Joh 9:29 - We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is - they could not recognize Christ because they knew not the Father. They exhibited the same spirit as Dathan and Abiram in the time of Moses. These two reprobates withstood Moses, claiming to be themselves holy and knowing God. They would have killed Aaron and Moses had they the opportunity, in order to establish themselves. The Pharisees made the same rebellious boast, withstanding Jesus Christ, claiming that they were holy, that they knew the Father, and they sought to kill Jesus. See Joh 8:15-19

Joh 9:30

Joh 9:30 - Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes - This is a "drop the mic statement" by the once blind man! The once blind man is chastising their evident hardness of heart and revealing their own spiritual blindness. See Joh 10:25

Joh 9:31

Joh 9:31 - Now we know that God heareth not sinners: - See Prov 1:22-31, 28:9; Compare Joh 8:47, 11:41, 42

Joh 9:31

Joh 9:31 - but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth - See Prov 15:8; Neh 1:6, 11

Joh 9:32

Joh 9:32 - Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind - nowhere in Scripture had it been recorded of one opening the eyes of one born blind, until Shiloh come- this would be one of the identifying characteristics of the Messiah that the once blind man is highlighting to the teachers of Israel. See Isa 42:1-7; Gen 49:10

Joh 9:33

Joh 9:33 - If this man were not of God, he could do nothing - The once blind man declares the righteous character of Christ once and for all to the Jewish leadership. He lets the chips fall where they may as he takes his stand on the side of Righteousness. See Joh 3:2

Joh 9:34

Joh 9:34 - Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? - these wicked shepherds in their stubborn, prideful rejection of Christ would not spare harming this poor sheep who had endured so much trouble in life. Because they could not gainsay his words and profession, they attacked his character with insults and lying accusations. See Joh 7:49, 9:2, 10:12, 13; Eze 34:4; Ps 51:5

Joh 9:34

Joh 9:34 - and dost thou teach us? - they say, one such as you could never teach us, because we are holier than thou. See Joh 7:45-49; Isa 65:5

Joh 9:34

Joh 9:34 - And they cast him out - Jesus, Who understood that the once blind man had been cast out of the Jewish temple for righteousness sake, reached out to him as the Good Shepherd Who would give His life for His sheep. Fast forward 1489 years to the Diet of Worms and the same judgment was rendered to Martin Luther. See Joh 9:22, 23

Joh 9:35

Joh 9:35- Dost thou believe on the Son of God? - Jesus asks the healed man if He believes in Himself as the Messiah. This direct question was withheld from those who could see Jesus' miracles first hand and yet chose not to believe. This once blind man, who had had an experience with Jesus for Himself and awaited an introduction to meet Him, was willing to pay Him homage upon first glance. Compare Mt 16:20

Joh 9:37

Joh 9:38 - Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee - another rare instance where Jesus openly declares Himself Messiah. See Joh 4:26

Joh 9:38

Joh 9:38 - And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him - the once blind man saw his Redeemer, believed in Him and offered worship in reverence and gratitude. So it is with all the redeemed. Lk 7:47

Joh 9:39

Joh 9:39 - for judgment I am come into this world - Jesus, according to the divine purposes laid out in the Covenant of Peace and Plan of Redemption, came to save men from their sins but also to become mankind's High Priest so that He may condemn the enemy of souls and judge the nations in righteousness. Jesus judges men (reveals to men what is in their hearts) by the Mighty Cleaver of Truth, and exposes their reception of Truth found in His Word, and their reception of Himself. He does not force or compel men to believe, neither does He thwart men in their evil schemes so that when He judges, He judges with righteous judgment, based on man's works and the manner of spirit that dwells within them. See Dan 7:9, 10, 13, 14; Joh 5:21-24, 8:45-47; 1Jo 3:8; Heb 2:17, 10:30 JUDGMENT 2917 3:942,469 κρίμα krima Noun Neuter kree'-mah from (2919) from ; a decision (the function or the effect, for or against ("crime")):-avenge, condemned, condemnation, damnation, + go to law, judgment. a decree, judgments judgment condemnation of wrong, the decision (whether severe or mild) which one passes on the faults of others in a forensic sense the sentence of a judge the punishment with which one is sentenced condemnatory sentence, penal judgment, sentence a matter to be judicially decided, a lawsuit, a case in court

Joh 9:39

Joh 9:39 - that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind - Jesus speaks of the spiritual blindness experienced by those who do not believe. In contrast, the eyes of the believer has been enlightened by the power of the Spirit of God (Eph 1:18). See Eze 12:2; Isa 6:8-10, 29:10, 11; 1Cor 1:19, 20, 3:19; 2Cor 3:14

Joh 9:40

Joh 9:40 - And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also? - Jesus, the True Witness spoke of the Laodicean condition of the Jews. They were lost and dead in their sins and knew it not. See Joh 8:24, 12:37-40; Isa 6:8-10; Rev 3:17, 18

Joh 9:41

Joh 9:41 - If ye were blind, ye should have no sin - See Joh 15:21-25

Joh 9:41

Joh 9:41 - We see; therefore your sin remaineth - Jesus called the religious leaders "blind guides". To them that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to them it is sin. See Mt 23:13-36; Jam 4:17; Rom 4:16

Joh 10:1

Joh 10:1 - He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber - Jesus Himself is the door into the sheepfold. All others who have come are robbers and thieves. All other plans of salvation- Islam, Buddhism, Catholicism, etc. are robbers and thieves, trading in the souls of men (Ezekiel 28:5; Rev 18:13; Dan 11:39). They darken a knowledge of the Sun of Righteousness and deny people their gift of eternal life. - See Joh 10:2, 7, 9, 14:6; Mt 12:30, 7:14; Lk 13:24 By the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life. Rom 5:18. - {AG 179.1} Money cannot buy it, intellect cannot grasp it, power cannot command it; but to all who will accept it, God's glorious grace is freely given. But men may feel their need, and, renouncing all self-dependence, accept salvation as a gift. Those who enter heaven will not scale its walls by their own righteousness, nor will its gates be opened to them for costly offerings of gold or silver, but they will gain an entrance to the many mansions of the Father's house through the merits of the cross of Christ. - {AG 179.2}

Joh 10:1

Joh 10:1 - the same is a thief and a robber - See Joh 2:14, 18:40; Lk 10:30

Joh 10:3

Joh 10:3 - To him the porter openeth - the porter himself has the potential to become a sheep, having recognized the Shepherd.

Joh 10:3

Joh 10:3 - the sheep hear his voice - the sheep recognize the voice of their Shepherd. Similarly, in the Time of Trouble, when God proclaims the day and time of Jesus' coming, the righteous sheep will hear the voice of God as thunder that rolls through the earth while it remains a mystery to the wicked - See Joh 10:5, 18:37 In the time of trouble we all fled from the cities and villages, but were pursued by the wicked, who entered the houses of the saints with a sword. They raised the sword to kill us, but it broke, and fell as powerless as a straw. Then we all cried day and night for deliverance, and the cry came up before God. The sun came up, and the moon stood still. The streams ceased to flow. Dark, heavy clouds came up and clashed against each other. But there was one clear place of settled glory, whence came the voice of God like many waters, which shook the heavens and the earth. The sky opened and shut and was in commotion. The mountains shook like a reed in the wind, and cast out ragged rocks all around. The sea boiled like a pot and cast out stones upon the land. And as God spoke the day and the hour of Jesus' coming and delivered the everlasting covenant to His people, He spoke one sentence, and then paused, while the words were rolling through the earth. The Israel of God stood with their eyes fixed upward, listening to the words as they came from the mouth of Jehovah, and rolled through the earth like peals of loudest thunder. It was awfully solemn. And at the end of every sentence the saints shouted, "Glory! Alleluia!"

Joh 10:3

Joh 10:3 - He calleth his own sheep by name - the LORD knows who are His. See Joh 10:14; 2Tim 2:19

Joh 10:4

Joh 10:4 - he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice - Jesus is One Who has led by example. He leads His sheep in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. He has said, this is the way, walk ye in it. He has tread the wine press alone so that we can walk on green pastures and beside still waters. We have a Good Shepherd. See Joh 12:26, 10:27; Ps 23:2; Isa 63:3

Joh 10:5

Joh 10:5 - And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers - God's true sheep have received the Spirit of Discernment such that they recognize the voice of the Shepherd. The sheep will flee from a foreign voice as it does not rightly divide the words of truth nor speak the words of truth in the Spirit of Jesus Christ. The sheep have spent enough time studying the voice of their Shepherd, studying to show themselves approved unto God, so that they can try every spirit that comes their way and prove whether they are sent by their Shepherd. See 2Tim 2:15; Jer 15:16; 1Jo 4:1; 1Thess 5:19-21

Joh 10:6

Joh 10:6 - but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them - See Mt 13:13-15; Heb 5:11; Act 28:27

Joh 10:7

Joh 10:7 - I am the door of the sheep - quite literally, Jesus is the Sheep Gate through which all sheep must enter to attain eternal life. He Himself is the portal to our salvation. Symbolic death in Christ (Gal 2:20; 1Cor 15:31) is what enables us to acquire from God the mind, faith, and character of Jesus Christ so that we may have a right to the city and the Tree of Life through the merits of Him.

Joh 10:8

Joh 10:8 - All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: - Jesus, speaking of the covetous scribes and Pharisees, identifies them as thieves and robbers. The religious leaders made custom of seeking payment for any blessings or spiritual services rendered. They were the cause for the money changers being in the temple as they received a kick-back from their traffic. See Lk 16:14-31, Compare Act 8:20; 2Kin 5:14, 15 We cannot be Christians while we live to please ourselves. We must enter in through the strait gate of self-denial, if we follow the Master. This strait, self-denying path is too narrow for many to walk in who profess godliness. They want an easier path and are climbing up some other way. They refuse to follow in the footsteps of our Redeemer. Christ calls all such thieves and robbers. They take the name of Christian, which does not belong to them, because they do not represent in their life the life of Christ. They claim the privileges which belong to the sons of God while they are none of His. They live selfish lives upon the earth and have done nothing for the truth and the salvation of souls as they ought to have done. Sad indeed for these self-deceived ones. They will never see heaven, because they are not willing to share the shame, the reproach, that Jesus suffered for them. - {TDG 155.5}

Joh 10:9

Joh 10:9 - by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved - See 1Jo 5:11-13; Act 2:21; Rom 10:13

Joh 10:9

Joh 10:9 - and shall go in and out, and find pasture - See Ps 23:2; Rev 21:22-27; Isa 60:11

Joh 10:10

Joh 10:10 - The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy - See Lk 10:30 Jesus, in addition to the scribes and pharisees, may have been alluding to and giving testimony of the imposter Barabbas, whose name means "son of the father" and was a counterfeit to the True Son of the Father. Barabbas was indeed an antichrist (usurper, substitute) in that day: 1. His name professes a false christ 2. He was charged with being a thief and a murderer (Joh 18:40; Mk 15:7) 3. He sought to overthrow the Roman government through insurrection and Jesus claimed His kingdom was not of this world

Joh 10:10

Joh 10:10 - to steal - the thief or the devil, seeks to steal our joy and peace which Jesus gives to us. See Joh 14:27

Joh 10:10

Joh 10:10 - and to kill - the devil was a murderer from the beginning. See Joh 8:43, 44

Joh 10:10

Joh 10:10 - I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly - See 1Tim 4:8; 3Jo 2; Lk 6:38

Joh 10:11

Joh 10:11 - I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep - See Ps 23:1-6; 1Sam 34-36; Ezekiel 34:11-16

Joh 10:11

Joh 10:11 - the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep - Jesus gives, lays down, offers His own life willingly. There is no force, compulsion nor can anyone take it from Him. His life is underived and un-borrowed and yet for the joy set before Him (i.e. to please the Father in redeeming the lost children whom He loves), He willingly lays it down. See Joh 10:18; Heb 12:2

Joh 10:12

Joh 10:12 - But he that is an hireling - one that is employed for a specific duty or task. The hireling is a paid laborer and has no love or affection for those for whom they are paid to oversee. Their labors go as far as it seems reasonable and beneficial to themselves.

Joh 10:12 - seeth the wolf coming - the wolf here spoken are the false teachers with their spurious doctrines which scatter the sheep. See Mt 7:15; Eze 22:25-28; Jer 23:1, 2

Joh 10:13

Joh 10:13 - The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep - See Eze 29:18, 19

Joh 10:14

Joh 10:14 - I am the good shepherd - See Ps 23:1; Heb 13:20

Joh 10:14

Joh 10:14 - and know my sheep, and am known of mine - See Joh 17:7-10

Joh 10:15

Joh 10:15 - As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father - God's perfect knowledge of Jesus was reciprocated to God by Jesus, They being One. See Joh 10:30, 8:19

Joh 10:15

Joh 10:15 - and I lay down my life for the sheep - Jesus laid down His life, not for Himself but for His sheep. See Dan 9:26

Joh 10:16

Joh 10:16 - And other sheep I have which are not of this fold - Jesus prophecies one flock under His headship. That which began Jesus' glorification at the cross with the centurion (Matt 27:54), continued until A.D34 with the gathering of the Gentiles, breaking down the middle wall of separation between Jew and Gentile (Eph 2:12-22), will be completed under the sounding of the 4th Angel of Rev 18, the last gathering of the earthly garner. See Joh 11:52; Eze 34:30, 31 I saw that God had children, who do not see and keep the Sabbath. They had not rejected the light on it. And at the commencement of the time of trouble, we were filled with the Holy Ghost as we went forth, and proclaimed the Sabbath more fully. {Broadside 3, April 7, 1847 para 4}

Joh 10:16

Joh 10:16 - And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd - Joh 10:16 - And other sheep I have which are not of this fold - Jesus prophecies one flock under His headship. That which began Jesus' glorification at the cross with the centurion (Matt 27:54), continued until A.D34 with the gathering of the Gentiles, breaking down the middle wall of separation between Jew and Gentile (Eph 2:12-22), will be completed under the sounding of the 4th Angel of Rev 18, the last gathering of the earthly garner. See Joh 11:52; Eze 34:30, 31 I saw that God had children, who do not see and keep the Sabbath. They had not rejected the light on it. And at the commencement of the time of trouble, we were filled with the Holy Ghost as we went forth, and proclaimed the Sabbath more fully. {Broadside 3, April 7, 1847 para 4}

Joh 10:16

Joh 10:16 - this fold - the first fold of Christ constitute the faithful sons of God, from Adam, Seth, Noah and all the patriarchs that died in faith, not having received the promises of God. Secondly the fold are those of the house of Israel, the first fruits among the Christian church and lastly the 144,000. These are they who are His royal priesthood and holy nation (Ex 19:5, 6) that shine forth the praise of Him who has brought them out of darkness into His marvelous light. These are they who are lifted up as an ensign to the people to draw the other fold to Christ so that there is one fold. See Zech 9:16

Joh 10:16

Joh 10:16 - them also I must bring - those who are gathered in by the first fold, will be honored of the LORD as sons as well. See Isa 56:8, 9; 49:6; Eze 34:11-16 An angel guided Philip to the one who was seeking for light and who was ready to receive the gospel, and today angels will guide the footsteps of those workers who will allow the Holy Spirit to sanctify their tongues and refine and ennoble their hearts. The angel sent to Philip could himself have done the work for the Ethiopian, but this is not God's way of working. It is His plan that men are to work for their fellow men. - {AA 109.2} There are in our world many who are nearer the kingdom of God than we suppose. In this dark world of sin the Lord has many precious jewels, to whom He will guide His messengers. Everywhere there are those who will take their stand for Christ. Many will prize the wisdom of God above any earthly advantage, and will become faithful light bearers. Constrained by the love of Christ, they will constrain others to come to Him. - {AA 140.3}

Joh 10:16 - they shall hear my voice - This is the true gift of tongues, the heavenly language that is perceptible only to those who are moved by the Spirit of God. Those who have a longing for righteousness will be drawn by the voice of the Master. See Rev Act 2:1-12, 37-41;

18:4; John 5:25||Eph 2:1 This Ethiopian represented a large class who need to be taught by such missionaries as Philip—men who will hear the voice of God and go where He sends them. There are many who are reading the Scriptures who cannot understand their true import. All over the world men and women are looking wistfully to heaven. Prayers and tears and inquiries go up from souls longing for light, for grace, for the Holy Spirit. Many are on the verge of the kingdom, waiting only to be gathered in. - {AA 109.1}

John 10:16 - and there shall be one fold - God is a God of unity. Though we be diverse, there is but one body and one head, Jesus Christ. All are to work together as one, to build up Jesus' Kingdom here on earth with singleness of mind. Christ, through the 144,000, will give a revelation of His love and power that will once again break down the middle wall of partition between men (all constructs of the enemy) so that we all might be one in Him.

Joh 10:16

John 10:16 - one shepherd - Jesus, the Good Shepherd, will reign over His flock forever. See Ps 23; John 10:11-14;

Joh 10:17

Joh 10:17 - Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again - the Father loves Jesus all the more because He willingly laid down His life to save the ones whom the Father dearly loved, you and I. See Joh 3:16; Heb 7:27

Joh 10:17

Joh 10:17 - that I might take it again - See Joh 5:21, 26

Joh 10:18

Joh 10:18 - No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself - Jesus tells us as disciples to do the same - See Joh 10:11; Phil 2:8; 1Jo 3:16; Mt 16:25 "In Him was life; and the life was the light of men." It is not physical life that is here specified, but eternal life, the life which is exclusively the property of God. The Word, who was with God, and who was God, had this life. Physical life is something which each individual received. It is not eternal or immortal; for God, the Lifegiver, takes it again. Man has no control over his life. But the life of Christ was unborrowed. No one can take this life from Him. "I lay it down of myself," He said. In Him was life, original, unborrowed, underived. This life is not inherent in man. He can possess it only through Christ. He cannot earn it; it is given him as a free gift if he will believe in Christ as his personal Saviour. "This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent." John 17:3. This is the open fountain of life for the world (The Signs of the Times, February 13, 1912). - {5BC 1130.3} 12, 13. See EGW comment on 2 Corinthians 5:17. - {5BC 1130.4} But He humbled Himself, and took mortality upon Him. As a member of the human family, He was mortal; but as a God, He was the fountain of life to the world. He could, in His divine person, ever have withstood the advances of death, and refused to come under its dominion; but He voluntarily laid down His life, that in so doing He might give life and bring immortality to light. He bore the sins of the world, and endured the penalty, which rolled like a mountain upon His divine soul. He yielded up His life a sacrifice, that man should not eternally die. He died, not through being compelled to die, but by His own free will. This was humility. The whole treasure of heaven was poured out in one gift to save fallen man. He brought into His human nature all the life-giving energies that human beings will need and must receive. - {5BC 1127.1}

Joh 10:18

John 10:18 - but I lay it down of myself - Jesus, being continually connected and submitted to the will of His Father, laid down His life for the human race and to rid the universe of the curse. See Gen 22:9, 10; Heb 5:7

Joh 10:18

Joh 10:18 - I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father - There remains a mystery in this saying of Christ as we will never fully understand the incarnation of God. Yet we are given some verses that shed some light on this wonderful miracle of grace: 1. In Christ is life, un-borrowed, underived: Joh 1:4, 5:26 2. Though in the form of God, He made Himself of no reputation: Phil 2:5-8 3. The fullness of the Godhead dwells in Jesus bodily: Col 2:9

Joh 10:18

Joh 10:18 - This commandment have I received of my Father - Jesus receives the following declarations of His Father at His incarnation: 1. Jesus is forever a priest after the order of Melchizedek - Heb 5:10, 7:17 2. Jesus has eternal life in Himself - Joh 5:26 3. He has power to lay down His life and take it up again - Joh 10:18 4. Jesus as a prophet, will speak only the words that His Father has given Him to speak - Joh 12:49, 50 5. God has commanded everlasting life to be established in His Son - Joh 12:50; 1Jo 5:9-13; 1Thess 4:3

Joh 10:19

Joh 10:19 - There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings - Jesus divides the world. No one can sit on the fence but all must make a decision regarding Who He is and where we stand with Him. See Joh 7:43, 10:19-22; Mt 10:34, 12:30; Heb 4:12

Joh 10:20

Joh 10:20 - And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him? - an example of devilish projection. The very ones accusing Jesus of having a devil, are themselves controlled, under the influence and possessed of devils. See Rev 16:13, 14

Joh 10:21

Joh 10:21 - These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind? - The sheep of Jesus recognize His voice and give testimony that there was no guile in Him, His righteous works, nor in His words. See Joh 10:14, 25, 37, 38

Joh 10:21

Joh 10:21 - Can a devil open the eyes of the blind? - See Joh 9:16, 30-33

Joh 10:24

Joh 10:25 - If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly - Jesus would not speak the words they requested of Him because: 1. His words and works all testified of His character: Joh 10:25, 26 2. His self-declaration would be used against Him by the Jews 3. He expected His people to recognize Him based on all the light that had been given Him. Foreigners (the Centurion, the Samaritan woman at the well, the Syro-Phoenician woman) all recognized and acknowledge Him, but His own people were in darkness and failed to acknowledge Him.

Joh 10:25

Joh 10:25 - I told you, and ye believed not - this is the condemnation upon the Jewish leadership. See Joh 3:19-21, 5:39; Deut 18:19; Heb 3:10-12, 4:2

Joh 10:25

Joh 10:25 - the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me - See Mt 9:8; Joh 5:39, 40, 9:30-33||Isa 42:1-7; Joh 7:14-26

Joh 10:29 - My Father, which gave them me - See Joh 17:6, 6:44, 45, 65

Joh 10:29

John 10:29 - and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand - This statement is wholly conditional in our continuance in well doing and abiding in Jesus. John 10:28; Isa 43:13; Deut 32:39; Rom 2:7; Heb 3:6, 10:34-39; John 15:1-6; 2Pet 1:10

Joh 10:33

Joh 10:30 - For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy - the self-righteous hypocrisy of the Jews is telling. They acknowledge that Jesus has done many good works and yet they do not believe Him. They themselves conspire to kill Him, a bad and evil work and no one takes up stones to kill them for their wickedness and malice. In their self-righteous pride, they presume that Jesus has committed the sin of blasphemy in declaring Oneness with His Father and thus take up stones to stone the Righteous Lord.

Joh 10:33

Joh 10:33 - because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God - See Lk 5:21, 7:49; Mk 2:7

Joh 10:34

Joh 10:34 - Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods? - Interestingly, Jesus quotes from Ps 82:6 which describes men who are in leadership positions that rule over others unjustly. The Lord through the psalmist asks "How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked?", the very spirit exhibited by the Jewish leadership in rejecting Jesus and choosing their wicked ways and ultimately choosing Barabbas over Him. Jesus is rebuking them in highlighting the very verse that justifies calling Himself God, which He truly is. See Ps 82:1-8; 1Cor 8:5

Joh 10:34

Joh 10:34 - The leadership who lord over the poor, weak and fatherless are those called gods and lords. These have received the Word of God though their work showed that they were not faithful and believing in its counsels - see Ps 82:1-8

Joh 10:34

Joh 10:34 - gods - The leadership who lord over the poor, weak and fatherless are those called gods and lords. These have received the Word of God though their works showed that they were not faithful and believing in its counsels - see Ps 82:1-8

Joh 10:35

Joh 10:35 - the scripture cannot be broken - See Ps 12:6, 7; Mt 24:35; Mk 13:31; Lk 21:33; 1Pet 1:25

Joh 10:36

Joh 10:36 - whom the Father hath sanctified - Jesus was sanctified a Prophet to the Nations as was Jer. See Joh 17:19; Jer 1:5||Deut 18:18

Joh 10:36

Joh 10:36 - and sent into the world - See Isa 48:16

Joh 10:37

Joh 10:37 - If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not - Jesus here presents the litmus test of His divinity. If His works can be attested to by the works of God, He should be believed. If not, as the Pharisees so accused of Him, that His works were of the devil, then He should not be believed. Consistent with God's open character, willing to be questioned, Jesus subjects Himself to be tried, proven and tested. See Mal 3:10; Isa 1:18

Joh 10:38

Joh 10:38 - But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him. Jesus says, "even if you don't like me and choose not to believe [in] Me, if the works are of God, do not deny God's works and power working within Me". See Lk 7:22; Joh 5:36; Mk 12:28-34

Joh 10:39

Joh 10:39 - Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand - See Joh 8:59; 10:31

Joh 10:41

Joh 10:41 - Joh did no miracle: but all things that Joh spake of this man were true - the enemy of souls would have men to believe that miracles are an identifying characteristic of the power of God, when the Bible says clearly that in the last days, the devil will perform signs and wonders to deceive the masses. The people attested to the fact that Joh the Baptist, called the greatest of the prophets by Jesus, himself did no miracles, yet all that he conveyed of Jesus was true, drawing men to accept Christ. The true testimony of a faithful witness is empowered by God to fulfill His work. See Lk 3:16-18

Joh 11:1

Joh 11:1 - Lazarus - an abbreviation of Eleazar meaning "whom God helps"

Joh 11:2

Joh 11:2 - It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair - See Mt 26:7; Mk 14:3; Lk 7:37, 38

Joh 11:3

Joh 11:3 - he whom thou lovest is sick - the request of Lazarus' sisters to Jesus "the one who YOU love, is sick" was one that supposedly could not be refused. Yet, to all appearances of the sisters, it seemed as if Jesus rejected the request. The request may have been merely a delineation of Lazarus' name which means "he whom God helps". See Joh 11:5

Joh 11:4

Joh 11:4 - This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby - Jesus may be giving the disciples and us a glimpse into the Great Controversy waging behind the scenes. The sickness was not to mark the end of Lazarus' life, but one which God permitted the Devil to afflict upon his son [whom He loved - "Lazarus"] so that Jesus may be glorified (compare Joh 9:3-5). The devil sought the life of Lazarus for his destruction. God permitted the devil to gain what he thought was a victory (See Job 2:1, 2). God had a bigger plan in this effort.

Joh 11:5

Joh 11:5 - Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus - these 3 were as family to Christ. Their home was always a welcomed safe-haven where Jesus could find comfort, friendship, compassion, and understanding. Jesus could be Himself and speak plainly with them because they saw Him for Who He was and genuinely loved Him.

Joh 11:6

Joh 11:6 - When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was - seems like a strange way of answering the call for help for one who You love. Consider what the disciples may have been thinking about Jesus' response to the plea for help. Consider what their thoughts may have been regarding Jesus handling Joh the Baptist's imprisonment and failure to visit him. Jesus was purposeful in everything He did.

Joh 11:8

Joh 11:6 - Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again? - See Joh 10:31, 39

Joh 11:9

Joh 11:9 - Are there not twelve hours in the day? - the day is spoken of as 12hrs (6AM-6PM) and the night as 12hrs (6PM-6AM). See Mt 20:1-8

Joh 11:9

Joh 11:9 - If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world - See 1Thess 5:4-10; Joh 9:4, 12:35, 36

Joh 11:9

Joh 11:9 - because he seeth the light of this world - Jesus, the Sun of Righteousness, was letting the disciples know that His time had not yet come and while the Light of Life was still present there was nothing, no darkness to fear. See Joh 9:5, 1:9, 3:21; Mal 4:2

Joh 11:10

Joh 11:10 - But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him - Jesus is forecasting the fate of Judas who would betray Him at night. See Joh 13:30; 1Thess 5:2, 3

Joh 11:10

Joh 11:10 - because there is no light in him - the person has no understanding of Truth. They walk in darkness because they refuse the light of life. See Isa 8:20; Joh 3:19-21; Jer 17:5, 6, 9, 10

Joh 11:11

Joh 11:11 - Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep - See Dan 12:2; Job 7:21; Joh 11:13, 14; Mt 9:24; 1Cor 15:51

Joh 11:13

Joh 11:15 - Jesus spake of his death - see Ps 76:6

Joh 11:14

Joh 11:14 - Lazarus is dead - See Ps 13:3

Joh 11:15

Joh 11:15 - And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe - Jesus delayed His arrival to Bethany for several reasons: 1. To dispel the Greek/Romand pagan mythology (vain phylosophy) that had entered the Jewish faith in suggesting a person's spirit remains for several days after death 2. To allow the baleful work of sin to set in, causing Lazarus' death 3. To show that life and especially eternal life is found in none other than Himself; that He may be glorified (Joh 11:4)

Joh 11:15

Joh 11:15 - to the intent ye may believe - Jesus' greatest miracle was to demonstrate to all of His disciples His power over death and the grave and thus also to forgive sins. See Heb 2:14, 15; Rom 6:3-13

Joh 11:16

Joh 11:16 - Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him - Thomas did not believe that God would take care of Jesus and all who were with Him, nor did he believe Jesus' words. See Joh 11:8-10, 14:8, 6:5-7, 20:27

Joh 11:17

Joh 11:17 - Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already - Jesus deliberately delayed His arrival to permit four days to transpire from Lazarus' death. The Jews had embraced pagan superstitions that the spirit of the dead hovered over the body for up to 3days before being released to heaven/hell. Had He arrived and raised Lazarus from the dead, His enemies would have furthered the superstition in order to disprove Jesus' miracle. So that His miracle could be without question, Jesus waited until the 4th day and performed His "greatest" earthly miracle, demonstrating His divinity, power over the grave.

Joh 11:18 - Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off: - 1.875miles away

Joh 11:20

Joh 11:20 - Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him - we again see the contrast in character in the sisters Mary and Martha. Martha showed impulsiveness, jumping to action when notified of Jesus' arrival. Mary calmly waited. Martha was consumed with "duty" wanting to make sure the guests were fed and accommodated. Mary sat Jesus' feet learning, trusting that the physical wants and needs would be addressed in their appointed time. Lord help me to be more like Mary!

Joh 11:20

Joh 11:20 - but Mary sat still in the house - Mary was not moved to run to The Master but remained in the house, awaiting His arrival. Mary may have been disappointed with her Master for not heeding the request to heel His beloved friend Lazarus. Mary may have been confused by His uncharacteristic delay.

Joh 11:21

Joh 11:21 - Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died - Martha was convinced in both Jesus' character and love for Lazarus that He would not have permitted death to visit His beloved friend.

Joh 11:22

Joh 11:22 - But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee - Martha was aware of Jesus raising the widow of Nain's son and Jairus' daughter. She was convinced that Jesus could raise Lazarus in similar fashion, even though 4 days had not transpired, unlike the prior miracles of resurrection Jesus had performed.

Joh 11:22

Joh 11:22 - whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee - the Son delights to do the will of His Father and similarly, the Father delights to do the will of His Son. Heb 10:5-7; Joh 17:1-26

Joh 11:23

Joh 11:23 - Thy brother shall rise again - the prophetic statement spoken by Jesus has dual meaning. Jesus was speaking first of the resurrection of the just, when Jesus would return to receive His kingdom. However, Jesus was also speaking of His intention to show her and all the world the glory that was His own.

Joh 11:24

Joh 11:24 - I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day - See Joh 5:24-29, 6:39, 40, 44; Col 3:4; 1Cor 15:23; 1Thess 4:16-18; Job 14:13; Lk 14:14; Titus 2:13; 2Tim 4:6-8 Nowhere in the Sacred Scriptures is found the statement that the righteous go to their reward or the wicked to their punishment at death. The patriarchs and prophets have left no such assurance. Christ and His apostles have given no hint of it. The Bible clearly teaches that the dead do not go immediately to heaven. They are represented as sleeping until the resurrection. 1 Thessalonians 4:14; Job 14:10-12. In the very day when the silver cord is loosed and the golden bowl broken (Ecclesiastes 12:6), man's thoughts perish. They that go down to the grave are in silence. They know no more of anything that is done under the sun. Job 14:21. Blessed rest for the weary righteous! Time, be it long or short, is but a moment to them. They sleep; they are awakened by the trump of God to a glorious immortality. "For the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible.... So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory." 1 Corinthians 15:52-54. As they are called forth from their deep slumber they begin to think just where they ceased. The last sensation was the pang of death; the last thought, that they were falling beneath the power of the grave. When they arise from the tomb, their first glad thought will be echoed in the triumphal shout: "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" Verse 55. - {GC 549.3}

Joh 11:25

Joh 11:25 - I am the resurrection and the life - Jesus is the Light and Life that gives life to the world. This Life enables Him to be the Resurrection as well. All whose lives are hid in Christ, who have died in Christ (their lives/character/soul abide in the living Christ) will be brought with Him at His Second Coming to redeem the living and dead in Christ. See 1Thess 4:14; Heb 12:23; Joh 1:1-4; Col 3:1-4 Over the rent sepulcher of Joseph, Christ had proclaimed in triumph, "I am the resurrection, and the life." These words could be spoken only by the Deity. All created beings live by the will and power of God. They are dependent recipients of the life of God. From the highest seraph to the humblest animate being, all are replenished from the Source of life. Only He who is one with God could say, I have power to lay down My life, and I have power to take it again. In His divinity, Christ possessed the power to break the bonds of death. - {DA 785.3}; See Joh 10:18; Heb 2:13, 14; 1Jo 1:2, 4:9

Joh 11:25

John 11:25 - the life - Jesus has eternal life within Himself, unborrowed, underived. See Colossians 3:1-4; John 5:24-26, 1:1-4, 3:16; 1Jo 5:11-13

Joh 11:25

Joh 11:25 - though he were dead, yet shall he live... liveth and believeth in me shall never die - Jesus here is commenting on the two classes of the redeemed who will inherit eternal life, the dead in Christ and the living in Christ. The person who believed in Christ, though they have died, they are asleep in Him and will rise again in the resurrection of life - See John 5:24-29; 1Thess 4:13-18; Mt 22:32||Mk 12:27||Lk 20:38

Joh 11:26

Joh 11:26 - And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die - speaking of those who are born again, the righteous who are alive by virtue of the merits of Christ, their lives are hid in Christ and they have eternal life abiding in them. Therefore, even if their temporary life in the flesh should cease, they have eternal life abiding within and never die, but merely sleep in Jesus. See John 5:24, 3:16, 10:28; Ps 125:1; Col 3:1-5; 1Jo 5:11-13; *Mt 22:32||Mk 12:27||Lk 20:38 Also speaking of the dead in Christ, whose lives were hid in Him before death so that they sleep in Christ and will be brought with Christ at His Second Coming. See Joh 8:51, 52; Col 3:3, 4; 1Thess 4:13-18

Joh 11:26

Joh 11:26 - Believest thou this? - Jesus asks Martha if she understood and believed His words. Jesus asks us the same question: "Believest thou this?"

Joh 11:27

Joh 11:27 - She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world - The same declaration given by Peter would be immediately followed by an act of unbelief. See Joh 17:25, 16:16-18; 1Jo 4:15, 5:1

Joh 11:27

Joh 11:27 - thou art the Christ, the Son of God - See Dan 9:24, 25

Joh 11:27

Joh 11:27 - which should come into the world - See Gen 3:15; Heb 10:5; Joh 1:9

Joh 11:28

Joh 11:28 - The Master is come, and calleth for thee - whether Jesus beckoned Martha to call Mary or if Martha took it upon herself to call Mary in order to further persuade Him of their desire, namely, to raise their brother Lazarus, is unclear.

Joh 11:29

Joh 11:29 - As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him - as an obedient sheep, Mary responds to the beckoning of her Shepherd. See Joh 10:3, 4, 16

Joh 11:30

Joh 11:30 - Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him - Jesus chose not to enter the town of Bethany but to remain outside, where He was met by Martha. Jesus chose to tarry and await the arrival and return of Mary and Martha.

Joh 11:31

Joh 11:31 - The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there - the mourners, who had made a ritual of such occasions, hasted to follow Mary to what they thought was the grave to further their lamentations.

Joh 11:32

Joh 11:32 - Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet - this is the position we must all find ourselves. Mary was acquainted showing this honor, respect and humility before her Maker and her King.

Joh 11:32

Joh 11:32 - saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died - Both Mary and Martha came to the same conclusion, reasoning that Lazarus' death was an impossibility in the presence of divinity. Joh 11:21, 22

Joh 11:33

Joh 11:33 - When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled - Jesus is touched by the feelings of our infirmities. Praise God. We have a merciful High Priest who is acquainted with the pains and sorrows we bear and hurts with us. Bless You Immanuel, God with us!! See Heb 4:15, 16, 2:14-18; Hymn 181 - Does Jesus Care? God will ultimately give the workers of iniquity that which they desire, to be separated from Him. They who mock and scorn His counsels will ultimately face the reward of their rebellion. In that day, when their calamities befall them, God will laugh at them as they turn and seek Him after scorning all of His counsels. See Ps 2:

Joh 11:35

John 11:35 - Jesus wept - Jesus did not weep for Himself but for the sufferings of humanity and foreseeing that so many would reject Him, the plight of humanity.

Joh 11:37

Joh 11:37 - And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died? - the question was half in faith and in unbelief. Jesus longed to show the people that He is God not only over sickness and disease but over sin and death. His longing in His heart for the people caused Him to grow inwardly. See Joh 9:31-33

Joh 11:39 - Take ye away the stone - Jesus, Who is life, can impart life to the dead. However, a stone lies between Life and the death. Jesus seeks our cooperation in helping to move the stone so that Life can call forth the dead to life. However, there are many stones in our lives that prevent us from being used of the Lord so that He may impart life. Some of those stones are: 1. Wealth and the love of money - we are too preoccupied in acquiring while others are perishing 2. Professionalism/Title - our too important positions, titles, professions prevent us from being used as salt to season those most affected by sin 3. Youth/Beauty - youthful lusts and desires keep us from committing ourselves fully to Christ and being used to glorify Him

Joh 11:39 - Lord, by this time he stinketh; for he hath been dead four days - ever mindful of the small details and of a fretful spirit, Martha fears the shame of the stench of death; yet the stench must be dispelled in order for life to come forth. The "one thing" that Martha needed was a calm, devotional spirit, a deeper anxiety for knowledge concerning the future, immortal life, and the graces necessary for spiritual advancement. She needed less anxiety for the things which pass away, and more for those things which endure forever. Jesus would teach His children to seize every opportunity of gaining that knowledge which will make them wise unto salvation. The cause of Christ needs careful, energetic workers. There is a wide field for the Marthas, with their zeal in active religious work. But let them first sit with Mary at the feet of Jesus. Let diligence, promptness, and energy be sanctified by the grace of Christ; then the life will be an unconquerable power for good.—The Desire of Ages, 525 (1898). - {DG 58.1} Like Mary, we need to sit at the feet of Jesus to learn

Joh 11:40

Joh 11:40 - Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God? - Praise God for His patience and long-suffering with our anxiety and unbelief. Jesus needed to remind Martha that He would reveal great and mighty things which she kneweth not, if only she trusted and believed. See Jer 33:3

Joh 11:40

Joh 11:40 - thou shouldest see the glory of God - God would be shown to glory over death, the grave, the stench of death and the destruction decay as Jesus calls forth Lazarus in newness of life - 1Cor 15:55 Lazarus is set free, and stands before the company, not as one emaciated from disease, and with feeble, tottering limbs, but as a man in the prime of life, and in the vigor of a noble manhood. His eyes beam with intelligence and with love for his Saviour. He casts himself in adoration at the feet of Jesus.—The Desire of Ages, 536 (1898). - {DG 60.1}

Joh 11:41

Joh 11:41 - Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me - In all that He did, Christ was cooperating with His Father. Ever He had been careful to make it evident that He did not work independently; it was by faith and prayer that He wrought His miracles. Christ desired all to know His relationship with His Father. {Daughters of God, 59.3}

Joh 11:42

Joh 11:42 - And I knew that thou hearest me always - Jesus had full confidence that the Father always listened and heard His petitions because He feared God. See Heb 5:7 Compare Joh 9:31; Prov 1:22-31

Joh 11:42

Joh 11:42 - but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me - Jesus always worked to set an example of godliness for the people and His relationship to His Father. Jesus acknowledged the Father before performing the miracle so all would know in Whose name the feat was performed. See Joh 11:37

Joh 11:42 - that they may believe that thou hast sent me - See Isa 48:16; Ps 2:6-12

Joh 11:43

Joh 11:43 - he cried with a loud voice - at the voice of Jesus, sickness and death have to flee and life is commanded to go forth. The life of Lazarus was hid in Christ so that the same Life Giver could call forth His son. Lazarus was not in heaven but in Christ so that he could not die (Joh 11:25, 26; Mt 22:33). See Rev 10:3; Ps 29:1-11

Joh 11:44

Joh 11:44 - And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin - 1Thess 4:14-18

Joh 11:44

Joh 11:44 - Loose him, and let him go - There is a stir in the silent tomb, and he who was dead stands at the door of the sepulcher. His movements are impeded by the graveclothes in which he was laid away, and Christ says to the astonished spectators, "Loose him, and let him go." Again they are shown that the human worker is to cooperate with God. Humanity is to work for humanity. Lazarus is set free, and stands before the company, not as one emaciated from disease, and with feeble, tottering limbs, but as a man in the prime of life, and in the vigor of a noble manhood. His eyes beam with intelligence and with love for his Saviour. He casts himself in adoration at the feet of Jesus.—The Desire of Ages, 536 (1898). - {DG 60.1}

Joh 11:45

Joh 11:45 - Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him - many who had come for formality and ritual of mourning, left believers in Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Joh 11:46

Joh 11:46 - But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done - in contrast, there were those who against all odds would not believe the Truth and had pleasure in a lie. They supported the false claims of the Pharisees and went to give them a report of Jesus' miraculous works. See Joh 10:20; 2Tim 3:7

Joh 11:47

Joh 11:47 - Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council - See Ps 2:1-4; Hos 6:9

Joh 11:47

Joh 11:46 - for this man doeth many miracles - the blind leaders were hardened in their hatred towards Jesus and would not be convinced, even for the miracle's sake.

Joh 11:48

Joh 11:48 - If we let Him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Rom shall come and take away both our place and nation - the words spoken by the Jewish leadership counsel echoes the sentiments of Satan and his host. Driven by a satanic spirit, the Pharisees do not desire the clear knowledge of truth shown in the Savior's life, but reject the light and seek to maintain their temporal control over the nation. Their quest for temporal power overshadowed any desire for truth and godliness. They hated Christ because His purity and holiness revealed their iniquity; and they accused Him of being the cause of all the troubles which had come upon them in consequence of their sins. Though they knew Him to be sinless, they had declared that His death was necessary to their safety as a nation. "If we let Him thus alone," said the Jewish leaders, "all men will believe on Him: and the Rom shall come and take away both our place and nation." Joh 11:48. If Christ were sacrificed, they might once more become a strong, united people. Thus they reasoned, and they concurred in the decision of their high priest, that it would be better for one man to die than for the whole nation to perish. - {GC 27.1} "But Christ's call for repentance went unheeded. Man had to prove to himself the root of his sin, his desire to take God's place, his will to kill Him. And so at Calvary the evidence was established for eternity. This is the sin facing the church and calling for repentance. This is the hidden source of all the other transgressions. The realization of this situation is still in the future, and so guilt remains." {Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short; pg 119}

Joh 11:49

Joh 11:49-51 - God uses even the workers of iniquity to prophecy His plans and purposes (see Balaam in Num 23:7-10, 18-24)

Joh 11:49

Joh 11:49 - being the high priest that same year - The Jews had been permitted to maintain the form of a separate government; but nothing could disguise the fact that they were under the Roman yoke, or reconcile them to the restriction of their power. The Rom claimed the right of appointing and removing the high priest, and the office was often secured by fraud, bribery, and even murder. Thus the priesthood became more and more corrupt. Yet the priests still possessed great power, and they employed it for selfish and mercenary ends. DA 30.1

Joh 11:50

John 11:50 - expedient - (of an action) convenient and practical although possibly improper or immoral.

Joh 11:50

Joh 11:50 - one man should die for the people - not realizing the inspiration behind his words, Caiaphas articulated the very purpose of Jesus' coming. His intentions were motivated by a demonic spirit, yet he spoke the expressed will of God. God is awesome!! See Isa 53:4-6, 10; Rev 17:17 On the lips of Caiaphas this most precious truth was turned into a lie. The policy he advocated was based on a principle borrowed from heathenism. Among the heathen, the dim consciousness that one was to die for the human race had led to the offering of human sacrifices. So Caiaphas proposed by the sacrifice of Jesus to save the guilty nation, not from transgression, but in transgression, that they might continue in sin. And by his reasoning he thought to silence the remonstrances of those who might dare to say that as yet nothing worthy of death had been found in Jesus. - {DA 540.2}

Joh 11:51

Joh 11:51 - And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year - though contrary to His will and warring against His Anointed One, God respected the post of High Priest that Caiaphas held and permitted him to prophecy of Jesus' death to those listening.

Joh 11:51

Joh 11:51 - he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation - like Baalam, God had Caiaphas take up his oracle and prophecy the very works of Christ. See Num 22, 23

Joh 11:52

Joh 11:52 - And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad - the mystery of God, that He would gather in all of His children from every kindred, tongue and people to love and serve Him. See Eph 2:13-22 The Jews, like the heathen, sought to offer Jesus up as a sacrifice to appease their heathen gods, that they all not perish. Yet, God would offer up His Son as a sacrifice for the sins of all people. Isa 53:10

Joh 11:52 - gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad (Joh 4:42, 10:16; Isa 49:1-3)

Joh 11:53

Joh 11:53 - Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death - See Ps 2:1-3, 25:3, 35:7, 19

Joh 11:54

Joh 11:54 - Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews - See Ex 12:3, 5, 6 COMPARE - John 11:8-10 Just as the Passover lamb had for centuries been taken from the flocks a few days before it was to be slain, and had been kept separate, a lamb marked for death; so a few days before Christ was crucified, the Sanhedrin condemned Him to death. From that day forth, as they looked upon Him, they knew that His death was determined. As the lamb was kept apart, so "Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews." This was only a few days before Jesus was seized by the cruel mob and condemned by false witnesses. {1914 SNH, CIS 96.2}

Joh 11:57

Joh 11:57 - Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him - See Joh 7:45-47; Ps 37:32

Joh 12:2

Joh 12:2 - There they made him a supper - Simon the Leper, the uncle of Mary Magdalene who sexually abused her and was made a leper, held a feast for Jesus. See Mt 26:6-13

Joh 12:3

Joh 12:3 - Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment - See Mt 26:7

Joh 12:5

Joh 12:5 - Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor? - See Mt 26:8, 9

Joh 12:6

Joh 12:6 - This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein - See Joh 13:29; Mt 26:9

Joh 12:8

Joh 12:8 - For the poor always ye have with you - See Mt 26:11||Mk 14:7; Deut 15:11

Joh 12:9

Joh 12:9 - Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead - Lazarus was the ultimate walking, talking miracle. Lazarus was evidence of Jesus' divinity.

Joh 12:10

Joh 12:10 - But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death - The blood thirsty Jews wanted to silence every evidence of Jesus' divinity. See Joh 8:44; Ps 37:32

Joh 12:11

Joh 12:11 - Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus - See Joh 12:18

Joh 12:13

Joh 12:13 - Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord - See Mt 21:8, 9

Joh 12:13

Joh 12:13 - Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord - See Ps 118:25, 26; Mt 21:8, 9; Lk 19:38

Joh 12:14

Joh 12:14 - And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written - See Mt 21:2-7

Joh 12:15

Joh 12:15 - Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt - See Zech 9:9

Joh 12:17

Joh 12:17 - The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record - the procession that accompanied Jesus on the ass' colt was led by Lazarus, the one raised from the dead by Jesus and the overwhelming evidence of His divinity. See Joh 12:10, 11

Joh 12:18

Joh 12:18 - For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle - See Joh 12:10, 11

Joh 12:19

Joh 12:19 - The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him - See Joh 11:47-50

Joh 12:20

Joh 12:20 - certain Greeks among them - See Isa 60:1-3 These men came from the West to find the Saviour at the close of His life, as the wise men had come from the East at the beginning. At the time of Christ's birth the Jewish people were so engrossed with their own ambitious plans that they knew not of His advent. The magi from a heathen land came to the manger with their gifts, to worship the Saviour. So these Greeks, representing the nations, tribes, and peoples of the world, came to see Jesus. So the people of all lands and all ages would be drawn by the Saviour's cross. So shall many "come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven." Mt 8:11. - {DA 621.3} "Truly this was the Son of God." Mt 27:54. - {DA 770.1} These words were said in no whispered tones. All eyes were turned to see whence they came. Who had spoken? It was the centurion, the Roman soldier. The divine patience of the Saviour, and His sudden death, with the cry of victory upon His lips, had impressed this heathen. In the bruised, broken body hanging upon the cross, the centurion recognized the form of the Son of God. He could not refrain from confessing his faith. Thus again evidence was given that our Redeemer was to see of the travail of His soul. Upon the very day of His death, three men, differing widely from one another, had declared their faith,—he who commanded the Roman guard, he who bore the cross of the Saviour, and he who died upon the cross at His side. - {DA 770.2}

Joh 12:21

Joh 12:21 - Sir, we would see Jesus. - See Isa 56:1-7; Mt 8:11 The Greeks had heard of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Some supposed, and had circulated the report, that He had driven the priests and rulers from the temple, and that He was to take possession of David's throne, and reign as king of Israel. The Greeks longed to know the truth in regard to His mission. "We would see Jesus," they said. Their desire was granted. When the request was brought to Jesus, He was in that part of the temple from which all except Jews were excluded, but He went out to the Greeks in the outer court, and had a personal interview with them. - {DA 622.1} The Saviour longed to unfold to His disciples the truth regarding the breaking down of the "middle wall of partition" between Israel and the other nations—the truth that "the Gentiles should be fellow heirs" with the Jews and "partakers of His promise in Christ by the gospel." Eph 2:14; 3:6. This truth was revealed in part at the time when He rewarded the faith of the centurion at Capernaum, and also when He preached the gospel to the inhabitants of Sychar. Still more plainly was it revealed on the occasion of His visit to Phoenicia, when He healed the daughter of the Canaanite woman. These experiences helped the disciples to understand that among those whom many regarded as unworthy of salvation, there were souls hungering for the light of truth. - {AA 19.3} Thus Christ sought to teach the disciples the truth that in God's kingdom there are no territorial lines, no caste, no aristocracy; that they must go to all nations, bearing to them the message of a Saviour's love. But not until later did they realize in all its fullness that God "hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; that they should seek the Lord, if happily they might feel after Him, and find Him, though He be not far from every one of us.”

Act 17:26, 27. - {AA 20.1}

Joh 12:22

Joh 12:22 - Philip cometh and telleth Andrew - Philip apparently felt the need to confer with Andrew before going to Jesus to make the request on behalf of the Greek proselytes. This may either speak of the prejudice Philip had within his heart towards the Greeks and their inquire, or of a weak character that constantly sought counsel, even for doing the right thing, or a discomfort in coming to Jesus personally. In either case, he deferred to Andrew, the more confident, to make the decision and then they both approached Jesus. Compare Joh 6:5-9;

Joh 12:23

Joh 12:23 - The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified - Interestingly, as Jesus is sought for an audience by Gentile believers, Jesus declares His time has come. This is in fulfillment of Isa 42:1, where Jesus was to bring judgment (refining power - Malachi 3:3-5) and the gospel to the Gentiles to gather all under heaven unto Himself. See Joh 17:1, 5, 3:14-17; Isa 60:1-3

Joh 12:24

Joh 12:24 - except a corn of wheat fall in to the ground and die - See 1Cor 15:36, 42

Joh 12:24

Joh 12:24 - it abideth alone - Just as a un-sown kernel of wheat will stand alone and bear no fruit, the Godhead realized that if they should take no action on mankind's behalf, man would die and they would be without their beloved creation. Thank you Lord God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit for being willing to take on our burden so that we might live with you forever!

Joh 12:24

John 12:24 - but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit - See 1Cor 15:36, 37

Joh 12:25

Joh 12:25 - He that loveth his life shall lose it - those who love this world and the things of this world, have no regard for the world to come and will therefore forfeit it. Those who are willing to sacrifice this world for that which is exceedingly better, will receive the joys of eternal life. See 1Jo 2:15-17

Joh 12:25

Joh 12:25 - he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal - Those that deny themselves, take up their cross and follow Christ in this world will receive eternal life. See Gal 2:20; Rom 12:1, 2; Joh 17:1-3

Joh 12:26 - If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be - See Joh 10:4, 15:1-5; Rev 14:4 The Lord calls upon young men to enter the harvest field and work diligently as harvest hands. He calls upon them to work for Him, not to labor with the churches already established, but to connect with experienced laborers in work in the great harvest field. Let young men of ability go forth and trade on their talents. As they go, let them trust to the guidance of the Lord.... - {Ev 686.1} This is the work young men should be encouraged to do, not to speak to an audience which does not need their immature labors, which is well aware of this fact, and feels no drawing of the Spirit. The Lord has not given to young men the work among the churches. Their first duty is to learn lessons in various lines from the great Teacher.... - {Ev 686.2} What did Christ say to His disciples? "If any man serve Me, let him follow Me." This is the rule given in the Word of God. By studying the life of Christ, let the workers find out how He lived and worked. Let them strive each day to live the life of Christ, seeking to know the way of the Lord.— Manuscript 75, 1900. - {Ev 686.3}

Joh 12:26 - if any man serve me, him will my Father honour - See 1Tim 5:17; 1Pet 5:6

Joh 12:27

Joh 12:27 - Now is my soul troubled - In His humanity, His soul was troubled with the prospect of the cross. Jesus realized however, that this was the expressed purpose for Him being there on earth and it was His Father's will for Him. This did not change the fact that He was troubled. Jesus took on our fallen humanity and was tried and tested in all points as we are. Jesus experienced bitterness of soul in contemplating the fate that lie ahead of Him, but He realized that was His mission and calling. See Joh 11:33, 35, 38; Mt 20:23; Lk 12:50; Jam 5:17

Joh 12:27

Joh 12:27 - and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour - See 1Pet 4:19

Joh 12:27

Joh 12:27 - but for this cause came I unto this hour - See Isa 53:1-11

Joh 12:28

Joh 12:28 - Father, glorify thy name - This statement is the victorious blueprint that Jesus gave to all Christians when fear and trouble arise, "Father, glorify thy name"! The statement is one of submission and surrender, where Jesus submitted to the will of His Father and desired that God be glorified in and through His humiliation. This is the course in which all followers of Christ must be tried in order to receive complete victory over self, and for God's eternal purpose to be fulfilled, that He be All in all who come to Him by faith. See Joh 17:4, 15:8

Joh 12:28

Joh 12:28 - Then came there a voice from heaven - See Mt 3:17, 17:5; Deut 5:24, 26

Joh 12:29

Joh 12:29 - The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered - the voice of God is as a mighty thunder. See Rev 10:3, 4; 1Sam 2:10; Job 40:9; 2Sam 22:14

Joh 12:30

Joh 12:30 - Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes - Jesus makes plain that what some suggested was thunder was the very voice of God, spoken for their sakes, though they chose not to believe. See Joh 11:15, 42, 12:37; Ps 18:13

Joh 12:31

Joh 12:31 - Now is the judgment of this world: - the world which Satan claims as his own was judged and found guilty at the cross of Christ. The rejection of Pilate to uphold justice, the chief priests' incitement of the crowd to condemn the innocent and acquit the guilty, and the people's demonstrated hatred towards righteousness all revealed the character of Satan and his sons, the seed of the serpent (Mt 27:15-50). The fate of Satan and his imps was sealed. See Lk 10:18; Isa 42:1; Joh 16:11; 1Jo 2:15, 16; Heb 2:14, 15; Mal 3:3-5

Joh 12:31

Joh 12:31 - now shall the prince of this world be cast out - Now is the judgment of this world while Jesus sits as a Refiner and Purifier of silver, purifying the sons of Levi (Mal 3:3-5). The prince of this world, the prince of the power of the air, is to be cast out of the lives of all who surrender and submit to the righteousness of Jesus Christ. See Eph 2:2; Joh 14:30; Heb 2:14, 15, 9:26; Mt 12:28, 29; Lk 11:21, 22;

Joh 12:32

Joh 12:32 - And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.- the sight of the blood of Christ will draw all men unto Him. See Joh 3:14-16 "Make thee a fiery serpent and set it upon a pole; and it shall come to pass that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live." - {ST October 28, 1880 Par. 8} In obedience to the word of God, Moses made a serpent of brass resembling the creatures by which the people had been bitten, and set it upon a high pole in the midst of the camp. Then the joyful news was sounded throughout the encampment, that all who had been bitten might look upon the brazen serpent and be healed. - {ST October 28, 1880 Par. 9} Here the Israelites were required to do something for themselves. They must look upon the brazen serpent, if they would live. Many had already died from the sting of the venomous reptiles, and when Moses raised the serpent upon the pole, some would not believe that merely looking upon that metallic image would heal them, and they perished. Yet many had faith in the provision which God had made. Fathers, mothers, brothers, and sisters were anxiously engaged in helping their suffering, dying friends to fix their languid eyes upon the serpent. If they could only once look while faint and dying, they revived, and were entirely freed from the effects of their poisonous wounds. - {ST October 28, 1880 Par. 10} There was no power in the serpent of brass to cause such a change in those who looked upon it. The healing virtue was derived from God alone. In his wisdom he chose this manner to display his power. It was the faith of the people in the provision made, which was acceptable to God. By this simple means they were made sensible that he had permitted these serpents to afflict them, because of their murmurings, and their lack of faith in him. They were also assured that while obeying God they had no reason to fear; for he would be their friend, and would preserve them from the dangers to which they were continually exposed. - {ST October 28, 1880 Par. 11} The Heb, in their affliction, could not save themselves from the deadly venom of the serpents. God alone could heal sinful, rebellious Israel. Yet he did not see fit to pardon their transgression, without testing their repentance and faith. They must look, in order to live. The lifting up of the brazen serpent was to teach Israel a lesson. Heretofore they had presented their offerings to God, and had felt that in thus doing they made ample atonement of their sins. They did not by faith rely upon the Redeemer to come, of whom their offerings were only the type. The Lord would now show them that their sacrifices, in themselves, had no more power nor virtue than the serpent of brass, but were, like that, to lead their minds to Christ, the great Sin-Offering. So, also, their offerings were to be brought with subdued wills and penitent hearts, they having faith in the atoning sacrifice of God's dear Son. - {ST October 28, 1880 Par. 12} The uplifted Saviour is to appear in His efficacious work as the Lamb slain, sitting upon the throne, to dispense the priceless covenant blessings, the benefits He died to purchase for every soul who should believe on Him. Joh could not express that love in words; it was too deep, too broad; he calls upon the human family to behold it. Christ is pleading for the church in the heavenly courts above, pleading for those for whom He paid the redemption price of His own lifeblood. Centuries, ages, can never diminish the efficacy of this atoning sacrifice. The message of the gospel of His grace was to be given to the church in clear and distinct lines, that the world should no longer say that Seventh-day Adventists talk the law, the law, but do not teach or believe Christ. - {Ev 191.1} The efficacy of the blood of Christ was to be presented to the people with freshness and power, that their faith might lay hold upon its merits.... - {Ev 191.2} For years the church has been looking to man, and expecting much from man, but not looking to Jesus, in whom our hopes of eternal life are centered. Therefore God gave to His servants a testimony that presented the truth as it is in Jesus, which is the third angel's message, in clear, distinct lines.— Testimonies to Ministers and Gospel Workers, 91-93 (1896). - {Ev 191.3}

Joh 12:33 - This he said, signifying what death he should die - See Deut 21:21-23; Gal 3:13; Ps 22:16-18

Joh 12:34

Joh 12:34 - We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever - The people were misinformed and led to understand only the Scriptures that speak of the triumphal reign of the Messiah, and not that which preceded, the suffering of the Messiah. Further, they were ignorant of the judgment that would also precede Messiah's triumphant rule. See Ps 89:36, 110:4; Isa 9:6; Dan 7:13, 14

Joh 12:34

Joh 12:34 - and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? - the Jews apparently understood what Jesus meant when He said the Son of man must be lifted-up because they questioned Jesus saying they had read of the Messiah abiding forever.

Joh 12:35

Joh 12:35 - Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you - See Joh 11:9, 10, 12:36, 46

Joh 12:35

Joh 12:35 - for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth - See 1Thess 5:3, 4; Isa 8:21, 22

Joh 12:36

Joh 12:36 - While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light - 1Thess 5:4-6; Joh 7:42, 8:12; Heb 3:14-16

Joh 12:36 - children of light - See 1Thess 5:1-9

Joh 12:36

Joh 12:36 - These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them - See Mt 21:17

Joh 12:37

Joh 12:37 - But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him - See Joh 10:37, 38; Mt 13:58

Joh 12:38

Joh 12:38 - That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed? - See Isa 53:1

Joh 12:40

Joh 12:40 - He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them. - See Isa 6:9, 10; Joh 9:39-41

Joh 12:41

Joh 12:41 - These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him - Jesus' glory was revealed to Isa and he believed. See Isa 6:1-10

Joh 12:42

Joh 12:42 - among the chief rulers - the wealthy aristocracy among Israel. See Lk 18:18-23

Joh 12:42

Joh 12:42 - but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: - the chief priests were not willing to endure the reproach that comes with following Jesus. See Joh 9:22, 23, 16:2, 19:38; Isa 4:1

Joh 12:43

Joh 12:43 - For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God - Men rather not bear the reproach of men in order to stand for God (Isa 4:1), so they are willing to compromise themselves and principles if necessary. Compare Rom 2:29

Joh 12:44

Joh 12:44 - Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me - Jesus here declares Himself to be that Prophet that God foretold would come by the mouth of the prophet Moses. Deut 18:18, 19; Isa 48:16; Joh 8:16-18

Joh 12:45

Joh 12:45 - And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me - See Joh 10:30, 14:6-11

Joh 12:46

Joh 12:46 - I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness - See 1Thess 5:5; Isa 8:20; Joh 3:19, 12:35, 36

Joh 12:47

Joh 12:47 - And if any man hear my words, and believe not - they who hear and believe not have hardened their hearts against the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Truth. The Spirit of Truth is given to reveal truth. Those who believe not, choose not to believe and are therefore condemned for rejecting light. See Joh 3:18-21; Deut 18:18, 19; Joh 1:21, 13:19, 3:18-21; Ps 146:7

Joh 12:47

Joh 12:47 - I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. - Jesus came first to become the Savior of the world; the propitiation for our past sins. He then would judge the world in righteousness, based on men's works and His written and spoken words; and lastly reign over those who overcome in His strength. See Joh 3:17; Ps 9:8, 96:13, 98:9; Act 17:31

Joh 12:48

Joh 12:48 - He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day - Jesus does not destroy men, men destroy themselves. See Prov 5:22; Mt 24:14; Deut 18:18, 19; Heb 12:24, 25

Joh 12:48

Joh 12:48 - hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day - the words of Christ, both spoken and those written in Scripture and impressed upon the mind by the Holy Spirit will judge all. When Jesus spoke the following: "But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven" (Mt 5:44, 45), He did so knowing that this is an impossibility for the carnal heart to achieve. Only after the Holy Spirit has established residence in the heart and mind can one love as God loves. Jesus was demonstrating to His followers the frailty and futility of any human works to save oneself, compared to the standard that constitutes the righteousness of the Kingdom of God. Only in Jesus Christ can the words of Jesus be fulfilled. The words of Christ will bring a conviction of sin, righteousness, and judgement to the hearer, which in turn should compel him to seek the righteousness of God in Jesus Christ. This is how Jesus' words will judge the world. See Deut 18:18, 19; Joh 5:45-47; 1Jo 1:10

Joh 12:49

Joh 12:49 - but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak - As we submit to Christ as He submitted to His Father, the we are given power of the Holy Spirit both to will and to do of the Father's good pleasure. See- Joh 6:63, 14:24; Ex 4:15; Philippians 2:13 Jesus received the following declarations of His Father at His incarnation: 1. Jesus is forever a priest after the order of Melchizedek - Heb 5:10, 7:17 2. Jesus has eternal life in Himself - Joh 5:26 3. He has power to lay down His life and take it up again - Joh 10:18 4. Jesus as a Prophet, will speak only the words that His Father has given Him to speak - Deut 18:18; 19; Joh 12:44-50 5. God has commanded everlasting life to be established in His Son - Joh 12:50; 1Jo 5:9-13

Joh 12:50

Joh 12:50 - And I know that his commandment is life everlasting - the Father commands that everlasting life be made available to the sons of men, despite our former rebellion, through the Son. What a Wonderful God! See Joh 14:31; Joh 6:45-47, 56, 57; Eph 1:4, 5

Joh 13:1

Joh 13:1 - when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father - that which Jesus was sent to do had now arrived. See Joh 12:23, 27, 28

Joh 13:2

Joh 13:2 - the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him - See Joh 8:39, 44

Joh 13:3

Joh 13:3 - Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands - the entire Plan of Redemption was placed in the capable hands of the Son to fulfill. Jesus understood that it was the Father's will that He tread the winepress alone on behalf of humanity. He understood that His faithfulness to God held the world in the balances.

Joh 13:4

Joh 13:4 - He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself - Jesus saw that an essential work of humiliation had not been performed and was being avoided by His disciples, so He needed to provide an object lesson for all to follow.

Joh 13:5

Joh 13:5 - After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded - each of the disciples recognized the discordance of the act, that the Master was serving the servants and thus they loathed their pride and selfishness. The impression made hit home with the disciples. See Joh 13:14

Joh 13:6

Joh 13:6 - and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? - Peter verbalized the shame and discomfort each of the disciples felt.

Joh 13:7

Joh 13:7 - What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter - Jesus saw that they had not fully embraced the selflessness required to perform His work. It would require His own death, humiliation, and the upper room experience to bring the disciples on one accord so that they would be willing to serve one another and others. See 1Cor 13:9-12

Joh 13:8

Joh 13:8 - Thou shalt never wash my feet - The service which Peter refused was the type of a higher cleansing. Christ had come to wash the heart from the stain of sin. In refusing to allow Christ to wash his feet, Peter was refusing the higher cleansing included in the lower. He was really rejecting his Lord. It is not humiliating to the Master to allow Him to work for our purification. The truest humility is to receive with thankful heart any provision made in our behalf, and with earnestness do service for Christ. - {DA 646.1}

Joh 13:8

Joh 13:8 - If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me - Jesus was speaking of the spirit of selflessness, humiliation, and self-sacrifice that He needs to instill in each of us by His grace through faith so that we may be one with Him and have part in His Kingdom. See Rom 8:9 Solemnly Christ said to Peter, "If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with Me." The service which Peter refused was the type of a higher cleansing. Christ had come to wash the heart from the stain of sin. In refusing to allow Christ to wash his feet, Peter was refusing the higher cleansing included in the lower. He was really rejecting his Lord. It is not humiliating to the Master to allow Him to work for our purification. The truest humility is to receive with thankful heart any provision made in our behalf, and with earnestness do service for Christ. - {DA 646.1}

Joh 13:9

Joh 13:9 - Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head - Peter dreaded the thought of not having a part with his Master. His surrender of self and love for his Master was evident, just not made perfect.

Joh 13:10

Joh 13:10 - He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit - he that has been baptized by immersion and has petitioned the abiding presence of the Holy Spirit is clean. We must partake of the ordinance of humility and communion as a re-affirmation of faith and to wipe away the dust that we accumulate on our Christian journey.

Joh 13:10

Joh 13:10 - and ye are clean, but not all - all but Judas had received the cleansing waters and had not betrayed their Lord.

Joh 13:11

Joh 13:11 - For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean - See Joh 6:70, 13:2

Joh 13:12

Joh 13:12 - Know ye what I have done to you? - Do you understand what I have done to you?

Joh 13:14

Joh 13:14 - If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet - if Jesus could humble Himself to do it, we surely must! The washing of the feet of parishioners by Pope Francis is an abomination because he seeks to take the place of Jesus. Jesus said we are to wash one another's feet, whereas, no one washes Pope Francis' feet. Therefore, he seeks to impersonate Jesus in washing the feet of parishioners.

Joh 13:15

Joh 13:15 - Jesus was the great Exemplar in all things pertaining to righteousness: 1. Jesus rested on the Sabbath, so should we: Ex 20:8-11 2. Jesus kept His Father's words, so should we: Joh 8:31

Joh 13:16

Joh 13:16 - The servant is not greater than his lord - this principle is established upon the testimony of two witness (see Joh 15:20). This is first seen in the fall of mankind, when Adam and Eve died spiritually, the entire world and animal kingdom would be subject to mortality as its master. See Rom 8:20-22

Joh 13:16

Joh 13:16 - neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him - See Joh 14:28; Isa 48:16

Joh 13:17

Joh 13:17 - If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them - we will not have the awkward shame and guilt as the disciples had if we do the things our conscience commands us to do. See Rom 2:14, 15; Jam 4:17

Joh 13:18

Joh 13:18 - I know whom I have chosen - Joh 6:70; Mt 20:16, 22:14

Joh 13:18

Joh 13:18 - but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me - See Ps 41:9; Joh 5:39

Joh 13:19

Joh 13:19 - Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am He - Many things the disciples would come to understand regarding Christ and His ministry, long after Jesus' glorification. However, Jesus is specifically speaking of the prophecies concerning Judas and his betrayal that would become evident to them while they abided in the upper room before Pentecost. See Joh 11:10||Joh 13:30, 16:1; Act 1:14-17; Rom 10:17; Deut 18:18, 19; Joh 9:17, 14:29; Am 3:7; Lk 4:16-21

Joh 13:21 - He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me - when we are sent to preach the gospel to others, their reception or rejection of our message should not be taken personally. Their rejection of the message is a rejection of Jesus Christ and in turn the Father. Compare 1Sam 8:4-8

Joh 13:20

Joh 13:21 - and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me - See Joh 8:42, 17:3

Joh 13:21

Joh 13:21 - When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me - the Scriptures said that Jesus loved His disciples to the end (Joh 13:1). It was grievous to Him to have one so close to Him betray Him and loose out on eternal life.

Joh 13:21

Joh 13:20 - Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me - See Joh 13:18, Ps 41:9

Joh 13:22

Joh 13:22 - Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake - the disciples looked upon one another with suspicion.

Joh 13:23

Joh 13:23 - Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved - Joh unashamedly speaks of himself as the one who Jesus loved. See Joh 19:26, 20:2

Joh 13:24

Joh 13:24 - Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake - the close relation of Peter and Joh as sincere followers of Jesus and brothers in Him was evident. Both Peter and Joh were incredulous of the accusation against a fellow disciple though they knew it to be true as spoken by Jesus.

Joh 13:26

Joh 13:26 - Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon - Jesus truly had a close relationship with Joh, being willing to share with Him that which He would not make known openly to the other disciples.

Joh 13:27

Joh 13:27 - And after the sop Satan entered into him - the Bible describes demon possession. As Judas yielded to the promptings of Satan, he opened the door and gave him access to his heart. See Rom 6:16; Mt 6:24, 12:43-45

Joh 13:27

Joh 13:27 - Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly - Judas understood that Jesus knew his intentions, however, operating under a force beyond his control, he obeyed the commands of Jesus.

Joh 13:28

Joh 13:28 - Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him - the disciples had not drawn the conclusion that Jesus spoke of Judas as His betrayer. They did not reason that it was for that purpose that Jesus sent Him out.

Joh 13:29

Joh 13:29 - For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor - Judas the thief was also to become the betrayer of his Master. See Joh 12:4-6

Joh 13:30

Joh 13:30 - He then having received the sop went immediately out - See Gen 4:16 - Until this step was taken, Judas had not passed beyond the possibility of repentance. But when he left the presence of his Lord and his fellow disciples, the final decision had been made. He had passed the boundary line. - {DA 654.4}

Joh 13:30

Joh 13:30 - and it was night - Judas had entered a dark place, where his probation had closed. His decision to reject the light of truth and walk in darkness marked the close of his fate. See Joh 3:19-21, 11:9, 10; Rev 22:11

Joh 13:31

Joh 13:31 - Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him - Jesus had demonstrated the love of God in that He loved, even His enemies unto death. While concealing Judas' plans to the others and offering him a part of His broken body, representing partaking of Himself and of His Kingdom (John 6:26, 33) He commanded Judas to fulfill his unrighteous plans. See Joh 12:27, 28, 17:1-5

John 13:31 - God is glorified in him - See John 6:37-40

Joh 13:32

Joh 13:32 - If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him - See Joh 17:1-5; Philippians 2:9-11

Joh 13:33

Joh 13:33 - Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you - See Joh 8:21-23

Joh 13:34

Joh 13:34 - A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another - Jesus was giving no new commandment but a restatement of that which had been given in the final 6 commandments of the Decalogue - love towards our fellow men. See Gal 5:14; Joh 15:12, 17; 1Jo 4:7; 2Jo 1:5

Joh 13:34

Joh 13:34 - as I have loved you, that ye also love one another - we love one another by selflessly serving and preferring one another. See Joh 13:1-5; Phil 2:1-4

Joh 13:35

Joh 13:35 - By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another - See 1Pet 1:22 No matter how high his profession, he whose heart is not imbued with love for God and for his fellow men is not a disciple of Christ. Though he should possess great faith, and even have power to work miracles, yet without love his faith would be worthless. He might display great liberality, but should he from some other motive than genuine love bestow all his goods to feed the poor, the act would not commend him to the favor of God. In his zeal he might even meet a martyr's death, yet if destitute of the gold of love he would be regarded by God as a deluded enthusiast or an ambitious hypocrite. { 5T 168.2} The apostle proceeds to specify the fruits of love: "Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not." The divine love ruling in the heart exterminates pride and selfishness. "Charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up." The purest joy springs from the deepest humiliation. The strongest and noblest characters rest upon the foundation of patience and love, and trusting submission to the will of God. { 5T 168.3} Charity "doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil." The heart in which love rules will not be filled with passion or revenge, by injuries which pride and self-love would deem unbearable. Love is unsuspecting, ever placing the most favorable construction upon the motives and acts of others. Love will never needlessly expose the faults of others. It does not listen eagerly to unfavorable reports, but rather seeks to bring to mind some good qualities of the one defamed. { 5T 168.4} Love "rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth." He whose heart is imbued with love is filled with sorrow at the errors and weaknesses of others; but when truth triumphs, when the cloud that darkened the fair fame of another is removed, or when sins are confessed and wrongs corrected, he rejoices. { 5T 169.1}

Joh 13:36 - but thou shalt follow me afterwards - See Joh 17:24, 14:2, 3; 1Thess 4:14;

Joh 13:38

Joh 13:38 - Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? - Jesus knew Peter better than he knew himself. Jesus foresaw Peter's betrayal but understood it was under duress, unlike that of Judas. Jesus had pity and compassion for Peter who would come to know his true self very soon.

Joh 13:38

Joh 13:38 - hast denied me thrice - the three fold denial of Peter, the follower of Christ, typifies those in Adventism who will deny the Three Angel's messages and receive the Mk of the Beast.

Joh 14:1

Joh 14:1 - Let not your heart be troubled - Jesus says He leaves His peace with us so we should not be troubled. See Joh 14:27

Joh 14:1

Joh 14:1 - ye believe in God, believe also in me - Jesus asserted that He and the Father were One and that the Father sent Him. Therefore, belief in the One meant belief and acceptance of the Other. See Joh 10:30, 14:7, 9

Joh 14:2

Joh 14:2 - In my Father's house are many mansions - the mansions could be literal or a spiritual house, namely, our renewed, recreated bodies which are made imperishable. 2Cor 5:1, 2; Heb 11:10; 1Cor 6:19; 3:16, 17; 2Cor 6:16 "Many scriptures support the idea that "temple," "sanctuary," "tabernacle," or "house of God," add meaning and depth to the high calling of God's people. In this is to be found the real truth of what "God hath prepared for them that love him," (1Cor 2:9) that is, a character, an experience in the deep things of God revealed by His Spirit. His people, the "household of God," are joined together to make a "holy temple in the Lord": Through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow- citizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit (Eph 2:18-22)." Excerpt From: Donald Karr Short. "Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed."

Joh 14:2 - mansions - meaning an abode, a dwelling place.

Joh 14:3

Joh 14:3 - I go and prepare a place for you - See Heb 11:16 For your sake I came into the world. I am working in your behalf. When I go away, I shall still work earnestly for you. I came into the world to reveal Myself to you, that you might believe. I go to the Father to cooperate with Him in your behalf. The object of Christ's departure was the opposite of what the disciples feared. It did not mean a final separation. He was going to prepare a place for them, that He might come again, and receive them unto Himself. While He was building mansions for them, they were to build characters after the divine similitude. - {DA 663.1}

Joh 14:3

John 14:3 - I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. - See Act 1:11 Jesus' coming is not at the Second Coming but when we receive Him by faith of Jesus Christ. God becomes our exceeding great reward as He was to Abraham, our forefather. See Gen 15:1; Ps 16:5

Joh 14:3

Joh 14:3 - receive you unto myself - Jesus will gather His children from the four corners of the earth. See Rev 14:14-16; Isa 60:1-7

Joh 14:3

Joh 14:3 - where I am, there ye may be also - the statement signifies togetherness and oneness. When Christ dwells within us by the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, then wherever He is, there we will be also. Joh 17:24; Gal 2:20; 1Jo 4:2, 3; Col 1:27; Rev 21:3

Joh 14:4

Joh 14:4 - And whither I go ye know - Jesus goes back to heaven to be with His Father.

Joh 14:4

Joh 14:4 - and the way ye know - Jesus returns to the Father by way of the Old Paths, the paths of righteousness that He bids us follow Him. Jeremiah 6:16, Mic 5:2

Joh 14:5

Joh 14:5 - how can we know the way? - Thomas' question was answered a millennium before by the psalmist when he wrote: "Thy way oh LORD is in the sanctuary..." Ps 77:13

Joh 14:6

Joh 14:6 - I am the way - Jesus is the Old Paths; His goings forth are from of old, from eternity past; His way is in the Sanctuary. See Ex 33:13-18; Jeremiah 6:16; Mic 5:2; Ps 77:13; Act 4:12

Joh 14:6

Joh 14:6 - the truth - Jesus will return a second time, for all those who love Him and love His appearing (Joh 14:15 23; 2Tim 4:8). It is essential therefore, that we become lovers of Truth

(Joh 18:37). See Ps 119:142, 151; Isa 65:16 - The AMEN, the Faithful and True Witness: Rev 3:14 - Jesus is the Living Word and God's Words are Truth: John 17:17, 1:1-3, 14 - Truth will make you free: John 8:32, 36 - We are commanded to love truth: Zech 8:19 - Love of truth is essential for salvation: 2Thess 2:10 Just as Jesus is the Truth, the Holy Spirit and the Father are also the Truth and the Spirit of Truth - John 14:17; 1Jo 5:6; Ps 31:5, 86:15, 100:5, 119:151

Joh 14:6 - the life - Jesus is ETERNAL LIFE! Jesus says that we are not to love this present, temporal life (Lk 14:26), but love the Life that will not end. See Joh 1:4, 5:24, 6:40, 47, 11:25; 1Jo 5:11-13

Joh 14:6

Joh 14:6 - no man cometh unto the Father, but by me - Jesus is the ladder of or Salvation, connecting heaven with the earth. There is but one Way to salvation, Jesus Christ (Mt 7:13, 14; John 10:9). See 1Pet 1:20, 21; Gen 28:11-15; Joh 1:51, 8:23, 24; 10:9; Rev 3:8; Jer 31:3; 2Cor 5:19, 20; 1Jo 2:23 Man broke God's law, and through the Redeemer new and fresh promises were made on a different basis. All blessings must come through a Mediator. Now every member of the human family is given wholly into the hands of Christ, and whatever we possess—whether it is the gift of money, of houses, of lands, of reasoning powers, of physical strength, of intellectual talents—in this present life, and the blessings of the future life, are placed in our possession as God's treasures to be faithfully expended for the benefit of man. Every gift is stamped with the cross and bears the image and superscription of Jesus Christ. All things come of God. From the smallest benefits up to the largest blessing, all flow through the one Channel—a superhuman mediation sprinkled with the blood that is of value beyond estimate because it was the life of God in His Son. - {1888 814.2}

Joh 14:7

Joh 14:7 - If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him - See 2Cor 4:4; Joh 12:44, 45 Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 415.5} The light of the Sun of Righteousness is to shine forth in good works—in words of truth and deeds of holiness. - {COL 416.1}

Joh 14:8

Joh 14:8 - Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us - Philip and Thomas were kindred spirits, slow to perceive and quick to doubt. See Joh 6:5-7, 11:16

Joh 14:9

Joh 14:9 - Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me - Amazed at his dullness of comprehension, Christ asked with pained surprise, "Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known Me, Philip?" Is it possible that you do not see the Father in the works He does through Me? Do you not believe that I came to testify of the Father? "How sayest thou then, Show us the Father?" "He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father." Christ had not ceased to be God when He became man. Though He had humbled Himself to humanity, the Godhead was still His own. Christ alone could represent the Father to humanity, and this representation the disciples had been privileged to behold for over three years. - {DA 663.5}

Joh 14:9

Joh 14:8 - he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father? - See Joh 12:44, 45

Joh 14:10

Joh 14:10 - Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? - Jesus is asking Philip directly, do you believe in My nature and Who I AM, that I AM One with the Father? See Joh 10:30 The same close relationship Jesus had with the Father, He desires to grant to all who believe and place their trust in Him. See John 15:1-5; 14:20, 21, 17:8, 14, 21, 26; 2Pet 1:1-4

Joh 14:10

Joh 14:10 - the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself, but the Father that dwelleth in me, He doeth the works - The Father, abiding in and with the Spoken Word commanded light to shine out of darkness and created all things. See Lk 12:12; Deut 18:18; Joh 5:19, 1:1-3; 1Thess 2:13 The Father then made known that it was ordained by Himself that Christ, His Son, should be equal with Himself; so that wherever was the presence of His Son, it was as His own presence. The word of the Son was to be obeyed as readily as the word of the Father. His Son He had invested with authority to command the heavenly host. Especially was His Son to work in union with Himself in the anticipated creation of the earth and every living thing that should exist upon the earth. His Son would carry out His will and His purposes but would do nothing of Himself alone. The Father's will would be fulfilled in Him. - {SR 13.2}

Joh 14:10

Joh 14:10 - but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works - See Joh 8:28, 5:19-22, 36, 14:11 So too, the power that works in each of the saints, both to will and to do of God's good pleasure, is God abiding in us through the Holy Spirit. Phil 2:12, 13; John 1:12, 13; Eph 3:20; Gal 2:20

Joh 14:11

Joh 14:11 - Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me - See Joh 14:1, 10:30, 9:30-33

Joh 14:11

Joh 14:11 - or else believe me for the very works' sake - See Joh 10:25

Joh 14:12

Joh 14:12 - He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also - See Mk 9:38, 39

Joh 14:12

Joh 14:12 - the works that I do - Jesus is not only referring to miracle working but to preaching the gospel, speaking comfort to God's people, encouraging the downtrodden, works of mercy. See Act 6:8

Joh 14:12

Joh 14:12 - greater works than these shall he do - See 2Cor 12:12 "And greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto My Father." By this Christ did not mean that the disciples' work would be of a more exalted character than His, but that it would have greater extent. He did not refer merely to miracle working, but to all that would take place under the working of the Holy Spirit. - {DA 664.5} Possible reasons that the works of Christ are not performed today include: 1. We, His people, lack faith to believe on Christ to perform all things we ask in His name that He and the Father may be glorified 2. We are not fully surrendered to the Lord so that when the Lord performs a blessing, we direct all praise to Him. The LORD can not trust that we will act in humility to deflect all praise and direct all to God (Isa 42:8; 48:11)

Joh 14:12

John 14:12 - because I go unto my Father - As Jesus has ascended to the Father, to sit at His right hand, He ever lives to make intercession for us. Jesus prays with us and for us and makes requests of the Father on our behalf that we may be able to will and do of His good pleasure. He gives us strength to stand and withstand the wiles of our enemies. Jesus is our Friend and Advocate.

Joh 14:13

Joh 14:13 - And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do - See 1Jo 5:13-15; Joh 15:7

Joh 14:13

Joh 14:13 - that the Father may be glorified in the Son - Jesus came to glorify the Father, just as the Holy Spirit is sent by the Father to glorify Jesus. The petitions we make ought to be for the expressed purpose of glorifying the Father through the Son. See Joh 14:26, 16:13, 14, 17:1-5; Phil 2:11

Joh 14:14

Joh 14:14 - If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it - the person asking must abide in Christ and Christ abide in him such that the person's will is married to Christ. Christ will thus delight in answering His prayers that are in agreement with His will and that the Father be glorified. See Joh 15:7, 14:13

Joh 14:15

Joh 14:15 - If ye love me keep my commandments - See Ex 20:6; Joh 14:21, 15:14; 1Jo 5:3 Great truths must be brought into little things. Practical religion is to be carried into the lowly duties of daily life. The greatest qualification for any man is to obey implicitly the word of the Lord. - {COL 359.1} But notice here that obedience is not a mere outward compliance, but the service of love. The law of God is an expression of His very nature; it is an embodiment of the great principle of love, and hence is the foundation of His government in heaven and earth. If our hearts are renewed in the likeness of God, if the divine love is implanted in the soul, will not the law of God be carried out in the life? When the principle of love is implanted in the heart, when man is renewed after the image of Him that created him, the new-covenant promise is fulfilled, "I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them." Hebrews 10:16. And if the law is written in the heart, will it not shape the life? Obedience—the service and allegiance of love—is the true sign of discipleship. Thus the Scripture says, "This is the love of God, that we keep His commandments." "He that saith, I know Him, and keepeth not His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.” 1 John 5:3; 2:4. Instead of releasing man from obedience, it is faith, and faith only, that makes us partakers of the grace of Christ, which enables us to render obedience. - {SC 60.2}

Joh 14:15 - keep my commandments - God's law is spiritual (Rom 7:14) and therefore, we must be in the Spirit in order to keep the Law of God. We must have the Spirit of God abiding within in order to keep God's Law, and thus we must be "born again". See Rom 7:14, John 4:23, 24 Jesus is clearly pointing to the decalogue as the standard of obedience, as He was directly asked what must be done to enter eternal life and He quoted them. The "new" commandment that Jesus gave His disciples (Joh 13:34, 35) was nothing less than a summary of the last 6 Commandments, our moral obligation towards one another, to love one another as Christ has loved us. In order to keep God's commandments, we must abide in Jesus continually, for without Him, we can do nothing - See John 15:1-5, 8:28; Mt 19:16-21; Mk 10:17-21; Lk 18:18-22

Joh 14:16

Joh 14:16 - And I will pray the Father, and He will give you another Comforter - Jesus prays that the Father will give the greatest gift we may receive, His indwelling presence in the Holy Spirit. See Mt 7:11, ; Joh 17:1-9, 22, 23; Lk 11:13; Act 3:20

Joh 14:16

Joh 14:16 - another Comforter, that He may abide with you for ever - another Comforter besides Himself is here spoken by Jesus. His reference to the Holy Spirit as "another Comforter" denotes a separate and distinct person Who too, will be a Comforter to God's people for eternity. See Isa 32:17; 40:1; Joh 14:26; 2Cor 7:6; Hymn #524 "Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus We can not overestimate the value of simple faith and unquestioning obedience. It is by following the path of obedience in humble faith that the character attains perfection. Adam was required to render strict obedience to God's commandments, and no lower standard is presented to those who desire salvation today. Christ has promised us sufficient power to reach this high standard. He says: "Whatsoever ye shall ask in My name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask anything in My name, I will do it. If ye love Me, keep My commandments. And I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may abide with you forever; even the Spirit of truth; whom the world can not receive." [Joh 14:13-17.] - {PH045 3.1}

Joh 14:16

John 14:16 - that he may abide with you for ever - Jesus uses the pronoun "he" to denote the Holy Spirit is a Person. See Mt 28:20; 1Jo 2:27; Ps 112:3

Joh 14:17

Joh 14:17 - the Spirit of Truth - The Spirit of God convicts and reproves of sin based on the truth; He corrects based on the same truth and He brings forth righteousness which is the character of God derived from truth. See Joh 16:8-11, 14:26; 1Jo 5:6, 2:27; Isa 32:17 Jesus is Truth - Joh 14:6 The Father is Truth - Ps 31:5, 86:15

Joh 14:17

Joh 14:17 - whom the world cannot receive - the world, [including carnal Christians who walk in the flesh] which is at enmity with God (Jam 4:4, 5; Rom 8:6-9), can not receive the things of God, even His Spirit which guides and leads into all truth. See Joh 16:13; 1Cor 2:13-16

Joh 14:17

Joh 14:17 - because it seeth Him not, neither knoweth Him - the world relies on scientific evidence and confirmation by the senses, at the exclusion of faith. The just shall live by faith - the substance of things hoped for the evidence of things not seen. Those who are in the flesh can not receive the things of God that are spiritually discerned (Rom 1:17; Heb 11:1). See Joh 3:5-8; Lk 17:20; 1Cor 2:14, 15

Joh 14:17

Joh 14:17 - but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you - the Kingdom of God is not in observation but dwells in us. So, too, we can not see the Holy Spirit, but we can experience and perceive the outworking of His power in our transformed lives. See 1Cor 2:12, 3:16, 6:19; Joh 3:5-8, 15:1-5; Lk 17:20; Isa 32:17; Rom 5:5 The Spirit is the representative of Christ. Therefore, the Spirit dwelling in men is Christ in men, the hope of glory. And Christ in men is creative power in men, creating them new creatures. The Spirit is given "according to the riches of His glory," and that is the measure of the power by which we are to be strengthened. So the riches of the glory of the inheritance, made known through the Spirit, is nothing less than the power by which God will create all things new by Jesus Christ, as in the beginning, and by which He will create man anew, so that he may be fitted for that glorious inheritance. Thus it is that when the Spirit is given in the fullest measure, those to whom it is given taste "the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come." Heb 6:5 {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 40, 41}

Joh 14:18

Joh 14:18 - I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you - We receive the personal presence of Jesus Christ through the Comforter, the Holy Spirit. This then gives us the "mind of Christ" by which we may comprehend, investigate, and revel in, the deep things of God which He reaches down and brings forth to our understanding and sets them before us in their plainness - See Act 3:19, 20; Eph 3:16, 17; Mal 3:5; Heb 10:35-39; Rom 5:5

Joh 14:18

Joh 14:18 - I will come to you - Jesus through the Holy Spirit will abide in us, the very presence of the Godhead. In our time of sorrow, the Holy Spirit will come to us and be our Comforter and will abide with and in us. See Joh 14:21, 23; Act 3:20; Eph 1:12-14; Rev 10:7, 22:20; Col 1:27, 28; Rom 5:5; Gal 2:20, 4:6; 1Jo 4:1-4; 2Pet 1:1-4; Heb 10:35-39

Joh 14:19

Joh 14:19 - Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more - Jesus speaks of the days when there would be a famine in the land for hearing the word of God. This prophecy would be fulfilled immediately after the death of Christ. The people came from far and wide, seeking the Master for healing and the only report that could be given was that He was killed the prior day at the hands of the Pharisees. This would begin the fulfillment of this prophecy which would haunt the religious leaders and their followers for the rest of their lives. See Am 8:11-14 Never had Christ attracted the attention of the multitude as now that He was laid in the tomb. According to their practice, the people brought their sick and suffering ones to the temple courts, inquiring, Who can tell us of Jesus of Nazareth? Many had come from far to find Him who had healed the sick and raised the dead. On every side was heard the cry, We want Christ the Healer! Upon this occasion those who were thought to show indications of the leprosy were examined by the priests. Many were forced to hear their husbands, wives, or children pronounced leprous, and doomed to go forth from the shelter of their homes and the care of their friends, to warn off the stranger with the mournful cry, "Unclean, unclean!" The friendly hands of Jesus of Nazareth, that never refused to touch with healing the loathsome leper, were folded on His breast. The lips that had answered his petition with the comforting words, "I will; be thou clean" (Mt 8:3), were now silent. Many appealed to the chief priests and rulers for sympathy and relief, but in vain. Apparently they were determined to have the living Christ among them again. With persistent earnestness they asked for Him. They would not be turned away. But they were driven from the temple courts, and soldiers were stationed at the gates to keep back the multitude that came with their sick and dying, demanding entrance. - {DA 776.1} The sufferers who had come to be healed by the Saviour sank under their disappointment. The streets were filled with mourning. The sick were dying for want of the healing touch of Jesus. Physicians were consulted in vain; there was no skill like that of Him who lay in Joseph's tomb. - {DA 776.2} The mourning cries of the suffering ones brought home to thousands of minds the conviction that a great light had gone out of the world. Without Christ, the earth was blackness and darkness. Many whose voices had swelled the cry of "Crucify Him, crucify Him," now realized the calamity that had fallen upon them, and would as eagerly have cried, Give us Jesus! had He still been alive. - {DA 776.3} When the people learned that Jesus had been put to death by the priests, inquiries were made regarding His death. The particulars of His trial were kept as private as possible; but during the time when He was in the grave, His name was on thousands of lips, and reports of His mock trial, and of the inhumanity of the priests and rulers, were circulated everywhere. By men of intellect these priests and rulers were called upon to explain the prophecies of the Old Testament concerning the Messiah, and while trying to frame some falsehood in reply, they became like men insane. The prophecies that pointed to Christ's sufferings and death they could not explain, and many inquirers were convinced that the Scriptures had been fulfilled. - {DA 776.4} The revenge which the priests had thought would be so sweet was already bitterness to them. They knew that they were meeting the severe censure of the people; they knew that the very ones whom they had influenced against Jesus were now horrified by their own shameful work. These priests had tried to believe Jesus a deceiver; but it was in vain. Some of them had stood by the grave of Lazarus, and had seen the dead brought back to life. They trembled for fear that Christ would Himself rise from the dead, and again appear before them. They had heard Him declare that He had power to lay down His life and to take it again. They remembered that He had said, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." Joh 2:19. Judas had told them the words spoken by Jesus to the disciples while on the last journey to Jerusalem: "Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn Him to death, and shall deliver Him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify Him: and the third day He shall rise again." Mt 20:18, 19. When they heard these words, they had mocked and ridiculed. But now they remembered that Christ's predictions had so far been fulfilled. He had said that He would rise again the third day, and who could say that this also would not come to pass? They longed to shut out these thoughts, but they could not. Like their father, the devil, they believed and trembled. - {DA 777.1}

Joh 14:19 - because I live ye shall live also - We are walking dead without Jesus (1Jo 5:11-13; John 15:5), but we have eternal life when He comes to us. We who abide in Jesus shall never see death because our lives are hid in Him and because He lives, we shall live also. See Joh 11:23, 25, 26, 5:24; Col 3:3, 4; Heb 2:14-18; Rom 6:8

Joh 14:20

Joh 14:20 - At that day - the day of Jesus' coming, when we receive Him into our hearts through the Holy Spirit. See Rom 8:16; 1Jo 3:24

Joh 14:21

Joh 14:21 - He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me - See Joh 14:15; 1Jo 5:3; 2:4 But notice here that obedience is not a mere outward compliance, but the service of love. The law of God is an expression of His very nature; it is an embodiment of the great principle of love, and hence is the foundation of His government in heaven and earth. If our hearts are renewed in the likeness of God, if the divine love is implanted in the soul, will not the law of God be carried out in the life? When the principle of love is implanted in the heart, when man is renewed after the image of Him that created him, the new-covenant promise is fulfilled, "I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them." Hebrews 10:16. And if the law is written in the heart, will it not shape the life? Obedience—the service and allegiance of love—is the true sign of discipleship. Thus the Scripture says, "This is the love of God, that we keep His commandments." "He that saith, I know Him, and keepeth not His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him." 1 John 5:3; 2:4. Instead of releasing man from obedience, it is faith, and faith only, that makes us partakers of the grace of Christ, which enables us to render obedience. - {SC 60.2}

Joh 14:21

Joh 14:21 - he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father - See Joh 14:23

Joh 14:21

Joh 14:21 - and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him - Jesus will come to us through the abiding Holy Spirit (Act 3:20). The Holy Spirit, the Comforter and the abiding presence of Jesus, will live in us and shed God's love abroad in our hearts. Rom 5:5; Joh 17:21; Col 1:27, 28, 3:1-4; 1Jo 4:1-4

Joh 14:26 - But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost - See Joh 16:17; Isa 9:6

Joh 14:26

Joh 14:26 - whom the Father will send in my name - The Holy Spirit comes in the name of Jesus Christ and speaks not of Himself, but glorifies Jesus. Just as Jesus was sent of the Father and Spirit both, to glorify the Father, so the Holy Spirit will be sent of the Father and Son to glorify the Son. See Joh 16:14; Isa 48:16

Joh 14:26

Joh 14:26 - He shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you - See Joh 6:45, 16:13; Lk 12:12; Jam 1:5

Joh 14:27

Joh 14:27 - Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. - See Ps 119:165; Joh 16:33 It is peace that you need—Heaven’s forgiveness and peace and love in the soul. Money cannot buy it, intellect cannot procure it, wisdom cannot attain to it; you can never hope, by your own efforts, to secure it. But God offers it to you as a gift, “without money and without price.” Isaiah 55:1. It is yours if you will but reach out your hand and grasp it. The Lord says, “Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.” Isaiah 1:18. “A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you.” Ezekiel 36:26. - {SC 49.2}

Joh 14:27

Joh 14:26 - my peace I give unto you - Jesus, the Prince of Peace (Isa 9:6, 7), had perfect peace, resting and abiding in the love of His Father. This peace He gives to us all. Ps 119:165; Mk 4:37-40

Joh 14:27

Joh 14:27 - not as the world giveth - the peace found in the world is temporary and fleeting. Jesus also said that in this world we would have trials and troubles (John 16:33). Jesus’ peace is abiding and overcomes the world and its trials. See Isa 32:17; 1Jo 5:4

Joh 14:27

Joh 14:27 - Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid - See Joh 14:1

Joh 14:28

Joh 14:28 - Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you - Joh 14:16-18; Act 3:19, 20

Joh 14:28

Joh 14:28 - If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father - Jesus was trying to teach the disciples how they ought to view His departure for the right hand of the Father. Jesus was speaking of the boundless power and constant mediation He would be able to provide on our behalf to finish the work given to us. See Joh 20:17

Joh 14:28

Joh 14:28 - for my Father is greater than I - Jesus condescended to become part of the human race and to exalt the Father for the good of His creation. There is no division in the Godhead. They are all One in essence, in purpose, and in mind (Joh 17:9-11). Joh 13:16. Compare Phil 2:5-8; Heb 1:8; Isa 48:16; 1Cor 11:3; Rev 1:1

Joh 14:29

Joh 14:29 - And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe - to foretell that which is to come is the prophetic word. Faith comes by hearing and hearing the prophetic word of God. See Isa 42:8, 9; Rom 10:17; Joh 2:22, 13:19, 9:17, 16:4; Deut 18:18, 19; Am 3:7 As Christ's earthly ministry drew to a close, and He realized that He must soon leave His disciples to carry on the work without His personal supervision, He sought to encourage them and to prepare them for the future. He did not deceive them with false hopes. As an open book He read what was to be. He knew He was about to be separated from them, to leave them as sheep among wolves. He knew that they would suffer persecution, that they would be cast out of the synagogues, and would be thrown into prison. He knew that for witnessing to Him as the Messiah, some of them would suffer death. And something of this He told them. In speaking of their future, He was plain and definite, that in their coming trial they might remember His words and be strengthened to believe in Him as the Redeemer. - {AA 21.1}

Joh 14:30

Joh 14:30 - Hereafter I will not talk much with you - Jesus curiously says He will not speak further matters with the disciples because His time drew nigh and the prince of the world, Satan was soon to have his heyday. See Lk 22:52, 53

Joh 14:30

Joh 14:30 - for the prince of this world cometh - See Eph 2:2; Joh 12:31, 10:10; Lk 22:53; Heb 4:15, 16 As the Son of God bowed in the attitude of prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane, the agony of His spirit forced from His pores sweat like great drops of blood. It was here that the horror of great darkness surrounded Him. The sins of the world were upon Him. He was suffering in man's stead as a transgressor of His Father's law. Here was the scene of temptation. The divine light of God was receding from His vision, and He was passing into the hands of the powers of darkness. In His soul anguish He lay prostrate on the cold earth. He was realizing His Father's frown. He had taken the cup of suffering from the lips of guilty man, and proposed to drink it Himself, and in its place give to man the cup of blessing. The wrath that would have fallen upon man was now falling upon Christ. It was here that the mysterious cup trembled in His hand. - {2T 203.2} The first Adam fell; the second Adam held fast to God and His Word under the most trying circumstances, and His faith in His Father's goodness, mercy, and love did not waver for one moment. "It is written" was His weapon of resistance, and it is the sword of the Spirit which every human being is to use. "Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me"—nothing to respond to temptation. On not one occasion was there a response to his manifold temptations. Not once did Christ step on Satan's ground, to give him any advantage. Satan found nothing in Him to encourage his advances (Letter 8, 1895). - {5BC 1129.2}

Joh 14:30

Joh 14:30 - hath nothing in me - Jesus developed a character that would in no wise yield to the devil, not even with a thought and therefore remained, "that Holy One" (Mk 1:24). Jesus was tempted in all points as we are, yet was without sin. Sin left no trace whatsoever upon His character. See Mt 16:18; Heb 4:15, 16; 1Jo 3:5, 5:18 Satan demanded of Christ a miracle as a sign of His divinity. But that which is greater than all miracles, a firm reliance upon a "Thus saith the Lord," was a sign that could not be controverted. So long as Christ held to this position, the tempter could gain no advantage. - {CTr 219.3} There was in Him nothing that responded to Satan's sophistry. He did not consent to sin. Not even by a thought did He yield to temptation. So it may be with us. Christ's humanity was united with divinity; He was fitted for the conflict by the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. And He came to make us partakers of the divine nature. So long as we are united to Him by faith, sin has no more dominion over us. God reaches for the hand of faith in us to direct it to lay fast hold upon the divinity of Christ, that we may attain to perfection of character. - {DA 123.3} He [Jesus] is a brother in our infirmities, but not in possessing like passions. As the sinless One, His nature recoiled from evil. He endured struggles and torture of soul in a world of sin. {2T 201.2} Christ could not have come to this earth with the glory that He had in the heavenly courts. Sinful human beings could not have borne the sight. He veiled His divinity with the garb of humanity, but He did not part with His divinity. A divine-human Saviour, He came to stand at the head of the fallen race, to share in their experience from childhood to manhood (The Review and Herald, June 15, 1905). - {5BC 1128.2} Christ had not exchanged His divinity for humanity; but He had clothed His divinity in humanity (The Review and Herald, October 29, 1895). - {5BC 1128.3}

Joh 14:31

Joh 14:31 - But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do - the Father commanded eternal life for humanity for the life of His Son. This, Jesus was willing to do by laying down His life to honor His Father and bless many. See Joh 12:50; Heb 10:7-9

Joh 14:31

Joh 14:31 - and as the Father gave me commandment - See Joh 17:4-10, 12:49, 50

Joh 14:31

Joh 14:31 - even so I do - See Joh 10:15-17, 15:13; 1Jo 3:16; Heb 10:5-7

Joh 15:1

Joh 15:1 - I am the true vine - See Eze 34:29 CONTRAST Isaiah 5:1-7; Rev 14:18-20 "I am the true Vine," He says. Instead of choosing the graceful palm, the lofty cedar, or the strong oak, Jesus takes the vine with its clinging tendrils to represent Himself. The palm tree, the cedar, and the oak stand alone. They require no support. But the vine entwines about the trellis, and thus climbs heavenward. So Christ in His humanity was dependent upon divine power. "I can of Mine own self do nothing," He declared. Joh 5:30. - {DA 674.3}

Joh 15:1

Joh 15:1 - my Father is the husbandman - My Father is the husbandman. Every branch in Me that beareth not fruit He taketh away." While the graft is outwardly united with the vine, there may be no vital connection. Then there will be no growth or fruitfulness. So there may be an apparent connection with Christ without a real union with Him by faith. A profession of religion places men in the church, but the character and conduct show whether they are in connection with Christ. If they bear no fruit, they are false branches. Their separation from Christ involves a ruin as complete as that represented by the dead branch. "If a man abide not in Me," said Christ, "he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned." - {DA 676.5} "And every branch that beareth fruit, He purgeth [pruneth] it, that it may bring forth more fruit." From the chosen twelve who had followed Jesus, one as a withered branch was about to be taken away; the rest were to pass under the pruning knife of bitter trial. Jesus with solemn tenderness explained the purpose of the husbandman. The pruning will cause pain, but it is the Father who applies the knife. He works with no wanton hand or indifferent heart. There are branches trailing upon the ground; these must be cut loose from the earthly supports to which their tendrils are fastening. They are to reach heavenward, and find their support in God. The excessive foliage that draws away the life current from the fruit must be pruned off. The overgrowth must be cut out, to give room for the healing beams of the Sun of Righteousness. The husbandman prunes away the harmful growth, that the fruit may be richer and more abundant. - {DA 676.6} "Herein is My Father

Joh 15:2

Joh 15:2 - Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away - As born children of wrath (Eph 2:1-4), we must all be born again in order to be grafted into Jesus Christ, the True Vine (Rom 4:1-5; Gal 3:27). Nevertheless, if after being grafted in we bear no fruit unto righteousness, we will be taken away by the Husbandman - See Rom 11:20, 21; Joh 15:6; Isa 27:11

Joh 15:2

Joh 15:2 - every branch that beareth fruit, He purgeth it - God prunes that which is good so that it bear more fruit. We are purged through fiery trials. See Dan 12:10; Mal 3:2-4; Jam 1:2-4

Joh 15:2

Joh 15:2 - purgeth - kathairō Verb (kath-ah'-ee-ro) - to cleanse, of filth impurity, etc. - the three step testing process of purifying, trying and making white. See Dan 12:10; Mal 3:3; Heb 5:8, 10:32, 33, 12:6, 7

Joh 15:3

Joh 15:3 - Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you - Jesus' words sanctify those who gladly receive them and allow the Holy Spirit to bring revival to their lives. Jesus' words make us clean (free) from sin and deception, and they give life. See John 6:63; Rom 8:1; Joh 8:31, 32, 13:3-10, 17:17; Eph 5:26; Job 23:12 CONTRAST John 5:38-40

Joh 15:4 - Abide in Me, and I in you - Abide: to dwell, rest, tarry, remain, continue, be present, to be held, kept continually, await on. This statement introduces the "in Christ" motif that is the essence of the Gospel. Without Jesus, we can do nothing - See Joh 15:7, 10; 1 John 2:3-6, 4:15, 5:1; 2Cor 5:17; 1Cor 15:22; Heb 7:9, 10 There is to be no separation between Jesus and me. I must abide in Him through daily surrender and death to self, through His word, through prayer, through meditating on His life, through study. See Gal 2:20, 21; 2Cor 5:17; Eph 2:4-6 Those who abide in Jesus will be happy, cheerful, and joyful in God. A subdued gentleness will mark the voice, reverence for spiritual and eternal things will be expressed in the actions, and music, joyful music, will echo from the lips, for it is wafted from the throne of God. This is the mystery of godliness, not easily explained, but nonetheless felt and enjoyed. - {FLB 226.4}}

John 15:4 - Abide - ménō Verb men'-o a root word a primary verb; to stay (in a given place, state, relation or expectancy):--abide, continue, dwell, endure, be present, remain, stand, tarry (for), ? thine own. to remain, abide in reference to place to sojourn, tarry not to depart 1a to continue to be present 1a to be held, kept, continually in reference to time to continue to be, not to perish, to last, endure 1b of persons, to survive, live in reference to state or condition to remain as one, not to become another or different to wait for, await one

Joh 15:4

John 15:4 - and I in you - See Gal 2:20; Col 1:25-29; Philippians 2:12, 13

Joh 15:4

Joh 15:4 - except ye abide in me - "Herein is My Father glorified," said Jesus, "that ye bear much fruit." God desires to manifest through you the holiness, the benevolence, the compassion, of His own character. Yet the Saviour does not bid the disciples labor to bear fruit. He tells them to abide in Him. "If ye abide in Me," He says, "and My words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you." It is through the word that Christ abides in His followers. This is the same vital union that is represented by eating His flesh and drinking His blood. The words of Christ are spirit and life. Receiving them, you receive the life of the Vine. You live "by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Mt 4:4. The life of Christ in you produces the same fruits as in Him. Living in Christ, adhering to Christ, supported by Christ, drawing nourishment from Christ, you bear fruit after the similitude of Christ. - {DA 677.1}

Joh 15:5

John 15:5 - I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing - the Godhead's ultimate goal is that we be restored to the glory we once had, and even more so, that we have the glory of Christ upon us. We are to be a glorious branch, filling the earth with fruit. See Isa 4:2, 3 Jesus became the BRANCH from divinity to extend to humanity in order to save us. He learned obedience through suffering (Heb 5:8), and relied completely upon His Father to do all things (Joh 5:30, 8:28, 14:10, 11). Jesus is our Exemplar in all things Zech 3:8, 6:12, 13

Joh 15:5

Joh 15:5 - the same bringeth forth much fruit - the fruit to be born are the fruit of the Spirit. We are to crave the character of Christ, praying for it and abiding in His Words so that He, through the Holy Spirit may impart His character unto us, unto salvation (being sealed). See Gal 5:22, 23; Rom 7:4; 1Jo 3:6; Job 23:12; Rev 7:1-4

Joh 15:5

Joh 15:5 - for without me ye can do nothing - we can not fake, nor counterfeit the character of Christ. We either shine as the brightness of the firmament with Christ dwelling within, or we have great darkness within. Jesus, Who took on our humanity said of Himself "Of mine own self I can do nothing" (Joh 5:30, 8:28, 14:10, 11). Therefore, as Christ was wholly reliant upon His Father, it is most assured that without Jesus dwelling within us, we are without God, and we can do nothing. See Phil 4:13; 2Cor 3:5; Dan 12:3, 4; Mt 6:23; Josh 24:14-19; Deut 8:11-12; Ps 68:35 Through heathenism, Satan had for ages turned men away from God; but he won his great triumph in perverting the faith of Israel. By contemplating and worshipping their own conceptions, the heathen had lost a knowledge of God, and had become more and more corrupt. So it was with Israel. The principle that man can save himself by his own works lay at the foundation of every heathen religion; it had now become the principle of the Jewish religion. Satan had implanted this principle. Wherever it is held, men have no barrier against sin. - {DA 35.2}; See Deut 8:17, 18

Joh 15:6 - If a man abide not in me - Adam and Eve ceased to abide in Jesus Christ and thus committed sin. So too, we who do not abide in Jesus Christ commit sin and transgress His law. See Rom 8:8, 9; 1Jo 3:4; Heb 6:8; Act 27:31

Joh 15:6

Joh 15:6 - he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned - See Isa 27:11; Mt 22:13

Joh 15:6

Joh 15:6 - and is withered, those who are as seed on stony grown, having shallow roots, will wither with the blast of the sun [Sunday Law]. See Lk 8:6; Mk 4:5, 6; Mt 13:5, 6; Jer 17:5, 6
CONTRAST Ps 1:3; Jer 17:7, 8

Joh 15:6

Joh 15:6 - and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned - See Isa 27:11; Rev 20:12-15

Joh 15:7

John 15:7 - If ye abide in me - See Heb 7:9; 1Cor 15:22; Philippians 2:12, 13

Joh 15:7

Joh 15:7 - my words abide in you - "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." It is Jesus' words that cleanses and purifies us as we permit them to abide in us. Mt 8:8, 9; 4:4; Joh 5:24; 2Jo 1:2, 15:3, 20, 17:17; Ps 119:11 "Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee." Ps 119:11, 16 "All true obedience comes from the heart. It was heart work with Christ. And if we consent, He will so identify Himself with our thoughts and aims, so blend our hearts and minds into conformity to His will, that when obeying Him we shall be but carrying out our own impulses. The will, refined and sanctified, will find its highest delight in doing His service. When we know God as it is our privilege to know Him, our life will be a life of continual obedience. Through an appreciation of the character of Christ, through communion with God, sin will become hateful to us. - {DA 668.3}

Joh 15:7

Joh 15:7 - ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you - As we abide in Christ and

He abides in us, our will will be singular, to do the will of God (Mt 6:10) and to see Him glorified. Our will will be submitted to the will of God. See 1Jo 3:22, 5:15; Joh 14:13, 14; 2Cor 1:17-20

Joh 15:8

Joh 15:8 - Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit - God is glorified as He produces the fruit of the Spirit in us, His character, which in turn draws all men to the Lord. See Gal 5:22, 23; 1Cor 3:8, 9; Prov 11:30

Joh 15:8

Joh 15:8 - so shall ye be my disciples - Jesus' disciples are they who continue in His word, who bind up the testimony and seal the law in their hearts, and bear much fruit to God's glory. See Joh 8:31; Isa 8:16

Joh 15:9

Joh 15:9 - As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you - See Joh 14:9-11

Joh 15:9

Joh 15:9 - continue ye in my love - See Joh 15:4

Joh 15:10

Joh 15:10 - If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love - The commandments are as marriage vows where they state: "If you love me, you will not want to commit adultery, you will not seek to steal from me, you will not seek to kill me, etc.". This is how we abide in God's love. See Ex 20:1-17; Joh 15:4 Contrast Prov 14:35; Ps 40:8 Of ourselves we can do nothing (Joh 15:5). We are fully reliant on Christ abiding in us so that all things become possible (Philippians 4:13), including keeping His commandments. Implied in the command to abide in Christ's love is to chose daily to have Him abide within our hearts (Rev 3:20)

Joh 15:10

Joh 15:10 - even as I have kept my Father's commandments - Everything that we of ourselves can do is defiled by sin. But the Son of God "was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin." Sin is defined to be "the transgression of the law." 1Jo 3:5, 4. But Christ was obedient to every requirement of the law. He said of Himself, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God; yea, Thy law is within My heart." Ps 40:8. When on earth, He said to His disciples, "I have kept My Father's commandments." Joh 15:10. {COL 311.4} - See Ps 40:8

Joh 15:11

Joh 15:11 - These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full - the joy that Jesus gives is to remain and be unceasing despite the circumstances we face. Our joy can not be taken away unless we give it away. See Gal 5:22; Heb 12:2; Mt 25:21, 23; Ps 40:8, 16:11

Joh 15:12

Joh 15:12 - This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you - See Joh 13:34, 15:17

Joh 15:12

Joh 15:12 - as I have loved you - the love that Jesus has shown us is to lay down His life for us. See Joh 15:13

Joh 15:13

Joh 15:13 - Greater love hath no man than this - The greatest love demonstrated is to love others more than oneself, and to lay down one's life for another. The devil has warred against this verse through the song "The Greatest Love of All". Zech 13:6; Gal 2:20

Joh 15:13

Joh 15:13 - that a man lay down his life for his friends. - We are to become living sacrifices to the Lord and to sacrifice self for the love and life of others. See Rom 5:7, 8

Joh 15:14

Joh 15:14 - Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you - Friendship to God means to do all that He has commanded us. Our doing all that He commands means that we believe Him, trust Him and are obedient to Him. See Joh 14:15

Joh 15:15

Joh 15:15 - Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you - See Joh 8:35; Gal 4:5-8

Joh 15:15

Joh 15:15 - for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth - the Lord does not confer with the servant but gives the servant orders. The servant does not abide forever but a son abides forever. See Joh 8:35; Gal 4:7

Joh 15:15

Joh 15:15 - but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you - a friend makes known all things that God has revealed to him to his friend. See Jam 2:23

Joh 15:15

Joh 15:15 - for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you - See Rev 1:1; 1Cor 2:11-14

Joh 15:16

Joh 15:16 - Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you - God has chosen all of the human race in His Son, Jesus Christ. See Eph 1:4

Joh 15:16

Joh 15:16 - ordained - Appointed; instituted; established; invested with ministerial or pastoral functions; settled.

Joh 15:16

Joh 15:19 - ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain - Jesus purposes that we should bear His and His Father's character for eternity. See Joh 15:8; 1Cor 3:9-15; Isa 32:17; Rev 7:1-4

Joh 15:16

Joh 15:16 - that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you - Jesus continues to affirm His and the Father's willingness to give us the things we ask for. Praise You Lord for Your generosity towards me!! Help me to believe, to be obedient, to be conformed to your image, and to ask for the things in Your will that will glorify you in the world. Joh 15:7; 1Jo 5:14; Lk 11:9-13

Joh 15:17

Joh 15:17 - These things I command you, that ye love one another - See Mt 5:43-45; Lk 6:27, 28; Joh 15:12, 13:34

Joh 15:18

Joh 15:18 - If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you - See Mt 10:24, 25

Joh 15:19

Joh 15:19 - If ye were of the world, the world would love his own - See Joh 17:14; 1Pet 2:4, 5

Joh 15:19

Joh 15:19 - but because ye are not of the world, but I have chose you out of the world - Jesus affirms our heavenly citizenship when we accept His gracious invitation to abide in Him and He in us. See Joh 17:16, 18:36, 37; Philippians 3:20; Col 3:3

Joh 15:19

Joh 15:16 - but I have chosen you out of the world - See Ex 20:1, 2, 19:3-5; Joh 15:16; Rev 14:8, 18:2-4

Joh 15:20

Joh 15:20 - The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you - See Mt 10:24, 25 This principle is established upon the testimony of two witness (see Joh 13:16). This is first seen in the fall of mankind, when Adam and Eve died spiritually, the entire world and animal kingdom would be subject to mortality as its master. See Rom 8:20-22

Joh 15:20

Joh 15:20 - if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also - See 1Sam 8:5-8

Joh 15:21

Joh 15:21 - But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not Him that sent Me. - See Ps 69:9; Joh 16:3; 2Tim 3:12

Joh 15:21

Joh 15:21 - because they know not him that sent me - See Joh 16:1-3; 2Tim 3:12

Joh 15:22

Joh 15:22 - If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin - See Joh 9:41; Mt 23:13-36; Jam 4:17

Joh 15:23

Joh 15:23 - He that hateth me hateth my Father also - See Joh 15:18, 7:7

Joh 15:24

Joh 15:24 - If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin - See Joh 3:2, 9:30-32, 10:37, 38, 15:22

Joh 15:24

Joh 15:24 - but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father - because they have seen and rejected, they have no covering for their sins and they have demonstrated their hatred for both Jesus and the Father - See John 9:

Joh 15:25

Joh 15:25 - But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause - See Psa 7:4, 25:3, 35:7, 69:4, 109:3, 119:161; Prov 1:11, 3:30

Joh 15:26

Joh 15:26 - But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me: - See Joh 16:7-15

Joh 15:26

Joh 15:26 - whom I will send unto you from the Father - See Isa 48:16

Joh 15:27

Joh 15:27 - ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning - Just as Jesus was the True Witness to the character of the Father, He has commissioned us to be witnesses of what He means to each of us. See Act 4:13 "It is astounding but true that before the inventions of radio, TV, jet travel, and computers, it would have been easier and quicker to take the message to the whole world of that day than is our task today. The proclamation of the gospel of Christ requires effective communication of one human heart to another, not merely visual or audio exposure to electronic stimuli. The avenues of that effective communication we're open in the 1888 era; it was easier to grip the attention of people then than it is now. Our most effective electronic presentations are quickly drowned out by the never-ending flood of sophisticated entertainment often inspired by Satan." {Grace on Trial by Robert Wieland pg 28}

Joh 16:1

Joh 16:1 - These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended - See Joh 13:19

Joh 16:2

Joh 16:1 - put you out of the synagogues - It is one thing for the world to oppress the people of God (Act 16:19-21), but when the “professed” church persecutes the true church of God, this is the spirit of the papacy. Once expelled from the synagogues, the person would be brought to the authorities for punishment. The charges brought will not only be against the established religions dogmas, but will be made to be a capital offense against the state. See Lk 23:2, 20:20; Isa 66:5; Jer 26:7-11; Mt 10:17-19; Joh 9:22, 12:42

Joh 16:2

Joh 16:2 - yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service - See Mt 27:17 Every indignity, reproach, and cruelty that Satan could instigate human hearts to devise, has been visited upon the followers of Jesus. And it will be again fulfilled in a marked manner; for the carnal heart is still at enmity with the law of God, and will not be subject to its commands. The world is no more in harmony with the principles of Christ today than it was in the days of the apostles. The same hatred that prompted the cry. “Crucify Him! crucify Him!” the same hatred that led to the persecution of the disciples, still works in the children of disobedience. The same spirit which in the Dark Ages consigned men and women to prison, to exile, and to death, which conceived the exquisite torture of the Inquisition, which planned and executed the massacre of St. Bartholomew, and which kindled the fires of Smithfield, is still at work with malignant energy in unregenerate hearts. The history of truth has ever been the record of a struggle between right and wrong. The proclamation of the gospel has ever been carried forward in this world in the face of opposition, peril, loss, and suffering.—The Act of the Apostles, 84, 85. - {ChS 156.3}

Joh 16:2

Joh 16:2 - think that he doeth God service - Those who will persecute the saints of God have a zeal for God but not according to knowledge (Rom 10:1-3). They have not developed a love for truth (2Thess 2:10-12) and therefore believe a lie and are zealous to uphold that lie, believing it is in the will of God (Isa 66:5; Rom 10:1-4). Their self-righteousness and warped piety will cause them to do egregious wrongs in the name of the Lord. See Mt 27:6; Act 23:20, 21; Isa 66:5

Joh 16:3

Joh 16:3 - And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me - Mt 6:23; Isa 66:5

Joh 16:3

Joh 16:3 - because they have not known the Father, nor me - See Act 4:15-18, 13:27; Joh 5:42, 8:37, 15:21, 17:25, 19:13-16; 1Jo 2:23, 3:6; 1Cor 2:7, 8; Rom 10:3; 1Jo 3:1

Joh 16:4

Joh 16:4 - But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them - See Joh 14:29, 16:1, 13:19

Joh 16:4

Joh 16:4 - And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you - Jesus revealed the light of truth to His disciples progressively so that they might grow in understanding, but also that they would not be discouraged by the test and trials that lie before them.

Joh 16:5

Joh 16:5 - But now I go my way to him that sent me - See Isa 48:16

Joh 16:5

Joh 16:5 - and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? - See Joh 8:21, 22, 16:10, 28

Joh 16:7

Joh 16:7 - It is expedient for you that I go away - Cumbered with humanity, Christ could not be in every place personally. Therefore it was for their interest that He should go to the Father, and send the Spirit to be His successor on earth. {DA 669}

Joh 16:7

Joh 16:7 - The Comforter will not come unto you - The Comforter or Holy Spirit (Joh 14:26), also known as: 1. The Spirit of God/of the Lord/of Christ - Act 8:39 2. The Spirit of Truth - Joh 16:13 3. The Spirit of Judgment - Isa 4:4 4. The Spirit of Burning - Isa 4:4 5. The Spirit of Wisdom - Ex 28:3; Eph 1:17 6. The Spirit of Holiness - Rom 1:4 7. The Spirit of Adoption - Rom 8:15 8. The Spirit of Meekness - 1Cor 4:21; Gal 6:1 9. The Spirit of Faith - 2Cor 4:13 10. The Spirit of Promise - Eph 1:13 11. The Spirit of Grace - Heb 10:29 12. The Spirit of Glory - 1Pet 4:14 13. The Spirit of Life - Rev 11:11 14. The Spirit of Prophecy - Rev 19:10, 12:17; Joh 6:63, 16:13 15. The Spirit of Power - Joh 1:12; Act 1:8 16. The Spirit of Love and a Sound Mind - 1Tim 1:7 It is not essential for us to be able to define just what the Holy Spirit is. Christ tells us that the Spirit is the Comforter, "the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father." It is plainly declared regarding the Holy Spirit that, in His work of guiding men into all truth, "He shall not speak of Himself." Joh 15:26; 16:13. - {AA 51.3} The nature of the Holy Spirit is a mystery. Men cannot explain it, because the Lord has not revealed it to them. Men having fanciful views may bring together passages of Scripture and put a human construction on them, but the acceptance of these views will not strengthen the church. Regarding such mysteries, which are too deep for human understanding, silence is golden. - {AA 52.1}

Joh 16:7

Joh 16:7 - will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you - Before this the Spirit had been in the world; from the very beginning of the work of redemption He had been moving upon men's hearts. But while Christ was on earth, the disciples had desired no other helper. Not until they were deprived of His presence would they feel their need of the Spirit, and then He would come. - {DA 669.1} The Holy Spirit is Christ's representative, but divested of the personality of humanity, and independent thereof. Cumbered with humanity, Christ could not be in every place personally. Therefore it was for their interest that He should go to the Father, and send the Spirit to be His successor on earth. No one could then have any advantage because of his location or his personal contact with Christ. By the Spirit the Saviour would be accessible to all. In this sense He would be nearer to them than if He had not ascended on high. - {DA 669.2}

Joh 16:8

Joh 16:8 - And when He is come, He will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment - The office of the Holy Spirit is distinctly specified in the words of Christ: "When he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment"

(Joh 16:8). It is the Holy Spirit that convicts of sin. If the sinner responds to the quickening influence of the Spirit, he will be brought to repentance and aroused to the importance of obeying the divine requirements. - {YRP 11.4}

Joh 16:8 - reprove the world of sin - The same One Who reproves us of sin is He Who Comforts us with abounding grace above our sins. See Act 2:36, 37; Rom 5:20 The office of the Holy Spirit is distinctly specified in the words of Christ: "When He is come, He will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment." Joh 16:8. It is the Holy Spirit that convicts of sin. If the sinner responds to the quickening influence of the Spirit, he will be brought to repentance and aroused to the importance of obeying the divine requirements. - {AA 52.2}

Joh 16:8

Joh 16:8 - reprove - 1. To convict - Act 2:37, 7:54 2. To enlighten; to reveal the true motives - Joh 1:5, 9, 8:12; 1Cor 4:5; Heb 4:12; Jer 11:20; Ps 26:2 We may have flattered ourselves, as did Nicodemus, that our life has been upright, that our moral character is correct, and think that we need not humble the heart before God, like the common sinner: but when the light from Christ shines into our souls, we shall see how impure we are; we shall discern the selfishness of motive, the enmity against God, that has defiled every act of life. Then we shall know that our own righteousness is indeed as filthy rags, and that the blood of Christ alone can cleanse us from the defilement of sin, and renew our hearts in His own likeness. - {SC 28.3} The Spirit of God is ever seeking to break the spell of infatuation that holds men absorbed in worldly things, and to awaken a desire for the imperishable treasure. It is by resisting the Spirit that men become inattentive to or neglectful of God's word. They are themselves responsible for the hardness of heart that prevents the good seed from taking root, and for the evil growths that check its development. - {CSA 23.4}

Joh 16:8

Joh 16:8 - and of righteousness - The righteousness we are convicted of is the righteousness of Christ, "THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS" - Jer 23:5, 6. the righteous and pure in heart shall see God. See Mt 5:8; Act 2:38-41; Isa 33:15-17; Joh 4:23, 24 To the repentant sinner, hungering and thirsting for righteousness, the Holy Spirit reveals the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world. "He shall receive of Mine, and shall show it unto you," Christ said. "He shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you." Joh 16:14; 14:26. - {AA 52.3} Without the cross, man could have no union with the Father. On it depends our every hope. From it shines the light of the Saviour's love, and when at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fullness of joy, for his sins are pardoned. Kneeling in faith at the cross, he has reached the highest place to which man can attain. - {AA 209.4}

Joh 16:8 - of judgment - see Isa 4:4

Joh 16:9

Joh 16:9 - Of sin, because they believe not on me - to deny Jesus, the Son of God and the Living Word of God is also to deny His Father Who sent Him. Even the devils believe in God but do not love, honor, trust, or reverence Him (Jam 2:19). Denying God is sin. See Joh 8:21, 24, 12:44-50; Mt 28:11-15; Act 7:51-54, 13:38-46 The Comforter is called "the Spirit of truth."

His work is to define and maintain the truth. He first dwells in the heart as the Spirit of truth, and thus He becomes the Comforter. There is comfort and peace in the truth, but no real peace or comfort can be found in falsehood. It is through false theories and traditions that Satan gains his power over the mind. By directing men to false standards, he misshapes the character. Through the Scriptures the Holy Spirit speaks to the mind, and impresses truth upon the heart. Thus He exposes error, and expels it from the soul. It is by the Spirit of truth, working through the word of God, that Christ subdues His chosen people to Himself. - {DA 671.1}

Joh 16:9 - because they believe not on me - to walk in unbelief is to deny and not to receive Jesus. Jesus alone is Our Righteousness (Jer 23:5, 6) and all sin is unrighteousness (1Joh 5:17). Therefore, if we seek our own righteousness, outside of Christ, we deny Him and commit sin. The first coming of Christ was to fulfill all righteousness and to declare the eternal purposes of God through His Son, Jesus. To reject Jesus is to reject the Father and to seek an existence apart from Him, which does not exist. See Joh 1:12, 13

Joh 16:10

Joh 16:10 - Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more - only the righteous and pure in heart shall see God. Jesus, Who embodied righteousness, continually taught righteousness during His earthly ministry (See Mt 5). Jesus declared Himself not to be of this world, but from above. Once Jesus was glorified, risen from the grave, seen of men and then ascended on high, the conviction of His righteousness, His Messiahship and His words were to be felt, even by scoffers. Jesus ascended to heaven as our High Priest to minister on our behalf with His own blood. His righteousness is that which reconciles us to the Father, justifies us through His pure life and makes atonement for us (Jer 23:5, 6). All who accept Him by faith will receive of His righteousness, both imputed and imparted. Jesus has ascended to heaven and has given gifts to men including the gifts of repentance, reconciliation, forgiveness, the Holy Spirit and a new heart, motives and mind. - See Act 5:31; Mt 5:8; Job 19:25, 26; Joh 8:21-59; Heb 1:1-3; 1Pet 3:22 - See Hymn #

Joh 16:11

Joh 16:11 - the cross of Christ has sealed the doom forever of the devil and all the sons of disobedience that follow in his footsteps. See Eph 2:2; Malach 4:1; Mt 23:33 The Holy Spirit warns us of the judgment we all must face before the righteous throne of Christ. A man sees his danger. He sees that he needs a change of character, a change of heart. He is stirred; his fears are aroused. The Spirit of God is working in him, and with fear and trembling he works for himself, seeking to find out his defects of character and to see what he can do to bring about the needed change in his life.... He confesses his sins to God, and if he has injured anyone, he confesses the wrong to the one he has injured.... He acts in harmony with the Spirit's working, and his conversion is genuine. - {HP 21.6}

Joh 16:11

Joh 16:11 - the prince of this world is judged - as in the typical sanctuary service on the Day of Atonement, where the sins of God's people are blotted out (Act 3:19) and purged from (their soul) temple, the last act is to place the sins of the people upon the scapegoat before being sent to the wilderness to die. Jesus here pronounces the ultimate fate of the devil. After all the sons of disobedience who follow in his footsteps have been judged, Satan too will be judged and destroyed. See Mal 3:2-5; Joh 12:31, 14:30; Mt 23:33; Eph 2:2; Gen 3:15; Mal 4:1 Satan's judgment involves him being cast down so that his maligning lies are exposed and so that he no longer has dominion over those who put their faith in Jesus Christ. John 12:31, 14:30; Heb 2:13-18; 1Jo 3:5, 6, 8

Joh 16:12 - I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now - See 1Cor 2:9, 3:2, 3; Isa 28:9, 10; Heb 5:11-14; Prov 4:18; Mk 4:33

His work is to define and maintain the truth. He first dwells in the heart as the Spirit of truth, and thus He becomes the Comforter. There is comfort and peace in the truth, but no real peace or comfort can be found in falsehood. It is through false theories and traditions that Satan gains his power over the mind. By directing men to false standards, he misshapes the character. Through the Scriptures the Holy Spirit speaks to the mind, and impresses truth upon the heart. Thus He exposes error, and expels it from the soul. It is by the Spirit of truth, working through the word of God, that Christ subdues His chosen people to Himself. - {DA 671.1} "When He [the Spirit of truth] is come, He will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment." The preaching of the word will be of no avail without the continual presence and aid of the Holy Spirit. This is the only effectual teacher of divine truth. Only when the truth is accompanied to the heart by the Spirit will it quicken the conscience or transform the life. One might be able to present the letter of the word of God, he might be familiar with all its commands and promises; but unless the Holy Spirit sets home the truth, no souls will fall on the Rock and be broken. No amount of education, no advantages, however great, can make one a channel of light without the co-operation of the Spirit of God. The sowing of the gospel seed will not be a success unless the seed is quickened into life by the dew of heaven. Before one book of the New Testament was written, before one gospel sermon had been preached after Christ's ascension, the Holy Spirit came upon the praying apostles. Then the testimony of their enemies was, "Ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine." Act 5:28. - {DA 671.4}

Joh 16:13 - He will guide you into all truth - The Spirit of God is He who guides His people in wisdom, understanding and knowledge. See Isa 11:1, 2; Ex 31:3, 35:31; Job 32:8; 1Cor 2:7-14; Joh 6:45 Having brought conviction of sin, and presented before the mind the standard of righteousness, the Holy Spirit withdraws the affections from the things of this earth and fills the soul with a desire for holiness. "He will guide you into all truth" (Joh 16:13), the Saviour declared. If men are willing to be molded, there will be brought about a sanctification of the whole being. The Spirit will take the things of God and stamp them on the soul. By His power the way of life will be made so plain that none need err therein. - {AA 52.5} Yet the fact that God has revealed His will to men through His word, has not rendered needless the continued presence and guiding of the Holy Spirit. On the contrary, the Spirit was promised by our Saviour, to open the word to His servants, to illuminate and apply its teachings. And since it was the Spirit of God that inspired the Bible, it is impossible that the teaching of the Spirit should ever be contrary to that of the word. - {GC vii.2}

Joh 16:13

Joh 16:13 - for He will not speak of Himself - It is not essential for us to be able to define just what the Holy Spirit is. Christ tells us that the Spirit is the Comforter, "the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father." It is plainly declared regarding the Holy Spirit that, in His work of guiding men into all truth, "He shall not speak of himself" (Joh 15:26; 16:13). - {YRP 11.2} The nature of the Holy Spirit is a mystery. Men cannot explain it, because the Lord has not revealed it to them. Men having fanciful views may bring together passages of Scripture and put a human construction on them, but the acceptance of these views will not strengthen the church. Regarding such mysteries, which are too deep for human understanding, silence is golden. - {YRP 11.3}

Joh 16:13

Joh 16:13 - He will shew you things to come - the Spirit of Prophecy. See Rev 19:10; 12:17; Joh 6:63

Joh 16:14

Joh 16:14 - He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you - just as the Holy Spirit glorifies Jesus, revealing the things of Christ given to Him, so Jesus revealed and glorified the Father. See Joh 17:1-12 To the repentant sinner, hungering and thirsting for righteousness, the Holy Spirit reveals the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world. "He shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you," Christ said. "He shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you" (Joh 16:14; 14:26). - {YRP 11.5}

Joh 16:15

Joh 16:15 - All things that the Father hath are mine - Everything that belongs to the Father belongs to Jesus, because they are One. See Joh 17:6, 10; Col 2:9, 10; Heb 1:2, 3, 8, 9

Joh 16:16

Joh 16:16 - A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father - Jesus would rest in the grave for 3-days before being resurrected to life and power by the Holy Ghost. See Joh 14:19-22

Joh 16:22 - and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you - See Lk 24:31-35

Joh 16:24

Joh 16:24 - Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full - Act 1:8 As yet the disciples were unacquainted with the Saviour's unlimited resources and power. He said to them, "Hitherto have ye asked nothing in My name." Joh 16:24. He explained that the secret of their success would be in asking for strength and grace in His name. He would be present before the Father to make request for them.

Joh 16:25

Joh 16:25 - These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father - See Joh 20:31, 21:25; Lk 24:44, 45

Joh 16:27

Joh 16:27 - For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God - See Ps 103:13; Joh 3:16, 17:22, 23;

Joh 16:27

Joh 16:27 - and have believed that I came out from God - See Isa 48:16; 1Jo 5:1

Joh 16:28

Joh 16:28 - again, I leave the world, and go to the Father - See Heb 1:3

Joh 16:30

Joh 16:30 - Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God - Praise God for His patience with us in knowing we are but dust. We must have a healthy distrust of self and complete reliance upon Jesus. The Disciples missed all of Jesus' counsels, warnings, and allusions to His coming crucifixion and yet they did not understand. They still did not fully believe or understand though they spoke as if they did. See Mt 17:9

Joh 16:31

Joh 16:31 - Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? - Jesus knew the disciples far better than they knew themselves. His inquiry "Do ye now believe?" was based on the prophecies which said that the Shepherd would be smitten and the sheep scattered. He knew He would be denied by His disciples. See Zech 13:7

Joh 16:32

Joh 16:32 - Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me - See Zech 13:7

Joh 16:32

Joh 16:32 - and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me - The Father was continually with His Son. Even in the darkest hours, God veiled His glory in darkness about the cross of Calvary to be with His Son. See Isa 54:7, 8; Ps 23

Joh 16:33

Joh 16:33 - These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace - See Joh 14:27; Ps 119:165

Joh 16:33

Joh 16:33 - In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world - See 1Thess 3:3, 4; 2Thess 2:16 And when we are brought into strait places, we are to depend on God. We are to exercise wisdom and judgment in every action of life, that we may not, by reckless movements, place ourselves in trial. We are not to plunge into difficulties, neglecting the means God has provided, and misusing the faculties He has given us. Christ's workers are to obey His instructions implicitly. The work is God's, and if we would bless others His plans must be followed. Self cannot be made a center; self can receive no honor. If we plan according to our own ideas, the Lord will leave us to our own mistakes. But when, after following His directions, we are brought into strait places, He will deliver us. We are not to give up in discouragement, but in every emergency we are to seek help from Him who has infinite resources at His command. Often we shall be surrounded with trying circumstances, and then, in the fullest confidence, we must depend upon God. He will keep every soul that is brought into perplexity through trying to keep the way of the Lord. - {DA 369.1}

Joh 16:33

Joh 16:33 - but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world - See 1Jo 5:4, 5 In our own strength it is impossible for us to deny the clamors of our fallen nature. Through this channel Satan will bring temptation upon us. Christ knew that the enemy would come to every human being, to take advantage of hereditary weakness, and by his false insinuations to ensnare all whose trust is not in God. And by passing over the ground which man must travel, our Lord has prepared the way for us to overcome. It is not His will that we should be placed at a disadvantage in the conflict with Satan. He would not have us intimidated and discouraged by the assaults of the serpent. "Be of good cheer," He says; "I have overcome the world." Joh 16:33. - {DA 122.3}

Joh 17:1

Joh 17:1 - glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee: - See Joh 12:27-30

Joh 17:2

Joh 17:2 - given Him power over all flesh - the power God has granted Jesus is the authority to judge and impart pardon or condemnation to men according to their works. See Joh 5:22; Rev 22:12; Dan 7:13, 14

Joh 17:2

Joh 17:2 - that He should give eternal life to as many as Thou hast given Him - See Joh 10:28; Rev 22:12; 1Jo 5:11-13

Joh 17:3

Joh 17:3 - And this is life eternal, that they might know Thee, the only true God and Jesus Christ, Whom Thou hast sent - the gospel reveals the love of God in sending His Son to save the world. See Jer 9:23, 24; 1Jo 5:11-13; Mt 1:21; 2Pet 1:2

Joh 17:3

Joh 17:3 - and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent - See Isa 48:16; Joh 17:8

Joh 17:4

Joh 17:4 - I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do - The whole end of man and of all created beings is to glorify the Father, the Maker of all things. See Isa 43:7 Jesus came to be a witness of the truth and the character of the Father. Just as Jesus did nothing of Himself in the Creation, He did nor spoke nothing of Himself in redemption. Everything He did, He did in harmony with and at the request of, and by the power of His Father. See Joh 8:26, 28, 14:10, 11; Lk 5:25, 26, 7:15-17, 29, 9:43

Joh 17:4

Joh 17:4 - I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do - See Joh 4:34, 5:36 Jesus did for humanity what it could not do of itself in its fallen condition, glorify God. Jesus emptied Himself of all of Himself so that the world might see the Father in His fulness. Jesus now gives us the charge to die completely to self so that the Father may be seen in each of us through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

Joh 17:5

Joh 17:5 - with the glory which I had with thee before the world was - Jesus acknowledges the glory, the honor, the majesty, the power, the God that He was and is, before condescending to become a human being (Phil 2:5-8). See Joh 6:62, 17:24; Isa 48:12, 13, 16; Rev 1:8, 17; 2Cor 5:16; Heb 9:28

Joh 17:5

Joh 17:5 - before the world was - before the foundation of the world.

Joh 17:6

Joh 17:6 - I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me - God's name and His character are synonymous, therefore Jesus could say to Philip, "If you've seen Me, you've seen the Father". God's name is perfect Righteousness, Holiness, Rest, and Sanctification, all symbolized by the emblem of the Sabbath. See Ex 34:5-7; Ps 22:22; Joh 8:26, 14:9-11; Heb 2:12; Ps 40:10

Joh 17:11 - keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me - For God's own name sake, Jesus prays that He keep us from the evil one.

Joh 17:11

Joh 17:11 - as we are - See Isa 46:9, 48:16 How to Achieve Unity: 1. Make no distinction with other believers 2. Surrender our agenda to God's agenda 3. Forgive - obey God's call to forgive [no one truly deserves it] 4. Share the gospel message - renewed sense of compassion 5. Overcome evil with good 6. Seek to please God instead of other people (our thoughts, words, actions) 7. Seek God's will - every decision is a spiritual decision 8. Respect our church leaders 9. Control our thoughts and words [renew our minds and think positive thoughts] 10. Pray for each other - intercede for each other 11. Keep saying yes to God 12. If we realize what we are will determine our salvation, we will strive to foster unity

Joh 17:12

Joh 17:12 - While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: - Jesus came to His disciples' rescue when persecuted by the Jewish leadership (Mark 9:14-17); Jesus told Peter "But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not" (Lk 22:32); Jesus dispatched His disciples while He was being apprehended by the mob (Joh 18:8).

Joh 17:12 - those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost - See Joh 6:39, 18:8, 9; Ezekiel 34:11-16

Joh 17:12

Joh 17:12 - but the son of perdition - curiously, Judas is referred to with the same epithet as the papacy, "the son of perdition". Both are sons of their father, the devil. 2Thess 2:3; Joh 8:41, 44; Act 1:25

Joh 17:12

Joh 17:12 - that the scripture might be fulfilled - the son of perdition, one of Jesus' kinsmen, was to betray Jesus and himself would be lost. See Zech 11:12; Ps 41:9, 109:2-8; Mt 26:21-25

Joh 17:13

Joh 17:13 - that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves - See Heb 12:2 That they might have the joy of Christ fulfilled in us through love and unity as His disciples. What is that joy? Who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despised the shame, and is forever set down at the right hand of God. What was the joy? Was it the joy that we feel when we think that we are in a very important position in this life? Is that the joy? No. What was the joy? In seeing sons and daughters brought to Jesus Christ because they have given their life to the service of Christ, of soul saving. - {1SAT 195.3} That is the joy that Christ had. That is our joy. And when we possess this joy we shall love souls and work for souls for whom Christ has died.

Joh 17:17

Joh 17:17 - Sanctify them through thy truth - the Word of God is that which sanctifies (sets apart) a person. Our sanctification is made perfect as we, by the Spirit of Truth, love the truth and hide God's words in our hearts and obey them by faith. See Isa 8:16; Ps 119:9-11; 2Thess 2:13; Eph 5:26; Joh 15:3 CONTRAST John 8:37 Through the work of the Holy Spirit, the sanctification of the truth, the believer becomes fitted for the courts of heaven; for Christ works within us, and His righteousness is upon us. Without this no soul will be entitled to heaven. We would not enjoy heaven unless qualified for its holy atmosphere by the influence of the Spirit and the righteousness of Christ. - {YRP 65.3}

Joh 17:17

Joh 17:17 - thy word is truth - See Ps 119:160 God cannot lie - Titus 1:2; Rom 3:4; Jam 1:17; Num 23:19 The Holy Scriptures are the perfect standard of truth, and as such should be given the highest place in education. To obtain an education worthy of the name, we must receive a knowledge of God, the Creator, and of Christ, the Redeemer, as they are revealed in the sacred word. - {Ed 17.1}

Joh 17:21

Joh 17:21 - That they all may be one - See Eph 4:11-13; 1Cor 6:17 In the professedly Christian world many turn away from the plain teachings of the Bible and build up a creed from human speculations and pleasing fables, and they point to their tower as a way to climb up to heaven. Men hang with admiration upon the lips of eloquence while it teaches that the transgressor shall not die, that salvation may be secured without obedience to the law of God. If the professed followers of Christ would accept God's standard, it would bring them into unity; but so long as human wisdom is exalted above His Holy Word, there will be divisions and dissension. The existing confusion of conflicting creeds and sects is fitly represented by the term "Babylon," which prophecy (Rev 14:8; 18:2) applies to the world-loving churches of the last days. - {PP 124.1}

Joh 17:22

Joh 17:22 - and the glory which thou gavest me I have given them - We, through the Holy Spirit are to be partakers of Jesus' divine nature, having escaped the world with its lusts. We are to become God's glorious holy mountain that will declare His praises in all the world. Our demonstration of self-emptying love will be the glory of Jesus revealed to the world.

Joh 18:1

John 18:1 - Cedron - Kedrōn Noun Location ked-rone' of Hebrew origin (06939) of Hebrew origin (); Cedron (i.e. Kidron), a brook near Jerusalem:--Cedron. Cedron or Kidron = "turbid" the name of a winter torrent, rising near Jerusalem and flowing down through a valley of Kidron, having the Mount of Olives on the east, into the Dead Sea Crossing the turbid (cloudy, sooty) brook Cedron may have symbolized the commencement of Jesus' baptism by fire, where He would begin to experience the weight of His mission, to bear the sins of the world.

Joh 18:2

John 18:2 - And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples - the betrayer knew how and where to find Jesus. Jesus made no attempt to abscond Himself, only to seek the place of refuge where He often fled to commune with His Father.

Joh 18:3

Joh 18:3 - having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees - The hour for Jesus' glorification had come and nothing would prevent Him being taken. It was the Father's will that He be taken See Joh 7:44-46

Joh 18:4

Joh 18:4 - Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye? - Jesus is the perfect example of male courage. He moved towards danger, stood in the gap in order to protect His disciples from harm. It is with full knowledge of what He would endure that Jesus redeemed the world. See Isa 53:1-11; Joh 13:3; Heb 12:2

Joh 18:5

Joh 18:5 - And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them - Judas took his stand on the side of darkness. Judas the betrayer did not forget the part he was to act. When the mob entered the garden, he had led the way, closely followed by the high priest. To the pursuers of Jesus he had given a sign, saying, "Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is He: hold Him fast." Mt 26:48. Now he pretends to have no part with them. Coming close to Jesus, he takes His hand as a familiar friend. With the words, "Hail, Master," he kisses Him repeatedly, and appears to weep as if in sympathy with Him in His peril. - {DA 695.2} Jesus said to him, "Friend, wherefore art thou come?" His voice trembled with sorrow as He added, "Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?" This appeal should have aroused the conscience of the betrayer, and touched his stubborn heart; but honor, fidelity, and human tenderness had forsaken him. He stood bold and defiant, showing no disposition to relent. He had given himself up to Satan, and he had no power to resist him. Jesus did not refuse the traitor's kiss. - {DA 696.1}

Joh 18:6

Joh 18:6 - As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground - The Father permitted Jesus' divinity to flash through His humanity such that the mob fell back at His glory. The mob were to know without a shadow of doubt that the person Who they were seeking to arrest was capable of thwarting their efforts entirely. They would know that Jesus surrendered Himself and laid down His Own life. See Isa 45:23; John 10:17, 18 No traces of His recent agony were visible as Jesus stepped forth to meet His betrayer. Standing in advance of His disciples He said, "Whom seek ye?" They answered, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus replied, "I am He." As these words were spoken, the angel who had lately ministered to Jesus moved between Him and the mob. A divine light illuminated the Saviour's face, and a dovelike form overshadowed Him. In the presence of this divine glory, the murderous throng could not stand for a moment. They staggered back. Priests, elders, soldiers, and even Judas, fell as dead men to the ground. - {DA 694.5}

Joh 18:7

John 18:7 - Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth - unlike wise men, who brought their offering and gifts, seeking to pay Jesus homage and praise, those who sought Jesus with Judas sought to crucify Him. See Mt 2:1, 2; John 12:20-23, 18:12, 13

Joh 18:8

Joh 18:8 - Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way: - Jesus sought to focus the attention upon Himself so that the disciples may leave in safety.

Joh 18:9

Joh 18:9 - That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none - A faithful and Good Shepherd has kept watch over the flock of God so that none were lost except the son of perdition, who chose to be lost. See Joh 17:12; Ezekiel 34:11-16

Joh 18:10

Joh 18:10 - Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus - the sword which the disciples took up for protection would be powerless given the circumstances. Jesus wanted to assure the disciples that the weapons of their warfare was spiritual and that they must put their trust in the Lord. See

Joh 18:11

Joh 18:11 - Put up thy sword into the sheath - curiously, Jesus permitted the disciples to bear a weapon, but He then commanded Peter to put it away and not use it. Jesus perhaps accommodated the disciple's human desire for visible protection, but wished them to learn that God would take care of them. Lk 22:36-38; 2Cor 10:4-6 Jesus would again show His power over the angry mob as He loosed Himself from the hands of His captors to heal Malchus' ear. See Lk 22:50, 51;

Joh 18:11

Joh 18:11 - the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it? - See Lk 22:42-44; John 12:27, 28

Joh 18:14

Joh 18:14 - Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people - See Joh 11:49-53

Joh 18:15

Joh 18:15 - and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest - the Apostle Joh, the author, speaks of himself.

Joh 18:17

Joh 18:17 - Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. - Peter is questioned by a young girl who saw him with Jesus and Peter denies knowing Jesus.

Joh 18:18

Joh 18:18 - And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself. - Jesus stood with the those who had just unlawfully apprehended his Master. Peter stood with the wicked in order to camouflage himself. The servants of God are not to try to blend in but to put their trust in God.

Joh 18:18

John 18:18 - and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself - Peter stood among those who apprehended Jesus, feigning to not be His disciple as he warmed himself among the rebels

Joh 18:19

Joh 18:19 - The high pries then asked Jesus of His disciples and His doctrine - Christ was to be tried formally before the Sanhedrin; but before Annas He was subjected to a preliminary trial. Under the Roman rule the Sanhedrin could not execute the sentence of death. They could only examine a prisoner, and pass judgment, to be ratified by the Roman authorities. It was therefore necessary to bring against Christ charges that would be regarded as criminal by the Rom. An accusation must also be found which would condemn Him in the eyes of the Jews. Not a few among the priests and rulers had been convicted by Christ's teaching, and only fear of excommunication prevented them from confessing Him. The priests well remembered the question of Nicodemus, "Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?" John 7:51. This question had for the time broken up the council, and thwarted their plans. Joseph of Arimathaea and Nicodemus were not now to be summoned, but there were others who might dare to speak in favor of justice. The trial must be so conducted as to unite the members of the Sanhedrin against Christ. There were two charges which the priests desired to maintain. If Jesus could be proved a blasphemer, He would be condemned by the Jews. If convicted of sedition, it would secure His condemnation by the Rom. The second charge Annas tried first to establish. He questioned Jesus concerning His disciples and His doctrines, hoping the prisoner would say something that would give him material upon which to work. He thought to draw out some statement to prove that He was seeking to establish a secret society, with the purpose of setting up a new kingdom. Then the priests could deliver Him to the Rom as a disturber of the peace and a creator of insurrection. - {DA 698.3}

Joh 18:20

Joh 18:20, 21 - Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing. Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said - See Lk 22:52, 53; Isa 45:19

Joh 18:20

John 18:20 - and in secret have I said nothing - See Isa 45:19

Joh 18:21

Joh 18:21 - Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said - Turning upon His questioner, Jesus said, "Why askest thou Me?" Had not the priests and rulers sent spies to watch His movements, and report His every word? Had not these been present at every gathering of the people, and carried to the priests information of all His sayings and doings? "Ask them which heard Me, what I have said unto them," replied Jesus; "behold, they know what I said." - {DA 699.3}

Joh 18:22

Joh 18:22 - And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? - this act of hostility towards Jesus was given in unrighteousness indignation by the soldier.

Joh 18:23

Joh 18:23 - Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? - Jesus' reproof could not be challenged.

Joh 18:25

Joh 18:25 - And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not - unable to mask his identity, Peter, denies his Lord a second time. See Joh 18:18 Peter's fall was not instantaneous, but gradual. Self-confidence led him to the belief that he was saved, and step after step was taken in the downward path, until he could deny his Master. Never can we safely put confidence in self or feel, this side of heaven, that we are secure against temptation. Those who accept the Saviour, however sincere their conversion, should never be taught to say or to feel that they are saved. This is misleading. Every one should be taught to cherish hope and faith; but even when we give ourselves to Christ and know that He accepts us, we are not beyond the reach of temptation. God's word declares, "Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried." Daniel 12:10. Only he who endures the trial will receive the crown of life. (James 1:12). - {COL 155.1}

Joh 18:26

Joh 18:26 - Did not I see thee in the garden with him? - See Joh 18:10

Joh 18:27

Joh 18:27 - Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew - See Lk 22:34

Joh 18:28

Joh 18:28 - Then led they Jesus from Caiphas unto the hall of judgment - Jesus, being led to judgment, typifies the hour of HIS judgment is come in Rev 14:7. Though Jesus' character as a just judge over those who have sinned is questioned by Satan (Zech 3:1-5), He is both just and the justifier of them that believe on Him (Rom 3:23-26), or rather, they that enter into judgment (the Most Holy Place) with Him. The irony of the scene where the Righteous Judge is Himself being led into judgment before a kangaroo court.

Joh 18:28

Joh 18:28 - they themselves went not into the judgment hall - the Jewish leaders here represent the wicked, whose names do not appear in the Investigative judgment because of their rejection of Christ; but whose names will come up during the Millennium for utter destruction. They present a false humility, not seeking to defile themselves by being around the commoner Pilate while asking favor of him. See Col 2:18

Joh 18:28

Joh 18:28 - lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover - maintaining their trust in the Jewish ceremonies and rites while actively committing sin, the Jews condemned Christ to death and would partake of the useless Passover ceremony that had thus been abolished with Jesus' death. The defilement would not come from being around Gentiles or "common men", but rather the defilement came from the murder within their hearts (Mt 15:19). See Isa 65:1-5; 1Thess 2:14, 15; Act 10:13-17, 28, 11:5-9 Through messages such as those borne by Mal, the last of the Old Testament prophets, as well as through oppression from heathen foes, the Israelites finally learned the lesson that true prosperity depends upon obedience to the law of God. But with many of the people, obedience was not the outflow of faith and love. Their motives were selfish. Outward service was rendered as a means of attaining to national greatness. The chosen people did not become the light of the world, but shut themselves away from the world as a safeguard against being seduced into idolatry. The restrictions which God had given, forbidding intermarriage between His people and the heathen, and prohibiting Israel from joining in the idolatrous practices of surrounding nations, were so perverted as to build up a wall of partition between the Israelites and all other peoples, thus shutting from others the very blessings which God had commissioned Israel to give to the world. - {PK 708.1} The restrictions that God had placed upon their association with idolaters as a means of preventing them from conforming to the practices of the heathen, they used to build up a wall of separation between themselves and all other nations. They robbed God of the service He required of them, and they robbed their fellow men of religious guidance and a holy example. - {AA 14.2}

Joh 18:30

Joh 18:30 - They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee - not able to bring a chargeable claim against Jesus, they merely malign His character and brand Him a malefactor.

Joh 18:30

Joh 18:30 - malefactor - a criminal, a law breaker, a terrorist.

Joh 18:31

Joh 18:31 - Take ye him, and judge him according to your law - Pilot's words were condemning because there was nothing within their law with which to charge Jesus in a civil trial. Further, the crimes with which they charged Jesus were to be punished by stoning, yet the Jews desired that Jesus be accursed through crucifixion, by hanging on a tree. See Act 18:12-15, 23:28, 29; Gal 3:13

Joh 18:31

Joh 18:31- It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death - the hypocrisy of the Jew's statement is stark, given they were quick to lift stones to stone the entrapped woman caught in adultery (Joh 8:1-5), but claim they can not put anyone to death. As the Bible states, this signifies the death by which it was ordained that Jesus should die. Jesus must become a curse for all men by hanging on a tree to satisfy the condemnation of the Law of God. Deut 21:21-23; Joh 12:32; Gal 3:13; Gen 3:15

Joh 18:32

Joh 18:32 - That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die - The understanding was that the Jew's stoning of Jesus would not satisfy the Pharisees, rather, they wanted Jesus to be hung on a cross. See Joh 3:14-16, 12:32; Deut

21:21-23

Joh 18:34

Joh 18:34 - sayest thou this thing of thyself - Jesus, Who through the Holy Spirit reads the hearts, is asking Pilate to confess if this is his personal concern, to know if Jesus is a King, or merely his regurgitation of another's statement and/or question. Jesus is appealing to Pilate for his own salvation, to acknowledge Jesus for Who He is based on all that he had heard and even witnessed.

Joh 18:36

Joh 18:26 - My kingdom is not of this world - See Ps 39:18; Heb 11:8-10; Joh 3:13, 8:23, 17:16, 20; Philippians 3:20; Col 1:12, 13; 3:3; Mk 1:15; Lk 17:20, 21; Philippians 3:20 He declared that it was not His purpose to establish in this world a temporal kingdom. He was not appointed to reign as an earthly monarch on David's throne. When the disciples asked Him, "Lord, wilt Thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?" He answered, "It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in His own power." Act 1:6, 7. It was not necessary for them to see farther into the future than the revelations He had made enabled them to see. Their work was to proclaim the gospel message. - {AA 30.1}

Joh 18:36

Joh 18:36 - then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews - the angels of heaven were poised to vanquish Jesus' tormentors and deliver Him from the injustice, but they were restrained so that Jesus might fulfill all righteousness.

Joh 18:36

Joh 18:36 - that I should not be delivered to the Jews - The Jews were not of Jesus' Kingdom, but were a hostile foreign force, warring against Jesus and His Kingdom. See Rom 10:1-3

Joh 18:37

Joh 18:37 - Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice - Jesus gave witness of Who He was and what was His calling, to be King of the Universe, not over the Roman Legions.

Joh 18:37

Joh 18:37 - I am a king - Jesus' profession in earthly courts sealed His doom, as He declared Himself a King while He was merely giving account of the truth. See Mt 2:1-12; Joh 19:12; Zech 6:12, 13; 1Tim 6:13

Joh 18:37

Joh 18:35 - To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth - Jesus came to bear witness to the truth, to magnify the law and make it honorable. See Isa 42:21 Jesus' words and the counsel sent by Pilot's wife brought conviction to His mind and soul.

Joh 18:37

Joh 18:37 - that I should bear witness unto the truth - See 2Cor 13:8; John 1:4, 5, 9-13

Joh 18:37

Joh 18:37 - Everyone that is of the truth heareth my voice - Jesus is again appealing to Pilate to acknowledge Jesus as King, however, Pilate deftly attempts to side-step the appeal by asking "What is truth?". See Joh 1:11-13, 14:23, 7:17; 8:31, 32; Mt 17:5 Contrast Mt 13:14; Mk 6:11; Act 28:26 Everyone that is of the truth, who loves truth and is willing to submit to truth, hear Jesus' voice.

Joh 18:38

John 18:38 - Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all - this was a time of test and trial for Pilate as an administrator of the Law. He was being tested by Jesus' words regarding truth, righteousness, and His kingdom when Jesus said "Everyone that is of the truth heareth my voice". Pilate sought to deflect the conviction of the Holy Spirit by inquiring, "What is truth?". See John 16:7-11; Act 24:24, 25

Joh 18:38

Joh 18:38 - What is truth? - Consistent with philosophical relativism, Pilate asks Jesus "What is truth?" The irony is that Pilate is asking the very Way, the Truth and the Life, "What is truth?" Pilate had become blinded by vain philosophy such that truth became relative to him. See Col 2:8; 2Cor 4:3-6; 1Tim 6:20; Act 26:28

Joh 18:38

Joh 18:38 - And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews - Pilate, while in judgment with Jesus, did not await the answer to his inquiry of Jesus "What is truth?". Pilate stood in the presence of the very personification of Truth and rejected the light that shone forth. His failure to sit at Jesus' feet and learn of Him would seal his doom. The next time Jesus is presented to Pilate and Pilate makes inquiry of Him, He answers him not a word - Pilate's probation was sealed. Joh 19:9

Joh 18:38

Joh 18:38 - I find in him no fault at all - Pilate's conscience is pricked that Jesus is both innocent and Who He claims to be, the King of the Jews. See 1Pet 1:19

Joh 18:39

Joh 18:39 - But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? - This custom seemed to be an appeasement to the oppressed Jews as it defied justice and judgment but gained good will/favor for Pilot.

Joh 18:39

Joh 18:39 - will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? - Pilate's inquiry is full of contempt and sarcasm. He knew something was different about Jesus but did not have the courage to stand for the right and fight the good fight.

Joh 18:40

Joh 18:40 - Now Barabbas was a robber - not only was Barabbas {meaning: son of the father} a robber of other's goods, he was a robber of Jesus' character. Coming as a false Christ, promoting false pretenses, he started an insurrection to overthrow the Rom. See Joh 10:1, 2

Joh 19:1

Joh 19:1 - Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him - As a means to appease the blood thirsty crowd, Pilate had Jesus innocently scourged to see if that would abate the crowd's desire to see His death. See Joh 19:4, 5

Joh 19:2

Joh 19:2 - they put on him a purple robe - the soldiers mockingly place upon Jesus a purple robe, signifying royalty. See Mt 11:8

Joh 19:4

Joh 19:4 - Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him - See Act 23:26-29

Joh 19:4

Joh 19:3 - I find no fault in him - Pilate was guilty of cowardice, lacking principle and injustice as he saw no fault in Jesus and yet permitted his soldiers to mistreat Him. See Joh 19:8

Joh 19:6

Joh 19:6 - When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him - the Jewish leadership, possessed by devils that speak through them, shout for the death of Jesus - See Mk 5:9; Lk 8:30; Joh 19:15

Joh 19:6

Joh 19:6 - Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him - too cowardly to stop the sham trial, Pilate attempts to lay the burden of the death of Christ upon the Jews and their leadership.

Joh 19:7

Joh 19:17 - We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God - the Jews' charge of blasphemy against Jesus should have been upheld by their law in the manner in which it was proscribed, by stoning. However, they desired that Jesus be accursed by hanging on a tree. See Ex 20:7; 1Kin 21:10, 13; Mk 2:5-7; Lk 5:21, 7:49; Joh 8:58, 10:33

Joh 19:8

Joh 19:8 - When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid - Pilate would have no reason to be afraid if Jesus' conduct and bearing did not give evidence of the profession of Him being King of the Jews from heaven. See Joh 18:33-37

Joh 19:9

Joh 19:9 - And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? - Pilate is being convicted by the Holy Spirit of all that he has heard and perceived. Jesus is not of this world and it is obvious to Pilate; yet, his pride will not permit him to acknowledge the very divinity of Whom he stands in the presence. See Mt 27:19

Joh 19:9

Joh 19:10 - But Jesus gave him no answer - See Joh 18:38; Isa 42:1-3, 53:7

Joh 19:10

Joh 19:10 - Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee? - Pilate seeks to force a reply from Jesus by a threat. Pilate's threats had no bearing on One Who had yielded His will to His Heavenly Father. See Mt 26:39, Lk 22:42

Joh 19:11

Joh 19:11 - Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above - The Father permitted Jesus to lay down His life in order to save humanity. Jesus yielded His divinity and His natural desires to save Himself in order to be apprehended, tried and sentenced by the Roman official Pilate. See Joh 10:17, 18

Joh 19:11

Joh 19:11 - therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin - See Lk 12:47 God does not regard all sins as of equal magnitude; there are degrees of guilt in His estimation, as well as in that of man; but however trifling this or that wrong act may seem in the eyes of men, no sin is small in the sight of God. Man's judgment is partial, imperfect; but God estimates all things as they really are. The drunkard is despised and is told that his sin will exclude him from heaven; while pride, selfishness, and covetousness too often go unrebuked. But these are sins that are especially offensive to God; for they are contrary to the benevolence of His character, to that unselfish love which is the very atmosphere of the unfallen universe. He who falls into some of the grosser sins may feel a sense of his shame and poverty and his need of the grace of Christ; but pride feels no need, and so it closes the heart against Christ and the infinite blessings He came to give. - {SC 30.1}

Joh 19:12

Joh 19:12 - And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him - fear was motivating Pilate rather than principle. He resolved to release Jesus out of fear for What or Who He potentially may be.

Joh 19:12

Joh 19:12 - but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar - Pilate feared his temporal standings with Caesar more than What, or Who Jesus may represent and therefore, he acted upon the greater, more immediate sense of fear. Fear is never a good motivator for doing God's will. The devil will turn circumstances such that a temporal fear will outweigh the prospect of future punishments. See Joh 19:9

Joh 19:12

Joh 19:12 - whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar - the Jews are coming to the defense of Caesar, acknowledging him as their king and disinheriting/forsaking their appointed role and that of their children, as ambassadors to

God and His Eternal Kingdom. See Joh 19:15; Mt 27:25

Joh 19:13

Joh 19:13 - sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement - In the Greek was called Lithostrotos, or the pavement of stones, as the Syrian version renders it: it is thought to be the room Gazith, in which the sanhedrin sat in the temple when they tried capital causes; and it was so called, because it was paved with smooth, square hewn stones: "it was in the north part; half of it was holy, and half of it was common: and it had two doors, one for that part which was holy, and another for that part that was common; and in that half that was common the sanhedrin sat." So that into this part of it, and by this door, Pilate, though a Gentile, might enter. This place, in the language of the Jews, who at that time spoke Syrian, was Gabbatha, from its height, as it should seem; though the Syrian and Persian versions read Gaphiphtha, which signifies a fence or enclosure. Mention is made in the Talmud of the upper Gab in the mountain of the house; but whether the same with this Gabbatha, and whether this is the same with the chamber Gazith, is not certain. The Septuagint uses the same word as Joh here does, and calls by the same name the pavement of the temple on which Israelites fell and worshipped God. {taken from TouchBible App}

Joh 19:13

Joh 19:13 - Gabbatha - a raised place, elevation

Joh 19:14

Joh 19:14 - And it was the preparation of the passover - the Passover was a high Passover, falling upon the eve of the Sabbath. See Joh 19:31

Joh 19:14

Joh 19:14 - and about the sixth hour - 12noon.

Joh 19:15

Joh 19:15 - But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him - See Joh 19:6

Joh 19:15

Joh 19:15 - Shall I crucify your King? - The inspired words of Pilate were echoes from the past, when Israel rejected God and demanded an earthly, king. As they rejected God's law and His prophets, the next step would be to reject God Himself, the Holy One of Israel, and accept the spirit of their true father, who was a murderer from the beginning. See 1Sam 8:1-8; Isa 30:9-11; Joh 8:44

Joh 19:15

Joh 19:15 - We have no king but Caesar - the Jewish leaders led the people in renouncing their allegiance to God and His Holy One and declaring themselves to be Roman under the god king Caesar; forsaking their God appointed calling. Therefore, they should have felt no offense when Pilot wrote "JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS". Compare Ps 89:18, 38:45; Joh 19:12; Mt 27:25; Act 17:5-7 Just as the Jews chose Barabbas over Jesus, they renounce their fidelity to God for Caesar in order to accomplish the goal of crucifying Christ. Men today are renouncing their fidelity to truth, honor, morality, justice and every good trait to achieve their [political] ends. In joining hands with the state to achieve its ends, the Jews created the Image to the Beast, a foretelling of the works of the papacy in joining hands with the state to rule the world.

Joh 19:16

Joh 19:16 - Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified - Pilate cowardly consents to the death of an innocent man to maintain his political position. The cowardice and selfishness of Pilate is seen in politicians today. See Isa 53:7, 8

Joh 19:17

Joh 19:17 - And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha: - See Mt 16:24; Gen 22:6

Joh 19:17

Joh 19:17 - place of a skull - the hill Golgotha where Jesus was crucified appears as a skull. This is a figurative depiction and fulfillment of the Everlasting Gospel in that Jesus' crucifixion crushed the head of Satan (Gen 3:15; Joh 12:31, 32). Satan's skull will be crushed by Jesus through the feet of the saints according to Rom 16:20. Those who take the glad tidings of salvation, the tidings from the east and the north (Rom 10:15; Dan 11:44) are stomping upon the head of Satan.

Joh 19:18

Joh 19:18 - Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst - Jesus is here numbered with the transgressors (wicked) though He never committed sin. See Isa 53:9, 12

Joh 19:19

Joh 19:19 - And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS -

Joh 19:20

Joh 19:20 - for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin - God ordained that the epithet placed above Jesus' head should give testimony in every known language of His true identity.

Joh 19:20

Joh 19:20 - Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin: Hebrew - the tongue of the False Prophet Greek - the tongue of the Dragon Latin - the tongue of the Beast

Joh 19:20

Joh 19:20 - Greek - One language was widely spoken, and was everywhere recognized as the language of literature. From all lands the Jews of the dispersion gathered to Jerusalem to the annual feasts. As these returned to the places of their sojourn, they could spread throughout the world the tidings of the Messiah's coming. - {DA 32.2} For hundreds of years the Scriptures had been translated into the Greek language, then widely spoken throughout the Roman Empire. The Jews were scattered everywhere, and their expectation of the Messiah's coming was to some extent shared by the Gentiles. - {DA 33.2}

Joh 19:22

Joh 19:22 - Pilate answered, What I have written I have written - Pilate's bold resolve arrived too late. When he should have taken decided action to free the Man he knew to be innocent, he cowardly heeded the sentiments of the mob. Struck with a guilty of having permitted the death of an innocent and wholly righteous man, his conscience was tormented and he disdained the hypocritical, self-serving Pharisees who forced his hand.

Joh 19:23

Joh 19:23 - Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout - See Psa 22:18

Joh 19:24

Joh 19:24 - Let us not rend it but cast lots for it - See Ps 22:18

Joh 19:26

Joh 19:26 - and the disciple standing by, whom he loved - See Joh 13:23, 20:2

Joh 19:26

Joh 19:26 - even as He was dying, Jesus made provision for His mother's care.

Joh 19:27

Joh 19:27 - Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home - Joh, the beloved disciple took care of Mary until her death.

Joh 19:28

Joh 19:28 - Jesus, recognizing all things that were written of Him had been fulfilled, requested something to drink so the final details may be fulfilled. See Ps 69:21

Joh 19:29

Joh 19:29 - vessel full of vinegar - See Ps 69:21

Joh 19:30

Joh 19:30 - When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar - In another prophecy the Saviour declared, "Reproach hath broken My heart; and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none. They gave Me also gall for My meat; and in My thirst they gave Me vinegar to drink." Ps 69:20, 21. To those who suffered death by the cross, it was permitted to give a stupefying potion, to deaden the sense of pain. This was offered to Jesus; but when He had tasted it, He refused it. He would receive nothing that could becloud His mind. His faith must keep fast hold upon God. This was His only strength. To becloud His senses would give Satan an advantage. - {DA 746.2}

Joh 19:30

Joh 19:30 - It is finished - the work/command of providing eternal life to the world that was given Jesus by His Father had been completed. Jesus finished His course successfully, fulfilling all of the things concerning Himself in the prophecies and could lay down His life as a Victor. See Joh 12:49, 50

Joh 19:31

Joh 19:31 - because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) - See Joh 19:14

Joh 19:33

Joh 19:33 - But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: - See Joh 19:36; Ps 22:17

Joh 19:34

Joh 19:35 - blood and water blood and water are cleansing agents

Joh 19:36

Joh 19:36 - For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken - Every detail of the prophecies needed to be fulfilled to the letter. See Joh 19:33, Ps 22:17

Joh 19:37

Joh 19:37 - And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced - Psa 22:17

Joh 19:38

Joh 19:38 - And after this Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews - See Joh 9:22, Joh 7:13, 12:42

Joh 19:39

Joh 19:39 - And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night - See Joh 3:1, 2

Joh 19:41

Joh 19:41 - Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid - See Isa 53:9; Mt 27:57-60

Joh 20:1

Joh 20:1 - The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre - Jesus rested on the Sabbath, the 7th day of the week and rose early, upon the first day of the week (Sunday). See Joh 20:19; Lk 24:1-6; Mk 16:1, 2; Mt 28:1, 2

Joh 20:2

Joh 20:2 - to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved - Joh humorously again speaks of himself. See Joh 13:23, 19:26

Joh 20:9

Joh 20:9 - For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead - the disciples, including Mary had not fully understood the Scriptures which foretold Jesus' resurrection on the third day. They still were in darkness regarding this truth that He foretold - Ps 16:10, 49:9

Joh 20:14

Joh 20:14 - And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus - See Lk 24:13-32

Joh 20:16

John 20:16 - She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master - with complete joy and amazement, Mary delights in seeing Jesus!

Joh 20:17

Joh 20:17 - not yet ascended to my Father - After Christ's condescension, becoming man and bearing our sins, being forsaken of God (Matt 27:46), the question whether He was still God to be worshipped needed to be answered; this is precisely why Jesus did not allow Mary to touch or worship him until He had received permission from His Father. The command of the Father "And let all the angels of God worship Him" provided the requisite answer (Heb 1:6) so that the same evening, the disciples fell at His feet and worshiped Him (Matt 28:9). In this proclamation of the Father, mankind also has full assurance of salvation as the ransom has been paid.

Joh 20:17

Joh 20:17 - but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God - See Heb 2:11; 1Thess 3:17

Joh 20:17

Joh 20:17 - I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God - See 2Thess 2:16

Joh 20:19

Joh 20:19 - then the same day at evening - Jesus, who first encountered Mary Magdalene in the morning and bid her not to touch Him, had ascended to heaven to present Himself to the Father. Jesus "descended from heaven" in the evening (the start of 2nd day) to present Himself to the disciples and breathe upon them the Holy Spirit in measure. It is Jesus' descent that marks the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in the lines of prophetic history. See Rev 10:1, 18:1-3

Joh 20:19

Joh 20:19 - when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you - The disciples had not gathered to commemorate the resurrection of Jesus because they did not believe it had happened. Further they met in a secluded upper room in fear fo the Jews. See Mk 16:14

Joh 20:19

John 20:19 - came Jesus and stood in the midst - Jesus' glorified body could pass through walls unhindered. See 1Cor 15:51-57

Joh 20:20

Joh 20:21 - he shewed unto them His hands - Jesus in Lk 24 also commands the disciples to handle Him, so that they may see that it is He. Mary was forbidden to handle the LORD because he had not yet ascended to His Father but by evening had done so and descended from heaven. See Zech 13:6

Joh 20:21

Joh 20:21 - as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you - See Mt 28:18-20

Joh 20:22

Joh 20:22 - He breathed on them, and saith unto them, receive ye the Holy Ghost - Jesus' act of breathing upon the disciples marked the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in measure to the disciples. In so doing, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit is an unveiling of an understanding of the scriptures that Jesus makes known to His people. Recall the scriptures are light and the Latter Rain is a message (see Lk 24:44, 45; Isa 28:12). During the patriarchal age the influence of the Holy Spirit had often been revealed in a marked manner, but never in its fullness. Now, in obedience to the word of the Saviour, the disciples offered their supplications for this gift, and in heaven Christ added His intercession. He claimed the gift of the

Joh 20:23

Joh 20:23 - Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained - See Mt 16:19, 18:18

Joh 20:24

Joh 20:24 - Didymus - two fold or twain

Joh 20:25

Joh 20:25 - Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe - See Heb 3:16-4:2; Joh 20:27

Joh 20:26

John 20:26 - And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you - Eight days from resurrection Sunday, implies that Jesus met once again with His disciples the following Sunday, the day after the Sabbath.

Joh 20:27

Joh 20:27 - be not faithless, but believing - The Lord reproved Thomas of his unbelief. Thomas had heard the words of Christ of His resurrection after 3 days and had the testimony of the disciples and still refused to believe. This was a persistent challenge for both Thomas and Philip. See Joh 11:16, 14:8, 6:5-7, 20:27

Joh 20:28

Joh 20:28 - And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God - compare the struggle with faith in Thomas and Nathanael. Nathanael merely heard the inspired words of Jesus and believed, whereas Thomas needed physical evidence in order to believe. See Joh 1:49

Joh 20:29

Joh 20:29 - Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed - See Joh 17:20; Col 2:6

Joh 20:29

John 20:29 - blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed - See 1 John 5:1

Joh 20:31

Joh 20:31 - But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name - See Dan 9:25; 1Jo 5:13; 1Cor 10:6, 11; Act 2:36; Mk 11:24

Joh 21:2

Joh 21:2 - and two other of his disciples - an old man, Joh perhaps had forgotten who else was present at Jesus' 3rd appearing to the disciples.

Joh 21:3

Joh 21:3 - I go a fishing - The evening was pleasant, and Peter, who still had much of his old love for boats and fishing, proposed that they should go out upon the sea and cast their nets. In this plan all were ready to join; they were in need of food and clothing, which the proceeds of a successful night's fishing would supply. So they went out in their boat, but they caught nothing. All night they toiled, without success. Through the weary hours they talked of their absent Lord, and recalled the wonderful events they had witnessed in His ministry beside the sea. They questioned as to their own future, and grew sad at the prospect before them. - {DA 810.1}

Joh 21:4

Joh 21:4 - Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus - The Lord is able to mask His identity with His glorified body. See Joh 21:12; Lk 24:13-16

Joh 21:6

Joh 21:6 - cast the net on the right side of the ship - the right side is the side of God's favor. The disciples witnessed the Lord's miraculous works of drawing fish on a prior occasion. See Zech 3:1, 2; Lk 5:3-8 And Jesus had a purpose in bidding them cast their net on the right side of the ship. On that side He stood upon the shore. That was the side of faith. If they labored in connection with Him,—His divine power combining with their human effort,—they could not fail of success. - {DA 810.5}

Joh 21:7

Joh 21:7 - Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter - Joh shamelessly boasts of Jesus' love for him. See Joh 13:23, 19:26, 20:2, 21:20

Joh 21:8

Joh 21:8 - but as it were two hundred cubits - 2 cubits = 3 feet. Therefore, the boat was approximately 300ft from land

Joh 21:9

Joh 21:9 - As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread - The Lord always provides for His people. See 1Kin 19:6-8

Joh 21:11

Joh 21:11 - yet was not the net broken - The Lord performed a miracle in hardening the net so that the 153 fishes could be brought ashore.

Joh 21:12

Joh 21:12 - And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord - somehow, the disciples were not able to fully perceive the identity of the Lord. See Joh 21:4; Lk 24:13-16

Joh 21:14

Joh 21:14 - This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead - See Joh 20:19, 26

Joh 21:15

John 21:15 - Simon, son of Jonas - Interestingly, Jesus did not call Peter by his given nickname (Petros - a pebble, or piece of a rock). Perhaps the nickname would have been hurtful to Peter as he reflect on his faith rolling away a like a little pebble, unlike his boast of unmovable, unshakable faith. See Mt 16:18

Joh 21:15

Joh 21:15 - lovest thou me - agapáō Verb ag-ap-ah'-o perhaps from agan (much) [or cf (5368)] perhaps from agan (much) (or compare); to love (in a social or moral sense):--(be-)love(-ed). Compare . of persons to welcome, to entertain, to be fond of, to love dearly of things to be well pleased, to be contented at or with a thing See Mt 10:37; Gen 39:8, 9 Christ mentioned to Peter only one condition of service—"Lovest thou Me?" This is the essential qualification. Though Peter might possess every other, yet without the love of Christ he could not be a faithful shepherd over the flock of God. Knowledge, benevolence, eloquence, zeal—all are essential in the good work; but without the love of Christ in the heart, the work of the Christian minister is a failure. - {AA 515.3}

Joh 21:15

John 21 - I love thee - philéō Verb fil-eh'-o from (5384) from ; to be a friend to (fond of (an individual or an object)), i.e. have affection for (denoting personal attachment, as a matter of sentiment or feeling; while is wider, embracing especially the judgment and the deliberate assent of the will as a matter of principle, duty and propriety: the two thus stand related very much as and , or as and respectively; the former being chiefly of the heart and the latter of the head); specially, to kiss (as a mark of tenderness):--kiss, love. to love to approve of to like sanction to treat affectionately or kindly, to welcome, befriend to show signs of love to kiss to be fond of doing be wont, use to do Peter deliberately used a different word for love than Christ used.

Joh 21:16

John 21:16 - Simon, son of Jonas - Interestingly, Jesus did not call Peter by his given nickname (Petros - a pebble, or piece of a rock). Perhaps the nickname would have been hurtful to Peter as he reflect on his faith rolling away a like a little pebble, unlike his boast of unmovable, unshakable faith. See Mt 16:18

Joh 21:16

Joh 21:16

John 21:16 - - I love thee - philéō Verb fil-eh'-o from (5384) from ; to be a friend to (fond of (an individual or an object)), i.e. have affection for (denoting personal attachment, as a matter of sentiment or feeling; while is wider, embracing especially the judgment and the deliberate assent of the will as a matter of principle, duty and propriety: the two thus stand related very much as and , or as and respectively; the former being chiefly of the heart and the latter of the head); specially, to kiss (as a mark of tenderness):--kiss, love. to love to approve of to like sanction to treat affectionately or kindly, to welcome, befriend to show signs of love to kiss to be fond of doing be wont, use to do Peter deliberately used a different word for love than Christ used.

Joh 21:17

Joh 21:17 - He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? - Just as Peter denied 3x, Jesus questioned Peter 3x if he loved Him more than any other. See Joh 18:

Joh 21:17

John 21:17 - Simon, son of Jonas - Interestingly, Jesus did not call Peter by his given nickname (Petros - a pebble, or piece of a rock). Perhaps the nickname would have been hurtful to Peter as he reflect on his faith rolling away a like a little pebble, unlike his boast of unmovable, unshakable faith. See Mt 16:18

Joh 21:18

Joh 21:18 - Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not - when Peter was young and unconverted, he did as he pleased. However, when converted in his old age, he will become a bond servant for Jesus Christ and will permit others to lead him where he would never lead himself.

Joh 21:19

Joh 21:19 - signifying by what death he should glorify God - See 2Pet 1:14; 1Pet 4:12-16; Mt 23:34

Joh 21:19

Joh 21:19 - Follow me - Jesus, in conveying the martyr's death Peter would suffer, bids him,

Follow Me - do as I did, imitate my life. See Mt 16:24; Mk 8:34; Lk 9:23

Joh 21:20

Joh 21:20 - seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved - Joh shamelessly boasts of Jesus' love for him. See Joh 13:23, 19:26, 20:2

Joh 21:21

Joh 21:21 - Lord, and what shall this man do? - Peter wanted to know the fate of Joh the Beloved, whether he too would suffer a martyr's fate? Peter still had his competitive spirit while unconverted. Peter would in time learn to find contentment with his lot in life and God's purpose for his life so that he exalted Jesus alone, edified the body of believers, commended the works of the other apostles and workers of righteousness (i.e. Paul - 2Pet 3:15, 16), and looked forward to Jesus' Second Coming

Joh 21:22

Joh 21:22 - Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me - Jesus reprimands Peter in inquiring about the fate of others. Jesus calls each of us to become His disciple (bondservants) and our course and fate are for Him to know and decide. Therefore, we are not to follow, covet or be envious of other men but to become acquainted with the voice of the Lord in our own lives and follow Him. See Joh 7:17 Many are deceived today in the same way as were the Jews. Religious teachers read the Bible in the light of their own understanding and traditions; and the people do not search the Scriptures for themselves, and judge for themselves as to what is truth; but they yield up their judgment, and commit their souls to their leaders. The preaching and teaching of His word is one of the means that God has ordained for diffusing light; but we must bring every man's teaching to the test of Scripture. Whoever will prayerfully study the Bible, desiring to know the truth, that he may obey it, will receive divine enlightenment. He will understand the Scriptures. "If any man willeth to do His will, he shall know of the teaching." Joh 7:17, R. V. - {DA 459.1} - DA 459.1

Joh 21:23

Joh 21:23 - yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? - Joh the Apostle, having already been given the Rev of Jesus Christ by the the True Witness Himself, understood that he indeed would die and not see most of the history he was privileged to have penned.

Joh 21:24

Joh 21:24 - This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true - Joh identifies himself as he to whom Jesus loved and spoke those words of to Peter.

Joh 21:25

Joh 21:25 - And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written - every word, every expression, every teaching of Christ originates from the Eternal, the Divine. This is why the Plan of Redemption will be our study for eternity! Praise the Lord! AMEN! - See Hymn # The Love of God And the years of eternity, as they roll, will bring richer and still more glorious revelations of God and of Christ. As knowledge is progressive, so will love, reverence, and happiness increase. The more men learn of God, the greater will be their admiration of His character. As Jesus opens before them the riches of redemption and the amazing achievements in the great controversy with Satan, the hearts of the ransomed thrill with more fervent devotion, and with more rapturous joy they sweep the harps of gold; and ten thousand times ten thousand and thousands of thousands of voices unite to swell the mighty chorus of praise. - {Mar 373.3}

Acts

Act 1:1

Back to Table of Contents

Act 1:1 - The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach - the former treatise being the Gospel of Lk.

Act 1:2

Act 1:2 - Until the day in which he was taken up - See Act 1:9

Act 1:3

Act 1:3 - To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God: - the disciples and a multitude beheld the risen Savior after His passion. See Joh 21:1, 14, Joh 20:19, 26

Act 1:3

Act 1:3 - speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God - Jesus spoke to His disciples regarding the new birth, the power and indwelling of the Holy Spirit to transform and equip the saints for ministry. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. Joh 16:13. - {YRP 10.1} How can we stand in the day of test if we do not understand the words of Christ? He said: "These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you. But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you" (Joh 14:25, 26). It is the Holy Spirit that is to bring to our remembrance the words of Christ. The theme Christ chose to dwell upon in His last discourse to His disciples was that of the office of the Holy Spirit. He opened before them a wide tract of truth. They were to receive His words by faith, and the Comforter, the Holy Spirit, was to bring all things to their remembrance. - {YRP 10.2} The consolation given by Christ in this promise was found in the fact that the divine influence was to be with His followers to the end. But this promise is not accepted and believed by the people today, and therefore is not cherished by them, nor is its fulfillment seen in the experience of the church. The promise of the gift of the Spirit of God is left as a matter to be little considered by the church. It is not impressed upon the people, and the result is only that which might be expected—spiritual drought, spiritual darkness, spiritual declension and death. Minor matters occupy the mind and soul, but divine power which is necessary for the growth and prosperity of the church, which would, if possessed, bring all other blessings in its train, is lacking, although it is offered to us in infinite plentitude. Just as long as the church are satisfied with small things, they are disqualified to receive the great things of God. But why do we not hunger and thirst after the gift of the Holy Spirit, since it is the means whereby the heart may be kept pure? The Lord designs that divine power shall cooperate with human effort. - {YRP 10.3} It is all-essential for the Christian to understand the meaning of the promise of the Holy Spirit just prior to the coming of our Lord Jesus the second time. Talk of it, pray for it, preach concerning it; for the Lord is more willing to give the Holy Spirit than parents are to give good gifts to their children.—The Review and Herald, November 15, 1892. - {YRP 10.4}

Act 1:4 - And, being assembled together with them - See 1Cor 15:6

Act 1:4

Act 1:4 - wait for the promise of the Father - Lk 24:49; Act 2:33; Joh 14:16, 16:7 The Pentecostal outpouring was Heaven's communication that the Redeemer's inauguration was accomplished. According to His promise He had sent the Holy Spirit from heaven to His followers as a token that He had, as priest and king, received all authority in heaven and on earth, and was the Anointed One over His people. - {AA 38.3}

Act 1:5

Act 1:5, 8 - but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost - See John 1:26, 27, 32, 33; Lk 1:35; Eze 36:25-27; Act 2:33, 11:15-18 Col 2:12 explicitly states that the "new birth" experience is a work of God in Jesus' name (Act 19:2-6) that we must pray for and enter into by faith. As illustrated by the blowing winds of whose work we know not, in John 3:1-8, God performs an "operation" on us in giving us a new heart, mind and motivations - Jeremiah 31:31-34. This all happens through the baptism of the Holy Spirit . Consider Lk 1:35 - "And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God."

Act 1:6

Act 1:6 - When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel? - See Lk 24:21

Act 1:6

Act 1:6 - wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel? - [Christian Dominionism] - But today in the religious world there are multitudes who, as they believe, are working for the establishment of the kingdom of Christ as an earthly and temporal dominion. They desire to make our Lord the ruler of the kingdoms of this world, the ruler in its courts and camps, its legislative halls, its palaces and market places. They expect Him to rule through legal enactments, enforced by human authority. Since Christ is not now here in person, they themselves will undertake to act in His stead, to execute the laws of His kingdom. The establishment of such a kingdom is what the Jews desired in the days of Christ. They would have received Jesus, had He been willing to establish a temporal dominion, to enforce what they regarded as the laws of God, and to make them the expositors of His will and the agents of His authority. But He said, "My kingdom is not of this world.” Joh 18:36. He would not accept the earthly throne. - {DA 509.2} - DA 509.2

Act 1:8 - But ye shall receive power - See Joh 1:12; Eph 3:20; Lk 1:35, 24:49; 1Cor 6:19; 1Pet 1:12; Act 8:4-7; Eze 36:26, 27

Act 1:8

Act 1:8 - is come - See 1Jo 4:2, 3

Act 1:8

Act 1:8 - ye shall be witnesses unto Me - See 1Cor 4:20

Act 1:8

Act 1:8 - in Jerusalem - Before ascending to heaven, Christ gave His disciples their commission. He told them that they were to be the executors of the will in which He bequeathed to the world the treasures of eternal life. You have been witnesses of My life of sacrifice in behalf of the world, He said to them. You have seen My labors for Israel. And although My people would not come to Me that they might have life, although priests and rulers have done unto Me as they listed, although they have rejected Me, they shall have still another opportunity of accepting the Son of God. You have seen that all who come to Me confessing their sins, I freely receive. Him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out. To you, My disciples, I commit this message of mercy. It is to be given to both Jews and Gentiles—to Israel, first, and then to all nations, tongues, and peoples. All who believe are to be gathered into one church. - {AA 27.2}

Act 1:8

Act 1:8 - and in Samaria - the Samaritans were a highly despised people of the Jews. They spoke of them in derision and suggested they were demon filled. And yet and still, Jesus had sheep in Samaria for which the disciples were commissioned to labor. Joh 4:9, 8:48; Act 8:5, 6

Act 1:8

Act 1:8 - and unto the uttermost part of the earth - See Col 1:23; Mk 16:20; Rom 1:8 More than eighteen centuries have passed since the apostles rested from their labors, but the history of their sacrifices for Christ is still among the most precious treasures of the church. As these messengers of the cross went forth to proclaim the gospel, there was such a revelation of the glory of God as had never before been witnessed. To every nation was the gospel carried in a single generation. - {TT 310.1}

Act 1:9

Act 1:9 - And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up - See Act 1:2, 11

Act 1:9

Act 1:9 - a cloud received him out of their sight - a cloud of angels received Jesus and sang (Ps 68:32-34): "Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth; O sing praises unto the Lord; Selah: 33 To him that rideth upon the heavens of heavens, which were of old; lo, he doth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice. 34 Ascribe ye strength unto God: his excellency is over Israel, and his strength is in the clouds."

Act 1:10

Act 1:10 - behold, two men stood by them in white apparel - ministering angels appeared in form as men to bring hope and assurance to the disciples who watched their Master ascend to heaven. As ministering spirits, they do not have flesh and blood like men, they are not constrained to any particular form but can manifest themselves as men of war, as angels of light, of whatever form required to fulfill a purpose. See Heb 1:14; Joh 20:12; Lk 24:4-7, 39

Act 1:11

Act 1:11 - this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen Him go into heaven - Just as Jesus' ascension was personal so His return will be personal.

Act 1:11

Act 1:11 - shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven - See Mt 16:27, 25:31; John 14:3

Act 1:12

Act 1:12 - Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey - there were restrictions on how far one should walk upon the Sabbath. The Mount of Olives in Bethany was a Sabbath's day journey from Jerusalem (approximately 2 miles). See Mt 24:20

Act 1:13

Act 1:13 - Judas the brother of James - Jude, the brother of James and the half brother of our Lord Jesus Christ. See Jude 1:1; Galatians 1:19

Act 1:14

Act 1:14 - continued with one accord - the spirit and mind of the apostles was vastly different in the upper room than it had been during the last supper before Jesus' glorification. They had lost their selfish and evil passions and desires (Lk22:24; James 3:13-16) and came together to regroup. In order for this to occur, there needed a change in focus and outlook. The disciples experienced their most tragic and disappointing life event in the death and crucifixion of Jesus Christ. All of their life hopes and ambitions were shattered. This was necessary in order to get them to refocus, realign, and reprioritize their walk with God. The event shook them to their core, and necessitated that they search the Scriptures as the Berean for answers to their questions and to understand their life calling and work. This is the same for every SDA believer who is to be numbered among the 144,000. We must recognize our high calling for God without any selfish ambition or motives and yield ourselves to the mind of Christ so that Christian unity may be achieved. See Phil 2:1-4

Act 1:14 - prayer and supplication - Many have in a great measure failed to receive the former rain. They have not obtained all the benefits that God has thus provided for them. They expect that the lack will be supplied by the latter rain. When the richest abundance of grace shall be bestowed, they intend to open their hearts to receive it. They are making a terrible mistake. The work that God has begun in the human heart in giving his light and knowledge, must be continually going forward. Every individual must realize his own necessity. The heart must be emptied of every defilement, and cleansed for the indwelling of the Spirit. It was by the confession and forsaking of sin, by earnest prayer and consecration of themselves to God, that the early disciples prepared for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost. The same work, only in greater degree, must be done now. Then the human agent had only to ask for the blessing, and wait for the Lord to perfect the work concerning him. It is God who began the work, and he will finish his work, making man complete in Jesus Christ. But there must be no neglect of the grace represented by the former rain. Only those who are living up to the light they have, will receive greater light. Unless we are daily advancing in the exemplification of the active Christian virtues, we shall not recognize the manifestations of the Holy Spirit in the latter rain. It may be falling on hearts all around us, but we shall not discern or receive it. - {RH March 2, 1897 Par. 4}

Act 1:14

Act 1:14 - and with his brethren - the half-brothers of Jesus had apparently become disciples/followers after His resurrection. See Joh 7:3-10

Act 1:15

Act 1:15 - And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty,) - Peter and the disciples, being led by the Holy Spirit as they read Scriptures, particularly, Bible prophecy, came to understand that Judas' betrayal was foretold and Jesus needed to suffer and die according to the Scriptures. See Act 1:2

Act 1:15

Act 1:15 - the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty - See 1Cor 15:6

Act 1:16

Act 1:16 - this scripture must needs have been fulfilled - See Ps 55:12-14; Joh 6:70, 71 Even the disciples failed of understanding all that Jesus desired to reveal to them; but from time to time, as they surrendered themselves to the Holy Spirit's power, their minds were illuminated. They realized that the mighty God, clad in the garb of humanity, was among them. Jesus rejoiced that though this knowledge was not possessed by the wise and prudent, it had been revealed to these humble men. Often as He had presented the Old Testament Scriptures, and showed their application to Himself and His work of atonement, they had been awakened by His Spirit, and lifted into a heavenly atmosphere. Of the spiritual truths spoken by the prophets they had a clearer understanding than had the original writers themselves. Hereafter they would read the Old Testament Scriptures, not as the doctrines of the scribes and Pharisees, not as the utterances of wise men who were dead, but as a new revelation from God. They beheld Him "whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth Him not, neither knoweth Him: but ye know Him; for He dwelleth with you, and shall be in you." Joh 14:17. - {DA 494.3}

Act 1:18

Act 1:18 - Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out - See Zech 11:12, 13; Mt 27:3-9

Act 1:20

Act 1:20 - Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein - See Ps 109:1-8; Joh 17:12

Act 1:20

Act 1:20 - and his bishoprick let another take - See Ps 109:8

Act 1:21

Act 1:21, 22 - Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, Beginning from the baptism of Joh, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection. - From the time of Jesus' baptism, He had appointed 12 to be His disciples but there were others who followed Him faithfully; among them were Matthias.

Act 1:22

Act 1:22 - Beginning from the baptism of Joh, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection - there needed to be another who had first hand eye-witness account of Jesus' ministry, from His baptism, His life, His crucifixion and His resurrection. See 2Pet 1:16-19

Act 1:23

Act 1:23 - Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus - son of Sabas - See Act 18:7

Act 1:23

Act 1:23 - Matthias - meaning gift of God. He along with the other 11 Apostles make up the first fruit of the LORD, His gift.

Act 1:24

Act 1:24 - And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men - before lots may be cast, inquiry must be made of the Lord to determine His will. See Lev 16:7, 8; Ps 139, 16:7, 26:2

Act 1:25

Act 1:25 - that he might go to his own place - the son of perdition was to go to the place of perdition. See Joh 17:12

Act 2:1

Act 2:1 - And when the day of Pentecost was fully come - fifty days after the passion of Christ on the cross, marked the feast of weeks, where the offering of wave loaves were to be lifted to the Lord.

Act 2:1

Act 2:1 - they were all with one accord in one place - the prayer of Christ to His Father was fulfilled as the disciples had put aside all differences and prayed for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit to equip them for the work that lie ahead of them. See Joh 17;; Isa 52:8

Act 2:2

In Bible times, sowing and plowing took place in the middle of October, shortly after the falling of the early rains. These early rains (latter rain) brought the seed to germination and nurtured its early growth. The latter rain came in the late spring to bring the ripening fruit to harvest. The barley harvest and other grain harvests were spring events, followed by the fruit harvest in the summer and fall. God uses the symbolism of the early and latter rain in two ways. The early rain of the Spirit fell upon the disciples at Pentecost in order to launch the Christian mission. The latter rain will be poured out on God's church at the end of time in order to complete His mission on earth. The term early rain also refers to the daily work of God's Spirit - convicting, instructing, guiding, and empowering each believer. The latter rain is a term used to describe a special endowment of God's Holy Spirit on Christ's church just before the coming of Jesus. [SDA Quarterly Q3/2013 Sept 23rd]

Act 2:2

Act 2:1 - sound from heaven - the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples was due to the overabundant outpouring of the Spirit and Anointing of joy given by the Father upon Jesus upon being inaugurated High Priest in heaven. As the over-abundant oil from Moses ran over the head and beard of Aaron, down to the hems of his garments at his inauguration as High Pries, so the outpouring of the Holy Spirit from the Father was with out measure upon Christ and overflowed to His sons, His disciples upon the earth (Heb 1:9; Ps 133:2). The glory and the presence of the Lord filled the house where the disciples were staying. Unlike the Old Testament sanctuary, where God manifested His presence, God would henceforth reveal His glory in the homes of the apostles and wherever they took the gospel. See Act 2:46, 47

Act 2:2

Act 2:2 - as of a rushing mighty wind - See Joh 3:7, 8

Act 2:2

Act 2:2 - and it filled all the house where they were sitting - a "house fire" had erupted where the disciples were staying such that all were filled with he fire of the Holy Spirit. See Mt 3:11; Lk 3:16; Act 1:8

Act 2:3

Act 2:3 - cloven tongues like as of fire - "And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance." The Holy Spirit, assuming the form of tongues of fire, rested upon those assembled. This was an emblem of the gift then bestowed on the disciples, which enabled them to speak with fluency languages with which they had heretofore been unacquainted. The appearance of fire signified the fervent zeal with which the apostles would labor and the power that would attend their work. - {AA 39.1}

Act 2:3

Act 2:3 - fire - See Mt 3:11; Lk 3:16 "And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance." The Holy Spirit, assuming the form of tongues of fire, rested upon those assembled. This was an emblem of the gift then bestowed on the disciples, which enabled them to speak with fluency languages with which they had heretofore been unacquainted. The appearance of fire signified the fervent zeal with which the apostles would labor and the power that would attend their work. - {AA 39.1}

Act 2:4

Act 2:1-4 - Holy Ghost - Holy Spirit. Jesus uses the word "ghost" Himself to denote a spiritual being, one not of flesh and blood. See Joh 14:26, 20:22; Lk 24:39 Christ's ascension to heaven was the signal that His followers were to receive the promised blessing. For this they were to wait before they entered upon their work. When Christ passed within the heavenly gates, He was enthroned amidst the adoration of the angels. As soon as this ceremony was completed, the Holy Spirit descended upon the disciples in rich currents, and Christ was indeed glorified, even with the glory which He had with the Father from all eternity. The Pentecostal outpouring was Heaven's communication that the Redeemer's inauguration was accomplished. According to His promise He had sent the Holy Spirit from heaven to His followers as a token that He had, as priest and king, received all authority in heaven and on earth, and was the Anointed One over His people. - {AA 38.3}

Act 2:4

Act 2:4 - and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance - the disciples began to speak in other intelligible languages as the Holy Spirit gave them utterance. See 1Cor 14:8-11; Act 2:6

Act 2:5

Act 2:5 - "When the fullness of the time was come, God sent forth His Son." Providence had directed the movements of nations, and the tide of human impulse and influence, until the world was ripe for the coming of the Deliverer. The nations were united under one government. One language was widely spoken, and was everywhere recognized as the language of literature. From all lands the Jews of the dispersion gathered to Jerusalem to the annual feasts. As these returned to the places of their sojourn, they could spread throughout the world the tidings of the Messiah's coming. - {DA 32.2}

Act 2:5

Act 2:5 - out of every nation under heaven - the Jews, following the Babylonian captivity, were dispersed throughout the earth. See Lev 26:28-33; James 1:1

Act 2:6

Act 2:6 - Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded - the news spread that something miraculous and powerful was taking place among the disciples of Jesus Christ. This became an object of interest for all to see and hear.

Act 2:6

Act 2:6 - And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven - because that every man heard them speak in his own language - the gift of tongues was for the communication of the gospel in one's native tongue without translation. See Act

2:3, 8-11; 1Cor 12:30, 14:5, 27

Act 2:7

Act 2:7 - And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilaeans? - the identity of the disciples as Galilaeans was betrayed by their dress, however, their speech was of a foreigner. See Mk 14:70; Lk 22:59

Act 2:8

Act 2:8 - And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born? - the tongues heard by the multitude were natural languages, taught the hearers from childhood. However, this was conveyed by the power of God, as the apostles had never been trained to speak such languages, only the language of the Galilaeans. See Mk 14:70; Act 8:11

Act 2:9

Act 2:10 - Elamites - Persians

Act 2:10

Act 2:10 - and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes - the strangers of Rome, both Jew and proselytes were they who would return to found the church in Roman that Paul ministered to. Though this was one of the early churches, it was not the first, as the churches in Judea and those mentioned in the Revelation (Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamos, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, Laodicea), were the first hubs for the Christian faith. The church in Rome however, for its collocation with the seat of the civil empire, would befall great hardship and in time would become a focal point for controversy within Christendom.

Act 2:11

Act 2:11 - we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God - See Act 2:8, 3-8; 1Cor 14:8-11

Act 2:12

Act 2:12 - And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this? - the people "wondered" at the power of God being demonstrated before their eyes and in their ears. This miraculous power will be counterfeited soon by Satan through signs and lying wonders in the last days. See 2Thess 2:9-12; Rev 13:3, 4, 12-14

Act 2:13

Act 2:13 - Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine - Act 13:45 The issue of "new wine" was prophesied by the prophet Joel. The prophet was shown that there would be a debate over the doctrines being taught, as if some were drunk with wine. However, it is those very ones who contest the message that are drunken with wine (false doctrines; blinded by the devil) so that they can not receive the truth, the "new wine" spoken by the Apostles at Pentecost. See Joe 1:1-5; Isa 27:8 The priests and rulers were greatly enraged at this wonderful manifestation, but they dared not give way to their malice, for fear of exposing themselves to the violence of the people. They had put the Nazarene to death; but here were His servants, unlettered men of Galilee, telling in all the languages then spoken, the story of His life and ministry. The priests, determined to account for the miraculous power of the disciples in some natural way, declared that they were drunken from partaking largely of the new wine prepared for the feast. Some of the most ignorant of the people present seized upon this suggestion as the truth, but the more intelligent knew it to be false; and those who understood the different languages testified to the accuracy with which these languages were used by the disciples. - {AA 40.2} The teaching of Christ, though it was represented by the new wine, was not a new doctrine, but the revelation of that which had been taught from the beginning. But to the Pharisees the truth of God had lost its original significance and beauty. To them Christ's teaching was new in almost every respect, and it was unrecognized and unacknowledged. - {DA 279.2} The baptism of the Holy Ghost as on the day of Pentecost will lead to a revival of true religion, and to the performance of many wonderful works. Heavenly intelligences will come among us, and men and women will speak as they are moved upon by the Holy Spirit of God. But should the Lord work upon people as He did on and after the day of Pentecost, many who now claim to believe the truth would know so very little of the operation of the Holy Spirit that they would cry, "Beware of fanaticism." They would say of those who were filled with the Spirit, "They are filled with new wine" [Act 2:13, NRSV].... - {CTr 371.4 When souls long after Christ, and seek to become one with Him, then those who are content with the form of godliness exclaim, "Be careful; do not go to extremes." - {CTr 371.5}

Act 2:14 - But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them - Peter stood up to address the Jews of Judea while the other 11 spoke to those of the dispersion.

Act 2:14

Act 2:14 - Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words: - Like a procession, scene after scene of His wonderful life passed before them. As they meditated upon His pure, holy life they felt that no toil would be too hard, no sacrifice too great, if only they could bear witness in their lives to the loveliness of Christ's character. Oh, if they could but have the past three years to live over, they thought, how differently they would act! If they could only see the Master again, how earnestly they would strive to show Him how deeply they loved Him, and how sincerely they sorrowed for having ever grieved Him by a word or an act of unbelief! But they were comforted by the thought that they were forgiven. And they determined that, so far as possible, they would atone for their unbelief by bravely confessing Him before the world. - {AA 36.1}

Act 2:15

Act 2:15 - the third hour of the day - 9:00AM

Act 2:16

Act 2:16 - But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel - See Joel 2:23-32

Act 2:17

Act 2:17 - in the last days - the prophecy has multiple applications, Pentecost, the Millerite Era and the Latter Rain of the Holy Spirit before the Second Coming of Christ.

Act 2:17

Act 2:17 - I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh - the promise of God's Holy Spirit comes as rains and rivers of living water, being poured out upon His people. The imagery of water as a token of God's Spirit being given to His people and the power it works in their lives (Act 1:5, 8) is found in the following: Isa 30:23-25; Joh 4:10, 11, 14, 7:37-39; Deut 32:1, 2; Zech 10:1;

Jam 5:7; Mark 4:28, 29; Mic 5:7

Act 2:17

Act 2:17 - your sons and your daughters shall prophesy - sons and daughter, male and female will proclaim the wonderful works of God from the past, present and future. See 1Cor 14:1, 3, 5, 12, 24, 25, 39

Act 2:18

Act 2:18 - And on my servants and on my handmaidens - God is no respecter of persons. He will pour out His Spirit without regard to gender, nationality, or social class. See Act 2:17, Joel 2:23-32

Act 2:18

Act 2:18 - I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy: - the Holy Spirit was poured out in the time of the Adventist Pioneers, when the book was unsealed and the Mighty Angel descended with it open for men to eat. The same will occur before the Second Coming of Christ, as the sons of God interpret Scripture based on the fulfillment of events occurring upon the earth. See 1Thess 5:1-8

Act 2:19

Act 2:19 - And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath - See Mt 24:30, 6, 7

Act 2:24

Act 2:24 - having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it - death and the grave could not keep Jesus because He has life within Himself and He was without sin. See Job 19:25; Joh 1:4; 1Cor 15:56, 57; Lk 23:14; Heb 2:14-18 "Herein he [Christ] differed from man. If man should give up his life in payment of the forfeit [life], he would have nothing left. But Christ, whose life is of greater worth than that of all created beings, can give up His life and still have as much life left. Having paid the forfeit, He can give life to us in place of ours. If we accept His life, we are sure of life, no matter what becomes of this life." {E.J. Waggoner, Baptism: It's Significance, pg 7}

Act 2:29

Act 2:30 - let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day - the patriarch David, a man after God's own heart assuredly will be in the eternal Kingdom, yet he has not ascended to heaven as yet but remains dead and buried in his grave (Act 2:34;). David will arise when he hears the voice and the trumpet of God at Jesus' Second Coming. See Act 2:34; Dan 12:2; Isa 26:19; 1Thess 4:14; Job 7:9, 10

Act 2:30

Act 2:30 - knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, He would raise up Christ to sit on his throne - David was shown that Jesus would come in the flesh to become the Second Adam, in order to sit upon the throne of His forefather David. David was shown that not only would Solomon build a house unto the Lord, but Jesus would build an eternal temple unto God, Himself being the Chief Cornerstone. Act 2:35 - Until I make thy foes thy footstool - See Gen 3:15; Mk 12:36; Joh 19:17; Rom 16:20; Heb 1:13

Act 2:36

Act 2:36 - Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ - Our message is a life-and-death message, and we must let it appear as it is, the great power of God. We are to present it in all its telling force. Then the Lord will make it effectual. It is our privilege to expect large things, even the demonstration of the Spirit of God. This is the power that will convict and convert the soul. - {6T 61.3} That was a never-to-be-forgotten Sabbath to the sorrowing disciples, and also to the priests, rulers, scribes, and people. At the setting of the sun on the evening of the preparation day the trumpets sounded, signifying that the Sabbath had begun. The Passover was observed as it had been for centuries, while He to whom it pointed had been slain by wicked hands, and lay in Joseph's tomb. On the Sabbath the courts of the temple were filled with worshipers. The high priest from Golgotha was there, splendidly robed in his sacerdotal garments. White-turbaned priests, full of activity, performed their duties. But some present were not at rest as the blood of bulls and goats was offered for sin. They were not conscious that type had met antitype, that an infinite sacrifice had been made for the sins of the world. They knew not that there was no further value in the performance of the ritual service. But never before had that service been witnessed with such conflicting feelings. The trumpets and musical instruments and the voices of the singers were as loud and clear as usual. But a sense of strangeness pervaded everything. One after another inquired about a strange event that had taken place. Hitherto the most holy place had been sacredly guarded from intrusion. But now it was open to all eyes. The heavy veil of tapestry, made of pure linen, and beautifully wrought with gold, scarlet, and purple, was rent from top to bottom. The place where Jehovah had met with the high priest, to communicate His glory, the place that had been God's sacred audience chamber, lay open to every eye,—a place no longer recognized by the Lord. With gloomy presentiments the priests ministered before the altar. The uncovering of the sacred mystery of the most holy place filled them with dread of coming calamity. - {DA 774.2}

Act 2:36

Act 2:36 - whom ye have crucified - in their ignorance, the Jews crucified the Lord of glory. See 1Cor 2:7, 8; Lk 23:34; Act 17:30

Act 2:36

Act 2:36 - both Lord and Christ - Jesus is made both Lord [Prince or Ruler] and Christ, the Anointed One, in fulfillment of Dan 9:25, Joh 1:40, 41, 20:31; Mt 16:18; Act 8:36, 37 PRESENT TRUTH: (2Pet 1:12) Time of Noah - Get in the boat a flood is coming (Gen 6:7; Heb 11:7; 2Pet 2:5) Time of Lot - Escape for thy life, do not look back, Leave the city and run for the mountains (Gen 19:17) Time of Jeremiah - the King of the North is coming - (Jeremiah 25:9) Time of Christ - Jesus is Messiah the Prince, Christ the Lord, heed His warning (Act 2:36; Mt 24:15-20) Today - All of the above and the 3 Angel's Messages (1Cor 10:11||1Pet 1:12; Lk 17:26-30; Dan 11:40-45; Rev 14)

Act 2:37

Act 2:37 - Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart - godly sorrow leads us to repentance (2Cor 7:10)

Act 2:37

Act 2:37 - they were pricked in their heart - the conviction of sin, the first work of the Holy Spirit is seen in those who heard the sermon of Peter. See Joh 16:8, 9

Act 2:37

Act 2:37 - what shall we do? - words spoken in despair and utter self-condemnation.

Act 2:38

Act 2:40 - Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. - Rom 2:4; Eph 1:13, 14; 1 John 3:24 Peter urged home upon the convicted people the fact that they had rejected Christ because they had been deceived by priests and rulers; and that if they continued to look to these men for counsel, and waited for them to acknowledge Christ before they dared to do so, they would never accept Him. These powerful men, though making a profession of godliness, were ambitious for earthly riches and glory. They were not willing to come to Christ to receive light. - {AA 43.3}

Act 2:38

Act 2:38 - be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ - the present truth message for the Jews was to believe and accept Jesus as the Messiah of Dan 9:24-27. Peter emphasized the fulfillment of the prophecy of Dan and the need to repent because the Jews' Close of Probation was imminent.

Act 2:38

Act 2:38 - the name of Jesus Christ - God's name is synonymous with His character, therefore we are to be baptized into the character of Christ. See Ex 34:6-8 The baptism here stated proclaims Jesus to be Messiah, the Anointed One of God in fulfillment of the prophecy (Dan 9:25)

Act 2:38

Act 2:38 - See Act 19:1-6

Act 2:39

Act 2:39 - For the promise is unto you, and to your children - Peter reassures the people who felt great condemnation, of God's forgiveness towards themselves and their children after many had shouted to Pilate, "His blood be upon us and upon our children" (Mt 27:25). Those who responded to the pricking of the Holy Spirit would find forgiveness and acceptance of the Father. Jesus said, any who blasphemed His name, it would be forgiven (Act 2:41). However, those who were pricked to their conscience and yet rejected the admonition to repent and be baptized for the remission of their sins, they would remain under condemnation. Jesus said, all who blaspheme the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Truth Who leads us to repentance and truth, the same would be condemned. See Lk 12:10; Mk 3:28, 29; Mt 12:31

Act 2:39

Act 2:39 - to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call - See Isa 60:1-7; Eph 1:7; Rev 17:14

Act 2:40

Act 2:40 - save yourselves from this untoward generation - See Isa 9:14-16; Rev 18:4; 1Cor 2:7, 8 Peter urged home upon the convicted people the fact that they had rejected Christ because they had been deceived by priests and rulers; and that if they continued to look to these men for counsel, and waited for them to acknowledge Christ before they dared to do so, they would never accept Him. These powerful men, though making a profession of godliness, were ambitious for earthly riches and glory. They were not willing to come to Christ to receive light. - {AA 43.3} Now we see need of workers in the opening fields before us, but where are the men who can be trusted, men who have been year by year growing into a better knowledge of God and his ways, and the movings of his providence? I want to sound in the ears of these sleepy, half paralyzed souls the words spoken to Nicodemus, "Except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God." There is need to ask God with all the heart, to elevate the standard. The commonness, the cheapness of conversation reveal the measure of spirituality of the members of the church. Now, those who have lived years in this same experience know not God nor Jesus Christ whom he hath sent; and should such go forth as representatives of Jesus Christ? These men will never give the right mold to other minds. They have not grown up to the full stature of men and women in Jesus Christ. They simply live the name of Christian, but are not fitted for the work of God, and never will be until they are born again, and learn their A.B.C.'s in the religion of Jesus Christ. There is hope in one direction. Take the young men and women and place them where they will come as little as possible in contact with our churches, that the low grade of piety which is current in this day shall not leaven their ideas of what it means to be a Christian.

Act 2:41

Act 2:41 - Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls - those who through the power of the Holy Spirit, gladly received the pardon, forgiveness, and justification found in believing in Jesus and His promises, confirmed by His shed blood, were baptized unto salvation. See Joh 14:6, 16:8-11, 13; Rev 22:17

Act 2:41

Act 2:40 - and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls - three thousand saints join the body of Christ among the Jews in proselytes gathered in Jerusalem for the Feast of Weeks, seven weeks after the Feast of First Fruit. This was the first fulfillment of the promised harvest that the First Fruit, Jesus Christ, brought to His Father. See Act 4:4, 5:14, 10:44-48, 11:20, 21, 24, 12:24, 16:5, 17:4, 12, 18:8

Act 2:42

Act 2:42 - they continued steadfastly in the apostle's doctrine and fellowship - the converted Jews did not give audience any longer to the Jewish leaders and synagogues, but learned of the Lord Jesus Christ from His apostles and ministers. They were not to go back to the rites, traditions of men and fables taught by the Jewish religious leaders lest they be deceived and entangled in their deceptions once again. See Gal 3:1-5; Jeremiah 15:19-21

Act 2:42

Act 2:42 - breaking of bread, and in prayers - studying the scriptures, prayer and fellowship meals. Jews that accepted Christ were made to be outcasts and relied upon one another for support, and sustenance. See Joh 6:32-35

Act 2:43

Act 2:43 - And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles - See Act 5:1-12, 15; Heb 2:4

Act 2:44

Act 2:44 - had all things in common - See Isa 52:8; Act 5:12

Act 2:45

Act 2:45 - And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need - the worthy needy are here spoken of, to whom the proceeds of generous offerings/alms were given. Discernment from the Holy Spirit is required such that we do not spend the Lord's resources frivolously on those who are "disorderly". See 2Thess 3:6-12; Heb 10:34; 1Tim 6:17-19

Act 2:46

Act 2:46 - And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple - See Act 5:12

Act 2:46

Act 2:46 - breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart - all the Christian disciples communed together and were in unity of the Spirit. The house church (companies) were the central gathering places and was the reason why the church grew so rapidly. The informal, close knit communion found in house gatherings permitted people to experience true community and church fellowship, unlike the "seat of Satan", the establishment of large ornate cathedrals and basilicas [during the church era of Pergamos] that were cold and impersonal, so that religion became a spectator event (Rev 2:13). See Joh 17:20, 21; Col 4:15; Act 5:42, 10:32; 1Cor 16:19

Act 2:47

Act 2:47 - having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved - See Joh 17:21-23; Act 5:14

Act 2:47

Act 2:47 - added to the church daily - the body of believers was increasing day by day as the brethren gathered from house to house, proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Act 2:47

Act 2:47 - such as should be saved - those who were born again - See Heb 2:11

Act 3:1

Act 3:1 - Now Peter and Joh went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour - the hour of prayer is approximately 3PM (15:00hrs). See Dan 6:10

Act 3:2

Act 3:2 - And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple - the man may have had cerebral palsy or may have just had a birth defect that caused him to be lame. This was not brought upon the man due to sin, as in the case of the paralytic that Jesus healed, but was akin to the man born blind. See Act 4:22, 14:8; Mt 9:2; Mk 2:5; Joh 9

Act 3:2

Act 3:2 - to ask alms of them that entered into the temple - the lame man was completely reliant upon the generosity of the people of God.

Act 3:6

Act 3:6 - Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk - the faith of the apostles was the act agent in the healing of the lame man. The man sought alms (donations) and the apostles sought to give him that which he most needed and didn't ask for. So it is with the Lord, we don't often know what to ask for due to disappointment, the routineness of life, and lost faith and hope and He gives us that which we most need and may not ask for. See Rom 8:26; Act 14:8-10

Act 3:8

Act 3:8 - And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God - The apostles were fulfilling Jesus' words of going and preaching the gospel, healing the sick and giving sight to the blind. the miracles the apostles did showed they were connected with Jesus Christ. See Isa 35:6; Mt 10:8; Joh 14:12 During His ministry Jesus devoted more time to healing the sick than to preaching. His miracles testified to the truth of His words, that He came not to destroy but to save. His righteousness went before Him, and the glory of the Lord was His rearward. Wherever He went, the tidings of His mercy preceded Him. Where He had passed, the objects of His compassion were rejoicing in health, and making trial of their new-found powers. Crowds were collecting around them to hear from their lips the works that the Lord had wrought. His voice was the first sound that many had ever heard, His name the first word they had ever spoken, His face the first they had ever looked upon. Why should they not love Jesus, and sound His praise? As He passed through the towns and cities He was like a vital current, diffusing life and joy wherever He went. - {DA 350.3}

Act 3:10

Act 3:10 - And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him - the lame man at the Gate Beautiful was a fixture in the Jewish society. They knew to see and expect his cry for mercy and alms, but now they see him leaping and praising God with newness of life. A miracle that they could not explain had taken place and it was marvelous in their eyes.

Act 3:10

Act 3:10 - filled with wonder and amazement - See Reve 13:3

Act 3:11

Act 3:11 - And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and Joh - the man did not want to depart from his benefactors and he held them closely in gratitude. Even so, we how have received of the gift of eternal life, we all the more must hold on to Christ and to it tenaciously. See Mk 5:18

Act 3:12

Act 3:12 - Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk? - Peter, like all true ministers of the gospel, acknowledge the power of God as the source of all blessings and good gifts. Peter, like Daniel shows that it was not in him that the miracle was wrought, but that God should be glorified before all. See Act 13:6-12; Dan 2:27-30; Gen 41:16; Ps 40:16

Act 3:13

Act 3:13 - The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus - the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob is the God of the Everlasting Covenant Who declared the coming Seed, Jesus Christ. It is in this God and His promise that Abraham, Isaac and Jacob walked.

Act 3:13

Act 3:14 - whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go - See Mt 27:17-23; Joh 19:8-15

Act 3:14

Act 3:14 - But ye denied the Holy One and the Just - See Isa 30:11, 12 Under a variety of representations He warned His hearers of the calamity that would follow all who rejected the blessings He came to bring them. He had given them every possible proof that He came forth from God, and made every possible effort to bring them to repentance. He would not be rejected and murdered by His own nation if He could save them from the guilt of such a deed. - {DA 452.3} Jesus gave the rabbis an evidence of His divinity by showing that He read their hearts. Ever since the healing at Bethesda they had been plotting His death. Thus they were themselves breaking the law which they professed to be defending. "Did not Moses give you the law," He said, "and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill Me?" - {DA 456.2} Like a swift flash of light these words revealed to the rabbis the pit of ruin into which they were about to plunge. For an instant they were filled with terror. They saw that they were in conflict with Infinite Power. But they would not be warned. In order to maintain their influence with the people, their murderous designs must be concealed. Evading the question of Jesus, they exclaimed, "Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill Thee?" They insinuated that the wonderful works of Jesus were instigated by an evil spirit. - {DA 456.3}

Act 3:15

Act 3:15 - And killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses - Jesus is the Prince [Ruler] of Life and is He Who was dead but lives again, forevermore. See 1Thess 2:14-16; Rev 1:17, 18

Act 3:16

Act 3:16 - And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong - there is power in the name of Jesus, but that power must be actuated by a living faith in Him. Consider Act 19:13-16, 8:19-21

Act 3:16

Act 3:16 - whom ye see and know - See Act 3:9, 10

Act 3:16

Act 3:16 - the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all - the Faith of Jesus Christ is that which gave the man healing and soundness of body. Jesus' faith is a victorious faith that overcomes the world. See 1Jo 5:4; Rev 14:12

Act 3:17

Act 3:17 - And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers - See Lk 23:34

Act 3:18

Act 3:18 - But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled - See Lk 24:27; Isa 53; Ps 22

Act 3:19

Act 3:19 - Repent - See Jer 4:28; 31:19; Eze 14:6, 18:30-32; Mk 1:14, 15; Lk 23:41; Act 26:19, 20; 2Cor 7:10, 11 - turn from idols, transgressions, course of action and turn to believe the gospel and turn to God and do works meet of repentance Times of Refreshing: Isa 28:12, Ex 31:17, Isa 44:1-3 , Job 36:27-28, Joe 2:28|| Act 2:16

Act 3:19

Act 3:19 - Repent - See Rom 2:4, 5; 2Chron 30:8; Jer 4:28; 31:19; Eze 14:6, 18:30-32; Mk 1:14, 15; Lk 23:41; Act 26:19, 20; 2Cor 7:10, 11 - turn from idols, transgressions, course of action and turn to believe the gospel and turn to God and do works meet of repentance Times of Refreshing: Isa 28:12, Ex 31:17, Isa 44:1-3 , Job 36:27-28, Joe 2:28|| Act 2:16 We hear so many things preached in regard to the conversion of the soul that are not the truth. Men are educated to think that if a man repents he shall be pardoned, supposing that repentance is the way, the door, into heaven; that there is a certain assured value in repentance to buy for him forgiveness. Can man repent of himself? No more than he can pardon himself. Tears, sighs, resolutions—all these are but the proper exercise of the faculties God has given to man, and the turning from sin in the amendment of a life which is God's. Where is the merit in the man to earn his salvation, or to place before God something which is valuable and excellent? Can an offering of money, houses, lands, place yourself on the deserving list? Impossible! - {1888 817.2}

Act 3:19

Act 3:19 - be converted - Conversion is a work of God through the Holy Spirit, to be "born again". We must repent of our sins and former ways, surrender our will to God, and ask for His Holy Spirit Who will give us a new heart: John 3:1-8; Isa 6:9, 10 Mt 13:13-15; Mk 4:12, Ps 32:1 - be converted and be healed, sins forgiven, sins are covered, change of heart [works, conscience, thought (Rom 2:15)] According to Isa 6:10, the following precedes conversion: lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

Act 3:19

Act 3:19 - be blotted out - Sins being blotted out is different from sins being covered. There is still record of sins, though covered by the blood of Jesus. Sins blotted out means they are removed as in the blotting out of sins during the Day of Atonement. Sins Blotted Out: Ps 51, Ps 109:14, 15, Heb 8:10-12 - Time of sealing is when sins are blotted out and God remembers them no more. The power to be victorious over sin lies in self being completely cast to the dust so that the Holy Spirit may impart His power to give us victory over sin. When the Latter Rain is poured out upon a person without measure, it gives not only the power over sin but the utter blotting out (even remembrance) of past sins. See Heb 7:21-25 Contrast: Ps 109:13, 14

Act 3:19 - "Times" of Refreshing relates to two times of refreshing, namely the giving of the Early Rain and the giving of the Latter Rain (Joe 2:23, 28). The word "times" here is similarly used in Dan 7 when given to denote 2 occurrences of "a time".

Act 3:19

Act 3:19 - 2 x times [occurrences] of Refreshing is paralleled by 2 x times [occurrences] of the Gentiles.

Act 3:19

Act 3:19 - refreshing - the refreshing from the Lord in the latter times is the Latter Rain. The Latter Rain is: 1. A Message of rest/refreshing to be received - Isa 28:12 2. The Spirit brings rest/refreshing: Isa 63:11-14 3. The Spirit is "poured out" by the rains: Isa 44:2-4 4. Rains are poured out by the Spirit: Joe 2:28, 23 5. There is a time when God will pour out His refreshing: Hos 10:12 6. As wise men, we must recognize the season and time to ask for the rains: Jer 8:7||Eccl 8:5,6; Zech 10:1 You are getting the coming of the Lord too far off. I saw the latter rain was coming as [suddenly as] the midnight cry, and with ten times the power. - {SpM 4.3}

Act 3:19

Act 3:19 - from the presence of the LORD - the presence of the LORD, the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives is what will bring the Latter Rain. See Gal 3:14; Rev 18:1-3

Act 3:20

Act 3:20 - And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you - God will send Jesus Christ into our hearts to abide in us through the Holy Spirit. The mystery of godliness is here spoken, where God will inhabit once again mortal flesh as we yield, repent, are converted and permit Jesus to abide in us. See Joh 1:33, 14:18; Lk 1:35, 38; Rev 10:7; Col 1:27, 28; Eph 1:13, 14; Rom 5:5; Gal 2:20, 4:6; 1Jo 3:24, 4:1-4; 2Pet 1:1-4; Heb 10:35-39; Mal 3:5; 1Pet 1:23, 4:12, 13 God the Father will not come to the earth at the Second Coming, but will send Jesus with the holy angels. See Heb 10:37; Rev 8:1;

Act 3:20

Act 3:20 - which before was preached unto you - See Col 1:28

Act 3:21

Act 3:21 - Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things - this is the blessed hope of the redeemed, the glorious appearing of Jesus the second time, apart from sin, in order to restore all things that have been lost. See Heb 1:1-3; Titus 2:13; Col 1:5, 23; 1Tim 3:16

Act 3:21

Act 3:21 - which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began - the angels were as prophets, guiding and directing our forefathers Adam and Eve, and helping to communicate God's Plan of Redemption after mankind's fall. All of the prophets speak of Jesus Second Coming, the conclusion of the conflict, more than His first coming. See Rev 22:9; Act 3:24; 1Pet 1:10-12

Act 3:22

Act 3:22 - For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you. And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people. - Jesus is that Great Prophet Whom all must give heed to. See Deut 18:18, 19

Act 3:22

Act 3:22 - of your brethren - See Heb 2:11

Act 3:22

Act 3:22 - him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you - See Deut 18:18, 19; Mt 17:5

Act 3:23

Act 3:23 - And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people - See Joh 5:40; Deut 18:18, 19

Act 3:24

Act 3:24 - Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days - See Mt 13:17; Lk 10:24; 1Pet 1:10-12; Rev 22:9; Testimony of the Prophets: Gen 22:1-18; Ps 22, 23; Song of Solomon 5:10, 16; Isa 7:14-16, 9:6, 7, 32:1-3, 53:1-12, 61:1-3, 60:3-5; Jer 23:5, 6, 33:15-18, 16:19-21; Dan 9:24-27; Hag 2:7; Zech 6:12, 13; Mal 3:1-5, 4:2

Act 3:25

Act 3:25 - Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. - See Gen 12:3

Act 3:25

Act 3:25 - the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed - See Gen 12:3, 22:17, 18

Act 3:26

Act 3:26 - Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities - The LORD mercifully and faithfully sent Jesus to the house of Israel first (Mt 10:6, 15:24) in fulfillment of the appointed 70-week prophecy (Dan 9:24). It is through Jesus death and resurrection that they would receive the blessing of "turning away every one of you from his iniquities." Unfortunately, the words first given to the Jews would not take effect due to unbelief (Act 13:44-51). See Heb 4:1-5

Act 3:26

Act 3:26 - in turning away every one of you from his iniquities - See Mt 1:21; Col 1:27, 28

Act 4:1

Act 4:1 - And as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them - Peter and Joh, through the power of the Holy Spirit, had just healed the paralytic man at the gate Beautiful and were preaching the gospel in the temple to all those who had witnessed the miracle. Act 3

Act 4:2

Act 4:2 - Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead - See Act 5:17 Those who have their own doctrine and agendas take great offense when the truth is preached as it exposes the insignificance of their faith. The Sadducees vehemently opposed the truth of a resurrection though openly corrected by Christ. Now that Jesus' disciples were affirming through signs and wonders the veracity of Jesus' words, they sought to silence the messengers. Others, who also lack faith, scorn and jeer when truth is spoken out of unbelief. See Mt 22:23; Mk 12:18-27; Act 2:13, 17:31, 32

Act 4:3

Act 4:3 - And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide - Peter, Joh and the once impotent man were imprisoned until the next day for trial.

Act 4:4

Act 4:4 - Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand - the gospel continued to go forth and spread as the apostles committed themselves to preaching the truth as it is in Jesus Christ. See Act 2:41, 5:14, 6:7, 11:20, 21, 24, 16:5

Act 4:7

Act 4:7 - And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this? - a truly rhetorical question asked by the leadership so that the disciples may give claim to Jesus and thus be accused of inciting order. See Mt 21:23

Act 4:8

Act 4:8 - Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel - Peter, an unlearned fisherman, yet when filled with the Holy Spirit, would proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ with power and authority. See Act 4:13, 29

Act 4:9

Act 4:9 - If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole - See Act 3:3-8

Act 4:10

Act 4:10 - Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel - Peter would declare the same message before the rulers and upon the housetop to all of Israel if given the opportunity to do so..

Act 4:10

Act 4:10 - that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth - See Mk 9:38; Lk 10:17; Act 4:30

Act 4:10

Act 4:10 - whom ye crucified - See Act 2:22, 23, 5:30

Act 4:10

Act 4:10 - whom God raised from the dead - See Act 2:24-32

Act 4:11

Act 4:11 - This is the stone which was set at nought by you builders - Peter, with heavenly boldness, restates the same prophecy Jesus spoke to the leaders regarding their rejection of Him, the Chief Cornerstone. See Isa 28:16; Mt 21:38-46; Lk 20:15-19; 1Pet 2:6-8; Rom 9:31-33 In quoting the prophecy of the rejected stone, Christ referred to an actual occurrence in the history of Israel. The incident was connected with the building of the first temple. While it had a special application at the time of Christ's first advent, and should have appealed with special force to the Jews, it has also a lesson for us. When the temple of Solomon was erected, the immense stones for the walls and the foundation were entirely prepared at the quarry; after they were brought to the place of building, not an instrument was to be used upon them; the workmen had only to place them in position. For use in the foundation, one stone of unusual size and peculiar shape had been brought; but the workmen could find no place for it, and would not accept it. It was an annoyance to them as it lay unused in their way. Long it remained a rejected stone. But when the builders came to the laying of the corner, they searched for a long time to find a stone of sufficient size and strength, and of the proper shape, to take that particular place, and bear the great weight which would rest upon it. Should they make an unwise choice for this important place, the safety of the entire building would be endangered. They must find a stone capable of resisting the influence of the sun, of frost, and of tempest. Several stones had at different times been chosen, but under the pressure of immense weights they had crumbled to pieces. Others could not bear the test of the sudden atmospheric changes. But at last attention was called to the stone so long rejected. It had been exposed to the air, to sun and storm, without revealing the slightest crack. The builders examined this stone. It had borne every test but one. If it could bear the test of severe pressure, they decided to accept it for the cornerstone. The trial was made. The stone was accepted, brought to its assigned position, and found to be an exact fit. In prophetic vision, Isa was shown that this stone was a symbol of Christ. He says: - {DA 597.5} "Sanctify the Lord of hosts Himself; and let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread. And He shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offense to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken." Carried down in prophetic vision to the first advent, the prophet is shown that Christ is to bear trials and tests of which the treatment of the chief cornerstone in the temple of Solomon was symbolic. "Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste." Isa 8:13-15; 28:16. - {DA 598.1} In infinite wisdom, God chose the foundation stone, and laid it Himself. He called it "a sure foundation." The entire world may lay upon it their burdens and griefs; it can endure them all. With perfect safety they may build upon it. Christ is a "tried stone." Those who trust in Him, He never disappoints. He has borne every test. He has endured the pressure of Adam's guilt, and the guilt of his posterity, and has come off more than conqueror of the powers of evil. He has borne the burdens cast upon Him by every repenting sinner. In Christ the guilty heart has found relief. He is the sure foundation. All who make Him their dependence rest in perfect security. - {DA 598.2}

Act 4:11 - which is become the head of the corner - See Eph 2:20

Act 4:12

Act 4:12 - Neither is there salvation in any other - Peter takes direct attack at the Jew's established thought that they were God's temple and salvation could only come through them, their formalism and their rituals (See Jer 7:4). Further, we see that Jesus' shed blood is the only covert from the Second Death as typified in the Passover. See Ex 12:22, 23; Rom 10:9 In the work of God no kingly authority is to be exercised by any human being, or by two or three. The representatives of the Conference, as it has been carried with authority for the last twenty years, shall be no longer justified in saying, "The temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord are we." The men in positions of trust have not been carrying the work wisely. - {ChL 26.2}

Act 4:12

Act 4:12 - for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved - See Rom 5:17, 10:9; 1Cor 3:11; Philippians 2:9-11; Joh 14:6 The only safety for the Israelites was blood upon the doorposts. God said, "When I see the blood, I will pass over you" (Ex 12:13). All other devices for safety would be without avail. Nothing but the blood on the doorposts would bar the way that the angel of death should not enter. There is salvation for the sinner in the blood of Jesus Christ alone, which cleanseth us from all sin. The man with a cultivated intellect may have vast stores of knowledge, he may engage in theological speculations, he may be great and honored of men and be considered the repository of knowledge, but unless he has a saving knowledge of Christ crucified for him, and by faith lays hold of the righteousness of Christ, he is lost. Christ "was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed" (Isa 53:5). "Saved by the blood of Jesus Christ," will be our only hope for time and our song throughout eternity. - {3SM 172.4}

Act 4:13

Act 4:13 - Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and Joh, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. - See Mt 10:19, 20; Lk 21:15; Act 4:16, 29; 1Cor 1:26-28

Act 4:13

Act 4:14 - and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men - the leadership in pride looked down upon those of "lower estate" as ignorant and unlearned. Unless one were trained in their schools, the person was deemed ignorant and unlearned. However, in their pride and self-importance the leadership neither knew the Scriptures nor the power of God which states, that God would Himself teach all those who hunger and thirst for righteousness (Mt 5:6; Joh 6:45) - See Lk 2:46, 47; Joh 7:15, 48-51

Act 4:13

Act 4:13 - they took knowledge of them that they had been with Jesus. See Lk 21:15; Joh

15:27 The Holy Spirit did for them that which they could not have accomplished for themselves in a lifetime. They could now proclaim the truths of the gospel abroad, speaking with accuracy the languages of those for whom they were laboring. This miraculous gift was a strong evidence to the world that their commission bore the signet of Heaven. From this time forth the language of the disciples was pure, simple, and accurate, whether they spoke in their native tongue or in a foreign language. - {AA 39.2} Under the training of Christ the disciples had been led to feel their need of the Spirit. Under the Spirit's teaching they received the final qualification, and went forth to their lifework. No longer were they ignorant and uncultured. No longer were they a collection of independent units or discordant, conflicting elements. No longer were their hopes set on worldly greatness. They were of "one accord," "of one heart and of one soul." Act 2:46; 4:32. Christ filled their thoughts; the advancement of His kingdom was their aim. In mind and character they had become like their Master, and men "took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus." Act 4:13. - {AA 45.2}

Act 4:14 - And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it - the rulers were speechless and could not gainsay Peter's words because they knew the man themselves and saw before their eyes a miracle. See Lk 21:15; Act 4:16

Act 4:15

Act 4:15 - they conferred among themselves - See Ps 2:1-3

Act 4:16

Act 4:16 - Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it - the wicked acknowledge the power of God in that a miracle was performed, and yet they are unwilling to yield to the knowledge of the truth (Rom 10:1-3). They continue to war against God and kick against the goads in self-destroying pride. See Ps 2:1-3; Mt 27:6-9; Jam 4:17; Act 4:24-27

Act 4:16

Act 4:16 - and we cannot deny it - See Lk 21:15

Act 4:17

Act 4:17 - But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name - the Jewish leadership pitted themselves against God and His appointed, and were warring against Him in denying Christ and the miracles that were wrought in His name. See Joh 16:1-3; Ps 2:1-4

Act 4:18

Act 4:18 - And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus - this is an example of an unrighteous decree, levied against God and His people. See Isa 10:1; Act 5:40

Act 4:19

Act 4:19 - But Peter and Joh answered and said unto them - Peter and Joh's words were not their own but those of the Holy Spirit working within them. They gave the only correct answer for the unrighteous decree pronounced by the Jewish leadership. See Lk 12:12

Act 4:19

Act 4:19 - Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye - See Act 5:29; Gal 1:10; Mt 6:24; Lk 16:13; Rom 6:13, 16; Josh 24:15 But God will have a people upon the earth to maintain the Bible, and the Bible only, as the standard of all doctrines and the basis of all reforms. The opinions of learned men, the deductions of science, the creeds or decisions of ecclesiastical councils, as numerous and discordant as are the churches which they represent, the voice of the majority,—not one or all of these should be regarded as evidence for or against any point of religious faith. Before accepting any doctrine or precept, we should demand a plain “Thus saith the Lord” in its support. - {4SP 413.2} Satan is constantly endeavoring to attract attention to man in the place of God. He leads the people to look to bishops, to pastors, to professors of theology, as their guides, instead of searching the Scriptures to learn their duty for themselves. Then by controlling the minds of these leaders he can influence the multitudes according to his will. - {4SP 413.3}

Act 4:19

Act 4:19 - judge ye - the response of the disciples was perfect. They put the burden back upon those who gave an unrighteous decree, whether it is best to listen to God or to men.

Act 4:20

Act 4:20 - For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard - we must testify to what we have seen, heard, and learned from the Words of truth. The words of Peter and Joh confirm their inspiration as the prophets only spoke that which was seen, heard and given to them (1Kin 22:14; 1Sam 3:15-18). See Isa 8:20; 1Cor 14:37

Act 4:21

Act 4:21 - for all men glorified God for that which was done - the once impotent man at the Gate Beautiful was well known for over 40years by the people. To see him walking about with full vigor and not begging was a miracle none could deny and for which much praise to God was lifted.

Act 4:24

Act 4:24 - thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is - the apostles and disciples pray to and acknowledge the God of Creation, Redemption and the Lord of the Sabbath.

Act 4:25

Act 4:25, 26 - Why did the heathen rage - See Ps 2:1-3

Act 4:26

Act 4:28 - his Christ - See Ps 2:2; Dan 9:25, 26

Act 4:27

Act 4:27 - whom thou hast anointed - See Mt 3:15-17

Act 4:27

Act 4:27 - both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together - all the world, as represented in this brief statement, were gathered together to war against God and His Anointed. See Rev 17:12-18

Act 4:28

Act 4:27 - For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done - the raging of the nations against God and His Anointed reveal the character of the adversary and his seed in the Great Controversy. This revelation is by God's design, to show without question the true nature, effects and results of sin - murder of God, to mankind and the un-fallen worlds. See Act 2:23; Isa 53:10; Zech 6:13

Act 4:29

Act 4:29 - And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word - See Act 4:8, 13; Eph 6:19

Act 4:30

Act 4:30 - By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus - signs and wonders were given for the expressed purpose of spreading the gospel of Jesus Christ. See Act 3, 4

Act 4:31

Act 4:31 - And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness - See Act 2:2, 4:13

Act 4:32

Act 4:32 - And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common - See Philippians 2:1-4; Act 4:34

Act 4:36

Act 4:36, 37 - And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet. - See Act 9:26, 27, 11:22-24

Act 5:2

Act 5:2 - And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet - Ananias and Sapphira were impressed by the Holy Spirit to sell their possession but reneged on what the Lord impressed them to do. They therefore, gave what they chose and selfishly held back some parts for themselves. In so doing, they were not lying only to men but to the Holy Spirit that initially prompted them to sell the possession to dedicate to the Lord.

Act 5:3

Act 5:3 - But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost -

See Mt 12:31; Jam 3:14-16; Eph 4:30

Act 5:6

Act 5:6 - And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him - the same unrighteous offering given by Ananias was probably used to pay for his and his wife's burial.

Act 5:8

Act 5:8 - And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much - Sapphira conspired with her husband and reaped the curse of their treachery towards God.

Act 5:11

Act 5:11 - And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things - God demonstrated swift justice in exposing the lying hypocrisy of Ananias and Sapphira in order to be a warning to those who might seek to the join the ranks of the church with ill motives. See Act 2:13; Act 19:17

Act 5:12

Act 5:12 - And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people - See Joh 14:12; 19:11, 12

Act 5:12

Act 5:12 - and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch - See Act 2:44

Act 5:13

Act 5:13 - And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them - See Act 5:11

Act 5:14

Act 5:14 - And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women. See Act 2:41, 4:4, 6:7, 11:20, 21, 24; 16:5

Act 5:17

Act 5:17 - Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation - Act 4:1, 2

Act 5:19

Act 5:19 - But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said - See Act 12:6-8

Act 5:21

Act 5:21 - And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught - See Act 4:19

Act 5:25

Act 5:25 - Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people - See Act 5:19-21

Act 5:26

Act 5:26 - Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned - Joh 7:45-58; Contrast Act 5:18

Act 5:28

Act 5:28 - Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? - See Act 4:18-20

Act 5:28

Act 5:28 - intend to bring this man's blood upon us - See Mt 27:25 Some of those who listened to the apostles had taken an active part in the condemnation and death of Christ. Their voices had mingled with the rabble in calling for His crucifixion. When Jesus and Barabbas stood before them in the judgment hall and Pilate asked, "Whom will ye that I release unto you?" they had shouted, "Not this Man, but Barabbas!" Mt 27:17; Joh 18:40. When Pilate delivered Christ to them, saying, "Take ye Him, and crucify Him: for I find no fault in Him;" "I am innocent of the blood of this just Person," they had cried, "His blood be on us, and on our children." Joh 19:6; Mt 27:24, 25. - {AA 42.3}

Act 5:29

Act 5:29 - We ought to obey God rather than men - See Gal 1:10; Act 4:18-20; Mt 6:24; Lk 16:13; Rom 6:13, 16

Act 5:30

Act 5:30 - The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree - See Act 2:23, 4:10, 11

Act 5:31

Act 5:31 - Him hath God exalted with his right hand - Ps 80:17

Act 5:31

Act 5:31 - Prince - Ruler. See Dan 9:25

Act 5:31 - Savior - See Mt 1:21

Act 5:31

Act 5:31 - for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins - See Rom 2:4

Act 5:31

Act 5:31 - and forgiveness of sins - See Act 3:19; 1Jo 1:9

Act 5:32

Act 5:32 - And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost - earthly witnesses to Christ's Rulership and Salvation here upon the earth. See Act 1:21-23; 1Jo 5:8-10

Act 5:32

Act 5:32 - given to them that obey Him - see Ps 25:14, 32:8, 73:24; Isa 54:13, 28:26; Rom 5:5; Eph 1:13, 14

Act 5:33

Act 5:33 - When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them - this verse reveals a stark contrast in the convicting work of the Holy Spirit (Joh 16:8-10). For those appointed to righteousness and God's Kingdom, the conviction of the Holy Spirit leads to zealous repentance (2Cor 7:10, 11; Rev 3:19). For those bound to perdition, to be burned as briars and thorns, the convicting power of the Holy Spirit causes them to be moved to wrath with the intent to murder. See Act 2:37-39 3:18-20; 7:54; 2Cor 2:15, 16; Joh 16:1-3

Act 5:34

Act 5:34 - Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space; - See Act 22:3

Act 5:35

Act 5:35 - And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men - the Holy Spirit was speaking to the heart of Gamaliel, counseling him to give sound counsel to the impulsive Jews who sought to kill the apostles. Gamaliel saw the folly in their thoughts to take immediate action where not only may they bring a reproach to themselves by the people, but they just may be warring against God unknowingly. See Act 5:38, 39

Act 5:36

Act 5:36 - For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought - Theudas, Judas of Galilee Barabbas, BarJesus and others were false teachers and prophets, leading the people away to their folly. See Mt 5:37; Mt 24:4, 5, 11; Mk 15:6, 7

Act 5:38

Act 5:40 - for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought - if the Lord is not in it, the laborers labor in vain. See Ps 127:1, 2:1-3; Num 14:36-45; Jer 17:5, 6

Act 5:39

Act 5:39 - But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God - If God be for us, who can be against us? See Rom 8:31; Dan 3:14-30; Heb 13:6; 2Cor 13:8

Act 5:39

Act 5:39 - lest haply ye be found even to fight against God - See Act 9:5, 23:6-9; Rom 9:1-5, 10:1-4

Act 5:40

Act 5:40 - and beaten them - despite the wise and prudent counsel of Gamaliel, not to possibly war against God, the Jews still exhibit their character of the dragon by unjustly beating the apostles in intimidation.

Act 5:40

Act 5:40 - they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus - See Act 4:18, 5:28, 29

Act 5:41

Act 5:41 - And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. See Act 4:21-24, 13:52; Philippians 3:10; 2Cor 12:10; Jam 2:4; 2Tim 3:12 CONTRAST: Isa 4:1

Act 5:42

Act 5:42 - and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ - taking Jesus' example, the Apostles preached the Kingdom of God in every house that would receive them. See Mk 2:1, 2; Col 4:15; Act 2:46

Act 6:1

Act 6:1 - there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Heb, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministrations - the sin of prejudice and racism is common to men and is seen even in the church. God must root this evil seed out of every individual who purposes to be part of His eternal kingdom. See Num 12:1-10; Gal 2:11-14; Mt 15:22-39

Act 6:2

Act 6:2 - It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables - with wisdom, the apostles realized the importance of delegating work and equipping the saints that are better able to perform distinct ministries. This is the principle of heaven and must become that in the body of Christ.

Act 6:4

Act 6:4 - But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word - Ministers of the gospel are not to be divided in focus and purpose but must be singular, giving themselves wholly to prayer and ministering the Word of God.

