Jer 3:4 - guide of my youth - a strange [harlot] woman is one who forsakes the guide of her youth (God). See Prov 2:16, 17 For ancient Israel, Jesus was their guide in their infancy coming out of Egypt, manifested as a pillar of fire by night and a pillar of cloud by day (Hos 2:14, 15; Ex 13:17-22). In 1Cor 10:1-4 Jesus is likened to the pillar of cloud and pillar of fire as well as the spiritual Rock. So too, for Spiritual Israel and Adventism, the two tables of the 1843 and 1850 charts are likened to the Rock of Ages, the guide of Adventism's youth for which the church has turned away.

See Isa 30:15; Jer 18:14-17 Isa 58:12-14 - Old Waste Places Prov 4:18 Isa 30:15, 20, 21 Dan 9:25 Jer called their attention repeatedly to the counsels given in Deut. More than any other of the prophets, he emphasized the teachings of the Mosaic law and showed how these might bring the highest spiritual blessing to the nation and to every individual heart. "Ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein," he pleaded, "and ye shall find rest for your souls." Jer 6:16. - {PK 411.1}

Jer 6:16

Jer 6:16 - stand ye in the ways - the prophet is seen standing in the crossroads between two paths, the ways of man (Prov 14:12, 16:25) and the ways of God (Isa 55:8, 9). Jer is asked to "see" or look upon the two paths and then to ask the LORD for counsel which path to take. As the LORD reveals the "Old Paths", those former (original) truths, that have been neglected and forsaken for new orders, He is counseled to walk in them.

Jer 6:16

Jer 6:16 - ask for the old paths - The Old Paths are the Way and the Way is Jesus (Joh 14:4-6; Mic 5:2; Ps 90:1, 2). See Prov 22:28; Ps 25:4, 5, 32:8; Job 23:11 Jam says if we lack wisdom, we should ask for it (Jam 1:2-8): A - Ask S - Seek K - Knock (Lk 11:5-13) We must ask the LORD to direct us to the Old Paths where we will find rest and refreshing for our souls. 2Chron 6:27; Isa 28:12 "The enemy is seeking to divert the minds of our brethren and sisters from the work of preparing a people to stand in these last days. His sophistries are designed to lead minds away from the perils and duties of the hour. They estimate as of little value the light that Christ came from heaven to give to Joh for His people. They teach that the scenes just before us are not of sufficient importance to receive special attention. They make of no effect the truth of heavenly origin, and rob the people of God of their past experience, giving them instead a false science. 'Thus saith the Lord: Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein.' [Jer 6:16, See also Prov 2:10-15.] "Let none seek to tear away the foundations of our faith,—the foundations that were laid at the beginning of our work, by prayerful study of the Word and by revelation. Upon these foundations we have been building for more than fifty years. Men may suppose that they have found a new way, that they can lay a stronger foundation than that which has been laid; but this is a great deception. 'Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid.' [1Cor 3:11.] In the past, many have undertaken to build a new faith, to establish new principles; but how long did their building stand? It soon fell; for it was not founded upon the Rock." Testimonies, volume 8, 296-297.

Jer 6:16 - where is the good way - the understanding of the good way requires self-denial. We by nature believe that our ways are the best ways. The fear of God is the beginning of knowledge and only the wise run to it (Ps 111:10; Prov 1:7, 2:6-8, 5:1, 2). It is in asking, seeking and yielding to God's "good way" that we will find rest for our souls (2Chron 6:27). God's ways are in keeping His commandments (Ps 119:1). See Isa 35:8

Jer 6:16

Jer 6:16 - rest for your souls - The rest here spoken is the rest that Jesus promises to all who labor and are heavy laden (Mt 11:28). The rest brought through God's Spirit will refresh and revive the soul temple such that nothing in this world will offend. The rest, that accompanies the refreshing, comes as a twofold message likened to early and latter rains that first germinate then bring the young crops to full maturity. See Ex 31:14-17; Isa 28:12; Jam 5:7; Deut 32:1, 2;

Jer 6:16

Jer 6:16 - we will not walk therein - See Jer 18:15-17; Zech 7:11, 12; Prov 21:16. It is not enough to ask the LORD for the good ways, we must put aside rebellion, pride and obstinance (Isa 7:12; Jer 6:17) and desire with our hearts, that the LORD guide us in the right paths. Consider the captives of Israel immediately after the destruction of Jerusalem, how they asked God for counsel regarding going down to Egypt and then they rejected God's counsel because their hearts were evil (See Jer 42:1-10, 43:1-4, 44:15-23; Hos 4:6; Isa 59:8). Also, leadership bears a great role in influencing the people for good or wrong. Consider the pride of the Pharisees in the time of Christ who thought they were the chosen and anointed of God. If they spoke for or against a man, they demanded that all likewise consent; thus they led many into rebellion with their rebellious spirit (See Joh 7:32, 40-49).

Jer 6:19

Jer 6:19 - I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts - God will cause those who reject His words and laws to become deceived in their own rebellion. Jer 7:4 - the the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD are these - the people in foolish pride saw God's temple as the representation of the presence of God, an immovable fortress. Therefore, they took comfort in sin while resting in what they perceived to be God's protection. See Jer 7:9, 10, 26:2-9; Mt 24:1, 2; Ex 33:14-19; 1Sam 4:3-22; 1Kin 2:28-34; Micah 3:9-11

God's forsaking of His temple appeared to be coincident with the conclusion of each 490year periods of probation. See Mt 23:37-24:2; Micah 3:12

Jer 7:14

Jer 7:14 - wherein ye trust - the COI placed their trust in the form and not the substance. Jer 8:20

Jer 8:20 - we are not saved - Then I was shown a company who were howling in agony. On their garments was written in large characters, "Thou art weighed in the balance, and found wanting." I asked who this company were. The angel said, "These are they who once kept the Sabbath, and have given it up." I heard them cry with a loud voice, "We have believed in Thy coming, and taught it with energy." And while they were speaking, their eyes would fall upon their garments and see the writing, and then they would wail aloud. I saw that they had drunk of the deep waters, and fouled the residue with their feet,—trodden the Sabbath underfoot,—and that was why they were weighed in the balance and found wanting. - {CET 101.1} See Jer 8:7-12 "Not one of us will ever receive the seal of God while our characters have one spot or stain upon them. It is left with us to remedy the defects in our characters, to cleanse the soul temple of every defilement. Then the latter rain will fall upon us as the early rain fell upon the disciples on the Day of Pentecost." Testimonies, volume 5, 214.

Jer 9:24 - But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the LORD - See Ex 33:17; Isa 43:1; 1Cor 8:3, 2:2; 2Cor 10:17; Dan 9:23 All true obedience comes from the heart. It was heart work with Christ. And if we consent, He will so identify Himself with our thoughts and aims, so blend our hearts and minds into conformity to His will, that when obeying Him we shall be but carrying out our own impulses. The will, refined and sanctified, will find its highest delight in doing His service. When we know God as it is our privilege to know Him, our life will be a life of continual obedience. Through an appreciation of the character of Christ, through communion with God, sin will become hateful to us. - {DA 668.3}

Jer 9:24 - he understandeth and knoweth me - a wise man is he who knows and understands what the Lord requires of him (Mic 6:8) and practices it - See Ex 33:13; Jer 9:12; Isa 28:9; Dan 12:3, 10; 2Pet 1:2; Jam 3:13; Lk 10:20; Ps 9:10, 36:10. Contrast Mt 7:23 Jesus does not excuse their sins, but shows their penitence and faith, and, claiming for them forgiveness, He lifts His wounded hands before the Father and the holy angels, saying: I know them by name. I have graven them on the palms of My hands. "The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise." Ps 51:17.

Jer 9:26 - all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart - See Rom 2:28, 29

Jer 10:2

Jer 10:2 - be not dismayed t the signs of heaven - God has given the stars, moon and sun for signs to be made known by His prophets. The LORD has promised that surely He would do no thing unless He reveal it to His servants the prophets (Am 3:7). Further, by the signs of the LORD and the great wonders He reaps we know that He is the True and Living God over heaven and earth. However, the heathen, who are observers of times (Spiritualism), know not the LORD nor heed his counsels and therefore are concerned by every sign/omen in the heavens (Astrology). See Deut 18:14; Jer 10:10-13

Jer 10:3

Jer 10:10

Jer 10:10 - and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation - the question is asked, "who shall be able to stand?" in the day of the Lord - they that have clean hands and pure hearts - See Ps 24:3, 4; Mal 3:3; Rev 6:17, Ps 130:3; Isa 33:14

Jer 10:23

Jer 10:23- it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps - the ways of a men are contrary to the ways of God (Isa 55:8, 9). We as fallen individuals are incapable of ordering our steps in the paths of righteousness because our hearts by nature are opposed to righteousness (Jer 17:9; Ps 139:23, 24). However, He who searches the hearts (Jer 17:10) and Whose ways are higher than ours, can direct our steps in the paths of righteousness if we allow Him (Prov 3:5).

Jer 10:24

Jer 10:24 - O LORD, correct me with judgment; not in thine anger - as a priest, Jer understood God's Judgment, that it is blended with mercy (the mercy seat sits upon the commandments in the Most Holy Place of the sanctuary) and therefore he pleads that God not correct him according to His anger, but according to His JUDGMENT. Judgment therefore means we are being corrected or chastened by God, but we are being corrected in MERCY. The Investigative Judgment Hour = God's Mercy Hour. See 1Cor 11:32; Mal 3:5; Rev 14:6, 7; Ps

7:11, 94:11-13; Heb 12:6, 7; Prov 3:11, 12; Jer 31:18-21

Jer 10:24 - not in thine anger - See Ps 6:1, 2; 38:1, 27:9

Jer 11:2

Jer 11:2 - Hear ye the words of this covenant - the covenant here spoken points to the covenant the LORD established with the COI when brought out of Egypt by His mighty hand (Ex 19:3-8). That covenant was expounded in Lev 26, but is nothing more than the promise made to their forefathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob (Gen 12:1-3) and originally made to the human race in the Garden of Eden (Gen 3:15).

Jer 11:3

Jer 11:3 - cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant - See Deut 30:15-19; 28:15-68

Jer 11:5

Jer 11:5 - to give them a land flowing with milk and honey - the land flowing with milk and honey Abraham understood to be New Jerusalem, a city whose Builder and Maker is God. See Ex 3:8; 13:5; 33:3; Heb 11:8-10

Jer 11:8

Jer 11:8 - but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart - similar to the antediluvians whose wickedness "was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually", so degenerated the COI in the Promised Land.

Jer 11:10

Jer 11:10 - iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words - See Jer 6:16, 17; Heb 4:2, 3:7-11, 16-19

Jer 11:15 - what hath my beloved to do in mine house - God here refers to the House of Israel as His beloved, His chosen vine, yet He has a controversy with them because of their harlotries. See Isa 5:1-4; 27:2, 3

Jer 11:16

Jer 11:16 - a green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit - The COI are likened to a fair and goodly olive tree, planted by the LORD that was to produce the oil of consecration to bless the world, the fruit of the Holy Spirit.

Jer 11:17

Jer 11:17 - For the LORD of hosts, that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal - See Isa 5:1-5

Jer 11:20

Jer 11:20 - let me see thy vengeance on them - See Ps 91:8

Jer 11:21

Jer 11:21 - Anathoth - See Jer 1:1 The name of one of the cities of refuge, in the tribe of Benjamin (Joshua 21:18). The Jews, as a rule, did not change the names of the towns they found in Palestine; hence this town may be regarded as deriving its name from the goddess Anat. It was the native place of Abiezer, one of David's "thirty" (2 Samuel 23:27), and of Jehu, another of his mighty men (1 Chronicles 12:3). It is chiefly notable, however, as the birth-place and usual residence of Jer (Jer 1:1; 11:21-23; 29:27; 32:7-9). It suffered greatly from the army of Sennacherib, and only 128 men returned to it from the Exile (Nehemiah 7:27; Ezra 2:23). It lay about 3 miles north of Jerusalem. It has been identified with the small and poor village of 'Anata, containing about 100 inhabitants. [Easton's Bible Dictionary]

Jer 12:4 - He shall not see our last end - The people are unrepentant and persist in their wickedness, saying the Lord does not see what we do. See Zeph 1:12; Eze 8:12; Isa 5:18, 19

Jer 12:5

If they repent, they will be joined to God and His people. If they refuse to repent, they will be as the nations God uprooted in the Promised Land. See Gen 15:16-21

Jer 13:1

Jer 13:1 - get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins - as a priest, Jer was familiar with the attire of the High Priest, who donned a linen girdle when officiating in the Most Holy Place on the Day of Atonement (Lev 16:3-5). The girdle was to cleave to a man as we are to cleave to the LORD (v10, 11). The LORD may be giving an allusion to the Antitypical Time in this prophecy.

Jer 13:7

Jer 13:7 - and behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing - As salt that has lost its savor, so the COI had lost their calling for being God's ambassadors and representatives in the world through their apostasy. See Mt 5:13

Jer 13:11

Jer 13:11- so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah - Just as a husband and wife are to cleave together and become one, so are to cleave to the LORD. See Gen 2:24

Jer 13:13

Jer 13:13 - I will fill all the inhabitants of this land... with drunkenness - See Isa 28:1-4, 7, 8; 29:9-14

Jer 13:16

Jer 13:16 - Give glory to the LORD your God - the same appeal given by the First Angel of Rev 14 is here stated for Ancient Israel. Apparently, the glory and honor belonging to God alone was being given to idols and men, the crown of pride. Therefore, the prophet's warning is to turn from these blasphemous works and glorify God alone. See Rev 14:6, 7
This verse could also apply to the era of the church of Pergamos to which compromise was leading the people into gross darkness, the lack of the light of truth [God's Two Witnesses] was soon to be withheld from masses and the people of God would stumble and fall by the sword among the dark mountains (Papal controlled countries)

Jer 13:16

Jer 13:11 - while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness - See Am 8:11, 12

Jer 13:16

Jer 13:16 - make it gross darkness - Signifies a close of probation. We see gross darkness in the foolish virgins (Mt 24); Egypt with the ninth plague; Judas Iscariot departed at night to betray Jesus into guilty hands (Joh 12); the Sodomites were stricken with blindness signaling their close of probation. See Isa 60:2

Jer 13:17

Jer 13:16 - if you will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride - Pride cometh before a fall (Prov 11:2; 16:18), and Israel's destruction was imminent. Jer's soul would weep in the secret place of the Most High (His tabernacle of safety and protection Ps 27:4, 5) while with his eyes he would behold the destruction of the wicked. See Ps 91:1-3, 8.

Jer 13:17

Jer 13:17 - mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears - See Eze 9:4; Jer 9:1

Jer 13:18

Jer 13:18- even the crown of your glory - See Isa 28:1

Jer 13:20

Jer 13:20 - behold them that come from the north - the King of the North was coming upon the crown of pride, even his principalities and upon the whole land of Judah. An allusion to the Modern King of the North who will scatter those in modern Spiritual Israel who are relying upon their principalities and crown of pride.

Jer 13:23

Jer 13:23 - Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil - See 2Pet 2:22; Job 14:4; Jam 3:11, 12

Jer 13:23

Jer 13:23 - then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil - See Job 14:4; Jam 3:12
The nature can not be changed, just as the Ethiopian nor the leopard can change their skins.
A heart transplant by the power of grace (actuated by our repentance, humbling oneself, confession and conversion - See Act 3:19; Eze 36:24-28) is the only remedy which God offered to prideful Ancient Israel as He does to Laodicean Modern Spiritual Israel.

Jer 13:27

Jer 13:27 - when shall it once be? - God's asks, "Jerusalem, will you ever be clean? Will there ever be a time when you are once clean?" God awaits the day when He will be able to say that His people, Ancient Israel are clean.

Jer 14:3

Jer 14:3 - found no water - the land had become chaped and barren because of the iniquities of the people. They had all turned their own ways and the Lord had withheld the rains. The people had put their trust in lying priests and prophets (Jer 14:14-16) and were as the heath in the desert that dried up because of the drought. See Jer 17:5, 6; Mk 4:5, 6; Lk 8:6, 13

Jer 14:4

Jer 14:4 - the ground is chapt, for there is no rain in the earth - See Jer 5:23-25

Jer 14:7

Jer 14:7 - Jer plays the role of an intercessor, acknowledging his sins and that of his people before the LORD (v20, 21). He also makes petition to God's loving kindness and tender mercies according to His righteousness. See Lev 26:40, 41; Dan 9:3-19; Eze 36:21-23

Jer 14:11

Jer 14:11 - pray not for this people for their good - God would not hear the prayers of the prophet on behalf of the people because their probation had ended. See Rev 22:11

Jer 15:1

Jer 15:1 - though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people - The Lord says that even if Moses and Samuel stood in the gap for the COI, His mind would not be swayed towards their destruction (Eze 22:30; Gen 18:23-32; Jer 5:1; Ex 32:31-33). See Eze 14:14, 20

Jer 15:3

Jer 15:3 - I will appoint unto them four kinds - The Lord ordained for means by which the COI would be punished for their rebellion: 1. The sword to slay 2. Dogs to tear 3. Fowls of the heavens to consume 4. Beast of the earth to devour and destroy Compare God's army of four destroying locusts whose account would be given through the fourth generation of Israel: Joe 1:3, 4

Jer 15:4

Jer 15:4 - because of Manasseh... for that which he did in Israel - See 2Kin 21:1-12

Jer 15:6

Jer 15:6 - I am weary with repenting - See Gen 6:6

Jer 15:7

Jer 15:7 - And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children - See Lev 26:22; Jer 18:21

Jer 15:9

Jer 15:9 - her sun has gone down while it was yet day - See Am 4:7

Jer 15:10

Jer 15:10 - a man of strife and contention to the whole earth - Jer, as a prophet of the LORD was perceived as a troubler of Israel and one who caused strife (1Kin 18:17, 18). Because he bore a strait message and did not flatter as the false prophets (Jer 14:13) he was held in derision.

Jer 15:11

Jer 15:11 - verily I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction - Jer's life would be his reward when the LORD brought the destruction upon Judah. God would allow him to find favor with the enemies since he pleased the LORD. See Prov 16:7; Dan 1:8, 9

Jer 15:12

Jer 15:12 - Shall iron break the northern iron and steel? A statement suggesting, can anything break or withhold the destruction that comes from the north, the King of the North, who is as iron and steel?

Jer 15:14

Jer 15:14 - And I will make thee to pass with thine enemies into a land which thou knowest not: for a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you. - See Lev 26:31-35

Jer 15:15

Jer 15:15 - know that for thy sake I have suffered rebuke - See Rev 6:9-12; 20:4; 12:11; Heb 10:32-35

Jer 15:16

Jer 15:16 - thy words were found and I did eat them - as a prophet and watchman, Jer sought and feasted upon the words of the LORD and they were as sweet as honey to his mouth. See Eze 3:1-3; Rev 10:8-11; Ps 119:11

Jer 15:16

Jer 15:16 - thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart - See Ps 1:2; 119:16, 162; contrast Jer 6:10

Jer 15:16

Jer 15:16 - joy and rejoicing of mine heart - See Ps 119:111. "the comprehension of truth, the glad reception of the message, is represented in the eating of the little book." (SDA Bible Commentary, vol 7 pg 971)

Jer 15:16

Jer 15:16 - for I am called by thy name - Act 11:26

Jer 15:17

Jer 15:17 - I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced - See Ps 1:1; 2Pet 3:3. The glad reception of the Advent Message by the faithful and its rejection by the Protestant churches created a separation as of 1842, where the churches began to ridicule and close the door on the message and its adherents. So too, those who receive and proclaim the present truth message will be ostracized and will find no welcome place among the mockers - See Ps 26:4. 5

Jer 15:17

Jer 15:17 - I sat alone because of thy hand - we must be willing to separate ourselves and choose not to mingle with those who are irreverent and profane the name of the LORD. The very same course was taken by the denominational churches when we embraced the first and second angels' messages. And as the light was shining forth from the oracles of God upon the messages which were present truth for our time, Satan tried by every means in his power to close the door to shut out the light. We had to meet with prejudice and with ridicule and with sneers and with criticism of the very same character that we have had to meet here in this conference. The opposition seemed almost crushing in its influence. What if we had held our peace and been controlled by the ministers who thought we were heretics, disturbing the peace of churches? Nevertheless, we did move forward, and while many bent beneath the power of opposition and yielded their faith to preserve the unity with their brethren, and retained their place in the churches, many could not conscientiously do this. They held fast their faith. And what was the result? They were turned out of the churches. After the passing of the time, when sorrow and disappointment was weighing us down to the earth, the Lord let His light shine in upon us, giving us the light upon the third angel's message so strikingly clear, which showed us our whereabouts in prophecy and placed our feet in a sure path. - {1888 830.2} We have seen in our experience that when the Lord sends rays of light from the open door of the sanctuary to His people, Satan stirs up the minds of many. But the end is not yet. There will be those who will resist the light and crowd down those whom God has made His channels to communicate light. Spiritual things are not spiritually discerned. The watchmen have not kept pace with the opening providence of God, and the real heaven-sent message and messengers are scorned. - {1888 831.1}

Jer 15:17 - thou hast filled me with indignation - See Ps 139:21, 22

Jer 15:18

Jer 15:18 - Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? - Such was the feeling of the Adventists after the 1st and 2nd Disappointments of 1844. See Isa 40:1, 2; Prov 13:12

Jer 15:18

Jer 15:18 - wilt thou be altogether unto me as a liar, and as waters that fail? - Such were the sentiments of the Millerites after the disappointment in the Spring of 1844 which brought about a Tarrying Time. See 1Kin 17:7 God is not man that He should lie - See Num 23:19

Jer 15:19

Jer 15:19 - Therefore thus saith the LORD - the verse is the LORD's response to the desponding saints who were in the Tarrying Time in 1844. God assures that if they keep the faith, return to Him, He will make them His mouthpiece once again in the Midnight Cry. God also instructs His called out people not to return to those who scoff at the movement.

Jer 15:19

Jer 15:19 - if thou return, then will I bring thee again - as we return to the Lord, not forsaking the way in which He has led in the past and holding onto His promises, His truths, His love in faith, He in mercy will return to us and remove the reproach of others from us. See Rev 10:10, 11

Jer 15:19

Jer 15:19 - and thou shalt stand before me - we will be in the presence of the Lord - See Ps 27:4

Jer 15:19

Jer 15:19 - and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth - those who make a distinction between the holy and the common, who reverence God and seek not to corrupt/mingle our carnal ways with His holy ways, He will honor with long life and we will be His mouth piece, His representatives. Isa 7:14, 15, 33:15-17; 2Tim 2:20, 21; Contrast Isa 5:20

Jer 15:19

Jer 15:19 - thou shalt be as my mouth - See Deut 18:18; Ex 4:15

Jer 15:19

Jer 15:19 - let them return unto thee; but return not thou unto them - we are not to draw back or engage with those who mingle the sacred with the profane, but are to stand fast and allow them to repent and make a distinction between the sacred and profane and draw nigh to us. The very sentiments were fulfilled during the Tarrying Time of the Millerite Movement. The called out saints that constituted the new church of Philadelphia, were to press forward in faith, not falling back to the fallen church of Sardis nor paying heed to their scoffing. - See 1Jo 2:19

Jer 15:20

Jer 15:20 - I will make thee unto this people a fenced brasen wall: and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail - See Jer 1:18, 19; Mt 16:18

Jer 15:20

Jer 15:21 - for I am with thee to save thee and deliver thee - See Isa 41:10; Joshua 1:5, 9

Jer 15:21

Jer 15:21 - And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible - See Ps 41:2, 71:4

Jer 16:2

Jer 16:2-4 - thou shalt not take thee a wife - in mercy the LORD commanded Jer not to take a wife and bear children because of the destruction that was to befall the land.

Jer 16:5

Jer 16:5 - enter not into the house of mourning - God commands Jer, the weeping prophet, not to bemoan nor be grieved with those who are grieving. No compassion is to be shown the people as they bear the weight of their rebellion. Compare Eccl 7:2

Jer 16:5

Jer 16:5 - I have taken away my peace from this people - God's counsel of peace (salvation) was removed from the COI. See Zech 6:13; Eze 37:26-28

Jer 16:5

Jer 16:5 - even lovingkindness and mercies - that which allows God to blot out our sins and transgressions have been removed. Israel stood condemned before the judgment seat of God. See Ps 51:1

Jer 16:8

Jer 16:8 - thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting - The scornful and wicked among Israel were neither to be entertained because they knew not the destruction that was to befall them (Eccl 7:2-4). Jer was commanded neither to find himself standing in the way of sinners. See Ps 1:1

Jer 16:9

Jer 16:9 - For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride. - See Jer 7:34

Jer 16:10

Jer 16:10- wherefore has the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? - Jer the prophet had a most difficult and despised work to do (Jer 15:10). He was to rebuke and chastise a rebellious and Laodicean people who were increased with goods and thought they had need of nothing, but were wretched, poor, miserable, blind and naked. See Rev 3:17

Jer 16:10

Jer 16:10 - or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God? The people are self deceived in thinking they serve God when in truth they serve themselves. See Mal 1:6, 7; 3:8

Jer 16:12

Jer 16:12 - ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart - the COI had reverted to the condition of the antediluvians who lost sight of God. See Gen 6:5

Jer 16:15

Jer 16:15 - the LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north - the LORD will establish a new waymark in the history of Israel as they will repeat the experience of their forefathers, not by circumstance but because of their rebellion. The COI will be taken into captivity and will experience bondage again. God in His mercy, when they have endured their captivity for an appointed time, will deliver them again, not from Egypt, but from the north country (Babylon). The experience of the COI parallels the experience of Spiritual Israel in that it too, having been brought out of the bondage of the world, Egypt, found itself in captivity once again to the King of the North (Babylon), or the papal system and its corruptions and needed to be delivered from this bondage finally. See Jer 23:7, 8; Dan 11:41

Jer 16:15 - I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers - See Eze 36:24

Jer 16:20 - shall a man make gods unto himself and they are no gods? - See Isa 44:9-17

Jer 17:1

Jer 17:1 - The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond - The sins of God's people are well noted, not to be easily removed by erasure.

Jer 17:5

Jer 17:5-8 - Cursed be the man that trusteth in man - See Isa 31:1, 3; Ps 146:3, 20:7 In his night of anguish beside the Jabbok, when destruction seemed just before him, Jacob had been taught how vain is the help of man, how groundless is all trust in human power. He saw that his only help must come from Him against whom he had so grievously sinned. Helpless and unworthy, he pleaded God's promise of mercy to the repentant sinner. That promise was his assurance that God would pardon and accept him. Sooner might heaven and earth pass than that word could fail; and it was this that sustained him through that fearful conflict. - {PP 198.5}

Jer 17:5 - whose heart departeth from the LORD - See Gen 4:1-12

Jer 17:6

Jer 17:6 - shall not see when good cometh - the man who makes man his strength and arm will be reliant upon men and will not recognize nor notice when good from the Lord comes. They have become accustomed trusting in men and will ascribe their blessings to men first, above God. They have not developed the discipline of trusting and waiting upon the Lord for His deliverance. They shall not see the Kingdom of God - See John 3:3

Jer 17:7

Jer 17:7 - Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord - See Ps 2:12, 84:12; Isa 58:8-12

Jer 17:8

Jer 17:8 - and shall not see when heat cometh - in contrast to those who place their trust in men, those who trust in the Lord will be impervious to the drought and heat that comes upon the land because Jesus will be their continual supply of blessings. See Isa 33:15-17, Isa 58:11; Joh 7:38; Mt 13:5, 6, 20, 21; 1Pet 4:12, 13

Jer 17:8

Jer 17:8 - neither shall cease from yielding fruit - See Prov 11:30; Ps 92:14, 1:3

Jer 17:9

Jer 17:9 - The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked, who can know it? - Rom 7:21-24; Mt 15:19 It is not necessary for us deliberately to choose the service of the kingdom of darkness in order to come under its dominion. We have only to neglect to ally ourselves with the kingdom of light. If we do not co-operate with the heavenly agencies, Satan will take possession of the heart, and will make it his abiding place. The only defense against evil is the indwelling of Christ in the heart through faith in His righteousness. Unless we become vitally connected with God, we can never resist the unhallowed effects of self-love, self-indulgence, and temptation to sin. We may leave off many bad habits, for the time we may part company with Satan; but without a vital connection with God, through the surrender of ourselves to Him moment by moment, we shall be overcome. Without a personal acquaintance with Christ, and a continual communion, we are at the mercy of the enemy, and shall do his bidding in the end. - {DA 324.1}

Jer 17:9

Jer 17:9 - who can know it? - The Psist asks the LORD to search him "and to know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts" (Ps 139:23). God alone can search and understand the thoughts of men.

Jer 17:10 - according to the fruit of his doing - the result of ones thoughts and actions. The mind governs the actions. If we have not submitted to the truth and choose to believe a lie, we will be judged according to the fruit of our doing (Rom 1:18-32, 10:1-3; 2Cor 3:14-16; Rev 22:12, 15).

