he went and did according unto the word of the LORD - the Bible makes it plain that Elijah moved with haste to perform the word of the Lord. The Bible then presents the object lesson that even while doing God's will, He permits difficulties to come our way in order to move us to a place where we may be blessed and better yet, may be a blessing.

1Kin 17:6

1Kin 17:6 - ravens brought him bread and flesh - Just as in the vision given to Peter in Act 10, God uses the unclean raven to feed Elijah so when he is sent to the woman of Syro-Phoenician origin he does not look down upon her for being pagan. See Act 10:11-13; Mt 6:11

1Kin 17:6

1Kin 17:6 - ravens brought him bread and flesh - Just as in the vision given to Peter in Act 10, God uses the unclean raven to feed Elijah so when he is sent to the woman of Syro-Phoenician origin he does not look down upon her for being pagan. See Act 10:11-13; Mt 6:11

1Kin 17:7

1Kin 17:7 - brook dried up - as a prophet of God, Elijah was taught the lesson that things would not always go "favorably for him" or as he considered things to be favorable, even though he was heeding God's command. The brook dried up as a result of the famine but also, so that Elijah would be caused to move to Zarephath to preserve life. Thus the prophet's faith was increased. See Gen 50:15-20; Jer 15:18

1Kin 17:9

1Kin 17:9 - Zarephath - meaning "smelting-shop", "a workshop for the refining and smelting of metals". This small Phoenician town, was the refuge the Lord intended to protect His prophet during the 3.5yrs of famine and to prepare him for the showdown that would occur at the conclusion of the famine. See Lk 4:26; Jam 5:17, 18

1Kin 17:9

1Kin 17:9 - Zarephath belongeth to Zidon - Elijah was commanded to go to a heathen nation, even the land of Jezebel, the enemy of God (1Sam 27), to find refuge during the time of famine. God had commanded a widow woman there to care for Elijah. God has His people who heed His voice in every corner of the earth! Elijah's reliance upon the Lord was being ever increased with each new situation.

1Kin 17:9

1Kin 17:9 - I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee - God prepared a place in the wilderness of Zarephath, a place destitute of God's word and faith, yet a perfect haven for the prophet of God. Compare the church in the wilderness. See Rev 12:6

1Kin 17:10

1Kin 17:10 - So he arose and went to Zarephath - God caused Elijah to dwell in a foreign land, where paganism abounded yet within a haven/oasis prepared by God. The Lord prepared a table to feed Elijah from in the same land from which came his mortal enemy Jezebel (Ps 23:5). This is reflective of David dwelling in Gath, the land of the Philistines in order to escape his mortal enemy, Saul.

1Kin 17:10

1Kin 17:10 - behold, the widow woman was there gathering of sticks - God did not send Elijah to Zarephath to preserve his life alone. God purposed to bless this faithful woman in this land of paganism with His presence and provision so that she and her son might live through the crisis. Because she received the prophet of the Lord, she would receive the prophet's reward - more abundant life today and life forevermore. Mt 10:41; See 2Peter 1:21; Heb 11:7; Isa 51:16; 2Chron 20:20; Jer 45:1-5

1Kin 17:10

1Kin 17:10 - fetch me I pray thee a little water - like Jesus engaged the woman at the well, Elijah showed humility in engaging the widow of Zarephath, requesting she fetch him water to drink. Elijah broke down the barriers of prejudice, he being a Jew and she a heathen woman of Phoenicia. See Joh 4:4-10

1Kin 17:11

1Kin 17:11 - as she was going - Elijah imposes upon the woman's kindness all the more by requesting a morsel of bread. Apparently, Zarephath too was impacted by the famine that had plagued all the land.

1Kin 17:12

1Kin 17:12 - LORD thy God liveth - the woman obviously had become acquainted with the God of the Heb and worshipped Him as she called Him LORD.

1Kin 17:13

1Kin 17:13 - And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son - Elijah tested the woman's faith by requesting she give of him the first portion, before even she and her own son ate. This is the same principle of the first fruits and tithing. God has promised to make more than abounding provisions for us as we return to Him that which is rightfully His in the form of tithes and a generous offering. See Lev 23:10-14; Mal 3:8-11

1Kin 17:14

1Kin 17:14 - For thus saith the LORD God of Israel - It was understood that the God of Israel was responsible for the drought, so when Elijah gave assurance of His protection over the woman and her son, she heeded the request.

1Kin 17:14

1Kin 17:14 - The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sendeth rain upon the earth - Our daily bread, God's Word and the oil of the Holy Spirit would not cease for those who put their trust in God, until He send the rains, early and latter rains. See Isa 33:15-17; Joel 2:23, 24

1Kin 17:14

1Kin 17:14 - until the day that the LORD sendeth rain upon the earth - The rains, early and latter rain. See Joel 2:23, 24

1Kin 17:15

1Kin 17:15 - And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah - Not only was the woman filled with the gift of hospitality, willing to prefer a stranger over her hungry self and child (Isa 49:15), she was obedient to the man of God and the command of the LORD.

1Kin 17:15

1Kin 17:15 - The Lord blessed the woman's faithfulness as well as Elijah by providing bread for them many days. Similarly, Jesus multiplied the fishes and the loaves so that the multitude could be fed, and to spare.

1Kin 17:16

1Kin 17:16 - And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Elijah - Just as God provided manna from heaven daily for the COI, the cruse of oil and flour were provided sufficiently on a daily basis to provide food for the widow, her son and the prophet of God. God's works are marvelous in our eyes!

1Kin 17:17

1Kin 17:17 - And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him - God would in time try the Shunemite woman's faith as she called upon Elisha and his God for help. The LORD wanted to give the woman an unshakable faith and thus used the most extreme measure in taking the life of her son. See 2Kin 4:16-35

1Kin 17:18

1Kin 17:18 - art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son? - perhaps the woman had the child out of wedlock or was a woman for hire or an adulteress and she thought that the taking of the child's life was punishment for her sin.

1Kin 17:20

1Kin 17:20 - hast thou also brought evil upon the widow with whom I sojourn? - The evil that befell rebellious Israel, seen in famine and death is here referenced by the prophet of God. See 1Kin 18:5

1Kin 17:21

1Kin 17:21 - And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again - 2Kin 4:34, 35

1Kin 17:21

1Kin 17:21 - O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again - Elijah petitioned on the widow's behalf for her son and that the God of Elijah might be glorified before her. This trial was brought to strengthen his and her faith in the True God of Creation, the Giver of all life and every good thing. The preservation of life through the daily bread was a miracle worthy of thanksgiving and praise. But the restoration of her son, a specific miracle for one who had nothing else in this world- this endeared the woman to the God of Elijah, calling Him her own.

1Kin 17:22

1Kin 17:22 - And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived - the effectual, fervent prayer of righteous man availeth much. See Jam 5:16-18

1Kin 17:24

1Kin 17:24 - Now by this I know that thou art a man of God - despite the miracle of eating bread for many days without the oil or wheat running dry, it is the miracle of her son's resurrection that affirmed to the woman that Elijah indeed was a man of God, one who served the God of Israel and in whose mouth was the word of truth. This also endeared her to the God of Elijah and opened the door for Elijah to witness to her about the Plan of Redemption, that God would give His Beloved Son for the sins of the world. See Joh 4:41, 42; Mt 10:41

1Kin 17:24

1Kin 17:24 - and that the word of the LORD in thy mouth is truth - though the woman and her son benefited by the presence of Elijah, in that the cruse of oil and the meal did not cease, the miracle of restoring her son sealed her faith in the LORD.

1Kin 18:1

1Kin 18:1 - And it came to pass after many days, that the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, shew thyself unto Ahab; and I will send rain upon the earth - See Jam 5:17, 18

1Kin 18:2

1Kin 18:2- there was a sore famine in Samaria - the northern kingdom was in a severe famine where livestock and human lives were taken for want. See 1Kin 18:5

1Kin 18:3

1Kin 18:3 - Obadiah - `Obadyah Proper Name Masculine o-bad-yaw' act part of (05647) and (03050) or mObadyahuw {o-bad-yaw'-hoo}; active participle of and ; serving Jah; Obadjah, the name of thirteen Israelites:-Obadiah. Obadiah = "servant of Jehovah"

1Kin 18:4

1Kin 18:4 - when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water - at the peril of his own life, Obadiah sought to preserve the lives of the prophets of the Lord (see 1Sam) so that all the light would not go out in Samaria.

1Kin 18:10

1Kin 18:10 - As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not there; he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee not - an intricate surveillance process was set-up to search for Elijah, to take his life. So shall it be in the last days for the people of God.

1Kin 18:12

1Kin 18:12 - but I thy servant fear the LORD from my youth - See 2Tim 3:15

1Kin 18:16

1Kin 18:16 - Ahab went to meet Elijah - In astonishment mingled with terror the king listened to the message from the man whom he feared and hated, and for whom he had sought so untiringly. Well he knew that Elijah would not endanger his life merely for the sake of meeting him. Could it be possible that the prophet was about to utter another woe against Israel? The king's heart was seized with dread. He remembered the withered arm of Jeroboam. Ahab could not avoid obeying the summons, neither dared he lift up his hand against the messenger of God. And so, accompanied by a bodyguard of soldiers, the trembling monarch went to meet the prophet. - {PK 139.2}

1Kin 18:17

1Kin 18:17 - art thou he that troubleth Israel? - In true narcissistic form, Ahab accused Elijah of the very thing he was, "he that trouble the Israel". The wicked accuse the just as cause for the plague of drought, so will the remnant be falsely accused of the troubles in the land and the plagues during the Time of Trouble. See Mt 2:3 "But when Elijah went to show himself unto Ahab: Ahab said unto Elijah, 'Art thou he that troubleth Israel? So also it is now, when we [Adventists in 1848] urge the keeping of all of the commandments of God, we are charged with troubling Israel, and sowing discord, and of causing divisions, etc" - An Appeal to the Laodicean Church, Hiram Edson, The Advent Review Extra, September 1850 Now, as in former ages, the presentation of a truth that reproves the sins and errors of the times, will excite opposition. "Every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved." [Joh 3:20.] As men see that they cannot maintain their position by the Scriptures, many determine to maintain it at all hazards, and with a malicious spirit they assail the character and motives of those who stand in defense of unpopular truth. It is the same policy which has been pursued in all ages. Elijah was declared to be a troubler of Israel, Jer a traitor, Paul a polluter of the temple. From that day to this, those who would be loyal to truth have been denounced as seditious, heretical, or schismatic. Multitudes who are too unbelieving to accept the sure word of prophecy, will receive with unquestioning credulity an accusation against those who dare to reprove fashionable sins. This spirit will increase more and more. And the Bible plainly teaches that a time is approaching when the laws of the State shall so conflict with the law of God that whoever would obey all the divine precepts must brave reproach and punishment as an evil-doer. - {GC88 458.2}

1Kin 18:18

1Kin 18:18 - I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim - And then the great deceiver will persuade men that those who serve God are causing these evils. The class that have provoked the displeasure of Heaven will charge all their troubles upon those whose obedience to God's commandments is a perpetual reproof to transgressors. It will be declared that men are offending God by the violation of the Sunday sabbath; that this sin has brought calamities which will not cease until Sunday observance shall be strictly enforced; and that those who present the claims of the fourth commandment, thus destroying reverence for Sunday, are troublemakers of the people, preventing their restoration to divine favor and temporal prosperity. Thus the accusation urged of old against the servant of God will be repeated and upon grounds equally well established: "And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel? And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baalim." 1Kin 18:17, 18. As the wrath of the people shall be excited by false charges, they will pursue a course toward God's ambassadors very similar to that which apostate Israel pursued toward Elijah. - {GC

1Kin 18:18

1Kin 18:18 - in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD - See 1Kin 16:30-33

1Kin 18:18

1Kin 18:18 - hast followed Baalim - (the Pope)

1Kin 18:19

1Kin 18:19 - mount Carmel - Before the drought, Mount Carmel had been a place of beauty, its streams fed from never-failing springs, and its fertile slopes covered with fair flowers and flourishing groves. But now its beauty languished under a withering curse. The altars erected to the worship of Baal and Ashtoreth stood now in leafless groves. On the summit of one of the highest ridges, in sharp contrast with these was the broken-down altar of Jehovah. - {PK 144.1} Carmel overlooked a wide expanse of country; its heights were visible from many parts of the kingdom of Israel. At the foot of the mount there were vantage points from which could be seen much of what took place above. God had been signally dishonored by the idolatrous worship carried on under cover of its wooded slopes; and Elijah chose this elevation as the most conspicuous place for the display of God's power and for the vindication of the honor of His name. - {PK 144.2}

1Kin 18:19

1Kin 18:19 - which eat at Jezebel's table - the false prophets of Baal and of the grove were getting their food from the table of their mother, the whore Jezebel. Similarly, apostate Protestantism eats from her mother's table in upholding her doctrines and teachings: 1. An immortal soul 2. Eternal punishment and burning of the wicked 3. Sunday observance as opposed to the seventh-day Sabbath of the Bible

1Kin 18:21

1Kin 18:21 - How long halt ye between two opinions? - the question is posed to a people who delight in claiming to follow the LORD while worshipping foreign gods. See Zeph 1:4, 5 The Lord abhors indifference and disloyalty in a time of crisis in His work. The whole universe is watching with inexpressible interest the closing scenes of the great controversy between good and evil. The people of God are nearing the borders of the eternal world; what can be of more importance to them than that they be loyal to the God of heaven? All through the ages, God has had moral heroes; and He has them now,—those who, like Joseph and Elijah and Daniel, are not ashamed to acknowledge themselves His peculiar people. His special blessing accompanies the labors of men of action; men who will not be swerved from the straight line of duty, but who with divine energy will inquire, "Who is on the Lord's side?" men who will not stop merely with the inquiry, but who will demand that those who choose to identify themselves with the people of God shall step forward and reveal unmistakably their allegiance to the King of kings and Lord of lords. Such men make their wills and plans subordinate to the law of God. For love of Him, they count not their lives dear unto themselves. Their work is to catch the light from the Word, and let it shine forth to the world in clear, steady rays. Fidelity to God is their motto.—Prophets and Kings, 148. - {ChS 236.6}

1Kin 18:21 - Baal - the Phoenician god of nature represented in their worship of sun, moon and stars. The modern manifestation is in the Sunday worship by those who deify the sun as well as modern pagans who glorify nature as a god. 2 Kin 23:5 In rejecting the truth, men reject its Author. In trampling upon the law of God, they deny the authority of the Lawgiver. It is as easy to make an idol of false doctrines and theories as to fashion an idol of wood or stone. By misrepresenting the attributes of God, Satan leads men to conceive of him in a false character. With many, a philosophical idol is enthroned in the place of Jehovah; while the living God, as he is revealed in his Word, in Christ, and in the works of creation, is worshiped by but few. Thousands deify nature, while they deny the God of nature. Though in a different form, idolatry exists in the Christian world today as verily as it existed among ancient Israel in the days of Elijah. The god of many professedly wise men, of philosophers, poets, politicians, journalists,—the god of polished fashionable circles, of many colleges and universities, even of some theological institutions,—is little better than Baal, the sun-god of Phenicia. - {GC88 583.1}

1Kin 18:21

1Kin 18:21 - answered him not a word - See Jer 7:26, 27; Lk 14:3, 4, 6 The people answer him not a word. Not one in that vast assembly dare reveal loyalty to Jehovah. Like a dark cloud, deception and blindness had overspread Israel. Not all at once had this fatal apostasy closed about them, but gradually, as from time to time they had failed to heed the words of warning and reproof that the Lord sent them. Each departure from rightdoing, each refusal to repent, had deepened their guilt and driven them farther from Heaven. And now, in this crisis, they persisted in refusing to take their stand for God. - {PK 147.3} The Lord abhors indifference and disloyalty in a time of crisis in His work. The whole universe is watching with inexpressible interest the closing scenes of the great controversy between good and evil. The people of God are nearing the borders of the eternal world; what can be of more importance to them than that they be loyal to the God of heaven? All through the ages, God has had moral heroes, and He has them now—those who, like Joseph and Elijah and Daniel, are not ashamed to acknowledge themselves His peculiar people. His special blessing accompanies the labors of men of action, men who will not be swerved from the straight line of duty, but who with divine energy will inquire, “Who is on the Lord’s side?” (Ex 32:26), men who will not stop merely with the inquiry, but who will demand that those who choose to identify themselves with the people of God shall step forward and reveal unmistakably their allegiance to the King of kings and Lord of lords. Such men make their wills and plans subordinate to the law of God. For love of Him they count not their lives dear unto themselves. Their work is to catch the light from the Word and let it shine forth to the world in clear, steady rays. Fidelity to God is their motto. - {PK 148.1}

1Kin 18:22

1Kin 18:22 - Then said Elijah unto the people, I, even I only, remain a prophet of the LORD - See 1Kin 18:4, 13, 19:18; Rom 11:4

1Kin 18:24

1Kin 18:24 - And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken - God has been “the God Who answers by fire” historically. However, in the last days, the LORD will permit the devil to masquerade His power in calling down fire from heaven in the sight of men to deceive them. Only those who know God and His word will be able to stand in those days. See Gen 4:4, 15:17; Judges 13:19, 20; 1Chron 21:26; 2Chron 7:1; Deut 4:24; 2Kin 1:10, 12, 14; CONTRAST Rev 13:13, 14; Job 1:16

1Kin 18:27 - or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked - Compare Ps 121:3, 4

1Kin 18:28

1Kin 18:28 - they cried aloud - Gladly would Satan have come to the help of those whom he had deceived, and who were devoted to his service. Gladly would he have sent the lightning to kindle their sacrifice. But Jehovah has set Satan's bounds, restrained his power, and not all the enemy's devices can convey one spark to Baal's altar. - {PK 150.1}

1Kin 18:30

1Kin 18:30 - And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down - Elijah gathered the people and then restored the altar of the Lord that had been torn down, a fitting type of the Advent Movement from A.D.1798-1844 after a period of 3.5 prophetic years of spiritual darkness. God's last day people are to be repairers of the breach in casting aside the Sabbath; leading people back to the Bible and salvation by grace through faith of Jesus Christ: See Isa 58:12-14

1Kin 18:31

1Kin 18:31 - twelve stone - the twelve stone represent the twelve tribes of Israel which prophetically foreshadows the 144,000. See Rev 7:4-8

1Kin 18:31

1Kin 18:31 - unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be thy name - See Gen 32:27, 28

1Kin 18:33

1Kin 18:33 - four barrels with water - the number four at times symbolizes the world. Therefore, the worldwide message of reformation is to be given three times, via the Three Angel's Messages.

1Kin 18:34

1Kin 18:34 - third time - refers to the Three Angel's Messages.

1Kin 18:36

1Kin 18:36 - LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel - See Ex 3:13-15

1Kin 18:37

1Kin 18:37 - Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again - See Mal 4:6

1Kin 18:39

1Kin 18:39 - The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God - See Deut 7:9

1Kin 18:40

1Kin 18:40 - brook Kishon - See Judges 5:19-21

1Kin 18:43

1Kin 18:43 - Go again seven times - though the LORD informed Elijah that there would be no rain until he spoke/commanded it, the LORD tested His prophet by having him pray 7x until a sign of the rains was evident. Those who are actively in God's service must know that they too are subject to the LORD and to His divine plans, including trial and tests.

1Kin 18:45

1Kin 18:45 - Jezreel - meaning "God scatters"

1Kin 19:2

1Kin 19:2 - So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to morrow about this time - Jezebel was a shrewd, ruthless, vengeful, wicked woman. She was surely the dominant figure in her marriage. See 1Kin 21:1-21

1Kin 19:2

1Kin 19:2 - if I make not thy life as the life of one of them - the death decree issued by Jezebel parallels the death decree with the Image to the Beast. See Rev 13:15

1Kin 19:3

1Kin 19:3 - went for his life - Elijah, after the mountain top experience, took his eyes off of the Lord because the change in Israel did not occur as he anticipated it should occur. An object lesson - we must remember the Source of our power after doing a great work for the Lord we must keep our eyes on the Lord, even if things do not turn out as we anticipate them happening. Elijah should not have fled from his post of duty. He should have met the threat of Jezebel with an appeal for protection to the One who had commissioned him to vindicate the honor of Jehovah. He should have told the messenger that the God in whom he trusted would protect him against the hatred of the queen. Only a few hours had passed since he had witnessed a wonderful manifestation of divine power, and this should have given him assurance that he would not now be forsaken. Had he remained where he was, had he made God his refuge and strength, standing steadfast for the truth, he would have been shielded from harm. The Lord would have given him another signal victory by sending His judgments on Jezebel; and the impression made on the king and the people would have wrought a great reformation. - {PK 160.1} The flight of Elijah parallels the flight of the righteous when the death decree from the Image to the Beast is enforced.

1Kin 19:3

1Kin 19:3 - belongeth to Judah - Elijah ran from Samaria to Judah, fleeing the death threat of Queen Jezebel.

1Kin 19:4

1Kin 19:4 - he might die - after withstanding a three and a half year drought brought at his command, standing before the apostate king Ahab and the false prophets of Baal, Elijah runs in terror, wishing he were dead at the threat of a ruthless woman. Elijah violated a principle of prayer in his prayer: He did not ask within the will of God, but prayed against God's will. There is power in our unanswered prayers. Though Elijah asked to die (having suicidal thoughts), God ignored his prayer request and rather caused him to live forever.

1Kin 19:5

1Kin 19:5 - And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold, then an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat - Sometimes we don't have the wherewithal to ask for help but God answers our needs. Elijah got off from his "prayer-game", and yet, God mercifully gave him what he needed. The Lord provided for His servant and will provide for his people in the last days. See Isa 33:15-17

1Kin 19:8

1Kin 19:8 - unto Horeb the mount of God - God would lead Elijah back to Horeb (Sinai), to give him a new revelation of His character. See Ex 3:1, 33:6;

1Kin 19:9

1Kin 19:9 - what doest thou here - See 1Kin 19:13 God met His tried servant with the inquiry, What doest thou here, Elijah? I sent you to the brook Cherith and afterward to the widow of Sarepta. I commissioned you to return to Israel and to stand before the idolatrous priests on Carmel, and I girded you with strength to guide the chariot of the king to the gate of Jezreel. But who sent you on this hasty flight into the wilderness? What errand have you here? - {PK 168.1}

1Kin 19:10

1Kin 19:10 - I only am left - in presumptuous self pity, Elijah claims to be the only person that remained faithful to the Lord. This shows that Elijah was very much a man with like passions as we all. See Jam 5:17

1Kin 19:12

1Kin 19:12 - And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice - Elijah and the COI had the Sinai Phenomena. They had been conditioned through the Old Covenant to view God as a wrathful God Who brought forth thunder, lightning and burnings. They saw Him as a God to be fearful of. And yet, Elijah was given a new revelation of the TRUE CHARACTER OF GOD in the "still small voice". Seeing God's true character is what changes us. God wishes that we all would have a heart to recognize His true character and obey Him. See Deut 5:29

1Kin 19:12

1Kin 19:12 - a still small voice - God speaks to us in a still small voice. We too must be still to hear it. See Ps 46:10; Isa 30:7

1Kin 19:13

1Kin 19:13 - What doest thou here, Elijah? - God asks a probing question to see how the prophet would answer for his breach in faith. See 1Kin 19:9

1Kin 19:15

1Kin 19:15 - anoint Hazael, Jehu, and Elisha - "The object of this anointing was that they should slay all the house of Ahab and Jezebel, and all the prophets and worshippers of Baal..." - An Appeal to the Laodicean Church, Hiram Edson, The Advent Review Extra, September 1850. See 1Kin 19:17 After receiving a new revelation of God in the still small voice, Elijah was inclined to do a work that he ordinarily would not have been willing to do. the anointing of Hazael, the foreign king was directed by the hand of God to fulfill all righteousness.

1Kin 19:16

1Kin 19:16 - anoint to be in thy room - God disregarded Elijah's wish for death in his distress (v4) and purposed a better plan for His prophet.

1Kin 19:18

1Kin 19:18 - Yet I have left me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him - See Rom 11:4; 1Kin 18:22

1Kin 19:21

1Kin 19:21 - Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered unto him - Elisha became Elijah's disciple and servant until he was taken away.

1Kin 20:10

1Kin 20:10 - if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls or all the people that follow me - he's got more people than he can number as backup in his army.

1Kin 20:13

1Kin 20:13 - I will deliver it - The Lord showed great mercy to the wicked and apostate king Ahab of Israel. God defended Israel from the armies of Syria which were as the sand of the sea.

1Kin 20:13

1Kin 20:13 - thou shalt know that I am the God - God was still trying to prove Himself to Ahab. God is long suffering to the best and worst of men!

1Kin 20:27

1Kin 20:27 - two little flocks of kids - the COI were as two small flocks of sheep compared to the innumerable army of the Syrians.

1Kin 20:35

1Kin 20:35 - said unto his neighbour in the word of the LORD - as a prophet of God, he commanded his neighbor to smite him by the word of the LORD, yet the neighbor believed not and refused to smite the prophet.

1Kin 20:42

1Kin 20:42 - Ahab's routing of the Syrian Benhadad was because God purposed to destroy that man and also to try to win Ahab's heart to Him. Yet, in disobedience, Ahab let Benhadad go free by an oath. God would require Ahab's life and that of his people in Benhadad's stead. Seek 1Sam 15

1Kin 21:3

1Kin 21:3 - And Naboth said to Ahab, The LORD forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee - Num 26:51-56, 27:1-11 God, as owner of all lands, entrusted portions of the promised land to every tribe and the families within the tribes. These lands were to be passed down from generation to generation and were never to be sold, bartered or traded. Any lands "sold" for indebtedness could be redeemed during the Year of Jubilee (Lev 25). Catholic teachings are suggesting this is not the case. Consider what is written from the Catholic online magazine AmericaMagazine.org on 8/7/2020 "First, Catholic social teaching does advocate the protection of property rights, but only when strongly situated within what is called the universal destination of goods. That is, "Christian tradition has never recognized the right to private property as absolute and untouchable. 'On the contrary, it has always understood this right within the broader context of the right common to all to use the goods of the whole of creation: the right to private property is subordinated to the right to common use, to the fact that goods are meant for everyone."

1Kin 21:7

1Kin 21:7 - let thine heart be merry, I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite - See Prov 3:30

1Kin 21:8

1Kin 21:8 - So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth - the letter was addressed to the elders and nobles of the city. The plot was a high conspiracy, a display of wickedness in high places as all were aware of the scheme and played along. Thus Jesus said, it would be better for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of Judgment than for those among the house of Israel. See 1Kin 21:14; Mt 11:20, 21

1Kin 21:10

1Kin 21:10 - And set two men, sons of Belial, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, Thou didst blaspheme God and the king. And then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die - two seed of the serpent, sons of wickedness and darkness. See Gen 3:15; Joh 8:44

1Kin 21:11

1Kin 21:11 - men of his city and elders - the men of the city and the elders which carried out Jezebel's wicked scheme of killing Naboth proved to be as ruthless and unscrupulous as the evil Queen - See Isa 59:1-15

1Kin 21:13

1Kin 21:13 - Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died - See Joh 8:59

1Kin 21:29

1Kin 21:29 - because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days - The LORD is gracious and merciful! Praise You LORD!!

1Kin 22:4

1Kin 22:4 - And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses - Jehoshaphat made a vain oath and pledge with one whom he ought not have any dealings. He placed himself in a snare by binding himself to Ahab in an oath. See Prov 6:1-3, 12:13

1Kin 22:5

1Kin 22:5 - Enquire of the Lord - commit your ways unto the Lord and He will direct thy paths. Good king Jehoshaphat of Judah asked that the Lord be enquired of before Israel and Judah jointly go to battle against Syria.

1Kin 22:6

1Kin 22:6 - about four hundred men - the prophets of Baal in Israel in the time of Ahab numbered 400, the same number of whom were slain by Elijah - See 1Kin 18:19

1Kin 22:8

1Kin 22:8 - There is yet one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil - the foolish king hated the counsels of the messenger of God, not knowing he was warring against the Originator of the message and not the messenger. As a result, he added offense to his rebellion by imprisoning the messenger of God.

1Kin 22:13

1Kin 22:13 - speak like words - the messenger sent to retrieve Micaiah counseled him to speak the same words of affirmation spoken by the 400 false prophets of the grove before Ahab and Jehoshaphat.

1Kin 22:14

1Kin 22:14 - And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, what the LORD saith unto me, that will I speak - See 1Kin 22:8; 1Sam 3:15-18; Act 4:18-20

1Kin 22:15

1Kin 22:15 - Go and prosper - apparently, Micaiah must have spoken with sarcasm as he spoke words of agreement with the false prophets of the grove.

1Kin 22:16

1Kin 22:16 - And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the LORD? - the double-minded, hypocritical king knew fully well that he did not want to hear the truth from the prophet Micaiah but rather lies and fables from his false prophets. 1Kin 22:6-8

1Kin 22:19

1Kin 22:19 - I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left - It may be inferred that all the blessed of God stood on the right side of the Father and Satan stood alone on the left. See Job 1:6, 7; Zech 3:1; Mt 25:31-46

1Kin 22:21

1Kin 22:21 - And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him - the lying spirit is none other than Satan, who was still granted access to the heavenly convocation, since Adam forfeited the privilege and yielded it to the enemy of souls. See 2Chron 18:20-22; Job 1:6, 7

1Kin 22:22

1Kin 22:22 - I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets - See

1Jo 4:6; Eph 2:2

1Kin 22:23

1Kin 22:23 - Lord hath put a lying spirit - See Judges 9:23; Isa 19:13, 14

1Kin 22:28

1Kin 22:26 - if thou return at all in peace, the LORD hath not spoken by me - the counsel of the prophet of the LORD was given, yet Ahab and even Jehoshaphat disregarded the counsel. In mercy, God spared Jehoshaphat's life but Ahab would die in battle. See 1Kin 22:37

Back to Table of Contents

2Kin 1:2 - And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, enquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron whether I shall recover of this disease - The king of Israel, turning from God to ask help of the worst enemy of his people, proclaimed to the heathen that he had more confidence in their idols than in the God of heaven. In the same manner do men and women dishonor Him when they turn from the Source of strength and wisdom to ask help or counsel from the powers of darkness.... - {CC 219.5} During his father's reign, Ahaziah had witnessed the wondrous works of the Most High. He had seen the terrible evidences that God had given apostate Israel of the way in which He regards those who set aside the binding claims of His law. Ahaziah had acted as if these awful realities were but idle tales. Instead of humbling his heart before the Lord, he had followed after Baal, and at last he had ventured upon this, his most daring act of impiety.... - {CC 219.2}

2Kin 2:11

2Kin 2:11 - And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven - Just as Enoch was translated, Elijah was translated to heaven without seeing death. Both are firstfruit of those who will not taste death at Jesus' Second Coming but will be translated to heaven with glorified bodies as Christ's. See Gen 5:24; Heb 11:5; 1Thess 4:17

2Kin 4:8

2Kin 4:8 - And it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a great woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread - the Shunammite woman was great in the eyes of the LORD and it was demonstrated through her wealth and hospitality. She was a noble woman who honored God. See Gen 12:2; Lk 1:48; Mk 14:9

2Kin 4:8

2Kin 4:8 - Shunem - Shuwnem Proper Name Location shoo-name' probably from the same as (07764) probably from the same as ; quietly; Shunem, a place in Pal:--Shunem. Shunem = "double resting place" a city in Issachar, located 5 miles (8 km) south of Mount Tabor

2Kin 4:10

2Kin 4:10 - Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither - The Shunammite woman's natural hospitality paid off as the Lord returned favor and grace towards her in that which she sought the most. See Isa 54:1-5; Lk 6:38; 1Pet 4:9, 10; 1Tim 3:2; Heb 13:2

2Kin 4:13

2Kin 4:14 - I dwell among mine own people - the woman was well to do and did not seek the praise of kings or captains of the host.

2Kin 4:14

2Kin 4:14 - And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath no child, and her husband is old - Gehazi took note of the fact that she was mature, her husband older, and she had no children to take care of her in her old age. This was a concern for every woman in Israel without a child.

2Kin 4:16

2Kin 4:16 - And he said, About this season, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son - Like Isaac, John the Baptist and Jesus, the Shunnemite woman was to give birth to a miracle baby. See Gen 18:10

2Kin 4:16

2Kin 4:16 - And she said, Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do not lie unto thine handmaid - the woman had lost hope of an heir. She didn't want to get her hopes high for a disappointment, but she knew Elisha to be a man of God.

2Kin 4:20

2Kin 4:20 - And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died - A similar test was given to the Syro-Phoenician woman in the time of Elijah. The test was to endear the faith of the Shunamite woman to the God of Elisha. See 1Kin 17:17-24

2Kin 4:21

2Kin 4:21 - And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out - she laid her dead son on Elisha's bed and closed the door so no one would enter in.

2Kin 4:22

2Kin 4:22, 23 - And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again. 23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is neither new moon, nor sabbath. And she said, It shall be well - Like Abraham with Sarah, the Shunnamite woman did not inform her husband of the concern but resolutely ran to see the man of God, Elisha - See Gen 22:1-5

2Kin 4:26 - It is well - the Shunammite woman was "great" in many ways. Rather than crying out in despair to all who would lend an ear, she maintained her composure and did not disclose her grief and sorrow. She would talk her concern to the man of God, who had a connection with God, the Main Source.

2Kin 4:28

2Kin 4:28 - Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? did I not say, Do not deceive me? - See 2Kin 4:16

2Kin 4:30

2Kin 4:30 - And the mother of the child said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her - the Shunammite woman demonstrated the determination of Jacob. See Gen 32:26

2Kin 4:34

2Kin 4:34 - And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm - See 1Kin 17:19-21

2Kin 4:36

2Kin 4:36 - And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son. - See 1Kin 17:23, 24

2Kin 5:11

2Kin 5:12 - I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper - people are often impressed by feats of wonder, yet even miracles can not produce genuine faith. God's power is not to be found in such demonstrations, but in God's still small voice, and us obeying the simple commandments of God. See 1Kin 19:11-13; Lk 11:28; John 20:29

2Kin 5:13

2 Kings 5:13 - My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean? - Faith is not performing some grande, taxing feats for God, but rather in the true and consistent performance of that which is seemingly trivial and base. - John 6:28, 29

2Kin 5:14

2 Kings 5:14 - Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God - Just as Joh the Baptist would in the future command all to repent and be baptized for the remission of sins, so Naaman [a Gentile] received in a spiritual sense, the baptism that led to righteousness by faith. See Lk 3:2-14

2Kin 5:15

2 Kings 5:15 - now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel - God will perform miracles when they will give Him glory and draw men to Him. See Joh 4:41, 42; Isa 60:3

2Kin 5:16

2 Kings 5:16 - But he said, As the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take it; but he refused - prophets and servants of God are to refuse any payment beyond their basic sustenance, for the works of the LORD rendered through them. Never should the impression be given that God's blessings can be purchased, or that God requires any payment for His works of grace and mercy. Our reasonable service for all the miracles and blessings of God is to live a life of righteousness that pleases Him (Rom 12:1, 2). See Act 8:20; Joh 8:49-51

2Kin 5:18

2 Kings 5:18 - In this thing the LORD pardon thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leaneth on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon: when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon thy servant in this thing And he said unto him, Go in peace. So he departed from him a little way. - the LORD saw the sincerity in Naaman and winked at this offense that Naaman foresaw in his line of work. God saw the greater good in Naaman's witness to the king and all in his court and sought to reach those, His lost sheep, through His new servant Naaman. The prophet affirmed to Naaman that his request was granted and that he should go in peace with God. Praise you LORD!!

2Kin 6:16

2Kin 6:16 - for they that be with us are more than they that be with them - See 1Jo 4:4

2Kin 6:17

2Kin 6:17 - LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha - So too, we must daily ask the Lord for eye salve, that we may see and perceive the things unseen to the natural eyes. See Ps 121:1, 27:1-3, 34:7-9, 119:18; Mk 8:24; Num 24:1-9; Act 7:55, 56; 2Cor 4:18

2Kin 6:18

2Kin 6:18 - And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha - Elisha prayed in the Spirit and could ask the things that God purposed to fulfill. See Eph 6:18; 1Jo 5:14, 15

2Kin 9:30

2Kin 9:30 - she painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window - Jezebel sought to seduce Jehu with her cosmetics. See Rev 17:4, 5

2Kin 9:32

2Kin 9:32 - three eunuchs - the three eunuchs symbolize the 3-Angels' Messages that bring down the harlot Jezebel. See Rev 2:20-23

2Kin 10:22

2Kin 10:22 - Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal - the worshippers of Baal were to be clearly identifiable for their execution. They wore their own vestments (own methods of righteousness and salvation) in life and they would wear them in death also.

2Kin 10:30

2Kin 10:30 - children of the fourth generation - See 2Kin 15:11, 12

2Kin 17:7

2Kin 17:7 - For so it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods - See Deut 11:16, 17

2Kin 17:9

2Kin 17:9 - And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against the LORD their God - Ezekiel 8:11, 12

2Kin 17:13

2Kin 17:13 - Yet the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets - See 2Chron 36:15, 16

2Kin 17:15

2Kin 17:15 - And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them, that they should not do like them - See Lev 26:25

2Kin 17:16

2Kin 17:16 - even two calves - See 1Kin 12:28-30

2Kin 17:18

2Kin 17:18 - Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only - foretelling of the utter scattering of the northern kingdom of Israel by the Assyrians.

2Kin 17:21

2Kin 17:21 - For he rent Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drave Israel from following the LORD, and made them sin a great sin - See 1Kin 11:29-40, 12:19, 20

2Kin 17:22

2Kin 17:24 - For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them - See 1Kin 12:25-33

2Kin 17:24

2Kin 17:24 - And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof - this was the beginning of the lineage of the people called Samaritans, who were not Jews but were taught the ways and customs of the Jews in order to inhabit the land. 2Kin 17:25-27

2Kin 17:41

2Kin 17:41 - feared the Lord and served graven images - the spirit of compromise exhibited by the foreigners that came to inhabit Samaria foretells the spirit of compromise prevalent during the time of the rise of the Church of Rome, leading to the Dark Ages and the spirit of compromise among the Protestant and world churches who will grab hold of the papacy (Isa 4:1)

2Kin 18:4

2Kin 18:4 - He removed the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the brasen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it Nehushtan - That which was once a blessing and was to merely be a memorial of God's deliverance became a curse as men perverted its meaning. See Num 21:9; Joh 3:14

2Kin 18:10

2Kin 18:10 - and at the end of three years they took it - 723B.C., the northern kingdom of Samaria is scattered by Assyria.

2Kin 18:13

2Kin 18:13 - Now in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah - 715B.C.

2Kin 18:35

2Kin 18:35 - Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of mine hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand? - See Ex 5:2

2Kin 19:14

2Kin 19:14 - And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD - See 2Chron 20:3

2Kin 19:22

2 Kings 19:22 - Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel - See Ex 5:2; Dan 3:15

2Kin 19:28

2Kin 19:28 - Because thy rage against me and thy tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest - See Ezek 38:3, 4

2Kin 19:35

2 Kings 19:35 - that the angel of the LORD went out, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses - See Ps 103:20

2Kin 20:7

2Kin 20:7 - And Isa said, Take a lump of figs. And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered - The Lord employs natural remedies to bring healing and a cure to ailments (Prov 17:22, Ps 103:3), unlike the worlds drugs and medicines. See Jer 46:11; Rev 18:23, 22:15

2Kin 20:8

2 Kings 20:8 - What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day? - Like Moses in the land of Midian, like Gideon in the presence of the heavenly messenger, like Elisha just before the ascension of his master, Hezekiah pleaded for some sign that the message was from heaven. "What shall be the sign," he inquired of the prophet, "that the Lord will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the Lord the third day?" - {PK 342.2}

2Kin 20:15

2 Kings 20:15 - What have they seen in thine house? - What have your friends and acquaintances seen in your house? Are you, instead of revealing the treasures of the grace of Christ, displaying those things that will perish with the using? Or do you, to those with whom you are brought in contact, communicate some new thought of Christ's character and work? ... O that those for whom God has done marvelous things would show forth His praises, and tell of His mighty works. But how often those for whom God works are like Hezekiah—forgetful of the Giver of all their blessings. [35] - {CC 241.5}

2Kin 20:18

2Kin 20:18 - And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon - See Isa 39:7; Dan 1:1-3

2Kin 21:4

2Kin 21:4 - he built alters in the house of the LORD - continuation of the sin of Jeroboam - See 1Kin 12:28-33

2Kin 21:6

2Kin 21:6 - observed times, and used enchantments, and dealt with familiar spirits and wizards. See Isa 8:19; 1Sam 15:23

2Kin 21:7

2Kin 21:7 - he set a graven image of the grove that he had made in the house - image of jealousy. See Eze 8:5, 6

2Kin 21:11

2Kin 21:11 - Because Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did - God would appoint destruction to the Amorites because of their sin. Thus God could not let Israel go without chastisement. See Gen 15:16

2Kin 21:12

2Kin 21:12 - that whosoever hear of it, both his ears shall tingle - See 1Sam 3:11; Jer 19:3

2Kin 21:13

2Kin 21:13 - stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of Ahab - the line and plummet are those things used to measure and evaluate squareness. Therefore, God will measure/judge Jerusalem with the judgments established for Samaria (the northern kingdom) and corrupt king Ahab.

2Kin 21:13

2Kin 21:13 - I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down - God's going to scrape Israel clean, wipe out all and then turn it over for later use.

2Kin 21:16

2Kin 21:16 - Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another - See Isa 59:2-4, 7, 14, 15; 1Kin 21:1-19

2Kin 22:1

2Kin 22:1 - and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem - from the 13th year of Josiah, the prophet Jer began his ministry, prophesying against Judah. See Jer 25:1, 2

2Kin 22:8

2Kin 22:8 - I have found the book of the Law - The discovery of the lost book of the Law in the house of God is a disgrace as Moses had commanded the COI to read the Law openly every seven years. See Deut 31:10, 11; Josh 24:26

2Kin 22:11

2Kin 22:11 - he rent his clothes - good king Josiah understood that the nation was under a curse that had begun during the reign of his grandfather Mannassah. He understood the impending danger and showed contrition for the condition of the nation. See Joel 2:13-17

2Kin 22:13

2Kin 22:13 - Go ye, enquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do according unto all that which is written concerning us - Josiah was a man after God's heart. Josiah acknowledge God, sought counsel from God, and inquired of the Lord His path forward so that he not perpetuate the transgressions of his forefather. Compare Jer 36:20-23

2Kin 22:14

2Kin 22:14 - went to Huldah the prophetess - the king sent to inquire of the LORD through the prophetess, the fate of the nation in light of the 2520 prophecy/covenant he understood.

2Kin 22:19

2Kin 22:19 - Because thine heart was tender, and thou hast humbled thyself before the LORD - Josiah did not lift himself up in pride and defiance when the word of the Lord came to him regarding Israel's impending judgment. Rather, he humbled himself, recognized that he and the people were under a curse and sought the Lord. This is what the Lord delights in, those with a humble and contrite spirit. See Isa 57:15

2Kin 22:20

2Kin 22:20 - Behold therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again - God would show mercy to Josiah in being a reformer - his faithfulness in humbling himself, seeking the Lord that he may put an end to the transgressions of his people. See Rev 3:10; Dan 9:24

2Kin 23:4

2Kin 23:4 - And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven: and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto Bethel - See Deut 7:5

2Kin 23:24

2Kin 23:24 - workers with familiar spirits - communicators with demons impersonating the dead. See Rev 16:14; Prov 20:26

2Kin 23:31

2Kin 23:31 - Jehoahaz - "Jehovah his sustainer, or he whom Jehovah holdeth". Also called Shallum (1Chron 3:15)

2Kin 23:34

2Kin 23:34 - Eliakim - meaning "whom God will raise up"

2Kin 23:34

2Kin 23:34 - Jehoiakim - "he whom Jehovah has set up". He was set-up by the Egyptians while his younger brother, Jehoahaz (Shallum in Jer 22:11) was deposed and taken from the throne for his advocacy towards the Chaldeans.

1Chron 8:21 - Adayah Proper Name Masculine ad-aw-yaw' from (05710) and (03050) or mAdayahuw {ad-aw-yaw'-hoo}; from and ; Jah has adorned; Adajah, the name of eight Israelites:--Adaiah. Adaiah = "Jehovah has adorned Himself"

1Chron 8:24

1Chron 8:24 - Hananiah - Chananyah Proper Name Masculine khan-an-yaw' from (02603) and (03050) or Chananyahuw {khan-an-yaw'-hoo}; from and ; Jah has favored; Chananjah, the name of thirteen Israelites:--Hananiah. Hananiah = "God has favoured"

1Chron 9:35

1Chron 9:35 - And in Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jehiel, whose wife's name was Maachah - See 1Chron 8:29, 30

1Chron 9:36

1Chron 9:36 - Ner - the grandfather of Saul - See 1Chron 9:39

1Chron 9:39

1Chron 9:39 - Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab - See 1Chron 10:2

1Chron 10:2

1Chron 10:2 - And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, and after his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, the sons of Saul - See 1Chron 9:39

1Chron 10:4

1Chron 10:4 - Then said Saul to his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took a sword, and fell upon it. - See 1Sam 31:3-6

1Chron 10:13

1 Chronicles 10:13 - So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against the LORD, even against the word of the LORD, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, to enquire of it - See 1Sam 15:1-31

1Chron 10:13

1Chron 10:13 - and also for asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, to enquire of it - See 1Sam 28:5-20

1Chron 10:14

1Chron 10:14 - And enquired not of the LORD: therefore he slew him, and turned the kingdom unto David the son of Jesse - God takes responsibility for that which he allows or does not prevent. See Ex 7:3; 8:32; 1 Chronicles 10:4, 13, 14

1Chron 11:1

1 Chronicles 11:1 - Then all Israel gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh - See 2Sam 5:1

1Chron 11:2

1Chron 11:2 - and the LORD thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be ruler over my people Israel - See 1Sam 16:13

1Chron 11:3

1 Chronicles 11:4 - they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel - apparently, Samuel had commanded Israel to anoint David when the LORD would give the kingdom into his hand. It was in stubbornness perhaps that they followed Abner in positioning Ish-Bosheth as King for 7years.

1Chron 11:6

1 Chronicles 11:6 - So Joab the son of Zeruiah went first up, and was chief - Joab, David's nephew became head/general over David's army. See 2Sam 5:8

1Chron 11:9

1 Chronicles 11:9 - So David waxed greater and greater: for the LORD of hosts was with him - David had surrendered his will to the LORD and the LORD in turned exalted him - righteousness exalteth a nation (Prov 14:34). What a contrast to Nimrod and those who sought to make a name for themselves at Babel. See Gen 11:1-4

1Chron 12:1

1Chron 12:1 - Now these are they that came to David to Ziklag, while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish: and they were among the mighty men, helpers of the war - See 1Sam 27:1-12

1Chron 12:2

1Chron 12:2 - even of Saul's brethren of Benjamin - among the Benjamites were those who were loyal to David even though Saul was a Benjamite. See 1Chron 12:16-18

1Chron 12:19

1Chron 12:19 - And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines upon advisement sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads - See 1Sam 29:1-11

1Chron 12:32

1Chron 12:32 - And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do - the sons of Issachar were those who prayed often, read Scripture and sought to discern the providential hand of God moving. See 1Thess 5:1-5

1Chron 12:33

1Chron 12:33 - they were not of double heart - See 1Chron 12:38; Gen 17:1; Jam 1:8, 4:8

1Chron 12:38

1Chron 12:38 - and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king - See 1Chron 12:33; Gen 17:1; Jam 1:8, 4:8

1Chron 12:39

1Chron 12:39 - And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them - the COI pulled-out all the stops to celebrate the coronation of David as their king. This will be nothing to compare to Jesus' grand coronation by all the redeemed of the ages and the un-fallen hosts. Oh What will it be to be there! See Hymn #434 We Speak of the Realms (v4) Do Thou, midst temptation and woe, For heaven my spirit prepare; And shortly I also shall know And feel what it is to be there. Then o'er the bright fields we shall roam, In glory celestial and fair, With saints and with angels at home, And Jesus Himself will be there.

1Chron 13:4

1Chron 13:4 - And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people - the people had not sought the counsel of the Lord and thus, their efforts would not prosper. See Ps 127:1; Ex 19:8; John 15:5; 1Chron 13:7-9

1Chron 13:13

1Chron 13:13 - Obededom - `Obed Proper Name Masculine from the act part of (05647) and (0123) from the active participle of and ; worker of Edom; Obed-Edom, the name of five Israelites: --Obed-edom. Obed-edom = "servant of Edom" a Levite and a Gittite who kept the ark after Uzzah was slain by God for touching the ark while it was being taken to Jerusalem

1Chron 13:14

1Chron 13:14 - And the ark of God remained with the family of Obededom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obededom, and all that he had - See 2Sam 6:11, 12

1Chron 14:1

1Chron 14:1 - Hiram - Chiyram Proper Name Masculine khee-rawm' another form of (02361) or Chiyrowm {khee-rome'}; another form of ; Chiram or Chirom, the name of two Tyrians:- Hiram, Huram. Hiram, Huram = "noble"

1Chron 14:10

1Chron 14:10 - And David enquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand - See 1Chron 14:14, 15; 1Sam 23:4. CONTRAST 1Sam 28:6

1Chron 14:16

1Chron 14:16 - David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer - CONTRAST 1Sam 15:1-35

1Chron 15:27

1Chron 15:27 - robe of fine linen - David wore an ephod of linen like all the priests showing that he was on par with all others as he gave worship and praise to the Lord. There was no display of royalty and man's superiority in light of the glory of God; all were equal.

1Chron 16:24

1Chron 16:24-31 - The First Angel's message expounded (Rev 14:6, 7)

1Chron 17:1

1Chron 17:1 - David is the one who conceived the idea to build a fixed temple unto the Lord. Though his intentions were good, it was never desired or approved of the Lord. See 1Chron 17:3-14

1Chron 17:4

1Chron 17:4 - Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in - God says emphatically that David will not built a house to the Lord. This was never God's purpose nor desire for mortal hands, to construct a fixed house for Him to dwell. This work He reserved fro the BRANCH, a solemn work of righteousness that God alone could perform. See 1Chron 17:6

1Chron 17:5

1Chron 17:5 - For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another - though the tabernacle was built so that God would dwell among the COI, He abode not only in the tabernacle but from tent to tent among those who would permit Him to come and sup with them. See Rev 3:20

1Chron 17:11

1Chron 17:11 - that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom - God is not talking about any of David's immediate sons, but rather about Jesus. See Gen 3:15; Zech 6:12, 13

1Chron 17:11

1Chron 17:11 - and I will establish his kingdom - See 1Chron 17:14

1Chron 17:12

1Chron 17:12 - He shall build me an house, and I will stablish his throne for ever - God's temple and house were not to be built of wood and stone but of living stones, Jesus the Chief Cornerstone and we, living stones in His building. See Zech 6:12, 13; Isa 44:28, 9:6, 7; 28:16; Eph 2:19, 20; 1Pet 2:5; Rev 3:12

1Chron 17:13

1Chron 17:13 - I will be his father, and he shall be my son: and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee: - See Heb 1:5; 1Chron 28:6

1Chron 17:13

1Chron 17:13 - and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee: - See Isa 55:3

1Chron 17:13

1Chron 17:13 - as I took it from him that was before thee- See 1Sam 16:14

1Chron 17:14

1Chron 17:14 - and his throne shall be established for evermore - See Isa 9:6, 7

1Chron 17:25

1Chron 17:25 - For thou, O my God, hast told thy servant that thou wilt build him an house: therefore thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee - See 1Chron 17:10

1Chron 21:1

1Chron 21:1-7 - provoked David to number Israel - the census that David was inspired to take of Israel was the work of Satan. Israel, unlike other nations, was created to be completely and utterly reliant upon God for its success. Other nations prided themselves on the sizes of their armies and their ability to wage war, but that was not God's intentions for Israel. God purposed that Israel would be victorious without lifting a single weapon, merely by praising and giving glory to God and He would fight their battles, because the battle was not with Israel (or against God's people) but the battle was against the Lord [Deut 7:17-26; 1Sam 17:44-47, 2Chron 20:15]]. Therefore, David's prideful numbering of the people was in harmony with the ways of the world and would put Israel's strength in the hands of man and not in the hands of the Lord [Jer 17:5-8]. This affirms the fact that the battles we fight are not against flesh and blood but against principalities and powers and the rulers of the darkness in this world. Satan and his imps are waging war against God ultimately but seek to do so by molesting the apple of His eye, the church. Satan seeks to cause us to sin and to fall out of God's will, ultimately putting us in a position to bring God's punishment and chastisement upon us; however, Jesus counsels that sin lies at the door and its desire is for us [to rule over us], but we are too rule over it. See Eph 6:12; Rev 12:13; Gen 4:7

1Chron 22:6

1 Chronicles 22:6 - Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build an house for the LORD God of Israel. - David, though having good intentions, was NOT counseled of God, but ordained that Solomon should assume the throne and build a house unto the LORD. God purposed that Jesus, His Son, should build the house of the Lord and establish it alone. See Zech 6:12, 13

1Chron 22:8

1 Chronicles 22:8 - Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight. - God's house was to be a house of prayer for all nations, kindreds, tongues and people. God is a God of love, not of war. See Isa 56:7

1Chron 22:13

1 Chronicles 22:13 - be strong, and of good courage; dread not, nor be dismayed. - See Joshua 1:9

1Chron 28:2

1Chron 28:2 - As for me, I had in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building - See 1Chron 17:1

1Chron 28:3

1Chron 28:3 - But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed blood - God's name and reputation would reside in His house, a house of peace for all to dwell in. Therefore, David, a man of war that shed much blood could not aptly represent the Spirit that would inhabit the temple of God. Solomon, a man of peace was better suited. See Isa 56:7; Mt 21:13

1Chron 28:3

1Chron 28:3 - because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed blood - David reasoned that his bloody lifestyle was what prohibited him from carrying out his desire to build a house unto the Lord. The Lord however, made no such suggestion though it is reasonable to conclude.

1Chron 28:4

1Chron 28:4 - Howbeit the LORD God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever - See 1Sam 16:6-13; 1Chron 17:7, 8

1Chron 28:5

1Chron 28:5 - And of all my sons, (for the LORD hath given me many sons,) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel - The Lord chose Solomon to succeed the throne of his father David.

1Chron 28:6

1Chron 28:6 - And he said unto me, Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts - God did not call Solomon by name but rather, David interpreted what God said as such. The reference from God was that of Jesus, the BRANCH, Who would build God's temple and establish it in righteousness for ever. See Zech 6:12, 13

1Chron 28:6

1Chron 28:6 - for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father - See 1Chron 17:13; Heb 1:5

1Chron 28:7

1Chron 28:7 - Moreover I will establish his kingdom for ever - See 1Chron 17:12

1Chron 28:9

1Chron 28:9 - with a perfect heart - See 2Tim 1:5

1Chron 28:9

1Chron 28:9 - for the LORD searcheth all hearts - See Ps 139

1Chron 28:9

1Chron 28:9 - and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts - See Ps 139:1-5

1Chron 28:10

1Chron 28:10 - Take heed now; for the LORD hath chosen thee to build an house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it - This is what David inferred from what the Lord spoke, but God did not purpose for human hands to build Him a house. This work was reserved for Jesus, the BRANCH. See 1Chron 17:11-14

1Chron 28:12

1Chron 28:12 - And the pattern of all that he had by the spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the dedicated things: - God's Spirit gave David insights for the building of the temple though it was not His request nor desire that one be built on earth.

1Chron 28:20

1Chron 28:20 - Be strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed: for the LORD God, even my God, will be with thee - See Joshua 1:9

1Chron 29:9

1 Chronicles 29:9 - Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy. - the LORD loves a cheerful giver (2Cor 9:7)

1Chron 29:14

1 Chronicles 29:14 - for all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee. - See Deut 8:1-20; 1Cor 4:7; Mal 3:8-11; Joh 3:27; Rom 11:35, 36 Now not a soul can give God anything that is not already His. Bear this in mind. "All things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee." 1 Chronicles 29:14 This must be kept before the people wherever we go— that we possess nothing, can offer nothing in value, in work, in faith, which we have not first received of God and upon which He can lay His hand any time and say, They are

Mine—gifts and blessings and endowments I entrusted to you, not to enrich yourself, but for wise improvement, to benefit the world. - {1888 814.3} By rebellion and apostasy man forfeited the favor of God; not his rights, for he could have no value except as it was invested in God's dear Son. This point must be understood. He forfeited those privileges which God in His mercy presented him as a free gift, a treasure in trust to be used to advance His cause and His glory, to benefit the beings He had made. The moment the workmanship of God refused obedience to the laws of God's kingdom, that moment he became disloyal to the government of God and he made himself entirely unworthy of all the blessings wherewith God had favored him. - {FW 21.1} This was the position of the human race after man divorced himself from God by transgression. Then he was no longer entitled to a breath of air, a ray of sunshine, or a particle of food. And the reason why man was not annihilated was because God so loved him that He made the gift of His dear Son that He should suffer the penalty of his transgression. Christ proposed to become man's surety and substitute, that man, through matchless grace, should have another trial—a second probation—having the experience of Adam and Eve as a warning not to transgress God's law as they did. And inasmuch as man enjoys the blessings of God in the gift of the sunshine and the gift of food, there must be on the part of man a bowing before God in thankful acknowledgment that all things come of God. Whatever is rendered back to Him is only His own who has given it. - {FW 21.2}

1Chron 29:14 - and of thine own have we given thee - not only in our giving of tithes and a generous offering does this apply, this applies to our entire being: our time, our life, our will, our service, our intellect, our bodies and our allegiance. See Ps 50:10-12

1Chron 29:17

1Chron 29: 17 - I know also, my God, that thou triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness - See Ps 139

1Chron 29:23

1Chron 29:23 - Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him - The throne in Israel was rightfully that of the LORD. God permitted men to sit on it and He would bless their righteousness and curse their wickedness. See 1Sam 8:5-7

1Chron 29:24

1 Chronicles 29:24 - And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, submitted themselves unto Solomon the king. - All but Joab submitted themselves to king Solomon. See 1Kin 2:28

2 Chronicles

2Chron 1:7Back to Table of Contents

2Chron 1:7 - In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee - God appeared to Solomon in a night vision. See Num 12:6; 1Sam 3:10, 20, 21

2Chron 1:10

2Chron 1:10 - Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great? - See Ps 27:11

2Chron 2:5

2Chron 2:5 - And the house which I build is great: for great is our God above all gods - See Ps 86:8, 10

2Chron 2:6

2Chron 2:6 - But who is able to build him an house, seeing the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before him? - See Isa 66:1; Act 7:49

2Chron 2:7

2Chron 2:7, 14 - man cunning to work in gold - unlike in the time of the erection of the tabernacle in the wilderness by Moses and the COI where God imbued his chosen craftsmen to make all the articles of the temple, Solomon contracts out the work to foreigners who would in time charge exorbitant prices for the work.

2Chron 5:13

2Chron 5:13 - It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of musick, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: - See Ps 136

2Chron 5:14

2Chron 5:14 - So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God - See Ex 40:34, 38

2Chron 6:14

2Chron 6:14 - which keepest covenant and shewest mercy - See Ex 20:5; Lev 26:45, 46; Deut 5:2, 3

2Chron 6:17

2Chron 6:17 - let thy word be verified - let thy words come true.

2Chron 6:18

2Chron 6:18 - But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth - See Ex 24:8; Isa 7:14, 66:1, 2

2Chron 6:20

2Chron 6:20 - upon the place whereof thou has said that thou wouldest put thy name there -
2Sam 7:17

2Chron 6:21

2Chron 6:21 - Hearken therefore unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall make toward this place - See Dan 6:10

2Chron 6:22

2Chron 6:22 - If a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house - See 1Kin 18:31, 32

2Chron 6:24

2Chron 6:25 - Israel be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned - See Lev 26:17

2Chron 6:26

2Chron 6:26 - When the heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee - See Lev 26:19, 20

2Chron 6:27

2Chron 6:27 - when thou has taught them the good way, wherein they should walk - God establishes the old paths wherein the people should walk, that bring the showers of blessings. See Jer 6:16

2Chron 6:27

2Chron 6:27 - and send rain upon thy land - The blessings for obedience is to receive the rains, early and latter rain. See Lev 26:3-5

2Chron 6:29

2Chron 6:29 - Then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands in this house: - the COI would in time grieve the Spirit of God such that He would no longer hear their petitions and would leave them to their enemies for punishment. See Jer 15:1-6

2Chron 6:30

2Chron 6:30 - for thou only knowest the hearts of the children of men - See Jer 17:9, 10

2Chron 6:32

2Chron 6:32 - Moreover concerning the stranger, which is not of thy people Israel... if they come and pray in this house... - See Isa 56:6, 7, 49:6

2Chron 6:36

2Chron 6:36 - for there is no man which sinneth not - The words spoken by the king and prophet Solomon were words spoken in ignorance of the mystery of God that was to be revealed in time. The light that Solomon had did not foresee a body of people who would have their sins washed away and would be able to stand before the Lord blameless, without sin. This evolving mystery has been revealed in our day (Col 1:26). See 1Kin 8:46; Rom 3:23

2Chron 6:37

2Chron 6:37 - Yet if they bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn and pray to thee in the land of their captivity... - See Dan 6:10, 9:1-19

2Chron 7:1

2Chron 7:1 - Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house - God has been "the God Who answers by fire" historically. However, in the last days, the LORD will permit the devil to masquerade His power in calling down fire from heaven in the sight of men to deceive them. Only those who know God and His word will be able to stand in those days. See Gen 4:4, 15:17; Judges 13:19, 20; 1Kin 18:24; 2Kin 1:10, 12, 14; Deut 4:24; 1Chron 21:26; CONTRAST Rev 13:13, 14

2Chron 7:3

2Chron 7:3 - And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever. - See Gen 4:4; Judges 13:19, 20

2Chron 7:13

2Chron 7:13 - If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people - See Lev 26:14-25

2Chron 7:14

2Chron 7:14 - shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven - Dan fulfilled each of the requirements in detail such that the LORD heard his prayer from heaven and was moved to heal the desolated land. See Dan 9:1-23

2Chron 7:14

2Chron 7:14 - seek my face - See Ps 27:8

2Chron 7:14

2Chron 7:14 - turn from their wicked ways - See Act 3:19

2Chron 7:14

2Chron 7:14 - will forgive their sin - See Ps 43:25

2Chron 7:14

2Chron 7:14 - heal their land - See Eze 14:12-14; Deut 24:4

2Chron 7:18

2Chron 12:13 - And his mother's name was Naamah and Ammonitess - See 1Kin 11:1; Deut 23:3

2Chron 13:11

2Chron 13:11 - And they burn unto the LORD every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense - See 2Chron 2:4

2Chron 15:15

2Chron 15:15 - And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about - See Jer 29:13

2Chron 15:16

2Chron 15:16 - and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron - See Isa 27:9

2Chron 18:1

2Chron 18:1 - Now Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance, and joined affinity with Ahab - Jehoshaphat acted presumptuously, recklessly and in pride after he increased in honor and abundance, coming into affection with the enemy of God. He lost sight of Who it was that prospered Him and the allegiances he should keep towards Him.

2Chron 18:2

2Chron 18:2 - And after certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramothgilead - Ahab buttered up Jehoshaphat with gifts and honor before asking him to go to battle with him.

2Chron 18:3

2Chron 18:3 - I am as thou art, and my people as thy people - Jehoshaphat acted presumptuously in making an oath with wicked King Ahab. Jehoshaphat was not to enter into any agreement with one who had little regard for the LORD. 2Chron 19:2; Prov 6:1; 11:15; Am 3:3; 2Cor 6:14, 15; 1Cor 6:15-17

2Chron 18:5

2Chron 18:5 - gathered together of prophets four hundred men - Ahab's 400 false prophets.

2Chron 18:5

2Chron 18:5 - prophets four hundred men - the prophets of the grove as the prophets of Baal were slain by Elijah the prophet at the base of Carmel. See 1Kin 18:40

2Chron 18:7

2Chron 18:7 - but I hate him - Ahab hates the prophet of the LORD that speaks righteousness - See Isa 30:8-10

2Chron 18:13

2Chron 18:13 - even what my God saith, that I will speak - in bold confidence, Micaiah declares that he will speak only the words of the LORD, similar to Peter's brash words that all though others forsake Jesus, he would never forsake Him. See Mt 26:35

2Chron 18:14

2Chron 18:14 - Go ye up, and prosper - either sarcasm or perhaps a lapse of courage in the midst of the kings of Israel and the 400 prophets on the part of the prophet of God who lies and declares success in war for the two kings. Such a lapse of courage in the face of imprisonment, torture and death was seen by Peter, Elijah (1Kin 19:1-3), and Jerome, the companion of Joh Huss. The death of Huss had not resulted as the papists had hoped. The violation of his safe-conduct had roused a storm of indignation, and as the safer course, the council determined, instead of burning Jerome, to force him, if possible, to retract. He was brought before the assembly, and offered the alternative to recant, or to die at the stake. Death at the beginning of his imprisonment would have been a mercy in comparison with the terrible sufferings which he had undergone; but now, weakened by illness, by the rigors of his prison house, and the torture of anxiety and suspense, separated from his friends, and disheartened by the death of Huss, Jerome's fortitude gave way, and he consented to submit to the council. He pledged himself to adhere to the Catholic faith, and accepted the action of the council in condemning the doctrines of Wycliffe and Huss, excepting, however, the "holy truths" which they had taught.—Ibid, vol. 2, p. 141. - {GC 111.1}

2Chron 18:16

2Chron 18:16 - I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains - Empowered by God's spirit, Micaiah gives a strait testimony of the fate of Ahab in battle.

2Chron 18:19

2Chron 18:19 - And the LORD said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramothgilead? And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner - it would appear as if God is taking counsel from the host of heaven, that shows an extended cast of evil angels who would become a lying spirit for Ahab to overthrow him. See 1Kin 22:20-23

2Chron 18:19

2Chron 18:19 - that he may go up and fall - thou the entire nation of Israel was under a probation (Investigative Judgment spanning 490yrs), Ahab's personal close of probation had arrived. God purposed that Ahab would die in battle.

2Chron 18:20

2Chron 18:20 - I will entice him - the spirit of Satan came before the LORD (See Job 1:6, 7, 2:1) and offered to entice Ahab through a lie. So that God would be judged as merciful and fair, He permits Satan to tempt each of us though He has given us power to be victorious over every temptation through Christ Jesus.

2Chron 18:21

2Chron 18:21 - I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets - See 1Jo

4:6; Eph 2:2

2Chron 18:22

2Chron 18:22 - the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets - As Paul states, God will send a strong delusion so that the workers of iniquity will believe a lie (2Thess 2:11, 12). It is not that God sends a lying spirit, but rather that God removes His hands of protection such that lying spirits may entice and seduce the wicked who did not develop a love for the truth.

2Chron 18:23

2Chron 18:23 - smote Micaiah upon the cheek - the people of God will suffer trial and persecution for their present truth testimony.

2Chron 18:32

2Chron 18:32 - they turned back again from pursuing him - God's intervention in mercy for Jehoshaphat was to spare his life when the Syrian army directed their attack at whom they thought to be Ahab. This further affirms that Ahab's probation was sealed by God such that he would receive God's judgment.

2Chron 19:2

2Chron 19:2 - And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the LORD - we are to be as David, hating those who hate the Lord and war against Him. See 2Chron 18:3

2Chron 19:6

2Chron 19:6 - And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for ye judge not for man, but for the LORD, who is with you in the judgment - See Lev 19:15

2Chron 20:1

2Chron 20:1 - It came to pass after this also, that the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them other beside the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle - Edom, Moab and Ammon, close descendants of the COI came to wage war and destroy Israel. The three-fold union once were acquainted with the True God of Creation, but became intoxicated with the wine of the world and pursued strange gods.

2Chron 20:3

2Chron 20:3 - And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah - The king called a fast throughout the land and he sought the Lord in mercy. See 2Kin 19:14-16

2Chron 20:7

2Chron 20:7 - Abraham thy friend for ever - See Prov 17:17; Isa 41:8; Jam 2:23

2Chron 20:9

2Chron 20:9 - If, when evil cometh upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help - See Lev 26:40-45

2Chron 20:10

2Chron 20:10 - And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir, whom thou wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, and destroyed them not; -

2Chron 20:10

2Chron 20:10 - mount Seir - The descendants of Esau, the Edomites. See Gen 36:8, 9

2Chron 20:12

2Chron 20:12 - O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but our eyes are upon thee - This is the position of helplessness, humility, and necessity that the Lord awaits for us to demonstrate that He may come to our aid. Help me Lord to learn to humble myself as such! Mic 7:7; Ps 20:7, 121:1, 33:16-18

2Chron 20:14

2Chron 20:14 - Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zech, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, came the Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation - the Spirit of the Lord comes upon the Levite Jahaziel whose name means, beheld by God. As one purified and set-apart by God (Mal 3:2-4)

2Chron 20:15

2Chron 20:15 - Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's - See 2Kin 6:15-17; 2Chron 32:20-23; 2Kin 19:35-37; 1Sam 17:47

2Chron 20:20

2Chron 20:20 - Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established - See Isa 50:10; Prov 16:3; Joh 6:29; 2Thess 3:3; Josh 1:7-9

2Chron 20:20

2Chron 20:20 - so shall ye be established - "This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established." 2Cor 13:1; Isa 32:17; Ps 121:3

2Chron 20:20

2Chron 20:20 - The counsels of the prophets of the Lord are for our benefit and admonition. We do ourselves well by heeding them (see v14-17). See Isa 7:9; 28:16; 44:26; Heb 3:18, 19; Hosea 12:13 To reject the Lord's servants is to reject Christ Himself. - {DA 489.1} "What reserve power has the Lord with which to reach those who have cast aside His warnings and reproofs, and have accredited the Testimonies of the Spirit of God to no higher source than human wisdom? In the judgment, what can you who have done this, offer to God as an excuse for turning from the evidences He has given you that God was in the work? 'By their fruits ye shall know them.' I would not now rehearse before you the evidences given in the past two years of the dealings of God by His chosen servants; but the present evidence of His working is revealed to you, and you are now under obligation to believe. You cannot neglect God's messages of warning, you cannot reject them or treat them lightly, but at the peril of infinite loss. - {LS 324.3}

2Chron 20:20

2Chron 20:20 - The counsels of the prophets of the Lord are for our benefit and admonition. We do ourselves well by heeding them (see v14-17). 2Chron 20:21

2Chron 20:21 - And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, and that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the LORD; for his mercy endureth for ever - God is the God of unconventional warfare. He confounds the wisdom and might of men (1Cor 1:27). God instructed the king to place the choir to sing praises to God before the army. See Joshua 6:2-5

2Chron 20:21 - Praise the LORD; for his mercy endureth for ever - See Ps 136

2Chron 20:22

2Chron 20:22, 23 - And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten. - See Judges 7:19-22

2Chron 20:32

2Chron 20:32 - And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the sight of the LORD - this is a good report for a king in Israel!

2Chron 20:35

2Chron 20:35 - And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very wickedly: - "what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? And what communion hath light with darkness? 2Cor 6:14

2Chron 20:36

2Chron 20:36 - Eziongeber - meaning "the giant's backbone (so called from the head of a mountain which runs out into the sea), an ancient city and harbor at the north-east end of the Elanitic branch of the Red Sea. See 1Kin 9:26; 2Chron 8:17

2Chron 22:1

2Chron 22:1 - Amaziah - Áchazyah Proper Name Masculine akh-az-yaw' from (0270) and (03050) or (prolonged) rAchazyahuw {akh-az-yaw'-hoo}; from and ; Jah has seized; Achazjah, the name of a Jewish and an Israelite king:--Ahaziah. Ahaziah = "Jehovah (Yahu) holds (possesses)" ruler of Judah, son of Jehoram (Joram), grandson of Ahab and Jezebel

2Chron 22:2

2Chron 22:2 - Athaliah the daughter of Omri - granddaughter of Omri, daughter of Ahab and Jezebel - See 1Kin 16:21-28 `Athalyah ath-al-yaw' from the same as (06270) and (03050) or mAthalyahuw {ath-al-yaw'-hoo}; from the same as and ; Jah has constrained; Athaljah, the name of an Israelitess and two Israelites:--Athaliah. Athaliah = "afflicted of the Lord" n pr m the daughter of Ahab and Jezebel and the wife of king Jehoram of Judah; killer of all the members of the royal family of Judah with the exception of one baby named Joash who was hidden by the high priest Jehoiada until 6 years had passed and Jehoiada led the revolution to put him on the throne, overthrowing Athaliah and putting her to death

2Chron 22:3

2Chron 22:3 - He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly - like Ahab, Amaziah sought the counsels of his wicked mother Athaliah - See Rev 2:20-23

2Chron 22:10

2Chron 22:10 - But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah - Athaliah killed off all of her grandsons so that none could succeed the throne but herself - See Judges 9:1-5

2Chron 22:11

2Chron 22:11 - But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bedchamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not - See Gal 4:1, 2

2Chron 24:22

2Chron 24:22 - Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it - Joash wickedly slew one who reproved him of his sins and further, he did not show kindness to the same one whose father showed kindness in sparing his life and establishing him as king. See 2Chron 22:11, 12, 23:1-21, 24:2

2Chron 25:2

2Chron 25:2 - And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart - Amaziah wavered and vacillated, being double-minded in his service to the Lord. See 2Chron 25:14

2Chron 25:4

2Chron 25:4 - But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin - See

Deut 24:16; Eze 18:1-24

2Chron 25:7

2Chron 25:7 - But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim - Amaziah acted presumptuously, not inquiring of the Lord whether he should hire the armies of the northern Kingdom, Israel, for battle. A man of God, a prophet, made know that he should not have engaged Ephraim because the Lord was not with Israel. See 1Kin 13:1; Hosea 4:17

2Chron 25:7

2Chron 25:7 - for the LORD is not with Israel - See Hosea 4:17

2Chron 25:9

2Chron 25:9 - The LORD is able to give thee much more than this - loss of funds or any other inconvenience is not to prohibit us from doing the Lord's biddings or commands. See Ps 50:10; 1Cor 6:5-7

2Chron 25:11

2Chron 25:11 - And Amaziah strengthened himself - See 1Sam 30:6

2Chron 25:20

2Chron 25:20 - But Amaziah would not hear; for it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom - See Lev 26:23-25

2Chron 26:16

2Chron 26:16 - But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction - the danger of power, fame, success, and loosing sight of where one's prosperity originates is spoken of all too often in the Bible. The lust of the flesh, lust of the eyes and pride of life (1Jo 2:16) takes hold when men forget their God Who has established them (2Chron 20:20) and granted them the blessings they ascribe to themselves. See 1Sam 15:17-24; 2Sam 11:1-12:10; Act 12:21-23

2Chron 26:17

2Chron 26:17 - And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD - See Num 18:3

2Chron 26:18

2Chron 26:18 - And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It appertaineth not unto the - In mercy, the LORD sent strong warning to Uzziah to turn from the wickedness which he purposed to do, to humble himself and recognize the folly to which he tended. Yet, pride would overrule and the king would suffer the consequence of his rebellion. See 1Sam 13:8-14

2Chron 26:19

2Chron 26:19 - Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD - the warning from the LORD went unheeded by Uzziah and in pride and selfishness, he resisted the counsels of the LORD. It is in his wrathful folly that the curse of God came upon him in that he would not humble himself when reproved of his wrong.

2Chron 26:19

2Chron 26:19 - the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar - swift justice was administered as the king became a leper on his forehead, foreshadowing the "mark of the beast" applied to the forehead of the wicked. While standing there, in wrathful rebellion, he was suddenly smitten with a divine judgment. Leprosy appeared on his forehead. In dismay he fled, never again to enter the temple courts. Unto the day of his death, some years later, Uzziah remained a leper—a living example of the folly of departing from a plain "Thus saith the Lord." Neither his exalted position nor his long life of service could be pleaded as an excuse for the presumptuous sin by which he marred the closing years of his reign, and brought upon himself the judgment of Heaven. - {PK 304.2} God is no respecter of persons. "The soul that doeth aught presumptuously, whether he be born in the land, or a stranger, the same reproacheth the Lord; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people." Num 15:30. - {PK 304.3}

2Chron 28:22

2Chron 28:22 - And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: - a dishonorable man was he who continued to defy God, even in his time of distress.

2Chron 29:16

2Chron 29:16-18 - the reformation of cleansing the temple of all the abominations accumulated under Ahaz by King Hezekiah was completed on the 16th day of the 1st month

2Chron 29:17

2Chron 29:17 - Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify - the priests began to sanctify the house of the LORD on the 1st day of the 1st month (Ezra leaves Babylon with decree in his hand)

2Chron 30:2

2Chron 30:2 - For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second month - See Num 9:1-12

2Chron 30:8

2Chron 30:8 - Now be ye not stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you - See Heb 4:1-6

2Chron 30:8

2Chron 30:8 - but yield yourselves unto the LORD - See Rom 2:4, 5; Act 3:19

2Chron 30:9

2Chron 30:9 - For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him. - See Mic 7:18-20

2Chron 30:9

2Chron 30:9 - your brethren and your children shall find compassion before them that lead them captive - forewarning is being given that the people are to be scattered (Lev 26; Jam 1:1); yet if they turn and repent God will cause them to find favor with their captors so that they may return to their lands after their chastisement. See Dan 1:9; Mic 7:19

2Chron 30:10

2Chron 30:10 - but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them - a call is made to come and worship the LORD, the God of heaven and earth and to keep His Passover as of old, reconfirming the Everlasting Covenant with God, yet the scoffers in Israel mock and laugh the messengers to scorn. So it was in the days of Noah and so shall it be in the last days. See Rom 2:4, 5; 2Cor 7:10-12

2Chron 30:11

2Chron 30:11 - Nevertheless divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem - the remnant of the Northern Kingdom who humbled themselves and returned to God would find favor with Him.

2Chron 30:18

2Chron 30:18 - For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written - those of the Northern Kingdom, who humbled themselves and sought the Lord, had not partaken of the ceremonial cleansing. Yet, they were permitted to eat of the Passover, according to the Law of Moses because of their sincerity in seeking the Lord. See Ex 12:1-10, 13:1-10

2Chron 33:11

2Chron 33:11 - fetters - The year of Manasseh's captivity was 677B.C. see Deut 28:36; Job 36:8; Ps 107:10; 2King 21:1-15

2Chron 33:13

2Chron 33:13 - And prayed unto him: and he was intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD he was God - God is merciful! See Jam 5:11

2Chron 34:23

2Chron 34:23 - Thus saith the LORD God of Israel - through inspiration of God, the prophetess Huldah spoke words of counsel and reproof to Israel and King Josiah. So too, the prophetic revelations for the end of time have been revealed and spoken through God's messenger for the last days, Ellen G. White. Through the illumination of the Holy Spirit, the scenes of the long-continued conflict between good and evil have been opened to the writer of these pages. From time to time I have been permitted to behold the working, in different ages, of the great controversy between Christ, the Prince of life, the Author of our salvation, and Satan, the prince of evil, the author of sin, the first transgressor of God's holy law. Satan's enmity against Christ has been manifested against His followers. The same hatred of the principles of God's law, the same policy of deception, by which error is made to appear as truth, by which human laws are substituted for the law of God, and men are led to worship the creature rather than the Creator, may be traced in all the history of the past. Satan's efforts to misrepresent the character of God, to cause men to cherish a false conception of the Creator, and thus to regard Him with fear and hate rather than with love; his endeavors to set aside the divine law, leading the people to think themselves free from its requirements; and his persecution of those who dare to resist his deceptions, have been steadfastly pursued in all ages. They may be traced in the history of patriarchs, prophets, and apostles, of martyrs and reformers. - {GC x.1}

2Chron 36:10 - And when the year was expired - Jehoiachin was exiled to Babylon on the 5th day of the 4th month. See Eze 1:2

2Chron 36:15

2Chron 36:1 - And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place: - See Nehemiah 9:29, 30; Jer 11:7, 29:19, 25:4, 5, 35:14, 15

2Chron 36:16

2Chron 36:16 - But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no remedy - See Mt 22:6; Isa 42:24; Nehemiah 9:26

2Chron 36:18

2Chron 36:18 - And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all these he brought to Babylon - See Dan 1:2, 5:2; Ezra 6:5

2Chron 36:18

2Chron 36:18 - the king - the last reigning king of Judah was Zedekiah. As part of Nebuchadnezzar's 3rd and final assault upon Jerusalem, he burned the temple and the city, slew the sons of Zedekiah, put out Zedekiah's eyes and took the remnant to Babylon that were not slain by the sword. Jer 39:1-14

2Chron 36:21

2Chron 36:21 - The 70years of punishment for the Nation of Israel was based on the statute of the land resting every seventh year, found in Lev 26:33, 34.

2Chron 36:21

2Chron 36:21 - To fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jer, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years - The 70years of punishment for the Nation of Israel was based on the statute of the land resting every seventh year, found in Lev 26:33, 34.

2Chron 36:22

2Chron 36:22 - the first year of Cyrus king of Persia - the first year of Cyrus ruling with out a co-regent (Darius the Meade had died and Cyrus reigned over all the territories of Babylon).

2Chron 36:22

2Chron 36:22 - that the word of the LORD spoken by the mouth of Jer might be accomplished - Jer prophesied that after 70yrs, God would rebuild and restore Jerusalem. See Jer 25:11, 12, 29:10; Ps 90:3; Dan 9:2; Ezr 1:1; Zech 1:12, 7:5

2Chron 36:23

2Chron 36:23 - and he hath charged me to build him an house in Jerusalem - See Isa 44:28

Ezra 1:1 - that the word of the LORD by mouth of Jer might be fulfilled - See Jer 25:11, 12, 29:10, 11

Ezr 1:2

Ezr 1 - Three Decrees to rebuild the temple in Jerusalem in troublous times (Dan 9: 25, Neh 4:17, 18) 1- Cyrus (536BC): Ezr 1:1-4, Dan 10:13, 20, Isa 44:26-45:3 - decree lays the foundation of the temple only Isa 44:28 *Work stopped under False Smerdis (Bardiya) *Worked stopped under Ahaseurus (Ezr 4:4-24) *Work resumed at the command of the Lord through the prophet Hag (Hag 1, 2; Ezra 5:1, 2). 2- Darius (519BC): Ezr 4:23, 24, 6:1-14; Zech 1:1 3- Artaxerxes (457BC): Ezr 7:11, 25, 26 - Reinstates self-rule for Israel Streets & Wall Rebuilt in Troublous Times (Dan 9:25) Streets: The Old Paths to walk in (Jer 6:16, 17) Wall: The Law of God (Isa 5:1-5, 25:4)

Ezr 1:2

Ezra 1:3 - The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah - See Isa 44:28

Ezr 1:3

Ezra 1:3 Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel, (he is the God,) which is in Jerusalem - See Isa 45:13

Ezr 2:2

Ezra 2:2 - Mordecai - this may be the Mordecai of the book of Esther, Esther's uncle. See Esther 2:11

Ezr 3:12

Ezra 3:12 - But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice - some of the ancient men weeped when the foundation was laid, as they scorned the new versus the old. They despised the day of small things. See Zech 4:9, 10

Ezr 4:11

Ezra 4:11 - Artaxerxes - called Artaxerxes in the text he is most commonly known as False Smerdis, who actually stopped the work of rebuilding Jerusalem. See Esther 3:8

Ezr 4:24

Ezra 4:24 - So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia - See Zech 1:1

Ezr 6:7

Ezra 6:6-12 - let the work... alone - The letter sent by Tatnai to Darius that was intended to halt the work of rebuilding the temple and wall in Jerusalem, helped to strengthen the effort. The inquiry made by Darius affirmed that Cyrus had given command to rebuild and provide resources to the COI to build the temple to the Lord. Darius then instructed Tatnai to take the king's tribute and give it to the COI for the rebuilding of the temple. What the devil meant for evil, God turned around for good.

Ezr 7:9

Ezra 7:9 - go up from Babylon - Ezra left Babylon on the 1st day of the 1st month (April 19, 457B.C.) with the third decree of Artaxerxes in his hand (v11), commanding to rebuild the temple in Jerusalem. The date April 19, 1844 marks the commencement of a Tarrying Time for the Advent Movement where they awaited arrival of a message from the Lord regarding their disappointment. The answer would arrive on the first day of the 5th month (August 15, 1844) at the Exeter Camp Meeting when the Midnight Cry message was first proclaimed.

Ezr 7:9

Ezra 7:9 - first day of the fifth month - 70 days after leaving Babylon, Ezra arrives in Jerusalem. The 70-days parallels the 70-wk prophecy.

Ezr 7:10

Ezra 7:10 - For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it - Ezra prepared his heart through prayer, acknowledging and confessing sins, repentance, and accepting God's forgiveness (Ps 32:1-6). He sought the Law of the Lord to do it and then to teach others. See Mal 2:7; Ps 27:8; 2Cor 4:13; Prov 22:20, 21; Dan 10:12; 3SG 57.1 The fruit of Ezra's efforts are seen in Neh 8:1-3, 5-8 where the people understood the law, they read the book of the law distinctly (carefully, separating truth from error), so that it made sense ("gave the sense").

Ezr 7:10

Ezr 7:10 - For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it - Ezra prepared his heart through prayer, acknowledging and confessing sins, repentance, and accepting God's forgiveness (Ps 32:1-6). He sought the Law of the Lord to do it and then to teach others. See Mal 2:7; Ps 27:8; 2Cor 4:13; Prov 22:20, 21; Dan 10:12, 1:8; 3SG 57.1; Eze 3:10 The fruit of Ezra's efforts are seen in Neh 8:1-3, 5-8 where the people understood the law, they read the book of the law distinctly (carefully, separating truth from error), so that it made sense ("gave the sense"). We may talk of the blessings of the Holy Spirit, but unless we prepare ourselves for its reception, of what avail are our works? Are we striving with all our power to attain to the stature of men and women in Christ? Are we seeking for His fullness, ever pressing toward the mark set before us—the perfection of His character? When the Lord's people reach this mark, they will be sealed in their foreheads. Filled with the Spirit, they will be complete in Christ, and the recording angel will declare, "It is finished." - {OHC 150.6} Many are deceived today in the same way as were the Jews. Religious teachers read the Bible in the light of their own understanding and traditions; and the people do not search the Scriptures for themselves, and judge for themselves as to what is truth; but they yield up their judgment, and commit their souls to their leaders. The preaching and teaching of His word is one of the means that God has ordained for diffusing light; but we must bring every man's teaching to the test of Scripture. Whoever will prayerfully study the Bible, desiring to know the truth, that he may obey it, will receive divine enlightenment. He will understand the Scriptures. "If any man willeth to do His will, he shall know of the teaching." Joh 7:17, R. V. - {DA 459.1} - DA 459.1

Ezr 7:10

Ezra 7:10 - and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments - See Nehemiah 8:8

Ezr 7:11

Ezr 7:11 - copy of the letter - the third decree issued by Artaxerxes would arrive in Jerusalem in the 5th month (August) but would not be put into effect until the 10th day of the 7th month, the Day of Atonement.

Ezr 7:11

Ezr 7:11 - even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of His statutes to Israel - Ezra was a "ready" and faithful scribe that upheld the commandments of God. He taught of the Kingdom of Grace and Glory. See Mt 13:52

Ezr 7:12

Ezr 7:12 - king of kings - like Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, Artaxerxes is given the moniker, king of kings (Dan 2:37), an allusion to the true King of kings, Jesus.

Ezr 7:13

Ezr 7:13 - priests and Levites - the distinction between priests and Levites is here noted even with the pagan king Artaxerxes. It is understood that priests, though taken from the house of Levi, are distinct in their administration and services performed in the house of the LORD.

Ezr 7:13

Ezr 7:12 - which are minded of their own free will - those who chose to return to Jerusalem of their own volition, not through force, are granted the benefits of the king's endorsement to rebuild the city.

Ezr 7:16

Ezr 7:16 - all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon - Just as the COI sacked the Egyptians of their wealth upon leaving Egypt (Ex 12:35, 36), Artaxerxes makes provision of all the silver and gold of Babylon to the COI in rebuilding Jerusalem.

Ezr 7:23

Ezr 7:23 - for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? - Apparently the edict, liberating the Jews, bore self-serving, self-preserving motives. Fear for the retributive judgment of God partly motivated Artaxerxes in granting the COI their autonomy.