Act 6:7

Act 6:7 - And the word of God increased - when the work of God's kingdom is delegated, the word of God increases. See Act 16:5

Act 6:7

Act 6:7 - and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith - as the gospel of Jesus Christ spread, many of the priests who were fearful of the Pharisees and not wanting to fall out of favor with the leadership, took their stand for Jesus and walked in the faith. See Act 15:1, 5; Rom 9:6-8

Act 6:8

Act 6:8 - And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people - See Joh 14:12

Act 6:9

Act 6:9 - the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians - See Act 2:10

Act 6:10

Act 6:10 - And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake - See Lk 21:15

Act 6:11

Act 6:11 - Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God - See 1Kin 21:8-10; Mk 14:55-58

Act 6:11

Act 6:11 - suborned meaning: Procured to take a false oath, or to do a bad action

Act 6:12

Act 6:12 - And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council -

Act 6:12

Act 6:12 - and brought him to the council - See Joh 16:1-3

Act 6:13

Act 6:13 - And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law: - See Mt 26:59-61

Act 6:14

Act 6:14 - For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us - this was a boldfaced lie, as Jesus sought diligently not to attract any prejudice of the Jewish leaders, suggesting that He sought to abolish the Laws of Moses. See Mt 8:2-4; Joh 2:19-21

Act 6:15

Act 6:15 - And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel - without speaking a word, the people beheld the glory of God upon His servant Stephen. So must it be with God's people today. See Isa 60:1, 2; Rev 18:1; Dan 12:3; Lk 23:4

Act 7:2

Act 7:2 - And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran - Stephen, in presenting his defense, took the council back to Abraham and spoke of all the things in the prophets concerning Jesus Christ. This was Jesus' method of evangelizing and ought to be ours as well. See Lk 24:27

Act 7:3

Act 7:3 - And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee - See Gen 12:1-3

Act 7:4

Act 7:4 - Then came he out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell. - See Gen 11:31, 12:4

Act 7:5

Act 7:5 - And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child - See Heb 11:8-10, 13 We must therefore learn from this the lesson that the Holy Spirit wished the Jews to learn, namely, that the promised inheritance could be gained only through Jesus and the resurrection. See Act 3:25, 26 {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 53}

Act 7:5

Act 7:5 - yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child - Gen 13:14-18

Act 7:6

Act 7:6 - And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years. - See Gen 15:13-21

Act 7:6

Act 7:7 - four hundred years - See Gen 15:13; Ex 12:41

Act 7:7

Act 7:7 - And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place - See Gen 15:14

Act 7:8

Act 7:8 - And he gave him the covenant of circumcision - See 17:10-14

Act 7:8

Act 7:8 - and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day - See Gen 21:1-7

Act 7:9

Act 7:9 - And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: - See Gen 37:20-28

Act 7:9

Act 7:9 - moved with envy - See Jam 3:15, 16

Act 7:9

Act 7:9 - but God was with him - See Gen 39:3; Mic 7:7

Act 7:10

Act 7:10 - And delivered him out of all his afflictions - See Gen 39:11-23,

Act 7:10

Act 7:10 - and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt - See Gen 41:25, 33-46

Act 7:11

Act 7:11 - Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance - See Gen 41:53-42:3

Act 7:12

Act 7:12 - But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first - See Gen 42:1-3

Act 7:13

Act 7:13 - And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren - See Gen 43:15-45:3

Act 7:14

Act 7:14 - Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred - See Gen 45:23-46:5

Act 7:14

Act 7:15 - and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls - See Gen 46:8-27

Act 7:15

Act 7:15 - So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers - See Gen 49:33, 50:26; Ex 1:6

Act 7:16

Act 7:16 - And were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem - See Gen 49:29-32, 50:5, 13

Act 7:17

Act 7:17 - But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham - the promise made to Abraham and his Seed (Gen 17:1-9, 22:16-18; Gal 3:16; Ex 2:24) was for the eternal kingdom (1Jo 2:25), the earth made new. In order for both Abraham and the Seed to receive the promise, Abraham would be resurrected and Christ would have come. God "remembered" His covenant to Abraham and his Seed in the time of Moses and purposed to fulfill it (Ex 6:1-5). Israel sojourning in the wilderness immediately after their delivery from Egypt revealed God's purposes as well. God sought to restore not only man's original diet, but gave them angel's food in preparation for their soon translation to the New Jerusalem (Ex 35, 36). Joseph's oath with his brethren, that he never be buried in anticipation of the earth made new (Gen 50:25; Ex 13:19) as well as Paul's statements regarding Abraham's convictions affirms this; consider the following: Heb 11:10, 13. God would have orchestrated the plan of redemption differently if the COI had not acted in unbelief. In every difficulty He has His way prepared to bring relief. Our heavenly Father has a thousand ways to provide for us, of which we know nothing. Those who accept the one principle of making the service and honor of God supreme will find perplexities vanish, and a plain path before their feet. - {DA 330.1}

Act 7:18 - Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph - An Assyrian king ascended to the role of Pharaoh of Egypt and oppressed God's people. See Ex 1:8; Isa 52:4

Act 7:19

Act 7:19 - The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live - See Ex 1:8-22

Act 7:19

Act 7:19 - to the end they might not live - the devil moved upon Pharaoh so that he might commit genocide and exterminate the COI and the lineage of Christ. See Rev 12:3, 4

Act 7:20

Act 7:20 - In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months - See Ex 20:1, 2

Act 7:21

Act 7:21 - And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son - See Ex 2:5-10

Act 7:22

Act 7:22 - And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds - See Ex 2:

Act 7:24

Act 7:24 - And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian - See Ex 2:11, 12

Act 7:26

Act 7:26 - And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another? - See Ex 2:13

Act 7:28

Act 7:28 - Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday? - See Ex 2:14

Act 7:29

Act 7:29 - Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons - See Ex 2:14, 15

Act 7:30

Act 7:30 - And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush - See Ex 3:1-5

Act 7:31

Act 7:31 - When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him - See Act 3:3, 4

Act 7:32

Act 7:32 - Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold - See Ex 3:6

Act 7:33

Act 7:33 - Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground - See Ex 3:4, 5

Act 7:34

Act 7:34 - I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt - See Ex 3:7

Act 7:35

Act 7:35 - by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush - See Ex 3:1-5

Act 7:37

Act 7:37 - This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear - See Deut 18:18

Act 7:38

Act 7:38 - This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina - the COI were the church in the wilderness. God purposed that they should dwell alone, apart from the other nations and exist as a kingdom under God. See Num 23:7-9

Act 7:38

Act 7:38 - the church in the wilderness - the people of God, the COI were considered the church in the wilderness.

Act 7:40

Act 7:40: - Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him - See Ex 32:1-6

Act 7:41

Act 7:41 - And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands - See Ex 32:11-6

Act 7:43

Act 7:43 - star of your god Remphan - Hebrew parallelism to the prior statement. Remphan is the star-god Saturn or Molech. See Am 5:26

Act 7:44

Act 7:44 - Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen - See Ex 25:8, 9

Act 7:45

Act 7:45 - Jesus - Joshua

Act 7:46

Act 7:46 - Who found favour before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob - 2Sam 7:1-3

Act 7:47

Act 7:47 - But Solomon built him an house - See 2Sam 7:12, 13

Act 7:48

Act 7:48 - Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet - See Act 17:24

Act 7:49

Act 7:49 - Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest? - See 2Chron 2:6; Isa 66:1

Act 7:51

Act 7:51 - Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost; as your fathers did, so do ye. - the tide of Stephen's discourse changes as he perceives their apparent rejection of his historic account and logic leading to Christ. See 1Pet 3:18, 19

Act 7:52

Act 7:52 - Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One - See Mt 23:37; Lk 13:33, 34; 2Chron 36:15, 16

Act 7:52

Act 7:52 - which shewed before of the coming of the Just One - See Lk 24:27

Act 7:52

Act 7:52 - of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers - See Act 2:36

Act 7:54

Act 7:54 - When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth - See Act 2:37-39, 3:18-20; 5:33, 7:54; Lk 4:28, 29; Joh 8:44, 16:1-3

Act 7:55

Act 7:55 - being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God - when the Spirit of God had fallen upon Stephen he was able to see and perceive things that the natural eyes could not behold (See Num 24:2-9, Gen 15:5, 6). He was given a vision straight into the throne room of God where he saw Jesus standing next to the Father (compare Heb 1:1, 2), signaling a change in dispensation in God's dealing with men. Here marked the conclusion of the 490year (70-week prophecy) prophecy of Dan 9:24 and the rending of chosen status from the biological children of Abraham and the granting of such status to the Christian church.

Act 7:56

Act 7:56 - the Son of man standing on the right hand of God - compare Heb 1:3, 10:12

Act 7:57

Act 7:57 - Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord - See Act 7:54

Act 7:59

Act 7:59 - And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit - The stoning of Stephen marked the close of probation and fulfillment of the 490year covenant established with the Children of Israel. The last week of the time prophecy and covenant, spanning 2,520 days, alludes to the ultimate SCATTERING of the Nation of Israel as a special people chosen to be God's ambassadors to the world. In turn the event marks the GATHERING of the Christian Church and the extension of the gospel to the Gentiles so that they may become God's ambassadors, a mystery of God hidden from the foundation of the world.

Act 7:60

Act 7:60 - Lord, lay not this sin to their charge - only one with the mind of Christ (Phil 2:5-8; Lk 23:34) could pray for mercy upon their murderers. See 2Tim 4:16; Rev 18:1 || Isa 60:1

Act 7:60

Act 7:60 - he fell asleep - See Joh 11:11-14

Act 8:1

Act 8:1 - And Saul was consenting unto his death. - See Act 7:54, 57-59, 8:3

Act 8:1

Act 8:1 - And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judaea and Samaria - the Lord used persecution to scatter the saints so that the gospel might be preached throughout the world. See Act 1:8, 8:4

Act 8:4

Act 8:4 - Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word - The gospel was taken to the ends of the earth as the disciples were scattered abroad. See Philippians 1:12

Act 8:5

Act 8:5 - Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them - See Act 1:8

Act 8:7

Act 8:7 - For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed - See Act 1:8; Mk 1:27; Joh 14:12

Act 8:9

Act 8:9 - But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one - Self exaltation, spirit of antichrist, assuming praise for himself: all of these are workings of devils that go forth to deceive the world. See 1Jo 2:18 2Cor 11:12-15; Contrast Joh 3:27; Rev 14:7; Dan 2:20-28

Act 8:10

Act 8:10 - To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God - See Col 2:8-10, 18, 19; Act 12:21-23

Act 8:12

Act 8:12 - But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women - See 1Pet 3:21

Act 8:14

Act 8:14 - Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and Joh - See Act 8:25

Act 8:17

Act 8:17 - Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost - See Act 19:6

Act 8:18

Act 8:18 - And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given - See Act 3:6-8, 16

Act 8:19

Act 8:19 - Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost - The false teachers and prophets of today (Jesse Duplantis, Benny Hin, Kenneth Copeland) all seek the power of God for selfish and vain glory as did Simon. See Act 8:9-13, 19:13-16

Act 8:20

Act 8:20 - Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money. - See 2Kin 5:16; Joh 10:7, 8; Lk 16:14

Act 8:21

Act 8:21 - Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God - See Phil 2:3; Act 8:23; Gal 5:26; Jam 3:15; Act 13:6-11

Act 8:22

Act 8:22 - Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee - See Act 3:19

Act 8:23

Act 8:23 - For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity - Simon's conversion was apparently for selfish gain. He was intrigued by the gospel message of Phillip and coveted the power demonstrated when the Holy Spirit fell upon the Samaritans, yet, he sought the power of God for self-exaltation. See Gal 5:26; Jam 3:14, 15;

Act 8:25

Act 8:25 - And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans - As Jesus stated, the apostles would be His witnesses in Jerusalem, Samaria and the uttermost parts of the world. The prejudice of the Jews was being drawn down. See Act 1:8, 8:14

Act 8:27

Act 8:27 - And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship - in fulfillment of the prophecy, the Gentiles were to seek God and come to the Light of Truth in Jesus Christ.

Act 8:27

Act 8:27 - Candace queen of the Ethiopians - the Ethiopian queen had a Greek name meaning "clarity" or "shining". It is imagined that she and her court spoke the popular Greek language as well.

Act 8:29

Act 8:29 - Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot - consider the transformation in Philip who, weeks and months before was hesitant to share the Gospel with the Greeks who besought an audience with Jesus and the Holy Spirit impressing him to go speak to the black Ethiopian eunuch who desired to know of the Messianic prophecy spoken in Isa 53. Praise God for His power to change lives. See Joh 12:21, 22

Act 8:30

Act 8:30 - And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest? - Philip may have been granted the gift of tongues to communicate with the Ethiopian Eunuch

Act 8:31

Act 8:31 - And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? - See Rom 10:14, 15

Act 8:32

Act 8:32 - He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth: - See Isa 53:7

Act 8:36

Act 8:36 - And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? - See 1Pet 3:21

Act 8:37

Act 8:37 - Jesus Christ is the Son of God - See Joh 5:18

Act 8:39

Act 8:39 - And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing - See John 6:21

Act 9:1

Act 9:1 - And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, - See Phil 3:6

Act 9:2

Act 9:2 - And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem - See Act 8:3

Act 9:5

Act 9:5 - I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks - See Act 5:39

Act 9:7

Act 9:7 - And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man - See Dan 10:7, 8

Act 9:8

Act 9:8 - And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man - Paul was flooded with light, blinding him so that he could not see when he opened his eyes.

Act 9:9

Act 9 - he was three days without sight - the experience of being blinded for Saul must have been a grueling experience. First he was humbled to realize that he was in err, persecuting Jesus and His disciples in ignorance. Secondly, the prospect of being blind must have weighed heavily upon him.

Act 9:12

Act 9:12 - And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight - the LORD showed Paul in a vision Ananias coming into bless him and grant him his vision. The gift of prophecy had been imparted to Paul.

Act 9:13

Act 9:13 - Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem: - See Act 8:3, 9:1, 2; Phil 3:6

Act 9:14

Act 9:14 - And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name - See Act 9:1, 2

Act 9:15

Act 9:15 - for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: - See Mt 23:10, 11; 1Cor 9:19-23

Act 9:16

Act 9:16 - For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake - See Eph 3:3; 2Cor 11:23-33; 1Pet 4:12-14

Act 9:19

Act 9:19 - Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus - The marvelous light that illumined the darkness of Saul was the work of the Lord; but there was also a work that was to be done for him by the disciples. Christ had performed the work of revelation and conviction; and now the penitent was in a condition to learn from those whom God had ordained to teach His truth. - {AA 121.1}

Act 9:19

Act 9:19 - Damascus - Paul began his ministry in Damascus of Syria

Act 9:20

Act 9:20 - And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God - Paul preached the gospel of Jesus Christ, Present Truth for that time. See 2Pet 1:12; Act 2:36, 9:22

Act 9:23

Act 9:23 - And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him - the Jews were operating under the spirit of their new master, Satan. They seared their consciences and God gave them over to a reprobate mind such that their only intention was to war and root-out the knowledge of God, of Jesus Christ, and Christianity (Joh 3:19-21). See Rom 1:21, 28; 1Tim 4:2

Act 9:25

Act 9:25 - Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket - See 2Cor 11:33

Act 9:26

Act 9:26 - And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple - Paul was not received in Jerusalem for fear that he was a plant, a Trojan Horse, pretending to be a Christian in order to overthrow the faith from within. This was a great trial of the Christian faith for the believers, many of whom were affected personally by Paul's former life of wrath towards the faith. They would have to take hold of Jesus' strength and forgive the new convert, showing mercy and grace to one who in ignorance, severely harmed the cause of God. See 1Cor 15:9; Act 9:1-3

Act 9:27

Act 9:27 - But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus - Barnabas, the Son of Encouragement presented Paul as a truly converted and sincere follower of Christ to the apostles and church in order that they may receive him in the faith. See Act 4:36, 11:22-24

Act 9:29

Act 9:29 - And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him - the brethren, who may still have had apprehensions about Saul and saw him as a trouble maker, took and sent him home to Tarsus.

Act 9:30

Act 9:30 - Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus - the church of Jerusalem, in its fear of Paul and possibly seeing him as a threat and trouble maker, sent him home to his hometown of Tarsus (Act 21:39, 22:3). They perhaps thought that they had rid themselves of him. Little did they know that he was a chosen vessel of the LORD (Act 9:15, 16) and Barnabas would seek Paul out at a later date to jump start his global evangelism. God does all things well!! - See Act 9:31, 11:22-26

Act 9:31

Act 9:31 - Then had the churches rest throughout all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied - the immediate contention caused through the conversion of Paul and his forceful ministry had subsided and the apostles and disciples of Christ enjoyed a bit of respite in Judaea and Galilee.

Act 9:34

Act 9:34 - And Peter said unto him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately - See Lk 5:24

Act 9:35

Act 9:35 - And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord - miracles were performed to bring relief and healing to the afflicted but also for the purpose of spreading the gospel to those who saw. See Act 3

Act 9:38

Act 9:38 - And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them - God's timing is perfect in that Peter was in Lydda, near Joppa when Tabitha (Dorcas) died so that he might be used of the Lord to perform the miracle of raising her from the dead.

Act 9:40

Act 9:40 - But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed - Following the example of the Master healer, Peter put all out so that he might seek the LORD and His purpose for the dead. God obviously communed with Peter and revealed that he should speak to the dead and it would live again. This is the power of Jesus Christ, Who despoiled principalities and powers, even in death, and holds the keys to the grave and death. See Mk 5:40; Lk 8:53, 54; Mt 9:24, 25; Col 2:15; Rev 1:18

Act 9:42

Act 9:42 - And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord - it was known throughout all Joppa that in the name of Jesus Christ, the lame were healed and the dead were raised.

Act 10:1

Act 10:1 - Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band - Some who are numbered among merchant princes will take their position to obey the truth. God's eye has been upon such as have acted according to the light they have had, maintaining their integrity. Cornelius, a man of high position, maintained his religious experience, strictly walking in accordance with the light he had received. God had his eye upon him, and he sent his angel with a message to him. The heavenly messenger passed by the self-righteous ones, and came to Cornelius and called him by name. And he said, "What is it, Lord?" And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God. Then instruction was given to him as to what he should do to receive greater knowledge. He was to become acquainted with the disciples of Christ. - {SpM 206.5}

Act 10:2

Act 10:2 - A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house - Cornelius ordered his life and house according to the light that had been given him. He was true and steadfast in that which he knew.

Act 10:2

Act 10:2 - which gave much alms to the people - Compare Lk 7:2-5

Act 10:3

Act 10:3 - He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius - Cornelius had an open vision around 3PM.

Act 10:4

Act 10:4 - Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God - See Act 10:2; Mal 3:16

Act 10:6

Act 10:6 - he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do - Send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon." Thus God gave evidence of His regard for the gospel ministry and for His organized church. The angel was not commissioned to tell Cornelius the story of the cross. A man subject, even as the centurion himself, to human frailties and temptations, was to be the one to tell him

Act 10:7

Act 10:7 - And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually; - See Lk 7:8

Act 10:9

Act 10:9 - Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour - Peter went to pray at 12noon.

Act 10:10

Act 10:10 - And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance - while praying, Peter became very hungry as he awaited the afternoon meal. God used this opportunity to teach Peter a lesson on humility, acceptance, the prejudice that was within his heart. See Gal 2:11-17

Act 10:13

Act 10:13 - Just as the raven fed Elijah in 1Kin 17:6, God uses the unclean animals in the vision to Peter so when he is sent to Cornellius he does not look down upon him for being once pagan.

Act 10:14

Act 10:14 - But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean - Peter protested based on the command of God not to eat anything that was abominable. See Lev 11:43-47

Act 10:15

Act 10:15 - And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common - God was speak to Peter a profound message regarding Who is the One Who calls a thing clean and unclean. We have no right to judge others as clean, unclean, worthy or unworthy as we all are flesh and blood and are of the same nature. God alone can declare a thing clean or unclean, not men through their prejudices. See Joh 8:48; Act 10:28; Gal 2:11-17;

Act 10:16

Act 10:16 - This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven - upon the testimony of 2 or 3 witnesses, the vision was confirmed. The Holy Spirit would make known to Peter the application of this vision. See Act 10:19, 20

Act 10:17

Act 10:17 - Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean - This vision conveyed to Peter both reproof and instruction. It revealed to him the purpose of God—that by the death of Christ the Gentiles should be made fellow heirs with the Jews to the blessings of salvation. As yet none of the disciples had preached the gospel to the Gentiles. In their minds the middle wall of partition, broken down by the death of Christ, still existed, and their labors had been confined to the Jews, for they had looked upon the Gentiles as excluded from the blessings of the gospel. Now the Lord was seeking to teach Peter the world-wide extent of the divine plan. - {AA 135.3}

Act 10:19

Act 10:19 - While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee - the Spirit of Truth directed Peter to the very men for which the vision was intended, foreigners who were viewed as unclean and defiling by the Jews. See Act 10:22, 23, 28

Act 10:20

Act 10:20 - Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them - the Spirit explicitly told Peter to follow the men, doubting nothing because God Himself had sent them. This was the answer to Peter's dream and perplexity. God had shown him not to call anything or anyone unclean that He had made clean, and these foreigners, despised of the Jews, were to be given the utmost respect by order from the Lord. See Act 10:28

Act 10:22

Act 10:22 - and of good report among all the nation of the Jews - See Act 2:1, 2; Lk 7:2-5

Act 10:22

Act 10:22 - and of good report among all the nation of the Jews - See Act 2:1, 2; Lk 7:2-5

Act 10:22

Act 10:22 - was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee - See Act 10:3-6

Act 10:24

Act 10:24 - And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends - Like the Samaritan woman, Cornelius called all to come see and hear a man who would reveal the way to eternal life. See Joh 4:

Act 10:26

Act 10:26 - I myself also am a man - Compare the pope of Rome, who claims to be the successor to Peter who accepts the bowing and kissing of his ring by men. See Rev 19:10; 1Kin 19:18 As Peter entered the house of the Gentile, Cornelius did not salute him as an ordinary visitor, but as one honored of Heaven and sent to him by God. It is an Eastern custom to bow before a prince or other high dignitary and for children to bow before their parents; but Cornelius, overwhelmed with reverence for the one sent by God to teach him, fell at the apostle's feet and worshiped him. Peter was horror-stricken, and he lifted the centurion up, saying, "Stand up; I myself also am a man." - {AA 137.3}

Act 10:28 - Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean - Peter saw by example through his Master that God is no respecter of persons but loves each of us the same. God was testing Peter to rid him of the prejudices that he was raised to hold. See Joh 4:28, 18:28; Mt 15:23; Gal 2:11-14; Isa 65:5

Act 10:28

Act 10:28 - but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean - See Act 10:34

Act 10:29

Act 10:29 - GAINSAYING, ppr. Contradicting; denying; opposing.

Act 10:30

Act 10:30 - And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing - Cornelius was fasting and praying until 3PM when God sent His angel to counsel him to call for Peter.

Act 10:31

Act 10:31 - And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God - God hears the prayers of the righteous and remembers their acts of charity. See 1Pet 3:12

Act 10:34

Act 10:34 - Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons - See 1Pet 3:15

Act 10:34

Act 10:34 - God is no respecter of persons: - See Deut 10:17; Eph 6:9; Jam 2:1, 3:17; 1Pet 1:17; Gal 2:6; Col 3:25

Act 10:35

Act 10:35 - But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him - See Isa 56:1-7; Ps 50:23; Act 17:24-34

Act 10:36

Act 10:36 - he is Lord of all - See Ephesians 1:23

Act 10:38

Act 10:38 - How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power - Peter declares Jesus as Messiah, the Anointed One. See Dan 9:25, 26; Act 2:36; Mt 3:16, 17; Joh 3:34

Act 10:39

Act 10:39 - And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree: - See 2Pet 1:16-18; Act 2:36, 3:13-16

Act 10:40

Act 10:40 - Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly - See Lk 24:1-6, 34-45

Act 10:41

Act 10:41 - who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead - See Lk 24:41-43; Joh 21:10-13

Act 10:42

Act 10:42 - And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. - See Mt 28:18-20

Act 10:42

Act 10:42 - He which was ordained of God to be the Judge of the quick and the dead - See Joh 5:27; Isa 33:22; Ps 50:1-6; Joh 9:39; Dan 7:9, 10, 13, 1; 2Cor 5:10; Rom 14:10; 2Tim 4:1; 1Pet 4:5

Act 10:43

Act 10:43 - To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins - See Joh 5:39

Act 10:44

Act 10:44 - While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word - See Lk 1:35; Act 2:1-8, 38, 39, 11:15

Act 10:45

Act 10:45 - And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost - God made sure that other Jews, six in number, were present as eye witnesses of the power of God wrought through Peter upon the Gentiles. God foresees all things and makes provision for His people. See Act 11:1-12

Act 10:46

Act 10:46 - speak with tongues - Most likely, the Gentile converts among Cornelius' house began to speak by inspiration of the Holy Spirit, the Hebrew tongue, which was not their mother tongue. See Act 10:1 (Italian Band); Act 3:1-6

Act 10:47

Act 10:47 - Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? - the gift of God in the Holy Spirit was given to the Gentiles as well as the Jews, thus affirming the gospel was to be given to all men. Peter asks the question whether any should oppose the welcoming of the Gentile believers into the household of faith? This question was to silence all future arguments among the Jews present and any who may enquirer, that the mystery of God that He ordained from the foundation of the world was being revealed, that the Gentiles should be heirs of the Kingdom of God, just as the Jews. See Act 2:38, 39; Col 1:25-29; Eph 2:11-16

Act 10:48 - And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord - See Mt 28:19, 20; Act 8:35-39, 16:33

Act 11:1

Act 11:1 - And the apostles and brethren that were in Judaea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God - See Act 10:44-48, 11:19-22

Act 11:2

Act 11:2 - And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him - the Jews contested with Peter for engaging with the Gentiles. Their hatred and prejudice were deep rooted and they could not see how or why God would choose to save any of another race. See Act 15:1, 5

Act 11:3

Act 11:3 - Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them - the prejudice of the Jews still ran rampant. See Act 10:15, 48; Joh 18:28

Act 11:5

Act 11:5 - I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me: - See Act 10:1-11

Act 11:6

Act 11:6 - Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air - See Act 10:12

Act 11:7

Act 11:7 - And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat - Act 10:13

Act 11:8

Act 11:8 - But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth - See Act 10:14

Act 11:9

Act 11:9 - But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common - See Act 10:15 The Jewish people had been made the depositaries of sacred truth; but Pharisaism had made them the most exclusive, the most bigoted, of all the human race. Everything about the priests and rulers—their dress, customs, ceremonies, traditions—made them unfit to be the light of the world. They looked upon themselves, the Jewish nation, as the world. But Christ commissioned His disciples to proclaim a faith and worship that would have in it nothing of caste or country, a faith that would be adapted to all peoples, all nations, all classes of men. - {DA 819.4}

Act 11:10

Act 11:10 - And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven - See Act 10:16

Act 11:11

Act 11:11 - And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Caesarea unto me - See Act 10:17, 18

Act 11:12

Act 11:12 - And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting - the Holy Spirit affirmed to Peter that to go with the Gentiles to the home of Cornellius was of Him, have no doubt. See Act 10:19, 20; 1Jo 3:20, 21

Act 11:12

Act 11:12 - these six brethren accompanied me - See Act 10:45, 47 In obedience to the directions just received from God, the apostle promised to go with them. On the following morning he set out for Caesarea, accompanied by six of his brethren. These were to be witnesses of all that he should say or do while visiting the Gentiles, for Peter knew that he would be called to account for so direct a violation of the Jewish teachings. - {AA 137.2}

Act 11:13

Act 11:13 - And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter - See Act 10:30-32

Act 11:14

Act 11:14 - Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved - See Act 10:33

Act 11:15

Act 11:15 - And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning - Cornelius and those of his household began to speak in the Hebrew tongue so that there was no need of translation, just as it began with the apostles at Pentecost. See Act 10:44, 11:17, 2:1-8

Act 11:16

Act 11:16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, Joh indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost - See Act 1:5, 8

Act 11:17

Act 11:17 - Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God? - See Act 11:15, 2:1-8

Act 11:17

Act 11:16 - what was I, that I could withstand God? - Peter reasoned with the Jews, "who am I to withstand God if He has made the gospel of Jesus Christ available to the Gentiles?". See 2Cor 13:8; Act 5:38, 39

Act 11:18

Act 11:18 - When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life - the mystery of God was finally coming to the Jews' understanding and the Lord was tearing down the middle wall of partition that separated Jew from Gentiles - See Eph 2:1-3, 11-18; Col 1:25-29

Act 11:19

Act 11:19 - Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only - See Act 8:1

Act 11:19

Act 11:19 - preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only - the early church members who were scattered by the Jewish persecution hadn't received "God's memo" that His gospel was to be preached in all the world for a witness to all men. See Mt 28:18-20; Act 1:8

Act 11:20

Act 11:20 - And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus - See Act 2:10

Act 11:21

Act 11:21 - And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord - See Act 1:5, 8

Act 11:22

Act 11:22 - Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch - The Jews wanted to further enquire about the Gentiles receiving the gospel and by what means it was wrought.

Act 11:22

Act 11:22 - and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch - God appointed the right man to be sent to the Grecian proselytes in Antioch. Barnabas, the son of encouragement, had the Spirit of God within him and would welcome and exhort all who came and accepted Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. Barnabas saw the good in all people and was a true son of encouragement - See Act 9:26, 27, 11:23-24

Act 11:23

Act 11:23 - Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad - Barnabas rejoiced in the gospel being given to all men. He, like Paul was merely happy that the gospel was being preached to all men - Philippians 2:2, 1:12-18

Act 11:24

Act 11:24 - For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith - See Act 4:36, 37, 9:26, 27

Act 11:24

Act 11:24 - and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith - Barnabas was of like mind and character to Stephen. See Act 6:5, 8

Act 11:24

Act 11:24 - and much people was added unto the Lord - See Act 2:39-42, 4:4, 5:14, 6:7, 10:44-48, 11:20, 21

Act 11:25

Act 11:25 - Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul - the Jewish converts of Jerusalem, some of whom may have been skeptical of Paul and perhaps envious of his zeal, had sent Paul home as a trouble maker. Nevertheless, Barnabas, who saw the sincerity of Paul went to seek him to encourage him in the work of the Lord. See Act 9:26-31

Act 11:26

Act 11:26 - And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people - Barnabas enlisted Paul as a yoke mate to go and encourage and build up the church of Antioch, teaching them the truths of Jesus Christ but helping them to understand the Old Testament that declared the light of God and His works of salvation.

Act 11:26

Act 11:26 - And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch - See Jer 15:16 It was in Antioch that the disciples were first called Christians. The name was given them because Christ was the main theme of their preaching, their teaching, and their conversation. Continually they were recounting the incidents that had occurred during the days of His earthly ministry, when His disciples were blessed with His personal presence. Untiringly they dwelt upon His teachings and His miracles of healing. With quivering lips and tearful eyes they spoke of His agony in the garden, His betrayal, trial, and execution, the forbearance and humility with which He had endured the contumely and torture imposed upon Him by His enemies, and the Godlike pity with which He had prayed for those who persecuted Him. His resurrection and ascension, and His work in heaven as the Mediator for fallen man, were topics on which they rejoiced to dwell. Well might the heathen call them Christians, since they preached Christ and addressed their prayers to God through Him. - {AA 157.1} It was God who gave to them the name of Christian. This is a royal name, given to all who join themselves to Christ. It was of this name that Jam wrote later, "Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats? Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?" Jam 2:6, 7. And Peter declared, "If any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf." "If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you." 1Pet 4:16, 14. - {AA 157.2} Abraham therefore was a Christian as much as anyone who has ever lived since the crucifixion of Christ. "The disciples were called Christians first in Antioch." Act 11:26. But the disciples were not different after they were called Christians from what they were before. When they were known only as Jews, they were Christians just as much as they were after they were called such. The name is of but little account. The name "Christians" was given them because they were followers of Christ, but they were followers of Christ before they were called Christians, just as much as they were afterwards. Abraham, hundreds of years before the days of Jesus of Nazareth was just what the disciples were who in Antioch were called Christians; he was a follower of Christ. Therefore, he was in the fullest senses of the word a Christian. All Christians, and none others, are children of Abraham. {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 60}

Act 11:27 - And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch - God sent prophets to Antioch to give warning and counsel regarding a coming famine and the need to store up provisions for those in Judea who would be in want.

Act 11:28

Act 11:28 - And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar - See Mt 24:7

Act 11:28

Act 11:28 - great dearth throughout all the world - See Gen 41:15-32

Act 11:28

Act 11:28 - the days of Claudius Caesar - Claudius Caesar was the 4th Roman Emperor. AD41-54

Act 11:29

Act 11:29 - determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judaea - One of the church's first examples of global mission which has inspired the allocation of 13th Sabbath offerings to support special projects and needs around the world. See 1Cor 16:1-3; 2Cor 8, 9; Rom 15:26

Act 11:30

Act 11:30 - Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul - See Act 12:25

Act 12:1

Act 12:1 - Herod Agrippa

Act 12:2

Act 12:2 - And he killed James the brother of Joh with the sword - James may have been one of the early martyrs among the disciples. See Mt 4:21

Act 12:3

Act 12:3 - And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also - Herod sought favor with the Jews and thus sought to destroy the enemies of the Jews, the church of God. See Lk 22:1-5

Act 12:3

Act 12:3 - Then were the days of unleavened bread - Peter was seized about the same time Jesus was taken captive. Perhaps Herod sought to offer the Jews a "sacrificial" death and a "scapegoat" as Pilate so offered with Jesus and Barabbas. This practice bore no trace of justice or mercy but was a farce welcomed by the corrupt Jewish leaders.. See Mt 27:15-17

Act 12:4

Act 12:4 - four quaterionions of soldiers - Remembering the former escape of the apostles from prison, Herod on this occasion had taken double precautions. To prevent all possibility of release, Peter had been put under the charge of sixteen soldiers, who, in different watches, guarded him day and night. In his cell he was placed between two soldiers and was bound by two chains, each chain being fastened to the wrist of one of the soldiers. He was unable to move without their knowledge. With the prison doors securely fastened, and a strong guard before them, all chance of rescue or escape through human means was cut off. But man's extremity is God's opportunity. - {AA 145.4}

Act 12:4

Act 12:4 - intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people - we can see the pagan influence on the translators of Scripture as they have added Easter (Ishtar) to signify the Passover festival. As SDA Christians, we do not place great emphasis on Easter as a holiday because everyday we embrace the message of surrender (righteousness by faith) which teaches us to: 1. Deny ourselves, take up our cross and follow Jesus Christ - Mt 16:24 2. Be crucified with Christ - Gal 2:20 3. Die daily - 1Cor 15:31 4. Be resurrected with Jesus Christ abiding within - Gal 2:20; 2Cor 5:17

Act 12:5

Act 12:5 - Peter therefore was kept in prison - Herod's act in putting Jam to death was applauded by the Jews, though some complained of the private manner in which it was accomplished, maintaining that a public execution would have more thoroughly intimidated the believers and those sympathizing with them. Herod therefore held Peter in custody, meaning still further to gratify the Jews by the public spectacle of his death. But it was suggested that it would not be safe to bring the veteran apostle out for execution before all the people then assembled in Jerusalem. It was feared that the sight of him being led out to die might excite the pity of the multitude. - {AA 144.3}

Act 12:5

Act 12:5 - without ceasing - we must maintain an attitude of prayer throughout the day, recognizing that God is in our presence continually. We may offer silent prayers as we work, we may sing songs of praise to God, we may meditate upon His word and His works towards us. Jesus counsels us to abide in Him as He desires to abide in us. See 1Thess 5:17; Joh 15:4

Act 12:5

Act 12:5 - of the church - there is a need for continual prayer by the individual, but God is also interested in corporate prayer. When two agree on anything [are in unity to a specific need; are in agreement to a potential blessing to be wrought; are on one accord in desiring to see God glorified], God is pleased and will provide a blessing. See Mt 18:19; Am 3:3; Ps 133:1, 2; Act 2:1-4

Act 12:5

Act 12:5 - unto God - our prayers should be God focused. We ought to have God as the center of our prayer where our entire focus, our entire motives, our entire desires are to be in His presence, to express our sincerest thoughts to Him and to listen for the still small voice saying "this is the way, walk ye in it". We must crowd out anything else that seeks to occupy that sacred time with the Lord.

Act 12:6

Act 12:6 - the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison - the peace of God which passes all understanding permitted Peter to sleep serenely despite his death sentence to be carried out the next day. Prov 3:24; Compare Mk 4:37, 38

Act 12:7

Act 12:7 - And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands - See Act 5:19

Act 12:7

Act 12:7 - And his chains fell off from his hands - See Act 16:26; Hymn #198 And Can it Be

Act 12:9

Act 12:9 - And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision - Peter thought he was having a dream until he realized, he had been delivered of the LORD indeed! See Act 10:9-17

Act 12:10

Act 12:10 - When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street - See Act 16:26

Act 12:10

Act 12:10 - the angel departed from him - To the worker for God the record of these angel visits should bring strength and courage. Today, as verily as in the days of the apostles, heavenly messengers are passing through the length and breadth of the land, seeking to comfort the sorrowing, to protect the impenitent, to win the hearts of men to Christ. We cannot see them personally; nevertheless they are with us, guiding, directing, protecting. - {AA 152.4}

Act 12:11

Act 12:11 - Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod - Peter had confidence of his calling and God's protection as he was delivered from certain death.

Act 12:12

Act 12:12 - he came to the house of Mary the mother of Joh, whose surname was Mark - Joh Mark is the cousin of Barnabas and who Paul refused to travel with because he became fearful and left the work. See Act 12:25

Act 12:17

Act 12:17 - Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren - James was the “spiritual head” among the disciples in Jerusalem, unlike Peter as many supposed. See Act 15:13-29

Act 12:19

Act 12:19 - And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death - Herod did not want to accept any claims of super-natural deliverance on the part of Paul, Jesus’ disciple, and therefore, ruthlessly delivered the keepers to their death - See Mt 28:11-15; Act 16:27

Act 12:22

Act 12:22 - And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man - The danger of power, fame, success, and loosing sight of where one’s prosperity originates is spoken of all too often in the Bible. The lust of the flesh, lust of the eyes, and the pride of life (1Jo 2:16) takes hold when men forget their God Who has established them (2Chron 20:20) and granted them the blessings that they ascribe to themselves. See 1Sam 15:17-24; 2Sam 11:4-12:10; 2Chron 26:16

Act 12:23

Act 12:23 - the Angel of the LORD smote him - Compare Dan 2:27-30 The same angel who had come from the royal courts to rescue Peter, had been the messenger of wrath and judgment to Herod. The angel smote Peter to arouse him from slumber; it was with a different stroke that he smote the wicked king, laying low his pride and bringing upon him the punishment of the Almighty. Herod died in great agony of mind and body, under the retributive judgment of God. - {AA 152.1}

Act 12:24

Act 12:24 - But the word of God grew and multiplied - See Act 2:41, 4:4, 5:14, 10:44-48, 11:20, 21, 24

Act 12:25

Act 12:25 - And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry - Paul and Barnabas returned to Jerusalem with the alms and offerings for the brethren based on the famine prophesied by the prophet Agabus in Antioch. See Act 11:28-30

Act 12:25

Act 12:25 - and took with them Joh, whose surname was Mark - See Act 12:12

Act 13:1

Act 13:1 - Herod the tetrarch - See Lk 3:19, Mt 14:1

Act 13:2

Act 13:2 - As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them - the LORD spoke through His prophets stating that Paul and Barnabas were to be separated and sent on an assignment for the LORD.

Act 13:3

Act 13:3 - And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away - The Christian church was at this time entering upon an important era. The work of proclaiming the gospel message among the Gentiles was now to be prosecuted with vigor; and as a result the church was to be strengthened by a great ingathering of souls. The apostles who had been appointed to lead out in this work would be exposed to suspicion, prejudice, and jealousy. Their teachings concerning the breaking down of "the middle wall of partition" (Eph 2:14) that had so long separated the Jewish and the Gentile world, would naturally subject them to the charge of heresy, and their authority as ministers of the gospel would be questioned by many zealous, believing Jews. God foresaw the difficulties that His servants would be called to meet, and, in order that their work should be above challenge, He instructed the church by revelation to set them apart publicly to the work of the ministry. Their ordination was a public recognition of their divine appointment to bear to the Gentiles the glad tidings of the gospel. - {AA 161.1} Both Paul and Barnabas had already received their commission from God Himself, and the ceremony of the laying on of hands added no new grace or virtual qualification. It was an acknowledged form of designation to an appointed office and a recognition of one's authority in that office. By it the seal of the church was set upon the work of God. - {AA 161.2} To the Jew this form was a significant one. When a Jewish father blessed his children, he laid his hands reverently upon their heads. When an animal was devoted to sacrifice, the hand of the one invested with priestly authority was laid upon the head of the victim. And when the ministers of the church of believers in Antioch laid their hands upon Paul and Barnabas, they, by that action, asked God to bestow His blessing upon the chosen apostles in their devotion to the specific work to which they had been appointed. - {AA 162.1}

Act 13:4

Act 13:4 - So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus - The Holy Spirit directed the course of Jesus and His apostles. See Mt 4:1; Act 8:29, 39:40

Act 13:5

Act 13:5 - Joh to their minister - Joh Mark, the cousin of Barnabas. See Act 12:12, 25

Act 13:6

Act 13:6 - a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Barjesus - Elymas, an imposter, antichrist (See Barabbas -Mk 15:7, Joh 10:10; 1Jo 2:18) and one who claimed to be "son of Jesus" (son of the savior), sought his own gain and notoriety at the expense of the true gospel workers. See Mt 23:13

Act 13:8

Act 13:8 - But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith. - Elymas (Elymas = "a wise man" - the Arabic name of the Jewish magnus or sorcerer Barjesus), the sorcerer sought to withstand the apostles teaching/preaching and the Word of God from bringing life to Sergius Paulus who sought to know the things of God. Elymas was a friend of the devil. See

Act 13:9

Act 13:9 - Then Saul, (who also is called Paul - the first mention of Saul's name being changed to Paul.

Act 13:10

Act 13:10 - And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? - a son of the devil indeed as he sought to do the works of the devil in withstanding the word of God and causing others to stumble from the truth. See Gen 3:1; Joh 8:44; Mt 23:13; Jam 3:14-16; 3Jo 1:

Act 13:11

Act 13:11 - And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand - the Lord pronounced swift judgement upon false prophets and those who seek to deceive. See Zech 13:3-5; Jer 28:15-17

Act 13:11

Act 13:11 - and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season - in mercy God did not make Elymas' blindness permanent, but for the glory of God and to the spreading of the gospel, this miracle was performed to confound the works of the devil and to show that there was power in the gospel words being spoken. See Isa 29:9-13

Act 13:12

Act 13:12 - Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord - the miracle of blinding Elymas was wrought to show the power of God against rebellion. This in turn glorified God, showing the power of the gospel message preached by Paul and Barnabas. See Act 3, 4

Act 13:13

Act 13:13 - and Joh departing from them returned to Jerusalem - Joh the cousin of Barnabas felt fear and returned to Jerusalem. Paul did not take kindly to this act, which he saw as cowardice and abandonment. This would cause a dispute between him and Barnabas such that they would separate from one another for a time.

Act 13:14

Act 13:14 - But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down - Paul and Barnabas, both Jews, went into the synagogue on the Sabbath to reason with the Jews regarding the present truth, Jesus Christ, the Messiah and Prince.

Act 13:15

Act 13:15 - And after the reading of the law and the prophets - the reading of Scripture at the start of worship and before words of counsel, instruction or exhortation were given seemed to be a custom among the Jews. See Lk 4:16-21; Act 13:27

Act 13:15

Act 13:15 - Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on -

See Lk 4:16-21

Act 13:17

Act 13:17-21 - God chose Israel and kept them on probation for 490 years (40yrs in the wilderness and 450yrs under the judges of Israel) until they ultimately rejected Him, seeking an earthly king to rule over them (1Sam 8:5-8). They failed their probation.

Act 13:17

Act 13:17-21 - The God of of this people of Israel chose our fathers - God chose Israel and kept them on probation for 490 years (40yrs in the wilderness and 450yrs under the judges of Israel) until they ultimately rejected Him, seeking an earthly king to rule over them (1Sam 8:5-8). They failed their probation. See Deut 4:5-8

Act 13:19 - And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot - See Gen 15:18-21

Act 13:20

Act 13:20 - And after that he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet - the COI, from Moses to the arrival of Samuel, were ruled by Judges. It is when Samuel was an old man, that the COI demanded to be ruled by a king. See Judges 21:25; 1Sam 8:1-7

Act 13:21

Act 13:21 - And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years - See 1Sam 8:20, 10:1-7

Act 13:22

Act 13:22 - And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king - See 1Sam 16:1, 7, 12-23

Act 13:23

Act 13:23 - Of this man's seed hath God according to his promise raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus - See 1Kin 8:25; Act 2:25-27, 30; Mt 1:20, 9:27, 12:23, 15:22, 20:30, 31, 21:9, 15

Act 13:24

Act 13:24 - When Joh had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel - See Lk 3:2-6

Act 13:25

Act 13:25 - And as Joh fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose - See Lk 3:15-17; Joh 1:21-27

Act 13:26

Act 13:26 - children of the stock of Abraham - See Rom 9:2-5

Act 13:26

Act 13:26 - and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent - See Act 2:38, 39, 5:30, 31

Act 13:27 - For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew Him not - See Joh 8:19, 14:7-9

Act 13:27

Act 13:27 - nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day - See Deut 18:18, 19; Dan 9:24-27; Isa 61:1, 2

Act 13:27

Act 13:27 - they have fulfilled them in condemning Him - See Ps 22:6-18; Isa 53:2-11; Act 5:30, 31

Act 13:28

Act 13:28 - And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain - See Act 3:12-15, 18, 4:8-12, 7:51, 52

Act 13:29

Act 13:29 - And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre - See Isa 53:9; Mt 27:57-61

Act 13:30

Act 13:31 - But God raised him from the dead - See Act 2:22-36, 3:15, 4:8-12, 5:29-32

Act 13:31

Act 13:31 - And He was seen many days of them which came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses unto the people - See 2Pet 1:16; 1Jo 1:1-4

Act 13:32

Act 13:35 - And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers - See Jer 31:31-35; Deut 18:18, 19; Isa 7:14-16, 9:6, 7; Act 2:38-41, 5:30, 31

Act 13:33

Act 13:32 - as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee - See Ps 2:7; Heb 1:5-12

Act 13:34

Act 13:34 - And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption - See Rom 6:9, 2:25-32;

Act 13:35

Act 13:35 - Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. See Ps 16:10

Act 13:36

Act 13:36 - For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption: - See Act 2:29-34

Act 13:37

Act 13:37 - But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption - See Ps 16:10

Act 13:38

Act 13:38 - Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins - See Act 5:30-32

Act 13:39

Act 13:39 - And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses - See Rom 4:5-7, 5:1

Act 13:40

Act 13:40, 41 - Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets; Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you - Heb 3:17-4:2 Paul is giving warning of the coming wrath to come against the workers of iniquity and the scornful. He is warning them of God's judgments in divorcing Himself from Israel unless they turn from their unbelief (Heb 3:16-4:3). See Lk 3:7-9; 1Sam 3:11 (foresaking of Shiloh); Jer 19:3, 4 (Babylonian captivity); Ezekiel 5:9-17 (dispossession of Israel as a chosen nation)

Act 13:41

Act 13:41 - for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you - See Habakkuk 1:5; Mt 24:1, 2, 15-20

Act 13:42

Act 13:42 - The Jews in rejecting Christ and His salvation, the gospel is given to the Gentiles who become the Israel of God.

Act 13:42

Act 13:42 - The Jews in rejecting Christ and His salvation, the gospel is given to the Gentiles who become the Israel of God.

Act 13:42

Act 13:42 - Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath - See Lk 4:16, 31

Act 13:43

Act 13:43 - speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God - See Joh 8:31

Act 13:44

Act 13:44 - Paul and Barnabas appealed to the lost sheep of the House of Israel first, but later turned to the Gentiles who were receptive of the gospel of Jesus Christ. See Isa 49:6

Act 13:45

Act 13:45 - But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy - The LORD sought to reveal to Israel their folly in rejecting the light of the gospel through the conversion of the Gentiles. However, this only emboldened them and hardened them in their unbelief. See Isa 65:1-7; Rom 10:16-21, 11:11-14; Hos 10:1; Mt 8:12, 23:13; 1Thess 2:14-16

Act 13:45

Act 13:45 - and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming - See Act 2:13

Act 13:46

Act 13:46 - It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you - The covenant with Israel which extended for 490years needed to meet its fulfillment, thus it was necessary that the Gospel be spoken first to Israel. With their rejection of the covenant at the end of the 490yrs, marked at the stoning of Stephen, the gospel was then to be taken to all the world. See Mt 10:5, 6, 15:24; Act 1:8; 3:26; Hos 4:6

Act 13:46

Act 13:46 - but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles - See Mt 22:8, 9; Lk 14:24; Rom 10:1-5; Hos 4:6; Heb 4:2, 6; Hos 4:6

Act 13:46

Act 13:46 - lo, we turn to the Gentiles - See Act 18:6, 28:24-28; Isa 56:1-8

Act 13:47

Act 13:47 - I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles - See Isa 49:6; Col 1:26-29; Isa prophesied: "There shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots." "Incline your ear, and come unto Me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. Behold, I have given Him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the Lord thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for He hath glorified thee." Isa 11:1; 55:3-5. - {AA 223.2}

Act 13:47

Act 13:47 - that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth - See Joh 4:40-42; Isa 49:6

Act 13:48

Act 13:48 - and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed - See Joh 1:12, 13

Act 13:50

Act 13:50 - But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts - See Act 13:45; 1Thess 2:16; 14:1-6, 18-20, 15:1, 5, 17:5, 13, 21:27

Act 13:51

Act 13:51 - But they shook the dust of their feet against them - See Mt 10:4; Mk 6:11; Lk 9:5

Act 13:52

Act 13:52 - And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost - See Act 5:40-42; 2Cor 12:10; Phil 1:29, 30

Act 14:1

Act 14:1 - And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed - See Isa 49:6

Act 14:2

Act 14:2 - the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles - motivated by the spirit of Satan, the unbelieving Jews sought to disrupt the ministry of Paul and Barnabas. See Joh 16:1-3; Act 13:45, 50-52; 18-20, 15:1, 5, 17:5, 13, 21:27; 1Thess 2:14-16

Act 14:3

Act 14:3 - which gave testimony unto the word of his grace - See Titus 2:11

Act 14:8

Act 14:8 - And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked: - See Act 3:2

Act 14:10

Act 14:10 - Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked - See Act 3:6-8

Act 14:11

Act 14:11 - The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men - See Act 28:3-6, 17:20; Dan 2:11

Act 14:12

Act 14:12 - Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker - According to Greek mythology,

Mercury is the intercessor between the gods and men. He communicated the messages from both with lightning speed, thus Paul was likened to Mercury and Barnabas to Jupiter.

Act 14:15

Act 14:15 - We also are men of like passions with you - See Jam 5:17

Act 14:15

Act 14:15 - and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God - Paul was seeking to direct the Lyconians from the worship of false gods to worship the true God of heaven and earth, the Creator. See Act 17:22-27

Act 14:15

Act 14:15 - which made heaven and earth, and the seas and all things that are therein - See Rev 14:7; Ex 20:8-11

Act 14:16

Act 14:16 - Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways - See Act 17:30

Act 14:17

Act 14:17 - He left not Himself without witness - See Ps 19:1-6; Rom 1:19-23

Act 14:19

Act 14:19 - And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium - the few, certain Jews who came and stirred the people of Lystra against Paul and Barnabas shows that a little leaven will leaven the lump. It will not require an overwhelming number or majority, but a few individuals, actuated but he spirit of Satan to accuse the saints and turn the tide of their works in the hearts of men against them. - Act 13:45, 50-52, 14:1-6, 15:1, 5, 17:5, 13, 21:27; 1Thess 2:14-16

Act 14:19

Act 14:19 - who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul - The labors of Paul and Barnabas at Lystra were suddenly checked by the malice of "certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium," who, upon learning of the success of the apostles' work among the Lycaonians, had determined to follow them and persecute them. On arriving at Lystra, these Jews soon succeeded in inspiring the people with the same bitterness of spirit that actuated their own minds. By words of misrepresentation and calumny those who had recently regarded Paul and Barnabas as divine beings were persuaded that in reality the apostles were worse than murderers and were deserving of death. - {AA 183.1}

Act 14:19

Act 14:19 - having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead - See 2Cor 11:25

Act 14:21

Act 14:21 - And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch - See Ps 40:9, 10

Act 14:22

Act 14:22 - we must through much tribulation enter into the Kingdom of God - See Rom 5:3; 2Cor 12:10; Joh 16:33; Heb 10:32-39 the opposition faced by the apostles was primarily from the Jewish authority and leadership - See Act 14:19, 13:44-46, 4:1-17. Yet, we must also endure hardship and tribulation as part of our refining and purifying work to reflect Christ's image. See Joh 16:33; 2Cor 12:7-10; 2Thess 1:4 We have far more to fear from within than from without. The hindrances to strength and success are far greater from the church itself than from the world. {RH March 22, 1887}

Act 14:22

Act 14:22 - enter into the kingdom of God - See Isa 57:15

Act 14:27

Act 14:27 - And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles - See Act 13:44-49, 14:1

Act 14:27

Act 14:27 - and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles - See Act 13:44-48; Col 4:3; 1Cor 16:9; 2Cor 2:12; Rev 3:8

Act 15:1

Act 15:1 - And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved - apparently there were some Pharisees who came to believe in Jesus Christ, but still clung to their phariseical ways in seeking to establish their own righteousness through the law. These men journeyed as far as Antioch, troubling the Gentile saints to try to make a proselyte based on their counterfeit gospel. See Act 11:1, 2, 15:5, 20:28-30, 21:18-20; Gal 1:6-8, 5:1-12, 2:21; Rom 10:1-4; Jam 2:15-18; Act 15:22-29

Act 15:2

Act 15:2 - had no small dissension and disputation with them - See Gal 2:3-5 The Jewish converts generally were not inclined to move as rapidly as the providence of God opened the way. From the result of the apostles' labors among the Gentiles it was evident that the converts among the latter people would far exceed the Jewish converts in number. The Jews feared that if the restrictions and ceremonies of their law were not made obligatory upon the Gentiles as a condition of church fellowship, the national peculiarities of the Jews, which had hitherto kept them distinct from all other people, would finally disappear from among those who received the gospel message. - {AA 189.2} The Jews had always prided themselves upon their divinely appointed services, and many of those who had been converted to the faith of Christ still felt that since God had once clearly outlined the Hebrew manner of worship, it was improbable that He would ever authorize a change in any of its specifications. They insisted that the Jewish laws and ceremonies should be incorporated into the rites of the Christian religion. They were slow to discern that all the sacrificial offerings had but prefigured the death of the Son of God, in which type met antitype, and after which the rites and ceremonies of the Mosaic dispensation were no longer binding. - {AA 189.3}

Act 15:2

Act 15:2 - they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question - Paul and Barnabas were to present the controversy created by the self-exalting, unconverted, pharisee-converts to Christianity that caused a stir among the Gentile brethren - See Act 15:4, 6

Act 15:2

Act 15:2 - and certain other of them - it is quite possible that Titus was among the number with Paul and Barnabas to address the Jerusalem counsel with the matter regarding circumcision of the Christian converts. See Gal 2:3

Act 15:3

Act 15:3 - And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren - the Gentiles warmly received the gospel of Jesus Christ and responded with Joy. See Act 1:8; Isa 60:1-3

Act 15:5

Act 15:5 - But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed - some of the Pharisees were converted to Christianity, just like Paul. See Philippians 3:5; Act 6:7, 11:1, 2, 15:1, 20:29, 21:18-20; Mt 7:15

Act 15:5

Act 15:5 - it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses - A living faith vs. dead formalism was what Paul and Barnabas taught verses these self-exalting pharisees. See AA 190.1; Act 15:1; Gal 5:12, 2:21; Rom 10:1-4

Act 15:7

Act 15:6 - Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe - See Act 10:1-48, 11:1-18

Act 15:8

Act 15:8 - And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us - See Act 2:1-21, 10:44-48, 11:15-17; Gal 3:14

Act 15:8

Act 15:8 - which knoweth the hearts - See Ps 139, 7:9

Act 15:9

Act 15:9 - And put no difference between us and them - See Rom 3:22, 10:12; Gal 3:9; Eph 2:13, 16-19

Act 15:9

Act 15:9 - purifying their hearts by faith - faith grabs hold of the promises and grace of God through the blood of Jesus Christ which purifies our hearts so that we may be able to stand at the coming of Jesus Christ. Faith comes by hearing and hearing the prophetic word of God. See Ps 24:4; Joh 14:29; Rom 4:5; Gal 3:14; Heb 9:14; 1Tim 1:5; 2Tim 2:21, 22; 1Jo 1:7

Act 15:10

Act 15:10 - Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples - Just as the Pharisees tempted and sought to entrap Jesus, the same were seeking to set-up a stumbling block for the Gentile converts according to their vain traditions and self-exalting works. See Mt 22:18, 23:4; Mk 12:15; Lk 20:23; Gal 5:12, 2:14, 21, 6:13; Rom 10:1-4

Act 15:10

Act 15:10 - to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples - Jesus came to give us rest from our labors to save ourselves and the Pharisees were demanding that the yoke be restored. See Mt 11:28; Joh 6:28, 29

Act 15:10

Act 15:10 - which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear - Gal 2:14; Rom 10:1-4; Mt 23:1-4 This yoke was not the law of Ten Commandments, as some who oppose the binding claims of the law assert; Peter here referred to the law of ceremonies, which was made null and void by the crucifixion of Christ. - {AA 193.2}

Act 15:11

Act 15:11 - But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they - See Eph 2:8-10; Rom 3:23-26; Titus 2:11-13; Gal 2:20, 21

Act 15:12

Act 15:12 - Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them: Blinding Elymas the sorcerer and conversion of Sergius Paulus - See Act 13:5-12 Preaching to the Jews and Gentiles in Antioch, though the Jews rejected the gospel - Act 13:14-49 Healing of the man crippled from birth in Lystra and Derbe - Act 14:7-11 Preaching the gospel in Phenice and Samaria - Act 15:3

Act 15:13

Act 15:13 - James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me - James, the brother of Jude and the Lord Jesus Christ, not Peter, takes a lead role in the organization and management of the early church. See Act 12:17, 1:13, 15:19, 21:18; Jude 1:1; Gal 1:19

Act 15:14

Act 15:14 - Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name - See Lk 2:25-32; Isa 49:6, 40:5, 56:1-7

Act 15:15

Act 15:15 - And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written - All the words of the prophets are in agreement; none contradict nor controvert the other because they are all given by the same Mind of Inspiration, the Holy Ghost. See 1Cor 14:33, 36, 37; Isa 8:20; 1Jo 4:6; 2Thess 3:14; Lk 24:27; 1Tim 6:1-5; Joh 7:17;

Act 15:16

Act 15:16, 17 - After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up: That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things. - See Am 9:11, 12

Act 15:17 - upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord - See Rom 10:13; Act 2:21; Gen 4:26

Act 15:18

Act 15:18 - Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world - God knows all things, especially the things He has wrought from the foundation of the world. God knows His own - Whom He has chosen and will respond to His offer for salvation - See Eph 1:3-10, 2:10

Act 15:19

Act 15:19 - Wherefore my sentence is - In this instance Jam seems to have been chosen as the one to announce the decision arrived at by the council. It was his sentence that the ceremonial law, and especially the ordinance of circumcision, should not be urged upon the Gentiles, or even recommended to them. Jam sought to impress the minds of his brethren with the fact that, in turning to God, the Gentiles had made a great change in their lives and that much caution should be used not to trouble them with perplexing and doubtful questions of minor importance, lest they be discouraged in following Christ. - {AA 195.1} See Gal 2:9

Act 15:20

Act 15:20 - But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood - the proposal of James was in harmony with the gospel of Jesus Christ and the oracles He revealed to Israel, intended to be taught to all the world, to promote health and hygiene. The counsel shows that the aspects of the Law of Moses dealing with health, hygiene, and social order still remain as godly counsels to ensure the well being of the saints. - See Gal 2:9, 10; 1Thess 4:2, 3

Act 15:21

Act 15:21 -For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day - Speaking of the troublers of the saints, James states that there are synagogues in every city where Moses is preached so that those who trouble the Gentile converts to Christianity should go to those synagogues to hear the Law of Moses, and stop harassing the Church of Jesus Christ.

Act 15:22

Act 15:22 - Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren - In wisdom, the apostles and elders sent others from Jerusalem with Paul and Barnabas to deliver the message determined by the council so that none will say that Paul and Barnabas forged the commands. See Act 15:25

Act 15:22

Act 15:23 - Barsabas - Barsabâs Noun Masculine bar-sab-as' of Aramaic origin (01247) and probably (06634) of Chaldee origin (1247 and probably); son of Sabas (or Tsaba); Bar-sabas, the name of two Israelites:--Barsabas. Barsabas = "son of Sabas"

Act 15:24

Act 15:24 - Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment: - See Gal 2:4

Act 15:24

Act 15:24 - that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words - The Jews were notorious for being rabble rousers, stirring up tumults, seeking to cause confusion and to set the masses against the brethren. See Act 13:45, 50-52, 14:1-6, 18-20, 15:1, 5, 1Thess 2:14-16

Act 15:24

Act 15:24 - Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment - See 1Cor 7:17-20; Act 15:1, 5; Gal 5:1-12

Act 15:25

Act 15:24 - being assembled with one accord - coming together with one purpose and mind, to address the issue facing the church of Jesus Christ. The necessity for prayer and beseeching the Holy Spirit for guidance is what would enable the council to come together on one accord. See Act 1:13, 14, 15:28

Act 15:28

Act 15:28 - For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost - Holy men of God spoke and wrote as they were moved by the Spirit of Jesus Christ. See 2Pet 1:20, 22

Act 15:29

Act 15:29 - That ye abstain from meats offered to idols - Paul, a Jew, recognizes that a pagan idol is nothing but an object made of wood or stone (1Cor 8:4-6; Rom 14:14), and yet, he did not want to offend any Jew or Gentile convert that felt strongly against foods offered to pagan idols. Therefore, the recommendation was that all Christians abstain from foods offered to idols in order to prevent offending those with delicate sensibilities or to cause them to eat in sin, eating those things offered to idols while their consciences were offended. Thereby, in one's abstinence they have favor with God and man. See Rom 14:14-22

Act 15:29

Act 15:29 - from blood - Again, the Gentiles were accustomed to eat the flesh of animals that had been strangled, while the Jews had been divinely instructed that when beasts were killed for food, particular care was to be taken that the blood should flow from the body; otherwise the meat would not be regarded as wholesome. God had given these injunctions to the Jews for the purpose of preserving their health. The Jews regarded it as sinful to use blood as an article of diet. They held that the blood was the life, and that the shedding of blood was in consequence of sin. - {AA 191.3} The Gentiles, on the contrary, practiced catching the blood that flowed from the sacrificial victim and using it in the preparation of food. The Jews could not believe that they ought to change the customs they had adopted under the special direction of God. Therefore, as things then stood, if Jew and Gentile should attempt to eat at the same table, the former would be shocked and outraged by the latter. - {AA 192.1}

Act 15:29

Act 15:29 - from fornication - The Gentiles, and especially the Greeks, were extremely licentious, and there was danger that some, unconverted in heart, would make a profession of faith without renouncing their evil practices. The Jewish Christians could not tolerate the immorality that was not even regarded as criminal by the heathen. The Jews therefore held it as highly proper that circumcision and the observance of the ceremonial law should be enjoined on the Gentile converts as a test of their sincerity and devotion. This, they believed, would prevent the addition to the church of those who, adopting the faith without true conversion of heart, might afterward bring reproach upon the cause by immorality and excess. - {AA 192.2}

Act 15:32

Act 15:32 - And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them - Judas and Silas, given the gift of prophecy, spoke and exhorted the Gentile converts in Antioch with the blessed news of salvation by grace through faith of Jesus Christ. See Jude 1:1

Act 15:34

Act 15:34 - Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still - though from Judea, Silas had the missionary spirit and sought to remain in Antioch to continue the work of Jesus Christ in that area. See Act 15:22

Act 15:36

Act 15:36 - Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached - The apostle Paul felt a deep responsibility for those converted under his labors. Above all things, he longed that they should be faithful, "that I may rejoice in the day of Christ," he said, "that I have not run in vain, neither labored in vain." Phil 2:16. He trembled for the result of his ministry. He felt that even his own salvation might be imperiled if he should fail of fulfilling his duty and the church should fail of co-operating with him in the work of saving souls. He knew that preaching alone would not suffice to educate the believers to hold forth the word of life. He knew that line upon line, precept upon precept, here a little and there a little, they must be taught to advance in the work of Christ. - {AA 206.1}

Act 15:37

Act 15:37 - And Barnabas determined to take with them Joh, whose surname was Mark - Barnabas, the brother of consolation and peace maker wanted to give Joh Mark, his nephew, another opportunity to prove his faith by accompanying him and Paul to the various churches they had established. See Col 4:10

Act 15:38

Act 15:38 - But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work - Paul obviously held a grudge against Joh Mark for having "abandoned" he and Barnabas previously in their work.

Act 15:38 - who departed from them from Pamphylia - See Act 13:13 Barnabas was ready to go with Paul, but wished to take with them Mk, who had again decided to devote himself to the ministry. To this Paul objected. He “thought not good to take ... with them” one who during their first missionary journey had left them in a time of need. He was not inclined to excuse Mk’s weakness in deserting the work for the safety and comforts of home. He urged that one with so little stamina was unfitted for a work requiring patience, self-denial, bravery, devotion, faith, and a willingness to sacrifice, if need be, even life itself. So sharp was the contention that Paul and Barnabas separated, the latter following out his convictions and taking Mk with him. “So Barnabas took Mk, and sailed unto Cyprus; and Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.” - {AA 202.1}

Act 15:39 - And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus - the disagreement between brethren was so sharp that they parted ways for a time, not in hostility towards one another and their respective work but so that the work could continue even more broadly. God doeth all things well! See Amos 3:3

Act 15:40

Act 15:40 - And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God - Silas was elected by the brethren and the Holy Spirit to accompany Paul in his mission and ministry in encouraging the saints. see Act 15:36

Act 15:41

Act 15:41 - And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches - Paul and Silas worked together well, encouraging, exhorting and teaching the churches in Syria and Cilicia in the “common salvation” as determined by the Jerusalem council and the Holy Spirit. See Act 15:23, 25, 28; Jude 1:3

Act 16:1

Act 16:1 - Derbe and Lystra - south by southwest of Cilicia and Tarsus

Act 16:1

Act 16:1 - a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek - Paul and Silas meet Timothy in his home town of Derbe/Lystra. See 2Tim 1:5

Act 16:2

Act 16:2 - which was well reported of by the brethren - Here Paul again met Timothy, who had witnessed his sufferings at the close of his first visit to Lystra and upon whose mind the impression then made had deepened with the passing of time until he was convinced that it was his duty to give himself fully to the work of the ministry. His heart was knit with the heart of Paul, and he longed to share the apostle’s labors by assisting as the way might open. - {AA 202.3} Silas, Paul’s companion in labor, was a tried worker, gifted with the spirit of prophecy; but the work to be done was so great that there was need of training more laborers for active service. In Timothy Paul saw one who appreciated the sacredness of the work of a minister; who was not appalled at the prospect of suffering and persecution; and who was willing to be taught. Yet the apostle did not venture to take the responsibility of giving Timothy, an untried youth, a training in the gospel ministry, without first fully satisfying himself in regard to his character and his past life. - {AA 203.1}

Act 16:3

Act 16:3 - and took and circumcised him because of the Jews - Despite the Jerusalem Council's decree that no burden be placed on any Gentile proselyte regarding circumcision, Paul saw it fit to do so for Timothy, who he purposed to use in ministry among the Jews. This same act was not performed on Titus, a Gentile, whose ministry in Antioch would be primarily towards the Gentiles. See Act 15:1-6, 8-10, 24; Gal 2:3 As a precautionary measure, Paul wisely advised Timothy to be circumcised—not that God required it, but in order to remove from the minds of the Jews that which might be an objection to Timothy's ministration. In his work Paul was to journey from city to city, in many lands, and often he would have opportunity to preach Christ in Jewish synagogues, as well as in other places of assembly. If it should be known that one of his companions in labor was uncircumcised, his work might be greatly hindered by the prejudice and bigotry of the Jews. Everywhere the apostle met determined opposition and severe persecution. He desired to bring to his Jewish brethren, as well as to the Gentiles, a knowledge of the gospel, and therefore he sought, so far as was consistent with the faith, to remove every pretext for opposition. Yet while he conceded this much to Jewish prejudice, he believed and taught circumcision or uncircumcision to be nothing and the gospel of Christ everything. - {AA 204.1}

Act 16:4

Act 16:4 - they delivered the the decrees for to keep - See Act 15:19-29

Act 16:5

Act 16:5 - And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily - See Act 2:41, 4:4, 6:7, 11:20, 21, 24

Act 16:6

Act 16:6 - and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia - Though we are commanded to go in all the world and preach the gospel, we must do it at the impulse of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is to our guide in directing us where the soil has been prepared for His work. We are not to go where we have not been directed to go because we place ourselves in the way of unnecessary harm; we may do harm to the work that God purposes for that territory, but not at that time. This disproves the fanatical Catalytic Christian movement and fervor. See Mk 16:15; Lk 9:5; Act 13:51, Act 16:7 Contrast: Lk 8:26-40

Act 16:7

Act 16:7 - but the Spirit suffered them not - the Holy Spirit would not permit the disciples to enter Asia nor to preach in Mysia. The Holy Spirit must work the soil of the hearts first and then He sends His ambassadors to sow and water that He may bring the increase. It is not enough to pray the Lord of the Harvest for laborers, but to send those laborers where the harvest is most ready for harvest. See Mt 9:37, 38

Act 16:9

Act 16:9 - And a vision appeared to Paul in the night - night vision versus open vision. See 1Sam 3:1

Act 16:9

Act 16:9 - There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us - the Holy Spirit revealed to Paul where he should continue his ministry because the soil was ready for tending.

Act 16:10

Act 16:10 - immediately we endeavored to go into Macedonia - Unlike Jonah, Paul did not falter but departed immediately for Macedonia with Lk, Timothy and Silas. The author of the book of Act, Lk, states "immediately we endeavored to go into Macedonia". Up to this point, Lk was describing the experience of others as spoken to him. He now includes himself in the narrative as an active participant and first hand observer of the accounts. The call was imperative, admitting of no delay. "After he had seen the vision," declares Lk, who accompanied Paul and Silas and Timothy on the journey across to Europe, "immediately we endeavored to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them. Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis; and from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony." - {AA 211.2}

Act 16:12

Act 16:12 - And from thence to Philippi - the Philippian church is to be established through this expedition, Lydia and her household (of Thyatira) being among the first to be converted. See Act 16:14, 15

Act 16:13

Act 16:13 - And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither. - See Act 13:42-44

Act 16:14

Act 16:14 - And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul - The Holy Spirit directed Paul and the brethren to a riverside where Lydia, a worshipper of God was made known the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Act 16:14

Act 16:14 - of the city of Thyatira - Lydia may have been one of the early founders and members of the church of Thyatira. See Rev 2:18

Act 16:15

Act 16:15 - And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us - Lydia informed her household and they all were baptized. She then extended Christian hospitality in having them stay in her home. See Act 2:41-46

Act 16:16

Act 16:16 - And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying - the heathen city was the site of witchcraft and divination.

Act 16:16

Act 16:16 - a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination - the damsel was filled with the spirit of demons and she herself was being "prostituted" by men who profited from her, themselves being taken in a hold by Satan.

Act 16:16

Act 16:16 - which brought her masters much gain - her masters were of the occult, practicing dark arts.

Act 16:16

Act 16:16 - See Simon the sorcerer coveted the miraculous power from the Holy Spirit but for selfish and prideful gain. See Act 8:9-24; Isa 8:19, 20

Act 16:16

Act 16:16 - See Simon the sorcerer coveted the miraculous power from the Holy Spirit but for selfish and prideful gain. See Act 8:9-24; Isa 8:19, 20

Act 16:17

Act 16:17 - The same followed Paul and us - The working of the Holy Spirit is counterfeited today by foolish outbursts and jesting such that they bring reproach upon the Holy Spirit and His works and purposes of drawing hearts to Jesus Christ. Great reproach has been cast upon the work of the Holy Spirit by the errors of a class that, claiming its enlightenment, profess to have no further need of guidance from the word of God. They are governed by impressions which they regard as the voice of God in the soul. But the spirit that controls them is not the Spirit of God. This following of impressions, to the neglect of the Scriptures, can lead only to confusion, to deception and ruin. It serves only to further the designs of the evil one. Since the ministry of the Holy Spirit is of vital importance to the church of Christ, it is one of the devices of Satan, through the errors of extremists and fanatics, to cast contempt upon the work of the Spirit and cause the people of God to neglect this source of strength which our Lord Himself has provided. - {GC vii.4} The demons know who is on the Lords side and who is not. See Act 19:13-16 This woman was a special agent of Satan and had brought to her masters much gain by soothsaying. Her influence had helped to strengthen idolatry. Satan knew that his kingdom was being invaded, and he resorted to this means of opposing the work of God, hoping to mingle his sophistry with the truths taught by those who were proclaiming the gospel message. The words of recommendation uttered by this woman were an injury to the cause of truth, distracting the minds of the people from the teachings of the apostles and bringing disrepute upon the gospel, and by them many were led to believe that the men who spoke with the Spirit and power of God were actuated by the same spirit as this emissary of Satan. - {AA 212.3}

Act 16:18

Act 16:18 - And this did she many days - the works of Satan were being made manifest and the Apostles, moved by the Holy Spirit, purposed to put an end to Satan's work.

Act 16:18

Act 16:18 - being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her - Mk 1:25 - The devils were speaking truth through the girl regarding Paul, however, it was in the wrong spirit. God does not need the devil to be His pitch man and advocate. One can say the right things with the wrong spirit working within (seeking selfish gain, self-glorification, etc.). Therefore Jesus told the devils to be silent. See

Mk 1:23-25

Act 16:18

Act 16:16 - And this did she many days - Paul did not act in his own strength, calling upon the Spirit at will or as he saw fit, rather, Paul was moved upon by the Holy Spirit to cast out the evil spirit and to set the woman free. See Lk 10:19

Act 16:19

Act 16:19 - And when her masters saw that the ope of their gains was gone - Many others in the city were interested in gaining money through satanic delusions, and these, fearing the influence of a power that could so effectually stop their work, raised a mighty cry against the servants of God. They brought the apostles before the magistrates with the charge: "These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, and teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Rom." - {AA 213.2}

Act 16:20

Act 16:20 - And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city - This is an example of the world persecuting the people of God. This is nothing to compare to the apostate church, the synagogue of Satan, persecuting the church of God and bringing them to magistrates. See Joh 16:1-3

Act 16:21

Act 16:21 - And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Rom - the accusers of Paul and Silas made no distinction between Jew and Christian in their accusations. They merely stated that Rom (polytheists) ought not partake, receive, or observe the customs promoted by the apostles.

Act 16:22

Act 16:22 - And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them - this is the first reported flogging of Paul and Silas, there in Philippi.

Act 16:24

Act 16:24 - Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks - The jail or obviously was rough and unsympathetic towards Paul and Silas who where judged, tried, and sentenced, all by the angry mob.

Act 16:25

Act 16:25 - And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God - See Eph 5:19; Col 3:16 Song is a weapon we can always use against discouragement (FLB 273.5) Like God's servants of old, many were "tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection." Verse 35. These called to mind the words of their Master, that when persecuted for Christ's sake, they were to be exceeding glad, for great would be their reward in heaven; for so the prophets had been persecuted before them. They rejoiced that they were accounted worthy to suffer for the truth, and songs of triumph ascended from the midst of crackling flames. Looking upward by faith, they saw Christ and angels leaning over the battlements of heaven, gazing upon them with the deepest interest and regarding their steadfastness with approval. A voice came down to them from the throne of God: "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life." Revelation 2:10. - {GC 41.2}

Act 16:26

Act 16:26 - And suddenly there was a great earthquake - But while men were cruel and vindictive, or criminally negligent of the solemn responsibilities devolving upon them, God had not forgotten to be gracious to His servants. All heaven was interested in the men who were suffering for Christ's sake, and angels were sent to visit the prison. At their tread the earth trembled. The heavily bolted prison doors were thrown open; the chains and fetters fell from the hands and feet of the prisoners; and a bright light flooded the prison. - {AA 215.1}

Act 16:26

Act 16:26 - and every one's bands were loosed - See Act 12:7; Hymn #198 - And Can it Be? (verse 3)

Act 16:27

Act 16:27 - And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled - the keeper of the prison thought the prisoners had all escaped and that he would be subject to capital punishment. He therefore sought to kill himself. See Mt 28:11-15; Act 12:19

Act 16:28

Act 16:28 - But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here - the very ones the jailer a few hours prior mistreated, now appeal to him not to do himself any harm.

Act 16:29

Act 16:29 - Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas - the conduct and demeanor of Paul and Silas, though reviled, remained joyful, singing hymns of prays, was not without effect. It left an impression upon the minds of all, especially the jailer so that he would enquire what he must do to be saved. See Act 2:37, 38

Act 16:30

Act 16:30 - what must I do to be saved? - The jailer had trembled as he beheld the wrath of God manifested in the earthquake; when he thought that the prisoners had escaped he had been ready to die by his own hand; but now all these things seemed of little consequence compared with the new, strange dread that agitated his mind, and his desire to possess the tranquillity and cheerfulness shown by the apostles under suffering and abuse. He saw in their countenances the light of heaven; he knew that God had interposed in a miraculous manner to save their lives; and with peculiar force the words of the spirit-possessed woman came to his mind: "These men are the servants of the most high God, which show unto us the way of salvation." - {AA 216.3}

Act 16:31

Act 16:31 - And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house - See Act 2:37, 38, 4:10-12

Act 16:33

Act 16:33 - And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway - an impression had been made unto salvation and thus the jailer and his household were baptized that same night. See Act 8:35-39, 10:44-48

Act 16:35

Act 16:35 - And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go - the Holy Spirit moved upon the magistrates to do His servants no more harm, but to release them, and to send them on their way.

Act 16:36

Act 16:36 - The magistrates have sent to let you go - Meanwhile the magistrates returned to their homes, congratulating themselves that by prompt and decisive measures they had quelled a tumult. But on the way they heard further particulars concerning the character and work of the men they had sentenced to scourging and imprisonment. They saw the woman who had been freed from satanic influence and were struck by the change in her countenance and demeanor. In the past she had caused the city much trouble; now she was quiet and peaceable. As they realized that in all probability they had visited upon two innocent men the rigorous penalty of the Roman law they were indignant with themselves and decided that in the morning they would command that the apostles be privately released and escorted from the city, beyond the danger of violence from the mob. - {AA 214.2} The citizens of Philippi had been greatly terrified by the earthquake, and when in the morning the officers of the prison told the magistrates of what had occurred during the night, they were alarmed and sent the sergeants to liberate the apostles. But Paul declared, "They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Rom, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out." - {AA 217.2}

Act 16:37

Act 16:35 - They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Rom, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out - if one has been wronged openly, it is only appropriate that they be given an open apology.

Act 16:38

Act 16:38 - And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Rom - to ill-treat or chastise a Roman citizen without due process was itself a crime for which the magistrates now feared.

Act 16:40

Act 16:40 - And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed - Paul and Silas sought to encourage Lydia, her family and the new converts that Jesus would be their defense against the prejudice of the Rom.

Act 17:1

Act 17:1 - Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: - the author, Lk, no longer speaks in the first person plural, suggesting he may not have taken part in this journey to Thessalonica with Paul, Timothy and Silas. See Act 17:14

Act 17:2

Act 17:2 - And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures - Paul made it a custom to visit the Jews on the Sabbaths, expounding the Scriptures and minister to them the gospel of Jesus Christ. See Lk 4:16; Act 13:5, 14, 17:10

Act 17:3

Act 17:3 - Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ - See Act 1:15-17; Isa 53; Ps 16:10; Act 2:22-32

Act 17:4

Act 17:3 - consorted - united, joined with

Act 17:4

Act 17:4 - and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few - many Greeks received and believed the gospel of Jesus Christ, among whom were influential women - See Act 2:41, 4:4, 5:14, 10:44-48, 11:20, 21, 24, 12:24, 16:5, 17:12

Act 17:5

Act 17:5 - But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people - The Jews were notorious for being rabble rousers, stirring up tumults, seeking to cause confusion and to set the masses against the brethren. They were not ashamed to unite with "certain lewd fellows of the baser sort", themselves being equally as debased. See Act 13:45, 50-52, 14:1-6, 18-20, 15:1, 5, 17:13, 21:27, 18:12, 13; 1Thess 2:14-16

Act 17:7

Act 17:7 - and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar - See Joh 16:1-3, 19:15. The Jews which believed not" were "moved with envy." These Jews were not then in favor with the Roman power, because, not long before, they had raised an insurrection in Rome. They were looked upon with suspicion, and their liberty was in a measure restricted. They now saw an opportunity to take advantage of circumstances to re-establish themselves in favor and at the same time to throw reproach upon the apostles and the converts to Christianity. - {AA 229.3} This they set about doing by uniting with "certain lewd fellows of the baser sort," by which means they succeeded in setting "all the city on an uproar." In the hope of finding the apostles, they "assaulted the house of Jason;" but they could find neither Paul nor Silas. And "when they found them not," the mob in their mad disappointment "drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also; whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus." - {AA 229.4}

Act 17:10

Act 17:10 - And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews - See Act 17:2, 18:19

Act 17:11

Act 17:11 - These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so - See Act 17:1, 2, 5; 1Thess 5:19-21; 2Tim 2:7 The minds of the Bereans were not narrowed by prejudice. They were willing to investigate the truthfulness of the doctrines preached by the apostles. They studied the Bible, not from curiosity, but in order that they might learn what had been written concerning the promised Messiah. Daily they searched the inspired records, and as they compared scripture with scripture, heavenly angels were beside them, enlightening their minds and impressing their hearts. Wherever the truths of the gospel are proclaimed, those who honestly desire to do right are led to a diligent searching of the Scriptures. {Act of the Apostles Chpt 23, pg 231.1-2} Many souls were charmed with the light shining forth from the Word of God. Some points were presented which were not in accordance with the manner in which our brethren had interpreted the two laws, and they seemed to deplore greatly that this, to them, inharmonious note should be struck, because it created strong feelings of opposition, for the ideas were not in accordance with their former views of the two laws. - {1888 825.1} There was among some a spirit manifested in reference to the investigation of this controverted question that was not after God's order. If we have held as truth some points in doctrine that will not bear close criticism and investigation it is our duty—without revealing the spirit that the churches manifested, which was so unlike Christ, patiently to come to the Word of God in an humble, prayerful, inquiring mind. Then we need to be changed in spirit, to be converted. The truth will lose nothing of its force or beauty or power through research, testing every point which we have considered as truth, if we preserve the meekness of Christ in our research. The Word of God will be found a treasure-house full of precious gems. We may draw from this storehouse very much more than we have done, and may be made wise unto salvation. - {1888 825.2}

Act 17:11

Act 17:11 - they received the word with all readiness - the Bereans hungered and thirsted for righteousness and were willing to entertain the preaching/teaching of God's Word. They had a teachable spirit, yet, they were dutiful to prove all things, holding on to that which was good. See 1Thess 5:21; Prov 14:15 When first constrained to separate from the English Church, the Puritans had joined themselves together by a solemn covenant, as the Lord's free people, "to walk together in all His ways made known or to be made known to them."—J. Brown, The Pilgrim Fathers, page 74. Here was the true spirit of reform, the vital principle of Protestantism. It was with this purpose that the Pilgrims departed from Holland to find a home in the New World. Joh Robinson, their pastor, who was providentially prevented from accompanying them, in his farewell address to the exiles said: - {GC 291.3} "Brethren, we are now erelong to part asunder, and the Lord knoweth whether I shall live ever to see your faces more. But whether the Lord hath appointed it or not, I charge you before God and His blessed angels to follow me no farther than I have followed Christ. If God should reveal anything to you by any other instrument of His, be as ready to receive it as ever you were to receive any truth of my ministry; for I am very confident the Lord hath more truth and light yet to break forth out of His holy word."—Martyn 5:70. - {GC 291.4}

Act 17:11 - and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so - the Bereans diligently sought in Scripture to confirm the teachings of those sent to them. They pleased God. See Heb 11:6 "Remember your church covenant, in which you have agreed to walk in all the ways of the Lord, made or to be made known unto you. Remember your promise and covenant with God and with one another, to receive whatever light and truth shall be made known to you from His written word; but withal, take heed, I beseech you, what you receive for truth, and compare it and weigh it with other scriptures of truth before you accept it; for it is not possible the Christian world should come so lately out of such thick antichristian darkness, and that full perfection of knowledge should break forth at once.”—Martyn, vol. 5, pp. 70, 71. - {GC 292.2} Essentials for the Christian Life: Daily Bible Study - Act 17:11 Daily Prayer - 1Thess 5:17 Daily Meditation upon God’s Word - Ps 119:97 Many souls were charmed with the light shining forth from the Word of God. Some points were presented which were not in accordance with the manner in which our brethren had interpreted the two laws, and they seemed to deplore greatly that this, to them, inharmonious note should be struck, because it created strong feelings of opposition, for the ideas were not in accordance with their former views of the two laws. - {1888 825.1} There was among some a spirit manifested in reference to the investigation of this controverted question that was not after God’s order. Act 17:12

Act 17:12 - Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few - See Act 2:41, 4:4, 5:14, 10:44-48, 11:20, 21, 24, 12:24, 16:5, 17:4

Act 17:13

Act 17:13 - But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people - See Mt 23:13; Ps 81:15 Rom 1:30; Act 13:45, 50-52, 14:1-6, 18-20, 15:1, 5, 17:5, 21:27

Act 17:15

Act 17:15 - And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed - See Act 18:5

Act 17:16

Act 17:16 - Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry - Paul felt the same anxiety to minister to those lost sheep of Christ, wholly given to idolatry - See Mt 9:36, 37

Act 17:16

Act 17:16 - wholly given to idolatry - By the Babylonish captivity the Israelites were effectually cured of the worship of graven images. After their return, they gave much attention to religious instruction and to the study of that which had been written in the book of the law and in the prophets concerning the worship of the true God. {PK 705.1}

Act 17:17

Act 17:17 - disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews - See Act 13:5, 14, 17:2, 10 He "disputed ... in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him." But his principal work in Athens was to bear the tidings of salvation to those who had no intelligent conception of God and of His purpose in behalf of the fallen race. The apostle was soon to meet paganism in its most subtle, alluring form. - {AA 234.4}

Act 17:18

Act 17:18 - then certain philosophers - the two groups of philosophers mentioned present two extremes in thought, just as the Scribes and Pharisees represented two different polar opinions that warred against the knowledge of Christ. Though so called, educated, heathen philosophers were those with debased or non-existent morals, creating a barrier to virtue and religion: 1. They accounted revenge to be not only lawful, but commendable 2. Pride and the love of popular applause were esteemed the best and greatest incentives to virtue and noble actions 3. Suicide was regarded as the strongest mark of heroism, and the perpetrators of it, instead of being branded with infamy, were commended and celebrated as men of noble minds. 4. Plato taught the expediency and lawfulness of exposing children in particular cases 5. Aristotle taught the expediency and lawfulness of abortion 6. They taught that a lie was to be preferred to the truth itself

Act 17:18

Act 17:18 - Epicureans - followers of Greek philosopher Epicurus who denied the idea of divine intervention and thus the gospel. Epicurus also promoted the idea that if it feels good, do it, including sodomy and incest.

Act 17:18

Act 17:18 - Stoicks - Hellenistic philosophers that felt that wise men should be unaffected by emotion (joy and grief) and submissive by natural law. Those in submission to natural law call fable the possibility of divinity and divine intervention. They too were practitioners and advocates of sodomy and incest.

Act 17:18

Act 17:18 - What will this babbling say - looking upon Paul with haughty content, the philosophers speak of him so.

Act 17:19

Act 17:19 - Areopagus - A sovereign tribunal at Athens, famous for the justice and impartiality of its decisions. It was originally held on a hill in the city; but afterward removed to the Royal Portico, an open square, where the judges sat in the open air, inclosed by a cord. Their sessions were in the night, that they might not be diverted by objects of sight, or influenced by the presence and action of the speakers. By a law of Solon, no person could be a member of this tribunal, until he had been archon or chief magistrate. This court took cognizance of high crimes, impiety and immorality, and watched over the laws and the public treasury. See Act 17:34

Act 17:20

Act 17:20 - For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean. - Exodus 12:38: And the mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, even very much cattle. - {PH048 38.1} Numbers 11:4: And the mixed multitude that was among them fell a lusting; and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat. - {PH048 38.2} Nehemiah 13:3: Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude. - {PH048 38.3} There is a class of people who are always ready to go off on some tangent, who want to catch up something strange and wonderful and new; but God would have all move calmly, considerately, choosing our words in harmony with the solid truth for this time, which requires to be presented to the mind as free from that which is emotional as possible, while still bearing the intensity and solemnity that it is proper it should bear. We must guard against creating extremes, guard against encouraging those who would either be in the fire or in the water.—Special Testimonies on Education, 222. - {PH048 38.4} Acts 17:20-23: For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean. (For all the Athenians and strangers which are there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.) Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' Hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription To the Unknown God. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you. - {PH048 38.5}

Act 17:21 - For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing - See 2Tim 3:7

Act 17:22

Act 17:22 - Then Paul stood in the midst of Mar's hill - They accordingly conducted him to Mars' Hill. This was one of the most sacred spots in all Athens, and its recollections and associations were such as to cause it to be regarded with a superstitious reverence that in the minds of some amounted to dread. It was in this place that matters connected with religion were often carefully considered by men who acted as final judges on all the more important moral as well as civil questions. - {AA 236.2} Here, away from the noise and bustle of crowded thoroughfares, and the tumult of promiscuous discussion, the apostle could be heard without interruption. Around him gathered poets, artists, and philosophers—the scholars and sages of Athens, who thus addressed him: “May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is? for thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know thereof what these things mean.” - {AA 236.3}

Act 17:22

Act 17:22 - too superstitious - the statement as reinterpreted in the NKJV Bible reads "too religious". This is INCORRECT! Paul's stern rebuke to the pagans becomes a lofty commendation. Why the change? Constantine's vision for a one world religion was one of compromise, a blending of Christianity with paganism, which caused many superstitions to be supplanted into early Catholicism. This Catholic Bible footnote on Act 17:22 elaborates, "the speech reflects sympathy with pagan religiosity, handles the subject of idol-worship gently, and appeals for a new examination of divinity, not from the standpoint of creation but from the standpoint of judgment." (New American Bible, copyright 1970, Catholic Book Publishing Company, New York). The Two Babylons by Alexander Hislop is an excellent book detailing the historical blending of paganism and Christianity resulting in modern Roman Catholicism. This quote from a Masonic source will help one to see the bigger picture, "The better to succeed and win partisans, the Templars [Catholic] sympathized with regrets for dethroned creeds and encouraged the hopes of new worships, promising to all liberty of conscience and a new orthodoxy that should be the synthesis of all the persecuted creeds." (Albert Pyke, Morals and Dogma, chapter 30, p. 818). This NKJV change gives the long awaited "Protestant" endorsement of paganism and credence to the ecumenical agenda.

Act 17:23

Act 17:23 - TO THE UNKNOWN GOD - this is the highest shrine that the natural mind can raise to the evidence of divine power one clearly observes in nature and in the celestial skies. See Ps 19:1-4; Isa 44:18

Act 17:23

Act 17:23 - Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, Him declare I unto you - Paul's words contain a treasure of knowledge for the church. He was in a position where he might easily have said that which would have irritated his proud listeners and brought himself into difficulty. Had his oration been a direct attack upon their gods and the great men of the city, he would have been in danger of meeting the fate of Socrates. But with a tact born of divine love, he carefully drew their minds away from heathen deities, by revealing to them the true God, who was to them unknown. - {AA 241.1}

Act 17:24

Act 17:24 - God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands - Jesus, like Paul, attempted to show His disciples this fact, that God does not dwell in temples as the earth itself is too big to contain Him. Yet, He seeks to dwell in our hearts, which is the temple of the Holy Spirit. See Act 7:48; Isa 66:1; Heb 10:5; Col 1:16

Act 17:25

Act 17:25 - seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things - See Act 17:28; Col 1:17

Act 17:26

Act 17:26 - And hath made of one blood all nations of men - we all have a common ancestry and are all interrelated through the common blood of Adam. See Gen 3:20; Mal 2:10; Act 10:34

Act 17:26

Act 17:26 - and hath determined the times before appointed - God has determined the time and circumstances of each or our lives. God has foreordained our salvation but has granted us choice to live our lives as we so choose. See Job 14:5 The nations come into existence and exist with probationary time, giving them the opportunity to know God and His righteousness. Nineveh is one example of this where God declared their probationary time would end within 40 days and then the city would be destroyed as spoken by the prophet Jonah. When a nation fails to recognize God at the end of their probationary time, their purpose of existence has ended and they would do no more good in existing than to bring more hardship and reproach upon themselves. God then sees fit to remove the nation. See Gen 15:16; Dan 4:17 "When the fullness of the time was come, God sent forth His Son." Providence had directed the movements of nations, and the tide of human impulse and influence, until the world was ripe for the coming of the Deliverer. The nations were united under one government. One language was widely spoken, and was everywhere recognized as the language of literature. From all lands the Jews of the dispersion gathered to Jerusalem to the annual feasts. As these returned to the places of their sojourn, they could spread throughout the world the tidings of the Messiah's coming. - {DA 32.2}

Act 17:26

Act 17:26 - the bounds of their habitation - God foreknew when and where we will all live as well as how long we will live - See Job 14:5

Act 17:27

Act 17:27 - if haply they might feel after him - if by chance they should seek after God, and find Him. God desires to make Himself known to all men but we must respond to His overtures to be known.

Act 17:27

Act 17:27 - though he be not far from every one of us - See Jer 23:23

Act 17:28

Act 17:28 - For in him we live, and move, and have our being - See John 15:4, 5; Col 1:16, 17; Joh 1:3, 4; Heb 1:3; Ps 22:29

Act 17:28

Act 17:28 - as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring - See Rom 8:17

Act 17:29

Act 17:29 - Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God - See Rom 8:17; 1Jo 3:2

Act 17:29

Act 17:29 - we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device - See Isa 44:9-20

Act 17:30

Act 17:30 - And the times of this ignorance God winked - God is long suffering and winks at our ignorance. He does all to reveal truth to us, to reveal the futility of our own ways and our need for Him. See Act 14:16, 17; Rom 5:13; Lev 4; Num 15:22-29

Act 17:30

Act 17:30 - but now commandeth all men everywhere to repent - the apostolic mission cry to the world is here given. See Rom 2:4; Rev 3:18, 19, 14:6, 7

Act 17:31

Act 17:31 - he hath appointed a day - the word day here speaks of an indefinite period of time when judgment will commence.

Act 17:31

Act 17:32 - in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man who He hath ordained - Jesus is not our condemning Judge, but a Judge who brings Deliverance from sin. Consider the Book of Judges which chronicles the COI persistent sin, them falling into the hands of an oppressor, and the Lord raising up a judge to deliver the COI. As long as the judge was alive, the COI walked with the Lord. When the judge died, the COI reverted to their sins. See Mal 3:5; Rom 9:28; Joh 5:26, 27; Rev 20:12 Malachi 3:1-5: Jesus will come to us through the agency of the Holy Spirit to prepare us during the last days, through judgment, to meet Him at His second coming. The hour of God's Judgment is to prepare a people to meet Jesus in peace so that we do not experience His executive judgment at the very end. See (Rev 14:6; 7). The preparation involved in the judgment consists of: 1. The conviction of sin, righteousness and judgement - Joh 16:8-11 2. Our response of zealous repentance - Rev 3:18, 19; 2Cor 7:10, 11; Act 3:19 3. Jesus' continual work of purification and refining - 4. Judging and casting out (binding-up) the prince of this world from the lives of Jesus' people - Joh 12:31, Eph 2:2; Heb 2:14, 15, 9:26; Mt 12:28, 29; Lk 11:21, 22; Joh 14:30 5. Sealing His people in the Sabbath rest they have found in Him - their decision to follow Him wherever He leads for eternity - Heb 4:1-3, 9-11;

Act 17:31

Act 17:31 - whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead - the blessed assurance that we have is our own redemption through faith of Jesus Christ. The resurrection of Jesus guarantees our own resurrection. See Rom 6:5, 8, 9

Act 17:32

Act 17:32 - some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter - Among those who listened to the words of Paul were some to whose minds the truths presented brought conviction, but they would not humble themselves to acknowledge God and to accept the plan of salvation. No eloquence of words, no force of argument, can convert the sinner. The power of God alone can apply the truth to the heart. He who persistently turns from this power cannot be reached. The Greeks sought after wisdom, yet the message of the cross was to them foolishness because they valued their own wisdom more highly than the wisdom that comes from above. - {AA 239.3} In their pride of intellect and human wisdom may be found the reason why the gospel message met with comparatively little success among the Athenians. The worldly-wise men who come to Christ as poor lost sinners, will become wise unto salvation; but those who come as distinguished men, extolling their own wisdom, will fail of receiving the light and knowledge that He alone can give. - {AA 240.1}

Act 17:34

Act 17:34 - Dionysius the Areopagite - Dionysius was a highly regarded chief and elder among the people, belonging to the Areopagus. This shows that the gospel of Jesus Christ is intended to reach all men, regardless of status, title or position. See Act 17:19

Act 18:1

Act 18:1 - After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth - The LORD had a great work for Paul, Silas and Timothy in Corinth. They would remain in that city for 1.5yrs preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ. See Act 18:9-11

Act 18:2

Act 18:2 - because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome - Emperor Claudius caused all the Jews to leave Rome and seek abode elsewhere.

Act 18:3

Act 18:3 - And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers - there were times that the apostle engaged in his trade of tent making in order to support himself so that he was not a burden on the saints and to further his ministry. See 1Thess 2:6; 2Cor 11:8, 9; 1Cor 16:17; Phil 4:19

Act 18:9 - Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace - See Ps 81:10; 2Tim 4:2; CONTRAST: Act 16:6

Act 18:9

Act 18:9 - Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace - See Eph 6:19

Act 18:10

Act 18:10 - For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee - See Ex 33:14;

Act 18:10

Act 18:10 - for I have much people in this city - the harvest was plentiful in Corinth and the Lord would work with the apostles so that none would be missing from His flock. Mt 9:37, 38; Lk 10:2; Joh 4:35-38, 10:16; Isa 49:6; Rev 18:4

Act 18:12

Act 18:12 - And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat - The Jews were notorious for being rabble rousers, stirring up tumults, seeking to cause confusion and to set the masses against the brethren. They were not ashamed to unite with "certain lewd fellows of the baser sort", themselves being equally as debased - See Act 13:45, 50-52, 14:1-6, 18-20, 15:1, 5, 17:5, 13, 19:9, 21:27, 30; 1Thess 2:14-16; Rom 15:30, 31

Act 18:13

Act 18:13 - Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law - the Jews brought an accusation against Paul to a Gentile governor, Galileo, stating he perverted the Law of God. Galileo would have nothing to do with this matter and dismissed them. See Act 18:14, 15; Joh 19:7, 8; Lk 23:2-5

Act 18:14

Act 18:14 - And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you - God allowed Gallio to see the spirit that actuated the hateful Jews. Thus, God caused the intended judge, Gallio, to come to the defense of the accused, Paul, by saying the accusations were outside of his jurisdiction; he would not try a matter of religion in his secular court.

Act 18:15

Act 18:15 - But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters - The secular deputy would not weigh in on matters of religion as the Jews were demanding of him. This is the correct upholding of secular law according to Scripture. See Joh 18:29-31; Act 23:28, 29

Act 18:16

Act 18:16 - And he drave them from the judgment seat - Gallio read the envy, pride, and wicked spirit in the Jews and would not take part in their schemes. COMPARE - Joh 18:29-33; Mt 27:17, 18

Act 18:17

Act 18:17 - Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things - The Lord brought swift justice upon the workers of iniquity that imagine a vain thing against the church and the Lord's Anointed. See Ps 7:16, 2:1

Act 18:18

Act 18:18 - And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow - in accordance with the vow, Paul shaved his head. See Act 19:

Act 18:19

Act 18:19 - but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews - See Act 13:5, 14, 17:1, 2, 10, 18:19

Act 18:21

Act 18:21 - but I will return again unto you, if God will - See Jam 4:15

Act 18:24

Act 18:23 - and mighty in the scriptures - the same comment was made of Stephen, a faithful servant of the LORD. See Act 6:9, 10

Act 18:25

Act 18:25 - This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of Joh - See Lk 3:3; Act 19:1-7

Act 18:25

Act 18:25 - knowing only the baptism of Joh - See Lk 3:

Act 18:26

Act 18:26 - And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly - Aquila and Priscilla acted discretely in instructing Apollos in the light of Jesus Christ. We are to do the same in correcting others so as not to embarrass or undermine their ministry.

Act 18:28

Act 18:28 - For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ - See Act 18:5, 19

Act 19:1

Act 19:1 - Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus - See Rev 2:1-7

Act 19:2

Act 19:2 - He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost - See Joh 1:26, 33, 7:38, 39; Act 2:38, 39, 5:32, 8:17 Col 2:12 explicitly states that the "new birth" experience is a work of God in Jesus' name that we must pray for and enter into by faith. As illustrated by the blowing winds of whose work we know not, in John 3:1-8, God performs an "operation" on us in giving us a new heart, mind and motivations - Jeremiah 31:31-34. This all happens through the baptism of the Holy Spirit . Consider Lk 1:35 - "And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God."

Act 19:2

Act 19:2 - And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost - See Act 1:8; John 14:16-18

Act 19:3

Act 19:3 - And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto Joh's baptism - See Lk 3:3; Act 18:24, 25

Act 19:3

Act 19:3 - John's baptism - John's baptism was unto repentance for sin. John did not baptize in the name of Jesus Christ, the True Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world. See Lk 3:3; Act 18:24, 25

Act 19:4

Act 19:4 - Then said Paul, Joh verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. - See Lk 3:3; Act 18:24-28

Act 19:4

Act 19:4 - that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus - See Lk 3:16, 17

Act 19:6

Act 19:6 - And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied - See Act 8:17, 18; 1Tim 4:14

Act 19:8

Act 19:8 - And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God - See Act 18:5, 19

Act 19:8

Act 19:8 - disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God - See Lk 17:20, 21; Joh 7:38, 39;

Act 19:9

Act 19:9 - But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude - Some Jews hardened their hearts and resisted the pleading of the Holy Spirit. These same caused the multitude to turn against Paul and the converted disciples. See Act 7:51, 13:45-47, 50-52, 14:1-6, 18-20, 15:1, 5, 17:5, 13, 19:9, 21:27; 1Thess 2:14-16; Rom 15:30, 31

Act 19:9

Act 19:10 - he departed from them, and separated the disciples - Paul made sure to separate and secure the recently baptized 12 disciples who he baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

Act 19:10

Act 19:10 - And this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks - Paul spoke and reasoned with both Jews and Greek alike regarding the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the Kingdom of God such that the gospel spread throughout Asia - See John 12:20, 32

Act 19:11

Act 19:11 - And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul: 12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them - See Mk 16:17, 18; Joh 14:12; Act 5:12-15

Act 19:12

Act 19:13 - So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them - See Act 5:12-15

Act 19:13

Act 19:13 - Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth - There is power in the name of Jesus, however, that power is actuated by those who walk in the Spirit of Truth, who have a living faith in Him (1Cor 2:12-14). See Act 3:16; Ps 50:16||Lk 10:19 Contrast Mk 9:38-40

Act 19:13

Act 19:13 - vagabond - A vagrant; one who wanders from town to town or place to place, having no certain dwelling, or not abiding in it.

Act 19:13

Act 19:13 - took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus - these vagabonds presumptuously thought themselves exorcists and sought to cast out demons in the name of Jesus Christ, though they knew Him not.

Act 19:14

Act 19:14 - And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so - the vagabond Jews, sons of Sceva, did not acknowledge God for themselves but sought to tap into His power like Simon, for selfish gain. See Act 8:17-24

Act 19:15

Act 19:15 - And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye? - the demons know us better than we know ourselves. They study us and know who is on the Lord's side and who is not. See Act 16:17

Act 19:16

Act 19:16 - And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded - those possessed by evil spirits are known to exhibit super-human strength.

Act 19:16

Act 19:16 - and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded - one man, possessed of a devil, overcame and prevailed against seven men, beating them up and causing them to flee disrobed. See Mk 5:9

Act 19:17

Act 19:17 - And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified - See Act 5:1-11

Act 19:17

Act 19:17 - and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified - See John 12:28

Act 19:18

Act 19:18 - And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds - as the Holy Spirit was poured out, He wrought wonderful

Act 19:19

Act 19:19 - Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver - those who once practiced witchcraft and were convicted of the gospel, brought their books to be burned, forsaking the way of darkness for light. See Ex 22:18, Deut 18:10; Lev 20:27

Act 19:21

Act 19:21 - Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem - See Act 20:16; 21:

Act 19:22

Act 19:22 - So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season - See Act 16:9

Act 19:23

Act 19:23 - And the same time there arose no small stir about that way - a contention arose about the Christian faith among the Gentiles.

Act 19:24

Act 19:24 - For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen - When the gospel hits peoples pockets adversely, all bets are off and it becomes a topic of reproach. See 2Tim 4:14

Act 19:25

Act 19:25 - Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth - Paul was undermining the business of those making idols, turning people from these vanities and instructing them in the Way of Truth and Life. See Isa 44:9-20

Act 19:27

Act 19:27 - So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought - the craftsmen were fearful that they would lose their craft and income. These men worshipped mammon over God and His Truths. See Mt 6:24; Lk 16:13

Act 19:27

Act 19:27 - but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth - the world was given over to idolatry and these men, deceived of the enemy, sought to keep the world in ignorance of the True and Living God.

Act 19:29

Act 19:29 - And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre - See Act 13:45, 50-52, 14:1-6, 18-20, 15:1, 5, 17:13, 21:27, 18:12, 13; 1Thess 2:14-16

Act 19:29

Act 19:30 - Gaius - Gaius was of Derbe. See Act 20:4

Act 19:29

Act 19:29 - Aristarchus - Aristarchus was of Thessalonica See Act 20:4

Act 19:30

Act 19:30 - And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not - the mob, motivated by Satan, would have put an end to the Apostle of Christ, cutting short a greater work the Lord purposed for him. Therefore, the Lord restrained Paul from the danger.

Act 19:32

Act 19:32 - Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together - this was a satanic scene, where people knew not the cause of their uprising, only that it was an occasion to revolt. The enemy is the author of confusion. Contrast 1Cor 14:33, 26, 40

Act 19:34

Act 19:34 - But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians - this was a Gentile revolt where they disdained both Jew and Christian alike.

Act 19:35

Act 19:34 - Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter? - the Greeks were steeped in mythology.

Act 19:37

Act 19:36, 37 - For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess. 38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another - See Act 18:14-16

Act 19:38

Act 19:38 - Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another - the town clerk moved with reason and called for the people to settle down lest they resort to violence and the Rom come and put a violent halt to the uprising (v40). The town clerk called for Demetrius and the other idol makers to abandon the mob justice and revert to the rule of law and bring any grievances before the magistrates for their review.

Act 20:1

Act 20:1 - Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia - Paul gathered the disciples of Jesus Christ who followed Paul, even as he followed Christ. See 1Cor 11:1; 1Pet 5:1-4

Act 20:3

Act 20:3 - And when the Jews laid wait for him - the bloodthirsty Jews sought to put an end to the ministry of Paul. See Act 23:21

Act 20:6

Act 20:6 - And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days - Lk, the author of the book of Act, apparently accompanied Paul on this leg of the journey.

Act 20:6

Act 20:6 - after the days of unleavened bread - Paul, a Jew by heritage, sought to become all things to all people so that he might win the more for Christ. Paul plainly stated that those who were convicted of keeping the ceremonial days should do so for conscience sake, but he also made room for those who did not feel obligated to keep these days not to do so.

Act 20:7

Act 20:7 - And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread - some would assert that this was a gathering on Sunday for worship, suggesting the seventh day Sabbath had been replaced for Sunday. This however, would be a mistake, as it was customary among the saints to gather daily for prayer, fellowship, breaking of bread and the study of God's word. See Act 2:44-47

Act 20:7

Act 20:7 - when the disciples came together to break bread - an apparent gathering at a home church where the breaking of bread and study from God's Word was held. See Act 20:20

Act 20:7

Act 20:7 - ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight - Paul wanted to equip the saints with all that he felt they needed, seeing he would not see them again.

Act 20:8

Act 20:8 - And there were many lights in the upper chamber - the upper room was brightly lit and so Eutychus must have been truly tired physically, emotionally, spiritually, financially.

Act 20:9

Act 20:9 - Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft - though Eutychus was in the church, he was among the brethren, he fell asleep and took a fall.

Act 20:10

Act 20:10 - Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him - the minister is to love and care for those he has ministered to, falling down upon them and embracing them when they have taken a fall.

Act 20:10

Act 20:10 - Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him - Paul had the mind of Christ where he had seen and knew the power of God. Paul prayed that the Lord would turn the tragic situation to rejoicing so that all would behold the power and majesty of God. This was the same mind of Christ that healed the sick and raised the dead. See Mk 5:39

Act 20:10

Act 20:10 - his life is in him - even though Eutychus had fallen, there was still life in him. As long as there is life, there is hope!

Act 20:11

Act 20:11 - When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed - the Lord provided a miracle in the healing of Eutychus to encourage the believers in Troas and so that they might see Paul and the disciples of Christ who followed Paul, as He followed Christ, off joyfully and in peace. See

Act 20:12

Act 20:12 - And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted - The Lord performed a miracle of deliverance in Eutychus that brought great joy to all the body of Christ.

Act 20:13

Act 20:13 - And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot - such travel would have been prohibited on the Sabbath because it would have been considered work. See Mt 24:20; Lk 24:13

Act 20:16

Act 20:16 - for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost - Paul desired to be gathered with the saints in Jerusalem for a high day, Pentecost. See Act 19:21

Act 20:18

Act 20:18 - And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons - Paul's conduct had been above reproach. See 2Tim 3:10; 1Cor 4:14-16; Phil 4:9

Act 20:19

Act 20:19 - Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews - Paul was constantly persecuted and sought to be killed of the Jews - See Act 20:3; Rom 8:36, 37; 2Cor 7:5

Act 20:21

Act 20:21 - repentance toward God - See Rom 2:1-4

Act 20:21

Act 20:21 - and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ - See Act 15:11, 16:31; Rom 10:9

Act 20:22

Act 20:22 - And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there - Paul felt compelled of the Holy Spirit to journey to Jerusalem. See Mt 4:1; Gen 12:1-3;

Act 20:23

Act 20:23 - the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me - the Holy Spirit continued to reveal to Paul that he was to be mistreated and bound with his sojourn to Jerusalem - See Act 21:10

Act 20:24

Act 20:24 - But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God - See Lk 14:26, 27, 33

Act 20:24

Act 20:24 - so that I might finish my course with joy - See 2Tim 4:7, 8

Act 20:25

Act 20:25 - And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more - See Act 20:37, 38

Act 20:26

Act 20:26, 27 - I am pure from the blood of all men for I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God - Paul, as a faithful watchman, declared all the counsels of the Lord given him and withheld nothing - See Eze 3:17-21; 2Pet 1:12; 2Cor 7:1, 2

Act 20:28

Act 20:28 - Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood - See Act Jer 3:15; Mt 13:52; 2Tim 4:2; 1Pet 5:2; CONTRAST Jer 12:10, 11, 23:1, 2; Eze 22:25-29, 34:3, 10, 15; Isa 56:10

Act 20:28

Act 20:28 - to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood - See 1Cor 6:20; 1Pet 1:18, 19; John 6:51;

Act 20:29

Act 20:29 - For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock - those who come after the death of the apostles will be as thieves, seeking to kill, steal, and destroy - See Act 15:1, 5, 22-29; Mt 7:15; John 10:10; Jer 12:10, 11, 23:1, 2; Eze 22:25-29, 34:3, 10, 15; Isa 56:10

Act 20:30

Act 20:30 - Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them - Paul affirms that the apostasy would arise from within the body of Christ. An enemy who has sown tares, will bring forth a wretched harvest to try to choke out the faithful. See Mt 13:25-28

Act 20:30

Act 20:30 - speaking perverse things - those things which are not according to the Law and the Testimonies (Isa 8:20); A new gospel which is no gospel at all (Gal 1:8, 9); that which can not be proven by sound doctrine (1Thess 5:21). See Act 15:1, 5; 2Pet 2:1-4

Act 20:30

Act 20:30 - to draw away disciples after them - See

Act 20:32

Act 20:32 - I commend you to God - See Rom 5:8

Act 20:32

Act 20:32 - the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and give you an inheritance among them that are sanctified - See Joh 17:17; 2Cor 5:19; Jam 1:21

Act 20:32

Act 20:32 - give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified - See Act 26:18; 2Thess 2:13

Act 20:33

Act 20:33 - I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel - See 1Pet 5:2; Tit 1:7; 1Tim 3:3,

8; 1Sam 8:3

Act 20:34

Act 20:34 - Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me - Though Paul was entitled to the accommodations and financial support of them to which he labored and served, he did all within his power to support himself so that the means of the people would go further in spreading the gospel. See Mt 10:10; 1Cor 9:4-13; 2Cor 11:8, 9

Act 20:35

Act 20:35 - I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive - A minister is to do all that is possible, not to be a burden on others, but to work with his own hands to support the weak and the needy when possible.

Act 20:35

Act 20:35 - It is more blessed to give than to receive - See Prov 22:9; Lk 6:38

Act 20:38

Act 20:38 - Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more - See Act 20:25

Act 21:1

Act 21:1 - Rhodes - Rhodes (/roʊdz/ (listen); Greek: Ρόδος, romanized: Ródos [ˈroðos]) is the largest of the Dodecanese islands of Greece and is their historical capital; it is the ninth largest island in the overall Mediterranean Sea.

Act 21:1

Act 21:1 - Patara - Patara was an ancient and flourishing maritime and commercial city, capital of Lycia, on the south-west coast of Turkey near the modern small town of Gelemiş, in Antalya Province.

Act 21:4

Act 21:4 - And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem - Among the disciples were prophets who spoke on behalf of the Spirit of God, warning Paul of the perils that would befall him in Jerusalem. They therefore, of themselves, warned Paul and cautioned him not to go to Jerusalem but to avoid the persecution, imprisonment and possible martyrdom.

Act 21:4

Act 21:4 - who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem - See Rom 15:31; Act 21:11, 12

Act 21:5

Act 21:5 - till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed - the saints in Tyre prayed with Paul for his safety against the Jews in Judea who would seek his life. See Rom 15:31

Act 21:8

Act 21:8 - And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Caesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him - Philip was perhaps one of the seven who accompanied Paul on his journeys?

Act 21:9

Act 21:9 - And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy - Philip the evangelists had 4 daughters who were filled with the Holy Spirit like, Sister White and Huldah, and thus prophesied. See 2Kin 22:14-20; The Holy Spirit, outside of the writing of the Holy Canon contained in the Old and New Testaments, continued to speak through revelation, counsel, warnings to others with whom He would impart the prophetic gift. Act 13:1, 21:9, 10; 1Cor 12:28

Act 21:10

Act 21:10 - a certain prophet, named Agabus - In harmony with the word of God, His Spirit was to continue its work throughout the period of the gospel dispensation. During the ages while the Scriptures of both the Old and the New Testament were being given, the Holy Spirit did not cease to communicate light to individual minds, apart from the revelations to be embodied in the Sacred Canon. The Bible itself relates how, through the Holy Spirit, men received warning, reproof, counsel, and instruction, in matters in no way relating to the giving of the Scriptures. And mention is made of prophets in different ages, of whose utterances nothing is recorded. In like manner, after the close of the canon of the Scripture, the Holy Spirit was still to continue its work, to enlighten, warn, and comfort the children of God. - {GC viii.1}

Act 21:11

Act 21:11 - And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles - See Act 20:19-23, 21:4; Rom 15:31

Act 21:12

Act 21:12 - And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem - See Act 21:4

Act 21:14

Act 21:14 - The will of the Lord be done - See Jam 4:13-15

Act 21:18

Act 21:18 - And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present - Paul and his cohorts sought the apostle James, with whom all the elders were present. James, again, appears to be one given preeminence among the apostles, more so than Peter. See Act 15:13-22

Act 21:19

Act 21:19 - And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry - Paul spoke of God's providence in gaining inroads with the Gentiles. He also showed their unity in faith as he presented their gifts of charity to assist the church in Jerusalem that was under great persecution. Paul was burdened to prove himself a worthy apostle to the leadership in Jerusalem who had in the past put him away as a trouble maker. See Act 9:26-31, 11:25; Rom 15:25, 26

Act 21:20 - And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews - This was the golden opportunity for all the leading brethren to confess frankly that God had wrought through Paul, and that at times they had erred in permitting the reports of his enemies to arouse their jealousy and prejudice. But instead of uniting in an effort to do justice to the one who had been injured, they gave him counsel which showed that they still cherished a feeling that Paul should be held largely responsible for the existing prejudice. They did not stand nobly in his defense, endeavoring to show the disaffected ones where they were wrong, but sought to effect a compromise by counseling him to pursue a course which in their opinion would remove all cause for misapprehension. - {AA 403.1}; See James 5:16 The Saviour's words of reproof to the men of Nazareth applied, in the case of Paul, not only to the unbelieving Jews, but to his own brethren in the faith. Had the leaders in the church fully surrendered their feeling of bitterness toward the apostle, and accepted him as one specially called of God to bear the gospel to the Gentiles, the Lord would have spared him to them. God had not ordained that Paul's labors should so soon end, but He did not work a miracle to counteract the train of circumstances to which the course of the leaders in the church at Jerusalem had given rise. - {AA 417.2}

Act 21:20

Act 21:18 - Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law - there were many thousand of Jewish converts, however, they still sought to establish their own righteousness, upholding and enforcing the Jewish laws and customs. This was a perversion of the faith which Jesus, Paul, and the other apostles taught. See Act 15:1, 5; Gal 1:1-6, 5:1-12

Act 21:21

Act 21:21 - And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs - the cowardly and biased members of the Jerusalem Council, rather than acknowledging the God ordained works of Paul and affirming that which they previously consented to regarding the conduct of the Gentile converts (Act 15:1, 5, 13-22; Gal 5:1-12), suggested Paul bore fault in the Jews' criticism of Paul's ministry and works to convert the Jews (Rom 14). This is reminiscent of Aaron's cowardice in not standing for the right when pressured to make an idol for the people to worship. Further, certain council leaders showed their prejudice in favor of the Jewish converts, their un-Christian love of Jewish traditions and customs, that in actuality all find their fulfillment in Jesus Christ (Rom 10:4).

Act 21:22

Act 21:22 - What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come - once the hoards of Jews heard of Paul's arrival, they would seek his condemnation for teaching Jewish converts that they need not circumcise their children. See Gal 5:1-12

Act 21:23

Act 21:23 - Do therefore this that we say to thee - The brethren hoped that Paul, by following the course suggested, might give a decisive contradiction to the false reports concerning him. They assured him that the decision of the former council concerning the Gentile converts and the ceremonial law, still held good. But the advice now given was not consistent with that decision. The Spirit of God did not prompt this instruction; it was the fruit of cowardice. The leaders of the church in Jerusalem knew that by non-conformity to the ceremonial law, Christians would bring upon themselves the hatred of the Jews and expose themselves to persecution. The Sanhedrin was doing its utmost to hinder the progress of the gospel. Men were chosen by this body to follow up the apostles, especially Paul, and in every possible way to oppose their work. Should the believers in Christ be condemned before the Sanhedrin as breakers of the law, they would suffer swift and severe punishment as apostates from the Jewish faith. - {AA 404.1}

Act 21:24

Act 21:24 - Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law - Paul was being encouraged by the Jewish leadership of the Christian faith to perform a sacrificial service that would violate and nullify his faith in the completed works of Jesus Christ upon the cross. This act of cowardice on behalf of the church leadership was not sanctioned by God. God would prevent Paul from fulfilling this wrong act and deliver him from bringing a reproach upon himself in the faith.

Act 21:25

Act 21:25 - As touching the Gentiles which believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication - the words and sentiments of some within the Jerusalem Council showed duplicity. As they had already given specific instruction regarding the conduct of the Gentile converts (Act 15:13-29), their request that Paul perform this act of humiliation gives the impression that Paul was in err, and more should be required of the Gentile converts, namely, that they adhere to the Laws of Moses. Many of the Jews who had accepted the gospel still cherished a regard for the ceremonial law and were only too willing to make unwise concessions, hoping thus to gain the confidence of their countrymen, to remove their prejudice, and to win them to faith in Christ as the world's Redeemer. Paul realized that so long as many of the leading members of the church at Jerusalem should continue to cherish prejudice against him, they would work constantly to counteract his influence. He felt that if by any reasonable concession he could win them to the truth he would remove a great obstacle to the success of the gospel in other places. But he was not authorized of God to concede as much as they asked. {AA 405.1}

Act 21:26

Act 21:26 - Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them - Paul was unnecessarily placed in harms way, being asked to go into the temple of the Jews to purify himself, as if he had committed err in ministering the gospel to the Gentiles. This resulted in his apprehension, his need to appeal to Caesar and ultimately his death.

Act 21:26

Act 21:26 - until that an offering should be offered for every one of them - the last act of the ceremonial purification would be to offer an offering to the Lord for remission of sins committed. This however, would be a curse to Paul and the converts with him, who taught and believed that if they uphold the Jewish traditions and renounce the teachings of Christ, establishing another gospel, they would no longer have a Savior and would be accursed. God therefore, raised the insurrection so that Paul and his cohorts would not make a grievous sin against their souls. See Gal 1:6-8, 5:1-12

Act 21:27

Act 21:27 - And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him - See Act 17:13

Act 21:28

Act 21:28 - This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place - the Jews' hatred for the Christians and especially one like Paul, a champion of Christianity that ministered and placed the Gentiles on equal footing with the Jews, could be appeased only by his death. As Jesus stated, His disciples will be accused and charged just as He was accused and charged. See Col 2:16, 17; Rom 15:18; 1Cor 7:18-20; Mt 26:59-62

Act 21:28

Act 21:28, 29 - and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place - the false accusation of Paul taking a Gentile into the temple was added to the charge of teaching heresy to excite the prejudice, hatred and wrath of the Jews.

Act 21:29

Act 21:29 - whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple - the blood thirsty Jews were always seeking a cause, in their self-righteous religious zeal to put a soul to death for blasphemy or some other offense towards God. See Joh 10:1-3

Act 21:30

Act 21:30 - And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut - In customary form, the Jews as rabble rousers united to inflict mob justice upon Paul. See Act 13:45, 50-52, 14:1-6, 18-20, 15:1, 5, 17:5, 13, 19:9, 21:27, 30; 1Thess 2:14-16; Rom 15:30, 31 The Saviour's words of reproof to the men of Nazareth applied, in the case of Paul, not only to the unbelieving Jews, but to his own brethren in the faith. Had the leaders in the church fully surrendered their feeling of bitterness toward the apostle, and accepted him as one specially called of God to bear the gospel to the Gentiles, the Lord would have spared him to them. God had not ordained that Paul's labors should so soon end, but He did not work a miracle to counteract the train of circumstances to which the course of the leaders in the church at Jerusalem had given rise. - {AA 417.2}

Act 21:37

Act 21:37 - Canst thou speak Greek? - Greek remained the popular language, though Rome ruled. Paul was a highly educated, well traveled man who could preach the gospel to a wide audience of people.

Act 21:38

Act 21:38 - Art not thou that Egyptian - Paul appeared as an Egyptian to the Rom, giving some indication of his ethnic profile. See Ex 2:16-19; Gen 50:11

Act 21:39

Act 21:39 - But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people - See Act 9:30

Act 21:40

Act 21:40 - And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying - See Act 7:2

Act 22:1

Act 22:1 - Men, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defense - Paul, like Stephen, gives his defense of his faith and his works for the cause of Christ. See Act 7:2

Act 22:3

Act 22:3 - I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia - See Act 21:39; 9:30

Act 22:3

Act 22:3 - at the feet of Gamaliel - See Act 5:34

Act 22:3

Act 22:3 - and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day - See Rom 10:2

Act 22:4

Act 22:4 - And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women - See Act 8:1, 3

Act 22:5

Act 22:5 - As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished - See Act 9:1, 2

Act 22:6

Act 22:6 - And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me - See Act 9:3

Act 22:7

Act 22:7 - And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? - See Act 9:4, 5

Act 22:8

Act 22:8 - And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest - The Jews had no problem with hearing of Paul's conversion, even the miraculous revelation of Jesus to Paul. See Act 9:5

Act 22:9

Act 22:9 - And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me - See Dan 10:7, 8; Act 9:7

Act 22:10

Act 22:10 - And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do - See Act 9:6

Act 22:11

Act 22:11 - And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus - Paul was blinded by the presence and glory of Jesus. Jesus veiled His full glory, lest it consume Paul. See Heb 12:29; 2Thess 2:8

Act 22:12

Act 22:12 - And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there - See Act 9:10-16

Act 22:13

Act 22:13 - Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him - See Act 9:12, 17

Act 22:14

Act 22:14 - And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth - See Act 9:11, 12, 15, 16

Act 22:15

Act 22:15 - For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard - See Act 9:16

Act 22:16

Act 22:16 - And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord - See Act 9:18; Jam 5:20; Rev 1:5

Act 22:18

Act 22:18 - Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning Me - Paul speaks of his trip to Jerusalem after his conversion, when the Greeks wanted to kill him and the Jerusalem Council sent him back home to Tarsus. See Act 9:30

Act 22:20

Act 22:20 - And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him - See Act 7:1-8:1

Act 22:21

Act 22:21 - for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles - Hitherto the people had listened with close attention, but when Paul reached the point in his history where he was appointed Christ's ambassador to the Gentiles, their fury broke forth anew. Accustomed to looking upon themselves as the only people favored by God, they were unwilling to permit the despised Gentiles to share the privileges which had hitherto been regarded as exclusively their own. Lifting their voices above the voice of the speaker, they cried, "Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live." - {AA 409.3}

Act 22:22

Act 22:22 - And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live - Paul's testimony before the Jews was without reproach until he spoke of being given to bring salvation to the Gentiles. The Jew's prejudice would not permit them to see salvation for any man but for themselves, and therefore the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Good News of God, given to the Jews to give to the world became a mystery to the world. Eph 3:1-9; Rom 15:8-19

Act 22:22

Act 22:22 - Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live - the prejudice of the Jews ran deep and was for generations. See Act 21:36; Jonah 36-4:1, 10, 11

Act 22:23

Act 22:23 - And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air - the Jew's false piety and zeal for God is laughable.

Act 22:24

Act 22:24 - The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him - the Roman Captain purposed to beat Paul with whips to get a confession from him of his guilt

Act 22:25

Act 22:25 - And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned? - Paul never requested protection or justice as a Roman citizen when dealing with the the Jews, who scourged him on three occasions. Rather, Paul relied upon the Lord to be his defense. However, when the Rom sought to break their own laws an scourge Paul, a Roman citizen, he spoke up against the injustice.

Act 22:30

Act 22:30 - On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them - As a Roman citizen, Paul had inalienable rights that were to be respected. The chief of the guards thus besought the Jews to inquire what charges they made against him before he could be chained or charged.

Act 23:1

Act 23:1 - I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day - Paul attest that according to conscience, he has lived honestly before God until that day. As a Pharisee, he persecuted the Church of Christ in ignorance. But when the light of truth came to him, he did not harden his heart and resist as other Pharisees, Ananias, the former High Priest included. Thus could Paul rightly say that according to conscience, he lived honestly before God. The apostle was now to be tried by the same tribunal of which he himself had been a member before his conversion. As he stood before the Jewish rulers, his bearing was calm, and his countenance revealed the peace of Christ. "Earnestly beholding the council," he said, "Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day." Upon hearing these words, their hatred was kindled afresh; "and the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth." At this inhuman command, Paul exclaimed, "God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?" "They that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?" With his usual courtesy Paul answered, "I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people. - {AA 410.4}

Act 23:2

Act 23:2 - And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth - Ananias knew Paul well as he was once a devout Pharisee and commissioned to persecute all who had converted to Christianity.

Act 23:3

Act 23:3 - thou whited wall - a white walled sepulcher, full of dead men's bones is what Jesus labeled the Pharisees. See Mt 23:27, 28

Act 23:3

Act 23:3 - for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law? - No charges had been brought to Paul, and yet Ananias commanded that Paul be struck in offense. See Joh 7:50, 51

Act 23:5

Act 23:5 - Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest - Paul says "I supposed not that he was high priest."

Act 23:5

Act 23:5 - wist - to imagine, suppose, deem

Act 23:6

Act 23:6 - But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. - the Holy Spirit inspired and prompted Paul to cause a distraction by having the opposing sides contend with one another. This clever move gained sympathy from the scribes who were Pharisees towards Paul, while simultaneously creating a wedge of division against those of the Sadducees. See Act 23:7, 9

Act 23:6 - of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question - The Holy Spirit directed Paul to make the question of the resurrection of the dead the matter by which he was presented to the gathering. This was the perfect distraction for the impassioned crowd of Jewish leaders. See 1Thess 4:14-18

Act 23:8

Act 23:8 - For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both - See Lk 20:27; Mk 12:18; 1Cor 15:12-14

Act 23:8

Act 23:8 - neither angel, nor spirit - the Pharisees deny the existence of Satan and his host of evil angels that war against the saints. Therefore, they too, must ascribe all the evil in the world to God or something that is beyond God's control.

Act 23:9

Act 23:9 - but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God - the counsel given by Gamaliel regarding persecuting the Christian believers was here repeated with respect to Paul by the Pharisees. See Act 5:34-39, 9:5

Act 23:10

Act 23:10 - And when there arose a great dissension - Just as with the Tower of Babel, the LORD confounded the schemes of the wicked. See Gen 11:7-9

Act 23:11

Act 23:11 - And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome. - From this time forward until having arrived at Rome, Paul walked with complete confidence, assured of God's promise.

Act 23:11

Act 23:11 - Be of good cheer, Paul - See Josh 1:6, 7

Act 23:11

Act 23:11 - for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome - The assurance of the LORD bolstered Paul's faith such that nothing, height, nor depth, nor distress upon land or by sea or delay would cause him to loose hope in the LORD and his mission. See Lk 12:11, 12; Rev 3:5; Heb 6:17, 18; Act 24:27, 27:1, 23, 24

Act 23:12

Act 23:12 - bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul - See Rom 10:2, 3; Joh 16:1-3; Ps 59:3

Act 23:12

Act 23:12 - saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul - this vain oath to do evil was an abomination unto the Lord. See Judges 11:29-40

Act 23:13

Act 23:13 - And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy - See Ps 2:1

Act 23:14

Act 23:14 - We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul - See Isa 58:4

Act 23:16

Act 23:16 - And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul - Paul's nephew heard of the conspiracy to kill Paul and stopped at nothing to inform the prison guards of the Jews' intentions.

Act 23:21

Act 23:21 - But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee - these forty Jewish men who bounded themselves by an oath to kill Paul had a zeal for God but not according to righteous knowledge. They sought to honor God by doing the very things He forbade them from doing, taking innocent life. See Act 20:3; Rom 10:1, 2; Joh 16:1-3; Ps 59:3

Act 23:23

Act 23:23 - And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night - the Lord provided an escort of 470 armed soldiers to take Paul safely to Felix, the governor in Caesarea. See Ps 34:7

Act 23:23

Act 23:23 - at the third hour of the night - 9PM

Act 23:26

Act 23:26 - Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting - The chief captain of the Roman Guards in Jerusalem wrote to the Governor, Felix in Caesarea, to house and protect Paul from the unjust wrath of the Jews. Felix would, unfortunately, not acting nobely, appease the Jews by keeping Paul confined unjustly for more than two years.

Act 23:29

Act 23:29 - Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds - Like Jesus, Paul was accused and bound by accusations not worthy of either death nor the bonds to which he was confined. See Joh 19:4; Act 18:8-16, 25:7, 26:31, 32

Act 23:30

Act 23:30 - And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man - See Act 23:16-22

Act 23:31

Act 23:31 - Antipatris - Antipatris /æn' tɪpətrɪs/ (Hebrew: אַנְטִיפַטְרִיס, Ancient Greek: Ἀντιπατρίς)[2] was a city built during the first century BC by Herod the Great, who named it in honour of his father, Antipater. The site, now a national park in central Israel, was inhabited from the Chalcolithic Period to the late Roman Period.[3] The remains of Antipatris are known today as Tel Afek (תל אפק), although formerly as Kūlat Râs el 'Ain. It has been identified as either the tower of Aphek mentioned by Josephus,[4] or the biblical Aphek, best known from the story of the Battle of Aphek. During the Crusader Period the site was known as Surdi fontes, "Silent springs". The Ottoman fortress known as Binar Bashi or Ras al-Ayn was built there in the 16th century.

Act 24:1

Act 24:1 - And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul - Nothing new under the sun. Just as Paul was brought before magistrates and accused by church officials, so too, Martin Luther was brought before Emperor Charles V and accused by the papal legate, Alexander and orator, Ick. See GC 145.1-163.2. - Luther Before the Diet

Act 24:2

Act 24:2 - And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence - Like the orator Eck who spoke denunciations against Martin Luther, Tertullus came to accuse Paul. He used glowing words to flatter Felix and win his support and sympathies against Paul.

Act 24:3

Act 24:3 - We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness - Tertullus here descended to barefaced falsehood; for the character of Felix was base and contemptible. It was said of him, that "in the practice of all kinds of lust and cruelty, he exercised the power of a king with the temper of a slave." —Tacitus, History, ch. 5, par. 9. Those who heard Tertullus knew that his flattering words were untrue, but their desire to secure the condemnation of Paul was stronger than their love of truth. - {AA 419.2} See Act 24:26, 27

Act 24:4

Act 24:4 - clemency - mildness, softness of temper

Act 24:5

Act 24:5 - For we have found this man a pestilent fellow -

Act 24:5

Act 24:5 - and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world - The accusation, from a Jews' perspective, is true. However, Paul was merely seeking to bring the Jews, who were in darkness, to the Light of Truth in Jesus Christ.

Act 24:5

Act 24:5 - sedition - A factious commotion of the people, a tumultuous assembly of men rising in opposition to law or the administration of justice, and in disturbance of the public peace.

Act 24:5

Act 24:3 - and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes - the Christian Church was referred by many names including: 1. "The Way" - 2. "The sect of the Nazarenes" Act 24:3 3. "The disciples of Jesus"

Act 24:6

Act 24:6 - Who also hath gone about to profane the temple - this was a fabricated lie that the Jews conveniently propagated to condemn Paul. See Act 21:28, 29

Act 24:6

Act 24:6 - whom we took, and would have judged according to our law - See Act 23:28, 29, 18:8-16

Act 24:7

Act 24:7 - But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands - Tertullus changes the account to make it seem as if Lysias was the hostile aggressor when in fact the Jews were towards Paul. See Act 21:31-36

Act 24:8

Act 24:8 - Commanding his accusers to come unto thee - See Act 23:30

Act 24:8

Act 24:8 - by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him - Tertullus' claim contradicted that which captain Claudius Lysius wrote to Felix. See Act 23:29, 25:7

Act 24:9

Act 24:9 - And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so - See Act 24:1, 2, 26:9, 10

Act 24:10

Act 24:10 - Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself - Paul would give his own defense as he was comfortable addressing Felix as one who was well versed in the Jewish customs and had observed and judged them for many years.

Act 24:11

Act 24:11 - Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship - Paul states that he had been in Jerusalem for 12 days alone to worship and during that time never once had they seen him committing any acts of sedition or rabble rousing.

Act 24:11

Act 24:11 - I went up to Jerusalem for to worship - See Act 24:17

Act 24:12

Act 24:12 - And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city: - Paul contends with the accusation that he was a rabble rouser and one who sought to stir contention among the Jews.

Act 24:13

Act 24:13 - Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me - See Act 25:7, 23:29, 26:31

Act 24:14

Act 24:14 - But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets - Paul shows that his faith in Christ is not a doing away of the Old Testament, but is based on the Scriptures and the counsels of the patriarchs of old. As the model to the papists, the Jews persecuted the followers of Christ, calling them heretics and condemning them to death. The devil's tactics do not change. See GC 107.1-109.3

Act 24:15

Act 24:15 - And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow - Paul was using this opportunity to testify to Felix and the Jews, Jesus Christ and His power to save and resurrect the dead. See John 11:25, 17:3; 1Jo 5:11-13

Act 24:15

Act 24:15 - that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust - See Joh 5:24, 25, 28, 29

Act 24:15

Act 24:15 - of the just - See 1Thess 4:14-18

Act 24:15

Act 24:15 - and unjust - See Rev 20:5-9

Act 24:16

Act 24:16 - And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men - Paul commits himself to acting in a manner that would not bring offense to God nor man - See Rom 12:18; Heb 12:14; 1Tim 3:9; 1Pet 3:16

Act 24:17

Act 24:17 - Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings - not since the Jerusalem council, when he and Barnabas brought the matter of circumcision of the Gentiles before the council, had Paul visited Jerusalem. See Act 15:1-30

Act 24:18

Act 24:18 - Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult - See Act 21:27, 28

Act 24:19

Act 24:19 - Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me - Paul speaks of the Law of the Jews which says that the accused must be confronted by his accuser, not any proxy. See Act 25:16, 21:27, 28; John 7:51

Act 24:20

Act 24:20 - Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council - When Paul was brought before the council of leading Jews, Pharisees and Saducees, no other discussion was made except regarding the resurrection of the dead, as the Holy Spirit orchestrated. See Act 23:1-10

Act 24:21

Act 24:21 - Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day - Paul again speaks of the resurrection of the dead which was a mystery to the Greeks and Rom. Paul, always about His Father's business, here is seeking to create a witnessing opportunity for Felix. See Act 23:6-8

Act 24:22

Act 24:22 - And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter - Felix was privy to the plots of the Jewish leadership. Rather than making a judgment based on the information previously provided him by Lysias, Felix delayed and appeased the Jews by having Paul imprisoned. See Act 23:28, 29

Act 24:24

Act 24:24 - And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ - Felix obviously was moved of the Holy Spirit by Paul's testimony as he conveyed it to his wife, a Jewess, and they both sought to hear more of Jesus Christ by Paul.

Act 24:25

Act 24:25 - And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee - Felix, a corrupt man, was intrigued by Paul and desired that he and his Jewess wife hear his doctrine. However, when Paul spoke of sin, righteousness and the judgment to come, Felix was convicted by the Holy Spirit and sought not to hear any further on the matter. See John 16:7-11, 18:37, 38

Act 24:25

Act 24:25 - righteousness - Jer 23:5, 6; Heb 10:3, 4

Act 24:25

Act 24:25 - judgment to come - Rom 14:10

Act 24:25

Act 24:25 - Felix trembled - See 1Pet 4:18; Dan 5:5-9

Act 24:26

Act 24:26 - He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him - Felix sought a bribe from Paul for his release, but Paul would not consent to such underhanded schemes with this unrighteous man. See Isa 1:22-24; Isa 59:14

Act 24:27

Act 24:27 - But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound - Felix had no problem falsely imprisoning an innocent man if it suited his purposes. He consented to keeping Paul imprisoned by the Jews, though no just cause was found against him. He punted and left the matter with his replacement, Porcius Festus. See Act 23:29, 25:9

Act 24:27

Act 24:27 - after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound - despite the delay, Paul held on in faith, trusting in God's word that he would one day give his testimony in Rome. See Act 23:11; Heb 10:35-39

Act 25:2

Act 25:2 - Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him - the murderous high priest sought at every length to put Paul to death.

Act 25:3

Act 25:3 - And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him - the murderous Jews would use any scheme to get hold of Paul in order to kill him. See Joh 8:43, 44; Act 23:12-21

Act 25:4

Act 25:4 - But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither - the Holy Spirit impressed Festus to keep Paul put at Caesarea until he arrived and could try him on his judgment seat. The LORD would not let his faithful servant fall into the hands of the workers of iniquity. See Ps 37:1, 2

Act 25:5

Act 25:5 - Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him - The Holy Spirit conveyed to Festus that schemes of the Jews and ordered them to appear in Caesarea with him to bring their charges against Paul. See Act 23:30, 24:18, 19; John 16:1-3

Act 25:7

Act 25:7 - And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove. - See

Act 24:10-20, 26:31, 32

Act 25:8

Act 25:8 - Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Caesar, have I offended any thing at all - Paul was blameless to all men, whether Jew or Roman, and to God.

Act 25:8

Act 25:8 - nor yet against Caesar, have I offended any thing at all - Paul spoke nothing worthy of death or bonds - See Act 23:29

Act 25:9

Act 25:9 - But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me? - whether aware or unaware of the plots of the Jews, Roman officer Festus was willing to do them a favor in exchange for their loyalty, at the expense of Paul. This, like with Felix's attempts of extorting a bribe from Paul, was another example of the corruption of justice. See Act 25:2, 3, 24:26, 27

Act 25:10

Act 25:10 - Then said Paul, I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest - Paul, well aware of the Jew's intentions and the vow once made against his life by certain zealous Jews, would not subject himself unnecessarily to the devices of the Jews, nor to Festus, but appealed an audience of Caesar. Paul also highlighted Festus' hypocrisy in not granting him his release though well aware of his innocence. See Act 25:7, 11

Act 25:11

Act 25:11 - For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Caesar - See Act 25:7

Act 25:11

Act 25:11 - I appeal unto Caesar - Festus, like the Pharisees who condemned Jesus (John 11:47-52), unknowingly fulfilled God's will in forcing Paul's hand in appealing to Caesar. As a Roman citizen, Paul had a right to stand trial before the chief magistrate of the land upon appeal.

Act 25:12

Act 25:12 - Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Caesar? unto Caesar shalt thou go - Festus conspired with the Jewish leadership, who accused Paul falsely, in sending him to Caesar, rather than justly releasing under protection, the innocent Paul.

Act 25:14

Act 25:14 - There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix - Paul's life is a case of "when justice refuses to be just". Felix, under false pretenses and for political gain chose not to release

Paul and Festus followed in his footsteps.

Act 25:16

Act 25:16 - To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Rom to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him - See Act 24:18, 19

Act 25:17

Act 25:17 - Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth - See Act 25:6, 7

Act 25:18

Act 25:18 - Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed - Festus admits that the charges were bogus and not worthy of any condemnation or imprisonment. See Act 25:7, 23:29, 24:10-13

Act 25:19

Act 25:19 - But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive - that which was the cause of the great trial and accusations towards Paul, whether Jesus Christ were dead or alive, to the Christian is of utmost importance while to the unbeliever is insignificant and of little importance. The fact that Jesus lives is the power of the gospel and which makes our salvation possible. So it will be with the question of the Sabbath, whether one day or another. To the world it will seem insignificant, but to the child of the Kingdom of God, most significant in that the Sabbath represents the presence of God and is the seal of our relationship to God.

Act 25:20 - and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive - See Act 24:10-22, 24, 25

Act 25:20

Act 25:20 - And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters - Festus was not aware of the plot of the Jews to kill Paul in transit to Jerusalem. See Act 25:2, 3, 23:18-21

Act 25:21

Act 25:21 - But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Caesar - Paul only appealed to Caesar when he saw the dereliction of justice and duty by Festus in his case. Festus, in so doing, forced Paul's hand. See Act 25:9-11

Act 25:23

Act 25:23 - And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth - Jesus declared His disciples would be brought before kings and magistrates and that He would give them voice to speak His words. This was orchestrated of the Holy Spirit so that all may have an opportunity to hear the Truth as it is in Jesus Christ. See Lk 12:11, 12; Act 16:20

Act 25:24

Act 25:24 - ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer - See Act 22:23, 24:1-9, 25:2, 3, 7

Act 25:25

Act 25:25 - But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death - Festus told a half-truth in that when he found nothing with which to charge Paul, he should have released him with protection from the Jews. Yet he inferred that Paul, of his own choice, appealed to Caesar and he had no say in the matter when in fact, he conferred with Paul's enemies to grant his appeal (Act 25:12). Festus had ulterior motives in seeking to do the Jews a favor, he continued the false accusation, requesting that Paul appear in Jerusalem to hear further the matter. See Act 23:29, 25:9, 10

Act 25:25

Act 25:25 - and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him - Paul appealed to Caesar only after he was refused justice from Festus. See Act 25:9-11

Act 25:26

Act 25:26, 27 - Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write. For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him - Festus, unwilling to declare Paul innocent and set him free for bogus charges, is willing to send him to Caesar Augustus, though he has no written charge to accompany him. See Act 26:30-32

Act 25:27

Act 25:27 - For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him - Festus sees the unreasonableness in sending Paul to Caesar without a valid charge. And yet, he saw this truth and refused to grant justice to an innocent man because he sought political favor with the Jews. The political injustice and lobbying of the people who claimed to represent God (the Jews) and the State is clearly seen in the experience of Paul. See Act 25:9-11

Act 26:2

Act 26:2 - I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews - Paul was happy, though in bonds, because he was granted an opportunity without reservation, to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ. Lord bring me to that place!! 1Peter 4:12-14; Eph 6:19, 20

Act 26:3

Act 26:3 - Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently - Paul is happy to bring his defense to Agrippa, who unlike Roman Felix and Festus, is well versed with the Jewish faith and can judge rightly.

Act 26:4

Act 26:4 - My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews - See Phil 3:5, 6

Act 26:5

Act 26:5 - Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee - See Act 5:34, 22:3; Phil 3:5

Act 26:6

Act 26:6 - And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers - The promise made to the fathers is that in thee, all families of the earth would be blessed; the Messiah, Jesus Christ would come from this nation of people; through Whom God would bring eternal redemption, including the resurrection of the dead. Paul does not disparage the Jewish faith but shows the true fulfillment of the Jewish faith is found in Jesus Christ. See Gen 12:1-3; Dan 9:24, 25; Rom 10:1-4

Act 26:7

Act 26:7 - Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews - See Rom 10:1-4, 11:1-36

Act 26:7

Act 26:7 - For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews - Paul's hope is in the glorious appearing of Jesus Christ in himself and at His Second Coming. See 1Pet 4:12, 13, 1Jo 4:1, 2; Titus 2:11-13

Act 26:8

Act 26:8 - Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead? - See 1Kin 17:17-24; 2Kin 4:31-37; Joh 5:24, 25; Heb 11:11, 12

Act 26:9

Act 26:9 - I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth - Paul was convinced in his heart that persecuting all who called on the name of Jesus was of the LORD. See Act 7:57-60, 9:1, 2, 8:1, 3

Act 26:10

Act 26:10 - Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them. - See Act 7, 9:1-3

Act 26:10

Act 26:10 - I gave my voice against them - Paul denounced the early saints and gave his consent for their martyrdom. See Act 24:9

Act 26:11

Act 26:11 - And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities - See Act 9:13, 14

Act 26:12

Act 26:12 - Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests - See Act 9

Act 26:13

Act 26:13 - At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me - See Act 9:3, 4

Act 26:13

Act 26:14 - above the brightness of the sun - See Lk 9:29-31; Mt 17:1-3; Rev 1:10-16, 21:23; Dan 10:5, 6

Act 26:14

Act 26:14 - And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks - See Act 9:4, 5; Dan 10:8, 9; Rev 1:17

Act 26:14

Act 26:14 - it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks - It is difficult for you to kick against the barbs - See Act 9:5

Act 26:15

Act 26:15 - And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest - The realization that he was in the wrong and persecuting the One Whose glory he fell powerless before shook Paul to his core. See Act 9:5, 6

Act 26:16

Act 26:16 - to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee - to make you a minister of the things that you have seen and of the things that I will show to you. See Col 1:25; 2Cor 12:1-5

Act 26:17

Act 26:17 - Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee - God separates us so that we might not be numbered/reckoned among the people, but sanctified unto Christ. He then sends us to the people to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ. See Num 23:9

Act 26:18

Act 26:18 - To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God - See Eph 2:1-20; Heb 1:1-3; Isa 42:6, 7, 49:6, 61:1-3; 1Pet 2:9

Act 26:18

Act 26:18 - that they may receive forgiveness of sins - See 1Jo 1:7; Col 1:27-29,

Act 26:18

Act 26:18 - and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me - See Act 20:32; Rom 4:1-5; Gal 3:6-14

Act 26:20

Act 26:20 - But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance - See Rom 2:4, 7; Rev 3:18, 19; Rom 2:4

Act 26:20

Act 26:20 - and do works meet for repentance - See Rom 2:4; Rev 3:18

Act 26:21

Act 26:21 - For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me - See Act 21:27-30

Act 26:22

Act 26:22 - Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come - God delivered Paul, despite the attempts of the Jews at his life. Paul continues to teach and preach to the great and lowly, the things that the prophets of old made known to come.

Act 26:22

Act 26:20 - saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come - Jesus showed His disciples all things in Scripture written about Himself. See Lk 24:27

Act 26:23

Act 26:23 - That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles - See Col 1:18; Heb 1:6, 2:14-18; Rev 1:5

Act 26:23

Act 26:23. - and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles - See Isa 60:1-3, 40:5

Act 26:24

Act 26:24 - And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad - Roman prelate Festus warred against the convicting words of Paul, born of the Holy Spirit. 1Cor 1:23; 2Cor 5:13

Act 26:26

Act 26:26 - For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner - Paul, by the power of the Holy Spirit masterfully suppresses the devil's attempt to distract and redirects the convicting truths to King Agrippa. See Act 26:3

Act 26:27

Act 26:27 - King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest - Paul here was being used of the Holy Spirit to give Agrippa an opportunity to give testimony of his faith and acknowledge the words of Paul as truth. The Spirit is to convict all of sin, righteousness and judgment so all may have opportunity to be saved. See John 18:37, 38; Act 24:24, 25; Dan 5:1-9

Act 26:28

Act 26:28 - Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian - Some of the saddest words written in Scripture. Here, one is convicted of the Holy Spirit of sin, righteousness and judgment, and for pride, will not submit to the righteousness of Jesus Christ. See Rom 10:1-3; Mt 19:22; Joh 18:38; Heb 3:7, 8, 15

Act 26:29

Act 26:29 - And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds - Paul wishes that all in his hearing, were fully convinced and convicted of the truth in Jesus Christ as he was.

Act 26:31

Act 26:31 - And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds - with one consent, all give testimony of Paul's innocence. Act 24:12, 13, 25:7, 8, 23:29, 28:17, 18

Act 26:32

Act 26:32 - Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Caesar - the statement appears to be an act of cowardice as they could set the prisoner free without sending him to Caesar, without any just charges against him. See Act 25:26, 27, 28:17-19

Act 27:1

Act 27:1 - And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band - God was faithful to His word that Paul must appear before Caesar to give testimony on His behalf. See Act 23:11, 27:23, 24

Act 27:2

Act 27:2 - one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us - Aristarchus, whose name means "Chief Priest" willingly made himself a bondservant to accompany Paul in his travels to Rome. Aristarchus joined both Paul and Lk, the physician, whose name means "Light Giver". Therefore, Paul was accompanied by the "Chief Priest", Jesus Christ, and the "Light Giver", the Holy Spirit to Rome

Act 27:3

Act 27:3 - And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself - See Prov 16:7

Act 27:6

Act 27:4 - And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein - Julius the Centurion of the Augustine band. See Act 27:1

Act 27:10

Act 27:10 - And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives - the Holy Spirit revealed to Paul that to sail would be to the peril of the vessel, its cargo and all who were aboard.

Act 27:11

Act 27:11 - Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul - the centurion and ship captain placed their trust in the captain's navigational experience and opinion rather than the inspired counsel of God's servant. So it was with the antediluvian world, which snubbed the warnings of God's prophet for the speculations of so called learned men, scientists, and pundits. See Act 27:13, 14, 18-20

Act 27:12

Act 27:11 - And because the haven was not commodious to winter in - See Act 27:8

Act 27:13

Act 27:13 - And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete - the soft winds are no true indicator of what is to follow. The soft winds often preceded the rough winds, Euroclydon. See Rev 7:1-3; 1Thess 5:3

Act 27:14

Act 27:14 - tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon - a regularly occurring site of hurricanes called Euroclydon

Act 27:17

Act 27:17 - strake sail - To lower the sail on a ship in a show of surrender, salute, or during high winds

Act 27:19

Act 27:20 - tackling of the ship - the gear of the ship.

Act 27:21

Act 27:21 - But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss. - Paul held his peace while the centurion, ship captain and others worked tirelessly and aimlessly to set the ship on a right course. When all seemed discouraged and at a loss, Paul stood to remind them of his counsels, not to set sail, but also to encourage and assure them of God's protection and deliverance of each person.

Act 27:22

Act 27:22 - And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship - Paul had gained the respect of the centurion in charge, the captain of the ship and all others aboard. His words encouraged all that though the ship would be lost, no lives would be lost.

Act 27:24

Act 27:23 - Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Caesar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee - the Lord sent His angel to assure Paul that he must appear before Caesar and all those with him would be spared. See Act 23:11, 27:1

Act 27:26

Act 27:26 - Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island. - See Act 27:44

Act 27:31

Act 27:31 - Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved - So it was in the time of Noah, except the people abide in the ship, they could not be saved, and so it is today, unless we abide in Jesus, we cannot be saved. See John 15:5, 6

Act 27:34

Act 27:34 - for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you - Paul affirmed to his shipmates that none would perish as conveyed to him by the angel from the Lord. See Act 27:22-25

Act 27:35

Act 27:35 - And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat - Paul demonstrated his faith in giving thanks to God and blessing his food.

Act 27:36

Act 27:36 - Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat - Paul's example encouraged, inspired, and enlightened all around him. So should it be with us all who believe in Jesus Christ! See Mt 5:14

Act 27:37

Act 27:37 - And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls - the Holy Spirit directed Lk to write the exact number of people on the ship, 276. Barring Paul, himself (Lk), a symbol of the Holy Spirit, and Aristarchus, a symbol of Christ, there were 273 in total; a symbol of the 273 Levites wanting for the total count of firstborn noted in Num 3:43

Act 27:43

Act 27:43 - But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land: - the presence of one of God's people preserved the lives of other unbelievers. So it is today in the world. See Prov 16:7 Hearts that respond to the influence of the Holy Spirit are the channels through which God's blessing flows. Were those who serve God removed from the earth, and His Spirit withdrawn from among men, this world would be left to desolation and destruction, the fruit of Satan's dominion. Though the wicked know it not, they owe even the blessings of this life to the presence, in the world, of God's people whom they despise and oppress. But if Christians are such in name only, they are like the salt that has lost its savor. They have no influence for good in the world. Through their misrepresentation of God they are worse than unbelievers. - {DA 306.4}

Act 27:44 - And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land - That which Paul prophesied to the men came to past where all were landed upon a strange island - See Act 27:26

Act 28:2

Act 28:2 - And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold - God caused the people of the strange land to show favor to Paul and all the men that were with him. See Act 28:7

Act 28:4

Act 28:4 - And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live - the people thought the worst of Paul because they reasoned that because of his wrong doing, this misfortune of being bit by viper occurred. See Am 5:19

Act 28:5

Act 28:5 - And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm - See Mk 16:18

Act 28:6

Act 28:6 - Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god - the people were looking to see what would become of Paul and when he was not affected by the bite of the viper, they took him to be a god with supernatural powers. See Mk 16:18; Act 14:11-13, 17:30

Act 28:7

Act 28:7 - In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously - See Act 28:2

Act 28:8

Act 28:8 - And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him - See Mk 16:18

Act 28:8

Act 28:8 - bloody flux - Dysentery, historically known as the bloody flux, is a type of gastroenteritis that results in bloody diarrhea. Other symptoms may include fever, abdominal pain, and a feeling of incomplete defecation. Complications may include dehydration.

Act 28:10

Act 28:10 - Who also honoured us with many honours - all who traveled with Paul, even the Roman soldiers and inmates, were blessed of the people because of the miracles wrought by Paul. Hearts that respond to the influence of the Holy Spirit are the channels through which God's blessing flows. Were those who serve God removed from the earth, and His Spirit withdrawn from among men, this world would be left to desolation and destruction, the fruit of Satan's dominion. Though the wicked know it not, they owe even the blessings of this life to the presence, in the world, of God's people whom they despise and oppress. But if Christians are such in name only, they are like the salt that has lost its savor. They have no influence for good in the world. Through their misrepresentation of God they are worse than unbelievers. - {DA 306.4}

Act 28:16

Act 28:16 - And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him - Like Joseph, Paul found favor with his captors and was exalted.

Act 28:18

Act 28:18 - Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me - See Act 26:31, 32

Act 28:19

Act 28:19 - But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Caesar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of - though Festus, Agrippa were inclined to release Paul, the Jews spoke against it, thus he needed to appear before Caesar. See Act 25:10, 11; 26:31, 32

Act 28:20

Act 28:20 - For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain - See Act 26:6, 7

Act 28:23

Act 28:23 - persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets - See Lk 24:27

Act 28:25

Act 28:25 - Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers, - See Mt 13:13-15; Isa 6:9, 10; Jer 5:21

Act 28:26

Act 28:26, 27 - Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive: For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them - See Isa 6:

Act 28:28

Act 28:28 - Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it - See Act 13:46-48; Hos 4:6; Isa 49:6

Act 28:30

Act 28:30, 31 - And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him - Paul found favor with the Rom such that he could maintain his own dwelling and people were free to come and go to visit him for 2yrs before being brought before Caesar and condemned to death. Prov 16:7

Romans

Rom 1:1

Back to Table of Contents

Rom 1:1 - a servant of Jesus Christ - Paul recognized that all that he did for the Lord, all the sacrifices made were his reasonable service to God for all the good that the Lord had rendered to him. After he had done all that he could for the Lord he did not sit back on his laurels and boast but rather saw himself as an unprofitable servant. His willing service was done in gratitude towards God. See Rom 12:1, 2; LK 17:10

Rom 1:1

Rom 1:1 - called to be an apostle - Paul was a chosen vessel, called by Jesus Himself to be an apostle of the gospel of God - See Lk 6:13; Act 9:15

Rom 1:1

Rom 1:1 - separated unto the gospel of God - Paul was marked-off, devoted, 100% committed to the goal of preaching the gospel of Christ. This is the purpose of God for all who were justified by faith of Jesus Christ. See Number 23:9; Rom 12:1, 2

Rom 1:2

Rom 1:2 - promised afore by his prophets - See Heb 1:1 All the prophets testified of Jesus Christ: Moses - identified the Seed of the woman (Gen 3:15) Moses/Balaam - showed Christ's star would appear (Num 24:17) Isa - identified the virgin would give birth to Immanuel, God with us

Rom 1:3

Rom 1:3 - which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh - See Gen 49:10; Lk 20:43, 44; Jer 23:5, 6; Eze 37:21-24

Rom 1:3

Rom 1:3 - according to the flesh - See Rom 8:3; 1Jo 4:2; Heb 2:9, 14-17

Rom 1:4

Rom 1:4 - declared to be the Son of God with power - See Mt 3:17; Mk 3:13-17, 1:11, 9:7; Lk 1:30-35; 3:16, 17; Joh 12:28-30

Rom 1:4

Rom 1:4 - according to the spirit of holiness - Jesus is declared to be the Son of God by the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Holiness - 1Jo 5:6-8; Joh 17:17-19, 16:13, 14;

Rom 1:4

Rom 1:4 - by the resurrection from the dead - Jesus' resurrection from the dead affirms both His divine power, and the Spirit of Holiness' testimony regarding Him. See Ps 16:10; John 10:17, 18

Rom 1:5

Rom 1:5 - By Whom we have received grace - See Joh 1:14; Titus 2:11, 12

Rom 1:5

Rom 1:5 - for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name: - See Mt 5:16

Rom 1:6

Rom 1:6 - Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ - Jesus calls all men to salvation and to become saints. Rom 1:7

Rom 1:8

Rom 1:8 - I thank my God through Jesus Christ - See Joh 14:6

Rom 1:8

Rom 1:8 - that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world -

Rom 1:8

Rom 1:8 - throughout the whole world - Col 1:23; Mk 16:20

Rom 1:9

Rom 1:9 - For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers - See Eph 6:18, 19; 1Thess 5:17, 25

Rom 1:11

Rom 1:11 - that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established - Paul is constantly seeking to edify the faith of the saints. See 1Cor 14; Col 2:7

Rom 1:12

Rom 1:12 - That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me - 2Cor 7:13; 1:4

Rom 1:13

Rom 1:13 - but was let hitherto - but was constrained/preoccupied (let) in doing so. See 2Thess 2:7

Rom 1:13

Rom 1:13 - that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles - that in the preaching of the gospel among the Rom, he may bear fruit unto eternal life among the people. See Rom 1:111

Rom 1:16

Rom 1:16 - For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ - that which was a reproach to men and a thing of shame, namely the cross of Christ, Paul boasted in and magnified. See 1Cor 1:17-27; 2Tim 1:8; Rom 10:15

Rom 1:16

Rom 1:16 - ashamed - there is a reproach and offense that comes with the cross of Jesus Christ. It is the path of self-denial and many refuse to bear this reproach. See Isa 4:1, 28:16; Gal 5:11, 6:12

Rom 1:16

Rom 1:16 - the gospel of Christ - the gospel is not a teaching or doctrine, the Gospel is a Person, Jesus Christ, the Wisdom and the Power of God (1Cor 1:24; Rev 7:12) . The Gospel is God coming to me to save me, and God's acceptance of me. According to Lk 2:10, 11, the gospel: 1. Brings Great Joy 2. Is for all people 3. Is salvation in Jesus Christ See 1Cor 15:1-5; Gal 1:3, 4, 7-9 "... the Gospel is the revelation of Jesus Christ in men... the making known of Christ in men". {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner pg 30}; Mt 1:21, 23 "...the Gospel is the manifestation of creative power to save men from sin." {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 28} "Whatever preaching fails to make prominent the fact that Jesus Christ is the Creator of all things, is not the preaching of the Gospel." {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, Pg 28}

Rom 1:16

Rom 1:16 - for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; Jesus is the wisdom and power of God (1Cor 1:24) Therefore the Gospel of Jesus Christ is, Jesus [the power of God] unto salvation to every one that believeth: 1. Act 2:21 2. Rom 5:9, 10 3. Rom 10:9

Rom 1:16

Rom 1:16 - power of God unto salvation - "The one thing that all the world is seeking after is power. Some seek it by means of wealth, others through politics, others through learning, and still others in various other ways; but in whatever enterprise men engage, the object is the same, —power of some kingdom. There is in the heart of every man an unrest, an unsatisfied longing, placed there by God Himself. The mad ambition that drives some to trample on scores of their fellow-creatures, the unceasing struggle for wealth, and the reckless round of pleasures into which many plunge, are all vain endeavors to satisfy this longing. God has not placed in the human heart a longing for any of these things; the quest for them is a perversion of that desire which He has implanted in the human heart. He desires that man should have His power; but none of the things which men ordinarily seek, give the power of God... He who implanted that desire is the only one who can satisfy it. God manifested in Christ, and Christ is indeed "the Desire of all nations" (Haggai 2:7)" {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner pg26) The power of God unto salvation is "ALL Power", meaning God can save to the uttermost (Heb 7:25), and "Creative power", which re-creates, transforms and renews the sin sick soul into a new creation. See 1Cor 1:17, 18; 2Cor 5:17; Eph 2:10; Gal 1:11, 12, 15, 16; Jesus is both the Wisdom and the Power of God (1Cor 1:23, 24). The preaching of the cross of Jesus Christ is the power of God (1Cor 1:17, 18) to those who believe. God demonstrated His love and power towards us in that while we were yet sinners, Jesus condescended and died for us (Rom 5:8). 1. The power is seen in Jesus coming forth from the Counsel of Peace as a Victor, wrestling with His Father and being victorious in choosing to pay the ransom for humanity. Sorrow filled heaven, as it was realized that man was lost...The whole family of Adam must die. I saw the lovely Jesus and beheld an expression of sympathy and sorrow upon His countenance. Soon I saw Him approach the exceeding bright light which enshrouded the Father. Said my accompanying angel, He is in close converse with His Father. The anxiety of the angels seemed to be intense while Jesus was communing with His Father. Three times He was shut in by the glorious light about the Father, and the third time He came out from the Father, His person could be seen. His countenance was calm, free from all perplexity and doubt, and shone with benevolence and loveliness, such as words cannot express. - {Lift Him Up 22.2} [Jesus is the True Israel of God (Gen 32:24-28). Consider the cost, the sacrifice of our salvation. The Godhead itself would be altered for all eternity in order to save us. This was a high cost that required consideration and pause, but grace, mercy and love prevailed! Thank You LORD!!] 2. The power is seen in God being true to His word in sending His Son in the fullness of time (Isa 7:14, 15, 9:6, 7; Gal 4:4) 3. The power is seen in Jesus' daily contest with His adopted sinful nature and the victory He gained through suffering (Heb 2:14-18; Rom 8:3) 4. The power is seen in Jesus' daily victory over the forces of evil as seen in His earthly ministry (Mt 4:1-11; Joh 14:30) 5. The power is seen in Jesus' wrestling with self in the Garden of Gethsemane when He yielded His will to the Father's will (Mt 26:36-44; Mk 14:32-41) 6. The power is seen in Jesus remaining on the Cross in meekness, denying Himself in order to save humanity (Mt 26:53; Joh 10:17, 18, 19:16-30) 7. The power is seen in Jesus' triumphal victory over the grave, death and he who had power of the grave as He resurrected in power and glory (Heb 2:14, 15, 1Cor 15:55) 8. The power is ultimately seen and experienced in the heart and transformed life of the believer. The power of 'Christ in you, the hope of glory' is the ultimate manifestation of the power of God unto salvation (Col 1:25-29) Christ then imparts that power to those who come to Him by faith of Jesus Christ. See Joh 1:12

Rom 1:16 - to everyone that believeth - there is no difference between the Jew or the Greek. All are one in Christ and to whom the gospel promises were intended and given. See Joh 1:12; Mt 11:19; 1Tim 4:10; Rom 3:20-22, 10:12; Gal 5:6; 3:26-29

Rom 1:17

Rom 1:17 - therein is the righteousness of God revealed - The wisdom of the mystery of God is revealed through the gospel, God once again manifest in the flesh - Christ in us the Hope of glory - righteousness by faith (1Tim 3:16, Col 1:25-29). In surrendering self, embracing the gospel of Jesus Christ, God's righteousness is made manifest in the life of the believer. Jesus, OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS, will be seen in and through us - Christ in us, the Hope of glory! God's character: His goodness, mercy, longsuffering, gentleness, kindness, love, forbearance, grace and justice are all revealed in the gospel, the good news of Jesus Christ [His condescension, His birth, His life, His death, His resurrection, His judgment]. See 1Pet 4:13 The Everlasting Gospel (Gen 3:9, 15) reveals God's righteousness, His ability to set all things right IN US! What constitutes the faith of Jesus, that belongs to the third angel's message? Jesus becoming our sin-bearer that he might become our sin-pardoning Saviour (Rom 5). He was treated as we deserve to be treated. He came to our world and took our sins that we might take his righteousness. And faith in the ability of Christ to save us amply and fully and entirely is the faith of Jesus. - {3SM 172.3}. - Rev 14:12 righteousness = holiness (Rom 6:19). As God is Holy, so He calls us to be holy by faith (Lev 20:7; 1Pet 1:15, 16) Righteousness by Faith, in its larger meaning, embraces every vital, fundamental truth of the gospel. It begins with man's moral standing when created, and deals with-

1. The law by which man is to live.
2. Transgression of that law.
3. Penalty for transgression.
4. Problem of redemption.
5. Love of Father and Son which made redemption possible.
6. Justice in accepting a substitute.
7. Nature of the atonement.
8. Incarnation.
9. Sinless life of Christ.
10. Vicarious death of the Son of God.
11. Burial, resurrection, and ascension.
12. The Father's assurance of a satisfactory substitution.
13. The coming of the Holy Spirit.
14. Ministry of Jesus in the heavenly sanctuary.
15. The part required of the sinner in order to be redeemed.
16. Nature of faith, repentance, confession, obedience.
17. Meaning and experience of regeneration, justification, and sanctification.
18. Need and place of the Holy Spirit and word of God in making real to men what was made possible on the cross.
19. Victory over sin through the indwelling Christ.
20. Place of works in the life of the believer.
21. Place of prayer in receiving and holding the righteousness of Christ.
22. The culmination and deliverance in the return of the Redeemer. {Christ Our Righteousness, A.G. Dans, pg 72, 73}

Rom 1:17

Rom 1:17 - revealed - The gospel of the kingdom to be preached in all the world for a witness (Mt 24:14) is to be a revelation of the power of God in the lives of the believers. Christ is to be manifest once again in the flesh, Christ in us, the Hope of glory, and preached mightily and effectually to the world, instructing all men to be perfect in Him. Col 1:25-29; 1Tim 3:16; 1Cor 2:1-4; 1:17, 18

Rom 1:17

Rom 1:17 - from faith to faith - the progressive work of God through the Holy Spirit of moving us from faith IN Jesus Christ to the faith OF Jesus Christ. As we assume the faith OF Jesus Christ, we are transformed into His likeness. This is the sealing, where we have an immovable, unchangeable faith. See 2Cor 3:18; Ps 84:7; 1Cor 2:5, 13:12 A Growing Understanding of Faith - The righteousness of Christ is revealed from faith to faith; that is, from your present faith to an increased understanding of that faith which works by love and purifies the soul {The Review and Herald, September 18, 1908} True faith grows to a greater faith, increasing in strength. It is persevering in its operation. The apostle says, "For herein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith." {ST August 5,, 1889, par. 7}

Rom 1:17

Rom 1:17 - The just shall live by faith - We are to walk and live by the faith that began our Christian journey. See Hab 2:4; Gal 3:11; Heb 10:38, 11:6; Col 2:6

Rom 1:18

Rom 1:18 - For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness. See Ps 28:3-5; Mk 3:29, 7:9; Rom 1:32; Rev 15, 16

Rom 1:18

Rom 1:18 - who hold the truth in unrighteousness - who suppress the truth in unrighteousness; who suggest/teach/promote that God's revealed and declared truths are falsehood. Who have a form of godliness, but deny the power [Jesus] thereof. See Isa 5:20; Mt 18:6; 2Tim 3:5; 1Cor 1:21; 2Tim 2:25, 26

Rom 1:20

Rom 1:20 - being understood by the things that are made - God's glory is revealed to mankind through nature and through man's genuine pursuit of knowledge in the sciences. True science will declare that which is obvious, that a Divine Hand has made all that is before us. See Ps 19:1-4; Act 14:15-17

Rom 1:20

Rom 1:20 - even his eternal power and Godhead - God's eternal power is seen in the creation of all things - See 1Pet 1:5

Rom 1:20

Rom 1:20 - so that they are without excuse - See 2Pet 2:6

Rom 1:21

Rom 1:21 - Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened - See Gen 4:1-16; 1Cor 1:21

Rom 1:21

Rom 1:21 - when they knew God, they glorified him not as God - See Heb 6:4-6; Joh 17:3; Rev 14:7

Rom 1:21

Rom 1:19 - neither were thankful - Ingratitude, neglect and forgetfulness, are egregious sins to God. See Heb 2:3, 6:4-6;

Rom 1:21

Rom 1:21 - but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened - foolish, worthless musings on that which is not truth darkens our understanding so that we no longer can recognize true light. Those who do such give themselves over to the prince of darkness to guide their minds and thoughts. See 2Thess 2:8-12

Rom 1:22

Rom 1:22 - Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools - the fool says that there is no God. Ps 14:1, 53:1; 1Cor 3:18, 19

Rom 1:23

Rom 1:23 - And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things - When the COI made a golden calf and declared it to be their god, they abased themselves to worship something created in an inferior image as themselves. We were created in God's image and bear His glory and yet men chose to worship lifeless idols of things less than themselves. Indeed, God made man upright but we debased ourselves with our inventions. See Ex 20:4-6; Ecc 7:29; Isa 44:9-21

Rom 1:23

Rom 1:25 - Who changed the truth of God into a lie - God created man, both male and female (Gen 1:26, 27). Today, through Gender Identity, there are over 100 different perversions of this very simple, binary truth. See Eccl 7:29

Rom 1:25

Rom 1:25 - worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator - the thought Paul is conveying deals with the deceptive works of Spiritualism, where the dead are worshipped, prayed for, communicated with and exalted, but in reality, the communication is with devils.

See Isa 8:19, 20; 1Cor 10:20; Ps 106:28 But how came these people by this doctrine? They belong to that class that Paul says "did not like to retain God in their knowledge," and "who changed the truth of God into a lie." Rom. 1:21-28. Demon worship, i.e., the worship of dead heroes as conducted through witchcraft, was their religion. And the first principle of this religion is the consciousness of the soul in death. Nor is this doctrine the foundation of heathenism only, with its worship of deified dead men; it is equally the foundation of Romanism with its purgatory, prayers for the dead, worship of the saints, and deification of Mary as queen of Heaven; and of Mohammedanism, with its promise to the bloody men who fight its battles that if killed in battle they shall sup that night in paradise; and of spiritualism, of which the whole stock in trade is the sayings and doings of dead men; and of MODERN ORTHODOXY, which makes death the gate to endless joy, and bestows rewards, and punishments upon the dead without waiting for the resurrection and the Judgment. Who gave the heathen this first principle of their religion - a principle, by the way, absolutely indispensable to almost every system of false religion? When Paul says of these ancient heathen that they "changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather [margin] than the Creator," Rom. 1:25, he tells us a startling truth. For, instead of worshiping the living God, they worshiped the supposed immortal souls of dead heroes that they believed had now become gods. Thus we read:- {1871 JNA, SWE 27.1} Num. 25:1-3: "And Israel abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab. And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods; and the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods. And Israel joined himself unto Baal-peor; and the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel." {1871 JNA, SWE 27.2} Let us read again, and we shall learn what kind of gods these were whose sacrifices the Israelites ate at Baal-peor. {1871 JNA, SWE 27.3} Ps. 106:28: "They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor and ate the sacrifices of the dead. {1871 JNA, SWE 27.4} The gods, then, to which these sacrifices were offered, were deified dead men. And they were 28 confirmed in worshiping these dead heroes because they received such wonderful responses, so perfectly characteristic of the men. But they supposed themselves receiving responses from the souls of these dead warriors to whom they thus sacrificed as gods. Paul tells us who really received this worship, and, of course, who returned the responses. Thus he says:- {1871 JNA, SWE 27.5} 1 Cor. 10:20: "But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to DEVILS, and not to God; and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils." {1871 JNA, SWE 28.1} They worshiped dead men in name, and devils in reality. They had no doubt that these departed warriors and kings still lived; for they had manifest and characteristic responses. {J.N. Andrews, Samuel and the Witch of Endor, pg 27, 28}

Rom 1:32 - that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them - those today who support, encourage, applaud, praise, extol, and give their endorsement to those who openly live godlessly are as the COI who supported Korah in his rebellion against God and His servant Moses. See Ps 10:3; Num 16:41, 42 It was evident that the sympathies of the people were with the disaffected party; but Moses made no effort at self-vindication. He solemnly appealed to God, in the presence of the congregation, as a witness to the purity of his motives and the uprightness of his conduct, and implored Him to be his judge. - {PP 399.4} Korah had withdrawn from the assembly to join Dathan and Abiram when Moses, accompanied by the seventy elders, went down with a last warning to the men who had refused to come to him. The multitudes followed, and before delivering his message, Moses, by divine direction, bade the people, "Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their sins." The warning was obeyed, for an apprehension of impending judgment rested upon all. The chief rebels saw themselves abandoned by those whom they had deceived, but their hardihood was unshaken. They stood with their families in the door of their tents, as if in defiance of the divine warning. - {PP 400.3} But the judgments were not ended. Fire flashing from the cloud consumed the two hundred and fifty princes who had offered incense. These men, not being the first in rebellion, were not destroyed with the chief conspirators. They were permitted to see their end, and to have an opportunity for repentance; but their sympathies were with the rebels, and they shared their fate. - {PP 401.1} They had been flattered by Korah and his company until they really believed themselves to be very good people, and that they had been wronged and abused by Moses. Should they admit that Korah and his company were wrong, and Moses right, then they would be compelled to receive as the word of God the sentence that they must die in the wilderness. They were not willing to submit to this, and they tried to believe that Moses had deceived them. They had fondly cherished the hope that a new order of things was about to be established, in which praise would be substituted for reproof, and ease for anxiety and conflict. The men who had perished had spoken flattering words and had professed great interest and love for them, and the people concluded that Korah and his companions must have been good men, and that Moses had by some All Israel had fled in alarm at the cry of the doomed sinners who went down into the pit, for they said, "Lest the earth swallow us up also." "But on the morrow all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, ye have killed the people of the Lord." And they were about to proceed to violence against their faithful, self-sacrificing leaders. - {PP 402.2}

Rom 2:4

Rom 2:4 - Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? - It is the conviction of sin by the Holy Spirit and our recognized waywardness, and ingratitude that leads us to repentance so that we may seek refuge in Jesus our Savior and Our Righteousness (Ps 32:1-4; Prov 18:10; Jer 23:5, 6). We are counseled not to harden our hearts to the Holy Spirit's promptings but to yield when we have opportunity to do so. See Ps 95:7, 8||Heb 3:7, 8; Heb 2:3; Rom 1:21, Act 20:21; Mk 3:29||1Jo 1:10

Rom 2:4

Rom 2:4 - forbearance - the act of avoiding, shunning, or omitting; either the cessation or intermission of an act commenced, or a withholding from beginning an act. See 2Cor 5:19

Rom 2:4

Rom 2:4 - the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance - As God is no respecter of person, He extended the same grace to the rebellious angel Lucifer and his hosts, that they might turn from their rebellion, be re-instated and live, but in pride, they refused, despising the riches of God's goodness. So it is with all the children of disobedience, they will not humble themselves that they might be saved. See Ezek 33:15; 2Cor 7:10-12; 2Pet 3:9; Act 5:31; 1Jo 1:10||Mk 3:29 "Repentance includes sorrow for sin and a turning away from it. We shall not renounce sin unless we see its sinfulness; until we turn away from it in heart, there will be not real change in the life." {SC 23:2} 1. Esau had no true repentance 2. Pharaoh had no true repentance 3. Balaam had no true repentance 4. Judas Iscariot had no true repentance Jesus has said, "I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto Me." Joh 12:32. Christ must be revealed to the sinner as the Saviour dying for the sins of the world; and as we behold the Lamb of God upon the cross of Calvary, the mystery of redemption begins to unfold to our minds and the goodness of God leads us to repentance. In dying for sinners, Christ manifested a love that is incomprehensible; and as the sinner beholds this love, it softens the heart, impresses the mind, and inspires contrition in the soul. - {SC 26.4} Ask Him to give you repentance, to reveal Christ to you in His infinite love, in His perfect purity. In the Saviour's life the principles of God's law—love to God and man—were perfectly exemplified. Benevolence, unselfish love, was the life of His soul. It is as we behold Him, as the light from our Saviour falls upon us, that we see the sinfulness of our own hearts. - {SC 28.2} But when the heart yields to the influence of the Spirit of God, the conscience will be quickened, and the sinner will discern something of the depth and sacredness of God's holy law, the foundation of His government in heaven and on earth. The "Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world," illumines the secret chambers of the soul, and the hidden things of darkness are made manifest. Joh 1:9. Conviction takes hold upon the mind and heart. The sinner has a sense of the righteousness of Jehovah and feels the terror of appearing, in his own guilt and uncleanness, before the Searcher of hearts. He sees the love of God, the beauty of holiness, the joy of purity; he longs to be cleansed and to be restored to communion with Heaven. - {SC 24.2} The Bible does not teach that the sinner must repent before he can heed the invitation of Christ, "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest." Mt 11:28. It is the virtue that goes forth from Christ, that leads to genuine repentance. Peter made the matter clear in his statement to the Israelites when he said, "Him hath God exalted with His right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins." Act 5:31. We can no more repent without the Spirit of Christ to awaken the conscience than we can be pardoned without Christ. - {SC 26.2}

Rom 2:5 - after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath - a hardened and unrepentant heart is one that is at enmity, at war (wrath) with God, His law, His Spirit, and is therefore wrathful. Unrepentance is a hallmark of the wicked. See 2Chron 30:8-10; Rev 2:21, 9:20, 21, 16:9-11; Jam 4:6

Rom 2:5

Rom 2:5 - treasurest up unto thyself wrath - those who refuse to yield to the promptings of the holy spirit are filled with the enmity from Satan which is at enmity with God, warring against the Spirit of God and can not be reconciled to God. In so doing, they are treasuring up their own wrath (enmity) unto the day of God's wrath, when He will put all rebellion to an end.

Rom 2:19

Rom 2:19 - thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness - See Isa 58:8

Rom 2:20

Rom 2:20 - which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law - Paul here is speaking of the formalism that took hold of Israel, the rites, the rituals, the ceremonies which all were a shadow of the the truth, the substance being Christ. Pauls speaks of Israel's formalism, a new manifestation of the pagan teaching of "all that He says we will do" (Gen 19:8), having a form of godliness but denying the power thereof (2Tim 3:5), that supplanted the true religion of the heart which God desires. See Heb 3:16-4:2; 2Cor 3:6 The Law contains the form or outline for righteousness but Jesus Christ is the actual substance of righteousness. We can never have righteousness without Christ, the substance.

Rom 2:21

Rom 2:21-23 - Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? 22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege? 23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God? - See Mt 23:1-23

Rom 2:22

Rom 2:22 - sacrilege - The crime of violating or profaning sacred things

Rom 2:23

Rom 2:23 - Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God? - we who boast in having all the oracles of God through His Laws and the writings of His prophet, do we dishonour God by violating those same Law and Prophets?

Rom 2:24

Rom 2:24 - For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written - See 2Sam 12:9, 14; Isa 52:5; Eze 36:20, 39:23, 24; Tit 2:5; 2Cor 6:3

Rom 2:25

Rom 2:25 - For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision - circumcision would have value as a token of a true relationship, where the Jews' lives and works reflected the character of the God they boasted in. Since however, they proved their lack of a relationship with God, their circumcision was in vain.

Rom 2:26

Rom 3:1

Rom 3:1 - What advantage then hath the Jew? - Paul first establishes that the Jews indeed are a privileged people, having been given the laws, prophets and oracles of God. However, he later asserts that the privilege does not make the Jews better than others, only more accountable as they have been given greater light than others. See Rom 3:9; Lk 12:48

Rom 3:1

Rom 3:1 - what profit is there of circumcision? - See Gal 5:6; Rom 3:9

Rom 3:2

Rom 3:2 - unto them were committed the oracles of God - See Joh 4:22; Rom 2:17-20, 9:4; Ps 147:19, 20; Am 3:2; 1Pet 4:11; COL 104.4, 105.1. Just as God had entrusted all of His light and oracles to the COI, He has imparted even greater light of the Science of Salvation to Spiritual Israel, the SDA church, through both the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy. Therefore, we SDA's have a great advantage over others which brings greater accountability. Natural Israel & Spiritual Israel both share: 1. All the oracles of God in the Bible and the testimonies of the prophets (Isa 8:16; Deut 4:5-9) 2. A knowledge of the sanctuary, the Great Controversy between Christ and Satan and God's Plan of Redemption (Ps 77:13) 3. A specific gospel message to take to the world regarding the coming of Christ. 4. A gospel message empowered by a message of health reform 5. A message of complete victory over sin If ever a people have need of clearer and increased light from heaven, it is the people whom God has made the repository of His law. The men to whom God has committed sacred trusts need to be spiritualized, elevated, vitalized by the sacred truth they profess to believe. When the history of our cause and work reveals that men who have occupied positions of sacred trust, who have been teachers of the truth to others, are found unfaithful and turn away from the holy commandment delivered unto them, what carefulness should it lead us to! What distrust of self! How it should strip us of self-sufficiency and spiritual pride! What humble views we should have of our wisdom and our own insufficiency! How we should sense the fact that we are kept by the power of God through faith! - {1888 261.3} God chose Israel to reveal His character to men. He desired them to be as wells of salvation in the world. To them were committed the oracles of heaven, the revelation of God's will. In the early days of Israel the nations of the world, through corrupt practices, had lost the knowledge of God. They had once known Him; but because "they glorified Him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, ... their foolish heart was darkened." Rom 1:21. Yet in His mercy God did not blot them out of existence. He purposed to give them an opportunity of again becoming acquainted with Him through His chosen people. Through the teachings of the sacrificial service, Christ was to be uplifted before all nations, and all who would look to Him should live. Christ was the foundation of the Jewish economy. The whole system of types and symbols was a compacted prophecy of the gospel, a presentation in which were bound up the promises of redemption. - {AA 14.1} God has called His church in this day, as He called ancient Israel, to stand as a light in the earth. By the mighty cleaver of truth—the messages of the first, second, and third angels—He has separated them from the churches and from the world to bring them into a sacred nearness to Himself. He has made them the depositaries of His law and has committed to them the great truths of prophecy for this time. Like the holy oracles committed to ancient Israel, these are a sacred trust to be communicated to the world. - {CCh 58.4} Our people need to understand the oracles of God; they need to have a systematic knowledge of the principles of revealed truth, which will fit them for what is coming upon the earth and prevent them from being carried about by every wind of doctrine.—Testimonies for the Church 5:272, 273. - {BLJ 115.5}

Rom 3:3 - For what if some did not believe? - While God has given ample evidence for faith, He will never remove all excuse for unbelief. All who look for hooks to hang their doubts upon will find them. And those who refuse to accept and obey God's word until every objection has been removed, and there is no longer an opportunity for doubt, will never come to the light. - {GC 527.2} "And now saith the Lord that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, though Israel be not gathered," (who is Israel? the church members of today) "yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the Lord, and my God shall be my strength." [Isa 49:5.] The message must go from east to west, and from west to east again. A great shaking up must come. The professed believers in the truth for this time are asleep. They need to awake, and shine anew because the light of truth has not only flashed upon them, but rightly done its work. God will have representatives in every place in all parts of the world. {Lt 86, 1900, par. 22}

Rom 3:3

Rom 3:3 - shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect? - Should Adventists not seek to embrace and walk in the ever increasing light God is shining through His Spirit, that in no way makes the faith of God without effect. God's truth will continue to shine more and more unto the perfect day for those who chose to embrace it. See Heb 3:10-4:2; Prov 4:18

Rom 3:4

Rom 3:4 - let God be true, but every man a liar - God is a Majority by Himself and His truths above all of men's wisdom and understandings. See Tit 1:2; Prov 21:30; 1Jo 1:10

Rom 3:4

Rom 3:4 - That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged - See Ps 51:4 Through Christ's redeeming work the government of God stands justified. The Omnipotent One is made known as the God of love. Satan's charges are refuted, and his character unveiled. Rebellion can never again arise. Sin can never again enter the universe. Through eternal ages all are secure from apostasy. By love's self-sacrifice, the inhabitants of earth and heaven are bound to their Creator in bonds of indissoluble union. - {DA 26.2}

Rom 3:4

Rom 3:4 - and mightest overcome when thou art judged - God Himself, His character, Law and works are all brought under scrutiny and judged. Yet, He and all that is His, is found justified before heaven and earth by the blood of Jesus Christ. See Rev 14:7

Rom 3:5

Rom 3:5 - But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? - If by our waywardness (disobedience and unbelief) and sinfulness the gospel is preached and God's Kingdom is built up, is God then unrighteous (unjust) for taking vengeance upon us in judgment? See Rom. 3:7, 5:8

Rom 3:5

Rom 3:5 - Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? - Paul is here speaking tongue-in-cheek, where he asks "if our, so called (of men - see v8) unrighteousness is a blessing to others, why then would God punish us for 'unrighteousness'?" That would make God unjust. There is no unrighteousness in God. See Ps 92:15

Rom 3:8

Rom 3:9 - as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say - See Prov 18:17; Rev 22:15

Rom 3:8

Rom 3:8 - Let us do evil, that good may come? - See Isa 5:20; Rom 6:1, 2

Rom 3:8

Rom 3:8 - whose damnation is just - the destruction of liars, evil speakers and slanderers is just. See Ps 31; Isa 5:20-23

Rom 3:9

Rom 3:9 - What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; - See Rom 2:11

Rom 3:9

Rom 3:9 - for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin - See Rom 2:1-29; Eph 2:1-3; Heb 4:4, 5

Rom 3:9

Rom 3:9 - that they are all under sin - there is none righteous, no not one. See Rom 3:10

Rom 3:10

Rom 3:10 - As it is written, there is none righteous, no not one - See Isa 57:12, 41:26, 53:6, 1:5, 6; Eph 2:1;

Rom 3:11

Rom 3:11 - There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God - Those alone, who have been brought out of darkness into Christ's marvelous light can claim that they understand the Lord's ways (Jer 9:23, 24). Further, it is not we who seek God, but God has sought after us. Compare Isa 28:7-13, 53:1; Jer 9:12-16; Gen 3:9, 15

Rom 3:11

Rom 3:12 - there is none that seeketh after God - none can boast that they have come to God. The reality is that God has first come to us, making it possible for us to come to Him - first in the Garden of Eden, then through the striving of the Holy Spirit, and then through the condescension of Jesus Christ, the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Gen 3:9, 6:3; Heb 10:7; Eph 2:8, 9

Rom 3:12

Rom 3:12 - They are all gone out of the way - See Isa 53:6; Jer 6:16

Rom 3:12

Rom 3:12 - there is none that doeth good, no, not one - We have been corrupted by sin so that God's original purpose for mankind in the creation, to do good works and walk in them has not been fulfilled. See Eph 2:10; Mk 10:18

Rom 3:13

Rom 3:13 - their throat is an open sepulchre - Ps 5:9; Lk 11:44; Ex 21:33-36

Rom 3:13

Rom 3:13 - with their tongues they have used deceit - See Ps 31:13

Rom 3:13

Rom 3:13 - the poison of asps is under their lips - a generation of vipers. See Ps 140:3; Mt 3:7; John 8:44

Rom 3:14

Rom 3:14 - Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness - See Heb 12:15 Contrast - in their mouth is found no guile - See Rev 14:5

Rom 3:15

Rom 3:15 - Their feet are swift to shed blood: - See Prov 1:16, 6:18; Jer 7:6 Contrast - feet shed with the preparation of the gospel - Eph 6:15

Rom 3:16

Rom 3:16 - Destruction and misery are in their ways: - See Isa 59:8

Rom 3:17

Rom 3:17 - the way of peace have they not known - See Isa 59:8, Jer 4:22; Ps 120:6, 7 Contrast the work of righteousness: Isa 32:17; Heb 12:11

Rom 3:18

Rom 3:18 - There is no fear of God before their eyes - those who have not accepted the gospel of Jesus Christ and have not the Spirit of God dwelling within or to Whom they give no heed show a disdain for God and do not fear nor reverence Him (Mt 10:28). See Isa 11:2; Rev 14:7; Ps 31:18; Gen 20:11; Heb 12:16; Contrast Job 1:1, 28:28 Contrast Jer 32:39, 40

Rom 3:19

Rom 3:19 - what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law - See Rom 6:14, 15; Gal 3:10

Rom 3:19

Rom 3:19 - under the law - to be bound/subject to the requirements of the law through a covenant so that the blessings as well as verdicts, penalties, condemnation, judgments prescribed by the law for transgression are upheld. Those who seek to save themselves by upholding the law in their own strength or by their works (Old Covenant - Ex 19:8) will be judged and held accountable for their shortcomings to the Law. Those who embrace Christ's righteousness by faith, permit God to fulfill the Law in them, through His power (the Holy Spirit), by His grace. See Joh 1:12; Tit 2:12-14;

Rom 3:19

Rom 3:19 - that every mouth may be stopped - there will be no answer for sin because sin is inexcusable. - See Philippians 2:11

Rom 3:19

Rom 3:19 - and all the world may become guilty before God - all have sinned and come short of the glory of God. We have inherited the sinful nature of Adam, but we too have committed our own sins, making us all guilty of transgression. See Rom 3:4

Rom 3:20

Rom 3:20 - Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight - No one, in keep the law will be justified because we have all, already broken the law and are under its condemnation. Justification must come from some other source, outside of ourselves, pure and undefiled, and able to satisfy the righteous requirements of the law on our behalf. That One is Jesus. This is directed to every person who, in their own strength seek to be justified (Mt 19:16-22). See Eph 2:8, 9; John 6:63||3:6; Ps 143:2; Gal 2:16, 21; 3:11, 24, 5:4; Rom 10:1-4, 4:1-5

Rom 3:20

Rom 3:15 - for by the law is the knowledge of sin - the Law is as a mirror which merely points out the defects in our character. When man sinned, we lost our knowledge WITH God, so the commandments give us the knowledge of sin (Heb 9:9 - See conscience). Of itself, the law has no power to remedy the sin it reveals. See Rom 7:7; Jam 1:23-25

Rom 3:21

Rom 3:21 - But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; - See Rom 2:29, 9:30, 10:3; Isa 45:21; Ps 85:10, 89:14; Philippians 3:9 Justice and Mercy stood apart, in opposition to each other, separated by a wide gulf. The Lord our Redeemer clothed His divinity with humanity, and wrought out in behalf of man a character that was without spot or blemish. He planted His cross midway between heaven and earth, and made it the object of attraction which reached both ways, drawing both Justice and Mercy across the gulf. Justice moved from its exalted throne, and with all the armies of heaven approached the cross. There it saw One equal with God bearing the penalty for all injustice and sin. With perfect satisfaction Justice bowed in reverence at the cross, saying, It is enough.—General Conference Bulletin, Fourth Quarter, 1899, vol. 3, p. 102. - {7ABC 469.3}

Rom 3:21

Rom 3:21 - without the law - outside of the Law or not by virtue of the mere observance of the Law out of fear, though the law is not being abrogated but rather upheld. Righteousness made possible by faith of Jesus Christ - by better promises and guaranteed by the righteous life and blood of Jesus Christ. See Gal 3:25

Rom 3:21

Rom 3:21 - being witnessed by the law and the prophets - Paul makes reference to the Old Covenant and Old Testament with its ceremonies and rights that alone could not purify, but were a shadow of the true that was to come. Paul shows that God's righteousness is imparted and fulfilled by faith of Jesus Christ. This righteousness is witnessed to by the Law which itself is righteous. See Phil 3:9; Ps 119:172 The Law and the Prophets give testimony or evidence of the righteousness of God seen in the life of Jesus Christ and made available to all who embrace God's free gift and promises by faith, they too are declared righteous by God. See Rom 4:3, 5

Rom 3:22

Rom 3:22 - the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ - See Phil 3:9; Rev 14:12; Rom 10:3, 4, 4:4; Jer 23:5, 6 Righteousness is right doing, and it is by their deeds that all will be judged. Our characters are revealed by what we do. The works show whether the faith is genuine. - {COL 312.2}

Rom 3:22

Rom 3:22 - unto all and upon all them that believe - See Joh 1:12, 6:26-29; Gal 3:26-29

Rom 3:22

Rom 3:22 - for there is no difference: - there is no difference or distinction among men, seeing we all come from one blood (Adam), all have sinned, and we all are redeemed by one blood (Jesus').

Rom 3:23

Rom 3:23 - For all have sinned - See 1Kin 8:46; 2Chron 6:36; Rom 5:12; Gal 3:22; Jam 3:2, 6, 8; 1Jo 1:8

Rom 3:23

Rom 3:23 - come short of the glory of God - Adam forfeited the glory entrusted to him in the creation, to be king over the earth and to have the presence of God abiding within him to shine forth God's glory to the world (Ps 8:5). As a result, all who are born of Adam come into the world with a fallen (coming short) nature, we have all sinned and fallen short (have lost and do not measure up to the glory of God). Sin is coming short of perfection. God will not accept anything less than perfection. Ps 51:5; Jer 13:23; Job 14:4; Joh 3:18; Jer 17:9; Rom 7:21; CONTRAST: Col 2:9, 10; 2Cor 3:5; Eph 3:19 The converse must be true as well, those who have not sinned reflect the glory of God. The glory of God is seen in His radiant beauty as garments of light covering His Holiness. Upon those who fear God's name will the Sun of Righteousness arise. Jesus became perfect through suffering in order to fulfill [fill fully - fill the cup of] all righteousness. See Ps 104:1, 2; Mal 4:2; Rev 12:1; 2Cor 5:21; Mt 3:15||Heb 5:8, 9

Rom 3:24

Rom 3:24 - being justified freely by His grace - to render (i.e. show or regard as) just or innocent--free, justify(-ier), be righteous we are justified freely by grace through faith of Jesus Christ, believing in the efficacy of His shed blood - Rom 3:25, 4:1-5, 5:18; Heb 8:12, 2:9; 2Cor 5:19; 1Jo 2:2; Tit 3:7 Pardon and justification are one and the same thing. Through faith, the believer passes from the position of a rebel, a child of sin and Satan, to the position of a loyal subject of Christ Jesus, not because of an inherent goodness, but because Christ receives him as His child by adoption. The sinner receives the forgiveness of his sins, because these sins are borne by his Substitute and Surety. The Lord speaks to His heavenly Father, saying: "This is My child, I reprove him from the condemnation of death, giving him My life insurance policy—eternal life—because I have taken his place and have suffered for his sins. He is even My beloved son." Thus man, pardoned, and clothed with the beautiful garments of Christ's righteousness, stands faultless before God.... - {OHC 51.2}

Rom 3:24

Rom 3:24 - his grace - God's grace was has been and continues to be extended to Adam and His race due to our ignorance of Him, His love, His character, His goodness and His justice (Act 17:22-30). In contrast There is no grace extended to the devil and his angels, who all have tasted of God's goodness, were partakers of the heavenly bliss and yet turned and crucified Jesus in their hearts... there is no way to redeem such (Heb 6:4-6)

Rom 3:24

Rom 3:24 - through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus - the entire Plan of Redemption is being carried out by the One Who Created all things. Jesus is fulfilling the Father's will on His behalf, in destroying the enmity caused by man's rebellion and sin, reconciling men back to the Father in Himself, restoring His image in fallen humanity, and ultimately eradicating sin from the universe. See 2Cor 5:18-21

Rom 3:25

Rom 3:25 - set forth to be a propitiation through faith in His blood - Joh declared, "Behold the Lamb of God that taketh away the sins of the world". Joh was pointing to Christ, the fulfillment of all the ceremonial sacrifices, Whose blood was shed for the remission of the sins of the world. Joh saw Jesus as the Antitypical, the true fulfillment of the ceremonial services and their sacrifices. See Joh 1:29, 36; Lev 17:11; Rom 4:25; 1Jo 2:2, 4:10; Heb 2:17

Rom 3:25

Rom 3:25 - propitiation - an appeasement; that which conciliates (assuages) something wronged or offended. Jesus' perfect life and His death, shedding His innocent blood, satisfies the Law's demands. "The instant man accepted the temptations of Satan, and did the very things God had said he should not do, Christ, the Son of God, stood between the living and the dead, saying, "Let the punishment fall on Me. I will stand in man's place. He shall have another chance.""- {FLB 75.3}

Rom 3:25

Rom 3:25 - through faith in his blood - the shed blood of Jesus Christ reconciles the human race to God. Through faith in His life, poured out to cover all of our sins, we are reconciled, justified and sanctified all at once. See Lev 17:11; 1Jo 1:7;

Rom 3:25

Rom 3:25 - to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God - the righteousness of God [long suffering, forbearance, mercy, grace, kindness love] is seen in the shed blood of Christ for the remission of sins that were past.

Rom 3:25

Rom 3:25 - for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God - Christ is humanity's PASSOVER, before the foundation of the world (1Cor 5:7; Rev 13:8). God's forbearance delays punishment for sin [before the foundation of the world - Heb 9:26] so that we may seek forgiveness and find remission of sin; not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance. See 2Pet 3:9

Rom 3:25

Rom 3:25 - through the forbearance of God - God "passed over" the sins previously committed. Jesus is our "passover" (paresis) which means to place on the side, bypassed. As soon as Adam and Eve sinned, God passed over their sins. The sins of the forefathers were placed to the side, not to be forgotten but to be reserved for God's expiation and extirpation, the forever removal of sins by the blood of the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world. See 1Cor 5:7; Isa 53:6; Rev 13:8

Rom 3:26

Rom 3:26 - To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness - See Jer 23:5, 6 the forbearance of God was apparently not fully understood by the Jews. The Jews did not recognize the distinction between type and anti type. Through the annual Day of Atonement, their focus was placed upon the immediate need to expiate and extirpate sins, not realizing that the blood of bulls and goats could never take away our sins [Heb 10:4]. However, the righteousness of God in His loving forbearance was to show us that our sins were being stockpiled until the times of restitution, when Jesus through His blood would make atonement for our sins and blot them out permanently with His blood.

Rom 3:26

Rom 3:26 - that he might be just - God is just in that He upholds the righteous requirements of the Law through the death of His Son, the Second Adam and Personage of the human race (Heb 2:14-18). God is also just in not condemning us, as His Son has propitiated the offended Law and we may be found not guilty who come to Him in faith. See Rom 8:4; 1Jo 1:9; Heb 2:11

Rom 3:26 - that he might be just, and the justifier - the statement speaks of God's need to uphold justice and mercy (Ps 85:10) as part of the Plan of Redemption. God is just, faithful and fair towards the Law, which demanded the death of the human race; while simultaneously being merciful to the human race in giving us a second chance to choose Jesus by faith. See Heb 2:16, 17

Rom 3:26

Rom 3:26 - the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus - See Joh 3:16; Rom 8:30-33

Rom 3:27

Rom 3:27 - Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith - See Eph 2:9; Jer 9:23, 24; 1Cor 2:2

Rom 3:27

Rom 3:27 - By what law? of works? The Old Covenant is also referred to here as the Law of Works.

Rom 3:27

Rom 3:27 - the law of faith - we are bound to a new law, the law of faith (Everlasting/New Covenant - Heb 11:4, 8:10-13; Jer 31:31-34) that enables us to receive the blessing of justification, pardon of sins, by virtue of the blood of Christ as well as a new heart and power to become sons/daughters of God, upholding the perfect Law of Liberty (the 10 Commandments) by that same faith. See Rom 3:31, 7:12, 8:2; Jam 1:25, 2:12;

Rom 3:28

Rom 3:28 - Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law - As we embrace God's promises by faith, not having done any works of our own to merit His favor, we receive by grace Christ's righteousness and are pronounced just, not guilty for sins past (v23-26), purified, in a right relationship with God. See Rom 3:20, 21, 4:1-5; Gen 15:6; Gal 2:21

Rom 3:29

Rom 3:29 - Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also - God is no respecter of person, but in every nation he that feared Him, and workers righteousness, is accepted with Him. See Act 10:34, 17:26; Gal 3:26-29; Rom 4:16; Eph 2:1, 11-18

Rom 3:30

Rom 3:30 - Seeing it is one God - See Deut 6:4

Rom 3:30

Rom 3:30 - justify the circumcision by faith - the Jews, who by faith In obeying God's command, have been circumcised, and believe in God's salvation by faith, will be justified.

Rom 3:30

Rom 3:30 - uncircumcision through faith - the Gentiles, who have not partaken of circumcision of the flesh but have been circumcised of the heart to believe in God's salvation through faith of Jesus Christ, will be justified.

Rom 3:31

Rom 3:31 - Do we then make void the law through faith? - "By our faith, do we then cease to honor, uphold, exercise and practice the Law of God?" the question is asked. See Rom 3:27

Rom 3:31

Rom 3:31- God forbid - Absolutely not!! God help us NO!

Rom 3:31

Rom 3:31- we establish the law - we, like Jesus, our Great Exemplar, uphold, magnify and make the law honorable as practiced sincerely in our lives. See Isa 42:21; Rom 10:4

Rom 4:1

Rom 4:1 - What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? - what can be said of Abraham's accomplishments in the works of the flesh [versus faith]?

Rom 4:2

Rom 4:2 - For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God - If by Abraham's works he had attained justification, he would have room to boast before men. Yet, there would be no boasting before God. God's thoughts and ways have always been different than that of sinful men (Isa 55:8, 9; Ecc 7:29). God does not justify through any good that we have done. God justifies those who believe, placing their hope and trust in His finished works of justifying those who do not deserve it, solely by His grace through the merits of His Son. Rom 3:27, 4:2-5

Rom 4:2

Rom 4:2 - justified - proven to be just, conformable to the law, right, propriety of duty; vindicated as right

Rom 4:3

Rom 4:3 - For what saith the scripture? - the rhetorical question implies that the all be acquainted with the Scriptures and their teachings. See Joh 5:39; Lk 10:26

Rom 4:3

Rom 4:3-5 - See Gen 15:6; Joh 8:39; 6:29; Zech 3:3-5 "By faith he [the sinner, who has so grievously wronged and offended God] can bring to God the merits of Christ, and the Lord places the obedience of His Son to the sinners account. Christ's righteousness is accepted in place of man's failure." - Review and Herald, November 4, 1890.

Rom 4:3

Rom 4:3 - Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness - See Gen 15:6; Jam 2:23; Rom 4:17; Zech 3:3-5 "By faith he [the sinner, who has so grievously wronged and offended God] can bring to God the merits of Christ, and the Lord places the obedience of His Son to the sinners account. Christ's righteousness is accepted in place of man's failure." - Review and Herald, November 4, 1890. "By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh." Heb 11:4 Rahab the harlot, who was actively running a bordello (a brothel), believed in the God of Israel and that He would soon subdue Jericho. She therefore, cast her faith in Him and asked His grace upon her life and the life of her father, mother, and siblings. Through her faith, God declared her righteous and thus saved her and her father's household. This is righteousness by faith. See Joshua 2:8-13, 6:21-23; Jam 2:25

Rom 4:3

Rom 4:3 - it was counted unto him for righteousness - Abraham's BELIEF, the FAITH of Jesus Christ, was counted for righteousness. God looks upon our faith in His word, His promises, His love and in Him (His character) and justifies and declares the ungodly righteous. See Rom 3:26; Isa 54:17

Rom 4:4

Rom 4:4 - Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt - See Rom 3:20, 10:1-4 There are those who profess to serve God, while they rely upon their own efforts to obey His law, to form a right character, and secure salvation. Their hearts are not moved by any deep sense of the love of Christ, but they seek to perform the duties of the Christian life as that which God requires of them in order to gain heaven. Such religion is worth nothing. When Christ dwells in the heart, the soul will be so filled with His love, with the joy of communion with Him, that it will cleave to Him; and in the contemplation of Him, self will be forgotten. Love to Christ will be the spring of action. Those who feel the constraining love of God, do not ask how little may be given to meet the requirements of God; they do not ask for the lowest standard, but aim at perfect conformity to the will of their Redeemer. With earnest desire they yield all and manifest an interest proportionate to the value of the object which they seek. A profession of Christ without this deep love is mere talk, dry formality, and heavy drudgery. - {SC 44.2} Creature Merit Discussions may be entered into by mortals strenuously advocating creature merit, and each man striving for the supremacy, but they simply do not know that all the time, in principle and character, they are misrepresenting the truth as it is in Jesus. They are in a fog of bewilderment. They need the divine love of God which is represented by gold tried in the fire; they need the white raiment of Christ's pure character; and they need the heavenly eyesalve that they might discern with astonishment the utter worthlessness of creature merit to earn the wages of eternal life. There may be a fervor of labor and an intense affection, high and noble achievement of intellect, a breadth of understanding, and the humblest self-abasement, laid at the feet of our Redeemer; but there is not one jot more than the grace and talent first given of God. There must be nothing less given than duty prescribes, and there cannot be one jot more given than they have first received; and all must be laid upon the fire of Christ's righteousness to cleanse it from its earthly odor before it rises in a cloud of fragrant incense to the great Jehovah and is accepted as a sweet savor. - {FW 23.2} I ask, How can I present this matter as it is? The Lord Jesus imparts all the powers, all the grace, all the penitence, all the inclination, all the pardon of sins, in presenting His righteousness for man to grasp by living faith—which is also the gift of God. If you would gather together everything that is good and holy and noble and lovely in man and then present the subject to the angels of God as acting a part in the salvation of the human soul or in merit, the proposition would be rejected as treason. Standing in the presence of their Creator and looking upon the unsurpassed glory which enshrouds His person, they are looking upon the Lamb of God given from the foundation of the world to a life of humiliation, to be rejected of sinful men, to be despised, to be crucified. Who can measure the infinity of the sacrifice! - {FW 24.1} Christ for our sakes became poor, that we through His poverty might be made rich. And any works that man can render to God will be far less than nothingness. My requests are made acceptable only because they are laid upon Christ's righteousness. The idea of doing anything to merit the grace of pardon is fallacy from beginning to end. "Lord, in my hand no price I bring, simply to Thy cross I cling." - {FW 24.2}

Rom 4:3 - reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt - those who attempt to be justified of themselves by their good works [to be found worthy before God; to be pronounced not guilty, while still living in sin- transgressing the law of God; while not embracing the power of God to be victorious over sin and renewed by the Spirit of God], forsake the gift of grace from God but rather seek payment for their good works. See Jam 2:10; Lk 15:29; Gal 2:21 Let the subject be made distinct and plain that it is not possible to effect anything in our standing before God or in the gift of God to us through creature merit. Should faith and works purchase the gift of salvation for anyone, then the Creator is under obligation to the creature. Here is an opportunity for falsehood to be accepted as truth. If any man can merit salvation by anything he may do, then he is in the same position as the Catholic to do penance for his sins. Salvation, then, is partly of debt, that may be earned as wages. If man cannot, by any of his good works, merit salvation, then it must be wholly of grace, received by man as a sinner because he receives and believes in Jesus. It is wholly a free gift. Justification by faith is placed beyond controversy. And all this controversy is ended, as soon as the matter is settled that the merits of fallen man in his good works can never procure eternal life for him. - {FW 19.3}

Rom 4:5

Rom 4:5 - But to him that worketh not - Paul contrasts the Law of Works vs. the Law of Faith (Rom 3:27). Those who seek to earn salvation through their efforts and works, devoid of faith in the completed works and merits of Jesus Christ are not justified by God. Whereas, those who cease from their labors to try to please/appease God (Mt 11:28-30), but rest in His promises to justify freely by His free salvation and grace found in Jesus Christ (Joh 1:14, 17), are counted righteous.

Rom 4:5

Rom 4:5 - but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly - truly this is grace, that God would justify (pronounce credit us with Christ's righteousness, pronouncing us "Not Guilty") the ungodly because the ungodly has placed his trust in God, and has willed to believe in God's goodness towards him. Amazing Grace! See Rom 5:6, 3:24, 26, 28; Col 1:21, 22 God justifies the ungodly.... It does not mean that He glosses over a man's faults, so that he is counted righteous, although he is really wicked; but it means that He makes that man a doer of the law. The moment God declares an ungodly man righteous, that instant that man is a doer of the law.... It will be seen, therefore, that there can be no higher state than that of justification. It does everything that God can do for a man short of making him immortal, which is done only at the resurrection. ... Faith and submission to God must be exercised continually, in order to retain the righteousness—in order to remain a doer of the law. {Grace on Trial, pg 57, 58, R. Wieland} The spirit of self-justification originated in the father of lies and has been exhibited by all the sons and daughters of Adam. Confessions of this order are not inspired by the divine Spirit and will not be acceptable to God. True repentance will lead a man to bear his guilt himself and acknowledge it without deception or hypocrisy. Like the poor publican, not lifting up so much as his eyes unto heaven, he will cry, "God be merciful to me a sinner," and those who do acknowledge their guilt will be justified, for Jesus will plead His blood in behalf of the repentant soul. - {SC 40.2}

Rom 4:5 - justifieth the ungodly - To prove or show to be just, or conformable to law, right, justice, propriety or duty; to defend or maintain; to vindicate as right those who are dead in trespasses and sin. We have nothing to boast in because we all begin as ungodly, dead in trespasses and sins and Jesus quickens us by His grace (Isa 57:12). Let us all thus praise and magnify the name of the LORD for His indescribable gift in Jesus. We have nothing to boast in because we all started as nothing. The only thing we can boast in is the cross of Jesus Christ that saves us all FROM SIN! See Eph 2:4-6; Rom 3:22-26, 5:6-10; Mt 1:21, 18:23-35; 2Cor 5:21 Our justification is by imputation where we are credited as just through the efforts of another on our behalf. Therefore, our justification is conditional. We forfeited the possibility of justification by works because all have sinned and come short of the glory of God. Rom 3:23 Several have written to me, inquiring if the message of justification by faith is the third angel's message, and I have answered, "It is the third angel's message in verity."—Selected Messages 1:372 (1890). - {LDE 199.4} The statement that justification by faith is counting one just, not by virtue of his own obedience, but by what another does for him, is strictly correct as far as it goes, but was not offered as giving a full and complete idea of the effects of justification in the gospel. It has been noticed that a guilty person may be guilty still, notwithstanding another may suffer because of his violation of the law. This is and has been the condition of the great majority of those for whom Christ died. Now if a person were set free merely on the ground that the penalty had been executed on a substitute, though the authority and integrity of the law would be vindicated, the Government would have no security against his resuming a course of lawlessness; and the community would have no assurance that he would not again trample upon their rights. It is therefore evident that before a pardon can safely be granted to the transgressor, there must be given some guarantee in regard to his future conduct. To guard all interests; with mercy to unite justice to all parties, we shall need to inquire for a broader definition of justification by faith than that which we have considered. We should then define it as follows:- {1882 JHW, JBF 16.1} It is that change both in man's relations and condition by virtue of which (1) He is counted just as regards his past life, though his life has not been just; (2) The Government and its subjects are guaranteed against future depredations; and (3) God may consistently accept his service as that of a loyal subject. {1882 JHW, JBF 16.2} By this it will be seen that it is necessary, not only to do a work for man but, also, in him, in order to his complete justification. While the act of laying the penalty upon a substitute vindicates the majesty of the law, a change of heart or of disposition, a thorough amendment of life, can only give that guarantee which is demanded for the future. And this is called conversion. Justification by faith embraces all this. With anything less than this we cannot imagine that any one would stand justified before God. {1882 JHW, JBF 17.1}

Rom 4:5

Rom 4:5 - ungodly - the godless; those who are dead in trespasses and sins. See Eph 2:1-3, 5; 1Cor 6:9, 10; Col 3:5

Rom 4:5

Rom 4:5 - his faith is counted for righteousness - Faith is not a work performed to earn righteousness. Rather it is that which actuates, it is the means through which God imputes

(credits) the righteousness of Jesus Christ to the sinner. He is thus first "accounted" righteous, and then "made" righteous. The former is the work of JUSTIFICATION. The latter is the process of SANCTIFICATION. See Gal 3:11; Isa 54:17; Heb 11:1, 6

Rom 4:5 - righteousness - "Righteousness" is a word that is never used of created beings with a sinless nature. We read of "holy angels" or "unfallen angels," but never do we find the phrase righteous angels. We read of Adam and Eve before the fall that they were "innocent and holy," but never do we see that they were righteous. They could have developed a "righteous character" if they had resisted temptation, but righteousness is always a term that means holiness that has confronted temptation in sinful nature and has overcome. The word itself means justification, and something that is sinless cannot need justification. The innate meaning of the word is declaring something that has been crooked to be straightened.' {Wieland - Grace on Trial pg 208}

Rom 4:6

Rom 4:6 - Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works - "In My name," Christ bade His disciples pray. In Christ's name His followers are to stand before God. Through the value of the sacrifice made for them, they are of value in the Lord's sight. Because of the imputed righteousness of Christ they are accounted precious. For Christ's sake the Lord pardons those that fear Him. He does not see in them the vileness of the sinner. He recognizes in them the likeness of His Son, in whom they believe.—(The Desire of Ages, 667.) - {Pr 14.1}

Rom 4:6

Rom 4:6 - imputeth righteousness without works - IMPUTE, v.t. [L. imputo; in and puto, to think, to reckon; properly, to set, to put, to throw to or on.] 1. To charge; to attribute; to set to the account of; generally ill, sometimes good. We impute crimes, sins, trespasses, faults, blame, etc., to the guilty persons. We impute wrong actions to bad motives, or to ignorance, or to folly and rashness. We impute misfortunes and miscarriages to imprudence. God credits righteousness, godliness (God-likeness), purity, straightness of life, holiness to the one who by faith, believes in Christ and His finished works (Joh 6:28, 29; Rom 10:1-4) without attempting to earn or work for it.

Rom 4:7

Rom 4:7 - blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. See Ps 32:1; 1Jo 1:7

Rom 4:8

Rom 4:8 - Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin - blessed is the man who God will not charge, pronounce with sin. See Ps 32:2; 2Cor 5:19; Rom 8:1, 2; contrast 1Jo 1:9

Rom 4:9

Rom 4:9 - Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? - See Rom 3:28-30; Gal 5:6

Rom 4:9

Rom 4:9 - for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness - the faith of Jesus Christ, true, victorious faith, as demonstrated by Abraham gave cause for God to impute upon (credit towards Abraham) him His own righteousness. See Gen 15:6

Rom 4:10

Rom 4:10 - Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision - Abraham was pronounced righteous before the LORD before he was circumcised, therefore the blessedness of righteousness by faith applies to the circumcised as well as the uncircumcised.

Rom 4:11

Rom 4:11 - And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: - Abraham received (accepted, believed upon, was obedient to) the sign (seal, token) of circumcision, a seal (token) of the righteousness he had already received while still in uncircumcision. See Gen 15:6

Rom 4:11

Rom 4:11 - a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised - A token or emblem of the righteousness of the faith that was demonstrated by Abraham, while yet uncircumcised. Not that Abraham himself was righteous (of himself), but the faith that he had and demonstrated, the faith of Jesus Christ, was righteous. See Gal 3:8; Rom 4:12

Rom 4:11

Rom 4:11 - that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also: - Everything the Lord does is purposeful! God pronounced Abraham "righteous" before circumcision, so that he might be the father of all faithful, who receive and believe Jesus Christ (Joh 1:12), whether Jew or Gentile. Praise You Lord!!! See Gal 3:6-8, 26-29; Act 10:34, 35; Eph 2:11-19 Rahab the harlot in the Canaan land of Jericho, who was actively running a bordello (a brothel), believed in the God of Israel and that He would soon subdue Jericho. She therefore, cast her faith in Him and asked His grace upon her life and the life of her father, mother, and siblings. Through her faith, God declared her righteous and thus saved her and her father's household. This is righteousness by faith. See Joshua 2:8-13, 6:21-23

Rom 4:12

Rom 4:12 - And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised - See Deut 30:6; Gal 3:26-29

Rom 4:12

Rom 4:12 - but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham - Abraham believed God and moved with godly fear (godly obedience). The righteous faith Abraham held and demonstrated permitted him to begin his walk in obedience towards the Lord and his calling. Abraham was commanded to leave country, kindred and family behind and go wherever the Lord would lead him (Gen 12:1). Abraham forsook all and became a pilgrim on the earth, awaiting a better country, that is an heavenly country. See Heb 11:8-16

Rom 4:13

Rom 4:13 - For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith - God never intended for Abraham or his seed [heirs of Abraham by faith - Gal 3:29] to do anything to receive the inheritance of the earth, but merely to believe by faith that God would do it through Jesus Christ and the cross! The promise would be realized as we believe God and His word. See Gen 12:1-3; Ex 19:3-5; 2Chron 20:20; 2Cor 1:19, 20; Gal 3:13, 14 No promise of God has ever been given to man except through Christ. Personal faith in Christ is the one thing necessary in order to receive whatever God has promised. God is no respecter of persons: He offers His riches freely to everybody; but no one can have any part in them except as he accepts Christ. This is perfectly fair, since Christ is given to all if they will but have Him. {The Everlasting Gospel, E.J. Waggoner, Pg 49}

Rom 4:14 - he should be the heir of the world - Abraham and his Seed, Christ, would inherit the new heavens and new earth. See Gen 13:14-17, 12:3, 22:17; Rev 21:1-7; Isa 58:14

Rom 4:13

Rom 4:13 - through the law, but through the righteousness of faith - the promise of righteousness by faith was not by the works of the law or the keeping of the law but by receiving and believing (Joh 1:12) Jesus, Who is OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS, Who justifies the ungodly, Who pardons the transgressors, Who forgives us by His grace, Who blots out our iniquities with His own blood for His name sake, Who makes us to be sons of God. See Jer 23:5, 6; Gal 3:22; Joh 7:38, 39; 1Jo 1:7

Rom 4:14

Rom 4:14 - For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect: - if those who through the works of the law (primarily, natural descendants of Abraham to whom the law was first given (v16), but also Gentiles who seek to earn salvation through works) are truly heirs, then there is no need for faith and the promises of being justified freely as an act of grace by God are worthless, because the one has earned justification. See Rom 4:4

Rom 4:15

Rom 4:15 - Because the Law worketh wrath - See Rom 7:7-14 the law, which is holy, just and good, points out sin in the lives of all who come to the knowledge of it. To live by the law rather than by grace is to accept the worthiness of the law and to take upon oneself the responsibility of upholding the law in one's own strength, by one's own merits and to be found before God without fault. This is impossible for sinful (born in sin, shapen in iniquity - Ps 51:5) mortals. To live by grace means to accept the free grace and pardon offered by God through faith, to embrace His promise of a new heart and mind in Christ and to submit to God's will, Who will, by His power, equip the obedient to fulfill the righteousness of the law (Rom 4:16). The wrath of God is upon those who seek to work the works of the law in their own strength. They must uphold the righteous requirements of the law of themselves, since they have spurned the grace gift offered through faith of Jesus Christ.

Rom 4:15

Rom 4:15 - for where no law is, there is no transgression - Because the Jew's rejected the light of truth and scorned the righteous requirements of the law (to do justly, love mercy, and to walk humbly with their God - Mic 6:8) their sins remained. See Joh 9:39-41; Rom 3:20

Rom 4:16

Rom 4:16 - Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed - the promise is fulfilled by faith through by the grace of God, and not by the works of the Law so that all may be accounted as seed, not just those who were entrusted with the Law, but all those who bear the faith of their spiritual father Abraham.

Rom 4:16

Rom 4:16 - not to that only which is of the law - speaking specifically of the Jews.

Rom 4:16

Rom 4:16 - but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham - the promise is to those that have the righteousness of Christ by faith, the faith of Jesus Christ. See Gal 3:9, 7, 26-29

Rom 4:16

Rom 4:16 - who is the father of us all - See Rom 4:23, 24

Rom 4:17

Rom 4:17 - I have made thee a father of many nations - all kindreds, nations, tongues and people who by faith keep the faith of Jesus Christ, are sons of Abraham (Gal 3:26-29; Act 10:34, 35). The perfect fulfillment of this prophecy will be seen on the Sea of Glass, when all the saints of God worship the Father and the Lamb. See Rev 7:9||Gen 15:5, 6

Rom 4:17

Rom 4:17 - before him whom he believed, even God - Abraham believed God - See Rom 4:3

Rom 4:17

Rom 4:17 - who quickeneth the dead - God gives life unto the dead, spiritually and naturally. Until we receive Jesus Christ in the heart, we are spiritually dead. Jesus, through the Holy Spirit gives (spiritual) life which is eternal. See Ezekiel 37:1-10; Eph 2:1; Col 2:13; Rom 6:13; 2Cor 1:9; 1Tim 6:13

Rom 4:17

Rom 4:17 - calleth those things which be not as though they were - God declares the end from the beginning and speaks proleptically. See Num 23:19; Isa 46:10; 44:7, 22; 45:23, 48:5; Gen 3:15; Heb 4:3; Rev 13:8; Joh 13:19; Psa 139:16 Compare: Isa 60:4 || Joh 4:32, 33 God pardons proleptically: Isa 44:22 || Isa 55:7 Examples: Gen 3:15 Isa 7:14 This is indicated by the words of the apostle Paul concerning God that He "calleth those things which be not as though they were." This is an attribute of Divinity alone. If a man calls a thing that is not, as though it were, it is a lie. But God does so, and He cannot lie. How is this? Simply because that when He calls a thing by name, or says that a thing will be, it already exists, even though it cannot be seen. The thing is in His word. When He names a thing that previously had no existence, that instant the thing will be, then it is as sure as though it had already appeared, because it does really exist in the word that has been spoken. It is for this reason that so much of prophecy is in the perfect tense, as though already accomplished. So when the worlds were to be brought into existence, God spoke, and there they were. They were formed by the breath of His mouth. {The Gospel of Creation by E.J. Waggoner} Moses upon the mount of transfiguration was a witness to Christ's victory over sin and death. He represented those who shall come forth from the grave at the resurrection of the just. Elijah, who had been translated to heaven without seeing death, represented those who will be living upon the earth at Christ's second coming, and who will be "changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump;" when "this mortal must put on immortality," and "this corruptible must put on incorruption." 1Cor 15:51-53. Jesus was clothed with the light of heaven, as He will appear when He shall come "the second time without sin unto salvation." For He will come "in the glory of His Father with the holy angels." Heb 9:28; Mark 8:38. The Saviour's promise to the disciples was now fulfilled. Upon the mount the future kingdom of glory was represented in miniature,—Christ the King, Moses a representative of the risen saints, and Elijah of the translated ones. - {DA 421.4} "That is, God speaks of things that exist only in His purpose, just as though they had a present existence; because they shall surely exist; even as he called Abraham the father of many nations, when as ye he had no son. Gen 17" {JN Andrews, The Rich Man and Lazarus pg 15}

Rom 4:18 - Who against hope, believed in hope - Abraham had faith in God's promises though the evidence was hard to see, he being nearly 100yrs old and Sarah's womb being dead as she was 90years old (Heb 11:11, 12; v19). Abraham placed [rested upon] hope in and on He Who is Faithful. See Rom 4:20, 21

Rom 4:18

Rom 4:18 - So shall thy seed be - the seed of Abraham are just as their father, hoping against [upon] hope and trusting in the promises of God, despite all perceived and un-perceived circumstances. See Rom 4:21

Rom 4:19

Rom 4:19 - And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sara's womb: - See Heb 11:11, 12, 17-19

Rom 4:20

Rom 4:20 - He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief - He did not hesitate nor entertain unbelief for a moment. Contrast Heb 3:16-4:2

Rom 4:20

Rom 4:20 - unbelief - to stagger, doubt, waiver, hesitate, deny the promises of God, all of which is sin (Joh 16:9) To deny Christ, rather than to receive Him is unbelief (Joh 1:12, 13) One's heart is evil when unbelief is present - Heb 3:12 Unbelief caused Israel to: 1. Wander in the wilderness for 40yrs, causing that generation to die off,not entering the Promised Land 2. Fail to enter God's rest - See Heb 3:19, 4:6 3. Be cut-off from God - Rom 11:20

Rom 4:20

Rom 4:20 - but was strong in faith, giving glory to God - when we stand in faith, trusting n the very promises God has given without waivering, trusting in God's providence, we give Him glory.

Rom 4:20

Rom 4:20 - giving glory to God - our exercise and demonstration of strong, victorious faith gives glory to God - See 1Pet 2:9; Rev 14:7 Job 1:20-22 Joshua & Caleb - Num 14:6-9 David: 1Sam 17:26-36 3 Hebrew worthies: Dan 3:16-18

Rom 4:21

Rom 4:21 - And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform - So shall Abraham's seed be! This first applies to Jesus Christ, the Seed of the woman, Who believed in all the promises of His Father. And by Jesus' merits, it applies to all who choose to put their trust and confidence in God. See Heb 11:13; Phil 1:6; Ps 138:8; 1Jo 5:13; Josh 23:14, 15

Rom 4:22

Rom 4:22 - And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness - See Gen 15:6

Rom 4:24

Rom 4:24 - But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead - See Gal 3:26-29

Rom 4:25

Rom 4:25 - Who was delivered for our offenses - Jesus was delivered to death for the sins of His people, you and me! See Isa 53:4-6, 10; Rom 3:25; 1Jo 2:2, 4:10; Gal 3:13

Rom 4:25

Rom 4:25 - was raised again for our justification - by virtue of Jesus' resurrection, we by faith have assurance that His sacrifice for our sins was acceptable to the Father [and the Law - the law was satisfied - had there been blemish or defect with the Lamb (physical or moral) as in the typical service, it would not be accepted] and that we stand before God by faith, as just, blameless, without sin! Praise God!!

Rom 4:25

Rom 4:25 - justification - What is justification by faith?—It is the work of God in laying the glory of man in the dust, and doing for man that which it is not in his power to do for himself. When men see their own nothingness, they are prepared to be clothed with the righteousness of Christ. When they begin to praise and exalt God all the day long, then by beholding they are becoming changed into the same image. What is regeneration?—It is revealing to man what is his own real nature, that in himself he is worthless. - {SpTA09 62.2} See Rom 5:16, 18

Rom 5:1

Rom 5:1 - Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: - we are pardoned/forgiven freely by faith and thus have peace with the Father through the Lord Jesus Christ - See 1Jo 1:7, 2:12; Rom 8:1; 2Cor 5:18, 19 The paralytic man who was pronounced forgiven by Jesus found contentment in his situation. He would have been prepared to live out the rest of his life with the same physical maladies, so long as he knew he had peace (forgiveness and reconciliation) with God. God is so merciful that He would not permit His son to suffer any longer for his sins, so in mercy and grace towards him, Jesus declared, "arise, take up your bed and go home!" See Rom 4:5; Act 13:39; 2Cor 5:17-21; Mt 9:6 Faith and Feeling Distinct—Faith and feeling are as distinct as the east is from the west. Faith is not dependent on feeling. We must earnestly cry to God in faith, feeling or no feeling, and then live our prayers. Our assurance and evidence is God's word, and after we have asked we must believe without doubting. I praise Thee, O God, I praise Thee. Thou hast not failed me in the performance of Thy word. Thou has revealed Thyself unto me, and

I am Thine to do Thy will (Letter 7, 1892). - {6BC 1073.10}

Rom 5:1

Rom 5:1 - we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ - See Eph 2:14-16; Rom 5:10; Isa 32:17; Ps 119:165; John 16:33

Rom 5:2

Rom 5:2 - By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God - through Christ, we by faith have access to the grace of the Father, the grace that brings salvation (Eph 2:8; Titus 2:11) wherein we stand and the hope of receiving His full glory (character and name - Rev 14:1) and eternal life in due time. See Tit 2:11-14

Rom 5:2

Rom 5:2- rejoice in hope of the glory of God - we rejoice in our hopeful anticipation of God's glory being revealed in us, Christ in you and me, the hope of glory! See Col 1:26, 27; 1Pet 4:13; Isa 60:1-3; Rev 18:1 Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 415.5} The light of the Sun of Righteousness is to shine forth in good works—in words of truth and deeds of holiness. - {COL 416.1}

Rom 5:2

Rom 5:2 - hope of the glory of God - the path to hope involves tribulation (the trying of our faith), patient endurance, experience and finally hope (Rom 5:3, 4, 8:24). The result of the trials and patient endurance is a purified Christ-like character. See Isa 60:1-3; 1Pet 4:13; Rev 18:1; Heb 6:19; 2Pet 1:1-4; Titus 2:11, 12

Rom 5:3

Rom 5:3 - we glory in tribulations also - See 1Pet 4:12, 13, 19; Act 14:22; 2Cor 12:10; Joh 16:33; Heb 12:7; 1Jo 5:4, 5

Rom 5:3

Rom 5:3 - knowing that tribulation worketh patience - tribulation, the trying of our faith develops patience. See Jam 1:3; 1Pet 1:6, 7

Rom 5:4

Rom 5:4 - experience, hope - experience brings hope because the God of yesterday that delivered us from our tribulations is also the God of today and tomorrow. Hope is our longing for that which we can not see in the present (Rom 8:24, 25), but yet we have full assurance of its fulfillment because of He Who promised (Heb 10:23).

Rom 5:4

Rom 5:4 - hope - hope and increased faith that God is ever with us and will carry our burdens. Also, greater hope and longing for the promised redemption.

Rom 5:5

Rom 5:5 - And hope maketh not ashamed - We are saved by hope (Rom 8:24) and our hope will in no wise disappoint us. Our blessed hope is to reflect Christ once again in character before He comes again - See 2Pet 4:13, 1:1-4; Titus 2:11, 12; Isa 60:1-3; Heb 6:19 Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 415.5} The light of the Sun of Righteousness is to shine forth in good works—in words of truth and deeds of holiness. - {COL 416.1} We have confidence in Him Who has promised and have been sealed by His Spirit. See Ps 119:116; Isa 28:16; Rom 9:33; Eph 1:13, 14; Isa 28:16; Heb 10:23; Joshua 1:5

Rom 5:5

Rom 5:5 - because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us - the Holy Spirit is He who implants God's love in our hearts to circumcise the heart to love Him with all the heart, soul and mind. See Deut 30:6, 7; Mk 12:29-33

Rom 5:5

Rom 5:5 - love of God - love that emanates from God that enables us to love Him and to love others. God's Love is impartial, without dissimulation, pure, holy, meek, easily entreated. See Mk 12:29-33; Jam 3:17, 18

Rom 5:5

Rom 5:5 - shed abroad - to pour out, the shed forth, to disperse or scatter.

Rom 5:5

Rom 5:5 - by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us - See Act 3:20, 5:32; Eph 1:13, 14; Col 1:27, 28; Gal 4:6; 1Jo 3:24, 4:2, 3; Joh 1:33, 14:16-18; Lk 1:35 The Holy Spirit: 1. Pours out the love of God into our hearts that we may love Him and love others (Rom 5:5) 2. is the Spirit of Truth Who guides us into ALL truth (Joh 16:13) a. Convicts us of sin (Joh 16:9) b. Convicts us of righteousness (Joh 16:10 - Jesus, the Savior of the world and OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS - Jer 23:5, 6) c. Convicts us of judgment (Joh 16:11; Rom 14:10) 3. is another Comforter, Whose abiding presence brings peace and comfort (Joh 14:16, 16:7; Isa 32:17) 4. Gives us power to become sons/daughters of God (Joh 1:12, 13) 5. Is the Spirit of Life (2Cor 3:6) 6. Is the Spirit of Liberty (2 Cor 3:17) 7. Is He Who transforms us into the image of Christ (2Cor 3:18)

Rom 5:6

Rom 5:6 - For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly - When we were dead in trespasses and sins, having no power from the Holy Spirit to resist sin, Christ died for us. See Rom 4:5, 5:10; Eph 2:1, 5; Col 2:13

Rom 5:6

Rom 5:6 - without strength - To be weak or lacking [physical] strength. Modern manifestations of this word: Myestemia Gravis or Impotence

Rom 5:6

Rom 5:6 - in due time Christ died for the ungodly - See Rom 4:4, 5, 5:8; Gal 4:4; Eph 2:1-3

Rom 5:6

Rom 5:6 - ungodly - mean without reverence or worshipfulness - those who have a lack of will or appreciation for holy things. Don't have an appetite for godly things. They may have strength but don't have the appetite to grasp that which is right or good. "I'm just not feeling it". It is for these that Jesus died. Rom 4:5

Rom 5:7

Rom 5:7 - For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die - Paul speaks in terms of goodness that were common to popular belief. The Greek's concept of love demonstrated in its highest (agape), speaks of one nobly dying for another who too is noble and upright. However, God's love far exceeds that, where One Who is infinitely good, dies for the wretched, ungodly, and an enemy. See Joh 15:13; Rom 5:10

Rom 5:8

Rom 5:8 - But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us - See 1Jo 4:10, 19; Lk 6:35, 7:41, 42

Rom 5:8

Rom 5:8 - commendeth - God entrusts, gives, commits His love towards us— sinful men, with no guarantee that we will appreciate or seek to reciprocate in return. See Act 20:32

Rom 5:8

Rom 5:8 - love - agape - selfless, self-sacrificing love.

Rom 5:8

Rom 5:8 - while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us - Enemies of God in word, though and deed. Those who miss the mark. They who don't want to do right. Those who have some wrong in themselves that they aim, purpose to do. We intend to do wrong. Hosea 3:1-5; Rom 5:10 The prophet Isa says that compared to God, all the nations are less than nothing and all vanity. Yet, God in His infinite grace, saw value in us and sent His Son to die for us. Praise be to God!! See Isa 40:17; Rom 5:6

Rom 5:9

Rom 5:9 - Much more then, being now justified by his blood - Justification is made possible by no other means than by the spilled blood of the Lamb of God. No other remedy [works of righteousness, etc. - Catholic theology teaches that we are not saved by Jesus' blood] could atone for man's fallen condition as set forth before the foundation of the world. Even more than God giving His son to die for sinners, now, as justified by His blood by His grace through faith, we will be saved from wrath through Christ- God's wrath and our own wrath. See Rom 3:24, 25; Rev 15:6, 7; Eph 2:3

Rom 5:9

Rom 5:9 - being now justified by his blood - we are pardoned/forgiven by the blood of the Lamb - See 1Jo 1:7; Rom 4:5

Rom 5:9

Rom 5:9 - we shall be saved from wrath through him - We need not be excitable, angered, vexed, or moved by violent emotion as God's peace, quietness and assurance abides in us. We are saved from the wrath that is in the natural heart, and the wrath of God that will destroy the wicked - Isa 32:17; Lk 21:23; Eph 2:15 wrath: movement or agitation of the soul, impulse, desire, any violent emotion, but esp. anger we will be delivered from the wrath of God, embodied in the 7-last plagues. However, we shall also be delivered from our own wrath, anxiety, agitation of our souls through Christ. See Rev 15:1; Phil 4:6; Rom 8:35; 1Jo 4:17, 18

Rom 5:10

Rom 5:10 - For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son - The blood and death of Christ reconciles a rebel who still hasn't changed, to God. God's grace is extended to us so that we may see/perceive the love of God, be touched and drawn by the Spirit of God and surrender by coming to Jesus - See 2Cor 4:6, 5:19; Eph 2:5; Titus 2:11; Mt 11:28-30

Rom 5:10

Rom 5:10 - reconciled - katallássō Verb kat-al-las'-so from (2596) and (236) from and ; to change mutually, i.e. (figuratively) to compound a difference:--reconcile. to change, exchange, as coins for others of equivalent value to reconcile (those who are at variance) return to favour with, be reconciled to one to receive one into favour 2Cor 5:17-19

Rom 5:10

Rom 5:10 - reconciled to God by the death of his Son - Jesus shed blood and death satisfies the offended law and permits us to be reconciled to God. Jesus conquered sin and the enmity, so that we could be reconciled once again to the Father. But it is Jesus' life and mediation as our High Priest that dispossess sin from us so that we might have eternal life. See Eph 2:14, 15

Rom 5:10

Rom 5:10 - we shall be saved by his life - The resurrected life of Jesus Christ with power is our guarantee of eternal life. It is Jesus' life, perfect, pure, undefiled and faultless that saves us. Jesus is OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. It is Jesus' mediation today as our living and eternal High Priest that saves us; He ever liveth to make intercession for us! - See Rom 6:5, 8; Jer 23:5, 6; Heb 8:1, 2; 7:24, 25; 6:19 The main ground of this error [that we are saved by the death of Jesus, rather than by His life], that the debt is so paid that the work of salvation is already completed, lies in the statement, now so generally believed, that the atonement was made on the cross of Christ. The proof in the Scriptures is abundant that the slaying of the offering, or sacrifice, did not make atonement. It was preparatory to making the atonement. After the offering was slain the priest took the blood into the sanctuary, and there made the atonement. See Lev. 4, and others, for special atonements, and Lev. 16 for the general atonement, on the "day of atonement" for all the people. It may indeed be affirmed that Christ is both the sacrifice and the priest. This we admit; but he is not both at the same time. That is, he was not acting as a priest when he died on the cross. We have not space here to enlarge on this subject, but will notice a few points in Paul's masterly argument to the Hebrews:- {1882 JHW, JBF 13.2} 1. The sanctuary of the new covenant is in Heaven. {1882 JHW, JBF 14.1} 2. The priesthood of Christ is in Heaven-not on the earth. Please read Heb. 8:1-5. {1882 JHW, JBF 14.2} 3. Christ entered into Heaven by his own blood to appear before

God for us. Heb. 9:24, 25. We remark that the atonement was always made in the sanctuary, the offering was never slain in the sanctuary. {1882 JHW, JBF 14.3} 4. The offering of Christ conformed strictly to the types in this respect. "For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned with out the camp. Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate." Heb. 13:11, 12. He shed his blood without the gate, but as a priest he is set down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the Heavens; a minister of the sanctuary and true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man. It is the blood that atones; the blood cleanses; but it is the priest who presents th at blood before the shekinah who makes the atonement. In this is seen the harmony of the divine plan according to Paul's words in Rom. 5:10; reconciled to God by the death of his Son, which death makes salvation possible to the applicant; saved by his life, or priesthood, whereby the atonement is made, by which salvation is positive, fixed, certain. Not all for whom Christ died will be saved; but all for whom atonement is made, whose sins are blotted out, will be saved. {1882 JHW, JBF 14.4}

Rom 5:11 - but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement - We delight in God Who has imparted all gifts to us through His Son, Jesus Christ, especially atonement. We who were once enemies of God (Rom 5:10, Eph 2:14, 15), have been reconciled and reunited with the Father through the body of His Son, Jesus Christ. See Rom 5:1; Eph 1:3; 2Cor 5:18, 19

Rom 5:11

Rom 5:11 - we have now received the atonement - the mercy seat, propitiation, peace, restoration of favor and blotting out of sins are all guaranteed in Jesus as we continue to abide in Him until the end. This statement is spoken proleptically in that the atonement was to take place after Oct 22, 1844, but by faith we have in Christ Who is Eternal Life and our Salvation. See Act 3:19, 20 The main ground of this error [that we are saved by the death of Jesus rather than by His life], that the debt is so paid that the work of salvation is already completed, lies in the statement, now so generally believed, that the atonement was made on the cross of Christ. The proof in the Scriptures is abundant that the slaying of the offering, or sacrifice, did not make atonement. It was preparatory to making the atonement. Rom 5:11

Rom 5:11 - atonement - katallagḗ Noun Feminine kat-al-lag-ay' from (2644) from ; exchange (figuratively, adjustment), i.e. restoration to (the divine) favor:--atonement, reconciliation(-ing). exchange of the business of money changers, exchanging equivalent values adjustment of a difference, reconciliation, restoration to favour in the NT of the restoration of the favour of God to sinners that repent and put their trust in the expiatory death of Christ To have one's sins blotted out and their records purged so that we stand as if we have never sinned.

Rom 5:12

Rom 5:12 - Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned: - sin has become part of our nature. See 1Cor 15:22; Heb 7:9, 10

Rom 5:12

Rom 5:12 - death by sin - See 1Cor 15:56

Rom 5:12

Rom 5:12 - and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned - Spiritual death which brings sickness and death are a result of sin that is brought upon each person because all were in Adam when he sinned. We are not guilty or condemned for Adam's sin, but were subjected to sin because of his sin. Nevertheless, we receive payment for our own sins.

Rom 5:12

Rom 5:12 - for that all have sinned - See Rom 3:13-18, 23

Rom 5:13

Rom 5:13 - For until the law sin was in the world - Sin existed in the world and was known of men from its inception. The Law however, made the sins plainly known and thus abound. See Rom 3:25

Rom 5:13

Rom 5:13 - but sin is not imputed when there is no law - Where there is sin, there is the transgression of the Law (1Jo 3:4), and failure to abide in God through Jesus Christ. Yet, God does not hold us accountable for an offense without a knowledge of it being an offense. In times of ignorance, God through His forbearance, winks at our ignorance. See Act 17:30; Rom 4:15; Ps 32:1

Rom 5:14

Rom 5:14 - Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses - though sin is not imputed where there is no law (10 Commandments given to Moses), nevertheless, the sting of death and the curse was still upon humankind from Adam, despite the Law of Commandments not being written down. See Gen 3:16-20; 1Cor 15:55, 56;

Rom 5:14

Rom 5:14 - had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression - Adam, who embodied perfect humanity, transgressed through unbelief: doubting God's plain word; choosing himself over God; presumption in thinking he could live without God or that God would pardon his transgression without consequences; and self-exaltation, believing he could be a god, asserting his will over God's will.

Rom 5:14

Rom 5:14 - who is the figure of Him that was to come - Adam is a figure or type of Christ, who in the fulness of time would be born of a woman, born under the Law (Gal 4:4) as the Second Adam. Adam, the natural man, is a type of the True Man, Jesus Christ, the Spiritual Man. 1Cor 15:21, 22, 45

Rom 5:15

Rom 5:15 - But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many. - Just as Adam's offense has led to the death of all men, so the free gift, given by grace by the One Man, Jesus Christ, has given all eternal life. See 1Cor 15:20-22;

Rom 5:15

Rom 5:15 - But not as the offence, so also is the free gift - Though our offenses differed from that of Adams, the free gift in Jesus Christ is given to all equally regardless of our offenses

Rom 5:15

Rom 5:15 - For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many - Corporate sin and Corporate grace are here expounded. As we were in Adam and Adam sinned, so sin spread to all men. Similarly, as Christ is the Second Adam, all are made alive by virtue of His fulfilling all righteousness.

Rom 5:15

Rom 5:15 - many - polýs Adjective pol-oos' including the forms from the alternate pollos including the forms from the alternate pollos; (singular) much (in any respect) or (plural) many; neuter (singular) as adverbial, largely; neuter (plural) as adverb or noun often, mostly, largely:--abundant, + altogether, common, + far (passed, spent), (+ be of a) great (age, deal, -ly, while), long, many, much, oft(-en (-times)), plenteous, sore, straitly. Rom 5:16

Rom 5:16 - the judgment was by one to condemnation - The act of condemning; the judicial act of declaring one guilty, and dooming him to punishment. Through Adam's one sin, sin entered the race; all have sinned and all are therefore, condemned.

Rom 5:16

Rom 5:16 - but the free gift is of many offenses unto justification - Jesus justifies those who have come to Him, though they have committed many sins. Praise God!!!

Rom 5:16

Rom 5:16 - justification - See Rom 4:4, 5 - pardon/forgiveness What is justification by faith? —It is the work of God in laying the glory of man in the dust, and doing for man that which it is not in his power to do for himself. When men see their own nothingness, they are prepared to be clothed with the righteousness of Christ. When they begin to praise and exalt God all the day long, then by beholding they are becoming changed into the same image. What is regeneration?—It is revealing to man what is his own real nature, that in himself he is worthless. - {SpTA09 62.2} See Rom 5:18, 4:26

Rom 5:17

Rom 5:17 - as all men are sons of Adam and have received the condemnation of sin by one man's sin, so too, all who accept Christ will receive the free gift of salvation through the one name under heaven by which we may be saved, Jesus Christ. See Act 4:12

Rom 5:17

Rom 5:17 - they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ - those who receive the gracious gift of righteousness by faith, will reign in eternal life by Jesus Christ.

Rom 5:17

Rom 5:17 - abundance of grace - See Rom 5:20; Tit 2:11-15

Rom 5:17

Rom 5:17 - gift of righteousness - Christ's righteousness is imputed and imparted by grace through faith. Imputed - Rom 4:4, 5 Imparted - Eph 3:20

Rom 5:17

Rom 5:17 - reign in life by one, Jesus Christ - reign in the present life, being victorious over the world. But reign in eternal righteousness yielding eternal life, for God is not the God of the dead but of the living!