Jer 17:11

Jer 17:11 - so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool - Through murder and theft, taking bribes, defrauding the worker of his wages, through usury - See Mic 7:3; 1Tim 3:3, 8; Tit 1:7; Isa 33:14, 15

Jer 17:12

Jer 17:12 - A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary - God's sanctuary is the place where the wrongs are made right and the just are vindicated. Jer 17:24 - And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein; 25 Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and this city shall remain for ever. - the prophecy of Jerusalem remaining the blessed city of God forever was conditional upon their obedience to God's law and honoring the Sabbath, the memorial and seal of the LORD God. That Daniel foretold the utter destruction of the city and the temple, reveals that Israel would be by-passed of God. See Dan 9:26

Jer 18:4

Jer 18:4 - and the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again... as seemed good to the potter to make - as we all have been tainted by sin and have become as a marred vessel in the LORD's hand, we must submit to His prompting to be made anew in the Potter's hand as seems good to the Potter to make.

Jer 18:18 - for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet - the people were content in trusting in lying words. They chose the smooth counsels of men (Jer 14:15, 16) over the strait counsels of God and His prophet.

Jer 18:20 - shall evil be recompensed for good - The prophet asks if God should further reward the people with good after He has sent His messenger to warn them and they have returned the kindness with evil?

Jer 21:7

Jer 21:7 - such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine - the utter destruction of Jerusalem is prophesied. Those who remain from the pestilence, sword and famine would there be delivered into the hands of the Babylonians for their captivity.

Jer 21:8

Jer 21:8 Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death - God in mercy sends His servant, the prophet Jer to give the people counsel for the ways of life or death (Am 3:7). The choice lies with us. See Deut 30:15, 19 ; Joshua 24:14, 15

Jer 22:3

Jer 22:3 - execute ye judgment and righteousness - God expects justice and uprightness from leadership otherwise they become oppressors.

Jer 22:3

Jer 22:3 - deliver the spoil out of the hand of the oppressor - Leaders should defend those who are oppressed and subdue the oppressors. Yet, conditions had become so bad in Israel that the upright needed to fear for their lives (Isa 59:15).

Jer 22:5

Jer 22:5 - I swear by myself - Because God has nothing greater to swear by, He swears by Himself. In other words, Israel's destruction would be assured if they repented not. See Heb 6:13.

Jer 22:6

Jer 22:6, 7 - thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon - God compares the House of Judah to the exalted nation of Lebanon, covered with its fair cedars. See Jer 22:15, 20, 23

Jer 22:8

Jer 22:8, 9 - many nations shall pass by this city... because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God - Israel would be punished and made a reproach to the people of the earth because of their rebellion. See Deut 29:15

Jer 22:11, 12 - touching Shallum the son of Josiah King of Judah - meaning "retribution", was the son of Josiah who immediately reigned in his stead. Though two years younger than his brother Eliakim, changed his name to Jehoahaz [meaning Jehovah is Sustainer or he whom Jehovah upholds] and assumed the throne. Because of his anti-Egyptian policies, Pharaohnechoh sent armies and took him captive and brought him to Egypt. He was the first of the Hebrew kings to die in exile.

Jer 22:13 - Woe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness - See Prov 15:25

Jer 22:13

Jer 22:13 - useth his neighbor's service without wages - See Jam 5:4-6

Jer 22:15

Jer 22:15 - shalt thou reign because thou closest thyself in cedar? - God asks if Jehoiakim has the right to reign because he was a child or privilege and because of the great wealth and opulence he surrounded himself with. The Crown of Pride is here questioned. See Isa 28:1

Jer 22:15

Jer 22:15 - did not thy father eat and drink, and do judgment and justice - speaking of good King Josiah, father of Jehoiakim (Eliakim) who did a great work of reformation throughout Judah.

Jer 22:17

Jer 22:17 - but thine eyes and thine heart are not but for they covetousness - those who lust in the flesh and in the eyes and desire the pride of life are here spoken. They have not the love of God and the desire to please Him over pleasing themselves. See 1Jo 2:16

Jer 22:20

Jer 22:20 - O inhabitant of Lebanon - God continues His comparison of Israel to the nation of Lebanon. See Jer 22:6, 23

Jer 22:21

Jer 22:21- I spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear - The warnings given to the COI by Moses that they should not forget the LORD and all His benefits towards them when they enter the land of promise was not heeded. Therefore, the promise that God would destroy the nation, causing them to perish as those whom God displaced in the promise land on their behalf, would be fulfilled. See Deut 8:7-20; Jer 6:16, 17; Rev 3:17, 18

Jer 22:22

Jer 22:22 - surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness - the COI shamelessly did as their corrupted hearts chose to do and would not be ashamed for their wickedness. It is only when they have been humbled in captivity that they would find shame and repent.

Jer 22:23

Jer 22:23 - O inhabitant of Lebanon - God continues His comparison of Israel to the nation of Lebanon. See Jer 22:6, 20

Jer 22:24

Jer 22:24 - though Coniah, the son of Jehoiakim... were the signet upon my right hand - Coniah, brother of Jehoiachin, would be taken captive with his brother into Babylon. In both of their stead, Zedekiah (Mattaniah) their uncle would be appointed by Nebuchadnezzar and would reign. It appears as if Coniah was more upright than his brothers, therefore he may have been spoken in that manner (Jer 22:28). Yet, God assures he and his brother would go into captivity. See Jer 37:1

Jer 22:25

Jer 22:25 - And I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into hand whose face thou fearest, even in to the hand of Nebuchadnezzar - See Dan 1:1, 2

Jer 23:1

Jer 23:1 - Woe be unto the pastor that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture - Jesus came and called Himself the Good Shepherd (Joh 10:1-16). Jesus saw His sheep as those who had no shepherd and were scattered and neglected, the ready prey of wolves. Eze similarly gave testimony against the wayward shepherds who fed themselves of the sheep rather than feeding the sheep. See Eze 34:2-10; Jer 3:15; 12:10; Eze 22:25-29; Isa 56:10, 11

Jer 23:3

Jer 23:3 - and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase - See Eze 36:24-30; Joh 10:16

Jer 23:4

Jer 23:4 - I will set-up shepherds over them which shall feed them - The LORD pronounces judgment on the idol shepherds who have made increase at the expense of the flock (Zech 11:17). The LORD will not seek to reform these shepherds but will replace/bypass them with those who will feed His flock. Consider Joh the Baptist (Lk 3:18), William Miller (Mal 3:1), "the wise" among Adventists (Dan 12:3, 10).

Jer 23:5

Jer 23:5 - I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice - Jesus, the Offspring of David and the Root of Jesse is here spoken. He would be a King and Deliverer to both Jew and Gentile alike See Mt 9:27, 15:22; Jer 33:15-18

Jer 23:5

Jer 23:5 - a righteous Branch - See Zech 3:8; Joh 15:1

Jer 23:6

Jer 23:6 - In His days Judah shall be saved, and Israel will dwell safely - Jesus will heal the breach of the wound between Israel and Judah (Northern and Southern Kingdoms) and they will be joined together under one King. See Eze 37:16-24; Isa 33:22, 32:18

Jer 23:6

Jer 23:6 - this is His name whereby He shall be called - Jesus' name for the ceaseless ages of eternity will be mankind's Righteousness. See Eph 2:7; Deut 6:24, 25; Isa 48:17

Jer 23:6

Jer 23:6 - THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS - Paul declares that we are saved by grace through faith, not of works, lest any man should boast. It is a gift of God. Jesus is our only claim to righteousness and sanctification. See 1Cor 1:30; 2Cor 5:21; 1Jo 2:1, 29, 3:7; Eph 2:8-10; Ps 119:142; Isa 45:24; Jer 33:15-18 "The fact that He [Jesus] perfectly "condemned sin in the flesh" of all fallen mankind gives Him title to that glorious name "Christ our Righteousness" - {Grace on Trial, R. Wieland, pg. 86} Righteousness: 1. Holiness, godliness: Eph 4:22-24, 5:9; 1Tim 6:11 - Constant agreement with God {HP 33.4} 2. Without sin: Heb 1:9; 1Jo 5:17; 1Cor 15:34; Rom 6:20 3. Right doing - Ps 119:172 Speaking of Jesus proleptically, "Gracious is the Lord, and Righteous" (Ps 116:5) - Jesus is said to be Righteous (a victorious character that has confronted sin), full of grace and truth. See Joh 1:14 Jesus, the Righteous, is He who judges: Ps 7:11, 9; Joh 5:22, 30 The Lord our Righteousness - Jer 23:6; Deut 6:24, 25 "Righteousness" is a word that is never used of created beings with a sinless nature. We read of "holy angels" or "unfallen angels," but never do we find the phrase righteous angels. We read of Adam and Eve before the fall that they were "innocent and holy," but never do we see that they were righteous. They could have developed a "righteous character" if they had resisted temptation, but righteousness is always a term that means holiness that has confronted temptation in sinful nature and has overcome. The word itself means justification, and something that is sinless cannot need justification. The innate meaning of the word is declaring something that has been crooked to be straightened.' {Wieland - Grace on Trial pg} We may flatter ourselves, as did Nicodemus, that our moral character has been correct and we need not humble ourselves before God like the common sinner. But we must be content to enter into life in the very same way as the chief of sinners. We must renounce our own righteousness and plead for the righteousness of Christ to be imputed to us. We must depend wholly upon Christ for our strength. Self must die. We must acknowledge that all we have is from the exceeding riches of divine grace. Let this be the language of our hearts: "Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto Thy name give glory, for Thy mercy, and for Thy truth's sake." - {5T 219.3} Christ was treated as we deserve, that we might be treated as He deserves. He was condemned for our sins, in which He had no share, that we might be justified by His righteousness, in which we had no share. He suffered the death which was ours, that we might receive the life which was His. "With His stripes we are healed." - {DA 25.2}

Jer 23:8 - But, The LORD liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land - The Loud Cry is here referenced, where God's people will be called out of Babylon, the north country where they were scattered. See Rev 18:1-5; Eze 36:24

Jer 23:13 - even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD - God would bring a close to their probationary time (490yrs) by removing His hand of protection and permitting them to fall in to the hands of their enemies. See Mt 23:37 "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!" O that thou, a nation favored above every other, hadst known the time of thy visitation, and the things that belong unto thy peace! I have stayed the angel of justice, I have called thee to repentance, but in vain. It is not merely servants, delegates, and prophets, whom thou hast refused and rejected, but the Holy One of Israel, thy Redeemer. If thou art destroyed, thou alone art responsible. "Ye will not come to Me, that ye might have life." Mt 23:37; Joh 5:40. - {GC 21.2} The Jews had forged their own fetters; they had filled for themselves the cup of vengeance. In the utter destruction that befell them as a nation, and in all the woes that followed them in their dispersion, they were but reaping the harvest which their own hands had sown. Says the prophet: "O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself;" "for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity." Hosea 13:9; 14:1. Their sufferings are often represented as a punishment visited upon them by the direct decree of God. It is thus that the great deceiver seeks to conceal his own work. By stubborn rejection of divine love and mercy, the Jews had caused the protection of God to be withdrawn from them, and Satan was permitted to rule them according to his will. The horrible cruelties enacted in the destruction of Jerusalem are a demonstration of Satan's vindictive power over those who yield to his control. - {GC 35.3}

Jer 23:13 - And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. - the prophets and priests of Samaria were not chosen of God but chosen by men from among the vilest of men, and caused the people to rebel and commit sin against God. Jer 24:5

Jer 24:5 - whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good - The Providence of God is here revealed as God sends out a people into captivity to Babylon for the purpose of preserving their lives. God purposed to destroy the city therefore those who remained would receive the retribution of the LORD while those who were scattered into the land of their captivity, their lives would be as a prey to them. What would appear to be for harm was for good.

Jer 26:2 - stand in the court of the LORD's house - Jer was to bring a word of warning and reproof to those who called themselves the people of God, who gathered in His temple, as those who desired to know His ways. See Isa 58:1, 2

Jer 26:2 - speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command thee - Jer is a watchman for Israel called to cry aloud, spare not and lift up his voice like a trumpet. See Isa 58:1; Eze 3:1-21

Jer 26:3

Jer 26:3 - that I may repent me of the evil which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doing - See Eze 33:11; Jer 18:20

Jer 26:6

Jer 26:6 - Then will I make this house like Shiloh - See 1Sam 4, 5; Ps 78:60, 61; Jer 7:12

Jer 26:8

Jer 26:8 - the priest and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die - as Jesus said, all the prophets were mistreated and stoned and thus the COI sought to do the same to Him. See Joh 8:56-59

Jer 26:11

Jer 26:11 - then spake the priests and the prophets unto all the princes and to all the people, saying this man is worthy to die - the religious leaders bring Jer to civil counsels to execute judgement. Those in civil power demonstrate more restraint and objectivity than those who are called to represent Christ to the people, the priests and prophets. See Lk 12:11, 12; Joh 16:1, 2; Isa 66:5

Jer 26:15 - ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves - See Mt 23:35; Lk 11:51

Jer 26:17

Jer 26:17 - then rose up certain of the elders of the land - there were among the throng a group of aged/respected men who saw the folly of the crowd in seeking to kill Jer. They reminded the people of God's love in sending the prophet Mic to Hezekiah who repented and spared himself and the people God's wrath.

Jer 26:18 - Mic the Morasthite - See Mic 1:1

Jer 26:18

Jer 26:18 - Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest - See Micah 3:12; Jer 7:9-14

Jer 26:20

Jer 26:20 - prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words Jer - the LORD provided a second witness to affirm His warnings to the COI (2Cor 13:1). Just like Jer, Urijah's message was scorned and cost him his life.

Jer 26:23

Jer 26:23 - and they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword - See Mt 23:31; Lk 11:47; Rom 11:3; 1Thess 2:15

Jer 27:3

Jer 27:3 - And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon - all the nations mentioned were either close descendants of the COI or their lands bordered Israel and were given an opportunity to know of the God of the Heb. Because of their obstinate rebellion against the knowledge of God, they would be punished.

Jer 27:6

Jer 27:6 - and now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar... and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve - See Dan 4:10-13

Jer 27:6

Jer 27:6 - Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, my servant - God is no respecter of persons and views all His creation as under His services. See Act 10:34

Jer 27:6

Jer 27:6 - and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him - See Dan 4:12, 14, 21, 2:38; Gen 1:28

Jer 27:7

Jer 27:7 - and all nations shall serve him, and his sons, and his son's son - God foretold that the Babylonian Empire would exist until the 2nd generation after Nebuchadnezzar and then be overrun by many nations. See Dan 5

Jer 27:7

Jer 27:7 - then many nations and great kings shall server themselves of him - See Isa 44:27-45:3; 13:6-8; Jer 25:12-14

Jer 27:8

Jer 27:8 - that nation will I punish with the sword, and with the famine and with the pestilence - See Jer 25:15, 16; Isa 51:22, 23

Jer 27:9

Jer 27:9 - hearken not ye to your prophets and your diviners, nor to your dreamers not to your sorcerers - See Jer 14:13-15; 23:15-19

Jer 27:10 - they prophesy a lie unto you - See Jer 14:14

Jer 27:10

Jer 27:10 - to remove you farm from your land - the false prophets, though speaking smooth words that bring "comfort" to a wayward guilty people, are actually ministers of unrighteousness who are controlled by the devil to bring the people to their end. See 2Cor 11:14, 15

Jer 27:12

Jer 27:12 - I spake also to Zedekiah king of Judah - Jer begins with the king of Judah, then the priests then the people in general, warning them not to take heed to the lying prophets but to submit to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon that they might live.

Jer 27:12

Jer 27:14 - Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon - Jer gave sound warning to Zedekiah, not to resist but to submit to the punishment of the LORD lest he die.

Jer 27:13

Jer 27:13 - Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? - See Isa 65:12

Jer 27:20

Jer 27:20 - when he carried away captive Jeconiah... and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem - The prophet Dan had for 8yrs been taken captive to Babylon, under the captivity of Jehoiakim, father of Jeconiah. See Dan 1:1

Jer 27:22

Jer 27:22 - then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place - See Ezr 1:7-11

Jer 28:1

Jer 28:1 - Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet - false prophet comes to Judah speaking a message of peace and safety.

Jer 28:3

Jer 28:3 - within two full years will I bring again...all the vessels - In stark contrast to the prophet of the LORD, Hananiah proclaims that the vessels taken to Babylon will be restored in 2 years as opposed to the 70+ years that Jer prophesied.

Jer 28:5

Jer 28:5 - in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people - we see a show-down here, similar to Elijah and the prophets of Baal on Mt. Carmel. Elijah, the prophet of the LORD is being contested by Hananiah, the false prophet. A public exhibition is seen where the people are left to chose whom they will serve and in whose words they must rely.

Jer 28:6

Jer 28:6 - Even the prophet Jer said, Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD'S house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place - the prophet Jer speaks facetiously of the false prophet Hananiah's proclamation and claim.

Jer 28:8

Jer 28:8 - The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence - the prophets of old brought words of reproof warning and impending danger for waywardness.

Jer 28:9

Jer 28:9 - the prophet which prophesieth of peace... - the words of the prophets according to Jer have always been of reproof and judgment. Only when the "smooth words" of a prophet come to pass will the prophet be confirmed to be true. See Isa 30:9-11; 1Thess 5:3

Jer 28:10

Jer 28:10 - Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jer's neck, and brake it - the prophet of the LORD, who was commanded of God during the reign of Jehoiakim to make and wear bands and a yoke of wood around his neck as a continual reminder to the people of their impending captivity (Jer 27:2), is disrespected by the false prophet Hananiah who removes the yoke and breaks it.

Jer 28:13

Jer 28:13 - thou shalt make for them yokes of iron - because of the prophet's deceptive prophecy to the people, convincing them that they had nothing to fear, what was once yokes of wood would be made yokes of iron.

Jer 28:14

Jer 28:14 - and I have given him the beasts of the field also - See Jer 27:6; Dan 4:12, 14, 21, 2:38; Gen 1:28

Jer 28:15 - the LORD hath not sent thee - See Jer 14:14; Zech 13:2-5; Act 13:6-11

Jer 28:15

Jer 28:15 - but thou makest this people to trust in a lie - See Jer 27:9, 10, 16, 17; Jon 2:8

Jer 28:16

Jer 28:16 - Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD - See Deut 18:20

Jer 28:17

Jer 28:17 - died the same year in the seventh month - the LORD would bring judgment upon Hananiah for his false witness in the seventh month, perhaps on the Day of Atonement.

Jer 29:4

Jer 29:4 - unto all that are carried away captive - the captives of Judah taken to Babylon the LORD likens to good figs whom He purposes to restore when the 70years are completed. See Jer 24:5-7

Jer 29:7

Jer 29:7 - seek the peace of the city - the captive Jews were not to pray for the overthrow of their captors or an insurrection or for mayhem but for peace so that they too would enjoy peace while in their captivity for 70yrs.

Jer 29:8

Jer 29:8 - For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed - See Isa 29:10, 14-16

Jer 29:9

Jer 29:9 - for they prophesy falsely unto you in my name - See Jer 14:14; Deut 18:22

Jer 29:10

Jer 29:10 - after seventy years be accomplished - See Ps 90:3; Dan 9:2; 2Chron 36:21; Ezr 1:1; Zech 1:12, 7:5; Ezekiel 36:18-24; Mic 4:10

Jer 29:11

Jer 29:11 - For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end - See Ps 139:17, 18; Jer 32:41; Isa 55:8, 9

Jer 29:11

Jer 29:11 - thoughts of peace - God's thoughts of peace entail: 1. Being washed, forgiven, and made clean from my sins by His grace: Ezek 36:25 2. Receiving a new heart and Spirit that will love righteousness and holiness: Ezek 36:26 3. My life being ordered by His Law which brings peace and life above reproach: Ps 119:165 4. His righteousness, Jesus Christ (Jer. 23:5, 6) producing (working) peace in my life: Isa 32:17 5. Dwelling in a peaceable land with God as His people: Isa 32:18; Ezek 36:28; Rev 21

Jer 29:11

Jer 29:11 - to give you an expected end - a predetermined end in righteousness; we are all predestined before the foundation of the world, to adoption as sons and daughters of God - See Eph 1:4, 5

Jer 29:12

Jer 29:12 - Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you - See Isa 65:24; Ps 145:18

Jer 29:12

Jer 29:12 - and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you - See 1Jo 5:14, 15

Jer 29:13

Jer 29:13 - And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart - See Ps 25:2; Heb 11:6

Jer 29:13

Jer 29:13 - when ye shall search for me wth all your heart - though the LORD desires to reveal Himself to all men (Rom 10:14-21), He does not want men to have a superficial knowledge of Him, nor has He made all of His wisdom readily available to the convenience of the casual reader. As with any field of study and pursuit of knowledge, it requires effort. God would distinguish His true and sincere followers from the haphazard readers as they who pursue the greatest science, the Science of Salvation with all their hearts. See Heb 11:6, 5:11-14; Isa 28:9-13; Joh 7:17; Ps 27:8; Philipians 3:10

Jer 29:13

Jer 29:13 - search for me with all your heart - without a divided mind, conscience or heart. This requires COMPLETE SURRENDER to the Lord and yielding of my will to His will (Lk 9:23; Gal 2:20). We must employ the method God has outlined for the restoration of His covenant (Lev 26:40-46; Dan 9:1-19) - See Mt 6:33; Mk 12:29-33 CONTRAST Jam 1:5-8

Jer 29:14

Jer 29:14 - And I will be found of you, saith the LORD - Heb 11:6

Jer 29:14

Jer 29:14 - and I will turn away your captivity - our captivity came as a result of walking contrary to God, meaning, we made ourselves adversaries to Him, so He in turn made Himself an Adversary to us, permitting us to go into captivity in the land of our enemies. See Lev 26:40, 41

Jer 29:14 - I will gather you from all the nations - see Eze 36:24

Jer 29:14

Jer 29:14 - I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive - See Eze 36:28

Jer 29:15

Jer 29:15 - Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon - the people are being deceived by false prophets, even among the captives in Babylon (Jer 29:20-23), and Jeremiah will set the record straight regarding the fate of those who remain in Jerusalem, even the King of the lineage of David that remained upon the throne. Even as Jeremiah had spoken in the past, so would it be performed that all would be utterly scattered and destroyed who did not peacefully submit to the Babylonians. See Jer 29:16-19

Jer 29:17

Jer 29:17 - and will make them like vile figs that can not be eaten - See Jer 24:1, 2

Jer 29:19

Jer 29:19 - Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD. - See 2Chron 36:15, 16; Jer 11:7, 25:4, 5, 35:14, 15

Jer 29:20

Jer 29:20 - Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon - See Jer 29:15

Jer 29:26

Jer 29:26 - maketh himself a prophet - the punishment for false prophets was to be locked up and placed in stocks.

Jer 30:2

Jer 30:2 - Write thee all the words that I have spoken to thee in a book - the LORD commands Jer to document all that was conveyed to him so the COI would have record of God's judgments and commandments.

Jer 30:3

Jer 30:3 - I will bring again the captivity of my people - See Jer 51:34, 35

Jer 30:3

Jer 30:3 - I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers - See Eze 36:24;

Jer 30:10

Jer 30:6

Jer 30:6 - whether a man doth travail with child? - See Jer 4:19, 20, 51:30

Jer 30:7

Jer 30:7 - At the passing of the Sunday Law decree to kill those who honor the Sabbath, the faithful of God will experience the distress which Jacob experienced when he heard that Esau was coming with 400 men of war to meet him. Then men will have to wrestle with the Lord, pleading for His deliverance. Jacob's experience during that night of wrestling and anguish represents the trial through which the people of God must pass just before Christ's second coming. The prophet Jeremiah, in holy vision looking down to this time, said, "We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.... All faces are turned into paleness. Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it." Jeremiah 30:5-7. - {PP 201.1}

Jer 30:8

Jer 30:8 - I will break his yoke from off thy necks - the fulfillment of this was with the overthrow of Babylon and the liberation of the Nation of Israel to restore and rebuild Jerusalem. The perfect fulfillment of this will be during the Time of Trouble when Babylon the Great will fall and the faithful will be found hid under the shadow of the Almighty.

Jer 30:9

Jer 30:9 - and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them - See Eze 37:22-24

Jer 30:10 - I will save thee from afar - See Eze 36:24; Jer 30:3

Jer 30:11

Jer 30:11 - though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee - God would destroy all of Israel's captors - See Jer 30:16

Jer 30:11

Jer 30:11 - I will correct thee in measure - God will destroy Israel's captors but He will only punish Israel in measure. See Mic 7:9

Jer 30:18

Jer 30:18 - have mercy on his dwellingplaces; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap - The fulfillment of this prophecy was Israel's rebuilding and restoration in the time of Eze and Neh. The perfect fulfillment of this prophecy will be in the New Earth where Righteousness reigns. See Eze 36:33-36

Jer 30:24

Jer 30:24 - in the latter days ye shall consider it - the perfect will of God will be revealed, seen and understood in the latter days (Time of the End?).

Jer 31:3

Jer 31:3 - The LORD hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee. - Thank You My Heavenly Father! Thank You My Loving Savior! Thank you Sweet Holy Spirit!! See Joh 14:6

Jer 31:18

Jer 31:18 - Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God - See Heb 12:5-8; Ps 25:18, 69:5; Isa 57:13-18

Jer 31:18

Jer 31:18 - as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke - one who fights against the restraint and that which would be his guide. An unconverted person. See Hos 7:8; 8:12 God does not require us to give up anything that it is for our best interest to retain. In all that He does, He has the well-being of His children in view. Would that all who have not chosen Christ might realize that He has something vastly better to offer them than they are seeking for themselves. Man is doing the greatest injury and injustice to his own soul when he thinks and acts contrary to the will of God. No real joy can be found in the path forbidden by Him who knows what is best and who plans for the good of His creatures. The path of transgression is the path of misery and destruction. - {SC 46.2}

Jer 31:19

Jer 31:19 - I was turned - the heart and mind is convicted of its wrong. True repentance. See 2Cor 7:10

Jer 31:20 - is he a pleasant child? - is Ephraim obedient and noble in works the Lord asks?

Jer 31:20

Jer 31:20 - my bowels are troubled for him - The LORD bemoans the hardship suffered by His people for their transgressions and seeks to show them everlasting kindness once they repent and seek the LORD with their whole heart. See Isa 57:15-18 A cast sheep is a sheep that has laid down and can't get up because its center of gravity is off - sometimes because it's pregnant or simply because it has a full fleece. Once down, gasses start to build up in their abdomen and they can die in a matter of hours. If you get them back up on their feet, then they're fine Christ's love for His children is as strong as it is tender. It is a love stronger than death, for He died for us. It is a love more true than that of a mother for her children. The mother's love may change, but Christ's love is changeless. "I am persuaded," Paul says, "that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Rom 8:38, 39). In every trial we have strong consolation. Is not our Saviour touched with the feeling of our infirmities? Has He not been tempted in all points like as we are? And has He not invited us to take every trial and perplexity to Him? Then let us not make ourselves miserable over tomorrow's burdens. Bravely and cheerfully carry the burdens of today. Today's trust and faith we must have. But we are not asked to live more than a day at a time. He who gives strength for today will give strength for tomorrow.... {IHP Sept 19}

Jer 31:20

Jer 31:20 - I will surely have mercy upon him - Praise God from Whom all blessings flow! Praise His Glorious Name!! Thank You! Mic 7:18-20

Jer 31:21

Jer 31:21 - Set thee up waymarks, make thee high heaps - apparently on the long march from Jerusalem to Babylon, waymarks were set-up to direct the path back home to Israel. The promise of God's restoration as spoken by the prophet Jer. Jer 31:21 (SDABC4): God's appeal to Israel is so to relate herself to Him in obedience and devotion that she may follow with joy and satisfaction the signposts, as it were, that will bring her safely back to her own land (see ch. 6:16).

Jer 31:27

Jer 31:27 - Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast - See Am 9:11-15; Jer 24:6, 7

Jer 31:28

Jer 31:28 - And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict - See Jer 21:10, 39:16, 44:27; Am 9:1-10

Jer 31:28

Jer 31:28 - so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the LORD - See Am 9:11-15

Jer 31:29

Jer 31:29 - The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge - See Eze 18:2 - A false saying suggesting that the children pay the price for the parents sins. This suggests that God punishes the children for the sins of the parents. This in no way is true. God punishes each individual for their sins. Though the parents sins and habits may have an influence/impact on their descendants, unto the 3rd and 4th generation, the punishment for sin is for the one who commits the sin.

Jer 31:31

Jer 31:31 - I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel - See Hebrews 8:8-13; Eze 16:60-62

Jer 31:32

Jer 31:32 - not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers - See Ex 19:4-6; Eze 16:60, 61

Jer 31:32

Jer 31:32 - which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD - the covenant God made with Israel is not the covenant Israel established with God. God presented the Everlasting Covenant of Gen 3:15 to the COI, where He would betroth Israel to Himself as His bride and do all the works of redemption on their behalf. The COI responded with an alternate covenant based upon their own works and merits. God humored their error and gave them tenets by which they may uphold the covenant they established with the Lord, all of which they broke.

Jer 31:33

Jer 31:33 - After those days - after the days of rebellion for Israel. Applies to the time after the cross of Jesus Christ, when He would enter into covenant with the Christian Church, or after the 70-week prophesy completion or more broadly, whenever men forsake their lives of sin and purpose to seek the LORD.