Ezr 7:25

Ezra 7:25 - set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God - For about a century-and-a-half after Nehemiah's time, the Persian Empire exercised control over Jua, and the Jews were permitted to observe their religious ordinances without interferences. Jua was ruled by high priests who were responsible to the Persian government, a fact which insured the Jews a large measure of autonomy. At the same time, however, it made a political office of the priesthood and sowed the seeds of the future trouble. Contests for the office of high priest were marked by jealousy, intrigue, and even murder. {Nelson KJV Bible Commentary}

Ezr 8:17

Ezra 8:17 - to his brethren the Nethinims - Once more Ezra appealed to the Levites, sending them an urgent invitation to unite with his company. To emphasize the importance of quick action, he sent with his written plea several of his "chief men" and "men of understanding." Ezra 7:28; 8:16. - {PK 614.2} While the travelers tarried with Ezra, these trusted messengers hastened back with the plea, "Bring unto us ministers for the house of our God." Ezra 8:17. The appeal was heeded; some who had been halting, made final decision to return. In all, about forty priests and two hundred and twenty Nethinim—men upon whom Ezra could rely as wise ministers and good teachers and helpers—were brought to the camp. - {PK 614.3}

Ezr 8:20

Ezra 8:20 - Also of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levite - See 1Kin 9:21

Ezr 9:1

Ezr 9:1 - have not separated - the sin which caused the COI to turn away from God and fall into captivity, namely taking foreign wives and being drawn away to their foreign gods, was being repeated while the temple of the Lord was being re-established. In shame and humility, Ezr prostrates himself before the Lord, seeking mercy and asking pardon for the trespass. Ezr immediately acknowledges God's mercy and grace in preserving a remnant with which He would bring revival, however, a work of reformation would be needed before true revival could be accomplished. Ezr called all men to appear before him where he gave command to put away all strange wives. A revival and a reformation must take place, under the ministration of the Holy Spirit. Revival and reformation are two different things. Revival signifies a renewal of spiritual life, a quickening of the powers of mind and heart, a resurrection from spiritual death. Reformation signifies a reorganization, a change in ideas and theories, habits and practices. Reformation will not bring forth the good fruit of righteousness unless it is connected with the revival of the Spirit. Revival and reformation are to do their appointed work, and in doing this work they must blend.—The Review and Herald, February 25, 1902. - {1SM 128.1}

Ezr 9:2 - the hand of the princes and the rulers hath been chief in this trespass - "Very soon thereafter a few of the chief men of Israel approached Ezr with a serious complaint. Some of 'the people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites' had so far disregarded the holy commands of Jehovah as to intermarry with the surrounding peoples. 'They have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons,' Ezr was told, 'so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people' of heathen lands; 'yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.' Ezr 9:1, 2. "In his study of the causes leading to the Babylonish captivity, Ezr had learned that Israel's apostasy was largely traceable to their mingling with heathen nations. He had seen that if they had obeyed God's command to keep separate from the nations surrounding them, they would have been spared many sad and humiliating experiences. Now when he learned that notwithstanding the lessons of the past, men of prominence had dared transgress the laws given as a safeguard against apostasy, his heart was stirred within him. He thought of God's goodness in again giving His people a foothold in their native land, and he was overwhelmed with righteous indignation and with grief at their ingratitude. 'When I heard this thing,' he says, 'I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonished.'" Prophets and Kings, 619-620.

Ezr 9:4

Ezra 9:4 - Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away - those who sigh and cried for the abominations in the land. See Ezek 9:4; Mal 3:16

Ezr 9:8

Ezra 9:8 - and to give us a nail in his holy place - See Isa 22:23, 25

Ezr 9:8

Ezra 9:8 - that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage - See 1Sam 14:27-29

Ezr 9:12

Ezra 9:12 - Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever - See Deut 7:2-4; Gen 6:1, 2

Ezr 9:13

Ezra 9:13 - thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve - See Ps 103:10

Ezr 10:11

Ezra 10:11 - Now therefore make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives - See Nehemiah 9:2

Nehemiah

Neh 1:5

Back to Table of Contents

Nehemiah 1:5 - I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments - Both Dan and Nehemiah employ the same language in acknowledging God and confessing their sins before Him. See Dan 9:4

Neh 1:6

Nehemiah 1:6 - which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned - See Dan 9:4-12

Neh 1:7

Nehemiah 1:7 - We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses - See Dan 9:5-13

Neh 1:8

Nehemiah 1:8 - If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations - See Jer 25:9-11; Lev 26:33

Neh 1:9

Nehemiah 1:9 - But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there - the gathering of the COI after their scattering is a foreshadowing of the gathering God will do through Shiloh, His righteous servant, in gathering the lost sheep of the House of Israel. See Gen 49:10; Isa 42:1-7; Joh 10:16; Ezekiel 34:11-16; Lk 15:4-7; Ps 119:176;

Neh 1:10

Nehemiah 1:10 - Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand - See Rev 5:9, 10

Neh 1:11

Nehemiah 1:11 - For I was the king's cupbearer - As the king's cupbearer, Nehemiah placed his own life on the line for the king such that he had both earned his respect and trust. See Col 3:22

Neh 2:2

Neh 2:2 - Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid - Nehemiah defied proper court conduct in showing a sad countenance. After considering the situation of his people and praying/fasting over the matter, Nehemiah was prepared to appeal to the king for his grace. This however, came at great risk, for kings were known to be capricious, and may deal harshly with a servant that displeased them for any reason. See Gen 40:11-3, 9-11

Neh 2:5

Neh 2:6 - If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight - Nehemiah is appealing to the king's consideration and graces based on his flawless and upright service towards him. As the king's cupbearer, Nehemiah has placed his own life on the line for the king such that he has both earned his respect and trust. See Col 3:22

Neh 2:6

Neh 2:6 - For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? - the king's response showed the confidence, trust, and respect he had for his servant Nehemiah.

Neh 2:7

Neh 2:7 - Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah - Nehemiah knew his purposes would be challenged and he therefore requested official letters from the king, authorizing his work.

Neh 2:8

Neh 2:8 - And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me - the Lord moved upon the heart of Artaxerxes, based on Nehemiah's faithful and upright service, to grant him all that his heart desired for the rebuilding and restoration of Jerusalem and its walls. See Neh 2:18

Neh 2:9

Neh 2:9 - the river - the river Euphrates

Neh 2:9

Neh 2:10 - Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me - The king sent his armed soldiers to accompany Nehemiah, ensuring his safe passage but also to affirm the cause to the governors beyond the river (Euphrates) that Nehemiah had the king's consent.

Neh 2:10

Nehemiah 2:10 - When Sanbalat the Horonite and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly... - the enemies of God got word of Nehemiah's travels and his intentions to rebuild the wall from an inside source. Among the COI there were those whose allegiances were compromised through marriages (the mystery of iniquity) and through a desire for selfish gain. See Nehemiah 6:17-19; 2Kin 17:24, 25

Neh 2:10

Neh 2:10 - Sanballat - meaning "sin has given life"

Neh 2:10

Neh 2:10 - Tobiah - meaning "Yahweh is God"

Neh 2:11

Neh 2:11 - So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days - Nehemiah probably spent the time gathering information regarding potential laborers and their disposition and allegiance towards the LORD and the work at hand.

Neh 2:14

Neh 2:14 - but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass - perhaps indicative of the ruins and disarray that prevented Nehemiah's beast to traverse the area.

Neh 2:15

Neh 2:15 - Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned - Nehemiah performed his survey of the ruins by night to avoid the detection of those who had compromised allegiances from spreading word of his work or intentions until he was prepared to convey them.

Neh 2:17

Neh 2:17 - that we be no more a reproach - See Ezek 36:1-38

Neh 2:18

Neh 2:18 - Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me - Nehemiah encouraged the priests, nobles, rulers, and workers of the favor God had shown to him, where he even found favor with king Artaxerxes and was granted the resources necessary to carry-out the work. See Neh 2:5-9

Neh 2:18

Neh 2:18 - And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work - Nehemiah's exhortation and zeal for the LORD had the desired effect of encouraging the people to resume the rebuilding of the walls and streets of Jerusalem. See Haggai 1:13-15

Neh 2:19

Nehemiah 2:19 - But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king? - the threefold power of Edom, Ammon, and Moab are here represented in Geshem, Tobiah and Sanballat respectively. See Dan 11:41

Neh 2:19

Nehemiah 2:19 - Horonite - Choroniy Noun Masculine kho-ro-nee' from (02773) patrial from ; a Choronite or inhabitant of Choronaim:--Horonite. Horonite = "native of Horonaim" an inhabitant of Horonaim in Moab the designation of Sanballat, the opponent of Nehemiah

Neh 2:19

Neh 2:19 - they laughed us to scorn, and despised us - See Ps 1:1; 2Pet 3:3; Zech 4:10

Neh 2:19

Neh 2:19 - will ye rebel against the king? - Sanballat and Tobiah project lies against Nehemiah and his efforts to rebuild Jerusalem. This was used in the past when letters were written to Artaxerxes who stopped the work until a decree to restore and rebuild Jerusalem was issued by Darius. See Ezra 4:11-16

Neh 3:1

Neh 3:1 - Eliashib the high priest - Elliashib, though high priest, was allied with the enemy of the COI, Tobiah. He went so far as to set-up a dwelling place for Tobiah in the house of the Lord where provisions for the priest's service was to be stored (Neh 13:4-9). Eliashib's duplicity was carried forth unto his son, Joiada the priest, who married the daughter of Sanballat the Horonite who also was an enemy of the CO (Neh 13:28).

Neh 3:1

Neh 3:1 - and they builded the sheep gate - the gate through which all sheep passed into the Outer Court. The most important gate in that it was where Jesus was led out to be crucified outside the city. See John 14:6, 10:1-11 In ancient times, the city gate was where official business was carried out. For this reason, gates were often built with a number of adjoining rooms and buildings. See Ruth 4:1-9

Neh 3:3

Neh 3:3 - fish gate - Jesus told His disciples He would make them "fishers of men" (Mt 4:18-20). Jesus after His glorification, told His despondent disciples to cast the net on the right side and to bring to Him the fish that they caught. It was not until the LORD gave the command to cast the net on the right side that the disciples were able to catch fish. Further, Jesus already had fish cooking when they arrived at shore. This assures us that we can do nothing of ourselves and that it is only as the LORD commands, leads and draws others to us, can men then be drawn to Christ. See John 21:4-11 In ancient times, the city gate was where official business was carried out. For this reason, gates were often built with a number of adjoining rooms and buildings. See Ruth 4:1-9

Neh 3:5

CC 265.1,2 - Uninvolved, September 16 And next unto them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord. Neh 3:5. - {CC 265.1} Among the first to catch Neh's spirit of zeal and earnestness were the priests. Because of their influential position, these men could do much to advance or hinder the work; and their ready co-operation at the very outset, contributed not a little to its success. The majority of the princes and rulers of Israel came up nobly to their duty, and these faithful men have honorable mention in the book of God. There were a few, the Tekoite nobles, who "put not their necks to the work of their Lord," The memory of these slothful servants is branded with shame and has been handed down as a warning to all future generations. - {CC 265.2} In every religious movement there are some who, while they cannot deny that the cause is God's, still hold themselves aloof, refusing to make any effort to help. It were well for such ones to remember the record kept on high—that book in which there are no omissions, no mistakes, and out of which they will be judged. There every neglected opportunity to do service for God is recorded; and there, too, every deed of faith and love is held in everlasting remembrance. - {CC 265.3} Against the inspiring influence of Neh's presence the example of the Tekoite nobles had little weight. The people in general were animated by patriotism and zeal. Men of ability and influence organized the various classes of citizens into companies, each leader making himself responsible for the erection of a certain part of the wall. And of some it is written that they builded "everyone over against his house." - {CC 265.4} Nor did Neh's energy abate, now that the work was actually begun. With tireless vigilance he superintended the building, directing the workmen, noting the hindrance, and providing for emergencies.... In his many activities Neh did not forget the source of his strength. His heart was constantly uplifted to God, the great Overseer of all. "The God of heaven," he exclaimed, "He will prosper us;" and the words, echoed and re-echoed, thrilled the hearts of all the workers on the wall. [26] - {CC 265.5}

Nehemiah 3:5 - but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their LORD - the nobles of Tekoah and in other areas of those who had returned to Babylon had shown themselves to be contrary to reform and in seeking the LORD with their own hearts. Wanting to maintain/establish a certain order [of oppression] where they remained in control and having authority over the poorer subjects, the nobles showed a disdain for the work of rebuilding and strengthening the hands of those involved in the work of rebuilding Jerusalem and the LORD's house. See Nehemiah 5:1-13 CC 265.1,2 - Uninvolved, September 16 And next unto them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord. Nehemiah 5:14 that is twelve years - Nehemiah petitioned Artaxerxes in the 20th year of his reign that he should return and assist with the building of the wall and streets in Jerusalem. Neh 5:15

Neh 5:16 - But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God - Nehemiah set an example of uprightness so that the people would emulate his upstanding behavior. He did not accept that which was rightfully his to take, but lived off of his own subsistence to demonstrate the spirit of self-sacrifice and generosity.

Neh 5:19

Neh 5:19 - Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people - See Mal 3:16-18

Neh 6:1

Neh 6:1 - Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies - the enemies of God who among themselves are rivals, find common ground in confederacy against the people of God.

Neh 6:1

Neh 6:1 - there was no breach left therein - See Isa 58:12

Neh 6:3

Neh 6:3 - I am doing a great work - the work of the LORD, rebuilding His temple, is a great and honored work that requires our utmost attention and care. We are not to engage in trifles with those who only seek to cause confusion and delay the efforts commissioned of the LORD.

Neh 6:4

Neh 6:4 - Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner - the devil, in his persistence to delay the work of God employed God's enemies to persistently harass God's workers. We must equally and exceedingly stand our ground in resisting the devil's temptations in order to fulfill God's purposes (Neh 6:9).

Neh 6:10

Neh 6:10 - the house of Shemaiah - Neh faced threats externally and internally. Shemaiah, a Jew, had been employed by the enemies of God to cause fear in the heart of Neh (Neh 6:11-13).

Neh 6:13

Neh 6:13 - I should be afraid, and do so, and sin - it would be sinful for Neh to assume a fearful disposition, recognizing that it was God Who had strengthened his hands thus far to perform the work appointed to him.

Neh 6:15

Neh 6:15, 7:1 - The streets and the walls are rebuilt, even in troublous times (Dan 9:25)

Neh 6:15

Nehemiah 6:15 - wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul - the walls were completed on the 25th day of the 6th month (August/Sept).

Neh 6:15

Nehemiah 6:15 - in fifty and two days - the commencement of the building of the wall was on the fourth day of the 5th month (4th day of Av)

Neh 6:19

Nehemiah 6:19 - they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him - the people, because of the mixing of the holy with the unholy seed, had mixed allegiances and talked favorably about the enemies of God and God's people. See Nehemiah 6:1

Neh 7:1

Neh 7:1-9-73: - with the rebuilding of the streets and walls, a numbering follows

Neh 8:1

Neh 8:1-3: - The people are gathered together as one and the Laws are established

Neh 8:1

Nehemiah 8:1 - they spake unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses which the LORD had commanded to Israel - See Ezra 7:10, 8:

Neh 8:2

Neh 8:2-18 - The Law is re-established with the people before they enter into covenant with God. The people must understand the terms of the covenant before entering into covenant with The Lord.

Neh 8:2

Neh 8:2 - first day of the seventh month - coincident with the Feast of Trumpets, Neh the scribe stood upon the pulpit to "blow the trumpet", or deliver a message in Zion to warn and prepare the people for the Day of Atonement. See Lev 23:24

Neh 8:7

Nehemiah 8:7 - Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place - not only was there the reading of the law, but these men and Levites gave counsel and instruction in the law that the people might understand the words of the LORD. See Nehemiah 8:8

Neh 8:8

Nehemiah 8:8 - So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading - See Ezra 7:10

Neh 8:9

Nehemiah 8:9 - Tirshatha' Noun Masculine teer-shaw-thaw' of foreign derivation of foreign derivation; the title of a Persian deputy or governor:--Tirshatha. Tirshatha - governor a title used by the Persian governor in Judea Nehemiah used this title

Neh 8:9

Neh 8:9 - For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law - the people wept because they realized the depth of their spiritual poverty and the sins and troubles they and their forefathers had brought upon themselves.

Neh 8:10

Nehemiah 8:11 - and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared - all were to partake in the feast and celebration, including the poor. See

Neh 8:10

Neh 8:10 - for the joy of the LORD is your strength - joy is a spiritual gift from God that allows the believer to rejoice and find peace and contentment, even through difficulties. See Nehemiah 8:9; See Isa 51:11, 58:13

Neh 8:14

Nehemiah 8:14 - And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month - See Lev 23:42, 43

Neh 8:17

Neh 8:17 - And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very great gladness - as soon as Joshua had died, the COI had cast off that which they had been instructed to do, and a new generation arose which did not know the Lord and they forsook the Lord, serving Baal. They people did not want to be inconvenienced, dwelling in booths so they apparently rebelled from the command of the Lord. See Judges 1, 2

Neh 8:18

Nehemiah 8:18 - and they kept the feast seven days; and on the eight day was a solemn assembly - the feast of trumpets was kept from the first to the 9th day of the seventh month (the counting begins from the second days - see verses 2, 13). On the 8th day, the 10th day of the month, was the solemn assembly of the Day of Atonement.

Neh 8:18

Nehemiah 8:18 - according unto the manner - the feast of the Day of Atonement was established in the law of God. See Lev 16.

Neh 9:2

Nehemiah 9:2 - And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers - God commanded Israel to be separate from the nations and not to intermarry with them, lest their hearts be turned from the Lord and they corrupt their ways. See Num 23:9; Ezra 10:11, 12, 14

Neh 9:2

Nehemiah 9:2 - and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers - See Lev 26:40

Neh 9:5

Nehemiah 9:5 - and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise - higher than God's hallowed name and all blessing and praise, is God's Word, which will not return unto Him void - See Ps 138:2

Neh 9:6

Nehemiah 9:6 - Thou, even thou, art LORD alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee - Isa 42:5

Neh 9:7

Nehemiah 9:7 - Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees - See Gen 11:31-12:1

Neh 9:7

Nehemiah 9:7 - and gavest him the name of Abraham - See Gen 17:5

Neh 9:8

Nehemiah 9:8 - And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous - See Gen 15:1-21

Neh 9:11

Nehemiah 9:11 - And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters - See Ex 14:21-31

Neh 9:12

Nehemiah 9:12 - Moreover thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go - See Ex 13:17-22

Neh 9:13

Nehemiah 9:13 - Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments - See Ex 19:16-20:21

Neh 9:14

Nehemiah 9:14 - And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath - See Ex 20:8-11; Deut 5:12-15; Ex 16

Neh 9:15

Nehemiah 9:15 - And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger - See Ex 16:12-16

Neh 9:15

Nehemiah 9:15 - and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst - See Ex 17:1-7

Neh 9:17

Nehemiah 9:17 - MINDFUL, a. Attentive; regarding with care; bearing in mind; heedful; observant. The COI did not consider all that the Lord had done for them and how He delivered them on eagle's wings. Mindfulness of God's blessings is a characteristic of the redeemed. Those who murmur and complain against the Lord do so to their own destruction.

Neh 9:17

Neh 9:17 - and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage - See Ex 14:10-12; Num 14:1-9

Neh 9:17

Nehemiah 9:17 - but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not - See Ex 34:5-7

Neh 9:18

Nehemiah 9:18 - Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations - See Ex 32:1-10, 20:1-6, 22, 23

Neh 9:20

Nehemiah 9:20 - Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, - See Gen 6:5, 6; 1Pet 3:18, 19; Nehemiah 9:30; Ex 23:20-22 From the beginning, God has been working by His Holy Spirit through human instrumentalities for the accomplishment of His purpose in behalf of the fallen race. This was manifest in the lives of the patriarchs. To the church in the wilderness also, in the time of Moses, God gave His "good Spirit to instruct them." Nehemiah 9:20. And in the days of the apostles He wrought mightily for His church through the agency of the Holy Spirit. The same power that sustained the patriarchs, that gave Caleb and Joshua faith and courage, and that made the work of the apostolic church effective, has upheld God's faithful children in every succeeding age. It was through the power of the Holy Spirit that during the Dark Ages the Waldensian Christians helped to prepare the way for the Reformation. It was the same power that made successful the efforts of the noble men and women who pioneered the way for the establishment of modern missions and for the translation of the Bible into the languages and dialects of all nations and peoples. - {AA 53.1}

Neh 9:20

Nehemiah 9:20 - and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst - See Ex 16:35, 17:3-7; Isa 33:15-17

Neh 9:23

Nehemiah 9:23 - Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it - the LORD is Faithful and fulfilled the promises He made to their forefathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. See Gen 15:1-16

Neh 9:25

Nehemiah 9:25 - And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness - See Deut 8:1-10

Neh 9:25

Nehemiah 9:25 - fat land - See Dan 11:24

Neh 9:26

Nehemiah 9:26 - Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs- See Deut 8:1-18;

Neh 9:26

Nehemiah 9:26 - and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations - See 2Chron 36:16

Neh 9:28

Nehemiah 9:28 - But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies - See Judges 1, 2

Neh 9:29

Nehemiah 9:29 - And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear - See 2Chron 36:15, 16; Jer 11:7, 29:19, 25:4, 5, 35:14, 15; Isa 3:16

Neh 9:29

Nehemiah 9:29 - and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear - See Zech 7:11; Isa 3:16; Jer 6:16, 17, 17:23; Prov 21:29

Neh 9:30

Nehemiah 9:30 - testifiedst against them by thy spirit in thy prophets - The prophets were given by the Holy Spirit to instruct the people in righteousness, the LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. However, the people were stubborn and slow to understand. See Ex 23:20-22; 2Chron 36:15, 16; Nehemiah 9:20

Neh 9:31

Nehemiah 9:31 - Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God - See Lam 3:22, 23; Mal 3:6

Neh 9:32

Nehemiah 9:32 - Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy - See Nehemiah 1:5

Neh 9:36

Neh 9:36-38 - we are servants - the COI would be under foreign rule until their final scattering by the Rom in A.D.70 due to their rebellion. That which they were to do in freedom, namely, serving as Christ's Ambassadors to the world, they would have to do in straitness as servants, due to their rebellions. CONTRAST Numb 23:9; the Jew's boast in Joh 8:33 "We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man..."

Neh 9:38

Nehemiah 9:38 - And because of all this we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, Levites, and priests, seal unto it - The COI have not learned the lesson of their utter helplessness and inability to do anything outside of Jesus. They make a covenant to be true to God and to uphold His statutes, much like their forefathers who said "All that the Lord said, we will do" Ex 19:3-8. See Joel 2:13

Neh 10:1

Neh 10:1 - Now those that sealed were - The people enter into covenant with the Lord and are sealed - Neh 9:38-10:39

Neh 10:1

Neh 9:38-10:39 - The people enter into covenant with the Lord and are sealed.

Neh 10:28

Nehemiah 10:25 - every one having knowledge, and having understanding - the people were taught of Ezra, the priests and the scribes the tenets of the LORD. See Ezra 7:10

Neh 10:29

Nehemiah 10:29 - They clave to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes; - the people's oaths and promises were as ropes of sand as they had not surrendered themselves to the LORD, acknowledging their nothingness and their utter reliance upon His power and grace.

Neh 10:30

Nehemiah 10:30 - And that we would not give our daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons - See Gen 24:3; Ezra 9:1-3; Judges 3:1-7

Neh 10:31

Nehemiah 10:31 - and that we would leave the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt - See Lev 25

Neh 10:32

Nehemiah 10:32 - Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God - See Mt 17:24-27

Neh 11:2

Neh 11:2 - willingly offered themselves - apparently, living in the newly settled city of Jerusalem was not a thing to be desired among the common class. The nobles had already established themselves in the city and Neh sought to repopulate the large city (Neh 7:4) with others. Perhaps the concern was for security among the many enemies Israel had round about and also to be far from the nobles whose unjust and oppressive ways were in large part cause for Israel's rebellion and captivity.

Neh 13:1

Neh 13:1 - should not come into the congregation - See Deut 23:3, 4

Neh 13:3

Nehemiah 13:3 - Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude - See Ex 12:38; Num 11:4

Neh 13:14

Nehemiah 13:14 - Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof - Nehemiah and his works for the Lord are written in God's Book of Remembrance. See Mal 3:16; Ps 56:8

Neh 13:15

Neh 13:15 - treading down wine presses - There was great rebellion and apostasy that needed to be addressed among the captives who returned to Jerusalem in order for reform to take hold and to avoid returning to rebellion. Some of the reforms included: 1. Marriage reform - putting away strange wives [love your neighbor] 2. Sabbath reform - honoring the Sabbath as holy unto the Lord [love God]

Neh 13:16

Neh 13:16-21 - which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem - See Jer 17:21-27

Neh 13:21

Nehemiah 13:21 - Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath - Nehemiah sought that the Jews and all those foreigners which did commerce with the Jews honor and sanctify the sabbath, not to profane it. See Isa 58:13, 14

Neh 13:24

Nehemiah 13:24 - And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people - that which Satan failed in Daniel and his 3 friends, was done generations later among the COI in Babylon who took wives of the heathen nation. See Dan 1:3-5

Neh 13:26

Nehemiah 13:26 - nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin - See 1Kin 3:1, 11:2, 4

Esther

Est 1:1

Back to Table of Contents

Esther 1:1 - Ahasuerus - aka Xerxes the Great, son of Darius I The Book of Esther is an allegory for the Great Controversy between God and Satan. Ahasuerus, whose laws are inalterable, typifies the position of God the Father.

Est 1:2

Esther 1:2 - Shushan the palace - it is here in the palace in Elam (Persia) that Dan is taken in vision (Dan 8) where he beholds the rise of the Medo-Persian and subsequent empires. See Dan 8:2

Est 1:3

Esther 1:3 - third year of his reign - Xerxes the Great ruled from 486-465BC so the narrative takes place sometime around 483BC. "In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him." He called the governors and princes of the provinces to his capital to deliberate upon the invasion of Greece, and to levy the tribute and the forces that should be furnished by each province for the purpose... Then in his sixth year he led his army into Greece, suffered a terrible defeat at Salamis, and at Platea, and, like Sennacherib of old, returned with shame of face into his own land. {A.T. Jones, Signs of the Times, vol 12, pg 138.1-3}

Est 1:10

Esther 1:10 - On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine - Had the king maintained his royal dignity by practicing habits of temperance, he would never have made this command. But his mind was affected by the wine that he had used so freely, and he was not prepared to act wisely. - {3BC 1139.6} When this command came from the king, Vashti did not carry out his orders, because she knew that wine had been freely used, and that Ahasuerus was under the influence of the intoxicating liquor. For her husband's sake as well as her own, she decided not to leave her position at the head of the women of the court [Esther 1:12 quoted] (Manuscript 39, 1910). - {3BC 1139.7} Similarly, Herod was guilty of a great offense while intoxicated by condemning Joh the Baptist to death. See Mk 6:21, 25

Est 1:11

Esther 1:11 - to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal - Xerxes desired that Vashti appear with her royal garbs, suggesting there was no expressly lewd motives in Xerxes request. However: When the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded ... to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was fair to look on. Esther 1:10, 11. - {CC 243.1} When this command came from the king, Vashti did not carry out his orders, because she knew that wine had been freely used, and that Ahasuerus was under the influence of the intoxicating liquor. For her husband's sake as well as her own, she decided not to leave her position at the head of the women of the court. [37] - {CC 243.2} It was when the king was not himself, when his reason was dethroned by wine-drinking that he sent for the queen, that those present at his feast, men besotted by wine, might gaze on her beauty. She acted in harmony with a pure conscience. - {CC 243.3} Vashti refused to obey the king's command, thinking that when he came to himself, he would commend her course of action. But the king had unwise advisers. They argued it would be a power given to woman that would be to her injury. [38] - {CC 243.4}

Esther 1:12 - But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains - The circumstances bear some resemblance to the parable spoken by Jesus of those who refused the invitation to attend the wedding feast for the King's son. See Mt 22:1-8

Est 2:5

Esther 2:5 - the son of Kish - Mordecai was a descendant of King Saul, the Benjamite, son of Kish. See 1Sam 9:1, 2

Est 2:6

Esther 2:6 - Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah - Jeconiah, also known as Jehoiachin was taken captive as part of the second wave of captivity by Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. See 2Chron 36:9-11; 2Kin 24:7-17

Est 2:7

Esther 2:7 - Hadas'sah - meaning myrtle, Hebrew equivalent of Esther

Est 2:9

Esther 2:9 - And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him - God granted favor to Esther among the king's chamberlains who kept the women, similar to the favor shown to Dan the and three Hebrew boys. See Prov 16:7

Est 2:15

Esther 2:15 - Abihail - meaning "father of might"

Est 3:1

Esther 3:1 - the Agagite - Haman was a descendant of the Amelakite king, Agag, a sworn enemy of the Jews and particularly Saul, who was instructed to kill Agag and all the Amelokites. See Esther 3:10; 1Sam 15:1-8

Est 3:5

Esther 3:5 - then was Haman full of wrath - vainglory and pride motivated Haman to seek to kill not only Mordecai, but all the Jews. So too, the devil will not be able to persuade the 144,000 to pay him homage and in vainglory and pride will seek to destroy them through the agency of the papacy in league with 10 kings.

Est 3:6

Esther 3:6 - sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus - Haman sought to commit genocide against the entire race of Jews.

Est 3:7

Esther 3:7 - they cast Pur, that is, the lot - Haman, his 10 sons and his accomplices devised a detailed plan for killing the Jews, the people of God. See Esther 9:10, 12-14

Est 3:7

Est 3:7 - the lot - Haman and his cronies are casting lot (seeking to determine) the appropriate day to propose killing Mordecai and the COI. In obscurity, the decree was devised and cunningly presented as a measure that would be in the king's best interest (for the public good). See Isa 10:1; Dan 6:4-8

Est 3:7

Esther 3:7 - from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month - starting at the 1st day of the 1st month, Haman and his associates casted lots to determine the optimal time throughout the entire year to execute a death decree against the Jews.

Est 3:8

Esther 3:8 - therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them - Utilizing deception, Haman persuades the king to issue a decree to kill a peaceful people who looked out for the king's best interest. See Esther 2:21-23; Ezra 4:8-24; Dan 3:8-12; Rev 13:14; Ps 21:11 It will be urged that the few who stand in opposition to an institution of the church and a law of the state ought not to be tolerated; that it is better for them to suffer than for whole nations to be thrown into confusion and lawlessness. The same argument eighteen hundred years ago was brought against Christ by the "rulers of the people." "It is expedient for us," said the wily Caiaphas, "that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not." Joh 11:50. {DD 40.1}

Est 3:10

Est 3:10 - Agagite - Haman was an Agagite, a descendant of King Agag of the Amalekites, the sworn enemy of the COI who was to be killed by Saul (1Sam 15; Ex 17:13-16).

Est 3:12

Est 3:12 - Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring - See Ps 7:14; Dan 6:17

Est 3:13

Esther 3:13 - And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey - The fate pronounced against the Jews will ultimately be issued against the people of God when the Sunday Law is enforced. ...a decree will finally be issued against those who hallow the Sabbath of the fourth commandment, denouncing them as deserving of the severest punishment and giving the people liberty, after a certain time, to put them to death. {DD 40.1}

Esther 6:4 - speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him - Just as Baalam sought to curse a people whom God had blessed, so Haman sought to kill a man who had found great favor before God and the king. See Num 23:5-8

Est 6:7

Esther 6:7 - And Haman answered the king, For the man whom the king delighteth to honour - God has a way of showing justice in a sometimes humorous way. See Gen 31:9, 11, 12

Est 7:9

Esther 7:9 - behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king... Hang him thereon - See Ps 7:16, 9:15, 16

Est 7:10

Est 7:10 - So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai - See Ps 7:15

Est 8:5

Esther 8:5 - the Agagite - Haman was a descendent of Agag the Amalekite king who was the enemy of the Jews in the time of Saul. See 1Sam 15:2-33

Est 8:8

Esther 8:8 - for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse - See Esther 3:13; Dan 6:12

Est 8:17

Esther 8:17 - And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them - As in the last days, when the people of God are lifted up as an ensign and while the unrighteous decree has gone forth, a great multitude will fear the God of heaven (Rev 14:6, 7) and will be gathered in as His glory is revealed through His people.

Est 9:13

Esther 9:12 - let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows - The ten sons of Haman, in conjunction with their father, typify the 10+1 union of kings that will give their power to the beast power mentioned in Rev 17:13

Est 9:27

Esther 9:27 - The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year; - The Jews established an ordinance, similar to the written statute the LORD commanded Moses to write certifying the eternal enmity from generation to generation He had against the Amelikitites, the enemies of God (Ex 17:14-16). Purim would commemorate God's deliverance of His people over the unrighteous decree of Haman, in accordance with the statute established by Moses. These both foreshadow the deliverance of God's people in the end times when the wicked in confederacy will seek to destroy the 144,000 but God will reign His plagues upon them and ultimately destroy them with Jesus' Second Coming.

Job 1:1

Job 1:1 - name was Job - the name Job means hated, persecuted, to be hostile, an enemy. Though despised by the world, He is beloved of God. Job is a type of Christ and the 144,000. See Isa 59:15; Job 12:4; Lk 21:17

Job 1:1

Job 1:1 - man was perfect and upright - according to the Everlasting Covenant, those who live godly lives will suffer persecution from the seed of Satan. In his perfection and uprightness, Job would be hated of men. See Isa 51:7, 2Tim 3:12 Job was called perfect, upright, because he exercised faith in God and his promises. We see this in the fact that he offered sacrifices to God for himself and his children - where did he learn that practice of offering sacrifices and what did it represent? Backups Containers Documents Downloads Library Media MobileSoftwareUpdate ipadtartar settings.fzs venv vlan.sh God who demonstrated it to Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden - "The sacrificial offerings were ordained by God to be to man a perpetual reminder and a penitential acknowledgment of his sin and a confession of his faith in the promised Redeemer. They were intended to impress upon the fallen race the solemn truth that it was sin that caused death. To Adam, the offering of the first sacrifice was a most painful ceremony. His hand must be raised to take life, which only God could give. It was the first time he had ever witnessed death, and he knew that had he been obedient to God, there would have been no death of man or beast. As he slew the innocent victim, he trembled at the thought that his sin must shed the blood of the spotless Lamb of God. This scene gave him a deeper and more vivid sense of the greatness of his transgression, which nothing but the death of God's dear Son could expiate.

And he marveled at the infinite goodness that would give such a ransom to save the guilty. A star of hope illumined the dark and terrible future and relieved it of its utter desolation.” - {PP 68.1} Backups Containers Documents Downloads Library Media MobileSoftwareUpdate ipadtar.tar settings.fzs venv vlan.sh God promised a Savior and Deliverer in Jesus and Job placed his confidence and faith in God’s merits and forgiveness before the foundation of the world Backups Containers Documents Downloads Library Media MobileSoftwareUpdate ipadtar.tar settings.fzs venv vlan.sh This is righteousness by faith - God declares us perfect and upright all by believing in His words and His promises

Job 1:2 - born unto him seven sons and three daughters - The godly numbers of 7 and 10 are here represented in this upright man who feared God and eschewed evil. The seven sons represent the 144,000 and the three sons the 11th hour workers.

Job 1:5

Job 1:5 - And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts - the offering of sacrifices for sin, a token of the Everlasting Covenant spoken to Adam and Eve in the Garden (Gen 3:15, 21), is seen continually among those who call upon the name of the Lord (Gen 4:26), the sons of God. (Gen 6:2)

Job 1:5

Job 1:5 - continually - {yowm, - Heb} - day and evening as defined by Gen 1. Compare 2Chron 2:4

Job 1:6

Job 1:6 - Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD - The verse makes plain that the sons of God in this context do not dwell in heaven, but are rather summoned on occasion to appear before the Lord in council. See Job 2:1, 2; 2Chron 18:18-22 God assembled the angelic host to take measures to avert the threatened evil. It was decided in heaven’s council for angels to visit Eden and warn Adam that he was in danger from the foe. Two angels sped on their way to visit our first parents. The holy pair received them with joyful innocence, expressing their grateful thanks to their Creator for thus surrounding them with such a profusion of His bounty. Everything lovely and attractive was theirs to enjoy, and everything seemed wisely adapted to their wants; and that which they prized above all other blessings, was the society of the Son of God and the heavenly angels, for they had much to relate to them at every visit, of their new discoveries of the beauties of nature in their lovely Eden home, and they had many questions to ask relative to many things which they could but indistinctly comprehend. - {SR 29.2}

Job 1:6

Job 1:6 - sons of God - the sons of God here mentioned must not be among the descendants of Adam as the convocation does not occur on the earth and the only "righteous" found among the sons of Adam was Job. This convocation must be among the heads of the worlds as this would be the only justifiable reason why Satan would be permitted to attend a convocation of God. See Heb 1:2

Job 1:6

Job 1:6 - and Satan came also among them - An adversary (Satan), came also among God and the sons of God. Christ assured the angels that by His death He would ransom many, and would destroy him who had the power of death. He would recover the kingdom which man had lost by transgression, and the redeemed were to inherit it with Him, and dwell therein forever... - {PP 65.2} Not only man but the earth had by sin come under the power of the wicked one, and was to be restored by the plan of redemption. At his creation Adam was placed in dominion over the earth. But by yielding to temptation, he was brought under the power of Satan. "Of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage." 2 Peter 2:19. When man became Satan's captive, the dominion which he held, passed to his conqueror. Thus Satan became "the god of this world." 2 Corinthians 4:4. He had usurped that dominion over the earth which had been originally given to Adam. {PP 67.1}

Job 1:7

Job 1:7 - whence comest thou - God's question and Satan's response confirm that the convocation occurred in the heavens and not on the earth. Most likely upon another planet but not the third heaven from which Satan was expelled.

Job 1:7

Job 1:7 - Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it - by implication, one may deduce that the other sons of God came from other planets where they rule. Satan claims to rule over the earth but in actuality the earth belongs to the LORD. See Rev 12:12; Ps 24:1, 2; 1Pet 5:8

Job 1:8

Job 1:6 - Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil - an extraordinary compliment payed by God to one of His servants. God is telling the devil "Job is the true representative of the earth [by faith of Jesus Christ, before the foundation of the world], not you Satan". See Job 2:3

Job 1:8

Job 1:8 - perfect - God commands us to be perfect even as He is perfect (Mt 5:48). The perfection here spoken deals with the mind and meekness of Christ, to love the unloveable, do good to those who spitefully use and persecute you, to love our enemies. See Mt 5:44-48; Psa 25:9; Jam 5:6; Zeph 2:1-3 Job finds companions of like mind in Dan, Noah and Moses: See Eze 14:13, 14, 20; Num 12:3

Job 1:8

Job 1:8 - feareth God - Job was obviously a wise, reverent and prosperous man whose prayers were not hindered. See Ps 111:10; Prov 9:10, 3:5, 6; Rev 14:7; 1Pet 3:11

Job 1:9

Job 1:9 - Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought? - The devil accuses God of being an extortioner, One Who buys Job's allegiance through bribes.

Job 1:10

Job 1:10 - Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? - God's angels that excel in strength are stationed about the righteous to protect them. See Ps 34:7, 91:10-12; Mt 18:10

Job 1:10

Job 1:10 - thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. - See Ps 1:3; Jer 17:7, 8

Job 1:11

Job 1:11 - Satan believes that men only serve God based on the good He does for them. Through his many misconceptions of God that he has propagated, he has caused men to fear God and look upon Him with suspicion. Satan is amazed that through God's Plan of Redemption, God can change an individual's heart such that they love God, just because He is God. Satan does not understand the power of God's love upon a regenerated heart, unlike his own.

Job 1:12

Job 1:12 - Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand - See Job 2:5-7; Rev 6:4; Satan works through the elements also to garner his harvest of unprepared souls. He has studied the secrets of the laboratories of nature, and he uses all his power to control the elements as far as God allows. When he was suffered to afflict Job, how quickly flocks and herds, servants, houses, children, were swept away, one trouble succeeding another as in a moment. It is God that shields His creatures and hedges them in from the power of the destroyer. But the Christian world have shown contempt for the law of Jehovah; and the Lord will do just what He has declared that He would—He will withdraw His blessings from the earth and remove His protecting care from those who are rebelling against His law and teaching and forcing others to do the same. Satan has control of all whom God does not especially guard. He will favor and prosper some in order to further his own designs, and he will bring trouble upon others and lead men to believe that it is God who is afflicting them. - {GC 589.2}

Job 1:12

Job 1:12 - So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD - those who follow after Satan, having no fear of God (Jer 32:40), depart from the presence of the LORD, whereas the righteous call upon Him and seek His face. See Job 2:7; Gen 4:16 Contrast Ps 27:7, 8, 139:1-12; Gen 4:26

Job 1:13

Job 1:13 - And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house: - Interesting that Job was not an attendee at the festive party.

Job 1:16

Job 1:16 - The fire of God is fallen from heaven - the devil has done a masterful Job of ascribing all pain, suffering and loss to God, when he in fact is the culprit. The fire did not come from God but was "strange fire" from Satan. See Job 1:12; Rev 13:13, 14

Job 1:17

Job 1:17 - The Chaldeans made out three bands - the Babylonians made up three bands foreshadowing the 3-fold union of Modern Babylon made up of Dragon, Beast and False

Prophet. Hab 1:6; See Rev 16:13, 14

Job 1:19

Job 1:19 - behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead - a first demonstration of the devil's power over the elements of the earth as prince of this world and of the power of the air (Joh 14:30). The devil caused a tornado to destroy the children of Job. We see other acts of the devil in nature in the following: 1. Famine that hit Egypt to destroy life, particularly the forefathers of the promised Seed, Jesus - Gen 41:25-32, 50:20 2. Destruction by nature in the last days - Mt 24:7 3. Fire from heaven in the sight of men - Rev 13:13, 14 Satan works through the elements also to garner his harvest of unprepared souls. He has studied the secrets of the laboratories of nature, and he uses all his power to control the elements as far as God allows. When he was suffered to afflict Job, how quickly flocks and herds, servants, houses, children, were swept away, one trouble succeeding another as in a moment. It is God that shields His creatures and hedges them in from the power of the destroyer. But the Christian world have shown contempt for the law of Jehovah, and the Lord will do just what He has declared that He would—He will withdraw His blessings from the earth and remove His protecting care from those who are rebelling against His law and teaching and forcing others to do the same. Satan has control of all whom God does not especially guard. He will favor and prosper some, in order to further his own designs; and he will bring trouble upon others and lead men to believe that it is God who is afflicting them. - {CH 460.2}

Job 1:20

Job 1:17 - and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped - Job, in the hour of grief and pain sought to lean upon his God. O, for such a faith dear Lord I pray! See Hymn #533 O For a Faith

Job 1:21

Job 1:21 - And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD - See Habakkuk 3:17-19; 1Tim 6:7

Job 1:22

Job 1:22 - In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly - Job neither cursed God nor charged Him foolishly with the wickedness that befell him.

Job 2:1

Job 2:1 - Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD - the verse suggests once again, that these sons of God in context do not dwell in heaven but on their respective planets. They return to heaven, having left heaven for their homes and are summoned again to a heavenly council. See Job 1:6, 7 God assembled the angelic host to take measures to avert the threatened evil. It was decided in heaven's council for angels to visit Eden and warn Adam that he was in danger from the foe. Two angels sped on their way to visit our first parents. The holy pair received them with joyful innocence, expressing their grateful thanks to their Creator for thus surrounding them with such a profusion of His bounty. Everything lovely and attractive was theirs to enjoy, and everything seemed wisely adapted to their wants; and that which they prized above all other blessings, was the society of the Son of God and the heavenly angels, for they had much to relate to them at every visit, of their new discoveries of the beauties of nature in their lovely Eden home, and they had many questions to ask relative to many things which they could but indistinctly comprehend. - {SR 29.2}

Job 2:6

Job 2:6 - Behold, he is in thine hand; but save his life - Job typifies the 144,000 after probation has closed. God will permit His people to be placed in the crucible to be tried of the enemy, but He will not permit the devil to take their lives. God would not be glorified in the death of His people at this point in earth's history. They will demonstrate the meekness and character of Christ. See Jam 5:6

Job 2:7

Job 2:7 - So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD - those who follow after Satan, having no fear of God (Jer 32:40), depart from the presence of the LORD, whereas the righteous call upon Him and seek His face. See Job 1:12; Gen 4:16 Contrast Ps 27:7, 8, 139:1-12; Gen 4:26

Job 2:10

Job 2:10 - But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips - Though God is not He that renders evil (unjustly), Job ascribed the act to God and yet did not sin in accusing Him. See Ps 25:21

Job 2:11

Job 2:11 - for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him - See Gal 6:2

Job 2:12

Job 2:12 - And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven - Job had become disfigured by the mental grief, agony and the physical sores that were placed upon him, such that his very friends could not recognize him and lamented over him.

Job 2:13

Job 2:13 - his grief was very great - Job suffered the loss of all his worldly possessions and wealth, his children and now his health. Job knew that he had not sinned against God and if he had, he was dutiful to confess and repent of his sins. The cause of Job's misfortune for which he nor others could not determine, was a heavy burden for Job to bear. Man's natural inclination is to ask "who did sin" (Joh 9:2, Job 4:7, 8)? God desires however, to reveal that suffering can be inexplicable for men, but that if faithful, He can still be glorified in the midst of man's trials.

Job 3:3

Job 3:3 - Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived - Job wished he had never been born. This outburst of anguish, though understandable, was based on self-pity and grief.

Job 3:11

Job 3:11 - Why did I not from the womb? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly? - Job, like we all were created for God's glory and His honor. Job wonders why God permitted him to see the light of day. The answer is without question, because of His mercy and grace.

Job 3:13

Job 3:13 - For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest - Job wishes he had died and never lived. Job speaks of the company he would have kept if premature death had met him: v13-19

Job 3:21

Job 3:21 - Which long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than for hid treasures - See Rev 9:6

Job 3:25

Job 3:25 - For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me - See Job 1:5

Job 4:3

Job 4:3, 4- Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands. (4) Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees - Job has been a repairer of the breach, a righteous son, leading others to righteousness. See Isa 35:3, 58:11-4

Job 4:7

Job 4:7 - Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off? - Eliphaz is accusing the innocent, suggesting that Job had some hidden sin that brought upon his misery - cause and effect. Eliphaz was ignorant that evil befalls the good and the wicked. See Joh 9:2

Job 4:8

Job 4:8 - Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same - See Hos 8:7

Job 4:12

Job 4:12 - a thing was secretly brought to me - the secret counsel which Eliphaz received in a night vision, though true in thought, was not applied with compassion to encourage Job in his grief. Merely telling Job what he already knew, that man can not compare to God's righteousness, Eliphaz implied that Job's righteousness was faulty and that a breach in integrity must have occurred to have brought upon him his distress.

Job 4:13

Job 4:13-17 - In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men 14 Fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones to shake. 15 Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up: 16 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image was before mine eyes, there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying, 17 Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his maker? - Eliphaz is apparently visited by an evil spirit at night, giving him perverse counsel regarding Job and his situation. See 1Sam 28:7

Job 4:17

Job 4:17 - Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his maker? - the words from the spirit suggest that Job is seeking to be more righteous than His Maker, God- an accusation against Job in him maintaining his integrity.

Job 4:18

Job 4:21

Job 4:21 - they die, even without wisdom - See Ps 146:4

Job 5:2

Job 5:2 - envy slayeth the silly one - it is foolish folly to envy or covet that which belongs to another. We should be content with what we have. See

Job 7:9

Job 7:9 - As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more. - See Job 21:32; 14:7-13, 20, 21, 17:13, 19:25-27

Job 7:17

Job 7:17 - What is man, that thou shouldest magnify him? and that thou shouldest set thine heart upon him? - See Ps 8:4, 5

Job 7:21

Job 7:21 - for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be - See Dan 12:2

Job 8:3

Job 8:3 - Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice? - See Deut 10:17, 18; Lev 19:15; Job 34:12

Job 8:6

Job 8:6 - If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous - the base accusation of Bildad, Job's so-called comforter friend, only vexed the suffering man.

Job 11:7

Job 11:7 - Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection? - no amount of study or searching will merit in knowing God. God must reveal Himself to the one searching in order for us to know Him. See Isa 55:8, 9, 46:9, 10

Job 12:3

Job 12:3 - But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you: - See Job 13:2

Job 14:5 - thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass - See Eccl 8:8

Job 14:7

Job 14:7 - For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease - such was the case with the tree which represented Nebuchadnezzar, though cut down, God would preserve the stump and allow it to flourish once again. See Dan 4:14, 15

Job 14:9

Job 14:9 - Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant - See Isa 27:6, 55:10; Job 38:26, 27

Job 14:10

Job 14:10 - But man dieth, and wasteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he? - the breath of God that gives life returns to God. See Gen 2:7; Ecc 12:7; Jam 2:26; Eccl 9:10

Job 14:15 - Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee - Isa 65:24

Job 14:16

Job 14:16 - For now thou numberest my steps - See Job 14:5; Act 17:26-28

Job 14:17

Job 14:17 - My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity - See Isa 43:25; Mic 7:19; Ps 103:12

Job 14:20

Job 14:20 - thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away - the living becomes a corpse.

Job 14:21

Job 14:21 - His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them - the dead know nothing. See Ecc 9:5, 6, 3:22

Job 16:10

Job 16:10, 11 - They have gaped upon me with their mouth - See Ps 22:13; Mt 27:36, 39-43

Job 16:10

Job 16:10 - smitten me upon the cheek - see Mt 26:67, 68

Job 17:4

Job 17:4 - For thou hast hid their heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt them - See Dan 12:10; Isa 6:10

Job 17:9

Job 17:9 - he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger - Psa 24:4; Isa 33:15

Job 19:3

Job 19:3 - These ten times have ye reproached me: ye are not ashamed that ye make yourselves strange to me - Job vindicated God, maintaining his integrity and not sinning against God though proved and tested 10x by his "friends". Compare Num 14:22

Job 19:25

Job 19:25 - For I know that my redeemer liveth - See Act 2:23-27

Job 19:25

Job 19:25 - and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth - See Joh 11:23-27

Job 19:26

Job 19:26 - And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: - See Joh 16:22; Ps 71:20, 16:9; Prov 14:32

Job 21:18

Job 21:18 - They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away - See Ps 1:4; Isa 17:13

Job 21:30

Job 21:30-32 - That the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath. - See 2Pet 2:9, 3:7; Joh 5:28, 29 31 Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall repay him what he hath done? Yet shall he be brought to the grave, and shall remain in the tomb. - God will repay the wicked to their face. See Deut 7:9, 10; Isa 59:17, 18

Job 21:31

Job 21:31 - Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall repay him what he hath done? - God will repay the wicked to their face - See Deut 7:9, 10; Isa 59:17, 18

Job 21:32

Job 21:32 - Yet shall he be brought to the grave, and shall remain in the tomb - See Job 7:9, 10

Job 22:3

Job 22:3 - Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect? - Eliphaz again is ignorant of the Great Controversy and that indeed, it is profitable for us to live righteous, upright and perfect lives before the Lord in that we glorify Him and His Law. See Isa 42:21

Job 22:16

Job 22:16 - Which were cut down out of time, whose foundation was overflown with a flood - Isa 28:15-18

Job 22:18

Job 22:18 - Yet he filled their houses with good things - See Ps 103:2-5

Job 23:3

Job 23:3 - Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat! - See Heb 4:16

Job 23:5

Job 23:5 - I would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me - Job is wishing he had an audience with God and then he would understand all the cause for his calamities. Yet, when given exactly his wish, an audience with God, Job abhorred himself and cast his face to the dust in reverent, humility and worship.

Job 23:10

Job 23:10 - But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold - See 1Pet 1:7; Dan 12:10; Rev 3:18; Mal 3:2-4

Job 23:11

Job 23:11 - My foot hath held his steps, his way have I kept, and not declined - See Jer 6:16

Job 23:12

Job 23:12 - I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary - See Lk 4:4; Deut 8:3; Ps 138:2; Lk 10:42; Isa 22:12

Job 23:14

Job 23:14 - For he performeth the thing that is appointed for me: and many such things are with Him - See Ps 138:8; Phil 1:6; Rom 8:28

Job 25:4

Job 25:4 - How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman? - Bildad the Shuhite questions how one can be justified with God, not knowing the law or the power of God (Mt 22:29). We are made just by faith in the merits of God on our behalf. By faith in the blood of Christ and His righteous life, we who embrace His promises of forgiveness and peace with God through humility and by faith, are justified. See Rom 4:1-4 1. Publican in contrition, petitioned God's forgiveness and mercy. He went home justified - See Lk 18:14 2. We are justified through Christ and His works on our behalf and not be the works of the Law. See Act 13:39;

Job 25:4

Job 25:4 - or how can he be clean that is born of a woman? - David once said that he was conceived in sin and shapen in iniquity. See Ps 51:5

Job 27:3

Job 27:3 - All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils - See Gen 2:7; Job 33:4; Ps 104:29

Job 27:10

Job 27:10 - Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he always call upon God? - If the wicked were taken to heaven, they would find no joy in the presence of God - See Isa 26:10 The sinner could not be happy in God's presence; he would shrink from the companionship of holy beings. Could he be permitted to enter heaven, it would have no joy for him. The spirit of unselfish love that reigns there—every heart responding to the heart of Infinite Love—would touch no answering chord in his soul. His thoughts, his interests, his motives, would be alien to those that actuate the sinless dwellers there. He would be a discordant note in the melody of heaven. Heaven would be to him a place of torture; he would long to be hidden from Him who is its light, and the center of its joy. It is no arbitrary decree on the part of God that excludes the wicked from heaven; they are shut out by their own unfitness for its companionship. The glory of God would be to them a consuming fire. They would welcome destruction, that they might be hidden from the face of Him who died to redeem them. - {SC 17.2}

Job 28:19

Job 28:19 - The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it - See Dan 11:43

Job 28:25

Job 28:25 - To make the weight for the winds - The LORD is the God of science and ordained that wind (air) has weight.

Job 28:28

Job 28:28 - Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding - See Ps 111:10; Prov 1:7, 9:10; Rev 14:7; Job 1:1; Rom 16:19; Contrast Gen 20:11; Rom 3:18

Job 31:1

Job 31:1 - I made a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid? - See Ps 119:9, 37; Prov 4:25

Job 31:3

Job 31:3 - Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity? - Mic 2:1

Job 31:6

Job 31:6 - Let me be weighed in an even balance - See Lev 19:36; Eze 45:10

Job 31:7

Job 31:7 - and mine heart walked after mine eyes - See Prov 4:23; Job 31:1, 9

Job 31:9

Job 31:9 - If mine heart have been deceived by a woman - See Job 31:1, 7

Job 31:9

Job 31:9 - or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door - laid at his neighbor's door to lay

Job 31:24 - If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence - See James 5:1-3

Job 31:26

Job 31:26 - If I beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness - See Deut 4:19

Job 31:33

Job 31:33 - If I covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom - See Prov 28:13; Ps 32:

Job 32:1

Job 32:1 - So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. - See Joh 8:55

Job 34:20

Job 34:20 - the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand - It was at midnight that the destroying angel passed throughout Egypt, and manifested his power in delivering the people of God from bondage; so it will be at midnight that God will manifest His power for the final deliverance of His people. 19 The prophet, looking down through the ages, says, "The people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand." 20 {1914 SNH, CIS 98.1} Those partaking of the Passover feast were to leave nothing of it until the morning. The morning was to bring a new experience-freedom from bondage. The soul that accepts Christ as his Passover and partakes of Him by faith, enters upon a new experience-freedom from the condemnation of the old life. When God manifests His power at midnight for the final deliverance of His people, the morning will leave none in bondage. "Prison walls are rent asunder, and God's people who have been held in bondage for their faith are set free," nevermore to feel the oppressive power of the enemy. {1914 SNH, CIS 99.1}

Job 36:26

Job 36:26 - neither can the number of his years be searched out - See Psa 90:1, 2

Job 36:27

Job 36:27 - For he maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof: - See Prov 3:20

Job 37:6

Job 37:6 - the small rain - dew, small showers or Early Rain. See Deut 32:2; Act 2:16-21; Joel 2:23, 28 victory over sin; conversion

Job 37:6

Job 37 - great rain - latter rain. See Deut 32:2; Zech 10:1 Sealed

Job 37:7

Job 37:7 - He sealeth up the hand of every man; that all men may know his work. - after the receiving of the early and latter rain, God seals the work of His people.

Job 37:16

Job 37:16 - the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge - See Ps 19:1-6

Job 38:7

Job 38:7 - When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy? - The verse shows that the morning stars or sons of God in this context pre-existed the creation of the earth. Hebrew parallelism defines the morning stars = sons of God = angels The same stars sang together at the birth of Jesus Christ - See Lk 2:8-15

Job 38:17

Job 38:17 - Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death? - God rules over all things and has even conquered death. See Heb 2:14

Job 38:22

Job 38:22, 23 - hast thou seen the treasure of hall - See Rev 16:21; Ps 148:8

Job 38:23

Job 38:23 - Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war? - See Dan 12:1

Job 38:27

Job 38:27 - and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth? - See Job 14:9; Isa 27:6, 55:10

Job 38:31

Job 38:31-33 - Canst thou bind the sweet influences of Pleiades, or loose the bands of Orion? - See Job 9:9; Ps 147:4

Job 39:5

Job 39:5 - God has power and authority to loose and restrain the wild ass of Islam at His behest.

Job 39:5

Job 39:5 - God has power and authority to loose and restrain the wild ass of Islam at His behest.

Job 39:16

Job 39:16 - She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers: her labour is in vain without fear - See Isa 49:15

Job 40:8

Job 40:8 - Wilt thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous? - See Isa 45:21

Job 40:14

Job 40:14 - Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee - Commenting upon His justice and judgment God challenges man with the question "when we are able to abase the proud and cast down the haughty, then God will declare our arm strong enough to save ourselves." Job 40:10-14

Job 41:1

Job 41:1 - leviathan - a possible reference to a now extinct beast (dinosaur) that once lived but also an allusion to the great dragon in the sea, Satan. See also: Rev 12:7-12; Eze 29:3

Job 41:10

Job 41:10 - who then is able to stand before Me? If men fall in fear at the presence, and are unable to rouse might leviathan, "who then can stand before the Great I AM?", He asks.

Job 41:24

Job 41:24 - His heart is as firm as a stone - In pride, Lucifer hardened his heart against God and His promptings to repent and sought the course of rebellion.

Job 41:33

Job 41:33 - made without fear - that leviathan is a created being rules out any possible reference or allusion to God. However, he who dwells in the earth, for whom there is not his like, and has no fear [of God] is an apt description of Satan.

Job 41:34

Job 41:34 - he beholdeth all high things - pride is the hallmark of Satan and he exalts all that is self-exalting; unlike the lowly Jesus Whose delight is in the meek (Mt 11:29).

Job 41:34

Job 41:34 - king over all the children of pride - Indeed Satan is the author of pride (Eze 28:17) and the ruler over the sons of disobedience, the seed of the serpent (Gen 3:15).

Job 42:5

Job 42:5, 6 - but now mine eye seeth thee - Job beheld God in His glory and had the Mareh experience where he abhors himself and his pride is cast to the ashes.

Job 42:6

Job 42:6 - Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes - the Bible affirms that all will be saved by grace through faith of Jesus Christ. Job found repentance after being shown God's majesty and made to see God's awesomeness and his nothingness. See Rom 2:4-6

What is justification by faith?—It is the work of God in laying the glory of man in the dust, and doing for man that which it is not in his power to do for himself. When men see their own nothingness, they are prepared to be clothed with the righteousness of Christ. When they begin to praise and exalt God all the day long, then by beholding they are becoming changed into the same image. What is regeneration?—It is revealing to man what is his own real nature, that in himself he is worthless. - {SpTA09 62.2}

Job 42:10 - And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends - God delivered Job from His test and captivity when Job showed grace, mercy and compassion, and prayed for those friends and close associates who acted more like a enemies. See Mt 5:44; Lk 6:28; Num 12:11-15

Job 42:12

Job 42:12 - the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning - God would restore that which was lost to the destroyer in abundance. Symbolic of God brining greater glory to Adventism's end than its beginnings. See Joe 1:1-4; 2:25

Job 42:13

Job 42:13 - seven sons and three daughters - that which was lost was restored for the 144,000 and the 11th hour workers after their time of trouble, just as Job's.

Ps 1:1

Back to Table of Contents

Ps 1:1 - walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly - See Ps 119:101, 102; Prov 1:10-16

Ps 1:1

Ps 1:1 - nor standeth in the way of sinners - does not stand along side sinners. See 1Cor 6:9, 10

Ps 1:1

Ps 1:1 - nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful - See Jer 15:17; Ps 26:5; 2Pet 3:3-7; Neh 2:19, 20; Prov 22:10; Isa 5:19

Ps 1:2

Ps 1:2 - but his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in His law doth he meditate day and night - See Ps 119:47, 97-100; Jer 15:16; Prov 7:1-5

Ps 1:2

Ps 1:2 - delight - we find joy in the Lord as we find the blessing and wisdom in His commandments, particularly the Sabbath. See Ps 119:35, 47; Isa 58:13

Ps 1:2

Ps 1:2 - in His law doth he meditate day and night - I have hid thy law in my heart that I might not sin against thee. Ps 119:105, 11, 19:14

Ps 1:3

Ps 1:3 - he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water - See Jer 17:7, 8; Prov 12:3; Isa 32:15 When the testing time shall come, those who have made God's word their rule of life will be revealed. In summer there is no noticeable difference between evergreens and other trees; but when the blasts of winter come, the evergreens remain unchanged, while other trees are stripped of their foliage. So the false-hearted professor may not now be distinguished from the real Christian, but the time is just upon us when the difference will be apparent. Let opposition arise, let the voice of the dragon be heard, let persecution be kindled, and the half-hearted and hypocritical will waver and yield the faith; but the true Christian will stand firm as a rock, his faith stronger, his hope brighter, than in days of prosperity. - {4SP 420.1}

Ps 1:3

Ps 1:3 - rivers of water - Jesus is the stream of Living Waters that flows in all who believe. See Joh 7:37, 38

Ps 1:3

Ps 1:3 - bringeth forth this fruit in season - See Prov 11:30; Joh 15:8; Ezek 47:12

Ps 1:3

Ps 1:3 - his leaf also shall not wither - leaves are used to absorb the bountiful rays of sun (Sun of Righteousness) which feed and nourish the tree. The leaves also serve as shade and protective covering for those who come under them (Dan 4:12; Jon 4:6).

Ps 1:3

Ps 1:3 - whatsoever he doeth shall prosper - in all thy ways acknowledge Him and He will direct thy paths. The Lord is He Who prospers the diligent, and brings success to the efforts of the righteous - See Gen 39:3, 23; Prov 3:5, 6; Ps 34:10, 128:2; Isa 3:10, 48:15, 17; James 1:25

Ps 1:4

Ps 1:4 - The ungodly are not so - the ungodly have not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God; they have not sought the Lord, nor trusted in Him to prosper their ways; they have not committed themselves diligently to seeking God first and His righteousness and thus they are like the heath in the desert. See Jer 17:5, 6

Ps 1:4

Ps 1:4 - like the chaff which the wind driveth away - See Dan 2:35; Job 21:18; Isa 17:13

Ps 1:5

Ps 1:5 - ungodly shall not stand in the judgment - the ungodly do not have an Advocate with the Father in judgment for their sins (1Jo 2:1). They have rejected Jesus' offer to be their daysman, their representative in court and therefore stand alone, condemned, without one to cover their unrighteousness. See Zech 3:1-5; Mt 22:11-13; Ps 73:17; Dan 7:9, 10; Mal 3:5; Isa 33:14

Ps 1:5

Ps 1:5 - nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous - the righteous shall enter in the courts of heaven with praise and thanksgiving and will have a right to the tree of life - See Rev 15:2-4, 22:14, 7:1-4, 13; Ps 100:1-5, 69:28; Eze 13:9

Ps 1:6

Ps 1:6 - for the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous - See Gen 18:17-19; Ps 37:18; Nahum 1:7; Joh 10:14; 2Tim 2:19

Ps 1:6

Ps 1:6 - but the way of the ungodly shall perish - See Joh 3:16; 2Thess 1:9; Prov 2:22; Mal 4:3

Ps 2:1

Ps 2:1 - Why do the heathen rage - the godless and those who do abominable things rage and are stirred against God and His people - See Act 4:25-27 So weak men counseled and planned. Little did these murderers realize the uselessness of their efforts. But by their action God was glorified. The very efforts made to prevent Christ's resurrection are the most convincing arguments in its proof. The greater the number of soldiers placed around the tomb, the stronger would be the testimony that He had risen. Hundreds of years before the death of Christ, the Holy Spirit had declared through the psalmist, "Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against His anointed.... He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision." Ps 2:1-4. Roman guards and Roman arms were powerless to confine the Lord of life within the tomb. The hour of His release was near. - {DA 778.2}

Ps 2:1

Ps 2:1 - people imagine a vain thing - the wicked (people) scheme in their minds [a lie], something that will be brought to naught. See Joh 11:47-53 And then the great deceiver will persuade men that those who serve God are causing these evils. The class that have provoked the displeasure of Heaven will charge all their troubles upon those whose obedience to God's commandments is a perpetual reproof to transgressors. It will be declared that men are offending God by the violation of the Sunday sabbath; that this sin has brought calamities which will not cease until Sunday observance shall be strictly enforced; and that those who present the claims of the fourth commandment, thus destroying reverence for Sunday, are troublers of the people, preventing their restoration to divine favor and temporal prosperity. Thus the accusation urged of old against the servant of God will be repeated and upon grounds equally well established: "And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel? And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baalim." 1Kin 18:17, 18. As the wrath of the people shall be excited by false charges, they will pursue a course toward

God's ambassadors very similar to that which apostate Israel pursued toward Elijah. - {GC 590.1}

Ps 2:2

Ps 2:2 - The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying - See Mic 4:11-13

Ps 2:2

Ps 2:2 - rulers take counsel together - a confederacy is here spoken amongst the rulers, civil (kings of the earth) and religious. See Ps 83:5 37:12; Isa 8:12; Lk 23:12; Rev 17:12-14, 17; Prov 11:21

Ps 2:2

Ps 2:2 - against the LORD, and against his anointed - the target of the heathen and wicked's rage is God and His anointed. In a very literal sense, Jesus is the Anointed (Messiah) of God. However, we, the saints of God that keep His commandments and have His testimony (Rev 12:17) are Christ's ambassadors and body on earth and are therefore His representatives, the anointed.

Ps 2:3

Ps 2:3 - let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us - the wicked want to be liberated from the godly example of the righteous. They despise the message of the Three Angels that calls them to worship the God of Creation and the Sabbath, and to turn from their wicked ways because God's judgments lie before them. To the wicked, the saints and their messages are a savor of death unto death. See 2Cor 2:15, 16; Rev 11:10 Now, as in former ages, the presentation of a truth that reproveth the sins and errors of the times, will excite opposition. "Every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reprov'd." [Joh 3:20.] As men see that they cannot maintain their position by the Scriptures, many determine to maintain it at all hazards, and with a malicious spirit they assail the character and motives of those who stand in defense of unpopular truth. It is the same policy which has been pursued in all ages. Elijah was declared to be a troubler of Israel, Jer a traitor, Paul a polluter of the temple. From that day to this, those who would be loyal to truth have been denounced as seditious, heretical, or schismatic. Multitudes who are too unbelieving to accept the sure word of prophecy, will receive with unquestioning credulity an accusation against those who dare to reprove fashionable sins. This spirit will increase more and more. And the Bible plainly teaches that a time is approaching when the laws of the State shall so conflict with the law of God that whoever would obey all the divine precepts must brave reproach and punishment as an evil-doer. - {GC88 458.2} The early Christians were indeed a peculiar people. Their blameless deportment and unswerving faith were a continual reproof that disturbed the sinner's peace. Though few in numbers, without wealth, position, or honorary titles, they were a terror to evildoers wherever their character and doctrines were known. Therefore they were hated by the wicked, even as Abel was hated by the ungodly Cain. For the same reason that Cain slew Abel, did those who sought to throw off the restraint of the Holy Spirit, put to death God's people. It was for the same reason that the Jews rejected and crucified the Saviour—because the purity and holiness of His character was a constant rebuke to their selfishness and corruption. From the days of Christ until now His faithful disciples have excited the hatred and opposition of those who love and follow the ways of sin. - {GC 46.2}

Ps 3:8 - Salvation belongeth to the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people - See Joh 11:25, 26

Ps 4:1

Ps 4:1 - have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer - See Ps 27:7

Ps 4:2

Ps 4:2 - leasing - LEASING, n. s as z. Falsehood; lies. [Obsolete or nearly so.]

Ps 4:3

Ps 4:3 - the LORD will hear when I call unto him - See Isa 65:24

Ps 4:4

Ps 4:4 - Stand in awe, and sin not - we will be confronted with grievous, shameless acts from the wicked that will cause awe and disbelief, yet we should not in anger or disgust sin against our souls. See Eph 4:26

Ps 4:4

Ps 4:4 - commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still - we should speak to the LORD in prayer in our quiet place and wait on the LORD's peace. See Ps 27:14; Ex 14:14; Lk 21:19

Ps 4:5

Ps 4:5 - Off the sacrifice of righteousness - genuine repentance, praise, thanksgiving, the fruit of the Spirit. See Isa 57:15; Rom 12:1, 2; Gal 5:22, 23

Ps 7:4 - yea, I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy - See 1Sam 26:8-25

Ps 7:8

Ps 7:8 - judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me - See 1Sam 26:8-24; Mal 3:5; 1Cor 11:32

Ps 7:9

Ps 7:8 - for the righteous God trieth the hearts and the reins - See Ps 26:2; Jer 11:20, 17:10, 20:12

Ps 7:10

Ps 7:10 - My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart - See Ps 4:8, 46:1-3, 121:1-8

Ps 7:11

Ps 7:11 - God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day - God's judgment involves chastening, where He reveals who we are to ourselves, so that we are not condemned with the wicked. See Ps 11:32

Ps 7:12

Ps 7:12 - If he turn not - if he does not repent.

Ps 7:12

Ps 7:10 - He will whet his sword - See Deut 32:41; Rev 2:16

Ps 7:14

Ps 7:14 - Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood - See Est 3:8-12

Ps 7:15

Ps 7:15 - He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made - See Est 7:9, 10

Ps 7:16

Ps 7:16 - His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate. - See Lev 16:21; Esther 7:7-10, Ps 9:15, 16; Act 18:12-17

Ps 7:16

Ps 7:16 - pate - The head, or rather the top of the head; applied to persons, it is now used in contempt or ridicule.

Ps 8:2

Ps 8:2 - Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength - See Mt 21:16

Ps 8:4

Ps 8:4 - What is man that thou art mindful of him and the son of man, that thou visitest him - In light of the grandeur of all of God's creation, "what are humans in comparison?" the psalmist inquires. See Ps 144:3; Job 7:17

Ps 8:5

Ps 8:5 - hast made him a little lower than the angels - See 2Pet 2:11; 1Cor 15:40; Ps 91:11, 12 The angels are created beings of God that are of a higher order than humanity: 1. They exhibit great physical power and strength, far above humans - See 2Kin 19:35; Isa 37:36; 2Sam 24:8-25; 2Pet 2:11; 1Cor 15:40 2. They precede men in the communication chain of doctrinal and prophetic revelation - See Rev 1:1, 2; Dan 10:21, 9:20-23 3. They minister as channels of God to encourage, heal, and strengthen men - See Dan 10:10-21 4. They can transform their appearances - See Gen 18:1-8, 19:1-22; Dan 10:16; 2Cor 11:13-15; Heb 13:2 5. They have spiritual bodies that can move with great speed and pass through physical structures - See Act 12:5-11; Dan 9:20, 21 6. Angels have a knowledge of God and a personal relationship with God that is closer than that of humans. Angels had full knowledge of God's character and love. Therefore, the rebellion staged by Lucifer and his rebels is without excuse, and thus there is no offer of salvation or atonement for fallen angelic beings. See Eze 28:12-19 The angels of glory find their joy in giving,—giving love and tireless watchcare to souls that are fallen and unholy. Heavenly beings woo the hearts of men; they bring to this dark world light from the courts above; by gentle and patient ministry they move upon the human spirit, to bring the lost into a fellowship with Christ which is even closer than they themselves can know. - {DA 21.1}

Ps 8:5

Ps 8:5 - hast crowned him with glory and honour - mankind being made in God's own image and in His likeness (See Ps 106:20) is his glory. 1. Dominion over the earth even says God has dominion - See Ps 8:6 2. The ability to procreate and make children in our image and in our likeness - See Gen 1:26, 28, 5:3; Mt 22:29, 30

Ps 8:6

Ps 8:6 - Thou madest him to have dominion over all the works of thy hands - See Gen 1:28; Micah 4:8; Heb 1:1-14; Psa 115:16; Dan 7:27

Ps 11:6

Ps 11:6 - an horrible tempest - See Isa 28:18-21; Job 38:22, 23

Ps 11:7

Ps 11:7 - For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness - when speaking of righteousness, this applies to Jesus Christ alone within the Godhead. Jesus alone fulfills all righteousness. Jer 23:6 Jesus loved righteousness and hated iniquity. What is righteousness?—It is the satisfaction that Christ gave the divine law in our behalf. He bore the test on every point on which the sinner must bear it. He was tempted in all points as we are tempted, and through all the temptations that it was possible for the synagogue of Satan to bring upon him, he did not yield in the least degree to the power of the enemy. - {RH August 21, 1894 Par. 5}

Ps 12:1 - Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men - See Isa 59:15; Gen 6:5-8

Ps 12:2

Ps 12:2 - with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak - flattery is abhorred of the Lord. Flattery is disingenuous and is used to manipulate and coerce another. Flattery was one of the serpent's tools to manipulate Eve in the Garden of Eden. See Dan 8:25; 2Pet 2:18

Ps 12:2

Ps 12:2 - double heart - duplicitous,

Ps 12:3

Ps 12:3 - the tongue that speaketh proud things - tongue that speaks boastful and blasphemous things. See Dan 7:25; Rev 13:1-4

Ps 12:4 - With our tongue will we prevail - See Isa 5:21; Ps 10:6; Ezek 8:12

Ps 12:4

Ps 12:4 - our lips are our own: who is lord over us? - See Ex 5:2; Rev 11:7-10

Ps 12:5

Ps 12:5 - For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise - See Ps 10:8-10, 18

Ps 12:6

Ps 12:6 - The words of the LORD are pure words - See Ps 18:30, 119:140; Prov 30:5; Isa 45:19 I saw that God had especially guarded the Bible; yet when copies of it were few, learned men had in some instances changed the words, thinking that they were making it more plain, when in reality they were mystifying that which was plain, by causing it to lean to their established views, which were governed by tradition. But I saw that the Word of God, as a whole, is a perfect chain, one portion linking into and explaining another. True seekers for truth need not err; for not only is the Word of God plain and simple in declaring the way of life, but the Holy Spirit is given as a guide in understanding the way to life therein revealed. - {EW 220.2} Why is our English version called king James' Bible? Because it was made during the reign of James I, king of England. {March 19, 1861 UrSe, ARSH 142.25} When was it begun, and when completed? {March 19, 1861 UrSe, ARSH 142.26} In the year 1607 the work was commenced, and finished in about three years, and published in 1611. {March 19, 1861 UrSe, ARSH 142.27} Fifty-four of the most learned men of the kingdom were appointed to perform the task. Seven of these did not serve, leaving forty-seven as the number who were actually engaged in the work. {March 19, 1861 UrSe, ARSH 142.28} How was the labor apportioned among this number? {March 19, 1861 UrSe, ARSH 142.29} They were divided into six classes: to each of which a certain portion of the Bible was given to translate, not from the Latin or the Septuagint, but directly from the original Hebrew and Greek. {March 19, 1861 UrSe, ARSH 142.30}

Ps 12:6 - as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times - See Mal 3:3

Ps 12:6

Ps 12:6 - purified seven times - See 2Kin 5:10, 14

Ps 12:7

Ps 12:7 - Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever - the Scriptures, which have been purified seven times (Ps 12:6), are living and have been preserved from this generation for ever (Isa 40:8; 1Pet 1:23, 25; Ps 33:11, 93:5, 100:5, 119:89, 138:2; Joh 10:35; Mt 5:18, 24:35; AA 11:3). Any modern translations that seek to improve upon that which God has established is to be rejected. I saw that God had especially guarded the Bible; yet when copies of it were few, learned men had in some instances changed the words, thinking that they were making it more plain, when in reality they were mystifying that which was plain, by causing it to lean to their established views, which were governed by tradition. But I saw that the Word of God, as a whole, is a perfect chain, one portion linking into and explaining another. True seekers for truth need not err; for not only is the Word of God plain and simple in declaring the way of life, but the Holy Spirit is given as a guide in understanding the way to life therein revealed. - {EW 220.2} O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! Rom 11:33 The evils that have been gradually creeping in among us have imperceptibly led individuals and churches away from reverence for God, and have shut away the power which He desires to give them. - {5T 711.1} My brethren, let the word of God stand just as it is. Let not human wisdom presume to lessen the force of one statement of the Scriptures. The solemn denunciation in the Rev should warn us against taking such ground. In the name of my Master I bid you: "Put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground." - {5T 711.2} His law is linked with His throne, and no power of evil can destroy it. Truth is inspired and guarded by God; and it will triumph over all opposition. - {AA 11.3} This verse has been frequently reinterpreted by modern translations for the expressed purpose of removing the credibility and trust in the Word of God. Here are examples: NIV: You, Lord, will keep the needy safe and will protect us forever from the wicked ESV: You, Lord, will keep the needy safe and will protect us forever from the wicked NLT: Therefore Lord, we know you will protect the oppressed, preserving them forever from this lying generation See also Joh 5:39; Rev 22:14 Gen 3:15 according to the Douay -Reims Catholic Bible "I will put enmities between thee and the woman, and thy seed and her seed: she shall crush thy head, and thou shalt lie in wait for her heel." - the blasphemous version of the Bible points to Mary as the "redemptress"

Ps 12:7

Ps 12:7 - from this generation for ever - See 1Pet 1:23, 25 "The Lord will not lead minds now to set aside the truth that the Holy Spirit has moved upon His servants in the past to proclaim." {Ms32-1896.} Then I saw that God knew that Satan would try every art to destroy man; therefore He had caused His word to be written out, and had made His purposes in regard to the human race so plain that the weakest need not err. After having given His word to man, He had carefully preserved it from destruction by Satan or his angels, or by any of his agents or representatives. While other books might be destroyed, this was to be immortal. And near the close of time, when the delusions of Satan should increase, it was to be so multiplied that all who desired might have a copy, and, if they would, might arm themselves against the deceptions and lying wonders of Satan. - {EW 220.1} I saw that God had especially guarded the Bible; yet when copies of it were few, learned men had in some instances changed the words, thinking that they were making it more plain, when in reality they were mystifying that which was plain, by causing it to lean to their established views, which were governed by tradition. But I saw that the Word of God, as a whole, is a perfect chain, one portion linking into and explaining another. True seekers for truth need not err; for not only is the Word of God plain and simple in declaring the way of life, but the Holy Spirit is given as a guide in understanding the way to life therein revealed. - {EW 220.2}

Ps 12:8 - The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted. - See Lk 23:25; Prov 29:2, 16, 14:34; Ps 92:7; Mal 2:17; Isa 3:5; Habakkuk 1:1-4 CONTRAST Isa 32:1, 26:9; Prov 14:34, 24:24; Jer 23:5, 6 I call upon God's people to open their eyes. When you sanction or carry out the decisions of men who, as you know, are not in harmony with truth and righteousness, you weaken your own faith and lose your relish for communion with God. You seem to hear the voice which was addressed to Joshua: "Wherefore liest thou thus upon thy face? Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed My covenant which I commanded them.... There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel." "Neither will I be with you anymore, except ye destroy the accursed from among you." Christ declares, "He that gathereth not with Me scattereth abroad." - {TM 91.1}

Ps 15:5 - He that putteth not out his money to usury - one who does not lend to gain by exorbitant interest.

Ps 15:5

Ps 15:5 - He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved - See Isa 33:15-17

Ps 15:5

Ps 15:5 - taketh reward against the innocent - See Isa 5:23

Ps 15:5

Ps 15:6 - He that doeth these things shall never be moved - See Ps Ps 16:8, 62:6; Prov 12:3

Ps 16:1

Ps 16:1 - Preserve me, O God - keep me in the paths of righteousness; uphold me by the sweet Holy Spirit; sustain my course and my faith in You; deliver and protect me from my carnal self and the wilds of the enemy.

Ps 16:1

Ps 16:1 - for in thee do I put my trust - See Ps 73:28

Ps 16:2

Ps 16:2- my goodness extendeth not to the - my goodness is nothing apart from the; as with Dan, our comeliness in God's presence turns to corruption. The LORD alone is OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS - See Dan 10:8, Isa 64:6; Jer 23:6

Ps 16:4

Ps 16:4 - Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god - See 2Kin 1:1-4

Ps 16:4

Ps 16:3 - their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips - the sacrifices of the wicked are an abomination to God and to the psalmist. The psalmist refuses to even speak of their waywardness. See Isa 33:15, 16

Ps 16:5

Ps 16:5- The LORD is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup - As a Levite, a royal priesthood to the Lord, He is our portion and our inheritance. See Gen 15:1; Ps 73:25; Isa 58:13, 14; Deut 18:1, 2; 1Pet 2:9; Rev 21

Ps 16:5

Ps 16:5 - thou maintainest my lot - God gives and preserves our inheritance, Himself, in Christ Jesus. See 1Jo 5:11-13

Ps 16:6

Ps 16:6 - The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places - God's truths that draw and bind us to Him have come to the psalmist in times and places that cause him to exalt in the Lord. See Ps 19:4

Ps 16:6

Ps 16:6 - lines - a cord (as connecting), especially for measuring; figuratively, a rule; also a rim, a musical string or accord:--line

Ps 16:6

Ps 16:6 - I have a goodly heritage - The psalmist delights in God's salvation which is his own. See Isa 58:14; 1Jo 5:11-13

Ps 16:7

Ps 16:7 - I will bless the LORD - See Ps 34:1

Ps 16:7

Ps 16:7 - Who hath given me counsel - See Ps 1:1; Num 27:21; Isa 9:6

Ps 16:7

Ps 16:6- my reins also instruct me in the night season - The unconscious mind or reins are what guide the psalmist in the night season. See Jer 17:10; 12:2; Rev 2:23

Ps 16:8

Ps 16:8 - I have set the LORD always before me - See Prov 3:5, 6; Act 2:25 If we keep the Lord ever before us, allowing our hearts to go out in thanksgiving and praise to Him, we shall have a continual freshness in our religious life. Our prayers will take the form of a conversation with God as we would talk with a friend. He will speak His mysteries to us personally. Often there will come to us a sweet joyful sense of the presence of Jesus. Often our hearts will burn within us as He draws nigh to commune with us as He did with Enoch. When this is in truth the experience of the Christian, there is seen in his life a simplicity, a humility, meekness, and lowliness of heart, that show to all with whom he associates that he has been with Jesus and learned of Him.—(Christ's Object Lessons, 129, 130.) - {Pr 12.2}

Ps 16:8

Ps 16:8 - because he is at my right hand I shall not be moved - We too are at His right hand, the position of favor and thus, shall not be moved. See Ex 15:6; Eccl 10:2; Ps 15:5, 62:2, 121:5; Joshua 1:5; Heb 13:6

Ps 19:1

Ps 19:1 - The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth His handywork - See Ps 107:43 "The undevout astronomer is mad." {Dr. Young, taken from 1884 JHW, AERS 9.1} The spacious firmament on high, With all the blue, ethereal sky, And spangled heavens, a shining frame, Their great Original proclaim; The unwearied sun, from day to day Does his Creator's power display, And publishes to every land The work of an Almighty hand. Soon as the evening shades prevail, The moon takes up the wondrous tale; And nightly, to the listening earth Repeats the story of her birth; While all the stars that round her burn, And all the planets in their turn, Confirm the tidings as they roll, And spread the truth from pole to pole What though in solemn silence, all Move round the dark terrestrial ball? What though no real voice nor sound Amid their radiant orbs be found? In reason's ear they all rejoice, And utter forth a glorious voice, For ever singing, as they shine, 'The hand that made us is Divine.'" Written by Addison

Ps 19:2

Ps 19:2 - Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge - both day and night, morning and evening give revelation of God's awesome wonders and majesty!

Ps 19:3

Ps 19:3 - There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard - there is no place on earth where man can not see the exceeding power and glory of God in the creation. See Rom 1:19, 20, 10:17-19 "What though no real voice nor sound, Amid their radiant orbs be found; In reason's ear they all rejoice, And utter for a glorious voice, Forever singing as they shine— The hand that made us is divine!" {Addison, taken from 1884 JHW, AERS 9.1}

Ps 19:4

Ps 19:4 - Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world

- the gospel of Creation has been seen by all men, even His eternal Godhead! See Rom 10:15-18, 1:20; Deut 30:19 Those whom Christ commends in the judgment may have known little of theology, but they have cherished His principles. Through the influence of the divine Spirit they have been a blessing to those about them. Even among the heathen are those who have cherished the spirit of kindness; before the words of life had fallen upon their ears, they have befriended the missionaries, even ministering to them at the peril of their own lives. Among the heathen are those who worship God ignorantly, those to whom the light is never brought by human instrumentality, yet they will not perish. Though ignorant of the written law of God, they have heard His voice speaking to them in nature, and have done the things that the law required. Their works are evidence that the Holy Spirit has touched their hearts, and they are recognized as the children of God. - {DA 638.2} How surprised and gladdened will be the lowly among the nations, and among the heathen, to hear from the lips of the Saviour, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these My brethren, ye have done it unto Me"! How glad will be the heart of Infinite Love as His followers look up with surprise and joy at His words of approval! - {DA 638.3}

Ps 19:7

Ps 19:7 - The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple. See Isa 8:20 It is not enough for us to believe that Jesus is not an impostor, and that the religion of the Bible is no cunningly devised fable. We may believe that the name of Jesus is the only name under heaven whereby man may be saved, and yet we may not through faith make Him our personal Saviour. It is not enough to believe the theory of truth. It is not enough to make a profession of faith in Christ and have our names registered on the church roll. "He that keepeth His commandments dwelleth in Him, and He in him. And hereby we know that He abideth in us, by the Spirit which He hath given us." "Hereby we do know that we know Him if we keep His commandments." 1Jo 3:24; 1Jo 2:3. This is the genuine evidence of conversion. Whatever our profession, it amounts to nothing unless Christ is revealed in works of righteousness. - {COL 312.3} But, while the works of nature may arouse us to devotional feelings, they cannot guide our devotions. They but give evidence of the existence of an almighty Designer, but they cannot reveal him to us. Man himself is "fearfully and wonderfully made;" and he may stand in awe at the thought of his Maker; he may feel a sense of responsibility and of accountability to his Creator; but if left to the voice of nature alone, the highest shrine at which he will bow will be that of "The Unknown God." He may even recognize the voice of conscience within him reproving him of the wrongs which he is conscious that he commits; but nature does not reveal to him the manner of service which would be pleasing to his Creator and Preserver, nor the means of freeing him from the guilt and consequences of his wrongs. {1884 JHW, AERS 10.1} The psalmist, no doubt, had this train of thought passing through his mind, for, after ascribing to the creation all that it can do to incite us to devotion, he abruptly turned his subject, saying: {1884 JHW, AERS 10.2} "The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandments of the Lord are pure, enlightening the eyes." Man is highly exalted as to his capacities; there are wonderful possibilities in his being. Yet left altogether to himself he is helpless, especially in the understanding of morals. And this is not at all surprising; for no one is expected to understand the will of a governor, or the laws of the Government under which he lives, unless they are revealed to him. The psalmist, as quoted in this paragraph, ascribes to the law of the Lord an office which it is not possible for creation or nature to fill. The commandments of the Lord impart instruction, important and necessary instruction, which we cannot learn by observation, nor by the study of the material universe. No proof ought to be required on this point. The most powerful telescope or microscope can never reveal a single moral duty, or point out a remedy for a single moral wrong. {1884 JHW, AERS 11.1} Now we attach no blame to nature because it does not perform the office of a written revelation. No such purpose was embraced in its design. We do not learn the laws of our Government by walking through the fields, by studying her dimensions and natural advantages, nor by noting her public improvements. When we have learned all that we can possibly learn from nature, we find beyond that an absolute necessity for direct revelation. {1884 JHW, AERS 11.2}

Ps 22:26 - The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the LORD that seek him: your heart shall live for ever - See Mt 5:5

Ps 22:27

Ps 22:27 - All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee. See Isa 60; Zech 9:10; Rev 21:24-27

Ps 22:29

Ps 22:29 - All they that be fat upon the earth shall eat and worship - See Ps 22:26; Mal 4:2

Ps 22:29

Ps 22:29 - and none can keep alive his own soul - See Act 17:28

Ps 22:30

Ps 22:30 - a seed shall serve him - a remnant shall serve the LORD. See Rev 12:17; 14:1-5 "That which God purposed to do for the world through Israel, the chosen nation, He will finally accomplish through His church on earth today (Gal 1:13). He has "let out His vineyard unto other husbandmen," even to His covenant-keeping people, who faithfully "render Him the fruits in their seasons." Never has the Lord been without true representatives on this earth who have made His interests their own. These witnesses for God are numbered among the spiritual Israel, and to them will be fulfilled all the covenant promises made by Jehovah to His ancient people." - {Prophets & Kings 713.1}. See Isa 10:19-23

Ps 22:30

Ps 22:30 - it shall be accounted to the LORD for a generation - the remnant that shall come from among the hosts of Adventism will be seen as its own generation to whom God's promises will apply and His goodness towards that generation. See Ps 24:6

Ps 23:1

Ps 23:1 - The LORD is my Shepherd - See Joh 10:14; Isa 33:16, 40:11, 43:3; Ps 34:9, 10; Heb 13:20

Ps 23:1

Ps 23:1 - I shall not want - I have not wants because all my needs and desires are supplied in Him. See Col 2:9, 10

Ps 23:2

Ps 23:2 - He maketh me to lie down in green pastures - See Joh 10:9; Ps 3:5, 4:8

Ps 23:2

Ps 23:2 - leadeth me beside the still waters - See Ps 139:10; Isa 41:13, 42:6, 49:8-10; Joh 10:3-5; Hymn #537 - He Leadeth Me

Ps 23:3

Ps 23:3 - He restoreth my soul - for the Lord to restore my soul, it must mean that my souls strength must have been spent, enduring some fiery trial, or long testing walk of patience. God gives us rest and refreshing through the power of the Holy Spirit - See Ps 34:22; 1Pet 4:13, 14; Isa 28:12 A cast sheep is a sheep that has laid down and can't get up because its center of gravity is off - sometimes because it's pregnant or simply because it has a full fleece. Once down, gasses start to build up in their abdomen and they can die in a matter of hours. If you get them back up on their feet, then they're fine

Ps 23:3

Ps 23:3 - he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake - the paths of righteousness involve fiery trials and tests in order for God's perfect character (His glory) to be revealed in us. 1Pet 4:13, 14

Ps 23:3

Ps 23:3 - paths of righteousness - paths of the just. See Ps 5:8, 139:24; Prov *8:20, 4:18; Jer 6:16; 1Pet 4:13, 14; Heb 12:13 "Let none seek to tear away the foundations of our faith,—the foundations that were laid at the beginning of our work, by prayerful study of the Word and by revelation. Upon these foundations we have been building for more than fifty years. Men may suppose that they have found a new way, that they can lay a stronger foundation than that which has been laid; but this is a great deception. 'Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid.' [1Cor 3:11.] In the past, many have undertaken to build a new faith, to establish new principles; but how long did their building stand? It soon fell; for it was not founded upon the Rock." Testimonies, volume 8, 296-297.