Rom 5:18

Rom 5:18 - Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation - See Rom 3:23, 8:1; 1Cor 5:22, 15:21, 22; John 5:24

Rom 5:18

Rom 5:18 - all - pâs Adjective pas including all the forms of declension including all the forms of declension; apparently a primary word; all, any, every, the whole:--all (manner of, means), always(-s), any (one), ? daily, + ever, every (one, way), as many as, + no(-thing), ? thoroughly, whatsoever, whole, whosoever. individually each, every, any, all, the whole, everyone, all things, everything collectively some of all types

Rom 5:18

Rom 5:18 - condemnation - The act of condemning; the judicial act of declaring one guilty, and dooming him to punishment

Rom 5:18

Rom 5:18 - even so by the righteousness of one - the righteousness of the Second Adam, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS; See Jer 23:5, 6

Rom 5:18

Rom 5:18 - the free gift came upon all men - Jesus is the Savior of the ENTIRE WORLD! PRAISE BE TO GOD FOR HIS WONDERFUL LOVE!!!!!! See Rom 5:16; 1Tim 4:10; Eph 1:4 Justification means to humble oneself, acknowledging our sins and utter reliance upon God, thus becoming right with God and before the Law. God's justification is a free gift given by God to all men, but is to be received based on something tangible, namely, our recognition of our nothingness and faith in Him being Everything (Heb 11:1). Our exercise of faith is what actuates God's justification in each heart of those who put their trust in Him. See Joh 4:42; 1Tim 4:10; Rom 12:3; Heb 12:2; Joh 6:29; Act 10:43

Rom 5:18

Rom 5:18 - all - pâs Adjective pas including all the forms of declension including all the forms of declension; apparently a primary word; all, any, every, the whole:--all (manner of, means), always(-s), any (one), ? daily, + ever, every (one, way), as many as, + no(-thing), ? thoroughly, whatsoever, whole, whosoever. individually each, every, any, all, the whole, everyone, all things, everything collectively some of all types

Rom 5:18

Rom 5:18 - unto justification of life - unto pardon - See Rom 3:22-26 In much of the service professedly done for God, there is self-emulation and self-exultation. God hates pretense. When men and women receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit, they will confess their sins, and, pardon, which means justification, will be given them. But the wisdom of the human agents who are not penitent, not humbled, is not to be depended on, for they are blinded in regard to the meaning of righteousness and sanctification through the truth. When men are stripped of self-righteousness, they will see their spiritual poverty. Then they will approach that state of brotherly kindness that will show that they are in sympathy with Christ. They will be able to appreciate the high and elevated character of the work of Christian missions.... - {TDG 326.2} Many are readily satisfied with offering the Lord trifling acts of service. Their Christianity is feeble. Christ gave Himself for sinners. With what anxiety for the salvation of souls we should be filled as we see human beings perishing in sin. These souls have been bought with a price. - {TDG 326.3} The death of the Son of God on Calvary's cross is the measure of their value. Day by day they are deciding a question of life and death, deciding whether they will have eternal life or eternal destruction. And yet men and women professing to serve the Lord are content to occupy their time and attention with matters of little importance. They are content to be at variance with one another. If they were consecrated to the work of the Master, they would not be striving and contending like a family of unruly children. Every hand would be engaged in service. Everyone would be standing at his post of duty, working with heart and soul as missionaries of the cross of Christ. The Spirit of Christ would abide in the hearts of laborers, and works of righteousness would be wrought. The workers would carry with them into their service the sympathies and prayers of an awakened church. They would receive their orders from Christ, and would find no time for contention or strife.—Letter 173, November 13, 1902, to those assembled in council at Battle Creek. - {TDG 326.4}

Rom 5:19 - For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners - See Rom 5:12

Rom 5:19

Rom 5:19 - so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous - the Man, Christ Jesus' obedience made possible for us to receive the righteousness of God and to walk in obedience as He did. See Heb 10:5-7; 1Jo 4:17; 1Tim 2:5

Rom 5:19

Rom 5:19 - shall many be made righteous - THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS (Jer 23:6). Though the free gift has been given to all men, only many (some) shall be made righteous as they embrace the gift by faith.

Rom 5:20

Rom 5:20 - Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound - the Law was given to reveal the abounding presence of sin in men's lives. The Law was added because of sin so that abounding sins may be identified far above and beyond the one sin of Adam (Rom 5:16). The Law is powerless to address the sins, only to reveal their existence. Therefore the Law's primary purpose is to identify sin so that God's grace towards us might abound, leading us to Christ Jesus. See Rom 5:13; 7:13, 1Cor 15:56

Rom 5:20

Rom 5:20 - But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: - Grace abounding over sin is found in the heart of the Commandments. God says He "visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments." God will permit sin to visit unto the 3rd generation, but He will show mercy unto thousands of generations to them that love Him and keep His commandments. The key is that we accept

His gift of repentance (Rom 2:4-6), humble ourselves and we will find abounding grace. If we do not humble ourselves, the Lord resists us. See Ex 20:5, 6; Jam 4:6; Ps 103:11; Isa 42:4 God delights in showing mercy, grace and love. As the Mercy Seat sits atop of the Ark of the Covenant containing the Law of God, God desires mercy over the penalty of the law. However, because the Law of God is holy, just, and good, it must be upheld for God to remain a Righteous Judge. Therefore, God has applied the judgment of the Law to His Son, so that the sinner may receive the justification and pardon they do not deserve. Praise You LORD!!! - See Ps 103:11 The statement also applies to the last days, when God's Holy Spirit will be withdrawn from the earth and the righteous will have to live in a world where sin abounds. God's grace upon them will be much more bountiful, to keep them from falling and to present them faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy.

Rom 5:21

Rom 5:21 - That as sin hath reigned unto death - the wages and payment for sin is death (Rom 6:23). Where sin reigns, death is present. Therefore, in order for the last enemy death to die, sin must be utterly deposed and destroyed in the lives of the redeemed. Sin shall not rise up again because all have chosen to forsake it with all of its folly. See Nah 1:9; Rev 20:14, 15; Rom 6:2, 3, 12, 14

Rom 5:21

Rom 5:21 - grace reign through righteousness - grace is made effectual and victorious as we embrace Christ's righteousness by faith. We must not confuse the grace of God that appears to all men, teaching us to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts (Tit 2:11, 12) with presumption, that assumes God's grace without conformity to the law. God's grace reigns as long as Jesus is Lord of our lives, and sits upon His throne of grace. See Heb 4:16, 2:14-18

Rom 6:1

Rom 6:1 - What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? - shall we continue in sin so that grace may continue to be poured out more and more? Absolutely not!! - See Rom 3:8

Rom 6:1

Rom 6:1 - Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? - shall we continue living outside of Jesus Christ so that His grace towards us may abound? Shall we continue to rob ourselves of the victuals of overcoming power to rid ourselves of unrighteousness that He has for us, so that we may survive as paupers in our paucity, begging for vittles of grace and mercy while living in sin.

Rom 6:2

Rom 6:2 - God forbid - See Rom 6:15, 16

Rom 6:2

Rom 6:2 - How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? - We have already died to sin in Christ. Jesus, Who became ourselves, has born sin to the cross and has abolished the enmity that once reigned in human flesh (Eph 2:14-16). Sin shall not have dominion any longer over us, by grace through faith of Jesus Christ (Rom 6:14, 16). We must daily mortify the body with its lusts and passions, by believing that that nature is dead in Christ and yielding to the Spirit of God that abides in us, Victory is guaranteed - this is the mystery of godliness - Christ in you, the hope of glory! See Gal 2:20; Rom 8:13; Col 3:5

Rom 6:3

Rom 6:3 - Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into His death? - Our baptism [which is faulty and may be motivated by selfish motives given our fallen nature] is united with the baptism of Christ [Who had no sin and Who repented fully of His inherited sinful nature] Who fulfills all righteousness in us. In order to be born again, we must first die, being crucified with Jesus Christ into His death. See Gal 2:20; Mt 3:13-17, 21:44; Col 2:12, 3:3

Rom 6:4

Rom 6:4 - Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death - Our baptism gives assent to our identifying with Jesus' baptism (a foreshadowing of death), a corporate baptism of repentance as the Second Adam for the entire human race (Mt 3:15). We also similarly are buried with Christ in His literal death for the remission of sins. See Col 2:12, 3:3

Rom 6:4

Rom 6:4 - that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life - Just as Jesus was raised to life by the glory of the Father, so too, we are raised to a new life in Jesus Christ to God's glory. See 1Cor 15:22, 23; 2Cor 5:17; Col 3:1-3; Gal 2:20; 1Pet 3:18

Rom 6:4

Rom 6:4 - even so we also should walk in newness of life - See 2Cor 5:17; Col 3:1

Rom 6:5

Rom 6:5 - For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: - Jesus came forth with a glorious body upon which death nor corruption no longer had power. See Gal 2:20; 1Cor 15:22, 23; Rom 6:8, 8:11

Rom 6:5

Rom 6:5 - we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection - This speaks of the present and the near future, at Christ's return. We are raised to a new life in Christ Jesus and are partakers of His divine nature which allows us to escape the corruptions of the world through lust. We have the earnest of the Holy Spirit abiding within until we receive our full inheritance at Jesus' Second Coming. We do not yet know what we shall be, but we know that when He appears, we shall be like Him. See Philipians 3:9, 10; 1Jo 3:2; 2Cor 4:14

Rom 6:6

Rom 6:6 - that our old man is crucified with him - See Gal 2:20

Rom 6:6

Rom 6:6 - that the body of sin might be destroyed - the body of sin will be replaced with a glorified body, to compliment our glorified characters we have developed by faith of Jesus Christ before His Second Coming. See 1Cor 15:50-58; Rom 7:18, 24; Gal 6:8

Rom 6:6

Rom 6:6 - that henceforth we should not serve sin - we no longer are bound or servants to sin, being freed through death of the old man through the death of Jesus Christ. We were in Christ and are crucified with Christ, so sin no longer has dominion. This is realized completely by faith of Jesus Christ. 1Jo 3:6, 9; Heb 2:14-18, 4:14-16

Rom 6:7 - For he that is dead is freed from sin - the literal dead are freed from sin (Eccl 9:5, 6), but they who are dead to sin and alive to Christ are also free from sin. This is the key to our sanctification, complete surrender, complete death to self (Rom 6:4, 11, 7:1-4; Gal 2:20). 1Jo 3:9; Philippians 1:21

Rom 6:8

Rom 6:8 - Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him: - Rom 6:3-5; Gal 2:20; Col 3:3, 5; See 2Tim 2:11; 2Cor 13:4; John 14:19

Rom 6:8

Rom 6:8 - we shall also live with him - we are to rest in Jesus' finished works (having died and living again). Just as Jesus lives for the Father, we too with Christ must live for God and His glory. See Gal 2:20; Rom 6:10; Joh 14:16, 17; 1Cor 15:22, 23; Col 3:1, 2

Rom 6:9

Rom 6:9 - Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more - See 1Cor 15:23; Act 13:34; John 11:25, 26

Rom 6:9

Rom 6:9 - death hath no more dominion over him - See Heb 2:14, 15; Rev 1:18

Rom 6:10

Rom 6:10 - he died unto sin once - Jesus offering was perfect, without spot, blemish and complete. He need not offer Himself daily because His works satisfied the quarrel of the Covenant Law (Lev 26:25). See Num 20:8-12; Heb 7:27, 9:28, 10:10; 1Pet 3:18

Rom 6:10

Rom 6:10 - but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God - See Heb 9:28; Gal 2:20

Rom 6:11

Rom 6:11 - but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord - See Col 3:1, 2

Rom 6:12

Rom 6:12 - Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof - See 1Jo 2:1, 16; Gal 5:16, 6:8

Rom 6:13

Rom 6:13 - Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin - See 1Cor 6:18-19; Rom 7:21-24

Rom 6:13

Rom 6:13 - yield yourselves unto God - Our reasonable service is to present ourselves liv sacrifices to God, which is our reasonable service. We are to submit, surrender, yield as a servant, or crucify self unto God - See Rom 12:1, 2, 6:16, 22

Rom 6:13

Rom 6:13 - as those that are alive from the dead - See Eph 2:1; Col 2:13; Philippians 3:10

Rom 6:14

Rom 6:14 - For sin shall not have dominion over you - This is a declarative statement. We are not to be bound by sin. See 1Cor 15:56; Rom 5:21; 1Jo 2:1, 3:6, 9; Heb 2:14-18; Gen 4:7

Rom 6:14

Rom 6:14 - for ye are not under the law but under grace - we are not under the law of works which leads to sin and death (Eze 18:4; Rom 8:1, 2), but under the law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus. See Rom 5:21, 3:27, 28, 4:4-8; 8:2, 10:4; Gal 5:18

Rom 6:14

Rom 6:14 - but under grace - The grace of God that brings salvation, has appeared to all men, teaching us that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously and godly in the present age. See Titus 2:11

Rom 6:15

Rom 6:15 - shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? - See Rom 6:1, 2

Rom 6:15

Rom 6:15 - under the law - See Gal 4:4; 1Tim 1:9, 10

Rom 6:15

Rom 6:15 - God forbid - See Rom 6:2

Rom 6:16

Rom 6:16 - to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servant ye are to whom ye obey - See 2Tim 2:25, 26; Joh 8:34, 44; Rom 12:1, 2; Act 5:29; Gal 1:10; Mt 6:24; Lk 16:13; 2Pet 2:19 But Christ slew the dragon in his last lair, proved that human sin is willful and therefore unnecessary. And in mankind who believe, He created a new abhorrence of sin that leads to its final eradication. Thus He set the captive will of sinful man free to say "No" to sin, and through the faith of Jesus to become pure and holy. {Grace on Trial, Robert Wieland, pg 83 or 194}

Rom 6:16

Rom 6:16 - whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness - See Gal 6:8

Rom 6:16

Rom 6:16 - obedience unto righteousness - Abel's faith in God and His promises led him to obey God and the terms of His Everlasting Covenant such that he brought the correct offering and became an heir of righteousness by faith.

Rom 6:17

Rom 6:17 - but ye have obeyed from the heart - Surrender of self is the first step to obedience. Appreciation and yielding one's will in gratitude to Christ enables the Holy Spirit to inhabit and work the works of Christ in us. Faith unfeigned in Christ, in His finished works and in His promise of power to keep us from falling will keep our hearts and minds in obedience to Christ Jesus. See Eph 1:13; 2Tim 1:5; 1Chron 28:9; 2Pet 3:21; Ps 139; 2Cor 4:13 All true obedience comes from the heart. It was heart work with Christ. And if we consent, He will so identify Himself with our thoughts and aims, so blend our hearts and minds into conformity to His will, that when obeying Him we shall be but carrying out our own impulses. The will, refined and sanctified, will find its highest delight in doing His service. When we know God as it is our privilege to know Him, our life will be a life of continual obedience. Through an appreciation of the character of Christ, through communion with God, sin will become hateful to us. - {DA 668.3} The first step in the path of obedience is to surrender the will to God. This may seem a difficult thing to do; for Satan will present every possible objection, and will manufacture difficulties, and magnify perplexities before the mind; but take the first step, and the next step on the ladder of progress will be easier. The ladder of progress must be climbed round by round; but God is above the ladder, and his glory will illuminate every step of advancement. The path of faith and self-denial is an upward path; its way is heavenward, and as you advance, the misleading clouds of doubt and evil will be left behind. - {Advent Review and Gospel Herald October 9, 1894 Par. 6}

Rom 6:17

Rom 6:17 - that form of doctrine which was delivered you - the gospel of Christ is the power of God unto salvation (Rom 1:16). See Gal 1:4, 7-9

Rom 6:18

Rom 6:18 - being then made free from sin, ye become the servants of righteousness - we can not serve two masters, we will either serve Christ unto eternal life or the flesh unto death. See Mt 6:24; Rom 6:20, 21, 22; Gal 5:24; 1Jo 1:7, 3:6, 9; Col 3:1, 2

Rom 6:19

Rom 6:19 - for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity - See Eph 2:2, 3

Rom 6:19

Rom 6:19 - yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness - righteousness produces or is synonymous with holiness. This righteousness or holiness comes by faith. See Lev 20:7; 1Pet 1:15, 16;

Rom 6:20

Rom 6:20 - For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness - when we were slaves to sin, we were devoid of righteousness/holiness/godliness. There is no middle ground, we are either wholly for Jesus Christ or we are wholly on the side of the enemy. Compare Rom 6:18; Mt 6:24

Rom 6:21

Rom 6:21 - What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? - what benefits or good did you find in those sinful habits that you now are ashamed of? See Rom 7:5

Rom 6:21

Rom 6:21 - for the end of those things is death - See Jam 1:15; Gal 6:8

Rom 6:22

Rom 6:22 - and become servants to God - See Rom 6:13

Rom 6:22

Rom 6:22 - ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life - See Gal 5:22, 23, 6:8

Rom 6:23

Rom 6:23 - wages of sin is death - we must work to earn wages. Jesus describes all men as laborers or servants. We either serve God unto righteousness or sin unto death. Therefore, the payment for the efforts [work/labor] of sin at one's end will be the second death. Yet, they are also harassed all of their lives, living in the bondage of fear of the expected judgment and the death to follow (Heb 2:14, 15, 10:27) Jesus counsels all who labor and are heavy laden to cease from our labors and rest in Him. Jesus not only offers salvation, but freedom/deliverance/full-retirement from sin so we need not earn wages. See 1Jo 3:4; Gen 2:17

Rom 6:23

Rom 6:23 - death - {thanatos -Grk} to die, to be dead, to be spiritually dead

Rom 6:23

Rom 6:23 - the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord - the Greek word for gift is {charisma} from which charismatic music is derived, suggesting the music is gifted with the power of God. See Isa 55:1, 2; 1Jo 5:11-13

Rom 6:23

Rom 6:23 - eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord - 1Jo 5:11-13 Identifying Feature of a Cult #4: Each cult denies the central truth of the gospel that Jesus is the divine Son of God (Eph 2:8)

Rom 7:1

Rom 7:1 - for I speak to them that know the law - the Law spoken was established in the Garden of Eden when the Lord established the first marriage: "Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh" (Gen 2:24). The Lord Himself later spoke the principles behind the institution as He reasoned with the Jews "And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder." (Mt 19:4-6)

Rom 7:2

Rom 7:2 - For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband - this principle originates in the Garden of Eden and was God's original plan. See 1Cor 7:39

Rom 7:4

Rom 7:4 - ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ - We, being crucified with Christ, are dead to sin. Our former husband, sin, which kept us bound by the law of sin and death (Rom 7:21-23) has died and therefore we are no longer bound to the law of sin and death. We are remarried to Christ, His righteousness and the Law of the Spirit of Life, the Law of Liberty. Rom 8:2, 10, 11, 6:11; Jam 1:25, 2:12; Col 3:3; Gal 2:16-19

Rom 7:4 - bring forth fruit unto God - See Gal 5:22, 23; John 15:4, 5

Rom 7:5

Rom 7:5 - For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins - the motions of sin were governed by the Law of Sin and Death in our bodies - See Rom 8:2

Rom 7:5

Rom 7:5 - the motions of sins - the things which sin compels us to do. These may not be only works of unrighteousness explicitly condemned in the law and commandments (1Cor 6:9, 10), but include any and all "works of righteousness" done in the flesh without the Spirit of God. These works in the flesh are done through deceit in believing that we can save ourselves (through our works and good deeds). See Gen 3:5; Gal 2:21

Rom 7:5

Rom 7:5 - which were by the law - the Law of Sin and Death working in our members brought condemnation and death by the Law of God - See Rom 7:4, 21-23, 8:2; Eph 2:3

Rom 7:5

Rom 7:5 - did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death - the wages of sin is death - See Rom 3:19, 20, 7:21-23, 6:13, 23, 8:7; Eph 2:1-3 No one, we think, can now fail to see the correctness of our proposition that God cannot consistently accept or approve of the action of any one in his natural state, or in carnal mindedness. Such a state being one of enmity against God, every action springing from the carnal or natural heart is an act of rebellion, because it is done in utter disregard of the authority of our rightful Sovereign. Every act has its spring in self-will; it proceeds from a spirit which, if it could have undisputed sway, would dethrone Jehovah and substitute its own will for his. If any one has a remaining doubt of the truthfulness of this statement, let him look abroad upon the earth, and see its millions sunken to every depth of iniquity, "hateful, and hating one another." In truth, "the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty." We might heighten the darkness of the picture should we stop to consider the infinite holiness of the character of God, and of the purity and spirituality of the divine law, of which we are all transgressors. But even with a very partial view the scene is dark enough to cause us to wonder at the forbearance of God, that he does not blot this rebellious province, made filthy by the evil practices of its inhabitants, out of existence. {1882 JHW, JBF 21.1}

Rom 7:6

Rom 7:6 - we are delivered from the law - Paul is consistently referring to the redeemed person being free from the Law of Sin and Death (Rom 8:2, 7:4; Eze 18:4) and ransomed to the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus. The Law of Sin and Death is premised upon the flesh, including man's works to save himself through his own merits [of which it is impossible to do in man's own strength - Jam 2:10], whereas, by accepting Jesus' gracious works of righteousness, by faith, we are delivered from that heavy burden (Rom 4:3-5; Mt 11:28-30). Though the eternal Decalogue which is holy, just and good (Rom 7:12) is not mentioned, it is implied as it is the foundation of God's government. The one who abides by the Law of Sin and Death must uphold the Decalogue perfectly or be found guilty as a transgressor of the law. The one who submits himself to the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus, will accept Jesus' merits on their behalf, will be recipients of God's Spirit to dwell within them and will from a new nature, uphold perfectly the Decalogue by faith through grace. The apostles used the term law to refer to several things: 1. The Law of Sin and Death - Rom 8:2; Eze 18:4 2. The Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus - Rom 8:2 3. The Perfect Law of Liberty - Jam 1:25 4. The Decalogue - Ex 20:1-17 5. The Law contained in Ordinances - Eph 2:15; Gal 3:17-21

Rom 7:6

Rom 7:6 - that being dead wherein we were held - See Eph 2:1-4

Rom 7:6

Rom 7:6 - that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter. - See 2Cor 3:6; Joh 3:6; 4:23, 24; Rom 7:14, 2:29, 8:4-14

Rom 7:6

Rom 7:6 - and not in the oldness of the letter - not in dead works according to the letter of the Law. The works are dead because they could never meet God's standard of perfection and to be under the Law means we will be held and judged to the Law as our standard for which we always fall short. To walk in the newness of the Spirit is to have the Holy Spirit give us His fruit and to receive the righteousness of Christ by faith unto salvation. See Mt 11:28-30; 2Cor 3:5, 6; Rom 2:17-23, 4:1-4; Isa 57:12

Rom 7:7

Rom 7:7 - What shall we say then? Is the law sin? - law contained in commandments - Ex 20:1-17

Rom 7:7

Rom 7:7 - Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law - See Rom 3:20; 1Jo 3:4

Rom 7:8 - But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence - the sin that is resident in each of us, wars against our mind and will, bringing forth all manner of concupiscence - See Gal 5:17

Rom 7:8

Rom 7:8 - But sin, taking occasion by the commandment - The commandments were given so that sin might abound. Sin is deceptive in luring us and then accusing us by the commandments. See Rom 5:20; 7:11

Rom 7:8

Rom 7:8 - concupiscence - inordinate sexual desire, lust, covetousness. See Col 3:5; Gal 5:24; 1Thess 4:5

Rom 7:8 - For without the law sin was dead - See Rom 3:20

Rom 7:9

Rom 7:9 - For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. - Paul says that as "touching the righteousness which is in the law"—as far as outward acts were concerned—he was "blameless" (Phil 3:6); but when the spiritual character of the law was discerned, he saw himself a sinner. Judged by the letter of the law as men apply it to the outward life, he had abstained from sin; but when he looked into the depths of its holy precepts, and saw himself as God saw him, he bowed in humiliation and confessed his guilt. He says, "I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died." Rom 7:9. When he saw the spiritual nature of the law, sin appeared in its true hideousness, and his self-esteem was gone. - {SC 29.3}

Rom 7:9

Rom 7:9 - but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died - Compare Eze 20:11

Paul says that as “touching the righteousness which is in the law”—as far as outward acts were concerned—he was “blameless” (Philippians 3:6); but when the spiritual character of the law was discerned, he saw himself a sinner. Judged by the letter of the law as men apply it to the outward life, he had abstained from sin; but when he looked into the depths of its holy precepts, and saw himself as God saw him, he bowed in humiliation and confessed his guilt. He says, “I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.” Rom 7:9. When he saw the spiritual nature of the law, sin appeared in its true hideousness, and his self-esteem was gone. - {SC 29.3}

Rom 7:9

Rom 7:9 - sin revived, and I died - dead in trespasses and sins - See Eph 2:1

Rom 7:10

Rom 7:10 - And the commandment, which was ordained to life - The perfect Law of Liberty, the Law of Life is the foundation of God's government and would preserve us in life as we faithfully abide in God. The same Law, in time after sin, were our schoolteacher to lead us to Christ. See Gal 3:23, 24; Prov 4:4, 7:2; Eze 18:23,32, 33:11; Rom 7:22

Rom 7:11

Rom 7:11 - deceived me - sin is deceptive. Sin will: 1. Make you think that you stand when you have fallen - 2. Will allure you to enjoy sensual pleasures and then consume you as a crust of bread (Prov 30:20) 3. Will cause you to be drunken so that you do not sense pain, you waste your wealth

Rom 7:11

Rom 7:11 - sin, by the commandments kills me - makes me realize my sinfulness and worthiness of death/condemnation. If I do not turn from sin I will indeed be killed.

Rom 7:12

Rom 7:12 - Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just and good. See Ps 119:172; Jam 1:25; Rom 7:16; 1Tim 1:8

Rom 7:13

Rom 7:13 - Was then that which is good made death unto me? - was the law, that was intended for good, made evil to me?

Rom 7:13

Rom 7:13 - But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good - sin is made known to me and my wretched condition is made know to me by that which is good, namely the law and commandments.

Rom 7:13

Rom 7:11 - that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful - The Law makes sin to abound that by the righteousness of Christ, we might have an abhorrence for sin as we reflect upon the righteousness of the Law demonstrated by Jesus Christ. See Rom 5:20; 2Cor 7:11, 12 When the voice of this prophet was heard in the wilderness, “Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight,” Satan was afraid for his kingdom. He felt that the voice, sounding forth in trumpet tones in the wilderness, caused sinners under his control to tremble. He saw that his power over many was broken. The sinfulness of sin was revealed in such a manner that men became alarmed; and some, by repentance of their sins, found the favor of God and gained moral power to resist his temptations. - {Con 28.3}

Rom 7:14 - we know that the law is spiritual - both God and the Law are spiritual. We must walk in the Spirit and have the Spirit of God abiding within in order to keep the Law of God. We can not "keep the Sabbath holy" unless the Spirit of God abides in us. We are carnal and the law is spiritual. See 1Cor 2:12-15; Joh 3:6, 4:23, 24, 6:63; Rom 7:6, 12; 8:7

Rom 7:14

Rom 7:14 - but I am carnal, sold under sin - As the spiritual world is invisible to those who are in the flesh, it is impossible for anyone in the flesh to uphold the law of God. I am flesh, sold to sin and not to righteousness by the Spirit. We by nature are flesh/carnal and sold under sin. Therefore, in order to keep the holy Law of God, we must be crucified with Christ, we must die to self and be born again in Christ Jesus, that His Spirit may abide in us. Then and only then can we keep the law of God. See John 3:6, 6:63; Rom 7:18, 8:7, 23

Rom 7:14

Rom 7:14 - sold under sin - we must be redeemed, bought with the price of Jesus' blood since we are sold to a wicked taskmaster under sin. See 1Pet 1:18; Lk 1:68, 24:21; Gal 3:13; Hosea 3:1-3

Rom 7:15

Rom 7:15 - For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I - See Rom 7:19

Rom 7:16

Rom 7:16 - If then I do that which I would not I consent unto the law that it is good - If I do the things I know to be wrong and wish not to do, then I affirm that the Law is good and I am sinful. See Rom 7:12

Rom 7:17

Rom 7:17 - Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me - Paul separates the sin from the person. We are not the sin which we find ourselves in. We have to be willing to acknowledge and identify the sin and repent of the sin so that it does not take hold of us. Rom 7:20; Gen 4:7

Rom 7:18

Rom 7:18 - For I know that in me dwelleth no good thing - the flesh lusteth against the Spirit of God. See Rom 3:9-18, 8:22, 23; Isa 40:17; 2Cor 3:5; Gal 5:17

Rom 7:18

Rom 7:18 - for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not - the acknowledgement of, and desire to do good is with me, but the flesh can not do good.

Rom 7:18

Rom 7:18 - but how to perform that which is good I find not - the desire and will to do good is there, but the power and strength to do it in myself is absent. See Rom 7:21; Gal 5:17

Rom 7:19

Rom 7:19 - For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do - Paul here speaks as a captive, a slave, a bondservant to something that works against his will, the sin in his flesh. See Rom 7:15

Rom 7:20

Rom 7:20 - Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me - See Rom 7:17

Rom 7:20

Rom 7:20 - but sin that dwelleth in me - this is the condition of all men, the sin which dwells in us (our flesh) makes doing the noble will, God's will; impossible. We must therefore, mortify sin and the flesh by the Spirit of God. 1Jo 1:8; Joh 9:41; Rom 8:13; Col 3:5

Rom 7:21

Rom 7:21 - I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me - the law of sin and death is present in all of us who are flesh and blood, until we become subject to another law, the law of liberty, the law of the Spirit of life in Jesus Christ. See Rom 7:23, 8:2; Heb 10:1-3; Gal 5:17; Jer 17:9 we fall short because in our best efforts, evil is still present with us.

Rom 7:22

Rom 7:22 - For I delight in the law of God after the inward man - The New Birth experience, where we receive a heart and spirit transplant from the Lord (Eze 36:26, 27; Col 2:12), enables us to love that which we once were at enmity to - See Rom 7:15, 16; Ps 40:8, 119:70, 77, 174; 2Cor 4:16; Heb 8:10, 11; Ezekiel 36:26, 27; Jer 31:31-34 "We must choose to allow Him to do for us what we really desire but have not the power to accomplish" {Surrender, G. Jackson, pg 56.1}

Rom 7:23

Rom 7:23 - But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members - See Rom 7:21, 24, 8:2 the law in my flesh is the law of sin and death, but my mind is under NEW MANAGEMENT, it is subject to the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus. We must find assurance in the presence of God's Holy Spirit based on the internal struggle that Paul here speaks about. Without the Spirit of truth reproving us of sin, we would ignore and move on recklessly with no regard for our salvation. I must embrace the reality of the Holy Spirit dwelling within me, abiding with me and find joy in the struggle. The struggle will continue, but the degree to which it impacts me will decrease, praise God!!

Rom 7:23

Rom 7:23 - law of my mind - the law of my mind for the person born again is the mind of Christ, which loves the things of God, including His Law. See Philippians 2:5-11; Rom 7:12, 22;

Rom 7:23

Rom 7:23 - law of sin which is in my members - law of sin and death which is naturally in our flesh, wars against the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus because they are at enmity with each other. - See Rom 7:21, 8:2

Rom 7:24

Rom 7:24 - O wretched man that I am! - We must realize how desperate our condition and our hopeless plight without Jesus' transforming power in our lives. Rom 8:22, 23

Rom 7:24

Rom 7:24 - who shall deliver me from the body of this death? - The sincere cry of humanity which realizes the natural propensities towards sin, self-destruction, and lawlessness. The only solution is to: "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." (Joh 1:29). See Rom 6:6, 7:22, 23, 8:2; Col 1:28, 29 I want no more "I" in me. I don't want any more "I" in my conversation, even keeping the law of God.

Rom 7:25

Rom 7:25 - I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord - the Solution is the gospel, the good news of the Man, Christ Jesus, Jesus and Him crucified! The resolution is to serve God with the heart and mind and wait in anticipation for the redemption of the body at Jesus' Second Coming.

Rom 7:25

Rom 7:25 - So then with the mind I myself serve the law of GOD; but with the flesh the law of sin - Paul acknowledges the natural conflict that exists within each individual who acknowledges God's law as good, loves and desires to uphold it. However, the flesh wars against the Spirit and man's desire to uphold God's law. God's law Seal, the Sabbath is written upon the forehead of the righteous and is thus a memorial of God in one's mind. - See Mt 26:41; Rom 8:10

Rom 7:25

Rom 7:25 - but with the flesh the law of sin - We earnestly await our full redemption, when these mortal bodies will no longer war against the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus that is within our minds and hearts. However, now in Jesus Christ, we have a choice to walk in the flesh OR to walk in the Spirit. See Rom 7:21, 8:12, 13, 19-25 (*22-25)

Rom 8:1

Rom 8:1 - now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus - the immediate benefits of the plan of redemption in the death of the Lamb to those who by faith believe, is the removal of condemnation. Jesus was manifest to take away the works of the devil. One of the primary works of the devil is to accuse the brethren, causing us to feel guilt, shame and self-loathing. Jesus breaks this bond (by faith) where we may be made aware of sin in our lives, but we need not respond with guilt, shame and self-loathing as we abide in Him. See Joh 3:18, 19, 5:24; 1Jo 3:5, 6 The blood of Christ, while it was to release the repentant sinner from the condemnation of the law, was not to cancel the sin; it would stand on record in the sanctuary until the final atonement; so in the type the blood of the sin offering removed the sin from the penitent, but it rested in the sanctuary until the day of atonement. - {CCh 348.1} "No condemnation" means release from what the fallen Adam left to us—our inner sense of divine judgment which has hung over us all our lives. Although these feelings of psychic wrong and maladjustment are deep and penetrating, "the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus" goes even deeper and is more far-reaching. A new principle delivers from the fear, guilt, and moral disorder that have enslaved us, even from infancy. {Grace on Trial, pg 190, 191, R. Wieland} "This means that the 144,000 will come to understand fully what had not been known by any previous generation. The secret sin of desiring to take the life of God would be revealed and the root of sin would be expelled. Guilt would be purged and without remorse these ones "without fault before the throne of God" would sense their place in the royal family as sons of the Most High. Such a work could not have been done nor understood by any previous generation for no former people had the three angels' messages. The cleansing and restoring of the heavenly sanctuary could not take place until the time had been fulfilled, not because God was unwilling but because man was unready." Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short; pg 142

Rom 8:1 - condemnation - katákrima Noun Neuter kat-ak'-ree-mah from (2632) from ; an adverse sentence (the verdict):--condemnation. damnatory sentence, condemnation CONDEMNATION, n. 1. The act of condemning; the judicial act of declaring one guilty, and dooming him to punishment. For the judgment was by one to condemnation. Rom 5:16. 2. The state of being condemned.

Rom 8:1

Rom 8:1 - in Christ Jesus - to be "in Christ Jesus" means to abide in Him and to walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit. In other words, to experience the new birth after death and burial of the old self. To crucify the old self with Christ daily so that the Spirit of Life and Truth dwells within. See Mt 16:24, 25; Joh 15:1-5; Rom 6:3-9; Gal 2:20

Rom 8:1

Rom 8:1 - who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit - See Rom 8:5, 6

Rom 8:1

Rom 8:1 - walk not after the flesh - to live while still in this present mortal flesh. Whose minds, words, thoughts, deeds and responses are motivated by the flesh, the carnal nature. - See Gal 6:8; Rom 8:8

Rom 8:1

Rom 8:1 - but after the Spirit - to walk after the Spirit is to live a life under "New Management". The old man is crucified with Jesus Christ and the new life is lived by virtue of the power of the Holy Spirit, Who abides within the believer. See Mt 16:24, 25; Gal 2:20, 5:25; Rom 6:1-11

Rom 8:2

Rom 8:2 - law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus - this is the same law of faith that guarantees our salvation to those who believe. This law delivers us from the law of sin and death which is the law that is governing our natural, sinful nature. See Rom 3:27; Heb 7:15, 16

Rom 8:2

Rom 8:2 - made me free from the law of sin and death - for those who believe, the natural law of sin and death which has every person bound from birth, is abolished by the new law, governed by the Spirit of Life [Holy Spirit] in Christ Jesus. The Law of God (Moral Law), coupled with the Law of Sin and Death guarantee that I can not be saved (Rom 8:3). The Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus, coupled with the law of Sowing and Reaping, guarantee that I can not be lost. See Rom 7:4-6, 21-23, 6:13; 1Jo 3:8

Rom 8:3

Rom 8:3 - For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh - the law (Decalogue), which is perfect, just and good (Rom 7:12), could not be upheld/fulfilled by man's self-righteousness, self-confident promises, and human efforts (Ex 19:8) because of the sinfulness of sin that reigns within the flesh and the unconverted heart. See Rom 7:21, 23; Heb 8:7-9; Ex 19:8; Deut 31:16, 20; Jer 31:31, 32 There is no element of weakness in the law; the weakness is in the flesh. It is not the fault of a good tool that it cannot make a sound pillar out of a rotten stick.... Poor, fallen man had no strength resting in his flesh to enable him to keep the law. And so God imputes to believers the righteousness of Christ, who was made in the likeness of sinful flesh, so that "the righteousness of the law" might be fulfilled in their lives. ... Christ took upon Himself man's nature, and will impart of His own righteousness to those who accept His sacrifice {Bible Echo, February 15, 1892, E.J. Waggoner}

Rom 8:3

Rom 8:3 - God sending His own Son - See Isa 48:16; Gal 4:4; Heb 10:7; Ps 40:7-10; Joh 3:16

Rom 8:3

Rom 8:3 - God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh - this is the mystery of Godliness - See 1Tim 3:16

Rom 8:3

Rom 8:3 - in the likeness of sinful flesh - identical to or the same sinful flesh. See Gal 4:4; Heb 2:14-18, 10:5; Phil 2:5-8 Satan had pointed to Adam's sin as proof that God's law was unjust, and could not be obeyed. In our humanity, Christ was to redeem Adam's failure. But when Adam was assailed by the tempter, none of the effects of sin were upon him. He stood in the strength of perfect manhood, possessing the full vigor of mind and body. He was surrounded with the glories of Eden, and was in daily communion with heavenly beings. It was not thus with Jesus when He entered the wilderness to cope with Satan. For four thousand years the race had been decreasing in physical strength, in mental power, and in moral worth; and Christ took upon Him the infirmities of degenerate humanity. Only thus could He rescue man from the lowest depths of his degradation. - {DA 117.1} The word "likeness" in the Greek means identical, the same as. It cannot mean unlike or different from. Christ who was (and remains) fully God now became (and remains) fully man as well. He built a divine-human bridge that spanned the gulf of alienation that sin has made. Its foundations reach all the way to the deepest root within the nature of the most helplessly lost sinner on earth. {Grace on Trial, pg 192, R. Wieland} A fierce battle is being fought between Christ and Satan over this issue of whether that profound alienation can be resolved in "sinful flesh." There is no problem with sin being conquered in sinless nature different from ours. That battle was won long ago in heaven when two-thirds of the angels—in sinless nature—overcame Satan's temptations. That hasn't been an issue since. For Christ to come to earth to fight that same battle over again would be redundant. The problem now is different. Sin has taken up residence in fallen human nature, in sinful flesh. Satan boasts, "You can't dislodge me from this lair! No human who has sinful flesh can overcome sin, for it is invincible! The human race belongs to me!" He arrogantly claims that his invention of sin has developed to where it now proves God is wrong in the great controversy. Sin having taken root so deep in fallen human nature, it can only be tolerated and lightly "pardoned." God must either (a) continue to generously overlook it, or (b) in Roman Catholicism He must tackle the problem after death in a Purgatory when the sinner is shed of his sinful flesh. And most Christians implicitly agree with Satan in one or the other. Now we are on the slimy trail of the "little horn" power. The bottom-line idea is that as long as you have a sinful nature, it is inevitable that you must continue sinning. Precisely Satan's point he has been contending for since his rebellion in heaven! But Christ slew the dragon in his last lair, proved that human sin is willful and therefore unnecessary. And in mankind who believe, He created a new abhorrence of sin that leads to its final eradication. Thus He set the captive will of sinful man free to say "No" to sin, and through the faith of Jesus to become pure and holy. Grace on Trial, R. Wieland pg 82/192}

Rom 8:3 - and for sin - it was for the expressed purpose of dying for sin that Jesus was sent by His Father and came to this earth. See Mt 1:21; Rom 5:8, 10;

Rom 8:3

Rom 8:3 - condemned sin in the flesh - katakrínō Verb kat-ak-ree'-no from (2596) and (2919) from and ; to judge against, i.e. sentence--condemn, damn. to give judgment against, to judge worthy of punishment to condemn sin was overcome/conquered/subdued by Jesus while in fallen human flesh; this is Christ's righteousness. See Rom 8:13; Jer 23:6; Ps 116:5; Eph 2:4-16; Heb 2:14-18; 1Jo 4:12, 13 "If Christ had taken only the sinless nature of Adam before the fall, Inspiration would have to refer to the 1888 message of Christ's holiness, not "the message of Christ's righteousness." The fact that He perfectly "condemned sin in the flesh" of all fallen mankind gives Him title to that glorious name, "Christ our righteousness."". {Wieland, Grace on Trial pg 209}

Rom 8:4

Rom 8:4 - that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us - The righteousness [goodness, uprightness, truth, holiness, godliness] of the Decalogue/Moral Law/10 Commandments is fulfilled in us by Christ, through faith of Jesus Christ. See Rom 12:1, 2, 3:21, 22; Philippians 3:9 When we speak of faith, there is a distinction that should be borne in mind. There is a kind of belief that is wholly distinct from faith. The existence and power of God, the truth of His word, are facts that even Satan and his hosts cannot at heart deny. The Bible says that "the devils also believe, and tremble;" but this is not faith. James 2:19. Where there is not only a belief in God's word, but a submission of the will to Him; where the heart is yielded to Him, the affections fixed upon Him, there is faith—faith that works by love and purifies the soul. Through this faith the heart is renewed in the image of God. And the heart that in its unrenewed state is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be, now delights in its holy precepts, exclaiming with the psalmist, "O how love I Thy law! it is my meditation all the day." Psalm 119:97. And the righteousness of the law is fulfilled in us, "who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit." Romans 8:1. - {SC 63.2}

Rom 8:4

Rom 8:4 - walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit - See Rom 8:10, 12, 13; Gal 5:16, 6:8

Rom 8:5

Rom 8:5 - For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit - that which is flesh will only produce works of the flesh, but that which is of the Spirit of God will produce works of the Spirit - See Joh 3:6, 8:6; Gal 6:8; Mt 6:24-34; 1Jo 4:5

Rom 8:5

Rom 8:5 - do mind the things of the flesh - Lusts of the flesh, lust of the eyes, and the pride of life (1Jo 2:16, 17); are concerned with the things of this life, what shall I eat, wear, live, who will love me in this world - See Joh 3:6; Mt 6:19, 20, 25-32; Phil 3:19; 1Tim 6:6-10; 1Jo 2:16, 17; 2Cor 4:18

Rom 8:5

Rom 8:5 - but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit - the things that are eternal; one's character; do I reflect Jesus Christ and will I fit into heaven? How do I spend my time? See Joh 3:5; Mt 6:33, 34; Philippians 2:12, 13, 20, 21; Gal 5:16, 22-26, 6:8; Jam 3:17, 18; Rom 8:14; 2Cor 4:18

Rom 8:6

Rom 8:6 - For to be carnally minded is death - See Rom 7:5, Rom 8:7, 13; Gal 6:8; 1Cor 2:14 A religion of externals is attractive to the unrenewed heart. The pomp and ceremony of the Catholic worship have a seductive, bewitching power by which many are deceived; and they come to look upon the Roman Church as the very gate of Heaven. None are proof against her influence but those who have planted their feet firmly upon the foundation of truth, and whose hearts are renewed by the Spirit of God. Thousands who have not an experimental knowledge of Christ will be swept into this deception. A form of godliness without the power is just what they desire. The Romanist feels at liberty to sin, because the church claims the right to pardon. To him who loves self-indulgence, it is more pleasing to confess to a fellow-mortal than to open the soul to God. It is more palatable to human nature to do penance than to renounce sin. It is easier to mortify the flesh by sackcloth and nettles and galling chains than to crucify fleshly lusts. Heavy is the yoke which the carnal heart is willing to bear rather than bow to the yoke of Christ. - {4SP 383.3}

Rom 8:6

Rom 8:6 - For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace - the contrast between life in the two Adams is here highlighted. To continue to align oneself with the first Adam is death (sinful, earthy). To align oneself through faith with the Second Adam is life eternal. See Rom 8:13; 1Cor 2:14, 15:21-23; 1Jo 2:16, 17, 5:11-13; Joh 11:25, 26 Gal 6:8 - For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. A religion of externals is attractive to the unrenewed heart. The pomp and ceremony of the Catholic worship have a seductive, bewitching power by which many are deceived; and they come to look upon the Roman Church as the very gate of Heaven. None are proof against her influence but those who have planted their feet firmly upon the foundation of truth, and whose hearts are renewed by the Spirit of God. Thousands who have not an experimental knowledge of Christ will be swept into this deception. A form of godliness without the power is just what they desire. The Romanist feels at liberty to sin, because the church claims the right to pardon. To him who loves self-indulgence, it is more pleasing to confess to a fellow-mortal than to open the soul to God. It is more palatable to human nature to do penance than to renounce sin. It is easier to mortify the flesh by sackcloth and nettles and galling chains than to crucify fleshly lusts. Heavy is the yoke which the carnal heart is willing to bear rather than bow to the yoke of Christ. - {4SP 383.3}

Rom 8:6 - but to be spiritually minded is life and peace - those who ponder, meditate and think on things of the Spirit of God find peace and eternal life in the present age. See Isa 32:17, 26:12; Ps 119:165; 1Jo 5:11-13; Joh 6:63

Rom 8:7

Rom 8:7 - Because the carnal mind is enmity against God - the carnal, earthly, sensual, devilish mind is at war against God Who is a Spirit and is Truth (Joh 4:24; Gen 3:15). The carnal mind does not want light and truth because it is reproved by them. See Rom 7:14; Jam 4:1; Joh 3:19, 20; Job 14:4; 1Cor 2:14; 1Jo 2:15, 16; 4:5; Eph 2:14, 15 Education, culture, the exercise of the will, human effort, all have their proper sphere, but here they are powerless. They may produce an outward correctness of behavior, but they cannot change the heart; they cannot purify the springs of life. There must be a power working from within, a new life from above, before men can be changed from sin to holiness. That power is Christ. His grace alone can quicken the lifeless faculties of the soul, and attract it to God, to holiness. - {SC 18.1}

Rom 8:7

Rom 8:7 - for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be - the carnal mind is not governed by the law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus, enabling it to keep the Moral Law of God, and can never be. We can change our carnal mind as much as the leopard can change his spots. We must yield, surrender, submit and receive a new mind, the mind of Jesus Christ. See Rom 10:3, 4; Philipians 2:5-11

Rom 8:8

Rom 8:8 - So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God - 1Jo 4:5 those who are in the flesh are: 1. Faithless - not believing God is able to keep them from falling: Heb 11:6; Jude 1:24, 25; Rev 14:12 2. Opposed to God, not walking with God - Gen 5:22; Am 3:3; Heb 11:5; 1Thess 2:14-16, 4:1; Mt 12:30 3. Scorners of God and His ways - 1Cor 2:14; 2Pet 3:3-7 4. Filled with self: self-righteous, self-exalting, self-willed, self-controlled vs. God-controlled 5. Ones who draw back to perdition - See Heb 10:36, 38, 39 6. Reapers of corruption - Gal 6:8

Rom 8:9

Rom 8:9 - if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you - The Kingdom of God must abide in us in order that the flesh may remained subdued and the mind of Christ may be manifest in us. See Joh 3:5, 8, 7:38, 39; Act 1:8, 2:38, 8:15-17, 9:17, 18; 15:3-11

Rom 8:9

Rom 8:9 - Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his - If we are not born of the Spirit of God, the Spirit which miraculously created both Isaac and Jesus, we are none of Christ's and not heirs of Abraham. See Gen 21:1-3, 12; Lk 1:35, 13:27; Joh 3:5, 13:8; Gal 3:29, 4:4-6; Mt 7:23, 12:30, 25:12; 1Jo 3:14, 15

Rom 8:9

Rom 8:9 - the Spirit of Christ - the Holy SpiritRom 8:10

Rom 8:10 - And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness - See Rom 7:25; Gal 2:20

Rom 8:10

Rom 8:10 - the body is dead because of sin - the body has not control over us because it is dead, being crucified with Christ for sin's sake. A corpse (dead body) does not commit sin. See Gal 2:20; Col 2:12; Rom 7:4

Rom 8:10

Rom 8:10 - but the Spirit is life because of righteousness - the Spirit yields life because of the righteousness of Jesus Christ. This righteous life of faith that abides in Christ and has Christ abiding within, is under no condemnation. See Jeremiah 23:5, 6; Joh 6:63, 15:1-5; Rom 8:1; 2Cor 3:6

Rom 8:11

The Holy Spirit Quickens: 1Pet 3:19; Joh 6:63; Eph 2:1-4; 1Jo 5:11-13

Rom 8:11

Rom 8:11 - But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you - 1Jo 5:11-13; Isa 48:16; Rom 6:3-5, 8; 1Cor 15:40-58; Eph 1:19, 20, 2:1; Philippians 3:10, 11; Gal 2:20; Col 1:27-29

Rom 8:11

Rom 8:11 - shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you - the Holy Spirit imparts life to our dead bodies [in the present age - Titus 2:11, 12] that have been crucified with Christ because of sin. Paul says later in Philippians, "That I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being made conformable unto His death" (Phil 3:10). Paul speaks of knowing the resurrection power of Jesus in the present, so that we may be conformed and transformed into His divine image. See Gal 2:20; Joh 6:63, 20:31; Eph 2:1-3, 3:9, 10; 2Pet 1:1-4; Col 2:12

Rom 8:12

Rom 8:12 - Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh - we are debtors to God, not to live according to or after the flesh but after the Spirit of God. 1Cor 6:20; 7:23

Rom 8:13

Rom 8:13 - For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die - See Gal 6:8; Rom 8:6; Ezek 18:4; Rev 14:9, 10

Rom 8:13

Rom 8:13 - For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live - See Gal 6:8

Rom 8:13

Rom 8:13 - but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. - it is not up to us to overcome the deeds of the body on our own. We have access to power from the Holy Spirit that we must call upon, submit to, be obedient to and allow the Lord to grant us victory. See Rom 8:26

Rom 8:13

Rom 8:13 - mortify the deeds of the body - See 1Cor 6:9, 10; Gal 5:19-21; Rom 8:1, 6:1, 2

Rom 8:14

Rom 8:14 - For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God - Those who permit the Holy Spirit to abide in them and daily recommit to have Him guide them, are sons of God. See Gal 3:7; Joh 1:12, 7:39; Ps 27:8; Gen 5, 6:8; Heb 11:5; Gal 5:22-25; 1Jo 3:1, 2

Rom 8:15

Rom 8:15 - spirit of bondage again to fear - If we find ourselves in the bondage of fear, we are operating in the flesh which is governed by the law of sin and death (Rom 7:8, 21, 23) . We have not surrendered to the righteousness of Christ and are not abiding in the Spirit. See Heb 2:14, 15, 10:26, 27; 1Jo 4:18; Gal 4:3, 9, 5:1

Rom 8:15

Rom 8:15 - again - See Gal 4:9, 5:1; Jam 1:8; Heb 6:4-6

Rom 8:15

Rom 8:15 - to fear - Fear is no motivator for obedience (Heb 12:25, 26; Ex 20:18-20). We must surrender to Christ and His Spirit brings in His train peace, quietness, and assurance forever. 2Tim 1:7; 1Jo 4:17, 18; Heb 10:26, 27; Isa 32:17

Rom 8:15

Rom 8:15 - Spirit of Adoption, whereby we cry, Abba Father - Rather than wallowing in fear, we are to cry out to God, Abba Father, casting all of our cares on Him for He careth for us. See Gal 4:5, 6; Mk 14:3; Eph 1:3-14; 1Pet 5:7

Rom 8:15

Rom 8:14 - whereby we cry, Abba, Father - as a child cries out to its parent when disturbed or in fear, so we too, when perplexity would seek to take hold, cry out, Abba Father and the LORD hears us. See Isa 65:24

Rom 8:16

Rom 8:16 - The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God - The Holy Spirit, after reproving us of sin and after we make confession that indeed we have been sinful in our conduct, direct us to Christ's Righteousness and bears witness that we are indeed the sons of God. The Law, which once condemned us, also bears witness that we are the sons of God as we are covered by Christ's Righteousness. 1Jo 3:24, 5:10-13; Eph 1:11-14; Rom 3:21; 2Cor 1:21, 22; Isa 32:17 Our relations with one another should be pleasant. When we do right, the testimony of our own spirit and the testimony of the Spirit of God bear witness that the human mind is under the control of the divine mind.... His Word furnishes evidence from which we may draw the conclusion that we are indeed His sons and daughters.... True love for God carries with it true, reverential trust. And he who loves God will love his brother also. [15] - {SD 193.4} You may have the witness of the Spirit that your ways please God. This is obtained by believing in the Word of God, by appropriating that Word to your own soul. This is eating the bread of life, and this will bring eternal life. Compare scripture with scripture. Study the representation of the life of a true Christian as delineated in the Word of God. - {HP 144.2} To them that believe, Christ is precious. His Spirit moving upon the mind and heart of the believer is in perfect agreement with that which is written in the Word. The Spirit and the Word agree perfectly. Thus the Spirit beareth witness with our spirit that we are born of God. - {HP 144.5}

Rom 8:16 - that we are the children of God - See Joh 1:12, 13; 1Jo 3:24, 5:1, 4:16; 2Cor 1:20, 21

Rom 8:17

Rom 8:17 - And if children, then heirs - See Joh 8:35

Rom 8:17

Rom 8:17 - heirs of God - see Eph 1:5, 11; Isa 58:14

Rom 8:17

Rom 8:17 - joint-heirs with Christ - See Gen 15:1||Ps 16:5; Rev 20:4; Gal 3:26-29

Rom 8:17

Rom 8:15 -if so be that we suffer with Him - See Mt 16:24; Rom 8:18; Phil 3:10; Heb 10:32-39, 12:3-11; 1Pet 2:18-23, 4:12-16; 1Jo 3:13

Rom 8:17

Rom 8:16 - that we may be also glorified together - See Mt 19:28; Lk 22:30; Col 1:27-29; 1Tim 3:16

Rom 8:18

Rom 8:18 - For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time - the sufferings of this present time are bounded, they are temporal, they have an appointed end. There will be no Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) in eternity [beyond the destruction of the wicked] because the former things will be remembered no more (Rev 21:4). See 2Cor 2:9, 10, 4:18; Joh 16:33 Sufferings include: 1. The warfare within ourselves between the flesh and the Spirit 2. The hurts, pains, disappointments, delays of life 3. The warfare of good vs. evil, righteousness vs. wickedness

Rom 8:18

Rom 8:18 - not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us - Christ's righteousness and character are to be revealed in and through us by faith, as we persevere in trial. God's gracious love and character has superseded the suffering and sin so that we fully become sons of God. See Joh 16:33; Dan 12:3, 10; Isa 60:1-3, 64:4; 1Cor 2:9; Heb 10:35,

Rom 8:19

Rom 8:19 - for the earnest expectation of the creature - all of Creation (terrestrial and celestial) waits with men to see the redemption of God's crowning act, mankind becoming sons of God (both mind and body), reigning over the earth once again. See Isa 55:7-13; Rom 8:23; Col 1:27, 28; 1Cor 15:50-58

Rom 8:19

Rom 8:19 - waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God - all of the creation, both terrestrial and celestial, await the appearance of the sons of God, God once again in the flesh (1Tim 3:16; Col 1:25-29), the redeemed of the earth. See 1Cor 4:9; Eph 3:10; Rev 14:11-5

Rom 8:20

Rom 8:20 - For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly - all of the creation was made subject to Adam. When Adam sinned, selling himself for nought (Isa 52:3), all under his dominion fell to corruption as well. See 1Cor 15:21, 22

Rom 8:20

Rom 8:20 - but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope - God has subjected the creation to the curse of the sin so that in hope, we and the creation will long for redemption, the restoration of all things good. See Rom 8:24, 25, 5:1-5, 20

Rom 8:21

Rom 8:21 - Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God - all of the creation, the animal and plant life will be delivered from the bondage of corruption (imperfection, sin, decay, mortality) in the earth made new. See Isa 65:17:25

Rom 8:21

Rom 8:21 - bondage of corruption - 1Cor 15:53, 54; Heb 2:14, 15 the Bible describes different bondage: 1. Bondage of corruption - Rom 8:21 2. Bondage of fear and death - Heb 2:14-18 3. Bondage of observing the law works rather than by faith of Jesus Christ - Gal 5:1

Rom 8:21

Rom 8:21 - into the glorious liberty of the children of God - See 1Cor 15:55, 56

Rom 8:22

Rom 8:22 - For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now - creation groans and travails in the following: 1. Earthquakes 2. Hurricanes 3. Floods 4. Suffering, Pain and Death

Rom 8:23

Rom 8:23 - And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body - the creation (terrestrial and celestial) wait with us for the full redemption of men. See Rom 8:19

Rom 8:23

Rom 8:23 - the firstfruits of the Spirit - Eph 1:13, 14; Gal 5:22; 1Jo 3:9

Rom 8:23

Rom 8:23 - even we ourselves groan within ourselves - See Rom 8:26; Ezek 9:4; Rev 6:9-11

Rom 8:23

Rom 8:23 - waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body - the body of death remains with us as our minds are being renewed day by day by the power of the Holy Spirit. See Rom 7:24, 25; 2Cor 4:16; 1Cor 15:50-55; 1Thess 4:16, 17

Rom 8:24

Rom 8:24 - For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? - We are saved by the blessed hope of receiving Christ's righteousness by faith, bearing the image of God once again that we may see Him in His glory and exclaim "This is our God, we have waited for Him and He will save us"; hope in a new and glorified body that will be in harmony with the Spirit of God See Rev 18:1; Gal 5:5||1Jo 3:2, 3; Rom 5:1-5; Heb *6:19, 3:6, 11:1, 3; Col 1:27; 1Pet 1:3, 4:13; Isa 60:1-3; Tit 2:11-13; 1Tim 3:16; John 14:16-18; Rom 8:25||1Cor 15:50-58; Rev 18:1 Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 4:15.5}

Rom 8:24

Rom 8:24 - but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? - See Heb 11:1

Rom 8:25

Rom 8:25 - But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it - See Heb 11:1, 13; 1Cor 2:9, 10; Rom 5:1-5; 1Joh 3:2

Rom 8:26

Rom 8:26 - Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities - the Holy Spirit supplies our needs and helps us where we are deficient. See Rom 3:23, 8:13

Rom 8:26

Rom 8:26 - for we know not what we should pray for as we ought - there is nothing wrong in asking the Holy Spirit what we ought to pray for. We do not know ourselves. Where we fall short, God will add those things we should have asked for. As we believe God will give it, we will receive it. See Mt 7:7-11; Lk 11:9-13; Joh 1:12; Rom 8:26

Rom 8:26

Rom 8:26 - but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered - When we pray we do not pray alone because the Holy Spirit works with our prayers, adding, groaning and utterances we can not make for ourselves. The exalted angels also make intercession on behalf of the faithful, however, Jesus is the King of Intercession. See Rom 8:27, 34; Eph 6:18; Rev 5:8; Joh 14:6 When a man breathes an intensely earnest prayer to God (Jesus Christ is the only name given under heaven whereby we can be saved), there is in that intensity and earnestness a pledge from God that he is about to answer that prayer exceeding abundantly, above all that we can ask or think. We must not only pray in the name of Jesus, but by the inspiration and kindling of the Holy Spirit. This explains what is meant when it is said, "the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which can not be uttered." The petitions must be offered in earnest faith. Then they will reach the mercy-seat. Unwearyingly persist in prayer. God does not say, Pray once, and I will answer you. His word is pray, be instant in prayer, believing ye have the things ye ask, and ye shall receive them; I will answer you. - {GH May 28, 1902 Par. 7}

Rom 8:26

Rom 8:26 - with groanings which cannot be uttered - The Holy Spirit makes our prayers fragrant. The Holy Spirit is our First Intercessor. See 2Cor 12:4

Rom 8:27

Rom 8:27 - He that searcheth the hearts - See Ps 26:2, 139; 51:6-10; Joh 2:24, 25

Rom 8:27

Rom 8:27 - knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit - God the Father knows what is the mind of the Spirit, just as the Spirit knoweth the things of God(1Cor 2:11). There is no division in the Godhead, our God is One! Deut 6:4, Mk 12:29; Rom 3:30; Gal 3:20

Rom 8:27

Rom 8:27 - because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God - even when we do not know how or what to pray for, Christ, through the Holy Spirit makes intercessions for us with groaning according to the will of God. Thank You Lord God the Father, Son and Sweet Holy Spirit. See 1Joh 5:14, 15; Rev 8:3, 4

Rom 8:28

Rom 8:28 - all things work together for good to them that love God - See Gen 50:20; Phil 1:12-14, 19; 2Cor 4:15; Eph 1:11

Rom 8:28

Rom 8:29 - to them that love God - those who love God: 1. Submit to the righteousness of God, Jesus Christ so that they may be saved - Rom 10:1-4 2. Submit to God's purposes to sanctify - 1Thess 4:3 contrast 1Thess 4:5 3. Love and keep His commandments - Joh 14:15 4. Love the brethren - 1Jo 4:20

Rom 8:28

Rom 8:28 - who are the called according to his purpose - See Rom 8:30; Eph 2:10

Rom 8:29

Rom 8:29 - For whom he did foreknow - God foreknew all men. He knows our every thought and deed long before they occur. He knows who will ultimately choose Him and who will not, yet that does not stop Him from loving all.

Rom 8:29

Rom 8:29 - he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son - God foreordains that we become like Jesus, wholly blameless, pure, without/apart from sin. See Eph 4:13, 1:9; 1Jo 3:1, 2

Rom 8:29

Rom 8:29 - that He might be the firstborn among many brethren - See Heb 2:17; Col 1:18; Rev 1:5, 14:4

Rom 8:30

Rom 8:30 - whom He did predestinate - All have predestined to become sons of God. See Eph 1:5

Rom 8:30

Rom 8:30 - them He also called - Jesus says "many are called" (Mt 22:14). The many here implies all being called to salvation. However, He further states that few are chosen, meaning few accept the call and therefore those few who chose to be chosen are chosen. See 2Tim 1:9

Rom 8:30

Rom 8:30 - them he also justified - See Rom 3:24, 26, 5:18, 4:4, 5

Rom 8:33

Rom 8:33 - God's elect - the elect are sons of Abraham (Gal 3:29) who are elect because they abide in God's Elect, Jesus Christ - See Isa 42:1-4; 1Pet 2:6; Eph. 1:4, 5; 2Thess 2:10, 13; Rom 11:5-8; Mt 24:24

Rom 8:33

Rom 8:33 - It is God that justifieth - it is God who pronounces us "not guilty". See Rom 5:18; 4:3, 4;

Rom 8:34

Rom 8:34 - Who is he that condemneth? - The Accuser of the Saints is he who accuses and seeks to condemn us to his own fate. See Joh 8:10, 11; Zech 3:1-5

Rom 8:34

Rom 8:34 - It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again - As our High Priest, Jesus makes intercession and atonement for us. He came the first time to become the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the earth (John 1:29). And He rose from the grave, apart from sin, with a glorified body, to become our eternal High Priest - See Rom 5:10; Heb 7:25

Rom 8:34

Rom 8:34 - Who is even at the right hand of God - See Heb 1:3, 8:1, 10:12

Rom 8:34

Rom 8:34 - who also maketh intercession for us - Jesus and His Holy Spirit both make intercession for us. See 1Jo 2:1; Rom 8:26, 27; Lk 22:32; Heb 7:25; 2:14-18; Rev 8:3, 4

Rom 8:35

Rom 8:35 - Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? - See John 10:28

Rom 8:35

Rom 8:35 - tribulation - Time of Trouble like never was, since there was a nation - See Dan 12:1

Rom 8:35

Rom 8:35 - persecution - See Heb 10:32, 33

Rom 8:35

Rom 8:35 - famine - See Habakkuk 3:17-19

Rom 8:36

Rom 8:36 - For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter - See Ps 44:22

Rom 8:37

Rom 8:37 - in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us - through tribulation, distress, persecution, famine, nakedness, peril or sword we are more than conquerors! Praise GOD!!! The statement describes an offensive church (White Horse era with a bow in hand), going forth conquering and to conquer. Though buffeted by the trials of life, we are still conquerors through the merits of Christ Jesus. See Rev 6:2; Heb 13:6

Rom 8:38

Rom 8:38 - For I am persuaded - Paul has full confidence in these truths.

Rom 8:38

Rom 8:38 - neither death, nor life - those whose names are written in the Book of Life are remembered by the LORD and will come forth to eternal life. Though the wicked are not to be found written in that book, God still loves them because He created them. Therefore, their destruction is called a strange act (Isa 28:21)

Rom 8:38

Rom 8:38 - nor things present - the things plaguing the world today include: 1. COVID-19 virus 2. Racism 3. Classism 4. Godlessness

Rom 8:39

Rom 8:39 - nor any other creature - no other created being can separate us from God's love.

Rom 8:39

Rom 8:39 - shall be able to separate us from the love of God - The Father's love is unbounded and unconditional. See 1Jo 3:1; Rom 8:32 As Satan had led man to sin, he had hoped that God's abhorrence of sin would forever separate Him from man, and break the connecting link between heaven and earth. The opening heavens, in connection with the voice of God addressing His Son, was like a death knell to Satan. He feared that God was now to unite man more fully to Himself, and give power to overcome his devices. And for this purpose Christ had come from the royal courts to the earth. Satan was well acquainted with the position of honor Christ had held in heaven as the Son of God, the beloved of the Father. And that He should leave heaven, and come to this world as a man, filled him with apprehension for his safety. He could not comprehend the mystery of this great sacrifice for the benefit of fallen man. He knew that the value of heaven far exceeded the anticipation and appreciation of fallen man. The most costly treasures of the world, he knew, would not compare with its worth. As he had lost through his rebellion all the riches and pure glories of heaven, he was determined to be revenged by causing as many as he could to undervalue heaven and to place their affections upon earthly treasures. - {Con 29.2}

Rom 8:39

Rom 8:39 - which is in Christ Jesus our Lord - See Eph 1:3-6

Rom 9:2

Rom 9:2 - That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart - See Ezek 9:4

Rom 9:3

Rom 9:3 - For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh - the Jews in their rejection of Christ are under the curse of the law. They have rejected God's salvation given by grace through faith of Jesus. Christ and are therefore, in the flesh and under condemnation. See Rom 8:1, 2; Gal 3:10-13; Act 13:38-41; Joh 3:18-20 As like their forefathers, they have robbed God of the opportunities entrusted to them, the life of grateful, obedient service that was due the Lord and they rejected and crucified their King. See Mal 3:8, 9; Act 2:36; 1Cor 2:8 Christ saw in Jerusalem a symbol of the world hardened in unbelief and rebellion, and hastening on to meet the retributive judgments of God. The woes of a fallen race, pressing upon His soul, forced from His lips that exceeding bitter cry. He saw the record of sin traced in human misery, tears, and blood; His heart was moved with infinite pity for the afflicted and suffering ones of earth; He yearned to relieve them all. But even His hand might not turn back the tide of human woe; few would seek their only Source of help. He was willing to pour out His soul unto death, to bring salvation within their reach; but few would come to Him that they might have life. - {GC 22.1}

Rom 9:4 - Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises - See Rom 3:1, 2 Now the Lord had already signified, in the case of Eliezer, Abraham's servant, that the seed of Abraham were to be free (Gen 15:1-6). Therefore if Abraham had only thought of the words of the Lord, instead of hearkening to the voice of his wife, he might have been saved much trouble. It is worth while dwelling at length upon this phase of the subject, for if it is rightly understood it will save much confusion as to the true seed of Abraham, and the true Israel. Let the points be stated once more. Ishmael was born after the flesh, and could not be the seed. Therefore those who are only of the flesh cannot be the children of Abraham, and heirs according to the promise. Isaac was born after the Spirit, and was the true seed. "In Isaac shall thy seed be called." (Gen 21:12) Therefore all the children of Abraham are they who are born of the Spirit. "we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise." Gal 4.28 {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 71}

Rom 9:4 - the service of God - The sanctuary and its services were an aspect of the oracles of God committed to the Israelites. See Eph 2:14, 15

Rom 9:4

Rom 9:4 - and the promises - Promises of an inheritance through Abraham. See Rom 4:13; Gal 3:26-29

Rom 9:5

Rom 9:5 - and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came - Christ was the Seed of Abraham, the Head of the Jews. Jesus came to His own and His own knew Him not. See Joh 1:10, 11; Gal 4:4, 5

Rom 9:5

Rom 9:5 - who is over all - See Philippians 2:9-10; Col 1:16-19

Rom 9:6

Rom 9:6 - Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect - Not that Israel's rejection of truth has caused God's word to fail. See Rom 3:3, 4; Heb 3:16-4:3

Rom 9:6

Rom 9:6 - For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel - only those that love God with all their heart, soul and strength and who keep God's commandments and His covenant are His people, Israel (See Ex 19:3-5). Very few have been considered Israel throughout Bible history in light of the near incessant rebellion among the COI. Consider these examples of rebellion: 1. Murmuring against the LORD, not content with angel's food but wanting to satisfy the perverted diets of Egypt (Ex 16:8) 2. Image of the Golden Calf (Ex 32) - All but the sons of Levi participated in the rebellion and only the Sons of Levi claimed to be on the LORD'S side 2. Rebellion of Korah (Num 16)- most of the congregation sided against Moses, Aaron and God God was proved 10x before He declared the generation would not enter the promised land (Num 14:22)

Rom 9:7

Rom 9:7 - Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children - See Rom 2:28, 29; Gal 3:26-29 There have ever been two classes among those who profess to be followers of Christ. While one class study the Saviour's life and earnestly seek to correct their defects and conform to the Pattern, the other class shun the plain, practical truths which expose their errors. Even in her best estate the church was not composed wholly of the true, pure, and sincere. Our Saviour taught that those who willfully indulge in sin are not to be received into the church; yet He connected with Himself men who were faulty in character, and granted them the benefits of His teachings and example, that they might have an opportunity to see their errors and correct them. Among the twelve apostles was a traitor. Judas was accepted, not because of his defects of character, but notwithstanding them. - {GC 43.2}

Rom 9:7

Rom 9:7 - but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called - the only true heir and descendants are they who are born of faith and of promise. See Gen 12:3; 21:12, 17:17-19; Heb 11:18; Rom 9:8; Gal 4:22-31 Now the Lord had already signified, in the case of Eliezer, Abraham's servant, that the seed of Abraham were to be free (Gen 15:1-6). Therefore if Abraham had only thought of the words of the Lord, instead of hearkening to the voice of his wife, he might have been saved much trouble. It is worth while dwelling at length upon this phase of the subject, for if it is rightly understood it will save much confusion as to the true seed of Abraham, and the true Israel. Let the points be stated once more. Ishmael was born after the flesh, and could not be the seed. Therefore those who are only of the flesh cannot be the children of Abraham, and heirs according to the promise. Isaac was born after the Spirit, and was the true seed. "In Isaac shall thy seed be called." (Gen 21:12) Therefore all the children of Abraham are they who are born of the Spirit. "we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise." Gal 4.28 {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 71}

Rom 9:8

Rom 9:8 - That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God - See Rom 2:28, 29, 8:8, 10:16; Gal 5:17

Rom 9:8

Rom 9:8 - but the children of the promise are counted as the seed - God's eternal purposes are ever the same and do not change. This principle was true from the very beginning, when the Everlasting Covenant was spoken to Adam in the Garden of Eden; it was true when reconfirmed to Abraham (Gen 12:1-3, 15:1-6) and will be true when the Plan of Redemption is fulfilled. All who call upon the name of the LORD (Gen 4:26) will be saved. See Rom 4:13, 16, 18, 9:27; Gal 3:7, 9, 4:22-31

Rom 9:9

Rom 9:9 - For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come and Sara shall have a son - The child born of Sara is an allegory of those who have been made free (reborn through baptism) from the bondage of sin. See Gen 17:19; Gal 4:22, 23-26

Rom 9:11

Rom 9:11 - that the purpose of God according to election might stand - God's perfect knowledge of all things enables Him to declare the end from the beginning (Rom 4:17). Even in the lives of individuals, He knows the courses they will pursue and is able to say of one "I love" and another "I hate". See Mal 1:2, 3; Rom 9:13, 15

Rom 9:11

Rom 9:11 - according to election - God in His foreknowledge of the sons of Isaac, saw the character of both Esau and Jacob and chose Jacob to be the progenitor of Jesus Christ. God chose by election Jacob to be holy and beloved by Himself because of the character Jacob would choose to develop. See Ps 7:9; Mal 1:1-4

Rom 9:11

Rom 9:11 - not of works, but of him that calleth - See John 6:65, 10:4, 5, 15, 16; 1Cor 1:22-29

Rom 9:12

Rom 9:12 - It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger - See Gen 25:23

Rom 9:13

Rom 9:13 - Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated - See Mal 1:2, 3

Rom 9:14

Rom 9:14 - Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid - God, Who reads the thoughts and intents of the heart (Mt 9:4-7), and Who knows the course of every man's life before his birth (Rom 9:10-13; Jer 1:5; Judges 13:5; Eze 2), speaks those things which do not exist, as though they were (Rom 4:17). God forecasts the fate of the workers of disobedience and the redemption of the righteous, all of whose life works will be made manifest in judgment, where the hidden things will be brought to light (1Cor 4:5; Ps 31:18, 19). See Ps 7:9

Rom 9:15

Rom 9:15 - I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy - See Ex 32:33

Rom 9:16

Rom 9:16 - So then it is not of him that willeth - our salvation is not by our personal will or desire, but we are all saved by grace through faith of Jesus Christ. Only those who are willing to yield (surrender) to the grace of God and accept it by faith will be counted sons. No works of the flesh, no willing on man's part can merit the righteousness of Christ in the heart, which alone makes us sons of God. This is a supernatural work that is done through the Spirit of God. See Zech 4:6; Rom 9:8, 30-33

Rom 9:16

Rom 9:14 - nor of him that runneth - our works of the flesh and to gain favor with God will not merit our salvation

Rom 9:16

Rom 9:16 - but of God that sheweth mercy - Our salvation is a merciful gift of God by grace through faith of Jesus Christ. See Eph 2:5-10

Rom 9:17

Rom 9:17 - For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth - Pharaoh, an archetype of Satan, in his obstinate rebellion would grant God the opportunity to reveal His glory, power, and love for His people to all the world. See Ex 9:16; Rom 9:22

Rom 9:18

Rom 9:18 - Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth - the mystery of iniquity is herein implied. As Lucifer, as Cain, as Pharaoh chose to harden their hearts in obstinate rebellion, God used their impenitent, seared consciences to reveal His might and glory. God permitted the mystery of iniquity to take full control of these beings so that His might, glory, righteousness and abounding love to all of His creation, particularly those who love Him, may be seen. See Rom 8:22

Rom 9:20

Rom 9:19 - who art thou that repliest against God? See Job 38, 39, 40, 41, 42:1-6

Rom 9:21

Rom 9:21 - make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour - make me an honorable man dear Lord!! - See 2Tim 2:20; Prov 16:4

Rom 9:22

Rom 9:22 - What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction - the children of disobedience that have wrath within themselves and will endure the wrath of God. See Rom 8:18

Rom 9:22

Rom 9:22 - endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction - God foresaw the rebellion of the wicked and in mercy, permitted them to be born into the world, though they would cause Him nothing but grief. Nevertheless, he forebears with them, and shows them grace and mercy so that when He judges them, He will be faultless.

Rom 9:23

which he had afore prepared unto glory - See Eph 2:10

Rom 9:26 - there shall they be called the children of the Living God - See Eph 2:11-22; 1Pet 2:1-10

Rom 9:27

Rom 9:27 - Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea - See Isa 1:9, 10:22; Deut 10:22; Gen 15:5

Rom 9:27

Rom 9:27 - a remnant shall be saved - of the multitude of Israel, as the sand o the sea, only a small minority will come to the light to be saved. See Isa 1:9; Rom 9:6-8, 29; 1Pet 4:18; Rev 12:17

Rom 9:28

Rom 9:28 - For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth - the final work of Judgment Jesus will finish in haste, in His righteousness. Those who abide in Christ, permitting Him to finish the work of righteousness (the mystery of God - Col 1:27, 28; Rev 10:7) will be made ready to stand before Jesus in peace at His second coming - Philippians 1:6; Ps 138:8

Rom 9:28

Rom 9:28 - cut it short in righteousness - See Mt 24:22; Isa 32:17; Joel 2:23

Rom 9:28

Rom 9:28 - because a short work will the LORD make upon the earth - See Isa 28:21

Rom 9:29

Rom 9:29 - Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed - the Seed is the Holy Spirit that remains with us. - 1Jo 3:9; Isa 1:9, 10:22; 1Pet 1:23

Rom 9:30

Rom 9:30 - That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith - the Gentiles, not seeking to explicitly keep the letter of the law, have done so as they pursued the righteousness of Christ by faith. The Gentiles were counted "righteous" by God. See Rom 2:14, 15, 3:21, 22, 4:3-5, 6:17-22; Rom 9:32; Gal 3:8, 9, 14

Rom 9:30

Rom 9:30 - even the righteousness which is of faith - See Rom 3:21, 22, 10:1-4

Rom 9:31

Rom 9:31 - But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness - Israel which sought to uphold the righteous law in their own strength have never attained to the righteousness which it requires, perfection. Thus they have always fallen short due to unbelief and remain under a curse. See Ex 19:1-8; Rom 10:5; Heb 10:1; Gal 2:21, 3:10, 12; Rom 7

Rom 9:32

Rom 9:32 - Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone - The Jews, in focusing on the law, rejected Jesus and His faith, the foundation and Chief Cornerstone of their economy and therefore they stumbled. See Ex 19:8; Isa 28:16; Heb 3:16-4:3, 10:1

Rom 9:32

Rom 9:32 - but as it were by the works of the law - the Jews did not submit themselves to the righteousness of Jesus Christ by faith, but as the heathen, sought to establish their own righteousness through the law. See Rom 10:1-4; Gal 2:16, 21

Rom 9:32

Rom 9:32 - For they stumbled at that stumblingstone - Jesus is that Stumblingstone and Rock of Offense to the Jews who choose not to believe on Him. See Mt 8:5-13; Rom 10:1-14; 1Pet 2:6-8; Isa 28:16; 1Cor 1:23

Rom 9:33

Rom 9:33 - Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offense: and whosoever believeth on Him shall not be ashamed - See Isa 28:16; Ezek 3:20; 1Pet 2:6-8; Mt 21:38-46; Lk 20:15-19; In quoting the prophecy of the rejected stone, Christ referred to an actual occurrence in the history of Israel. The incident was connected with the building of the first temple. While it had a special application at the time of Christ's first advent, and should have appealed with special force to the Jews, it has also a lesson for us. When the temple of Solomon was erected, the immense stones for the walls and the foundation were entirely prepared at the quarry; after they were brought to the place of building, not an instrument was to be used upon them; the workmen had only to place them in position. For use in the foundation, one stone of unusual size and peculiar shape had been brought; but the workmen could find no place for it, and would not accept it. It was an annoyance to them as it lay unused in their way. Long it remained a rejected stone. But when the builders came to the laying of the corner, they searched for a long time to find a stone of sufficient size and strength, and of the proper shape, to take that particular place, and bear the great weight which would rest upon it. Should they make an unwise choice for this important place, the safety of the entire building would be endangered. They must find a stone capable of resisting the influence of the sun, of frost, and of tempest. Several stones had at different times been chosen, but under the pressure of immense weights they had crumbled to pieces. Others could not bear the test of the sudden atmospheric changes. But at last attention was called to the stone so long rejected. It had been exposed to the air, to sun and storm, without revealing the slightest crack. The builders examined this stone. It had borne every test but one. If it could bear the test of severe pressure, they decided to accept it for the cornerstone. The trial was made. The stone was accepted, brought to its assigned position, and found to be an exact fit. In prophetic vision, Isa was shown that this stone was a symbol of Christ. He says: - {DA 597.5} "Sanctify the Lord of hosts Himself; and let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread. And He shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offense to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken." Carried down in prophetic vision to the first advent, the prophet is shown that Christ is to bear trials and tests of which the treatment of the chief cornerstone in the temple of Solomon was symbolic. "Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste." Isa 8:13-15; 28:16. - {DA 598.1} In infinite wisdom, God chose the foundation stone, and laid it Himself. He called it "a sure foundation." The entire world may lay upon it their burdens and griefs; it can endure them all. With perfect safety they may build upon it. Christ is a "tried stone." Those who trust in Him, He never disappoints. He has borne every test. He has endured the pressure of Adam's guilt, and the guilt of his posterity, and has come off more than conqueror of the powers of evil. He has borne the burdens cast upon Him by every repenting sinner. In Christ the guilty heart has found relief. He is the sure foundation. All who make Him their dependence rest in perfect security. - {DA 598.2}

Rom 9:33 - whosoever believeth on Him shall not be ashamed (Isa 28:16; Joel 2:26) - Those who believe with their hearts and confess with their mouths the LORD, Jesus Christ, will not be ashamed in this life, nor in the world to come (Rom 5:5, 10:8-11). Despite the reproaches of men, those who put their trust in Christ in this life will overcome, having "great peace", such that nothing shall offend them (Ps 119:165, 31:17; Rev 3:5, 21:7; Mt 10:32). They will sit in judgment of the wicked, those who have reproached and derided them (Rev 20:4-6). However, many who in this life deny Christ do not want to bear the reproach that comes with the cross and will therefore, ultimately be ashamed when cast out of the kingdom (Mt 8:5-12; Rev 21:8, 22:15; Isa 4:1; Mt 10:33)

Rom 10:1

Rom 10:1-3 - Paul desires that Israel repent and be saved. They have not submitted themselves to the righteousness which is by faith of Christ Jesus (see Rom 3:26, Heb 4:2). See 1Thess 2:14, 15

Rom 10:2

Rom 10:2 - they have a zeal of God but not according to knowledge - See Gal 1:13, 14; 2Tim 3:5; Mt 26:65, 66; Act 21:28-31, 23:20, 21||Joh 16:1-3

Rom 10:2

Rom 10:2 - not according to knowledge - See Hos 4:6 Satan was seeking to shut out from men a knowledge of God, to turn their attention from the temple of God, and to establish his own kingdom. His strife for supremacy had seemed to be almost wholly successful. It is true that in every generation God had His agencies. Even among the heathen there were men through whom Christ was working to uplift the people from their sin and degradation. But these men were despised and hated. Many of them suffered a violent death. The dark shadow that Satan had cast over the world grew deeper and deeper. - {DA 35.1} Through heathenism, Satan had for ages turned men away from God; but he won his great triumph in perverting the faith of Israel. By contemplating and worshiping their own conceptions, the heathen had lost a knowledge of God, and had become more and more corrupt. So it was with Israel. The principle that man can save himself by his own works lay at the foundation of every heathen religion; it had now become the principle of the Jewish religion. Satan had implanted this principle. Wherever it is held, men have no barrier against sin. - {DA 35.2} The message of salvation is communicated to men through human agencies. But the Jews had sought to make a monopoly of the truth which is eternal life. They had hoarded the living manna, and it had turned to corruption. The religion which they tried to shut up to themselves became an offense. They robbed God of His glory, and defrauded the world by a counterfeit of the gospel. They had refused to surrender themselves to God for the salvation of the world, and they became agents of Satan for its destruction. - {DA 36.1}

Rom 10:3 - ignorant of God's righteousness - the Jews from their beginnings failed to understand the righteousness of God, founded in Himself and imputed and imparted by faith - Jer 23:5, 6; Gen 15:6; Rom 3:21, 22, 25; *2Cor 3:13-16; 1 John 2:1, 29 God's Righteousness.-The righteousness of God is something besides a name. It is something far different from a form of words, or even the mere statement of a law. It is nothing less than the life and character of God. As there cannot be sweetness apart from something that is sweet, so there is no such thing as abstract righteousness. Righteousness must necessarily be connected with some living being. But God alone is righteous. See Mk x. 18. Therefore wherever righteousness is, there God must be active. Righteousness is the essential characteristic of God. {January 31, 1895 EJ Waggoner, PTUK 67.2} Doing to Live and Living to Do.-The righteousness which is of the law, that is, men's own righteousness (see Phil. iii. 9), is on the principle of doing something in order to live. The mere statement of the case is sufficient to show its impossibility; for life must necessarily precede action. A dead body does not do something in order that it may live, but it must be given life in order that it may do something. Peter did not tell the dead Dorcas to do some more charitable work, to sew some more garments, in order that she might live, but in the name of Jesus he restored her to life, in order that she might pursue her good works. The man that doeth those things shall live in them, but he must first live before he can do them. Therefore the righteousness which is of the law is but an empty dream. Christ gives life, even the eternal and righteous life of God, which works righteousness in the soul that it has quickened. {January 31, 1895 EJ Waggoner, PTUK 67.9}

Rom 10:3

Rom 10:3 - going about to establish their own righteousness - Israel's course at its end was identical to its beginnings. They sought to establish their own righteousness by the works of the Law rather than the righteousness which is by faith of Jesus Christ. See Gen 4:3-7; Ex 19:8; Isa 50:11; Lk 18:9

Rom 10:3

Rom 10:3 - have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God - there is a deliberate turning from truth in pride, not willing to renounce the traditions of men and submit [surrender] to the light that is in Jesus Christ and in His Words. See Rom 10:16; 2Cor 3:14-16; Joh 14:21-24; Mk 7:7, 8; Jam 4:7; Act 26:2-28; Gal 2:20, 21; CONTRAST 1 John 2:29 There is comfort and peace in the truth, but no real peace or comfort can be found in falsehood. It is through false theories and traditions that Satan gains his power over the mind. By directing men to false standards, he misshapes the character. Through the Scriptures the Holy Spirit speaks to the mind, and impresses truth upon the heart. Thus He exposes error, and expels it from the soul. It is by the Spirit of truth, working through the word of God, that Christ subdues His chosen people to Himself. - {DA 671.1} Thousands who have not an experimental knowledge of Christ will be swept into this deception. A form of godliness without the power is just what they desire. The Romanist feels at liberty to sin, because the church claims the right to pardon. To him who loves self-indulgence, it is more pleasing to confess to a fellow-mortal than to open the soul to God. It is more palatable to human nature to do penance than to renounce sin. It is easier to mortify the flesh by sackcloth and nettles and galling chains than to crucify fleshly lusts. Heavy is the yoke which the carnal heart is willing to bear rather than bow to the yoke of Christ. - {4SP 383.3} There is a striking similarity between the church of Rome and the Jewish church at the time of Christ's first advent. While the Jews secretly trampled upon every principle of the law of God, they were outwardly rigorous in the observance of its precepts, loading it down with exactions and traditions that made obedience painful and burdensome. As the Jews professed to revere the law, so do Romanists claim to reverence the cross. They exalt the symbol of Christ's sufferings, while in their lives they deny him whom it represents. - {4SP 384.1}

Rom 10:3 - the righteousness of God/Christ - Jer 23:5, 6 The righteousness of God is revealed in the gospel of Jesus Christ, the power unto salvation (Rom 1:16, 17). The righteousness of Christ is made manifest through faith, in accepting and believing in God's promises and by submission of self to the obedience of God's commandments according to His Word. The righteousness of Christ in the time of the apostles was demonstrated in accepting Jesus as Christ, the Messiah of the Jews (Act 2:36-38). The Jew's failure to submit to this Truth placed them outside the graces of God. {Testimonies to Ministers pg 91, 92}. See Rev 14:12; Ps 119:142

Rom 10:4

Rom 10:4 - For Christ is the end of the Law for righteousness - Christ is the desired end (goal) of the law for righteousness, the Goal, as when faith takes over we no longer need a schoolmaster [the moral law and law of Moses] to guide us, because the law is written in our hearts and we delight to do the things of God by faith of Jesus Christ, OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. See Gal 2:20, 21, 3:23-26, 5:18, 23; 1Tim 1:9, 10; Rom 3:31; 1Pet 1:9; Jer 23:5, 6; Heb 10:1; Col 2:16, 17 Jesus [Jesus and His character] is the "Goal", the target, the mark to be reached for the Law, in order to bring us to His righteousness. See 1Tim 1:5; Eph 4:11-13 The Law is not for the righteous (by faith) but for the lawless and ungodly - 1Tim 1:9

Rom 10:4

Rom 10:4 - righteousness - constant agreement with God: 1. God reveals who I am to me 2. Thus enabling me to submit more to Christ

Rom 10:5

Rom 10:5 - For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them - the Jews, who refuse to submit themselves to the righteousness which is by faith, seek to find righteousness through the law. In their lack of faith, they are already condemned (Heb 11:6, 4:1, 2), being in bondage to sin and therefore cursed of the very law which they seek to establish in their own strength - See Gal 3:10; Deut 27:26

Rom 10:6

Rom 10:6 - righteousness which is of faith - See Gal 2:16 On righteousness by faith Robert

Wieland writes "There is a latent fear of salvation by faith lest our program of works suffer. Fear of being lost is the bottom line because faith is not understood as a heart-appreciation of the heavenly love that casts out fear. But a distorted righteousness by faith can produce only luke-warmness, and widespread lukewarmness testifies to the prevailing distortion" {Grace on Trial pg 12.2, 3}

Rom 10:6

Rom 10:6, 7 - Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:) 7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.) - those who seek to earn their salvation wonder, how can I bring Christ from heaven to me or up from the dead to me. The mindset is based on what must I do to be saved.

Rom 10:18

Rom 10:18 - But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world - See Ps 19:1-4; Heb 4:2 For hundreds of years the Scriptures had been translated into the Greek language, then widely spoken throughout the Roman Empire. The Jews were scattered everywhere, and their expectation of the Messiah's coming was to some extent shared by the Gentiles. Among those whom the Jews styled heathen were men who had a better understanding of the Scripture prophecies concerning the Messiah than had the teachers in Israel. There were some who hoped for His coming as a deliverer from sin. Philosophers endeavored to study into the mystery of the Hebrew economy. But the bigotry of the Jews hindered the spread of the light. Intent on maintaining the separation between themselves and other nations, they were unwilling to impart the knowledge they still possessed concerning the symbolic service. The true Interpreter must come. The One whom all these types prefigured must explain their significance. - {DA 33.2} Through nature, through types and symbols, through patriarchs and prophets, God had spoken to the world. Lessons must be given to humanity in the language of humanity. The Messenger of the covenant must speak. His voice must be heard in His own temple. Christ must come to utter words which should be clearly and definitely understood. He, the author of truth, must separate truth from the chaff of man's utterance, which had made it of no effect. The principles of God's government and the plan of redemption must be clearly defined. The lessons of the Old Testament must be fully set before men. - {DA 34.1}

Rom 10:18 - their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world - the gospel has gone to all the world as seen through the Creation. See Ps 19:1-4; Col 1:23

Rom 10:19

Rom 10:19 - I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people - This provocation was first seen in the wise men from the east who saw Christ's star and came bringing gifts to Jesus. This caused the Jewish leadership to reject Jesus - See Deut 32:21; Mt 2:3; Rom 11:11; GC88 458.2

Rom 10:20

Rom 10:20 - I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me - See Isa 65:1

Rom 10:20

Rom 10:20 - that asked not after me - The Jews sought after the LORD but not for righteousness sake. See Isa 58:2; Rom 10:3

Rom 10:21

Rom 10:21 - But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people - Isa 1:2, 3, 42:19; Jer 8:5-7

Rom 10:21

Rom 10:21 - gainsaying - denying, contradicting - Ps 1:1

Rom 11:1

Rom 11:1 - say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin - God has not cast away the Jews any more than He has cast away anyone else. Jesus came to save and will save anyone who comes to Him in faith. The nation as a whole has forfeited chosen privilege status (Mt 23:37-24:2), but God is still drawing individuals, one by one, who are willing to fall on the Rock and be broken. John 6:37; Lk 20:9-19; Mt 21:33-46; Isa 27:12

Rom 11:1

Rom 11:1 - For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin - Paul gives evidence that God has not fully abandoned Israel, himself being a Jew and called after the stoning of Stephen (A.D.34), marking the close of Ancient Israel's corporate probation. See Act 9:1-20; Gal 1:11-16; Isa 27:12

Rom 11:2

Rom 11:2 - God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew - Under the New Covenant, there is neither Jew nor Greek, bond nor free, male nor female, but we are all one in Jesus Christ. God makes no distinction in any but welcomes all as sons of God and heirs of Abraham (born of God, born of the Spirit, a miracle of God) according to the promise. See Gal 3:26-29

Rom 11:3

Rom 11:3 - Lord, they have killed thy prophets - See 1Kin 19:10

Rom 11:4

Rom 11:4 - I have reserved to myself seven thousand men - God had reserved a remnant of Israel who would. be redeemed. See 1Kin 19:18; Rom 9:27, 29

Rom 11:5

Rom 11:6 - there is a remnant according to the election of grace - there is a remnant in Israel who are called/elected and saved by grace through faith of Jesus Christ. Isa 1:9; Rom 9:27, 29

Rom 11:6

Rom 11:6 - And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work - See Eph 2:9, 10; Rom 3:27; Gal 2:21

Rom 11:6

Rom 11:6 - But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work - See Rom 4:1-4; Gal 3:10

Rom 11:7

Rom 11:7 - What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for - Rom 9:30-33; Heb 3:17-4:3 Israel sought rest but did not find it (Heb 4:1-3, 9-11); they sought to build a spiritual house to the Lord, but they rejected the Chief Cornerstone (1Pet 2:5-8; Mt 21:33-46, 23:37-39); they sought to drink from streams of pure, still waters, but they rejected the Water of Life, the True Fountain of Living Waters in exchange for broken cisterns (Ps 23:2; Jer 2:13; Joh 7:37-41); they chose darkness over the Light of Life (Joh 3:19-21; 1:8, 9; 1Thess 5:1-9)

Rom 11:7

Rom 11:7 - but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded - that which Israel pursued they missed it because they did not seek it by faith of Jesus Christ, but were blinded in their unbelief. Only the elect, the called, those who chose to be chosen found and received the rest that only comes through faith of Jesus Christ. See Mt 11:28; Heb 4:1-3, 9-11

Rom 11:7

Rom 11:7 - and the rest were blinded - the rest were blinded by misinformation/miseducation of false prophets, teachers, and leaders (Mt 15:12-14, 23:16-24;) and through willful unbelief (Hose 4:6; 2Thess 2:10-12; Heb 4:1-3).

Rom 11:8

Rom 11:8 - God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear - See Isa 29:9, 10; 2Cor 3:13-15

Rom 11:9

Rom 11:9 - And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them: - See Ps 69:22

Rom 11:10

Rom 11:10 - Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway - See Ps 69:23

Rom 11:11

Rom 11:11 - I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy - have they stumbled so that they are cast away (1Cor 9:27) the apostle asks? Not at all, but rather through their fall, it would bring salvation to the rest of the world. Israel was an obstruction to the spreading of the gospel so God removed them so that it would go to the world and eventually come back to them in hopes that they be provoked by jealousy to be saved. See Rom 11:12, 14, 15

Rom 11:11

Rom 11:11 - rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy - See Act 13:46-52

Rom 11:12

Rom 11:12 - Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness? - See Rom 11:15

Rom 11:15 - what shall be the receiving of them be, but life from the dead - See Rom 9:3; 2Cor 3:16

Rom 11:16

Rom 11:16 - For if the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches - Jesus is the Root, the Stalk and the Firstfruit of the House of Israel and is therefore, Holy. Those who remain in Him will be sanctified by Him (Heb 2:11). Those who are broken off will be burned in the fire as briers and thorns. See John 15:1-5; Isa 27:10,11

Rom 11:17

Rom 11:17 - And if some of the branches be broken off - See Isa 5:5-7, 27:10, 11; John 15:2

Rom 11:20

Rom 11:20 - because of unbelief they were broken off - 2Cor 4:3, 4, 3:14-16; Heb 3:16-4:3

Rom 11:20

Rom 11:20 - thou standest by faith - See 2Cor 4:6

Rom 11:21 - For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee. - See Ex 4:22, 23; 1Sam 2:30; Ex 3:16, 17, 6:7, 8; Heb 3:17-4:3

Rom 11:23

Rom 11:23 - And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graff them in again - See 2Cor 3:16

Rom 11:23

Rom 11:23 - unbelief - the Jews, according to the love and mercy of God, will be grafted in again if they reject unbelief and cry out to God, accepting Jesus as their Lord and Savior (Deut 4:30)

Rom 11:25

Rom 11:24 - that ye should be ignorant of this mystery - See Eph 3:8, 9

Rom 11:25

Rom 11:25 - that blindness in part is happened to Israel - one of many reasons that Israel has been blinded to the gospel is to make way for the Gentiles to come in. This is all part of God's great foreknowledge and it is marvelous in our eyes. See 2Cor 3:6-18

Rom 11:26

Rom 11:26 - And so all Israel shall be saved - the statement if left alone presents a theological challenge in suggesting all the (natural) seed of Abraham shall be saved. However, it is evident that the vast majority of the biological descendants of Abraham have rejected their Messiah, Jesus Christ (Rom 11:32). This statement, when joined to the preceding statement, "until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in" is both theologically accurate and prophetically accurate. Israel here mentioned is the "gospel seed", the heirs of Abraham according to promise and the prophetic descendants of Ephraim, the son of Joseph who would be greater than his older brother Manasseh (Gen 48:16-20). In the blessing pronounced upon Ephraim it is said the "younger brother shall be greater than he [Manasseh], and his seed shall become a multitude of NATIONS. The "nations" here mentioned represent the Gentiles and are further affirmed by the prophet Eze who calls them "Ephraim, and all the house of Israel his companions" (Eze 37:16-23).

Rom 11:29

Rom 11:29 - For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance - God's gifts and callings are without regret. What God calls us to will be for our temporal and eternal good, and for the good of all around us.

Rom 11:30

Rom 11:30 - For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief: - See Eph 2:1-16

Rom 11:31

Rom 11:31 - that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy - Paul is giving a commission to the Gentile converts to mercifully seek to save the lost of the natural born house of Israel.

Rom 11:32

Rom 11:32 - For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that He might have mercy upon all - both Jew and Gentile at some point have been captive to unbelief and it is only through the grace of God that we are all saved. This is God's doing and it is marvelous in our eyes. See Rom 11:33-36

Rom 11:33

Rom 11:33 - O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! - See Isa 40 The evils that have been gradually creeping in among us have imperceptibly led individuals and churches away from reverence for God, and have shut away the power which He desires to give them.

- {5T 711.1} My brethren, let the word of God stand just as it is. Let not human wisdom presume to lessen the force of one statement of the Scriptures. The solemn denunciation in the Rev should warn us against taking such ground. In the name of my Master I bid you: "Put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground." - {5T 711.2}

Rom 12:2 - be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind - See Eph 4:23 The warfare against self is the greatest battle that was ever fought. The yielding of self, surrendering all to the will of God, requires a struggle; but the soul must submit to God before it can be renewed in holiness. - {SC 43.3} God's Holy Spirit and Word will: cleanse our thoughts - Ps 119:9 keep us from sin - Ps 119:11 teach us wondrous things - Ps 119:18 give light for our walk - Ps 119:105 give peace of mind and guard from offense - Ps 119:165 See Phil 2:5; 2Cor 5:17

Rom 12:2 - ye may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God - See 1Pet 2:9; Tit 2:11, 12

Rom 12:2

Rom 12:2 - prove - to test or examine. We have to try the good/acceptable/perfect will of God as revealed through His Word and lived out in the power of the Holy Spirit. Our faith and relationship with God must be experiential. See 2Tim 2:15

Rom 12:3

Rom 12:3 - We are all given a measure of faith

Rom 12:3

Rom 12:3 - not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think - See 2Cor 4:5-7; Rom 11:18, 20, 25

Rom 12:3

Rom 12:3 - soberly - calmly, temperately, without intemperate passion or enthusiasm; gravely, seriously - Titus 2:11-12

Rom 12:3

Rom 12:3 - God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith - See Heb 12:2; Rom 10:17; Eph 4:7; Contrast 2Thess 3:2 Jesus Christ is the source of all faith. Faith has its beginning and end in Him. There can be no faith that does not center in Christ. Therefore, when Abraham believed in the Lord, he believed in the Lord Jesus Christ. God has never been revealed to man except through Christ (John 1:18). The fact that Abraham's belief was personal faith in the Lord Jesus Christ is further shown by the fact that it was counted unto him for righteousness. But here is no righteousness except through the faith of Jesus Christ. He "is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption" 1Cor 1:30. No righteousness will be of any worth at the appearing of the Lord except "that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness of God by faith." Phil 3:9. {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 65} There is danger in regarding justification by faith as placing merit on faith. When you take the righteousness of Christ as a free gift you are justified freely through the redemption of Christ. What is faith? "The substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." Heb 11:1. It is an assent of the understanding to God's words which binds the heart in willing consecration and service to God, who gave the understanding, who moved on the heart, who first drew the mind to view Christ on the cross of Calvary. Faith is rendering to God the intellectual powers, abandonment of the mind and will to God, and making Christ the only door to enter into the kingdom of heaven. - {1888 818.1} "The faith of Jesus." It is talked of, but not understood. What constitutes the faith of Jesus, that belongs to the third angel's message? Jesus becoming our sin-bearer that he might become our sin-pardoning Saviour. He was treated as we deserve to be treated. He came to our world and took our sins that we might take his righteousness. And faith in the ability of Christ to save us amply and fully and entirely is the faith of Jesus. - {3SM 172.3}

Rom 12:9

Rom 12:9 - dissimulation - The act of dissembling; a hiding under a false appearance; a feigning; false pretension; hypocrisy. Dissimulation may be simply concealment of the opinions, sentiments or purpose; but it includes also the assuming of a false or counterfeit appearance which conceals the real opinions or purpose. See 2Cor 6:6; Jam 3:17; Gal 2:14

Rom 12:9

Rom 12:9 - Abhor that which is evil - Romanism is now regarded by Protestants with far greater favor than in former years. There is an increasing indifference concerning the doctrines that separate the reformed churches from the papal hierarchy; the opinion is gaining ground that, after all, we do not differ so widely upon vital points as has been supposed, and that a little concession on our part will bring us into a better understanding with Rome. The time was when Protestants placed a high value upon the liberty of conscience which has been so dearly purchased. They taught their children to abhor popery, and held that to remain at peace with Rome would be disloyalty to God. But how widely different are the sentiments now expressed. - {4SP 380.1}

Rom 12:16 - Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate - we are to become all things to all men. We must, like Christ, be willing to condescend to others in low estate in meekness and humility so that we may reach the more. We must not demonstrate the haughty pride of Ancient Israel (Isa 65:1-5)

Rom 12:18 - If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men - See Heb 12:14; Act 24:16 None are so vile, none have fallen so low, as to be beyond the working of this power. In all who will submit themselves to the Holy Spirit a new principle of life is to be implanted; the lost image of God is to be restored in humanity. - {COL 96.1} But man cannot transform himself by the exercise of his will. He possesses no power by which this change can be effected. The leaven—something wholly from without—must be put into the meal before the desired change can be wrought in it. So the grace of God must be received by the sinner before he can be fitted for the kingdom of glory. All the culture and education which the world can give will fail of making a degraded child of sin a child of heaven. The renewing energy must come from God. The change can be made only by the Holy Spirit. All who would be saved, high or low, rich or poor, must submit to the working of this power. - {COL 96.2}

Rom 12:19 - Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord - We are not to seek revenge for wrongs but permit the Lord to sort things out. God has a righteous indignation [wrath] towards all wickedness and malice. See Ps 37:8

Rom 12:19

Rom 12:19 - Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord - As we abide in Christ and Christ abides in us, the reproaches of others towards us are reproaches towards Christ Himself (Ps 69:9; Rom 15:3). We need not keep records of wrongs, nor seek vengeance because God is at work to attempt to bring the perpetrators His conviction of sin that they may repent (Rom 2:4-6). However, if they resist His offer of forgiveness, His wrath will be poured out upon the impenitent. See Ps 94:1, 73:2-17; Joh 16:20; Isa 63:4; Nahum 1:2

Rom 13:1 - the powers that be are ordained of God - See Dan 2:21 Those who honor the Bible Sabbath will be denounced as enemies of law and order, as breaking down the moral restraints of society, causing anarchy and corruption, and calling down the judgments of God upon the earth. Their conscientious scruples will be pronounced obstinacy, stubbornness, and contempt of authority. They will be accused of disaffection toward the government. Ministers who deny the obligation of the divine law will present from the pulpit the duty of yielding obedience to the civil authorities as ordained of God. In legislative halls and courts of justice, commandment-keepers will be censured and misrepresented. A false coloring will be given to their words; the worst possible construction will be put upon their motives. - {4SP 409.2}

Rom 14:1 - Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations - we are to receive those who are weak in faith, but we are not to entertain their doubtful arguments or faithless professions. We must speak the truth in love but not give heed to faithless disputes.

Rom 14:1

Rom 14:1 - but not to doubtful disputations - Paul is instructing us to be discerning in those who claim to desire to know truth. Some merely engage for the contest, presenting objections (hypothetical challenges; caviling) to readily evident truths or on the contrary (2Tim 2:24-26), to things that are questionable on the surface but need not be presented as topics for debate that would cause division (whether to eat meat or not). Such are they who are ever learning but never able to come to the knowledge of the truth (2Tim 3:7). Paul states that we should avoid such individuals caught in sin. See Rom 14:5; 1Tim 1:4-7, 6:4, 5

Rom 14:2

Rom 14:2 - For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs - the dispute over what to eat, what to wear, and other "formal" practices is not a new debate. Some seek to show their piety, a form of godliness, through their diet and dress, while denying the power of the gospel to transform the character, heart and mind (2Tim 3:5). Others, pridefully reject counsels on diet and health, not willing to deny themselves while accusing others who show such restraint as formalists. Those living in the last days, who are striving for the mastery in Jesus Christ will recognize their obligation to preserve their minds, body and soul for the service of Christ. They will understand God's purposes to restore primitive godliness in His people, the faith once delivered to the saints from the Garden of Eden (Jude 3); and that God wants to have a people ready for translation, who exhibit the mind of Christ in all things. Those who seek to be conformed to the will of God will make health and dress reform a priority for themselves and through the selfless love they genuinely show to others, it will be evident that their religion goes beyond forms, but is rooted in the power and love of Jesus Christ and His gospel. Rom 14:7 - For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself - We all influence one another for good or for evil. See Gen 4:9

Rom 14:8

Rom 14:8 - For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's - See Phil 1:20, 21

Rom 14:9

Rom 14:9 - For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living - See 1Tim 3:16

Rom 14:9

Rom 14:9 - that he might be Lord both of the dead and living - See 1Thess 4:15-17; Mk 12:26, 27; 1Cor 15:51, 52; 2Tim 4:1

Rom 14:10

Rom 14:10 - or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? - to cast aside as worthless; scorn

Rom 14:10

Rom 14:12 - for we shall all stand before the judgement seat of Christ - See Ps 1:5; Rev 20:11, 12, 22:12; Dan 7:9, 10, 13, 14; Rom 2:3; 1Cor 3:8

Rom 14:11

Rom 14:11 - For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God - See Phil 2:10, 11; Rev 20:11-13, 5:11-14

Rom 14:12

Rom 14:12 - So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God - See Rev 22:12; Rom 14:10; Mt 22:12; Ps 73:1-17

Rom 14:13

Rom 14:13 - but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way - See Rom 14:7; 1Cor 8:4-13; Mt 18:6; Mk 9:42; Lk 17:2; Rev 2:14

Rom 14:14

Rom 14:14 - I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself - See 1Cor 6:12, 8:4-6; Act 15:29

Rom 14:14

Rom 14:14 - but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean - See Rom 14:5, 23; Jam 4:17

Rom 14:15

Rom 14:15 - But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died - See 1Cor 8:4-13

Rom 14:17

Rom 14:17 - For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost - See Rom 14:2;

Rom 14:17

Rom 14:17 - For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink - there is no godliness in vegetarianism, veganism or the like. Righteousness is found in Jesus Christ alone and we receive of it and become part of the Kingdom of God by faith alone. - Phil 3:19

Rom 14:17 - righteousness - right doing, right living, right being

Rom 14:18

Rom 14:18 - For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men - we are not to be a stumbling block to others. Our actions must be that which glorifies God and edifies men. See Lk 2:52

Rom 14:19

Rom 14:19 - Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another - See Jam 3:18; Heb 12:11-14; 1Cor 10:29

Rom 14:20

Rom 14:20 - For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence - we are to be our brother's keeper (Gen 4:9). We must not cause offense to another through our "good" or "freedom". See 1Cor 8:4-13; Act 15:28, 29

Rom 14:21

Rom 14:21 - It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak - we are our brother's keepers and must guard from causing our brothers to stumble. See Gen 4:9; 1Cor 8:7-13

Rom 14:22

Rom 14:22 - Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God - Paul is re-establishing the principle that we are our brother's keeper. We must not give offense to another through our "liberty" in the faith. We must not cause another to stumble because we feel established in the faith. We must regard the sensibilities of others and do nothing to cause offense. The opposite is true as well. We must keep our faith to ourselves before God and not attempt to coerce our position or faith upon others. We must respect others' rights to choose to disagree with our faith and way of life, and not seek by force to compel them.

Rom 14:23

Rom 14:23 - for whatsoever is not of faith is sin - If we do anything without the confidence and assurance of the Spirit of God, it is presumption and not faith, which is sin. See Jam 4:17; 1Cor 10:31

Rom 15:1

Rom 15:1 - We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves - we are our brother's keepers. See Gen 4:9; Mt 25:32-46; Gal 6:1, 2; Heb 13:3; Rom 12:15

Rom 15:2

Rom 15:2 - Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. - See 1Cor 8:4-13

Rom 15:3

Rom 15:3 - For even Christ pleased not himself - See Mt 20:28

Rom 15:3

Rom 15:3 - The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me - all the criticism, judgment, accusations, scorn and derisions that are directed towards us fell on Jesus. We need not bear them because Jesus already bore them for us. See Ps 69:7-9; Rev 11:8

Rom 15:4

Rom 15:4 - For whatsoever things was written aforetime were written for our learning - See 1Cor 10:6, 11

Rom 15:4

Rom 15:4 - that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope - the things recorded in scripture are to encourage, motivate, and inspire us to move forward in faith, knowing Christ is our sufficiency. Jesus gives us a cloud of witnesses to encourage us to keep the faith, others have walked the road we are on. We must ask the Lord of patience for patience who through test, trial and delay will build our patience. See 2Cor 3:5; Heb 12:1-3

Rom 15:5

Rom 15:5 - grant you to be likeminded one toward another - through God's grace we may be patient, consoling, and like minded towards each other. See 2Cor 1:3, 4; Phil 2:1-4; Rom 12:16

Rom 15:6

Rom 15:6 - That ye may with one mind - See Phil 2:1-8; Isa 52:8

Rom 15:8

Rom 15:8 - Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God - Jesus was born of the lineage of Abraham and was circumcised on the 8th day as instructed by God. His circumcision was both of the flesh and of the heart. As such, He ministered first to the lost sheep of the house of Israel whose probationary time was soon to expire, and then to the rest of the world. See Dan 9:27; Rom 9:3-5; Mt 10:5-7

Rom 15:8

Rom 15:8 - to confirm the promises made unto the fathers: - the following promises were made to the Jewish fathers: 1. God would send a profit from among their brethren - Deut 18:17, 18 2. Jesus would confess the love and glory of God to the Gentiles and sing praises to God's name - Rom 15:9; 2Sam 22:50 3. Jesus would cause the Gentiles to rejoice in God, just as the Jews - Rom 15:10, Deut 32:43 4. Jesus would command all the nations to praise and honor the LORD - Rom 15:11 5. Jesus would be the Root of Jesse to rise to reign over the Gentiles, in whom they will trust - Isa 11:10; Rom 15:12 6. Jesus would confirm the covenant spoken by the prophet Daniel in Daniel 9:24-27

Rom 15:9

Rom 15:9 - And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name - See 2Sam 22:51; Ps 57:9, 108:3

Rom 15:10

Rom 15:10 - And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people - See Deut 32:43

Rom 15:11

Rom 15:11 - And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people - See Ps 117:1

Rom 15:12

Rom 15:12 - There shall be a root of Jesse... - See Isa 11:10

Rom 15:13

Rom 15:13 - Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost - as we exercise faith and believe God's promises, the God Who is Faithful and True will grant us joy and peace as we hope in His salvation - See Isa 32:17; Gal 3:14

Rom 15:13

Rom 15:13 - that ye may abound in hope - hope does not make ashamed - See Rom 5:5

Rom 15:13

Rom 15:13 - through the power of the Holy Ghost - See Act 1:8

Rom 15:16

Rom 15:16 - That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost - See Act 18:6, 7; Rom 11:11, 15:20; 1Cor 3:10

Rom 15:16

Rom 15:16 - that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost - See Gal 3:7, 8, 14

Rom 15:18

Rom 15:18 - For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed - Paul was diligent and dutiful in teaching the Gentiles the gospel of Christ and the things that would constitute godliness before God.

Rom 15:19

Rom 15:19 - Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God: See Gal 3:5 1. Paul through the Holy Spirit raised Eutychus from the dead - Act 20:9 2. Paul foresaw that the ship wherein he was bound as a prisoner, and all of its occupants would be spared, though the vessel would be destroyed in a tempest - Act 27:21-36 3. Paul was bitten by a viper and by the power of the Holy Spirit was completely unharmed - Act 28:3-6; Lk 10:19 4. Paul endured great hardship and persecutions for his ministry from both Jew and Gentile - 2Cor 11:24-27

Rom 15:20

Rom 15:20 - Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation: - See Rom 15:20; 1Cor 3:10; 2Cor 10:14-16

Rom 15:21

Rom 15:21 - But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand - See Isa 52:15

Rom 15:23

Rom 15:23 - But now having no more place in these parts - Paul was effective in preaching the gospel to all parts of the Gentile world. See Rom 15:19

Rom 15:25

Rom 15:25 - But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints - See Act 21:

Rom 15:26

Rom 15:26 - to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem - Act 11:28-30

Rom 15:27

Rom 15:27 - For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things - the Gentile converts had learned of the mystery of God, the oracles of God and his love for all mankind in the things written by the Hebrew prophets. See Rom 3:1, 2

Rom 15:30

Rom 15:30 - Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me - See Eph 6:19

Rom 15:31

Rom 15:31 - That I be delivered from them that do not believe in Judaea - Paul foresaw the trial and test of resistance he would endure from the Jews in Judea. He prayed that the saints join him in prayer for deliverance, that the work of the gospel not be hindered. See Act 17:13, 21:3, 4, 10, 11, 27-34; Gal 1:3

Rom 15:31

Rom 15:31 - and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints - Paul understood the prejudice of the Jews and asked that their hearts be softened by the kindness and brotherly love offered to them by the Gentiles to whom Paul ministered.

Rom 16:5

Rom 16:5 - church that is in their house - See Act 2:46

Rom 16:7

Rom 16:7 - Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me - Jewish converts to Christianity before Paul who, like Paul, were imprisoned for the faith.

Rom 16:13

Rom 16:13 - Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine - Rufus may have been the brother of Paul

Rom 16:16

Rom 16:16 - Salute one another with an holy kiss - See 2Cor 13:12; 1Thess 5:26; 1Pet 5:14

Rom 16:17

Rom 16:17 - Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them - See Gal 1:6-9

Rom 16:18

Rom 16:18 - but their own belly - See Phil 3:17-19

Rom 16:18

Rom 16:16 - and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple - They use smooth words and flattering speech to deceive the hearts of many. See Col 2:8; 2Tim 4:3

Rom 16:19

Rom 16:19 - but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil - Just as our loving heavenly Father, Paul only desires that we know good and not evil. See Gen 2:17; Isa 7:14-16; Job 28:28; 1Cor 14:20; Jam 3:13-18; Heb 5:14; CONTRAST Jer 4:22; 3Jo 1:11; Lk 11:4;

Rom 16:20

Rom 16:20 - shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly - See Gen 3:15; Ps 91:13

Rom 16:22

Rom 16:22 - I Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord - Tertius may have been the scribe for Paul.

Rom 16:25

Rom 16:25 - Now to Him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel - See Ju 1:24

Rom 16:25

Rom 16:25 - according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began - the mystery of God now revealed, that Jew and Gentile be one in Christ and that God's divinity abide in sinful human flesh, the mystery of godliness! See Eph 2:11-22, 3:3-6; Rev 10:7; Col 1:25-29

Rom 16:26

Rom 16:26. - But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith - See Col 1:26

1Cor 1:9

1Cor 1:9 - God is faithful - that which God started, He will finish. He is Faithful. See 2Tim 2:13; Rev 3:14, 19:11; 1Thess 5:24

1Cor 1:10

1Cor 1:10 - Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speaking the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment - See Joh 17:9, 17-21; Eph 4:5; Phil 2:1-4; 1Cor 1:13; CONTRAST Amos 3:3

1Cor 1:10 - beseech - To entreat; to supplicate; to implore; to ask or pray with urgency

1Cor 1:10

1Cor 1:10 - ye all speak the same thing - See John 8:17

1Cor 1:10

1Cor 1:10 - there be no divisions among you - See 1Cor 1:13, 12:25, 6:1-8; Eph 4:3

1Cor 1:10

1Cor 1:10 - same mind and in the same judgment - we should see, assess and think of all things the same. We must reason together and come to a common understanding of all that is holy, just and good. See Isa 52:8; Philippians 2:1-8; Act 2:1-3

1Cor 1:10

1Cor 1:10 - the same judgment - See Isa 8:20

1Cor 1:11

1Cor 1:11 - For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you - See 1Cor 3:3, 4

1Cor 1:11

1Cor 1:11 - Chloe - Chlóē Noun Feminine khlo'-ay from apparently a primary word, "green" feminine of apparently a primary word; "green"; Chloe, a Christian female:--Chloe. Chloe = "a green herb"

1Cor 1:13

1Cor 1:13 - Is Christ divided? - See Joh 17:21; 10:30, 14:7, 9-11

1Cor 1:14

1Cor 1:14 - I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius - 3Jo 1:1

1Cor 1:15

1Cor 1:15 - See Mt 28:19

1Cor 1:17

1Cor 1:17 - not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect - man's wisdom and eloquence are not to supersede the working of God's Spirit which makes things hard to understand simple for the humble but undecipherable to the proud. Paul learned not to reason with men's wisdom nor to use flowing oratory but merely to lift the cross of Christ. See 1Cor 2:1-5, 14; Act 17:16-34

1Cor 1:17

1Cor 1:17 - lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect - when man's wisdom and words are "added" to the word of God, it contradicts the simplicity of the gospel, causing God's word to be of none effect. We are to stick to the plain words of Scripture in our teaching, preaching and instruction, lest we stifle the power of God's Holy Spirit.

1Cor 1:18

1Cor 1:18 - For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God - The preaching of the Cross of Christ reveals the power, wisdom, and love of God towards mankind (1Cor 1:24). However, it is not only Jesus' Cross, but the cross which we too must be crucified upon that is to be preached. We too are to be crucified with Christ and born again to a new life in Jesus Christ. This is the preaching of the gospel. See 1Pet 4:14; 1Cor 2:14; Act 26:22-32; Lk 9:23||Mk 8:34, 10:21||Mt 16:24; Gal 2:20; Col 2:12

1Cor 1:18

1Cor 1:18 - unto us which are saved it is the power of God - See Rom 1:16; 1Cor 1:23, 24, 2:1, 2, 9-13, 15, 16

1Cor 1:19

1Cor 1:19 - For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent - All of those who seek to pervert the gospel in its simplicity are accursed and will be judged of God. See Isa 29:14; Gal 1:1-10

1Cor 1:20

1Cor 1:20 - where is the disputer of this world? - the learned scholars among men who scoff and deny the power of God found in Jesus Christ. - See Act 17:16-21

1Cor 1:20

1Cor 1:20 - hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? - See Gen 11:9; 1Cor 1:27; Heb 11:3

1Cor 1:21

1Cor 1:21 - For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God - the wise men of the world take God's imparted wisdom, pervert it, in order to deny God, thus bringing condemnation upon themselves. See Rom 1:18-22

1Cor 1:21

1Cor 1:21 - it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe - See 1Cor 1:2, 18, 2:14

1Cor 1:22

1Cor 1:22 - For the Jews require a sign - See Joh 6:30; Mt 12:39; 16:4; Lk 11:14-16

1Cor 1:22

1Cor 1:22 - Greeks seek after wisdom - See Act 17:18-31 Hermeneutics [root word is Hermes

- the Greek god of interpretation/translation said to be the intermediary between the gods and mankind] is the method of Bible exposition, interpretation and translation based on [man's] knowledge. Hermeneutics as a discipline, often synonymous with exegesis, analyzes written, verbal and non-verbal communications whereas, exegesis focuses primarily upon texts. Founded by Friedrich Schleiermacher [theologians, philosopher] during the 18th Century, he attempted to reconcile the criticism of the Enlightenment with the traditional Protestant Church theologies. He was also influential in founding modern Higher Criticism [Historical Critical Method] which "short circuits the belief that certain books are word for word truth, suggesting that the truth therefore, lies in the historical context." The method attempts to analyze the "world behind the text" - the era, social, political, language, cultural, specific events, things and customs as context to reconstruct the "original meaning/understanding" of the text. The method implies an understanding of the original language to interpret and understand the meaning of texts. This implies therefore, that the educated class is most apt to understand and apply the writings. This method exalts man and his knowledge (1Cor 8:1). Bible verses that challenge this method of study are as follows: God has prescribed the method of Proof Texting: Isa 28:9-13 Heb 11:6 God has made the poor/weak to be rich in faith: Jam 2:5 1Cor 1:18-25, 13:4, 5 Col 2:6-9 Rom 1:16, 17 Ps 19:7, 119:130 God has removed language as a barrier to communicating and understanding the gospel: Act 1:4, 5, 8; 2:1-47 Christ and the Holy Spirit are man's Intercessors to the Father, imparting knowledge 1Tim 2:5 Joh 16:13

1Cor 1:23

1Cor 1:23 - But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock - See Isa 28:16; Ps 118:22, 23; Mt 21:44; Lk 20:18; 1Pet 2:6-8; Rom 9:31-33

1Cor 1:23

1Cor 1:23 - and unto the Greeks foolishness - See Act 26:24, 25

1Cor 1:24

1Cor 1:24 - But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks - Paul reveals once again that the call of the Lord is unto all men, both Jew and Greek. See Col 1:25-29; Eph 1:1-5; Rom 8:30, 9:23-26

1Cor 1:24

1Cor 1:24 - Christ the power of God - Jesus has all power of God in Himself. See 1Cor 1:17, 18, 2:11, 2; Heb 1:5, 8, 10; Mt 28:18; Col 2:9; Rom 1:20 CONTRAST Jer 10:10-12

1Cor 1:24

1Cor 1:24 - the wisdom of God - See 1Cor 1:30; Prov 8; Col 1:15, 2:3, 9

1Cor 1:25

1Cor 1:25 - Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men - See 1 Corinthian 3:19; Isa 55:9

1Cor 1:26

1Cor 1:26 - For ye see your calling - See Eph 4:1

1Cor 1:26

1Cor 1:26 - how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: - The gospel has appeared to all men but the GOAT (great men of all time) seldom receive the message since it must be received by faith, humility, self-sacrifice and surrender. See Mt 19:24; Mk 10:25; Mt 7:13, 14, 18:2-4 Not only is the growth of Christ's kingdom illustrated by the parable of the mustard seed, but in every stage of its growth the experience represented in the parable is repeated. For His church in every generation God has a special truth and a special work. The truth that is hid from the worldly wise and prudent is revealed to the child-like and humble. It calls for self-sacrifice. It has battles to fight and victories to win. At the outset its advocates are few. By the great men of the world and by a world-conforming church, they are opposed and despised. See John the Baptist, the forerunner of Christ, standing alone to rebuke the pride and formalism of the Jewish nation. See the first bearers of the gospel into Europe. How obscure, how hopeless, seemed the mission of Paul and Silas, the two tentmakers, as they with their companions took ship at Troas for Philippi. See "Paul the aged," in chains, preaching Christ in the stronghold of the Caesars. See the little communities of slaves and peasants in conflict with the heathenism of imperial Rome. See Martin Luther withstanding that mighty church which is the masterpiece of the world's wisdom. See him holding fast God's word against emperor and pope, declaring, "Here I take my stand; I can not do otherwise. God be my help." See John Wesley preaching Christ and His righteousness in the midst of formalism, sensualism, and infidelity. See one burdened with the woes of the heathen world, pleading for the privilege of carrying to them Christ's message of love. Hear the response of ecclesiasticism: "Sit down, young man. When God wants to convert the heathen, He will do it without your help or mine." - {COL 78.2} The great leaders of religious thought in this generation sound the praises and build the monuments of those who planted the seed of truth centuries ago. Do not many turn from this work to trample down the growth springing from the same seed today? The old cry is repeated, "We know that God spake unto Moses; as for this fellow [Christ in the messenger He sends], we know not from whence he is." John 9:29. As in earlier ages, the special truths for this time are found, not with the ecclesiastical authorities, but with men and women who are not too learned or too wise to believe the word of God. - {COL 79.1}

1Cor 1:27

1Cor 1:27 - But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise - See Isa 44:25; 1Cor 1:20

1Cor 1:27

1Cor 1:27 - and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty - 1Sam 17:37-50

1Cor 1:28

1Cor 1:28 - And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: - one of the reasons Jesus was not regarded by some was because of His association with the poor, the base, the despised people of society. See Act 4:13; Jam 1:9; Eph 1:3-5; See Mt 11:19, 21:31

1Cor 1:28

1Cor 1:28 - and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are - God confounds all the wisdom of the world through the power, might and wisdom of the gospel of Jesus Christ. See Rom 4:17

1Cor 1:29

1Cor 1:29 - That no flesh should glory in his presence - We see the Lord's working and it is marvelous in our eyes. We all will give God the glory for His excellent wisdom and workings towards men. See 1Cor 1:31; Jer 9:23, 24; Eph 2:9

1Cor 1:30

1Cor 1:30 - But of him - But of God the Father

1Cor 1:30

1Cor 1:30 - are ye - we are made to be "in Christ Jesus"

1Cor 1:30

1Cor 1:30 - in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: - God the Father made the entire human race to be redeemed in Christ Jesus. See 1Cor 1:24; Eph 1:3-5

1Cor 1:30

1Cor 1:30 - wisdom - Jesus is the wisdom of God - 1Cor 1:24; Col 2:9, 10

1Cor 1:30

1Cor 1:30 - righteousness - THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS - Jer 23:5, 6

1Cor 1:30

1Cor 1:30 - redemption - Jesus has redeemed us from the curse of the law, having been made a curse for us. See Gal 3:13

1Cor 1:31

1Cor 1:31 - That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord - See Jer 9:23, 24; 1Cor 1:29

1Cor 2:1

1Cor 2:1 - came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom - Paul recognized the inadequacy of men's wisdom, reason and knowledge base on his experience on Mars Hill. He therefore purposed to present nothing less than Jesus Christ and Him crucified for the sins of the world. See Act 17:16-33; 1Cor 1:17; 1Cor 2:5, 13; Ezekiel 33:30-32

1Cor 2:2

1Cor 2:2 - determine not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified - Jesus alone must be lifted up continually to the people of God. Paul recognized that excellence of speech, man's orations, and man's logic and reason will not soften the heart or speak to the soul. The gospel of Christ alone will melt the hardened heart - Col 1:27-29; Joh 3:14, 15; 12:32; 14:6; Heb 3:1;

1Cor 2:3

1Cor 1:3 - And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling - Paul is giving account of his frail humanity, which of itself can do nothing. He speaks of his own feelings of fear, weakness and trembling that he naturally felt so that God's glory may be magnified as the active agent and power that worked effectually through him. 1Cor 2:3-5; 2Cor 12:9

1Cor 2:4 - And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom - See 1Thess 2:4; 1Cor 1:17, 18; 2Cor 3:12, 11:3

1Cor 2:4

1Cor 2:4 - but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power - See Col 1:29; Act 4:13, 14; Lk 21:12-15; 2Cor 12:12; 1Thess 1:5

1Cor 2:5

1Cor 2:5 - That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. - Our faith must be rooted in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the power of God unto Salvation which reveals God's righteousness and transforms our faith to His faith. See Rom 1:16, 17; Zech 4:6; 1Cor 4:20; 2Cor 3:18, 4:7

1Cor 2:5

1Cor 2:5 - the power of God - the power of God is the gospel, the preaching of Jesus Christ crucified for the sins of the world from the foundation of the world. See Rom 1:16

1Cor 2:6

1Cor 2:6 - Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect - those who are mature in the faith; those who are being sanctified, growing in grace until they reach the fullness of the stature of Christ. See Act 20:32; 2Cor 10:5, Eph 4:11-13; Heb 10:14; Col 2:10

1Cor 2:6

1Cor 2:6 - perfect - Col 1:27-29

1Cor 2:6

1Cor 2:6 - nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought - the rulers of this world who will come to nothing. See Jer 17:5, 6; 1Cor 1:19, 20, 26, 3:19, 2:8; Rev 6:15

1Cor 2:7

1Cor 2:7-10 - wisdom of God in a mystery - Jesus, is both God and the Wisdom of God, becoming Man to save the world is the Mystery of God - See Mt 13:11; Eph 3:1-5, 10; 1Cor 1:24; Col 2:9; 1Tim 3:16; Rev 10:7

1Cor 2:7

1Cor 2:7 - even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory: - The hidden wisdom from before the foundation of the world, that God would reconcile us unto Himself through His Son and make of many nations, one nation in Christ Jesus. This mystery was hidden from all the creation but not made manifest through the church - See Eph 2:14-20, 3:7-12; Col 1:26, 27

1Cor 2:7

1Cor 2:7 - which God ordained before the world unto our glory - See Eph 1:4; Rev 13:8

1Cor 2:8

1Cor 2:8 - Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. - Act 2:36; 7:1-60; Isa 53:1

1Cor 2:8

1Cor 2:8 - Lord of glory - Jesus is called the Lord of glory, the Father is called the Father of glory and the Spirit is called the Spirit of glory. See Eph 1:17; 1Pet 4:14 That was a never-to-be-forgotten Sabbath to the sorrowing disciples, and also to the priests, rulers, scribes, and people. At the setting of the sun on the evening of the preparation day the trumpets sounded, signifying that the Sabbath had begun. The Passover was observed as it had been for centuries, while He to whom it pointed had been slain by wicked hands, and lay in Joseph's tomb. On the Sabbath the courts of the temple were filled with worshipers. The high priest from Golgotha was there, splendidly robed in his sacerdotal garments. White-turbaned priests, full of activity, performed their duties. But some present were not at rest as the blood of bulls and goats was offered for sin. They were not conscious that type had met antitype, that an infinite sacrifice had been made for the sins of the world. They knew not that there was no further value in the performance of the ritual service. But never before had that service been witnessed with such conflicting feelings. The trumpets and musical instruments and the voices of the singers were as loud and clear as usual. But a sense of strangeness pervaded everything. One after another inquired about a strange event that had taken place. Hitherto the most holy place had been sacredly guarded from intrusion. But now it was open to all eyes. The heavy veil of tapestry, made of pure linen, and beautifully wrought with gold, scarlet, and purple, was rent from top to bottom. The place where Jehovah had met with the high priest, to communicate His glory, the place that had been God's sacred audience chamber, lay open to every eye,—a place no longer recognized by the Lord. With gloomy presentiments the priests ministered before the altar. The uncovering of the sacred mystery of the most holy place filled them with dread of coming calamity. - {DA 774.2}

1Cor 2:9

1Cor 2:9 - But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him - “the exceeding rewards for right-doing, the enjoyment of heaven, the society of angels, the communion and love of God and His Son, the elevation and extension of all our powers throughout eternal ages...” {SC 21.3} See Isa 64:4; Eph 2:7; Ps 31:19, 84:11; Rom 8:18; Joh 16:12

1Cor 2:9

1Cor 2:9 - Eye hath not seen - the beauties to behold are beyond human vision and comprehension

1Cor 2:9

1Cor 2:9 - nor ear heard - the glorious melodies to be hear are beyond human hearing or comprehension

1Cor 2:9

1Cor 2:9 - neither have entered into the heart of man - Our fondest dreams and desire can not fathom that which God has prepared for us.

1Cor 2:9

1Cor 2:9 - the things which God hath prepared for those who love Him - God has prepared, and ordained us to be His living temple, where He dwells fully. John 14:1-3; Eph 1:3-5; 1Cor 2:7; 1Jo 2:25 "Many scriptures support the idea that "temple," "sanctuary," "tabernacle," or "house of God," add meaning and depth to the high calling of God's people. In this is to be found the real truth of what "God hath prepared for them that love him," (1Cor 2:9) that is, a character, an experience in the deep things of God revealed by His Spirit. His people, the "household of God," are joined together to make a "holy temple in the Lord": Through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow- citizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit (Eph 2:18-22)." Excerpt From: Donald Karr Short. "Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed."

1Cor 2:9

1Cor 2:9 - them that love him - God is saving the best for those who love Him and whom He loves.

1Cor 2:10

1Cor 2:10 - But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit - The Holy Spirit gives revelation of the deep, hidden things of God that are invisible to the natural mind. The Spirit imparts Godly wisdom and understanding. See Titus 2:12; 1Cor 2:12; Mt 11:25, 16:17; Act 5:1-10; 1Jo 2:20; Heb 11:3

1Cor 2:10

1Cor 2:10 - for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God - The Holy Spirit, as a Medium, searches the heart of God and conveys God's purposes and will to us. See 1Cor 2:11, 12, 16

1Cor 2:11

1Cor 2:11 - For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? - we have the ability to regulate our thoughts through the power of Christ. A child doesn't have the maturity to regulate its diet- I child would want to eat ice cream and cake for breakfast. Maturity says "I will choose not to feed on negative thinking but on how much God loves me." See 2Cor 10:3, 4

1Cor 2:11

1Cor 2:11 - even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. - God the Father knows what is the mind of the Spirit, just as the Spirit knoweth the things of God(1Cor 2:11). 1Cor 2:13 - comparing spiritual things with spiritual - When we walk in the Spirit, the Lord gives us "SON GLASSES" to be able to discern the spiritual things of God, to connect the dots of deep and hidden things, not by man's wisdom, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ through the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit permits us to compare spiritual things, line-upon-line, so that we might be thoroughly furnished unto all good works (of faith). See Isa 28:9, 10, 13; Mt 16:17; 2Tim 3:16

1Cor 2:14 - But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God - It is assumed that Paul is speaking of those who have not accepted Christ when he refers to the natural man, however, close examination of 1Cor 3:1-3 shows that he is speaking of believers in Christ who are themselves carnal in thought, word and actions. See 1Cor 1:18; 2Cor 3:1-3; John 14:17, 22, 23; Rom 8:5-8; Gal 6:8; CONTRAST 1Cor 1:21 "Written in different ages, by men who differed widely in rank and occupation, and in mental and spiritual endowments, the books of the Bible present a wide contrast in style, as well as a diversity in the nature of the subjects unfolded. Different forms of expression are employed by different writers; often the same truth is more strikingly presented by one than by another. And as several writers present a subject under varied aspects and relations, there may appear, to the superficial, careless, or prejudiced reader, to be discrepancy or contradiction, where the thoughtful, reverent student, with clearer insight, discerns the underlying harmony. - {ISM 25.3}

1Cor 2:14 - for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them - those who walk in the Spirit live by the faith of Jesus Christ. It is faith that gives us knowledge and understanding that the natural man can not see nor perceive, but rather deems foolish. See 1Cor 1:23; Heb 11:1, 2; Rom 8:6

1Cor 2:14

1Cor 2:14 - because they are spiritually discerned - See Joh 3:3 The Holy Spirit must actuate the mind and the natural senses so that one may perceive and know the truths of God. That which wars against the working of the Spirit is pride and selfishness: Eyes to see - John 3:3, 9:39-41; Isa 6:9, 10; Mt 23:12-36 Ears to hear - John 8:43, 47; Isa 6:9, 10 Mouth to speak the truth - Mk 12:28-34; Mt 16:16-17; Rom 10:10 Hearts inclined to truth - Gen 4:3, 4; Joh 8:47; Jam 4:6; 1Pet 5:5, 6; Lk 18:11-13; Isaac was born after the Spirit, yet he was as real and literal a child as Ishmael was. So the true seed of Abraham are only those who are spiritual, but that does not make them any the less real. God is Spirit, yet He is a real God. Christ had a spiritual body after His resurrection, yet He was a real, literal being, and could be handled the same as other bodies. So the bodies of the saints after the resurrection will be spiritual, yet they will be real. Spiritual things are not imaginary things. Indeed, that which is spiritual is more real than that which is fleshly, because only that which is spiritual will endure forever.

1Cor 2:15

1Cor 2:15 - But he that is spiritual judgeth all things - He that walks in the Spirit can discern all things, even the things that the natural mind can not perceive, because the Spirit of Jesus abides in him. See 1Cor 2:16; Prov 28:5

1Cor 2:15

1Cor 2:16 - yet he himself is judged of no man - we can not be judged of men because we are not of this world. We are other-worldly. See John 17:16, 14, 8:23, 18:36; Philippians 3:20; Heb 11:8-10, 13; 1Jo 4:4-6, 5:19; Ps 119:19; Col 3:3

1Cor 2:16

1Cor 2:16 - For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? - See 1Cor 2:11

1Cor 2:16

1Cor 2:16 - But we have the mind of Christ - If we abide in Jesus and He abides in us, He imparts His mind, Spirit, will to us that we may know and do the things of the Father. See Phil 2:5; John 15:1-5

1Cor 3:1

1Cor 3:1 - Paul speaks to the Corinthians with regret that he can not speak to them as spiritual, but as only carnal. In other words, they were not walking in the Spirit of God to be able to discern spiritual things but were acting carnally, of the flesh. See 1Cor 3:3; Gal 5:16; Mt 20:11-16; Heb 5:12-14

1Cor 3:2

1Cor 3:2 - I have fed you with milk - See Heb 5:11-14

1Cor 3:2

1Cor 3:2 - for hitherto ye were not able to bear it - See Joh 16:12; Heb 5:11

1Cor 3:3

1Cor 3:3 - For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men? - See Jam 3:14-16 Discussions may be entered into by mortals strenuously advocating creature merit, and each man striving for the supremacy, but they simply do not know that all the time, in principle and character, they are misrepresenting the truth as it is in Jesus. They are in a fog of bewilderment. They need the divine love of God which is represented by gold tried in the fire; they need the white raiment of Christ's pure character; and they need the heavenly eyesalve that they might discern with astonishment the utter worthlessness of creature merit to earn the wages of eternal life. There may be a fervor of labor and an intense affection, high and noble achievement of intellect, a breadth of understanding, and the humblest self abasement, laid at the feet of our Redeemer; but there is not one jot more than the grace and talent first given of God. There must be nothing less given than duty prescribes, and there cannot be one jot more given than they have first received; and all must be laid upon the fire of Christ's righteousness to cleanse it from its earthly odor before it rises in a cloud of fragrant incense to the great Jehovah and is accepted as a sweet savor. - {1888 815.3}

1Cor 3:5

1Cor 3:5 - even as the LORD gave to every man - God has appointed every person a spiritual gift to be used for the edification of the body of Christ, the church. Each is to be a minister of the gospel to draw others to Jesus Christ - See 1Cor 12:28, Eph 4:11

1Cor 3:6

1Cor 3:6 - I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase - See Joh 4:36, 37

1Cor 3:6

1Cor 3:6 - but God gave the increase - See John 1:12, 13

1Cor 3:7

1Cor 3:7 - So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase - See Ps 147:8; Eccl 11:5

1Cor 3:8

1Cor 3:8 - every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour - See Rev 22:12; Rom 14:10

1Cor 3:9

1Cor 3:9 - ye are God's husbandry - Paul uses the imagery of a vine for which God the Father tends, prunes, watches over and expects good fruit from. See Isa 5:1-7; Joh 15:1-8

1Cor 3:9

1Cor 3:9 - ye are God's building - just as the prophets Zech, Hag, Ezr and Neh were responsible for promoting the building of God's temple, left in ruins during the Babylonian captivity, Paul as a master builder by the grace of God has laid the foundation of Christ upon which the saints are to be built upon. See 1Pet 2:4, 5

1Cor 3:10

1Cor 3:10 - According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. See Rom 15:20, 16

1Cor 3:10

1Cor 3:10 - But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon - we must be mindful of our profession, how we build upon the foundation of faith of Jesus Christ. See 1Tim 4:12-16

1Cor 3:11

1Cor 3:11 - for other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ - See Isa 28:16, 17; 1Pet 2:6-8; Mt 7:24, 25; Gal 1:6-9; Act 4:12 "Let none seek to tear away the foundations of our faith,—the foundations that were laid at the beginning of our work, by prayerful study of the Word and by revelation. Upon these foundations we have been building for more than fifty years. Men may suppose that they have found a new way, that they can lay a stronger foundation than that which has been laid; but this is a great deception. 'Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid.' [1Cor 3:11.] In the past, many have undertaken to build a new faith, to establish new principles; but how long did their building stand? It soon fell; for it was not founded upon the Rock." Testimonies, volume 8, 296-297. We must examine well the foundation of our hope; for we shall have to give a reason for it from the Scriptures (Lk 12:12). This delusion will spread, and we shall have to contend with it face to face; and unless we are prepared for it, we shall be ensnared and overcome. But if we do what we can on our part to be ready for the conflict that is just before us, God will do His part, and His all-powerful arm will protect us. He would sooner send every angel out of glory to make a hedge about faithful souls, than have them deceived and led away by the lying wonders of Satan. - {EW 262.3}

1Cor 3:12

1Tim 6:17-19 A form of godliness will not save any. All must have a deep and living experience. This alone will save them in the time of trouble. Then their work will be tried of what sort it is; and if it is gold, silver, and precious stones, they will be hid as in the secret of the Lord's pavilion. But if their work is wood, hay, and stubble, nothing can shield them from the fierceness of Jehovah's wrath. - {CCh 42.1} As a wise master builder, Jer at the very beginning of his lifework sought to encourage the men of Judah to lay the foundations of their spiritual life broad and deep, by making thorough work of repentance. Long had they been building with material likened by the apostle Paul to wood, hay, and stubble, and by Jer himself to dross. "Refuse silver shall men call them," he declared of the impenitent nation, "because the Lord hath rejected them." Jer 6:30, margin. Now they were urged to begin building wisely and for eternity, casting aside the rubbish of apostasy and unbelief, and using as foundation material the pure gold, the refined silver, the precious stones—faith and obedience and good works—which alone are acceptable in the sight of a holy God. - {PK 409.3}

1Cor 3:12 - gold - perfected faith, tried in the fire - Jam 1:3; 1Pet 1:7

1Cor 3:12

1Cor 3:12 - silver - obedience - we must be purified seven times until we reflect Christ's image. See Ps 12:6; Mal 3:2-4

1Cor 3:12

1Cor 3:12 - precious stones - good works

1Cor 3:13

1Cor 3:13 - Every man's work - the works here spoken may signify: 1. One's character, developed through patient effort and perseverance, striving for the mastery in Jesus Christ, and dawning Jesus' robe of righteousness 2. One's profession of faith 3. One's works in ministry

1Cor 3:13

1Cor 3:12 - for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is - every man's characters will be revealed in the day of trial. We must be built up of that which can not be shaken and that through heat will only shine more glorious. See Heb 12:27

1Cor 3:13

1Cor 3:13 - it shall be revealed by fire - Jesus is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap: And He shall sit as a Refiner and Purifier of silver... We are refined through the fiery trials that shall assail us. The day of trial will test to see if our faith is genuine gold or base metal. Mal 3:2, 3; 1Pet 4:12

1Cor 3:13

1Cor 3:13 - the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is - Mal 3:2-4

1Cor 3:14

1Cor 3:14 - If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward
- See 2Cor 3:1, 2

1Cor 3:15

1Cor 3:15 - If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire - In how wide contrast to the life of Abraham was that of Lot! Once they had been companions, worshiping at one altar, dwelling side by side in their pilgrim tents; but how widely separated now! Lot had chosen Sodom for its pleasure and profit. Leaving Abraham's altar and its daily sacrifice to the living God, he had permitted his children to mingle with a corrupt and idolatrous people; yet he had retained in his heart the fear of God, for he is declared in the Scriptures to have been a "just" man; his righteous soul was vexed with the vile conversation that greeted his ears daily and the violence and crime he was powerless to prevent. He was saved at last as "a brand plucked out of the fire" (Zech 3:2), yet stripped of his possessions, bereaved of his wife and children, dwelling in caves, like the wild beasts, covered with infamy in his old age; and he gave to the world, not a race of righteous men, but two idolatrous nations, at enmity with God and warring upon His people, until, their cup of iniquity being full, they were appointed to destruction. How terrible were the results that followed one unwise step! - {PP 168.1} Those who secure for their children worldly wealth and honor at the expense of their eternal interests, will find in the end that these advantages are a terrible loss. Like Lot, many see their children ruined, and barely save their own souls. Their lifework is lost; their life is a sad failure. Had they exercised true wisdom, their children might have had less of worldly prosperity, but they would have made sure of a title to the immortal inheritance. - {PP 169.2}

1Cor 3:15

1Cor 3:15 - but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire - the one who may have suffered a loss in all things, may himself gain eternal life and be saved if he patiently endure the fiery trials of his faith. See 1Pet 1:7, 4:12, 13; Mal 3:2-5

1Cor 3:16

1Cor 3:16 - Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? - In the cleansing of the temple, Jesus was announcing His mission as the Messiah, and entering upon His work. That temple, erected for the abode of the divine Presence, was designed to be an object lesson for Israel and for the world. From eternal ages it was God's purpose that every created being, from the bright and holy seraph to man, should be a temple for the indwelling of the Creator. Because of sin, humanity ceased to be a temple for God. Darkened and defiled by evil, the heart of man no longer revealed the glory of the Divine One. But by the incarnation of the Son of God, the purpose of Heaven is fulfilled. God dwells in humanity, and through saving grace the heart of man becomes again His temple. God designed that the temple at Jerusalem should be a continual witness to the high destiny open to every soul.

1Cor 3:16

1Cor 3:16, 17 - ye are the temple of God - Our bodies are God's temple (Joh 2:19-21). We remain the temple of God's Holy Spirit as long as we remain faithful to Christ unto the end (Heb 3:6).

1Cor 3:16

1Cor 3:16 - and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you - See John 14:17

1Cor 3:17

1Cor 3:17 - if any man defile the temple of God - when we surrender our lives to Christ, we are washed in the blood of regeneration. If we return to the things of the world, we defile God's temple, which we are. Those things which defile include: 1. Fornication - See 1Cor 6:16 2. Strong Drink - Prov 20:1 3. Unclean Foods - Act 15:29 4. Impure Thoughts - Phil 4:8; 2Cor 10:5 5. Impure Words - Mt 15:11 6. Impure Motives - Rom 12:9 Transgression of physical law is transgression of the moral law; for God is as truly the author of physical laws as He is the author of the moral law. His law is written with His own finger upon every nerve, every muscle, every faculty, which has been entrusted to man. And every misuse of any part of our organism is a violation of that law. - {COL 347.1} The relation of the physical organism to the spiritual life is one of the most important branches of education. It should receive careful attention in the home and in the school. All need to become acquainted with their physical structure and the laws that control natural life. He who remains in willing ignorance of the laws of his physical being and who violates them through ignorance is sinning against God. All should place themselves in the best possible relation to life and health. Our habits should be brought under the control of a mind that is itself under the control of God. - {COL 348.1}

1Cor 3:17

1Cor 3:17 - for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are - we are to present our bodies a living sacrifice to God for Him to inhabit. We individually are temples of the Holy Spirit, who come together as living stones to establish Jesus' Spiritual House or Body, the church. See 1Pet 2:4-9; Eph 4:4-15

1Cor 3:17

1Cor 3:17 - is holy - we are consecrated to the Lord and are no longer common vessels, but sacred vessels for the Lord's service - See 2Tim 2:20, 21

1Cor 3:18

1Cor 3:18 - If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise - See 1Cor 8:2

1Cor 3:18

1Cor 3:18 - seemeth to be wise in this world - the wisdom of this world is foolishness to God (1Cor 3:19, 20; Isa 44:9-21). The wise of this world seek to gain advantage to amass the things of this world (Lk 16:18). Jesus warns the things of this world are passing away and the lusts thereof, but he who does the will of God abideth forever (1Jo 2:15, 16).

1Cor 3:18

1Cor 3:19

1Cor 3:19 - For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness. - See Mt 11:21-25; Lk 10:21; 1Cor 2:12-14

1Cor 3:19

1Cor 3:19 - He taketh the wise in their own craftiness - the very shrewdness and craftiness exercised by the wise of the world will be their downfall. See Lk 16:8; 1Sam 25:39; 1Cor 1:19-21; Isa 29:14-16; Prov 26:12, 28:12

1Cor 3:20

1Cor 3:20 - The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain - God knows the thoughts of the wise men of this world, that they are foolishness and vanity. See Isa 44:9-21; Ps 14:1, 53:1

1Cor 3:21

1Cor 3:21 - Therefore let no man glory in men - we are not to exalt men, placing them on pedestals and following them as though God. We are not to esteem men highly as gods. Jer 17:5, 6; 1Cor 4:6, 7

1Cor 3:21

1Cor 3:21 - For all things are yours - We have all things in Christ Jesus and in Him we are complete!! See Rev 21:7; Col 2:9, 10

1Cor 3:23

1Cor 3:23 - And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's - See Joh 17:9, 10, 21

1Cor 4:2

1Cor 4:2 - Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful - a man's effective stewardship is grounded in his integrity, his truthfulness, selflessness, and uprightness. A good steward never takes credit for what does not belong to him, but renders praise to God for all things (1Cor 4:7). Any breach in integrity tarnishes his position as a good steward. See Lk 16:1-8

1Cor 4:3

1Cor 4:3 - But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self. - Paul is speaking to the self-righteous and sectarian Corinthians who have gravitated to the ways of so-called teachers in their mist. Paul will speak of his credentials, not as another mere teacher to the Corinthian flock, but as a father to them, who through his labors in the Holy Spirit, "gave birth" to the church. Paul is contrasting his works of integrity and credibility while with the Corinthians, to those who are not dutiful in reproofing sin openly in their midst. See 1Cor 4:15-20, 5:1-6 The impenitent sometimes excuse themselves by saying of professed Christians, "I am as good as they are. They are no more self-denying, sober, or circumspect in their conduct than I am. They love pleasure and self-indulgence as well as I do." Thus they make the faults of others an excuse for their own neglect of duty. But the sins and defects of others do not excuse anyone, for the Lord has not given us an erring human pattern. The spotless Son of God has been given as our example, and those who complain of the wrong course of professed Christians are the ones who should show better lives and nobler examples. If they have so high a conception of what a Christian should be, is not their own sin so much the greater? They know what is right, and yet refuse to do it. - {SC 32.1}

1Cor 4:3

1Cor 4:3 - I judge not mine own self - We are to ask God to search and reveal to us our true characters (Ps 139). We are to try ourselves to see if we be in the faith (2Cor 13:5).

1Cor 4:4

1Cor 4:4 - For I know nothing by myself - we do not know our ourselves, our own hearts, what manner of spirit is within us. We are not to lay judgment to ourselves or to others, comparing ourselves by ourselves is not wise. - See (2Cor 10:12). See Jer 17:9 Lk 9:52-55

1Cor 4:4

1Cor 4:4 - but He that judgeth me is the LORD - See Jer 17:10; Joh 5:21-23

1Cor 4:5

1Cor 4:5 - Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come - See Joh 7:24; 1Cor 6:2, 3

1Cor 4:5

1Cor 4:5 - Who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness - Jesus, the Light of the world that lighteth every man, is He Who through the Holy Spirit shines the light of truth upon the heart, bringing conviction of sin, righteousness and judgment. Jesus, the Living Word, and Searcher of hearts will make plain the thoughts and motives behind our every act. See Eze 8:12, 9:9; Ps 101:7; Mt 10:26 We may have flattered ourselves, as did Nicodemus, that our life has been upright, that our moral character is correct, and think that we need not humble the heart before God, like the common sinner: but when the light from Christ shines into our souls, we shall see how impure we are; we shall discern the selfishness of motive, the enmity against God, that has defiled every act of life. Then we shall know that our own righteousness is indeed as filthy rags, and that the blood of Christ alone can cleanse us from the defilement of sin, and renew our hearts in His own likeness. - {SC 28.3}

1Cor 4:5

1Cor 4:5 - and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts - See Jer 17:10; 1Cor 2:11; 1Sam 16:7; Ps 139

1Cor 4:6

1Cor 4:6 - And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes - the same high esteem and blamelessness seen in Paul is conferred to himself and Apollos also. Yet, they do not think too highly of themselves because our hearts and motives are only discerned of God.

1Cor 4:6

1Cor 4:6 - not to think of man above that which is written - See Jer 17:5, 6; 1Cor 3:21

1Cor 4:6

1Cor 4:6 - that no one of you be puffed up for one against another - See 1Cor 8:1, 13:4; Gal 5:26; 3Jo 1:9

1Cor 4:7

1Cor 4:7 - For who maketh thee to differ from another? - what makes you more special than another?

1Cor 4:7

1Cor 4:7 - what hast thou that thou hast not received? - God gives us individually, spiritual gifts in the Spirit so that it may be for the benefit of all. See John 3:27; 1Cor 12:7; 1Chron 29:14

1Cor 4:7

1Cor 4:7 - now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it? - We are to give God and God alone the glory for the great things He has done in and through us - See Eph 2:7-9; 1Cor 1:29

1Cor 4:9

1Cor 4:9 - made a spectacle - the redeemed are to be a spectacle (an amazement) to the other worlds, angels and men. See Eph 3:10, 1Pet 1:10-12 Heavenly beings were witnesses of the scene as the faith of Abraham and the submission of Isaac were tested. The trial was far more severe than that which had been brought upon Adam. Compliance with the prohibition laid upon our first parents involved no suffering, but the command to Abraham demanded the most agonizing sacrifice. All heaven beheld with wonder and admiration Abraham's unfaltering obedience. All heaven applauded his fidelity. Satan's accusations were shown to be false. God declared to His servant, "Now I know that thou fearest God [notwithstanding Satan's charges], seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from Me." God's covenant, confirmed to Abraham by an oath before the intelligences of other worlds, testified that obedience will be rewarded. - {PP 155.1} It had been difficult even for the angels to grasp the mystery of redemption—to comprehend that the Commander of heaven, the Son of God, must die for guilty man. When the command was given to Abraham to offer up his son, the interest of all heavenly beings was enlisted. With intense earnestness they watched each step in the fulfillment of this command. When to Isaac's question, "Where is the lamb for a burnt offering?" Abraham made answer, "God will provide Himself a lamb;" and when the father's hand was stayed as he was about to slay his son, and the ram which God had provided was offered in the place of Isaac—then light was shed upon the mystery of redemption, and even the angels understood more clearly the wonderful provision that God had made for man's salvation. 1 Peter 1:12. - {PP 155.2}

1Cor 4:11

1Cor 4:11 - Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace - See Heb 12:2-5

1Cor 4:11

1Cor 4:11 - have no certain dwellingplace - See Mt 8:20; Heb 11:8-10

1Cor 4:12

1Cor 4:12 - And labour, working with our own hands - See 1Thess 4:11; 1Cor 9:11-15; 2Cor 11:9

1Cor 4:13

1Cor 4:13 - we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day - See Lam 3:45

1Cor 4:15

1Cor 4:15 - For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ - Paul uses hyperbole in describing the contrast between himself and all others who give instructions to the Corinthians.

1Cor 4:15

1Cor 4:15 - for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel - through the power of the Holy Spirit, Paul has fathered the church of Corinth and is worthy of their respect and that they heed his warnings as a father to his beloved son. Paul speaks as a loving father to the church, that though many may come and minister to them, they should give special attention to his counsels which they know are for their good. See 1Cor 4:14

1Cor 4:16

1Cor 4:16 - be ye followers of me - Paul sets an example that is worthy of imitation. We are to pursue a life of humble obedience and service as Paul demonstrated. See 2Tim 3:14; 1Cor 4:17

1Cor 4:17

1Cor 4:17 - For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church. - In the training of the disciples the example of the Saviour's life was far more effective than any mere doctrinal instruction. When they were separated from Him, every look and tone and word came back to them. Often when in conflict with the enemies of the gospel, they repeated His words, and as they saw their effect upon the people, they rejoiced greatly. - {DA 349.2}

1Cor 4:17

1Cor 4:17 - remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church - Paul's profession and teachings were not in word but in power of the Spirit; demonstrating through his life the fruit of his conversion. See Jam 3:13; 1Pet 2:12

1Cor 4:20

1Cor 4:20 - for the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power - Those who are part of God's kingdom demonstrate so, not by their many words and claims to godliness, but in demonstration of the Spirit that works within them. See 1Thess 2:13; Phil 2:1-4, 13; 1Cor 2:1-5

1Cor 4:20

1Cor 4:20 - but in power - the Holy Spirit, the indwelling presence of Jesus in the heart of the believer is He Who gives power to live victoriously in Christ, Jesus. See 1Cor 2:1-5; Act 1:5, 8; 2Tim 1:7

1Cor 4:21

1Cor 4:21 - What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness? - As a parent, Paul asks, 'how would you rather I come to you, with a rod or in love and with the spirit of meekness?', the choice is ours

1Cor 5:1

1Cor 5:1 - It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife - Unfortunately, this was spoken of commonly, says the apostle. See Deut 27:20

1Cor 5:2

1Cor 5:2 - And ye are puffed up - Paul speaks often of the pride and the self-righteousness, puffing up of self among the Corinthians, even so-called teachers, which causes criticism and division, all while blatantly ignoring the detestable sin of incest in their midst. 1Cor 4:15-20, 8:1

1Cor 5:2

1Cor 5:2 - and have not rather mourned - sigh and cry. See Eze 9:4

1Cor 5:3

1Cor 5:3 - as absent in body, but present in spirit - Paul, who was far from the Corinthian church need not be present to assess the abominations that were taking place among the church, for which his spirit, that was grieved by the knowledge of these truths that it figuratively perceived in its presence. See Col 2:5; 2Cor 5:8

1Cor 5:4

1Cor 5:4 - when ye are gathered together, and my spirit - Paul was present with the Corinthian church in Spirit, fasting and praying that God's will be done among the brethren

1Cor 5:5

1Cor 5:5 - to deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh - Paul suggest the person caught in this grievous sin become crucified with Christ; that his flesh be destroyed as Satan will too be destroyed (Mt 25:41), so that his spirit may remain blameless until the day of Jesus Christ. Rom 7:19-25

1Cor 5:5

1Cor 5:5 - that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus - See Mt 10:28

1Cor 5:6

1Cor 5:6 - your glorying is not good - Paul rebukes the pride, earthliness, carnality and being puffed-up, of the Corinthians who, despite their claims of godliness, tolerate open sin without rebuke. See 1Cor 5:1, 2; Jer 9:24

1Cor 5:6

1Cor 5:6 - Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? - just as leaven spreads through the dough and leavens the whole lump, so sin does the same. Similarly, the work of the Holy Spirit spreads as leaven and as fire. See Mt 13:33; Lk 13:21; Gal 5:9

1Cor 5:7

1Cor 5:7 - Purge out therefore the old leaven - sin and former lusts of the flesh. Paul is taking the minds of his hearers to the Passover feast where leaven is withheld from the bread. See Isa 27:9

1Cor 5:7

1Cor 5:7 -that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened - by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost (Tit 3:5), Paul reminds the Corinthians that they are new creatures in Christ Jesus and therefore ought to remove the accursed things from amongst them (1Cor 6:9-11). See Gal 5:9; 2Cor 5:17, 18

1Cor 5:7

1Cor 5:7 - For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us - even Jesus, the Paschal Lamb, is without leaven, free from sin. - See John 1:29

1Cor 5:8

1Cor 5:8 - leaven of malice and wickedness - See Jam 3:16; Rom 12:9

1Cor 5:8

1Cor 5:8 - but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth - See Rev 14:5

1Cor 5:9

1Cor 5:10 - not to company with fornicators - Paul further clarifies this restriction to mean not to keep company with those who are found guilty of fornication, drunkenness, extortion, idolatry or covetousness within the church. Paul understands that such is the way for those in the world, but those called out of darkness into God's marvelous light ought to show forth the praises of Him Who has called them forth from such.

1Cor 5:10

1Cor 5:11

1Cor 5:11 - fornicator, or covetous - sins of the flesh are here strongly reprov'd as it is so prevalent.

1Cor 5:11

1Cor 5:11 - RAILER, n. One who scoffs, insults, censures or reproaches with opprobrious language.

1Cor 5:11

1Cor 5:11 - extortioner - one who illegally uses one's official position or powers to obtain property, funds, or patronage. One who extorts something, as by psychological pressure.

1Cor 5:11

1Cor 5:11 - no not to eat - we are not to break bread, commune or be in fellowship with a brother who is living in sin. We must not give sanctions to their lifestyle and tacit approval by communing with them as if nothing they are doing is wrong. See 1Cor 5:2-5

1Cor 5:13

1Cor 5:13 - but them that are without God judgeth - those who are not Christian, outside the household of faith are to be judged by God. However, Paul affirms that the church should purge out (chase) those who are caught in open sin.

1Cor 6:1

1Cor 6:1 - Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints? - Paul is commissioning the church to address interpersonal matters between the saints. Never, should saints of God, who are citizens of the Heavenly Kingdom, take one another to court. - See 1Cor 6:6, 7; Mt 5:23, 24; Mt 18:15-17

1Cor 6:2

1Cor 6:2 - Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? - See Rev 20:4, 5; Mt 19:28; Lk 22:30; 1Pet 4:17, 18

1Cor 6:2

1Cor 6:2 - are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? - Jesus gave authority to the church body and leadership to establish guidelines to enforce order. These guidelines are to be bound both on heaven and in earth. Mt 18:15-18, 16:18, 19

1Cor 6:3

1Cor 6:3 - Know ye not that we shall judge angels? - See Isa 32:1; Ju 1:6; Mt 25:41; Ezekiel 28:17

1Cor 6:4

1Cor 6:4 - set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church - those who are to judge are they who are of humble deportment and bearing. Those who are proud are not mentioned for their self-importance and possible lack of objectivity. Those who do not think highly of themselves are inclined to seek the wisdom of God. Mt 18:15-17

1Cor 6:5

1Cor 6:5 - I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren? - Paul is rebuking the puffed up Corinthians who boast of great intellectual teachers among them, that they permit heinous sins to run rampant and no one reproves in the Lord and that saints take other saints court and no one recognizes the reproach it brings to the body of Christ.

1Cor 6:6

1Cor 6:6 - But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers - See 1Cor 6:1

1Cor 6:7

1Cor 6:7 - Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded? - Paul here speaks of the burden all Christians should have, that is to maintain the high standard and exalted name of Christianity. We profane and debase the name of Christ and His kingdom when we air our grievances with one another to the world. This gives the world cause to say that we are no different from them and hardens them in unbelief. Paul states that is better that we suffer loss than to profane God's name and His Kingdom by our un-Christlikeness. See 2Chron 25:9

1Cor 6:8 - DEFRAUD, v.t. [L. To cheat.] 1. To deprive of right, either by obtaining something by deception or artifice, or by taking something wrongfully without the knowledge or consent of the owner; to cheat; to cozen; followed by of before the thing taken; as, to defraud; a man of his right. See James 5:1-5

1Cor 6:9

1Cor 6:9 - Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind - Paul is assuring the one done wrong by another brother in the faith that judgment will come to the unrepentant who do not forsake their sins. He also gives warning to the transgressors that they must turn from sin or perish. See 1Jo 3:15

1Cor 6:9

1Cor 6:9, 10 - unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God - See Rev 22:15; 2Tim 3:1-5; Gal 5:19-21

1Cor 6:9

1Cor 6:9 - nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind - See Rom 1:27; 1Tim 1:10; Lev 20:13

1Cor 6:9

1Cor 6:9 - nor abusers of themselves with mankind - See Rom 1:27; Lev 20:11-17

1Cor 6:10

1Cor 6:10 - nor covetous - an idolater - See Ex 20:17; Col 3:5

1Cor 6:10

1Cor 6:10 - revilers - those who taunt, reproach, jeer and speak against others abusively. See Mt 27: 20-31

1Cor 6:10

1Cor 6:10 - nor extortioners - one who illegally uses one's official position or powers to obtain property, funds, or patronage. One who extorts something, as by psychological pressure. Such were the publicans in Christ's day - See Ps 15:5

1Cor 6:11

1Cor 6:11 - And such were some of you - See Eph 2:1-3

1Cor 6:11

1Cor 6:11 - but ye are washed - See Ps 51:1, 2, 7; 1Cor 5:7; Col 2:12

1Cor 6:11

1Cor 6:11 - ye are sanctified - See Joh 17:17

1Cor 6:11

1Cor 6:11 - ye are justified in the name of the LORD - See Rom 3:24 Pardon and justification are one and the same thing. Through faith, the believer passes from the position of a rebel, a child of sin and Satan, to the position of a loyal subject of Christ Jesus, not because of an inherent goodness, but because Christ receives him as His child by adoption. The sinner receives the forgiveness of his sins, because these sins are borne by his Substitute and Surety. The Lord speaks to His heavenly Father, saying: "This is My child, I reprieve him from the condemnation of death, giving him My life insurance policy—eternal life—because I have taken his place and have suffered for his sins. He is even My beloved son." Thus man, pardoned, and clothed with the beautiful garments of Christ's righteousness, stands faultless before God.... - {OHC 51.2}

1Cor 6:11

1Cor 6:11 - and by the Spirit of our God - See Eph 1:13, 14; Act 1:8; Rom 5:5

1Cor 6:12

1Cor 6:12 - All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any - See Rom 14:14; 1Cor 8:4-6

1Cor 6:12

1Cor 6:12 - all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any - Paul here is speaking of the freedom he has in Christ, where the knowledge of Christ dispels the falsehoods that had many of the Jews and Gentiles bound to rituals, rites and traditions. Paul expresses the fact that He has submitted himself to the Righteousness of God and need not seek to establish his own righteousness through those former works and is therefore free in Christ. Yet still, Paul says that he will not exercise his freedom in a manner that would dishonor God or that may cause his brother to stumble and fall. Paul speaks of being a good steward to God and a keeper of his fellow man.

1Cor 6:13

1Cor 6:13 - Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. See Rom 14:14; 1Cor 8:4-6

1Cor 6:13

1Cor 6:13 - Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body - See James 4:4

1Cor 6:14

1Cor 6:14 - God hath both raised up the LORD, and will also raise up us by His (Jesus') own power - See Joh 5:21, 25-29; 1Thess 4:14

1Cor 6:15

1Cor 6:15 - Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? - See 1Pet 2:2-5

1Cor 6:15

1Cor 6:15 - shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid. - See Prov 6:24-29, 32-35

1Cor 6:16

1Cor 6:16 - What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh. - See Gen 2:24

1Cor 6:17

1Cor 6:17 - But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit - See Joh 17:21; Jam 4:5; Rom 8:16

1Cor 6:18

1Cor 6:18 - Flee fornication - See Gen 39:7-16; 1Cor 7:2

1Cor 6:18

1Cor 6:18 - but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body - the mind, the thoughts, and the body, all of which are the temple (habitation) of the Holy Spirit, are defiled through fornication. See Rom 6:13, 16-19

1Cor 6:19

1Cor 6:19 - know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? - See Ex 15:2; Dan 8:14; Joh 14:17; Act 1:8; 2Cor 6:16

1Cor 6:20

1Cor 6:20 - For ye are bought with a price - the Bible teaches a principle of ownership for the Christian, that we do not belong to ourselves but to Christ - both to will and to do of His good pleasure. See Joh 6:51; Act 20:28; 1Pet 1:18, 19; 2Pet 2:1 Through yielding to sin, man placed his will under the control of Satan. He became a helpless captive in the tempter's power. God sent His Son into our world to break the power of Satan, and to emancipate the will of man. He sent Him to proclaim liberty to the captives, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free. By pouring the whole treasury of heaven into this world, by giving us in Christ all heaven, God has purchased the will, the affections, the mind, the soul, of every human being. When man places himself under the control of God, the will becomes firm and strong to do right, the heart is cleansed from selfishness, and filled with Christlike love. The mind yields to the authority of the law of love, and every thought is brought into captivity to the obedience of Christ. - {OHC 104.3} The greatest praise that men can bring to God is to become consecrated channels through whom He can work. Time is rapidly passing into eternity. Let us not keep back from God that which is His own. Let us not refuse Him that which, though it cannot be given with merit, cannot be denied without ruin. He asks for a whole heart; give it to Him; it is His, both by creation and by redemption. He asks for your intellect; give it to Him; it is His. He asks for your money; give it to Him; it is His. "Ye are not your own, for ye are bought with a price." 1 Corinthians 6:19, 20. God requires the homage of a sanctified soul, which has prepared itself, by the exercise of the faith that works by love, to serve Him. He holds up before us the highest ideal, even perfection. He asks us to be absolutely and completely for Him in this world as He is for us in the presence of God. - {AA 566.1}

1Cor 6:20

1Cor 6:20 - therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's - See 1Cor 10:31

1Cor 7:1

1Cor 7:1 - It is good for a man not to touch a woman - See Job 31:1

1Cor 7:2

1Cor 7:2 - Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband - See 1Cor 6:18

1Cor 7:5

1Cor 7:5 - Defraud ye not one the other - See 1Cor 6:8, 9

1Cor 7:5

1Cor 7:5 - that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency - we are not to permit our spouses to fall under Satan's temptations and traps to breach the marriage vow and sin against our own bodies. See 1Cor 6:18, 7:1

1Cor 7:6

1Cor 7:6 - But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment - Paul is stating his inspired perspective that, we as much as possible, remain single. If however, we are not able to contain ourselves before God, it is better that we marry. See 1Cor 7:40

1Cor 7:6

1Cor 7:6 - and not of commandment - Paul understands that his "suggestion" is not on par with an explicit commandment, which he is not authorized to give, but God. See 1Cor 7:10

1Cor 7:7

1Cor 7:7 - For I would that all men were even as I myself - Paul is giving his endorsement for being single and dedicating one's life to the service of the Lord. See 1Cor 7:8, 22, 32, 35

1Cor 7:7

1Cor 7:7 - But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that - some have been gifted with a self-control to suppress the carnal passions for the cross of Christ. See Mt 19:12; 1Cor 7:37

1Cor 7:8

1Cor 7:8 - Paul is saying for the single who have the moral strength to remain so without fault, that they do so and dedicate their lives to the service of the Lord. See 1Cor 7:7, 22, 28

1Cor 7:9

1Cor 7:9 - But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn - better to marry than to burn with passions that will cause us to burn in the Lake of Fire. See Rev 21:8

1Cor 7:10

1Cor 7:10 - And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband - Paul affirms that these are not his words, but those of the Lord. See Mt 19:4-6

1Cor 7:11

1Cor 7:11 - and let not the husband put away his wife - See Mt 5:31, 32

1Cor 7:14

1Cor 7:14 - For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy - Paul perhaps is speaking in the context of being unequally yoked with unbelievers willfully and the resulting "uncleanness" that results from such union.

1Cor 7:14

1Cor 7:14 - else were your children unclean; but now are they holy - talking of an unconsecrated child or a bastard. Deut 23:2; Heb 12:8

1Cor 7:15

1Cor 7:15 - A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: - A person is not bound under abandonment. See Rom 7:1-3

1Cor 7:15

1Cor 7:15 - but God hath called us to peace - God does not desire we live in strife and contention. If the married person is at war with his/her partner, let them leave. See Isa 32:17

1Cor 7:17

1Cor 7:17 - But as God hath distributed to every man - See 1Cor 7:7

1Cor 7:17

1Cor 7:17 - as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk - See 1Cor 7:8, 9

1Cor 7:18

1Cor 7:18 - Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised - it is such teachings that incensed the self-righteous, ritualistic Jews and even some Jewish converts to Christianity, against Paul. See Act 21:27, 28; Gal 5:1-5

1Cor 7:18

1Cor 7:18 - Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised - See Gal 5:1-12

1Cor 7:19

1Cor 7:19 - Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God - See Rom 2:23-29

1Cor 7:19

1Cor 7:19 - but the keeping of the commandments of God - See Rev 22:14

1Cor 7:22

1Cor 7:22 - For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman - See Phlm 1

1Cor 7:22

1Cor 7:21 - likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant - the same principle applies to the single. See 1Cor 7:7

1Cor 7:23

1Cor 7:23 - Ye are bought with a price - Our redemption came at a great price. We are thus to glorify God in our body - See 1Cor 6:20 Through yielding to sin, man placed his will under the control of Satan. He became a helpless captive in the tempter's power. God sent His Son into our world to break the power of Satan, and to emancipate the will of man. He sent Him to proclaim liberty to the captives, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free. By pouring the whole treasury of heaven into this world, by giving us in Christ all heaven, God has purchased the will, the affections, the mind, the soul, of every human being. When man places himself under the control of God, the will becomes firm and strong to do right, the heart is cleansed from selfishness, and filled with Christlike love. The mind yields to the authority of the law of love, and every thought is brought into captivity to the obedience of Christ. - {OHC 104.3}

1Cor 7:23

1Cor 7:23 - be not ye the servants of men - we are not to seek to become bond servants to men but of Christ. See Mt 6:24

1Cor 7:24

1Cor 7:24 - Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God - See 1Cor 7:17, 18, 27

1Cor 7:25

1Cor 7:25 - yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful - Paul provides His opinion regarding the conduct of single women, based on the light given to him by the Lord.

1Cor 7:27

1Cor 7:27 - Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. - See 1Cor 7:24

1Cor 7:28

1Cor 7:28 - But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you - Paul acknowledges the work involved in marriage, "Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh". He is counseling that the unmarried consider sparing themselves from being "bound" to any man or woman but to enjoy their freedom. See 1Cor 7:7, 22, 23; Gen 3:16

1Cor 7:28

1Cor 7:28 - Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh - the woman's desire will be towards her husband and he will rule over her. This is a consequence of sin that women would be subject at times to men who are not under the influence of God and His Spirit. Thus, they would endure hardship. The same applies to men with unconsecrated women as wives. See Gen 3:16

1Cor 7:29

1Cor 7:29 - But this I say, brethren, the time is short - both the time we have in this life is short and the time before the Lord's return is short. We therefore ought to prioritize the things of God in this mortal life - see ye first the King of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added unto us as God deems best. See Mt 6:33, 34; 24:38

1Cor 7:29

1Cor 7:29 - it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none - evil days require a resolute mind where we put no trust in men, only in the LORD - See Mic 7:5, 9, 10

1Cor 7:30

1Cor 7:30 - And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not; - we are not to hold on tenaciously to the things of this world, knowing we are here but for a short time and the things of this world are temporal. See 2Cor 4:18

1Cor 7:31

1Cor 7:31 - for the fashion of this world passeth away - See 1Joh 2:16, 17; Isa 51:6

1Cor 7:32

1Cor 7:32 - But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord: - See 1Cor 7:7, 8, 22, 34

1Cor 7:33

1Cor 7:33 - But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife - See 1Cor 7:28; Col 3:1-3

1Cor 7:34

1Cor 7:34 - The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit - See 1Cor 7:32

1Cor 7:34

1Cor 7:34 - but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband - See 1Cor 7:33; Prov 31:10-31; Col 3:1-3

1Cor 7:35

1Cor 7:35 - and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction - Paul desires we fulfill the whole duty of man - to fear God, keep His commandments, and attend to the widow, the fatherless and the needy. - See Eccl 12:13; Jam 1:27; Mic 6:8

1Cor 7:36

1Cor 7:36 - But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry. See Mt 5:30

1Cor 7:36

1Cor 7:36 - uncomely - Unseemly; unbecoming; unsuitable

1Cor 7:37

1Cor 7:37 - Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well - See 1Cor 7:7

1Cor 7:39

1Cor 7:39 - The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord - See Rom 7:1-3

1Cor 7:39

1Cor 7:39 - she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord - she may marry whomsoever she chooses as long as it is a godly relationship with another believer in the Lord.

1Cor 7:40

1Cor 7:40 - But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: - Paul suggests that if a widowed woman remain single, she would be happier. See 1Cor 7:7

1Cor 7:40

1Cor 7:40 - and I think also that I have the Spirit of God - Paul believes that his speech is in harmony with the Spirit of God.

1Cor 8:1

1Cor 8:1 - Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge - Paul is affirming that he like all of the Corinthian church whom he taught are aware of the foolishness of idolatry. He is reproving however, they that are puffed up and who do not show love, who in their "liberty" offend others who are not aware and do not have the same "liberty: in thought on the matter. He is stating that those who recklessly ruin the faith of others know nothing as they ought to know. See Rom 14:14-23; 1Cor 8:4, 7

1Cor 8:1

1Cor 8:1 - Knowledge puffeth up - in the carnal mind, knowledge causes men to become puffed up, demonstrating vain glory, self-aggrandizement while often offending the sensibilities of the weak. See 1Cor 1:26, 27, 8:4-8, 11

1Cor 8:1

1Cor 8:1 - charity edifieth - We are not to boast in our Christian Liberties, the knowledge and wisdom we have in Christ that sets us apart from the world. The knowledge we have attained by the grace of God, should lead us to humility and love for others so we desire their good, we wish they should come to a saving knowledge of truth as the Lord so graciously has imparted to us. We should therefore, guard what we say and do, so that we do not bring offense to another, that we show regard for others whose conscience is "weak" and that we not cause any offense in any manner. See 1 Cor 10:19-33

1Cor 8:1

1Cor 8:1 - We are not to boast in our Christian Liberties, the knowledge and wisdom we have in Christ that sets us apart from the world. We should therefore, guard what we say and do so that we do not bring offense to another, that we show regard for others whose conscience is "weak" and that we not cause any offense in any manner. See 1 Cor 10:19-33

1Cor 8:2

1Cor 8:2 - And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know - We are to approach God's word with the humility of a little child, assuming we know nothing and thus we are positioned to receive from the Spirit of Truth the things taken from His storehouse of knowledge in heaven. See Mk 10:15; Mt 18:1-3; 1Cor 3:18, 10:12, 14:37; Jer 33:3; Isa 55:8, 9; Job 8:9; Prov 3:5, 6||Jam 1:5 The spirit in which you come to the investigation of the Scriptures will determine the character of the assistant at your side. Angels from the world of light will be with those who in humility of heart seek for divine guidance. But if the Bible is opened with irreverence, with a feeling of self-sufficiency, if the heart is filled with prejudice, Satan is beside you, and he will set the plain statements of God's word in a perverted light. - {GW92 127.3} God Demands Vigorous and Earnest Efforts —Put your highest powers into your effort. Call to your aid the most powerful motives. You are learning. Endeavor to go to the bottom of everything you set your hand to. Never aim lower than to become competent in the matters which occupy you. Do not allow yourself to fall into the habit of being superficial and neglectful in your duties and studies; for your habits will strengthen and you will become incapable of anything better. The mind naturally learns to be satisfied with that which requires little care and effort, and to be content with something cheap and inferior. There are, young men and young women, depths of knowledge which you have never fathomed, and you are satisfied and proud of your superficial attainments. If you knew much more than you do now, you would be convinced that you know very little. - {3BC 1161.8} God demands of you vigorous and earnest intellectual efforts, and with every determined effort, your powers will strengthen. Your work will then always be agreeable, because you will know that you are progressing. You can either become accustomed to slow, uncertain, irresolute movements, so much so that the work of your life will not be one-half what it could be; or, your eyes fixed upon God, and your soul strengthened by prayer, you can overcome a disgraceful slowness and a dislike for work, and train your mind to think rapidly and to put forth strong efforts at the proper time. If your highest motive is to labor for wages, you will never, in any position, be qualified to carry high responsibilities, never be fit to teach (Manuscript 24, 1887). - {3BC 1162.1}

1Cor 8:3

1Cor 8:3 - But if any man love God, the same is known of him - See Dan 9:23; Jer 9:24

1Cor 8:4

1Cor 8:4 - As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one - See 1Cor 6:12; Rom 14:14

1Cor 8:4

1Cor 8:4 - and that there is none other God but one - See 1Cor 8:6

1Cor 8:5

1Cor 8:5 - For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,) - See Ps 82:6; Joh 10:34

1Cor 8:6

1Cor 8:6 - But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him - The Christian acknowledges but One God: the Father, Creator, Maker of Heaven and Earth and Redeemer. See Deut 6:4; Mk 12:29; John 14:6

1Cor 8:6

1Cor 8:6 - and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him - Paul makes a distinction between God and Lord, but the two are One. Jesus is He Who made all things and in Whom all things find their existence. See Act 17:28; Col 3:1-4, 2:9, 10, 12

1Cor 8:7

1Cor 8:7 - Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled - See Rom 14:14, 15, 20, 23

1Cor 8:7

1Cor 8:7 - and their conscience being weak is defiled - See Rom 14:14-23

1Cor 8:8

1Cor 8:8 - that which Paul speaks, he speaks in an era unlike the present, where meats (plant based foods and flesh foods) were personally and locally grown and harvested. God has given light for His people at the end of time that the conditions would be such that the flesh foods would be unhealthy for man's consumption and would be debilitating for physical and spiritual health. Given the "Present Truth", spoken by God's prophetess for this era of earth's history, her counsels are to be heeded. See 2Pet 1:12

1Cor 8:9

1Cor 8:9 - But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak - we are our brother's keeper. See Rom 14:14-23, 15:2, 3

1Cor 8:10

1Cor 8:10 - shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols - by our example we can lead others into presumptuous sin and, there, lead them to destruction. Anything not done in faith is sin. See 1Cor 8:7, 11-13; Rom 14:23

1Cor 8:11

1Cor 8:11 - And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? - See 1Cor 8:1; Rom 14:23

1Cor 8:12

1Cor 8:12 - But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ. - See Rom 14:14, 15; Mt 25:40, 45

1Cor 8:13

1Cor 8:13 - Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend - Rom 14:19-21; 1Cor 10:28, 29; Contrast Gen 4:9

1Cor 9:1

1Cor 9:1 - Am I not an apostle? - See Act 13:1-4; Rom 1:1, 11:13

1Cor 9:1

1Cor 9:1 - am I not free? - Paul was born a free Roman and secondly, he found freedom and liberty in Jesus Christ to Whom he chose to become a bond servant. See Act 22:28; Rom 1:1

1Cor 9:1

1Cor 9:1 - have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? - See Act 9:4, 5, 22:13-15, 17, 18, 26:14, 15; 2Cor 12:1-5

1Cor 9:1

1Cor 9:1 - are ye not my work in the LORD? - See 1Cor 3:10, 4:15

1Cor 9:2

1Cor 9:2 - If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord - the Corinthian church was the evidence of Paul's calling to be an apostle of Christ. See 2Cor 3:1-3

1Cor 9:3

1Cor 9:3 - Mine answer to them that do examine me is this - Paul is answering those who challenge his authority as an apostle of Jesus Christ and as the spiritual father to the church of Corinth. See 1Cor 4:3, 18-21

1Cor 9:5

1Cor 9:5 - Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas? - Contrast Dan 11:37

1Cor 9:5

1Cor 9:5 - and Cephas - the disciple and apostle Peter was married when he met the Lord and remained so. Despite him being married, this did not detract from his ministry for the Lord. See Mt 8:14

1Cor 9:8

1Cor 9:8 - Paul affirms that his counsels are not merely his own thoughts, but are consistent with the inspired word of God. See 1Cor 7:40

1Cor 9:9

1Cor 9:9 - For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen? - the principle that the workman is worthy of his wages is here established. See Deut 25:4; 1Tim 5:18; 2Thess 3:9

1Cor 9:10

1Cor 9:11 - that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope. - See Heb 10:35-39; Jam 5:7, 8

1Cor 9:11

1Cor 9:11 - If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things? - See Rom 15:25-27

1Cor 9:11

1Cor 9:11 - is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things - in accordance with the statutes established by God for the priests, Paul here affirms that it is perfectly within his right to ask for sustenance or compensation of "carnal things" from those whom he has fed spiritually. Yet, for the greater spreading and glory of the gospel, Paul has refrained from asking of the Corinthians and has found his own employment outside of ministry to support himself. See 1Cor 9:12-15

1Cor 9:12

1Cor 9:11 - If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ. - Paul is saying that he, more so than others who have partaken of the Corinthians' financial blessings, is deserving of such honors, yet for the gospel's sake, he has refrained.

1Cor 9:12

1Cor 9:12 - Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ - Paul has not taken of the church's finances for personal use because he sees it as taking away from the cause that he is seeking to build up, the spread of the gospel. His knowledge and love of Christ and others permits him to act selflessly to the edification of the body. See 1Cor 8:1-3

1Cor 9:13

1Cor 9:13 - Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? - The priests who minister in the temple live off of the tithes and free-will offerings given by the people. The shewbread that has been spent is for the priests consumption. A portion of the sacrifices that are sodden were given to the priests for flesh meat. See 1Sam 21:6

1Cor 9:14

1Cor 9:14 - Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel - those who are in ministry are to be fully committed and live from the proceeds that come from their labor in Christ.

1Cor 9:15

1Cor 9:15 - But I have used none of these things: - See 1Cor 9:11, 12

1Cor 9:15

1Cor 9:15 - neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me - Paul is not writing to request nor to shame the Corinthians into supporting him financially.

1Cor 9:15

1Cor 9:16

1Cor 9:16 - For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel! - Paul has nothing to boast in his preaching the gospel. It is a responsibility and duty he feels placed upon him to do so and woe if he does not. See Jer 20:8, 9

1Cor 9:16

1Cor 9:16 - for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel! - Paul is compelled to preach the gospel and to minister to the saints. He says, 'heaven forbid if I do not preach the gospel, woe unto me!'

1Cor 9:17

1Cor 9:17 - For if I do this thing willingly - Paul does not mean that he did his work grudgingly or unwillingly, but that his vocation was not the result of his own original planning for a life career (see on v. 16). {SDA Bible Commentary vol 6}. See 1Pet 5:2-4

1Cor 9:17

1Cor 9:17 - a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me - an aspect of the gospel, embraced and played out by Cain and Saul remains for him, namely to perish. Joh 3:16 - shall perish

1Cor 9:19

1Cor 9:19 - For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more - Paul has subjected himself to the cause of Christ and has humbled himself in every manner to win more to God's kingdom. See Mt 23:10, 11

1Cor 9:19

1Cor 9:19 - unto all - Paul in the next two verses describes who "all" entails: 1. The Jews who are under the law 2. Carnal Christians (converted Jews and Gentiles) who seek to be under the law (i.e. wanting to uphold the law of circumcision) - Gal 4:9, 21, 3:3, 5:1-4 3. The Gentiles who have no law, ignorant of God and the laws

1Cor 9:20

1Cor 9:20

1Cor 9:21

1Cor 9:21 - To them that are without law, as without law - Paul speaks of the Gentiles who were not given the laws in ordinances and rituals. To them, he did not present these topics of matters of importance, but he lifted up Jesus, the fulfillment of these laws. See Eph 2:15; Act 17:22-32; Rom 10:4, 5

1Cor 9:21

1Cor 9:20 - being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ - "not being lawless towards God and His commandments, but under the law in/through Jesus Christ (Jesus fulfills the righteous requirements of the Law in us as we abide in Him)" - Rom 8:4

1Cor 9:22

1Cor 9:22 - To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some - See 1Cor 10:33

1Cor 9:24

1Cor 9:24 - Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain - run with all of your heart. Singular in focus and in mind. Discipline our bodies so that we may win the race. See 2Tim 4:7, 8

1Cor 9:25

1Cor 9:25 - And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things - God designed that man should be constantly improving, daily reaching a higher point in the scale of excellence. He will help us, if we seek to help ourselves. Our hope of happiness in two worlds depends upon our improvement in one. At every point we should be guarded against the first approach to intemperance. - {CC 248.5}

1Cor 9:25

1Cor 9:25 - striveth for the mastery - those who are seeking perfection in Christ Jesus, who are pursuing Christ's righteousness by faith are balanced and temperate in all things. See Heb 10:38; 1Cor 9:26, 27; 2Cor 13:9, 11

1Cor 9:25

1Cor 9:25 - temperate in all things - See Gal 5:23 Self-discipline must be practiced by everyone who would be a worker for God. This will accomplish more than eloquence or the most brilliant talents. An ordinary mind, well disciplined, will accomplish more and higher work than will the most highly educated mind and the greatest talents without self-control. - {COL 335.1}

1Cor 9:25

1Cor 9:25 - Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible - See Jam 1:12; 2Tim 4:6-8;

1Cor 9:26

1Cor 9:26 - Paul runs with assurance, with certainty of his own salvation, of his calling and of his appointed work. See 1Jo 5:11-13

1Cor 9:27

1Cor 9:27 - But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection - Paul understands the critical warfare between the flesh and the Spirit and he, by dying daily, taking up his cross and following Christ, brings his body into subjection that it can not gain the victory over him and the Spirit. See 1Cor 15:31; Mt 16:24; 2Tim 2:6

1Cor 9:27

1Cor 9:27 - I myself should be a castaway - Consider the Man of God from Judah in 1Kin 31:21-26

1Cor 10:1

1Cor 10:1-4

1Cor 10:1

1Cor 10:1 - Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea - Jesus was that cloud that provided guidance by day and warmth and light by night to the COI. They passed under the cloud and walked on dry land through the Red Sea. See Ex 13:21, 22

1Cor 10:2

1Cor 10:1, 2 - The Red Sea crossing was a spiritual baptism for the Children of Israel as they left Egypt (the world and sin - Heb 11:24-27) and were headed for the Promised Land (heaven). This spiritual baptism is indicative of the death, burial and resurrection on the 3rd day of Jesus Christ. See Heb 11:29; Col 2:12

1Cor 10:2

1Cor 10:2 - And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea - See Heb 11:29; Col 2:12

1Cor 10:3

1Cor 10:3 - And did all eat the same spiritual meat - the COI ate angel's food in the manna, but they also had the privilege of eating from the Bread from Heaven, Jesus Christ. See Ex 16:15, 31; Joh 6:26-35

1Cor 10:4

1Cor 10:4 - And did all drink the same spiritual drink - See Num 20:10, 11

1Cor 10:4

1Cor 10:4 - that spiritual Rock that followed them - Jesus was the Rock and Leader of Israel that went before them as a pillar of fire by night and cloud by day.

1Cor 10:5

1Cor 10:5 - But with many of them God was not well pleased - See Heb 3:16-4:2; Rom 9:31-33

1Cor 10:5

1Cor 10:5 - they were overthrown in the wilderness - Job and Jer give the following warnings: the prayers of those overthrown will be an abomination to the Lord and He will not hear them; their hope is removed and they will walk in dark, strait places; their iniquities will not be blotted-out of God's Book of Record; they will receive of God's wrath embodied in the Seven Last Plagues; and the crown of life they once claimed, will be taken from them. See Job 19:6-11; Jer 11:14, 18:23; Am 8:2, 3, 11-14

1Cor 10:6

1Cor 10:6 - Now these things were our examples - that which the prophets wrote, they did not fully understand its import or full significance. They searched the scriptures to understand prophecy and its fulfillment but were not granted that blessing. We however, are blessed to be taught of the fulfillment of prophecy and see the examples of the past as a light that shines in a dark place. See Gal 4:24; 1Pet 1:10-12; GC 342-344; Rom 15:4; 1Cor 10:11

1Cor 10:6

1Cor 10:6 - to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted - See 1Jo 2:16;

1Cor 10:7

1Cor 10:7 - Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play - See Ex 32:6; Isa 41:21-24, 28, 29

1Cor 10:8

1Cor 10:8 - Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand - See Num 25:1-9

1Cor 10:9

1Cor 10:9- Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted and were destroyed of serpents - Jesus, the Law Giver and Leader of Israel was tempted by the COI's rebellion and caused fiery serpents to come upon them. See Num 21:4-6; Heb 3:15-19

1Cor 10:10

1Cor 10:10 - Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer - Those 10 spies and heads of tribes who brought a bad report regarding the land and which caused the people to murmur, caused a plague to come upon the nation. See Num 14:28-37

1Cor 10:11

1Cor 10:11 - Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come - See Ps 102:18; 1Cor 10:6; Rom 15:4; Joh 20:31 The history of the wilderness life of Israel was chronicled for the benefit of the Israel of God till the close of time. The record of God's dealing with the wanderers in all their marchings to and fro, in their exposure to hunger, thirst, and weariness, and in the striking manifestations of His power for their relief, is fraught with warning and instruction for His people in this age. The varied experiences of the Heb was a school of preparation for their promised home in Canaan. God would have His people review in these days, with a humble heart and a teachable spirit, the trials through which ancient Israel passed, that they may be instructed in their preparation for the heavenly Canaan.—Letter 44, March 9, 1903, to Elder J. A. Burden, manager, Sydney Sanitarium - {TDG 77.4} The history of the Old Testament was recorded for the benefit of those who should live in the generations following. The lessons of the New Testament are as greatly needed. Here again Christ is the instructor, leading His people to seek that wisdom that cometh from above, and to gain that instruction in righteousness that will mold the character after the divine similitude. Both Old and New Testament Scriptures teach the principles of obedience to the commandments of God as the terms of securing that life which measures with the life of God, for it is through obedience that we become partakers of the divine nature, and learn to escape the corruptions that are in the world through lust. Therefore its maxims are to be studied, its commands obeyed, its principles, which are more precious than gold, brought into the daily life.—Letter 342, September 2, 1907, to the workers in southern California. - {TDG 254.5}

1Cor 10:11

1Cor 10:11 - they are written for our admonition - The things of the past have their glorious climax in our days. Unlike the disciples, who though forewarned of Jesus' crucifixion and death were blinded by spiritual pride so that they could not see, we do not have such luxury. We must make use of the counsels given to us and strive for the mark of the high calling while we have time because there will not be a second chance as with the disciples. See 1Pet 1:10-12 Before His crucifixion the Saviour explained to His disciples that He was to be put to death and to rise again from the tomb, and angels were present to impress His words on minds and hearts. [See Mark 8:31, 32; 9:31; 10:32-34.] But the disciples were looking for temporal deliverance from the Roman yoke, and they could not tolerate the thought that He in whom all their hopes centered should suffer an ignominious death. The words which they needed to remember were banished from their minds, and when the time of trial came it found them unprepared. The death of Jesus as fully destroyed their hopes as if He had not forewarned them. - {LDE 13.3} So in the prophecies the future is opened before us as plainly as it was opened to the disciples by the words of Christ. The events connected with the close of probation and the work of preparation for the time of trouble, are clearly presented. But multitudes have no more understanding of these important truths than if they had never been revealed.—The Great Controversy, 594 (1911). - {LDE 14.1}

1Cor 10:12

1Cor 10:12 - Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall - We are to put no trust in self. Our only hope is in unwavering faith and reliance upon Jesus Christ- to be hid in Him and He in us. See 2Cor 1:9, 13:5; Mt 26:33; Lk 22:33; 1Cor 8:2

1Cor 10:13

1Cor 10:13 - There hath no temptation taken thee but such as is common to man- See 1Pet 5:9; 2Pet 2:9 Here is an example to all generations who should live upon the earth. Although they may be exposed to temptations, yet they should ever realize that there is a defense at hand, and it will be their own fault if they are not preserved. God will be a present help, and His Spirit a shield. Although surrounded with the severest temptations, there is a source of strength to which they can apply and resist them. - {SR 102.2}

1Cor 10:13

1Cor 10:13 - but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it - the way of escape involves: 1. Prayer before the trial for power (Joh 1:12, 13) 2. Death to self before the trial 3. Purposing in one's heart; a resolute mind before the trial 4. Self-denial - Recognizing one's poverty and need of Christ 5. Remembering God's promises of deliverance 6. Looking to Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith 7. Looking beyond the test to the joy set before you

1Cor 10:14

1Cor 10:14 - Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry - See Col 3:5; Isa 57:17

1Cor 10:16

1Cor 10:16 - The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? - See Mt 26:27-29

1Cor 10:16

1Cor 10:16 - The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? - See Mt 26:26

1Cor 10:17

1Cor 10:17 - For we being many are one bread, and one body - See Rom 12:4, 5

1Cor 10:18

1Cor 10:18 - Behold Israel after the flesh - Paul here and throughout his epistles makes a distinction between Israel after the flesh and Israel after the Spirit (Gal 3:7-9, 26-29, 4:29; Joh 3:5-8), the religion or church of the Jews and the church of God (1Cor 10:32; Gal 1:13, 14). Paul affirms the words of Christ, Who, by the Pharisee's own self-condemnation, would take the kingdom from the Jews and give it to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof (Mt 21:33-46, 22:2-9; Act 13:46, Zech 11:10). To make this point stronger, Jesus often referred to the temple in Jerusalem as His Father's house (Joh 2:16; Mt 21:12, 13; Mk 11:17; 19:45, 46). Yet, in His final departure from the temple, the Jews having rejected their Messiah and Prince (Dan 9:25; Act 2:36), Jesus says to the Jews, "Behold your house is left unto you desolate", meaning Jesus had forsaken both the Jews and their temple that they paid godly homage to.

1Cor 10:18

1Cor 10:18 - are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar? - See Lev 6:25-29; 1Sam 2:15

1Cor 10:19

1Cor 10:19 - See 1 Cor 8:1

1Cor 10:19

1Cor 10:19 - What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing? - See Rom 14:14; 1Cor 8:4-6

1Cor 10:20

1Cor 10:20 - sacrifice to devils - the idols and molten images created by men are inspired by and form the image of jealousy of Satan against the worship of God - See Deut 32:16-18; Eze 8:3-6

1Cor 10:20

1Cor 10:20 - they sacrifice to devils, and not to God - See Lev 17:3-7; Deut 32:17; Ps 106:34-38; Jer 44:16-21; Ex 34:15

1Cor 10:21

1Cor 10:21 - Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils - See Jam 3:11, 12

1Cor 10:22

1Cor 10:22 - Do we provoke the LORD to jealousy? - in partaking of both the cup of the LORD and of devils and of eating of the communion table of the LORD and of the table of devils, we provoke the LORD to jealousy. We can not serve God and mammon. See Mt 6:24; Eze 8:3; Jer 15:1-6; Isa 57:17

1Cor 10:23

1Cor 10:23 - All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient - See 1Cor 6:12, 13

1Cor 10:23

1Cor 10:23 - expedient - That which serves to promote or advance; any means which may be employed to accomplish an end. Let every expedient be employed to effect an important object, nor let exertions cease till all expedients fail of producing the effect

1Cor 10:24

1Cor 10:24 - Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth - See Philippians 2:2-4; 1Cor 10:33; Philippians 2:1-4

1Cor 10:25

1Cor 10:25 - Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake: - by context, Paul is speaking of not rejecting clean meats that may have been offered to idols. See 1Cor 10:19, 20

1Cor 10:25

1Cor 10:24 - shambles - meat market, or butchers shop

1Cor 10:26

1Cor 10:26 - For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof. - Ps 50:12, 89:11

1Cor 10:27

1Cor 10:27 - If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake - See 1Tim 4:4, 5

1Cor 10:28

1Cor 10:28 - But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake - See 1Cor 8:13

1Cor 10:28

1Cor 10:28 - For the earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof - Ps 50:12, 89:11; 1Cor 10:26

1Cor 10:29

1Cor 10:29 - Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience? - See Rom 14:14-23

1Cor 10:31

1Cor 10:31 - Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God - man was created to give God glory (Rev 14:7; Isa 43:7, 21, 58:13; 1Cor 6:20). We only do so as we permit His will to be done in and through us (Mt 6:10). We show our love for God through our obedience in keeping His words and commandments. Taking care of our body is an act of worship. See Rom 14:6

1Cor 10:31

1Cor 10:31 - do all to the glory of God- whatsoever we do should give God glory in showing that His word and counsels for our lives (including eating and drinking) are being honored and obeyed. Herein is the First Angel's Message of Rev 14:7 fulfilled - See Ps 50:23; 1Jo 3:22

1Cor 10:32

1Cor 10:32 - Give none offense - we are our brothers' keepers. We are not to offend through our freedom or restraint. See 1Cor 8:4-13

1Cor 10:32

1Cor 10:32 - Paul makes a distinction between the Jew's religion (Israel after the flesh) and the church of God (Israel after the Spirit). See Gal 1:13

1Cor 10:33

1Cor 10:33 - Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved - See 1Cor 9:22, 10:24; Philippians 2:1-4

1Cor 11:1

1Cor 11:1 - Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ - Paul call us to imitate him as He imitates Jesus Christ in life, deportment, and character. See 2Tim 1:13

1Cor 11:2

1Cor 11:2 - {Gr. paradoseis} “rules,” “principles,” “instructions,” elsewhere translated “traditions” (Gal. 1:14), or, in the singular, “tradition” (Matt. 15:2; etc.). The word means literally, “things handed over.” The idea of being handed down from one generation to another is not necessarily in the word. Paul is referring to the regulations he had given the Corinthians concerning public worship and private conduct. He did not preach the gospel to them and then leave them to formulate their own rules of church order and social life. He did thorough work in the churches that he established, and gave instruction that enabled the new Christians to be confident in their worship and in their daily lives that they were living according to the will of their Lord (see 1 Cor. 4:17; 7:17; 2 Thess. 2:15). {SDA Bible Commentary vol 6}

1Cor 11:3

1Cor 11:3 - But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God - {Gr. anēr}, man as distinguished from woman Three degrees of submission are here introduced. The man is to acknowledge Christ as his Lord and Master; the woman, while recognizing the supremacy of Christ as Lord over all, is required to acknowledge that in domestic life she is placed under the guidance and protection of man; Christ, although equal with the Father (see Additional Note on Joh 1), is represented as recognizing God as head. Even among equals there may be a head. A committee of men of equal rank still selects its chairman. Some see a reference here to a voluntary submission of Christ in the working out of the plan of salvation. See further on 1 Cor. 15:25-28. {SDA Bible Commentary vol 6}

1Cor 11:3

1Cor 11:3 - head of every man is Christ - Lord or Master of every man is to be Jesus Christ. Thus, a wife should not fear to follow after her husband because he has made Jesus his head. See 1Cor 11:1

1Cor 11:3

1Cor 11:3 - the head of the woman is the man - See Eph 5:23, 24

1Cor 11:3

1Cor 11:3 - and the head of Christ is God - See Joh 14:28; Rev 1:1

1Cor 11:4

1Cor 11:4 - having his head covered, dishonoureth his head - a reference to a man's head being covered or even to Christ, who is the Head of a man. See 1Cor 11:3

1Cor 11:5

1Cor 11:5 - But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven - Paul is obviously speaking of a common Oriental custom of his time. The liberty found in Christ, where there is neither male nor female, Jew nor Greek, bond nor free (Gal 3:27, 28) was not to create a reproach to the church among the people of the Corinthian culture. Paul is showing that the church need not create a schism in culture or practices, drawing undue bad press to the cross of Jesus Christ. In view of the fact that anciently women did not go abroad with uncovered heads, it would be regarded as a disgrace to a woman and to her husband if she should appear publicly without a veil, especially in the capacity of a leader of worship. For a woman at Corinth to take public part in the services of the church with her head uncovered would give the impression that she acted shamelessly and immodestly, without the adorning of shame-facedness and sobriety (see 1 Tim. 2:9). Paul seems to reason that by thus discarding the veil, a recognized emblem of her sex and position, she shows a lack of respect for husband, father, the female sex in general, and Christ. {SDA Bible Commentary vol 6}

1Cor 11:6 - let her also be shorn - This is hardly a positive command. The meaning seems to be, "she might as well be shorn." In other words, if a woman wanted to act like a man, she ought, in order to be consistent, to cut her hair after the fashion of men. But such a course would be regarded as disgraceful. Therefore she should be properly veiled. {SDA Bible Commentary vol 6}

1Cor 11:7

1Cor 11:7 - For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God - Man bears the image and glory (honor as head) of God. See Gen 1:27

1Cor 11:7

1Cor 11:7 - but the woman is the glory of the man - the woman, through her godly conduct and chaste behavior gives glory to her husband who puts his trust fully in her. See Prov 31 In the case of a woman, only the word "glory" is used. The word "image" is omitted, though she too was fashioned in the image of God (see v. 27). Here the relation of woman to man is dealt with, not her relation to God. By her cheerful acceptance of God's plan for the human family, woman reflects the glory of her husband, and through him the glory of God, who has made such wise provision for mankind (see 3T 483, 484). Woman was made from man, being bone of his bone and flesh of his flesh. Hence, in a certain sense, all her charm, beauty, and purity reflect man's dignity and honor (see Gen. 2:22, 23). If we rightly understand Paul, this relationship should be maintained, and in the church at Corinth be demonstrated, by the women appearing in public with their head covered by the customary veil. {SDA Bible Commentary, vol 6}

1Cor 11:8

1Cor 11:8 - For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man - See Gen 2:21-25

1Cor 11:9

1Cor 11:9 - Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man - See Gen 2:18

1Cor 11:10

1Cor 11:10 - For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels - The simplest explanation seems to be that Paul refers to the good angels who are present at public religious exercises and before whom women should conduct themselves with proper decorum. Angels, who have an exalted understanding of the majesty and greatness of God, veil their faces in awe when they speak His name (see GW 178). Not only would any manifestation of irreverence or disrespect in Christian assemblies for worship be insulting to the Creator, it would also offend the angels. It is the pleasure of angels to honor God and do His bidding, with glad acknowledgement of His worthiness and glory (Ps. 103:20; cf. Isa. 6:2, 3; Rev. 4:8). Human beings need to have a much greater sense of the holiness and greatness of God, approaching Him with reverence, and doing all things in strict accordance with His revealed will (see Ps. 29:1, 2). If women should comply with accepted custom concerning the wearing of the sign of their subordinate position for fear of offending the angels, should they not the more fear to give offense to Him to whom all creatures, even the angels, are in subjection? {SDA Bible Commentary vol 6}

1Cor 11:12 - For as the woman is of the man - See Gen 2:23

1Cor 11:15

1Cor 11:15 - But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering - See 1Tim 2:9

1Cor 11:17

1Cor 11:17 - Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not - Paul began the chapter and the segment of his letter with commendations for the Corinthians. He here changes his tone towards them in offering them rebuke and correction.

1Cor 11:18

1Cor 11:18 - when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you - Divisions in class, sectarianism, race, etc. See 1Cor 3:3-7

1Cor 11:21

1Cor 11:21 - For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken - there is not charity, no preferring of the other, no looking out for your brother, but rather, every man for himself, even in the taking of the Communion. See Phil 2:1-4

1Cor 11:21

1Cor 11:21 - and another is drunken - some go so far as to abuse the Communion in taking of fermented wine and become drunk.

1Cor 11:22

1Cor 11:22 - What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not - See 1Cor 11:19

1Cor 11:23

1Cor 11:23 - For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you - Paul has in all things instructed, taught and demonstrated the things of Christ that he himself received of Him.

1Cor 11:23

1Cor 11:23 - That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread - the same night in which Jesus was betrayed by one of His companions, He took the bread, an emblem of His broken body and fed them all, even His betrayer. Lord help me to love like you love. See John 13:1-30

1Cor 11:24

1Cor 11:24 - And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me - See Mt 26:26; John 6:48

1Cor 11:25

1Cor 11:25 - when he had supped - Jesus gave an example of eating first then drinking for proper digestion!

1Cor 11:25

1Cor 11:25 - This cup is the new testament in my blood - See Jer 31:31-34; Eze 36:26, 27

1Cor 11:26

1Cor 11:26 - For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come - Melchizedek, King of Righteousness and Peace, presented Abraham with bread and wine when Abraham presented a tithes to him. Melchizedek typifies Jesus and it is Melchizedek's priesthood which saves us. See Gen 14:18, 19 The gift of Christ to the marriage feast was a symbol. The water represented baptism into His death; the wine, the shedding of His blood for the sins of the world.... - {CSA 11.6} At the first feast He attended with His disciples, Jesus gave them the cup that symbolized His work for their salvation. At the last supper He gave it again, in the institution of that sacred rite by which His death was to be shown forth "till He come." 1 Corinthians 11:26. [21] - {CSA 11.7}

1Cor 11:27

1Cor 11:27 - unworthily - those who have strife, envy, bitterness, anger, malice, contentions, dissembling in their hearts without confession partake of the communion unworthily. These individuals crucify Jesus Christ anew. See Jam 3:14-16; Isa 58:1-4; 1Cor 11:29-31; Heb 6:4-6

1Cor 11:28

1Cor 11:28 - But let a man examine himself - See 2Cor 13:5; Ps 139;

1Cor 11:30

1Cor 11:30 - For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep - As in the case of Ananias and Sapphira who lied to the Holy Spirit and were the recipients of swift justice, so Paul speaks of those who had eaten of the Communion unworthy and received just recompense.

1Cor 11:31

1Cor 11:31 - For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged - 2Cor 13:5; Lam 3:40; 1Cor 10:12

1Cor 11:32

1Cor 11:32 - But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world - The Lord's chastening, as a father chastens his son, is for our correction and edification so that we be not destroyed with the wicked of the world. See Heb 12:6; Ps 7:11; Mal 3:5; Jer 10:24

1Cor 11:32

1Cor 11:32 - we are chastened of the Lord - See Rev 3:16-19; Heb 12:6-8

1Cor 11:33

1Cor 11:33 - Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another - we are to wait and prefer on another in taking of communion. See Philippians 2:1-4

1Cor 11:34

1Cor 11:34 - And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation - See 1Cor 11:22

1Cor 12:2

1Cor 12:2 - Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led - Paul states that the Corinthians were once Gentiles, but have now become the Israel of God according to the Spirit of God (Rom 2:25-29). He says as Gentiles and aliens to the Commonwealth of Hope, they worshipped dumb, lifeless idols in their ignorance. See Isa 44:9-20

1Cor 12:3

1Cor 12:3- no man speaking by the Spirit of GOD calleth Jesus accursed - See Lk 9:49, 50

1Cor 12:3

1Cor 12:3 - and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost - Anyone not influenced by the Spirit of God would not acknowledge that Jesus is the divine Son of God. This does not deny the possibility of words being uttered that would seem to recognize Christ as Lord or Saviour, apart from the influence of the Holy Spirit, for that has been done in mockery by evil men. But genuine heart confession of Jesus as Lord comes only from the lips of one who is led by the Spirit (cf. Matt. 16:16, 17). Those who truly honor the name and work of Jesus prove that they are influenced by the Holy Spirit. No man will ever cherish real regard for Christ, nor love His name and work, unless he is led by the Spirit to perceive the divine nature of the Saviour. No one can show his love for the name and work of Jesus by following the inclinations and promptings of his own unregenerate heart. In every instance where an individual is brought to accept Christ, it is through the agency of the Spirit of God. Conversely, one who is inclined to speak lightly of Jesus, or disparage His work in any way, or teach doctrines contrary to His Word, proves by so doing that he is not led of the Spirit (see DA 412). The presence of the Holy Spirit should be prayed for and cherished. To grieve away the Holy Spirit by refusing to follow His leading is to drive all true knowledge of the Saviour from the heart. This results in coldness, darkness, and finally spiritual death (see Eph. 4:30; DA 587, 588). {SDA Bible Commentary vol 6}

1Cor 12:4

1Cor 12:4 - Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit - See 1Cor 12:11; Rom 12:4

1Cor 12:5

1Cor 12:5 - And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord - there are different applications of the various gifts given by God, but yet, still one God.

1Cor 12:7

1Cor 12:7 - But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal - the Spirit is given to every person for the benefit of all! It is not to be hoarded or boasted about for personal gain or aggrandizement: Manifestations of the Spirit: 1. Wisdom v8, 1Jo 2:20, 21 2. Knowledge v8 3. Faith v9 4. Healing v9 5. Miracles v10 6. Prophecy v10 7. Discerning of spirits v10 8. Tongues v10 9. Interpretation of Tongues v10

1Cor 12:8

1Cor 12:8 - For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom - See Prov 1:1

1Cor 12:8

1Cor 12:8 - to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit - See Prov 1:7

1Cor 12:10

1Cor 12:10 - to another the interpretation of tongues - See 1Cor 14:27-29

1Cor 12:11

1Cor 12:11 - But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will - See 1Cor 12:4

1Cor 12:11

1Cor 12:11 - dividing to every man severally as he will - the Lord gives of His gifts according to the abilities entrusted to each individual. See Mt 25:15-21

1Cor 12:12

1Cor 12:12 - For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ - See 1Cor 12:14, 25; Eph 5:23; Col 1:18

1Cor 12:13

1Cor 12:13 - For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body - See Rom 6:3-14, 5:5; 1Cor 12:25

1Cor 12:13

1Cor 12:13 - whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free - See Gal 3:27-29

1Cor 12:14

1Cor 12:14 - For the body is not one member, but many - Paul is emphasizing that there is unity in diversity. See 1Cor 12:12, 25

1Cor 12:18

1Cor 12:18 - But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him - We are all placed in the body of Christ to fulfill the role that God has ordained for us all. It is important that we each “do our job”, so the work not suffer loss.

1Cor 12:20

1Cor 12:20 - But now are they many members, yet but one body - the verse speaks of unity in diversity. God is a God of diversity and it is reflected physically in all of His children from every kindred, tongue and nation, as well as Spiritually, in the gifts entrusted to all for the edification of the entire body and for God’s glory. See Rev 14:6

1Cor 12:22

1Cor 12:22 - Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary - Jesus’ Kingdom is such that the last shall be first and the first last; the weak and base things are exalted while the mighty are abased. See Mt 19:30; Lk 14:11, 18:14

1Cor 12:24

1Cor 12:24 - For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked: - God gives honor to the parts of the body that are humblest, not up front but working through patient prayer and supplication for the body on the whole

1Cor 12:25

1Cor 12:25 - That there should be no schism in he body - See 1Cor 1:10, 6:1-8

1Cor 12:26

1Cor 12:26 - And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it - See Act 12:1-17

1Cor 12:28

1Cor 12:28 - the apostles, meaning “sent” are they who were commissioned directly by Jesus Christ to go to the ends of the world, teaching, preaching the gospel and baptizing in the name fo the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. These were to be the spiritual elders/bishops of the church upon which it was to be built, Jesus, Himself being the Chief Cornerstone. See Mt 10:2-5, 28:18-20; Act 1:13-16, 23-26; Eph 2:20

1Cor 12:28

1Cor 12:28 - secondarily prophets - the men and women occupying the specific office, called of God at birth or at the appointed time to be God’s spokesperson to the people and to reprove them of sin. Like the apostles, the prophets and their works and testimony have established the foundation of the church, Jesus, being the Chief Cornerstone. The Holy Spirit, outside of the writing of the Holy Canon contained in the Old and New Testaments, continued to speak through revelation, counsel, warnings to others with whom He would impart the prophetic gift. Act 13:1, 21:9, 10; 1Cor 12:28; Eph 4:12, 13, 1:17-19 In harmony with the word of God, His Spirit was to continue its work throughout the period of the gospel dispensation. During the ages while the Scriptures of both the Old and the New Testament were being given, the Holy Spirit did not cease to communicate light to individual minds, apart from the revelations to be embodied in the Sacred Canon. The Bible itself relates how, through the Holy Spirit, men received warning, reproof, counsel, and instruction, in matters in no way relating to the giving of the Scriptures. And mention is made of prophets in different ages, of whose utterances nothing is recorded. In like manner, after the close of the canon of the Scripture, the Holy Spirit was still to continue its work, to enlighten, warn, and comfort the children of God. - {GC viii.1}

1Cor 12:28 - after that miracles - as needed and required, the gift of miracles will be employed. The gift however, is not to prove the presence of the Holy Spirit, but is manifested by the Holy Spirit to the glory of God. Miracles, should never be a sign or indicator of the presence or power of God because miracles can be counterfeited. See 2Thess 2:9, 10; Rev 13:13, 14

1Cor 12:28

1Cor 12:28 - governments - administration and governance perhaps

1Cor 12:30

1Cor 12:30 - do all speak with tongues? do all interpret? - the gift of interpreting tongues is tied one-for-one with the gifts of tongues. Paul Advises that if there be no one to interpret a tongue, it is best the one speaking the tongue not speak. See 1Cor 14:13, 19

1Cor 12:31

1Cor 12:31 - But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way - we are to desire the gifts that bring greatest edification to the body and glory to God. See 1Cor 14:1-5

1Cor 13:1

1Cor 13:1 - Though I - Paul describes the works of self-righteousness in the manifestation of the gifts of the Spirit without the love of God. Unless all that we do is motivated by the will and good pleasure of God abiding within, faith that worketh by love, our efforts and works are in vain. See Gal 5:6

1Cor 13:1

1Cor 13:1 - speak with the tongues of men and of angels - Excellence of speech, great elocution in a variety of languages. See 1Cor 2:1, 14:18, 19

1Cor 13:1

1Cor 13:1 - and have not charity - and have not Jesus, Who is Love! See 1Jo 4:16; Joh 15:4-6

1Cor 13:1

1Cor 13:1 - I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal - I am as discordant as a gong of brass and tinkling cymbals.

1Cor 13:2

1Cor 13:2 - have the gift of prophoecy, and understand all mysteries - See Eze 28:3

1Cor 13:2

1Cor 13:2 - and all knowledge - knowledge puffs up (braggadocio us) but charity (love) edifies - See 1Cor 8:1

1Cor 13:2

1Cor 13:2 - have all faith so that I could remove mountains - See Mk 11:23, 17:20; Rom 14:22; 1Cor 12:9

1Cor 13:3

1Cor 13:3 - though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor - charitableness and generosity - See Mt 19:21; Mk 10:21, 22; Lk 18:18; Act 4:34-37, 5:1-10

1Cor 13:3

1Cor 13:3 - though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing - a martyred death would be in vain if not motivated by the love of Christ towards God and one's fellow man. Our profession of love, faith, fidelity, etc. are meaningless if done with out the strength of God or the mind of Christ. See Phil 2:1-8; Gal 5:6; Rev 6:9-11, 12:11

1Cor 13:4

1Cor 13:4 - suffereth long, and is kind - See *Heb 12:3; 1Pet 2:21-23; Mt 5:39-41; Num 12:3

1Cor 13:4

1Cor 13:5 - and is kind - we are called to suffer as Christians, not retaliating nor being grieved. See 1Pet 3:14-18

1Cor 13:4

1Cor 13:4 - charity envieth not - the one who envies is covetous and a false accuser, accusing God of acting unjustly in withholding blessings from him. See Jam 3:15, 16

1Cor 13:4

1Cor 13:4 - vaunteth not itself - not proud or boastful - See Mt 23:5-7; Phil 2:3; Gal 5:26; Philippians 2:1-4; 3Jo 1:9, 10

1Cor 13:4

1Cor 13:4 - is not puffed up - haughty; self-assured - See 1Cor 4:5, 6, 8:1; 3Jo 1:9; Prov 11:2

1Cor 13:5

1Cor 13:5 - unseemly - indecently, unbecoming, uncomely

1Cor 13:5

1Cor 13:5 - seeketh not her own - not selfish but generous, preferring others and serving others - See 1Cor 11:18-34; Phil 2:1-4 There is nothing like the presence and blessing of Christ to settle all disputes, or to prevent them. In the action of Abraham, we have a true Christian example. As the eldest he might have stood upon his dignity, and have claimed his "rights" [to the better land over Lot]. But he could not have done so as a Christian. Love "seeketh not her own." Abraham manifested the true Spirit of Christ. When professed Christians are eager to grasp the things of this world, and are fearful lest they shall be deprived of some of their rights, they show that they are unmindful of the enduring inheritance which Christ offers. {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg. 57}

1Cor 13:5 - is not easily provoked - See Lk 11:53, 21:19; 2Tim 2:24; Rom 5:9

1Cor 13:5

1Cor 13:5 - provoked - PROVOKED, pp. Excited; roused; incited; made angry; incensed.

1Cor 13:5

1Cor 13:5 - thinketh no evil - does not engage in evil surmising. Permits God's Spirit to bring every thought into captivity. See 2Cor 10:3-5; 1Tim 6:4; Zech 8:17

1Cor 13:6

1Cor 13:6 - Rejoiceth not in iniquity - Several thoughts come to mind in understanding this wise statement: 1. We should not rejoice in seeing other's misfortune, even our enemies: See 2Sam 16:5-12; Prov 24:17, 18; Eze 25:6, 7; Ps 35:15 2. We should not be among those who hasten to hear or do evil and are of corrupt ways: See Isa 59:7, 8, 33:15-17 3. We should not have perverse lips which lie and defraud others of their integrity: See Isa 5:20; Prov 10:18; Ps 35:11, 12

1Cor 13:6

1Cor 13:6 - rejoiceth in the truth - 1. Delights when light exposes darkness, mercy is granted and or justice is served- a love for truth that makes free: See Joh 8:32; Eph 5:11; Mic 6:8; Contrast Joh 3:19-21 2. Whose heart is bound by truth and purposes to do the right, even to their harm - Phil 4:8

1Cor 13:7

1Cor 13:7 - Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things - the love of God is sustaining and will cause us to endure, holding fast to that which is committed to us.

1Cor 13:7

1Cor 13:7 - believeth all things - with God, all things are possible. See Mt 19:26; Mk 9:23, 10:27, 14:36 Is a lover of Truth revealed by the Holy Spirit (Joh 16:12, 13) - Joh 8:31, 32; Mk 12:28-34

1Cor 13:7

1Cor 13:7 - hopeth all things - See Heb 11:1

1Cor 13:7

1Cor 13:7 - endureth all things - See Rev 12:11

1Cor 13:8

1Cor 13:8 - Charity never faileth - Love Wins - Love never fails, God's love conquers all! As the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Spirit (Rom 5:5), we are transformed into the likeness and divine nature of Christ. See 2Pet 1:1-4

1Cor 13:8

1Cor 13:8 - whether there be prophecies, they shall fail - See Jon 3:4-10

1Cor 13:8

1Cor 13:8 - whether there be tongues, they shall cease - God is going to restore a pure language for all to speak throughout eternity. See Zeph 3:9

1Cor 13:8

1Cor 13:8 - whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away - the wisdom of the wise of this world, the knowledge of evil, philosophy and vain thoughts, the things that are of a temporal nature will all cease and pass away. See Col 2:8; Eph 5:6; 1Tim 6:20

1Cor 13:9

1Cor 13:9 - For we know in part and we prophesy in part - See Deut 29:29

1Cor 13:10

1Cor 13:10 - But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is part shall be done away - See Job 19:25-27; 1Jo 3:2

1Cor 13:11

1Cor 13:11 - When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things - Paul speaks of spiritual maturity, that we must act in accordance with the light we have been given, not as babes or as those tossed about by every wind of doctrine. See Heb 5:12; Eph 4:14

1Cor 13:11

1Cor 13:11 - when I became a man, I put away childish things - Christian maturity is here spoken. See Heb 5:14

1Cor 13:12

1Cor 13:12 - For now we see through a glass, darkly - The statement implies that we can not see with clarity the things which are hidden from us, therefore, we must live by faith. If we can trust that which we can not perceive with our eyes and senses, then when we will be able to see, we will believe all the more. The challenge to the celestial beings has been to trust in an all wise, all loving, all powerful God even though they do not fully comprehend His works. See 1Cor 13:9; John 13:7

1Cor 13:12

1Cor 13:12 - but then face to face - See Job 19:25-27; Rom 1:16, 17

1Cor 13:12

1Cor 13:12 - now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known - we understand and comprehend our own selves dimly. We do not know our hearts which are desperately wicked. However, we shall know our hearts, and minds that are hid in Christ, even as we are known fully by the Lord. See 1Jo 3:2

1Cor 13:12

1Cor 13:12 - but then shall I know even as also I am known - See 1Jo 3:2

1Cor 13:13 - hope - the patience of the saints; patient endurance and anticipation. See Ps 31:24, 33:18, 22; Rom 5:4, 5, 8:24, 25; Rev 14:12; Titus 2:13

1Cor 13:13

1Cor 13:13 - charity - love or charity is a gift that is shed abroad (dispersed) in our hearts by the Holy Spirit. See Rom 5:5

1Cor 13:13

1Cor 13:13 - but the greatest of these is charity - among faith, hope and love, the greatest is the love of God that is given to us through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Love will be the only thing which remains when our faith and our hope are realized fully in Christ. See Rom 5:5 Love covers a multitude of sin - Prov 10:12; 17:9; James 5:20; 1Pet 4:8

1Cor 14:1

1Cor 14:1 - that ye may prophesy - See 1Thess 5:20; 1Cor 14:39

1Cor 14:3

1Cor 14:3 - But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification (strengthening), and exhortation, and comfort - The prophetic word is to edify, exhort (to incite to laudable deeds, that which is good and commendable - proclaiming the gospel and Present Truth), and comfort. See Joh 2:22; Rom 15:4; 1Cor 14:39

1Cor 14:4

1Cor 14:4 - He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself - the person preaching and testifying in an unknown tongue blesses himself and none other. The church is not edified unless there is one to interpret the unknown language (1Cor 14:5, 6). This is not the way of God. Ministry is to be a blessing to others and through our ministrations to others, we are blessed.

1Cor 14:6

1Cor 14:6 - Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine? - unless tongues provide revelation, knowledge, prophesying or doctrine, it is worthless! 1Cor 14:8 - for if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle? - See Eze 3:17-21

1Cor 14:9

1Cor 14:9 - So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air - you are speaking gibberish if your words are not discernible

1Cor 14:10

1Cor 14:10 - so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification - there are a variety of voices (languages) in the world and all are significant or intelligible. See Act 2:3, 4, 8-11

1Cor 14:11

1Cor 14:11 - Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me - If I am not familiar with the voice (language), I am a foreigner to the one listening and he to me. Compare Act 2:3-11

1Cor 14:12

1Cor 14:12 - Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church - our pursuit of spiritual gifts should be for the expressed purpose of edifying (strengthening, building up, establishing, giving charge to) the church. See 1Cor 14:5, 3

1Cor 14:13

1Cor 14:13 - Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret - the speaking of a foreign tongue (language) must be accompanied by interpretation, otherwise it is of no value to the hearers and better to be left unsaid. See 1Cor 14:10, 11, 28

1Cor 14:14

1Cor 14:14 - For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful - for if I pray "aloud" in an unknown tongue, it builds up my own heart and spirit but it is unfruitful to all others. This goes against the principle of seeking to minister to others and not oneself. See Rom 15:2, 3

1Cor 14:16

1Cor 14:16 - Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest? - if I speak in an unknown tongue, how will the unlearned (the one being ministered to) say Amen unless he understand what is being said to him.

1Cor 14:16

1Cor 14:16 - occupieth the room of the unlearned - a novice, a student, one being taught.

1Cor 14:17

1Cor 14:17 - For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified - this is out of order according to God's purpose, plan, and ways. Either all will be edified or none at all. To speak with tongues to one's own edification is not in line with building up or edify the body of Christ and is therefore without decency and order. See 1Cor 14:12, 28, 40

1Cor 14:18

1Cor 14:20 - I speak with tongues more than ye all - Paul, born in Tarsus of Cilicia of Jewish heritage and of Roman nationality, spoke the Greek (Act 21:37-39), Hebrew (Act 21:40) and Latin (Act 26:1-3, 24, 28:17) languages.

1Cor 14:19

1Cor 14:19 - Yet in the church, I had rather speak five word with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also - Paul here affirms that language is to be used to glorify God and bless and edify the believers. Unknown "babbling" to the hearer he censors in these words. See 1Cor 14:23

1Cor 14:20

1Cor 14:20 - Brethren, be not children in understanding - we must have a mature understanding of truth. See Heb 5:11-14; Rom 16:19

1Cor 14:20

1Cor 14:20 - howbeit in malice be ye children - we are to be innocent, blameless when it comes to malice. See Rom 16:19; Gen 2:17; Isa 7:15, 16; Jam 3:13-18; Contrast Jer 4:22

1Cor 14:21

1Cor 14:21 - with men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people... - See Isa 28:11

1Cor 14:21

1Cor 14:21 - and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord - See Rom 3:1-4; Isa 6:9, 10

1Cor 14:22

1Cor 14:22 - Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not - See Act 2:1-12

1Cor 14:22

1Cor 14:22 - but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe - prophecy is a special gift, given specifically to the church to edify the body.

1Cor 14:23

1Cor 14:25

1Cor 14:25 - And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth - the prophetic gift demonstrated by Sister White that pointed out the sins of men and reprovved them should have been applauded as the power of God working in her, but rather was rejected and scorned by many who were themselves reprovved.

1Cor 14:26

1Cor 14:26 - Let all things be done unto edifying - let all things be done with decency and order. See 1Cor 14:33, 40

1Cor 14:27

1Cor 14:27 - If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret - If persons are speaking in a foreign languages, let it be done orderly, one at a time with interpretation and no more than three languages to avoid confusion. See 1Cor 14:31

1Cor 14:28

1Cor 14:28 - But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God - If there is no interpreter to translate the unknown tongue, the person is to remain quiet and speak silently to God, otherwise that would be confusion.

1Cor 14:29

1Cor 14:29 - Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge - we are to try the spirits and see if they be of God - See 1Jo 4:1

1Cor 14:30

1Cor 14:30 - If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace - God is the God of order and not of confusion. God does not honor bedlam in His courts. If many desire to prophesy, let them exercise restraint, yield to others when necessary so that order may be maintained. See 1Cor 14:33, 40

1Cor 14:32

1Cor 14:32 - the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets - Apparently there were those who claimed that they could not remain silent when under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. This contention Paul flatly denies. True prophets had control over their own minds and could speak or remain silent at will. Inspiration does not take away individuality and free choice. The human agent expresses in his own style and thought the truths that have been revealed to him (see GC v-vii). SDA Bible Commentary vol 6 pg 793. See 2Pet 1:21

1Cor 14:33 - For God is not the author of confusion - the Spirit of God works in those who both speak in tongues and those who interpret tongues (1Cor 12:11). Without the interpretation of tongues there would be confusion of which God has no part. See 1Cor 14:40 God will in no way contradict Himself. He does not speak one thing and later speak it's opposite. This would be confusion, of which God has no part. See Num 23:19; 1Cor 14:33, 36, 37; Isa 8:20; 1Jo 4:6; Rom 3:4; Mt 5:18

1Cor 14:36

1Cor 14:36 - What? came the word of God out from you? - Paul asks if we ourselves, are the source of God's Word or rather, is the Spirit of God the Source of God's Word? See 2Tim 3:16, 17; 1Cor 2:11; 2Pet 1:20

1Cor 14:36

1Cor 14:36 - or came it unto you only? - Paul asks if God's word is of a private interpretation such that it came to this group alone? See 2Pet 1:20

1Cor 14:37

1Cor 14:37 - If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord - Paul is establishing yet another test of the prophets, that all things must be done decently and in order. If one claims to be a prophet and does not give consent to Paul's admonitions, teachings, counsels, that person is moved by a different spirit. The prophets are all subject to the Spirit of God and must speak in harmony (2Pet 3:15, 16). See 1Cor 14:33; Isa 8:20; 1Jo 4:6; 2Thess 3:14; Lk 24:27; 1Tim 6:1-5; Joh 7:17; Act 15:15; Contrast 2Pet 3:15, 16 Many are deceived today in the same way as were the Jews. Religious teachers read the Bible in the light of their own understanding and traditions; and the people do not search the Scriptures for themselves, and judge for themselves as to what is truth; but they yield up their judgment, and commit their souls to their leaders. The preaching and teaching of His word is one of the means that God has ordained for diffusing light; but we must bring every man's teaching to the test of Scripture. Whoever will prayerfully study the Bible, desiring to know the truth, that he may obey it, will receive divine enlightenment. He will understand the Scriptures. "If any man willeth to do His will, he shall know of the teaching." Joh 7:17, R. V. - {DA 459.1} - DA 459.1 As we near the end of time, falsehood will be so mingled with truth, that only those who have the guidance of the Holy Spirit will be able to distinguish truth from error. We need to make every effort to keep the way of the Lord. We must in no case turn from His guidance to put our trust in man. The Lord's angels are appointed to keep strict watch over those who put their faith in the Lord, and these angels are to be our special help in every time of need. Every day we are to come to the Lord with full assurance of faith, and to look to Him for wisdom.... Those who are guided by the Word of the Lord will discern with certainty between falsehood and truth, between sin and righteousness. - {Mar 192.6}

1Cor 14:39

1Cor 14:39 - covet to prophesy - we should desire to be given the gift of prophecy, which edifies the body of Christ, the church. See 1Cor 14:4, 5

1Cor 14:39

1Cor 14:39 - forbid not to speak with tongues - tongues, appropriately used, are a gift and blessing from the Lord. We should desire that all hear the gospel in their own tongue to hasten the coming of the Lord.

1Cor 14:40

1Cor 14:40 - let all things be done decently and in order - See 1Cor 14:26, 33; 1Tim 3:15

1Cor 15:2

1Cor 15:2 - if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you - See Gal 3:1

1Cor 15:2

1Cor 15:2 - if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain - Paul is saying we must be steadfast in holding to the faith once committed to us and not become forgetful, lest our belief in the truth be in vain. - Heb 10:35-39; Gal 2:21

1Cor 15:3

1Cor 15:3 - For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received - Paul is only sharing that which he first has partaken of. See Ezr 7:10

1Cor 15:3

1Cor 15:3 - Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures - See Isa 53:4-6; Mt 1:21

1Cor 15:4

1Cor 15:4 - he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures - See Isa 53:8, 9; Joh 2:19-21; Jon 1:17-2:10 Ps 16:10; Act 2:27-31, 13:35

1Cor 15:6

1Cor 15:6 - After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep - See Act 1:15

1Cor 15:7

1Cor 15:7 - After that, he was seen of Jam - See Gal 1:19

1Cor 15:8

1Cor 15:8 - And last of all He was seen of me also - See Act 9; 1Cor 15:9

1Cor 15:8

1Cor 15:8 - as of one born out of due time - See Gal 1:15

1Cor 15:9

1Cor 15:9 - For I am the least of the apostles - Paul humbly recognizes his poverty in Spirit and need of God as one who once persecuted the church and was feared by the same church even after his conversion (Act 9:26, 27). This lowering of self allows him to be exalted by God. See 1Pet 5:6; Mt 23:11||1Cor 15:10

1Cor 15:9

1Cor 15:12 - I persecuted the church of God - See Act 7, 8, 9; Gal 1:13, 14, 23

1Cor 15:10

1Cor 15:10 - His grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain - The grace of God that has appeared to all men (Tit 2:11, 12) was not wasted on Paul as he applied himself to wisdom and seeking a knowledge of the Holy One. Paul further was led by the same Spirit unto good works, works of righteousness by the same Spirit to the saving of many souls. - See Gal 2:21

1Cor 15:10

1Cor 15:10 - I laboured more abundantly than they all; yet not I but the grace of God which was with me - Paul recognizes it is God's Spirit moving upon his heart that compelled him to good works (2Cor 5:14), not of himself, lest he should boast (Eph 2:9). We ought to be like minded and stirred by God's Spirit unto good works. See Mt 23:11; Col 1:29

1Cor 15:10

1Cor 15:10 - yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me - See Gal 2:20

1Cor 15:12

1Cor 15:12 - how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? - the doctrine of the Sadducees is here mentioned, which taught there was no resurrection. See Mt 22:23-33; Lk 20:27; John 11:25, 26

1Cor 15:17

1Cor 15:17 - And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins - Jesus came to save us from our sins according to the Scriptures. Therefore, if Christ has not risen from the dead, we have no hope for resurrection, the power of sin is not broken and we are most miserable. See Mt 1:21; Eph 2:1-3, Col 3:1-4; Philippians 3:10, 11

1Cor 15:17

1Cor 15:17 - ye are yet in your sins - See Rom 7:4-6, 8:1-3; Heb 2:14, 15

1Cor 15:18

1Cor 15:18 - Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished - See John 11:25, 26, 5:24, 25; Heb 2:14-18

1Cor 15:19

1Cor 15:19 - If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable - The Christian belief in the promise of eternal life of peace and rest is essential to our faith. if our hope and faith were only for the present mortal life with no hopes of a resurrection with power, glorified bodies and eternal life, then this Christian faith is most miserable. However, the desire for eternity, which God has placed in the heart of every man is in alignment with God's purposes and promises to grant us eternal life. See John 12:50 This verse invalidates Andre Crouch's song "If Heaven Were Never Promised to Me"

1Cor 15:20

1Cor 15:20 - become the firstfruits of them that slept - The Feast of First Fruits, celebrated once the Children of Israel arrived in the Promised Land, was to be celebrated on the day following the Feast of Unleavened Bread. This feast, acknowledging God as the Giver of all good gifts and offered in the spirit of a tithe, bringing the first and best to the Lord, symbolized Jesus, the First Fruit of the Resurrection, by Whose death, burial and resurrection He has guaranteed our redemption. See Ex 23:16; 1Cor 15:23

1Cor 15:21

1Cor 15:21 - For since by man came death - Adam, the perfect man chose to yield to temptation, introducing death to the human race and the world. See Rom 5:18

1Cor 15:21

1Cor 15:20 - by man came also the resurrection of the dead - the nature of the Second Man differed however from that of the first. The second man took on the fallen nature of Abraham as His Seed and became like His brethren. See Rom 5:18; Heb 2:14-18; John 5:25, 11:25, 26,

1Cor 15:22

1Cor 15:22 - Story of two gardens: Eden & Gethsemane - Two perfect men are tested on the matter of a tree. The first man fails the test, the second man passes the test.

1Cor 15:22

1Cor 15:22 - For as in Adam all die - All were within Adam and thus all died spiritually. See Rom 5:12, 15-17; Heb 7:4-10

1Cor 15:22

1Cor 15:22 - even so in Christ shall all be made alive - See Joh 5:21, 25, 26; 1Cor 15:45, 46

1Cor 15:23

1Cor 15:23 - every man in his order - a reference to the two resurrections - See Joh 5:21, 25-29

1Cor 15:23

1Cor 15:23 - The Feast of First Fruits, celebrated once the Children of Israel arrived in the Promised Land, was to be celebrated on the day following the Feast of Unleavened Bread. This feast, acknowledging God as the Giver of all good gifts and offered in the spirit of a tithe, bringing the first and best to the Lord, symbolized Jesus, the First Fruit of the Resurrection, by Whose death, burial and resurrection He has guaranteed our redemption. See 1Cor 15:20

1Cor 15:23

1Cor 15:23 - they that are Christ's at his coming - Jesus is the First Fruit, presented to the Father as a promissory note for the future harvest of those who are Christ's at His Second

Coming. See Joh 11:23, 24; 1Thess 4:16-18; Rev 14:13-16

1Cor 15:24

1Cor 15:24 - Then cometh the end - Following the millenium, where Jesus and the saints will have judged evil angels and the wicked (1Cor 6:3; Rom 14:10, 12), God will conduct the Executive Judgment in the destruction of the wicked in hell fire - See Rev 20:12-15; John 5:

1Cor 15:24

1Cor 15:24 - he shall have delivered - Jesus will deliver the Kingdom He has built upon Himself and through His shed blood, to His Father. See Mt 16:18; Philippians 2:9-11

1Cor 15:24

1Cor 15:24 - when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power - See Heb 1:13, 10:12, 13; Isa 45:23; Phil 2:9-11; Dan 2:34, 35, 44

1Cor 15:24

1Cor 15:24 - he shall have put down - the Father will put down all rule and authority and power under Christ - Rev 20:9-15

1Cor 15:25

1Cor 15:25 - For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet - See Ps 110:1; 1Cor 15:27; Mt 22:44; Eph 1:22; Philippians 2:9-11

1Cor 15:25

1Cor 15:25 - he must reign - Jesus must reign

1Cor 15:25

1Cor 15:25 - he hath put all enemies - the Father has put all enemies under Jesus' feet - See Ps 110:1

1Cor 15:25

1Cor 15:25 - under his feet - under the feet of Jesus

1Cor 15:26

1Cor 15:26 - the last enemy that shall be destroyed is death - See Rev 20:14; 2 Peter 3:9, 10; 1Cor 15:55-57

1Cor 15:27

1Cor 15:27 - For he hath put all things under his feet - See Ps 110:1; Mt 22:44; Eph 1:22; Heb 2:8; Lk 10:22

1Cor 15:27

1Cor 15:27 - For he hath put all things under - God the Father has put all things under Jesus

1Cor 15:27

1Cor 15:27 - under his feet - Under Jesus' feet

1Cor 15:27

1Cor 15:27 - when he saith all things - when God the Father says all things

1Cor 15:27

1Cor 15:27 - under him - Under Jesus

1Cor 15:27

1Cor 15:27 - he is excepted - God the Father is excepted in that He is not made subject to Jesus.

1Cor 15:27

1Cor 15:27 - under him - under Jesus

1Cor 15:28

1Cor 15:28 - And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all. - Jesus lives to do the will of His Father (Ps 40:8; Heb 10:7, 9). Jesus, as in creation spoke, all things into existence; in redemption, Jesus has completed the works, finished before the foundation of the world. See 1Cor 15:24; Heb 4:3

1Cor 15:28

1Cor 15:28 - subdued unto him - subdued unto Jesus

1Cor 15:28

1Cor 15:28 - that God may be all in all - God will once again be given the honor, glory, power, and reverence by all the creation, which was His, and which He deserves, before the rebellion of Lucifer.

1Cor 15:29

1Cor 15:29 - baptized for the dead - if Jesus rose not from the dead and we are baptized in His name with that of the Father and Holy Spirit, we are then baptized for the dead. See Mt 28:19; Rom 6:3-5; 1Cor 15:19, 20

1Cor 15:30

1Cor 15:30 - And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? - the apostles placed their lives on the line to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ, an outlawed teaching under the Roman government at the time, and the scourge of the Jews, which they sought to root-out.

1Cor 15:31

1Cor 15:31 - I protest - Paul objects by the line of reasoning that Jesus is not risen from the dead. He reasons that if Jesus is not risen from the dead, then those who have been baptized in His name are baptized for the dead. Paul objects by the evident rejoicing both he and the Corinthians share and experience in Christ Jesus, that Jesus is not dead but alive; and rather Paul himself dies daily, so that he might receive Christ daily through the Holy Spirit - See 1Cor 15:29

1Cor 15:31

1Cor 15:31 - I die daily - we are to deny ourselves, take up our crosses, and follow Jesus to Calvary to be crucified. When self has been crucified, then we are to seek the Lord through study and prayer, that as the Great Discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart, He may reveal that which lies deep within us all for surrender and repentance. See Col 3:3; Gal 2:20; 2Cor 4:10-12; Lk 9:23; Heb 4:12||Rev 3:18, 19

1Cor 15:32

1Cor 15:32 - If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die - Paul figuratively or literally, fought with individuals, who like wild beasts sought Paul's life for his preaching of the gospel of Jesus Christ. See Act 19:22-41

1Cor 15:32

1Cor 15:32 - if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die. See Mk 12:24-27; Isa 22:13

1Cor 15:33

1Cor 15:33 - evil communications corrupt good manners - evil communion, companionship corrupt good manners. See Eph 4:29; Titus 2:8

1Cor 15:34

1Cor 15:34 - Awake to righteousness, and sin not - See 1Joh 2:1; Eph 2:1-3

1Cor 15:36

1Cor 15:36 - that which thou sowest is not quickened except it die - See Joh 12:24; 1Cor 15:42

1Cor 15:37

1Cor 15:37 - And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain - See Mt 13:31, 32

1Cor 15:38

1Cor 15:38 - But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body - See 139:14

1Cor 15:39

1Cor 15:39 - all flesh is not the same flesh - See Eccl 3:18-20

1Cor 15:40

1Cor 15:40 - There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another - the celestial beings have a different and distinct body from those who dwell on the earth. See Ps 8:5; Lk 24:39; Mt 22:30

1Cor 15:41

1Cor 15:41 - one star differeth from another star in glory - a scientific fact affirmed in modern times that not all stars are the same and they emit different light. This knowledge was not known to the scientists of old until the telescope was made. Other Scientific Facts: 1. Jesus' power is what keeps each atom from exploding - Col 1:17 2. Air has weight - Job 28:25

1Cor 15:42

1Cor 15:42 - So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption - such will be the resurrection of righteousness, they that have gone down in corruption will receive incorruptible bodies from the Lord. Those who arise in the resurrection of damnation, will come up in their enfeebled frame to meet judgment. See 1Cor 15:50-56; 1Thess 4:16 Then, in terrible, fearful majesty, Jesus called forth the wicked dead; and they came up with the same feeble, sickly bodies that went into the grave. What a spectacle! what a scene! At the first resurrection all came forth in immortal bloom; but at the second the marks of the curse are visible on all. The kings and noblemen of the earth, the mean and low, the learned and unlearned, come forth together. All behold the Son of man; and those very men who despised and mocked Him, who put the crown of thorns upon His sacred brow, and smote Him with the reed, behold Him in all His kingly majesty. Those who spit upon Him in the hour of His trial now turn from His piercing gaze and from the glory of His countenance. Those who drove the nails through His hands and feet now look upon the marks of His crucifixion. Those who thrust the spear into His side behold the marks of their cruelty on His body. And they know that He is the very one whom they crucified and derided in His expiring agony. And then there arises one long protracted wail of agony, as they flee to hide from the presence of the King of kings and Lord of lords. - {EW 292.1}

1Cor 15:44

1Cor 15:44 - Natural Body - See Rom 7:4-25; Gen 5:3; Ps 51:5

1Cor 15:44

1Cor 15:44 - spiritual body - A body that is not prone to sin and therefore not under the curse of the law, death. See Rom 7:14; Rev 20:6, 21:4;

1Cor 15:44

1Cor 15:44 - There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body - The Bible uses the physical nature to describe the spiritual nature: Natural Bodies need Food and Drink, there are clean and unclean foods, healthy and poisonous foods Spiritual Bodies feed on healthy (pure) or clean thoughts and emotions. See 1Cor 2:11

1Cor 15:45

1Cor 15:45 - The first man Adam was made a living soul - God formed Adam of the dust of the earth and breathed into him the breath of lives and he became a living soul. Adam lived by virtue of the Holy Spirit abiding in him.

1Cor 15:45

1Cor 15:45 - the last Adam was made a quickening spirit - See 1Cor 15:22, 47; Joh 5:21, 25-29; Heb 4:12 Just as all were in Adam, Jesus is the Source of all life and therefore all, who choose to be born again, including Adam, are in Him. Our lives are hid in Jesus Christ and it is no longer we who live, but Christ lives within us. - Joh 1:4, Act 17:28, Col 1:17; 1Jo 5:11; Col 3:3, 4; As Adam's nature was marred by sin, Jesus took on the fallen nature of Adam to be married eternally to the human race - Heb 2:9-18; Rom 8:2, 3; Zech 13:6 Christ could not have come to this earth with the glory that He had in the heavenly courts. Sinful human beings could not have borne the sight. He veiled His divinity with the garb of humanity, but He did not part with His divinity. A divine-human Saviour, He came to stand at the head of the fallen race, to share in their experience from childhood to manhood (The Review and Herald, June 15, 1905). - {5BC 1128.2} Christ had not exchanged His divinity for humanity; but He had clothed His divinity in humanity (The Review and Herald, October 29, 1895). - {5BC 1128.3} Be careful, exceedingly careful as to how you dwell upon the human nature of Christ. Do not set Him before the people as a man with the propensities {cultivated habits developed by choice forming character} of sin. He is the second Adam. The first Adam was created a pure, sinless being, without a taint of sin upon him; he was in the image of God. He could fall, and he did fall through transgressing. Because of sin his posterity was born with inherent propensities of disobedience. But Jesus Christ was the only begotten Son of God. He took upon Himself human nature, and was tempted in all points as human nature is tempted. He could have sinned; He could have fallen, but not for one moment was there in Him an evil propensity. He was assailed with temptations in the wilderness, as Adam was assailed with temptations in Eden. - {5BC 1128.4}

1Cor 15:46 - Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual - The natural foreshadows the spiritual application of God's Word. We must understand (accept) the natural so that we can recognize the spiritual significants spoken. For example, we are commanded not to drink wine or strong drink as an intoxicant (Prov 20:1). This natural health counsel has a spiritual application for those who become drunk with the wine of Babylon, drunken by her false doctrines (Rev 18:3). 1Cor 15:47

1Cor 15:47 - the second man is the Lord from heaven - See 1Cor 15:45; Gal 4:4; Heb 2:14-18; Dan 7:13, 14

1Cor 15:48

1Cor 15:48 - As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly - As Christ is, so are we in this world. See Joh 3:12; 1Jo 4:17

1Cor 15:49

1Cor 15:49 - as we have borne he image of the earthy - See Gen 5:3

1Cor 15:49

1Cor 15:49 - we shall also bear the image of the heavenly - we shall bear Christ's image, without sin, holy, undefiled, separate from sin and blameless as Adam once bore. See Gen 1:26, 5:1, 2;

1Cor 15:50

1Cor 15:50 - flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God - the body of sin (Rom 6:6), our mortal, corruptible bodies can not bear the glory of heaven because of its sinful nature. Sin in the presence of God will consume the sin and the one attached to the sin (Heb 12:29; 2Thess 2:8).