Jer 31:33 - I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts - God's law written in our hearts and inward parts by the abiding Holy Spirit, [Christ in you, Christ in me, the hope of glory- Col 1:27; Heb 10:15-17] enables us to be victorious over sin by Christ abiding in us Who will keep and fulfill the law of God. See Rom 8:2-4; Gen 3:15; Deut 10:16, 30:6; Jer 4:4; Hosea 2:19, 20; Rom 7:22 CONTRAST Jer 17:1 "How does the Lord write His law in human hearts? It's easy to give a glib answer, "By the Holy Spirit:" but how does He do it? By capturing the affections of the soul, what Ellen White often said is "heart work." The alienated heart is reconciled to God through that "blood of the cross." When "the love of Christ constrains us," we become new creatures. The cold, stony heart we were born with becomes melted; a new spirit fills the heart. We learn to hate the sins we once loved, and we love harmony and reconciliation with the Saviour. In short it is heart appreciation of the cross. Under the new covenant, the ten commandments become ten glorious promises. For example, says the Lord, when you believe that "I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage," inexpressible gratitude motivates you. Then "you shall never fall into adultery," or "murder," or "steal," or any other sin. An appreciation of that cross cleanses those buried motivations of sin and selfishness that have such deep roots. The fruit is not the cold "works of the law" that[...]" Excerpt From: Robert J. Wieland. "Grace On Trial."

Jer 31:33 - will be their God and they will be my people - this has always been God's intention, even from the establishment of the Old Covenant. See Ex 19:3-8; Eze 36:28; 2Cor 6:16; Hosea 2:23; Zech 13:9

Jer 31:34

Jer 31:34 - And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them - God purposed for all of Israel to be a kingdom of priests, His royal priesthood to shine forth the praises of Him Who brought them out of darkness into His marvelous light. By all having the Mind of Christ and sharing in the unity of the faith, all would be on one accord and would see eye to eye, as glory would rise upon them. See 1Pet 2:9; Philippians 2:1-11; Isa 52:8

Jer 31:34

Jer 31:34 - for I will forgive their iniquity - a work of Christ's ministerial work in the Holy Place from A.D.31 to Oct 22, 1844 - See Isa 44; 1Jo 1:9

Jer 31:34

Jer 31:34 - and I will remember their sin no more - the sealing of God's people occurs at the time when sins are being forgiven and blotted out so that they are remembered no more. This time is the Antitypical Day of Atonement which is spoken proleptically here. - See Act 3:19; Isa 43:25; Dan 8:14; Rev 10:6, 7, 11:19; Isa 44:22, 43:25

Jer 31:34

Jer 31:35 - Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name: - The Lord is drawing our attention to the ordinance of sun, moon and stars to show His consistency and that His words are as sure as those ordinances.

Jer 31:36

Jer 31:36 - then the seed of Israel shall cease from being a nation before Me for ever - Indeed, it is prophesied that a remnant of the biological COI shall remain and will be saved in God's eternal kingdom (Isa 1:9). Yet the seed of Israel here spoken, as expounded by Paul are they who embrace God's promises by faith, with whom God imputes His righteousness. See Gal 3:8, 9, 28, 29; Rom 4:11-13

Jer 32:3

Jer 32:3 - Zedekiah king of Israel shut him up saying, wherefore dost thou prophesy - See Jer 26:8, 9

Jer 32:8

Jer 32:8 - buy my field - the command of the Lord to Jer to buy the field of his cousin was to be a source of encouragement for the people of Judah. The land of Benjamin was already occupied by the Babylonians, Judah was being besieged and was about to fall, and Jer was well advanced in age so the promise of his redeeming the land for any purpose was improbable. The purchase of the land and the guarantee of its sale was to affirm the faith of those who heard and had faith that God would one day restore Judah. See Prophets and Kings 469, 470

Jer 32:8

Jer 32:8 - then I knew that this was the word of the LORD - As Jer meditated upon the word from the LORD that while yet in prison he would be visited by his cousin to purchase of field, he could not understand nor fully see its purpose. Yet with its fulfillment, seeing his cousin come and request he buy the field, Jer saw that indeed this was the will of the LORD.

Jer 32:14

Jer 32:14 - put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days - As the Dead Sea Scrolls were preserved for centuries in jars of earthen vessel, so Jer sought to preserve the purchase right to his uncle's field.

Jer 32:15

Jer 32:15 - houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land - The LORD, through the acts/works of the prophet was assuring the restoration of Israel to all who beheld the purchase of Jer's uncle's field. See Jer 32:36-44

See Jer 31:33, 34; Ps 119:11; Rev 12:11

Jer 33:15

Jer 33:15 - in those days and at that time - the LORD is referring to the era of covenant with the House of Israel given by the 70week prophecy of Dan. This era is when the LORD will re-establish Jerusalem, rebuild it so that that Glory of God, the Branch of David may come forth and visit His holy temple. See Dan 9:24, 25, Hag 2:6-9; Jer 23:5, 6

Jer 34:11

Jer 34:11 - but afterwards they turned and caused the servants and handmaids, whom they let go free, to return - The sad account of rebellion and turning from the LORD is here recorded, sealing the Southern Kingdom's doom. This oppression and enslavement of their brothers is also cause for the COI scattering and enslavement Seven-Times. See Lev 26:18, 21, 24, 28

Jer 34:13

Jer 34:13 - I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt - See Ex 19:3-6; Lev 25, 26

Jer 34:16 - but ye turned and polluted my name - every time we rebel and turn from God and His principles, we pollute His name - "thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain" Ex 20:7. We who are called by His name, misrepresent Him and His character to the rest of the world, fallen and unfallen.

Jer 34:17

Jer 34:17 - ye have not hearkened unto me in proclaiming liberty - God is a God of freedom who gives sight to the blind and sets the captives free. See Isa 61:1

Jer 35:6

Jer 35:6 - We will drink no wine - the Rechabites, like the Nazzarines, vowed to drink no wine. They typify the 144,000 who are not drunken with the wine of Babylon. See Rev 14:4, 12; 15:2; 17:1, 2; 18:3

Jer 35:7

Jer 35:7 - live many days in the land where ye be strangers - The Rechabites typified the life of pilgrimage, similar to their forefather Abraham (Heb 11:8-16) where they built no houses nor kept vineyards but were nomadic, living in tents as sojourners in a foreign land. So too, the 144,000 who are redeemed from the earth as a firstfruit will live as ones who are not tied to the earth but seek a city whose builder and maker is God.

Jer 35:14

Jer 35:14 - The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine- God contrasts our fear of men's words and our lack of reverence towards His statutes, words and law.

Jer 35:17

Jer 35:19

Jer 36:6

Jer 36:6 - in the ears of the people in the LORD's house upon the fasting day - the people fast for strife and debate. The people drew near to the LORD but their hearts were far from Him. See Isa 58:1-4

Jer 36:7

Jer 36:7 - it may be that they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return everyone from his evil ways - The hopeful anticipation of Jer is that the people repent, confess their sins and turn from their evil ways before the LORD, that the LORD may show mercy to them.

Jer 36:16

Jer 36:16 - when they heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other - the scribes and princes of Israel were cut to the heart by the words of the LORD by the mouth of Jer and written by Baruch. Their response was similar to Josiah's, years before. See 2Kin 22:9-13

Jer 36:23

Jer 36:23 - he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth - the response of Jehoiakim was in stark contrast to his father's response when read the book of the Law of God which contained the same commandments and warnings. Compare 2Kin 22:9-13

Jer 36:24

Jer 36:24 - yet they were not afraid nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words - the bold defiance of the king and his servants showed that they had reached the place of no return.

Jer 36:24

Jer 36:24 - that heard all these words - those who were in the company of Jehoiakim who neither repented nor rent their garments were of a profane spirit (Heb 12:16). They heard the words of the LORD and took them to be the words of a common man. They ignored God's warnings and admonitions and thus sealed their doom.

Jer 36:25

Jer 36:25 - Nevertheless Elnathan, and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king - three witness try to appeal to the king to repent and humble himself before the LORD but he would not hear.

Jer 36:26

Jer 36:26 - but the LORD hid them - See Ps 91:1-6; Rev 12:6, 14-16

Jer 36:28

Jer 36:28 - take thee again another roll - Jer is commanded to prophesy again against Judah and king Jehoiakim after he burned the first roll of the book. See Rev 10:11

Jer 37:2

Jer 37:2 - But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD - the scary thought of a condemned people who knew not that their hour of visitation was soon to come, who brazenly ignored the counsels of God and his prophet.

Jer 37:3

Jer 37:3 - pray now unto the LORD our God for us - "Forasmuch as this people draw near [me] with their mouth, and their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men" (Isa 29:13, 14). Zedekiah refused to hear the counsel of God from Jer yet asks prayer of the prophet that the LORD would help him.

Jer 37:5

Jer 37:5 - then Pharaoh's army came forth out of Egypt - the king of Judah, Zedekiah, called on Pharaoh, the king of the world, to his aid, but to no avail.

Jer 37:12

Jer 37:12 - to separate himself thence in the midst of the people - Jer was called to flee from the imminent destruction that was to befall Israel. This move of the prophet was an omen to any who would take heed.

Jer 38:4

Jer 38:4 - we beseech thee, let this man be put to death - the obstinate and unbelieving sought to silence the prophet of God. See Jer 26:1-8

Jer 38:4

Jer 38:4 - for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people but their hurt - the wicked take the merciful counsels of God as the words of hurt and harm. For those deceived in their rebellion God's words of mercy are mistaken for the words to their harm.

Jer 38:5

Jer 38:5 - behold, he is in your hand - the whimpy, vacillating king who assured Jer's protection and provision by placing him in the court of the prison (Jer 37:21; 17:5, 6), now hands him over to his captors to be killed.

Jer 38:5

Jer 38:5 - for the king is not he that can do anything against you - What is the point of having a king or person in authority if he can not enforce law and justice?? This cowardly act by Zedekiah is reflective of Pilot washing his hands of defending Jesus from his captors (Mt 27:24).

Jer 38:16

Jer 38:16 - So Zedekiah the king swore secretly unto Jer - the cowardly king will persecute the prophet of God openly, but secretly befriends him and seeks his counsels.

Jer 39:11

Jer 39:11 - Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jer - the King of Babylon was made to understand that Jer was a man of God and needed to be treated with kindness. God takes care of His own!! See Jer 40:1-5

Jer 39:17

Jer 39:17 - But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD - the LORD remembered Ebedmelech the Ethiopian who showed integrity and great kindness towards the prophet of God. When God's people forsook righteousness and sought to do harm to God's messenger, a foreigner, yet one moved with compassion and a sense of justice for the treatment towards Jer, reproved the leadership of Israel. See Jer 38:7-12

Jer 41:17

Jer 41:17 - to go to enter into Egypt - the captives of Israel, in fear of reprisal from the Babylonians after their guards were killed by Ishmael, sought to return to Egypt for refuge. See Jer 42:15-18

Jer 42:3

Jer 42:3 - that the Lord thy God may shew us the way wherein we may walk - The people gather together as if they desire to know the will of the LORD but it is just for show because they purpose to do their own thing. See Jer 42:18-22, 43:1-7; Isa 58:1-3; 29:13

Jer 42:4

Jer 42:4 - whatsoever the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will keep nothing back from you - See 1Sam 3:19, 20; 1Kin 22:14; Jer 1:17; 2Pet 1:20, 21

Jer 42:7

Jer 42:7 - and it came to pass after ten days - The LORD waited for 10 days to try His people and to see if their hearts would remain steadfast in seeking to do His will. We often are motivated by an impulsive fervor and seem to be zealous to do God's work when initially impressed upon us. However, with time the zeal often wains and we make excuses for not doing the course we initially committed to follow. God knows this and proves us to see what heart we have, whether we will obey God in the good or bad and regardless of delay. Help me LORD!!

Jer 42:14

Jer 42:14 - Saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell - See Jer 44

Jer 42:20

Jer 42:20 - for you dissembled in your hearts when ye sent me unto the LORD your God - Jer discerned that the people had no intention of following after God's counsels but had made up their minds to flee to Egypt. Jer therefore scolds the people and warns them not to return to Egypt lest they encounter that which they feared and worst. - See Jam 3:14

Jer 43:2 - Go not into Egypt to sojourn there - in defiance to God, God's prophet and in seeking to deliver themselves from Nebuchadnezzar who they feared would seek retribution for the death of his people stationed in Judah, the rebels look to return to Egypt. Despite their efforts to flee the king of Babylon, Jer prophecies that Nebuchadnezzar will soon come to Egypt and raise the nation and spoil all who are within. See Jer 43:7, 10-13

Jer 43:8 - for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD - Compare Jer 42:2, 3, 5, 6

Jer 44:15

Jer 44:15 - then all the men that knew that their wives had burned incense... and all the women that stood by - the unrepentant, unconverted host of Judah that sojourned in Egypt refused to hear the counsel from the prophet of the LORD. The women were foremost in burning incense to Semeramis, the "queen of heaven" and weeping for Tammuz. The men, rather than reproving their wives, followed in and condoned their idolatrous worship. See Eze 8:11, 14; Isa 3:4, 12

Jer 44:15

Jer 44:16 - that dwelt in the land of Egypt - against God's counsel the COI return to the land of their former bondage (to the world) and seek rest in a weary land wherein there is no rest.

Jer 44:16

Jer 44:16 - we will not hearken unto thee - despite the peoples please to hear a word from the LORD (Jer 43:1-3), they purposed in their hearts not to obey His counsels but to do their own will. See Jer 6:16, 17

Jer 44:17 - burn incense unto the queen of heaven - the people were accustomed to worshipping the false deity Semiramis and her pagan false christ Tammuz. See Dan 11:38

Jer 44:17

Jer 44:20 - for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil - the devil had so blinded the people that they ascribed the blessings from the LORD to a false god. These are a people who have not developed a love for God and His truth and have fallen under a strong delusion. See 2Thess 2:11, 12

Jer 44:21

Jer 44:21 - The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind? - See 1Cor 10:20

Jer 44:25

Jer 44:25 - We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows - See Dan 11:38

Jer 45:1 - when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jer - See Jer 36

Jer 45:5

Jer 45:5 - and seekest thou great things for thyself? Seek them not - the LORD offers counsel to the scribe Baruch not to seek the glories of the world because He has brought destruction upon all that He had established in Israel. God assured Baruch that his life would be his reward for his service. The same counsel applies to the people of God today. We are not to seek great things but to humble ourselves, take up our cross, Follow Christ and look for the blessed hope and glorious appearing of Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Jer 45:5

Jer 45:5 - but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey - the LORD would reward Baruch for his works in proclaiming as a scribe for Jer, the destruction of Judah. God would protect Baruch and spare his life wherever he goes.

Jer 46:1

Lam 5:9 - We gat our bread with the peril of our lives because of the sword of the wilderness - that which befell Israel during the Babylonian captivity was a foreshadowing of what would occur again in A.D.70 Terrible were the calamities that fell upon Jerusalem when the siege was resumed by Titus. The city was invested at the time of the Passover, when millions of Jews were assembled within its walls. Their stores of provision, which if carefully preserved would have supplied the inhabitants for years, had previously been destroyed through the jealousy and revenge of the contending factions, and now all the horrors of starvation were experienced. A measure of wheat was sold for a talent. So fierce were the pangs of hunger that men would gnaw the leather of their belts and sandals and the covering of their shields. Great numbers of the people would steal out at night to gather wild plants growing outside the city walls, though many were seized and put to death with cruel torture, and often those who returned in safety were robbed of what they had gleaned at so great peril. The most inhuman tortures were inflicted by those in power, to force from the want-stricken people the last scanty supplies which they might have concealed. And these cruelties were not infrequently practiced by men who were themselves well fed, and who were merely desirous of laying up a store of provision for the future. - {GC 31.2}

Lam 5:12

Lamentations 5:12 - Princes are hanged up by their hand - The Roman leaders endeavored to strike terror to the Jews and thus cause them to surrender. Those prisoners who resisted when taken, were scourged, tortured, and crucified before the wall of the city. Hundreds were daily put to death in this manner, and the dreadful work continued until, along the Valley of Jehoshaphat and at Calvary, crosses were erected in so great numbers that there was scarcely room to move among them. So terribly was visited that awful imprecation uttered before the judgment seat of Pilate: "His blood be on us, and on our children." Mt 27:25. - {GC 32.2}

Eze 1:1 - visions - mara

Eze 1:2

Eze 1:2 - In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity - There are three prophets that identify with the last three kings of Judah, fulfilling the 3:1 prophetic pattern at the scattering of Israel. Dan was taken with the first besiegement by Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and two others would follow: 3: Jehoiakim - Dan - Dan 1:1 Jehoiachin - Eze - Eze 1:2 Zedekiah - Jer - Jer 1:3 1: Nebuchadnezzar God would from Babylon overturn (Babylon to Medo-Persia), overturn (Medo-Persia to Greece), overturn (Greece to Rome) until He would once again establish the Kingdom under its rightful owner, Shiloh (Eze 21:27; Gen 49:10)

Eze 1:5

Eze 1:5 - the four living creatures - represent the redeemed out of every kindred and tongue and people and nation, including the Gentiles as well as the Jews. {Views of Prophecy by William Miller pg 63}

Eze 1:6

Eze 1:6 - every one had four faces - denoting the four principal features of the church as she has appeared to the world since her establishment on the earth. {Views of Prophecy by William Miller pg 64}

Eze 1:10

Eze 1:10 - face of a man - The face of a man denotes that state under which the church lived in the days of Constantine and his successors, when the kingdoms of the world, represented in prophecy by beasts, were more or less under the control of the church and her ambitious clergy, as beasts are under the rule of man; and when the church united with the state, and became haughty, imperious, and proud, like a man. {Views of Prophecy by William Miller - pg 64}

Eze 1:10

Eze 1:10 - face of a lion - A lion represents authority, kingship. The lion represents the church in the apostles' age, when they went forth bold as lions, preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ in all the world. {Views of Prophecy by William Miller pg 64}

Eze 1:10

Eze 1:10 - face of an ox - The ox represents the church in a state of subjection and persecution, under the Roman emperors Nero, Domitian, and others, when they were delivered unto the slaughter and were made slaves by the Roman power. {Views of Prophecy by William Miller pg 64}

Eze 1:10

Eze 1:10 - face of an eagle - an eagle represents vision and insight, swiftness and movement. See Hab 1:8

Eze 1:15

Eze 1:15 - behold one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures - The wheels denote the government of God

Eze 1:16

Eze 1:16 - wheel in the middle of a wheel - The outer or outside wheel is God's general government with the world, and the kingdoms thereof, in which the church now moves. The inner wheel is the government of God over His church while in this state, under the control or power of the kingdoms of the world, and shows us that God has a people, a remnant, in the world, children of the kingdom, invisible perhaps to us, but known unto God from the creation, as all his works were. {Views on Prophecy by William Miller pg 64}

Eze 1:27

Eze 1:27 - from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about - See Dan 7:9

Eze 2:3

Eze 2:3 - I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against Me - See Isa 6:8-13

Eze 2:5

Eze 2:5 - yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them - See Am 3:7

Eze 2:6

Eze 2:6 - be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words - See Isa 8:12, 13

Eze 2:6

Eze 2:6 - briars and thorns be with thee - See Isa 27:4, 5

Eze 2:6

Eze 2:6 - dismayed at their looks - The messengers of the Lord are never to fear the face of man, but are to stand unflinchingly for the right. So long as they put their trust in God, they need not fear; for He who gives them their commission gives them also the assurance of His protecting care. - {PK 105.1}

Eze 2:8

Eze 2:6 - be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house - Israel's rebellion was in not opening their mouths and receiving that [message] which God gave them to eat. They were to hear and obey and teach the message (Ezr 7:10), walking in the old paths that God had given, but they would not. See Jer 6:16, 17

Eze 2:8

Eze 2:8 - open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee - Just as soon as the people of God are sealed in their foreheads—it is not any seal or mark that can be seen, but a settling into the truth, both intellectually and spiritually, so they cannot be moved—just as soon as God's people are sealed and prepared for the shaking, it will come. Indeed, it has begun already; the judgments of God are now upon the land, to give us warning, that we may know what is coming (Manuscript 173, 1902). - {4BC 1161.6}

Eze 3:1

Ezekiel 3:1 - eat that thou fondest; eat this roll - Eating the Word of God implies a careful study until the meaning is fully comprehended. Jesus often used the figure in a spiritual sense, referring to His body and the "bread of life." {Steven Haskell - Story of the Seer of Patmos, chpt 11 pg 189}

Eze 3:2

Eze 3:2 - caused me to eat that roll - eating the roll is as honey for sweetness in the mouth of the prophet. See v3; Jer 15:16; Rev 10:8-11; 1Sam 14:23-30 The Angel's position, with one foot on the sea, the other on the land, signifies the wide extent of the proclamation of the message. It will cross the broad waters and be proclaimed in other countries, even to all the world. The comprehension of truth, the glad reception of the message, is represented in the eating of the little book. The truth in regard to the time of the advent of our Lord was a precious message to our souls.—Manuscript 59, 1900 (Manuscript Releases 19:319-321). - {CTr 344.6}

Eze 3:3

Eze 3:3 - honey for sweetness - the words of the scroll eaten by Eze were as honey for sweetness. The same experience was held by Jer and Joh. Honey is that which enlightens the eyes of the blinded Laodiceans so that they may see. Ironically, the words written in the scroll, which enlighten the eyes and are as sweet to the prophet are filled with lamentations, and mourning, and woe. "Yet the disclosure of the threatened calamity was the means God used to awaken sin-hardened hearts that He might heal them with the gospel balm. As Eze's work developed, it was often his privilege to temper his discourses of denunciation with appeals of proffered mercy." See SDA Commentary vol 4, 583; Eze 2:10; Jer 15:16; Rev 10:8-11; 1Sam 14:23-30; Ps 119:103

Eze 3:6

Ezekiel 3:6 - Surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee - See Mt 11:21; Lk 10:13

Eze 3:7

Ezekiel 3:7 - But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are impudent and hardhearted - Now as in former ages, the presentation of a truth that reproves the sins and errors of the times will excite opposition. "Everyone that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved." Joh 3:20. As men see that they cannot maintain their position by the Scriptures, many determine to maintain it at all hazards, and with a malicious spirit they assail the character and motives of those who stand in defense of unpopular truth. It is the same policy which has been pursued in all ages. Elijah was declared to be a troubler in Israel, Jer a traitor, Paul a polluter of the temple. From that day to this, those who would be loyal to truth have been denounced as seditious, heretical, or schismatic. Multitudes who are too unbelieving to accept the sure word of prophecy will receive with unquestioning credulity an accusation against those who dare to reprove fashionable sins. This spirit will increase more and more. And the Bible plainly teaches that a time is approaching when the laws of the state will so conflict with the law of God that whosoever would obey all the divine precepts must brave reproach and punishment as an evildoer. - {GC 458.2} In view of this, what is the duty of the messenger of truth? Shall he conclude that the truth ought not to be presented, since often its only effect is to arouse men to evade or resist its claims? No; he has no more reason for withholding the testimony of God's word, because it excites opposition, than had earlier Reformers. The confession of faith made by saints and martyrs was recorded for the benefit of succeeding generations. Those living examples of holiness and steadfast integrity have come down to inspire courage in those who are now called to stand as witnesses for God. They received grace and truth, not for themselves alone, but that, through them, the knowledge of God might enlighten the earth. Has God given light to His servants in this generation? Then they should let it shine forth to the world. - {GC 459.1}

Eze 3:7 - for they will not hearken unto me - See Isa 30:8-12; Jer 2:9-13, 6:16, 17

Eze 3:8

Eze 3:8 - thy forehead strong - Eze is being sealed by the LORD that he can not be shaken. See Rev 7:3

Eze 3:9

Eze 3:9 - As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house - See Heb 13:6; Joshua 1:5

Eze 3:9

Eze 3:9 - fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks - See Hymn #533 O For a Faith

Eze 3:10

Ezekiel 3:10 - Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears - the prophet was to take in God's message intellectually and spiritually. See Ezra 7:10; Dan 10:12; Jer 31:34

Eze 3:11

Eze 3:11 - whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear - the message goes forth regardless of the people's reception. It is important that the message be proclaimed so that its seed may fall on all hearts, whether fertile or rocky. The condition of the heart determines its reception. God is found just for having made known His purposes, whether received or rejected.

Eze 3:17

Eze 3:17 - I have made thee a watchman - See Eze 33:7-9 Christ's ministers are the spiritual guardians of the people entrusted to their care. Their work has been likened to that of watchmen. In ancient times sentinels were often stationed on the walls of cities, where, from points of vantage, they could overlook important posts to be guarded, and give warning of the approach of an enemy. Upon their faithfulness depended the safety of all within. At stated intervals they were required to call to one another, to make sure that all were awake and that no harm had befallen any. The cry of good cheer or of warning was borne from one to another, each repeating the call till it echoed round the city. - {AA 360.3}

Eze 3:17

Eze 3:17 - hear the word of my mouth, and give them warning from me - See 1Cor 14:8

Eze 3:18

Eze 3:18 - but his blood will I require at thine hand. See Act 20:26, 27 I did not realize the danger and sin of such a course, until in vision I was taken into the presence of Jesus. He looked upon me with a frown, and turned His face from me. It is not possible to describe the terror and agony I then felt. I fell upon my face before Him, but had no power to utter a word. Oh, how I longed to be covered and hid from that dreadful frown! Then could I realize, in some degree, what the feelings of the lost will be when they cry: "Mountains and rocks, fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb." - {1T 74.1} Presently an angel bade me rise, and the sight that met my eyes can hardly be described. Before me was a company whose hair and garments were torn, and whose countenances were the very picture of despair and horror. They came close to me, and rubbed their garments upon mine. As I looked at my garments, I saw that they were stained with blood. Again I fell like one dead at the feet of my accompanying angel. I could not plead one excuse, and longed to be away from that holy place. The angel raised me to my feet, and said: "This is not your case now, but this scene has passed before you to let you know what your situation must be if you neglect to declare to others what the Lord has revealed to you. But if you are faithful to the end, you shall eat of the tree of life, and shall drink of the river of the water of life. You will have to suffer much, but the grace of God is sufficient." I then felt willing to do all that the Lord might require me to do, that I might have His approbation, and not feel His dreadful frown. - {1T 74.2}

Eze 3:20

Eze 3:20 - When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die - Eze 33:12, 13, 18

Eze 3:20

Eze 3:18 - stumblingblock - that which causes one to stumble and fall. In the sense spoken, a stumblingblock causes one to fall and perish in their sins. See Isa 8:14, 28:16; Rom 9:33

Eze 3:21

Eze 3:21 - Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thou hast delivered thy soul - the work of the Holy Spirit, (conviction of sin, of righteousness, of judgment) as typified through the Three Angel's Messages is demonstrated in this one verse: 1. The righteous are made aware of sin and are convicted of their sin 2. The righteous seek forgiveness and turn from their wicked ways, claiming Christ's righteousness 3. The LORD finds them not guilty but righteous and spares their lives

Eze 3:26

Eze 3:26 - And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house - See Eze 24:27

Eze 4:3

Eze 4:3 - set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city - the LORD reveals to His prophet that He will be a sure defense for His prophet against the rebellious city, Jerusalem.

Eze 4:4

Eze 4:4 - According to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity - See Eze 4:5, 6; Num 14:34

Eze 4:6

Eze 4:6 - each day for a year - See Num 14:34; Dan 8:14, 9:24-27; Rev 12:6

Eze 4:9

Eze 4:9 - Take thou also unto thee wheat, barley, and beans and lentils, and millet, and fitches - Eze bread, the bread of adversity and the water of affliction - See Isa 30:20!

Eze 4:16

Eze 4:16 - I will break the staff or bread in Jerusalem - God will cut off the supply of food by famine and in the besiegement such that the people will eat the bread of adversity and water of affliction. They will be in want and will need to ration their daily portion of food. See Eze 5:16

Eze 5:1

Eze 5:1 - take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's razor, and cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard - Eze is again a sign to the people of Israel, giving forewarning of the three fold fate that is to befall the people of Israel - the burning fire, the sword and being scattered by the wind.

Eze 5:6

Eze 5:6 - she hath changed by judgments into wickedness more than the nations - the sins of Israel outweighed those of the heathen nations surround them in that they took wickedness to extremes, forsaking God's law.

Eze 5:16

Eze 5:16 - break your staff of bread - See Eze 4:16

Eze 7:2

Eze 7:1 - An end, the end is come - the statement is repeated in verse 1, verse 5 and verse 6, showing that the prophecy is sure and will occur. See Gen 41:32

Eze 7:19

Eze 7:19 - They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed - See

Eze 7:19

Eze 7:19 - it is the stumblingblock of their iniquity - wealth and riches, that which brought pride and ease of living among the inhabitants of Sodom, was seen in Israel. See Jam 5:1-5; Eze 14:3

Eze 7:20

Eze 7:20 - the beauty of His ornament, He set it in majesty - a reference to the temple in Jerusalem perhaps.

Eze 7:20

Eze 7:20 - but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein - the people set up the images of jealousy in the temple of the LORD, and profaned God's house. See Eze 8:1-3

Eze 8:1

Eze 8:1 - sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month - the timing of the vision is one day before, the cusp of 666.