Ps 23:3

Ps 23:3 - for his name's sake - For His own glory - See Isa 43:25; 49:3

Ps 23:4

Ps 23:4 - Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil - God's perfect love casts out fear. With Jesus abiding within the heart, we are complete and need/want/lack no thing. We are set apart from the world by God's presence, by faith working by love, and have no fear. See Heb 2:14, 15; Ps 55, 91:7, 8; 1Jo 4:17, 18

Ps 23:4

Ps 23:4 - for thou art with me - God's presence is what provides peace - See Ex 33:14-16; Isa 43:1, 2; Mt 28:20

Ps 23:4

Ps 23:4 - thy rod and thy staff they comfort me - the sheep understands that the rod and the staff are used by the Shepherd to keep him in line and to protect him from harm and danger. The rod and staff therefore are fitting symbols of God's commandments, by which we are chastened/reproved of sin.

Ps 23:5

Ps 23:5 - Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies - God will exalt the righteous who were once persecuted and scorned before their adversaries. See Psa 86:17, 27:6; Dan 3:30; Rev 3:9; Jer 15:15-21 1Kin 17:3-10 - God caused Elijah to dwell in a foreign land, where paganism abounded yet within a haven prepared by God. The Lord prepared a table to feed Elijah from in the same land from which came his mortal enemy Jezebel.

Ps 23:5

Ps 23:5 - thou anointest my head with oil - kings and priests were anointed in Ancient Israel so that God's Spirit would be upon them to lead righteously, thus, God purposes to make we, His people, His royal priesthood and holy nation. See Ex 19:6, 28:41, 30:30; 1Sam 16:11-

13; Dan 9:25; Mt 3:13-17; Rev 1:6, 5:10, 20:4; 1Pet 2:9; Ps 92:10; Zech 10:1; Ezek 16:9

Ps 23:5

Ps 23:5 - my cup runneth over - God promises an abundance to those who follow the Good Shepherd and are upright, showing generosity towards God and others - See Mal 3:10-12; Lev 26:3-13; Lk 6:38

Ps 23:6

Ps 23:6 - Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life - See Ex 33:19; Ps 142:7, 25:10; 119:41; Lam 3:22, 23

Ps 23:6

Ps 23:6 - I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever - See Psa 27:4; Rev 7:13-15

Ps 24:1

Ps 24:1 - The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein - See Ex 9:29, 19:5, 20:11; Rev 14:7; Ps 50:10, 104

Ps 24:1

Ps 24:1 - the world, and they that dwell therein - God is the great Script Writer and has foreordained His plans for each of our lives. We are to remain in His will that He might bring to pass His good will and purposes for us.

Ps 24:2

Ps 24:2 - For He hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the flood - the Psist affirms the Creation account as given in the book of Gen. See Gen 1:9, 10

Ps 24:3

Ps 24:3 - Who shall ascend - See Ps 15:1; Isa 33:14-24 The latter rain is coming on those that are pure—all then will receive it as formerly. - {SpM 3.1}

Ps 24:3

Ps 24:3 - who shall stand in his holy place? - See Ps 99:9

Ps 24:4

Ps 24:4 - He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart - See Mt 5:8; Isa 33:15, 16 Soon our eyes were drawn to the east, for a small black cloud had appeared, about half as large as a man's hand, which we all knew was the sign of the Son of man. We all in solemn silence gazed on the cloud as it drew nearer and became lighter, glorious, and still more glorious, till it was a great white cloud. The bottom appeared like fire; a rainbow was over the cloud, while around it were ten thousand angels, singing a most lovely song; and upon it sat the Son of man. His hair was white and curly and lay on His shoulders; and upon His head were many crowns. His feet had the appearance of fire; in His right hand was a sharp sickle; in His left, a silver trumpet. His eyes were as a flame of fire, which searched His children through and through. Then all faces gathered paleness, and those that God had rejected gathered blackness. Then we all cried out, "Who shall be able to stand? Is my robe spotless?" Then the angels ceased to sing, and there was some time of awful silence, when Jesus spoke: "Those who have clean hands and pure hearts shall be able to stand; My grace is sufficient for you.” At this our faces lighted up, and joy filled every heart. And the angels struck a note higher and sang again, while the cloud drew still nearer the earth. - {EW 15.2}

Ps 24:4 - clean hands - those who have eaten the little book and have warned the wicked to turn from their wickedness - See Eze 3:18-21; Job 17:9; Isa 33:15; Ps 26:6

Ps 24:4

Ps 24:4 - pure heart - faith is that which purifies the heart. See Ps 125:4; Mt 5:8; Act 15:9; Jam 3:17; Rev 14:5

Ps 24:4

Ps 24:4 - who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity - who has not wasted their lives on vain and worthless things. See 1Jo 2:16; Eccl 1:2, 12:8; Isa 58:9

Ps 24:4

Ps 24:4 - nor sworn deceitfully - It was very hard for the Egyptian king and a proud and idolatrous people to yield to the requirements of the God of heaven. Very slow was the king of Egypt to yield. While under most grievous affliction he would yield a little; but when the affliction was removed, he would take back all he had granted. Thus, plague after plague was brought upon Egypt, and he yielded no more than he was compelled to by the dreadful visitations of God's wrath. The king even persisted in his rebellion after Egypt had been ruined. - {SR 118.1}

Ps 24:5

Ps 24:5 - He shall receive the blessing from the LORD - God has commanded the blessing of life for evermore, and the abiding grace of the Holy Spirit. See Ps 133:3; Gal 3:8, 14

Ps 24:5

Ps 24:5 - and righteousness from the God of his salvation - those with clean hands, a pure heart, a soul that has not been lifted to vanity and a mouth that has not sworn deceitfully will become heirs of righteousness by faith of Jesus Christ. See Jer 23:5, 6; Phil 3:10; Heb 11:7 Soon our eyes were drawn to the east, for a small black cloud had appeared, about half as large as a man's hand, which we all knew was the sign of the Son of man. We all in solemn silence gazed on the cloud as it drew nearer and became lighter, glorious, and still more glorious, till it was a great white cloud. The bottom appeared like fire; a rainbow was over the cloud, while around it were ten thousand angels, singing a most lovely song; and upon it sat the Son of man. His hair was white and curly and lay on His shoulders; and upon His head were many crowns. His feet had the appearance of fire; in His right hand was a sharp sickle; in His left, a silver trumpet. His eyes were as a flame of fire, which searched His children through and through. Then all faces gathered paleness, and those that God had rejected gathered blackness. Then we all cried out, "Who shall be able to stand? Is my robe spotless?" Then the angels ceased to sing, and there was some time of awful silence, when Jesus spoke: "Those who have clean hands and pure hearts shall be able to stand; My grace is sufficient for you." At this our faces lighted up, and joy filled every heart. And the angels struck a note higher and sang again, while the cloud drew still nearer the earth. - {EW 15.2}

Ps 24:5

Ps 24:4 - the God of his salvation - See Isa 60:16

Ps 24:6

Ps 24:6 - This is the generation of them that seek Him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah - See Isa 43:19-21; 1Pet 2:9; Ps 22:30, 14:5, 112:2, 145:18; Num 23:21 Contrast: Prov 30:12-14

Ps 24:7

Ps 24:7 - Lift up your heads, O ye gates - The procession that included King David marched before the ark of the LORD to Jerusalem where this joyful song was raised {See PP 707.1}. When Jesus returned to heaven as a conqueror, having led captivity captive and bringing the first fruit of the redemption (Mt 27:52, 53), He was greeted by the host of angels which sung the following. See Ps 100:4; Heb 1:3-6 All heaven was waiting to welcome the Saviour to the celestial courts. As He ascended, He led the way, and the multitude of captives set free at His resurrection followed. The heavenly host, with shouts and acclamations of praise and celestial song, attended the joyous train. - {DA 833.2} As they drew near to the city of God, the challenge is given by the escorting angels,— - {DA 833.3} “Lift up your heads, O ye gates; And be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; And the King of glory shall come in.” - {DA 833.4} Joyfully the waiting sentinels respond,— - {DA 833.5} “Who is this King of glory?” - {DA 833.6} This they say, not because they know not who He is, but because they would hear the answer of exalted praise,— - {DA 833.7}

Ps 24:7

Ps 24:7 - King of glory shall come in - Jesus will sit upon His throne of glory at His Second Coming. This appears to be the triumphal entry of Jesus with His redeemed. See Mt 25:31

Ps 24:8

Ps 24:8 - The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle - See Ex 15:3; Joshua 5:14, 15; Ps 2:9-12; Rev 12:5; Heb 2:14, 15; Dan 10:12, 13, 21

Ps 25:2

Ps 25:2 - let not mine enemies triumph over me - See Ps 30:1

Ps 25:4

Ps 25:4 - Shew me thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths - See Ex 33:13; Jer 6:16;

Ps 25:5

Ps 25:5 - Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day - See Ps 27:11

Ps 25:9 - The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way - See Mt 11:28-30; Num 12:3

Ps 25:10

Ps 25:10 - All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies - See Ps 23:6

Ps 25:11

Ps 25:11 - For thy name's sake, O LORD, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great. - See Isa 43:25; Ps 51:1-11; Jer 31:18, 19

Ps 25:12

Ps 25:12 - What man is he that feareth the LORD? him shall he teach in the way that he shall chose - See Ps 32:8

Ps 25:13

Ps 25:13 - His soul shall dwell at ease - See Ps 119:165

Ps 25:13

Ps 25:13 - and his seed shall inherit the earth - See Isa 58:14

Ps 25:14

Ps 25:14 - The secret of the LORD - The Lord does not conceal light, but those who reject the light are left in darkness. Am 3:7; 1Thess 5:4-9; Gen 18:17-19; Ps 91:1, 84:11; Rev 10:7; Col 1:25-29 In every age there is a new development of truth, a message of God to the people of that generation. The old truths are all essential; new truth is not independent of the old, but an unfolding of it. It is only as the old truths are understood that we can comprehend the new. When Christ desired to open to His disciples the truth of His resurrection, He began "at Moses and all the prophets" and "expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning Himself." Lk 24:27. But it is the light which shines in the fresh unfolding of truth that glorifies the old. He who rejects or neglects the new does not really possess the old. For him it loses its vital power and becomes but a lifeless form. - {COL 127.4}

Ps 25:14

Ps 25:14 - The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; and he will shew them his covenant - See Rev 10:7; Col 1:25-29 Soon we heard the voice of God [The voice of God is heard repeatedly during the period immediately preceding Christ's return. See The Great Controversy, 632, 633, 636, 638, 640, 641.] like many waters, which gave us the day and hour of Jesus' coming. The living saints, 144,000 in number, knew and understood the voice, while the wicked thought it was thunder and an earthquake.—Early Writings, 15 (1851). - {LDE 272.2}

Ps 25:14

Ps 25:14 - is with them that fear Him - the fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom (Prov 9:10, 1:7). The wise shall understand in the last days because they fear God and heed His prophetic testimonies. See Dan 12:10

Ps 25:14

Ps 25:14 - and he will shew them his covenant - covenant of peace or counsel of peace (Zech 6:13). See Is 33:17; Gen 3:15

Ps 25:20 - let me not be ashamed; for I put my trust in thee - See Ps 25:2; Rom 1:16

Ps 25:21

Ps 25:1 - Let integrity and uprightness preserve me - See Ps 15:1-5; Job 2:9

Ps 26:1

Ps 26:1 - Judge me, O LORD; for I have walked in mine integrity - See Ps 26:11; 139

Ps 26:1

Ps 26:1 - I have trusted also in the LORD; therefore I shall not slide - See Ps 27:14

Ps 26:2

Ps 26:2 - Examine me, O LORD, and prove me; try my reins and my heart - See Ps 7:11, 139:23, 24; Jer 17:10; Mal 3:5

Ps 26:2

Ps 26:2 - try my reins and my heart - prove the uprightness of my heart and my mind.

Ps 26:3

Ps 26:3 - For thy lovingkindness is before mine eyes - see Lam 3:22, 23

Ps 26:4

Ps 26:4 - I have not sat with vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers - See Ps 1:1

Ps 26:4

Ps 26:4 - neither will I go in with dissemblers - Ps 28:3, 55:21; Jer 42:19-22; Col 3:22; Eph 6:6; Jam 3:15

Ps 26:5

Ps 26:5 - I have hated the congregation of evil doers - See Ps 139:21, 22

Ps 26:5

Ps 26:5 -will not sit with the wicked - See Ps 1:1; Jer 15:17

Ps 26:6

Ps 26:6 - I will wash my hands in innocency - The psalmist will be upright, not taking bribes, handling evil or abiding with those who are evil and hate God. See Ps 26:9-11, 24:3, 4; Isa 33:15

Ps 26:7

Ps 26:7 - That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works - See Phil 4:6; Ps 27:6, 145:21, 34:1-3

Ps 26:8

Ps 26:8 - LORD, I have loved the habitation of Thy house, and the place where thine honour dwellest - See Ps 27:4; Mic 7:7

Ps 26:8

Ps 26:8 - and the place where thine honour dwelleth - God's ways are in the sanctuary and His honor abides there. See Ps 77:13; Isa 6:1-5

Ps 26:9

Ps 26:9 - Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men - keep me from blood-thirsty and sinful men. May I not be numbered among them. See Ps 28:3

Ps 26:10

Ps 26:10 - In whose hands is mischief, and their right hand is full of bribes - See Isa 33:15, 59:1-15; Mic 7:2-4

Ps 26:11

Ps 26:11 - But as for me, I will walk in mine integrity - Honest and upright, even if it comes to one's loss. See Ps 26:1; 25:21

Ps 26:12

Ps 26:12 - My foot standeth in an even place - his feet are planted on a table (flat, even) land where there is surety. See Ps 27:11

Ps 27:1

Ps 27:1 - The LORD is my light - Jesus is the Light of the World; the light shined into the darkness and few comprehended it. We have seen a Great Light in Jesus! See Joh 1:4, 5, 7, 8,

8:12; Rev 21:23; Ps 84:11

Ps 27:1

Ps 27:1 - and my salvation - See Isa 25:9

Ps 27:1 - the LORD is the strength of my life - See Ps 46:1

Ps 27:1

Ps 27:1 - of whom shall I be afraid? - See Rom 8:31; Heb 13:6

Ps 27:2

Ps 27:2 - When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh - the psalmist aligns himself with the righteous since his enemies and foes are among the wicked. This is also evident because the psalmist has made God his light, his strength and his salvation. See Ps 1:1, 5 56:2, 118:10-14; Ex 15:9; 2Tim 4:14

Ps 27:2

Ps 27:2 - came upon me to eat up my flesh - See Gal 5:15; Zech 8:16, 17; Rom 1:30; Ex 20:16; Mic 3:1-3

Ps 27:2

Ps 27:2 - they stumbled and fell - See Prov 4:19; Ps 73:18

Ps 27:3

Ps 27:3 - Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident - See 2Kin 6:15-17

Ps 27:4

Ps 27:4 - One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after - See Ps 37:4

Ps 27:4

Ps 27:4 - that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD and to enquire in His temple - See Ps 26:8, 122:1; Rev 3:12

Ps 27:4

Ps 27:4 - to behold the beauty of the LORD - See Isa 33:17 Contrast Isa 26:10

Ps 27:4

Ps 27:4 - to enquire in His temple - the psalmist wants to sit at Jesus' feet and to learn of Him throughout eternity. See Lk 10:39; Rev 21:22

Ps 27:5

Ps 27:5 - in the time of trouble he shall hide me - See Nah 1:7; Isa 30:29, 26:3, 4, 20, 21; Ps 91, 119:114, 59:16; Dan 12:1 In his mission to Pharaoh, Moses was to be placed in a position of great peril; his life could be preserved only through the protection of holy angels. But while living in neglect of a known duty, he would not be secure; for he could not be shielded by the angels of God. { PP 255.5} In the time of trouble, just previous to the coming of Christ, the lives of the righteous will be preserved through the ministration of holy angels. But there will be no security for the transgressor. Angels cannot then protect those who are living in neglect of a known duty or an express command of Jehovah. { ST February 26, 1880, Art. A, par. 22 }

Ps 27:5

Ps 27:5 - A pavilion is a temporary tent structure, as in the sanctuary in the wilderness that was made of tents. The heavenly sanctuary is also a temporary structure which will be no more after the Plan of Redemption and the eradication of sin is completed. There will be no more temple because God and the Lamb will be our temple to dwell among us, Praise God! See Rev 21:3, 22

Ps 27:5

Ps 27:5 - secret of His tabernacle - the righteous will be hidden in the secret of God's tabernacle, the place concealed from all view, the Most Holy Place. We who have entered in the Most Holy Place and whose names remain in the book of life will be guarded from the heat, storm and overflowing scourge of the Sunday Law. God will be our refuge and strength, a very present help in time of trouble. See Isa 4:6; Ps 91:1, 2; 46:1, 83:3

Ps 27:5

Ps 27:5 - set me upon a rock - The Rock of Ages, the sure foundation that can not be moved that the Lord has set-up is Jesus. See Ps 91:14; Isa 28:16, 33:16; Mt 7:24; Ex 33:21, 22

Ps 27:6

Ps 27:6 - And now shall my head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me - The hidden ones will be exalted in the Time of Trouble. The wicked have lifted up their heads against God's people in confederacy to destroy them. However, when the judgments of God are falling on the unrighteous, the LORD will encamp about His faithful, the hidden ones, and lift up their heads. As Christ approaches, the hidden ones' captivity will be turned upon the wicked as they cry, "Lo, this is our God, we have waited for Him and He will save us". See Ps 83:1-4; 86:17, 89:23; Isa 25:9; Mic 7:10; Jam 4:10; Mic 7:10; {FLB 347 - December 7}

Ps 27:12

Ps 27:12 - for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty - See Mk 14:55-59; Prov 6:16, 17

Ps 27:13

Ps 27:13 - I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living - The psalmist clung to the promise of the LORD, the joy set before him to see God in His glory among the righteous. See Heb 12:1-3; Mk 10:30; Jon 2:7; Job 19:25, 26

Ps 27:14

Ps 27:14 - wait on the LORD - See Lam 3:25; Ps 25:3, 37:7, 46:1, 31:23, 24, 33:20, 121:1, 2; Isa 40:31, 30:15, 50:10, 65:4; Prov 27:18; Mic 7:7

Ps 27:14

Ps 27:14 - be of good courage - words of encouragement to faithfully, optimistically place one's trust in the Lord: Joshua 1:18 - be strong of a good courage 1Kin 2:2 - be thou strong therefore, and show thyself a man Ps 91:2 - I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in Him will I trust

Ps 27:14

Ps 27:14 - and He shall strengthen thine heart: - God will give us fortitude; God will make us brave in the midst of trial; God will give hope when things look bleak; God will order our steps when we can't see a path forward - See 1Sam 30:6; Ps 91:14, 15; Isa 40:29, 31 In every difficulty He has His way prepared to bring relief. Our heavenly Father has a thousand ways to provide for us, of which we know nothing. Those who accept the one principle of making the service and honor of God supreme will find perplexities vanish, and a plain path before their feet. - {DA 330.1}

Ps 28:3

Ps 28:3 - which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts - those who withhold truth, who do not warn the wicked and preach smooth things (1Thessalonians 5:1-3) are they who speak peace but have mischief in their hearts. See Ps 26:4, 55:21; James 3:15

Ps 28:3

Ps 28:3 - but mischief is in their heart - See Ps 7:9, 14-16

Ps 28:4

Ps 28:4 - Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavors, give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert - See Ps 7:14-16; Isa 44:25

Ps 28:5

Ps 28:5 - Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operations of His hands - Those who deny the Creation of God in its glory and worship the creature rather than the Creator are the wicked. They who do not develop a love for the truth will with their vain sciences and philosophies preach peace and safety but sudden destruction will come upon them and those who give heed to them. See Ps 19; Rom 1:18-32

Ps 28:6

Ps 28:6 - Blessed be the LORD, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications. - See Phil 4:6, 7; Ps 116:1, 2; Jer 17:14

Ps 28:9

Ps 28:9 - and lift them up for ever - Isa 11:12; Zech 9:16; Song 6:10

Ps 29:1

Ps 29:1 - Give unto the LORD, O ye mighty, give unto the LORD glory and strength. - The Lord, through the psalmist is speaking to those who think, or claim to be mighty (Psalm 29:1). The psalm is showing what true might and power looks like, that which is found only in the LORD GOD: power to make hinds calve, power to ride and walk upon waters, power to strip mighty trees bare of their bark - ALL with His voice alone!!! The psalm is calling us to stand in awe of God and His glorious majesty and it concludes with an assurance of His loving kindness and provisions towards those who He loves and who love Him. Glory to God!!

Ps 29:4

Ps 29:4 - The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is full of majesty - See Isa 55:10, 11

Ps 29:7

Ps 29:7 - The voice of the LORD divideth the flames of fire - a possible reference to God preserving his faithful in and through the fires. God, as our Kinsman Redeemer, was He Who passed through the fire, fulfilling the Vassal Covenant with us, God and the Law. See Dan 3:19-27; Isa 43:2; Gen 15:17

Ps 29:9

Ps 29:9 - The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds to calve - God gives life to all things, causing even the animals to produce their young and the command of His voice.

Ps 29:9

Ps 29:9 - and in his temple doth every one speak of his glory - as our bodies are the temple of the Holy Spirit, our lives ought to reflect His glory and speak of a God Whose counsels give life and life more abundantly. See Ex 15:26; Joh 10:10; 1Cor 6:18-20

Ps 31:10 - my years with sighing - See Jer 31:18, 19

Ps 31:10

Ps 31:10 - my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed - See Jer 31:18, 19

Ps 31:11

Ps 31:11 - I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me - The experience of being a reproach and scorned of men is one that is common to the remnant. Job experienced this in his affliction; David was reproached by many because of his sin with Bathsheba; Jesus was a despised and rejected of men (Isa 53:3).

Ps 31:13

Ps 31:13 - For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life - See Ps 27:12

Ps 32:2 - Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity - the just who live by faith are blessed of God. See Hab 2:4; Rom 1:16, 17, 4:8; Prov 12:2; 2Cor 5:19

Ps 32:2

Ps 32:2 - and in whose spirit there is no guile - willful duplicity; corruption, falsehood and lies - See Rev 14:5; Ps 51:6; Col 3:9

Ps 32:2

Ps 32:2 - guile - rmiyah Noun Feminine rem-ee-yaw' from (07411) from ; remissness, treachery:--deceit(-ful, -fully), false, guile, idle, slack, slothful. laxness, slackness, slackening, deceit, treachery See Joh 1:47 In the temple the morning and the evening sacrifice daily pointed to the Lamb of God; yet even here was no preparation to receive Him. The priests and teachers of the nation knew not that the greatest event of the ages was about to take place. They rehearsed their meaningless prayers, and performed the rites of worship to be seen by men, but in their strife for riches and worldly honor they were not prepared for the revelation of the Messiah. {DA 44.1} - See Isa 58:1-3

Ps 32:3

Ps 32:3 - When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long - The Holy Spirit, in love, convicts us of sin so that we may seek forgiveness and refuge in Christ (Prov 18:10). See Rom 2:4-6; Joh 16:8

Ps 32:4

Ps 32: 4 - for day and night thy hand was heavy upon me - See Ps 38:3, 4; 51:17; 1Pet 5:6

Ps 32:5

Ps 32:5 - mine iniquity have I not hid - See Ps 38:17, 18; 51:3-5

Ps 32:5

Ps 32:5 - I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and Thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin - See 1Jo 1:9 The Angel urges, "Let Me go, for the day breaketh," but the patriarch exclaims, "I will not let Thee go, except Thou bless me." What confidence, what firmness and perseverance, are here displayed! Had this been a boastful, presumptuous claim, Jacob would have been instantly destroyed; but his was the assurance of one who confesses his weakness and unworthiness, yet trusts the mercy of a covenant-keeping God. - {GC 616.3}

Ps 32:5

Ps 32:5 - and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin - See Ps 130:8; 1Jo 1:9, 7;

Ps 32:5

Ps 32:6

Ps 32:6 - for this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee (Isa 57:15)- the godly are one's who: 1. Acknowledge their sins before the LORD (Ps 51:3, 4) 2. Attempt not to hide them from His face, knowing they have wronged Him and are guilty 3. Confess their sins to the LORD 4. Repent of their waywardness and turn from their evil ways (Prov 28:13) 5. Seek the LORD's forgiveness and offer the sacrifice of a broken and contrite heart (Ps 40:1, 51:17) 6. Trust in the merciful and gracious LORD's forgiveness (1Jo 1:9) 7. Offer the sacrifice of joy in God's forgiveness 8. Go and sin no more (Joh 8:11)

Ps 32:6

Ps 32:6 - For this - for the great love of the Father who graciously extends forgiveness to us all, the godly will come to God and seek forgiveness of their sins, transgressions and iniquities. The love of God still yearns over the one who has chosen to separate from Him, and He sets in operation influences to bring him back to the Father's house. The prodigal son in his wretchedness "came to himself." The deceptive power that Satan had exercised over him was broken. He saw that his suffering was the result of his own folly, and he said, "How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father." Miserable as he was, the prodigal found hope in the conviction of his father's love. It was that love which was drawing him toward home.... - {CSA 12.6}

Ps 32:6

Ps 32:6 - in a time when thou mayest be found - The hour of God's judgment is the mercy hour when He is desiring all to offer up their sins so that He may graciously blot them out. Ps 40:1

Ps 40:1 - He inclined unto me and heard my cry - the LORD longs to hear the petitions of His erring, disconsolate and wayward children, calling out for mercy and forgiveness. See Ps 32:5
O, there are times, you know, when our sins seem to be so mountain-high. We are so discouraged by them. And Satan is right there ready to say, "Yes, you ought to be discouraged by them; there is no use of your praying to the Lord; he will not have anything to do with such as you are; you are too bad."... Away with such thoughts! Not only will he hear, but... the Lord is listening to hear the prayers of people laden with sin. {Wieland, Grace on Trial, pg 214}

Ps 40:2 - He brought me up also out of an horrible pit - Jesus ransomed each person from the abyss of sin and death. The righteous are they who realize God's great salvation and learn to walk in the victory won for them by Christ. See Ex 20:2

Ps 40:2

Ps 40:2 - out of an horrible pit - a place of bondage, captivity; a place of darkness and perdition. See Gen 37:24; Jer ; Rev 9:2, 11:7; 1Pet 2:9

Ps 40:2

Ps 40:2 - out of the miry clay - the dregs of sin and death are here portrayed. On a secondary note, the redeemed at the end of time will be those who are rescued from the miry clay (false religion - feet of miry clay and iron) of Babylon. See Rev 18:2-4; 1Pet 2:9

Ps 40:2

Ps 40:2 - set my feet upon a rock - Jesus is the Rock of Ages upon whom the wise build their house. See Deut 32:4; Mt 7:24; Ps 27:5, 18:2, 31; 2Sam 2:2, 22:3, 32

Ps 40:6

Ps 40:6 - mine ears hast thou opened: - Jesus has consecrated Himself eternally to the Father, as a loyal slave allows his ear to be bored by an awl, signifying his ears are eternally open to the counsel and commands of his master, so too, Jesus eternally lives to do the will of His Father. See Ex 21:6

Ps 40:7

Ps 40:7 - Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me - See Joh 5:39; Heb 10:7

Ps 40:8

Ps 40:8 - I delight to do thy will O God - See Heb 10:7, 9 It is in proportion as the heart is sanctified by grace, and filled with the active love for God and for our fellow men, that we do nothing for show or by compulsion. Those who love God do that which is pleasant for them to do, and that is to reveal God in character, and submit the whole heart to the sanctification of the truth.—The Review and Herald, October 8, 1895. - {PH048 43.6} If we consent, he [Christ] can and will so identify himself with our thoughts and aims, so blend our hearts and minds into conformity with his will, that when obeying him, we shall but carry out our own impulses. The will, refined and sanctified, will find its highest delight in doing his service.—Signs of the Times, November 19, 1896. - {PH048 44.2} Everything that we of ourselves can do is defiled by sin. But the Son of God “was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin.” Sin is defined to be “the transgression of the law.” 1Jo 3:5, 4. But Christ was obedient to every requirement of the law. He said of Himself, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God; yea, Thy law is within My heart." Ps 40:8. When on earth, He said to His disciples, "I have kept My Father's commandments." Joh 15:10. {COL 311.4}

Ps 40:8 - yea, thy law in within my heart - the essence of the New Covenant is to move the law of God from tables of stone into the tables of the heart. Jesus came to fulfill the law and make it honorable. See Jer 31:31-34; Ps 119:11; Heb 10:7

Ps 41:1 - the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble - See Ps 27:5; Dan 12:1

Ps 41:2

Ps 41:2 - The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive - See Isa 33:16

Ps 41:2

Ps 41:2 - and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies - See Jer 15:21

Ps 41:3

Ps 41:3 - The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness - In sickness, the Lord will be merciful to those who show mercy to others [the poor]. See Isa 58:7-10

Ps 41:4

Ps 41:4 - I said, LORD be merciful unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against Thee - See Ps 32:1-5; Jer 31:18-20

Ps 41:5

Ps 41:5 - Mine enemies speak evil of me, when shall he die, and his name perish? - See Ps 41:7, 8, 27:11, 12

Ps 41:5

Ps 41:5 - When shall he die, and his name perish? - See Ps 118:17

Ps 41:6

Ps 41:6 - And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it - See Ps 55:21

Ps 41:8

Ps 41:8 - An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him: and now that he lieth he shall rise up no more - See Ps 118:17

Ps 41:9

Ps 41:9 - Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me - David spoke first against Ahithophel who was his close advisor who sided with Absalom. However, prophetically, a prophecy of Christ being betrayed by Judas is here given. This prophecy will be repeated in the time of the end as the Adventist church will betray independent ministries preaching the 3rd Angel's Message and Present Truth. See Zech 11:12, 13; Mt26:15; Lk 22:21, 22; Mic 7:5, 6

Ps 41:9

Ps 41:9 - lifted up his heel against me - See Isa 58:13; Zech 11:12, 13; Dan 8:13

Ps 41:9

Ps 41:9 - Ps 41:9 - lifted up his heel against me - See Isa 58:13; Zech 11:12, 13; Dan 8:13

Ps 41:11

Ps 41:11 - By this I know that thou favourest me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me - See Ps 25:1, 2

Ps 41:12

Ps 41:12 - and settest me before Thy face for ever - See Ps 23:6

Ps 41:13

Ps 41:13 - Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen - Ps 90:1, 2; Mic 5:2; Dan 7:9

Ps 42:1

Ps 42:1 - As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God - See Ps 143:6; Hymn #460

Ps 42:2

Ps 42:2 - when shall I come and appear before God? - See Isa 25:9

Ps 42:3

Ps 42:3 - while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God? - See Ps 22:8, 42:10; Isa 5:19

Ps 42:5

Ps 42:5 - hope thou in God - See Ps 27:14

Ps 42:5

Ps 42:5 - for I shall yet praise Him for the help of His countenance - See Num 6:25

Ps 42:6

Ps 42:6 - O my God, my soul is cast down within me - See Ps 143:4, 5

Ps 42:8

Ps 42:8 - and in the night his song shall be with me - See Eph 5:19; Col 3:16

Ps 42:10

Ps 42:10 - mine enemies reproach me; while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God? - See Psa 42:3

Ps 42:11

Ps 42:11 - Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God - See Ps 42:5, 43:5

Ps 43:1

Ps 43:1 - Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation. O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man - See Ps 73:12-17; Mic 7:1-7; Isa 1:1-9

Ps 43:2

Ps 43:2 - For thou art the God of my strength - See Ps 73:25, 26

Ps 43:2

Ps 43:2 - why dost Thou cast me off? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? - See Ps 42:9

Ps 43:2

Ps 43:2 - why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? - See Ps 42:3; Mic 7:8-10

Ps 43:3

Ps 43:3 - O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me - See Ps 119:105, 23:3; Joh 17:17

Ps 43:3

Ps 43:3 - let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacle - See Isa 2:3; Mic 4:2; Ps 73:23, 24, 24:3

Ps 43:4

Ps 43:4 - Then will I go unto the alter of the LORD - The altar of the LORD is a place of refuge, a place of mercy, a place to find peace with God and answers to one's perplexities. See Ex 21:12-14

Ps 43:4

Ps 43:4 - upon the harp will I praise thee - See Eph 5:19; Col 3:16

Ps 43:5

Ps 43:5 - Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted?... - See Ps 42:5, 11; 1Sam 30:6

Ps 43:5

Ps 43:5 - hope in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God - See Ps 27:14

Ps 44:1

Ps 44:1 - We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old - the Psist is reflecting on the Lord's deliverances towards his forefathers and desiring the same would apply in his own time (v4). The psalmist is one who is bemoaning the present captivity of his people and is petitioning the Lord as mentioned in Lev 26:40-46. See Ezek 39:23-29

Ps 44:2

Ps 44:2 - How thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out - See Deut 7:13-26

Ps 44:3

Ps 44:3 - For they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a favour unto them - See Deut 32:30

Ps 44:6

Ps 44:6 - For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me. But thou hast saved us from our enemies and hast put them to shame that hated us - See Zech 4:6; Ps 20:7

Ps 44:9

Ps 44:9 - But thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies - God refused to go forth with the armies of Israel when sin was in the camp. Consider the situation with Ai and Achan. See Joshua 7; Isa 59:1, 2

Ps 44:12

Ps 44:12 - Thou sellest thy people for nought, and dost not increase thy wealth for their price - See Deut 28:33

Ps 44:14

Ps 44:14 - Thou makest us a byword among the heathen - See Deut 28:37

Ps 44:17

Ps 44:17 - All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant - the same claim is made in Joshua 7:7-11

Ps 44:21

Ps 44:21 - Shall not God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart - See Jer 11:20, 17:10; Ps 139

Ps 44:22

Ps 44:22 - Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter - See Rom 8:36

Ps 44:23

Ps 44:23 - Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord? arise, cast us not off for ever - See Ps 121:4

Ps 44:24

Ps 44:24 - Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression? - See Isa 59:2, 3

Ps 45:2

Ps 45:2 - Thou art fairer than the children of men - See Song 5:10

Ps 45:2

Ps 45:2 - grace is poured into thy lips - See Isa 40:1, 2, 61:1-3

Ps 45:4

Ps 45:4 - truth and meekness and righteousness - See Mic 6:8

Ps 45:6

Ps 45:6 - Thy throne, O God is for ever and ever, the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre. See Heb 1:8

Ps 45:7

Ps 45:7 - Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows - See Heb 1:9

Ps 45:7

Ps 45:7 - therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows - See Heb 1:9; Ps 23:5, 133:2

Ps 45:8

Ps 45:8 - All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia - possibly the fine ointment Mary anointed Jesus with - See Mt 26:7; Mk 14:3; Lk 7:37

Ps 45:10

Ps 45:10 - forget also thine own people, and thy father's house - See Gen 2:24

Ps 45:11

Ps 45:10 - for he is thy Lord; and worship thou him - See 1Pet 3:6

Ps 45:12

Ps 45:12 - And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; even the rich among thy people shall entreat thy favor - See Isa 23:8, 9; Eze 28:4, 5

Ps 46:1

Ps 46:1 - God is our refuge - See Ps 46:7; 27:5; 91:2; Prov 18:10; Isa 28:5, 6, 16

Ps 46:1

Ps 46:1 - strength, a very present help in trouble - See Isa 41:10; Ps 27:1

Ps 46:1

Ps 46:1 - a very present help - Jesus is "very present" in all of our trials because He has promised never to leave us, nor to forsake us. Ps 46:5; Mt 28:19, 20; Col 1:27, 28; Jer 23:23

Ps 46:2

Ps 46:2 - therefore will not we fear - See Isa 41:10

Ps 46:2

Ps 46:2 - though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea - The effects of the seventh seal. See Rev 6:14

Ps 46:2

Ps 46:2 - though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea - See Mt 17:20

Ps 46:3

Ps 46:3 - Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. - see Lk 21:25

Ps 46:4

Ps 46:4 - There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God - See Rev 22:1, 2

Ps 46:5

Ps 46:5 - God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early - See Lev 26:11, 12

Ps 46:5

Ps 46:5 - she shall not be moved - See Ps 16:8

Ps 46:6

Ps 46:6 - The heathen raged - See Ps 2:1

Ps 46:7

Ps 46:7 - The LORD of hosts is with us - See Ps 46:5, 11; Isa 7:14; Mt 1:23; Ex 33:16

Ps 46:8

Ps 46:8 - Come, behold the works of the LORD, what desolations he hath made in the earth - See Jer 4:23-28; Zeph 1

Ps 46:9

Ps 46:9 - He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire. - See Ps 68:30; Isa 2:4; Mic 4:3

Ps 46:10

Ps 46:10 - Be still and know that I am God - we must be still in order to hear God's "still small voice". We must be still, cease from worry and anxiety and remember that God is He Who sits on His throne; He is never disquieted by situation or circumstances we find ourselves in. See 1Kin 19:12; Isa 30:7

Ps 46:10

Ps 46:10 - I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth - See Num 14:21;

Isa 40:5, 60, 45:23; Rom 14:11; Phil 2:10, 11

Ps 46:11

Ps 46:11 - The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah. - See Ps 46:7

Ps 46:11

Ps 46:11 - the God of Jacob is our refuge - the God of Jacob is He Who stretches out Himself to embrace both heaven and earth; the God of Jacob is He Who makes a promise to be with us and to bring us back safely to our Father's house; The God of Jacob is He Who preserves us lest our enemies take advantage and triumph over us; The God of Jacob is He with Whom we wrestle, confessing our sins and of Whom we hold onto until we receive a blessing; The God of Jacob is He Who changes our name to be a Prince with God (Israel); The God of Jacob is He who satisfies us with long life and renews our youth and strength like the eagles. Gen 28:10-22, 31:36-42, 32:24-30; Ps 91:16, 103:5

Ps 47:3

Ps 47:3 - He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet - See Mal 4:3

Ps 47:5

Ps 47:5 - God is gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet - See 1Thess 4:16

Ps 48:1

Ps 48:1 - in the city of our God, in the mountain of His holiness - New Jerusalem - See Rev 21:10, 2

Ps 48:2

Ps 48 - Beautiful for situation - Mt. Zion is made glorious upon the earth because the Lord is their God. He has imparted His goodness, wisdom, protection, mercies and lovingkindness to the people so that the world glories in this holy mountain. Contrast Lam 2:15

Ps 48:2

Ps 48:2 - mount Zion, on the sides of the north - Mt Zion is also known as the Mount of the Congregation - See Isa 14:13

Ps 48:4

Ps 48:4 - the kings were assembled - the kings of the earth were assembled (confederated) on 9/11/2001 to do Israel harm but were deterred by the blowing of the East Wind, Islam. See Ps 94:20-23

Ps 48:5

Ps 48:5 - they were troubled - that which troubles (causes tribulation and distress) and angers the nations is Islam. See Rev 11:18, 2:22; Lk 21:26

Ps 48:7

Ps 48:8 - ships of Tarshish - a symbol of commerce and economic strength, wealth, merchandise, goods and products - See 2Chron 9:21, 20:36, 37; Ps 72:10; Isa 23:5-8; Eze 27:12, 25

Ps 48:7

Ps 48:7 - east wind - winds of destruction that make barren and break economic strength. A symbol of the destruction caused by radical Islam as noted on 9/11/2001. See Gen 46:22-24, 27; Ex 10:12-15; Rev 9:2-11

Ps 48:9

Ps 48:9 - We have thought of thy lovingkindness O God, in the midst of thy temple - See Ps 77:13

Ps 48:10

Ps 48:10 - According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness - See Ex 34:5-8; Rev 4:11, 5:12, 13

Ps 48:10

Ps 48:10 - thy right hand is full of righteousness - See Ps 80:17; Mt 26:64, Mk 14:62, Lk 22:69; Heb 1:3; Jer 23:5, 6 Rev 7:8- Joseph and Benjamin - "will add to me the son of His right hand" (see tract 36)

Ps 48:14

Ps 48:14 - For this God is our God for ever and ever - the Psist and the inhabitant of Zion boast in their God, the True and Living God, just as the proud sheep boats of her Shepherd. See Ps 23.

Ps 48:14

Ps 48:14 - He will be our guide even unto death - See Mt 28:20; Rev 12:11; Ps 23:3, 4

Ps 49:6

Ps 49:6 - trust in their wealth - the chapter speaks to the folly in trusting in wealth and possessions. Wealth has no power over death nor can it ransom our atonement/redemption of our souls which is "precious" (v8). We must not envy when others prosper financially because they can not take it with them in the grave... See Jam 5:1-6

Ps 49:8

Ps 49:8 - For the redemption of their soul is precious - the cost for our redemption is priceless, the precious blood of Jesus - See Heb 10:29, 30

Ps 49:12

Ps 49:12 - Nevertheless man being in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish - See Eccl 3:19-21

Ps 49:15

Ps 49:15 - But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for He shall receive me - See Job 19:25-27

Ps 49:17

Ps 49:17 - For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him - See Ecc 5:13-15

Ps 49:20

Ps 49:20 - and understandeth not - See Dan 12:10; Mic 6:8

Ps 50:1

Ps 50:1 - the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof - See Ps 33:9, 113:3; Mal 1:11

Ps 50:3

Ps 50:3 - Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before Him - God is Possessor over all heaven and earth and the cattle on a thousand hills are His. God will come to judge the people and reprove the workers of iniquity. The wicked will pay for their waywardness and will not escape. Those who keep their tongue and order their conversation will receive mercy. See Ps 66:15-18; Mal 3:1; Heb 10:37

Ps 50:3

Ps 50:3 - a fire shall devour before him - See Ps 97:3; Heb 12:29

Ps 50:3

Ps 50:3 - very tempestuous round about him - See 2Thess 1:8; Zeph 1:14-18

Ps 50:4

Ps 50:6 - that He may judge His people - we know that this speaks of Jesus, to Whom all judgment has been committed (Joh 5:27; Isa 33:22). Further, Jesus will gather all of his saints at His Second Coming from the 4 corners of the earth (Ps 50:5)

Ps 50:5

Ps 50:5 - Gather my saints together unto me - See Rev 14:14-16; Mt 3:11, 12, 24:31; Mk 13:27

Ps 50:5

Ps 50:5 - those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice - Those who have hid God's Words in their hearts that they may not sin against Him. Those who have been crucified with Christ and have died to sin and the flesh so that God may reign supremely in their hearts. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart... See Rom 12:1, 2; Mal 3:4; Gen 4:4; Gal 2:20; Ps 119:11, 51:17

Ps 50:6

Ps 50:6 - for God is judge himself - See Joh 5:22-24

Ps 50:10

Ps 50:10 - For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills - See Gen 1:24, 25; Ps 24:1; Hag 2:8; 1Chron 29:14

Ps 50:12

Ps 50:12 - for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof - Ps 89:11; 1Cor 10:26, 28; 1Chron 29:14

Ps 50:13

Ps 50:13, 14 - Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats? Offer unto God thanksgiving - See 1Sam 15:22

Ps 50:15

Ps 50:15 - And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me - See Dan 12:1

Ps 50:15

Ps 50:15 - thou shalt glorify me - whoso offereth praise glorifieth me (Ps 50:23). See Ps 40:3; Isa 60:1-3; Rev 18:1; Dan 12:4, 10

Ps 50:16

Ps 50:16 - What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth? See Act 19:13, Lk 10:19

Ps 50:17

Ps 50:17 - Seeing thou hatest instruction and castest my words behind thee - See Isa 65:12, 66:4; Jer 6:19, 7:16, 11:14, 14:12, 19:15, 22:21; Am 5:23

Ps 50:18

Ps 50:18 - When thou sawest a thief then thou consentedst with him - See Rom 1:32

Ps 50:19

Ps 50:19 - Thou givest thy mouth to evil and thy tongue frameth deceit - See Rom 1:29-31

Ps 50:20

Ps 50:20 - Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son - See 2Tim 3:1-5

Ps 50:22

Ps 50:22 - Now consider this, ye that forget God - See Rom 1:18-21

Ps 50:22

Ps 50:22 - lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver - the message of warning is given in mercy and reproof. God does not delight in the death of the wicked so He counsels them to repent. See Isa 27:4, 5

Ps 50:23

Ps 50:23 - Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me- See Mk 5:30-34; Ps 27:6 The golden opportunity had come. She was in the presence of the Great Physician! But amid the confusion she could not speak to Him, nor catch more than a passing glimpse of His figure. Fearful of losing her one chance of relief, she pressed forward, saying to herself, "If I may but touch His garment, I shall be whole." As He was passing, she reached forward, and succeeded in barely touching the border of His garment. But in that moment she knew that she was healed. In that one touch was concentrated the faith of her life, and instantly her pain and feebleness gave place to the vigor of perfect health. - {DA 343.5} With a grateful heart she then tried to withdraw from the crowd; but suddenly Jesus stopped, and the people halted with Him. He turned, and looking about asked in a voice distinctly heard above the confusion of the multitude, "Who touched Me?" The people answered this query with a look of amazement. Jostled upon all sides, and rudely pressed hither and thither, as He was, it seemed a strange inquiry. - {DA 344.1}

Ps 50:23

Ps 50:23 - Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God - See Act 10:35; Isa 56:1-7

Ps 50:23

Ps 50:23 - ordereth his conversation aright - speaks truth; orders his lifestyle aright. See Jam 3:13; Mt 12:36;

Ps 51:1

Ps 51:1 - Have mercy upon me, O God - Lord, look upon me with your heart of mercy. In spite of me, please do not cease to love me, desire and impart your good pleasure towards me.

Ps 51:1

Ps 51:1 - lovingkindness and tender mercies- See Ps 103:4

Ps 51:1

Ps 51:1 - tender mercies - Mercies granted by God out of compassion, desiring the good of the guilty and selfless love: 1. LIFE - waking us up each morning with breath, motion of our limbs and soundness of mind 2. Provision of all of our needs: food, shelter, clothing, communion with others 3. An opportunity to seek forgiveness of our iniquitous sins based on the merits of Jesus Christ 4. The privilege of being reconciled to the Father and standing un-condemned before Him 5. The privilege of having our sins blotted out for ever, never to be known or recorded again (Isa 25:8; 43:25) 6. The privilege of receiving Christ within us to dwell and abide so that we may reflect His character 7. The hope of a better life and eternal life

Ps 51:1

Ps 51:1 - blot out my transgressions - the application of this first is most relevant in our time, since October 22, 1844, when the LORD began to review the records of His people and blot out their iniquities from the books of record. See Act 3:19; Ps 51:9; Isa 43:25; Jer 31:34

Ps 51:2

Ps 51:2 - Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity - See Isa 1:18

Ps 51:2

Ps 51:2 - thoroughly - THOROUGHLY, adv. thru'ly. Completely; fully; wholly. 1. Without reserve; sincerely.

Ps 51:2

Ps 51:2 - iniquity - injustice; unrighteousness; a deviation from rectitude; as the iniquity of war, the iniquity of the slave trade (Websters 1828 Dictionary)

Ps 51:2

Ps 51:2 - cleanse me from my sin - See 1Jo 1:9

Ps 51:3

Ps 51:3 - I acknowledge my sin - See 2Sam 12:13 Prov 28:13 - He that covereth his sins shall not prosper; but who confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. Ps 32:5 - I acknowledge my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid.

Ps 51:3

Ps 51:3 - my sin is ever before me - the results of my sin are with me, they do not depart from me. See Jer 31:18, 19; Isa 59:12

Ps 51:4

Ps 51:4 - Against Thee... only have I sinned - see also: Gen 20:6 Jer 5:15 Dan 9:8 Zeph 1:17 Num 5:6 Isa 53:6 Mic 7:9

Ps 51:4

Ps 51:4 - in thy sight - see Prov 15:3

Ps 51:4

Ps 51:4 - that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest - Our sins show our wretchedness to God, the Law and the universe. God is made known to be a gracious and merciful God, Who justifies the ungodly by faith of Jesus Christ. See Isa 5:16; Rom 3:4, 4:4, 5; Rev 14:7

Ps 51:5

Ps 51:5 - shapen in iniquity - We are born in sin, meaning we are born as enemies of God, separated from Him by the sinful nature we have inherited -See also: Rom 5:17-19 Jer 13:23 Job 14:4 Joh 3:18 Jer 17:9

Ps 51:5

Ps 51:5 - conceive me - See also: Ps 58:3 Isa 48:8

Ps 51:6

Ps 51:6 - truth in the inward parts - true heart conversion; integrity and uprightness. See Rev 14:5; Rom 8:6; Isa 1:16-19; Eze 36:26, 27; 1Pet 3:21 Ps 119:11 - thy word have I hid in my heart... Matt 12:34 - Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh

Ps 51:6

Ps 51:6 - hidden part - God desires that we use our "members" in righteousness and with wisdom. See also: Rom 6:13, 19; 7:5 Matt 5:29, 30

Ps 51:7

Ps 51:7 - Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean - plant used for medicinal purposes. In the Bible, Ezob , it was used to cleanse lepers. Ps 51:7

Ps 51:7 - hyssop - ézowb Noun Masculine ay-zobe' probably of foreign derivation probably of foreign derivation; hyssop:--hyssop. hyssop, a plant used for medicinal and religious purposes

Ps 51:7

Ps 51:7 - wash me, and I will be whiter than snow - See Isa 1:18

Ps 51:8

Ps 51:8 - Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice - the gloom of my iniquities and transgressions prevent me from hearing joy and gladness. Lord restore your joy and gladness that I rejoice in the Lord. See 1Sam 12:13-20; Ps 32:4, 51:12; 1Pet 5:6; Isa 32:17

Ps 51:8

Ps 51:8 - that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice - See Ps 22:14

Ps 51:9

Ps 51:9 - Hide thy face from my sins - Lord, please do not look any more upon my sins - See Isa 38:17, 43:25

Ps 51:9

Ps 51:7 - blot out all mine iniquities - See Act 3:19; Rev 3:5; Isa 43:25; Jer 31:34

Ps 51:10

Ps 51:10 - Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me - The Psist realizes that the same creative power employed in the creation is that which brings redemption and a new heart. See Ps 51:6; Jer 31:31-35; Col 1:14, 16, 17; 2Cor 5:17; Eph 2:8-10;

Ezek 36:26; Rom 1:16, 17||1Cor 1:24||2:1-5

Ps 51:10

Ps 51:10 - renew a right spirit within me - May I walk in the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus See Rom 8:1, 2, 9-11, 13, 14; Eze 36:26, 27

Ps 51:11

Ps 51:11 - Cast me not away from thy presence - Cain departed from the presence of the Lord (Gen 4:11-16). See Ps 27:9; Lk 9:25; Hos 4:17

Ps 51:11

Ps 51:11 - take not thy Holy Spirit from me - See Ps 66:20. As men depart from the presence of the Lord, God will suffer them for a time but will eventually withdraw His Holy Spirit: Rom 1:21-32 - Taking on a reprobate mind 2Thess 2:11, 12 - Become ensnared by the wilds of the devil so that he deceive them to their destruction- (see Isa 66:4, 5) 1Sam 16:14 - Consider Saul

Ps 51:12

Ps 51:12 - Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation - See Ps 21:1, 51:8; Isa 12:3

Ps 51:12

Ps 51:12 - and uphold me with thy free spirit - where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. See John 8:31, 32, 36; Ps 17:5; 2Cor 3:17; Rom 8:1; Isa 32:17

Ps 51:13

Ps 51:13 - Then will I teach transgressors your ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee - our testimony of our past life of sin and God's gracious deliverance allows us to connect with transgressors (Isa 38:17; Ps 51:15). Our present godly example (good conversation - Jam 3:13) and simple faith will be a living witness of God's power to transform the life.

Ps 51:14

Ps 51:14 - Deliver me from bloodguiltiness - See Jon 1:14

Ps 51:14

Ps 51:14 - bloodguiltiness - Cain bore a mark showing the curse that was laid upon him. The ground would not yield its strength unto him and a fugitive and vagabond would he be upon the earth. Such was the fate of those who shed innocent blood.

Ps 51:14

Ps 51:14 - my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness - Our songs of praise, thanksgiving and joy will give account of the free spirit with which we walk. See Ps 27:

Ps 51:15

Ps 51:15 - O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise - See Ps 81:10

Ps 51:16

Ps 51:16 - For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering - See Heb 10:5; 1Sam 15:22

Ps 51:17

Ps 51:17 - The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise - See Isa 57:15

Ps 51:17

Ps 51:17 - broken spirit - God does not want outward displays of humility and burnt offerings but rather a broken spirit and broken and contrite heart. See 2Cor 7:10, 11

Ps 51:17

Ps 51:17 - contrite heart - broken-hearted for sin; deeply affected with grief and sorrow for having offended God; humble; penitent; as a contrite sinner. - See Isa 57:15

Ps 51:18

Ps 51:18 - build thou the walls of Jerusalem - See Isa 49:16; Ps 125:2

Ps 51:19

Ps 51:19 - Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar. - See Mal 3:3, 4

Ps 52:1

Ps 52 - O mighty man - the folly of the wicked who do not put their trust in God but in their riches and strengthen themselves in doing wickedness. God will destroy them and the upright will behold their folly

Ps 52:1

Ps 52:1 - the goodness of God endureth continually - See Ps 118, 136

Ps 52:6

Ps 52:6 - The righteous also shall see and fear - See Ps 91:8; Isa 65:13-15

Ps 52:6

Ps 52:6 - and shall laugh at him - See Ps 2:4

Ps 52:8

Ps 52:8 - But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God - See Lk 23:31; Rev 7:3

Ps 52:8

Ps 52:8 - I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever. - See Ps 138:7, 8

Ps 52:9

Ps 52:9 - I will wait on thy name; for it is good before thy saints. - See Ps 9:10, 20:7; Isa 50:10; Zeph 3:12

Ps 53:1

Ps 53 - There is no God - the fool says in his heart there is no God and scorns God's people (Psa 14:1). They eat up God's people. God however will destroy the wicked and deliver His people. God looks for righteousness among men and there is none. God will restore the captivity of the His people, Jacob shall rejoice and Israel shall be made glad. See Rom 1:22

Ps 53:1

Ps 53:1 - There is none that doeth good - See Rom 3:10-18

Ps 53:2

Ps 53:2 - God looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek God. - See Isa 59:14-16

Ps 53:3

Ps 53:3 - Every one of them is gone back: they are altogether become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one - See Rom 3:10-17

Ps 53:4

Ps 53:4 - who eat up my people as they eat bread: - See Ps 52:3, 4; Jam 5:1-6

Ps 53:6

Ps 53:6 - Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! Oh, that Jesus would come out of Zion, New Jerusalem. See Isa 64; Rev 22:20

Ps 53:6

Ps 53:6 - When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad. - See Eze 36:19-38; Isa 62:1-4

Ps 54:1

Ps 54:1 - judge me by thy strength - Jesus is our Advocate and His shed blood is our greatest and only defense. Jesus' strength is that which permits us to stand vindicated in judgment. Jesus is Mighty to Save. See Rev 14:7; Jer 10:24

Ps 54:2

Ps 54:2 - Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth - See Ps 27:7

Ps 54:3

Ps 54:3 - strangers are risen up against me - See Ps 27:2, 3, 12

Ps 54:4

Ps 54:4 - God is mine Helper - see Ps 27:9, 32:7

Ps 54:4

Ps 54:4 - the Lord is with them that uphold my soul - the Lord is with the righteous to uphold other saints who are oppressed and in need.

Ps 54:5

Ps 54:5 - cut them off in thy truth - the Word of God is Truth, and sharper than any two-edged sword. God's Word is that which will judge the unrighteous. See Joh 17:17; Heb 4:12; Joh 12:48

Ps 54:6

Ps 54:6 - freely sacrifice to Thee - See Ps 27:6, Rom 12:1, 2

Ps 54:6

Ps 54:6 - praise thy name for it is good - See Ps 100:1, 4, 5

Ps 54:7

Ps 54:7 - delivered me from all of my trouble - See Ps 32:7

Ps 54:7

Ps 54:7 - mine eye hath seen - See Ps 91:8

Ps 55:1

Ps 55:1 - Give ear to my prayer, O God - See Ps 27:7, 8; 54:2

Ps 55:1

Ps 55:1 - hide not thyself from my supplication - See Ps 27:9

Ps 55:3

Ps 55:3 - Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me - the wicked oppress the upright with their tongues, casting unrighteousness upon the upright [false accusations, scorn and contempt for their obedience to the Law of God] and in wrath they hate the workers of righteousness. This speaks of the oppression to be felt by the 144,000 in the day of the unrighteous decree. See Isa 10:1; Jer 30:7, 8

Ps 55:4

Ps 55:4 - My heart is sore pained within me: and the terrors of death are fallen upon me - heart anguish and fear will be the lot of the righteous in the Time of Jacob's Trouble. See Gen 32:7; Jer 30:7

Ps 55:4

Ps 55:4 - and the terrors of death are fallen upon me - See Ps 23:4

Ps 55:7

Ps 55:7 - Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness - the wilderness is a place of refuge and seclusion. Unlike the city where there is violence, strife, mischief, sorrow, wickedness, deceit and guile. See Ps 55:9-11; Rev 12:6

Ps 55:8

Ps 55:8 - I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest - the winds of strife that are to blow upon the earth are here referenced. The wilderness, away from the cities, is a refuge from the storms that are soon to come. See Rev 7:1-3

Ps 55:9

Ps 55:9 - for I have seen violence and strife in the city - the cities are hotbeds of violence, corruption, mischief, sorrow and evil. See Ps 55:10; Contrast Rev 12:6; Ps 55:7

Ps 55:10

Ps 55:10 - Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it - the psalmist describes the sin and iniquity among his own people, the injustices and scheming done by the people of God. See Isa 59:1-15

Ps 55:12

Ps 55:12-14 - for it was not an enemy - betrayal of a friend is more painful and cruel than the hatred of an enemy. This is both a Messianic prophecy and a foretelling of the plight of the righteous during the Time of Trouble (v20, 21). See also: Joh 6:70, 71 Mt 26:14-16 Lk 22:21-23 Zech 13:6; 11:12, 13 Mic 7:6 Mt 10:36; 17:22 2Tim 3:1-5; Lk 12:51-53

Ps 55:13

Ps 55:13 - But it was thou, a man mine equal, my guide, and mine acquaintance - the Psist is feeling the pangs of pain from rebellion, treachery and betrayal. David felt the betrayal from Absalom, his son (2Sam 15, 16), Ahithophel, Bathsheba's grandfather (2Sam 15:12, 31), Joab, his nephew and others. We all have betrayed Christ and it pains Him as we do.

Ps 55:15

Ps 55:15 - Let death seize upon them, and let them go down quick into hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them - See 2Sam 17:1-23

Ps 55:16

Ps 55:16 - As for me, I will call upon God; and the LORD shall save me. See Act 2:21; Gen 4:26

Ps 55:17

Ps 55:17 - evening and morning and noon - we are to call upon the Lord at least three times a day and rest assured of His deliverance from sin and the snares of the enemy. See Dan 6:10; Lk 1:8-10; 1Thess 5:17

Ps 55:17

Ps 55:15 - and he shall hear my voice - See Isa 65:24

Ps 55:18

Ps 55:18 - He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me: for there were many with me - God delivered the righteous from all those who warred against him. See Ps 55:22

Ps 55:19

Ps 55:19 - Because they have no changes, therefore they fear not God - See Ps 73:2-16 may possibly mean: 1. They have no struggles and strife in life, therefore they fear not God 2. They do not change their wicked ways and therefore have no fear of God

Ps 55:20

Ps 55:20, 21 - He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him: he hath broken his covenant - conspiracy of "friends"; betrayal - (see v12-14). See Ps 7:4, 35:7, 19, 55:12-14, 69:4, 109:3, 119:78, 161

Ps 55:21

Ps 55:21 - The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart - See Dan 11:27; Ps 26:4, 41:6-8; Jam 3:14-16

Ps 55:21

Ps 55:21 - yet were they drawn swords - to be in contention, to be at strife and at war. Their smooth words were actually swords drawn to destroy. See Isa 5:18

Ps 55:22

Ps 55:22 - cast thy burden upon the LORD, and He shall sustain thee - See 1Pet 5:7 Mt 6:30-34, 14:31 Isa 41:10 Ps 62:6

Ps 55:22

Ps 55:22 - burden - a heavy load, a weight, a care or concern, a trial. See Mt 11:28, 29

Ps 55:22

Ps 55:22 - sustain - to preserve, to uphold, to maintain, to quicken, to bear one up. See Ps 3:5

Ps 55:22

Ps 55:22 - he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved - God is faithful to uphold those who put their trust in Him. See Joshua 1:5, 9; Heb 10:23, 12:26, 27; Ps 125:1, 119:165, 16:8, 55:18

Ps 55:22

Ps 55:22 - the righteous - the weak, the ungodly, the sinner who by faith (Heb 11:1, 6) embrace the promises of God (Rom 4:4, 5): His Words and His promises (Gen 15:6). Those who through the power of the Holy Spirit that abides in them, keep the commandments of God (Rev 14:12, 22:14). Those who the strength of Jesus Christ, forsake the world and all of its allurements, walking in the paths of righteousness for Christ's name sake (Ps 23:3; Jer 6:16).

Ps 55:23

Ps 55:23 - bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days - See 2Sam 3:27-37; 1Kin 2:6

Ps 56:1

Ps 56 - a plea for mercy from the Lord because of the workers of iniquity who: 1. fight against me - v2 2. Seek to swallow me up - v2 3. Wrest my words and devise evil thoughts towards me - v5 4. Gather themselves together, hide to ambush - v6

Ps 56:2

Ps 56:2 - Mine enemies would daily swallow me up - See Ps 27:2

Ps 56:3

Ps 56:3 - What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee - See Joshua 1:5; Ezek 3:9; Heb 13:6

Ps 56:4

Ps 56:4 - In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust; I will not fear what flesh can do unto me - See Ps 56:11; Heb 13:6

Ps 56:5

Ps 56:5 - Every day they wrest my words: all their thoughts are against me for evil - the Pharisees hypocritically wrested Jesus' words and works to make Him look bad and themselves good. Mt 22:15-18; 2Pet 3:16

Ps 56:8

Ps 56:8 - put thou my tears into thy bottle: are they not in thy book? - See Mal 3:16

Ps 56:8

Ps 56:8 - are they not in thy book - God has a Book of Record where He captures every tear and heartache we endure. See: Mal 3:16

Ps 56:9

Ps 56:9 - When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies turn back: this I know; for God is for me. - See Rom 8:31, 33

Ps 56:11

Ps 56:11, 12 - I will not be afraid - the person who puts his trust in God does not fear what men may do to them (v3, 4). They trust in God's promises (vows). See Ps 56:4; Heb 13:6

Ps 56:12

Ps 56:12 - Thy vows are upon me, O God: I will render praises unto thee - the Psist claims the promises of God as his own and thus praises Him. See Gen 3:15

Ps 56:13

Ps 56:13 - delivered my soul from death - See Ps 23:3

Ps 56:13

Ps 56:13 - wilt not thou deliver my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living? - A powerful truism! If God can deliver our souls from death, is He not also able to keep us from falling and to present us before His throne of grace in His righteousness? See Ju 1:24; Zeph 3:13

Ps 57:1

Ps 57 - a plea for mercy because I have placed my trust in the Lord. God will send down blessings of truth and mercy upon me. My heart is fixed in serving/trusting the Lord. I will sing praises unto Him, I will glorify His name because His mercy is great unto the heavens and His truth unto the clouds. Psa 25:1, 2

Ps 57:1

Ps 57:1 - shadow of thy wings - See Ps 91:1; Contrast Mt 23:37

Ps 57:1

Ps 57:1 - until these calamities be overpast - See Isa 26:20, 21, 46; Rev 16, 18:2-24

Ps 57:2

Ps 57:2 - God that performeth all things for me - See Ps 103:1-5

Ps 57:3

Ps 57:3 - He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swallow me up - See Ps 27:2

Ps 57:3

Ps 57:3 - God shall send forth His mercy and His truth - the Spirit of discernment, of counsel and of truth will guide the steps of the righteous.

Ps 57:4

Ps 57:4 - the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword - the sons of men are they who follow in the footsteps of their father Cain. Cain was a murderer from the beginning, like his father the devil. See Gen 6:2; Joh 8:44; Ps 55:21, 22, 59:7

Ps 57:5

Ps 57:5 - Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; let thy glory be above all the earth - See Ps 57:11

Ps 58:3

Ps 58:3 - they go astray - See Isa 53:6

Ps 58:6

Ps 58:6 - break out the great teeth of the young lions, O LORD. - See Ps 57:4

Ps 58:8

Ps 58:8 - As a snail which melteth, let every one of them pass away: - See Mal 4:1, 3

Ps 58:9

Ps 58:9 - Before your pots can feel the thorns - Unconfirmed meaning behind the words given but by implication, before one can be affected by the thorns/barbs of the enemy, the Lord will deliver.

Ps 58:9

Ps 58:9 - take them away as with a whirlwind - See Isa 40:24

Ps 58:10

Ps 58:10 - The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance - See Ps 91:8, 37:34

Ps 58:11

Ps 58:11 - Verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily he is a God that judgeth in the earth - It pays to serve God, it pays every day!!! See Ps 73:1-28

Ps 59:1

Ps 59 - deliver me from mine enemies - a prayer of deliverance from the mighty workers of iniquity who: 1. Wait for my soul 2. They run and prepare themselves without my fault 3. Walk around the city howling as dogs 4. Swords are in their lips God will destroy the wicked and punish them for the sins of their mouth and the words of their lips. Yet I will sing aloud for God's mercy and the refuge and defense He has been in the day of my trouble

Ps 59:3

Ps 59:3 - For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: the mighty are gathered against me; not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD. - the wicked are not vexed because of the sins of the righteous, they hate without a cause. See Ps 35:7, 69:4; Act 23:12-14, 21

Ps 59:5

Ps 59:5 - be not merciful to any wicked transgressors - See Jer 18:23

Ps 59:7

Ps 59:7 - swords are in their lips - See Ps 57:4

Ps 59:7

Ps 59:7 - for who, say they, doth hear? - See Isa 5:19; Eze 8:12, 9:9, 12:22; Eccl 8:11; 2Pet 3:4; Ps 73:11, 90:8; Jer 17:15; Rom 1:21

Ps 59:10

Ps 59:10 - God shall let me see my desire upon mine enemies - See Ps 91:8

Ps 59:13

Ps 59:13 - Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be - See Mal 4:3

Ps 59:16

Ps 59:16 - for thou hast been my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble - See Ps 27:5

Ps 59:17

Ps 59:17 - Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing: for God is my defence - See Ps 28:7

Ps 59:17

Ps 59:17 - the God of my mercy - See Ps 59:10

Ps 60:1

Ps 60 - a psalm of petition to the LORD after the people have been cast off and scattered by their enemies. God identifies His feelings towards the nations: 1. Schechem will be divided and mete out the valley of Succoth 2. God claims Gilead, Manasseh and Ephraim as His own and the strength of His head 3. Judah is the Lord's lawgiver 4. Moab is the Lord's washpot 5. God will cast His foot upon Edom 6. Philistia will triumph in the Lord

Ps 60:3

Ps 60:3 - thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment - See Jer 19:3; Isa 30:20

Ps 60:4

Ps 60:4 - Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth - See Song 6:10

Ps 60:7

Ps 60:7 - Judah is my lawgiver - See Gen 49:8-12

Ps 60:11

Ps 60:11 - for vain is the help of man - See Jer 17:5, 6

Ps 61:2

Ps 61:2 - rock that is higher than I - We are to turn to the Rock of strength that is above us when we feel overwhelmed. See Ps 62:2, 6, 7. See Hymn #303 Beneath the Cross of Jesus vs 1

Ps 67:5

Ps 67:5-7 - Let the people praise thee - Praise actuates the blessings of the Lord and exalts His name throughout the earth.

Ps 68:1

Ps 68:1 - Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him - God is to be praised for His mighty works, His loving kindnesses, His tender mercies to the children of men and His awesome power. We must sing praises to Him and forget not all His benefits. God is a just avenger of the wicked and the workers of iniquity. He will wound His enemies and His people will rejoice in His presence.

Ps 68:2

Ps 68:2 - As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God - See Mal 4:3; Ps 37:20, 112:10

Ps 68:5

Ps 68:5 - A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows - See Deut 10:17, 18; Eze 16:4-6

Ps 68:6

Ps 68:6 - God setteth the solitary in families - God puts those who will have to stand alone in faith for righteousness in families in order to draw out those who are bound. The rebellious remain in bondage. God makes family among His people for those who have no family. Praise you Lord!!! See Isa 54:1; Jam 1:27

Ps 68:6

Ps 68:6 - he bringeth out those which are bound in chains - God uses the solitary, the one scorned, the one who is as an outcast, to deliver those who are bound in sin. See Isa 58:6, 61:1

Ps 68:6

Ps 68:6 - but the rebellious dwell in a dry land - See Jer 17:5, 6

Ps 77:2 - In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: my soul ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted - the physical anguish brought about mental and emotional distress. The reverse applies as well.

Ps 77:3

Ps 77:3 - I remembered God, and was troubled: I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed - If we remember God, we ought to find peace in Him, rather than murmur and complain. Later in the chapter (v11 onward), as the psalmist remembers to glorify the Lord for His mighty wonders, one may sense a change in his disposition.

Ps 77:4

Ps 77:4 - Thou holdest mine eyes waking - the psalmist is troubled in the night such that he can not sleep.

Ps 77:6

Ps 77:6 - I commune with mine own heart: and my spirit made diligent search - See Ps 77:11, 12; Lk 21:19; Rom 8:16

Ps 77:7

Ps 77:7-9 - Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more? - See Ps 74:11, 51:11; Isa 28:24-29

Ps 77:8

Ps 77:8 - doth his promise fail for evermore? - See Num 23:19

Ps 77:10

Ps 77:10 - And I said, This is my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the most High - the psalmist is racked with self-loathing. See 2Sam 16:10-12; Jer 31:18-20

Ps 77:10

Ps 77:10 - but I will remember the years of the right hand of the most High - the psalmist remembers the days of strength, delliverance, provision and protection from the LORD and this is his encouragement. See Ps 16:11, 17:7, 18:35, 20:6, 48:10, 60:5, 63:8

Ps 77:11

Ps 77:11 - I will remember the works of the LORD: surely I will remember thy wonders of old - The psalmist chose to remember the Lord and His mighty works and thus encouraged himself in the Lord. See Ps 77:5; 1Sam 30:6

Ps 77:12

Ps 77:12 - I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings - See Ps 77:6

Ps 77:13

Ps 77:13 - Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary - See Ex 15:17; 25:8, 9; Ps 48:9, 63:2, 68:24, 26:8
The sanctuary in Heaven is the very center of Christ's work in behalf of men. It concerns every soul living upon the earth. It opens to our view the plan of redemption, bringing us down to the very close of time, and revealing the triumphant issue of the contest between righteousness and sin. It is of the utmost importance that all who have received the light, both old and young, should thoroughly investigate these subjects, and be able to give an answer to every one that asketh them a reason of the hope that is in them. - {4SP 313.1}
Satan was seeking to shut out from men a knowledge of God, to turn their attention from the temple of God, and to establish his own kingdom. His strife for supremacy had seemed to be almost wholly successful. It is true that in every generation God had His agencies. Even among the heathen there were men through whom Christ was working to uplift the people from their sin and degradation. But these men were despised and hated. Many of them suffered a violent death. The dark shadow that Satan had cast over the world grew deeper and deeper. - {DA 35.1}

Ps 77:14 - Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people - 1. The Creation, calling all things into existence 2. The Plan of Redemption 3. The Flood and mankind's deliverance 4.

Ps 77:15

Ps 77:15 - Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph -
See Ex 19:3, 4, 20:1, 2

Ps 77:16

Ps 77:19 - The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee; they were afraid - Mk 4:39

Ps 77:19

Ps 77:19 - Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not known - See Is 43:16, 19; Mt 14:25, 26; Mk 6:48, 49

Ps 77:20

Ps 77:20 - Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron - God went before Moses and Aaron and made a path for the people to walk upon in the waters - See Isa 43:16; Ps 23:1, 2; Joh 10:1-18

Ps 78:2

Ps 78:2 - I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old: - See Mt 13:3-35; Lk 10:26-37

Ps 78:2

Ps 78:2 - dark sayings - secret/hidden says. See Mt 13:35

Ps 78:4

Ps 78:4 - We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done - the Lord instructed Israel to remind their children of the works of the Lord. It is their neglect of doing so that the generation arose after entering the Promised Land that did not know their God and worshipped the gods of the land. See Judges 2:10

Ps 78:5

Ps 78:5 - For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children: - See Deut 4:9, 10

Ps 78:13

Ps 78:13 - He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as an heap - Ex 14:21, 22

Ps 78:14

Ps 78:14 - In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire - See Ex 13:21

Ps 78:15

Ps 78:15 - He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths. - See Num 20:11; Ps 78:20

Ps 78:17

Ps 78:17 - And they sinned yet more against him by provoking the most High in the wilderness. - See Num 11:1, 2

Ps 78:18

Ps 78:18 - And they tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust - See Ex 16:12, 13; Num 11:4-6, 10

Ps 78:19

Ps 78:19 - Yea, they spake against God; they said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness? - See Mal 3:13-15 It is the grace of God on the small portion that makes it all-sufficient. God's hand can multiply it a hundredfold. From His resources He can spread a table in the wilderness. By the touch of His hand He can increase the scanty provision and make it sufficient for all. It was His power that increased the loaves and corn in the hands of the sons of the prophets.... - {CC 226.5} When the Lord gives a work to be done, let not men stop to inquire into the reasonableness of the command or the probable result of their efforts to obey. The supply in their hands may seem to fall short of the need to be filled; but in the hands of the Lord it will prove more than sufficient. The servitor "set it before them, and they did eat, and left thereof, according to the word of the Lord." ... - {CC 226.6}

Ps 78:20

Ps 78:20 - Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people? - after God had shown so many miracles, including bringing water that fed all of Israel from a rock, they provoked God by questioning whether He can "give bread also? can He provide flesh for His people?". The question was contemptuous and showed ingratitude as God gave the people angels' food and yet they murmured and complained. See Ps 78:22-25, 41, 105:41

Ps 78:22

Ps 78:22 - Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation - See Joh 6:30, 31; Heb 3:16-4:2

Ps 78:24

Ps 78:24 - And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven - See Ex 16:14-31; Num 11:7-9

Ps 78:28

Ps 78:28 - And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations - See Num 11:31, 32

Ps 78:31

Ps 78:31 - The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of Israel - Num 11:33

Ps 78:36

Ps 78:36 - Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues - See Isa 29:13, 58:2-4;

Ps 78:38

Ps 78:38 - But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not - See Joshua 7:26; Ps 85:3; Isa 12:1

Ps 78:44

Ps 78:44 - And had turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, that they could not drink - Ex 7:21, 22

Ps 78:45

Ps 78:45 - He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them - See Ex 8:24

Ps 78:45

Ps 78:45 - and frogs, which destroyed them - See Ex 8:5, 6

Ps 78:46

Ps 78:46 - He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, and their labour unto the locust - See Ex 10:1-15

Ps 78:47

Ps 78:47 - He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycomore trees with frost - Ex 9:13-26

Ps 78:49

Ps 78:49 - by sending evil angels among them - God is ruler over heaven, earth and all things and caused evil angels to trouble Pharaoh and the Egyptians

Ps 78:49

Ps 78:49 - sending evil angels among them - God is ruler over heaven, earth and all things and caused evil angels to trouble Pharaoh and the Egyptians - See 2Kin

Ps 78:50

Ps 78:50 - He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence - See Ex 9:8-12

Ps 78:52

Ps 78:52 - But made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock. - See Ps 77:20

Ps 78:53

Ps 78:53 - And he led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the sea overwhelmed their enemies - See Ex 14:21-31

Ps 78:54

Ps 78:54 -

Ps 78:55

Ps 78:55 - He cast out the heathen also before them - Ex 23:27-33

Ps 78:56

Ps 78:60 - Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies - See Judges 3:1-8

Ps 78:60

Ps 78:60 - So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men - See Ex 25:8; Josh 18:1; Jer 12:7

Ps 78:61

Ps 78:61 - delivered his strength into captivity - the strength and glory of God, reflected in the Ark of the Covenant was taken captive and given into the hands of God's enemies because of Israel's rebellion. See 1Sam 4:4-12

Ps 78:61

Ps 78:61 - and his glory into the enemy's hand - See 1Sam 4:41; 5:1

Ps 78:72

Ps 78:72 - So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart - See Ps 51; 139

Ps 79:1

Ps 79:1-5 - the heathen are come into thine inheritance - a possible prophetic allusion to the destruction of Jerusalem at the hands of the Babylonians and the Rom - See Deut 28:15-68

Ps 80:1

Ps 80:1 - Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubims - See Ps 23:1; Joh 10:11, 12

Ps 80:1

Ps 80:1 - shine forth - See Mt 4:16

Ps 80:5

Ps 80:5 - Thou feedest them with the bread of tears; and givest them tears to drink in great measure - See Isa 30:20

Ps 80:8

Ps 80:8 - Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it - See Isa 5:1, 2; Lk 20:9

Ps 80:9

Ps 80:9 - Thou preparedst room before it, and didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land -

Ps 80:12

Ps 80:12 - Why hast thou then broken down her hedges, so that all they which pass by the way do pluck her? - See Isa 5:5; Joshua 24:19, 20

Ps 80:15

Ps 80:15 - and the branch that thou madest strong for thyself - the BRANCH is Christ. See Ps 80:17; Zech 6:12, 13

Ps 80:17

Ps 80:17 - Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand - See Isa 53:10; Act 5:31

Ps 81:5

Ps 81:5 - This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out through the land of Egypt - Joseph made provision that his family should not dwell among the Egyptians and become corrupted by their ways. He separated them and placed them in the land of Goshen so that there would be no strange gods among them. See Ps 81:8-16; Gen 46:31-34

Ps 81:6

Ps 81:6 - I removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands were delivered from the pots - See Ex 19:4

Ps 81:7

Ps 81:7 - I proved thee at the waters of Meribah - See Ex 17:1-7

Ps 81:9

Ps 81:9 - There shall no strange god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange god - Had the COI driven out all the heathen from the land of promise, there would not have been any strange God's among them. See Ex 20:2-6; Judges 1:21-33

Ps 81:10

Ps 81:10 - I am the LORD thy God that brought thee out of the land of Egypt - See Ex 20:2

Ps 81:10

Ps 81:10 - open thy mouth wide and I will fill it - See Eph 6:18-20; Ps 119:11, 71:8; Lk 12:11, 12; Rev 12:11; Mt 4:1-4; Isa 51:16; Mk 13:11; Isa 59:21, 57:19

Ps 81:11

Ps 81:11 - But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me - Rather than driving out the Amorites (the tribes that inhabited the land of promise), the COI when strong, compromised, allowing them to remain in the land and putting them under tribute. Their presence would soon become a snare to the COI. See Ps 81:13-16; Judges 1:28-33; Gen 15:16 || Judges 1:34, 35; Eze 28:20-24

Ps 81:12

Ps 81:12 - and they walked in their own counsels - See Prov 14:12, 16:25

Ps 81:14

Ps 81:14 - God purposed that the COI drive out all the "Amorites" (See Gen 15:16, 18-21) lest they become a snare, but Israel allowed them to remain and therefore were caught up in their idolatry.

Ps 81:15

Ps 81:15 - The haters of the LORD should have submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever - God extended mercy and grace to those who despised and hated Him. See Isa 27:4, 5; Eze 33:11; 2Chron 12:5-7, 12; Jam 4:7, 8

Ps 82:1

Ps 82:1 - he judgeth among the gods - leadership in Israel lauded themselves as gods above the people. Therefore, God will judge these who act as gods (Ps 82:6, Joh 10:34). He will judge us in righteousness.

Ps 82:2

Ps 82:2 - How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? - See Isa 59:2-15

Ps 82:4

Ps 82:4 - Deliver the poor and needy - See Job 29:12

Ps 82:4

Ps 82:4 - rid them out of the hand of the wicked - See Job 24:1-9

Ps 82:5

Ps 82:5 - They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness - such is the fate of the wicked. See Dan 12:10

Ps 82:6

Ps 82:6 - I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High - Jesus quotes this verse when accused of the Pharisees of claiming to be the Son of God. See Joh 10:34; 1Cor 8:5

Ps 82:8

Ps 82:8 - for thou shalt inherit all nations - Jesus' inheritance are all nations, kindreds tongues and people who inhabit the earth. See Rev 14:6; Zech 2:11

Ps 83:1

Ps 83:1 - Keep not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God - See Ps 119:126

Ps 83:2

Ps 83:2 - make a tumult - The Jewish nation was created after WWII to incite and provoke conflict in the Middle East.

Ps 83:2

Ps 83:2 - lifted up the head - the Papacy is the head that is lifted up by the 10 Kings (UN). See Ps 27:6

Ps 83:3

Ps 83:3 - They have taken crafty counsel against thy people - the kings of the earth were poised to issue a Sunday Law on 9/11/2001 but were affrighted by the blowing east wind. See Ps 48:4-6, 94:20-23

Ps 83:3

Ps 83:3 - hidden ones - they that dwell in the secret place of the Most High (Ps 91:1). The hidden ones constitute God's "glorious holy mountain" against whom the King of the North, with the 10 Kings of Rev 17, will marshal the world (seas). See Zeph 2:1-3; Isa 26:20 I saw the nominal church and nominal Adventists, like Judas, would betray us to the Catholics to obtain their influence to come against the truth. The saints then will be an obscure people, little known to the Catholics; but the churches and nominal Adventists who know of our faith and customs (for they hated us on account of the Sabbath, for they could not refute it) will betray the saints and report them to the Catholics as those who disregard the institutions of the people; that is, that they keep the Sabbath and disregard Sunday. - {SpM 1.5} When trees without fruit are cut down as cumberers of the ground, when multitudes of false brethren are distinguished from the true, then the hidden ones will be revealed to view, and with hosannas range under the banner of Christ. Those who have been timid and self-distrustful will declare themselves openly for Christ and His truth. The most weak and hesitating in the church will be as David—willing to do and dare. The deeper the night for God's people, the more brilliant the stars. Satan will sorely harass the faithful; but, in the name of Jesus, they will come off more than conquerors. Then will the church of Christ appear "fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners." - {5T 81.2} These were driven by the storm and tempest of persecution to the crevices of the rocks, but were hiding in the Rock of Ages; and in the fastnesses of the mountains, in the caves and dens of the earth, the Saviour reveals His presence and His glory. Yet a little while, and He that is to come will come and will not tarry. His eyes as a flame of fire penetrate into the fast-closed dungeons and hunt out the hidden ones, for their names are written in the Lamb's book of life. These eyes of the Saviour are above us, around us, noting every difficulty, discerning every danger; and there is no place where His eyes cannot penetrate, no sorrows and sufferings of His people where the sympathy of Christ does not reach.... - {That I May Know Him 360.3}

Ps 83:4

Ps 83:4, 5 - Come and let us cut them off - See Ps 2:1-3, 94:20, 21; Isa 8:12

Ps 83:5

Ps 83:5 - for they have consulted together with one consent - a confederacy of 10 kingdoms have plotted against God's people. See Rev 17:13; Isa 8:9, 12, 13; Zech 12:3

Ps 83:15

Ps 83:15 - So persecute them with thy tempest, and make them afraid with thy storm - See Job 38:22, 23

Ps 83:15

Ps 83:15 - tempest and storm - the Sunday Law, overflowing scourge. See Isa 28:15, 17-19

Ps 83:17

Ps 83:17 - Let them be confounded and troubled for ever - See Zeph 1:17, 18; Isa 8:19-22

Ps 83:18

Ps 83:18 - JEHOVAH - Yhovah Proper Name yeh-ho-vaw' from (01961) from ; (the) self-Existent or Eternal; Jehovah, Jewish national name of God:--Jehovah, the Lord. Compare , . Jehovah = "the existing One" the proper name of the one true God unpronounced except with the vowel pointings of 0136

Ps 84:1

Ps 84:1 - How amiable are thy tabernacles - the true tabernacle which God has pitched and not man. See Heb 8:2

Ps 84:2

Ps 84:2 - My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the LORD - See Ps 27:4

Ps 84:3

Ps 84:3 - Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young - The LORD has made provision and an abode for even the birds of the air, the sparrow and swallow. Yet, Jesus left the glory of heaven to come to a dark world where he had no house or place to lay His head. See Mt 8:20

Ps 84:4

Ps 84:4 - Blessed are they that dwell in thy house - See Ps 23:6; Zech 3:7

Ps 84:4

Ps 84:4 - they will be still praising thee - For the joy set before Him, Jesus endured the suffering and shame of a life here on earth and then the cross so that we may dwell forever in His presence and that our praises may ascend to Him eternally. See Heb 12:1, 2; Ps 27:6

Ps 84:5

Ps 84:5 - Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of them. - See Jer 17:7, 8; Ps 1:1, 2, 23:1; Prov 18:10

Ps 84:6

Ps 84:6 - valley of Baca - "Valley of weeping"

Ps 84:7

Ps 84:7 - They go from strength to strength - By faith of Jesus Christ, the righteous go from their mere mortal strength to the omnipotent strength and power of God. See Phil 4:13; Joh 15:5; Deut 33:25

Ps 84:9

Ps 84:9 - O God our shield - See Ps 91:4

Ps 84:9

Ps 84:9 - look upon the face of thine anointed - As the Father looks to His Son who ever lives to make intercession for each of us, He offers abounding pardon to the children of grace. No man comes to the Father but by the Son. Joh 14:6

Ps 84:10

Ps 84:10 - for a day in thy courts is better than a thousand - the affirmation of the psalmist that one day in God's presence far exceeds a thousand days spent in the meaningless indulgences and pleasures of life, bears special significance for the weekly Sabbath day. Each 7th day mankind has the distinct privilege of being in the presence of the LORD, to be sanctified by Him (Ex 31:13; Eze 20:12, 20). In the Sabbath we have affirmation of our forgiveness and redemption in Christ and a foretaste of our eternal rest, never to be parted from the LORD. See Ps 27:4

Ps 85:6

Ps 85:6 - Wilt thou not revive us again: that thy people may rejoice in thee? - See Ezek 37:1-10; Hymn 475 - Balm in Gilead Revive Us Again - Hymn: We praise Thee, O God! For the Son of Thy love, For Jesus Who died, And is now gone above. Refrain: Hallelujah! Thine the glory. Hallelujah! Amen. Hallelujah! Thine the glory. Revive us again. We praise Thee, O God! For Thy Spirit of light, Who hath shown us our Savior, And scattered our night. All glory and praise To the Lamb that was slain, Who hath borne all our sins, And hath cleansed every stain. All glory and praise To the God of all grace, Who hast brought us, and sought us, And guided our ways. Revive us again; Fill each heart with Thy love; May each soul be rekindled With fire from above.

Ps 86:4 - unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul. - See Ps 25:1

Ps 86:5

Ps 86:5 - For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee - See Heb 4:16; Jam 5:11; Isa 27:4, 5

Ps 86:5

Ps 86:5 - plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee - See Jer 33:3

Ps 86:7

Ps 86:7 - In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me - See Heb 4:16

Ps 86:8

Ps 86:8 - Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord; neither are there any works like unto thy works - See Ex 15:11, 20:11; Isa 46:9, 10, 44:8; Jer 10:10-12

Ps 86:9

Ps 86:9 - All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name. - See Phil 2:9-11; Rev 15:4, 21:24-26; Ps 66:4; Isa 60:1-12

Ps 86:10

Ps 86:10 - For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: - See Rom 1:20

Ps 86:10

Ps 86:10 - thou art God alone. - Isa 46:9; Rev 15:4

Ps 86:11

Ps 86:11 - Teach me thy way, O LORD - Ps 27:11, 51:7-12, 119:33; Lk 11:1

Ps 86:11

Ps 86:12 - unite my heart to fear thy name - join my heart to You Lord so that I may fear Your name. The psalmist recognizes his utter dependence upon God. He cannot fear or serve God unless God aligns his heart and mind to serve Him. See Hymn #334, Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing, verse 3 - here's my heart...