1Cor 15:50

1Cor 15:50 - neither doth corruption inherit incorruption - we are in need of a heart transplant; the stony heart which we are born with can not produce righteousness. We must allow the Lord to give us a new heart and mind. See Jer 31:33; Ezek 36:26, 27

1Cor 15:51

1Cor 15:51 - we shall not all sleep - See 1Thess 5:10; Joh 11:11-14; Rom 14:9

1Cor 15:51

1Cor 15:51 - not all will die, however, all, both living and the resurrected dead will receive the gift of an incorruptible body and immortal life when the trump of God sounds. See 1Thess 4:15-18; Job 14:7-12, 14

1Cor 15:52

1Cor 15:52 - for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised - See 1Thess 4:14-18

1Cor 15:52

1Cor 15:52 - and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed - Amid the reeling of the earth, the flash of lightning, and the roar of thunder, the voice of the Son of God calls forth the sleeping saints. He looks upon the graves of the righteous, then, raising His hands to heaven, He cries: "Awake, awake, awake, ye that sleep in the dust, and arise!" Throughout the length and breadth of the earth the dead shall hear that voice, and they that hear shall live. And the whole earth shall ring with the tread of the exceeding great army of every nation, kindred, tongue, and people. From the prison house of death they come, clothed with immortal glory, crying: "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" 1 Corinthians 15:55. And the living righteous and the risen saints unite their voices in a long, glad shout of victory. - {GC 644.2} All come forth from their graves the same in stature as when they entered the tomb. Adam, who stands among the risen throng, is of lofty height and majestic form, in stature but little below the Son of God. He presents a marked contrast to the people of later generations; in this one respect is shown the great degeneracy of the race. But all arise with the freshness and vigor of eternal youth. In the beginning, man was created in the likeness of God, not only in character, but in form and feature. Sin defaced and almost obliterated the divine image; but Christ came to restore that which had been lost. He will change our vile bodies and fashion them like unto His glorious body. The mortal, corruptible form, devoid of comeliness, once polluted with sin, becomes perfect, beautiful, and immortal. All blemishes and deformities are left in the grave. Restored to the tree of life in the long-lost Eden, the redeemed will "grow up" (Mal 4:2) to the full stature of the race in its primeval glory. The last lingering traces of the curse of sin will be removed, and Christ's faithful ones will appear in "the beauty of the Lord our God," in mind and soul and body reflecting the perfect image of their Lord. Oh, wonderful redemption! long talked of, long hoped for, contemplated with eager anticipation, but never fully understood. - {GC 644.3}

1Cor 15:53 - For this corruptible must put on incorruption - our corruptible bodies of flesh and blood must be made into incorruptible bodies as was Jesus' at His resurrection (1Cor 15:49). Jesus' new body could go through walls unseen, could withstand the glory of the Father without being harmed, yet is physical and tangible. See Lk 24:33-43

1Cor 15:53

1Cor 15:53 - this mortal must put on immortality - once our corruptible bodies have been transformed into an incorruptible body as was Adam's, then God will grant us the gift of immortal life. Our immortality is borrowed and derived from His own life, which is inherently immortal. See 1Tim 6:16

1Cor 15:54

1Cor 15:54 - death is swallowed up in victory - See Isa 25:7, 8; Heb 2:14

1Cor 15:55

1Cor 15:55 - O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory - See Hos 13:14 The Lifegiver is coming to break the fetters of the tomb. He is to bring forth the captives and proclaim, "I am the resurrection and the life." There stands the risen host. The last thought was of death and its pangs. The last thoughts they had were of the grave and the tomb, but now they proclaim, "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory" (1 Corinthians 15:55). The pangs of death were the last things they felt... - {3SM 430.5} When they awake the pain is all gone. "O grave, where is thy victory?" here they stand and the finishing touch of immortality is put upon them and they go up to meet their Lord in the air. The gates of the city of God swing back upon their hinges, and the nations that have kept the truth enter in. - {3SM 431.1}

1Cor 15:56

1Cor 15:56 - The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law - death and the grave could not hold Jesus because there was no sin in Him. See Rom 5:12, 21; Act 2:24 The sting of death is sin the strength of sin is the law sting = strength (force/power)= that which reveals, makes known, makes a reality kéntron Noun Neuter ken'-tron from kenteo (to prick) from kenteo (to prick); a point ("centre"), i.e. a sting (figuratively, poison) or goad (figuratively, divine impulse):-prick, sting. a sting, as that of bees, scorpions, locusts. Since animals wound by their sting and even cause death, Paul attributes death, personified as a sting, i.e. a deadly weapon an iron goad, for urging on oxen, horses and other beasts of burden hence the proverb, "to kick against the goad", i.e. to offer vain and perilous or ruinous resistance

1Cor 15:56

1Cor 15:56 - sin - the stronghold of sin is in the will {TSB 140.4}

1Cor 15:56

1Cor 15:56 - strength of sin is the law - The law of God is that which reveals sin to us and condemns us for the same sin in our lives. Those who seek to establish their own righteousness by the law, are in the flesh, are under the law and are cursed already because the law of sin in death in our members condemns us. See Rom 5:20, 7:7-13, Gal 5:3

1Cor 15:57

1Cor 15:57 - But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ - Jesus gives us victory over sin by faith in Him. We are therefore, no longer under condemnation as we walk in His light (the law). See Rom 8:1, 2, 7:4-6; Deut 20:4; Isa 54:17

1Cor 15:58

1Cor 15:58 - Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord - See Mt 7:24, 25; Lk 6:47, 48

1Cor 15:58

1Cor 15:58 - forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord - See Heb 6:10, 10:35-39

1Cor 16:1

1Cor 16:1 - collection for the saints - Paul here speaks to the Corinthian believers regarding a particular need that had arisen in Judaea due to a famine. The Christian believers in Judaea were suffering for want and Paul in his quest was making provisions from the saints abroad to address the need. Act 11:27-30

1Cor 16:2

1Cor 16:2 - upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay be him in store - Paul here instructs all, at the beginning of the week to set aside what they can for the impoverished saints in Judaea. Sunday was the day when all would settle accounts and pay one's bills after providing a generous tithe and offering to the LORD on the Sabbath. Some however, suggest that Paul is implying collecting on offering on what they claim to be church services on the first day of the week, in support of the claim that the apostles instituted Sunday worship. This position is easily refuted by the direct words and writing of both Jesus and Paul, as opposed to a vague implication/assumption. See Mt 24:15-21; Act 13:42-52

1Cor 16:2

1Cor 16:2 - that there be no gatherings when I come - Paul suggested the saints make prior preparation in collecting for the needy saints in Judaea. Such provisions showed forethought and order, which Paul strived to instill in the churches. See 2Cor 8, 9

1Cor 16:7

1Cor 16:7 - if the LORD permit - See Jam 4:13-15

1Cor 16:9

1Cor 16:9 - a great door and effectual is opened unto me - The LORD opened a door of opportunity for the gospel to be preached by Paul to the church in Ephesus. See Act 14:27; 2Cor 2:12; Col 4:3

1Cor 16:10

1Cor 16:10 - Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do - Paul counseled the Corinthians to honor and respect Timothy as an understudy of Paul and co-laborer in the faith. See 1Tim 4:12

1Cor 16:11

1Cor 16:11 - Let no man therefore despise him - See 1Tim 4:12

1Cor 16:12

1Cor 16:10 - but his will was not at all to come at this time - though exceedingly honored of the Corinthian church and placed by many on a pedestal above even Paul's ministry, Apollos in humility, despised the carnality of the Corinthians who in their sectarian sins, were exalting his ministry over Paul's (1Cor 3:1-9). He did not desire to see that spirit promoted and therefore chose to refrain from being among the Corinthians until they saw both he and Paul as co-laborers under the Great Shepherd, Jesus Christ.

1Cor 16:13

1Cor 16:13 - quit - To carry through; to do or perform something to the end, so that nothing remains; to discharge or perform completely. To quit one's self, reciprocally, to clear one's self of incumbent duties by full performance.

1Cor 16:13

1Cor 16:13 - be strong - See Josh 1:9, 10

1Cor 16:14

1Cor 16:14 - Let all your things be done with charity - See Gal 5:6

1Cor 16:17

1Cor 16:17 - for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied - See 2Cor 11:9; Phil 4:19; 1Cor 16:1, 2

1Cor 16:19

1Cor 16:19 - The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house - See Act 2:44-47

1Cor 16:20

1Cor 16:20 - Greet ye one another with an holy kiss - Rom 16:16; 2Cor 13:12; 1Thess 5:26; 1Pet 5:14

1Cor 16:22

1Cor 16:22 - anáthema Noun Neuter an-ath'-em-ah from (394) from ; a (religious) ban or (concretely) excommunicated (thing or person):--accused, anathema, curse, ? great.

1Cor 16:22

1Cor 116:22 - Maranatha - maràn athá our Lord cometh or will come of Aramaic origin

(meaning our Lord has come) of Chaldee origin (meaning our Lord has come); maranatha, i.e. an exclamation of the approaching divine judgment:--Maran-atha.

2Cor 1 - by the will of God - See Joh 1:13; Gal 1:11-16

2Cor 1:1

2Cor 1:1 - and Timothy our brother - See 1Cor 16:10, 11

2Cor 1:3

2Cor 1:3 - the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort - God the Father is He who is merciful and gracious, slow to anger. See Ex 34:6, 7

2Cor 1:3

2Cor 1:3 - God of all comfort - The Godhead is One which comforts all creation. Jesus speaks of the Holy Spirit as another Comforter besides Himself and yet we see the Father is also the God of all comfort. See Phil 4:7; Joh 14:16-18, 26, 16:7-14

2Cor 1:4

2Cor 1:4 - Who comforteth us in all our tribulation - God the Father sends His Spirit, His angels, and His merciful blessings upon us even in our tribulations so that we are not overwhelmed. See 1Cor 10:13

2Cor 1:4

2Cor 1:4 - that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God - God comforts us so that we may be able to bring comfort to others who too require comfort. See Prov 22:20, 21; 1Pet 3:15

2Cor 1:5

2Cor 1:5 - For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ - The Lord's grace is sufficient in buoying us up in our tribulation - See Deut 33:25; 2Cor 12:9

2Cor 1:8

2Cor 1:8 - insomuch that we despaired even of life - the apostles, who were giants in faith, themselves felt the dread of death and a longing for life that was placed in us by our Heavenly Father. Though they despaired of life, they did not fear death, recognizing that they would see their redemption in Christ.

2Cor 1:9

2Cor 1:9 - But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: - John 15:5; Jer 17:5, 6; 1Cor 10:12

2Cor 1:9

2Cor 1:9 - but in God which raiseth the dead: - See Rom 4:17; Eph 2:1-6

2Cor 1:10

2Cor 1:10 - Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver - God has delivered us from the curse of the Law and the 2nd Death. See Rev 20:6

2Cor 1:11

2Cor 1:11 - Ye also helping together by prayer for us - our prayers help to strengthen the arms of the workers and to open channels for the work to move forward - Eph 6:18-20;

2Cor 1:12

2Cor 1:12 - For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward - See 1Cor 2:1-5

2Cor 1:16

2Cor 1:16 - And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judaea - See 1Cor 16:5

2Cor 1:18

2Cor 1:18 - But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay - As God is true, the words of life pertaining to God are not yes and no, but always yes in Jesus Christ. There is no variable ness neither shadow of turning with God. See James 1:17

2Cor 1:20

2Cor 1:20 - For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us - even as we are speaking and making petitions that are within God's will, He has answered (Isa 65:24) . We must abide in Jesus in order for this promise to be made a reality (1Cor 2:9, 10, 14). See Ps 84:11; Gal 3:16; Isa 65:24; Dan 9:21, 23; 1Jo 2:25, 5:14, 15; John 15:7, 8 What Jesus is saying here is when we abide in Him, His word abides in us which makes us one with God. Therefore, everything promised in the Bible will be given to us when we pray because it will accomplish God's purpose for our lives: to glorify God. {Abiding in Jesus #1 - The Truth about the Bible, Gregory Jackson, pg 6}

2Cor 1:21

2Cor 1:21 - Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God - God establishes us and is our sufficiency. See 2Cor 3:5; 1Jo 2:20, 27, 3:9; 1Pet 5:10

2Cor 1:22

2Cor 1:22 - Who hath also sealed us - to be settled and grounded in the truth, both intellectually and spiritually - See Rev 7:1-4

2Cor 1:22

2Cor 1:22 - given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts - See Eph 1:13, 14; 2Cor 5:5

2Cor 1:24

2Cor 1:24 - for by faith ye stand - See 1Cor 2:1-5; 1Jo 5:4

2Cor 2:3

2Cor 2:3 - having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all - See Lk 15:6, 9

2Cor 2:4

2Cor 2:4 - out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears - Paul shows his paternal love for the Corinthian church, indicating his first epistle was written from a heart of love and great concern for their present and eternal well being.

2Cor 2:7

2Cor 2:7 - So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow - Jam 5:19, 20

2Cor 2:8

2Cor 2:8 - ye would confirm your love towards him - Paul beseeches the church to embrace with love the erring brother alluded to in the prior epistle.

2Cor 2:11

2Cor 2:11 - Lest Satan should get an advantage of us - through bitterness and unforgiveness, Satan gains an advantage over the saints. See Heb 12:15

2Cor 2:12

2Cor 2:12 - door was opened unto me of the LORD - a door of opportunity to preach the gospel. - See 1Cor 16:9

2Cor 2:13

2Cor 2:13 - I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother - See 2Cor 7:6, 7, 13, 15

2Cor 2:14

2Cor 2:14 - which always causeth us to triumph in Christ - See Rom 8:37; 2Cor 2:20

2Cor 2:14

2Cor 2:15 - and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place - God makes known the truth/pleasantness (savour) of His wisdom and knowledge through the apostles everywhere they go.

2Cor 2:15

2Cor 2:15 - sweet savour of Christ - See Phil 4:18

2Cor 2:15

2Cor 2:15 - in them that are saved, and in them that perish - the two classes of worshippers are here highlighted by Paul, those who are being saved and those who are perishing. See Gen 3:15 Salvation is two-fold. 1. Salvation from sin. This is a progressive work of Christian life. Some mistake and think the work is finished because they feel that they love the way of truth, and have no desire or disposition to sin. But, as before noticed, they may sin ignorantly, and do things which are offensive to God because they are not fully instructed in the right. When these sins come to their knowledge they must repent; and if they refuse or neglect to repent of them, they stand as indorsing thorn, and then their relation is changed and they must be counted sins of presumption. And there is place for continuance of this work of increasing in knowledge and reforming in life until we become as perfect in knowledge as our circumstances will permit. This is growth in grace, without which the believer either remains a babe in the Christian life, or degenerates into a fixed state of formality; for no one has a complete knowledge of truth and duty when first he submits himself to God. It is incumbent upon him to grow up into it. {1882 JHW, JBF 6.2} 2. There is a final salvation which is brought unto us at the appearing of Christ; of which, salvation from sin (or justification and growth in grace) is the necessary prerequisite. Of this salvation the Scriptures make very frequent mention. The Saviour said: "He that shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved." Matt. 24:13; the same in chap. 10:22, and Mark 13:13. This salvation comes after that which is called "the end." Paul said to his brethren; "And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep; for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed." Rom13:11. Waiving all question as to "the time" to which he referred, we notice that this salvation did not come to them when they believed. It is a future salvation to the believer. {1882 JHW, JBF 7.1}

2Cor 2:16

2Cor 2:16 - savour of death unto death - It was the custom of the day for a general victorious in warfare to bring with him on his return a train of captives. On such occasions incense bearers were appointed, and as the army marched triumphantly home, the fragrant odor was to the captives appointed to die, a savor of death, showing that they were nearing the time of their execution; but to those of the prisoners who had found favor with their captors, and whose lives were to be spared, it was a savor of life, in that it showed them that their freedom was near. - {AA 325.3} Like incense the fragrance of the gospel was to be diffused throughout the world. To those who should accept Christ, the message would be a savor of life unto life; but to those who should persist in unbelief, a savor of death unto death. - {AA 326.1} See Ps 2:1-3

2Cor 2:16

2Cor 2:16 - savour of life unto life - the message of the gospel as preached by Paul and those who rely on the strength of God are as a savory (sweet smell) of life that leads to eternal life in those who by faith receive the gospel. Phil 4:18

2Cor 2:16

2Cor 2:16 - "Who is sufficient for these things?" - meaning "who is worthy of fulfilling this high calling, both preaching Christ in sincerity and living for Christ openly before God and man in sincerity?" Who is able to preach Christ in such a way that His enemies shall have no just cause to despise the messenger or the message that he bears? Paul desired to impress upon believers the solemn responsibility of the gospel ministry. Faithfulness in preaching the word, united with a pure, consistent life, can alone make the efforts of ministers acceptable to God and profitable to souls. Ministers of our day, burdened with a sense of the greatness of the work, may well exclaim with the apostle, "Who is sufficient for these things?" - {AA 326.2}

2Cor 2:17 - For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God - there are those who suggest that even in Paul's time, Scriptures were being manipulated (2Thess 2:1, 2). This would however, contradict the affirmed Word of God found in Ps 12:6, 7. Another perspective is that which Peter says of Paul's writings, that they are at times difficult to understand and unstable men wrest the Scripture from their intended meaning. Other false teachers were using the gospel and Scripture to manipulate the saints for their gain. See 2Pet 3:16; Philippians 1:15-19; 1Thess 2:5

2Cor 2:17

2Cor 2:17 - but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ - See Rev 14:5

2Cor 3:1

2Cor 3:1 - Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you? - See Joh 2:23-25, 5:43; 2Cor 10:12

2Cor 3:2

2Cor 3:2 - Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men - the apostles did not need letters of commendation in order to receive the approval and audience of men. The evidence of their ministry was the lives changed within the church itself. Similarly, lengthy, glowing introductions of ministers in churches are neither to be accepted as it causes men to be puffed-up. See 1Cor 9:1, 2

2Cor 3:2

2Cor 3:2 - epistle - A writing, directed or sent, communicating intelligence to a distant person; a letter; a letter missive. It is rarely used in familiar conversation or writings, but chiefly in solemn or formal transactions. It is used particularly in speaking of the letters of the Apostles, as the epistles of Paul

2Cor 3:3

2Cor 3:3 - Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart - Paul compares the living epistles whose testimonies are written upon their hearts by the Holy Spirit, namely, the disciples who he and the apostles have ministered to, compared to written letters of commendation or even the writings of the tablets of the testimony secured in the ark of the covenant.

2Cor 3:3

2Cor 3:3 - written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart - See Heb 10:16; Jer 31:31-34; Eze 36:26, 27

2Cor 3:4

2Cor 3:4 - And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward - This confidence/trust/affirmation, that he and the other apostles needed no letters of commendation from men, Paul stated he had in Jesus Christ towards God and His ministry.

2Cor 3:5

2Cor 3:5 - Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God - our equipping, our empowering, our sufficiency is of God, not of anything that we have, possess, have done or are. God establishes us and in Christ we are complete. See Rom 3:23; 1Cor 1:21; Col 4:12; John 15:5 God dwells with those of a contrite and humble spirit. See Isa 57:15

2Cor 3:5

2Cor 3:5 - to think any thing as of ourselves - Paul states that there is nothing good (that is in this flesh) in us. See Rom 7:18; Gal 5:17

2Cor 3:5

2Cor 3:5 - but our sufficiency is of God - Christ is OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS (Jer 23:5, 6). God has promised to perfect those things which concern us (Ps 138:8). Jesus has vowed to save us to the uttermost (Heb 7:25). He will supply all of our needs according to His riches in glory (Phil 4:19). Jesus makes us complete. We can do all things through Jesus Christ which strengthens us. See Col 2:9, 10; Philippians 4:19, 2:12, 13

2Cor 3:6

2Cor 3:6 - made us able ministers of the new testament - Jesus, through His Holy Spirit has equipped Paul and the apostles to give testimony and evidence of the power of Christ embodied in the New Testament, found in His broken body and shed blood and not the flesh and blood of goats and rams. See Mt 26:28; Mk 14:24; Lk 22:20; Heb 9:15

2Cor 3:6

2Cor 3:6 - not of the letter, but of the spirit - not by ordinances and keeping of the law by works (Moses and the moral Law - the Old Covenant), having a form of godliness but denying the power thereof (2Tim 3:5), but by the power of the Holy Spirit by faith of Jesus Christ (the New Testament/Covenant). See Joh 6:63; Eph 2:9; Rom 2:20, 4:13; Rom 2:29

2Cor 3:6

2Cor 3:6 - for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life - the Law produces death, but the Holy Spirit brings us to Jesus for everlasting life and glory. See Rom 5:20, 7:6-16, 8:1-14; Joh 6:63 The boy who finds a use for his lesson becomes doubly interested and successful in his studies. What was idle knowledge, only half understood, becomes practical wisdom full of zest and power. Especially is this true of Bible knowledge, whose superficial study is of slight effect, but whose profounder learning changes the whole man. "The letter killeth; the spirit giveth life." {The Seven Laws of Teaching - pg 128.1}

2Cor 3:6

2Cor 3:6 - but the spirit giveth life - Now the Lord is that Spirit... See 2Cor 3:17

2Cor 3:7

2Cor 3:7 - But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious - the glory according to the Law had a glory that shone through the face of Moses, causing the people to ask Moses to hide his face. This ministry that upheld the Law based on the Old Covenant had a certain glory, but that glory would be superseded by the glory of the New Testament, revealed in the righteousness of Christ by faith. See Ex 34:29-35

2Cor 3:7

2Cor 3:7 - the children if Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance - See Ex 34:28-35

2Cor 3:8

2Cor 3:8 - How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious? - if that which was passing away had a radiant glory so that men could not steadfastly behold it, how much more that which is eternal and spiritual. See 2Cor 3:11; Rev 18:1; Isa 60:1-3

2Cor 3:9

2Cor 3:9 - For if the ministration of condemnation be glory - ministration of righteousness by works according to the law, which leads to death - See 2Cor 3:7; Rom 8:1

2Cor 3:9

2Cor 3:9 - much more doth the ministration in righteousness exceed in glory - the ministration of righteousness by faith according to the faith of Jesus Christ is made manifest by the Holy Spirit abiding within the believer - See Rom 3:19-26, 4:1-5, 13; Dan 12:3

2Cor 3:10

2Cor 3:10 - For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth - the giving of the Law which is only a form is superseded by the righteousness of Christ which is the substance. See Rom 2:20; Heb 10:9

2Cor 3:11

2Cor 3:11 - For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious - See 2Cor 3:8; Heb 10:9

2Cor 3:12

2Cor 3:12 - Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech - Paul and the Apostles know in Whom they believe and are fully persuaded of their ministry. They therefore, need not use flowery oratory, nor curious language, slight of speech, or any other tact to convince or persuade those who hear. They, with good conscience, living honestly, demonstrate the power of God to all, as living epistles, read of all men. See Heb 13:18; 2 Cor 3:3; 1Cor 2:1, 4, 5

2Cor 3:13

2Cor 3:13 - And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished - the people could not behold the glory of God radiating through Moses because of the veil upon their heart such that Moses had to veil his face.

2Cor 3:13

2Cor 3:13 - that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look to the end of that which is abolished - the COI in their blindness could not understand nor perceive the dead or goal of the law, which was Christ, but made the law all and all. See Rom 10:4

2Cor 3:14

2Cor 3:14-16 - But their minds were blinded - See Rom 10:1-4; Joh 9:39-41 The Jews refused to accept Christ as the Messiah, and they cannot see that their ceremonies are meaningless, that the sacrifices and offerings have lost their significance. The veil drawn by themselves in stubborn unbelief is still before their minds. It would be removed if they would accept Christ, the righteousness of the law. - {RH April 22, 1902 Par. 14} Many in the Christian world also have a veil before their eyes and heart. They do not see to the end of that which was done away. They do not see that it was only the ceremonial law which was abrogated at the death of Christ. They claim that the moral law was nailed to the cross. Heavy is the veil that darkens their understanding. The hearts of many are at war with God. They are not subject to his law. Only as they shall come into harmony with the rule of his government, can Christ be of any avail to them. They may talk of Christ as their Saviour; but he will finally say to them, I know you not. You have not exercised genuine repentance toward God for the transgression of his holy law, and you cannot have genuine faith in me, for it was my mission to exalt God's law. - {RH April 22, 1902 Par. 15} There is comfort and peace in the truth, but no real peace or comfort can be found in falsehood. It is through false theories and traditions that Satan gains his power over the mind. By directing men to false standards, he misshapes the character. Through the Scriptures the Holy Spirit speaks to the mind, and impresses truth upon the heart. Thus He exposes error, and expels it from the soul. It is by the Spirit of truth, working through the word of God, that Christ subdues His chosen people to Himself. - {DA 671.1}

2Cor 3:14

2Cor 3:14 - for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old testament - See 2Cor 4:3, 4; Rom 10:1-4, 11:1-8

2Cor 3:14

2Cor 3:14 - which veil is done away in Christ - He Who unlocks the mystery of godliness and brings to fruition the types and symbols contained in the Old Testament is Jesus. The Scripture are a revelation of Jesus Christ. Jesus fulfills - makes full all righteousness in Himself. See Joh 5:39; Eph 2:14; Rom 10:4, 12; Mt 27:51; Dan 9:24;

2Cor 3:15

2Cor 3:15 - But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart - See Rom 10:1-11; 2Cor 4:3, 4

2Cor 3:16

2Cor 3:16 Nevertheless, when it shall turn to the LORD, the veil shall be taken away - Unless all, Jew, Gentile, male, female turn with their hearts to Christ in true repentance and submit to His righteousness, a veil remains upon our hearts and minds. But when we return the veil is removed and we receive of the greater glory by the Spirit of Christ. See Mt 23:39; Rom

10:1-5, 11:23; Gal 3:27-29

2Cor 3:17

2Cor 3:17 - Now the Lord is that Spirit - See Joh 4:24

2Cor 3:17

2Cor 3:17 - where the Spirit of the LORD is, there is liberty - where God's Spirit abides, there is liberty, freedom from strife, from contention, from condemnation, from worry or from fear. See Joh 8:36; James 3:17, 18; Isa 32:17; Mt 11:28-30

2Cor 3:17

2Cor 3:18 - there is liberty - The law, the perfect law of liberty, testifies to the righteousness of God and gives life. There is no more condemnation - See Jam 1:25; 2:12; Joh 8:36; 2Cor 3:6; Rom 8:1-3

2Cor 3:18

2Cor 3:18 - with open face - without any veil to cover up.

2Cor 3:18

2Cor 3:18 - beholding as in a glass - beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord. The glory of the Lord is revealed in its fullness in His Son, Jesus Christ (2Cor 4:4). Jesus, Who sits as a Purifier and Refiner of silver, is purifying His people until He can see His own image in them. See Ps 16:8; Mal 3:1-5

2Cor 3:18

2Cor 3:18 - are changed into the same image - See 2Cor 4:6; 1Jo 2:29, 3:2, 4:17; 2Pet 4:13; Isa 45:22; Num 21:9 Thousands have set the Lord before them, and by beholding have been changed into the same image. Their spirit burns within them as they speak of His character, telling what Christ is to them, and what they are to Christ. But these searchers have not exhausted these grand and holy themes. Thousands more may engage in the work of searching out the mysteries of salvation. As the life of Christ and the character of His mission are dwelt upon, rays of light will shine forth more distinctly at every attempt to discover truth. Each fresh search will reveal something more deeply interesting than has yet been unfolded. The subject is inexhaustible. The study of the incarnation of Christ, His atoning sacrifice and mediatorial work, will employ the mind of the diligent student as long as time shall last; and looking to heaven with its unnumbered years he will exclaim, "Great is the mystery of godliness." - {COL 133.4}

2Cor 3:18

2Cor 3:18 - glory to glory - By beholding we are changed! We through the indwelling Holy Spirit are moved from reflecting the glory of man to the glory of the Divine (Rom 1:17; Ps 84:7; 2Pet 1:1-4). See Ps 8:5; Dan 11:45; Rev 10:7; Isa 60:1

2Cor 3:18

2Cor 3:18 - even as by the Spirit of the Lord - the Spirit of the Lord, which gives life, liberty, power and the love of God, is He Who transforms us into the image of Christ. See 2Cor 3:6, 17; John 1:12, 13; Rom 5:5

2Cor 4:1

2Cor 4:1 - we faint not - we are not to grow weary in well doing - See Heb 10:35, 36; 2Cor 4:16

2Cor 4:2

2Cor 4:2 - walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully - See Dan 8:25

2Cor 4:2

2Cor 4:2 - nor handling the word of God deceitfully - Paul affirms that in genuineness and sincerity he preaches the gospel. Unlike those who use the gospel for personal gain aggrandizement, or to slander the gospel, Paul seeks to win souls for God's Kingdom. See Rom 1:18; Contrast Philippians 1:15-18

2Cor 4:2

2Cor 4:2 - but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God - See 1Cor 2:2-5; 2Cor 3:2; Philippians 3:8-14; John 15:22-25

2Cor 4:3

2Cor 4:3, 4 - But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: 4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. - See 2Tim 2:24-26; Deut 29:4

2Cor 4:4

2Cor 4:4 - In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them - See 2Thess 2:8-12; Rom 1:18-32; Lk 8:12

2Cor 4:4

2Cor 4:4 - the god of this world - See Joh 12:31, 32, 9:39-41; Eph 2:1-3

2Cor 4:4

2Cor 4:4 - the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God - See Joh 14:7-11

2Cor 4:4

2Cor 4:4 - who is the image of God - See Col 1:15, 2:9

2Cor 4:5

2Cor 4:5 - For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord - See 1Cor 2:2

2Cor 4:6

2Cor 4:6 - Who commanded the light to shine out of darkness - Jesus under the direction of His Father, is He Who commanded, "Let there be light" and the Spirit of God brought forth Light. See Gen 1:3; Ps 33:6; 1Pet 2:9; Joh 14:10, 11 The Father then made known that it was ordained by Himself that Christ, His Son, should be equal with Himself; so that wherever was the presence of His Son, it was as His own presence. The word of the Son was to be obeyed as readily as the word of the Father. His Son He had invested with authority to command the heavenly host. Especially was His Son to work in union with Himself in the anticipated creation of the earth and every living thing that should exist upon the earth. His Son would carry out His will and His purposes but would do nothing of Himself alone. The Father's will would be fulfilled in Him. - {SR 13.2}

2Cor 4:6 - hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ - We understand God and His glory by beholding the face of Jesus Christ. We, who can not see the Father, are to know Him through the Son Jesus Christ. This is synonymous with God cleansing the Sons of Levi of the lies that the devil has set-up, the lies which exalt themselves against the knowledge of God. See Isa 60:1, 2; 1Pet 2:9; Joh 14:7-9, 17:4-20; Rom 5:5; Mal 3:1-3 || 2Cor 10:4, 5

2Cor 4:6

2Cor 4:6 - the light of the knowledge of the glory of God - the knowledge of the glory of God is seen in the gospel, the righteousness by faith. God's glory is His character, manifested in Christ and imparted to those who behold His face. God's glory is that which destroys sin, not people. Therefore, as we behold God's glory in the face of Jesus Christ, our comeliness will be cast down, and in humility we will be made whole (strengthened - Col 2:10) by the grace of God. See Ex 33:18, 20-23; Philippians 3:10; John 1:4, 5

2Cor 4:6

2Cor 4:6 - in the face of Jesus Christ - the light of the knowledge of God's glory [His character] is seen in the face of Jesus Christ. Therefore, by beholding Him, we are changed from glory to glory. Isa saw the Lord on His throne in His glory and he lamented his undone condition. Job beheld the Lord and he abhorred and repented of himself. Daniel beheld Jesus in His glory and His comeliness was turned to corruption. Joh, too saw Jesus and he was weakened with no strength in him. So, when we are humbled into the dust, and we receive the promises of God by faith, our corruption is turned to righteousness and we are changed from glory into His glory. See 2Cor 3:18; Job 42:5, 6; Isa 6:1-8; Dan 10:5-8; Rev 1:17

2Cor 4:7

2Cor 4:7 - this treasure in earthen vessels - the treasure is the light of the gospel, the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ, dwelling within us; Christ in us, the hope of glory. See Mt 5:16; 2Cor 4:6, 10; Col 1:25-29 God has been pleased to communicate His truth to the world by human agencies, and He Himself, by His Holy Spirit, qualified men and enabled them to do this work. He guided the mind in the selection of what to speak and what to write. The treasure was entrusted to earthen vessels, yet it is, nonetheless, from Heaven. The testimony is conveyed through the imperfect expression of human language, yet it is the testimony of God; and the obedient, believing child of God beholds in it the glory of a divine power, full of grace and truth. - {GC vi.3} To those who handle sacred things comes the solemn injunction, "Be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the Lord." [Isa 52:11.] Of all men, those who have been trusted and honored by the Lord, those who have been given special service to perform, should be circumspect in word and deed. They should be men of devotion, who, by works of righteousness and pure, true words, can lift their fellow-men to a higher level; men who are not unsettled by every passing temptation; men of firm, earnest purpose, whose highest aim is to gather souls to Christ. -

{GW 124.1} Satan's special temptations are directed against the ministry. He knows that ministers are but human, possessing no grace or holiness of their own; that the treasures of the gospel have been placed in earthen vessels, which divine power alone can make vessels unto honor. He knows that God has ordained ministers to be a powerful means for the salvation of souls, and that they can be successful in their work only as they allow the eternal Father to rule their lives. Therefore he tries with all his ingenuity to lead them into sin, knowing that their office makes sin in them more exceeding sinful; for in committing sin, they make themselves ministers of evil. - {GW 124.2}

2Cor 4:7 - that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us - This excellent power (Christ in us, the hope of glory - Col 1:27) that is stored in earthen vessels (1Cor 15:47-49) is to be revealed in us that God may receive all the glory and not men. Men will glorify God and not men, as they behold His glory working in and through us. See 1Cor 2:1-5, 1:29, 31; 2Cor 4:5; Mt 5:16, 6:13; Eph 1:19-23, 2:8-10; Philippians 3:9, 10; Ps 115:1;

2Cor 4:8

2Cor 4:8 - We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair - See Isa 32:17; 2Cor 12:7-10

2Cor 4:9

2Cor 4:11 - cast down - a cast down sheep is one that has lost its balance and is stuck upon its back without being able to right itself. This is very dangerous and possibly fatal for the animal unless set upright in time.

2Cor 4:10

2Cor 4:10 - Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus - always dying to self, being crucified with Christ so that He may live in us and not we ourselves. See Gal 2:20; Col 2:12

2Cor 4:10

2Cor 4:10 - that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body - See 2Cor 4:11, 12:10; Gal 2:20; Rom 12:1, 2; 1Jo 4:2; Col 1:28, 29; Hymn #316 - Live Out Thy Life Within Me

2Cor 4:11

2Cor 4:11 - For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake - we are delivered to die daily, both willfully and if required through martyrdom. See 1Cor 15:31; Gal 2:20; Lk 9:23||Mt 16:24||Mk 8:34

2Cor 4:11

2Cor 4:11 - that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh - See 2Cor 4:10

2Cor 4:13

2Cor 4:13 - We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak - See Ps 116:10

2Cor 4:13

2Cor 4:13 - believed - See Ps 116:10; Rom 6:17

2Cor 4:13

2Cor 4:13 - we also believe, and therefore speak - See Rev 12:11

2Cor 4:14

2Cor 4:14 - Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you - See Mt 28:2-6; Joh 5:25-29; 1Cor 15:50-58; Rom 6:5, 9, 10

2Cor 4:15

2Cor 4:15 - For all things are for your sakes - Rom 8:28; Phil 1:12-14, 19

2Cor 4:15

2Cor 4:15 - that the abundant grace - God's grace that brings salvation and abounds to all people freely - Titus 2:11; Eph 2:8

2Cor 4:15

2Cor 4:15 - might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God - our grateful praise and thanksgiving for God's amazing grace towards is to ascend, all to God's glory! We were created to worship and honor our Creator!

2Cor 4:16

2Cor 4:16 - For which cause we faint not- See 2Cor 4:1; Gal 6:9; Heb 10:35-39

2Cor 4:16

2Cor 4:16 - but though our outward man perish - the natural degeneration due to sin and through the trials, troubles, persecutions of men, the saints outward bodies are being torn down, yet, the inward man is becoming stronger in Christ Jesus. See 2Cor 5:1-3

2Cor 4:16

2Cor 4:16 - yet the inward man is renewed day by day - Dying daily to self we find life in the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus (1Cor 15:31; Rom 8:1). Real life is found in the spiritual level not in the natural. Just as we must not live by bread alone but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God. The kingdom of God is within us (Lk 17:21), an eternal spring, springing forth into eternal life See 2Cor 4:18, 5:17; Mt 4:4; Joh 6:62, 63; Rom 7:22; Eph 3:16; Hymn #532, Day by Day

2Cor 4:17

2Cor 4:17 - For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory - See Heb 12:2-4; 1Pet 4:12-14

2Cor 4:17

2Cor 4:17 - which is but for a moment - the trying of our faith is but for a moment compared to the eternal weight of glory we are to receive now and for eternity. See Isa 54:7

2Cor 4:18

2Cor 4:18 - While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal - We must ask the Lord for eye-salve so that we may behold the wondrous things out of His law (Rev 3:18; Ps 119:18). We must also ask for eyes to perceive things unseen to the natural eyes and focus on them (2Kin 6:17). See 1Jo 2:16; Mt 6:19, 20; 2Cor 4:16; Col 2:20-23

2Cor 4:18

2Cor 4:18 - for the things which are seen are temporal - See 1Jo 2:16, 17

2Cor 4:18

2Cor 4:18 - but the things which are not seen are eternal - See Mt 6:20; 2Cor 4:16; Dan 2:44

2Cor 5:1

2Cor 5:1 - our earthly house of this tabernacle - our natural mortal bodies. See 1Cor 6:15-19; 15:42-44; 2Cor 4:16; 2Pet 1:14, 15

2Cor 5:1

2Cor 5:1 - we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens - See 1Cor 15:44, 51-58; 1Thess 4:13-18

2Cor 5:1

2Cor 5:1 - not made with hands - not made with man's hands but made by God. See Heb 9:11; 1Cor 15:51-55; John 14:1-4

2Cor 5:2

2Cor 5:2 - For in this we groan - the outward man which is perishing groans (literally) with pains and suffering. See 2Cor 4:16; Rom 8:22, 23

2Cor 5:2

2Cor 5:2 - earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven - desiring to be clothed with immortality, our incorruptible bodies. See 1Cor 15:51-56; Rom 7:22-25, 8:22, 23

2Cor 5:3

2Cor 5:3 - If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked - Once clothed in Jesus incorruptible robe of righteousness and our eternal bodies, we shall not be found naked, in a sinful spiritually dead state. See Gen 3:11; Rev 16:15; 1Cor 15:51-57; Ex 32:22-25; 2Chron 28:19 nakedness as death - Job 1:21; Ecc 5:15

2Cor 5:4

2Cor 5:4 - For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened - we are burdened by the continual war of the flesh lusting after the Spirit of God; the warfare that causes us to cry out "O wretched man that I am, Who shall save me from this body of death?". See Rom 8:19-25

2Cor 5:4

2Cor 5:4 - not for that we would be unclothed - not that we should be naked or rather, dead. Job 1:21; Ecc 5:15; 2Pet 1:14, 15

2Cor 5:4

2Cor 5:4 - but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life - not to be unclothed in death but to be clothed in an immortal body that can not see death. See 1Cor 15:51-58

2Cor 5:4

2Cor 5:4 - swallowed-up of life - mortality swallowed-up of eternal life - 1Thess 4:13-18; 1Cor 15:51-58

2Cor 5:5

2Cor 5:5 - Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God - God made us to be clothed in eternal life - See Joh 1:12, 13, 12:50; Eph 2:10; 2Cor 5:17

2Cor 5:5

2Cor 5:5 - given unto us the earnest of the Spirit - See Eph 1:13, 14; 2Cor 1:22; Gal 4:4-7

2Cor 5:6

2Cor 5:6 - Therefore we are always confident, knowing that - our confidence is in the Lord Who has promised us immortality, even though we today are present in these mortal bodies and absent from God.

2Cor 5:6

2Cor 5:6 - always - ever

2Cor 5:6

2Cor 5:6 - confident - tharrhéō Verb thar-hreh'-o another form for (2293) another form for ; to exercise courage:--be bold, ? boldly, have confidence, be confident. Compare . to be of good courage, be of good cheer to be bold

2Cor 5:6

2Cor 5:6 - knowing - eídō Verb i'-do a root word a primary verb; used only in certain past tenses, the others being borrowed from the equivalent and ; properly, to see (literally or figuratively); by implication, (in the perfect tense only) to know:--be aware, behold, ? can (+ not tell), consider, (have) know(-ledge), look (on), perceive, see, be sure, tell, understand, wish, wot. Compare . to see to perceive with the eyes to perceive by any of the senses to perceive, notice, discern, discover to see i.e. to turn the eyes, the mind, the attention to anything to pay attention, observe to see about something 1d i.e. to ascertain what must be done about it to inspect, examine to look at, behold to experience any state or condition to see i.e. have an interview with, to visit to know to know of anything to know, i.e. get knowledge of, understand, perceive of any fact the force and meaning of something which has definite meaning to know how, to be skilled in to have regard for one, cherish, pay attention to (1Th. 5:

2Cor 5:6

2Cor 5:6 - that - hóti Conjunction hot'-ee neuter of (3748) as conjunction neuter of as conjunction; demonstrative, that (sometimes redundant); causative, because:--as concerning that, as though, because (that), for (that), how (that), (in) that, though, why. that, because, since

2Cor 5:6

2Cor 5:6 - whilst we are at home in the body we are absent from the LORD - While we are here in our mortal state, we are absent from the LORD, in His immediate presence. When this mortal shall put on immortality at Jesus' 2nd Coming, then forever we will be with Him and will see Him face to face for we shall be as He is, in physical form and character. See 1Thess 4:15-18; 1Cor 15:50-55; 1Jo 3:2

2Cor 5:6

2Cor 5:6 - at home - endēmēō Verb en-day-meh'-o from a compound of (1722) and (1218) from a compound of and ; to be in one's own country, i.e. home (figuratively):--be at home (present). to be among one's own people, dwell in one's own country, stay at home

2Cor 5:6

2Cor 5:6 - body - sōma Noun Neuter so'-mah from (4982) from ; the body (as a sound whole), used in a very wide application, literally or figuratively:--bodily, body, slave. the body both of men or animals a dead body or corpse the living body of animals the bodies of planets and of stars (heavenly bodies) is used of a (large or small) number of men closely united into one society, or family as it were; a social, ethical, mystical body so in the NT of the church that which casts a shadow as distinguished from the shadow itself

2Cor 5:6

2Cor 5:6 - absent - ekdēmēō Verb ek-day-meh'-o from a compound of (1537) and (1218) from a compound of and ; to emigrate, i.e. (figuratively) vacate or quit:--be absent. to go abroad emigrate, depart to be or live abroad

2Cor 5:7

2Cor 5:7 - For we walk by faith, not by sight - while living in these mortal bodies that are visibly growing old and perishing, we live by faith of Jesus Christ, believing in God's promise to give us a glorified, eternal body at that day. See 2Cor 5:1,2; 1Cor 15:51-56; Heb 11:1

2Cor 5:8

2Cor 5:8 - We are confident - our confidence is in the blessed hope, and glorious appearing of Jesus Christ, Who will give us a glorified body. Titus 2:13

2Cor 5:8

2Cor 5:8 - I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord - here is an example of a saying of Paul that is "hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other Scriptures, unto their own destruction" (2Peter 3:15, 16). Paul makes it plain that he does not want to be "unclothed" or dead (v4), but rather to shed the mortal body (earthly house), be clothed in immortality (1Cor 15:51-57) and to be present with God at that day. See 1Cor 5:3; 2Tim 4:6-8

2Cor 5:8

2Cor 5:8 - and to be present with the Lord -

2Cor 5:9

2Cor 5:9 - Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of Him - we want to be found in God's will, whether in this earthly house or when given our immortal bodies at that day - See 2Tim 2:15, 21, 4:5; Philippians 2:12, 13

2Cor 5:10

2Cor 5:10 - For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ - See Dan 7:8, 9, 13, 14; Jer 9:25; Eccl 3:17; Act 10:42; Rom 14:10

2Cor 5:10

2Cor 5:10 - every one may receive the things done in the body - See Rev 22:12; 1Pet 1:16, 17

2Cor 5:11

2Cor 5:11 - Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord - Just as we are to fear and reverence God, we must also fear to offend the One Who gave His beloved Son for the sins of the world, lest we cast His precious spilt blood away as a profane thing. See Heb 2:3, 10:31; Rev 14:7; Mt 10:28; 1Pet 4:17, 18

2Cor 5:11

2Cor 5:11 - we persuade men - See Col 1:28

2Cor 5:12

2Cor 5:12 - but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart - that the Corinthians may commend/boast/advocate for the apostles based, not appearances, but in the effectual power of God working mightily in them and through them - See Col 1:29; 1Cor 2:3, 4

2Cor 5:12

2Cor 5:12 - that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart - See Joh 7:24

2Cor 5:13

2Cor 5:13 - For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause - See Act 26:24

2Cor 5:14

2Cor 5:14 - For the love of Christ constraineth us - Those who feel the constraining love of God, do not ask how little may be given to meet the requirements of God; they do not ask for the lowest standard, but aim at perfect conformity to the will of their Redeemer. With earnest desire they yield all and manifest an interest proportionate to the value of the object which they seek. A profession of Christ without this deep love is mere talk, dry formality, and heavy drudgery. - {SC 44.2}

2Cor 5:14

2Cor 5:14 - because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: - we were all dead in trespasses and sins and for this cause, Jesus came and died for the ungodly. See Heb 2:9; Rom 5:18

2Cor 5:14

2Cor 5:14 - then were all dead - then were all dead in trespasses and sins. See Eph 2:1-3; Rom 3:23

2Cor 5:15

2Cor 5:15 - that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again - See Gal 2:20, 6:8; Rom 6:1-13;

2Cor 5:16

2Cor 5:16 - henceforth know we no man after the flesh - we are not to see one another in our former way of life, in the flesh, but we are to acknowledge one another as new creatures in Christ Jesus that walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit. See Rom 8:1-4; Isa 43:18

2Cor 5:16

2Cor 5:16 - though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more - Jesus is a life giving Spirit Who has quickened us to eternal life (Eph 2:1). He will return and we will see Him apart from the sinful nature He once bore to win our salvation, but with the glorified body that was His own from eternity past and for all eternity. See Mt 16:28; 1Cor 15:45; Heb 9:28; Joh 17:5

2Cor 5:17

2Cor 5:17 - Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new - The active power in Creation is seen in Redemption. It is our past that often keeps us trapped, incapable of moving forward. In Christ I have a new past where Jesus has "cut and pasted" His righteous life into the record of my wretched life so that I am "Covered with His Life". See Rom 6:1-14; Ps 51:10; Col 1:14, 16, ,17; Eph 2:8-10; Lk 1:35; 1Sam 10:6 "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." 2 Corinthians 5:17. Through the power of Christ, men and women have broken the chains of sinful habit. They have renounced selfishness. The profane have become reverent, the drunken sober, the profligate pure. Souls that have borne the likeness of Satan have become transformed into the image of God. This change is in itself the miracle of miracles. A change wrought by the Word, it is one of the deepest mysteries of the Word. We cannot understand it; we can only believe, as declared by the Scriptures, it is "Christ in you, the hope of glory." - {AA 476.1} The birth of a son to Zacharias, like the birth of the child of Abraham, and that of Mary, was to teach a great spiritual truth, a truth that we are slow to learn and ready to forget. In ourselves we are incapable of doing any good thing; but that which we cannot do will be wrought by the power of God in every submissive and believing soul. It was through faith that the child of promise was given. It is through faith that spiritual life is begotten, and we are enabled to do the works of righteousness. - {DA 98.3}

2Cor 5:17

2Cor 5:17 - he is a new creature - He is born again, a new creation - See Gal 6:15; Ps 33:6

2Cor 5:17

2Cor 5:17 - behold, all things are become new - See Joh 9:25; Mark 5:15; Lk 19:8, 9

2Cor 5:18

2Cor 5:18 - And all things are of God - all power, honor, authority, majesty, praise, glory, love, might, strength, virtue, peace, etc... God is the God of all graces, Who has reconciled us unto Himself. We are reconciled to God by, Christ, for Christ, in Christ and through God so all praise must be given too Christ.

2Cor 5:18

2Cor 5:18 - who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ - Jesus upheld and satisfied the righteous requirements of the law through His death, and makes atonement mankind and God through His Mediatorial life - See Eph 1:5, 2:14, 15; Joh 14:6; Joh 14:31||12:50; Rom 8:1-4, 5:10

2Cor 5:18

2Cor 5:18 - and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation - We are all called to minister the grace extended to us by Christ, to others. The whole world was gathered into the embrace of Christ. He died on the cross to destroy him who had the power of death and to take away the sin of every believing soul. He calls upon us to offer ourselves on the altar of service, a living, consuming sacrifice. We are to make an unreserved consecration to God of all that we have and are. - {HP 33.5}

2Cor 5:19

2Cor 5:19 - God was in Christ - Just as God sees and credits us with Jesus' good works when we are in Christ (Heb 7:9, 10; Mt 3:17), so too, God was in Christ, drawing the world unto Himself in love. God first woos us by His Spirit to reason together (Isa 1:18). He then meets us in Christ, at the "Welcome Table", bearing grace, mercy, and forgiveness. We too are to come to the "Welcome Table" in Christ, with a contrite heart and repentance. It is in Christ, that this reconciliation is made. See Joh 10:38, 14:10, 11, 17:21

2Cor 5:19

2Cor 5:19 - reconciling - Bringing into favor and friendship after variance. Bringing to contentment or satisfaction; showing to be consistent; adjusting; making to agree. See Dan 9:24; Heb 2:17 In the apostasy, man alienated himself from God; earth was cut off from heaven. Across the gulf that lay between, there could be no communion. But through Christ, earth is again linked with heaven. With His own merits, Christ has bridged the gulf which sin had made, so that the ministering angels can hold communion with man. Christ connects fallen man in his weakness and helplessness with the Source of infinite power. - {SC 20.1}, See James 1:17

2Cor 5:19

2Cor 5:19 - reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them - "The Father Himself loveth you" (John 16:27), and Jesus is our Peace, who makes reconciliation between God and mankind, abolishing the enmity that was in us, by Himself. See Isa 49:5; Joh 6:44; Eph 2:15; Rom 5:10, 18, 3:24; 2Cor 5:19; Heb 2:9; 1Jo 2:2

2Cor 5:19

2Cor 5:19 - not imputing their trespasses unto them - See Ps 32:2; Rom 4:6-8

2Cor 5:19

2Cor 5:19 - hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation - See Act 20:32

2Cor 5:20

2Cor 5:20 - Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God - See Isa 44:22; Jer 31:3 Ambassadors of Christ in the world: Lk 12:14 - "who made Me a judge or a divider over you?" Joh 20:21 - "... As the Father has sent me, so send I you" Joh 17:14, 15, 18 - We are not of the world but sent into the world 1Jo 4:17 - As Christ is, so are we in the world Philipians 3:20 - our conversation is in heaven [conversation= life/lifestyle: see Ps 37:14, 50:23; Gal 1:13; Eph 2:3, 4:22; Jam 3:13] Heb 11:8-10 - Abraham, the father of the faithful gave us an example of being a citizen of the Kingdom of God

2Cor 5:20

2Cor 5:20 - as though God did beseech you by us - Christ in me is what is preaching the ministry of reconciliation.

2Cor 5:20

2Cor 5:20 - be ye reconciled to God - reconciliation involves: 1. Accepting by faith the merits of Jesus Christ through His shed blood for our forgiveness and redemption. Jesus bids us: "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest." (Mt 11:28; Lev 6:30; Col 1:20; Eph 2:16) 2. Repentance (see 2Cor 7:9-11; Rom 2:4; Act 11:18; 20:21; Jer 31:18-20)

2Cor 5:21

2Cor 5:21 - he hath made Him to be sin for us, who knew no sin - Jesus Himself never experienced sin. Jesus became part of the human race without partaking or indulging in the human races' problem of sin. Yet, God placed the sins of the world upon Him so that He might bear them to the cross in order to save the world. See Deut 21:21-23; Gal 3:13; Heb 2:9; 1Jo 2:2; Mt 27:26; Num 21:6-9; Joh 3:14; 12:32-34 But God suffered with His Son. Angels beheld the Saviour's agony. They saw their Lord enclosed by legions of satanic forces, His nature weighed down with a shuddering, mysterious dread. There was silence in heaven. No harp was touched. Could mortals have viewed the amazement of the angelic host as in silent grief they watched the Father separating His beams of light, love, and glory from His beloved Son, they would better understand how offensive in His sight is sin. - {DA 693.2}

2Cor 5:21

2Cor 5:21 - we might be made the righteousness of God in him - we may become righteous as God is righteous through Jesus Christ. If Jesus says I am clean, who can condemn me? Who am I to declare/condemn myself of sin? See Jer 23:5, 6; 2Pet 1:1-3; Gal 2:21; Rom 4:5, 8:29; Eph 2:10; Mt 1:21 But Jesus bade His followers take up the cross and bear it after Him. To the disciples His words, though dimly comprehended, pointed to their submission to the most bitter humiliation,—submission even unto death for the sake of Christ. No more complete self-surrender could the Saviour's words have pictured. But all this He had accepted for them. Jesus did not count heaven a place to be desired while we were lost. He left the heavenly courts for a life of reproach and insult, and a death of shame. He who was rich in heaven's priceless treasure, became poor, that through His poverty we might be rich.

We are to follow in the path He trod. - {DA 416.3}

2Cor 5:21

2Cor 5:21 - that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him - See Gal 3:14; Rom 8:4, 12:1, 2; Jer 23:6

2Cor 6:1

2Cor 6:1 - beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain - See 1Cor 15:10; Gal 2:21

2Cor 6:2

2Cor 6:2 - I have heard thee in a time accepted - See Isa 49:8

2Cor 6:2

2Cor 6:2 - succored - assistance and support in times of hardship and distress. See Heb 2:18

2Cor 6:2

2Cor 6:2 - behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation - Isa 49:8; Ps 32:6

2Cor 6:3

2Cor 6:3 - that the ministry be not blamed - the highest priority of the Christian is to lift up the name of Jesus and ensure no offense is made to the cause of Christ - to be jealous for God and His cause as Elijah. See 1Kin 19:10; Gal 2:24

2Cor 6:5

2Cor 6:5 - In stripes - we are to prove ourselves Christians even in unjust, undeserved beatings. See Isa 53:7

2Cor 6:5

2Cor 6:5 - in imprisonments - the ministers of God may suffer unjust, unlawful imprisonments and yet we must prove ourselves true to Christ and above reproach. See Dan 6:16-22

2Cor 6:5

2Cor 6:5 - in tumults - in riotings and social disorder, we are to prove ourselves orderly and followers of Christ.

2Cor 6:5

2Cor 6:5 - in watchings - in delays of things expected

2Cor 6:5

2Cor 6:5 - in fastings - whether fasting by choice or due to a lack, we are to prove ourselves followers of Jesus Christ.

2Cor 6:6

2Cor 6:6 - By pureness - we are to prove ourselves servants of God through our purity - cleanliness in thought, motive and action

2Cor 6:6

2Cor 6:6 - by knowledge - we are to study to show ourselves approved unto God, but are to do the work of an evangelist and be instant in season and out of season to give a word for the hope that lies within us. See 2Tim 2:15, 4:2, 5; 1Pet 3:15

2Cor 6:6

2Cor 6:6 - love unfeigned - sincere love, without dissimulation and dissembling. See Rom 12:9

2Cor 6:7

2Cor 6:7 - by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left - Eph 6:11-18

2Cor 6:10

2Cor 6:10 - As sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing - See Act 16:22-25

2Cor 6:10

2Cor 6:10 - alway rejoicing - See Phil 4:4

2Cor 6:10

2Cor 6:10 - as having nothing, and yet possessing all things - the poor of this world are rich in faith, knowing their heavenly Father, Who owns the cattle on a thousand hills, as well as the hills themselves, will supply all their needs according to His riches in glory. The faithful have received all spiritual gifts in Christ Jesus. See Jam 2:5; Ps 50:10; Phil 4:19; Eph 1:3

2Cor 6:14

2Cor 6:14 - Be ye not unequally yoked with unbelievers - The command is given not to engage in any binding agreement or relationship with those who are not of like mind (Am 3:3). The command is given with regards to marriage, but also applies with close business partnerships and other arrangements where our faith and moral convictions will be challenged through the commitments made. Further, an unbeliever may go beyond one who does not accept or profess Christ, but may include all who are not of a common faith. Unless we are unified and sanctified by the truth (doctrine) and love, we walk not together. See Joh 17:17; Phil 2:2; 1Pet 3:8; 1Kin 11:2

2Cor 6:14

2Cor 6:14 - what communion hath light with darkness? - See Joh 3:19-21; 1Thess 5:4-10

2Cor 6:15

2Cor 6:15 - infidel - See Ps 14:1

2Cor 6:16

2Cor 6:16 - And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? - See Eze 8:3; 2Kin 23:24

2Cor 6:16

2Cor 6:16 - ye are the temple of the living God - the number 46 prophetically symbolizes God's temple (Joh 2:26; Dan 9:). The human body is comprised of 46 chromosomes. See also 1Pet 2:2-5; 1Cor 6:19

2Cor 6:16

2Cor 6:16 - I will dwell in them, and walk in them, and I will be their God and they shall be my people - See Lev 26:11, 12; Eze 37:27; Jer 31:33; Gal 2:20; Rev 21:3;

2Cor 6:17

2Cor 6:17 - Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate - See Num 23:9; Isa 52:11; Rev 18:1-4

2Cor 6:17

2Cor 6:17 - I will receive you - we are accepted in the Beloved, Jesus Christ. See Eph 1:6

2Cor 6:18

2Cor 6:18 - And will be a Father unto you - See Mt 5:

2Cor 6:18

2Cor 6:18 - and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty - See Joh 1:12

2Cor 7:1

2Cor 7:1 - Having therefore these promises: 1. God will dwell in us and walk in us - 2Cor 6:16; Gal 2:20; Eph 1:13, 14; Lk 11:13 2. God will be our God and we His people - 2Cor 6:16; Ex 19:5, 6; Jer 31:33; Rev 21:3 3. God will be a Father to us and we His children - 2Cor 6:17; Mt 7:11; Rom 8:16; Rev 21:7 4. God will "receive" (accept) us - 2Cor 6:18; Eph 1:6 5. We were chosen in Christ before the foundation of the world - Eph 1:3 6. We are predestined to be adopted as children of God 7. We are accepted of God in the Beloved - Eph 1:5

2Cor 7:1

2Cor 7:1 - let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God - See Eph 4:11-13; Eph 4:12, 13; Mt 5:45; Col 3:5

2Cor 7:1

2Cor 7:1 - perfecting holiness in the fear of God - Holiness is constant agreement with God. Shall we not be that which Christ so greatly desires us to be,—Christians in deed and in truth,—that the world may see in our lives a revelation of the saving power of truth? This world is our preparatory school, and while here we shall meet with trials and difficulties. But we are safe while we cleave to Christ. The whole world was gathered in his embrace. He died on the cross to give the death-stroke to Satan, and to take away the sin of every believing soul. He calls upon us to offer ourselves on the altar of service, a living, consuming sacrifice. We are to make an unreserved consecration to God of all that we have and are. - {SW June 11, 1903 Par. 7}

2Cor 7:2

2Cor 7:2 - Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man. See 2Cor 1:12

2Cor 7:3

2Cor 7:3 - I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you - See 2Cor 6:

2Cor 7:5

2Cor 7:5 - For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears - persecutions faced by Paul and the other apostles caused anguish of spirit and fear for life. This is to compare with the Time of Trouble the remnant will face. See 2Cor 1:8-10; 1Cor 2:3

2Cor 7:6

2Cor 7:6 - Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus - See Joh 14:16, 17; 2Cor 1:3, 4, 7, 2:13

2Cor 7:9

2Cor 7:9 - Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing - See Rom 2:4, 5;

2Cor 7:10

2Cor 7:10 - for godly sorrow worketh repentance unto salvation - Godly sorrow which is borne of God (Ezek 33:15; Rom 2:4, 5; 2Pet 3:9; Act 5:31; 1Jo 1:10||Mk 3:29) and as seen in the life experience of David, recorded in Ps 51, is comprised of: 1. A plea for mercy 2. A sincere desire to be made clean from the stain of sin and its guilt 3. An acknowledgment of sin and one's own waywardness 4. A confession of sin and one's guilt 5. A petition for: a. Forgiveness b. Cleansing c. Acceptance d. Restoration (of joy) e. Strength to avoid the sin again f. Deliverance from lingering guilt

2Cor 7:10

2Cor 7:10 - not to be repented of - there is no regret in godly sorrow. This sorrow is born of the Holy Spirit's conviction of sin, righteousness and judgment.

2Cor 7:10

2Cor 7:10 - sorrow of the world worketh death - This is regret for having been exposed, caught, or found out in one's sin. This is not true repentance - a desire to turn and do the right thing. See Heb 12:16, 17

2Cor 7:11

2Cor 7:11 - For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter - See Rom 2:4, 5 Having brought conviction of sin, and presented before the mind the standard of righteousness, the Holy Spirit withdraws the affections from the things of this earth and fills the soul with a desire for holiness. "He will guide you into all truth" (Joh 16:13), the Saviour declared. If men are willing to be molded, there will be brought about a sanctification of the whole being. The Spirit will take the things of God and stamp them on the soul. By His power the way of life will be made so plain that none need err therein. - {AA 52.5}

2Cor 7:11 - what carefulness - when convicted of our sinfulness and we truly repent, we will be careful to avoid those things which cause us to sin again. We will also seek to redress or make right any wrongs or offenses committed.

2Cor 7:11

2Cor 7:11 - what clearing of yourselves - we seek to clear and cleans ourselves of the sin and the things which causes us to sin. We desire to maintain a clear conscience as it relates to the transgression. Therefore, we give apology and make restitution where necessary or possible and clear ourselves of any further associations that would bring us once again under condemnation.

2Cor 7:11

2Cor 7:11 - what indignation - we bear a hatred and contempt for the sin and that which provoked us to commit it.

2Cor 7:11

2Cor 7:11 - what fear - we fear Him who can destroy both body and soul in hell (Mt 10:28). See Ps 51:7-12

2Cor 7:11

2Cor 7:11 - what vehement desire - we bear a desire to live a godly life in the present age. We recognize our sins and zealously desired to be clothed in Christ's righteousness. See Rev 3:19

2Cor 7:11

2Cor 7:11 - what zeal - we have a zeal to do the right, to be conformed to Christ's image and to counsel others to do the same. See Ezr 7:10; Ps 51:12, 13; Rev 3:19

2Cor 7:11

2Cor 7:11 - what revenge - our desire is to wage war against the enemy of souls and to see his kingdom fall. We no longer want to be a slave or captive to his deceptive works.

2Cor 7:11

2Cor 7:11 - in all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter - the above are the fruit of true repentance by which we can stand blameless before the LORD.

2Cor 7:12

2Cor 7:12 - Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you - See 2Cor 2:4-10

2Cor 7:15

2Cor 7:15 - how with fear and trembling ye received him - See Philippians 2:12, 13

2Cor 7:16

2Cor 7:16 - I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things - Paul delights in that the Corinthians heeded his letter of reproof and it brought about fruit of repentance and reformation. He also delights in that their repentance was made manifest by Tit, who too delights in their reformation.

2Cor 8:1

2Cor 8:1 - we do you to wit of the grace of God - "we desire that you witness the grace of God". Paul is here striving to stir up godly jealousy among the Corinthian church by extolling the generosity of the impoverished church of Macedonia in their generous contributions to the saints in Judea. By highlighting the Macedonian's liberality, Paul hopes to stir the same spirit of generosity in the Corinthians. See 2Cor 9:2

2Cor 8:2

2Cor 8:2 - abounded unto the riches of their liberality - a people, though poor in the world's goods but rich in faith, gave liberally of the little that they had... praying that Paul take of their gifts to the furthering of the gospel and the ministering to the saints (2Cor 8:4). See Phlm 1:21

2Cor 8:4

2Cor 8:4 - Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints - The Macedonian churches desired that Paul and his co-laborers take willingly the offerings and gifts collected for the support and furtherance of the gospel. See 2Cor 1:11

2Cor 8:5

2Cor 8:5 - but first gave their own selves to the LORD - the mark of true discipleship, stewardship and godly generosity begins with a humble surrender to the LORD of self. When Christ rules in the heart, we willingly render service, no matter the cost - Gal 2:20; Mt 11:28-30; Rom 12:1, 2

2Cor 8:6

2Cor 8:6 - Insomuch that we desired Tit, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also - Paul here appeals to the Corinthians that they would like the Macedonians, first give themselves to Christ and then express their liberality to the workers through Tit. See 2Cor 8:1

2Cor 8:7

2Cor 8:7 - see that ye abound in this grace also - Paul counsels that as the Corinthians excel in the graces of faith, utterance, knowledge, diligence and love, that they fail not to also excel, as the Macedonians excelled, in Christian generosity.

2Cor 8:8

2Cor 8:8 - I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others - Paul is not giving the Corinthian church a command to be generous, but he is asking them to consider the willing cheerfulness shown by the churches of Macedonia as an example.

2Cor 8:8

2Cor 8:8 - forwardness - Cheerful readiness; promptness. It expresses more than willingness. (ex. We admire the forwardness of christians in propagating the gospel)

2Cor 8:8

2Cor 8:8 - to prove the sincerity of your love - as Jam states, faith without works is dead. Further, he asserts that if we see a brother in need and do nothing to assist, we do not have love. Jam 2:14-18

2Cor 8:9

2Cor 8:9 - For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich - Jesus emptied Himself of all but love that we might abound in His riches. Mt 27:26; Joh 3:16; Ps 118:23; Mt 21:42, Mk 12:11; Hymn #198 - And Can it Be?

2Cor 8:9

2Cor 8:9 - that ye through His poverty might be rich - Christ relinquished many things so that we may be partakers of that which we had no part in. 1. He was stripped naked so that we may be clothed in His righteousness 2. He was bruised so that we may be healed 3. He gave up His peace while on the cross so we may have peace when bearing our cross (Isa 53:5) 4. He carried our grief and sorrow so that we may have His joy 5. He was despised and rejected so that we might be accepted in the Father (Isa 53:3; Eph 1:6) 6. He bore our reproach so that we may be highly esteemed by the worlds 7. He was debased so that we may be lifted up, an ensign of His glory

2Cor 8:10

2Cor 8:10 - but also to be forward a year ago - See 2Cor 9:2

2Cor 8:10

2Cor 8:10 - forward - cheerful willingness

2Cor 8:11

2Cor 8:11 - Now therefore perform the doing of it - Paul appeals to the Corinthian church's conscience and desire to do good so that they act upon the good intentions of supporting the saints in need/want in Jua. He does not purpose to put any additional burden on them, but in the spirit of Christian love, they support those who are in want through their abundance, who in time may have opportunity to do the same for them in their time of need. See 1Cor 16:1-3; Act 11:28

2Cor 8:11

2Cor 8:11 - that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have - As we submit ourselves to the Lord, He works in us both to will and to do of His good pleasure - See Philippians 2:12, 13

2Cor 8:14

2Cor 8:14 - But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality: - the Lord has, not by commandment, but from an appeal to our conscience, to be selfless and to give according to our ability and the needs of others so that in time, the same may be reciprocated to us.

2Cor 8:15

2Cor 8:15 - As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack - Speaking of God's generosity in providing manna daily for the COI. See Ex 16:18; Act 2:44, 45, 4:34

2Cor 8:16

2Cor 8:16 - Tit - See 2Cor 8:23

2Cor 8:17

2Cor 8:17 - forward - cheerfully willing

2Cor 8:18

2Cor 8:18 - And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches - perhaps Titus' own brother, but one who is proven and grounded in the faith.

2Cor 8:23

2Cor 8:23 - Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ - Paul is admonishing the Corinthians to accept Titus as himself, a messenger and minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

2Cor 9:2

2Cor 9:2 - forwardness - cheerful willingness

2Cor 9:2

2Cor 9:2 - that Achaia was ready a year ago - See 2Cor 8:10, 12

2Cor 9:3

2Cor 9:3 - Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready: - Paul is writing to the church in Corinth ahead of his arrival so that they might make preparation in the collection for the saints beforehand. See 1Cor 16:1-3; 2Cor 9:5

2Cor 9:4

2Cor 9:4 - Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared - 1Cor

16:1-3

2Cor 9:5

2Cor 9:5 - whereof ye had notice before - Paul is sending notice before he and certain saints from Macedonia appear that the church in Corinth may make preparation and appear equally generous to those of Macedonia as the Macedonians were to them and others in need - See 1Cor 16:1-3

2Cor 9:5

2Cor 9:5 - as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness - that those who store up will do it cheerfully and abundantly unto God's praise and contrary to covetousness (selfishness and idolatry).

2Cor 9:6

2Cor 9:6 - he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully - See Eccl 11:1

2Cor 9:7

2Cor 9:7 - Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly - See 2Cor 8:12

2Cor 9:7

2Cor 9:8 - or of necessity - a guilty feeling, compelling one to an act.

2Cor 9:7

2Cor 9:7 - for God loveth a cheerful giver - See Ps 100:2; Isa 32:8 God declares, "Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters." Isa 32:20. A continual imparting of God's gifts wherever the cause of God or the needs of humanity demand our aid, does not tend to poverty. "There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty." Proverbs 11:24. The sower multiplies his seed by casting it away. So it is with those who are faithful in distributing God's gifts. By imparting they increase their blessings. "Give, and it shall be given unto you," God has promised; "good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom." Lk 6:38. - {AA 345.1} God's Remedy for Selfishness and Covetousness—The giving that is the fruit of self-denial is a wonderful help to the giver. It imparts an education that enables us more fully to comprehend the work of Him who went about doing good, relieving the suffering, and supplying the needs of the destitute. [11] - {AH 370.3} Constant, self-denying benevolence is God's remedy for the cankering sins of selfishness and covetousness. God has arranged systematic benevolence to sustain His cause and relieve the necessities of the suffering and needy.

2Cor 9:8

2Cor 9:8 - that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things - See Phil 4:19

2Cor 9:9

2Cor 9:9 - He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth forever - See Ps 112:9

2Cor 9:10

2Cor 9:10 - He that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food - See Isa 55:10, 11

2Cor 9:10

2Cor 9:12 - and increase the fruits of your righteousness - See Gal 5:22, 23

2Cor 9:12

2Cor 9:12 - For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God - the financial blessings not only satisfy the physical needs of the saints but allows their love and gratitude to grow through thanksgiving to God. Our generosity has dual blessings of meeting physical and spiritual needs. See 2Cor 9:13

2Cor 9:13

2Cor 9:13 - Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men - the Macedonians and needy Christians will glorify God for the generosity of the Corinthians towards the cause of God and the saints' needs

2Cor 9:14

2Cor 9:14 - And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you - the prayers of the saints provide blessings that continue long after you - unto eternal life. See Ps 112:6

2Cor 9:15

2Cor 9:15 - Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift - the gift of eternal life through the incomparable sacrifice of His Son, Jesus Christ.

2Cor 10:1

2Cor 10:1 - who in presence am base among you - Paul was not of an imposing posture but perhaps short of stature, presenting seemingly little threat. See 2Cor 10:10

2Cor 10:2

2Cor 10:2 - wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh - Paul refers to those of a carnal mind who see things with outward appearance and presume Paul and the apostles present no real physical threat. They however, are unaware that the weapons of their warfare are not carnal but mighty in Christ. See 2Cor 10:4, 5, 12

2Cor 10:3

2Cor 10:3 - For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh - though we are alive in the flesh, our lives are hid in Christ who dwells within us. Therefore, the weapons of our warfare are mighty in Christ, Who abides within us for pulling down spiritual powers, strongholds and principalities. Rom 8:9, 10; Col 3:3, 4; Eph 6:12; Gal 2:20

2Cor 10:4

2Cor 10:4 - For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal - See Eph 6:10-18 - here in this verse a commonly taught error by well intentioned ministers is exposed. The common and almost intuitive thought that we must understand all the trappings of the enemy is a falsehood of the enemy, designed to distract and take our focus from Christ and His arms of protection. In earthly warfare it is advantageous to know the enemy's position and tactics for battle. Without such knowledge an army is prey to unsuspected ambush by their foes. However, our methods are different with spiritual warfare. It is true we must become familiar with the enemy and his methods, however, to seek an expertise in his deceptive and changing tactics is an impossibility for mortals. Rather, we are counseled to put on God's armor and equip ourselves with the gift of God's abiding presence and power to subdue the enemy and his attacks. Consider how the Lord equipped His people for battling the following earthly conflicts: 1. David - 1Sam 23:4, 30:8; *2Sam 5:18-25 2. Moses and Joshua - Ex 17:9-16 3. Joshua - Joshua 6:1-5 4. Gideon - Judges 7:1-7 5. Elisha - *2Kin 6:9-23 6. Jehoshaphat - *2Chron 20:15-24 7. Hezekiah - 2Kin 19:32-35 As can be seen through these carnal conflicts, the Lord provided intelligence, strategy, and even fought the battles entirely for His people. The same cooperation and reliance upon God is essential in the spiritual conflicts we fight against principalities and powers and the rulers of darkness in this world. We are not to focus on the enemy's tactics, but to ensure we are grounded in the Lord and abide under the shadow of the Almighty. The more we concentrate on the strength and tactics of the enemy, the less we perceive the abounding grace and power available to us through Christ (Mt 14:30, 31). The devil delights in this as if we are paying him homage. His self-centeredness sees the attention we lend him as worship. There are Christians who think and speak altogether too much about the power of Satan. They think of their adversary, they pray about him, they talk about him, and he looms up greater and greater in their imagination. It is true that Satan is a powerful being; but, thank God, we have a mighty Saviour, who cast out the evil one from heaven. Satan is pleased when we magnify his power. Why not talk of Jesus? Why not magnify His power and His love? - {DA 493.1}

2Cor 10:4

2Cor 10:4 - but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds - Eph 6:10; Isa 59:19; Gal 2:20 Let the soul be drawn out and upward, that God may grant us a breath of the heavenly atmosphere. We may keep so near to God that in every unexpected trial our thoughts will turn to Him as naturally as the flower turns to the sun. - {Pr 10.4}

2Cor 10:4

2Cor 10:4 - pulling down of strong holds - the enemy's fortresses he has established within men. Jesus, the Stronger Man has bound Satan and spoiled his strong holds. See Lk 11:21, 22; Mk 9:17-27; Philippians 3:20, 21; Eph 6:12; Col 2:15; Rom 8:15 Satan's Most Destructive Device: Satan gathered the fallen angels together to devise some way of doing the most possible evil to the human family. One proposition after another was made, till finally Satan himself thought of a plan. He would take the fruit of the vine, also wheat, and other things given by God as food, and would convert them into poisons, which would ruin man's physical, mental, and moral powers, and so overcome the senses that Satan should have full control. Under the influence of liquor, men would be led to commit crimes of all kinds. Through perverted appetite the world would be made corrupt. By leading men to drink alcohol, Satan would cause them to descend lower and lower in the scale. [136] - {CCh 101.5} Satan is taking the world captive through the use of liquor and tobacco, tea and coffee. The God-given mind, which should be kept clear, is perverted by the use of narcotics. The brain is no longer able to distinguish correctly. The enemy has control. Man has sold his reason for that which makes him mad. He has no sense of what is right. [137] - {CCh 101.6} Our Creator has bestowed His bounties upon man with a liberal hand. Were all these gifts of Providence wisely and temperately employed, poverty, sickness, and distress would be well-nigh banished from the earth. But alas, we see on every hand the blessings of God changed to a curse by the wickedness of men. - {CCh 102.1} There is no class guilty of greater perversion and abuse of His precious gifts than are those who employ the products of the soil in the manufacture of intoxicating liquors. The nutritive grains, the healthful, delicious fruits, are converted into beverages that pervert the senses and madden the brain. As a result of the use of these poisons, thousands of families are deprived of the comforts and even the necessities of life, acts of violence and crime are multiplied, and disease and death hurry myriads of victims to a drunkard's grave. [138] - {CCh 102.2}

2Cor 10:5 - Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ - Under the seal of God, we will have a fixed mind, under the complete control of the Holy Spirit such that we will not turn again to sin (Ps 19:14). The same can be said of those under the Mark of the Beast. Their consciences are seared so that they will not respond to the Holy Spirit and the thoughts of their minds will be on evil continually. Compare Gen 6:5; 1Tim 4:1, 2; Prov 16:3; Rev 11:22; James 3:15, 16; 2Thess 2:3-12 Through yielding to sin, man placed his will under the control of Satan. He became a helpless captive in the tempter's power. God sent His Son into our world to break the power of Satan, and to emancipate the will of man. He sent Him to proclaim liberty to the captives, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free. By pouring the whole treasury of heaven into this world, by giving us in Christ all heaven, God has purchased the will, the affections, the mind, the soul, of every human being. When man places himself under the control of God, the will becomes firm and strong to do right, the heart is cleansed from selfishness, and filled with Christlike love. The mind yields to the authority of the law of love, and every thought is brought into captivity to the obedience of Christ. - {OHC 104.3} It is the special work of Satan in these last days to take possession of the minds of youth, to corrupt their thoughts, and inflame their passions, knowing that by thus doing he can lead them to moral pollution, and then all the noble faculties of the mind will become debased, and he can control them to suit his own purposes. All are free moral agents. And as such they must bring their thoughts to run in the right channel. Their meditations should be of that nature which will elevate their minds, and make Jesus and heaven the subjects of their thoughts. Here is a wide field in which the mind can safely range. If Satan seeks to divert the mind from this to low and sensual things, bring it back again, and place it on eternal things; and when the Lord sees the determined effort made to retain only pure thoughts, he will attract the mind, like the magnet, and purify the thoughts, and enable them to cleanse themselves from every secret sin. "Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ." The first work for those who would reform, is to purify the imagination. If the mind is led out in a vicious direction, it must be restrained to dwell only upon pure and elevated subjects. When tempted to yield to a corrupt imagination, then flee to the throne of grace and pray for strength from Heaven. In the strength of God the imagination can be restricted to dwell upon things which are pure and heavenly. - {ApM 29.3}

2Cor 10:5

2Cor 10:5 - and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ - The greatest triumph given us by the religion of Christ is control over ourselves. Our natural propensities must be controlled, or we can never overcome as Christ overcame." (Testimonies, vol. 4, p. 235) There are thoughts and feelings suggested and aroused by Satan that annoy even the best of men; but if they are not cherished, if they are repulsed as hateful, the soul is not contaminated with guilt, and no other is defiled by their influence. Oh, that we each might become a savor of life unto life to those around us! - {RH March 27,

1888 Par. 15} Every impure thought defiles the soul, impairs the moral sense, and tends to obliterate the impressions of the Holy Spirit. It dims the spiritual vision, so that men cannot behold God. The Lord may and does forgive the repenting sinner; but though forgiven, the soul is marred. All impurity of speech or of thought must be shunned by him who would have clear discernment of spiritual truth. - {DA 302.2}

2Cor 10:6 - And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled - See 2Cor 7:10, 11

2Cor 10:6

2Cor 10:6 - when your obedience is fulfilled - See Isa 1:19

2Cor 10:7

2Cor 10:7 - Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's - See Joh 7:24

2Cor 10:7

2Cor 10:7 - If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's - 1Cor 14:37; 2Cor 13:5

2Cor 10:8

2Cor 10:8 - For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed: - Paul acknowledges that any and all authority given him and the apostles is for the building up of the Kingdom of God and not to be abused against the saints.

2Cor 10:10

2Cor 10:10 - For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible - those who war against Paul and the apostles in the flesh make such statements. See 2Cor 10:2

2Cor 10:10

2Cor 10:10 - but his bodily presence is weak - See 2Cor 10:1

2Cor 10:12

2Cor 10:12 - but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise - those who are wise in this world, or in their supposed knowledge, are often ignorant of the fundamental principles of God and godliness (justice, mercy, humility). There is a Divine Standard, the man, Christ Jesus, by Whom we are to all measure ourselves (2Cor 10:13). See Gal 6:3; Prov 30:12, 20:6

2Cor 10:15

2Cor 10:15 - Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours - See Joh 4:38; Rom 15:20

2Cor 10:17

2Cor 10:17 - but he that glorieth, let him glory in the LORD - See 1Cor 2:2; Jer 9:23, 24 Avoid Praising Men and Familiarity—I am pained when I see men praised, flattered, and petted. God has revealed the fact that some who receive these attentions are unworthy to take His name into their lips; yet they are exalted to heaven in the estimation of finite man, who reads only from outward appearance. My sisters, never pet and flatter poor, failing, erring men, either young or old, married or unmarried. You know not their weaknesses, and you know not but these very attentions and this profuse praise may prove their ruin. I am alarmed at the shortsightedness, the want of wisdom, that many manifest in respect to this familiarity.... - {Ev 494.4} Married men who accept the attention, the praise and petting, of women, should be assured that the love and sympathy of this class is not worth the obtaining; it is valueless.... - {Ev 495.1} Again I urge upon you the necessity of purity in every thought, in every word, in every action. We have an individual accountability to God, an individual work which no one can do for us. It is to make the world better by precept, personal effort, and example. While we should cultivate sociability, let it not be merely for amusement, but for a purpose. There are souls to save.—The Review and Herald, November 10, 1885. - {Ev 495.2}

2Cor 10:18

2Cor 10:18 - for not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth - See Rom 2:29; Joh 8:18, 54; 2Cor 10:12; Rom 2:29; Prov 25:27

2Cor 11:2

2Cor 11:2 - For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy - The jealousy of God is far unlike human jealousy. Godly jealousy is demonstrated in a keen desire to protect and to preserve for another's good. Wanting the best for another and that they come up short in no thing. See Ex 20:5; 3Jo 1:3, 4; Zech 1:14, 15; Heb 13:17

2Cor 11:2

2Cor 11:2 - for I have espoused you to one husband - Paul as the friend of the Bridegroom, delights to see the Bride presented as a chaste holy virgin to her groom. See Rev Joh 3:29; 19:7-9; Jer 3:14

2Cor 11:2

2Cor 11:2 - that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ - See Rev 14:4; Jude 1:24; Col 1:29

2Cor 11:3

2Cor 11:3 - But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ - See 1Tim 2:14; Act 8:9-11 Paul fears that we should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. The gospel is simple and complete in Jesus Christ. The enemy of souls influences men who seek to make it complicated through rituals, vain teachings and unnecessary rites of passage. See Gal 3:1-4; Rom 2:17-29; 2Cor 4

2Cor 11:3

2Cor 11:3 - so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ - the gospel is simple, Jesus Saves. We must not permit any other doctrine that imposes vain works of men to subvert the simple truth that Jesus Saves, He does it all and we must agree with Him and believe. God will do the work in and through us. Phil 2:13; Gal 1:6-10, 3:1; 1Cor 2:1-5, 1:17, 18

2Cor 11:4

2Cor 11:4 - For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus - See Gal 1:8, 9; 1Cor 3:11 The truths most plainly revealed in the Bible have been involved in doubt and darkness by learned men, who, with a pretense of great wisdom, teach that the Scriptures have a mystical, a secret, spiritual meaning not apparent in the language employed. These men are false teachers. It was to such a class that Jesus declared: "Ye know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God." Mark 12:24. The language of the Bible should be explained according to its obvious meaning, unless a symbol or figure is employed. Christ has given the promise: "If any man will do His will, he shall know of the doctrine." Joh 7:17. If men would but take the Bible as it reads, if there were no false teachers to mislead and confuse their minds, a work would be accomplished that would make angels glad and that would bring into the fold of Christ thousands upon thousands who are now wandering in error.... - {DD 38.4}

2Cor 11:4

2Cor 11:4 - or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received - See Eph 1:13, 14; Act 2:38; Joh 14:16, 17, 15:26, 16:13

2Cor 11:4

2Cor 11:4 - ye might well bear with him - Paul fears the vulnerability of the Corinthians, that they being gullible may be inclined to believe those who boast in themselves and present another Jesus, Holy Spirit and gospel message.

2Cor 11:5

2Cor 11:5 - For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles - Paul is establishing the authority of his teachings, being among the chiefest of apostles of Jesus Christ. See 2Cor 12:11, 12

2Cor 11:6

2Cor 11:6 - But though I be rude in speech - Paul maybe speaking modestly, as he was a great orator and gifted in speech. Nonetheless, he sought not to use brilliance of speech but to proclaim the gospel in simplicity, so that the cross of Christ not be profaned through the wisdom and pride of man. See 1Cor 2:1-5

2Cor 11:6

2Cor 11:6 - yet not in knowledge - though Paul spoke with simplicity of speech in proclaiming the gospel, it was not because he lacked knowledge of the height, depth and breath of the gospel. He was well versed and ever growing in the grace of God and in the power of His might! See Eph 3:14-19

2Cor 11:6

2Cor 11:6 - but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things - See 2Cor 12:12

2Cor 11:8

2Cor 11:8 - I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service - Paul refers to his ministry, that through the support of other churches, he used those resources to minister to the churches of Corinth. See Act 20:33-35

2Cor 11:9

2Cor 11:9 - And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself - Paul refused to become a burden to the Corinthian church, rather suffering want and awaiting aid from the brethren traveling from afar than to impose upon the Corinthian body.

2Cor 11:9

2Cor 11:9 - for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied - See 1Cor 16:17; Phil 4:19

2Cor 11:9

2Cor 11:9 - and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself - See 1Cor 4:11, 12, 9:11-15; 2Cor 12:17

2Cor 11:12

2Cor 11:12 - But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we. - Paul continues to seek to expose the self-exalting false practices of those who boast of being apostles, teachers and leaders among the Corinthian.

2Cor 11:13

2Cor 11:13 - for such are false apostles - they who teach a different gospel, a different Jesus and are controlled by a different spirit are agents of Satan. See 2Cor 11:3, 4; 1Cor 3:11; Gal 1:8, 9; Phil 3:17-19 The truths most plainly revealed in the Bible have been involved in doubt and darkness by learned men, who, with a pretense of great wisdom, teach that the Scriptures have a mystical, a secret, spiritual meaning not apparent in the language employed. These men are false teachers. It was to such a class that Jesus declared: "Ye know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God." Mark 12:24. The language of the Bible should be explained according to its obvious meaning, unless a symbol or figure is employed. Christ has given the promise: "If any man will do His will, he shall know of the doctrine." Joh 7:17. If men would but take the Bible as it reads, if there were no false teachers to mislead and confuse their minds, a work would be accomplished that would make angels glad and that would bring into the fold of Christ thousands upon thousands who are now wandering in error.... - {DD 38.4}

2Cor 11:14

2Cor 11:14 - Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light - See Lk 4:3; Mt 4:3

2Cor 11:14

2Cor 11:14 - transformed into an angel of light - See Act 12:7

2Cor 11:15

2Cor 11:15 - his ministers - Satan's ministers preside over the synagogue of Satan. See Rev 3:9, 10 To those who handle sacred things comes the solemn injunction, "Be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the Lord.” [Isa 52:11.] Of all men, those who have been trusted and honored by the Lord, those who have been given special service to perform, should be circumspect in word and deed. They should be men of devotion, who, by works of righteousness and pure, true words, can lift their fellow-men to a higher level; men who are not unsettled by every passing temptation; men of firm, earnest purpose, whose highest aim is to gather souls to Christ. - {GW 124.1} Satan’s special temptations are directed against the ministry. He knows that ministers are but human, possessing no grace or holiness of their own; that the treasures of the gospel have been placed in earthen vessels, which divine power alone can make vessels unto honor. He knows that God has ordained ministers to be a powerful means for the salvation of souls, and that they can be successful in their work only as they allow the eternal Father to rule their lives. Therefore he tries with all his ingenuity to lead them into sin, knowing that their office makes sin in them more exceeding sinful; for in committing sin, they make themselves ministers of evil. - {GW 124.2}

2Cor 11:15 - transformed as the ministers of righteousness - See Jer 14:14; 27:10; Mk 13:22

2Cor 11:15

2Cor 11:15 - whose end shall be according to their works - See Rev 22:12; Mt 25:31-46; John 5:29; Jude 1:6-8

2Cor 11:16

2Cor 11:16 - yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little - as a fool boasts, Paul indulges momentarily in sharing his credentials and why he should be regarded as much an apostle and more, as any of the false teachers coming in the Corinthian ranks. See 2Cor 11:18

2Cor 11:18

2Cor 11:18 - Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also - Paul takes a moment to show why he is as much and much more an apostle than the self-professed teachers influencing the Corinthians.

2Cor 11:22

2Cor 11:22 - Are they Heb? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. - The false teachers who seek to overturn Paul’s ministry to the Corinthians and establish their own righteousness were Jews who would make complicated that which Jesus Christ has made simple.

2Cor 11:23

2Cor 11:23 - Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft - Paul recognizes that boasting in ourselves is foolish, but to establish the point, he affirms that he is more the apostle of Christ (in stripes, in labors, in deaths, etc.) than all the self-proclaimed apostles seeking to influence the Corinthians.

2Cor 11:24

2Cor 11:24 - forty stripes save one; in total 195 lashes - See Deut 25:3

2Cor 11:25

2Cor 11:25 - Thrice was I beaten with rods - See Act 21:32

2Cor 11:25

2Cor 11:25 - once was I stoned - See Act 14:19

2Cor 11:25

2Cor 11:25 - a night and a day I have been in the deep - See Act 27:41-44

2Cor 11:26

2Cor 11:26 - in perils by mine own countrymen - See Act 21, 22

2Cor 11:27

2Cor 11:27 - in cold and nakedness - See

2Cor 11:28

2Cor 11:28 - Beside those things that are without - despite all those trials of the flesh, the things that trouble him most are his burdens for the church of Christ.

2Cor 11:28

2Cor 11:28 - that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches - notwithstanding the perils and sufferings without, his greatest internal care is for the churches he established and the wellbeing of the saints, that he might present them faultless at Jesus' Second Coming - See Phil 1:3-18

2Cor 11:30

2Cor 11:30 - I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmity - See 2Cor 12:9, 10; 1Cor 2:2

2Cor 11:31

2Cor 11:31 - The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not - Paul calls God as His Witness.

2Cor 11:32

2Cor 11:32 - In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me - Act 9:23-25

2Cor 11:33

2Cor 11:33 - And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands - See Act 9:25

2Cor 12:1

2Cor 12:1 - I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord - Paul will speak of visions and revelations given him from the Lord.

2Cor 12:2

2Cor 12:2 - I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven - Paul modestly/humbly speaks of himself. See Eph 3:1-3

2Cor 12:2

2Cor 12:2 - whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth - whether physically taken in vision or only in spirit, just as the prophet John entered the vision of Revelation 10:8-11

2Cor 12:2

2Cor 12:2 - caught up to the third heaven - the dwelling place of God. See 2Cor 12:4

2Cor 12:4

2Cor 12:4 - heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter - perhaps God revealed to Paul words and experiences that it is not for men to know: "The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law." See Deut 29:29; Rev 10:4; Rom 8:26, 27

2Cor 12:5

2Cor 12:5 - Paul, like Joh the disciples humbly speaks of himself without pride or boastfulness.

2Cor 12:5

2Cor 12:5 - yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities - Paul will only glory in his weaknesses and shortcomings relative to Christ.

2Cor 12:6

2Cor 12:6 - For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool - though Paul would like to boast and glory in his personal experiences and how the Lord wrought wonders in him and through his ministry, Paul considers such boasting foolish - and so it is in light of the wonders, the works, the sacrifices made by Jesus on our behalf. See 2Cor 11:16-28

2Cor 12:6

2Cor 12:6 - but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me

2Cor 12:7

2Cor 12:7 - And lest I should be exalted above measure - Paul feared being aggrandized by men and puffed up in himself. He understood the spirit of self-exaltation (gadal) and sought to avoid becoming ensnared in its prideful grip. God aided in this quest by giving him a thorn in his side.

2Cor 12:7

2Cor 12:7 - through the abundance of the revelations - Paul had been given countless revelations of God of things past and things to come (2Cor 12:1, 2). So that he would not be puffed up, God gave him a thorn in His side. 1. Paul foresaw the collapse of paganism under Rome and the rise of the Papacy: 2Thess 2:5-7 2. Paul was taken into heaven and shown things that can not be uttered: 2Cor 12:1, 2

2Cor 12:7

2Cor 12:7 - there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure - Paul was afflicted through a physical infirmity, perhaps poor vision, which the Lord permitted Satan to inflict, in order to keep him humble. See Gal 4:13-15; Act 9:3-8 Unlike Paul's thorn in the flesh that was to discipline him unto salvation, the thorn in the flesh we place upon ourselves is due to self indulgence: Mothers set the example of pride for their children, and, by so doing, sow seed that will spring up and bear fruit. The harvest will be plenteous and sure. That which they sow, they shall reap. There will be no failure in the crop. I saw, parents, that it is easier for you to teach your children a lesson of pride, than a lesson of humility. Satan and his angels stand right by your side to make the act of yours, or the word that you speak to them, effectual to encourage them to dress, and in their pride to mingle with society that is not holy. O parents, you plant in your own bosoms a thorn that you will often feel in anguish. When you would counteract the sad lesson you have taught your children, you will find it a hard thing. It is impossible for you to do this. You may deny them things that would gratify their pride, yet it still lives in the heart, longing to be satisfied; and nothing can kill this pride but the quick and powerful Spirit of God. When this finds its way to the heart, it will work like leaven there and root it out. - {1T 134.2}

2Cor 12:7

2Cor 12:7 - the messenger of Satan to buffet me - See Job 1:12, 2:6

2Cor 12:8

2Cor 12:8 - For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me - like his Savior, Paul sought the Lord 3x to remove the cup/cross given to him and the Lord replied that His grace was sufficient to uphold Paul. See Mk 14:34-40; 2Cor 1:20; Deut 33:25

2Cor 12:9

2Cor 12:9 - My grace is sufficient for thee - God's generous blessings will supply your needs in the midst of your infirmity. God will grant peace while bearing our cross. See Deut 33:25; Ex 3:14

2Cor 12:9

2Cor 12:9 - my strength is made perfect in weakness - God's power, which is creative power, is manifested by Jesus Christ abiding in us in our weakness (yielding, submission, surrender). See Mt 11:28-30; Eph 6:10; Gal 1:12, 13, 15, 16; Col 1:25-29;

2Cor 12:9

2Cor 12:9 - weakness - SURRENDER!, meekness, infirmities, reproaches, necessities, persecutions, distresses for Christ's sake - See 2Cor 12:10; Isa 32:17; Philippians 2:12, 13

2Cor 12:9

2Cor 12:9 - Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me - Paul would much rather live with his infirmities so that he might be a partaker of God's divine power and glory. See 1Pet 4:12, 13

2Cor 12:9

2Cor 12:9 - that the power of Christ may rest upon me - 1Cor 2:1-5; Col 1:27-29

2Cor 12:10

2Cor 12:10 - Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong - Paul recognizes that God's power rests mightily upon him when he is oppressed, is afflicted and wrestles with all the attacks of the enemy. See Act 5:40, 41; 2Cor 4:8-10; Col 1:29

2Cor 12:10

2Cor 12:13 - infirmities - sicknesses

2Cor 12:10

2Cor 12:10 - reproaches - scornful abuse, the expression of disapproval or disappointment.

2Cor 12:10

2Cor 12:10 - necessities - to be in want, lacking the essential things of life

2Cor 12:10

2Cor 12:10 - persecutions - unjust, unlawful abuse.

2Cor 12:10

2Cor 12:10 - in distresses for Christ's sake - to be in tight places for Christ's sake.

2Cor 12:10

2Cor 12:11 - for when I am weak, then am I strong - Jesus power may be revealed through us only when we are fully surrendered. See 1Cor 2:1-5; 2Cor 12:9; 1Pet 4:12, 13

2Cor 12:11

2Cor 12:11 - I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you - Paul took great effort (boasting) in seeking to prove his worthiness as an apostle of Christ, which he deems foolishness. Paul states that the Corinthians should have recognized his calling, far above the self-proclaimed teachers, and they should have offered him commendation rather than scorn.

2Cor 12:11

2Cor 12:11 - for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing - See 2Cor 11:3

2Cor 12:11

2Cor 12:10 - though I be nothing - Paul's humility and self-deprecating is a model for all servants of Christ. Let us look at ourselves in the light of Jesus and His sacrifice for us and all of our comeliness will turn to corruption. See 1Tim 1:15; Dan 10:8

2Cor 12:12

2Cor 12:12 - Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds - the apostles, those chosen and sent specifically by Jesus Christ Himself were to do mighty deeds as Christ, but with greater extent as He ascended to His Father to empower their deeds. See John 14:12

2Cor 12:12

2Cor 12:12 - signs, and wonders - See Act 13:11, 12; 28:3-6

2Cor 12:13

2Cor 12:13 - forgive me this wrong - Paul is being facetious as he suggest he wronged the church of Corinth for not being a burden upon them as he had been to the other churches. Apparently some suggest that Paul and those with him (Tit) were seeking gain of the church for which Paul , though hurt and mildly offended, affirms his fidelity to God and his love for the Corinthian church. See 2Cor 12:16-19

2Cor 12:14

2Cor 12:14 - Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you - See 2Cor 13:1

2Cor 12:14

2Cor 12:14 - and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours, but you: - Paul seeks not the Corinthian's substance but them, themselves. See 2Cor 11:9

2Cor 12:14

2Cor 12:14 - for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children - Paul speaks as a gentle father to the Corinthian church which he raised up. Paul has given a principle that in our lives we must care for the generations that follow-us, not rely on them to care for us. We, through our faithful stewardship to God, will have sufficient to aid our parents if in need (Mk 7:10-13), support ourselves and set aside an inheritance for our children (Prov 13:22). This is the will of God.

2Cor 12:15

2Cor 12:15 - And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved - Paul is willing to spend and be spent for the Corinthian church that he loves. Yet, it appears as if he does not feel truly appreciated by them for his efforts on their behalf.

2Cor 12:16

2Cor 12:16 - nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile - Paul has not seen the Corinthian's conduct as upright but crafty and beguiling, perhaps in their collections for the saints abroad in need.

2Cor 12:17

2Cor 12:17 - Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you? - Paul asks if he gained any material profit from any who he sent to minister to the Corinthians? See 2Cor

12:18

2Cor 12:18

2Cor 12:18 - Did Tit make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps? - Paul asks if Tit made any material/financial gain from ministering to the Corinthians. Paul and Tit have established a principle in their example that the ministers of the gospel are not to be seeking material gain (filthy lucre) but to spread and share the gospel that has been entrusted to them. See 2Cor 12:17; 1Tim 3:3

2Cor 12:20

2Cor 12:20, 21 - For I fear, lest when I come, I shall not find you such as I would - Paul fears that the same heresies that prompted him to write the first letter will still be prominent among the Corinthians.

2Cor 12:20

2Cor 12:20 - lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults: - carnality, earthly-ness. See Jam 3:14-16; 2Tim 3:1-5

2Cor 12:21

2Cor 12:21 - I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed - See 1Cor 5:1

2Cor 12:21

2Cor 12:21 - and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed - See Rev 3:19

2Cor 13:1

2Cor 13:1 - In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established - See Deut 19:15; Joh 8:17, 18

2Cor 13:2

2Cor 13:2 - I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other - See 2Cor 12:21

2Cor 13:3

2Cor 13:3 - Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me - some challenged whether Pauls corrections were warranted and based on the LORD's leading. See 1Cor 2:1-5; 1Thess 5:21; Col 1:29

2Cor 13:3

2Cor 13:3 - which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you - the words of Christ, spoken through Paul have effect among the Corinthians.

2Cor 13:4

2Cor 13:4 - For though he was crucified through weakness - Jesus willingly surrendered His life so that He might save us all! See John 10:11-18

2Cor 13:4

2Cor 13:4 - yet he liveth by the power of God - See Rom 8:11; Eph 2:1-6; Mt 28:18

2Cor 13:4

2Cor 13:3 - For we also are weak in him - we are weak through our mortality and its associated infirmities. We all, like Paul may have a thorn in the flesh for which Christ alone is our sufficiency. And further, we, by taking on the mind of Christ, yield to the Spirit of God in weakness, are crucified with Him, nevertheless we live by virtue of Christ dwelling within. See 1Cor 2:3-5

2Cor 13:4

2Cor 13:4 - but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you - See Rom 6:8; Eph 2:1-6

2Cor 13:5

2Cor 13:5 - Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith - we are to assess our own walks and judge whether we are living up to the light that has been given to us. We are not to judge others or ourselves but to objectively consider our own walk of faith. See *Lam 3:40; 1Cor 10:12, 11:31; 1Jo 2:3, 5, 3:17-19; Ps 139:23, 24; 2Pet 1:10; Heb 12:15 "Man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart"—the human heart, with its conflicting emotions of joy and sorrow; the wandering, wayward heart, which is the abode of so much impurity and deceit. 1 Samuel 16:7. He knows its motives, its very intents and purposes. Go to Him with your soul all stained as it is. Like the psalmist, throw its chambers open to the all-seeing eye, exclaiming, "Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting." Ps 139:23, 24. - {SC 34.3} Many accept an intellectual religion, a form of godliness, when the heart is not cleansed. Let it be your prayer, "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me." Ps 51:10. Deal truly with your own soul. Be as earnest, as persistent, as you would be if your mortal life were at stake. This is a matter to be settled between God and your own soul, settled for eternity. A supposed hope, and nothing more, will prove your ruin. - {SC 35.1} Why is it that many seem to think that a responsible position exalts the man? Why do they become so self-sufficient when they are so utterly dependent upon the atoning Sacrifice? Why is there with some so great a want of tenderness, so little heart work? It is because those who are self-sufficient have not fallen upon the Rock and been broken. This is why there is so little trust in God, so little earnest, contrite repentance, so great a lack of fervent prayer. Well may the questions be put by every instructor: "Have I received the Holy Ghost since I believed? Have I received Christ as my personal Saviour?" Let these questions be solemnly answered. - {CSW 111.1}

2Cor 13:5

2Cor 13:5 - prove your own selves - give evidence to yourselves that you are walking in the light and not in darkness. Test/try your convictions, your works and profession, that they are in agreement.

2Cor 13:5

2Cor 13:5 - Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates? - Do you not know that Jesus lives within you, otherwise you are reprobates [an unprincipled person, a wretch]? See Gal 2:20; 1Jo 2:3, 6; Isa 32:17

2Cor 13:5

2Cor 13:6 - except ye be reprobates - See Rom 1:28-32

2Cor 13:7

2Cor 13:7 - Now I pray to God that ye do no evil - See 1Jo 2:1

2Cor 13:8

2Cor 13:8 - For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth - truth needs no defense because it stands on its own. We can only uphold truth and demonstrate truth to be truth to the world. See Joh 18:37; Act 5:39; Mt 11:19

2Cor 13:9

2Cor 13:9 - and this also we wish, even your perfection - See Mt 5:48; 1Jo 2:1; Col 1:25-29

2Cor 13:10

2Cor 13:10 - Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction - Paul does not want to reprove with the authority and power given to him by God as an apostle of Christ.

2Cor 13:11

2Cor 13:11 - Be perfect - See Ps 101:6; Col 1:25-29; 2Cor 13:9

2Cor 13:11

2Cor 13:12 - be of one mind - See Philippians 2:1-4

2Cor 13:11

2Cor 13:11 - live in peace - See Ps 34:14; Rom 12:18

2Cor 13:12

2Cor 13:12 - Greet one another with an holy kiss - Rom 16:16; 1Cor 16:20; 1Thess 5:26; 1Pet 5:14

2Cor 13:14

2Cor 13:14 - The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen - Paul affirms the truth of the Triune God. See Matt 3:16, 17; Col 2:9; Rom 1:20; Act 17:29

2Cor 13:14

2Cor 13:14 - grace of the Lord Jesus Christ - Jesus is full of grace and truth. See Joh 1:14

2Cor 13:14

2Cor 13:14 - the love of God - the Father is characterized by love! See Joh 3:16; 2Cor 5:18-20

2Cor 13:14

2Cor 13:14 - communion of the Holy Ghost - the Holy Spirit is the Second Comforter, Who communes with the sons of redemption. See Joh 14:16, 17, 26, 16:7-13

Gal 1:4 - that He might deliver us from this present evil world - See Tit 2:11, 12, 14; 2Pet 1:4; 1Jo 2:15, 16 We are delivered from this world and translated into the kingdom of His Son when we receive the gospel. We dwell in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. We await the redemption of our bodies and to be united in one body in Christ. See Col 1:13; Eph 1:1-10 "I AM the Good Shepherd." "I AM the living Bread." "I AM the Way, the Truth, and the Life." "All power is given unto Me in heaven and in earth." Joh 10:11; 6:51; 14:6; Mt 28:18. I AM the assurance of every promise. I AM; be not afraid. "God with us" is the surety of our deliverance from sin, the assurance of our power to obey the law of heaven. - {DA 24.3}

Gal 1:4

Gal 1:4 - this present evil world - See 2Tim 3:1-5; Titus 2:11-14

Gal 1:4

Gal 1:4 - according to the will of God and our Father - God's eternal purpose, before the foundation of the world, was to bring Jesus into the world in order to redeem fallen humanity and to reconciling the lost race unto Himself. See Eph 3:11, 1:11, 12

Gal 1:6

Gal 1:6 - I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: - Like the church of Corinth, Paul marvels at the gullibility of the Galatians who have adopted the so called gospel of others and have cast aside the simple faith and true gospel taught to them in Jesus Christ by Paul. See Act 15:1, 5

Gal 1:6

Gal 1:6 - soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ - the grace of God imparted through the gift of His Son, the gospel of Jesus Christ, is the ONLY gospel, Whom we are to preach - Col 1:29

Gal 1:6

Gal 1:6 - another gospel - See 1Cor 3:11-15; 1Tim 1:3, 4; Rom 16:17, 18

Gal 1:7

Gal 1:7 - Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ - See 1Cor 3:11; Isa 28:16

Gal 1:7

Gal 1:5 - but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ - See Gal 5:8, 10, 12

Gal 1:8

Gal 1:8, 9 - But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed - the church of Rome presents another gospel in that it states that salvation is found in membership with itself alone, not in the cross of Jesus Christ, not in His shed blood, and not in His holy name. In taking away the altar of burnt offering, Jesus' sacrifice, and replacing it with church membership, it has proposed a different gospel. In taking away baptism by immersion, symbolizing the death and burial of the old self and resurrection to a new life in Christ and substituting it with infant baptism and baptism by sprinkling, they have proposed a different gospel. In taking away Christ, the Bread of Life, the Holy words of Scripture and giving the Eucharist and the traditions of men, it has proposed a different gospel. In taking away the prayers and ministerial works of Christ, a sweet smelling incense to the Father and proposing mortal priests as intercessors, they have proposed a different gospel. In removing the candlesticks, representing Christ's Church here on earth, it has proposed itself, a false and fallen institution as a different gospel. Lastly, to make the counterfeit and substitution complete, the Church of Rome has removed the symbol/sign of the covenant, Sabbath, enshrined in the Holy of Holies and has created a counterfeit sign in the Sunday, thus proposing another gospel. See 2Cor 11:3, 4; 1Cor 3:11, 15:12; Isa 8:20

Gal 1:8

Gal 1:8 - an angel from heaven - See Mt 4:3; 2Cor 11:13-15

Gal 1:9

Gal 1:9 - As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed - There is only one gospel, the gospel of Jesus Christ rooted in the Godhead's love for mankind (Eph 1:9); a gospel begun and completed before the foundation of the world. See 1Cor 3:11; Eph 1:4; Heb 4:3; 1Pet 1:19, 20

Gal 1:10

Gal 1:10 - or do I seek to please men - See 1Jo 2:15

Gal 1:10

Gal 1:10 - for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ - See Joshua 24:15; Mt 6:24; Lk 16:13; Act 4:18-20, 5:29; Rom 6:16

Gal 1:11

Gal 1:11 - the gospel which was preached of me is not after man - See 2Pet 1:21; Eph 6:19, 3:8, 9

Gal 1:12

Gal 1:12 - but by the revelation of Jesus Christ - Jesus was revealed in Paul such that he gained knowledge and the experience of the gospel - Gal 1:15, 16; 1Pet 4:13; Col 1:25-29; 1Cor 1:17, 18, 2:4, 5

Gal 1:13

Gal 1:13 - For ye have heard of my conversation - Paul's reputation as a staunch Jew and hater of the body of Christ was well known among men. See Act 9:13, 14

Gal 1:13

Gal 1:13 - Paul makes a distinction between the Jew's religion and the Church of God, the religion of Christ, Christianity. He shows that Judaism was historically against and sought to waste Christianity. See 1Cor 10:18, 32

Gal 1:13

Gal 1:13 - I persecuted the church of God - Those of the flesh (Jews by nature) persecute the true Church of God, those who are born of the Spirit. See Gal 4:29; Joh 3:5-8; 1Cor 10:32; Heb 12:23

Gal 1:14

Gal 1:14 - zealous of the traditions of my fathers - See Mk 7:7, 8

Gal 1:15

Gal 1:15 - But when it pleased God, Who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by His grace - When seeking God, we are to be separated from the world, which may include familial relationships where they hinder our pursuit of Jesus Christ. See Ps 22:9; Lk 14:26, 27; Jer 1:5; Joh 1:12, 13; Gen 2:24; Gal 6:14; 1Cor 15:8

Gal 1:15

Gal 1:15 - who separated me from my mother's womb - God gives us our first birth of life, but then calls us by His Spirit to experience the second birth. See John 3:1-8

Gal 1:15

Gal 1:15 - and called me by his grace - Paul here is describing the second birth experience -

See John 3:1-8, 1:12, 13

Gal 1:16

Gal 1:16 - To reveal His Son in me - Col 1:26-29; 1Jo 4:1-3; 1Pet 4:13; Act 3:20; 1Tim 3:16; Mt 1:21, 23 the blessing of Abraham, here spoken by Paul, is the manifestation of Christ and His righteousness in men, the gospel: 1. Christ in you, the hope of glory (Col 1:27; Gal 2:20) 2. Jesus Christ IS come in the flesh (1Jo 4:2) 3. The Mystery of Godliness (Rev 10:7) 4. The Mystery of Creative/ReCreative power in us - Rom 1:16

Gal 1:16

Gal 1:16 - immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood - Paul did not permit men to influence his calling by God, whether in affirmation or otherwise. He did not receive men's approval but worked according to the Spirit's prompting and guidance.

Gal 1:19

Gal 1:19 - Jam the Lord's brother - See Act 15:13-19, 1:13; Jude 1:1

Gal 1:23

Gal 1:23 - That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed - See Act 8:1

Gal 2:1

Gal 2:1 - Then fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also - See Gal 2:3; Act 15:1, 2

Gal 2:2

Gal 2:2 - I went up by revelation - See Act 13:1-4

Gal 2:3

Gal 2:3 - But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised - See Act 15:1-5

Gal 2:4

Gal 2:4 - And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage - See Act 15:1, 5, 11:1, 2; Jude 1:4

Gal 2:4

Gal 2:3 - our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus - the liberty from the precepts of ordinances that were all types pointing to Christ and were abolished through His ministry. The ordinance of circumcision was replaced by baptism and conversion such that the cutting of the flesh was no longer required.

Gal 2:5

Gal 2:5 - To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you - Paul and Titus gave no heed to the suggestions of those false teachers who sought to introduce the traditions of men into the simple Gospel which Paul affirmed.

Gal 2:6

Gal 2:6 ,7 - But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me: 7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter - those subversive, phariseical Jews that joined themselves to the Christian church entered dispute with Paul and were a "pain in the butt" for their contrary ways. They battled Paul when they saw the gospel had been committed to him for the Gentiles as it had been committed to Peter for the Jews.

Gal 2:6

Gal 2:6 - God accepteth no man's person - God is not moved/impressed by men's commendation or praise of others. See 2Cor 10:12, 18, 3:1-6; Act 10:34; Joh 8:18, 54

Gal 2:8

Gal 2:8 - For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles: - the same Spirit that worked effectually in Peter towards the Jews, was working in Paul towards the Gentiles. See 1Cor 12:11; Act 2:14-41, 3:1-26, 4:7-20, 10:1-48, 11:1-18

Gal 2:9

Gal 2:9 - James - the son of Joseph, brother of Jude (Judas) and half brother of Jesus Christ the Lord. Act 1:13; Jude 1:1; Gal 1:19

Gal 2:9

Gal 2:9 - Cephas - Peter, brother of Andrew and disciple of Jesus who once denied His Lord, but when converted was imbued with the Spirit of Truth, Life and Power!

Gal 2:9

Gal 2:9 - Joh - Joh the beloved disciple of Jesus, who was once a son of thunder, breathing down condemnations upon those who did not accept Jesus as the Messiah.

Gal 2:9

Gal 2:9 - who seemed to be pillars - the once disciples of Christ turned apostles are considered pillars among the Christian Church, trees of righteousness (Isa 61:3). Paul and Barnabas, being given the right hand of faith, are added to these ranks. PTL! See Eph 2:20

Gal 2:10

Gal 2:10 - Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do - See Act 6:1-6

Gal 2:11

Gal 2:11 - But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed - See Gal 2:13, 14

Gal 2:12

Gal 2:12 - For before that certain came from Jam, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision - the sin of prejudice and racism is common to men and is seen even in the church. God must root this evil seed out of every individual who purposes to be part of His eternal kingdom - See Act 6:1; Mt 15:22-39

Gal 2:13

Gal 2:13 - And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation - See Act 4:36

Gal 2:14

Gal 2:14 - But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel - the gospel makes one walk uprightly, honestly, without dissembling, without guile, malice or hypocrisy. See Rom 12:9; 2Cor 6:6, 7:10, 11; Jam 3:17; 1Pet 1:22, 2:1

Gal 2:14

Gal 2:14 - I said unto Peter before them all - an open sin requires an open rebuke.

Gal 2:14

Gal 2:14 - If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? - See Act 15:10

Gal 2:16

Gal 2:16 - a man is not justified by the works of the law but by the faith of Jesus Christ - Justification by faith and righteousness by faith - See Rom 3:20, 4:3, 5; Gal 2:21, 3:11, 24, 5:4; Rev 14:12 The statement that justification by faith is counting one just, not by virtue of his own obedience, but by what another does for him, is strictly correct as far as it goes, but was not offered as giving a full and complete idea of the effects of justification in the gospel. It has been noticed that a guilty person may be guilty still, notwithstanding another may suffer because of his violation of the law. This is and has been the condition of the great majority of those for whom Christ died. Now if a person were set free merely on the ground that the penalty had been executed on a substitute, though the authority and integrity of the law would be vindicated, the Government would have no security against his resuming a course of lawlessness; and the community would have no assurance that he would not again trample upon their rights. It is therefore evident that before a pardon can safely be granted to the transgressor, there must be given some guarantee in regard to his future conduct. To guard all interests; with mercy to unite justice to all parties, we shall need to inquire for a broader definition of justification by faith than that which we have considered. We should then define it as follows:- {1882 JHW, JBF 16.1} It is that change both in man's relations and condition by virtue of which (1) He is counted just as regards to his past life, though his life has not been just; (2) The Government and its subjects are guaranteed against future depredations; and (3) God may consistently accept his service as that of a loyal subject. {1882 JHW, JBF 16.2}

Gal 2:16

Gal 2:16 - that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law - See Rom 3:21, 22, 24, 25, 4:3, 4

Gal 2:16

Gal 2:16 - for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified - See Rom 3:20, 9:31, 32; Gal 2:21

Gal 2:17

Gal 2:17 - But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid - Rom 6:7-11

Gal 2:18

Gal 2:18 - For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor - See Prov 26:11; 2Peter 2:22; Josh 6:26||1Kin 16:34; Gal 5:1-12

Gal 2:19

Gal 2:19 - For I through the law am dead to the law - as the law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus reckons, I am dead and therefore dead to the law [to the law of sin and death] and its requirements so that I may live unto God. See 2Cor 3:6; Rom 7:4-6; Col 3:3

Gal 2:20

Gal 2:20 - I am crucified with Christ - As Christ willingly laid down His life (Joh 10:17, 18), so we are to daily lay down our lives (our thoughts, our will, emotions, pride, selfishness, self seeking, affections, lusts - Gal 5:24) so that we might gain Christ within. See Col 3:3; Rom 6:5-8; 2Cor 4:10, 11; Mt 16:24, 25 Joh and Charles Wesley, after being ordained to the ministry, were sent on a mission to America. On board the ship was a company of Moravians. Violent storms were encountered on the passage, and Joh Wesley, brought face to face with death, felt that he had not the assurance of peace with God. The Germans, on the contrary, manifested a calmness and trust to which he was a stranger. - {GC 254.3} "I had long before," he says, "observed the great seriousness of their behavior. Of their humility they had given a continual proof, by performing those servile offices for the other passengers which none of the English would undertake; for which they desired and would receive no pay, saying it was good for their proud hearts, and their loving Saviour had done more for them. And every day had given them occasion of showing a meekness which no injury could move. If they were pushed, struck, or thrown about, they rose again and went away; but no complaint was found in their mouth. There was now an opportunity of trying whether they were delivered from the spirit of fear, as well as from that of pride, anger, and revenge. In the midst of the psalm wherewith their service began, the sea broke over, split the mainsail in pieces, covered the ship, and poured in between the decks as if the great deep had already swallowed us up. A terrible screaming began among the English. The Germans calmly sang on. I asked one of them afterwards, 'Were you not afraid?' He answered, 'I thank God, no.' I asked, 'But were not your women and children afraid?' He replied mildly, 'No; our women and children are not afraid to die.'"—Whitehead, Life of the Rev. Joh Wesley, page 10. - {GC 255.1} Upon arriving in Savannah, Wesley for a short time abode with the Moravians, and was deeply impressed with their Christian deportment. Of one of their religious services, in striking contrast to the lifeless formalism of the Church of England, he wrote: "The great simplicity as well as solemnity of the whole almost made me forget the seventeen hundred years between, and imagine myself in one of those assemblies where form and state were not; but Paul, the tentmaker, or Peter, the fisherman, presided; yet with the demonstration of the Spirit and of power."—Ibid., pages 11, 12. - {GC 255.2} On his return to England, Wesley, under the instruction of a Moravian preacher, arrived at a clearer understanding of Bible faith. He was convinced that he must renounce all dependence upon his own works for salvation and must trust wholly to “the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.” At a meeting of the Moravian society in London a statement was read from Luther, describing the change which the Spirit of God works in the heart of the believer. As Wesley listened, faith was kindled in his soul. “I felt my heart strangely warmed,” he says. “I felt I did trust in Christ, Christ alone, for salvation: and an assurance was given me, that He had taken away my sins, even mine, and saved me from the law of sin and death.”—Ibid., page 52. - {GC 255.3}

Gal 2:20 - nevertheless I live; yet not I - I present myself as a living sacrifice for the Lord (Rom 12:1, 2). Our new lives are hid in Christ, the Second Adam Who gave His life for us (Mt 16:24, 25; Col 3:3, 4; 1Cor 15:45, 47). Hence, any good works that come from us is a result of Christ dwelling within, and working out His will within us. There is therefore no room for boasting - See Isa 26:12; Phil 2:13; Col 2:12; Ps 131:1

Gal 2:20

Gal 2:20 - yet not I, but Christ - See 1Cor 15:10; Hymn #570 Not I but Christ

Gal 2:20

Gal 2:20 - Christ liveth in me - See Isa 57:15; Rom 8:10, 11; 1Cor 6:19; Mt 10:19, 20; Eph 3:17; Rom 13:14; 2Cor 4:10, 6:16; Hymn #316 - Live Out Thy Life Within Me

Gal 2:20

Gal 2:20 - and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me - See Philip 3:10; 2Cor 4:10, 11, 5:15-17; Col 3:1-3; 1Jo 2:6; Rom 6:10; John 14:10

Gal 2:20

Gal 2:20 - I live by the faith of the Son of God - I live by Jesus's overcoming, courageous, victorious faith that overcame the world (1Jo 5:4). I live by believing in faith, that Christ lives in me and is in total, and complete control of me both to will and to do of His good pleasure (Philippians 2:13): What I see: Job 31:1; Ps 101:3, 119:37; Prov 4:25 What I hear: Isa 33:15; Eph 5:19, Col 3:16 What I say: Isa 6:6-8; Ex 14:15; Joh 12:48; Prov 4:24, 15:2 What I think: 2Cor 10:3-5; Isa 59:19; Prov 4:23 What I do: Joh 8:28, 15:1-5

Gal 2:20

Gal 2:20 - who loved me - See Joh 3:16, 15:13; Zech 13:6; 1Jo 4:10, 19

Gal 2:20

Gal 2:20 - gave himself for me - Jesus willingly, with full knowledge of the cost, gave Himself for me! See Isa 53:11; Joh 10:15-17; Heb 12:2; Titus 2:14 Though wretched, miserable, poor, blind, naked, dead in trespasses and sins, Jesus gave Himself for me (Rev 3:17; Rom 3:10-18, 5:6-10), to save me from MY sins (Mt 1:21). It is for MY sins that He gave Himself to me, died and rose again. Therefore, I have in MY possession the living Christ, Who loved me and gave Himself for me, as well as to atone for MY sins. I have the power of choice to choose which to embrace, Christ or MY sins.

Gal 2:21

Gal 2:21 - I do not frustrate the grace of God - by not submitting to the righteousness of God by faith of Jesus Christ, we become legalists, attempting to "earn" our salvation and thus frustrate, despise, forsake the very grace, merits, and gifts of God through Jesus Christ. See Mt 16:24; Lk 9:23, 24; Rom 3:20, 10:1-4, 11:5, 6; Gal 3:10, 4:9, 10, 17-21, 5:1-12; Philippians 3:9; 2Tim 3:7; 1Cor 15:10

Gal 2:21

Gal 2:21 - grace of God - God's grace brings Salvation to humanity before the foundation of the world - Titus 2:11; Eph 2:4-8; Joh 1:14 God's grace did not permit us to be wholly and utterly given over to sin - Gen 3:15 God's grace grants us a measure of faith to believe in His words and in His promises: Rom 12:3 God's grace permits us to be justified by faith of Jesus Christ - Rom 3:24, 4:3, 4, 8:1; Gal 2:16 God's grace permits us to be sanctified by the indwelling Holy Spirit - Rom 5:5 God's grace enriches and edifies us so that we may give utterance with understanding of the gospel of Christ. See 1Cor 1:4, 5

Gal 2:21

Gal 2:21 - for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain - See 2Cor 5:21; Gal 3:21, 22, 2:18, 19; Rom 3:28, 4:9

Gal 2:21

Gal 2:21 - then Christ is dead in vain - See Gal 5:3, 4

Gal 3:1

Gal 3:1 - O foolish Gal, who hath bewitched you - the church in Galatia was subjected to false apostles bearing damnable heresies of which the Gal accepted (2Pet 2:1). Their deceptions were as the bewitching of witchcraft. See 1Sam 15:23 While tarrying at Corinth, Paul had cause for serious apprehension concerning some of the churches already established. Through the influence of false teachers who had arisen among the believers in Jerusalem, division, heresy, and sensualism were rapidly gaining ground among the believers in Galatia. These false teachers were mingling Jewish traditions with the truths of the gospel. Ignoring the decision of the general council at Jerusalem, they urged upon the Gentile converts the observance of the ceremonial law. - {AA 383.1}

Gal 3:1

Galatians 3:1 - before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? - Paul had learned his lesson in Athens when attempting to reason with the Athenians about the logic of one God and the resurrection of Jesus Christ. He purposed to declare Jesus Christ and Him crucified alone after that failure in evangelism. See Act 17:14-33; 1Cor 2:2

Gal 3:2

Gal 3:2 - Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? - The Holy Spirit, which acts upon the measure of faith given to us and kindles a fire by the hearing of the word, becomes the eternal flame that burns within us. See Rom 5:1, 12:3; 10:17

Gal 3:3

Gal 3:3 - Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? - Paul asks the critical question that if we have begun the walk of faith through the grace of God and through the drawing of God's Holy Spirit (Col 2:6), are we to have the work completed through our own strength in keeping the Law? Absolutely not! God has promised by two immutable truths (Heb 6:18) to perfect those things which concern us (Phil 1:9) through Christ's shed blood and the faith of Jesus Christ (Heb 13:20, 21). The work of sanctification is made perfect by faith (Act 20:32).

Gal 3:5

Gal 3:5 - He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you - Paul, who proclaimed the works of the Spirit to the Galatians and by the same spirit is empowered to work miracles. See Rom 15:18-21

Gal 3:5

Gal 3:5 - or by the hearing of faith? - See Rom 10:17

Gal 3:6

Gal 3:6 - Even as Abraham believed God and it was accounted to him for righteousness - See Gen 15:6

Gal 3:7

Gal 3:7 - they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham - See Rom 8:14; Deut 10:16-22, 30:6, 7; Rom 2:28, 29, 8;; Gal 3:26, 29; Rev 7:9

Gal 3:8

Gal 3:8 - foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed - The mystery of God was known in the Scriptures and conveyed to Abraham in Gen 12:3. See Rom 4:10, 11

Gal 3:9

Gal 3:9 - So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham - those who walk by faith are blessed with being accepted and counted righteous as was faithful Abraham.

Gal 3:10

Gal 3:8 - For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse -See Gal 2:21; 5:1-4

Gal 3:10

Gal 3:10 - cursed is everyone that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them - If we purpose to live according to the protocol of the Law, we must uphold it perfectly and entirely consistently ("continueth"), otherwise we are found guilty by the same law and condemned. See Deut 27:26; Gal 2:12

Gal 3:11

Gal 3:11 - But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident - we can not be saved by our works, our efforts, or good deeds. We are saved by grace through faith of Jesus Christ. See Rom 4:1-5; Eph 2:8-10

Gal 3:11

Gal 3:11 - the just shall live by faith - See Hab 2:4; Rom 1:17; Heb 10:38

Gal 3:13

Gal 3:13 - Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: - See Heb 2:9; Gal 4:5; 1Cor 1:30; Rom 7:14; 1Pet 2:24

Gal 3:13

Gal 3:13 - being made a curse for us - See 2Cor 5:21; Isa 54:7, 8; Rom 8:3 But God suffered with His Son. Angels beheld the Saviour's agony. They saw their Lord enclosed by legions of satanic forces, His nature weighed down with a shuddering, mysterious dread. There was silence in heaven. No harp was touched. Could mortals have viewed the amazement of the angelic host as in silent grief they watched the Father separating His beams of light, love, and glory from His beloved Son, they would better understand how offensive in His sight is sin. - {DA 693.2} When men and women can more fully comprehend the magnitude of the great sacrifice, which was made by the Majesty of Heaven in dying in man's stead, then will the plan of salvation be magnified, and reflections of Calvary will awaken tender, sacred, and lively emotions in the Christian's heart. Praises to God and the Lamb will be in their hearts, and upon their lips. Pride and self-esteem cannot flourish in the heart that keeps fresh in memory the scenes of Calvary. This world will appear of but little value to those who appreciate the cost of man's redemption. All the riches of the world are not of sufficient value to redeem one perishing soul. Who can measure the love Christ felt for a lost world, as he hung upon the cross, suffering for the sins of guilty men? This love was immeasurable. It was infinite. - {PH169 12.2} That's why a crucifixion was a gala event, like a circus. The victim is God's write-off to be tormented as everyone's sadistic urges might dictate. If you as the spectator are "godly," you must show that you agree with God's judgment against the victim and curse him too, and do all you can to add to his torment. As Christ hung on His cross, that's how the people viewed Him. It was their duty to revile Him. He felt the "curse of God" as painfully real, and that's what killed Him. The Bible speaks of two different kinds of death, and we must not confuse them. What we call death the Bible calls "sleep," but the real thing is "the second death."⁸ It's the death in which the sufferer sees no ray of hope because he feels forever forsaken by God. It's the horror-filled realization of utter despair, of divine condemnation beyond which the sufferer can expect no vindication, no resurrection, no light beyond a never-ending midnight blackness. More than this, it's the death wherein one feels the full weight of sin's guilt, the fires of self-condemnation and self-abhorrence burning in every cell of one's being. You have no refuge of innocence. Such a death is the "curse" that Moses had mentioned. {Grace on Trial, pg 40; R. Wieland}

Gal 3:13

Gal 3:13 - Cursed is everyone that hangeth on a tree - See Deut 21:21-23 The Saviour could not see through the portals of the tomb. Hope did not present to Him His coming forth from the grave a conqueror, or tell Him of the Father's acceptance of the sacrifice. ... Christ felt the anguish which the sinner will feel when mercy shall no longer plead for the guilty race {DA 753}

Gal 3:14

Gal 3:14 - That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ - The blessing of Abraham is to be declared righteous of the Lord by faith, with one's sins blotted out. See Gen 15:6; Col 1:27; Rom 4:5-16, *15:8-13, 15, 16

Gal 3:14

Gal 3:14 - that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith - the blessing of Abraham is to be justified by faith and to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, His eternal and perpetual sanctification, as seen in His spiritual gifts that He brings in His train. The greatest gift the Spirit brings is to love the Lord with all the heart, soul and mind and one's neighbor as himself (Deut 30:6, Rom 5:5). See Joh 14:16-18, 23; Act 1:4, 5, 8, 2:38, 10:42-48, 15:8, 9; Gal 3:18, 5:22, 23; Eph 1:13; Isa 32:17

Gal 3:15

Gal 3:15 - a man's covenant - covenant/contract/agreement/will and testament - See Heb 9:16, 17

Gal 3:16

Gal 3:16 - Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made - See Gen 12:1-3; 2Cor 1:19, 20

Gal 3:16

Gal 3:16 - He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one - the promises were not made to the Nation of Israel, but to Abraham and his Seed, the One Seed Who is Christ.

Gal 3:16

Gal 3:16 - And to thy seed, which is Christ - See Gen 3:15, 12:3, 22:18; Gal 3:19; Lk 20:14

Gal 3:17

Gal 3:17 - the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ - the Everlasting Covenant repeated to Abraham - Gen 3:15, 12:1-3. See Zech 6:13

Gal 3:17

Gal 3:17 - which was four hundred and thirty years after - 430 years after the call of Abraham from Ur (Gen 11:31-12:4. See also Gen 15:13, Ex 12:40, 41) until the giving of the law (contained in ordinances) on Mt. Sinai to Moses. The Decalogue is eternal and existed long before the giving of the law on Mt. Sinai:

Gal 3:18

Gal 3:18 - For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise - See Gal 3:14

Gal 3:19

Gal 3:19 - added - meaning "emphasized", "underlined", or "articulated", "spoken" "The law was given to show them [Israel] that they had not faith and so were not true children of Abraham, and were therefore in a fair way to lose the inheritance. God would have put His law in their hearts even as He put it into Abraham's heart, if they had believed. But when they disbelieved, yet still professed to be heirs of the promise, it was necessary to show them in the most marked manner that their unbelief was sin... They had the same spirit as their descendants, who asked, "What must we do, to be doing the work of God? Joh 6:28.... Unless they saw their sin, they could not avail themselves of the promise. Hence the necessity of the speaking of the law." Waggoner pg 100 If the descendants of Abraham had kept the covenant, of which circumcision was a sign, there would have been no necessity for God's law to be proclaimed from Sinai or engraved upon tables of stone. - {EP 255.1}

Gal 3:19 - till the seed should come to whom the promise was made - the promise made by covenant was towards Abraham and his Seed, Jesus Christ. See Gal 3:16

Gal 3:20

Gal 3:20 - but God is one - the Mediator of the covenant is God Himself, Who needs no one to hold Him accountable because He swears by Himself. See Heb 6:13; Deut 6:4

Gal 3:21

Gal 3:21 - Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: - Is the law and its observance contrary to the promises of God, righteousness by faith? Heaven forbid! The question of the law, its observance and attaining the righteousness of Christ by faith has been an ongoing struggle throughout the ages (See Rom 6:1, 15, 7:7). Paul makes clear that the observance of the law by the faith of Jesus Christ (Gal 2:20; Joh 8:28, 15:5) makes a person righteous - See Rom 10:4

Gal 3:21

Gal 3:21- promises of God - eternal life which is received by virtue of Christ's righteousness. See Gal 3:21; Col 1:27

Gal 3:21

Gal 3:21 - for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law - See Gal 2:21

Gal 3:22

Gal 3:22 - But the scripture hath concluded all under sin - See Isa 53:6; Rom 3:10-18, 23; Isa 64:6

Gal 3:22

Gal 3:22 - that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe - the promise of righteousness by faith through faith of Jesus Christ See Rom 4:3-13; Joh 7:38, 39; Gal 2:20; 2Cor 5:17

Gal 3:22

Gal 3:22 - given to them that believe - See Joh 1:12; 2Pet 1:1-4

Gal 3:23

Gal 3:23 - But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed - the Law was a guide, as for a young child, to teach us what was sin until faith should take hold. The faith to take hold is the faith of Jesus Christ, to believe that Jesus is our sin pardoning Savior Who has moved us from death unto life. With this faith, we are then empowered to walk and live by faith. In so doing, God does a transformation upon the heart, where the Law, that is now written in the heart by faith, purifies the soul such that one's motives and desires become fully aligned with the indwelling law. This transformation grows the individual in to the fullness and stature of Jesus Christ. See Eph 4:13-16 I am asked concerning the law in Gal. What law is the schoolmaster to bring us to Christ? I answer: Both the ceremonial and the moral code of ten commandments. - {1SM 233.1}

Gal 3:23 - shut up unto the faith - Just as God commanded Dan to shut up the book (Dan 12:4, 9), we are shut up under a schoolmaster, the Law, until faith takes hold. Then, we are loosed to walk by faith in the power of Jesus Christ. See Joh 1:12

Gal 3:24

Gal 3:24 - the law was our school master to bring us unto Christ - the law, as a schoolmaster teaches, instructs and when necessary disciplines with punishment the young (babes in Christ) in order to bring growth. The purposes of God in the law is to guide us until faith takes hold, then the Holy Spirit by faith is to bring the child to full maturity, to the measure and stature of Jesus Christ. Rejection of the 1888 message left SDA's as children under a schoolmaster. See Gal 4:3; Eph 4:13-16; Rom 7:10 I am asked concerning the law in Gal. What law is the schoolmaster to bring us to Christ? I answer: Both the ceremonial and the moral code of ten commandments. - {1SM 233.1} "The law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith" (Gal 3:24). In this scripture, the Holy Spirit through the apostle is speaking especially of the moral law. The law reveals sin to us, and causes us to feel our need of Christ and to flee unto Him for pardon and peace by exercising repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. - {1SM 234.5} An unwillingness to yield up preconceived opinions, and to accept this truth, lay at the foundation of a large share of the opposition manifested at Minneapolis against the Lord's message through Brethren [E.J.] Waggoner and [A.T.] Jones. By exciting that opposition Satan succeeded in shutting away from our people, in a great measure, the special power of the Holy Spirit that God longed to impart to them. The enemy prevented them from obtaining that efficiency which might have been theirs in carrying the truth to the world, as the apostles proclaimed it after the day of Pentecost. The light that is to lighten the whole earth with its glory was resisted, and by the action of our own brethren has been in a great degree kept away from the world. - {1SM 234.6}

Gal 3:24

Gal 3:24 - bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith - no person will ever be justified by God for keeping the law. Our justification comes as an unmerited act of grace by God that we receive by the faith of Jesus Christ. See Rom 3:20 4:4, 5; Gal 2:16, 3:11, 5:4

Gal 3:25

Gal 3:25 - But after that faith is come, we are not longer under a schoolmaster - when the love of God has come upon the heart and we desire to live for Christ by faith (Gal 2:20), then the service to God and observance of the law based on a schoolmaster is no longer required. We are now motivated by the law of faith, written upon the heart! See Rom 3:21, 22, 27, 10:4 I am asked concerning the law in Gal. What law is the schoolmaster to bring us to Christ? I answer: Both the ceremonial and the moral code of ten commandments. - {1SM 233.1}

Gal 3:26

Gal 3:26 - For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. - we are all God's children as we submit ourselves to the righteousness by faith of Jesus Christ, apart from the Law. See Rom 3:20-26, 10:1-4

Gal 3:27

Gal 3:27 - For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ - We have put on His death, burial, and resurrection to a new life with Himself living within. See 1Cor 12:12-14; Rom 6:8, 3:22; 2Cor 5:17 13:4; 2Tim 2:11; Gal 2:20, 1:15

Gal 3:28

Gal 3:28 - There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus - The gospel of Jesus Christ transcends race, culture, gender, social status and place of origin. As a good Father, Jesus does not play favorites but sees us all as His children, equally deserving of His love. See 1Cor 12:13; Col 3:10, 11; Eph 2:11-20; Rom 10:12, 11:1-36, 3:9, 29; Rev 5:9; Act 17:26, 27; Gal 6:15 The Jewish people had been made the depositaries of sacred truth; but Pharisaism had made them the most exclusive, the most bigoted, of all the human race. Everything about the priests and rulers—their dress, customs, ceremonies, traditions—made them unfit to be the light of the world. They looked upon themselves, the Jewish nation, as the world. But Christ commissioned His disciples to proclaim a faith and worship that would have in it nothing of caste or country, a faith that would be adapted to all peoples, all nations, all classes of men. - {DA 819.4}

Gal 3:28

Gal 3:28 - neither bond nor free - See Phlm 1:16

Gal 3:28

Gal 3:8 - neither male nor female - God has always promoted the equality of the sexes as seen in His assuring the daughters of Zelophehad received his inheritance upon his death. See Num 27:1-8, 36:2

Gal 3:28

Gal 3:28 - for ye are all one in Christ Jesus - See Gal 3:26; Joh 17:21; 2Cor 5:17; Rom 3:22, 8:16; Philemon 1:4-16

Gal 3:29

Gal 3:29 - And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise - the promises were made to Abraham and his Seed, Who is Christ. If we are in Christ, then we are demonstrating the faith of Abraham, we are Christ's and are therefore sons of Abraham. See *Rom 8:14, 9; Gen 17:7; Gal 3:7-9; Isa 51:1, 2; Gal 4:23, 28, 31

Gal 3:29

Gal 3:29 - Abraham's seed - Abraham's seed are they who are born of promise of God. They are a creation of God and miracles of God alone. See Rom 9:6-8

Gal 3:29

Gal 3:29 - and heirs according to the promise - we are offspring of Abraham according to:

THE PROMISES OF GOD: Gen 3:15 - to be made Christ-like once again, having the Spirit of God abiding within Gen 12:3 - all families will be blessed through salvation in the Seed (Gal 3:16) Rom 4:13; Act 3:21; Mt 25:31-34; Isa 58:14 - inheritors of the earth made new Gen 22:17 - enemies of Christ and of His seed will be defeated (sin, death, Satan); Lk 1:71; 1Pet 5:8; Heb 2:14, 15; Rom 16:20; Philippians 2:9-11; Rev 3:9

Gal 4:1

Gal 4:1, 2 - Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all; But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father - See 2Chron 22:10-12, 23:1-15

Gal 4:3

Gal 4:3 - were in bondage under the elements of the world: - See Eph 2:1-3; Gal 4:9, 10

Gal 4:4

Gal 4:4 - fulness of the time - God is a Respector of time (Joh 2:4; Lk 22:53). Jesus was sent forth of the Father when the circumstances for spreading the gospel were optimal (1Pet 1:20): 1. The nations were under the rule of an expansive world empire - the Roman Empire 2. The Greek language was the common language spoken through the vast majority of the world 3. All the Jews dispersed around the world would gather annually for at least the Passover 4. The people were fed-up with the religious formalism and hypocrisy and sought something better 5. Spirituality was at its lowest ebb where among Jew and Gentiles, gross darkness covered the people But when Adam was assailed by the tempter, none of the effects of sin were upon him. He stood in the strength of perfect manhood, possessing the full vigor of mind and body. He was surrounded with the glories of Eden, and was in daily communion with heavenly beings. It was not thus with Jesus when He entered the wilderness to cope with Satan. For four thousand years the race had been decreasing in physical strength, in mental power, and in moral worth; and Christ took upon Him the infirmities of degenerate humanity. Only thus could He rescue man from the lowest depths of his degradation. - {DA 117.1} The fullness of the time had come. Humanity, becoming more degraded through ages of transgression, called for the coming of the Redeemer. Satan had been working to make the gulf deep and impassable between earth and heaven. By his falsehoods he had emboldened men in sin. It was his purpose to wear out the forbearance of God, and to extinguish His love for man, so that He would abandon the world to satanic jurisdiction. - {DA 34.4} It would have been an almost infinite humiliation for the Son of God to take man's nature, even when Adam stood in his innocence in Eden. But Jesus accepted humanity when the race had been weakened by four thousand years of sin. Like every child of Adam He accepted the results of the working of the great law of heredity. What these results were is shown in the history of His earthly ancestors. He came with such a heredity to share our sorrows and temptations, and to give us the example of a sinless life. - {DA 48.6}

Gal 4:4

Gal 4:4 God sent forth his Son - God would send His Son to become united with the human race in order to save it. Divinity united with humanity as Jesus took on our fallen nature in order to elevate us to His Divine nature (Lk 1:30-35; 2Pet 1:1-4; Joh 17:5). Jesus counseled with the Father (Counsel of Peace) and came with full knowledge of His mission and eventual death for the human race. See Isa 48:16; Mt 16:20, 21; Heb 12:2; Isa 53:10, 11; Zech 6:13; Eze 37:26-28 Since the Fall the race had been decreasing in size and physical strength, and sinking lower in the scale of moral worth, up to the period of Christ's advent to the earth. And in order to elevate fallen man, Christ must reach him where he was. He took human nature, and bore the infirmities and degeneracy of the race. He, who knew no sin, became sin for us. He humiliated Himself to the lowest depths of human woe, that He might be qualified to reach man, and bring him up from the degradation in which sin had plunged him. - {1SM 268.2}

Gal 4:4 - made under the law - The statement can refer to several things: 1. Mary's own carnal nature that was subject to the law of sin and death in her flesh. By extension, this would also apply to Jesus, her offspring, in that Jesus too came with a sinful flesh nature, burdened by the law of sin and death. 2. As One born of a woman therefore of Adam's seed, Jesus was subject to the law of God, written in stone by God and penned by Moses (Rom 2:12; Gal 2:16). As God, He is above the law. See Heb 2:14-17; Rom 7:17, 18, 23, 24; 1Jo 4:2,3; Joh 1:14 Jesus, though having a sinful flesh nature, was born of the Spirit of God and was therefore from birth, a seed of Abraham, led by the Spirit of God Galatians 5:18 - But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law

Gal 4:5

Gal 4:5 - To redeem them that were under the law - Jesus came to the same individuals, who were under the law, in order to redeem them from being sold under sin (Rom 7:14). Those who seek righteousness through the observance of the Law (letter of the law). Since their righteousness comes by observing the law, the one who is under this system is obliged to keep the whole law perfectly, lest they be found a transgressor (Gal 3:10). Jesus through Paul, contrasts those who are under the law with those who walk according to the Spirit of Life and are under grace. See Rom 3:19, 6:14, 15, *15:8; *1Cor 9:19-21; Gal 5:18

Gal 4:5

Gal 4:5 - redeem - exagorázō Verb ex-ag-or-ad'-zo from (1537) and (59) from and ; to buy up, i.e. ransom; figuratively, to rescue from loss (improve opportunity):--redeem. to redeem by payment of a price to recover from the power of another, to ransom, buy off metaph. of Christ freeing the elect from the dominion of the Mosaic Law at the price of his vicarious death To uphold and satisfy the righteous requirements of the law, and to make atonement for the broken law through His death. We accept this gift of grace by faith in Jesus Christ and by being born again in the Spirit.

Gal 4:5

Gal 4:5 - that we might receive the adoption as sons - See Eph 1:5; Gal 4:28; Rom 8:15

Gal 4:6

Gal 4:6 - God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts - God continues to send more and more of Himself to humanity: first the Son (Isa 48:16), then the Spirit to be with us and lastly He Himself through the Holy Spirit to dwell within mankind (Rev 21:22, 23). See Rom 5:5

Gal 4:6

Gal 4:6 - Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying, Abba Father - See Mk 14:36, Rom 8:15; Eph 1:13; Isa 48:16

Gal 4:7

Gal 4:7 - thou art no more a servant - a servant neither knows all that his master purposes, nor does he abide in the house forever, but a son does. A son is privy to all the family secrets. See Joh 15:15, 8:35

Gal 4:7

Gal 4:7 - then an heir of God through Christ - As heirs, we will sit on thrones with Jesus and reign for 1000yrs. We become part of the royal government of God. See Gal 3:29; Rev 20:4; Lk 20:36

Gal 4:8

Gal 4:8 - Howbeit then, when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods - we served the flesh and the works of the flesh and the rites and rituals that had an image of righteousness, but were works of the flesh. See Gal 4:10

Gal 4:8

Gal 4:8 - which by nature are no gods - Isa 46:5-10

Gal 4:9

Gal 4:9 - But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage? - See Heb 6:4-6; Jer 9:23, 24

Gal 4:9

Gal 4:9 - are known of God - See *Gen 18:19; Mt 25:12; Lk 13:27, 23:42, 43; Rev 3:5;

Gal 4:9

Gal 4:9 - how turn ye unto the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be under bondage? - See Gal 4:31, 5:1-4; Heb 9:9, 10

Gal 4:10

Gal 4:10 - Ye observe days and months, and times and years - Paul here speaks of the law contained in ordinances (ceremonies) that were given to the Jews by God. These ordinances were types of the true works of Christ that He is fulfilling. When type has met antitype, the type must go away. See Num 9:2, 3; Gal 5:1-4; Heb 10:9; Rom 15:

Gal 4:13

Gal 4:13 - infirmity of the flesh - it is believed that Paul's thorn in his side and infirmity of the flesh was poor vision, perhaps never fully restored from his Damascus road experience. see 2Cor 12:7; Gal 4:15; Act 9:3-8

Gal 4:14

Gal 4:14 - my temptation - Paul's weakness and physical affliction; his temptation to complain and murmur perhaps of his poor vision. See 2Cor 12:7-9; Gal 4:15

Gal 4:14

Gal 4:14 - but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus - Paul and his messages to the church of Galatia were highly honored, regarded and respected. See Heb 13:2

Gal 4:15

Gal 4:15 - ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me - Poor vision may have been the thorn in Paul's side that he prayed the LORD would take away from him. See 2Cor 12:9

Gal 4:16

Gal 4:16 - Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? - Paul asks if he has become the enemy of the Galatians because he has reproved them with the truth. This is a common response for the children of the world, the children of disobedience who refuse reproof. Because his works were evil and he refused the reproof of God, Cain rose up and killed his brother Abel. The Pharisees felt Jesus' unspoken rebuke through His upright and righteous life and thus they manifested jealousy towards Him. See Gen 4:1-9; 1Jo 3:12; Heb 11:3; Mt 27:12-23; Contrast Rev 3:19

Gal 4:17

Gal 4:17 - They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them - Paul refers to the false teachers and false apostles, as ravening wolves who bring in damnable heresies which scatter the flock - See 2Pet 2:1; Rom 10:1-4; Gal 4:10; Act 20:29; Mt 7:15; Ju 1:4; Tit 1:10-16; Jer 23:11-14, 16-18, 21, 25-27

Gal 4:18

Gal 4:18 - But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you - See Eph 6:6; Col 3:22

Gal 4:19

Gal 4:19 - My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you - Paul seeks the sanctification of those whom he ministered to in the Spirit. His greatest joy is to see them established in the truth of Jesus Christ by faith. 3Jo 1:4

Gal 4:19

Gal 4:19 - until Christ be formed in you - See Eph 4:13; Col 1:25-27

Gal 4:20

Gal 4:20 - Paul worries for the Gal as a parent worries for their erring child. He sees them pursuing a wrong course of fanaticism and legalism and is persuading them to make a course correction.

Gal 4:21

Gal 4:21 - Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? - Paul is speaking to converted Christians who still are bent on upholding the laws of Moses (circumcision) and 10 Commandments as a means of salvation - Gal 3:3

Gal 4:21

Gal 4:21 - do ye not hear the law? - don't you know what the law says?

Gal 4:22

Gal 4:22 - For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman - See 1Chron 1:28

Gal 4:23

Gal 4:23 - But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh - Ishmael was born not of the will of God but by the sinfulness of the flesh as exhibited by Abraham who took Hagar to be His second wife, a sin before the Lord.

Gal 4:23

Gal 4:21 - was by promise - Isaac, the son of promise, had a miracle birth. Isaac, as the son of promise, never sojourned in Egypt nor in Babylon, foreshadowing those who will be called forth from those places to dwell in the land of promise. We are never to return to Egypt (a place of bondage) nor Babylon (a place of spiritual confusion and idolatry). See Rom 4:17-22; Gen 24:3-8, 26:2 God's promise is not only in that which He swore to Abraham (Gen 12:1-3), nor only that which He conveyed to Adam in the Everlasting Covenant (Gen 3:15); God's promise is founded in His eternal purposes for the creation, to have a world filled with God-like, very good, Holy Spirit filled people. God says that the earth is to be filled with His glory, thus, He will fulfill His purposes and promises. See Num 14:21

Gal 4:24

Gal 4:24 - Which things are an allegory - See 1Cor 10:1-6

Gal 4:24

Gal 4:24 - allegory - A figurative sentence or discourse, in which the principal subject is described by another subject resembling it in its properties and circumstances. The principal subject is thus kept out of view, and we are left to collect the intentions of the writer or speaker, by the resemblance of the secondary to the primary subject. Allegory is in words that hieroglyphics are in painting. We have a fine example of an allegory in the eightieth Psalm, in which God's chosen people are represented by a vineyard. The distinction in scripture between a parable and an allegory, is said to be that a parable is a supposed history, and an allegory, a figurative description of real facts. An allegory is called a continued metaphor. The following line in Virgil is an example of an allegory.

Gal 4:24

Gal 4:24 - the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage - the covenant based on the Law, entered into by the COI when they stated "all that the LORD has spoken we will do" Ex 19:3-8. This covenant is based on man's works to do the will of God, which never was fulfilled.

Gal 4:25

Gal 4:25 - For this Agar is Mt Sinai in Arabia - Hagar/Ishmael are symbols of the Old Covenant, established at the base of Mt. Sinai, based upon man's works to save himself. See Heb 12:18-21

Gal 4:25

Gal 4:25 - and aswereth to Jerusalem which now is - The Jews, the biological descendants of Abraham are following in the works of the flesh as their forefather Abraham, seeking to establish their own righteousness by the works of the law (circumcision, honoring the feast days, etc.) rather than walking in the power of God through the Spirit. Just as Ishmael taunted the young Isaac (Gen 21:9; Gal 4:29), the tables are turned and Ishmael is subject to he whom he tormented. The Old Covenant must bow down to the New Covenant, established on better promises.

Gal 4:25

Gal 4:25 - and is in bondage with her children - those who follow after the Old Covenant are in bondage to the Law and the requirements of the Old Covenant. They who have not submitted to the righteousness which is by faith through Grace will continue to stumble at God's promises.

Gal 4:26

Gal 4:26 - But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all - New Jerusalem (Mt. Zion), the holy city and mountain of the LORD is mother for the sons of promise. Paul makes the distinction of the Jerusalem which is above from any earthly city. See *Heb 12:22-24; Gal 4:28, 31; Rev 3:12, 21:2, 14:1

Gal 4:27

Gal 4:27 - Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not... - See Isa 54:1

Gal 4:28

Gal 4:28 - Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise - See Gen 3:15, 12:3, 15:5, 6, 21:12; Rom 9:7; Heb 11:18; Rev 7:9-17; Gal 1:13, 3:26-29 Now the Lord had already signified, in the case of Eliezer, Abraham's servant, that the seed of Abraham were to be free (Gen 15:1-6). Therefore if Abraham had only thought of the words of the Lord, instead of hearkening to the voice of his wife, he might have been saved much trouble. It is worth while dwelling at length upon this phase of the subject, for if it is rightly understood it will save much confusion as to the true seed of Abraham, and the true Israel. Let the points be stated once more. Ishmael was born after the flesh, and could not be the seed. Therefore those who are only of the flesh cannot be the children of Abraham, and heirs according to the promise. Isaac was born after the Spirit, and was the true seed. "In Isaac shall thy seed be called." (Gen 21:12) Therefore all the children of Abraham are they who are born of the Spirit. "we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise." Gal 4:28 {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 71}

Gal 4:29

Gal 4:29 - he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now - See Gal 1:13, 14; Rom 2:28, 29; Gen 21:9, 10 After the birth of Isaac the great joy manifested by Abraham and Sarah caused Hagar to be very jealous. Ishmael had been instructed by his mother that he was to be especially blessed of God, as the son of Abraham, and to be heir to that which was promised to him. Ishmael partook of his mother's feelings and was angry because of the joy manifested at the birth of Isaac. He despised Isaac, because he thought he was preferred before him. Sarah saw the disposition manifested by Ishmael against her son Isaac, and she was greatly moved. She related to Abraham the disrespectful conduct of Ishmael to her and to her son Isaac, and said to him, "Cast out this bondwoman and her son; for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac." - {SR 79.1}

Gal 4:30

Gal 4:30 - cast out the bondwoman and her son - Gen 21:10

Gal 4:31

Gal 4:31 - bondwoman - Mt. Sinai and the law of commandments; walking in the flesh - See Gal 4:23-25

Gal 4:31

Gal 4:31 - free - those of the Kingdom of God, citizens of New Jerusalem who are born of faith and of promise of God. Saved by grace through faith of Jesus Christ.

Gal 5:1

Gal 5:1 - Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage - See Gal 3:3, 4:9, 10, 5:2-4, 13

Gal 5:1

Gal 5:1 - and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage - Old Covenant promises of obedience we make in arrogance and self-righteousness See Rom 8:15

Gal 5:3

Gal 5:3 - to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law - any who sought to be circumcised in conformity to the Old Covenant, was required then to keep all the laws of the Old Covenant (the Law) and would therefore, have no parts with Jesus Christ Who had established a New Covenant, based on better promises (Heb 8:6). See Act 15:1, 5

Gal 5:4

Gal 5:4- ye are fallen from grace - they have backslidden and are no other the grace of God but are under the Law with its condemnations for sin.

Gal 5:5

Gal 5:5 - For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith - We are saved by the hope of having the righteousness of Christ, God's glory once again so that we may stand and see Him as He is when He returns. Rom 4:17-22; 8:24; 1Jo 3:2, 3

Gal 5:6

Gal 5:6 - faith which worketh by love - the love of Christ constraineth us (2Cor 5:14); shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments (Ex 20:6; Deut 5:10); if you love me, keep my commandments (Joh 14:15). 1Cor 16:14; 1Pet 1:7; Rev 3:18; Jam 2:18-20, 26; Jer 9:24; Rom 4:23 We must have Christ abiding within in order to produce works of righteousness unto God, otherwise, they are merely works of the flesh unto death. See Rom 7:4-6; Heb 6:10-12 A legal religion is insufficient to bring the soul into harmony with God. The hard, rigid orthodoxy of the Pharisees, destitute of contrition, tenderness, or love, was only a stumbling block to sinners. They were like the salt that had lost its savor; for their influence had no power to preserve the world from corruption. The only true faith is that which "worketh by love" (Gal 5:6) to purify the soul. It is as leaven that transforms the character. - {MB 53.2} Let this point be fully settled in every mind: If we accept Christ as a Redeemer, we must accept Him as a Ruler. We cannot have the assurance and perfect confiding trust in Christ as our Saviour until we acknowledge Him as our King and are obedient to His commandments. Thus we evidence our allegiance to God. We have then the genuine ring in our faith, for it is a working faith. It works by love. Speak it from your heart: "Lord, I believe Thou hast died to redeem my soul. If Thou hast placed such a value upon the soul as to give Thy life for mine, I will respond. I give my life and all its possibilities, in all my weakness, into Thy keeping." - {FW 16.2} The will must be brought into complete harmony with the will of God. When this is done, no ray of light that shines into the heart and chambers of the mind will be resisted. The soul will not be barricaded with prejudice, calling light darkness and darkness light. The light from heaven is welcomed, as light filling all the chambers of the soul. This is making melody to God. - {FW 16.3} It is heart work that the Lord requires, good works springing from a heart filled with love. All should carefully and prayerfully ... investigate their motives and actions. The promise of God to us is on condition of obedience, compliance with all His requirements. Read Isa 58:1-3.... - {CH 377.2} In the judgment the use made of every talent will be scrutinized. How have we employed the capital lent us of Heaven? Will the Lord at His coming receive His own with usury? Have we improved the powers entrusted us, in hand and heart and brain, to the glory of God and the blessing of the world? How have we used our time, our pen, our voice, our money, our influence? What have we done for Christ, in the person of the poor, the afflicted, the orphan, or the widow? God has made us the depositaries of His holy word; what have we done with the light and truth given us to make men wise unto salvation? No value is attached to a mere profession of faith in Christ; only the love which is shown by works is counted genuine. Yet it is love alone which in the sight of Heaven makes any act of value. Whatever is done from love, however small it may appear in the estimation of men, is accepted and rewarded of God. - {GC 487.2} "This sets the true God apart from all false gods that man has ever devised. This proves that God has a faith in man that works by love. This sets the God of the universe apart from all pagan deities who by their very nature demand appeasement. Thus in contrast to all heathen concepts, the Creator proves His character and confirms His righteousness by His faith in mankind. But more than this, we may understand that the righteousness of God's character is because of His manifest faith in man. This provides an equation befitting the cosmic battle between truth and error. It means that God's faith in man expresses His righteousness while man's faith in God expresses his righteousness. This provides the practical result of cleansing the sanctuary. This mutual faith supplies the bond of love that precedes the marriage of the divine Bridegroom to His Bride, the church. This is the reason He continues to knock at the door of His Bride, even though to a large degree His love has thus far been spurned. His love confirms His righteousness which constrains Him to persist, and when the Bride responds without reserve, the "faith of Jesus" will[...]" Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short This material may be protected by copyright.

Gal 5:7

Gal 5:7 - who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth - See Gal 3:1; 1Jo 2:26

Gal 5:8

Gal 5:8 - This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you - See Gal 1:5, 5:10, 12

Gal 5:9

Gal 5:9 - A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump - See 1Cor 5:7; Lk 13:21

Gal 5:10

Gal 5:9 - but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be - See Jude 1:12, 13; 2Pet 2:10-19; 1Cor 5:6, 7

Gal 5:11

Gal 5:10 - if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offense of the cross ceased - Paul shows that the thorn in the Jew's side with Christianity is its rejection of the ceremonial rites and works of the Law of Moses, based on the Old Covenant (Gal 3:19, 24-26). The Jews under the Old Covenant, demonstrated the spirit of antichrist, a works-based salvation program, whereas Christians, under the New Covenant, embraced the righteousness of Christ by faith and claimed His promises thus.

Gal 5:11

Gal 5:11 - then is the offence of the cross ceased - The cross of Jesus Christ is an offense to the Jews who feel that salvation comes by inheritance, being sons of Abraham, and through their laws and rites and is thus for the Jews alone - See Gal 6:12; 1Pet 2:4-8, 4:13-16; Isa 28:16, 4:1; Act 4:10-12; Rom 1:16

Gal 5:12

Gal 5:12 - I would they were even cut off which trouble you - Paul's righteous indignation wished that the troublers be cut-off who sought to counteract the work of the gospel wrought in the Galatians. Act 15:1, 5

Gal 5:13

Gal 5:13 - For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty - See Gal 5:1

Gal 5:13

Gal 5:13 - only use not liberty for an occasion for the flesh - we are not to presume upon our Christian freedoms and use them as opportunities to glorify the flesh. We must not use grace as an excuse for further sin (Rom 6:14, 15). We must not use our freedom from the ceremonial laws to then partake of unclean foods or foods offered to idols (Act 15:29).

Gal 5:13

Gal 5:13 - but by love serve on another - See Rom 13:10; Phil 2:1-4; 1Jo 3:17

Gal 5:14

Gal 5:14 - For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself - See Joh 13:34; 1Tim 1:5; Rom 10:4;

Gal 5:15

Gal 5:15 - But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another - See Zech 8:16, 17; Rom 1:30; Ex 20:16; Ps 27:2; Mic 3:1-3; 1Pet 2:1; Jam 3:14, 15

Gal 5:16

Gal 5:16 - Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh - See Rom 8:1-9; Gal 6:8

Gal 5:16

Gal 5:16 - ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh - See Eph 2:1-3

Gal 5:17

Gal 5:17 - For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh - wars against - See 1Pet 2:11; Rom 7:8; Gal 6:8 The hidden selfishness of men stands revealed in the books of heaven. There is the record of unfulfilled duties to their fellow men, of forgetfulness of the Saviour's claims. There they will see how often were given to Satan the time, thought, and strength that belonged to Christ. Sad is the record which angels bear to heaven. Intelligent beings, professed followers of Christ, are absorbed in the acquirement of worldly possessions or the enjoyment of earthly pleasures. Money, time, and strength are sacrificed for display and self-indulgence; but few are the moments devoted to prayer, to the searching of the Scriptures, to humiliation of soul and confession of sin. - {GC 487.3} Satan invents unnumbered schemes to occupy our minds, that they may not dwell upon the very work with which we ought to be best acquainted. The archdeceiver hates the great truths that bring to view an atoning sacrifice and an all-powerful mediator. He knows that with him everything depends on his diverting minds from Jesus and His truth. - {GC 488.1}

Gal 5:17

Gal 5:17 - and these are contrary the one to the other - the flesh and the Spirit are at war for the mastery. We must die to self and abide in Christ and He in us so that He may subdue the flesh. 1Jo 3:9; Amos 3:3

Gal 5:17

Gal 5:17 - so that ye cannot do the things that ye would - See Rom 7:7-25

Gal 5:18

Gal 5:18 - But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law - not under the law but under the grace of God and there is now no condemnation to those who walk in the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus - See Gal 5:14, 23; 1Tim 1:9, 10; Rom 8:1-4

Gal 5:18

Gal 5:18 - ye are not under the law - we are not under the Law of Sin and death which brings condemnation - See Rom 6:14, 8:1-4

Gal 5:19

Gal 5:19 - Now the works of the flesh are manifes - See 1Jo 3:8

Gal 5:19

Gal 5:19 - Adultery - See Ex 20:14; Deut 5:181; Mt 5:27-32

Gal 5:19

Gal 5:19 - uncleanness - Moral impurity; defilement by sin; sinfulness

Gal 5:19

Gal 5:19 - lasciviousness - looseness, animal desires, lustfulness, wantonness

Gal 5:20

Gal 5:20 - Idolatry - which is covetousness. See Col 3:5

Gal 5:20

Gal 5:20 - witchcraft - which is as rebellion. See 1Sam 15:23

Gal 5:20

Gal 5:20 - hatred - malice and enmity. See 1Pet 2:1; Gal 5:15

Gal 5:20

Gal 5:20 - variance - disputings, contentions that lead to arguments If one engaged in the work of God does things in contradiction to another engaged in the same work, that is strife and variance. {RH July 5, 1887}

Gal 5:20

Gal 5:20 - emulations - effort to match or surpass a person or achievement, typically by imitation. "One-upping" another

Gal 5:20

Gal 5:20 - wrath - Violent anger; vehement exasperation; indignation -

Gal 5:20

Gal 5:20 - strife - Exertion or contention for superiority; contest of emulation, either by intellectual or physical efforts.

Gal 5:20

Gal 5:20 - seditions - God does not want His people, who are citizens of the heavenly kingdom, to stir or foment discontent here on earth. As ambassadors to a foreign world, we are to live in compliance with the established authorities and abide by its rule. We are to honor the king (rulers) and pray for peace in the land. See Rom 13:1-7; 2Pet 2:10-12; Jude 1:8, 9

Gal 5:20

Gal 5:20 - heresies. - belief or opinion contrary to orthodox religious (especially Christian) doctrine {Oxford Dictionary}. This was the charge placed upon many of the martyrs during the Dark Ages. Ironically, the Church of Rome, whose doctrines were and are counter the true and orthodox teachings of Scripture, charged many with this sin and led them to their death.

Gal 5:21

Gal 5:21 - Envyings - See Jam 3:14, 15

Gal 5:21

Gal 5:21 - murders - literal taking of another life by an act of the will or to hate/despise another in one's heart. See Mt 5:22

Gal 5:21

Gal 5:21 - of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God - See 1Cor 6:9, 10

Gal 5:22

Gal 5:22 - But the fruit of the Spirit is - the fruit which the Holy Spirit produces as we stay connected to the True Vine, Jesus Christ, is for the spreading of the gospel, the equipping of the body of Christ and all to the glory of God. Isa 43:10, 12, 44:8 - we are God's witnesses to declare and demonstrate the righteousness of Christ by faith of Jesus Christ Joh 16:7-11, 13, 14 - Holy Spirit leads us into all truth; tells us things to come

Gal 5:22

Gal 5:22 - love - agape - selfless, self-emptying, preferring others over oneself, love. Prov 10:12 love covers a multitude of sin

Gal 5:22

Gal 5:22 - joy - a patient, calm assurance in God and His promises which brings peace and contentment and transcends the immediate trials and difficulties one may face. Nehemiah 8:10 - Joy of the Lord is our strength Joh 15:11 - Jesus' joy He gives to us, not like the world Heb 12:2 - Jesus' joy to see us in eternity

Gal 5:22

Gal 5:22 - peace - a fruit of the Spirit that one receives by faith of Jesus Christ. We believe in God, on God and we believe God and in His promises and He in return supplies peace, rest and quietness. See Joh 14:27 Isa 32:17 - work of righteousness is peace and effect of righteousness quietness Ps 119:165 - Great peace have they that love God's law, nothing offends them

Gal 5:22

Gal 5:22 - longsuffering - suffering long with endurance. Jam 5:10 - Prophets example of suffering and patience

Gal 5:22

Gal 5:22 - faith - Belief and trust in God, His character, His Words and His promises Heb 11:6 - without faith impossible to please God Heb 11:1 - substance of things hoped for, evidence of things not seen Rom 12:3 - God gives to all a measure of faith Rom 10:17 - Faith comes by hearing Word of God Rom 1:17 - Faith of a mustard seed to faith of Jesus Christ Gal 5:6 - Faith that works by love

Gal 5:23

Gal 5:23 - Meekness is not weakness but rather great power under the control of God's Holy Spirit Num 12:3 - Moses was meekest of all men

Gal 5:23

Gal 5:23 - Meekness is not weakness but rather great power under the control of God's Holy Spirit Num 12:3 - Moses was meekest of all men

Gal 5:23

Gal 5:23 - temperance - Self-discipline must be practiced by everyone who would be a worker for God. This will accomplish more than eloquence or the most brilliant talents. An ordinary mind, well disciplined, will accomplish more and higher work than will the most highly educated mind and the greatest talents without self-control. - {COL 335.1} Philippians 4:5- let your moderation be known to all men

Gal 5:23

Gal 5:23 - against such there is no law - the Law is fulfilled in love. As we receive of these fruit, the righteousness of the law is fulfilled in us. Rom 10:4, 8:4; Gal 5:14, 18; 1Tim 1:9, 10

Gal 5:24

Gal 5:24 - And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts - Those who belong to Christ have crucified self and the flesh (Rom 8:13) that yields inordinate affections, foolish and vain sentimentalism, evil concupiscence, infatuations, and lusts. See Gal 2:20; Rom 6:3, 7:8, 8:5-10; Eph 2:1-16; Col 3:5; Hos 13:13

Gal 5:25

Gal 5:25 - If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit - See Rom 8:1; Gal 6:5

Gal 5:26

Gal 5:26 - desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another - prideful self exaltation (gadal). See 1Tim 1:4-7; Gal 2:21; Jam 3:14, 15; Contrast Philippians 2:1-4 If one engaged in the work of God does things in contradiction to another engaged in the same work, that is strife and variance. If we do this to be esteemed or to exalt self, it is vainglory, and death to spirituality and to Christian love and unity of action. {RH July 5, 1887}

Gal 6:12

Gal 6:12 - As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ - those who are seeking to coerce the Gentiles to be circumcised have not submitted to the righteousness of Christ, nor are they willing to bear the reproach of Jesus Christ for the faith in His finished works. See Gal 5:11

Gal 6:12

Gal 6:12 - only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ - Gal 2:21; Rom 10:1-4; Isa 4:1; Philippians 1:12-18, 29, 30

Eph 1:5

Eph 1:5 - Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself - The Father has predestined all to adoption as children through His Son, Jesus Christ (Rom 8:14, 17). Calvinists suggest that only certain are "predestined" and "chosen" and "called" in the beloved, but Scripture certifies that these blessed gifts apply to all humanity corporately through the Second Adam. See Jer 29:11; 2Cor 5:18-21; 1Cor 15:22, 44-47; Heb 5:9; Gal 4:6; Rom 8:14, 17, 30||1Cor 1:24 There was no arbitrary choice on the part of God by which Esau was shut out from the blessings of salvation. The gifts of His grace through Christ are free to all. There is no election but one's own by which any may perish. God has set forth in His word the conditions upon which every soul will be elected to eternal life—obedience to His commandments, through faith in Christ. God has elected a character in harmony with His law, and anyone who shall reach the standard of His requirement will have an entrance into the kingdom of glory. Christ Himself said, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life." Joh 3:36. "Not everyone that saith unto Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of My Father which is in heaven." Mt 7:21. And in the Rev He declares, "Blessed are they that do His commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city." Rev 22:14. As regards man's final salvation, this is the only election brought to view in the word of God. - {PP 207.4} Every soul is elected who will work out his own salvation with fear and trembling. He is elected who will put on the armor and fight the good fight of faith. He is elected who will watch unto prayer, who will search the Scriptures, and flee from temptation. He is elected who will have faith continually, and who will be obedient to every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. The provisions of redemption are free to all; the results of redemption will be enjoyed by those who have complied with the conditions. - {PP 208.1} "Man by creation was a son of God; but through sin he became a child of wrath, even a child of Satan, to whom he rendered obedience, instead of to God. But through the grace of God in Christ those who believe are made sons of God, and receive the Holy Spirit. Thus they are sealed as heirs until the redemption of the purchased possession, that is, the whole creation, which is waiting for its redemption when the glory shall be revealed in the sons of God." {The Everlasting Covenant; E.J. Eph 1:6

Eph 1:6 - To the praise of the glory of his grace - Isa 30:18 Compared with God, man is "less than nothing, and vanity." Isa 40:17. In him "dwelleth no good thing" (Rom 7:18). Now the same power that in the beginning made the earth from nothing, takes man, if he is willing, and makes of him that which is "to the praise of the glory of His grace" (Eph 1:6). {The Gospel of Creation by E.J. Waggoner}

Eph 1:6 - wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved - we are made acceptable to the Father once again in Christ. Jesus, the Second Adam (1Cor 15:22, 45), has united His divinity to our corporate fallen humanity in order to redeem us from the curse of sin and death. We are further, accepted in Christ (1Pet 2:5). All who are in Christ by faith (Rom 10:6-18), as Jacob was in the loins of his father Abraham (Heb 7:9), are accepted of God so that: 1. God says of us "this is my beloved son in whom I am well pleased" (Mt 3:17) as He sees His Son in us. As Jesus prayed after his baptism, the Holy Spirit, in the form of a dove of burnished gold, hovered over him, and a voice was heard, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." Through the gates ajar there streamed bright beams of glory from the throne of Jehovah, and this light shines even upon us. The assurance given to Christ is assurance to every repenting, believing, obedient child of God that he is accepted in the Beloved. - {ST July 31, 1884 Par. 15}

Eph 1:13 - that holy Spirit of promise - the Holy Spirit is the surety of the promised inheritance - See Joh 14:18, 16:7-15; Act 1:4, 5, 8; Gal 4:6; The Spirit is given as a regenerating agency, to make effectual the salvation wrought by the death of our Redeemer. The Spirit is constantly seeking to draw the attention of men to the great offering that was made on the cross of Calvary, to unfold to the world the love of God, and to open to the convicted soul the precious things of the Scriptures. - {AA 52.4}

Eph 1:14 - Which is the earnest of our inheritance - the Holy Spirit dwelling within us and transforming us into the image of Jesus Christ, is our down-payment until our full redemption at Jesus' 2nd and 3rd Coming. For this reason, our hope is not in vain and does not make us ashamed, since we have the very presence of God dwelling within us. See Deut 4:20; Rom 5:5; Gal 3:14; Lk 17:21; Col 1:25-29 "This seal of the Holy Spirit is the pledge of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession... Those who have the Spirit as the seal, know what is the riches of the glory of the inheritance; that is, the glory of the future inheritance becomes theirs now, through the Spirit." {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 33}

Eph 1:14

Eph 1:14 - redemption of the purchased possession - we are the purchased possession, redeemed by the blood of the Lamb (Eph 1:7). Also, as part of our redemption, the earth that was usurped by Satan and won back by Christ and will be given to the meek. See Gen 1:26-28; 1Cor 6:20, 7:23; 1Pet 1:19; Ps 8:5-8; 37:29; Mic 4:8

Eph 1:17 - the Father of glory - Jesus is called the Lord of glory, the Father is called the Father of glory and the Spirit is called the Spirit of glory. See 1Cor 2:8; 1Pet 4:14

Eph 1:17

Eph 1:17 - the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him: - the Spirit of Truth = Spirit of Wisdom and Rev in the knowledge of Him [Christ] - See Joh 15:26

Eph 1:17

Eph 1:17 - in the knowledge of him - The Holy Spirit alone can reveal wisdom and knowledge regarding the Godhead. See 1Cor 2:10, 11; Rev 1:1-3

Eph 1:18

Eph 1:18 - eyes of your understanding being enlightened - Just as Jonathan's eyes were enlightened after eating of the honey (1Sam 14:27), our eyes will be enlightened by eating of the Little Book which is as sweet as honey (Rev 10:8). See 1Pet 2:9; 1Cor 2:14; Joh 9:39-41; Heb 6:4, 11:3

Eph 1:18

Eph 1:18 - that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints - See Phil 3:10; Col 1:27, 28; Titus 2:11-14 Of the Spirit Jesus said, "He shall glorify Me." The Saviour came to glorify the Father by the demonstration of His love; so the Spirit was to glorify Christ by revealing His grace to the world. The very image of God is to be reproduced in humanity. The honor of God, the honor of Christ, is involved in the perfection of the character of His people. - {DA 671.3}

Eph 1:18

Eph 1:18 - what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints - we are the inheritance of the LORD. We are the joy that was set before Jesus at the cross of His shame. See Heb 12:1-3

Eph 1:19

Eph 1:19 - And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power - the life-giving, recreative power seen in the resurrection of Jesus is to be revealed in the sons of inheritance. We, through the indwelling Spirit, are to demonstrate the new life in Christ today, where old things are passed away and all things are become new. See 2Cor 5:17; Rom 8:11; Philippians 3:10; Gal 2:20; Col 1:27-29, 2:9, 10; Rom 1:16 In describing to His disciples the office work of the Holy Spirit, Jesus sought to inspire them with the joy and hope that inspired His own heart. He rejoiced because of the abundant help He had provided for His church. The Holy Spirit was the highest of all gifts that He could solicit from His Father for the exaltation of His people. The Spirit was to be given as a regenerating agent, and without this the sacrifice of Christ would have been of no avail. The power of evil had been strengthening for centuries, and the submission of men to this satanic captivity was amazing. Sin could be resisted and overcome only through the mighty agency of the Third Person of the Godhead, who would come with no modified energy, but in the fullness of divine power. It is the Spirit that makes effectual what has been wrought out by the world's Redeemer. It is by the Spirit that the heart is made pure. Through the Spirit the believer becomes a partaker of the divine nature.

Christ has given His Spirit as a divine power to overcome all hereditary and cultivated tendencies to evil, and to impress His own character upon His church. - {DA 671.2} The omnipotent power of the Holy Spirit is the defense of every contrite soul. Not one that in penitence and faith has claimed His protection will Christ permit to pass under the enemy's power. The Saviour is by the side of His tempted and tried ones. With Him there can be no such thing as failure, loss, impossibility, or defeat; we can do all things through Him who strengthens us. When temptations and trials come, do not wait to adjust all the difficulties, but look to Jesus, your helper. - {DA 490.5}

Eph 1:19 - according to the working of his mighty power - the working of God's power in the life of the believer produces the righteousness of Jesus Christ, the fullness of God in us all. God finishes and perfects those things which concern us. See Ps 138:8; Philippians 1:6; Eph 3:16-19; 2Pet 1:1-4, 19; Col 1:25-29, 2:9, 10

Eph 1:21

Eph 1:21 - Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion - referring to the spiritual powers and the dominion they've usurped and claim as their own. The devil, the prince of the power of the air is far inferior to Christ such that even in Christ's death, the devil was powerless against Him, Who conquered the grave, claiming the keys of death from him and spoiling his reign. See Eph 2:2, 6:12, Col 2:15; Rev 1:18

Eph 1:21

Eph 1:21 - principality - the domain or territory of a prince.

Eph 1:21

Eph 1:21 - power - the power here referred to speaks of earthly powers that exercise might against right. These are powers which war against God and His just cause. These, God has conquered and placed under the feet of His people, though for a time they may suffer hardship from them.

Eph 2:1

Eph 2:1 - who were dead in trespasses and sins - Because man was created to be the temple of the Holy Spirit (1Cor 6:19, 20), before our spiritual rebirth in Christ Jesus (2Cor 5:17), we were dead in trespasses and sins without the Holy Spirit dwelling within. See Isa 1:5, 6; 1Jo 3:10, 14; 2Tim 2:26

Eph 2:2 - the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience - We once walked as sons of the serpent, children of wrath, having Satan's enmity towards God and His law within us. See Joh 8:44, 14:30, 12:31;

Eph 2:2

Eph 2:2 - prince of the power of the air - the devil claims to be ruler [prince] over the earth. He boasts of being the one who walks about the earth where men do his bidding, however, his false claims will be exposed in the lives of the 144,000. See Lk 4:6, 7; 2Cor 4:4; CONTRAST: Josh 3:11, 13

Eph 2:2

Eph 2:2 - the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience - we do not wrestle against flesh and blood but against principalities and powers and the rulers of darkness; the spirit of error - the spirit of the world, the spirit who works in the sons of disobedience See Eph 6:12; 1Jo 4:6; See 1Kin 22:21-23; 2Chron 18:19-22; Eph 2:2; 1Cor 2:12

Eph 2:5 - hath quickened us together with Christ - In Christ, we are made alive with the New Man (Jesus) living within. See 1Cor 1:30; Eph 2:1; 1Pet 1:3; Rom 6:3-11

Eph 2:5

Eph 2:5 - by grace ye are saved - See Ps 103:10; Rom 3:24

Eph 2:6

Eph 2:6 - And hath raised us up together - 1Cor 1:30, 15:22, 23

Eph 2:6

Eph 2:6 - made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus - the statement is written in the present tense such that by faith, we sit with Jesus in heavenly places. Our citizenship is registered in heaven (Joh 17:14; Lk 17:20, 21; 1Jo 3:2; Eph 1:3, 14, 2:19) and we reign and will reign with Christ (Rev 20:4). Because we are seated in heavenly places with Jesus, we look down upon situations, the trials, tests and temptations that once afflicted us, we now see with patient calm and endurance, knowing that the trying of our faith is to make us as pure gold (1Pet 1:7). 1Cor 1:30 They could speak the name of Jesus with assurance; for was He not their Friend and Elder Brother? Brought into close communion with Christ, they sat with Him in heavenly places. With what burning language they clothed their ideas as they bore witness for Him! Their hearts were surcharged with a benevolence so full, so deep, so far-reaching, that it impelled them to go to the ends of the earth, testifying to the power of Christ. They were filled with an intense longing to carry forward the work He had begun. They realized the greatness of their debt to heaven and the responsibility of their work. Strengthened by the endowment of the Holy Spirit, they went forth filled with zeal to extend the triumphs of the cross. The Spirit animated them and spoke through them. The peace of Christ shone from their faces. They had consecrated their lives to Him for service, and their very features bore evidence to the surrender they had made. - {AA 46.1}

Eph 2:7

Eph 2:7 - That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus - this is a promissory statement. Eye has not seen, nor ear has heard, nor has entered into the hearts of men the things which God has prepared for those who love Him. Therefore, it is by faith that we embrace this promise, not having received it, but seeing it afar off, that we anticipate seeing and experiencing the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness towards us. See Isa 64:4; 1Cor 2:9; Heb 11:1, 13 Delayed gratification is a principle that the Christian must live by. We must learn to deny ourselves for the present, in anticipation of something much better in Jesus Christ in the near future.

Eph 2:8

Eph 2:8 - by grace are ye saved through faith - we are saved by grace (a gift of God - given before the foundation of the world - Heb 9:26) as we in faith embrace the promises of God. See Rom 3:23-26; Rom 5:2, Act 15:11; Titus 2:11 James 2:17 - Faith, if it hath not works, is dead. The thought that the righteousness of Christ is imputed to us, not because of any merit on our part, but as a free gift from God, is a precious thought. The enemy of God and man is not willing that this truth should be clearly presented; for he knows that if the people receive it fully, his power will be broken. If he can control minds so that doubt and unbelief and darkness shall compose the experience of those who claim to be the children of God, he can overcome them with temptation. - {GW 161.1} That simple faith which takes God at His word should be encouraged. God's people must have that faith which will lay hold of divine power; "for by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God." [Eph 2:8.] {GW 161.2}

Eph 2:8

Eph 2:8 - and that not of yourselves - we have nothing to boast in because we are all saved by the unmerited grace of God. See Rom 3:27, 28 Let the subject be made distinct and plain that it is not possible to effect anything in our standing before God or in the gift of God to us through creature merit. Should faith and works purchase the gift of salvation for anyone, then the Creator is under obligation to the creature. Here is an opportunity for falsehood to be accepted as truth. If any man can merit salvation by anything he may do, then he is in the same position as the Catholic to do penance for his sins. Salvation, then, is partly of debt, that may be earned as wages. If man cannot, by any of his good works, merit salvation, then it must be wholly of grace, received by man as a sinner because he receives and believes in Jesus. It is wholly a free gift. Justification by faith is placed beyond controversy. And all this controversy is ended, as soon as the matter is settled that the merits of fallen man in his good works can never procure eternal life for him. - {1888 812.2}

Eph 2:9

Eph 2:9 - Not of works, lest any man should boast - our salvation is not by anything we have done. Salvation is completely a gift and is equally shared by all the redeemed. No amount of works can add to the gift offered. Yet, works of grace and kindness towards others are the reasonable service returned in love and appreciation for the gift of salvation. See Isa 64:6; Rom 3:19, 20, 27, 11:6, 7:21-24; 2Tim 1:9; 1Cor 1:29-31, 4:7; Jer 9:23, 24; Tit 3:5 The Lord Jesus imparts all the powers, all the grace, all the penitence, all the inclination, all the pardon of sins, in presenting His righteousness for man to grasp by living faith—which is also the gift of God. If you would gather together everything that is good and holy and noble and lovely in man, and then present the subject to the angels of God as acting a part in the salvation of the human soul or in merit, the proposition would be rejected as treason. Standing in the presence of their Creator and looking upon the unsurpassed glory which enshrouds His person, they are looking upon the Lamb of God given from the foundation of the world to a life of humiliation, to be rejected of sinful men, to be despised, to be crucified. Who can measure the infinity of the sacrifice! - {1888 816.1}

Eph 2:10

Eph 2:10 - For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. - God is the Potter, we are the clay. God's purpose for mankind in the creation was that we produce good works and walk in them. Through the gospel, He molds and fashions us according to His will as we yield and submit to His will. Those who refuse to be fashioned by the Lord, are vessels of dishonor and will receive their just recompense. See Gen 1:27, 28; Philippians 2:12, 13; Col 1:25-29; Ps 138:8; 2Cor 5:5, 17; Jer 18:3-6; 2Tim 2:20, 21; Act 15:18 The moment the workmanship of God refused obedience to the laws of God's kingdom, that moment he became disloyal to the government of God and he made himself entirely unworthy of all the blessings wherewith God had favored him. - {1888 813.2} This was the position of the human race after man divorced himself from God by transgression. Then he was no longer entitled to a breath of air, a ray of sunshine, or a particle of food. And the reason why man was not annihilated was because God so loved him that He made the gift of His dear Son that He should suffer the penalty of his transgression. Christ proposed to become man's surety and substitute, that man, through matchless grace, should have another trial—a second probation—having the experience of Adam and Eve as a warning not to transgress God's law as they did. And inasmuch as man enjoys the blessings of God in the gift of the sunshine and the gift of food, there must be on the part of man a bowing before God in thankful acknowledgement that all things come of God. Whatever is rendered back to Him is only His own who has given it. - {1888 814.1}

Eph 2:10

Eph 2:10 - which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them - From the creation of mankind, God ordained that we should abide in Jesus and walk in Him 24/7 - See Gen 2:1-3; Rom 8:29; Eph 1:4; Heb 4:8-10

Eph 2:11

Eph 2:11 - the irony the Paul highlights is that the Gentiles, who once had the enmity of Satan within are called Gentiles by those of the Circumcision who themselves had Satan's enmity dwelling within. Had the enmity of Satan been abolished within the COI by Christ, they would have been reconciled with God and would never have created walls of separation with any other man. See 1Pet 2:10

Eph 2:11

Eph 2:11 - that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands - the act of cutting the foreskin is "called" circumcision, but is not the actual circumcision spoken of in Scripture. the actual circumcision is that which must occur in the heart. See Deut 30:5, 6; Act 2:28, 29

Eph 2:11

Eph 2:11 - called - the act of circumcision is "called" circumcision but is not the actual thing. It is merely a "sign" of the actual circumcision of the heart by the Holy Spirit See Rom 4:11; Deut 30:5, 6

Eph 2:11

Eph 2:11 - Circumcision in the flesh made by hands - A reference to the Jews and their rite of circumcision that they upheld religiously and legally, without applying the spirit of the act. See Rom 2:28, 29

Eph 2:12

Eph 2:12 - being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise - See Rom 9:4, 3:1, 2; 1Pet 2:10

Eph 2:12

Eph 2:12 - and strangers from the covenants of promise - God intended for "strangers to Israel" to be grafted into the nation by faith and by accepting and abiding by God's covenant, so they would be heirs of God's covenant. Consider Rahab, Ruth. See 1Jo 2:25; Deut 29:10-15

Eph 2:13

Eph 2:13 - But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ - See Gal 3:27-29; Joh 4:10-44

Eph 2:14

Eph 2:14 - For he is our peace, who hath made both one - Verses 14-16 are parenthetical in that they speak of Jesus being our peace (all of humanity, Jew and Gentile) who has made us one with the Father in Himself. In so doing, we can become one with all men as well. See Eph 2:17; Rom 5:1 The believer is not called upon to make his peace with God; he never has nor ever can do this. He is to accept Christ as his peace, for with Christ is God and peace. Christ made an end of sin, bearing its heavy curse in His own body on the tree, and He hath taken away the curse from all those who believe in Him as a personal Saviour. He makes an end of the controlling power of sin in the heart, and the life and character of the believer testify to the genuine character of the grace of Christ. - {YRP 65.2}

Eph 2:14

Eph 2:14 - hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us - the flesh which begets sin is the middle wall of separation. when Jesus died on the cross, the veil in the earthly temple was torn (Mt 27:50, 51), signaling the end of the Old Covenant and the bringing forth of the New Covenant based on better promises (Heb 8:6). The New Covenant would write God's laws upon our hearts so that we might be reconciled to God, tearing down the middle wall of partition caused by the enmity (Satan's enmity) that once dwelled within us. In so doing, the New Covenant abolished the ceremonial laws of services and rites (sacrifices, offerings/oblations) which if not performed under the Old Covenant, one was accursed and cut-off from the people of God (Num 15:22-41; Rom 3:1, 2, 9:4). The restrictions that God had placed upon their association with idolaters as a means of preventing them from conforming to the practices of the heathen, they used to build up a wall of separation between themselves and all other nations. They robbed God of the service He required of them, and they robbed their fellow men of religious guidance and a holy example. - {AA 14.2} During the centuries that followed, they suffered from the oppression of heathen foes, until the conviction became fixed that their prosperity depended upon their obedience to the law of God. But with too many of the people obedience was not prompted by love. The motive was selfish. They rendered outward service to God as the means of attaining to national greatness. They did not become the light of the world, but shut themselves away from the world in order to escape temptation to idolatry. In the instruction given through Moses, God had placed restrictions upon their association with idolaters; but this teaching had been misinterpreted. It was intended to prevent them from conforming to the practices of the heathen. But it was used to build up a wall of separation between Israel and all other nations. The Jews looked upon Jerusalem as their heaven, and they were actually jealous lest the Lord should show mercy to the Gentiles. - {DA 28.5}

Eph 2:15 - Having abolished in his flesh the enmity - See Eph 2:16; Rom 8:3; Col 1:13 "Christ is the Source of every right impulse. He is the only One that can implant in the heart enmity against sin. Every desire for truth and purity, every conviction of our own sinfulness, is an evidence that His Spirit is moving upon our hearts." {SC 26.3}

Eph 2:15

Eph 2:17 - the enmity - the hatred of Satan which made us children of wrath. See Eph 2:1-3; Rom 1:18-32 Children of wrath towards each other: Col 2:14 By rebellion and apostasy man forfeited the favor of God; not his rights, for he could have no value except as it was invested in God's dear Son. This point must be understood. He forfeited those privileges which God in His mercy presented him as a free gift, a treasure in trust to be used to advance His cause and His glory, to benefit the beings He had made. The moment the workmanship of God refused obedience to the laws of God's kingdom, that moment he became disloyal to the government of God and he made himself entirely unworthy of all the blessings wherewith God had favored him. - {FW 21.1}

Eph 2:15

Eph 2:15 - even the law of commandments contained in ordinances - The ceremonial laws that defined ordinances to be followed by the Nation of Israel (the priestly services, the sanctuary services, circumcision, the expulsion of certain groups of people - i.e. Ammonites Moabites). See Deut 30:10; Heb 7:14-19; 2Cor 3:14; Col 2:14; Gal 3:10

Eph 2:15

Eph 2:15 - for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace - The "twain" are God and mankind, that Jesus has, in Himself, made One (in image and in nature - Philippians 2:5, 6; Heb 1, 2), making peace (Rom 5:10, 11). This permits us to be made new through the Man, Christ Jesus, Who has first reconciled us to God, removing the enmity we inherited from Adam and filling our hearts with love through the Holy Spirit (Rom 5:5). Secondly, we all are joined together as one, one faith, one Lord, one baptism in Jesus Christ and thus making peace between Jew and Gentiles.

Eph 2:16

Eph 2:16 - both - both here refers to God (divinity) and man (humanity). Jesus has reconciled divinity and humanity to God in Himself.

Eph 2:16

Eph 2:16 - having slain the enmity thereby - See Eph 2:15; Rom 8:3

Eph 2:17

Eph 2:17 - Jesus through His shed blood on the cross has made peace between God and mankind as well as among mankind itself. The wall of partition created by men through the practice of rituals and rites, has been torn down and the two are made one. See Rom 5:1

Eph 2:17

Eph 2:17 - you which were afar off - the Gentiles were at one time not the people of God. See 1Pet 2:10

Eph 2:17

Eph 2:17 - and to them that were nigh - the Jews were to be nigh to God, having received all the oracles of God and were chosen for the promise God made to their forefathers. See Rom 3:1, 2; Deut 7:7, 8

Eph 2:18

Eph 2:18 - For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father - See Joh 14:6

Eph 2:19

Eph 2:19 - ye are no more strangers and foreigners - See Isa 56:1-7; Gal 3:8, 9, 14, 26-29

Eph 2:19

Eph 2:19 - fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God - See Lk 17:20, 21; Hosea 2:23; Isa 56:1-7 But the third point will not be so apparent to every one, and will therefore need to be examined; for some may think it is consistent for God to accept the service of any one, at any time it may be offered, no matter what his past life may have been. We must differ with them. It would be a reproach to God and to his Government to accept the service of any one except under proper conditions. {1882 JHW, JBF 17.2} Suppose a person who was born in a foreign land comes to the United States and proposes to take part in the execution of our laws. Of course his proposal is promptly rejected. But he urges his case in the following manner:- {1882 JHW, JBF 17.3} "In my native land I carefully examined the principles of your Government, and admire them; {1882 JHW, JBF 17.4} therefore I am come to this country. I have read your laws; I think they are just. I am anxious to bear a part in executing them. I have an education superior to that of many who hold office in this country. I claim to have as good ability as they, and to love your Government as well as they. "Why, then, am I rejected from holding an office?" {1882 JHW, JBF 17.5} The answer is readily given, thus:- {1882 JHW, JBF 18.1} "By birth you are a citizen of another Government which is entirely different from this; and as such you are held under obligation to seek its welfare and to further its interests. We cannot know but you are even now acting under instructions from your sovereign. You must publicly renounce allegiance to him, and declare your allegiance to this Government. You must be naturalized. Then you will no longer be regarded as an alien, but as an American citizen, and be entitled to all the privileges of one born in this country." {1882 JHW, JBF 18.2} This all can understand; its reasonableness all can see. Without such a safeguard as this enemies might come in and undermine our Government by abusing and perverting its laws under pretense of executing them. And it is truly strange that any who love justice and good government, and who know that evil is in the world, and in the hearts of men, should stand in doubt as to the necessity of the gospel, to bring us into acceptance with God, and to fit us by a transformation of heart and life for a place in his service and at last in his kingdom. {1882 JHW, JBF 18.3} In the above illustration, so striking in every feature, we have only used the ideas given to us by the apostle Paul, in his letter to the Ephesians. He had before said to the Romans that of all the world, Jew and Gentile, there is none righteous, no, not one. Destruction and misery are in their ways. All stand guilty before God. In harmony with this he speaks of himself and of his brethren as being "by nature the children of wrath, even as others." Eph. 2. And of the brethren, Gentiles in the flesh, he says: "That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ." They who were the children of wrath, aliens and strangers, have their condition entirely changed through faith in Christ and by his blood. "Now therefore," continues the apostle, "ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God." The gospel of Christ is the law of naturalization, by means of which aliens or foreigners are inducted into the household of God, and are made citizens of the commonwealth of Israel,-the Israel of God. {1882 JHW, JBF 19.1}

Eph 2:20 - foundation of the apostles and prophets - See crown of 12 stars - Rev 12:1

Eph 2:20

Eph 2:20 - prophets - the foundation was built upon the apostles, the patriarchs and prophets who helped to build the temple of the Lord; Jesus Himself the Chief Cornerstone: Jesus - (Chief Cornerstone). See 1Pet 2:6-8; Isa 28:16 Zerubbabel - (one born in Babylon) built the temple of the Lord in his day and was a progenitor of Jesus Christ. See Hag 2:23; Zech 4:6-9

Eph 2:20

Eph 2:20 - Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone - See 1Pet 2:6-8; Isa 28:16; Mt 21:38-46; Lk 20:15-19; Act 4:11

Eph 2:21

Eph 2:21, 22 - In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord; 22 In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit. - See 1Pet 2:5; Eph 4:10-13

Eph 3:1

Eph 3:1 - the prisoner of Jesus Christ - we all must serve a master, either God or self. Paul has chosen to become a prisoner of Christ in order to bless the Gentiles.

Eph 3:2

Eph 3:2 - If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward - See 2Pet 1:

Eph 3:3

Eph 3:3 - by revelation he made known unto me the mystery - Paul was given prophetic revelations by the Holy Spirit of the mystery of God (godliness) that was "hidden" for generations. See Gal 1:11, 12; 2Cor 12:2

Eph 3:5

Eph 3:5 - Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit - God's light of truth and prophecy are progressive, shining more and more unto the perfect day. The Jews, in selfish pride could not see salvation for anyone else by themselves and therefore the message entrusted to them to convey to the world became a mystery. See Eph 3:9, 2:14-19; Prov 4:18;

Act 22:22 A man might pass over the place where treasure had been concealed. In dire necessity he might sit down to rest at the foot of a tree, not knowing of the riches hidden at its roots. So it was with the Jews. As a golden treasure, truth had been intrusted to the Hebrew people. The Jewish economy, bearing the signature of Heaven, had been instituted by Christ Himself. In types and symbols the great truths of redemption were veiled. Yet when Christ came, the Jews did not recognize Him to whom all these symbols pointed. They had the word of God in their hands; but the traditions which had been handed down from generation to generation, and the human interpretation of the Scriptures, hid from them the truth as it is in Jesus. The spiritual import of the sacred writings was lost. The treasure house of all knowledge was open to them, but they knew it not. - {COL 104.4} God does not conceal His truth from men. By their own course of action they make it obscure to themselves. Christ gave the Jewish people abundant evidence that He was the Messiah; but His teaching called for a decided change in their lives. They saw that if they received Christ, they must give up their cherished maxims and traditions, their selfish, ungodly practices. It required a sacrifice to receive changeless, eternal truth. Therefore they would not admit the most conclusive evidence that God could give to establish faith in Christ. They professed to believe the Old Testament Scriptures, yet they refused to accept the testimony contained therein concerning Christ's life and character. They were afraid of being convinced lest they should be converted and be compelled to give up their preconceived opinions. The treasure of the gospel, the Way, the Truth, and the Life, was among them, but they rejected the greatest gift that Heaven could bestow. - {COL 105.1}

Eph 3:6 - That the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel: - See Eph 2:14-19; Gal 3:26-29; 1Cor 12:12-14

Eph 3:7

Eph 3:7 - Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power - See 1Cor 12:4-11, 28-31; Eph 4:7, 8, 11-13

Eph 3:8

Eph 3:8 - Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given - Paul always kept his former life of persecuting Jesus Christ and His saints in mind to remind him of where he began (Act 9:1-3). Paul spoke, worked and lived in the Spirit of greatness that Jesus spoke about. I believe it will be Paul who will sit at the right hand of the Lord in glory. Mt 23:11, 18:14

Eph 3:8

Eph 3:8 - that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ - the mystery of the Gospel, the Cross, and of Jesus' creative power was revealed and made known to Paul directly by Jesus Himself abiding in Paul (Gal 1:11, 12, 15, 16) - See Isa 49:6; 60:1-3; 1Cor 2:9

Eph 3:9

Eph 3:9 - And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God - The mystery of the Gospel is the mystery of the Cross which is also the mystery of Jesus' creative/recreation power, all hid from the foundation of the world - See Col 1:26-29; Rev 13:8

Eph 3:9

Eph 3:9 - Who created all things by Jesus Christ - See Heb 1:2; Joh 1:1-4, 14 Wrestling Scriptures Many modern translations omit this statement, seeking to refute the Co-Eternal Divine nature of Jesus Christ.

Eph 3:10

Eph 3:10 - To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God - Jesus is now "seen of angels" as His eternal purposes are revealed through the Plan of Redemption for mankind and in mankind. The uncalled worlds and angels will see God's eternal purpose revealed in the redeemed who permit God to shine His glory through them. See 1Tim 3:16; Isa 60:1-3||Rev 18:1; Mt 5:15, 16; 1Pet 1:12

Eph 3:10

Eph 3:10 - might be known - the principalities and powers in heavenly places are now learning the mystery of God held hidden from the beginning of the world as it is being made manifest in the redeemed. Christ in us, the hope of glory and the unity of Jew and Gentile as one in Christ, Who is the Head of the body, the Church; and that humanity may be grafted into the heavenly family through Christ Jesus, and that all the universe may acknowledge the Son, Jesus Christ as Lord are the mysteries being witnessed by the worlds and the angels. See Eph 1:10, 3:15; 1Cor 2:7, 4:9; 1Pet 1:10-12; AA 9.1

Eph 3:10

Eph 3:10 - the church - the body of Christ, the body of believers, He being the Head. See Col 1:18; Eph 1:22, 5:23

Eph 3:11

Eph 3:11 - the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord - May mean that God the Father purposed (made up His mind) that He would win salvation for all men through His Son, Jesus Christ. See Eph 1:3-5, 11; 2Thess 2:13 In a secondary sense, God's eternal purposes were derailed when Adam sinned and the emergency plan of Redemption needed to be enacted. The emergency plan would realign/reconcile man and God, would raise men to an even greater more exalted state in Christ Jesus, and would, would fulfill God's eternal purposes of filling all in all. (Eph 1:23) Nearly two thousand years ago, a voice of mysterious import was heard in heaven, from the throne of God, "Lo, I come." "Sacrifice and offering Thou wouldest not, but a body hast Thou prepared Me.... Lo, I come (in the volume of the Book it is written of Me,) to do Thy will, O God." Heb 10:5-7. In these words is announced the fulfillment of the purpose that had been hidden from eternal ages. Christ was about to visit our world, and to become incarnate. He says, "A body hast Thou prepared Me." Had He appeared with the glory that was His with the Father before the world was, we could not have endured the light of His presence. That we might behold it and not be destroyed, the manifestation of His glory was shrouded. His divinity was veiled with humanity,—the invisible glory in the visible human form. - {DA 23.1}

Eph 3:15

Eph 3:15 - Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named - See Eph 1:10; Rev 22:8, 9, 19:10 Jesus has put down the rebellion started in heaven; He has magnified God's Law and character; He has brought all principalities and powers to a love and devotion to the Father (Eph 3:10); He has reconciled fallen humanity to God and His heavenly family; He has broken the power of sin in mankind that we might love God and one another as He has loved us; He has made us to sit in heavenly places;

Eph 3:16

Eph 3:16 - to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man - See Joh 14:18; 2Cor 4:16

Eph 3:17

Eph 3:17 - That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith - God is not far but near at hand as He abides in our hearts by faith. See Joh 14:18; Gal 2:20

Eph 3:17

Eph 3:18 - being rooted and grounded in love - we are to have full assurance of our salvation which is our abounding wealth. See Col 2:2, 7; 1Jo 5:11-14

Eph 3:18

Eph 3:18 - comprehend... what is the breadth, and width, and height and depth - The saints are all to become familiar with the dimensions of God's love, His salvation and His Spiritual house. Consider the experience of Eze, Zech and Joh who are counseled to measure the dimensions of God's temple. We are all to become aware of this. See Zech 2:1, 2; Eze 40:2-49; Rev 11:1, 2.

Eph 3:19

Eph 3:19 - And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge - God's love for mankind is far beyond our comprehension. See Joh 5:39

Eph 3:19

Eph 3:19 - love of Christ, which passeth knowledge - God's love is beyond our comprehension just like the peace He offers to those who believe and put their trust in Him. See Phil 4:6, 7

Eph 3:19

Eph 3:19 - that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God - being filled with all the fullness of God enables us to become partakers of the Divine nature. That we may receive of the Spirit without measure such that the devil cometh and has nothing in us (John 3:34, 14:30). Jesus is our Sufficiency. See Col 1:25-29, 2:9, 10; 2Pet 1:4, 19; Eph 1:23, 4:13, 15; Mal 4:2; 2Cor 3:5; Gal 2:20;

Eph 3:20

Eph 3:20 - Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us - the indwelling, regenerative power of the Holy Spirit is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think. This is the [imparted] power that Jesus promised to all of His followers, that we should receive by faith of Jesus Christ. Power actuated by faith to believe that God will save us to the uttermost! See Joh 1:12; Act 1:8; Heb 7:25

Eph 3:20 - according to the power that worketh in us - See Isa 26:12; Joh 1:12; Act 1:8

Eph 3:21

Eph 3:21 - Unto him be glory - See Mt 5:16

Eph 4:1

Eph 4:1 - beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called - we are to walk worthy of the calling/summons of God to salvation. See Rom 12:1-3; Eph 4:17-19; 1Cor 1:26; Col 1:10; 1Thess 2:12

Eph 4:2

Eph 4:2 - forbearing one another in love - exercising patience and indulgence with one another in love

Eph 4:3

Eph 4:3 - Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit - unity of the Spirit is achieved as we all on one accord, die to self, walk in the Spirit and seek the mind of Christ. See Eph 4:13

Eph 4:3

Eph 4:3 - in the bond of peace - See Isa 32:17; Jam 3:17, 18

Eph 4:5

Eph 4:5 - One Lord - the Lord Jesus Christ is appointed of God to be the Door to our salvation (Joh 10:7-10), the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world (Joh 1:36), Our High Priest that makes intercession for us (Heb 8:1-6), the Good Shepherd that feeds, nurtures and gives His life for the flock (Joh 10:11-18); the Rock of our salvation (Ps 95:1) and Chief Cornerstone of His church (Isa 28:16), the Lord of glory (1Cor 2:8; Jam 2:1)!

Eph 4:5

Eph 4:5 - one faith - the apostle Paul counsels us to "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints" (Jude 3; 1Tim 4:1, 6:3) implying there would be challenges and attempts to introduce counterfeits to the faith of Jesus Christ [i.e. forbidding to marry (1Tim 4:3)]. We must use the Sword of the Spirit, the Word of God to discern every attempt to pervert the faith once delivered to the saints (Heb 4:12). See 1Cor 1:10

Eph 4:5

Eph 4:8 - one baptism - the example of baptism given by John the Baptist and exercised upon Jesus Christ is the only baptism sanctioned by the Bible (Mt 3:3-16). The works of John and Jesus established the standard (Mt 28:19, 20) and this verse endorses the standard for future generations. With the baptism of immersion comes the reception of the baptism of the Holy Spirit through faith of Jesus Christ (Act 5:32).

Eph 4:8

Eph 4:8 - led captivity captive - see Ps 68:18 - Jesus' resurrection has taken captive, the captivity of the grave and the bondage to sin and has given the gift of His Holy Spirit and grace to keep us from falling. The bottom-line idea is that as long as you have a sinful nature, it is inevitable that you must continue sinning. Precisely Satan's point he has been contending for since his rebellion in heaven! But Christ slew the dragon in his last lair, proved that human sin is willful and therefore unnecessary. And in mankind who believe, He created a new abhorrence of sin that leads to its final eradication. Thus He set the captive will of sinful man free to say "No" to sin, and through the faith of Jesus to become pure and holy. Grace on Trial, R. Wieland pg 82}

Eph 4:8 - gave gifts unto men - See Ps 68:18 - The primary gift granted to men, both the righteous and wicked is the conquering of the grave that held men in fear all their lives (Heb 2:14, 15). Other gifts granted to men through Christ Jesus include: 1. Repentance - Act 5:31 2. Eternal Life 2. Redemption from our captivity to sin 3. Deliverance from sin 4. Reconciliation with the Father 5. Being grafted back into the family of God, no longer strangers or aliens, but we belong 6. Forgiveness of sins 7. An inheritance in the heavenly kingdom 8. The Holy Spirit as our earnest (downpayment) Who grants us a. Power to become sons of God b. Fruit of the Spirit c. Intercession of our prayers d. Affirmation that we are sons of God. 9. Gifts of the Spirit

Eph 4:10 - what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? - Jesus condescended to take on fallen humanity, be numbered among transgressors, be despised and afflicted for our transgressions, be bruised for mankind and lastly die an ignominious death. Isa 53; Heb 4:4;

Eph 4:10

Eph 4:10 - He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things - Jesus, Who condescended to take on humanity and die the most ignominious death on the cross, is the same Who has ascended to heaven. See Phil 2:5-8; Act 1:9-11; Joh 17:12, 13

Eph 4:13 - unto a perfect man - we are no longer to be as children, tossed to and fro with every wind of doctrine, neither are we to be led by a SchoolMaster, the Law, moral law and Law of Moses. Faith must take hold so that we permit Jesus to write the Law upon our hearts so that the works we do are the natural outgrowth of Jesus Christ living within. Rejection of the 1888 message by SDA's left us as children, holding onto the Law as our righteousness. See Gal 3:22-26; 2Tim 3:16, 17; Joh 17:20-26; Heb 5:10-6:3 "The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance." Gal 5:22, 23. This fruit can never perish, but will produce after its kind a harvest unto eternal life. - {COL 68.1} When the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come." Christ is waiting with longing desire for the manifestation of Himself in His church. When the character of Christ shall be perfectly reproduced in His people, then He will come to claim them as His own. - {COL 69.1}

Eph 4:13 - unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: - See Mal 4:2; Eph 4:15, 3:19; 2Pet 1:4; Lk 2:52; Rom 8:29 All come forth from their graves the same in stature as when they entered the tomb. Adam, who stands among the risen throng, is of lofty height and majestic form, in stature but little below the Son of God. He presents a marked contrast to the people of later generations; in this one respect is shown the great degeneracy of the race. But all arise with the freshness and vigor of eternal youth... - {CC 23.3} In order to be candidates for heaven we must meet the requirement of the law: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself" (Lk 10:27). We can do this only as we grasp by faith the righteousness of Christ. By beholding Jesus we receive a living, expanding principle in the heart, and the Holy Spirit carries on the work, and the believer advances from grace to grace, from strength to strength, from character to character. He conforms to the image of Christ, until in spiritual growth he attains unto the measure of the full stature in Christ Jesus. Thus Christ makes an end of the curse of sin, and sets the believing soul free from its action and effect.—Selected Messages 1:394, 395. - {YRP 65.4}

Eph 4:30

Eph 4:30 - grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption - See Mt 12:31, 32; Lk 12:10; Ps 19:13; Gal 2:21; Heb 10:26-29 God destroys no one. The sinner destroys himself by his own impenitence. When a person once neglects to heed the invitations, reproofs, and warnings of the Spirit of God, his conscience becomes seared, and the next time he is admonished, it will be more difficult to yield obedience than before. And thus with every repetition. Conscience is the voice of God, heard amid the conflict of human passions; when it is resisted, the Spirit of God is grieved. - {5T 120.1}

Eph 5:14

Eph 5:14-16 - Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. - Paul speaks to an idle people, who were as cumberers of the ground, bearing no fruit. He counsels them to repent, arise and redeem the time lost by applying themselves in faith to the Lord's work. See Ezekiel 37:1-10;

Eph 5:16

Eph 5:16 - Redeeming the time, because the days are evil - we are to make use of the time which remains so that we be not found wanting. We are to cast off our idleness and work with earnestness in searching for the lost sheep of the House of Israel.

Eph 5:24

Eph 5:24 - Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing - the loving relationship between a man and his wife should ensure safety and respect between individuals. Submission from the wife should come naturally as the two work and agree to be on one accord.

Eph 5:26

Eph 5:26 - That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word - See Joh 17:17, 15:3

Eph 5:27

Eph 5:27 - That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish - We are to remain unspotted from the world (Jam 1:27) and undefiled/unspotted by the corruptions of the spotted, leopard-like church of Babylon. See Rev 3:4, 14:5, 13:1-3

Eph 5:27

Eph 5:27 - not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish - It is the faithfulness, the loyalty to God, the loving service, that wins the divine approval. Every impulse of the Holy Spirit leading men to goodness and to God, is noted in the books of heaven, and in the day of God the workers through whom He has wrought will be commended. - {COL 361.3} They will enter into the joy of the Lord as they see in His kingdom those who have been redeemed through their instrumentality. And they are privileged to participate in His work there, because they have gained a fitness for it by participation in His work here. What we shall be in heaven is the reflection of what we are now in character and holy service. Christ said of Himself, "The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister." Mt 20:28. This, His work on earth, is His work in heaven. And our reward for working with Christ in this world is the greater power and wider privilege of working with Him in the world to come. - {COL 361.4}

Eph 5:30

Eph 5:30 - For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones - See Heb 2:14

Eph 5:31

Eph 5:31 - For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh - See Gen 2:24, 25

Eph 5:32

Eph 5:32 - This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church - See Eph 5:30; Heb 2:14

Eph 6:2

Eph 6:2 - Honour thy father and mother - See Ex 20:12

Eph 6:4

Eph 6:4 - but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord - It is the work of parents to train their children to proper habits of speech. The very best school for this culture is the home life. From the earliest years the children should be taught to speak respectfully and lovingly to their parents and to one another. They should be taught that only words of gentleness, truth, and purity must pass their lips. Let the parents themselves be daily learners in the school of Christ. Then by precept and example they can teach their children the use of "sound speech, that cannot be condemned." Tit 2:8. This is one of the greatest and most responsible of their duties. - {COL 337.4}

Eph 6:5

Eph 6:5 - in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ - in sincerity, loyalty and faithfulness, as unto Jesus Christ. See Eph 6:7

Eph 6:6

Eph 6:6 - Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers. See Col 3:22; Gal 4:18

Eph 6:9

Eph 6:9 - forbearing threatening - rulers/masters are to refrain from threatening their workers. Threats create a hostile environment which breeds animosity among parties.

Eph 6:9

Eph 6:9 - neither is there respect of persons with him - God does recognize men's status or cast systems. All men are the same before the Lord, where there is neither servant nor master, but all are equals. See Act 10:28, 34, 35; Mt 5:44, 45; 1Pet 1:17

Eph 6:10

Eph 6:10 - Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might - The first step in the path of obedience is to surrender the will to God. This may seem a difficult thing to do; for Satan will present every possible objection, and will manufacture difficulties, and magnify perplexities before the mind; but take the first step, and the next step on the ladder of progress will be easier. The ladder of progress must be climbed round by round; but God is above the ladder, and his glory will illuminate every step of advancement. The path of faith and self-denial is an upward path; its way is heavenward, and as you advance, the misleading clouds of doubt and evil will be left behind. - {RH October 9, 1894 Par. 6}

Eph 6:10

Eph 6:10 - in the power of his might - See Zech 4:6; 1Cor 1:23, 24, 2:4; 2Cor 12:9 As Christ's representatives the apostles were to make a decided impression on the world. The fact that they were humble men would not diminish their influence, but increase it; for the minds of their hearers would be carried from them to the Saviour, who, though unseen, was still working with them. The wonderful teaching of the apostles, their words of courage and trust, would assure all that it was not in their own power that they worked, but in the power of Christ. Humbling themselves, they would declare that He whom the Jews had crucified was the Prince of life, the Son of the living God, and that in His name they did the works that He had done. - {AA 22.3}

Eph 6:11

Eph 6:11 - Put on the whole armour of God - Said the angel, "List ye!" Soon I heard a voice like many musical instruments all sounding in perfect strains, sweet and harmonious. It surpassed any music I had ever heard, seeming to be full of mercy, compassion, and elevating, holy joy. It thrilled through my whole being. Said the angel, "Look ye!" My attention was then turned to the company I had seen, who were mightily shaken. I was shown those whom I had before seen weeping and praying in agony of spirit. The company of guardian angels around them had been doubled, and they were clothed with an armor from their head to their feet. They moved in exact order, like a company of soldiers. Their countenances expressed the severe conflict which they had endured, the agonizing struggle they had passed through. Yet their features, marked with severe internal anguish, now shone with the light and glory of heaven. They had obtained the victory, and it called forth from them the deepest gratitude and holy, sacred joy. - {EW 270.4}

Eph 6:11

Eph 6:11 - that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil - See 1Pet 2:11

Eph 6:12

Eph 6:12 - For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places - these powers in high places Christ has defeated and spoiled. We may be victors over them by faith of Jesus Christ. See Eph 2:2; Col 2:15; Heb 2:14; Gen 3:15

Eph 6:13

Eph 6:13 - and having done all, to stand - we are to do everything in our power to stand for Christ. We are to put on the whole armor of Christ and watch and pray so that we do not willfully enter into temptation, that we may be counted worthy of God. See Mt 26:41; Lk 21:36; 2Tim 1:8

Eph 6:14

Eph 6:14 - having your loins girt about with truth - truth must govern our every effort and be the essence of our being. Here, the Lord may speak of sexual purity. That which covers our body parts of modesty must be covered in righteousness and truth. See Lk 12:35

Eph 6:14

Eph 6:14 - the breastplate of righteousness - The heart is often associated with one's soul/mind and we are to keep it with all diligence (Prov 4:23, Mt 12:34). The breastplate protects all the vital organs and is therefore essential protection for our spiritual lives. Our hearts must be filled with the righteousness of Christ through the indwelling Holy Spirit. See

1Thess 5:8; Jer 23:5, 6

Eph 6:15

Eph 6:15 - feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace - our feet must be prepared to take the gospel message wherever we may be sent. See Isa 52:7; Rom 10:15; Act 26:28, 29

Eph 6:16

Eph 6:16 - Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked - the shield was a large implement used to defend the entire body from airborne darts. The buckler, was a smaller shield worn on the forearm, used in hand-to-hand battle with a sword. The Lord's Truth (God's Word - Joh 17:17) is our Shield and Buckler from the darts of lies and falsehood. See Ps 35:1, 2, 91:4 We are in the time when tribulations such as the world has never yet seen will prevail. "Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time." But God has set bounds that Satan cannot pass. Our most holy faith is this barrier; and if we build ourselves up in the faith, we shall be safe in the keeping of the Mighty One. "Because thou hast kept the word of My patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth." - {5T 297.3}

Eph 6:17

Eph 6:17 - helmet of salvation - the helmet defends the head and mind, where thoughts are developed, where decisions are made. We ought to make all of our decisions with judgment, eternity, our love for God and our salvation always in mind. We must meditate on Christ and His righteousness, Who is OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS, and not give heed to the suggestions and accusations of the devil (Zech 3:1-5). See 1Jo 5:11-13; 1Thess 5:8; Phil 4:6, 7

Eph 6:17

Eph 6:17 - the sword of the Spirit which is the word of God is our only offensive weapon in our spiritual warfare. - See Heb 4:12 Build a wall of scriptures around you, and you will see that the world cannot break it down. Commit the Scriptures to memory, and then throw right back upon Satan when he comes with his temptations, "It is written." This is the way that our Lord met the temptations of Satan, and resisted them.—The Review and Herald, April 10, 1888. - {LDE 67.2} Hang in memory's hall the precious words of Christ. They are to be valued far above silver or gold.—Testimonies for the Church 6:81 (1900). - {LDE 67.3} Keep a pocket Bible with you as you work, and improve every opportunity to commit to memory its precious promises.—The Review and Herald, April 27, 1905. - {LDE 67.4} The time will come when many will be deprived of the written Word. But if this Word is printed in the memory, no one can take it from us.—Manuscript Releases 20:64 (1906). - {LDE 67.5} Study the Word of God. Commit its precious promises to memory so that, when we shall be deprived of our Bibles, we may still be in possession of the Word of God.—Manuscript Releases 10:298 (1909). - {LDE 67.6}

Eph 6:18

Eph 6:18 - Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit - we are to make our prayers, supplications and intercessions to the LORD, mindful of the Spirit of God Who knows the Mind of God and works with our spiritual infirmities, weaknesses and lack of understanding to make our petitions effectual before the LORD. The Holy Spirit, our Comforter and our Aid can direct us in what we ought to ask, what would glorify God and be a blessing to others. See 2Kin 6:15-18; Rom 8:26, 27; Jam 4:15; Lk 12:11, 12; Heb 4:16

Eph 6:18

Eph 6:18 - Praying always - See 1Thess 5:17, 25; Rom 1:9

Eph 6:18

Eph 6:18 - in the Spirit - we are to worship the LORD in Spirit and in truth. We must have our prayers transformed and augmented by the Holy Spirit Who makes petitions with groaning on our behalf. See Rom 8:26, 27, 34

Eph 6:18

Eph 6:18 - watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints - We are to be vigilant watchmen, praying for all the saints and looking for God's answers to those prayers lifted. Col 4:2-6

Eph 6:18

Eph 6:19 - for all saints - as we cooperate with the Lord to dawn the armor of God for ourselves, our prayers of intercession for others is to encourage, strengthen and buoy the faith of others. This shows that we have the mind of Christ when we desire the good of all the saints.

Eph 6:19

Eph 6:19 - And for me, that utterance may be given unto me - Paul is asking the saints to pray that utterances from the Lord be given to him that he may speak the mystery of god with boldness. Paul understood that he would face foes among the Jews (Act 13:42-48) and among the Gentiles (Act 19:21-30) and therefore prayed that he not falter in speaking the truth with heavenly boldness. See Rom 15:30

Eph 6:19

Eph 6:19 - open my mouth boldly - See Ps 81:10; 2Cor 2:14-16; Act 18:9

Eph 6:19

Eph 6:19 - to make known the mystery of the gospel - Mk 4:11 - mystery of the kingdom of God. The kingdom dwells inside of us (Lk 17:21) Col 1:27 - Christ in you, the hope of glory Isa 56:1-7; Act 1:7, 8; Rom 16:25-27; Eph 2:13-21, 3:1-9 1Pet 2:9, 10; Joh 11:51, 52 - mystery of the gospel from the foundation of the world, that God would make all His people, who come from a common blood The mystery of the gospel became such from the introduction of sin. With sin came a separation resulting in our loss of a knowledge and love for God. The resulting separation increased with time as two classes of people were formed on the earth, one choosing to live outside of God's will. Even with those who claimed to maintain a knowledge of the true God, the enemy of souls perverted their understanding such that the gospel became covered by sin and man's traditions. For example, Abraham understood the promises to apply to all families of the earth, yet his descendants believed the promises to be reserved for themselves.

Eph 6:19

Eph 6:19 - mystery of the gospel - They began to realize the nature and extent of their work, to see that they were to proclaim to the world the truths entrusted to them. The events of Christ's life, His death and resurrection, the prophecies pointing to these events, the mysteries of the plan of salvation, the power of Jesus for the remission of sins—to all these things they had been witnesses, and they were to make them known to the world. They were to proclaim the gospel of peace and salvation through repentance and the power of the Saviour. - {AA 27.1}

Eph 6:20

Eph 6:20 - For which I am an ambassador in bonds - Paul was in bonds for his proclamation of the gospel. See Col 4:3; Rev 1:9; Heb 13:3

Eph 6:20

Eph 6:20 - an ambassador - See 2Cor 5:19, 20

Eph 6:20

Eph 6:20 - in bonds - Paul had learned to be an ambassador for Christ in season and out of season (2Tim 4:2). No matter his circumstances, Paul was prepared to proclaim the gospel and so should we.

Eph 6:20

Eph 6:20 - as I ought to speak - Paul recognizes that he is not speaking his own words nor on behalf of himself, but as a representative of the omnipotent God, he has heavenly boldness that his message is truth and empowered by the Spirit of God. See Mt 28:18-20 Christ did not tell His disciples that their work would be easy. He showed them the vast confederacy of evil arrayed against them. They would have to fight “against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.” Eph 6:12. But they would not be left to fight alone. He assured them that He would be with them; and that if they would go forth in faith, they should move under the shield of Omnipotence. He bade them be brave and strong; for One mightier than angels would be in their ranks—the General of the armies of heaven. He made full provision for the prosecution of their work and took upon Himself the responsibility of its success. So long as they obeyed His word, and worked in connection with Him, they could not fail. Go to all nations, He bade them. Go to the farthest part of the habitable globe and be assured that My presence will be with you even there. Labor in faith and confidence; for the time will never come when I will forsake you. I will be with you always, helping you to perform your duty, guiding, comforting, sanctifying, sustaining you, giving you success in speaking words that shall draw the attention of others to heaven. - {AA 29.1}

Phil 1:1Back to Table of Contents

Phil 1:1 - to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi - The Phil were the most loving and truehearted of the apostle's converts, and during the eight days of the feast [Passover] he enjoyed peaceful and happy communion with them. - {AA 390.4}

Phil 1:3

Phil 1:3 - I thank my God upon every remembrance of you - The church at Philippi obviously made a substantial impression upon Paul that by the remembrance of them, thanksgiving is offered to the Lord.

Phil 1:6

Phil 1:6 - Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ: See - See Isa 28:29, 55:11; Ps 138:8; Rom 4:21; Heb 12:2

Phil 1:6

Philippians 1:6 - Being confident of this very thing - being fully persuaded - See Rom 4:21; Heb 11:13; 1Jo 1:9

Phil 1:7

Phil 1:7 - inasmuch as both in my bonds - Paul writes to his beloved church in Philippi from his prison house in Rome. See Phil 1:12-14

Phil 1:10

Phil 1:10 - That ye may approve things that are excellent - See Eph 5:10

Phil 1:10

Philippians 1:10 - that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ - we are to be true, without guile, not duplicitous nor feigning sincerity.

Philippians 1:12 - But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel - See Rom 8:28; Act 8:1-4

Phil 1:15

Philippians 1:15-18 - Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will: The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds: But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel. What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. - Paul speaks of false teachers and apostles who in malice and for contention, speak of Christ (Jam 3:14-16) and then also of those who preach of Christ in sincerity (2Cor 2:14-17). Though Paul would much rather those who seek to bring affliction to him and the cause of Christ repent and be converted (Act 3:19; 2Pet 3:9), yet he recognizes the power of God and of the gospel to reach lives, even when preached in contention, and thus he rejoices. This presents an object lesson in our ministry. We must use and rejoice in every opportunity to hear the gospel preached and Jesus Christ being spoken and lifted up. To those who are perishing, the message will be unto destruction. To those who are ordained for redemption, it will do its work of conviction unto eternal life. See 2Cor 2:14-17

Philippians 1:18 - What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice - whether in truth or insincerity, that Christ is preached is good with Paul. This

Phil 1:19

Phil 1:19 - For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ - Paul's bondage and hardship would turn to good, to his own salvation by our prayer and the supply of the power of the Holy Spirit abiding in him. See Rom 5:5, 8:28

Phil 1:19

Philippians 1:19 - Spirit of Jesus Christ - the Holy Spirit is One with Christ and the Father and is called the Spirit of God and the Spirit of Christ. He is the very presence of Jesus Christ here upon the earth, in full power and accessible to us all by faith. See Isa 48:16

Phil 1:20

Phil 1:20 - that in nothing I shall be ashamed - Paul purposed to live a life above reproach, one that was wholly pleasing unto the LORD.

Phil 1:20

Phil 1:20 - so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death - See Rom 14:8

Phil 1:21

Philippians 1:21 - For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain - Paul speaks of the singleness of mind in which he lives his life. Paul's life was hid in Christ, he lived for Christ and would eventually die for Christ and His glory. Paul says that all of his focus in life would be toward Christ and his death would mean the end of his life of trials in order to await the crown of life in Jesus Christ. See Col 3:3, 4

Phil 1:21

Philippians 1:21 - and to die is gain - sin no longer wars against the dead. See Rom 6:7

Phil 1:22

Philippians 1:22 - But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not -

Phil 1:23

Philippians 1:23 - For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better - Paul ways the option of remaining alive in the flesh with its trials and labors, or to rest in Christ, sealed with Christ's righteousness until the redemption. We should now note carefully Paul's comparison when he speaks of "departing" to be with Christ as "far better." It was not that to die was better than to live, and that he therefore desired to die. The desire of his heart was to be "with Christ," or "with the Lord," which is vastly different. To the two alternatives (to "live" or to "die"), upon which he could not make up his mind, Paul now adds a third choice, which was his deep desire -- and that was to "depart" and "to be with Christ," which is "very far better" (Philippians 1:23, R.V., A.R.V.). That would be to be caught up with Christ, through translation, to meet the Lord in the air when Christ comes to be "glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe . . . in that day" (2 Thessalonians 1:10). This sound solution has been set forth by various reputable scholars back through the years, with no theory on the nature of men to sustain. {1966 LEF, CFF1 364.9} This was "very far [pollo mallon, "much more"; "far, far" -- Weymouth] better" -- a double comparative. "Better" than what? Clearly, than either of the two he had just mentioned (living or dying). Therefore it cannot mean death, but some event or means by which alone Paul could be with Christ -- by being "caught up" alive (1 Thessalonians 4:16,17) through translation, either at the Advent, or a special translation, as with Enoch and Elijah. Paul had been in a strait between the first two, having difficulty in choosing between them. But the third alternative ended all indecision. {1966 LEF, CFF1 365.1} Paul's "desire to depart" was mentioned in the midst of his discussion of the alternatives of life amid many perils, and dying and being at rest. He at first did not know which he should choose. But there appears this third consideration, which was "far, far better" -- to "depart," or go to be with Christ through translation, and thus be personally with Christ without dying. That was his heart's deepest desire. {1966 LEF, CFF1 365.2} I have thought of Paul, the great minister who was sent to preach Christ and Him crucified to the Gentiles. On one occasion he was in a strait betwixt two. He was so weighed down with responsibilities that he knew not whether he would rather die or live, whether he would choose for the good of others to abide in the flesh or give up the conflict. "Brethren," he writes, "I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." - {SW 89.5}

Phil 2:4

Phil 2:4 - Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others - we are to be selfless as the angels are in heaven, seeking how they may serve and minister to others for their good. Similarly, we are to seek the good of others and consider the welfare, needs and happiness of others. In so doing, we fulfill the perfect law of love and liberty and God will heal us of our sin sickness. See Isa 58:10-12; 1Cor 10:24, 33

Phil 2:5

Phil 2:5 - Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus - See Lk 12:37, 14:10, 11 The mind of Jesus alone can comprehend the righteousness of God. Therefore, unless we have the mind of Christ, it is impossible for us to grasp God's idea of righteousness nor have the righteousness of God, nor understand God's idea of justification by faith. We can not have the mind of Christ without the rest of Him, it follows therefore, that we must have here personal presence of Christ Himself. But Jesus bade His followers take up the cross and bear it after Him. To the disciples His words, though dimly comprehended, pointed to their submission to the most bitter humiliation,—submission even unto death for the sake of Christ. No more complete self-surrender could the Saviour's words have pictured. But all this He had accepted for them. Jesus did not count heaven a place to be desired while we were lost. He left the heavenly courts for a life of reproach and insult, and a death of shame. He who was rich in heaven's priceless treasure, became poor, that through His poverty we might be rich. We are to follow in the path He trod. - {DA 416.3} "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus." He died to make an atonement, and to become a pattern for every one who would be His disciple. Shall selfishness come into your hearts? And will those who set not before them the pattern, Jesus, extol your merits? You have none except as they come through Jesus Christ. Shall pride be harbored after you have seen Deity humbling Himself, and then as man debasing Himself, till there was no lower point to which He could descend? "Be astonished, O ye heavens," and be amazed, ye inhabitants of the earth, that such returns should be made to our Lord! What contempt! what wickedness! what formality! what pride! what efforts made to lift up man and glorify self, when the Lord of glory humbled Himself, agonized, and died the shameful death upon the cross in our behalf (The Review and Herald, September 4, 1900)!. - {5BC 1128.1}

Phil 2:6 - thought it not robbery to be equal with God - harpagmós Noun Masculine har-pag-mos' from (726) from ; plunder (properly concrete):--robbery. the act of seizing, robbery a thing seized or to be seized booty to deem anything a prize a thing to be seized upon or to be held fast, retained Jesus did not covet position or title, as one who pridefully jockeys for position [even through fraud and usurpation (theft) - i.e. Herod], the privilege, honor and divine right to be equal with God. In other words, He, knowing fully who He was and that He shared all things with the Father (Joh 13:3, compare Lk 15:29-31), was willing to lay down His divinity for what He saw as a higher calling, to ransom humankind. See Heb 5:5, 12:1-3 Lucifer had said, "I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; ... I will be like the Most High." Isa 14:13, 14. But Christ, "being in the form of God, counted it not a thing to be grasped to be on an equality with God, but emptied Himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men." Phil 2:12

Phil 2:12 - work out your own salvation - Salvation is a personal thing and must be entered into through the strait and narrow gate of surrender, individually (Isa 27:12; Eze 14:20; Heb 12:28). Our "work" is a work of faith and righteousness, where we are to SURRENDER by "coming" to Jesus, opening the heart to Him, for without Him we can do nothing (John 15:5; Mt 6:33; Heb 4:11; Isa 32:17; Zechariah 4:6). When we come to Jesus, He comes to us (John 14:16-18; Act 3:20; James 4:8), bringing eternal life; this is the first work appointed to us. See James 2; 1Jo 3:3; Mt 11:28, 29; Heb 11:6; Rev 22:17; Isa 55:1-3; Rom 10:1-4; 2Pet 1:10; 2Cor 5:9; CONTRAST John 5:40 The first step in the path of obedience is to surrender the will to God. This may seem a difficult thing to do; for Satan will present every possible objection, and will manufacture difficulties, and magnify perplexities before the mind; but take the first step, and the next step on the ladder of progress will be easier. The ladder of progress must be climbed round by round; but God is above the ladder, and his glory will illuminate every step of advancement. The path of faith and self-denial is an upward path; its way is heavenward, and as you advance, the misleading clouds of doubt and evil will be left behind. - {RH October 9, 1894 Par. 6} Many young men are sent forth to labor, who do not understand the plan of salvation and what true conversion is; in fact they need to be converted. We need to be enlightened on this point, and the ministers need to be educated to dwell more particularly upon subjects which explain true conversion. All who are baptized are to give evidence that they have been converted. There is not a point that needs to be dwelt upon more earnestly, repeated more frequently, or established more firmly in the minds of all, than the impossibility of fallen man meriting anything by his own best good works. Salvation is through faith in Jesus Christ alone. - {1888 811.2} In this age, just prior to the second coming of Christ in the clouds of heaven, such a work as that of Joh [the Baptist] is to be done. God calls for men who will prepare a people to stand in the great day of the Lord.... In order to give such a message as Joh gave, we must have a spiritual experience like his. The same work must be wrought in us. We must behold God, and in beholding Him lose sight of self.—Testimonies for the Church 8:332, 333 (1904). - {LDE 63.1} Communion with God will ennoble the character and the life. Men will take knowledge of us, as of the first disciples, that we have been with Jesus. This will impart to the worker a power that nothing else can give. Of this power he must not allow himself to be deprived. We must live a twofold life—a life of thought and action, of silent prayer and earnest work.—The Ministry of Healing, 512 (1905). - {LDE 63.2} Prayer and effort, effort and prayer, will be the business of your life. You must pray as though the efficiency and praise were all due to God, and labor as though duty were all your own.—Testimonies for the Church 4:538 (1881).

Phil 2:12

Philippians 2:12 - salvation - salvation - Salvation is two-fold. 1. Salvation from sin. This is a progressive work of Christian life. Some mistake and think the work is finished because they feel that they love the way of truth, and have no desire or disposition to sin. But, as before noticed, they may sin ignorantly, and do things which are offensive to God because they are not fully instructed in the right. When these sins come to their knowledge they must repent; and if they refuse or neglect to repent of them, they stand as indorsing thorn, and then their relation is changed and they must be counted sins of presumption. And there is place for continuance of this work of increasing in knowledge and reforming in life until we become as perfect in knowledge as our circumstances will permit. This is growth in grace, without which the believer either remains a babe in the Christian life, or degenerates into a fixed state of formality; for no one has a complete knowledge of truth and duty when first he submits himself to God. It is incumbent upon him to grow up into it. {1882 JHW, JBF 6.2} 2. There is a final salvation which is brought unto us at the appearing of Christ; of which, salvation from sin (or justification and growth in grace) is the necessary prerequisite. Of this salvation the Scriptures make very frequent mention. The Saviour said: "He that shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved." Matt. 24:13; the same in chap. 10:22, and Mark 13:13. This salvation comes after that which is called "the end." Paul said to his brethren; "And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep; for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed." Rom 13:11. Waiving all question as to "the time" to which he referred, we notice that this salvation did not come to them when they believed. It is a future salvation to the believer. {1882 JHW, JBF 7.1}

Phil 2:13

Philippians 2:13 - For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure - See Heb 13:21 It is not you who are to do that which He [the Lord] pleases: but, "It shall accomplish that which I please." You are not to read or hear the word of God, and say, I must do that, I will do that. You are to open the heart to that word, that it may accomplish the will of God in you... The word of God itself is to do it, and you are to let it. "Let the word of Christ dwell in you." {Review & Herald, October 20, 1896}

Phil 2:13

Phil 2:13 - worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure - The Lord, through the written Word and the Holy Spirit, both of which abiding within (John 15:7), will through surrender and by faith, work the works of God. See John 6:29, 14:10, 12:49, 50; Isa 26:12; Heb 4:12, 13:21; Ps 143:10 While these youth were working out their own salvation, God was working in them to will and to do of His good pleasure. Here are revealed the conditions of success. To make God's grace our own, we must act our part. The Lord does not propose to perform for us either the willing or the doing. His grace is given to work in us to will and to do, but never as a substitute for our effort. Our souls are to be aroused to cooperate. The Holy Spirit works in us, that we may work out our own salvation. This is the practical lesson the Holy Spirit is striving to teach us. "It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure" (Phil 2:13). - {YRP 144.2} The government of God is not, as Satan would make it appear, founded upon a blind submission, an unreasoning control. It appeals to the intellect and the conscience. "Come now, and let us reason together" is the Creator's invitation to the beings He has made. Isa 1:18. God does not force the will of His creatures.

He cannot accept an homage that is not willingly and intelligently given. A mere forced submission would prevent all real development of mind or character; it would make man a mere automaton. Such is not the purpose of the Creator. He desires that man, the crowning work of His creative power, shall reach the highest possible development. He sets before us the height of blessing to which He desires to bring us through His grace. He invites us to give ourselves to Him, that He may work His will in us. It remains for us to choose whether we will be set free from the bondage of sin, to share the glorious liberty of the sons of God. - {SC 43.4} Many are inquiring, "How am I to make the surrender of myself to God?" You desire to give yourself to Him, but you are weak in moral power, in slavery to doubt, and controlled by the habits of your life of sin. Your promises and resolutions are like ropes of sand. You cannot control your thoughts, your impulses, your affections. The knowledge of your broken promises and forfeited pledges weakens your confidence in your own sincerity, and causes you to feel that God cannot accept you; but you need not despair. What you need to understand is the true force of the will. This is the governing power in the nature of man, the power of decision, or of choice. Everything depends on the right action of the will. The power of choice God has given to men; it is theirs to exercise. You cannot change your heart, you cannot of yourself give to God its affections; but you can choose to serve Him. You can give Him your will; He will then work in you to will and to do according to His good pleasure. Thus your whole nature will be brought under the control of the Spirit of Christ; your affections will be centered upon Him, your thoughts will be in harmony with Him. - {SC 47.1}

Philippians 2:13 - both to will and to do of his good pleasure - What you need to understand is the true force of the will. This is the governing power in the nature of man, the power of decision, or of choice. Everything depends on the right action of the will. The power of choice God has given to men; it is theirs to exercise. You cannot change your heart, you cannot of yourself give to God its affections; but you can choose to serve Him. You can give Him your will; He will then work in you to will and to do according to His good pleasure. {SC 47.1} "The statement points out that the right use of the will is composed of two things 1) making a choice, or decision, to obey the Lord and 2) surrendering that choice to Jesus, believing He will give you the power to do what you have chosen to do. These two things give the Lord permission to work in you both to will and to do His good pleasure. This is what it means to "give Him your will.""{Surrender, G. Jackson, pg 55.2}

Phil 2:30 - Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life - selfless service is commendable to the Lord.

Phil 3:1

Phil 3:1 - Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord - Paul, who is imprisoned in a Roman jail is writing to the saints to rejoice in the Lord. See Ps 37:25

Phil 3:2

Phil 3:2 - beware of the concision - the cutting off. Paul warns of those who will seek to persuade converts to adhere to the Jewish traditions and types which were a shadow of things to come, but were done away with in Christ. Gal 3:1-5

Phil 3:3

Phil 3:3 - For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus - Rom 2:28, 29; Col 2:11

Phil 3:3

Philippians 3:3 - which worship God in the spirit - See Joh 3:5-8, 4:21-24; Rom 8:9; Gal 5:16

Phil 3:3

Phil 3:3 - have no confidence in the flesh - See John 6:63; Rom 7:18, 8:1-4; Jer 17:5, 6

Phil 3:4

Philippians 3:4 - Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more: - See 1Cor 14:36, 347

Phil 3:5

Philippians 3:5 - Circumcised the eighth day - See Gen 17:7-12

Phil 3:5

Philippians 3:5 - as touching the law, a Pharisee -

Phil 3:6

Philippians 3:6 - Concerning zeal, persecuting the church - See Act 7:58, 9:1, 2

Phil 3:6

Phil 3:6 - touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless - Paul was a devout Israelite and sought to establish his own righteousness according to the works of the Law, rather than by faith of Jesus Christ. See Rom 10:1-4; Gal 2:21; Mt 19:20|Mk 10:20|Lk 18:21

Phil 3:7

Phil 3:7 - But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ - the pride, praise of men, and self-righteousness that came from upholding the "righteousness of the law by works" Paul counts as loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ according to the faith. Phil 3:18, 19; Rom 10:4; Gal 2:21

Phil 3:8

Philippians 3:8 - Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord - See Eph 1:19-23; Philippians 3:10

Phil 3:8

Phil 3:8 - for Whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ. See parables of the hidden treasure and pearl - Mt 13:44-46; 19:27-30; 2Cor 4:17

Phil 3:9

Phil 3:9 - and be found in Him - See Col 2:10, 3:3; Joh 15:4-8

Phil 3:9

Phil 3:9 - not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law - See Isa 64:6; Rom 9:31-33,

10:2, 3; Gal 2:21, 3:10

Phil 3:9

Philippians 3:9 - but that which is through the faith of Christ - See Habakkuk 2:4; Heb 10:38; Rom 1:17, 3:21, 22, 4:5; Gal 2:20

Phil 3:9

Phil 3:10 - the righteousness which is of God by faith - See Jer 23:5, 6; Ps 24:4, 5; Rev 14:12; Heb 11:7; Gen 15:6; Mt 8:5-13, 15:22-28; Rom 3:21, 22, 26, 1:16, 17, 4:4, 5, 9:30, 10:1-4; Gal 2:20

Phil 3:10

Phil 3:10 - That I may know him - to have an experience with Christ that transforms the being. Not mere head knowledge, but that we might know Him and He knows us (Joh 10:14). See Gen 4:1; Eph 4:13; Joh 8:32; 2Cor 4:6; 2Pet 1:2; Jer 9:23, 24 the man born blind who, when he encountered Jesus, fell down and worshipped Him. This was an act of reverent gratitude, something all should express towards Christ. See Jer 9:23, 24; Joh 9:35-38

Phil 3:10

Phil 3:10 - (Grk - ginōskō) - to learn to know, come to know, get a knowledge of perceive, feel. John 3:3, 5

Phil 3:10

Phil 3:10 - power of His resurrection - Jesus' resurrection power, which is the same as His creation power, is that which allows me to be quickened to a new life in Christ; can create in me a clean heart and renew a right spirit in me; it can renew my mind, to prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God; it can make me into a new creation, where old things are passed away and all things have become new; it can give me power to live righteously, soberly, godly in the present age; it can make me a partaker of the divine nature, having escaped the corruptions of the world through lust and it can make me a son of God, born according to His will. See Ps 51:10; Rom 6:13, 12:1, 2; 2Cor 5:17; Tit 2:11-15; 2Pet 1:2-4; Eph 2:5, 6; Gal 2:20, 21; 1Cor 15:50-58; 2Cor 4:7; John 1:12, 13 We must experience resurrection power on a daily basis as we die daily and yet live, with Jesus Christ living within. See 1Cor 15:31; Gal 2:20

Phil 3:10

Phil 3:10 - and the fellowship of his sufferings - blessed are they that suffer for righteousness sake. See Mt 5:10-12; Rom 8:17; 1Pet 2:18-23, 4:12-19; Act 5:40-42, 13:50-52; Philippians 1:29, 30 1. Jesus was a man of sorrows and well acquainted with grief (Isa 53:3) 2. Jesus walked the winepress alone, no companion to accompany Him (Isa 63:3)

Phil 3:10

Phil 3:10 - being made conformable unto his death - willing to humble myself to the point of death, even the death of the cross - to be crucified with Christ, complete death to self (Phil 2:5-8). See Mt 16:24; Lk 9:23, 24||Gal 2:20; Rev 12:11; Rom 6:4, 5; Col 2:12, 3:3, 4

Phil 3:11

Phil 3:11 - If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead - that we may be found worthy to partake of the first resurrection, the resurrection of life. See Rev 20:6; Joh 5:24-29; 1Thess 4:14-17; Dan 12:2

Phil 3:12

Philippians 3:12 - but I follow after - See Mt 10:22; John 8:31

Phil 3:12

Philippians 3:11 - apprehend - To take or seize; to take hold of. In this literal sense, it is applied chiefly to taking or arresting persons by legal process, or with a view to trial; as to apprehend a thief.

Phil 3:12

Philippians 3:12 - that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus - that for which I am called to by Christ Jesus - See Col 1:28, 29

Phil 3:13

Phil 3:15 - forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before - We must bury the past with its pains, disappointments, mistakes, lusts and passions; We must set our minds on another time and seek that which is to come. See Tit 2:12, 13 As we are forgiven in Jesus Christ and for God's own sake, He remembers our sins no more, so we must forget those things which are behind and press forward - 1Jo 1:9; Isa 43:25 Paul never forgot his former life of persecution of God's church which kept him humble, yet he did not dwell on those things continually so that he was handicapped from doing God's work.

Phil 3:13

Philippians 3:13 - reaching forth unto those things which are before - reaching for the mind of Christ, the fellowship of the Spirit with those of like mind, the perfected life in Jesus Christ, the fellowship of heavenly angels, the fellowship with God the Father and Jesus Christ. See 2Cor 4:18; 2Tim 4:8; Jam 1:12

Phil 3:14

Phil 3:14 - I press toward the mark - the mark is the standard of Christ, the righteousness of Christ given by grace through faith of Jesus Christ.

Phil 3:14

Phil 3:14 - the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus - the mind of Christ, the character of Christ, the knowledge of Christ, and the gift of God which is eternal life in Christ Jesus the Lord.

Phil 3:15

Phil 3:15 - as many as be perfect - See Job 1:1; Col 2:10, 3:3, 4 Satan had claimed that it was impossible for man to obey God's commandments; and in our own strength it is true that we cannot obey them. But Christ came in the form of humanity, and by His perfect obedience He proved that humanity and divinity combined can obey every one of God's precepts. - {COL 3:14.4} "As many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name." Joh 1:12. This power is not in the human agent. It is the power of God. When a soul receives Christ, he receives power to live the life of Christ. - {COL 3:14.5} God requires perfection of His children. His law is a transcript of His own character, and it is the standard of all character. This infinite standard is presented to all that there may be no mistake in regard to the kind of people whom God will have to compose His kingdom. The life of Christ on earth was a perfect expression of God's law, and when those who claim to be children of God become Christlike in character, they will be obedient to God's commandments. Then the Lord can trust them to be of the number who shall compose the family of heaven. Clothed in the glorious apparel of Christ's righteousness, they have a place at the King's feast. They have a right to join the blood-washed throng. - {COL 3:15.1}

Philippians 3:15 - be thus minded - singular in mind, not double minded which is unstable; of one accord in mind. See Philippians 2:1-4

Phil 3:15

Phil 3:15 - and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you - God is going to lead us into ALL truth and understanding as it pertains to attaining and receiving the knowledge of Jesus Christ unto godliness. See Joh 16:13; 1Cor 2:9-13; Jam 1:5

Phil 3:16

Philippians 3:16 - Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing - See Amos 3:3;

Phil 3:17

Philippians 3:17 - Brethren, be followers together of me - See 1Cor 11:1; Philippians 4:9

Phil 3:18

Phil 3:18 - For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: - See 2Tim 3:1-5; Gal 5:10-12; Rev 2:10, 3:9

Phil 3:18

Philippians 3:16 - and now tell you even weeping - See Ezek 9:4

Phil 3:18

Philippians 3:18 - they are the enemies of the cross of Christ - See Philippians 1:15-18

Phil 3:19

Phil 3:19 - whose God is their belly - those who are slaves to appetite (food, sexual, etc.) are here mentioned. See Matt 6:25, 31; Prov 23:2

Phil 3:19

Phil 3:19 - and whose glory is in their shame - they who glory in their flesh (their works, self-righteousness, worldliness, etc.), glory in that which makes for their shame before the Lord. See Rev 16:15; Jam 3:14-16

Phil 3:19

Phil 3:19 - who mind earthly things - See Mt 6:25-34; Rom 8:5, 6

Phil 3:20

Phil 3:20 - For our conversation is in heaven - our lives (citizenship) conduct and discourse is in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. We are citizens of heaven and are to live and act as such. See Joh 17:16; Eph 1:3, 2:6; Heb 11:14, 16; 1Jo 4:17; Col 3:3

Phil 3:20

Philippians 3:20 - from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ - See Titus 2:13

Phil 3:21

Phil 3:21 - Who shall change our vile body - flesh and blood can not inherit eternal life. We must be transformed into Christ's image, both in character and body. See 1Cor 15:51-54 So Christ was to come in "the body of our humiliation" (Phil 3:21, R. V.), "in the likeness of men." In the eyes of the world He possessed no beauty that they should desire Him; yet He was the incarnate God, the light of heaven and earth. His glory was veiled, His greatness and majesty were hidden, that He might draw near to sorrowful, tempted men. - {DA 23.2}

Phil 3:21

Phil 3:21 - that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body - See 1Jo 3:2; Ps 17:15

Phil 3:21

Phil 3:21 - His glorious body - See Joh 20:26; 1Jo 3:2

Phil 3:21

Phil 3:21 - He is able even to subdue all things unto Himself - See Col 2:15; 2Cor 10:4-6; Eph 1:19-23

Phil 4:1

Phil 4:1 - so stand fast in the Lord - Paul is encouraging the saints to hold fast to the faith once delivered to the saints - the faith of Jesus Christ according to righteousness for our salvation.