Eze 8:1

Eze 8:1 - the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell there upon me - Eze is taken in an open vision before the presence of the elders gathered in his house. See Num 24:4, 16; 1Sam 3:1

Eze 8:2

Eze 8:2 - lo a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire - See Eze 1:27; Rev 10:1

Eze 8:3

Eze 8:3 - towards the north - the Father and Jesus have established Their throne of Righteousness on the farthest sides of the north (Heb 1:1-3, 8. The position towards the north is the object of Satan's desire as he seeks to establish his throne of iniquity above the throne of God's righteousness (Ps 94:20; Isa 14:12-14).

Eze 8:3

Eze 8:3 - image of jealousy - The first of four abominations seen is the "daily" the self-exalting image of jealousy, first born within Lucifer, causing him to oppose and rebel against Christ. The Catholic Confessional is the modern image of jealousy that usurps the prayers of the people from Jesus' work of Mediation on their behalf. See Deut 32:16; 2Kin 21:7; Isa 65:3; Jer 7:18 Sister White spoke about a jealous rivalry (self-exaltation) between the publishing houses in Battle Creek (to become the Review and Herald) and that which was in Oakland, the Pacific Press. Satan had known that he did not hold absolute sway over the world. There was seen in men the working of a power that withstood his dominion. With intense interest he watched the sacrifices offered by Adam and his sons. In these ceremonies he discerned a symbol of communion between earth and heaven. He set himself to intercept this communion. He misrepresented God, and misinterpreted the rites that pointed to the Saviour. Men were led to fear God as one who delighted in their destruction. The sacrifices that should have revealed His love were offered only to appease His wrath. {DA 115.1}

Eze 8:4

Eze 8:4 - behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain - See Eze 1:26-28

Eze 8:6

Eze 8:6 - that I should go far off from my sanctuary - See Jer 23:11 compare Lev 26:11-12

Eze 8:7

Eze 8:7 - a hole in the wall - a breach is seen in the walls of the temple, the law of God.

Eze 8:11

Eze 8:11 - seventy - the number of Elders from the COI appointed to judge with Moses in Israel (Ex 24:1, 9; Num 11:16, 24, 25)

Eze 8:11

Eze 8:11 - with every man his censer in his hand - as the rebellious Korah incited the COI to rebel against God and His servants Aaron and Moses, telling them to take censers to offer to the Lord because they too were holy unto the Lord, so these elders of Israel have rejected the Lord and worship their graven images. Further, these weak men follow in the abominations committed by their wives, worshipping the "queen of heaven", the god of forces (Isa 3:4, 12; Dan 11:38). See Num 16:5-7; Eze 8:14; Jer 44:15-21

Eze 8:12

Eze 8:12 - ancients of the house of Israel - the leadership, the elders and those in positions of authority, trust and respect are the ones committing the grievous abominations in Israel. They who should be a light to the younger generations have gone astray.

Eze 8:12

Eze 8:12 - do in the dark - as if the darkness hides from the LORD the works of iniquity committed, the people do their works of rebellion in the dark. See Ps 139:11, 12

Eze 8:12

Eze 8:12 - every man in the chamber of his imagery - the second abomination identified is Spiritualism and idolatry. See Mt 24:26

Eze 8:12

Eze 8:12 - The Lord seeth us not - the boast of the wicked is that the Lord can not see their foolish rebellion. The psalmist however answers: "He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? He that formed the eye, shall he not see? (Ps 94:7-11, 139:11, 12; Isa 29:15, 16; Jer 23:24; Heb 4:13). The wicked in their boldness believe they will not be recompensed for their evil (Isa 5:18, 19, 29:15; Eccl 8:11; Ps 10:11).

Eze 8:14

Eze 8:14 - weeping for Tammuz - the third abomination here presented is a false Christ, Tammuz. See Jer 44:15-19

Eze 8:16

Eze 8:16 - five and twenty men - the High Priest and 24 ministering priests (see 1 Chronicles 24:1-19) or the 25 princes in Israel that give a peace and safety message (see Eze 11:1-3) The three steps of abomination lead to ultimately worshipping the sun (Sunday Law) 1. Self-exaltation (the daily) - v3 2. Spiritualism - v10-12 3. False Christ - v14 4. Sunday Worship - v16 THE GENERAL CONFERENCE COMMITTEE. In forming the General Conference Committee for 1901-02, the number of members was increased from thirteen to twenty-five, and care was taken to place on the Committee, ministers, physicians, teachers, printer's, and business men. Reasons for this change are plain—that the affairs of the Conference might come before many minds, and that all the most important phases of our great work might be definitely represented in the Committee. The ultimate point to be gained is that every department of, the cause shall receive the fairest and most efficient administration possible. [SDA General Conference Bulletin Vol 4. April 22,1901] Among those chosen to lead was L.R. Conradi, chosen as chair who was a participant in the Alpha Apostasy, denying the sanctuary message, the 3-Angel's Messages as applying to the work of the SDA Movement and denying the significance of the SDA church. This, by Conradi's own admission, began as he rejected the doctrine of Righteousness by Faith as presented by Jones and Waggoner in 1888 and endorsed by EGW: After the election of this Committee, it met and organized itself, W. W. Prescott being chosen temporary Chairman, and E. J. Waggoner temporary Secretary. A committee of four, including the chairman, was appointed to make recommendations for the permanent organization. It was agreed that this Committee take upon itself the same class of work as was done by the General Conference Committee in America. P. A. Hansen, J. C. Ottosen, 13, G. Wilkinson, and W. C. Sisley were chosen to act as this Committee on Organization. They reported as follows :— Chairman, L. R. Conradi; Secretary, O. A. Olsen; Treasurer, W. C. Sisley; Auditor, E. Lind.

Eze 8:16

Eze 8:16 - worshipped the sun - See Deut 4:19, 17:1-5; Jer 8:1, 2; Job 31:26-28

Eze 8:17

Eze 8:17 -put the branch to their nose- the suggestion is that their sins leave a stench and they mask the sin and stench by holding a (pleasant smelling) branch to their nose while continuing in their sin.

Eze 8:18

Eze 8:18 - Therefore will I also deal in fury - because the people have bowed down to worship the sun (the Image to the Beast), God's wrath will be poured out as described by the 3rd and 4th Angels' Messages.

Eze 9:1

Eze 9:1 - Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near - A judgment is to begin upon the leadership (of the church) at the hands of angels granted command over the city. Compare Rev 7:1 showing 4 angels given command over the earth to rain destructions upon the earth.

Eze 9:2

Eze 9:3 - one man among them was clothed with linen - See Dan 10:5, 12:6, 7

Eze 9:2

Eze 9:2 - with a writer's inkhorn by his side - See Rev 7:2-4

Eze 9:3

Eze 9:3 - the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub - See Eze 1:26-28; 8:4

Eze 9:4

Eze 9:4 - set a mark upon the foreheads of the men - the seal of God is to placed on the foreheads of those who sigh and cry for the sins done among God's people. They have a zeal for God's law and honor (see Num 14:11-20, 25:6-13) such that they are repulsed by the sins committed in the open and behind closed doors (See Eze 8).

Eze 9:4

Eze 9:4 - men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof - See Ps 119:136, 158; Zeph 3:18; Ezra 9:4; Philippians 3:18 Those who profess to be followers of Christ, should be living agencies, co-operating with heavenly intelligences; but by union with the world, the character of God's people becomes tarnished, and through amalgamation with the corrupt, the fine gold becomes dim. When worldly agencies are introduced into the church, it is evident that Satan is carrying out his devices, working through those who profess to be followers of Christ, making them ready at any time to engage with him in disheartening and discouraging those who are faithful, who would stand wholly on the Lord's side. - {RH August 23, 1892 Par. 3}

Eze 9:4

Eze 9:6 - cry - Unlike the women who weep for Tammuz (Eze 8:), the saints of God are they who cry aloud, spare not, lifting up their voice like a trumpet and showing the people their transgressions (Isa 58:1-4). See Ps 119:136

Eze 9:5

Ezekiel 9:5 - And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity: - "In 1844 after the Disappointment, a new work was to be done which had never been attempted before. The believers were to see and understand the rebellion of the human heart against God and truth. Their enmity had remained unconscious, awaiting revelation in the final atonement. The work begun then would result in complete reconciliation; the atonement would become a fact. There would be a people sealed and made ready to see God face to face. This sealing work described in both Rev and Ezekiel awaits its culmination and is portrayed by the Lord's messenger as a solemn experience: The class who do not feel grieved over their own spiritual declension, nor mourn over the sins of others, will be left without the seal of God. The Lord commissions his messengers, the men with slaughtering weapons in their hands: "Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity: slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house." Here we see that the church—the Lord's sanctuary—was the first to feel the stroke of the wrath of God. The ancient men, those to whom God had given great light, and who had stood as guardians of the spiritual interests of the people, had betrayed their trust." Eze 9:6

Eze 9:6 - Slay - spiritually speaking, those who have rejected the LORD and are left spiritually dead. So when the irrevocable decision of the sanctuary has been pronounced and the destiny of the world has been forever fixed, the inhabitants of the earth will know it not. The forms of religion will be continued by a people from whom the Spirit of God has been finally withdrawn; and the satanic zeal with which the prince of evil will inspire them for the accomplishment of his malignant designs, will bear the semblance of zeal for God. - {GC 615.1}

Eze 9:6 - but come not near any man upon whom is the mark - See Rev 9:4.

Eze 9:6

Eze 9:6 - and begin at my sanctuary - See 1Pet 4:17

Eze 9:6

Eze 9:6 - Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house - See Isa 3:14, Eze 8:16; Jer 19:1-6

Eze 9:8

Eze 9:8 - residue - remnant. See Eze 14:22, 23; Isa 1:10 As the end of all things earthly should approach, there would be faithful ones able to discern the signs of the times. While a large number of professing believers would deny their faith by their works, there would be a remnant who would endure to the end. - {AA 535.2}

Eze 9:9

Eze 9:9 - for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD seeth not - See Isa 5:19; Eze 8:12; Eccl 8:11

Eze 9:11

Eze 9:11 - I have done as thou has command me - I saw angels hurrying to and fro in heaven. An angel with a writer's inkhorn by his side returned from the earth and reported to Jesus that his work was done, and the saints were numbered and sealed. Then I saw Jesus, who had been ministering before the ark containing the ten commandments, throw down the censer. He raised His hands, and with a loud voice said, "It is done". And all the angelic host laid off their crowns as Jesus made the solemn declaration, "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still." - {EW 279.2} We may talk of the blessings of the Holy Spirit, but unless we prepare ourselves for its reception, of what avail are our works? Are we striving with all our power to attain to the stature of men and women in Christ? Are we seeking for His fullness, ever pressing toward the mark set before us—the perfection of His character? When the Lord's people reach this mark, they will be sealed in their foreheads. Filled with the Spirit, they will be complete in Christ, and the recording angel will declare, "It is finished." - {OHC 150.6}

Eze 10:1

Eze 13:10 - one built up a wall - the wall built with untempered mortar is equivalent to the covenant with death and hell that is supposed to protect the wicked from the overflowing scourge. The lying and seducing words that give God's people a false sense of security is the wall daubed with untempered mortar. See Isa 28:15, 18

Eze 14:3

Eze 14:3 - stumblingblock of their iniquity - the teachings and dogmas of the false prophets were heeded at the expense of inquiring of God and searching the scriptures to understand the will of God. Eze 14:14 - they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness - God in the past sought for men to stand in the gap so that He may show grace to a people and not bring destruction. However, God's mercy has its limits and in time He will spare only the righteous and destroy the wicked in their sins. See Eze 22:30, 18:20; Isa 59:16; 63:5; Jer 15:1

noisome beasts - Jehoiachin 4. The pestilence - Zedekiah

Eze 16:13

Eze 16:13 - thou didst prosper into a kingdom - God promised Abraham to make of him a great nation. See Gen 12:2

Eze 16:14

Eze 16:14 - thy renown went forth from among the heathen for thy beauty, for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I had put upon thee - This is the essence of righteousness by faith. We are made beautiful and exalted because of God's comeliness that He imparts to us. See 1Kin 10:1-10; Deut 4:5-8; Zech 3:3, 4; Isa 60:1-3 This robe, woven in the loom of heaven, has in it not one thread of human devising. Christ in His humanity wrought out a perfect character, and this character He offers to impart to us. "All our righteousness are as filthy rags." Isa 64:6. Everything that we of ourselves can do is defiled by sin. But the Son of God "was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin." Sin is defined to be "the transgression of the law." 1Jo 3:5, 4. But Christ was obedient to every requirement of the law. He said of Himself, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God; yea, Thy law is within My heart." Ps 40:8. When on earth, He said to His disciples, "I have kept My Father's commandments." Joh 15:10. By His perfect obedience He has made it possible for every human being to obey God's commandments. When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life. This is what it means to be clothed with the garment of His righteousness. Then as the Lord looks upon us He sees, not the fig-leaf garment, not the nakedness and deformity of sin, but His own robe of righteousness, which is perfect obedience to the law of Jehovah. - {COL 311.4}

Eze 16:15

Eze 16:15 - But thou didst trust in thine own beauty - pride and self-exaltation, the very thing that caused Lucifer to fall, took hold of Israel, causing them too to fall. See Ezek 28:15-17

Eze 16:49

Ezekiel 16:49 - Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy - Gluttony and intemperance lie at the foundation of the great moral depravity in our world. Satan is aware of this and he is constantly tempting men and women to indulge the taste at the expense of health and even life itself. Eating, drinking, and dressing are made the aim of life with the world. Just such a state of things existed before the Flood. And this state of dissipation is one of the marked evidences of the soon close of this earth's history.—Letter 34, 1875. - {LDE 22.2} The picture which Inspiration has given of the antediluvian world represents too truly the condition to which modern society is fast hastening.—Patriarchs and Prophets, 102 (1890). - {LDE 22.3} We know that the Lord is coming very soon. The world is fast becoming as it was in the days of Noah. It is given over to selfish indulgence. Eating and drinking are carried to excess. Men are drinking the poisonous liquor that makes them mad.—Letter 308, 1907. - {LDE 23.1}

Eze 16:32 - thou shalt know that I am the LORD - See Jer 31:34

Eze 17:2

Eze 17:2 - Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel - God spoke to the prophets in riddles and veiled messages to convey to the COI. Not so however, with Moses. God spoke candidly and directly to Moses as a friend. See Num 12:7, 8

Eze 17:3

Eze 17:3 - A great eagle with great wings, longwinged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar: - speaking of the king of Babylon, who took of the choicest of the kingdom captive with him to Babylon. He set-up by covenant, baser men (Jehoiachin) to rule over the kingdom so that they might honor him, keep their vow and preserve their lives. See Eze 17:12

Eze 17:5 - this vine did bend her roots toward him - Judah would rebel against Nebuchadnezzar and ally with Egypt. See 2Kin 24:1, 7, 20; Eze 17:15

Eze 17:22

Eze 17:22, 23 - highest branch of the high cedar - It was still the Lord's purpose, as it had been from the beginning, that His people should be a praise in the earth, to the glory of His name. During the long years of their exile He had given them many opportunities to return to their allegiance to Him. Some had chosen to listen and to learn; some had found salvation in the midst of affliction. Many of these were to be numbered among the remnant that should return. They were likened by Inspiration to "the highest branch of the high cedar," which was to be planted "upon an high mountain and eminent: in the mountain of the height of Israel." Eze 17:22, 23. - {PK 599.2}

Eze 18:2

Eze 18:2 - The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge - See also Jer 31:29 - A false saying suggesting that the children pay the price for the parents' sins. This suggests that God punishes the children for the sins of the parents. This in no way is true. God punishes each individual for their sins. Though the parents' sins and habits may have an impact on their descendants, unto the 3rd and 4th generation, the punishment for sin is for the one who commits the sin.

Eze 18:4 - sins shall die - see Deut 24:16

Eze 18:4

Ezekiel 18:4-21 - the Lord in the following verses describe three generations of men to show that the idea of generational curses are not so. He first describes a righteous father (v5-9), a wicked son (v10-13) and a righteous grandson (v14-17). See Ex 20:4-6

Eze 18:19

Eze 18:19 - Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live - See Mt For nearly forty years after the doom of Jerusalem had been pronounced by Christ Himself, the Lord delayed His judgments upon the city and the nation. Wonderful was the long-suffering of God toward the rejectors of His gospel and the murderers of His Son. The parable of the unfruitful tree represented God's dealings with the Jewish nation. The command had gone forth, "Cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?" (Lk 13:7) but divine mercy had spared it yet a little longer. There were still many among the Jews who were ignorant of the character and the work of Christ. And the children had not enjoyed the opportunities or received the light which their parents had spurned. Through the preaching of the apostles and their associates, God would cause light to shine upon them; they would be permitted to see how prophecy had been fulfilled, not only in the birth and life of Christ, but in His death and resurrection. The children were not condemned for the sins of the parents; but when, with a knowledge of all the light given to their parents, the children rejected the additional light granted to themselves, they became partakers of the parents' sins, and filled up the measure of their iniquity. - {GC 27.3}

Eze 18:20 - The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son - Contrast Dan 6:24

Eze 18:23

Ezekiel 18:23 - Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord GOD: and not that he should return from his ways, and live? See 2Pet 3:9

Eze 18:24

Ezekiel 18:24 - But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? - See Ex 32:33 By rebellion and apostasy man forfeited the favor of God; not his rights, for he could have no value except as it was invested in God's dear Son. This point must be understood. He forfeited those privileges which God in His mercy presented him as a free gift, a treasure in trust to be used to advance His cause and His glory, to benefit the beings He had made. The moment the workmanship of God refused obedience to the laws of God's kingdom, that moment he became disloyal to the government of God and he made himself entirely unworthy of all the blessings wherewith God had favored him. - {1888 813.2}

Eze 18:24

Eze 18:24 - all his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned - God is all or nothing; we are either all in or all out. Any good we have done, if we turn to wickedness, will not be remembered. See Eze 18:26; Dan 7:10; Rev 3:5, 22:19

Eze 18:26

We must cast away the abominations, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, and all the allurements of the world [Egypt].

Eze 20:11

Eze 20:11 - which if a man do, he shall even live in them - Compare Rom 7:9

Eze 20:12

Eze 20:12 - Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them - the weekly Sabbath and the feast day sabbaths were a covenant sign of a relationship between God and His people. God entrusted them to the COI so that they would reverence them and hallow them as God's special people, sanctified/consecrated unto Himself. See Ex 31:13, 17; Lev 23:1-44; Deut 5:12-15

Eze 20:12

Eze 20:12 - that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them - the sanctification of the Sabbath day by the LORD from the Creation as well as the hallowed sabbaths is the ultimate symbol of the sanctification the LORD fulfills in the lives of those who obey Him and keep His commandments. Further, as no servile work was to be performed on these hallowed days (Lev 23:7), the LORD foreshadows His completed works of redemption by Grace from the foundation of the world, not of works lest any man should boast, it is a gift from God. See 1Cor 5:7, 8; Gen 3:15; Eph 2:9; 1Jo 5:11-13; Lev 20:8

Eze 20:12

Ezekiel 20:12 - sanctify - meaning to make holy and to consecrate for holy use. The presence of the Lord is what makes a thing holy, therefore, sanctification is the continual abiding of Christ by way of the Holy Spirit which results in one being sealed. One is sealed by the Sabbath, the ultimate sign of our sanctification. Sanctification in Scripture: 1. To grow from glory to glory; to move from the corrupted glory of man to the perfect glory of Christ. 1Cor 3:18; Ps 8:5 2. To come to the unity of the faith, knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ - Eph 4:10-14 3. To become a partaker of the divine nature, having escaped the corruptions of the world through lust - 2Pet 1:1-4 4. Let the mind of Christ become resident in you - Phil 2:5-8 5. A chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people shining forth the praises of God Who has called us out of darkness into His marvelous light.

Eze 20:13

Eze 20:13 - But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness - See Ex 32

Eze 20:20

Eze 20:20 - and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God - the Sabbath is a covenant sign between God and His people signifying that we worship the Creator God (Ex 20:11) and the Redeemer God (Deut 5:15). The Sabbath affirms our allegiance to the true God, unlike the spurious sabbaths of men's devising that draw men to worship on the first and sixth days of the week. See Ex 31:13, 17

Eze 20:25

Eze 20:25 - Wherefore I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live - Just as the Lord permitted the lying spirit to deceive Ahab to his destruction, so the Lord will permit the wicked to be deceived of the enemies in their own sins. See Hos 4:17; 1Kin 22:20-23||2Chron 18:19-22; 2Thess 2:11, 12; Isa 66:4; Rom 1:24, 28-32, 11:7;

Eze 20:49

Eze 20:49 - Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables? - Eze is rejected and reprov'd to the men who seek counsel from God but their hearts are far from Him. See Hab 2:1; Isa 28:12, 13

Eze 21:10

Eze 21:10 - it contemneth the rod of my son - the sword that the LORD has prepared against His son Judah, shows contempt for the branches (rod) of trees used as switches for punishment (See 2Sam 7:14). God purposed to chasten His children with a rod for disobedience in hopes of their repentance, but Ancient (and Modern) Israel crossed the line of mercy and therefore God would cut off His people with a sword. God has prepared a slaughter for His people.

Eze 21:20

Eze 21:20 - sword may come to Rabbath of the Ammonites - See Eze 21:28

Eze 21:21

Eze 21:20 - to use divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver - See Hab 1:11

Eze 21:23

Eze 21:23 - to them that have sworn oaths - The children of Israel have made a covenant with death and hell and believe that the divinations of Babylon against them would have no effect (Isa 28:15). Though in truth their divinations were worthless, yet God would cause the Babylonians to be an overflowing scourge against Israel because of their iniquities. Literally, Zedekiah the king double crossed Nebuchadnezzar and formed an alliance with the Egyptians. This alliance would not stand as the Babylonians would overthrow both Israel and the Egyptians.

Eze 21:23 - that they may be taken - See Isa 28:13

Eze 21:25

The King and his kingdom of Judah would come to its end.

Eze 21:26

Eze 21:26 - Thus saith the Lord GOD; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high - God would remove the theocratic kingdom from the earth until the establishment of Jesus' eternal kingdom. See Lk 1:32

Eze 21:27

Eze 21:27 - I will overturn, overturn, overturn - God will take away the kingdom of Judah and will not restore it until Christ (Shiloh - Gen 49:10-12), Whose "right it is" will rule. The three overturns parallel the three woes that would befall spiritual Babylon as well as the destructions foretold in the Three Angel's Messages. 1. Babylon is overturned by Medo-Persia 2. Medo-Persia is overturned by Greece 3. Greece is Overturned by Rome 4. Christ appears - Lk 1:32

Eze 22:14

Eze 22:14 - Can thine heart endure, or an thy hands be strong in the days that I will deal with thee? - the Day of the LORD is here spoken, the day of the Sunday Law, when men's hearts will fail them for fear of the things that come upon the earth. See Lk 21:26

See Am 8:11-14; Lev 26:19, 20

Eze 22:30

Eze 22:30 - Regarding the Congressional Bill of 1888 by Senator Blair, Robert J. Wieland writes: "Americans are indebted to those obscure, humble 1888 messengers for this continuing century of religious liberty, because a national Sunday Law in violation of the American Constitution would have opened the floodgates for persecution and consequent failure of the American dream of liberty and prosperity." {Grace on Trial pg 11.2}

Eze 22:30

Eze 22:30 - stand in the gap - just as Moses stood uprightly before the LORD and before a rebellious people, while making intercession for them, God seeks the same in this age. See Ex 32:31, 32; Jer 15:1 The instant man accepted the temptations of Satan, and did the very things God had said he should not do, Christ, the Son of God, stood between the living and the dead, saying, "Let the punishment fall on Me. I will stand in man's place. He shall have another chance." - {FLB 75.3}

Eze 24:19 - Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so? The people understood the office of the prophet, that his words and actions were object lessons to be understood by all. That Eze neither mourned nor lamented the death of his beloved wife, was an ominous sign to the people for which they inquired an answer. See Eze 24:24; Isa 8:18

See Eze 26:14

This "spiritual merchandise" is acceptable to God, unlike the literal merchandise the merchants attempt to sell in the temple during the time of Christ. See Joh 2:15, 16

Eze 27:33

Eze 27:33 - thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise - See Rev 18:9

Eze 28:2

Eze 28:2 - midst of the seas - he sits among he multitudes of peoples, nations, kindreds and tongues. See Rev 17:15.

Eze 28:3

Eze 28:3 - wiser than Dan - the Papacy would be given insights to the ways and purposes of God from the arch deceiver, Satan (Isa 47:10). The papacy's knowledge of prophecy among mortals is second only to the "wise", to whom God imparts His Spirit of Prophecy to understand Bible Prophecy and end time events (see Dan 12:10, 3, 4). The papacy knows prophecy sufficiently well enough to create counterfeits designed to deflect any accusation or suggestions that could be brought against itself. See Lk 16:8 Satan is a diligent Bible student. He knows that his time is short, and he seeks at every point to counterwork the work of the Lord upon this earth.—Testimonies for the Church 9:16. - {ChS 54.3} When God's written word was given through the Hebrew prophets, Satan studied with diligence the messages concerning the Messiah. Carefully he traced the words that outlined with unmistakable clearness Christ's work among men as a suffering sacrifice and as a conquering king. In the parchment rolls of the Old Testament Scriptures he read that the One who was to appear was to be "brought as a lamb to the slaughter," "His visage ... so marred more than any man, and His form more than the sons of men." Isa 53:7; 52:14. The promised Saviour of humanity was to be "despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; ... smitten of God, and afflicted;" yet He was also to exercise His mighty power in order to "judge the poor of the people." He was to "save the children of the needy," and "break in pieces the oppressor." Isa 53:3, 4; Ps 72:4. These prophecies caused Satan to fear and tremble; yet he relinquished not his purpose to thwart, if possible, the merciful provisions of Jehovah for the redemption of the lost race. He determined to blind the eyes of the people, so far as might be possible, to the real significance of the Messianic prophecies, in order to prepare the way for the rejection of Christ at His coming. - {PK 686.1}

Eze 28:3

Eze 28:3 - no secret that they can hide - the Papacy would be foremost in promoting [witch] craft and having intelligence with fallen angelic beings. The Papacy, the front man for the dragon, is known for being the root and spiritual father of every secret society on the earth. Utilizing the intelligence of the False Prophet, the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), the Papacy has access to any and all information, public and private for any individual or entity. Examples of secret societies fathered by the Papacy include: 1. Secret Cabals [i.e. the Bilderburgs] 2. Masons 3. Witchcraft and necromancy 4. Satanism & Wicca 5. Islam 6. Fraternities & Sororities

Eze 28:4

Eze 28:4- with thy wisdom and thy understanding - the wisdom of the wicked descends not from above but arises from beneath and is devilish (Jam 3:15). See 1Cor 3:18; Lk 16:18

Eze 28:4

Eze 28:4 - hast gotten thee riches - See Isa 23, Ps 73:12. Many of the wealthy upon the earth receive special insights from the Papacy and the dragon that allow them to amass wealth.

Consider Satan's temptation of Jesus while in the wilderness (Lk 4:5-7). For example, consider the financial run on Wall Street by some of the wealthiest men, months before the attacks on 9/11/2001. These same men after the attack repurchased their stock holdings for pennies on the dollar, allowing them to amass extreme wealth in the months and years following.

Eze 28:4 - gotten gold and silver into thy treasuries - the centuries of exploitation of people groups through colonialism, sponsored and funded by the Papacy has allowed it to amass large stores of gold and silver in its treasuries. This gold and silver was used to adorn their strange gods (statues of Mary and the saints) in their ornate strong holds (cathedrals and basilicas) [see Dan 11:38, 39]

Eze 28:5

Eze 28:5 - thy traffick - See Eze 26, 27. Much of the illegal trade around the world has its roots or ultimate end at the Vatican. 1. Drug trade 2. Human trafficking 3. Arms trade 4. "High Crime" thefts 5. Genocide and ethnic cleansing 6. Looting of the Jews during WWII 7. Aiding and abetting [providing asylum and immunity] criminals, including priests that molest children 8. Money Laundering The Vatican Bank was exposed in 2012's Vatileaks scandal for laundering and serving as banker/creditor to some of the most ruthless criminals on earth.

Eze 28:7

Eze 28:7 - terrible of the nations - a term signifying Babylon, particularly under Nebuchadnezzar. The term also relates to the wicked who, after the world's probation has closed and they realize their deception by the whore Babylon, will turn and destroy her (Rev 17:16, 17). The terrible of the nations" (Eze 28:7), it was given Nebuchadnezzar, after years of patient and wearing labor, to conquer Tyre; Egypt also fell a prey to his victorious armies; and as he added nation after nation to the Babylonian realm, he added more and more to his fame as the greatest ruler of the age. - {PK 514.2}

Eze 28:7

Eze 28:7 - they shall draw their swords - a double prophetic allusion. First the forces of Napoleon Bonaparte who wielded the sword and took the papacy captive in A.D.1798 (Rev 13:9, 10). Secondly, those who are among the wise, who have the full armor of God and are skilled in "wielding" the Sword of the Spirit [the Bible] will expose Modern Babylon's corruptions and defile the beauty of her wisdom and brightness before the people (Dan 12:10, 3, 4; Eph 6:17; Heb 4:12; Rev 19:15)

Eze 28:8

Eze 28:8 - die the deaths - See Rev 18:4-20.