Ps 86:11

Ps 86:11 - unite - yachad Verb yaw-khad' a primitive root a primitive root; to be (or become) one--join, unite. to join, unite, be joined, be united (Qal) to be united (Piel) to unite

Ps 86:12

Ps 86:12 - I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore - See Mk 12:30, 31

Ps 86:15 - truth - See Ex 34:6; Joh 14:6, 1:14

Ps 86:17

Ps 86:17 - Shew me a token for good; that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed - See Ps 23:5, 27:6; Mic 7:10

Ps 87:2

Ps 87:1 - The LORD loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob - 1Kin 11:13, 32, 36; 2Kin 21:7, 23:27; 2Chron 33:7

Ps 87:3

Ps 87:3 - Glorious things are spoken of thee - See Hymn 423

Ps 87:4

Ps 87:4 - Rahab - meaning insolent one. A poetical reference to Egypt, the proud nation that defied the Holy God and were punished. See Isa 51:9, 10; Ps 89:10

Ps 87:4

Ps 87:4 - Babylon - another great city like Egypt, Babylon too is known for its oppression of God's people and keeping them in captivity.

Ps 87:4

Ps 87:4 - this man was born there - The LORD will not forget His saints, but remembers everything about them, even where they were born. Thus He will resurrect the righteous and grant to them His covenant of peace. See Ps 87:5, 6; Mal 3:16; Psa 112:6

Ps 87:5

Ps 87:5 - the highest himself shall establish her - See Joel 3:16-18, 20, 21

Ps 87:6

Ps 87:6 - The LORD shall count - See Mal 3:17; Rev 7:4

Ps 87:6

Ps 87:6 - The LORD shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there. Selah - God has a book of remembrance regarding our place of origin, and the influences that go to make up our characters. See Malachi 3:16; Ps 112:6; Hymn #216 When the Roll is Called Up Yonder

Ps 87:7

Ps 87:7 - all my springs are in thee - See Joel 3:18

Ps 88:8

Ps 88:8 - Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth - as an outcast, even as a leper under a curse, the psalmist feels alienated from his acquaintances and loved ones. See Ps 88:18

Ps 88:10

Ps 88:10 - Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise and praise thee? Selah - See Eccl 9:5, 6

Ps 88:13

Ps 88:13 - prevent - to go before, to precede as something unexpected. See 1Thess 4:15

Ps 88:18

Ps 88:18 - Lover and friend hast thou put far from me, and mine acquaintance into darkness - See Ps 88:8

Ps 89:2

Ps 89:2 - For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens - as our eternal High Priest, Jesus ever lives to make intercession for us. See Heb 7:24, 25

Ps 89:3

Ps 89:3 - I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant - See 2Sam 7; Jer 33:21

Ps 89:4

Ps 89:4 - Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations - Jesus' kingdom shall be established forever. See 2Sam 7:12, 13; Rev 11:15

Ps 89:9 - Thou rulest the raging of the sea - See Isa 43:2; Ps 93:4

Ps 89:9

Ps 89:9 - when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them - See Mk 4:39; Ps 93:4

Ps 89:10

Ps 89:10 - Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces - Egypt has been broken

Ps 89:11

Ps 89:11 - The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them - See Ps 24:1-3, 50:12; 1Cor 10:26, 28

Ps 89:14

Ps 89:14 - Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne - God's throne is founded on justice and judgment (equity/fairness), where as the throne of enemy is iniquity. See Ps 94:20 Justice and Mercy stood apart, in opposition to each other, separated by a wide gulf. The Lord our Redeemer clothed His divinity with humanity, and wrought out in behalf of man a character that was without spot or blemish. He planted His cross midway between heaven and earth, and made it the object of attraction which reached both ways, drawing both Justice and Mercy across the gulf. Justice moved from its exalted throne, and with all the armies of heaven approached the cross. There it saw One equal with God bearing the penalty for all injustice and sin. With perfect satisfaction Justice bowed in reverence at the cross, saying, It is enough (Manuscript 94, 1899)

Ps 89:14

Ps 89:14 - Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face - See Ps 85:10; Isa 45:21; Rom 3:26

Ps 89:14

Ps 89:14 - mercy and truth shall go before thy face - See Ps 85:10

Ps 89:17

Ps 89:17 - and in thy favour our horn shall be exalted - See Ps 75:10

Ps 89:18

Ps 89:18 - For the LORD is our defence - See Ps 46:1-3, Prov 18:10

Ps 89:18

Ps 89:18 - the Holy One of Israel is our king - See Act 2:14, 7:52 compare Joh 19:15

Ps 89:19

Ps 89:19 - I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people - A reference to Jesus, Who covered divinity with humanity in order to redeem humanity. Secondly, a reference to the valientness of David. See Isa 59:15-17; Zech 6:12, 13

Ps 89:19

Ps 89:19 - I have exalted one chosen out of the people - See Deut 18:18, 19; Ps 89:27; Isa 42:1-4

Ps 89:19

Ps 89:19 - one chosen out of the people - See Deut 18:18

Ps 89:21

Ps 89:21 - With whom my hand shall be established: - David would be the progenitor of Jesus, the shade and strength upon God's and man's right hand. See Ps 121:5, 16:8

Ps 89:23

Ps 89:23 - And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him - See Ps 27:6

Ps 89:25

Ps 89:25 - I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers - A possible reference to the bounds of the territory God would establish through David's kingship, from the great Mediterranean Sea, to the river of Egypt to the River of Babylon.

Ps 89:27

Ps 89:27 - Also I will make him my firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth - The firstborn is He Who receives the birthright and the lion share of the Father's blessings. They are also the head and chief priest of the family. A reference to Jesus Christ Who was typified by David, whom God chose and exalted above all other kings of Israel and the world. See Ex 4:22; Joh 1:14, 3:16;

Ps 89:28

Ps 89:28 - My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him - the covenant of peace is established between Jesus and the Father for eternity and its blessings and provisions are towards the sons of men. See Ps 89:3; Zech 6:13

Ps 89:29

Ps 89:29 - His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven - See Mt 22:42-46; Rev 21:16; Ps 89:36

Ps 89:32

Ps 89:32 - Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes - See Heb 12:5-11

Ps 89:34

Ps 89:34 - My covenant I will not break - See Gen 3:15; Rev 14:6; Zech 6:13; Heb 6:13, 14, 16-18; Ps 110:4

Ps 89:34 - nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips - See Num 23:19; Isa 55:11; Mt 5:18

Ps 89:35

Ps 89:35 - Once have I sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto David - See Heb 6:13-16

Ps 89:36

Ps 89:36 - His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me - See Mt 22:42-46; Rev 21:16; Ps 89:29

Ps 89:38

Ps 89:38 - But thou hast cast off and abhorred; thou hast been wroth with thine anointed - See Isa 53:10

Ps 89:46

Ps 89:46 - How long, LORD? wilt thou hide thyself for ever? shall thy wrath burn like fire? - See Isa 54:7, 8

Ps 89:47

Ps 89:47 - Remember how short my time is - See Ps 90:12

Ps 90:1

Ps 90:1 - Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations - God is the Tabernacle and Secret Place for all who love Him from generation to generation. See Ps 91:1, 2

Ps 90:2

Ps 90:2 - even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God - See Deut 32:40; Mic 5:2; Dan 7:9; Ps 41:13; Isa 40:8; Ps 93:2, 103:17; Rev 22:13

Ps 90:3

Ps 90:3 - Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men - See Jer 29:10; Ps 90:13, 14; Ezek 18:21, 22

Ps 90:4

Ps 90:4 - For a thousand years in thy sight is as yesterday - 1000yrs is as 1 day for the LORD. See 2Pet 3:8

Ps 90:4

Ps 90:4 - and as a watch in the night - 3hr in the night.

Ps 90:6

Ps 90:6 - In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth - See Isa 40:7, 8

Ps 90:8

Ps 90:8 - Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance - See Ps 32:3-5; Eccl 12:14

Ps 90:10

Ps 90:10 - The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away. - The time we have been granted on earth is probationary time to restore God's image, marred through sin, back in man. But by disobedience this was forfeited. Through sin the divine likeness was marred, and well-nigh obliterated. Man's physical powers were weakened, his mental capacity was lessened, his spiritual vision dimmed. He had become subject to death. Yet the race was not left without hope. By infinite love and mercy the plan of salvation had been devised, and a life of probation was granted. To restore in man the image of his Maker, to bring him back to the perfection in which he was created, to promote the development of body, mind, and soul, that the divine purpose in his creation might be realized—this was to be the work of redemption. This is the object of education, the great object of life. - {Ed 15.2}

Ps 90:10

Ps 90:10 - and we fly away - man's life is as a vapor where we live and then we die and there is no more for which we partake. This does not speak of an immediate translation to heaven to experience eternal bliss, but of a futile end where there is no more existence until a resurrection.

Ps 90:12

Ps 90:12 - So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom - Ps 89:47, 37:18

Ps 90:14

Ps 90:14 - O satisfy us early with thy mercy - See Ps 23:6

Ps 90:17

Ps 90:17 - And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it - See Prov 3:5, 6; Ps 1:3

Ps 90:17

Ps 90:17 - and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it - cause our noble works to prosper for our good. See Ps 127:1

Ps 91:1

Ps 91:1 - He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty - the psalmist, as in the 23rd Ps, is boasting and encouraging others to develop a relationship with the Lord has his own. The psalmist speaks of the blessings one will receive in dwelling, abiding and making God their refuge and strength.

Ps 91:1

Ps 91:1 - dwelleth - to dwell is to abide, to tarry, to live in. (hymn - Abide with Me #50). To abide in God's secret place of prayer is to pray without ceasing and to be constant in prayer.

See 1Thess 5:17; Joh 1:38, 39 1. Jesus instructs us to: "Abide in me" (Joh 15:4-8) 2. David is assured a dwelling place in the house of God forever (Ps 23:6; 27:4)

Ps 91:1

Ps 91:1 - dwelleth - yashab Verb yaw-shab' a primitive root a primitive root; properly, to sit down (specifically as judge. in ambush, in quiet); by implication, to dwell, to remain; causatively, to settle, to marry:--(make to) abide(-ing), continue, (cause to, make to) dwell(-ing), ease self, endure, establish, fail, habitation, haunt, (make to) inhabit(-ant), make to keep (house), lurking, marry(-ing), (bring again to) place, remain, return, seat, set(-tle), (down-)sit(-down, still, -ting down, -ting (place) -uate), take, tarry. to dwell, remain, sit, abide (Qal) to sit, sit down to be set to remain, stay to dwell, have one's abode (Niphal) to be inhabited (Piel) to set, place (Hiphil) to cause to sit to cause to abide, set to cause to dwell to cause (cities) to be inhabited to marry (give an dwelling to) (Hophal) to be inhabited to make to dwell

Ps 91:1

Ps 91:1 - secret place of the Most High - the place of prayer and personal communion with God - See Mt 6:6; 1Thess 5:17; Joh 1:38, 39; Isa 32:17 the saints who bear the reproach of the world and are scorned among even the professed followers of God are called the "hidden ones" "a nation not desired" and "hated/persecuted one" [meaning of the name Job] (Ps 83:1-8; Zeph 2:1; Job 1:1). They find refuge in God from the temptations of the world and God has promised His protection over them when His wrath is poured out, a time of trouble (Isa 26:20, 21; Ps 27:5)

Ps 91:1

Ps 91:1 - shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty - See Rev 1:8, 10-15 We must abide "Under His Wings" (hymn 529). Those who have not learned to put their trust in God will seek in vain to trust in men and horses of the world (Egypt). Compare Isa 30:1-7, 16; Jer 17:5, 6 Satan is now using every device in this sealing time to keep the minds of God's people from the present truth and to cause them to waver. I saw a covering that God was drawing over His people to protect them in the time of trouble; and every soul that was decided on the truth and was pure in heart was to be covered with the covering of the Almighty. - {EW 43.2} I saw some who were not standing stiffly for present truth. Their knees were trembling, and their feet sliding, because they were not firmly planted on the truth, and the covering of Almighty God could not be drawn over them while they were thus trembling. - {EW 44.1} Satan was trying his every art to hold them where they were, until the sealing was past, until the covering was drawn over God's people, and they left without a shelter from the burning wrath of God, in the seven last plagues. God has begun to draw this covering over His people, and it will soon be drawn over all who are to have a shelter in the day of slaughter. God will work in power for His people; and Satan will be permitted to work also. - {EW 44.2}

Ps 91:1

Ps 91:1 - abide - See John 15:4 lwn Verb loon a primitive root or liyn {leen}; a primitive root; to stop (usually over night); by implication, to stay permanently; hence (in a bad sense) to be obstinate (especially in words, to complain):--abide (all night), continue, dwell, endure, grudge, be left, lie all night, (cause to) lodge (all night, in, -ing, this night), (make to) murmur, remain, tarry (all night, that night). to lodge, stop over, pass the night, abide (Qal) to lodge, pass the night to abide, remain (fig.) (Hiphil) to cause to rest or lodge (Hithpapel) to dwell, abide

Ps 91:1

Ps 91:1 - under the shadow of the Almighty - the name Bezaleel means just this - See Ex 35:30

Ps 91:2

Ps 91:2 - He is my refuge and my fortress - a fortified place of protection where one runs to for safety. See Ps 46:1, 27:1 (Hymn - A Mighty Fortress #506; A Shelter in the Time of Storm #528)

Ps 91:2

Ps 91:2 - fortress - the name of the Lord is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it and is safe. Prov 18:10

Ps 91:2

Ps 91:2 - my God - We must claim the LORD as our personal Savior. As the psalmist wrote, "The LORD is my Shepherd..." - Ps 23:1, 91:9

Ps 91:3

Ps 91:3 - Surely - a term of complete confidence, irrefutable truth and immovable trust. See also: Ps 23:6 - "Surely, goodness and mercy..." Isa 53:4 - "Surely He hath born our griefs..."

Ps 91:3

Ps 91:3 - snare of the fowler - Jesus delivers our soul from the snares of sin and from the grasp of the enemy. See Ps 124:7, 25:15; Heb 2:14, 15; 2Tim 3:6, 7, 13

Ps 91:3

Ps 91:3 - noisome pestilence - a grievous blight that will befall all who have not received the Seal of God - See Rev 16:2

Ps 91:4

Ps 91:4 - He shall cover you with His feathers, and under His wings - Jesus lamented over Jerusalem, that He sought to gather them and protect them from their impending destruction as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but they "would not..." See Mt 23:37; Isa 4:6; Ps 61:4

Ps 91:4

Ps 91:4 - His truth shall be thy shield and buckler - a shield and buckler are used to defend from attacks. Jesus says "Sanctify them through they truth, they WORD is truth" (Joh 17:17). The word of God is our ready defense in our time of trouble. As we make Jesus' blood and the hidden word our testimony, we will become victorious overcomers. See Rev 12:11; Isa 4:5; Ps 84:9, 11; Heb 10:32, 33; John 8:31, 32

Ps 91:4

Ps 91:4 - buckler - a small shield used for hand-to-hand combat. See Ps 18:30

Ps 91:5

Ps 91:5-7 - thou shalt not be afraid of the terror by night - See Isa 54:14-17, 4:5, 6

Ps 91:5

Ps 91:5 - terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day - night is the time of darkness, where the workers of iniquity and evil seek to find cover for their misdeeds. Similarly, the time of trouble will be a dark and grievous time where the wicked will find no relief, neither day nor night. See Isa 28:16-20; Deut 28:66, 67

Ps 91:6

Ps 91:6 - the pestilence that walketh in darkness - Viruses and diseases are those unseen pestilence that come upon individuals unawares. The fifth plague of God will bring darkness upon the seat of the beast and those that inhabit that city will gnaw their tongues for pain. See Rev 16:10, 11

Ps 91:6

Ps 91:6 - destruction that wasteth at noonday - the Fourth plague of the LORD will be scorching heat from the sun upon those who receive the mark of the beast, choosing to worship the sun (Sunday). See Rev 16:8, 9

Ps 91:7

Ps 91:7 - A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand - Ps 23:4 God's protection over the righteous is seen throughout time: 1. Noah being delivered in the Ark of Safety, Jesus Christ 2. Lot being rescued from the burning fires of Sodom and Gomorrah 3. The Israelites being "passed over" from the last 7 Plagues of Egypt, even the destroying angel 4. The COI walking on dry ground while Pharaoh and his armies perished in the Sea 5. God destroying the Assyrian armies in the time of Jehoshaphat 6. God sparing the Christians in the destruction of Jerusalem 7. God preserving His people through the 7-Last Plagues

Ps 91:7

Ps 91:7 - but it shall not come nigh thee - God's protection and deliverance is assured to all who place their trust in Him. Consider the final plague of Egypt and those who were covered by the blood of the Lamb. See Ex 8:22-24, 12:12, 13, 33:14-16; Ps 32:6

Ps 91:8

Ps 91:8 - Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see - our sense of sight will be that alone which partakes of the fate of the wicked. We will keep in everlasting remembrance the dreadful fate of rebellion. See Ps 37:34, 58:10, 59:10, 92:11

Ps 91:8

Ps 91:8 - the reward of the wicked - the reward of the wicked, those who have not received the Seal of God, is embodied in the seven last plagues (Rev 15:1, 7, 16:1; Eze 9:4-6) and the wages (payment) of sin, the Second Death (Rom 6:23; Rev 20:13-15; Ps 37:34; Lk 13:28)

Ps 91:9

Ps 91:9 - Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my refuge, even the Most High, thy habitation - the narrator of the psalm (David), speaks encouraging words to all who heed his counsel as he personalizes his commitment to and unity with "my refuge", his God.

Ps 91:9

Ps 91:9 - which is my refuge - Once again, the Psist makes a personal reference to the Lord, "my refuge". See Ps 91:2, 23:1.

Ps 91:9

Ps 91:9 - thy habitation - our dwelling place. See Ps 91:1

Ps 91:10

Ps 91:10 - There shall no evil befall thee - no weapon of the evil one shall prosper against those who place their trust in the hands of the Almighty God. See Isa 54:17

Ps 91:10

Ps 91:7 - neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling - the plagues of Egypt were ten in number whereas the final plagues upon the earth will be seven (Rev 15:1). The last seven plagues of Egypt fell upon the Egyptians alone and none upon the Children of Israel dwelling in the land of Goshen, God's people (Ex 8:22, 23, 9:3). This gives a second witness to this prophetic promise. Consider also the plague of leprosy upon a house (Lev 14:34-48).

Ps 91:11

Ps 91:11 - For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.- See Mt 18:10; Joh 8:59; Heb 1:14

Ps 91:11

Ps 91:11 - keep thee in all thy ways - all of our ways are limited to the ways of God's choosing. We must remain in the paths of obedience. (Prov 3:5, 6, 4:18; Jer 6:16, 17)

Ps 91:12

Ps 91:12 - They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone - the same promise of protection affirmed to Jesus is given to the righteous (Mt 4:6, 7). We will be kept by angels during our daily walk and the perilous time of trouble.

Ps 91:12

Ps 91:12 - lest thou dash thy foot against a stone - See Act 9:5, 26:14

Ps 91:13

Ps 91:13 - Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder - the devil is typified as both a lion, seeking whom he may devour (1Pet 5:8) and a serpent (Gen 3:1-6; Rev 12:9). Mal states that God will burn up the wicked, both root (Satan) and branch (the wicked, followers of Satan) and they will be as ashes under the soles of our feet. See Mal 4:1, 3

Ps 91:13

Ps 91:13 - the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet - the empire of Assyria was portrayed as a Lion and its successor Babylon as a young lion (Isa 5:25-29; Jer 50:17; Hos 5:14). Again, the righteous are shown as triumphing over the forces of evil that are embodied in Spiritual Babylon composed of the Dragon, Beast and False Prophet (Rev 16:13-16; 17:2-15)

Ps 91:13

Ps 91:12 - the dragon shalt thou trample under feet - The devil will soon be trodden under our feet - See Isa 27:1, 2; Eze 29:3-6; Rom 16:20

Ps 91:14

Ps 91:14 - Because he hath set his love upon Me, therefore will I deliver him - The narrator here changes to the LORD. As we purpose to love the LORD, He will deliver us from our oppressors and all evil. Ps 116:1-5

Ps 91:14

Ps 91:14 - I will set him on high, because he hath known my name - The LORD will exalt the righteous here on earth (Ps 27:6, 23:5; Isa 58:13, 14) and will make us to sit in exalted places in His kingdom (Rev 20:4)

Ps 91:14

Ps 91:14 - because he hath known My name - Jer 9:23, 24; Gen 4:26 The sons of God are they who call upon the name of the LORD (Gen 4:26, 6:1; Ps 116:4, 17). They in repentant humility, receive forgiveness and mercy from the LORD (Ps 145:18, 86:5). They proclaim His goodness and His Godship to the lands (1 Chronicles 16:7-10; Ps 22:22; Isa 12:4). They are delivered from evil and their enemies because they acknowledge and wait upon the LORD (Ps 18:3, 55:16, 27:14, 33:18-21; Prov 18:10). They are among the redeemed (Zeph 3:9, Rom 10:12, 13). The workers of iniquity call not upon the name of the LORD (Ps 14:4)

Ps 91:15

Ps 91:15 - He shall call upon me, and I will answer him - God has assured the righteous of His presence and that He will answer them, even as they speak. See Isa 58:9, 65:24; Ps 27:7, 116:1-5, 20:6; Jer 33:3; Job 14:15

Ps 91:15

Ps 91:15 - I will be with him in trouble - God has promised to be with us in our troubles and during the Time of Trouble. See Isa 26:3, 4, 20, 21; Ps 27:5; Nah 1:7

Ps 91:15

Ps 91:15 - I will deliver him - The LORD will deliver us from the world (Egypt) on eagles wings and bear us unto Himself. See Ex 19:4

Ps 91:15

Ps 91:15 - and honour him - See Isa 58:9-12, 14

Ps 91:16

Ps 91:16 - With long life will I satisfy him and shew him My salvation - A blessed long life will be a reward to those who walk uprightly and God will give them eternal life. See Prov 16:31; Isa 45:17, 58:14; Ps 21:4, 23:6; Isa 33:17 - Contrast Ps 109:8

Ps 92:2

Ps 92:2 - To shew forth thy lovingkindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night - we are to thank the LORD for His lovingkindness in keeping us and waking us up every morning and we are to thank Him for His faithfulness in sustaining us throughout the day!

Ps 92:7

Ps 92:7 - When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever - See Ps 12:8, 73:1-20

Ps 92:10

Ps 92:10 - But my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn - See Ps 148:14

Ps 92:10

Ps 92:10 - I shall be anointed with fresh oil. - See Ps 23:5; Zech 10:1

Ps 92:11

Ps 92:11 - Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies, and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me - See Ps 112:8

Ps 92:12

Ps 92:12 - The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree - there are over 2500 varieties of palm trees, carrying in size and function. Palms are known to develop a very vast and elaborate root system, going deep and wide as the palm searches for water beneath. Palms are known to withstand 145mph hurricane winds. As the palm with its deep roots, the Christian is to be moored to the Rock, which prevents it from coming out of character when the winds of strife blow upon it.

Ps 95:8

Ps 95:8 - Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness: - See Ps 78:19-32; Heb 12:17

Ps 95:9

Ps 95:8 - tempted me, proved me - See Ex 32:9-12; Num 14:22

Ps 95:10

Ps 95:10 - Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways: - speaking of the 40yrs in the Wilderness of Sin where the people rejected God's promise to bring them into the Promised Land. The statement can also apply to the COI rejection of Christ from A.D.31-A.D. 70, almost 40years when they continued to offer daily sacrifices and oblations, observed the annual Sabbaths, and gave homage and honor to the desolate temple in Jerusalem in vain, because God was not at all in their worship. See Act 13:8; Num

Ps 95:10

Ps 95:10 - It is a people that do err in their heart - See Rom 9:1-5, 10:1-3

Ps 95:10

Ps 95:10 - they have not known my ways: - See Joh 8:28, 55, 16:3

Ps 96:2

Ps 96:2 - shew forth his salvation from day to day - God's salvation is to be proclaimed and demonstrated on a daily basis according to the psalmist. God's salvation must: 1. Include His deliverance and victory from sin, from oppression, from the works of unrighteousness 2. Be eternal (Heb 5:9, 2Tim 2:10) 3. Include the imparting of God's character to those who would receive it

Ps 96:5

Ps 96:5 - For all the gods of the nations are idols: - For the Indians, their host of gods are idols; for the Arabs, Mohammed is their idol; for the Persians, Zoroaster is their idol; for the Asians, Buddha is their idol; for the Norsemen, Oden and the druids are their idols and for the smallest nation, the Vatican, Mary is their idol. All who are the Israel of God, His holy nation and peculiar people, the LORD is their God, the Creator of heaven and earth! Amen! See Ps 135:15-18

Ps 96:5

Ps 96:5 - but the LORD made the heavens - that which separates God from all the idols, is that God is the Creator of all things. Ex 20:8-11; Ps 136:4-9

Ps 96:8

Ps 96:8 - bring an offering - we should bring an offering of joy and thanksgiving. See Ps 27:6

Ps 104:29

Ps 104:29 - Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled - See Isa 54:8

Ps 104:29

Ps 104:29 - thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust - See Eccl 12:7, 3:19, 20 The creation belongs to God. The Lord could, by neglecting man, stop his breath at once. All that he is and all that he has pertains to God. The entire world is God's. Man's houses, his personal acquisitions, whatever is valuable or brilliant, is God's own endowment. It is all His gift to be returned back to God in helping to cultivate the heart of man. The most splendid offerings may be laid upon the altar of God, and men will praise, exalt, and laud the giver because of His liberality. In what? "All things come of Thee, and of Thine own have we given Thee" (1 Chronicles 29:14). No work of man can merit for him the pardoning love of God, but the love of God pervading the soul will lead him to do those things which were always required of God and that he should do with pleasure. He has done only that which duty ever required of him. - {FW 22.3}

Ps 113:5 - Who is like unto the LORD our God, who dwelleth on high - Consider the antichrist's usurpation of God's praise as he is extolled says God (Rev 13:4).

Ps 113:6

Ps 113:6 - Who humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth! - The Lord is holy, pure and righteous, yet He condescends and humbles Himself to look upon men in their sinfulness and selfishness.

Ps 113:7

Ps 113:7, 8 - He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth the needy out of the dunghill; That he may set him with princes - See 2Sam 9:1-11; 1Sam 18:22-28; Isa 29:19

Ps 113:9

Ps 113:9 - He maketh the barren woman to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children - See 1Sam 1:20-28

Ps 114:2

Ps 114:2 - Judah was his sanctuary - the Southern Kingdom of Judah was the place of God's sanctuary as our God and ruling High Priest

Ps 114:2

Ps 114:2 - Israel his dominion - the Northern Kingdom of Israel was God's dominion over which He ruled as King.

Ps 114:3

Ps 114:3 - The sea saw it, and fled - See Ex 14:21-22

Ps 114:3

Ps 114:3 - Jordan was driven back - See Joshua 3:13-17

Ps 114:4

Ps 114:4 - The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like lambs - The mountains and hills depict the enemies of God's people who fled from before the presence of God - See Ex 19:17, 18

Ps 114:7

Ps 114:7 - Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob; - See Ex 19:17, 18, 20:18

Ps 114:8

Ps 114:8 - the flint into a fountain of waters - See Ex 17:6

Ps 115:1

Ps 115:1 - Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake - See Rev 14:7; 2Cor 4:7

Ps 115:4

Ps 115:4 - Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands - See Isa 44:9-20; Ps 135:15-18

Ps 115:10

Ps 115:10 - O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield - speaking specifically to the priesthood, God exhorts them to trust in the Lord, our Helper and our Shield and not to place trust in idols.

Ps 115:16

Ps 115:16 - The heaven, even the heavens - The Lord uses the word "heaven" to define three distinct entities: 1. Earth's atmosphere (Gen 1:8; Job 38:29) 2. Outer Space (Gen 1:14-19) 3. Heaven of heavens where God Himself dwells (2Cor 12:2)

Ps 115:16

Ps 115:16 - but the earth hath he given to the children of men - See Ps 8:5-8; Mt 5:5

Ps 115:17

Ps 115:17 - The dead praise not the LORD, neither any that go down into silence - See Eccl 9:5, 6

Ps 116:1

Ps 116:1 - I love the LORD, because He hath heard my voice and my supplications - See Ps 3:4, 27:7

Ps 116:3

Ps 116:3 - The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow. - See Ps 22:1-21

Ps 116:5

Ps 116:5 - Gracious is the LORD, and righteous - Speaking of Jesus proleptically, Jesus is said to be Righteous (a victorious character that has confronted sin - having condemned sin in the flesh [Rom 8:3]), full of grace and truth. Jesus alone can be considered Righteous because the Father can not be tempted by sin. God the Father is Holy, but Christ alone is our Righteousness. Nevertheless, "because the Father and the Son were always One, and the Father entered into the Son's battle on earth, Jesus could address Him both as "Holy Father" and as "Righteous Father." {Wieland Grace on Trial} Joh 1:14, 14:10, 10:30 Jesus, the Righteous, is He who judges: Ps 7:11, 9; Joh 5:22, 30 The Lord our Righteousness - Jer 23:6; Deut 6:24, 25

Ps 116:6

Ps 116:6 - The LORD preserveth the simple - see Psa 19:7; Isa 57:15

Ps 116:6

Ps 116:6 - I was brought low, and he helped me - See 1Pet 5:5, 6

Ps 118:14

Ps 118:14 - The LORD is my strength and song, and is become my salvation - See Ps 34:1-3

Ps 118:15

Ps 118:15 - the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly - See Ex 15:6

Ps 118:16

Ps 118:16 - The right hand of the LORD is exalted: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly - See Ex 15:6

Ps 118:17

Ps 118:17 - I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD - this was the boast of Wycliffe when on his bed of affliction his enemies came to force him to recant his condemnations upon the heresies of papal Rome. See Jer 17:14; Mic 7:8; Ps 41:6-8 But suddenly his labors were stopped. Though not yet sixty years of age, unceasing toil, study, and the assaults of his enemies had told upon his strength and made him prematurely old. He was attacked by a dangerous illness. The tidings brought great joy to the friars. Now they thought he would bitterly repent the evil he had done the church, and they hurried to his chamber to listen to his confession. Representatives from the four religious orders, with four civil officers, gathered about the supposed dying man. "You have death on your lips," they said; "be touched by your faults, and retract in our presence all that you have said to our injury." The Reformer listened in silence; then he bade his attendant raise him in his bed, and, gazing steadily upon them as they stood waiting for his recantation, he said, in the firm, strong voice which had so often caused them to tremble: "I shall not die, but live; and again declare the evil deeds of the friars."—D'Aubigne, b. 17, ch. 7. Astonished and abashed, the monks hurried from the room. - {GC 87.3}

Ps 118:18

Ps 118:18 - The LORD hath chastened me sore: but he hath not given me over unto death - See Jer 31:18-20

Ps 118:19

Ps 118:19 - Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will go into them, and I will praise the LORD - See Ps 24:7-10

Ps 118:20

Ps 118:20 - This gate of the LORD, into which the righteous shall enter - See Rev 22:14; Isa 26:2; Ps 122:2

Ps 118:22

Ps 118:22 - The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner - See Isa 8:14, 28:16, 17; Mt 21:42-44; Lk 20:16, 17; 1Pet 2:6, 7; Act 4:11; 1Pet 4:14

Ps 118:22

Ps 118:22 - which the builders refused - a rebuke not to worldlings, but those who profess to be builders of God's Kingdom, the people of God.

Ps 118:26

Ps 118:26 - Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the LORD - See Mt 23:39

Ps 118:27

Ps 118:27 - God is the LORD, which hath shewed us light - See Joh 1:9, 3:19-21; 1Thess 5:5

Ps 119:1

Ps 119:1 - undefiled in the way - the remnant are undefiled with women, being virgins. See Rev 14:4, 16:15

Ps 119:1

Ps 119:1 - in the way - in the paths of righteousness. Those who remain faithful while walking with the Lord. See Jer 6:16; Ps 119:35

Ps 119:1

Ps 119:1 - walk in the law of the LORD - See Rev 12:17, 22:14

Ps 119:2

Ps 119:2 - that keep His testimonies - those who follow the counsels and precepts of the Spirit of Prophecy and God's laws.

Ps 119:2

Ps 119:2 - and that seek him with the whole heart - See Deut 6:5; Ps 119:10

Ps 119:3

Ps 119:3 - They also do not iniquity - the remnant will be those who follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth, are undefiled, keeping the commandments of God, abiding by the testimonies of the Spirit of prophecy and seek the LORD with the whole heart. See Zeph 3:5, 13

Ps 119:3

Ps 119:3 - they walk in His ways - those who walk in the ways of the Old Paths will do no iniquity and will be blessed of the LORD.

Ps 119:5

Ps 119:5 - O that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes! - the Psist like me, laments and longs for a true and pure heart to keep God's statutes and commandments

Ps 119:6

Ps 119:6 - Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments -

The word of the Lord says that he who breaks one commandment has broken all. The flagrant neglect of any of God's commandments will result in shame, as in the parable of the guest appearing without a wedding garment. See Jam 2:10; Mt 22:12; Rom 9:33

Ps 119:9 - Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word - See 2Tim 2:22; Ps 119:37; Prov 23:12 The Power of Religion—By what means shall the young man repress his evil propensities, and develop what is noble and good in his character? The will, intellect, and emotions when controlled by the power of religion will become transformed. “Whether therefore ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God” [1 Corinthians 10:31]. Here is a principle underlying every act, thought, and motive if the entire being is under control of the will of God. - {TSB 98.1}

Ps 119:10

Ps 119:10 With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments - See Deut 6:4, 5; Ps 119:2; Lev 19:18; Mk 12:30

Ps 119:11

Ps 119:11 - Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee - God's words are a prized possession and heritage to the righteous. See Joshua 1:7, 8; Ps 119:111, 40:8, 37:31; Isa 58:14; Prov 22:17, 18; James 1:21

Ps 119:14

Ps 119:14 - I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches - See 1Pet 1:7

Ps 119:15

Ps 119:15 - I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways - See Ps 19:14

Ps 119:16

Ps 119:16 - I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word - See Jer 15:16

Ps 119:18

Ps 119:18 - Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law. - When the Lord opens our eyes, we can perceive things that we naturally would not see or notice. See Rev 3:18; Gen 15:5, 2Kin 6:15-17; Act 7:55, 56; Num 24:1-9; Ps 119:169; 1Cor 8:2 But it is in the written Word that a knowledge of God is most clearly revealed to fallen man. This is the treasure house of the unsearchable riches of Christ.... The truths of redemption are capable of constant development and expansion. Though old, they are ever new, constantly revealing to the seeker for truth a greater glory and a mightier power (Christ's Object Lessons, 125-127). - {LHU 112.6}

Ps 119:19

Ps 119:19 - I am a stranger in the earth - we are to live the life of Abraham and Enoch, who was in the world but not of the world. Enoch resembled the heavenly hosts more than earth's inhabitants such that the Lord took him, translated him to heaven. See Gen 5:22; Heb 11:8-16; Joh 17:16, 18:36

Ps 119:21

Ps 119:21 - Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed, which do err from thy commandments - See Prov 6:17, 21:4; Ps 101:5

Ps 119:29

Ps 119:29 - Remove from me the way of lying - See Ps 119:163, 120:2; Prov 12:22; Rev 14:5

Ps 119:32

Ps 119:32 - I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou shalt enlarge my hear - the Psist prays that the Lord enlarge his heart towards His will and His precepts so that he might keep His commandments.

Ps 119:35

Ps 119:35 - path of thy commandments - See Ps 119:1; Isa 30:20, 21; Jer 6:16

Ps 119:36

Ps 119:36 - Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness - turn my heart from evil covetousness, idolatry, concupiscence, inordinate affections and turn it to Your commandments. See Ps 141:4

Ps 119:37

Ps 119:37 - Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity - See Job 31:1; Ps 101:3; Isa 33:15

Ps 119:37

Ps 119:37 - quicken thou me in thy way - "The Word of God is quick and powerful, sharper than any two edged sword" Heb 4:12. It is by eating God's Word that we are revived and made new (sanctified). See Joh 17:17; Jer 15:16; Ps 119:25, 107

Ps 119:40

Ps 119:40 - quicken me in thy righteousness - See Ps 1119:37, 25, 50

Ps 119:41

Ps 119:41 - thy mercies - See Ps 23:6

Ps 119:43

Ps 119:43 - And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth - the Psist is pleading that he not come to the place where he utterly forsakes the Lord such that he no longer may speak the words of truth.

Ps 119:126

Ps 119:126 - It is time for thee, LORD, to work - the time when God reaps vengeance upon the workers of iniquity who have made void God's law through an unrighteous decree is here spoken. When Michael stands up He will perform His strange work in destroying the wicked. See Ps 83:1-3, 94:20-23; Dan 12:1; Isa 24:5, 28:21; 52:10, 63:2-4; 26:20, 21; Rev 15, 16

Ps 119:126

Ps 119:126 - for they have made void thy law - See Isa 10:1, 24:5, 6; Ps 119:53; Ezekiel 8: No error accepted by the Christian world strikes more boldly against the authority of Heaven, none is more directly opposed to the dictates of reason, none is more pernicious in its results, than the modern doctrine, so rapidly gaining ground, that God's law is no longer obligatory upon men. Every nation has its laws, which command respect and obedience; and has the Creator of the heavens and the earth no law to govern the beings he has made? Suppose that prominent ministers were publicly to teach that the statutes which govern our nation and protect the rights of its citizens were not obligatory,—that they restricted the liberties of the people, and therefore ought not to be obeyed; how long would such men be tolerated in the pulpit? But is it a graver offense to disregard the laws of States and nations than to trample upon those divine precepts which are the foundation of all government? When the standard or righteousness is set aside, the way is open for the prince of evil to establish his rule in the earth. - {4SP 400.1}

Ps 119:127 - Therefore I love thy commandments above gold; yea, above fine gold - See Ps 19:10; 119:72; Prov 8:10, 19

Ps 119:130

Ps 119:130 - The entrance of they word giveth light; it giveth understanding to the simple - As we take in God's Word, it fills us with light, understanding and wisdom; just as the spoken word had power to create everything that is. See Prov 4:18; Ps 33:6, 19:7

Ps 119:130

Ps 119:130 - simple - humble in spirit; those who are teachable. But the churches generally did not accept the warning. Their ministers, who as "watchmen unto the house of Israel," should have been the first to discern the tokens of Jesus' coming, had failed to learn the truth, either from the testimony of the prophets or from the signs of the times. As worldly hopes and ambitions filled the heart, love for God and faith in his Word had grown cold, and when the Advent doctrine was presented, it only aroused their prejudice and unbelief. The fact that the message was, to a great extent, preached by laymen, was urged as an argument against it. As of old, the plain testimony of God's Word was met with the inquiry, "Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed?" {GC88 380.1}

Ps 122:5

Ps 122:5 - set thrones of judgment - the redeemed and the Apostles will sit with Jesus upon twelve thrones, judging the 12 tribes of Israel. Mat 19:28; Lk 22:30; Rev 20:4

Ps 122:6

Ps 122:7 - Pray for the peace of Jerusalem - God chose Israel and appointed Jerusalem to be the city where He would dwell in the earthly sanctuary. While the Nation of Israel remained His ambassadors upon the earth, the Lord placed His hand of protection about His holy city and its inhabitants (Ps 125:1, 2; Ex 20:24). With Israel's rejection of Christ, forfeiture of their chosen status and honored privilege of being God's ambassadors, Jesus declared their house desolate and marked for destruction as both Jesus and Moses foretold in vision (Mt 23:37-24:2; Deut 28:49-68). The Lord had raised up a new spiritual house in the Christian Church, founded upon Himself as the Chief Cornerstone and the apostles to take the gospel message to the ends of the earth (Lk 20:13-19, Eph 2:19, 20, 1Pet 2:3-9). The appointed city of this new spiritual house is not the earthly city of Jerusalem with its destroyed temple that had been forsaken, but the heavenly New Jerusalem; the city of promise that Abraham and all who live by his same faith await (Heb 11:8-16). Earthly Jerusalem, with its glorious temple in times past merely foreshadowed the true heavenly city and temple built by God and not by men. It is the true and lasting Jerusalem the saints are to pray for and to inhabit.

Ps 139:9 - If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea - if I ascend with the early dawn; even beyond the visible sea line, even there God is present.

Ps 139:10

Ps 139:10 - Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me - See Ps 23:1-6; Isa 41:13, 42:6, 49:8-10; Joh 10:3-5; Hymn #537 - He Leadeth Me

Ps 139:11

Ps 139:11 - If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me - See Ezekiel 8:11, 12

Ps 139:12

Ps 139:12 - Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee - See Isa 45:7; Ezekiel 8:6-12; Jer 23:24

Ps 139:13

Ps 139:13 - For thou hast possessed my reins - God has control over all of our lives and yet, He yields it to us to decide if we will trust Him to navigate and direct our paths. See Prov 3:5, 6

Ps 139:14

Ps 139:14 - I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: - See Ps 8:5, 6; 1Cor 15:38 God Made Us as He purposed: Ps 139:14, 16 We are to glorify HIM in our bodies: 1Cor 6:20 All that we do should glorify Him: 1Cor 10:31

Ps 139:15

Ps 139:15 - curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth - See Hos 13:13

Ps 139:16

Ps 139:16 - Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect - even as a zygote, an embryo, before the formation of the discernible parts of an individual, God saw and knew us all.

Ps 139:16

Ps 139:16 - and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them - As we were made by God from the womb, God has a record of all the details of our bodies. See Rom 4:17

Ps 139:16

Ps 139:16 - which in continuance were fashioned - The LORD saw and fashioned our total being while yet imperfect and under development in the womb.

Ps 139:16

Ps 139:16 - when as yet there was none of them - God calls those things that be not as though they were... See Rom 4:17

Ps 139:17 - How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them! - See Jer 29:11

Ps 139:18

Ps 139:18 - they are more in number than the sand - See Ps 40:5

Ps 139:19

Ps 139:19 - Surely thou wilt slay the wicked - See Deut 32:41, 42

Ps 139:19

Ps 139:19 - depart from me therefore, ye bloody men - See Gen 10:9

Ps 139:20

Ps 139:20 - For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain - See Ps 119:53, 136

Ps 139:21

Ps 139:21 - Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee? - When imbued with the mind of Christ, we will love the things that God loves and hate the things God hates. God's enemies become our enemies as we relinquish the unfruitful works of darkness. See Philippians 2:5-11; Eph 5:11

Ps 139:22

Ps 139:22 - I hate them with perfect hatred - righteous indignation towards those who hate God and His righteousness.

Ps 139:22

Ps 139:22 - I count them mine enemies - to have the mind of Chris is to hate the things God hates and to love the things God loves.

Ps 139:23

Ps 139:23 - Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: - Rev 2:23 Thus will it be with the righteous. As they review the events of their past lives, their hopes will almost sink. But as they realize that it is a case of life or death they will earnestly cry unto God, and appeal to Him in regard to their past sorrow for, and humble repentance of, their many sins, and then will refer to His promise, "Let him take hold of My strength, that he may make peace with Me; and he shall make peace with Me." Isa 27:5. Thus will their earnest petitions be offered to God day and night. God would not have heard the prayer of Jacob and mercifully saved his life if he had not previously repented of his wrongs in obtaining the blessing by fraud. - {SR 98.2} The righteous, like Jacob, will manifest unyielding faith and earnest determination, which will take no denial. They will feel their unworthiness but will have no concealed wrongs to reveal. If they had sins, unconfessed and unrepented of, to appear then before them, while tortured with fear and anguish, with a lively sense of all their unworthiness, they would be overwhelmed. Despair would cut off their earnest faith, and they could not have confidence to plead with God thus earnestly for deliverance, and their precious moments would be spent in confessing hidden sins and bewailing their hopeless condition. - {SR 98.3}

Ps 139:23

Ps 139:23 - know my heart - See Mt 15:19; 1Chron 28:9

Ps 139:23

Ps 139:23 - try me, and know my thoughts - test me so that hidden desires and purposes of my heart are revealed. Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh and therein are the issues of life found. The Lord in trying us, reveals to us the lusts, longings, desires and meditations of our own hearts. Mt 12:34; Dan 12:10; Ps 19:14; 1Pet 4:12-14

Ps 139:24

Ps 139:24 - And see if there be any wicked way in me - reveal to me the evil ways of my heart. This is the work of the Holy Spirit as we heed the counsel of the Faithful and True Witness, Jesus. Joh 16:8-11; Rev 3:18, 19

Ps 139:24

Ps 139:24 - and lead me in the way everlasting - our work is to humble ourselves, acknowledge where we do not reflect the righteousness of Christ, repent of our sins and waywardness and submit (surrender) to the Lord that He might lead us in the paths of righteousness for His name sake. See Ps 23:4, 139:10; Isa 41:13, 42:6

Ps 140:11 - Let not an evil speaker be established in the earth - See Ps 27:12

Ps 140:13

Ps 140:13 - the upright shall dwell in thy presence - See Ps 23:6, 27:4; Rev 21: 3, 4, 7; Isa 33:17

Ps 141:1

Ps 141:1 - give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee - See Ps 27:7

Ps 141:2

Ps 141:2 - Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense - See Rev 5:8, 8:3

Ps 141:3

Ps 141:3 - Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips - See Ps 39:1-4, 38:13, 14; Jam 3:5-8

Ps 141:4

Ps 141:4 - Incline not my heart to any evil thing - See Ps 119:36, 37

Ps 141:4

Ps 141:4 - let me not eat of their dainties - let me not partake of the thoughts, desires, and [evil] things they delight in. - See Prov 23:1-3, 7:13-18

Ps 141:5

Ps 141:5 - Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head - the reproofs and corrections of the righteous are a blessing from the Lord to those who take heed. - See Prov 3:11, 27:6; Gal 2:11

Ps 141:5

Ps 141:5 - for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities - I will pray for the upright in their times of calamities. - See Prov 141:6; Ps 35:13, 14

Ps 142:7 - for thou shalt deal bountifully with me - See Ps 23:6

Ps 143:2

Ps 143:2 - for in thy sight shall no man living be justified - See Rom 3:20-22

Ps 143:3

Ps 143:3 - For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground; he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead - "He hath smitten." God has so ordered in his providence, that his children cannot have intercourse and associations with men of the world, and with the kingdoms of this earth, but that persecution, or loss of Christian character, is sure to follow. The prophet is showing the present state of the church, while the tares and wheat are growing together. The children of God shall be smitten - meaning they shall be chastised, persecuted, ruled over. See the Roman power, from the days of their connection with the Jews until the present time, ruling over, persecuting, and trampling under foot the church of God. Our text is not only showing us our duty to God, but it teaches us the sufferings of the church, the dealings of God with her, and her final redemption; the first and second coming of her Lord, her final deliverance from death and all enemies, and her glorified reign. It teaches us the manner of Christ's coming, and the time when all these things will be fulfilled. We are therefore now showing the sufferings of the church, and God's special care and providential dealings with her. {1842 WiM, MWV3 49.2}

Ps 149:7

Ps 149:7 - To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishment upon the people - See Isa 61:2 At the voice of God the saints will be mighty and terrible as an army with banners, but they will not then execute the judgment written. The execution of the judgment will be at the close of the one thousand years." - {EW 52.1}

Ps 149:9

Ps 149:9 - To execute upon them the judgment written - After the saints are changed to immortality and caught up together with Jesus, after they receive their harps, their robes, and their crowns, and enter the city, Jesus and the saints sit in judgment. The books are opened—the book of life and the book of death. The book of life contains the good deeds of the saints; and the book of death contains the evil deeds of the wicked. These books are compared with the statute book, the Bible, and according to that men are judged. The saints, in unison with Jesus, pass their judgment upon the wicked dead. "Behold ye," said the angel, "the saints, in unison with Jesus, sit in judgment, and mete out to the wicked according to the deeds done in the body, and that which they must receive at the execution of the judgment is set off against their names." This, I saw, was the work of the saints with Jesus through the one thousand years in the Holy City before it descends to the earth

Prov 1:26

Prov 1:26 - I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh - See Ps 2:4, 37:13, 59:8 A few weeks after this, on our way to Boston we took the steamer at Portland. A violent storm came up, and we were in great peril. The boat rolled fearfully, and the waves dashed into the cabin windows. There was great fear in the ladies' cabin. Many were confessing their sins, and crying to God for mercy. Some were calling upon the Virgin Mary to keep them, while others were making solemn vows to God that if they reached land they would devote their lives to His service. It was a scene of terror and confusion. As the boat rocked, a lady turned to me and said: "Are you not terrified? I suppose it is a fact that we may never reach land." I told her that I had made Christ my refuge, and if my work was done, I might as well lie in the bottom of the ocean as in any other place; but if my work was not done, all the waters of the ocean could not drown me. My trust was in God; He would bring us safe to land if it was for His glory. - {1T 80.3} At this time I prized the Christian's hope. The scene before me brought vividly to my mind the day of the Lord's fierce anger, when the storm of His wrath will come upon the poor sinner. Then there will be bitter cries and tears, confession of sin, and pleading for mercy, when it will be too late. "Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out My hand, and no man regarded; but ye have set at nought all My counsel, and would none of My reproof: I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh." - {1T 81.1}

Prov 1:27, 28 When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me: - I was forcibly reminded of deathbed repentance. Some serve themselves and Satan all their lives, and then as sickness subdues them, and a fearful uncertainty is before them, they manifest some sorrow for sin, and perhaps say they are willing to die, and their friends make themselves believe that they have been truly converted and fitted for heaven. But if these should recover, they would be as rebellious as ever. I am reminded of Proverbs 1:27, 28: "When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you. Then shall they call upon Me, but I will not answer; they shall seek Me early, but they shall not find Me." - {1T 81.3}

Prov 1:28

Prov 1:28 0- then shall they call upon Me, but I will not answer - The fool who says there is no God is one who calls out to God in grave adversity or in death. Their rejection of God in life but vain desire to gain His aid in adversity is laughable. See Ps 14:1; Am 8:11, 12; Prov 28:9

Prov 1:32

Proverbs 1:32 - For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them. - See Prov 1:19

Prov 1:33

Prov 1:33 - But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil - See Lk 7:35; Prov 2:8

Prov 1:33

Prov 1:33 - and shall be quiet from fear of evil - See Isa 32:17

Prov 2:4

Prov 2:4 - as for hid treasures - We are to repeat the words of the pioneers in our work, who knew what it cost to search for the truth as for hidden treasure, and who labored to lay the foundation of our work. They moved forward step by step under the influence of the Spirit of God. {RH May 25, 1905 par 23}

Prov 2:6

Prov 2:6 - For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding - See Ps 119:11

Prov 2:8

Prov 2:8 - He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints - See Prov 1:33

Prov 2:10

Prov 2:10 - wisdom entereth into thine heart and knowledge is pleasant unto the soul - We receive wisdom intellectually and gladly receive knowledge, then are we eating the Little Book

Prov 2:11

Prov 2:11 - Discretion - Prudence, or knowledge and prudence; that discernment which enables a person to judge critically of what is correct and proper, united with caution; nice discernment and judgment, directed by circumspection, and primarily regarding ones own conduct.

Prov 2:11

Prov 2:11 - preserve thee... keep thee - those who are among the wise who eat the book will be kept from the evil man an the strange woman (vs 12, 16).

Prov 2:12

Prov 2:12 - evil man... speaks froward things - the man of sin, the son of perdition that speaks great words against the Most High and exalts himself, claiming to be God is the evil man. See Dan 7:8, 25; 2Thess 2:3, 4; Rev 13:5

Prov 2:14

Prov 2:14 - Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked - See Rom 1:32

Prov 2:16

Prov 2:16 - strange woman - the word "strange" speaks of illicit, unsanctified/unholy as in strange fire. A strange woman is a harlot (Judges 11:1, 2), therefore, the strange woman is Mystery Babylon, the mother of harlots. The strange woman is also one who flatters with her words (see Dan 11:30-34; Prov 6:20-26) and forgets the guide of her youth [God](see Jer 3:1-4). The evil man = strange woman

Prov 2:17

Prov 2:17 - forsaketh the guide of her youth - See Jer 3:4

Prov 2:21

Prov 2:21 - For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it - See Mt 5:5

Prov 2:22

Prov 2:22 - But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it - See Ps 1:6

Prov 3:1

Prov 3:1-4 - Mercy and Truth must be written upon the heart so that we may find favor with God and man. Our iniquities, engraved upon our hearts prevent the Lord from writing Mercy and Truth upon our hearts (Jer 17:1, 2). We therefore need a heart transplant so He may write Mercy and Truth upon it (Eze 36:25-27; Ps 51:10) Mercy and truth bring forth God's atonement, where He purges our iniquity (Prov 16:6). Favor with God brings the Latter Rain (Prov 16:15). Apostasy however, withholds the Latter Rain (Jer 3:1-3)

Prov 3:2

Prov 3:2 - For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee - See Ex 20:12

Prov 3:2

Prov 3:2 - peace, shall they add to thee - See Prov 1:33

Prov 3:3

Prov 3:3 - Let not mercy and truth forsake thee - do not allow mercy and truth to turn from you, see that you are not worthy of their blessings. See Ps 23:6

Prov 3:4

Prov 3:4 - So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man - See Lk 2:52

Prov 3:5

Prov 3:5 - Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding - we are to humble ourselves before God and recognize that we know nothing as we ought to know it. When we have an attitude of submission and seek God's counsel, He will impart knowledge liberally. See Col 2:12; Jam 1:5

Prov 3:5

Prov 3:6 - heart - out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaketh (Mt 12:34). Therefore, what we dwell upon in our speech, whether good or bad, will determine what encompasses the heart. If we meditate and talk of God, then He dwells within.

Prov 3:5

Prov 3:5 - lean not unto thine own understanding - we are to be self-distrusting. We should not trust our emotions, intuition (gut), or education/training, but rather trust in God.

Prov 3:6

Prov 3:6 - In all thy ways acknowledge Him - we should recognize God's ever presence, and His willingness to be our Guide in life in all things, large and small. Our simple request for His guidance will place us under His care and guidance. See Ps 37:5; Prov 16:3 In every difficulty He has His way prepared to bring relief. Our heavenly Father has a thousand ways to provide for us, of which we know nothing. Those who accept the one principle of making the service and honor of God supreme will find perplexities vanish, and a plain path before their feet. - {DA 330.1} God is seeking those who will worship Him in Spirit and in Truth. God desires true worshippers, who recognize they are 100% powerless without Him, completely reliant upon Him, and will therefore seek Him constantly for EVERYTHING. This is what pleases God, a people who love and honor Him by acknowledging Him in all of their ways and He will then direct their paths (Prov 3:5, 6). God is not out to selfishly control us, rather, He just recognizes the utter depravity of our sinful condition that is continually exalting SELF (self-praise, self-worship, self-gratification, etc. - Mt 23:12). He can not save us if there is even the minutest trace of self within us, thus He is so adamant that we learn to trust and abide in Him as He abides COMPLETELY in us. The Ps 147:1-11, is reminding us of our reliance and the blessing that comes from that reliance upon Him.

Prov 3:6

Prov 3:6 - he shall direct thy paths - See Jer 10:23; Ps 139:13

Prov 3:7

Prov 3:7 - Be not wise in thine own eyes - See Rom 12:16

Prov 3:7

Prov 3:7 - and depart from evil - See 1Thess 5:22

Prov 3:9

Prov 3:9 - Honour the Lord with thy substance and with the firstfruits of all thine increase - Show gratitude to the Lord for that which He has provided, and honor Him, seeking to support His Kingdom and His work here in the earth. See Deut 8:2-18; Mal 3:8-11; Gen 14:16-23

Prov 3:10

Prov 3:10 - new wine - See Isa 65:8

Prov 3:11

Prov 3:11, 12 - despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of His correction: for whom the LORD loveth He correcteth - See Heb 12:4-7

Prov 3:12

Prov 3:12 - For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth - See Heb 12:6

Prov 3:13

Proverbs 3:13, 14 - Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding - See Prov 8:17-19

Prov 3:23 - Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble - See Ps 17:5

Prov 3:24

Prov 3:24 - When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet - See Act 12:5, 6

Prov 3:25

Prov 3:25 - Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh - See Ps 37:1

Prov 3:27

Prov 3:27 - Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it - See Jam 5:1-6

Prov 3:30

Prov 3:30 - Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm - See 1Kin 21:1-16; Joh 15:25; Psa 7:4, 25:3, 35:7, 69:4, 109:3, 119:161; Prov 1:11

Prov 4:10

Prov 4:10 - Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be many - See Ex 20:12

Prov 4:14

Prov 4:14 - Enter not into the paths of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men - See Mt 6:13

Prov 4:18

Prov 4:18 - paths of the just - Those who have been justified by the blood of Jesus (No Condemnation, Blameless), are to continue to grow in grace and godliness until the perfect day, the Day of Jesus Christ.

Prov 4:18

Prov 4:18 - paths of the just - Those who have been justified by the blood of Jesus (No Condemnation, Blameless), are to continue to grow in grace and godliness until the perfect day, the Day of Jesus Christ. See Isa 26:7; Ps 97:11 New and Old Testaments are not understood by finite minds as they will be. The Bible is a progressive book; the communication of intelligence grows with the opening of God's Word to the understanding. - {1888 259.1} Questions were asked at that time. "Sister White, do you think that the Lord has any new and increased light for us as a people?" I answered, "Most assuredly. I do not only think so, but can speak understandingly. I know that there is precious truth to be unfolded to us if we are the people that are to stand in the day of God's preparation." - {3SM

174.1} No one can labor in the Sabbath school or in the temperance work without reaping a bountiful harvest, not only in the end of the world, but in the present life. In the very effort to enlighten and bless others his own views will become clearer and broader. The more we endeavor to explain the truth to others, with a love for souls, the plainer will it become to ourselves. It ever opens with new beauty and force to the understanding of the expounder. - {5T 120.4}

Prov 4:18 - as the shining light - See Ps 119:130; Hos 6:3

Prov 4:18

Prov 4:18 - shineth more and more unto the perfect day - See 2Pet 1:19; Mal 4:2 Questions were asked at that time. "Sister White, do you think that the Lord has any new and increased light for us as a people?" I answered, "Most assuredly. I do not only think so, but can speak understandingly. I know that there is precious truth to be unfolded to us if we are the people that are to stand in the day of God's preparation." { 3SM 174.1} When first constrained to separate from the English Church, the Puritans had joined themselves together by a solemn covenant, as the Lord's free people, "to walk together in all His ways made known or to be made known to them."—J. Brown, The Pilgrim Fathers, page 74. Here was the true spirit of reform, the vital principle of Protestantism. It was with this purpose that the Pilgrims departed from Holland to find a home in the New World. Joh Robinson, their pastor, who was providentially prevented from accompanying them, in his farewell address to the exiles said: - {GC 291.3} "Brethren, we are now erelong to part asunder, and the Lord knoweth whether I shall live ever to see your faces more. But whether the Lord hath appointed it or not, I charge you before God and His blessed angels to follow me no farther than I have followed Christ. If God should reveal anything to you by any other instrument of His, be as ready to receive it as ever you were to receive any truth of my ministry; for I am very confident the Lord hath more truth and light yet to break forth out of His holy word."—Martyn 5:70. - {GC 291.4}

Proverbs 4:19 - The way of the wicked is as darkness - See 1Thess 5:1-4

Prov 4:19

Prov 4:19 - they know not at what they stumble - See Ps 73:18; 27:1, 2; 1Thess 5:1-6

Prov 4:23

Prov 4:23 - Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. - See Deut 4:9, 6:4, 5; Mt 7:6, 12:34; Prov 14:30; 2Cor 10:5

Prov 4:24

Prov 4:24 - froward - FROWARD, a. [L. versus: turned or looking from.] Perverse, that is, turning from, with aversion or reluctance; not willing to yield or comply with what is required; unyielding; ungovernable; refractory; disobedient; peevish; as a froward child

Prov 4:25

Prov 4:25 - Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee... Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil - See Deut 6:4-12; Job 31:1; Ps

119:9, 37

Prov 4:26

Prov 4:26, 27 - Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established. 27 Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil. - See Jer 6:16; Isa 30:21

Prov 5:18

Prov 5:18 - Let thy fountains be blessed - See Heb 13:4

Prov 5:19

Prov 5:19 - Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant roe; let her breasts satisfy thee at all times; and be thou ravished always with her love - See Mal 2:14, 15

Prov 5:22

Prov 5:22 - His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins - God does not destroy men, men destroy themselves. See Joh 12:47, 48; Isa 5:18 Even one wrong trait of character, one sinful desire, persistently cherished, will eventually neutralize all the power of the gospel. Every sinful indulgence strengthens the soul's aversion to God. The man who manifests an infidel hardihood, or a stolid indifference to divine truth, is but reaping the harvest of that which he has himself sown. In all the Bible there is not a more fearful warning against trifling with evil than the words of the wise man that the sinner "shall be holden with the cords of his sins." Proverbs 5:22. - {SC 34.1}

Prov 6:2

Prov 6:2 - Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth - See 1Kin 22:2-4; Jam 3:2-8; Prov 17:18, 21:23; Judges 11:30-40

Prov 6:3

Prov 6:3 - Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend - if we make ourselves an accomplice, surety to a pledge, we must do all in our power to clear ourselves from that obligation. We must confess the wrong of our pledge and seek to clear ourselves of the obligation. See Prov 12:13; 2Cor 7:11

Prov 6:13

Prov 6:13 - speaketh with his feet - See Prov 6:18

Prov 6:14

Prov 6:14 - Frowardness - Perverseness; reluctance to yield or comply; disobedience; peevishness.

Prov 6:17 - A proud look - arrogance; conceit; vanity; contempt; self-righteousness - See Isa 65:5; Jam 2:1-4; Lk 3:7-9, 7:37-48; Joh 9:34; Mt 26:65, 66

Prov 6:17

Prov 6:17 - a lying tongue - See Ex 20:16; Prov 13:5, 25:19; Rev 22:15

Prov 6:17

Prov 6:17 - hands that shed innocent blood - Every time we commit sin and ask forgiveness, it is as we have gone to the Altar of Burnt Sacrifice and killed the Lamb of God anew, shedding innocent blood. Our sins are an abomination to the Lord. See Gen 4:8-13, 34:25, 26; 1Sam 11:15-27; 1Kin 21:8-14; Mt 27:4, 24, 25

Prov 6:18

Prov 6:18 - An heart that diviseth wicked imaginations - Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaketh. See Mt 12:34; Lk 6:45; 2Sam 11:6-14, 13:3-6, 16:21-23

Prov 6:18

Prov 6:18 - feet that be swift in running to mischief - Our feet only go where our mind directs them to go. Must ask the Lord to remove our mischievous minds. See Prov 1:10-14, 16, 6:13

Prov 6:19

Prov 6:19 - A false witness that speaketh lies - See 2Sam 16:1-4, 19:25-29; 1Kin 21:8-13; Jer 28:10-15; Mt 26:60-62; Rev 22:15

Prov 6:23 - For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light - See Ps 119:105

Prov 6:23

Prov 6:23 - reproofs of instruction are the way of life - If we desire to have life and life more abundantly, we must be willing to endure and heed reproofs of correction when offered. See Prov 5:12

Prov 6:24

Prov 6:24 - evil woman... flattery and tongue of a strange woman - the law and the commandments (testimonies of the prophets and the commandments) will preserve from the evil woman (see Prov 2:16). See Dan 11:34

Prov 6:26

Prov 6:26 - For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread - See 1Cor 6:15

Prov 6:26

Prov 6:26 - adulteress will hunt - the adulteress is different from the harlot. The adulteress is married whereas the harlot need not be. See that the adulteress is worst than the harlot because the harlot takes wages for her harlotry, whereas the adulteress takes no wages but offers her body freely, paying those she hires (Eze 16:30-34). The adulteress has forsaken the covenant of her God, also the guide of her youth (see Prov 2:10-18). The adulteress is apostate Adventism. See the counsel to Adventism in these last days, in the Day of Atonement (Jam 4:4-10; Isa 27:9; Ps 32:1-6)

Prov 7:3

Prov 7:3 - write the upon the table of thine heart - See Psa 119:11

Prov 7:7

Prov 7:7 - simple ones... void of understanding - a foolish virgin. See Mt 25:2

Prov 7:10

Prov 7:7 - woman with the attire of an harlot - A reference to the whore Babylon in a primary sense but also to the apostate movements in Adventism that deny the present truth and the love of God contained in His commandments and in His doctrine. See Rev 17:1-5; 2Kin 9:30; Joh 7:17

Prov 7:12

Prov 7:12 - Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner - the apostate movements in Adventism are evangelizing, seeking to lure unwearied and unwise to its fold

Prov 7:17

Prov 7:17 - I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes - those things used to anoint.

Prov 7:19

Prov 7:19 - For the goodman is not at home, he is gone a long journey - the message of apostate Adventism is that "the LORD delayeth His coming". See Lk 12:45; Mt 24:48

Prov 7:26

Prov 7:26 - For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, many strong men have been slain by her - See Judges 16:4-19

Prov 8:1

Prov 8:1 - Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice? She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the path. She cryeth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors. - See Prov 19:1-4

Prov 8:7

Prov 8:7 - For my mouth shall speak truth, and wickedness is an abomination to my lips - wisdom solely speaks that which is true and upright. All wickedness is an abomination to her: lies, course jesting, perversity, froward speech,

Prov 8:9

Prov 8:9 - They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge - See 1Cor 2:14; Dan 12:10

Prov 8:10

Prov 8:10 - Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold - See Prov 8:19; Ps 119:72, 127

Prov 8:12

Prov 8:12 - I wisdom dwell with prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions. - Jesus is the Power and Wisdom of God (1Cor 1:24, 30). Wisdom and prudence enable the upright and just to discern the schemes and wit behind men's devisings and inventions. As the Word of God is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart (Heb 4:12) and the LORD searches the heart to see what manner of spirit is within us (Lk 9:55), He gives to His faithful, understanding to discern the effect, impact and end of the plotings of men. Prudence, operating with good reason rather than feelings is the opposite of sentimentalism. See Ps 2:1-4

Prov 8:13

Prov 8:13- The fear of the Lord is to hate evil - See Prov 6:16-19

Prov 8:18

Prov 8:18 - durable riches and righteousness - the durable riches which will not rust or perish are found in God's Kingdom: gifts of the Spirit, fruit of righteousness, eternal life. See Mt 6:19, 20; Isa 58:14

Prov 8:19

Prov 8:19 - My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver - See Ps 119:72, 127; Prov 3:13-15, 8:10

Prov 8:21

Prov 8:21 - cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures - See 1Kin 3:9-13

Prov 8:22

Prov 8:22 - The LORD possessed me in the beginning of His way, before His works of old. I was set up from everlasting - Jesus, the wisdom of God, is from everlasting to everlasting. See 1Cor 1:24, 30; Mic 5:2

Prov 8:23

Prov 8:23 - I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was - See Ps 90:1, 2

Prov 8:30

Proverbs 8:30 - Then I was by him, as one brought up with him - the equality of Wisdom (Jesus) and the Father is here emphasized. See Heb 1:8

Prov 8:31

Prov 8:31 - and my delights were with the sons of men - Jesus the wisdom, power and glory of God delighted in His creation, especially to commune with mankind.

Prov 8:35

Prov 8:35 - For whoso findeth me findeth life - Jesus, the Wisdom of God (1Cor 1:24), is also Life - Eternal Life. See Prov 21:21; Joh 11:25; 1Jo 5:11-13

Prov 11:8

Prov 11:8 - The righteous is delivered out of trouble - See Ps 54:7

Prov 11:14

Prov 11:14 - Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety - the first counsel we are to seek is from the Wonderful Counselor, Who is wonderful in counsel (Isa 9:6, 28:29). After we have sought His counsel, and compared His revelation with those who too have first sought God's counsel, we will find safety in the collective wisdom He imparts. We must never seek or heed the wisdom of man in the absence or neglect of God's wisdom. See Prov 15:22, 24:6 Let none be self-confident, as though God had given them special light above their brethren. Christ is represented as dwelling in His people. Believers are represented as "built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief Cornerstone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit." "I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord," says Paul, "beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love; endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all." - {5T 291.3} There are a thousand temptations in disguise prepared for those who have the light of truth; and the only safety for any of us is in receiving no new doctrine, no new interpretation of the Scriptures, without first submitting it to brethren of experience. Lay it before them in a humble, teachable spirit, with earnest prayer; and if they see no light in it, yield to their judgment; for "in the multitude of counselors there is safety." - {5T 293.1}

Prov 11:22

Prov 11:22 - As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which is without discretion - a beautiful woman who is not comely in spirit, deportment and temperament is as a swine with a ring in its nose - See Mt 7:6

Prov 11:23

Prov 11:23 - The desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath - See Prov 11:27

Prov 11:23

Prov 11:23 - expectation - The act of expecting or looking forward to a future event with at least some reason to believe the event will happen. Expectation differs from hope. Hope originates in desire, and may exist with little or no ground of belief that the desired event will arrive. Expectation is founded on some reasons which render the event probable. Hope is directed to some good; expectation is directed to good or evil.

Prov 18:10

Prov 18:10 - The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe. - There is only one name under heaven by which we may be saved, that is Jesus, the LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. The righteous are they which run to it in faith. See Ps 46:1-11, 99:3, Act 4:12||Ps 32:1-3||Rom 4:1-5

Prov 18:10

Prov 18:10 - the righteous runneth into it, and is safe - the righteous are they who in humility yield to the promptings of the Holy Spirit (Rom 2:4, 5) in repentance, and place their faith in a sin pardoning Savior (Ps 32:1; Rom 4:1-8). This is contrasted with the wicked, who know not God and seek to establish their own righteousness (Joh 16:1-3; Rom 10:3).

Prov 19:27

Prov 19:27 - Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge - Compare Isa 45:19

Prov 20:1

Prov 20:1 - wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise - See Prov 23:31-33; Contrast Isa 65:8 Thousands are continually selling physical, mental, and moral vigor for the pleasure of taste. Each of the faculties has its distinctive office, and yet they all have a mutual dependence upon each other. And if the balance is carefully preserved they will be kept in harmonious action. Not one of these faculties can be valued by dollars and cents. And yet, for a good dinner, for alcohol, or tobacco, they are sold. And while paralyzed by the indulgence of appetite, Satan controls the mind and leads to every species of crime and wickedness. God has enjoined upon us to preserve every faculty in healthful vigor, that we may have a clear sense of His requirements, and that we may perfect holiness in His fear. - {Con 79.4}

Prov 20:1

Prov 20:1 - whosoever is deceived thereby - we are intoxicated (deceived) literally and spiritually) by Satan's influences when we indulge the appetite for strong drink (alcohol). See Prov 23:31-33, 31:4-7; Isa 5:11-14, 22; Rev 12:9 Aaron's sons took the common fire, which God did not accept, and they offered insult to the infinite God by presenting this strange fire before Him. God consumed them by fire for their positive disregard of His express directions. All their works were as the offering of Cain. There was no divine Saviour represented. Had these sons of Aaron been in full command of their reasoning faculties they would have discerned the difference between the common and sacred fire. The gratification of appetite debased their faculties and so beclouded their intellect that their power of discernment was gone. They fully understood the holy character of the typical service, and the awful solemnity and responsibility assumed of presenting themselves before God to minister in sacred service. - {Confrontation 81.1} Some may inquire, How could the sons of Aaron have been accountable when their intellects were so far paralyzed by intoxication that they were not able to discern the difference between sacred and common fire? It was when they put the cup to their lips that they made themselves responsible for all their acts committed while under the influence of wine. The indulgence of appetite cost those priests their lives. God expressly forbade the use of wine that would have an influence to becloud the intellect. - {Con 81.2}

Prov 30:14 - There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men - today, a needle from a vaccine will poke as a sword or knife and is designed to kill off the poor and needy. See Ezekiel 22:27-29

Prov 30:20 - Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness - a hardened, cruel, souless, heartless, Godless, ruthless, uncaring, shameless, worthless, hypocritical spirit is seen in the adulterous woman. See Gen 4:9; Rev 18:7; Job 27:10; Isa 26:10, 47:7, 8; Ps 10:6; Mt 12:39, 16:4; Lk 12:1

Prov 30:22

Prov 30:22 - For a servant when he reigneth - See Mt 10:24, 25

Prov 30:23

Prov 30:23 - For an odious woman when she is married - See Prov 21:9, 19

Prov 30:23

Prov 30:23 - odious - hateful

Prov 30:26

Prov 30:26 - The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks - See Ps 104:18

Prov 30:27

Prov 30:27 - The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands - a perfect foreshadowing of the manner in which Islam governed itself for the first 600yrs before becoming unified under Othman as part of an empire. See Rev 9:11

Prov 30:33

Prov 30:33 - Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter - churning requires strength and exercise to produce butter from milk. Therefore the deeper things (strong meat or present truth) of God's Word must be gained through exercise of one's faith. See Isa 7:15; Heb 5:12

Prov 31:1

Prov 31:31 - the prophecy that his mother taught him - the counsels given were for a king from the mouth of his mother. This shows how a mother's training and counsels are vital to a man's development and choice of a life partner. See Proverbs 1:8

Prov 31:2

Prov 31:2 - the son of my vows? - as Hannah made vows to consecrate her son to the Lord, so Lemuel's mother made vows for his protection, well-being and development.

Prov 31:3

Prov 31:3 - Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways to that which destroyeth kings -

See Hosea 13:13; Col 3:5; Rom 7:8; 1Thess 4:5

Prov 31:3

Prov 31:3 - nor thy ways to that which destroyeth kings - See 1Kin 11:4-9;

Prov 31:4

Prov 31:4 - It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink: - See Prov 20:1; 23:

Prov 31:6

Prov 31:6 - strong drink - the wine spoken of here is fermented, intoxicating wine, unlike the wine of the cluster, wherein there is a blessing. Contrast Isa 65:8

Prov 31:8

Prov 31:8 - Open thy mouth for the dumb - we are to speak up for those who can not speak for themselves and who have no voice. See Prov 31:9

Prov 31:9

Prov 31:9 - Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy - See Prov 31:8

Prov 31:10

Prov 31:10 - Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies - a virtuous woman is one to be treasured. She possesses the wisdom of Jesus Christ. See Prov 8:18, 19

Prov 31:10

Prov 31:10 - virtuous - Morally good; chaste; acting in conformity to the moral law; practicing the moral duties, and abstaining from vice

Prov 31:11

Prov 31:11 - The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil - the virtuous wife is thrifty, not wasteful in money; she is a person of integrity, where her word is bond; she is diligent and industrious, not slothful and lazy; she is of a noble character, compassionate and generous to those who are in need; she is one who loves without dissimulation; and she is intelligent in the word of God and in matters of life so that she is a woman of good judgment. See 1Cor 7:34

Prov 31:12

Prov 31:12 - She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life - Contrast Prov 21:9, 19

Prov 31:13

Prov 31:13 - She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands - she is industrious and willing to work with her hands to provide for her family. See Ruth 2:2, 11

Prov 31:14

Prov 31:14 - She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar - See Ruth 2:17-19

Prov 31:15

Prov 31:15 - She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens - she is diligent in making provision for her family. She is generous, kind and thoughtful in preserving a portion for her household assistants/maidens.

Prov 31:16

Prov 31:16 - She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard - she is resourceful in that she sees a barren field that she may make into a vineyard and pursues it by purchasing it.

Prov 31:18

Prov 31:18 - She perceiveth that her merchandise is good - She recognizes that her produce is good and places a watch at night.

Prov 31:18

Prov 31:18 - her candle goeth not out by night - either she keeps late hours working as required or she is diligent in setting a watch, ensuring her produce are guarded, watched and cared-over.

Prov 31:19

Prov 31:19 - She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff - she is skilled and able to make yarn and sew garments.

Prov 31:20

Prov 31:20 - She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy - she is considerate and compassionate. She is willing to share and care for the needy. See Deut 24:19-22; Isa 58:7

Prov 31:21

Prov 31:21 - She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet - she ensures her family are well clothed.

Prov 31:22

Prov 31:22 - She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple - she is exquisitely attired with silk, tapestry and in purple.

Prov 31:23

Prov 31:23 - Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land - her husband is respected because of the honor she brings to him.

Prov 31:26

Prov 31:26 - She openeth her mouth with wisdom - the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. She is one who has learned to fear God and give glory to Him. See Ps 111:10; Prov

9:10, 1:7; Prov 31:30

Prov 31:26

Prov 31:26 - and in her tongue is the law of kindness - her words are seasoned with grace and kindness. See Col 4:6

Prov 31:27

Prov 31:27 - She looketh well to the ways of her household - She attends to the affairs of her own home. She makes sure that she has a well ordered home, which compliments the works of her husband, ruling over his own house well as an elder among the people. She is not a busy body, involved in the affairs of others to the neglect of her own home. See 1Tim 3:4, 5:13

Prov 31:27

Prov 31:27 - and eateth not the bread of idleness - See 1Pet 4:15

Prov 31:29

Prov 31:29 - Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all - See Song 6:8-10

Prov 31:30

Prov 31:30 - Favour is deceitful - privilege, charm, and wittiness are deceitful.

Prov 31:30

Prov 31:30 - beauty is vain - beauty is fleeting

Prov 31:30

Prov 31:30 - but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised - a virtuous woman who fears God shall be praised in the end. The fruit of her labour and wisdom will show forth in a blessed household and life. See Prov 31:31

Prov 31:31

Prov 31:31 - Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates. See Rev 14:13

Ecclesiastes

Eccl 1:8 - the eye is not satisfied with seeing - See Prov 27:20

Eccl 1:9

Eccl 1:9 - the thing that hath been - See Eccl 3:15

Eccl 1:9

Eccl 1:9 - and there is no new thing under the sun - Solomon encourages us to take counsel to his words. He, as the most prosperous king, experienced all the folly and mirth a man could experience. There is nothing that could be added to his experiences. In his perversions, God allowed him to yet maintain his wisdom so that in the end, he could reason that it was all in vain, a waste. His counsels are timeless and for all generations. See Eccl 2:4-13

Eccl 1:14

Eccl 1:14 - I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit - Solomon finds that all of man's industry, work and endeavors, if not done for the Lord, is "vanity and vexation of spirit"

Eccl 1:15

Eccl 1:15 - That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and that which is wanting cannot be numbered - Solomon bemoans the evil in the world where the crooked can not be straightened and that which is wanting, needs are boundless.

Eccl 1:16

Eccl 1:16 - I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge - Solomon acknowledges the blessing of the Lord where he was granted more wisdom than any before him. Yet, he recognizes that he misused and misapplied his knowledge and wisdom and only found sorrow. See Eccl 1:17, 18

Eccl 1:17

Eccl 1:17 - And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly - though given great wisdom on good and wholesome things, Solomon applied his energies to know that which was forbidden of God ("madness and folly"). Through this "forbidden knowledge" Solomon found "vexation of spirit".

Eccl 1:18

Eccl 1:18 - For in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow - the one who increases knowledge of evil will find increased sorrow.

Eccl 2:18

Eccl 2:18 - Yea, I hated all my labour which I had taken under the sun: because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me - See 1Tim 2:7

Eccl 2:23

Eccl 2:23 - For all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity - See Job 14:1

Eccl 3:11

Eccl 3:11 - also he hath set the world in their heart - the NKJV translates this as "He has put eternity in their hearts", meaning a love and desire for eternal life is imbedded in each soul. See 1Cor 15:19

Eccl 3:11

Eccl 3:11 - so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end - God declares the end from the beginning and the things not yet done He declares. This is in contrast to the statement here that man, despite his searching can not fathom the things of God. See Isa 46:9, 10

Eccl 3:14

Eccl 3:14 - I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it - See Isa 55:11; Gen 1:31

Eccl 3:15

Eccl 3:15 - that which hath been is now - See Eccl 1:9

Eccl 3:16

Eccl 3:16 -And moreover I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there - See Isa 59:11-15

Eccl 3:17

Eccl 3:17 - I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work - See 2Cor 5:10; Dan 7:8, 9, 13, 14

Eccl 3:20

Eccl 3:20 - All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again - See Gen 2:7; Ps 104:29; Eccl 12:7

Eccl 3:21

Eccl 3:21 - Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth? - the question is asked, who knows whether the "spirit of man" goes upward to heaven and the "spirit of beast" goes downward to the earth. There is implied two different "spirits" for man and beast. Both have life by virtue of the life giving power of God, the breath of life. However, mankind, that was created in God's image and in God's likeness is both physical and spiritual.

Eccl 3:22

Eccl 3:22 - for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him? - See Job 14:21, 22; Eccl 9:5, 6

Eccl 4:1

Eccl 4:1 - See Isa 59:15, 16

Eccl 4:5

Eccl 4:5 - The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh - See Prov 20:4

Eccl 5:1

Eccl 5:1 - be swift to hear, slow to speak and slow to wrath - See Jam 1:19; Eccl 5:2

Eccl 5:1

Eccl 5:1 - the sacrifice of fools - the sacrifice of a fool is clamor - See Prov 9:

Eccl 5:2

Eccl 5:2 - Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few - See Mt 12:36; Eccl 12:14

Eccl 5:3

Eccl 5:3 - For a dream cometh through multitude of business - through diligent search, effort or activity.

Eccl 5:4

Eccl 5:4 - When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed - See Ps 65:1, 66:13

Eccl 5:5

Eccl 5:5 - Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay. - Let your yag be yag and nay nay. See Ps 76:11

Eccl 5:8

Eccl 5:8 - If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they - See Isa 59:11-15; Ps 73:17

Eccl 5:9

Eccl 5:9 - Moreover the profit of the earth is for all - The order that God established for the earth was that all should benefit from the fruit of the earth. There should be no want and no excess as all would be benefited from the earth's provisions. Man has perverted our ways and has cast God's ways aside, therefore, oppression and scarcity are the result.

Eccl 5:12

Eccl 5:13 - but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep - the rich are always guarding their wealth from others and therefore have no peace. See Jam 5:1-6

Eccl 5:17

Eccl 5:17 - All his days also he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness - one who eats outside of God's will will find sorrow and sickness. Compare Ex 15:26

Eccl 6:3

Ecclesiastes 6:3 - If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good - God is He Who satisfies us with good things so our youth is renewed like the eagle. Without the knowledge and love for God in one's heart, their lives are in vain. See Ps 103:1-5

Eccl 6:9

Eccl 6:9 - Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: -

Eccl 7:9

Ecclesiastes 7:9 - Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools - See Jam 1:19; Prov 14:29

Eccl 7:16

Eccl 7:16 - Be not righteous over much - be not self-righteous. See Isa 65:5

Eccl 7:20

Eccl 7:20 - For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not - See Rom 3:10-18

Eccl 7:26

Eccl 7:26 - And I find more bitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: - See Prov 30:20, 21-23; Ps 11:2

Eccl 7:29

Eccl 7:29 - God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions - the conjunction "but" signifies that that which God has made upright has been corrupted by mankind's inventions (Ps 106:39; 28, 29, 99:8; Prov 8:12; Deut 32:17; Rom 1:23, 25). For example: 1. God has given men a clear and complete understanding of the earth and the source of all therein through the six days of Creation. Men have sought out theories suggesting the world we know today has been around for countless eons. 2. God has made known mankind's origins, that we were made in His image, after His own likeness, yet, men have invented theories suggesting we are linked to every species of inferior forms of creation. 3. God has given men His counsels for work and rest to establish a balance in life. God has commanded men to remember to keep holy the Sabbath day as both a memorial of the Creation and of our Redemption from sin. Men have substituted hallowed and blessed hours for a base counterfeit in the Sunday. 4. God has given men the Bible as a guide in the highest of sciences, the Science of Salvation. Men, to their eternal loss, neglect these sacred writings for Shakespearean "classics" and other pointless rubbish. 5. God has given men a clear understanding of the existence and source of all evil. Men are told that they have a real foe against whom they must war. Yet, men seek to explain person's evil behavior through science, chemical imbalances and other falasies.

Eccl 7:29

Ecclesiastes 7:29 - but they have sought out many inventions - sinful man has sought many ways to pervert their once noble character.

Eccl 8:4

Eccl 8:4 - Where the word of a king is, there is power: and who may say unto him, What doest thou? - See Job 9:12, 13

Eccl 8:5

Eccl 8:5 - Whoso keepeth the commandment shall feel no evil thing - See Rom 13:3, 4

Eccl 8:8

Eccl 8:8 - There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: - See Ps 146:4

Eccl 8:11

Eccl 8:11 - Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil - See 2Pet 3:1-9

Eccl 8:12

Eccl 8:12 - I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him - See Ps 1:6

Eccl 8:13

Eccl 8:13 - But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God - See Ps 73:2-17, 1:5, 6; Heb 12:29

Eccl 8:14

Eccl 8:14 - There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity - See Mt 5:45

Eccl 9:5

Eccl 9:5 - For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten - Correct Understanding Vital—A correct understanding of “what saith the Scriptures” in regard to the state of the dead is essential for this time. God’s Word declares that the dead know not anything, their hatred and love have alike perished. We must come to the sure word of prophecy for our authority. Unless we are intelligent in the Scriptures, may we not, when this mighty miracle-working power of Satan is manifested in our world, be deceived and call it the workings of God; for the Word of God declares that, if it were possible, the very elect should be deceived. Unless we are rooted and grounded in the truth, we shall be swept away by Satan’s delusive snares. We must cling to our Bibles. If Satan can make you believe that there are things in the Word of God that are not inspired, he will then be prepared to ensnare your soul. We shall have no assurance, no certainty, at the very time we need to know what is truth.—The Review and Herald, December 18, 1888. - {Ev 249.2}

Eccl 9:5

Eccl 9:5 - but the dead know not anything - See Ps 6:5, 146:4; Job 7:9, 10, 14:7-13, 20, 21, 17:13, 19:25-27; Isa 38:18, 19

Eccl 9:5

Eccl 9:5 - neither have they any more a reward - See Job 14:20, 21

Eccl 9:5

Eccl 9:5 - for the memory of them is forgotten - See Ps 146:4

Eccl 9:6

Eccl 9:6 - Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished - the dead have lost their ability to sense and emote. See Eccl 9:10

Eccl 9:6

Eccl 9:10 - neither have they any more a portion for ever - the dead have no more portion in things done under the sun forever, or rather, until the appointed time when the LORD will remember His people and resurrect them. See Job 14:12-14; Joh 5:25, 28, 29; Ps 88:4-6, 10-12, 103:15, 16

Eccl 9:10

Eccl 9:10 - Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest - See Job 14:7-12; Eccl 9:5, 6

Eccl 10:2

Eccl 10:2 - A wise man's heart is at his right hand - See Ps 16:8

Eccl 10:2

Eccl 10:4

Eccl 10:4 - If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for yielding pacieth great offences - if we have offended a person, stand in our place and humble ourselves, this will pacify the offense.

Eccl 10:5

Eccl 10:5 - as an error which proceedeth from the ruler - those who are in charge commit such folly.

Eccl 10:6

Eccl 10:6 - Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in a low place - foolishness (low-lives) are exalted and those of true dignity and honor are cast down

Eccl 10:8

Eccl 10:8 - and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him - whoever cuts-down a hedge, a barrier erected for protection, will be bitten by a serpent (will regret it).

Eccl 10:10

Eccl 10:10 - If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct - we ought to work smarter, not harder.

Eccl 10:11

Eccl 10:11 - Surely the serpent will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better - without stimulation, the serpent is alert and ready to strike. Similarly, the talebearer and babbler is always searching to smite with the tongue. See Prov 11:13

Eccl 10:12

Eccl 10:12 - The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious - a wise man's words are seasoned with grace. See Col 4:6

Eccl 10:12

Eccl 10:12, 13 - but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself - by his own words, a fool will condemn himself. "The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness"

Eccl 10:15

Eccl 10:15 - because he knoweth not how to go to the city - he does not understand the paths of life, the way to the celestial, eternal city.

Eccl 10:16

Eccl 10:16 - Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning! - a child as a ruler and those who lack discretion are a reproach to the land.

Eccl 10:17

Eccl 10:17 - and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness! - the rulers eat for necessity and with discretion and not for wantonness and dissipation .

Eccl 10:19

Eccl 10:19 - A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry - feasting and merriment pleases the heart of all, but money captures everyone's attention and is the "solution", "remedy", "answer" for all things.

Eccl 10:20

Eccl 10:20 - Curse not the king, no not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter - we ought not to talk evil of anyone because such conversation tends to sprout wings and be taken to the individual.

Eccl 11:1

Eccl 11:1 - Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days - Give of your best to the Master and His Kingdom and He will bring it back to you, pressed down, overflowing. See 2Cor 9:7; Isa 32:30, 8, 52:7

Eccl 11:5

Eccl 11:5 - As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit - See Joh 3:8

Eccl 11:9

Eccl 11:9 - Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment - See Mt 12:36

Eccl 12:2

Eccl 12:2 - While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened - while we still have our sight and vision has not failed us, remember our Creator.

Eccl 12:3

Eccl 12:3 - In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble - before our hands loose their steadiness, let us remember our Creator

Eccl 12:3

Eccl 12:3 - and the strong men shall bow themselves - while our legs still have strength, let us remember our Creator.

Eccl 12:3

Eccl 12:3 - the grinders cease because they are few - before we loose our teeth, let us remember our Creator.

Eccl 12:3

Eccl 12:3 - those that look out of the windows be darkened - before we loose our sight, let us remember our Creator.