Phil 4:2

Phil 4:2 - I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord - Paul is apparently reproofing two individuals that they put aside their differences and be of like mind in things pertaining to the Lord.

Phil 4:3

Phil 4:3 - whose names are in the book of life - See Lk 10:20; Rev 3:5

Phil 4:4

Phil 4:4 - Rejoice in the LORD always, and again I say rejoice - We are to give thanks to God at all times and in all circumstances. Paul again, wrote as a prisoner in a Roman jail. See Joh 15:10, 11; Act 28:30, 31; Phil 4:22; 1Thess 5:15; 2Cor 6:10

Phil 4:5

Phil 4:5 - moderation - no excesses, calmness of mind, restraint, modesty, equanimity, to bear prosperity and adversity with moderation

Phil 4:5

Phil 4:5 - The Lord is at hand - See Hymn #476 Burdens are Lifted at Calvary

Phil 4:6

Phil 4:6 - Be careful for nothing - be anxious for nothing, be preoccupied and concerned for nothing. When we make our challenges, obstacles, situations bigger than God, we walk in the flesh, we lose focus and we lose peace of mind - See Rom 5:9; 8:35; Isa 32:17; 41:10; Heb 6:18, 12:17; 1Pet 5:7

Phil 4:6

Phil 4:6 - supplication - Petition; earnest request

Phil 4:6

Phil 4:6 - with thanksgiving - See Eph 5:20; 1Thess 5:18; Col 4:2

Phil 4:6

Phil 4:6 - let your requests be made known unto God - we are to ASK the Lord as He is our Father. See Mt 7:7-11; Joh 16:23, 24

Phil 4:7

Phil 4:7 - And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding - God's peace goes beyond our understanding just as His love. Fullness of Joy, peace, rest and refreshing are found in God's presence in the Sanctuary. See Eph 3:19; Rom 8:6; Hag 2:9; Col 3:15; Ps 29:11

Phil 4:7

Phil 4:7 - shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus - See Prov 4:20-23

Phil 4:8

Phil 4:8 - Finally brethren - The apostle sought to teach the believers how important it is to keep the mind from wandering to forbidden themes or from spending its energies on trifling subjects. Those who would not fall a prey to Satan's devices, must guard well the avenues of the soul; they must avoid reading, seeing, or hearing that which will suggest impure thoughts. The mind must not be left to dwell at random upon every subject that the enemy of souls may suggest. The heart must be faithfully sentinelled, or evils without will awaken evils within, and the soul will wander in darkness. "Gird up the loins of your mind," Peter wrote, "be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; ... not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance: but as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy." - {AA 518.2}

Phil 4:8

Phil 4:8 - whatsoever things are true - truthful - See Joh 14:6

Phil 4:8

Phil 4:8 - whatsoever things are honest - august, reverend, grave, honorable - See Rev 14:5

Phil 4:8

Phil 4:10 - whatsoever things are just - See Lev 19:36; Prov 16:11; Mic 6:8

Phil 4:8

Phil 4:8 - whatsoever things are pure - See Jam 1:27; Joh 1:46-49

Phil 4:8

Phil 4:8 - whatsoever things are lovely - See Isa 52:7

Phil 4:8

Phil 4:8 - whatsoever things are of good report - See Isa 52:7; Prov 25:25

Phil 4:8

Phil 4:8 - if there be any virtue - See 2Pet 1:5

Phil 4:8

Phil 4:8 - think on these things - There are many beliefs that the mind has no right to entertain. In the days of Christ the rabbis put a forced, mystical construction upon many portions of Scripture. Because the plain teaching of God's Word condemned their practices, they tried to destroy its force. The same thing is done today. The Word of God is made to appear mysterious and obscure in order to excuse transgression of His law. Christ rebuked these practices in His day. He taught that the Word of God was to be understood by all. He pointed to the Scriptures as of unquestionable authority, and we should do the same. The Bible is to be presented as the word of the infinite God, as the end of all controversy and the foundation of all faith. - {LHU 108.4}

Phil 4:9

Phil 4:9 - Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do - See 2Tim 1:13, 3:10, 14; Phil 3:13-17

Phil 4:9

Phil 4:9 - and the God of peace - It is God Who brings peace. See Phil 4:7; Rom 8:6

Phil 4:11

Phil 4:11 - for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content - See Phil 4:12; 1Tim 6:6, 8

Phil 4:13

Phil 4:13 - I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me - See Joh 15:5; Ps 84:7; Mt 17:20 The omnipotent power of the Holy Spirit is the defense of every contrite soul. Not one that in penitence and faith has claimed His protection will Christ permit to pass under the enemy's power. The Saviour is by the side of His tempted and tried ones. With Him there can be no such thing as failure, loss, impossibility, or defeat; we can do all things through Him who strengthens us. When temptations and trials come, do not wait to adjust all the difficulties, but look to Jesus, your helper. - {DA 490.5} If Christ was a victor on the point of appetite, then there was a chance for man to overcome. If Satan gained the victory through his subtlety, man was bound by the power of appetite in chains of indulgence which he could not have moral power to break. Christ's humanity alone could never have endured this test, but His divine power combined with humanity gained in behalf of man an infinite victory. Our representative in this victory raised humanity in the scale of moral value with God. - {Confrontation 66.2}

Phil 4:15 - no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only - The Phil did not hesitate in showing their appreciation through their generosity, inquiring of Paul how they may support him, the cause of Christ and those who were in want in Jua. The Phil were the most loving and truehearted of the apostle's converts, and during the eight days of the feast [Passover] he enjoyed peaceful and happy communion with them. - {AA 390.4}

Phil 4:17

Phil 4:17 - but I desire fruit that may abound to your account - Joh 15:8; Gal 5:22, 23

Phil 4:18

Phil 4:18 - an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God - See Joh 12:3; 2Cor 2:15, 16; Rev 5:8

Phil 4:19

Phil 4:19 - But my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus - the generosity shown to Paul and the Kingdom of God by the Phil would be exceeding abundantly repaid by the LORD in His provision here on earth and in the eternal inheritance to come. See Matt 6:25-33; 2Cor 3:5 Our heavenly Father has a thousand ways to provide for us of which we know nothing. Those who accept the one principle of making the service of God supreme, will find perplexities vanish and a plain path before their feet. - {MH 481.2} The Saviour has not promised His followers the luxuries of the world; their fare may be plain, and even scanty; their lot may be shut in by poverty; but His word is pledged that their need shall be supplied, and He has promised that which is far better than worldly good,—the abiding comfort of His own presence. - {DA 367.2}

Phil 4:22

Phil 4:22 - chiefly they that are of Caesar's household - See Act 28:16, 30, 31 During Paul's imprisonment, the converts to Christianity had become so numerous as to attract the attention and arouse the enmity of the authorities. The anger of the emperor was especially excited by the conversion of members of his own household, and he soon found a pretext to make the Christians the objects of his merciless cruelty. - {RH December 28, 1911 Par. 7} About this time a terrible fire occurred in Rome, by which nearly one half of the city was burned. Nero himself had caused the flames to be kindled, but to avert suspicion he made a pretense of great generosity by assisting the homeless and destitute. He was, however, accused of the crime. The people were excited and enraged, and in order to clear himself, and also to rid the city of a class whom he feared and hated, Nero turned the accusation upon the Christians. His device succeeded, and thousands of the followers of Christ—men, women, and children—were cruelly put to death. - {RH December 28, 1911 Par. 8}

Col 1:12 - which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: - The Father has made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance, the Kingdom of His dear Son by justifying the ungodly and pronouncing them righteous, by faith. See Rom 2:4, 3:25, 4:5

Col 1:12

Col 1:12 - saints in light - a possible reference to the heavenly hosts of angels. See Jude 1:14; Lk 16:8; 1Thess 5:1-4, 5; 1Jo 1:5-7

Col 1:13

Col 1:13 - Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son - See 1Pet 2:9; Heb 2:14; Eph 2:15

Col 1:13

Col 1:13 - hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son - while here on earth, we dwell in heavenly places in Christ Jesus; as citizens and heirs of the Kingdom of God's dear Son. We are translated by the fact that Jesus is our Creator and His creative power has made us into new creations in Himself (1Cor 5:17). See John 5:24; Eph 1:3; Dan 7:13, 14; Lk 17:20, 21; 19:12-15; Philippians 3:20

Col 1:14

Col 1:14 - In Whom we have redemption through His blood, even the forgiveness of sins - Jesus' blood redeems us from the curse of the Law. The same active power in redemption was used in the Creation See Eph 1:7; Heb 9:12; Col 1:16, 17 There has been a great deal of idle speculation as to which is the greater, redemption or creation. Many have thought that redemption is a greater work than creation. Such speculation is idle, because only infinite power could perform either work, and infinite power cannot be measured by human minds. But while we cannot measure the power, we can easily settle the question of which is the greater, because the Scriptures give us the information. Neither is greater than the other, for both are the same. Redemption is creation. Redemption is the same power that was put forth in the beginning to create the world and all that is in it, now put forth to save men and the earth from the curse of sin. {The Gospel of Creation by E.J. Waggoner}

Col 1:14

Col 1:14 - redemption through his blood - we have redemption through the blood of Jesus because He is the Creator of all things and in Him all things consist. We were all in Christ through Creation, just as we were all in Adam through procreation See Col 1:21

Col 1:14

Col 1:14 - even the forgiveness of sins - the redemption [winning back that which was lost - Mt 18:12, 13] in the blood of Christ "even" includes the forgiveness of sins. Jesus has made reconciliation for the sins of the people (Heb 2:17). This is a statement of Hebrew parallelism - See 1Jo 1:9, 7; Col 2:13

Col 1:15

Col 1:15 - Who is the image of the invisible God - Jesus said, "If you've seen me, you've seen the Father" Joh 14:9; Heb 1:2, 3; Col 2:9; 2Cor 4:4. Jesus also said "no man has seen God at any time" Joh 1:18. Jesus is also the Power and Wisdom of God, Who bears the fullness of the Godhead bodily. See 1Cor 1:24; Gen 1:26; Col 2:9

Col 1:15

Col 1:15 - firstborn of every creature - Jesus is He who has begotten all creation. Col 1:16; Joh 1:1-4, 14; 1Cor 15:20

Col 1:16 - powers - authorities, natural and spiritual.

Col 1:16

Col 1:16 - all things were created by him - Jesus made all things, animate and inanimate, natural and spiritual. See John 1:1-4

Col 1:16

Col 1:16 - for Him - all things were created to glorify God (Ps 19:1-3; Isa 43:10-12), to grow in Him and to become like Him (Mal 4:2; Eph 4:13). We were created to minister to Him, for Him (Heb 1:14; 2Cor 5:20, 21), and to be ministered to, by Him (Mt 20:28).

Col 1:17

Col 1:17 - And he is before all things - Jesus predates all things in heaven and earth, thus creation has its beginnings in Him. See Rev 3:14 Joh 1:1-4; Ps 8:22-30

Col 1:17

Col 1:17 - by Him all things consist - "in HIM" all things exist and are sustained by the power of Jesus Christ. All life is sustained by the power of the Holy Spirit, ordained by Jesus the Creator, given to all animate beings. See Ps 36:6; Heb 11:3 the mystery of the atom is found in Jesus Christ. Jesus is the power that keeps the atom together. Jesus is the answer to gravitational force. Jesus keeps things together from flying apart. Once Jesus declared these things from their beginnings [principles, forces of nature] He sustains them by the power of His Word that lasts forever (Isa 40:8, 26; 1Pet 1:23, 25). See Joh 1:4; Heb 1:3; Act 17:28 Paul, Peter and the apostles all testified that they were ready to be poured out as a drink offering towards the end of their ministry because they had tasted of the living waters and were complete in Christ. Only their love for Jesus could sustain them in their hour of trial and temptation. No amount of will-power can overcome the natural tendencies of the flesh when one's very (temporal) life is at stake. It is only through a love for Jesus could the works of righteousness and the effects of righteousness be perfected - See Isa 32:17

Col 1:18

Col 1:18 - And he is the head of the body, the church - See Eph 1:22, 4:15

Col 1:18

Col 1:18 - Who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead - Jesus is Author of all things. Jesus is also the Firstborn and Only One from the dead [all others sleep]. He Who conquered sin and the grave so that all may be victorious as well. See Heb 1:6, 2:14-18, 12:23; Act 26:23; Rev 1:5; Rom 7:4

Col 1:18

Col 1:18 - that in all things He might have the preeminence - Jesus is worthy of all honor and praise, having been first in foremost in all things. All superlatives belong to Him

Col 1:19

Col 1:19 - For it pleased the Father that in Him should all fulness dwell - All fullness of the Godhead resides in Jesus Christ. All life, goodness, righteousness, faithfulness, gentleness, peace, love, joy, longsuffering, meekness, hope, self-control, beauty, kindness, honor, wisdom, understanding, majesty, light, glory, power, selflessness belongs to Jesus. See Col 2:9; Mt 16:27; Mk 8:38; Joh 1:1

Col 1:20

Col 1:20 - having made peace through the blood of His cross - Gal 3:13; 2Cor 5:18, 19; Heb 2:17

Col 1:20

Col 1:20 - reconcile all things unto himself - By coming to dwell with us, Jesus was to reveal

God both to men and to angel {Desire of Ages 19.1}. See 2Cor 5:18-20 Jesus is the Branch that bridges humanity with Divinity. Jer 23:5,6; Zech 3:8

Col 1:20

Col 1:20 - by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven - In Jesus Christ , God has put down the rebellion and abolished the enmity and has brought heaven and earth together as one in Himself. See Eph 1:9, 10, 3:14, 15

Col 1:21

Col 1:21 - enemies in your mind by wicked works - the mind is where sin begins. The enmity starts in the mind and is played out in wicked works. See Mt 12:34; Lk 6:45

Col 1:22

Col 1:21 - In the body of his flesh through death - See Col 1:14

Col 1:22

Col 1:22 - unblameable and unproveable - See Ju 1:24; Joh 8:11; Rom 8:1

Col 1:23

Col 1:23 - If ye continue in the faith - we must be overcomers, continuing in the faith. See Rev 3:5; Col 2:7

Col 1:23

Col 1:23 - hope of the gospel - See Col 1:5; Tit 2:13

Col 1:23

Col 1:23 - which ye have heard - there is a blessing in the hearing of the gospel. See Isa 52:7; Rev 1:3

Col 1:23

Col 1:23 - which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; - though Paul affirms that the gospel had traversed the earth (Mk 16:20; Rom 1:8), the end could not come until the man of sin, the son of perdition, and the little horn of Dan 7:8 had manifested himself. See 2Thess 2:1-4 More than eighteen centuries have passed since the apostles rested from their labors, but the history of their sacrifices for Christ is still among the most precious treasures of the church. As these messengers of the cross went forth to proclaim the gospel, there was such a revelation of the glory of God as had never before been witnessed. To every nation was the gospel carried in a single generation. - {TT 310.1}

Col 1:24

Col 1:24 - rejoice in my sufferings for you - Paul wrote to the church of Colosse from a Roman prison house. Act 28:16, 30, 31

Col 1:25

Col 1:25 - Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God - See John 3:34

Col 1:25

Col 1:27 - to fulfil the word of God - Paul speaks of his calling as an apostle, to proclaim the gospel of Christ to the Gentiles and to fulfill the prophetic word spoken in times past by the prophets. In so doing, he is emulating Jesus when He spoke: "Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God." God knows and declares the end from the beginning and orchestrates history so that His desired end will come to pass. Heb 10:7; Isa 46:9-11

Col 1:26

Col 1:26 - Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints - Light is progressive (Prov 4:18). The mystery of God, which is the mystery of Jesus' creative power, has been unfolding through time until this present generation. See Mt 13:35; Isa 49:6; Gal 3:14; Eph 1:9, 10, 2:1-22, 3:8, 9; 1Pet 1:18-20; Rom 16:25 The doctrine of the incarnation of Christ in human flesh is a mystery, "even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations." It is the great and profound mystery of godliness. "The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us." Christ took upon Himself human nature, a nature inferior to His heavenly nature. Nothing so shows the wonderful condescension of God as this.... - {5BC 1130.6}

Col 1:26

Col 1:26 - but now is made manifest to his saints - See Rom 16:26

Col 1:27

Col 1:27 - To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles - See Gen 12:3; Isa 49:6, 40:5, 60:1-7, 56:1-7; Rom 10:12-21; Eph 1:9, 10

Col 1:27

Col 1:27 - Christ in you, the hope of glory - The prayer of Jesus was, "Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done" (Mt 6:10). The Kingdom of God is not in observation but the kingdom of God is within me and you (Lk 17:20, 21). Just as the Spirit of God came upon Mary and that Holy Thing within her was to be called the Son of God, so too, Jesus is to be formed within us by the power of the Holy Spirit [this is the true meaning of Christmas] God's will is that we believe unto our sanctification and the saving of our souls. See Lk 1:35; Joh 17:26; Heb 10:35-39; 2Pet 1:19; 1Pet 1:13; 1Jo 5:11-13; Eph 3:16-19; Rev 10:7 "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." 2 Corinthians 5:17. Through the power of Christ, men and women have broken the chains of sinful habit. They have renounced selfishness. The profane have become reverent, the drunken sober, the profligate pure. Souls that have borne the likeness of Satan have become transformed into the image of God. This change is in itself the miracle of miracles. A change wrought by the Word, it is one of the deepest mysteries of the Word. We cannot understand it; we can only believe, as declared by the Scriptures, it is "Christ in you, the hope of glory." - {AA 476.1}

Col 1:28

Col 1:28 - Whom we preach - We do not preach doctrine, we preach a person. The mystery of the Gospel and its riches and glory is a person, Jesus Christ, the Hope of Glory! We can do nothing outside of Jesus Christ - See Act 3:20; 1Cor 2:1, 2; Heb 10:37; Rom 10:8

Col 1:28

Col 1:28 - preach - preaching involves warning and teaching every man in all wisdom that every man may be presented perfect in Jesus Christ. See Eph 4:11

Col 1:28

Col 1:28 - warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom - See 2Cor 5:11; Mt 28:19, 20; Act 2:40; 2Tim 4:2; Tit 2:15

Col 1:28

Col 1:28 - perfect in Christ Jesus - Having the mind of Christ and bringing forth fruit unto righteousness - See Col 2:9, 10; 2Tim 3:17; Mt 5:44-48; Rom 5:5; 2Cor 13:9

Col 1:29

Col 1:29 - Whereunto I also labour - the labour that has been appointed to all the saints, heirs of the heavenly Kingdom, is to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ. See Mt 6:24-34, 11:28-30; Joh 6:28, 29; 1Cor 15:58; Heb 6:10-12; COL 3:26.3 As we labor for the Master, sowing to the Spirit, we will reap of the Spirit eternal life. See Gal 6:8; Ps 126:6; Eccl 11:1

Col 1:29

Col 1:29 - striving according to his working - It is Christ working mightily in each of us both to will and to do of His good pleasure. See John 3:34; Phil 2:13, 3:12; Gal 2:20

Col 1:29

Col 1:29 - which worketh in me mightily - the power of Jesus, working through the Holy Spirit in Paul mightily enabled Him to labor for the Master effectually such that he could glory in infirmities, reproaches, necessities, persecutions, and even distresses for Christ's sake. See 1Cor 2:4, 5; 2Cor 12:7-10; Philippians 3:7-10; John 3:34

Col 2:1

Col 2:1

Col 2:1 - and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh - See Gal 1:20-24

Col 2:2

Col 2:2 - unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding - the riches of our salvation is found in the assurance in understanding the height, length, depth, and breadth of God's love for us, and the fullness of the inheritance we have in Jesus Christ. See Eph 3:18

Col 2:2

Col 2:2 - mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ - See 2Cor 13:14; Col 2:9; Mt 3:16, 17

Col 2:3

Col 2:3 - In Whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge - the Godhead possess all wisdom and knowledge. See Eph 1:17; Job 12:13, 22:21; Job 37:16; 1Cor 1:24, 25

Col 2:4

Col 2:4 - lest any man should beguile you with enticing words - See Gal 3:1

Col 2:5

Col 2:5 - For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit - See 1Cor 5:3; 2Cor 5:8

Col 2:6

Col 2:6 - As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in Him - we received Jesus by faith through the hearing of His Word (Mk 10:15; Lk 18:17). All things we receive from God as a gift, even the seed of faith. We are therefore to walk by faith that we remain joint heirs with Abraham and His Seed, and we embrace the mystery of God, gaining victory over the lusts of the flesh. 2Cor 5:7; 1Cor 4:7; Gal 3:1-9

Col 2:7

Col 2:7 - Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving - See Col 1:23, 2:2; Eph 3:17

Col 2:7

Col 2:7 - as ye have been taught - the teaching of the gospel is an ongoing thing that must be repeated, reemphasized, demonstrated and rehearsed. See Mt 28:19; Phil 4:9

Col 2:7

Col 2:7 - abounding therein with thanksgiving - gratitude is a hallmark of the Christian faith. We love and serve God out of gratitude (1Jo 4:19). We can be kind and gracious to others out of gratitude for what God has done for us. See Phil 4:6; Col 3:15

Col 2:8

Col 2:8 - Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ - See Heb 13:9; Eph 4:14; 1Thess 5:21 When you find men questioning the testimonies, finding fault with them, and seeking to draw away the people from their influence, be assured that God is not at work through them. It is another spirit. Doubt and unbelief are cherished by those who do not walk circumspectly. They have a painful consciousness that their life will not abide the test of the Spirit of God, whether speaking through His Word or through the testimonies of His Spirit that would bring them to His Word. Instead of beginning with their own hearts, and coming into harmony with the pure principles of the gospel, they find fault, and condemn the very means that God has chosen to fit up a people to stand in the day of the Lord. - {1SM 45.1}

Col 2:8

Col 2:8 - spoil you though philosophy - See Mt 27:20; Joh 7:46-49; 1Tim 6:20 Greek [and Alexandrian - Egypt] philosophy engulfed the world just as its language during the 200+ years of its world dominance. Philosophy is the love of [man's] wisdom at the exclusion of Bible truth (Act 17:19-21; 2Pet 3:16, 17; Col 2:18). Philosophy entangles the mind with strange doctrine, false sciences, belief systems, perspectives of the divine, and perspectives of human existence. It is nothing more than a form of sorcery (deception, rebellion) which was created by the arch-deceiver, Satan (2Cor 4:3-6; Joh 18:38). Examples: 1. SUPERSTITION - Act 17:22 2. IDOLATRY/POLYTHEISM - Act 17:16, 18, 22, 23 3. RELATIVISM - Joh 18:38 4. NO RESURRECTION - Act 17:18, 31, 32; Mk 12:18 5. DISEMBODIED SOUL, disassociation of body and soul - Joh 11:3-15 6. CHANCE/LUCK (SUPERSTITION) - Joh 5:2-9 7. NEED TO APPEASE THE gods - Jon 1:5, 6; 8. RITUALS INSTEAD OF [Christ's] RIGHTEOUSNESS - Rom 10:1-3; Mt 15:1, 2; Isa 4:1; PK 708.2 9. FALSE SCIENCES - 1Tim 6:20 10. EXALTATION OF MEN - Act 12:22, 23

Col 2:8 - vain deceit - worthless lies, false sciences, philosophy, false humility, etc. See Col 2:18; 1Tim 6:20

Col 2:8

Col 2:8 - after the traditions of men, after the rudiments of the world - The wisdom of men and this world are far inferior to that of the wisdom and knowledge of the holy, just as the earth is far beneath the heavens (Isa 55:9). We must not be allured by flowery words that give the appearance of knowledge but are self-exalting and gratifying in nature. See Prov 9:10; Mk 7:7; Eph 4:14; 1Cor 2:14

Col 2:8

Col 2:8 - rudiments of the world - the first principle of the world is self-exaltation (gadal). The philosophies, teachings, base things, and wisdom of the world is rooted in self-exaltation. 1Tim 6:20; Act 17:16-32; 1Cor 2:14, 15

Col 2:9

Col 2:9 - For in Him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily - See Col 1:19; Joh 16:15; Heb 1:2, 3 God's image - Col 1:15; Joh 14:9; 2Cor 4:4 Fullness of God - Col 1:19 Treasures of God's wisdom and knowledge - Col 2:3 Wisdom and Power of God - 1Cor 1:24 God's Authorship, glory, image, authority and power - Heb 1:2, 3

Col 2:9

Col 2:9 - Godhead - Act 17:29; Rom 1:20; 2Cor 13:14; Mt 3:16, 17

Col 2:10

Col 2:10 - And ye are complete in him - We are complete in God! Jesus fills all our inadequacies and shortcomings. Christ is our Sufficiency. We are all circumcised in Jesus Christ by the circumcision made without hands. Our completeness in Christ dispels the lies that we need, or are dependent/reliant upon another mortal being (Mic 7:7). See Ps 23:1, 34:8, 9; Rom 3:23, 2:28, 29; Eph 3:19; 2Cor 3:5 Hymn 293 Chorus - Fill My Cup Lord

Col 2:10

Col 2:10 - in him - as we abide in Christ, we are complete in Him - See Joh 15:4-8

Col 2:10

Col 2:8 - which is the head of all principality and power - A principality is the territory that is controlled by a prince. The devil is called the Prince of the Power of the Air (Eph 2:2) and thus the earth is "given" to him as the usurper of the earth from Adam. See Col 1:16; Eph 1:21

Col 2:11

Col 2:11 - In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ: - See Rom 2:28, 29; Deut 30:5, 6; Philippians 3:3 God's promise to Abraham had been made long before the time of which we are writing; the making of the covenant is recorded in the fifteenth chapter of Gen. But after the covenant was made, Abraham fell into the error recorded in the sixteenth chapter. He saw his mistake, and repented of it, and turned to the Lord again in full faith, and thus received the assurance of forgiveness and acceptance and circumcision was given as the reminder of it. {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 82}

Col 2:11

Col 2:11 - the circumcision made without hands - circumcision of the heart by the Holy Spirit. See Deut 10:16, 30:6; Jer 4:4; Rom 2:28, 29; Heb 9:11

Col 2:11

Col 2:11 - in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ - See Rom 8:1-14; Deut 30:5, 6

Col 2:12

Col 2:12 - Buried with Him in baptism - See 1Cor 10:1, 2; Rom 6:4; Mt 3:15

Col 2:12

Col 2:12 - Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead - See 2Cor 4:10; Rom 6:4; Mt 3:15

Col 2:12

Col 2:12 - wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead - See Gal 2:20; Rom 6:13, 8:10, 11

Col 2:12

Col 2:12 - through the faith of the operation of God - the "new birth" experience is a work completely of God that we enter into by faith. God alone quickens (makes alive) and thus. It is God alone Who will put His Spirit within us - see John 3:1-8; Lk 1:34; Ezekiel 36:26, 27 Col 2:12 explicitly states that the "new birth" experience is a work of God in Jesus' name (Act 19:2-6) that we must pray for and enter into by faith. As illustrated by the blowing winds of whose work we know not, in John 3:1-8, God performs an "operation" on us in giving us a new heart, mind and motivations - Jeremiah 31:31-34. This all happens through the baptism of the Holy Spirit . Consider Lk 1:35 - "And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God."

Col 2:13

Col 2:13 - And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses - See Eph 2:1; Rom 4:5, 17, 6:13; Ezekiel 37:1-10

Col 2:13

Col 2:13 - having forgiven you all trespasses - See Rom 4:5; Col 1:14; 1Jo 1:7

Col 2:14

Col 2:14 - blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us - Consider that the ordinances (laws) written against the COI were contained in the Law of Moses (See 2Kin 21:8). In the law of Moses, written in a book, there were written covenant blessings and covenant curses, the latter of which were against the COI for disobedience. That specifically which has been nailed to the cross of Christ are the ceremonial services that were a shadow of Christ Who is the Substance. See Gal 3:10 Ex 18:20, 24:7; Deut 28:58-68 Lev 18:4; Eph 2:15; Heb 9:1-11

Col 2:14

Col 2:14 - nailing it to the cross - the ordinances (laws) that were nailed to the cross pertained to the ceremonial sabbaths (holy feast days), and tokens and types contained in sacrifices which all pointed to the Lamb of God, Jesus Christ, that takes away the sins of the world.

Col 2:15

Col 2:15 - having spoiled principalities and powers - Jesus has disarmed the one and his hosts who have tormented the nations continually. Jesus despoiled the devil, triumphing over him even in death and has taken the keys of the grave and death from him. See Isa 14:5, 6; Heb 2:14; Gen 3:15; Jude 1:6; Eph 1:21, 6:12; Rev 1:18

Col 2:16

Col 2:16 - Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days - Paul, speaking to Gentile converts in Colosse, encourages them not to be swayed by the Jews or Jewish converts to Christianity who sought to enforce the ceremonial laws at the expense of believing and walking in the faith of Jesus Christ for their salvation. See Gal 5:1-10

Col 2:17

Col 2:17 - Which are a shadow of things to come - See Heb 8:5, 10:1; Rom 10:4

Col 2:17

Col 2:17 - but the body is of Christ - the substance is Christ. In other words, the shadow, the feasts, holy days, etc. are merely a form or representation of the actual substance, that is Jesus Christ.

Col 2:18

Col 2:18 - Let no man beguile you of your reward - deception is a perilous thing, were we may be spoiled/deceived in believing a lie and lose our reward, the crown of life (2Tim 4:3, 4, 6-8). See Col 2:8

Col 2:18

Col 2:18 - voluntary humility and worshipping of angels - the profession of humility or pretentious acts of some are not to beguile God's people. An example is Pope Francis asking people to pray for him, captivating the hearts of the deceived in thinking, "here is a humble man of God". It is also seen in those who neglect to eat certain things because of their sanctimonious attitudes. This is known as "will-worship". See Joh 18:28; Rev 19:10, 22:8,9; Rom 14:2-7

Col 2:18

Col 2:16 - intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind - those professing false visions, dreams, and insights from God. Those worshipping angels and paying false reverence to things they ought not. See Act 8:9-11

Col 2:18

Col 2:18 - vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind - the carnal mind is selfish and self-centered, exalting self rather than condescending as with the mind of Christ - See Rom 8:7; Contrast - Philippians 2:5-11

Col 2:19

Col 2:19 - And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God - Not acknowledging the Headship of Jesus Christ. If the minister does not give God the glory but assumes praise to himself, his ministry is false. See Joh 3:27; Eph 4:15, 16, 1:22; Col 1:18

Col 2:20

Col 2:20 - Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances - See 1Cor 2:8; Mk 7:8-13; Rom 14:14; Col 2:14; Gal 5:1-10

Col 2:21

Col 2:21 - Touch not; taste not; handle not - Paul is here commenting on the man made traditions, instituted by the Jews and condemned by Christ (See Mk 7:1-7). Paul in no way was giving sanction to the unlawful consumption of unclean meats which is strictly forbidden by the Law of God. Neither is he suggesting that health related laws that are for the benefit of men, have been abolished.

Col 2:22

Col 2:22 - Which all are to perish with the using - See Mt 15:17

Col 2:22

Col 2:22 - after the commandments and doctrines of men? - Many think that they must consult commentaries on the Scriptures in order to understand the meaning of the word of God, and we would not take the position that commentaries should not be studied; but it will take much discernment to discover the truth of God under the mass of the words of men. How little has been done by the church as a body professing to believe the Bible, to gather up the scattered jewels of God's word into one perfect chain of truth! The jewels of truth do not lie upon the surface, as many suppose. The master mind in the confederacy of evil is ever at work to keep the truth out of sight, and to bring into full view the opinions of great men. The enemy is doing all in his power to obscure heaven's light through educational processes; for he does not mean that men shall hear the voice of the Lord, saying, "This is the way, walk ye in it." The jewels of truth lie scattered over the field of revelation; but they have been buried beneath human traditions, beneath the sayings and commandments of men, and the wisdom from heaven has been practically ignored; for Satan has succeeded in making the world believe that the words and achievements of men are of great consequence. {FE 187, 188}

Col 2:23 - Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh - the cloistered, monkish, self-depriving lifestyle has a show of wisdom in godliness but is to no avail. We must worship God in Spirit and in Truth, not through false humility and the like. See 2Tim 3:5; John 4:23

Col 3:1

Col 3:1 - If ye then be risen with Christ - See Rom 6:4, 5; 1Cor 15:22, 23; Eph 2:1-3; Col 2:12

Col 3:1

Col 3:1 - seek those things which are above - See Col 3:2, Mt 6:33; Gal 6:8

Col 3:1

Col 3:1 - where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God - See Heb 1:3; Act 2:33; Rom 8:34; Col 1:1; Heb 8:1, 9:11, 12, 10:12, 12:1; Rev 3:21; Eph 1:20; Mt 26:64; Mk 16:19; Lk 22:69

Col 3:2

Col 3:2 - Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth - See 1Jo 2:15, 16; Mt 6:19-21; 2Tim 2:19; 1Cor 7:32, 33

Col 3:3

Col 3:3 - For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God - When we surrender to Jesus, we no longer live but Jesus lives in us. Our lives are hid in God with Jesus Christ and we have passed from death unto eternal life. This is why Jesus said: "I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: 26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die..." (John 11:25, 26) See Joh 1:4, 11:25; Gal 2:20; Rom 6:4-6, 7:4; Philippians 3:20; 1Thess 4:13, 14 Many fear and believe that they will lose their identity and will become automatons based on this verse. When in fact, this verse speaks of one reaching his fullest potential, achieving his highest life objective, and fulfilling the purpose they were created to fulfill, namely, glorifying God! We cannot exist outside of God and thus we find our true essence in Him. See Isa 43:7, 10, 12, 15, 21, 44:8; Joh 1:12, 13

Col 3:4

Col 3:4 - When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory - we are not translated to heaven at death but when Christ appears the Second Time, then shall we also appear with Him in glory. See 1Thess 4:12-14; Joh 11:24; 1Jo 3:2

Col 3:4

Col 3:4 - who is our life - See Gal 2:20; John 11:25, 26

Col 3:4

Col 3:4 - shall appear - Before Jesus' Second Coming, He will "suddenly (unexpectedly) come to His temple", our soul temple to purge, purify and make pure.

Col 3:4

Col 3:4 - then shall ye also appear with him in glory - we who dwell in heavenly places in Christ Jesus, have our citizenship registered in heaven and will eventually sit with Him in glory. See Eph 2:6; John 14:19, 17:14, 16

Col 3:5

Col 3:5 - Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth - See 2Cor 7:1; Gal 5:24

Col 3:5

Col 3:5 - inordinate affection - See Eze 23:11; 2Tim 3:6; Tit 3:3 We should eat and drink more for need than for pleasure. If pleasure is the great end we have in view, then we do not eat and drink to the glory of God, but to the glory of our appetites. Then eating and drinking becomes an inordinate action, because it is not in the way to the end for which it was designed. {1864 DTB, SLH 44.2}

Col 3:18 - Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the LORD - Marriage is about self-sacrifice, a vow of sacrifice designed to save us. Submitting is a godly power that makes us stronger and makes Jesus proud. Gen 3:16; Eph 5:21

Col 3:18 - unto your own husbands - See Gen 2:24, 25

Col 3:19

Col 3:19 - Husbands, love your wives and be not bitter against them - Husbands are commissioned not to be hostile, angry, curt, or impatient nor cause them to become exasperated, frustrated or embittered against you. See 1Sam 25:1-38; Heb 12:15 Marriage is a vow of self-sacrifice - marriage was designed to save us. Husband - House-band, designed to bind the family together. Men are as the frame that holds the picture to a wall. Men set the tone of the family life. Men are the thermostat for family life. Husband is the leader of the wife - even as Christ loved the church and gave Himself away. People are to be saved by seeing our marriages. We are to give ourselves completely in Christ.

Col 3:19

Col 3:19 - and be not bitter against them - See Col 3:12-15

Col 3:20

Col 3:20 - obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord- Children are to be subject to their parents until the age of accountability. They are to guard their parents counsels and seek to please their parents. Upon the age of accountability, if asked to do something contrary to the will of the LORD, they are to seek the LORD and do His will first. See Ex 20:12

Col 3:21

Col 3:21 - Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged - Parents are to conduct their homes and rule over their children with love, dignity, fairness, patience and kindness. Many a childhood has been ruined by the lack of these qualities. These individuals often go on to repeat the same mistakes in parenting.

Col 3:22

Col 3:22 - not with eyeservice, as menpleasures - we are to be genuine in all that we do. We must work as if we are serving the LORD and not men. We must be honest in our duties and in our service so that God is well pleased and represented by our stewardship. Those who serve only when others are looking or in vainglory (dissembling), to get the praises of men do not please the LORD. See Col 3:23, Eph 6:6; Gal 4:18

Col 4:5 - redeeming the time - making good use of our time; pressing forward in faith and in truth.

Col 4:6

Col 4:6 - Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man - gracious, godly speech and conduct must become habitual, so that we are always upholding the high standard of Christ. See Prov 31:26; Ecc 10:12

Col 4:6

Col 4:6 - seasoned with salt - salt is a cleansing agent, a preservative and it brings out the flavor in those things around it. Therefore our speech and conduct ought always to be edifying.

1Thess 1:5

1Thess 1:5 - For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake - See 1Cor 2:4; Act 4:13, 14; Lk 21:12-15; 2Cor 12:12

1Thess 1:6

1Thess 1:6 - having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost - though buffeted and beset with persecutions without, the Thessalonians endured with peace in the Holy Spirit. See 2Cor 12:10;

1Thess 1:8

1Thess 1:8 - the Thessalonian believers had a living faith that was known and read of all men. This gave evidence of the effectual work done by Paul, Timothy and Sylvanus in ministering to them.

1Thess 2:1

1Thess 2 - For yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain - See 1Thess 1:8, 9

1Thess 2:2

1Thess 2:2 - But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention - despite suffering persecutions and reproach at Philippi, Paul and his fellow laborers continued to preach the gospel, even to the Thessalonians.

1Thess 2:5

1Thess 2:5 - nor a cloke of covetousness - a hidden agenda based on greed or covetousness - 2Cor 2:17

1Thess 2:6

1Thess 2:6 - Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others - See Gal 1:10, 11; Phil 2:3

1Thess 2:6

1Thess 2:6 - when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ - the workman is worthy of his wages (Mt 10:10). However, that the gospel would go even further, Paul took no pay nor compensation for his labors in ministry, but supported himself through tent making when necessary. See 2Cor 11:8

1Thess 2:9

1Thess 2:10 - because we would not be chargeable unto any of you - perhaps that the apostles would not be faulted with not sharing the good news of the gospel to them, Paul preached day and night the gospel to the Thessalonians.

1Thess 2:11

1Thess 2:11 - exhorted - Incited by words to good deeds; animated to a laudable course of conduct; advised.

1Thess 2:11

1Thess 2:11 - charged - ordered, commanded, instructed

1Thess 2:12

1Thess 2:12 - That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory - See Eph 4:1; Col 1:10

1Thess 2:13

1Thess 2:13 - ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God - See 1Cor 2:4; Joh 14:10

1Thess 2:13

1Thess 2:13 - the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe - the Word of God is quick (life giving) and sharper than a two-edged sword. It is that which "works" by power in the hearts of those who believe in Jesus. See 1Cor 4:20

1Thess 2:13

1Thess 2:13 - which effectually worketh also in you that believe - See Joh 1:12

1Thess 2:14

1Thess 2:14-16 - Paul speaks of the churches of God, being subjected to the persecutions by the Jews (the Synagogue of Satan - Rev 2:9) who were heaping up greater condemnation upon themselves by forbidding the spreading of the gospel to the Gentiles.

1Thess 2:14

1Thess 2:14 - Paul speaks of the churches of God, being subjected to the persecutions by the Jews (the Synagogue of Satan - Rev 2:9) who were heaping up greater condemnation upon themselves by forbidding the spreading of the gospel to the Gentiles. The persecutions of the first century will be repeated by not only those from without the household of faith, but those who are within. See Joh 16:1-3

1Thess 2:14

1Thess 2:14 - for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews - the same persecution the Jewish converts to Christianity experienced of the Jews (ridicule, scorn, false accusation, imprisonment, murder) the Gentile converts to Christianity in Thessolonica experienced of the heathen. See 1Thess 2:15

1Thess 2:15

1Thess 2:15 - Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men - See Act 2:36-38, 3:13-18; 1Cor 2:8; Rom 10:1-5; Isa 30:11, 12

1Thess 2:15

1Thess 2:15 - and they please not God - See Rom 8:8; Contrast Heb 11:5

1Thess 2:15

1Thess 2:15 - and are contrary to all men - The Jew's religion was an exclusive religion unto themselves and yet, they held a caste system among themselves. This prideful, self-centered farce of truth and godliness was a reproach to the entire world. See Isa 65:1-5; Act 10:28

1Thess 2:16

1Thess 2:16 - Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost - See Act 13:44-52; Mt 23:13

1Thess 2:18

1Thess 2:18 - Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us - See Dan 10:13

1Thess 2:19

1Thess 2:19 - For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? - See Titus 2:13

1Thess 3:1

1Thess 3:1 - Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone - See 1Thess 3:5

1Thess 3:3

1Thess 3:3 - That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto - Paul states that the saints should not grieve for the afflictions and infirmities which he endures, recognizing this is all part of God's great plan, to His glory! See 2Cor 12:9, 10

1Thess 3:4

1Thess 3:4 - For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know - See Joh 16:33

1Thess 3:5

1Thess 3:5 - For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain - See 1Thess 3:1

1Thess 3:7

1Thess 3:7 - Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith - Paul to joy in the Thessalonians' faith, despite the hardship that was befalling him personally. This is the mind of Christ. See Phil 2:5-9

1Thess 3:10

1Thess 3:10 - Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith? - See Eph 6:18-20

1Thess 3:11

1Thess 3:11 - Now God himself and our Father - Joh 20:17; Heb 2:11

1Thess 3:12

1Thess 3:12 - And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you: See Gal 5:14

1Thess 3:13

1Thess 3:13 - To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father - See Jude 1:24, 25; Jam 5:8; 2Thess 3:3; 1Pet 5:10

1Thess 3:13

1Thess 3:13 - at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints - See Jude 1:14; 1Thess 4:15-18

1Thess 4:2

1Thess 4:2 - For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus - See Act 15:19-29; Mt 28:19, 20

1Thess 4:3

1Thess 4:3 - See Heb 10:9, 10

1Thess 4:3

1Thess 4:3 - For this is the will of God, even your sanctification - Sanctification, the growth and perfection of Christian character in Jesus Christ, by the power of the Holy Spirit, is wholly dependent on the doctrine of the State of the Dead. Rom 6:7-9 says that those who are dead are freed from sin. Unless the dead are truly dead (Eccl 9:5, 6), then sanctification can not take place. We must be dead to self, crucified and buried with Christ so that Jesus may live in us and sanctify us wholly, fulfilling the will of God. See Mt 7:15-21; Ex 33:16 the Father's will is: 1. Our Sanctification (1Thess 5:23) 2. Jesus should lose none who come to Him but that they should receive eternal life (Joh 6:39)

1Thess 4:3

1Thess 4:3 - that ye should abstain from fornication - Paul wrote to the beloved church of Thesssalonica regarding a specific issues he knew was present among them. God through Paul sought to strengthen their faith so that they would be whole and complete, coming up short in nothing. Yet, fornication is not only in the flesh but spiritual. We are not to have a divided mind, committing fornication with the world, but are to be committed exclusively to Christ. 1Thess 3:5, 10

1Thess 4:4

1Thess 4:4 - That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour - See Col 3:5

1Thess 4:5

1Thess 4:5 - Not in the lust of concupiscence - Lust; unlawful or irregular desire of sexual pleasure. In a more general sense, the coveting of carnal things, or an irregular appetite for worldly good; inclination for unlawful enjoyments. - See Rom 7:8; Col 3:5; Gal 5:24

1Thess 4:6

1Thess 4:6 - That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified - See 2Tim 3:5-7; Deut 27:17; Gen 38:8-10

1Thess 4:7

1Thess 4:7 - For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness - Holiness is constant agreement with God, which requires the mind of Jesus Christ. See 1Thess 5:9; Philippians 2:5-11

1Thess 4:8

1Thess 4:8 - He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit - those who despise the counsels of living a holy, pure life, free of concupiscence and inordinate affections do not despise men, but God Who has given to us His Holy Spirit to guide us into all truth - See Heb 6:4-6

1Thess 4:9

1Thess 4:9 - But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another - See 1Thess 3:12

1Thess 4:10

1Thess 4:10 - but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more - Paul restates the necessity to grow in Christian love and graces to the Thessalonians. It appears as if this were an issue, where they felt brotherly love towards those in Macedonia but perhaps not in other areas. Paul may be appealing to their Christian generosity where there was a need to send resources to other Christian saints in Judea and other areas where they encountered financial hardship due to persecutions from without.

1Thess 4:11

1Thess 4:11 - And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you - See 1Tim 5:13; 2Thess 3:11

1Thess 4:12

1Thess 4:12 - That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing - See Act 2:44-47

1Thess 4:13

1Thess 4:13 - But I would not have you to be ignorant - The Thessalonians had eagerly grasped the idea that Christ was coming to change the faithful who were alive, and to take them to Himself. They had carefully guarded the lives of their friends, lest they should die and lose the blessing which they looked forward to receiving at the coming of their Lord. But one after another their loved ones had been taken from them, and with anguish the Thessalonians had looked for the last time upon the faces of their dead, hardly daring to hope to meet them in a future life. - {AA 258.1}

1Thess 4:13

1Thess 4:13 - concerning them which are asleep - See Col 3:3; Joh 11:3, 4, 11-14; Job 14:7-21; 1Thess 4:14; Ps 76:6; 1Cor 15:51; Mt 9:24-26

1Thess 4:14

1Thess 4:14 - For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him - See 1Cor 15:22, 23

1Thess 4:14

1Thess 4:13 - which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him - the dead in Christ whose bodies rest in the earth but whose lives are hid in Christ, sleeping in Him (John 11:25, 26; Col 3:3; Philippians 1:23; Dan 12:2; Job 7:21, 19:25-27; Isa 26:19; Act 2:29), shall be brought from their sleep of death in like manner as Christ was raised, but not at the same point in time with Christ. See *Heb 12:23; Isa 26:19; 1Cor 15:22, 23. {RH vol7, Jan 10,1856, Hiram Edson}

1Thess 4:14

1Thess 4:14 - bring - bring (forth); to lead. Those who have died in Christ, their lives are hid in Him - their love, their emotions, their character, their lives/spirit live on in the living Christ (Joh 11:23-26; Col 3:3, 4; Heb 12:23). Jesus will come with them and call those same ones forth from the grave, breathing His breath into them (Eccl 12:7) and giving them glorified bodies. God will bring them forth from the dead, leading captivity captive by the power in His Son and will bring them to heaven. See Eph 4:8 "5. The One who brings the saints is God the Father. 6. To bring them, He must do one of two things, either He must come with His Son at the second advent, and take along with Him as He thus comes His sleeping saints, or else He brings His saints to Himself by sending His Son to awaken them, and then to take them into His presence. 7. Two reasons forbid the idea that the Father brings the sleeping saints to the earth. One is, that the Father does not come to our earth, but sends his Son (Act 3:20); and the others is, that the sleepers are not in heaven, but already within the bosom of the earth (Isa 26:19). 8. We cannot, therefore, avoid the conclusion that the act of bringing the saints is into His own presence. 9. The saints are to be brought according to a certain example, which is the resurrection of Christ. 1 Thessalonians 4:14; Heb 13:20." {JN Andrews - The Judgment, It's Events and Their Order", Chet 8 0- the Executive Judgment The Gathering of the Nations}

1Thess 4:15

1Thess 4:15

1Thess 4:15 - prevent - {phthano - meaning to precede, or (already) attain} pre-advent (come before). All the righteous in Christ will acquire their reward, the crown of eternal life (1Cor 15:50-54), at the same time. The living shall not precede the dead, nor the dead the living. All will receive the same reward at the same time. See Ps 119:147, 88:13; Mt 20:1-15; Joh 11:11-15

1Thess 4:16

1Thess 4:16 - shall descend from heaven with a shout - The shout of Jesus the Archangel will call forth His sheep, the dead in Christ, who He knows and who know His voice. See Joh 10:3, 14, 16, 5:28, 29; Jer 25:30, 31; Ps 50:3-5; Joe 3:16; 2Pet 3:10

1Thess 4:16

1Thess 4:16 - with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God - Jesus Himself, the Archangel, bears the voice of the Archangel. See Joh 5:25; Mt 24:31, Mk 13:26; Ju 1:9; Dan 10:13, 21 Other modern translations speak of Jesus descending with the voice of "an" archangel rather than the definite article, "the" archangel. There is only One Archangel, Michael, also known as Jesus. See Jude 1:9

1Thess 4:16

1Thess 4:15 - archangel - One above the angels (messenger); the highest, supreme angel (messenger) Who is Michael, also known as Jesus. Jesus said, "if ye had known Me, ye should have known My Father also" (Joh 14:7).

1Thess 4:16

1Thess 4:16 - and the dead in Christ shall rise first - those who sleep the sleep of death (Joh 11:11-15; Isa 26:19; Job 14:12, 13, 19:25, 26; Col 3:4) and are lying in their graves who have died having a secured relationship with Jesus Christ. See Lk 14:14; Joh 5:24-29 Facts of Death: Eccl 9:5, 6 - dead know not anything; no feelings or emotions; Ps 146:4 - thoughts perish Job 14:21 - no knowledge of anything done on earth Eccl 9:10 - no work, wisdom, knowledge in death Ps 6:5 - no remembrance of God Ps 115:17 - no praise of God Isa 38:18, 19 - no praise of God in death Job 14:12, 13, 21 - Death is final until a resurrection Job 17:13 - await resurrection in the grave Eccl 12:7 - body and spirit separated (compare Gen 2:7; Jam 2:26; Job 27:3 - a soul can die - see Ezek 18:20; Rev 16:3; compare 1Tim 1:17) We remain in the grave until a resurrection. The dead can not enter heaven until resurrected. Jesus is the Great Exemplar in all things (Mt 10:24, 25): Act 2:31-33 - [Jesus did not ascend to heaven until He was resurrected (see Joh 20:17; Act 2:23-27); Jesus was not a spirit but had flesh and bones as men do (see Lk 24:39, 40; Joh 20:17); Moses was resurrected from death (Deut 34:4-7; Ju 1:9; Mt 17:1-6] Act 2:29, 34 - Even David, the patriarch has not ascended to heaven but remains in the grave to this day The resurrection of the just will occur on the last day: Joh 6:39, 40, 44, 11:23, 24; 1Thess 4:13, 14; 1Cor 5:23

1Thess 4:17 - then we which are alive and remain - Enoch was a marked character. Many look upon his life as something above what the generality of mortals can ever reach. But Enoch's life and character ... represent what the lives and characters of all must be, if like Enoch, they are subjects to be translated when Christ shall come. His life was what the life of every individual may be if he closely connects with God. We should remember that Enoch was surrounded with influences so depraved that God brought a flood of waters on the world to destroy its inhabitants for their corruption. [38] - {CC 29.3} We are living in an evil age. The perils of the last days thicken around us. Because iniquity abounds, the love of many waxes cold.... - {CC 29.4} Enoch's case is before us.... He lived in a corrupt age, when moral pollution was teeming all round him; yet he trained his mind to devotion, to love purity. His conversation was upon heavenly things. He educated his mind to run in this channel, and he bore the impress of the divine. His countenance was lighted up with the light which shineth in the face of Jesus. - {CC 29.5} Enoch had temptations as well as we. He was surrounded with society no more friendly to righteousness than is that which surrounds us. The atmosphere he breathed was tainted with sin and corruption, the same as ours; yet he lived a life of holiness. He was unsullied with the prevailing sins of the age in which he lived. So may we remain pure and uncorrupted. He was a representative of the saints who live amid the perils and corruptions of the last days. For his faithful obedience to God he was translated. So, also, the faithful, who are alive and remain, will be translated. They will be removed from a sinful and corrupt world to the pure joys of heaven. [39] - {CC 29.6} Our present work is to come out from the world and be separate. This is the only way we can walk with God, as did Enoch. [40] - {CC 29.7}

1Thess 4:18 - Wherefore comfort one another with these words - See 2Pet 1:16-18 As Paul's epistle was opened and read, great joy and consolation was brought to the church by the words revealing the true state of the dead. Paul showed that those living when Christ should come would not go to meet their Lord in advance of those who had fallen asleep in Jesus. The voice of the Archangel and the trump of God would reach the sleeping ones, and the dead in Christ should rise first, before the touch of immortality should be given to the living. "Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words." - {AA 258.2} The hope and joy that this assurance brought to the young church at Thessalonica can scarcely be appreciated by us. They believed and cherished the letter sent to them by their father in the gospel, and their hearts went out in love to him. He had told them these things before; but at that time their minds were striving to grasp doctrines that seemed new and strange, and it is not surprising that the force of some points had not been vividly impressed on their minds. But they were hungering for truth, and Paul's epistle gave them new hope and strength, and a firmer faith in, and a deeper affection for, the One who through His death had brought life and immortality to light. - {AA 259.1}

1Thess 5:1

1Thess 5:1 - But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you - See Mt 24:36

1Thess 5:2

1Thess 5:2 - For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night - Jesus' Second Coming will come at an hour not expected when few suspect, therefore, He counsels us, His believers, to Watch and Pray. See Mt 24:36, 42-44, 25:13

1Thess 5:3

1Thess 5:3 - For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them - See Mt 24:44; Joh 12:35; Act 27:13, 14 The peace and safety messages are complimentary messages of the papacy and False Prophet respectively, used to encourage men in their temporal, worldly pursuits and to ignore the coming crisis to proceed God's eternal reign. See Jer 6:13, 14 Saith the Lord: "They have healed the hurt of the daughter of My people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace." "With lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life." Jer 8:11; Eze 13:22. - {GC 655.1} There are in the world today many who close their eyes to the evidences that Christ has given to warn men of His coming. They seek to quiet all apprehension, while at the same time the signs of the end are rapidly fulfilling, and the world is hastening to the time when the Son of man shall be revealed in the clouds of heaven. Paul teaches that it is sinful to be indifferent to the signs which are to precede the second coming of Christ. Those guilty of this neglect he calls children of the night and of darkness. He encourages the vigilant and watchful with these words: "But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief. Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober." - {AA 260.1} There are not many, even among educators and statesmen, who comprehend the causes that underlie the present state of society. Those who hold the reins of government are not able to solve the problem of moral corruption, poverty, pauperism, and increasing crime. They are struggling in vain to place business operations on a more secure basis. If men would give more heed to the teaching of God's word, they would find a solution of the problems that perplex them. - {9T 13.3}

1Thess 5:3 - Peace - the man of sin, the son of perdition masquerades himself as the vicar of Christ and comes as a counterfeit Prince of Peace. The message of the modern papacy has been a message of peace, without having the Spirit of Christ which is essential for promoting peace. The prophet Dan foretold that he, the Man of Sin, would destroy many by peace. See Dan 8:25

1Thess 5:3

1Thess 5:3 - safety - the complimentary message of "safety" or "security" is given by the papacy's accomplice, the beast from the sea, False Prophet, or Protestant America. The message of security (social security, economic security, food security, domestic security, international security, etc.) is to give assurance to men in their temporal, worldly pursuits (eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage), rather than to make preparation for God's eternal kingdom.

1Thess 5:3

1Thess 5:3 - then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape - The time of Jacob's trouble for the briars among Adventists, just like the Great Time of Trouble for the wicked in the world will come upon them as the pains of a woman in travail in birth. See Jer 30:4-7; Lk 19:41-44 The world is no more ready to credit the message for this time than were the Jews to receive the Saviour's warning concerning Jerusalem. Come when it may, the day of God will come unawares to the ungodly. When life is going on in its unvarying round; when men are absorbed in pleasure, in business, in traffic, in money-making; when religious leaders are magnifying the world's progress and enlightenment, and the people are lulled in a false security—then, as the midnight thief steals within the unguarded dwelling, so shall sudden destruction come upon the careless and ungodly, "and they shall not escape." Verse 3. - {GC 38.1}

1Thess 5:3

1Thess 5:3 - as travail upon a woman with child - See Jer 30:4-7

1Thess 5:3

1Thess 5:3 - and they shall not escape - the calamitous destruction of the world in the Time of Trouble (Dan 12:1) and at Jesus' Second Coming will take the vast majority by surprise. See 2Pet 3:3-7

1Thess 5:4

1Thess 5:4 - But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief - See Prov 4:19

1Thess 5:4

1Thess 5:4 - that that day should overtake you as a thief. - See Mt 24:42-44; Prov 4:19

1Thess 5:5

1Thess 5:5 - Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day - See 1Chron 12:32; 1Cor 2:6-14; Joh 12:36, 46; Eph 5:8; Ps 97:11; 2Pet 3:11-4; 1Jo 2:10; Prov 4:18

1Thess 5:6

1Thess 5:6 - Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober - as the watchman proclaims "Behold, the Bridegroom cometh, go ye out to meet Him", we must be vigilant, keeping our lamps trimmed and burning but the oil of the Holy Spirit to meet Jesus at His coming. See Mt 24:42-44; 1Pet 4:7 Let men beware lest they neglect the lesson conveyed to them in the words of Christ. As He warned His disciples of Jerusalem's destruction, giving them a sign of the approaching ruin, that they might make their escape; so He has warned the world of the day of final destruction and has given them tokens of its approach, that all who will may flee from the wrath to come. Jesus declares: "There shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations." Lk 21:25; Mt 24:29; Mk 13:24-26; Rev 6:12-17. Those who behold these harbingers of His coming are to "know that it is near, even at the doors." Mt 24:33. "Watch ye therefore," are His words of admonition. Mk 13:35. They that heed the warning shall not be left in darkness, that that day should overtake them unawares. But to them that will not watch, "the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night." 1Thess 5:2-5. - {GC 37.2}

1Thess 5:10 - we should live together with Him - The verse is speaking in the future tense, we should live with Him. Similarly, Jesus spoke to the thief on the cross and said "you shall be with Me". See Joh 14:1-3; 1Thess 4:16, 17; Lk 23:41, 42

1Thess 5:16 - Rejoice evermore - See Phil 4:4

1Thess 5:17

1Thess 5:17 - Pray without ceasing - As we acknowledge God in all of our ways so that He might direct our paths, and as we seek to do all things to the glory of God, it is natural that we will live in an atmosphere of prayer. We will continually be in communion with God, as with a Friend for guidance, counsel, encouragement, and support. See Ex 30:8; 1Thessalonians 5:25; Eph 6:18-20; Lk 18:1; Col 1:9; Ps 55:17 Essentials for the Christian Life: Daily Bible Study - Act 17:11 Daily Prayer - 1Thess 5:17 Daily Meditation upon God's Word - Ps 119:97 Prayer is heaven's ordained means of success in the conflict with sin and the development of Christian character. The divine influences that come in answer to the prayer of faith will accomplish in the soul of the suppliant all for which he pleads. For the pardon of sin, for the Holy Spirit, for a Christlike temper, for wisdom and strength to do His work, for any gift He has promised, we may ask; and the promise is, "Ye shall receive." - {AA 564.1}

1Thess 5:18

1Thess 5:18 - In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you - See Phil 4:6, 7, 10-13

1Thess 5:19

1Thess 5:19 - Quench not the Spirit - See Eph 4:30; Mk 3:28, 29

1Thess 5:20

1Thess 5:20 - despise not prophesying - The Bereans are an excellent example of they who quenched not the spirit, who despised not prophesying, but proved all things and held fast to that which was good (Act 17:10-12). See 1Cor 14:1-4; Isa 30:8-10

1Thess 5:21

1Thess 5:21 - Prove all things - All doctrine and beliefs are to be proven, and the spirit/character of an individual is to be proven. See 2Tim 2:15; Isa 8:20, 28:9, 10; 1Cor 14:37; Eph 5:10; 1Tim 3:10; Many are deceived today in the same way as were the Jews. Religious teachers read the Bible in the light of their own understanding and traditions; and the people do not search the Scriptures for themselves, and judge for themselves as to what is truth; but they yield up their judgment, and commit their souls to their leaders. The preaching and teaching of His word is one of the means that God has ordained for diffusing light; but we must bring every man's teaching to the test of Scripture. Whoever will prayerfully study the Bible, desiring to know the truth, that he may obey it, will receive divine enlightenment. He will understand the Scriptures. "If any man willeth to do His will, he shall know of the teaching." Joh 7:17, R. V. - {DA 459.1} - DA 459.1 If there were more praying among us, more exercise of a living faith, and less dependence upon some one else to have an experience for us, we would be far in advance of where we are today in spiritual intelligence. What we need is a deep, individual heart and soul experience. Then we shall be able to tell what God is doing and how He is working. We need to have a living experience in the things of God; and we are not safe unless we have this. There are some who have a good experience, and they tell you about it; but when you come to weigh it up, you see that it is not a correct experience, for it is not in accordance with a plain Thus saith the Lord. If ever there was a time in our history when we needed to humble our individual souls before God, it is today. We need to come to God with faith in all that is promised in the Word, and then walk in all the light and power that God gives.—(The Review and Herald, July 1, 1909.) - {Pr 20.1}

1Thess 5:21

1Thess 5:21 - hold fast that which is good - after we have proven all things, we are to hold fast to that which has proven to be truth. We are to walk in the light as Christ is in the light.

1Thess 5:22

1Thess 5:22 - Abstain from all appearance of evil - Some may believe that it is alright to look as if you are sinning as long as you really aren't sinning. This is wrong. We should not use our liberty for strange associations and situations without considering how it may look. We must ask ourselves if the "compromising situation" really necessary or have we deceived ourselves? See Gal 5:13; Ps 19:13

1Thess 5:23

1Thess 5:23 - And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. - See Act 20:32; Jude 24, 25; 1Thess 4:3 Having brought conviction of sin, and presented before the mind the standard of righteousness, the Holy Spirit withdraws the affections from the things of this earth and fills the soul with a desire for holiness. "He will guide you into all truth" (Joh 16:13), the Saviour declared. If men are willing to be molded, there will be brought about a sanctification of the whole being. The Spirit will take the things of God and stamp them on the soul. By His power the way of life will be made so plain that none need err therein. - {AA 52.5}

We suffer for God's kingdom and as we patiently endure we affirm our worthiness of God's kingdom and in so doing, are condemning the world (2Cor 2:15, 16; Heb 11:7). God in judgment draws close to us so that

2Thess 1:9

2Thess 1:9 - Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord - the destruction that shall befall the wicked will be everlasting. It is a fallacy to believe the punishing will be everlasting, but rather the effects of the punishment will be everlasting. See Nah 1:9; Ps 1:5, 6; Joh 3:16; Mal 4:1, 3; Mt 25:46

2Thess 1:9

2Thess 1:7 - everlasting destruction - the wicked will perish. See Joh 3:16; Ps 1:6; Mt 25:46; Mal 4:3

2Thess 1:10

2Thess 1:10 - When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day - See Phil 2:9-111

2Thess 1:10

2Thess 1:10 - because our testimony among you was believed - See Joh 17:20; Rom 10:17; Joh 20:29

2Thess 1:11

2Thess 1:11 - Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power - 2Thess 1:5

2Thess 1:11

2Thess 1:11 - and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power - God's good pleasure includes: 1. Our sanctification - 1Thess 4:3 2. That we be partakers of the divine nature - 2Pet 1:1-4 3. Mystery of God - Christ in us, the hope of glory - Col 1:26, 27

2Thess 1:12

2Thess 1:12 - That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ - See Isa 60:1-3; Rev 18:1

2Thess 2:2

2Thess 2:1-4 - Paul puts a prohibition on declaring the coming of the Lord until the fulfillment of the coming of the man of sin, the son of perdition. This restraint would be lifted at the time of the end, A.D.1798.

2Thess 2:2

2Thess 2:2 - That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. - Though Christ stated "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.", and the gospel had indeed gone to all persons under the heavens (Col 1:23), yet, Paul puts a prohibition on declaring the coming of the Lord until the fulfillment of the coming of the man of sin, the son of perdition according to the prophet Dan (Dan 7:7, 8). This restraint would be lifted at the time of the end, A.D.1798.

2Thess 2:3

2Thess 2:3 - 2Tim 2:17, 18 - some were already preaching that Christ had returned, to the overthrowing of the faith of many (See 2Tim 2:16-18). The prohibition in teaching the coming of Christ was lifted after A.D.1798, the commencement of the Time of the End when the seal was removed from the Little Book of Dan (Rev 10:1-4, 14:6, 7). See 2Tim 2:16-18 The instruction that Paul sent the Thessalonians in his first epistle regarding the second coming of Christ, was in perfect harmony with his former teaching. Yet his words were misapprehended by some of the Thessalonian brethren. They understood him to express the hope that he himself would live to witness the Saviour's advent. This belief served to increase their enthusiasm and excitement. Those who had previously neglected their responsibilities and duties, now became more persistent in urging their erroneous views. - {AA 264.1}

2Thess 2:3

2Thess 2:3 - Let no man deceive you by any means - some were already preaching that Christ had returned, to the overthrowing of the faith of many (See 2Tim 2:16-18). The prohibition in teaching the coming of Christ was lifted after A.D.1798, the commencement of the Time of the End when the seal was removed from the Little Book of Dan - See Rev 10:1-4, 14:6, 7; 2Tim 2:16-18. The instruction that Paul sent the Thessalonians in his first epistle regarding the second coming of Christ, was in perfect harmony with his former teaching. Yet his words were misapprehended by some of the Thessalonian brethren. They understood him to express the hope that he himself would live to witness the Saviour's advent. This belief served to increase their enthusiasm and excitement. Those who had previously neglected their responsibilities and duties, now became more persistent in urging their erroneous views. - {AA 264.1}

2Thess 2:3

2Thess 2:3 - falling away - See Rom 1:18-32. The turn from truth and righteousness here spoken is first seen in the churches of Pergamos and Thyatira in the Rev 2. The compromising church, Pergamos would give rise to the papacy, Thyatira, the church which entertained that woman Jezabell which called herself a prophetess. The falling away is secondarily seen within the last church, Laodicea, where "many" will turn from the faith and give heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils (1Tim 4:1). The "many" here spoken are said to be offended, to hate the righteous (the 144,000) and will betray one another. These are they who have no oil when the overflowing scourge of a Sunday Law is passed and will whither (be overthrown) under its heat. See Dan 11:41; Mt 24:9, 10; Lk 8:13|Mk 4:16, 17|Mt 13:5, 6 Paul's words were not to be misinterpreted. It was not to be taught that he, by special revelation, had warned the Thessalonians of the immediate coming of Christ. Such a position would cause confusion of faith; for disappointment often leads to unbelief. The apostle therefore cautioned the brethren to receive no such message as coming from him, and he proceeded to emphasize the fact that the papal power, so clearly described by the prophet Dan, was yet to rise and wage war against God's people. Until this power should have performed its deadly and blasphemous work, it would be in vain for the church to look for the coming of their Lord. "Remember ye not," Paul inquired, "that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?" - {Act of the Apostles 265.2} Those who profess to be followers of Christ, should be living agencies, co-operating with heavenly intelligences; but by union with the world, the character of God's people becomes tarnished, and through amalgamation with the corrupt, the fine gold becomes dim. When worldly agencies are introduced into the church, it is evident that Satan is carrying out his devices, working through those who profess to be followers of Christ, making them ready at any time to engage with him in disheartening and discouraging those who are faithful, who would stand wholly on the Lord's side. - {RH August 23, 1892 Par. 3}

2Thess 2:3

2Thess 2:3 - man of sin - See Eze 28:1-10 This compromise between paganism and Christianity resulted in the development of "the man of sin" foretold in prophecy as opposing and exalting himself above God. That gigantic system of false religion is a masterpiece of Satan's power—a monument of his efforts to seat himself upon the throne to rule the earth according to his will. - {GC 50.1} Also called the "lawless one" because he makes void the laws of God, thinking to change times and laws. Dan 7:25

2Thess 2:3

2Thess 2:3 - man of sin and son of perdition - the figure here identified is given by the following prophetic names by other inspired Bible writers: 1. Eze - Prince of Tyrus (Ezek 28) 2. Joh - Antichrist (1Jo 2, 4) 3. Dan - The Little Horn (Dan 7, 8) 4. Joh - The Beast from the Sea (Rev 13) 5. Jesus - Abomination of Desolation 6. Dan - King of the North (Dan 11) 7. Paul - Man of Sin (2 Thess 2:3) 8. Paul - Son of Perdition (2 Thess 2:3) 9. Joh - Babylon the Great (Rev 17) 10. Joh - Jezebel (Rev 2:20) 11. Lion by the way (1Kin 13:24, 25) 12. Paul - That Wicked - (2 Thess 2:8)

2Thess 2:4

2Thess 2:4 - who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God - the spirit of antichrist is that which motivates the son of perdition. Paul is here paraphrasing the words of Daniel the prophet, recorded in Dan 11:36. See Ezek 28:1-10; 2Sam 15:1-6; Rev 13:5; Dan 7:25; GC 51.1 Origins of Antichrist: Lucifer might have remained in favor with God, beloved and honored by all the angelic host, exercising his noble powers to bless others and to glorify his Maker. But, says the prophet, "Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness." [Eze 28:12-15, 17.] Little by little, Lucifer came to indulge a desire for self-exaltation. "Thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God." "Thou hast said: ... I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation." "I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High." [Eze 28:6; Isa 14:13, 14.] Instead of seeking to make God supreme in the affections and allegiance of his creatures, it was Lucifer's endeavor to win their service and homage to himself. And, coveting the honor which the infinite Father had bestowed upon his Son, this prince of angels aspired to power which it was the prerogative of Christ alone to wield. - {GC88 494.1}

2Thess 2:4 - so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God - See Ezek 28:2-10; Dan 11:36-39; Isa 47:7 8; Ps 10:6; Prov 30:20

2Thess 2:4

2Thess 2:4 - sitteth in the temple of God - the man of sin does not sit in God's temple above and neither does God have an earthly temple below. Rather, the man of sin, through his deceptions and manipulations sits in the temple of the hearts of men, declaring himself to be the representative of God and thus maligning mens' understanding and impression of Who God truly is. The pope declares "God is like me, I am His vicar", and thus men believe God to be a cruel, imperialistic, tyrant who will use coercion, force, and murder to achieve his aims.

2Thess 2:5

2Thess 2:5 - remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? - See 1Cor 1:4-6; 2Pet 1:12 Paul, after reading the writings of the prophets Dan and Eze understood the spirit of antichrist ("anti" meaning in place of [a substitute for] Christ, rather than against Christ - 1Jo 3:18, 22) that was to manifest itself and deceive God's people. The test for the people of God in understanding and applying Paul's counsels came to the Churches of Pergamum and Thyatira in 538AD (Rev 2:12-29). Recognizing this power had come to its throne, the faithful saints of God [the church, the woman of Rev 12:1, 6, 14] were to flee to the wilderness where the Lord had a place prepared for them (Rev 12:6, 14).

2Thess 2:6

2Thess 2:6 - know what withholdeth - the apostolic church understood the interplay between paganism and apostate Christianity that would arise, primarily through the writings of Dan and Paul. Paganism foresaw that should the gospel triumph, her temples and altars would be swept away; therefore she summoned her forces to destroy Christianity. The fires of persecution were kindled. Christians were stripped of their possessions and driven from their homes. They "endured a great fight of afflictions." Heb 10:32. They "had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment." Heb 11:36. Great numbers sealed their testimony with their blood. Noble and slave, rich and poor, learned and ignorant, were alike slain without mercy. - {GC 39.2}

2Thess 2:6

2Thess 2:6 - that he might be revealed in his time - the man of sin would be revealed at an appointed time, denoted by the fall of paganism (the daily) and the setting-up of the abomination of desolation (Dan 12:111). This would only happen as pagan Rome would be divided into 10 parts and arms (military might/force) would stand on the part of the abomination that makes desolate (the papacy) to take away or subdue paganism (the daily)

(Dan 11:31).

2Thess 2:7

2Thess 2:7 - mystery of iniquity - spiritualism (witchcraft); the mixing of the holy with the unholy [Ezr 9:1, 2; Gen 6:1-5], the unholy union of church and state, another gospel - the denying of the righteousness of Christ as complete to save us and adding works as a means of salvation. The roots of what would be fully manifested in time as the papacy was already at work in the time of Paul (Act 15:1, 5, 18:12-16). This mystery would be fully established as of A.D.533 when Justinian surrendered his great authority over the state to the Bishop of Rome who would then have preeminence over church and civil authorities. Here marks the rise of Mystery, Babylon the Great. See Rev 17:5 "Satan is busily laying his plans for the last mighty conflict, when all will take sides. . . . "Listen to the voices, mark the powers, that prevail in the world. Is there any voice of prayer? Do you see any sign that God is recognized? There are priests, plenty of them; but they are trampling under their feet the law of Jehovah. Their garments are stained with the blood of souls. Multitudes are sacrificing to devils. Look, you who are hesitating between obedience and disobedience. Look in imagination at the vast multitudes worshipping at Satan's altar. Listen to the music, to the language, called higher education. But what does God declare it?—The mystery of iniquity." Pamphlets, 004, 11. "The light has been given me that tremendous pressures will be brought upon every Seventh-day Adventist with whom the world can get into close connection. Those who seek the education that the world esteems so highly, are gradually led further and further from the principles of truth until they become educated worldlings. At what a price have they gained their education! They have parted with the Holy Spirit of God. They have chosen to accept what the world calls knowledge in the place of the truths which God has committed to men through His ministers and prophets and apostles. And there are some who, having secured this worldly education, think that they can introduce it into our schools. But let me tell you that you must not take what the world calls the higher education and bring it into our schools and sanitariums and churches. We need to understand these things. I speak to you definitely. This must not be done. "Upon the mind of every student should be impressed the thought that education is a failure unless the understanding has learned to grasp the truths of divine revelation, and unless the heart accepts the teachings of the gospel of Christ. The student who, in the place of the broad principles of the word of God, will accept common ideas, and will allow the time and attention to be absorbed in commonplace, trivial matters, will find his mind becoming dwarfed and enfeebled. He has lost the power of growth. The mind must be trained to comprehend the important truths that concern eternal life." Fundamentals of Christian Education, 535-536. Romanism in the Old World, and apostate Protestantism in the New, will pursue a similar course toward those who honor all the divine precepts. This is the mystery of iniquity, the devising of satanic agencies, carried into effect by the man of sin. - {ST February 22, 1910 Par. 6}

2Thess 2:7

2Thess 2:7 - only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way - Paganism or "the daily" (Dan 8:11, 12) is that which "letteth" or restrained, delayed, or occupied the space of (see Rom 1:13) Rome, preventing the Papal system from coming to power. In time paganism would be "taken out of the way", or absorbed by Papalism. Paganism marks the first desolating power which is followed by the second desolating power, the Papacy. See Dan 12:11; Isa 43:13

2Thess 2:7

2Thess 2:7 - Paganism or "the daily" (Dan 8:11, 12) is that which "letteth" or restrained,

Paganism marks the first desolating power which is followed by the second desolating power, the Papacy. See Dan 12:11; Isa 43:13

2Thess 2:8

2Thess 2:8 - that Wicked - the masterpiece of Satan is the papacy which masquerades Christianity but is actually antichrist. See Zech 5:6-8; 2Thess 2:9

2Thess 2:8

2Thess 2:8 - whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth - See Isa 11:4; Rev 19:20

2Thess 2:8

2Thess 2:8 - shall destroy with the brightness of His coming - God's glory destroys sin not people. See Ps 68:1, 2; Nahum 1:5; Dan 7:11; Isa 33:14, 66:15, 16; Mal 3:2; 1Tim 6:16; Heb 12:29 The seventy elders were to assist Moses in the government of Israel, and God put upon them His Spirit, and honored them with a view of His power and greatness. "And they saw the God of Israel: and there was under His feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone, and as it were the body of heaven in his clearness." They did not behold the Deity, but they saw the glory of His presence. Before this they could not have endured such a scene; but the exhibition of God's power had awed them to repentance; they had been contemplating His glory, purity, and mercy, until they could approach nearer to Him who was the subject of their meditations. - {PP 312.3}

2Thess 2:9

2Thess 2:9 - Even him - the text is applied (italicized) and creates a bit of confusion. Without the applied text, the last subject/object mentioned in the prior verse, Jesus Christ, remains the subject in the current verse.

2Thess 2:9

2Thess 2:9 - whose coming is after the working of Satan - Jesus' Second Coming occurs after the manifestation of the workings of Satan here on earth, with all power and signs and lying wonders. See Ezek 28:1-10

2Thess 2:9

2Thess 2:9 - all power and signs and lying wonders - Speaking of the 3-fold power of Dragon, Beast and False Prophet that works signs and wonders before those deceived into worshipping the Beast, his Image and receive his Mark. See Rev 12:9, 13:13, 14; 2Cor 11:13-15; 19:20, 21

2Thess 2:10

2Thess 2:10 - deceivableness of unrighteousness - See Jer 23:31, 32 part of the devil's snare is to bewitch his victims, coddling their pet sins (Jam 3:15, 16) and convincing them that their perspectives, motives, intentions and works are just. Even when reprov'd and shown their error, the devil increases the bewitching through pridefulness, suggesting that the ensnared person is again with cause for his/her course. Saul's bewitching by a Satanic spirit is a case study in this matter. The devil played upon Saul's sins of pride, jealousy, greed and self-exaltation. When reprov'd of these sins, he saw himself slighted and unjustly victimized (1Sam 15:8-30) while seeking to deftly/subtly justify himself by shifting blame. All of Saul's works, rejecting God's initial command, using deception to cover his rebellion, and refusing to accept the fault when reprov'd show the step-wise path of the deceivableness of unrighteousness crafted by Satan. False prophets and teachers will be held accountable for their delusive works in the last days. See Zech 13:2-5

2Thess 2:10

2Thess 2:10 - in them that perish - the subject changes from the man of sin, spoken of in verse 9. The subject here are they who have engaged in the deceivableness of unrighteousness that works within those who are caught in Satan's snare. His signs and lying wonders are done to lure his captives, but the deceivableness of unrighteousness is that which is committed by those caught by Satan's lies.

2Thess 2:10

2Thess 2:10 - because they received not the love of the truth - There is a need to gladly receive and love [present] truth when offered by the Holy Spirit (2Pet 1:12). God's purpose and desire is to place truth before man's eyes and seek to lead him into all truth (Joh 16:13, 8:32; 1Tim 2:4). Man must then choose whom he will serve, whether God (by comparing Scripture with Scripture and submitting to the righteousness of God [Jesus] - Isa 8:20; Rom 10:1-3; Jam 4:7; Jer 23:5, 6) or mammon (himself, his opinions, his lusts, his preferences) Joshua 24:15; Lk 16:13; Rom 1:21. As truth enters in, the devil quickly seizes the opportunity to wage a counter attack, presenting falsehood through lying spirits that one must either immediately reject (giving no heed to evil spirits - Matt 24:4; Jam 4:7), or if the one's deeds are evil, he will choose to believe the lie (Mk 4:16, 17, 7:7, 8; Rev 22:14, 15; Joh 3:19-21). See Hos 4:6-11; Jon 2:8; 2Tim 2:25, 26 In the judgment men will not be condemned because they conscientiously believed a lie, but because they did not believe the truth, because they neglected the opportunity of learning what is truth. Notwithstanding the sophistry of Satan to the contrary, it is always disastrous to disobey God. We must set our hearts to know what is truth. All the lessons which God has caused to be placed on record in His word are for our warning and instruction. They are given to save us from deception. Their neglect will result in ruin to ourselves. Whatever contradicts God's word, we may be sure proceeds from Satan. - {PP 55.2} - PP 55.2 "It is a fearful thing to treat lightly the truth which has convinced our understanding and touched our hearts. We cannot with impunity reject the warnings which God in mercy sends us. A message was sent from heaven to the world in Noah's day, and the salvation of men depended upon the manner in which they treated that message. Because they rejected the warning, the Spirit of God was withdrawn from the sinful race, and they perished in the waters of the flood. In the time of Abraham, mercy ceased to plead with the guilty inhabitants of Sodom, and all but Lot with his wife and two daughters were consumed by the fire sent down from heaven. So in the days of Christ. The Son of God declared to the unbelieving Jews of that generation, 'Your house is left unto you desolate.' Looking down to the last days, the same infinite power declares, concerning those who 'received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved,' 'For this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: that they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.' As they reject the teachings of His Word, God withdraws His Spirit, and leaves them to the deceptions which they love." - {EW 45.4}

2Thess 2:10

2Thess 2:10 - love of the truth - See Zech 8:19 The truth: 1. Is Convicting and biting (Joh 16:8) 2. Casts the die, making all things either black or white (Joh 3:20, 21) 3. Exposes motives and intent (Heb 4:12) 4. Cleanses and sanctifies (Joh 17:17; 2 Cor 7:11) to love the truth means to face the mirror of truth (Joh 3:20, 21), to be convicted by it [not shifting blame or faulting others] so that it yields godly repentance (2 Cor 7:10), and then to be cleared of guilt, sanctified by God's forgiveness and grace (2 Cor 7:11).

2Thess 2:10

2Thess 2:10 - that they might be saved - a love of truth is essential for salvation. Jesus will return a second time, for all those who love Him and love His appearing (Joh 14:15 23; 2Tim 4:8). It is essential therefore, that we become lovers of Truth (Joh 18:37). See Ps 119:142, 151; Isa 65:16 - The AMEN, the Faithful and True Witness: Rev 3:14 - Jesus is the Living Word and God's Words are Truth: John 17:17, 1:1-3, 14 - Truth will make you free: John 8:32, 36 - We are commanded to love truth: Zech 8:19; 2Thess 2:10

2Thess 2:11

2Thess 2:11 - God shall send them strong delusion; that they should believe a lie: - God does not send but rather He removes His hand of protection so that lying and enticing spirits may deceive those who do not have a love for truth. See 2Chron 18:20-22; Jer 44:15-23; Isa 19:13, 14, 66:4; Rom 1:24, 28-32, 11:7; Eze 20:22-26; Jer 9:23; 1Kin 22:21-23 That generation had their day of opportunity and privilege while Noah was sounding the note of warning of the coming destruction; but they yielded their minds to the control of Satan rather than of God, and he deceived them, as he did our first parents. He set before them darkness and falsehood in the place of light and truth; and they accepted his sophistry and lies, because they were acceptable to them, and in harmony with their corrupt lives, while truth that would have saved them was rejected as a delusion.—The Signs of the Times, April 1, 1886. - {YRP 254.5} The Pharisees to whom Jesus spoke this warning did not themselves believe the charge they brought against Him. There was not one of those dignitaries but had felt drawn toward the Saviour. They had heard the Spirit's voice in their own hearts declaring Him to be the Anointed of Israel, and urging them to confess themselves His disciples. In the light of His presence they had realized their unholiness, and had longed for a righteousness which they could not create. But after their rejection of Him it would be too humiliating to receive Him as the Messiah. Having set their feet in the path of unbelief, they were too proud to confess their error. And in order to avoid acknowledging the truth, they tried with desperate violence to dispute the Saviour's teaching. The evidence of His power and mercy exasperated them. They could not prevent the Saviour from working miracles, they could not silence His teaching; but they did everything in their power to misrepresent Him and to falsify His words. Still the convicting Spirit of God followed them, and they had to build up many barriers in order to withstand its power. The mightiest agency that can be brought to bear upon the human heart was striving with them, but they would not yield. - {DA 322.1} It is not God that blinds the eyes of men or hardens their hearts. He sends them light to correct their errors, and to lead them in safe paths; it is by the rejection of this light that the eyes are blinded and the heart hardened. Often the process is gradual, and almost imperceptible. Light comes to the soul through God's word, through His servants, or by the direct agency of His Spirit; but when one ray of light is disregarded, there is a partial numbing of the spiritual perceptions, and the second revealing of light is less clearly discerned. So the darkness increases, until it is night in the soul. Thus it had been with these Jewish leaders. They were convinced that a divine power attended Christ, but in order to resist the truth, they attributed the work of the Holy Spirit to Satan. In doing this they deliberately chose deception; they yielded themselves to Satan, and henceforth they were controlled by his power. - {DA 322.2} Closely connected with Christ's warning in regard to the sin against the Holy Spirit is a warning against idle and evil words. The words are an indication of that which is in the heart. "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." But the words are more than an indication of character; they have power to react on the character. Men are influenced by their own words. Often under a momentary impulse, prompted by Satan, they give utterance to jealousy or evil surmising, expressing that which they do not really believe; but the expression reacts on the thoughts. They are deceived by their words, and come to believe that true which was spoken at Satan's instigation. Having once expressed an opinion or decision, they are often too proud to retract it, and try to prove themselves in the right, until they come to believe that they are. It is dangerous to utter a word of doubt, dangerous to question and criticize divine light. The habit of careless and irreverent criticism reacts upon the character, in fostering irreverence and unbelief. Many a man indulging this habit has gone on unconscious of danger, until he was ready to criticize and reject the work of the Holy Spirit. Jesus said, "Every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned." - {DA 323.1}

2Thess 2:11 - that they should believe a lie - There will go from this meeting men who claim to know the truth who are gathering about their souls the garments not woven in the loom of heaven. The spirit that they have received here will be carried with them. I tremble for the future of our cause. Those who do not in this place yield to the evidence God has given will war against their brethren whom God is using. They will make it very hard, when opportunities shall come where they can carry forward and onward the same kind of warfare they have hitherto engaged in. These men will have opportunities to be convinced that they have been warring against the Holy Spirit of God. Some will be convinced; others will hold firmly their own spirit. They will not die to self and let the Lord Jesus come into their hearts. They will be more and still more deceived until they cannot discern truth and righteousness. They will, under another spirit, seek to place upon the work a mold that God shall not approve; and they will endeavor to act out the attributes of Satan in assuming control of human minds and thus control the work and cause of God. - {1888 831.2}

2Thess 2:12

2Thess 2:12 - That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. - The fearful result of believing a lie is outlined by the prophet Isa. See Isa 8:19-22, 28:17-21; Rom 1:32; Am 8:11-14; Col 2:18; Jer 13:24, 25

2Thess 2:12

2Thess 2:11 - who believed not the truth - Sanctify them through thy truth, thy word is truth. See 2Tim 4:3, 4; 2Cor 4:4; Joh 17:17; Ps 119:142

2Thess 2:12

2Thess 2:12 - but had pleasure in unrighteousness - See Gal 6:8

2Thess 2:13

2Thess 2:12 - because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: - God has chosen all men to salvation through His sanctifying Spirit that leads us to a life of obedience, and belief in the Truth - God's eternal purposes towards men founded in His Son. See Ps 85:9; Ju 1:1; Eph 3:11

2Thess 2:13

2Thess 2:13 - sanctification of the Spirit - See Act 20:32; Gal 5:5, 6

2Thess 2:13

2Thess 2:13 - belief of the truth - See Joh 17:17, 8:31, 32

2Thess 2:14

2Thess 2:14 - Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ - See Eph 4:13; 2Pet 1:4; Phil 2:5-8; Gal 5:22, 23; Col 1:28, 29

2Thess 2:15

2Thess 2:15 - hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle. - The traditions are the faith once delivered to the saints, not vain rituals, philosophy and teachings of men. See Jude 1:3; Contrast Mark 7:7; Col 2:8

2Thess 2:16

2Thess 2:16 - and God, even our Father, which hath loved us - See Joh 3:16, 20:17; Eph 2:4

2Thess 2:16

2Thess 2:16 - which hath loved us - See Joh 3:16; Isa 48:16

2Thess 2:16

2Thess 2:16 - and hath given us everlasting consolation - See 2Cor 1:5-7

2Thess 2:16

2Thess 2:16 - everlasting consolation and good hope through grace - See Rom 8:24; John 16:33

2Thess 2:16

2Thess 2:16 - consolation - Comfort; alleviation of misery, or distress of mind; refreshment of mind or spirits; a comparative degree of happiness in distress or misfortune, springing from any circumstance that abates the evil, or supports and strengthens the mind, as hope, joy, courage and the like. See John 16:33

2Thess 2:17

2Thess 2:17 - stablish you in every good word - See Mt 12:36; Ps 1:1-3

2Thess 3:1

2Thess 3:1 - pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified - See Eph 6:18, 19

2Thess 3:2

2Thess 3:2 - And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men - See Ps 37:7-13

2Thess 3:2

2Thess 3:2 - for all men have not faith - though all men have been given a measure of faith from the Lord, some have and infidels rejected the wisdom and knowledge of God. See Rom 12:3

2Thess 3:3

2Thess 3:3 - But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil - See 1Jo 5:18

2Thess 3:5

2Thess 3:5 - And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ - The Lord here referred to is the Holy Spirit, Who guides us into all truth. See Ps 119:32; John 16:13; Rom 5:5

2Thess 3:6

2Thess 3:6 - ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly - See 2Tim 3:5

2Thess 3:6

2Thess 3:6 - and not after the tradition which he received of us - See 2Thess 2:15

2Thess 3:7

2Thess 3:7 - for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you - disorderly would imply outside the spirit and expressed commands of God. The apostles were examples to the people in all respects of life. They did not take for themselves where they had not labored nor sown of God's word. They were diligent in their labors in spreading the gospel and supporting the work of the church. This is descent and orderly in the sight of God.

2Thess 3:8

2Thess 3:8 - Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you - See 1Cor 4:11, 12 ; 1Thess 2:6; 2Thess 3:10

2Thess 3:9

2Thess 3:9 - Not because we have not power - Paul speaks of power meaning that he had a right and title to the fruit of his labor. An ox is not to be muzzled as it works (See Deut 25:4; 1Cor 9:9), and the laborer is worthy of his wages (1Tim 5:18). Paul had labored diligently as an apostle of Jesus Christ and could rightfully be supported by the tithes collected for the support of the work and the ministry. He however, sought to make full use of his time and talents and sought to further the work of the gospel by not being a burden, but by supporting himself in his labor.

2Thess 3:10

2Thess 3:10 - that if any would not work, neither should he eat - This true statement which speaks of our need for continual diligence does in way negate the fact that God is our Provider (Mt 6:33). We are to work the works of God: first to believe in Jesus and His power to save; secondly to abide in Him; and lastly to let our light so shine before men that they may see our "good works" and glorify our Father which is in heaven. See Prov 13:25, 16:26; John 6:29; 15:1-6; Mt 5:16

2Thess 3:11

2Thess 3:11 - working not at all, but are busybodies - See 1Thess 4:11

2Thess 3:12

2Thess 3:12 - Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread - See 2Thess 3:10

2Thess 3:13

2Thess 3:13 - But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing - See Gal 6:9; Rom 2:7; Titus 3:8; Heb 6:10-12, 10:36

2Thess 3:14

2Thess 3:14 - And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed - See 1Cor 14:37

1 Timothy

1Tim 1:1

Back to Table of Contents

1Tim 1:1 - an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ - Paul gives his credentials as an apostle of Christ, called by both God the Father and Christ to ministry. See Gal 1:1, 11-19

1Tim 1:2

1Tim 1:2 - Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith - See 1Tim 1:18; 2Tim 1:2

1Tim 1:3

1Tim 1:3 - that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine - See Gal 1:6-9, 5:1-13

1Tim 1:4

1Tim 1:4 - Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith - apparently, the people (particularly of Jewish heritage) to whom Timothy and Paul were ministering were concerned with one's heritage, lineage, genealogy, pedigree, credentials, "right" and "authority" to be a minister of the gospel. See 1Cor 1:10-22; Phil 3:3-7; Joh 7:45-49; Rom 14:1; Tit 3:9

1Tim 1:5

1Tim 1:5 - Now the end of the commandment is charity - See Rom 10:4; Gal 5:14

1Tim 1:5

1Tim 1:5 - out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned - a purified heart is given by receiving the Holy Spirit by sincere faith. See Act 15:8, 9; 2Tim 2:21, 22; Heb 9:14; Gal 5:26; 1Pet 1:22

1Tim 1:5

1Tim 1:7 - a good conscience - See 1Tim 1:19

1Tim 1:5

1Tim 1:5 - faith unfeigned - no pretense, no false piety, no self-righteous boasting, pomp or show but genuine faith exercised in meekness and humility. See Gal 5:26

1Tim 1:6

1Tim 1:6 - jangling - a noisy dispute; wrangling; quarreling; sounding discordantly. See Rom 14:1; 1Tim 6:20

1Tim 1:7

1Tim 1:7 - understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm - See 2Pet 3:16; 2Tim 3:7

1Tim 1:8

1Tim 1:8 - But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully - See Rom 7:12

1Tim 1:9

1Tim 1:9, 10 - Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, 10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine; - See Gal 5:16-24

1Tim 1:9

1Tim 1:9 - unholy and profane - those who make no distinction between the holy and common. Those who scorn sacred things. See Heb 12:16

1Tim 1:9

1Tim 1:9 - for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers - See Gen 4:8, 23, 24, 10:8, 9

1Tim 1:10

1Tim 1:10 - for them that defile themselves with mankind - See Rom 1:26, 27; Dan 11:36-38; Lev 20:13; 1Cor 6:9, 10

1Tim 1:10

1Tim 1:10 - perjured persons - those who have sworn falsely. That men go before courts of law today and perjure themselves openly, shows the lack of integrity, the disregard and contempt for God and for oaths we have today.

1Tim 1:10

1Tim 1:10 - and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine - this shows the completeness of the law and the commandments of God. Everything that is contrary to sound doctrine is herein included as condemnable before God and His perfect law.

1Tim 1:11

1Tim 1:11 - According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust - See Gal 1:1-6, 11, 12

1Tim 1:13

1Tim 1:13 - Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief - See Gal 1:13-24

1Tim 1:14

1Tim 1:14 - exceeding abundant - God's grace towards us all is exceeding abundant, so that no man may boast in anything but Christ and Him crucified. See Rom 5:20; Eph 3:20

1Tim 1:15

1Tim 1:15 - This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance - See 1Tim 4:9

1Tim 1:15

1Tim 1:15 - worthy of all acceptance - worthy of all joyful acceptance, receiving with great approbation.

1Tim 1:15

1Tim 1:15 - that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners - See Mt 1:21; Lk 1:31; 19:10; Ps 33:18

1Tim 1:15

1Tim 1:15 - of whom I am chief - Paul spoke not these words at the point of his conversion, after having persecuted the church of Christ, but many years after (Act 26:9-11) - after raising up countless churches on behalf of God's Kingdom. Paul's humility and recognition of his nothingness stems from having seen Jesus in His glory (Act 9:3-18), being transported into the 3rd heaven and seeing sights too glorious to speak of (2Cor 12:2-5) and recognizing his own insignificance in the light of it all. So too, we all must behold the glory of Jesus as Moses requested of God (Ex 33:18-34:8) and our comeliness will be turned to corruption (Dan 10:7,8) and cast into the dust.

1Tim 1:16

1Tim 1:16 - Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy - See Eph 2:4, 5

1Tim 1:16

1Tim 1:16 - that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering - Paul states that Jesus showed abounding longsuffering in patiently waiting for Paul to surrender in order to be a model for others to receive the grace of God and eternal salvation in kind.

1Tim 1:16

1Tim 1:16 - for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting - See Joh 17:20

1Tim 1:17

1Tim 1:17 - immortal - See 1Tim 6:15, 16; Hymn 21 - Immoral, Invisible, God Only Wise

1Tim 1:17

1Tim 1:16 - be honour and glory for ever and ever - God is worthy of all honour and glory because He created all things and for His good pleasure they all exist. See Rev 4:11

1Tim 1:18

1Tim 1:18 - son Timothy - See 1Tim 1:2

1Tim 1:18

1Tim 1:18 - according to the prophecies which went before on thee - Paul admonishes Timothy based on the prophetic revelations given to Paul and previously conveyed to Timothy. These revelations are to encourage Timothy to fight the good fight of faith, knowing the great reward that lies before us all.

1Tim 1:20

1Tim 1:20 - Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme - the fearful statement regarding two have drawn away to perdition.

1Tim 2:1

1Tim 2:1 - I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men - See 1Tim 2:8; Phil 4:6, 7

1Tim 2:2

1Tim 2:2 - For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty - See Dan 2:17-23

1Tim 2:3

1Tim 2:3 - For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour - See Mic 6:8

1Tim 2:4

1Tim 2:4 - Who will have all men to be saved - See 2Pet 3:9; Joh 4:41

1Tim 2:4

1Tim 2:4 - and to come unto the knowledge of the truth - See Joh 8:31, 32; 16:7-14; Lk 11:9-

1Tim 2:5

1Tim 2:5 - For there is one God - See Deut 6:4; Mk 12:29

1Tim 2:5

1Tim 2:5 - and one mediator between God and men - "The mystic Ladder of his [Jacob's] dream represented Jesus, the only Medium of communication between God and man" {SC 20.1}. See Joh 1:18; 14:6, 9, 13, 14, 16:23; Mt 11:27; Rom 10:13; Heb 9:15 Man broke God's law, and through the Redeemer new and fresh promises were made on a different basis. All blessings must come through a Mediator. Now every member of the human family is given wholly into the hands of Christ, and whatever we possess—whether it is the gift of money, of houses, of lands, of reasoning powers, of physical strength, of intellectual talents—in this present life, and the blessings of the future life, are placed in our possession as God's treasures to be faithfully expended for the benefit of man. Every gift is stamped with the cross and bears the image and superscription of Jesus Christ. All things come of God. From the smallest benefits up to the largest blessing, all flow through the one Channel—a superhuman mediation sprinkled with the blood that is of value beyond estimate because it was the life of God in His Son. - {1888 814.2}

1Tim 2:5

1Tim 2:5 - the man Christ Jesus - Jesus is the Second Adam (1Cor 15:22, 45; Rom 5:19), "crowned with glory and honour" who stands before the Father in heaven. Jesus has redeemed (won back) the lost possession of the kingdom that He once entrusted to Adam. See 1Tim 3:16; Heb 2:14-18

1Tim 2:6

1Tim 2:6 - Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time - See Mt 20:28; Gal 3:13

1Tim 2:6

1Tim 2:6 - to be testified in due time - See Joh 17:4, 5; Phil 2:9-11; Rev 5:8-14; Heb 1:8-12

1Tim 2:7

1Tim 2:7 - Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity - See Rom 11:13; 2Tim 1:11

1Tim 2:8

1Tim 2:8 - I will therefore that men pray everywhere - See 1Tim 2:1

1Tim 2:8

1Tim 2:8 - doubting - Jam 1:6-8; 1Joh 5:14, 15

1Tim 2:9

1Tim 2:9 that women adorn themselves in modest apparel - Contrast Rev 17:3-6; 2Kin 9:30

1Tim 2:9

1Tim 2:9 - shamefacedness - bashfulness, modesty

1Tim 2:9

1Tim 2:9 - sobriety - habitual freedom from inordinate passion, enthusiasm, overheated imagination

1Tim 2:9

1Tim 2:9 - not with braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array - See 1Pet 3:4; 2Kin 9:30; Rev 17:3-6; 1Cor 11:15

1Tim 2:11

1Tim 2:11 - with all subjection - "The state of being under the power, control and government of another" The wife is to be first submitted to Christ and then to her husband - See 1Tim 2:12

1Tim 2:12

1Tim 2:12 - But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence - Paul, under inspiration of God, and affirmed by the Apostle Peter, forbids women from teach or usurp authority of a man. Paul speaks nothing regarding cultural preferences but refers to the Creation and the order God established as the source of his theological position. See 2Pet 3:15, 16; 1Tim 2:13, 3:2; Titus 1:6

1Tim 2:12

1Tim 2:12- nor to usurp authority over the man - See Gen 3:16; Isa 3:4, 5, 12

1Tim 2:13

1Tim 2:13 - For Adam was first formed, then Eve - Paul speaks of the preeminence of men ordained by God, having been created before women. See Gen 2:7-23

1Tim 2:14

1Tim 2:14 - but the woman being deceived was in the transgression - Eve was deceived into engaging with the serpent, she was then lured to heed his counsel and reject God. See Gen 3:1-6; 2Cor 11:3

1Tim 2:15

1Tim 2:15 - Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety - See Gen 3:16; 1Tim 2:10

1Tim 3:1

1Tim 3:1 - the office of a bishop - Paul in the following chapters outlines the qualifications and works of an elder (and deacon) in the church of Christ.

1Tim 3:2

1Tim 3:2 - blameless - law abiding, above reproach, and confirmable by all. See Tit 1:5-9

1Tim 3:2

1Tim 3:2 - the husband of one wife - Paul speaks of the role and gender of the elder or bishop, that as a male having headship over his wife and household, it is a male that alone should assume the role of elder/bishop. The elder's wife, as his helpmate, would compliment him in ministry, serving the needs of the women as he, the men. See 1Tim 2:11-15, 1Tim 3:12

1Tim 3:2

1Tim 3:2 - given to hospitality - See 2Kin 4:9, 10; 1Pet 4:9, 10; Heb 13:2

1Tim 3:2

1Tim 3:2 - apt to teach - women are forbidden to hold the post of teacher of men according to Scripture. See 1Tim 2:11, 12

1Tim 3:3

1Tim 3:3 - Not given to wine - See Prov 20:1; 23:31-33, 31:4-7; Isa 5:11-14, 22; Rev 12:9

1Tim 3:3

1Tim 3:3 - no striker - not a quarrelsome man. See Tit 1:7

1Tim 3:3

1Tim 3:3 - not greedy of filthy lucre - See Jer 17:11; 2Cor 12:17, 18; 1Tim 6:6-10

1Tim 3:3

1Tim 3:3 - not a brawler - See Prov 20:3

1Tim 3:3

1Tim 3:3 - not covetous - See Col 3:5

1Tim 3:4

1Tim 3:4 - One that ruleth well his own house - has ordered his home such that he honors God, receives genuine respect from those who abide within.

1Tim 3:4

1Tim 3:4 - having his children in subjection with all gravity - he has instilled a reverence (fear) for his authority and therefore commands respect, not through physical force, but through consistent, adherence to Godly principles demonstrated.

1Tim 3:5

1Tim 3:5 - For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God? - See 1Sam 3:11-14

1Tim 3:6

1Tim 3:6 - Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil - filled with pride, he assume the self-exalting character of the devil. See Ezekiel 28:4, 5, 17; 1Cor 8:1; Contrast 2Cor 12:10 ; 1Tim 6:1-4

1Tim 3:7

1Tim 3:7 - Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without - those outside the church must see the bishop/elder as honorable so that he not bring reproach upon the church of God.

1Tim 3:8

1Tim 3:6 - deacons be grave, not doubletongued - sincere, thoughtful, and not hasty in words; no deceiver.

1Tim 3:8

1Tim 3:8 - not given to much wine - See Prov 20:1; 23:31-33, 31:4-7; Isa 5:11-14, 22; Rev 12:9

1Tim 3:8

1Tim 3:8 - not greedy of filthy lucre - See Jer 17:11; 2Cor 12:17, 18; 1Tim 6:6-10

1Tim 3:9

1Tim 3:9 - Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience - upholding the truth and the power of God within, with a clear conscience; not hypocritical and no double lives. - See Col 1:27-29; Rev 10:7; 1Tim 3:16

1Tim 3:10

1Tim 3:10 - And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless - Just as we are to prove all things [doctrine] Scripturally, one's character must be proven by the Word of God. See 1Thess 5:21; 1Tim 5:22

1Tim 3:11

1Tim 3:11 - Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things - this speaks of the blessing of being equally yoked with a mate chosen by the Lord. The wife will compliment her husband in faithful service to the Lord, in character and will support and encourage him in his ministry. See Tit 2:3-5

1Tim 3:11

1Tim 3:11 - wives be grave, not slanderers - women must not be gossipers, talebearers or liars.

1Tim 3:12

1Tim 3:12 - Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife - like the elder, the role of a deacon is specific to the male gender. Having a helpmate, the deacon's wife would compliment him in service such that she would minister to the needs of women as he to men. God's original plan for marriage is here emphasized for the Christian church. See 1Tim 3:2

1Tim 3:13

1Tim 3:13 - For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus - those who uphold their call to ministry faithfully have stored up treasures in heaven and also here on earth, gaining the respect of men so that they may effectively serve in the cause of the Lord.

1Tim 3:15

1Tim 3:15 - that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God - All things must be done in decency and order in God's House, the Church of God. See 1Cor 14:40; 1Cor 14:26, 33

1Tim 3:15

1Tim 3:15 - the house of God, which is the church of the living God - See Isa 56:7; Mt 21:13; Mk 11:17; Lk 19:46

1Tim 3:15

1Tim 3:15 - pillar and ground of the truth - the church or house of God, is to be built upon Christ alone, the solid Rock, so that it can not be moved. The teachings of Christ, His doctrine, the holy Scriptures and He Himself is the foundation, the Chief Cornerstone and the Head of the faith and of the church. See Eph 2:20; 1Pet 2:6-8; Isa 28:16; Lk 20:14-18

1Tim 3:16

1Tim 3:16 - and without controversy great is the mystery of godliness - without question or any doubt, great is the mystery of God's love, kindness, mercy, grace, forbearance, and righteousness. The mystery of godliness, ordained before the foundation of the world but fully manifested in the life and experience of Jesus Christ, is to be perfectly reproduced in the lives of the 144,000. See Eph 3:18, 19; 1Cor 2:7; Rom 8:3 If Christ was a victor on the point of appetite, then there was a chance for man to overcome. If Satan gained the victory through his subtlety, man was bound by the power of appetite in chains of indulgence which he could not have moral power to break. Christ's humanity alone could never have endured this test, but His divine power combined with humanity gained in behalf of man an infinite victory. Our representative in this victory raised humanity in the scale of moral value with God. - {Confrontation 66.2} Those who abide in Jesus will be happy, cheerful, and joyful in God. A subdued gentleness will mark the voice, reverence for spiritual and eternal things will be expressed in the actions, and music, joyful music, will echo from the lips, for it is wafted from the throne of God. This is the mystery of godliness, not easily explained, but nonetheless felt and enjoyed. - {FLB 226.4} But although Christ's divine glory was for a time veiled and eclipsed by His assuming humanity, yet He did not cease to be God when He became man. The human did not take the place of the divine, nor the divine of the human. This is the mystery of godliness. The two expressions "human" and "divine" were, in Christ, closely and inseparably one, and yet they had a distinct individuality. Though Christ humbled Himself to become man, the Godhead was still His own. His deity could not be lost while He stood faithful and true to His loyalty. Surrounded with sorrow, suffering, and moral pollution, despised and rejected by the people to whom had been intrusted the oracles of heaven, Jesus could yet speak of Himself as the Son of man in heaven. He was ready to take once more His divine glory when His work on earth was done. - {5BC 1129.3}

1Tim 3:16

1Tim 3:16 - God was manifest in the flesh - Immanuel, God with us. See Isa 7:14; 1Tim 2:5; 1Jo 3:8, 4:3; 2Jo 1:7; Heb 2:14-18; Rom 14:9 Wrestling Scripture: Many modern translations remove "God" and state "He was manifest in the flesh", again, challenging the Co-Eternal Divine nature of Christ. See Eph 3:9; Joh 5:39

1Tim 3:16

1Tim 3:16 - justified in the Spirit - Jesus was attested to by both the Father and the Spirit. See Mat 3:13-17; Joh 15:26; Rom 4:4, 5; 1Jo 5:7, 8; Isa 48:16||Zech 6:12, 13 (Council of Peace)

1Tim 3:16

1Tim 3:16 - seen of angels - See Lk 2:9-14, 24:1-7; Mt 4:11, 28:1-7, 27:45; The mystery of godliness, spoken in 1Cor 10:16 speaks of angels beholding the mystery. The mystery, first seen in Christ is to be last beheld through the church - Eph 3:10

1Tim 3:16

1Tim 3:16 - preached unto the Gentiles - See Joh 4:3-42, 12:20, 21; Mt 8:5-13, 15:22-28, 12:21-24, 27:54; Mk 7:26-30; Lk 17:12-19; Isa 49:6 The mystery of God, first seen in Christ, is to be seen in His saints who permit Him to abide in them. See Eph 3:8

1Tim 3:16

1Tim 3:16 - believed on in the world - See Act 1:8; Joh 1:12, 8:30-32, 17:1-10; Isa 49:6, 53:1; Mt 24:14, 28:18-20 The mystery first seen in Jesus Christ, is to be revealed in all the world through His saints through the power of the indwelling Spirit of God - Eph 3:9

1Tim 3:16

1Tim 3:16 - received up into glory - See Act 1:9-12, 3:21; Heb 1:3

1Tim 4:1

1Tim 4:1 - Now the Spirit speaketh expressly - the Holy Spirit speaks to and through holy men of God the revelations here spoken. See 2Pet 1:21

1Tim 4:1

1Tim 4:1 - that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils - vain heresies, lies against the truth as clearly expressed in Scriptures. See Rom 1:28-32; 2Tim 3:1-5; Rev 16:14; Modern spiritualism, resting upon the same foundation, is but a revival in a new form of the witchcraft and demon worship that God condemned and prohibited of old. It is foretold in the Scriptures, which declare that "in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils." 1Tim 4:1. Paul, in his second letter to the Thessalonians, points to the special working of Satan in spiritualism as an event to take place immediately before the second advent of Christ. Speaking of Christ's second coming, he declares that it is "after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders." 2Thess 2:9. And Peter, describing the dangers to which the church was to be exposed in the last days, says that as there were false prophets who led Israel into sin, so there will be false teachers, "who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them.... And many shall follow their pernicious ways." 2Pet 2:1, 2. Here the apostle has pointed out one of the marked characteristics of spiritualist teachers. They refuse to acknowledge Christ as the Son of God. Concerning such teachers the beloved Joh declares: "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father." 1Jo 2:22, 23. Spiritualism, by denying Christ, denies both the Father and the Son, and the Bible pronounces it the manifestation of antichrist. - {PP 686.1}

1Tim 4:1

1Tim 4:1 - doctrines of devils - Paul was shown the heresies that would enter the faith and corrupt the pure faith once delivered to the saints: 1. An Immortal Soul 2. Consciousness in death 3. The church as the path to salvation rather than Christ 4. Adoration of saints and relics 5. Indulgences 6. Atheism 7. Nicolaitan doctrine - body decoupled from the soul 8. Sunday sacredness - man's ability to transfer holiness of God 9. Perversions of marriage and man - homosexuality, fornication, sexual impurity, gender neutrality 10. Ruinous health practices - consumption of forbidden foods 11.

1Tim 4:2

1Tim 4:2- Speaking lies in hypocrisy - false apostles of Christ who make a profession of faith but are inwardly ravening wolves. See Mt 7:15; Act 20:29 Peter urged home upon the convicted people the fact that they had rejected Christ because they had been deceived by priests and rulers; and that if they continued to look to these men for counsel, and waited for them to acknowledge Christ before they dared to do so, they would never accept Him. These powerful men, though making a profession of godliness, were ambitious for earthly riches and glory. They were not willing to come to Christ to receive light. - {AA 43.3}

1Tim 4:2

1Tim 4:2 - having their conscience seared with a hot iron - They have rejected the light of truth for filthy lucre and have pierced themselves through with many vain sorrows so that they can no longer hear nor respond to the promptings of God's Holy Spirit. Those who receive the Mark of the Beast will be as such, unable to respond to the promptings of the Holy Spirit but whose minds will dwell upon sin continually. see Heb 3:13, 6:4-6; Gen 6:5; Compare 2Cor 10:5; Ps 19:13

1Tim 4:2

1Tim 4:2 - seared - Burnt on the surface; cauterized; hardened

1Tim 4:3

1Tim 4:3 - forbidding to marry - See Dan 11:37

1Tim 4:3

1Tim 4:3 - commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth - The promotion of an unhealthy diet, supported through false science, may here be described. The western diet, which emphasizes the consumption of meat, dairy and animal products above and at the expense of vegetable products (Gen 1:29, 30), robs people of sound minds and good health, weakening and shortening their lives. See Lev 11:1-47; Deut 14:1-22

1Tim 4:3

1Tim 4:3 - which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth - See Gen 1:29, 30

1Tim 4:4

1Tim 4:4 - For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused - in this statement, understanding context is essential. Timothy, who was raised under Jewish customs by His mother and grandmother (though his father was a Greek) is fully aware of the health principals ordained for men by God. He understands that in no way does Paul give sanction to the consumption of animals deemed unclean for food. Short of this understanding, one would deduce that Paul is, as in Peter's dream, saying all animals, even abominable things (Isa 66:17) have been made clean by God and Timothy should also, "arise, slay and eat" anything he chooses (Act 11:5-10).

1Tim 4:4

1Tim 4:4 - if it be received with thanksgiving, for it is sanctified by the Word of God and prayer - God will not honor false sacrifices, as in Cain's false offering, nor will He heed profane prayers, offered by those who fail to do His will. The consumption of unclean animals, contrary to His Word (Lev 11; Deut 14:3-21), defiles the body and any prayer of thanksgiving for its consumption is a profane gesture. "Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God" 1Cor 10:31.

1Tim 4:5

1Tim 4:5 - For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer - Clean meats offered to idols are sanctified by the word of God and prayer provided it does not cause a saint to stumble. Unclean foods are an abomination to God and will never be sanctified by God. See 1Cor 10:27-33

1Tim 4:6

1Tim 4:6 - If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ - See 2Tim 4:2; Tit 2:15; Mt 24:45, 46

1Tim 4:6

1Tim 4:6 - nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained - elders are to be well fed, nourished up in the words of faith and of the doctrine of our Lord Jesus Christ. See 1Tim 6:1-3

1Tim 4:7

1Tim 4:7 - But refuse profane and old wives' fables - See Tit 1:14, 10

1Tim 4:7

1Tim 4:7 - exercise thyself rather unto godliness - we are not to neglect bodily exercise which strengthens the soul temple (1Cor 3:16, 17). Yet there is a greater exercise to be pursued in exercising oneself unto godliness which profits us to eternal life.

1Tim 4:8

1Tim 4:8 - For bodily exercise profiteth little, but godliness is profitable of all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come - See Ju 1:20

1Tim 4:9

1Tim 4:9 - This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance - See 1Tim 1:15

1Tim 4:9

1Tim 4:9 - acceptance - Kind reception; a receiving with favor or approbation

1Tim 4:10

1Tim 4:10 - because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe - See Joh 4:42; Isa 49:6, 40:5; Rom 5:18; Joh 1:29; Act 13:47; 2Cor 5:19

1Tim 4:10

1Tim 4:10 - who is the Saviour of all men - Though Jesus has given His life a ransom for the entire world (Mt 20:28, Mk 10:45; Gal 3:13) and all men have salvation, only those who believe will receive the gift of eternal life (Joh 1:12, 13). See Rom 3:24, 5:6-10, 18; Eph 1:4; 1Tim 1:15; Joh 4:42

1Tim 4:10

1Tim 4:10 - specially of those that believe - Jesus saves those who believe to the uttermost, giving them complete victory and deliverance from sin by faith of Jesus Christ. The bottom-line idea is that as long as you have a sinful nature, it is inevitable that you must continue sinning. Precisely Satan's point he has been contending for since his rebellion in heaven! But Christ slew the dragon in his last lair, proved that human sin is willful and therefore unnecessary. And in mankind who believe, He created a new abhorrence of sin that leads to its final eradication. Thus He set the captive will of sinful man free to say "No" to sin, and through the faith of Jesus to become pure and holy. Grace on Trial, R. Wieland pg 82}

1Tim 4:11

1Tim 4:11 - These things command and teach - as a mentor and Senior elder, Paul instructs Timothy, also an elder, what he should model and teach the body of Christ. See 1Tim 4:13

1Tim 4:12

1Tim 4:12 - Let no man despise thy youth - See Tit 2:15; 1Cor 16:10, 11 Paul saw that Timothy was faithful, steadfast, and true, and he chose him as a companion in labor and travel. Those who had taught Timothy in his childhood were rewarded by seeing the son of their care linked in close fellowship with the great apostle. Timothy was a mere youth when he was chosen by God to be a teacher, but his principles had been so established by his early education that he was fitted to take his place as Paul's helper. And though young, he bore his responsibilities with Christian meekness. - {AA 203.3}

1Tim 4:12

1Tim 4:12 - in conversation - in lifestyle

1Tim 4:13

1Tim 4:13 - Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine - The work of an elder is here outlined by Paul. See 1Tim 5:17

1Tim 4:13

1Tim 4:13 - reading - reading the words of Scripture is to be encouraged and modeled to the flock.

1Tim 4:13

1Tim 4:13 - exhortation - the act of inciting to laudable deeds; incitement to that which is good or commendable.

1Tim 4:13

1Tim 4:13 - doctrine - the teaching of sound doctrine is critical to godliness and Christlike living.

1Tim 4:14

1Tim 4:14 - Paul, a prophet of God, was shown through prophetic revelation that the Lord had a special calling upon Timothy's life, to be a minister of the gospel. This was then affirmed by the laying on of hands upon him by the elders of the church. See 1Tim 1:2-6

1Tim 4:14

1Tim 4:14 - presbytery - A body of elders in the christian church

1Tim 4:15

1Tim 4:15 - Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all - See 1Sam 3:19, 20

1Tim 4:16

1Tim 4:16 - Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee - personal accountability is here encouraged to the young disciple of Paul. Paul encourages us to meditate upon our calling and in carefulness, pursue righteous living to the saving of ourselves and others who will hear us (Joh 17:20). Help me Lord!!! See Heb 2:1, 3

1Tim 5:1

1Tim 5:1 - Rebuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father - An elder ought to be treated with respect and courtesy as one would regard one's father. They are not to be chastised or scolded indiscreetly - See 1Tim 5:19, 20

1Tim 5:1

1Tim 5:1 - and the younger men as brethren - we are to have godly tact when correcting one another. Our words must be seasoned with grace.

1Tim 5:4

1Tim 5:4 - But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God - sons and nephews ought to care for their mothers and aunts, which is acceptable to the Lord. They are to render noble service, honoring their mothers with love. Contrast Mk 7:10-12

1Tim 5:5

1Tim 5:5 - Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day - the widow who has no earthly support puts her trust in the Lord and makes supplication for His protection and provisions in her life continually. See Isa 54:1-6

1Tim 5:8

1Tim 5:8 - But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel - See 1Tim 5:4; Mk 7:10-12

1Tim 5:9

1Tim 5:9 - Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man - Paul makes an age limitation on those widows who should be considered for support. Any younger than 60yrs will long for the companion of a mate and should be given the opportunity to pursue so. They should be physically capable of supporting themselves as well. Those over 60 however, are to be cared for and watched over as mothers in Zion.

1Tim 5:10

1Tim 5:10 - Well reported of for good works - See Prov 31:30-31

1Tim 5:10

1Tim 5:10 - if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work - if she has raised children not her own, or housed those who are homeless. See Isa 54:1, 2, 58:8-10

1Tim 5:11

1Tim 5:11 - wanton - Wandering or roving in gaiety or sport; sportive; frolicsome; darting aside, or one way and the other

1Tim 5:12

1Tim 5:12 - Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith - to pursue a husband is not a damnable offense to God (1Tim 5:14), but to pursue a husband and turn one's back on one's calling and faith is so. Further to, become an idle busybody, not working for the Lord but becoming a reproach to the faith is damnable. See 1Tim 5:14, 15

1Tim 5:13

1Tim 5:13

1Tim 5:13 - speaking things which they ought not - in their idleness, they become gossips, and tale bearers, speaking things which they ought not.

1Tim 5:14

1Tim 5:14 - I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully - See 1Tim 5:11

1Tim 5:14

1Tim 5:14 - give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully - See Zech 3:1-3

1Tim 5:15

1Tim 5:15 - For some are already turned aside after Satan - See 1Tim 5:11-14

1Tim 5:17

1Tim 5:17 - Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine - those who are diligent in building the kingdom and are continually in service, laboring in the word and doctrine are worthy of honor. See 1Tim 4:11-13

1Tim 5:18

1Tim 5:18 - For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn - See Deut 25:4; 1Cor 9:9

1Tim 5:18

1Tim 5:18 - And, The labourer is worthy of his reward - 1Cor 9:11, 12; 2Thess 3:9

1Tim 5:19

1Tim 5:19 - Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses - the pressures placed upon elders by the enemy is here noted by Paul. The elder is to be brought before the church upon the testimony of two or three witnesses and not haphazardly for the reproach it will bring upon the church.

1Tim 5:19

1Tim 5:19 - but before two or three witnesses - The Word of God is the standard by which all things are to be proven and specifies the rules/counsels/guidelines for conducting all matters. See Deut 17:6

1Tim 5:21

1Tim 5:21 - all the elders are to be treated to the same standard and treatment, without partiality.

1Tim 5:21

1Tim 5:21 - observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality - See Jam 2:1-9

1Tim 5:22

1Tim 5:22 - lay hands suddenly on no man - Like Tit, Paul is giving Timothy counsel to appoint elders but to observe the candidates, not laying on hands hastily but prove their faith and sincerity in the work. See 1Tim 2:8; 3:10, 4:14; 2Tim 1:6; 1Thess 5:21; Tit 1:5; James 3:1 The disciples were anxious that Judas should become one of their number. He was of commanding appearance, a man of keen discernment and executive ability, and they commended him to Jesus as one who would greatly assist Him in His work. They were surprised that Jesus received him so coolly. - {DA 294.1} The disciples had been much disappointed that Jesus had not tried to secure the co-operation of the leaders in Israel. They felt that it was a mistake not to strengthen His cause by securing the support of these influential men. If He had repulsed Judas, they would, in their own minds, have questioned the wisdom of their Master. The after history of Judas would show them the danger of allowing any worldly consideration to have weight in deciding the fitness of men for the work of God. The co-operation of such men as the disciples were anxious to secure would have betrayed the work into the hands of its worst enemies. - {DA 294.2}

1Tim 5:22

1Tim 5:22 - neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure - ordaining a person of questionable integrity means to partake of another's sin. We are to reprove the unprofitable works of unrighteousness, not to affirm them in those who are suspected of sin. In so doing, we become partakers of their sins, giving assent to them rather than correction. Additionally, showing partiality, not reproofing those who are known to have committed sin is to partake in their sin. See 1Tim 5:21 Who can measure the responsibilities of the influence of every human agent whom our Redeemer has purchased at the sacrifice of His own life? What a scene will be presented when the judgment shall sit and the books shall be opened to testify the salvation or the loss of all souls! It will require the unerring decision of One who has lived in humanity, loved humanity, given His life for humanity, to make the final appropriation of the rewards to the loyal righteous, and the punishment of the disobedient, the disloyal, and unrighteous. The Son of God is entrusted with the complete measurement of every individual's action and responsibility. To those who have been partakers of other men's sins and have acted against God's decision, it will be a most awfully solemn scene. - {1888 810.2}

1Tim 5:23

1Tim 5:23 - but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities - whether Paul was speaking of the use of unfermented wine (grape juice) or fermented wine, he speaks in terms of it being used for medicinal purposes.

1Tim 5:24

1Tim 5:24 - Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after - some men's sins are known and made public while others will come forth in the judgment. Lord keep me from presumptuous sins! See Ps 19:13

1Tim 5:24

1Tim 5:24 - some men they follow after - the sins of some will be revealed in the judgment in heaven; they are concealed from men's eyes but will be seen when the books are opened for the saints to behold and review. See Rev 20:4

1Tim 6:1

1Tim 6:1 - Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed - If one is servant to a hard and difficult master, keeping him "under the yoke" Paul advises that he act in meekness towards him, showing him honour even if he may not seem to deserve it. See Mt 11:28; Tit 2:9, 10

1Tim 6:2

1Tim 6:2 - And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit - we are not to become overly familiar with others of the faith, but to render to them the due regard, whether as a master/boss or as a servant. Phlm 1:16

1Tim 6:3

1Tim 6:3 - If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness - if anyone promote another "gospel" than that which has been stated in the prior two verses, that person is proud. See 1Tim 6:4; 2Tim 1:13; Gal 1:3-9; 1Cor 14:37

1Tim 6:4

1Tim 6:4 - He is proud, knowing nothing - See 1Tim 3:6

1Tim 6:4

1Tim 6:4 - but dotting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings. See Rom 14:1; 1Tim 1:4-7

1Tim 6:4

1Tim 6:4 - dotting - Regarding with excessive fondness

1Tim 6:4

1Tim 6:4 - evil surmisings - See 1Cor 13:5; Zech 8:17

1Tim 6:5

1Tim 6:5 - Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself - Seeing the failure of his efforts to crush out the truth by persecution, Satan had again resorted to the plan of compromise which led to the great apostasy and the formation of the Church of Rome. He had induced Christians to ally themselves, not now with pagans, but with those who, by their devotion to the things of this world, had proved themselves to be as truly idolaters as were the worshipers of graven images. And the results of this union were no less pernicious now than in former ages; pride and extravagance were fostered under the guise of religion, and the churches became corrupted. Satan continued to pervert the doctrines of the Bible, and traditions that were to ruin millions were taking deep root. The church was upholding and defending these traditions, instead of contending for "the faith which was once delivered unto the saints." Thus were degraded the principles for which the Reformers had done and suffered so much. - {GC 298.2}

1Tim 6:5

1Tim 6:5 - supposing that gain is godlines - a possible reference to the prosperity gospel in thought, pursuit and deed. Those who make riches a god are ever pursuing it and associate their prosperity with the blessings of God. They believe their "sacrifices" should be multiplied with blessings for themselves rather than the spirit of a true sacrifice that is consumed for the benefit of others. See Mt 19:25; Mk 10:26; Lk 18:26; Jam 2:1-9

1Tim 6:6

1Tim 6:6 - But godliness with contentment is great gain - to honor and uphold the righteousness of God and find contentment in yields peace for one's soul. See Ps 37:16; Prov 19:23; Phil 4:11, 12

1Tim 6:7

1Tim 6:7 - For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out

- See Job 1:21; Eccl 2:18, 19

1Tim 6:8

1Tim 6:8 - And having food and raiment let us be therewith content - we should be content with the clothing on our backs, the food that we eat and the roofs over our head. We must not strive for bigger and greater barns, but seek to be rich unto the poor and to God's Kingdom. See Mt 6:25-34; Eccl 2:24

1Tim 6:9

1Tim 6:9 - will be rich - those who desire to be rich - See Prov 1:19, 23:4-6; Mt 6:19-21

1Tim 6:9

1Tim 6:9 - and a snare - See Lk 21:25

1Tim 6:9

1Tim 6:9 - and into many foolish and hurtful lusts - See 1Jo 2:16

1Tim 6:10

1Tim 6:10 - For the love of money is the root of all evil - the love of money is the self-exalting, idolatrous love of self. Loving money, one covets all that money can supposedly bring, power, material things, fame, respect of men, etc. Money is used by the god of this world (2Cor 4:4) to empower men to seek a life without God. Men of this world believe that they are all powerful based on their wealth, and thus can be as god (Gen 3:5). Money and the love of it is thus the root of all evil. See Mt 19:26; Proverbs 1:19, 12:12, 28:20, 22

1Tim 6:10

1Tim 6:10 - which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows - See Ju 1:11; 2Pet 2:15; Prov 1:19

1Tim 6:15

1Tim 6:15 - who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords - Jesus alone has won our redemption. He alone was worthy to unseal the scroll/book in heaven. See Rev 5:4-10

1Tim 6:16

1Tim 6:16 - Who only hath immortality - the Godhead alone has inherent immortality. We will receive this as a gift with our glorified bodies. However, our immortal lives will be borrowed and derived from His. See 1Cor 15:50-54

1Tim 6:16 - dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto - See Ps 104:2; Heb 1:3; 1Jo 1:5; Jam 1:17

1Tim 6:16

1Tim 6:16 - whom no man hath seen, nor can see - no man has seen the Father at any time. See Joh 1:18, 5:37, 6:46; Heb 12:29||2Thess 2:8

1Tim 6:17

1Tim 6:17 - Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy - Wealth gives an illusion of power and invincibility such that it becomes a god to the possessor - See Mt 6:24; Jer 9:23; Jam 5:1-6

1Tim 6:17

1Tim 6:17 - nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy - See Lk 12:16-211

1Tim 6:18

1Tim 6:18 - That they do good, that they be rich in good works - See Act 2:44, 45; Isa 58:7;

1Tim 6:18

1Tim 6:18 - ready to distribute - See Act 2:43-47

1Tim 6:19

1Tim 6:19 - Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life - the wise build on the Foundation, Jesus Christ with gold and precious things that can withstand the testing fires - See Mt 6:19, 20, 33, 34; 1Cor 3:12

1Tim 6:20

1Tim 6:20 - avoiding profane and vain babblings - See 1Tim 1:6, 7

1Tim 6:20

1Tim 6:20 - oppositions of science falsely so called - See Col 2:8 1) Evolutionary theory 2) Old earth theory 3) Two Creations even in Paul's day, men sought to rationalize and justify the revealed and hidden things of God through vain philosophy and science. Paul used the Word "Gnosis" for "science", from which Gnosticism (Knowledge) is derived. The modern evolutionist, natural scientists that deny God's creative and sustaining powers are here described. See Col 2:8 The Creator, in definitely stating what should constitute food for man, did not mention flesh. If he had formed the human teeth to tear the flesh of animals, as some urge, and designed that we should subsist largely upon animal food, flesh would have been at least mentioned in Adam's bill of fare. {BHY 169.5} Human knowledge of both material and spiritual things is partial and imperfect; therefore many are unable to harmonize their views of science with Scripture statements. Many accept mere theories and speculations as scientific facts, and they think that God's word is to be tested by the teachings of "science falsely so called." 1Tim 6:20. The Creator and His works are beyond their comprehension; and because they cannot explain these by natural laws, Bible history is regarded as unreliable. Those who doubt the reliability of the records of the Old and New Testaments too often go a step further and doubt the existence of God and attribute infinite power to nature. Having let go their anchor, they are left to beat about upon the rocks of infidelity. - {GC 522.3} Misuse of Sciences Pertaining to the Mind—In these days when skepticism and infidelity so often appear in a scientific garb, we need to be guarded on every hand. Through this means our great adversary is deceiving thousands and leading them captive according to his will. The advantage he takes of the sciences, sciences which pertain to the human mind, is tremendous. Here, serpent-like, he imperceptibly creeps in to corrupt the work of God. - {1MCP 19.1} This entering in of Satan through the sciences is well devised. Through the channel of phrenology, psychology, and mesmerism, [Note: In this statement as published in the The Signs of the Times, November 6, 1884, Mrs. White drew heavily from, and somewhat clarified a statement published originally in, the The Review and Herald, February 18, 1862, now in Testimonies for the Church 1:290-302. - {1MCP 19.2} False science is one of the agencies that Satan used in the heavenly courts, and it is used by him today. The false assertions that he made to the angels, his subtle scientific theories, seduced many of them from their loyalty. - {CCh 322.1} Having lost his place in heaven, Satan presented his temptations to our first parents. Adam and Eve yielded to the enemy, and by their disobedience humanity was estranged from God, and the earth was separated from heaven. - {CCh 322.2} If Adam and Eve had never touched the forbidden tree, the Lord would have imparted to them knowledge, knowledge upon which rested no curse of sin, knowledge that would have brought them everlasting joy. All that they gained by their disobedience was an acquaintance with sin and its results. - {CCh 322.3} The field into which Satan led our first parents is the same to which he is leading men today. He is flooding the world with pleasing fables. By every device at his command he seeks to prevent men from obtaining that knowledge of God which is salvation. [578] - {CCh 322.4}

1Tim 6:21

1Tim 6:21 - Which some professing have erred concerning the faith - False science is one of the agencies that Satan used in the heavenly courts, and it is used by him today. The false assertions that he made to the angels, his subtle scientific theories, seduced many of them from their loyalty. - {CCh 322.1}

2 Timothy

2Tim 1:1

Back to Table of Contents

2Tim 1:1 - Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God - See Act 9:13-15

2Tim 1:1

2Tim 1:1 - according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus - See Ps 133:3; 1Joh 5:11-14

2Tim 1:2

2Tim 1:2 - To Timothy, my dearly beloved son - See 1Tim 1:2, 18

2Tim 1:3

2Tim 1:3 - Paul speaks of having served God with a pure conscience while still in the loins of his forefathers. He speaks as one who comes from a lineage of godly men, and one who like Levi, who paid tithes to Melchizedek while still in the loins of his forefather Abraham, Paul also worshipped God while in the loins of his forefathers. See Heb 7:9, 110

2Tim 1:3

2Tim 1:3 - that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day - See 1Thess 5:17

2Tim 1:4

2Tim 1:5 - being mindful of thy tears - See Ps 56:8; Mal 3:16

2Tim 1:5

2Tim 1:5 - unfeigned faith that is in thee - See Joh 1:47-51; Rev 14:5; 1Tim 1:5; 1Pet 1:22

2Tim 1:5

2Tim 1:5 - which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also - See 2Tim 3:15

2Tim 1:6

2Tim 1:6 - stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands - 1Tim 4:14, 5:22

2Tim 1:7

2Tim 1:7 - Demonic Influences: The Bible reveals that the enemy of souls utilizes spiritual influences upon the subconscious mind through suggestion and our senses. When actuated, these subconscious thoughts evoke emotions that if not arrested and brought into captivity, will cause us to sin (2Cor 10:3-5). God desires to take away the negative emotions tied to past feelings, experiences (pains, hurts, anger, inadequacy) so that we may not fear, but have His power, love and a sound mind in the midst of any situation.

2Tim 1:7

2Tim 1:7 - power - All power has been given to Jesus in heaven and on earth and He is with us to the end of the world. The gospel is the power of God unto salvation. See Mt 28:18-20; Rom 1:16; Ps 68:35; Joh 1:12; 2Tim 1:14

2Tim 1:7

2Tim 1:7 - love- the Spirit of Love is from above. See Jam 3:16

2Tim 1:7

2Tim 1:7 - sound mind - good judgment; right and healthful thoughts; right motives; right thinking; righteousness; unfeigned love and faith; the mind of Christ. See Phil 2:5-8

2Tim 1:8

2Tim 1:8 - Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord - See Rom 1:16

2Tim 1:8

2Tim 1:8 - be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel - Endure hardship as a Christian; live by the rules given by God, unlike the world that lives by its own rules. See 2Tim 2:3-7, 3:12, 1:12; Joh 16:33; Mk 13:9-13

2Tim 1:8

2Tim 1:8 - according to the power of God - the Holy Spirit is He Who gives us power to stand while partaking of the afflictions of the gospel. See Eph 6:13

2Tim 1:9

2Tim 1:9 - Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began - See Eph 2:8, 9; Rom 5:6-10; Rev 13:8

2Tim 1:9

2Tim 1:10 - and called us with an holy calling - See Rom 8:30, 9:24; Eph 1:4

2Tim 1:9

2Tim 1:9 - not according to our works - See Eph 2:9; Rom 3:27, 11:6; 1Cor 1:29-31; Jer 9:23, 24

2Tim 1:9

2Tim 1:9 - but according to his own purpose and grace - God's own free will, loving kindness, eternal purposes of good towards us has saved us all. See Jam 1:17; Eph 1:7, 9, 11, 19; Phil 4:19

2Tim 1:9

2Tim 1:9 - which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began - See Eph 1:4; Rev 13:8;

2Tim 1:10

2Tim 1:10 - But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ - See 1Pet 1:19, 20

2Tim 1:10

2Tim 1:10 - Who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel - See Joh 11:25, 26; Heb 2:14, 15; 1Cor 15:54, 55

2Tim 1:10

2Tim 1:10 - and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel: - See Joh 11:25; 1Jo 5:11-13; 1Cor 15:49-54; 2Pet 1:4

2Tim 1:10

2Tim 1:10 - and immortality to light through the gospel - See 1Cor 15:51-54

2Tim 1:11

2Tim 1:11 - Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles - See 1Tim 2:7; Rom 11:13; Gal 2:2, 8

2Tim 1:12

2Tim 1:12 - I am not ashamed: for I know Whom I have believed - Rom 1:16; Job 19:25; 2Tim 1:8

2Tim 1:12

2Tim 1:12 - and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day - See Ju 1:24; Mt 6:20, 21; 1Pet 1:5, 4:19; Philippians 1:6; Ps 138:8; Heb 3:14

2Tim 1:12

2Tim 1:12 - against that day - the day of the Lord; Jesus' Second Coming. See 2Tim 1:18

2Tim 1:13

2Tim 1:13 - Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus - Compare 2Tim 4:2-5; 1Tim 6:3, 4; 1Cor 11:1

2Tim 1:14

2Tim 1:14 - That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us - the sound doctrine given to us by the Holy Spirit, we are to keep and hold firm to. See Joh 16:13, 8-10

2Tim 1:16

2Tim 1:16, 17 - The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; for he oft refreshed me - See Act 28:30, 31. Compare 2Tim 4:14

2Tim 1:16

2Tim 1:16 - and was not ashamed of my chain - Onesiphorus was not ashamed to call Paul, though imprisoned and bound by fetters, his spiritual father. He sought Paul out while a prisoner in Rome and sought to comfort him despite his shameful imprisonment.

2Tim 1:18

2Tim 1:18 - that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day - in the day of Judgment, when all men must stand before the judgment bar of Christ and give an answer for the things done in the flesh, Paul wishes that Onesiphorus be found faithful.

2Tim 1:18

2Tim 1:18 - in that day - the day of the Lord; Jesus' Second Coming. See 2Tim 1:12

2Tim 2:2

2Tim 2:2 - the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also - See Mt 5:19, 9:37, 38; Isa 32:20; 2Tim 2:14; Tit 1:5

2Tim 2:3

2Tim 2:3 - Thou therefore endure hardness - Paul counsels Timothy and the church to "endure". The word speaks of trial, temptation, hardship and suffering. He encourages us to endure, even as he himself has endured the same for the elect's sake. See 2Tim 2:10; 1:8

2Tim 2:4

2Tim 2:4 - No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier - Paul's comments have application on different levels. Primarily, Paul speaks of being in the world but not of the world so that we are not tainted by the world and its allurements (2Pet 1:4; 1Jo 2:16)). We are also to be a peculiar people, where we are to remain separate from the world, not being numbered with the world and its norms (Num 23:9). See Col 3:2; Phlm 2

2Tim 2:5

2Tim 2:5 - And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully - We must run the Christian race in a lawful, godly manner. We must do justly, love mercy and walk humbly with God in order to win the prize. See Mic 6:8

2Tim 2:5

2Tim 2:6 - except he strive lawfully - we are to be God fearing and keepers of the Law of God, not transgressors.

2Tim 2:6

2Tim 2:6 - The husbandman that laboreth must be first partaker of the fruits - those who labor in the gospel work must first themselves partake of the "fruit of the spirit". They must eat so that they be found true witnesses in teaching others to eat of the fruit of righteousness. See Gal 5:22, 23; 1Cor 9:27; Contrast Mt 23:4

2Tim 2:7

2Tim 2:7 - Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things - See Act 17:11, 12

2Tim 2:8

2Tim 2:8 - Remember that Jesus CHrist of the seed of David was raised fro the dead according to my gospel: Paul to the Corinthians (1Cor 3:11) asserts that there is no other gospel/foundation message but the message of Jesus Christ, the Messiah, crucified and raised from the dead. He affirms to Timothy that such is the message he preaches and so he too, should teach others. 2Tim 2:2; Tit 1:5

2Tim 2:9

2Tim 2:9 - Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds - Paul was often accused of sedition and provoking the peace by both religious and secular figures in his day. In all these trials of affliction emotionally and in the flesh- even unto bonds, he maintained a Christ-like disposition so that the gospel message would not be profaned. See Act 28:30, 31; 2Tim 1:

2Tim 2:9

2Tim 2:9 - but the word of God is not bound - though Paul may be constrained and bound in prison, God's Word was freely going forth, finding lodging in the hearts of all those who hungered and thirsted for righteousness.

2Tim 2:10

2Tim 2:10 - Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes - See 2Tim 2:3

2Tim 2:11

2Tim 2:11 - For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him: - See Rom 6:8; Gal 2:20; Mt 16:25; Col 3:3-5; 2Cor 13:4

2Tim 2:12

2Tim 2:12 - If we suffer, we shall also reign with him - See Rom 8:18; Mt 16:24, 25; Rev 20:4-6

2Tim 2:12

2Tim 2:12- if we deny him, he also will deny us - See Mt 10:33; Rev 3:5

2Tim 2:13

2Tim 2:13 - If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself - See Rom 3:3, 4

2Tim 2:13

2Tim 2:13 - yet He abideth faithful: he cannot deny Himself - See Rev 3:14, 19:11; 1Thess

5:24; 1Cor 1:9

2Tim 2:13

2Tim 2:13 - he cannot deny himself - God will not contradict Himself. See Mk 10:18; Jam 1:17; Heb 13:8; Num 23:19; 1Sam 15:29

2Tim 2:14

2Tim 2:14 - Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers - of the things conveyed to Timothy, Paul admonishes that he teach those appointed to be elders the same things (2Tim 2:2). He also counsels that they avoid vain disputes that bring no profit but undermine those who do hear.

2Tim 2:14

2Tim 2:14 - but to the subverting of the hearers - See 2Tim 2:16-18

2Tim 2:15

2Tim 2:15 - study to shew thyself approved unto God - God gives the command to "study" through the apostle Paul (See Joh 5:39). God expects us to know, understand and interpret for ourselves the Words of life, especially that which would lead us to Christ for our salvation (Lk 10:25, 26; Joh 5:39). We are admonished to know "what is the breadth, and length, and depth and height" of God's work in our salvation (Eph 3:17-19) by using God's prescribed method of study, line-upon-line, precept-upon-precept, here a little and there a little (Isa 28:10). See Col 3:16; {TDG 93.2, 3} As our physical life is sustained by food, so our spiritual life is sustained by the word of God. And every soul is to receive life from God's word for himself. As we must eat for ourselves in order to receive nourishment, so we must receive the word for ourselves. We are not to obtain it merely through the medium of another's mind. We should carefully study the Bible, asking God for the aid of the Holy Spirit, that we may understand His word. We should take one verse, and concentrate the mind on the task of ascertaining the thought which God has put in that verse for us. We should dwell upon the thought until it becomes our own, and we know "what saith the Lord". {DA 390.4} Many are deceived today in the same way as were the Jews. Religious teachers read the Bible in the light of their own understanding and traditions; and the people do not search the Scriptures for themselves, and judge for themselves as to what is truth; but they yield up their judgment, and commit their souls to their leaders. The preaching and teaching of His word is one of the means that God has ordained for diffusing light; but we must bring every man's teaching to the test of Scripture. Whoever will prayerfully study the Bible, desiring to know the truth, that he may obey it, will receive divine enlightenment. He will understand the Scriptures. "If any man willeth to do His will, he shall know of the teaching." Joh 7:17, R. V. - {DA 459.1} - DA 459.1 I have been shown many who will claim to be especially taught of God, and will attempt to lead others, and from mistaken ideas of duty they will undertake a work that God has never laid upon them. Confusion will be the result. Let everyone seek God most earnestly for himself that he may individually understand His will.—Selected Messages 2:72 (1893). - {LDE 20.4}

2Tim 2:15

2Tim 2:15 - shew thyself approved unto God - the approval we seek is from the Lord, that He might see us as fit and qualified workmen (laborers) to be sent into His fields to gather in His harvest. See Mt 9:36-38; 2Tim 2:21; 2Cor 5:9; Lk 10:26

2Tim 2:15

2Tim 2:15 - approved unto God - we are approved by God as we allow God to renew our minds and we prove, test, taste for ourselves, His good and acceptable will for us spoken through His written Word and the Living Word that abides in us. See Rom 12:1, 2; 2Pet 3:18

2Tim 2:15

2Tim 2:15 - a workman - a laborer See Mt 9:35-38

2Tim 2:15

2Tim 2:15 - needeth not to be ashamed - the man who built upon the sand watched his home stumble to his despair, embarrassment and peril. Our works must not suffer because of lack of knowledge or ignorance in God's Word. We are not to wrest Scriptures nor malign them through our lack of study and preparation. See 1Jo 2:28

2Tim 2:15

2Tim 2:15 - rightly dividing the word of truth - In order to accurately discern and understand God's Words of truth, it is essential that we be led in humility by the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Truth (Joh 16:13; Rom 8:14; 1Cor 2:14). We must then employ God's method of study, Proof Texting, to affirm and prove all things by the Living Word (Isa 28:9, 10, 13; 1Thess 5:21; Isa 8:20). See Ezra 7:10; Mt 13:52; 2Pet 3:14-16; 2Tim 2:25, 26; Tit 2:7 Rightly dividing may also speak to having discernment to speak or not to speak a word in season

2Tim 2:15

2Tim 2:15 - the word of truth - See Joh 17:17 We should exert all the powers of the mind in the study of the Scriptures and should task the understanding to comprehend, as far as mortals can, the deep things of God; yet we must not forget that the docility and submission of a child is the true spirit of the learner. Scriptural difficulties can never be mastered by the same methods that are employed in grappling with philosophical problems. We should not engage in the study of the Bible with that self-reliance with which so many enter the domains of science, but with a prayerful dependence upon God and a sincere desire to learn His will. We must come with a humble and teachable spirit to obtain knowledge from the great I AM. Otherwise, evil angels will so blind our minds and harden our hearts that we shall not be impressed by the truth. - {GC 599.1}

2Tim 2:16

2Tim 2:16 - shun profane and vain babblings - See 2Tim 2:23

2Tim 2:17

2Tim 2:17 - canker - A virulent, corroding ulcer; or any thing that corrodes, corrupts or destroys.

2Tim 2:18

2Tim 2:18 - saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some - See 2Thess 2:1-3

2Tim 2:18

2Tim 2:18 - and overthrow the faith of some - See 2Tim 2:14

2Tim 2:19

2Tim 2:19 - Nevertheless, the foundation of God standeth sure - Jesus and the teachings through His apostles stand as the foundation of God's church. See 1Pet 2:6 Despite the warnings of evil against God, the foundation of God stands sure and secure. Reve 12:7

2Tim 2:19

2Tim 2:19 - having this seal - See Rev 7:1-4; Isa 8:16||Rev 12:17

2Tim 2:19

2Tim 2:19 - The Lord knoweth them that are His - Those that belong to the LORD have His testimonies (prophecies) bound up and are sealed (4th commandment) by His commandments. See Joh 10:14, 15; Isa 8:16

2Tim 2:19

2Tim 2:19 - Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity - See Ex 20:7; Col 3:1-5

2Tim 2:20

2Tim 2:20 - But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth - Jesus is speaking of two classes of people, those who are honorable and those who are dishonorable, the good and the bad, the wheat and the tares - See Mt 13:29, 30; Gen 25:23

2Tim 2:20

2Tim 2:20 - honour, and some to dishonour - See Rom 9:21 Satan's special temptations are directed against the ministry. He knows that ministers are but human, possessing no grace or holiness of their own; that the treasures of the gospel have been placed in earthen vessels, which divine power alone can make vessels unto honor.

2Tim 2:21

2Tim 2:21- purge himself as a son of Levi (Mal 3:3) from these - "departing from iniquity" v19; "shunning profane babbling" v16; "striving about words to no profit" v14; "foolish and unlearned questions" v23; "youthful lusts" v22 - See Col 3:5, 8, 9; 1Jo 3:3; 1Cor 3:17; Heb 9:14 Satan's special temptations are directed against the ministry. He knows that ministers are but human, possessing no grace or holiness of their own; that the treasures of the gospel have been placed in earthen vessels, which divine power alone can make vessels unto honor.

2Tim 2:21

2Tim 2:21 - meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work. - See 2Tim 2:4, 15, 3:17; Mt 9:38 Great truths must be brought into little things. Practical religion is to be carried into the lowly duties of daily life. The greatest qualification for any man is to obey implicitly the word of the Lord. - {COL 359.1}

2Tim 2:22

2Tim 2:22 - Flee also youthful lusts - See Ps 119:9, 37; 1Jo 2:16; Eccl 11:9, 10; Jer 31:18, 19

2Tim 2:22

2Tim 2:22 - with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart - See 2Cor 4:2; 1Tim 1:5; Act 15:8, 9

2Tim 2:23

2Tim 2:23 - But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes - See Tit 3:9 Upon every family, upon every individual Christian, is laid the duty of barring the way against corrupt speech. When in the company of those who indulge in foolish talk, it is our duty to change the subject of conversation if possible. By the help of the grace of God we should quietly drop words or introduce a subject that will turn the conversation into a profitable channel. - {COL 337.3}

2Tim 2:23

2Tim 2:23 - unlearned questions - unlearned questions offered by unlearned men (2Pet 3:16) are posed that: 1. are merely the voice of controversy 2. are caviling, cynical

2Tim 2:24

2Tim 2:24 - the servant of the Lord must not strive - See Phil 4:5

2Tim 2:25

2Tim 2:25 - In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves - humbly and meekly directing those who sin against their own souls through pride or ignorance. Some may not genuinely desire to do God's will (Joh 7:17), and even they must be dealt with with patience and meekness. Others cavil (Rom 14:1; 2Tim 3:7) or wrest Scriptures to their own destruction (2Pet 3:16, 17). See Mt 18:15; 3:7-10; Tit 1:9, 3:10, 11

2Tim 2:25

2Tim 2:25 - if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth - See 2Sam 12:13; 2Cor 7:10, 11; Jam 5:20; 2Thess 2:10

2Tim 2:25

2Tim 2:25 - the acknowledging of the truth - Those who deny the truth are bringing condemnation upon themselves because they are choosing bondage over sin. See Rev 12:7-9; John 8:31, 32; Rom 1:28-32

2Tim 2:26

2Tim 2:26 - And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil - See Ps 91; Rom 6:16; 2Cor 4:3, 4; Rev 12:9 Satan a Student of the Mind—For thousands of years Satan has been experimenting upon the properties of the human mind, and he has learned to know it well. By his subtle workings in these last days he is linking the human mind with his own, imbuing it with his thoughts; and he is doing this work in so deceptive a manner that those who accept his guidance know not that they are being led by him at his will. The great deceiver hopes so to confuse the minds of men and women that none but his voice will be heard.— Letter 244, 1907 - {1MCP 18.1}

2Tim 3:1

2Tim 3:1-7 - This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come - See Mic 7:5, 6;
1Cor 6:9

2Tim 3:2

2Tim 3:2 - For men shall be lovers of their own selves - See Rom 1:28-32. Self love is seen in the vain habits so popular today (selfies, lewd dress, self promotion, etc.)

2Tim 3:2

2Tim 3:2 - covetous - covetousness is idolatry. See Col 3:5

2Tim 3:2

2Tim 3:2 - proud - Prov 13:10

2Tim 3:2

2Tim 3:2 - disobedient to parents - not showing due regard to parents; dishonoring parents; neglecting parents in their time of need. This is a possible commentary on the way children will be reared in the last days, where there will be a lack of discipline (contrast - Heb 12:9), much coddling and empowering of bad behavior, leading to future reproach. See Isa 3:4, 12; Mark 7:9-13; 1Sam 3:11-18; Prov 13:24, 23:13, 14, 29:15; Mt 10:21

2Tim 3:3

2Tim 3:3 - Without natural affection - lacking the sympathies, affections, love that is common among family, friends, brethren. - See Mt 10:21

2Tim 3:3

2Tim 3:3 - trucebreakers - not holding to one's word, agreement, covenant, promise, or vow for peace. War-like and belligerent.

2Tim 3:3

2Tim 3:3 - false accusers - slanderers, perjurers. See Tit 2:3; Mt 10:21

2Tim 3:3

2Tim 3:3 - incontinent - unchaste; lewd

2Tim 3:3

2Tim 3:3 - despisers of those that are good - such was the experience of Christ, His disciples and all who will live godly, they will be held in contempt by the workers of iniquity.

2Tim 3:4

2Tim 3:4 - heady - headstrong or impetuous, hasty, acting impulsively without thought.

2Tim 3:4

2Tim 3:4 - highminded - pretentious; having high moral standards outwardly; haughty, proud and arrogant

2Tim 3:4

2Tim 3:4 - lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God - loving the world and the things of this world (entertainment, possessions, status, wealth, persons) more than God.

2Tim 3:5

2Tim 3:5 - Having a form of godliness - See Rom 10:1-3, 2:20; 2Cor 3:6 FORMALISM - Cain was the first to exhibit formalism in his adherence to the ritual of sacrifice, without the obedience motivated by love and appreciation that should have preceded the works. The Jews, in establishing the Old Covenant (Ex 20:8) demonstrated the same spirit of pagan, self-exaltation in thinking they could keep God's covenant in their own strength. Following the Babylonian captivity, the Jews perfected formalism in establishing corollaries to every commandment so that they would supposedly never again violate God's Law and fall into captivity. The formalism demonstrated in the time of Christ made for a dead, oppressive religion, devoid of faith and based on rituals and rites (compare Rev 6:8): 1. "wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders... and many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brasen vessels, and of tables... Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye" Mark 7:3, 4, 13 2. "ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer:" Mt 23:14 3. "compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves." Mt 23:15 4. "pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone." Mt 23:23 5. "strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel." Mt 23:24 6. "make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess." Mt 23:25 7. "ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness." Mt 23:27 8. "ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity." Mt 23:28 All of these things are done in the name God and of religious service and observances, but are devoid of the life-transforming, love, joy, and power of God, the gospel of Jesus Christ (Rom 1:16, 17). Cain and Abel represent two classes that will exist in the world till the close of time. One class avail themselves of the appointed sacrifice for sin; the other venture to depend upon their own merits; theirs is a sacrifice without the virtue of divine mediation, and thus it is not able to bring man into favor with God. It is only through the merits of Jesus that our transgressions can be pardoned. Those who feel no need of the blood of Christ, who feel that without divine grace they can by their own works secure the approval of God, are making the same mistake as did Cain. If they do not accept the cleansing blood, they are under condemnation. There is no other provision made whereby they can be released from the thralldom of sin. - {PP 72.5} - PP 72.5 Those who profess to be followers of Christ, should be living agencies, co-operating with heavenly intelligences; but by union with the world, the character of God's people becomes tarnished, and through amalgamation with the corrupt, the fine gold becomes dim. When worldly agencies are introduced into the church, it is evident that Satan is carrying out his devices, working through those who profess to be followers of Christ, making them ready at any time to engage with him in disheartening and discouraging those who are faithful, who would stand wholly on the Lord's side. - {RH August 23, 1892 Par. 3}

2Tim 3:5

2Tim 3:3 - denying the power thereof - they deny God's power, Jesus Christ, Who alone can give victory over sin through their rejection of light regarding Christ's righteousness, available to all men (Jer 23:5, 6), and through persistent cherishing and practicing of sin. See Joh 1:12; 2Pet 1:1-4

2Tim 3:5

2Tim 3:5 - form such turn away - The LORD counsels us to depart company from those who openly display such behavior as He Himself will turn away from them, spewing them out of His mouth. See 2Thess 3:6; Rev 3:16

2Tim 3:6

2Tim 3:6 - For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts - See 2Pet 2:12-22

2Tim 3:6

2Tim 3:6 - silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts - See Col 3:5; Eze 23:11

2Tim 3:7

2Tim 3:7 - Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth - Our challenge is not in needing to know new things but rather applying ourselves to those things which we already know (Joh 8:54, 55). We often overlook the things that we know in pursuit of some new truth, but we will be held accountable for that which we already know (and do not perform). Knowledge brings accountability - we must now live up to the light imparted to us. Yet, ignorance is deadly! - See Gal 2:20; Rom 10:1-4

2Tim 3:7

2Tim 3:7 - Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth - Our challenge is not in needing to know new things but rather applying ourselves to those things which we already know (Joh 8:54, 55). We often overlook the things that we know in pursuit of some new truth, but we will be held accountable for that which we already know (and do not perform). Knowledge brings accountability - we must now live up to the light imparted to us. Yet, ignorance is deadly! See Gal 2:21; Rom 10:1-4; Ezekiel 33:30-33

2Tim 3:7

2Tim 3:7 - knowledge of the truth - epígnōsis Noun Feminine ep-ig'-no-sis from (1921) from ; recognition, i.e. (by implication) full discernment, acknowledgement:--(ac-)knowledge(-ing, -ment). precise and correct knowledge used in the NT of the knowledge of things ethical and divine to perceive or fully discern

2Tim 3:8

2Tim 3:8 - Jannes and Jambres - "According to Jasher, were the two sons of Balaam. He was present when they withstood Moses. They exercised the same power of enchantment that their father, Balaam, had exercised. The deceived Pharaoh and the Egyptians, by means of those miracles which they had power to do.... This is an example of the two-horned beast [Rev 13:11-18]

2Tim 3:9

2Tim 3:9 - for their folly shall be manifest unto all men - the foolishness of the infidel and perverters of truth will be made known before all. See Ps 14:1; Jer 28:10-17; Mt 23:35, 36

2Tim 3:10

2Tim 3:10 - But thou hast fully known my doctrine - See Joh 7:17; 1Cor 4:14-16; Phil 4:9;
2Tim 3:10; Act 20:17-21

2Tim 3:11

2Tim 3:11 - but out of them all the Lord delivered me - See Ps 54:7, 34:4

2Tim 3:12

2Tim 3:12 - Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution - Once God's people have been sealed, then a Time of Trouble will arise to try the faith of all. See Joh 16:33; Mt 5:10-12, 10:21, 22; Dan 12:1

2Tim 3:13

2Tim 3:13 - evil men and seducers - See Rev 22:14, 15 All who will exalt and worship the idol Sabbath, a day that God has not blessed, help the devil and his angels with all the power of their God-given ability, which they have perverted to a wrong use. Inspired by another spirit which blinds their discernment, they cannot see that the exaltation of Sunday observance is entirely the institution of the Catholic church.... - {8MR 344.2}

2Tim 3:13

2Tim 3:13 - seducers - góēs Noun Masculine go'-ace from goao (to wail) from goao (to wail); properly, a wizard (as muttering spells), i.e. (by implication) an imposter:-seducer. a wailer, a howler a juggler, enchanter (because incantations used to be uttered in a kind of howl) a deceiver, imposter See Isa 8:19; 2Tim 3:6, 7; Ps 91:3

2Tim 3:13

2Tim 3:13 - shall wax worse and worse deceiving and being deceived - See 2Tim 3:1-5;

2Tim 3:13

2Tim 3:13 - being deceived - See 2Tim 2:26

2Tim 3:14

2Tim 3:14 - But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of - See Joh 8:31, 32; Isa 32:17; Heb 10:35-39

2Tim 3:14

2Tim 3:14 - knowing of whom thou hast learned them - See 1Cor 4:14-16; Phil 4:9; 2Tim 3:10

2Tim 3:15

2Tim 3:15 - that from a child - See Isa 28:9-11; Isa 7:15; 2Tim 1:5 Timothy's father was a Greek and his mother a Jewess. From a child he had known the Scriptures. The piety that he saw in his home life was sound and sensible. The faith of his mother and his grandmother in the sacred oracles was to him a constant reminder of the blessing in doing God's will. The word of God was the rule by which these two godly women had guided Timothy. The spiritual power of the lessons that he had received from them kept him pure in speech and unsullied by the evil influences with which he was surrounded. Thus his home instructors had co-operated with God in preparing him to bear burdens. - {AA 203.2} You and I would give a great deal to be able to act as wisely as Jesus did. Every time he knew the right thing to say, and the right thing to do, and when not to say anything. Was there a person in the world who was as keen of intellect, who knew just how to meet every emergency as did Jesus. You know he was wiser than Solomon. How did he get that wisdom?... How did it come to him? (A voice) [someone in the congregation:] "It was intuition." Then he was not like us at all. We read that "it behooved him to be made in all things like unto his brethren": that is, in every particular. We do not want to put the Lord off away from us, but he is one of us.... How did he come by his wisdom?... He studied God's Word.... He was wholly given to the Lord, knowing that there is no other use for man in this world but to serve the Lord. {Grace on Trial, pg 189, R. Wieland}

2Tim 3:15 - the holy scriptures - the Scriptures are holy, just as God is holy. Holiness is constant agreement with God. Shall we not strive to be that which Christ so greatly desires us to be—Christians in deed and in truth—that the world may see in our lives a revelation of the saving power of truth? This world is our preparatory school. While here we shall meet with trials and difficulties. Continually the enemy of God will seek to draw us away from our allegiance. But while we cleave to Him who gave Himself for us we are safe. - {In Heavenly Places 33.4}

2Tim 3:15

2Tim 3:15 - the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus - Paul is encouraging Timothy to continue to pursue his study in the Science of Salvation through faith in Jesus Christ - Prov 4:5-9; Joh 5:39, 46, 47; Jam 1:21, 3:17; 1Peter 1:9, 12; Lk 10:26

2Tim 3:16

2Tim 3:16, 7 - All Scripture - Proof Texting is the God centered method of Bible exposition, interpretation, and translation that is wholly reliant upon the Holy Spirit's revelation of the truths of God (Joh 16:13). The method requires that the Bible be its own interpreter and therefore affirms all doctrine and teachings upon the testimony of two or more witnesses (Deut 19:15; Joh 8:17; 2Cor 13:1. The method requires the user to rely upon the following Bible Principles: Complete faith in God and His Word: 2Pet 1:20, 21 2Tim 3:16, 17 Ps 33:11 Isa 8:20 Faith and reliance upon the Holy Spirit to bring revelation: Joh 16:13 Heb 11:6 1Cor 2:13-16 Deut 29:29 The superiority of the wisdom of God over all others: 1Cor 1:18-25 Col 2:6-9 Isa 29:13, 14 The Bible points to God as its author; yet it was written by human hands; and in the varied style of its different books it presents the characteristics of the several writers. The truths revealed are all "given by inspiration of God" (2 Timothy 3:16); yet they are expressed in the words of men. The Infinite One by His Holy Spirit has shed light into the minds and hearts of His servants. He has given dreams and visions, symbols and figures; and those to whom the truth was thus revealed have themselves embodied the thought in human language. - {GC v.3} The Bible presents beautiful truths that all may understand, and at the same time it deals in deep mysteries and doctrines which will require deep thought to understand. But nothing is to be misinterpreted, misapplied, or weakened as lightly inspired if inspired at all. God does nothing by halves. His Word is inspired. And God designs that men shall take the Scriptures as His inspired Word, and any man that shall venture to distinguish between the portions of God's Word, exalting one and belittling another, and taking away from another, places himself in a dangerous position. - {1888 259.2} THE SCIENCE OF SALVATION The teaching of the Bible has a vital bearing upon man's prosperity in all the relations of this life. It unfolds the principles that are the cornerstone of a nation's prosperity—principles with which is bound up the well being of society, and which are the safeguard of the family—principles without which no man can attain usefulness, happiness, and honor in this life, or can hope to secure the future, immortal life. There is no position in life, no phase of human experience, for which the teaching of the Bible is not an essential preparation. Studied and obeyed, the Word of God would give to the world men of stronger and more active intellect than will the closest application to all the subjects that human philosophy embraces. It would give men of strength and solidity of character, of keen perception and sound judgment—men who would be an honor to God and a blessing to the world. - {RC 115.3} In the study of the sciences also we are to obtain a knowledge of the Creator. All true science is but an interpretation of the handwriting of God in the material world. Science brings from her research only fresh evidences of the wisdom and power of God. Rightly understood, both the book of nature and the Written Word make us acquainted with God by teaching us something of the wise and beneficent laws through which He works.... - {RC 115.4}

2Tim 3:16, 17 - All Scripture - Proof Texting is the God centered method of Bible exposition, interpretation, and translation that is wholly reliant upon the Holy Spirit's revelation of the truths of God (Joh 16:13). The method requires that the Bible be its own interpreter and therefore affirms all doctrine and teachings upon the testimony of two or more witnesses (Deut 19:15; Joh 8:17; 2Cor 13:1. The method requires the user to rely upon the following Bible Principles: Complete faith in God and His Word: 2Pet 1:20, 21 2Tim 3:16, 17 Ps 33:11 Isa 8:20 Faith and reliance upon the Holy Spirit to bring revelation: Joh 16:13 Heb 11:6 1Cor 2:13-16 Deut 29:29 The superiority of the wisdom of God over all others: 1Cor 1:18-25 Col 2:6-9 Isa 29:13, 14 The Bible presents beautiful truths that all may understand, and at the same time it deals in deep mysteries and doctrines which will require deep thought to understand. 2Tim 3:16

2Tim 3:15 - given by inspiration of God - This statement gives the following assurances: 1. Scripture are authoritative - they define what is right and wrong - Isa 8:20 2. Scripture are consistent and will not contradict themselves - 2Tim 2:13; Ps 12:6, 7 The Bible is written by inspired men, but it is not God's mode of thought and expression. It is that of humanity. God, as a writer, is not represented. Men will often say such an expression is not like God. But God has not put Himself in words, in logic, in rhetoric, on trial in the Bible. The writers of the Bible were God's penmen, not His pen. Look at the different writers. - {YRP 225.4} It is not the words of the Bible that are inspired, but the men that were inspired. Inspiration acts not on the man's words or his expressions but on the man himself, who, under the influence of the Holy Ghost, is imbued with thoughts. But the words receive the impress of the individual mind. The divine mind is diffused. The divine mind and will is combined with the human mind and will; thus the utterances of the man are the Word of God.—Selected Messages 1:20, 21. - {YRP 225.5}

2Tim 3:16 - and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness - God Word brings a great return on the time invested in reading it. Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word of God (Rom 10:17). Faith overcomes the world (1Jo 5:4). Faith pleases God and opens the channel of blessings that God desires to reward us with (Heb 11:6). · Doctrine - teachings and beliefs. Correct doctrine is essential for proper understanding, perspectives, faith, conduct, and is lastly an expression of Jesus (John 5:39) · Reproof - chastening and objection. The counsels of the Bible are to bring conviction to the wayward so that they may ask forgiveness and repent, turning from evil · Correction - direction and guidance. Once reproofed, the Bible directs the repentant to the right way to walk · Instruction in Righteousness - godliness, holiness, uprightness. The Bible gives direction for pleasing God and living uprightly in His sight (See Act 20:32)

2Tim 3:16

2Tim 3:16 - reproof - to convict, enlighten, reveal, to scold, to point out wrong behavior or thought,

2Tim 3:16

2Tim 3:16 - correction - the right way to go - Ps 25:4, 119:26

2Tim 3:16

2Tim 3:16 - instruction in righteousness - The purpose of the Bible is to provide all the instructions we need to perfectly live a life that glorifies God - See Mt 5:14-16; 2Cor 1:19, 20 He who reads the writings of Moses, and the entire Old Testament, with any other expectation than to find Christ, and the way of life through Him, will utterly fail of understanding them. His reading will be in vain." {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 49}

2Tim 3:16

2Tim 3:16 - righteousness - to straighten that which is crooked; holiness, uprightness; godliness, god-likeness.

2Tim 3:17

2Tim 3:17 - That the man of God may be perfect - Perfection means to meet God's standard of uprightness/completeness in Jesus Christ; to live up to the light that has been given for righteousness. There is no perfection outside of Jesus Christ - See Col 2:9, 10, 1:28, 3:14; 2Cor 12:9; Eph 4:13; Heb 12:23; 2Tim 2:21, 15; Mt 5:44-48; Rom 5:5, 10:4 The Bible was not written for the scholar alone; on the contrary, it was designed for the common people. The great truths necessary for our salvation are made as clear as noonday, and none will mistake and lose their way except those who follow their own judgment instead of the plainly revealed will of God. - {LHU 130.6}

2Tim 3:17

2Tim 3:17 - thoroughly furnished unto all good works - See Joh 6:28, 29, 15:4-8; 2Pet 1:3 to be equipped for every good work, the first and most important of which is to "believe" in Him Whom God has sent. This will equip us to meet every challenge in Christ Jesus: We are to: 1. Believe in Jesus and seek to abide in Him - John 6:28, 29 2. Continue in His words by faith, studying to shew ourselves approved - rightly dividing the word of truth - John 8:33, 34; Lk 11:9-13; 2Tim 2:15 3. Pray without ceasing - to meet the wiles of the devil and that we not enter into temptation - 1Thess 5:17; Lk 22:40||Mt 26:41 4. Fast and Pray - deny ourselves, learning self-denial so we may gain the victory over the devil and the world - Mt 16:24||Mk 8:34||Lk 9:23

2Tim 4:1

2Tim 4:1 - judge the quick and the dead at His appearing and His kingdom - See 1Pet 4:5; Act 10:42; Rom 14:9, 12 the apostle identifies two of three phases of judgment that take place, one at Jesus' appearing and secondly, at His kingdom. According to the prophet Mal 3:2, 3, Jesus would appear suddenly in the Most Holy Place of the heavenly sanctuary on October 22, 1844, when He would begin the judgment of those who claim to be alive in Christ, or Christians (Rom 6:11-13). Then, following His Second Coming and the gathering in of His kingdom, Jesus will judge the wicked, or those who are dead in their trespasses and sins (Eph 2:1; Col 2:13) during the Millennium (Rev 20:4, 5). Once the wicked are judged and the penalty has been executed, then shall all things be placed under Jesus' feet. See 1Cor 15:22-28;

2Tim 4:1

2Tim 4:1 - at his appearing and his kingdom - Jesus appeared suddenly (unexpectedly) in the Most Holy Place where He is receiving His kingdom, before His Second Coming. See Mal 3:1, 2; Dan 7:13, 14; Rev 20:3, 4

2Tim 4:2

2Tim 4:2 - Preach the word - See Rom 10:14; Lk 7:7

2Tim 4:2

2Tim 4:2 - be instant in season, out of season - See 1Pet 3:15

2Tim 4:2

2Tim 4:2 - reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine - the work of the watchman is here stated. The watchman is given a flinty forehead so that he himself is not offended when he is reprovved for speaking the word of God. See Ezek 3:8, 9; Habakkuk 2:1

2Tim 4:2

2Tim 4:2 - exhort with all longsuffering - we are to be patient and longsuffering to wards others, so that they may repent and receive the gospel of Jesus Christ.

2Tim 4:3

2Tim 4:3 - For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine - those who will not "endure sound doctrine", see it as contemptible, passe, overly restrictive or not relevant. See Jer 44:15-17; 42:11-43:4; 2Tim 3:1-5 By the pride of human wisdom, by contempt for the influence of the Holy Spirit, and by disrelish for the truths of God's word, many who profess to be Christians, and who feel competent to teach others, will be led to turn away from the requirements of God. Paul declared to Timothy, "The time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables." - {AA 504.2} The apostle does not here refer to the openly irreligious, but to the professing Christians who make inclination their guide, and thus become enslaved by self. Such are willing to listen to those doctrines only that do not rebuke their sins or condemn their pleasure-loving course. They are offended by the plain words of the faithful servants of Christ and choose teachers who praise and flatter them. And among professing ministers there are those who preach the opinions of men instead of the word of God. Unfaithful to their trust, they lead astray those who look to them for spiritual guidance. - {AA 504.3}

2Tim 4:3

2Tim 4:3 - endure sound doctrine - established, unrefutable, uncontestable, set-in-stone (10 Commandments) holy and true doctrine will be questioned, reinterpreted, second-guessed, undermined, and ultimately cast aside. Such is the case with the 4th Commandment of God. See 1Tim 4:1, 2; 2Tim 3:1-5; Ex 20:8-11

2Tim 4:3

2Tim 4:3 - but after their own lusts - the covetous desiring of men will lead them to pursue teachers who pervert the gospel and teach messages that please their unconsecrated desires. See 1Jo 2:16; Isa 57:17

2Tim 4:3

2Tim 4:3 - heap to themselves teachers - The masses will seek to follow teachers lacking the fire of the Holy Spirit but walking after the sparks of their own kindling who teach smooth says that are well received. They forsake the strait testimony for the messages of peace and safety, leading to sudden destruction. See Rev 22:14, 15; 2Thess 2:9-12; Isa 30:9-11; Hos 4:6-11; Joh 3:19-21; Rom 16:18

2Tim 4:4

2Tim 4:4 - they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables - See Rom 1:21-32

2Tim 4:5

2Tim 4:5 - watch thou in all things - we are to be watchful, vigilant, aware of the things that make for our faith and may cause our doom. See 1Pet 5:8

2Tim 4:5

2Tim 4:5 - endure afflictions - Jesus said, "in the world ye shall have tribulation but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world" Joh 16:33; Ezek 3:8, 9

2Tim 4:5

2Tim 4:5 - do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry - See 2Tim 4:16, 17; 2:21; Joh 8:29

2Tim 4:6

2Tim 4:6 - For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand - Paul, who had offered himself in life as a living sacrifice (Rom 12:1, 2), was now ready to be offered as a dead sacrifice to the Lord. Paul was to appear before Nero a second time, this time for false charges of sedition and for inciting the burning of the city of Rome.

2Tim 4:7

2Tim 4:7 - I have fought a good fight - See 1Cor 9:25-27 When souls are converted, their salvation is not yet accomplished. They then have the race to run; the arduous struggle is before them to "fight the good fight of faith".... The battle is lifelong, and must be carried forward with determined energy proportionate to the value of the object you are in pursuit of, which is eternal life.... - {OHC 163.2}

2Tim 4:7

2Tim 4:7 - I have finished my course - See Heb 12:1; 1Cor 9:24-27

2Tim 4:8

2Tim 4:8 - Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing - Crowns Bestowed by Christ—In that day of final punishment and reward, both saints and sinners will recognize in Him who was crucified the Judge of all living. Every crown that is given to the saints of the Most High will be bestowed by the hands of Christ—those hands that cruel priests and rulers condemned to be nailed to the cross. He alone can give to men the consolation of eternal life (The Review and Herald, November 22, 1898). - {7BC 958.2}

2Tim 4:14 - the Lord reward him according to his works - See Rev 22:12

2Tim 4:15

2Tim 4:15 - greatly withstood our words - a satanic spirit, working in and through Alexander, challenged the words of the Apostle to those in Rome. See Dan 10:13; 3Jo 1:9, 10

2Tim 4:16

2Tim 4:16 - At my first answer no man stood with me - Pauls first appearing before Emperor Nero, he stood alone but the LORD upheld him and gave him boldness so that none could gainsay.

2Tim 4:16

2Tim 4:17 - I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge - See Lk 23:34; Act 7:60

2Tim 4:17

2Tim 4:17 - Notwithstanding, the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me - when all forsake us, the Lord will never forsake us but will stand with us. See Dan 11:1, 10:16-18; Joh 8:29; Isa 49:15, 16; Ps 27:10; Heb 13:6; Rom 8:31

2Tim 4:17

2Tim 4:17 - I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion - Paul, after his first appearing before Nero, was released because no fault could be found in him and the Spirit of God moved mightily upon all who heard him, including Nero. See Dan 6:22; Contrast Am 3:12

Tit 1:1 - according to the faith of God's elect - See 1Pet 1:2; Col 3:12

Tit 1:2

Tit 1:2 - God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began - See 2Pet 3:13; Jam 1:17; Rom 3:4

Tit 1:2

Tit 1:2 - promised before the world began - See Zech 6:13; Jer 23:6; Rev 13:8; 1Jo 5:11-14

Tit 1:4

Tit 1:4 - To Tit, mine own son after the common faith - like Timothy, Paul made Tit, a Greek, to be a son in labor and ministry for the Lord. Tit fully embraced the gospel, becoming a Jew by faith though never circumcised in the flesh. Paul, in writing to Titus emphasizes the "common faith" that is shared by both Jew and Gentile converts to Christianity. See Gal 2:3; 1Tim 1:2; 2Tim 1:2; Jude 1:3

Tit 1:5

Tit 1:5 - For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting - See Tit 1:12, 13

Tit 1:5

Tit 1:5 - ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee - Like Timothy, Titus was ordained to appoint elders who would manage the affairs of the household of God. See 1Tim 3:1, 2, 5:22; 2Tim 2:2, 14

Tit 1:6

Tit 1:6 - If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children - See 1Tim 3:2-5

Tit 1:6

Tit 1:6 - not accused of riot or unruly - See 2Pet 2:

Tit 1:7

Tit 1:7 - not selfwilled - headstrong, pursuing his own aims outside of the collective works and body of believers.

Tit 1:7

Tit 1:7 - not soon angry - slow to wrath. See Prov 14:29; Jam 1:19; Eccl 7:9

Tit 1:7

Tit 1:7 - not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre - See Jer 17:11; 1Tim 3:3

Tit 1:8

Tit 1:8 - But a lover of hospitality - one how enjoys hosting and accommodating those who are in need.

Tit 1:8

Tit 1:8 - temperate - not given to extremes; balanced; doing things and living in moderation.

Tit 2:10

Tit 2:10 - purloining - stealing; taking advantage of

Tit 2:10

Tit 2:10 - but shewing all good fidelity - showing nobility of character and loyalty to their masters.

Tit 2:11

Tit 2:11 - the grace of God that bringeth salvation - we are saved by grace through faith of Jesus Christ (Eph 2:8, 9). This grace, embodied in Christ - the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world, that precedes the creation of the world (Heb 9:24-26; Rev 13:8) has been extended to all men so that all may have the choice to choose eternal life or destruction. See Eph 2:8; Rom 1:19, 5:2; 1Pet 3:18, 19; Isa 40:5; Lk 3:6, 2:25, 30; Heb 4:2; Jude 1:3; Act 15:7-9; 1Cor 1:4 Repentance is one of the first fruits of saving grace. Our great Teacher, in His lessons to erring, fallen man, presents the life-giving power of His grace, declaring that through this grace men and women may live the new life of holiness and purity. He who lives this life works out the principles of the kingdom of heaven. Taught of God, he leads others in straight paths. He will not lead the lame into paths of uncertainty. The working of the Holy Spirit in his life shows that he is a partaker of the divine nature. Every soul thus worked by the Spirit of Christ receives so abundant a supply of the rich grace that, beholding his good works, the unbelieving world acknowledges that he is controlled and sustained by divine power, and is led to glorify God.—God's Amazing Gra

Tit 2:14 - that he might redeem us from all iniquity - See Mt 1:21

Tit 2:14

Titus 2:14 - redeem - To purchase back; to ransom; to liberate or rescue from captivity or bondage, or from any obligation or liability to suffer or to be forfeited, by paying an equivalent; as, to redeem prisoners or captured goods; to redeem a pledge. 2. To repurchase what has been sold; to regain possession of a thing alienated, by repaying the value of it to the possessor.

Tit 2:14

Tit 2:14 - purify unto himself - See 2Cor 11:2; 1Jo 3:1-3

Tit 2:14

Tit 2:14 - a peculiar people - The NKJV Bible restates the word "peculiar" with the word "special". This is INCORRECT! This change takes away the natural reproach that comes with following Christ, a reproach that is to be expected of the world which does not know Christ. See Isa 4:1; Joh 14:17, 15:18; 1T 136, 283 Will Christ's followers be special to the world or peculiar? This change may have something to do with the desire of mainstream churches to be politically correct. Would true Christians ever be popular? The Bible says, "Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you" (1Jo 3:13). {What's New in the New King Jam Version, by Max Klein}

Tit 2:14

Tit 2:14 - zealous of good works - the true servants of God do not find God's service grievous nor burdensome. They delight to serve their master in gratitude for His continual service to them. See John 6:29; Lk 17:10; Gal 6:9; 2Thess 3:13

Tit 2:15

Hebrews

Heb 1:1

Back to Table of Contents

Heb 1:1 - God who at sundry times - Heb chapter 1 and chapter 2 can be summarized as follows: 1. Heb Chapter 1 emphasizes the contrast between Jesus and the angels, showing that He is exceedingly higher than they because He is divine, God Almighty. The chapter highlights the divinity of Christ as the Creator and Sustainer of all things, the One given honor by the Father as His Son and the God of the Father. One bearing the full nature of God. 2. Heb Chapter 2 emphasizes the contrast between Jesus Christ and the angels, showing that He was made to be so much beneath them, having become part of the human race in order to redeem mankind. The chapter highlights the humanity of Christ, that He bore our nature fully.

Heb 1:1

Heb 1:1- spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets - See 2Chron 36:15; Rom 1:2; Rev 10:7

Heb 1:2

Heb 1:2 - Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son - See Mt 4:23

Heb 1:2

Heb 1:2 - whom he hath appointed heir of all things - Jesus, Who is Heir of all things, will share His inheritance with us. See Mt 21:38; Phil 2:9-11; Rev 21:7

Heb 1:2

Heb 1:2 - by Whom also He made the worlds - See Job 1:6-12; Joh 1:1-3, 14; Eph 3:9; Rev 10:6

Heb 1:2

Heb 1:2 - worlds - God has other inhabited worlds that He has Created. See Heb 11:3; Rev 12:12; Job 1:6, 7, 2:1 God's government included not only the inhabitants of heaven, but of all the worlds that He had created; and Satan thought that if he could carry the angels of heaven with him in rebellion, he could carry also the other worlds. {GC 497.1} It was the marvel of all the universe that Christ should humble Himself to save fallen man. That He who had passed from star to star, from world to world, superintending all, by His providence supplying the needs of every order of being in His vast creation—that He should consent to leave His glory and take upon Himself human nature, was a mystery which the sinless intelligences of other worlds desired to understand... - {PP 69.3}

Heb 1:3

Heb 1:3 - Who being the brightness of his glory - Jesus, the righteous One has never fallen short of God's glory and therefore reflects God's glory in its fullness. See Rom 3:23; Ps 104:1, 2; 1Tim 6:16; Col 2:9

Heb 1:3

Heb 1:3 - express image of His person - Jesus bears the fulness of the Godhead bodily. Col 1:15; 2:9

Heb 1:3 - and upholding all things by the word of his power - See Act 17:28; Col 1:16, 17; 1Pet 1:5

Heb 1:3

Heb 1:3 - by himself purged our sins - See Isa 4:3, 4; Mic 7:19; 1Jo 1:7; Heb 9:11-14

Heb 1:3

Heb 1:3 - sat down - Christ being seated (gr - ekathisen) at the right hand of the Father need not mean that He is in a position of repose, but that He "took His seat" or is seated (in office) until His work of redemption is completed; similar to a delegat at a convention "taking his seat". See Act 2:33; Rom 8:34; Col 3:1; Heb 8:1, 9:11, 12, 10:12, 12:1; Rev 3:21; Eph 1:20; Mt 26:64; Mk 16:19; Lk 22:69

Heb 1:4

Heb 1:4 - A son receives his name, title, authority and possessions/gifts by inheritance. Therefore, Jesus, the Son of God receives The name, God, by being the Son of God the Father and by being God by nature, substance and form. It is this name that is higher than that of angels, as God is higher than the angels.

Heb 1:4

Heb 1:4 - as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they - A son receives his name, title, authority and possessions/gifts by inheritance. Therefore, Jesus, the Son of God receives The name, God, by being the Son of God the Father and by being God by nature, substance and form. It is this name that is higher than that of angels, as God is higher than the angels.

Heb 1:6

Heb 1:6 - And let all the angels of God worship him - Lk 2:9-14; Rev 5:8-14 First at His birth and then in His glorification, Jesus was worthy of the angel's adoration. When the great sacrifice had been consummated, Christ ascended on high, refusing the adoration of angels until he had presented the request, "I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am." [Joh 17:24.] Then with inexpressible love and power came forth the answer from the Father's throne, "Let all the angels of God worship him." [Heb 1:6.] {GC 501.3}

Heb 1:13 - Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool - See Ps 110:1; Mt 22:44; Mk 12:36; Heb 10:13

Heb 1:14

Heb 1:14 - ministering spirits - See Ps 103:21, 104:4; GC 631.2-632.1; Mk 1:13; Lk 1:19; 2Pet 2:11 The angels of God in heaven, that have never fallen, do His will continually. In all that they do upon their busy errands of mercy to our world, shielding, guiding, and guarding the workmanship of God for ages—both the just and the unjust—they can truthfully say, "All is thine. Of Thine own do we give Thee." Would that the human eye could catch glimpses of the service of the angels! Would that the imagination could grasp and dwell upon the rich, the glorious service of the angels of God and the conflicts in which they engage in behalf of men, to protect, to lead, to win, and to draw them from Satan's snares. How different would be the conduct, the religious sentiment! - {1888 815.2} The LORD utilizes His angels to work on behalf mankind, particularly the sons of redemption. They are seen as relaying messages, counsel, aid and protection to men. God has however, not entrusted the communication of the gospel throughout the ends of the world to heavenly messengers (angels) but to the sons of men. In certain instances, angels ministered to individuals to convey light of the Scriptures and a prophetic revelation (see Dan 10-12 and William Miller in EW 229.1), however, the commission to take the gospel to each individual throughout the ends of the world has been entrusted to men. See Rom 10:13-15; Mt 28:18-20; Act 1:8; Rev 14:6 As we near the end of time, falsehood will be so mingled with truth, that only those who have the guidance of the Holy Spirit will be able to distinguish truth from error. We need to make every effort to keep the way of the Lord. We must in no case turn from His guidance to put our trust in man. The Lord's angels are appointed to keep strict watch over those who put their faith in the Lord, and these angels are to be our special help in every time of need. Every day we are to come to the Lord with full assurance of faith, and to look to Him for wisdom.... Those who are guided by the Word of the Lord will discern with certainty between falsehood and truth, between sin and righteousness. - {Mar 192.6}

Heb 2:1 - Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip - See Heb 2:3, 3:2; 1Tim 4:16; 2Pet 1:19

Heb 2:2

Heb 2:2 - For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward - See Rev 12:3, 4, 7-9, 12, Mt 25:41; Jude 1:6

Heb 2:3

Heb 2:3 - if we neglect so great salvation - See Gen 3:15; Rom 1:21; Heb 2:9, 6:4-6, 12:16; Act 13:26-41 The True Witness says, "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock." Rev 3:20. Every warning, reproof, and entreaty in the word of God or through His messengers is a knock at the door of the heart. It is the voice of Jesus asking for entrance. With every knock unheeded, the disposition to open becomes weaker. The impressions of the Holy Spirit if disregarded today, will not be as strong tomorrow. The heart becomes less impressible, and lapses into a perilous unconsciousness of the shortness of life, and of the great eternity beyond. Our condemnation in the judgment will not result from the fact that we have been in error, but from the fact that we have neglected heaven-sent opportunities for learning what is truth. - {DA 489.5}

Heb 2:3

Heb 2:3 - salvation - Salvation is two-fold. 1. Salvation from sin. This is a progressive work of Christian life. Some mistake and think the work is finished because they feel that they love the way of truth, and have no desire or disposition to sin. But, as before noticed, they may sin ignorantly, and do things which are offensive to God because they are not fully instructed in the right. When these sins come to their knowledge they must repent; and if they refuse or neglect to repent of them, they stand as indorsing thorn, and then their relation is changed and they must be counted sins of presumption. And there is place for continuance of this work of increasing in knowledge and reforming in life until we become as perfect in 7 knowledge as our circumstances will permit. This is growth in grace, without which the believer either remains a babe in the Christian life, or degenerates into a fixed state of formality; for no one has a complete knowledge of truth and duty when first he submits himself to God. It is incumbent upon him to grow up into it. {1882 JHW, JBF 6.2} 2. There is a final salvation which is brought unto us at the appearing of Christ; of which, salvation from sin (or justification and growth in grace) is the necessary prerequisite. Of this salvation the Scriptures make very frequent mention. The Saviour said: "He that shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved." Matt. 24:13; the same in chap. 10:22, and Mark 13:13. This salvation comes after that which is called "the end." Paul said to his brethren; "And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep; for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed." Rom 13:11. Waiving all question as to "the time" to which he referred, we notice that this salvation did not come to them when they believed. It is a future salvation to the believer. {1882 JHW, JBF 7.1}

Heb 2:3

Heb 2:3 - which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord - The Plan of Redemption and God's salvation was first spoken by God in the Garden of Eden - Gen 3:15; LK 4:16-21

Heb 2:3

Heb 2:3 - confirmed unto us by those who heard Him - the righteous, who hear, believe and embrace God's salvation confirm His words to be true! See Joh 17:20; Rom 10:17; Joh 20:29; 2Thess 1:10

Heb 2:4

Heb 2:4 - God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost - Act 2:43, 3:6-9, 19:11, 12

Heb 2:5

Heb 2:5 - For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak - it is not unto angels that God has reserved (Rom 4:17) the Earth made new, but to redeemed humanity - See Mt 5:5; Rev 21:1-7, 24-27

Heb 2:6

Heb 2:6, 7 - What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him? Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands: - See Ps 8:4-9

Heb 2:6

Heb 2:6 - What is man, that thou art mindful of him? - what is man that You, the Eternal God, give such attention and pay such interest to him?

Heb 2:6

Heb 2:6 - or the son of man, that thou visitest him? - why would God seek to be in mankind's company?

Heb 2:7

Heb 2:7 - Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour - mankind was crowned with glory and honour in that we were created in God's image and likeness. This verse also is an allusion to the fact that mankind would be doubled and eternally honored with God becoming part of the human race, God with us, Immanuel! See Heb 2:9

Heb 2:7

Heb 2:7 - and didst set him over the works of thy hands - See Gen 1:26

Heb 2:8

Heb 2:8 - Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him - This is speaking of Christ's rulership over all things through His conquest over sin, death, the grave and the enemy of souls. Jesus, the Second Adam embodies humanity and it is to Him that all things are given. See Ps 8:6; 1Cor 15:22, 45, 46, 27, 28; Eph 1:22

Heb 2:8

Heb 2:8 - But now we see not yet all things put under him - the rebellion of Satan and his seed still rages on for a short time until Christ shall put an end of him and all who follow in his footsteps for good. See Joh 12:31; 2Thess 2:8; Philipians 2:9-11

Heb 2:9

Heb 2:9-18 - Compare Ps 8:4-9 where the pre-fallen Adam is described as being one: 1. Created lower than the angels 2. Crowned with glory and honour 3. Given Dominion over the works of God's hands 4. Given dominion over all creatures on land, in sea and in the air However, after sin, Adam lost his dominion, was made even lower than his original state as he was now subject to fear, pain, suffering and death. It is into this fallen state that Jesus entered the world so that He may share in our infirmities and suffer death for all men.

Heb 2:9

Heb 2:9 - But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels - Compare Ps 8:4-9 where the pre-fallen Adam is described as being one: 1. Created lower than the angels 2. Crowned with glory and honour 3. Given Dominion over the works of God's hands 4. Given dominion over all creatures on land, in sea and in the air However, after sin, Adam lost his dominion, was made even lower than his original state as he was now subject to fear, pain, suffering and death. It is into this fallen state that Jesus entered the world so that He may share in our infirmities (Isa 53) and suffer death for all men. Heb 5:8, 9, 10:5

Heb 2:9

Heb 2:9 - for the suffering of death - Jesus has tasted our Second Death, the ultimate horror of our deepest despair. See Heb 2:14; Rev 20:5, 6 The love that Christ manifested can not be comprehended by mortal man. It is a mystery too deep for the human mind to fathom. Christ did in reality unite the offending nature of man with his own sinless nature, because by this act of condescension he would be enabled to pour out his blessings in behalf of the fallen race. Thus he has made it possible for us to partake of his nature. By making himself an offering for sin, he opened a way whereby human beings might be made one with him. He placed himself in man's position, becoming capable of suffering. The whole of his earthly life was a preparation for the altar. - {RH July 17, 1900 Par. 8}

See Isa 9:6, 7; Joh 1:14; Heb 2:17; Rom 8:3; Eph 5:30 He in turn will allow His children who are flesh and blood to partake of His divine nature. See 1Cor 15:49-54; 2Pet 1:4 But if He comes no nearer to us than in a sinless nature, that is a long way off; because I need ... someone to help me who knows something about sinful nature; for that is the nature that I have; and such the Lord did take. He became one of us. {Grace on Trial, pg 188, R. Wieland} Since the Fall the race had been decreasing in size and physical strength, and sinking lower in the scale of moral worth, up to the period of Christ's advent to the earth. And in order to elevate fallen man, Christ must reach him where he was. He took human nature, and bore the infirmities and degeneracy of the race. He, who knew no sin, became sin for us. He humiliated Himself to the lowest depths of human woe, that He might be qualified to reach man, and bring him up from the degradation in which sin had plunged him. - {1SM 268.2} From the time of Adam to that of Christ, self-indulgence had increased the power of the appetites and passions, until they had almost unlimited control. Thus men had become debased and diseased, and of themselves it was impossible for them to overcome. In man's behalf, Christ conquered by enduring the severest test. For our sake He exercised a self-control stronger than hunger or death. And in this first victory were involved other issues that enter into all our conflicts with the powers of darkness. - {DA 117.4}

Heb 2:14 - power of death - See 1Cor 15:56

Heb 2:15

Heb 2:15 - And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage - the love and power of Christ delivers us from the bondage of sin and fear of death through His shed blood. See 1Jo 4:18; 2Tim 1:10; Hos 13:14; Rev 1:18; Ps 107:2

Heb 2:15

Heb 2:15 - fear of death - fear of death is a bondage that involves torment (1Jo 4:8). Yet the followers of Christ do not fear death, understanding that it is defeated foe (Isa 25:8; 1Cor 15:54-58; Joh 11:24) and will not hold captive any that are in Christ. Further the fear of death brings to mind judgment which is to follow death. This the fear of death, judgment and our own inner sense of condemnation due to our sins have kept us in bondage until Jesus set the captives free. See 1Pet 3:19

Heb 2:15

Heb 2:15 - were all their lifetime subject to bondage - there is no fear in death because Jesus has conquered Satan, the one having power over the grave and death for all mankind. See Ps 23:4 The one who has learned to die daily to Christ, has no fear of death, as their will is being constantly surrendered to God's will. 1Cor 15:31

Heb 2:16

Heb 2:16 - For verily he took not on him the nature of angels - though higher than the nature of man, the nature of angels is infinitely inferior to God's own divine nature. See Ps 8:4-6; Heb 1:14 Had Christ come in His divine form, humanity could not have endured the sight. The contrast would have been too painful, the glory too overwhelming. Humanity could not have endured the presence of one of the pure, bright angels from glory; therefore Christ took not on Him the nature of angels; He came in the likeness of men. - {5BC 1131.1}

Heb 2:16

Heb 2:16 - He took on him the seed of Abraham - Jesus did not take on the fallen nature of the sons of Adam, but rather the sons of Abraham. The sons of Adam are children of wrath, dead in trespasses and sins (Eph 2:1-3). The sons of Abraham are they who, despite having a corruptible flesh, have been born again by the Spirit of God and walk in the Spirit, not fulfilling the lusts of the flesh. They are born of promise and thus miracles of God, created by God for His glory (Isa 43:7; 1Pet 2:9) - See Lk 1:35; Gal 3:16, 26-29, 4:4, 6:8; Rom 8:1-14 QUESTION: Why does it not read that Jesus took on the seed of Adam? Why Abraham? Abraham is the father of the faithful, who by faith, are counted righteous by God. Jesus took our sinful flesh, but He did not take on the sinful nature of all sons of Adam. Jesus was born of the Spirit of God and therefore, was a seed of Abraham.

Heb 2:17

Heb 2:17 - Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren - Jesus became one with the fallen human race and so remains in order to be our High Priest in heaven - See Gal 4:4; Joh 1:14, 5:27, 3:16; Dan 7:13; Lk 24:36-39; Rom 8:3

Heb 2:17

Heb 2:17 - made like unto his brethren - Jesus inherited a flesh nature like our own, but was made like unto those who accept His gift of forgiveness and grace and become partakers of His divine nature. Only those who are born again, Born of God, a creation of God, are brethren to Christ. The children of wrath are not Jesus' brethren, but those who do the will of God are His brethren - See *Heb 2:11; Eph 2:3; Mk 3:33-35; Rom 8:29 QUESTION: Are all sons of Adam, members of the human race, brethren of Jesus, or only those who by faith, have accepted His provisions of grace and are being sanctified? Heb 2:11

Heb 2:17

Heb 2:17 - that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God - Jesus bears the name of His people upon His breast continually today (Ex 28:29, 30; Heb 7:25). In all righteousness, god-likeness and majesty, Jesus can be merciful to mankind while being holy, faithful, and without fault towards God and His law. Jesus is the Bridge to our Redemption, being able to succor (help, have compassion, lift us up) us when we are tempted and are in need. See Ex 28:29, 30; Rom 3:26, 8:34; Heb 4:14-16

Heb 2:17

Heb 2:17 - and faithful - Jesus can be merciful to mankind while being holy, faithful and without fault towards His Father. Jesus is the Bridge to our Redemption, being able to succor (help, have compassion, lift us up) us when we are tempted and are in need. See Ex 28:29, 30; Rom 8:34; Heb 4:14-16

Heb 2:17

Heb 2:17 - high priest - a Mediator, an Intercessor; One Who stands in the gap and Advocates for another. As Mediator, He is fully aware of the things which pertain to God and godliness and has Himself, satisfied the requirements thereof. Similarly, He has partaken of flesh and blood and understands the trying of our faith and the temptations we endure so that He may be merciful towards us. Gal 4:4, 5; Rom 8:3 QUESTION: Is Jesus High Priest for everyone, all humanity, or only those who have received of His grace by faith?

Heb 2:17

Heb 2:17 - to make reconciliation for the sins of the people - to make payment for the sins of the people and peace with God for all who believe in Him. While we were dead in trespasses and sins, Jesus reconciled us to His Father. This gift is given to all and is for all. As we take hold of His strength in faith (Isa 27:5), we are counted righteous and receive of the provisions made available to us. See Col 1:14, 20; Gal 3:13, 14; Eph 2:15, 16

Heb 2:17

Heb 2:17 - reconciliation - See Dan 9:24; 2Cor 5:19; Eph 2:14, 15 - The act of reconciling parties at variance; renewal of friendship after disagreement or enmity. Reconciliation and friendship with God, really form the basis of all rational and true enjoyment. 2. In Scripture, the means by which sinners are reconciled and brought into a state of favor with God, after natural estrangement or enmity;

Heb 2:18

Heb 2:18 - For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted - Jesus surely took on our fallen human nature, being subject to sin and temptation. God, Who can not be tempted with sin, permitted His Son to share in corporate humanity in order to understand sin, temptation and all that appertains to them. See Heb 4:15, 5:8 The Elder Brother of our race is by the eternal throne. He looks upon every soul who is turning his face toward Him as the Saviour. He knows by experience what are the weaknesses of humanity, what are our wants, and where lies the strength of our temptations; for He was "in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin." Heb 4:15. He is watching over you, trembling child of God. Are you tempted? He will deliver. Are you weak? He will strengthen. Are you ignorant? He will enlighten. Are you wounded? He will heal. The Lord "tellethe the number of the stars;" and yet "He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds." Ps 147:4, 3. - {MH 71.5} The love that Christ manifested can not be comprehended by mortal man. It is a mystery too deep for the human mind to fathom. Christ did in reality unite the offending nature of man with his own sinless nature, because by this act of condescension he would be enabled to pour out his blessings in behalf of the fallen race. Thus he has made it possible for us to partake of his nature. By making himself an offering for sin, he opened a way whereby human beings might be made one with him. He placed himself in man's position, becoming capable of suffering. The whole of his earthly life was a preparation for the altar. - {RH July 17, 1900 Par. 8} Since Jesus came to dwell with us, we know that God is acquainted with our trials, and sympathizes with our griefs. Every son and daughter of Adam may understand that our Creator is the friend of sinners. For in every doctrine of grace, every promise of joy, every deed of love, every divine attraction presented in the Saviour's life on earth, we see "God with us." - {DA 24.1}

Heb 2:18

Heb 2:18 - succour - to bear one up on eagles wings, to counsel and encourage. See Ex 19:4 Many claim that it was impossible for Christ to be overcome by temptation. Then He could not have been placed in Adam's position; He could not have gained the victory that Adam failed to gain. If we have in any sense a more trying conflict than had Christ, then He would not be able to succor us. But our Saviour took humanity, with all its liabilities. He took the nature of man, with the possibility of yielding to temptation. We have nothing to bear which He has not endured. - {DA 117.2}

Heb 3:1 - holy brethren - See 1Cor 1:2, 6:2; Ps 16:3 Holiness is constant agreement with God. Shall we not strive to be that which Christ so greatly desires us to be—Christians in deed and in truth—that the world may see in our lives a revelation of the saving power of truth? This world is our preparatory school. While here we shall meet with trials and difficulties. Continually the enemy of God will seek to draw us away from our allegiance. But while we cleave to Him who gave Himself for us we are safe. - {In Heavenly Places 33.4}

When offered the riches of Egypt, Moses rejected them and chose to suffer with the people of God, esteeming God's promises of eternal glory much better. Further, when tested by being offered to be made the father of a great nation in place of the rebellious COI, Moses considered the people whom God loved and God's reputation before the world, all above selfish ambition or gain. This act showed that man can love God selflessly and that God's principle of love triumphs over Satan's principle of selfishness. See Heb 11:24-29, Ex 32:9-14, 26, 29-32

Heb 3:5 - And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after - Moses not only ordered his house according to God's purposes (Ex 4:25, 26), but he vindicated God's character and the principle of His kingdom, love. When offered the riches of Egypt, Moses rejected them and chose to suffer with the people of God, esteeming God's promises of eternal glory much better. Heb 3:6 - the rejoicing of the hope - the hope is to become Christ-like again and to see Jesus in peace when He comes again - See Col 1:25-29; Rom 8:24; 1Jo 3:2, 3

Heb 3:7, 8 - Wherefore (as the Holy Ghost saith, To day if ye will hear his voice, Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness: - Ps 95:7, 8; Heb 3:15

Heb 3:7

Heb 3:7 - To day if ye will hear his voice - The Lord does not speak to us as He once did to the COI upon Mt Sinai, with fire, smoke and an earthquake. The Lord speaks most effectively through His still small voice of the Holy Spirit, prompting, beckoning, reproofing, convicting and wooing us to Himself. See 1Kin 19:11-13; Heb 3:15

Heb 3:8

Heb 3:8 - Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness - See Zech 7:12; Heb 3:15, 18, 12:17

Heb 3:9

Heb 3:9 - When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years - The COI proved and tempted the Lord 10x before He determined that the rebellious generation would not enter into His rest. See Num 14:22; Heb 3:17; Gen 6:6

Heb 3:10

Heb 3:10 - I was grieved with that generation - God and His Spirit were grieved with those who err in their heart and had not known the ways of God due to self-inflicted ignorance. See Heb 3:17-19; Gen 6:5, 6

Heb 3:10

Heb 3:10 - they have not known my ways - the generation that God took out of Egypt quickly forgot the foundations of their faith, the miracles wrought in Egypt and God's mighty deliverance. Therefore, they found themselves out of the way, not walking in God's old paths and therefore stumbled in unbelief. See Jer 6:16, 17, 23, 24; Isa 28:13, 57:15

Heb 3:11

Heb 3:11 - So I swear in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest. - The Lord God is a Spirit and all who worship Him must worship Him in Spirit and in truth [sincerity/integrity/honesty](Joh 4:23, 24). God's rest therefore, is a spiritual rest, entered into by faith, meaning He offers us rest from striving, from fear, worry and anxiety and He teaches us to put our complete trust in His works of creation and salvation/redemption (re-creation), finished from the foundations of the world (compare Heb 4:3). The Lord is Our Righteousness - He will be exalted in all the earth! Jer 23:5, 6; Ps 46:10; Heb 3:18, 19

Heb 3:12

Heb 3:12 - evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God - See Rom 1:18-32; Gen 4:16; Ps 1:1, Heb 3:16 Unbelief is the one sin Jesus has not died for. If we persist in unbelief we will be lost - this is the unpardonable sin. We are to have an overcoming faith that believes in God and in His promises, no matter the circumstances. Unbelief has been a root cause and downfall for all who fall to sin: Eve (self-exaltation/unbelief): PP 59.1 Adam: Cain: Abraham: Jacob and Rebekah: PP 180.3, 197.2

Heb 3:12

Heb 3:12 - in departing from the living God - See Gen 4:16; Deut 5:24, 26

Heb 3:13

Heb 3:13 - But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day - the Bible describes an immediacy, urgency and persistency that is required in our Christian walk and ministry.

Heb 3:13

Heb 3:13 - lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin - See 1Tim 4:2; Rom

1:28; 2Thess 2:10-12

Heb 3:13

Heb 3:13 - deceitfulness of sin - the love of money, lust of the flesh, lust of the eyes, and pride of life all appeal to our senses and deceive the unwary - See Mt 13:22; Mk 4:19; 1Tim 6:9, 10; 1Jo 2:16

Heb 3:14

Heb 3:14 - For we are made partakers of Christ - we will become partakers of Jesus' divine nature as we receive of His righteousness. 2Pet 1:1-4, 19; Phil 3:10; Joh 17:22, 23; 1Jo 2:24, 3:2; Jer 23:5, 6

Heb 3:14

Heb 3:14 - if we hold the beginning of our confidence - the faith once delivered to the saints; the old paths, the foundations of the faith - See Col 2:6; Ju 1:3; Jer 6:16, 17; Heb 3:6, 10:35-39; 1Jo 2:24; 2Tim 1:12

Heb 3:15

Heb 3:15 - While it is said, today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts - Heb 3:7, 8; Ps 95:7, 8 In every age there is given to men their day of light and privilege, a probationary time in which they may become reconciled to God. But there is a limit to this grace. Mercy may plead for years and be slighted and rejected; but there comes a time when mercy makes her last plea. The heart becomes so hardened that it ceases to respond to the Spirit of God. Then the sweet, winning voice entreats the sinner no longer, and reproofs and warnings cease. - {DA 587.1} Our time belongs to God. Every moment is His, and we are under the most solemn obligation to improve it to His glory. Of no talent He has given will He require a more strict account than of our time. - {COL 342.1} The value of time is beyond computation. Christ regarded every moment as precious, and it is thus that we should regard it. Life is too short to be trifled away. We have but a few days of probation in which to prepare for eternity. We have no time to waste, no time to devote to selfish pleasure, no time for the indulgence of sin. It is now that we are to form characters for the future, immortal life. It is now that we are to prepare for the searching judgment. - {COL 342.2}

Heb 3:15

Heb 3:15 - To day if ye will hear his voice - The Lord does not speak to us as He once did to the COI upon Mt Sinai, with fire, smoke and an earthquake. The Lord speaks most effectively through His still small voice of the Holy Spirit, prompting, beckoning, reproving, convicting, and wooing us to Himself. See 1Kin 19:11-13; Heb 3:7, 10; Joh 14:16-20, 16:7, 8

Heb 3:16

Heb 3:16 - For some, when they had heard, did provoke - the Lord is not provoked by the ignorant and those who never have heard truth. God is provoked by those who have heard and have chosen disbelief. The COI saw the mountain on fire, they felt the earth quaking and they heard the voice of God with all His angels upon Mt. Sinai. Yet, the people demanded a golden calf and worshipped it as God. The 10 spies saw God's deliverance from Egypt and they saw the land of flowing with milk and honey as God promised. Yet they caused the people to murmur by bringing a bad report of God's ability to defeat their enemies and cause them to inherit the promised land. See 1Cor 10:1-6; Heb 3:12 God does not regard all sins as of equal magnitude; there are degrees of guilt in His estimation, as well as in that of man; but however trifling this or that wrong act may seem in the eyes of men, no sin is small in the sight of God. Man's judgment is partial, imperfect; but God estimates all things as they really are. The drunkard is despised and is told that his sin will exclude him from heaven; while pride, selfishness, and covetousness too often go unrebuked. But these are sins that are especially offensive to God; for they are contrary to the benevolence of His character, to that unselfish love which is the very atmosphere of the unfallen universe. He who falls into some of the grosser sins may feel a sense of his shame and poverty and his need of the grace of Christ; but pride feels no need, and so it closes the heart against Christ and the infinite blessings He came to give. - {SC 30.1}

Heb 3:16 - howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses - the exception were Moses, Joshua, Caleb and the two sons of Aaron, the priests, Eleazar and Ithamar. See Num 14:6, 24, 30; Lev 10:12

Heb 3:17

Heb 3:17 - But with whom was he grieved forty years? - See Heb 3:9

Heb 3:17

Heb 3:17 - was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness - See Num 14:11, 22-35, 37, 38; Jude 1:5

Heb 3:18

Heb 3:18 - And to whom swore he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not? - See Heb 3:10, 11

Heb 3:18

Heb 3:18 - enter into His rest - See Ex 31:16, 17; Mt 11:28-30

Heb 3:19

Heb 3:19 - they could not enter in because of [the sin of] unbelief - The unpardonable sin is the sin of unbelief, grieving God's Spirit by denying God to be God Almighty and thus making self or something else our god - See Isa 7:9; Rom 9:30-33, 11:20; Heb 11:6 The history of ancient Israel is a striking illustration of the past experience of the Adventist body. God led His people in the advent movement, even as He led the children of Israel from Egypt. In the great disappointment their faith was tested as was that of the Heb at the Red Sea. Had they still trusted to the guiding hand that had been with them in their past experience, they would have seen the salvation of God. If all who had labored unitedly in the work in 1844, had received the third angel's message and proclaimed it in the power of the Holy Spirit, the Lord would have wrought mightily with their efforts. A flood of light would have been shed upon the world. Years ago the inhabitants of the earth would have been warned, the closing work completed, and Christ would have come for the redemption of His people. - {GC 457.2} It was not the will of God that Israel should wander forty years in the wilderness; He desired to lead them directly to the land of Canaan and establish them there, a holy, happy people. But "they could not enter in because of unbelief." Heb 3:19. Because of their backsliding and apostasy they perished in the desert, and others were raised up to enter the Promised Land. In like manner, it was not the will of God that the coming of Christ should be so long delayed and His people should remain so many years in this world of sin and sorrow. But unbelief separated them from God. As they refused to do the work which He had appointed them, others were raised up to proclaim the message. In mercy to the world, Jesus delays His coming, that sinners may have an opportunity to hear the warning and find in Him a shelter before the wrath of God shall be poured out. - {GC 458.1}

Heb 4:1 - Let us therefore fear - we are to take heed and guard against the calamitous mistake of repeating the errors of those of the past (1Cor 10:1-6, 11), not entering God's rest. We must understand that unbelief was the downfall of Ancient Israel and will be ours if we do not take heed. See Heb 4:11; 2Chron 30:8

Heb 4:1

Heb 4:1 - any of you should seem to come short of it - through sin we all will fall short of God's promise of rest. We must fear never to come short, to wallow in unbelief, or seek to do the works in our own strength, but to stand tall in faith in God Whose works were completed from the foundation of the world. Our only works to be done are works of faith. See Rom 3:23; Gal 2:21; Heb 11:6

Heb 4:2

Heb 4:2 - For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it - The gospel was given to Ancient Israel as unto us. The knowledge of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world (Gen 3:15) was conveyed to them as to us, but it did not kindle faith in them. The knowledge of the Seed of Abraham Who would be a blessing to all families of the earth, did not resonate with them (Gen 12:3). We must not however, follow in their footsteps of unbelief. The process requires the mixing of truths conveyed (Rom 10:17) with the faith granted to us as a gift by God (Rom 12:3), through our personal experiences of God's goodness and faithfulness towards us and trusting in His promises, seen by faith (Heb 11:1). See Lam 3:22, 23; Titus 2:11; 1Pet 3:18-20, 4:6; Gen 6:8 Many know so little of faith that when they have asked God for his help and blessing, they look to themselves to see if their prayer is answered; and if they have a happy flight of feeling, they are satisfied. This is not faith, but unbelief. We should trust God, whether we experience any change of feeling or not. We cannot expect to be very joyful and hopeful while we look to ourselves; for we must think of self as sinful. A large class of the professed Christian world are watching their feelings; but feeling is an unsafe guide, and those who depend upon it are in danger of imbibing heresy.—Signs of the Times, May 22, 1884. - {PH048 40.1}

Heb 4:2

Heb 4:2 - but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith - the conveyed truth, the living Word of God had no power in their lives; it was as a closed (sealed) book to them. See Heb 11:6, 1; Isa 29:10-13; Zech 7:11, 12; Rom 9:30-32, 10:16; Ps 78:9-22

Heb 4:3

Heb 4:3 - For we which have believed do enter into rest - Those who accept the gift of God in Jesus Christ and His righteousness by faith unto the saving of their souls (Heb 10:39), enter into the rest that He has foreordained and promised Mt 11:28-30; 1Joh 5:11-13; Jam 2:19-26): 1. The rest of salvation through the shed blood of the Lamb, slain from the foundation of the world 2. The Sabbath rest, a sign of our sanctification by Christ (Eze 20:12, 20), the Creator and Redeemer of the world (Ex 20:8-11; Deut 5:12-15) 3. Rest from our labors to earn salvation but to trust that we are sons of God (Mt 11:28, 29; 1Jo 3:1; 5:13) 4. Trust that we shall be partakers in the eternal rest, sons of Redemption, the heritage of Jacob (Isa 58:13, 14) 5. Rest in God perfecting those things which concern us. God has imputed and will impart His righteousness to us (Jer 23:5, 6; Rom 4:4, 5, 21; Phil 1:6; Isa 28:29; Ps 138:8)

Heb 4:3

Heb 4:3 - As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter in to my rest - rest means. much more than the cessation of work, but rather it means to have a relationship with God based upon faith. See Ps 95:10, 11;

Heb 4:3

Heb 4:3 - although the works were finished from the foundation of the world - Jesus, the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world (Eph 1:4; Rev 13:9; Zech 6:13) has purchased eternal salvation for all who believe by faith. The Lord's works are spoken proleptically as His Words contain creative power (Rom 4:17). There is no need to work to earn that which is free. See Isa 55:1, 2

Heb 4:3

Heb 4:3 - from the foundation of the world - a foundation is the first thing laid when building a structure. Therefore, God had completed/finished the works of our redemption from the foundation of the world (Job 38:4-7). God made a way to save us even before we messed-up; that Way is Jesus, the Way, the Truth and the Life (John 14:6) - See Eph 1:4; 1Pet 1:20; Rev 13:8; 2Tim 1:9 The patriarchs and we are to understand that Jesus was slain before the foundation of the world and yet lived. The resurrection is integral to understanding the plan of redemption and that Jesus would die but rise again. Abraham understood the resurrection of Jesus and that is why he, with confidence and without hesitation, could take Isaac's life, believing he would be resurrected as the son of promise. See Rev 1:18

Heb 4:4

Heb 4:4 - For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works - As God rested on the Sabbath day, so too did Adam and all of the creation enter God's rest. The rest was accompanied by songs of praise, worship and bowing down before the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth. See Gen 2:2; Ex 20:11; Ps 95:1-7

Heb 4:5

Heb 4:5 - And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest - God did rest on the seventh-day from all of His works and He does so again and for all who too will enter into His rest. This may be a statement of the perpetuity of the Sabbath and the rest God has ordained from eternity past to eternity future.

Heb 4:6

Heb 4:6 - Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein - There remains a rest for the people of God, sons of Abraham who are circumcised in the heart. See Heb 4:9

Heb 4:6

Heb 4:6 - and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief - God is no respecter of persons but will acknowledge those who acknowledge Him. See Heb 4:2, Act 13:44-52, 10:34, 35; Rom 3:1-4, 10:1-4

Heb 4:7

Heb 4:7 - limiteth - to ordain - horízō Verb hor-id'-zo from (3725) from ; to mark out or bound ("horizon"), i.e. (figuratively) to appoint, decree, specify:--declare, determine, limit, ordain. to define to mark out the boundaries or limits (of any place or thing) 1b to determine, appoint that which has been determined, acc. to appointment, decree to ordain, determine, appoint

Heb 4:7

Heb 4:7 - saying in David, To day, after so long a time - the reference is to David, through the power of the Holy Spirit, appealing to the people to turn with their hearts towards the Lord and to enter into His rest. The long time here spoken whence the appeal went forth either refers back to the creation or ~530yrs prior when Israel was delivered from Egyptian bondage.

Heb 4:7

Heb 4:7 - To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts. - See Ps 95:7, 8, 119:59, 60; Isa 55:6, 7

Heb 4:8

Heb 4:8 - The Lord gave the land rest (Josh 21:43, 44, 22:4) in the time of Josh as He fulfilled all His promises to bring the Children of Israel into the promised land. This however, is still not the rest that remains for the children of God.

Heb 4:8

Heb 4:8 - The Lord gave the land rest (Josh 21:43, 44, 22:4) in the time of Josh as He fulfilled all His promises to bring the Children of Israel into the promised land. This however, is still not the rest that remains for the children of God. God had purposed to grant them the eternal rest in that day, but because of unbelief, it could not be realized. See Act 7:17

Heb 4:9

Heb 4:9 - There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God - See Heb 4:6; Isa 11:10

Heb 4:10

Heb 4:10 - For he that is entered into His rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from His - those who are in Christ, who neither work nor pay money for their redemption but receive it by grace through faith (Rom 4:4-8; Eph 2:8, 9; Isa 55:1-3) are obedient in resting from labors, just as God rested after finishing His work of creation at the foundations of the world. See Isa 52:3, 55:1-3, 6, 7; Mt 11:28-30; Heb 4:3

Heb 4:11

Heb 4:11 - Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest - We are to labour to do the righteous works of God, first of which is to surrender to Him (Joh 15:5) and to diligently seek Him (Heb 11:6) - See Philippians 2:12, 13; Isa 32:17; Zechariah 4:6

Heb 4:11

Heb 4:11 - lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief - See Heb 4:1, 2, 3:16-19

Heb 4:11

Heb 4:11 - same example of unbelief - See 1Cor 10:1-6, 11

Heb 4:12

Heb 4:12 - For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart - See Isa 49:2

Heb 4:12

Heb 4:12 - quick - God's word is alive and life giving. The Bible is not comprised of dead letters, but living bread, fresh manna from heaven for those who choose to partake of it. It is not to be interpreted by men's traditions or creeds, but rather the Spirit which moved upon men to pen the Scriptures is the same Spirit which gives inspiration to men to discern its hidden truths. We must view the Scriptures with new and fresh eyes daily, bringing forth things "old and new" (Mt 13:52), not merely following the teachings or doctrines of a particular sect or of former eras which may not have had the light of truth given for this time (Dan 12:4), but permitting God to speak and reveal the words of truth to us by His Holy Spirit. When all in humility are led by the same Spirit of Truth, they will come to the unity of the faith and will see eye to eye (Eph 4:13; Isa 52:8). See 1Cor 15:45; 1Pet 1:23; Prov 13:14; Joh 10:35

Heb 4:12

Heb 4:12 - powerful - God's word enlightens, revives, and gives strength to them who put their trust in God. See 1Sam 14:26-30; Rev 10:10; Eze 3:3; Jer 15:16, 23:29

Heb 4:12

Heb 4:12 - piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow - the Bible is the great Cleaver of Truth and like Jesus, divides the world. See Lk 2:34

Heb 4:12

Heb 4:12 - discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart - Jesus searches the reins through the Holy Spirit and through His written word. Scriptures shed light, helping us to see ourselves for who we are and reveals to us our true self, our motives, our passions, our flaws and our character as it is in Christ. See Rev 2:23; Eph 5:13; Eccl 12:14

Heb 4:12

Heb 4:13 - intents of the heart - the inclinations of the heart; our motives, our will and true self. Mt 12:34

Heb 4:13

Heb 4:13 - Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight - See Joh 3:19-21

Heb 4:13

Heb 4:13 - but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of Him with whom we have to do - See Ps 51:6, 94:9-11, 139; Joh 3:20, 21

Heb 4:14

Heb 4:14 - Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens - Jesus is High Priest for the sons of Abraham - See Heb 8:1, 2, 2:17, 18

Heb 4:14

Heb 4:14 - that is passed into the heavens - See Act 1:9-11

Heb 4:14

Heb 4:14 - Jesus the Son of God - See Heb 5:5

Heb 4:14

Heb 4:14 - let us hold fast our profession - See Heb 10:35-39

Heb 4:15

Heb 4:15 - For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities - See 1Pet 5:7; Joh 11:33; Heb 2:17, 18, 5:2; Hymn 181 - Does Jesus Care?

Heb 4:15

Heb 4:15 - but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. - As each of us are different and are tempted in different ways and to different degrees, Jesus needed to be tempted in all points to the maximum extent, in order to sympathize with us in our infirmities and weaknesses. See 1Cor 10:13; Mt 20:23; Lk 12:50; Joh 12:27; Heb 2:17, 18; Joh 5:20||Joh 15:5; 1Pet 2:21, 22 These words do not refer to any human being, except to the Son of the infinite God. Never, in any way, leave the slightest impression upon human minds that a taint of, or inclination to, corruption rested upon Christ, or that He in any way yielded to corruption. He was tempted in all points like as man is tempted, yet He is called "that holy thing." It is a mystery that is left unexplained to mortals that Christ could be tempted in all points like as we are, and yet be without sin. The incarnation of Christ has ever been, and will ever remain a mystery. That which is revealed, is for us and for our children, but let every human being be warned from the ground of making Christ altogether human, such an one as ourselves; for it cannot be. The exact time when humanity blended with divinity, it is not necessary for us to know. We are to keep our feet on the Rock Christ Jesus, as God revealed in humanity. - {5BC 1128.6} Satan represents God's law of love as a law of selfishness. He declares that it is impossible for us to obey its precepts. The fall of our first parents, with all the woe that has resulted, he charges upon the Creator, leading men to look upon God as the author of sin, and suffering, and death. Jesus was to unveil this deception. As one of us He was to give an example of obedience. For this He took upon Himself our nature, and passed through our experiences. "In all things it behooved Him to be made like unto His brethren." Heb 2:17. If we had to bear anything which Jesus did not endure, then upon this point Satan would represent the power of God as insufficient for us. Therefore Jesus was "in all points tempted like as we are." Heb 4:15. He endured every trial to which we are subject. And He exercised in His own behalf no power that is not freely offered to us. As man, He met temptation, and overcame in the strength given Him from God. He says, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God: yea, Thy law is within My heart." Ps 40:8. As He went about doing good, and healing all who were afflicted by Satan, He made plain to men the character of God's law and the nature of His service. His life testifies that it is possible for us also to obey the law of God. - {DA 24.2} Of the bitterness that falls to the lot of humanity, there was no part which Christ did not taste. There were those who tried to cast contempt upon Him because of His birth, and even in His childhood He had to meet their scornful looks and evil whisperings. If He had responded by an impatient word or look, if He had conceded to His brothers by even one wrong act, He would have failed of being a perfect example. Thus He would have failed of carrying out the plan for our redemption. Had He even admitted that there could be an excuse for sin, Satan would have triumphed, and the world would have been lost. This is why the tempter worked to make His life as trying as possible, that He might be led to sin. - {DA 88.2} It is impossible for man to know the strength of Satan's temptations to the Son of God. Every temptation that seems so afflicting to man in his daily life, so difficult to resist and overcome, was brought to bear upon the Son of God in as much greater degree as his excellence of character was superior to that of fallen man. - {Con 31.1} Christ was tempted in all points like as we are. As man's representative He stood the closest test and proving of God. He met the strongest force of Satan. His most wily temptations Christ has tested and conquered in behalf of man. It is impossible for man to be tempted above what he is able to bear while he relies upon Jesus, the infinite Conqueror. - {Con 31.2} There are wonderful, highly respected people who tell us, no, this cannot be. Christ could not have been tempted as we are, for there were no TVs in His day, no 31 Flavors, no vodka, no Masseratis, etc. But that idea fails to appreciate what the Bible says. Every temptation to sin that we can experience is directed at our primal love of self; and Christ knows every avenue of that appeal. Knowing how strong the temptation is, He sympathizes with us, but even that is not all. Mere sympathy and pity would not help. You can sympathize with your injured dog and pity him. But Christ "succors" us. His full-time job is saving us from yielding to temptation. We "come boldly," not timidly, in a prayer of faith to "obtain" that help. {Grace on Trial, 204, 205, Robert Wieland} Doubts come from the devil, and no man is so good that he is free from the suggestions of Satan. Even the Lord Himself had to bear them. He "was tempted in all points like as we are, yet without sin." Heb 4:15. The sin does not consist in the devil's whispering doubts in our ears, but in our acting upon them. This Christ did not do. {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 87} In every possible way Satan sought to prevent Jesus from developing a perfect childhood, a faultless manhood, a holy ministry, and an unblemished sacrifice. But he was defeated. He could not lead Jesus into sin. He could not discourage Him, or drive Him from the work He had come to this earth to do. From the desert to Calvary the storm of Satan's wrath beat upon Him, but the more mercilessly it fell, the more firmly did the Son of God cling to the hand of His Father, and press on in the blood-stained path (Manuscript 140, 1903). - {5BC 1130.1}

Heb 4:16 - come boldly - See Eph 3:12; Heb 10:19, 21, 22 Unlike earthly monarchs, who were known to execute at their discretion any who approached their throne unsolicited (Esther 4:15, 16, 5:1-3), Jesus bids us to come boldly to the throne of grace that we may obtain mercy from Him. Our boldness is not done in irreverent presumption, but in acknowledging His love for us, His identification and sympathy with our frail humanity, in trusting in His promise to abundantly pardon. Jesus mercifully holds out His scepter of righteousness (Heb 1:8) towards us and welcomes our petition for grace! THANK YOU LORD!!! Boldness and confidence is seen in: 1. All Things, whatsoever we ask in prayer, believing, we shall receive (Matt 21:22) 2. Peace Jesus leaves with us and gives to us, unlike what the world gives (Joh 14:27) And let not those who kneel round the family altar put their faces in their hands and in their chair when they address God. Let them lift up their heads and, with holy awe and boldness, come to the throne of grace. [8] - {AH 435.3} Let those who desire the blessing of God knock and wait at the door of mercy with firm assurance, saying, For Thou, O Lord, hast said, "Everyone that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened."(Thoughts from the Mount of Blessing, 131.) - {Pr 9.1}

Heb 4:16

Heb 4:16 - throne of grace - Kings sit upon thrones, therefore, Jesus sat down on His throne, next to the Father, as the King of Grace in His Kingdom of Grace (Rom 5:21; Joh 1:14). Contrast Mt 25:31, 32 As used in the Bible, the expression "kingdom of God" is employed to designate both the kingdom of grace and the kingdom of glory. The kingdom of grace is brought to view by Paul in the Epistle to the Heb. After pointing to Christ, the compassionate intercessor who is "touched with the feeling of our infirmities," the apostle says: "Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace." Heb 4:15, 16. The throne of grace represents the kingdom of grace; for the existence of a throne implies the existence of a kingdom. In many of His parables Christ uses the expression "the kingdom of heaven" to designate the work of divine grace upon the hearts of men. - {GC 346.4} The kingdom of grace was instituted immediately after the fall of man, when a plan was devised for the redemption of the guilty race. It then existed in the purpose and by the promise of God; and through faith, men could become its subjects. Yet it was not actually established until the death of Christ. Even after entering upon His earthly mission, the Saviour, wearied with the stubbornness and ingratitude of men, might have drawn back from the sacrifice of Calvary. In Gethsemane the cup of woe trembled in His hand. He might even then have wiped the blood-sweat from His brow and have left the guilty race to perish in their iniquity. Had He done this, there could have been no redemption for fallen men. But when the Saviour yielded up His life, and with His expiring breath cried out, "It is finished," then the fulfillment of the plan of redemption was assured. The promise of salvation made to the sinful pair in Eden was ratified. The kingdom of grace, which had before existed by the promise of God, was then established. - {GC 347.2}

Heb 4:16

Heb 4:16 - Obtain mercy - "give us this day our daily Bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors" Mt 6:11 The Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy and seeks to impart His forgiveness and blessings to His wayward children. See Jam 5:11 That is, secure forgiveness for sins (see on 1Jo 1:9). At the throne of judgment all will find strict justice untempered by mercy. The sinner's only hope is God's mercy, offered while probation lingers. {7BC}

Heb 4:16

Heb 4:16 - and find grace to help in time of need - "and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil" Mt 6:13

Heb 5:1

Heb 5:1 - For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins: - Every High Priest, chosen from among men by God (Heb 5:4) were ordained to minister and make intercession on behalf of men through gifts and sacrifices. See Lev 21:6-15

Heb 5:1

Heb 5:1 - gifts - offerings

Heb 5:2

Heb 5:2 - Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way - See 2Tim 2:24-26; Tit 1:9, 3:10, 11

Heb 5:2

Heb 5:2 - for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity - the priest is himself a man of infirmities (sin sickness) and can have compassion on the erring. See Heb 2:18

Heb 5:3

Heb 5:3 - And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. - Just as for the people, a sin offering must be offered for the High Priest himself. See Lev 16:5, 6

Heb 5:4

Heb 5:4 - And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron. - The calling of the High Priest is of God, Who Himself anoints him to the sacred office and work. This sacred office was to be entered into through much prayer and the counsels of God only. Ironically, in the time of Christ, the office had been relegated to a political role that was appointed by a governor. See Heb 5:7

Heb 5:5

Heb 5:5 - So also Christ glorified not Himself to be made an high priest - See Phil 2:6; Heb 5:6, 10

Heb 5:5

Heb 5:5 - but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee - Jesus did not take it upon Himself to be made High Priest, but was called by the same One Who declared Him to be His Son, begotten of Him. See Ps 2:7; Heb 4:14; Mt 3:17

Heb 5:6

Heb 5:6 - As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec - See Ps 110:4; Heb 4:14, 5:10, 6:20

Heb 5:7

Heb 5:7 - Who in the days of His flesh - Jesus became part of the human race, God became one with us in order to save us, Emmanuel. Isa 9:

Heb 5:7

Heb 5:7 - had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save Him from death - Jesus made petition and intercession for the people as a faithful High Priest (Lk 22:31, 32). He however, also petitioned His Father for another way to fulfill the Plan of Redemption, yet, He willingly submitted to His Father's will. His Father, Who too could have delivered His Son from the pain and anguish, would not for the sake of humanity. See Mt 26:39; Mk 14:36; Lk 22:42

Heb 5:7

Heb 5:7 - unto him that was able to save him from death - See John 10:17, 18 CONTRAST Mt 27:42; Mk 15:31; Lk 23:35

Heb 5:7

Heb 5:7 - from death - from death of sin - Eph 2:1; Rom 7:24

Heb 5:7

Heb 5:7 - and was heard in that he feared - Those that honor God by hearing and heeding His words, God will honor by hearing their prayers. See Joh 8:47, 11:41, 42 Compared Joh 9:31; Prov 1:22-31

Heb 5:7

Heb 5:7 - in that he feared - "..., He feared to trust the weakness of His flesh because He knew He would fall. So every morning, a great while before the time of need, He would agonize in prayer with 'strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death', not the death of the cross, but the death of sin. And He was heard." {Surrender, G. Jackson, pg 61}

Heb 5:8

Heb 5:8 - Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered - Jesus, though the exalted Son of God, learned obedience to God in His humanity through the trials of suffering: See 1Pet 2:20-24; Heb 2:10, 18 1. Self-denial: through fasting, Jesus learned to deny His carnal feelings and desires and submit Himself to prayer, meditation, and communion with God. This discipline He took throughout His ministry to endure hardship and temptation (Mt 4:1, 2) 2. Self-restraint: Jesus was continually tempted to exercise His divine prerogatives to deliver Himself or silence His opponents, yet He yielded to the Holy Spirit and would not allow Himself to be drawn into the temptation 3. Self-control: Jesus never spoke a harsh word, though others spoke roughly towards Him. Jesus always sought to bless, even when derided by His adversaries. (Mt 27:42) 4. Self-abasement: Jesus came to reveal the Father and not to glorify Himself. Jesus never took credit for any good, but pointed all to the Father, the giver of every good and perfect gift 5. Self-crucifixion: Jesus humbled Himself, submitted Himself to His Father's will, and crucified Himself before allowing others to crucify Him (Joh 10:17, 18; Mt 16:24, 25; Gal 2:20)

Heb 5:8

Heb 5:8 - by the things which he suffered - another aspect of Jesus' condemnation is that in His humiliation in partaking of humanity, he subjected Himself to suffering, something foreign to heaven. Heb 6:1

Heb 6:1 - Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God - leaving the fundamentals of the faith, the doctrine of Jesus Christ (including keeping the commandments), move upward to perfection or completeness in Christ through self-surrender and obedience. Heb 6:5 - and the powers of the world to come - See Eph 2:6; 2Pet 1:1-4; Tit 2:11-14

Heb 6:6 - If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. - Those who have been given such light and have willfully turned their backs against the light of truth would have grieved the Holy Spirit. See Ps 85:8; Prov 26:11; 2Pet 2:22; Heb 10:26 Apostasy: An abandonment of what one has professed; a total desertion of, or departure from, one's faith, principles, or party.

Heb 6:6

Heb 6:6 - fall away - to all away is to cease to abide in God, to reject Jesus' power to keep us from falling; to abandon and lose sight of the commandments of God; to turn back to the weak and beggarly works of the flesh and even self-righteousness. John 15:6||Isa 27:11; Jude 1:24; Hosea 4:1-6; Gal 4:9

Heb 6:6

Heb 6:6 - seeing they crucify to themselves - those who willfully turn and reject the light granted to them are as the Jews who when asked "What then shall I do with this Jesus of Nazareth" reply "Crucify Him, give us Barabbas, we have no king but Caesar!" They of and for themselves, cast Jesus aside.

Heb 6:7

Heb 6:7, 8 - For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God: But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned - See 2Tim 2:20

Heb 6:7

Heb 6:7 - the rain that cometh oft upon it - the Holy Spirit that moves often upon God's people in the early and latter rains, both to will and to do of His good pleasure. See Joh 3:5-8; Jer 14:22; Zech 10:1; Phil 2:13

Heb 6:7

Heb 6:7 - and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God - we, as good ground bring forth pleasant herbs, a blessing to the One Who has sown them. See Mk 4:8, 20; Jam 5:7

Heb 6:7

Heb 6:7 - receiveth blessing from God - We, as good ground upon which the rains of the Holy Spirit falls upon often, causing us to bring forth good fruit, receive blessings from the Lord.

Heb 6:8

Heb 6:8 - But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned - those who bring forth thorns and briars, causing hurt and pain to others, are rejected and are given to cursing, to be burned. See Isa 5:1-4, 27:4

Heb 6:8

Heb 6:8 - whose end is to be burned - The fate of briers and thorns, the rebellious among Adventism is the flames. See Isa 9:18, 10:17, 27:4

Heb 6:9

Heb 6:9 - But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak - Paul has confidence in the faith of the Hebrew believers, that they will take part in the blessed hope of salvation, despite his warnings and admonitions.

Heb 6:10

Heb 6:10 - For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister - God is a Righteous Judge and will not forget the works of godly service we render to edify the body of Christ. God is faithful to recompense justly. See Eph 4:11, 12, 6:21; Mal 3:16; Ps 37:28; Heb 10:23, 35-39; Ps 126:6; 1Pet 4:19; 1Cor 15:58; Gal 5:6; CONTRAST Isa 57:12

Heb 6:12

Heb 6:12 - That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises - See Heb 11:4-40, 12:1, 2; Ps 37:37

Heb 6:13

Heb 6:13 - For when God made promise to Abraham - See Gen 22:15-18; 12:1-3, 15:1-6

Heb 6:13

Heb 6:13 - because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself - So it was in the giving of the Everlasting Covenant (Gen 3:15), God gave a promise based on His own fidelity and goodness. Similarly, in reconfirming the Everlasting Covenant to Abraham, God vowed upon His Own life to fulfill His promises by passing through the sacrifices Himself. See Gen 15:12-18; Rev 10:6; Dan 12:7

Heb 6:14

Heb 6:14 - Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee - See Gen 22:17, 12:2

Heb 6:15

Heb 6:15 - And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise - Abraham waited 25 years as an older person, to receive the promise of an heir, born of his and Sarah's body. God is showing that the faithful must be willing to endure delay patiently, trusting that God will fulfill His promises when the timing is best. See Rom 4:13; Heb 10:35-39

Heb 6:16

Heb 6:16 - For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife - Men swear by One Who is Greater than themselves, binding themselves by the oath and the assurance that they will make good on their word, lest they be held accountable to the One Who is Greater. This act of oath taking usually ends contention, strife and debate as the one has pledged himself to honor his word.

Heb 6:17

Heb 6:17 - Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath: - God once again condescends to affirm and assure the heirs of promise His steadfastness and faithfulness by making an oath. God is not One Who should lie nor repent of the things that have gone forth from His mouth. And yet, God gives us this added assurance in humility. What a Wonderful Savior! See Num 23:19; 1Sam 15:29

Heb 6:17

Heb 6:17 - the immutability of his counsel - the words which the LORD speaks will accomplish what they set forth. God does not change. See Isa 55:11; Mal 3:6; Heb 13:8; Num 23:19; Jam 1:17

Heb 6:18

Heb 6:18 - That by two immutable things - an oath was given by God (swearing by Himself, upon Himself) to give strong consolation that God's counsels are first immutable and secondly that God can not lie. See Rev 10:5, 6

Heb 6:18

Heb 6:17 - in which it was impossible for God to lie - See Num 23:19; 1Jo 1:5

Heb 6:18

Heb 6:18 - we might have a strong consolation - we may have strong comfort, alleviation of misery or distress of mind; refreshment of mind and spirit through God's oath and the fact that He can not lie. God desires that we be anxious for nothing but through prayer, supplication, thanksgiving receive His abiding peace. See Phil 4:6, 7

Heb 6:18

Heb 6:18 - consolation - meaning comfort, alleviation of misery or distress of mind; refreshment of mind and spirit.

Heb 6:18

Heb 6:18 - who have fled for refuge - we flee for refuge in the Most Holy Place of the sanctuary, where we have a great High Priest Who can succor us. See Ps 46:1; Heb 2:18, 6:20; Prov 18:10; Isa 33:16 When it is in the heart to obey God, when efforts are put forth to this end, Jesus accepts this disposition and effort as man's best service, and He makes up for the deficiency with His own divine merit. But He will not accept those who claim to have faith in Him, and yet are disloyal to His Father's commandment. We hear a great deal about faith, but we need to hear a great deal more about works. Many are deceiving their own souls by living an easygoing, accommodating, crossless religion. But Jesus says, "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me."—The Signs of the Times, June 16, 1890. - {1SM 382.2}

Heb 6:19

Heb 6:19 - Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast - the hope in God's promise to have a people who will perfectly reflect the character of Jesus Christ (Gen 3:15||12:1-3), is guaranteed by His immutable oath and the fact that He can not lie serves as an anchor to our soul, steadfast and sure while the billows roll, fastened to the Rock which can not move, grounded firm and deep in the Savior's love. See Rom 8:24, 5:1-5; Titus 2:11, 12; Col 1:25-29; 1Pet 4:13; Isa 60:1-3; Rev 18:1; Hymn 534 - Will Your Anchor Hold? Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 415.5}

Heb 6:19

Heb 6:19, 20 - and which entereth into that within the veil; Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec - The intercession of Christ in man's behalf in the sanctuary above is as essential to the plan of salvation as was His death upon the cross. By His death He began that work which after His resurrection He ascended to complete in heaven. We must by faith enter within the veil, "whither the forerunner is for us entered." Heb 6:20. There the light from the cross of Calvary is reflected. There we may gain a clearer insight into the mysteries of redemption.

The salvation of man is accomplished at an infinite expense to heaven; the sacrifice made is equal to the broadest demands of the broken law of God. Jesus has opened the way to the Father's throne, and through His mediation the sincere desire of all who come to Him in faith may be presented before God. - {GC 489.1}

Heb 6:20 - Whither the forerunner is for us entered - Jesus, as the Firstfruit of the Resurrection and our Elder Brother, is also our Forerunner in entering in behind the veil to make petitions for us. We must follow Him by faith within the veil, where we receive atonement and eternal righteousness, the blotting out of sins. The way into the Most Holy was made available after October 22, 1844. Jesus is also our Forerunner in preparing a kingdom for us to inhabit and share with Him. See Dan 8:14; Joh 14:2, 3, 13:36; Heb 9:24-26

Melchizedek = "my king is Sedek" Sedek - tsedeq Noun Masculine tseh'-dek from (06663) from ; the right (natural, moral or legal); also (abstractly) equity or (figuratively) prosperity:--X even, (X that which is altogether) just(-ice), ((un-))right(-eous) (cause, -ly, -ness). justice, rightness, righteousness what is right or just or normal, rightness, justness (of weights and measures) righteousness (in government) of judges, rulers, kings of law of Davidic king, Messiah of Jerusalem as seat of just government of God's attribute righteousness, justice (in case or cause) rightness (in speech) righteousness (as ethically right) righteousness (as vindicated), justification (in controversy), deliverance, victory, prosperity of God as covenant-keeping in redemption in name of Messianic king of people enjoying salvation of Cyrus

Heb 7:1 - King of Salem - meaning King or Ruler of Peace (see Heb 7:2), Melchizedek was a type of Jesus Christ who was both a king and priest - See Isa 9:6; Ps 110:4

Heb 7:1

Heb 7:1 - priest of the most high God - See Ps 110:4

Heb 7:1

Heb 7:1 - returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him - See Gen 14:1-17

Heb 7:2

Heb 7:2 - To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all - See Gen 14:18-20; Heb 7:4

Heb 7:2

Heb 11:2 - King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace - Abraham gave tithes to Melchizedek ; the Melchizedek priesthood is a priesthood by which righteousness and peace come; it is the priesthood by which we are saved.”

Heb 7:3

Heb 7:3 - Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life - the Biblical record gives no account or mention of Melchizedek's lineage and yet he was King and Prince of Salem, a foreshadowing of Jesus Christ.

Heb 7:4

Heb 7:4 - Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils - Abraham honored Melchizedek with a tenth of the spoils he gained from his warfare, paying homage to God and to this man as a priest of God. Melchizedek, as a type of Christ, being both king and priest of Salem [Peace and Righteousness], establishes that Abraham was also a Christian. Gen 14:18-20; Heb 7:2 But the main point with reference to Melchizedek, is that Abraham lived under the same “dispensation” that we do. The priesthood was the same then as now. Not only are we the children of Abraham, if we are of faith, but our great High Priest, who is passed into the heavens, is by the oath of God made an High Priest for ever, “if we are Christs, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.” “You father Abraham rejoiced to see My day, and he saw it, and was glad.” John 10:56 {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 59}

Heb 7:5

Heb 7:5 - And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham - See Deut 14:22; Prov 3:9, 10; 1Chron 29:14

Heb 7:5

Heb 7:5 - though they come out of the loins of Abraham - the Levites, who come from the loins of Abraham, are to take tithes of all others who too come from the loins of Abraham as a statute. Melchizedek who was not of Abraham's loins took tithes of Abraham (and Levi).

Heb 7:6

Heb 7:6 - But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises - Melchizedek, who is not of the descent of the Levites, received tithes of Abraham and blessed Abraham, to whom the promises of God were conveyed. See Gen 12:1-3; 15:1-6

Heb 7:6

Heb 7:6 - and blessed him that had the promises - See Gen 12:1-3, 15:1-6; Gal 3:29

Heb 7:8

Heb 7:8 - of whom it is witnessed that he liveth - See 1Cor 15:5, 6

Heb 7:9

Heb 7:9, 10 - And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham. 10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him. - by the principle set forth in these verses, we too can claim the good works of Jesus Christ as we by faith, claim to be in Christ and to have become aligned with His ministry as the Second Adam. See 2Cor 5:19; 1Cor 15:21-23, 45-49; Gal 3:26-29; 2Tim 1:3 As God imputes and imparts His righteousness to us, it is because of the aforementioned principle. God sees Christ in us and our lives are hid in Christ (Col 3:3) and thus, His righteousness is credited to us. The paying of tithes is not of the Leviticus priesthood, but predates it Abraham when he paid tithes to Melchizedek

Heb 7:11

Heb 7:11 - If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) - the Levitical priesthood, which was established by the Law of Moses was insufficient to bring about perfection (spiritual maturity) since it, like the law, was merely a school tutor, designed to bring us to light and love of Jesus Christ. See Heb 7:19

Heb 7:11

Heb 7:10 - after the order of Melchisedec - Melchisedec was a priest from an unknown order (not of Levi) that pre-exists the Lev order ordained by God under the Laws of Moses. Melchisedec, who has no known lineage, no personal beginning or end according to the Biblical record, is a fitting type of the High Priestly ministry of Jesus Christ. See Heb 7:3

Heb 7:12

Heb 7:12 - For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law - as the priesthood, which was established by the Law was changed, so the law itself must be changed. A new order must be established both in priesthood and in law. Out is the law of sin and death and in is the law of grace, righteousness and the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus. See Rom 8:2, 6:14, 15

Heb 7:13

Heb 7:13 - For He of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe - Jer also bore witness of the coming Redeemer as a Prince of the house of David: "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. In His days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is His name whereby He shall be called, The Lord Our Righteousness." And again: "Thus saith the Lord: David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel; neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before Me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually." Jer 23:5, 6; 33:17, 18. - {AA 223.3}

Heb 7:14

Heb 7:14 - For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood - See Gen 49:10; Rev 5:5

Heb 7:15

Heb 7:15 - And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest - Just like Melchisedek, there arises another priesthood.

Heb 7:16

Heb 7:18 - but after the power of an endless life - See 1Tim 6:15, 16; 1Cor 15:45-47; Heb 7:24; Rom 8:2

Heb 7:17

Heb 7:17 - For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec - Jesus' priesthood establishes peace and righteousness. See Psa 110:4

Heb 7:18

Heb 7:18 - For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment - the disannulling is of the ceremonial laws and ordinances that specified the priestly and sanctuary services. See Eph 2:15; Rom 8:3

Heb 7:18

Heb 7:18 - for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof - the weakness and unprofitableness is seen in the following: 1. The ones officiating over the priesthood were temporal and perished - Heb 7:23 2. The law and associated priesthood were incapable of bring forth perfection in those ministering and being ministered to - Heb 7:11, 19 3. The former priesthood was established without an oath or promise of everlasting blessings

Heb 7:19

Heb 7:19 - For the law made nothing perfect - the Law was never intended to make anything perfect, it was merely to be a mirror to reveal sin in the life (Rom 3:20, 7:7; Gal 3:24). The Law was powerless to make anything perfect. That is why Jesus Christ came, to fulfill all righteousness and to impute and impart His righteous life to all who will accept and believe by faith. See Heb 7:11

Heb 7:19

Heb 7:19 - but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God - the new priesthood, the new law and the new hope has done what the law was never intended to do, nor could do. The everlasting ministry of Jesus Christ, established upon better promises and an oath by He Who changes not and Who can not lie, is the better hope we have. See Heb 7:8, 16, 21, 22

Heb 7:19

Heb 7:19 - by the which we draw nigh unto God - we are reconciled to the Father and draw nigh unto Him through the blood and ministration of Jesus' eternal priesthood. See 2Cor 5:18-21

Heb 7:20

Heb 7:20 - And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest: - See Heb 7:28

Heb 7:21

Heb 7:21 - but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent - contrasting the Levitical priesthood with that of Christ, the Levites were ordained High Priest by men through the Law, whereas Jesus was ordained eternal High Priest by oath of God. See Heb 7:28

Heb 7:21

Heb 7:21 - The Lord swears and will not repent - God swears and will not withdraw, nor regret having made His vow. God did not repent of making man after seeing how we corrupted ourselves. See Num 23:19 Compare Gen 6:6

Heb 7:21

Heb 7:21 - Thou art a priest forever - Jesus' priesthood is superior to that of Levi and like that of Melchisedec in that: 1. Jesus, like Melchisedec has an unchangeable priesthood with not succession or series like Melchisedec 2. Jesus' priesthood is superior to Levi's (Aaron's) in that Levi blessed and paid tithes to Melchisedec through his forefather Abraham. See Heb 7:1, 7, 9, 10 3. Jesus is both King and Priest, being born of the tribe of Judah and ordained a priest of His Father by an oath, after the order of Melchisedec. See Heb 7:14, 21 4. In that His priesthood continues forever, He is able to "perfect forever" and "save them to the uttermost" all who come to Him

Heb 7:21

Heb 7:21 - order - meaning succession or series. Melchisedec had no beginning or end and therefore Jesus' eternal priesthood follows after the same order. See Heb 7:24

Heb 7:22

Heb 7:22 - By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament - Jesus was made a Guarantor of a better promise, everlasting righteousness.