Eze 28:10

Eze 28:10 - deaths of the uncircumcised - the death of those who have not entered covenant with God, therefore, the death of the wicked. See Gen 17:9-14

Eze 28:12

Eze 28:12 - perfect in beauty - Lucifer was created as a beautiful being to behold and one to give God glory - See Isa 14:

Eze 28:13

Eze 28:13 - Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: Lucifer appeared as the rainbow, where the reflected light of God's glory shone upon the stones of many colors, giving the appearance of a rainbow. Lucifer bore and reflected the light of God - See Ex 34:29-35 This sinless pair wore no artificial garments. They were clothed with a covering of light and glory, such as the angels wear.—The Signs of the Times, January 9, 1879. - {TA 48.6}

Eze 28:13

Eze 28:13 - thy tabrets - a transliteration of tabor, a small snare drum (rhythm maker).

Eze 28:13

Eze 28:13 - thy pipes - the vocal chords of Lucifer were such that he could sing the lead melody and multipart harmonies by himself. He was a music maker from his creation.

Eze 28:14

Eze 28:14 - Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth - See Isa 37:16

Eze 28:15

Ezek 28:15 - perfect - tamiym Adjective 'perfect' from (08552) tamam ; entire (literally, figuratively or morally); also (as noun) integrity, truth:--without blemish, complete, full, perfect, sincerely (-ity), sound, without spot, undefiled, upright(-ly), whole. complete, whole, entire, sound complete, whole, entire whole, sound, healthful complete, entire (of time) sound, wholesome, unimpaired, innocent, having integrity what is complete or entirely in accord with truth and fact (neuter adj/subst)

Eze 28:15

Ezek 28:15 - from the day that thou wast created - Lucifer's aspirations of becoming God were futile for the very reason stated here in the verse, he was created. He had a beginning and he will have an end, unlike the Eternal, Almighty God. See Ps 90:1, 2

Eze 28:15

Eze 28:15 - till iniquity was found in you - As Lucifer entertained the thoughts of self-exaltation and rebellion, which led to desiring that which he entertained in his mind (lust), sin was found in him. Lucifer in proud arrogance, presumption and boldness, went places in his mind that God Himself would not dare to go, thus becoming the author (father) of iniquity and sin. - Jam 1:14, 15; Ezek 28:17

Eze 28:16

Eze 28:16 - By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned - The brilliant mind, most gifted above all other creation, was perverted such that Lucifer corrupted his wisdom. Lucifer traded in pride, self-exaltation, jealousy, envy, deceptions, half-truths, slanders, malice and all forms of wickedness to malign God's character and to allure and ensnare the unsuspecting hosts of heaven. See Rev 18:12 When Satan became disaffected in heaven, he did not lay his complaint before God and Christ; but he went among the angels who thought him perfect and represented that God had done him injustice in preferring Christ to himself. The result of this misrepresentation was that through their sympathy with him one third of the angels lost their innocence, their high estate, and their happy home. Satan is instigating men to continue on earth the same work of jealousy and evil surmising that he commenced in heaven. - {5T 291.1}

Ezek 28:16 - merchandise - the devil's merchandise, that which he traffics and trades is sin: 1. Subtlety and deception: Gen 3:1 2. Stratagem and out maneuvering: Judges 9:1-5; 2Sam 15:1-6 3. Eze 28:16

Ezekiel 28:16 - violence - chamac Noun Masculine khaw-mawce' from (02554) from ; violence; by implication, wrong; by meton. unjust gain:--cruel(-ty), damage, false, injustice, oppressor, unrighteous, violence (against, done), violent (dealing), wrong. violence, wrong, cruelty, injustice - The devil was a murderer from the beginning. See Joh 8:

Eze 28:16

Ezek 28:16 - therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God - Lucifer disqualified himself from the society of heaven. His hardened defiance and rebellion forced the hand of God to expel him. See Lk 10:18; Isa 30:22; Rev 12:7-9 The waves of mercy, beaten back by those stubborn hearts, returned in a stronger tide of pitying, inexpressible love. But Israel had turned from her best Friend and only Helper. The pleadings of His love had been despised, His counsels spurned, His warnings ridiculed. - {GC 20.2}

Eze 28:16

Eze 28:16 - covering cherub - a cherub angel that stood in the presence of God's glory. He bore the radiance of God's glory just as Moses' face shown with a brightness after being in God's presence for 40days. See Ex 34:29-34

Eze 28:17

Eze 28:17 - Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty - See Eze 28:12, 16:15; Prov 6:17

Eze 28:17

Eze 28:17 - corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness - to the extent of the brightness and glory (honor, majesty, wisdom) entrusted to Lucifer, so he corrupted himself to be most debased among the creation. Pride and self-love caused Lucifer to think he was deserving of honor and praise above his assigned station. See Jude 1:6

Eze 28:17

Eze 28:17 - lay thee before kings - the saints are the kings here mentioned who will judge the devil and his angels. See Rev 5:10; 1:6; 1Cor 6:3; Satan is also compared to the wicked who he figuratively meets in the grave. They see him and revile and taunt him that he too is made low. Unlike the honored kings of the world, Satan will be cast down with no burial but will be a carcass and as dung upon the earth. Isa 14:9-11, 16-20

Eze 28:18

Eze 28:18 - Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities - See Rev 2:9, 3:9; Dan 11:36-39

Eze 28:24

Eze 28:24 - And there shall be no more a pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them - the nations that were not displaced by Israel became as thorns and briers, pests to the people of God who harassed them and led them into idolatry. See Judges 1:27-36

Eze 28:26

Eze 28:26 - And they shall dwell safely therein, and shall build houses, and plant vineyards... - See Isa 65:19-23

Eze 29:3

Eze 29:3 - the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers - Pharaoh of Egypt is likened unto the great dragon, Satan (Rev 12:7-9). This is an apt symbol as Pharaoh was not willing to free God's enslaved people only upon his own death, so Satan fights for the souls that belong to God unto the death.

Eze 29:3

Eze 29:3 - My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself - the blasphemous boast of Pharaoh, like the king of Tyre (Eze 28:1-10) is that he is a god and that he made the river Nile for himself. A statement that echoes the proud claims of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. See Eze 29:9; Dan 4:30

Eze 29:3

Eze 29:3 - and I have made it for myself - Dan 4:30

Eze 29:18 - every shoulder was peeled - through hard rigorous labor, the shoulders of all were worn raw.

Eze 29:18

Eze 29:18 - yet had he no wages, nor his arm for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it - Babylon under Nebuchadnezzar was a hireling for the LORD, to do His biddings in punishing the nations for their rebellions.

Eze 29:19

Eze 29:19 - I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadnezzar - the world, more specifically Republican America (US speaks as a dragon - Eze 29:3; Atheistic France [Egypt] typifies Republicanism in the USA) are given into the hand of the King of the North on September 11, 2001. Similarly, Protestant America (Licentious France [Sodom]) was overthrown on April 19, 1844 when Protestantism rejected their 3rd test during the Advent Movement. Dan 11:42; Eze 30

Eze 29:21

Eze 29:21 - The righteous will be lifted up as an ensign and God will fill their mouths to proclaim the gospel in the time of the Latter Rain. This was first typified in the Millerite history when Protestantism was passed by and God chose the Millerites to be His mouth piece. The Millerites bud as the rains (Early Rains) appear through the Holy Spirit giving the Midnight Cry message.

Eze 29:21

Eze 29:21 - In that day - In the day of the Sunday Law, when the US, the world and the global economy is given into the hand of the papacy, then God will lift up the horn of Israel like an ensign.

Eze 29:21

Eze 29:21 - the horn of the house of Israel - the strength of the house of Israel, the remnant. The righteous will be lifted up as an ensign and God will fill their mouths to proclaim the gospel in the time of the Latter Rain. This was first typified in the Millerite history when Protestantism was passed by and God chose the Millerites to be His mouth piece. The Millerites bud as the rains (Early Rains) appear through the Holy Spirit giving the Midnight Cry message.

Eze 32:4

Eze 32:4 - Then will I leave thee upon the land, and will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill all the beasts of the whole earth with thee - the LORD will cause a great feast for the beasts and fowl of the air to be upon Egypt, whom He will overthrow. See Rev 19:17, 18, 21

Eze 32:7

Eze 32:7 - I will cover the heaven and make the stars thereof dark, I will cover the sun with a cloud and the moon shall not give her light - The destruction of Egypt is likened to the issuance of the seven last plagues upon spiritual Egypt, the world. The darkness to cover Egypt is like unto the fifth plague upon the seat of the beast. See Rev 16:10, 11

Eze 36:26

Eze 36:26 - A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: - the work of conversion is spoken here, where we desire to live and do according to God's will and not our own. See Lk 1:35; Ezek 18:31; Ps 51:10; Jer 31:31-34

Eze 36:38

Ezek 36:38 - As the holy flock - Holiness is constant agreement with God. Shall we not strive to be that which Christ so greatly desires us to be—Christians in deed and in truth—that the world may see in our lives a revelation of the saving power of truth? This world is our preparatory school. While here we shall meet with trials and difficulties. Continually the enemy of God will seek to draw us away from our allegiance. But while we cleave to Him who gave Himself for us we are safe. - {HP 33.4}

Eze 37:1

Eze 37:1 - midst of the valley which was full of bones - But not only does this simile of the dry bones apply to the world, but also to those who have been blessed with great light; for they also are like the skeletons of the valley. They have the form of men, the framework of the body; but they have not spiritual life. But the parable does not leave the dry bones merely knit together into the forms of men; for it is not enough that there is symmetry of limb and feature. The breath of life must vivify the bodies, that they may stand upright, and spring into activity. These bones represent the house of Israel, the church of God, and the hope of the church is the vivifying influence of the Holy Spirit. The Lord must breathe upon the dry bones, that they may live. - {RH January 17, 1893 Par. 8}

Eze 37:2

Eze 37:2 - they were very dry - See Prov 17:22; Dan 9:8

Eze 37:3

Eze 37:3 - can these bones live? - A revival of true godliness among us is the greatest and most urgent of all our needs. To seek this should be our first work. There must be earnest effort to obtain the blessing of the Lord, not because God is not willing to bestow His blessing upon us, but because we are unprepared to receive it. Our heavenly Father is more willing to give His Holy Spirit to them that ask Him, than are earthly parents to give good gifts to their children. But it is our work, by confession, humiliation, repentance, and earnest prayer, to fulfill the conditions upon which God has promised to grant us His blessing. A revival need be expected only in answer to prayer.—Selected Messages 1:121 (1887). - {LDE 189.1} The light that Dan received from God was given especially for these last days. The visions he saw by the banks of the Ulai and the Hiddekel, the great rivers of Shinar, are now in process of fulfillment, and all the events foretold will soon come to pass. - {TM 112.2} Consider the circumstances of the Jewish nation when the prophecies of Dan were given. - {TM 113.1} Let us give more time to the study of the Bible. We do not understand the word as we should. The book of Rev opens with an injunction to us to understand the instruction that it contains. "Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy," God declares, "and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand." When we as a people understand what this book means to us, there will be seen among us a great revival. We do not understand fully the lessons that it teaches, notwithstanding the injunction given us to search and study it. - {TM 113.2}

Eze 37:4

Eze 37:4 - O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD - The messages to the dry bones typify the work of the first two angel's messages of Rev 14. The messages are a cry from the wilderness that gathers together the disjointed bones and then breathes life into them so they may be an army for the LORD to proclaim the third angel's message.

Eze 37:7

Eze 37:7 - So I prophesied as I was commanded - that which Eze speaks over the dry bones is a message (Latter Rain - 1st Angel's) message that will bring life. What power must we have from God that icy hearts, having only a legal religion, should see the better things provided for them—Christ and his righteousness! A life-giving message was needed to give life to the dry bones.—Manuscript 24, 1888. - {3SM 177.2}

Eze 37:7

Eze 37:7 - as I prophesied, there was a noise - the noise which stirs the dry bones is a voice crying out in the wilderness (Lk 3:4, 5). Moses was in the wilderness, Joh the Baptist was in the wilderness, and God's church was in the wilderness for 1260yrs and they cried forth with a message that stirred the sleeping, dead dry bones of their time.

Eze 37:7

Eze 37:7 - and behold a shaking - the Latter Rain message to the dead church of Laodicea will cause a shaking.

Eze 37:7

Eze 37:7 -the bones came together, bone to his bone... - the prophetic word preached and made known brings unity to the flock of God - See Act 2:14-44, 46

Eze 37:9

Eze 37:9 - come from the four winds - Here the four winds (4 directions of the compass) from which the Holy Spirit is to blow also can typify the 4 winds upon the Great Sea of Dan 7:2 and the 4 winds of strife in Rev 7:1. The message two the 4 winds here points to the sealing message of Rev 7 The Lord is full of resources. He has no lack of facilities. It is because of our lack of faith, our earthliness, our cheap talk, our unbelief, manifested in our conversation, that dark shadows gather about us. Christ is not revealed in word or character as the One altogether lovely, and the chiefest among ten thousand. When the soul is content to lift itself up unto vanity, the Spirit of the Lord can do little for it. Our shortsighted vision beholds the shadow, but cannot see the glory beyond. Angels are holding the four winds, represented as an angry horse seeking to break loose and rush over the face of the whole earth, bearing destruction and death in its path. - {20MR 216.6} Shall we sleep on the very verge of the eternal world? Shall we be dull and cold and dead? Oh, that we might have in our churches the Spirit and breath of God breathed into His people, that they might stand upon their feet and live. We need to see that the way is narrow, and the gate strait. But as we pass through the strait

Eze 37:10 - So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived - See Eph 5:14-16 The book of Rev opens with an injunction to us to understand the instruction that it contains. "Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy," God declares, "and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand." When we as a people understand what this book means to us, there will be seen among us a great revival {TM 113.2}

Eze 37:10 - stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army - the latter rain from the presence of the LORD produces a mighty army to proclaim God's final message to the world. I heard those clothed with the armor speak forth the truth with great power. It had effect. Many had been bound; some wives by their husbands, and some children by their parents. The honest who had been prevented from hearing the truth now eagerly laid hold upon it. All fear of their relatives was gone, and the truth alone was exalted to them. They had been hungering and thirsting for truth; it was dearer and more precious than life. I asked what had made this great change. An angel answered, "It is the latter rain, the refreshing from the presence of the Lord, the loud cry of the third angel." - {EW 271.2}

Eze 37:14

Ezek 37:14 - And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD - See Gen 2:7; 1 John 5:11, 12

Eze 37:19

Eze 37:19 - Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellow, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick - Ephraim and his fellows, representing the new/gospel covenant, "Kingdom of Heaven", and the gathering in of the scattered Jews and Gentiles (his fellows) are to be joined to the first/old covenant, "Kingdom of Israel", represented by Judah, as one kingdom in the hand of Christ. See Zech 10:3-12

Eze 37:19

Eze 37:19 - stick of Judah - the stick of Judah represents the first/old covenant or "kingdom of Israel" that would reign until Shiloh (Jesus) comes - "The sceptre (or rod) shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto Him shall the gathering of the people be." Gen 49:10

Eze 37:19

Eze 37:19 - and they shall be one in mine hand - the time when God's people become one stick or as Christ spoke of one fold (Joh 10:16) is at the Sunday Law, when the church militant becomes the Church Triumphant and gathers in the 11th hour workers

Eze 37:21

Eze 37:21, 22 - gather them into - See Isa 11:11-14

Eze 37:22

Ezek 37:22 - And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all - God would reunite the houses of Israel in

Jesus, the Righteous King (Melchizedek). See Rom 1:3

Eze 37:24

Eze 37:24 - David shall rule over them - David (a type of Christ) is a figure of the new leadership that the Lord will raise up to rule over a church (lamp) that will take the message to the world and call forth the Loud Cry. David is anointed 3x (1x before the death of Saul [1 Sam 16:3, 13]; 1x after Saul's death by Judah [2 Sam 2:4]; 1x by Israel [2 Sam 5:3]). David's horn is said to bud forth [a work of the Latter Rain] so that he may proclaim the message to the world - See Eze 29:21, Ps 132:17, 18; Isa 11:10-16

Eze 37:28

Ezekiel 37:28 - And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore - See Ezekiel 38:14

Eze 37:28

Eze 37:28 - when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore - by context, the Israel here spoken represents both Jesus and the redeemed of God (all the saints), not the biological Nation of Israel. The sanctuary here typifies the living temple that we are to be for the LORD (1Cor 12:1) and the tabernacle of God that will be with men for eternity (Rev 21:22)

Eze 38:2

Ezekiel 38:1 - Gog, which is in the land of Magog is one part of a three part union of Gog, Meshech and Tubal. This parallels the three parts of Modern Babylon comprised of Dragon, Beast and False Prophet. See Rev 16:13-17, 19

Eze 38:4

Eze 38:4 - And I will turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords - See 2Kin 19:37

Eze 38:17

Ezekiel 38:17 - Thus saith the Lord GOD; Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring thee against them? - the Power Gog is one who has been prophesied of old by the prophets to come against God and His people in the latter days. This must be the papacy and the confederacy of nations that lend their power to it. See Rev 17:12-14

Eze 38:22

Eze 38:22 - And I will plead against him - Gog, meaning the wicked or persecuting world.

Eze 39:1

Eze 39:1 - Gog - a name translated Meshech who was the sixth son of Japheth who settled in that part of the world when the world was divided after the flood. The name occurs in Ps 120:5 and is synonymous with foreigners or barbarians. if a character: signifies "to draw by force". If a place: the Moschi, a people inhabiting the Moschian Mountains between the Black and Caspian Seas - Russian in Asia, Georgia.

Eze 39:1

Eze 39:1 - O Gog - here spoken means the great powers which Dan gives us to understand which were to arise successively in the Northern Mediterranean to rule over the world: The Babylonians, the Medes & Persians, the Grecians and the Rom. Gog therefore represents the wicked powers of the earth ("kings of the East"), especially Antichrist, or Papal Rome. {William Miller's Voice of Prophecy pg 39}

Persia was destroyed by the small state of Grecia 3. Grecia was destroyed by the Roman republic 4. Rome, when it became the mistress of the world, was destroyed by the barbarians to the north

Eze 39:5 - open field - the world

Eze 39:7

Eze 39:7 - Holy One in Israel - Holy One in the church.

Eze 39:8

Eze 39:8 - Behold, it is come and it is done - This establishes that the aforementioned scattering of God's people and retribution upon their oppressors had taken place by the time of Eze's prophecy. See Isa 14:4-9 and Am 6:1-14

Eze 39:9

Eze 39:9 - shall go forth - be scattered over the world or in the kingdoms of Gog.

Eze 39:9 - they shall burn them with fire - the armor of opposition will be burned with fire for seven years. See Lk 12:49; Isa 10:12-25 (particularly 16-18); Obadiah 18

Eze 39:10

Eze 39:10 - spoil those that spoiled them... rob those that robbed them - the rise and fall of the nations that constitute Gog (Babylon through Rome) is testament of this fact.

Eze 43:10

Eze 43:10, 11 - The Lord counseled Elder Jam White to write the Review and Herald publication to: 1. Be a rebuke to those who failed to enter into the Holy Place with Christ after October 22, 1844 that they might be ashamed. They were to be made ashamed by their rejection of truth of the 3rd Angel's Message (measuring / studying the house of God) that was prophesied in Eze and repeated in Rev 11:1-2 2. Be a reminder to those of the faith once held by the saints and the revelations in God's Word that led the early Adventist Movement to the truths they came to know and embrace The Lord has shown Ellen that I must publish the testimonies of those who acknowledged the work done and the Advent move of God after 1844. Now this is my first work. I expect to get out a paper called the Advent Review, sixteen pages, the size of the Present Truth. I shall, if I have means, put in a slice of Cook's Testimony and [Bates's] Way Mks, et cetera, et cetera. The cause calls for it. I hope to get out six numbers, three thousand copies each, [which] will cost $250. I shall move as the means come in.... - {1BIO 179.4} My way is onward. Men of Israel, help. Now is the time to work for God. For your encouragement I will state one case where the papers did much good. Someone requested me to send the paper to Betsey Benson. I sent two copies. She read one and sent the other to Sister Thomas. Both came into the truth. At the Johson, Vermont, conference, Sister Thomas gave me $25 to publish with. So you see the cause will move on. —JW to "Dear Brother," July 21, 1850. - {1BIO 179.5} In early August, Jam and Ellen White moved to the home of Brother Harris at Port Byron, New York. There he undertook to publish the journal reviewing the experiences called for through the vision. He could get it printed at nearby Auburn. He explained the object of the paper in an opening editorial statement: - {1BIO 180.1} Our design in this review is to cheer and refresh the true believer, by showing the fulfillment of prophecy in the past wonderful work of God, in calling out, and separating from the world and the nominal church, a people who are looking for the second advent of the dear Saviour. - {1BIO 180.2} Those who claim to be Adventists should, to be consistent, acknowledge the means that God in mercy has employed to bring them to the light of the Advent truth, and which has made them what they are. No one will deny the fact that it was the proclamation of the time, 1843, as it was written on the chart, that aroused the Advent people to look for the Lord. - {1BIO 180.3} If that alarm had not been given, none would have been waked up to see the true light, and those who rejoice in the "blessed hope" would now, doubtless, be covered up in the mist and darkness of the nominal church. We cannot, therefore, see the least consistency in the position of those who call themselves Adventists, and at the same time call the very means that has brought them to this scriptural faith and hope "a mistake," "fanaticism," "mesmerism," and, as some have said, "of the devil." - {1BIO 180.4} What! shall we rejoice in the "blessed hope," and then turn round and curse the means that heaven has employed to bring us to its light and glory? God forbid it. Such a course, ... such a position, is not only inconsistent in the extreme, but blasphemous.—AR, August, 1850. - {1BIO 180.5} He declared his intention to republish the writings of the leaders in the Advent cause and to "show that they once boldly advocated, and published to the world, the same position, ... that we now occupy." This he declared would show "who have Left the Original Faith." - {1BIO 180.6} As the content was to be largely a reprinting of earlier published materials, he was able to pull things together rather quickly, with four numbers put out in August and September. Added to this was an Extra in September bearing the same theme but carrying the signature of Hiram Edson in nearby Port Gibson. - {1BIO 181.1}

Eze 43:11

Eze 43:11 - And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house - the conditions for erecting the stated temple were not met and therefore the temple was not set-up.

Eze 44:20

Ezekiel 44:20 - they shall only poll their heads - in light of what is said in the verse, a priest is not to shave his head, neither is he to allow it to grow in long locks, therefore the priest is to keep the hair trimmed to conform to his head alone, neither shaving nor allowing it to become locks.

Eze 44:21

Ezekiel 44:21 - Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court - See Lev 10:1-9; Lk 22:18

Eze 44:22

Ezekiel 44:22 - nor her that is put away - a divorced woman is not to be considered for the wife of a priest - Mt 5:31, 32

Eze 44:22

Ezekiel 44:22 - or a widow that had a priest before - the restriction of a priest taking a wife of a widow who was married to a priest or a maiden, but not a divorced woman is interesting. It appears that the Lord is speaking of the character of the individuals who would be entering into the marriage vow. A widow once married to a priest is more desirable than an ordinary widow not married to a priest or a divorced woman because the widow once married to a priest understands the call of the priest and is willing to support the priest in a manner that would exalt God and compliment the life work he is commissioned to perform.

Eze 45:10 - Ye shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath - See Lev 19:36

Eze 47:12

Eze 47:12 - And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine. - Ps 1:3; Jer 17:8

Eze 47:12 - and the leaf thereof for medicine - See Rev 22:2

Daniel

Dan 1:1

Back to Table of Contents

Dan 1:1 - In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar ... unto Jerusalem - See Jer 22:25 There are three prophets that identify with the last three kings of Judah, fulfilling the 3:1 prophetic pattern at the scattering of Israel. Dan was taken with the first besiegement by Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and two others would follow: 3: Jehoiakim - Dan - Dan 1:1 Jehoiachin - Eze - Eze 1:2 Zedekiah - Jer - Jer 1:3 1: Nebuchadnezzar God would from Babylon overturn (Babylon to Medo-Persia), overturn

(Medo-Persia to Greece), overturn (Greece to Rome) until He would once again establish the Kingdom under its rightful owner, Shiloh (Eze 21:27; Gen 49:10)

Dan 1:1

Dan 1:1 - came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem - Nebuchadnezzar was God's appointed servant to bring punishment upon His wayward children, Judah. See Jer 25:9

Dan 1:1

Dan 1:1 - Babylon - meaning the gates of the gods. Babylon is contrasted with the image Jacob saw when the gate of heaven was seen as a Ladder extended from heaven to the earth (Gen 28:12, 13). Modern Babylon, like ancient Babylon, claimed that entry to the heavens was based upon entry into the city (membership in the Universal Church) whereas, Jacob saw access to the heavens by way of the Ladder, Jesus Christ. [Spiritual Babylon has removed the Ladder and has made itself the entry point to the kingdom of God.

Dan 1:2

Dan 1:2 - And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand with part of the vessels of the house of God - See Jer 27:19-22

Dan 1:2

Dan 1:2 - part of the vessels of the house of God - it was not until the third besiegement by Nebuchadnezzar under Zedekiah that all the remaining vessels of the house of God were taken to Babylon See Jer 39:1-14; Ezra 1:7-11

Dan 1:2

Dan 1:2 - and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of His god - unlike during the time of David when the ark of God was taken into the house of the gods of the Philistines and God raised His hand against Dagon and plagued the people (1Sam 5), Babylon neither saw plague nor harm because the ark had not been taken captive to Babylon and God had ordained that Babylon be the place of captivity for the COI for their rebellion. See Jer 27

Dan 1:3

Dan 1:3 - he should bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes - Those who had been taken captive were seen as good figs by the LORD (Jer 24:5-7), compared to those who remained to suffer the destruction of Jerusalem. See Jer 39:6; Eze 17:3-16; Deut 28:41

Dan 1:4

Dan 1:4 - Children in whom was no blemish - no physical defects, handicaps. Though most likely these young men would be made eunuchs as wisemen in the court of Nebuchadnezzar. See 2Kin 20:18; Isa 39:7

Dan 1:4

Dan 1:4 - well favored, and skillful in all wisdom and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science - See Jer 24:1

Dan 1:4

Dan 1:4 - and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans - See Deut 28:36

Dan 1:5

Dan 1:5 - And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king - food and diet are central themes in this chapter, where more than half (11 of 21) of the verses deal with the topic of diet. Diet and appetite is that which our forefathers were first tested and failed and upon which Jesus was first tested and succeeded. Our ability to gain the victory in this area, a seemingly small detail, will govern our ability to gain victory over other areas of life.

Dan 1:6

Dan 1:6 - Now among these were of the children of Judah, Dan, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah - The four Hebrew worthies were among a group of Jewish captives brought into the king's training program. These 4, a remnant proved faithful above all others.

Dan 1:7

Dan 1:7 - Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abednego - part of the re-education and indoctrination involved changing the captives' names and thus their identity.

Dan 1:8

Dan 1:8 - But Dan purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank - During the 4month (Ezra 7:9) trek from Jerusalem to Babylon, Dan purposed in his mind to be faithful to God and to uphold the principles he had been taught from a youth. Dan demonstrated Righteousness by faith as he emulated and followed in the footsteps of his Heavenly Father (Eph 3:11). See Josh 1:7-9; Ezek 37:23; Prov 20:1, 23:29-35; Lev 11; Deut 14:1-21; Act 15:29; 1Cor 10:19-21; Ps 17:3, 57:7; Ezra 7:10 Dan's love for God in his heart far outweighed his fear of men ("perfect love casteth out fear" - 1Jo 4:18) such that as a slave, he was willing to be subjected to punishment, including death, before dishonoring his God. Israel would not be subject to diseases of Egypt if they kept God's health laws: Ex 15:26, Deut 7:15. If they rebelled God would bring Egyptian diseases upon them - Deut 28:60 The Lord made Dan and Joseph shrewd managers. He could work through them because they did not live to please their own inclination but to please God. - {COL 350.4} The will is the governing power in the nature of man. If the will is set right, all the rest of the being will come under its sway. The will is not the taste or the inclination, but it is the choice, the deciding power, the kingly power, which works in the children of men unto obedience to God or to disobedience. - {CTBH 147.3} Only by faithfulness in the little things can the soul be trained to act with fidelity under larger responsibilities. God brought Dan and his fellows into connection with the great men of Babylon, that these heathen men might become acquainted with the principles of true religion. In the midst of a nation of idolaters, Dan was to represent the character of God. How did he become fitted for a position of so great trust and honor? It was his faithfulness in the little things that gave complexion to his whole life. He honored God in the smallest duties, and the Lord co-operated with him. To Dan and his companions God gave "knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom; and Dan had understanding in all visions and dreams." Dan 1:17. - {COL 356.3}

Dan 1:9

Dan 1:9 - Now God had brought Dan into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs - See Prov 16:7; 2Kin 20:18; Isa 39:7; 2Chron 30:8, 9

Dan 1:10

Dan 1:10 - worse liking than the children which are of your sort - the words of the eunuch implies that there were other young Hebrew captives besides Dan and his 3 friends who were under training to be in the kings court. See Dan 1:13

Dan 1:12

Dan 1:12 - let them give us pulse to eat and water to drink - a simple plant based diet with water was requested by the Hebrew worthies. They understood the spiritual conflict that was raging and would not put themselves on the enemies vantage ground through even their diet. See Gen 9:20-24; Prov 23:1-3

Dan 1:12

Dan 1:12 - pulse - Leguminous plants or their seeds; the plants whose pericarp is a legume or pod, as beans, peas, etc.