Eccl 12:4

Eccl 12:4 - And the doors shall be shut in the streets - the elderly do not like to be out at night for fear.

Eccl 12:4

Eccl 12:4 - when the sound of the grinding is low - before our hearing fails us, let us remember our Creator.

Eccl 12:4

Eccl 12:4 - he shall rise up at the voice of the bird - as the aged wake at the crack of dawn, let us remember our Creator.

Eccl 12:4

Eccl 12:4 - all the daughters of musick shall be brought low - before our hearing fails us, let us remember our Creator.

Eccl 12:5

Eccl 12:5 - Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way - as the aged become fearful, we must remember our Creator before that day.

Eccl 12:5

Eccl 12:5 - and the almond tree shall flourish - before our hair becomes white or grey as an almond tree in bloom, so let us remember our Creator.

Eccl 12:5

Eccl 12:5 - the grasshopper shall be a burden - as elderly people become annoyed by sounds, even so we must remember our Creator before that day.

Eccl 12:5

Eccl 12:5 - desire shall fail - when there is no desire for the opposite sex, before then let us remember our Creator.

Eccl 12:5

Eccl 12:5 - because man goeth to his long home - See Job 14:10, 12, 13

Eccl 12:7

Eccl 12:7 - Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it - See Jam 2:26; Job 14:10

Eccl 12:7

Eccl 12:7 - and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it - our life is hid in Jesus Christ, Who as Life, gave us life and as the Resurrection, will quicken us in the 1st or 2nd resurrections. See Col 3:1-4; Joh 1:1-4, 11:25 "The spirit that returns to God not only contains the spark of life but also the substance (personality) of who that person is (see Heb 11:1)". - {Pastor Gregory Jackson, The Abiding in Jesus Bible Study, The Truth About Life and Death - Part 2}

Eccl 12:13

Eccl 12:13 - Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man - See Rev 14:7

Eccl 12:14

Eccl 12:14 - For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil - See Ps 90:8; Jam 2:12 Our time belongs to God. Every moment is His, and we are under the most solemn obligation to improve it to His glory. Of no talent He has given will He require a more strict account than of our time. - {COL 342.1} The value of time is beyond computation. Christ regarded every moment as precious, and it is thus that we should regard it. Life is too short to be trifled away. We have but a few days of probation in which to prepare for eternity. We have no time to waste, no time to devote to selfish pleasure, no time for the indulgence of sin. It is now that we are to form characters for the future, immortal life. It is now that we are to prepare for the searching judgment. - {COL 342.2}

Song 2:3 - I sat down under his shadow with great delight - See Ps 91:1

Song 2:3

Song 2:3 - and his fruit was sweet to my taste - See Ps 34:8; 119:103; Eze 3:3; Rev 10:10

Song 5:2

Song of Solomon 5:2 - Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night - See Rev 3:20

Song 5:10

Song 5:10 - the chiefest among ten thousand - See Ps 45:2 Jesus was the Commander of heaven, one equal with God, and yet He condescended to lay aside His kingly crown, His royal robe, and clothed His divinity with humanity. The incarnation of Christ in human flesh is a mystery. He could have come to earth as one with a remarkable appearance, unlike the sons of men. His countenance could have shone with glory, and His form could have been of remarkable grace. He could have presented such an appearance as to charm the beholder; but this was not according to the plan devised in the courts of God. He was to bear the characteristics of the human family, and the Jewish race. In all respects the Son of God was to wear the same features as did other human beings. He was not to have such beauty of person as would make Him singular among men. He was to manifest no wonderful charms by which to attract attention to Himself. He came as a representative of the human family before heaven and earth. He was to stand as man's substitute and surety. He was to live the life of humanity in such a way as to contradict the assertion that Satan had made that humanity was his everlasting possession, and that God Himself could not take man out of His adversary's hands (The Signs of the Times, July 30, 1896). - {5BC 1130.8}

Song 5:16

Song 5:16 - he is altogether lovely - Jesus is lovely in every respect. Jesus was the Commander of heaven, one equal with God, and yet He condescended to lay aside His kingly crown, His royal robe, and clothed His divinity with humanity. The incarnation of Christ in human flesh is a mystery. He could have come to earth as one with a remarkable appearance, unlike the sons of men. His countenance could have shone with glory, and His form could have been of remarkable grace. He could have presented such an appearance as to charm the beholder; but this was not according to the plan devised in the courts of God. Song 6:10

Song 6:10 - Who is she - the prophetic message relates to a woman or a church. Rev 12:1

Song 6:10

Song 6:10 - looketh forth as the morning - This woman appears as the morning. She is bright and magnificent like the morning light from the Sun of Righteousness. See Mal 4:2; Rev 1:16, 10:1

Song 6:10

Song 6:10 - fair as the moon, clear as the sun - See Rev 12:1. The people of God are to be light bearers to the world, expounding the Word of God (Ps 119:105). They are to be able to separate light from darkness (Gen 1:14), reprove the evil works of darkness (Eph 5:11). For this work they will be terrible in the eyes of men whose works are evil (Joh 3:19).

Song 6:10

Song 6:10 - terrible - dreadful, stirring, those who reprove evil are hated of men - Joh 3:20, 21

Song 6:10

Song 6:10 - terrible as an army with banners? - See Ps 20:5 The burden of His labor for them is expressed in His prayer to His Father, "That they all may be one; as Thou, Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that they also may be one in Us;" "that the world may know that Thou has sent Me, and hast loved them, as Thou hast loved Me." Joh 17:21, 23. His constant prayer for them was that they might be sanctified through the truth; and He prayed with assurance, knowing that an Almighty decree had been given before the world was made. He knew that the gospel of the kingdom would be preached to all nations for a witness; He knew that truth armed with the omnipotence of the Holy Spirit, would conquer in the battle with evil, and that the bloodstained banner would one day wave triumphantly over His followers. - {AA 20.2} Said the angel, "List ye!" Soon I heard a voice like many musical instruments all sounding in perfect strains, sweet and harmonious. It surpassed any music I had ever heard, seeming to be full of mercy, compassion, and elevating, holy joy. It thrilled through my whole being. Said the angel, "Look ye!" My attention was then turned to the company I had seen, who were mightily shaken. I was shown those whom I had before seen weeping and praying in agony of spirit. The company of guardian angels around them had been doubled, and they were clothed with an armor from their head to their feet. They moved in exact order, like a company of soldiers. Their countenances expressed the severe conflict which they had endured, the agonizing struggle they had passed through. Yet their features, marked with severe internal anguish, now shone with the light and glory of heaven. They had obtained the victory, and it called forth from them the deepest gratitude and holy, sacred joy. - {EW 270.4}

Song 6:10

Song 6:10 - banners - The banners which the people of God raise is His name, which is synonymous with His character. See Ps 20:5, 60:4; Ex 33:18-23, 34:5-8

Isaiah

Isa 1:1

Back to Table of Contents

Isa 1:1 - The vision of Isa the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem - Isa is a prophet to the Southern Kingdom, Judah.

Isa 1:1

Isa 1:1 - in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah - Isa, a contemporary of the prophet Hos, is called to prophecy against the rebellions of Israel to 4 generations of kings of Judah. Starting with Uzziah down through Hezekiah, his great grandson, Isa's ministry of rebuke, exhortation and encouragement spanned.

Isa 1:2

Isa 1:2 - Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me - God is calling the heavens and the earth as a witness against His people who have sinned against Him. See Deut 4:26, 30:19, 31:28

Isa 1:3

Isa 1:3 - crib - The manger of a stable, in which oxen and cows feed. In America, it is distinguished from a rack for horses. See Prov 14:4

Isa 1:3

Isa 1:3 - but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider - Israel does not give thought to Who sustains them and provides for their every need, unlike the ox and ass that know their master's manger/crib where food is given. See Ps 145:15, 16; Deut 8:11-18

Isa 1:4

Isa 1:4 - Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward - See Mic 7:1-7; Ps 43:1

Isa 1:4

Isa 1:4 - seed of evildoers - Here Isa refers to the Everlasting Covenant where the people are likened to the seed of the serpent. See Gen 3:15; Isa 57:4; Lk 3:7; Joh 8:44

Isa 1:4

Isa 1:4 - they have forsaken the LORD - See Isa 30:9-11

Isa 1:4

Isa 1:4 - they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger - See Ps 95:10, 11

Isa 1:9

Isa 1:9 - Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah - The small remnant that would ultimately accept the gospel of Jesus Christ is spoken of in Isa 10:22, 17:4-6. See Rom 11:6; Zech 13:8, 9

Isa 1:10

Isa 1:10 - Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah. - God is likening His people, Israel, because of their ungodliness to Sodom and Gomorrah. See 2Pet 2:6

Isa 1:11

Isa 1:11 - To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats. The Lord is tired of our continual shedding of innocent blood due to our sins. He desires truth in the inward parts (Ps 51:6) and not the continual cycle of sin and repentance. Lord help forgive me and help me to hold onto your promises of victory - See Heb 10:5, 6; Hos 6:6

Isa 1:15

Isa 1:15 - And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood - See Isa 59:1-15

Isa 1:15

Isa 1:15 - your hands are full of blood - the people's hands are full of innocent blood shed through iniquity and oppression. See Isa 1:21

Isa 1:16

Isa 1:16 - Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil - this is sanctuary language in that we are to be washed at the Lavar and then forsake sin all together. Lord Help Me!! "If the wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die." Ezekiel 33:15

Isa 1:17

Isa 1:17 - Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow. - See Mic 6:8; Isa 58:6-8

Isa 1:18

Isa 1:18 - Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD - Consider the humility and condescension of God Who is infinite in knowledge yet invites us to reason together with Him. See Ps 147:5; Mic 6:3 The plea for men to "come": Rev 22:17 Isa 55:1-3 Mt 11:28-30 The government of God is not, as Satan would make it appear, founded upon a blind submission, an unreasoning control. It appeals to the intellect and the conscience. "Come now, and let us reason together" is the Creator's invitation to the beings He has made. Isa 1:18. God does not force the will of His creatures. He cannot accept an homage that is not willingly and intelligently given. A mere forced submission would prevent all real development of mind or character; it would make man a mere automaton. Such is not the purpose of the Creator. He desires that man, the crowning work of His creative power, shall reach the highest possible development. He sets before us the height of blessing to which He desires to bring us through His grace. He invites us to give ourselves to Him, that He may work His will in us. It remains for us to choose whether we will be set free from the bondage of sin, to share the glorious liberty of the sons of God. - {SC 43.4}

Isa 1:19

Isa 1:19 - be willing - Many are inquiring, "How am I to make the surrender of myself to God?" You desire to give yourself to Him, but you are weak in moral power, in slavery to doubt, and controlled by the habits of your life of sin. Your promises and resolutions are like ropes of sand. You cannot control your thoughts, your impulses, your affections. The knowledge of your broken promises and forfeited pledges weakens your confidence in your own sincerity, and causes you to feel that God cannot accept you; but you need not despair. What you need to understand is the true force of the will. This is the governing power in the nature of man, the power of decision, or of choice. Everything depends on the right action of the will. The power of choice God has given to men; it is theirs to exercise. You cannot change your heart, you cannot of yourself give to God its affections; but you can choose to serve Him. You can give Him your will; He will then work in you to will and to do according to His good pleasure. Thus your whole nature will be brought under the control of the Spirit of Christ; your affections will be centered upon Him, your thoughts will be in harmony with Him. - {SC 47.1} Through the right exercise of the will, an entire change may be made in your life. By yielding up your will to Christ, you ally yourself with the power that is above all principalities and powers. You will have strength from above to hold you steadfast, and thus through constant surrender to God you will be enabled to live the new life, even the life of faith. - {SC 48.1}

Isa 1:19

Isa 1:19 - and obedient - See Deut 8:20

Isa 1:20

Isa 1:20 - But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it - God has put life and death before all people. God counsels us to choose life. See Deut 30:15, 19; Jer 21:8; Amos 3:12, 5:1-27

Isa 1:21

Isa 1:21 - How is the faithful city become an harlot! - See Isa 1:25, 26

Isa 1:22

Isa 1:22 - thy wine mixed with water - wine of the Holy Spirit has been diluted.

Isa 1:23

Isa 1:23: Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them - See Isa 5:23, 59:13, 14; Mic 3:1, 7:3 Contrast Isa 33:15;

Isa 1:25

Isa 1:25 - And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin: - See Mal 3:2, 3

Isa 1:27

Isa 1:27 - Zion shall be redeemed with judgment - God's judgment is mixed with mercy and grace. When God's people are redeemed, we will exercise truth, judgment and justice, being upright in Christ.

Isa 1:27

Isa 1:27 - and her converts with righteousness - those who are converted to the LORD will bear the righteousness of Christ and will live and act in righteousness. See Jer 23:5, 6; 1Jo 3:7

Isa 1:29

Isa 1:29-31 - For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen. 30 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water. 31 And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them. - a possible reference to the idols that the COI make that will be consumed with them when God comes to bring judgment/justice and purge the land of iniquity. See Isa 40:19, 20

Isa 1:29

Isa 1:28 - and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen - the gardens and groves where the wicked have set up their idols and in which they have played the harlot against God will be judgment against them. See Ex 34:13; Judg 3:7; 1Kin 14:15-23

Isa 1:30

Isa 1:30 - For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water - See Jer 17:5, 6

Isa 1:31

Isa 1:31 - And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them. - See Mal 4:1-3

Isa 1:31

Isa 1:31 - tow - The coarse and broken part of flax or hemp, separated from the finer part by the hatchel or swingle.

Isa 1:31

Isa 1:31 - and the maker of it as a spark - Speaking of those who craft and fashion idols; seekers of oaks - See Isa 1:29, 30, 40:19, 20

Isa 2:1

Isa 2:1 - The word that Isa the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem - Isa foresees and wrote of the two classes described in the Everlasting Gospel. Isa described a people who would be gathered unto Mount Zion, the Holy Mountain of the Lord (v1-4). He also describes those who will run in fear at the presence of the Lord, they will cast their graven images of gold and silver to the rocks and hide their faces from Him Who sits upon the throne (v5-22).

Isa 2:2

Isa 2:2-4 - And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD'S house shall be established in the top of the mountains... and all nations shall flow unto it - Isa 66:18-24

Isa 2:2

Isa 2:2, 3 - all nations shall flow unto it. And many people will go and say, Come ye and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD - See Mic 4:1, 2

Isa 2:3

Isa 2:3 - Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord - In the time of Christ, Greeks came to see Jesus and in the last days, many shall seek to worship the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. See Isa 60:3-12; Joh 12:19-23; Zech 8:23

Isa 2:4

Isa 2:4 - And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: - See Isa 60:11, 12; Mic 4:3

Isa 2:4

Isa 2:4 - and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more - See Ps 46:9, 68:30; Zech 9:10; Isa 65:25

Isa 2:4

Isa 2:5 - neither shall they learn war any more - no more massive defense budgets, no more weapons and instruments of warfare, no more hatred or fear.

Isa 2:6

Isa 2:6-8 - replenished from the east - The Children of Israel are filled, and fortified through their sun worship towards the east. They indulge in sun worship, sorceries and idolatries that are an offense to the Lord. See Gen 4:16; Eze 8:16

Isa 2:6

Isa 2:4 - soothsayers like the Philistines - See Isa 8:19

Isa 2:6

Isa 2:6 - please themselves in the children of strangers - a reference to possible intermarriage with strangers (Gen 6:1-5) or other ungodly perversions.

Isa 2:7

Isa 2:9 - their land is also full of horses - God made a direct command to Israel not to amass horses as did the Egyptians. See Deut 17:16

Isa 2:8

Isa 2:8 - Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made: - See Deut 8:17-2-

Isa 2:9

Isa 2:9 - mean man... great man - the men who excel in great wickedness, cruelty and lawlessness are also idolaters, bowing and kneeling down before the works of their hands. See Gen 6:4; 10:9,10; 11:1-9; Isa 5:15

Isa 2:10

Isa 2:10, 19 - enter into the rocks - The wicked will flee to the rocks in the day of the Lord. See Rev 6:15-17; Isa 2:19-22, 26:20, 21

Isa 2:11

Isa 2:11 - the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day - See Isa 28:5, 6

Isa 2:12

Isa 2:12 - For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low: - See Zephaniah 1:14-18

Isa 2:14

Isa 2:14 - And upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up - All the exalted cities and their important inhabitants of the earth will be brought low

Isa 2:15

Isa 2:15 - And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall - Upon all the military fortifications and strongholds

Isa 2:16

Isa 2:16 - And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures - All the financial centers of the world will be destroyed

Isa 2:17

Isa 2:17 - and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day - See Isa 2:11, 28:5

Isa 2:19

Isa 2:19 - And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth - See Isa 2:10; Rev 6:15-17

Isa 2:21

Isa 2:21 - To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty - See Rev 6:15-17

Isa 2:21

Isa 2:21 - when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth - See Heb 12:26

Isa 2:22

Isa 2:22 - Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of? - See Jer 17:5, 6

Isa 3:1

Isa 3:1 - the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water - God will remove His hand of provision towards the southern house of Israel for their rebellion and transgressions. See Lev 26:18-20, 26

Isa 3:4

Isa 3:4- I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them - God will cut off the mighty men (by sword, famine, pestilence, etc.) and leave children to rule in their stead. The Bible is describing how the Lord will leave his people to become perverted so that wrong seems right and right seems wrong. See Isa 3:12; 1Sam 2:12-14, 22-25

Isa 3:5

Isa 3:5 - And the people shall be oppressed - See Ps 12:8

Isa 3:5

Isa 3:5 - the base against the honourable - See Ps 12:8

Isa 3:6

Isa 3:4 - Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand - in the destruction of Israel, the poor and destitute fared far better than the rich who were plundered, killed or taken captive. The poor were left to tend the land as the LORD reversed the fait of them who ruled and lauded over the poor with their wealth.

Isa 3:8

Isa 3:8 - For Jerusalem is ruined and Judah is fallen - The LORD has permitted Israel's enemies to route them (Lev 26:14-17, 31-35), even to the head (Isa 7:8, 9, 8:7, 8)

Isa 3:8

Isa 3:8 - to provoke the eyes of His glory - See Isa 1:4; Eze 8:5, 6

Isa 3:9

Isa 3:9 - they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not - shamelessness, gluttony, idleness, and wonton lewdness were the sins of Sodom. See Ju 1:7; Eze 16:49; Rom 1:24-32

Isa 3:10

Isa 3:10 - Say ye to the righteous, that it will be well with them - See Ps 1:1-3, 6; Gen 39:3, 23

Isa 3:10

Isa 3:10 - for they shall eat the fruit of their doing - Everyone will be judged by his works and the fruit he bears (Joh 15:), whether wild fruit to perdition or good fruit to eternal life. See Prov 15:19

Isa 3:11

Isa 3:11 - Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him - See Ps 1:4-6

Isa 3:12

Isa 3:12 - As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths - When God's people are outside of His will, things are turned upside down where children become oppressors and women rule. See Judges 4:1, 4; Gen 3:16, 4:7

Isa 3:12

Isa 3:12 - children are their oppressors - See Isa 3:4; 1Sam 2:12-14, 22-25; 2Tim 3:1-5

Isa 3:12

Isa 3:12 - and women rule over them - See Judges 4:1, 4; Gen 3:16; 4:7

Isa 3:12

Isa 3:12 - they which lead thee cause thee to err - See Isa 28:7, 8, 14-18, 29:9-15

Isa 3:12

Isa 3:12 - and destroy the way of thy paths - See Jer 6:16, 17; Prov 4:18, 19

Isa 3:13

Isa 3:13 - The LORD standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people - A foreshadowing of Jesus antitypical work as High Priest in both the Holy and Most Holy place. His first ministration is in the Holy Place with His blood, pleading for grace and the forgiveness of sins. He later stands, changing His work/dispensation, to enter the Most Holy Place to judge His people. See Heb 9:12; 10:9; Dan 7:9, 10, 13, 14

Isa 3:14

Isa 3:15 - judgment with the ancients of His people, and the princes thereof - God is going to judge the elders and rulers among the COI who have been unjust and oppressive of the weak. See Eze 9:4-6

Isa 3:14

Isa 3:14 - for ye have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses - See Jam 5:1-4

Isa 3:15

Isa 3:15 - What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the Lord GOD of hosts - See Mt 24:48, 49

Isa 3:16

Isa 3:16 - Moreover the LORD saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet: - See Nehemiah 9:29; Zech 7:11

Isa 3:16

Isa 3:16 - wanton - to behave in a sexually unrestrained way; a sexually unrestrained woman.

Isa 3:17

Isa 3:17 - the LORD will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion - See Isa 2:17

Isa 3:18

Isa 3:18 - In that day - the day of the overflowing scourge. Isa 2:10-17

Isa 3:18

Isa 3:18 - calls - a woman's close-fitting indoor headdress or hairnet

Isa 3:23

Isa 3:23 - The glasses - mirrors. See 1Cor 13:12; 2Cor 3:18

Isa 4:1

Isa 4:1 - in that day seven women shall take hold of one man - Apostate Protestantism and all world religions will through an Ecumenical Movement in the Last Days grab hold of the hand of the Papacy, the man of sin, the son of perdition. As a scattered people [see Isa 3:12-26], they seek the support of a man who will claim them all to take away their reproach. The gathering of the people to this man, where the people maintain their own doctrine (eating their own bread), maintain their own ideas of righteousness (wearing their own apparel) while claiming his name speaks of an Ecumenical endeavor, unlike the conformity and self-denial required in denying oneself, taking up the cross of Christ and following Him. (Rev 16:13, 14; 17:1-5; 18:7; Isa 47:8; 2Thess 2:3, 4).

Isa 4:1

Isa 4:1 - Isa 4:1 - in that day seven women shall take hold of one man - Apostate Protestantism and all world religions will through an Ecumenical Movement [confederacy] in the Last Days grab hold of the hand of the Papacy, the man of sin, the son of perdition (2Thess 2:3, 4). As a scattered people [see Isa 3:12-26], they seek the support of a man who will claim them all to take away their reproach. The gathering of the people to this man, where the people maintain their own doctrine (eating their own bread), maintain their own ideas of righteousness (wearing their own apparel) while claiming his name speaks of an Ecumenical endeavor, unlike the conformity and self-sacrifice required in denying oneself, taking up the cross of Christ and following Him. Rev 16:13, 14; 17:1-5; 18:7; Isa 47:8; Mt 16:24

Isa 4:1

Isa 4:1 - seven women - seven is the number of completeness or perfection and women represent churches in prophecy. Therefore, the Bible is referring to the union of the churches [and perhaps world religions] that will occur as part of an Ecumenical Movement in the last days.

Isa 4:1

Isa 4:1 - shall take hold of one man - the united body of churches or world religions will either take hold of the hand of the Man Christ Jesus, or the man of sin, the son of perdition, the papacy. By context of the rest of the verse, where all where their own apparel (garments of righteousness) and eat their own bread (doctrine), it must be the man of sin, the son of perdition that the seven women embrace. See 2Thess 2:3, 4; Rev 16:13, 14

Isa 4:1

Isa 4:1 - we will eat our own bread - desiring to eat their own bread (keep their own doctrine) the Ecumenical Movement unites the churches with the man of sin not on foundational doctrine and principles rooted in Christ, His immutable commandments and Word, but on superficial, tenuous, manmade ideas of love, respect, and fraternity.

Isa 4:1

Isa 4:1 - wear our own apparel - the churches will maintain their own apparel (righteousness and methods of salvation - Isa 30:1; 2Kin 10:20-25; Rom 10:1-3; PK 708.2, 709.1; Mt 5:20) compare Rev 3:18; Joh 7:16-18

Isa 4:1

Isa 4:1 - let us be called by thy name - Catholic (universal). The daughters of Babylon become one with their mother. See Rev 17:5

Isa 4:1

Isa 4:1 - take away our reproach - the churches join hands with the papacy in order not bear the reproach of Christ (Rom 9:33; Lk 6:22, 23, 12:8, 9, 11, 12; Heb 11:24-26, 13:12, 13; Isa 25:8), keeping His commandments (especially the 7th day Sabbath) and the testimony of the prophets. Following Christ puts one at variance with the world (Mt 10:34-36). To suffer for the cross of Christ. See Mt 10:22, 24:9; Gal 6:12-14; Mk 8:34-38; 1Tim 4:8-10; Lk 6:22, 23, 12:8, 9, 11, 12; Heb 11:24-26, 13:12, 13; Joel 2:17; Isa 25:8 Men will employ every means to make less prominent the difference between Seventh-day Adventists and observers of the first day of the week. A company was presented before me under the name of Seventh-day Adventists, who were advising that the banner, or sign, which makes us a distinct people should not be held out so strikingly; for they claimed that this was not the best policy in order to secure success to our institutions. But this is not a time to haul down our colors, to be ashamed of our faith. This distinctive banner, described in the words, "Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus," is to be borne through the world to the close of probation. While efforts should be increased to advance in different localities, there must be no cloaking of our faith to secure patronage. Truth must come to souls ready to perish; and if it is in any way hidden, God is dishonored, and the blood of souls will be upon our garments. - {6T 144.1} Just as long as those in connection with our institutions walk humbly with God, heavenly intelligences will co-operate with them; but let all bear in mind the fact that God has said: "Them that honor Me I will honor." 1Sam 2:30. Never for one moment should the impression be given to anyone that it would be for his profit to hide his faith and doctrines from the unbelieving people of the world, fearing that he may not be so highly esteemed if his principles are known. Christ requires from all His followers open, manly confession of faith. Each must take his position and be what God designed he should be, a spectacle to the world, to angels, and to men. The whole universe is looking with inexpressible interest to see the closing work of the great controversy between Christ and Satan. Every Christian is to be a light, not hid under a bushel or under a bed, but put on a candlestick, that light may be given to all who are in the house. Never, from cowardice or worldly policy, let the truth of God be placed in the background. - {6T 144.2} We cannot be Christians while we live to please ourselves. We must enter in through the strait gate of self-denial, if we follow the Master. This strait, self-denying path is too narrow for many to walk in who profess godliness. They want an easier path and are climbing up some other way. They refuse to follow in the footsteps of our Redeemer. Christ calls all such thieves and robbers. They take the name of Christian, which does not belong to them, because they do not represent in their life the life of Christ. They claim the privileges which belong to the sons of God while they are none of His. They live selfish lives upon the earth and have done nothing for the truth and the salvation of souls as they ought to have done. Sad indeed for these self-deceived ones. They will never see heaven, because they are not willing to share the shame, the reproach, that Jesus suffered for them. - {TDG 155.5} Steadfast souls whom Jesus delights to honor are for his sake defamed, imprisoned, mobbed, hunted, and slain. God's people must live by faith. They must look over into the great beyond, and choose divine honors and the recompense of the reward above every earthly gain or preferment. While probation continues, they must expect that the world will know them not, "because it knew Him not." - {4SP 310.2}

Isa 4:2 - A contrasting perspective is here presented. In the same day of confederacy, when the world is wondering after the Beast and seeking to take hold of his hand (Rev 13:3, 4), the Branch of the Lord (Jesus is the Branch that extended itself from eternity to reach out to fallen humanity for our redemption - Zech 3:8, 6:12, 13) will be beautiful and glorious to those who have placed their trust in Him (Rev 14:12, 15:2-4). We too will be branches on the Vine, Who is Christ, to fill the earth with His fruit of righteousness (John 15:5). A parallel comparison is given regarding the two classes in that day, in Isa 28:1-6.

Isa 4:2

Isa 4:2 - branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious - In the day when the people of God are being reproached for Jesus' sake, Jesus, (I) the Branch will be beautiful and glorious - a crown of glory and a diadem of beauty to the residue [remnant] of His people (the 144,000). (II) Also, the branch that the Lord Himself has planted will bear excellent fruit upon the earth (bearing Christ's righteousness). See (I) Zech 3:8, 6:12, 13; Isa 28:5; (II) Ps 80:14, 15; Isa 27:6; Joh 15:5

Isa 4:2

Isa 4:2 - fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely - see Isa 27:2, 3, 6, 8; Lk 21:29, 30; Mal 3:4

Isa 4:2

Isa 4:2 - them that are escaped of Israel - those among Adventism who do not drink the wine of Babylon (Jer 35:1-8) are the hidden ones, they who escape out of the hand of the fowler, the King of the North, the man of sin and son of perdition. See Ps 91:1-6; 27:5; 83:3; Dan 11:41

Isa 4:3

Isa 4:3 - he that is left in Zion - the remnant, 144,000. See Isa 1:9

Isa 4:3

Isa 4:3 - he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy - See Deut 28:9-13

Isa 4:3

Isa 4:3 - written among the living in Jerusalem - those whose names are written in the Book of Life. See Rev 3:5; 13:8; Dan 12:1

Isa 4:4

Isa 4:3 - washed away the filth... purged the blood of Jerusalem - Day of Atonement, close of probation for Adventism - See Act 3:19; Heb 1:3; Mal 3:2-4

Isa 4:4

Isa 4:4 - and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof - purged innocent blood from Jerusalem - See Deut 19:10; 1Kin 2:31; 2Kin 21:16, 24:3, 4; Ps 106:38

Isa 4:4

Isa 4:4 - the spirit of judgment - the Spirit of Judgment speaks of the third and final phase of the Plan of Redemption, Antitypical Judgment in the third apartment of the heavenly sanctuary and the final judgment of the wicked (Dan 7:8, 9, 13, 14; Rev 20:4, 11-15). It is here that the Spirit of Judgment is made manifest by the LORD, Jesus Christ, Who judges all in righteousness (Act 17:31; Joh 5:26, 27). Jesus Himself sits as a Refiner and Purifier of gold and silver to purify His people in judgment so that they may offer themselves a sacrifice in righteousness (Malachi 3:1-5). His Spirit, which is a discerner of the intents and thoughts of His people (Heb 4:12) will convict every man of sin, righteousness and judgment, according to his works based on the Law and Testimonies. See Joh 16:8, 11; Isa 28:6 I also saw that many do not realize what they must be in order to live in the sight of the Lord without a high priest in the sanctuary through the time of trouble. Those who receive the seal of the living God and are protected in the time of trouble must reflect the image of Jesus fully. - {EW 71.1} I saw that many were neglecting the preparation so needful and were looking to the time of "refreshing" and the "latter rain" to fit them to stand in the day of the Lord and to live in His sight. Oh, how many I saw in the time of trouble without a shelter! They had neglected the needful preparation; therefore they could not receive the refreshing that all must have to fit them to live in the sight of a holy God. Those who refuse to be hewed by the prophets and fail to purify their souls in obeying the whole truth, and who are willing to believe that their condition is far better than it really is, will come up to the time of the falling of the plagues, and then see that they needed to be hewed and squared for the building. But there will be no time then to do it and no Mediator to plead their cause before the Father. Before this time the awfully solemn declaration has gone forth, "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still." I saw that none could share the "refreshing" unless they obtain the victory over every besetment, over pride, selfishness, love of the world, and over every wrong word and action. We should, therefore, be drawing nearer and nearer to the Lord and be earnestly seeking that preparation necessary to enable us to stand in the battle in the day of the Lord. Let all remember that God is holy and that none but holy beings can ever dwell in His presence. - {EW 71.2}

Isa 4:4

Isa 4:4 - spirit of burning - the Spirit of Burning may speak of the conviction of truth one receives from the Spirit of Truth (Lk 24:32; Act 2:36, 37; 7:51-54). Based on the condition of the heart, the burning will produce joy and repentance, or obstinate hardening of one's heart. Secondly the burning may direct the attention to the third phase of the Plan of Redemption, where sins are blotted out, men are purged of their sins by again, the Spirit of Truth. The judgment and destruction of the wicked with the cleansing of the earth is also implied in this statement. See Mal 3:1-3; Rev 20:13-15; Ju 1:14, 15

Isa 4:5

Isa 4:5 - upon every dwelling place in mount Zion - all who are within a dwelling in mount Zion will be guarded by the cloud and smoke by day and the flaming fire by night from the presence and glory of the Lord. See Ps 104:1, 2; Dan 12:3; Isa 26:20, 21; Ex 33:14-16

Isa 4:5

Isa 4:5 - a cloud and smoke by day and the shining of a flaming fire by night - The Lord is assuring His very presence and guidance upon every household of the redeemed, just as He was for the COI during their sojourn from Egypt and through the wilderness. See Ex 13:21, 22

Isa 4:5

Isa 4:5 - for upon all the glory shall be a defense - God's glory (His character which has been developed perfectly in His people) will be a defense for the righteous in the Time of Trouble. Those "hidden ones" and God's "glorious holy mountain" who abide under the shadow of the Almighty will be protected from the snares, arrows, overflowing scourge and wasting of the plagues. See Ps 27:1-5; 94:22; 91, 83:3; Dan 12:45; Ju 1:24; Isa 60:1-3, 33:14

Isa 4:6

Isa 4:6 - tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime - See Ps 27:5, 91:1-6

Isa 4:6

Isa 4:6 - shadow in the daytime from the heat - God promises to be a shade by day from the blast of the terrible ones, the fiery trial, the Sunday Law, that will cause all who are without root to wither. See Ps 121:5, 6; Isa 25:4; 1Pet 4:12; Lk 8:5, 6, 13; Mt 13:5, 6; Ps 141:6

Isa 4:6

Isa 4:6 - place of refuge - God is our hiding place in the time of trouble. He will hide us in the secret of His tabernacle and set us upon the Rock of Ages. See Ps 91:1,2; 27:5

Isa 4:6

Isa 4:6 - covert from storm and from rain - God is our cover from the overflowing flood (scourge) of the Sunday Law that will wash away all the lies of the drunkards of Israel. See Isa 28:15; Mt 7:24, 25

Isa 5:1

Isa 5:1 - wellbeloved - See Song 5:16

Isa 5:1

Isa 5:1 - touching his vineyard - See Ps 80:14, 15

Isa 5:2

Isa 5:2 - He fenced it - that which served as a barrier and hedge of protection for the COI was the law of God.

Isa 5:2

Isa 5:2 - gathered out the stones thereof - the LORD removed all things that would be a stumbling block to the COI. He removed the heathen nations and their worship so that the COI would prosper and not be led into idolatry.

Isa 5:2

Isa 5:2 - choicest vine - the COI were the chosen (choice) vine of God because of His promise to their forefather Abraham, and to them He had committed all of His oracles to bless them before the inhabitants of the world. See Deut 4:5-20; Joh 15:16; Ps 80:8

Isa 5:2

Isa 5:2 - built a tower in the midst of it - the LORD erected a temple/church among His people that He may dwell among them. See Gen 11:1-4; Ex 25:8

Isa 5:2

Isa 5:2 - made a winepress therein - the winepress served as that which would be used to bring a blessing to men. As the Nation of Israel brought forth good fruit, the winepress would produce the pure wine (grape juice) wherein would be found a blessing for mankind (Isa 65:8). This contrasts with the winepress of Rev 14:20, found outside the city walls wherein the wicked were to be punished.

Isa 5:2

Isa 5:2 - brought forth wild grapes - briars and thorns. See Isa 27:4; Isa 5:6; Hos 10:1; Jer 2:21; Deut 32:32, 33

Isa 5:3

Isa 5:3 - And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard - the "Wellbeloved", the Lord, speaks-up and inquires "what could be done for the vine planted in a the fruitful hill?"

Isa 5:4

Isa 5:4 - What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes? - Jer 2:21; Hos 10:1 Christ is ready to set us free from sin, but He does not force the will; and if by persistent transgression the will itself is wholly bent on evil, and we do not desire to be set free, if we will not accept His grace, what more can He do? We have destroyed ourselves by our determined rejection of His love. "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation." "Today if ye will hear His voice, harden not your hearts." 2 Corinthians 6:2; Hebrews 3:7, 8. - {SC 34.2}

Isa 5:5

Isa 5:6 - it shall be trodden down - See Dan 8:13

Isa 5:6

Isa 5:6 - there shall come up briars and thorns - the wicked are here spoken of. See Isa 27:4, 11; Heb 6:8

Isa 5:6

Isa 5:6 - I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it - The quarrel of God's covenant is upon His people who have broken His covenant. See Deut 28:23, 24 The Latter Rains will not fall in full measure on a church where briars and thorns are present. God preserves His true vine but the briars and thorns war against Him and His people (Isa 27:2-4)

Isa 5:6

Isa 5:6 - The Latter Rains will not fall in full measure on a church where briars and thorns are present. God preserves His true vine but the briars and thorns war against Him and His people (Isa 27:2-4)

Isa 5:6

Isa 5:6 - rain no rain upon it - The Latter Rains will not fall in full measure on a church where briars and thorns are present. God preserves His true vine but the briars and thorns war against Him and His people (Isa 27:2-4)

Isa 5:7

Isa 5:7 - He looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry - See Isa 10:1, 2; Jer 7:3-7

Isa 5:11

Isa 5:11 - Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them! - Drunkards of Judah and Ephraim. See Isa 28:1; Prov 23:31-35, 20:1

Isa 5:13

Isa 5:13 - Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge - See Deut 28:36; Hos 4:6

Isa 5:15

Isa 5:15 - And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled: See Isa 2:17

Isa 5:16

Isa 5:16 - But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment - While the world is being lost in dissipation and hell is being enlarged, God is in His holy temple judging the works of me. See Hab 2:19, 20; Ps 51:4

Isa 5:18

Isa 5:18 - draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope - those who pull/drag iniquity along with cords/ropes of vanity (emptiness/wastefulness). See Prov 5:22

Isa 5:19

Isa 5:19 - Let him make haste - the proud, scornful, contempt of the wicked is seen here, who scorn God's wrath, judgment and justice. They refuse His counsels and taunt God as if He can not perceive their wickedness. See Eze 8:12, 9:9, 12:22; Eccl 8:11; 2Pet 3:4; Ps 1:1, 73:11, 90:8; Jer 17:15; Rom 1:21

Isa 5:20

Isa 5:20 - Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil - See Mic 3:2; Mt 12:24, 31; Mal 2:17; Ex 23:2-6; Deut 16:19; Ps 56:5; 2Pet 3:16; 1Tim 5:22; Rom 1:18-32; Prov 24:24; Isa 29:16

Isa 5:21

Isa 5:21 - wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight - the proud do not heed the counsel of others but are self assured. See Jer 9:23, 24

Isa 5:22

Isa 5:22 - Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink - See Prov 23:31-35, 20:1

Isa 5:23

Isa 5:23 - which justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him - those who pervert justice and righteousness with bribes are here spoken. See Isa 1:23, 59:14, 33:15; Ex 23:2-6; Deut 16:19; Ps 15:5

Isa 5:23

Isa 5:23 - take away the righteousness of the righteous from him! - See Isa 59:15

Isa 5:24

Isa 5:24 - Therefore as the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. - See Mal 4:1-3; Isa 66:

Isa 5:25

Isa 5:25 - for all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still - the language is similar to that used when pronouncing the covenant curses in Lev 26:18, 21, 24, 28

Isa 5:26

Isa 5:26 - ensign to the nations - this may be a reference to the wonderful miracle performed on behalf of King Hezekiah of Israel where the sun was turned back in its course. This ensign was seen world wide, drawing the "terrible of the nations" to inquire of Israel for the cause. Unfortunately, Hezekiah's prideful display of all the nations riches would result in them being pillaged in time by the swift Assyrians and Babylonians. See Zech 9:16; Isa 18: See Isa 18:3, 60:1-5; Song 6:10

Isa 5:27

Isa 5:27 - None shall be weary nor stumble among them - speaking of the precision and accuracy of the Babylonian armies in their conquest. See Joel 2:1-11; Hab 1:6-10

Isa 5:29

Isa 5:29 - they shall roar like young lions - Assyria is likened to an old lion and Babylon to a young lion. See Hos 5:14, 15

Isa 5:30

Isa 5:30 - if one look unto the land, behold darkness and sorrow, and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof - See Deut 28:66-68

Isa 6:1

Isa 6:1 - In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple - How ironic that Isa saw a vision of the pure, immortal, divine King in His temple in the very year that the impure human king died! Even in the midst of adversity, we may gain a glimpse of the Omnipotent One and His glory!

Isa 6:1

Isa 6:1 - king Uzziah died - Uzziah, also called Azzariah, is known for his initial fidelity to God and prosperity greater than any other ruler since the death of Solomon. He ruled with discretion however, in pride he thought to offer sacrifice upon the altar of the Lord, an abomination to God as the priests were only authorized to do so (Num 16:40; 2Kin 15:5; 2Chron 26:16-19). He through presumptuous pride sought to unite the role of a king and a priest and thus, unify church and state. The High Priest, also called Azzariah protested and in wrathful rebellion the king received leprosy upon his forehead (the Mark of the Beast). He remained a leper until his death (~740BC) and his son Jotham reigned with him. The presumptuous sin of Uzziah is a symbol of the U.S. (a two horn power just like Judah, comprised of Judah and Benjamin) at the end of the world as it seeks to pass a Sunday Law. As of September 11, 2001, the economic prosperity of the U.S. began to decline.

Isa 6:1

Isa 6:1 - I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne - Isa was experiencing the Mar'eh vision, beholding God in His glory, leaving him feeling completely undone. Isa beheld the Shekinah glory of God which is beheld once a year by the High Priest in the Most Holy Place. However, Isa stood in the court of the temple suggesting that he was still upon the earth and enters the Most Holy place by faith. Therefore, Isa experienced the Mar'eh vision, an experience to be had by those living in the last days.

Isa 6:1

Isa 6:1 - Lord sitting upon a throne - the foundation of God's government is the 10 Commandments over which God's glory abides. The seraphim that stood before the LORD (v2) represent the angels atop the mercy seat that observe God's working out of the Plan of Redemption, the Science of Salvation. Isa sees the LORD high and lifted up in the Most Holy place.

Isa 6:1

Isa 6:1 - speaks not only of God's position above the hosts, but the honor that is to be given to Him.

Isa 6:2

Isa 6:2 - Above it stood the seraphims - The seraphim that stood before the LORD (v2) represent the angels atop the mercy seat that observe God's working out of the Plan of Redemption, the Science of Salvation. Isa sees the LORD high and lifted up in the Most Holy place. See Rev 4:6-9; Isa 6:6

Isa 6:3

Isa 6:3 - And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. - See Rev 4:8

Isa 6:3

Isa 6:3 - the whole earth is filled with His glory - the glory of the Lord fills the earth at the time of the Latter Rain and the commencement of the Judgment of the living when the Mighty Angel of Rev 18 descends. Joh 12:41; Rev 18:1; Ex 40:33-35; 2Kin 8:10, 11; Eze 10:1-4; Num 14:20

Isa 6:4

Isa 6:4 - house was filled with smoke - the temple of God is filled with smoke on two occasions as recorded in the Bible, at the dedication of the temple by Solomon (1Kin 8:10, 11; 2Chron 5:13, 14) and at the close of earth's probation as seen by Joh the Revelator (Rev 15:7, 8; Dan 12:1). Isa realizes the end of mankind's probation is upon him and he is in an undone condition and he cries out "Woe is me!, for I am undone". A change in dispensation is marked by the sanctuary being filled with God's glory and smoke. See Ex 40:34, 35; 1Kin 8:10-11; Eze 10:1-4; Rev 15:5-8

Isa 6:5

Isa 6:5 - Woe is me - The 3rd Woe is here typified, as Isa stands before the LORD and sees His unconverted condition. Similarly, the COI before Mt. Sinai who did not see the Lord but saw the lightnings, thundering, the mountain on fire and heard the voice of the Lord as a great multitude, Isa is held in fearful awe and cries for his life that is undone before the Holy God. Isa sees himself as a modern day Laodicean Adventist. What is justification by faith?—It is the work of God in laying the glory of man in the dust, and doing for man that which it is not in his power to do for himself. When men see their own nothingness, they are prepared to be clothed with the righteousness of Christ. When they begin to praise and exalt God all the day long, then by beholding they are becoming changed into the same image. What is regeneration?—It is revealing to man what is his own real nature, that in himself he is worthless. - {SpTA09 62.2} There is a striking contrast between Uzziah and Isa. Uzziah reached for holiness presumptuously, for the wrong reason (pride), and instead became ritually impure, so that he was cut off from holiness. Isa, on the other hand, allowed God's holiness to reach him. He humbly admitted his weakness and yearned for moral purity, which he received. Like the tax collector in Jesus' parable, he went away justified: "for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted" (Lk 18:14) Such thoughts as these were crowding through Isa's mind as he stood under the portico of the temple. Suddenly the gate and the inner veil of the temple seemed to be uplifted or withdrawn, and he was permitted to gaze within, upon the holy of holies, where even the prophet's feet might not enter. There rose up before him a vision of Jehovah sitting upon a throne high and lifted up, while the train of His glory filled the temple. On each side of the throne hovered the seraphim, their faces veiled in adoration, as they ministered before their Maker and united in the solemn invocation, "Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts: the whole earth is full of His glory," until post and pillar and cedar gate seemed shaken with the sound, and the house was filled with their tribute of praise. Isa 6:3.

- {PK 307.1} As Isa beheld this revelation of the glory and majesty of his Lord, he was overwhelmed with a sense of the purity and holiness of God. How sharp the contrast between the matchless perfection of his Creator, and the sinful course of those who, with himself, had long been numbered among the chosen people of Israel and Judah! "Woe is me!" he cried; "for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts." Verse 5. Standing, as it were, in the full light of the divine presence within the inner sanctuary, he realized that if left to his own imperfection and inefficiency, he would be utterly unable to accomplish the mission to which he had been called. But a seraph was sent to relieve him of his distress and to fit him for his great mission. A living coal from the altar was laid upon his lips, with the words, "Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged." Then the voice of God was heard saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us?" and Isa responded, "Here am I; send me." Verses 7, 8. - {PK 307.2}

Isa 6:5 - I am undone - Isa saw himself as naked, ashamed and fearful of his unconverted self before the LORD.

Isa 6:5

Isa 6:5 - I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips - See Eze 12:2

Isa 6:5

Isa 6:5 - for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts. - See Ex 33:20; Judges 13:22;

Isa 6:6

Isa 6:6 - one of the seraphim - the seraphim here represents the Three Angel's messages that will purify Isa who: 1. Is in the presence of God in the Most Holy Place 2. Stands before the Lord offering coals of fire during the Day of Atonement 3. Sees that probation for mankind has ended as the temple is filled with smoke 4. Sees he is in an undone condition

Isa 6:7

Isa 6:7 - touched thy lips - out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh (Mt 12:34; Lk 6:45). I will keep my mouth with a bridle lest I sin (Ps 39:1). 2Pet 3:11

Isa 6:7

Isa 6:7 - iniquity is taken away - Isa has a Most Holy Place experience (Day of Atonement experience) by: 1. Acknowledging the glory of the Lord and His own unconsecrated condition 2. Crying out for God's mercy and grace 3. Receiving Christ's righteousness and being made pure by the blood of the Lamb (purified by a coal taken from the alter to burn off the dross)

Isa 6:7

Isa 6:7 - thy sins purged - at this point in the vision, Isa foreshadows the 144,000: 1. Whose sins have been purged, 2. Who are able to take the final warning message as God's ensign to the world (Zech 9:16; Isa 18:3, 7; Dan 12:3) 3. Who will be tried by taking the final message to a rebellious people who will not hear and to the rest of the world (Dan 12:10) 3. Who will remain faithful as the Holy Spirit is being withdrawn from the earth 4. Who can stand in the presence of a Holy God without sin (Ju 24, 25). These have the testimony of Jesus Christ [all the writings of the prophets] bound to them and are sealed by the Law of God (Isa 8:16; Rev 12:17, 7:3).

Isa 6:7

Isa 6:7 - purged - meaning: to cover, to expiate, condone, placate, appease, make an atonement. 1Sam 3:12-14; Isa 27:8, 9; Mt 3:11, 12 Isa stands sin free.

Isa 6:8

Isa 6:8 - Here am I - after being justified by the death of Christ and sanctified (washed/purified) by His blood, Isa is now prepared to be used of the Lord. Isa's response "Here am I" is a perfect reflection of Christ's statement "Here I am" when He offered Himself a sacrifice for man's sins (Heb 10:7, 9).

Isa 6:9

Isa 6:9 - Go, and tell this people - See Eze 3:1-5; Isa 58:1

Isa 6:9

Isa 6:10 - Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed but perceive not - God is instructing Isa to send a "strong delusion" to the people who refuse to hearken to the voice of God. See Deut 29:4; Isa 29:9-14; Joh 12:37-41; 2Thess 2:10-12; Mk 4:10, 11

Isa 6:10

Isa 6:10 - Make the heart of these people - God speaks of the people's resistance to the Holy Spirit, causing them to turn from the paths of righteousness. Should they heed God's Spirit, embrace His message intellectually (mind) and spiritually (heart), they will be converted and healed. See Act 3:19; 7:51, 52; Eze 2:3-9; Jer 1:17-19; Job 17:4; Act 28:22-27

Isa 6:10

Isa 6:10 - make their ears heavy... shut their eyes - See Isa 42:18-20, 22-24; 44:18-20; 2Cor 4:3, 4; Ezekiel 12:2

Isa 6:11

Isa 6:11 - how long? - Isa is commissioned by God to become a watchman to a Laodicean people who will not hear, see, nor perceive their condition though spoken directly to them. Isa in turn asks the question "how long?" shall he give this testimony to a rebellious people and God's answer is until they are taken captive and scattered by the terrible of the nations who issues an unrighteous decree (global Sunday Law). The message is to begin given from 9/11/2001 until the destruction of the cities with the Sunday Law, until the Everlasting Gospel is accomplished in Adventism where there are two classes of people demonstrated. See Ps 74:1-10; Rev 6:9-11, 10:7

Isa 6:11

Isa 6:11 - Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate - See Jer 4:23-27

Isa 6:12

Isa 6:12 - And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land - See Ezekiel 36:16-19; Jer 25:11

Isa 6:13

Isa 6:13 - in it shall be a tenth - a tithe will be the remnant, the First Fruit of the Lord, His portion. See Isa 1:9

Isa 6:13

Isa 6:13 - it shall return - it shall "restore", the restorers of the breach (Isa 58:11, 12).

Isa 6:13

Isa 6:13 - and shall be eaten - the message of the Old Paths is to be eaten and it will be sweet as honey but bitter at the 7 Last Plagues.

Isa 6:13

Isa 6:13 - as a teil tree - they will eat the message about a strong tree (a mighty nation) which is cut down

Isa 6:13

Isa 6:13 - whose substance is in them - the message of the stump of a tree, its foundation, are within them.

Isa 6:13

Isa 6:13 - whey they cast their leaves - a tree is being cut down and its leaves are scattered

Isa 6:13

Isa 6:13 - so the holy seed shall be in the substance thereof - the holy (quodesh) seed is Christ (Gen 12:1-3) which will be within those who are felled.

Isa 7:1

Isa 7:1 - Ahaz - represents the 3rd Angel's message under which a door is closed. Ahaz stands in contrast to Isa who both represent apostate Adventism and the 144,000 respectively. Ahaz in 742B.C. would close the doors to the temple in Jerusalem and establish a counterfeit church and worship service in his fear and rebellion; paralleling Jam White starting a "new church" in A.D.1863 (SDA Church becomes a church and unifies Church and State). The production of his chart in the same year begins to scatter the flock, sealing up William Miller's prophecy of the 7x scattering. "The Lord brought Judah low" because of continued transgression. In this time of chastisement Ahaz, instead of repenting, trespassed "yet more against the Lord: ... for he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus." "Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them," he said, "therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me." 2Chron 28:19, 22, 23. - {PK 330.1} As the apostate king neared the end of his reign, he caused the doors of the temple to be closed. The sacred services were interrupted. No longer were the candlesticks kept burning before the altar. No longer were offerings made for the sins of the people. No longer did sweet incense ascend on high at the time of the morning and the evening sacrifice. Deserting the courts of the house of God and locking fast its doors, the inhabitants of the godless city boldly set up altars for the worship of heathen deities on the street corners throughout Jerusalem. Heathenism had seemingly triumphed; the powers of darkness had well-nigh prevailed. - {PK 330.2} But in Judah there dwelt some who maintained their allegiance to Jehovah, steadfastly refusing to be led into idolatry. It was to these that Isa and Mic and their associates looked in hope as they surveyed the ruin wrought during the last years of Ahaz. Their sanctuary was closed, but the faithful ones were assured: "God is with us." "Sanctify the Lord of hosts Himself; and let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread. And He shall be for a sanctuary." Isa 8:10, 13, 14. - {PK 330.3}

Isa 7:1 - Jotham - represents the 2nd Angel's message during which time an Image to the Beast test is presented. It is at the conclusion of Jotham's reign that Rezin and Pekah, symbolizing State and Church respectively, attack the southern kingdom, a symbol of Adventism, God's people. See 2Kin 15:36, 37

Isa 7:1

Isa 7:1 - Uzziah - represents the 1st Angel's message that is empowered at his death when the glory of the Lord filled the earth (descent of 4th Angel) on September 11, 2001. See Isa 6:3

Isa 7:1

Isa 7:1 - Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah - the alliance of Rezin and Pekah symbolize the image to the beast, the unification of state and church (respectively) that wars against Judah, a symbol of Adventism, where God's sanctuary resides. (See video Hab38 49-51min)

Isa 7:1

Isa 7:1 - went up toward Jerusalem to war against it - a civil war between northern and southern kingdoms where the North engaged the help of the Syrians (Rezin).

Isa 7:3

Isa 7:3 - Shearjashub - meaning "a remnant shall return", this son was to encourage Ahaz and the people of Israel that despite the impending destruction Isa was commissioned to prophecy (Isa 6:8-10; 5:5-7, 13-16, 18-30; Isa 3:1-26), a remnant would return from God's scattering (Isa 6:12, 13)[the redemption that follows a time of scattering - the 2520]. In that day, God will purge the sins of His people, restore true worship, and will be a defense to His people (Isa 4:2-6). Just as Isa is commanded by the Lord to bring a message of hope and deliverance to Ahaz at a particular spot, years later Hezekiah, Ahaz's son, would be taunted by the enemies of God (King of Assyria - King of the North) who descended for war to the exact location (2Kin 18:17-37; Isa 36:1-22)

Isa 7:3

Isa 7:3 - conduit of the upper pool - apparently Israel had built subterranean conduits to bring water into the city in times of invasion. The water supply outside the city could be cut-off for the invading armies so that they would be in need (2Chron 32:3, 4, 30). The same location is stated in 2 Kings 18:17 where Rabshakeh taunted Hezekiah and the COI with threats.

Isa 7:8

Isa 7:8 - the head of Syria is Damascus - a principle is established where the head of a nation is its capital and the head of the capital is its king. This principle is to be applied when reading Isa 8:7, 8

Isa 7:8

Isa 7:8 - within 65yrs - the date in which this prophecy is given by Isa the prophet is 743BC where: 1. A civil war between the Northern and Southern Kingdoms has erupted where the Northern kingdom under Pekah joined forces with Rezin, the king of Syria against Ahaz of Judah 2. Isa and his 1st son (Shearjashub: meaning "the remnant shall return" or "causeway") meets King Ahaz of Judah at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field Within 19yrs, Ephraim was overthrown by the Assyrians: 743BC-19 = 723BC. The overthrow of Ephraim preceded the overthrow of Judah by 46 years perhaps in part due to Jeroboam setting up the golden calves in Dan and Bethel before Judah fell into apostasy. Within 65yrs, Judah was overthrown by the Babylonians: 743BC-65 = 677BC

Isa 7:8

Isa 7:8 - within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken. within 65yrs, the date in which this prophecy is given by Isa the prophet is 743BC where: 1. A civil war between the Northern and Southern Kingdoms has erupted where the Northern kingdom under Pekah joined forces with Rezin, the king of Syria against Ahaz of Judah 2. Isa and his 1st son (Shearjashub: meaning "the remnant shall return" or "causeway") meets King Ahaz of Judah at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field START OF 1st INDIGNATION: Within 19yrs, Ephraim was overthrown by the Assyrians: 743BC-19 = 723BC. The overthrow of Ephraim preceded the overthrow of Judah by 46 years perhaps in part due to Jeroboam setting up the golden calves in Dan and Bethel (1Kin 12:29) before Judah fell into gross apostasy. Within 65yrs, Judah was overthrown by the Babylonians: 743BC-65 = 677BC

Isa 7:9

Isa 7:9 - if ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established - The Lord is calling the king, Ahaz to exercise faith and believe the counsel of the Lord that the confederacy of Ephraim and Syria would not stand. God makes plain that if he fails to believe, forsaking both the prophetic word and the gift of Righteousness by Faith, he will not be established. See Isa 28:16; Heb 3:18, 19; 2Chron 20:20

Isa 7:11

Isa 7:11 0- Ask thee a sign of the Lord - what great mercy the Lord showed Ahaz by allowing Himself to be proven of men. God knew Ahaz's fear and sought to assure him that He was on his side and that the spoken situation (the prophetic revelation) was under His control. God condescended, recognizing men's frailty, to be put to a test to show His love and faithfulness towards us. What a Wonderful Savior!!

Isa 7:12

Isa 7:12 - I will not ask, neither will I tempt the Lord - Ahaz's refusal to ask a sign of the Lord was a foolish, shameful act of false humility and actual contempt for God. God wanted to assure the fearful king in his despair and lack of faith to trust in His omnipotent hand. Yet in pride, self-righteousness (as a Laodicean) and self-will, not wanting to deviate from his planned course of soliciting the military aid of the Assyrians, he refused the strength and peace of the Lord (Isa 8:6; Isa 31:1, 3) while remaining fearful of his adversaries. See Jer 42:3-6, 18-22, 43:1-7

Isa 7:14

Isa 7:14 - Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son and shall call His name Immanuel -

See Zech 2:10 Jesus became a man: 1. To ransom humanity from the curse of the Law (Gal 3:13, 14) 2. So that we may be adopted as sons of God and heirs, receiving the Spirit according to the promise given to Abraham and Christ (Gal 4:4-7) 3. So that He might sit on the throne of His father David and reign eternally

Isa 7:15

Isa 7:15 - butter and honey shall he eat - Jesus is said to eat butter and honey so that he may know to refuse the evil and choose the good. Butter is churned (worked-over) milk, the pure word of Scripture (1Pet 2:2; Prov 30:33); and honey is the prophecies and revelations of God that all point to Jesus, the Way to Eternal life (Rev 10:8-11; John 5:39, 40)- See Isa 55:2; 1Pet 2:2 (Heb 5:13, 14) Honey is for sweetness, and is that which enlightens the eyes causing one to be revived and have spiritual discernment (1Sam 14:27-29; Prov 24:13, 25:16, 27). The prophets Joh and Eze are command to eat a book/scroll that would be sweet to the taste but bitter to the stomach. The prophetic word is that which is as honey for sweetness. Milk, the sincere first principles of God's Word is that which causes one to grow (Heb 5:12; 1Pet 2:2). Butter, a byproduct of milk (Heb 5:12; Prov 30:33) that is produced by churning [constant review/meditation], is to be eaten with bread, solid meat. Therefore, Jesus and those who follow in His footsteps are to be established from childhood in the Word, both intellectually (mind) and spiritually (heart). They will develop discernment through moderation, to choose the good and refuse the evil See Isa 28:9-11; 2Tim 3:14, 15 Butter - churned milk - Heb 5:12; Prov 30:33

Isa 7:15

Isa 7:15 - that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good - See Rom 16:19; 1Cor 14:20; Jam 3:13-18; Job 28:28; Heb 5:14

Isa 7:16

Isa 7:16 - for before the child shall - The dual prophecy is given first to affirm the frightful king of God's promised deliverance from his enemies (see Isa 8:3, 4) and to bring confidence in those who place their hope in the Lord regarding His coming salvation through a virgin, bringing forth Immanuel, God with us!

Isa 7:17

Isa 7:17-25 - the Lord shall bring upon thee - God would raise up the very ones Ahaz sought to ally in his battle against the Syrians and Ephraim, Assyria, to make desolate the fertile lands of Judah

Isa 7:17

Isa 7:17 - from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah - God would bring retributive judgment upon the house of Ahaz, from the time Israel separated from Judah, at the hands of the Assyrians.

Isa 7:22

Isa 7:22 - every one eat that is left int he land - the remnant that remains after God's scattering of His people are here spoken of. See Isa 1:9, 6:13

Isa 8:1

Isa 8:1 - Mahershalalhashbaz - a name written on a scroll and given to Isa's son meaning

"Plunder speedeth, spoil hasteth", signifying the immediacy of the fulfillment of God's prophecy. God would bring destruction to Israel's enemies at the hands of the Assyrians.

Isa 8:4

Isa 8:4 - For before the child shall have knowledge - A reaffirmation of the promise God gave to Ahaz, though he refused God's counsel, that his enemies would be broken by the hands of the Assyrians. See Isa 7:16

Isa 8:6

Isa 8:6 - refuseth the waters of Shiloah that go softly - God would bring retribution upon Israel (Norther Kingdom) that chose the reveling of their supposed allies over the peaceful ('Sent') waters of Shiloah by trusting in His Word (Isa 32:17). Shiloah is the Hebrew equivalent of the Greek Siloam, the river where Jesus anointed the eyes of the blind man who then went to the river and was given sight (Joh 9). Like blind Bartimaeus, who was wretched, miserable, poor, blind and who cast away his garment and became naked, the blind in the Bible represent Laodicea (Mk 10:46-52). The parallel of the blind man having his eyes anointed and then receiving sight is the counsel given to the church of Laodicea (Rev 3:15-18). To cure its lukewarm condition God counseled it to purchase the following of Him: 1. Gold tried in the fire that it may be rich (1st Angel's Message) 2. White raiment to cover one's nakedness (2nd Angel's Message) 3. Eye salve that one may see (3rd Angel's message). That Israel rejected the peaceful waters of Shiloah that would heal spiritual blindness and give sight and chose Rezin (the Dragon Power) and Remaliah's Son (the false prophet) suggested that they were refusing the 3rd Angel's messages and were choosing to be overthrown by the Sunday Law. In essence they refused the peaceful waters of Shiloah for the overflow scourge of the Euphrates, the Assyrian armies.

Isa 8:7

Isa 8:7 - waters of the river - overflowing scourge of the Assyrians

Isa 8:8

Isa 8:8 - overflow and go over - the term is used in one other location (Dan 11:40) and gives context for that verse. The Assyrians would "overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck", suggesting that in its siege, Israel would be routed even to the neck but the head would be spared. In other words, all the nation would be subdued except the capital, Jerusalem. See Isa 7:8, 9

Isa 8:8

Isa 8:8 - he shall reach even to the neck - the invading armies would seek to overthrow the capital city Jerusalem (the head), but would only come as far as the neck, sparing the capital. See Isa 7:1, 8

Isa 8:9

Isa 8:9-12 - Associate yourselves... and ye shall be broken... - God gives warning that if the people seek to confederate with foreign nations against the Lord's fly and hireling (Isa 7:18-20), they would be utterly broken. The modern day application is speaking of the confederacy that the churches and the nations are setting up against the LORD and His people.

Isa 8:12

Isa 8:12 - a confederacy - the confederacy of the 10 kings and the harlot at the Sunday Law will be the dread and fear of Adventists who have not feared God and made Jesus their sure foundation. They will run, fall and be broken; but those that wait upon the Lord will renew their strength, shall mount up with wings like eagles, shall run and not grow weary, shall walk and not faint. See Rev 17:12-14; Isa 54:15-17

Isa 8:13

Isa 8:13 - Sanctify the Lord - we must fear God and not man, establishing the Lord as our strength and the One who we seek not to offend (Mt 10:28). The era when this was first spoken was an era of spiritual apostasy where the doors of the temple in Israel had been closed by wicked king Ahaz and false worship was brought in. The same applies at the end of time when the world is confederating and the saints of God are to look up to the LORD as their shield and defense. See Isa 45:22. "The Lord brought Judah low" because of continued transgression. In this time of chastisement Ahaz, instead of repenting, trespassed "yet more against the Lord: ... for he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus." "Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them," he said, "therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me." 2Chron 28:19, 22, 23. - {PK 330.1} As the apostate king neared the end of his reign, he caused the doors of the temple to be closed. The sacred services were interrupted. No longer were the candlesticks kept burning before the altar. No longer were offerings made for the sins of the people. No longer did sweet incense ascend on high at the time of the morning and the evening sacrifice. Deserting the courts of the house of God and locking fast its doors, the inhabitants of the godless city boldly set up altars for the worship of heathen deities on the street corners throughout Jerusalem. Heathenism had seemingly triumphed; the powers of darkness had well-nigh prevailed. - {PK 330.2} But in Judah there dwelt some who maintained their allegiance to Jehovah, steadfastly refusing to be led into idolatry. It was to these that Isa and Mic and their associates looked in hope as they surveyed the ruin wrought during the last years of Ahaz. Their sanctuary was closed, but the faithful ones were assured: "God is with us." "Sanctify the Lord of hosts Himself; and let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread. And He shall be for a sanctuary." Isa 8:10, 13, 14. - {PK 330.3}

Isa 8:13

Isa 8:13 - let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread - See Rev 14:7; Mt 10:28; Heb 10:31

Isa 8:14

Isa 8:14- He shall be a sanctuary...a stone of stumbling and rock of offense - To the faithful, God is a sanctuary but to the wicked He is a rock of offense (Isa 28:5, 14-16). When the literal church doors are closed, we must have a personal relationship with Jesus that will sustain us. See Isa 33:15-17; Ps 91; The Lord foresaw Israel's rejection of Christ and that it would be but a remnant that acknowledge and permit Christ to be their sanctuary and refuge. See Joh 1:5, 10, 26

Isa 8:14

Isa 8:14 - but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel - See Isa 28:16; 1Cor 3:11||Gal 1:6-9; 1Pet 2:6-8; Mt 21:38-46; Lk 20:15-19; Act 4:11; Ps 118:22

Isa 8:15

Isa 8:15 - many among them shall stumble, fall, be broken, snared and taken - The fate of the five foolish virgins, those who do not put their trust in the Lord, those who will be overthrown by the overflowing scourge of a Sunday Law. See Dan 11:41; Isa 28:13; Rom 10:1-3

Isa 8:16

Isa 8:16 - Bind up the testimony - the testimonies of all the prophets that testify of God's works of redemption and salvation while counseling to avoid putting trust in man during the time of the overflowing scourge is to be bound among the faithful. In order to bind (wheat), it must first be gathered then tied together. So we must study God's Word and His prophecies. We must gather them and tie them together using God's prescribed method of proof texting. In so doing, the LORD will bind together His wheat in bundles at the harvest. See Isa 28:9-13, 51:7, 58:12; Rev 12:17; 2Chron 20:20; EW 88.2, 3

Isa 8:16

Isa 8:16 - seal the law - the Law of God, particularly the 4th Commandment is to seal the disciples of Christ. See Eze 20:12, 20; Ps 112:7; Rev 7:1-4 (Sabbath seal - God's Memorial - Ex 3:14, 15, 31:17), 12:17; Gen 6:14

Isa 8:16

Isa 8:16 - among my disciples - those who are found as the disciples of the LORD are heirs of righteousness by faith; they move with godly fear based on the prophetic word (Heb 11:7) and they hide God's law in their hearts that they may not sin against Him (Ps 119:11)

Isa 8:17

Isa 8:17 - I will wait upon the LORD - it is a common thing for the prophets to wait to hear a word from the LORD. See Hab 2:1

Isa 8:17

Isa 8:17 - that hideth His face - Isa has purposed to place his trust in the Lord and will wait for the Lord's deliverance. The houses of Jacob that place their trust in man, to them God hides His face and will not be found of them. See Am 8:1-13

Isa 8:18

Isa 8:18 - signs and wonders in Israel - Isa the prophet and his children were to be a demonstration of signs and wonders from the Lord that were to forewarn and befall Israel, both Northern and Southern Kingdoms. See Gen 1:14; Isa 20:1-4; Eze 12:1-6, 24:24;

Isa 8:19

Isa 8:19 - familiar spirits - See Isa 29:4; 65:4; Deut 18:10-14

Isa 8:19

Isa 8:19 - peep, and that mutter - See Isa 29:4

Isa 8:19

Isa 8:19 - should not a people seek unto their God? - God who is wonderful in counsel and excellent in working should be the One with Whom we seek counsel and wait upon to answer His counsels. See Isa 28:29; Jer 33:3 The apostles of nearly all forms of spiritism claim to have power to heal. They attribute this power to electricity, magnetism, the so-called "sympathetic remedies," or to latent forces within the mind of man. And there are not a few, even in this Christian age, who go to these healers, instead of trusting in the power of the living God and the skill of well-qualified physicians. The mother, watching by the sickbed of her child, exclaims, "I can do no more. Is there no physician who has power to restore my child?" She is told of the wonderful cures performed by some clairvoyant or magnetic healer, and she trusts her dear one to his charge, placing it as verily in the hand of Satan as if he were standing by her side. In many instances the future life of the child is controlled by a satanic power which it seems impossible to break. - {PK 211.1}

Isa 8:19

Isa 8:19 - for the living to the dead? - As Solomon stated, "the dead know not any thing" (Eccl 9:5). Therefore, it is lunacy for the living to seek counsel from those who know nothing. 1Sam 28:7-20; Ps 106:28; 1Kin 22:19-23

Isa 8:20

Isa 8:20 - To the law and to the testimony - See 1Cor 14:36, 37; Ps 19:7; 93:5, 119:128, 130; 1Thess 5:21 The Holy Scriptures are the perfect standard of truth, and as such should be given the highest place in education. To obtain an education worthy of the name, we must receive a knowledge of God, the Creator, and of Christ, the Redeemer, as they are revealed in the sacred word. - {Ed 17.1} There are many beliefs that the mind has no right to entertain. In the days of Christ the rabbis put a forced, mystical construction upon many portions of Scripture. Because the plain teaching of God's Word condemned their practices, they tried to destroy its force. The same thing is done today. The Word of God is made to appear mysterious and obscure in order to excuse transgression of His law. Christ rebuked these practices in His day. He taught that the Word of God was to be understood by all. He pointed to the Scriptures as of unquestionable authority, and we should do the same. The Bible is to be presented as the word of the infinite God, as the end of all controversy and the foundation of all faith. - {LHU 108.4} In His word, God has committed to men the knowledge necessary for salvation. The Holy Scriptures are to be accepted as an authoritative, infallible revelation of His will. They are the standard of character, the revealer of doctrines, and the test of experience. "Every scripture inspired of God is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction which is in righteousness; that the man of God may be complete, furnished completely unto every good work." 2 Timothy 3:16, 17, R.V. - {GC vii.1} The Spirit was not given—nor can it ever be bestowed—to supersede the Bible; for the Scriptures explicitly state that the word of God is the standard by which all teaching and experience must be tested. Says the apostle Joh, "Believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world." 1Jo 4:1. And Isa declares, "To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them." Isa 8:20. - {GC vii.3} "Remember your church covenant, in which you have agreed to walk in all the ways of the Lord, made or to be made known unto you. Remember your promise and covenant with God and with one another, to receive whatever light and truth shall be made known to you from His written word; but withal, take heed, I beseech you, what you receive for truth, and compare it and weigh it with other scriptures of truth before you accept it; for it is not possible the Christian world should come so lately out of such thick antichristian darkness, and that full perfection of knowledge should break forth at once."—Martyn, vol. 5, pp. 70, 71. - {GC 292.2} "The Lord will not lead minds now to set aside the truth that the Holy Spirit has moved upon His servants in the past to proclaim." {Ms32-1896.}

Isa 8:20

Isa 8:20 - if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them - if the counsels of one do not agree with all of the commandments of God and/or do not uphold the gospel truths spoken through the prophetic word, there is NO Light. Partial light is no good; it is either all or nothing. The saints at the end of time will all see eye to eye (Isa 52:8) and will walk in unison (Am 3:3), therefore, there must be unity of Spirit, thought and mind. See Joh 16:13; Ps 119:130; Gal 1:8, 9; 1Cor 3:11, 1Cor 14:22-37; 2Cor 11:3, 4; Rom 3:1-4 Only those who have been diligent students of the Scriptures and who have received the love of the truth will be shielded from the powerful delusion that takes the world captive. By the Bible testimony these will detect the deceiver in his disguise. To all the testing time will come. By the sifting of temptation the genuine Christian will be revealed. Are the people of God now so firmly established upon His word that they would not yield to the evidence of their senses? Would they, in such a crisis, cling to the Bible and the Bible only? Satan will, if possible, prevent them from obtaining a preparation to stand in that day. He will so arrange affairs as to hedge up their way, entangle them with earthly treasures, cause them to carry a heavy, wearisome burden, that their hearts may be overcharged with the cares of this life and the day of trial may come upon them as a thief. - {GC 625.3} In the judgment men will not be condemned because they conscientiously believed a lie, but because they did not believe the truth, because they neglected the opportunity of learning what is truth. Notwithstanding the sophistry of Satan to the contrary, it is always disastrous to disobey God. We must set our hearts to know what is truth. All the lessons which God has caused to be placed on record in His word are for our warning and instruction. They are given to save us from deception. Their neglect will result in ruin to ourselves. Whatever contradicts God's word, we may be sure proceeds from Satan. - {PP 55.2} - PP 55.2 "The Bible, I say, the Bible only, is the religion of Protestants!" Nor is it of any account in the estimation of the genuine Protestant how early a doctrine originated, if it is not found in the Bible. He learns from the New Testament itself that there were errors in the time of the apostles, and that their pens were frequently employed in combating those errors. Hence, if a doctrine be propounded for his acceptance, he asks, Is it to be found in the inspired word? Was it taught by the Lord Jesus Christ and his apostles? . . . More than this, we will add, that though Cyprian, or Jerome, or Augustine, or even the fathers of an earlier age, Tertullian, Ignatius, or Irenaeus, could be plainly shown to teach the unscriptural doctrines and dogmas of Popery, which, however, is by no means admitted, still the consistent Protestant would simply ask, Is the doctrine to be found in the Bible? Was it taught by Christ and his apostles? . . . He who receives a single doctrine upon the mere authority of tradition, let him be called by what name he will, by so doing steps down from the Protestant rock, passes over the line which separates Protestantism from Popery, and can give no valid reason why he should not receive all the earlier doctrines and ceremonies of Romanism upon the same authority." 1 {1873 JNA, HSFD 199.1}

Isa 8:21

Isa 8:21, 22 - And they shall pass through it, hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look upward - The wicked, having a form of godliness but denying the power therein, realize too late that they have believed lies (consulting the dead and spirits of Devils) and are outside the secret place of the Most High. - See Rev 16:11

Isa 8:21

Isa 8:21, 22 - hardly bestead and hungry - see Am 8:11-14; Isa 28:17-20

Isa 8:21

Isa 8:21 - bestead - to accommodate. Hardly bestead means to be perplexed, hardly accommodated.

Isa 8:21

Isa 8:21 - when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look upward - the distress of those who have forsaken the LORD will be grievous. They will find themselves in strait places and will look for relief but not find it. They are not under the shadow of the Almighty and their bread and water have failed. See Isa 28:17-21, 65:13, 14; Am 8:11-14; Compare Isa 33:15-17 The season of distress and anguish before us will require a faith that can endure weariness, delay, and hunger—a faith that will not faint though severely tried. The period of probation is granted to all to prepare for that time. Jacob prevailed because he was persevering and determined. His victory is an evidence of the power of importunate prayer. All who will lay hold of God's promises, as he did, and be as earnest and persevering as he was, will succeed as he succeeded. Those who are unwilling to deny self, to agonize before God, to pray long and earnestly for His blessing, will not obtain it. Wrestling with God—how few know what it is! How few have ever had their souls drawn out after God with intensity of desire until every power is on the stretch. When waves of despair which no language can express sweep over the suppliant, how few cling with unyielding faith to the promises of God. - {GC 621.2}

Isa 8:22

Isa 8:22 - And they shall look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness - It is impossible to describe the horror and despair of those who have trampled upon God's holy requirements. The Lord gave them His law; they might have compared their characters with it and learned their defects while there was yet opportunity for repentance and reform; but in order to secure the favor of the world, they set aside its precepts and taught others to transgress. They have endeavored to compel God's people to profane His Sabbath. Now they are condemned by that law which they have despised. With awful distinctness they see that they are without excuse. They chose whom they would serve and worship. "Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth Him not." Mal 3:18. - {GC 639.2} The enemies of God's law, from the ministers down to the least among them, have a new conception of truth and duty. Too late they see that the Sabbath of the fourth commandment is the seal of the living God. Too late they see the true nature of their spurious sabbath and the sandy foundation upon which they have been building. They find that they have been fighting against God. Religious teachers have led souls to perdition while professing to guide them to the gates of Paradise. Not until the day of final accounts will it be known how great is the responsibility of men in holy office and how terrible are the results of their unfaithfulness. Only in eternity can we rightly estimate the loss of a single soul. Fearful will be the doom of him to whom God shall say: Depart, thou wicked servant. - {GC 640.1}

Isa 9:1

Isa 9:1 - the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation - the dimness of anguish (Isa 8:22) pronounced upon God's rebellious people will not be as when they were vexed by their enemies who afflicted the land (destroyed their crops v3), caused them to walk in darkness, and broken down the walls and palaces (v10). The dimness to befall the Northern Kingdom will be with consuming fire (v5, 18-21).

Isa 9:2

Isa 9:2 - have seen a great light - the people who walked in darkness may refer to those who in the time of Christ were deceived by the leadership's traditions, worldliness and false doctrines that established a social cast system with the clergy at the top. Those in darkness may also refer to those living during the Dark Ages who again were held captive to the doctrines of men, traditions and heresies. The great light that shone in the time of Christ was Jesus Himself, the Light of the World! The Reformation and those raised up to expose the heresies of the Church of Rome while exalting the Word of God also were a great light. See the church of Sardis - See Mt 4:14-16; Rev 3:1-6

Isa 9:6

Isa 9:6 - For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given - See Lk 2:11 By His life and His death, Christ has achieved even more than recovery from the ruin wrought through sin. It was Satan's purpose to bring about an eternal separation between God and man; but in Christ we become more closely united to God than if we had never fallen. In taking our nature, the Saviour has bound Himself to humanity by a tie that is never to be broken. Through the eternal ages He is linked with us. "God so loved the world, that He gave His only-begotten Son." Joh 3:16. He gave Him not only to bear our sins, and to die as our sacrifice; He gave Him to the fallen race. To assure us of His immutable counsel of peace, God gave His only-begotten Son to become one of the human family, forever to retain His human nature. This is the pledge that God will fulfill His word. "Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon His shoulder." God has adopted human nature in the person of His Son, and has carried the same into the highest heaven. It is the "Son of man" who shares the throne of the universe. It is the "Son of man" whose name shall be called, "Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace." Isa 9:6. The I AM is the Daysman between God and humanity, laying His hand upon both. He who is "holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners," is not ashamed to call us brethren. Heb 7:26; 2:11. In Christ the family of earth and the family of heaven are bound together. Christ glorified is our brother. Heaven is enshrined in humanity, and humanity is enfolded in the bosom of Infinite Love. - {DA 25.3}

Isa 9:6

Isa 9:6 - Wonderful Counsellor - Jesus is the Great Counsellor Who ever lives to Intercede, guide, and direct all who come to Him for help. Ps 16:7; Jer 32:19; Prov 3:5, 6; Jam 1:5||Lk 11:13 Jesus is also the Wonderful Consoler in that He understands pain and sorrow: 1. Jesus consoled the weeping heavenly hosts after Lucifer staged his revolt, causing himself and his allies to be expelled from heaven (2Tim 2:19) 2. Jesus consoled the angels as they wept to see Adam and Eve fall to sin (GC648.2; AH 541.2) 3. Jesus consoles the human race as it bears the cross of grief and sorrow (Heb 2:14-18)

Isa 9:6

Isa 9:6 - The everlasting Father - See Dan 7:9; Ps 90:2

Isa 9:6

Isa 9:6 - The Prince of Peace - Shiloh, meaning "The Peaceful One" is a reference to Jesus, the Messiah. See Gen 49:10; Jer 23:5, 6; 33:17, 18

Isa 9:7

Isa 9:7 - Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end - See Isa 32:17; Joh 14:27

Isa 9:7

Isa 9:7 - upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever - See Jer 33:15, 16, 20; Lk 1:30; Act 2:29, 30

Isa 9:8

Isa 9:8-13 - the Lord sends word of warning of impending judgment upon the Northern Kingdom for their sins and in pride, they heed not, but purpose that they will rebuild that which has been torn down and make it stronger and more glorious.

Isa 9:10

Isa 9:10 - The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the sycomores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars - See Mal 1:4

Isa 9:14

Isa 9:14-17 - head and tail, branch and rush - The people are lead into rebellion through the deceptions of the leadership, the ancient men and elders (head) and the prophets (tail). God will punish therefore all, the deceivers and those led astray for all are deceivers, hypocrites and evildoers.

Isa 9:15

Isa 9:15 - the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail - the lying prophets are sons of their father, the devil, who is the author of all lies and whose tail drew 1/3 of the stars of heaven. See Joh 8:44; Rev 12:3, 4

Isa 9:16

Isa 9:16 - leaders of this people cause them to err - see Isa 28:14-18; Eze 8:16

Isa 9:18

Isa 9:18 - For wickedness burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briers and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke - See Isa 27:11

Isa 9:19

Isa 9:19 - and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire - See Isa 27:11

Isa 9:19

Isa 9:19 - no man shall spare his brother - See Isa 9:21

Isa 9:21

Isa 9:21 - Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah - brother will be against brother in the confusion.

Isa 10:1

Isa 10:1 - decree unrighteous decrees - When the nations decree unrighteous laws, God removes His hand of protection, and stretches out His hand against that nation. See Ex 23:2; Eze 14:12-21; See Isa 24:5, 6; Rev 13:12, 14, 15; Zeph 2:1-3; Act 4:18 But today in the religious world there are multitudes who, as they believe, are working for the establishment of the kingdom of Christ as an earthly and temporal dominion. They desire to make our Lord the ruler of the kingdoms of this world, the ruler in its courts and camps, its legislative halls, its palaces and market places. They expect Him to rule through legal enactments, enforced by human authority. Since Christ is not now here in person, they themselves will undertake to act in His stead, to execute the laws of His kingdom. The establishment of such a kingdom is what the Jews desired in the days of Christ. They would have received Jesus, had He been willing to establish a temporal dominion, to enforce what they regarded as the laws of God, and to make them the expositors of His will and the agents of His authority. But He said, "My kingdom is not of this world." Joh 18:36. He would not accept the earthly throne. - {DA 509.2}

Isa 10:1 - that write grievousness - See Esther 3:8-15; Ps 119:85-87

Isa 10:1

Isa 10:1 - which they have prescribed - that which has been devised, ordered, thought-up, or formed. See Esther 3:7; Dan 6:4-8 While the observance of the false sabbath in compliance with the law of the state, contrary to the fourth commandment, will be an avowal of allegiance to a power that is in opposition to God, the keeping of the true Sabbath, in obedience to God's law, is an evidence of loyalty to the Creator. While one class, by accepting the sign of submission to earthly powers, receive the mark of the beast, the other, choosing the token of allegiance to divine authority, receive the seal of God.—The Great Controversy, 605 (1911). - {LDE 225.3}

Isa 10:2

Isa 10:2 - To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless! - See Ex 23:6

Isa 10:5 - O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation - See Lev 26:25-33; Lam 2:1-7

Isa 10:6

Isa 10:6 - tread them down - See Dan 8:13

Isa 10:12

Isa 10:12-14 - I will punish... king of Assyria - The proud/stout heart of the king of Assyria led him to think that Israel's conquest was by his own might. God would humble the rod of His anger and staff of His indignation (v5). See Deut 32:27

Isa 10:13

Isa 10:13 - By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom - See Hab 1:11; Isa 10:5, 15

Isa 10:17

Isa 10:17, 18 - devour his thorns and his briars in one day - God foretells the utter destruction (soul and body) of the rebellious in Israel/Adventism (hell fire) in one day. See Isa 27:4, 5, 11; Mt 10:28

Isa 10:19

Isa 10:19 - rest of the trees shall be few - the remnant, the trees of righteousness and planting of the Lord will be few, namely, 144,000.

Isa 10:22

Isa 10:22 - For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: - See Rom 9:27, Isa 1:9

Isa 10:25

Isa 10:25 - indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction - Assyria, the King of the North who was the rod of God's indignation against Israel, will cease his persecution of God's people with his own destruction. A reference to the deadly wound upon the papacy that brought an end to the first indignation, the "first end of the indignation". See Rev 13:3; Dan 12:7

Isa 11:10

Isa 11:10 - shall stand as an ensign of the people - Jesus, the High and Lofty One will be an ensign, a banner for the Gentiles to flock to through His people, the 144,000 - See Isa 40:5

Isa 11:10

Isa 11:10 - to it shall the Gentiles seek - those outside of Adventism will flock to the knowledge of the Sabbath. See Joh 12:21

Isa 11:10

Isa 11:10 - his rest shall be glorious - the 144,000 will be drawing the world to the knowledge of the true sabbath rest.

Isa 11:11

Isa 11:11 - set his hand the second time - the gathering and deliverance of the remnant of Israel that return from the places of their dispersion (Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Shinar, Hammath and the islands of the sea) is likened to God's deliverance of Israel from Egyptian captivity.

Isa 11:11

Isa 11:11 - Elam - Persia

Isa 11:11

Isa 11:11 - Shinar - Babylon

Isa 11:12

Isa 11:12 - outcasts of Israel - the 144,000 who were a reproach among Israel and ones despised of the world (Ps 2:1-3, 83:1-3), will be lifted up and glorified with Christ's character before the world.

Isa 11:13

Isa 11:13 - Ephraim shall not envy Judah - The rivalry between Northern and Southern Kingdoms will not be in the day of the Lord because we will all see eye to eye. See Eze 37:16-23, Isa 52:8, 7:1-7

Isa 12:2 - for the LORD JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation - See Ps 27:1, 6

Isa 12:3

Isa 12:3 - draw water out of the wells of salvation - we are promised living waters (Joh 4:10, 14) that will flow from within and ultimately the waters of salvation whose source is the River of Life (Rev 22:1)

Isa 13:12

Isa 13:2 - man more precious than fine gold - man's self-worth and value is not based on his accomplishments, possessions or achievements but on God's estimation of him. The cross of Christ is where we find our true value (see also Jer 9:23, 24)

Isa 13:20

Isa 13:20 - It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation... - See Jer 25:12, 51:37 He [Alexander the Great] sought to reach the "ends of the world and the Great Outer Sea" and invaded India in 326 BC, winning an important victory over the Pauravas at the Battle of the Hydaspes. He eventually turned back at the demand of his homesick troops. Alexander died in Babylon in 323 BC, the city that he planned to establish as his capital, without executing a series of planned campaigns that would have begun with an invasion of Arabia. In the years following his death, a series of civil wars tore his empire apart, resulting in the establishment of several states ruled by the Diadochi, Alexander's surviving generals and heirs. - Wikipedia "Alexander of Macedon" Interesting FACT: Alexander dies of alcoholism in Babylon, the city that in the last days has caused all nations to become drunk with the wine of her fornication. See Rev 18:2, 3

Isa 14:4

Isa 14:4 - oppressor ceased, the golden city ceased - References to the "great city" of Babylon (Rev 14:8), literal and spiritual. Just as heavenly Jerusalem has streets of gold, so Babylon, the counterfeit, is called the golden city.

Isa 14:5

Isa 14:5 - The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked - Jesus has made a public spectacle of the overthrow of the forces of evil. He has disarmed principalities and powers so they bear no power over the sons of righteousness. See Col 2:15; Heb 2:14; Gen 3:15

Isa 14:12

Isa 14:12 - How art thou fallen from heaven - The mystery of iniquity, the fall of Lucifer will remain a mystery. However in God's wisdom, He saw the need to expel for good the once exalted and honored angel. Though favor would be shown Lucifer, his wicked heart would not repent nor honor the Lord of glory. See Isa 26:10

Isa 14:12

Isa 14:12 - cut down to the ground - Lucifer, forsaking his first estate as an exalted angel, was cast to the earth with his rebellious host (Rev 12:9, 10, 12; Ju 1:6, 7)

Isa 14:12

Isa 14:12 - which didst weaken the nations - See Prov 14:34

Isa 14:13

Isa 14:13 - I will ascend into heaven - Lucifer's spirit was characterized by self-exaltation (gadal), the desire to rise and elevate oneself above his appointed position (Ju 6). So too, the sons of the evil seed seek to exalt their wisdom, thoughts, abilities, and lives above God's designed order. The wisdom and knowledge of Satan is earthly, sensual and devilish and does not descend from above but from beneath [the earth] according to the Apostle Jam (Jam 3:13-18). The Bible establishes a principle that those things that are not from above are from the earth and are earthly (Joh 3:31). Therefore, Satan and those who follow in his footsteps will be ones who seek to ascend (exalt themselves above the knowledge of God - 2Cor 10:5), whose wisdom and works arise from the earth.

Isa 14:13

Isa 14:13 - I will exalt my throne - Lucifer's throne, a kingly, monarchial seat, is the throne of iniquity (Ps 94:20) which he purposes to exalt above all the heavenly hosts and above God's throne, the throne of righteousness and judgment (Ps 97:2). In order to do so, he purposed to murder God. See Joh 8:44

Isa 14:13

Isa 14:13 - sit also among the mount of the congregation - Also known as Mt. Zion (Ps 48:2), Lucifer desires to sit in the midst of the congregation in that he thinks/desires to be the theme of worship, adoration and praise. See Ex 27:21

Isa 14:13

Isa 14:13 - sides of the north - the seat of God's government and where His throne is placed is in the sides of the north. It is here that Lucifer wages his attack and seeks to set-up the "seat of the image of jealousy", the throne of iniquity in the sides of the north (Eze 8:3-6). In order to unseat God and establish his throne, Lucifer sought to kill God. Lucifer's pagan ideals would never be satisfied, always striving to be higher. He would instill the same thoughts and desires in the mind of Adam and Eve. See Joh 8:44; Mt 21:33-44; Lk 20:14

Isa 14:14

Isa 14:14 - will ascend above the heights of the clouds - Lucifer desired the position above all other created beings and angels (which he had). However, he erred in desiring to be above Michael, who is God. He beheld the close communion between God and mankind and that man had been given dominion over the earth and that provoked him to envy.