Heb 7:22

Heb 7:22 - surety - Guarantor; Guarantee, Certainty; indubitableness; Jesus became a hostage in our place, paying our ransom.

Heb 7:24

Heb 7:24 - But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood - See Heb 7:16, 18, 28

Heb 7:25

Heb 7:25 - Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him - The third angel's message is the proclamation of the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus Christ. The commandments of God have been proclaimed, but the faith of Jesus Christ has not been proclaimed by Seventh-day Adventists as of equal importance, the law and the gospel going hand in hand. I cannot find language to express this subject in its fullness. - {3SM 172.2} "The faith of Jesus." It is talked of, but not understood. What constitutes the faith of Jesus, that belongs to the third angel's message? Jesus becoming our sin-bearer (Rom 5:10) that he might become our sin-pardoning Saviour. He was treated as we deserve to be treated. He came to our world and took our sins that we might take his righteousness. And faith in the ability of Christ to save us amply and fully and entirely is the faith of Jesus. - {3SM 172.3} - See Ps 138:8; 2Cor 3:5;

Heb 7:25

Heb 7:25 - come unto God by him - See Joh 14:6

Heb 7:25

Heb 7:25 - seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them - Jesus' eternal ministry as High Priest after the order of Melchizedek (Heb 5:4-10), is able to save to the uttermost all who come to Him by faith. Jesus' eternal ministry makes provision for our sins, long before we committed them and for eternity. See Heb 7:24, 2:14-18; Rom 8:26, 34

Heb 7:26

Heb 7:26 - separate from sinners - Jesus is the Perfect and Spotless Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world. He, unlike the Levitical priests need not offer up sacrifices for Himself because He is separate from sin. See Heb 7:27

Heb 7:27

Heb 7:27 - Who needeth not daily - Unlike the earthly priests who needed daily to present sacrifices of blood for the atonement of the nation, Jesus, with His own blood, offered up once and for all payment for the sins of the world (see Rom 6:10). This verse negates the interpretation of "the daily" in Dan 8:12 being Jesus' High Priestly ministry. According to this verse, He need not offer up daily as the Levitical priests.

Heb 7:27

Heb 7:27 - Unlike the earthly priests who needed daily to present sacrifices of blood for the atonement of the nation, Jesus, with His own blood, offered up once and for all payment for the sins of the world (see Rom 6:10). This verse negates the interpretation of "the daily" in Dan 8:12 being Jesus High Priestly ministry. According to this verse, He need not offer up daily as the Levitical priests.

Heb 7:27

Heb 7:27 - for this He did once, when He offered up Himself - See Num 20:8-12; Rom 6:9, 10; Heb 9:28, 10:10; 1Pet 3:18; Joh 10:17, 18

Heb 7:28

Heb 7:28 - high priests which have infirmity - mortal men who are defiled, cause harm, unholy, are sinners and conduct themselves according to the ways of this world (earthly), thus needing to offer up sacrifices for themselves before they offer up sacrifices for the people. See Heb 7:27

Heb 7:28

Heb 7:28 - but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore - the oath of God (Heb 7:21) makes Jesus, the Son High Priest, Who is consecrated with an eternal priesthood. See Heb 7:24, 25

Heb 8:1

Heb 8:1 - We have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens - See Heb 1:3, 4:14, 7:26, 10:12; Rom 8:34

Heb 8:1

Heb 8:1 - right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens - Jesus, like Melchizedek, is both a High Priest and a King in that He is a Priest by an oath of God, without beginning nor end, and He sits on a throne and rules with His Father.

Heb 8:2

Heb 8:2 - sanctuary - (Hagion, Holies) the sanctuary of the New Covenant, established on better promises. See Heb 8:6; Ex 15:17

Heb 8:2

Heb 8:2 - the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man - the true tabernacle was pitched, not by men, but by God. See Ex 25:8, 9; Heb 8:5, 11:10; Rev 21:22; Zech 6:12, 13

Heb 8:3

Heb 8:3 - For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer - Jesus, a High Priest of a higher order than the Levitical priesthood in that His priesthood is eternal and is established by an oath of God offers Himself, a Sacrifice for sin and Himself, a perpetual Gift to humanity and of an eternal Priesthood, Minister, and Mediator of the gospel. See Joh 3:16

Heb 8:4

Heb 8:4 - For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law: - Jesus would not be an earthly priest because the Levitical Law establishes others, of the tribe of Levi to fulfill that role. See Heb 7:11-16

Heb 8:5

Heb 8:5 - Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things - priests on earth, as actors, serve of the example and shadow of heavenly things. The true tabernacle in heaven bears the actual articles and is where the true service by the True High Priest is performed. See Col 2:17; Heb 10:1

Heb 8:5

Heb 8:5 - for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount - See Ex 25:9

Heb 8:6

Heb 8:6 - He is the Mediator of a better covenant - Jesus mediates on behalf of the human race before an offended law. His mediation must continue until all sin has been put away by His people. When this is completed then He will stand up and dawn His Kingly garments. His Priesthood nevertheless remains forever, as He will present gifts (Himself and the redeemed) forever. See Mt 26:26-29; Joh 6:55, 56; Rev 22:11; Dan 12:1; Jer 31:31-34

Heb 8:6

Heb 8:6 - which was established upon better promises - Jesus, our Living Hope, ordained a High Priest by an oath of God Who changes not and can not lie, is the foundation of the better promises upon which our faith and confidence is based. The better promises are founded upon His eternal priesthood, where He ever lives to make intercession for us. See 1Pet 1:3; Heb 7:16, 22-28; Jer 31:31-34

Heb 8:7

Heb 8:7 - For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second - See Ex 19:8; Rom 8:3; Deut 31:16, 20; Jer 31:31, 32

Heb 8:8

Heb 8:8 - For finding fault with them - the fault in the Old Covenant was not the promises made by God but the response of men and their failure to live up to the covenant they established with God. See Ex 19:1-6

Heb 8:8

Heb 8:8 - Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah: - See Jer 31:31-34

Heb 8:9

Heb 8:9 - Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord - See Ex 19:3-8

Heb 8:9

Heb 8:9 - because they continued not in my covenant - The COI rejected God's Everlasting Covenant, restated in Ex 19:3-6 in exchange for the Old covenant which they established in Ex 19:8

Heb 8:10

Heb 8:10 - For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people: - The New Covenant (Law of Faith) is nothing more than an explicit restatement of the Everlasting Covenant (Gen 3:15) spoken from the Garden of Eden which Abel and the other patriarchs embraced by the faith of Jesus Christ. See Jer 31:31-34; Ezek 36:26, 27; Rom 3:27; Heb 11:4

Heb 8:10

Heb 8:10 - I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts - when God puts the law in our mind and writes them upon our hearts, it is then and only then, that the first great commandment can be kept, to love the Lord with all the heart, soul, mind, and strength. See Mt 22:38; Rom 7:22

Heb 8:12

Heb 8:12 - For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more - God will show mercy to those who strive for the mastery and yet fall short. God promises to be merciful where we sin and fall short of the glory of God (Rom 3:23) and will cast our sins into the sea of forgetfulness. See Mic 7:18-20; Jer 31:31-34; Ps 23:6

Heb 8:12

Heb 8:12 - and their iniquities will I remember no more - this speaks of the blotting out of sins and the sealing of God's people. He will no longer remember our sins and neither will we. Praise God! See Ps 32:1, 5, 6, 103:12; Isa 43:25; Heb 10:17

Heb 8:13

Heb 8:13 - In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away - the Old Covenant based on men's merits and the related Laws of Moses consisting of types, services that were added because of sin, are passing away, being superseded by the New Covenant, based on better promises. See Ex 19:8; Gal 3:19; Heb 8:6;

Heb 8:13

Heb 8:13 - made the first old - See Ex 19:3-8; Heb 8:7

Heb 9:1

Heb 9:1 - Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service - The Lord marked out divine services and ordinances to be performed annually by the priests and the people of Israel under the Old Covenant (Ex 19:1-8). See Lev 23:4-37

Heb 9:1

Heb 9:1 - and a worldly sanctuary - the worldly sanctuary was modeled after the heavenly sanctuary, shown to Moses by God. See Ex 25:8

Heb 9:2

Heb 9:2 - the first - the first apartment of the tabernacle.

Heb 9:2

Heb 9:2 - the candlestick - Jesus is the Light of the World and the Light of every man's life. See Joh 1:9, 8:12, 9:5, 12:46

Heb 9:3

Heb 9:3 - And after the second veil - beyond the veil of the inner court.

Heb 9:4

Heb 9:4 - golden censer - a receptacle for the incense to create a cloud over the Ark and Mercy Seat. The incense represents Christ's forgiveness which permits us to entree into the Most Holy Place

Heb 9:4

Heb 9:4 - golden pot that had manna - See Ex 16:34 Manna, angel's food that was fed to the COI for 40yrs during their wilderness sojourn, was memorialized in the Ark of the Covenant. It served as: 1. A symbol of God's daily provision for His people (Ex 16:4-9; Mt 6:11) 2. A call to health reform among a people who had developed perverted appetites while dwelling in Egypt [the world] (Deut 7:15, 4:5-9; Lk 24:42, 43||Mt 26:26) 3. A message of health temperance where the COI were only to eat that which they needed, they were not to store up any additional manna lest it spoil. This was to test their faith in God's daily provision 4. The manna may have been given with God's intention to soon bring the COI into the heavenly promised land were it not for their unbelief (1Cor 10:1-6, 11). 5. Just as the manna fell from heaven upon the earth, so the Living Bread, Jesus, came down from heaven to walk upon the earth 6. A reminder of the Sabbath and its hollowed nature (Ex 16:22-30)

Heb 9:4

Heb 9:4- Aaron's rod that budded - was placed in the Ark of the Covenant as a memorial of the priesthood that the LORD had established by His own choosing among the tribes of Israel (Num 17:1-10; Deut 10:8). The Sons of Levi typify the faithful throughout time: 1. Who do not bow to the Image of the Beast (Ex 32:1-28; Rev 15:2-4) 2. Who are a holy priesthood unto the LORD, ministering to others on His behalf - See 1Pet 2:9; Isa 60:1-4 3. Who behold the glory of the LORD and whose sins are purged - those with clean hands and a pure heart (Isa 6:1-7; Mal 3:3, 4; Ps 24:4) 4. Who blossom and bud out, providing fruit of righteousness to be beheld and partaken of by the world. See Isa 27:6

Heb 9:4

Heb 9:4 - the tables of the covenant - the covenant of which the tables represent is the Everlasting Covenant spoken in the Garden of Eden, written on tables at Sinai and reconfirmed in the heart and flesh of Jesus Christ (Heb 8:6-13, 9:11-23, 10:1-9; Jer 31:31-34). The testimony, another name for the tables of the covenant, is God's Self-declaration of His Own character (testimony of Jesus Christ - the Spirit of Prophecy), written in tables of stone. The covenant inscribed on tables were marital vows God made to humanity and humanity in turn makes to God as God writes the laws upon the tables of the heart. See Ex 20:1-17; 34:1-10; Jer 31:31-34 The commandments of God are a wall of protection around God's people to protect them from corruption - See Zech 2:4, 5

Heb 9:5

Heb 9:5 - cherubims of glory shadowing the mercy seat - the cherub angels atop of the mercy seat symbolize the hosts of angels that steadfastly behold God's merciful works in the plan of redemption. See 1Pet 1:12

Heb 9:5

Heb 9:6 - of which we cannot now speak particularly - Paul may not have been able to speak more on the topic perhaps because of the dullness of understanding on the part of the listeners? Heb 5:11-14

Heb 9:6

Heb 9:6 - Now when these things were thus ordained - Now when these things were thus ordained - when the tabernacle was completed, consecrated and commissioned for service.

Heb 9:6

Heb 9:6 - the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God - the daily (ha tamiyd) services are here referenced.

Heb 9:7

Heb 9:7 - But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people: - See Lev 16; Heb 9:25-27

Heb 9:8

Heb 9:8 - The Holy Ghost this signifying - For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost (2Pet 1:21)

Heb 9:8

Heb 9:8 - the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest while as the first tabernacle was yet standing - the true ministration in the Most Holy Place (the blotting out of sins and the perfecting of God's people) was not made manifest while the first tabernacle stood. God takes away the first to establish the second. See Heb 10:9; See 1Cor 15:

Heb 9:8

Heb 9:8 - holiest - literally interpreted in the Greek as “the way of the holy places”, which speaks of the two compartments of the heavenly sanctuary. See Heb 9:24; Ex 26

Heb 9:9

Heb 9:9 - Which was a figure for the time then present - the way in to the heavenly was not established until God took away the services of the shadow, the earthly. The shadow and the true can not coexist.

Heb 9:9

Heb 9:9 - that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience - the sacrifices and services could not purifying and atone for sin. In God's forbearance He did not impute our sins towards us but withheld them in order to place them on the head of His Son. See Rom 3:25; Heb 10:1

Heb 9:9

Heb 9:9 - perfect - to make complete, mature, sound, whole

Heb 9:9

Heb 9:9 - conscience - meaning “to know with”. To have knowledge with someone or our own selves. Knowledge with God allows us to function properly; an ability to appreciate/assess my own thinking. This speaks of the “spirit of a man” (1 Cor 2:11), that is able to evaluate ourselves. We are not merely a body and thoughts. Just because we think something, doesn't make it right. This is where the conscience or spirit of a man helps us to assess where we stand in light of God and the light He has shed upon us. How do you give a person their honor/dignity back when taken? How do you give back a broken heart? The cross of Christ allows God to silence the tapes, the recordings, the images and experiences in our mind. God can heal the things we have broken. Jesus died to give men a knowledge again WITH God

Heb 9:10

Heb 9:10 - Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances - the figure of the true was to be conducted through meats, drinks, divers washings, and ordinances. See Heb 9:9; Rom 9:4

Heb 9:10

Heb 9:10 - the time of reformation - the time when the types and ordinances would meet antitype and their fulfillment. Heb 1:1-3, 8:1, 2

Heb 9:11

Heb 9:11 - But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come - See Ps 110:4; Heb 5:6, 7:11-17, 21; Num 23:19

Heb 9:11

Heb 9:11 - by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building - See Zech 6:12, 13; 1Pet 2:4-8

Heb 9:11

Heb 9:11 - that is to say, not of this building - not of the form of building made with man's hands.

Heb 9:12

Heb 9:12 - but by his own blood - We must put on Christ, our Best and Greatest Friend in order to be acceptable to the Father.

Heb 9:12

Heb 9:12 - He entered in once into the holy place - At Christ's ascension, He entered the Holy Place of the heavenly tabernacle and sat down at the right hand of God. This is contrasted with the daily offerings made by the earthly priests (Heb 9:6). - See Heb 1:3; Act 2:33; Rom 8:34; Col 1:1; Heb 8:1, 9:11, 12, 10:12, 12:1; Rev 3:21; Eph 1:20; Mt 26:64; Mk 16:19; Lk 22:69

Heb 9:12

Heb 9:12 - having obtained eternal redemption for us - See Heb 1:3; 2:14-18

Heb 9:13

Heb 9:13 - For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh - See Lev 16; Num 19

Heb 9:14

Heb 9:14 - How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? - See 1Jo 1:7; Heb 12:24

Heb 9:14

Heb 9:14 - offered himself without spot to God - See Joh 10:17, 18; Mt 26:42

Heb 9:14

Heb 9:14 - purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God - Our consciences are purged by believing in Him who justifies the ungodly and imparts His Holy Spirit to us, burning off the dross and impurities in our lives. See Act 15:8, 9; 1Tim 1:5; 2Tim 2:22; Gal 3:14

Heb 9:15

Heb 9:15 - And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament - Jesus as High Priest and Mediator of the New Testament, acquits those who were called and received His redemption under the Old Covenant. See 1Tim 2:5; Mt 26:28; Mk 14:24; Lk 22:20; 1Cor 11:25; 2Cor 3:6; Heb 12:24

Heb 9:15

Heb 9:15 - for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament - Jesus' death made reconciliation for all who transgressed under the Old Covenant. God' forbore their sins and placed the guilt upon Christ.

Heb 9:15

Heb 9:15 - they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance - See Eph 1:10-13

Heb 9:16

Heb 9:16 - For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator - Where there is a [Will] and Testament, this can only go into effect with the death of the testator. See Heb 9:17; Joh 12:50

Heb 9:17

Heb 9:17 - For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth - a [will and] testament has no effect and can be altered while the person, the testator is alive. Therefore, Jesus spoke His New Testament in anticipation of His death, marking its going into effect. See Mt 26:26-28

Heb 9:18

Heb 9:18 - Whereupon - upon which; by this

Heb 9:18

Heb 9:18 - Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood - the Old [First] Covenant was accordingly ratified by the death of the Testator, symbolized proleptically (Rom 4:17) through the blood of oxen sprinkled upon the books of the covenant [testament of Jesus Christ] written by Moses, and upon the people. See Ex 24:3-8

Heb 9:19

Heb 9:19 - For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people - See Ex 24:4-8

Heb 9:20

Heb 9:22 - This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you - this the blood of the covenant that God has ordered, urged, commanded of you. See Gen 3:21, 4:3-5; Ex 12:

Heb 9:21

Heb 9:21 - Moses purified and consecrated all the articles in the temple with blood. So, too, the Heavenly was consecrated by the blood of Christ, once and for all. See Heb 9:12

Heb 9:22

Heb 9:22 - And almost all things are by the law purged with blood - the sanctuary with the record of our sins, our consciences filled with dead works.

Heb 9:22

Heb 9:22 - without shedding of blood is no remission - we are cleansed through the shed blood of Jesus. There is no forgiveness without shedding of blood. Gen 4:3-5 The offering of Cain was an offense to God, because it was a Christless offering. {GW 162.2} The principle that man can save himself by his own works lay at the foundation of every heathen religion; it had now become the principle of the Jewish religion. Satan had implanted this principle. Wherever it is held, men have no barrier against sin. - {DA 35.2}

Heb 9:22

Heb 9:22 - remission - Release; discharge or relinquishment of a claim or right; as the remission of a tax or duty.

Heb 9:23

Heb 9:23 - It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these - it was essential that the pattern of the earthly sanctuary shown to Moses (Ex 25:8), must also of necessity be purified as was the tabernacle in the wilderness. See Ex 24:4-8

Heb 9:23

Heb 9:23 - but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these - the heavenly was to be purified by better sacrifices than that of bulls and goats.

Heb 9:24

Heb 9:24 - For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true - Christ did not ascend to a sanctuary of two holy places, made with [man's] hands, as the sanctuary in the wilderness, which was a figure/type of the actual sanctuary in heaven. See Heb 8:2, 9:8, 12, 24, 10:19 After His ascension, our Saviour was to begin His work as our High Priest. Says Paul, "Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us." Heb 9:24. As Christ's ministration was to consist of two great divisions, each occupying a period of time and having a distinctive place in the heavenly sanctuary, so the typical ministration consisted of two divisions, the daily and the yearly service, and to each a department of the tabernacle was devoted. - {CCh 347.6}

Heb 9:24

Heb 9:24 - but into heaven itself - See Ps 102:19; Heb 6:20

Heb 9:24

Heb 9:25 - now to appear in the presence of God for us - Jesus ever lives to make prayers and intercessions for us to His Father. See Heb 7:25; Rom 8:34, 26

Heb 9:25

Heb 9:25 - Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others - Jesus was not to offer Himself continually, a sacrifice for sin as the earthly high priests ministered daily and annually, for if so He would have had to suffer constantly from the foundation of the world. This is however, the messaging and symbolism in Catholicism and the occult, that Jesus continually suffers for sin and is thus always portrayed as hanging upon the cross. See Heb 9:7, 26, 28

Heb 9:26

Heb 9:26 - For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself - the Catholic communion is sacrilege, not only in its assertion that the consuming of the bread and wine are literally eating of the transfigured body and blood of Jesus Christ, a feat of cannibalism, but further, that Jesus is crucified afresh with each communion service which clearly goes against Scripture. See Mt 26:26-28

Heb 9:26

Heb 9:26 - suffered since the foundation of the world - Jesus' atonement precedes the foundation of the world and goes to the end of time.

Heb 9:27

Heb 9:27 - And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment - See 2Cor 5:10; Rom 14:10

Heb 9:28

Heb 9:28 - So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many - Jesus became sin, accursed, so that He might free us from the curse (Gal 3:13). Jesus' sacrifice is sufficient to cover the sins of the world once and for all. See Num 20:8-12; Heb 7:27, 9:25, 26, 10:10, 12 The false Catholic doctrine of the Eucharist and transubstantiation perpetuates the sacrifice of Christ indefinitely, where His flesh and body are continually being offered up as a sacrifice for sin.

Heb 9:28

Heb 9:28 - and unto them that look for him shall he appear - Christ is come once again in the flesh for those who look for the glorious appearing of Jesus Christ - See 1Pet 4:13; Titus 2:11-15; 1Jo 4:1-3 CONTRAST Mt 24:48 Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 4:15.5}

Heb 9:28

Heb 9:28 - shall He appear - See 1Jo 3:2; Tit 2:13

Heb 9:28

Heb 9:28 - the second time without sin unto salvation - Jesus took on humanity at His first coming in order to save humanity (Rom 8:2, 3; Philippians 2:5-8; Heb 2:14). He was given a plaited crown of thorns, given a reed as a scepter, spat upon and the knees were bowed to Him in contempt (Mt 27:29, 30). Thus Jesus bore the curse that was upon both Adam and this earth (Gal 3:13; Gen 3:17, 18). When He returns as KING of Kings and LORD of Lords, He will return, not for sin, but with His glorified body to give salvation to all who wait upon Him - See 1Jo 3:2, 3; 2Cor 5:16, 15:45

Heb 10:1

Heb 10:1 - having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things - The good things to come is Jesus Christ and His righteousness, manifest in sinful human flesh, where Jesus is come in the flesh. See Heb 8:5, 9:9; Col 1:27-29, 2:17; 1Jo 4:1-4; Rom 10:4

Heb 10:1

Heb 10:1 - and not the very image of the things - Jesus is the very image of God and godliness (Col 1:9, 15). The letter of the Law is only a shadow of God and not the substance. Christ is the full image and substance of what the Law reflects and is therefore the fulfillment of the Law. See Rom 10:4; Rom 3:21, 22

Heb 10:1

Heb 10:1 - can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect- made pure, complete, whole - See Heb 9:9, 10:4

Heb 10:2

Heb 10:2 - For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins - if those annual feasts that were a shadow of the true could make one perfect [entire, complete, mature, whole in Christ] there would not be the need to continue to perform the services because all would be made whole. See Isa 1:25; Heb 9:14; Col 2:9, 10

Heb 10:2

Heb 10:2 - no more conscience of sins - See Rom 7:21, 6:11-14

Heb 10:3

Heb 10:3 - But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year - the daily and yearly sacrifices of themselves were a reminder that the blood of bulls and goats could not remove sins. Those sacrifices were merely a promise of future removal of sin, as Jesus would ascend to the sanctuary in heaven with His own blood. See Heb 9:12

Heb 10:4

Heb 10:4 - For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins - it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to remove or "cut-off" sins. They can neither atone for sin nor give power to have one's sins cut-off so that they may not return. Contrast 1Jo 1:7

Heb 10:4

Heb 10:4 - take away - {aphairéō, Gk} Verb af-ahee-reh'-o from and ; to remove (literally or figuratively):--cut (smite) off, take away. to take from, take away, remove, carry off, to cut off

Heb 10:5

Heb 10:5 - Wherefore when He cometh into the world, He saith, Sacrifice and offering thou

wouldest not - See Ps 40:6, 51:16, 17; Gal 4:4, 5

Heb 10:5

Heb 10:5 - Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not - God takes no pleasure in the slaying of animals, His creation. He would rather obedient and selfless service from those who call upon His name. See 1Sam 15:22, 23

Heb 10:5

Heb 10:5 - but a body hast thou prepared me - The Lord declares the end of the Old Covenant, with its ritual sacrifices and offerings which could never cleans men of sin (Heb 10:11). He then introduces the New Covenant in His flesh and blood wherein the Law of God is written, not on tables of stone as in the Old Covenant, but upon the tables of the heart. See Heb 2:14, 15, 10:8, 9; Jer 31:31 "When Moses was about to build the sanctuary as a dwelling- place for God, he was directed to make all things according to the pattern shown him in the mount. . . . So to Israel, whom He desired to make His dwelling-place, He had revealed His glorious ideal of character. The pattern was shown them in the mount when the law was given from Sinai. . . . Israel had chosen their own ways. They had not builded according to the pattern; but Christ, the true temple for God's indwelling, moulded every detail of His earthly life in harmony with God's ideal. . . . So our characters are to be builded "for an habitation of God through the Spirit. Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short This material may be protected by copyright.

Heb 10:6

Heb 10:6 - In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure - See Isa 1:11-13; Hos 6:6

Heb 10:7

Heb 10:6 - Lo I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God - See Ps 40:7; Joh 5:39, 6:38, 14:31 The Saviour foretold in the Old Testament Scriptures was to offer Himself as a sacrifice in behalf of the fallen race, thus fulfilling every requirement of the broken law. In Him the sacrificial types were to meet their antitype, and His death on the cross was to lend significance to the entire Jewish economy. - {AA 227.3}

Heb 10:7

Heb 10:7 - in the volume of the book it is written of me - See Gen 3:15; Ps 40:7; Joh 5:39

Heb 10:7

Heb 10:7 - to do thy will, O God - the will and commandment of the Father was righteousness and life everlasting for those who come to God in faith. See Ps 11:7, 33:5; Prov 15:9; Joh 12:50, 14:31; Rom 8:3-4

Heb 10:8

Heb 10:8 - Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein - Sacrifices and offerings were ordained by the Law of Moses and yet God had no pleasure in them because the COI had made the symbol the reality. They COI had made a religion out of sacrifices and offerings when they were intended to merely typify, to be a symbol to point the viewer to the real, the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world, Jesus Christ.

Heb 10:8

Heb 10:8 - which are offered by the law - See Heb 10:1

Heb 10:9

Heb 10:9 - The Father's will, articulated by Christ in Heb 10:5-11, conveys that the Father desired for the Son, Jesus Christ, to come and remove the shadow and figures of the sacrificial system with His own body, that He not continue to offer up sacrifices and offerings of lambs and bulls for sin, but that He would establish the Second Covenant (v9), based on better promises. The will of God is that we be sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ, once and for all (v10).

Heb 10:9

Heb 10:9 - The said He, Lo, I come to do Thy will, O God - See Ps 40:8. The Father's will, articulated by Christ in Heb 10:5-11, conveys that the Father desired for the Son, Jesus Christ, to come and remove the shadow and figures of the sacrificial system with His own body, that He not continue to offer up sacrifices and offerings of lambs and bulls for sin, but that He would establish the Second Covenant (v9), based on better promises. The will of God is that we be sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ, once and for all (v10). Eph 3:11 Everything that we of ourselves can do is defiled by sin. But the Son of God "was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin." Sin is defined to be "the transgression of the law." 1Jo 3:5, 4. But Christ was obedient to every requirement of the law. He said of Himself, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God; yea, Thy law is within My heart." Ps 40:8. When on earth, He said to His disciples, "I have kept My Father's commandments." Joh 15:10. {COL 311.4}

Heb 10:9

Heb 10:9 - He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second - Paul declares a principle found throughout the Scriptures (2Cor 3:10, 11): 1. First tabernacle made with man's hands is taken away to establish the 2nd, which is in heaven: Heb 9:1-11 2. The glory of the ministration of death contained in the Law by the Old Testament is superseded by the glory of the righteousness of Jesus Christ by faith in the New Testament: 2Cor 3:6-9 3. The first Adam who was of flesh and who brought death is "taken away" to establish the Second Adam Who is a life giving Spirit bringing eternal life: 1Cor 15:22, 45 4. Jesus is Mediator of the New Testament based on better promises, based on His blood and not the blood of bulls and of goats: See Heb 8:6-13, 9:11-15 5. The High Priestly ministry of the Levites is superseded by an eternal ministry of Christ, after the order of Melchizedek - Heb 7, 10:12 The Devil seeks to counterfeit this principle as he takes away the daily (paganism) to establish the second, papalism. See 2Thess 2:7 Thus it is seen that a law, enacted in support of a heathen institution, after a few years came to be considered a Christian ordinance; and Constantine himself, four years after his Sunday edict, was able to control the church, as represented in the general council of Nice, so as to cause the members of that council to establish their annual festival of the passover upon Sunday. 2 Paganism had prepared the institution from ancient days, and had now elevated it to supreme power; its work was accomplished. {JNA, History of the Sabbath and First Day of the Week; Pt2, chpt 19, pg 349}

Heb 10:10

Heb 10:10 - By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all - through the willing sacrifice of Jesus, Who without force, but of His own free will (Joh 10:17, 18), came to do His Father's will, which was to make His soul an offering for the sins of the world, we have salvation in Jesus Christ. See Isa 53:10; John 12:50

Heb 10:10

Heb 10:9 - offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all - See Num 20:8-12; Heb 7:27, 10:12, 14, 9:28 Contrast Heb 10:2, 11

Heb 10:10

Heb 10:10 - once for all - Jesus offered Himself one time for all mankind. He need not offer up Himself daily. See Heb 10:12

Heb 10:11

Heb 10:11 - And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins: - See Heb 10:4

Heb 10:12

Heb 10:12- He had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever - Christ need not offer up daily (Dan 8:11). See Ex 17:6; Num 20:8-12; Heb 7:27, 10:10, 9:28

Heb 10:12

Heb 10:12 - sat down on the right hand of God - See Heb 1:3, 12:2

Heb 10:13

Heb 10:13 - henceforth expecting till His enemies are made his footstool - See Ps 110:1; Mt 22:44, Heb 1:13; Phil 2:9-11

Heb 10:14

Heb 10:14 - For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified - Jesus' blood has perfected (made complete, mature, whole, made complete atonement) for all time (Col 2:9, 10). Though it took place in the past, it covers all sin from the fall of man and continues to be effectual in our lives today and for eternity through the indwelling Holy Spirit (1Pet 1:18-20) - Christ in you/me the hope of glory (Col 1:27, 28; 1Jo 4:1-3). I am being sanctified. Jesus declares those things that be not as though they were!!! See Heb 10:10; Act 20:32; Rom 15:16, 4:17

Heb 10:14

Heb 10:14 - them that are sanctified - those who are set apart, made complete/mature by the refining power of the Holy Spirit - Heb 2:11; 1Pet 1:22, 23; Rom 9:18-26; 1Cor 1:2 1. Refiner purifies silver until He sees His reflection: Mal 3:3-6 2. We come to reflect Christ - measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ Who abides in us - Col 2:9, 10; Eph 4:12-16

Heb 10:15

Heb 10:16 - Wherefore the Holy Spirit also is a Witness to us - The Holy Spirit is Witness and He Who sanctifies us. We receive the Holy Spirit as an earnest or downpayment of the full redemption we are to receive at Jesus' Second Coming. The Holy Spirit refines our characters and allows God's glory to shine forth so that we may behold Christ in His glory, and in the glory of His Father and the glory of the angels. Our refinement of character through sanctification will be wedded to our incorruptible and immortal bodies that will be given in the twinkling of an eye at Jesus' coming. See Eph 1:13, 14

Heb 10:15

Heb 10:15 - Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us - The Holy Spirit is Witness and He Who sanctifies us (Joh 8:18; Rom 8:16). We receive the Holy Spirit as an earnest or downpayment of the full redemption we are to receive at Jesus' Second Coming (Eph 1:13, 14). The Holy Spirit, through the conviction of sin, righteousness and judgment, refines our characters and allows God's glory to shine forth so that we may behold Christ in His glory, and in the glory of His Father and the glory of the angels. Our refinement of character through sanctification will be wedded to our incorruptible and immortal bodies that will be given in the twinkling of an eye at Jesus' coming. See 1Cor 15:51-58

Heb 10:16 - and in their minds will I write them - See Heb 12:2

Heb 10:17

Heb 10:17 - And their sin and their iniquities I will remember no more - This is Day of Atonement language - See Lev 16; Jer 31:34; Isa 43:25, 1:25; Heb 8:12, 10:19-22; Act 3:19

Heb 10:18

Heb 10:18 - Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin - there is no more offering for sins where pardon for sins have been remitted once and for all by the blood of the lamb. There is no more need for sprinkling blood upon the veil where a sin has been repented of, and turned from, and blood has already been offered for the sin. This is the mystery of the Holy Place: God is waiting to cleans our soul temple so that the heavenly temple may be cleansed of sins. See Rom 6:1-11

Heb 10:18

Heb 10:18 - there is no more offering for sin - with the final blotting out of sins comes the close of probation. Once sins are forgiven and remembered no more, Jesus will cease His High Priestly ministry and dawn His Kingly attire to reign as KING of Kings and LORD of Lords.

Heb 10:19

Heb 10:19 - Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus - we may enter into the sanctuary, even the Most Holy Place because of the ministration of Jesus Christ and His blood. No longer as the High Priest which entered with bells and a rope around his feet, lest there be sin in the camp and he instantly die, but through the blood and mediation of our eternal High Priest who makes intercession and atonement for us, we can come with reverent boldness. See Heb 4:14-16; 10:21

Heb 10:20

Heb 10:20 - By a new and living way - Jesus, the Way, the Truth and the Life is the New and Living Way by which we may appear before God, even in the Most Holy Place: Our death to this life and sin, our being born-again with Christ dwelling within through the power of the Holy Spirit - Christ in you/me the hope of glory. Col 1:27, 28

Heb 10:20

Heb 10:20 - which he hath consecrated for us - See Eph 2:14, 15

Heb 10:20

Heb 10:20 - through the veil, that is to say, His flesh - the veil of the earthly tabernacle was a type of the body of Christ which veiled or enshrouded Christ's divinity by His humanity. Just as Jesus' body was broken, bruised and torn for our sins, so too, the veil was rent from top to bottom, signifying the end of the Old Covenant and the introduction of the New. Christ's incarnation was also a stumbling block for the Jews who foresaw the Messiah not in His simplicity and humility, but with the prideful, boastful, self-exalting spirit that they clung to. Therefore in reading the Old Testament, the veil of Christ's righteousness blinded them to the realities of the Messiah and His calling. See 2Cor 3:14-16

Heb 10:21

Heb 10:21 - And having an high priest over the house of God - the House of God, the heavenly sanctuary and temple; but more so, the spiritual house which He is building, comprised of living stones, Himself being the Chief Cornerstone- is officiated by Jesus, eternal High Priest after the order of Melchizedek. See 1Pet 2:4-8

Heb 10:22

Heb 10:22 - Let us draw near with a true heart - a clean heart, a sincere and genuine heart, a singular (focused) and steadfast heart (consistent). See Ps 51:10; Jer 31:31-35; Col 1:14, 16, 17; 2Cor 5:17; Eph 2:8-10

Heb 10:22

Heb 10:22 - having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience - Just as Moses sprinkled the people and sanctified them with blood, our hearts are to be sprinkled from an evil conscience (guilt, regret, evil thoughts and surmising) by the blood of Jesus Christ. See Ex 24:8; Jer 31:31-34; Ezek 36:36, 37; Rom 5:5; Jam 3:14-16

Heb 10:24 - And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works - we are to encourage, inspire, bless one another unto good works. See Lk 3:18; Rom 12:8; James 3:13; 1Cor 14:3 Contrast - James 3:14-16

Heb 10:25

Heb 10:25 - Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is - we are to gather and encourage one another in the faith. We are not to live lives of isolation, cloistered or monastically but rather to be the salt of the earth and let our lights shine for Jesus. See Mt 5:16

Heb 10:25

Heb 10:25 - and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching - let our exhortations, encouragements and admonition be constant as we see the day of the Lord quickly approaching. This is an example of the prophets speaking more for our times than for their own. See 1Pet 1:9-12

Heb 11:1

Heb 11:1 - Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen - Faith is to believe in the word of God only - See Mt 8:5-8 Therefore since faith means to build upon Jesus [our Rock - Ps 92:15] and His holy word, it is self-evident that faith must be righteousness to the one who possesses and exercises it. {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 64} Victorious faith is grounded in the words/promises and character of God - Looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our Faith. See 1Pet 1:8; Heb 4:21,12:2; Rom 8:24, 25 It is an assent of the understanding to God's words which binds the heart in willing consecration and service to God, Who gave the understanding, Who moved on the heart, Who first drew the mind to view Christ on the cross of Calvary. Faith is rendering to God the intellectual powers, abandonment of the mind and will to God, and making Christ the only door to enter into the kingdom of heaven. - {FW 25.2} True faith comes by hearing and believing the Word of God - See Rom 10:17 There is danger in regarding justification by faith as placing merit on faith. When you take the righteousness of Christ as a free gift you are justified freely through the redemption of Christ. What is faith? "The substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." Heb 11:1. It is an assent of the understanding to God's words which binds the heart in willing consecration and service to God, who gave the understanding, who moved on the heart, who first drew the mind to view Christ on the cross of Calvary. Faith is rendering to God the intellectual powers, abandonment of the mind and will to God, and making Christ the only door to enter into the kingdom of heaven. - {1888 818.1} The knowledge of the alphabet is one of the most common things in the world. It lies at the very foundation of all learning. No one ridicules the child for saying that he knows the letters of the alphabet, and for declaring most positively, in spite of all contradiction, that "A" is "A." And yet he knows that only by faith. He has never investigated the subject for himself; he has accepted the statement of his teacher. The teacher himself had to learn the alphabet in the same way--by faith. It was not demonstrated to him that "A" is "A." It could not have been. If he had refused to believe the fact till it was demonstrated to him, he never would have learned to read. He had to accept the fact by faith, and then it would prove itself true under every circumstance. There is nothing of which people are more absolutely sure than they are of the letters of the alphabet, and there is nothing for which they are more absolutely dependent on faith. {The Gospel of Creation, by E.J. Waggoner} Faith is a heart appreciation of the agape love of Christ seen in the cross of Calvary {Grace on Trial, pg 41, R. Wieland} Many know so little of faith that when they have asked God for his help and blessing, they look to themselves to see if their prayer is answered; and if they have a happy flight of feeling, they are satisfied. This is not faith, but unbelief. We should trust God, whether we experience any change of feeling or not. We cannot expect to be very joyful and hopeful while we look to ourselves; for we must think of self as sinful. A large class of the professed Christian world are watching their feelings; but feeling is an unsafe guide, and those who depend upon it are in danger of imbibing heresy.—Signs of the Times, May 22, 1884. - {PH048 40.1} There is danger in regarding justification by faith as placing merit on faith. Heb 11:3

Heb 11:3 - Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear - See Rom 1:19, 20; 1Cor 2:10 Faith gives knowledge. That is its special work. Knowledge gained by faith is not vague and uncertain, but is the most absolutely certain of any knowledge. In fact, there is no real knowledge that does not spring from faith. Knowledge that comes in any other way is speculation. The unbelieving soul regards faith as folly, but the faithful soul knows that faith makes for it a solid foundation. Whoever will believe may know. {The Gospel of Creation, by E.J. Waggoner}

Heb 11:2 - worlds were framed by the word of God - It is creative power that made the heavens, the earth and all the unseen worlds about us. The power and substance is of God through the Holy Spirit Who wrote all things through the spoken Word. See Ps 33:6; Joh 1:1-4; Heb 1:2

Heb 11:3

Heb 11:3 - so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear - Faith in God and His Word presents a different standard by which we are to evaluate and understand all truths, whether in the natural or the spiritual. The Christian rejects evolutionary theories of the origins of the earth and universe because they do not agree with Biblical truth. Geology attempts to explain natural origins and establish chronologies based on faulty tools for measuring time. It fails because of the very principle mentioned in this verse. The things that are seen have not come from pre-existing matter but were called forth in their day from the mouth of the all-powerful Creator of the heavens and the earth. Science attempts to mark the age of matter but again fails due to its inability to understand apparent age; the fact that God called things into existence in their complete and perfected form, without millions of years of evolutionary processes. Consider that the ground upon which Adam stood, the day in which he was created, was not millions of years old but rather, only three days old (see Gen 1:9-31).

Heb 11:4

Heb 11:4 - By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain - Abel's sacrifice was motivated by faith (unto salvation in Jesus Christ - Act 4:12), whereas Cain's was not. Abel was justified by his faith in the promise of a Savior. See 1Jo 3:10-12; Rom 1:17

Heb 11:4

Heb 11:4 - by which he obtained witness that he was righteous - Abel demonstrated righteousness by faith in believing in God's promise of a Savior (Gen 3:15) and acting upon his belief by presenting that which was asked of him. See Rom 2:13; Gen 15:6; 1Jo 3:12

Heb 11:4

Heb 11:4 - God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh - God testified of Abel's noble work and his witness of righteousness stands unto this day.

Heb 11:5

Heb 11:5 - By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death - Enoch had a continual, ever increasing, living faith, the faith of Jesus Christ. See Gen 5:24

Heb 11:5

Heb 11:5 - for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God - Enoch was one who walked in the Spirit and therefore pleased God (Rom 8:8). Those who please God should expect the same fate of Enoch, translation to heaven. Contrast Rom 8:8

Heb 11:6

Heb 11:6 - But without faith it is impossible to please him - Anything that is not of faith is sin, and sin can not please God - Rom 14:23; Gal 5:6 the just are to live by faith, believing in

God and in His words. See Heb 10:35-39 An hour was occupied in reading, and in talking to them about the necessity of their understanding how to exercise faith. This is the science of the gospel. The Scripture declares, "Without faith it is impossible to please God." The knowledge of what the Scripture means when urging upon us the necessity of cultivating faith, is more essential than any other knowledge that can be acquired. We suffer much trouble and grief because of our unbelief, and our ignorance of how to exercise faith. We must break through the clouds of unbelief. We can not have a healthy Christian experience, we can not obey the gospel unto salvation, until the science of faith is better understood, and until more faith is exercised. There can be no perfection of Christian character without that faith that works by love, and purifies the soul. { RH October 18, 1898, par. 7 }

Heb 11:6

Heb 11:6 - faith - an illustration of faith is found in the Centurion who came to Jesus on behalf of his sick servant: See Mt 8:5-10

Heb 11:6

Heb 11:6 - he that cometh to God must believe that he is - those who come to God, a RIGHTEOUS WORK, must believe that He is exactly Who He said He is, the Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth, the I AM THAT I AM Who never lies (Ex 3:14; Jam 1:6). We must acknowledge Him for His: Omnipotence - All Power Omniscience - All Knowing (Ps 147:5) Omnipresence - In all places at all times Eternal Nature - Eternal existence Eternal Love - All loving, All Goodness (1Jo 4:8; Jam 1:17) Most of all, for His supreme character of love and justice. Anything short of acknowledging these things, we fail to give Him just regard and rob Him of the honor, glory and praise due His name. See Ps 89:7 "Come": Isa 1:18, 19, 55:1-3 Mt 5:40, 11:28-30 Isa 1:18, 19 Heb 11:6 Rev 22:17

Heb 11:6

Heb 11:6 - believe that he is - Believe that God is EVERYTHING that we need. He is Who completes us. Col 2:9, 10

Heb 11:6

Heb 11:6 - and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him - The reward of them which diligently seek God is Himself - His character, His nature, His disposition, His fruit. God gives us Himself so that we may become partakers of the divine nature. See 2Pet 1:4; Joh 17:21; Jer 29:13; Lam 3:25 The boy who finds a use for his lesson becomes doubly interested and successful in his studies. What was idle knowledge, only half understood, becomes practical wisdom full of zest and power. Especially is this true of Bible knowledge, whose superficial study is of slight effect, but whose profounder learning changes the whole man. "The letter killeth; the spirit giveth life." {The Seven Laws of Teaching - pg 128.1}

Heb 11:6

Heb 11:6 - diligently seek Him - though the LORD desires to reveal Himself to all men (John 5:40, 12:32; Rom 10:14-21; Act 17:27), He does not want men to have a superficial relationship and knowledge of Him, nor has He made all of His wisdom readily available to the convenience of the casual reader (Ps 25:2). As with any quality relationship, field of study, or pursuit of knowledge, it requires effort. God would distinguish His true and sincere followers from the haphazard readers as they who pursue the greatest science, the Science of Salvation with diligence. See Jer 29:13; Act 17:11, 12; Heb 5:11-14; Isa 28:9-13; Joh 7:17, 8:31; Ps 27:8; Jam 2:19, 20

Heb 11:7

Heb 11:7 - being warned of God of things not seen as yet - being given a prophetic message from the LORD. See Isa 46:9, 10; Rom 4:17; Rev 1:19; John 14:29 God has always given men warning of coming judgments. Those who had faith in His message for their time, and who acted out their faith in obedience to His commandments, escaped the judgments that fell upon the disobedient and unbelieving. - {LDE 13.1} The word came to Noah, "Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before Me." Noah obeyed and was saved. The message came to Lot, "Up, get you out of this place; for the Lord will destroy this city" (Gen 7:1; 19:14). Lot placed himself under the guardianship of the heavenly messengers and was saved. So Christ's disciples were given warning of the destruction of Jerusalem. Those who watched for the sign of the coming ruin, and fled from the city, escaped the destruction. So now we are given warning of Christ's second coming and of the destruction to fall upon the world. Those who heed the warning will be saved.—The Desire of Ages, 634 (1898). - {LDE 13.2}

Heb 11:7

Heb 11:7 - moved with fear - Noah did not waiver on the word and promise of God but moved with reverent obedience. See Rom 4:1-5, 18, 19 More than one hundred years before the flood the Lord sent an angel to faithful Noah to make known to him that he would no longer have mercy upon the corrupt race. But he would not have them ignorant of his design. He would instruct Noah, and make him a faithful preacher to warn the world of its coming destruction, that the inhabitants of the earth might be left without excuse. Noah was to preach to the people, and also to prepare an ark as God should direct him for the saving of himself and family. He was not only to preach, but his example in building the ark was to convince all that he believed what he preached. - {1SP 69.2}

Heb 11:7

Heb 11:7 - prepared an ark to the saving of his house - See Gen 6:11-22

Heb 11:7

Heb 11:7 - by the which he condemned the world - Noah's righteous obedience and works in building the ark, were a rebuke to the unbelief of the antediluvian world. 2Pet 2:5, 3:3, 4 "It is a fearful thing to treat lightly the truth which has convinced our understanding and touched our hearts. We cannot with impunity reject the warnings which God in mercy sends us. A message was sent from heaven to the world in Noah's day, and the salvation of men depended upon the manner in which they treated that message. Because they rejected the warning, the Spirit of God was withdrawn from the sinful race, and they perished in the waters of the flood. In the time of Abraham, mercy ceased to plead with the guilty inhabitants of Sodom, and all but Lot with his wife and two daughters were consumed by the fire sent down from heaven. So in the days of Christ. The Son of God declared to the unbelieving Jews of that generation, 'Your house is left unto you desolate.' Looking down to the last days, the same infinite power declares, concerning those who 'received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved,' 'For this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: that they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.' As they reject the teachings of His Word, God withdraws His Spirit, and leaves them to the deceptions which they love." - {EW 45.4}

Heb 11:7

Heb 11:7 - righteousness which is by faith - to be fully persuaded in God's promises and to walk and act as if the promise has been fulfilled. See Rom 3:21, 22, 4:18-21; Mt 1:18-24; 2Cor 5:21 Righteousness is right doing, and it is by their deeds that all will be judged. Our characters are revealed by what we do. The works show whether the faith is genuine. - {COL 3:12.2} "Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as He is righteous." 1 John 3:7. Righteousness is defined by the standard of God's holy law, as expressed in the ten precepts given on Sinai. - {SC 61.1} God's Righteousness.-The righteousness of God is something besides a name. It is something far different from a form of words, or even the mere statement of a law. It is nothing less than the life and character of God. As there cannot be sweetness apart from something that is sweet, so there is no such thing as abstract righteousness. Righteousness must necessarily be connected with some living being. But God alone is righteous. See Mk x. 18. Therefore wherever righteousness is, there God must be active. Righteousness is the essential characteristic of God. {January 31, 1895 EJW, PTUK 67.2} Doing to Live and Living to Do.-The righteousness which is of the law, that is, men's own righteousness (see Phil. iii. 9), is on the principle of doing something in order to live. The mere statement of the case is sufficient to show its impossibility; for life must necessarily precede action. A dead body does not do something in order that it may live, but it must be given life in order that it may do something. Peter did not tell the dead Dorcas to do some more charitable work, to sew some more garments, in order that she might live, but in the name of Jesus he restored her to life, in order that she might pursue her good works. The man that doeth those things shall live in them, but he must first live before he can do them. Therefore the righteousness which is of the law is but an empty dream. Christ gives life, even the eternal and righteous life of God, which works righteousness in the soul that it has quickened. {January 31, 1895 EJW, PTUK 67.9}

Heb 11:8

Heb 11:8 - By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went - See Gen 12:1-9

Heb 11:9

Heb 11:9 - By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country - Both Abraham and His Seed, Who is Christ, are the heirs of the promises of God. Both were called out of a foreign land, Abraham out of Babylon [Ur of the Chaldees - Gen 12:1] and Jesus out of Egypt [Mt 2:15] and both considered themselves pilgrims here on earth, claiming the heavenly country {Joh 18:36; 1Cor 4:11; Ps 119:19). So too, we also as heirs of the promise must consider ourselves pilgrims on this earth. See Act 7:5; 1Pet 2:11; Lk 9:58; Mt 8:20 Though pilgrims here, we dwell in heavenly places through Christ Jesus. See Eph 2:6; Ps 39:12, 107:1-7; Joh 18:36

Heb 11:9

Heb 11:9 - the heirs with him of the same promise - See Gal 3:29, 4:23, 28, 31

Heb 11:10

Heb 11:10 - For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God - Abraham understood the promises of God and saw them afar off (v13). The land which Abraham sought was not of earthly Palestine (Mt Sinai) where earthly Jerusalem resides, but the eternal New Jerusalem where righteousness and the righteous (the offspring of the once barren Sara) dwells. Abraham experienced righteousness by faith, where he had the mind of Christ, a desire for God's glory to fill the earth and was in harmony with God's thoughts and feelings. See John 14:1-3; Gal 4:22-28; 2Cor 5:1; Ps 107:1-7; Mt 6:19-21; Heb 8:2, 11:16, 13:14; Rev 21:10-27

Heb 11:11

Heb 11:11 - God performed the miracle of resurrecting Sarah's dead womb that she might conceive, and then strengthening her to carry the child to full term for a successful delivery. What a Wonderful Savior, what a Wonderful God! See Gen 21:1, 2

Heb 11:11

Heb 11:11 - because she judged him faithful who had promised - Praise God that He does not see us where we began, but where we finish. Sarah initially laughed at the idea of her bearing a son at the age of 90 (Gen 18:13-15, 21:6) and yet, she came to believe, trust and expect good things of the Lord Who is faithful to His promises. See Gen 21:1, 2; Rom 4:19

Heb 11:12

Heb 11:12 - and him as good as dead - See Rom 4:18, 19

Heb 11:12

Heb 11:12 - so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable - See Gen 15:5

Heb 11:13

Heb 11:13 - These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them - the faith of the upright make God's promises substantive and tangible. They die holding onto the promises of life forever more with Jesus. See *Lam 3:26; Heb 11:1, 6, 9, 10, 39, 40; 1Thess 4:14-18; See 1Cor 15:50-58; John 11:23-26; Job 19:25-27; Revelation 1:7, 22:12; Rom 8:18-25

Heb 11:13

Heb 11:13 -but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them - By faith, they saw, were persuaded and embraced the rewards promised of God. Heb 11:1; Eph 2:7; 1Cor 2:9; Isa 64:4

Heb 11:13

Heb 11:13 - and were persuaded of them - See Rom 4:21

Heb 11:13

Heb 11:13 - and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth - those who walk by faith are citizens of the heavenly kingdom and are mere ambassadors to the earth, serving their term while awaiting their redemption. See Gen 12; Job 1:21; Phil 3:7-21; Joh 17:16

Heb 11:14

Heb 11:14 - For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country - they who do not claim the earth as their home seek for a country, far superior than any place upon the earth. They have fixed their minds on another time and place. See Heb 11:16, 13:14; Phil 3:20, 21; Ps 119:19

Heb 11:15

Heb 11:15 - And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned - If the faithful had been mindful, that is kept in mind and in their heart their former country, they would have longed to return to it. Yet, they have forsaken their former country, lands, dwellings for that which they could not see but longed for.

Heb 11:16

Heb 11:16 - But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly - See Heb 11:13, 14, 13:14; Phil 3:20, 21

Heb 11:16

Heb 11:16 - wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God - God is not ashamed to be called our God and Father, just as Jesus is not ashamed to be called our Lord and Brother; those who place their implicit trust in Him and seek for a better country will be thus acknowledged. See Heb 2:11

Heb 11:16

Heb 11:16 - for He hath prepared for them a city - See Heb 11:10, 13:14; Rev 21:1-7; Joh 14:1-3

Heb 11:16

Heb 11:16 - a city - See Heb 11:10; Rev 21:1-3

Heb 11:17

Heb 11:17 - By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac - See Gen 22:1-14; Ps 11:4, 5

Heb 11:17

Heb 11:17 - he that had received the promises - See Gen 12:1-3, 15:1-21, 21:12, 22:1, 2

Heb 11:17

Heb 11:17 - received the promises - the promise given to Abraham was not only a son to continue his lineage but one who would be the progenitor of the coming Messiah, the Savior of the world. Killing Isaac presented an added test of faith as Abraham would be killing the one hope for the human race. He did not waiver in faith, believing that if he killed Isaac, God would restore him! Heb 11:19

Heb 11:17

Heb 11:17 - his only begotten son - See Gen 22:1, 2

Heb 11:18

Heb 11:18 - Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called - See Gen 12:3, 21:12, 17:15-19; Rom 9:7; Gal 4:23, 28, 31 Now the Lord had already signified, in the case of Eliezer, Abraham's servant, that the seed of Abraham were to be free (Gen 15:1-6). Therefore if Abraham had only thought of the words of the Lord, instead of hearkening to the voice of his wife, he might have been saved much trouble. It is worth while dwelling at length upon this phase of the subject, for if it is rightly understood it will save much confusion as to the true seed of Abraham, and the true Israel. Let the points be stated once more. Ishmael was born after the flesh, and could not be the seed. Therefore those who are only of the flesh cannot be the children of Abraham, and heirs according to the promise. Isaac was born after the Spirit, and was the true seed. "In Isaac shall thy seed be called." (Gen 21:12) Therefore all the children of Abraham are they who are born of the Spirit. "we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise." Gal 4:28 {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 71}

Heb 11:19 - Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure - See Rom 4:19 Abraham believed that Isaac was the son of promise. He also believed that God meant just what He said when He bade him to go offer him as a burnt offering. He staggered not at the promise of God but believed that God, who had in His providence given Sarah a son in her old age, and who had required him to take that son's life, could also give life again and bring up Isaac from the dead. - {SR 81.2}

Heb 11:19

Heb 11:18 - from whence also he received him in a figure - considering the deadness of Sarah's womb and His deadness of flesh. See Rom 4:19

Heb 11:20

Heb 11:20 - There are distinct blessings in the hearing and admonition to prophecies from the Lord. He reveals things, past, present and future to those who seek Him diligently. The prophetic word is given to stir up a spirit of revival among the people so they may turn their hearts to the Lord. It is also given to forewarn and increase the faith of those who hear.

Heb 11:21

Heb 11:21 - By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph - See Gen 48:11-20

Heb 11:21

Heb 11:21 - and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff - Jacob was advanced in years and was dying when he pronounced his blessings upon his sons and grandsons. As he leaned upon his staff for support, he prophetically forecasted each of his sons future and that of Ephraim and Mannaseh, sons of Joseph he took to be his own sons. When he completed blessing his sons and giving them instructions regarding his burial, he lied down upon his bed and gave up the Ghost. See Gen 49:33

Heb 11:22

Heb 11:22 - By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones - Joseph in dying forecasted the deliverance of Israel from bondage and the soon return of the Lord. He therefore did not want his bones buried, neither in Egypt, nor in the Land of Promise because he anticipated the Lord's soon return. See Gen 50:22-26, 12:1-3; Josh 24:32; Act 7:17; Gal 3:16

Heb 11:23

Heb 11:23 - By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment - refusing to heed the decree to kill one's male child, Moses' parents hid him for three months and trusted in the Lord to deliver them from the king's death decree upon any family harboring a newborn male Hebrew child. See Ex 1:8-2:10

Heb 11:23

Heb 11:23 - proper child - Fit; suitable; adapted; accommodated

Heb 11:24

Heb 11:24 - By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter - See Gen 48:1, 14-19; Ex 2:5-15 Moses was heir to the throne by right on two accounts, first by being the son of Pharaoh's daughter who was also his wife. Pharaoh, having no other heirs, the throne was reserved for Moses both by Pharaoh and his daughter's inheritance. In such a position it would have been effortless for Moses to not only liberate Israel under his kingship, but grant them positions, titles, and offices. Yet, Moses understanding the sacred principle of separation of God's church (Act 7:37, 38) from the state (civil government or the world) and therefore, he would not use the position or authority of the state to do that which God would do by His strength and to His glory. Moses rather identify with God's church than to be the ruler of the most powerful nation on the earth and rule according to his own dictates.

Heb 11:25

Heb 11:25 - Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God - Moses by faith followed the leading of the Holy Spirit to renounce the momentary pleasures of the world and choosing the sufferings of the people of God in anticipation of greater reward. This precedent was made by Joseph when he asked that his sons be blessed with the descendants of Jacob, his father, rather than to inherit the wealth and riches of Egypt which they were exposed to. - See Isa 4:1; Heb 10:32, 33 Another important matter demanded attention; the sons of Joseph were to be formally instated among the children of Israel. Joseph, coming for a last interview with his father, brought with him Ephraim and Manasseh. These youths were connected, through their mother, with the highest order of the Egyptian priesthood; and the position of their father opened to them the avenues to wealth and distinction, should they choose to connect themselves with the Egyptians. It was Joseph's desire, however, that they should unite with their own people. He manifested his faith in the covenant promise, in behalf of his sons renouncing all the honors that the court of Egypt offered, for a place among the despised shepherd tribes, to whom had been entrusted the oracles of God. - {PP 234.2}

Heb 11:25

Heb 11:25 - than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season - See 1Jo 5:19

Heb 11:26

Heb 11:26 - Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt - Moses gave greater value to the cross of Christ- the shame, the derision, the scorn of others that comes with unwaivering faith in Jesus, than the pomp, honor, wealth and comforts of Egypt (the world). Isa 4:1

Heb 11:26

Heb 11:26 - the reproach of Christ - the reproach of Christ is the cross that all must bear when under great persecution. The world is at enmity with Christ and those who follow Him, and therefore will wage war (smite) with cruel mockings those who purpose to stand faithful to God. In the last days, it is this reproach that will turn many away from the paths of righteousness, having never developed through the power of the Holy Spirit, the fortitude (oil) to stand, though the heavens may fall. See Isa 4:1; Mt 16:24

Heb 11:26

Heb 11:26 - the recompense of the reward - Moses embraced by faith the promises made by God to him and his forefathers that God would bring His people into a land flowing with milk and honey (Ex 3:8, 17). Moses sought after this promised land as a foretaste of the eternal Promised Land that the redeemed would inherit. - See Heb 10:35-39

Heb 11:27

Heb 11:27 - By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king - See Ex 20:14, 15

Heb 11:27

Heb 11:27 - for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible - Moses had more fear for God who he could not see than for Pharaoh of Egypt, the most powerful monarch on earth at the time. See Mt 10:28

Heb 11:28

Heb 11:28 - Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them - See Ex 12:1-36

Heb 11:29

Heb 11:29 - By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned - See Ex 14

Heb 11:30

Heb 11:30 - By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days - See Joshua 6:1-20

Heb 11:31

Heb 11:31 - By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace - Rahab was a harlot and ran a house of prostitution. Hardly a godly and upright person, but she believed God and He counted her righteous such that she, her father's household were spared from the destruction. This is righteousness by faith. Joshua 2:9-14; 6:22, 23 Backups Containers Documents Downloads Library Media MobileSoftwareUpdate ipadtar.tar settings.fzs venv vlan.sh The same applies to us - as we put our confidence in God, He will save our father's house and our children - Ex 20:6; Isa 49:25;

Heb 11:32

Heb 11:32 - Gedeon - See Judges 6:11-8:32

Heb 11:32

Heb 11:32 - Barak - See Judges 4, 5

Heb 11:32

Heb 11:32 - Samson - it is he who perhaps "out of weakness was made strong" in Heb 11:34. Samson embraced the promise of God that if His people should fall into the hands of their enemies and pray to God Who resides in Jerusalem, He would hear and answer. Samson's death showed God's grace and favor towards him in answering his prayer to take vengeance upon God's enemies and for piercing his eyes. See Judges 13-16

Heb 11:34

Heb 11:34 - out of weakness were made strong - a possible reference to Samson. See Heb 11:32; Judges

Heb 11:35

Heb 11:35 - Women received their dead raised to life again - the Shunamite woman and the woman of Zepath had their sons resurrected by God through the prophets Elisha and Elijah respectively. See 1Kin 17:17-22; 2Kin 4:13-37

Heb 11:35

Heb 11:35 - and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance - Isa the prophet was put to death by King Manasseh. Jeremiah was lowered into a pit of mire for days and weeks - See Jer 38:4-28

Heb 11:35

Heb 11:35 - that they might obtain a better resurrection - those who were martyred for the gospel will partake of the resurrection of life and will be honored in heaven. See Joh 5:25,

29; Rev 20:4, 6 The 144,000—We were on our way to Mount Zion. As we were traveling along, we met a company who were also gazing at the glories of the place. I noticed red as a border on their garments; their crowns were brilliant; their robes were pure white. As we greeted them, I asked Jesus who they were. He said they were martyrs that had been slain for Him. With them was an innumerable company of little ones; they had a hem of red on their garments also. Mount Zion was just before us, and on the mount was a glorious temple, and about it were seven other mountains, on which grew roses and lilies. And I saw the little ones climb, or, if they chose, use their little wings and fly to the top of the mountains, and pluck the never-fading flowers. - {Hvn 87.4}

Heb 11:36 - had trial of cruel mockings - See Elisha - 2Kin 2:23, 24; Rom 15:3; Ps 69:9

Heb 11:36

Heb 11:36 - moreover of bonds and imprisonment - Micaiah - 1Kin 22:7-28; Jer - Jer 38:4-28

Heb 11:37

Heb 11:37 - the were sawn asunder - Isa Was Sawn Asunder— See Rev 2:10 Isa, who was permitted by the Lord to see wonderful things, was sawn asunder, because he faithfully reproved the sins of the Jewish nation. The prophets who came to look after the Lord's vineyard, were indeed beaten and killed. "They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword; they wandered about in sheepskins and goat-skins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented"—men of whom the world was not worthy. They were cruelly treated, and banished from the world (The Signs of the Times, February 17, 1898). - {4BC 1137.1}

Heb 11:38

Heb 11:38 - Of whom the world was not worthy - the world did not and could not appreciate the value and honor such individuals brought to it. They were despised and rejected of men who fell far short of themselves in character. See Heb 12:3; Jam 5:10

Heb 11:38

Heb 11:38 - they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth - See 1Kin 17:2-7; 18:12, 13

Heb 11:39

Heb 11:39 - And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise - See Heb 11:9, 10, 13, 14, 39, 40; 1Cor 15:50-58; 1Thess 4:15-18; John 11:23-26; Job 19:25-27; Lam 3:26; Revelation 1:7, 22:12; Rom 8:18-25

Heb 11:40

Heb 11:40 - God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect - God has permitted us to see the revelation of His power and love in the face of Jesus Christ. We too shall inherit eternity and perfection, just as they who died in faith.

Heb 12:1

Heb 12:1 - compassed about with so great a cloud - See Rom 15:4

Heb 12:1

Heb 12:1 - cloud - just as the COI were led by a cloud of day and a pillar of fire by night, the very presence of the LORD, we have a cloud of witnesses whose examples give testimony of those who have overcome the world and have embraced the victory in Christ through faith (1Jo 5:4). See Heb 6:12

Heb 12:1

Heb 12:1 - witnesses - God has appointed each of us to be His witness here upon the earth and before the universe (Isa 43:10-12). The cloud of witnesses from the past, recorded in the holy record, should encourage us to live for Christ so that we extend the record through living examples in the present age. God has given us three pillars of witnesses, the Old, the New and the Now Testaments. Tit 2:11-15; Conflict and Courage 7.2-4

Heb 12:1

Heb 12:1 - lay aside every weight - the burdens we carry throughout life, the hardships, the tools that we endure physically, emotionally and spiritually. The appeal is to those who labor and are heavy laden (Mt 11:28), that they may find the rest and refreshing in Jesus Christ, by faith. (See Act 3:19; Isa 28:12)

Heb 12:1

Heb 12:1 - and the sin which doth so easily beset us - the Bible does not speak of sins that beset us but the one sin. the one sin that besets us all is our desire to be God. "The root of every sin we commit is in our trying to be 'as gods'." {Surrender, G. Jackson, pg 21}

Heb 12:1

Heb 12:1 - run with patience - cheerful endurance, steadfastness, constancy, longsuffering. See Joh 14:27; 1Cor 9:24-27; Heb 10:36-39

Heb 12:2

Heb 12:1 - Looking - (Grk - aphoráō) meaning: to turn the eyes away from other things and fix them on something. We are to turn our eyes away from everything else in the world and turn to Jesus. See Mt 6:33, 34

Heb 12:2

Heb 12:2 - author and finisher of our faith - An author uses words to create ideas and thoughts in the minds of the reader/hearer. Jesus, through His Holy Word, implants His mind, His thoughts, and His words in those who love the truth; which in turn molds and forms our characters through the power of the Holy Spirit to will and to do of God's good pleasure (Philippians 2:13). As we yield to the truths of His written Word, the Holy Spirit inscribes those truths and principles upon the tablets of our hearts and minds unto salvation. See 1Pet 1:22, 23; Jer 31:31-34; Heb 10:15, 16; Isa 26:12 Jesus is the Originator/Founder and Perfecter of our faith. By writing His law upon our hearts and minds, Jesus brings us into complete conformity to His will and grants us His salvation. See Jer 31:31-34; Heb 5:9; Rom 12:3

Heb 12:2

Heb 12:2 - Finisher - Jesus is He Who perfects our faith, growing our initial mustard seed faith (Rom 12:3) to His faith, the faith of Jesus Christ (Gal 2:20). Every day we may experience perfection as we abide in Him and He in us (Joh 6:47, 56, 57). He is the One who makes us complete and whole by His grace through faith of Jesus Christ. See Col 2:9, 10; Philippians 1:6; Ps 138:8

Heb 12:2

Heb 12:2 - Who for the joy that was set before Him - Jesus kept His eyes on the prize set before Him: our redemption, the restoration of all things, and His eternal glory with the redeemed (Isa 53:11). He endured the challenges of His race and did not pay attention to (despised) the shame hurled at Him that He did not deserve. We too must run as pilgrims, strangers in a foreign land, and ambassadors of the heavenly kingdom while here on earth. See Heb 10:35, 36; 11:34-40; Habakkuk 3:17-19 Christ assured the angels that by His death He would ransom many, and would destroy him who had the power of death. He would recover the kingdom which man had lost by transgression, and the redeemed were to inherit it with Him, and dwell therein forever. Sin and sinners would be blotted out, nevermore to disturb the peace of heaven or earth. He bade the angelic host to be in accord with the plan that His Father had accepted, and rejoice that, through His death, fallen man could be reconciled to God. - {PP 65.2} Then joy, inexpressible joy, filled heaven. The glory and blessedness of a world redeemed, outmeasured even the anguish and sacrifice of the Prince of life. Through the celestial courts echoed the first strains of that song which was to ring out above the hills of Bethlehem—"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men." Lk 2:14. With a deeper gladness now than in the rapture of the new creation, "the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy." Job 38:7. - {PP 65.3}

Heb 12:2

Heb 12:2 - endured the cross, despising the shame - But Jesus bade His followers take up the cross and bear it after Him. To the disciples His words, though dimly comprehended, pointed to their submission to the most bitter humiliation,—submission even unto death for the sake of Christ. No more complete self-surrender could the Saviour's words have pictured. But all this He had accepted for them. Jesus did not count heaven a place to be desired while we were lost. He left the heavenly courts for a life of reproach and insult, and a death of shame. He who was rich in heaven's priceless treasure, became poor, that through His poverty we might be rich. We are to follow in the path He trod. - {DA 416.3} The cross of Christ and the shame which it brings will be the downfall of many. Many will want to claim Christ in good times, but will seek to grab hold of the man of sin, bearing his name so that they may avoid the shame of the cross of Christ when the overflowing scourge is upon the land. See Isa 4:1; 2Thess 2:3-12

Heb 12:2

Heb 12:2 - and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God - As we look to Jesus in faith and share in His suffering, we have the assurance of sitting on His throne as He has sat together with His Father on His throne (Lk 22:28-30; Mt 19:28). See Heb 1:3, 10:12; Act 2:33; Rom 8:34; Col 3:1; Rev 3:21; Eph 1:20; Mt 26:64; Mk 16:19; Lk 22:69

Heb 12:3

Heb 12:3 - For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds - Jesus endured character assassination from Lucifer, resulting in warfare that caused his expulsion. Lucifer than brought the character assassination to Eve, suggesting God was not as Benevolent as she supposed but rather was selfishly withholding that which would empower and enlighten. The assassination continued in the sons of disobedience, the seed of the serpent who contested with Jesus while here on earth. The warfare rages on through the apostate church system and her daughters, as they seek to root-out and destroy God's remnant. See Jam 5:10; Heb 11:38; Gen 3:4, 5; Joh 8:12, 13; Ps 2:1-3; Joh 16:1-3

Heb 12:3

Heb 12:3 - contradiction of sinners against himself - See Heb 11:38; Joh 8:12-59

Heb 12:3

Heb 12:3 - lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds - Consider the treatment given to the Son of God when we become weary in standing for righteousness. See Heb 10:35-39, 6:10; Gal 6:9; 2Thess 3:13

Heb 12:4

Heb 12:4 - Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin - unlike Christ, who sweated great drops of blood (Lk 22:44), we have not had to endure such trials, striving against sin. See 2Kin 9:7; Lk 11:50; Mt 23:30; Rev 16:6, 18:24; Lam 4:12, 13

Heb 12:4

Heb 12:4 - striving against sin - striving against one's own sins that easily beset the one, one's own natural inclinations towards intemperance, and the sins of others that war against you. See Eph 6:12; 1Cor 9:25

Heb 12:5

Heb 12:5 - And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children - we forget the exhortation, encouragement and chastening words of God that are spoken to us as unto His sons, his heirs. We must heed His exhortations but take joy that they are spoken as by a Loving Father, which He is! See Heb 12:7

Heb 12:5

Heb 12:5 - My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him - See Prov 3:11

Heb 12:6

Heb 12:6 - For whom the Lord loveth He chasteth - See Deut 8:5; Ps 89:30-32, 94:12; Prov 3:11, 12; Rev 3:19; 1Cor 11:32; Lam 3:32, 33

Heb 12:6

Heb 12:6 - and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth - See John 15:2, 3

Heb 12:7

Heb 12:7 - If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons - If we patiently submit (surrender) to the refining process of God, enduring the trial without complaining, murmuring, accusing, fault finding in others, becoming bitter or angry and thus committing more sins, we will be treated as sons and will receive the inheritance. See Eph 4:26; Rom 5:3, 4; Mal 3:3-5

Heb 12:7

Heb 12:7 - for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? - Paul speaks a Biblical truth regarding child rearing, that disciplining a child is an act of love. The undisciplined child will grow to resent discipline and authority and will himself come to hate/despise the one who coddled him when rather he should have scolded and reprovved. Such was the case with Eli towards his wayward sons and such will be the way of the world in the last days. See 1Sam 3:11-18; Prov 13:24, 23:13, 14, 29:15; Isa 3:4, 12; 2Tim 3:1-6; 1Sam 3

Heb 12:8

Heb 12:8 - But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons - If we do not submit to the chastening process of God as sons, we are bastards and not sons of God. We are still in bondage (to sin) and shall not be partakers of the inheritance and promises of God, but will be cast out as was Ishmael, the son of the bondservant was cast out. See Gal 4:22-31

Heb 12:9

Heb 12:9 - Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence - See Prov 13:24, 23:13, 14, 29:15

Heb 12:9

Heb 12:9 - shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live? - Paul again speaks of a causal truth, that as we are taught to love and pay due regard to our earthly father, we are molded to love and regard our Heavenly Father. See Heb 12:10

Heb 12:10

Heb 12:10 - For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure - Parents correct in order to maintain order as they deem appropriate in their homes, for their pleasure. Godly parents will keep eternal matters ever present in mind as they correct and chasten their children.

Heb 12:10

Heb 12:10 - but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness - God's chastening is to produce His righteousness and holiness in us. 2Pet 1:1-4; Isa 32:17; 1Jo 3:2, 3 Holiness is not rapture: it is an entire surrender of the will to God; it is living by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God: it is doing the will of our heavenly Father." {The Act of the Apostles, p.51} Holiness is constant agreement with God. Shall we not strive to be that which Christ so greatly desires us to be—Christians in deed and in truth—that the world may see in our lives a revelation of the saving power of truth? This world is our preparatory school. While here we shall meet with trials and difficulties. Continually the enemy of God will seek to draw us away from our allegiance. But while we cleave to Him who gave Himself for us we are safe. - {HP 33.4} Holiness is not a feeling. It is a decision to follow the Lord wherever He leads, even if doing so doesn't make you feel good at the time.

Heb 12:11

Heb 12:11 - Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous - we are chastened by the Holy Spirit as we are convicted, reprovved, and made to examine ourselves towards repentance (Heb 12:5; 2Cor 13:5). This is the difficult "work" that must be done in order to produce the peaceable fruit of righteousness the Lord desires in us. See Mal 3:5;

Rev 3:14-19; Philippians 2:12, 13; John 15:4, 5

Heb 12:11

Heb 12:11 - afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness - peace worthy fruit of righteousness. See Jam 3:17, 18; Isa 32:17; 2Cor 7:10, 11; Heb 12:14

Heb 12:12

Heb 12:12 - Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees - See 1Pet 1:13

Heb 12:13

Heb 12:13 - And make straight paths for your feet - We are to walk on the paths of righteousness and not digress from uprightness, shunning the very appearance of evil. Our course must be true in motive and action so that we may meet the approval of God and be fortified by His ministering angels. See Mt 3:3; Ps 23:3; Prov 8:20 Contrast Isa 59:8 Enoch represents those who shall remain upon the earth and be translated to heaven without seeing death. He represents that company that are to live amid the perils of the last days, and withstand all the corruption, vileness, sin, and iniquity, and yet be unsullied by it all. We can stand as did Enoch. There has been provision made for us... Angels of God that excel in strength, are sent to minister to those who shall be heirs of salvation. These angels, when they see that we are doing the very utmost on our part to be overcomers, will do their part, and their light will shine around about us, and sway back the influence of the evil angels that are around us, and will make a fortification around us as a wall of fire.—The Review and Herald, April 19, 1870. - {TA 68.3}

Heb 12:14

Heb 12:14 - Follow peace with all men - See Rom 12:18; Mt 5:24; 1Jo 4:20, 21; 2Cor 13:11; Ps 34:14; Act 24:16 CONTRAST Isa 59:8

Heb 12:14

Heb 12:14 - holiness - Holiness is constant agreement with God. Holiness is constant agreement with God. Shall we not strive to be that which Christ so greatly desires us to be—Christians in deed and in truth—that the world may see in our lives a revelation of the saving power of truth? This world is our preparatory school. While here we shall meet with trials and difficulties. Continually the enemy of God will seek to draw us away from our allegiance. Heb 12:15

Heb 12:15 - Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled - We are to search ourselves to see if we be in the faith and what lies in our hearts, working out our own salvation with fear and trembling. See Lk 9:55; Ps 139; Phil 2:12; 2Cor 13:5

Heb 12:15 - lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled - we fail of receiving God's grace as we fail to give grace through bitterness. Bitterness of spirit defiles the soul because it will not allow God's love and light to soften and penetrate the hurts experienced. Bitterness will not let go of the memory of the wrong but holds the offender and offended captive, a prisoner of one's own ire and vengeance. See Eph 4:31; Col 3:19; *Mt 24:12 As the seed sown produces a harvest, and this in turn is sown, the harvest is multiplied. In our relation to others, this law holds true. Every act, every word, is a seed that will bear fruit. Every deed of thoughtful kindness, of obedience, or of self-denial, will reproduce itself in others, and through them in still others. So every act of envy, malice, or dissension is a seed that will spring up in a "root of bitterness" (Heb 12:15), whereby many shall be defiled. And how much larger number will the "many" poison. Thus the sowing of good and evil goes on for time and for eternity. - {COL 85.1} That God who marks the fall of a sparrow, marks your deportment and your feelings; He marks your envy, your prejudice, your attempt to justify your action in the least matter of injustice. When you misconceive the words and acts of another, and your own feelings are stirred, so that you make incorrect statements, and it is known that you are at variance with your brother, you lead others, through their confidence in you, to regard him just as you do; and by the root of bitterness springing up, many are defiled. When it is evident that your feelings are incorrect, do you try just as diligently to remove the erroneous impressions as you did to make them? ... - {SD 309.2} Now God requires that you who have thus done the least injustice to another shall confess your fault, not only to the one you have injured, but to those who through your influence have been led to regard their brother in a false light, and to make of none effect the work God has given him to do.... By repentance and confession you can have pardon registered against your name; or you can resist the conviction of the Spirit of God, and during the rest of your life, work to make it appear that your wrong feelings and unjust conclusions could not be helped. But there stands the action, there stands the evil committed, there stands the ruin of those in whose hearts you planted the root of bitterness.... - {SD 309.3} Whatever the character of your sin, confess it. If it is against God only, confess only to Him. If you have wronged or offended others, confess also to them, and the blessing of the Lord will rest upon you. In this way you die to self, and Christ is formed within.... Our consecration to God must be unreserved, our love ardent, our faith unwavering. Then the expressions of the lips will testify to the quickened intelligence of the mind and the deep movings of the Spirit of God upon the soul. [56] - {SD 309.4}

Heb 12:16

Heb 12:16 - Lest there be any fornicator - a fornicator is paired with a profane person because they do not value the sanctity of their bodies being the temple of the Holy Spirit. For a moment of pleasure they are willing to risk a lifetime and eternity of blessings.

Heb 12:16

Heb 12:16 - profane person - a person who scorns and disregards things of a sacred nature. One who "pisses against the wall". See Gen 25:30-34; Edom in Dan 11:41; Heb 2:3 "The command for the observance of the holy Sabbath of the Lord is placed in the very bosom of the Decalogue, and is so plain that no need err as to its import, and yet it is treated with as great profanation as were the sacred vessels at the feast of Belshazzar. {Bible Echo, September 17, 1894}

Heb 12:16

Heb 12:16 - profane - PROFANE, a. [L. profanus; pro and fanum, a temple.] 1. Irreverent to any thing sacred; applied to persons. A man is profane when he takes the name of God in vain, or treats sacred things with abuse and irreverence. 2. Irreverent; proceeding from a contempt of sacred things, or implying it; as profane words or language; profane swearing.

Heb 12:17

Heb 12:17 - For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected - this speaks of the eternal, spiritual blessing which Esau forfeited. Esau most likely took possession of His father's belongings, but that was nothing compared to the eternal honor and glory that was and which he forfeited in being counted among the righteous and being the progenitor of the Messiah.

Heb 12:17

Heb 12:17 - he found no place of repentance - Verse presents a question if Esau would have received the birthright if he had the character of repentance and grieved for his profane act. I imagine that God saw his careless, unrepentant character before birth and knew that such repentance would not take place, therefore, God foresaw the birthright being given to his swindling brother, Jacob. See 2Cor 7:10; Hos 7:8, 4:17; Rom 2:4, 5; Rev 3:19

Heb 12:17

Heb 12:16 - though he sought it carefully with tears - Esau was troubled by the Holy Spirit when he profanely sold his birthright to his brother for a bowl of soup. He had ample opportunity to repent of the vain and foolish act he had committed and yet he did not. Only when the time had come for the birthright to be pronounced did he seek repentance. Such will be the case with the wicked who spurn God's promptings "today is the day of salvation, if you hear His voice, harden not your hearts." Gen 27:30-40; Ps 95:7, 8; Heb 3:7, 8; Rom 2:4, 5; Philippians 4:6

Heb 12:18

Heb 12:18 - For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest - We are not come to the earthly mount where God once manifested His terrible power and presence, rather, we have come to the heavenly mountain, Mount Zion where righteousness dwells. See Ex 19:18-25, 20:18-21; Heb 12:22; Gal 4:25

Heb 12:18

Heb 12:18 - and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest - See Ps 104:32; Heb 12:29

Heb 12:19 - which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more: - See Ex 20:18-21

Heb 12:20

Heb 12:20 - For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart: - See Ex 19:12, 13

Heb 12:22

Heb 12:22 - But ye are come unto mount Sion - Mt. Zion is the beautiful mountain in the city of God, New Jerusalem. See Ps 24:3; Rev 14:1

Heb 12:22

Heb 12:22 - and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem - See Heb 11:10, 14-16

Heb 12:22

Heb 12:22 - to an innumerable company of angels - See Dan 7:10; Rev 5:11

Heb 12:23

Heb 12:23 - To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven - the redeemed of God who comprise Jesus' Kingdom, are all recorded and written in the books of heaven. See Mal 3:16; Ps 87:4-6, 56:8, 112:6; Eccl 12:14; Act 10:4; 1Cor 4:5; Mat 12:36, 37; Nehemiah 13:14; Job 14:13

Heb 12:23

Heb 12:23 - church of the firstborn - Jesus is the Firstborn of God, the Only Begotten of the Father and Firstborn from the dead - (Col 1:18). the church of God is comprised of the saints on earth, Spiritual Israel (not literal - 1Chron 5:1) , followers of Christ, and all those in heaven. See Ex 4:22; Gal 1:13

Heb 12:23

Heb 12:23 - which are written in heaven - the dead in Christ are they who are written in God's book of Life and Book of Remembrance in heaven. See Mal 3:16; Ps 87:4-6, 56:8, 112:6; Eccl 12:14; Act 10:4; 1Cor 4:5; Mat 12:36, 37; Nehemiah 13:14; Job 14:13; Lk 10:20

Heb 12:23

Heb 12:23 - God the Judge of all - See Eccl 3:17; Act 10:42; Eze 34:17;

Heb 12:23

Heb 12:23 - the spirits of just men made perfect - See Col 1:25-29; 2Tim 3:16, 17; 1Thess 4:14; Col 3:3; Eph 2:6 Two valid interpretations can be given for the thought expressed: 1. The righteous living, whose breath is still in their bodies, are represented as dead to sin, their lives are hid in Christ and dwell in heavenly places among those in heaven (Enoch, Moses, Elijah, those resurrected at Christ's resurrection) - Col 3:3; Eph 2:6 2. To the saints who have died in Christ and whose lives are hid in Christ, who will return with Christ and will hear the last trumpet and will come forth from their graves. 1Thess 4:13, 14; Joh 11:23-26; Col 3:3, 4 See Eph 2:6; Joh 17:14; 1Jo 3:1, 2; Heb 11:8-16

Heb 12:24

Heb 12:24 - And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling - See Jer 31:31-34; Mt 26:27, 28; Heb 8:6-13

Heb 12:24

Heb 12:24 - and to the blood of sprinkling - Heb 9:14

Heb 12:24

Heb 12:24 - that speaketh better things than that of Abel - Abel's spilled blood spoke of righteousness by faith as demonstrated in Abel bringing of a lamb for a sacrifice as well as the enmity that exists between the sons of God and sons of Men. Jesus' faith is the gold standard for righteousness by faith, and is made perfect through His shed blood that is effectual and powerful to cleanse the sinner of all sins. Mt 26:39||Lk 22:42; Heb 11:4; Gen 4:4

Heb 12:25

Heb 12:25 - See that ye refuse not him that speaketh - do not reject the voice of God. Jesus, the Holy Spirit and the apostles are they which speak the words of God, inviting all to repent and abide in Christ. See Heb 3:15, 4:17; 1Tim 4:1; Lk 6:49; Rom 2:4, 5; 1Jo 4:4-6

Heb 12:25

Heb 12:25 - For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth - Possibly speaking of the words of the prophets who forecasted imminent destruction which occurred (Noah, Jer, Jesus). Further, those who rejected Jesus' words would be judged by those same words. Joh 12:47, 48; Deut 18:18, 19

Heb 12:25

Heb 12:25 - much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from Him that speaketh from heaven: - A reference to Jesus in His High Priestly Ministry or perhaps the Father speaking through the Spirit of Truth - See Joh 12:28-30; Heb 10:31, 12:29; Mt 10:28;

Heb 12:26

Heb 12:26 - Whose voice shook the earth - See Ex 19:18, 20:18, 19; Deut 18:16-19; Joe 3:16; Joh 12:29, 30

Heb 12:26

Heb 12:26, 27- once more I shake not the earth only but the heavens - a great voice out of the temple of heaven - the voice of the Father is heard from the temple in the heaven, shaking the heavens and the earth once again - See Hag 2:6, 7; Joe 3:16; Rev 16:17, 18; Neh 5:13 I asked the meaning of the shaking I had seen and was shown that it would be caused by the straight testimony called forth by the counsel of the True Witness to the Laodiceans. This will have its effect upon the heart of the receiver, and will lead him to exalt the standard and pour forth the straight truth. Some will not bear this straight testimony. They will rise up against it, and this is what will cause a shaking among God's people. - {EW 270.2} "...it will be a revelation of the truth of righteousness by faith that precipitates the final shaking among God's professed people today, not persecution. The Lord will do the work, not Satan. He does not need Satan's cooperation in His final work." {Grace on Trial, R. Wieland, Never Become Babylon, pg 121} When the law of God is made void the church will be sifted by fiery trials, and a larger proportion than we now anticipate, will give heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils. {Ev 361.1} Satan will work his miracles to deceive; he will set up his power as supreme. The church may appear as about to fall, but it does not fall. It remains, while the sinners in Zion will be sifted out—the chaff separated from the precious wheat. This is a terrible ordeal, but nevertheless it must take place. None but those who have been overcoming by the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony will be found with the loyal and true, without spot or stain of sin, without guile in their mouths.... - {UL 356.5}

Heb 12:26

Hebrews 12:26 - shake - God will sift the world with His cleaver of truth (the Bible) and with His strainer to separate the wheat from the chaff. See Mt 3:12; Lk 3:17

Heb 12:27

Heb 12:27 - Yet once more - God will shake the earth once again and for all. All that can be shaken will be shaken and all that will remain shall remain. See Rev 22:11

Heb 12:27

Heb 12:27 - signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain - The things that cannot be shaken will be the renewed mind and character of Christ manifested in the saints. All other things will perish and come to nought (driven away as the chaff). The straight testimony to the Laodiceans is that which brings about the shaking. 1Jo 2:18, 19; Dan 2:35; 2Cor 4:18; Neh 5:13

Heb 12:27

Heb 12:28 - that those things which cannot be shaken may remain - the things that are built upon the Rock, Christ Jesus. Things that are eternal and not temporal. See Isa 28:16, 17; 2Cor 4:18

Heb 13:2 - Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares - See Lk 24:27-29; Gen 18, 19:1-3; 1Pet 4:9, 10; 1Tim 3:2; 2Kin 4:9, 10; Gal 4:13, 14
CONTRAST Mal 3:5

Heb 13:3

Heb 13:3 - Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body - we are to bear one another's burdens. Remember those, who due to life's circumstances, are bound and in need of support/encouragement. See Mt 25:36; Act 2:44, 45; Rom 14:7, 15:1, 12:15; Gen 4:9; Heb 10:34

Heb 13:4

Heb 13:4 - Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge - Marriage is a sacred trust and covenant, created by God in the beginning that He wants us to preserve. We must flee lusts of the flesh that would cause us to stumble and defile ourselves in this institution.

Heb 13:4

Heb 13:4 - but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge - See Eph 5:3-5; Rom 7:1-5; Jam 4:4; Gal 5:19-21

Heb 13:5

Heb 13:5 - Let your conversation be without covetousness - Let us not speak or live longingly for the things of the world which are passing away and the lusts thereof (1Jo 2:15-17; Jam 4:4). Let us not make idols of sex, wealth, possessions or power. Let us find contentment with what we have and long for the heavenly treasures: peace in the LORD, Christ's character, fullness of joy in Christ, all the fruit of the spirit. Mal 2:14-16; Col 3:1, 2

Heb 13:5

Heb 13:4 - and be content with such things as ye have - godliness with contentment is great gain - See 1Tim 6:6-12

Heb 13:5

Heb 13:5 - for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee - We should not strive for more than the Lord has provided in this life. He makes provision for all of our needs and we must find contentment in Him, knowing He will not withhold any good things from us. While Jesus is with us, we can be assured that all of our needs will be met. See Mt 6:25-34; Ps 84:11; Mt 28:20; Zeph 3:17

Heb 13:6

Heb 13:6 - So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me - Rom 8:31; 1Sam 17:26-51; Ps 56:4, 118:6, 16:8, 27:1, 2; 1Jo 4:4; Isa 8:12-16, 50:8; Mt 10:28; Joshua 1:5; Eze 3:9; 1Pet 3:13

Heb 13:6

Heb 13:6 - and I will not fear what man shall do unto me - fear not what man may do to us but what God can do to us. See Mt 10:28; Ps 56:3; 1Pet 3:6

Heb 13:7

Heb 13:7 - Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God - See 1Tim 5:17, 18; 1Pet 5:1-4; Heb 13:17, 24

Heb 13:7

Heb 13:7 - whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation - those whose positive example and lifestyle will shine forth to eternal life. See Num 23:10; Rev 14:13; Dan 12:3

Heb 13:8

Heb 13:8 - Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever - A statement reflecting the faithfulness, consistency and reliability of God. Rev 4:8; Ps 90:1, 2; Mal 3:6; Jam 1:17; Lam 3:22, 23; Ps 89:34; Heb 1:10-12 The fact that Jesus, the very Personage of the Invisible God has condescended from His exalted, ever-present position to eternally assume a body prepared for Him (Heb 10:8), of the fallen nature of Adam, subject to suffering and death (Lk 17:25; Heb 2:14-18, 9, 5:8) shows that Jesus' physical form has indeed changed. Therefore, the verse must assuredly be speaking of something other than physical form, namely His character and divine nature which never change.

Heb 13:9

Heb 13:9 - Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace - It is important that we not latch onto fanaticism which promotes self-righteousness and false gospels. We must see all things through the unmerited grace, favor, and gospel of Jesus Christ, which humbles us and takes away all self-glorification (Rom 3:23, 24). See Eph 4:14; 1Thess 5:21; Col 2:8 Paul may be commenting on those Jewish rites and traditions (ceremonial washings, foods to eat, holy days, etc.) that many Jews sought to hold onto tenaciously and thus denied the gospel of Christ. See Gal 5:1-18

Heb 13:9

Heb 13:11 - not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein - See Phil 3:19

Heb 13:10

Heb 13:10 - We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle - supposedly referring to the heavenly altar upon which Jesus offers His blood for our sins, this altar is above the earthly priesthood, of which they have no access to, nor its Sacrifice -

Heb 13:11

Heb 13:11 - For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp - See Lev 16:27

Heb 13:12

Heb 13:12 - Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate - See Mt 27:31-33; Mk 15:20-22; Joh 1:29, 36, 19:16-18

Heb 13:13

Heb 13:13 - Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach - See Ps 69:7, 8, 2Cor 12:7-10; 1Pet 4:14; Rom 1:16; Lk 6:22, 21:17; Contrast Isa 4:1;

Heb 13:14

Heb 13:14 - For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come - we have no city that will last, that is eternal, that is enduring, but we seek that which God has prepared for us. See Heb 11:13-16, 12:28; Joh 14:1-4; Rev 21

Heb 13:15

Heb 13:15 - By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name - See Ps 27:7

Heb 13:15

Heb 13:15 - that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name - the word of our testimony of God's faithfulness in the past and present will equip us to face our future with boldness and confidence. Rev 12:11; Philippians 2:14, 15

Heb 13:16

Heb 13:16 - But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased - let us add to our words of praise, good works which is pleasing in the sight of God.

Heb 13:16

Heb 13:16 - communicate - to commune, to interact, to continue intercourse with the brethren.

Heb 13:17

Heb 13:17 - Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you - See Heb 13:7, 24 Those who are under-shepherds to Jesus, the Good Shepherd, are here spoken. We are to follow them as they follow Christ (1Cor 11:1) and to work as co-laborers with them and Christ to the building up of the kingdom (Eph 4:11-13). We are not to selfishly war against their leadership as Korah, Dathan and Abiram and their hosts (Num 16:1-32), but we must pray that they be strengthened in Christ, that they live godly lives in truth and sincerity, and that they guide the flock of Jesus as appointed to them. See 1Pet 5:1-4; Heb 13:7; 2Cor 11:2

Heb 13:18 - Pray for us - See Eph 6:18-20

Heb 13:20

Heb 13:20 - Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus - See Isa 26:19; 1Thess 4:14

Heb 13:20

Heb 13:20 - our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep - See Joh 10:14-16

Heb 13:20

Heb 13:20 - through the blood of the everlasting covenant - The everlasting covenant has provisions for an everlasting possession for Abraham and his posterity, based on the promise of everlasting life. The See Gen 3:15; Rev 14:6; 2Pet 1:11

Heb 13:21

Heb 13:21 - Make you perfect in every good work to do his will - See Col 2:9, 10, 1:25-29

Heb 13:21

Heb 13:21 - working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ - See Phil 2:12, 13

Heb 13:21

Heb 13:21 - to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen - Jesus Christ, the Creator of all things is worthy of glory and honor for ever and ever. See Rev 4:11, 5:12

Heb 13:22

Heb 13:22 - suffer the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter unto you in few words - endure, tolerate, permit the words of exhortation to take hold.

Heb 13:24

Heb 13:24 - Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints - See Heb 13:7, 17

Heb 13:24

Heb 13:24 - They of Italy salute you - Paul wrote from Rome where he was a prisoner.

James

Jam 1:1

Back to Table of Contents

Jam 1:1 - Jam, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ - Jam was the brother of Jude and a half- brother of Jesus (son of Joseph) who was converted after His crucifixion. This was not Jam the disciple/Apostle, brother of Joh, as Jam the apostle was the first to be martyred among the apostles (Act 12:2). Jam played a prominent leadership role in the early church. See Gal 1:19, 2:9, 12; Act 1:13, 12:17, 15:12-29, 21:18, 1Cor 15:17; Jude 1:1

Jam 1:1

Jam 1:1 - to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad - Jam writes to the remnant of the Tribes of Israel, scattered abroad due to persecution/rebellion. Jam affirms the condition of Israel, scattered towards the 4-winds in fulfillment of the covenant curse spoken by Moses, namely, seven times scattering. At the conclusion of the 7x scattering, Israel would be gathered once again and God would enter covenant with His people. See Lev 26:28-33

Jam 1:2

Jam 1:2 - count it all joy - it is a choice and mindset to count it ALL JOY when we are tried by different temptation. I choose to count it ALL JOY because I know it develops patience.

Jam 1:2

Jam 1:2 - divers temptations - different types of trials. Trials and tests that appear from nowhere, unprovoked, unsolicited, undeserved. See Jam 1:12 Doubts come from the devil, and no man is so good that he is free from the suggestions of Satan. Even the Lord Himself had to bear them. He "was tempted in all points like as we are, yet without sin." Heb 4:15. The sin does not consist in the devil's whispering doubts in our ears, but in our acting upon them. This Christ did not do. {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 87}

Jam 1:3

Jam 1:3 - Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience - The strengthening of our faith and trust in God is the reason for the trial. The trial is to build spiritual muscles so that our focus, our reliance, our patient endurance, our confidence in God is perfected. See 1Pet 1:7

Jam 1:3

Jam 1:3 - patience - Heb 10:36

Jam 1:4

Jam 1:4 - But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing - See Col 1:11

Jam 1:4

Jam 1:4 - that ye may be perfect and entire - complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work. See Ps 101:6; Col 2:9, 10

Jam 1:4

James 1:4 - wanting nothing - we are to lack nothing in Christian character. We need spiritual maturity

Jam 1:5

Jam 1:5 - if any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God - Jesus is our Wonderful Counselor. We are to acknowledge God and ask of Him where we lack wisdom, and He will give it according to His riches in glory. Where He has already given counsel on our course or conduct, we should give it heed. See Isa 9:6; 41:28; Ps 111:10; Prov 3:5, 6 It is a deplorable fact that men have connected with men, looked up to them, placed them where God should be, regarded their words and works as inspired, their interpretation of Scripture inspired, and they have become copies of men. They are dwarfed in their religious experience. They do not lead out. They are letting other men be brains for them, letting another man search the Scriptures for them, and accepting his decisions as authority; and yet that man, whom they depend on and trust in, is compassed with the same human infirmities and weaknesses, and his defects really are regarded to be virtues to be copied. The Lord wants ministers of the gospel to search the Scriptures. Make no living man a channel. Accept not the work he does as without a flaw. Do not let him do the work God has told you to do. If you do, how are you occupying a safe position? Jesus bids you come to Him, the great Teacher, and learn of Him, and you should find rest to your souls. Let no man stand between your soul and Jesus Christ, thinking that the Lord tells him that which He refuses to tell you. Give God a chance, ministering brethren, to operate on your mind. Place yourself before Him as one who wants to learn of Him. You must place yourself before the Lord in diligently searching His Word that He may communicate ideas to you. He does not design that you shall be dependent on human minds. He would have you look to Him in faith to do large things for you, not through another man, but to you. - {1888 836.1}

Jam 1:5

Jam 1:5 - that giveth to all men liberally - God loves to give graciously wisdom to all men that they might live. See Prov 4:5-9, 16:16; Lk 6:38 Follow Moses' Example in Prayer—Talk less; much precious time is lost in talk that brings no light. Let brethren unite in fasting and prayer for the wisdom that God has promised to supply liberally. Make known your troubles to God. Tell Him, as did Moses, "I cannot lead this people unless Thy presence shall go with me." And then ask still more; pray with Moses, "Show me Thy glory." [Ex 33:18.] What is this glory?—The character of God. This is what He proclaimed to Moses.—(Gospel Workers, 417.) - {Pr 126.1}

Jam 1:5

Jam 1:5 - and upbraideth not - God does not reprove or chide for our lack of knowledge/wisdom.

Jam 1:6

Jam 1:6 - But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed - When we ask, we must believe we receive the blessings that God has purposed to give us. See 1Tim 2:8; Heb 11:1, 6; Mk 11:24; 1Jo 5:14, 15

Jam 1:8

Jam 1:8 - A double minded man - one who is serving two masters, for example, seeking to serve God and self, or God and money. See Mt 6:24; Lk 16:13; Jam 4:8, 3:10; CONTRAST 1Chron 12:33, 38

Jam 1:9

Jam 1:9 - Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted - there is coming a time when the last of this world will be first and those who are first will be last. See Lk 1:46-53; Mt 19:30; 1Cor 1:28

Jam 1:10

Jam 1:10 - But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away - the rich of the world are as a fading flower upon the fat valleys. They have enjoyed their bounty in this life, they have eaten of their reward and they have nothing more to look forward to. See Isa 28:1; Isa 40:7, 8

Jam 1:11

Jam 1:11 - For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth - See Isa 40:7

Jam 1:11

Jam 1:11 - but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth - See Mk 3:4, 5

Jam 1:12

Jam 1:12 - blessed is the man that endureth temptation - to withstand, overcome, be victorious over temptations. See Dan 12:10

Jam 1:12

Jam 1:12 - for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life - See Dan 12:10; 2Tim 4:7, 8; 1Pet 4:12, 13, 19; Heb 10:35-39; Crowns Bestowed by Christ—In that day of final punishment and reward, both saints and sinners will recognize in Him who was crucified the Judge of all living. Every crown that is given to the saints of the Most High will be bestowed by the hands of Christ—those hands that cruel priests and rulers condemned to be nailed to the cross. He alone can give to men the consolation of eternal life (The Review and Herald, November 22, 1898). - {7BC 958.2}

Jam 1:12

Jam 1:12 which the Lord hath promised to them that love Him - See Rev 2:10; Mt 20:10-14; 2Tim 4:8

Jam 1:13

Jam 1:13 - Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God - temptations do not originate with God but within the individual, based on their own lusts (Jam 1:14, 15) or from without, from the tempter Satan. God can only give good and perfect gifts. See 1Cor 10:13; Jam 1:17; Mt 7:11; Lk 11:13

Jam 1:13

Jam 1:13 - for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man - It is impossible for God the Father to be tempted by sin. This is by virtue of His holiness that is wholly impervious to, and above sin. Jesus, however, in His incarnation had to assume a holiness that could be subjected to temptation and sin. This is part of the mystery of God. See Mk 1:24; Heb 4:15; 1 John 1:5; Jam 1:17; 1Tim 3:16

Jam 1:14

Jam 1:14 - But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed - See Jer 17:9; Ps 51:5 Our hearts are desperately wicked. "...the devil cannot make us do anything we don't already desire to do". {Surrender, G. Jackson, pg. 15}

Jam 1:14

Jam 1:13 - when he is drawn away of his own lust - "when he is drawn away of his own fleshly DESIRES". See 1Jo 2:16, 17; Mt 5:28; Prov 6:25; Gal 5:16, 17, 6:8; Jam 4:3

Jam 1:14

Jam 1:13 - enticed - Incited; instigated to evil; seduced by promises or persuasions; persuaded; allured.

Jam 1:15

Jam 1:15 - when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin - the "offspring" of lust is sin. We must guard the avenues to the soul so that we do not find ourselves in sin. - See 1Jo 2:16, 17

Jam 1:15

Jam 1:15 - sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death - the wages of sin is death. See Rom 6:23

Jam 1:17

Jam 1:17 - Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of Lights - See Joh 3:27; 1Chron 29:14; Eph 1:3 the gifts of the Spirit may be referred to here: prophecy, tongues , administration, working of miracles, discerning spirits. Additionally, the blessings which God bestows are also gifts from above: 1. His Son, Jesus (Joh 3:16, 4:10) 2. The Holy Spirit (Joh 2:38, Act 10:45, 11:16, 17) 3. Eternal Life (Rom 6:23, 5:15-18) 4. The Sabbath (Ps 92) 5. A good wife (Prov 18:22) 6. Talents and gifts (Prov 18:16) 7. To eat, drink and enjoy the good of one's labor (Eccl 3:13) 8. Riches from the LORD and the ability to eat, take portion and rejoice in one's labors (Eccl 5:19)

Jam 1:17

Jam 1:17 - the Father of lights - See 1Jo 1:5; 1Tim 6:16; Ps 104:2; Heb 1:3

Jam 1:17

Jam 1:17 - with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning - See Mal 3:6; Ps 89:34; Rom 1:23

Jam 1:17

Jam 1:17 - neither shadow of turning - See Lam 3:22, 23. Great is Thy Faithfulness - Hymn 100

Jam 1:18

Jam 1:18 - Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth - the Christian Jews were begotten of God as a first fruit through the words of truth. Joh 1:12, 13; 17:17; 1Pet 1:23; 1Jo 5:4, 18; Eph 1:3-7

Jam 1:18

Jam 1:18 - begat he us with the word of truth - God's word is quick, life giving - See See Heb 4:12; 1Pet 1:23; Joh 3:5-8

Jam 1:18

Jam 1:18 - that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures - See Rev 14:1-5

Jam 1:19

Jam 1:19 - swift to hear - Prov 19:20, 8:33

Jam 1:19

Jam 1:19 - slow to speak - See Eccl 5:1; Jam 1:26; Prov 29:20, 15:28

Jam 1:19

Jam 1:19 - slow to wrath - See Prov 14:29; 16:23; Eccl 7:9; Tit 1:7

Jam 1:20

Jam 1:20 - For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God - our outbursts of wrath, becoming vexed and angered which is of the devil, does not produce the righteousness of God He is seeking to manifest in our lives. See Prov 16:32

Jam 1:21

Jam 1:21 - superfluity - Something that is beyond what is wanted; something rendered unnecessary by its abundance. Among the superfluities of life we seldom number the abundance of money

Jam 1:21

Jam 1:21 - and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls - receive God's engrafted word with quiet submission unto the saving of our souls. See Act 20:32; 2Tim 3:14, 15

Jam 1:21

James 1:21 - engrafted word - the words we have hid in our hearts. See Ps 119:11

Jam 1:22

Jam 1:22 - deceiving your own selves - we are delusional if we hear God's word, do not do God's word and yet believe we are in God's will.

Jam 1:23

James 1:23 - For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass - the glass or mirror is an allegory for the Moral Law of God that is as a mirror, reflecting our true selves to us. The Lavar in the outer court is here referenced as the priests needed to look at themselves and wash before entering the Tabernacle/Sanctuary. See

Jam 1:24

Jam 1:24 - straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was - If we do not accept with meekness the engrafted word and ask the LORD power to apply it in our lives, we will be hearers only and not doers of God's Word. See Jam 1:25

Jam 1:25

James 1:25 - But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed - those who look to Jesus, the Living Word, and continue in His written Word, will be blessed in their deeds.

Jam 1:25

Jam 1:25 - perfect law of liberty - the commandments of God are holy, just and good; those who walk in them are free indeed! See Rom 7:12; Joh 8:36

Jam 1:25

James 1:25 - and continueth therein - See Joh 8:31, 32

Jam 1:25

James 1:25 - this man shall be blessed in his deed - See Prov 3:5, 6; Ps 1:1-3

Jam 1:26

Jam 1:26 - If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridlesh not his tongue - a sign of a truly religious person is their discretion, their ability to hold their peace while holding their tongue under provocation. See Jam 1:19; 1Cor 13:5; Prov 16:23; 1Cor 14:37; 2Cor 10:7

Jam 1:26

Jam 1:26 - religious - re-ligios - meaning to be joined together by ligaments. Our body of belief is founded upon, and bound together by religion.

Jam 1:26

Jam 1:26 - and bridlesh not his tongue - a sign of a true Christian is their humility, meekness, temperance and self-restraint. Any who speaks unadvisedly and without constraint lacks wisdom. See Prov 29:20

Jam 1:27

Jam 1:27 - Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction - we are to be family to the widow and fatherless. See Ps 68:6

Jam 1:27

Jam 1:27 - to keep himself unspotted from the world - we are not to be corrupted by the doctrine of the spotted, leopard-like beast from the sea. See Eph 5:27; Rev 13:1-3; Jam 4:4

Jam 2:1

Jam 2:1 - My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons - as God is no respecter of persons, we too must not give deference to the wealth or the poverty, the gender, or any other classification of men. See Act 10:28, 34; Eph 6:9; Jam 2:9

Jam 2:4

Jam 2:4 - Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts? We are judges in that we judge people by appearances, not the content of their character. This form of social prejudice is no different that bias for race, gender, age or for any other classification/distinction. See Deut 1:17; Joh 7:24; 1Tm 5:21

Jam 2:5

Jam 2:5 - Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him? - See Lk 10:21 Jesus sought to correct the world's false standard of judging the value of men. He took His position with the poor, that He might lift from poverty the stigma that the world had attached to it. He has stripped from it forever the reproach of scorn, by blessing the poor, the inheritors of God's kingdom. He points us to the path He trod, saying, "If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me." [Lk 9] Verse 23. [88] - {CSA 62.7} Those who feel most their dependence upon God are usually those who have the least amount of earthly treasure on which to depend. - {UL 259.4}

Jam 2:7

Jam 2:7 - Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called? - the rich (and often the educated), who make their wealth their god, speak reproachfully about Jesus Christ and those who place their trust in Him.

Jam 2:8

Jam 2:8 - If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well - See Mk 12:28-34

Jam 2:9

Jam 2:9 - But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors - God Himself is no Respector of persons and treats all men alike. We ought to follow our Father's example in paying no great honor to any man but to treat all men alike. See Mt 5:44, 45; Jam 2:1; Act 10:28, 34; Eph 6:9

Jam 2:10

Jam 2:10 - For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all - God's law is a whole and can not be segmented or divided according to our own preferences and biases. If we are faithful in 9 and disregard one, we have broken them all. Jam 2:11; Mt 5:19

Jam 2:10

Jam 2:9 - the whole law - Mk 12:28-34; Deut 6:4, 5; Lev 19:18; Isa 58:6-10; Ex 20:1-17

Jam 2:12

Jam 2:12 - So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty - We must guard our words as one's who will have to give an account for every idle word spoken (Mt 12:36). We must guard our actions as one's whose works will be brought forth in judgment (Rev 22:12). See 1Pet 3:10; Eccl 12:13, 14

Jam 2:12

Jam 2:12 - law of liberty - the law is designed to bring freedom and liberty from sin (Joh 8:36). The law is a wall of defense against the wiles of the enemy (Eph 6:11) and will keep us from the perils and heartaches that come from sin. Jer 31:18-20

Jam 2:13

Jam 2:13 - mercy rejoiceth against judgment - God delights in showing mercy rather than judgment - See Eze 33:11; Isa 27:4, 5; Ex 25:21; Mic 7:18-20; Jer 10:24

Jam 2:14

Jam 2:14 - What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him? - what good if a man says he has faith but no works of obedience in agreement with his faith.

Jam 2:14

Jam 2:14 - can faith save him? - can a mere profession of faith save anyone who does not show corresponding works?

Jam 2:15

Jam 2:15 - If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food - See Isa 58:6-11

Jam 2:16

Jam 2:16 - And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? - those are vain and hollow words without substance. There is no corresponding works of faith to show one really believes, cares, and desires the other's good. 1Jo 3:17; CONTRAST: Act 2:44-47

Jam 2:17

Jam 2:17 - Even so faith, if it hath not works, os dead, being alone - See 2Cor 8:1-8 But salvation is not by faith alone; it is by patient continuance in well-doing, seeking for glory, honor, and immortality, that we obtain eternal life.. {1882 JHW, JBF 9.3}

Jam 2:18

Jam 2:18 - shew me thy faith without thy works - show me your faith through your hollow profession without corresponding good deeds.

Jam 2:18

Jam 2:18 - I will shew thee my faith by my works - Jam' works are not unto justification (Rom 5:18), but to show the genuiness and sincerity of the salvation he already posseses. He states that his works of righteousness are a mere outgrowth of the faith he lives by. Gal 5:6 Let the subject be made distinct and plain that it is not possible to effect anything in our standing before God or in the gift of God to us through creature merit. Should faith and works purchase the gift of salvation for anyone, then the Creator is under obligation to the creature. Here is an opportunity for falsehood to be accepted as truth. If any man can merit salvation by anything he may do, then he is in the same position as the Catholic to do penance for his sins. Salvation, then, is partly of debt, that may be earned as wages. If man cannot, by any of his good works, merit salvation, then it must be wholly of grace, received by man as a sinner because he receives and believes in Jesus. It is wholly a free gift. Justification by faith is placed beyond controversy. And all this controversy is ended, as soon as the matter is settled that the merits of fallen man in his good works can never procure eternal life for him. - {1888 812.2} "What you do speaks so loudly that what you say can't be heard."

Jam 2:19

Jam 2:19 - Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble - See Deut 6:4, 5; Mk 5:7; 12:29; Lk 4:33, 34, 41;

Jam 2:19

Jam 2:19 - the devils also believe, and tremble - the devils believe there is a God and they know His power, but they refuse to reverence/fear Him, they refuse to obey Him and refuse to believe in His Word and in His Character. The unrighteous, like the devils, do not believe unto salvation. See Rom 3:10-18; Mt 8:29; Contrast: Ps 103:20

Jam 2:20

Jam 2:20 - But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? - Faith without the active working demonstration of the faith is without any merit. If we know to do good and do it not (omission/commission), it is sin. The COI saw God and His power but in unbelief doubted His ability to fulfill His words/works (though they were finished from the foundation of the world - Heb 4:3, 11:6), and therefore could not enter His rest. See Jam 2:26, 4:17; Heb 4:1-5

Jam 2:21

Jam 2:21 - Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? - Abraham heard and obeyed the voice of God, unheeding of the consequences and the seeming dilemma in God producing His promised mighty nation from Isaac, and was pronounced righteous. See Gen 22:1-14; Heb 11:17-19

Jam 2:22

Jam 2:22 - Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? - See Heb 11:7

Jam 2:22

Jam 2:22 - by works was faith made perfect - our faith is credited for righteousness by the LORD as we apply and exercise our faith in works of righteousness. - See Gal 5:6

Jam 2:23

Jam 2:23 - And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God - Abraham believed that God would give him an heir of his own flesh when God told him to look to the skies and try to count the number of stars. God counted Abraham's faith for righteousness at that time. However, the ultimate test was to see if Abraham believed God would bring forth a mighty nation from Isaac, even after God commanded him to take Isaac and slay him. Based on this text, Abraham's faith, seen through his works of obedience, was accounted for righteousness. See Gen 15:6; Rom 4:2-5; Gal 5:5, 6

Jam 2:23

Jam 2:23 - imputed - counted, credited, ascribed to him for

Jam 2:23

Jam 2:23 - he was called the Friend of God - When we prefer God over anything in this world and above ourselves, we become His Friend. See 2Chron 20:7; Prov 17:17; Isa 41:8; John 15:15

Jam 2:24

Jam 2:24 - Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only - a man is justified by his profession and acts of faith rather than profession alone.

Jam 2:25

Jam 2:25 - Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way? - Rahab had heard of the God of Israel, how through mighty works He subdued Egypt and all of the might nations as the COI sojourned in the wilderness. She heard of God's righteous judgments and how the people were separate from other nations (Num 23:9), and she desired to become one of them. Further, she reasoned that the gods of the Jericho were no match for the true God and foresaw the cities overthrow. By faith, she aided this small people who were to go against the great and mighty armies of Jericho and as a result, her faith was counted for righteousness with the Lord!
Joshua 2:8-13, 6:21-23

Jam 2:26

Jam 2:26 - For as the body without the spirit is dead - See Eccl 12:7, 3:18-21, 9:5, 6; Eph 2:1-5

Jam 2:26

Jam 2:26 - For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also - See Mk 7:6-8; Eph 2:1-5

Jam 2:26

Jam 2:26 - dead - worthless, vanity, without any merit; like a dead lion (Eccl 9:2-4).

Jam 3:1

Jam 3:1 - My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation - Jam is cautioning the desire to be in positions of [spiritual] leadership (elder/bishop, pastor, teacher, etc.), knowing that greater accountability will be held towards that individual. An instructor in righteousness is to be an example in all godliness, and one who loves and searches out truth. He must be one who speaks the words of truth with no regard for men's opinion (Act 4:19, 20). To that end, we must not lay hands abruptly upon any man. See 1Tim 5:22

Jam 3:2

Jam 3:2 - For in many things we offend all - See Rom 3:23

Jam 3:2

Jam 3:2 - If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle

the whole body - See Ps 17:3; Jer 17:16

Jam 3:3

Jam 3:3 - Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body - See Ps 32:9

Jam 3:5

Jam 3:5 - Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth! - See Ps 141:3

Jam 3:6

Jam 3:6 - And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell - Isa 30:27

Jam 3:8

Jam 3:8 - But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison - See Prov 6:1-3, 12:13; Jam 3:6

Jam 3:9

Jam 3:9 - which are made after the similitude of God - See Gen 1:26, 27

Jam 3:10

Jam 3:10-12 - Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be - Since the mouth speaks the things that are resident in the heart (Mt 12:34; Lk 6:45), the mouth which speaks blessings and cursing so demonstrates a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways. See Mt 7:16-19; Jam 1:8, 4:8

Jam 3:12

Jam 3:12 - Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh - See Lk 6:43-45; Jer 13:23

Jam 3:13

Jam 3:13 - good conversation - The word "conversation" (Grk) actually means one's conduct, lifestyle and behavior. See Eph 4:22-24

Jam 3:13

Jam 3:13 - meekness of wisdom - the wisdom of God (from above) produces meekness and humility, not boastfulness and pride. We have nothing to boast of except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. See Jam 3:17; Rom 3:24-27; Eph 2:8-10

Jam 3:14

Jam 3:14 - if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts - See Ps 55:21, 26:4; Dan 11:27; Prov 10:18; Joh 7:19, 20; Gal 5:15; Rom 1:29, 13:13; 1Cor 3:3

Jam 3:14

Jam 3:13 - glory not and lie not against the truth - pretentious, hypocritical dissembling, and boasting in God with guile, a lack of genuineness - See Philippians 3:18, 19

Jam 3:14

Jam 3:14 - lie not against the truth - See Prov 21:27; Mk 12:14, 15; Mt 21:24-27; Gal 2:11-13; Jer 42:20; 1Jo 1:6; Ps 55:20, 21; Rom 1:18; 2Thess 2:9, 10; 2Pet 3:16

Jam 3:15

Jam 3:15 - desceneth not from above - the wisdom here mentioned is not from God but is from the earth, earthly (Joh 3:31), born of Satan. This wisdom ascendeth from the earth, just like the Beast from the Earth or False Prophet ascends from the earth. God desires that we be ignorant of this knowledge. See Rom 16:19; 1Cor 14:20 The papacy is just what prophecy declared that she would be, the apostasy of the latter times. 2 Thessalonians 2:3, 4. It is a part of her policy to assume the character which will best accomplish her purpose; but beneath the variable appearance of the chameleon she conceals the invariable venom of the serpent. "Faith ought not to be kept with heretics, nor persons suspected of heresy" (Lenfant, volume 1, page 516), she declares. Shall this power, whose record for a thousand years is written in the blood of the saints, be now acknowledged as a part of the church of Christ? - {GC 571.2}

Jam 3:15

Jam 3:15 - earthly - ascending from the earth - the False Prophet. See Rev 13:11, 5-7, 19:20

Jam 3:15

Jam 3:15 - sensual - suggesting a female and therefore the Beast power, the harlot woman that seduces and flatters. - Prov 6:23-25; Judges 11:1, 2 The Beast Power is also the embodiment of Satan's jealousy and envying, counterfeiting everything that is God's. See Isa 14:12-14; 2Thess 2:3, 4

Jam 3:15

Jam 3:15 - devilish - the devil is noted as being wrathful and causing strife. See Rev 12:12, 17

Jam 3:16

Jam 3:16 - envying and strife - those who exhibit envy and strife are said to be: 1. Carnal - 1Cor 3:1-3; Rom 8:6 [those who are carnal can not please God] 2. Babes in Christ needing milk - 1Cor 3:1-3; Heb 5:12-14 3. Preachers of Christ out of contention - Phil 1:15, 2:3 4. Leavened with the sin of malice and wickedness - See 1Cor 5:6-8; Prov 21:9, 19

Jam 3:16

Jam 3:16 - confusion - God is not the Author of confusion but rather Babylon, comprised of the Dragon, the Beast and the False Prophet, sum up Confusion. See Lev 18:23; Isa 24:1-10; CONTRAST 1Cor 14:33, 40

Jam 3:16

Jam 3:16 - every evil work - The fruit of envy and strife are confusion and every evil work. According to the Apostle Paul "evil works" are synonymous with being consumed by the "mouth of the lion". To be in the lion's mouth is to be found in the Beast from the Sea or

Babylon. Act 7:9; 2Tim 4:17, 18; Rev 13:2

Jam 3:17

Jam 3:17 - the wisdom that is from above - God desired that we only know the wisdom that is from above, not from below. Rom 5:5 All wondered at His knowledge of the law and the prophecies; and the question passed from one to another, "How knoweth this Man letters, having never learned?" No one was regarded as qualified to be a religious teacher unless he had studied in the rabbinical schools, and both Jesus and Joh the Baptist had been represented as ignorant because they had not received this training. Those who heard them were astonished at their knowledge of the Scriptures, "having never learned." Of men they had not, truly; but the God of heaven was their teacher, and from Him they had received the highest kind of wisdom. - {DA 453.1}

Jam 3:17

Jam 3:17 - first pure - the motives are pure, genuine, without dissimulation, hypocrisy, and without guile. See Rev 14:5; Rom 12:9; Gal 2:13; Ps 24:3, 4; Mt 5:8

Jam 3:17

Jam 3:17 - peaceable - not qurrelsome, war-like, contentious or argumentative. Given to peace and loving peace. See Heb 12:17; Mt 5:9

Jam 3:17

Jam 3:17 - gentle - not harsh, biting, curt, scolding,

Jam 3:17

Jam 3:17 - easy to be intreated - willing to yield, not needing to twist one's arm to get anywhere; reasonable - See Isa 1:18

Jam 3:17

Jam 3:17 - full of mercy - Mic 6:8

Jam 3:17

Jam 3:17 - good fruits - See Gal 5:22, 23

Jam 3:17

Jam 3:17 - without partiality - unbiased, fair and generous to all without exception; doesn't play favorites nor show unfair advantage to some - See Jam 2:1-9; Act 10:34; Eph 6:9

Jam 3:17

Jam 3:17 - without hypocrisy - without dissimulation; consistent; seeking the praises of God rather than the praises of men - See Rom 12:9; Gal 2:11-13; Jer 42:20

Jam 3:18

Jam 3:18 - And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace - those who make peace are they who sow (broadcast) peacefully, with the Spirit of Christ, the fruit of righteousness. There is no contention in their demeanor nor behavior. They do not seek to challenge nor provoke; they are not contentious and there is no guile in their ways. Rev 14:5; CONTRAST - Jam 3:16; Prov 21:9, 19, 14:1

Jam 4:1

Jam 4:1 - From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members? - the mind that is at enmity with God will be at enmity with others also... they way of peace they know not. See Eph 2:1-4; Isa 59:8; Rom 3:17; Rev 12:7-9

Jam 4:2

Jam 4:2 - Ye lust, and have not - the covetous, idolatrous spirit is here mentioned. See Jam 4:4; Col 3:5; 1Jo 2:15

Jam 4:2

Jam 4:2 - ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain - we kill with the tongue in slandering and assassinating other's character or rather, literally committing murder - See Jam 3:8-12, 4:11

Jam 4:3

Jam 4:3 - Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts - it is by God's mercy that He does not give us the things that we lustfully ask for, lest they lead to our destruction. See Lam 3:22; compare 1Jo 5:14, 15

Jam 4:3

Jam 4:3 - because ye ask amiss - anything we ask for with selfish motives, we ask amiss. God's ways and principles are based on self-sacrificing love. If we ask for that which will satisfy the flesh or our carnal lusts, we should not expect to receive it from the Lord, Who loves us enough not to curse us with our deceitful heart's desires. We must pray that the words of our mouth and meditations of our heart be acceptable to the Lord - Ps 19:14

Jam 4:4

Jam 4:4 - Ye adulterers and adulteresses - Jam speaks to an adulterous people who are supposed to be wedded to the Lord but are worst than harlots in their harlotry. Our harlotries are found in our friendship and compromise with the world (lusts of the flesh, lust of the eyes and the pride of life - 1Jo 2:16), signaling enmity with God. See Lev 20:10; Eze 16:30-34; Prov 6:20-26, 33-35; Hos 4:6-13; 1Cor 6:13; Jer 23:10 Study Chain: The Adulterous Wife - Prov 6:10-16, 24-26 Prov 2:

Jam 4:4

Jam 4:4 - know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? - the enmity here presented is the enmity that originates with Satan, the spirit of self and self-exaltation that is contrary to the knowledge of God and can not please God. Paul calls this mind the carnal mind, which is at friendship with the world but an enemy to God. See 1Jo 2:15, 16; Rom 8:5-7; Jam 1:27; Rom 10:1-4

Jam 4:4

Jam 4:4 - whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. - We can not serve two masters, we will either love God or love the world. We all start out in this position, at enmity with God. Since "whosoever hateth his brother is murderer", we all automatically are alike by nature and guilty of the crucifixion of the Son of God. See Mt 6:24; Lk 16:13; Gal 1:10; Rom 6:16-22 the things which bring honor in the world dishonor God. God's system and ideals for honor are vastly different than that which the world offers. God honors love, humility, meekness, kindness, gentleness

Jam 4:5

Jam 4:5 - The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy? - The Holy Spirit [Pneuma], Who is given to us a gift from Jesus and the Father (Act 2:38), abides in us and seeks to lead us into all truth. When we walk in the light as Jesus is the light, we have fellowship one with another and the Holy Spirit affirms our mutual sonship. When we walk contrary to the light, the Holy Spirit is envious with godly jealousy (2Cor 11:2), desiring our good and grieved that we resist the blessings He seeks to grant us. Persistent rejection and denial of the truth and the Spirit Who works within us will cause Him to be eventually grieved and turn away from us (Heb 6:4-6).

Jam 4:6

Jam 4:6 - But he giveth more grace - where sin does abound, grace does much more abound - PRAISE GOD!! See Rom 5:20

Jam 4:6

Jam 4:6 - God resisteth the proud - God turns His face from those who have contempt, who are self-righteous, who fail to exercise humility and repent, who scorn those who pursue Christ's righteousness, having their own form of righteousness according to the Law (their works - Rom 10:1-4). Should they persist in their unconverted condition, should they continue to strive in presumptuous sin, they will be guilty of the great evil and will perish in their self-delusive sins. See Isa 8:17; Ps 19:13, 101:5; Rom 2:4-6

Jam 4:6

Jam 4:6 - giveth grace unto the humble - Jam outlines the steps to humility for an adulterous people, that which would bring forth God's loving kindnesses and tender mercies during the Time of Judgment so that our sins may be blotted out (Ps 51:1). We must humble ourselves, repent, turn from our wicked ways and the Lord will heal us! - See Jam 4:10; 1Pet 5:5; Prov 18:12

Jam 4:7

Jam 4:7 - Submit yourself to God - we must yield, humble ourselves, give God the reigns of our hearts and permission to exercise His will in our lives (2Chron 12:5-7, 12). True submission requires a child-like faith (Mt 18:3, 4), and a healthy distrust of self (Jer 17:9; Joh 8:28; 1Cor 4:3, 4; Phil 2:5). Jesus submitted Himself to every word that proceeded out of the mouth of the LORD, resisting the insinuations of the devil and was therefore victorious. Eve on the other hand, did not submit to the LORD as she questioned His explicit command, she did not resist the devil as she engaged him and listened to his lying suggestions, and therefore she fell. See Mt 3:16, 17, 4:1-11; Rom 10:3; 2Cor 10:4, 5

Jam 4:7

Jam 4:7 - Resist the devil - we are to war and fight against sin. We must purpose in our hearts not to succumb to temptation but to commit our striving to the Lord. We should not dwelling on sin because that only intensifies the struggle. Rather, we should dwell upon He Who has conquered sin, Jesus (Heb 2:14-18). We must resist temptations when they arise, we must ask for strength to turn (change the channel in our minds) and co-operate with the Holy Spirit who wants to bring victory. We must daily put on the whole armor of God to stand against the wiles of the enemy. See Eph 4:27, 6:11-19; 1Pet 5:8, 9 We resist by not remembering the things of old: Isa 43:18 We resist by denying every thought that exalts itself against the knowledge and truth contained in God's Word - 2Cor 10:3-6 If there is any way by which Satan can gain access to the mind, he will sow his tares and cause them to grow until they will yield an abundant harvest. In no case can Satan obtain dominion over the thoughts, words, and actions, unless we voluntarily open the door and invite him to enter. He will then come in and, by catching away the good seed sown in the heart, make of none effect the truth. [7] - {AH 402.2} I have been shown that we must be guarded on every side and perseveringly resist the insinuations and devices of Satan. He has transformed himself into an angel of light and is deceiving thousands and leading them captive. The advantage he takes of the science of the human mind, is tremendous. The sciences of phrenology, psychology, and mesmerism are the channel through which he comes more directly to this generation and works with that power which is to characterize his efforts near the close of probation. [589] - {CCh 329.4}

Jam 4:7

Jam 4:7 - he will flee from you - See Mt 4:10, 11; Lk 4:13

Jam 4:8

Jam 4:8 - Draw nigh to God - Seek the Lord while He may be found (Isa 55:6; Ps 32:6, 95:7, 8) by faith through prayer, Bible study, keeping one's mind stayed on Jesus. "Every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself even as He is pure." Any hope aside and separate from purity and righteousness is a snare of Satan, sophistry, and fatal delusion. Jesus came to our world, and graciously stands inviting us to come unto Him and learn of Him, believe in Him; and as we come, He grafts us into His life and into His character. Our drawing nigh to Christ is faith, and the grafting process is adoption; and by this mutual act we become sons of God and joint heirs with Christ, partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. - {TSB 135.1}

Jam 4:8

Jam 4:8 - Cleanse your hands - Only those who cease from evil, having clean hands and a pure heart will stand in God's holy place. See Ps 24:3, 4

Jam 4:8

Jam 4:8 - purify your heart, ye double minded - Psa 119:9 those who are double minded are unstable in all of their ways (Jam 1:8). We must cease from lingering in sin and commit ourselves wholly/fully to God. We are either entirely in-Christ or outside of Christ. (Consider Noah's ark - Heb 11:7)

Jam 4:8

Jam 4:8 - ye double minded - See Jam 1:8; CONTRAST 1Chron 12:33, 38

Jam 4:9

Jam 4:9 - Be afflicted, mourn, weep - We are to lament over our sins, acknowledge our sinful condition and mourn over it. We should acknowledge that our sinful condition will lead to death.

Jam 4:9

Jam 4:9 - laughter turned to mourning and joy to heaviness - We should recognize the vanity in the world and in sin. We do this through earnest soul-searching. We are to avoid frivolity.

Jam 4:10

Jam 4:10 - Humble yourself in the sight of the Lord - fall before the Lord and confess your sins and iniquities. - See Jam 4:6

Jam 4:11

Jam 4:11 - Speak not evil one of another - we should let no evil communication come from our mouths nor slander/besmirch the character of another. See Prov 26:28

Jam 4:12

Jam 4:12 - There is one lawgiver - See Isa 33:22 ;Gen 49:9, 10; Ps 108:8; Mt 10:28

Jam 4:14

Jam 4:14 - Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away - See Lk 12:16-20

Jam 4:14

Jam 4:14 - For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away - See Isa 40:6-8; Mt 6:30

Jam 4:15

Jam 4:15 - If the LORD will - See 1Cor 16:7; Act 18:21, 21:14; Mt 6:34

Jam 4:16

Jam 4:16 - But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil - proud boasting and self-assurance is evil, sin.

Jam 4:17

Jam 4:17 - Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin - This demands that we evaluate every decision and weigh its merit or harm. See Prov 3:27; Joh 13:17; Rom 2:14, 15, 14:23

Jam 5:1

Jam 5:1 - ye rich men - Jam is not only speaking of the oppressive rich in the world but more so to the Laodicean, who is rich and increased with goods and thinks they have need of nothing. See Ps 73:12 Hoarded wealth is not merely useless, it is a curse. In this life it is a snare to the soul, drawing the affections away from the heavenly treasure. In the great day of God its witness to unused talents and neglected opportunities will condemn its possessor. {COL 352.1}

Jam 5:2

Jam 5:2 - Your riches are corrupted - speaks of the fleeting nature of all things upon the earth.

Jam 5:2

Jam 5:2 - garments are moth-eaten - the fate of the wicked is that their destruction will be as the moth eats through garments. See Isa 51:7, 8; 50:9

Jam 5:3

Jam 5:3 - Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire - their amassed wealth, that has sat idly, becoming cankered and rusted rather than being spent for the good of others will be a witness against the rich in the last days. See Zeph 1:18; Ezek 22:13

Jam 5:3

Jam 5:3 - Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days - the wealthy think that by their wealth they will escape harm in the final conflicts.

Jam 5:4

Jam 5:4 - Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud - See Lev 19:13; Deut 24:14, 15; Isa 3:14; Jer 22:13; Prov 22:16, 18:23

Jam 5:4

Jam 5:4 - crieth - the unissued funds that belong to the laborers cries out for justice. The Lord personifies the cries of misappropriated wealth, just as He personified the unjustly spilled blood of Abel. See Gen 4:10

Jam 5:5

James 5:5 - Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter - See James 4:4; 1Jo 2:15, 16; Ps 73:7

Jam 5:6

Jam 5:6 - Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you - The meekness of the just is here portrayed. They suffer injustice though they themselves are just. They do not murmur, complain or resist but patiently accept the injustice. They are killed. See Jam 73:8; Prov 18:5

Jam 5:7

Jam 5:7 - Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord - we must be focused, patient, enduring hardship, watching as to prayer, awaiting and anticipating with expectancy the Second Coming of Christ. We must not grow weary in well doing and we must not return to the former ways of the world. - See Gal 6:9; Heb 10:35-39; 2Thess 3:13

Jam 5:7

Jam 5:7 - husbandman waits - Jesus, the Husbandman tarries until He receives the precious fruit of the redeemed who have prepared themselves in receiving the Early and Latter Rains.

Jam 5:7

Jam 5:7 - the precious fruit of the earth - "Note that no one prepares himself or herself for "the harvest". The latter rain causes the grain to ripen. Our part is to welcome that blessing, and not to fight it off and resist it." {Grace on Trial by Robert Wieland pg 26.2}

Jam 5:7

Jam 5:7 - until he receive the early and latter rain - the husbandman (farmer) does the work of sowing, breaking up the fallow ground, and waiting for the rains, early and latter rains to gather in his harvest. So we must exercise patience and perform the works of repentance, pursuing righteousness and seeking the LORD that we may receive the rains, the fruit of the Spirit. See Act 3:19; Hos 10:12; Zech 10:1; Gal 5:22, 23; Jer 14:22

Jam 5:7

Jam 5:7 - early and latter rain - The early rain fell at Pentecost, and has been received ever since through the past two thousand years as untold multitudes of human souls have prepared for death. But there must come a change before Christ's Second Coming. A people must be prepared, not for death, but for translation without seeing death. Another great outpouring of the Holy Spirit will accomplish a work that makes ready a church, a community of believers, for the coming of the Lord. It also empowers them to complete the great unfinished commission of proclaiming the everlasting gospel to all the world. This final outpouring of the Holy Spirit is the latter rain. Isa 45:8

Jam 5:7

Jam 5:7 - latter rain - To Joh were opened scenes of deep and thrilling interest in the experience of the church. He saw the position, dangers, conflicts, and final deliverance of the people of God. He records the closing messages which are to ripen the harvest of the earth, either as sheaves for the heavenly garner or as fagots for the fires of destruction. Subjects of vast importance were revealed to him, especially for the last church, that those who should turn from error to truth might be instructed concerning the perils and conflicts before them. None need be in darkness in regard to what is coming upon the earth. - {GC 341.4}

Jam 5:8

James 5:8 - Be ye also patient - See James 1:3, 4

Jam 5:8

James 5:8 - stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh - See 1Jo 2:24

Jam 5:9

Jam 5:9 - Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned - Do not spread a bad report to turn one's heart against another. See Lev 19:18

Jam 5:10

Jam 5:10 Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience - See Heb 12:1-3; Lk 13:33

Jam 5:10

James 5:10 - of patience - See Heb 10:34-39

Jam 5:11

James 5:11 - Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord - See Job 42:7-17

Jam 5:11

Jam 5:11 - the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy - See Heb 4:16; 2Chron 33:11-13

Jam 5:12

Jam 5:12 - swear not, neither by heaven, neither by earth, neither by any other - See Mt 5:34-37;

Jam 5:12

Jam 5:12 - let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay - We are to speak the truth and never dissemble, thus we will not fall in to condemnation. See Mt 5:37; Num 30:2; 1Sam 1:23

Jam 5:13

Jam 5:13 - Is any among you afflicted? let him pray - It cannot be our duty to call for the elders of the church for every little ailment we have, for this would be putting a task upon the elders. If all should do this, their time would be fully employed,—they could do nothing else; but the Lord gives us the privilege of seeking Him individually in earnest prayer, of unburdening our souls to Him, keeping nothing from Him who has invited us, “Come unto me, all ye who are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest.” O how grateful we should be that Jesus is willing and able to bear all our infirmities and strengthen and heal all our diseases if it will be for our good and for His glory. Some died in the days of Christ and in the days of the apostles because the Lord knew just what was best for them.— - {PaM 233.4}

Jam 5:14

Jam 5:14 - Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: - See Mk 6:13

Jam 5:15

Jam 5:15 - And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up - prayer, trusting unreservedly in God's infinite power, will move God's hand and save the oppressed, raising them up from their earthly affliction. See Mk 16:18

Jam 5:16

Jam 5:16 - Confess your faults one to another - we are to acknowledge and confess our sins to the Lord, but we are to be genuine and honest in confessing our faults to one another where we have caused offense or grief. See Mt 5:23, 24; 2Cor 7:10, 11; Lk 19:8, 9

Jam 5:16

Jam 5:16 - faults - paráptōma Noun Neuter par-ap'-to-mah from (3895) from ; a side-slip (lapse or deviation), i.e. (unintentional) error or (wilful) transgression:--fall, fault, offence, sin, trespass. to fall beside or near something a lapse or deviation from truth and uprightness a sin, misdeed

Jam 5:16

Jam 5:16 - pray one for another, that ye may be healed - our prayers of intercession for one another must be earnest, desiring that God move mightily on behalf of the other person. See Mt 17:21; Mk 9:29

Jam 5:16

Jam 5:16 - effectual - Producing an effect, or the effect desired or intended; or having adequate power or force to produce the effect. The means employed were effectual.

Jam 5:16

Jam 5:16 - fervent - Ardent; very warm; earnest; excited; animated; glowing; as fervent zeal; fervent piety.

Jam 5:16

Jam 5:16 - righteous man - all have sinned and come short of the glory of God (Rom 3:23). All of our righteousness is as filthy rags (Isa 64:6). Therefore, the righteousness we receive from God is that which must be here spoken. See 2Cor 5:21

Jam 5:17

Jam 5:17 - Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months - Elijah was a man having the same trials and struggles that we have with sin and temptation (fear, self pity, self righteousness, distrust in God), yet, he prayed earnestly and the Lord answered his prayers. This is counsel that the men of old were not different in substance than we are, but rather they, in and by faith were able to gain the attention of God and move His hands to do great feats. See 1Kin 19:1-10

Jam 5:17

Jam 5:17 - subject to like passions as we are - Jesus too was tempted in all points as we are, yet without sin. However Jesus did not share in like passions as we. See Heb 4:15; Mt 20:23; Lk 12:50; Joh 12:27; Jon 1:3 He [Jesus] is a brother in our infirmities, but not in possessing like passions. As the sinless One, His nature recoiled from evil. He endured struggles and torture of soul in a world of sin. {2T 201.2} Prophets of God were human and could err like us all. They however, under inspiration could be given counsels that reveal their own and other's errors. Take for example Ellen and Jam White's misapprehension about seeking to go after a brother in error: The Spirit was poured out, and it settled upon us, so that the place was awful, and glorious. While I was inquiring of the Lord if He had sent His servant so far to go with me to hunt up Brother Rhodes, at that moment Brother Ralph broke out in a new tongue, unknown to us all. Then came the interpretation—"Yes, to go with thee."—The Present Truth, December, 1849. - {1BIO 197.4} The group knew that neither Jam nor Ellen White had much faith in the interest that was felt for Rhodes, and she cautioned Ralph "to be sure to get a clear duty from the Lord." She told him that she thought Edson's feelings for Rhodes were mere sympathy. Edson continues the story: - {1BIO 197.5} The next morning we had a season of prayer, and the Spirit was richly poured out, and the Lord gave Sister White the following vision, which was contrary to her former opinion and feeling relating to our going after Brother Rhodes, up to the time that the Spirit took her off in vision.— Ibid. - {1BIO 197.6} From the account of the vision as recorded in Present Truth we quote the heart of the message: - {1BIO 197.7} While in vision the angel pointed to the earth, where I saw Brother Rhodes in thick darkness; but he still bore the image of Jesus. I saw it was the will of God that Brethren Edson and Ralph should go. - {1BIO 197.8} Then I was shown Brother Rhodes's past labors in the Advent cause; that he had been mighty in word and in deed. I saw him standing before the people, with the Bible in his hand, and a stream of light coming from his mouth, which found its way to the hearts of the people.... I saw that he had proclaimed the Advent with great confidence, and had shown his faith by his works, and when the time passed, the disappointment was very great.... - {1BIO 198.1} I saw that Jesus was pleading His blood for Brother Rhodes, and that the angel was ready to enroll his name, as soon as he would come out of that dark place, and stand on all the present truth.... I saw that Brethren Edson and Ralph should make him believe there was hope and mercy for him, and tear him away, then he would come among the flock; and that angels would attend them on their journey.—Ibid., 35. - {1BIO 198.2} One point in connection with this experience is of particular interest, namely, the coolness of Ellen White toward the demonstration of speaking in an unknown tongue. She was unconvinced until a vision was given to her directly by God that the rescue of Elder Rhodes was in harmony with God's will. - {1BIO 199.1}

Jam 5:17 - and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months - Elijah's prayer was not his own prayer. Elijah prayed the prayer that the Lord directed Him to pray. The Lord looked upon the earth to see if there were any who truly believed and would honor Him. Elijah found grace in the eyes of the Lord and was moved to pray the prayer of judgment God had purposed and pronounced upon Israel for their rebellion, that for the spans of 3.5yrs there would be no rain. As he prayed this prayer according to God's will, believing in God, the Lord found Elijah righteous and honored his prayer of a famine, while making provision for His faithful, obedient servant. See Josh 10:12-14; 1Jo 5:14, 15

Jam 5:17

Jam 5:17 - three years and six months - the 3.5yrs of famine in the time of Elijah was a time of probation for the Nation of Israel and for the harlot Jezebel (2Kin 17, 18). During this time she massacred the prophets of God and forced the people into stark idolatry, filling the cup of her indignation (Rev 2:20, 21).

Jam 5:18

Jam 5:18 - And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit - it was at the prayer of Elijah, according to the word of the Lord, that the rains were released and the earth was restored to its abundance.

Jam 5:20

Jam 5:20 - Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins - See 2Tim 2:25, 26; 1Pet 4:8; 2Cor 2:7, 8

Jam 5:20

Jam 5:20 - shall hide a multitude of sins - the converted soul will have his sins washed away and his transgressions blotted out by the Lamb of God. See 1Jo 1:7; Rom 4:7, 8

Back to Table of Contents

1Pet 1:1 - to the strangers scattered - Peter affirms that which said of the saints who follow after their forefather Abraham, that they are strangers and pilgrims in a foreign land while here on earth. See Heb 11:8-10; Jam 1:1

1Pet 1:2

1Pet 1:2 - Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father - See Eph 1:4; Isa 42:1

1Pet 1:2

1Pet 1:2 - through sanctification of the Spirit... and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ - our election to God is made possible through the sanctification wrought by the Holy Spirit and the blood of Christ which cleanses us.

1Pet 1:2

1Pet 1:2 - unto obedience - our sanctification leads us to lives of obedience.

1Pet 1:3

1Pet 1:3 - according to his abundant mercy - See Ex 34:6, 7

1Pet 1:3

1Pet 1:3 - hath begotten us again unto a lively hope - we have been born again and renewed in the blessed, living hope of Jesus, the risen Saviour. 2Cor 5:16-18; Eph 2:1, 5; 1Pet 1:23

1Pet 1:3

1Pet 1:3 - lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead - Jesus is our Living Hope - Jesus embodies hope - Titus 2:13; Rom 6:5, 8, 8:24

1Pet 1:4

1Pet 1:4 - To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled - Nah 1:9; Rev 21:27, 22:14, 15

1Pet 1:4

1Pet 1:4 - and that fadeth not away - See Dan 2:44; Rev 11:15

1Pet 1:4

1Pet 1:4 - reserved in heaven for you - See Joh 14:1-3; 1Cor 2:9

1Pet 1:5

1Pet 1:5 - Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time - God's hidden ones are preserved blameless through the power of

God by faith (righteousness by faith), and will shine as the brightness of the firmament in the last days. See Rom 1:16; Ps 83:3; Joh 1:12, 13; Dan 12:3; Heb 1:3

1Pet 1:5

1Pet 1:5 - power of God - God's power is re-creative power, sustaining/maintaining power. See Rom 1:16, 20; Joh 1:12; 2Cor 5:17

1Pet 1:5

1Pet 1:5 - ready to be revealed in the last time - the hidden ones of God will be made manifest through the mystery of godliness, when God raises up a nation of priests, spotless, undefiled and without blame. The last time spoken is NOW! See Rev 10:7; 1Pet 2:9, 1:13

1Pet 1:5

1Pet 1:5 - last time - See Dan 11:35, 40, 12:4, 9

1Pet 1:6

1Pet 1:6 - though now for a season, if need be - we must be willing to endure for now, for a season, if God desires, the trying of our faith so that we may be found as pure gold at the revealing of Jesus Christ.

1Pet 1:6

1Pet 1:6 - ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations - the devil devises many/countless temptations and trials for the people of God to face. We are not to be shaken by this but to acknowledge it and remain in God's peace despite it.

1Pet 1:7

1Pet 1:7 - the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: - the trial of our faith is more precious to God than all the worlds gold would be to us. More than all the gold in the world, that will soon perish, could be desired of men, God sees the perfecting of our faith more praise worthy. See Rev 3:18; Job 23:10; Rom 5:3; Jam 1:3; Ps 119:14-16 Doubts come from the devil, and no man is so good that he is free from the suggestions of Satan. Even the Lord Himself had to bear them. He "was tempted in all points like as we are, yet without sin." Heb 4:15. The sin does not consist in the devil's whispering doubts in our ears, but in our acting upon them. This Christ did not do. {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 87}

1Pet 1:7

1Pet 1:7 - though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ - See Mal 3:2-4; Dan 12:10, 3;; Jam 1:3

1Pet 1:7

1Pet 1:7 - at the appearing of Jesus Christ - the Second Coming of Christ is the blessed hope and climax for the faithful that has been preached about by the prophets from the foundation of the world. Jesus is to appear once again in mortal flesh through the indwelling Holy Spirit. See Isa 60:1-3; 2Pet 1:19; 1Jo 4:1-3; Col 1:26-28; Eph 3:16-19; Rev 18:1, 10:7

1Pet 1:8

1Pet 1:8 - Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing
- See Heb 11:1

1Pet 1:9

1Pet 1:9 - Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls - the culmination of our walk of faith is our salvation in Jesus Christ - See Rom 10:4; Titus 2:11, 13; Heb 10:39

1Pet 1:9

1Pet 1:9 - salvation of your souls - Salvation is two-fold. 1. Salvation from sin. This is a progressive work of Christian life. Some mistake and think the work is finished because they feel that they love the way of truth, and have no desire or disposition to sin. But, as before noticed, they may sin ignorantly, and do things which are offensive to God because they are not fully instructed in the right. When these sins come to their knowledge they must repent; and if they refuse or neglect to repent of them, they stand as indorsing thorn, and then their relation is changed and they must be counted sins of presumption. And there is place for continuance of this work of increasing in knowledge and reforming in life until we become as perfect in knowledge as our circumstances will permit. This is growth in grace, without which the believer either remains a babe in the Christian life, or degenerates into a fixed state of formality; for no one has a complete knowledge of truth and duty when first he submits himself to God. It is incumbent upon him to grow up into it. {1882 JHW, JBF 6.2} 2. There is a final salvation which is brought unto us at the appearing of Christ; of which, salvation from sin (or justification and growth in grace) is the necessary prerequisite. Of this salvation the Scriptures make very frequent mention. The Saviour said: "He that shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved." Matt. 24:13; the same in chap. 10:22, and Mark 13:13. This salvation comes after that which is called "the end." Paul said to his brethren; "And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep; for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed." Rom 13:11. Waiving all question as to "the time" to which he referred, we notice that this salvation did not come to them when they believed. It is a future salvation to the believer. {1882 JHW, JBF 7.1}

1Pet 1:10

1Pet 1:10 - Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently - like the angels of God, the prophets of old were diligent students of the Science of Salvation. They desired to understand the details of how God would save mankind. See 1Pet 1:12; 2Tim 3:14, 15; Lk 10:34, 24; Mt 13:17; Joh 8:56; Act 3:24

1Pet 1:10

1Pet 1:10 - who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you - See Isa 55:1-5, 60:1-12; Titus 2:11, 12

1Pet 1:11

1Pet 1:11 - the Spirit of Christ which was in them - See 2Pet 1:21

1Pet 1:11

1Pet 1:11 - when it testified beforehand - the prophetic word - See Isa 46:9, 10

1Pet 1:11

1Pet 1:11 - sufferings of Christ - Jesus' First Coming to be mistreated of men and die on the Cross was foretold in prophecy. See Ps 16:9 10, 22:1-20; Isa 53:1-10; Zech 13:6

1Pet 1:11

1Pet 1:11 - glory that should follow - the glory of Jesus conquering the grave, seen manifest in His people, and the glory of Jesus' Second Coming in triumph. See Col 1:27; Ps 24:7-10; Heb 12:2

1Pet 1:12

1Pet 1:12

1Pet 1:12 - which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven - John 14:16; Act 1:8

1Pet 1:12

1Pet 1:12 - which things the angels desire to look into - See 1Pet 1:9; Eph 3:10, 11 God's wonderful purpose of grace, the mystery of redeeming love, is the theme into which "angels desire to look," and it will be their study throughout endless ages. Both the redeemed and the unfallen beings will find in the cross of Christ their science and their song. It will be seen that the glory shining in the face of Jesus is the glory of self-sacrificing love. In the light from Calvary it will be seen that the law of self-renouncing love is the law of life for earth and heaven; that the love which "seeketh not her own" has its source in the heart of God; and that in the meek and lowly One is manifested the character of Him who dwelleth in the light which no man can approach unto. - {DA 19.2} the heavenly angels, which excel in wisdom and understanding above any man that is alive or has ever lived, desires to look into the Science [Pursuit of Knowledge; Field of Study] of Salvation above all other sciences or fields of study. That their knowledge of all sciences is superior to man's and that they find the science of salvation of greater interest than any other field of study, shows that the Science of Salvation is indeed the highest field of study and science. AMEN! {thoughts taken from A.T. Jone's book, The 3rd Angel's Message, inspired by the Holy Spirit!} The science of salvation cannot be explained; but it can be known by experience. Only he who sees his own sinfulness can discern the preciousness of the Saviour. - {DA 494.4}

1Pet 1:13

1Pet 1:13 - Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ - We are to put on the belt of truth and gird up the loins of our minds. See Heb 10:35, 36, 12:12

1Pet 1:13

1Pet 1:13 - and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ - See Heb 12:2, 3; Rom 6:23

1Pet 1:13

1Pet 1:13 - the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ - the revelation of Jesus Christ is the arising of the Day Star, the Sun of Righteousness in our hearts - Christ in you, the hope of glory (Col 1:26-29; 2Pet 1:19; Eph 3:16-19; 1Jo 4:1-3; Lk 1:35). See 1Pet 1:5; Titus 2:11

1Pet 1:14

1Pet 1:14 - As obedient children - obedient children are they which love their Father. "If ye love Me, keep. my commandments" - Joh 14:15, 23

1Pet 1:14

1Pet 1:17 - not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance - See Eph 2:1-3

1Pet 1:15

1Pet 1:15 - But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; - See Lev 20:7

1Pet 1:15

1Pet 1:15 - conversation - meaning manner of life, conduct, behavior, deportment

1Pet 1:16

1Pet 1:16 - Be ye holy; for I am holy - See 1Jo 3:3; Lev 20:7 Holiness is constant agreement with God. Shall we not strive to be that which Christ so greatly desires us to be—Christians in deed and in truth—that the world may see in our lives a revelation of the saving power of truth? This world is our preparatory school. While here we shall meet with trials and difficulties. Continually the enemy of God will seek to draw us away from our allegiance. But while we cleave to Him who gave Himself for us we are safe. - {HP 33.4} Before the believer is held out the wonderful possibility of being like Christ, obedient to all the principles of the law. But of himself man is utterly unable to reach this condition. The holiness that God's word declares he must have before he can be saved is the result of the working of divine grace as he bows in submission to the discipline and restraining influences of the Spirit of truth. Man's obedience can be made perfect only by the incense of Christ's righteousness, which fills with divine fragrance every act of obedience. The part of the Christian is to persevere in overcoming every fault. Constantly he is to pray to the Saviour to heal the disorders of his sin-sick soul. He has not the wisdom or the strength to overcome; these belong to the Lord, and He bestows them on those who in humiliation and contrition seek Him for help. - {AA 532.1}

1Pet 1:17

1Pet 1:17 - And if ye call on the Father - Jesus, the Everlasting Father (Isa 9:6) will judge every man according to His work

1Pet 1:17

1Pet 1:17 - who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work - See Act 10:34; Rom 14:10

1Pet 1:17

1Pet 1:17 - judgeth according to every man's work - See 2Cor 5:10; Isa 3:10, 11, 59:18; Lk 12:47, 48; Rev 2:23, 20:12, 13; 22:12; Jer 17:10; 32:19; 1Cor 3:8; Prov 24:12; Rom 14:10, 12, 2:6

1Pet 1:17

1Pet 1:17 - pass the time of your sojourning here with fear - See Phil 2:12; Rev 14:7

1Pet 1:17

1Pet 1:17 - fear - reverent awe of God and His presence - See Rev 14:6

1Pet 1:18

1Pet 1:18, 19 - Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; 19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: - See Heb 9:13, 14, 10:4-112

1Pet 1:19

1Pet 1:19 - But with the precious blood of Christ - precious in that it was pure, undefiled, innocent and divine. The blood of Jesus which represents His life (Lev 17:11), was poured out for me! It is of infinite value and we are His prized possession! - See Act 20:28; Eph 1:14

1Pet 1:19

1Pet 1:20 - as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: - See Isa 53:7; Mt 27:4, 19, 23, 24; Rev 13:8 In every possible way Satan sought to prevent Jesus from developing a perfect childhood, a faultless manhood, a holy ministry, and an unblemished sacrifice. But he was defeated. He could not lead Jesus into sin. He could not discourage Him, or drive Him from the work He had come to this earth to do. From the desert to Calvary the storm of Satan's wrath beat upon Him, but the more mercilessly it fell, the more firmly did the Son of God cling to the hand of His Father, and press on in the blood-stained path (Manuscript 140, 1903). - {5BC 1130.1}

1Pet 1:20

1Pet 1:20 - Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world - Jesus was ordained to be the Redeemer of the world before the earth was created. See Gen 3:15; Act 2:23; Zech 6:13; Ezekiel 37:26-28; Eph 1:4; Rev 13:8; Heb 4:3, 10:5-7; 2Tim 1:9; Col 1:26 God would offer up His only begotten Son. Nay, more, God had already offered His only begotten Son, "who verily was fore-ordained before the foundation of the world", but who had yet to be manifested.

1Pet 1:20

1Pet 1:20 - but was manifest in these last times for you - See Gal 4:4; 2Tim 1:10

1Pet 1:21

1Pet 1:21 - Who by him do believe in God - it is through the faith of Jesus that we have a knowledge, love, and faith in the Father. Jesus came to reveal the Father to us and by Jesus, we now know Him. Jesus said, "no man cometh to the Father but by Me". See Joh 14:6, 7

1Pet 1:21

1Pet 1:21 - The Father has sent His Son to reveal Himself to mankind. Through the Everlasting Gospel, we are drawn to the Father, Who has raised Jesus up and glorified Him so that we might have confidence and hope in the Father and in His love for us. See 2Cor 5:17-20

1Pet 1:22

1Pet 1:22 - Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit - See 1Joh 3:3

1Pet 1:22

1Pet 1:22 - unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently - true sanctification of the Holy Spirit (being purified) leading to obeying the truth as it is in Jesus Christ, will cause us to love without dissimulation all the brethren. See Joh 13:35; 1Tim 1:5; 1Pet 2:1

1Pet 1:23

1Pet 1:23-25 - The Word of God is incorruptible seed that endures forever, causing us to be Born Again in the Spirit. See Joh 3:31; Mt 24:35; 1Jo 3:9 "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." 2 Corinthians 5:17. Through the power of Christ, men and women have broken the chains of sinful habit. They have renounced selfishness. The profane have become reverent, the drunken sober, the profligate pure. Souls that have borne the likeness of Satan have become transformed into the image of God. This change is in itself the miracle of miracles. A change wrought by the Word, it is one of the deepest mysteries of the Word. We cannot understand it; we can only believe, as declared by the Scriptures, it is "Christ in you, the hope of glory." - {AA 476.1}

1Pet 1:23

1Pet 1:23-25 - Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible - The Holy Spirit which makes effectual the [written] Word of God, incorruptible seed, that endures forever, causes us to be Born Again in the Spirit. See 1Pet 1:3; Joh 1:12, 13, 3:3; 2Cor 5:17; Lk 1:35 "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." 2 Corinthians 5:17. Through the power of Christ, men and women have broken the chains of sinful habit. They have renounced selfishness. The profane have become reverent, the drunken sober, the profligate pure. We cannot understand it; we can only believe, as declared by the Scriptures, it is "Christ in you, the hope of glory." - {AA 476.1}

1Pet 1:23

1Pet 1:23 - incorruptible seed - the seed that we receive (the Word of God) is from above and can not be made to sin. We must water and cultivate that seed until it buds and brings forth fruit. See Mt 13:32; Lk 8:5-11; 1Jo 3:9

1Pet 1:23

1Pet 1:23 - incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever - the Holy Spirit is the Incorruptible Seed (1Jo 3:9; Isa 1:9, 10:22; Rom 9:29) that quickens us through the Word of God; The Spirit lives, He is life giving, and He abides in us forever. See 1Pet 1:18, 19; Ps 12:6, 7; Heb 4:12; Joh 4:14, 6:63, 7:37, 14:16, 17; Mt 24:35

1Pet 1:23

1Pet 1:23 - by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever - God's word abides forever. See 1Pet 1:25; Joh 10:35, 1:14, 6:63; Isa 40:8; Ps 12:6, 7; Mt 24:35||Mk 13:31||Lk 21:33

1Pet 1:24

1Pet 1:24, 25 - For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: 25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you. - See Isa 40:7, 8

1Pet 1:25

1Pet 1:25 - But the word of the Lord endureth for ever - See 1Pet 1:23; Ps 12:6, 7, 119:89

1Pet 2:1

1Pet 2:1 - Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings - See James 3:14-16; 1Pet 1:22; Gal 2:14, 5:15, 19-21

1Pet 2:2

1Pet 2:2 - As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby - the Word of God is nourishing as milk to a newborn.

1Pet 2:3

1Pet 2:3 - have tasted that the LORD is gracious - See Ps 34:8; Rev 10:8-10; Rom 5:20, 6:1

1Pet 2:4

1Pet 2:4 - To whom coming, as unto a living stone - Jesus came as a Living Stone, a Rock of Offense to His enemies (Isa 28:16; Rom 9:32, 33), but a Rock of Living waters (Ex 17:6; Joh 7:37, 38), and a smitten and cleft Rock for all those who believe on Him (Ex 33:21-23; Joh 19:34; 1Jo 5:6, 8).

1Pet 2:4

1Pet 2:4 - disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious - Jesus, the Living Stone (Rock), is scorned of men but highly exalted of God. See Isa 53

1Pet 2:5

1Pet 2:5 - Ye also - Even as Jesus was disallowed of men but precious to God, so we in this world are disallowed of men, but precious to God. See Joh 15:19; Joh 17:11, 16, 18:36, 37

1Pet 2:5

1Pet 2:5 - lively stones - we are living stones in the temple of the LORD, just as Jesus is the living Rock of Ages. Even as the 12 stones gathered by Moses and Elijah represented the 12 Tribes of Israel, we are to be living stones on the alter of God, written with the Law of God within. We derive our life from the Living Foundation, Who is Christ. See 1Chron 17:12; Deut 26:6-8; Eph 2:19-22; Rev 3:12

1Pet 2:5

1Pet 2:5 - built up a spiritual house - See Eph 2:18-22; Heb 3:3, 4, 6 As a wise master builder, Jer at the very beginning of his lifework sought to encourage the men of Judah to lay the foundations of their spiritual life broad and deep, by making thorough work of repentance. Long had they been building with material likened by the apostle Paul to wood, hay, and stubble, and by Jer himself to dross. "Refuse silver shall men call them," he declared of the impenitent nation, "because the Lord hath rejected them." Jer 6:30, margin. Now they were urged to begin building wisely and for eternity, casting aside the rubbish of apostasy and unbelief, and using as foundation material the pure gold, the refined silver, the precious stones—faith and obedience and good works—which alone are acceptable in the sight of a holy God. - {PK 409.3} It was at the ordination of the Twelve that the first step was taken in the organization of the church that after Christ's departure was to carry on His work on the earth. Of this ordination the record says, "He goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto Him whom He would: and they came unto Him. And He ordained twelve, that they should be with Him, and that He might send them forth to preach." Mk 3:13, 14. - {AA 18.1} The apostles built upon a sure foundation, even the Rock of Ages. To this foundation they brought the stones that they quarried from the world. Not without hindrance did the builders labor. Their work was made exceedingly difficult by the opposition of the enemies of Christ. They had to contend against the bigotry, prejudice, and hatred of those who were building upon a false foundation. Many who wrought as builders of the church could be likened to the builders of the wall in Nehemiah's day, of whom it is written: "They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, everyone with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon." Nehemiah 4:17. - {AA 596.3} Kings and governors, priests and rulers, sought to destroy the temple of God. But in the face of imprisonment, torture, and death, faithful men carried the work forward; and the structure grew, beautiful and symmetrical. At times the workmen were almost blinded by the mists of superstition that settled around them. At times they were almost overpowered by the violence of their opponents. But with unfaltering faith and unfailing courage they pressed on with the work. - {AA 597.1} One after another the foremost of the builders fell by the hand of the enemy. Stephen was stoned; Jam was slain by the sword; Paul was beheaded; Peter was crucified; Joh was exiled. Yet the church grew. New workers took the place of those who fell, and stone after stone was added to the building. Thus slowly ascended the temple of the church of God. - {AA 597.2}

1Pet 2:5

1Pet 2:4 - offer up spiritual sacrifices - these spiritual sacrifices include: 1. Our bodies and lives, as a living sacrifice (1Cor 12:1, 2) 2. Sacrifices of joy and praise (Psa 27:6) 3. The unified church as a living temple for the LORD to inhabit (Eph 2:22) 4.

1Pet 2:5

1Pet 2:5 - acceptable to God by Jesus Christ - Christ's righteousness is what makes us acceptable to God. Jesus supplements and perfects that which we are lacking by His own righteousness. See Eph 1:6

1Pet 2:6

1Pet 2:4-9 We are lively stones in God's spiritual temple that He is building up, of which He is the [living] Cornerstone (Isa 28:16)

1Pet 2:6

1Pet 2:6 - Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: - See Isa 28:16; Rom 9:31-33; Ps 92:15 In quoting the prophecy of the rejected stone, Christ referred to an actual occurrence in the history of Israel. The incident was connected with the building of the first temple. While it had a special application at the time of Christ's first advent, and should have appealed with special force to the Jews, it has also a lesson for us. When the temple of Solomon was erected, the immense stones for the walls and the foundation were entirely prepared at the quarry; after they were brought to the place of building, not an instrument was to be used upon them; the workmen had only to place them in position. For use in the foundation, one stone of unusual size and peculiar shape had been brought; but the workmen could find no place for it, and would not accept it. It was an annoyance to them as it lay unused in their way. Long it remained a rejected stone. But when the builders came to the laying of the corner, they searched for a long time to find a stone of sufficient size and strength, and of the proper shape, to take that particular place, and bear the great weight which would rest upon it. Should they make an unwise choice for this important place, the safety of the entire building would be endangered. They must find a stone capable of resisting the influence of the sun, of frost, and of tempest. Several stones had at different times been chosen, but under the pressure of immense weights they had crumbled to pieces. Others could not bear the test of the sudden atmospheric changes. But at last attention was called to the stone so long rejected. It had been exposed to the air, to sun and storm, without revealing the slightest crack. The builders examined this stone. It had borne every test but one. If it could bear the test of severe pressure, they decided to accept it for the cornerstone. The trial was made. The stone was accepted, brought to its assigned position, and found to be an exact fit. In prophetic vision, Isa was shown that this stone was a symbol of Christ. He says: - {DA 597.5} "Sanctify the Lord of hosts Himself; and let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread. And He shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offense to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken." Carried down in prophetic vision to the first advent, the prophet is shown that Christ is to bear trials and tests of which the treatment of the chief cornerstone in the temple of Solomon was symbolic. "Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste." Isa 8:13-15; 28:16. - {DA 598.1} In infinite wisdom, God chose the foundation stone, and laid it Himself. He called it "a sure foundation." The entire world may lay upon it their burdens and griefs; it can endure them all. With perfect safety they may build upon it. Christ is a "tried stone." Those who trust in Him, He never disappoints. He has borne every test. He has endured the pressure of Adam's guilt, and the guilt of his posterity, and has come off more than conqueror of the powers of evil. He has borne the burdens cast upon Him by every repenting sinner. In Christ the guilty heart has found relief. He is the sure foundation. All who make Him their dependence rest in perfect security. - {DA 598.2}

1Pet 2:6 - elect - See Isa 42:1

1Pet 2:6

1Pet 2:5 - he that believeth on him shall not be confounded - the only work the Lord asks of us is to believe in Him, believe on Him, and to believe Him: 1. Believe that in Him I am a new creation (2Cor 5:17); I have been chosen to be holy and without blame (Eph 1:4) 2. Believe on Him for strength to be kept from falling and to be presented faultless (Jude 1:24) 3. Believe that He is the Faithful and True Witness and what He says is true (Joh 5:32; Rev 3:14)

1Pet 2:7

1Pet 2:7 - Unto you therefore which believe he is precious - The wise will understand and see Jesus as Precious, but the wicked will not understand and will cast Him off. See Dan 12:10; 1Pet 4:14

1Pet 2:7

1Pet 2:7 - but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner - Rom 9:32

1Pet 2:7

1Pet 2:7 - the stone which the builders disallowed - The truth revealed to Peter by the Holy Spirit, that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God is the Rock upon which Jesus' church is built. See Mt 16:18; Act 4:11; Lk 20:17; Ps 118:22; Rom 9:31-33 Christ was the cornerstone of the Jewish economy, and of the whole plan of salvation. This foundation stone the Jewish builders, the priests and rulers of Israel, were now rejecting. {DA 597.2} "In quoting the prophecy of the rejected stone, Christ referred to an actual occurrence in the history of Israel. The incident was connected with the building of the first temple. While it had a special application at the time of Christ's first advent, and should have appealed with special force to the Jews, it has also a lesson for us." The Desire of Ages, 598.

1Pet 2:7

1Pet 2:7 - the same is made the head of the corner - When the temple of Solomon was erected, the immense stones for the walls and the foundation were entirely prepared at the quarry; after they were brought to the place of building, not an instrument was to be used upon them; the workmen had only to place them in position. 1Pet 2:8

1Pet 2:8 - a stone of stumbling and a rock of offence - See Ps 118:22, 23; Mt 21:44; Lk 20:18; 1Cor 1:23

1Pet 2:8

1Pet 2:8 - even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient - See Rom 1:18-32

1Pet 2:8

1Pet 2:8 - whereunto also they were appointed - despite the rejection of the wicked, they were appointed and foreordained to righteousness in Jesus Christ (Joh 4:42, Isa 49:6, 40:5; Rom 5:18). They, through rebellion like Satan and his hosts, have forsaken their estate (Ju 1:6) to choose a life of conflict with God's ordained plan. By their choice, they are therefore appointed to destruction.

1Pet 2:9

1Pet 2:9 - But ye are a chosen generation - See Ps 24:6

1Pet 2:9

1Pet 2:9 - a royal priesthood - a kingdom of priests - See Ex 19:6; Isa 66:19-21

1Pet 2:9

1Pet 2:9 - a peculiar people - See Tit 2:11-14; 1Cor 4:9; Zech 3:8

1Pet 2:9

1Pet 2:9 - that ye should shew forth the praises of him - See Isa 43:20, 21, 60:6; Mt 5:16

1Pet 2:9

1Pet 2:9 - called you out of darkness into His marvelous light - See 2Cor 4:6; Joh 12:36; Eph 5:8; 1 Thess 5:5; Col 1:13

1Pet 2:10

1Pet 2:10 - Which in times past were not a people - See Deut 32:21; Hosea 2:23; Rom 9:25, 10:19; Eph 2:11-18

1Pet 2:10

1Pet 2:10 - but are now the people of God - See Act 10:45-48

1Pet 2:11

1Pet 2:11 - I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims - Mt 9:58; Joh 18:36; Heb 11:8-10; Joh 8:23

1Pet 2:11

1Pet 2:11 - abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; - See 1Jo 2:16; Act 15:20-29; 1Cor 6:18; Rom 7:18

1Pet 2:11

1Pet 2:11 - which war against the soul - we must put on the whole armor of God to withstand the attacks of the devil - See Gal 5:17; Eph 6:11-20

1Pet 2:12

1Pet 2:12 - Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation - the Jews were notorious for being rabble rousers, dissenters, insurrectionists and rebels. The apostle is admonishing the saints to live orderly, godly lives before the Gentiles in order to disprove the prejudice they had towards Christians, whom they lumped in with the Jews. See Ezr 4:19; Mk 15:7; Act 18:12; 1Pet 3:16

1Pet 2:12

1Pet 2:12 - glorify God in the day of visitation - The day of trial/test/judgment, the day of the Sunday Law. See Mic 7:4; Jer 8:12, 12, 10:14, 15, 11:21-23, 23:11, 12, 48:44; Hos 9:7

1Pet 2:13

1Pet 2:13 - Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake - The command to submit to government ordained by God is to be upheld by all Christians, saving in the instance where man's decrees unrighteously oppose God's decrees. See Mt 22:16-21; Rom 13:1-7

1Pet 2:15

1Pet 2:15 - For so is the will of God - See Dan 2:21

1Pet 2:15

1Pet 2:15 - that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men - Peter is encouraging the saints to be law abiding so that the prejudices of ignorant men who war against or are suspicious of the cross of Christ and its followers may be silenced - See 1Pet 2:12; 1Pet 3:16

1Pet 2:16

1Pet 2:16 - As free - where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. We are free from sin, guilt, from guile, from reproach as we walk in the Spirit with the whole armor of God. See 2Cor 3:17; John 8:31, 32, 36; Isa 32:17

1Pet 2:16

1Pet 2:16 - and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness - we are not to dissemble, feigning to be Christlike and pious in order to provoke or evoke a response from others. We are to be pure in heart and genuine in our Christian works, motives and affections. See Rom 14:16

1Pet 2:17

1Pet 2:17 - Honour all men - respect and give due regard to all men without partiality. See James 2:1-9

1Pet 2:17

1Pet 2:17 - Love the brotherhood - love the body of Christ, the fellowship of the Spirit.

1Pet 2:17

1Pet 2:17 - Fear God - give reverence to God, Who alone is Reverend. See Rev 14:7

1Pet 2:18

1Pet 2:18 - not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward - Consider Nabal - 1Sam 25

1Pet 2:18

1Pet 2:18 - froward - Perverse, that is, turning from, with aversion or reluctance; not willing to yield or comply with what is required; unyielding; ungovernable; refractory; disobedient; peevish; as a froward child.

1Pet 2:19

1Pet 2:19 - if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully - God honors those who patiently endure undeserved oppression, as they share in Christ's suffering. See 1Pet 2:20, 21

1Pet 2:20

1Pet 2:20 - For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God - See 1Pet 4:15

1Pet 2:20

1Pet 2:20 - but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God - See Heb 5:8

1Pet 2:21

1Pet 2:21

1Pet 2:21 - because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps - See 1Pet 3:18; 1Jo 3:2, 3

1Pet 2:22

1Pet 2:22 - Who did no sin - See Heb 4:15

1Pet 2:22

1Pet 2:22 - neither was guile found in his mouth - See Rev 14:5

1Pet 2:23

1Pet 2:23 - Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously - See Philippians 1:28, 29

1Pet 2:24

1Pet 2:24 - Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed - See Isa 53:4, 5; Gal 3:13

1Pet 2:24

1Pet 2:24 - that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness - See Rom 6:11, 8:4; Gal 2:20; Col 3:3

1Pet 2:24

1Pet 2:24 - by whose stripes ye were healed - See Isa 53:5

1Pet 2:25

1Pet 2:25 - For ye were as sheep going astray - See Isa 53:6; Mt 9:36; Rom 3:12

1Pet 2:25

1Pet 2:25 - but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls - See Lk 15:4; John 10:11-14

1Pet 2:25

1Pet 2:25 - Bishop of your souls - See Heb 8

1Pet 3:1

1Pet 3:1 - be in subjection to your own husbands - See 1Pet 3:5; Num 30:6-8

1Pet 3:1

1Pet 3:1 - they also may without the word be won - the power of one's lifestyle can influence others, who have not the Word of God, for their salvation. See 1Pet 3:2

1Pet 3:1

1Pet 3:1 - conversation - manner of life, conduct, behaviour, deportment

1Pet 3:2

1Pet 3:2 - chaste - Pure from all unlawful commerce of sexes. Applied to persons before marriage, it signifies pure from all sexual commerce, undefiled; applied to married persons, true to the marriage bed.

1Pet 3:4

1Pet 3:4 - But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price - See Prov 31:11, 12, 25-27

1Pet 3:5

1Pet 3:5 - For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands - the holy women of Scripture (Sarah, Hannah, Rebecca, etc.) are described as trusting in God, adorning themselves with meekness and with a quiet spirit and confiding in their husbands.

1Pet 3:6

1Pet 3:6 - Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord - See Ps 45:10, 11; Gen 3:16

1Pet 3:7

1Pet 3:7 - giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel - respecting your wife; preferring her above all others; loving her above all others; understanding her frailties with kind regard and patience.

1Pet 3:7

1Pet 3:7 - and as being heirs together of the grace of life - as partners who will inherit eternal life.

1Pet 3:7

1Pet 3:7 - that your prayers not be hindered - See Joh 9:31

1Pet 3:8

1Pet 3:8 - Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous - See Philippians 2:1-4

1Pet 3:9

1Pet 3:9 - Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing - See Mt 5:44, 45

1Pet 3:9

1Pet 3:9 - knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing - when we put on Christ, we declare that Christ has abolished the enmity that was within us so that we may be reconciled to God and to men. We therefore, act and live by the perfect law of liberty, loving God and loving men and thus glorifying God.

1Pet 3:10

1Pet 3:10 - For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile - See Mt 12:36; Jam 2:12; 1Pet 2:21, 22; Rev 14:5

1Pet 3:11

1Pet 3:11 - Let him eschew evil, and do good - See Job 1:8

1Pet 3:12

1Pet 3:12 - For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers - See Ps 34:15

1Pet 3:12

1Pet 3:12 - but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil - See Ps 34:16; Isa 59:1, 2

1Pet 3:13

1Pet 3:13 - And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good? - See Ps 34:17-20, 22; Heb 13:6

1Pet 3:14

1Pet 3:14 - But and if ye suffer for righteousness sake, happy are ye - See 1Pet 2:19, 3:17; Isa 32:17;

1Pet 3:14

1Pet 3:13 - and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled - See Philippians 1:28; 1Pet 2:23

1Pet 3:15

1Pet 3:15 - But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts - Christ is supposed to fill the highest position in the heart and mind of the Christian. We are to allow God to fill us with Himself entirely through the abiding Holy Spirit so that the righteousness of Jesus Christ will make us righteous, partakers of the divine nature. See 2Pet 1:4; Joh 17:17 Holiness is constant agreement with God. Shall we not strive to be that which Christ so greatly desires us to be—Christians in deed and in truth—that the world may see in our lives a revelation of the saving power of truth? This world is our preparatory school. While here we shall meet with trials and difficulties. Continually the enemy of God will seek to draw us away from our allegiance. But while we cleave to Him who gave Himself for us we are safe. - {HP 33.4}

1Pet 3:15

1Pet 3:15- be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you - See 2Tim 4:2; Isa 43:10-14; Prov 22:20, 21; 2Cor 1:4

1Pet 3:15

1Pet 3:15 - the hope that is in you - See 2Cor 4:6-18

1Pet 3:15

1Pet 3:16 - with meekness and fear - with humility and reverence for God. We are to carry and conduct ourselves as ones who have redeemed from certain death and have a grave and earnest appreciation for the sacrifices made on our behalf.

1Pet 3:16

1Pet 3:16 - Having a good conscience - having a clear conscience that we have served the Lord in sincerity and in truth without guile. - See Mt 5:14-16

1Pet 3:16

1Pet 3:16 - whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ - See 1Pet 2:12, 15

1Pet 3:17

1Pet 3:17 - For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing - See 1Pet 4:19

1Pet 3:18

1Pet 3:18-20 - The teaching that Jesus descended to hell at His death and preached to the souls in prison is taught based on the following verses. The verses however show the following: 1. The subject of verse 19 "By which he went and preached", refers to the Holy Spirit, not Jesus 2. The Holy Spirit, not Jesus, spoke and ministered through Noah in his time to those spirits (souls or persons bound) in prison. 3. The spirits in prison refer to the dead in trespasses and sins, and secondarily, those who are in the prison of the grave. See Eph

2:1; Col 2:13; Ps 142:7; Isa 24:21, 22 Jesus died, was buried, and rose from the grave the third day according to the scriptures (1Cor 15:1-6). He did not ascend to heaven in death as He counseled Mary not to touch Him until He ascended to His Father (Joh 20:16, 17)

1Pet 3:18

1Pet 3:18 - For Christ also hath once suffered for sins - The death of Christ on the cross was efficacious for the remission of sins for all time. There is no need to continually crucify Christ, as taught and celebrated through the catholic ceremony of the eucharist, where the bread and wine are blasphemously transformed into the literal body and blood of Christ. See Heb 7:27; Rom 6:10; Heb 9:28, 10:10

1Pet 3:18

1Pet 3:18 - the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit: - See 1Pet 2:21

1Pet 3:18

1Pet 3:18 - but quickened by the Spirit - See Joh 6:63; Rom 8:11, 1:4; Eph 1:20, 2:1

1Pet 3:19

1Pet 3:19 - The Holy Spirit Spoke through the prophets of old, to those bound in the prison of sin: Neh 9:20, 30; Zech 7:11, 12, Isa 61:1; Lk 4:17-21; Joh 8:32; Heb 1:1; Ju 1:14, 15; (Jesus, the Truth, liberates the living, not the dead); 2Pet 2:18, 19 || Prov 5:22 The Holy Spirit Quickens: Rom 8:11

1Pet 3:19

1Pet 3:19 - By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison - The Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the Godhead, extended grace (Gen 6:3; Tit 2:11) and spoke through the prophets of old to those bound in the prison of sin: Neh 9:20, 30; Zech 7:11, 12, Isa 61:1; Lk 4:17-21; Joh 8:32; Heb 1:1; Ju 1:14, 15; 1Pet 4:6 (Jesus, the Truth, liberates the living, not the dead); 2Pet 2:18, 19 || Prov 5:22 The Holy Spirit Quickens: Rom 8:11 This is an example of a difficult scripture written by Paul for which many wrest from its intended meaning. See 2Pet 3:15, 16

1Pet 3:19

1Pet 3:19 - spirits - [pneuma - breath, a current of air; the rational mind of a human being] the sentient element in man, that by which he perceives, reflects, feels, desires {Vine's concise dictionary}

1Pet 3:19

1Pet 3:19 - prison - [phylake - to guard or watch; figuratively a hold or cage] the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus led captivity captive and gave gifts to men (Ps 68:18, Eph 4:8). Those only who have accepted Christ benefit from the deliverance from captivity and the gifts [of the Spirit] (Rom 8:1, 2). Others, as mentioned here in this verse remain bound as captives and prisoners (See Ju 1:6). Though one might suppose the prison here spoken refers to death and the grave, which rightly are a kind of temporary prison (Heb 2:15), by context of the ensuing verse, verse 21, we see that the illustration is an allegory to symbolize the prison of sin (Eph 2:1; Col 2:13) for which baptism liberates all who are affected by a good conscience (1Pet 3:21). See 1Pet 4:6 If Jesus went to preach to the souls in hell, this would have been a pointless task. The souls in hell are condemned to death and are lost (Rev 20:13-15). There is no need to preach to them if they have lost their salvation. Preaching is for the living who have time to repent (Rom 2:4)

1Pet 3:20 - Which sometime were disobedient - which in times past were disobedient

1Pet 3:20

1Pet 3:20 - when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah - Praise God for His longsuffering which is our salvation, wishing none should perish but that all should come to repentance (2Pet 3:9). PRAISE YOU LORD!!! See 2Pet 3:15

1Pet 3:20

1Pet 3:20 - longsuffering of God waited - the LORD tarried so that He might be gracious to the antedeluvians. Isa 30:18

1Pet 3:20

1Pet 3:21 - while the ark was a preparing - Noah was a preacher of righteousness who through the Holy Spirit warned the antedeluvians of the coming destruction. See 2Pet 2:5; Heb 11:7; Zech 7:11, 12

1Pet 3:20

1Pet 3:20 - wherein few - See Gen 7:23; Isa 24:6

1Pet 3:20

1Pet 3:20 - eight souls - If you lower the standard in order to secure popularity and an increase of numbers, and then make this increase a cause of rejoicing, you show great blindness. If numbers were evidence of success, Satan might claim the pre-eminence; for in this world his followers are largely in the majority. It is the degree of moral power pervading the college that is a test of its prosperity. It is the virtue, intelligence, and piety of the people composing our churches, not their numbers, that should be a source of joy and thankfulness. - {5T 31.3}

1Pet 3:21

1Pet 3:21 - The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us - Rom 6:1-14

1Pet 3:21

1Pet 3:21 - the answer of a good conscience toward God - the righteous and reasonable service from the convicting power of the Holy Spirit is to repent, be converted and to be baptized, that our sins may be blotted out. See Act 3:19; Gen 39:9; Act 8:12, 19:1-5; Joh 7:17; Rom 6:17

1Pet 4:2 - That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men - See Rom 8:1-14; Gal 6:8

1Pet 4:2

1Pet 4:3 - but to the will of God - See Mt 6:9-13

1Pet 4:3

1Pet 4:3 - For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries: - See Eph 2:2, 3

1Pet 4:3

1Pet 4:4 - abominable idolatries - See Col 3:5

1Pet 4:4

1Pet 4:4 - speaking evil of you - 1Pet 2:12, 3:16, 4:14; Ps 35:15, 16

1Pet 4:5

1Pet 4:5 - Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead - See 2Tim 4:1; Act 10:42

1Pet 4:6

1Pet 4:6 - was the gospel preached also to them that are dead - See 1Pet 3:18-20; Titus 2:11; Heb 4:2; Gen 6:8

1Pet 4:6

1Pet 4:6 - that they might be judged according to men in the flesh - the dead will be judge according to the same judgment of the living, as all have heard the gospel message spoken to them. See Heb 4:2; Titus 2:11

1Pet 4:6

1Pet 4:6 - but live according to God in the Spirit - See 1Cor 15:41-54

1Pet 4:7 - But the end of all things is at hand - Rev 22:12

1Pet 4:7

1Pet 4:7 - be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer - See Tit 2:11, 12; 1Pet 5:8; 1Thess 5:6-11

1Pet 4:8

1Pet 4:8 - And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves - See 1Pet 1:22; 1Jo 3:14-16

1Pet 4:8

1Pet 4:8 - charity shall cover the multitude of sins - See Prov 10:12; James 5:20; 1Cor 13:13

1Pet 4:9

1Pet 4:9 - Use hospitality one to another without grudging - we are to be generous towards one another, showing courtesy and hospitality. See 2Kin 4:9, 10; 1Tim 3:2; Heb 13:2

1Pet 4:10

1Pet 4:10 - As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God - We have all received grace from God freely, and so we ought to minister that grace to others freely, not grudgingly. See Joh 3:27; Mt 10:8; James 1:17

1Pet 4:11

1Pet 4:11 - If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God - See Rom 3:2

1Pet 4:11

1Pet 4:11 - If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. - As we have freely received the gifts and graces from the Lord, we are to use them generously and fervently, so that Jesus may receive all the glory therein. To God be the Glory! See Mt 10:8, 5:16; Isa 43:7

1Pet 4:11

1Pet 4:11 - that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen - See 1Pet 5:11

1Pet 4:12

1Pet 4:12 - Beloved - the first word is most important in that it identifies the purpose, intent and motivation for what is to follow. The Father first identifies us all as "the one who I love", "the one loved by Me." Knowing this is how God feels towards us, we can understand the context of the verse - a work of God for our good!! And when we are brought into strait places, we are to depend on God. We are to exercise wisdom and judgment in every action of life, that we may not, by reckless movements, place ourselves in trial. We are not to plunge into difficulties, neglecting the means God has provided, and misusing the faculties He has given us. Christ's workers are to obey His instructions implicitly. The work is God's, and if we would bless others His plans must be followed. Self cannot be made a center; self can receive no honor. If we plan according to our own ideas, the Lord will leave us to our own mistakes. But when, after following His directions, we are brought into strait places, He will deliver us. We are not to give up in discouragement, but in every emergency we are to seek help from Him who has infinite resources at His command. Often we shall be surrounded with trying circumstances, and then, in the fullest confidence, we must depend upon God. He will keep every soul that is brought into perplexity through trying to keep the way of the Lord. - {DA 369.1}

1Pet 4:12 - think it not strange concerning the fiery trial - the Christian is not to be taken by surprise by the manifold attacks and temptations of the enemy (1Pet 1:6). We are to recognize his attacks and say "ah yes, I know you, not a problem, come along" and allow the Lord to strengthen us. See Philippians 1:29, 30; 1Jo 3:13; 1Pet 4:19; Rom 5:3; Lam 3:32, 33 God's care for His heritage is unceasing. He suffers no affliction to come upon His children but such as is essential for their present and eternal good. He will purify His church, even as Christ purified the temple during His ministry on earth. All that He brings upon His people in test and trial comes that they may gain deeper piety and greater strength to carry forward the triumphs of the cross. - {AA 524.3} There had been a time in Peter's experience when he was unwilling to see the cross in the work of Christ. When the Saviour made known to the disciples His impending sufferings and death, Peter exclaimed, "Be it far from Thee, Lord: this shall not be unto Thee." Mt 16:22. Self-pity, which shrank from fellowship with Christ in suffering, prompted Peter's remonstrance. It was to the disciple a bitter lesson, and one which he learned but slowly, that the path of Christ on earth lay through agony and humiliation. But in the heat of the furnace fire he was to learn its lesson. Now, when his once active form was bowed with the burden of years and labors, he could write, "Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you: but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when His glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy." - {AA 525.1}

1Pet 4:12

1Pet 4:12 - fiery trial - Notice the statement is fiery trial, not trials. There is one fiery trial that all the Bible speaks of and is typified by the experience of the three Hebrew boys in Dan 3. The fiery trial is that which will cause the grass to wither (Jam 1:9-11), cause those who have no roots to dry-up by the sun because they lack moisture (Mk 4:6, 16, 17; Lk 8:6), and cause those who put their trust in men to dry-up like the heath in the desert (Jer 17:5, 6). The fiery trial is the global Sunday Law that will be an overflowing scourge to the drunkards [deceived] of Ephraim (Israel). See 2Cor 4:17

1Pet 4:13

1Pet 4:13 - But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings - Though Jesus had a nature such as ours, He never yielded to that nature and committed sin. Nevertheless, Jesus learned obedience through the fiery trials and the testing of His soul so that He might behold the Father's glory in Himself, with exceeding joy. Jesus, our great Exemplar, demonstrated and gave a blueprint for the paths of righteousness. See Rom 5:3; Mt 5:11, 12; Isa 50:10; Heb 5:8; Lk 6:22, 23; Act 5:41; 1Pet 4:1, 16

1Pet 4:13

1Pet 4:13 - when his glory shall be revealed - we beholding Christ as in a mirror are being changed from our glory to His glory through the sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit. When we see Christ's character manifested in us rather than our past sinful nature and disposition, this will cause the saint to rejoice, even as God rejoices, that Jesus “is come in the flesh” (1Joh 4:1-3). See Isa 60:1-3; Titus 2:11, 12; 1Jo 2:28; Heb 6:19; Ps 37:6; 2Cor 3:18, 4:17; Ex 33:18-23, 34:5-8; Joh 14:18; Eph 1:19, 20, 3:13; Philippians 1:12-18, 29, 30; Rom 1:17

 CONTRAST Isa 50:11 Those who wait for the Bridegroom’s coming are to say to the people, “Behold your God.” The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 415.5} The light of the Sun of Righteousness is to shine forth in good works—in words of truth and deeds of holiness. - {COL 416.1}

1Pet 4:14

1Pet 4:14 - If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye - take joy in persecutions for Christ’s sake because we have the privilege to share in His experience. See 1Pet 4:16; Act 5:41, 42; Ps 69:7, 8, 2Cor 12:7-10; Rom 1:16 Paul says: 1. I take joy in persecutions for Christ’s sake for when I am weak then is He strong - 2Cor 12:10 2.

1Pet 4:14

1Pet 4:14 - the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you - Jesus is called the Lord of glory, the Father is called the Father of glory and the Spirit is called the Spirit of glory. God is to impart His Spirit and thus, His glory upon His elect in the last days. See Eph 1:17; 1Cor 2:8; Isa 42:1, 2, 60:1, 2

1Pet 4:14

1Pet 4:14 - on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified - See 1Pet 2:7; Isa 66:5

1Pet 4:14

1Pet 4:13 - but on your part he is glorified - God is glorified through the rebuke and harsh treatment of His people who bear it patiently, meekly and with the mind of Jesus Christ. See Philippians 1:29, 30; Act 6:5, 8-15; 1Pet 4:16, 19; Num 12:1-15; Isa 66:5

1Pet 4:15

1Pet 4:15 - But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men’s matters - See 1Pet 2:20

1Pet 4:15

1Pet 4:15 - busybody - a gossip and slanderer

1Pet 4:16

1Pet 4:16 - Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify

God on this behalf - See Act 5:41; 1Pet 4:13, 14; Philippians 1:12-18, 29, 30; Gal 5:11

1Pet 4:17

1Pet 4:17 - time is come for judgment to being in the house of the Lord - God brings judgement upon those to whom much is given, to whom His oracles have been conveyed. See Rom 2:7-10; Jer 25:29; 1Pet 4:6; 1 John 4:17 the time of the fiery trial, and when judgment begins in the house of the Lord is speaking of today. Judgment has moved from the dead to the living as of 9/11/2001 and we are soon to face the fiery trial of the Sunday law. See Eze 9:6

1Pet 4:17

1Pet 4:17 - and if it first begin at us - Adventism's probation will close before the rest of the world.

1Pet 4:17

1Pet 4:17 - what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God? - God's grace has appeared to all men and thus the law and the gospel is the standard by which all will be judged. See Titus 2:11-14; Jer 9:25

1Pet 4:18

1Pet 4:18 - And if the righteous scarcely be saved - Jesus speaks of the strait gate, the narrow way that few find. This is where the righteous scarcely (hardly, just barely, scantily) are saved- very few, only a remnant of the masses will be delivered. See Mt 7:13, 14; Isa 1:9; Rev 12:17

1Pet 4:18

1Pet 4:18 - where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? - See Act 24:24, 25; Dan 5:5-9; John 18:37, 38

1Pet 4:19

1Pet 4:19 - Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator - God's will for the saint is His glory which comes through suffering. We are to commit ourselves to the Creator and Keeper of our souls Who chooses the perfect trial for us all so that we might be refined and He might be glorified. See Ps 37:1-9; 1Pet 2:21-23; Joh 12:23, 27, 28; Jam 1:12

1Pet 4:19

1Pet 4:19 - suffer according to the will of God - all adversity is not sourced from the devil but may be ordained by the will of God in order to refine our characters. See Heb 5:8; 1Pet 4:1, 12, 13; Ps 138:8

1Pet 4:19

1Pet 4:19 - commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator - surrender and submit the keeping of our lives to Jesus Christ in well doing. We are to trust Him as a faithful and true Creator Who knows what is best for each of us and loves all, His creation. See Heb 6:10, 10:23, 35-39; Philippians 1:6; Ps 138:8; 2Tim 1:12

1Pet 5:2

1Pet 5:2 - Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof - See Act 20:28; Jer 3:15; Mt 13:52; 2Tim 4:2; CONTRAST Jer 12: 10, 11, 23:1, 2; Eze 22:25-29, 34:3, 10, 15; Isa 56:10

1Pet 5:4 - chief Shepherd - See Joh 10:11-14

1Pet 5:4

1Pet 5:3 - crown of glory that fadeth not away - See James 1:12; Rev 2:10

1Pet 5:5

1Pet 5:5 - and be clothed with humility - See Prov 16:19; Isa 57:15; Gal 5:23;

1Pet 5:5

1Pet 5:5 - God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble - God resists those who harden their hearts, refuse to acknowledge their sins, deflect blame, point the finger at others, compare themselves to others, justify wrong behavior, doubt the intentions of others; cavil and quibble over the truth. God gives grace (forgiveness, power to become a son of God - [patience, courage, faith, fruit of the Spirit], compassion, mercy, love) to the humble, those who acknowledge their sins, are willing to admit their wrong, are slow to accuse others considering their own faults, call evil and wrong behavior what it is. - See Jam 4:6; Prov 3:34, 18:12

1Pet 5:6

1Pet 5:6 - Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God - All heaven is interested in this work that God's messengers are carrying forward in the world, in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. This is a great work, brethren and sisters, and we should humble ourselves daily before God, and not feel that our wisdom is perfect. We should take hold of the work with earnestness. We should not pray for God to humble us; for when God takes hold of us, He will humble us in a way that we would not enjoy. But we must day by day humble ourselves under the mighty hand of God. We are to work out our own salvation with fear and with trembling. While it is God that works in us to will and to do of His own good pleasure, we are to co-operate with Him while He works through us.—The Review and Herald, July 12, 1887. - {ChS 246.6}

Back to Table of Contents

2Pet 1:1 - to them that have obtained like precious faith - Peter here addresses not all of Christendom in general but those who have obtained the precious faith of Jesus Christ (Gal 2:20, Rev 14:12). Those who believe in God, in His omnipotence, who submit to His commandments, promises and prophecies and who share in the blessed hope and glorious appearing of Jesus Christ. Who believe in the victorious faith of Jesus Christ. See 1Jo 5:4

2Pet 1:1

2Pet 1:1 - through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ - the aforementioned faith [of Jesus Christ] is obtained by grace of God. See Jer 23:5, 6; 2Cor 5:21; Rev 19:8, 6:11, 16:15, 3:18

2Pet 1:3 - through the knowledge of Him that hath called us to glory and virtue - See Rom 10:1-5; Ps 36:9

2Pet 1:3

2Pet 1:3 - called us to glory and virtue - God has called us to glory (holiness) and virtuous living, and to power.

2Pet 1:4

2Pet 1:4 - Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: - an exceeding great and precious promise given is found in Heb 11:6: "for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.". The reward that God is promising to those who diligently seek Him is Himself - His nature, His character and His disposition that we may become partakers of His divine nature. He becomes our Exceeding and Great Reward. See Gen 15:1; Num 18:20

2Pet 1:4

2Pet 1:4 - that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature - See 1Cor 15:49-54 If Christ was a victor on the point of appetite, then there was a chance for man to overcome. If Satan gained the victory through his subtlety, man was bound by the power of appetite in chains of indulgence which he could not have moral power to break. Christ's humanity alone could never have endured this test, but His divine power combined with humanity gained in behalf of man an infinite victory. Our representative in this victory raised humanity in the scale of moral value with God. - {Confrontation 66.2}

2Pet 1:4

2Pet 1:4 - partakers of the divine nature - See Eph 1:17-19, 3:19, 4:15; 2Pet 1:19; 1Cor 15:49-54; Heb 3:14, 12:10; Isa 40:9; 1Jo 3:2 He who becomes a partaker of the divine nature will be in harmony with God's great standard of righteousness, His holy law. This is the rule by which God measures the actions of men. This will be the test of character in the judgment. - {COL 314.2} Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 415.5} The light of the Sun of Righteousness is to shine forth in good works—in words of truth and deeds of holiness. - {COL 416.1}. In describing to His disciples the office work of the Holy Spirit, Jesus sought to inspire them with the joy and hope that inspired His own heart. He rejoiced because of the abundant help He had provided for His church. The Holy Spirit was the highest of all gifts that He could solicit from His Father for the exaltation of

His people. The Spirit was to be given as a regenerating agent, and without this the sacrifice of Christ would have been of no avail. The power of evil had been strengthening for centuries, and the submission of men to this satanic captivity was amazing. Sin could be resisted and overcome only through the mighty agency of the Third Person of the Godhead, who would come with no modified energy, but in the fullness of divine power. It is the Spirit that makes effectual what has been wrought out by the world's Redeemer. It is by the Spirit that the heart is made pure. Through the Spirit the believer becomes a partaker of the divine nature. Christ has given His Spirit as a divine power to overcome all hereditary and cultivated tendencies to evil, and to impress His own character upon His church. - {DA 671.2} None need fail of attaining, in his sphere, to perfection of Christian character. By the sacrifice of Christ, provision has been made for the believer to receive all things that pertain to life and godliness. God calls upon us to reach the standard of perfection and places before us the example of Christ's character. In His humanity, perfected by a life of constant resistance of evil, the Saviour showed that through co-operation with Divinity, human beings may in this life attain to perfection of character. This is God's assurance to us that we, too, may obtain complete victory. - {AA 531.2} Man on Vantage Ground With God—As related to the first Adam, men receive from him nothing but guilt and the sentence of death. But Christ steps in and passes over the ground where Adam fell, enduring every test in man's behalf. He redeems Adam's disgraceful failure and fall by coming forth from the trial untarnished. This places man on vantage ground with God. It places him where, through accepting Christ as his Saviour, he becomes a partaker of the divine nature. Thus he becomes connected with God and Christ (Letter 68, 1899). - {6BC 1074.7} Love, the basis of creation and of redemption, is the basis of true education. This is made plain in the law that God has given as the guide of life. The first and great commandment is, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind." Lk 10:27. To love Him, the infinite, the omniscient One, with the whole strength, and mind, and heart, means the highest development of every power. It means that in the whole being—the body, the mind, as well as the soul—the image of God is to be restored. - {Ed 16.1} Like the first is the second commandment—"Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." Mt 22:39. The law of love calls for the devotion of body, mind, and soul to the service of God and our fellow men. And this service, while making us a blessing to others, brings the greatest blessing to ourselves. Unselfishness underlies all true development. Through unselfish service we receive the highest culture of every faculty. More and more fully do we become partakers of the divine nature. We are fitted for heaven, for we receive heaven into our hearts. - {Ed 16.2} Of the Spirit Jesus said, "He shall glorify Me." The Saviour came to glorify the Father by the demonstration of His love; so the Spirit was to glorify Christ by revealing His grace to the world. The very image of God is to be reproduced in humanity. The honor of God, the honor of Christ, is involved in the perfection of the character of His people. - {DA 671.3}

2Pet 1:4 - having escaped the corruptions that is in the world through lust - See Tit 2:11, 12; Gal 1:4

2Pet 1:5

2Pet 1:5 - giving all diligence - we are to strive in the faith, being careful, being resolute, being continually in a submissive, surrendered attitude towards the Lord and His will. See 2Cor 7:10, 11; 2Pet 3:17, 18

2Pet 1:5

2Pet 1:5 - faith - faith, a gift from God (Rom 12:3), is noted as the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen (Heb 11:1; Rom 8:24, 25).

2Pet 1:5

2Pet 1:5 - virtue - modesty, purity, moral goodness, manliness, nobility of character

2Pet 1:5

2Pet 1:5 - knowledge - general understanding of Christian principles; moral wisdom, such as is seen in right living. Being given instruction through the example of others and the Word of Truth - Prov 21:11; Ps 19:7

2Pet 1:6

2Pet 1:6 - temperance - balance, avoiding what is bad and taking the good, self-control (the virtue of one who masters his desires and passions, esp. his sensual appetites). See Rom 16:19 Self-discipline must be practiced by everyone who would be a worker for God. This will accomplish more than eloquence or the most brilliant talents. An ordinary mind, well disciplined, will accomplish more and higher work than will the most highly educated mind and the greatest talents without self-control. - {COL 335.1}

2Pet 1:6

2Pet 1:6 - patience - cheerful (or hopeful) endurance, constancy:--enduring, patience, patient continuance (waiting); godly contentment

2Pet 1:6

2Pet 1:6 - godliness - grace, forgiveness, mercy, magnanimity, longsuffering, forbearance

2Pet 1:7

2Pet 1:7 - brotherly kindness - natural affections for kin and family in Christ. Love covers over a multitude of sin; protecting one another's person and character. Contrast 2Tim 3:3

2Pet 1:7

2Pet 1:8 - charity - See 1Cor 13:1-13; Rom 5:5

2Pet 1:8

2Pet 1:8 - For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ - See Mt 7:21-23, 21:18-20; Lk 13:6-9; John 15:4, 5; Gal 5:23

2Pet 1:9

2Pet 1:9 - But he that lacketh these things is blind - Peter speaks of those in a Laodicean condition. See Mt 23:16, 24; Rev 3:17; Isa 29:10

2Pet 1:9

2Pet 1:9 - cannot see afar off - a person that is short sighted, focusing on temporal things and heedless of the eternal rewards that God has prepared for him. See Lk 12:42-48; Jam 1:23-25

2Pet 1:9

2Pet 1:9 - hath forgotten that he was purged fro his old sins - See Heb 5:10-6:3

2Pet 1:10

2Pet 1:10 - give diligence to make your calling and election sure - we are to diligently seek the LORD (Heb 11:6), in so doing we will find the crown of life that the LORD will give us in the day of His coming. See Phil 2:12, 13; 2Cor 13:5

2Pet 1:10

2Pet 1:10 - for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall - See Jude 1:24; Ps 56:13

2Pet 1:11

2Pet 1:11 - For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly - Mt 25:21, 23

2Pet 1:12

2Pet 1:12 - I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things - See Act 20:26, 27; Eze 3:21

2Pet 1:12

2Pet 1:12 - put you always in remembrance - Peter is reminding the people of that which they have known and have been taught - See Ju 1:5

2Pet 1:12

2Pet 1:12 - though ye know them - the apostles were diligent in teaching, preaching and demonstrating the life of Christ to the early church. Doctrine and teaching were fundamental to the faith. See 2Thess 2:5

2Pet 1:12

2Pet 1:12 - and be established in the present truth - See Lk 1:4

2Pet 1:12

2Pet 1:12 - present truth - Jesus is Truth (Joh 14:6) therefore “present truth” is what Jesus is doing NOW! The blood of Calvary is present in every step in the Plan of Redemption and is therefore always part of “Present Truth” There are many precious truths contained in the Word of God, but it is “present truth” that the flock needs now. I have seen the danger of the messengers running off from the important points of present truth, to dwell upon subjects that are not calculated to unite the flock [Eze 37:7, 8; 2Cor 12:14-20] and sanctify the soul. Satan will here take every possible advantage to injure the cause. - {EW 63.1} But such subjects as the sanctuary, in connection with the 2300 days, the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus, are perfectly calculated to explain the past Advent movement and show what our present position is, establish the faith of the doubting, and give certainty to the glorious future. These, I have frequently seen, were the principal subjects on which the messengers should dwell. - {EW 63.2} These disciples were to be heralds of the truth, to prepare the way for the coming of their Master. The message they had to bear was the word of eternal life, and the destiny of men depended upon their reception or rejection of it. To impress the people with its solemnity, Jesus bade His disciples, “Whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.” - {DA 352.1} Present Truth in Bible History: 1. Noah - a flood is coming, get in the ark of safety (Gen 6:5-23) 2. Lot - get out of the cities and run to the mountains, don't look back (Gen 19:12-17) 3. Jer - the King of the North is coming, break off your sins and humble yourselves before the Lord. Be encouraged, the Lord will bring you back (deliver) you from your captivity (Jer 21:7-10, 25:3-14, 29:4-14) 4. Jesus - Jesus is both Messiah/Christ and Prince/Lord for all mankind, not just the Jews. The gospel would be preached to all the world then the end of Jerusalem and the world would come [Mt 24:14] (Dan 9:25; Act 2:36; Ps 118:22, 23; Matt 21:40-45; Joh 10:14-16; 1Pet 2:3-10) 5. The Remnant Church - a. An overwhelming flood and scourge is coming in a Sunday Law (Isa 28:14-21; Mt 7:24-27) b. Get out of the cities and flee to the mountains - Country Living. Jesus is the Mountain/Rock of our Salvation - (LDE 95:1-4; 3SG 56.1; Ps 121:1, 2; Dan 2:35). c. Worship Jesus, Who is Creator, Christ, and Lord of the entire world; we are to raise-up the foundational truths of many generations, preaching the gospel to the ends of the earth and then the end will come (Rev 14:6-12; Isa 58:12-14; HP 340.2; Mt 24:14; Rev 22:11; TDG 296.2, 3) d. Let us submit to the righteousness of God by faith of Jesus Christ, not looking back (Phil 3:7-14) 1. Health reform in light of Spirit of Prophecy Counsels - choosing life over premature death - CG 376.4; 382.1-3, 384.1-3; Compare 1Cor 8:8

2Pet 1:13 - Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle - As long as Peter was alive in his body, before death, he saw it necessary to stir up the faith of the saints.

2Pet 1:13

2Pet 1:12 - stir up your pure minds - to encourage and exhort, bringing to remembrance the things that have been established through the prophetic word. See 2Pet 3:1

2Pet 1:14

2Pet 1:14 - Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle - Peter, like Paul, likens our physical, mortal bodies to garments, buildings, and temples of God. Peter makes known that by putting off his tabernacle, he means death (2Pet 1:15). See 2Cor 5:1-4; 1Cor 6:19; Joh 2:21

2Pet 1:14

2Pet 1:14 - even as our LORD Jesus Christ hath shewed me - See Joh 21:18, 19; Mt 23:34

2Pet 1:15

2Pet 1:15 - Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance - Peter likens his death to the taking off of his earthly tabernacle. See 2Pet 1:14

2Pet 1:16

2Pet 1:16 - For we have not followed cunningly devised fables - Peter attests that the gospel which he preached was not a cunningly devised fable, superstition or tradition of men, but was the living truth as it exists in the Living Lord, Jesus Christ. See Col 2:8; 1Tim 1:4; Tit 1:14

2Pet 1:16

2Pet 1:16 - when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ - Jesus gave Peter, Jam and Joh a foretaste of His Second Coming while on the mount of transfiguration - See Mt 17:1-6; Lk 9:27-36

2Pet 1:16

2Pet 1:16 - but were eyewitnesses of His majesty - See 1Jo 1:1-4; Act 13:31; Lk 1:2, 24:48; Mt 17:1-8; Mk 9:2-10

2Pet 1:17

2Pet 1:17 - For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased - See Mt 17:5; Mk 9:7

2Pet 1:17

2Pet 1:17 - This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased - See Mt 3:13-17, 17:5; Mk 9:7

2Pet 1:18

2Pet 1:18 - the holy mount - the mountain was made holy because of God's presence, first in Jesus and also with the Father.

2Pet 1:19

2Pet 1:19 - more sure word of prophecy - the prophetic word, declaring things past, present and future (Rev 1:19) was the foundation of the Apostles' testimony and ministry to the Jews after Christ's ascension. Without a New Testament to give confirmation of the Old, the Apostles reasoned from the words of the prophets, showing the fulfillment of Jesus' Messiahship through the fore-spoken word. The testimonies of the prophets are "more sure" as Peter attests, than his personal eye-witness account, recognizing the frailty of men (Matt 26:33-35, 56) but the permanence and superiority of God and His Word. See Rev 19:10; Isa 8:20; Ps 19:7

2Pet 1:19

2Pet 1:19 - whereunto ye do well that ye take heed - See Heb 2:1, 3; 1Tim 4:16; 1Thess 5:1-6

2Pet 1:19

2Pet 1:19 - light that shineth in a dark place - Jesus is the Light of the World that shines in the darkness of our lives, revealing sin and pointing us to His cross. The prophetic word is that which enlightens our eyes. See Prov 4:18; 1Sam 14:27-29

2Pet 1:19

2Pet 1:19 - until the day dawn - symbolizing the point in which we accept and receive Jesus Christ into our lives or perhaps synonymous with the perfect day (Prov 4:18), when Jesus comes. When the day dawns, there will be full light and darkness will be dispelled. See Hymn #507, Moment by Moment's chorus

2Pet 1:19

2Pet 1:19 - day star arise in your hearts - Jesus, the Sun of Righteousness and the Bright and Morning Star (Mal 4:2; Rev 2:28) must become the abiding light within each son of God, and child of light (1Thess 5:5). His righteousness by faith, must become manifest in every life. We must walk in His ever increasing light of grace and truth. Christ in us the hope of glory. See Col 1:26-29, 2:9, 10; 1Pet 1:13; 1Jo 4:1-3; Eph 3:16-19; Rev 10:7, 18:1; Isa 60:1-3; Lk 1:35; Heb 3:14

2Pet 1:20 - no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation - See Joh 7:17 The Bible was not written for the scholar alone; on the contrary, it was designed for the common people. The great truths necessary for our salvation are made as clear as noonday, and none will mistake and lose their way except those who follow their own judgment instead of the plainly revealed will of God. - {LHU 130.6}

2Pet 1:21

2Pet 1:21 - came not in old time by the will of man - See 1Thess 2:13; Rom 16:26; Gal 1:11, 12

2Pet 1:21

2Pet 1:21 - holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost - Mk 12:36; 2Tim 3:16; 1Pet 1:10, 11; Mk 13:11; Zech 7:12 The Bible points to God as its author; yet it was written by human hands; and in the varied style of its different books it presents the characteristics of the several writers. The truths revealed are all "given by inspiration of God" (2 Timothy 3:16); yet they are expressed in the words of men. The Infinite One by His Holy Spirit has shed light into the minds and hearts of His servants. He has given dreams and visions, symbols and figures; and those to whom the truth was thus revealed have themselves embodied the thought in human language. - {GC v.3}

2Pet 2:1

2Pet 2:1 - even as there shall be false teachers among you - grievous wolves will enter the flock with perverse doctrines and teachings. See Gal 4:17, 5:12; Act 20:29; Mt 7:15; Ju 1:4; Tit 1:10-16; Jer 23:11-14, 16-18, 21, 25-27 Paul did not represent either the moral or the ceremonial law as ministers in our day venture to do. Some cherish such antipathy to the law of God that they will go out of the way to denounce and stigmatize it. Thus they despise and pour contempt on the majesty and glory of God. - {RH April 22, 1902 Par. 16} The moral law was never a type or a shadow. It existed before man's creation, and will endure as long as God's throne remains. God could not change nor alter one precept of his law in order to save man; for the law is the foundation of his government. It is unchangeable, unalterable, infinite, and eternal. In order for man to be saved, and for the honor of the law to be maintained, it was necessary for the Son of God to offer himself as a sacrifice for sin. He who knew no sin became sin for us. He died for us on Calvary. His death shows the wonderful love of God for man, and the immutability of his law. - {RH April 22, 1902 Par. 17} In the sermon on the mount, Christ declared, "Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled." - {RH April 22, 1902 Par. 18} Christ bore the curse of the law, suffering its penalty, carrying to completion the plan whereby man was to be placed where he could keep God's law, and be accepted through the merits of the Redeemer; and by his sacrifice glory was shed upon the law. Then the glory of that which is not to be done away—God's law of ten commandments, his standard of righteousness—was plainly seen by all who saw to the end of that which was done away. - {RH April 22, 1902 Par. 19} "We all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory even as by the Spirit of the Lord." Christ is the sinner's advocate. Those who accept his gospel behold him with open face. They see the relation of his mission to the law, and they acknowledge God's wisdom and glory as revealed by the Saviour. The glory of Christ is revealed in the law, which is a transcript of his character, and his transforming efficacy is felt upon the soul until men become changed to his likeness. They are made partakers of the divine nature, and grow more and more like their Saviour, advancing step by step in conformity to the will of God, till they reach perfection. - {RH April 22, 1902 Par. 20}

2Pet 2:1 - privily shall bring in damnable heresies - See Isa 8:19; Jer 23:31, 32. The fulfillment of this prophecy can be seen throughout the Christian church era. Most recently, we see the following damnable heresies enter God's last day remnant church: 1. Anti-trinitarian belief denying the existence of a personal Holy Spirit 2. Universalist doctrine suggesting all will be saved 3. Denial of scriptural support and God's Everlasting Covenant that God will have a people free from sin before Jesus' Second Coming 4. Rejecting the Spirit of Prophecy and the inspiration behind God's messenger, Ellen White Modern spiritualism, resting upon the same foundation, is but a revival in a new form of the witchcraft and demon worship that God condemned and prohibited of old. It is foretold in the Scriptures, which declare that "in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils." 1Tim 4:1. Paul, in his second letter to the Thessalonians, points to the special working of Satan in spiritualism as an event to take place immediately before the second advent of Christ. Speaking of Christ's second coming, he declares that it is "after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders." 2Thess 2:9. And Peter, describing the dangers to which the church was to be exposed in the last days, says that as there were false prophets who led Israel into sin, so there will be false teachers, "who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them.... And many shall follow their pernicious ways." 2Pet 2:1, 2. Here the apostle has pointed out one of the marked characteristics of spiritualist teachers. They refuse to acknowledge Christ as the Son of God. Concerning such teachers the beloved Joh declares: "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father." 1Jo 2:22, 23. Spiritualism, by denying Christ, denies both the Father and the Son, and the Bible pronounces it the manifestation of antichrist. - {PP 686.1}

2Pet 2:1

2Pet 2:1 - even denying the Lord that bought them - See 1Jo 2:22; Ju 1:4; Rev 3:5; 1Cor 6:20

2Pet 2:1

2Pet 2:1 - and bring upon themselves swift destruction - See Mt 10:33, 18:6; Ps 16:4

2Pet 2:2

2Pet 2:2 - many shall follow their pernicious ways - See 2Thess 2:10, 11; Ju 1:7, 8; Act 20:30; Rev 2:20-23

2Pet 2:2

2Pet 2:2 - by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of - the false teachers promote their false doctrines over the way of truth, blaspheming and disparaging the truth as it is in Jesus Christ. Paul did not represent either the moral or the ceremonial law as ministers in our day venture to do. Some cherish such antipathy to the law of God that they will go out of the way to denounce and stigmatize it. Thus they despise and pour contempt on the majesty and glory of God. - {RH April 22, 1902 Par. 16} The moral law was never a type or a shadow. It existed before man's creation, and will endure as long as God's throne remains. 2Pet 2:3

2Pet 2:3 - And through covetousness - coveting the praises and worship of men. These are self-exalting usurpers, as the man of sin, bearing the spirit of antichrist. See Isa 26:11; 2Pet 2:14

2Pet 2:3

2Pet 2:3 - feigned words make merchandise of you - devised, contrived words and doctrine, they will make spoil of those who hear and believe their deceptions. The lives and salvation of people are currency by which the wicked make trade.

2Pet 2:3

2Pet 2:3 - whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not - whose judgment and damnation are imminent. - See Isa 26:11

2Pet 2:4

2Pet 2:4 - God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness - See Ju 1:6;

2Pet 2:4

2Pet 2:4 - to be reserved unto judgment; - See Isa 30:33; Mt 25:41; Jude 1:6, 7

2Pet 2:5

2Pet 2:5 - And spared not the old world - the antediluvian world was a much more glorious world than we live in today. It was largely untouched by the effects of prolonged, protracted sin and thus bore much of the glorious beauty it had when it came forth from the mouth of its Creator. If God did not spare that most glorious world, He will not spare the present.

2Pet 2:5

2Pet 2:5 - but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness - See Heb 11:7

2Pet 2:5

2Pet 2:5 - a preacher of righteousness - Noah preached his most compelling sermons daily as he arose, performed a sacrifice to reconfirm the Everlasting Covenant with God and by continuing his work tirelessly upon the ark. Noah demonstrated righteousness by faith as he embraced God's words and counsels and acted upon them before the antediluvian world. See Heb 11:7; Rom 4:1-5 The men of that generation were not all, in the fullest acceptance of the term, idolaters. Many professed to be worshipers of God. They claimed that their idols were representations of the Deity and that through them the people could obtain a clearer conception of the divine Being. This class were foremost in rejecting the preaching of Noah. As they endeavored to represent God by material objects, their minds were blinded to His majesty and power; they ceased to realize the holiness of His character, or the sacred, unchanging nature of His requirements. [49] - {CC 32.4}

2Pet 2:5

2Pet 2:5 - bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly - Condemnation fell upon the world for their rejection of the words from the preacher of righteousness, the preacher of truth as it is in Jesus Christ. See Heb 11:7; Joh 3:19-21

2Pet 2:6

2Pet 2:6 - And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrhah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow - The destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah was swift and final, no continual burning. See Jude 1:7; Lam 4:6; Mal 4:1, 3; 2Thess 1:9; Obadiah 1:15, 16; Mt 25:41, 46

2Pet 2:6

2Pet 2:7 - making them an ensample unto those after that should live ungodly - These things were written for our admonition upon whom the ends of the world have come. See Isa 1:10; Rom 1:22-32; 1 Cor 10:6, 11

2Pet 2:7

2Pet 2:7 - just Lot - Lot, through the influence of his uncle Abraham, became a worshipper of the True and Living God and was grieved by the abominations he beheld daily in Sodom and Gomorrah. See 2Pet 2:8

2Pet 2:7

2Pet 2:7 - filthy conversation - filthy lifestyle of the wicked. See Rom 1:26, 27; Jude 1:7, 8

2Pet 2:8

2Pet 2:9 - reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished - See Joel 3:2, 9-13; Ju 1:6

2Pet 2:10

2Pet 2:10 - walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness - See 2Pet 2:14

2Pet 2:10

2Pet 2:10 - despise government - those who despise leadership, authority, and order (both secular and religious - Tit 1:4-9). They have the rebellious spirit of Satan, self-exalting and desiring self-rule rather than to be under the lawful, just authority of another. In some extreme cases, they are anarchists (see 2Pet 2:13). See 1Cor 12:28; 1Pet 2:13-117; Rom 13:1-7

2Pet 2:10 - Presumptuous are they, selfwilled - See Ps 19:13; Num 25:5-8

2Pet 2:10

2Pet 2:10 - they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities - they speak with contempt against authorities, both civil and moral. See Rom 13:1-3; Mt 22:15-21; Jude 1:7, 8; 2Pet 2:12 Paul did not represent either the moral or the ceremonial law as ministers in our day venture to do. Some cherish such antipathy to the law of God that they will go out of the way to denounce and stigmatize it. Thus they despise and pour contempt on the majesty and glory of God. - {RH April 22, 1902 Par. 16} The moral law was never a type or a shadow. It existed before man's creation, and will endure as long as God's throne remains. God could not change nor alter one precept of his law in order to save man; for the law is the foundation of his government. It is unchangeable, unalterable, infinite, and eternal. In order for man to be saved, and for the honor of the law to be maintained, it was necessary for the Son of God to offer himself as a sacrifice for sin. He who knew no sin became sin for us. He died for us on Calvary. His death shows the wonderful love of God for man, and the immutability of his law. - {RH April 22, 1902 Par. 17} In the sermon on the mount, Christ declared, "Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled." - {RH April 22, 1902 Par. 18} Christ bore the curse of the law, suffering its penalty, carrying to completion the plan whereby man was to be placed where he could keep God's law, and be accepted through the merits of the Redeemer; and by his sacrifice glory was shed upon the law. Then the glory of that which is not to be done away—God's law of ten commandments, his standard of righteousness—was plainly seen by all who saw to the end of that which was done away. - {RH April 22, 1902 Par. 19} "We all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory even as by the Spirit of the Lord." Christ is the sinner's advocate.

Those who accept his gospel behold him with open face. They see the relation of his mission to the law, and they acknowledge God's wisdom and glory as revealed by the Saviour. The glory of Christ is revealed in the law, which is a transcript of his character, and his transforming efficacy is felt upon the soul until men become changed to his likeness. They are made partakers of the divine nature, and grow more and more like their Saviour, advancing step by step in conformity to the will of God, till they reach perfection. - {RH April 22, 1902 Par. 20}

2Pet 2:11 - Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might - See Ps 8:5

2Pet 2:11

2Pet 2:11 - See Jude 1:9

2Pet 2:11

2Pet 2:11 - railing - Clamoring with insulting language; uttering reproachful words.

2Pet 2:12

2Pet 2:12 - speak evil of the things that they understand not - selfwilled, presumptuous, scoffers, caviling and proud, these find criticism in things they are not qualified to judge. See Isa 5:21; 3Jo 1:10; Joh 7:44-49; Rom 1:18

2Pet 2:13

2Pet 2:13 - count it pleasure to riot in the day time - See 2Sam 15:1-6; Ps 64:2; Mk 15:7; Rom 1:32, 13:13

2Pet 2:13

2Pet 2:13 - sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you - dissembling, showing-off themselves with their own self-deceptions and lies which they teach to others. See Rom 12:9, 10

2Pet 2:14

2Pet 2:14 - Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin - lustful, covetous eyes and desires. See Mt 5:27-30; Rom 1:24-28; 2Tim 3:1-6; 2Thess 3:6

2Pet 2:14

2Pet 2:14 - beguiling unstable souls - See 2Tim 3:6

2Pet 2:14

2Pet 2:14 - an heart they have exercised with covetous practices - their musings and affections have been towards unrighteousness such that it has become character.

2Pet 2:15

2Pet 2:15 - Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness - See Mt 23:14

2Pet 2:15

2Pet 2:15 - following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness - See 1Tim 6:10; Ju 1:11

2Pet 2:16

2Pet 2:16 - the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbade the madness of the prophet - See Num 22:28

2Pet 2:17

2Pet 2:17 - These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest - good for nothing.

2Pet 2:18

2Pet 2:18 - they allure through the lusts of the flesh - See 1Jo 2:16

2Pet 2:19

2Pet 2:19 - While they promise them liberty - as Lucifer promised the angelic hosts a higher level of existence, so false teachers, preachers, and prophets beguile those who have not developed a love for the truth.

2Pet 2:19

2Pet 2:19 - they themselves are the servants of corruption - they themselves are slaves to sin.

2Pet 2:19

2Pet 2:19 - for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage - See Rom 6:16

2Pet 2:20

2Pet 2:20-22 - For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. - See Heb 6:4-6; Mt 12:43-45

2Pet 2:20

2Pet 2:20 - they are again entangled therein and overcome - See Isa 26:10

2Pet 2:20

2Pet 2:20 - the latter end is worse with them than the beginning - See Mt 12:45; Lk 11:26

2Pet 2:21

2Pet 2:21 - For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them - See Lk 12:47; Heb 6:4-6

2Pet 2:22

2Pet 2:22 - the true proverb - See Prov 26:11

2Pet 2:22

2Pet 2:22 - the proverb speaks of the unconverted nature, that it is inclined to folly. The pig, though washed, will return to the mire because that is its nature. It is comfortable and accustomed to the mire and that is where it chooses to be. So the unconverted heart is accustomed to sin and scorns righteousness. Only as we are made new creations in Christ Jesus can we experience a change in our nature. See Jer 13:23; 2Cor 5:17; Gal 6:15

2Pet 3:1

2Pet 3:1 - stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance - to encourage and exhort, bringing to remembrance the things that have been established through the prophetic word. See 2Pet 1:12, 13; 2Thess 2:5

2Pet 3:3

2Pet 3:3 - there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts - See Ps 1:1; Jude 1:16; Prov 15:5 First seen during the tarrying time of the Millerite era where the Protestant churches found sport in ridiculing the Adventist believers for their first disappointment: "We believe that we are occupying that period spoken of by the Saviour, when the bridegroom tarries (Matt. 25:5)-to which the kingdom of heaven should be likened,- when 'that evil servant [there having been an apparent failure in the time] shall say in his heart, My Lord delayeth his coming, and shall begin to smite his fellow-servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken,' and the Lord should 'come in a day when he looketh not for him.' "We believe that we are now occupying that period of time spoken of by Peter, when their 'judgement now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not;' where they were to 'privily bring in damnable heresies.'⁸ These, Peter says, were to be, even as there were false prophets when the Scriptures were indited. As therefore they of the house of Israel said, 'The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth,' so must there have been a time when there would be an apparent passing of the time, that the scoffers of 2Pet 3:4 might inquire, 'Where is the promise of his coming?' and flatter themselves that 'all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.'

2Pet 3:4

2Pet 3:4 - Where is the promise of his coming? - The Bible here prophecies the rise of the Uniformitarian Theory, the theory that changes in the earth's crust during geological history have resulted from the action of continuous and uniform processes. This theory founded by Sir Charles Lyell, published in his book Principles on ... was read and embraced by Charles Darwin when on The Galápagos islands where he founded his theory of evolution and natural selection. This same spirit demonstrated by the antediluvian will be seen in the words, spirit and works of those found at the end of the world. many in the church who have been drinking intoxicating drink will be scoffers in the last day, denying the Lord's coming as the evil servant in Christ's parable (Mt 24:48, 49). See Isa 5:19-23; Eze 12:22, 23

2Pet 3:4

2Pet 3:4 - for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation - such was the boastful claim of the sons of men during the antediluvian period.

2Pet 3:5

2Pet 3:5 - willingly are ignorant of - choosing to forget - willingly deny the Creation that is evident; willingly turn from the evident power of God that sustains all things; willingly ignorant of the fossil records that show a world-wide catastrophe (flood) had occurred. Willingly ignorant of the signs which show Jesus' soon approach. Those who are willingly ignorant choose to be ignorant. See Rom 1:18-21; Hos 4:6; Mt 24:48-51; 2Thess 2:10-12

2Pet 3:5

2Pet 3:5 - that by the word of God the heavens were of old - The apostle shows the scoffers willing ignorance/denial that God, by His mere Words (Heb 11:3), created all the heavens and the earth. They too deny that the same Word brought a great flood upon the earth to destroy the world. It is by this same Word that God will deliver on His other promises. See Joh 1:1-4, 14; Gen 1:3, 6, 9, 11, 14, 20

2Pet 3:5

2Pet 3:5 - and the earth standing out of the water and in the water - God called forth the dry land out of the waters during the Creation, but He also caused the seas to subside after the global flood, whose fossil record is evident.

2Pet 3:6

2Pet 3:6 - Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished - See Gen 7:9; Lk 17:26, 27 By the flood the earth "perished"; the earth in its present condition bears scarcely any resemblance to that which existed before the flood. {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 43}

2Pet 3:7

2Pet 3:7 - But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store - God, by Jesus Christ, the Living Word, sustains all that has been created. See Col 1:16, 17; Joh 1:1-4, 14; Heb 1:2

2Pet 3:7

2Pet 3:7 - reserved unto fire - Isa 66:16, 51:6, 7; 2Pet 3:10-12; Ju 1:6, 7; Rev 19:20, 20:10, 14, 15

2Pet 3:7

2Pet 3:7 - against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men - The Executive Judgment is in store for the devil, his angels, and ungodly men - See Joel 3:2; Ps 1:4-6;

2Pet 3:8

2Pet 3:8 - that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day - 1000yrs is as a day to the Lord or as a watch (3hrs) of the night. See Gen 2:17, 5:5; Ps 90:4

2Pet 3:8

2Pet 3:8 - and a thousand years as one day - "It should not be forgotten that while a thousand years is with the Lord as one day, one day is with Him also as a thousand years. What does that mean? Simply that while the Lord may wait a long time as mans counts, before carrying out His plans, that should not be taken as evidence at any stage that to do a given amount of work will necessarily take as great a length of time as has been taken for the same amount of work in the past. One day is just as good as a thousand years with the Lord, whenever He chooses to have the work of a thousand years done in a single day. And this will yet be seen. "For He will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness; because a short work will the Lord make in the earth" (Rom 9:28). One day will suffice for the work of a thousand years. {The Everlasting Covenant; E.J. Waggoner; pg 45}

2Pet 3:9 - The Lord is not slack concerning His promise - The apostle does not speak of promises, but of one particular promise that has been embraced by all holy men since the fall of man, namely, the Coming of the Lord and the restoration of the earth. See Eze 12:23; Isa 55:11; Joh 14:13; Eccl 8:11, 12

2Pet 3:9

2Pet 3:9 - but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance - See Isa 30:18; Mt 18:14; 2Pet 3:15; 1Thess 5:9

2Pet 3:9

2Pet 3:9 - not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. See Mt 18:12-14; 1Tim 2:4; Eze 33:11, 18:23; Lk 5:17; Joh 3:16||Ps 1:5; Ps 37:27

2Pet 3:9

2Pet 3:9 - all should come to repentance - See Act 3:19; Rom 2:4, 5 Hear the word of the Lord, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the Lord. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the Lord, The temple of the Lord, The temple of the Lord, are these. For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbor; if ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt: then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, forever and ever." Jer 7:2-7

2Pet 3:10

2Pet 3:10 - But the day of the Lord shall come as a thief in the night - Jesus' coming will be unexpected, just as a thief comes to steal at a time when we least expect it. See Lk 12:39; 1Thess 5:5, 6

2Pet 3:10

2Pet 3:11 - the heavens shall pass away with a great noise - with a shout, with the voice of the Archangel and with the trump of God. See 1Thess 4:12-14

2Pet 3:10

2Pet 3:10 - and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. - See Jer 4:23-27;

2Pet 3:11

2Pet 3:11 - Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness - Considering what is to happen in the near future, how are we to live NOW? See 2Pet 3:14; Eph 1:4; 1Jo 3:2, 3; Rev 22:11

2Pet 3:11

2Pet 3:11 - holy conversation - holy lifestyle

2Pet 3:12

2Pet 3:12 - Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? - Jer 4:23-28

2Pet 3:13

2Pet 3:12 - we, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness - See Isa 65:17-25, 66:22; Heb 11:9, 13-16; Tit 1:2; Rev 21:1-8

2Pet 3:13

2Pet 3:13 - dwellers righteousness - righteousness is a glorified holiness, made perfect by Jesus' victory over sin.

2Pet 3:14

2Pet 3:14 - be diligent that ye may be found of Him in peace, without spot and blameless - See 2Pet 1:10; Eph 5:27; Jude 1:24; 1Jo 3:2, 3; Col 1:28

2Pet 3:15

2Pet 3:15 - And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation - God's longsuffering and tarrying towards us is for our good, for our salvation. See Isa 30:18; 2Pet 3:9

2Pet 3:15

2Pet 3:15 - even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you - Peter here affirms the principle explicitly stated in Paul's writings, that the prophets must speak in harmony, never contradicting one another as they are all moved by the same Spirit of God. See 1Cor 14:37; Isa 8:20

2Pet 3:16

2Pet 3:16 - in which are some things hard to be understood - some of Paul's writings through inspiration of the Holy Spirit are difficult to discern, and are weighty subjects. See Heb 5:10-14 Things hard to be understood that are commonly wrested by unlearned men: Ephesians 1 - Predestination to adoption for ALL people 1Cor 5; 2Cor 5 - Absent from the body and present with the Lord 1Pet 3:9 - Spirits in prison

2Pet 3:16

2Pet 3:16 - which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do the other scriptures, unto their own destruction - See 1Tim 1:4-7; 2Pet 2:1, 10-12; Mk 12:24 Written in different ages, by men who differed widely in rank and occupation, and in mental and spiritual endowments, the books of the Bible present a wide contrast in style, as well as a diversity in the nature of the subjects unfolded. Different forms of expression are employed by different writers; often the same truth is more strikingly presented by one than by another. And as several writers present a subject under varied aspects and relations, there may appear, to the superficial, careless, or prejudiced reader, to be discrepancy or contradiction, where the thoughtful, reverent student, with clearer insight, discerns the underlying harmony. - {GC vi.1} Many are deceived today in the same way as were the Jews. Religious teachers read the Bible in the light of their own understanding and traditions; and the people do not search the Scriptures for themselves, and judge for themselves as to what is truth; but they yield up their judgment, and commit their souls to their leaders. The preaching and teaching of His word is one of the means that God has ordained for diffusing light; but we must bring every man's teaching to the test of Scripture. Whoever will prayerfully study the Bible, desiring to know the truth, that he may obey it, will receive divine enlightenment. He will understand the Scriptures. "If any man willeth to do His will, he shall know of the teaching." Joh 7:17, R. V. - {DA 459.1} - DA 459.1

2Pet 3:16 - unlearned - those who have not studied to show themselves approved unto God; wise in their own eyes; presumptuous. See 2Tim 2:15; 2Pet 2:10-18

2Pet 3:16

2Pet 3:16 - unstable - unstable in the faith because they are: 1. Double-minded: Jam 1:6-8 2. A wolf in sheep's clothing: Mt 7:15; Act 20:29; 2Pet 2:10-18

2Pet 3:16

2Pet 3:16 - wrest - See Ps 56:5

2Pet 3:16

2Pet 3:16 - as they do also the other scriptures - the writings of Paul are not only subject to men's twisting and perverting, but the entirety of Scripture. For example, because men refuse to keep the Sabbath day holy, suggesting it has been abolished, they throw-out the entirety of the commandments stating they are no longer binding. Examples of difficult passages: 1Tim 5:9-15, 25; Eph 1 (predestination); 1Cor 5/2Cor 5 (absent from body); 1Pet 3:9 (spirits in prison)

2Pet 3:16

2Pet 3:16 - unto their own destruction - those who hate the truth and love a lie are storing up wrath for the day of wrath. Those with itching ears who choose to believe their lies will too suffer destruction. See 2Tim 2:25, 26, 4:3, 4

2Pet 3:17

2Pet 3:17 - Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before - Peter continues to stir up the remembrance of the saints in those things which they have previously heard and known.

2Pet 3:17

2Pet 3:17 - beware let ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness - See 2Pet 2:2, 3; Col 2:8

2Pet 3:17

2Pet 3:17 - fall from your own steadfastness - See Heb 10:35-39

2Pet 3:18

2Pet 3:18 - But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ -
See Lk 2:52

1Jo 1:6 - If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth - See Jam 3:14-16; 1Jo 2:4, 1:8

1Jo 1:6

1John 1:6 - walk in darkness - See 1Thess 5:1-5

1Jo 1:7

1Jo 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin - See 1Jo 4:17

1Jo 1:7

1Jo 1:7 - we have fellowship one with another - See Am 3:3; Philippians 2:1-4; Rom 15:5, 6; Act 1:13, 14

1Jo 1:7

1Jo 1:7 - and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin - Jesus is a Sanctuary, protecting us from condemnation. The concept of purgatory, where people through prayers, penance, donations and good works of others, are said to be purged of their sins, is contrary to Scripture which teaches that it is Jesus' blood alone that takes away our sins. See Eph 1:7; Zech 9:11; Heb 1:3; Isa 4:3, 4; Mic 7:19; 1Jo 3:5; Rev 1:5; Rom 5:9; Col

1:14; Contrast Heb 10:4, 11

1Jo 1:7

1Jo 1:7 - cleanseth us from all sin - there is no sin that is beyond the grace of God. Jesus, the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world, has offered Himself a sacrifice for sin before any sin of man. See 1Jo 1:9; Rev 1:5

1Jo 1:8

1Jo 1:8 - If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us - self-delusion stemming from self-righteousness. Self-righteousness will ultimately lead in killing or seeking to destroy those who are truly righteous in Christ for the reproof they give - See Joh 9:39-41, 8:32-41, 16:1-3; Rom 3:23; 1Jo 1:6

1Jo 1:9

1Jo 1:9 - If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness - The blood of Jesus not only brings forgiveness and freedom from condemnation, but it cleanses us from sin altogether. Jesus' blood is the "double cure" as stated in the hymn, Rock of Ages (#300). Josh 24:19 - "Ye cannot serve the Lord," said Josh: "for He is a holy God; ... He will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins." Before there could be any permanent reformation the people must be led to feel their utter inability in themselves to render obedience to God. They had broken His law, it condemned them as transgressors, and it provided no way of escape. While they trusted in their own strength and righteousness, it was impossible for them to secure the pardon of their sins; they could not meet the claims of God's perfect law, and it was in vain that they pledged themselves to serve God. It was only by faith in Christ that they could secure pardon of sin and receive strength to obey God's law. They must cease to rely upon their own efforts for salvation, they must trust wholly in the merits of the promised Saviour, if they would be accepted of God. - {PP 524.1}

1Jo 1:9

1Jo 1:9 - If we confess our sins - God has promised that all who call upon His name shall be saved (Rom 10:12, 13). The requirement of calling upon God's name and receiving of the gift of salvation is humble, contrite confessions of sin. Confession means to give assent with the convicting reproof from the Holy Spirit. True confession is seen when the individual states: "It is true, I have sinned" without excuse or attempts to justify (2Sam 12:13). The Psalmist proclaimed, "Blessed is the man whose transgressions are forgiven and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile. When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long. For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah. I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah. For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him"(Ps 32:1-6). On the other hand, the wise man also declares that "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy" (Prov 28:13).

1Jo 1:9

1Jo 1:9 - He is faithful - God is not a man that He should lie (Num 23:19). That which He promised to do, He will do because He stakes His promises upon His name, His reputation and His character Isa 46:9, 10; Ex 33:14-17; 34:5-8; Isa 43:25; Heb 6:13; 1Thess 5:24; Philippians 1:6 Further God is ever living, so He has all time to fulfill His promise. God is all powerful, so nothing can constrain His purposes except our disobedience. See Heb 7:25, 26; Eze 18:4-25; Mic 7:18, 19

1Jo 1:9 - just to forgive - God is just in all of His dealings (Deut 32:4). He will not try a person a second time for a sin that He has fully acquitted by the blood of Jesus and the person has fully turned from. The work of forgiveness occurs at the Altar of Burnt Offering, where Jesus died for our sins and we offer ourselves as living sacrifices. See Isa 53:10, 55:6, 7; Jer 31:34; 1Jo 1:7; Rom 12:1, 2

1Jo 1:9

1Jo 1:9 - cleanse us from all unrighteousness - 1 John 5:17 Cleansing in the sanctuary occurs at the Lavar, after one has received forgiveness of sin (Ex 30:18-21). the New Covenant promise is to cleans us from our sins, remove our stony heart and give us a heart of flesh with God's law written upon it and place within us God's Spirit that we may be His people and He will be our God. The cleansing here spoken involves a new life in Christ Jesus where old things are past away and it may be seen that all things have become new. Further, the cleansing lastly pertains to the permanent removal of all records of sin so that he who is just will remain just and he who is righteous will remain righteous. See Eze 36:24-29; Jer 31:31-34; Joh 3:5-8; 2Cor 5:17; Act 3:19; Rev 3:5; Isa 43:25; Ps 51:7-12; 1Jo 1:7

1Jo 1:10

1Jo 1:10 - if we say that we have not sinned - this constitutes lying against the Spirit of God Who convicts us of sin, of righteousness and of judgment - See 1Jo 1:8; Joh 16:8-11; James 3:14-16; Mt 12:31, 32 The prideful act of defiance, first observed in Cain (Gen 4:4-9), where we reject the Holy Spirit's prompting to confess our sins to God and ask forgiveness of those we have offended, is a cover-up and profession that "we have not sinned". Because all have sinned (Rom 3:10-12, 23; 1Kin 8:46; 2Chron 6:36), we should never seek to hide our sins, but give confession while the LORD is merciful to forgive (Ps 32:1-6). Salvation is two-fold. 1. Salvation from sin. This is a progressive work of Christian life. Some mistake and think the work is finished because they feel that they love the way of truth, and have no desire or disposition to sin. But, as before noticed, they may sin ignorantly, and do things which are offensive to God because they are not fully instructed in the right. When these sins come to their knowledge they must repent; and if they refuse or neglect to repent of them, they stand as indorsing thorn, and then their relation is changed and they must be counted sins of presumption. And there is place for continuance of this work of increasing in knowledge and reforming in life until we become as perfect in knowledge as our circumstances will permit. This is growth in grace, without which the believer either remains a babe in the Christian life, or degenerates into a fixed state of formality; for no one has a complete knowledge of truth and duty when first he submits himself to God. It is incumbent upon him to grow up into it. {1882 JHW, JBF 6.2}

1Jo 1:10

1Jo 1:10 - we make him a liar - See Heb 6:18; Num 23:19; Rom 3:4

1Jo 2:1

1Jo 2:1 - write I unto you, that ye sin not - since sin is the transgression of the law (1Jo 3:4),

Joh writes to us that we keep or uphold the Law of God. The good news in commandment keeping is that God has already given His Holy Spirit to us, Who writes the commandments in our heart, even before we keep them (do it). See 2Sam 22:33; Deut 30:11-14; 1Cor 15:34; Rom 6:12-14; 2Cor 13:7

1Jo 2:1 - And - the conjunction "and" links the two clauses together such that they both must be fulfilled in order for the statement to be true. In other words, in order for us to have an Advocate [Lawyer, Representative, One Who Intercedes and declares us innocent] with the Father, Christ the Righteous One, we must also believe that we are to sin not. See 1Jo 4:1-3

1Jo 2:1

1Jo 2:1 - we have an Advocate with the Father - Jesus is Savior of the World but not all have an Advocate. An Advocate declares us innocent in court and gives power to kick Satan out of our lives and out of the heavenly tribunal. The Advocate (lawyer) imparts His power to give us victory over sin (self) and our addictions. The Advocate gives power to keep God's commandments - lose the taste for sin and walk away from it. The Holy Spirit will descend upon us and help us to lose even the memory of sin. This produces a commandment keeping person ["here is the patience of the saints, there are they that keep the commandments of God and have the faith of Jesus Christ" - Rev 14:12], which gives God the right to kick Satan out of court (The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan - Zech 3:2; Ju 9). Once God has a people who give answer to the charges to Satan's accusations listed below, He will finish cleansing His sanctuary and return. See Roman 8:34; Isa 51:1-6, 22. SATAN'S CHARGES AGAINST GOD AND US 1. Does God have the right to take a person to heaven (i.e. Enoch, Moses, Elijah, those raised at Jesus' resurrection, the redeemed, you and me)? 2. If the gospel of Christ is so good, why do people continue to sin? Those who rejected the first message could not be benefited by the second, and were not benefited by the midnight cry, which was to prepare them to enter with Jesus by faith into the Most Holy place of the heavenly Sanctuary. And by rejecting the two former messages, they can see no light in the third angel's message, which shows the way into the Most Holy place. I saw that the nominal churches, as the Jews crucified Jesus, had crucified these messages, and therefore they have no knowledge of the move made in heaven, or of the way into the Most Holy, and they cannot be benefited by the intercession of Jesus there. {Spiritual Gifts Vol 1 pg 259}

1Jo 2:1

1Jo 2:1 - Jesus Christ the righteous - See Jeremiah 23:5, 6; 1 John 2:29; Zech 6:12, 13

1Jo 2:2

1Jo 2:2 - And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world - Jesus is the Appeasement, the One Who regains favor with the Father and the transgressed Law, for mankind. See Lk 22:20; Rom 4:25; Heb 2:17; 1Jo 4:10

1Jo 2:2

1Jo 2:2 - not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world - Justification by faith is the gift given to the entire human race. See Rom 3:24, 5:1, 18; 2Cor 5:19; Heb 2:9; 1Jo 2:2; Joh 4:42, 11:50-52

1Jo 2:4

1Jo 2: 4 - He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him - This is the litmus test for Protestantism. See Joh 14:15; 15:10 "I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them." Hebrews 10:16. And if the law is written in the heart, will it not shape the life? Obedience—the service and allegiance of love—is the true sign of discipleship. Thus the Scripture says, "This is the love of God, that we keep His commandments." "He that saith, I know Him, and keepeth not His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him." 1 John 5:3; 2:4. Instead of releasing man from obedience, it is faith, and faith only, that makes us partakers of the grace of Christ, which enables us to render obedience. - {SC 60.2}

1Jo 2:6

1Jo 2:6 - He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked - See Joh 15:5, 10; Gal 2:20; 1Jo 4:17

1Jo 2:7

1Jo 2:7 - Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning - Joh is not giving any new commandments or truths, but merely restating and reminding us of that which we received from the beginning and already know.

1Jo 2:7

1Jo 2:7 - The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning - We are to love God with all our heart, soul, mind and strength and love our neighbors as ourselves - See Lk 12:29-34

1Jo 2:8

1Jo 2:8 - which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth - the Light of Life has shown in our hearts so that which is being now revealed is true, as it is in Jesus Christ and towards us. See John 1:4, 8, 9; 8:12

1Jo 2:9

1Jo 2:9 - He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now - See Job 16:9-11; Mt 5:44, 6:23; 1Jo 2:11

1Jo 2:10

1Jo 2:10 - He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him - See Joh 1:4, 8, 9, 15:12; 1Thess 5:1-9

1Jo 2:11

1 John 2:11 - But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes - See Mt 6:23; Gal 5:19-21; Jam 3:15, 16

1Jo 2:12

1Jo 2:12 - I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake - Our sins are forgiven us because of what Jesus has done in shedding His blood on our behalf and because of the Goodness of the Father, for His name's sake. See Ex 34:5-7; Isa 43:25; 1Jo 1:9

1Jo 2:12

1Jo 2:12 - for his name's sake - It is by nature of the name (Ex 33:16), character, and image (Col 2:9) of God that we are saved. GOD is LOVE! For His name's sake He shows us grace and mercy. See Ex 33:

1Jo 2:13

1Jo 2:13 - the fathers know the Eternal One, the One Who is from everlasting to everlasting. See Ps 90:2; Proverbs 8:22-30

1Jo 2:14

1Jo 2:14 - I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning - See Proverbs 8:22-30

1Jo 2:14

1Jo 2:14 - I have written unto you, young men - Given that Joh wrote this in the first century and he is appealing to the youth of this time, more than any other generation, I believe Joh is saying not only what you are but what you must become in Christ.