Dan 1:13

Dan 1:13 - Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenances of the children that eat the portion of the king's meat - a physical inspection (visible test) was to be held for those who honor God and those who honor Him not. Notice both classes mentioned are of they who profess to honor the true God of heaven. See 1Cor 10:31, 9:24-27

Dan 1:14

Dan 1:14 - proved them ten days - observed and tested them ten days.

Dan 1:17

Dan 1:17 - God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom - Aparently, beyond the training offered by the Babylonians, the 4 Hebrew worthies applied themselves in the knowledge and teaching of their God. This is proven in that after 3years they were found to be 10x wiser than all the wisemen of Babylon. How could one exceed one's teachers by 10x if they were not instructed by a higher source? See Deut 4:1-8

Dan 1:17

Dan 1:18 - and Dan had understanding in all visions and dreams.- While Dan clung to his God with unwavering trust, the spirit of prophetic power came upon him. While he was instructed of man in the duties of court life, he was taught of God to read the mysteries of future ages, and to present to coming generations, through figures and similitudes, the wonderful things that would come to pass in the last days. [49] - {CC 248.4} "Taking the Bible as the supreme guide of her life, she became fully convinced, by its teaching, that the second coming of Christ was near at hand. On this point she never wavered, and, believing it with her whole soul, she felt that the one supreme purpose of every individual at this time should be to live a blameless life in Christ, and to devote every resource at command to the salvation of the lost. - {LS 468.2} "This view led her to unceasing prayer for the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit. Her yearning for this divine presence was answered beyond all that she had conceived.... Her life of full surrender, obedience, and prayer for divine help was rewarded by the bestowal of the gift of prophecy, one of the choicest of all the gifts of the Spirit. - {LS 468.3}

Dan 1:18 - Dan, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king - See 2Kin 20:18; Isa 56:3

Dan 1:21

Dan 1:21 - continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus - Dan here represents the 144,000, one who continues until the coming of the King from the East who dries up the rivers from the east (Jesus). Dan represents those who go through the Time of Trouble and endures until the coming of Christ. See Rev 16:12 Soon our eyes were drawn to the east, for a small black cloud had appeared, about half as large as a man's hand, which we all knew was the sign of the Son of man. We all in solemn silence gazed on the cloud as it drew nearer, and became lighter, glorious, and still more glorious, till it was a great white cloud. The bottom appeared like fire; a rainbow was over the cloud, while around it were ten thousand angels, singing a most lovely song; and upon it sat the Son of man. His hair was white and curly, and lay on His shoulders; and upon His head were many crowns. His feet had the appearance of fire; in His right hand was a sharp sickle; in His left, a silver trumpet. His eyes were a flame of fire, which searched His children through and through. Then all faces gathered paleness, and those that God had rejected gathered blackness. Then we all cried out: "Who shall be able to stand? Is my robe spotless?" Then the angels ceased to sing, and there was some time of awful silence, when Jesus spoke: "Those who have clean hands and pure hearts shall be able to stand; My grace is sufficient for you." At this our faces lighted up, and joy filled every heart. And the angels struck a note higher and sung again, while the cloud drew still nearer the earth. - {CET 58.3}

Dan 2:1

Daniel 2:1 - Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him - the nature of the dreams Nebuchadnezzar dreamt were such that they troubled him, causing him to be waken from his sleep. Neb sought to understand the fate of his glorious empire and in pride, the revelation in his dreams troubled him. See Dan 2:29

Dan 2:2

Dan 2:2 - Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king - though Daniel and his three friends were found to be 10x wiser than all the wise men of Babylon, Nebuchadnezzar sought to ask counsel of the Babylonian wise men to the exclusion of Daniel and his friends. This perhaps suggests that Nebuchadnezzar may have had a disdain for the Hebrew youths who were foreigners and slaves, or, that he purposely sought to interrogate and test the Babylonian wise men who grossly came up short when compared to the Hebrew youth.

Dan 2:4

Dan 2:4 - tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation - the wise men of Babylon were accustomed to manipulating, misleading and giving false discernment as required. See Dan 2:8, 9

Dan 2:6

Dan 2:6 - But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: - See Dan 2:48, 49

Dan 2:8

Dan 2:8 - I know of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me - the king detected the wise men of Babylon's stalling tactics and warned them that they not seek to gain time, hoping he would forget or change his mind about the dream and its interpretation. See Dan 2:9

Dan 2:9

Dan 2:9 - therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof - Neb was calling the wise men's bluff of being wise men. He demanded the dream be stated which would give assurance that they could also give its interpretation.

Dan 2:10

Dan 2:10 - There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean - The wise men first stated it was impossible for any man upon the earth to perform what the king demanded, and therefore, no ruler nor king would ever make such a request. This sealed the wise men's doom. See Dan 12:10

Dan 2:11

Dan 2:11 - And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods - the heathen Babylonian wise men worshipped many gods, however, none were near at hand nor accessible to answer such a request as made by Neb.

Dan 2:11

Dan 2:11 - dwelling is not with flesh - pagan belief (doctrines of Babylon) that God is not with man but far away (spirit of Antichrist - 1Jo 4:1-3) was held by the Babylonians. Israel was placed in the midst of Babylon to reveal the truth regarding the God of Creation, Emmanuel, God with us. Had Israel been faithful to their trust under King Hezekiah nearly 100years prior to this event, the course of history may have been greatly altered. This spirit of antichrist is found in the Catholic teaching of an Immaculate Conception, where Jesus did not bear fallen man's nature and is therefore, not with us, our Emmanuel. See 2Kin 20; 2Chron 32:31; Isa 7:14; Mt 1:23; Rom 8:3; Heb 2:14-17; Jer 23:23 The visit of these messengers from the ruler of a far-away land gave Hezekiah an opportunity to extol the living God. How easy it would have been for him to tell them of God, the upholder of all created things, through whose favor his own life had been spared when all other hope had fled! What momentous transformations might have taken place had these seekers after truth from the plains of Chaldea been led to acknowledge the supreme sovereignty of the living God! - {PK 344.4} It has been Satan's work always to get men to think that God is as far away as possible.... The great trouble with heathenism was to think that God was so far away.... Then the papacy came in,... and again puts God and Christ so far away that nobody can come near to them.... the false idea that He is so holy that it would be entirely unbecoming in Him to come near to us, and be possessed of such a nature as we have,—sinful, depraved, fallen human nature. Therefore Mary must be born immaculate ... and ...

Christ must... take His human nature in absolute sinlessness from her.... {Grace on Trial, pg 188, R. Wieland}

Dan 2:13

Dan 2:13 - And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Dan and his fellows to be slain - "the image" test is here represented for the people of God. Dan and his friends as wise men were subject to the death decree for all who could not interpret the dream of the image. The Second Angel's Message (Rev 14:8) is here typified.

Dan 2:16

Dan 2:16 - desired of the king that he would give him time - the history of the Tarrying Time (March 22/April 19, 1844) is here marked as Dan requests time from the king to inquire with God about the king's dream

Dan 2:17

Dan 2:17, 18 - Then Dan went to his house, and made the thing known to... that they should desire mercies of the God of heaven - The 4 Hebrew boys sought God in prayer (confession, humiliation, repentance and earnest prayer), bringing a revival of true godliness. See Selected Messages, bk 1, 121-122.

Dan 2:19

Dan 2:19 - Then the secret was revealed unto Dan - Consistent with His word and Self-prescribed method of revelation to men, God revealed the king's secret to His prophet who then made known the dream and its interpretation. See Am 3:7 the LORD, Who removed His hand to uncover the mistake of the 1843 chart, leading to the Midnight Cry, here removes His hand to reveal the mysterious dream and its interpretation to Dan.

Dan 2:19

Dan 2:19 - in a night vision - the significance of mentioning a night vision is that this history parallels the Midnight Cry, when God would remove His hand, bringing an increase of knowledge and causing a revival to occur among the sleeping virgins (Mt 25:5-7). It is also the Midnight Cry in Egypt with the tenth plague and in the time of Esther. The Bible mentions both night visions and open visions. Here are examples of both: Open Vision - Balam (Num 24:2-4); Samuel (1Sam 3:1); Stephen (Act 7:54-60)

Dan 2:21

Dan 2:21 - He changeth the times - This prophetic statement was realized during the Tarrying Time of the Millerite Movement when the LORD removed His hands, revealing the mistake in the time reckoning so that the year 1843 was better understood to be the year 1844.

Dan 2:21

Dan 2:21 - and the seasons - the phrase again refers to the Millerite Movement when Samuel Snow returned to study the ceremonial feasts held in different seasons of the year to better understand the 2300year prophecy. He realized that the prophecy was not to be fulfilled in the sowing time, Spring, but the Autumn, the gathering time.

Dan 2:21

Dan 2:21 - he removeth kings, and setteth up kings - See Act 17:26; Ps 75:6, 7; Contrast: Hosea 8:4

Dan 2:22

Dan 2:22 - He revealeth the deep and secret things - God knows and will bring to light all the secret things men have done.

Dan 2:22

Dan 2:22 - he knoweth what is in the darkness - the darkness is no veil for the Lord Who sees all things at night or in the day light.

Dan 2:22

Dan 2:22 - God dwells in unapproachable light. See Ps 104:1, 2; Heb 1:3; Rom 3:23; 1Tim 6:16

Dan 2:23

Dan 2:23 - O thou God of my fathers - the God of Daniel's forefathers is still with him, though in captivity.

Dan 2:25

Dan 2:25 - Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation - Arioch proudly takes credit for finding one, Daniel, who can make known the king's dream.

Dan 2:27

Dan 2:27 - Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king - Daniel highlights the futility of the so-called wise men of Babylon in conveying the king's request.

Dan 2:28

Dan 2:28 - But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets - True to His word and His prescribed method, the LORD revealed the secret given to Nebuchadnezzar through Dan, His prophet. See Gen 41:16; Am 3:7; Ps 40:16; Ps 119:46

Dan 2:28

Dan 2:28 - and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days - God would reveal the course of world history to Nebuchadnezzar

Dan 2:29

Dan 2:29 - As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter - Nebuchadnezzar sought answers for what would become of his kingdom and God gave him the answer and much more.

Dan 2:30

Dan 2:30 - But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living - in true fashion as a prophet of God, Daniel takes no credit for the revelation but seeks to magnify the God of heaven.

Dan 2:30

Dan 2:30 - but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king - Daniel states that the dream was revealed to him for the sake of himself and his three friends, that they not suffer the wrath of the king and his decree.

Dan 2:30

Dan 2:30 - and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart - the dream was revealed to Daniel so that he might convey the thoughts of the kings mind and give answer to his questioning. Daniel is revealing that the God of heaven knows and understands the thoughts of the kings mind and cares enough about him to give him an answer. Daniel's efforts were 100% evangelistic.

Dan 2:34

Dan 2:34 - a stone was cut out without hands - the stone that is cut out from the mountain of God represents Jesus Christ's Spirit working through the 144,000, a remnant who were separated from the church by the cleaver of truth (Joh 1:12, 13) and whose characters and garments are woven in the loom of heaven and not by men's devising. See Dan 2:45 God has called His church in this day, as He called ancient Israel, to stand as a light in the earth. By the mighty cleaver of truth, the messages of the first, second, and third angels, He has separated them from the churches and from the world to bring them into a sacred nearness to Himself. He has made them the depositaries of His law and has committed to them the great truths of prophecy for this time. Like the holy oracles committed to ancient Israel, these are a sacred trust to be communicated to the world. The three angels of Rev 14 represent the people who accept the light of God's messages and go forth as His agents to sound the warning throughout the length and breadth of the earth. Christ declares to His followers: "Ye are the light of the world." To every soul that accepts Jesus the cross of Calvary speaks: "Behold the worth of the soul: 'Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.'" Nothing is to be permitted to hinder this work. It is the all-important work for time; it is to be far-reaching as eternity. The love that Jesus manifested for the souls of men in the sacrifice which He made for their redemption, will actuate all His followers. - {5T 455.2}

Dan 2:35

Dan 2:35 - became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; an the wind carried them away - The kingdoms of the earth shall be broken and made to be as the chaff. See Lk 3:7; Isa 41:15, 16; Ps 35:5; Mt 3:12 Miller's Dream: Immediately the door opened, and a man entered the room, when the people all left it; and he, having a dirt brush in his hand, opened the windows, and began to brush the dirt and rubbish from the room. - {EW 83.2} I cried to him to forbear, for there were some precious jewels scattered among the rubbish. - {EW 83.3} He told me to "fear not," for he would "take care of them". - {EW 83.4}

Dan 2:35

Dan 2:35 - great mountain - God's Glorious Holy Mountain. See Dan 11:45

Dan 2:35

Dan 2:35 - filled the whole earth - See Mt 28:18-20

Dan 2:37

Dan 2:37 - Thou, O king art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory - Daniel conveys that his God, the God of heaven, is He Who established Neb and his kingdom. Neb is likened to Jesus as a king among kings. Babylon is reckoned as the first world empire, having conquered Egypt, a symbol of the world. (Heb 11:23-26; Ezek 29:1-15, 30:12, 13)

Dan 2:37

Dan 2:37 - hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory - the very things Jesus receives during the Investigative Judgment, Neb received - See Dan 7:13, 14

Dan 2:38

Dan 2:38 - and wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of heaven has He given into thine hand - the only other human spoken of in Scripture given dominion over the beasts of the field and the fowls of heaven was Adam. Nebuchadnezzar typifies both Adam and Jesus. See Jer 27:5-7, 28:14; Gen 1:28; Dan 4:12

Dan 2:38

Dan 2:38 - Thou art this head of gold - Nebuchadnezzar himself is represented as the head of gold because the kingdom would reach its zenith under his reign. Further, he would come to praise and extol the God of heaven, showing the nobility of character he came to exhibit.

Dan 2:39

Dan 2:29 - And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee - though mightier militaristically than Babylon, the Medes and Persians were of baser metal, signifying the decrease in spirituality and receptivity to the gospel of the God of heaven. See Zech 2:8, 9

Dan 2:40

Dan 2:40 - bruise - Rome is described as the nation that would bruise God and His people. This is a fulfillment of Gen 3:15, where the woman's Seed, Jesus, would have His heels bruised upon a Roman cross. See Gen 3:15

Dan 2:41

Dan 2:41 - the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron - the divided kingdom will still have the strength of the iron, meaning, it will still have the authoritative and executive arms of civil government to enforce the dictates of the miry clay, corrupt church craft.

Dan 2:41

Dan 2:41 - the iron mixed with miry clay - iron represents statecraft (Rev 12:5) whereas clay represents church craft (Jer 18:4-6). The two ought not mix unless under a theocracy, where God rules and not men. When these two institutions are melded together by men, what the Bible terms fornication, great oppression will be the result. See GC 108.2-109.2

Dan 2:42

Dan 2:42 - And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken - parts of the final empire represented by the feet of iron and miry clay would be strong due to the iron and fragile due to the clay. The

Dan 2:43

Dan 2:43 - miry - dirty, corrupt, false religion. See Ps 40:2, 69:14; 2Sam 22:43; Job 30:19; Isa 57:20; 2Pet 2:22 Those who profess to be followers of Christ, should be living agencies, co-operating with heavenly intelligences; but by union with the world, the character of God's people becomes tarnished, and through amalgamation with the corrupt, the fine gold becomes dim. When worldly agencies are introduced into the church, it is evident that Satan is carrying out his devices, working through those who profess to be followers of Christ, making them ready at any time to engage with him in disheartening and discouraging those who are faithful, who would stand wholly on the Lord's side. - {RH August 23, 1892 Par. 3}

Dan 2:43 - clay - God's people; the church. See Isa 64:8; Jer 18:6

Dan 2:43

Dan 2:43 - mingle themselves with the seed of men - the Bible foretells the vain attempts of men to unify the once might Roman Empire through intermarriage among the monarchs of the divided kingdoms. However, God foretells that those attempts would be in vain because He would not permit Rome to ever be reunited. The "mingling of the seed of men" prophetically was first seen in the antediluvian world with the intermarriage of the sons of God with the daughters of men. The results of these illicit marriages were that godliness was diminished upon the earth as the hearts of the sons of God were turned away from God and to the lusts of the flesh. Hence "the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that very imagination of the thoughts of his heart was on evil continually" Gen 6:1-5.

Dan 2:44

Dan 2:44 - And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever - a possible allusion to the 2520 scattering of Israel, where God will build His kingdom of sons of god while dwelling under the yoke of desolators until the times of restitution. See Ps 145:11-13; Joh 8:33 "He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man." Mt 13:37. Christ had come, not as a king, but as a sower; not for the overthrow of kingdoms, but for the scattering of seed; not to point His followers to earthly triumphs and national greatness, but to a harvest to be gathered after patient toil and through losses and disappointments. - {CSA 19.6}

Dan 2:45

Dan 2:45 - stone was cut out of the mountain - The mountain of the LORD is said to be that which all the nations flow to, representing God's spiritual body, the church (Mic 4:1, 2). However, the stone is said to be cut from the mountain, representing a remnant which is carved forth to smite the nations (mountains and hills). According to Isa 41:15, 16, the stone is a threshing instrument (see also Jer 51:33; Mic 4:11-13) in the hand of the LORD against the mountains and hills, and will thresh them as chaff for the winds to scatter abroad.

Dan 2:45

Dan 2:45 - without hands - this is a work of God and not of man and is therefore to be interpreted spiritually. The work is wrought by the power of God's Holy Spirit, working upon the hearts and minds of men. See Zech 4:6, 7; Joh 1:12, 13, 3:5-8; Gal 1:1

Dan 2:45

Dan 2:45 - brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold - the remnant of God, the 144,000 are to glorify God and through them, God will overthrow all the kingdoms of the earth. See Jer 51:33; Mic 4:11-13; Jer 51:19-24; Rev 12:5

Dan 2:45

Dan 2:46 - and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure - Daniel assures the king that all that has been revealed and spoken will come to pass. See Gen 42

Dan 2:46

Dan 2:46 - Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him - Nebuchadnezzar falls to his knees and worships Daniel as he would worship one of his pagan idols.

Dan 2:47

Dan 2:47 - The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret - See Isa 46:9-11

Dan 2:48

Dan 2:48 - Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon - See Dan 2:6

Dan 3:2

Dan 3:2 - gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains... - The LORD makes multiple references to the various branches of office and leadership within Babylon who were present for the dedication ceremony of Nebuchadnezzar's image (v2, 3, 27). They all partook of the ceremony, complied with the command to worship the image, and witnessed the miraculous deliverance of God's faithful witnesses. The repetition of the various officers and their participation in the events of the chapter shows God's desire and His efforts made to reveal Himself, demonstrate His power above all other gods, and to grant these men the knowledge necessary for them to make an intelligent decision for or against the truths spoken through His messengers. That Babylon was utterly destroyed a few years after Nebuchadnezzar's death implies the universal rejection of the light granted and the close of God's probation upon the Babylonians.

Dan 3:4

Dan 3:5 - To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages - the universal (global) decree foreshadows the global death decree regarding the worship to the beast, his image and the number of his name. See Rev 13:11-18

Dan 3:5

Dan 3:5 - ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up - As a god/king such as Pharaoh, and Nimrod, Nebuchadnezzar commanded not only civil obedience, but worship. See Ex 32:1-6, 18, 19, 25; Deut 28:36

Dan 3:7

Dan 3:7 - all the people, the nations, and the languages - The Bible shows that Babylon was indeed a world empire with representation from all people, nations and languages.

Dan 3:8

Dan 3:8 - Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews - In times of crisis, the worst behavior comes from men. Native Babylonians who were envious of the promotion and authority granted the Hebrew captives, sought every opportunity to subvert them.

Dan 3:10

Dan 3:10 - all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image - Music was used to ignite the idolatrous worship (see Ex 32:1-25). Further worshipping the image spoke to the following (v12): 1. Acknowledging/Regarding the one who erected it (the King/Papacy) 2. Serving the god of the one who erected the statue (Satan) 3. Worshipping the image itself, a dumb idol.

Dan 3:11

Dan 3:11 - whoso falleth not down and worshipping - The appointed day came, and a vast concourse from all "people, nations, and languages," assembled on the plain of Dura. In harmony with the king's command, when the sound of music was heard, the whole company "fell down and worshipped the golden image." On that eventful day the powers of darkness seemed to be gaining a signal triumph; the worship of the golden image bade fair to become connected permanently with the established forms of idolatry recognized as the state religion of the land. Satan hoped thereby to defeat God's purpose of making the presence of captive Israel in Babylon a means of blessing to all the nations of heathendom. - {PK 506.1}

Dan 3:12

Dan 3:12 - these men have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up - the open defiance of the three Hebrew worthies to King Nebuchadnezzar was driven by their allegiance to the ultimate authority in heaven and earth. It is true that God establishes civil authority and His people are to obey and abide by their rules, but the three boys' acts were not out of rebellion but were works of righteousness, upholding and standing for truth against error: Dan 2:20, 21 Rom 13:1-9 1Pet 2:13-17 Yet, when the commandments of men violate or impinge upon the Laws of God, God's commandments overrule: Ex 20:1-6 Act 4:18-20 Act 5:27-29 Mk 12:13-17 To bow down when in prayer to God is the proper attitude to occupy.... But such an act was homage to be rendered to God alone ..., the Ruler of the universe; and these three Heb refused to give such honor to any idol even though composed of pure gold. In doing so, they would, to all intents and purposes, be bowing to the king of Babylon....

Dan 3:15

Dan 3:15 - Now if ye be ready - Nebuchadnezzar realized that the three Hebrew boys, unlike the other wise men of his kingdom had proven faithful in carrying out all other duties. They were upright and above reproach in all other tasks. Therefore, Nebuchadnezzar thought to give them another opportunity to bow to his statue, rather than cast them immediately into the fiery furnace.

Dan 3:15

Dan 3:15 - who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands? - Nebuchadnezzar's prideful boast turned the contest in a marked way. Like defiant Pharaoh who refused to release God's people, Nebuchadnezzar pitted himself against the God of gods. See 2 Kings 18:35, 19:22

Dan 3:16

Dan 3:16 - we are not careful to answer thee in this matter - "we have no need to answer thee in this matter", in other words, they three Hebrew boys felt no burden to justify themselves or even respond to the challenge. They had proven time and again their fidelity to their God and purposed to remain faithful to the lifestyle they had begun. Nebuchadnezzar was aware of their convictions, they were an open book to be read of all.

Dan 3:17

Dan 3:17 - our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace - See 1Pet 4:12, 13; Isa 43:1, 2

Dan 3:17

Dan 3:17 - and He will deliver us out of thine hand, O king - the Hebrew boys made known to the king the One whom they feared and Who was capable of defying the king and delivering His servants.

Dan 3:18

Dan 3:18 - be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods - as the Levites in the time of Israel's sojourn from Egypt, the three Hebrew worthies purposed in their hearts not to transgress God's commandments, no matter the consequences. See Ex 32:26; Mal 3:3; Ps 119:112

Dan 3:20

Dan 3:20 - he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego - In support of his boast "who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?", Nebuchadnezzar engages the strongest, most valiant forces in his army against God's people. In spite of it all, no weapon formed against them prospered. See Isa 54:17; Dan 3:15, 22

Dan 3:21

Dan 3:21 - and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace - Joh was cast into a caldron of boiling oil; but the Lord preserved the life of His faithful servant, even as He preserved the three Heb in the fiery furnace. As the words were spoken, Thus perish all who believe in that deceiver, Jesus Christ of Nazareth, Joh declared, My Master patiently submitted to all that Satan and his angels could devise to humiliate and torture Him. He gave His life to save the world. I am honored in being permitted to suffer for His sake. I am a weak, sinful man. Christ was holy, harmless, undefiled. He did no sin, neither was guile found in His mouth. These words had their influence, and Joh was removed from the caldron by the very men who had cast him in. [37] - {Conflict and Courage 361.5}

Dan 3:22

Dan 3:23 - the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego - See Ps 9:16, 91:7, 8

Dan 3:23

Dan 3:23 - fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace - But the Lord did not forget His own. As His witnesses were cast into the furnace, the Saviour revealed Himself to them in person, and together they walked in the midst of the fire. In the presence of the Lord of heat and cold, the flames lost their power to consume. - {PK 508.3}

Dan 3:24

Dan 3:24 - three men bound - the image of the three Hebrew boys bound with cords may represent those who are bound by sin (Lk 13:16) and death (Joh 11:44) who, once placed in Jesus' refining fires for purification and deliverance, will be set free.

Dan 3:25

Dan 3:25 - Lo, I see four men loose - The three Hebrew boys represented the Three Angel's Message of: 1. Gospel power to be upright in all aspects of their lives 2. Having a testimony of faithfulness that drew others out of Babylon idolatry 3. Self-sacrificing love for God that was willing to lay down their lives for Him The Three Angel's Message is joined by the Fourth Angel when Christ joins the three boys in the furnace, empowering their testimony!

Dan 3:25

Dan 3:25 - and they have no hurt - Just as Jesus defied what man deems a natural law of nature when He calmed the sea (Mk 4:39), His complete preservation of the Hebrew worthies shows God's omnipotence. See Rev 20:6 While the earth was wrapped in the fire of destruction, the righteous abode safely in the Holy City. Upon those that had part in the first resurrection, the second death has no power. While God is to the wicked a consuming fire, He is to His people both a sun and a shield. Revelation 20:6; Ps 84:11. - {DD 60.2}

Dan 3:25

Dan 3:25 - the form of the fourth is like the Son of God - the Hebrew worthies, through their faithfulness to God, were exalted to the highest ranks in Babylon. They were then granted an audience with the king where they shared with him the love and character of their God. They shared: 1. Their God was the Creator of heaven and Earth 2. Their God devised a plan to redeem all men after the fall of Adam and Eve. Their God would one day dwell among men 3. Their God brought a great flood upon the earth 4. Their God made a covenant to bless all inhabitants of the earth through Abraham 5. Their God delivered Abraham's descendants from the mightiest army on earth 6. Their God routed all the heathen nations before His people 7. Their God placed His people in a land flowing with milk and honey 8. Their God permitted them to go into captivity because of their rebellion. 9. Their God promised to be with His people, even in captivity and would deliver them The knowledge gained through Nebuchadnezzar's interaction with the Hebrew worthies enabled him to discern the character and person of God, the Son of God, as He delivered His people from the fiery furnace.

Dan 3:27

Dan 3:27 - upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them. - Like the redeemed, upon whom the Second Death (Hell Fire - Rev 20:14) has no power, the three Hebrew boys came forth from the flames unscathed. The one thing that changed as they emerged from the furnace was that their bonds were burnt off. So too, the remnant would have gone through the purifying, refining fires of God so that whatever sins that had them bound would be removed (Isa 61:1). See Isa 43:1, 2; Rev 20:6; Mal 3:2-4; Dan 6:23

Dan 3:28

Dan 3:28 - Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word - Nebuchadnezzar blesses the God of the Heb Who revealed the secrets of his dreams and now confounded the king's boastful, prideful and defiant acts. See Dan 2:46-49

Dan 3:28

Dan 3:28 - and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god - The testament of the remnant is their faithfulness to God, even to death. Death before dishonor. See Dan 6:10; Rev 6:9-11, 12:11, 17, 13:7, 20:4

Dan 3:29

Dan 3:29 - Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: - the ruthless king had still not learned his lesson as he issues another unrighteousness decree.

Dan 3:29

Dan 3:29 - there is no other God that can deliver after this sort - See Isa 43:2; Ps 77:13

Dan 3:30

Dan 3:30 - Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, in the province of Babylon - See Ps 27:5, 6, 23:5, 86:17; Jam 4:10

Dan 4:1

Dan 4:1 - Nebuchadnezzar the king, unto all people, nations, and languages - in all the inspired writings of Dan, there is one portion that too is inspired but written by one other than the prophet, Dan 4 - chronicling Nebuchadnezzar's second dream. Similarly, in all of the inspired writings of the Spirit of Prophecy, another than the writings of the prophet is also found, William Miller's 2nd Dream is written in Early Writings. Nebuchadnezzar in Dan 4 typifies the experience of the Adventists in relation to the inspired writings and counsels of William Miller.