Isa 14:14

Isa 14:14 - will be like the Most High - Lucifer desired to have dominion, to govern over, to receive praise and adulation and to be worshipped like the Most High, but he lacked the love for all of the creation of the Most High. Lucifer's desire to rule was for selfish motives whereas God's creation was made for God's glory and for communion with God. God desired that others share in the blessings of life and all the joys He could bestow... In glad response the creation would show their gratitude in loving worship. Lucifer got the script all twisted! See Mt 4:9; Lk 4:7; Ezekiel 28:12-19 "Satan's sin was the desire to exalt himself above God, to exalt his will above God's will. He wanted to be the ultimate authority in his life instead of surrendering to God's authority over his life. As a result, he lost the high position God had given him." {Surrender, G. Jackson, pg 22} "This means that the 144,000 will come to understand fully what had not been known by any previous generation. The secret sin of desiring to take the life of God would be revealed and the root of sin would be expelled. Guilt would be purged and without remorse these ones "without fault before the throne of God" would sense their place in the royal family as sons of the Most High. Such a work could not have been done nor understood by any previous generation for no former people had the three angels' messages. The cleansing and restoring of the heavenly sanctuary could not take place until the time had been fulfilled, not because God was unwilling but because man was unready." Isa 17:4-6 - And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean. 5 And it shall be as when the harvestman gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim. 6 Yet gleaning grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel. - the verses describe Israel's ultimate rejection of God and the very small remnant that will embrace the gospel of Jesus Christ. See Act 7, 8; Isa 1:8, 9

Isa 17:13 - shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind - See Ps 1:4; Job 21:18; Hosea 13:3

Isa 18:3

Isa 18:3 - see ye - the ensign is to be a visible sign. God's glory revealed in His people.

Isa 18:3

Isa 18:3 - ensign on the mountains - the banner that is to be lifted upon among the churches (mountains) is the 144,000. They will be raised up during a time of religious crisis to proclaim the glory of the LORD. See Isa 5:26, 60:1-5; Song 6:10

Isa 18:3

Isa 18:3 - when he bloweth a trumpet - the ensign to be lifted up will be during the 7th trumpet. See Rev 10:7

Isa 18:3

Isa 18:3 - hear ye - bearing the Three Angels' Messages joined by the Fourth, the specific message is to call all men out of Babylon.

Isa 18:7

Isa 18:7 - present be brought unto the Lord - See Ps 68:31

Isa 19:1

Isa 19:1 - burden of Egypt - See Eze 29:1-30:19

Isa 19:3

Isa 19:3 - seek to the idols - see Isa 44:9-20; Hab 2:18, 19; Dan 5:4

Isa 19:3

Isa 19:3- charmers, familiar spirits, wizards - see Isa 8:19, 20, 29:4

Isa 19:4

Isa 19:4 - give over to the hand of a cruel lord - the Assyrians. See Isa 20:4

Isa 19:14

Isa 19:14 - mingled a perverse spirit in the midst - See 1Kin 22:21-23; Jer 9:23; 1Thess 2:11, 12; Isa 66:4

Isa 19:19

Isa 19:19 - shall there be an alter to the Lord - the conversion of Egypt is foretold. The world will be converted to the Lord before His 2nd Coming.

Isa 21:1

Isa 21:1 - desert of the sea - a possible reference to the Medes and Persians who dwelt beyond the Persian gulf

Isa 21:2

Isa 21:2 - a grievous vision - See Isa 33:1

Isa 21:2

Isa 21:2 - sighing thereof have I made to cease - the sighing of the enslaved Children of Israel, bound to 70yrs of captivity will come to an end with the invasion of the Medes and Persians (Elam). See Isa 45:1-4

Isa 21:3

Isa 21:3 - Therefore are my loins filled with pain: pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it - See Hab 3:16; Isa 13:1-8

Isa 21:4

Isa 21:4 - night of my pleasure - Belshazzar's feast - See Dan 5

Isa 21:11

Isa 21:11 - Dumah - Mt Seir is the land of the Edomites, the descendants of Esau.

Isa 21:11

Isa 21:11 - Watchman, what of the night? - The Edomites inquire of Isa, the prophet turned watchman, what is the state of things? Is it safe?

Isa 21:13

Isa 21:13 - burden upon Arabia - See Jer 25:24, 49:28

Isa 22:1

Isa 22:1 - valley of vision - a vision of the overthrow of the nation of Israel and the spoiling of the daughters of Isa's people.

Isa 22:1

Isa 22:1 - gone up to the housetops - See Mk 13:15

Isa 22:2

Isa 22:2 - art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city - the prophet presents a contrast in the circumstances of the valley of visions. There is a stir and tumult because of the impending doom. However, the people have not humbled themselves nor turned to their God in repentance so that He may exercise mercy. On the contrary, they choose to "eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow we die" Isa 22:13, 14; 32:13. God promises to remember this transgression unto the peoples death. Those who are not participating in the rightful works of repentance during the Day of Atonement will be eating and drinking, that which usually precedes close of probation for those who will be overthrown: Isa 22:13; Lk 12:16-21 24:12; Mt 24:36-39, 44-51; Job 1:13, 18, 19

Isa 22:7

Isa 22:7 - choisest valleys - the "fat valleys", burst with milk and honey are to be laden with armies. See Isa 28:1

Isa 22:12

Isa 22:12 - the LORD GOD of hosts call to weeping - God calls the people to fast, repent and pray for deliverance but the people have resolved to "eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow they will die" [go out with a bang!]. This is the attitude of many who understand the Judgment Hour Cry and still do not weep and mourn between the porch and the altar as they ought to. See Joe 2:17; Lk 21:34-36; Lev 23:27, 29

Isa 22:13

Isa 22:13 - let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die - See 1Cor 15:32

Isa 22:15

Isa 22:15-19 - treasurer, even unto Shebna - apparently Shebna was an unrighteous treasurer/governor in the house of Hezekiah, squandering moneys and he would pay the price in his captivity for his waste. He will be pulled down and in his stead, God will establish Eliakim [meaning, "whom God will raise up"], the son of Hilkiah.

Isa 22:20

Isa 22:20 - my servant Eliakim - meaning "who God will raise up", he is chosen to replace Shebna as a governor in the house of Hezekiah. Eliakim would relay the message of the King of Assyria, given by Rabshakeh to Hezekiah, prompting him to come before the Lord with fasting and prayer. See 2Kin 18:17, 18, 26, 37

Isa 22:22

Isa 22:22 - And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open. - See Rev 3:7

Isa 22:22

Isa 22:22-24 - he shall open and none shall shut - The word's spoken of Eliakim's governorship over the house of Hezekiah is an allusion to Jesus, Who has governorship over the house of God. Eliakim is a type of Christ, a faithful governor, unlike Shebna, who rules well over the house of God. He is to open the door of faith to many and to be as a nail fastened surely against the wall upon which many (vessels) small and great can be hung. See Rev 3:8; 1Cor 16:9; Act 14:27

Isa 22:25

Isa 22:25 - In that day - the day of the Lord, the nail that is fastened in a sure place (Shebna?) will be removed and anything hung upon it will be cut off. A foretelling of the impending destruction of Jerusalem and the removal of those things hung in men's wisdom that will be pulled down.

Isa 23:13

Isa 23:13 - set up the towers, build palaces, and He brought them to ruin - the destruction of Tyre is being compared to might Babylon. Great towers and palaces were built in Babylon that were brought to ruin. The tower's collapse marked the economic ruin of Tyre and all the nations that did trade with it.

Isa 23:14

Isa 23:14 - ships - ships are a symbol of: 1. Merchandise - 2Chron 9:21 2. Business - Ps 107:23 3. Trade - Rev 18:17 Ships are therefore a representation of economic strength (economy).

Isa 23:14

Isa 23:15 - Tarshish - an island nation known as the thoroughway where trade abounded. From this depot came great wares originating from around the world and bound for the lavish city nation of Tyre (Isa 23:8, 9). The economy of this great city would be laid waste with the collapse of Tyre.

Isa 23:15

Isa 23:15 - Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years - the land of Tyre, a symbol of the papacy will be made desolate with the infliction of a deadly wound (Rev 13:3).

Isa 23:15

Isa 23:15-17 - Tyre sing as an harlot - after 70yrs, Tyre will again seduce and enchant as a harlot. She will again have relations with the merchants and kings of the earth.

Isa 23:18

Isa 23:18 - merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD - Our fair, currency and pursuits for acquisition must be holiness to the LORD. We are not to covet material wealth of this world but to seek God's Kingdom and His righteousness. The merchandise of Babylon will be holiness to the Lord (Rev 18:11-13; Mic 4:10-13). Zion threshes (crushes) Babylon through their message; Joshua 6:1-5 [Jericho, the king and the mighty men of valour = Dragon, Beast, False Prophet] 7 trumpets then a loud shout brought Jericho down, Modern Babylon falls under 7 trumpets and a Loud Cry (Joshua 6:17-19). All the merchandise of Jericho is consecrated to the Lord; Rahab represents the souls of men that are called out by the Loud cry

Isa 24:1, 2 - maketh the earth empty, maketh it waste, turneth it upside down - God will turn the world upside down representing the Sunday Law crisis (Eze 7:12-26). The secret place that the robbers pollute is the sanctuary, that the papacy will pollute - Dan 11:41; the Law is perished at the Sunday Law but they have also rejected the old paths that leads to the rejection of the Law.

Isa 24:3

Isa 24:3, 4 - land shall be utterly emptied - the earth mourns, fades away and languishes (Hos 4:1-6) because there is no truth, mercy or knowledge in Israel (Adventism); the knowledge of God that is rejected causes the land to languish (Dan 12:3, 4, 9; 11:31-35) we need to be purified made white and tried

Isa 24:5

Isa 24:5 - earth also is defiled - The Sunday Law is being spoken of where the curse is brought upon the earth for defiling the Law of God because the entire world has forsaken the Sabbath truth. (Deut 29:16-28); Jer 2:7, 51:5; Lev 18:24, 25; Deut 24:4

Isa 24:5

Isa 24:5 - transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant - the enforcement of a global Sunday Law, an unrighteous decree (Isa 10:1) will bring about the final judgments of God upon the earth. See Ps 119:126; Eze 14:12-21; Dan 7:25

Isa 24:6

Isa 24:6 - therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned - See 2Thess 2:8; Heb 12:29

Isa 24:6

Isa 24:6 - and few men left - the few men left are the righteous who will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air. See Gen 7:23; 1Pet 3:20

Isa 24:16

Isa 24:15 - my leanness, my leanness - a lamentation paralleling the 2nd Angel's Message, Babylon is fallen, is fallen. See Rev 14:8

Isa 24:19

Isa 24:19, 20 - the earth is utterly broken down - See Jer 4:23-27; Gen 1:2; Zeph 1:14-18

Isa 24:21

Isa 24:21 - the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth - See Jer 25:13-29; Rev 19:17, 18

Isa 24:22

Isa 24:22 - and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be visited - See Rev 19:17, 18; 20:2, 3, 5

Isa 24:23

Isa 24:23 - then the moon shall be confounded and the sun ashamed - the Bottomless Pit, the earth will be a place of darkness for Satan during the Millennium. See Jer 4:28

Isa 24:23

Isa 24:23 - when the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, and Jerusalem, and before his ancients gloriously - See Rev 20:4

Isa 25:1

Isa 25:1 - counsels of old are faithfulness and truth - Isa 46:8-11 the prophets words declare the end from the beginning. Prov 22:20, 21 given to us so we may have certainty of the truth and so we may be able to give an answer to all for the reason of the hope within us. Must sanctify God's word in our lives (study and consecration)

Isa 25:2

Isa 25:2 - it shall never be built - the fate pronounced upon Babylon is here echoed by the prophet Isa. He who was the terrible of the nations and oppressed many would himself be overthrown, never to rise again (Isa 13:19, 20; 14:4-6; Hab 1:5-11, 2:8; Jer 50:38-43). A fitting depiction of the fate of Babylon as it has spoiled many nations and will itself be spoiled. See Rev 13:9, 10

Isa 25:4

Isa 25:4 - strength to the poor and needy - The poor and needy, God's people who are poor in spirit and see their need for Christ's righteousness. The blast and storm of the terrible one is trying to break down the wall. Eze 30:10-12 Babylon, the most terrible of the nations, conquered Egypt; the Papacy will conquer the World in the last days (Dan 11:42). The storm from the King of the North is the Sunday Law. The Law of God is the wall. Matt 7:24-27 Two classes are portrayed - the rain, floods and winds come. The rain is the Holy Spirit, the floods is Rome (King of the North and the Sunday Law). The winds are the 4 winds of strife brought about by Islam. The house founded on the Rock does not fall. The sand (Selected Messages BK 4 221) is the winds of doctrine and new organization in Adventism that will be shaken. Isa 4:1-6 - (7 churches are all churches of Christendom that will take the name of the man of sin at the Sunday Law) during this time the Church triumphant is purified being led by the Cloud and Fire of the Lord. Neh 4:1, 6-8 As the walls are being built up, the breaches are being repaired (Isa 58:12) and the three fold union come up against it

Isa 25:4

Isa 25:4 - a refuge from the storm - God has established His people who put their trust in Him such that they will be as trees planted by the rivers of water that bring forth their fruit in season and their leaves do not wither. God is also their refuge, shadow and hiding place (Ps 91:1, 2; Ps 27:5) from the blast of the terrible ones. Matt 7:24-27 (storms blew), Ps 1:1-3, Jer 17:5-8

Isa 25:4

Isa 25:4 - a shadow from the heat - See Isa 32:1, 2

Isa 25:4

Isa 25:4 - blast of the terrible ones - See Isa 28:2, 15, 17-21

Isa 25:4

Isa 25:4 - storm against the wall - the Sunday Law that is an offense against the wall, the Law of God. See Isa 5:1-7, 28:6

Isa 25:6

Isa 25:6 - in this mountain - the mountain of the Lord, God's glorious holy mountain.

Isa 25:6

Isa 25:6 - feast of fat things - God will prepare a feast of fat things, wine on the lees and marrow. Isa 2:2, 3 The nations flow to Mt. Zion because they will learn of God's way, the Law and prophets. Joe 3:16-18 true doctrine is found in Mt. Zion (new wine, milk, waters). Song 5:1 garden (God's people) a banquet of milk, wine, honey - this is the feast of the Lord. Ps 63:5

Isa 25:7

Isa 25:7 - face of the covering cast - the veil of darkness and death from the prince of darkness. See Isa 60:2; 2Cor 4:3, 4; Rev 12:9

Isa 25:7

Isa 25:7 - veil that is spread over all the nations - Ex 34:29-35 The veil was to cover the glory of God shining forth. The people of Israel participated in idolatry/ignorance/darkness (the veil) prior to seeing Moses so that they could not behold his glory. [Ps 106:19-21; 2Cor 3:9-16] They forgot their glory and changed it to the image of a calf -> Rom 1:21-25 when the people worshipped the beast, they could no longer behold the glory of God. The false worship is the veil that causes the nations to be in darkness concerning Christ's character and law. Isa 60:1-5 God's glory as revealed through the 4th Angel shines upon the Gentiles as seen through God's people. The veil that is spread over all nations may in a secondary manner be the curse of sin and death. Gal 3:13

Isa 25:8

Isa 25:8 - swallow up death in victory - God will put an end to death and its bounty at the Second Coming. See 1Cor 15:54, 55; Heb 2:14

Isa 25:8

Isa 25:8 - wipe away tears from all faces - In the New Jerusalem, God will wipe away all tears and sorrow - Rev 7:17, 21:4

Isa 25:8

Isa 25:8 - the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: - See Ps 69:9

Isa 25:9

Isa 25:9 - Lo, this is our God - The 144,000 who will be the wise, have understanding and will be able to stand in the great day of the Lord will look up and say, Lo, this is our God, we have waited for Him and He will save us. See Dan 10:5-7; Ps 42:2; 68:3, 4; Obadiah 1:17; 1Jo 2:28

Isa 26:1

Isa 26:1 - In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks - The redeemed have a city whose Builder and Maker is God. See Heb 11:10, 13-16

Isa 26:2

Isa 26:2 - Open ye the gates - See Ps 24:7-10

Isa 26:2

Isa 26:2 - the righteous nation which keepeth the truth may enter in - the righteous who keep the Law of God (Jeshurun) will enter in through the city and have a right to the Tree of Life. See Isa 44:2; Rev 22:14, 15; Ps 118:20

Isa 26:3

Isa 26:3 - keep him in perfect peace - See Nah 1:7; Ps 27:5, 119:165; Philippians 4:6

Isa 26:5

Isa 26:5 - For he bringeth down them that dwell on high; the lofty city, he layeth it low; he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust - See Rev 16:16-21, 18:1-8; Isa 47:7-15

Isa 26:6

Isa 26:6 - The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy - See Mal 4:1

Isa 26:7

Isa 26:7 - way of the just is uprightness - See Prov 4:18

Isa 26:9

Isa 26:9 - for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness. - See Prov 14:34

Isa 26:9

Isa 26:9 - inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness - See Isa 11:9

Isa 26:10

Isa 26:10 - Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD. - The wicked are hardened in their ways of rebellion such that they will not learn truth, knowledge and the wisdom that is from above. They have no appreciation for God or His benefits towards them. See Job 27:10; Nah 1:9; Rev 22:11 Such is still the condition of the unrenewed heart. It is not in harmony with God, and finds no joy in communion with Him. The sinner could not be happy in God's presence; he would shrink from the companionship of holy beings. Could he be permitted to enter heaven, it would have no joy for him. The spirit of unselfish love that reigns there—every heart responding to the heart of Infinite Love—would touch no answering chord in his soul. His thoughts, his interests, his motives, would be alien to those that actuate the sinless dwellers there. He would be a discordant note in the melody of heaven. Heaven would be to him a place of torture; he would long to be hidden from Him who is its light, and the center of its joy. It is no arbitrary decree on the part of God that excludes the wicked from heaven; they are shut out by their own unfitness for its companionship. The glory of God would be to them a consuming fire. They would welcome destruction, that they might be hidden from the face of Him who died to redeem them. - {SC 17.2} That the world could only tolerate 3.5yrs of the LORD's ministry before seeking to destroy Him shows that the wicked can not be changed in their ways; destruction is the only logical end for them and sin will therefore, never rise up again: "Jesus had now given three years of public labor to the world. His example of self-denial and disinterested benevolence was before them. His life of purity, of suffering and devotion, was known to all. Yet this short period of three years was as long as the world could endure the presence of its Redeemer." - {DA 541.3}

Isa 26:10 - in the land of uprightness - See Isa 33:17

Isa 26:10

Isa 26:10 - and will not behold the majesty of the LORD - See Isa 33:17; Ps 27:4; Job 27:10

Isa 26:11

Isa 26:11 - but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy at the people; - the wicked have despised God's people with envy, and will envy the favor shown by God to His people once again. They will covet their blessed, exalted position, though they themselves reject the humble submission to God that is required to receive it. See Ps 2:1-4;

Isa 26:11

Isa 26:11 - the fire of thine enemies shall devour them - the fire ordained for the devil and his hosts shall also consume wicked men. Sin is self-destructive. The very sin in the hearts of the wicked God will release to destroy themselves. See Mt 25:41; Isa 30:33

Isa 26:12

Isa 26:12 - LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works in us - See Isa 32:17

Isa 26:12

Isa 26:12 - for thou also hast wrought all works in us - all the redeemed will cast their crowns at Jesus' feet, Who has not only won our salvation, but has begun and completed the good work He started in us. See Phil 1:6, 2:13; Gal 2:20; Rev 4:10, 11, 5:9, 10; Heb 12:2

Isa 26:13

Isa 26:13 - but by thee only will we make mention of thy name - we will boast in no other but in Jesus Christ and Him crucified. See 1Cor 2:2;

Isa 26:19

Isa 26:19 - Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead - See John 11:25, 26; 1Thess 4:13-18

Isa 26:19

Isa 26:19 - and the earth shall cast out the dead - See Joh 5:25; 1Thess 4:16; 1Cor 15:52-55

Isa 26:20

Isa 26:20, 21 - shut thy doors - The seven last plagues, like the last plague of Egypt will befall all who are not covered in the blood of the Lamb. The Lord counsels us to enter into our chambers, shut the doors and hide ourselves for a little moment until His indignation be overpast. See also Ex 12:13, 22, 23; Zeph 2:1-3; Ps 83:1-3; Prov 1:33

Isa 26:20

Isa 26:20 - hide thyself as it were for a little moment - See Zeph 2:1-3; Ps 91:1-9, 27:1-5, 83:3, 57:1; Job 14:13

Isa 26:20

Isa 26:20 - indignation be overpast - Gen 7:15 chambers we hide in until the indignation be overpassed - the ark is a symbol of being sealed inside until the overflowing be passed; Gen 6:16 door into the ark (Jesus) three stories (3 Angel's messages)

Isa 26:21

Isa 26:21 - the LORD cometh out of His place - The Lord leaves the Most Holy Place, dawns His garments of wrath and will come to punish the inhabitants of the earth. See Dan 12:1; Isa 63:4, 6

Isa 27:1

Isa 27:1 - sore and great and strong sword - See Rev 19:15-21; Heb 4:12, 13.

Isa 27:1

Isa 27:1 - piercing serpent - the devil was the primary instigator in the crucifixion of Jesus. See Eze 29:3-6; Rev 12:4, 5, 1:7 In the contest between Christ and Satan, during the Saviour's earthly ministry, the character of the great deceiver was unmasked. Nothing could so effectually have uprooted Satan from the affections of the heavenly angels and the whole loyal universe as did his cruel warfare upon the world's Redeemer. The daring blasphemy of his demand that Christ should pay him homage, his presumptuous boldness in bearing him to the mountain summit and the pinnacle of the temple, the malicious intent betrayed in urging him to cast himself down from the dizzy height, the unsleeping malice that hunted him from place to place, inspiring the hearts of priests and people to reject his love, and at the last to cry, "Crucify him! crucify him!"—all this excited the amazement and indignation of the universe. - {GC88 501.1} It was Satan that prompted the world's rejection of Christ. The prince of evil exerted all his power and cunning to destroy Jesus; for he saw that the Saviour's mercy and love, his compassion and pitying tenderness, were representing to the world the character of God. Satan contested every claim put forth by the Son of God, and employed men as his agents to fill the Saviour's life with suffering and sorrow. The sophistry and falsehood by which he had sought to hinder the work of Jesus, the hatred manifested through the children of disobedience, his cruel accusations against Him whose life was one of unexampled goodness, all sprung from deep-seated revenge. The pent-up fires of envy and malice, hatred and revenge, burst forth on Calvary against the Son of God, while all Heaven gazed upon the scene in silent horror. - {GC88 501.2}

Isa 27:1 - crooked serpent - the perverse, froward and crooked serpent cannot be made straight. See Deut 32:5; Prov 2:15; Eccl 1:15

Isa 27:1

Isa 27:1 - shall slay the dragon that is in the sea - the devil that dwells in the midst of the multitudes. See Rev 17:15

Isa 27:2

Isa 27:2, 3, 6 - the sealed of God make up his vineyard that will blossom and fill the face of the world.

Isa 27:2

Isa 27:2, 3, 6 - A vineyard of red wine - the sealed of God make up his vineyard that will blossom and fill the face of the world. See Ps 80:8-11; Isa 5:1-4

Isa 27:3

Isa 27:3 - I will water it every moment - God's people will be as a well watered tree, by the rivers, bringing forth its fruit in season and in drought. See Ps 1:3; Jer 17:7, 8

Isa 27:3

Isa 27:3 - lest any hurt it - see 1Jo 5:18

Isa 27:3

Isa 27:2, 3 - vineyard of red wine, I will keep it day and night - Matt 26:28 a symbol of the new covenant - entering into covenant and being sealed; God will keep His church triumphant who has eaten Jesus' flesh and drank His blood

Isa 27:4

Isa 27:4 - Fury is not in me - it is not God's desire to destroy the wicked. He could easily go through them and burn them up as stubble, but He'd rather show mercy to them as they repent and take hold of His strength. God's loving forbearance is here demonstrated (Rom 2:4). See Ps 81:15, 16; Eze 33:11

Isa 27:4

Isa 27:4, 5 - briars and thorns - Briars and thorns are they which cause pain and hurt to those who brush against them. God makes an appeal to the briars and thorns (tares within the Laodecian church body) to make peace with him so that they may be grafted into the choice vine, lest they be burned up. See Isa 10:5, 6, 16-19, 27:11; 32:13; Isa 5:6; 7:23, 24; Eze 2:6; Heb 6:8

Isa 27:4

Isa 27:4 - I would burn them together - See Isa 9:18, 10:17; Heb 6:8; Ps 7:11-13, 2:12

Isa 27:5

Isa 27:5 - Or let him take hold of my strength - See Proverbs 1:22-25; 2Cor 12:9 God is pleading with the sinners in Zion (Isa 33:14), the Laoediceans, to make peace with Him, repent and be converted that their sins be blotted out. "Those who will consent to enter into covenant relation with the God of heaven are not left to the power of Satan or to the infirmity of their own nature. They are invived by the Saviour, "Let him take hold of My strength, that he may make peace with Me; and he shall make peace with Me". - Evangelism 626.2 Thus prophecies of oncoming judgment were mingled with promises of final and glorious deliverance. Those who should choose to make their peace with God and live holy lives amid the prevailing apostasy, would receive strength for every trial and be enabled to witness for Him with mighty power. And in the ages to come the deliverance wrought in their behalf would exceed in fame that wrought for the children of Israel at the time of the Ex. The days were coming, the Lord declared through His prophet, when "they shall no more say, The Lord liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; but, The Lord liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land." Verses 7, 8. Such were the wonderful prophecies uttered by Jer during the closing years of the history of the kingdom of Judah, when the Babylonians were coming unto universal rule, and were even then bringing their besieging armies against the walls of Zion. - {PK 427.1}

Isa 27:5

Isa 27:5 - Or let him take hold of my strength - See Proverbs 1:22-25; 2Cor 12:9 God is pleading with the sinners in Zion (Isa 33:14; Joel 3:14; Rom 5:6-9), the Laoediceans, to make peace with Him, repent and be converted that their sins be blotted out (Jam 4:7-10; Act 3:19). "Those who will consent to enter into covenant relation with the God of heaven are not left to the power of Satan or to the infirmity of their own nature. They are invived by the Saviour, "Let him take hold of My strength, that he may make peace with Me; and he shall make peace with Me". - Evangelism 626.2 Thus prophecies of oncoming judgment were mingled with promises of final and glorious deliverance. Such were the wonderful prophecies uttered by Jer during the closing years of the history of the kingdom of Judah, when the Babylonians were coming unto universal rule, and were even then bringing their besieging armies against the walls of Zion. - {PK 427.1} Thus will it be with the righteous. As they review the events of their past lives, their hopes will almost sink. But as they realize that it is a case of life or death they will earnestly cry unto God, and appeal to Him in regard to their past sorrow for, and humble repentance of, their many sins, and then will refer to His promise, "Let him take hold of My strength, that he may make peace with Me; and he shall make peace with Me.” Isa 27:5. Thus will their earnest petitions be offered to God day and night. God would not have heard the prayer of Jacob and mercifully saved his life if he had not previously repented of his wrongs in obtaining the blessing by fraud. - {SR 98.2} The righteous, like Jacob, will manifest unyielding faith and earnest determination, which will take no denial. They will feel their unworthiness but will have no concealed wrongs to reveal. If they had sins, unconfessed and unrepented of, to appear then before them, while tortured with fear and anguish, with a lively sense of all their unworthiness, they would be overwhelmed. Despair would cut off their earnest faith, and they could not have confidence to plead with God thus earnestly for deliverance, and their precious moments would be spent in confessing hidden sins and bewailing their hopeless condition. - {SR 98.3}

Isa 27:6 - He shall cause them of Jacob to take root - God will change the name of Laodecia from Jacob to Israel when they take hold of His strength. Then He will cause them to blossom, bear fruit unto righteousness. See Eze 29:21; Mal 3:3, 4; Isa 32:15

Isa 27:6

Isa 27:6 - Israel shall blossom - God will change the name of Laodecia from Jacob to Israel when they take hold of His strength. Then He will pour out His Spirit upon them, causing them to blossom and bud, to bear fruit unto righteousness. See Mal 3:3, 4; Isa 32:15, 44:3, 4

Isa 27:6

Isa 27:6 - Spring time budding before harvest, before the Sunday Law. It is the rains that cause the buds to spring forth. See Job 38:26, 27 In proclaiming the truths of the everlasting gospel to every nation, kindred, tongue, and people, God’s church on earth today is fulfilling the ancient prophecy, “Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.” Isa 27:6. The followers of Jesus, in co-operation with heavenly intelligences, are rapidly occupying the waste places of the earth; and, as the result of their labors, an abundant fruitage of precious souls is developing. Today, as never before, the dissemination of Bible truth by means of a consecrated church is bringing to the sons of men the benefits foreshadowed centuries ago in the promise to Abraham and to all Israel,—to God’s church on earth in every age,—“I will bless thee, ... and thou shalt be a blessing.” Gen 12:2. - {PK 703.1}

Isa 27:6

Isa 27:6 - blossom and bud - Just as Aaron’s rod blossomed and budded, bringing forth fruit of righteousness, so to, God’s people are to blossom and bud before the last inhabitants of the world (Num 17:1-10; Deut 10:8; Heb 9:4) Spring time budding before harvest, before the Sunday Law. It is the rains that cause the buds to spring forth. Simultaneously, the drunkards in Ephraim are as a fading flower in the glorious valley See Job 14:9, 38:26, 27; Isa 28:1-4, 55:10, 44:3, 4 In proclaiming the truths of the everlasting gospel to every nation, kindred, tongue, and people, God’s church on earth today is fulfilling the ancient prophecy, “Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.” Isa 27:6. Isa 27:7

Isa 27:7 - as he smote those - the wicked servants who mistreat the menservants and maidens are here referenced. The wicked shepherds that feast on the flock and ill treat the servants because he thinks the masters coming is delayed. See Eze 34:2-6; Lk 12:45

Isa 27:8 - In measure - "The act of Christ in breathing upon his disciples the Holy Ghost, and in imparting his peace to them, was as a few drops before the plentiful shower to be given on the day of Pentecost" (3SP 243; Joh 20:21, 22; Act 1:4-8; compare Joh 3:34). The same applies to the Latter Rain [see Deut 32:1, 2] which began to fall on 9/11/2001. Many have in a great measure failed to receive the former rain. They have not obtained all the benefits that God has thus provided for them. They expect that the lack will be supplied by the latter rain. When the richest abundance of grace shall be bestowed, they intend to open their hearts to receive it. They are making a terrible mistake. The work that God has begun in the human heart in giving his light and knowledge, must be continually going forward. Every individual must realize his own necessity. The heart must be emptied of every defilement, and cleansed for the indwelling of the Spirit. It was by the confession and forsaking of sin, by earnest prayer and consecration of themselves to God, that the early disciples prepared for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost. The same work, only in greater degree, must be done now. Then the human agent had only to ask for the blessing, and wait for the Lord to perfect the work concerning him. It is God who began the work, and he will finish his work, making man complete in Jesus Christ. But there must be no neglect of the grace represented by the former rain. Only those who are living up to the light they have, will receive greater light. Unless we are daily advancing in the exemplification of the active Christian virtues, we shall not recognize the manifestations of the Holy Spirit in the latter rain. It may be falling on hearts all around us, but we shall not discern or receive it. - {RH March 2, 1897 Par. 4}

Isa 27:8

Isa 27:7 - when it shooteth forth - The coming of the rains brings the blossoms and budding of the trees and the tender plants start to shoot forth (see Job 38:25-27, Isa 55:10). It is at this time that the east wind blows, while the rough winds are stayed.

Isa 27:8

Isa 27:8 - thou wilt debate with it - Just as Hagar and Ishmael mocked the infant Isaac, so too the briars and thorns in Adventists mock and contest the Latter Rain messages and messengers. The teaching of Christ, though it was represented by the new wine, was not a new doctrine, but the revelation of that which had been taught from the beginning. But to the Pharisees the truth of God had lost its original significance and beauty. To them Christ's teaching was new in almost every respect, and it was unrecognized and unacknowledged. - {DA 279.2} Wherever the truths of the gospel are proclaimed, those who honestly desire to do right are led to a diligent searching of the Scriptures. If, in the closing scenes of this earth's history, those to whom testing truths are proclaimed would follow the example of the Bereans, searching the Scriptures daily, and comparing with God's word the messages brought them, there would today be a large number loyal to the precepts of God's law, where now there are comparatively few. But when unpopular Bible truths are presented, many refuse to make this investigation. Though unable to controvert the plain teachings of Scripture, they yet manifest the utmost reluctance to study the evidences offered. Some assume that even if these doctrines are indeed true, it matters little whether or not they accept the new light, and they cling to pleasing fables which the enemy uses to lead souls astray. Thus their minds are blinded by error, and they become separated from heaven. - {AA 232.1} All will be judged according to the light that has been given. The Lord sends forth His ambassadors with a message of salvation, and those who hear He will hold responsible for the way in which they treat the words of His servants. Those who are sincerely seeking for truth will make a careful investigation, in the light of God's word, of the doctrines presented to them. - {AA 232.2} We are not to drift into worldly channels. Consider the cleansing of the temple at the beginning of Christ's ministry, and at the close of his life, his personal labors in the guise of humanity. Whom did he find intent on gain? The Jews had made the courts of the temple a scene of sacrilegious traffic. They had turned the ancient and sacred institution of the Passover into a means of vile profit. They bartered deep, turning the once sacred service instituted by Christ himself, into a worship of mammon. But Christ came suddenly into the temple courts; divinity flashed through humanity, and, raising a whip of small cords in his hands, with a voice that they will hear again in the execution of the judgment, he said, "Take these things hence." "It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves." These priests and rulers saw as it were an avenging angel with a flaming sword, such as guarded the way to the tree of life. - {SpTA07 54.1} Today this sacrilegious work is being more than repeated. There will be messages borne; and those who have rejected the messages God has sent, will hear most startling declarations. The Holy Spirit will invest the announcement with a sanctity and solemnity which will appear terrible in the ears of those who have heard the pleadings of infinite love, and have not responded to the offers of pardon and forgiveness. Injured and insulted Deity will speak, proclaiming the sins that have been hidden. As the priests and rulers, full of indignation and terror, sought refuge in flight at the last scene of the cleansing of the temple, so will it be in the work for these last days. The woes that will be pronounced upon those that have had light from heaven, and yet did not heed it, they will feel, but will have no power to act. This is represented in the parable of the wise and foolish virgins. They cannot obtain a character from the wise virgins, and they have no oil of grace to discern the clear light or to accept it. They cannot light their lamps and join the procession that goes in to the marriage supper of the Lamb. - {SpTA07 54.2}

Isa 27:8 - He stayeth His rough wind - the 4 winds of strife that are to blow upon the earth and trees are being restrained by the LORD in the day of the East Wind. The staying of the rough winds is accompanied by a work of sealing God's faithful (Rev 7:1-4; Isa 8:16) who have gladly heard, understood and embraced His last messages of warning to a rebellious people who have had much light. Rather than study to show themselves approved as Bereans, the appointed messengers contest and debate with the message, those who sincerely proclaim it, and its method of communication.

Isa 27:8

Isa 27:8 - the day of the east wind - the time/era (day - indefinite) that the east wind blows is when a sacred message is going forth. The east wind, which carried the locusts to Ancient Egypt and was that which broke the economic strength of Tarshish (Ex 10:13; Ps 83) as associated with the wild Arabian ass and the locusts, all symbols of Islam The message of Jesus' arrival (His birth, His triumphal entry to Jerusalem to die and His second coming) is tied/bound to the message of the ass and east wind. Hos 13:15; Gen 41:23

Isa 27:9

Isa 27:9 - By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged - When we repent and be converted (allowing our eyes to see, ears to hear, and heart to understand), casting away the covering for our idols [expose them, bring them to the light and forsake them] and seek to walk in the paths that the Lord has set before us; then God will purge our sins and will send forth the rains upon us. See Act 3:19; Isa 6:10; 30:20-23, 4:4.

Isa 27:9

Isa 27:9 - maketh all the stones of the alter as chalkstones - The prophecy of the Man of God was that one would come by the name of Josiah, who would tare down the alters erected by Jeroboam and beat them into chalkstone (1Kin 13:2, 3; 2Kin 23:14, 15; Isa 65:3; Eze 8:3; 2Chron 15:16). Similarly, those who embark upon a work of reformation and tear down the alters in their heart will experience God's purging and purification. See Isa 30:22

Isa 27:10

Isa 27:10 - the defenced city shall be desolate - a foretelling of the impending destruction of Ephraim, the Northern Kingdom that will never be rebuilt. See Isa 25:2

Isa 27:11

Isa 27:11 - Laodecia that does not take hold of the Lord becomes withered by the blasting of the terrible ones (heat of the Sunday Law) and are gathered in by women (Apostate Churches) to be set on fire because they lacked understanding (Isa 25:4). The Lord will not have mercy upon them because they have rejected truth.

Isa 27:11

Isa 27:11 - boughs thereof are withered - Those in Adventism who have not received the Latter Rain are left as withered boughs (briers and thorns) to be burned by women (Isa 10:17; John 15:6). Jesus foretold the awful fate of these people when He said "Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children... For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry? (Lk 23:28, 31; compare Rev 9:4; Isa 61:3)

Isa 27:11

Isa 27:11 - withered - those who do not abide in Christ will lack the rains, and are not planted by the rivers of waters will wither like the heath in the desert - See Joh 15:6; Jer 17:5, 6; Ps 1:4; Lk 23:31

Isa 27:11

Isa 27:11 - broken off - Those in Adventism will be broken off like ancient Israel because of unbelief. They failed to embrace Christ's righteousness by faith; to experience His transforming power through the Latter Rain; and from eating the Little Book as counseled by the prophet. See Heb 4:1-3; Rom 9:6-27; 11:17-20 Those professed Christians who come up to that last fearful conflict unprepared will, in their despair, confess their sins in words of burning anguish, while the wicked exult over their distress. These confessions are of the same character as was that of Esau or of Judas. Those who make them, lament the result of transgression, but not its guilt. They feel no true contrition, no abhorrence of evil. They acknowledge their sin, through fear of punishment; but, like Pharaoh of old, they would return to their defiance of Heaven should the judgments be removed. - {GC 620.3}

Isa 27:11

Isa 27:11 - the women come and set them on fire - those who will be overthrown in Adventism (Dan 11:43) will be led to their destruction by the apostate churches. Just as the Man of God was led to his destruction upon a Beast [of Burden] after being deceived by the False Prophet, those in Adventism will perish as they join their fate to Apostate Protestantism. See Joh 15:6; Mt 3:10, 7:19

Isa 27:11

Isa 27:11 - a people of no understanding - Dan states that the wicked will do wickedly and will not understand the message (Chazown, and Mareh Visions and Dan 11:40-45 - in other words "the end of these things") unlike the wise. See Dan 12:8, 10, 29:9-12; Hos 4:6; Mic 2:6; Before His crucifixion the Saviour explained to His disciples that He was to be put to death and to rise again from the tomb, and angels were present to impress His words on minds and hearts. But the disciples were looking for temporal deliverance from the Roman yoke, and they could not tolerate the thought that He in whom all their hopes centered should suffer an ignominious death. The words which they needed to remember were banished from their minds; and when the time of trial came, it found them unprepared. The death of Jesus as fully destroyed their hopes as if He had not forewarned them. So in the prophecies the future is opened before us as plainly as it was opened to the disciples by the words of Christ. The events connected with the close of probation and the work of preparation for the time of trouble, are clearly presented. But multitudes have no more understanding of these important truths than if they had never been revealed. Satan watches to catch away every impression that would make them wise unto salvation, and the time of trouble will find them unready. - {DD 36.3} When God sends to men warnings so important that they are represented as proclaimed by holy angels flying in the midst of heaven, He requires every person endowed with reasoning powers to heed the message. The fearful judgments denounced against the worship of the beast and his image (Rev 14:9-11), should lead all to a diligent study of the prophecies to learn what the mark of the beast is, and how they are to avoid receiving it. But the masses of the people turn away their ears from hearing the truth and are turned unto fables. The apostle Paul declared, looking down to the last days: "The time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine." 2Tim 4:3. That time has fully come. The multitudes do not want Bible truth, because it interferes with the desires of the sinful, world-loving heart; and Satan supplies the deceptions which they love. - {DD 37.1}

Isa 27:11

Isa 27:11 - not have mercy on them - God pours out His justice without mercy because seeing, the wicked saw not, hearing, they heard not and they rejected knowledge. That which would have been for their peace they have rejected. See Hos 1:6

Isa 27:12

Day of the Sunday Law

Isa 27:12

Isa 27:12- beat off channel of the river to stream - The image is of God threshing from the breadth of the mighty Euphrates river down to a narrow stream. In other words, God will be as One threshing the wheat, separating the wheat from the tare and will be as a sieve to gather the people in one by one. See Eze 20:36-38; Mt 7:13, 14

Isa 27:12

Isa 27:12 - gathered one by one - Salvation is a personal thing and we each must choose our own fate. Everyone must deliver their own soul by their righteousness. See Eze 14:20; Phil 2:12; Am 4:7; Jer 3:14

Isa 28:1 - God speaks woes to the crown [royalty, headship] of pride who are the deceived and drunken in the land of Ephraim. See Am 6:8; Eze 34:1, 2; Jer 13:12-19; Nah 1:10; Eze 22:6-12 Their beauty is a fading flower on the tops of the richest (fattest) valleys because they've been deceived (overcome with wine). The wine that they drank is the wine of pride and man's wisdom over the wisdom of God, brought to fruition and made manifest in their rejection of God as Sovereign King for a mortal king (Col 2:8; 1Sam 8:7). The prophet's words, instead of leading to confession and repentance, aroused the anger of those high in authority, and as a consequence Jer was deprived of his liberty. Imprisoned, and placed in the stocks, the prophet nevertheless continued to speak the messages of Heaven to those who stood by. His voice could not be silenced by persecution. The word of truth, he declared, "was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay." Jer 20:9. - {PK 432.1}

Isa 28:1 - the head (top) of the fat valleys (fertile lands flowing with milk and honey - Isa 25:6; Dan 11:24). The Ephraimites were rich and increased with goods and thought they had need of nothing. Jesus spoke truly when He said it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of Heaven (Mt 19:24)

Isa 28:2

Isa 28:2 - Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one - The strong ones spoken of are the armies of the Assyrians who as a tempest of hail, a destroying storm and as a flood of mighty overflowing waters would scatter the Northern Kingdom in 723BC. See Rev 12:15; Isa 5:26-30

Isa 28:3

Isa 28:3 - The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden under feet: - See Isa 27:10, 11; 43:28

Isa 28:3

Isa 28:3 - trodden under feet - The people of God are trodden down by the desolators as spoken in Dan 8:13. The 2,520 prophecy speaks of the treading down of God's people whereas the 2,300 day prophecy speaks of the treading down of the sanctuary. Both must be restored before God can enter covenant with His people. This occurred after October 22, 1844, when all the commandments were established.

Isa 28:5 - In that day - the rule of first mention of the term (Isa 2:10-12, 17) in the book of Isa shows that the term refers to the "day of the Lord", 2nd Coming of Christ when He reaps vengeance upon His enemies. Isa 22:20-25

Isa 28:5 - Crown of glory - in contrast to the crown of pride worn by self exalting men, God will be a Crown of glory and a diadem of beauty for the residue [remnant] among the masses in the day of the Lord. See Isa 2:17, 4:2; 33:17, 62:3; Gen 15:1

Isa 28:5

Isa 28:5 - the residue of His people - a remnant is here spoken of. See Isa 1:9; Rev 12:17

Isa 28:6

Isa 28:6 - a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment - a spirit of discernment, justice and righteousness from the Lord. That which God's Holy Spirit imparts. See Isa 4:4 Contrast Isa 5:7

Isa 28:6

Isa 28:6 - Spirit of Judgment - God promises to give wisdom and good judgment to leaders who are willing to heed His counsel. As in the case of Hezekiah and Josiah who both sought the counsel of the Lord, He spared their lives and caused them to prosper (2Kin 22, 23; Isa 37:14-20)

Isa 28:6

Isa 28:6 - Turn the battle to the gate - Jerusalem was a walled city that had gates for entrance (Neh 6:1). Attacking forces would attack the gates rather than the walls themselves, though the gates were as extensions of the walls (Isa 25:4; Lamentation 2:9). Therefore, those who attack the gates/walls, or the commandments of the Lord [and testimonies of the prophets] will be turned back by those who uphold them. God would defend Jerusalem, under King Hezekiah against the Assyrians (Isa 37:31-37)

Isa 28:7

Isa 28:7 - they also have erred through wine - See Isa 3:12; 28:14; 29:9-14; Jer 4:22, 13:13, 14

Isa 28:7

Isa 28:7 - Wine and strong drink - the wine of Babylon (false doctrines) is that which intoxicates the world and causes them to war against God, His Word the Bible and its truths, and the people of God (Rev 14:8, 18:3). The wine of Babylon is what modern leaders are drinking from, rather than the pure unfermented new wine (present truth) wherein there is a blessing (Isa 65:8).

Isa 28:7

Isa 28:7 - Out of the Way - they err in judgment because of intoxicating wine and find themselves out of the way, rejecting the old paths (Jer 6:16) for new methods of evangelism, new methods of worship, new classes of preachers (not approved of God like the Levites), new theories on established truths (the Creation, the Sabbath, definitions of Marriage/Remarriage/Divorce, etc. - see book: Here We Stand). Their rejection of the Old paths has set them on a downward course to ultimately rejecting Christ (see Isa 30:9-11)

Isa 28:7

Isa 28:7 - see Eze 8:16 - The leadership (priest and high priest) have all gone astray and turned out of the way. See also 2 Chr 29:34; Jer 12:10, 11; Joe 2:17, Deut 4:19; Hos 9:7-9; Isa 43:27 As the light and life of men was rejected by the ecclesiastical authorities in the days of Christ, so it has been rejected in every succeeding generation. Again and again the history of Christ's withdrawal from Jua has been repeated. When the Reformers preached the word of God, they had no thought of separating themselves from the established church; but the religious leaders would not tolerate the light, and those that bore it were forced to seek another class, who were longing for the truth. In our day few of the professed followers of the Reformers are actuated by their spirit. Few are listening for the voice of God, and ready to accept truth in whatever guise it may be presented. Often those who follow in the steps of the Reformers are forced to turn away from the churches they love, in order to declare the plain teaching of the word of God. And many times those who are seeking for light are by the same teaching obliged to leave the church of their fathers, that they may render obedience. - {DA 232.2}

Isa 28:7

Isa 28:7 - the prophet - the prophets were cunning, sly, and deceitful. See Isa 3:12; Eze 13:2-4

Isa 28:7

Isa 28:7 - swallowed up of wine - From Elijah's experience during those days of discouragement and apparent defeat there are many lessons to be drawn, lessons invaluable to the servants of God in this age, marked as it is by general departure from right. The apostasy prevailing today is similar to that which in the prophet's day overspread Israel. In the exaltation of the human above the divine, in the praise of popular leaders, in the worship of mammon, and in the placing of the teachings of science above the truths of revelation, multitudes today are following after Baal. Doubt and unbelief are exercising their baleful influence over mind and heart, and many are substituting for the oracles of God the theories of men. It is publicly taught that we have reached a time when human reason should be exalted above the teachings of the Word. The law of God, the divine standard of righteousness, is declared to be of no effect. The enemy of all truth is working with deceptive power to cause men and women to place human institutions where God should be, and to forget that which was ordained for the happiness and salvation of mankind. - {PK 170.2}

Isa 28:7

Isa 28:7 - they are out of the way through strong drink - The drunkards that are intoxicated with false doctrine have stumbled off of the Old Paths. See Jer 6:16, 17; Isa 30:9-11

Isa 28:7

Isa 28:7 - err in vision, stumble in judgment - Those who stumble for strong drink err in their interpretation of the prophetic word and the oracles of God. For they have not sought the LORD to know His will but to affirm their crooked ways. See Isa 29:9-13; 59:7-11; 1:21-23

Isa 28:7

Isa 28:7 - they stumble in judgment - As the sons of Aaron, Nadab and Abihu were drunk and offered strange fire (Lev 10:1), so those who have departed from the strait and old paths, drinking the wine of Babylon stumble in judgment. They offer profane sacrifices. See Mal 1:6-8

Isa 28:8

Isa 28:8 - tables are full of vomit - the adulterous priests and prophets have been made drunk through the wine of Babylon. Their reproach for the old paths and ways makes hearing the strait testimony a detestable thing. They vomit upon the tables, first the commandments of God, but secondarily upon the two charts [1843, 1850] that establish the old paths. The two tables speak of the sanctuary, the "daily", judgment, the 2520, all of which brings great disgust to many as they hear these messages.

Isa 28:9

Isa 28:9 - Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? - The question is asked by the prophet of God, "Who can God teach knowledge and impart and understanding of His doctrine?". God is seeking for those who will stand in the gap despite the mass oppression and rebellion of the leadership (Isa 3:12). The answer is all who are drawn by the LORD [The Father] will be taught by Him and will follow Jesus. See Jer 9:12; Joh 6:37, 44, 45, 7:17; Act 2:7-12; 2Tim 3:14, 15

Isa 28:9

Isa 28:9 - them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts - It is affirmed that Jewish women continued to breastfeed their children until the age of 3. Consider that

Hannah brought Samuel whom she had just weaned (1Sam 1:21-24) to live with Eli. Despite the awful influence in Eli's home, Samuel remained uncorrupted by them. Also, the Levites are said to take of the sanctified food of the sanctuary by the age of 3 (2Chron 31:16). Therefore, sufficient training and development can be given a child of 3yrs old in spiritual matters that will frame and mold their characters for the rest of their lives. See Deut 6:4-9; 2Tim 3:14, 15 Those who are weaned from the milk and from the breast are those who desire solid food and not milk, which is only good for babes, but not for those weaned from the milk and breast. Instruction in righteousness should be given to children, as soon as they are weaned from the milk. Further, spiritually, we must exercise our spiritual senses through study and prayer to discern good and evil. (see 1Pet 2:2, Heb 5:13, 14) Obedience to Become a Delight—Parents should educate their children line upon line, precept upon precept, here a little and there a little, not allowing any disregard of God's holy law. They should rely upon divine power, asking the Lord to help them to keep their children true to Him who gave His only-begotten Son to bring the disloyal and disobedient back to their allegiance. God longs to pour upon men and women the rich current of His love. He longs to see them delighting to do His will, using every jot of their entrusted powers in His service, teaching all who come within the sphere of their influence that the way to be treated as righteous for Christ's sake is to obey the law. Isa 28:10

Isa 28:10 - MIS-EDUCATION: There were those in Adventism, during the 1930's, who attempted to deflect applications of the "classical prophets", such as Isa's writing, away from those living in the last days. How did they do this? By using the HISTORICAL-CRITICAL interpretation of the scriptures and claiming that these "classical prophets" wrote more for their own times than ours. Thus, they discarded the PROOF-TEXT method of Bible interpretation outlined in Isa 28:9, 10 which was used by William Miller and endorsed by our prophet, Sister White. (See: Prophecy -> Prophecy Principles->Written for Our Admonition) The Lord calls upon his shepherds to feed the flock of God with pure provender. He would have us present the truth in the simplicity line upon line, precept upon precept, here is a little and there a little. When this work is done faithfully many will be convicted and converted by the Holy Spirit. There is need of workers who will come close to unbelievers, not waiting for unbelievers to come close to them, workers who will search for the lost sheep, who will do personal labor, and who will give clear, definite instruction. - {SpM 142.3}

Isa 28:10 - For precept must be upon precept - MIS-EDUCATION: There were those in Adventism, during the 1930's, who attempted to deflect applications of the "classical prophets", such as Isa's writing, away from those living in the last days. This delusion will spread, and we shall have to contend with it face to face; and unless we are prepared for it, we shall be ensnared and overcome. But if we do what we can on our part to be ready for the conflict that is just before us, God will do His part, and His all-powerful arm will protect us. He would sooner send every angel out of glory to make a hedge about faithful souls, than have them deceived and led away by the lying wonders of Satan. - {EW 262.3}

Isa 28:10 - precept - a principle or rule. Millers 14 Rules are precepts given to the Adventist church by which scriptures are to be dug as for hidden treasures. Additional precepts such as: The Natural is followed by the Spiritual, On the testimony of 2 or 3 witnesses, every word is established; Repeat and Enlarge, and the Triple Application of Prophecy are additional principals to illuminate prophecies.

Isa 28:10

Isa 28:10 - Here a little there a little - the method of Bible study endorsed by the Bible is called proof-texting, allowing the Bible to be its own expositor and proving all things from and by the Word of God. 1. Prove all things: - 1 Thess 5:19-21 2. To the Law & Testimony - Isa 8:20 Christ endorsed this method when He spoke of the wise scribe, well versed in the Kingdom of God that brings forth things new and old (Mt 13:52). "Written in different ages, by men who differed widely in rank and occupation, and in mental and spiritual endowments, the books of the Bible present a wide contrast in style, as well as a diversity in the nature of the subjects unfolded. Different forms of expression are employed by different writers; often the same truth is more strikingly presented by one than by another. And as several writers present a subject under varied aspects and relations, there may appear, to the superficial, careless, or prejudiced reader, to be discrepancy or contradiction, where the thoughtful, reverent student, with clearer insight, discerns the underlying harmony. - {ISM 25.3}

Isa 28:11

Isa 28:11 - For with stammering lips and another tongue will He speak to this people - God will raise up among the common people, those who lack eloquence [having even a stammering tongue (stutter)], yet are faithful, steadfast in the Spirit, and willing to be taught and used to present His message. This a rebuke to the gifted preachers, ministers, and educated ones who were passed-by, just like the educated leadership in the time of Christ who were completely in darkness and were passed-by by the shepherds who were entrusted to bear the news of Christ's birth (Lk 2:8-18). God will heal the faithful with stammering lips - Isa 32:4

Isa 28:11

Isa 28:11 - God will send even foreigners, in the case of the wise men in the time of Christ (Mt 2:1-11), to bring counsel and wisdom to a people stumbling in drunkenness and darkness. See 1Cor 14:21

Isa 28:12

Isa 28:12 - the rest - The rest that we are to enter into is the rest in Jesus Christ. We are to stop working, attempting to earn salvation and take Christ's yoke (His completed works of Creation & Salvation, His righteousness/holiness, His obedience, His faith, His mind/character) and learn of Him. This is the true meaning of the Sabbath for the believer (Mt 11:28-30)

Isa 28:12

Isa 28:12 - the weary - See Mt 11:28

Isa 28:12

Isa 28:12 - the rest/refreshing from the Lord are given by the Sabbath rest (Ex 31:17) and the Latter Rain from the presence of the Lord, which comes in response to confession, forsaking of all sins, and conversion. The time of refreshing occurs in the time when sins are being blotted out. October 22, 1844 marks the commencement of the Judgment for the dead, the Judgment of the Living, today, as of 9/11/2001. (See Act 3:19) I saw that many were neglecting the preparation so needful, and were looking to the time of "refreshing" and the "latter rain" to fit them to stand in the day of the Lord, and to live in His sight. Oh, how many I saw in the time of trouble without a shelter! They had neglected the needful preparation, therefore they could not receive the refreshing that all must have to fit them to live in the sight of a holy God. - {CET 112.3}

Isa 28:12

Isa 28:12 - yet they would not hear - See Rom 10:2-4; Joh 6:27-29; Eze 20:49; Jer 6:16, 17

Isa 28:12

Isa 28:12 - hear - The Latter Rain is a message to be heard wherewith rest/refreshing is gained (Isa 55:3). the drunkards would not hear and therefore they stumble out of the way. (See Jer 6:16, 17, 11:19-21; Isa 30:9-11). Because they refuse to hear, God will send them a strong delusion of his own choosing (Omega Apostasy) so that they may stumble and fall (Isa 66:4, 5; 2Thess 2:11, 12) See: Select Messages BK1 48.3 (ISM 48.3)

Isa 28:13

Isa 28:13 - But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken - God does not compel men to give up their unbelief. Before them are light and darkness, truth and error. It is for them to decide which they will accept. The human mind is endowed with power to discriminate between right and wrong. God designs that men shall not decide from impulse, but from weight of evidence, carefully comparing scripture with scripture. Had the Jews laid by their prejudice and compared written prophecy with the facts characterizing the life of Jesus, they would have perceived a beautiful harmony between the prophecies and their fulfillment in the life and ministry of the lowly Galilean. - {DA 458.3} - DA 458.3

Isa 28:13

Isa 28:13 - precept upon precept, precept upon precept, line upon line - Paul understood that the preaching of the gospel alone was not sufficient to develop true Christian characters. He believed in the principle of teaching others how to fish so that they may eat for a lifetime. Therefore, beyond preaching, Paul instructed converts in God's prescribed means of studying and applying scripture. The apostle Paul felt a deep responsibility for those converted under his labors. Above all things, he longed that they should be faithful, "that I may rejoice in the day of Christ," he said, "that I have not run in vain, neither labored in vain." Phil 2:16. He trembled for the result of his ministry. He felt that even his own salvation might be imperiled if he should fail of fulfilling his duty and the church should fail of co-operating with him in the work of saving souls. He knew that preaching alone would not suffice to educate the believers to hold forth the word of life. He knew that line upon line, precept upon precept, here a little and there a little, they must be taught to advance in

Isa 28:13

Isa 28:13 - See Isa 28:15. the message will be going out with power from the Holy Spirit, line upon line, precept upon precept, yet the drunkards will not hear. In fact they will persecute the ones who are giving the message (Mt 10:5, 6, 14-16). Tidings will eventually come that the glory of the Lord has departed, causing them to: 1. Go - "wander" (after the beast), run to and fro from north to east looking for the word of the Lord and not finding it (Am 8; Jer 8:20) 2. Fall Backward - regress and die just like blind Eli (1Sam 4:15-18) 3. Be broken - overthrown 4. Snared - trapped [drums] 5. Taken - captured (see TM419.1)

Isa 28:14

Isa 28:14 - ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem - the leadership who rule over Israel (the church) are clearly identified. They are described as scornful (Ps 1:1, 2Pet 3:3-7), doubting and skeptical of the very message that God has given His people for their success. "Notwithstanding the widespread declension of faith and piety, there are true followers of Christ in these churches. Before the final visitation of God's judgments upon the earth there will be among the people of the Lord such a revival of primitive godliness as has not been witnessed since apostolic times. The Spirit and power of God will be poured out upon His children. At that time many will separate themselves from those churches in which the love of this world has supplanted love for God and His word. Many, both of ministers and people, will gladly accept those great truths which God has caused to be proclaimed at this time to prepare a people for the Lord's second coming. The enemy of souls desires to hinder this work; and before the time for such a movement shall come, he will endeavor to prevent it by introducing a counterfeit. In those churches which he can bring under his deceptive power he will make it appear that God's special blessing is poured out; there will be manifest what is thought to be great religious interest. Multitudes will exult that God is working marvelously for them, when the work is that of another spirit. Under a religious guise, Satan will seek to extend his influence over the Christian world." The Great Controversy, 464. "In a vision of the night I was shown distinctly that these sentiments have been looked upon by some as the grand truths that are to be brought in and made prominent at the present time. I was shown a platform, braced by solid timbers—the truths of the Word of God. Someone high in responsibility in the medical work was directing this man and that man to loosen the timbers supporting this platform. Then I heard a voice saying, 'Where are the watchmen that ought to be standing on the walls of Zion? Are they asleep? This foundation was built by the Master Worker, and will stand storm and tempest. Will they permit this man to present doctrines that deny the past experience of the people of God? The time has come to take decided action.' "The enemy of souls has sought to bring in the supposition that a great reformation was to take place among Seventh-day Adventists, and that this reformation would consist in giving up the doctrines which stand as the pillars of our faith, and engaging in a process of reorganization. Were this reformation to take place, what would result? The principles of truth that God in His wisdom has given to the remnant church, would be discarded. Our religion would be changed. The fundamental principles that have sustained the work for the last fifty years would be accounted as error. A new organization would be established. Books of a new order would be written. A system of intellectual philosophy would be introduced. The founders of this system would go into the cities, and do a wonderful work. The Sabbath of course, would be lightly regarded, as also the God who created it. Nothing would be allowed to stand in the way of the new movement. The leaders would teach that virtue is better than vice, but God being removed, they would place their dependence on human power, which, without God, is worthless. Their foundation would be built on the sand, and storm and tempest would sweep away the structure. "Who has authority to begin such a movement?"

We have our Bibles. We have our experience, attested to by the miraculous working of the Holy Spirit. We have a truth that admits of no compromise. Shall we not repudiate everything that is not in harmony with this truth?" Selected Messages, book 1, 204-205.

Isa 28:15

Isa 28:15 - Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death - the scornful in their pride feel secure [we keep the Sabbath, we are vegan, we have our names on the church role in good standing] and have made a covenant with death and with hell so that they will not come their way. See Jer 7:3-14

Isa 28:15

Isa 28:15 - death and hell - the 4th Horse of the Apocalypse is described as a Pale horse whose rider is called Death and Hell follows (Rev 6:8; Eze 8:16). The era describes the papacy and its dead religion that would reign upon the earth for 1260 years. Those who make a covenant with death and hell will be those who receive the Mk of the Beast, making a covenant in thought and action with the works of this apostate power (Isa 36:16; See SDA Bible Commentary pg 929 for Mk of the Beast). Those who make a covenant with Spiritualism will be made stubble (Isa 47:10-15)

Isa 28:15

Isa 28:15 - overflowing scourge - that which overthrows the bulk of Adventism (the adulterous wife - Prov 6:20-26), the Sunday Law, an unrighteous decree. See Isa 8:6-8, 25:4; Ps 32:6

Isa 28:15

Isa 28:15 - we have made lies our refuge - those who make lies their refuge will receive a strong delusion from the LORD because they did not develop a love for the truth. See Jer 7:4, 8-10; 2Thess 2:10-12; Rev 22:15

Isa 28:15

Isa 28:15 - falsehood have hid ourselves - those that trust and lies and falsehoods (Isa 24:5, 6) are they who will be made as the stubble (Jer 13:24, 25); will be taken by the whirlwind of the papacy (Prov 1:24-28; Isa 40:24; Dan 11:40); and when they call out for God, He will not answer (close of probation).

Isa 28:16

Isa 28:16 - Jesus is the tried stone and sure foundation upon which God's salvation is built

Isa 28:16

Isa 28:16 - I lay in Zion for a foundation - See 1Cor 3:11||Gal 1:6-9; 1Pet 2:6-8; Mt 21:38-46; Lk 20:15-19; Act 4:11 In quoting the prophecy of the rejected stone, Christ referred to an actual occurrence in the history of Israel. The incident was connected with the building of the first temple. While it had a special application at the time of Christ's first advent, and should have appealed with special force to the Jews, it has also a lesson for us. When the temple of Solomon was erected, the immense stones for the walls and the foundation were entirely prepared at the quarry; after they were brought to the place of building, not an instrument was to be used upon them; the workmen had only to place them in position. For use in the foundation, one stone of unusual size and peculiar shape had been brought; but the workmen could find no place for it, and would not accept it. It was an annoyance to them as it lay unused in their way. Long it remained a rejected stone. But when the builders came to the laying of the corner, they searched for a long time to find a stone of sufficient size and strength, and of the proper shape, to take that particular place, and bear the great weight which would rest upon it. Should they make an unwise choice for this important place, the safety of the entire building would be endangered. They must find a stone capable of resisting the influence of the sun, of frost, and of tempest. Several stones had at different times been chosen, but under the pressure of immense weights they had crumbled to pieces. Others could not bear the test of the sudden atmospheric changes. But at last attention was called to the stone so long rejected. It had been exposed to the air, to sun and storm, without revealing the slightest crack. The builders examined this stone. It had borne every test but one. If it could bear the test of severe pressure, they decided to accept it for the cornerstone. The trial was made. The stone was accepted, brought to its assigned position, and found to be an exact fit. In prophetic vision, Isa was shown that this stone was a symbol of Christ. He says: - {DA 597.5} "Sanctify the Lord of hosts Himself; and let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread. And He shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offense to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken." Carried down in prophetic vision to the first advent, the prophet is shown that Christ is to bear trials and tests of which the treatment of the chief cornerstone in the temple of Solomon was symbolic. "Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste." Isa 8:13-15; 28:16. - {DA 598.1} In infinite wisdom, God chose the foundation stone, and laid it Himself. He called it "a sure foundation." The entire world may lay upon it their burdens and griefs; it can endure them all. With perfect safety they may build upon it. Christ is a "tried stone." Those who trust in Him, He never disappoints. He has borne every test. He has endured the pressure of Adam's guilt, and the guilt of his posterity, and has come off more than conqueror of the powers of evil. He has borne the burdens cast upon Him by every repenting sinner. In Christ the guilty heart has found relief. He is the sure foundation. All who make Him their dependence rest in perfect security. - {DA 598.2}

Isa 28:16 - stone- God has laid the foundation, a tried stone, the chief cornerstone, a sure foundation, upon which the righteous will build (Mt 21:42-44; Lk 7:47-49) but the wicked would reject (Ps 118:22, 23; Mt 21:42-44 1Pet 2:4-8). See Mic 5:2, 5; Zech 6:12, 13; Lk 20:17, 18

Isa 28:16

Isa 28:16 - he that believeth shall not make haste - God draws a contrast between those who supposedly have made a covenant with death during the day of the overflowing scourge and those who moored their anchor to the Rock 1. First through true confession and repentance for sin, who then receive Justification by faith 2. Secondly by accepting Christ's righteousness by faith These will be able to endure the overflowing scourge - this is the 3rd Angel's Message: Read Ps 32:1-6 compare Rev 14:10-12 Those who believe will rest in the Rock of their salvation, Jesus. Those who do not believe will not be established (Isa 7:9). Judgment and righteousness will prevail in the fruitful field turned forest God's righteousness will be seen in the sons of God and judgment will be established as God lays the plummet with His storehouse of hail. See Isa 32:16

Isa 28:16

Isa 28:16 - shall not make haste - shall not run away in shame, shall not be ashamed - See

Rom 5:5, 9:33, 10:11; Ps 119:6, 31:17, 34:5; Isa 52:12 chuwsh Verb koosh a primitive root a primitive root; to hurry; figuratively, to be eager with excitement or enjoyment:--(make) haste(-n), ready. to haste, make haste, hurry (Qal) to make haste (Hiphil) to show haste, act quickly, hasten, come quickly to enjoy, be excited

Isa 28:17

Isa 28:17 - God's Judgment and righteousness will be "true/just", aligned and plum. (See Isa 28:6) Man's righteousness and his works will not profit him in that day when the overflowing scourge comes, it will reveal one's true condition and wipe away the refuge of lies and overflow the hiding places. See Isa 57:12,13; Jer 8:7-12

Isa 28:17

Isa 28:17 - the overflowing armies as hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, overflow the hiding places of unrighteousness. The scourge will prove (try and test) all things, whether a person was true and could stand. See Job 22:16 "The Son of God was rejected by those whom He came to bless. He was taken by wicked hands and crucified. But after He had risen from the dead, He was with His disciples forty days, and in this time He gave them much precious instruction. He laid down to His followers the principles underlying the higher education. And when He was about to leave them and go to His Father, His last words to them were, 'I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.' "To many who place their children in our schools, strong temptations will come, because they desire them to secure what the world regards as the most essential education. Who knows what constitutes the most essential education, unless it is the education to be obtained from that Book which is the foundation of all true knowledge? Those who regard as essential the knowledge to be gained along the line of worldly education are making a great mistake, one which will cause them to be swayed by individual opinions that are human and erring. To those who feel that their children must have what the world calls the essential education, I would say, Bring your children to the simplicity of the word of God, and they will be safe. We are going to be greatly scattered before long, and what we do must be done quickly. {Fundamentals of Christian Education, 535-536}

Isa 28:17

Isa 28:7 - the waters shall overflow - See Eze 13:11

Isa 28:18

Isa 28:18 - And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand - See Lk 16:9

Isa 28:18

Isa 28:18 - overflowing scourge - See Nah 1:8

Isa 28:18

Isa 28:18 - ye shall be trodden down by it. - the overflowing flood will tread down the people once claiming to be of God. A prophetic reference to the destruction of Jerusalem by the Babylonians and ultimately the Rom; as well as a foreshadowing of the overthrow of the majority of the last day church that had not taken heed to the counsels of the True Witness. Dan 8:13, 9:26, Rev 3:15-20 Had not Jacob previously repented of his sin in obtaining the birthright by fraud, God could not have heard his prayer and mercifully preserved his life. So in the time of trouble, if the people of God had unconfessed sins to appear before them while tortured with fear and anguish, they would be overwhelmed; despair would cut off their faith, and they could not have confidence to plead with God for deliverance. But while they have a deep sense of their unworthiness, they will have no concealed wrongs to reveal. Their sins will have been blotted out by the atoning blood of Christ, and they cannot bring them to remembrance. - {PP 202.2} Satan leads many to believe that God will overlook their unfaithfulness in the minor affairs of life; but the Lord shows in His dealing with Jacob that He can in no wise sanction or tolerate evil. All who endeavor to excuse or conceal their sins, and permit them to remain upon the books of heaven, unconfessed and unforgiven, will be overcome by Satan. The more exalted their profession, and the more honorable the position which they hold, the more grievous is their course in the sight of God, and the more certain the triumph of the great adversary. - {PP 202.3}

Isa 28:19 - from the time that the "Sunday Law", the unrighteous decree goes forth, it shall take you (overthrow you, taken into the hand of the Papacy - See Dan 11:41)

Isa 28:19

Isa 28:20 - and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report - there is no peace for the wicked. Their sins unconfessed, and their hope placed in vanity, lacking Christ's robe of righteousness, these realities in the Time of Trouble will be a continual and overwhelming grievance to the wicked.

Isa 28:21

Isa 28:21 - Mt Perazim is the site where David decisively routed his enemies and destroyed all of their idols (2Sam 5:17-21). With global enforcement of the Sunday Law, the Lord will rise-up and shake terribly the earth, bringing justice upon the world in the 7-Last Plagues

Isa 28:21

Isa 28:21 - Gibeon was a great high place where Solomon performed sacrifices to the Lord (1Kin 3:4). Site of the struggle between the house of David and the house of Saul where men from both camps fell (2Sam 2:12-24)

Isa 28:21

Isa 28:21 - that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act - God is a God of life, creation, and great mercy. His strange act is embodied in the 7 last plagues (Rev 16) and the ultimate destruction of the wicked. God will weep over the destruction of His creation. See Ezekiel 33:11; Ex 34:6, 7; Nah 1:3; Ps 119:126; Isa 63:2-4; Rev 14:18-20; Hos 11:8; GC 171.2;

Isa 28:22

Isa 28:22 - be ye not mockers - See 2Pet 3:3-9; 2Tim 3:1-5

Isa 28:22

Isa 28:22 - A consumption (tuberculosis) a wasting disease that is brought upon a rebellious people (See Lev 26:13-16, Zech 14:12,). A global desolation is to befall the earth, bringing its destruction in the Last Plagues and the appearing of the Lord. See Isa 24:1-23; Rev 16:2

Isa 28:23

Isa 28:23 - in mercy, God through Isa is counseling the people to listen, hear and understand His strong warnings and rebukes. God does not desire to destroy the wicked but that they may all come to repentance and live (see Eze 33:11).

Isa 28:24

Isa 28:24 - Plowman - Mic the prophet prophesied that Jerusalem would be plowed (Mic 3:11, 12; Jer 26:18). Hirelings are looking for their own gain as opposed to the true (Good) shepherds who are interested in the lives of the sheep. Does the plowman plow all day- There is an appointed time for everything

Isa 28:25

Isa 28:25 - as all grains are not handled the same, not all persons are dealt with in the same manner, however, The Lord in His wisdom knows how best to deal with each individual with prudence and discretion.

Isa 28:27

Isa 28:27- fitches are beaten with a staff and cummin with a rod. The staff and rod were instruments of guidance and correction. The distinction in the method of separating the good grain from the chaff differs for each type of grain and the same applies to people. Some must receive light chastisement while others require more sever. The purpose is not to destroy but to remove the chaff and imperfections in character.

Isa 28:29

Isa 28:29 - This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working - See Isa 55:11

Isa 28:29

Isa 28:29 - wonderful in counsel - The Lord, the Faithful and True Witness is wonderful in counsel and in wisdom and knows what is best for all people. Why do we not seek Him for our every care and concern? Why do we not turn to the One Who tells us to seek Him and Who has all the answers we need. See Isa 9:6; Rev 3:14; Jer 33:3; Jam 1:5

Isa 28:29

Isa 28:29 - and excellent in working - not only is God wonderful in counsel, but He is excellent in working out His counsels for those who put their trust in Him. See Phil 1:6

Isa 29:1

Isa 29:1 - God pronounces woes upon Ariel (meaning the lion of God), Jerusalem, the city of David.

Isa 29:2

Isa 29:2 - God will distress Jerusalem with heaviness and sorrow, just as the beloved city, through its corruptions, distresses Him.

Isa 29:3

Isa 29:3 - God will appoint His hireling to lay siege to the city and a mound against it.

Isa 29:4

Isa 29:4 - brought down and shalt speak out of the ground - see Isa 51:23, 52:2

Isa 29:4

Isa 29:4 - One that hath a familiar spirit - A familiar spirit is one which comes to its victim in a familiar manner (a friend, relative, acquaintance) and lures them into the trap of perdition through deception and lying wonders. See Isa 8:19, 20

Isa 29:5

Isa 29:5 - terrible ones - the Babylonians, the desolators of Ariel (Jerusalem - Southern Kingdom) shall be as numerous as the chaff. See Isa 25:4 - (blast of the terrible ones); Eze 31:12, 32:12 - terrible of the nations (Babylon).

Isa 29:9

Isa 29:9 - drunken - the people have been made drunk (deceived) and stagger but not by strong drink but by drinking the false teachings of Babylon. They have no desire for the new wine spoken by God's prophet wherein is a blessing (2Chron 20:20). See Jer 13:13, 14; Lk 5:39 || Isa 65:8

Isa 29:10

Isa 29:10 - spirit of deep sleep - as the disciples and the 10 virgins in the parable who did not watch and pray, lest they enter into temptation, the LORD has given a spirit of deep sleep to the prophets/seers and rulers so that they can not see (covered). They are drunken (deceived) by the doctrine of men and men's vain philosophies. See Isa 6:9, 10, 29:13; Col 2:8; Mt 15:9

Isa 29:10

Isa 29:10 - hath closed your eyes - The LORD purposes to guide His people with His own eyes (Ps 32:8), but here, He has closed their eyes in blindness so that they grope in darkness. See Eze 12:2; 2Pet 1:4-9

Isa 29:10

Isa 29:10 - the prophets and your rulers - See Isa 9:14-16; Mk 7:1-5

Isa 29:11

Isa 29:11 - vision of all - the prophetic understanding and visions are as a sealed (closed) book because the people have placed their trust in man's wisdom as opposed to leaning upon the LORD for understanding! This is particularly significant for the last church, the Church of Laodicea, to whom God has given all of His oracles and has entrusted with a knowledge of the Testimonies of Jesus Christ, the Spirit of Prophecy.

Isa 29:11

Isa 29:11 - deliver to one that is learned - the educated, the theologians and scholars have always been lauded and unduly placed on a pedestal with honor. The LORD teaches that He will confound the wisdom of the wise by the simple who humbly seek the LORD and trust in His salvation. 1Cor 1:19, 20, 3:19-21; Jer 17:5, 6

Isa 29:11

Isa 29:11 - I cannot; for it is sealed - much of Christendom do not teach from the Rev because they believe it is a sealed book, despite its name, the unveiling. Similarly, much of Adventism is ignorant to the prophecies and the means of interpreting the Bible once delivered to the saints because of being asleep and drunkenness. They teach the precepts of men and therefore are not guided by the Holy Spirit in the ever increasing light of prophecy. See Isa 29:14; Prov 4:18; Dan 12:4

Isa 29:12

Isa 29:12 - not learned - the book is given to the laity and they claim they have never earned letters like the learned and can not understand. We in Adventism have adopted this philosophy that we must look to the scholars for Biblical interpretation and understanding where God has shown that He will teach wisdom to them who are weaned from the milk. See Isa 28:9-13; Heb 5:12-14 In the church, man power is gaining the ascendancy; those who have been chosen to occupy positions of trust think it their prerogative to rule. - {9T 270.1} Men whom the Lord calls to important positions in His work are to cultivate a humble dependence upon Him. They are not to seek to embrace too much authority; for God has not called them to a work of ruling, but to plan and counsel with their fellow laborers. Every worker alike is to hold himself amenable to the requirements and instructions of God. - {9T 270.2} All who believe the truth are to be united in faith and hope and patience and love. Then there will be strength. There is to be no one-man power set up in our work to rule God's heritage. We must now stand with a united front. Every element will be stirred to bring in confusion, teaching errors that will not stand. Read Second Corinthians; talk about it, make it plain. - {13MR 326.2}

Isa 29:13

Isa 29:13 - Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men - See Ezekiel 33:30-33

Isa 29:13

Isa 29:13 - their fear towards me is taught by the precept of men - we are led to understand how to worship and honor God based on men's teachings, doctrines, superstitions, traditions, fables, and pagan beliefs rather than the pure word of God. See Mt 9:14; 15:1-9, 22-28; 17:10-13; 19:23-26; 23:1-39; 24:1, 2; Joh 4:19-24, 7:25-29; 9:1, 2; Act 1:6; 1Pet 1:18,19

Isa 29:13

Isa 29:13 - precept of men - God desires to teach us line upon line, line upon line, precept upon precept from His Word. However, men have perverted wisdom by instructing others by their own precepts and doctrines. See Isa 28:9-13

Isa 29:14

Isa 29:14 - for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid - See 1Cor 1:19

Isa 29:14

Isa 29:14 - wisdom of their wise men shall perish - See Isa 28:16-18; 1Cor 1:27; Eze 7:26, 27

Isa 29:15

Isa 29:15 - hide their counsel from the LORD - They evil counsel spoken of is the idolatrous worship and hidden works of iniquity that must be exposed. See Eze 8:3-16; Eph 5:11; Isa 8:19-22, 5:19, 29:15; Job 22:13, 14; Ps 59:7

Isa 29:16

Isa 29:16 - surely your turning things upside down - See Isa 5:20; Ps 56:5; 2Pet 3:16, 17; Ex 23:2-6; Deut 16:19

Isa 29:18

Isa 29:18 - in that day - in the day of the Lord, He will turn right-side up that which has been turned upside-down and will correct the wrongs caused by sin and oppression.

Isa 29:19

Isa 29:19 - The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD - those who are promised the earth as their inheritance, will delight in the LORD in the day when they are lifted up as an ensign to the nations. See Mt 5:5; Zech 9:16; Ps 113:7, 8

Isa 30:1

Isa 30:1 - take counsel, but not of me - the rebellious children of Israel have sought the counsels of men rather than that of the Wonderful Counselor. See Isa 9:6

Isa 30:1

Isa 30:1 - cover of a covering, but not of my Spirit - those who attempt to cover their sins with their own righteousness and through false gods rather than the righteousness of Christ. See Phil 3:9; Isa 50:11; Job 9:20; 2Cor 10:12; Isa 30:22

Isa 30:2

Isa 30:2 - and have not asked at my mouth - the COI have placed their trust in men, in chariots and horses as opposed to trusting in the LORD (Jer 17:5-8). They have not inquired of the LORD but have sought strange counsel. See Isa 8:12-20, 45:22; Ps 145:18-20

Isa 30:2

Isa 30:2, 3 - trust in the shadow of Egypt - the wicked, rather than trusting in the shadow of the Almighty, put their trust in men. See Ps 91:1, 2; Jer 17:5-8; Isa 30:16

Isa 30:6

Isa 30:6 - burden of the beasts of the south - the COI were bearing their treasures and wealth to the Egyptians in hope of their help and deliverance from the King of the North, the Assyrian. However, in vain did they conduct their caravans of wealth southward because the Egyptians would be of no help against that mighty army.

Isa 30:7

Isa 30:7 - their strength is to sit still - See Ps 27:14, 46:10; Isa 30:15, 18; 40:31

Isa 30:8

Isa 30:8 - write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever - Isa was to document all that the Lord had spoken to him in a book for the COI to read. See Habakkuk 2:2

Isa 30:9

Isa 30:9-11 - There is a step-wise progression for those among Israel who reject the Law of God and the Spirit of Prophecy and will ultimately overcome by the King of the North, the Papacy: 1. Reject the Law of God 2. Reject the Spirit of Prophecy 3. Reject the Old Paths 4. Reject Jesus Adventists who claim to uphold the commandments but reject the writings of Sister White, begin at point 2 above.

Isa 30:10

Isa 30:10 - which say to the seers, see not; and to the prophets, prophesy not unto us right things - See Jer 11:21; Mic 2:6; Contrast 2Chron 20:20 The very last deception of Satan will be to make of none effect the testimony of the Spirit of God. "Where there is no vision, the people perish" (Prov 29:18). Satan will work ingeniously, in different ways and through different agencies, to unsettle the confidence of God's remnant people in the true testimony.—Selected Messages 1:48 (1890). - {LDE 177.5} "What reserve power has the Lord with which to reach those who have cast aside His warnings and reproofs, and have accredited the Testimonies of the Spirit of God to no higher source than human wisdom? In the judgment, what can you who have done this, offer to God as an excuse for turning from the evidences He has given you that God was in the work? 'By their fruits ye shall know them.' I would not now rehearse before you the evidences given in the past two years of the dealings of God by His chosen servants; but the present evidence of His working is revealed to you, and you are now under obligation to believe. You cannot neglect God's messages of warning, you cannot reject them or treat them lightly, but at the peril of infinite loss. - {LS 324.3}

Isa 30:10

Isa 30:10 - speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits: - See Mic 2:11

Isa 30:11

Isa 30:11 - get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path - See Jer 6:16; Joh 14:6

Isa 30:11

Isa 30:11 - cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us - the ultimate step in the downward path to perdition, starting with rejecting God's commandments, and then the words of His prophets, is to reject God Himself. The reproach of Joseph's brothers towards him foreshadows man's rejection of Jesus Christ. See Gen 37:27; Act 3:14

Isa 30:13

Isa 30:13 - a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly, at an instant - Those who have not built on the Rock, Christ Jesus, and have daubed their walls with untempered mortar (Eze 13:10-15, 22:28), will be overtaken in an instant by the overwhelming flood.

Isa 30:13

Isa 30:13 - whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant - See Isa 28:16, 18

Isa 30:15

Isa 30:15 - in returning and rest shall ye be saved - See Jer 6:16; Isa 32:17, 18

Isa 30:15

Isa 30:15 - in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength - See Isa 32:17

Isa 30:15

Isa 30:15 - and ye would not - God counsels Israel to return and find rest in Him but they "would not". See Jer 6:16; 17; John 5:39, 40

Isa 30:16

Isa 30:16 - we will flee upon horses - the horses here represent Egypt (Deut 17:16) or the world in the Last Days. The false hope that the wicked place their trust in is the covenant with death and the grave that will be overthrown. See Isa 30:2, 3

Isa 30:17

Isa 30:17 - rebuke of five shall ye flee - the foolish virgins, when reprov'd and told to go buy their own oil. See Mt 25:8, 9

Isa 30:18

Isa 30:18 - the LORD will wait - God waits [tarries] in order to be gracious and merciful to us. God wishes that none should perish but that all should come to repentance. See Mt 18:12-14; 1Tim 2:4; Eze 33:11, 18:23; Lk 5:17; Joh 3:16||Ps 1:5; Ps 37:27 God waited, while the Millerites waited during the Tarrying Time, after March 22, 1844. He also waits in the Most Holy Place, to remove any sins we confess and present to Him. 2Pet 3:9, 15; Isa 33:2; Lam 3:22; Mal 3:6 Probationary time will not continue much longer. Now God is withdrawing His restraining hand from the earth. Long has He been speaking to men and women through the agency of His Holy Spirit; but they have not heeded the call. Now He is speaking to His people, and to the world, by His judgments. The time of these judgments is a time of mercy for those who have not yet had opportunity to learn what is truth. Tenderly will the Lord look upon them. His heart of mercy is touched; His hand is still stretched out to save. Large numbers will be admitted to the fold of safety who in these last days will hear the truth for the first time.

Isa 30:18

Isa 30:18 - blessed are all they that wait on Him - See Isa 40:31; Mt 25:1-10 Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 415.5}

Isa 30:18

Isa 30:18 - wait for Him - place their hope in Him and endure the trying of their faith until He perfects those things which concern us - the patience (blessed hope) of the saints. See Rev 14:12; 13:10; Heb 10:35-39

Isa 30:19

Isa 30:19 - For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more - See Rev 21:4

Isa 30:20

Isa 30:20 - bread of adversity and water of affliction - See Eze 4:9-13; 2Kin 22:26, 27; Ps 80:5; Lam 3:32, 33

Isa 30:20

Isa 30:20 - water of affliction - See Jer 8:14; 23:15

Isa 30:20

Isa 30:20 - yet shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers: - the law and ordinances in the books of Moses , according to the apostle Paul, were our schoolmaster until faith come and we serve the LORD out of love. See Gal 3:19, 23-25

Isa 30:21

Isa 30:21 - this is the way, walk ye in it - God will direct His flock though He give them the bread of adversity and the water of affliction. See Jer 6:16, 17; Prov 4:18; Isa 58:12-14; Dan 9:25; Ps 119:35 Many think that they must consult commentaries on the Scriptures in order to understand the meaning of the word of God, and we would not take the position that commentaries should not be studied; but it will take much discernment to discover the truth of God under the mass of the words of men. How little has been done by the church as a body professing to believe the Bible, to gather up the scattered jewels of God's word into one perfect chain of truth! The jewels of truth do not lie upon the surface, as many suppose. The master mind in the confederacy of evil is ever at work to keep the truth out of sight, and to bring into full view the opinions of great men. The enemy is doing all in his power to obscure heaven's light through educational processes; for he does not mean that men shall hear the voice of the Lord, saying, "This is the way, walk ye in it." { FE 187.3}

Isa 30:22

Isa 30:22 - ye shall defile also the covering of thy grave images - We will cast aside the false gods and the vain hopes we place in them and embrace the Arm of the Lord. When we have put away our sins, then the LORD will send the rain (early/latter) rain in its season. See Isa 27:9

Isa 30:23

Isa 30:23 - then shall He give the rain of thy seed - See Ps 65:9-13. The rains come from a work of revival and reformation, repentance and conversion given by: 1. Crying out to the Lord in repentance for sin (v18, 19; Act 3:19) 2. We will recognize and acknowledge (see our teachers - bread of adversity, water of affliction) the judgments of God as just and fair because of our transgressions (v20; Lev 26:40-45; Dan 9:3-19) 3. We will listen and give heed to God's latter rain message "this is the way, walk ye in it" that brings rest and refreshing (v21; Jer 6:16, 17; Isa 28:9-13; Deut 32:1, 2) 4. We will break down every idle, cast out every foe in order to be made whiter than snow (v22; Isa 1:18; 27:5; Eze 36:24-28)

Isa 30:24

Isa 30:24 - clean provender - wheat that has been winnowed where the husk and the chaff are removed.

Isa 30:24

Isa 30:24 - winnowed with the shovel and with the fan - the winnowing fan is used to separate the wheat from the chaff (Mt 3:12). In other words the winnowing fan in the hand of Christ (the Dirt Brush Man) will purify/purge His people. The winnowing fan is a message used to purify God's people during the time of the latter rain (Jer 15:5-7).

Isa 30:25

Isa 30:25 - Rivers and streams of water on every high mountain and on every high hill are the result of the rains. It is this time that the towers fall

Isa 30:26

Isa 30:26 - Light of the moon as the light of the sun, light of the sun shall be sevenfold - In the day of the Latter Rain when the rivers and streams of water flow and the slaughter with the collapsing towers occur, the knowledge of God's Word, Old and New Testaments will be greatly increased!

Isa 30:26

Isa 30:26 - bindeth up the breach of His people - The breach is in the Laodicean church that has turned from the Old Paths and sought the wisdom and support of Egypt (Isa 30:2). God will raise up those who will be restorers of the breach and of the Paths to dwell in (Isa 58:10-12).

Isa 30:33

Isa 30:33 - Tophet is ordained of old - Hell fire is prepared for the devil and his angels. See Mt 25:41; Ju 1:6, 7

Isa 30:33

Isa 30:33 - for the king is it prepared - Tophet, the place of burning is prepared for the king of the north and the dragon, Satan.