1Jo 2:14

1Jo 2:14 - because ye are strong - First Joh says you are strong: Physical strength and beauty are most appealing in the young. However, I'd like to suggest to you that Joh not only speaks of physical strength and endurance but of moral strength of character. Your ability to take a stand for truth, for honesty, for God and His Word in the midst of extreme pressures: Backups Containers Documents Downloads Library Media MobileSoftwareUpdate ipadtar.tar settings.fzs venv vlan.sh This same Joh, who penned the Rev foresaw a world where the iniquitous sins that caused the complete destruction of the twin cities of Sodom and Gomorrah would run rampant - globally accepted and even celebrated... This month marks LGBTQ Pride month Backups Containers Documents Downloads Library Media MobileSoftwareUpdate ipadtar.tar settings.fzs venv vlan.sh Joh foresaw a world where the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually, just as in the days of Noah Joh recognized the need for this generation to be able to express the love of Christ to all men, Just as Jesus loved all men - the publican, the prostitute, the abuser, the sexually immoral, while not condoning their sin. Joh saw a generation that would call sin by its right name, but express and model love so that the sinner might ask: "Sirs, what must I do to be saved" {from sermon 6/8/2021 - An Appeal to the Youth and Young People by CAA}

1Jo 2:14 - and the word of God abideth in you - Next Joh says that you, the youth the young have the Word of God abiding in you: Joh foresaw this generation as ones who have developed an intimate knowledge of Scripture. Now Joh again is not saying this is what you are, but what you must strive to become. As you accept the challenge to master God's Word, you will realize that there is no greater, no higher field of study than what you find in Scripture. In fact, Scriptures contain the Pure Science of Math, it contains all of the Health Sciences, it contains Astronomy, it contains Botany and Zoology, it contains Education, Social Work and Social Sciences and especially History. The Bible contains counsels on every topic under the sun. It is this collective knowledge of truth and most importantly, the Science of Salvation, God's masterful plan for restoring His image in mankind, granting us the gift of eternal life and ridding the universe of the rebellion of sin that we are to become most familiar with. Why is the Word of God abiding in us so important you may ask? Backups Containers Documents Downloads Library Media MobileSoftwareUpdate ipadtar.tar settings.fzs venv vlan.sh Joh foresaw a world filled with over 4,300 different, distinct religions offering any number of options and methods for finding, peace, happiness, well-being, and an afterlife. However, of all the 4,300 different paths, there is only one narrow path that leads upwards that the true saints of God must travel. Jesus is at the distant end of the path and behind the saints is the "Judgment Hour Cry stating: "The Bridegroom cometh, go ye out to meet Him". Backups Containers Documents Downloads Library Media MobileSoftwareUpdate ipadtar.tar settings.fzs venv vlan.sh Joh foresaw this generation facing an unrighteous decree, just like the three Hebrew boys faced when told to bow and worship the golden image. Joh saw the need to be rooted in God's Word to not only know what it truth, but to understand that when we take a stand for truth, the battle is no longer ours but the Lord Joh saw the necessity of knowing the historic accounts of Bible history which have been written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. Joh saw that God's Word abiding within will shield you youth from the myriad of deceptions, but also having the Living Word, Jesus Christ abiding within will allow you to face the coming unrighteous decree, a Sunday Law, with strength and courage {6/8/2021 - from sermon "An Appeal to the Youth and Young People" by CAA}

1Jo 2:14

1Jo 2:14 - and ye have overcome the wicked one - Lastly Joh saw that you youth have overcome the wicked one. Joh first saw a world where the nations were angry, and the heathen raged, imagining a vain thing against God and His anointed. He saw where the vast majority of the world had succumbed to the deceptive teachings and lying signs and wonders of the Dragon, the Beast and the False Prophet, all marshaled and aligned to war against Jesus and those with Him. Now those who stood with Jesus was this generation of youth and young people, each of you on this line, as those who will fulfill the greatest promise and works described in Scripture! Joh saw the Mystery of God, as described in Rev 10:7, fulfilled in each of you here on this prayer line. Now there are several aspects to the Mystery of God, but the one I'd like to focus on is described in Col 1:27 "Christ in you, the hope of glory". Joh foresaw a generation that married themselves totally to Jesus Christ such that they were finally able to defy every temptation, rise above every disappointment, ignore all distractions, and find victory over every sin and besetment through the power of the Holy Spirit. Now how is this mystery of God to be manifest in us? Backups Containers Documents Downloads Library Media MobileSoftwareUpdate ipadtartar settings.fzs venv vlan.sh Joh saw this generation fulfilling that which he penned in Rev 18:1 where he saw "another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory" Backups Containers Documents Downloads Library Media MobileSoftwareUpdate ipadtartar settings.fzs venv vlan.sh Isa described you all similarly when he penned in Isa 60:1-3 "Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee. For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee. And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. Joh foresaw each of you gaining victory over the Dragon, the Beast and the False Prophet, that you would not bow down to the Beast, his image nor receive his mark, but rather, you would be sealed with God's seal and proclaim the greatest most solemn message to the world, to gather Jesus' final harvest {from sermon 6/8/2021 - An Appeal to the Youth and Young People - by CAA}

1Jo 2:15 - Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world - See Joh 12:25; 1Jo 5:19 "He hath smitten." God has so ordered in his providence, that his children cannot have intercourse and associations with men of the world, and with the kingdoms of this earth, but that persecution, or loss of Christian character, is sure to follow. The prophet is showing the present state of the church, while the tares and wheat are growing together. The children of God shall be smitten - meaning they shall be chastised, persecuted, ruled over. See the Roman power, from the days of their connection with the Jews until the present time, ruling over, persecuting, and trampling under foot the church of God. Our text is not only showing us our duty to God, but it teaches us the sufferings of the church, the dealings of God with her, and her final redemption; the first and second coming of her Lord, her final deliverance from death and all enemies, and her glorified reign. It teaches us the manner of Christ's coming, and the time when all these things will be fulfilled. We are therefore now showing the sufferings of the church, and God's special care and providential dealings with her. {1842 WiM, MWV3 49.2}

1Jo 2:15

1Jo 2:15 - If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him - See Gal 1:10; Jam 4:4; Joh 15:19

1Jo 2:16

1Jo 2:16 - For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. - See Rom 7:7; 1Jo 5:19 In the experience of Dan and his companions we have an instance of the triumph of principle over temptation to indulge the appetite. It shows us that through religious principle young men may triumph over the lusts of the flesh, and remain true to God's requirements, even though it costs them a great sacrifice. - {CC 248.2}

1Jo 2:16

1Jo 2:16 - pride of life - all of the things which exalt self: the praises of men, selfish ambitions, positions and titles, material wealth and possessions. See Heb 3:13; Mk 10:23 He who falls into some of the grosser sins may feel a sense of his shame and poverty and his need of the grace of Christ; but pride feels no need, and so it closes the heart against Christ and the infinite blessings He came to give. - {SC 30.1}

1Jo 2:18

1Jo 2:18 - Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come - Joh speaks of the man of sin, the son of perdition as the antichrist. The masterpiece of Satan embodied in the Church of Rome is that antichrist that exalts itself against the knowledge of Christ, sits in the seat of Christ and professes to be Christ.

1Jo 2:18

1Jo 2:18 - even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time - Anyone who does not give God the glory but seeks to assume praise and glory to himself is operating under the spirit of antichrist (2Thess 2:4). Laodicea is rich and increased with goods and thinks it has need of nothing. Her boast is in her good works of self-righteousness [works of the flesh and not works of the Spirit - Rom 8:8], not realizing she is wretched, miserable, poor, blind and naked. (2Cor 11:12-15; Col 2:18, 19). See 1Jo 2:22, 4:1-3; Act 13:6-12; Mk 15:7; Mt 24:5, 27:16; Joh 10:10; 2Thess 2:1-4

1Jo 2:19

1Jo 2:19 - but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us - See John 6:66; Isa 33:14

1Jo 2:19

1Jo 2:19 - that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us - See Lk 12:2; Zeph 1:12; Jer 17:10

1Jo 2:20

1Jo 2:20 - But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things - The Spirit of Life and Truth that dwells in us is also the Spirit of Wisdom and of Revelation Who teaches us all things we need to know for salvation. See Ex 28:3; 1Cor 2:4-7, 10, 12-16; Mt 11:25; Eph 1:17; 2Cor 1:21

1Jo 2:20

1Jo 2:20 - unction - The act of anointing - See 1Jo 2:27, 3:9

1Jo 2:21

1Jo 2:21 - I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it - See Joh 8:32

1Jo 2:21

1Jo 2:21 - and that no lie is of the truth - no lie originates or comes from the truth; they are mutually exclusive. - See John 8:31, 32, 36; 1Jo 3:5

1Jo 2:22

1Jo 2:22 - Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son - the denial of Jesus as Christ is to deny Him of His divine position of God and appointed position as the sole Mediator between God and man. The usurpation of Jesus' work as Mediator has been asserted by the man of sin for centuries. 2Pet 2:1, 2; Dan 9:25 Modern spiritualism, resting upon the same foundation, is but a revival in a new form of the witchcraft and demon worship that God condemned and prohibited of old. It is foretold in the Scriptures, which declare that "in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils." 1Tim 4:1. Paul, in his second letter to the Thessalonians, points to the special working of Satan in spiritualism as an event to take place immediately before the second advent of Christ. Speaking of Christ's second coming, he declares that it is "after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders." 2Thess 2:9. And Peter, describing the dangers to which the church was to be exposed in the last days, says that as there were false prophets who led Israel into sin, so there will be false teachers, "who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them.... And many shall follow their pernicious ways." 2Pet 2:1, 2. Here the apostle has pointed out one of the marked characteristics of spiritualist teachers. They refuse to acknowledge Christ as the Son of God. Concerning such teachers the beloved Joh declares: "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father." 1Jo 2:22, 23. Spiritualism, by denying Christ, denies both the Father and the Son, and the Bible pronounces it the manifestation of antichrist. - {PP 686.1}

1Jo 2:22

1Jo 2:22 - He is antichrist - the papacy, which claims to be Christ's representative on earth and through the confessional and indulgences, seeks to supersede and usurp the authority and works of Christ and His Father, is antichrist. Consider Absalom's rebellion as an example of the workings of antichrist, a usurper: 2Sam 15:1-6 Origins of Antichrist: Lucifer might have remained in favor with God, beloved and honored by all the angelic host, exercising his noble powers to bless others and to glorify his Maker. But, says the prophet, "Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness." [Eze 28:12-15, 17.] Little by little, Lucifer came to indulge a desire for self-exaltation. "Thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God." "Thou hast said: ... I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation." "I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High." [Eze 28:6; Isa 14:13, 14.] Instead of seeking to make God supreme in the affections and allegiance of his creatures, it was Lucifer's endeavor to win their service and homage to himself. And, coveting the honor which the infinite Father had bestowed upon his Son, this prince of angels aspired to power which it was the prerogative of Christ alone to wield. - {GC88 494.1}

1Jo 2:27 - But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you - See 1Jo 2:20, 3:9, 24; Eph 1:13, 14; Ex 28:3; 2Cor 1:22

1Jo 2:27

1Jo 2:27 - and ye need not that any man teach you - the words of God, written in the heart by the Holy Spirit is our guide. All who will be taught will be taught of God (Joh 6:45) - See Jer 31:31-34; 1Cor 2: 2:4-7, 10, 12-16

1Jo 2:27

1Jo 2:27 - but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things - The mind of Christ, the blessed presence of the Holy Spirit is He Who teaches us all things and leads us into all truth. See Joh 6:45, 16:13, 14; 1Cor 2:4-7, 10, 12-16

1Jo 2:27

1Jo 2:27 - and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him - See Joh 15:1-10

1Jo 2:28

1Jo 2:28 - And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming - See Joh 15:1-10; Mt 24:46

1Jo 2:28

1Jo 2:28 - when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming - See 2Tim 2:15; Titus 2:12, 13; 1Pet 4:13; Heb 6:19, 10:35-39; Rom 5:2

1Jo 2:28

1Jo 2:28 - we may have confidence - See Isa 25:9, 33:15-17, 32:17, 1Jo 4:17

1Jo 2:29

1Jo 2:29 - If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him - See Jer 23:5, 6; 1Jo 3:7, 9, 4:7, 5:1, 4, 18; 2Cor 3:18

1Jo 3:1

1Jo 3:1 - Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God - How deep the Father's love for us!? How kind beyond all measure! That He would give His only Son, to make a wretch His treasure!!! 1. Jesus will pardon and justify us fully and completely and share His glory with us as we sit on thrones with Him! - Satan in his efforts to deceive and tempt our race had thought to frustrate the divine plan in man's creation; but Christ now asks that this plan be carried into effect as if man had never fallen. He asks for His people not only pardon and justification, full and complete, but a share in His glory and a seat upon His throne. - {GC 483.3} 2. Jesus, the Everlasting God and Father (Isa 9:6, 7; Heb 1:8), is not ashamed to call us brethren as He has been joined to the human race for eternity. Joh 3:16; Heb 2:11 3. We, who embrace God's promises by faith can be filled with all the fullness of Jesus Christ and can become partakers of Jesus' divine nature. See Eph 3:19; 2Pet 1: 4 4. Jesus will make us to sit down and He will serve us in New Jerusalem - Lk 12:37 5. Jesus has prepared a city especially for the redeemed to dwell in. Joh 14:1-3; Rev 21:10-27; Hymn #427 No Night There; #449 Never Part Again 6. God will move the capital of His eternal Kingdom to earth so that He may dwell among men; honoring the lost sheep above the others. Rev 21:3, 22; Lk 15:22-24, 32; The uplifted Saviour is to appear in His efficacious work as the Lamb slain, sitting upon the throne, to dispense the priceless covenant blessings, the benefits He died to purchase for every soul who should believe on Him. Joh could not express that love in words; it was too deep, too broad; he calls upon the human family to behold it. Christ is pleading for the church in the heavenly courts above, pleading for those for whom He paid the redemption price of His own lifeblood. Centuries, ages, can never diminish the efficacy of this atoning sacrifice. The message of the gospel of His grace was to be given to the church in clear and distinct lines, that the world should no longer say that Seventh-day Adventists talk the law, the law, but do not teach or believe Christ. - {Ev 191.1} The efficacy of the blood of Christ was to be presented to the people with freshness and power, that their faith might lay hold upon its merits.... - {Ev 191.2}

1Jo 3:1

1Jo 3:1 - that we should be called the sons of God - Ones born in sin and shapen in iniquity are called sons of God by virtue of the shed blood of Jesus Christ (Rom 5:1; 1Jo 1:7). See Gen 4:26, 6:1, 2; Isa 56:2-8; Eph 1:3-14; Heb 2:9-14

1Jo 3:1

1Jo 3:1 - therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. - We are pilgrims in this world and therefore foreigners to the world - See Joh 17:14-16, 18:36; Tit 2:14; 1Jo 3:13, 4:17

1Jo 3:1

1Jo 3:1 - because it knew him not - See John 16:1-3

1Jo 3:2

1Jo 3:2 - Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is - See Col 3:4

1Jo 3:2

1Jo 3:2 - now are we the sons of God - we are sons of God today in Christ Jesus - 2Cor 5:17-21; Rom 8:14; Joh 1:12, 13; Gal 3:29

1Jo 3:2

1Jo 3:2 - it doth not yet appear what we shall be - See Rom 8:24, 25; 1Cor 2:9, 13:12; Isa 64:4

1Jo 3:2

1Jo 3:2 - but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is - See Heb 3:14

1Jo 3:2

1Jo 3:2 - when He shall appear - Jesus will appear, first in us through the power of the Holy Spirit, and then in the clouds of glory. See Col 1:26-29; 1Jo 4:1-3; Heb 9:28, Tit 2:13

1Jo 3:2

1Jo 3:3 - we shall be like him - we will have the mind and character of Jesus when He appears. See 1Cor 13:12, 15:50-55; 1Jo 4:17, 2:28; Rom 6:5; 1Pe 3:11, 14; Eph 1:4; Rev 22:11; Philippians 2:5-11

1Jo 3:2

1Jo 3:2 - for we shall see Him as He is - we see Jesus today as the Fairest among ten thousand and the One, altogether lovely and we will reflect this character at His Second Coming. See 1Cor 13:9-12; 2Cor 3:18; Song 5:10, 16

1Jo 3:3

1Jo 3:3 - every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself - the hope is to become Christ-like and to be able to see Him in peace when He comes again - 1Jo 4:17; Col 1:25-29; Heb 3:6; Titus 2:11-14 Righteousness by Faith and the health message, (the 3rd Angel's message) are hear succinctly stated where those who have the hope of salvation will have pure hearts, minds, lives and bodies. See 1Pet 1:22, 23; 2Pet 1:10; Rev 14:6; Joh 17:17, 19; 2Tim 2:21; Dan 12:10

1Jo 3:3

1Jo 3:3 - even as He is pure - See 1Pet 1:16

1Jo 3:4

1Jo 3:4 - Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law - "The choice to rebel against God's authority over our lives, instead of surrendering to it, is the basis of every sin. This, in essence, is a choice to be God because we take His rightful place in our lives”.

1Jo 3:4

1Jo 3:4 - for sin is the transgression of the law - Sin is manifested in self going higher. See Rom 6:23, 7:7; Gen 2:17; 1Jo 5:17 Sin being transgression of the Law is a FACT. Jesus, full of Grace and Truth, was manifest to take away our sins which is salvific TRUTH (1Jo 3:5, 6). Sin is not abiding in Jesus and walking in the flesh 24/7 rather than walking in the Spirit of God. See Rom 6:5-7, 8:5-8 Josh 24:19 - “Ye cannot serve the Lord,” said Josh: “for He is a holy God; ... He will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.” Before there could be any permanent reformation the people must be led to feel their utter inability in themselves to render obedience to God. They had broken His law, it condemned them as transgressors, and it provided no way of escape. While they trusted in their own strength and righteousness, it was impossible for them to secure the pardon of their sins; they could not meet the claims of God’s perfect law, and it was in vain that they pledged themselves to serve God. It was only by faith in Christ that they could secure pardon of sin and receive strength to obey God’s law. They must cease to rely upon their own efforts for salvation, they must trust wholly in the merits of the promised Saviour, if they would be accepted of God. - {PP 524.1} “When we understand and appreciate that “real sin” is the will to kill God, then we will know that the sin of man was indeed laid upon Christ. He took our sin. Without a murmur the Saviour accepted the supreme evidence of hatred. He not only bore the sins of mankind, but He bore mankind's sin of the murder of God displayed before the universe. As a lamb He came to the slaughter and we slew Him. When we come to see and understand that sin, we can truly repent. When we sense that it is in this way that the sanctuary was defiled, we will understand the work facing the church.” {Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short; pg 119}

1Jo 3:5

1Jo 3:5 - He was manifested to take away our sins - Joh 3:16, 17; 12:23-28; Rom 5:1, 6:1-14, 2:14-18; Eph 2:1-16; 1Jo 1:2, 7, 3:8; Act 3:22-26; Zech 3:4, 5

1Jo 3:5

1Jo 3:5 - in Him is no sin - Joh 14:30; Heb 4:15; Act 2:22-36; Gal 5:22, 23; 1Jo 2:21

1Jo 3:6

1Jo 3:6 - Whosoever abideth in Him sinneth not - See 1Jo 3:9; Joh 15:5

1Jo 3:6

1Jo 3:6 - abideth - ménō Verb men'-o a root word a primary verb; to stay (in a given place, state, relation or expectancy):--abide, continue, dwell, endure, be present, remain, stand, tarry (for), ? thine own. to remain, abide in reference to place to sojourn, tarry not to depart 1a to continue to be present 1a to be held, kept, continually in reference to time to continue to be, not to perish, to last, endure 1b of persons, to survive, live in reference to state or condition to remain as one, not to become another or different to wait for, await one Those who abide in Jesus will be happy, cheerful, and joyful in God. A subdued gentleness will mark the voice, reverence for spiritual and eternal things will be expressed in the actions, and music, joyful music, will echo from the lips, for it is wafted from the throne of God. This is the mystery of godliness, not easily explained, but nonetheless felt and enjoyed. - {FLB 226.4}

1Jo 3:6

1Jo 3:6 - whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him - we must behold the glory of the Lord in His majesty and holiness. We must have the Mareh vision experience as Isa, Daniel, and Joh the Revelator, so that our comeliness is cast to the dust, we see our wretchedness and we cry out for God's grace and mercy. Unless we are born again and abide in Christ, we are still in our flesh and will not see the Kingdom of God - Jesus is the Kingdom of God. See Joh 3:3, 5; Lk 17:20, 21; 1Jo 3:9

1Jo 3:6

1Jo 3:6 - hath not seen him, neither known him - To experience the divine power of Jesus Christ abiding within, providing peace, quietness, assurance and victory while under trial, test, or temptation is to see and know Jesus. See John 14:16-20, 3:3, 5||Lk 17:20, 21|Ezekiel 36:26, 27; Isa 50:4-7; John 16:3

1Jo 3:7

1Jo 3:7 - he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous - as Christ is, so are we in this world (1Jo 4:17) See 1Jo 2:29; Jeremiah 23:5, 6; 2Cor 5:21; Lk 6:44, 45; Rom 8:4 "Righteousness" is a word that is never used of created beings with a sinless nature. We read of "holy angels" or "unfallen angels," but never do we find the phrase righteous angels. We read of Adam and Eve before the fall that they were "innocent and holy," but never do we see that they were righteous. They could have developed a "righteous character" if they had resisted temptation, but righteousness is always a term that means holiness that has confronted temptation in sinful nature and has overcome. The word itself means justification, and something that is sinless cannot need justification. The innate meaning of the word is declaring something that has been crooked to be straightened.' {Wieland - Grace on Trial pg}

1Jo 3:8

1Jo 3:8 - He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning - This verse speaks of the power of demon possession (Eph 2:2, 3). We are under the spirit of Satan by nature and when we commit sin. Sin within our sinful nature, influenced by the devil, causes us to perform the works of the flesh. See Joh 8:44; Isa 14:12-14; Gal 5:19-21; 1Cor 6:9, 10

1Jo 3:8

1Jo 3:8 - for the devil sinneth from the beginning - Lucifer chose not to abide in Jesus but sought to establish his own righteousness apart from Jesus and thus sinned. See John 8:44; Jude 1:6; 2Pet 2:4; Isa 14:12-14; Eze 28:12-18

1Jo 3:8

1Jo 3:8 - For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil - See Rom 8:1-4; Heb 2:14-16; 1Jo 3:5, 5:18

1Jo 3:8

1Jo 3:8 - works of the devil - See James 3:14-16; 1Cor 6:9, 10; Gal 5:19-21; Joh 8:44; Eph 5:5, 6 The works of the devil include causing: 1. Guilt 2. Shame 3. Fear 4. Bitterness, Anger, Wrath 5. Condemnation 6. Jealousy, Envy, Covetousness 7. Lies and deception (John 8:44) 7. Works of the Flesh (Gal 5:19-21)

1Jo 3:9

1Jo 3:9 - Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin - See Rom 8:14; 2Cor 5:17; Joh 1:12, 13, 3:3-8; 1Jo 2:29, 5:18

1Jo 3:9

1Jo 3:9 - his seed remaineth in him - the person abides in Christ. The seed from above is given by Christ (the Holy Spirit) and is (fed) watered as we partake of the Word of God and sow the Spirit (Gal 6:8). As HE waters that seed and it remains and grows in us, we cannot sin. See Rom 9:29; Col 1:27; Joh 14:16-18; 1Pet 1:23; 2Pet 3:9; 1Jo 2:29, 3:6, 24; Eph 1:13, 14

1Jo 3:9

1Jo 3:9 - and he cannot sin, because he is born of God - See 2Pet 1:1-4; Ps 119:11

1Jo 3:9

1Jo 3:9 - he is born of God - See Joh 1:13; 2Cor 5:17; Gal 2:20

1Jo 3:10

1Jo 3:10 - In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil - See Gen 3:15; Mal 3:18

1Jo 3:10

1Jo 3:10 - and the children of the devil - See Gen 3:15; 1Jo 3:12; Lk 3:7; Joh 8:44; Isa 1:4, 57:4, 9:15; Lk 3:7; Gen 6:2; Ps 57:4

1Jo 3:10

1Jo 3:10 - whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God; neither he that loveth not his brother - See Gen 4:3; Rom 13:8-10, 4:1-4; 1Jo 3:12, 14, 15, 4:7

1Jo 3:11

1Jo 3:11 - For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning - See 1Jo 2:24

1Jo 3:11

1Jo 3:11 - we should love one another - the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts through the Holy Spirit, enabling us to love as God loves. Mt 22:37-39; Rom 5:5

1Jo 3:12

1Jo 3:12 - Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother - Cain was a seed of the serpent, father of the sons and daughters of men. See Gen 3:15, 6:1, 2; Joh 8:40-44; 1Jo 3:15

1Jo 3:12

1Jo 3:12 - And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous - Cain killed Abel out of envy and jealousy, because his works were evil and Abel's righteous. James 3:14-16

1Jo 3:12

1Jo 3:12 - Because his own works were evil - See Gen 4:3; 1Jo 3:10

1Jo 3:12

1Jo 3:12 - and his brother's righteous - See Heb 11:4

1Jo 3:13

1Jo 3:13 - Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you - See Joh 15:18-25; 1Pet 4:12, 13; 1Jo 3:1

1Jo 3:14

1Jo 3:14 - We know that we have passed from death unto life - the carnal nature is that of death; to walk in the Spirit of Life in Jesus Christ is life. Thus, those who have died to self and abide in Jesus through the Holy Spirit are alive. See Col 2:13; Rom 8:10; Joh 5:24; 11:25, 26; Eph 2:1; Lk 15:24

1Jo 3:14

1Jo 3:14 - He that loveth not his brother abideth in death - the person that does not love is dead in trespasses and sins, spiritually dead. See Eph 2:1-3; 1Jo 5:12

1Jo 3:15

1Jo 3:15 - Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer - See Exodus 20:13; Joh 8:44; 1Jo 5:12; 1Cor 6:9, 10

1Jo 3:16

1Jo 3:16 - because he laid down his life for us - See Joh 10:17, 18; Rom 5:8-10

1Jo 3:16

1Jo 3:16 - we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren - See Rom 5:6-8; 1Cor 4:8-14; Act 2:42-47; John 15:13; Lk 9:23, 24, 17:33

1Jo 3:17

1Jo 3:17 - But who hath this world's goods and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? - See Jam 2:15, 16; Act 2:44-47

1Jo 3:18

1Jo 3:18 - My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth - we are not merely to bear leaves of profession but to have fruit commensurate with our boasting. See Mt 21:19-21; Eph 6:6||Col 3:22

1Jo 3:18

1Jo 3:18 - but in deed - faith without works of faith is dead. We demonstrate our faith through the life we live. See Jam 2:18

1Jo 3:18

1Jo 3:18 - and in truth - in verity, in integrity, without guile or dissimulation - See John 17:17; Rom 12:9, 10; 1Cor 13

1Jo 3:19

1Jo 3:19 - And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him - See 2Cor 13:5

1Jo 3:19

1Jo 3:19 - and shall assure our hearts before him - We can have peace, quietness and assurance before the Lord and in Judgment because as He is, so are we in the world - lovers of God and of our fellow men. See 1Jo 4:17; Isa 32:17

1Jo 3:20

1Jo 3:20 - If we feel in our hearts condemned, guilty, worthless, hopeless, shamed, reprobate, hypocritical, judged then know that God is greater than our hearts. He can take care of those feelings for those who come to Him in faith (Ps 32:1-6; Rom 8:1, 2)

1Jo 3:20

1Jo 3:20 - For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things - If we feel in our hearts condemned, guilty, worthless, hopeless, shamed, reprobate, hypocritical, judged then know that God is greater than our hearts. He can take care of those feelings for those who come to Him in faith (Ps 32:1-6)

1Jo 3:20

1Jo 3:20 - God is greater than our heart - See Rom 8:11, 13

1Jo 3:21

1Jo 3:21 - Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God - Great peace have those who Love God's Law and nothing shall offend them. As we walk with the Lord, in the light of His Word, what a glory He sheds on our way. As we do His good will, He abides with us still, and with all who will trust and obey. See Isa 32:17; Ps 119:165; 1Jo 4:17, 18; Hymn #590 Trust and Obey

1Jo 3:21

1Jo 3:20 - our heart condemn us not - we must ask the Lord for a pure and clean heart because our carnal hearts are desperately wicked (Jer 17:9). As we allow Christ to abide in us, He purifies, purges and His blood cleanses us of all unrighteousness. See 1Jo 1:7

1Jo 3:22

1Jo 3:22 - whatsoever we ask, we receive of Him, because we keep His commandments - We who keep God's commandments, abiding in Him and He in us, will ask the things that will edify the body and the Kingdom of God. We can therefore have assurance of God's provisions and providences. See Joh 14:15, 16:23, 24, 15:17; 1 John 5:14, 15; 2Cor 1:17-20

1Jo 3:23

1Jo 3:23 - And this is His commandment, that we should believe on the name of His Son Jesus Christ - See Joh 5:23, 24, 6:29, 12:50; Act 2:36, 38; 1Jo 5:1

1Jo 3:23

1Jo 3:23 - and love one another, as He gave us commandment - See Joh 17:21, 22

1Jo 3:24

1Jo 3:24 - And he that keepeth His commandments dwelleth in Him, and he in Him - Without the Spirit of God abiding in us, we can not keep the commandments, neither worship Him, neither please Him - See Joh 4:24, 14:20, 17:21-23, 15:1-5; Rom 8:9, 14; 1Jo 3:6; Col 1:27

1Jo 3:24

1Jo 3:24 - And hereby we know that He abideth in us, by the Spirit which He hath given us - See Rom 8:14, 16; Joh 15:1-5, 16:7, 13; Act 2:38; Eph 1:13, 14; 2Cor 1:21, 22; 1Jo 4:13; Isa 32:17

1Jo 4:1

1Jo 4:1 - believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God - See Isa 8:20; 1Thess 5:21; Act 17:10, 11; 1Cor 14:29 The Spirit was not given—nor can it ever be bestowed—to supersede the Bible; for the Scriptures explicitly state that the word of God is the standard by which all teaching and experience must be tested. Says the apostle Joh, “Believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.” 1Jo 4:1. And Isa declares, “To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.” Isa 8:20. - {GC vii.3}

1Jo 4:1

1Jo 4:1 - whether they are of God - not all spirits that present themselves are of God. The devil and his imps, who are spiritual beings, manifest themselves as angels of light (Act 12:7) and are lying and deceptive spirits, working miracles to gather the world against God. See 2Cor 11:14; Rev 16:13, 14

1Jo 4:1

1Jo 4:1 - many false prophets are gone out into the world - See Mt 7:15, 24:4, 5, 11; Act 20:28-32, 13:6; Mk 15:7; 2Cor 11:14, 15; 1Jo 2:18, 19

1Jo 4:2

1Jo 4:2 - Hereby know ye the Spirit of God - by this we shall know if one is born of the Spirit of God: 1. They will confess that Jesus Christ IS come in the flesh 2. They will declare the righteousness of Jesus Christ as our only boast of salvation 3. They will preach a message of Jesus Christ alone, and Him crucified for the sins of the world - JESUS SAVES, the ONE and ONLY GOSPEL 4. They will preach that we must deny ourselves, take up our cross and follow Christ to death on Calvary.

1Jo 4:2

1Jo 4:2 - confesseth - One who confesses; one who acknowledges his sins. 2. One who makes a profession of his faith in the Christian religion

1Jo 4:2

1Jo 4:2 - Jesus Christ is come in the flesh - the verse does not say that Jesus Christ "had" come in the flesh or "will" come in the flesh, but rather that He "is" come in the flesh. That is to say that Jesus Christ lives in each of us today through the Holy Spirit, by faith - Col 1:26-29; Joh 15:1-11; Rom 5:5; Gal 1:15, 16, 2:20; Heb 2:11; 1Jo 3:2 Col 1:27: To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: Eph 3:17: That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, Gal 2:20: I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. See also 2Cor 4:10, 11; Rom 8:3, 4; Heb 2:10-14, 16-18; Isa 60:1-3; Rev 18:1; 2Cor 3:18; 2Pet 1:1-4

1Jo 4:2

1Jo 4:2 - is come - this is written in the present tense, Jesus "is come" in the flesh. This suggests that Jesus abides in mortal, human flesh, yours and mine, through the power of the Holy Spirit TODAY (compare Act 1:8; Rev 14:7). This speaks of a people who walk in the Spirit of God (Rom 8:1); they have the mind of Christ (Philippians 2:5-11), they have yielded their will to Christ, and permit Him, through the Holy Spirit, to shine forth from within them (Mt 5:16); they are born of promise (Gal 3:26-29, Gen 3:15); they are a creation of God, born by a miracle of God (Joh 1:12, 13; Gal 4:28, 31). See Isa 60:1-3; *Col 1:27, 28; 2Pet 1:1-4; Rom 5:5; Act 1:8, 3:1-9, 19, 20, *4:1-14; Heb 9:28; 1Tim 3:16 Of the Spirit Jesus said, "He shall glorify Me." The Saviour came to glorify the Father by the demonstration of His love; so the Spirit was to glorify Christ by revealing His grace to the world. The very image of God is to be reproduced in humanity. The honor of God, the honor of Christ, is involved in the perfection of the character of His people. - {DA 671.3} Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 415.5} The light of the Sun of Righteousness is to shine forth in good works—in words of truth and deeds of holiness. - {COL 416.1}

1Jo 4:3

1Jo 4:3 - And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God - Any spirit that denies that the Kingdom of God is come inside of me (Lk 17:20, 21); the gospel message of Christ in me the hope of glory (Col 1:27; 1Jo 4:4); that I am crucified with Christ nevertheless I live with Christ dwelling within, yielding a victorious life above sin (Gal 2:20); that denies the patience of the saints who keep the commandments of God and have the faith of Jesus Christ (Rev 14:12); that deny becoming a partaker of the divine nature, having escaped the corruptions of the world through lust (2Pet 1:4); that denies our living soberly, righteously and godly in the present age (Tit 2:11-15), this is the spirit of error that is heard and embraced by those in the world. These are evil servants that claim that the Lord delays His coming, when in fact He is come, abiding inside the faithful believer. See Mt 24:48; 1Jo 4:5, 6

1Jo 4:3

1Jo 4:3 - Jesus Christ - most modern translations omit the title/name Christ, suggesting that Jesus and the "Christ Spirit" are distinct entities and that Jesus Himself was not divine. This is Gnostic heresy that is found in corrupt modern translations. The same omission is found in Mt 16:20 in modern translations - Wrestring Scriptures

1Jo 4:3

1Jo 4:3 - is come - present tense, meaning Christ abides in my flesh by faith (Gal 2:20). Because Christ abides in me by the Holy Spirit, I may live a life above sin, just as He did. See Rom 6:6-12 Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 415.5} The light of the Sun of Righteousness is to shine forth in good works—in words of truth and deeds of holiness. - {COL 416.1}

1Jo 4:3

1Jo 4:3 - and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come - The spirit of self-exaltation that works in the hearts/minds in the sons of disobedience is that spirit of antichrist. It seeks to exalt itself above a knowledge of God and all that is called God so that it sits as God, in these earthly vessels (temple of God), proclaiming itself to be God. The Jews first demonstrated it in restricting people's ability to glorify God and honor Jesus as Messiah due to their blind hatred and prejudice (Joh 9:20-22, 7:13, 45-49). Later, the papal teaching of the Immaculate Conception reflects the same spirit of antichrist, suggesting that God is not with us, and therefore we can not live as He lived. See 2Thess 2:3, 4, 8-10; Dan 2:10, 11; Act 15:1, 5 1. Teaches that man can be God - Gen 3:4, 5 Teaches that man can save himself ("a different gospel" - Gal 1:8) 2. Seeks to rob (usurp) God of His glory (2Thess 2:3, 4; Acts 16:16-18) 3. Promotes the doctrines of this world and not of Christ - (1Jo 4:5; Mt 16:22, 23; CONTRAST Col 3:1, 2) There are many antichrists in the world, who once walked among the saints of God but no longer do. They have gone out from us because they were not of us. See 1Jo 2:18, 19, 27 It was generally believed that Christ would be born at Bethlehem, but that after a time He would disappear, and at His second appearance none would know whence He came. There were not a few who held that the Messiah would have no natural relationship to humanity. And because the popular conception of the glory of the Messiah was not met by Jesus of Nazareth, many gave heed to the suggestion, "Howbeit we know this Man whence He is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence He is." - {DA 457.2}. See Joh 7:27

1Jo 4:3

1Jo 4:3 - and even now already is it in the world - the spirit of antichrist existed in the heart of Satan and is played out by his children. See Joh 8:44; Mk 13:6; Mk 15:7-15; 1Kin 12:33

1Jo 4:4

1John 4:4 - Ye are of God, little children - See 1Jo 4:6; Rom 8:9, 14; Gal 3:26-29

1Jo 4:4

1Jo 4:4 - and have overcome them - we overcome the world and they who are in and of the world by faith, by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of our testimony. See John 17:17; 1Jo 2:16, 5:4; Rev 12:11

1Jo 4:4

1Jo 4:4 - greater is He that dwelleth in you, than he that is in the world - See 2Cor 4:7-11; Joh 14:17; Col 1:27; Lk 10:19, 11:22, 17:20, 21; 1 John 5:19

1Jo 4:4

1Jo 4:4 - he that is in the world - the prince of the power of the air, Satan is the ruler of the world and over the sons of disobedience. See Eph 2:2; Lk 4:6, 7; John 14:30; 12;

1Jo 4:5

1Jo 4:5 - They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them - those who are in the flesh, being governed by the spirit of antichrist (1Jo 4:2), speak things that appeal to the flesh and those who are in the flesh love to hear them - Matthew 6:26-32; 1Cor 2:14 ; Rom 8:5, 7; CONTRAST Joh 17:14; 18:36; 1Cor 2:12, 13, 15

1Jo 4:6

1Jo 4:6 - We are of God: - those in whom the Spirit of God abides are in God - See Rom 8:14, 9; 1Jo 4:4

1Jo 4:6

1Jo 4:6 - he that knoweth God heareth us - See Joh 7:17, 8:30-32, 47, 10:14, 16, 27; 1Cor 2:12, 13, 14:36, 37; Isa 8:20

1Jo 4:6

1Jo 4:6 - he that is not of God heareth not us - Spiritual things are spiritually discerned. The natural man can not know nor understand the things of God. Those who are of the world and are driven by the spirit of antichrist do not like the reproof spoken by the Holy Spirit - See 1Cor 2:14; John 5:38, 40; 1Jo 2:18, 19; Heb 12:24-27

1Jo 4:6

1Jo 4:6 - Hereby know we the spirit of truth - Spiritual things are spiritually discerned, thus, the natural (carnal) mind can not grasp the things of God. See 1Cor 2:9-14; Joh 7:38, 39, 17:17; Isa 8:20;

1Jo 4:6

1Jo 4:6 - the spirit of error - the spirit that seeks to usurp the praise and the glory of God; the spirit of the world, the spirit who works in the sons of disobedience, spiritual wickedness in high places. See 1Kin 22:21-23; 2Chron 18:19-22; Eph 2:2, 6:12; 1Cor 2:12; 1Jo 4:3, 5, 2:18, 19

1Jo 4:7

1Jo 4:8 - let us love one another - See 1Cor 13; James 3:17, 18; Gal 5:22, 23; 1Jo 4:16, 3:10, 11

1Jo 4:7

1Jo 4:7 - for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God - See Rom 5:5

1Jo 4:9

1Jo 4:9 - because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world - See Joh 3:16; Rom 5:6-10

1Jo 4:9

1Jo 4:9 - only begotten Son - See Ps 2:7

1Jo 4:9

1Jo 4:9 - that we might live through him - See Joh 11:25, 26; Gal 2:20; 1Jo 5:11-13

1Jo 4:10

1Jo 4:10 - Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins - See Rom 3:25, 4:25, 5:8; Heb 2:17; 1Jo 4:19; Gal 2:20

1Jo 4:10

1Jo 4:10 - sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins - See 1Jo 2:2

1Jo 4:10

1Jo 4:10 - propitiation - the act of gaining or regaining the favor or goodwill of someone or something : the act of propitiating : APPEASEMENT

1Jo 4:11

1Jo 4:11 - Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another - If God saw such value in each and every individual, we ought to see the same value in one another. This is taking on the mind and heart of God; self-abandonment and taking up the cross of Jesus Christ. See 1Jo 4:21; Mk 12:31-33

1Jo 4:12

1Jo 4:12 - No man hath seen God at any time - See Joh 1:18, 5:37, 6:46; 1Jo 4:20; Ex 33:20; 1Tim 6:16; Mt 11:27

1Jo 4:12

1 John 4:12 - and his love is perfected in us - Jesus' love is made complete/perfect in us as Christ dwells in us and we direct His love towards others. Love is only love as it is shared with others. See 1Jo 2:5 "And thus through Christ the circuit of beneficence is complete, representing the character of the great Giver, the law of life." DA 21.2 "I must come and take from God first in order for me to have any love with which to love others. And the love that I give to others is a gift, not an investment...I no longer am dependent upon what others do and say in order to be in gain...I don't need to control others, because they are not my source. God is my source, and I don't need to control Him because I can trust Him."

1Jo 4:13

1Jo 4:13 - Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and He in us, because He hath given us of His Spirit - See 1Jo 3:24; Rom 8:16; Joh 14:17; Act 2:38; Eph 1:13

1Jo 4:13

1Jo 4:13 - given us of His Spirit - the Spirit of truth affirms whether we are walking in the flesh or in the Spirit, whether we are abiding in the Vine or not. The Holy Spirit: 1. Convicts us of sin: revealing the sin in our life, our nakedness before God and our need of a Saviour. 2. Convicts us of righteousness: points us to Jesus the Christ, the Holy One of God Who was sent to rid us of our sins (Hos 13:14; 1Jo 4:10) 3. Convicts us of judgment: teaches us to flee from sin and fleshly lusts and find peace and rest in Christ so that we may have confidence in judgment (Act 3:19; 1Jo 4:17, 18)

1Jo 4:14

1Jo 4:14 - the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world - See Joh 3:16, 17, 4:42; Isa 48:16

1Jo 4:15

1Jo 4:15 - Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God - There is no other gospel but the gospel of Jesus Christ, the only begotten of the Father. See 1Jo 5:11-13; Joh 11:27, 3:16, 15:1-8; Gal 1:6-9; Mk 9:38, 39

1Jo 4:16

1Jo 4:16 - he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God - Jesus commands us to abide in Him as a branch abides in the vine. Just as Jesus abides in the Father, as we abide in Him, we too abide in the Father. See Joh 15:1-10, 17:21

1Jo 4:17

1Jo 4:17 - Herein is our love made perfect - this is the true evidence of our love perfected by the faith of Jesus Christ, that we may have confidence/boldness in Christ's Judgment in the time of Judgment. See Rom 5:9

1Jo 4:17

1Jo 4:17 - that we may have boldness in the day of judgment - 1Pet 4:17 In this antitypical Day of Atonement, we are to have boldness and full assurance in Jesus' perfect Plan of Redemption of which He alone is Author and Finisher. Christ is OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS - Jer 23:5, 6. Christ in me, the hope of glory (Col 1:27, 28); I am crucified with Christ nevertheless I live with Christ living in me (Gal 2:20); Jesus is come in the flesh (1Joh 4:1-3); the Kingdom of God is in me (Lk 17:20, 21); I am dead and buried with Christ and seek to know His resurrection power (Rom 6:1-11; Philippians 3:10); He who has the Son has eternal life (1Jo 5:11-13) - all of these confirm that we have sown to the Spirit and therefore of the Spirit reap eternal life (Gal 6:8). It is because Jesus has done the following that we may have boldness and confidence (Isa 32:17): Cover with His Life: Reconciled by His death for my sin, Justified by His life pure and clean, Sanctified by obeying His Word, Glorified when returneth my Lord See Heb 4:15, 16; 1Jo 5:11-13

1Jo 4:17

1Jo 4:17 - day of judgment - the day of judgment is today - the hour of His judgment is come. Jesus is sitting as a Refiner, purifying the silver of its dross so that His perfect image may be seen and an offering in righteousness by faith may be given by the sons of Levi. See Rev 14:7; Mal 3:2-6

1Jo 4:17

1Jo 4:17 - because as He is, so are we in this world - when we receive the Holy Spirit in the Latter Rain, we will not want to sin. See 2Pet 1:3, 4; *1Jo 3:2, 3; Rom 6:1-14; Tit 2:11-14; 2Cor 3:18; 1Jo 1:7, 2:6, 28, 3:2; 2Cor 3:18

1Jo 4:18

1Jo 4:18 - There is no fear in love - our perfected love for Christ, made manifest by the Holy Spirit through the Faith of Jesus Christ, removes all worry and fear because we look to Jesus' perfect life in faith and not our own. We are hid in Christ, we abide in Christ and Christ abides in us, we walk with newness of life and are strengthened from day-to-day and being transformed from grace to grace. - See Rom 8:15

1Jo 4:18

1Jo 4:18 - perfect love casteth out fear - Jesus' perfect love towards us casts out our fear of: 1. Death: Heb 2:15 2. Judgment: 1Jo 4:17 3. Fear of coming up short - 2Cor 7:10, 11 "As our faith grasps the truths of God's Word, we begin to understand how perfectly God loves us. This understanding begins to generate a love within us for Him. The more we love and trust God, the less fearful we are of surrendering to His control. The more we surrender to God's control, the more like Him (the more perfect) we become. This is how we are "made perfect in love" {Surrender, G.Jackson 29} Those who take Christ at His word, and surrender their souls to His keeping, their lives to His ordering, will find peace and quietude. Nothing of the world can make them sad when Jesus makes them glad by His presence. In perfect acquiescence there is perfect rest. The Lord says, "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee: because he trusteth in Thee." Isa 26:3. "Christian workers who succeed in their efforts must know Christ; and in order to know Him, they must know His love... This redeeming power, filling the heart, would control every other motive and raise its possessors above the corrupting influences of the world. And as this love was allowed full sway and became the motive power in the life, their trust and confidence in God and His dealing with them would be complete. They could then come to Him in full confidence of faith, knowing that they would receive from Him everything needful for their present and eternal good." {AA 551.1, 2}

1Jo 4:18

1Jo 4:18 - fear hath torment - fear rids a person of the peace which Jesus has promised to all who believe. See Joh 17;; Ps 119:165

1Jo 4:18

1Jo 4:18 - He that feareth is not made perfect in love - those who are fearful of God, fearful of His judgment, and fearful of His condemnation have not found the rest which Jesus offers to all. Jesus says "come unto Me, all ye that labor and I will give you rest... ye shall find rest unto your souls" Mt 11:28. The apostle writes, there is no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit (Rom 8:1-3). See Rom 8:15

1Jo 4:19

1Jo 4:19 - We love him, because he first loved us - gratitude is a hallmark of the Christian faith. We love and serve God out of gratitude and love. We can be kind, gracious, and loving to others out of gratitude for what God has done for us - See Joh 3:16; 1Jo 4:10; Mt 6:12; Rom 5:8-11; Col 3:15; Gal 2:20. Hymn #248 - O, How I love Jesus

1Jo 4:20

1 John 4:20 - If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? - See 1 John 4:12

1Jo 4:20

1Jo 4:20 - I love God - See Ps 97:10

1Jo 4:20

1Jo 4:20 - hateth his brother - See Ps 41:7; Lk 6:22

1Jo 4:20

1Jo 4:20 - he is a liar - See Joh 8:

1Jo 4:20

1Jo 4:20 - how can he love God whom he hath not seen? - 1Jo 4:12; Joh 1:18

1Jo 4:21

1Jo 4:21 - And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also - See 1Jo 4:11, 12

1Jo 5:1

1Jo 5:1 - Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God - See Joh 1:16, 11:27; 1 John 4:15, 5:18

1Jo 5:1

1Jo 5:1 Jesus is the Christ - See Dan 9:25, 26

1Jo 5:1

1Jo 5:1 - and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him - See John 8:42; CONTRAST 1Jo 2:23

1Jo 5:1

1Jo 5:1 - loveth Him that begat - loves the Father. See Joh 3:16

1Jo 5:1

1Jo 5:1 - loveth him also that is begotten of Him - we are to love Jesus and our fellow man who are born of God. See Mk 12:29-34

1Jo 5:2

1Jo 5:2 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep His commandments - when we love one another we are obeying God's commandments and demonstrate that we love God. See Joh 14:15, 15:10

1Jo 5:3

1Jo 5:3 - For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: - Joh 14:15, 15:10 The word of God which speaks righteousness has the righteousness itself in it, and as soon as the sinner believes, and receives that word into his own heart by faith, that moment he has the righteousness of God in his heart; and since out of the heart are the issues of life, it follows that a new life is thus begun in him; and that life is a life of obedience to the commandments of God. {The Gospel in Creation, pg 28, E.J. Waggoner} "I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them.” Hebrews 10:16. And if the law is written in the heart, will it not shape the life? Obedience—the service and allegiance of love—is the true sign of discipleship. Thus the Scripture says, “This is the love of God, that we keep His commandments.” “He that saith, I know Him, and keepeth not His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.” 1 John 5:3; 2:4. Instead of releasing man from obedience, it is faith, and faith only, that makes us partakers of the grace of Christ, which enables us to render obedience. - {SC 60.2}

1Jo 5:3 - and his commandments are not grievous - David said “I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou shalt enlarge my heart” Ps 119:32. When our hearts are enlarged with the knowledge of God’s love for us and the height, breadth, depth and width of our salvation, obedience to God and His commandments will be a delight. See Eph 3:14-19 When the sinner sees this truth and his heart appreciates it, he experiences justification by faith This is therefore far more than a legal declaration of acquittal—which was made at the cross for "all men." Justification by faith includes a change of heart. It is the same as the forgiveness that actually takes the sin away from the heart. The Greek word for forgiveness means taking it away, reclaiming from it. In other words, the believer who exercises such faith becomes inwardly and outwardly obedient to all the commandments of God. Such faith, if it is not hindered and confused with Babylon's error, will grow to be so mature and powerful that it will prepare a people for the return of Christ. This, said Ellen White, “is the third angel's message in verity.” {Grace on Trial, pg 44, R. Wieland}

1Jo 5:4

1Jo 5:4 - whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world - whatsoever comes forth from God, including Jesus and His faith, overcomes the world. See Joh 3:1-8, 16:33; 1:12, 13; 3:16

1Jo 5:4

1Jo 5:4 - and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith - the faith of Jesus Christ. See Joh 16:33; Rev 14:12; 2Cor 1:24

1Jo 5:5

1Jo 5:5 - Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? - See John 16:33

1Jo 5:5

1Jo 5:5 - he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God - See Act 8:37; Joh 17:8

1Jo 5:6

1Jo 5:6 - This is he that came by water and blood - See Joh 3:3, 5; Joh 1Jo 5:8

1Jo 5:6

1Jo 5:6 - not by water only, but by water and blood - See Joh 19:34

1Jo 5:6

1Jo 5:3 - And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth - See Rom 8:16, 14

1Jo 5:6

1Jo 5:6 - the Spirit is truth - See Joh 14:6, 17, 15:26, 16:13; 1Jo 4:6 Jesus is Truth - John 14:6 The Father, is Truth - Ps 31:5

1Jo 5:7

1Jo 5:7 - the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost, and these three are one - See Gen 1:1, 2; Joh 1:1-5; Mt 28:19

1Jo 5:7

1Jo 5:6 - and these three are one - Joh expresses his understanding of the Godhead, consistent with that which all the prophets spoke, that the three distinct Persons are One. Deut 6:4

1Jo 5:8

1Jo 5:8 - And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one - Heaven and earth are in agreement with the witnesses that proclaim Christ as Lord, to the glory of the Father. The born again experience is here described (Joh 3:3, 5). Being born of the water speaks of baptism, the death of the old self. The blood of Christ cleanses us from all sin, makes atonement for us, and reconciles us to God. The Holy Spirit gives a new birth and new life such that we are new creations in Jesus Christ See Mt 28:16

1Jo 5:8

1Jo 5:8 - the Spirit - the Holy Spirit is ever present, in heaven and in earth. See 1Jo 5:7

1Jo 5:8

1Jo 5:8 - and the water - the water of baptism and the water that poured forth from His wounded side. See Mt 3:16-17; Joh 19:33, 34

1Jo 5:8

1Jo 5:8 - and the blood - See Joh 19:33, 34

1Jo 5:9

1Jo 5:9 - If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son. See Joh 8:18; Rom 8:16, 14

1Jo 5:9

1 John 5:9 - the witness of God is greater - See 1Cor 2:13

1Jo 5:10

1Jo 5:10 - He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: - we have the abiding Holy Spirit within who witnesses that we are sons of God (Rom 8:16). And further, the Spirit, bears record of us being children of God by the light He shines forth through us. See 1Jo 3:24, 5:11-13; Mt 5:16; Isa 60:1-3; Rom 10:8 The measure of the Holy Spirit we receive will be proportioned to the measure of our desire and the faith exercised for it, and the use we shall make of the light and knowledge that shall be given to us. We shall be entrusted with the Holy Spirit according to our capacity to receive and our ability to impart it to others. Christ says, "Every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth" (Lk 11:10). - {YRP 67.3} He who truly seeks for the precious grace of Christ will be sure not to be disappointed. This promise has been given to us by Him who will not deceive us. It is not stated as a maxim or a theory, but as a fact, as a law of the divine government. We can be assured that we shall receive the Holy Spirit if we individually try the experiment of testing God's Word. God is true; His order is perfect. "He that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened" (verse 10). Light and truth will shine forth according to the desire of the soul. Oh, that all would hunger and thirst after righteousness, that they might be filled!—The Review and Herald, May 5, 1896. - {YRP 67.4}

1Jo 5:10 - he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son - See Ps 14:1; Rom 3:4; 1Jo 1:10

1Jo 5:11

1Jo 5:11 - God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in His Son - the only life that exists is eternal life which is in Christ. God is eternal and the life He gives is eternal, borne of Him. Our temporary life is "grace-life", sustained by the Spirit of God in the air until we accept Jesus and receive eternal life. See Joh 5:24, 11:25, 17:2, 3; Rom 6:23; 1Jo 2:25

1Jo 5:12

1Jo 5:12 - He that hath the Son hath life - See Joh 3:16, 36, 5:24, 6:27-29, 47, 11:25, 26; Rom 8:9-11; Eph 2:1

1Jo 5:12

1Jo 5:12 - and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life - those who do not have Christ are dead in trespasses and sin (Eph 2:1-3), they are not united with Life Eternal (Jesus) and therefore will die in their sins, unless they repent. See Eph 1:1-3, 2:13; 1Jo 3:14; Mt 8:22, 22:32

1Jo 5:13

1Jo 5:13 - These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God - See Joh 20:31; 2Pet 1:1-4; 1Cor 9:26; Ps 16:5 "If Thou canst do anything, have compassion on us, and help us." How many a sin-burdened soul has echoed that prayer. And to all, the pitying Saviour's answer is, "If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth." It is faith that connects us with heaven, and brings us strength for coping with the powers of darkness. In Christ, God has provided means for subduing every sinful trait, and resisting every temptation, however strong. But many feel that they lack faith, and therefore they remain away from Christ. Let these souls, in their helpless unworthiness, cast themselves upon the mercy of their compassionate Saviour. Look not to self, but to Christ. He who healed the sick and cast out demons when He walked among men is the same mighty Redeemer today. Faith comes by the word of God. Then grasp His promise, "Him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out." Joh 6:37. Cast yourself at His feet with the cry, "Lord, I believe; help Thou mine unbelief." You can never perish while you do this—never. - {DA 429.1}

1Jo 5:13

1Jo 5:13 - that ye may know that ye have eternal life - there is rest in knowing you have eternal life - The Apostle Joh writes that we may be fully persuaded in our belief and conviction of eternal life. See Heb 4:3; Rom 4:21; Joh 6:47; Jer 32:17

1Jo 5:14 - if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us - 1 John 3:22; 2Cor 1:18-20; Joh 15:7, 16; Mk 14:36; Mt 6:10, 26:39; Rom 8:26, 27; Mic 7:7

1Jo 5:15

1Jo 5:15 - And if we know that He hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of Him - See Joh 14:13, 14; Ps 66:18, 20, 77:1 He explained that the secret of their success would be in asking for strength and grace in His name. He would be present before the Father to make request for them. The prayer of the humble suppliant He presents as His own desire in that soul's behalf. Every sincere prayer is heard in heaven. It may not be fluently expressed; but if the heart is in it, it will ascend to the sanctuary where Jesus ministers, and He will present it to the Father without one awkward, stammering word, beautiful and fragrant with the incense of His own perfection. - {Pr 13.3}

1Jo 5:15

1Jo 5:16 - we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him - we know that he hears and receives our petitions. We have yielded to His will, so we find satisfaction in the outcome because it is God's will for us. See 2Cor 1:18-20

1Jo 5:16

2Jo 1:7

3Jo 1 - Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth - See 1Cor 10:31; Mt 24:20; DA 365.4-366.1 The God of heaven has given us reasoning powers and intellect, and He wants us to use them. He has given us this body which He wishes us to preserve in perfect health so that we can give Him perfect service. {1SAT 28.1} God is working in behalf of His people. He does not desire them to be without resources. He is bringing them back to the diet originally given to man. Their diet is to consist of the foods made from the materials He has provided. The materials principally used in these foods will be fruits and grains and nuts, but various roots will also be used.— Testimonies for the Church 7:125, 126, 1902 - {CD 270.4} Anything that lessens physical strength enfeebles the mind and makes it less capable of discriminating between right and wrong. We become less capable of choosing the good and have less strength of will to do that which we know to be right. - {COL 346.3} The misuse of our physical powers shortens the period of time in which our lives can be used for the glory of God. And it unfits us to accomplish the work God has given us to do. By allowing ourselves to form wrong habits, by keeping late hours, by gratifying appetite at the expense of health, we lay the foundation for feebleness. By neglecting physical exercise, by overworking mind or body, we unbalance the nervous system. Those who thus shorten their lives and unfit themselves for service by disregarding nature's laws, are guilty of robbery toward God. And they are robbing their fellow men also. The opportunity of blessing others, the very work for which God sent them into the world, has by their own course of action been cut short. And they have unfitted themselves to do even that which in a briefer period of time they might have accomplished. The Lord holds us guilty when by our injurious habits we thus deprive the world of good. - {COL 346.4}

3Jo 1:8 - but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not - Diotrephes was a controlling wandering star who made shipwreck of his faith and sought to do the same for others. See Jude 1:13; Mt 20:25-27; 1Cor 4:5, 6; 2Tim 4:14, 15 The message of salvation is communicated to men through human agencies. But the Jews had sought to make a monopoly of the truth which is eternal life. They had hoarded the living manna, and it had turned to corruption. The religion which they tried to shut up to themselves became an offense. They robbed God of His glory, and defrauded the world by a counterfeit of the gospel. Ju 1:3

Jude 1:3 - Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation - Jude wrote of the "common salvation" that has appeared to all men through the grace of Jesus Christ. Jude was sent as a representative of the Jerusalem counsel, with Silas, Paul, Titus and Barnabas to Antioch after a dispute had arisen by false converts regarding the need for circumcision among the Gentile converts. Jude gave testimony of our "common salvation" to the Gentiles, assuring them that God makes no distinction in His works of salvation towards men. See Act 15:22-32; Titus 2:11; Gal 2:1, 3, 9

Ju 1:3

Ju 1:3 - contend for the faith which was once delivered to the saints - see Act 14:22; Heb 3:14; Tit 1:9; Philippians 1:27 Well would it be for the church and the world if the principles that actuated those steadfast souls were revived in the hearts of God's professed people. There is an alarming indifference in regard to the doctrines which are the pillars of the Christian faith. The opinion is gaining ground, that, after all, these are not of vital importance. This degeneracy is strengthening the hands of the agents of Satan, so that false theories and fatal delusions which the faithful in ages past imperiled their lives to resist and expose, are now regarded with favor by thousands who claim to be followers of Christ. - {GC 46.1} This is our work. The light that we have upon the third angel's message is the true light. The mark of the beast is exactly what it has been proclaimed to be. All in regard to this matter is not yet understood, and will not be understood until the unrolling of the scroll, but a most solemn work is to be accomplished in our world. The Lord's command to His servants is "Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins." - {CTr 350.4} There is to be no change in the features of our work. It is to stand as clear and distinct as prophecy has made it. We are to enter into no confederacy with the world, supposing that by so doing we could accomplish more. If any stand in the way, to hinder the advancement of the work in the lines that God has appointed, they will displease God. No line of our faith that has made us what we are is to be weakened. We have the old landmarks of truth, experience, and duty; we are to stand firmly in defense of our principles, in full view of the world. - {CTr 350.5} In history and prophecy the Word of God portrays the long, continued conflict between truth and error. That conflict is yet in progress. Those things which have been, will be repeated. Old controversies will be revived, and new theories will be continually arising. But God's people, who in their belief and fulfillment of prophecy have acted a part in the proclamation of the first, second, and third angels' messages, know where they stand. They have an experience that is more precious than fine gold. They are to stand firm as a rock, holding the beginning of their confidence steadfast unto the end. {Ms32-1896.}

Ju 1:9

Ju 1:9 - Yet Michael the archangel - the term "archangel" signifies one who is chief-most or above the angels. There is only one archangel who is Michael, whose name means "One Who is like God". There is none like God in heaven and in earth and therefore, Michael is God, the name given to the second Person in the Godhead, Jesus. See Ps 89:6 Upon Mount Pisgah fifteen centuries before, Moses had stood gazing upon the Land of Promise. But because of his sin at Meribah, it was not for him to enter there. Not for him was the joy of leading the host of Israel into the inheritance of their fathers. His agonized entreaty, "I pray Thee, let me go over, and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon" (Deut 3:25), was refused. The hope that for forty years had lighted up the darkness of the desert wanderings must be denied. A wilderness grave was the goal of those years of toil and heart-burdening care. But He who is "able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think" (Eph 3:20), had in this measure answered His servant's prayer. Moses passed under the dominion of death, but he was not to remain in the tomb. Christ Himself called him forth to life. Satan the tempter had claimed the body of Moses because of his sin; but Christ the Saviour brought him forth from the grave. Jude 9. - {DA 421.3}

Ju 1:9

Ju 1:9 - dispute about the body of Moses - He followed the Saviour to Gethsemane, and beheld the agony in the garden, the betrayal, the mockery and scourging—the crucifixion. Moses saw that as he had lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so the Son of God must be lifted up, that whosoever would believe on Him "should not perish, but have eternal life." Joh 3:15. Grief, indignation, and horror filled the heart of Moses as he viewed the hypocrisy and satanic hatred manifested by the Jewish nation against their Redeemer, the mighty Angel who had gone before their fathers. He heard Christ's agonizing cry, "My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?" Mk 15:34. He saw Him lying in Joseph's new tomb. The darkness of hopeless despair seemed to enshroud the world. But he looked again, and beheld Him coming forth a conqueror, and ascending to heaven escorted by adoring angels and leading a multitude of captives. He saw the shining gates open to receive Him, and the host of heaven with songs of triumph welcoming their Commander. And it was there revealed to him that he himself would be one who should attend the Saviour, and open to Him the everlasting gates. As he looked upon the scene, his countenance shone with a holy radiance. How small appeared the trials and sacrifices of his life when compared with those of the Son of God! how light in contrast with the "far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory"! 2Cor 4:17. He rejoiced that he had been permitted, even in a small measure, to be a partaker in the sufferings of Christ. - {PP 475.3 - The Death of Moses}. See Deut 32:48-52

Ju 1:9

Ju 1:9 - bring railing accusation - Had not the life of Moses been marred with that one sin, in failing to give God the glory of bringing water from the rock at Kadesh, he would have entered the Promised Land, and would have been translated to heaven without seeing death. But he was not long to remain in the tomb. Christ Himself, with the angels who had buried Moses, came down from heaven to call forth the sleeping saint. Satan had exulted at his success in causing Moses to sin against God, and thus come under the dominion of death. The great adversary declared that the divine sentence—"Dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return" (Gen 3:19)—gave him possession of the dead. The power of the grave had never been broken, and all who were in the tomb he claimed as his captives, never to be released from his dark prison house. - {PP 478.2} For the first time Christ was about to give life to the dead. As the Prince of life and the shining ones approached the grave, Satan was alarmed for his supremacy. With his evil angels he stood to dispute an invasion of the territory that he claimed as his own. He boasted that the servant of God had become his prisoner. He declared that even Moses was not able to keep the law of God; that he had taken to himself the glory due to Jehovah—the very sin which had caused Satan’s banishment from heaven—and by transgression had come under the dominion of Satan. The archtraitor reiterated the original charges that he had made against the divine government, and repeated his complaints of God’s injustice toward him. - {PP 478.3} Christ did not stoop to enter into controversy with Satan. He might have brought against him the cruel work which his deceptions had wrought in heaven, causing the ruin of a vast number of its inhabitants. He might have pointed to the falsehoods told in Eden, that had led to Adam’s sin and brought death upon the human race. He might have reminded Satan that it was his own work in tempting Israel to murmuring and rebellion, which had wearied the long-suffering patience of their leader, and in an unguarded moment had surprised him into the sin for which he had fallen under the power of death. But Christ referred all to His Father, saying, “The Lord rebuke thee.” Ju 9. The Saviour entered into no dispute with His adversary, but He then and there began His work of breaking the power of the fallen foe, and bringing the dead to life. Here was an evidence that Satan could not controvert, of the supremacy of the Son of God. The resurrection was forever made certain. Satan was despoiled of his prey; the righteous dead would live again. - {PP 478.4}

Jude 1:11 - for they have gone in the way of Cain - they have the self-exalting spirit of paganism, acting in defiance and rebellion towards God, they depart from the presence of God. See Gen 4:16

Ju 1:11

Jude 1:11 - perished in the gainsaying of Core (Korah) - See Numbers 16

Ju 1:12

Ju 1:12 - These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feed with you, feeding themselves without fear - See 1Cor 11:21, 22

Ju 1:12

Jude 1:12 - clouds they are without water - See 2Pet 2:17

Ju 1:12

Jude 1:12 - trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit - See Mt 21:18-20

Ju 1:12

Jude 1:12 - plucked up by the roots - See Lk 3:9

Ju 1:13

Jude 1:13 - wandering stars - There are wandering stars professing to be ministers sent of God who are preaching the Sabbath from place to place, but who have truth mixed up with error and are throwing out their mass of discordant views to the people. Satan has pushed them in to disgust intelligent and sensible unbelievers. Some of these have much to say upon the gifts and are often especially exercised. They give themselves up to wild, excitable feelings and make unintelligible sounds which they call the gift of tongues, and a certain class seem to be charmed with these strange manifestations. a strange spirit rules with this class, which would bear down and run over anyone who would reprove them. God's Spirit is not in the work and does not attend such workmen. They have another spirit. [Testimonies for the Church 1:411-414.] - {NL 49.2}

Ju 1:14

Ju 1:14 - And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these - See 1Pet 3:18, 19 Enoch the First Prophet—Enoch was the first prophet among mankind. He foretold by prophecy the second coming of Christ to our world, and his work at that time. His life was a specimen of Christian consistency. Holy lips alone should speak forth the words of God in denunciation and judgments. His prophecy is not found in the writings of the Old Testament. We may never find any books which relate to the works of Enoch, but Jude, a prophet of God, mentions the work of Enoch (Ibid.). - {1BC 1088.2}

Ju 1:14

Jude 1:14 - prophesied of these, saying - The Lord opened more fully to Enoch the plan of salvation, and by the spirit of prophecy carried him down through the generations which should live after the flood, and showed him the great events connected with the second coming of Christ and the end of the world. - {3SG 55.2} Enoch was troubled in regard to the dead. It seemed to him that the righteous and the wicked would go to the dust together, and that would be their end. He could not clearly see the life of the just beyond the grave. In prophetic vision he was instructed in regard to the Son of God, who was to die man's sacrifice, and was shown the coming of Christ in the clouds of Heaven, attended by the angelic host, to give life to the righteous dead, and ransom them from their graves. He also saw the corrupt state of the world at the time when Christ should appear the second time—that there would be a boastful, presumptuous, self-willed generation arrayed in rebellion against the law of God, and denying the only Lord God and our Lord Jesus Christ, and trampling upon his blood, and despising his atonement. He saw the righteous crowned with glory and honor, while the wicked were separated from the presence of the Lord, and consumed with fire. - {3SG 55.3}

Ju 1:14

Ju 1:14, 15 - Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, To execute judgment upon all - See Ps 96:13; 1Thess 4:14; Act 3:20

Ju 1:14

Jude 1:14 - saints - holy ones. A reference to the Angels of God at Jesus' Second Coming and all the heavenly hosts, including the redeemed at Jesus' Third Coming. See Mt 24:30, 31

Ju 1:21

Ju 1:21 - Keep yourselves in the love of God - Jesus says "he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father" Joh 14:21. We must abide in Christ and Christ in us - Joh 15:5. We will be tried, but when we have been tested and found faithful, we will receive the crown of life. See Jam 1:12

Ju 1:22

Jude 1:22 - And of some have compassion, making a difference: - some must be ministered to with kindness, patience and compassion. Some, because of their past need an extra measure of grace to be reached.

Ju 1:23

Jude 1:23 - And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh - others must be compelled and coerced in a godly manner, pulling them from the fires of sin, even if nude (figuratively speaking) because of the uncleanness of their garments.

Ju 1:23

Ju 1:23 - spotted by the flesh - soiled or corrupted by the works of the flesh, or as in the contamination of a leper. Jesus counsels us to keep our garments white. See Rev 16:15

Ju 1:24

Ju 1:24 - Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling - See 2Pet 1:5-7, 10; 1Cor 1:7, 8; Ps 56:13, 121:5; Zeph 3:13; Rom 14:4

Ju 1:24

Ju 1:24 - before the presence of His glory - See Rev 22:4

Ju 1:24

Jude 1:24 - with exceeding joy - Jesus delights in the receiving of His Bride (Heb 12:2, 3) and the Bride has joyously prepared herself to receive her groom (Rev 19:7-9; Isa 25:9)

Revelation

Rev 1:1

Back to Table of Contents

Rev 1:1 - Rev - English translation of the Greek word Apokalypsis, comprised of two words: Apo: To remove Kolypsis: a veil Jesus is removing the veil created by human traditions, human dogmas and the deceptions created by the ruler of this world (2 Cor 4:3, 4) Prophetic Rev and the Gospel are Synonymous: But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. (Gal 1:11, 12) In view of the testimony of Inspiration, how dare men teach that the Rev is a mystery beyond the reach of human understanding? It is a mystery revealed, a book opened. The study of the Rev directs the mind to the prophecies of Dan, and both present most important instruction, given of God to men, concerning events to take place at the close of this world's history. - {GC 341.3} In the Rev are portrayed the deep things of God. The very name given to its inspired pages, "the Rev," contradicts the statement that this is a sealed book. A revelation is something revealed. The Lord Himself revealed to His servant the mysteries contained in this book, and He designs that they shall be open to the study of all. Its truths are addressed to those living in the last days of this earth's history, as well as to those living in the days of Joh. Some of the scenes depicted in this prophecy are in the past, some are now taking place; some bring to view the close of the great conflict between the powers of darkness and the Prince of heaven, and some reveal the triumphs and joys of the redeemed in the earth made new. - {AA 584.1} Let none think, because they cannot explain the meaning of every symbol in the Rev, that it is useless for them to search this book in an effort to know the meaning of the truth it contains. The One who revealed these mysteries to Joh will give to the diligent searcher for truth a foretaste of heavenly things. Those whose hearts are open to the reception of truth will be enabled to understand its teachings, and will be granted the blessing promised to those who "hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein." - {AA 584.2} In the Rev all the books of the Bible meet and end. Here is the complement of the book of Dan. One is a prophecy; the other a revelation. The book that was sealed is not the Rev, but that portion of the prophecy of Dan relating to the last days. The angel commanded, "But thou, O Dan, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end." Dan 12:4. - {AA 585.1}

Rev 1:1 - the message in the book is of divine origin, from the Father, to Jesus, to the angel (Gabriel - See Dan 10:21) then to his prophet Joh. See Rev 22:6; Am 3:7; 1Pet 3:19; Joh 15:15

Rev 1:1

Rev 1:1 - to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass - the Father gives revelation to Jesus in order to convey His purposes and will to His servants, those who wait upon Him. Isa 40:29-31

Rev 1:1

Rev 1:1 - things which must shortly come to pass - In the Rev all the books of the Bible meet and end. Here is the complement of the book of Dan. One is a prophecy; the other a revelation. The book that was sealed is not the Rev, but that portion of the prophecy of Dan relating to the last days. The angel commanded, "But thou, O Dan, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end." Dan 12:4. - {AA 585.1}

Rev 1:1

Rev 1:1 - signify - Jesus sends His angel, most likely Gabriel, to signify (signify, represent, symbolize using signs and symbols) or to reveal to Joh through symbolism, the things that are soon to occur. See Act 3:21; Rev 22:9, 16

Rev 1:2

Rev 1:2 - Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw. - See 1Jo 1:1-4;

Rev 1:2

Rev 1:2 - Testimony of Jesus Christ - the Testimony of Jesus Christ is the Spirit of Prophecy (Rev 19:10, 1:9). The Spirit of revelation that moved in the prophets since the creation of the world is what Joh is giving witness to. As prophecy is a sign for believers (1 Cor 14:22), Joh is giving revelation to edify the churches of the things of the past (Ecc. 1:9, 3:15; 1 Cor 10:1-6, 11; 1 Pet 1:12), present, and future. The blessing of prophecy is it edifies the church with its fulfillment (Joh 14:29)

Rev 1:2

Rev 1:2 - things he saw - Joh, like Peter (2Pet 1:16-19), is an eyewitness to the revelations shown him in symbolic form that he has written down for the churches

Rev 1:3

Rev 1:3 - Blessed is he that readeth - See 1Thess 5:27; Rev 22:7; Mt 13:15, 16 Contrast Rev 22:18, 19 Why, then, this widespread ignorance concerning an important part of Holy Writ? Why this general reluctance to investigate its teachings? It is the result of a studied effort of the prince of darkness to conceal from men that which reveals his deceptions. For this reason, Christ the Revelator, foreseeing the warfare that would be waged against the study of the Rev, pronounced a blessing upon all who should read, hear, and observe the words of the prophecy. - {GC 342.1}

Rev 1:3

Rev 1:3 - Readeth and hears - Joh pronounces blessings not only upon the learned, who may be able to hear but also those who hear through those able to read (see 1Thess 5:27). God is no respecter of person and desires all to have salvation. See Joh 8:47

Rev 1:3

Rev 1:3 - keep those things - the real blessing is to those who are not just the hearers of the words, but are the doers of the words of this prophecy. See Rom 2:13; Rev 22:7

Rev 1:3

Rev 1:3 - time is at hand - we must live in a state of readiness, anticipating Jesus' return and being vigilant, making our calling and election sure. See Heb 10:35-39; Mt 24:44

Rev 1:4

Rev 1:4 - Joh to the seven churches which are in Asia - the Church in Jerusalem according to the Act of the Apostles, appeared to be the preeminent church among the Christian churches. Jesus, then addresses the 7 prominent churches in Asia as He conveys the fait of the Christian Church in history. No where is the church of Rome mentioned as the head or foremost among the Christian churches, thus refuting the boast and claim of Rome as the Mother of Churches and the Universal, Catholic Church.

Rev 1:4

Rev 1:4 - Joh gives salutations to the seven churches in Asia from God the Father [Who was, Who is, and Who is to come], the Holy Spirit [seven Spirits], and from Jesus Christ [Who was, Who is, and Who is to come - Rev 1:8].

Rev 1:4

Rev 1:4 - and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne - See Rev 5:6, 4:5; Isa 48:16

Rev 1:5

Rev 1:5 - Faithful Witness: See Rev 3:14, 19:11; John 17:4-6 Jesus is the faithful witness in this manner 1. Revealing the Father to humanity 2. Magnifying the law and making it glorious 3. Faithful in imputing His righteousness to men so that we may have his Robe of Righteousness and crown of Life, despite the devil's accusations - Zech 3:1-6

Rev 1:5

Rev 1:5 - First Begotten of the dead - See Col 1:18; Rom 6:9, 8:29 Jesus is: 1. The first and

Only One of His kind to experience the 2nd Death - for the wages of sin is death but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord - Rom 6:23 2. The first (and Only One of His kind) to come forth from the grave without sin. 3. The first (and Only One of His kind) to come among those, (spiritually) "dead in trespasses and sins" to reveal victory over sin

Rev 1:5

Rev 1:5 - the prince of the kings of the earth - Ruler fo the kings of the earth. Jesus is KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS. See Rev 19:16; Isa 32:1

Rev 1:5

Rev 1:5 - Unto him that loved us - See Eph 2:4, 5; Joh 15:13

Rev 1:5

Rev 1:5 - washed us from our sins in his own blood - The blood of bulls and calves could not wash away our sins, but the precious blood of Jesus has. Heb 10:4, 10, 1:3; 1Jo 1:7, 3:5; Isa 4:3, 4; Mic 7:19; Act 22:16; Jam 5:20; Isa 63:1-3

Rev 1:6

Rev 1:6 - Kings and Priests - we are made to be a royal priesthood and holy nation unto God (Jesus) and His Father through Jesus' redemption (1Pet 2:9; Rev 5:10, 12:1). This promise, once spoken to the biological Children of Israel (Ex 19:3-8), is reconfirmed to Spiritual Israel, decedents of Abraham by faith (Rom 4:11-13, Gal 4:22-31, 5:5). It is to the saints that judgment has been committed over the devil and his angels. See Eze 28:17; 1Cor 6:3; Rev 5:10

Rev 1:6

Rev 1:6 - priests - one of the tenets of the Protestant Reformation was the priesthood of all believers. - See Ex 19:6; 1Pet 2:9

Rev 1:6

Rev 1:6 - to Him be glory... This seems to be an exclamation of praise and thanksgiving towards God from Joh for having washed us in His own blood, making us kings and princes to Himself and the Father. See Jude 1:25

Rev 1:7

Rev 1:7 - Jesus comes with clouds - Jesus returns to the earth with the clouds of angels accompanying Him (Mt 24:30, 31). By faith, we saw Him appear before the Father on October 22, 1844 with the clouds to begin the Investigative Judgment (Dan 7:13, 14; Mt 25:31, 32)

Rev 1:7

Rev 1:7 - every eye shall see him - see Job 19:27; Ps 97:4, 5; Lk 17:24 Those who have acted the most prominent part in the rejection and crucifixion of Christ come forth to see Him as He is, and those who have rejected Christ come up and see the saints glorified, and it is at that time that the saints are changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, and are caught up to meet their Lord in the air. The very ones who placed upon Him the purple robe and put the crown of thorns upon His brow, and those who put the nails through His hands and feet, look upon Him and bewail.—Manuscript Releases 9:252 (1886). - {LDE 275.1}

Rev 1:7

Rev 1:7 - and they also which pierced him - There will be a special resurrection of the just and unjust at the Second Coming of Christ - see Dan 12:2. Those who rise to shame and everlasting contempt are those who pierced Christ's side (Mt 26:64). See also Heb 6:4-6 Graves are opened, and "many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth... awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt." Dan 12:2. All who have died in the faith of the third angel's message come forth from the tomb glorified, to hear God's covenant of peace with those who have kept His law. "They also which pierced Him" (Rev 1:7), those that mocked and derided Christ's dying agonies, and the most violent opposers of His truth and His people, are raised to behold Him in His glory and to see the honor placed upon the loyal and obedient. - {GC 637.1} The reference is also with regards to Jesus' 3rd appearing, when the wicked rise after the millennium. Consider the following: "Then at the close of the one thousand years, Jesus, with the angels and all the saints, leaves the Holy City, and while He is descending to the earth with them, the wicked dead are raised, and then the very men that "pierced Him," being raised, will see Him afar off in all His glory, the angels and saints with Him, and will wail because of Him. They will see the prints of the nails in His hands and in His feet, and where they thrust the spear into His side. The prints of the nails and the spear will then be His glory. It is at the close of the one thousand years that Jesus stands upon the Mount of Olives, and the mount parts asunder and becomes a mighty plain. Those who flee at that time are the wicked, who have just been raised. Then the Holy City comes down and settles on the plain. Satan then imbues the wicked with his spirit. He flatters them that the army in the city is small, and that his army is large, and that they can overcome the saints and take the city." - {EW 52.2}

Rev 1:7

Rev 1:7 - wail because of Him - those who cry for the rocks to fall upon them will bemoan the appearing of Jesus Christ (Rev 6:14-17). Those who wail and moan are those who receive the Mk of the Beast in these Last Days - See Mt 24:30; Rev 13:8 Those who will be able to look up and say "Lo, this is our God, we have waited for Him and He will save us" are those who have allowed Christ to purify their characters so that they will be like Him, and shall see Him as He is. 1Joh 3:2

Rev 1:8

Rev 1:8 - Alpha and Omega, Beginning and Ending - See Isa 41:4 1. Speaks of Christ's pre-existence and His eternal reign. Ps 90:2 2. Jesus is a High Priest after the order of Melchizedek and therefore has an eternal priesthood - Ps 110:4; Heb 5:6, 7:17, 21 3. Jesus also knows the end from the beginning and nothing is hid from Him 4. Jesus is the Author and Finisher (Perfecter) of our faith - Heb 12:2; Philippians 1:6; Ps 138:8 5. Jesus was foreordained to be the Lamb of God before the foundation of the world - 1Pet 1:19, 20; Rev 13:8

Rev 1:8

Rev 1:8 - beginning and the ending - See Isa 46:9-11, 44:6

Rev 1:8

Rev 1:8 - which is/was/is to come - Jesus, like the Father, identifies Himself as He "Which is, Which was, and Which is to come" (Rev 1:4). See Ps 90:1, 2

Rev 1:8

Rev 1:8 - the Almighty - See Ps 91:1

Rev 1:9

Rev 1:9 - Joh is a brother in the kingdom and fellow companion in tribulations (being exiled to the isle of Patmos for the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ). He like us, bears the patience of the Saints and the faith of Jesus Christ in His eternal gospel (Rev 14:12) - See Heb 11:33-12:1; Jam 5:10

Rev 1:9

Rev 1:9 - was in the isle called Patmos - The word Patmos literally means "my killing". Joh is an exile for his testimony of Jesus Christ (Rev 12:11). Jesus' coming to Joh at Patmos typifies His Second Coming. In the days of the early Christians, Christ came the second time. His first advent was at Bethlehem, when He came as an infant. His second advent was at the Isle of Patmos, when He revealed Himself in glory to Joh the Revelator, who "fell at His feet as dead" when he saw Him... {19MR 40.4}

Rev 1:9

Rev 1:9 - for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ - See Isa 8:20

Rev 1:9

Rev 1:9 - for the testimony of Jesus Christ - Joh bore witness of the prophecies that all pointed to Jesus and of His Messiahship. It is for His declaration of Christ's Kingship to the Rom and the rejection of His Messiahship by the Children of Israel that he was tried and exiled to the isle of Patmos. See Rev 1:2; Lk 21:12-19

Rev 1:10

Rev 1:10 - I was in the Spirit - Joh was caught-up in vision by the Holy Spirit. John was having an open vision while awake, and beheld that which God conveyed to him. See 1Sam 3:1; Dan 8:1 Rev 4:2; CONTRAST Dan 7:1, 2:19

Rev 1:10

Rev 1:10 - Lord's Day - Joh has a prophetic revelation from the Holy Spirit on the Lord's Day CONFIRMING SABBATH - The Lord's Day 1. The Bible says that the Lord has a Day (Rev 1:10) 2. Jesus says He is Lord over all things, including the Sabbath Day (Mt 12:8) 3. The Lord declares the Sabbath to be "His holy day" - (Isa 58:13, 14) 4. The Sabbath is a sign between God and His people that He sanctifies them and that they belong to Him - (Eze 20:12, 20 - see Ex 3:1-5 for holiness) 5. The Sabbath, meaning rest, is a particular day, the 7th day of the week (Saturday) - (Ex 20:8-11) 6. God, after creating all things, created another day specifically for rest. He Himself rested and rests on this day (Gen 2:2, 3) 7. Saturday is the 7th day of the week (Lk 23:52-24:1)

Rev 1:10

Rev 1:10 voice as a trumpet - Jesus' voice, which will raise the dead at His Second Coming (Joh 5:25, 29) is likened to a trumpet (1Thess 4:16-18).

Rev 1:11

Rev 1:12 - Alpha and Omega, First and the Last - Jesus is the entire alphabet of God. Jesus identifies the end of a thing from its beginnings. He is God Who transcends time and declares the things of the past and future the same. He also "appointed ancient people" as an example of the things to come. See Isa 44:6, 7; 1Cor 10:6, 11; 1Jo 1:1

Rev 1:11

Rev 1:11 - What thou seest, write in a book - See Rev 1:2, 19; 10:4; 22:10

Rev 1:11

Rev 1:11 - Ephesus - representing the apostolic church era from A.D.31-100 - See Rev 6:1, 2

Rev 1:11

Rev 1:11 - Smyrna - representing the church under persecution, a "blood stained era" - See Rev 6:3, 4

Rev 1:11

Rev 1:11 - Pergamos - representing a compromising church that lowered its standards and welcomed heresy in its ranks - See Rev 6:5, 6

Rev 1:11

Rev 1:11 - Thyatira - representing the church of the Dark Ages having a dead faith, the church of the papacy - See Rev 7, 8

Rev 1:11

Rev 1:11 - Sardis - representing the church's born of the Protestant Reformation. These churches would be tested during the era 1798-1844 and would be found wanting. These churches would return to their mother church, Babylon.

Rev 1:11

Rev 1:11 - Philadelphia - church of the era 1842-1844+ that maintained a pure faith and went through great trials of reproach by the apostate churches under Sardis. Philadelphia would go forth to found God's last day movement which would proclaim the 3 Angel's Messages in order to prepare the world for Christ's Second Coming.

Rev 1:11

Rev 1:11 - Laodicea - a backslidden church that has fallen from the purity of her predecessor, Philadelphia. However, this church is to finish the "mystery of godliness" as proclaimed to God's servants the prophets. See Rev 10:7 There is another and more important question that should engage the attention of the churches of today. The apostle Paul declares that "all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution." 2 Timothy 3:12. Why is it, then, that persecution seems in a great degree to slumber? The only reason is that the church has conformed to the world's standard and therefore awakens no opposition. The religion which is current in our day is not of the pure and holy character that marked the Christian faith in the days of Christ and His apostles. It is only because of the spirit of compromise with sin, because the great truths of the word of God are so indifferently regarded, because there is so little vital godliness in the church, that Christianity is apparently so popular with the world. Let there be a revival of the faith and power of the early church, and the spirit of persecution will be revived, and the fires of persecution will be rekindled. - {GC 48.3}

Rev 1:12

Rev 1:12 - golden candlesticks - We see Jesus in the Holy Place of the Sanctuary among the seven candlesticks. Jesus stood as High Priest in the first apartment from A.D.31 to October 21, 1844.

Rev 1:13

Rev 1:13 - midst of the candlesticks - Jesus is in the midst of His church. He promised never to leave nor forsake us (1Kin 8:57, Heb 13:5) and as the captain of our salvation (Heb 2:10) He will not allow us to run aground. - See Rev 2:1

Rev 1:13

Rev 1:13 - one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle - See Dan 10:5-7

Rev 1:13

Rev 1:13 - golden girdle - gold is a sign of purity, sanctification and perfect faith (1Pet 1:7).

Rev 1:14

Rev 1:14 - flame of fire - Jesus' eyes, like flames of fire speak of his ability to peer right through us and search our hearts (139:1, 7-12, 23, 24)

Rev 1:15

Rev 1:15 - fine brass - Jesus is One Who has gone through the fires of affliction and has come forth, not as coarse brass, but as fine brass. Brass is an alloy of copper and zinc and when polished gives the appearance of gold. Gold is often the symbol of godliness (gold tried in the fire; altar was wood covered with gold, wood being a sign of humanity and gold divinity). Known for its corrosion resistance, Jesus is 100% corrosion (corruption, germicidal, antimicrobial) resistant and makes this quality available to us as we are found in Him (Isa 48:10, 11). See Dan 10:6; Rev 2:18, 10:1

Rev 1:15

Rev 1:15 - and his voice as the sound of many waters - See Rev 14:2, Dan 10:6

Rev 1:15

Rev 1:15 - waters - multitudes of people See Rev 17:15

Rev 1:16

Rev 1:16 - seven stars - the seven stars are the angels (messengers or leaders) of the seven churches in Asia to whom Joh will be writing. These messengers are in Jesus' hand, signifying He is in control and will lead them - None will remove them from His hand (Joh 17:9-15)

Rev 1:16

Rev 1:16 - twoedged sword - the sword of the Spirit, the Word of God (Eph 6:17) is that which proceeds from the mouth of the Lord (see also Heb 4:12, Rev 2:12, 19:11-15). Sword of defense against the attacks of the devil (we overcome by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of our testimony). The sword of the spirit, which is the Bible, comes from Jesus' own mouth, assuring us that we can trust its counsels. Man does not live by bread alone but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of the Lord (Mt 4:4). Jesus appears with the two-edged sword at His Second Coming to execute judgment. See Rev 19:11-16; Matt 22:12-14; Ps 149

Rev 1:17

Rev 1:17 - I fell as dead - Joh sees Jesus in His glory, the mareh vision, and his comeliness is turned into corruption like Dan. See others who have experienced the Mareh: Dan 8, 17, 18, 10:9, 10 Eze Isa 6:5 Mt 17:1-7 What is justification by faith?—It is the work of God in laying the glory of man in the dust, and doing for man that which it is not in his power to do for himself. When men see their own nothingness, they are prepared to be clothed with the righteousness of Christ. When they begin to praise and exalt God all the day long, then by beholding they are becoming changed into the same image. What is regeneration?—It is revealing to man what is his own real nature, that in himself he is worthless. - {SpTA09 62.2} This experience is essential for all Christians, especially those living in our era as we live in a time when sins are being blotted out. This experience brings purification of sin (Mal 3:2-5). The Mareh experience in the messenger precedes their being equipped to giving a message from the Lord (Ezr 7:10)

Rev 1:17

Rev 1:17 - And he laid his right hand upon me - the right hand is the hand of favor and blessings. See Gen 48:14-19; Ps 77:10, 16:11

Rev 1:17

Rev 1:17 - First and the Last - Jesus again declares His immutable, unchangeable and eternal priesthood that ministers to the sons of men (Heb 7:21, 24, 25)

Rev 1:18

Rev 1:18 - I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen - See Rev 2:8

Rev 1:18

Rev 1:18 - keys of hell and death - Jesus holds the keys to hell and death. This is often misinterpreted with Mt 16:17-19, claiming that Peter has the keys to hell and death. See John 5:24-29; Rom 6:9; Heb 2:14, 15

Rev 1:19

Rev 1:19 - Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter. See Rev 10:4, 14:13

Rev 1:19

Rev 1:19 - hast seen, are, will be - The Bible affirms that prophecy is the revelation (unveiling) of things past, present and future. When we understand the past we can RECOGNIZE the foretold present and the future events when they occur. See Rev 22:19; Isa 41:21-23 cognition: the mental action or process of acquiring knowledge and understanding through thought, experience, and the senses

Rev 1:19

Rev 1:18 - hast seen - God gave Moses prophetic revelations of the past so that he might pen the first book of the Bible, Gen and the oldest book of the Bible, Job.

Rev 1:19

Rev 1:19 - and the things which shall be hereafter - See Rev 4:4

Rev 1:20

Rev 1:20 - The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches - God Alone is the One Who interprets and gives understanding to His written word.

Rev 1:20

Rev 1:20 - The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches - Jesus refers to the leadership (stars) that oversaw the seven churches of Asia Minor that existed during the writing of the Revelation. As with all prophecy, there may be multiple applications of the same truth, all of which are correct and fit perfectly. The seven churches foreshadow the entire body of believers of Jesus Christ through time, from the time of the apostles until the Second Coming of Christ. The messages to each church describe conditions that would be seen in different eras of Christian Church history, but all to be repeated and fulfilled during the era of the seventh and final church, Laodicea.

Rev 1:20

Rev 1:20 - the seven churches - the seven churches of Asia Minor (Rev which John are instructed to write to (Rev 1:11), found in Rev chapter 2 and 3, were seven actual churches that existed during the time of the writing of the Rev. However, the seven churches describe the experience of the Christian Church through time, from the time of the apostles until the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.

Rev 2:1

Rev 2:1 - church of Ephesus - the apostolic church that is synonymous with the White Horse era of the Rev 6. The victorious and pure church was known for its works of faithfulness to the Kingdom of God.

Rev 2:1

Rev 2:1 - He that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand - Jesus' self identification as He Who holds the seven stars (leaders) and walks among the seven candlesticks (churches) shows His close connection with His earthly bride, the church.

Rev 2:1

Rev 2:1 - walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks - the LORD Jesus Christ is He who walks in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks. Jesus is here seen in the first apartment of the heavenly tabernacle (the sanctuary) that He entered after he had won mankind's redemption. See Heb 1:1-3; 9:2, 11, 12; Rev 1:13

Rev 2:2

Rev 2:2 - I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars - See Heb 6:10

Rev 2:2

Rev 2:2 - thy patience - their blessed hope. See Heb 10:35, 36

Rev 2:2

Rev 2:2 - and how thou canst not bear them which are evil - See Rom 16:17, 18; 2Tim 4:3, 4

Rev 2:2

Rev 2:2 - hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars - God through the Holy Spirit endowed faithful members of the early church with the spirit of discernment, where those who knew the word of God would try the spirits to see if they were of God (1Jo 4:1-3, 2:18, 19). See Act 5:1-11; 2Cor 11:13-15;

Rev 2:3

Rev 2:3 - And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted - See Rev 6:10

Rev 2:3

Rev 2:3- has laboured and hast not fainted - the early church was known for its diligence in spreading the gospel and building up the kingdom of God. - See Col 1:28, 29; Heb 10:35-39; Isa 40:29-31

Rev 2:4

Rev 2:4 - thou hast left thy first love - the True Witness, Jesus, has reproved the church of Ephesus for leaving its first love, Himself. This was the first and great sin of Lucifer. That which it was first enamored in doing it has become distracted from and has left behind. This first love of loving God with all the heart/mind/soul/strength, righteousness by faith, works of charity and love, devotion and ministry for Christ, full assurance in their adoption as sons of God, hope in the coming of Jesus Christ, committed to good works (1Jo 2:24), were all being supplanted by: 1. Works of the law and the flesh and not of the Spirit (Gal 3:1-7; Eph 2:11-14; 1Jo 2:26) 2. Divisions due to ethnic origins (Eph 2:14-22) 3. Confusion regarding Jesus 2nd Coming (2Thess 2:1-3) Can we not understand that the most costly thing in the world is sin? It is at the expense of purity of conscience, at the cost of losing the favor of God and separating the soul from Him, and at last losing heaven. - {1888 810.1}

Rev 2:5

Rev 2:4 - from whence thou art fallen - the leaving of the first love among the Eph is spoken in similar terms to the fall of the once exalted covering cherub, Lucifer. The falling away from the first love if not checked would lead to the church's perdition. - See Isa 14:12

Rev 2:5

Rev 2:5 - and repent - See Rom 2:4; 2Cor 7:10, 11; Rev 2:16, 3:19

Rev 2:5

Rev 2:5 - I will come unto thee quickly - I will come to you suddenly, unexpectedly - See Mal 3:1; Mt 24:50; Rev 2:16

Rev 2:6

Rev 2:6 - hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans - a form of antinomianism, which makes the fatal mistake that man can freely partake in sin because the Law of God is no longer binding. These also suggested that the things done in the flesh have no bearing or impact on one's soul/spirit. Therefore, fornication, idolatry and licentiousness were all present among the Nicolaitans who felt their predestination to salvation through grace made these sins of no effect to their position with God or salvation. Consider how they may have wrested Jesus' statement in Joh 6:63

Rev 2:7

Rev 2:7 - He that hath an ear, let him hear - See Isa 32:1-3; Rev 1:1-3

Rev 2:7

Rev 2:7 - He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches - all having ears to hear are to take heed to the counsels given by the Holy Spirit to each of the churches. This statement, appearing after the counsels to each respective church makes plain that the messages are timeless and applicable to all eras, but especially the last church (Laodicea), upon whom the ends of the world have come. Isa 32:1-3; 1Cor 10:6, 11

Rev 2:7

Rev 2:7 - To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God - The Garden of Eden, including the Tree of Life, was transported from earth to heaven before the destruction of the earth in the time of Noah. The Tree of Life is a type of Jesus, Who imparts eternal life - See Rev 22:14; 1Pet 1:9; 1Jo 5:11-13

Rev 2:8

Rev 2:8 - These things saith the first and the last - See Isa 44:6, 46:9-11; Rev 1:11

Rev 2:8

Rev 2:7 - which was dead and is alive - Jesus, the Resurrection and the Life, gives comfort and assurance to the persecuted church which has suffered with countless martyrs. See Joh 11:25; 2Tim 2:11; Rom 6:8; Rev 1:18; 1Thess 4:13

Rev 2:9

Rev 2:9 - but thou art rich - Jesus here comments on those who are poor in Spirit that will see the Kingdom of God. Their works of service and charity, despite their material poverty also is here spoken. It is often those who have the least in this life where the greatest faith is to be found. See Mt 5:3; Jam 2:5

Rev 2:9

Rev 2:9 - blasphemy of them which say they are Jews - the self-exalting spirit that would eventually lead to the formation of the papacy was already at work in the time of Paul

(2Thess 2:7; 1Jo 4:1-3). These men who usurped the praise and honor due to Jesus Christ alone as Head of the Church (Col 1:18), were recognized among those in Smyrna and reproved. See Rom 2:28, 29; 2Pet 2:1

Rev 2:9

Rev 2:10 - synagogue of Satan - the church of Satan is filled with false apostles impersonating the ministers of Christ and righteousness. See 2Cor 11:13-15; Eph 2:2, 3 The Synagogue of Satan—Christ speaks of the church over which Satan presides as the synagogue of Satan. Its members are the children of disobedience. They are those who choose to sin, who labor to make void the holy law of God. It is Satan's work to mingle evil with good, and to remove the distinction between good and evil. Christ would have a church that labors to separate the evil from the good, whose members will not willingly tolerate wrong-doing, but will expel it from the heart and life (The Review and Herald, December 4, 1900). - {7BC 958.1}

Rev 2:10

Rev 2:10 - Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life - paralleling the Red Horse Era of Revelation 6:3, 4, the persecuted church would endure harsh trial of men, empowered by the devil himself. See Rev 6:3, 4; 2Tim 1:7

Rev 2:10

Rev 2:10 - behold - Jesus often said "I tell you these things so that when they happen you will believe" (Joh 13:19). Jesus wanted to assure those who would be imprisoned or martyred that their fate was ultimately in God's hands. Though they should die, they would never die (John 11:25, 26), they would live again with He Who is the First and the Last, Who was dead but lives again.

Rev 2:10

Rev 2:10 - the devil shall cast some of you into prison - Scriptures alone can reveal the hidden, behind the scenes workings of principalities and powers with whom we wrestle. Satan would empower men to persecute and imprison the faithful of God. See Eph 6:12; 1Chron 21:1

Rev 2:10

Rev 2:10 - that ye may be tried - See Dan 12:10

Rev 2:10

Rev 2:10 - tribulation ten days - interpreted as 10 literal years (A.D. 303-313) of tribulation by Pagan Roman Emperor Diocletian who targeted Christian leaders. Some leaders had a misguided zeal who were overly zealous in trying to push a cause not required.

Rev 2:10

Rev 2:11 - be thou faithful unto death - Jesus acknowledges the fate of some will by martyrdom. He assures them that their death would not be in vain (Ps 116:15). See Rev 6:9-11; 12:11

Rev 2:10

Rev 2:10 - give thee a crown of life - Thou they may be tried and die, they will live again and receive a crown of life. See John 11:25, 26; Jam 1:12; 2Tim 4:8

Rev 2:11

Rev 2:11 - He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches - all having ears to hear are to take heed to the counsels given by the Holy Spirit to each of the churches. This statement, appearing after the counsels to each respective church makes plain that the messages are timeless and applicable to all eras, but especially the last church (Laodicea), upon whom the ends of the world have come. Isa 32:1-3; 1Cor 10:6, 11

Rev 2:11

Rev 2:13 - shall not be hurt of the second death - the utter destruction of the wicked to occur after the millennial period is here mentioned. Rev 20:8-15; Joh 11:26; Mt 25:41

Rev 2:12

Rev 2:12 - church of Pergamos - the church of Pergamos is the compromising church in the era of Constantine of Rome (A.D.312-538). The church is seen as compromising as it begins to relax its standards after an era of persecution and to adopt pagan customs as it sought to appeal to those outside the church. Constantine's passage of a Sunday Law in A.D.321, typifying the Image to the beast in the USA, predates the papal Sunday Law of A.D. 538 that was globally enforced. See Jer 13:16 for a summary of the era and its eventual fate.

Rev 2:12

Rev 2:12 - the sharp sword with two edges - Jesus is seen as a King/Warrior, seeking to punish the impenitent with His Word. See Rev 1:16, 19:15; Josh 5:13; Heb 4:12

Rev 2:13

Rev 2:13 - where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is - the location of Satan's seat need not be tied to the city of Pergamum because each church spoken of describes the collective church body during an era of Christian Church history. References to location are better interpreted spiritually, by considering the era (A.D. 312-538) and the influences during that era which had the greatest effect upon shaping church history. Satan's seat is apparently the city of Rome, where the message to the church of Pergamos finds its greatest fulfillment. See Rev 13:2, 16:19, 6:5, 6

Rev 2:13

Rev 2:13 - Satan's seat - the setting up of cathedrals and basilicas (meaning throne) was contrary to the the house churches of the early apostolic era where the gospel spread like wildfire (Act 2:44-47). The church became institutionalized and policy and procedures became paramount over people. The priest became the central figure while people became bumps on the church log.

Rev 2:13

Rev 2:13 - hast not denied my faith - the faith of Jesus Christ - See Rev 14:12

Rev 2:13

Rev 2:13 - Antipas - a possible reference to a Christian martyr who resisted the worship of Zeus and was thus burned in a metal statue of a bull, the pet of Zeus. Possibly not a specific person but those who were anti-papal (anti-papas: against the religious "fathers") and withstood the corruptions of the Roman Bishops. See Lk 21:16, 18; Act 7:54-60

Rev 2:14

Rev 2:14 - them that hold the doctrine of Balaam - Balaam, the false prophet teaches Balac the king the means by which to cause the Children of Israel to fall out of favor with God and be subject to His curses. Balaam is described as one who was motivated by the gain of filthy wealth (Ju 11). Balaam also instructed Balac to cause Israel to commit fornication with the women of Moab in order to break God's covenant and become subject to the curses. Balaam as a False Prophet enters into a confederacy with the state, Balac to curse and overthrow the people of God. These two figures typify the Dragon and False Prophet which create an image to the Beast in the USA first, before the arise of the Modern Papacy (church of Thyatira) and its global Sunday Law. See Num 22-25; Josh 13:22

Rev 2:14

Rev 2:14 - Balaam - Balaam and Balak formed a union of church and state to war against the people of God. Further, Balaam coveted earthly wealth. Those in Pergamos may be the forerunners to those who teach and preach prosperity gospel messages. Balaam's greatest work against Israel was convincing Balak to send his women into the camp of Israel to cause them to sin. See Rom 14:13; Act 15:20, 29, 21:25; Josh 13:22 "Balaam was a magician, and used enchantments, and was sought unto by kings, to bless them, and to curse their enemies. See Num 22:6-7. He seems to be a figure, or example of the pope, who has acted the part of Balaam in blessing and cursing. He has professed to be God's vicar on earth... Holding the "Doctrine of Balaam" in this text, has reference to the doctrine of the Catholic Church." {An Appeal to the Laodicean Church, Hiram Edson, The Advent Review Extra, September, 1850}

Rev 2:14

Rev 2:14 - things sacrificed to idols - idolatry was being introduced to the church of Pergamos by influential men and leadership - See Rom 14

Rev 2:14

Rev 2:14 - commit fornication - the literal fornication of Ancient Israel is symbolic of the Spiritual Fornication committed by Spiritual Israel, the SDA church. This Spiritual Fornication is made possible by Adventism entering relations with the world (particularly apostate Protestantism) and adopting their teachings, methods of evangelism, and forsaking Adventism's Old Paths.

Rev 2:15

Rev 2:15 - doctrine of the Nicolatians - the Nicolatians taught that there was no more law and therefore sanctioned all forms of lewed and irreligious acts. The Nicolatians are as the modern Protestants which suggest that the Law of God has been nailed to the Cross of Christ. See Rev 2:6, Joh 6:63 (wrested)

Rev 2:16

Rev 2:16 - Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth. - See Ps 7:12; Rev 2:5, 3:19

Rev 2:16

Rev 2:16 - I will come unto thee quickly - I will come to you suddenly, unexpectedly - See Mal 3:1; Mt 24:50; Rev 2:5

Rev 2:16

Rev 2:16 - will fight against them with the sword of my mouth - See Heb 4:12; Rev 1:16, 2:12, 19:15

Rev 2:17

Rev 2:17 - He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches - all having ears to hear are to take heed to the counsels given by the Holy Spirit to each of the churches. This statement, appearing after the counsels to each respective church makes plain that the messages are timeless and applicable to all eras, but especially the last church (Laodicea), upon whom the ends of the world have come. Isa 32:1-3; 1Cor 10:6, 11

Rev 2:17

Rev 2:17 - eat of the hidden manna - See Heb 9:4

Rev 2:17

Rev 2:17 - a new name written - like Jacob, who received the new, heavenly name "Israel", we all will be given a new name that speaks of our personal struggles that we have overcome by the blood of the Lamb and the words of our testimony. See Gen 32:28, 17:5; Isa 62:2; Rev 3:12

Rev 2:17

Rev 2:17 - which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it - the name may speak of an experience, a personal struggle, that is unique to the one who receives the name.

Rev 2:18

Rev 2:18- church in Thyatira - following the compromising church of Sardis, the church of Thyatira, the papal church of the Dark Ages (A.D.538-1798) perfected that which was started in the prior era. See Act 16:13-15; Rev 6:7, 8; 1Pet 5:13

Rev 2:18

Rev 2:18 - These things saith the Son of God - Jesus, the Son of God, reveals Himself as such to the church of Thyatira which was challenged by self-exalting men, claiming to be the vicar of Jesus. See Dan 10:6 Compare: Dan 7:25; 2Thess 2:3-7

Rev 2:18

Rev 2:18 - eyes like unto a flame of fire - piercing eyes that see all things, even in our lives and into the future. See Dan 10:7; Rev 1:14; 10:1 Now the Saviour's eye penetrates the future; He beholds the broader fields in which, after His death, the disciples are to be witnesses for Him. His prophetic glance takes in the experience of His servants through all the ages till He shall come the second time. He shows His followers the conflicts they must meet; He reveals the character and plan of the battle. He lays open before them the perils they must encounter, the self-denial that will be required. {Desire of Ages 352.2}

Rev 2:18

Rev 2:18 - and his feet are like fine brass - See Dan 10:6; Rev 1:15; Rev 10:1

Rev 2:19

Rev 2:19 - I know thy works - the church in the wilderness during the Dark Ages did great exploits to preserve the faith once delivered to the saints. See Dan 11:32; Jude 1:3 érgon Noun Neuter er'-gon from a primary (but obsolete) ergo (to work) from a primary (but obsolete) ergo (to work); toil (as an effort or occupation); by implication, an act:--deed, doing, labour, work. business, employment, that which any one is occupied that which one undertakes to do, enterprise, undertaking any product whatever, any thing accomplished by hand, art, industry, or mind an act, deed, thing done: the idea of working is emphasised in opp. to that which is less than work Works mentioned twice is perhaps a reference to the dead faith of the Dark Ages, where salvation was by the works of men's hands rather than a free gift by grace through faith of Jesus Christ.

Rev 2:20

Rev 2:20 - sufferest that woman Jezebel - Notice that Jezebel (the Beast Power) arises after the False Prophet (Balaam) and Dragon (Balac) powers have established a Sunday Law, causing the USA to commit fornication. Jezebel or the papacy will seduce the kings of the world to implement a global Sunday Law that will draw all to her lair. Jezebel reflects the papacy in that: 1. Jezebel was a strong domineering woman over her weak husband Ahab; Just as the papacy ruled over the kings of the world during the Dark Ages (1Kin 19:1, 2; 21:1-21) 2. Jezebel sought to kill all the prophets of God and replace the with the prophets of Baal and of the grove; Just as the papacy has sought to kill the pure words of Scripture (God's Two Witnesses clothed in sackcloth)and Jesus Christ Himself through the papal priesthood, Mariolatry, and adoration of the saints 3. God gave Jezebel 3.5yrs (1,260days) to repent of her sins; God gave the papacy 1,260years to repent before judgments would befall it

Rev 2:20

Rev 2:22 which calleth herself a prophetess - See Eze 13:17-19, 22

Rev 2:20

Rev 2:20 - teach and seduce my servants - the whore Jezebel with her false prophets used flattery and witchcraft to seduce the people of God (2Kin 9:22, 30, 31). So too, the papacy uses flatteries and witchcraft to seduce the kings of the world and the masses (Dan 11:32) - See 1Tim 2:11-15; Isa 3:12, 4; Gen 3:17; 2Pet 3:16-18 Notwithstanding that vice prevailed, even among the leaders of the Roman Church, her influence seemed steadily to increase. About the close of the eighth century, papists put forth the claim that in the first ages of the church the bishops of Rome had possessed the same spiritual power which they now assumed. To establish this claim, some means must be employed to give it a show of authority; and this was readily suggested by the father of lies. Ancient writings were forged by monks. Decrees of councils before unheard of were discovered, establishing the universal supremacy of the pope from the earliest times. And a church that had rejected the truth greedily accepted these deceptions. (See Appendix.) - {GC 56.1}

Rev 2:20

Rev 2:20 - seduce my servants to commit fornication - the deceptive allurements of the whoreish woman causes those in Adventism who have not embraced the teachings of the Old Paths (Millerite Adventist teachings) to commit fornication and embrace the teachings of Balaam. See 2Kin 21:10-12 The royal mandate not proving a sufficient substitute for divine authority, Eusebius, a bishop who sought the favor of princes, and who was the special friend and flatterer of Constantine, advanced the claim that Christ had transferred the Sabbath to Sunday. Not a single testimony of the Scriptures was produced in proof of the new doctrine. Eusebius himself unwittingly acknowledges its falsity and points to the real authors of the change. "All things," he says, "whatever that it was duty to do on the Sabbath, these we have transferred to the Lord's Day."—Robert Cox, Sabbath Laws and Sabbath Duties, page 538. But the Sunday argument, groundless as it was, served to embolden men in trampling upon the Sabbath of the Lord. All who desired to be honored by the world accepted the popular festival. - {GC 574.2}

Rev 2:20 - and to eat things sacrificed unto idols - See Act 15:20, 21:25; 2Cor 6:14-17

Rev 2:21

Rev 2:21 - gave her space to repent - As with Ancient Babylon, to which 70years of probationary time was given it to repent of it sins (Jer 51:8, 9), so to with Spiritual Babylon. The harlotries of Jezebel came before God and in mercy He extended 3.5times (1,260yrs) for her to repent, but she shamelessly did not. See Jam 5:17; Isa 1:21-23; Jer 3:2, 3

Rev 2:21

Rev 2:21 - her fornication - See Isa 1:21-23

Rev 2:21

Rev 2:21 - she repented not - The papacy refused to change. See Rev 13:3; Isa 47:7, 8

Rev 2:22

Rev 2:22 - them that commit adultery with her - the kings of the earth during the Dark Ages and the globalist leaders of modern times are here referenced. See Rev 18:3

Rev 2:22

Rev 2:22 - into great tribulation - the distress of nations brought about by Islam in the Three Woes and then the plagues from the LORD will cause great tribulation upon Jezebel/Babylon, those who commit fornication with her and her children. See Lk 21:25; Rev 8:13; 11:18

Rev 2:23

Rev 2:23 - I will kill her children with death - the apostate churches of Christendom, the False Prophet, which follow the Beast in her harlotries, will be thrown into the Lake of Fire with the Beast, the papacy. See Rev 17:5, 19:20

Rev 2:23

Rev 2:23 - all the churches shall know - the 7 churches of God will know/understand that it is God that has brought His judgments upon the whore Jezebel/Babylon.

Rev 2:23

Rev 2:23 - searcheth the reins - God reads the purposes and motives of one's heart (mind) and unconscious mind (reins). See Heb 4:12; Ps 16:7, 139

Rev 2:23

Rev 2:23 - I will give unto every one of you according to your works - See Rev 22:12; Ps 18:24-26

Rev 2:24

Rev 2:24 - But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden - Jesus, the Son of God, added no reproof to those who remained faithful during the dread era of the Dark Ages.

Rev 2:25 - hold fast till I come. - See Hymn #600 Hold Fast Till I Come

Rev 2:26

Rev 2:26 - he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end - Christ, the True Witness admonishes that those who overcome and keep (do) His works unto the end will receive the blessings promised.

Rev 2:27

Rev 2:27 - he shall rule them with a rod of iron - those who overcome will rule over the nations with Jesus, bearing a rod of iron. See Rev 12:5; 20:4

Rev 2:28

Rev 2:28 - the morning star - 2Pet 1:19 - day star arise in your hearts - Jesus, the Sun of Righteousness and the Bright and Morning Star (Mal 4:2; Rev 2:28) must become the abiding light within each son of God. His righteousness by faith, must become manifest in every life.

Rev 2:29

Rev 2:29 - He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches - all having ears to hear are to take heed to the counsels given by the Holy Spirit to each of the churches. This statement, appearing after the counsels to each respective church makes plain that the messages are timeless and applicable to all eras, but especially the last church (Laodicea), upon whom the ends of the world have come. Isa 32:1-3; 1Cor 10:6, 11

Rev 3:1

Rev 3:1 - angel of the church - the message given to the churches of Sardis, Philadelphia and Laodicea at one point are contemporaneous where all three churches exist at once. The Sardis church represents the Protestants to whom the 1st Angel message is preached. The Philadelphia church are those who respond to the 1st and 2nd Angels' messages and remain faithful. The Laodiceans are they who respond to the 1st Angel's message but falter with the 2nd Angel, drawing back on October 22, 1844.

Rev 3:1

Rev 3:1 - Sardis - meaning "those who escape", paralleling those among Edom, Moab and Ammon who escape from the hand of the King of the North (Dan 11:41).

Rev 3:1

Rev 3:1 - seven Spirit of God - Jesus has the Spirit of God in completeness and without measure. His desire is to impart this same Spirit to those who hunger and thirst for righteousness. See Joh 3:34; Joh 16:13; Mt 5:6

Rev 3:1

Rev 3:1 - the seven stars - a possible reference to the leadership of the churches, more specifically, the leaders of the Protestant Churches that would call forth the Protestant Reformation.

Rev 3:1

Rev 3:1 - thou hast a name - the reference may be to the many churches that arose under the Protestant Reformation, each bearing its own name and peculiar identity. Their tenacity in holding to their name and identity in pride is a stumblingblock to them (Zeph 1:3), where they refuse new light that would cause them to walk in Christ's righteousness. See Zech 13:2; Isa 4:1 The great principle so nobly advocated by Robinson and Roger Williams, that truth is progressive, that Christians should stand ready to accept all the light which may shine from God's holy word, was lost sight of by their descendants. The Protestant churches of America,—and those of Europe as well,—so highly favored in receiving the blessings of the Reformation, failed to press forward in the path of reform. Though a few faithful men arose, from time to time, to proclaim new truth and expose long-cherished error, the majority, like the Jews in Christ's day or the papists in the time of Luther, were content to believe as their fathers had believed and to live as they had lived. Therefore religion again degenerated into formalism; and errors and superstitions which would have been cast aside had the church continued to walk in the light of God's word, were retained and cherished. Thus the spirit inspired by the Reformation gradually died out, until there was almost as great need of reform in the Protestant churches as in the Roman Church in the time of Luther. There was the same worldliness and spiritual stupor, a similar reverence for the opinions of men, and substitution of human theories for the teachings of God's word. - {GC 297.2} The world has claims upon you. If you fail to shine as lights in the world, some will rise in the judgment, and charge upon you the blood of their souls. It will be seen that you were an agent in the hands of the enemy of God and man to mislead and deceive by your profession of Christianity. You did not lead souls to piety and devotion. You had a name to live, but were spiritually dead. You had not the vitalizing influence of the Spirit of God, which is abundantly provided for all who, in faith, make demands upon it (The Review and Herald, August 16, 1898). { 7BC 987.4

Rev 3:1

Rev 3:1 - thou livest, and art dead - a reference to the condition of having a form of godliness but denying the power therein. Carnal Christians who remain dead in their trespasses and sins. See Rom 8:6-8; 1Cor 1:10-13

Rev 3:1

Rev 3:1 - art dead - similar to the era characterized by a dead faith, the Pale Horse era, those who followed after the reformers based their religions on the doctrine of men and not the Word of God. Not desiring to explore further truths that went beyond the truths revealed by their forefathers, the followers of the Protestant churches exhibited a dead faith. The great principle so nobly advocated by Robinson and Roger Williams, that truth is progressive, that Christians should stand ready to accept all the light which may shine from God's holy word, was lost sight of by their descendants. The Protestant churches of America,—and those of Europe as well,—so highly favored in receiving the blessings of the Reformation, failed to press forward in the path of reform. Though a few faithful men arose, from time to time, to proclaim new truth and expose long-cherished error, the majority, like the Jews in Christ's day or the papists in the time of Luther, were content to believe as their fathers had believed and to live as they had lived. Therefore religion again degenerated into formalism; and errors and superstitions which would have been cast aside had the church continued to walk in the light of God's word, were retained and cherished. Thus the spirit inspired by the Reformation gradually died out, until there was almost as great need of reform in the Protestant churches as in the Roman Church in the time of Luther. There was the same worldliness and spiritual stupor, a similar reverence for the opinions of men, and substitution of human theories for the teachings of God's word. - {GC 297.2}

Rev 3:2 - Be watchful - the church of Sardis would hear the cry of the Bridegroom's coming but would turn its back unto the movement and message which heralded the cry. See Mt 24:44; Rev 3:3

Rev 3:2

Rev 3:2 - strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die - the faith, perseverance in study and searching God's word, works of righteousness that once characterized the Protestant Movement and its reformers were on the verge of death. In other words, the Protestant Churches were so, only in name and not in works. Jesus cautions them to strengthen (return to, continue in) their commitment and works so as not to revert entirely.

Rev 3:2

Rev 3:2 - have not found thy works perfect before God - the bigotry towards any new light that was not taught by the founders of each Protestant Church movement may be here referenced. Just as the Jews left off in building the house of the Lord in the time of Ezra and Nehemiah, the Protestant Churches forsook the work of building God's house and sought to build their own houses. See Hag 1:7-10 The wide circulation of the Bible in the early part of the nineteenth century, and the great light thus shed upon the world, was not followed by a corresponding advance in knowledge of revealed truth, or in experimental religion. Satan could not, as in former ages, keep God's word from the people; it had been placed within the reach of all; but in order still to accomplish his object, he led many to value it but lightly. Men neglected to search the Scriptures, and thus they continued to accept false interpretations, and to cherish doctrines which had no foundation in the Bible. - {GC 298.1}

Rev 3:3

Rev 3:3 - Remember therefore how thou has received and heard, and hold fast and repent - Jesus, the True Witness, counsels the church of the Reformation, Protestantism to recall how they first received and heard the gospel of Christ, by faith and through the Word of God (Col 2:6). The very principles that were used to establish the movement would prove to be its decisive test at the close of this church era which faltered in walking by faith according to the Word of God, by rejecting the First Angel's Message. Seeing the failure of his efforts to crush out the truth by persecution, Satan had again resorted to the plan of compromise which led to the great apostasy and the formation of the Church of Rome. He had induced Christians to ally themselves, not now with pagans, but with those who, by their devotion to the things of this world, had proved themselves to be as truly idolaters as were the worshipers of graven images. And the results of this union were no less pernicious now than in former ages; pride and extravagance were fostered under the guise of religion, and the churches became corrupted. Satan continued to pervert the doctrines of the Bible, and traditions that were to ruin millions were taking deep root. The church was upholding and defending these traditions, instead of contending for "the faith which was once delivered unto the saints." Thus were degraded the principles for which the Reformers had done and suffered so much. - {GC 298.2}

Rev 3:3 - thou shalt not watch - See Mt 26:41; Mk 13:33; Lk 21:36

Rev 3:3

Rev 3:3 - I will come on thee as a thief - See Lk 10:16; 1Thess 5:1-5; Mt 24:46 Jesus would come upon the Protestant churches as a thief during the era of the sounding of the 1st and 2nd Angel's messages. They were to hear, embrace and respond to the LORD's messengers, sounding the commencement of God's judgment hour. Should they not watch and be vigilant, Jesus would come, judge them, and their door of probation would be closed, all while they were unaware, as with the antediluvians. Jesus said, they that receive a prophet would receive a prophet's reward (Mt 10:41), righteousness by faith in believing and trusting in God's word through His messengers (2Chron 20:20). Here we see an example of the judgment of the living that typifies the last great day of preparation before the coming of the LORD. See Gen 7:1-10; Mt 24:38

Rev 3:4

Rev 3:4 - which have not defile their garments - The LORD is making note of a shaking among the church of Sardis, where two classes are being developed, namely, those who have defiled garments and those who have kept them pure. Those who have not defiled their garments, if faithful, will move on to become the church of Philadelphia, while those with defiled garments will become the synagogue of Satan. See Rev 16:15; Num 9:1-14; Zeph 1:7, 8

Rev 3:4

Rev 3:4 - they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy - Jer 31:34, 50:20; Rev 6:11, 16:15 It is right to love beauty and to desire it; but God desires us to love and seek first the highest beauty, that which is imperishable. No outward adorning can compare in value or loveliness with that "meek and quiet spirit," the "fine linen, white and clean" (Rev 19:14), which all the holy ones of earth will wear. This apparel will make them beautiful and beloved here, and will hereafter be their badge of admission to the palace of the King. His promise is, "They shall walk with Me in white: for they are worthy." Rev 3:4. - {AA 523.3} These words are given for the people while they are in connection with the world, subject to temptations and influences which are deceiving and deluding. While they stay their mind upon Him who is their sun and their shield, the blackness and darkness that surround them will not leave one spot or stain upon their garments. They will walk with Christ. They will pray and believe and work to save the souls that are ready to perish. These are trying to break the bands that Satan has fastened upon them, and they will not be put to shame if, by faith they will make Christ their companion. Temptations and deceptions will be constantly brought up by the great deceiver to spoil the work of the human agent, but if he trusts in God, if he is humble and meek and lowly of heart, keeping the way of the Lord, heaven will rejoice, for he will gain the victory. God says, "He shall walk with me in white (with unsullied garments), for he is worthy." - {SpM 206.3}

Rev 3:5

Rev 3:5 - He that overcometh - Jesus declared that those who confess Him before men, He would confess before His Father in heaven. Those therefore, who profess Jesus in conduct and word to men are they who "overcome". Mt 10:32, 33; Rev 6:9-11, 19:8; 21:7; Col 1:23

Rev 3:5

Rev 3:5 - the same shall be clothed in white raiment - See Isa 61:3; Rev 6:11, 16:15 This robe, woven in the loom of heaven, has in it not one thread of human devising. Christ in His humanity wrought out a perfect character, and this character He offers to impart to us. "All our righteousness are as filthy rags." Isa 64:6. Everything that we of ourselves can do is defiled by sin. But the Son of God "was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin." Sin is defined to be "the transgression of the law." 1 John 3:5, 4. But Christ was obedient to every requirement of the law. He said of Himself, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God; yea, Thy law is within My heart." Psalm 40:8. When on earth, He said to His disciples, "I have kept My Father's commandments." John 15:10. By His perfect obedience He has made it possible for every human being to obey God's commandments. When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life. This is what it means to be clothed with the garment of His righteousness. Then as the Lord looks upon us He sees, not the fig-leaf garment, not the nakedness and deformity of sin, but His own robe of righteousness, which is perfect obedience to the law of Jehovah. - {COL 311.4}

Rev 3:5

Rev 3:5 - during the time of judgment, Jesus is either blotting out the sins of the people from the books of record so that sins remain no more, or blotting out names from the book of life (Dan 7:10). In either case, one's probation has ended such that he that is unjust will be unjust still, he that is filthy will be filthy still, he that is righteous will be righteous still, and he that is holy will be holy still (Rev 22:11). The false teaching of once saved, always saved is here refuted (Heb 6:4-6). See Jude 1:5; Ps 69:28, 109:13-15; Jer 18:23; Rev 22:19; Eze 18:21-24; Ex 32:31-33; Joh 6:37; 2Pet 2:20-22; Heb 6:4-6, 10:38; Zech 3:7; 2Pet 1:10 As the books of record are opened in the judgment, the lives of all who have believed on Jesus come in review before God. Beginning with those who first lived upon the earth, our Advocate presents the cases of each successive generation, and closes with the living. Every name is mentioned, every case closely investigated. Names are accepted, names rejected. When any have sins remaining upon the books of record, unrepented of and unforgiven, their names will be blotted out of the book of life, and the record of their good deeds will be erased from the book of God's remembrance. The Lord declared to Moses: "Whosoever hath sinned against Me, him will I blot out of My book." Ex 32:33. And says the prophet Eze: "When the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, ... all his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned." Eze 18:24. - {GC 483.1}

Rev 3:5

Rev 3:5 - book of life - See Ex 32:32, 33; Rev 13:8, 20:15; Isa 4:3; Dan 12:1

Rev 3:5

Rev 3:5 - I will confess his name before my Father and before His angels - See Ex 28:9-21; Dan 7:9, 10, 13, 14; Mt 10:32, 33; Lk 12:8, 9; Contrast 2Tim 2:12; Ps 51:9 All who have truly repented of sin, and by faith claimed the blood of Christ as their atoning sacrifice, have had pardon entered against their names in the books of heaven; as they have become partakers of the righteousness of Christ, and their characters are found to be in harmony with the law of God, their sins will be blotted out, and they themselves will be accounted worthy of eternal life. The Lord declares, by the prophet Isa: "I, even I, am He that blotteth out thy transgressions for Mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins." Isa 43:25. Said Jesus: "He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before My Father, and before His angels." "Whosoever therefore shall confess Me before men, him will I confess also before My Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny Me before men, him will I also deny before My Father which is in heaven." Revelation 3:5; Mt 10:32, 33. - {GC 483.2} The greatest praise that men can bring to God is to become consecrated channels through whom He can work. Time is rapidly passing into eternity. Let us not keep back from God that which is His own. Let us not refuse Him that which, though it cannot be given with merit, cannot be denied without ruin. He asks for a whole heart; give it to Him; it is His, both by creation and by redemption. He asks for your intellect; give it to Him; it is His. He asks for your money; give it to Him; it is His. "Ye are not your own, for ye are bought with a price." 1 Corinthians 6:19, 20. God requires the homage of a sanctified soul, which has prepared itself, by the exercise of the faith that works by love, to serve Him. He holds up before us the highest ideal, even perfection. He asks us to be absolutely and completely for Him in this world as He is for us in the presence of God. - {AA 566.1}

Rev 3:6 - He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches - all having ears to hear are to take heed to the counsels given by the Holy Spirit to each of the churches. This statement, appearing after the counsels to each respective church makes plain that the messages are timeless and applicable to all eras, but especially the last church (Laodicea), upon whom the ends of the world have come. Rev 3:8 - he that hath the key of David - See Isa 22:22

Rev 3:7

Rev 3:7 - He that openeth and no man shutteth; and shutteth and no man openeth - Jesus is Holy and True and has the keys to the door of our salvation which He alone can open or shut. There was a door opened and a door shut during the era of the church of Philadelphia (Millerite history) typifying Jesus leaving the Holy Place and entering the Most Holy Place in the heavenly sanctuary. See Isa 22:22; Early Writings 42.1-3 I saw the Father rise from the throne, [see page 92.] and in a flaming chariot go into the holy of holies within the veil, and sit down. Then Jesus rose up from the throne, and the most of those who were bowed down arose with Him. I did not see one ray of light pass from Jesus to the careless multitude after He arose, and they were left in perfect darkness. Those who arose when Jesus did, kept their eyes fixed on Him as He left the throne and led them out a little way. Then He raised His right arm, and we heard His lovely voice saying, "Wait here; I am going to My Father to receive the kingdom; keep your garments spotless, and in a little while I will return from the wedding and receive you to Myself.” Then a cloudy chariot, with wheels like flaming fire, surrounded by angels, came to where Jesus was. He stepped into the chariot and was borne to the holiest, where the Father sat. There I beheld Jesus, a great High Priest, standing before the Father. On the hem of His garment was a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate. Those who rose up with Jesus would send up their faith to Him in the holiest, and pray, “My Father, give us Thy Spirit.” Then Jesus would breathe upon them the Holy Ghost. In that breath was light, power, and much love, joy, and peace [ISAIAH 32:17 - Rom 10:3]. - {EW 55.1} The breath of Jesus imparts: Light - light from the Holy Spirit, illuminating the path to the celestial city; light||understanding||wisdom - Prov 4:18; Dan 5:11, 12 Power - power from the Holy Spirit to become sons and daughters of God. Power to subdue the carnal nature and to walk by faith in the Spirit of Jesus Christ - Joh 1:12, 13; Gal 5:16, 6:8 Much Love - Christ, Who is Love, is the fulfillment of the Law for those who believe. Love for God and the Son will call forth faithful obedience unto eternal life - Joh 14:15; Rom 10:4; Gal 5:6, 14 Joy - The presence of the Holy Spirit is marked by a joyful, hopeful disposition - Joh 15:11, 16:24; 1Jo 1:4; 1Cor 13:7 Peace - the work of Christ’s righteousness is peace in the heart - Isa 32:17; Ps 119:165

Rev 3:8 - set before thee an open door - The open door that was set before the Millerite Movement was the way into the Holiest of Holies which by faith, those who remained faithful to God's leading would enter in. Those who fell back and turned from the paths that God had established, the Lord had no pleasure in them (Heb 10:38). As Joh typifies the Adventists in seeing the temple opened and the ark of the covenant in the Most Holy Place, the time had arrived for all of God’s 10 commandments, including the 4th commanding all to keep the 7th-day Sabbath holy, to be observed. See Isa 45:2; 22:22; 1Cor 16:9; Act 14:27; Rev 11:19 I saw that Jesus had shut the door of the holy place, and no man can open it; and that He had opened the door into the most holy, and no man can shut it (Rev 3:7, 8); [see page 86. See also appendix.] and that since Jesus has opened the door into the most holy place, which contains the ark, the commandments have been shining out to God’s people, and they are being tested on the Sabbath question. - {EW 42.2} After Jesus opened the door of the most holy, the light of the Sabbath was seen, and the people of God were tested, as the children of Israel were tested anciently, to see if they would keep God’s law. I saw the third angel pointing upward, showing the disappointed ones the way to the holiest of the heavenly sanctuary. As they by faith enter the most holy, they find Jesus, and hope and joy spring up anew. I saw them looking back, reviewing the past, from the proclamation of the second advent of Jesus, down through their experience to the passing of the time in 1844. They see their disappointment explained, and joy and certainty again animate them. The third angel has lighted up the past, the present, and the future, and they know that God has indeed led them by His mysterious providence. - {EW 254.2} In fulfillment of the prophecy of Rev 10:11, where faithful Adventists are told to prophecy again, the LORD would open a door of opportunity for them to proclaim the 1st and 2nd Angel's messages, joined by the 3rd and 4th as He made known truths heretofore unknown (the Sabbath, the sanctuary, the state of the dead, health reform). See 1Cor 16:9; 2Cor 2:12, 13

Rev 3:8

Rev 3:8 - and hast not denied my name - See Mt 10:33, 26:34, 75

Rev 3:9

Rev 3:9 - them of the synagogue of Satan - the church of Satan; historically, those among the church of Sardis who had not kept their robes clean, but defiled them with worldliness, pride, and carelessness, became the synagogue of Satan separated from among the Philadelphian believers. The Bible here demonstrates two classes of worshippers, the fulfillment of the Everlasting Covenant. These are they that also constitute the "nations" that are angry at the sons of righteousness and the heathen that rage and imagine a vain thing against the Lord and His anointed. See 2Cor 11:14, 15; Rev 11:18; Ps 2:1-9

Rev 3:9 - which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie - those that have a form of godliness but deny the power there in. Those who have not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God in Jesus Christ but seek to establish their own righteousness. Those who persecute the saints of God and think they do God service, not having known Jesus nor the Father all make up the synagogue of Satan who have believed a lie that they might be damned. See 2Tim 3:1-5; Rom 2:28,29, 10:1-5; Joh 16:1-3; 2Thess 2:8-10. I saw that the mysterious signs and wonders and false reformations would increase and spread. The reformations that were shown me were not reformations from error to truth. My accompanying angel bade me look for the travail of soul for sinners as used to be. I looked, but could not see it; for the time for their salvation is past. "The 'false reformations' here referred to are yet to be more fully seen. The view relates more particularly to those who have heard and rejected the light of the advent doctrine. They are given over to strong delusions. Such will not have 'the travail of soul for sinners' as formerly. Having rejected the advent, and being given over to the delusions of Satan, 'the time for their salvation is past.' This does not, however, relate to those who have not heard and rejected the doctrine of the second advent." - {EW 45.3}

Rev 3:9

Rev 3:9 - I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee - See Jer 15:15-21; Ps 23:5; Lk 1:71; Rom 16:20

Rev 3:9

Rev 3:9 - and to know that I have loved thee - See Ps 23:5

Rev 3:10

Rev 3:10 - Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth - We are in the time when tribulations such as the world has never yet seen will prevail. "Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time." But God has set bounds that Satan cannot pass. Our most holy faith is this barrier; and if we build ourselves up in the faith, we shall be safe in the keeping of the Mighty One. "Because thou hast kept the word of My patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth." - {5T 297.3}

Rev 3:10

Rev 3:10 - kept the word of my patience - the patient hope and desire of seeing Jesus come in the clouds of glory as made known through the more sure prophetic word that shines as a light in the darkness until the Day Star arise in our hearts. See Rev 13:10; 14:12; 2Pet 1:19; Lk 21:19; 2Kin 22:18-20 "The 1840's movement was the first time since the apostles that Jesus could find a community of believers on earth whose hearts were knit with His joyful expectation of His soon return. They were among those of whom Jesus said, 'Blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed'" {Grace on Trial pg 36.5}

Rev 3:10

Rev 3:10 - hour of temptation - the great battle against God and His saints, brought about by the Sunday Law; overflowing scourge and fiery trial that will assail the people of God, culminating in the 7 Last Plagues. See Rev 16:13, 14; 13:13-17; 14:9-12; 17:12; Isa 28:15, 17; 1Pet 4:12; Lk 12:11, 12

Rev 3:10

Rev 3:10 - which shall come upon all the world - See Dan 12:1

Rev 3:10

Rev 3:10 - to try them that dwell on the earth - the Bible predicts that the wise will be purified, made white and tried of their faith to perfect their characters (Dan 12:10). However, all upon the earth will be tried by virtue of the global Sunday Law which will cause all to fall into one of two groups, the righteous or the wicked. The final separation will cause the 7-Last Plagues to fall on the wicked.

Rev 3:11

Rev 3:11 - Behold I come quickly - the warning to behold or be watchful and vigilant because Jesus' return will come quickly (suddenly) is given often in the Bible, particularly the Rev. We are to be as watchmen upon the walls given the trumpet a certain sound as we see the approaching of the LORD (Eze 3:17-21). See Rev 22:7, 12; Mt 24:44-46

Rev 3:11

Rev 3:11 - hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown - we are to persevere in the Christian race so that no man rob us of our crown of life. God promised that nothing will be able to separate us from the Love of God which is in Christ Jesus so we have to discipline ourselves to constantly look to Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith. See Rev 11:18

Rev 3:11

Rev 3:11 - thy crown - Our crown of life. For the church of Philadelphia, the crown included Jesus' new name and the name of His Father (Rev 3:13). See 2Tim 4:8; Jam 1:12; Rev 2:10; Zech 3:5.

Rev 3:12 - city of my God, which is new Jerusalem - the eternal city of refuge and peace.

Rev 3:12

Rev 3:12 - new Jerusalem - See Gal 4:26; Rev 21:2

Rev 3:12

Rev 3:12 - Jerusalem - made up of two words "Jeru", meaning "city of" and "Salem", meaning "peace".

Rev 3:12

Rev 3:12 - which cometh down out of heaven from my God - See Rev 21:2, 3, 20:9

Rev 3:12

Rev 3:12 - My new name. - Perhaps "THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS".- See Deut 6:24, 25; Jer 23:5, 6; Gen 17:5, 32:28; Isa 62:2 The third name written on the symbolic pillar is that of Christ Himself. The overcomer's reception of the divine character, represented by the name (see on Act 3:16), is mediated by Christ. It is only by virtue of the fact that God became man in Jesus Christ that man may once more be restored to the image of God. This is accomplished by the gift of the life and character of Christ to the believer (see Gal. 2:20; DA 388). To receive Christ's name is also to receive confirmation of His ownership (see on 2 Cor. 1:22). {SDA Bible Commentary vol 7 pg 760}

Rev 3:13

Rev 3:13 - He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches - all having ears to hear are to take heed to the counsels given by the Holy Spirit to each of the churches. This statement, appearing after the counsels to each respective church makes plain that the messages are timeless and applicable to all eras, but especially the last church (Laodicea), upon whom the ends of the world have come. Isa 32:1-3; 1Cor 10:6, 11

Rev 3:14

Rev 3:14 - angel of the church - the message is directed to and primarily about the leadership. The churches are the seven golden candlesticks but the angel of the church is the leadership.

Rev 3:14

Rev 3:14 - the church of the Laodiceans - See Col 2:1 the Laodicean message was first understood and accepted by God's remnant people in 1856. {Grace on Trial pg 42.2 by Robert Wieland} The message to the Laodicean church is applicable to all who have had great light and many opportunities, and yet have not appreciated them. - {The Faith Live By 306.2} There are a large number of professing Christians who do not really follow Jesus. They do not bear the cross by proper self-denial and self-sacrifice. Although making a great profession of being earnest Christians, they weave into the fabric of their character so many of the threads of their own imperfections that the beautiful pattern is spoiled. Of them Christ says: "You boast of being rich and increased with supposed spiritual attainments. In reality you are neither cold nor hot, but are filled with vain conceit. Unless converted, you cannot be saved; for you would mar heaven with your unsanctified wisdom. I cannot endorse your spirit and your work. You do not act according to the divine Example. You are following a pattern merely of your own invention. Because you are lukewarm, I must spue you out of My mouth." - {FLB 306.3} The True Witness has said, "Buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear.” - {FLB 306.4} Jesus is going from door to door, standing in front of every soul temple, proclaiming, “I stand at the door, and knock.” As a heavenly merchantman, He opens His treasures.... “Open your doors,” says the great Merchantman, the possessor of spiritual riches, “and transact your business with Me. It is I, your Redeemer, who counsels you to buy of Me.” - {FLB 306.5} The counsel of the True Witness is full of encouragement and comfort. The churches may yet obtain the gold of truth, faith, and love, and be rich in heavenly treasure. - {FLB 306.6}

Rev 3:14 - the Amen - translated "the God of Truth" and is linked to God's covenant in Isa 65:16; 2Cor 1:20

Rev 3:14

Rev 3:14 - the faithful and true witness - as the Faithful and True Witness, Jesus gives perfect testimony to the character of The Father (Joh 14:6, 7). Jesus also is able to see each heart perfectly, without bias and give testimony of our true condition. See Prov 14:5

Rev 3:14

Rev 3:14 - beginning of the creation of God - The Chief/Head/Leader of the creation of God See John 1:1-3 The word rendered “beginning” is archē, meaning, as well, “head” or “chief.” It occurs in the name of the Greek ruler, Archon; in archbishop and the word archangel. Take this last word. Christ is the Archangel. See Ju 9; 1 Thess. 4:16; Joh 5:28, 29; Dan. 10:21. This does not mean that He is the first of the angels, for He is not an angel but is above them. Heb. 1:4. It means that He is the chief or prince of the angels, just as an archbishop is the head of the bishops. Christ is the commander of the angels. See Rev. 19:11-14. He created the angels. Col. 1:16. And so the statement that He is the beginning or head of the creation of God, means that in Him creation had its beginning [Joh 1:3]; that, as He Himself says, He is Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. Rev. 21:6; 22:13. He is the source whence all things have their origin. {Christ our Righteousness pg. 48, 49 by Waggoner}. See Heb 1:10-12 archē Noun Feminine ar-khay' from (756) from ; (properly abstract) a commencement, or (concretely) chief (in various applications of order, time, place, or rank):-beginning, corner, (at the, the) first (estate), magistrate, power, principality, principle, rule. beginning, origin the person or thing that commences, the first person or thing in a series, the leader that by which anything begins to be, the origin, the active cause the extremity of a thing of the corners of a sail the first place, principality, rule, magistracy of angels and demons

Rev 3:15

Rev 3:15 - I know thy works - The Laodicean are full of works; Jesus knows the works of self-righteousness and wickedness committed by his people. Unlike other churches, where Jesus identifies a remnant who are worthy of commendation for their faith (Rev 2:2, 3, 6, 10, 13, 3:4, 10, 19, 24, 25), no such references are made for Laodicea, suggesting that the entire body is sick, from the head to the foot (Isa 1:8) and in need of repentance [call a fast - Joe 1:14, 2:15-17]. See Isa 59:6, 58:2, 3 As with the church of Ephesus, the Laodiceans have lost their first love [acts of selfless charity, love for God and their fellow men (Gal 5:6)], and are trapped in self-righteousness. As the early Christian church dealt with those Jews who joined the church but sought to bring in the Jewish rites and traditions, establishing their own righteousness rather than submitting to the righteousness that comes by faith of Jesus Christ, the church was imperiled in losing its first love. See Rev 2:4, 5 As with the church of Pergamos, the Laodiceans have some among them who teach the people to worship idols

[gods of this world (politics), wealth and prosperity] and to commit fornication [bringing the world into the church, new forms of ministry, spiritual formation]. Pergamos was the church of the Black horse which faced the onslaught of pagans joining the church and church prelates lowering the standards to welcome them in. As Pergamos, Laodicea is counseled to be zealous and to repent, lest the Lord fight against the rebels with His sword. Rev 2:14, 15 As with the church of Thyatira, the Laodiceans have succumbed to the Jesuit influences (of Ecumenism) that have caused God's people to commit fornication with the apostate churches of Protestantism and to worship idols [idol Sabbath]. Rev 2:19-23 As with the church of Sardis, the Laodiceans are alive, but dead spiritually, and their dead dry condition is as the valley of dry bones - Rev 3:1; Ezek 37:1-10

Rev 3:15 - cold - Are you a follower of Christ? Then all that is written concerning the spiritual life is written for you, and may be attained through uniting yourself to Jesus. Is your zeal languishing? has your first love grown cold? Accept again of the proffered love of Christ. Eat of His flesh, drink of His blood, and you will become one with the Father and with the Son. - {DA 389.5} It would be well to spend a thoughtful hour each day reviewing the life of Christ from the manger to Calvary. We should take it point by point and let the imagination vividly grasp each scene, especially the closing ones of His earthly life. By thus contemplating His teachings and sufferings, and the infinite sacrifice made by Him for the redemption of the race, we may strengthen our faith, quicken our love, and become more deeply imbued with the spirit which sustained our Saviour. - {1TT 515.3} The fanaticism was checked for a time; but several years later it broke out with greater violence and more terrible results. Said Luther, concerning the leaders in this movement: "To them the Holy Scriptures were but a dead letter, and they all began to cry, 'The Spirit! the Spirit!' But most assuredly I will not follow where their spirit leads them. May God of His mercy preserve me from a church in which there are none but saints. I desire to dwell with the humble, the feeble, the sick, who know and feel their sins, and who groan and cry continually to God from the bottom of their hearts to obtain His consolation and support."—Ibid., b. 10, ch. 10. - {GC 190.4}

Rev 3:15

Rev 3:15 - hot - see Ps 39:3; Jer 20:9

Rev 3:16

Rev 3:16 - So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot - See Hag 2:12-14 The Lord does not now work to bring many souls into the truth, because of the church members who have never been converted and those who were once converted but who have backslidden. What influence would these unconsecrated members have on new converts? Would they not make of no effect the God-given message which His people are to bear? - {6T 370.3} The Pharisee's boastful, self-righteous prayer showed that his heart was closed against the influence of the Holy Spirit. Because of his distance from God, he had no sense of his own defilement, in contrast with the perfection of the divine holiness. He felt no need, and he received nothing. - {SC 30.2} Says the True Witness, "I would thou wert cold or hot. So then, because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth." Satan is willing you should be a christian in name, for you can suit his purposes better. You can have a form and not true godliness, and Satan can use you to decoy others in the same self-deceived way. Some poor souls look to you, instead of looking to the Bible standard. They come up no higher than you; they are as good as you, and are satisfied. - {2SG 262.1} The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked. Professors of religion are not willing to closely examine themselves to see whether they are in the faith; and it is a fearful fact that many are leaning on a false hope. Some lean upon an old experience which they had years ago; but when brought down to this heart-searching time, when all should have a daily experience, they have nothing to relate. They seem to think that a profession of the truth will save them. When they subdue those sins which God hates, Jesus will come in and sup with them and they with Him. They will then draw divine strength from Jesus, and will grow up in Him, and be able with holy triumph to say: "Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." It would be more pleasing to the Lord if lukewarm professors of religion had never named His name. They are a continual weight to those who would be faithful followers of Jesus. They are a stumbling block to unbelievers, and evil angels exult over them, and taunt the angels of God with their crooked course. Such are a curse to the cause at home or abroad. They draw nigh to God with their lips, while their heart is far from Him. - {1T 188.2}

Rev 3:16 - neither cold nor hot - the Laodiceans did not hold fast the thing which Jesus counseled the church of Philadelphia to embrace, their crown, Jesus' new name and the name of the Father. See Rev 3:11

Rev 3:16

Rev 3:16 - I will spue thee out of my mouth - See Lk 20:16, 18; 2Tim 3:8; Heb 12:26, 27 Now is the time to prepare. The seal of God will never be placed upon the forehead of an impure man or woman. It will never be placed upon the forehead of the ambitious, world-loving man or woman. It will never be placed upon the forehead of men or women of false tongues or deceitful hearts. All who receive the seal must be without spot before God,—candidates for heaven. Search the Scriptures for yourselves, that you may understand the fearful solemnity of the present hour. - {CET 191.2} Not one of us will ever receive the seal of God while our characters have one spot or stain upon them. It is left with us to remedy the defects in our characters, to cleanse the soul temple of every defilement. Then the latter rain will fall upon us as the early rain fell upon the disciples on the Day of Pentecost. - {5T 214.2} I asked the meaning of the shaking I had seen, and was shown that it would be caused by the straight testimony called forth by the counsel of the True Witness to the Laodiceans. This will have its effect upon the heart of the receiver, and will lead him to exalt the standard and pour forth the straight truth. Some will not bear this straight testimony. They will rise up against it, and this is what will cause a shaking among God's people. - {CET 176.1} I saw that the testimony of the True Witness has not been half heeded. The solemn testimony upon which the destiny of the church hangs has been lightly esteemed, if not entirely disregarded. This testimony must work deep repentance; all who truly receive it will obey it, and be purified. - {CET 176.2} God leads His people on, step by step. He brings them up to different points calculated to manifest what is in the heart. Some endure at one point, but fall off at the next. At every advanced point the heart is tested and tried a little closer. If the professed people of God find their hearts opposed to this straight work, it should convince them that they have a work to do to overcome, if they would not be spewed out of the mouth of the Lord. Said the angel: "God will bring His work closer and closer to test and prove every one of His people." Some are willing to receive one point; but when God brings them to another testing point, they shrink from it and stand back, because they find that it strikes directly at some cherished idol. Here they have opportunity to see what is in their hearts that shuts out Jesus. They prize something higher than the truth, and their hearts are not prepared to receive Jesus. Individuals are tested and proved a length of time to see if they will sacrifice their idols and heed the counsel of the True Witness. If any will not be purified through obeying the truth, and overcome their selfishness, their pride, and evil passions, the angels of God have the charge: "They are joined to their idols, let them alone," and they pass on to their work, leaving these with their sinful traits unsubdued, to the control of evil angels.

Those who come up to every point, and stand every test, and overcome, be the price what it may, have heeded the counsel of the True Witness, and they will receive the latter rain, and thus be fitted for translation. - {1T 187.1}.

Rev 3:17

Rev 3:17 - Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing - the Laodicean are in love with this world and its comforts [carnal] and thus are in sin (1Jo 2:15, 16) and know it not. They believe that "gain is godliness", the wine of the devil's fornication rather than the Biblical principle that "godliness with contentment is great gain" (1Tim 6:5, 6). They must have the mar'eh vision experience as Isa, Daniel and Joh the Revelator so that their comeliness is cast to the dust and they see their undone condition. See Lk 9:25, 12:16-21; 1Jo 3:6

Rev 3:17

Rev 3:17 - Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods - God calls for His people to be mindful of the times and to come before Him with fasting, sackcloth and repentance (Joel 2:15-18), but what He sees is slaying of oxen and revelry. See Isa 3:16-26, 22:12-14; Ps 36:2 "When the Lord says that we are "blessed" when we hunger after righteousness, what kind must He be speaking of? There is only one kind-- that which is by faith. In other words, those who feel that they already understand righteousness by faith lose the blessing, while those who feel empty are the only ones who can 'be filled.' This is a tragic reality, for there are even some ministers and leaders who do not sense their need. According to the Lord Jesus, we, both leaders and people, have a basic general problem. He says: 'You say, I am rich, have become wealthy, and have need of nothing.' This is another way of saying, 'You don't feel hungry or thirsty.' The Lord is describing how as a people generally we feel wealthy in our understanding of the gospel. 'We have the truth; we understand the doctrine of righteousness by faith.' This feeling of satisfaction dooms us to world embarrassment, for we are 'wretched, and miserable, and poor.'" See Deut 32:15; Jer 22:21 What is it that constitutes the wretchedness, the nakedness, of those who feel rich and increased with goods? It is the want of the righteousness of Christ. In their own righteousness they are represented as clothed with filthy rags, and yet in this condition they flatter themselves that they are clothed upon with Christ's righteousness.... They may be crying, "The temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord are we," [Jer 7:4] while their hearts are filled with unholy traffic and unrighteous barter. The courts of the soul temple may be the haunt of envy, pride, passion, evil surmising, bitterness, and hollow formalism. Christ looks mournfully upon His professed people who feel rich and increased in the knowledge of the truth, and who are yet destitute of the truth in life and character. - {OHC 349.4} I saw that Satan bade his angels lay their snares especially for those who were looking for Christ's second appearing and keeping all the commandments of God. Satan told his angels that the churches were asleep. He would increase his power and lying wonders, and he could hold them. "But," he said, "the sect of Sabbathkeepers we hate; they are continually working against us, and taking from us our subjects, to keep the hated law of God. Go, make the possessors of lands and money drunk with cares. If you can make them place their affections upon these things, we shall have them yet. They may profess what they please, only make them care more for money than for the success of Christ's kingdom or the spread of the truths we hate. Present the world before them in the most attractive light, that they may love and idolize it. We must keep in our ranks all the means of which we can gain control. The more means the followers of Christ devote to His service, the more will they injure our kingdom by getting our subjects. As they appoint meetings in different places, we are in danger. Be very vigilant then. Cause disturbance and confusion if possible. Destroy love for one another. Discourage and dishearten their ministers; for we hate them. Present every plausible excuse to those who have means, lest they hand it out. Control the money matters if you can, and drive their ministers to want and distress. This will weaken their courage and zeal. Battle every inch of ground. Make covetousness and love of earthly treasures the ruling traits of their character. As long as these traits rule, salvation and grace stand back. Crowd every attraction around them, and they will be surely ours. And not only are we sure of them, but their hateful influence will not be exercised to lead others to heaven. When any shall attempt to give, put within them a grudging disposition, that it may be sparingly.” – {EW 266.1} Man broke God’s law, and through the Redeemer new and fresh promises were made on a different basis. All blessings must come through a Mediator. Now every member of the human family is given wholly into the hands of Christ, and whatever we possess—whether it is the gift of money, of houses, of lands, of reasoning powers, of physical strength, of intellectual talents—in this present life, and the blessings of the future life, are placed in our possession as God’s treasures to be faithfully expended for the benefit of man. Every gift is stamped with the cross and bears the image and superscription of Jesus Christ. All things come of God. From the smallest benefits up to the largest blessing, all flow through the one Channel—a superhuman mediation sprinkled with the blood that is of value beyond estimate because it was the life of God in His Son. – {FW 22.1} Now not a soul can give God anything that is not already His. Bear this in mind: “All things come of Thee, and of Thine own have we given Thee” (1 Chronicles 29:14). This must be kept before the people wherever we go—that we possess nothing, can offer nothing in value, in work, in faith, which we have not first received of God and upon which He can lay His hand any time and say, They are Mine—gifts and blessings and endowments I entrusted to you, not to enrich yourself, but for wise improvement to benefit the world. – {FW 22.2}

Rev 3:17 - have need of nothing - See Prov 30:11-14; Lk 18:9-14; Isa 65:5 Laodicea’s problem can be summarized in Arrogance, Worldliness and Neglect: ARROGANCE is found in the abundant light revealed by God from the Bible and through the writings of the Church’s prophetess, Ellen G. White. Head Knowledge of this abundance of Light has masked a stark dearth of true heart spirituality and surrender. Here are the early makings of Laodicea’s spiritual dearth: In 1863 another chart was produced by Jam White, husband of the prophetess Ellen White which omitted certain prophetic truths revealed by God to His messenger William Miller. The omissions included the 2,520yr prophecy or the scattering of God’s people, and the daily, the understanding of paganism as one of two desolators of God’s people. The chart, however, did not receive God’s endorsement as did the prior 1843 and 1850 charts. The 1863 chart became a stumbling block for the church, as it began to call into question the 14 Rules of Interpreting Scripture given by God, and His method of instruction known as Proof Texting During the 1880’s, notable men within the church who were reprovved by God through the prophetess, Ellen White, for their lack of humility, Christian demeanor, and spirituality began to question the inspiration of the prophetess. This introduced principles of “Higher Criticism” used throughout Christendom, that questions inspiration. The root of this practice is self-exaltation and the Spirit of Antichrist, where men place their thoughts and opinions in the place of God. This became a stumbling block for many within Laodicea, who, when reprovved by the words of God in Scripture or through inspiration chose to reject the light WORLDLINESS is found in preferring the ways of Christendom at large and the world over the sanctified ways entrusted to the church of Philadelphia by God. Choosing Christendom’s methods of evangelism over those ordained by God for the church, namely, proclamation of the 3rd Angel’s Message; embracing Christendom’s methods of worship; creating partisanships in the church based on “liberal” and “conservative” political beliefs; embracing social changes that war against the faith once delivered to the church NEGLECT is spoken of by the Apostle Paul [READ] Heb 2:1-3 - “The True Witness says, “Behold, I stand at the door, and knock.” Rev 3:20. Every warning, reproof, and entreaty in the word of God or through His messengers is a knock at the door of the heart. It is the voice of Jesus asking for entrance. With every knock unheeded, the disposition to open becomes weaker. The impressions of the Holy Spirit if disregarded today, will not be as strong tomorrow. The heart becomes less impressible, and lapses into a perilous unconsciousness of the shortness of life, and of the great eternity beyond. Our condemnation in the judgment will not result from the fact that we have been in error, but from the fact that we have neglected heaven-sent opportunities for learning what is truth.”

{DA 489.5} FALSE JUSTIFICATION The light given me of God places this important subject above any question in my mind. Justification is wholly of grace and not procured by any works that fallen man can do. The matter has been presented before me in clear lines that if the rich man has money and possessions, and he makes an offering of the same to the Lord, false ideas come in to spoil the offering by the thought he has merited the favor of God, that the Lord is under obligation to him to regard him with special favor because of this gift.

- {FW 20.1}

Rev 3:17

Rev 3:17 - and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: - I asked the meaning of the shaking I had seen and was shown that it would be caused by the straight testimony called forth by the counsel of the True Witness to the Laodiceans. This will have its effect upon the heart of the receiver, and will lead him to exalt the standard and pour forth the straight truth. Some will not bear this straight testimony. They will rise up against it, and this is what will cause a shaking among God's people. - {EW 270.2} I saw that the testimony of the True Witness has not been half heeded. The solemn testimony upon which the destiny of the church hangs has been lightly esteemed, if not entirely disregarded. This testimony must work deep repentance; all who truly receive it will obey it and be purified. - {EW 270.3}

Rev 3:17

Rev 3:17 - knowest not - And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know (1Cor 8:2; Joh 3:3, 4). Laodicea has a smug, pride in their knowledge of the Bible and Scripture, but lack the intimate knowledge of Jesus Christ that comes from being born again. See John 3:1-8 “From the cross to 1844, for over 1800 years, Christ ministered His blood in the holy place and the human race through faith in Him had access to this salvation. The gospel provided for every known sin, when confessed, to be forgiven. There was a work done for the conscious mind of man. The blood of Christ provided this. However from 1844 onward a new and different work was to be done, just as surely as the ancient Day of Atonement was different from the daily service. After 1844 "the sins that would have been committed had there been an opportunity" were to be understood and the unconscious enmity against God was to be revealed. It is because Laodicea does not "know," that it remains in its wretched condition. When we come to "know," there will take place the repentance of the ages and sin will be blotted out.” Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short; pg 141

Rev 3:17

Rev 3:15 - thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind and naked - See Isa 1:4-6 the Laodiceans are perfectly depicted by the blind beggar Bartimaeus (Mk 10:46-52; Lk 18:35-43; Mt 20:29-34). His condition rendered him: 1. Wretched - he was an outcaste and a wretch to behold 2. Miserable - his blindness caused great misery to himself and his family 3. Poor - as a beggar, Bartemeus was fully reliant upon the alms (charity) of others 4. Blind - Bartemaues' physical condition was a reflection of the spiritual condition of Laodicea 5. Naked - In his hast to see Jesus, the blind beggar cast away his garments leaving himself naked. Such is the condition of Laodiceans who have not the righteousness of Christ covering their naked (unrighteous) condition.

Rev 3:17

Rev 3:16 - poor - destitute, having nothing and needing everything; lacking righteousness, lacking holiness, lacking obedience, lacking faith, lacking peace, lacking assurance

Rev 3:17

Rev 3:17 - blind - the spiritual blindness of Laodicea is due to rejecting the righteousness of God for their own righteousness; turning from and refusing to walk in the old paths; while lighting sparks after their own kindling (Rom 10:1-5; Jer 6:16; Isa 50:11). As the Pharisees who denied the miracle of the healing of the blind man (Joh 9), Laodicea's blindness has led to self-righteousness and believing that they stand when in fact they have fallen (Isa 42:18-25). See Joh 9:35-41; Rom 11:7, 8, 10; Zeph 1:17; Prov 30:12-14

Rev 3:17

Rev 3:17 - naked - Laodiceans lack garments that Christ He offers to His sheep free of charge (Zech 3:4; Isa 55:1, 2). These garments, woven in the loom of heaven are without spot or wrinkle. Jesus is Himself the loom that weaves the garment of a perfect character, while in His mortal flesh; just like ours. Laodicea's filthy rags and nakedness is to their condemnation (Isa 64:6). The Laodiceans who remain in the lukewarm condition will eventually worship the "Image to the Beast". See: Ex 32:1-6, 25

Rev 3:18

Rev 3:18 - I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see. - See OHC 350.1-6 The eye is the sensitive conscience, the inner light, of the mind. Upon its correct view of things the spiritual healthfulness of the whole soul and being depends. The "eyesalve," the Word of God, makes the conscience smart under its application, for it convicts of sin. But the smarting is necessary that the healing may follow, and the eye be single to the glory of God.... Says Christ, By renouncing your own self-sufficiency, giving up all things, however dear to you, you may buy the gold, the raiment, and the eyesalve that you may see. - {OHC 350.5} Jesus' counsel is spoken as One who gives us loving advice while respecting our ability to exercise free will. He speaks words of counsel that He knows would be for our good and would bring a train of blessings. The lapse of time has wrought no change in Christ's parting promise to send the Holy Spirit as His representative. It is not because of any restriction on the part of God that the riches of His grace do not flow earthward to men. If the fulfillment of the promise is not seen as it might be, it is because the promise is not appreciated as it should be. If all were willing, all would be filled with the Spirit. Wherever the need of the Holy Spirit is a matter little thought of, there is seen spiritual drought, spiritual darkness, spiritual declension and death. Whenever minor matters occupy the attention, the divine power which is necessary for the growth and prosperity of the church, and which would bring all other blessings in its train, is lacking, though offered in infinite plenitude. - {AA 50.1} God leads His people on, step by step. He brings them up to different points calculated to manifest what is in the heart. Some endure at one point, but fall off at the next. At every advanced point the heart is tested and tried a little closer. If the professed people of God find their hearts opposed to this straight work, it should convince them that they have a work to do to overcome, if they would not be spewed out of the mouth of the Lord. them to another testing point, they shrink from it and stand back, because they find that it strikes directly at some cherished idol. Here they have opportunity to see what is in their hearts that shuts out Jesus. They prize something higher than the truth, and their hearts are not prepared to receive Jesus. Individuals are tested and proved a length of time to see if they will sacrifice their idols and heed the counsel of the True Witness. If any will not be purified through obeying the truth, and overcome their selfishness, their pride, and evil passions, the angels of God have the charge: "They are joined to their idols, let them alone," and they pass on to their work, leaving these with their sinful traits unsubdued, to the control of evil angels. Those who come up to every point, and stand every test, and overcome, be the price what it may, have heeded the counsel of the True Witness, and they will receive the latter rain, and thus be fitted for translation. - {1T 187.1}

Rev 3:18

Rev 3:18 - buy of me - the currency by which we are able to purchase the things Christ counsels us to purchase is our own lives; this is the only currency God desires and accepts. See Isa 55:1-3

Rev 3:18

Rev 3:18 - gold tried in the fire that you may be rich - perfected, refined faith driven by the divine love of God. See Gal 5:6; 1Pet 1:7; Jam 1:2-4; 1Pet 4:12, 13 The Laodiceans, who are increased with material wealth are impoverished of the spiritual wealth that will enable their salvation. Jam speaks of the poor in this manner: "Hearken, my beloved bretheren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?"- Jam 2:5. He further states: "Let the brother of low degree (Lk 1:46-48) rejoice in that he is exalted: But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away." The doom pronounced for those who are rich in worldly goods but poor in God's riches is to be overthrown.

Rev 3:18

Rev 3:18 - that thou mayest be rich - God desires that we be rich in faith. See Jam 2:5; Mt 5:11, 12; 1Pet 4:12, 13; Hymn #533 O for A Faith The parable of the rich man and Lazarus shows how the two classes represented by these men are estimated in the unseen world. There is no sin in being rich if riches are not acquired by injustice. A rich man is not condemned for having riches, but condemnation rests upon him if the means entrusted to him is spent in selfishness. Far better might he lay up his money beside the throne of God, by using it to do good. Death cannot make any man poor who thus devotes himself to seeking eternal riches. But the man who hoards his treasure for self can not take any of it to heaven. He has proved himself to be an unfaithful steward. During his lifetime he had his good things, but he was forgetful of his obligation to God. He failed of securing the heavenly treasure. - {COL 266.1}

Rev 3:18

Rev 3:18 - white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed - Christ's pure character. The white garments that God gives to those who in faith come to Jesus for forgiveness; recognize their wretchedness and humble themselves before Him is a token of Christ's righteousness imputed and imparted by grace through faith of Jesus Christ. See Mt 22:11; Isa 61:10; Jer 23:5, 6; Zech 3:1-5; Rev 16:15, 19:8 Let the youth and the little children be taught to choose for themselves that royal robe woven in heaven's loom, the "fine linen, clean and white" which all the holy ones of earth will wear. This robe, Christ's own spotless character, is freely offered to every human being. But all who receive it will receive and wear it here. -

{AH 536.4} The Loom of Heaven is Christ Himself, Who has perfectly woven a character, test and tried by all the slights, trials, temptations and vicissitudes of life. Jesus' perfected character and righteousness is the white robe, woven by Christ while here in human flesh.

Rev 3:18

Rev 3:18 - that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear - shame of being spiritually unfit, dead, and yet self-righteous See Gen 3:7-11; Eph 2:1-3; Rev 16:15

Rev 3:18

Rev 3:18 - eyesalve, that thou mayest see - The eyesalve that the True Witness offers will give sight to our blind spiritual condition. It will reveal the worthlessness of human merit and our only source of salvation and righteousness, Jesus Christ and Him crucified. It will enlighten the eyes to revive and give strength for the battle (1Sam 14:26-30). To enlighten the eye, God counsels us to eat honey and it will be for sweetness in our mouths (Rev 10:10; Eze 3:3; Jer 15:16; Eph 1:18, 19). See Mt 6:22, 23; Joh 9:6, 39-41; Rom 10:1-4 You who in heart long for something better than this world can give, recognize this longing as the voice of God to your soul. Ask Him to give you repentance, to reveal Christ to you in His infinite love, in His perfect purity. In the Saviour's life the principles of God's law—love to God and man—were perfectly exemplified. Benevolence, unselfish love, was the life of His soul. It is as we behold Him, as the light from our Saviour falls upon us, that we see the sinfulness of our own hearts. - {SC 28.2} We may have flattered ourselves, as did Nicodemus, that our life has been upright, that our moral character is correct, and think that we need not humble the heart before God, like the common sinner: but when the light from Christ shines into our souls, we shall see how impure we are; we shall discern the selfishness of motive, the enmity against God, that has defiled every act of life. Then we shall know that our own righteousness is indeed as filthy rags, and that the blood of Christ alone can cleanse us from the defilement of sin, and renew our hearts in His own likeness. - {SC 28.3}

Rev 3:19

Rev 3:19 - As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten - See Heb 12:6, 7; Prov 3:11, 12 You seem to have special bitterness against Elder [Uriah] Smith, and some others of our brethren, and you have talked out these feelings in your family, thus leavening them. The Lord has seen fit to counsel Elder Smith, to give him words of reproof because he had erred; but is this an evidence that God has forsaken him?—No. "As many as I love I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent" (Rev 3:19). The Lord reproves wrongs in His people, but is this an evidence that He has rejected them?—No. There are errors in the church, and the Lord points them out by His own ordained agencies, not always through the testimonies. Now shall we seize these reproofs and make capital of them, and say that God is not imparting to them His light and love?—No. The very work that God is trying to do for them shows that He loves them, and wants to draw them away from paths of danger. - {2SM 81.3}

Rev 3:19

Rev 3:19 - be zealous therefore, and repent - having an urgency and fervency to repent, to make confession, to ask for godly sorrow, and to turn from one's sins - See Act 3:19; 2Cor 7:10, 11; Rom 2:4; Ps 119:59, 60; Rev 2:16; Heb 10:18; Ps 32:1-6 [cleansing the sou-temple so that heavenly sanctuary may be cleansed] "However, "religion" was not invented by God. His plan was to talk face to face with His children. This relation could not continue because man desired to "be as God" and take His place. So man was embarrassed. This means that the problem facing God is to get man to see the enmity that absorbs him. This predestines a repentance and confession of the alienation that exists. In seeing himself as he really is, man will know that his own "righteousness" leaves him "naked," and in need of the clothing from the Source which provides "white raiment," the righteousness of Christ. Adventists are not accustomed to consider all this when they think of being church members. Too often the chief concern is getting to heaven. To a large degree the sin problem is ignored. The hope is to be "good enough" to appease an angry God, but this is the same thinking that motivates pagan religions. The principle that man can save himself by his own works is the basis of every heathen religion and provides no barrier against sin. But it has an ancient history among God's people and in our modern times it has only become more refined. The church will not sing the song of Moses and Christ until they are willing to surrender their own assurance of salvation in order that God's name might be vindicated. Their ultimate desire will be reborn and lifted up from their own egotistical concerns, and placed on those that have value for the entire universe." {Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short; pg 115} The Angel urges, "Let Me go, for the day breaketh;" but the patriarch exclaims, "I will not let Thee go, except Thou bless me." What confidence, what firmness and perseverance, are here displayed! Had this been a boastful, presumptuous claim, Jacob would have been instantly destroyed; but his was the assurance of one who confesses his weakness and unworthiness, yet trusts the mercy of a covenant-keeping God. - {GC 616.3}

Rev 3:19 -repent - See Rom 2:4 I saw that the testimony of the True Witness has not been half heeded. The solemn testimony upon which the destiny of the church hangs has been lightly esteemed, if not entirely disregarded. This testimony must work deep repentance; all who truly receive it will obey it, and be purified. - {CET 176.2} The Bible does not teach that the sinner must repent before he can heed the invitation of Christ, "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest." Mt 11:28. It is the virtue that goes forth from Christ, that leads to genuine repentance. Peter made the matter clear in his statement to the Israelites when he said, "Him hath God exalted with His right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins." Act 5:31. We can no more repent without the Spirit of Christ to awaken the conscience than we can be pardoned without Christ. - {SC 26.2} That God who marks the fall of a sparrow, marks your deportment and your feelings; He marks your envy, your prejudice, your attempt to justify your action in the least matter of injustice. When you misconceive the words and acts of another, and your own feelings are stirred, so that you make incorrect statements, and it is known that you are at variance with your brother, you lead others, through their confidence in you, to regard him just as you do; and by the root of bitterness springing up, many are defiled. When it is evident that your feelings are incorrect, do you try just as diligently to remove the erroneous impressions as you did to make them? ... - {SD 309.2} Now God requires that you who have thus done the least injustice to another shall confess your fault, not only to the one you have injured, but to those who through your influence have been led to regard their brother in a false light, and to make of none effect the work God has given him to do.... By repentance and confession you can have pardon registered against your name; or you can resist the conviction of the Spirit of God, and during the rest of your life, work to make it appear that your wrong feelings and unjust conclusions could not be helped. But there stands the action, there stands the evil committed, there stands the ruin of those in whose hearts you planted the root of bitterness.... - {SD 309.3} Whatever the character of your sin, confess it. If it is against God only, confess only to Him. If you have wronged or offended others, confess also to them, and the blessing of the Lord will rest upon you. In this way you die to self, and Christ is formed within.... Our consecration to God must be unreserved, our love ardent, our faith unwavering. Then the expressions of the lips will testify to the quickened intelligence of the mind and the deep movings of the Spirit of God upon the soul. [56] - {SD 309.4}

Rev 3:20

Rev 3:20 - Behold, I stand at the door, and knock - See Song of Solomon 5:2

Rev 3:20

Rev 3:20 - I stand at the door, and knock - The Lord's steps were ordered of God (Ps 37:23) so that He is constantly placing Himself in a position where He may gain our attention that we may be drawn to Him. We do not seek Him, but rather, He seeks us and desires to sup with us. see Ps 95:7, 8; Isa 55:6 1. Jesus came to Adam and Eve in the Garden Gen 3: 2. Jesus passed by Jericho at the appointed time to heal and save Bartemaeus (Lk 18:35-43) 3. Jesus passed by in order to gain an audience with Zacchaeus and the publicans of the city (Lk 19:1-10) 4. Jesus made a special trip to Tyre and Sidon, the land of Canaan, to deliver the Canaanite woman's daughter and bring the woman salvation (Mt 15:21-27) 5. Jesus went to the land of the Gaderenes to deliver His son from the power of the devil and his legion of demons. (Mark 5:1-20) 6. Jesus swung wide to give the woman with the issue of blood an opportunity to touch the hem of His garment to be healed and saved (Mk 5:25-34) The True Witness says, "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock." Rev 3:20. Every warning, reproof, and entreaty in the word of God or through His messengers is a knock at the door of the heart. It is the voice of Jesus asking for entrance. With every knock unheeded, the disposition to open becomes weaker. The impressions of the Holy Spirit if disregarded today, will not be as strong tomorrow. The heart becomes less impressible, and lapses into a perilous unconsciousness of the shortness of life, and of the great eternity beyond. Our condemnation in the judgment will not result from the fact that we have been in error, but from the fact that we have neglected heaven-sent opportunities for learning what is truth. - {DA 489.5} "This end-time church will set the norm under the most adverse conditions in all time. They will prove that the gospel is the "power of God" and display "righteousness by faith." They will be translated without seeing physical death. Thus the "investigation" is to find a people from among every nation who appreciate the true meaning of the cross. This search makes clear what the "investigative judgment" is all about. God does not need to be informed, but a people must be found who are willing to follow in the footsteps of Christ. They will confirm the truth of the gospel in all ages. Christ's ministry is to them; He stands at their door now!" {pg 134; Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short}

Rev 3:20

Rev 3:20 - if any man hear my voice, and open the door - See Mt 7:24-27; Joh 18:37; Lk 10:16

Rev 3:20

Rev 3:20 - I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and He with me - those who open the door of their hearts and invite Jesus to sup with them will have their eyes open to behold Jesus as He is (Lk 24:29-31). Jesus desires to continually break bread with us, feeding is with Himself, the Living Word as we partake of the Written word (Joh 6:51-58). See Joh 14:23; Act 5:32; Eph 1:13, 14

Rev 3:21

Rev 3:21 - To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne - See Rev 12:11, 20:4; Mt 19:28; Lk 22:30 The Scriptures distinctly speak of two thrones. One is the throne of the Father, the other is the throne of the Son. Christ first sits on the throne of the Father, to reign in connection with him in the kingdom of grace until human probation shall close. He will then reign upon his own throne forever, in the kingdom of glory. In these emphatic words, Christ addresses the church: "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcome, and am set down with my Father in his throne."

Rev.3:21. {1865? JW, TTKGG 2.2}

Rev 3:21

Rev 3:21 - as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne - the throne shared by Jesus and the Father is the throne of Righteousness, represented as the table of shewbread in the Holy Place of the sanctuary. See Heb 1:1-3; Act 2:33; Rom 8:34; Col 1:1; Heb 1:3, 8:1, 10:12

Rev 3:22

Rev 3:22 - He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches - all having ears to hear are to take heed to the counsels given by the Holy Spirit to each of the churches. This statement, appearing after the counsels to each respective church makes plain that the messages are timeless and applicable to all eras, but especially this last church, upon whom the ends of the world have come. See Isa 32:1-3; 1Cor 10:6, 11; Rev 13:9; Mt 13:9-15; Joh 18:37, 3:31, 32

Rev 4:4

Rev 4:4 - 24 Elders - the twenty four elders are sons of God who were redeemed from among men and were first fruits unto the Lamb. The 24 Elders may be comprised of: 1. Enoch 2. Elijah 3. Moses 4. First Fruit of the Resurrection (Matt 27:50-53) The First Fruit of the Resurrection ascended with Christ 40days after His resurrection to be an earnest (downpayment) of the great multitude that will be presented to the Father at the End of the World ANOTHER PERSPECTIVE: Rev 5:8, 14 - the four and twenty elders are mighty angels who are commissioned to serve as part of the council in heaven (see Job 1:6, 7; 2:1, 2; 2Chron 18:18-22). The reading of the text would suggest that they are redeemed by the blood of Jesus, but other verses related to the elders prove otherwise. A translational error is here noted in the KJV Bible, suggesting that the elders are from among the redeemed. Consider the following verses, Rev 7:9, 13, showing an elder engaging with Joh and asking about the redeemed. He himself can not be among the redeemed if he is asking about them. The elder is therefore Heavenly beings are appointed to answer the prayers of those who are working unselfishly for the interests of the cause of God. The very highest angels in the heavenly courts are appointed to work out the prayers which ascend to God for the advancement of the cause of God. Each angel has his particular post of duty, which he is not permitted to leave for any other place. If he should leave, the powers of darkness would gain an advantage.... - {LHU 370.3} Day by day the conflict between good and evil is going on. Why is it that those who have had many opportunities and advantages do not realize the intensity of this work? They should be intelligent in regard to this. God is the Ruler. By His supreme power He holds in check and controls earthly potentates. Through His agencies He does the work which was ordained before the foundation of the world. - {LHU 370.4}

Rev 4:5

Rev 4:5 - seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God - The Holy Spirit, Who is part of the Godhead and is a person is here represented as seven lamps of fire before the throne of God. In Rev 5:6, the same Holy Spirit is represented as seven (a number of perfection) horns [strength], and seven eyes [wisdom] upon the Lamb, Jesus Christ. Jesus refers to the perpetual oil which flows from the two olive trees (Old and New Testaments) of Rev 11:4 and Zech 4:1-6 as the Holy Spirit that is sent by Him and His Father to continually shed light upon the earth (see Joh 16:13-15).

Rev 5:1

Rev 5:1 - sealed - the sealed Book in the hand of the Lord God, the Father is the entire Bible, and specifically the book of Dan that has been sealed until the Time of the End (Dan 12:4, 9). That the Bible has become a sealed book is for the following reasons: 1. In the case of Dan chapters 10-12, God ordained that the specific message (particularly with regards to Dan 11:40-45) remain sealed until the Time of the End, A.D.1798. 2. Men's traditions and dogmas have blinded them so that they no longer understand or uphold truth (Mk 7:1-9). Men have rejected God's Old Paths for "new doctrine" so that they have turned out of the way (Isa 29:9-13; Jer 6:16,17; Hos 4:6). These traditions, dogmas and "new doctrine" all have their origin in the arch deceiver (2Cor 4:1-4, Rev 12:7-9) "With all these minute and burdensome exactions it was a practical impossibility for the people to keep the law. The great principles of righteousness set forth in the Decalogue, and the glorious truths shadowed in the symbolic service, were alike obscured, buried under a mass of human tradition and enactment. Those who were really desirous of serving God, and who tried to observe the whole law as enjoined by the priests and rulers, groaned under a heavy burden." - {Prophets & Kings 709.1}

Rev 5:1 - seven seals - seals were used to close up an official document by a dignitary or king. A letter or document would be sealed using hot wax and a king's or dignitary's signet ring (Lk 15:22). The seal would protect the contents from being tampered with and corrupted - (Ps 12:6, 7; Ps 33:1; Matt 5:18; Isa 40:8; Rev 22:18, 19)

Rev 5:2

Rev 5:2 - Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? - kings would open scrolls and read from the laws- that was a sign of their coronation and kingship.

Rev 5:3

Rev 5:2 - And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon - There in His open hand lay the book, the roll of the history of God's providences, the prophetic history of nations and the church. Herein was contained the divine utterances, His authority, His commandments, His laws, the whole symbolic counsel of the Eternal, and the history of all ruling powers in the nations. In symbolic language was contained in that roll the influence of every nation, tongue, and people from the beginning of earth's history to its close. - {12MR 296.3} 4}

Rev 5:3

Rev 5:3 - no man - no man in heaven (among the 24 elders), nor in earth (among the living), neither under the earth (among the dead in their graves), no one was worthy to open the book and remove the seals.

Rev 5:4

Rev 5:4 - And I wept much - just as Joh began to weep for the book that was sealed where no man could open when suddenly the Lamb appears to unloose the seals, so too, William Miller weeps seven times for the jewels that have been scattered and covered over by dirt until the dirt brush man (Jesus) comes to sweep away the rubbish: I then became vexed in my physical soul and began to use physical force to push them out of the room; but while I was pushing out one, three more would enter and bring in dirt and shavings and sand and all manner of rubbish, until they covered every one of the true jewels, diamonds, and coins, which were all excluded from sight. They also tore in pieces my casket and scattered it among the rubbish. I thought no man regarded my sorrow or my anger. I became wholly discouraged and disheartened, and sat down and wept. - {EW 82.4} While I was thus weeping and mourning for my great loss and accountability, I remembered God, and earnestly prayed that He would send me help. - {EW 83.1} Immediately the door opened, and a man entered the room, when the people all left it; and he, having a dirt brush in his hand, opened the windows, and began to brush the dirt and rubbish from the room. - {EW 83.2}

Rev 5:5

Rev 5:5 - And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof - This roll was written within and without. Joh says: "I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon" [verse 4]. The vision as presented to Joh made its impression upon his mind. The destiny of every nation was contained in that book. Joh was distressed at the utter inability of any human being or angelic intelligence to read the words, or even to look thereon. His soul was wrought up to such a point of agony and suspense that one of the strong angels had compassion on him, and laying his hand on him assuringly, said, "Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof" [verse 5]. - {12MR 296.

Rev 5:8

Rev 5:8 - and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints - See Rev 8:3, 4 There may be a fervor of labor and an intense affection, high and noble achievement of intellect, a breadth of understanding, and the humblest self abasement, laid at the feet of our Redeemer; but there is not one jot more than the grace and talent first given of God. There must be nothing less given than duty prescribes, and there cannot be one jot more given than they have first received; and all must be laid upon the fire of Christ's righteousness to cleanse it from its earthly odor before it rises in a cloud of fragrant incense to the great Jehovah and is accepted as a sweet savor. - {1888 815.3}

Rev 5:9

Rev 5:9 - And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation - See Nehemiah 1:10

Rev 5:9

Rev 5:9 - hast redeemed us to God by they blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people and nation - Heaven will be multicultural - See Eph 2:11-22; Rev 7:9, 14:3; Hosea 3:2 the four and twenty elders are mighty angels who are commissioned to serve as part of the council in heaven (see Job 1:6, 7; 2:1, 2; 2Chron 18:18-22). The reading of the text would suggest that they are redeemed by the blood of Jesus, but other verses related to the elders prove otherwise. A translational error is here noted in the KJV Bible, suggesting that the elders are from among the redeemed. Consider the following verses, Rev 7:9, 13, showing an elder engaging with Joh and asking about the redeemed. He himself can not be among the redeemed if he is asking about them. The elder is therefore, not among the redeemed.

Rev 5:10

Rev 5:10 - And hast made us unto our God kings and priests - as the earthly sanctuary was officiated by a high priest and 24 priests, Jesus our High Priest has 24 elders as priests in His heavenly court. See 1Pet 2:9; Ex 19:5, 6; Rev 1:6

Rev 5:10

Rev 5:10 - we shall reign on the earth - Jesus said that "the meek shall inherit the earth" (Ps 37:11; Mt 5:5. This is added evidence that the 24 Elders are redeemed from among men and are descendants of Adam. Their eternal reign on earth will commence after the Millennium in heaven and after God cleanses the earth, making all things new (Rev 20:1-6, 21:1-7). See Ps 37:11

Rev 5:11

Rev 5:11 - And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands - See Dan 7:9, 10

Rev 5:12

Rev 5:12 - Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing - Jesus is worthy of glory, honor, riches and power, wisdom and strength and all blessings because He died for our sins and rose again. He is the God of Redemption as well as the God of Creation. The fact that He was slain is the highest reason for our praise. See Rev 4:11, 5:6; Dan 7:13, 14

Rev 5:13

Rev 5:14 - heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever - John the Revelator joins in the elation of seeing Jesus take of the sealed book and open its seals. His praise, which is heard by all the hosts of heaven and earth and those who dwell in the seas, is a type or foreshadowing of the redeemed and our praises to the Lamb that was slain and lives for evermore! See Rev 7:10

Rev 5:13

Rev 5:13 - Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne - See Rev 4:11, 7:12

Rev 5:13

Rev 5:13 - and unto the Lamb for ever and ever - See Rev 5:112

Rev 6:1

Rev 6:1 - that which caused Joh much consternation was resolved as Jesus alone prevailed to take the scroll from the hand of the Father and open the seals. See Rev 5:2-7

Rev 6:1

Rev 6:1 - as it were the noise of thunder - often a reference to the voice of God the Father - Perhaps the Father directing the 4 Living Creatures to guide Joh in beholding the opened seals. Joh 12:28-30

Rev 6:1

Rev 6:1 - one of the four beasts saying, Come and see - we see that hosts of heaven, the 4 Living Creatures, the Elders and the Angels all play a role in officiating a task in heaven and in communicating to Joh the Revs of Jesus Christ. Everything Joh was shown, he was to write and convey to the churches for their learning and admonition. See Rev 1:11, 19

Rev 6:2

Rev 6:2 - behold a white horse - a horse is likened to the people of God in Zech 10:3. The horse and its rider symbolize the victorious apostolic church of the first century that took the gospel of Christ to the ends of the earth - See Rev 2:1-7 Historically, Roman Generals rode white horses after a victory or conquest in war. This period of Christianity is marked as its heyday. The Disciples of Christ, including Peter and Paul, were led by the Spirit to successfully spread the gospel of Christ to the known world (Col 1:23, Act 1:4,5,8, 5:12-14). The white horse and garments speak of a PURE FAITH, where there was one Lord, one faith, and one baptism (Eph 4:5). There was unity in the spirit regarding the laws/commandments of God, diet, dress, Christian conduct and salvation was by grace, the free gift of God through faith of Jesus Christ (Act 4:12). Christianity grew by leaps and bounds. Act 5:14; 9:31. The early workings of persecution found in the following era, were however, seen in the Jew's persecution of the Christian Church (Act 8:1; Gal 1:11-14; 1 Thess 2:14-18).

Rev 6:2

Rev 6:2 - had a bow - the bow in the hand of the man riding the white horse suggests the church is an offensive minded church, going forth conquering and to conquer. A victorious church. See Rom 8:37

Rev 6:2

Rev 6:2 - and he went forth conquering, and to conquer - a fitting description of the early Christian church that went to war against all the systems of falsehood during the 1st Century. Compare Dan 7:5; Act 17:16-34

Rev 6:3

Rev 6:3 - And when he had opened the second seal - Jesus alone is opening the seals

Rev 6:4

Rev 6:4 - another horse that was red - See Rev 2:8-10 The history of the early church testified to the fulfillment of the Saviour's words. The powers of earth and hell arrayed themselves against Christ in the person of His followers. Paganism foresaw that should the gospel triumph, her temples and altars would be swept away; therefore she summoned her forces to destroy Christianity. The fires of persecution were kindled. Christians were stripped of their possessions and driven from their homes. They "endured a great fight of afflictions." Heb 10:32. They "had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment." Heb 11:36. Great numbers sealed their testimony with their blood. Noble and slave, rich and poor, learned and ignorant, were alike slain without mercy. - {GC 39.2} God's enemy, the red dragon, in an attempt to thwart the growth of God's Church invoked mass persecution of the saints (1 Thess. 2:14-18, Tit 1:10-16). Persecution came first with the Jews against the early Christian church, and then using the agency of Pagan Rome, following the Juo-Roman war (A.D.68-70 - Matt 24:15-20). Under Decius (249-251AD) and the Great Persecution enacted by Diocletian (284-305AD), Christians were tortured and martyred for their faith in Roman coliseums and stadiums [Paul wrote to encourage the Christians in Rome to keep the faith and to stand proud for the cross of Christ, an object of shame and derision for Rom but a symbol of victory in Christ - (Rom 1:15-17). To the Greeks, the Cross too was foolishness as they sought after wisdom (philosophy/science) - 1Cor 1:22, 23; 1 Tim 6:20,21]. Through public exhibition, followers of Christ were clothed in animals' skins and fed to lions, crucified, torn apart by the rack, covered with pitch and burned at the stake, and subject to all forms of torture. This period of the Red Horse and horseman is a "Blood-Stained Era" for the church. The peace that covered the earth in the first era was being robbed by the atrocities of the second [Rev 6:4]. However, the quicker one was martyred; two more would step forward, bearing the cross of Christ and the testimony of truth. The simple faith and conviction of the martyrs did more to attract new believers than the preaching of the Apostles. A Roman writer Tertillian wrote, "The blood of the martyrs is the seed of the gospel." The enemy's efforts to destroy Christianity helped to further the cause for Christ. Act 20:28, 29 In vain were Satan's efforts to destroy the church of Christ by violence. The great controversy in which the disciples of Jesus yielded up their lives did not cease when these faithful standard-bearers fell at their post. By defeat they conquered. God's workmen were slain, but His work went steadily forward. The gospel continued to spread and the number of its adherents to increase. It penetrated into regions that were inaccessible even to the eagles of Rome. Said a Christian, expostulating with the heathen rulers who were urging forward the persecution: You may "kill us, torture us, condemn us.... Your injustice is the proof that we are innocent Nor does your cruelty ... avail you." It was but a stronger invitation to bring others to their persuasion. "The oftener we are mown down by you, the more in number we grow; the blood of Christians is seed."—Tertullian, Apology, paragraph 50. - {GC 41.3}

Rev 6:4 - and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth - the devil of himself has not power. He must ask permission and God permitted him to take peace from the earth. An era of warfare arose after the era of the Pax Romana [civil war, barbarian forces, brutal persecution]. See Job 1:10-12; 2:5-7 Jesus spoke of sending a sword upon the earth rather than peace. He spoke of His message that would cause a shaking, and would divide the world either for Him and His Kingdom, or against Him and His Kingdom. See Heb 4:12, 12:26

Rev 6:5

Rev 6:5 - In February 313, Emperor Constantine I, who controlled the western part of the Roman Empire, and Licinius, who controlled the Balkans, met in Milan and, among other things, agreed to treat the Christians benevolently. Whether or not there was a formal 'Edict of Milan' is debatable. 321AD - First Sunday Law passed by Constantine 393AD - under Emperor Theodosius I, Roman Church became Catholic (Universal) and began to persecute faithful Christians [those upholding Bible truth and the Sabbath] Black the opposite of white; the black horse is indicative of a false faith and falsehood. The enemy of God began a different attack on the church of Christ where he used influential men, once spoken of by Christ as "ravenous wolves" (Matt 7:1) to assimilate with the believers and promote false doctrines. The enemy chose to "join God's ranks since he couldn't beat them". In joining God's church, the enemy hoped to bring destruction of true faith via false doctrines, replacing God's commandments with the traditions of men, and instilling in the church a spirit of compromise. God's enemy, through the agent of the Roman emperor Constantine (false conversion in 318AD) and through the ploy of religious compromise, united a civically unstable and religiously divided (part-Christian, part-Pagan, and part-Judaic) Rome at the expense of God's true faith. The once pagan emperor's self proclomation of conversion to the Christian faith, with the support of politically minded moreso than spiritually minded church officials, was a pivitol event in the mass and popular religious compromise within the church. The Apostle Paul warned of such savage wolves who from within the church would not spare the flock but would speak perverse things to draw away disciples after themselves (Act 20:28-30; 2 Thess 2:1-8 *v5). Once despised Christianity became en vogue as masses of pagans followed the emperors precident through a hoard of mock conversions. As a result, "Truth was cast to the ground" [Dan 8:12] and mass error seized the church. These errors included: the practice of idolotry through the adoration of saints, a throw-back of pagan idol worship (Dan 11:31); the "changing" of God's ordained day of worship and law, the seventh-day Sabbath (Saturday), through the Edict of Constantine [321AD] (Dan 7:25), to man's proclaimed holy day (venerable day of the sun), the first-day (Sunday) in ommemoration of Christ's resurrection, but actually an appeasment for recently converted pagans accustomed to worshipping on Sunday in honor of the pagan sun god, also a means to separate contemporary worship practices from the "traditionally" despised Judaic and early Christian customs; and the promotion of the doctrine of the immortality of the soul, another common pagan dogma. Gen 3:4, Act 20:30, 31; Dan 7:25 The great adversary now endeavored to gain by artifice what he had failed to secure by force. Persecution ceased, and in its stead were substituted the dangerous allurements of temporal prosperity and worldly honor. Idolaters were led to receive a part of the Christian faith, while they rejected other essential truths. They professed to accept Jesus as the Son of God and to believe in His death and resurrection, but they had no conviction of sin and felt no need of repentance or of a change of heart. With some concessions on their part they proposed that Christians should make concessions, that all might unite on the platform of belief in Christ. - {GC 42.3}

Rev 6:5 - black horse - worship compromised is worst than worthless. Satan therefore laid his plans to war more successfully against the government of God by planting his banner in the Christian church. If the followers of Christ could be deceived and led to displease God, then their strength, fortitude, and firmness would fail, and they would fall an easy prey. - {GC 42.2} The great adversary now endeavored to gain by artifice what he had failed to secure by force. As a result, "Truth was cast to the ground" [Dan 8:12] and mass error seized the church. These errors included: the practice of idolotry through the adoration of saints, a throw-back of pagan idol worship (Dan 11:31); the "changing" of God's ordained day of worship and law, the seventh-day Sabbath (Saturday), through the Edict of Constantine [321AD] (Dan 7:25), to man's proclaimed holy day (venerable day of the sun), the first-day (Sunday) in ommemoration of Christ's resurrection, but actually an appeasment for recently converted pagans accustomed to worshipping on Sunday in honor of the pagan sun god, also a means to separate contemporary worship practices from the "traditionally" despised Judaic and early Christian customs; and the promotion of the doctrine of the immortality of the soul, another common pagan dogma. Gen 3:4, Act 20:30, 31; Dan 7:25 Jesus Himself never purchased peace by compromise. His heart overflowed with love for the whole human race, but He was never indulgent to their sins. He was too much their friend to remain silent while they were pursuing a course that would ruin their souls,—the souls He had purchased with His own blood. He labored that man should be true to himself, true to his higher and eternal interest. The servants of Christ are called to the same work, and they should beware lest, in seeking to prevent discord, they surrender the truth. They are to "follow after the things which make for peace" (Rom 14:19); but real peace can never be secured by compromising principle. And no man can be true to principle without exciting opposition. A Christianity that is spiritual will be opposed by the children of disobedience. But Jesus bade His disciples, "Fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul." Those who are true to God need not fear the power of men nor the enmity of Satan. In Christ their eternal life is secure. Their only fear should be lest they surrender the truth, and thus betray the trust with which God has honored them. - {DA 356.1} The regulation adopted by the early colonists, of permitting only members of the church to vote or to hold office in the civil government, led to most pernicious results. This measure had been accepted as a means of preserving the purity of the state, but it resulted in the corruption of the church. A profession of religion being the condition of suffrage and officeholding, many, actuated solely by motives of worldly policy, united with the church without a change of heart. Thus the churches came to consist, to a considerable extent, of unconverted persons; and even in the ministry were those who not only held errors of doctrine, but who were ignorant of the renewing power of the Holy Spirit. Thus again was demonstrated the evil results, so often witnessed in the history of the church from the days of Constantine to the present, of attempting to build up the church by the aid of the state, of appealing to the secular power in support of the gospel of Him who declared: "My kingdom is not of this world." Joh 18:36. The union of the church with the state, be the degree never so slight, while it may appear to bring the world nearer to the church, does in reality but bring the church nearer to the world. - {GC 297.1}

Rev 6:6

Rev 6:6 - A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny, and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine - wheat, barley, oil and wine are often spoken together in the Old Testament and were the payment used to pay Hiram of Tyre for the timber and woodwork done in the building of the temple of the LORD. The Bible speaks of a scarcity in the land. See 2Chron 2:10, 15;

Rev 6:6

Rev 6:6 - a penny - Rev 6:6 (SDABC7): A penny. Gr. dēnarios, a coin worth some 11 cents in terms of modern monetary values (see Vol. V, p. 49). The Roman "penny" represented a day's wages for an ordinary laborer (see Matt. 20:2). Hence a day's ration of wheat for a day's labor represented barely sufficient food for the laborer and his family. Much less would be actual starvation. According to grain prices quoted by Cicero (Against Verres iii. 81) for Sicily, the prices mentioned by Joh were about 8 to 16 times the normal prices. However, in spite of famine, survival is possible. So God has ever preserved His children in times of need.

Rev 6:6

Rev 6:6 - hurt not the oil and the wine - the precious, blood bought souls are likened to oil and wine. Oil can also symbolize the Holy Spirit while the Wine may symbolize the blood of Christ. In order to secure man to Himself and ensure his eternal salvation, Christ left the royal courts of heaven and came to this earth, endured the agonies of sin and shame in man's stead, and died to make him free. In view of the infinite price paid for man's redemption, how dare any professing the name of Christ treat with indifference one of His little ones? How carefully should brethren and sisters in the church guard every word and action lest they hurt the oil and the wine! How patiently, kindly, and affectionately should they deal with the purchase of the blood of Christ! {5T 614.2}

Rev 6:8

Rev 6:8 - behold a pale horse - 533AD - Edict of Justinian gave Pope power to interpret Scriptures; declared him to be the establisher of kingly thrones (Prov 8:15) 538AD - Bibles were banned on punishment of death, Bishop of Rome ruled the world. The pale horse represents a people without the blood of Christ - people were reliant upon their own works, their own righteousness, carrying its own guilt, bearing its own fear, man is trying to work out its salvation under its own terms and is being crushed under its own yoke. The rider of the pale horse, Death, signifies the apparent demise of true religion and a dead, bloodless (lacking the blood and power of Jesus Christ) faith. This was an era of extreme spiritual darkness, also known as the "Dark Ages". During this period, few traces of God's true church, based on teachings of Christ, His Apostles and God's laws were evident. The unification of church and state by God's enemy through the vehicle of Papal Rome created a religio-political power where opposition to the Church of Rome was punishable by law- the penalty death. The enemy of God had been successful in distorting the image of true godliness demonstrated in the works of the early church for a false, self-serving, self-exalting religion that was founded on man's dogmas, vices, traditions and perversions of truth. By force, the title and authority of God's true church which was built upon Jesus Christ (1 Cor 3:10, 11) and His inspired writings of the bible, were usurped by the Roman Papal See. The spirit of compromise uniting Christ based religion with pagan practices that began during the Black Horse Era pervaded the doctrines espoused by the Church of Rome. Paganism had so infiltrated the church that Christianity came to be regarded as "Baptized Paganism". The era's "Dead Faith" brought spiritual heresies such as: Sunday sacredness as a day of worship in lieu of the original 7th day Sabbath; the institution of a heightened church hierarchy with the appointment of the Bishop of Rome (the Pope) by emperor Justinian in 508AD, above all other church officials; the unification of church and state where the Pope exercised religious authority but empowered by the arm of the state; the belief that salvation was dictated by the doctrine of the church rather than by the free, unmerited grace of God; the practice of indulgences (remission of temporal punishment through sacramental absolution [$$$]); penance, confession to a priest and acceptance of penalties and absolution; the worship of images or idols through the adoration of saints; human dogmas versus the bible; infant baptism and the replacement of water baptism by immersion with water sprinkling and many other heresies. The few loyal followers of Christ, those who strove to preserve the faith of the first church and adhere to the doctrines of Christ's Apostles, were forced to flee to the hills where the earth provided refuge for them from the determined Roman See (Rev 12:6, 14-16). Those who sought to serve God in spirit and in truth while avoiding the corruption of the world through the church's apostasy took up residence in caves, in high clefts of mountains and in the wilderness (Ju 3). When all appeared lost for the masses, bewitched by the doctrines of men, and for the cause of God's true church- those who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ (Rev 12:17), God raised up men and women of faith who would begin a Holy Reformation in protest [Protestant Reformation] to the church's debased condition. As the sun slowly peers through the night sky, bringing light where once reigned darkness, God brought forth a remembrance of His lost truths. We see the remembrance of God's truth through the workings of the Reformation and "The Rise of Christian Denominations".

Rev 6:8

Rev 6:8 - And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth - a quarter of the earth was held in the sway of the papacy during the Dark Ages. Those who opposed his rule were given to the sword, to hunger and imprisonment, and to death by beasts of the earth. Later in the Revelation, we see that all the world wonders after the same despicable power whose control and influence encompasses the earth; only those who follow Jesus the Lamb will stand strong against it. See Rev 6:9, Rev 13:3, 4

Rev 6:9

Rev 6:10 - I saw under the altar the souls of them - the language is purely symbolic, as no living person (souls) is under God's altar crying out for justice. The imagery is that of the martyrs' blood crying out from the alter of burnt offering in the Outer Court, requiring justice for the atrocities committed against them. See Mt 23:35, 36

Rev 6:9

Rev 6:11 - And white robes were given unto every one of them - See Rev 3:5, 19:8; Isa 62:12; Dan 12:10 At infinite cost a fountain has been prepared for our cleansing. If we now wash our robes of character at this fountain, God will give us a place in the mansions that are being prepared for those who love Him. - {ST November 22, 1905 Par. 3} As we were traveling along, we met a company who were also gazing at the glories of the place. I noticed red as a border on their garments; their crowns were brilliant; their robes were pure white.

As we greeted them, I asked Jesus who they were. He said they were martyrs that had been slain for Him. With them was an innumerable company of little ones; they had a hem of red on their garments also. {1T 68.2} This robe, woven in the loom of heaven, has in it not one thread of human devising. Christ in His humanity wrought out a perfect character, and this character He offers to impart to us. "All our righteousness are as filthy rags." Isa 64:6. Everything that we of ourselves can do is defiled by sin. But the Son of God "was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin." Sin is defined to be "the transgression of the law." 1Jo 3:5, 4. But Christ was obedient to every requirement of the law. He said of Himself, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God; yea, Thy law is within My heart." Ps 40:8. When on earth, He said to His disciples, "I have kept My Father's commandments." Joh 15:10. By His perfect obedience He has made it possible for every human being to obey God's commandments. When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life. This is what it means to be clothed with the garment of His righteousness. Then as the Lord looks upon us He sees, not the fig-leaf garment, not the nakedness and deformity of sin, but His own robe of righteousness, which is perfect obedience to the law of Jehovah. - {COL 311.4}

The sea boils like a pot, and the whole earth is in terrible commotion. The captivity of the righteous is turned, and with sweet and solemn whisperings they say to one another: "We are delivered. It is the voice of God." With solemn awe they listen to the words of the voice. The wicked hear, but understand not the words of the voice of God. They fear and tremble, while the saints rejoice. Satan and his angels, and wicked men, who had been exulting that the people of God were in their power, that they might destroy them from off the earth, witness the glory conferred upon those who have honored the holy law of God. They behold the faces of the righteous lighted up and reflecting the image of Jesus. Those who were so eager to destroy the saints cannot endure the glory resting upon the delivered ones, and they fall like dead men to the earth. See Ps 24:4, 130:3; Isa 25:9, 33:14-17; Compare Jer 25:30-33; Isa 24:19-22 Joh, exiled upon the Isle of Patmos, ... hears a voice saying, "I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last" (Rev 1:11). At the sound of the voice Joh falls down in astonishment as if dead. He is unable to bear the sight of the divine glory. But a hand raises Joh up, and the voice he remembers as the voice of his Master. He is strengthened and can endure to talk with the Lord Jesus. - {That I May Know Him 360.2} So will it be with the remnant people of God who are scattered—some in the mountain fastnesses, some exiled, some pursued, some persecuted. When the voice of God is heard and the brightness of the glory is revealed, when the trial is over, the dross removed, they know they are in the presence of One who has redeemed them by His own blood. {TMK 360.3} The child of God will be terror-stricken at the first sight of the majesty of Jesus Christ. He feels that he cannot live in His holy presence. But the word comes to him as to Joh, "Fear not." Jesus laid His right hand upon Joh; He raised him up from his prostrate position. So will He do unto His loyal, trusting ones. [23] - {That I May Know Him 360.4}

Rev 7:1 - holding the four winds - the four winds which rain destruction upon the earth is in contrast a typification of the Holy Spirit for the saints, He which seals and revives as noted in Eze 37:9, 10. The Holy Spirit guards and also prevents every wind of doctrine from blowing upon God's people who follow Him in Spirit and in truth (Eph 4:14). Angels are now restraining the winds of strife, that they may not blow until the world shall be warned of its coming doom; but a storm is gathering, ready to burst upon the earth; and when God shall bid His angels loose the winds, there will be such a scene of strife as no pen can picture. - {Ed 179.6} Joh sees the elements of nature—earthquake, tempest, and political strife—represented as being held by four angels. These winds are under control until God gives the word to let them go. There is the safety of God's church. The angels of God do His bidding, holding back the winds of the earth, that the winds should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree, until the servants of God should be sealed in their foreheads. - {Mar 266.3} The present is a time of overwhelming interest to all living. Rulers and statesmen, men who occupy positions of trust and authority, thinking men and women of all classes, have their attention fixed upon the events taking place about us. They are watching the strained, restless relations that exist among the nations. They observe the intensity that is taking possession of every earthly element, and they realize that something great and decisive is about to take place—that the world is on the verge of a stupendous crisis. - {Mar 266.4} Angels are now restraining the winds of strife, until the world shall be warned of its coming doom; but a storm is gathering, ready to burst upon the earth, and when God shall bid His angels loose the winds, there will be such a scene of strife as no pen can picture.... - {Mar 266.5} A moment of respite has been graciously given us of God. Every power lent us of heaven is to be used in doing the work assigned us by the Lord for those who are perishing in ignorance. The warning message is to be sounded in all parts of the world.... A great work is to be done, and this work has been entrusted to those who know the truth for this time. - {Mar 266.6}

Rev 7:2

Rev 7:2 - another angel ascending from the east - The east is the direction from which Jesus will return to the earth. We see in 1Kin 18: a cloud rising from the east, size of a man's fist that brought rain upon the land and in Rev 16:12 the kings of the east (Islam and Jesus) come from that direction. I asked my accompanying angel the meaning of what I heard, and what the four angels were about to do. He said to me that it was God that restrained the powers, and that He gave His angels charge over things on the earth; that the four angels had power from God to hold the four winds, and that they were about to let them go; but while their hands were loosening, and the four winds were about to blow, the merciful eye of Jesus gazed on the remnant that were not sealed, and He raised His hands to the Father and pleaded with Him that He had spilled His blood for them. Then another angel was commissioned to fly swiftly to the four angels and bid them hold, until the servants of God were sealed with the seal of the living God in their foreheads. - {EW 38.2}

Rev 7:2

Rev 7:2 - to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea - I asked my accompanying angel the meaning of what I heard, and what the four angels were about to do. He said to me that it was God that restrained the powers, and that He gave His angels charge over things on the earth; that the four angels had power from God to hold the four winds, and that they were about to let them go; but while their hands were loosening, and the four winds were about to blow, the merciful eye of Jesus gazed on the remnant that were not sealed, and He raised His hands to the Father and pleaded with Him that He had spilled His blood for them. Then another angel was commissioned to fly swiftly to the four angels and bid them hold, until the servants of God were sealed with the seal of the living God in their foreheads. - {EW 38.2}

Rev 7:3

Rev 7:3- Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees - the restraint placed upon the 4 winds began on 9/11 when radical Islam was restrained through the global war on terror. Coincident with the restraining of the 4 winds is the descent of the Angel of Rev 18, empowering the 1st message (Dan 11:40-45) with the buildings collapsing in NYC (MR11 #918). See Isa 27:8

Rev 7:3

Rev 7:3 - sealed the servants of our God - Those who have entered into God's rest (the Sabbath), have ceased from their (own) works. They who have yielded self entirely, have entered God's rest and therefore with the mind they serve God with all the heart. Heb 4:10 Those whose foreheads have been made strong by the LORD (grounded intellectually and spiritually) that they can not be moved (see Eze 3:8). They are irreversibly rooted in Jesus' righteousness. The Holy Spirit is He Who seals the children of God. See 2Cor 10:5; Jer 32:40; Eph 1:14, 4:30; Ps 57:7 Those who receive the seal of the living God, and are protected in the time of trouble, must reflect the image of Jesus fully. - {CET 112.2} Those who refuse to be hewed by the prophets, and fail to purify their souls in obeying the whole truth, and who are willing to believe that their condition is far better than it really is, will come up to the time of the falling of the plagues, and then see that they needed to be hewed and squared for the building. But there will be no time then to do it and no Mediator to plead their cause before the Father. Before this time the awfully solemn declaration has gone forth, "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still; and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still; and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still; and he that is holy, let him be holy still." - {CET 112.4} I saw that none could share the "refreshing," unless they obtain the victory over every besetment, over pride, selfishness, love of the world, and over every wrong word and action. We should, therefore, be drawing nearer and nearer to the Lord, and be earnestly seeking that preparation necessary to enable us to stand in the battle in the day of the Lord. Let all remember that God is holy, and that none but holy beings can ever dwell in His presence. - {CET 113.1} I asked my accompanying angel the meaning of what I heard, and what the four angels were about to do. He said to me that it was God that restrained the powers, and that He gave His angels charge over things on the earth; that the four angels had power from God to hold the four winds, and that they were about to let them go; but while their hands were loosening, and the four winds were about to blow, the merciful eye of Jesus gazed on the remnant that were not sealed, and He raised His hands to the Father, and pleaded with Him that He had spilled His blood for them. Then another angel was commissioned to fly swiftly to the four angels, and bid them hold, until the servants of God were sealed with the seal of the living God in their foreheads. - {CET 102.2} What is the condition of those who keep the commandments of God and have the faith of Jesus? If in families there are those who are refusing obedience to the Lord in keeping His Sabbath, then the seal cannot be placed upon them. The sealing is a pledge from God of perfect security to His chosen ones. Sealing indicates you are God's chosen. He has appropriated you to Himself. As the sealed of God we are Christ's purchased possession, and no one shall pluck us out of His hands.—Manuscript 59, 1895 (Manuscript Releases, vol. 15, pp. 223-225). {CTr 102.6} We may talk of the blessings of the Holy Spirit, but unless we prepare ourselves for its reception, of what avail are our works? Are we striving with all our power to attain to the stature of men and women in Christ? Are we seeking for His fullness, ever pressing toward the mark set before us—the perfection of His character? When the Lord's people reach this mark, they will be sealed in their foreheads. Filled with the Spirit, they will be complete in Christ, and the recording angel will declare, "It is finished." - {OHC 150.6} Said the angel, "List ye!" Soon I heard a voice like many musical instruments all sounding in perfect strains, sweet and harmonious. It surpassed any music I had ever heard, seeming to be full of mercy, compassion, and elevating, holy joy. It thrilled through my whole being. Said the angel, "Look ye!" My attention was then turned to the company I had seen, who were mightily shaken. I was shown those whom I had before seen weeping and praying in agony of spirit. The company of guardian angels around them had been doubled, and they were clothed with an armor from their head to their feet. They moved in exact order, like a company of soldiers. Their countenances expressed the severe conflict which they had endured, the agonizing struggle they had passed through. Yet their features, marked with severe internal anguish, now shone with the light and glory of heaven. They had obtained the victory, and it called forth from them the deepest gratitude and holy, sacred joy. - {EW 270.4}

Rev 7:9 - lo, a great multitude, which no man could number - See Hos 1:10; Num 23:10 Huge Multitude Redeemed—Nearest the throne are those who were once zealous in the cause of Satan, but who, plucked as brands from the burning, have followed their Saviour with deep, intense devotion. Next are those who perfected Christian characters in the midst of falsehood and infidelity, those who honored the law of God when the Christian world declared it void, and the millions, of all ages, who were martyred for their faith. And beyond is the "great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues ... before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands." Revelation 7:9. Their warfare is ended, their victory won. They have run the race and reached the prize. The palm branch in their hands is a symbol of their triumph, the white robe an emblem of the spotless righteousness of Christ which now is theirs.—The Great Controversy, 665. - {Hvn 83.1} Among earth's inhabitants, scattered in every land, there are those who have not bowed the knee to Baal. Like the stars of heaven, which appear only at night, these faithful ones will shine forth when darkness covers the earth and gross darkness the people. In heathen Africa, in the Catholic lands of Europe and of South America, in China, in India, in the islands of the sea, and in all the dark corners of the earth, God has in reserve a firmament of chosen ones that will yet shine forth amidst the darkness, revealing clearly to an apostate world the transforming power of obedience to His law. Even now they are appearing in every nation, among every tongue and people; and in the hour of deepest apostasy, when Satan's supreme effort is made to cause "all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond," to receive, under penalty of death, the sign of allegiance to a false rest-day, these faithful ones, "blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke," will "shine as lights in the world." [44] - {SD 363.2} Let us remember that there is a grand meeting to take place ere long. Everlasting life is before us, and the city of God. Angels of God will be there, and Christ will be there. [45] - {SD 363.3} The gates of the city will swing back on their glittering hinges, and the nations that have kept the truth will enter in. A crown will be placed on every head. The words will be spoken, "Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world." Whom is it prepared for?—For the obedient; those who keep His commandments, and do His will... As holy angels touch their harps, He wants you to follow, singing the song of triumph in the city of God. [46] - {SD 363.4}

Rev 7:13 - And one of the elders answered - the elders are mighty angels and can not be among the redeemed, as he asks Joh the identity of this multitude of redeemed. See Rev 5:5, 8, 9 Joh saw a company standing around the throne of God, and the angel asked him, Who are these in white robes? He answered, thou knowest. And the angel said, "These are they who have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." (See Rev 7:13, 14). There is a fountain in which we may wash from every stain of impurity. And says the angel, "He shall lead them to fountains of living waters, and shall wipe away all tears from their eyes." (See V. 17.) This will be the happy privilege of those that have kept the commandments of God in the earth. - {1SAT 20.2} Joh beholds an innumerable company, precious, refined, purified, around the throne of the Majesty of Heaven. The angel inquires of Joh, "What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?" and Joh answers, "Sir, thou knowest." Then the angel declares: "These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them." Now we have the precious opportunity of washing our robes of character in the blood of the Lamb till they are spotless in his purity. To all who shall do this the promise is, "They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.” - {ST December 22, 1887 Par. 7}

Rev 7:13 - arrayed in white robes - See Rev 3:5, 6:11, 19:8; Matt 10:32

Rev 7:14

Rev 7:14 - these are they which came out of great tribulation - those who are sealed among the 144,000 and the great multitude will have to live on the earth without a mediator in the Holy Spirit, enduring great tribulation. See Dan 12:1 The great tribulation here may refer to the inward transformation that is required in each individual that shall received the Kingdom of God. We must all gain the victory in the warfare with self and sin so that we may be found worthy to be numbered among the heavenly host. We must endure great hardship, wash our robes in the blood of Christ so that we may gain the victory. Consider the counsel given to a sister in Christ regarding her complete conversion and it preparing her to be counted one "who has come through great tribulation" There is light and salvation for you if you will only feel that you must have it or perish. Jesus can save to the uttermost. But, Sister G, if God has ever spoken by me, you are terribly deceived in regard to yourself, and must have a thorough conversion, or you will never be one of that number who have come up through great tribulation, having washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. - {2T 60.1} Children of the Lord, how precious is the promise! How full the atonement of the Saviour for our guilt! The Redeemer, with a heart of unalterable love, still pleads His sacred blood in the sinner's behalf. The wounded hands, the pierced side, the marred feet, plead eloquently for fallen man, whose redemption is purchased at such an infinite cost. Oh, matchless condescension! Neither time nor events can lessen the efficacy of the atoning sacrifice. As the fragrant cloud of incense rose acceptably to heaven, and Aaron sprinkled the blood upon the mercy seat of ancient Israel and cleansed the people from guilt, so the merits of the slain Lamb are accepted by God today as a purifier from the defilement of sin. - {4T 124.3} "Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation." There are stern battles for you to fight. You should put on the whole armor of righteousness and prove yourselves strong and true in your Redeemer's service. God wants no idlers in His field, but colaborers with Christ, vigilant sentinels at their posts, valiant soldiers of the cross, ready to do and dare all things for the cause in which they are enlisted. - {4T 124.4} It is not wealth or intellect that gives happiness; it is true moral worth and a sense of duty performed. You may have the overcomer's reward and stand before the throne of Christ to sing His praises in the day when He assembles His saints; but your robes must be cleansed in the blood of the Lamb, and charity must cover you as a garment, and you be found spotless and without blemish. - {4T 125.1} Joh says: "After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; and cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb." "These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. As Joh saw the multitude standing around the throne of God, the question was asked, "What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?" The angel answered, "These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." At infinite cost a fountain has been prepared for our cleansing. If we now wash our robes of character at this fountain, God will give us a place in the mansions that are being prepared for those who love Him. - {ST November 22, 1905 Par. 3}

Rev 8:1

Rev 8:1 - there was silence in heaven - the Father remains in heaven, observing the gathering of His children from the earth by His Son, Jesus Christ. Act 3:20

Rev 8:1

Rev 8:1 - half an hour - On our transport with Jesus and the angels (Mk 8:38) from earth to heaven, it will require 7.5 literal days. A Sabbath will be spent in transit before we reach heaven. This is so that those among the redeemed who were ignorant of the Sabbath will learn of this truth, and will keep the Sabbath according to the commandment. Then all will be able to enter into the kingdom and will have a right to the tree of life who keep His commandments (Rev 22:14) It appears that the Second Coming of Christ will involve Jesus, the angels AND the Father (Mt 16:27; Mk 8:38). A portion of the angels and the Father will apparent return to heaven before the grand procession of the redeemed in order to welcome them as they come to the pearly gates. The LORD Jesus will tarry for 7.5 days in order that all would have kept a Sabbath rest and will therefore have a right to the Tree of Life. Praise God! The sacrifice of our Saviour has made ample provision for every repenting, believing soul. We are saved because God loves the purchase of the blood of Christ; and not only will he pardon the repentant sinner, not only will he permit him to enter heaven, but he, the Father of mercies, will wait at the very gates of heaven to welcome us, to give us an abundant entrance to the mansions of the blest. Oh what love, what wondrous love the Father has shown in the gift of his beloved Son for this fallen race! And this Sacrifice is a channel for the outflow of his infinite love, that all who believe on Jesus Christ may, like the prodigal son, receive full and free restoration to the favor of Heaven. - {RH September 21, 1886 Par. 12}

Rev 8:2 - to them were given seven trumpets - The seven angels are given seven trumpets, heralding God's judgments upon Pagan Rome (Trumpets 1-4) and Papal Rome and its emissaries (Trumpets 5-7 & the Woes).

Rev 8:3

Rev 8:3 - And another angel came and stood at the altar - The Angel of the Lord, Jesus Christ Himself, is He Who bears the prayers of the saints as incense to the Father. See Ex 3:2; Ps 141:1, 2

Rev 8:3

Rev 8:3 - the golden censor is filled with live coals, representing the Holy Spirit. See Rev 3:5; Isa 6:6, 7; Mt 3:11

Rev 8:3

Rev 8:3 - much incense - the incense provide a sweet smell, masking the stench of our sins.

Rev 8:3

Rev 8:3 - that he should offer it with the prayers of all the saints - the censor full of incense make atonement for our sins. See Num 16:43-47; Rom 8:27 the prayers and petitions of the saints has for centuries been "how long, oh God" (see: Rev 6:10, 11; Dan 8:13; Rev 13:10) until His retributive judgments fall upon those who tread down His people and sanctuary. The censor and the incense are taken within the veil, into the Most Holy Place by the Great High Priest, Jesus Christ, where judgments are to be made and God's people are to be vindicated. Jesus, through His intercession for us, makes our prayers pleasing to the Father. See Rom 8:34; Heb 7:25

Rev 8:3

Rev 8:3 - offer it with the prayers of all saints - See Rev 5:8 He explained that the secret of their success would be in asking for strength and grace in His name. He would be present before the Father to make request for them. The prayer of the humble suppliant He presents as His own desire in that soul's behalf. Every sincere prayer is heard in heaven. It may not be fluently expressed; but if the heart is in it, it will ascend to the sanctuary where Jesus ministers, and He will present it to the Father without one awkward, stammering word, beautiful and fragrant with the incense of His own perfection. - {DA 667.3}

Rev 8:4

Rev 8:4 - And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand - the Angel of the Lord presents the prayers of the saints to God while mixing His own groanings and petitions on our behalf. See Heb 7:25; Lev 16:13

Rev 8:5

Rev 8:5 - fire of the alter - the fire from the alter is that which purifies and cleanses God's people. The Holy Spirit, like Jesus the Lion and the Lamb, fulfills two roles in the Plan of Redemption. The fire from the alter is that which purifies the righteous (Isa 6:6, 7; Mt 3:11), causing their sins to be removed. Similarly, it empowers the righteous to proclaim with power the gospel of Christ to the world (Act 1:8). The same Holy Spirit is a reprover to the wicked, bringing judgment upon the unrighteous. The fire that descended upon the sons of Aaron from the Holy Spirit is a reprover/destroyer to the wicked.

Rev 8:5

Rev 8:5 - cast it into the earth - the censor is filled with fire of the Holy Spirit and cast to the earth, symbolizing those who are empowered by the Holy Spirit being spread abroad upon the earth to bring the last warning message to earth's inhabitants. The immediately precedes the close of probation when the Holy Spirit will seal the righteous and bring judgments upon the wicked through the 7 last plagues. This instance of the censor being cast down, prior to the issuance of the 7 trumpets may signify the judgment of Rome having met its completion and judgments to ensue. I saw angels hurrying to and fro in heaven. An angel with a writer's inkhorn by his side returned from the earth and reported to Jesus that his work was done, and the saints were numbered and sealed. Then I saw Jesus, who had been ministering before the ark containing the ten commandments, throw down the censor. He raised His hands, and with a loud voice said, "It is done". And all the angelic host laid off their crowns as Jesus made the solemn declaration, "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still." - {EW 279.2}

Arising out of the Bottomless Pit (a symbol of desolation - Arabia), Islam exhibited the following characteristics: 1. Islam's leader characterized by a fallen star from heaven, unlocking pit in 612AD. 2. Smoke rises from the pit covering the Sun of Righteousness, Jesus Christ. Islam darkens knowledge of Jesus

Rev 9:1 - a star fall from heaven unto the earth: a star fall from heaven denotes: 1. Satan - Jesus said I beheld Satan like lightning fall from heaven (Lk 10:18) 2. Fallen Angels - Satan drew 1/3 angels from heaven (Rev 12:4) 3. A manifestation of Satan - a person or work of Satanic origin - See Rev 8:10, great star from heaven was Atilla the Hun - appearance was distinct, as if from outer space, being from Asia (Mongolia) and mighty in battle. This STAR represents another Satanic manifestation, again whose appearance is distinct, as from outer space, Islam.

Rev 9:1

Rev 9:1 - star - refers to Mohammed who claimed to be a direct descendant of Ishmael, the bondservant son of Abraham. Mohammed was born in Mecca near end of 6th century. Lands of Arabia were free, barren lands, unconquered by any kingdoms and was a haven for persecuted sects of people: Jews, Christians, Persian fire-worshippers, representatives of all sects and beliefs. Mohammed was a serious person and annually retired to a cave for a month for prayer and fasting. After one such season of prayer and fasting he returned to Mecca, declaring his belief in one God following a visit from the angel Gabriel and that he was his prophet. Mohammed convinced first his family and developed a following. It is believed that in 622AD, after gaining a following and rejected by others, he and his followers journeyed from Mecca to Medina; commencing the start of Islamic time. Mohammed was opposed to the forms and ceremonies practiced by the varying worshippers in Mecca - professed Christians that worshipped images of saints and martyrs. He promoted a simple faith comprised of fasting, giving alms (acts of charity), pilgrimage, and prayer 5x a day. Adherents were taught that the pleasures of life would be enjoyed in exaggerated form eternally for their faithfulness. However, there was but one word of caution for the foreigner: "Confess there is one God, and that Mohammed is His prophet; pay tribute or choose death". Though true that Mohammed's religion was simpler, devoid of the rites ceremonies and idols of the apostate Greek Catholics, Mohammed's rejection of Christ left he and his followers with nowhere to place their faith except themselves and their own righteousness. Therefore, while the devil was causing men to commit fornication, worshipping men in the pope of Rome, and eating things sacrificed to idols in the west, he raised up another scourge in the east with men finding righteousness in their own works- an equally dangerous device for destroying souls

Rev 9:1 - key of the bottomless pit - This is that same abyss or bottomless pit of Rev 11:7 from which the beast of Spiritualism arises and that which emerges is a manifestation of Spiritualism

Rev 9:2

Rev 9:2 - sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke from the pit - Islam and its tenets denies the divinity of Christ and as a scourge, takes souls away from God's Plan of Redemption. Islam seeks to obscure the Bright and Morning Star and the Sun of Righteousness. See Rev 22:16; Mal 4:2

Rev 9:3

Rev 9:3 - And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth - Symbolic of that which destroys economic strength, causes darkness, casting out the Sun (of Righteousness), covers and desolates the earth and marches in ranks as an army (Joe 1:4, 2:2-11, 25). The end time symbol of Islam, the descendants of Ishmael, inhabiting the east who prophetically were to dwell among their own and be a scourge to all men upon the earth (Gen 16:11, 12). The locusts that served as a plague to Egypt (the world) in the time of the exodus were brought by the East Wind, they darkened the land, and were said to be unlike any other scourge of locust before or ever after. The imagery of locusts is appropriate for the spread of Islam under Mohammed that by 632AD had united the Arabian Peninsula under its banner. Within 100 years, in 732AD, Islam had nearly over-run the world and subdued Western Europe had it not been checked by the Battle of Tours in France.

The grass, tree and green things are symbols of commandment-keeping followers of God (Lk 23:31; Hos 14:8; Isa 61:3), both Christian and Jews, who preserved the true biblical faith, who were spared the destruction of Islamic forces, provided they agree to pay tribute. See Joh 15:6; Deut 20:19, 20

SUMMARY OF OTTOMAN FALL Russia and Turkey in 1830's were two major Super Powers on the decline. In 1838, Turkey suppressed a rebellion by Egypt, who then offered to pay the Turkish sultan tribute of $750,000,000. This was obviously a stalling tactic because Egypt successfully attacked the Turks the next year (1839), captured its naval fleet, and decimating its army. With only three ships left and a greatly weakened army, battles in 1840 would obviously witness the complete destruction of the Ottoman Empire and new dominance by Egyptian extremists, that is, unless God moved upon Christian nations to help the Ottomans. God is great! He controls destinies; and to maintain a balance of power and stability in that region, He intervened to avoid massive battles and the shedding of blood. England, Russia, Austria and Prussia, four Christian nations with their massive fleets, came to Turkey's assistance and established ultimatums against Egypt. They reduced the boundaries of Egyptian rule and forced the pasha of Egypt, Mehemet Ali, to return the fleet to the Turkish Sultan. Note this point: The weakened Ottoman Empire legally admitted that their existence depended upon the support of Christian nations when this ultimatum took effect, as it was hand delivered to the Egyptians by the Turkish envoy on August 11, 1840, in fulfillment of Bible prophecy. The humbled Sultan of the Ottoman Empire saved his reign and probably his life by accepting this protection from those Christian powers. The Turkish Sultan then watched the dismemberment of his weakened Empire as his "protectors" appropriated parts of his dominion to their own use, piece by piece.

Rev 9:15

Rev 9: 15 - which were prepared for an hour, a day, a month, and a year - In the year 1840 another remarkable fulfillment of prophecy excited widespread interest. Two years before, Josiah Litch, one of the leading ministers preaching the second advent, published an exposition of Rev 9, predicting the fall of the Ottoman Empire. According to his calculations, this power was to be overthrown “in A.D. 1840, sometime in the month of August;” and only a few days previous to its accomplishment he wrote: “Allowing the first period, 150 years, to have been exactly fulfilled before Deacozes ascended the throne by permission of the Turks, and that the 391 years, fifteen days, commenced at the close of the first period, it will end on the 11th of August, 1840, when the Ottoman power in Constantinople may be expected to be broken. And this, I believe, will be found to be the case.”—Josiah Litch, in Signs of the Times, and Expositor of Prophecy, August 1, 1840. - {GC 334.4} At the very time specified, Turkey, through her ambassadors, accepted the protection of the allied powers of Europe, and thus placed herself under the control of Christian nations. The event exactly fulfilled the prediction. (See Appendix.) When it became known, multitudes were convinced of the correctness of the principles of prophetic interpretation adopted by Miller and his associates, and a wonderful impetus was given to the advent movement. Men of learning and position united with Miller, both in preaching and in publishing his views, and from 1840 to 1844 the work rapidly extended. - {GC 335.1}

Rev 10:1 - clothed with a cloud - a cloud appears/descends denoting a change in dispensation. In the history of the COI in the wilderness, when the LORD descended in the cloud and hovered above the tabernacle, the COI were to remain in their tents and not move. When the cloud was taken up, they were to move with it (Number 9). Similarly, when Jesus is seen coming in the clouds of heaven in Dan 7:13 (Mt 24:30), He changes His dispensation from His work in the Holy Place to the Holiest of Holy. Jesus here descends to affirm and empower the Advent Movement, to lift them up as an ensign to the world that a prophet was among them. See Deut 18:18

Rev 10:1

Rev 10:1 - a rainbow was upon His head - the rainbow is the sign of the covenant. God keeps His promises. Jesus, the Messenger of the Covenant (Mal 3:1) has descended to consecrate a people to His sacred work. See Ezekiel 1:26-28

Rev 10:1

Rev 10:1 - his face was as it were the sun - See Eze 1:27, Dan 10:6; Rev 1:14, 19:12

Rev 10:1

Rev 10:1 - his feet as pillars of fire - See

Rev 10:2

Rev 10:2 - And he had in his hand a little book open - The Little Book that is open in the hand of the mighty angel (JESUS) is nothing other than the book of Dan that had been sealed (Dan 12:4, 9). The Lion of the Tribe of Judah has prevailed in unsealing the scroll (Rev 5)

Rev 10:2

Rev 10:2 - The Little Book that is open in the hand of the mighty angel (JESUS) is nothing other than the book of Dan that had been sealed (Dan 12:4, 9). The Lion of the Tribe of Judah has prevailed in unsealing the scroll (Rev 5)

Rev 10:2

Rev 10:2 - right foot upon the sea - densely populated areas of the earth. See Rev 17:15

Rev 10:2

Rev 10:2 - his left foot on the earth - a sparsely populated area of the earth - See Rev 13:11 The mighty angel who instructed Joh was no less a personage than Jesus Christ. Setting His right foot on the sea, and His left upon the dry land, shows the part which He is acting in the closing scenes of the great controversy with Satan. This position denotes His supreme power and authority over the whole earth. 1MR vol 28

Rev 10:3

Rev 10:3 - And cried with a loud voice - See Ps 29:1-11, 68:33; Joh 11:43

Rev 10:3

Rev 10:4 - as when a lion roareth - the roar of a lion is such that it projects almost uniformly in all directions (Lk 5:1-3), thus confusing the prey for they know not what direction it approaches. So too, the message of the first angel was sent broadly around the world. As the LORD speaks as a lion, the prophetic word, which is typified throughout this chapter is to be spoken. See Isa 5:29; Am 3:8

Rev 10:3

Rev 10:3 - seven thunders - The special light given to Joh which was expressed in the seven thunders was a delineation of events which would transpire under the first and second angels' messages. It was not best for the people to know these things, for their faith must necessarily be tested. In the order of God, most wonderful and advanced truths would be proclaimed. The first and second angels' messages were to be proclaimed, but no further light was to be revealed before these messages had done their specific work. This is represented by the angel standing with one foot on the sea, proclaiming with a most solemn oath that time should be no longer. {1 MR No. 28 pg 99.2} After these seven thunders uttered their voices, the injunction comes to Joh as to Dan in regard to the little book: "Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered" (Rev 10:4). These relate to future events which will be disclosed in their order. Dan shall stand in his lot at the end of the days. Joh sees the little book unsealed. Then Dan's prophecies have their proper place in the first, second, and third angels' messages to be given to the world. The unsealing of the little book was the message in relation to time. - {1MR 99.1}

Rev 10:4 - And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: - heeding the command given to Him by Jesus at the start of the book, Joh seeks to write down what he hears in the 7-Thunders. See Rev 1:19

Rev 10:4

Rev 10:4 - uttered their voices - the voice of God is likened to thunder (Joh 12:28-30; 1Sam 2:10; Job 40:9). Therefore, the 7 thunders represent 7 instances in which God spoke during a sacred history that was to be heard and heeded by the people living under those thunders.

Rev 10:4

Rev 10:4 - Seal up those things - See Dan 12:4, 9; Compare Rev 22:10; 2Cor 12:4 Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered" (Rev 10:4). These relate to future events which will be disclosed in their order. Dan shall stand in his lot at the end of the days. Joh sees the little book unsealed. Then Dan's prophecies have their proper place in the first, second, and third angels' messages to be given to the world. The unsealing of the little book was the message in relation to time. - {1MR 99.1} the work of the seven thunders and the Mighty Angel (declaration that time would be no more) needed to be completed before an understanding of the seven thunders could be revealed. This verse contrasts with Rev 22:10 where Joh is told to write all the prophecies of the Book. However, similar to Dan, Joh was to seal the words of the seven thunders until they would stand in their lot, when the mystery of the seven thunders would be revealed. This unsealing would like in 1798, begin a reformatory movement with the establishment of two classes of people. Rev 22:11 furnishes that the time of the unsealing of the 7 Thunders would occur shortly before the close of humankind's probation.

Rev 10:5

Rev 10:5, 6- lifted up his hand to heaven and swore by Him that liveth forever and ever - See Deut 32:40; Dan 12:7

Rev 10:6

Rev 10:6 - The angel that cries with a Loud Voice, "swares by Him that lives for ever" [see Deut 32:39, 40; Dan 12:7], has a rainbow as His glory over His head [see Eze 1:26-28], and whose cry is echoed by seven thunders is none other than Jesus Christ. Jesus descends on August 11, 1840 with the unsealed book of Dan in His hand, beckoning Joh [those who hear the Advent Message] to eat the Little Book

Rev 10:6

Rev 10:6 - And swear by him that liveth for ever and ever - The angel that cries with a Loud Voice, "swares by Him that lives for ever" [see Deut 32:39, 40; Dan 12:7; Heb 6:13], has a rainbow as His glory over His head [see Eze 1:26-28], and whose cry is echoed by seven thunders is none other than Jesus Christ. Jesus descends on August 11, 1840 with the unsealed book of Dan in His hand, beckoning Joh [those who hear the Advent Message] to eat the Little Book. Jesus swearing by Him the livery for ever and ever is a tell tale sign of divinity.

Rev 10:6

Rev 10:6 - who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein - the Mighty Angel swears by the God of Creation, Himself (Gen 22:16; Heb 6:13, 14). We see the same reference to the God of Creation by the 1st Angel of Rev 14. See Rev 14:7; Ex 20:8-11; Col 1:16; Heb 1:2, 10, 2:10, 3:4

Rev 10:6

Rev 10:6 - that there should be time no longer: - The long chains of prophetic time prophecies have their end on October 22, 1844 with the conclusion of the 2300 day prophecy and the Second Time of Scattering, the 2,520 year prophecy for the Southern Kingdom Judah. This definite time, confirmed by an oath by the Mighty Angel, is coincident with the angel's proclamation in Rev 14:6, 7 that "the hour of His judgment is come". The preaching of a definite time for the judgment, in the giving of the first message, was ordered by God. The computation of the prophetic periods on which that message was based, placing the close of the 2300 days in the autumn of 1844, stands without impeachment. The repeated efforts to find new dates for the beginning and close of the prophetic periods, and the unsound reasoning necessary to sustain these positions, not only lead minds away from the present truth, but throw contempt upon all efforts to explain the prophecies. The more frequently a definite time is set for the second advent, and the more widely it is taught, the better it suits the purposes of Satan. After the time has passed, he excites ridicule and contempt of its advocates, and thus casts reproach upon the great advent movement of 1843 and 1844. Those who persist in this error will at last fix upon a date too far in the future for the coming of Christ. Thus they will be led to rest in a false security, and many will not be undeceived until it is too late. - {GC 457.1} The world placed all time-proclamation on the same level and called it a delusion, fanaticism and heresy. Ever since 1844 I have borne my testimony that we were now in a period of time in which we are to take heed to ourselves lest our hearts be overcharged with surfeiting and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon us unawares. Our position has been one of waiting and watching, with no time-proclamation to intervene between the close of the prophetic periods in 1844 and the time of our Lord's coming. We do not know the day nor the hour, or when the definite time is, and yet the prophetic reckoning shows us that Christ is at the door. - {10MR 270.1} Satan saw that he could work upon your fruitful imagination, and lead you, with others, into his net. Did God give you that time message? No; for no such message comes from the true Source of light.... Time has proved you to be a false prophet, and Anna's visions false exercises. God never works in this way. - {2SM 80.2} There will always be false and fanatical movements made by persons in the church who claim to be led of God—those who will run before they are sent, and will give day and date for the occurrence of unfulfilled prophecy. The enemy is pleased to have them do this, for their successive failures and leading into false lines cause confusion and unbelief.—Letter 28, 1897. - {2SM 84.3}

Rev 10:7

Rev 10:7 - days of the voice of the seventh angel - (See Mt 24:31) the word "days" signifies years. The days of the voice of the 7th Trumpet, starting on October 22, 1844 (Rev 11:15-17, 19) includes: 1. The era when the Loud Cry of the 3rd and 4th Angel's Messages goes forth 2. The close of probation 3. The falling of the plagues 4. The Second Coming of Jesus Christ 5. The 1000yrs when the righteous will reign with Jesus, judging the wicked 6. The resurrection and White Throne Judgment of the wicked 7. The destruction of the wicked after the 1000yrs when thrown into the Lake of Fire which is the 2nd Death 8. The re-creation of the earth Beyond October 22, 1844, the sounding of the Seventh Angel's Trumpet. As the 1-4 trumpets announced the overthrow of the Western Roman Empire, the 5th and 6th announced the overthrow of the Eastern Roman (Byzantine) Empire, so the 7th trumpet announces the overthrow of Modern Babylon and all kingdoms of the earth by God's everlasting kingdom. See Dan 2:44; Rev 11:15-19; Mic 4:13; Jer 51:33

Rev 10:7

Rev 10:7 - when he shall begin to sound - given the breadth in time of the 7th Trumpet, the era noting the "beginning" of its sound must be on this side of eternity, before the Second Coming of Jesus Christ and before the close of mankind's probation.

Rev 10:7

Rev 10:7 - mystery of God - The mystery of God is: A message to the living righteous during their hour of probation, the work of salvation for fallen man through the gospel of Christ that includes - 1. The mystery of the Gospel (Eph 6:19, 20; Rom 16:25; 1Tim 3:16) seen in a

The predestination of all men to become Sons of God before the foundation of the world by the merits of Jesus Christ - Eph 1:5; 2Cor 6:18 b. The miraculous incarnation of Jesus Christ in fallen human flesh after 4000yrs of sin to become our sin-pardoning Savior - Gal 4:4; Heb 2:14-18. The Mystery of the Gospel - God manifest in human flesh - the incarnation of Jesus Christ in fallen human flesh. That Jesus first came as One of us, He now offers His abiding presence within us by virtue of the Holy Spirit - Christ in You the Hope of Glory c. The perfect, sinless life of Jesus Christ where He never yielded to the flesh but held on to His Father's hands by faith - {In a view given June 27, 1850, my accompanying angel said, "Time is almost finished. Do you reflect the lovely image of Jesus as you should?" - EW 64} {Isa 7:14, 15; Heb 4:13, 14; Prov 30:33; 1Pet 2:21, 22} d. The atoning death on the cross where Jesus became sin for all men so that He may bear our sins unto death, the 2nd death in His humanity - Gal 3:13, 2:20; Rom 2:4; 1Pet 2:21-24 e. The resurrection of Jesus Christ with power, having conquered sin and the grave, taking on a glorified body, and having become a life-quickening Spirit to give a new life to all who believe by faith - {1Cor 15:12-23, 41-51; 1Jo 3:2, 3; 1Pet 1:3-5. - Power of God (Rom 1:16) is Creative Power} The study of the incarnation of Christ, His atoning sacrifice and mediatorial work, will employ the mind of the diligent student as long as time shall last; and looking to heaven with its unnumbered years he will exclaim, "Great is the mystery of godliness." - {COL 133.4} 2. God would gather unto Himself all men of all nations into one body - no distinctions, no walls of separation, no more enmity. All who by faith of Jesus Christ accept God's blessings and promises and are baptized into Jesus' death, become the seed of Abraham and heirs of God's eternal kingdom by promise: Rom 4:6-16; DA 33.2; Eph 3:1-6; 2:13-22; Lk 2:30-32||Act 15:14-18||Isa 49:6, 60:1-3, 42:6||Am 9:11, 12; Gal 3:8, 9, 14, 26-29 3; 1Thess 2:14-16. God would gather together the family in heaven and the family in earth as one united family in Christ Jesus. In so doing, God would fulfill the eternal purpose which He purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord (Eph 3:11) - Eph 1:9, 10, 3:14, 15; 1Cor 15:47-49||1Jo 3:1, 2; Col 1:20, 16, 17; Rev 22:9 || 19:10 || Dan 10:21 - angels understand aspects of this mystery that men do not yet comprehend [mankind would replace the fallen angels - {God created man for His own glory, that after test and trial the human family might become one with the heavenly family. It was God's purpose to repopulate heaven with the human family. The vacancies made in heaven by the fall of Satan and his angels will be filled by the redeemed of the Lord. —The S.D.A. Bible Commentary 1:1082. - {TA - (The Truth about Angels) 48.7, 49.1}} God's eternal purpose (Eph 3:10, 11) [that which existed from eternity past, before the creation of anything, and that which will exist in the future, throughout the ceaseless ages of eternity] was frustrated when Lucifer, his rebel angels, and mankind sinned, but through the cross and redemption found in Jesus Christ, it will once again be made manifest. As Creator of all things in heaven and in earth, visible or invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities or powers, All must acknowledge, bow, and worship Jesus Christ the Lord. The opening of the second apartment of the temple in heaven where: a. Jesus finishes His priestly ministrations - Heb 2:17 b. The place of the tribunal where the righteous are acquitted, their sins blotted out and they are accounted worthy of the Kingdom of God (Lk 21:36) c. Where the Great Controversy is finally resolved - But the disciples had not yet received the complete fulfillment of Christ's promise. They received all the knowledge of God that they could bear, but the complete fulfillment of the promise that Christ would show them plainly of the Father was yet to come. Thus it is today. Our knowledge of God is partial and imperfect. When the conflict is ended and the Man Christ Jesus acknowledges before the Father His faithful workers, who, in a world of sin, have borne true witness for Him, they will understand clearly what now are mysteries to them. - {8T 267.3}

Rev 10:7 - should be finished - God will fulfill [fill fully - Mt 5:17] or perfect (Psa 138:8) or complete in all who believe, so that we may reach the fullness of the stature of Jesus Christ, partakers of His Divine nature We who are of the 144,000 are to be the perfection of beauty (Ps 50:2), God's glorious Holy Mountain (Dan 11:45), bearing Jesus' glory- His character. See 1Jo 4:2; 2Cor 3:18, 4:10; Phil 2:5-9

Rev 10:7

Rev 10:7 - as he hath declared to his servants the prophets - See Heb 1:1 God has made known from the foundation of the world that by His Own merits, He will have a church without spot or wrinkle. We must embrace this promise that the prophets gave testimony to: Moses - Gen 3:15 Balaam - Num 23:21, 23, 24 David - Ps 50:2, 1:1-6, 56:13 Isa - Isa 2:1-4, 28:5, 6, 52:6-12 Jer - Song of Sol 6:8-10 Dan - Dan 11:45, 12:3, 10 Paul - Ephesian 4:1-19 Joh - 1:1, 2; Rev 10:7

Rev 10:7

Rev 10:7 - servants the prophets - the prophet Dan, more than any other prophet, marks the time for the sounding of the 7th Angel's Trumpet with: 1. Anointing of Christ to fulfill all righteousness (Dan 9:24, 25; Mt 3:15) 2. Victorious, righteous life of Christ to fulfill all righteousness (Dan 9:24, Mt, 3:15) 2. Corporate death of Jesus to fulfill all righteousness (Dan 9:26, 27; Mt 3:15) 2. The opening of the second apartment of the heavenly temple (Rev 11:19; Dan 7:9, 10, 8:14) 2. Judgment of the righteous dead (Rev 11:18; Dan 7:9, 10) 3. Coronation of Christ as King for the destruction of His enemies (Rev 11:15-19; Dan 7:13, 14; Ps 2:6-9)

Rev 10:8

Rev 10:8 - And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again - presumably the voice of the Father.

Rev 10:8

Rev 10:8 - Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth - See Rev 22:7, 1:3

Rev 10:9

Rev 10:9 - take it and eat it up - when a prophet is commanded to eat a book, it commences a testing process for God's people. As in the case of Eze and Jer, they both were to eat a book and then take a testing message to the rebellious House of Israel. The message would be taken to those who would not hear or give credence to the message, messenger or He who gave the message. See Eze 2; Jer 15:16 The comprehension of truth, the glad reception of the message, is represented in the eating of the little book. The truth in regard to the time of the advent of our Lord was a precious message to our souls.—Manuscript 59, 1900 (Manuscript Releases 19:319-321). - {CTr 344.6}

Rev 10:9 - it shall make thy belly bitter - See Ezekiel 3:14

Rev 10:9

Rev 10:9 - sweet as honey - the prophetic Little Book of Dan is to be sweet as honey for those who partake of it. Just as the scroll from which Eze was to read, understand, internalize, and proclaim (Eze 3:3, 1-21), we too must have the same experience. Eating the Little book will enlighten our eyes, restore our spiritual vitality and make us ready for the battle, just as a little honey had done for Jonathan (1Sam 14:27; Jer 15:16). Prophecy in general is the honey - Isa 7:15

Rev 10:10

Rev 10:10 - I took the little book... and ate it up - the little book symbolizes Jesus, Who once told His disciples you must eat the flesh and drink the blood of the Son of Man. This testing process caused many to no longer follow Christ. Just as Jesus gave His testimony, was crucified, rose again and ascended, so too God's Two Witnesses (the message that brought forth an experience) would experience the same fate as Christ. See Joh 6:53-66 When a prophet becomes a part of the vision, the vision bears special significance for the people living at the close of time. See Isa 8:18

Rev 10:10

Rev 10:10 - it was in my mouth sweet as honey - the judgment hour cry during the Millerite Movement became particularly sweet on August 11, 1840 with the descent of the Might Angel, empowering the Movement. The accurate interpretation and prediction of the fall of the Ottoman Empire referenced in Rev 9:15 brought great joy to those who since 1833 were proclaiming the judgment hour message. See Ezekiel 3:3; Jer 15:16

Rev 10:10

Rev 10:10 - and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter - See Ezekiel 3:14

Rev 10:10

Rev 10:10 - my belly was bitter - Prov 13:12 The history of ancient Israel is a striking illustration of the past experience of the Adventist body. God led His people in the advent movement, even as He led the children of Israel from Egypt. In the great disappointment their faith was tested as was that of the Heb at the Red Sea. Had they still trusted to the guiding hand that had been with them in their past experience, they would have seen the salvation of God. If all who had labored unitedly in the work in 1844, had received the third angel's message and proclaimed it in the power of the Holy Spirit, the Lord would have wrought mightily with their efforts. A flood of light would have been shed upon the world. Years ago the inhabitants of the earth would have been warned, the closing work completed, and Christ would have come for the redemption of His people. - {GC 457.2}

Rev 10:11

Rev 10:11 - Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings - The Lord encouraged His saints who endured the disappointment on October 22, 1844 with the passing of the time of Christ's anticipated return, that their work was just beginning. God would bring revelations and light to their understanding that they would have to take to the ends of the earth once again. Those revelations would include: 1. An understanding of the Sanctuary Message as a type of the Plan of Redemption. The significance of the Feast Days and their antitypes within the Plan of Redemption 2. The knowledge of the 7th-day Sabbath and all of God's commandments 3. Righteousness by Faith, complete victory over sin and commandment keeping through the faith of Jesus Christ 4. The 3 Angels' Messages of Rev 13 joined by the 4th 5. A warning against Spiritualism and the teachings of an immortal soul 6. The message of health reform and consecrating the body temple for the indwelling of the Holy Spirit

Rev 10:11

Rev 10:11 - God would open opportunity for His gospel message to be taken to men of all nations and classes. Jesus foretold that there will come a time when we will be brought before dignitaries to proclaim our faith and the Holy Spirit would give us utterances in that hour. See Lk 12:11, 12

Rev 11:1

Rev 11:1 - And there was given me a reed like unto a rod - Compare Eze 43:10, 11; Rev 21:15 - The Lord counseled Jam White to write the Review and Herald publication to: 1. Be a rebuke to those who failed to enter into the Holy Place with Christ after October 22, 1844 that they might be ashamed. They were to be made ashamed by their rejection of truth of the 3rd Angel's Message (measuring / studying the house of God) that was prophesied in Eze and repeated in Rev 11:1-2 2. Be a reminder to those of the faith once held by the saints and the revelations in God's Word that led the early Adventist Movement to the truths they came to know and embrace

Rev 11:1

Rev 11:1, 2; Eze 43:10, 11 - The Lord counseled Jam White to write the Review and Herald publication to: 1. Rev 11:1

Rev 11:1 - measure the temple of God - in response to the bitter disappointment of the faithful few (50 of 50K) who persevered beyond October 22, 1844, God gave revelation, the answer to their error causing the disappointment when He commanded them to "measure" [evaluate, gain the dimensions, study] the temple of God. They are commanded to measure the temple, leaving out the outer court that is given to the Gentiles. The era of the Gentiles is from 538-1798AD and Joh prophetically is standing on October 23, 1844 when told to measure the temple. Therefore, the history Joh is told to measure is from 1798-Oct 22, 1844, the era of the rebuilding of God's spiritual temple, or the Millerite history. The Millerites, like Eze, Zech and with all the saints, are to have detailed understanding of God's Plan of Redemption, "what is the breadth, and length, and depth and height", and to know His ways of love which are in the sanctuary. In measuring the sanctuary, it speaks of a work of rebuilding God's Holy Temple (46yrs), founded upon the Rock and Sure Foundation Jesus Christ (Isa 28:16). See Jer 31:38, 39; Eze 40:1-43:10-12; Zech 2:1, 2; Eph 3:17-19; Ps 77:13. Measuring may also be synonymous with judgment where one is weighed in the balances.

Rev 11:1

Rev 11:1 - temple of God - in measuring, studying the temple of God, the Adventists would come to realize that there was indeed a heavenly temple, inhabited by God and not the earth as they originally supposed the sanctuary/temple to be (Dan 8:14). See Ps 11:4; 2Sam 22:7,8; Ps 18:6, 7; Isa 6:1-4; Mic 1:2, 3; Rev 11:19, 14:17, 18, 15:5, 16:7; Ex 25:8, 9; Heb 8:5, 9:23, 24

Rev 11:1

Rev 11:1 - the altar - the Millerites, like all the saints are to measure the altar, or to understand that which is being offered as a sacrifice to God. Mal states that once purified by Christ, we can offer up an offering in righteousness (Mal 3:3). Our offering should be: 1. Ourselves, a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable unto God - Rom 12:1, 2; Gal 2:20 2. Sacrifice of joy - Ps 27:6

Rev 11:1

Rev 11:1 - them that worship therein - the worshippers were also to be measured [observed, evaluated, weighed in the balances]. See Mt 22:11, 12. The church of Sardis is that which fell under scrutiny in this immediate history, though the reference might be to the period after October 22, 1844, when all would be judged (measured).