Dan 4:3

Dan 4:3 - How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation. - This declaration is in accord with the vision of the Stone cut-out without men's hands in Daniel 2, but in stark contrast to the golden image erected by Nebuchadnezzar in Daniel 3:1. See Dan 2:34, 35, 44, 45

Dan 4:5

Dan 4:5 - I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me - God's second vision and dream to Nebuchadnezzar was specifically for him. God desired to ultimately capture Nebuchadnezzar's heart. See Dan 2:1

Dan 4:6

Dan 4:6 - Nechadnezzar appears to give deference to the wise men of Babylon, before seeking counsel of the Hebrew captives. See Dan 2:1-12

Dan 4:6

Dan 4:6 - make known unto me the interpretation of the dream - God gave Nebuchadnezzar remembrance of the dream, unlike his first dream where he neither remembered the dream, nor could discern its interpretation. See Dan 4:2-5

Dan 4:7

Dan 4:7 - but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof - similar to chapter 2, the wise men, who were not wise at all, could not interpret the king's dream. See Dan 2:10-12, 27, 28

Dan 4:8

Dan 4:8 - and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods - Nebuchadnezzar recognized the spirit of the Holy God abiding in Daniel. See Dan 5:11, 4:18; John 14:16-18

Dan 4:9

Dan 4:9 - O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians - Daniel was appointed head of the wise men and "magicians" of Babylon. See Dan 2:48, 49

Dan 4:10

Dan 4:10 - a tree in the midst of the earth - Nebuchadnezzar is likened to a mighty tree that provides sustenance for all the earth. The Assyrian Empire, which was overthrown by Babylon was also likened to a mighty tree glorious tree, the envy of the world. See Eze 31:3-11

Dan 4:12

Dan 4:12 - the leaves thereof were fair and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all - The inspired writings of William Miller were to be food for Adventist Christians for all generations. See Jer 15:16, 27:6, 7

Dan 4:12

Dan 4:12 - Nebuchadnezzar is compared to both Adam and Jesus, Who Both had dominion over all the beasts of the earth and fowl of the air. See Gen 1:28; Jer 27:6; Dan 2:38

Dan 4:13

Dan 4:13 - I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven - the Watcher and Holy One Who gives the command is an angel sent by God with authority make a decree upon Nebuchadnezzar. See Job 1:6; 1Kin 22:19-22; Ps 103:20; Mk 8:38; Mt 13:41

Dan 4:14

Dan 4:14 - scatter his fruit - the fruit of Nebuchadnezzar's dream gave sustenance to all people and animals in his kingdom. When the tree was cut down and the fruit were scattered, it was as a drought, with no food. So too, when the writings of William Miller, which was fruit/food for the Adventist people was cast aside (1863), it was as a drought for the people of God, a land with no rain.

Dan 4:15

Dan 4:15 - Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth - there was hope that the one humbled and cut-down would bud again with newness of life. See Job 14:7-9

Dan 4:15

Dan 4:15 - iron - severe servitude; judgment by state-craft. See Jer 28:13, 14

Dan 4:15

Dan 4:16

Dan 4:16 - Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him - his heart, thoughts and mind were to be changed from that of a man to that of a beast.

Dan 4:16

Dan 4:16 - let seven times pass over him - $7 \times 360 \text{ days} = 2,520$ literal days the numeric equivalent of the statement must be in terms of literal days rather than prophetic days or years, given the probable lifespan of Nebuchadnezzar.

Dan 4:17

Dan 4:17 - This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones - the language of the Scripture suggests that the decree originates with the watchers and holy ones, the ministering spirits or angels. This need not preclude the counsels coming directly from God and given by the decree of the watchers and holy ones.

Dan 4:18

Dan 4:18 - but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in the - See Dan 4:8, 5:11

Dan 4:19

Dan 4:19 - Belteshazzar was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him - Dan understands the judgments pronounced upon the prideful king, based on his understanding of God's covenant blessings and judgments given by seven times. He ponders the fate of the kingdom and his people during the fore said period of seven years while the king will be driven to the wild beasts.

Dan 4:19

Dan 4:19 - more than a courteous statement, Daniel may have become fond of Nebuchadnezzar and bemoan the fate pronounced by God against the prideful king.

Dan 4:22

Dan 4:22 - for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth - Nebuchadnezzar was a king among kings. His greatness and notoriety was known throughout the earth because God established it so.

Dan 4:23

Dan 4:23 - the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven - the scene describes an Investigative Judgment of the living upon Nebuchadnezzar, similar to that done to Nimrod. See Gen 11:5

Dan 4:34

Dan 4:34 - at the end of the days - the term is used 3x in the book of Dan and the three instances combined reveal a truth for all times: 1. Dan 4:34 - end of Nebuchadnezzar's 2,520yrs of scattering 2. Dan 1:18 - end of a time of testing (3yrs) for the four Hebrew boys 3. Dan 12:13 - Dan was to "stand in his lot" at the end of the days [AD1798, the conclusion of a 2,520 prophecy]

Dan 4:35

Dan 4:35 - And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing - See Isa 40:6-8

Dan 4:35

Dan 4:34 - and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou? - See Job 9:12

Dan 4:36

Dan 4:36 - my counselors and my lords sought unto me - God restored all of Nebuchadnezzar's glory and honor before his subjects. Dan too, who understood the vision and knew the appointed time of Nebuchadnezzar's restoration, was present to honor and serve him "at the end of the days". See Ex 34:24

Dan 4:36

Dan 4:36 - and excellent majesty was added unto me - God prospered Nebuchadnezzar even more than before, since he humbled himself before the Lord.

Dan 4:37

Dan 4:37 - and his ways judgment - God's ways are righteous and true.

Dan 4:37

Dan 4:37 - and those that walk in pride he is able to abase - See Prov 16:18

Dan 5:1

Dan 5:1 - king made a great feast - the feast was the "Last Supper" for Belshazzar, just as the Last Supper in the time of Christ was Judas' last supper before being scattered.

Dan 5:2

Dan 5:2 - his wives and his concubines - daughters of Babylon

Dan 5:3

Dan 5:3 - the golden vessels - the vessels typify the people of God who are vessels for the LORD to use. However, these vessels are being filled with the wine (doctrine) of Babylon. This therefore, typifies the mystery of iniquity, the amalgamation of the holy and the unholy.

Dan 5:4

Dan 5:4 - They drank wine - the cup of Belshazzar's iniquity ran full and very suddenly, judgment would be pronounced upon him. See Joh 13:27

Dan 5:4

Dan 5:4 - gods of gold, silver, brass, iron, wood and stone - The Lord here gives a synopsis of the world empires mentioned in Dan 2 but with an additional empire, represented by wood and stone. 1. Gold - Babylon 2. Silver - Medo-Persia 3. Brass - Greece 4. Iron - Pagan Rome 5. Wood and Stone - Papal Rome (See Hab 2:18, 19; Isa 44:6-20) Note that with each empire represented, they decrease in material value but their pride and arrogance is ever increasing. See Hab 2:19, 20 When the tower had been partially completed, a portion of it was occupied as a dwelling place for the builders; other apartments, splendidly furnished and adorned, were devoted to their idols. The people rejoiced in their success, and praised the gods of silver and gold, and set themselves against the Ruler of heaven and earth. {PP}

Dan 5:6

Dan 5:6 - joints of his loins were loosed - See Isa 45:1, 21:1-4, 13:6-8

Dan 5:10

Dan 5:10 - Now the queen - the person here mentioned was the wife of Nebuchadnezzar, possibly the grandmother of Belshazzar. She is as a wise virgin (a female - a church), having studied the words and ways of the prophet Dan and is able to give counsel to the foolish king.

Dan 5:10

Dan 5:10 - O king, live forever - See Dan 2:29, 6:21

Dan 5:10

Dan 5:10 - let not thy thoughts trouble thee - See Dan 4:19

Dan 5:11

Dan 5:11 there is a man in thy kingdom - Dan had fallen into obscurity because like Rehoboam, Belshazzar had little regard for the wise counsel of the aged advisors of his fathers. Further, Dan may have understood by the prophecy of Jer that the kingdom would fall under Belshazzar (2nd generation after Nebuchadnezzar) and therefore chose to live a simple life of obscurity. See Jer 27:7

Dan 5:11

Dan 5:11 - in whom is the spirit of the Holy God - Belshezzar's grandmother must have been reading from the writings of Dan and of Nebuchadnezzar to have discerned the wisdom in Dan and the testimony born of his spirit. See Dan 4:8, 11, 18

Dan 5:11

Dan 5:11 - light, and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him - See Dan 2:10, 11, 20-23, 26-28, 47, 48

Dan 5:11

Dan 5:11 - thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers - See Dan 2:48

Dan 5:12

Dan 5:12 - an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts were found in the same Dan - See Prov 17:27; Dan 4:9

Dan 5:12

Dan 5:12 - now let Dan be called, and he will shew the interpretation - the wise virgins, typified by the queen mother, counsels the foolish virgins (Belshazaar) to call Dan, or search the writings of Dan so that they may find the interpretation to the present truth messages. 1. The foundations of many generations 2. The old waste places or old desolations - the two desolators (pagan/papal Rom) 3. Repair the breach among God's people 4. Return to the old paths

Dan 5:18

Dan 5:18 - O thou king, the most high God - Daniel is very diligent in identifying the Most High God as the One responsible for establishing the kingdom of Belshazzar's grandfather Nebuchadnezzar and also He Who humbled Nebuchadnezzar. Daniel reminds Belshazzar that Nebuchadnezzar's kingdom was the apex of Babylonian society and it was God Who caused him to prosper. Daniel meticulously reminds Belshazzar of all of these facts which he well knew and yet ignored -showing his rebellion was deliberate and without excuse.

Dan 5:18

Dan 5:5 - Nebuchadnezzar thy father - Belshazzar was the grandson of Nebuchadnezzar and it was prophesied that the empire of Babylon would fall under his reign. See Jer 27:7

Dan 5:20

Dan 5:20 - But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride - See Dan 4:27-30

Dan 5:22

Dan 5:22 - And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this - the condemnation rests heavy upon Belshazzar as Dan emphasizes that his actions were not in ignorance, but with full knowledge of God's workings, having his grandfather's example and that which was required of him. See Jer 51:8, 9

Dan 5:23

Dan 5:23 - hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven - See Hab 2:4

Dan 5:23

Dan 5:23 - brought the vessels of His house before thee... have drunk wine in them - Belshazzar mixed the profane with the sacred (the mystery of iniquity), thereby filling the cup of God's indignation against him.

Dan 5:23

Dan 5:23 - has praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know - See Hab 2:18, 19

Dan 5:23

Dan 5:23 - wood and stone - a possible foretelling of the papacy. See Deut 28:64; Hab 2:18, 19; Isa 44:6-20; Dan 11:38

Dan 5:23

Dan 5:23 - and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified - See Hab 2:20; Job 12:9, 10

Dan 5:24

Dan 5:24 - Then was the part of the hand sent from Him; and this writing was written - on three occasions God writes in the Bible and with each it pertains to the conviction of sin: 1. God issued the 10 Commandments and wrote them with His fingers (Ex 20:1-17, 31:18; Deut 9:10) 2. God's hand writes on the palace walls of Belshazzar, pronouncing judgment upon the king and the Empire 3. Jesus writes in the sand, judging those who judged the woman caught in adultery

Dan 5:25

Dan 5:25 - Mene, Mene - the words of doom regarding Babylon's end are doubled by the Hand of the Lord to affirm that the thing is true and will shortly be brought to pass. See Gen 41:32; Isa 21:9; Rev 14:8

Dan 5:27

Dan 5:27 - Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting. - Watch ye therefore: ... lest coming suddenly He find you sleeping." Mk 13:35, 36. Perilous is the condition of those who, growing weary of their watch, turn to the attractions of the world. While the man of business is absorbed in the pursuit of gain, while the pleasure lover is seeking indulgence, while the daughter of fashion is arranging her adornments—it may be in that hour the Judge of all the earth will pronounce the sentence: "Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.” Dan 5:27. - {GC 491.2} Young and old, God is now testing you. You are deciding your own eternal destiny. Your pride, your love to follow the fashions of the world, your vain and empty conversation, your selfishness, are all put in the scale, and the weight of evil is fearfully against you. You are poor, and miserable, and blind, and naked. While evil is increasing and taking deep root, it is choking the good seed which has been sown in the heart; and soon the word that was given concerning Eli’s house will be spoken to the angels of God concerning you: Your sins “shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering forever.” Many, I saw, were flattering themselves that they were good Christians, who have not a single ray of light from Jesus. They know not what it is to be renewed by the grace of God. They have no living experience for themselves in the things of God. And I saw that the Lord was whetting His sword in heaven to cut them down. Oh, that every lukewarm professor could realize the clean work that God is about to make among His professed people! Dear friends, do not deceive yourselves concerning your condition. You cannot deceive God. Says the True Witness: “I know thy works.” The third angel is leading up a people, step by step, higher and higher. At every step they will be tested. - {1T 189.2}

Dan 5:28 - given to the Medes and the Persians - See Isa 13, 14:4-11; Jer 25:12, 13; 51:11, 28, 29

Dan 5:30

Dan 5:30 - In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain - See Jer 51:28-32

Dan 6:3

Dan 6:3 - Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him - an excellent Spirit was within Daniel and will be within the 144,000. See Dan 5:11, 12

Dan 6:3

Dan 6:3 - and the king thought to set him over the whole realm - Darius saw that Daniel would effectively manage the entire realm, but he also realized the appearance of such a promotion of a Hebrew slave would raise the ire of his enemies.

Dan 6:4

Dan 6:4 - but they could find none occasion nor fault; foreasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him - Dan here typifies the 144,000 who will be able to stand faultless before God's throne of grace. See Ju 24; 2Pet 3:14; Rev 14:5

Dan 6:5

Dan 6:5 - find it against him concerning the law of his God - no artful deception or trickery would Dan fall for because he walked with the LORD and was upright. Therefore, his enemies reasoned that they could cause him to stumble in no ways save to construct a cause against him based on his strict adherence to God and His laws.

Dan 6:6

Dan 6:6 - Then these presidents and princes assembled together - a confederacy against the righteous is here shown. See Ps 83:1-8, 2:1-4; Isa 8:9-14

Dan 6:7

Dan 6:7 - All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, and counsellors, and captains have consulted together - all within the confederacy dissembled and boldly lied, suggesting all, including Dan were in agreement with the unrighteous decree. See Prov 29:5

Dan 6:7

Dan 6:7 - whosever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king - using flattery, the confederacy gained the support and approval of the king.

Dan 6:8

Dan 6:8 - that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians - that the decrees of kings could not be changed speaks of infallibility, a boast of popes and the Church of Rome. See Dan 6:12, 15; Esther 8:8

Dan 6:10

Dan 6:10 - Now when Dan knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his window being opened in his chamber... he kneeled upon his knees - Dan purposed not to deny God in any manner, even if it cost him his life. He refused to change his method of worship despite the decree. To alter his method of worship would have been a sin to him (dissembling - See Gal 2:11-14) of which he purposed not to commit. Glorifying God in life or in death was of utmost importance to Dan. See Mt 10:32, 33; 1Cor 10:31; 2Tim 4:6-8; Phil 1:21; Rev 2:10 Compromise was not an option for Dan and it is not an option for God. Complete integrity is that which glorifies God (Gen 39:7-9; Dan 1:8, 3:16-18). God does not make excuses for compromise. Consider: 1. Moses - Num 20:7-12 2. Sons of God - Gen 6:1-7 The Lord abhors indifference and disloyalty in a time of crisis in His work. The whole universe is watching with inexpressible interest the closing scenes of the great controversy between good and evil. The people of God are nearing the borders of the eternal world; what can be of more importance to them than that they be loyal to the God of heaven? All through the ages, God has had moral heroes; and He has them now,—those who, like Joseph and Elijah and Daniel, are not ashamed to acknowledge themselves His peculiar people. His special blessing accompanies the labors of men of action; men who will not be swerved from the straight line of duty, but who with divine energy will inquire, “Who is on the Lord’s side?” men who will not stop merely with the inquiry, but who will demand that those who choose to identify themselves with the people of God shall step forward and reveal unmistakably their allegiance to the King of kings and Lord of lords. Such men make their wills and plans subordinate to the law of God. For love of Him, they count not their lives dear unto themselves. Their work is to catch the light from the Word, and let it shine forth to the world in clear, steady rays. Fidelity to God is their motto.—Prophets and Kings, 148. - {ChS 236.6}

Dan 6:22 - innocency was found in me - See 2Tim 4:17 Dan was a devoted servant of the Most High. His long life was filled up with noble deeds of service for his Master. His purity of character and unwavering fidelity are equaled only by his humility of heart and his contrition before God. We repeat, The life of Dan is an inspired illustration of true sanctification. - {SL 52.1} Dan typifies the guiltless, spotless character of the 144, 000 at the end of time. See Rev 14:1-5

Dan 6:23 - So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God - See Dan 3:24-27

Contrast Ezek 18:20

Dan 6:25

Dan 6:25 - Then king Darius wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you - Like Nebuchadnezzar, Darius gives testimony to the goodness of the Living God, the God of Daniel. Dan 7:1

Dan 7:1 - Dan had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed - Dan had a night vision as opposed to an "open vision" (1Sam 3:1). That Dan recalled all the details of the dream vividly gives evidence of the inspiration and power of God.

Dan 7:3

Dan 7:3 - And four great beasts came up from the sea - in the vision, the beasts arise from the sea, however, the interpretation of the vision describes nations arising from densely populated areas of the earth. See Dan 7:17, Rev 17:15

Dan 7:3

Dan 7:3 - diverse one from another - the rise of each empire introduces a "New World Order", distinct from its predecessor.

Dan 7:4

Dan 7:4 - lion with eagle's wings - Hos 5:14, 15 describes Assyria as a lion and Babylon as a young lion that come upon the Northern and Southern kingdoms of Israel respectively. God vowed to desolate both kingdoms until they confess their sins and seek His face. Isa 5:26-30 describes Babylon as flying swiftly (as an eagle) upon Israel to desolate. See also Hab 1:6-11

Dan 7:4

Dan 7:4 - man's heart was given to it - See Isa 21:3, 4; Dan 5:1-6

Dan 7:5

Dan 7:5 - And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side - The Medo-Persian Empire fulfills this prophecy. That the bear was raised-up on one side denotes one component of the alliance, namely the Persians, was the stronger of the two. The Persians under Cyrus, and the Medes under Darius (Cyrus' uncle), conquered the Babylonian Empire in 539B.C. and Darius assumed the throne over the province of Babylon at the age of 62 (Dan 5:30, 31). See Isa 21:2

Dan 7:5

Dan 7:5 - and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it - the three ribs in the bear's mouth represent the three mighty empires, directionally all relative to Palestine that would eventually fall to Medo-Persia: 1. Babylon to the north 2. Lydia to the west 3. Egypt to the south

Dan 7:5

Dan 7:5 - and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh - the Watcher and Holy One (Dan 4:13, 17) apparently gives the command to the Medes and Persians to "Arise, devour much flesh", suggesting they should go forth conquering and to conquer many lands. See Rev 6:2

Dan 7:6

Dan 7:6 - like a leopard - the leopard is a patient, observant predator that seeks out the weak among its victims. With an oversized head and jaw, it is able to subdue and drag to its lair, captured prey much larger than itself. See Jer 5:6; Hos 13:7

Dan 7:6

Dan 7:7 - the beast had also four heads - a time elapsed view of Greece which, after the death of its commanding king, Alexander, was divided into four provinces headed by four generals.

Dan 7:6

Dan 7:6 - dominion was given to it - like the Greek Empire, Jesus' Eternal Kingdom will be given dominion. See Dan 7:14

Dan 7:7

Dan 7:7 - great iron teeth - See Dan 2:33, 40

Dan 7:7

Dan 7:7 - stamped the residue with the feet of it - the utter destruction left in the wake of the Roman legions is here described. The fate pronounced upon Israel was shown to Moses prophetically as he describes its destruction at the hands of Tit. See Deut 28:49-68 By the Spirit of Inspiration, looking far down the ages, Moses pictured the terrible scenes of Israel's final overthrow as a nation, and the destruction of Jerusalem by the armies of Rome: "The Lord shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand; a nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favor to the young." - {PP 467.1}

Dan 7:7

Dan 7:7 - diverse from all the beasts before it - Rome was distinct in that: 1. It's religious practices were not to disparage the gods of other nations as inferior, but rather it became the haven for all gods and false worship 2. It grew in time without having to go to war. The fear of the Roman armies was sufficient to cause nations to set-up terms of peace such that those nations became a part of Rome without any bloodshed.

Dan 7:7

Dan 7:7 - ten horns - the ten horns are the 10 divisions of Rome, brought about by the 7 Trumpets of Rev 8.

Dan 7:8

Dan 7:8 - three of the first horns plucked up by the roots - Heruli, Vandals, Ostrogoths

Dan 7:8

Dan 7:8 - plucked up by the root - See Lk 3:9

Dan 7:8

Dan 7:8 - eyes like the eyes of man - God seeks to guide us with His own eyes (Ps 32:8), yet the horn is not led by God's vision. The eyes of men are covetous and never satisfied. See Job 10:4; Prov 27:20; 1Sam 16:7

Dan 7:8

Dan 7:8 - mouth speaking great things - great things are boastful, self-exalting, blasphemous things. See Rev 13:1, 5; Mk 2:7; Lk 5:21; Dan 8:4, 8, 9

Dan 7:9

Dan 7:9 - cast down - to set-up, unlike "cast down" in Dan 8:11 which is the Hebrew word 'shalak' rmah Verb rem-aw' corresponding to (07411) (Aramaic) corresponding to ; to throw, set, (figuratively) assess--cast (down), impose. to cast, throw (Pál) to cast to throw 1a of tribute (fig) (Peil) to be cast to be placed, be set (Ithpél) to be cast

Dan 7:9

Dan 7:9 - the Ancient of days - See Lev 16:2; Ps 90:2, 40:13; Mic 5:2

Dan 7:9

Dan 7:9 - Ancient of Days did sit - I saw a throne, and on it sat the Father and the Son. I gazed on Jesus' countenance and admired His lovely person. The Father's person I could not behold, for a cloud of glorious light covered Him. I asked Jesus if His Father had a form like Himself. He said He had, but I could not behold it, for said He, "If you should once behold the glory of His person, you would cease to exist." Before the throne I saw the Advent people—the church and the world. I saw two companies, one bowed down before the throne, deeply interested, while the other stood uninterested and careless. Those who were bowed before the throne would offer up their prayers and look to Jesus; then He would look to His Father, and appear to be pleading with Him. A light would come from the Father to the Son and from the Son to the praying company. Then I saw an exceeding bright light come from the Father to the Son, and from the Son it waved over the people before the throne. But few would receive this great light. Many came out from under it and immediately resisted it; others were careless and did not cherish the light, and it moved off from them. Some cherished it, and went and bowed down with the little praying company. This company all received the light and rejoiced in it, and their countenances shone with its glory. - {EW 54.2} I saw the Father rise from the throne, [see page 92.] and in a flaming chariot go into the holy of holies within the veil, and sit down. Then Jesus rose up from the throne, and the most of those who were bowed down arose with Him. I did not see one ray of light pass from Jesus to the careless multitude after He arose, and they were left in perfect darkness. Those who arose when Jesus did, kept their eyes fixed on Him as He left the throne and led them out a little way. Then He raised His right arm, and we heard His lovely voice saying, "Wait here; I am going to My Father to receive the kingdom; keep your garments spotless, and in a little while I will return from the wedding and receive you to Myself." Then a cloudy chariot, with wheels like flaming fire, surrounded by angels, came to where Jesus was. He stepped into the chariot and was borne to the holiest, where the Father sat. There I beheld Jesus, a great High Priest, standing before the Father. On the hem of His garment was a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate. Those who rose up with Jesus would send up their faith to Him in the holiest, and pray, "My Father, give us Thy Spirit." Then Jesus would breathe upon them the Holy Ghost. In that breath was light, power, and much love, joy, and peace. - {EW 55.1} I turned to look at the company who were still bowed before the throne; they did not know that Jesus had left it. Satan appeared to be by the throne, trying to carry on the work of God. I saw them look up to the throne, and pray, "Father, give us Thy Spirit." Satan would then breathe upon them an unholy influence; in it there was light and much power, but no sweet love, joy, and peace. Satan's object was to keep them deceived and to draw back and deceive God's children. - {EW 56.1}

Dan 7:9

Dan 7:9 - and his wheels as burning fire - the throne of God is a moveable throne with wheels. See Eze 1, 2

Dan 7:10

Dan 7:10 - a fiery stream issued - the fiery stream that comes from the Father is holy fire, once used in the earthly sanctuary to consume offerings, light the Tabernacle, to burn sweet smelling incense, and used today to purge and purify the Sons of Levi - See Mal 3:3, 4; Isa 6:5, 6; Rev 21:23 CONTRAST Lev 10:1

Dan 7:10

Dan 7:10 - thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him - the angelic host of heaven is here referenced numbering 1,000,000 and 100,000,000. See Rev 5:11

Dan 7:10

Dan 7:10 - ministered unto him - the ministering angels are here referred to. See Heb 1:14; Rev 5:11

Dan 7:10

Dan 7:10 - the judgment was set, and the books were opened - see Rev 20:12; Eccl 3:17; 2Cor 5:10; Hymn #416 He who becomes a partaker of the divine nature will be in harmony with God's great standard of righteousness, His holy law. This is the rule by which God measures the actions of men. This will be the test of character in the judgment. - {COL 314.2} Those who in the judgment are "accounted worthy" will have a part in the resurrection of the just. Jesus said: "They which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, ... are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection." Lk 20:35, 36. And again He declares that "they that have done good" shall come forth "unto the resurrection of life." Joh 5:29. The righteous dead will not be raised until after the judgment at which they are accounted worthy of "the resurrection of life." Hence they will not be present in person at the tribunal when their records are examined and their cases decided. - {GC 482.3}

Dan 7:10

Dan 7:10 - books were opened - The books contain the record of men's lives, good and bad. The sins in our lives, recorded in the books, defile the heavenly sanctuary of God. The records are a re-enactment of the works containing sight, sound, smell, etc. and the motives of the heart. See Jam 2:12; Mal 3:16; Job 13:26; Isa 34:16; Ps 56:8; Eccl 12:14; Act 10:4; 1Cor 4:5; Mat 12:36, 37 Who can measure the responsibilities of the influence of every human agent whom our Redeemer has purchased at the sacrifice of His own life? What a scene will be presented when the judgment shall sit and the books shall be opened to testify the salvation or the loss of all souls! It will require the unerring decision of One who has lived in humanity, loved humanity, given His life for humanity, to make the final appropriation of the rewards to the loyal righteous, and the punishment of the disobedient, the disloyal, and unrighteous. The Son of God is entrusted with the complete measurement of every individual's action and responsibility. To those who have been partakers of other men's sins and have acted against God's decision, it will be a most awfully solemn scene. - {1888 810.2}

Dan 7:11

Dan 7:11 - then - Dan beholds at the time of the Investigative Judgment that has just been introduced in the preceding verses, that the little horn will utter its blasphemies and be given to the burning flames. See 2Thess 2:8

Dan 7:13

Dan 7:13 - Son of Man - See Mt 26:64; Rev 14:14

Dan 7:13

Dan 7:13 - came with the clouds of heaven - See Rev 1:7; Mt 24:30, 31, Mt 25:31, 32

Dan 7:13

Dan 7:13 - clouds of heaven - See Ps 68:17; 104:3

Dan 7:13

Dan 7:13 - came to the Ancient of Days - Jesus, the Son of Man and Son of God stands from His seat next to the Father in the Holy Place (Heb 1:3) to accompany the Father into the Holiest of Holy in heaven. Jesus stands up now to plead and judge His people - See Isa 3:13; Joh 9:39; 2Tim 4:1

Dan 7:13

Dan 7:13 - brought him near before Him - I was shown that the commandments of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ relating to the shut door could not be separated, and that the time for the commandments of God to shine out with all their importance, and for God's people to be tried on the Sabbath truth, was when the door was opened in the most holy place in the heavenly sanctuary, where the ark is, in which are contained the ten commandments. This door was not opened until the mediation of Jesus was finished in the holy place of the sanctuary in 1844. Then Jesus rose up and shut the door of the holy place, and opened the door into the most holy, and passed within the second veil, where He now stands by the ark, and where the faith of Israel now reaches. - {EW 42.1} I saw that Jesus had shut the door of the holy place, and no man can open it; and that He had opened the door into the most holy, and no man can shut it (Rev 3:7, 8); [see page 86. See also appendix.] and that since Jesus has opened the door into the most holy place, which contains the ark, the commandments have been shining out to God's people, and they are being tested on the Sabbath question. - {EW 42.2}

Dan 7:14

Dan 7:14 - And there was given him dominion - of the 4 earthly empires to rule, Greece was noted as being given dominion. See Dan 7:6, 4:34

Dan 7:14

Dan 7:14 - dominion - Sovereign or supreme authority; the power of governing and controlling.

Dan 7:14

Dan 7:14 - and glory - See Rev 5:12

Dan 7:14

Dan 7:14 - a kingdom - the kingdom that Jesus receives is the kingdom of glory, comprised of those who dwell in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. See Lk 17:21; Eph 2:6; Lk 19:12-27 A kingdom can never be truly said to pass into the hands of another power, while either the territory, the capital, or the subjects, are beyond its control. It takes the three: subjects, capital, and territory, to make the full kingdom. The work of the investigative judgment, is Christ making up the number of the subjects, or in other words, taking one-third part of His kingdom; when the judgment is ended, then is given to Him the Holy City, the capital of the kingdom,-the second third part. When He comes to the earth, He takes possession of the territory, and possesses the kingdom in all its fullness forever. The enrollment for the new kingdom is made by Christ in the presence of the Father, while angels are watching. The books are open, the judgment begins; the measuring reed is applied to character. Christ offers the prayers of all His saints,-those whose names are written in the book of life,-together with the fragrant incense of His own righteous life; in this way the heirs of the kingdom are enrolled. {1905 SNH, SSP 204.1} When the four angels let go, Christ will set up His kingdom. None receive the latter rain but those who are doing all they can. Christ would help us. All could be overcomers by the grace of God, through the blood of Jesus. All heaven is interested in the work. Angels are interested. - {SpM 3.2}

Dan 7:14 - Parable of the Nobleman who went to a far country to receive a kingdom refers to the Investigative Judgment where Jesus will receive 1/3 part of His Kingdom before returning to the reap the earth of its harvest. Lk 19:12-27

Dan 7:14

Dan 7:14 - His kingdom that which shall not be destroyed - Jesus shares the throne and kingdom with His Father. See Dan 2:44; Mt 6:13; Heb 1:3; Rev 12:5, 21:22

Dan 7:15

Dan 7:15 - I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body - the great vision of earthly kingdoms and the fearsome court scene caused Daniel much consternation.