Isa 31:1

Isa 31:1 - Woe to them that go down to Egypt for help - Woes are pronounced upon the COI who placed their hope in men, in chariots and in the multitude of horses against their foes the Assyrians, rather than in the strength of the LORD. Similarly, woes were pronounced for those who forsook the calm streams of Shiloh for the Assyrian armies to war against Ephraim and Syria in the time of Ahaz. Lastly, we must not put our trust in government, armies, and military might but place our trust in the Almighty God. Isa 7:9, 8:6, 7; Jer 17:5-8; Ps 33:16, 17; Mic 5:10; Deut 17:16

Isa 31:4

Isa 31:4 - lion and young lion - the imagery, though referring to God is used in other instances to refer to the Assyrians and Babylonians respectively.

Isa 31:8

Isa 31:8 - but he shall flee from the sword - the "sword" here spoken refers to the judgment of the Lord or the Lord Himself upon the Assyrian.

Isa 31:9

Isa 31:9 - princes shall be afraid of the ensign - the rulers in Assyria (military leaders) will be fearful as they see the standard of the LORD which battles for Jerusalem.

Isa 31:9

Isa 31:9 - whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem - The fire of the Lord would figuratively consume the Assyrian armies, however, the fire of the Lord will literally consume the enemies of Israel in the Lake of Fire after the Millennium. See Rev 14:9-11; 20:14, 15.

Isa 32:1

Isa 32:1 - Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment - CONTRAST Ps 12:8

Isa 32:1

Isa 32:1 - a King shall reign in righteousness - Jesus! - See Rev 1:5; Jer 23:5, 6

Isa 32:1

Isa 32:1 - princes shall rule in judgment - rulers (the redeemed) shall rule in judgment during the Millennium. Mt 19:28; 1Cor 6:3; Rev 20:4

Isa 32:2

Isa 32:2 - a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest - Jesus is a shelter in the time of storm. Jesus will keep us when the winds of strife are released upon the earth. See Rev 7:1-4; Ps 91:1; 27:5; See Hymn #528

Isa 32:2

Isa 32:2 - as rivers of water in a dry place - Jesus will be a rivers of living water, springing up unto eternal life to those who place their trust in Him. See John 7:37, 38; Isa 33:15-17

Isa 32:2

Isa 32:2 - a great rock in a weary land - Jesus is our Shelter in a time of storm. See Ps 63:1

Isa 32:3

Isa 32:3-8 - eyes of them that see shall not see dimly - Jesus will reign in righteousness and will set all things strait. The wicked will be called so and not honored as great, the meek and humble will be exalted and the wrongs righted. Those who see will have had eye salve applied to their eyes so that they may see thing in righteousness - See Rev 3:18

Isa 32:3

Isa 32:4 - and the ears of them that hear shall hearken - those with ears to hear will hearken to that which the Spirit says. See Rev 3:22; 1Cor 10:6, 11; Rev 13:9; Mt 13:9-15; Joh 18:37, 3:31, 32

Isa 32:4

Isa 32:4 - and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly - See Isa 28:11

Isa 32:5

Isa 32:5 - The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful - God will make all things right. The wicked will no more be honored and exalted because a Righteous King and Ruler will reign. See Ps 12:8; Isa 32:1

Isa 32:5

Isa 32:5 - liberal - LIBERAL, a. [L. liberalis, from liber, free. See Libel.] 1. Of a free heart; free to give or bestow; not close or contracted; munificent; bountiful; generous; giving largely; as a liberal donor; the liberal founders of a college or hospital. It expresses less than profuse or extravagant. 2. Generous; ample; large; as a liberal donation; a liberal allowance. 3. Not selfish,

Isa 32:5

Isa 32:5 - churn - kiylay Noun Masculine kee-lah'-ee from (03557) in the sense of withholding or kelay {kay-lah'-ee}; from in the sense of withholding; niggardly:--churl. scoundrel, knave

Isa 32:6

Isa 32:6 - For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail - See Ps 12:8

Isa 32:6

Isa 32:6 - vile - Base; mean; worthless; despicable.

Isa 32:8

Isa 32:8 - But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand - the liberal gives and it shall be given back to him liberally. See Isa 32:20; Eccl 11:1; Lk 6:38; Ps 37:25; 2Cor 9:7

Isa 32:8

Isa 32:8 - liberal - Of a free heart; free to give or bestow; not close or contracted; munificent; bountiful; generous; giving largely; as a liberal donor; the liberal founders of a college or hospital. It expresses less than profuse or extravagant. 2. Generous; ample; large; as a liberal donation; a liberal allowance.

Isa 32:9

Isa 32:9 - Rise up ye women that are at ease - a message to the Laodicean church that is increased with goods and has need of nothing. A warning of impending doom is being given.

Isa 32:10

Isa 32:10 - many days and years shall be troubled... for the vintage will not come - the era of the Laodicean church is a troubled time with little to no vintage. The women have been at ease and letting the world's harvest pass by. That which will stir the women is a message of impending destruction and for those who will be accounted among the righteous in Laodicea, the promise of the Latter Rain.

Isa 32:10

Isa 32:10 - the gathering shall not come - the harvest is few unlike the time of Christ when it was plentiful.

Isa 32:12

Isa 32:13 - for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine - See Hos 13:13

Isa 32:13

Isa 32:13 - upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briars - the land shall be filled with the scornful, unconsecrated, unbelieving, deceitful, rebellious, [false prophets/teachers among Adventism]. See Isa 5:6; 7:23, 24; 27:4, 5; 33:14; Eze 2:6; Heb 6:8

Isa 32:13

Isa 32:13 - houses of joy in the joyous city - the mirthful houses of pleasure and carousing that should be houses of prayer in the most solemn time of earth's history, the Antitypical Day of Atonement. See Isa 22:2

Isa 32:14

Isa 32:14 - forts and towers shall be for dens forever, a joy of wild asses - the tumbling towers on 9/11/2001 were the rejoicing of radical Islam.

Isa 32:15

Isa 32:15 - until the spirit be poured upon us on high - the coming of the Early and Latter Rains will make the barren wilderness into a fruitful field. See Isa 27:6, 8; Joel 2:15-29

Isa 32:15

Isa 32:15 - and the wilderness be a fruitful field - The wilderness speaks of our unconverted condition, being dead in trespasses and sins. It is only through the baptism of the Holy Spirit, bringing the early rains, that a fruitful field is produced, bearing fruit of righteousness for all to partake. See Eph 2:1-8; John 15:1-5; Gal 5:22, 23

Isa 32:15

Isa 32:15 - and the fruitful field be counted for a forest - the Spiritual growth in Christ, produced through surrender and permitting Jesus to purge us of our (flesh) life of sin, fill us entirely with His Holy Spirit so that He may pour out the Latter Rains upon us, transforming the fruitful field into a forest, Trees of Righteousness (Isa 61:3) . A forest canopy is a good protection from the hail that will fall during the Time of Trouble - Job 38:22, 23; Ps 1:3

Isa 32:16

Isa 32:16 - Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field - this verse appears to present the contrast of those who remain as a wilderness verses those who permit Christ, through the power of the Holy Spirit Early Rains, to transform them into a fruitful field. Those who remain a wilderness will remain under the judgment/condemnation of the law, whereas the righteous that are as a fruitful field, will enjoy peace, quietness and assurance for ever.

Isa 32:16

Isa 32:16 - judgment and righteousness will prevail - in the fruitful field turned forest God's righteousness will be seen in the sons of God and judgment will be established (upon the wicked) as God lays the plummet with His storehouse of hail (Job 38:22). See Isa 28:16-19; Jer 9:23, 24; Mal 3:5

Isa 32:16

Isa 32:16 - righteousness remain in the fruitful field - the righteous experience blessings of peace, quietness and assurance for ever more! See Isa 32:17

Isa 32:17

Isa 32:17 - And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever - See Mt 27:12-14; Rom 8:6, 10:3, 4; 2Pet 1:1, 2
Righteousness by faith! Those who arose when Jesus did, kept their eyes fixed on Him as He left the throne and led them out a little way. Then He raised His right arm, and we heard His lovely voice saying, "Wait here; I am going to My Father to receive the kingdom; keep your garments spotless, and in a little while I will return from the wedding and receive you to Myself." Then a cloudy chariot, with wheels like flaming fire, surrounded by angels, came to where Jesus was. He stepped into the chariot and was borne to the holiest, where the Father sat. There I beheld Jesus, a great High Priest, standing before the Father. On the hem of His garment was a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate. Those who rose up with Jesus would send up their faith to Him in the holiest, and pray, "My Father, give us Thy Spirit." Then Jesus would breathe upon them the Holy Ghost. In that breath was light, power, and much love, joy, and peace [ISAIAH 32:17 - Rom 10:3]. - {EW 55.1}

Isa 32:17

Isa 32:17 - work of righteousness shall be peace, effect of righteousness will be quietness and assurance for ever - those who have learned to put their trust in the Lord through self-surrender, diligent study (line upon line, precept upon precept), committing to memory His works and trusting in His finished works and promises shall be established. They not only experience perfect peace, but their lives are characterized by peace, quietness and assurance. Rom 8:1, 2, 15, 16; Isa 9:7, 28:12, 16; 7:9; 2Chron 20:20; James 3:17, 18; Prov 1:33; Contrast Isa 57:21 Those who abide in Jesus become beacons of light, dispelling light and bringing peace to others -

Isa 32:17

Isa 32:17 - work of righteousness - the work of righteousness we are commanded to do is to believe, and rest in Jesus Christ. See John 6:27-29; Mt 11:28, 15:1-5; Heb 12:11

Isa 32:17

Isa 32:17 - peace - God's peace enables us to: Mk 4:39 - smiles at the storms of life Ps 119:165 - finds no offense at insults Philippians 4:6, 7 - has fortified minds in Christ Jesus

Isa 32:17

Isa 32:17 - assurance - Firm persuasion; full confidence or trust; freedom from doubt; certain expectation; the utmost certainty - See Ps 51:12; Heb 10:35-39, 6:10; Isa 32:18; 1Jo 3:19, 24||1Jo 4:17; Hymn #462 - Blessed Assurance Faith and Feeling Distinct—Faith and feeling are as distinct as the east is from the west. Faith is not dependent on feeling. We must earnestly cry to God in faith, feeling or no feeling, and then live our prayers. Our assurance and evidence is God’s word, and after we have asked we must believe without doubting. I praise Thee, O God, I praise Thee. Thou hast not failed me in the performance of Thy word. Thou has revealed Thyself unto me, and I am Thine to do Thy will (Letter 7, 1892). - {6BC 1073.10}

Isa 32:18

Isa 32:18, 19 - My people - God's people are promised a peaceable habitation, a sure dwelling and quiet resting place when it shall hail as part of the overflowing scourge. Isa 28:12, 16; Ps 91:1-16; Job 38:22, 23

Isa 32:19

Isa 32:19 - When it shall hail, coming down on the forest; and the city shall be low in a low place - the canopy of a forest provides shelter from the hail, whereas, a city lacking trees will receive the brunt of the hail. See Job 38:22, 23

Isa 32:19

Isa 32:19 - coming down on the forest - See Isa 32:15

Isa 33:15 - He that walketh righteously - See Ps 1:1-3, 7:8, 41:1, 2; Gen 5:22, 24; Jer 11:20; Isa 4:4-6 Enoch continued to grow more heavenly while communing with God. His face was radiant with a holy light which would remain upon his countenance while instructing those who would hear his words of wisdom. His heavenly and dignified appearance struck the people with awe. The Lord loved Enoch because he steadfastly followed him, and abhorred iniquity, and earnestly sought heavenly knowledge that he might do his will perfectly. He yearned to unite himself still more closely to God, whom he feared, revered, and adored. God would not permit Enoch to die as other men, but sent his angels to take him to Heaven without seeing death. In the presence of the righteous and the wicked, Enoch was removed from them. Those who loved him thought that God might have left him in some of his places of retirement; but after seeking him diligently, and being unable to find him, reported that he was not, for God took him. - {3SG 57.1}

Isa 33:17 - his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks - See Ps 27:5, 37:39

Isa 33:16

Isa 33:16 - munitions of rock - the stronghold for the righteous will be Christ, the true Rock of our Salvation. However, the term may also suggest that the righteous at the end of time, like the woman during the Dark Ages, will flee to the wilderness (the mountains) where God had prepared a place of refuge for her. See Ps 94:21, 22, 121:1; 27:5, 91:14 As the decree issued by the various rulers of Christendom against commandment keepers shall withdraw the protection of government and abandon them to those who desire their destruction, the people of God will flee from the cities and villages and associate together in companies, dwelling in the most desolate and solitary places. Many will find refuge in the strongholds of the mountains. Like the Christians of the Piedmont valleys, they will make the high places of the earth their sanctuaries and will thank God for "the munitions of rocks." Isa 33:16. But many of all nations and of all classes, high and low, rich and poor, black and white, will be cast into the most unjust and cruel bondage. The beloved of God pass weary days, bound in chains, shut in by prison bars, sentenced to be slain, some apparently left to die of starvation in dark and loathsome dungeons. No human ear is open to hear their moans; no human hand is ready to lend them help. - {GC 626.1}

Isa 36:7 - We trust in the LORD our God - the Rabshakeh scorns Israel who have in many instances have turned their back on God. He taunts them in saying is it the God for whom Hezekiah has removed His alters that you put your trust in? A partial fulfillment of the prophecy given by Moses that the enemies of Israel will lament of their rebellion towards God and His allowing them to be taken captive (Deut 29:24, 25). Rabshakeh is an interesting enemy, perhaps of Hebrew heritage in that he speaks their language, knows their laws, speaks of their God as his God (v10-15), and understands the covenant they were to have with God.

Isa 36:16 - come out to me - Jesus warns His disciples in the last day of the signs and lying wonders of the false christs. He then warns "Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold he is in the desert; go not forth: behold he is in the secret chambers; believe it not." Mt 24:24-27

Isa 36:16 - eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree and drink ye everyone of his own waters - The Ecumenical message is going out that we can keep our own doctrine, beliefs, etc. only make an agreement with him by a present. See Isa 4:1

Isa 36:17

Isa 36:17 - Until I come and take you away - See Dan 11:44

Isa 36:18

Isa 36:18-20 - Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered - The Rabshakeh in this statement placed himself and the King of Assyria at direct odds against the God of the COI. Indeed, Israel had been a rebellious people and deserving of punishment, but for Rabshakeh to deny the power of the True and Living God was an unpardonable affront by this heathen. See Isa 37:4; Hab 1:11; Deut 32:27; Joe 2:17; Jer 50:9-14

Isa 36:20

Isa 36:20 - that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? - The boast of the King of Assyria against the Great and Magnificent God of heaven and earth is checked in the book of Nah, chronicling the utter destruction of Nineveh, the capital of this once mighty empire. See also Isa 37:21-38

Isa 37:2

Isa 37:2 - he sent... unto Isa the prophet - Hezekiah, unlike his forefathers had sufficient wisdom to go and inquire of the Lord through His prophet. His father Ahaz when faced with the threat of the impending armies of the Northern Kingdom and Syria, sought help from Egypt while the Lord sent the prophet Isa to him. See Isa 7:3; Prov 3:5, 6

Isa 37:3

Isa 37:3 - day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy - the day of the Sunday Law will be a day of trouble for the Adventist flock as the little time of trouble commences. The rebuke upon them will be for their keeping the commandments of God and having the testimony of Jesus Christ. The blasphemous Sunday Law will be the fiery trial that all must endure. See 1Pet 4:12-19

Isa 37:4

Isa 37:4 - wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left - the petition is to pray for those who are among the remnant that their faith fail not.

Isa 37:6

Isa 37:6 - be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard - See Jer 42:11

Isa 37:16

Isa 37:16 - dwellest between the cherubim - See Eze 28:14

Isa 37:19

Isa 37:19 - work of men's hands, wood an stone - See Hab 2:18-20

Isa 37:24

Isa 37:24 - by thy servants have thou reproached the LORD - See Isa 36:13-22, 37:9-13

Isa 37:30

Isa 37:30 - this shall be a sign unto thee - the loving and merciful God, who is well acquainted with our frailties, gives assurance to His people of His plans to prosper and protect them.

Isa 38:5

Isa 38:5 - behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years - Consider God's resurrection of Dorcas in the New Testament: The apostle's heart was touched with sympathy as he beheld their sorrow. Then, directing that the weeping friends be sent from the room, he knelt down and prayed fervently to God to restore Dorcas to life and health. Turning to the body, he said, "Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up." Dorcas had been of great service to the church, and God saw fit to bring her back from the land of the enemy, that her skill and energy might still be a blessing to others, and also that by this manifestation of His power the cause of Christ might be strengthened. - {AA 132.1}

Isa 38:15

Isa 38:15 - What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul - See 2Sam 12:9-20

Isa 38:17

Isa 38:17 - Behold, for peace I had great bitterness: but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption - Instead of peace, I had great bitterness, but God in mercy showed grace to me and loved my soul to salvation. See Ps 86:13; Eph 2:4, 5, 8, 9

Isa 38:17

Isa 38:17 - for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back - See Ps 51:9, 103:12; Isa 43:25; Mic 7:19

Isa 38:18

Isa 38:18 - For the grave cannot praise thee, death can not celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth - See Eccl 9:5, 6

Isa 39:3

Isa 39:3 - they are come from a far country... even from Babylon - The fact that Hezekiah perceived Babylon to be a far country, he did not consider any danger in revealing all that he had. In pride he felt that his wealth and renown would be talked about around the world as was that of King Solomon.

Isa 39:4

Isa 39:4 - All that is in mine house have they seen - Hezekiah should have heeded the counsel of the Lord: Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you. Mt 7:6

Isa 39:7

Isa 39:7 - And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. - See 2Kin 20:18; Dan 1:1-3

Isa 39:8

Isa 39:8 - For there shall be peace and truth in my days - the response of Hezekiah appears callous given the fate of his posterity for his selfishness. Further, there appears little remorse for the missed opportunity to bless the world with the knowledge of the true God. A stark lesson for all to follow to heed.

Isa 40:1

Isa 40:1 - Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God - God is speaking words of comfort and solace to His people, the Israel [victors with God and man] of God. These words of comfort were spoken to the advent believers when struck with disappointment. See Mal 4:2; Rev 10:10, 11; Zech 1:11-13; Isa 49:13

Isa 40:2

Isa 40:2 - speaking of New Jerusalem or the sanctuary, that her sins have been pardoned.

Isa 40:2

Isa 40:2 - cry unto her - speak this message unto her

Isa 40:2

Isa 40:2 - her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned - the fruit of repentance is peace and pardon. This is the humbling experience of the Advent Pioneers who "fought" against great opposition to their message, and work. God had found them faithful and separated them by a closed door from those who rejected the truth. The same will be true among Laodicea as the humbly accept the reproof of the Faithful and True Witness and repent before the closed door of probation. See Isa 51:22, 23, 57:16-18, 32:17; Jer 15:18, 19; 2Cor 7:10, 11; Zech 1:11-13

Isa 40:2

Isa 40:2 - received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins - For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required - See Lk 12:48; Isa 57:16-18; Ezek 36:1-38; Jer 17:18

Isa 40:3

Isa 40:3-5 - The voice of him cryeth in the wilderness - A reference to Joh the Baptist, the forerunner of Christ who was commissioned to hail the first coming of the Lord. God's remnant will also be those who have taken up country living and will be crying in the wilderness before the great and dreadful day of the Lord. See Mal 3:1, 4:5, 6; Lk 3:3-18; Mt 3:1-12; Joh 1:23; Isa 58:1-3

Isa 40:3

Isa 40:3 - Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God - We, the sons of God, are to be as Joh the Baptist (Mal 4:5, 6), whose lifestyle, works, and ministry prepared the way, made straight the way for others to see Jesus and for Him to enter their hearts.

Isa 40:4

Isa 40:4 - the crooked shall be made straight - God will prepare a highway for His Anointed, to Jesus. See Isa 45:2

Isa 40:5

Isa 40:5 - And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it - See Ps 46:10; Rev 18:1, 2; Isa 11:10; Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 4:15.5}

Isa 40:5

Isa 40:5 - for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it - See Num 23:19

Isa 40:6

Isa 40:6 - All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field: - See Mt 6:30

Isa 40:7

Isa 40:7 - The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass - See Job 14:2; Isa 28:1; Ps 103:15, 16

Isa 40:8

Isa 40:8 - The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever. - See Ps 12:6, 7; 1Pet 1:23, 25; Mk 13:31; Heb 1:10-12

Isa 40:9

Isa 40:9 - O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God! - See Isa 57:19, 52:7

Isa 40:9

Isa 40:9 - Behold your God - Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 415.5} The light of the Sun of Righteousness is to shine forth in good works—in words of truth and deeds of holiness. - {COL 416.1}. See 2Pet 1:1-5; 1Jo 4:1-3; Col 1:26-29

Isa 40:10

Isa 40:10 - Behold, the Lord GOD will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him - the arm that was made bare (rolled up His sleeves) will in time rule over heaven and earth. See Isa 52:10

Isa 40:10

Isa 40:10 - his reward is with him and his works before him = Jesus comes bearing the reward for both the righteous and the wicked. He has finished His work of redemption in the outer court of the sanctuary; He has finished His ministration of grace in the Inner Court (Holy Place) for 1810years; and He has finished His last works of Intercession in the Most Holy Place as High Priest and Mediator. Once done, Jesus will dawn His Kingly apparel and garments of Vengeance to be an exalted, glorified and loving King to the righteous but a destroying ruler with a rod of iron to the wicked. See Rev 22:12; Isa 62:11

Isa 40:10

Isa 40:10 - and his work before him - Jesus comes, having finished His work before Him: 1. Work of Redemption and reconciliation 2. Work of Justification 3. Work of Sanctification 4. Work of Judgment 5. Work of Glorification

Isa 40:11

Isa 40:11 - He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young - See Ex 15:13; Lk 15:5, 6

Isa 40:13

Isa 40:13 - Who hath directed the Spirit of the LORD, or being his counsellor hath taught him? - See 1Cor 2:10-12; Rom 11:33, 34

Isa 40:14

Isa 40:14 - With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding? - See Prov 8:12-31

Isa 40:17

Isa 40:17 - All nations before him are as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity - Christ for our sakes became poor, that we through His poverty might be made rich. And any works that man can render to God will be far less than nothingness. My requests are made acceptable only because they are laid upon Christ's righteousness. The idea of doing anything to merit the grace of pardon is fallacy from beginning to end. "Lord, in my hand no price I bring, simply to Thy cross I cling." - {1888 816.2}

Isa 40:18

Isa 40:18 - To whom then will ye liken God? - See Isa 40:25, 28, 46:9

Isa 40:22

Isa 40:22 - It is He that sitteth upon the circle of the earth - Long before scientists could prove the earth to be round, the Bible declared it to be. See Job 28:25; Col 1:17

Isa 40:22

Isa 40:22 - that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in: - See Rev 6:14

Isa 40:25

Isa 40:25 - To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One - See Isa 40:18, 28, 46:5, 8

Isa 40:25

Isa 40:25 - saith the Holy One - See Rev 15:4

Isa 40:26

Isa 40:26 - Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth - God calls all the stars and planets by name, he knows every animal of every heard, he knows every fish in the sea and he knows and loves every man with an undying love. See Mt 10:30; Ps 139

Isa 40:26

Isa 40:26 - he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth - God not only knows how many stars there are, He calls them all by name. How much more valuable is one of His little ones, created in His image to give Him glory? See Mt 10:30; Lk 12:7, 15:3; Isa 40:8

Isa 40:26

Isa 40:26 - not one faileth - Jesus, Who created all things and by the power of His Word sustains all things, keeps the stars burning. See Col 1:17; Isa 40:8

Isa 40:27

Isa 40:27 - Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the LORD, and my judgment is passed over from my God? - Israel laments as if it has been passed over by the Lord, that He has overlooked them and will not deal justly with their plight.

Isa 40:28

Isa 40:28 - Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary - See Ps 121:3, 4

Isa 40:28

Isa 40:28 - the everlasting God, the LORD - See Ps 90:2; Mic 5:2

Isa 40:28

Isa 40:28 - there is no searching of his understanding - See Ps 139

Isa 40:29

Isa 40:29 - He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength - through the Holy Spirit, the Lord will make the weak strong, the poor rich and the forsaken glorified. See John 1:12, 13

Isa 40:30

Isa 40:30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: - See 1Jo 2:14

Isa 40:31

Isa 40:31 - But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint - there will be no boredom in heaven because there is fullness of joys forevermore. See Ps 27:14, 16:11, 37:9

Isa 40:31

Isa 40:31 - wait - qavah Verb kaw-vaw' a primitive root a primitive root; to bind together (perhaps by twisting), i.e. collect; (figuratively) to expect--gather (together), look, patiently, tarry, wait (for, on, upon). to wait, look for, hope, expect (Qal) waiting (participle) (Piel) to wait or look eagerly for to lie in wait for to wait for, linger for to collect, bind together (Niphal) to be collected We are to bind ourselves as in a plait, together with the Lord and hold fast while the Lord works out our situation.

Isa 40:31

Isa 40:31 - they shall mount up with wings as eagles - the eagle will soar and catch its falling eaglette before it hits the ground. God airlifted Israel as upon eagles wings and so the Lord will do for those who wait upon Him. See Ps 103:5

Isa 40:31

Isa 40:31 - and not faint - See Isa 40:29

Isa 41:2

Isa 41:2 - righteous man from the east - the Lord here refers to Cyrus the Persian, who himself is a type of Christ. He is later said to be the one from the north who comes from the rising sun (east). See Isa 41:25; Rev 16:12

Isa 41:4

Isa 41:4 - I the LORD, the first, and with the last; I am he - See Rev 1:8

Isa 41:8

Isa 41:8 - Abraham my friend - See Gen 15:17; 2Chron 20:7; Jam 2:23; Num 12:6-8

Isa 41:10

Isa 41:10 - Fear thou not - See Ps 46:1; Phil 4:6

Isa 41:10

Isa 41:10 - for I am with thee - See Ps 23; Mt 28:20

Isa 41:10

Isa 41:10 - the boast of the righteous is not in his wealth, wisdom or strength but that He knows God and that God knows him. See Eze 36:28; Jer 9:23, 24

Isa 41:10

Isa 41:10 - yea, I will help thee - Ps 46:1

Isa 41:10

Isa 41:10 - I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness - See Ps 48:10; Ps 51:12, 54:1; 119:116, 117; Isa 41:13; 42:6

Isa 41:11

Isa 41:11 - all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish - See Ps 120:6, 7, 83:1-18; Isa 49:25

Isa 41:13

Isa 41:13 - I will hold thy right hand - See Ps 16:8; 62:2, 6, 139:10

Isa 41:15

Isa 41:15 - thresh the mountains... make the hills as chaff - the kingdoms of the earth (mountains/hills) that war against God and His people shall be made as the chaff of the summer threshing floor before the LORD - See Dan 2:35; Num 23:24

Isa 41:16

Isa 41:16 - Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel - Ps 1:4; Dan 2:35

Isa 41:17

Isa 41:17 - When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them - See Isa 33:15, 16; Hab 3:17, 18

Isa 41:18

Isa 41:18 - I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water - See Num 20:10, 11; 1Cor 10:4

Isa 41:21

Isa 41:21, 22 - God calls for the idols and those who have created them to give cause. After God does a miraculous work of deliverance, man ascribes the victory to their gods, the works of their hands (v6, 7). God challenges the idol to reveal the past, the present and the future to see if they are truly gods.

Isa 41:25

Isa 41:25 - one from the north, and he shall come from the rising sun - a reference again to Cyrus who is a type of Christ. See Isa 41:2, 44:28

Isa 41:27

Isa 41:26-28 - one that bringeth good tidings - Those that bring the gospel message and the message of warning to prepare the earth for the coming of the Lord are they that bring good tidings. This message brings hope for the hopeless, assurance for the meek and joy to those who sorrow whereas it is troublesome to those who love this world and love not the appearing of the Lord. See Isa 40:9; Dan 11:44; Mt 2:1-2; Lk 2:9, 10

Isa 41:28

Isa 41:28 - for I beheld and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counsellor - See Isa 59:16

Isa 41:28

Isa 41:28 - no counsellor - Jesus is mankind's Wonderful Counsellor. If we lack wisdom we are to seek His counsel - See Isa 9:6; Jam 1:5

Isa 42:1

Isa 42:1 - whom I uphold - See Isa 42:6

Isa 42:1

Isa 42:1 - mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth - See Ps 89:19; Mt 3:15-17; Eph 1:5, 6; 1Pet 2:6

Isa 42:1

Isa 42:1 - I have put my spirit upon him - See Isa 61:1-3; Lk 4:18

Isa 42:1

Isa 42:1 - he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles - He shall draw the Gentiles to Himself in love and in judgment [revealing truth to them that they may repent, be converted and baptized of the water and Spirit]. See Isa 42:3

Isa 42:2

Isa 42:2, 3 - he shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause His voice to be heard in the street - See Isa 53:3, 7; In His life no self-assertion was to be mingled. The homage which the world gives to position, to wealth, and to talent, was to be foreign to the Son of God. None of the means that men employ to win allegiance or to command homage, was the Messiah to use. His utter renunciation of self was foreshadowed in the words: - {PK 692.6} In marked contrast to the teachers of His day was the Saviour to conduct Himself among men. In His life no noisy disputation, no ostentatious worship, no act to gain applause, was ever to be witnessed. The Messiah was to be hid in God, and God was to be revealed in the character of His Son. {PK 693.2}

Isa 42:3 - A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench - speaking of the gentleness of the Savior, Jesus did everything with tact, kindness and gentleness. Never a harsh word was spoken or a look of censure given by the Master.

Isa 42:3

Isa 42:3 - he shall bring forth judgment unto truth - Jesus, Who is full of grace and truth (John 1:14), through judgement, causes those who seek Him to draw close to Him, to come to Him and in repentance they find healing and truth. See Isa 42:1, 59:1-20; John 7:24

Isa 42:4

Isa 42:4 - He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth - Jesus will make right all the wrongs in the earth. He is not discouraged by what appears to be an ever increasing rise of lawlessness for where sin does abound, His grace does much more abound (Rom 5:20). He will recompense evil by His righteous judgment. See Prov 20:22; 2Thess 1:6; Heb 10:30 Could Satan have induced Christ to yield to a single temptation, could he have led Him by one act or even thought to stain His perfect purity, the prince of darkness would have triumphed over man's Surety and would have gained the whole human family to himself. But while Satan could distress, he could not contaminate. He could cause agony, but not defilement. He made the life of Christ one long scene of conflict and trial, yet with every attack he was losing his hold upon humanity. - {PK 701.2}

Isa 42:4

Isa 42:4 - and the isles shall wait for his law - Jesus is the Great Law Giver - Gen 49:8-10

Isa 42:5

Isa 42:5 - Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein: - See Ps 24:1, 2, 33:6-9; Rev 10:6; Neh 9:6

Isa 42:6

Isa 42:6 - I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles - Jesus perfectly fulfills this verse, but it also applies to those who are chosen, called, submissive to God and faithful (Rev 17:14). We are called in, and unto, Christ's righteousness by the LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. He upholds us with His righteous right hand (Isa 41:10) and has appointed us to minister to all men.

Isa 42:6

Isa 42:6 - and will hold thine hand - God will hold us in righteousness See Ps 48:10; Ps 51:12, 54:1; 119:116, 117; Isa 41:10, 13; 42:1, 16

Isa 42:6

Isa 42:6 - give thee for a covenant of the people - See Isa 49:6-10, 60:1-3

Isa 42:7

Isa 42:7 - To open the blind eyes - See Joh 9:30-33; Act 26:18; Ps 146:7, 8

Isa 42:7

Isa 42:8 - to bring out the prisoners from the prison - prisoners of hope (Zech 9:11, 12), those who die in the Lord. See 1Thess 4:16-18; Ps 146:7, 8; Heb 2:14-17 prisoners to the strong man, Satan, who has held God's people bound to fear and death. Heb 2:14-18

Isa 42:8

Isa 42:8 - I am the LORD: that is my name - God's name is Holy! See Ex 6:3; Isa 57:15;

Isa 42:8

Isa 42:8 - my glory will I not give to another - God will not share His holy name, nor His glory (His honor, His praise, His rightful position as first in each of His created beings lives) with any other gods. He can not share the same platform with other gods, therefore interfaith communion and ecumenicalism is all witchcraft. See 1Sam 5:1-7; Isa 48:11

Isa 42:8

Isa 42:8 - neither my praise to graven images - See 1Sam 5:2-5

Isa 42:9

Isa 42:9 - new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them - See Joh 13:19; Rom 4:17

Isa 42:9

Isa 42:9 - I tell you of them - See Am 3:7

Isa 42:10

Isa 42:10 - Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth - See Ps 33:3

Isa 42:10

Isa 42:10 - ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein - See Ps 107:21-31

Isa 42:13

Isa 42:13 - The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, yea, roar; he shall prevail against his enemies - See Isa 59:16-19

Isa 42:14

Isa 42:14 - I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and devour at once - See Isa 65:6

Isa 42:15

Isa 42:15 - and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools - See Ps 107:33, 34

Isa 42:16

Isa 42:16 - And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them - See Isa 42:6; Ps 27:11

Isa 42:17

Isa 42:17 - They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods. - See Isa 2:18-20

Isa 42:18

Isa 42:18, 19 - Hear ye deaf... see ye blind - God's people are rebuked for their spiritual blindness and hardness of heart seen in their failure to listen. The Lord makes known that it is their disobedience that has caused their blindness and deafness. See Isa 42:22-24; 44:18-20; 2Cor 4:3, 4

Isa 42:19

Isa 42:19 - Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD'S servant? - See Rom 10:20, 21

Isa 42:19

Isa 42:19 - the LORD'S servant - speaking of Israel, Who God made and ordained a messenger to the nations.

Isa 42:20

Isa 42:20 - Seeing many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not - See 2Tim 3:7

Isa 42:21

Isa 42:21 - The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make it honourable - This was a priority of Christ, to glorify the Law of God through perfect obedience and by demonstrating its true character, grounded in love! See Ps 40:8; Mt 5:18; Jer 23:5, 6, 31:31-34; Joh 18:37; Heb 10:7; Rom 10:4; Contrast: Job 22:3

Isa 42:22

Isa 42:22 - But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses - See Isa 59:1-14

Isa 42:22

Isa 42:22 - they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore - See Isa 59:15

Isa 42:24

Isa 42:24 - Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law - See 2Chron 36:15, 16; Nehemiah 9:26-30

Isa 42:25

Isa 42:25 - Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart - See 2Chron 36:17-21

Isa 43:1

Isa 43:1 - LORD that created thee - the Jews are a unique creation of God. They were conceived, formed, sustained, and delivered from the womb by the expressed power of God. Once Sarah's natural functions in being able to bear a child had died, God caused her body to conceive, God allowed the "natural processes" that occur in a live womb to be sustained and God allowed the child to come to full term. Israel was made uniquely by God to be a praise to Him and a blessing to the rest of the world. See Rom 4:18-22; Heb 11:8-12; Isa 43:15; 44:1, 2

Isa 43:1

Isa 43:1 - LORD that created thee - the Jews are a unique creation of God. They were conceived, formed, sustained, and delivered from the womb by the expressed power of God. Isa 43:1

Isa 43:1 - He that formed thee - See Isa 46:3, 4

Isa 43:1

Isa 43:1 - I have called thee by thy name - Just as God knows all the stars and numbers them and calls them all by name, so God knows each of us and numbers the hairs on our head. God's perfect knowledge of each of us is amazing! Lord help me in my struggles with unbelief, self and disobedience. See Ex 33:17

Isa 43:2

Isa 43:2 - I will be with thee - See Ps 23:4

Isa 43:2

Isa 43:2 - and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: - the waters and rivers may symbolize the trials and persecutions of the enemies of God. See Isa 28:15, 17; Ps 93:3, 4, 89:9, 124:4-6

Isa 43:2

Isa 43:2 - when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee - See Ps 29:7; Dan 3:19-27 In their wonderful deliverance were displayed, before that vast assembly, the power and majesty of God. Jesus placed Himself by their side in the fiery furnace, and by the glory of His presence convinced the proud king of Babylon that it could be no other than the Son of God... By the deliverance of His faithful servants, the Lord declares that He will take His stand with the oppressed and overthrow all earthly powers that would trample upon the authority of the God of heaven. - {AG 44.5}

Isa 43:5, 6 - Fear not: for I am with thee: I will bring thy - See Isa 60:4

Isa 43:7

Isa 43:7 - Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him - See Joh 1:12, 13; Isa 43:15, 21; Rev 4:11

Isa 43:10

Isa 43:10 - Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD - We are to witness to the world the resurrection power of God, the power to transform and make new that which was dead in trespasses and sins. We are to shine forth the praises of Him Who has brought us out of darkness into His marvelous light. We are to demonstrate the mighty works of God as Jesus Christ abides within us and His glory is revealed. See Philippians 3:9, 10; Eph 2:1-5; 2Pet 1:1-4; Mt 5:16; John 15:1-5

Isa 43:10

Isa 43:10 - that ye may know and believe me - Jer 9:23, 24; John 6:28, 29, 5:38, 39; Philippians 3:9, 10

Isa 43:10

Isa 43:10- Understand that I am He: before me there was no god formed, neither shall there be after me - See Deut 32:39; Isa 44:6-8

Isa 43:11

Isa 43:11 - I, even I, am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour - See Act 4:12; Isa 63:1-3

Isa 43:12

Isa 43:12 - therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God - See Isa 43:25, 26

Isa 43:13

Isa 43:11 - there is none that can deliver out of my hand; I will work and who will let it? - See Deut 32:39; John 10:28, 29

Isa 43:13

Isa 43:13 - I will work, and who shall let it? - God will do His work and who shall restrain it?

See 2Thess 2:7

Isa 43:15

Isa 43:18 - the creator of Israel - God Created Israel in that it was an act of His Creative power to form an embryo in the dead womb of Sarah, and to give her strength to bring for the child. Similarly, those who are born of the water and the Spirit of God are not created as natural man, but are created and born of the will of God. See Heb 11:11, 17-19; Isa 43:21; Joh 1:12, 13

Isa 43:16

Isa 43:16 - which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters - See Mk 6:49; Ps 77:19

Isa 43:17

Isa 43:17 - Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow. - See Ex 14:17, 18

Isa 43:18

Isa 43:18 - Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old - We are to forget the past hurt, pains, disappointments, failures, inconsistencies, etc. See Gal 2:20; 2Cor 5:17; Lk 17:32; Phil 3:13, 14

Isa 43:19

Isa 43:14 - now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert - the coming of the Latter Rain will be unlike anything the world has ever seen. It will be a new things from the LORD that will cause rivers to flow where once there was dry and barren land. See Isa 30:25

Isa 43:21

Isa 43:21 - This people have I formed for myself; they shall shew forth my praise - See 1Pet 2:9; Mal 3:4; Isa 43:15

Isa 43:21

Isa 43:21 - have I formed - recalling the Creation where God formed man out of the dust of the earth, God has through the rebirth experience and by His purifying fires (Joh 1:12, 13; Mal 3:3, 4), formed a people who will show forth His praises to the world. Do this in me LORD!!!! See Gen 2:7; Isa 43:15

Isa 43:22

Isa 43:22 - But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob - See Jer 33:3

Isa 43:23

Isa 43:23 - Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense. - See Mal 1:6-8

Isa 43:24

Isa 43:24 - but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities - rather than offering up an offering in righteousness (Mal 3:3, 4), the people of God have offered up their sins. The complaint is that of our Lord, the Great High Priest, Who must serve (deal with) our sins.

Isa 43:25

Isa 43:25 - I, even I, am He that blotteth out thy transgressions - God is speaking proleptically of the antitypical day of atonement, when He will blot out all of our sins and remember them no more. See Isa 25:8, 51:12, 13; Ps 25:11, 51:1, 32:5; Rev 3:5; Act 3:19; Job 14:17; Jer 31:34, 50:20; Mic 7:18, 19

Isa 43:25

Isa 43:25 - for mine own sake - for God's name, His character, and His word's sake. God does not want to remember our waywardness, only our works of righteousness by faith of Jesus Christ - See Ps 23:3; 1Jo 2:12; Ex 34:5-7; Gen 3:15; Isa 48:9, 11

Isa 43:25

Isa 43:25 - and will not remember thy sins - God wants to remove all record of sin so that eternity may go forth without a trace of the curse - the former things are all past, behold, He makes all things new. See Ps 103:12; Mic 7:19; Jer 31:34; Heb 8:12, 10:17; Isa 42:9; Rev 21:5

Isa 43:26

Isa 43:26 - Put me in remembrance - God calls us to consider His ways towards us in the past. We must reflect on His goodness towards us and see that He has been consistently good to the sons of men. See Isa 43:12 God speaks facetiously by saying "Remind Me", put me in remembrance.

Isa 43:26

Isa 43:26 - let us plead together - God graciously, and in much longsufferin, condescends to plead and reason with men, that we may see our wicked ways. See Isa 1:18

Isa 43:27

Isa 43:27 - Thy first father hath sinned - See 1Cor 15:21, 22; Rom 5:14-19

Isa 43:27

Isa 43:17 - thy teachers have transgressed against me - See Isa 28:7, 8; Mic 3:9-12;

Isa 44:2

Isa 44:2 - made thee, and formed the from the womb - See Isa 43:1, 15; 44:21, 24; 49:1-3; Rom 4:18-22; Heb 11:8-12

Isa 44:2

Isa 44:2 - Jesurun - Yshuruwn Proper Name Masculine yesh-oo-roon' from (03474) from ; upright; Jeshurun, a symbol. name for Israel--Jeshurun. Jeshurun = "upright one" a symbolic name for Israel describing her ideal character

Isa 44:3

Isa 44:3 - pour water upon him that is thirsty - those who thirst for righteousness will receive the burden of the bright clouds, the showers of rain, causing the grass to grow. See Isa 44:4, 55:10-13; Zech 10:1; Mt 5:6

Isa 44:3

Isa 44:3 - my spirit upon thy seed.. blessing upon thine offspring - the blessings of righteousness will extend to the children for thousands of generations that love God and keep His commandments - The Holy Spirit will be given in the early and latter rains - See Ex 20:6; Joel 2

Isa 44:4

Isa 44:4 - And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water courses - See Isa 27:5

Isa 44:4

Isa 44:4 - willows by the water course - trees of righteousness planted by the rivers, bearing their fruit in season and in drought - See Jer 17:7, 8; Ps 1:1-3; Isa 61:3

Isa 44:6

Isa 44:6 - I am the first, and I am the last - See Rev 1:11, 2:8

Isa 44:7

Isa 44:7 - shall call... shall declare it... shall set it in order - See Rom 4:17; Joh 13:19; Isa 46:10; 45:23

Isa 44:7

Isa 44:7 - since I appointed the ancient people - the ancient people give witness to the present truths. We can not understand modern Babylon unless we understand ancient Babylon. If we are to understand spiritual Israel that is to be sealed, we must understand ancient Israel, the descendants of Jacob. See Act 17:26

Isa 44:7

Isa 44:7 - and the things that are coming, and shall come - See Rom 4:17

Isa 44:8

Isa 44:8 - ye are even my witnesses - we are to witness to the fact that Jesus is the First and the Last and He declares the end from the beginning.

Isa 44:8

Isa 44:10 - Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any - See Isa 43:10, 11; Ps 86:8

Isa 44:9

Isa 44:9-20 - make a graven image - See Isa 19:3; 45:7-12, 18; 46:1, 2, 6, 7; Hab 2:18, 19; Dan

5:4; Psa 115:4-8, 135:15-18

Isa 44:12

Isa 44:12 - The smith with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint - the prophet takes several verses the sight the blindness and foolishness of idolatry and those who make and worship idols, the works of man's own hands. The metal smith works with the strength of his arms and hands, laboring tirelessly, depriving himself of water and food to fashion that which he will in turn bow down and worship. The prophet highlights the smith's need for water and sustenance, none of which the object formed in his hands can provide.

Isa 44:13

Isa 44:13 - The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house - the prophet continues to describe the futility of thought and reason in idolatry as the carpenter painstakingly uses ruler to measure, compass to draw and his skills to fashion an object in the similitude of a man that will stand in his house as his god.

Isa 44:14

Isa 44:14 - He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it - The prophet continues to highlight the foolish insanity of idolatry in that the maker of the idol cuts down a tree which he could not cause to grow in order to form an idol, the work of his own hands.

Isa 44:15

Isa 44:15 - Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto - The Lord is highlighting the foolishness of men and their idolatry. They plant a tree and the Lord waters it and causes it to grow. The man then cuts down the tree and with part of it, he warms himself and kindles a fire to cook his food; then with another part of the stock he makes an idol, bows down and worships it. See Act 17:22-31

Isa 44:16

Isa 44:16 - He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire - with part of the tree that is cut down, the craftsman makes a fire to keep himself warm and to cook the food that he nor the idol have provided. See Isa 44:19

Isa 44:18

Isa 44:18 - They have not known nor understood: for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand - See Isa 42:18-20, 22-24; 2Cor 4:3, 4; Rom 1:22-28

Isa 44:18

Isa 44:18-20 - he has shut their eyes... closed their ears - See Isa 42:18-20, 22-24; 2Cor 4:3, 4; Rom 1:22-28

Isa 44:19

Isa 44:19 - shall I fall down to the stock of a tree? - See Hos 4:12

Isa 44:21

Isa 44:21 - for thou art my servant: I have formed thee - See Isa 44:1, 2, 24

Isa 44:22

Isa 44:22 - I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee - God proleptically blots out our transgressions and remembers them no more. He therefore, encourages us to come to Him and He will abundantly pardon and save. Praise God! See Isa 55:7, 43:25; Ps 103:12

Isa 44:22

Isa 44:22 - blotted out - See Act 3:19; Isa 43:25

Isa 44:23

Isa 44:23 - glorified himself in Israel - God's glory will shine forth through Israel and God will be glorified! See Eze 36:23; Isa 55:4

Isa 44:24

Isa 44:24 - Thus saith the LORD, thy redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb - Isa 44:1, 2, 21

Isa 44:25

Isa 44:25 - that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish - See 1Cor 1:27

Isa 44:26

Isa 44:26 - confirmeth the words of His servant... performeth the counsel of His messenger - See 2Chron 20:20; Jer 25:12, 29:10, 32:36-44, 51:59-64

Isa 44:27

Isa 44:27 - I will dry up thy rivers - a reference to the counsels and works God performed through His servant Cyrus who dammed the river Euphrates, running through the city of Babylon so that he may attack the city by the riverbed.

Isa 44:28

Isa 44:28 - that saith of Cyrus - the righteous man from the east - See Isa 41:2, 25; 45:1-4; Rev 16:13

Isa 44:28

Isa 44:28 - He is my shepherd - Cyrus is likened to Jesus, the Good Shepherd Who would guide His flock to green pastures and lead them to still waters. Cyrus would deliver God's people from Babylon.

Isa 44:28

Isa 44:28 - even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built - Cyrus was to issue the first of 3 decrees that would restore and rebuild Jerusalem and establish it as a nation before the first coming of the LORD.

Isa 45:1

Isa 45:1 - whose right hand I have holden - God would uphold and hold His Anointed, Cyrus (Jesus) by their right hand [of strength].

Isa 45:1

Isa 45:1 - loose the loins of kings - See Dan 5:6; Isa 13:6-8

Isa 45:1

Isa 45:1 - open before him the two leaved gates - the leaved gates of Babylon that guarded the city would be left open providentially so that Cyrus could march upon the city unhampered.

Isa 45:1

Isa 45:1 - gates shall not be shut - See Rev 3:7

Isa 45:2

Isa 45:2 - make the crooked places straight - God will prepare a highway for His Anointed, to Cyrus (Jesus). See Isa 40:3, 4; Lk 3:4

Isa 45:3

Isa 45:3 - And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places - God would impart to Cyrus all the treasures of Babylon, but further, he would be shown the gospel of Jesus Christ, the secret place of the Most High. Cyrus would be shown Him, Whose life his own typified. See Ps 91:1

Isa 45:4

Isa 45:4 - For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name - Cyrus typifies Jesus, the Messiah who was called to redeem Israel and all the inhabitants of the world. See Isa 49:6

Isa 45:4

Isa 45:4, 5 - though thou hast not known Me - Cyrus had not known the God of Israel, the Great and Mighty God, yet God knew him. God called Cyrus by name over 100 years before his birth and would appoint him to loose the bands and deliver God's people from the bondage of Babylon. See Isa 45:13

Isa 45:5

Isa 45:5 - I am the LORD, and there is none else, there is no God beside me - See Isa 46:9, 10,

42:8, 9

Isa 45:7 - I form the light, and create darkness - Ps 139:12

Isa 45:8

Isa 45:8 - Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it. - Early and Latter Rain power that reveals the righteousness of Christ in the individual See Jam 5:7; Zech 10:1

Isa 45:12

Isa 45:12 - I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded - See Ps 33:9

Isa 45:13

Isa 45:13 - I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways: he shall build my city, and he shall let go my captives, not for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts - See Isa 61:1, 2

Isa 45:13

Isa 45:13 - he shall build my city and let go My captives - Cyrus is again likened to Jesus, the Good Shepherd, who will give command to rebuild God's city just as Jesus is the maker of the heavenly Jerusalem; he will also deliver God's people from Babylon, Just as Jesus delivers His people from Babylon with the 3 Angels joined by the 4th Angel's messages. See Isa 45:1; Heb 11:10

Isa 45:13

Isa 45:13 - and he shall let go my captives not for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts - the deliverance from the first decree of Cyrus which typifies the salvation made available by Jesus Christ. Jesus will release the captives of sin, self-righteousness and the need to save oneself; and those once bound to the fear of death. See Ezra 1; Zech 9:12; Rom 8:15; Gal 5:1; Heb 2:14-18

It was God's power alone that created Israel and they were made especially to praise God and give Him glory. Rom 4:18-22; Heb 11:8-12; Isa 43:1, 15; 44:1, 2

Isa 46:5

Isa 46:5 - To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like? - See Zech 13:7; Heb 1:8; Isa 46:9, 9:6, 7; Dan 10:13, 21, 12:1

Isa 46:6

Isa 46:6, 7 - They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he maketh it a god: they fall down, yea, they worship - See Isa 44:9-19, 19:3; 45:7-12, 18; 46:1, 2; Hab 2:18, 19; Dan 5:4; Psa 115:4-8, 135:15-18

Isa 46:9

Isa 46:9 - for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me - See Ps 86:10; Joh 17:11; Deut 4:39; Lam 3:37; Isa 45:5, 6, 18, 40:18; 42:8, 9

Isa 46:10

Isa 46:10 - Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done - See Rom 4:17; Isa 44:7; 45:23, 48:3; Gen 3:15; Rev 13:8; Joh 13:19 Contrast Eccl 3:11; Heb 11:7

Isa 46:11

Isa 46:11 - Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country - Cyrus is here likened to a ravenous bird that will execute God's judgment.

Isa 46:11

Isa 46:11 - I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it - See Num 23:19; Isa 55:11

Isa 46:12

Isa 46:12 - Hearken unto me, ye stouthearted, that are far from righteousness: - See Mal 3:13-15

Isa 46:13

Isa 46:13 - I bring near my righteousness - See Jer 23:6

Isa 47:3

Isa 47:3 - Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen - as an exposed woman, Babylon the great will be exposed and her unrighteousness, harlotries and corruptions laid bare for all to see. See Rev 18:1-5

Isa 47:4

Isa 47:4 - the LORD of hosts is his name - See Isa 48:2, 54:5

Isa 47:5

Isa 47:5 - the lady of kingdoms - a fitting name for the Babylon the Great.

Isa 47:6

Isa 47:6 - I was wroth with my people, I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke - See Habakkuk 1:5-11; Deut 28:49-68

Isa 47:6

Isa 47:6 - thou didst shew them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke - See Deut 28:50; Zech 1:15

Isa 47:7

Isa 47:7 - And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever - See Rev 18:7; Ps 10:6; Prov 30:20

Isa 47:7

Isa 47:7 - Babylon had not given consideration that her end was forecasted. See Ezek 28:1-10; Rev 18:4-24

Isa 47:8

Isa 47:8 - I am, and none else beside me - consider the blasphemous and proud boast of Babylon, ascribing to itself the claim of God to be the "I AM" - See Ex 3:14; Eze 28:2; Isa 46:9; GC 17.2

Isa 47:8

Isa 47:8 - I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children - Babylon, the "lady of kingdoms" and the mother of harlots claims that her rule will excel in prosperity and that she will not suffer the loss of any children. The works of the Ecumenical Movement are making strides to make this claim a reality. See Rev 17:1-5; 18:7; Isa 4:1; Ps 10:6

Isa 47:9

Isa 47:9 - come to thee in a moment in one day - See Rev 18:8-17

Isa 47:9

Isa 47:9 - the loss of children - with the exposure of Babylon, all of her children will hate her and those who hear the Loud Cry of the 3rd Angel's Message will come out of her.

Isa 47:9

Isa 47:9 - widowhood - the adulterous woman that committed harlotries with the kings and merchants of the earth will be hated of them.

Isa 47:10

Isa 47:10 - thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee - See Eze 28:3, 4

Isa 47:10

Isa 47:11 - and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me - the devil and his henchman the papacy blaspheme God in suggesting that they are self existent, they themselves are gods, independent of any other. See Isa 14:13, 14; Ex 3:14

Isa 47:11

Isa 47:11 - and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know - See Rev 18:8

Isa 47:12

Isa 47:12 - Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth - See Rev 18:2

Isa 47:14

Isa 47:14 - shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it. See Mal 4:3

Isa 47:15

Isa 47:15 - they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee - See Rev 18:9-19

Isa 48:1

Isa 48:1 - but not in righteousness - the house of Judah are given a scathing rebuke for their profession of faith as ones who seek God daily and delight to know His will, but their hearts are far from Him. See Isa 29:13; 58:2

Isa 48:1

Isa 48:1 - make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness - the statement may allude to the people's natural tendency to falsehood and rebellion, being natural sons of Jacob whose name means "supplanter". See Gen 27:18, 19

Isa 48:3

Isa 48:3, 5-8 - declare former things - the fool blasphemes God in suggesting that they have "discovered" something that God has established from the beginning, from ancient times. Fools blaspheme God, ascribing to their gods (idols of wood/stone, science, man's wisdom) honor as the source of that which God has already established. See: Isa 46:10; Hab 1:11, Deut 32:27, Joe 2:17

Isa 48:4

Isa 48:4 - iron sinew brow of brass - The Lord is commenting on the hard-heartedness of Israel and uses imagery of punishment found in Lev 26 (iron and brass) to remind them of the punishments that are associated with their path of rebellion

Isa 48:5

Isa 48:5 - I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them - See Isa 46:10; Rom 4:17

Isa 48:8

Isa 48:8 - wast called a transgressor from the womb - perhaps an allusion to the name Jacob, meaning supplanter, given the second twin son of Isaac born of Rachel. Gen 25:23-26; 27:19

Isa 48:9

Isa 48:9 - for my name's sake will I defer mine anger - See Isa 48:11, 43:25; Eze 36:21-23

Isa 48:10

Isa 48:10 - furnace of affliction - God has chosen us by purifying us in His furnace of affliction. We must give an offering in righteousness and it must come from those who have been purified. Our purification will come through the bread of adversity and waters of affliction (Isa 30:20-22) at which time we will cast away our graven images and seek the Lord. See Mal 3:2-4

Isa 48:11

Isa 48:11 - and I will not give my glory unto another - See Isa 42:8

Isa 48:12

Isa 48:12 - I am he; I am the first, I also am the last - See Rev 1:8, 11, 17

Isa 48:13

Isa 48:13 - Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together - See Ps 104; Joh 1:1-3; Heb 1:8-12

Isa 48:15

Isa 48:15 - I, even I, have called him - a Messianic prophecy of Jesus, whom the LORD Loves and has appointed to do His works of Salvation for humanity. Heb 10:5-7

Isa 48:16

Isa 48:16 - I have not spoken in secret from the beginning - See John 1:1-3

Isa 48:16

Isa 48:16 - from the time that it was, there am I - See Joh 1:1-3; Prov 8:22-31; Ps 90:1, 2

Isa 48:16

Isa 48:16 - now the Lord God and His Spirit hath sent me - Jesus, Who will deliver His people from Babylon and Who spoke and declared all things from the beginning, has been sent to mankind as Immanuel by God the Father and His Holy Spirit. See Ps 111:9; Rom 8:3; Heb 10:5-7; Joh 3:16, 10:36, 17:3, 8, 18, 8:42; Eph 5:20; 1Jo 5:7. Compare Joh 15:26

Isa 48:16

Isa 48:16 - his Spirit - See Gal 4:6; Rev 1:4

Isa 48:16

Isa 48:16 - hath sent me - See John 3:16, 5:24

Isa 48:17

Isa 48:17 - Thus saith the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel - The LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS is our Redeemer. See Jer 23:5, 6

Isa 48:17

Isa 48:17 - which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go - See Jer 6:16; Ps 32:8

Isa 48:18

Isa 48:18 - O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea: - peace and righteousness are synonymous. See Deut 5:29; Ps 119:165; Isa 32:17; Eph 2:14

Isa 48:20

Isa 48:20 - Go ye forth, flee ye from the Chaldeans - The cry is that of "Come out of Babylon my People" the 2nd and 4th Angel's Messages. See Rev 14:8; 18:4

Isa 48:21

Isa 48:21 - he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out - See Ex 17:6, Num 20:11; John 19:34

Isa 48:22

Isa 48:22 - There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked - See Isa 57:21

Isa 49:1

Isa 49:1 - The LORD hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name - See Lk 1:30-35; Jer 1:5

Isa 49:2

Isa 49:2 - And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me - See Jer 51:20; Heb 4:12

Isa 49:2

Isa 49:2 - in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me - See Ex 33:22; Isa 49:15, 16

Isa 49:3

Isa 49:3 - Thou art my servant, O Israel, in whom I will be glorified - the Nation of Israel was to foreshadow Jesus, the True Israel Who was called from everlasting and Who would bear the Father's glory. The glory of the Father would lastly be seen upon each of the redeemed here upon the earth through the abiding presence of the Holy Spirit. See Ps 90:1, 2; Col 1:12-19; Joh 17:1, 4; 12:27-32; Ex 33:18-34:8; Isa 60:1-3; 2Pet 1:1-5; Gal 6:15, 16

Isa 49:4

Isa 49:4, 5 - I have laboured in vain - we must consider the pain Jesus feels in striving to rescue and deliver God's chosen people who would not be gathered due to unbelief. See Rom 10:1-4; 9:1-4; Mt 23:37 Miller's Dream - I then became vexed in my physical soul and began to use physical force to push them out of the room; but while I was pushing out one, three more would enter and bring in dirt and shavings and sand and all manner of rubbish, until they covered every one of the true jewels, diamonds, and coins, which were all excluded from sight. They also tore in pieces my casket and scattered it among the rubbish. I thought no man regarded my sorrow or my anger. I became wholly discouraged and disheartened, and sat down and wept. - {EW 82.4}

Isa 49:5

Isa 49:5 - And now, saith the LORD that formed me from the womb to be his servant - the nation of Israel was not brought forth like any other nation, but was formed by God in the womb. Isaac, the son of promise, was a miracle child, born of God alone. Therefore, his descendants are also born, not by natural birth, but by super natural birth. All of these things foreshadow and typify the True Miracle Birth, where that Holy Thing that would be formed in Mary would be called the Son of God. See Lk 1:35; Jer 49:5; Heb 11:11, 12; Rom 4:17-22; Joh 1:12, 13; Jam 1:18

Isa 49:5

Isa 49:5 - to bring Jacob again to him - See 2Cor 5:17-21

Isa 49:5

Isa 49:5 - Though Israel be not gathered - Though the COI remained scattered and would not embrace the promises See Rom 3:3, 4; Heb 3:15-4:2; Isa 8:13-15

Isa 49:5

Isa 49:5 - yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD - See Mt 3:16, 17; Joh 12:27, 28, 17:1-5

Isa 49:5

Isa 49:5 - and my God shall be my strength - See Ps 27:1

Isa 49:6

Isa 49:6 - It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth - See Isa 45:4; Lk 2:25-35; Act 14:1

Isa 49:6

Isa 49:6 - tribes of Jacob - See Rev 7:5-8

Isa 49:6

Isa 49:6 - I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles - Here the eternal purposes of God are revealed. That God would make one out of two, Jew and Gentile would be united under God's banner of salvation. See Act 13:44-47; Eph 1:9; 2:11-20; Col 1:26-29

Isa 49:6

Isa 49:6 - that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth - every kindred, tribe, tongue and nation must receive the gospel of Jesus Christ. See Mt 24:14; Rev 14:6; Heb 2:9

Isa 49:7

Isa 49:7 - to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth - The natural man despise Jesus and the inns of God. However, to the renewed heart, He is the Fairest among ten thousand and the One all together lovely. See Isa 53:1-8; Song of Solomon 5:10, 16

Isa 49:7

Isa 49:7 - Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel - See Isa 60:3

Isa 49:7

Isa 49:7 - and he shall choose thee - God will choose and exalt His people above their enemies and those who despise them. See Ps 23:5, 27:6

Isa 49:8

Isa 49:8 - Thus saith the LORD, In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee - It is as the LORD is responding to the prayer of the Psist in Ps 69:13, 32:6; 2Cor 6:2

Isa 49:8

Isa 49:9 - I will preserve Thee, and keep Thee and give Thee for a covenant of the people - See Gen 3:15; 12:1-3

Isa 49:8

Isa 49:8 - and give thee for a covenant of the people - See Gen 3:15; Isa 42:6; Rev 14:6; Joh 3:16; Zech 6:12, 13

Isa 49:8

Isa 49:8 - to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages - Jesus, as the Second Adam, would redeem humanity and the earth from corruption and deliver it from bondage of the bond-man, Satan. See 1Cor 15:22, 45-49; Heb 2:14-18;

Isa 49:9

Isa 49:9 - mayest say to the prisoners, Go forth - See Isa 61:1-3

Isa 49:9

Isa 49:9 - to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves - See Isa 60:1-3

Isa 49:10

Isa 49:10 - They shall not hunger nor thirst - See Isa 33:15, 16

Isa 49:10

Isa 49:10 - They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them - See Rev 7:16

Isa 49:10

Isa 49:10 - neither shall the heat nor sun smite them - See Ps 121:6, 91:5

Isa 49:10

Isa 49:10 - for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them - See Ps 23:2

Isa 49:13

Isa 49:13 - Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth - the Lord's salvation has gone out to the ends of the earth and there is joy in both heaven and earth!

Isa 49:13

Isa 49:13 - for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted - See Isa 40:1-5

Isa 49:14

Isa 49:14-16 - the LORD hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me - Israel cries out in woe that they have been overlooked as they are shamed by their rejection of, and the world's embracing of the everlasting covenant (Rom 9:30-33; 10:19-21; 11:25-36). In mercy God, shows His boundless love and long-suffering as He welcomes Israel back, stating He could never forget them; we all are engraved in the palm of His hands!

Isa 49:15

Isa 49:15 - Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee - The Lord speaks of the natural affection a mother has for her children. This is known of men and seen even in the animal world (1Sam 6:7, 9, 10). And yet, there are times and circumstances, not too distant, where mothers will do the unthinkable towards their children. God, nevertheless, will never forsake or forget us, His children. See CONTRAST Deut 28:53-57; 2Tim 3:1-5;

Isa 49:15

Isa 49:15 - yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee - See Deut 28:53-57; Psa 27:10; 2Tim 4:16, 17; Job 39:13-16; Lam 4:10

Isa 49:15

Isa 49:15 - yet will I not forget thee - See Deut 31:8; Josh 1:9; Isa 66:12, 13

Isa 49:16

Isa 49:16 - I have graven thee... - See Zech 13:6; Ps 111:5 The death and destruction of the wicked will be a heartache for the LORD for eternity. He will always grieve the loss of those He once loved. See Hosea 11:8

Isa 49:16

Isa 49:16 - thy walls are continually before me - God keeps His eyes upon and around His people - See Ps 125:2, 51:18

Isa 49:17

Isa 49:17 - Thy children shall make haste - The redemption of the Lord is here spoken. God will bring back those children who were slain by the destroyer or taken captive to their parents in their home land. The land will be too strait (narrow/small) to support all who will return and inhabit the land. God will turn His people's captivity captive and will redeem His people! Praise the LORD!!

Isa 49:18

Isa 49:18 - Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament, and bind them on thee, as a bride doeth - See Ps 2:1-9

Isa 49:23

Isa 49:23 - for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me - see Isa 28:16, Rom 10:11

Isa 49:24

Isa 49:25 - shall the prey be taken away from the mighty - See Mt 12:29; Mk 3:27

Isa 49:25

Isa 49:25 - I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children - See Ps 35:1; Isa 60:4

Isa 49:26

Isa 49:26 - And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob - See Zech 2:8, 9; Rev 16:4-6, 18:4-8

Isa 50:1

Isa 50:1 - bill of your mother's divorcement - see Mk 10:4-9

Isa 50:1

Isa 50:1 - Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away - we continually make ourselves bondservant to the enemy through our sins.

Isa 50:2

Isa 50:2 - Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? - See Isa 59:1

Isa 50:3

Isa 50:3 - I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering - It is the LORD that clothes the heavens in darkness because He is a God of Love and Light and His Kingdom is Light

Isa 50:4

Isa 50:4 - The Lord GOD hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned - See Ps 139:1-4 You and I would give a great deal to be able to act as wisely as Jesus did. Every time he knew the right thing to say, and the right thing to do, and when not to say anything. Was there a person in the world who was as keen of intellect, who knew just how to meet every emergency as did Jesus. You know he was wiser than Solomon. How did he get that wisdom?... How did it come to him? (A voice) [someone in the congregation:] "It was intuition." Then he was not like us at all. We read that "it behooved him to be made in all things like unto his brethren": that is, in every particular. We do not want to put the Lord off away from us, but he is one of us.... How did he come by his wisdom?... He studied God's Word.... He was wholly given to the Lord, knowing that there is no other use for man in this world but to serve the Lord. {Grace on Trial, pg 189, R. Wieland}

Isa 50:4

Isa 50:4 - know how to speak a word in season to him that is the weary - See Isa 61:1-3

Isa 50:4

Isa 50:4 - he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned - God desires to be our alarm clock, to waken us early to commune with Him. Help me Lord to be obedient and not to be rebellious in this. See Mt 6:33, 34; Mk 1:35 Everyone needs to have a personal experience in obtaining a knowledge of the will of God. We must individually hear Him speaking to the heart. When every other voice is hushed, and in quietness we wait before Him, the silence of the soul makes distinct the voice of God" {DA 363}

Isa 50:4

Isa 50:4 - he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned - God awakens us to commune with Him and that we may hear His still small voice telling us "this is the way, walk ye in it". We must pray for the ear of the learned both to listen and to will to obey God's voice. See Mk 1:35; Jer 6:16; Philippians 2:13

Isa 50:5

Isa 50:5 - and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back - When the Lord comes to waken us up early in the morning, it is for us to heed His promptings and to surrender to His will, not to be rebellious and continue sleeping in order to satisfy the flesh. See Heb 10:36-39; 1Sam 15:23

Isa 50:6

Isa 50:6 - gave my back to the smiters - See Lk 23:22; Joh 19:1; Lam 3:30

Isa 50:6

Isa 50:6 - my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair - See Isa 52:14; Lam 3:30

Isa 50:6

Isa 50:6 - hid not my face from shame and spitting - See Mt 26:67, 27:29-31; Mk 15:16-20; Lk 22:63-65; Joh 19:2, 3, 5

Isa 50:7

Isa 50:7 - For the Lord GOD will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded - Because Jesus harkened to the voice, early in the morning to rise so that He might receive instructions from His Father, He received grace and mercy for that day. His communion and self-surrender mortified the flesh and equipped Him with divine power from above so that He could endure all that could be thrown at Him from rebellious mortals. The same power is made available to us as every morning we are awakened to unite with divine power and to be partakers of God's grace and mercy. When under trial, we experience the victory that is made available through surrender to Christ, we both see and know Him intimately. See Heb 4:16; 1Jo 3:6, 7; 1Pet 4:13; Isa 50:10

Isa 50:7

Isa 50:6 - therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed - Isa 28:16; Rom 9:33

Isa 50:7

Isa 50:7 - I set my face like a flint - See Heb 12:2-4; Isa 53:11; Ezek 3:8, 9

Isa 50:8

Isa 50:8 - He is near that justifieth me - See Jer 23:23; Ex 33:14-16; Joel 2:27; Isa 7:14, 57:15; Mt 1:23; Act 17:27

Isa 50:8

Isa 50:8 - who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is mine adversary? let him come near to me - See Heb 13:6; Rom 8:31; 1Sam 17:26-51; Ps 56:4, 118:6, 16:8, 27:1, 2; 1Jo 4:4; Isa 8:12-16; Mt 10:28; Joshua 1:5; Eze 3:9; 1Pet 3:13

Isa 50:9

Isa 50:9 - Behold, the Lord GOD will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? - See Rom 8:31; Ps 105:15; Heb 13:6

Isa 50:9

Isa 50:9 - who is he that shall condemn me? - the accuser of the brethren has been cast down and there is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus. See Rom 8:1; Isa 50:8; Rev 12:10-12; Lk 10:18; Zech 3:1-5

Isa 50:9

Isa 50:9 - lo, they all shall wax old as a garment - See Ps 102:26; Isa 51:6; Heb 1:11; 1Pet 1:24

Isa 50:9

Isa 50:9 - the moth shall eat them up - those who oppose the elect of God shall wax old like a garment and the moth shall eat them up. See Isa 51:7, 8

Isa 50:10

Isa 50:10 - Who is among you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? let him trust in the name of the LORD, and stay upon his God. - Who is he that places his trust in the LORD and is enduring the trying of his faith, let him place his trust in the LORD and wait upon His salvation. See 2Chron 20:20

Isa 50:10

Isa 50:10 - that obeyeth the voice of his servant - obeys the voice of Jesus, His Messenger of the Covenant as well as His prophets that speak on His behalf. 2Chron 20:20; CONTRAST Isa 30:9-12

Isa 50:10

Isa 50:10 - that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? - that is walking through the valley of the shadow of death, walking through strait and difficult places. See Ps 23:4

Isa 50:10

Isa 50:10 - let him trust in the name of the LORD, and stay upon his God - See Ps 27:14; Isa 40:29-31

Isa 50:11

Isa 50:11 - all ye that kindle a fire - like Nadab and Abihu, sons of Aaron that offered profane fire before the Lord, so many walk in fire of their own devising, self-righteousness, counterfeit Holy Spirit. See Lev 10:1, 2

Isa 50:11

Isa 50:11 - that compass yourselves about with sparks - a self/man made glory that counterfeits the glory of the Lord that is to appear upon God's people who shine as the brightness of the firmament. CONTRAST Isa 60:1-3; Dan 12:4; Rev 18:1; Mt 5:16

Isa 50:11

Isa 50:11 - walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled - those who walk in their own paths, who establish their own righteousness (Rom 10:1-4) and walk in their own wisdom will lie down in sorrow. See Rom 10:3; 4 Isa 65:5 In the professedly Christian world many turn away from the plain teachings of the Bible and build up a creed from human speculations and pleasing fables, and they point to their tower as a way to climb up to heaven. Men hang with admiration upon the lips of eloquence while it teaches that the transgressor shall not die, that salvation may be secured without obedience to the law of God. If the professed followers of Christ would accept God's standard, it would bring them into unity; but so long as human wisdom is exalted above His Holy Word, there will be divisions and dissension. The existing confusion of conflicting creeds and sects is fitly represented by the term "Babylon," which prophecy (Revelation 14:8; 18:2) applies to the world-loving churches of the last days. - {PP 124.1}

Isa 51:1 - rock whence ye are hewn - see 1Cor 10:4

Isa 51:2

Isa 51:2 - for I called him alone - See Am 3:2

Isa 51:3

Isa 51:3 - For the LORD shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places - See Isa 51:22, 23, 40:1, 2

Isa 51:3

Isa 51:3 - make her wilderness like Eden - See Eze 36:33-35

Isa 51:5

Isa 51:5 - My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people; the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust - See Isa 56:1

Isa 51:5

Isa 51:5 - gone forth - scattered throughout the earth

Isa 51:6

Isa 51:6 - for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke - a possible reference to the depleting ozone layer of earth's atmosphere, causing global warming and a string of other symptoms including rising tides, hurricanes, etc.

Isa 51:6

Isa 51:6 - the earth shall wax old like a garment - See Ps 102:26; Isa 50:9; Heb 1:11 The death the earth is seen through the extreme weather called Climate Change. Consider inspiration's assessment of cause and effect to this contemporary issue: If men today were simple in their habits, living in harmony with nature's laws, as did Adam and Eve in the beginning, there would be an abundant supply for the needs of the human family. There would be fewer imaginary wants, and more opportunities to work in God's ways. But selfishness and the indulgence of unnatural taste have brought sin and misery into the world, from excess on the one hand, and from want on the other. - {DA 367.1}

Isa 51:6

Isa 51:6 - and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner - a reference to the mass destruction brought about by famine, pestilence, drought today, the destructions to befall the earth during the time of the plagues and/or the final destruction of the wicked in the

Lake of Fire. See Mt 24:7; Rev 16, 20:13-15

Isa 51:6

Isa 51:6 - but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished - the only solution to the Climate Change dilemma, God's sure salvation. See Isa 51:8; Ps 119:142

Isa 51:7

Isa 51:9 - ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law - Job was perfect and upright in all his ways and eschewed evil. Yet he was, by his name, one who was hated and despised. Those who know righteousness are they who have God's law in their heart. See Job 1:1-3

Isa 51:7

Isa 51:7 - people in whose heart is my law - See Isa 8:16; Eze 36:26, 27; Jer 31:31-34

Isa 51:7 - fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings - See Ps 31:17; 2Pet 3:3-7

Isa 51:8

Isa 51:8 - moth shall eat them up like a garment - the fate of the wicked who reproach God's people is here described - See Jam 5:1, 2; Isa 50:9

Isa 51:8

Isa 51:8 - but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation - See Isa 51:6, Ps 119:142

Isa 51:9

Isa 51:9 - O arm of the LORD - See Isa 52:10; 53:1; 62:8

Isa 51:9

Isa 51:9 - awake as in the ancient days, in the generations of old - See Ps 90:1, 2

Isa 51:9

Isa 51:9 - Insolence and pride are the hallmarks of Egypt, the dragon power that God humbled. See Ex 5:2, Eze 29:3

Isa 51:9

Isa 51:9 - Rahab - name given to Egypt. Insolence and pride are the hallmarks of Egypt, the dragon power that God humbled. See Ex 5:2, Eze 29:3

Isa 51:9

Isa 51:9 - wounded the dragon - here, pharaoh of Egypt is likened to the dragon. See Rev 12:9; Eze 29:3

Isa 51:10

Isa 51:10 - art thou not it which hath dried the sea. See Isa 50:2; Ps 106:9-11; 1Cor 10:1, 2

Isa 51:11

Isa 51:11 - Therefore the redeemed of the Lord shall return - See Eze 36:24

Isa 51:11

Isa 51:11 - everlasting joy shall be upon their head - the seal of God. See Rev 7:4

Isa 51:11

Isa 51:11 - and sorrow and mourning shall flee away - See Rev 21:3-5

Isa 51:12

Isa 51:12 - I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldest be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass; - See Isa 43:25; Mt 10:28

Isa 51:12

Isa 51:12 - afraid of a man that shall die - See Mt 10:28

Isa 51:14

Isa 51:14 - The captive exile hasteneth - Compare Isa 28:16

Isa 51:16

Isa 51:16 - I have put my words in thy mouth - See Ps 81:10

Isa 51:17

Isa 51:17 - drunk the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out - God's indignation against Israel is here described. See Eze 36:17-19; Isa 50:1, 51:22, 23

Isa 51:21

Isa 51:20 - afflicted and drunken but not with wine. See Isa 29:9, 1-4

Isa 51:22

Isa 51:22 - pleadeth the cause of His people - See Isa 51:1-6; 1Jo 2:1; Rev 3:5; Zech 3:1-5

Isa 51:22

Isa 51:22 - Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again - See Isa 30:20; 40:1, 2, 57:16-18

Isa 51:23

Isa 51:23 - bow down, that we may go over; and thou hast laid thy body as the ground and as the street, to them that went over - See Isa 29:1-4; Josh 10:24

Isa 52:1

Isa 52:1 - Awake, awake - the double message parallels the cry "Babylon is Fallen is Fallen" (2nd Angel's message) which refers to the Midnight Cry and the passage of the Sunday Law. The message is doubled or empowered just as the 2nd Angel doubles the sounding of the 1st Angel.

Isa 52:1

Isa 52:1 - Zion - Zion = Jerusalem = God's holy city = God's people

Isa 52:1

Isa 52:1 - put on thy beautiful garments - God calls us to put on the robe of His righteousness, the garments of salvation - See Isa 61:10; Zech 3:1-6; Mt 22:11-14; Rev 3:18, 16:15, 19:7-8; Rom 13:12, 14

Isa 52:1

Isa 52:1 - holy city - Jerusalem and more specifically it's inhabitants are known as God's: 1. Holy City 2. Holy Mountain 3. Mt. Zion God commands, "be ye holy even as I am holy". These are a people that have consecrated themselves wholly to the Lord. See Lev 11:44, 19:20; Joel 3:17

Isa 52:1

Isa 52:1 - no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean - Israel will no longer partake of the harlotries of the past with the heathen (uncircumcised) and unclean. She shall no longer defile herself nor be defiled and scattered. This is symbolic of the church triumphant, purified of tares that has been sealed and sins no more. See Joe 3:17; Mt 13:38, 39; Heb 12:26, 27 God had closed the door, the only entrance, and shut Noah in and the ungodly out. He alone could open the door. Their fear and repentance came too late. They were compelled to know that there was a living God who was mightier than man, whom they had defied and blasphemed. They called upon Him earnestly, but His ear was not open to their cry. The time is not far distant when the test will come to every soul. The mark of the beast will be urged upon us. Those who have step by step yielded to worldly demands and conformed to worldly customs will not find it a hard matter to yield to the powers that be, rather than subject themselves to derision, insult, threatened imprisonment, and death. The contest is between the commandments of God and the commandments of men. In this time the gold will be separated from the dross in the church. True godliness will be clearly distinguished from the appearance and tinsel of it. Many a star that we have admired for its brilliancy will then go out in darkness. Chaff like a cloud will be borne away on the wind, even from places where we see only floors of rich wheat. All who assume the ornaments of the sanctuary, but are not clothed with Christ's righteousness, will appear in the shame of their own nakedness. - {5T 81.1}

Isa 52:2

Isa 52:2 - shake thyself from the dust - They are to arise from being trodden down by their oppressors - See Isa 51:23; 29:4

Isa 52:3

Isa 52:3 - ye have sold yourselves for nought - Mankind sold itself into the slavery of sin and must be redeemed (bought back) by the blood of Jesus Christ. Israel was once oppressed by a people mightier than they while they sojourned in Egypt. However, once delivered from bondage, Israel, as an adulterous wife, sold herself, receiving no pay for it. She exchanged beauty for ashes. See Eze 16:31; Isa 61:3; Hos 3:1, 2 [The] Sentence of death has already gone forth upon us, and our life is forfeited. In yielding to Satan, we have sold ourselves to him, and have received nothing in exchange. The Scriptures says, "Ye have sold yourselves for nought." Therefore we really have no life. This life that men live does not belong to them; they have given it, with themselves, into the power of Satan {E.J. Waggoner, Baptism: It's Significance, pg 5}

Isa 52:3 - redeemed without money - The Lord here uses the deliverance of Israel from Egyptian bondage as a metaphor for our Salvation. Salvation and redemption is free to us but it came at an infinite price, the precious blood of Jesus Christ! The redemption for us who sold ourselves into the slavery of sin was the death of Christ. See Gal 3:13; 1Pet 1:18, 19; 1Jo 1:7

Isa 52:4

Isa 52:4 - My people went down aforetime into Egypt to sojourn there - The COI went to Egypt to escape a famine and sojourned there for a time. - Ex 1

Isa 52:4

Isa 52:4 - and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause - the Lord here is speaking as the Advocate for Israel who were scattered for their rebellion. God however, speaks as the Redeemer Who will take vengeance upon those who have harshly treated His people. May be a reference to the pharaoh that ruled over Israel in the time of Moses, that he in fact was an Assyrian, who knew not of Joseph and his descendants and how Egypt prospered because of their influence. See Ex 1:8

Isa 52:5

Isa 52:5 - they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD - See Ex 1:13, 14

Isa 52:5

Isa 52:5 - my name continually every day is blasphemed - The daily (paganism), is that which blasphemed God's name before the rise of the second desolator, Papalism. See Eze 36:19, 20; 20:14; Rom 2:24; Dan 8:

Isa 52:6

Isa 52:6 - Therefore my people shall know my name - When God restores the breach among His people and brings them back from their captivity to sin, and cause them to live in righteousness then shall they know the character (name) of God. See Eze 37:3-6

Isa 52:7

Isa 52:7 - feet of him that bringeth good tidings - Those faithful watchmen and messengers that bring good news of salvation. See Rom 10:13-15; Eph 6:15

Isa 52:7

Isa 52:7 - good tidings - the good news of Salvation founded in the gospel of Jesus Christ -

See Isa 40:9, 57:19, 62:1; Mt 2:1-12; Lk 2:8-20; Mt 5:5; Nah 1:15

Isa 52:8

Isa 52:8 - Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice - God is calling SDA's to be watchmen in the world. See Isa 58:1

Isa 52:8

Isa 52:8 - with the voice together shall they sing - the watchmen will sing with one accord. They have a common message (the 3 Angel's Messages) and are in alignment, unified, brought together as a body. See Eze 37:4-6; Rom 15:5, 6 The Lord in His wisdom has arranged that by means of the close relationship that should be maintained by all believers, Christian shall be united to Christian and church to church. Thus the human instrumentality will be enabled to co-operate with the divine. Every agency will be subordinate to the Holy Spirit, and all the believers will be united in an organized and well-directed effort to give to the world the glad tidings of the grace of God. - {AA 164.1}

Isa 52:8

Isa 52:8 - they shall see eye to eye - the messengers of the Lord will be on one accord, and will have a common understanding of God's great love and salvation in Jesus Christ (Eph 4:11-13). They will give the trumpet a distinct sound that proclaims the salvation of the Lord. Those who God gathers in at the 11th hour will also receive God's message in its entirety as they receive the early and the latter rain in the first month. See Joe 2:23; Jer 32:38-40; Zeph 3:9; Act 2:1

Isa 52:10

Isa 52:10 - The Lord hath made bear His holy Arm - God has rolled up His sleeves (for work) and exposed/revealed His Holy Arm, Jesus Christ to all the nations. Jesus has become Immanuel, God with us and become married to humanity. God has revealed His holiness and glory to the world in the person of His Son. God's eternal love has been exposed as Jesus was lifted up in shame and contempt to redeem mankind. See Ps 19:3, 4, 126; Isa 53:1; 51:9; 62:8, 59:16

Isa 52:11

Isa 52:11 - Depart ye, depart ye - Babylon is fallen is fallen is paralleled - Rev 14:8; 18:2

Isa 52:12 - for the LORD will go before you - See Ex 33:12-14

Isa 52:12

Isa 52:12 - and the God of Israel will be your reward - our rear Guard. See Isa 58:8; Ex 14:19, 20

Isa 52:13

Isa 52:13 - he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high - Jesus must be glorified before the world. See Joh 12:32

Isa 52:14

Isa 52:14 - his visage was so marred more than any man - See Isa 50:6; 53:5 The first impulse of the disciples was to go to Him; but He had bidden them tarry there, watching unto prayer. When Jesus came to them, He found them still sleeping. Again He had felt a longing for companionship, for some words from His disciples which would bring relief, and break the spell of darkness that well-nigh overpowered Him. But their eyes were heavy; "neither wist they what to answer Him." His presence aroused them. They saw His face marked with the bloody sweat of agony, and they were filled with fear. His anguish of mind they could not understand. "His visage was so marred more than any man, and His form more than the sons of men." Isa 52:14. - {DA 690.1}

Isa 52:14

Isa 52:14 - and his form more than the sons of men - Jesus' true form was that of the divine. Yet, He humbled Himself and took on the form of a mere mortal man. His former form He has relinquished forever, never again will He appear in the form of God. See Philippians 2:8

Isa 52:15

Isa 52:15 - So shall he sprinkle many nations - the cleansing stream. See Eze 36:24, 25; Heb 10:22; Eph 5:26; Ex 24:8; Eze 36:25

Isa 52:15 - kings shall shut their mouths at him - See Rev 21:24

Isa 52:15

Isa 52:15 - for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider - See Rom 15:21

Isa 53:1

Isa 53:1 - Who hath believed our report? God the Father asks the Lord Jesus Christ and the Spirit, "who has taken to heart Our counsels and Our eternal purposes to save mankind? Who has considered God's Everlasting Covenant and the cost involved in redeeming humanity?". Who would receive The BRANCH when He appears? The response is only but a few, a remnant, who will see with their eyes, hear with their ears, and perceive and understand with their hearts. See Joh 3:32, 5:24, 12:38-40; Isa 6:9, 10; Zech 6:12, 13; 1Tim 3:16

Isa 53:1

Isa 53:1 - to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed? - The question is asked, to whom has God revealed His glorious Son to? The Arm of the Lord, Jesus, The Gospel (LOGOS) in the Flesh, must be revealed to men through the preaching, hearing and demonstration of the power of the Word of God. This hidden knowledge of God was a mystery, held from the foundation of the world - See 1Cor 2:7, 8; Isa 52:10; Rom 10:14-17; Joh 6:44, 37, 65; 1Tim 3:16; Deut 29:4 The "arm of the LORD" may also signify the strength, will and purposes of the LORD. The Holy Spirit, that knows the mind of God has made manifest God's eternal purposes through the prophets to the children of light. See 1Cor 2:6-14; 1Thess 5:1-6; Rev 10:7

Isa 53:1

Isa 53:1 - arm of the LORD - Jesus, the wisdom, image; power and strength of God. See Isa 51:9, 52:10; Ex 6:6; Deut 26:8; Mt 12:24

Isa 53:2

Isa 53:2 - For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him - God did not desire that Jesus be physically attractive as He would be loved and admired for the wrong reasons. God desired that man recognize the superior character and love in the heart of Jesus. See 1Sam 16:7

Isa 53:2

Isa 53:2 - root out of dry ground - Jesus' attraction superseded natural appearance and beauty but was born of the abounding love of God.

Isa 53:2

Isa 53:2 - there is no beauty that we should desire him - See 1Sam 16:7; Joh 6:44

Isa 53:3

Isa 53:3 - despised and rejected of men - See Isa 49:7-10; Ps 22:6; Isa 49:4, 7; Joh 1:11, 8:19, 41;

Isa 53:3

Isa 53:3 - A man of sorrows - See Joh 11:35; Ps 69:19, 20

Isa 53:3

Isa 53:3 - we hid as it were our faces from Him - men had no desire for the light that Jesus emanated because their sins and deeds were evil. Men loved darkness more than light and therefore rejected the Sun of Righteousness! See Joh 1:4, 5; 3:19-21; Mal 4:2

Isa 53:4

Isa 53:4 - He hath born our grief - See Gal 3:13; Mt 8:17 In taking upon Himself man's nature in its fallen condition, Christ did not in the least participate in its sin. He was subject to the infirmities and weaknesses by which man is encompassed, "that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.” He was touched with the feeling of our infirmities, and was in all points tempted like as we are. And yet He “knew no sin.” He was the lamb “without blemish and without spot.” Could Satan in the least particular have tempted Christ to sin, he would have bruised the Saviour’s head. As it was, he could only touch His heel. Had the head of Christ been touched, the hope of the human race would have perished. Divine wrath would have come upon Christ as it came upon Adam. Christ and the church would have been without hope. - {5BC 1131.3}

Isa 53:4 - carried our sorrow - the pains and lamentations of the world were borne by Jesus. He understood the human anguish first hand and bore the pain and reproach we endure. See Heb 2:14-18

Isa 53:4

Isa 53:4 - smitten of God - As the substitute and surety for sinful man, Christ was to suffer under divine justice. He was to understand what justice meant. He was to know what it means for sinners to stand before God without an intercessor. Through the psalmist the Redeemer had prophesied of Himself: - {PK 691.4} “Reproach hath broken My heart; And I am full of heaviness: And I looked for some to take pity, But there was none; And for comforters, But I found none. They gave Me also gall for My meat; And in My thirst they gave Me vinegar to drink.” - {PK 691.5} Ps 69:20, 21. See also Zech 13:7

Isa 53:5 - He was wounded for our transgressions - Isa 52:14

Isa 53:5

Isa 53:5 - with His stripes we are healed - Jesus, by His suffering and death have healed our sin-sick souls. He has reconciled us to the Father, broken the shackles and fetters of sin, abolished the condemnation that weighed us down and conquered the grave. See Isa 50:6; 1Pet 2:24

Isa 53:10

Isa 53:10 - thou shalt make His soul an offering for sin - See Eph 5:2; Joh 1:29, 6:38-40; 2Cor 5:21; Heb 9:28 Upon Christ as our substitute and surety was laid the iniquity of us all. He was counted a transgressor, that He might redeem us from the condemnation of the law. The guilt of every descendant of Adam was pressing upon His heart. The wrath of God against sin, the terrible manifestation of His displeasure because of iniquity, filled the soul of His Son with consternation. All His life Christ had been publishing to a fallen world the good news of the Father's mercy and pardoning love. Salvation for the chief of sinners was His theme. But now with the terrible weight of guilt He bears, He cannot see the Father's reconciling face. The withdrawal of the divine countenance from the Saviour in this hour of supreme anguish pierced His heart with a sorrow that can never be fully understood by man. So great was this agony that His physical pain was hardly felt. - {DA 753.1}

Isa 53:11

Isa 53:11 - He shall see the travail of His soul and be satisfied - See Heb 12:2 But Jesus bade His followers take up the cross and bear it after Him. To the disciples His words, though dimly comprehended, pointed to their submission to the most bitter humiliation,— submission even unto death for the sake of Christ. No more complete self-surrender could the Saviour's words have pictured. But all this He had accepted for them. Jesus did not count heaven a place to be desired while we were lost. He left the heavenly courts for a life of reproach and insult, and a death of shame. He who was rich in heaven's priceless treasure, became poor, that through His poverty we might be rich. We are to follow in the path He trod. - {DA 416.3}

Isa 53:11 - for he shall bear their iniquities - the LORD has laid on Jesus the iniquities of us all. See Ps 40:12; Isa 53:6

Isa 53:12

Isa 53:12 - He was numbered with the transgressors - See Isa 53:9; Mt 27:38; Mk 15:27, 28

Isa 53:12

Isa 53:12 - He bare the sin of many - Joh 1:29

Isa 53:12

Isa 53:12 - made intercession for the transgressors - See Heb 7:25

Isa 54:1

Isa 54:1-4 - Sing O barren - God calls those who have been reproached or shamed by never marrying or bearing children to rejoice, have mirth because he will turn their sorrow into joy. God is a loving and compassionate God that hears the sorrows of all His children. He assures them that their inheritance and offspring will be among the Gentiles, as they win souls for His kingdom. See Ps 68:6; Gal 4:27

Isa 54:1

Isa 54:1 - for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD - the widow or barren woman is to become a mother in Zion to the oppressed, the orphans, the neglected and the outcaste. Her field of ministry is broader than those who are married and have their own family to maintain - See 1Tim 5:10; Isa 58:8-10;

Isa 54:2

Isa 54:2 - the woman that has not had biological children should stretch forth her tents to welcome all the children who have no mothers, who are neglected and in want in order that she may become a mother to them. In so doing she will make an inheritance and posterity for herself. This is the will of God.