Rev 11:2

Rev 11:2 - But the court which is without the temple leave out and measure it not - See Ezek 43:5. God is counseling the Adventists who have gone through great tribulation and who by faith have entered into the Holiest of Holy to measure, or study the sanctuary but leave out the outer court. In other words, study the workings of God in His sanctuary but leave out the works of the outer court, representing the works of Christ here on earth and also during the era of the Dark Ages, when both God's sanctuary and host would be trodden under foot. God is directing the Adventists to study the Inner Court where Christ's mediation as High Priest in the Holy and Most Holy places are to be revealed to their understanding. See Joh 12:19-23 for details on the outer court The Greeks had heard of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Some supposed, and had circulated the report, that He had driven the priests and rulers from the temple, and that He was to take possession of David's throne, and reign as king of Israel. The Greeks longed to know the truth in regard to His mission. "We would see Jesus," they said. Their desire was granted. When the request was brought to Jesus, He was in that part of the temple from which all except Jews were excluded, but He went out to the Greeks in the outer court, and had a personal interview with them. - {DA 622.1}

Rev 11:2

Rev 11:2 - for it is given unto the Gentiles - this Time of the Gentiles is the era when the Bible and Christian truths would be under the Gentile's arbitration (Deut 32:21). This era, ending in 1798, is the era of compromise (Black Horse) leading up to and fully manifested in the Pale Horse era, the time when darkness covered the earth and gross darkness covered the people. During this Dark Age, "truth is cast to the ground" and it [the papacy] practiced and prospered. See Mt 24:15-20; Lk 21:24, 18:32; Isa 60:1, 2; Dan 8:12, 13;

Rev 11:2

Rev 11:2 - holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months - The people of God, Mt Zion, Jerusalem, the holy people, the host shall be trodden down for 1,260years. See Joel 2:1; Dan 8:13, 24, 11:33-39; Rev 13:5-7 The periods here mentioned—"forty and two months," and "a thousand two hundred and threescore days"—are the same, alike representing the time in which the church of Christ was to suffer oppression from Rome. The 1260 years of papal supremacy began in A.D. 538, and would therefore terminate in 1798. {GC 266.1}

Rev 11:3

Rev 11:2 - two witnesses - God's two witnesses, the Old and New Testament are here illustrated as those who stand with the faithful Church in the wilderness during the 1,260years of the Dark Ages (Rev 12:6). As a figure of Christ, they observe the pattern of Christ: 1. The Two witnesses are empowered by God (v3) as Jesus was empowered with the Holy Spirit (Mt 3:13-17) 2. They minister and give their testimony for 3.5 years (v3) as Jesus ministered on earth to the COI for 3.5 years (Dan 9:26, 27) 3. Those who reject or hurt the Two Witnesses will be burned (v5) just as Jesus said all will be judged by His Words and will suffer eternal fire should they be rejected (Joh 5:45-46, 12:47, 48) 4. The two witnesses are killed (v7) as Jesus was killed (Lk, 23:21-24; Joh 19:30) 5. The two witnesses lie dead for 3.5 days (v11) and Jesus lay in the grave for 3 days (Mt 27:63, 64; Lk 24:1-7) 6. The two witnesses are resurrected and seen among men (v11) as Jesus was resurrected and tarried for 40days in Jua (Act 1:3) 7. The two witnesses ascend to heaven in a cloud (v11) as Jesus ascended to heaven (Joh 20:17; Act 1:9-11) There is no discord between the Old Testament and the New. In the Old Testament we find the gospel of a coming Saviour; in the New Testament we have the gospel of a Saviour revealed as the prophecies had foretold. While the Old Testament is constantly pointing forward to the true offering, the New Testament shows that the Saviour prefigured by the typical offerings has come. The dim glory of the Jewish age has been succeeded by the brighter, clearer glory of the Christian age. - {FLB 12.4}

Rev 11:3

Rev 11:3 - two witnesses - the Old and New Testaments were bound in chains for 1,260years by men who had indignation with the Holy Covenant (Dan 11:30).

Rev 11:3

Rev 11:3 - prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days - See Dan 7:25; Rev 12:6, 14

Rev 11:3

Rev 11:3 - clothed in sackcloth - See Prov 29:2. For many centuries God's people suffered a restriction of their liberties. The preaching of the gospel in its purity was prohibited, and the severest of penalties were visited upon those who dared disobey the mandates of men. As a consequence, the Lord's great moral vineyard was almost wholly unoccupied. The people were deprived of the light of God's word. The darkness of error and superstition threatened to blot out a knowledge of true religion. God's church on earth was as verily in captivity during this long period of relentless persecution as were the children of Israel held captive in Babylon during the period of the exile. - {PK 714.1}

Rev 11:4

Rev 11:4 - two olive trees - See Zech 4:1-3, 12-14

Rev 11:4

Rev 11:4 - two candlesticks - the two great lights to rule the day and night that give light to the earth, the Old and New Testaments. See Rev 12:1; Gen 1:16; Ps 119:105

Rev 11:5

Rev 11:5 - And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed - See Rev 22:18, 19

Rev 11:5

Rev 11:5 - fire proceedeth - Elijah called down fire from heaven upon the soldiers sent to him from the king of Assyria (2Kin 1:10-14). Fire from the LORD is manifested by the Holy Spirit.

Rev 11:6

Rev 11:6 - These have power - the words of the prophets, placed in their mouths by the LORD have power to accomplish all that God purposes. See Jer 1:9, 10; Lk 4:25; 1Kin 17:1

Rev 11:6

Rev 11:6 - shut heaven - the Two Witnesses, God's Word, is likened to the Ministry of Moses and Elijah (the Law and the Prophets - Mt 5:17, 17:1-7). Elijah, in the day of his prophecy prayed and the heavens were shut up, not raining for 3.5years (Jam 5:17)

Rev 11:6

Rev 11:6 - smite the earth will all plagues - the 10 plagues of Egypt, as commanded by God through His servants Moses and Aaron are here referenced. The last plagues upon the earth will be a subset of the 10 of Egypt.

Rev 11:6

Rev 11:6 - as often as they will - "As often as they will," meaning as often as they have prophesied of them, so often will the plagues be sent. Not one jot or tittle of the word of God will fail. {1842 WiM, MWV2 196.1}

Rev 11:6

Rev 11:6 - turn water to blood - The Word of God, His Two Witnesses, again likened to the ministry of Moses and Elijah (the Law and the Prophets - Mt 5:17, 17:1-7). The plagues of Egypt by Moses, the "giver of the Law" (Joh 7:19) is here referenced as the power to smite the earth and turn the waters to blood.

Rev 11:7

Rev 11:7 - when the shall have finished their testimony - as the 1260 years of papal rule comes to a close, God's two witnesses who have testified in sackcloth fall under the scourge of another persecutor, Spiritualism, given by the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit. The era here noted (1789-1796 - a fractal of the 1260years) is specifically the 7years of the French Revolution when atheistic France waged war against God and the Bible. "When they shall have finished [are finishing] their testimony." The period when the two witnesses were to prophesy clothed in sackcloth ended in 1798. As they were approaching the termination of their work in obscurity, war was to be made upon them by the power represented as “the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit.” In many of the nations of Europe the powers that ruled in Church and State had for centuries been controlled by Satan, through the medium of the papacy. But here is brought to view a new manifestation of Satanic power. - {GC88 268.3}

Rev 11:7 - beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit - the beast that arises from the abyss is a new manifestation of satanic power that would war against God, His inspired word in the Bible and God's people. Throughout the Bible, there is an acknowledgment of man being inferior and subjects to the true God of heaven and earth, or the gods, as understood by the heathen (1Sam 6:1-5; Jon 1:5, 6; Act 17:22, 23). The counter movement that arose against God and the Bible at the time of the fulfillment of the prophecy was embodied in the spirits of nationalism, atheism, gross godlessness, and the exaltation of human reason and wisdom. The beast here described is multi-faceted Spiritualism, the religion of self.

Rev 11:7

Rev 11:7 - the bottomless pit - ascend out of the bottomless pit, because it is founded on error. The principles taught by this beast were first Paganism, and ended in Deism, which are not built on the word of God; and, therefore, have no foundation, and may truly be said to be "bottomless. {1842 William Miller, MWV2 196.1}

Rev 11:7

Rev 11:7 - shall make war against them - the French Revolution as typified in the Bible and explicitly sited in the Spirit of Prophecy provides a template for the corruptions and chaos that will befall the world at the end of time. The same warring against God and the inspired Word will be manifest in Modern Spiritualism in the last days. The doctrines of spiritualism {taken from J.N. Andrew's, Samuel and the Witch of Endor, pg 30} then and now include: 1. That the Bible is full of errors, and not worthy of our confidence. 2. That the moral law is of no authority as a standard of moral character 3. That there is no difference between right and wrong; for whatever is, is right, and no such thing as sin exists (relativism). 4. That there is no need of salvation through Jesus Christ, but every man is his own Christ 5. That there is no resurrection of the dead, no future judgment, and no final account 6. That the God of the Old Testament is the spirit of a dead man 7. That all men compose a part of God; or all men in death become so many separate deities. 8. That the souls of men are immortal, and at death enter a higher sphere At the same time anarchy is seeking to sweep away all law, not only divine, but human. The centralizing of wealth and power; the vast combinations for the enriching of the few at the expense of the many; the combinations of the poorer classes for the defense of their interests and claims; the spirit of unrest, of riot and bloodshed; the world-wide dissemination of the same teachings that led to the French Revolution—all are tending to involve the whole world in a struggle similar to that which convulsed France. - {Ed 228.2}

Rev 11:7

Rev 11:7 - overcome them, and kill them - The scribes and Pharisees who listened to Jesus knew that His words were true. They knew how the prophet Zacharias had been slain. While the words of warning from God were upon his lips, a satanic fury seized the apostate king, and at his command the prophet was put to death. His blood had imprinted itself upon the very stones of the temple court, and could not be erased; it remained to bear testimony against apostate Israel. As long as the temple should stand, there would be the stain of that righteous blood, crying to God to be avenged. As Jesus referred to these fearful sins, a thrill of horror ran through the multitude. - {DA 619.2} Looking forward, Jesus declared that the impenitence of the Jews and their intolerance of God's servants would be the same in the future as it had been in the past: - {DA 619.3} "Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city." Prophets and wise men, full of faith and the Holy Ghost,—Stephen, Jam, and many others,—would be condemned and slain. With hand uplifted to heaven, and a divine light enshrouding His person, Christ spoke as a judge to those before Him. His voice, that had so often been heard in gentleness and entreaty, was now heard in rebuke and condemnation. The listeners shuddered. Never was the impression made by His words and His look to be effaced. - {DA 619.4} The Majesty of heaven in tears! the Son of the infinite God troubled in spirit, bowed down with anguish! The scene filled all heaven with wonder. That scene reveals to us the exceeding sinfulness of sin; it shows how hard a task it is, even for Infinite Power, to save the guilty from the consequences of transgressing the law of God. Jesus, looking down to the last generation, saw the world involved in a deception similar to that which caused the destruction of Jerusalem. The great sin of the Jews was their rejection of Christ; the great sin of the Christian world would be their rejection of the law of God, the foundation of His government in heaven and earth. The precepts of Jehovah would be despised and set at nought. Millions in bondage to sin, slaves of Satan, doomed to suffer the second death, would refuse to listen to the words of truth in their day of visitation. Terrible blindness! strange infatuation! - {GC 22.2} This verse teaches us, that the word of God would be made a dead letter, by the authority of one of the principal kingdoms out of one of the ten into which the Roman government was divided, and that they would be guilty of the same sins that Sodom and Egypt were guilty of; and, also, of crucifying our Lord, that is, in a spiritual sense. This will apply to France in particular. France, previous to, and in the French revolution, was guilty of Sodomitish sins; she also had held in bondage, like Egypt, the people of God; and, in France, Christ had been crucified afresh in his people, on St. Bartholomew's eve, A.D. 1572, when 50,000 Huguenots were murdered in one night. The people of God are called Christ's spiritual body, 1Pet 2:5; Col 1:24. {1842 WiM, MWV2 197.1}

Rev 11:8 - the great city - a term used to describe various noteworthy cities/countries of biblical history, known for their exaltation of paganism while lifting up violence and wickedness. Each of the cities in type symbolize an aspect of Modern Babylon, the three-fold union of Dragon, Beast and False Prophet. The reference here is to the city of France which during the French Revolution exhibited the characteristics of Egypt (Atheism) and Sodom (Licentiousness). Other great cities included: 1. Nineveh, the "great city of Assyria" (Jon 1:2; Nah 1-3) 2. Babylon, that "great city" (Isa 14:4-11; Rev 17:18; 16:19; 18:10) (aka Rabbah) 3. Tyrus 4. Zidon 5. Israel, the "sinful kingdom" (Am 9:1-8; Hab 2:9-12) 6. France 7. Modern Rome (Rev 17:18; 16:19)

Rev 11:8

Rev 11:8 - spiritually is called - the prophecy is not to be interpreted literally but spiritually, and thus requires discernment from God's Holy Spirit - See 1Cor 2:14; John 6:63

Rev 11:8

Rev 11:8 - Sodom - See Ezekiel 16:49. France presented also the characteristics which especially distinguished Sodom. During the Revolution there was manifest a state of moral debasement and corruption similar to that which brought destruction upon the cities of the plain. And the historian presents together the atheism and the licentiousness of France, as given in the prophecy: "Intimately connected with these laws affecting religion, was that which reduced the union of marriage—the most sacred engagement which human beings can form, and the permanence of which leads most strongly to the consolidation of society—to the state of a mere civil contract of a transitory character, which any two persons might engage in and cast loose at pleasure.... If fiends had set themselves to work to discover a mode of most effectually destroying whatever is venerable, graceful, or permanent in domestic life, and of obtaining at the same time an assurance that the mischief which it was their object to create should be perpetuated from one generation to another, they could not have invented a more effectual plan than the degradation of marriage.... Sophie Arnould, an actress famous for the witty things she said, described the republican marriage as 'the sacrament of adultery.'"—Scott, vol. 1, ch. 17. - {GC 270.1}

Rev 11:8 - Egypt - a symbol of the world (Heb 11:24-26), atheism (Ex 5:2), and self-exalting idolatry (Eze 29:1-3) This prophecy has received a most exact and striking fulfillment in the history of France. During the Revolution, in 1793, "the world for the first time heard an assembly of men, born and educated in civilization, and assuming the right to govern one of the finest of the European nations, uplift their united voice to deny the most solemn truth which man's soul receives, and renounce unanimously the belief and worship of a Deity."—Sir Walter Scott, Life of Napoleon, vol. 1, ch. 17. France is the only nation in the world concerning which the authentic record survives, that as a nation she lifted her hand in open rebellion against the Author of the universe. Plenty of blasphemers, plenty of infidels, there have been, and still continue to be, in England, Germany, Spain, and elsewhere; but France stands apart in the world's history as the single state which, by the decree of her Legislative Assembly, pronounced that there was no God, and of which the entire population of the capital, and a vast majority elsewhere, women as well as men, danced and sang with joy in accepting the announcement."—Blackwood's Magazine, November, 1870. - {GC 269.4}

Rev 11:8

Rev 11:8 - where also our Lord was crucified - The LORD, Jesus was crucified through the person of His saints who were martyred for their faith, as well as the slaying of the Two Witnesses, the Bible. See Mt 24:40; Ps 69:9; Rom 15:3 ... This specification of the prophecy was also fulfilled by France. In no land had the spirit of enmity against Christ been more strikingly displayed. In no country had the truth encountered more bitter and cruel opposition. In the persecution which France had visited upon the confessors of the gospel, she had crucified Christ in the person of His disciples. - {GC 271.1} The Lord wants us to see the parallels between His Two Witnesses, the Old and New Testaments and His Son: 1. The Two Witnesses testify of God just as Jesus came to reveal the Father to men 2. The Two Witnesses prophecy for 1,260 years while Jesus' earthly ministry lasted 1,260 days 3. The Two Witnesses will be hated by the world just as Jesus was hated of men whose works were evil 4. The Two Witnesses would be killed by an angry mob just as Jesus was crucified 5. The world would rejoice in the death of the Two Witnesses just as many delighted in Jesus' death 6. The Two Witnesses would be resurrected in 3.5 days and Jesus would be raised in 3 days from the heart of the earth 7. The Two Witnesses would be called up to heaven in a cloud as Jesus ascended to heaven in a cloud

Rev 11:9

Rev 11:9 - they of the people, and kindreds, and tongues and nations - all the world shall behold the works of France during the French Revolution, its casting down God's Word and truth.

Rev 11:9

Rev 11:9 - shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves - none would come forth to give God's Two Witnesses an honorable/proper burial. This may suggest that all the world joined in France's revelry over that which they saw as oppressive to their godless lives.

Rev 11:10

Rev 11:10 - they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them - the world will delight in the overthrow of that which is perceived to bring restraint but is actually a wall of protection for those who heed their counsel. See Ps 2:1-3

Rev 11:10

Rev 11:10 - because these two prophets tormented them that dwell on the earth - the rebuke to mind and conscience that God's word brings to the wayward is as torment. So will be said of the flawless lives of the righteous, clothed in Christ's righteousness, who stand before the last generation on earth. See Ps 2:1-3

Rev 11:11

Rev 11:11 - after three days and an half - the witnesses would be resurrected after 3.5days or 1260days. The joint tenure of the Two Witness' ministry, 1260days and 3.5days (1260) totals 7days or 7yrs, the duration of the French Revolution. Jesus confirming the covenant with Israel for 1-week typifies the duration of the French Revolution in this history. See Lk 18:33

Rev 11:12

Rev 11:12 - And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud - See Act 1:9-11

Rev 11:13

Rev 11:13 - same hour - Binding off period is here described

Rev 11:13

Rev 11:13 - great earthquake - coincident with the moral upheaval in French Society is the French Revolution itself, symbolized as a great earthquake, causing a tenth part of the city (1 of the 10 former components of the divided Pagan Roman Empire) - France itself - to fall.

Rev 11:13

Rev 11:13 - tenth part of the city fell - 1/10 of the formerly divided Roman Empire, namely France (a two horned power), collapsed due to the French Revolution, a spiritual earthquake. The hour of this upheaval was marked by the rejection of the Bible and it being burned in the streets, mass bloodshed and the rise of the Beast from the Bottomless Pit, the demonic force of Spiritualism. In modern history, the 1/10 part of the city (the United Nations) that falls with the passage of the Sunday Law will be the USA, another two horned power. See Rev 9:18

Rev 11:14

Rev 11:14 - The second woe is past - The prophecy marks the date August 11, 1840 when the Ottoman Turk Empire succeeds power to the 4 Christian powers of Europe, while radical Islam in Egypt is restrained.

Rev 11:14

Rev 11:14 - behold, the third woe cometh quickly - look and observe, the 3rd Woe comes suddenly, unexpectedly.

Rev 11:14

Rev 11:14 - quickly - the third woe cometh quickly or suddenly. The attack of NYC on 9/11/2001 was a sudden, totally unexpected event. See Rev 2:5 quickly - tachy (Hebr): neuter singular of (as adverb); shortly, i.e. without delay, soon, or (by surprise) suddenly, or (by implication, of ease) readily:--lightly, quickly.

Rev 11:15

Rev 11:15 - And the seventh angel sounded - The sounding of the seventh angel is coincident with the Antitypical Day of Atonement, starting on October 22, 1844, and following the era of the French Revolution. Verses 15-17 and 19 speak of the same even on the day of the Great Disappointment. See Num 10:10

Rev 11:15

Rev 11:10 - The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of His Christ, and He shall reign for ever and ever - The words suggest the close of humankind's probation, where Jesus steps from between God and mankind and dawns His royal apparel as King of kings and LORD of Lords. See Dan 7:14; Lk 19:12-15

Rev 11:16

Rev 11:16 - And the four and twenty elders - See Rev 4:10

Rev 11:16

Rev 11:14 - which sat before God on their seats - they sat upon their seats in the Most Holy Place. See Dan 7:9, 10

Rev 11:17

Rev 11:17 - We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and are to come, because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned - the praises of the 24 Elders, who were redeemed from among men, being first fruits with Christ, gives answer to the martyrs who await God's vengeance upon the wicked. See Rev 6:

Rev 11:17

Rev 11:17 - O Lord God Almighty, which art and wast, and art to come - perhaps a reference to the God-head in Their entirety.

Rev 11:17

Rev 11:17 - because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned - See Dan 7:14

Rev 11:18

Rev 11:18 - And the nations were angry - the sequence of events here spoken denote those which occur under the 7th trumpet which began to sound on October 22, 1844. The third Woe occurs under this trumpet (9/11/2001). The entire verse summarizes the things to occur under the 3rd Angel's Message. See Rev 14:9-12

Rev 11:18

Rev 11:18 - nations are angry - The nations are angry, and great preparations for war are being made. Nation is plotting against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. The great day of God is hastening greatly. But although the nations are mustering their forces for war and bloodshed, the command to the angels is still in force, that they hold the four winds until the servants of God are sealed in their foreheads. - {1SM 221.3} Dark, heavy clouds came up and clashed against each other. The atmosphere parted and rolled back; then we could look up through the open space in Orion, whence came the voice of God. The Holy City will come down through that open space. I saw that the powers of earth are now being shaken and that events come in order. War, and rumors of war, sword, famine, and pestilence are first to shake the powers of earth, then the voice of God will shake the sun, moon, and stars, and this earth also. I saw that the shaking of the powers in Europe is not, as some teach, the shaking of the powers of heaven, but it is the shaking of the angry nations. - {EW 41.2} In 1848, 50 European nations were ablaze with the fervor of revolution. The event was known as the Spring of Nations or People's Spring and was driven by a desire for democratic ideals, to throw off the yoke of feudalism and to empower commoners with more say in government. These events foreshadow the upheavals that are taking place (09/11/2001; Arab Spring of 2011) as probation draws to a close. The distress of nations caused by warring Islam during the Middle Ages foreshadows the angering of the nations under the Third Woe. While the four winds are being restrained, the East Wind (warfare from the children from the east), be raging - Isa 27:8, Ps 48:4, 5; Lk 21:25, 26. That which angers the nations is radical Islam, prompting the nations to issue an unrighteous decree, a Sunday Law. See Ps 2:1-3 Dear Christian Friends, As I have given a brief sketch of my experience and views, published in 1851, it seems to be my duty to notice some points in that little work, also to give more recent views. - {EW 85.1} 1. On page 33 is given the following: "I saw that the holy Sabbath is, and will be, the separating wall between the true Israel of God and unbelievers; and that the Sabbath is the great question to unite the hearts of God's dear, waiting saints. I saw that God had children who do not see and keep the Sabbath. They have not rejected the light upon it. And at the commencement of the time of trouble, we were filled with the Holy Ghost as we went forth and proclaimed the Sabbath more fully." - {EW 85.2} This view was given in 1847 when there were but very few of the Advent brethren observing the Sabbath, and of these but few supposed that its observance was of sufficient importance to draw a line between the people of God and unbelievers. Now the fulfillment of that view is beginning to be seen. "The commencement of that time of trouble," here mentioned does not refer to the time when the plagues shall begin to be poured out, but to a short period just before they are poured out, while Christ is in the sanctuary. At that time, while the work of salvation is closing, trouble will be coming on the earth, and the nations will be angry, yet held in check so as not to prevent the work of the third angel. At that time the "latter rain," or refreshing from the presence of the Lord, will come, to give power to the loud voice of the third angel, and prepare the saints to stand in the period when the seven last plagues shall be poured out. - {EW 85.3}

Rev 11:18

Rev 11:18 - thy wrath is come - The 7-Last plagues embody the wrath of God. See Rev 14:9-11, 15:1:5-7, 16:1-21; Job 14:13 Then I saw that Jesus would not leave the most holy place until every case was decided either for salvation or destruction [Close of Probation], and that the wrath of God could not come until Jesus had finished His work in the most holy place, laid off His priestly attire, and clothed Himself with the garments of vengeance. Then Jesus will step out from between the Father and man, and God will keep silence no longer, but pour out His wrath (7 last plagues) on those who have rejected His truth.

Rev 11:18

Rev 11:18 - and the time of the dead, that they should be judged - The prophecy marks the Millennium, when the righteous will sit on thrones with Jesus and will judge the wicked dead. Rev 20:4, 5; Lk 22:30; 1Cor 6:3

Rev 11:18

Rev 11:18 - that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great - The rewards here spoken are the inheritance of the sons of Abram, spoken to him when God entered covenant with him. See Gen 15:16; Joh 14:1-4; Mt 25:21, 23; Isa 64:4 || 1Cor 2:9; Rev 22:12

Rev 11:18

Rev 11:18 - shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth - the earth was given to man as a prized possession at the Creation. Man was to tend and keep the earth in its perfection for his service and the benefit of all other created beings. Even after the entrance of sin, God expected men to till the earth for food and preserve it for their good and for the benefit of posterity. Those who misuse and abuse the earth for selfish purposes and scorn the God of its creation will be held accountable for their neglect. Herein the Second Death is mentioned.

Rev 11:19

Rev 11:19 - And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail - Joh has the experience of a particular Adventist, Hiram Edson, who was walking through his corn field and the LORD gave him a glimpse of the heavenly sanctuary. The Adventists who persevered through the Great Disappointment were given an open door through which they would see the ark of His testament. In other words, the way into the Most Holy Place had been opened, describing the phase of work to which Jesus was employed in the Plan of Redemption, and exposing the ark of His testament, containing the two tables upon which were written the 10 commandments. The time had arrived for the Sabbath to be restored to its rightful place.

Rev 11:19

Rev 11:9 - and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: - Joh sees the Most Holy place in the heavenly sanctuary where the Ark of the Covenant is housed. Within the ark Hiram Edson and the faithful Adventists found the 10 Commandments, where the truth of the 4th Commandment would be re-discovered.

Rev 11:19

Rev 11:19 - seen in his temple the ark of his testament - Joh sees the ark of the Covenant, containing the 10 Commandments in the heavenly Most Holy Place. The knowledge of the sanctuary, the works of Christ on the Most Holy Place on the Day of Atonement and the sanctity of the 10 commandments, especially the 4th were all topics God would reveal to the faithful Adventists who pressed through the Great Disappointment.

Rev 11:19

Rev 11:19 - and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail - Joh hears lightning, voices, thunderings and an earthquake, all the things that come from the throne of God the Father (Rev 4:5). This is a possible reference to the court scene of Dan 7:9, 10 when the Father takes His seat in the Most Holy place to receive Christ Who will begin the Investigative Judgment - See Rev 16:18, 10:3, 4

Rev 12:1

Rev 12:1 - Woman - A woman in Bible prophecy is a symbol of Jesus' bride, the church: Gen 3:15 2Cor 11:2 Eph 5:25-27 Hos 2:19, 20 Jer 31:32, 6:2 Isa 54:5, 62:5 Eze 16

Rev 12:1

Rev 12:1 - a woman clothed - the apparel of the woman is central in revealing her identity. She is clothed in light, meaning that she reflects God's glory (Rom 3:23; Ps 104:1, 2; Jam 1:7; Song 6:10; Rev 19:7, 8). She represents the chaste, holy, bride of Christ that would in the fullness of time, bring forth a Male Child. This depiction spans the era of the patriarchs who walked in faith until the coming of Christ. However, the same woman depicts the faithful church of Christ after His ascension and through the Dark Ages. The "remnant of her seed" are they who are to stand as the morning, "fair as the moon, clear as the sun and terrible as an army with banners" (Song 6:10) before the world in the last days (Rev 12:17).

Rev 12:1

Rev 12:1 - clothed with the sun, stands on the moon - the Sun and Moon were appointed to give light to the earth (Gen 1:14-16). So too, the Bible is a lamp unto man's feet and a light to man's path (Ps 119:105). As the sun is a source of light and the moon is a reflector of light, the Old Testament is as a source of Light and the New Testament reflects its light. In these last days, God will cause the light of the sun to shine seven fold and the moon to shine as the sun in order to repair the breach caused in His last day church, Laodicea (Isa 30:25, 26, Rev 18:1) The Old Testament is the gospel in figures and symbols. The New Testament is the substance. One is as essential as the other. The Old Testament presents lessons from the lips of Christ, and these lessons have not lost their force in any particular." {Ms32-1896.}

Rev 12:1

Rev 12:1 - Crown of twelve stars - The woman wears a crown, suggesting that she is royalty. All who accept Jesus are part of His royal priesthood (2Pet 2:9; Rev 1:6). The Patriarchs of the Old Testament (heads of the 12 tribes of Israel) and the Apostles of the New Testament are the crown of glory for this church, the foundation of Christ's spiritual temple. See Eph 2:19, 20; Patriarchs: Gen 49:48 Ex 24:4 Rev 21:12 Apostles: Lk 6:13 Mt 10:2-4, 19:28 Rev 21:14 The disciples were to go forth as Christ's witnesses, to declare to the world what they had seen and heard of Him. Their office was the most important to which human beings had ever been called, second only to that of Christ Himself. They were to be workers together with God for the saving of men. As in the Old Testament the twelve patriarchs stood as representatives of Israel, so the twelve apostles stand as representatives of the gospel church. - {AA 19.1}

Rev 12:2

Rev 12:2 - with child - The Church of God gave birth to the Messiah, Jesus Christ. Lk 1:31, 33 Isa 7:14, 9:6, 7, 66:7, 8 Ps 2:9 Rev 2:27, 19:15, 16

Rev 12:2

Rev 12:2 - pained to be delivered - he Bible states "...when the fullness of he time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law" Gal 4:4. The creation was longing to see the Lord Our Righteousness manifest in the flesh (Jer 33:16, Rom 8:19-23)

Rev 12:3

Rev 12:3 - another wonder in heaven - The Bible, particularly the Rev is a book of contrasts as it details the Great Controversy. Red dragon w/ seven heads, ten horns and seven crowns on its heads is the Devil as explicitly stated in Rev 12:9. However, the details of 10 and 7 direct us to another power- Rome. Parroting the sacred numbers of 10 and 7 used by God, Satan makes use of these numbers to speak of the transition of Pagan to Papal Rome (Dan 7;7, 8) The line of prophecy in which these symbols are found begins with Revelation 12, with the dragon that sought to destroy Christ at His birth. The dragon is said to be Satan (Revelation 12:9); he it was that moved upon Herod to put the Saviour to death. But the chief agent of Satan in making war upon Christ and His people during the first centuries of the Christian Era was the Roman Empire, in which paganism was the prevailing religion. Thus while the dragon, primarily, represents Satan, it is, in a secondary sense, a symbol of pagan Rome. - {GC 438.2}

Rev 12:4

Rev 12:4 - tail drew 1/3 of stars - the Devil drew 1/3 of the angels (stars of heaven - Job 38:7) of God to his rebellion. The rebellious host were cast to the earth: Ju 6 Eze 28:12-16 Lk 10:18 God will repopulate heaven with another third part. See Zech 13:8, 9; Rev 12:17 Tail = false prophecy from false prophets - Isa 9:15 When Satan became disaffected in heaven, he did not lay his complaint before God and Christ; but he went among the angels who thought him perfect and represented that God had done him injustice in preferring Christ to himself. The result of this misrepresentation was that through their sympathy with him one third of the angels lost their innocence, their high estate, and their happy home. Satan is instigating men to continue on earth the same work of jealousy and evil surmising that he commenced in heaven. - {5T 291.1}

Rev 12:4

Rev 12:4 - and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born - The great controversy between good and evil will increase in intensity to the very close of time. In all ages the wrath of Satan has been manifested against the church of Christ; and God has bestowed His grace and Spirit upon His people to strengthen them to stand against the power of the evil one. When the apostles of Christ were to bear His gospel to the world and to record it for all future ages, they were especially endowed with the enlightenment of the Spirit. But as the church approaches her final deliverance, Satan is to work with greater power. He comes down "having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time." Revelation 12:12. He will work "with all power and signs and lying wonders." 2 Thessalonians 2:9. For six thousand years that mastermind that once was highest among the angels of God has been wholly bent to the work of deception and ruin. And all the depths of satanic skill and subtlety acquired, all the cruelty developed, during these struggles of the ages, will be brought to bear against God's people in the final conflict. And in this time of peril the followers of Christ are to bear to the world the warning of the Lord's second advent; and a people are to be prepared to stand before Him at His coming, "without spot, and blameless." 2 Peter 3:14. At this time the special endowment of divine grace and power is not less needful to the church than in apostolic days. - {GC ix.4}

Rev 12:4

Rev 12:4 - devour her child - Satan sought to devour Jesus and his lineage throughout Bible history. 1. Corruption of Cain (Gen 4:1-10) 2. Perverting the sons of God in Noah's age (Gen 6-8) 3. Famine in the time of sons of Jacob, intended to kill Judah; God sent Joseph to preserve life (Gen 41, 42, 45:5, 47) 4. Pharaoh's death decree upon all male Hebrew boys (Ex 1:8-22) 5. Haman's death decree for all the Jews in the time of Esther (Esther 3) 6. Herod's death decree on the male infants in Bethlehem (Matt 2:1-18). Herod was a representative of Rome, therefor, Rome is the one that rises up against the Prince of the host (Dan 8:11, 25)

Rev 12:5

Rev 12:5 - And she brought forth a man child - See Lk 2:7

Rev 12:5

Rev 12:5 - rule - Jesus will rule all nations as King of Kings and Lord of Lords where they will serve and obey Him (Dan 7:14, 27). He rules in righteousness. See Isa 32:1; Ps 2:6-9

Rev 12:5

Rev 12:5 - rod of iron - Jesus would reign over the kingdoms of the earth and crush them like potsherds. The rod of iron is a symbol of kingship and punishment that will commence with the issuing of the 7 Last Plagues and continue through the White Throne Judgment after the Millennium. Jer 51:19-24 Ps 2:8, 9 Isa 30:8-14

Rev 12:5

Rev 12:5 - caught up to God and his throne - Jesus ascended on high, 40 days after His glorification and resurrection. Heb 1:1-3, 4:14, 16 Act 1:6-11, 2:33-36, 7:55 1Pet 3:21, 22 Heb 12:2

Rev 12:5

Rev 12:5 - to his throne - See Ps 103:19; Dan 7:9

Rev 12:6

Rev 12:6 - And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days - It required a desperate struggle for those who would be faithful to stand firm against the deceptions and abominations which were disguised in sacerdotal garments and introduced into the church. The Bible was not accepted as the standard of faith. The doctrine of religious freedom was termed heresy, and its upholders were hated and proscribed. - {GC 45.2} After a long and severe conflict, the faithful few decided to dissolve all union with the apostate church if she still refused to free herself from falsehood and idolatry. They saw that separation was an absolute necessity if they would obey the word of God. They dared not tolerate errors fatal to their own souls, and set an example which would imperil the faith of their children and children's children. To secure peace and unity they were ready to make any concession consistent with fidelity to God; but they felt that even peace would be too dearly purchased at the sacrifice of principle. If unity could be secured only by the compromise of truth and righteousness, then let there be difference, and even war. - {GC 45.3} In the sixth century the papacy had become firmly established. Its seat of power was fixed in the imperial city, and the bishop of Rome was declared to be the head over the entire church. Paganism had given place to the papacy. The dragon had given to the beast "his power, and his seat, and great authority." Revelation 13:2. And now began the 1260 years of papal oppression foretold in the prophecies of Daniel and the Revelation. Daniel 7:25; Revelation 13:5-7. (See Appendix.) Christians were forced to choose either to yield their integrity and accept the papal ceremonies and worship, or to wear away their lives in dungeons or suffer death by the rack, the fagot, or the headsman's ax. Now were fulfilled the words of Jesus: "Ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for My name's sake." Lk 21:16, 17. Persecution opened upon the faithful with greater fury than ever before, and the world became a vast battlefield. For hundreds of years the church of Christ found refuge in seclusion and obscurity. Thus says the prophet: "The woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and three-score days." Revelation 12:6. - {GC 54.2}

Rev 12:6 - fled into wilderness - the Church fled into the wilderness where she has a place prepared for her for 1,260 years by God (v14-16). Isa 33:15, 16, 41:8-13 Ps 46, 91, 121 Wilderness for Ancient Israel was a place used to purify the people from those who lacked faith. Became a symbol of rebellion to God and His promises (Num 14:40) Wilderness for Spiritual Israel was a place of refuge to escape the scourge of the papacy. B.G. Wilkerson, author of Truth Triumphant, the Church in the Wilderness says "The Church in the Wilderness is the connecting link between apostolic Christianity and the church today. The Church in the Wilderness preserved a true knowledge of God as they maintained the Bible, God's Two Witnesses, who ministered in sackcloth and ashes for 1,260 years.

Rev 12:6

Rev 12:6 - prepared of God - The woman has a hiding place that God has prepared for her protection, and for her to be fed and nourished (see v14). This means that God intended not just to preserve her life but that she may be strengthened, prosper and flourish in this place. This undoubtedly gives reference to the United States, where Protestantism and the King James Bible were to flourish, away from the scourge of Popery. We have a hiding place prepared by the Lord for our Time of Trouble. Read Ps 32:1-7; Isa 33:14-16; Ps 27:5, 6; Ps 91

Rev 12:6

Rev 12:6 - feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days - See Eze 4:6; Num 14:34; Dan 8:14, 9:24-27; Isa 33:15-17

Rev 12:7

Rev 12:7 - there was war in heaven - consider the spirit of Satan manifested that led to war in heaven, as exhibited through his agent Judas, one of Jesus' 12 disciples: From that time he expressed doubts that confused the disciples. He introduced controversies and misleading sentiments, repeating the arguments urged by the scribes and Pharisees against the claims of Christ. All the little and large troubles and crosses, the difficulties and the apparent hindrances to the advancement of the gospel, Judas interpreted as evidences against its truthfulness. He would introduce texts of Scripture that had no connection with the truths Christ was presenting. These texts, separated from their connection, perplexed the disciples, and increased the discouragement that was constantly pressing upon them. Yet all this was done by Judas in such a way as to make it appear that he was conscientious. And while the disciples were searching for evidence to confirm the words of the Great Teacher, Judas would lead them almost imperceptibly on another track. Thus in a very religious, and apparently wise, way he was presenting matters in a different light from that in which Jesus had given them, and attaching to His words a meaning that He had not conveyed. His suggestions were constantly exciting an ambitious desire for temporal preferment, and thus turning the disciples from the important things they should have considered. The dissension as to which of them should be greatest was generally excited by Judas. - {DA 719.2} In all that Christ said to His disciples, there was something with which, in heart, Judas disagreed. Under his influence the leaven of disaffection was fast doing its work. The disciples did not see the real agency in all this; but Jesus saw that Satan was communicating his attributes to Judas, and thus opening up a channel through which to influence the other disciples. This, a year before the betrayal, Christ declared. "Have not I chosen you twelve," He said, "and one of you is a devil?" Joh 6:70. - {DA 720.1}

Rev 12:7 - Michael - Michael is the name given to Jesus before becoming mankind's Savior. Michael is often seen in conflict with the enemy of souls Satan (Ju 9, Dan 10:13, 21) Michael-"Who is Like God?" a. Dan 9:25; 11:22; 10:21, 12:1, Act 3:15; 5:30, 31; Rev 1:5 b. Joh 5:25; 1Thess 4:16; Ju 9 c. Josh 5:13-15; Rev 12:7-9; Lk 10:18 d. Ex 3:1-6; Rev 15:4 e. Judg 13:8-23; Ex 13:21, 22; Isa 63:9; Act 7:37, 38

Rev 12:8

Rev 12:8 - And prevailed not - This is a comforting thought that despite our many failures and submissions to our wily foe, there is one with whom the devil has never prevailed - Jesus Christ! See Mt 4:1-11; Ju 9; Dan 10:12, 13, 20, 21; Job 1:7-12, 2:1-7

Rev 12:9

Rev 12:9 - And the great dragon was cast out - See Rev 12:3, 4; Lk 10:18; Joh 12:31 It was the marvel of all the universe that Christ should humble Himself to save fallen man. That He who had passed from star to star, from world to world, superintending all, by His providence supplying the needs of every order of being in His vast creation—that He should consent to leave His glory and take upon Himself human nature, was a mystery which the sinless intelligences of other worlds desired to understand. When Christ came to our world in the form of humanity, all were intensely interested in following Him as He traversed, step by step, the bloodstained path from the manger to Calvary. Heaven marked the insult and mockery that He received, and knew that it was at Satan's instigation. They marked the work of counteragencies going forward; Satan constantly pressing darkness, sorrow, and suffering upon the race, and Christ counteracting it. They watched the battle between light and darkness as it waxed stronger. And as Christ in His expiring agony upon the cross cried out, "It is finished" (Joh 19:30), a shout of triumph rang through every world and through heaven itself. The great contest that had been so long in progress in this world was now decided, and Christ was conqueror. His death had answered the question whether the Father and the Son had sufficient love for man to exercise self-denial and a spirit of sacrifice. Satan had revealed his true character as a liar and a murderer. It was seen that the very same spirit with which he had ruled the children of men who were under his power, he would have manifested if permitted to control the intelligences of heaven. With one voice the loyal universe united in extolling the divine administration. - {PP 69.3}

Rev 12:9

Rev 12:9 - deceiveth - the devil deceives the entire world, none are immune from his deceptions. The one who is deceived is ensnared and unaware of their blind, darkened condition (2Cor 4:3, 4; 2Tim 2:25, 26). Being ignorant or deceived is not shameful, but when one is shown light and continues to walk in darkness then that is a shameful thing. The only remedy for being deceived of Satan is to have one's mind renewed through the love of the truth. See Joh 14:6, 17:17; 2Thess 2:11; Tit 3:3

Rev 12:9

Rev 12:9 - he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him - See Lk 10:18; Rev 12:4, 13

Rev 12:10

Rev 12:10 - Now is come - With the expulsion of Satan and his rebel angels, came the opportunity to behold the mystery of God hid in Christ Jesus, held from the foundation of the world, as manifested towards humanity. The family in heaven would now come to see the love of God like never before as He would demonstrate towards humanity goodness and mercy. See Eph 3:10, 11 The Bible amazingly jumps from the past to the present and future tenses in this verse through verse 13. One must be familiar with this form of "prophetic writing" so that the one is not confused. The prophetic narrative is projected (Rom 4:17) to the cross of Christ, where the devil is cast down (Joh 12:31, 32) and the future where a voice from heaven sees the victory of Christ, offering: *Salvation *Strength [over sin] *The Kingdom of God [vindication of God, His Law and His Kingdom as well as the Kingdom being given to the saints (Dan 7:27), Lk 17:20,21] *Power of God's Christ (Anointed One) All of these things are manifest, along with the casting down of the accuser of the saints through Jesus' life, death, and resurrection. Could one sin have been found in Christ, had He in one particular yielded to Satan to escape the terrible torture, the enemy of God and man would have triumphed. Christ bowed His head and died, but He held fast His faith and His submission to God. "And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night." Rev 12:10. - {DA 761.1} Satan saw that his disguise was torn away. His administration was laid open before the unfallen angels and before the heavenly universe. He had revealed himself as a murderer. By shedding the blood of the Son of God, he had uprooted himself from the sympathies of the heavenly beings. Henceforth his work was restricted. Whatever attitude he might assume, he could no longer await the angels as they came from the heavenly courts, and before them accuse Christ's brethren of being clothed with the garments of blackness and the defilement of sin. The last link of sympathy between Satan and the heavenly world was broken. - {DA 761.2} Jesus did not yield up his life till he had accomplished the work which he came to do, and exclaimed with his departing breath, "It is finished." Satan then was defeated. He knew that his kingdom was lost. Angels rejoiced as the words were uttered, "It is finished." The great plan of redemption, which was dependent on the death of Christ, had been thus far carried out. And there was joy in Heaven that the sons of Adam could, through a life of obedience, be finally exalted to the throne of God. Oh, what love! What amazing love! that brought the Son of God to earth to be made sin for us, that we might be reconciled to God, and elevated to a life with him in his mansions in glory. Oh! What is man, that such a price should be paid for his redemption! - {PH169 12.1}

Rev 12:10

Rev 12:10 - the accuser - the devil stands as a prosecuting attorney, railing accusations against Christ for delivering the saints from his grasp, and against the saints as unworthy of His deliverance. The devil is as those former slave masters who demanded the return of their run-away or ransomed slaves. He has no just claims to them, having triumphed over them (through deception), as might against right, yet demands they return to his bondage. See Zech 3:1-5

Rev 12:10

Rev 12:10 - brethren - refers to those who overcome by the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony, as well as the unfallen angelic host, who too were accused by Satan and the 1/3 who rebelled against God. The angels consider themselves fellowservants and brethren with those who will inherit the Kingdom - See Rev 19:10

Rev 12:10

Rev 12:10 - cast down - See Lk 10:18 the casting down of Satan was found in the victorious incarnation and life of Jesus Christ - 1. That God would condescend to become One with His creation is a victory over the accusations of Satan - Dan 2:11; Philippians 2:5-11 2. That Jesus would live a life of self-denial, seeking only to honor His Father and magnify the law was a rebuke to Satan's claims 3. That the Law would be magnified and made honorable was a refute to the claim of the injustice of God's Law 4. That God would humble Himself to the point of death, even the death of the cross exposed Satan's claim of God being a selfish tyrant - Philippians 2:5-11

Rev 12:11

Rev 12:11 - overcame - the righteous are victorious through the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony: Rom 5:9 Mt 4:10 Eph 6:10-20 Ps 119:11 1Jo 3:8, 9, 2:13 Heb 13:15 There is great reward for all who overcome: See Rev 21:7 When, early in the reign of Jehoiakim, Nebuchadnezzar for the first time besieged and captured Jerusalem, and carried away Dan and his companions, with others specially chosen for service in the court of Babylon, the faith of the Hebrew captives was tried to the utmost. But those who had learned to place their trust in the promises of God found these all-sufficient in every experience through which they were called to pass during their sojourn in a strange land. The Scriptures proved to them a guide and a stay. - {PK 428.1}

Rev 12:11

Rev 12:11 - blood of the Lamb - Jesus' shed blood provides our: 1. Redemption, the forgiveness of our sins and reconciliation to the Father (Eph 1:7; Rev 1:5, Col 1:20-22) 2. Atonement, payment for sin 3. Cleansing and Sanctification from sin as He blots out all our records of sin (Heb 13:11, 12; 9:11-14) 4. Assurance of Protection from the Second Death 5. Perfection to perform every good work (Heb 13:20, 21) "Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred and tongue, and people, and nation; and hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth." Rev 5:9, 10 The First Angel's Message is embodied in the message of the POWER of the cross of Christ and the blood of Jesus that gives victory over every besetting sin, idol and selfish inclination.

Rev 12:11

Rev 12:11 - word of their testimony - See Ps 66:16; Rom 10:10, 6-8; John 14:30 Compare the testimony of God's Two Witnesses, the Old and New Testaments, typified by Elijah and Moses. Both men were given great POWER to proclaim the Word of God, the Law and the Prophets, the Law and the Gospel. Our personal testimonies give evidence of the power of the True and Living God to restore, revive, deliver, reform and empower. Our testimony must show that the graven images of our lives have been cast down and God reigns supreme: Isa 21:9 - And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground." The Second Angel's message speaks of our testimony (the voice of singing - Isa 48:20) drawing others from Babylon as idols are cast to the ground.

Rev 12:11

Rev 12:11 - loved not their lives unto the death - the victorious are those who value the heavenly crown more than their lives (Heb 12:4). As the three Hebrew faithful, they are willing to lay down their lives for Christ rather than to deny God and willfully commit sin (Dan 3:16-18; Rev 2:10, 6:9, 11; Mt 10:39, 11:28-30, 16:24; Ps 44:22, 119:112; 1Pet 4:16) The Third Angel's Message speaks of self-sacrificing love, which the true believer must have towards God. As the 3 Hebrew worthies had complete confidence in God's power to deliver them from the fiery furnace, they simultaneously purposed that even if it was not God's will to save them, they would not bow and worship the golden idol. They rather crucify self and sin than crucify the Lord anew. Bring me to that Rock which is Higher than I. The disciples were not endowed with the courage and fortitude of the martyrs until such grace was needed. Then the Saviour's promise was fulfilled. When Peter and Joh testified before the Sanhedrin council, men "marveled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus." Act 4:13. Of Stephen it is written that "all that sat in the council, looking steadfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel." Men "were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake." Act 6:15, 10. And Paul, writing of his own trial at the court of the Caesars, says, "At my first defense no one took my part, but all forsook me.... But the Lord stood by me, and strengthened me; that through me the message might be fully proclaimed, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion." 2Tim 4:16, 17, R. V. - {DA 354.3}

Rev 12:12

Rev 12:12 - Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them - the verse speaks of inhabited worlds within the heavens. See Heb 1:1, 2

Rev 12:12

Rev 12:12 - earth and of the sea - Joh is directed by inspiration to note both earth and sea, a throw-back to the creation story, symbolizing all who dwell upon this rogue planet.

Rev 12:12

Rev 12:12 - for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time - when the universal death decree is issued, this will mark the time of Jacob's Trouble for the people of God. See Jer 30:5-7

Rev 12:13

Rev 12:13 - he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child - The Red Horse era, a blood stained era, preceded the Dark Ages under papal persecutions. See Rev 6:3, 4, 12:1, 2 The battles we fight are not against flesh and blood but against principalities and powers and the rulers of the darkness of this world. Satan and his imps are waging war against God ultimately but seek to do so by molesting the apple of His eye, the church and all who are to be gathered in. Satan uses force and violence to persecute men (Dan 7:25) while seeking to cause us to sin and to fall out of God's will, ultimately putting us in a position to bring God's punishment and chastisement upon us. However, Jesus counsels that sin lies at the door and its desire is for us [to rule over us], but we are too rule over it. See Eph 6:12; 1Chron 21:1; Gen 4:7 Today the church of God is free to carry forward to completion the divine plan for the salvation of a lost race. For many centuries God's people suffered a restriction of their liberties. The preaching of the gospel in its purity was prohibited, and the severest of penalties were visited upon those who dared disobey the mandates of men. As a consequence, the Lord's great moral vineyard was almost wholly unoccupied. The people were deprived of the light of God's word. The darkness of error and superstition threatened to blot out a knowledge of true religion. God's church on earth was as verily in captivity during this long period of relentless persecution as were the children of Israel held captive in Babylon during the period of the exile. - {PK 714.1}

Rev 12:14

Rev 12:14 - she is nourished - the Church of God is fed on Milk and Honey, the heritage of Jacob, during the 1,260 years of papal rule (1Pet 2:1-3; Ps 119:103, 104; Jer 15:16). During this time the papacy (Jezebel) was causing the world to eat foods sacrificed to idols (Rev 2:20).

Rev 12:14

Rev 12:14 - time, times, half a time - the same duration of the Little Horn's reign (Dan 7:25; Rev 12:6) is the time that the woman, the church, flees into the wilderness where she has a place (refuge) prepared for her by God.

Rev 12:15

Rev 12:15 - flood - the flood spewed out of the mouth of the dragon/serpent against the woman are armies. Dan 9:26, Isa 8:7, 8, 28:2, 17-19; 2Sam 22:5. The dragon also spewed out a "flood of false doctrine" with which he subdued the world and sought to overflow the teachings of the Bible and the true Church of God. 2Pet 2:1-3, 3:16, 17; Act 20:28-30; Rev 2:20

Rev 12:16

Rev 12:16 - earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth - the Lord caused His faithful people to flee to mountainous caverns, caves and remote villages in the wilderness, away from the corruptions of the apostate church system. Further, North America, the United States (that is likened to a Lamb-like beast [nation] that arises from the earth) is that which aided the woman to flee from the oppressions of Europe to seek religious liberty in the New World. The Lamb, is a symbol of religious liberty.

Rev 12:16

Rev 12:16 - the flood - a flood of military might (See Isa 28:2) as well as a flood of deceptions to corrupt the world.

Rev 12:17

Rev 12:17 - And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ - See Isa 30:10-12; Hosea 4:6 The dignitaries of Church and State will unite to bribe, persuade, or compel all classes to honor the Sunday. The lack of divine authority will be supplied by oppressive enactments. Political corruption is destroying love of justice and regard for truth, and in order to secure public favor, legislators will yield to the popular demand for a law enforcing Sunday observance. Liberty of conscience, which has cost this nation so great a sacrifice, will no longer be respected. In the soon-coming conflict we shall see exemplified the prophet's words: "And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ." [Revelation 12:17.] - {4SP 410.1} Kings and rulers and governors have placed upon themselves the brand of antichrist, and are represented as the dragon who goes to make war with the saints—with those who keep the commandments of God and who have the faith of Jesus. In their enmity against the people of God, they show themselves guilty also of the choice of Barabbas instead of Christ. - {TM 38.2}

Rev 12:17

Rev 12:17 - remnant - the remnant of Jesus Christ, the woman's Seed; the Lord's portion [as in a tenth (tithe)] that is holy and consecrated to the Lord which remains when all others are scattered. They walk not in the flesh but in the Spirit of life and are called the sons of God (Rom 8:9, 13, 14) . See Isa 1:9, 6:13; 10:16-23; Zeph 3:12; Ps 119:1-3, 22:30, 31; Zech 13:8, 9 "That which God purposed to do for the world through Israel, the chosen nation, He will finally accomplish through His church on earth today (Gal 1:13). He has "let out His vineyard unto other husbandmen," even to His covenant-keeping people, who faithfully "render Him the fruits in their seasons." Never has the Lord been without true representatives on this earth who have made His interests their own. These witnesses for God are numbered among the spiritual Israel, and to them will be fulfilled all the covenant promises made by Jehovah to His ancient people." - {Prophets & Kings 713.1}. See Isa 10:19-23 The remnant are but a few among the hosts of Israel - Isa 1:9; Deut 7:6-8 The remnant have bound up the testimony [of the prophets] and have sealed the law of God in their hearts - Isa 8:16 The enemy of souls has sought to bring in the supposition that a great reformation was to take place among Seventh-day Adventists, and that this reformation would consist in giving up the doctrines which stand as the pillars of our faith, and engaging in a process of reorganization. Were this reformation to take place, what would result? The principles of truth that God in His wisdom has given to the remnant church, would be discarded. Our religion would be changed. The fundamental principles that have sustained the work for the last fifty years would be accounted as error. A new organization would be established. Books of a new order would be written. A system of intellectual philosophy would be introduced. The founders of this system would go into the cities, and do a wonderful work. The Sabbath of course, would be lightly regarded, as also the God who created it. Nothing would be allowed to stand in the way of the new movement. The leaders would teach that virtue is better than vice, but God being removed, they would place their dependence on human power, which, without God, is worthless. Their foundation would be built on the sand, and storm and tempest would sweep away the structure. - {1SM 204.2}

Rev 12:17

Rev 12:17 - keep the commandments - the commandments of God are to be established (upheld and made glorious) by the last day remnant before the coming of the Lord. The commandments testify of the One True Living God as both Creator and Redeemer: See Joh 14:21 "I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage [Redeemer]... for in six days the LORD made the heaven and the earth, the seas and all that in them is [Creator]..." Christ has a church in every age. Obedience to the commandments of God gives us a right to the privileges of this church. There are those in the church who are made no better by their connection with it. They themselves break the terms of their election. If we comply with the conditions God has made, we shall secure our election to salvation. Perfect obedience to his commandments is the evidence that we love God. - {RH July 17, 1900 Par. 22}

Rev 12:17

Rev 12:17 - testimony of Jesus Christ - Jesus' testimony, recorded in John 14:30, was that "the devil had nothing in Him.". This is the full culmination of the Plan of Redemption in the 144,000, for whom sins are blotted out, put away entirely and they live without a trace of sin. 1Jo 5:18; 1Cor 1:6, 7; Rev 19:10 "The daily service in the earthly sanctuary was for the recording of sin, a kind of continual intercession. The once-in-a-year Day of Atonement was for the blotting out of sins and for banishing them to the wilderness. It remained for the sin of man to be recorded at the cross and the true Lamb to begin His continual intercession. A way was provided for every known sin to be confessed and put right. The mind of man was to be freed and his conscious guilt washed away. But at the close of the 2300 days, after 1844, a different and much larger work was to be accomplished. Now the atonement would remove not just conscious guilt and allow man to function in spite of sin but he would be granted the ultimate revelation of this heavenly work which would illuminate the deepest recesses of the unconscious heart or mind to the complete overcoming of sin. Thus there was to be gathered out a unique group of people never before seen in the universe. This group was to be a body of "144,000" souls made ready to be the Bride of Christ. They would stand before the throne "without fault." {Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short, pg 137, 138} "The eyes of the mind need to be enlightened by the Holy Spirit, that they may discern between good and evil. . . . Repentance for this or that particular act is not sufficient. The heart must be cleansed. Wrong-doing is the outflowing of the fountain of an unclean, unconverted heart." {Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short, pg 138} Jesus, the Great I AM, The Living Word, Who sees all things (past, present and future), gives testimony of what He has seen and experienced as revealed by His Father. see Rev 19:10, 1:1; Joh 1:1-3, 14 The only safety now is to search for the truth as revealed in the word of God, as for hid treasure. The subjects of the Sabbath [a guard against the Mk of the Beast], the nature of man [a guard against Spiritualism], and the testimony of Jesus [an understanding of the mistakes of the past and the trials ahead] are the great and important truths to be understood; these will prove as an anchor to hold God's people in these perilous times. {1T 300.1} In vision I saw two armies in terrible conflict. One army was led by banners bearing the world's insignia; the other was led by the bloodstained banner of Prince Immanuel. Standard after standard was left to trail in the dust as company after company from the Lord's army joined the foe and tribe after tribe from the ranks of the enemy united with the commandment-keeping people of God. An angel flying in the midst of heaven put the standard of Immanuel into many hands, while a mighty general cried out with a loud voice: "Come into line. Let those who are loyal to the commandments of God and the testimony of Christ now take their position. Come out from among them, and be ye separate, and touch not the unclean, and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be My sons and daughters. Let all who will come up to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty." - {CCh 340.5}

Rev 13:1

Rev 13:1 - sea - a densely populated area. See Rev 17:15, Dan 7:17 Joh faces the sea upon which 4 winds blew in Dan 7:2, 3, and sees the beast rise-up out of the sea (538A.D.)

Rev 13:1

Rev 13:1 - rise up - The rise of the Beast of the sea had its beginnings in the time of Paul where he speaks to the Thessalonians of the rise of the man of sin and son of perdition. Having studied Eze 28 and Dan 7, 8 and 11, Paul understood a world power, which came to be known as the Papacy, would arise via signs and lying wonders of Satan [transforming the worship of pagan deities, Jupiter, Saturn, Mars, Hermes, etc. into "Christian" saints] after 'the daily', paganism, would be deposed. In his time, Paul saw that paganism was restraining the rise of Papalism, however the same spirit of antichrist was being made manifest in his day (2Thess 2:3-9; 1Jo 2:18)

Rev 13:1

Rev 13:1 - seven heads, ten horns, ten crowns - the division of the Roman Empire into 10 parts by 10 kins (Dan 7:24) as of A.D.476 and the uprooting of the 3 horns by the Little Horn that refused to become Catholic by A.D.538 reveals the use of the numbers 10 and 7 in the prophecy (Dan 7:7, 8). Satan's parroting of the numbers 7 (7 meaning completion/perfection as in the days of the week) and 10 (10 meaning completeness/perfection/ and a test a in the 10 commandments) used by God shows his blasphemous desire to "be like the Most High God"

Rev 13:1

Rev 13:1 - horns - See Dan 7:24

Rev 13:1

Rev 13:1 - upon his heads the name of blasphemy - The names of blasphemy written on the heads suggests the leadership of this kingdom would have a mind of blasphemy, thinking and believe blasphemous thoughts (fontal lobe). The many names that the Papacy assumes for itself give evidence to its character: Vicar (Representative) of the Son of God [Vicarius Filii Dei]- (written upon the brow of the triple crown tiara) Holy Father The Great God Pontifex Maximus Lord God the Pope see Joh 10:33, Luk 5:21, Mk 2:5-11 for definition of blasphemy Forehead is the seat of thinking, just as this power "thinks to change times and laws"

Rev 13:2

Rev 13:2 - leopard - the Greek Empire and its humanistic doctrines is that which the Beast from the Sea most closely resembles and from which it takes the greatest part of its tenets. Key tenets taken from the Greeks that were incorporated into the Beast from the Sea include: 1. The leader (Alexander "the Great") in self-exaltation made himself to be god 2. Philosophy (the love of [human] wisdom), the study of reason, the mind, and human knowledge on par with or above the Word of God 3. Doctrine of an immortal soul 4. Polytheism and female deities (triumvirate of God the Father, Mary, Jesus) - Mariolatry 5. Greeks taught western thought to write history without gods - an atheistic bent 6. Introduced the theatre to parody life 7. Democratic thought 8. Tyrants were people not "having legal right" to rule but took over. Some tyrants were good, liberating people from selfish aristocracy and oligarchs. The Prophets comment about the Leopard Like Beast and says that it is a patient and observant animal (Hos 13:7), waiting to gain vantage ground and the opportune moment to seize its prey (Jer 5:6). The leopard preys upon the young and the weak and therefore this power's strategy would be one of deceptive influence through educational systems and feigned service to the poor and downtrodden. The evil works of this system reveal its true nature which would never change (Jer 13:23)

Rev 13:2

Rev 13:2 - bear feet - the Medo Persian empire is represented in the Beast from the Sea for the following tenets: 1. Infallibility, the king's words and writings were inalterable (Dan 6:15; Est 8:8) 2. The king was as a god 3. A confederacy of governors, princes, and other civil authorities passed an unrighteous decree (Ps 83:1-5; Isa 10:1-3) against the people of God

Rev 13:2

Rev 13:2 - lion's mouth - the Babylonian Empire under Nebuchadnezzar is represented in the Beast from the Sea for the following tenets: 1. Extreme wealth 2. World renown 3. Forced worship 4. Idolatry 5. Pride 6. Mixing the sacred with the common- profaning the sacred things of God (Belshazzar) 7. Blasphemy and great words ("who is the God that can deliver you from my hands") 8. Desolators of God's people

Rev 13:2

Rev 13:2 - dragon - this beast represents Satan's (the dragon) next strategy for subduing the Church of God. Unable to conquer God's church through persecution as seen in Rev 12, the devil seeks to join the church through an institution that masquerades Christianity but is pagan at its core. The line of prophecy in which these symbols are found, begins with Revelation 12, with the dragon that sought to destroy Christ at his birth. The dragon is said to be Satan; [Revelation 12:9.] he it was that moved upon Herod to put the Saviour to death. But the chief agent of Satan in making war upon Christ and his people during the first centuries of the Christian era, was the Roman Empire, in which paganism was the prevailing religion. Thus while the dragon, primarily, represents Satan, it is, in a secondary sense, a symbol of pagan Rome. - {GC88 438.2} Kings and rulers and governors have placed upon themselves the brand of antichrist, and are represented as the dragon who goes to make war with the saints—with those who keep the commandments of God and who have the faith of Jesus. In their enmity against the people of God, they show themselves guilty also of the choice of Barabbas instead of Christ. - {TM 38.2}

Rev 13:2

Rev 13:2 - power - [dynamis - intrinsic strength, force, power, might] the power yielded to the Beast from the Sea by the dragon [Satan through pagan Rome] is embodied in the military and civil support (police power) of the 7 European monarchs who forsook paganism and converted to Catholicism (A.D.476-508). This "power" was foreshadowed in the works of the religious leadership of Israel towards Jesus, in that they sought to bring charge against Him and deliver Him to the Roman authorities for punishment. See Lk 20:19, 20

Rev 13:2

Rev 13:2 - seat - the seat yielded to the Beast is the city of Rome (the sanctuary of strength - Dan 8:11 11:31), once the capital of the Pagan Roman Empire but forsaken in A.D.330 by Constantine for Constantinople, Turkey. One of the 7 last plagues (judgments) will be issued on the seat of the beast. See Rev 2:13, 16:10

Rev 13:2

Rev 13:2 - Great Authority - Justinian, having "indignation against the holy covenant" [the Bible] (Dan 11:30): 1. Pronounces the Bishop of Rome the "head of all bishops and the true and effective corrector of heretics." Further he ascribes the following verse to the Bishop of Rome: "By me kings reign, and the powers dispense justice" -Prov 8:15 [Code of Justinian A.D.533]. This sanctioned the "self-exalting" [gadal- great] authority over both men and kings 2. Confiscated and banned the Bible from common use under the direction of the Bishop of Rome A.D.538

Rev 13:2

Rev 13:2 - Great Authority II - Authority to command one to come and go at one's will (Mt 8:9). Without doubt, the Little horn of Dan 7 and the Leopard-like beast from the Sea are the same power: 1. Has characteristics of men and not of God (Dan 7:8; Rev 13:18) 2. Makes war and wears-out the saints of God (Dan 7:25, Rev 13:7) 3. Speaks blasphemous words against God (Dan 7:25, Rev 13:6) 4. Appears during the era of the 10 divisions of Rome (Dan 7:8, Rev 13:1, 2) 5. Details the destruction of 3 kings of the divided Roman Empire, leaving 7 (Dan 7:20, 24, Rev 13:1) 6. Rules for 1,260years (Dan 7:25, Rev 13:5)

Rev 13:3

Revelation 13:3 - as it were - as it were means that "it appears as if", or "seems to have had". This is the deception of the devil, that there was a mortal wound when in fact, it had never died.

Rev 13:3

Rev 13:3 - The deadly wound to the Beast in 1798A.D. is given by the taking away of the three things it was given by the Dragon: its power, its seat and its great authority. The Papal Captivity marked the loss of its power (military and civil advocacy by the kings of the world), seat (pope was removed from Rome and made a captive in Valence, France) and authority (ability to rule sway over the kings of the earth). The death and resurrection of the Papacy is likened to the destruction of Tyre in Isa 23 that after 70years of desolation, would once again lift her voice once again as a harlot and have fornication with the kings of the earth.

Rev 13:3

Rev 13:3

Rev 13:3 - The LORD has given us Dan 11:40-45 to illustrate the details involved in the healing of the deadly wound. The healing of the deadly wound must imply the restoration of those three things it once had that were taken away. The healing of the wound can be seen in the following events: 1929- Mussolini's Lateran Treaty grants Papacy a land grant known as Vatican City (seat), establishing it as a sovereign nation 1989 - The US President Regan, having intelligence with Pope Joh Paul II brings Communism to its knees. The military arms race that overthrew Communism shows the [military/civil] "Power" being granted to the Papacy SOON - Authority: the Papacy is slowly but steadily gaining in popularity, influence, and prestige and is already head over the heads of the world. Former Israeli President Shimon Peres stated on June 8, 2014 that Pope Francis is more influential than the entire United Nations" and should serve as the moral guide for the world. He advocated a "U.N.-style "Organisation of United Religions" to combat violence in God's name" under the direction of Francis. People who shoot the most these days, nearly always say they are doing it in God's name," Peres said. What is needed is an unquestionable moral authority that says in a strong voice 'No, God does not want this and does not permit it',". Peres felt that Francis should lead this world religious organization because "he is perhaps the only leader who is truly respected". The wound is almost healed!

Rev 13:3

Rev 13:3 - wondered - the resurrection of the Beast from the Sea and the healing of its deadly wound is a "wonderful" thing that causes the world to see the beast with awe. The world will in turn wander after the Beast, seeing it as the moral authority upon the earth. See Lk 11:14; Act 3:10 As the world wonders after the beast the saints of God experience a crisis in the Little Time of Trouble and the Great Time of Trouble. "Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake. The time cometh that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service." Mt 24:9; Joh 16:2

Rev 13:4

Rev 13:4 - they worshipped - Rev 13:4 and 8 are as bookends, speaking of the future of the Leopard-like beast, once its wound is fully healed. Rev 13:5-7 describe the works of the beast while it reigns over the earth and before its deadly wound is fully healed.

Rev 13:4

Rev 13:4 - dragon - The dragon spoken here is of course the devil, however, one may assert that it is the devil again working through yet another medium. By the time of the deadly wound being healed, the dragon power is embodied by the scourge of Spiritualism.

Spiritualism and the False prophet both direct the homage of the world to the Beast power that counterfeits Christ so that he may be all in all (1Cor 15:24-28; Rev 16:13, 14).

Rev 13:4

Rev 13:4 - Who is like unto the Beast - The worship of the Beast is comparable to the praise given to God in Ps 113:1-5. The highest praise to God Who sustains and empowers, is parroted by those who worship the Beast and in turn the devil.

Rev 13:4

Rev 13:4 - See Eze 28:7-9: Who can make war with God? A reflection of the boast of the Papacy to be God on earth, one of his many names of blasphemy (Rev 13:1)

Rev 13:5 - continue forty and two months - during the 1,260 years of the Dark Ages, when the Bible was taken from men, when the Sabbath of the Lord was hidden, and the voice of the Spirit of prophecy was no longer heard directing the church, then they lost sight of the beautiful antitypical work represented by the ancient sanctuary service. {The Cross and its Shadow pg. 23}

Rev 13:6 - God Himself is blasphemed by this boastful power which claims to be God, to have the powers of God, claims to be able to revoke God's eternal Law by changing times

Rev 13:6 - blasphemy against God - God Himself is blasphemed by this boastful power which claims to be God, to have the powers of God, claims to be able to revoke God's eternal Law by changing times and laws and claims to be able to overrule God and His rulings to permit or ban humans from heaven. See 2Thess 2:4, Eze 28:2-10. "But our wonder should be far greater when we find that in obedience to the words of His priests— HOC EST CORPUS MEUM [This is My body]— God Himself descends on the altar, that He comes wherever they call Him, and as often as they call Him, and places Himself in their hands, even though they should be His enemies. And after having come, He remains, entirely at their disposal; they move Him on the altar, or carry Him outside the church; they may, if they choose, eat His flesh, and give Him for the food of others. 'Oh, how very great is their power,' says St. Laurence Justinian, speaking of priests. 'A word falls from their lips and the body of Christ is there substantially formed from the matter of bread, and the Incarnate Word descended from heaven, is found really present on the table of the altar!'" {Alphonsus de Liguori, Dignity and Duties of the Priest, pp 34-36}

Rev 13:6 - his tabernacle - The work of Christ as High Priest in the Most Holy Place during this, the antitypical Day of Atonement, is blasphemed through the meaningless confessionals and rituals of the Church of Rome. When men should be rending their hearts, living in simplicity and offering all their petitions for forgiveness and mercy before the Lord and the heavenly tribunal, they are made to live frivolous haphazard lives because of this apostate system. The Sons of Eli typify the blasphemy of God's temple and service as follows: The sons of Eli, instead of realizing the solemnity of this symbolic service, only thought how they could make it a means of self-indulgence. Not content with the part of the peace offerings allotted them, they demanded an additional portion; and the great number of these sacrifices presented at the annual feasts gave the priests an opportunity to enrich themselves at the expense of the people. They not only demanded more than their right, but refused to wait even until the fat had been burned as an offering to God. They persisted in claiming whatever portion pleased them, and, if denied, threatened to take it by violence. - {PP 576.2} This irreverence on the part of the priests soon robbed the service of its holy and solemn significance, and the people "abhorred the offering of the Lord." The great antitypical sacrifice to which they were to look forward was no longer recognized. "Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the Lord." - {PP 576.3} These unfaithful priests also transgressed God's law and dishonored their sacred office by their vile and degrading practices; yet they continued to pollute by their presence the tabernacle of God. Many of the people, filled with indignation at the corrupt course of Hophni and Phinehas, ceased to come up to the appointed place of worship. Thus the service which God had ordained was despised and neglected because associated with the sins of wicked men, while those whose hearts were inclined to evil were emboldened in sin. Ungodliness, profligacy, and even idolatry prevailed to a fearful extent. - {PP 576.4}

Rev 13:7

Rev 13:7 - given unto him - As part of the Great Controversy, The Lord permits Satan to exercise a measure of power for the following reasons: 1. To contrast His Kingdom of Righteousness to Satan's Throne of Iniquity 2. To prove/test/try His people so that they may be refined through affliction (Isa 30:20, 21; Mal 3:2-4) 3. To demonstrate God's righteous character in the lives of the faithful, despite the attacks of the enemy - fulfilling the enmity spoken in Gen 3:15

Rev 13:7

Rev 13:7 - and to overcome them - But a Satanic spirit drove humanity from the hearts of their pursuers, and led them to devise a means of killing these wounded men whom they could not capture. Wood and leaves were piled at the various crevices of the rock, and set on fire, and the prisoners soon perished from suffocation. After partaking of our simple lunch, we climbed up to this cave, and explored it as far as we could. Then one of our number crawled, feet first, between the rocks, and dropped himself into the inner cave where the poor martyrs miserably perished. - {HS 240.1} History tells us of several occasions when the same means of extermination was resorted to and that, too, on a much larger scale. The valley of Loyse was the scene of one of the most horrible of these tragedies. The inhabitants were quietly pursuing their vocations, when they were surprised by seeing an armed force twenty times their own number enter their valley. "Despairing of being able to resist them, they at once prepared for flight. Placing their old people and children in rustic carts, together with their domestic utensils, and such store of victuals as the urgency of the occasion permitted them to collect, and driving their herds before them, they began to climb the rugged slopes of the mountains, which rise some six thousand feet over the level of the valley." "About half way up, there is an immense cavern. In front of the cavern is a platform of rock, where the spectator sees beneath him only fearful precipices, which must be clambered over before one can reach the entrance to the grotto. The roof of the cave forms a magnificent arch, which gradually subsides and contracts into a narrow passage, or throat, and then widens once more and forms a roomy hall of irregular form. Into this grotto, as into an impregnable castle, did the Vaudois enter. Their women, infants, and old men, they placed in the inner hall; their cattle and sheep they distributed along the lateral cavities of the grotto. The able-bodied men posted themselves at the entrance. Having barricaded with huge stones both the doorway of the cave and the path that led to it, they deemed themselves secure." "It would cost them little effort to hurl headlong down the precipices any one who should attempt to scale them in order to reach the entrance of the cavern. - {HS 240.2} "But a device of their pursuers rendered all these precautions and defenses vain. Ascending the mountain on the other side, and approaching the cave from above, the soldiers were let down by ropes from the precipice overhanging the entrance to the grotto. The platform in front was thus secured. The Vaudois might have cut the ropes, and dispatched their foes as they were being lowered one by one; but the boldness of the maneuver would seem to have paralyzed them. They retreated into the cavern to find in it their grave. Seeing the danger of permitting his men to follow them into the depths of their hiding-place, the general adopted the easier and safer method of piling up at its entrance all the wood he could collect and setting fire to it. A huge volume of black smoke began to roll into the cave, leaving to the unhappy inmates the miserable alternative of rushing out and falling by the sword that waited for them, or of remaining in the interior to be stifled by the murky vapor. Some rushed out, and were massacred; but the greater part remained until death slowly approached them by suffocation. When the cavern was afterward examined, there were found in it four hundred infants, suffocated in their cradles or in the arms of their dead mothers. Altogether there perished in this cavern more than three thousand Vaudois, including the entire population of the valley of Loyse." - {HS 240.3}

Rev 13:7

Rev 13:7 - power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations - the Papacy, as creditor to European conquistadors, bank-rolled their expeditions of conquest where they settled and claimed lands for their nation and subjugated the people (colonized) under the papal cross. In so doing, the nations, under papal control, divided the land for gain (Dan 11:39). As the lands were being colonized, the people were simultaneously being indoctrinated to the catholic faith. This work was most effectively carried out by Jesuit priests who accompanied the often similarly ruthless explorers. At the command of the priests, indigenous men and women were massacred, leaving the impressionable children who by the Jesuit boast, 'Give me the child for his first seven years, and I'll give you the man,'

Rev 13:8

Rev 13:8 - whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world - The statement suggests that though Jesus is the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world (1Pet 1:19, 20; Heb 4:3; Eph 1:4), names that appear in the Lamb's book of life are written after the foundation of the world. It is when we accept Christ that our names are registered in the Lamb's Book of Life, therefore the wicked have no part with the righteous (Ps 1:5, 6). See Rev 17:8; Lk 10:20; Jer 9:24

Rev 13:8

Rev 13:8 - the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world - By rebellion and apostasy man forfeited the favor of God; not his rights, for he could have no value except as it was invested in God's dear Son. This point must be understood. He forfeited those privileges which God in His mercy presented him as a free gift, a treasure in trust to be used to advance His cause and His glory, to benefit the beings He had made. The moment the workmanship of God refused obedience to the laws of God's kingdom, that moment he became disloyal to the government of God and he made himself entirely unworthy of all the blessings wherewith God had favored him. - {FW 21.1} This was the position of the human race after man divorced himself from God by transgression. Then he was no longer entitled to a breath of air, a ray of sunshine, or a particle of food. And the reason why man was not annihilated was because God so loved him that He made the gift of His dear Son that He should suffer the penalty of his transgression. Christ proposed to become man's surety and substitute, that man, through matchless grace, should have another trial—a second probation—having the experience of Adam and Eve as a warning not to transgress God's law as they did. And inasmuch as man enjoys the blessings of God in the gift of the sunshine and the gift of food, there must be on the part of man a bowing before God in thankful acknowledgment that all things come of God. Whatever is rendered back to Him is only His own who has given it. - {FW 21.2}

Rev 13:8 - a foundation is the first thing laid when building a structure. Therefore Jesus was slain, assuming our guilt, punishment and death from the foundation of the world. See Eph 1:4; 3:9; 1Cor 2:7; Heb 4:3; 1Pet 1:19, 20; Act 2:23; 1Tim 3:16

Rev 13:9 - let him hear - Jesus gives a similar admonition to all who hear His prophecy to understand His counsels (Mt 24:15). Speaking of the same desolater given by the Abomination of Desolation (Pagan/Papal Rome), Jesus highlights of the Papacy and its predecessor.

Rev 13:10 - Natural followed by the Spiritual: 1Cor 15:46 The Papacy led the faithful saints of God into captivity and the entire world, for a period of 1,260 years. First the world was led into the bondage of spiritual, moral and social darkness when the bible was seized and men were left prey to the cunning of power hungry priest who rendered human dogmas over the bible. Secondly the saints of God were led captive to the stake, to a life of imprisonment, or to death. Just as countless millions were killed by the Papal Roman sword, the arrival of the KJV Bible with the Protestant Reformation sent a death blow to the false doctrines and imposed blindness by the Papacy - eventually leading to its overthrow by the literal sword of France in 1798. See Jer 51:49 In a secondary sense, Napoleon Bonaparte [representing atheistic France - the Dragon power] who took the pope [the Beast power] into captivity and had him die in exile on an island would too be banished to St. Helena island and would die in captivity.

Rev 13:10 - He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. - Natural followed by the Spiritual: 1Cor 15:46 The Papacy led the Bible and the faithful saints of God into captivity for a period of 1,260 years. See Jer 51:49 In a secondary sense, Napoleon Bonaparte [representing atheistic France - the Dragon power] who took the pope [the Beast power] into captivity and had him die in exile on an island would too be banished to St. Helena island and would die in captivity. Satan well knew that the Holy Scriptures would enable men to discern his deceptions and withstand his power. It was by the word that even the Saviour of the world had resisted his attacks. At every assault, Christ presented the shield of eternal truth, saying, "It is written." To every suggestion of the adversary, He opposed the wisdom and power of the word. In order for Satan to maintain his sway over men, and establish the authority of the papal usurper, he must keep them in ignorance of the Scriptures. The Bible would exalt God and place finite men in their true position; therefore its sacred truths must be concealed and suppressed. This logic was adopted by the Roman Church. For hundreds of years the circulation of the Bible was prohibited. The people were forbidden to read it or to have it in their houses, and unprincipled priests and prelates interpreted its teachings to sustain their pretensions. Thus the pope came to be almost universally acknowledged as the vicegerent of God on earth, endowed with authority over church and state. - {GC 51.3}

Rev 13:10 - patience - the cheerful hope, expectation of the saints (the host of God, the prisoners of hope - Zech 9:12) who with God's sanctuary had been trodden under foot for 1,260years (See Dan 8:13; Rev 6:10, 11; 3:10, 8:3-5). The saints patiently wait on God to avenge the wrongs inflicted upon them. See Lk 18:7

Rev 13:11

Rev 13:11 - I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth - The year here mentioned in 1776-1798, the era of the rise of the United States of America (See Rev 10:2, contrast Rev 17:15). The birth of the USA was a product of the Reformation and the Renaissance (cultural rebirth of Greco-Roman world). Consider the Spirit of Prophecy: At the time when the Papacy, robbed of its strength, was forced to desist from persecution, Joh beheld a new power coming up to echo the dragon's voice, and carry forward the same cruel and blasphemous work. This power, the last that is to wage war against the church and the law of God, is represented by a beast with lamblike horns. The beasts preceding it had risen from the sea; but this came up out of the earth, representing the peaceful rise of the nation which it symbolized—the United States. - {ST February 8, 1910 Par. 5}

Rev 13:11 - The word "horn" is used in the Bible as a symbol for strength, glory, defense, and power (1Sam 2:1, 22:3; Job 16:15; Ps 18:2, 89:24; 92:10, Zech 1:18-21). Therefore the strength of this Christ-like (Lamb-like) nation is embodied in its two horns. The two horns represent the key tenets espoused at the founding of this nation: 1. Republicanism (a representative government by the people, for the people) 2. Protestantism which in honoring man's freedom to worship and his moral rights, calls for the separation of Church & State. The tenets once upheld by pioneers of Protestantism were as follows: 1. Sola Scriptura - The Bible alone as the source of all truth 2. Soli Deo Gloria - Glory to God alone, not men (Mt 6:13) 3. Sola Gratia - God's gift of grace alone can save men 4. Sola Fide - Men are saved through faith, believing in, and living by, God's grace 5. Solus Christus - Christ is man's only Source of forgiveness, reconciliation with God, and salvation All two horn powers in the Bible in some manner ultimately foreshadow the great and last two-horn power, the USA: 1. Medo-Persia 2. France (represented by Sodom, Egypt) 3. Israel (Northern, Southern Kingdoms) 4. Judah (Judah, Benjamin)

Medo-Persia 2. France (represented by Sodom, Egypt) 3. Israel (Northern, Southern Kingdoms) 4. Judah (Judah, Benjamin) In writing the U.S. Constitution with a caution to any magistrate establishing the supremacy of any religious sect, the following was written: "It is impossible for the magistrate to adjudge the right of preference among the various sects that profess the Christian faith without erecting a claim to infallibility which would lead us back to the church of Rome." This statement shows that there was extreme caution and aversion of the new colonies not falling back to the ways of the Old World where the papacy claimed primacy and therefore ruled despotically. {The Memorial of Hanover Presbety - Oct 24, 1776}

Rev 13:11 - spake as a dragon - How does a dragon speak? Rev 13:15 Lk 6:45 Joh 8:44, 11:47-53, 16:1-3 Eze 29:2, 3 Ex 5:2 (gadal, blasphemy, atheism) Gen 3:1, 4, 5 When the U.S. speaks contrary to the doctrine and tenets embodied in the Bible [and its own constitution] that it was specifically set-up to protect, then it speaks as a dragon. The spirit of intolerance shown by Puritan settlers towards Roger Williams who eventually founded the state of Rhode Island demonstrated the precursor of dragon-speech. Also the nation's promotion and benefit from the institution of slavery was another early example of dragon-speak from the U.S. The U.S.'s expansionist agenda under capitalism was demonstrated in Latin America and the Caribbean, where it sought to exploit those nations' natural resources and control their sovereignty through puppet governments (Banana Republics), oppressive regulations and stifling debt (IMF, World Bank) is another example of dragon-speak. More recently, this nation turning its back upon the Bible and advocating for gay marriage; as well as its use of excessive and preemptive force domestically and internationally (sanctions against "enemie" nations - Iran, Venezuela) are other examples of dragon speech. I was shown that if the object of this war had been to exterminate slavery, then, if desired, England would have helped the North. But England fully understands the existing feelings in the Government, and that the war is not to do away slavery, but merely to preserve the Union; and it is not for her interest to have it preserved. Our Government has been very proud and independent. The people of this nation have exalted themselves to heaven, and have looked down upon monarchical governments, and triumphed in their boasted liberty, while the institution of slavery, that was a thousand times worse than the tyranny exercised by monarchical governments, was suffered to exist and was cherished. In this land of light a system is cherished which allows one portion of the human family to enslave another portion, degrading millions of human beings to the level of the brute creation. The equal of this sin is not to be found in heathen lands. - {1T 258.2}

Rev 13:11 - as a dragon - the dragon spoken in verse 11 is an evolved manifestation of the dragon spoken in verse 2. 1260years had elapsed since the dragon of verse 2, and the devil has manifested yet another medium by which He "speaks", namely, Spiritualism (see the rise of the Beast from the Bottomless Pit in Rev 11:7-9). When the U.S.A., the bastion of Protestantism, denies the existence of God and His precepts spoken in the Bible [i.e. marriage as a Social Contract vs. an institution of God, exploitation of the poor and weak, pre-emptive violence, toleration/promotion of world religions and their practices, etc.], as Pharaoh once did (Ex 5:2, Eze 29:2, 3; Joh 8:44), through its laws and tenets it will speak as the dragon of Spiritualism. The passage and enforcement of the tyrannical principles of the Dark Ages, manifested through a Sunday Law will be yet another manifestation of Dragon speech.

Rev 13:12

Rev 13:12 - power - The "power" here spoken includes not only military power, as in verse 2, but authority to rule over the nations. If however, one were to read the word "power" as military prowess, then the Beast from the Earth, the U.S., would clearly reflect/represent the workings of the 7 once-pagan nations turned Catholic, or "the daily" of Dan 8:10. The regulation adopted by the early colonists, of permitting only members of the church to vote or to hold office in the civil government, led to most pernicious results. This measure had been accepted as a means of preserving the purity of the state, but it resulted in the corruption of the church. A profession of religion being the condition of suffrage and officeholding, many, actuated solely by motives of worldly policy, united with the church without a change of heart. Thus the churches came to consist, to a considerable extent, of unconverted persons; and even in the ministry were those who not only held errors of doctrine, but who were ignorant of the renewing power of the Holy Spirit. Thus again was demonstrated the evil results, so often witnessed in the history of the church from the days of Constantine to the present, of attempting to build up the church by the aid of the state, of appealing to the secular power in support of the gospel of Him who declared: "My kingdom is not of this world." John 18:36. The union of the church with the state, be the degree never so slight, while it may appear to bring the world nearer to the church, does in reality but bring the church nearer to the world. - {GC 297.1}

Rev 13:12

Rev 13:12 - before him - in the presence of the Beast from the Sea, the Beast from the Earth demonstrates the same authoritarian and intolerant rule over men and nations as once exhibited by the papacy. The Papacy beholds the U.S. enact its same devilish spirit and cheers it on as a proud parent cheers the imitations of his child. The U.S., acting the role of a False Prophet, seeks to turn the hearts of the world towards the papacy.

Rev 13:12

Rev 13:12 - causeth - the Beast from the Earth does not coerce those who dwell upon the earth to worship the first Beast but "causes" them to do so by way of signs and lying wonders (v14, 2Thess 2:8-10). The bewitching signs and wonders will masquerade the power of God (Act 2:1-18) and will draw all men to worship the first Beast. Simultaneously, the deceptive words coming forth as frogs out of the mouth of the Dragon, the Beast and the False Prophet will align the world against the teachings of the Bible, God's Two Witnesses, that torment them and the world in rebellion towards God.

Rev 13:12

Rev 13:12 - worship the first beast - As Elijah sought to turn the hearts of the people back to God (1Kin 18:37), the beast from the earth, as the false prophet, seeks to turn the hearts of those who dwell upon the earth to the beast from the sea. The Beast from the Earth (apostate Protestantism) in conjunction with Spiritualism (Dragon) will lift the beast from the sea between heaven and earth, Just as Jesus was lifted-up, in the site of men (Joh 12:32; Zech 5:9).

Rev 13:13

Rev 13:13 - doeth great wonders - as the False Prophet (see Rev 19:20), the Beast from the Earth, like the prophet Isa and his children were given for signs and wonders before/for the people. See Isa 8:18 The line of distinction between professed Christians and the ungodly is now hardly distinguishable. Church members love what the world loves and are ready to join with them, and Satan determines to unite them in one body and thus strengthen his cause by sweeping all into the ranks of spiritualism. Papists, who boast of miracles as a certain sign of the true church, will be readily deceived by this wonder-working power; and Protestants, having cast away the shield of truth, will also be deluded. Papists, Protestants, and worldlings will alike accept the form of godliness without the power, and they will see in this union a grand movement for the conversion of the world and the ushering in of the long-expected millennium. - {GC 588.3}

Rev 13:13

Rev 13:13 - fire from heaven - Strange Fire: 1. Nadab & Abihu offered unconsecrated fire before the Lord and were consumed - sparks of their own kindling (Isa 50:11) 2. Job's herds and flocks were consumed by fire from the devil (Job 1:16) 3. Elijah called down fire from heaven upon the guards of king Ahaziah (2Kin 1:8-15)). This feat was used to prove that he indeed was a man of God, working on God's behalf 4. Elijah called down fire from heaven on Mt. Carmel (1Kin 18:30-39) 5. Spiritual Fire from the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles on Pentecost (Act 2) Strange Fire: 1. Charismatic preaching reaches people souls through NLP and feelings. God's preaching always reaches the souls through the mind. God's worship is always by faith 2. Unforgiving spirit and attitude is strange fire 3. When we play with Strange Fire, we are subject to the death penalty like Nadab and Abihu 4. Satan manipulates the body, God reaches us by the mind

Rev 13:13

Rev 13:13 - in the sight of men - the signs and lying wonders are to be beheld using human senses. The papal transformation in under 2years from a scorned, detestable and unpopular church under Benedict to the beloved church under pope Francis with super-star appeal is a sign and lying wonder not to be overlooked. We are nearing a time when even more sinister and diabolical manifestations will take place that will bewitch the masses.

Rev 13:14

Rev 13:14 - deceiveth them - See Rev 19:20. The miracles signs and wonders are all done with the intention of deceiving the masses that have received the mark of the beast and those who worshipped his image. Jesus gave the following counsels to His followers about being deceived: Mt 24:4, 5 - Many will come in His name - be not deceived Mt 24:11 - Many false prophets - be not deceived Mt 24:24 - Man false Christs and False Prophets showing signs and wonders to deceive if possible the elect Rev 16:13, 14 - spirits of devils working miracles to gather the world

Rev 13:14

Rev 13:14 - saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast - The beast from the earth or False Prophet is going to persuade the people (see Act 14:19) to make an image/reflection to the beast, the papacy. We have far more to fear from within than from without. The hindrances to strength and success are far greater from the church itself than from the world. {RH March 22, 1887} The people for whom God has so marvelously wrought, strengthening them to throw off the galling yoke of popery, will by a national act give vigor to the corrupt faith of Rome, and thus arouse the tyranny which only waits for a touch to start again into cruelty and despotism. With rapid steps are we already approaching this period. When Protestant churches shall seek the support of the secular power, thus following the example of that apostate church, for opposing which their ancestors endured the fiercest persecution, then will there be a national apostasy which will end only in national ruin. - {4SP 410.2} "The Lord has pronounced a curse upon those who take from or add to the Scriptures. The great I AM has decided what shall constitute the rule of faith and doctrine, and he has designed that the Bible shall be a household book. The church that holds to the word of God is irreconcilably separated from Rome. Protestants were once thus apart from this great church of apostasy, but they have approached more nearly to her, and are still in the path of reconciliation to the Church of Rome. Rome never changes. Her principles have not altered in the least. She has not lessened the breach between herself and Protestants; they have done all the advancing. But what does this argue for the Protestantism of this day? It is the rejection of Bible truth which makes men approach to infidelity. It is a backsliding church that lessens the distance between itself and the Papacy." The Signs of the Times, February 19, 1894. It will be declared that men are offending God by the violation of the Sunday sabbath; that this sin has brought calamities which will not cease until Sunday observance shall be strictly enforced; and that those who present the claims of the fourth commandment, thus destroying reverence for Sunday, are troublers of the people, preventing their restoration to divine favor and temporal prosperity. Thus the accusation urged of old against the servant of God will be repeated and upon grounds equally well established: "And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel? And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baalim." 1Kin 18:17, 18. As the wrath of the people shall be excited by false charges, they will pursue a course toward God's ambassadors very similar to that which apostate Israel pursued toward Elijah. - {GC 590.1}

Rev 13:14 - Image - eikona (Gr.): see also 1Cor 15:49; 2Cor 3:18; Col 3:10 The "image to the beast" represents that form of apostate Protestantism which will be developed when the Protestant churches shall seek the aid of the civil power for the enforcement of their dogmas. The "mark of the beast" still remains to be defined. - {GC 445.2} Dan 3:1-7: the Beast from the Earth whose founding principles are of Protestantism and whose boast is in the Bible, commits the following sins: 1. Creating an image of any form is strictly prohibited by God in the Bible and is therefore a flagrant sin 2. The Image to the Beast, a semblance or characteristic of the power for which Protestantism was once said to directly oppose, shows open apostasy towards its founding tenet of Protestantism 3. The Image to the Beast, the civil enforcement of the Beast's doctrine [Sunday worship] that Protestant America holds in common with the Papacy, marks the prideful scoffing/defiance [doubling down on its sin] towards the open rebellion that caused Protestant America to have fallen (2nd Angel's Message) and to become a part of the system of Babylon The church and the world will unite, and the world will lend to the church her power to crush out the right of the people to worship God according to His Word. - {ST February 22, 1910 Par. 4} It will be urged that the few who stand in opposition to an institution of the church and a law of the state, ought not to be tolerated; that it is better for them to suffer than for whole nations to be thrown into confusion and lawlessness. The Lord has shown me clearly that the image of the beast will be formed before probation closes; for it is to be the great test for the people of God, by which their eternal destiny will be decided.... [Rev 13:11-17 quoted.] ... - {7BC 976.2} This is the test that the people of God must have before they are sealed. All who proved their loyalty to God by observing His law, and refusing to accept a spurious sabbath, will rank under the banner of the Lord God Jehovah, and will receive the seal of the living God. Those who yield the truth of heavenly origin and accept the Sunday sabbath, will receive the mark of the beast (Letter 11, 1890). - {7BC 976.3} CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES. ART. 9, SEC. 2 "This constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, 19 . . . shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, anything in the constitution or laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding." {1854 JNL, THB 18.5} Sec. 3. "The members of the several state Legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States, and of the several states, shall be bound by oath or affirmation to support the constitution; but no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to office or public trust under the United States." {1854 JNL, THB 19.1} AMENDMENTS OF THE CONSTITUTION. If I had any idea that the General Government was so administered that liberty of conscience was endangered, I pray you be assured that no man would be more willing than myself to revise and alter that part of it, so as to avoid all religious persecutions. You can, without doubt, remember that I have often expressed my opinion, that every man who conducts himself as a good citizen is accountable alone to God for his religious faith, 20 and should be protected in worshiping God according to the dictates of his own conscience." {1854 JNL, THB 19.4} George Washington . {1854 JNL, THB 20.1} The law for the observance of the first day of the week is the production of an apostate Christendom. Sunday is a child of the papacy, exalted by the Christian world above the sacred day of God's rest. In no case are God's people to pay it homage. But I wish them to understand that they are not doing God's will by braving opposition when He wishes them to avoid it. Thus they create prejudice so bitter that it is impossible for the truth to be proclaimed. Make no demonstration on Sunday in defiance of law. If this is done in one place, and you are humiliated, the same thing will be done in another place. We can use Sunday as a day on which to carry forward work that will tell on the side of Christ. We are to do our best, working with all meekness and lowliness. - {CCh 317.4} When we devote Sunday to missionary work, the whip will be taken out of the hands of the arbitrary zealots who would be well pleased to humiliate Seventh-day Adventists. When they see that we employ ourselves on Sunday in visiting the people and opening the Scriptures to them, they will know that it is useless for them to try to hinder our work by making Sunday laws. - {CCh 318.1} Sunday can be used for carrying forward various lines of work that will accomplish much for the Lord. On this day open-air meetings and cottage meetings can be held. House-to-house work can be done. Those who write can devote this day to writing their articles. Whenever it is possible, let religious services be held on Sunday. Make these meetings intensely interesting. Sing genuine revival hymns, and speak with power and assurance of the Saviour's love. Speak on temperance and on true religious experience. You will thus learn much about how to work, and will reach many souls. - {CCh 318.2} Let the teachers in our schools devote Sunday to missionary effort. I was instructed that they would thus be able to defeat the purposes of the enemy. Let the teachers take the students with them to hold meetings for those who know not the truth. Thus they will accomplish much more than they could in any other way. - {CCh 318.3} The people must be given the truth, straightforward, positive truth. But this truth is to be presented in the spirit of Christ. We are to be as sheep in the midst of wolves. Those who will not, for Christ's sake, observe the cautions He has given, who will not exercise patience and self-control, will lose precious opportunities of working for the Master. The Lord has not given His people the work of making a tirade against those who are transgressing His law. In no case are we to make a raid on the other churches. - {CCh 318.4} We are to do all we can to remove the prejudice that exists in the minds of many against our work and against the Bible Sabbath. Rev 13:14

Rev 13:14 - wound by a sword - the Bible highlights the fact that it was the Bible that was instrumental in inflicting the deadly wound. It is the Bible that the Beast from the Earth flagrantly disregards as it advocates for the creation of an image to the beast (Ex 20:3-5), an affront to the seventh-day Sabbath of the Lord (Ex 20:8-11)

Rev 13:15

Rev 13:15 - give life unto the image - the means by which the Image to the Beast (a Sunday Law) is given life is through legislation. When the people demand by vote the law's enforcement, then the image would have been given life. See Isa 66:5 When our nation shall so abjure the principles of its government as to enact a Sunday law, Protestantism will in this act join hands with popery; it will be nothing else than giving life to the tyranny which has long been eagerly watching its opportunity to spring again into active despotism.— Testimonies for the Church 5:712. - {ChS 160.3} Then the Catholics bid the Protestants to go forward, and issue a decree that all who will not observe the first day of the week, instead of the seventh day, shall be slain. And the Catholics, whose numbers are large, will stand by the Protestants. The Catholics will give their power to the image of the beast. And the Protestants will work as their mother worked before them to destroy the saints. But before their decree bring or bear fruit, the saints will be delivered by the Voice of God. {Spalding and Magan - SpM 2.1}

Rev 13:15

Rev 13:15 - cause that as many as would not worship image of the beast - See 9T 231.1, 237.2 In the story of Cain and Abel, worship becomes the catalyst for discord and death, a recurring theme throughout history. Then the Catholics bid the Protestants to go forward, and issue a decree that all who will not observe the first day of the week, instead of the seventh day, shall be slain. And the Catholics, whose numbers are large, will stand by the Protestants. The Catholics will give their power to the image of the beast. And the Protestants will work as their mother worked before them to destroy the saints. But before their decree bring or bear fruit, the saints will be delivered by the Voice of God. Then I saw that Jesus' work in the sanctuary will soon be finished. And after His work there is finished, He will come to the door of the first apartment, and confess the sins of Israel upon the head of the Scape Goat. Then He will put on the garments of vengeance. Then the plagues will come upon the wicked, and they do not come till Jesus puts on that garment, and takes His place upon the great white cloud. Then while the plagues are falling, the Scape Goat is being led away. He makes a mighty struggle to escape, but he is held fast by the hand that leads him. If he should effect his escape, Israel would lose their lives. I saw that it would take time to lead away the Scape Goat into the land of forgetfulness after the sins were put on his head. - {SpM 2.1}

Rev 13:15

Rev 13:15 - Joh 16:1-3: Those (Apostate Protestantism) who enforce the Image to the Beast believe they do the work of the Lord though they know not the Father nor Jesus Dan 3:1-7: That which causes the "many" to worship the Image to the Beast is an Unrighteous Decree (Isa 10:1-3, Ps 94:20, 21) that is enforced by a death sentence It is because the commandments of God will be vindicated, and the unscriptural character of the Sunday-Sabbath exposed, that the two-horned beast will require all to receive the mark. The lack of scriptural argument has been the chief cause why men have resorted to the argument of fire and faggot to convince dissenters. {The Three Angels of Rev 14:6-12, J.N. Andrews, pg119}

Rev 13:16

Rev 13:16 - causeth all - the list of those who receive the mark of the Beast, small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, is the same list of person who will flee from the presence of the Lord in Rev 6:14-17, calling for the rocks to fall on them and hide them from the wrath of the Lamb.

Rev 13:16

Rev 13:16 - receive a mark - The mark is a prominent profession (forehead or hand) for all to see of whom one worships. Life under the mark is all about self; everything is all about them - the rudiments of the world. They do not have a heart to serve, obey and live for Jesus Christ. This is contrasted with life under the seal of God, where to live is Christ and to die is gain. See Deut 5:29; Col 2:8, 20; Ex 19:3-8; Gen 4:15; Rev 22:12. Compare Phil 1:21 Joh was called to behold a people distinct from those who worship the beast or his image by keeping the first day of the week. The observance of this day is the mark of the beast.—Testimonies to Ministers and Gospel Workers, 133 (1898). - {LDE 223.4} The mark of the beast is the papal sabbath.—Evangelism, 234 (1899). - {LDE 224.1} When the test comes, it will be clearly shown what the mark of the beast is. It is the keeping of Sunday.—The S.D.A. Bible Commentary 7:980 (1900). - {LDE 224.2} When Sunday observance shall be enforced by law, and the world shall be enlightened concerning the obligation of the true Sabbath, then whoever shall transgress the command of God to obey a precept which has no higher authority than that of Rome, will thereby honor popery above God. He is paying homage to Rome, and to the power which enforces the institution ordained by Rome. He is worshipping the beast and his image. - {LDE 226.1} As men then reject the institution which God has declared to be the sign of His authority, and honor in its stead that which Rome has chosen as the token of her supremacy, they will thereby accept the sign of allegiance to Rome—"the mark of the beast." And it is not until the issue is thus plainly set before the people, and they are brought to choose between the commandments of God and the commandments of men, that those who continue in transgression will receive "the mark of the beast."—The Great Controversy, 449 (1911). - {LDE 226.2}

Rev 13:16

Rev 13:16 - right hand or in their foreheads - The Mk of the Beast is the counterfeit of the Seal of God. The Seal of God: 1. Ex 20:8-11, Isa 42:8 2. Isa 58:13, 14 3. Eze 9, 20:12, 20 4. Rev 7:1-4; 9:3-5 God desires that His Laws be written on both the forehead and the hands (Deut 6:4-8, 11:13-19; Rom 2:14, 15; Joh 14:15) Satan does not care if the mark is applied to the hand or the forehead

Rev 13:16

Rev 13:16 - right hand - See Isa 3:11; Prov 24:12, Mt 16:27. Then I was shown a company who were howling in agony. On their garments was written in large characters. "Thou art weighed in the balance, and found wanting." I asked who this company were. The angel said, "These are they who have once kept the Sabbath, and have given it up." I heard them cry with a loud voice, "We have believed in Thy coming, and taught it with energy." And while they were speaking, their eyes would fall upon their garments and see the writing, and then they would wail aloud. I saw that they had drunk of the deep waters, and fouled the residue with their feet,—trodden the Sabbath underfoot,—and that was why they were weighed in the balance and found wanting. - {LS 117.2} - LS 117.2

Rev 13:17

Rev 13:17 - no man might buy or sell - in order to enforce such a restriction, there must be a very close surveillance system in place to track and detect those without the identifying mark. The society itself must become convinced of the need to cooperate with government and the paranoia (jingoism, Xenophobia, and Sabbataphobia) it breeds through the media. Such were the conditions during the time of the prophet Elijah when he fled to Zarephath of Zidon to live during the 3.5yrs of famine. Ahab and Jezebel devised a sophisticated method of surveillance to track the whereabouts of the prophet including all people giving an oath that they knew not of Elijah's goings (1Kin 18:2-12). God did not trust Elijah to reside among any of his own people as they may have turned him in, so God sent him to Zidon.

Rev 14:1

Rev 14:1 - mount Zion - Synonymous with New Jerusalem and the Holy Mountain of God, the heavenly city is the site of Joh's vision. It is here in Mt. Zion that Jesus had gone to prepare a place for all of earth's inhabitants to abide with Him eternally (Joh 14:1-4). See Rev 21:9, 10; Ex 15:17; Gal 4:26

Rev 14:1

Rev 14:1 - with him an hundred forty and four thousand - Those who stand with Jesus on Mt. Zion have made a habit in life of standing on His side. They have clean hands and a pure heart, have not lifted their souls to vanities nor sworn deceitfully; they have been watchful and vigilant, lest their hearts turn away to idleness. See Ps 24:3-6; Ex 32:26; Isa 56:6, 7, 33:15-17; Lk 21:34-36; 1Thess 5:4-9

Rev 14:1

Rev 14:1 - his Father's name - See Rev 3:12. The Father's name is synonymous with His Character/Glory spoken to Moses from Mt. Sinai (Ex 34:5-8) and the Seal of God. The Seal of God, found within the 10 Commandments (Ex 20:8-11), a written transcript of God's character, and His memorial (Ex 3:15), authorizes God to reign Sovereign over heaven, earth, the seas and all that in them is. See Ex 20:24; Rev 22:4; Phil 2:5-8 The name of God is I AM THAT I AM - (I AM THAT WHICH I AM) - Creator. Ex 3:13-15 Joh saw a Lamb on Mount Zion, and with him 144,000, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. They bore the signet of heaven. They reflected the image of God. They were full of the light and the glory of the Holy One. If we would have the image and superscription of God upon us, we must separate ourselves from all iniquity. We must forsake every evil way, and then we must trust our cases in the hands of Christ. While we are working out our own salvation with fear and trembling, God will work in us to will and to do of his own good pleasure. While you must do your part, yet it is God that must give you aid, and sanctify you. Christ makes us penitent that he may forgive us. {RH March 19, 1889}

Rev 14:3

Rev 14:3 - and they sung as it were a new song before the throne - the 144,000 are given a new song to sing that others will "see" and be drawn to righteousness during the era of the Loud Cry. See Ps 33:3, 40:3, 16; 96:1; Isa 43:21, 15 the voices of the 144,000 singing, who once saw eye-to-eye upon the earth (Isa 52:7, 8) and sounded the Loud Cry as watchmen to all the inhabitants of the earth are heard from heaven singing songs of praises to the Lord.

Rev 14:3

Rev 14:3 - before the throne - before the throne of God where the Father sits. The Father remains on the throne, while Jesus stands on Mt. Zion with the 144,000. See Dan 7:8-10; Rev 4:2, 3; Eze 1:26-28

Rev 14:3

Rev 14:3 - redeemed from the earth - the 144,000 are of the human race, descendants of Adam who by faith through God's grace, have received the gift of eternal life and reconciliation with the Father (see Rev 5:8-10). They do not recognize the sin tainted world as their home but as Abraham, were as pilgrims on the earth and as the Levites, they had no earthly inheritance.

Rev 14:4

Rev 14:4 - defiled with women - They cleaned themselves of all filthiness of the flesh and would in no wise compromise with the daughters of men (daughters of Egypt who danced before the golden calf in the wilderness; daughters of Babylon, women of Baalpeor; apostate Protestantism) see 1Sam 21:4; Rev 17:1-5, 18:4, 21:27; Ps 119:1-3; 2Cor 11:2

Rev 14:4 - for they are virgins - wise virgins. See Mt 25:2, 4, 9; 2Cor 11:2; Rev 21:9

Rev 14:4

Rev 14:4 - follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth - Joh 10:11-16, 12:26; Ex 15:13 Holiness is constant agreement with God. Shall we not strive to be that which Christ so greatly desires us to be—Christians in deed and in truth—that the world may see in our lives a revelation of the saving power of truth? This world is our preparatory school. While here we shall meet with trials and difficulties. Continually the enemy of God will seek to draw us away from our allegiance. But while we cleave to Him who gave Himself for us we are safe. - {HP 33.4} those wise virgins who by faith and guidance of the Holy Spirit understand the movement of Christ in His changing dispensations. In the time of Christ, the Jews who rejected the 3-step testing process, failed to realize that Jesus moved from the earthly ministry of the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world to His heavenly ministry as High Priest in the heavenly sanctuary. Those Protestants in the Millerite era who rejected the 3-step testing process failed to see Christ leave the first apartment of the heavenly sanctuary to enter the

Most Holy place to commence judgment. Those who today are rejecting the increase of knowledge seen in the 3-step testing process of the Latter Rain fail to see Jesus move from the judgment of the dead to the judgment of the living as of 9/11/2001. See Early Writings 259.1-260.1

Rev 14:4 - These were redeemed from among men - they are descendants of Adam, born in sin and shapen in iniquity, yet, but the blood and the power of the Lamb, their sins have been purged and by faith, they have assumed the white garments, the righteousness of Jesus Christ, given to them.

Rev 14:4

Rev 14:4 - being the firstfruits unto God - Just as Jesus is the Firstfruit of the Resurrection, so the Lord has foreordained that we should be like Him in all things, a firstfruit of righteousness. As first fruit, they are forerunners and an earnest of a larger number that shall follow. See Num 3:41, 44-51, 13; Rom 8:29; Isa 60:1-5

Rev 14:5

Rev 14:5 - in their mouth was found no guile - No deceit. Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaketh (Mt 12:34) - See Ps 34:12, 13, 24:3-6, 101:7; Isa 53:9; 63:8; Rev 21:27; Zeph 3:13, 8:3; Job 27:3, 4; 1Tim 1:5; 2Tim 1:5; Joh 1:47; 1Cor 5:8; 2Cor 2:17, 6:6; Jam 3:17; 1Pet 2:21, 22, 3:10 Now is the time to prepare. The seal of God will never be placed upon the forehead of an impure man or woman. It will never be placed upon the forehead of the ambitious, world-loving man or woman. It will never be placed upon the forehead of men or women of false tongues or deceitful hearts. All who receive the seal must be without spot before God—candidates for heaven. - {Mar 240.7}

Rev 14:5

Rev 14:5 - for they are without fault before the throne of God - "This means that the 144,000 will come to understand fully what had not been known by any previous generation. The secret sin of desiring to take the life of God would be revealed and the root of sin would be expelled. Guilt would be purged and without remorse these ones "without fault before the throne of God" would sense their place in the royal family as sons of the Most High. Such a work could not have been done nor understood by any previous generation for no former people had the three angels' messages. The cleansing and restoring of the heavenly sanctuary could not take place until the time had been fulfilled, not because God was unwilling but because man was unready." Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short; pg 142 This material may be protected by copyright.

Rev 14:5

Rev 14:5 - without fault - the 144,000 embrace the promise of God to keep us from falling and to present us faultless before the throne of grace (Ju 24, 25). They fully reflect the character of Christ. See Jude 1:24; Joh 19:1-4; Zeph 3:13; Rev 12:11

Rev 14:6

Rev 14:6 - And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth - some conclude that the message of the 3 angels is to occur sometime after the 2nd Coming of Jesus Christ since the first 5 verses show the redeemed 144,000 standing on Mt. Zion with Jesus. If this were so, the gospel here spoken would be another gospel given in the Bible, devoid of Jesus Christ, because the gospel of Christ is to extend to the 2nd Coming of Christ. PRESENT TRUTH: (2Pet 1:12) Time of Noah - Get in the boat a flood is coming (Gen 6:7; Heb 11:7; 2Pet 2:5) Time of Lot - Escape for thy life, do not look back, Leave the city and run for the mountains (Gen 19:17) Time of Jeremiah - the King of the North is coming - (Jeremiah 25:9) Time of Christ - Jesus is Messiah the Prince, Christ the Lord, heed His warning (Act 2:36; Mt 24:15-20) Today - All of the above and the 3 Angel's Messages (1Cor 10:11||1Pet 1:12; Lk 17:26-30; Dan 11:40-45; Rev 14)

Rev 14:6

Rev 14:6 - angel - the angel flying in the heavens is symbolic of human agents who have been entrusted with the task of preaching/teaching the Everlasting Gospel to all of earth's inhabitants. The Bible makes plain that the LORD employs sanctified human agents [those who embrace His covenant and are empowered by God's Holy Spirit] when He desires to take a message to the nations and the ends of the world (Deut 7:6-11, 4:5-8; Mt 28:18-20; Act 1:8; 2Cor 4:7). 1Chron 16:24-31 expounds upon the First Angel's message. The angel of Rev 14:6 is the same angel of Rev 10:1, Jesus Christ: 1. Both speak with a Loud voice - Rev 10:3, 14:7 2. Both refer to the creation - Rev 10:6, Rev 14:7 3. Both deal with time - Rev 10:6, 14:7 The era of the initial sounding of the 1st Angel (1798) defines a Reformatory Movement of God. With all reformatory movements we see the following characteristics: 1. Preceded by an era of spiritual darkness and apostasy 2. An increase of knowledge and revelation of God's Law or of hidden biblical truths is made by searching the scriptures (eating the book - Eze 2:8, 9) 3. A recognition and conviction of sin and judgment due to apostasy and waywardness 4. Humble repentance and turning to God 5. A call to gather in the people of God that have been scattered prior to and during the era of spiritual darkness (call is often not heeded by all) 6. Entering into covenant with God and recommitment to serving Him faithfully (turning the heart unto God) 7. Removal of idols, foreign gods and all things that served as a stumbling block to the faith 8. Restoration of true worship; Restorers of the Breach (Isa 58:11, 12) The Christian Church during this era is characterized by mass factionalism, where churches have broken off from the "Mother Harlot Church", Rome, through the Protestant Reformation, but have held onto relics of that system. Though God would have liked to lead the churches into all truth, there were yet things that the people were not ready to hear or accept (Joh 16:8-13). Therefore, they remained scattered abroad as opposed to becoming the one flock for which Jesus prayed to the Father (Joh 17). It is to the scattered Christian churches that the Three Angel's messages are first heralded. Angels work harmoniously. Perfect order characterizes all their movements. The more closely we imitate the harmony and order of the angelic host, the more successful will be the efforts of these heavenly agents in our behalf. If we see no necessity for harmonious action, and are disorderly, undisciplined, and disorganized in our course of action, angels, who are thoroughly organized and move in perfect order, cannot work for us successfully. They turn away in grief, for they are not authorized to bless confusion, distraction, and disorganization. All who desire the co-operation of the heavenly messengers, must work in unison with them. Those who have the unction from on high, will in all their efforts encourage order, discipline, and union of action, and then the angels of God can co-operate with them. But never, never will these heavenly messengers place their endorsement upon irregularity, disorganization, and disorder. All these evils are the result of Satan's efforts to weaken our forces, to destroy our courage, and prevent successful action. { CET 199.1 }

Rev 14:6

Rev 14:6 - everlasting gospel - Gospel, meaning "Good News" is seen in: God coming to you and me first God accepting you and me first This was typified for the COI as they were to look to the morning and evening sacrifices which pointed to our corporate grace extended to humanity. As they looked to the morning and evening sacrifices, they were looking towards Jesus, the Author and Finisher (Perfector) of our faith. see: Gen 3:15 Lk 21:27, 28 Gal 1:3, 4, 8, 9 2Cor 11:3, 4 2Tim 3:14-17 Joh 3:16 Isa 56:3-7 Lk 24:46, 47 First spoken in the Garden of Eden by God to the hapless pair, the Everlasting Gospel identifies two classes of people upon the earth (2520 prophecy - see Jer 23:7, 8). The everlasting gospel is as an umbrella, covering the rest of the 3 Angel's messages. The everlasting gospel, first spoken in Gen 3:15 describes the love, mercy and grace of God, but it also speaks of His justice through the condemnation and eradication of sin. The everlasting gospel of Rev 14 is all encompassing where it too speaks of God's love for man in creating and redeeming us, but also in the judgment of humanity. The warnings to flee destruction embodied in the 2nd, 3rd and 4th angel's messages is evidence of the love God has for all who dwell upon the earth. Synonymous with the Everlasting Covenant, the Everlasting Gospel is that which produces two classes of worshippers (Mt 12:33-35) based on a three step testing message/process. In the prophecy this warning of the judgment, with its connected messages, is followed by the coming of the Son of man in the clouds of heaven. The proclamation of the judgment is an announcement of Christ's second coming as at hand. And this proclamation is called the everlasting gospel. Thus the preaching of Christ's second coming, the announcement of its nearness, is shown to be an essential part of the gospel message. - {COL 227.2}

Rev 14:6 - preach unto them that dwell on the earth - the Lord has commissioned men, not angels, to preach the gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth. This gives evidence to the human nature of the angels mentioned at the start of the verse. See Heb 1:14; Mt 28:18-20; Rom 10:13-15; Act 1:8

Rev 14:6

Rev 14:6 - to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people - See Gen 17:5; Gal 3:25-29 The extent of this proclamation is worthy of notice. An English writer, Mourant Brock, thus remarks:- {1892 JNA, TMR 29.1} "It is not merely in great Britain that the expectation of the near return of the Redeemer is entertained, and the voice of warning raised, but also in America, India, and on the continent of Europe. In America, about three hundred ministers of the word are thus preaching 'this gospel of the kingdom;' while in this country, about seven hundred of the Church of England are raising the same cry." 1 {1892 JNA, TMR 29.2} Dr. Joseph Wolfe traveled in Arabia Felix, through the region inhabited by the descendants of Hobab, Moses' father-in-law. In Yemen, he saw a book which he mentions thus:- {1892 JNA, TMR 29.3} "The Arabs of this place have a book called SEERA. which treats of the second coming of Christ, and his reign in glory! In Yemen, he spent six days with the Rechabites. 'They drink no wine, plant no vineyards, sow no seed, live in tents, and remember the words of Jonadab, the son of Rechab.' With them were children of Israel, of the tribe of Dan, who reside near Terim in Hatramawt, who expect, in common with the children of Rechab, the speedy arrival of the Messiah in the clouds of heaven." 1 {1892 JNA, TMR 29.4} The "Voice of the Church," by D. T. Taylor, speaks as follows concerning the wide diffusion of the advent sentiment:- {1892 JNA, TMR 30.1} "In Wirtemberg there is a Christian colony numbering hundreds, who look for the speedy advent of Christ; also another of like belief on the shores of the Caspian; the Molokaners, a large body of dissenters from the Russian Greek Church, residing on the shores of the Baltic, - a very pious people of whom it is said, 'Taking the Bible alone for their creed, the norm of their faith is simply the Holy Scriptures,' - are characterized by the 'expectation of Christ's immediate and visible reign upon earth.' In Russia, the doctrine of Christ's coming and reign is preached to some extent and received by many of the lower class. It has been extensively agitated in Germany, particularly in the south part among the Moravians. In Norway, charts and books on the advent have been circulated extensively, and the doctrine has been received by many. Among the Tartars in Tartary, there prevails an expectation of Christ's advent about this time. English and American publications on this doctrine have been sent to Holland, Germany, India, Ireland, Constantinople, Rome, and to nearly every missionary station on the globe. At the Turks Islands, it has been received to some extent among the Wesleyans. {1892 JNA, TMR 30.2} "Mr. Fox, a Scottish missionary to the Teloogoo people, was a believer in Christ's soon coming. Jam MacGregor Bertram, a Scottish missionary of the Baptist order at St. Helena, has sounded the cry extensively on that island, making many converts and pre-millennialists; he has also preached it at South Africa at the missionary stations there. David N. Lord informs us that a large proportion of the missionaries who have gone from Great Britain to make known the gospel to the heathen, and who are now laboring in Asia and Africa, are millennialists; and Joseph Wolfe, D. D., according to his journals, between the years 1821 and 1845 proclaimed the Lord's speedy advent in Palestine, Egypt, on the shores of the Red Sea, Mesopotamia, the Crimea, Persia, Georgia, throughout the Ottoman Empire, in Greece, Arabia, Turkistan, Bokhara, Afghanistan, Cashmere, Hindoostan, Thibet, in Holland, Scotland, and Ireland, at Constantinople, Jerusalem, St. Helena, also on shipboard in the Mediterranean, and at New York City to all denominations. He declares he has preached among Jews, Turks, Mohammedans, Parsees, Hindoos, Chaldeans, Yescedes, Syrians, Sabeans, to pashas, sheiks, shahs, the kings of Organtsh and Bokhara, the queen of Greece, etc; and of his extraordinary labors the Investigator says, 'No individual has, perhaps, given greater publicity to the doctrine of the second coming of the Lord Jesus Christ than has this well-known missionary to the world. Wherever he goes, he proclaims the approaching advent of the Messiah in glory.' " 1 {1892 JNA, TMR 31.1} None can deny that this world-wide warning of impending judgment has been given. The nature of the evidence adduced in its support now claims our attention, as furnishing the most conclusive testimony that it was a message from Heaven. {1892 JNA, TMR 32.1}

Rev 14:7 - Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters. - the preaching of the everlasting gospel, as stated in the prior verse includes the warning message of God's judgment. The message of God's judgment is as much a part of the gospel as is the message of the cross of Jesus Christ. See Joh 16:8-11

Rev 14:7

Rev 14:7 - loud voice - each of the messages given by the three angels (plus the fourth) is with a loud voice. This is a clarion warning, not a soft whisper. All who have ears to hear (Rev 13:9) must be drawn to the message and must heed its counsels. The apostolic parallel of the 1st Angel's Message is found in Act 17:30, 31.

Rev 14:7

Rev 14:7 - Fear God - {Gk phobéō: to reverence with awe; to respect and to desire not to forsake or offend a relationship. To trust and obey the expressed command and will of God (Gen 22:1-12) - compare yare' in Dan 10:17} - See *Heb 12:28, 29 It is impossible to fear God without the precursory acceptance of the Everlasting Gospel of Jesus Christ - See Eccl 12:13; Rom 3:10-18 Our one fear should be that we do not give God the glory He deserves. See: Job 28:28 Prov 3:7, 8:13, 1:7, 2:4 Lk 12:4, 5, 23:39-43 Isa 8:12, 13, 6:1-7 Dan 10:5-8 Ps 111:10, 33:8, 89:7; 96:9 Heb 12:18-21, 28; 10:31 Rev 22:9 1Pet 2:17 Prov 16:6 First spoken following an era of spiritual darkness lasting 1,260years (Rev 12:13, 14) when self-exalting men as antichrists, usurped the praise, honor and glory due to God alone. The churches of the Protestant Reformation received this message as they had become accustomed worshipping their church's name, identity and their pastors rather than God. See 2Thess 2:3-12; Rev 3:1-4 The "fear" spoken here is likened to the Mar'eh vision experience of several prophets. As the following prophets beheld Jesus in His glory (in the Most Holy Place), their comeliness was turned to corruption: *Isa - Isa 6:1-7 [beholds God's glory, sees his unrighteous condition, makes confession, his iniquity is purged - the Day of Atonement experience] *Dan - Dan 10:1-12 [beholds Jesus in His glory and his comeliness is turned into corruption. He humbles himself in the dust and the Lord lifts him up and assures him that he is greatly beloved - the Day of Atonement experience] *Joh - Rev 1:12-19 [beholds Jesus in His glory and falls on his hands and knees as if dead. Jesus touches him and strengthens him - the Day of Atonement experience] *Eze - Eze 1:25-2:3 [beholds God in His glory and he falls to his face. God commands him to stand to his feet and then the Lord directs him in his appointed mission] *Mt 22:10-14 - parable of the wedding where an Investigative Judgment is made to see who has the wedding garments (clothed in Christ's righteousness)- the Day of Atonement experience *Lev 16:29-37 - the Day of Atonement where people are soul searching, confessing their sins and petitioning the Lord. The wicked disregard the warning and have no fear of God - See Ps 36:1-4

Rev 14:7 - give glory to Him - to direct the attention of others towards God and God alone. See 1Pet 2:9; Isa 60:6, 43:7 to God alone belongs glory, not self-exalting men (Joh 3:27; Eze 28:1-6, 2Thess 2:3-9; Ps 29:2, 40:16, 115:1; Matt 6:13). The wicked will be steeped in a deception because they did not develop a love for the truth (Rom 1:21; 2Thess 2:11, 12). Therefore, when judgments are passed upon them (the 7 last plagues), they will refuse to repent of their delusions and give God glory by acknowledging the Sabbath. See Rev 16:9 Herein we see the message of health reform, as God counsels, whether we eat or we drink or whatsoever we do, we must do to the glory of God. See 1Cor 10:31; 1Jo 3:3 Satan well knew that the Holy Scriptures would enable men to discern his deceptions and withstand his power. It was by the word that even the Saviour of the world had resisted his attacks. At every assault, Christ presented the shield of eternal truth, saying, "It is written." To every suggestion of the adversary, He opposed the wisdom and power of the word. In order for Satan to maintain his sway over men, and establish the authority of the papal usurper, he must keep them in ignorance of the Scriptures. The Bible would exalt God and place finite men in their true position; therefore its sacred truths must be concealed and suppressed. This logic was adopted by the Roman Church. For hundreds of years the circulation of the Bible was prohibited. The people were forbidden to read it or to have it in their houses, and unprincipled priests and prelates interpreted its teachings to sustain their pretensions. Thus the pope came to be almost universally acknowledged as the vicegerent of God on earth, endowed with authority over church and state. - {GC 51.3}

Rev 14:7

Rev 14:7 - hour of his judgment is come - the "fear" previously spoken is directly tied to the fact that God's judgment hour had arrived. Judgment must produce an experience in the hearts and minds of those who hear the message of repentance, confession of one's sins, humbling oneself, being converted, and reforming one's ways so that his/her sins may be blotted out. In so doing, we reverence God Whose purpose is to deliver, cleanse, and save! God's Judgment Hour = God's Mercy Hour. See Jer 10:24; 1Cor 11:32; Rev 3:14-20 The gospel message reveals that God, our Advocate has plucked us from the fires of hell (active power of the gospel), not just from sin and its eternal penalty, but Christ saves us all along the way, plucking us from the 'hell's fire' that we put ourselves into during the course of our lives and giving us a more abundant life today (1Jo 2:1; Joh 10:10). In essence [the Investigative] judgment pulls us out of hell's fire rather than pushing us into it (Zech 3:2). Yet few know the hour of God's judgment according to the prophet Jer: "Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the judgment of the Lord." Jer 8:7. See also Eccl 8:5, 6 Probationary time will not continue much longer. Now God is withdrawing His restraining hand from the earth. Long has He been speaking to men and women through the agency of His Holy Spirit; but they have not heeded the call. Now He is speaking to His people, and to the world, by His judgments. The time of these judgments is a time of mercy for those who have not yet had opportunity to learn what is truth. Tenderly will the Lord look upon them. His heart of mercy is touched; His hand is still stretched out to save. Large numbers will be admitted to the fold of safety who in these last days will hear the truth for the first time. - {YRP 159.2}; See Am 4:12; Isa 30:18 Jesus is under judgment - Rom 3:26; 1Jo 1:19 "This unique final judgment of God would not be an outward act of wrath and vengeance. Rather it would be a final overwhelming inward conviction of God's people without any misconception of His character and justice. It would end wickedness and vindicate His name." {Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short, pg 125}

But they craved the fleshpots of Egypt, and mourned and cried for flesh, notwithstanding that the Lord had promised them that if they would submit to His will He would carry them into the land of Canaan and establish them there, a pure, holy, happy people, and there should not be a feeble one in all their tribes; for He would take away all sickness from among them. - {MM 277.1}

Rev 14:7 - is come - is here, NOW; has arrived - See 1Jo 4:2, 3

Rev 14:7

Rev 14:7 - worship him - Worship is a God centered activity and not man centered. Therefore, worship must be done in the manner in which God approves - in Spirit and in Truth (Joh 4:24). the command to worship God is given on two other occasions by an angel in the Rev (Rev 19:10, 22:8). This command is given as a rebuke for any attempts to worship angel or man instead of God alone. The command was applicable to the Time of the End, following 1,260 years of papal supremacy where self-exalting men: 1. claimed to sit in the seat of God - having God's authority (Isa 14:12-14) 2. claimed to be able to forgive sins as God (Mk 2:7) 3. claimed to have the keys to heaven and hell as God (Rev 1:18) 4. brought in a flood of erroneous doctrines as they claimed to be the voice of God (Dan 8:12; Rev 12:15) 5. claimed to be God (2Thess 2:3, 4).

Rev 14:7

Rev 14:7 - worship Him that made - the Living God is He alone Who has creative power. The power that the apostle Paul spoke about unto salvation (Rom 1:16) is the same creative power, required to cause a person to be born again to a new life in Jesus Christ! See Ex 20:8-11 Act 14:15 Deut 5:12-15 Isa 37:16, 42:5, 45:18, 46: Mt 11:28-30 Heb 4:2-11 Ps 146:6

Rev 14:7

Rev 14:7 - heaven - though God is Creator of all the universe and its inhabitants, including the heaven of heavens (3rd heaven) where He dwells with His angels, the reference is however, to the first heaven, earth's atmosphere where Judgment has come and the rebellion of sin persists until the Time of Restitution. See Gen 1:1; Ex 20:11; Contrast Mt 6:10; Joh 1:1-3

Rev 14:8

Rev 14:8 - followed - Page 435. A threefold message.—Rev 14:6, 7 foretells the proclamation of the first angel's message. Then the prophet continues: "There followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen.... and the third angel followed them." The word here rendered "followed" means "to go along with," "to follow one," "go with him." See Henry George Liddell and Robert Scott, Greek English Lexicon(Oxford: Clarendon Press, 1940), Vol. 1, p. 52. It also means "to accompany." see George Abbott-Smith, A Manual Greek Lexicon of the New Testament(Edinburgh: T. and T. Clark, 1950), page 17. It is the same word that is used in Mk 5:24, "Jesus went with him; and much people followed Him, and thronged Him." It is also used of the redeemed one hundred and forty-four thousand, Rev 14:4, where it is said, "these are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth." In both these places it is evident that the idea intended to be conveyed is that of "going together," "in company with." So in 1Cor 10:4, where we read of the children of Israel that "they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them," the word "followed" is translated from the same Greek word, and the margin has it, "went with them." From this we learn that the idea in Rev 14:8, 9 is not simply that the second and third angels followed the first in point of time, but that they went with him. The three messages are but one threefold message. They are three only in the order of their rise. But having risen, they go on together and are inseparable.- {GC 693.1}

Rev 14:8

Rev 14:8 - The Protestant churches, in their rejection of the 1st Angel's Message, a gathering message to worship the true God and give Him glory alone, became a part of the apostate system of Babylon and had thus fallen. Choosing to hold onto their sectarian identities, worshipping their church and pastors rather than God, as well as the relics of Romanism rather than to be led into all truth, the Protestant Churches experienced a moral fall and would continue to do so until the great conflict, in so doing declaring themselves to be the Daughters of the Great Whore, Babylon. To understand the final fall of Spiritual Babylon, we must consider the fall of the three typical Babylons portrayed in the Bible: 1. The fall of Babel, where the people are warned by Shem and are scattered (2520) as a result of their rebellion 2. The fall of Nebuchadnezzar for 2520 days in Dan 4 based on the vision/dream the LORD had given him and was revealed by the true prophet 3. The fall of Balshezzar (Mene, Mene... =2520) recorded in Dan 5 who rejected the warning given by the life experience of his grandfather

Rev 14:8

Rev 14:8 - Babylon is fallen, is fallen - A significant aspect of the 2nd Angel's Message is to signal the fall of what is commonly deemed, "mainline Protestantism", which chose to hold onto its sectarian name, creeds, identity and pastors rather than to fear God alone and give Him glory. These mainline churches were being passed by for a movement that was raised up by Jesus Christ Himself, a new spiritual tabernacle of which He is the Foundation and Chief Cornerstone. Just as the COI were passed by after A.D.34 and the Christian Church was raised up (the conclusion of a 2520 fractal), the same occurred at the Time of the End as God seeks to purify His church. Another mighty angel was commissioned to descend to earth. Jesus placed in his hand a writing, and as he came to the earth, he cried, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen." Then I saw the disappointed ones again raise their eyes to heaven, looking with faith and hope for their Lord's appearing. But many seemed to remain in a stupid state, as if asleep; yet I could see the trace of deep sorrow upon their countenances. The disappointed ones saw from the Scriptures that they were in the tarrying time, and that they must patiently wait the fulfillment of the vision. The same evidence which led them to look for their Lord in 1843, led them to expect Him in 1844. Yet I saw that the majority did not possess that energy which marked their faith in 1843. Their disappointment had dampened their faith. - {EW 247.1} The clarion cry given of the collapse of one of the greatest empires the world had ever known is to give great pause, warning and consideration to all who hear. Consider the impact and effect felt when you were first informed of the collapse of the twin towers in NYC on 9/11/2001. The shock and awe caused a world-wide pause and panic. Now consider the impact resulting from the fall of the world's most powerful empire. The angel's message continues by citing the cause for the collapse, "she has made all nations drink of the wine of her fornication". In other words, she has deceived and corrupted all the world. The Protestant churches, in their rejection of the 1st Angel's Message to worship the true God and give Him glory, became a part of the apostate system of Babylon and had thus fallen from their position of fidelity to God and His Word. Choosing to hold onto the relics of Romanism rather than to be led into all truth, the Protestant Churches experienced a moral fall, becoming the synagogue of Satan (Rev 3:9), the daughters of the Great Whore, Babylon, and would continue to do so until the great conflict has ended. The Bible declares that before the coming of the Lord, Satan will work "with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness;" and they that "received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved," will be left to receive "strong delusion, that they should believe a lie." 2Thess 2:9-11. Not until this condition shall be reached, and the union of the church with the world shall be fully accomplished throughout Christendom, will the fall of Babylon be complete. The change is a progressive one, and the perfect fulfillment of Rev 14:8 is yet future. { GC 389.3} As the light and life of men was rejected by the ecclesiastical authorities in the days of Christ, so it has been rejected in every succeeding generation. Again and again the history of Christ's withdrawal from Judea has been repeated. When the Reformers preached the word of God, they had no thought of separating themselves from the established church; but the religious leaders would not tolerate the light, and those that bore it were forced to seek another class, who were longing for the truth. In our day few of the professed followers of the Reformers are actuated by their spirit. Few are listening for the voice of God, and ready to accept truth in whatever guise it may be presented. Often those who follow in the steps of the Reformers are forced to turn away from the churches they love, in order to declare the plain teaching of the word of God. And many times those who are seeking for light are by the same teaching obliged to leave the church of their fathers, that they may render obedience. - {DA 232.2} In the professedly Christian world many turn away from the plain teachings of the Bible and build up a creed from human speculations and pleasing fables, and they point to their tower as a way to climb up to heaven. Men hang with admiration upon the lips of eloquence while it teaches that the transgressor shall not die, that salvation may be secured without obedience to the law of God. If the professed followers of Christ would accept God's standard, it would bring them into unity; but so long as human wisdom is exalted above His Holy Word, there will be divisions and dissension. The existing confusion of conflicting creeds and sects is fitly represented by the term "Babylon," which prophecy (Rev 14:8; 18:2) applies to the world-loving churches of the last days. - {PP 124.1} To understand the final fall of Spiritual

Babylon, we must consider the fall of the three typical Babylons portrayed in the Bible: 1. The fall of Babel, where the people are warned by Shem and his descendants; persist in rebellion against God, His Rulership and His promises; and are scattered (2520) as a result of their rebellion 2. The fall of Nebuchadnezzar for 2520 days in Dan 4 based on his rejection of God's warning to cut off wickedness; the dream/revelation of the LORD given to him by the true prophet of God 3. The fall of Balshezzar (Mene, Mene... =2520) recorded in Dan 5 whose probation closed imperceptibly as he made mockery of the True God; who rejected the warning given by the life experience of his grandfather; and whose dome was revealed by the testimony/revelation of the true prophet

Rev 14:8 - is fallen, is fallen - the words of the moral fall [falling away - 2Thess 2:3] of Protestantism is doubled by the messengers of the Lord to affirm that the thing is true. Those Adventists that after the 1st Disappointment in the spring of 1844, called the movement the work of men or mesmerism had also fallen away. "It is impossible" "to renew" such "to repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put Him to an open shame." See Gen 41:32; Isa 21:9; Dan 5:25; Heb 6:4-6 {1850 JW, TTAM 2.1} The sins of Babylon will be laid open. The fearful results of enforcing the observances of the church by civil authority, the inroads of spiritualism, the stealthy but rapid progress of the papal power—all will be unmasked. By these solemn warnings the people will be stirred. Thousands upon thousands will listen who have never heard words like these. In amazement they hear the testimony that Babylon is the church, fallen because of her errors and sins, because of her rejection of the truth sent to her from heaven. Those who proclaimed the second angel's message stated plainly that those who were clinging to the mere opinions of men in place of the plain statements of God's Word, were following thus far in the steps of the mother church of Rome, and were in danger of placing themselves where the day of the Lord would finally overtake them like "a thief in the night." The nominal churches were instructed that, in this setting aside of the word of the Lord in order to establish their own opinions and creeds, they were like the papal church, who took "the Bible as explained by tradition, by customs, sayings, and practises of the fathers, popes, and councils: which was a direct departure from the Protestant rule of taking 'the Bible, and the Bible alone, as the standard of faith.'" {1907 JNL, COOD 80.3} Sent from my iPad

Rev 14:8

Rev 14:8 - great city - Babylon is called a "great city", showing that it is a civil power while being a woman, or a church (Rev 17:1-5, 18). [See reference to "Great City" in Interpreting Bible Prophecy]

Rev 14:8

Rev 14:8 - all nations drink - all nations have become intoxicated by the smooth, sweet diplomacy of the Papacy that will eventually bite as an adder (Prov 5:3-6). This is made possible by her daughters which have fallen and returned to their mother church, the Babylon the Great, Mother of harlots. The false doctrines of Rome which the Protestant/Evangelical churches refuse to forsake are promoted as truth by her daughters See notes for "wine of the wrath of her fornication". See Jer 51:7

Rev 14:8

Rev 14:8 - wine - false doctrine, teachings, and misrepresentation of God and His character/truths - See Prov 20:1 1. Indulgences 2. Sunday sacredness and worship 3. Infant Baptism 4. Eternal Torment of the wicked 5. Adoration of the saints 6. An immortal soul 7.

Purgatory 8. Church councils and tradition above the Bible 9. Immaculate conception and adoration of Mary 10. Transubstantiation 11. Human works to save oneself; works equal or above grace 12. Priests, bishops and pope as intercessors 13. Pope is the vicar of Christ and above all other ecclesiastical powers 14. Sacramental penance (confession to a man and his judgments) 15. Futurist and preterist interpretation of prophecy 16. Catholic trinity 17. Original sin 18. Infallibility of the Church of Rome 19. Infallibility of the Pope 20. Auricular confession 21. Prayers for the dead 22. Prayers for saints 23. Going on Pilgrimages 24. Extreme unction 25. Performing services in an unknown tongue 26. Petrine supremacy (Peter was 1st Pope) 27. Papal immunity to earthly tribunals and accountability only to God 28. Pope claims Catholic Church mother of all other churches (A.D.1073) 29. A.D.1303 papal bull says there is neither salvation or remission of sins outside the Catholic Church 30. A.D.1562 Council of Trent declares tradition on par with Bible and doctrine 31. Death as the portal to the afterlife, a pagan doctrine brought into the church 32. Justification with no Sanctification 33. Eating unclean foods and wresting Scripture to justify behavior 34. Rev 14:8

Rev 14:8 - wrath - the wrath borne by Babylon originates with her master and lord, the devil, who has great wrath towards God, God's people, and God's Truth. The wrath or enmity, a byproduct of his wicked character (Eph 2:2, 3), produces a lie that is to deceive the world and draw all to war against God. Rev 16:13, 14; Eph 2:15, Rom 5:8, 10

Rev 14:8

Rev 14:8 - her fornication - Babylon is female, making her also a church, which commits adulterous acts with the kings of the earth. See Rev 17:1-5; Jam 4:4; Compare 12:1-5

Rev 14:9

Rev 14:9 - And the third angel followed them - "God has given the messages of Rev 14 their place in the line of prophecy, and their work is not to cease till the close of this earth's history. The first and second angel's messages are still truth for this time, and are to run parallel with this which follows." The 1888 Materials, 803-804.

Rev 14:9

Rev 14:9 - saying with a loud voice - the loud cry of the 3rd and 4th Angels' Messages is going to all who have ears to hear. It is to be taken to every station and post upon the earth. See Rev 13:9; 18:1-5

Rev 14:9

Rev 14:9 - If any man worship the beast - See Rev 13:4, 8 CONTRAST Deut 30:19 And, on the other hand, the judgments of God pronounced against sin, the inevitable retribution, the degradation of our character, and the final destruction, are presented in God's word to warn us against the service of Satan. - {SC 21.4}

Rev 14:9

Rev 14:9 - his image - the image to the beast is a reflection of the character of the beast, described by the 2nd Angel's Message as a union of church of state. This union of church and state will be made manifest through the passage and enforcement of a Sunday Law, a law based upon a false zeal and morality promoting unrighteousness. See Rev 13:14; Col 2:8, 18-23; Joh 16:1-3

Rev 14:9

Rev 14:9 - mark in his forehead - the mark will be prominent upon those who receive it, in their forehead or their hands. The forehead speaks of the seat of thought and reasoning. Those who receive it in their forehead give themselves over in conscious thought to the doctrines of the Beast in opposition to the binding 10 Commandment Law of God. Those who through deception or by fear of coercive forces imposed, worship the Image of the Beast will receive the mark on their hands.

Rev 14:9

Rev 14:9 - or in his hands - hands are a symbol of one's works and deeds. Those who work rebellion or commit sin by their hands. In context, those whose acts of worship are in accord with the principles of the Beast and His Image. See Ps 125:3, 55:20

Rev 14:10

Rev 14:10- drink of the wine of the wrath of God - the wine of the wrath of God is embodied in the seven last plagues. See Ps 75:8; Rev 15:1, 5-7, 16:1-21; Ex 32:20; Joh 3:36; Jer 25:15-38; Isa 51:22, 23

Rev 14:10

Rev 14:10 - poured out without mixture - full strength, concentrated, without mercy. God's judgments up until this time have been mingled with mercy, but not so when mankind's probation has closed. See Ps 75:8 "Looking down the ages, He saw the covenant people scattered in every land, "like wrecks on a desert shore." In the temporal retribution about to fall upon her children, He saw but the first draft from that cup of wrath which at the final judgment she must drain to its dregs..." {GC 21.2}

Rev 14:10

Rev 14:10 - cup of his indignation - God has a cup of punishment for the rebellious and wicked to drink from. Jer 25:15-38, 49:12

Rev 14:10

Rev 14:10 - be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb - the lake of fire after the Millennium and after the White Throne Judgment. See Rev 20:10, 14, 15

Rev 14:11

Rev 14:11 - And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night - The narrative of the 3rd Angel takes the reader beyond the 2nd Coming of Christ, beyond the Millennium, beyond the White Throne Judgment to the 2nd Death, when Christ will cast all the wicked into the Lake of Fire to be utterly consumed. See Rev 20:11-15; Mk 9:44, 46, 48; Mal 4:1, 3

Rev 14:11

Rev 14:11 - for ever and ever - a term meaning until it is complete or finished. Worms consume a corpse until there is no more decaying flesh to be consumed. The worms then move onto another host. See 1Sam 1:22; Mk 9:44, 46, 48

Rev 14:11

Rev 14:11 - and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image - the burning is continual until it has fulfilled its work in consuming the wicked. Similar to the "worm which never dies" a worm will work and consume a carcass until there is nothing left to be consumed. See Isa 66:24; Mk 9:44, 46, 48

Rev 14:11

Rev 14:11 - receiveth the mark of his name - Like the saints of God who receive the Father's name written in their foreheads (Rev 14:1; Ezekiel 9:2-4), a token of the character of God, those who worship the beast will receive the mark of his name, 666. The number of a man speaks of the mind/character/personality and works of fallen, unconverted man: sinful, selfish, prideful, self-exalting, hateful, envious, wicked, murderous. James 3:15, 16;

Rev 14:12

Rev 14:12 - Here is the patience of the saints - patience of the saints- the blessed hope, the anticipation of the saints. This statement is relevant for all times, expressing the long awaited desire of all who love the vindication of God's character and Truth to be realized in the appearing of Jesus Christ... (2Tim 4:8; Titus 2:13; Rev 13:10) This statement also bears great significance for those who experienced the Great Disappointment of Oct 22, 1844, where the faithful among God's people were made to wait patiently, in anticipation of the fulfillment of the blessed hope and glorious appearing of our Great God and Savior Jesus Christ. See Heb 10:36-39; Gal 5:5; Isa 30:18, 40:31; Lk 21:19; Jam 1:2, 3, 5:7; Rev 13:10; Rom 5:3 Several have written to me, inquiring if the message of justification by faith is the third angel's message, and I have answered, "It is the third angel's message in verity."—Selected Messages 1:372 (1890). - {LDE 199.4} To make plain natural law, and urge the obedience of it, is the work that accompanies the third angel's message to prepare a people for the coming of the Lord.—Testimonies for the Church 3:161. - {HL 19.2} as Joh saw the whole world wondering after the beast and receiving its mark, its name and the number of its name he despaired in thinking the whole world had become corrupted. God then showed him a company bearing the Seal of God to which he in joy exclaimed "Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus." But the cloud of judicial wrath hangs over them, containing the elements that destroyed Sodom. In his visions of things to come the prophet Joh beheld this scene. This demon worship was revealed to him, and it seemed to him as if the whole world were standing on the brink of perdition. But as he looked with intense interest he beheld the company of God's commandment-keeping people. They had upon their foreheads the seal of the living God, and he said: "Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. {6T 14.4} I asked the angel if there were none left. He bade me look in the opposite direction, and I saw a little company traveling a narrow pathway. All seemed to be firmly united by the truth. This little company looked careworn, as if they had passed through severe trials and conflicts. And it appeared as if the sun had just arisen from behind a cloud and shone upon their countenances, causing them to look triumphant as if their victories were nearly won. - {EW 263.2} "Before Jesus came in His first advent, heaven's plan was clearly stated: "Thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins" (Mt 1:21). Following Calvary, heaven was to tolerate the reign of sin for a given period, only until 1844, the end of the 2300 days. After 1844 a new kind of work was to take place. The sins of God's people were now to be blotted out. There was to be developed a whole generation of people with a Christ-like character such as the universe had not seen to that time. The sanctuary was to be cleansed." Excerpt From: Donald Karr Short. "Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed." iBooks. This material may be protected by copyright. Men will employ every means to make less prominent the difference between Seventh-day Adventists and observers of the first day of the week. A company was presented before me under the name of Seventh-day Adventists, who were advising that the banner, or sign, which makes us a distinct people should not be held out so strikingly; for they claimed that this was not the best policy in order to secure success to our institutions. But this is not a time to haul down our colors, to be ashamed of our faith. This distinctive banner, described in the words, "Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus," is to be borne through the world to the close of probation. While efforts should be increased to advance in different localities, there must be no cloaking of our faith to secure patronage. Truth must come to souls ready to perish; and if it is in any way hidden, God is dishonored, and the blood of souls will be upon our garments. - {6T 144.1} Just as long as those in connection with our institutions walk humbly with God, heavenly intelligences will co-operate with them; but let all bear in mind the fact that God has said: "Them that honor Me I will honor." 1Sam 2:30. Never for one moment should the impression be given to anyone that it would be for his profit to hide his faith and doctrines from the unbelieving people of the world, fearing that he may not be so highly esteemed if his principles are known. Christ requires from all His followers open, manly confession of faith. Each must take his position and be what God designed he should be, a spectacle to the world, to angels, and to men. The whole universe is looking with inexpressible interest to see the closing work of the great controversy between Christ and Satan. Every Christian is to be a light, not hid under a bushel or under a bed, but put on a candlestick, that light may be given to all who are in the house. Never, from cowardice or worldly policy, let the truth of God be placed in the background. - {6T 144.2} When we began to present the light on the Sabbath question, we had no clearly defined idea of the third angel's message of Revelation 14:9-12. The burden of our testimony as we came before the people was that the great second advent movement was of God, that the first and second messages had gone forth, and that the third was to be given. We saw that the third message closed with the words: "Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus." And we as clearly saw as we now see that these prophetic words suggested a Sabbath reform; but as to what the worship of the beast mentioned in the message was, or what the image and the mark of the beast were, we had no defined position. - {1T 78.2}

Revelation 14:12 - patience of the saints - hypomoné Noun Feminine hoop-om-on-ay' from (5278) from ; cheerful (or hopeful) endurance, constancy:--enduring, patience, patient continuance (waiting). steadfastness, constancy, endurance in the NT the characteristic of a man who is not swerved from his deliberate purpose and his loyalty to faith and piety by even the greatest trials and sufferings patiently, and steadfastly a patient, steadfast waiting for a patient enduring, sustaining, perseverance the statement speaks of a need for patient endurance among God's people during a time of tarrying (Titus 2:13; 1Cor 13:13). Such was the case fo the early Adventists, when buffeted and ridiculed for their faith after the Great Disappointment of October 22, 1844. Such will be the case the remnant (144,000) who patiently await God's deliverance during a Time of Trouble unlike no other time in earth's history. in Rev.14:12th verse, "Here is the patience of the Saints; here are they that keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus." Yes! here are they who are denounced as "door shutters" and "great sticklers for the seventh day Sabbath, in and out of almost every door but the right one, following any thing but the word of God and sound reason!" triumphed at last. How amazing these things appear; not more so perhaps than to the prophets when looking down into our history and beholding this first class composed of the leading messengers and about all of the shepherds, after leading the whole flock out into the most dangerous part of their journey, desert, denounce, and betray them; and then go and form themselves into a confederacy and positively disregard the message which God pressed upon them, viz. "Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God," etc. I rejoice in my soul and praise the living God, who is seated upon his Great White Throne in the height of his Sanctuary in the heaven of heavens, that I am still numbered in this third part. Call me what you please, my feet are planted on the Rock. I had rather suffer affliction with the Outcasts, than enjoy the pleasures of sin with all other people. Praise the Lord! if faithful, we shall soon enter the everlasting kingdom. Amen. {1848 JB, SC3 204.1}

Rev 14:12

Rev 14:12 - here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus - Rev 15:2-5 Called "the exalted platform of eternal truth" {CET 201.2}

Rev 14:12

Rev 14:12 - keep the commandments of God - Those who keep the commandments of God must first come out of Egypt as did Christ (Ex 20:2, Mt 2:14, 15), and out of Babylon as did father Abraham (Gen 12:1). The words of truth contained in the Bible [specifically the 10 Commandments] and Spirit of Prophecy are to seal God's people intellectually and spiritually. This is contrasted with those who worship the beast and his image and receive the mark of his name. See Isa 8:16 That men may be prepared to stand in the Judgment, the message commands them to "fear God, and give glory to him," "and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters." The result of an acceptance of these messages is given in the words, "Here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus." In order to be prepared for the Judgment, it is necessary that men should keep the law of God. That law will be the standard of character in the Judgment. {GC88 435.2}

Rev 14:12

Rev 14:12 - and the faith of Jesus - it can also be written "and keep the faith of Jesus". Those who keep both the commandments of God and keep Jesus' victorious faith are those who will be seen on Mt. Zion with Jesus Christ.

Rev 14:12

Rev 14:12 - the faith of Jesus - That by trusting in the same power of Jesus' miraculous birth, His sinless life, His atoning and victorious death, and His resurrection with power, that He can now convey through His own merits, that same victorious power to the one's who believe and put their trust in Him. This then permits God to fulfill the "Mystery of God", Christ in you, the hope of glory and to produce a perfect man in the fullness and stature of Christ at His Second Coming. See Col 1:25-28; Eph 3:3-6; 1Jo 5:4 See Gal 2:16. Jesus' faith is: 1. A self-sacrificial faith (Lk 22:42, Job 13:15), which the 144,000 will come to demonstrate in their lives, loving not their lives unto the death (Rev 12:11; Rom 8:36; Ps 44:22). Those who are crucified with Christ (daily) recognize that they are dead to sin and this world and alive unto Christ (Gal 2:20) A. A faith that rather suffer and even die than sin against God (Gen 39:7-21; Dan 3:16-18) B. A faith that prefers others well being above oneself (Ex 32:31-33) 2. A faith that is grounded in God's unchanging character of love, goodness, long suffering and mercy (Job 13:15; Ex 34:6, 7) 3. A victorious faith that overcomes the world (1Jo 5:4; Joh 16:33) 4. A faith that could open the eyes of the blind, the ears of the deaf, and raise the dead (Mk 10:46-51; Joh 9; Joh 11; Act 3:16) 5. A faith that can see beyond the suffering and pain of the cross to behold the eternal joy of mankind's salvation and a restoration of the peace and order lost through sin (Heb 12:1-4; 2Cor 4:17; Mt 16:24) 6. The faith once delivered to the saints that includes repentance, faith, baptism, the Lord's supper, washing of feet, consecration, etc. (Jude 3) 7. The faith that abides continually in Christ (Joh 15:1-10; Act

16:22-30; Isa 32:17; Ps 119:165; 1Jo 3:9) The third angel's message is the proclamation of the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus Christ. The commandments of God have been proclaimed, but the faith of Jesus Christ has not been proclaimed by Seventh-day Adventists as of equal importance, the law and the gospel going hand in hand. I cannot find language to express this subject in its fullness. - {3SM 172.2} "The faith of Jesus." It is talked of, but not understood. What constitutes the faith of Jesus, that belongs to the third angel's message? Jesus becoming our sin-bearer that he might become our sin-pardoning Saviour (Rom 5). He was treated as we deserve to be treated. He came to our world and took our sins that we might take his righteousness. And faith in the ability of Christ to save us amply and fully and entirely is the faith of Jesus. - {3SM 172.3}. - See Heb 7:25 Satan in his efforts to deceive and tempt our race had thought to frustrate the divine plan in man's creation; but Christ now asks that this plan be carried into effect as if man had never fallen. He asks for His people not only pardon and justification, full and complete, but a share in His glory and a seat upon His throne. - {GC 483.3} It was His purpose to enlighten their understanding and to fasten their faith upon the "sure word of prophecy." He wished the truth to take firm root in their minds, not merely because it was supported by His personal testimony, but because of the unquestionable evidence presented by the symbols and shadows of the typical law, and by the prophecies of the Old Testament. It was needful for the followers of Christ to have an intelligent faith, not only in their own behalf, but that they might carry the knowledge of Christ to the world. And as the very first step in imparting this knowledge, Jesus directed the disciples to "Moses and all the prophets." Such was the testimony given by the risen Saviour to the value and importance of the Old Testament Scriptures. - {GC 349.1} The efficacy of the blood of Christ was to be presented to the people with freshness and power, that their faith might lay hold upon its merits. As the high priest sprinkled the warm blood upon the mercy seat, while the fragrant cloud of incense ascended before God, so while we confess our sins and plead the efficacy of Christ's atoning blood, our prayers are to ascend to heaven, fragrant with the merits of our Saviour's character. Notwithstanding our unworthiness, we are ever to bear in mind that there is One that can take away sin and save the sinner. Every sin acknowledged before God with a contrite heart, He will remove. This faith is the life of the church. As the serpent was lifted up in the wilderness by Moses, and all that had been bitten by the fiery serpents were bidden to look and live, so also the Son of man must be lifted up, that "whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." - {TM 92.2} The faith of Christ must bring the righteousness of God, because the possession of that faith is the possession of the Lord himself. This faith is dealt to every man, even as Christ gave himself to every man. Do you ask what then can prevent every man from being saved? The answer is, Nothing, except the fact that all men will not keep the faith. If all would keep all that God gives them, all would be saved. There is not the slightest reason why every man that has ever lived should not be saved unto eternal life, except that they would not have it. So many spurn the gift offered so freely. {Signs of the Times, Jan 16, 1896, E.J. Waggoner}

Rev 14:13 - And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, - Joh is instructed by Someone among the heavenly hosts to write the words of the vision. See Rev 1:19

Rev 14:13

Rev 14:13 - which die in the Lord from henceforth - those who die in Christ under the sounding of the 3rd Angel's message will rest from their labors and their works of righteousness follow them. God puts to sleep His saints that He has sealed that they may be able to inherit the eternal glory at His Second Coming (Isa 57:1). These will rise in the Special Resurrection prior to Jesus' return. See Dan 12:2; Isa 57:1, 2

Rev 14:13

Rev 14:13 - Yea, saith the Spirit - the Spirit of God, Who is our Earnest (downpayment) is He who seals and sanctifies us in the New Covenant (Jer 31:31-34). He is Witness to our sanctification.

Rev 14:13

Rev 14:13 - and their works do follow them - the righteous dead under the 3rd Angel's message will be seen once again in the Special Resurrection before Christ Second Coming and they will receive their reward as they walk through the gates of the celestial city. See Rev 11:18; Dan 12:2; Prov 31:30, 31; Heb 13:7 God is not slack to remember the service, sacrifices, and labors of the righteous. Their works of kindness go before them in heaven as testimony to their character. See Mal 3:16-18; Eccl 11:1; Isa 32:8, 20 God has given me light regarding our periodicals. What is it?—He has said that the dead are to speak. How?—Their works shall follow them. We are to repeat the words of the pioneers in our work, who knew what it cost to search for the truth as for hidden treasure, and who labored to lay the foundation of our work. They moved forward step by step under the influence of the Spirit of God. One by one these pioneers are passing away. The word given me is, Let that which these men have written in the past be reproduced. And in The Signs of the Times let not the articles be long or the print fine. Do not try to crowd everything into one number of the paper. Let the print be good, and let earnest, living experiences be put into the paper. - {RH May 25, 1905 Par. 21} Not long ago I took up a copy of the Bible Echo. As I looked it through, I saw an article by Elder Haskell and one by Elder Corliss. As I laid the paper down, I said, These articles must be reproduced. There is truth and power in them. Men spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit. - {RH May 25, 1905 Par. 22} Let the truths that are the foundation of our faith be kept before the people. Some will depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils. They talk science, and the enemy comes in and gives them an abundance of science; but it is not the science of salvation. It is not the science of humility, of consecration, or of the sanctification of the Spirit. We are now to understand what the pillars of our faith are,—the truths that have made us as a people what we are, leading us on step by step. - {RH May 25, 1905 Par. 23}

Rev 14:15 - the time is come for thee to reap - The binding off has occurred where God's people have been gathered into little disparate bundles, while the wicked too have been gathered into bundles, all to be reaped separately. - *See Mt 13:30, 22:10-13; EW 88:2, 3 Here are two companies; one of them is being bound in bundles to burn, the other is being bound by the cords of truth and love. Satan is binding his followers with the work of iniquity; Christ is binding together his people in love and faith in the keeping of his commandments. And this work will increase more and more, and Satan will work to divide and separate God's people one from the other. And while he is doing this kind of work, be careful that none of you are found helping him. We want to put away our cold-heartedness, and let love, tender compassion, true courtesy, and the spirit of tenderness come into our midst. Here we are in the waiting time, in the day of God's preparation. Here in this world we are to fit up for these great trials that are soon coming upon us. And yet some of us act as though we had a whole millennium before us in which to accomplish the work. But, says the text, "Watch and pray; for ye know not when the time is." And what Christ said to his disciples, I say unto you, "Take ye heed, watch and pray," that when the Master comes to reckon with his servants, you may receive from him the crown of life laid up for the overcomer, and rejoice with him in his kingdom. - {RH August 18, 1885 Par. 14}

Rev 14:15 - for the harvest of the earth is ready - the precious fruit of the earth (Jam 5:7). See Joh 4:34-36; Mt 9:37, 38; Mk 4:26-29 The Feast of Tabernacles was not only commemorative but typical. It not only pointed back to the wilderness sojourn, but, as the feast of harvest, it celebrated the ingathering of the fruits of the earth, and pointed forward to the great day of final ingathering, when the Lord of the harvest shall send forth His reapers to gather the tares together in bundles for the fire, and to gather the wheat into His garner. At that time the wicked will all be destroyed. They will become "as though they had not been." Obadiah 16. And every voice in the whole universe will unite in joyful praise to God. Says the revelator, "Every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power, be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb forever and ever." See Isa 63:1-6; Rev 21:10, 27, 22:14, 15; Zech 14:5, 4, 9; 2Pet 2:9; Lev 16:21, 22; Dan 3:13-25 Christ descends upon the Mount of Olives, whence, after His resurrection, He ascended, and where angels repeated the promise of His return. Says the prophet: "The Lord my God shall come, and all the saints with Thee." "And His feet shall stand in that day upon the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the Mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof, ... and there shall be a very great valley." "And the Lord shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one Lord, and His name one." Zech 14:5, 4, 9. Rev 15:3

Rev 15:3 - And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb - the song of Moses and the Lamb is the song of deliverance, when led forth from Egyptian bondage, bondage to the world and to sin. See Rev 11:8 "God's people have not yet sung the song of Moses and the Lamb. But "it is our privilege to reach high and still higher, for clearer revealings of God's character. When Moses prayed, 'I beseech thee, shew me thy glory,' the Lord did not rebuke him, but He granted his prayer. . . . It is sin that darkens our minds and dims our perceptions." In granting that prayer, Moses was clothed with the glory of God.

Then "in pity" for the sinfulness and unreadiness of the people to face their own unconscious sin, God allowed Moses to veil that glory, a veil that still remains. It is not a veil from God's Shekinah as such, but a veil upon the heart that has taken shape in the symbols. The symbols became the reality and the spiritual building God wanted to build, His temple in the soul, waits until this day. If the remnant could catch a glimpse of this high and holy calling, fascination with the world would die. We would "know" that "we" are "God's building," His "house," "His temple," His "true tabernacle" and that His interest and deep concern is with the "soul temple" of man. No previous generation of mankind has been confronted with truth of this magnitude. The high destiny that God has planned for His people awaits their reception—the cleansing and restoration of the sanctuary." Rev 15:3

Rev 15:3 - Song of Moses - "I will sing unto Jehovah, for He hath triumphed gloriously; The horse and his rider hath He thrown into the sea. The Lord is my strength and my song, And He is become my salvation: This is my God, and I will praise Him; My father's God, and I will exalt Him. The Lord is a man of war: Jehovah is His name. Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath He cast into the sea: And his chosen captains are sunk in the Red Sea. The deeps cover them: They went down into the depths like a stone. Thy right hand, O Lord, is glorious in power, Thy right hand, O Lord, dasheth in pieces the enemy.... Who is like unto Thee, O Lord, among the gods? Who is like Thee, glorious in holiness, Fearful in praises, doing wonders? ... Thou in Thy mercy hast led the people which Thou has redeemed: THOU HAST GUIDED THEM IN THY STRENGTH TO THY HOLY HABITATION. [God purposed to take Israel immediately into the eternal Promised Land] The peoples have heard, they tremble.... Terror and dread falleth upon them; By the greatness of Thine arm they are as still as a stone; Till Thy people pass over, O Lord, Till the people pass over which Thou hast purchased. Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of Thine inheritance, THE PLACE, O LORD WHICH THOU HAST MADE FOR THEE TO DWELL IN." - {PP 288.1}

Rev 15:3 - just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints- God's judgments upon the wicked shows even His love, mercy and compassion upon them. God carries with Him the sympathy and approval of the whole universe as step by step His great plan advances to its complete fulfillment.—Patriarchs and Prophets, 78, 79 (1890). - {LDE 30.2} The act of Christ in dying for the salvation of man would not only make heaven accessible to men, but before all the universe it would justify God and His son in their dealing with the rebellion of Satan.—Patriarchs and Prophets, 68, 69 (1890). - {LDE 30.3} The whole universe is watching with inexpressible interest the closing scenes of the great controversy between good and evil.—Prophets and Kings, 148 (c. 1914). - {LDE 30.4} Our little world is the lesson book of the universe.—The Desire of Ages, 19 (1898). So with the apostasy at Sinai. Unless punishment had been speedily visited upon transgression, the same results would again have been seen. The earth would have become as corrupt as in the days of Noah. Had these transgressors been spared, evils would have followed, greater than resulted from sparing the life of Cain. It was the mercy of God that thousands should suffer, to prevent the necessity of visiting judgments upon millions. In order to save the many, He must punish the few. Furthermore, as the people had cast off their allegiance to God, they had forfeited the divine protection, and, deprived of their defense, the whole nation was exposed to the power of their enemies. Had not the evil been promptly put away, they would soon have fallen a prey to their numerous and powerful foes. It was necessary for the good of Israel, and also as a lesson to all succeeding generations, that crime should be promptly punished. And it was no less a mercy to the sinners themselves that they should be cut short in their evil course. Had their life been spared, the same spirit that led them to rebel against God would have been manifested in hatred and strife among themselves, and they would eventually have destroyed one another. It was in love to the world, in love to Israel, and even to the transgressors, that crime was punished with swift and terrible severity. - {PP 325.3}

Rev 15:8 - and no man was able to enter into the temple - we dwell in heavenly places through Christ Jesus and further, while Jesus is in His role of Mediator and High Priest, we may come boldly before His throne of grace to receive mercy in our time of need (Heb 4:16). However, the verse speaks of a time when no man may come again before Jesus because all mediation has ended and His judgments are to be poured out. Mankind's probation has ended and no man can enter into the temple by prayer or supplications again. See Dan 12:1; Heb 2:14-18, 4:15, 16; Rev 22:11, 12; Am 8:11-14, 5:18-20; Isa 8:21, 22 Rev 15:8 - No man - Literally, "no one." This undoubtedly means that the time for intercession is past; no one can enter and have access to the mercy seat. The time of preparation is over; now the time has come for the pouring out of the unmingled wrath of God. {SDA Bible Commentary 7}

Rev 16:1

Rev 16:1 - Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth - When Christ ceases His intercession in the sanctuary, the unmingled wrath threatened against those who worship the beast and his image and receive his mark (Rev 14:9, 10), will be poured out. The plagues upon Egypt when God was about to deliver Israel were similar in character to those more terrible and extensive judgments which are to fall upon the world just before the final deliverance of God's people. See Dan 12:1; Joel 3:1-12

Rev 16:1

Rev 16:1 - vials of the wrath of God upon the earth - those who are not covered by the blood of the Lamb, Christ Jesus, will be subject to the plagues - See Ex 12:13, 8:21-23; Joh 17:15

The wrath of God in the seven last plagues had been visited upon the inhabitants of the earth, causing them to gnaw their tongues from pain and to curse God. The false shepherds had been the signal objects of Jehovah's wrath. Their eyes had consumed away in their holes, and their tongues in their mouths, while they stood upon their feet. {EW 289.3}

Rev 16:2 - And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image - sores upon those who have the Mark of the Beast and who worship his image. See Ex 9:8-12

Rev 16:3

Rev 16:3 -poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea - the plague of blood upon the waters of Egypt in the time of Moses was a judgment upon Pharaoh who claimed to be a god that created the Nile river and its waters for his own pleasure. See Ex 7:14-22; Eze 29:1-3

Rev 16:5

Rev 16:5 - Thou art righteous, O Lord - Terrible as these inflictions are, God's justice stands fully vindicated. The angel of God declares: "Thou art righteous, O Lord, ... because thou hast judged thus. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy." Rev 16:2-6. By condemning the people of God to death, they have as truly incurred the guilt of their blood as if it had been shed by their hands.... - {Mar 267.2}

Rev 16:6 - For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets - See 2Kin 9:7; Lam 4:12, 13; Mt 23:29-36; Lk 11:50; Rev 6:10, 11, 18:24

Rev 16:6

Rev 16:6 - thou hast given them blood to drink - As is in the first plague of Egypt, the judgment of blood for water is given to all those who have shed innocent blood. The death decree of the male Hebrew children was the cause for the plague of Ancient Egypt as the murder of the saints will be for Spiritual Babylon and the world. See Isa 49:25, 26; Rev 17:6

Rev 16:7

Rev 16:7 - I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thou judgments - the souls under the altar, crying out for justice are vindicated with God's judgments. See Rev 6:9-11; Joh 7:24, 5:22, 27

Rev 16:8

Rev 16:8 - power was given unto him to scorch men with fire - the judgment of scorching fire from the sun is levied upon those who worship the sun (Sunday worship), the image of jealousy, instead of worshipping the God of creation. See Rev 16:9; Eze 8:3-6, 16; Joel 1:10-12, 17-20; Am 8:3, 11, 12; GC 628.1

Rev 16:9

Rev 16:9 - the repented not to give him glory - while the plagues are being poured out for man's rebellion, they in their deceived, seared conscience refuse to acknowledge their wrong and give God the glory despite the fierce punishments upon them. The very ones who gave glory and homage to the sun on Sunday, rather than the Son of Righteousness, the Lord of the Sabbath, will experience the searing heat of their rebellion. See Rev 9:20,21, 14:6

Rev 16:10

Rev 16:10 - seat of the beast - Rome. See Rev 13:3;

Rev 16:10

Rev 16:10 - his kingdom was full of darkness - the papacy, which ruled the world during the Dark Ages, which darkened wisdom of God and his works of salvation, which obscured the blessings reserved for men in God's plan of redemption will be subject to a plague of darkness itself. See Zech 11:17

Rev 16:10

Rev 16:10 - gnawed their tongues for pain - the wagging tongue of the papacy is that which blasphemed God, caused men to worship idols and break God's covenant of peace. See Rev 13:5, 6

Rev 16:11

Rev 16:11 - blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores - though the fifth plague of darkness is falling, the people still feel the remnants of the first plague, grievous sores. This suggests that the plagues may be cumulative in a sense.

Rev 16:11

Rev 16:10 and repented not of their deeds - the spirit of obstinance and rebellion are hallmarks of Satan and his understudy, the papacy, who repents not for the sins it has committed. This spirit has been demonstrated throughout its history, during the Dark Ages when persecuted by warring Islam and in modern times, when confronted with the sins of global child abuse, among other abominations. Compare Rev 9:20, 21

Rev 16:12

Rev 16:12 - the great river Euphrates - the spiritual application of this statement points to Spiritual [Modern] Babylon. The Euphrates was as "the River of Life" for ancient Babylon, providing a fertile land for the kingdom to thrive on the earth. As waters are a symbol of nations, multitudes and peoples (Rev 17:15, 18), the masses of people and the kings of the earth have been the life-blood of the papacy, enriching it and granting it its power seat and great authority. That the rivers will be dried up may be a reference to the loss of power, advocacy and support that will result from the falling plagues, and the papacy being exposed as powerless and the primary cause for deceiving the nations. See Rev 18:8-11, 22-24

Rev 16:12

Rev 16:12 - the water thereof was dried up - the peoples, multitudes and nations that followed after the beast are to be dried up and she will loose her support. Her military strength (arms) are also to be clean dried up and none shall help her during the time of her destruction. See Zech 11:17; Dan 11:45; Rev 18:8-20

Rev 16:12

Rev 16:12 - kings of the East - the combined forces of the world (Gog), particularly the Antichrist power (Papal Rome) that will gather to war against God at the last great battle. See Eze 39:1,11

Rev 16:12

Rev 16:12 - east - from the Greek word helios meaning sun, therefore, the more literal interpretation may be kings or rulers of the sun, or of the Sunday Law. This is perhaps a reference to the 10 kings of Rev 17 which give their power and authority to the beast, the papacy, for an hour to reign with her. In contrast, it may be that the kings/leaders of light, the children of the day or the righteous, the 144,000 may come be exalted.

Rev 16:13

Rev 16:13 - three unclean spirits - The Protestants of the United States will be foremost in stretching their hands across the gulf to grasp the hand of spiritualism; they will reach over the abyss to clasp hands with the Roman power; and under the influence of this threefold union, this country will follow in the steps of Rome in trampling on the rights of conscience. - {GC 588.1}

Rev 16:13

Rev 16:13 - like frogs - Just as frogs blanketed Egypt (Ex 8:2-4), so the deceptions of the unclean spirits shall blanket the earth in the Last Days.

Rev 16:13

Rev 16:13 - come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet - the sequence of the mention of the powers of darkness is telling. The Dragon, Satan, was first to manifest himself in the Garden of Eden to tempt and deceive humanity. Later in time, the devil would bring forth the Beast, the Papacy, during the Dark Ages to deceive, tempt and persecute the people of God. the last actor for Satan to bring forth is the False Prophet, who will again, tempt, deceive, persecute and seek to destroy God's people. The False Prophet, like the Beast, is a movement that claims to be for God but will attack the authority of God's word.

Rev 16:13

Rev 16:13 - mouth of the dragon - Taken from the book: The Omega Rebellion by Rick Howard [Quotes are from E.G. White's writings] - Contemplative, mystical prayers - Centering prayer - All supposedly leading to a higher spiritual awareness (New Spirituality, leading to pantheism) All the religions and occult theories that enabled their followers to contact the world of the supernatural used certain meditative practices that eventually led to an altered level of consciousness.. this could be reached by focusing the mind on one thing to the exclusion of anything else. It could be reached by focusing on sounds such as music; or through chanting and repetition or recitation of words; through the sensation of touch; or the use of visual exercises... the most rapid method of attaining an altered level of consciousness was through the creation of mental images. By creating a mental image and sustaining that image, an altered state could rapidly be achieved." pg 50

Rev 16:13

Rev 16:13 - the beast - the Catholic Church through its Ecumenical Movement is seeking to unite the world faiths under a common umbrella with it at its helm. The Ecumenical Movement plays upon the Postmodern Ideals and teachings that: 1) There are no moral absolutes - "There is no right or wrong", morality/ethics is relative 2) There are no absolutes - "There is no absolute" - truth/teachings/doctrine is relative The implementation of these tools removes objective truth - a New Trinity: Tolerance - Diversity - Choice "While people have always committed sins, they at least acknowledged these were sins... However, today what we have is not only immoral behavior, but a loss of moral criteria (compass). This is true even in the church. We face not only a moral collapse but a collapse of meaning. 'There are no absolutes.'" "It is hard to proclaim forgiveness of sins to people who believe that, since morality is relative, they have no sins to forgive. It is hard to witness to truth to people who believe that truth is relative (Maybe Jesus works for you; but crystals work for me')."

Rev 16:13

Rev 16:13 - mouth of the false prophet - See Mt 7:15; Rev 19:20, 13:11-17 The OMEGA: the control of human minds - mass hypnotism without awareness. We are forbidden to set the mind in a "train of conjecture," in other words, speculate concerning subjects in which we have not been given divine light: i.e. the location of God's presences or the personality or nature of God Spiritual Formation: A movement that has provided a platform and a channel through which contemplative prayer is entering the church. Find spiritual formation being used, and in nearly every case you will find contemplative spirituality. In fact contemplative spirituality is the heartbeat of the spiritual formation movement (pg 124) "The Adventist world church created the International Board of Ministerial and Theological Education (IBMTE) in September 2001, designed to provide overall guidance and standards to the professional training of pastors, evangelists, theologians, teachers, chaplains and other denominational employees involved in ministerial and religious formation, or spiritual formation, in each of the church's 13 regions around the world." - ATN News Contemplative Spirituality: a belief system that uses ancient mystical practices to induce altered states of consciousness (the silence) and is often wrapped in Christian terminology; the premise of contemplative spirituality is pantheistic (God is all) and panentheistic (God is in all). Spiritual Formation's pantheistic theory of GOD contains within it the belief and practice of what EG White termed "free-lovism," and "unholy spiritual love." (pg 135) Effects of the mystical silence and transporting Jesus around in a mobile sanctuary is that it has an erroneous concept of the personhood or personality of God. It relegates the Lord Jesus Christ to a "nonentity," demanding Him to be an essence, capable of existing everywhere simultaneously, existing in the hearts of all men personally. This removes Jesus from the sanctuary in heaven, changing His personhood into a panentheistic essence pervading the hearts of His people. These beliefs make the Lord an essence and not an actual being who dwells in heaven. (pg 136) Distortion of Contemplation and Meditation: In spiritual formation seminars, students are taught to use contemplative prayer as the tool to gain entry in to the silence, whose realms can only be reached by the total absence of thought, consideration, and reflection, the exact opposite of what contemplation and meditation really mean. (pg 143) abstractly: through the teaching of repetitive prayer, repetitive Scripture reading, willful emptying of the mind during prayer and meditation and the use of visualization...these are the very same techniques used in occult circles to alter consciousness.. (Pg 143, 144)

Rev 16:13

Rev 16:13 - the false prophet - See Mt 7:15; Rev 19:20, 13:11-17 The OMEGA: the control of human minds - mass hypnotism without awareness. We are forbidden to set the mind in a "train of conjecture," in other words, speculate concerning subjects in which we have not been given divine light: i.e. the location of God's presences or the personality or nature of God Spiritual Formation: A movement that has provided a platform and a channel through which contemplative prayer is entering the church. Find spiritual formation being used, and in nearly every case you will find contemplative spirituality. In fact contemplative spirituality is the heartbeat of the spiritual formation movement (pg 124) "The Adventist world church created the International Board of Ministerial and Theological Education (IBMTE) in September 2001, designed to provide overall guidance and standards to the professional training of pastors, evangelists, theologians, teachers, chaplains and other denominational employees involved in ministerial and religious formation, or spiritual formation, in each of the church's 13 regions around the world." - ATN News Contemplative Spirituality: a belief system that uses ancient mystical practices to induce altered states of consciousness (the silence) and is often wrapped in Christian terminology; the premise of contemplative spirituality is pantheistic (God is all) and panentheistic (God is in all). Spiritual Formation's pantheistic theory of GOD contains within it the belief and practice of what EG White termed "free-lovism," and "unholy spiritual love." (pg 135) Effects of the mystical silence and transporting Jesus around in a mobile sanctuary is that it has an erroneous concept of the personhood or personality of God. It relegates the Lord Jesus Christ to a "nonentity," demanding Him to be an essence, capable of existing everywhere simultaneously, existing in the hearts of all men personally. This removes Jesus from the sanctuary in heaven, changing His personhood into a panentheistic essence pervading the hearts of His people. These beliefs make the Lord an essence and not an actual being who dwells in heaven. (pg 136) Distortion of Contemplation and Meditation: In spiritual formation seminars, students are taught to use contemplative prayer as the tool to gain entry in to the silence, whose realms can only be reached by the total absence of thought, consideration, and reflection, the exact opposite of what contemplation and meditation really mean. Rev 16:14

Rev 16:14 - For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. - the spirits of devils that war against God and His people has been manifested throughout world history. The manifestations of these waring are seen in: 1. Hatred for the principles of God's law 2. Deceptions, where error is made to appear as truth 3. Human laws substituted for the law of God 4. Men are led to worship the creature rather than the Creator 5. Misrepresent the character of God - cause men to cherish a false conception of the Creator and thus regard Him with fear and hate rather than love 6. Endeavors to set aside the divine law, leading people to think themselves free from its requirements 7. Persecution of those who resist his deceptions

Rev 16:14 - working miracles - the signs and lying wonders performed by the devil and his imps will be used to affirm the spurious sabbath, Sunday, draw homage to the beast power (Rev 13:13, 14), and condemn the wise as heretics and seditious.

Rev 16:14

Rev 16:14 - unto the kings of the earth - See Rev 17:12-14

Rev 16:14

Rev 16:14 - battle of that great day of God Almighty - the battle of Armageddon in the Valley of Jehoshaphat (Joel 3:1-12) . See Rev 16:16, 17:14, 19:19; Judges 5:19-21; 1Kin 18:40; Ps 2:1-4 The world is filled with storm and war and variance. Yet under one head—the papal power—the people will unite to oppose God in the person of His witnesses. This union is cemented by the great apostate. While he seeks to unite his agents in warring against the truth he will work to divide and scatter its advocates. {7T 182} I saw that none could share the “refreshing,” unless they obtain the victory over every besetment, over pride, selfishness, love of the world, and over every wrong word and action. We should, therefore, be drawing nearer and nearer to the Lord, and be earnestly seeking that preparation necessary to enable us to stand in the battle in the day of the Lord. Let all remember that God is holy, and that none but holy beings can ever dwell in His presence. - {CET 113.1}

Rev 16:15

Rev 16:15 - Behold I come as a thief - similar to His counsel to the church of Sardis, Jesus comes as a thief (unexpected time and manner) and there counsels them to "watch" and keep their garments white. This warning comes to all who read and hear the words of the prophecy of this book. As we read of the punishments to befall the wicked, Jesus reminds us to remain diligent in making our calling and election sure. See Rev 1:1-3, 3:3-5

Rev 16:15

Rev 16:17 - blessed is he that watcheth - Because we know not the exact time of His coming, we are commanded to watch. “Blessed are those servants, whom the Lord when He cometh shall find watching.” Lk 12:37. Those who watch for the Lord’s coming are not waiting in idle expectancy. The expectation of Christ’s coming is to make men fear the Lord, and fear His judgments upon transgression. It is to awaken them to the great sin of rejecting His offers of mercy. Those who are watching for the Lord are purifying their souls by obedience to the truth. With vigilant watching they combine earnest working. Because they know that the Lord is at the door, their zeal is quickened to co-operate with the divine intelligences in working for the salvation of souls. These are the faithful and wise servants who give to the Lord’s household “their portion of meat in due season.” Lk 12:42. They are declaring the truth that is now specially applicable. As Enoch, Noah, Abraham, and Moses each declared the truth for his time, so will Christ’s servants now give the special warning for their generation. - {DA 634.2}

Rev 16:15

Rev 16:15 - keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame - those garments, woven in the loom of heaven represent the skin/flesh/life of a Friend. To be naked as were Adam and Eve, is to be in an unsanctified, condemned condition. See Gen 3:6-11; Zeph 1:8; Ezek 16:8 Everything that we of ourselves can do is defiled by sin. But the Son of God “was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin.” Sin is defined to be “the transgression of the law.” 1Jo 3:5, 4. But Christ was obedient to every requirement of the law. He said of Himself, “I delight to do Thy will, O My God; yea, Thy law is within My heart.” Ps 40:8. When on earth, He said to His disciples, “I have kept My Father’s commandments.” Joh 15:10. By His perfect obedience He has made it possible for every human being to obey God’s commandments. When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life. This is what it means to be clothed with the garment of His righteousness. Then as the Lord looks upon us He sees, not the fig-leaf garment, not the nakedness and deformity of sin, but His own robe of righteousness, which is perfect obedience to the law of Jehovah. - {COL 311.4}

Rev 16:16

Rev 16:16 - he gathered them together - the threefold union, Babylon, comprised of Dragon, Beast, False Prophet along with all the waters of the earth (peoples, multitudes, nations and tongues) are gathered together for the slaughter of the LORD. See Rev 17:15, 19:11-21

Rev 16:16

Rev 16:16 - Armageddon - (Har- Megiddo, meaning "mountain of the slaughter") Place where the kings and false prophets of the earth are to be slain as in the days of Deborah and Barak and Elijah. See Judges 5:19-21; 1Kin 18:40

Rev 16:17

Rev 16:17 - a great voice out of the temple of heaven - the voice of the Father is heard from the temple in the heaven, shaking the heavens and the earth once again (Heb 12:26, 27)

Rev 17:2

Rev 17:2 - the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication - See Prov 23:33; Rev 14:8, 18:3, 23, 19:2, 20, 22:15

Rev 17:3

Rev 17:3 - carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness - Joh is taken in vision to the wilderness where the Whore Babylon is found. She is preceded in the wilderness by God's true church, His bride who was given a place prepared by God for her. That Babylon has made it to the wilderness and bears a cup with abominations and the blood of the saints means that Babylon hunted, found and was successful in overcoming God's church in the wilderness. See Rev 13:7, Rev 6:9-11 The Church of Rome in the wilderness can also signify that the church has gone into obscurity, having received a deadly wound as of A.D.1798. The church would remain "underground" until the wound is healed when it will arise out of the bottomless pit and go into perdition (Rev 17:8)

Rev 17:3

Rev 17:3 - full of names of blasphemy - 1. Vicar of Christ 2. His holiness 3. Holy father 4. Supreme Pontiff

Rev 17:4 - decked with gold and precious stones and pearls - see Eze 23:40; Rev 18:12, 13

Rev 17:4

Rev 17:4 - cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication - Babylon's abominations and fruit of her fornication include: 1. Witchcraft and necromancy 2. Worship of sun, moon and stars 3. Consumption of abominable foods 4. Unjust balances 5. Homosexuality

Rev 17:4

Rev 17:4 - full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication - the cup of Babylon was made full after the time that the LORD gave her to repent of her sorceries, namely 1,260 years (see Rev 2:21; Jam 5:17; Rev 18:24).

Rev 17:5

Rev 17:5 - upon her forehead was a name written - Just as the heirs of the kingdom of God have the Fathers name written on their foreheads, Babylon also has a name written on her forehead. See Rev 14:1; Jer 3:2, 3

Rev 17:5

Rev 17:5 - Mystery - The Bible here describes the mystery of iniquity that was first manifest in the fallen angel Lucifer and now in his offspring, the papacy. See 2Thess 2:7; Eze 28:1-10

Rev 17:5

Rev 17:1-6 - Spiritual Babylon follows in the footsteps of natural Babylon (Dan 3, 5; 1Cor 15:45, 46; 1Pet 5:13): 1. A world wide power, subduing all the nations (Jer 50:23) 2. Makes drunk the world (Dan 5:1-4) 3. Makes an image for all to worship 4. Issues an unrighteous decree 5. Forces worship on penalty of death (Hab 2:8, 10) 6. Defies the true God (Dan 3:15) 7. Persecutes the saints of God 8. The land of graven images (Jer 50:38) Modern Spiritual Babylon, like the papacy of old, could not exist and rule over the world were it not for the power and might granted to her by the state, the kings of the earth (Rev 17:13). Modern Babylon is comprised of the 3-fold union (Dragon, Beast, False Prophet) that gathers the world to battle against God and His people. See Rev 16:14-16

Modern Babylon is comprised of the 3-fold union (Dragon, Beast, False Prophet) that gathers the world to battle against God and His people. See Rev 16:14-16 In the professedly Christian world many turn away from the plain teachings of the Bible and build up a creed from human speculations and pleasing fables, and they point to their tower as a way to climb up to heaven. Men hang with admiration upon the lips of eloquence while it teaches that the transgressor shall not die, that salvation may be secured without obedience to the law of God. If the professed followers of Christ would accept God's standard, it would bring them into unity; but so long as human wisdom is exalted above His Holy Word, there will be divisions and dissension. The existing confusion of conflicting creeds and sects is fitly represented by the term "Babylon," which prophecy (Rev 14:8; 18:2) applies to the world-loving churches of the last days. - {PP 124.1}

Rev 17:8 - the beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit - The papacy, that ruled for 1260years (was), received a deadly wound (is not), and whose wound shall be healed (shall ascend out of the bottomless pit). The current era is the era of the rebuilding/resurrection of the papacy where all the world is wondering after her. See Rev 13:1-4

Rev 17:10

Rev 17:10, 11 - The 8 Kings are showing the chronology of desolators who wage war against God and His people. The list begins with Babylon, the first "world" empire which conquered the land of Egypt, thus prophetically conquering "the world" (Jer 46:7-13; Eze 29:18-20): 1. Babylon 2. Medo-Persia 3. Greece 4. Pagan Rome 5. Papal Rome 6. USA 7. UN 8. Modern Rome

Rev 17:10

Rev 17:10 - he must continue a short space - the 7th kingdom, the UN, will give its power to the Beast to reign for 1 hour, a short space. See Rev 17:12, 17

Rev 17:11

Rev 17:11 - and the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven - Here the Bible gives a riddle that points again to Modern Rome, which was, is not and is among the prior seven (papal Rome).

Rev 17:11

Rev 17:11 - even he is the eighth and is of the seven - The number 8 can symbolize a resurrection/baptism [resurrection to new life], circumcision. Rome always comes up 8th and is of the 7: 1. 7 horns remain after 3 are uprooted. The little horn arises among them, is Roman, and is the 8th. Dan 7:8 2. Dan 8:3-9: Medo-Persia is represented as a ram with 2 horns; Greece under Alexander is a goat with 1 horn - the 1 horn is broken and 4 less prominent horns arise. The Little horn is the 8th horn to arise 3. Rev 13:1-3: The beast with 7 heads receives a deadly wound to a head; the resurrected head is the 8th and is of the 7 4. a. Babylon b. Medo-Persia c. *Rev 17:12-14 - the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings - The 10 Kings, prophesied first in Gen 15:18-21, in Esther 9:10, 12-14 in Dan 2, and in Rev 16:13, kings of the [east] sun, is the last confederacy that will wage war against God and His people. The 10 kings, though not kings, will receive power as kings for a period of time with the papacy. This 10-fold power may be comprised of civil and ecclesiastical figures. The 10 Kings will be judged in the "Day of the Lord" as spoken by the prophet Joe. See Joe 1:15; 2:1, 11, 31.

Rev 17:12

Rev 17:12 - one hour - the hour of temptation that is to come upon the earth is here mentioned (See Rev 3:10; Isa 28:15, 17; 1Pet 4:12||Matt 13:5, 6; Dan 3:15). It is during this hour that the saints will be brought before magistrates and church leadership to give an answer for the hope that lies within them. See Lk 12:11, 12

Rev 17:13

Rev 17:13 - these have one mind - The enemies of God have confederated together against Him and His people. See Ps 83:2-5; 48:1-7; Rev 16:13, 14; Isa 8:9 The scenes of the betrayal, rejection, and crucifixion of Christ have been reenacted, and will again be reenacted on an immense scale. People will be filled with the attributes of Satan. The delusions of the archenemy of God and man will have great power. Those who have given their affections to any leader but Christ will find themselves under the control, body, soul, and spirit of an infatuation that is so entrancing that under its power souls turn away from hearing the truth to believe a lie. They are ensnared and taken, and by their every action, they cry, "Release unto us Barabbas, but crucify Christ".... - {3SM 415.6}

Rev 17:13

Rev 17:10 - give their power/strength to the beast - The papacy will be given the power and strength of the world (the United Nations - the 10 kings) before its destruction: See Eze 29:17-20. In that same day, the remnant will "bud forth" because of the Latter Rain and will "open their mouths" with the Loud Cry (Eze 29:21)

Rev 17:14 - they that are with Him are called and chosen and faithful - the 144,000. See Rev 14:1-5

Rev 17:14

Rev 17:15 - called and chosen - Jesus once said that "many are called but few are chosen" (Mt 20:16; 22:14), suggesting few will chose the path of life. Those who do and go through great tribulation of the last days are here mentioned. See Eph 1:1-11

Rev 17:14

Rev 17:14 - chosen - those who choose to be chosen are they who humble themselves and submit to the purging process of the Faithful and True Witness.

Rev 17:14

Rev 17:14 - and faithful - the 144,000 are faithful, not loving their lives unto the death. They purpose to live by God's law and love no matter the circumstances. Though they be slain for their witness they remain faithful. They are as the Rechobites who refused to compromise based on the solemn command of their father. See Jer 35:1-19; Rev 12:11; Heb 10:35-39 God leads His people on, step by step. He brings them up to different points calculated to manifest what is in the heart. Some endure at one point, but fall off at the next. At every advanced point the heart is tested and tried a little closer. If the professed people of God find their hearts opposed to this straight work, it should convince them that they have a work to do to overcome, if they would not be spewed out of the mouth of the Lord. Said the angel: "God will bring His work closer and closer to test and prove every one of His people." Some are willing to receive one point; but when God brings them to another testing point, they shrink from it and stand back, because they find that it strikes directly at some cherished idol. Here they have opportunity to see what is in their hearts that shuts out Jesus. They prize something higher than the truth, and their hearts are not prepared to receive Jesus. Individuals are tested and proved a length of time to see if they will sacrifice their idols and heed the counsel of the True Witness. If any will not be purified through obeying the truth, and overcome their selfishness, their pride, and evil passions, the angels of God have the charge: "They are joined to their idols, let them alone," and they pass on to their work, leaving these with their sinful traits unsubdued, to the control of evil angels. Those who come up to every point, and stand every test, and overcome, be the price what it may, have heeded the counsel of the True Witness, and they will receive the latter rain, and thus be fitted for translation. - {1T 187.1}

Rev 17:15 - waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues - See Isa 17:12, 13, 60:5; Jer 51:13; Ps 65:7

Rev 17:16

Rev 17:16 - these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked and shall eat her flesh and burn her with fire - The same fate of the adulterous wife, Ancient Israel, will be levied upon Babylon the Great Whore. The kings of the earth and all the wicked will turn upon her and burn her with fire. See Jer 4:30, 31 When the people learned that Jesus had been put to death by the priests, inquiries were made regarding His death. The particulars of His trial were kept as private as possible; but during the time when He was in the grave, His name was on thousands of lips, and reports of His mock trial, and of the inhumanity of the priests and rulers, were circulated everywhere. By men of intellect these priests and rulers were called upon to explain the prophecies of the Old Testament concerning the Messiah, and while trying to frame some falsehood in reply, they became like men insane. The prophecies that pointed to Christ's sufferings and death they could not explain, and many inquirers were convinced that the Scriptures had been fulfilled. - {DA 776.4} The revenge which the priests had thought would be so sweet was already bitterness to them. They knew that they were meeting the severe censure of the people; they knew that the very ones whom they had influenced against Jesus were now horrified by their own shameful work.

Rev 17:17

Rev 17:17 - for God hath put in their hearts to fulfill His will - God has never lost control in the Great Controversy. God's judgments are to befall Babylon and He will execute it through those who have committed fornication with her. God will even use the wicked to fulfill His purposes. See Rev 16:19-21; Joh 11:50-52; 1Kin 22:22, 23; 2Chron 18:21, 22 The world is not without a ruler. The program of coming events is in the hands of the Lord. The Majesty of heaven has the destiny of nations as well as the concerns of His church in His own charge.—Testimonies for the Church 5:753 (1889). - {LDE 29.1} These symbolical representations [the fiery serpents in the wilderness] serve a double purpose. From them God's people learn not only that the physical forces of the earth are under the control of the Creator, but also that under His control are the religious movements of the nations. Especially is this true with reference to the enforcement of Sunday observance.—Manuscript Releases 19:281 (1902). - {LDE 29.2} In the great closing work we shall meet with perplexities that we know not how to deal with, but let us not forget that the three great Powers of heaven are working, that a divine hand is on the wheel, and that God will bring His purposes to pass.—Evangelism, 65 (1902). - {LDE 29.3} As the wheel-like complications were under the guidance of the hand beneath the wings of the cherubim, so the complicated play of human events is under divine control. Amidst the strife and tumult of nations, He that sitteth above the cherubim still guides the affairs of the earth. [See Ezekiel 1:4, 26; 10:8; Dan 4:17, 25, 32.]—Education, 178 (1903). - {LDE 29.4} In the annals of human history, the growth of nations, the rise and fall of empires, appear as if dependent on the will and prowess of man; the shaping of events seems, to a great degree, to be determined by his power, ambition, or caprice. But in the Word of God the curtain is drawn aside, and we behold, above, behind, and through all the play and counterplay of human interest and power and passions, the agencies of the All-merciful One, silently, patiently working out the counsels of His own will.—Prophets and Kings, 499, 500 (c. 1914). - {LDE 29.5}

Rev 17:18

Rev 17:18 - the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth - See Rev 16:19-21

Rev 18:1

Rev 18:1 - And after these things - Rev 18 is comprised of the following: v1-3 - An angel that illuminates the earth with His glory that gives a warning message of the fall of Babylon v4-20 - A second message from heaven, commanding all to come out of Babylon v21-24 - The close of humankind's probation

Rev 18:1

Rev 18:1 - I saw another angel come down from heaven - the descent of the 4th Angel, parallels the descent of the Mighty Angel found in Rev 10:1. The Angel's descent is to empower the message of the 3rd Angel of Rev 14:9-12 for the Advent Movement Reform Line, but also marks the empowerment of the 1st Angel's message for the 144,000's Reform Line. The 4th Angel's descent on September 11, 2001 is historic in its being a visible marker (waymark) in the chain of events marking the close of humankind's probation. The 4th Angel parallels the Mighty Angel's descent on August 11, 1840 as a visible empowering from the LORD for His remnant movement. I was shown the interest which all heaven had taken in the work going on upon the earth. Jesus commissioned a mighty angel to descend and warn the inhabitants of the earth to prepare for His second appearing. As the angel left the presence of Jesus in heaven, an exceedingly bright and glorious light went before him. I was told that his mission was to lighten the earth with his glory and warn man of the coming wrath of God. Multitudes received the light. Some of these seemed to be very solemn, while others were joyful and enraptured. All who received the light turned their faces toward heaven and glorified God. Though it was shed upon all, some merely came under its influence, but did not heartily receive it. Many were filled with great wrath. Ministers and people united with the vile and stoutly resisted the light shed by the mighty angel. But all who received it withdrew from the world and were closely united with one another. - {EW 245.2}

Rev 18:1

Rev 18:1 - power - [exousia] meaning authority/right/privilege.

Rev 18:1

Rev 18:1 - the earth was lightened with his glory - See Ex 34:28, 29; Num 14:21; Ezek 16:14, 43:2; Isa 55:5, 60:1-5; 2Thess 1:11, 12; Hymn #316 v2 - Live Out Thy Life Within Me Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 415.5} As with the angel of Rev 10 whose feet stood upon both land and sea, bringing a global message, this angel empowers the prophetic reformatory movement and lightens the earth with His glory. The descent of the 4th Angel, whose glory lightens the entire earth is coincident with the falling of the Latter Rain (in measure). God's presence, revealed through His human agents' proclamation of the gospel is that which lightens the earth and is coincident with the Times of Refreshing [Former Rains - Pentecost, and Latter Rains] (Act 3:19). See Num 14:21; Hab 2:14, 20 There are periods which are turning points in the history of nations and of the church. In the providence of God, when these different crises arrive, the light [light of the 4th Angel] for that time is given. If it is received, there is spiritual progress; if it is rejected, spiritual declension and shipwreck follow. {Bible Echo August 26, 1895} The seraphim before the throne are so filled with reverential awe in beholding the glory of God that they do not for an instant look upon themselves with self-complacency, or in admiration of themselves or one another. Their praise and glory are for the Lord of Hosts, who is high and lifted up, and the glory of whose train fills the temple. As they see the future, when the whole earth shall be filled with his glory, the triumphant song of praise is echoed from one to another in melodious chant, "Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of Hosts."

They are fully satisfied to glorify God; and in his presence, beneath his smile of approbation, they wish for nothing more. In bearing his image, in doing his service and worshiping him, their highest ambition is fully reached. - {RH December 22, 1896 Par. 11} The angel who unites in the proclamation of the third angel's message is to lighten the whole earth with his glory. A work of world-wide extent and unwonted power is here foretold. The advent movement of 1840-44 was a glorious manifestation of the power of God; the first angel's message was carried to every missionary station in the world, and in some countries there was the greatest religious interest which has been witnessed in any land since the Reformation of the sixteenth century; but these are to be exceeded by the mighty movement under the last warning of the third angel. - {GC 611.1} The message of the angel following the third is now to be given to all parts of the world. It is to be the harvest message, and the whole earth will be lighted with the glory of God. The Lord has this one more call of mercy to the world, but the perversity of men diverts the work from its true bearing, and the light has to struggle amid the darkness of men who feel themselves competent to do a work which God has not appointed them to do. {Lt 86, 1900, par. 23} I heard those clothed with the armor speak forth the truth with great power. It had effect. Many had been bound; some wives by their husbands, and some children by their parents. The honest who had been prevented from hearing the truth now eagerly laid hold upon it. All fear of their relatives was gone, and the truth alone was exalted to them. They had been hungering and thirsting for truth; it was dearer and more precious than life. I asked what had made this great change. An angel answered, "It is the latter rain, the refreshing from the presence of the Lord, the loud cry of the third angel." - {EW 271.2}

Rev 18:1 - His glory - God's glory, His name, His character, His presence will lighten the world as it shine forth through the 144,000 who have the Father's name written in their foreheads and have the living presence of Christ within. See Ex 33:14, 19-34:8; 1Jo 4:17; 2Cor 3:18 The truth of a heavenly origin converts the soul. The truth from heaven has an influence upon the human life and upon the human character that is elevating, ennobling, sanctifying, refining—making us more and more like Jesus; and thus we are changed through the sanctification of the truth from glory to glory. What is the glory? It is the character—"From character to character." And we are fitting for heaven in this life, that we may see Jesus and that we may be like Him; that we may reflect His image, and from character to character marching, marching right straight along; step by step you keep with the Leader, and He is leading you. Who is it? The Light of the world, the Truth, the Life.—all these combined, and He is leading in straight paths. You are never left without angels' care. Do you respond and seek to perfect a true righteous character? Will you be led? That is the question, the whole question of your salvation today. Will you be led? - {1SAT 204.2}

Rev 18:2

Rev 18:2 - he cried mightily with a strong voice - the "loud cry" of the Mighty Angel is the empowering of the 3rd Angel of Rev 14:9-12, also known as the "latter rain" - the work of the Holy Spirit, the Teacher of righteousness according to righteousness. The "loud cry" is synonymous with the "times of refreshing", the "latter rain", and "the outpouring of the Holy Spirit".

Rev 18:2

Rev 18:2 - Babylon the great is fallen is fallen - See Jer 51:8; Rev 14:8 This scripture points forward to a time when the announcement of the fall of Babylon, as made by the second angel of Rev 14 (verse 8), is to be repeated, with the additional mention of the corruptions which have been entering the various organizations that constitute Babylon, since that message was first given, in the summer of 1844. A terrible condition of the religious world is here described. With every rejection of truth the minds of the people will become darker, their hearts more stubborn, until they are entrenched in an infidel hardihood. In defiance of the warnings which God has given, they will continue to trample upon one of the precepts of the Decalogue, until they are led to persecute those who hold it sacred. Christ is set at nought in the contempt placed upon His word and His people. As the teachings of spiritualism are accepted by the churches, the restraint imposed upon the carnal heart is removed, and the profession of religion will become a cloak to conceal the basest iniquity. A belief in spiritual manifestations opens the door to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils, and thus the influence of evil angels will be felt in the churches. - {GC 603.2} PP 124.1 - In the professedly Christian world many turn away from the plain teachings of the Bible and build up a creed from human speculations and pleasing fables, and they point to their tower as a way to climb up to heaven. Men hang with admiration upon the lips of eloquence while it teaches that the transgressor shall not die, that salvation may be secured without obedience to the law of God. If the professed followers of Christ would accept God's standard, it would bring them into unity; but so long as human wisdom is exalted above His Holy Word, there will be divisions and dissension. The existing confusion of conflicting creeds and sects is fitly represented by the term "Babylon," which prophecy (Revelation 14:8; 18:2) applies to the world-loving churches of the last days. - {PP 124.1}

Rev 18:2 - is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird - See Rev 16:13, 14; Nah 3:1, 4; Zech 5:6-11; Isa 47:12 At last he [Martin Luther] beheld in the distance the seven-hilled city. With deep emotion he prostrated himself upon the earth, exclaiming: "Holy Rome, I salute thee!"—Ibid., b. 2, ch. 6. He entered the city, visited the churches, listened to the marvelous tales repeated by priests and monks, and performed all the ceremonies required. Everywhere he looked upon scenes that filled him with astonishment and horror. He saw that iniquity existed among all classes of the clergy. He heard indecent jokes from prelates, and was filled with horror at their awful profanity, even during mass. As he mingled with the monks and citizens he met dissipation, debauchery. Turn where he would, in the place of sanctity he found profanation. "No one can imagine," he wrote, "what sins and infamous actions are committed in Rome; they must be seen and heard to be believed. Thus they are in the habit of saying, 'If there is a hell, Rome is built over it: it is an abyss whence issues every kind of sin.'"—Ibid., b. 2, ch. 6. - {GC 124.3} [The Great Conspiracy pg 53 by Neil Livingston] Let us more carefully analyze Rev 18, verses 1 and 2. The fourth angel states that because the modern churches of Babylon have fallen they have "become the habitation of devils." What does this mean? The contemporary Roman Catholic and Sunday-keeping churches are now filled with spiritualism in the form of false healing, false speaking in tongues, casting out demons, and using hypnosis in the practice of so-called "Christian psychology." Rock music, inspired by demons, is now used in the worship service of most contemporary denominations, including the Roman Catholic Church. All of Christendom is rampant with the modern spiritualistic techniques of "Self-Esteem," and "Neuro-Linguistic Programming," known as NLP. This, without question, is spiritism in its most subtle and deceptive form! When Satan has undermined faith in the Bible, he directs men to other sources for light and power. Thus he insinuates himself. Those who turn from the plain teaching of Scripture and the convicting power of God's Holy Spirit are inviting the control of demons. Criticism and speculation concerning the Scriptures have opened the way for spiritism and theosophy - those modernized forms of ancient heathenism-to gain a foothold even in the professed churches of our Lord Jesus Christ. Ellen G. White, Desire of Ages, page 258. (emphasis supplied).

Rev 18:3

Rev 18:3 - for all nations have drunk of the wine of her wrath - In the time in which this prophecy is to be fulfilled, all the world would have been given wholly in to the hands of the papacy. See Jer 51:7; Rev 19:2 This is the same message that was given by the second angel. Babylon is fallen, "because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication" (Rev. 14:8). What is that wine?—Her false doctrines. She has given to the world a false sabbath instead of the Sabbath of the fourth commandment, and has repeated the falsehood that Satan first told Eve in Eden—the natural immortality of the soul. Many kindred errors she has spread far and wide, "teaching for doctrines the commandments of men" (Matt.15:9). {Ellen G. White, Selected Messages, Bk. 2, page 118.}

Rev 18:3

Rev 18:3 - kings of the earth have committed fornication with her - it is "confusion" [fornication] for a woman to lie with a beast, therefore it is fornication for the Church of Rome to have relations with the Kings of the earth. See Lev 18:23; Eze 28:3-5

Rev 18:3

Rev 18:3 - the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies - "The merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies." The merchants of the earth have become rich from the sale of goods connected with the Christian faith. Christmas, Easter, Saint Valentine's Day, All-Saints Day (Halloween), Saint Patrick's Day, and other so-called Christian holidays reap millions in revenue for merchants and the Church. The "Contemporary Christian" gospel music industry alone is second only to the Country music industry of Nashville in the millions of dollars realized. {The Greatest Conspiracy pg 54 by Neil Livingston}

Rev 18:4

Rev 18:4 - And I heard another voice from heaven saying - As in Rev 10, where the Father speaks from heaven and commands Joh to eat the book, here the Father commands all His people to come out of Babylon as He pronounces its destruction

Rev 18:4

Rev 18:4 - come out of her my people - See Rev 14:4; Zech 2:6-8; 2Cor 6:17; Jer 51:6, 23:7, 8; Act 18:10; John 10:4, 5 The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 415.5} The light of the Sun of Righteousness is to shine forth in good works—in words of truth and deeds of holiness. - {COL 416.1} The call, empowered by the power of the Holy Spirit will cause all to be cut to the heart but will result in one of two outcomes, zealous repentance unto salvation or a zeal to silence the message and the messengers. Act 2:37-39, 3:18-20; 5:33, 7:54; Joh 16:1-3 Only a few of earth's billions will come out of Babylon. "Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it." (Matt. 7:14) From Egypt only two passed into the promised land. Only eight were saved in Noah's day. After the flood they all apostatized into Babylon. A few followed when the Lord called Abraham. Fewer still stood at the cross. "And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things." (Lk 23:49, emphasis supplied). Only one hundred and twenty in the upper room received the early rain of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. A small company believed William Miller. Fewer still accepted the Sanctuary and Sabbath truths, the Spirit of Prophecy, and became Seventh-day Adventists. Today many are living in the broad way. There remains a small remnant throughout the earth. "Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh," Jesus asked, "shall he find faith on the earth?" (Lk 18:8b) {The Greatest Conspiracy pg 55 by Neil Livingston} I heard those clothed with the armor speak forth the truth with great power. It had effect. Many had been bound; some wives by their husbands, and some children by their parents. The honest who had been prevented from hearing the truth now eagerly laid hold upon it. All fear of their relatives was gone, and the truth alone was exalted to them. They had been hungering and thirsting for truth; it was dearer and more precious than life. I asked what had made this great change. An angel answered, "It is the latter rain, the refreshing from the presence of the Lord, the loud cry of the third angel." - {EW 271.2} The voice from heaven with the command to come out of Babylon with the descent of the 4th Angel, parallels the arrival of the 2nd Angel of Rev 14:8 in the Millerite History. Given as a clarion blast to signal the near Close of Probation for a people, the 2nd Angel's command spoke to those within Protestantism that had fallen whereas, the message from heaven during the 4th Angel's descent signals the purification of God's last day church and its imminent close of probation before the rest of the world's probation closes. The Lord is calling for His people, who are called by His name, to come from Babylon [the breaches that have occurred in Adventism due to apostasy - 1. Confusion on the nature of Christ 2. Disparaging the Spirit of Prophecy 3. Casting off the truths of Righteousness by Faith and complete victory over sin 4. Forsaking the Biblical identification of the remnant church and its works 5. A religion of works that gives no assurance of salvation 6. Downplaying the critical role of the Sabbath as a testing truth 7. Questioning the doctrine of the sanctuary and Jesus' mediatorial work in the Most Holy Place today] and be separate from her corruptions by returning to the Old Paths. This warning cry is two-fold, that we not partake of the sins of Babylon and thus not receive of the plagues from the LORD. See Isa 48:20; 30:26; 58:12, 13; Jer 6:16, 17, 50:8-11, 51:6, 45-50; Zech 2:6-9, 11 To-day, the word is, "Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." That is Babylon. And in the eleventh chapter of the book of Rev, it speaks of that which is "spiritually called Egypt;" and they who get the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over the mark, and the number of his name "sing the song of Moses"-not something like it-but "the song of Moses the servant of God." What was the song of Moses?-The song of deliverance from Egypt. Then, when those who get the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, sing the song of Moses, it is because they are delivered from Egypt. Because, to-day, and to the end of the world, "Out of Egypt have I called my son." There is to-day a Babylon and an Egypt. To-day there are people of God in Babylon and in Egypt. And to-day the Lord calls, "Come out of her my people;" and, "Out of Egypt have I called my son." {March 15, 1897 ATJ, GCDB Q48.2} Look at it again: Where was Nimrod?-He was in Babylon, and governed the realm of Babylon. Where was Abraham?-He was in the country ruled by the kingdom established by Nimrod. But God called him out of that country. That country was Babylon both spiritually and physically. And more than this: Nimrod was the son of Cush, and Cush was the son of Ham, and Egypt is the land of Ham. So that in Nimrod there was both Egypt and Babylon. And when God called Abraham, he called him out of both Egypt and Babylon. And "if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." And ye are called out of both Egypt and Babylon. {March 15, 1897 ATJ, GCDB Q48.3}

Rev 18:4 - partakers of her sins - the whore is one who commits lawlessness, breaking the commandments of God. See 1Jo 3:4 Signs Your Church is in Apostasy: 1. Separates Jesus from the Truth - Joh 4:23 2. Teaches that doctrines don't matter: doctrine means "teaching from God's word" - 1Tim 4:16 3. When keeping God's law is seen as legalism and not obedience: Ps 19:7; Rev 12:17 4. Chooses politics over Christ: Joh 19:15 5. Unity is issues based and not Bible based - Satan will unify the apostate churches on "issues": Rev 17:13 6. Following Christ's example is optional: 1Jo 2:6 (one can not be lost if they do what Jesus did)

7. Worship reflects worldly standards vs. God's standards from His Word: Lk 6:45 8. Focus on wealth supersedes focus on Jesus (a carnal church): Mt 6:24 9. Does not embrace equality for all (racial, cultural biases promoted): Gal 3:26-28 10. Exalts the temporal above the eternal: Philippians 3:20

Rev 18:4 - that you receive not of her plagues - a dual reference to come from Babylon is here noted: 1. The destruction of Ancient Israel in the city of Jerusalem at the hands of Rom (Mt 24:) 2. The destruction of Spiritual Israel along with Spiritual Babylon because they sought to avoid bearing the reproach of the cross of Christ at the close of mankind's probation (Isa 4:1-3)

Rev 18:5

Rev 18:4 - For her sins have reached unto heaven - See Jer 50:29-32 All that the papacy learned, she learned from Ancient Israel: 1. Traditions over the Word of God: Mark 7:6, 7; 2. Spiritual Fornication (church & state): Lk 20:20, Joh 18:28-31, 19:7 3. Priesthood controls the people: Joh 7:45-49; Isa 29:9-12 4. Idolatry - Isa 3, 44:9-19 5. Ritual fasting and penance: Isa 58:1-5; Mark 2:18; Lk 5:33-35 6. Long robes and regalia: Lk 20:46; Mt 23:5 When do her sins reach unto heaven? When the law of God is finally made void by legislation. Then the extremity of God's people is His opportunity to show who is the governor of heaven and earth. As a Satanic power is stirring up the elements from beneath, God will send light and power to His people, that the message of truth may be proclaimed to all the world. - {Mar 189.5}

Rev 18:5

Rev 18:5 - God hath remembered her iniquities - it is not that God in any way had forgotten her iniquities, but rather, the time had come for her to be judged and punished for those iniquities. See Ex 6:5; Jer 50:14, 15; Rev 16:19.

Rev 18:6

Rev 18:6 - Reward her even as she rewarded you - the destruction of Modern Babylon is typified through God's destruction of ancient Tyrus, delineated in Eze 26, 27

Rev 18:6

Rev 18:6 - and double unto her double according to her works - Babylon receives a double portion of punishment of the 50-100M martyrs she slew during the Dark Ages and those who will die before the close of mankind's probation.

Rev 18:18 - What city is like unto this great city! - this is an appropriate question. What city is like Vatican City, that is a City, a Church and a nation all in one? None other.

Rev 18:19

Rev 18:19 - Alas, alas - a term synonymous with the term "woe". Just like there are 3-woes spoken of, the statement "Alas, alas" appears 3x. See Rev 18:10, 16, 19, 8:13 (Heb: ouaí) alas, woe oo-ah'-ee a primary exclamation of grief a primary exclamation of grief; "woe":--alas, woe.

Rev 18:19

Rev 18:18 - by reason of her costliness! - by reason of her extravagance.

Rev 18:20

Rev 18:20 - Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her - See Rev 6:9-11, 12:11, 17:6, 18:24; Dan 7:26

Rev 18:21

Rev 18:21 - a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea - See Jer 51:60-64; Mt 18:6; Mk 9:42; Lk 17:2

Rev 18:23

Rev 18:23 - the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bird shall be heard no more at all in thee - Babylon will be cast to utter darkness - See Jer 25:10

Rev 19:5

Rev 19:5 - And a voice came out of the throne saying Praise our God - the Father commands all to praise the Son, the LORD God Who has triumphed. See also Heb 1:8

Rev 19:7

Rev 19:7 - for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and His wife hath made herself ready - The marriage is the consummation of the judgment where all who are found in Christ will be ready to enter into the marriage feast once Christ returns. See Mt 25:10; Jer 6:2; Lk 12:35-37

Rev 19:8

Rev 19:8 - And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white - See Rev 3:18, 7:13-17, 16:15; Isa 52:1; Rom 13:12

Rev 19:8

Rev 19:8 - for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints - the righteousness of the saints is Christ's righteousness, imputed and imparted by grace through faith of Jesus Christ. Christ's Righteousness is a tested and purified faith and holiness that has overcome the world. See Jer 23:6; Rev 3:18; Ezek 16:8-13

Rev 19:9

Rev 19:9 - Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb - See Mt 22:1-14; Lk 14:17, 22:30

Rev 19:10

Rev 19:10 - And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: - See Rev 22:8

Rev 19:10

Rev 19:10 - I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: - The angels who are part of the family in heaven and on earth (Eph 1:10, 3:15) are as the prophets, being part of God's chain of prophetic revelation to men. See Rev 1:1, 22:6, 9, 14:7; Dan 10:21; Heb 1:14 The angel identified himself as a prophet of God (Rev 22:9). Indeed the angels were as prophets to Adam and Eve, giving them warning of the dangers found in the forbidden tree. See Lk 1:70; Act 3:21

Rev 19:10

Rev 19:10 - the testimony of Jesus Christ is the Spirit of Prophecy - The Holy Spirit, given to lead men to all truth, is the Spirit Who inspired the writing of the Bible, and the One who brings understanding of it (Joh 16:13, 15:26, 5:39; 2Pet 1:21; 1Cor 2:14; Isa 8:20; Lk 24:27, 32; 2Pet 2:19-21). Bible prophecy reveals past, present, and future events, and gives the reader understanding of the counsels and purposes of God (Rev 1:17-19). The patriarchs, the faithful throughout history, have treasured the prophetic word as God's direct revelation, instruction, and warning to preserve life, both present and eternal (Heb 11:7; Ju 14, 15). Those who diligently search the scriptures and apply its truths today will experience the same blessings as the patriarchs. See Isa 42:8, 9, 41:21-23, 26; Am 3:7; Prov 3:32; Ex 4:22-23

Enoch faithfully rehearsed to the people all that God had revealed to him by the Spirit of prophecy. Some believed his words and turned from their wickedness to fear and worship God. - {SR 59.1}

Rev 19:11

Rev 19:11 - in righteousness He doth judge - See Rev 22:12; Lk 12:47, 48; Joh 5:30

Rev 19:12

Rev 19:12 - His eyes were as a flame of fire - Jesus' eyes are like lamps of fire that see through each person with perfect clarity. Jesus searches the hearts and tries the reigns of every heart to see if it is faithful (Jer 17:10; Ps 139:23, 24; Zeph 1:12). Jesus counsels us to buy of Him eye salve so that we may see our own wretchedness (Rev 3:18). See Dan 10:6

Rev 19:12

Rev 19:12 - and on his head were many crowns - His crown looked brilliant and glorious. It was a crown within a crown, seven in number. The crowns of the saints were of the most pure gold, decked with stars. Their faces shone with glory, for they were in the express image of Jesus; and as they arose and moved all together to the top of the city, I was enraptured with the sight. - {EW 53.1}

Rev 19:13 - and his name is called The Word of God - See Joh 1:1-3, 14

Rev 19:14

Rev 19:14 - fine linen, white and clean - It is right to love beauty and to desire it; but God desires us to love and seek first the highest beauty, that which is imperishable. No outward adorning can compare in value or loveliness with that "meek and quiet spirit," the "fine linen, white and clean" (Rev 19:14), which all the holy ones of earth will wear. This apparel will make them beautiful and beloved here, and will hereafter be their badge of admission to the palace of the King. His promise is, "They shall walk with Me in white: for they are worthy." Rev 3:4. - {AA 523.3}

Rev 19:15

Rev 19:15 - out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations - the Word of God is that which will judge the nations. See Heb 4:12; Rev 2:12, 16; Joh 12:47-50

Rev 19:19

Rev 19:19 - And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war - See Rev 16:16 The world is filled with storm and war and variance. Yet under one head—the papal power—the people will unite to oppose God in the person of His witnesses. This union is cemented by the great apostate. While he seeks to unite his agents in warring against the truth he will work to divide and scatter its advocates. {7T 182}

Rev 19:20

Rev 19:20 - he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped the image his image - the False Prophet is he who will do the devil's bidding in the last days, deceiving all who worship the image to the beast and receive its mark to war against the saints of God. The miracles wrought by the False Prophet are not to create the image to the beast, but to convince all who have worship the beast, his image and receive his mark, that the true people of God are not the people of God. See Rev 13:12-16

Rev 19:20

Rev 19:20 - These both were cast alive into a lake of fire, burning with brimstone - God cast the papacy, the beast, and apostate protestantism, the false prophet which joined itself to its mother into the Lake of Fire at the commencement of the millennium. The papacy's 1260+yrs of persecution and apostasy may be accounted here. See Isa 30:33; Rev 18:8, 20:10; Mt 25:41

Rev 20:2

Rev 20:2 - bound him a thousand years - Lev 16:22 Satan is a spiritual being, not flesh and blood and can not therefore be bound as would a man or beast. The binding of Satan is due to circumstances, in other words: 1. He has no one to tempt for a thousand years because the earth is made desolate at Jesus' Second Coming (Jer 4:23-28). 2. He is bound to this earth, not able to roam or visit any other planet to tempt and harass. (Rev 20:1-3) 3. He is left in total darkness at the coming of the LORD At the conclusion of the thousand years is the resurrection of condemnation, where the wicked will also be raised from the dead. See Joh 5:24-29; Rev 20:5 The earth looked like a desolate wilderness. Cities and villages, shaken down by the earthquake, lay in heaps. Mountains had been moved out of their places, leaving large caverns. Ragged rocks, thrown out by the sea, or torn out of the earth itself, were scattered all over its surface. Large trees had been uprooted and were strewn over the land. Here is to be the home of Satan with his evil angels for a thousand years. Here he will be confined, to wander up and down over the broken surface of the earth and see the effects of his rebellion against God's law. For a thousand years he can enjoy the fruit of the curse which he has caused. Limited alone to the earth, he will not have the privilege of ranging to other planets, to tempt and annoy those who have not fallen. During this time, Satan suffers extremely. Since his fall his evil traits have been in constant exercise. But he is then to be deprived of his power, and left to reflect upon the part which he has acted since his fall, and to look forward with trembling and terror to the dreadful future, when he must suffer for all the evil that he has done and be punished for all the sins that he has caused to be committed. - {EW 290.1}

Rev 20:3

Rev 20:3 - cast him into the bottomless pit - the earth in its barren, broken down condition has returned to its former state before the creation, being without form and void (Jer 4:23-28; Gen 1:2). It is the desolated, darkened earth (no sun or moon - Isa 24:23; Jer 4:28) itself that has become the place of bondage, the Bottomless Pit for Satan. See Isa 24:17-21; Lev 16:22

Rev 20:3

Rev 20:3 - shut him up and set a seal upon him - just as the noble prophet Dan was condemned to death in the pit of a lions den and sealed ("that the purpose may not be changed") by those who under Satan's influence wickedly sought to take his life (Dan 6:16, 17), Satan will receive his just recompense of being sealed (condemned) to the pit of the earth for his final destruction in the Lake of Fire. See Rev 20:10.

Rev 20:3

Rev 20:2 - that he should deceive the nations no more - the nations here are the masses of wicked that have inhabited the earth and are destroyed at the presence of the LORD. See Isa 24:21, 22

Rev 20:3

Rev 20:3 - till the thousand years are fulfilled - The nations have warred against God and His people and have suffered the result of their rebellion. Their ultimate fate will be the resurrection of condemnation and their final executive judgment, where they are destroyed in the Lake of Fire, the Second Death. See Rev 20:5, 6, 1Cor 15:24-28

Rev 20:3

Rev 20:3 - and after that he must be loosed a little season - with the resurrection of the wicked (resurrection of condemnation - Joh 5:29; Rev 20:5) after the 1000 years have ended, the devil is loosed from his prison of circumstances, now having once again subjects to tempt, harass, influence and control against God and His kingdom "a little season". See Rev 20:7-10

Rev 20:4

Rev 20:4 - I saw thrones and they sat upon them, and judgment was given to them - the redeemed will rule in judgment. See Isa 32:1; Mt 19:28; Lk 22:30; Isa 54:17; 1Cor 6:2, 3; Ps 1:5, 75:2-10, 149:1-9; Prov 26:26; Rev 3:21

Rev 20:4

Rev 20:4 - judgment was given unto them - See 1Cor 4:5, 6:2, 3; Mt 19:28; Lk 22:30; Dan 7:22; Isa 32:1, 54:17; Psa 122:5, 149:9; Lk 22:30. After the saints are changed to immortality and caught up together with Jesus, after they receive their harps, their robes, and their crowns, and enter the city (Rev 22:14), Jesus and the saints sit in judgment. The books are opened—the book of life and the book of death. The book of life contains the good deeds of the saints; and the book of death contains the evil deeds of the wicked. These books are compared with the statute book, the Bible, and according to that men are judged. The saints, in unison with Jesus, pass their judgment upon the wicked dead. "Behold ye," said the angel, "the saints, in unison with Jesus, sit in judgment, and mete out to the wicked according to the deeds done in the body, and that which they must receive at the execution of the judgment is set off against their names." {EW 53.1} Then I saw thrones, and Jesus and the redeemed saints sat upon them; and the saints reigned as kings and priests unto God. Christ, in union with His people, judged the wicked dead, comparing their acts with the statute book, the Word of God, and deciding every case according to the deeds done in the body. Then they meted out to the wicked the portion which they must suffer, according to their works; and it was written against their names in the book of death. Satan also and his angels were judged by Jesus and the saints. Satan's punishment was to be far greater than that of those whom he had deceived. His suffering would so far exceed theirs as to bear no comparison with it. After all those whom he had deceived had perished, Satan was still to live and suffer on much longer. - {EW 290.3}

Rev 20:4

Rev 20:4 - The judgment by the just is the act that settles all doubt of God's character for those who will spend eternity with Him. God is proven to be just and true in all of His ways (Rev 16:7) as the life record of the wicked are made plain.

Rev 20:4

Rev 20:4 - The judgment by the just is the act that settles all doubt of God's character for those who will spend eternity with Him. God is proven to be just and true in all of His ways (Rev 16:7) as the life record of the wicked are made plain.

Rev 20:5

Rev 20:5 - the rest of the dead - those whose names were not written in the Lambs Book of Life, who died without Jesus Christ and those who were slain by the brightness of His coming are the dead who will not live again until the resurrection of condemnation, after the 1000 years. See Isa 24:22; Nahum 1:5; 2Thess 2:8

Rev 20:5

Rev 20:5 - this is the first resurrection - the resurrection of life is that which is promised to all who have died in Christ and whose names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life. See Joh 5:25-29

Rev 20:6

Rev 20:6 - Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection - See 1Thess 4:14-17; Joh 5:24-29; Phil 3:11

Rev 20:6

Rev 20:6 - the second death hath no power - See Dan 3:21-27; Rev 20:14, 21:8; Ps 103:15-17 While the earth was wrapped in the fire of destruction, the righteous abode safely in the Holy City. Upon those that had part in the first resurrection, the second death has no power. While God is to the wicked a consuming fire, He is to His people both a sun and a shield. Revelation 20:6; Ps 84:11. - {DD 60.2} The cities of refuge were a symbol of the refuge provided in Christ. The Saviour has by the shedding of His own blood provided for the transgressors of God's law a sure retreat, into which they may flee for safety from the second death. No power can take out of His hands the souls that go to Him for pardon. - {EP 369.1}

Rev 20:6 - they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years [in heaven]. See Rev 5:10

Rev 20:7

Rev 20:7 - Satan shall be loosed out of his prison - the devil will be loosed from his prison of circumstances (a barren and desolate earth) after 1000 years as the earth is repopulated with the resurrected wicked, numbering as the sands of the sea. Rev 20:5, 7, 8, 10; Nahum 1:11, 12, 14

Rev 20:8

Rev 20:8 - Gog - meaning roof/covering/dissolving. See Ezek 38:9 meaning foreigners or barbarians; those who are outside the camp of God who seek to do God and His people harm. See Eze 39:1; Rev 22:15; 21:8 As spoken in Eze 39, means the great powers which Daniel gives us to understand which were to arise successively in the Northern Mediterranean to rule over the world: The Babylonians, the Medes & Persians, the Grecians and the Rom. Gog therefore represents the wicked powers of the earth ("kings of the East"), especially Antichrist, or Papal Rome. {William Miller's Voice of Prophecy pg 39}. See Dan 8:23 [transgressors]

Rev 20:8

Rev 20:8 - Magog - supporters of Gog.

Rev 20:8

Rev 20:8 - gather them together to battle - Gog and Magog will come to make a prey of the people of God who dwell in peace and safety. See Eze 38:11-16

Rev 20:8

Rev 20:8 - the number of whom is as the sand of the sea - See Nahum 1:12

Rev 20:9

Rev 20:9 - The events following the Millennium allows the righteous to see that the hearts of those who had perished and not risen during the First Resurrection or were slain by the brightness of Jesus' Second Coming are completely unrepentant and unconverted as they storm the city. It proves once again that God is just in His judgments. See Eze 38:10-17

Rev 20:9

Rev 20:9 - compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city - the camp of the saints and the beloved city is New Jerusalem, God's Holy City and Bride that has descended from heaven onto the earth, onto the plain where Mt. Olivet once stood. See Rev 21:2; Zech 14:4, 12:1-6

Rev 20:9

Rev 20:9 - and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them - See Eze 38:18-23

Rev 20:10

Rev 20:10 - the devil that deceived them - the last great deception of the devil has been completed in convincing "the nations" that they can conquer God and seize the beloved city, New Jerusalem. Satan is laid waste before "the nations" and all will look on him narrowly as he is judged and thrown into the lake of fire and brimstone. The reward of his children, the seed of the serpent will follow. See Isa 14:15-21; Nahum 1:11, 12, 14

Rev 20:10

Rev 20:10 - tormented day and night for ever and ever - See Ps 9:5-8

Rev 20:12

Rev 20:12- I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God - the executive judgment of the wicked is here shown, where the wicked will see their lives, works and rebellion come into judgment for themselves. It is here that God and His government are vindicated before all the world and it is here that every knee will bow and will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord. See 2Pet 2:9; Rom 14:11; Phil 2:10; Isa 45:23-25; Lk 4:5

Rev 20:12

Rev 20:12 - and another book was opened, which is the book of life: - as a book of record and evidence, the Lamb's Book of Life which contains the names of the redeemed is also presented in the judgment of the wicked, to affirm that they have no part in Jesus' works by their own choice. See Rev 13:8, 17:8.

Rev 20:12

Rev 20:12 - according to their works - one's works and speech are a reflection of one's thoughts (as a man thinketh, so is he. Consider what the wicked may profess to Christ in judgment: "Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets. 27 But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. 28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.". Lk 13:26-28 See Prov 23:7; Mt 12:34; 2Cor 11:14, 15; Jer 25:14; Rev 20:13

Rev 20:13

Rev 20:13 - death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them - the two enemies, death and hell (the grave) are defeated foes that were conquered for all by Jesus when He died on the cross of Calvary. These two enemies for which the devil had men bound in fear have been overthrown such that they have no power over Jesus' resurrection power (Heb 2:14, 15; Joh 5:25-29). Yet, the nations, the host of the wicked who have not accepted Jesus' gift of salvation must themselves pay the ultimate penalty for sin, the Second Death, whose payment they scorned by rejecting Jesus Christ.

Rev 20:13

Rev 20:13 - and they were judged every man according to their works - the judgment here mentioned is where the wicked will see their own lives and will recognize how they spurned God's countless attempts to save them. Here, the wicked and Satan himself will bow and give honor to Christ where "every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." See Isa 45:23; Rom 14:11, 12; Phil 2:10; Prov 20:11

Rev 20:14

Rev 20:14 - cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death - the eternal separation from God and utter destruction purposed by for the Devil and his angels alone for their rebellion in heaven, will be the fate of those who reject God's gift of salvation and whose names are not written in the book of life. This lake which melts and dissolves, will burn the wicked until they are consumed, as ashes under the feet of the righteous. See Mt 25:41; 2Pet 3:6, 7, 10-12; Mal 4:1, 3 "The city of God, like the ark in the flood, rides safely on the billows of flame. [The city of God and its inhabitants, will be preserved with Jesus within the city while the fires rage around them, just as the 3 Hebrew worthies in the fiery furnace.]The elements melt with fervent heat, and the earth, with all its works are burned up. The wicked become ashes under the soles of the feet of the righteous. The last ace in the shadowy service of the tabernacle, the placing of the ashes of the bullock in a clean place, has met its antitype.

Rev 21:7 - He that overcometh shall inherit all things - Jesus, Who is Heir of all things (Heb 1:2), will make us joint heirs of all things with Him. See Rev 12:11; Mic 4:8 The deepest interest manifested among men in the decisions of earthly tribunals but faintly represents the interest evinced in the heavenly courts when the names entered in the book of life come up in review before the Judge of all the earth. The divine Intercessor presents the plea that all who have overcome through faith in His blood be forgiven their transgressions, that they be restored to their Eden home, and crowned as joint heirs with Himself to "the first dominion." Mic 4:8. Satan in his efforts to deceive and tempt our race had thought to frustrate the divine plan in man's creation; but Christ now asks that this plan be carried into effect as if man had never fallen. He asks for His people not only pardon and justification, full and complete, but a share in His glory and a seat upon His throne. - {GC 483.3}

Rev 21:25 - gates of it shall not be shut - The everlasting gates in heaven are open and shut at the command of God and angels that watch over them (See Ps 24:7-10). After sin, provision needed to be made to ensure all that defiles remained without (see Rev 22:14, 15). At Jesus' victorious return after the cross, the angels in love and adoration commanded the gates to be lifted up so that the King of glory might enter in. Again, when Jesus returns with the ransomed of earth, the cry will be heard to lift up the gates once again. Yet, in the new earth, never shall those gates be shut because all that possibly can defile would have been destroyed. See Isa 60:11; Joh 10:9; Rev 21:27

Rev 21:27

Rev 21:27 - And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth - nothing that defiles will be permitted to enter the heavenly courts. Only those who have partaken of Christ as their Passover, will be permitted to enter into the kingdom. The stranger who has not eaten of the Passover can not enter in. See Isa 33:20-24; 1Pet 1:4

Rev 21:27

Rev 21:27 - any thing that defileth - the 144,000 are said to follow the Lamb and are not defiled with women, or the harlot church and her offspring. Rev 22:7

Rev 22:7 - Behold I come quickly - the warning to behold or be watchful and vigilant because Jesus' return will come quickly (suddenly) is given often in the Bible, particularly the Rev. Rev 22:8 - And I Joh saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things. - See Rev 19:10

Rev 22:9 - for I am thy fellowservant and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the says of this book; worship God. - though the Bible explicitly states that man is of a lower nature and order than that of the angels (Ps 8:4, 5), we see that the angels bear the similar mind of Christ (Phil 2:5-7) which, though of a greater glory, empty themselves and act as servants to those that will inherit eternity (Heb 1:14). The angel affirms that we are all one family in Christ (Eph 1:10, 3:15; Rev 19:10). The angel ends with the injunction of the First Angel's Message, that we are not to worship men or angels but God alone. See Rev 14:7, 19:10 The angel identified himself as a prophet of God (Rev 19:10). Indeed the angels were as prophets to Adam and Eve, giving them warning of the dangers found in the forbidden tree. See Lk 1:70; Act 3:21

Rev 22:9

Rev 22:9 - worship God - See Rev 19:10, 14:7 1T 438.3 - flattery - flattery is a deadly snare of Satan. We must guard against praise, giving and receiving it so that people are not deceived into believing that we stand when in truth we have fallen. We must guard against this ploy of the enemy to promote pride (gadal) such that we lose sight of our continual need for God's grace and mercy. Ministers of the gospel sometimes do great harm by allowing their forbearance toward the erring to degenerate into toleration of sins and even participation in them. Thus they are led to excuse and palliate that which God condemns, and after a time they become so blinded as to commend the very ones whom God commands them to reprove. He who has blunted his spiritual perceptions by sinful leniency toward those whom God condemns, will ere long commit a greater sin by severity and harshness toward those whom God approves. - {AA 504.1} By the pride of human wisdom, by contempt for the influence of the Holy Spirit, and by disrelish for the truths of God's word, many who profess to be Christians, and who feel competent to teach others, will be led to turn away from the requirements of God. Paul declared to Timothy, "The time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables." - {AA 504.2} The apostle does not here refer to the openly irreligious, but to the professing Christians who make inclination their guide, and thus become enslaved by self. Such are willing to listen to those doctrines only that do not rebuke their sins or condemn their pleasure-loving course. They are offended by the plain words of the faithful servants of Christ and choose teachers who praise and flatter them. And among professing ministers there are those who preach the opinions of men instead of the word of God. Unfaithful to their trust, they lead astray those who look to them for spiritual guidance. - {AA 504.3}

Rev 22:10 - Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book - the only prophecy mentioned in the Rev that has been sealed is the Seven Thunders of Rev 10:4. See Rev 1:11, 19, 10:4 The last book of the New Testament scriptures is full of truth that we need to understand.—Christ's Object Lessons, 133 (1900). - {LDE 15.5} The unfulfilled predictions of the book of Rev are soon to be fulfilled. This prophecy is now to be studied with diligence by the people of God and should be clearly understood. It does not conceal the truth; it clearly forewarns, telling us what will be in the future.—A New Life [Revival and Beyond]1:96 (1903). - {LDE 15.6} After these seven thunders uttered their voices, the injunction comes to Joh as to Dan in regard to the little book: "Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered" (Rev 10:4). These relate to future events which will be disclosed in their order. Dan shall stand in his lot at the end of the days. Joh sees the little book unsealed. Then Dan's prophecies have their proper place in the first, second, and third angels' messages to be given to the world. The unsealing of the little book was the message in relation to time. - {1MR 99.1}

Rev 22:10

Rev 22:10 - for the time is at hand - the time is at hand for the Seven Thunders to be unsealed, namely immediately before the close of human probation as mentioned in the next verse.

Rev 22:11

*Rev 22:11, 12 - God's people have put away their sins completely so that there is no further need for mediation. The righteous Judge has evaluated the lives of all individuals and has pronounced their final character condition. The time of probation has ended (Dan 12:1) and Jesus is soon to come as the closing act of the seven last plagues (Rev 16:19-21). See Isa 26:10; Hos 4:17 The unjust are they who have no shame. Zeph 3:5 Then I saw Jesus, who had been ministering before the ark containing the ten commandments, throw down the censer. He raised His hands, and with a loud voice said, "It is done". And all the angelic host laid off their crowns as Jesus made the solemn declaration, "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still." - {EW 279.2} Every case had been decided for life or death. While Jesus had been ministering in the sanctuary, the judgment had been going on for the righteous dead, and then for the righteous living. Christ had received His kingdom, having made the atonement for His people and blotted out their sins. The subjects of the kingdom were made up. The marriage of the Lamb was consummated. And the kingdom, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, was given to Jesus and the heirs of salvation, and Jesus was to reign as King of kings and Lord of lords. - {EW

280.1} As Jesus moved out of the most holy place, I heard the tinkling of the bells upon His garment; and as He left, a cloud of darkness covered the inhabitants of the earth. There was then no mediator between guilty man and an offended God. While Jesus had been standing between God and guilty man, a restraint was upon the people; but when He stepped out from between man and the Father, the restraint was removed and Satan had entire control of the finally impenitent. It was impossible for the plagues to be poured out while Jesus officiated in the sanctuary; but as His work there is finished, and His intercession closes, there is nothing to stay the wrath of God, and it breaks with fury upon the shelterless head of the guilty sinner, who has slighted salvation and hated reproof. In that fearful time, after the close of Jesus' mediation, the saints were living in the sight of a holy God without an intercessor. Every case was decided, every jewel numbered. Jesus tarried a moment in the outer apartment of the heavenly sanctuary, and the sins which had been confessed while He was in the most holy place were placed upon Satan, the originator of sin, who must suffer their punishment. - {EW 280.2} The righteous and the wicked will still be living upon the earth in their mortal state—men will be planting and building, eating and drinking, all unconscious that the final, irrevocable decision has been pronounced in the sanctuary above. Before the Flood, after Noah entered the ark, God shut him in and shut the ungodly out; but for seven days the people, knowing not that their doom was fixed, continued their careless, pleasure-loving life and mocked the warnings of impending judgment. "So," says the Saviour, "shall also the coming of the Son of man be." Mt 24:39. Silently, unnoticed as the midnight thief, will come the decisive hour which marks the fixing of every man's destiny, the final withdrawal of mercy's offer to guilty men. - {GC 491.1}

Rev 22:11 - He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still - God's people have put away their sins completely so that there is no further need for mediation (Heb 4:16; Rev 15:8). Rev 22:11

Rev 22:11 - he which is filthy, let him be filthy still - those who have not allowed the LORD to remove their robes of unrighteousness or self righteousness (Zech 3:1-5; Isa 64:6) and have not dawned Jesus' wedding garment of righteousness are the filthy (Mt 22:11, 12).

Rev 22:11

Rev 22:11 - he that is righteous, let him be righteous still - those who have received Jesus' cloak of righteousness (Zech 3:1-5; Mt 22:11, 12; Phil 2:5-8) and have kept them by the power of God's Holy Spirit from becoming soiled in the earth (Rev 16:15) are they who are the righteous.

Rev 22:12

Rev 22:12 - My reward is with Me - See Isa 40:10, 62:11; Mt 16:27; 2Tim 4:14; 3SG 57.2 The righteous receive a crown of life: 1Pet 5:4; 2Tim 4:8; Rev 11:18

Rev 22:12

Rev 22:12 - according as his work shall be - those who receive the Mark of the Beast in the hands show their works of unrighteousness, whereas those who receive it in the forehead demonstrate their thoughts of unrighteousness. See Ps 18:24-26 God wants heart-work. The unselfish purpose, the pure, elevated principle, the high and holy motive, he will accept. His grace and power will work with these efforts. All who realize that it is the work of God to prepare a people for his coming, will find in their disinterested efforts opportunities where they can do tract and missionary work. {GW92 332.3} Mt 16:27, Rev 13:16 [works - 'Praxis' - one's mode of action, their works, their conduct and deeds]. We will be judged by our life actions and works, whether of God or of the enemy. See Isa 3:10, 11, 59:18; Lk 12:47, 48, 14:13, 14; Rev 2:23, 20:12, 13; Jer 17:10; 32:19; 1Cor 3:8; 1Pet 5:4; Prov 24:12; Rom 14:10, 12; Joh 8:35;

Rev 22:13

Rev 22:13 - I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last - It is most fitting that Jesus introduce Himself as the inspiration behind the book in both the first and last chapters of the book. See Rev 1:8, 11; 22:16; Ps 90:2

Rev 22:14

Rev 22:14 - blessed are they that do His commandments - God's commandments are His promises to keep us from falling [into sin] and to present us faultless before His throne of grace (Ju 24, 25). His commandments are not grievous nor burdensome to the one who has given his all to Jesus (1Jo 5:3). Each of the commandments are part of a whole and can not be separated without ruining the whole (Jam 2:10). Doing God's commandments are a sign of the wise who have understanding. See Mt 19:17; Dan 12:10; Ps 111:10, 7, 8, 145:20; Rev 2:26||

Rev 22:14

Rev 22:14 - do His commandments - our loving response to God's grace and mercy is obedience to His commandments. Faith in God without obedience (righteous works according to God's word/command/law) is not faith at all. See Jam 2:20; Ps 111:10, 103:17, 18; Prov 3:1-4; 1Cor 7:19

Rev 22:14

Rev 22:14 - that they may have right to the tree of life - The Garden of Eden with the tree of life had been transplanted to the city, New Jerusalem shortly before the flood which destroyed the earth (Rev 2:7). It is now made available for the redeemed to enjoy and partake of, having been made white in the blood of the Lamb; who seek to do God's will, keeping all of His commandments, and having His character that would rather choose death than to sin (Gen 3:22-24; Heb 5:9). See Isa 26:2; Rev 8:1, 22:2

Rev 22:14

Rev 22:14 - may enter in through the gates of the city - those who are among the righteous nation will be granted access to the city through the gates. See Isa 26:2; Ps 24:7-10, 118:19, 20, 122:2; Rev 21:27, 8:1

Rev 22:15

Rev 22:15 - For without are - all the unrighteous will be left outside the gates of the heavenly city. See 1Cor 6:9, 10; Rev 21:8 Those outside of the city are among the most confident, boastful, and apparently zealous ones who love in word, but not in deed and in truth. Their hearts are not right with God. His fear is not before them. The fearful and unbelieving, who are punished with the second death, are of that class who are ashamed of Christ in this world. They are afraid to do right and follow Christ, lest they should meet with pecuniary loss. They neglect their duty, to avoid reproach and trials, and to escape dangers. Those who dare not do right because they will thus expose themselves to trials, persecution, loss, and suffering are cowards, and, with idolaters, liars, and all sinners, they are ripening for the second death. - {2T 630.1}

Rev 22:15

Rev 22:15 - dogs - they that return to their vomit (their folly). See 2Pet 2:20-22; Heb 6:4-6; Lk 12:47; Joh 6:66

Rev 22:15

Rev 22:15 - sorcerers - the Greek word pharmakos translated pharmacy, those who peddle and consume drugs. Those Who lead others astray from the truth, the faith of Jesus Christ. See Act 13:6-8 Seeds of Death When you understand physiology in its truest sense, your drug bills will be very much smaller, and finally you will cease to deal out drugs at all. The physician who depends upon drug medication in his practice shows that he does not understand the delicate machinery of the human organism. He is introducing into the system a seed crop that will never lose its destroying properties throughout the lifetime. I tell you this because I dare not withhold it. Christ paid too much for man's redemption to have his body so ruthlessly treated as it has been by drug medication. - {MM 229.2} Years ago the Lord revealed to me that institutions should be established for treating the sick without drugs. Man is God's property, and the ruin that has been made of the living habitation, the suffering caused by the seeds of death sown in the human system, are an offense to God.—Letter 73, 1896. - {MM 229.3} Thousands who are afflicted might recover their health if, instead of depending upon the drugstore for their life, they would discard all drugs and live simply, without using tea, coffee, liquor, or spices, which irritate the stomach and leave it weak, unable to digest even simple food without stimulation. The Lord is willing to let His light shine forth in clear, distinct rays to all who are weak and feeble. - {MM 229.4}

Rev 22:15 - whoremongers - those who deal in pornography; a male or female prostitute; a sodomite or fornicators - Sins of the LGBTQ community. Often times these same people engage in drug abuse so there is a close association with sorcery. See - Ex 20:14, 17, 3-6; 1Tim 1:9, 10

Rev 22:15

Rev 22:15 - murderers - those who kill others or kill other's will; those who destroy others character; slanderers. 1Jo 3:12, 15, 4-10; Joh 8:44; Prov 10:18, 18:17; Mt 5:21, 22; Gen 4:3-8; Rom 3:8; Ps 38:12

Rev 22:15

Rev 22:15 - idolaters - covetous person; a stubborn, self-willed person making an idol of their opinion. See Ex 20:3-6, 14, 17; Col 3:5, 6; 1Sam 15:22, 23; Rev 1:5, 6

Rev 22:15

Rev 22:15 - whosoever loveth and maketh a lie - those who lie and those who condone those who lie. Considering the rebellion of Lucifer in heaven, at some point the angels which sided with Him had to choose to love or believe a lie. The act of the will can not be overlooked as they knew God, His character and His works; yet chose to believe the lying suggestions of Lucifer. These are they which can not enter into the kingdom, who have not a love for truth, but believe and condone lies. See Zech 13:2-5; Rom 1:18-32; 2Tim 3:13, 4:3, 4; 2Thess 2:9-12; Isa 30:9-11; Hos 4:6-11; Joh 3:19-21; Prov 6:16-19

Rev 22:16

Rev 22:16 - I am the root and the offspring of David - Jesus asked the Pharisees: "42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The Son of David. 43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool? 45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?" Rev 22:16 - the Bright and Morning Star - Jesus is the Sun of Righteousness - See Mal 4:2

Rev 22:17

Rev 22:17 - Spirit and the bride - The Holy Spirit and the Church in unison give the clarion call for all "Come"

Rev 22:17

Rev 22:16 - the bride - See Rev 21:9, 10

Rev 22:17

Rev 22:17 - Come - the invitation to come is given to all who would partake of the waters of life freely. Peter was not able to walk upon the waters until Jesus bid him, "Come". So, by heeding the words of Christ and coming to Him in faith, not wavering, not taking our eyes off of Christ, we will be able to walk upon the raging waters of life victoriously. See Mt 14:28-30; Joh 6:45 this is a call to service to be ready in season and out of season to share the gospel call to "Come" to one and all. See Isa 6:8 Gospel Call to Come: Isa 55:1-3 Mt 11:28-30 Isa 1:18, 19

Rev 22:17

Rev 22:17 - And let him that is athirst come - Those who thirst for righteousness will be filled. See Joh 7:37, 38; Isa 55:1-3; Rev 21:7; Ex 17:1-7

Rev 22:17

Rev 22:17 - And whosoever will let him take of the water of life freely. The statement demonstrates the free will with which all created beings are granted by their Creator. See Joh 4:13, 14, 6:35, 7:37, 38; Joshua 24:15

Rev 22:17

Rev 22:17 - let him take the water of life freely - See Rev 22:1; Isa 55:1-3

Rev 22:18

Rev 22:18 - For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book

- as a blessing was given to everyone who should read or hear the prophecy of the book, so a curse is given to any who should seek to altar by addition or omission, any portion of the prophecies of the book. See Rev 1:3, 22:7

Rev 22:18

Rev 22:18 - If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: - See Ps 30:6; Rev 11:5; Deut 4:2

Rev 22:19

Rev 22:19 - And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy - See Rev 11:5; Deut 4:2; Prov 30:5, 6 The following are a list of Bible verses that have been altered in modern translations which wrest the Scripture's intended meaning and do violence to the word of God (2Pet 3:14-16): Changing the Bible: 1. Joh 5:39 2. Ps 12:6, 7 3. Heb 9:12 4. Dan 8:12

Rev 22:19

Rev 22:19 - God shall take away his part out of the book of life - See Rev 3:5

Rev 22:19

Rev 22:19 - and out of the holy city - See Rev 21:7

Rev 22:19

Rev 22:19 - holy city - See Rev 21:2

Rev 22:20

Rev 22:20 - He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly - See John 14:16-18