Isa 54:5

Isa 54:5 - thy Maker is thy Husband - the Lord has wedded all who are not married. See Isa 62:5; Jer 31:32; Hos 2:19, 20

Isa 54:6

Isa 54:6 - For the LORD hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God - God calls His daughters who have been scorned, passed-over, rejected, and forsaken as His own bride. See Isa 54:5

Isa 54:7

Isa 54:7 - For a small moment have I forsaken thee - Perhaps a foreshadowing of the forsaking and wrath towards Jesus on the cross to redeem humanity. See Mt 27:46; Lamentation 3:3; Mk 15:34; Ps 22:19-21, 89:46, 47; 2Cor 4:17 Jesus tread the winepress of God alone: Isa 63:1-3 But God suffered with His Son. Angels beheld the Saviour's agony. They saw their Lord enclosed by legions of satanic forces, His nature weighed down with a shuddering, mysterious dread. There was silence in heaven. No harp was touched. Could mortals have viewed the amazement of the angelic host as in silent grief they watched the Father separating His beams of light, love, and glory from His beloved Son, they would better understand how offensive in His sight is sin. - {DA 693.2} His love, he has shown, was stronger than death. He was accomplishing man's salvation; and although he had the most fearful conflict with the powers of darkness, yet amid it all, his love decreased not, but grew stronger and stronger. He endured the hidings of his Father's countenance, until he was led to exclaim, in the bitterness of his soul, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" His arm brought salvation. The price was paid to purchase the redemption of man, when, in the last soul-struggle, the blessed words were uttered, which seemed to resound through creation, "It is finished." - {PH169 12.3} Upon Christ as our substitute and surety was laid the iniquity of us all. He was counted a transgressor, that He might redeem us from the condemnation of the law. The guilt of every descendant of Adam was pressing upon His heart. The wrath of God against sin, the terrible manifestation of His displeasure because of iniquity, filled the soul of His Son with consternation. All His life Christ had been publishing to a fallen world the good news of the Father's mercy and pardoning love. Salvation for the chief of sinners was His theme. But now with the terrible weight of guilt He bears, He cannot see the Father's reconciling face. The withdrawal of the divine countenance from the Saviour in this hour of supreme anguish pierced His heart with a sorrow that can never be fully understood by man. So great was this agony that His physical pain was hardly felt. - {DA 753.1}

Isa 54:7

Isa 54:7 - but with great mercies will I gather thee - See Eze 36:24-28; Ps 85:10; Lam 3:32, 33

Isa 54:8

Isa 54:8 - In a little wrath I hid my face from thee - See Isa 53:10, 4, 5; Ps 27:9 Jesus tread the winepress of God alone: Isa 63:1-3 But God suffered with His Son. Angels beheld the Saviour's agony. They saw their Lord enclosed by legions of satanic forces, His nature weighed down with a shuddering, mysterious dread. There was silence in heaven. No harp was touched. Could mortals have viewed the amazement of the angelic host as in silent grief they watched the Father separating His beams of light, love, and glory from His beloved Son, they would better understand how offensive in His sight is sin. - {DA 693.2} Some have limited views of the atonement. They think that Christ suffered only a small portion of the penalty of the law of God, and that while the wrath of God was felt by his dear Son, they suppose that he had, through all his painful sufferings, an evidence of his Father's love and acceptance, and that the portals of the tomb before him were illuminated with bright hope that he had the abiding evidence of his future glory. Here is a great mistake. Christ's keenest anguish was a sense of his Father's displeasure. His mental agony, because of this, was of such intensity that man can have but faint conception of it. - {PH169 14.2}

Isa 54:9

Isa 54:9, 10 - For this is as the waters of Noah unto Me - God has sworn and will not go back on His word that He will save and redeem His people and remember their sins no more. God's covenant of peace will show mercy to His people. Gen 3:15, 9:11-15; Ps 104:9

Isa 54:9

Isa 54:9 - so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee - See Jer 31:36, 37

Isa 54:10

Isa 54:10 - For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee - See Isa 49:15, 16

Isa 54:10

Isa 54:10 - covenant of my peace - As an eternal High Priest, Jesus' priesthood has no beginning and will never end so that those who have sought refuge in His kingdom of Grace and Glory (City of Refuge) need not fear of retribution. As He has died for the sins of the people, the charges of those once guilty have been expunged (Num 35:10-34). See Zech 6:13; Eze 37:26-28; Col 1:19, 20; Eph 2:14; Ps 85:10

Isa 54:11

Isa 54:11 - I will lay thy stones with fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires - The inheritance of the righteous who were once afflicted will be heavenly Jerusalem, whose foundations are made of precious stones. See Rev 21:19, 20

Isa 54:13

Isa 54:13 - And all thy children shall be taught of the LORD - See Joh 6:45

Isa 54:14

Isa 54:14 - In righteousness shalt thou be established - See Isa 32:17

Isa 54:14

Isa 54:14 - thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear- See Isa 27:1-3; Heb 13:6; {FLB 347 - December 7}

Isa 54:14

Isa 54:14 - and from terror; for it shall not come nigh thee - See Ps 91:5-7

Isa 54:15

Isa 54:15 - Behold, they shall surely gather together - a confederacy shall not prosper against God's people. See Isa 8:12-14; Ps 2:1-5

Isa 54:15

Isa 54:15 - whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for they sake - See Isa 37:36, 37; Ps 91:7, 27:2

Isa 54:16

Isa 54:16 - Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire - God creates all men, even men of war and their weapons of destruction. He orders them and directs them according to His will. When they are outside of His will and seek to persecute the apple of His eye (Deut 32:10; Ps 17:8; Zech 2:8), they shall be destroyed. See Jer 51:11

Isa 54:17

Isa 54:17 - No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn - See Num 23:20, 23; Ps 2:1-4; Isa 10:1, 54:15

Isa 54:17

Isa 54:17 - shall prosper - is not saying that the enemies weapons will not reach us or harm us, but will not destroy us. God places a limit to the enemies temptations and efforts. See Job 1:12, 2:6; 1Cor 10:13; Deut 20:4; 1Cor 15:57, 58

Isa 54:17

Isa 54:17 - every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn - the righteous will sit with Jesus in judgment and condemn all who have spoken against the Lord and His anointed. See Ps 2:1, 2; Rev 20:4; Mt 19:28; Lk 22:30

Isa 54:17

Isa 54:17 - their righteousness is of Me, saith the LORD - God's servants will be covered in Christ's righteousness, not boasting of any of their own righteousness which is as filthy rags (Isa 64:6). See Phil 3:9; Jer 23:5, 6, 51:10; Zech 3:4, 5

Isa 55:1

Isa 55:1 - everyone that thirsteth - those who hunger and thirst for righteousness will be filled. See Mt 5:6; Joh 7:37; Ps 42:1 The same divine mind that is working upon the things of nature is speaking to the hearts of men and creating an inexpressible craving for something they have not. The things of the world cannot satisfy their longing. The Spirit of God is pleading with them to seek for those things that alone can give peace and rest—the grace of Christ, the joy of holiness. Through influences seen and unseen, our Saviour is constantly at work to attract the minds of men from the unsatisfying pleasures of sin to the infinite blessings that may be theirs in Him. To all these souls, who are vainly seeking to drink from the broken cisterns of this world, the divine message is addressed, “Let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.” Revelation 22:17. - {SC 28.1}

Isa 55:1

Isa 55:1 - come ye - the invitation to “come ye” is straight from the heart of God! “Come”: Rev 22:17 Isa 1:18, 19 Mt 11:28-30

Isa 55:1

Isa 55:1 - hath no money - no goodness, no righteousness, nothing to recommend him to God

Isa 55:1

Isa 55:1 - come ye, buy, and eat - See Rev 3:18

Isa 55:1

Isa 55:1 - wine - symbolic of the pure blood of Jesus Christ which cleanses one's sins and makes atonement for sins. Mt 26:28; Mk 14:24; 1Cor 11:25; Rev 7:14; Isa 65:8

Isa 55:1

Isa 55:1 - milk - symbolizes the pure word of truth.

Isa 55:2

Isa 55:2 - wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread - That which does not nourish the soul, the Bread of Life. See Mt 6:31; Joh 6:11-51

Isa 55:2

Isa 55:2 - your labour for that which satisfieth not - labors in self, self-righteousness, self-seeking or work to earn salvation (Old Covenant).

Isa 55:2

Isa 55:2 - and eat ye that which is good - See Joh 6:51; Isa 7:15; Prov 24:13, 25:16, 27

Isa 55:3

Isa 55:3 - incline your ear... hear - See Isa 28:12; Rom 10:17

Isa 55:3

Isa 55:3 - everlasting covenant - See Gen 3:15; Eze 37:26; Ex 19:3-6

Isa 55:3

Isa 55:4 - even the sure mercies of David - A King would reign on the throne of David and would reign in righteousness, govern with grace and mercy, and God would never take His mercy away from Him. 1Chron 17:13; Jer 23:5, 6; 2Sam 22:51

Isa 55:4

Isa 55:4 - given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people - See Eze 37:24-26; Joh 14:9-11

Isa 55:5 - thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not - See Zech 8:23; I

Isa 55:5

Isa 55:5 - run unto thee because of the LORD thy God - See Isa 56:3-8; 49:6; 42:6; 60:4-11

Isa 55:5

Isa 55:4 - he hath glorified thee - See Eze 36:23; Isa 60:1-3

Isa 55:6

Isa 55:6 - Seek ye the Lord - "Seek" [Heb - darash] means to "pay attention to" or "inquire of".

In other words we are to recognize, and pay attention to the Lord Who has drawn near to us to save us. See Ps 32:6, 95:7, 8; Jam 4:8; 2Cor 6:2; Rev 3:20

Isa 55:6

Isa 55:6 - call ye upon him while he is near - we need to seek the Lord while we have the opportunity to and we do not permit life and its challenges to distract, obscure or occlude our view of God. We may become so absorbed with "life" and the world that even though God is near, we can not sense Him. We must respond when the Holy Spirit of God is knocking at our hearts, lest we become desensitized to His promptings, leadings and we assume the mind of a reprobate.

Isa 55:7

Isa 55:7 - Let the wicked forsake his ways - See Eze 18:32; 33:11-20; Isa 44:22

Isa 55:8

Isa 55:8 - for my thoughts are not your thoughts - See Lk 16:15; 1Cor 2:11-16; Joh 8:15, 16; Jer 29:11

Isa 55:9

Isa 55:9 - For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts - See Ps 94:11, 139:6, 147:5; Rom 11:33-36; 1Cor 1:25, 3:19; Lk 22:22-26; Mt 18:2-4 God is Sovereign and His words carry both the power and life needed to accomplish that which He purposes. As man is bounded by time and God is eternal, what God speaks may not have immediate effect, or it may not even be revealed in our time. Yet, because He is God, the Eternal One, He has all power, and all time, to see what He says to its fulfillment. These thoughts point us to Rom 4:17, which states that "God calls those things that are not as though they were", meaning, God speaks of things that are to be, although they do not exist in the present. This is most clearly seen in Bible prophecy, an amazing dimension of God's glory. These verses also highlight the futility of man's wisdom, our arrogance, and our vanity. Many Biblical "scholars" attempt to analyze God's written Word with a critical eye (Higher Criticism), suggesting that some parts are inspired and others are not, some are revelations from God, others are mere cultural/epochal/social matters etc., not to be given much regard. This is all foolishness, as Scripture clearly states that ALL Scripture is given by inspiration of God (2Tim 3:16). It is not for us, with our minds steeped in pride and self-exaltation, to try to dissect, critique, or make a value statement of God's holy word, but rather to humbly submit to Him, with child-like faith, asking in humility the Author of Scriptures for wisdom to understand both His meaning and how He would have us apply those truths to our lives. God is Spiritual, we are carnal. God's word is DEEP, and has layers of truth that we can never fully mine with our carnal minds.

Isa 55:10

Isa 55:10 - for as the rain cometh down from heaven... watereth the earth and maketh it bring forth and bud - the early and latter rains. See Isa 27:8; Lk 21:29, 30; Jam 5:7

Isa 55:11

Isa 55:11 - so shall my words that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void - God's words are established because they are founded in truth and righteousness. See Rev 3:14; Ps 12:6, 7, 89:34, 107:20, 119:89; Phil 1:6; Gen 28:15; 2Tim 3:16, 17; Joshua 21:45; Zech 1:6; Num 23:19; Isa 14:24, 45:23, 58:14, 46:11; Jer 44:28

Isa 55:12

Isa 55:12 - the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands - all of heaven and earth rejoice for the redemption of the sons of men. God is showing the effects of righteousness, joy, peace, quietness and assurance. See Rom 8:19; Isa 33:17

Isa 55:13

Isa 55:13 - Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree - We will be trees of righteousness unto the LORD and no briars and thorns shall be among us. God is declaring the restoration and redemption of things. See Isa 61:3

Isa 55:13

Isa 55:13 - and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off - Our redemption, our glorified characters will be an eternal token of God's goodness, righteousness, love and mercy. See Isa 56:5

Isa 56:1

Isa 56:1 - Keep ye judgment, and do justice - See Prov 21:3, 15; Mic 6:8

Isa 56:1

Isa 56:1 - for my salvation is near to come - God's kingdom is close at hand and He will finish the work in righteousness. We must do justly, love mercy and walk humbly with our God. The words of warning/counsel echo the First Angel's message to Fear God and give glory to Him for the hour of His judgment is come. See Mic 6:8; Rev 14:7; Isa 51:5

Isa 56:1

Isa 56:1 - and my righteousness to be revealed - See Jer 23:5, 6; Isa 60:1-3; Rev 18:1

Isa 56:2 - keepeth the sabbath from polluting it - keeping the sabbath is associated with judgment, justice and God's righteousness. See Isa 58:13, 14

Isa 56:2

Isa 56:2 - keepeth his hand from doing any evil - Those who have clean hands and a pure heart; those who have not accepted bribes. See Ps 24:3, 4; Isa 33:15-17

Isa 56:3

Isa 56:3 - neither let the son of the stranger... neither let the eunuch - See Jer 49:6; Josh 6:25 [Mt 15:22-28] This act opened the minds of the disciples more fully to the labor that lay before them among the Gentiles. They saw a wide field of usefulness outside of Judea. They saw souls bearing sorrows unknown to those more highly favored. Among those whom they had been taught to despise were souls longing for help from the mighty Healer, hungering for the light of truth, which had been so abundantly given to the Jews. - {DA 402.4}

Isa 56:3

Isa 56:3 - The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people - the lamentation of the the stranger, spoken erroneously because they had not been informed of the love of God is a rebuke to the COI. Their pride and arrogance that shut up heaven's blessings from the nations, both misrepresented God and caused many to perish in ignorance. See Dan 2:10, 11; 2 Kings 20:1-19

Isa 56:3

Isa 56:3 - Behold, I am a dry tree - by virtue of being made a eunuch, the individual can not reproduce and has no seed.

Isa 56:6 - every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it - See Isa 56:2, 58:13

Isa 56:6

Isa 56:6 - take hold of my covenant - everlasting covenant. See Gen 3:15; Isa 55:3; Eze 37:26; Judges 2:1 Jacob knows now that it is the Angel of the covenant with whom he has been in conflict. Though disabled, and suffering the keenest pain, he does not relinquish his purpose. Long has he endured perplexity, remorse, and trouble for his sin; now he must have the assurance that it is pardoned. The divine visitant seems about to depart; but Jacob clings to him, pleading for a blessing. The Angel urges, "Let me go; for the day breaketh;" but the patriarch exclaims, "I will not let thee go, except thou bless me." What confidence, what firmness and perseverance, are here displayed! Had this been a boastful, presumptuous claim, Jacob would have been instantly destroyed; but his was the assurance of one who confesses his weakness and unworthiness, yet trusts the mercy of a covenant-keeping God. - {GC88 616.3}

Isa 56:7

Isa 56:7 - even them will I bring to my holy mountain - The LORD will make them a part of the Israel of God. See Dan 11:45; Rev 14:1; Ps 24:3-5; Isa 57:13

Isa 56:7

Isa 56:7 - make them joyful in my house of prayer - See 1Tim 3:15

Isa 56:7

Isa 56:7 - their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar - God will accept the burnt offerings and sacrifices of the stranger that has joined themselves to the LORD, provided they have not blemish as the eunuch, who by a statute given by the LORD is forbidden to offer sacrifices to the LORD. See Mal 3:2-4; Lev 21:17-23

Isa 56:7

Isa 56:7 - mine house shall be called a house of prayer for all people - God's eternal purpose was to gather all nations unto Himself. This purpose was perverted by the selfishness of Israel (Eph 1:9, Israel was to be a light to the world, salt to the earth and dew upon many lands, yet they failed in their calling. Isa 57:9 - debase thyself even unto hell - See Isa 28:14, 15

Isa 57:10

Isa 57:10 - Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved - men find themselves in straits because of their sins and yet remain unrepentant, unmindful of their desperate situation.

Isa 57:11

Isa 57:11 - and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? - See Jer 2:5, 6

Isa 57:12

Isa 57:12 - I will declare thy righteousness and thy works; for they shall not profit thee - self-righteousness, pride, will not profit anyone in judgment. See Isa 28:17, 64:6; John 6:63; Tit 3:5; Ezek 33:13 CONTRAST Heb 6:10

Isa 57:13

Isa 57:13 - he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain - my holy mountain [New Jerusalem] - See Isa 28:16; 66:22, 56:1-7

Isa 57:14

Isa 57:14 - Cast ye up, cast ye up - stir up, stir up or raise-up, raise-up. See Isa 57:20; Hos 10:12

Isa 57:14

Isa 57:14 - prepare the way - the Old Paths, paths of the just - Jer 6:16, 17; Isa 58:12; Prov 4:18

Isa 57:15

Isa 57:15 - For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones - The Lord is showing that He has always dwelt among His people, on the earthly Mt Zion and in the heavenly Mt Zion. More so, He dwells in the sanctuary of the heart, in the present, with those of a humble and contrite heart. God is not a God afar away but near at hand. See Ps 138:6, 34:18; Jam 4:6; 1Pet 5:5; Mt 5:3, 5, 6; Jer 23:23

Isa 57:15

Isa 57:15 - Whose name is Holy - See Isa 42:8; Ps 111:9; Mt 6:9

Isa 57:15

Isa 57:15 - I dwell in the high and holy place - God dwells in heaven above, but also desires to dwell here with us, in our hearts. See Jer 23:23, 31:31-34; Heb 1:3, 9:6-8

Isa 57:15

Isa 57:15 - with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit - God not only dwells in heaven but with them of a contrite and humble spirit. This has been what the Lord has sought to convey from the beginning, that He is a God near at hand and not a God afar off. See Lk 14:11, 17:20, 21; Isa 66:2; Mt 5:3; Ex 33:16; Joh 15: 1-5, 7, 8; Ps 34:18, 51:17, 119:141, 138:6; Prov 16:19; 1Pet 5:5; 2Kin 22:11, 19 This means that your experience from first to last is to be yoked up with Christ. Learning the lessons of meekness and lowliness of heart makes you a partaker of Christ's sufferings and appreciative of the virtues of the life of Christ. - {HP 220.2} The fanaticism was checked for a time; but several years later it broke out with greater violence and more terrible results. Said Luther, concerning the leaders in this movement: "To them the Holy Scriptures were but a dead letter, and they all began to cry, 'The Spirit! the Spirit!' But most assuredly I will not follow where their spirit leads them. May God of His mercy preserve me from a church in which there are none but saints. I desire to dwell with the humble, the feeble, the sick, who know and feel their sins, and who groan and cry continually to God from the bottom of their hearts to obtain His consolation and support."—Ibid., b. 10, ch. 10. - {GC 190.4}

Isa 57:15

Isa 57:15 - contrite - Literally, worn or bruised. Hence, broken-hearted for sin; deeply affected with grief and sorrow for having offended God; humble; penitent; as a contrite sinner - See Mt 5:3; Ps 51:17

Isa 57:15

Isa 57:15 - and to revive the heart of the contrite ones - God revives the hearts of those who humbly repent, bringing a blessing of grace and mercy with Him.

Isa 57:16

Isa 57:16 - For I will not contend for ever - God's anger will not prevail for ever towards His people but He will show mercy, loving kindness and tender mercies. See Ps 51:1, 22, 23; Isa 28:23-29

Isa 57:16

Isa 57:16 - for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made - If God's mercies should cease, we would be consumed. See Mal 3:6; Lam 3:22

Isa 57:17

Isa 57:17 - for the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him - covetousness is idolatry - See Col 3:5; Ex 20:2-7; Jer 31:19; 1Cor 10:21, 22

Isa 57:17

Isa 57:17 - I hid me, and was wroth - God will go silent with us until we come to our senses and repent after turning away from Him.

Isa 57:17

Isa 57:17 - he went on frowardly in the way of his heart - See Eccl 8:11

Isa 57:18

Isa 57:18 - I have seen his ways, and will heal him - See Jer 31:20

Isa 57:18

Isa 57:18 - I will lead him also - See Ps 23, 32:8

Isa 57:18

Isa 57:18 - and restore comforts unto him and to his mourners - See Isa 57:15; Ps 51:12

Isa 57:19

Isa 57:19 - I create the fruit of the lips - comforting words, the sacrifice of joy and praise is the fruit of our lips that we offer to the LORD and bless others by. See Isa 52:7, 40:9; Heb 13:15; Ps 27:6, 81:10; Jer 1:9, 10

Isa 57:19

Isa 57:19 - Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD - See Isa 33:17

Isa 57:20

Isa 57:20 - wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest - there is no rest nor refreshing for the wicked. The wicked will not partake of the Latter Rain. See Dan 12:10; Act 3:19

Isa 57:20

Isa 57:20 - whose waters cast up mire and dirt - waters stir up mire and dirt

Isa 57:21

Isa 57:21 - there is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked - the wicked have no peace because they despise the Law of God. See Ps 119:165; Job 14:1 Contrast Isa 32:17; Isa 48:22

Isa 58:1

Isa 58:1 - Cry aloud, spare not 2 - Isa is likened to a watchman (Isa 52:8) who sits on the wall of the city and gives warning of impending danger. The watchman must give a distinct sound to warn the people of their peril, lest they perish in their sins and their blood be upon the hands of the watchman. See Eze 2:3-6; 3:1-7, 16-21; Isa 62:6; Joel 2:1; Mic 3:8

Isa 58:1

Isa 58:1 - lift up thy voice like a trumpet - God sends His messengers to give the people a distinct message for their time, yet they would not hear. See Jer 6:16, 17

Isa 58:1

Isa 58:1 - shew my people their transgressions - the work of the prophet was to reveal God's counsels and sentiments towards His people to them. Those who profess to be followers of Christ, should be living agencies, co-operating with heavenly intelligences; but by union with the world, the character of God's people becomes tarnished, and through amalgamation with the corrupt [the mystery of iniquity], the fine gold becomes dim. When worldly agencies are introduced into the church, it is evident that Satan is carrying out his devices, working through those who profess to be followers of Christ, making them ready at any time to engage with him in disheartening and discouraging those who are faithful, who would stand wholly on the Lord's side. - {RH August 23, 1892 Par. 3}

Isa 58:2

Isa 58:2 - seek me daily, delight to know my ways - the people delight in a knowledge of God and in seeking Him and crying out to Him but their hearts are far away. They are as the foolish virgins that take their lamps (the Bible), yet have no oil (Spirit of God that comes through surrender and contrition). See Ezek 33:30-33; Isa 29:13; 48:1; Mt 25:2, 3; Rom 10:3; Jer 12:2; Zech 11:4, 5; Prov 21:27; Mic 3:9-11

Isa 58:2

Isa 58:2 - delight to know my ways - See Jer 6:16, 17; 42:3, 18-22; 43:1-7; Eze 33:30-32;

Isa 58:2

Isa 58:2 - As a nation that did righteousness - See Isa 57:12; 28:17

Isa 58:2

Isa 58:2 - ask of me the ordinances of justice - they ask God to reveal His will (Gen 18:19) [the straight paths and old ways - Jer 6:16] so that they may do it but yet they do it not. They inquire, "what is the fair, reasonable, equitable, just" way, and yet do it not. See Jer 42:5, 6, 13, 20 As they departed from God, the Jews in a great degree lost sight of the teaching of the ritual service. That service had been instituted by Christ Himself. In every part it was a symbol of Him; and it had been full of vitality and spiritual beauty. But the Jews lost the spiritual life from their ceremonies, and clung to the dead forms. They trusted to the sacrifices and ordinances themselves, instead of resting upon Him to whom they pointed. In order to supply the place of that which they had lost, the priests and rabbis multiplied requirements of their own; and the more rigid they grew, the less of the love of God was manifested. They measured their holiness by the multitude of their ceremonies, while their hearts were filled with pride and hypocrisy. - {DA 29.2}

Isa 58:3

Isa 58:3 - wherefore have we fasted... wherefore have we afflicted our soul - the language suggests ones living during the Day of Atonement when fasting, prayer, supplications and affliction of soul were to be rendered. However, their proud questioning of God demonstrates their contrary, unconsecrated spirit. See Mal 3:13-15; Lev 16:29, 30 ; Joel 2:12, 13; Jer 36:6; Zech 7:1-7

Isa 58:3

Isa 58:3 - thou seest not? - The people in self righteousness and pride question Why they fast and God still does not answer their prayers. Theirs is a religion of forms and works only, lacking true heart conversion to do the will of God. As rebellious and ungrateful Laodiceans in the time of Mal, they question God's faithfulness while robbing God of the fruit of their lips (praises) that He rightly deserves (Mal 1:1, 2, 6; 3:6, 7, 8, 13, 14). See Isa 1:1-15 Quite contrary to their statement of God not seeing, He declares the following: Jer 16:17, 18 - For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes. And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable things.

Isa 58:3

Isa 58:3 - day of your fast - See Zech 7:5-13 below: 5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me? 6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? 7 Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited the south and the plain? 8 And the word of the LORD came unto Zech, saying, 9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother: 10 And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart. 11 But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear. 12 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts. 13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts:

Isa 58:3

Isa 58:3 - ye find pleasure - the fasting of Israel was without contrition and humility. There was no soul searching and emptying of self so that they would grow closer to God and avail themselves instruments to be used to His glory. Rather they found pleasure in copulating. See Gen 18:13; Isa 21:4, 58:13; 1Cor 7:5

Isa 58:3

Isa 58:3 - exact all your laborers - Act harshly towards, demand, withhold good. See: Prov 3:27 - Withhold not good from them to whom its due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do [it]. Lev 19:13 - Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbor, neither rob [him]: the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning. Jer 22:13 - Woe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work; Mal 3:5 - And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts. Jam 5:1-6 - Jam' testimony against the oppressors is given in the time when the husbandman is waiting for the precious fruit of the earth and has long patience for the early and latter rains. TODAY!!

Isa 58:4

Isa 58:4 - fast for strife and debate - while the people are fasting, they exhibit a contentious spirit, full of debate. When they should be exhibiting humility and meekness (Ps 35:13), they strive with their neighbors unjustly. They demonstrate a false piety and zeal for God when oppressing the very people of God. Of such Paul spoke in Rom 1:18, 29, 30; Act 23:14, 21

Isa 58:4

Isa 58:4 - make your voice heard on high - those who lament aloud for show. See Mt 6:5; Mk 12:38-40

Isa 58:5

Isa 58:5 - Is it such a fast - God asks the question if our fasting is that which He finds acceptable? Fasting should be: - A means of cleansing the heart and promoting a receptive frame of mind - The spirit of true fasting and prayer is the spirit which yields mind, heart, and will to God On the contrary, their fasting was not of God's appointment, and therefore entirely unacceptable to Him. They fasted merely to gain favor with God and to secure His approval of their evil deeds, as if abstention from food was of more importance in God's sight than abstention from iniquity! {SDA Bible Commentary vol 4 pg 306}

Isa 58:5

Isa 58:5 - bow down his head as a bulrush and to spread sackcloth and ashes- See Mt 6:16-18

Isa 58:5

Isa 58:5 - spread sackcloth and ashes under him - to wear mourning clothes, demonstrating once again a false humility. See Rev 11:

Isa 58:6

Isa 58:6 - Is not this the fast that I have chosen? - the fast of the Lord, which He would honor is here described.

Isa 58:6

Isa 58:6 - loose the bands of wickedness - The verse highlights the unjust oppression of the downcast and the need to cease from doing wickedness and being unjust. The oppressed have been held captive with bands. The fast of the Lord is to release those who have been unjustly bound.

Isa 58:6

Isa 58:6 - undo heavy burdens - the leadership in their hypocrisy made religion and life a heavy burden. Such were the works of the Pharisees during the time of Christ: Mt 23:1-7 Then spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples, 2 Saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat: 3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not. 4 For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers. 5 But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments, 6 And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, 7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi. Modern "Heavy Burdens" or "yokes": - health reform without compassion (extreme veganism, raw) - dress reform without compassion - Critical attitude towards others - Fanaticism resulting in self-righteousness

Isa 58:6

Isa 58:6 - and that ye break every yoke - See Isa 58:9

Isa 58:7

Isa 58:7 - deal thy bread to the hungry - The COI were to always be reminded of God's graces to them as bondmen in Egypt and His miraculous graces towards them. Therefore they were to be generous and to be a people of compassion towards the poor, stranger, widow and fatherless. See Deut 24:19-22; Mal 3:10, 11 God's Remedy for Selfishness and Covetousness —The giving that is the fruit of self-denial is a wonderful help to the giver. It imparts an education that enables us more fully to comprehend the work of Him who went about doing good, relieving the suffering, and supplying the needs of the destitute. [11] - {AH 370.3} Constant, self-denying benevolence is God's remedy for the cankering sins of selfishness and covetousness. God has arranged systematic benevolence to sustain His cause and relieve the necessities of the suffering and needy.

Isa 58:7

Isa 58:7 - bring the poor - hospitality was to be a characteristic of God's people. The stranger and the "just" poor [those who have fallen on hard times due to unpreventable circumstances versus the squanderers and irresponsible poor] were to be cared for as family. See Lev 19:33, 34; Deut 15:7, 8

Isa 58:7

Isa 58:7 - seest the naked - we are to regard the destitute and naked as our own selves and cover them as we cover ourselves.

Isa 58:8

Isa 58:8 - light break forth as the morning - (fame will break forth) those who take on the Lord's fast of humility, releasing every bond and serving the Lord will shine as the firmament and lead many sons to righteousness. God's light through the Holy Spirit will shine upon and through His people See Mt 5:14-16; Prov 4:18; Phil 2:15; Dan 12:3; Isa 60:2, 57:

Isa 58:8

Isa 58:8 - thine health shall spring forth speedily - true health reform begins when we surrender to God and learn to serve others. While we serve others, God will bring healing to our infirmities. See Mal 4:2; Ps 41:1-3

Isa 58:8

Isa 58:8 - righteousness shall go before thee - the righteousness of the Lord that is imputed and imparted to us shall establish our path. See: Ps 85:9-13 9 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land. 10 Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other. 11 Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven. 12 Yea, the LORD shall give that which is good; and our land shall yield her increase. 13 Righteousness shall go before him; and shall set us in the way of his steps.

Isa 58:8

Isa 58:8 - rereward - the troops in the rear of an army on the march, the rear-guard; God will have your back! - See Ex 14:19, 20; Ps 139:5; Isa 52:12

Isa 58:9

Isa 58:9 - Then shalt thou call and the LORD will answer - See Dan 9:20-23; Isa 65:24

Isa 58:9

Isa 58:9 - thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am - See Ps 27:7

Isa 58:9

Isa 58:9 - If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke - See Isa 58:6

Isa 58:9

Isa 58:9 - putting forth of the finger - pointing the finger in accusation

Isa 58:9

Isa 58:9 - speaking vanity - flattering words; duplicitous, lying talk; hypocrisy; conceiving mischief. See Ps 12:2; Isa 59:4; 2Pet 2:18

Isa 58:10

Isa 58:10 - draw out thy soul - extend oneself in compassion. See Isa 61:1-4 When they were scattered by persecution they went forth filled with missionary zeal. They realized the responsibility of their mission. They knew that they held in their hands the bread of life for a famishing world; and they were constrained by the love of Christ to break this bread to all who were in need. The Lord wrought through them. Wherever they went, the sick were healed and the poor had the gospel preached unto them. - {AA 106.1}

Isa 58:10

Isa 58:10 - light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noonday - We, the wise, will shine as the brightness of the firmament and lead many souls to righteousness (Dan 12:3). See Ps 37:6; Isa 60:1-5

Isa 58:11

Isa 58:11 - the LORD shall guide thee continually - God promised to be our vision to those who put their trust in Him. Ps 32:8

Isa 58:11

Isa 58:11 - satisfy thy soul in drought - God will be a river of life flowing through us during a time of drought. See Hab 3:17-19; Joh 4:14; 7:37, 38; Mt 5:6; Jer 17:7, 8; Ps 1:1-3

Isa 58:11

Isa 58:11 - like a watered garden and a spring of water - the righteous will be as a river that flows in a barren land. All along their boards will be grass, flowers and vegetation. They are as an oasis to the desolations around them and people will flock to their waters and inquire about the water source, Jesus Christ. See Ps 1:1-3; Jer 17:7, 8

Isa 58:12

Isa 58:12 - shall build the old waste places - the language is of those who will return to restore and rebuild Jerusalem and the temple of the Lord. See Isa 61:4; Hag 2:1-9; Zech 1:12-16

Isa 58:12

Isa 58:12-14 - The Old paths (walls and streets) are to be established by the remnant and last generation before the coming of Christ. The commandments of God, or the wall, is to be exalted and established in God's people before the world, reminding them of the allegiance we all have to our Maker and Redeemer. The streets or paths of the just, are found in Christ's imputed and imparted righteousness to be beheld by all as an ensign. The Old Paths for Adventism are found on the two charts (1843 and 1850 charts) that chronicle the prophetic histories of Dan and the Reve, and our Great Commission in the Three Angel's messages. Cross Reference: Isa 61:4 Eze 36:33 Jer 6:16, 17 - Old Paths Ps 16:11 - path of life Dan 9:25 Prov 4:18

Isa 58:12

Isa 58:12 - old - the masculine word [owlam - 05769] meaning CONCEALED. So the old waste places are those things that have been concealed by the traditions of men.

Isa 58:12

Isa 58:12 - waste places - the feminine word [chorbah - 02721] meaning DROUGHT or DESOLATIONS - so those who build the old waste places will uncover the concealed truth of desolations, namely the two desolators, pagan and papal Rome represented by "the daily" and the little horn that was understood by Paul, the Millerites and have been concealed by modern Adventist theologians.

Isa 58:12

Isa 58:12 - raise up the foundations of many generations - See Ps 11:3 those who will be lead by God's Holy Spirit will receive the Latter Rain message and will understand the counsels and foundational truths from past generations as they compare them line-upon-line (they will bind-up [gather and tie together] the testimonies and seal the law in their hearts - Isa 8:16). They will walk in the light of the past and ever increasing present truth (Prov 4:18). I cannot too strongly urge all our church members, all who are true missionaries, all who believe the third angel's message, all who turn away their feet from the Sabbath, to consider the message of the fifty-eighth chapter of Isa. The work of beneficence enjoined in this chapter is the work that God requires His people to do at this time. It is a work of His own appointment. We are not left in doubt as to where the message applies, and the time of its marked fulfillment, for we read: "They that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in." Verse 12. God's memorial, the seventh-day Sabbath, the sign of His work in creating the world, has been displaced by the man of sin. God's people have a special work to do in repairing the breach that has been made in His law; and the nearer we approach the end, the more urgent this work becomes. All who love God will show that they bear His sign by keeping His commandments. They are the restorers of paths to dwell in. The Lord says: "If thou turn away thy foot from the Sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on My holy day; and call the Sabbath a delight, ... then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth." Verses 13, 14. Thus genuine medical missionary work is bound up inseparably with the keeping of God's commandments, of which the Sabbath is especially mentioned, since it is the great memorial of God's creative work. Its observance is bound up with the work of restoring the moral image of God in man. This is the ministry which God's people are to carry forward at this time. This ministry, rightly performed {6T 265.2}

Isa 58:12

Isa 58:12 - foundations of many generations - See Isa 44:27, 28 the 10 Commandments are the foundation of God's government. The foundation of the Sabbath will be reestablished by those who are the repairers of the breach. However, Moses counsels the COI to "Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations: ask thy father, and he will shew thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee." (Deut 32:7) The years of many generations for Modern Adventism is the Millerite Movement when Adventism was in its youth. The elders and father of Adventism is William Miller and the Adventist Pioneers whose ways we must learn and return to. "The law of Ten Commandments, which has been so lightly disregarded, is the foundation of many generations; and no man or body of men has been authorized to set aside, or vary in the slightest particular, one of the ten precepts of Jehovah. God spoke this law from Sinai in awful grandeur, in the hearing of all Israel, and he wrote it with his own fingers upon tables of stone, not for his chosen people only, but for all men, to the close of time. Christ himself declares that while the heavens and the earth remain, not one jot or tittle shall pass from this holy law." Signs of the Times, February 28, 1884. The Ten Commandments are a written transcript of the character of God. Jesus is the Word of God made flesh and is said to be the Foundation of the Jewish economy. Therefore, as we use God's prescribed method of study and understand the foundational truths of the past Bible histories, we will be lifting up Jesus, the Foundation of all Truth! Through the teachings of the sacrificial service, Christ was to be uplifted before all nations, and all who would look to Him should live. Christ was the foundation of the Jewish economy. The whole system of types and symbols was a compacted prophecy of the gospel, a presentation in which were bound up the promises of redemption. - {AA 14.1} "Let none seek to tear away the foundations of our faith,—the foundations that were laid at the beginning of our work, by prayerful study of the Word and by revelation. Upon these foundations we have been building for more than fifty years. Men may suppose that they have found a new way, that they can lay a stronger foundation than that which has been laid; but this is a great deception. 'Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid.' [1Cor 3:11.] In the past, many have undertaken to build a new faith, to establish new principles; but how long did their building stand? It soon fell; for it was not founded upon the Rock." Testimonies, volume 8, 296-297. Prophecy the Foundation of Our Faith—Ministers should present the sure word of prophecy as the foundation of the faith of Seventh-day Adventists. The prophecies of Dan and the Rev should be carefully studied, and in connection with them the words, "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." - {Ev 196.2}

Isa 58:12 - repairer of the breach - Hezekiah typifies those who are repairers of the breach (see 2Chron 29:1-3). Those who heal the breach in Adventism where we have degenerated from the un-reproachable church of Philadelphia to the self-righteous and blind church of Laodicea. See Isa 30:26; Lam 2:13, 14; 1Kin 18:30 The Breach: 1. Books of a new order questioning the Nature of Christ 2. Higher Criticism (Heuristics, Exegesis) as the means to understand the Bible. Exalting man's wisdom and stratifying those who can and can not interpret the Bible (Isa 29:9-12) 3. Spiritual Formation, the doctrine of demons being taught to our future leaders at our institutions (mysticism, prayer labrynth, channeling spirits, being in "god's" presence) 4. Denying the foundations of the faith- 1843/1850 charts; God ordained method of Proof-texting; suggesting that the Advent Movement was in error, rather than seeing a manifestation of the power of God; questioning the light and faith that was once delivered to the saints (Ju 3) 5. The book Questions on Doctrine, which cast our position on faith, the significance of the 10 Commandments for salvation, and our support of the Spirit of Prophecy to the history trash-heap 6. Publicly denying Christ by stating that our belief in the papacy as the Little Horn of Dan 7 and the Beast of Rev 13, the power of antichrist is a thing of the past, cast to the historic trash-heap 7. Questioning the inspiration of the writings of Sister White. Paying no heed to the prophet's counsels as did Ancient Israel. Isa 30:10, 11

Isa 58:12

Isa 58:12 - restorer of paths to dwell in - Those who return to the Old Paths of Adventism based on the two prophetic charts issued in Adventism's youth. See Jer 6:16, 17.

Isa 58:13

Isa 58:13 - turn away thy foot from the sabbath - treading down the Sabbath. See Jer 17:21-27; Ps 41:9; Mt 5:13; Dan 8:13; Isa 56:2, 4, 6

Isa 58:13

Isa 58:13 - doing thy pleasure on My holy day - this includes refraining from copulating. See Isa 58:3, 21:4; Gen 18:12; Jer 17:21, 22; Neh 13:19-22

Isa 58:13

Isa 58:13 - my holy day - See Ex 31:14, 15; Gen 2:2, 3

Isa 58:13

Isa 58:13 - call the Sabbath a delight - our attitude towards the Sabbath will determine if we keep it holy or trample upon the day. We must enter into the rest mentally, spiritually and emotionally by embracing the blessing of God's presence and the time in fellowship with those of like mind. The word delight was used to describe Jesus after the creation, He was "refreshed" (Ex 31:17). See Ps 1:2, 84:10, 119:162; Mk 2:27, 3:1-5; Deut 12:12; Nehemiah 8:10; CONTRAST Am 8:4-6

Isa 58:13

Isa 58:13 - holy of the LORD - the day is holy because God is Holy and He fills the day with His presence. See Isa 57:15, 56:1-8; Gen 2:3

Isa 58:13

Isa 58:13 - shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words - we honor God as we delight ourselves in Him and the things pertaining to His Kingdom. Engaging in personal conversations on matters not related to God dishonors God and His holy presence. See Isa 56:1-8; Jer 17:19-27; Neh 13:16-21; Ex 31:13-18

Isa 58:13

Isa 58:13 - not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure - If we desire the blessing promised to the obedient, we must observe the Sabbath more strictly. I fear that we often travel on this day when it might be avoided. In harmony with the light which the Lord has given in regard to the observance of the Sabbath, we should be more careful about traveling on the boats or cars on this day. In these matters we should set a right example before our children and youth. In order to reach the churches that need our help, and to give them the message that God desires them to hear, it may be necessary for us to travel on the Sabbath; but so far as possible we should secure our tickets and make all necessary arrangements on some other day. When starting on a journey we should make every possible effort to plan so as to avoid reaching our destination on the Sabbath. - {6T 359.4} When compelled to travel on the Sabbath we should try to avoid the company of those who would draw our attention to worldly things. We should keep our minds stayed upon God and commune with Him. Whenever there is opportunity we should speak to others in regard to the truth. We should always be ready to relieve suffering and to help those in need. In such cases God desires that the knowledge and wisdom He has given us should be put to use. But we should not talk about matters of business or engage in any common, worldly conversation. At all times and in all places God requires us to prove our loyalty to Him by honoring the Sabbath. - {6T 360.1}

Isa 58:13

Isa 58:13 - nor speaking thine own words - our words and deportment on the Sabbath day are to be consecrated to the Lord. Our conversation is to be of a hallowed nature, ever mindful of the Lord's presence. You remember how extremely careful the children of Israel were required to be in any service connected with the Tabernacle. In the most holy place, where God especially revealed his presence, what care was exercised, what a sacred, solemn presence was there. And I ask you if in this dispensation, when God is asked to reveal himself to us by his Holy Spirit, if we should come into his presence in a careless way or with our minds filled with worldly things, unable even to restrain our lips from speaking out these things when in the house of God, and in his presence. It seems to me that unless education upon this point was greatly needed among us as a people, both laborers and laymen, that the Spirit of God would not have spoken to us so plainly upon them. I commend these thoughts to this congregation. From my own experience, I feel sure that there is need that we shall all amend upon this point. {October 30, 1889 N/A, GCDB 115.9}

Isa 58:14

Isa 58:14 - then shalt thou delight thyself in the LORD - the Sabbath is a sign of a relationship between God and His people. Those who delight themselves in the Lord will honor Him by keeping His Sabbath holy. See Ps 37:4; Mal 3:1

Isa 58:14

Isa 58:14 - cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth - He who dwells in the high and holy place will lift up the righteous to stand in the high places on earth. See Isa 57:15; Ps 91:14; Deut 4:5-8

Isa 58:14

Isa 58:14 - high places of the earth - [Bamah- Heb.] - the Sabbath is supposed to cause us to live above the world, in heavenly places through Christ Jesus (Eph 2:6)

Isa 58:14

Isa 58:14 - heritage of Jacob - The heritage of Jacob deals with receiving the pure Word (Milk and Honey) and its understanding and glad reception during the time of the refreshing from the Lord, the time of the Latter Rain. See Gen 28:13-21; 1Jo 2:25 The LORD Himself is our portion and inheritance to the Sons of Levi - See Jer 10:16; Gen 15:1 Promised Land, heaven and the earth made new, was the inheritance and heritage Jacob (Ps 25:13). God promised to be Abraham's Exceeding Great Reward - Gen 15:1; Ps 16:5, 6, 37:9 Jacob had learned from his mother of the divine intimation that the birthright should fall to him, and he was filled with an unspeakable desire for the privileges which it would confer. It was not the possession of his father's wealth that he craved; the spiritual birthright was the object of his longing. To commune with God as did righteous Abraham, to offer the sacrifice of atonement for his family, to be the progenitor of the chosen people and of the promised Messiah, and to inherit the immortal possessions embraced in the blessings of the covenant—here were the privileges and honors that kindled his most ardent desires. His mind was ever reaching forward to the future, and seeking to grasp its unseen blessings. - {PP 178.2}

Isa 59:13 - conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood - Jesus stated, out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh (Mt 12:34). Therefore the corruptions that are spoken are merely a reflection of the corruptions within.

Isa 59:14

Isa 59:14 - judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off - See Prov 18:5; 1Kin 21:8-16; Isa 1:23, 5:23, 1:21-23; Eze 34:1-9; Mic 3:1; Habakkuk 1:4; Act 24:26; Contrast Isa 56:1; Prov 21:3, 15 The dignitaries of Church and State will unite to bribe, persuade, or compel all classes to honor the Sunday. The lack of divine authority will be supplied by oppressive enactments. Political corruption is destroying love of justice and regard for truth, and in order to secure public favor, legislators will yield to the popular demand for a law enforcing Sunday observance. Liberty of conscience, which has cost this nation so great a sacrifice, will no longer be respected. In the soon-coming conflict we shall see exemplified the prophet's words: "And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ." [Revelation 12:17.] - {4SP 410.1}

Isa 59:14

Isa 59:14 - truth is fallen in the street - Just as God's two witness were slain and their dead bodies lied in the streets of France, truth and justice have been perverted and replaced by crooked paths. See Rev 11:7-10

Isa 59:15

Isa 59:15 - he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey - As Job, whose name means hated, was a just and upright man, so the righteous who flee from the evil are persecuted and made to be as prey for the ravening wolves. See Isa 42:22; Eze 22:25-27; Mic 7:2 Now as in former ages, the presentation of a truth that reproves the sins and errors of the times will excite opposition. "Everyone that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reprov'd." Joh 3:20. As men see that they cannot maintain their position by the Scriptures, many determine to maintain it at all hazards, and with a malicious spirit they assail the character and motives of those who stand in defense of unpopular truth. It is the same policy which has been pursued in all ages. Elijah was declared to be a troubler in Israel, Jer a traitor, Paul a polluter of the temple. From that day to this, those who would be loyal to truth have been denounced as seditious, heretical, or schismatic. Multitudes who are too unbelieving to accept the sure word of prophecy will receive with unquestioning credulity an accusation against those who dare to reprove fashionable sins. This spirit will increase more and more. And the Bible plainly teaches that a time is approaching when the laws of the state will so conflict with the law of God that whosoever would obey all the divine precepts must brave reproach and punishment as an evildoer. - {GC 458.2}

Isa 59:15 - maketh himself a prey - See Isa 5:20-23

Isa 59:16

Isa 59:16 - and he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor - See Ps 106:23, Ex 32:11-13; Num 16:43-48; Rev 8:3. 4. God saw a time where there was no more Intercessor to stand in the gap. Here the close of humankind's probation is noted where God will pour out His vengeance upon the rebellious while protecting the hidden ones under His wings. See Eze 14:14; 22:30; Isa 41:28; 63:5; Jer 5:1; Rev 22:11 Then the angel repeated these words, and said, "This is the time spoken of in Isa. He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor. He had no mediator between God and man, and these plagues could be withheld no longer, for Jesus had ceased to plead for Israel, and they were covered with the covering of the Almighty God, and then they could live in the sight of a holy God, and those who were not covered, the plagues fell upon them, for they had nothing to shelter or protect them from the wrath of God." Isa 59:16

Isa 59:16 - therefore his arm brought salvation unto him - God bared His arm, the arm of God, Jesus, brought deliverance to the disparity of man. Isa 59:16

Isa 59:16 - His righteousness, it sustained Him - Christ's righteousness, the righteousness of God, sustained Him as He walked this earth. This same righteousness He imputes and imparts to us, sustains the righteous and will keep them in their time of trouble. See Phil 3:9

Isa 59:17

Isa 59:17 - he put on righteousness like a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon His head - Jesus came prepared for to fight the battle of righteousness on behalf of the Lord, His God and Father. Jesus became the victor in the battle for righteousness by dying. See Eph 6:10-19

Isa 59:17

Isa 59:19 - When the enemy shall come in like a flood - See Rev 12:13-15; Dan 9:26; Isa 28:15, 16 Evil angels crowded around, pressing darkness upon them to shut out Jesus from their view, that their eyes might be drawn to the darkness that surrounded them, and thus they be led to distrust God and murmur against Him. Their only safety was in keeping their eyes directed upward. Angels of God had charge over His people, and as the poisonous atmosphere of evil angels was pressed around these anxious ones, the heavenly angels were continually wafting their wings over them to scatter the thick darkness. - {EW 269.2}

Isa 59:19

Isa 59:19 - Spirit of the LORD will lift up a standard against him - the standard or banner of the LORD is His name, which is synonymous with His character. We will be saved by His great name. In the name of victory, we have the victory!! See Song 6:10; Ps 20:1, 5; Ex 33:18-23, 34:5-8; 2Cor 10:4, 5

Isa 59:21

Isa 59:21 - My spirit that is upon thee - God is speaking to the prophet Isa and He states that His, the Holy Spirit and the Spirit (of prophecy) will not depart from him or his descendents. See Eze 36:26, 27

Isa 59:21

Isa 59:21 - and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever - See Ps 81:10; Isa 55:13

Isa 60:1

Isa 60:1-4 - arise shine - We can not arise on our own unless we are quickened by the power of God's Holy Spirit. We who were once dead in trespasses and sins, must be made alive by the power of Christ abiding in us. See Ephesians 2:1-6 the glory of God first arose upon the COI when Jesus, the Lord of Hosts arrived as Messiah to begin His ministry (Ps 102:13). The glory of God will be revealed again in the 144,000 as they are purified, made white and tried. God's glory will be seen during the times of refreshing from the Lord (Pentecost, Latter Rain) in their characters and they will bring many to righteousness. See Dan 12:3, 10; Eze 36:23; Isa 55:4; 44:23; 60:2

Isa 60:1

Isa 60:1 - Arise - the call to arise is from the Lord and is instructing us to rise-up above this world. We are to divorce ourselves of the things of this world so that we are not reliant, dependent, connected, or in anyway attached to this world, its support systems, nor its allurements. Once we have arisen from this world, the Lord will shine His glory upon us so that the world will see Him in, and through us. The Lord is to be our sole sufficiency. See 2Cor 3:5

Isa 60:1

Isa 60:1 - for thy light is come - Mt 5:16; Rev 18:1; Dan 12:4; 1Pet 4:13; CONTRAST Isa 50:11

Isa 60:1

Isa 60:1 glory of the LORD is risen upon thee- Lk 1:35; 1Tim 3:16 The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 415.5} The light of the Sun of Righteousness is to shine forth in good works—in words of truth and deeds of holiness. - {COL 416.1} God's glory is shed upon the wise as they grow in grace. As the sun rises upon the sky, so God's righteousness is seen more and more unto the perfection of Christ. God's glory is synonymous with His name and His character, thus His glorious character will be seen upon His people as they go forth to proclaim the gospel. See Ex 34:28, 29, 33:19; Rev 18:1; Isa 62:1, 58:10; Ezekiel 16:14; Prov 4:18; 2Cor 3:18; Ps 84:7; Rom 1:17 The truth of a heavenly origin converts the soul. The truth from heaven has an influence upon the human life and upon the human character that is elevating, ennobling, sanctifying, refining—making us more and more like Jesus; and thus we are changed through the sanctification of the truth from glory to glory. What is the glory? It is the character—"From character to character." And we are fitting for heaven in this life, that we may see Jesus and that we may be like Him; that we may reflect His image, and from character to character marching, marching right straight along; step by step you keep with the Leader, and He is leading you. Who is it? The Light of the world, the Truth, the Life.—all these combined, and He is leading in straight paths. You are never left without angels' care. Do you respond and seek to perfect a true righteous character? Will you be led? That is the question, the whole question of your salvation today. Will you be led? - {1SAT 204.2}

Isa 60:2

Isa 60:2 - darkness shall cover the earth - the darkness here described can be seen in three histories. First the darkness that Christ described at the time of His arrival where He as the Great Light came to shed light upon the world (Joh 3:19-21; 8:12). Jesus and Joh the Baptist stated that the generation of vipers who loved darkness would not come to the Light because their deeds were evil (Lk 3:7, 8). Secondly, the darkness is that which entered in like a flood, describing the Pale Horse era of the Papacy. For 1,260 years (Time of the Gentiles) knowledge of God's truths found in His Word was denied the people as God's Two Witnesses gave their testimony, clothed in sackcloth. The darkness of the Black Horse era was magnified by the Pale Horse era of papal rule. See Rev 12:13-16; 6:7, 8; 11:1-7

Isa 60:2

Isa 60:2 - gross darkness the people - the people have been left in darkness because of man's prevailing traditions and doctrines that have cast truth to the ground and prospered (Rev 12:15; Dan 8:12)

Isa 60:2

Isa 60:2 - the Lord shall arise upon thee - Jesus' glory would first arise upon all men, especially those who hungered and thirsted for righteousness (Joh 1:5). Like the wise men from the east and the shepherds keeping their flock by night (watchmen over the sheep), they saw a great light and were drawn to Christ's glory [His appearing] in a manger (Mt 2:1-12; 5:6; Lk 2:1-20). Out of the darkness of the Dark Ages, God would call forth great light as men began to run to and fro in the Bible. First through the Protestant Reformation where God would out of the very darkness of the Catholic church, bring forth men and women of conviction who would be guided by the unchained Bible alone. Then through the Advent Movement of 1798-1844. God Himself would descend as the Mighty Angel on August 11, 1840 to empower the Movement reveal His marvelous workings in bringing reformation to the churches of the Reformation. See Rev 3:1-6; Dan 12:4

Isa 60:2

Isa 60:2 - His glory shall be sent upon thee - God's character, His glory (Ex 33:15-34:8) was revealed upon the Apostles who at Pentecost received the promise of the Father in receiving the Early Rains. The character of God seen in the Apostles, accompanied by the powerful miracles revealed His glory being revealed upon His people. See Num 14:21; Act 6:15; Eze 36:23; See Isa 5:26, 18:3, 55:5; Song 6:10; 2Thess 1:11, 12

Isa 60:3

Isa 60:3 - Gentiles shall come to thy light - This prophecy was first fulfilled in the time of the Early Rains when the Christian Church took the gospel to the world. The Gentiles of Europe embraced the gospel and became the arbiters of Bible truth during the "Time of the Gentiles". However, in the time of the Latter Rain, God's glorious holy mountain will shine as an ensign and will be lifted up before the earth to draw the 11th hour workers out of Babylon. See Isa 55:5; Jer 16:19; Dan 12:3; 11:44, 45; Rev 18:4; Mt 5:16; 2Kin 5:8-15

Isa 60:3

Isa 60:3 - kings to the brightness of thy rising - See Isa 49:7; Rev 21:24

Isa 60:4

Isa 60:4 - Lift up thine eyes and see - The Lord gives a promise of the great harvest that is to be wrought here in Isa while during His ministry encouraging His disciples to capture the vision and walk by faith in fulfilling that which God had promised to do (Joh 4:35). This verse is to encourage us that God speaks those things that are not as though they were (Rom 4:17)... Because He is Almighty God, the GREAT I AM!!! Your Glorious Name Be Praised!!!!

Isa 60:4

Isa 60:4 - all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side - See Isa 43:5-7

Isa 60:5

Isa 60:5 - then though shalt see, and flow together and thine heart shall fear - As we see the glorious works of the Lord we will see with our eyes, hear with our ears, understand with our hearts and be converted and healed (Isa 6:10). God will show His eternal purposes and good will towards us and we, in unity and on one accord, will be in amazement of His love.

Isa 60:5

Isa 60:6 - because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee - God will bring in a great multitude as His glory shines upon the 144,000. See Rev 17:15; 14:1-5

Isa 60:5

Isa 60:5 - the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee - the Gentiles are spoken as a warlike people in the Bible who tread down the people of God (Lk 21:24; Rev 11:2). Yet will even the "forces" [those who bear swords perhaps] of the Gentiles will be converted to the Lord.

Isa 60:6

Isa 60:6 - multitude of camels shall cover thee - camels as livestock were a sign of wealth. Those lifted up as an ensign will be granted the resources of the world to proclaim the Loud Cry.

Isa 60:6

Isa 60:6 - dromedaries of Midian - the wealth of the Midianites, the forefathers of the Arabs (sons of the East) are here mentioned (Gen 37:28, 36; Judges 6:2-6). As the great multitude is gathered in, many today who practice Islam will hear the Loud Cry and will come to the LORD's standard. Many Arabs and practitioners of Islam are wealthy, therefore, they will give their wealth to the cause of Christ to further the work when needed.

Isa 60:7

Isa 60:7 - All the flocks of Kedar - Kedar, the second son of Ishmael, is here referenced. Again, those practicing Islam will give their wealth to God's remnant people to further the work of the Loud Cry.

Isa 60:7

Isa 60:7 - rams of Nebaioth - the wealth of the first son of Ishmael, will be given to the remnant. See Gen25:13;1Chron 1:29

Isa 60:7

Isa 60:7 - they shall come up with acceptance on mine alter - the sacrifices offered in that day will be acceptable and not contemptible to the Lord. As God purifies and refines His people, He will have those who'd rather die than sin. It is their sacrifice that is acceptable unto the Lord. See Mal 1:6, 7; Rev 12:11

Isa 60:7

Isa 60:7 - I will glorify the house of my glory - God will fill the house with His presence/glory so that none can come in at the time of the close of earth's probation. See Rev 15:8

Isa 60:9

Isa 60:9 - ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from afar - God promises a restoration of those things that had been scattered by the destroyer, due to our rebellion. As a prized possession and merchandise, sons once lost and great wealth will be restored. "Ye have hard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy." Jam 5:11; Job 42:12-17.

Isa 60:15 - Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee - See Ezekiel 36:1-4, 17-20

Isa 60:15

Isa 60:15 - I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations - See Ezekiel 36:5-15, 21-38

Isa 60:17

Isa 60:17 - all the things that were used to make idols, iron, brass, wood, and stone are replaced with more valuable things as God gathers His people from their unrighteousness.

Isa 60:17

Isa 60:17 - for brass I will bring gold and for iron I will bring silver - God will exchange that which symbolizes punishment and scattering, brass and iron, for that which represents glory, gold and silver. Those materials which represented the desolators of God's people and works of idolatry (gold, silver, brass, iron, wood and stone - Dan 5:4) will become material of glory. See Lev 26:19; Isa 61:3; Dan 7:19

Isa 60:19

Isa 60:20 - the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory - See Rev 21:23

Isa 60:20

Isa 60:20 - the days of thy mourning shall be ended - God will wipe away every tear and sorrow will be no more. See Rev 21:4

Isa 60:21

Isa 60:21 - thy people also shall be all righteous - nothing that offends will enter into New Jerusalem, the Glorious Holy Mountain of God. These have hid God's words and commandments in their hearts that they sin not against Him. See Dan 11:45; Nah 1:9; Jer 23:6

Isa 60:21

Isa 60:21 - they shall inherit the land forever - the meek shall inherit the earth. They shall not plant and another reap, but all will be established in this land. See Mt 5:5; 25:26

Isa 60:21

Isa 60:21 - branch of my planting - We are to be God's trees of righteousness. See Isa 61:3

Isa 60:21

Isa 60:21 - the work of my hands - God will be recognized for creating a new thing out of each individual. We all will be the planting of the Lord and that which He has recreated in Christ Jesus! Amen! See Gal 2:20; Rev 3:18

Isa 60:21

Isa 60:21 - that I may be glorified - To God Alone Be The Glory! He must be acknowledge for that which He alone has done. See Eze 36:21-23; Dan 2:19-23, 27-30; Isa 43:7

Isa 61:1

Isa 61:1 - The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; - See Isa 42:1-7; Lk 4:18 Through yielding to sin, man placed his will under the control of Satan. He became a helpless captive in the tempter's power. God sent His Son into our world to break the power of Satan, and to emancipate the will of man. He sent Him to proclaim liberty to the captives, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free. By pouring the whole treasury of heaven into this world, by giving us in Christ all heaven, God has purchased the will, the affections, the mind, the soul, of every human being. When man places himself under the control of God, the will becomes firm and strong to do right, the heart is cleansed from selfishness, and filled with Christlike love. The mind yields to the authority of the law of love, and every thought is brought into captivity to the obedience of Christ. - {OHC 104.3}

Isa 61:1

Isa 61:1 - anointed me to preach good tidings - See Isa 50:4, 5; Dan 9:25; Heb 1:9; Ps 40:9, 10

Isa 61:1

Isa 61:1 - good tidings - the glad tidings of God's salvation found in the gospel of Christ - See Isa 52:7; Mt 2:1-12; Lk 2:8-20; Mt 5:5

Isa 61:1

Isa 61:1 - proclaim liberty to the captives - Those who are bound by death will be freed through His death and resurrection; those who all their lives have been in bondage to fear of death have been set free - See Heb 2:14, 15.; Isa 45:13, 49:9 Jesus came to set the living captives of Satan free as well, those tormented by demon possession and sin - See Mk 1:24, 25, 34, 3:11, 12

Isa 61:1

Isa 61:1 - Opening of the prison to them that are bound - The Holy Spirit Spoke through the prophets of old, to those bound in the prison of sin and death: Isa 58:6; Zech 7:11, 12, Isa 61:1; Lk 4:17-21; Joh 8:32; Psa 107:10-12 (Jesus, the Truth, liberates the living, not the dead); 2Pet 2:18, 19 || Prov 5:22 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth" [Joh 5:28, 29]. This voice is soon to resound through all the nations of the dead, and every saint who sleeps in Jesus shall awake and leave his prison house.—Ms 137, 1897. - {LDE 276.2}

Isa 61:2

Isa 61:2 - proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God - the two classes of the Everlasting Gospel are here allude to where some will receive the proclamation of forgiveness and redemption and others will spurn it and receive God's vengeance. See Gen 3:15 May also mean the year or "time" that God's righteousness is revealed/fulfilled in Christ (Dan 9:24; Mal 3:3, 4) and the offering/sacrifice of righteousness (unlike the centuries of types in the blood of bulls and goats) will be acceptable in Him. (Isa 53:10, 11)

Isa 61:2

Isa 61:2 - the day of vengeance of our God - the close of probation for mankind and the pouring out of God's judgment upon the rebellious. See Psa 149:7-9; Isa 33:10-12, 1; Dan 12:1

Isa 61:2

Isa 61:2 - to comfort all that mourn - See Mt 5:4; 1Thess 4:13-18

Isa 61:3

Isa 61:3 - appoint unto them that mourn in Zion - the mourning here may be that that is brought through a period of fasting, prayer and deep contrition (with sackcloth and ashes). We are to mourn for our sinfulness and lament the reproach we have brought to the cause of Christ. To this mourning, God will provide beauty for ashes, forgiveness for sorrow. See Mt 5:3-6; Ps 30:11

Isa 61:3

Isa 61:3 - beauty for ashes - God will remove the garments of affliction (sackcloth and ashes) and will given in their stead, beauty, a royal vestment. See Esther 4:1, 3

Isa 61:3

Isa 61:3 - oil of joy for mourning - a new spirit, God's Holy Spirit will He put in those who recognize their wretchedness and desire His cleansing. See Eze 36:24-28

Isa 61:3

Isa 61:3 - garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness - the garments of praise are the white robes, worn by the redeemed. The bright white garments, woven in the loom of heaven bear no trace of human devising and are given only by Christ. See Zech 3:1-5; Mt 22:11; Rev 3:5; 6:11; 16:15; 19:7, 8; Esther 2:9-17; Isa 52:1; Rom 13:12; COL 3:11.4 This robe, woven in the loom of heaven, has in it not one thread of human devising. Christ in His humanity wrought out a perfect character, and this character He offers to impart to us. "All our righteousness are as filthy rags." Isa 64:6. Everything that we of ourselves can do is defiled by sin. But the Son of God "was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin." Sin is defined to be "the transgression of the law." 1 John 3:5, 4. But Christ was obedient to every requirement of the law. He said of Himself, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God; yea, Thy law is within My heart." Psalm 40:8. When on earth, He said to His disciples, "I have kept My Father's commandments." John 15:10. By His perfect obedience He has made it possible for every human being to obey God's commandments. When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life. This is what it means to be clothed with the garment of His righteousness. Then as the Lord looks upon us He sees, not the fig-leaf garment, not the nakedness and deformity of sin, but His own robe of righteousness, which is perfect obedience to the law of Jehovah. - {COL 3:11.4}

Isa 61:3

Isa 61:3 - trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD - Those who are planted by the LORD by the rivers, who bring forth their leaves and fruit in season and in drought do not fade (Ps 1:1-6; Jer 17:7, 8; Lk 23:28-31; Rev 9:4). They have deep roots that are moored to the sure and tried foundation (Chief Cornerstone) so that they can not be moved when the overflowing floods arrive (Isa 28:16, 32:15; Mt 7:24, 25; Isa 28:15, 18).

Isa 61:3

Isa 61:3 - that He might be glorified - God will receive the glory for His redemption of the sons of men. He alone deserves the praise for being the author and finisher of their faith. See Eze 36:23; Heb 12:2

Isa 61:4

Isa 61:4 - they shall build up the old wastes - the Old and discarded paths are to be restored and rebuilt. Isa 58:12

Isa 61:6

Isa 61:6 - Priests of the Lord - God will fulfill His purposes in those who humble themselves and become the planting of the Lord. That which man made the Old Covenant, will be established in the redeemed. See Ex 19:6; 1Pet 2:5, 9

Isa 61:6

Isa 61:6 - ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves - the glory of the Gentiles is Jesus, the Desire of Nations. This speaks of Israel's redemption after the Gentiles have been fully gathered in. See Rom 11:25-34; Mal 1:11

Isa 61:8

Isa 61:8 - For I the LORD love judgment - judgment, justice, ordinance judgment act of deciding a case place, court, seat of judgment process, procedure, litigation (before judges) case, cause (presented for judgment) sentence, decision (of judgment) execution (of judgment) time (of judgment) justice, right, rectitude (attributes of God or man)

Isa 62:11

Isa 62:11 - behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him - Jesus comes bearing the reward for both righteous and wicked. He has finished His work of redemption in the outer court of the sanctuary; He has finished His ministration of grace in the Inner Court (Holy Place) for 1810years; and He has finished His last works of Intercession in the Most Holy Place as High Priest and Mediator. Once done, Jesus will dawn His Kingly apparel and garments of Vengeance to be an exalted, glorified and loving King to the righteous but a destroying ruler with a rod of iron to the wicked. Isa 63:1 - this that is glorious in his apparel - the Lord with His garments of vengeance is glorious in appearance. See Rev 14:14

Isa 63:2

Isa 63:2 - garments like him that treadeth in the winefat - garments are crimson red because of His shed blood for the redeemed and for the blood of the slaughter of the impenitent. See Gen 49:11

Isa 63:3

Isa 63:3 - trodden the winepress alone - See Zech 13:7; Rev 14:18-20; Isa 28:21; Ps 119:126; Jer 25:30, 31 Yet through childhood, youth, and manhood, Jesus walked alone. In His purity and His faithfulness, He trod the wine press alone, and of the people there was none with Him. He carried the awful weight of responsibility for the salvation of men. He knew that unless there was a decided change in the principles and purposes of the human race, all would be lost. This was the burden of His soul, and none could appreciate the weight that rested upon Him. Filled with intense purpose, He carried out the design of His life that He Himself should be the light of men. - {DA 92.2} Having made the decision, He fell dying to the ground from which He had partially risen. Where now were His disciples, to place their hands tenderly beneath the head of their fainting Master, and bathe that brow, marred indeed more than the sons of men? The Saviour trod the wine press alone, and of the people there was none with Him. - {DA 693.1} The enemies of Jesus vented their rage upon Him as He hung upon the cross. Priests, rulers, and scribes joined with the mob in mocking the dying Saviour. At the baptism and at the transfiguration the voice of God had been heard proclaiming Christ as His Son. Again, just before Christ's betrayal, the Father had spoken, witnessing to His divinity. But now the voice from heaven was silent. No testimony in Christ's favor was heard. Alone He suffered abuse and mockery from wicked men. - {DA 746.3}

Isa 65:3

Isa 65:3 - provoketh me to anger continually to my face - See Eze 8:3 Satan and evil angels were on the ground. Even while God was proclaiming His law to His people, Satan was plotting to tempt them to sin. This people whom God had chosen, he would wrench away, in the very face of Heaven. By leading them into idolatry, he would destroy the efficacy of all worship; for how can man be elevated by adoring what is no higher than himself and may be symbolized by his own handiwork? If men could become so blinded to the power, the majesty, and the glory of the infinite God as to represent Him by a graven image, or even by a beast or reptile; if they could so forget their own divine relationship, formed in the image of their Maker as to bow down to these revolting and senseless objects—then the way was open for foul license; the evil passions of the heart would be unrestrained, and Satan would have full sway. - {PP 334.4}

Isa 65:5

Isa 65:5 - which say, stand by thyself, come not near to me for I am holier than thou - self-righteousness, pride, arrogance will not profit in the day of judgment. See Isa 57:12, 58:1-4; Joh 18:28, 29; Mk 7:1-5; 1Thess 2:15; Zeph 3:11 During the centuries that followed, they suffered from the oppression of heathen foes, until the conviction became fixed that their prosperity depended upon their obedience to the law of God. But with too many of the people obedience was not prompted by love. The motive was selfish. They rendered outward service to God as the means of attaining to national greatness. They did not become the light of the world, but shut themselves away from the world in order to escape temptation to idolatry. In the instruction given through Moses, God had placed restrictions upon their association with idolaters; but this teaching had been misinterpreted. It was intended to prevent them from conforming to the practices of the heathen. But it was used to build up a wall of separation between Israel and all other nations. The Jews looked upon Jerusalem as their heaven, and they were actually jealous lest the Lord should show mercy to the Gentiles. - {DA 28.5} The Jewish people had been made the depositaries of sacred truth; but Pharisaism had made them the most exclusive, the most bigoted, of all the human race. Everything about the priests and rulers—their dress, customs, ceremonies, traditions—made them unfit to be the light of the world. They looked upon themselves, the Jewish nation, as the world. But Christ commissioned His disciples to proclaim a faith and worship that would have in it nothing of caste or country, a faith that would be adapted to all peoples, all nations, all classes of men. - {DA 819.4} He who falls into some of the grosser sins may feel a sense of his shame and poverty and his need of the grace of Christ; but pride feels no need, and so it closes the heart against Christ and the infinite blessings He came to give. - {SC 30.1}

Isa 65:6

Isa 65:6 - it is written before me: - all the transgressions of Israel were written before the LORD, as well as the covenant which they had broken. God would recompense Israel through the 2520 prophecy, the quarrel of God's covenant. See Lev 26:46; Isa 42:14

Isa 65:10 - valley of Achor - meaning valley of trouble in reference to the trouble that befell the children of Israel due to Achan's rebellion.

Isa 65:10

Isa 65:10 - for my people that have sought me - See Gen 4:26; Ps 105:1, 3; Prov 3:5, 6; Rom 10:13

Isa 65:11

Isa 65:11 - forget my holy mountain - forget my people, God's throne of righteousness. See Ps 50:16-23

Isa 65:12

Isa 65:12 - Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear - See Jer 27:13

Isa 65:12

Isa 65:12 - ye did not hear - See Isa 28:9-12; 66:4; Jer 6:16, 17

Isa 65:13

Isa 65:13 - Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed: - See Isa 8:21, 22, 33:15-17

Isa 65:14

Isa 65:14 - Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit - See Isa 8:22

Isa 65:15

Isa 65:15 - call his servants by another name - see Rev 2:17; 3:12

Isa 65:16

Isa 65:16 - God of truth - the God of truth reigns over the city of truth. See Zech 8:3, 8

Isa 65:16

Isa 65:16 - because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes - See Rev 21:4

Isa 65:16

Isa 65:16 - they are hid from mine eyes - See Isa 43:25

Isa 65:17

Isa 65:17 - behold, I create a new heavens and a new earth and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind - See Rev 21:3-5

Isa 65:18

Isa 65:18 - I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy - See Ps 48:2

Isa 65:19

Isa 65:19 - I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people - See Heb 12:2; Isa 53:11

Isa 65:20

Isa 65:20 - There shall be no more thence an infant of days - a child that dies prematurely perhaps. Zech 8:4, 5

Isa 65:21

Isa 65:21 - And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them - See Eze 28:25, 26

Isa 65:22

Isa 65:22 - they shall not plant, and another eat - See Jer 48:32

Isa 65:24

Isa 65:24 - before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear - See Gen 24:15; Dan 9:20-23; Ps 4:3, 22:24, 77:1, 91:15; 2Cor 1:20; Job 14:15; Jer 29:12; 1Jo 5:14

Isa 65:25

Isa 65:25 - The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD - See Hos 2:18

Isa 65:25

Isa 65:25 - They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain - the wolf, the lion and the serpent shall not hurt nor destroy any among God's holy mountain.

Isa 66:1

Isa 66:1 - the earth is my footstool - See Ps 50:12

Isa 66:1

Isa 66:1 - where is the house that ye build unto me? - See 1Chron 28:2; 1Kin 8:27

Isa 66:2

Isa 66:2 - to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit - God will give heed to one who is not self important, who is repentant of his sins, who takes sound counsel from others, who recognizes his poverty of spirit and need of a Savior, and one who fears/reverences God's words. See Ps 51:17; Mt 5:1-5; Isa 57:15, 13, 33:15-17; Heb 12:28; Phil 2:12

Isa 66:2

Isa 66:2 - and trembleth at my word - See Isa 66:5

Isa 66:3

Isa 66:3 - He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man - the rebellion and abominations of Israel are such that their offerings are an egregious offense to the Lord. God does not desire sacrifices and offerings but that we offer God thanksgiving and pay our vows to the most High. See Ps 50:7-14; 1Sam 15:22

Isa 66:3

Isa 66:3 - Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations - See Isa 53:6; Gen 4:3; Isa 50:11; Hos 4:17

Isa 66:4

Isa 66:4 - I also will choose their delusions - the Lord will withdraw His hand of protection from the rebellious who persist in abominations and will permit the enemy's deceptions (delusions) to prevail over them. See 2Thess 2:11, 12; Isa 19:13, 14; Eze 20:22-26; 2Chron 18:19-22||1Kin 22:20-23; Hose 4:17; 1Kin 22:21-23; Judges 9:23

Isa 66:4

Isa 66:4 - when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear - See Isa 65:12; Eze 20:5-26

Isa 66:5

Isa 66:5 - Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word - those who tremble at God's word are they who are careful to honor and fulfill the commandments of God. They would much rather offend men than to offend God and therefore yield themselves in humble obedience. See Isa 66:2; Mt 10:28; Act 4:18-20; Mal 3:16-18

Isa 66:5

Isa 66:5 - your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake - the synagogue of Satan is here described; those who make a show of piety and religiosity but do not know God. See Rev 2:9, 10, 3:9; Joh 16:1, 2; Mt 24:9; Jer 15:15-21; Ps 37:1, 2

Isa 66:5

Isa 66:5 - Let the LORD be glorified - the same ones who persecute God's people, casting them out of the synagogue (church), all because they do not know God, will be most boisterous in praising God. See John 16:1-3; Isa 58:1-4; 2Tim 3:1-5

Isa 66:5

Isa 66:5 - but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed - The Lord will appear to the joy of the humble and contrite in heart, but to the shame for the self-righteous hypocrites. See 1Pet 4:14; Isa 33:14

Isa 66:9

Isa 66:9 - Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth - See Ps 50:21-23; Isa 55:10,

11, 40:8

Isa 66:12

Isa 66:12 - For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees. - See Eze 34:11-16; Isa 40:1-5

Isa 66:15

Isa 66:15 - the LORD will come with fire, and with chariots like a whirlwind - See Zeph 1:14-18; Ps 50:3

Isa 66:15

Isa 66:15 - and with his chariots like a whirlwind - See Rev 19:11-16

Isa 66:16

Isa 66:16 - For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many. - The Holy Spirit and the Word of God will sanctify the earth and will separate the sheep from the goat with His convicting power. See Heb 4:12; 2Pet 3:7

Isa 66:17

Isa 66:17 - Sanctify and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst - the idolatrous and licentious works of Israel are here condemned. See Isa 57:5, 65:3

Isa 66:18

Isa 66:18 - for I know their works and their thoughts - God is a discerner of the the thoughts and heart. God sees our motives and weighs us in His balances that are true. See Heb 4:12

Isa 66:18

Isa 66:18 - I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory. Isa 2:2-4

Isa 66:19

Isa 66:19 - I will set a sign among them - God's glory will be seen upon His people and they will be lifted up as an ensign to the world. Fair as the moon, clear as the sun, terrible as an army with banners (Song 6:10). See Eze 36:23

Isa 66:19

Isa 66:19 - I will send those that escape among them - the 144,000 and Edom, Moab and the chief of the children of Ammon who escape from the hand of the papacy will go to the ends of the world declaring glad tidings and God's glory. See Dan 11:41, 44

Isa 66:19

Isa 66:19 - unto the nations - the 144,000 and those who come out from the Loud Cry are to go to "the nations" to declare God's glory.

Isa 66:19

Isa 66:19 - Tarshish... Tubal, Javan - these were the descendants of Japheth, the son of Noah who was to be enlarged and dwell in the tents of Shem, and Canaan would be his servant (Gen 9:27; 10:2-4)

Isa 66:19

Isa 66:19 - Pul - Pul is noted to the king of Assyria

Isa 66:19

Isa 66:19 - Lud - Lud is a descendent of Shem and is associated with the Persians in being integrated in the army of Tyre.

Isa 66:19

Isa 66:19 - they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles - Sons of Javan born of Japheth, the Gentiles establish the nations mentioned above. See Gen 10:1-5; Isa 56:1-7

Isa 66:20

Isa 66:20 - And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD - See Eze 34:11-16

Isa 66:21

Isa 66:21 - And I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, saith the LORD - See 1Pet 2:9, 10; Mal 3:3, 4

Isa 66:22

Isa 66:22 - For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me - See Rev 21:3-5

Isa 66:22

Isa 66:22 - so shall your seed and your name remain - God will give the new earth to the meek and to the sons of Abraham who will inherit the land. The land of inheritance is not this present creation because this earth is reserved for fire on the day of the Lord (Gen 13:14-15; 2Pet 3:7). But as Abraham waited for a city whose builder and maker is God, so the new creation will be the inheritance for him and his seed forever. See Rev 21:1-7 Heb 11:8-19; Ps 37:11, 29; Eze 37:25-28

Isa 66:23

Isa 66:23 - one new moon to another - month to month

Isa 66:23

Isa 66:23 - one sabbath to another - week by week

Isa 66:23

Isa 66:23 - shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD - See Ps 145:4-7

Isa 66:24

Isa 66:24 - And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me - the dead are dead as a carcass has no life. Their destruction is eternal and they will have no more life, thus the worms that consume will not cease.

Isa 66:24

Isa 66:24 - for their worm shall not die - that which consumes is eternal; the effect or work of the worm shall not die. See Job 19:27

Isa 66:24

Isa 66:24 - neither shall their fire be quenched - See Rev 14:11; Jude 1:7; 2Pet 2:6

Jeremiah

Jer 1:1

Back to Table of Contents

Jer 1:1 - Jer the son of Hilkiyah, of the priests - Jer was a priest living in the land of Benjamin, the Southern Kingdom of Judah

Jer 1:2

Jer 1:2 - the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah... king of Judah, in the thirteenth year - Good king Josiah was reigning in Judah when Jer was called to be a prophet. Called in the 13th year of his reign of 31 years in Jerusalem (2Kin 22:1:1)

Jer 1:3

Jer 1:3 - it came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah...unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah - Like Isa, Jer saw multiple generations of kings reign in Israel and was sent to give guidance and instruction to them.

Jer 1:3

Jer 1:3 - the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah - There are three prophets that identify with the last three kings of Judah, fulfilling the 3:1 prophetic pattern at the scattering of Israel. Dan was taken with the first besiegement by Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and two others would follow: 3: Jehoiakim - Dan - Dan 1:1 Jehoiachin - Eze - Eze 1:2 Zedekiah - Jer - Jer 1:3 1: Nebuchadnezzar God would from Babylon overturn (Babylon to Medo-Persia), overturn (Medo-Persia to Greece), overturn (Greece to Rome) until He would once again establish the Kingdom under its rightful owner, Shiloh (Eze 21:27; Gen 49:10)

Jer 1:3

Jer 1:3 - unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month - Zedekiah would reign for 5-months and then the Southern Kingdom would be toppled.

Jer 1:5

Jer 1:5 - before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee - See Ps 139:15

Jer 1:5

Jer 1:5 - Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations - a possible Messianic prophecy where Jesus was known of God before His incarnation and was ordained a Prophet unto the nations. See Prov 8:12-36; Deut 18:18, 19

Jer 1:5

Jer 1:5 - before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee - As Joh the Baptist was known of God and sanctified of God to be Jesus' forerunner, so Jer was called of God. See Lk 1:12-17; Isa 49:1

Jer 1:5

Jer 1:5 - I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations - Jer's testimony would go to the nations of Israel (Northern and Southern Kingdoms) and those with whom they engaged for war and alliances.

Jer 1:6

Jer 1:6 - Ah, Lord God, I can not speak for I am a child - Jer feared that his youthfulness would be despised by those who heard him. Like Moses, he uttered his protest in fear and apprehension of the task before him. Paul gave sound counsels to Timothy for the same concerns. See 1Tim 4:12

Jer 1:7

Jer 1:7 - whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak - God assures Jer that He will go with him and that the words that he utters will come from the LORD. See Eze 2:7

Jer 1:8

Jer 1:8 - Be not afraid of their faces - See Eze 2:6; 3:8, 9; Jer 1:17

Jer 1:9

Jer 1:9 - then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth... Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth - See Isa 6:6, 7

Jer 1:10

Jer 1:10 - I have set thee over the nations... to root out.. pull down.. destroy.. throw down, to build and to plant - It is by the words that are within Jer's mouth that are given by the LORD that these things will be fulfilled among the nations. See Rev 11:3-7

Jer 1:11

Jer 1:11 - rod of an almond tree - a rod is used as a tool of chastisement and correction -

See Ps 2:8, 9; 89:32; 125:3; Prov 10:13; 13:24

Jer 1:13

Jer 1:13 - seething pot; and the face thereof is towards the north - a boiling pot that is coming from the north

Jer 1:15

Jer 1:15 - they shall set everyone his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem - The kings from the north will set their thrones around the gates of the "holy city", the "city of God". This is a foreshadowing of the works of the abomination that maketh desolate and the dragon that will stand in the holy place, as well as the wicked that will encamp about the city of God to make war with it after the millennium. See Mt 24:15; Rev 20:7-15

Jer 1:16

Jer 1:16 - I will utter my judgment against them touching all their wickedness - God's indignation will be poured out upon the Southern Kingdom because of their evil.

Jer 1:17

Jer 1:17 - be not dismayed at their faces - Jer is counseled not to be alarmed, shocked, concerned or distressed by their faces.

Jer 1:18

Jer 1:18 - I have made thee this day a defenced city... an iron pillar... brasen walls against the whole land - the LORD has established Jer so that the wickedness of the land would not prevail against him. Jer was moored to the Rock which could not be moved (Ps 27:1-6; Isa 28:5, 6, 16). Jer 6:27

Jer 1:18

Jer 1:18, 19 - against the kings.. the princes... the priests... the people of the land - leadership and commoners would rise up against Jer but not prevail, because the LORD is with him, to deliver him./

Jer 1:19

Jer 1:19 - they shall fight against thee - the people, great and lowly would fight against the messenger of the LORD. See Mt 23:34-37

Jer 2:2

Jer 2:2 - I remember thee - See Jer 31:20; Lk 23:42

Jer 2:2

Jer 2:2 - kindness of thy youth - the LORD remembers when Israel was a small people and He led the young (the generation of youth, 40 and younger) into the promised land. They were willing to be led by Joshua, though they were still at heart a rebellious people.

Jer 2:2

Jer 2:2 - the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness - God espoused Israel and entered into covenant with them at Sinai. See Ex 19:3-8; Jer 31:32

Jer 2:5

Jer 2:3 - what iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they have gone far from Me - the LORD asks what evil/wickedness/transgressions could be found in Him that He would be cast aside by their forefathers?

Jer 2:6

Jer 2:6 - Neither said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the Land of Egypt - God says they did not call to mind that the LORD delivered them from bondage, guided them in the wilderness and protected them in desolate places.

Jer 2:6

Jer 2:6 - and of the shadow of death - See Ps 23:4

Jer 2:7

Jer 2:7 - a plentiful country - See Ex 3:17; Num 14:7;

Jer 2:7

Jer 2:7 - eat the fruit thereof - See Num 13:23, 24

Jer 2:7

Jer 2:7 - ye defiled my land - see Lev 18:1-30; Num 35:33, 34; Jer 3:2, 51:5; Isa 24:5

Jer 2:9

Jer 2:9 - Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead. - Jesus pleads with the third and fourth generation of His people, though we play the harlot against Him. See Rom 2:4, 5; 2Cor 7:10-12

Jer 2:10

Jer 2:10 - Kedar - Arabia

Jer 2:13

Jer 2:13 - For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. - The same divine mind that is working upon the things of nature is speaking to the hearts of men and creating an inexpressible craving for something they have not. The things of the world cannot satisfy their longing. The Spirit of God is pleading with them to seek for those things that alone can give peace and rest—the grace of Christ, the joy of holiness. Through influences seen and unseen, our Saviour is constantly at work to attract the minds of men from the unsatisfying pleasures of sin to the infinite blessings that may be theirs in Him. To all these souls, who are vainly seeking to drink from the broken cisterns of this world, the divine message is addressed, “Let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.” Revelation 22:17. - {SC 28.1}

Jer 2:13

Jer 2:13 - forsaken me the fountain of living waters - See Joh 7:37, 38

Jer 2:15

Jer 2:15 - young lions - as Assyria was a lion to Israel, Babylon would be as a young lion to Judah. See Mic 5:8; Hos 5:13, 14

Jer 2:17

Jer 2:17 - Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way? - See Isa 32:15; Jer 31:18-20

Jer 2:19

Jer 2:19 - know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter - See Jer 31:18, 19

Jer 2:21

Jer 2:21- I had planted thee a noble vine - See Isa 5:1-4; 27:2, 3; Hos 10:1

Jer 2:22

Jer 2:22 - thine iniquity is marked before me - the Book of Death See Jer 17:1, 13; Deut 32:32-36; Hos 13:12

Jer 2:27