Dan 7:15

Dan 7:15 - and the visions of my head troubled me - See Dan 7:28

Dan 7:16

Dan 7:16 - I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things - in his dream, Dan sees a heavenly messenger (Watcher and Holy One perhaps - see Dan 7:5) standing by in vision and inquires of the vision's meaning. See Dan 8:16, 10:11-14

Dan 7:17

Dan 7:17 - though the beasts arise out of the sea in the vision, the explanation speaks of kings of the earth. This lets us know that the imagery of seas is symbolic, representing a densely populated area of the earth. See Rev 17:15

Dan 7:18

Dan 7:18 - But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever - God will restore dominion over the earth to Adam and his descendants which overcome. See Rev 2:26, 20:4, 21:21-27; Dan 7:14, 22, 27

Dan 7:19

Dan 7:19 - the 4th beast, Rome, was different from all the others in that: 1. It could not be described by any animal in nature 2. It had iron teeth, brass nails 3. It destroyed wonderfully See Dan 11:15-28 (Dan 11:24 predicts a 360yr rule of Rome)

Dan 7:19

Dan 7:19 - whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass - the teeth of iron reflect the legs of iron in the vision of Dan 2. Iron and brass, symbols of punishment, reflect the war-like, oppressive nature of this 4th kingdom. See Lev 26:19; Dan 4:15; Gen 4:22; Isa 60:17

Dan 7:20

Dan 7:20 - the ten horns that were in his head - See Dan 7:24

Dan 7:20

Dan 7:20 - a mouth that spake very great things - the mouth speaking great things in blasphemy is what will bring the 4th kingdom down to its demise. See Dan 7:11, 25; Rev 13:1, 5

Dan 7:20

Dan 7:20 - more stout - meaning large, strong, bulky, proud, obstinate. harsh, chief, the leader, strongest; "The Lord of the World" - catholic book that outlines the world's "only" response to terrorism. See Mal 3:13-15

Dan 7:21

Dan 7:21 - made war with the saints - the warfare is in the mind where the enemy has sought to corrupt, distort, pervert our perception of God through cunningly devised fables. See Rev 13:7, 13, 14; 2Cor 10:3-6; Dan 11:33, 34; 2Pet 1:16; Col 2:8; 1Tim 1:4; Titus 1:14; Isa 5:20-24 It has been Satan's work always to get men to think that God is as far away as possible.... The great trouble with heathenism was to think that God was so far away.... Then the papacy came in,... and again puts God and Christ so far away that nobody can come near to them.... the false idea that He is so holy that it would be entirely unbecoming in Him to come near to us, and be possessed of such a nature as we have,—sinful, depraved, fallen human nature. Therefore Mary must be born immaculate ... and ... Christ must... take His human nature in absolute sinlessness from her.... {Grace on Trial, pg 188, R. Wieland} Man will rise no higher than his conceptions of truth, purity, and holiness. If the mind is never exalted above the level of humanity, if it is not uplifted by faith to contemplate infinite wisdom and love, the man will be constantly sinking lower and lower. The worshipers of false gods clothed their deities with human attributes and passions, and thus their standard of character was degraded to the likeness of sinful humanity. [50] - {CC 32.5}

Dan 7:21

Dan 7:21 - and prevailed against them - See Dan 11:33, 34; Rev 13:7

Dan 7:22

Dan 7:22 - Until the Ancient of Days came - the era spoken in a literal sense is Oct 22, 1844 and onward when God the Father would take His seat in judging the Little Horn. See Dan 7:9, 10 In a secondary sense, the Ancient of Days will also, with Christ, "come" forth from the Most Holy Place and bid His Son to go get His Children for the Second Coming. Rev 8:1;

Dan 7:22

Dan 7:22 - judgment was given to the saints of the Most High - Judgment is given in favor of the saints. See Dan 7:27; 1Cor 4:5, 6:2, 3; Rev 19:1, 2, 6:9; judgment: 01780 TWOT - 2674? יִדְּיַן noun Masculine deen corresponding to (01779) (Aramaic) corresp. to :--judgement. judgment duwn Noun Masculine doon from (01777) from ; judgement (the suit, justice, sentence or tribunal); by impl. also strife:--cause, judgement, plea, strife. judgment judgment cause, plea condemnation, judgment dispute, legal suit, strife government Also, judgment will be given to the saints during the Millennium to judge the wicked dead (Rev 11:18). See 1Cor 4:5, 6:2, 3; Mt 19:28; Dan 7:22; Isa 32:1; Psa 122:5, 149:9; Lk 22:30; Rev 20:4 The “judgment” that is given to the saints is discernment, wisdom, counsel, understanding so that they may perceive the lies of the enemy in light of the glorious truths coming forth from Scripture and God’s throne of grace. If we desire to understand the determined cruelty of Satan, manifested for hundreds of years, not among those who never heard of God, but in the very heart and throughout the extent of Christendom, we have only to look at the history of Romanism. Through this mammoth system of deception the prince of evil achieves his purpose of bringing dishonor to God and wretchedness to man. And as we see how he succeeds in disguising himself and accomplishing his work through the leaders of the church, we may better understand why he has so great antipathy to the Bible. If that Book is read, the mercy and love of God will be revealed; it will be seen that He lays upon men none of these heavy burdens. All that He asks is a broken and contrite heart, a humble, obedient spirit. - {GC 570.1}

Dan 7:22 - and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom - the saints will possess the kingdom from Jesus’ Second Coming as they rule with Him on thrones and finally when all things are placed under Jesus’ feet, the wicked are destroyed and the New earth is re-established. See Mt 19:28; Lk 22:30; Dan 7:14, 18, 27

Dan 7:23

Dan 7:23 - shall be diverse from all kingdoms - Rome would be a different kingdom from all other nations before it: 1. Rome would magnify Paganism above all other nations, acknowledging all gods of the nations 2. Rome would promote a strange language 3. Rome would conquer by inheritance, a manner never scene before 4. Rome would morph/adapt such that it would continue to exist without being subdued

Dan 7:23

Dan 7:23 - and shall devour the whole earth - more so than the other world empires that preceded it, this 4th kingdom would engulf the whole world.

Dan 7:23

Dan 7:23 - and shall tread it down - See Dan 8:13

Dan 7:24

Dan 7:24 - And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise - barbarian tribes from Northern Europe that divided the Roman Empire: 1. Franks - French 2. Suevi - Portugues 3. Visigoths - Span 4. Vandals - Extinct 5. Ostrogoths - Extinct 6. Alamani - Germans 7. Heruli - Extinct 8. Anglo Saxons - English 9. Burgundian - Swiss 10. Lombards - Italy

Dan 7:24

Dan 7:24 - the Little Horn, arises after and among the other 10 horns. Therefore, the Little horn must arise after the 10th division of Rome in A.D.476, the Anglo-Saxons

Dan 7:24

Dan 7:24 - he shall be diverse from the first - the other 10 horns were civil powers, the Little Horn was both civil and spiritual

Dan 7:24

Dan 7:24 - he shall subdue three kings - the Little Horn, through the agency of the armies of 7 other horns (kingdoms), would uproot three of the 10 kingdoms of the divided Roman Empire, the Heruli, Ostrogoths and Vandals

Dan 7:25

Dan 7:25 - speak great words against the Most High - The Rev states "And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies". This power is given a mouth to fulfill the works of his father, the devil (Joh 8:44). See Dan 7:11; Rev 13:5; 2Thess 2:3, 4; Eze 28:2-5; John 10:30-33; Mark 2:7; Lk 5:21; Mt 9:2-8

Dan 7:25

Dan 7:25- wear out the saints of the Most High - the power spoken would war against the saints, setting up strongholds, imaginations and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God (2Cor 10:3-5). The saints are said to have the faith of Jesus Christ and keep His commandments. The commandment most controverted is the 4th Commandment and will be the basis for near future persecution. See Rev 14:12, 17:6, 18:20, 24 If we desire to understand the determined cruelty of Satan, manifested for hundreds of years, not among those who never heard of God, but in the very heart and throughout the extent of Christendom, we have only to look at the history of Romanism. Through this mammoth system of deception the prince of evil achieves his purpose of bringing dishonor to God and wretchedness to man. And as we see how he succeeds in disguising himself and accomplishing his work through the leaders of the church, we may better understand why he has so great antipathy to the Bible. If that Book is read, the mercy and love of God will be revealed; it will be seen that He lays upon men none of these heavy burdens. All that He asks is a broken and contrite heart, a humble, obedient spirit. - {GC 570.1}

Dan 7:25

Dan 7:25 - think to change times and laws - the word "think" (cbar - Aram - to bear in mind, hope, intend) is not as the Hebrew word "think" (chashab - Hebr - See Jer 23:35-27) which involves deceptive scheming and plotting, but means that one is thoroughly convinced in one's mind. Therefore, the papal system, being under strong delusion of the enemy of souls, promotes the doctrine that it has the moral right to change God's commandments by "the plentitude of that divine power granted unto it". From the first the great controversy had been upon the law of God. Satan had sought to prove that God was unjust, that His law was faulty, and that the good of the universe required it to be changed. In attacking the law he aimed to overthrow the authority of its Author. In the controversy it was to be shown whether the divine statutes were defective and subject to change, or perfect and immutable. - {PP 69.1} The work of the papacy has been to cause men to transgress the laws, they have changed the ordinance and have broken the everlasting covenant (Isa 24:5). Therefore the earth will languish under a curse from the hand of the Lord. See Isa 24:1-9 The man of sin or lawless one is he who has no regard for law, nor order but believes they are subject to change. Therefore, he thinks to change times and laws at his will. See 2Thess 2:3, 4 But now we come to a fact of remarkable interest. The way having been prepared, as we have just seen, for the doctrine of the change of the Sabbath, and the circumstances of the case demanding its production, it was at this very point brought forward for the first time. Eusebius, the special friend and flatterer of Constantine, was the man who first put forth this doctrine. In his "Commentary on the Pss," he makes the following statement on Ps xcii. respecting the change of the Sabbath:- {1873 JNA, HSF 356.2} "Wherefore as they [the Jews] rejected it [the Sabbath law] the Word [Christ], by the new covenant, TRANSLATED and TRANSFERRED the feast of the Sabbath to the morning light, and gave us the symbol of true rest, viz., the saving Lord's day, the first [day] of the light, in which the Saviour of the world, after all his labors among men, obtained the victory over death, and passed the portals of Heaven, having achieved a work superior to the six-days' creation." 1 {1873 JNA, HSFD 357.1} "On this day, which is the first [day] of light and of the true Sun, we assemble, after an interval of six days, and celebrate holy and spiritual Sabbaths, even all nations redeemed by him throughout the world, and do those things according to the spiritual law, which were decreed for the priests to do on the Sabbath." {1873 JNA, HSFD 357.2} "And all things whatsoever that it was duty to do on the Sabbath, these we have transferred to the Lord's day, as more appropriately belonging to it, because it has a precedence and is first in rank, and more honorable than the Jewish Sabbath."

Dan 7:25

Dan 7:26 - But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion - The judgment of the Little Horn takes place during the Antitypical Day of Atonement where it is condemned to receive the judgements of God and to be burned in the Lake of Fire. See Dan 7:9, 10; Rev 16; 19:19, 20

Dan 7:26

Dan 7:26 - to consume and to destroy it unto the end - the Little Horn will be thrown into the Lake of Fire at the commencement of the Millennium and will continue to burn until it is consumed, after the Millennium, the White Throne Judgment and the destruction of the wicked. See Isa 14:4-11; Rev 16, 18:4-20; 19:20

Dan 7:27

Dan 7:27 - And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High - See Dan 7:22; Lk 12:32 Christ assured the angels that by His death He would ransom many, and would destroy him who had the power of death. He would recover the kingdom which man had lost by transgression, and the redeemed were to inherit it with Him, and dwell therein forever. Sin and sinners would be blotted out, nevermore to disturb the peace of heaven or earth. He bade the angelic host to be in accord with the plan that His Father had accepted, and rejoice that, through His death, fallen man could be reconciled to God. - {PP 65.2} Then joy, inexpressible joy, filled heaven. The glory and blessedness of a world redeemed, outmeasured even the anguish and sacrifice of the Prince of life. Through the celestial courts echoed the first strains of that song which was to ring out above the hills of Bethlehem—"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men." Lk 2:14. With a deeper gladness now than in the rapture of the new creation, "the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy." Job 38:7. - {PP 65.3}

Dan 7:27

Dan 7:27 - whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him - See Dan 2:34, 35, 44

Dan 7:28

Dan 7:28 - cogitation - contemplation; the act of thinking deeply about something - See Dan 7:15

Dan 8:1

Dan 8:1 - Dan's vision appears to be an open vision, not at night as immediately after the vision he fainted. See 1Sam 3:1

Dan 8:2

Dan 8:2 - Shushan - Dan, while living in Babylon, the capital city of that Empire, is taken in vision, forward in time to Shushan, the capital city of Elam (meaning "hidden"), the capital of Medo-Persia. This vision is chronicling the history of Esther (Est 1:5, see also Neh 1:1, 2)

Dan 8:2

Dan 8:2 - province of Elam - Elam was one of the sons of Shem, Noah's son, who was the forefather of the Persians. Elam and Media were the conquerors of Babylon. Elam would be scattered to the four corners of the earth by the four Generals of Greece under Alexander the Great. See Jer 49:34-38

Dan 8:2

Dan 8:1 - river of Ulai - the river Ulai is complimented by its sister the Hiddekel where Dan is given a vision showing the events of world history (chazown) leading to the appearance of Christ in the Most Holy Place (mareh). Jesus is shown standing on the banks of or above either river. Symbolically the river Ulai flows into the sea of glass before the throne of God.

Dan 8:3

Dan 8:3 - there stood before the river a ram - the ram, a symbol of the Medo-Persian empire is the first nation in the tale of nations mentioned in the prophecy. Though Babylon is still the ruling empire, they are passed by for these two reasons: 1. The Babylonian Empire is soon to be taken off the scene as Medo-Persia arises to subdue it 2. Medo-Persia is referenced to give a place holder for defining the Empire, later represented by the daily (the religion of paganism practiced by Medo-Persia and the other empires) under which the prophesied desolations of God' host (His people) and His sanctuary would occur for the starting point of a prophecy spanning 2,300 years.

Dan 8:3

Dan 8:3 - one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last - The Medes and Persians were an alliance of two nations who came together to overthrow Babylon. Persia, the stronger of the two, was given reign over the provinces of Babylon after the death of Darius, uncle of Cyrus the Persian.

Dan 8:4

Dan 8:4 - I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward and southward - The three territories subdued by Medo-Persia were: 1. Westward - Lydia 2. Northward - Babylon 3.

Southward - Egypt The three directions of Medo-Persia's conquest give answer to the meaning of the three ribs in the bear's mouth of Dan 7:5

Dan 8:4

Dan 8:4 - great - the word "great" (Heb. gadal) signifies pride, and self exaltation as opposed to size and strength as used in Dan 7:17. The Bible in this chapter gives reference to the religious tenets, beliefs, and practices of the kingdoms mentioned. The religion of these kingdoms is paganism, which embodies all counterfeit and false religions and are an affront to the One True Creator God. With each successive kingdom, we see greater reproach of the True God and ever increasing "gadal", self-exaltation. gadal signifies self-exaltation whereas rabrab (Dan 7:17) means strength and might [rabrab Adjective rab-rab' from (07229) (Aramaic) from ; huge (in size); domineering (in character):--(very) great (things).] The religion paganism has its origin in the rebellious angel Lucifer who purposed to ascend and exalt his throne of iniquity above God, God's government [throne of righteousness] and all that is called God (Isa 14:12-14; Ps 94:20; 2Thess 2:3-10). The religion was first manifested on earth in Eve, who through deception was convinced to exalt herself and her position above that which was ordained for her (Gen 3:1-6). Since the fall of mankind with Adam's transgression, the seed of sin is in each individual, causing us to naturally be inclined to the self-exalting principles of paganism. Jesus has come to break the chains of sin, suffering and the power of death so that we may be new creatures in Him, having His seed of righteousness within (1Jo 3:9; Act 13:37). God detests all false religions, hence paganism, and will not share His holy name, title, position or glory with counterfeit gods (Isa 42:5-8; 1Sam 5:1-7). Therefore Ecumenism [founded by the Roman Catholic faith] or any Interfaith [spirituality] communion by definition is anti-Christian. God's character has been under trial since the fall of Lucifer and He is zealous to have His name, His works, and His glory revealed in their true light (Hab 1:5-11; Deut 32:27; Joe 2:17; Jer 50:9-14).

Dan 8:5

Dan 8:5 - an he goat - The symbol here introduced is also explained by the angel to Dan. Verse 21: "And the rough goat is the king [or kingdom] of Grecia." Concerning the fitness of this symbol to the Grecian or Madedonian people, Bishop Newton observes that the Macedonians, "about two hundred years before the time of Dan, were called AEgeadae, the goats' people:" the origin of which name he explains, according to heathen authors, as follows: "Caranus, their first king, going with a great multitude of Greeks to seek new habitations in Macedonia, was advised by an oracle to take the goats for his guides to empire: and afterward, seeing a herd of goats flying from a violent storm, he followed them to Edessa, and there fixed the seat of his empire, and made the goats his ensigns, or standards, and called the city AEgae, or the goats' town, and the people AEgeadae, or the goats' people." "The city of Aegeae, or Aegae, was the usual burying-place of the Macedonian kings. It is also very remarkable that Alexander's son by Roxana was named Alexander Aegus, or the son of the goat; and some of Alexander's successors are represented in their coins with goats' horns." - Dissertation on the Prophecies, p.238. {Dan & The Rev by Uriah Smith, pg 168}

Dan 8:5

Dan 8:5- from the west on the face of the earth - The Greeks under Alexander came from Greece which was west of the Persian Empire's lands. Alexander had no navy and therefore his warfare was primarily by land. His armies used ferries where needed to cross large bodies of water.

Dan 8:5

Dan 8:5 - touched not the ground - the goat touched not the ground because of his swift speed in battle and in flight as noted by the 4-wings of Daniel 7:

Dan 8:5

Dan 8:5 - notable horn between his eyes - a reference to Alexander, the commanding King of the Greeks.

Dan 8:8

Dan 8:8 - he goat waxed very great - the exaltation and boastful pride of paganism was increased under Alexander and the Greeks. Believing himself to be the son of Amon Zeus, Alexander and the Greeks scorned all other religions, especially the faith of the Jews.

Dan 8:8

Dan 8:8 - and when he was strong, the great horn was broken - at the pinnacle of the Greek Empire, the notable horn, the primary king, Alexander the Great would be broken.

Dan 8:8

Dan 8:8 - and for it came up four notable ones - of the many generals under Alexander, for notable or prominent Generals arose to divid his kingdom into 4parts towards the fours directions of the compass.

Dan 8:8

Dan 8:8 - toward the four winds of heaven - With the fall of Alexander, four generals rose to prominence and divided the territories of the Greek Empire according to the four directions of the compass: 1. Ptolemy - South (Egypt) 2. Seleucus 3. Lysimachus 4. Cassander

Dan 8:9

Dan 8:9 - (Masculine) - the Daily, Pagan Rome

Dan 8:9

Dan 8:9 - out of one of them - out of the four winds most likely or one of the directions of the compass came forth a little horn. The little horn is a power that arises outside of the bounds of the former Greek Empire and came from the west.

Dan 8:9

Dan 8:9 - waxed exceeding great - the pride, blasphemy and self-exaltation exhibited by the little horn was unsurpassed. The Little Horn here is described by both masculine and feminine pronouns, denoting its representation of two distinct entities. The masculine which arises first (v9, 11), speaks to Pagan Rome and its conquests and exaltation of paganism. The feminine speaks of Papal Rome (v10, 12) and its conquests and exaltation of catholicism.

Dan 8:10

Dan 8:10 - (Feminine) - the Little Horn, Papal Rome

Dan 8:10

Dan 8:10 - even to the host of heaven - the boast of the papacy is that it is the vicar (substitute) and representative of Christ on earth. It's boast of being the God over heaven and earth (and even the under world as evinced through the triple crown tiara) is a demonstration of its exaltation even to the hosts of heaven. See Eze 28:1-3;

Dan 8:10

Dan 8:10 - cast down some of the host and the stars of heaven - the host of heaven speaks of those who dwell in heavenly places through Christ Jesus (Eph 1:3; 2:5, 6; Col 1:12, 13). See Joh 17:14-16; Mt 6:19-21; Lk 21:24; Rev 11:1, 2, 13:5-7

Dan 8:10

Dan 8:10 - stamped upon them - the little horn "treads-down", "wears-out", "makes war and overcomes" the people of God. See Dan 7:25; 8:13; Rev 13:7

Dan 8:11

Dan 8:11 - (Masculine) - the Daily, Pagan Rome

Dan 8:11

Dan 8:11 - Prince of the host - Jesus, Who is Michael is also called the "Great Prince which standeth for the children of thy people" (Dan 12:1, 10:12)

Dan 8:11

Dan 8:11 - by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down - Rome itself disposed of its pagan faith, primarily with Constantine's conversion. As if over night, that which had been established for centuries as the religion of choice was discarded for the new found faith of the emperor. The compromises of the Roman bishops made the transition from paganism to Christianity completely seamless. The principle spoken by Paul - "he taketh away the first, that he may establish the second" (Heb 10:9) is clearly reflected here. The church, so recently persecuted, was now suddenly showered with favors: the construction of magnificent churches (Rome, Constantinople), donations and grants, exemptions from decurial duties for the clergy, juridical competencies for the bishops, and exceptional promotions for Christian officials. Pagans were not persecuted however, and Constantine retained the title of pontifex Maximus. But he spoke of the pagan gods with contempt and forbade certain types of worship, principally nocturnal sacrifices. In AD 331 he ordered an inventory of pagan property, despoiled the temples of their treasure, and finally destroyed a few Eastern sanctuaries on the pretext of immorality. {Encyclopedia Britannica}

Dan 8:11

Dan 8:11 - the daily - "the continual" - See Isa 52:5, 6 - the religion of paganism, a continual affront to the religion of Christ (1Sam 17:10, 43, 45, 46), that embodies every counterfeit religion is historically known for the following characteristics: 1. Polytheistic (many gods) 2. Sun god worship 3. God of fertility (hedonistic worship) 4. Kings were gods 5. Idolatry 6. Man has an immortal soul 7. Communication with the dead 8. Angry gods must be appeased 9. Human sacrifices 10. Man must improve himself through his own merits; work his way up to be like, or become a god The Image of Jealousy that was set-up in the temple of God by the rebellious Houses of Israel, causing God to forsake His tabernacle and the people. (Eze 8:3, 5) Gods of the Nations: Babylon - Bel and Merodach (Jer 50:2) Moab - Chemosh (Jer 48:7) The mystery of iniquity spoken by Paul (2Thess 2:7) had its early appearance in Adventism with the promotion of pantheism, for which Kellogg would become known, as well as the moving away from the Old Paths and adoption of new teachings/philosophies and spurious doctrines. See below: In 1847 O.R.L. Crosier had expressed the view that the “daily” refers to the high-priestly ministry of Christ in the heavenly sanctuary (Psa 50:8). Uriah Smith in 1854 briefly expounded this position (The Review and Herald, March 28, 1854). But Smith, rising to prominence shortly afterward in his Thoughts on the Book of Dan (1873 ed., p. 163), went back to the view of William Miller. Smith’s became the accepted position until the turn of the century, and thus was known as the “old view.” Prescott’s position was similar to Crosier’s but nevertheless acquired the less-than-accurate designation as the “new view.” - {WV 510.6} Comments re Prescott's inspiration: And there was Brother Danls, whose mind the enemy was working; and your mind and Elder Prescott’s mind were being worked by the angels that were expelled from heaven. Satan’s work was to divert your minds that jots and tittles should be brought in which the Lord did not inspire you to bring in. They were not essential. But this meant much to the cause of truth. And the ideas of your minds, if you could be drawn away to jots or tittles, is a work of Satan’s devising. To correct little things in the books written, you suppose would be doing a great work. But I am charged, Silence is eloquence. - {20MR 17.1} I have been instructed that such hasty movements should not have [been] made [such] as selecting you as president of the conference even another year. But the Lord forbids any more such hasty transactions until the matter is brought before the Lord in prayer; and as you have had the message come to you that the work of the Lord resting upon the president is a most solemn responsibility, you had no moral right to blaze out as you did upon the subject of the “Daily” and suppose your influence would decide the question. There was Elder Haskell, who has carried the heavy responsibilities, and there is Elder Irwin and several men I might mention who have the heavy responsibilities. - {20MR 19.3} Where was your respect for the men of age? What authority could you exercise without taking all the responsible men to weigh the matter? But let us now investigate the matter. We must now reconsider whether it is the Lord’s judgment, in the face of the work that has been neglected, of showing your zeal to carry the work even another year. If you should carry the work another year with the help that shall unite with you, there should be a change take place in you and Elder Prescott. And humble your own hearts before God. The Lord will have to see in you a showing of a different experience, for if ever men needed to be reconverted at this present [time], it [is] Elder Danls and Elder Prescott. - {20MR 19.4} Seven men should be chosen that are men of wisdom and through the working of the grace of God [give] evidence [of] a reconversion. For any men who are so blinded that they cannot reason from cause to effect, that they would ignore the men who have borne the responsibilities of the work and these presidents of conferences, [that] men [who] carry the work for over two years should be disregarded and such an impulsive consequence take place that men would neglect the very work kept before them for years—work the cities—and no, or but very little, attention [be] given to the old men for counsel, but proclaim the things they choose to give the people, bears its own testimony of the unsafety of the men to be entrusted with such a grand and wonderful work. - {20MR 20.1} "Many will honestly search the Word for light as those in the past have searched it; and they see light in the Word. But they did not pass over the ground, in their experience, when these messages of warning were first proclaimed. Not having had this experience, some do not appreciate the value of the truths that have been to us as waymarks, and that have made us as a people what we are. They do not make a right application of the Scriptures, and thus they frame theories that are not correct. It is true that they quote an abundance of Scripture, and teach much that is true; but truth is so mixed with error as to lead to wrong conclusions. Yet because they can weave Scripture into their theories, they think they have a straight chain of truth. Many who did not have an experience in the rise of the messages, accept these erroneous theories, and are led into false paths, backward instead of forward." {Ms32-1896.} Paganism foresaw that should the gospel triumph, her temples and altars would be swept away; therefore she summoned her forces to destroy Christianity. The fires of persecution were kindled. Christians were stripped of their possessions and driven from their homes. They "endured a great fight of afflictions." Heb 10:32. They "had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment." Heb 11:36. Great numbers sealed their testimony with their blood. Noble and slave, rich and poor, learned and ignorant, were alike slain without mercy. - {GC 39.2}

Dan 8:11 - See Heb 7:27, 28; 9:28, 11,12; 10:11-13 - the Bible affirms that Jesus need not offer sacrifices daily, because this He did once, when He offered up himself, entered into the tabernacle built by God and sat down until His enemies be made His footstool. It is Roman Catholic doctrine that sacrifices Jesus daily with the Eucharist, crucifying Jesus with each communion. Miller's Dream: - I then saw that among the genuine jewels and coin they had scattered an innumerable quantity of spurious jewels and counterfeit coin. I was highly incensed at their base conduct and ingratitude, and reprov'd and reproach'd them for it; but the more I reprov'd, the more they scattered the spurious jewels and false coin among the genuine. - {EW 82.3} ALPHA APOSTASY: 1901 - the "daily sanctuary" introduced as official position in Adventism (paralleling A.D. 508 when the Daily is taken away) - parallels the first abomination in Eze 8, the "image of jealousy" 1908 - Pantheism takes hold (paralleling A.D. 533 when the amalgamation of church and state occurs with Justinian's decree) which amalgamates the holy with common, suggesting God is in everything - parallels the second abomination in Eze 8, the secret chambers of Spiritualism 1919 - Publishing of W.W. Prescott's book (paralleling A.D.538 with the arrival of the antichrist) and its promotion globally on the "Doctrine of Christ" which is a false christ. This is a neutered christ not having the prophetic word.

Dan 8:11

Dan 8:11 - sacrifice - Heb 7:27, 28; 9:28, 11,12; 10:11-13 - the Bible affirms that Jesus need not offer sacrifices daily, because this He did once, when He offered up himself, entered into the tabernacle built by God and sat down until His enemies be made His footstool. It is Roman Catholic doctrine that sacrifices Jesus daily with the Eucharist, crucifying Jesus with each communion. Dan 8:11

Dan 8:11 - the Hebrew word Ruwm means to lift up, to extol, to elevate, to magnify. As the daily is being magnified (lifted up) by Pagan Rome, we see it is soon to be offered up as a wave offering by the Papal priesthood who will cast down its sanctuary of strength. Paganism would be deposed and the abomination of desolation would take its place, the papacy.

Dan 8:11

Dan 8:11 - place of his sanctuary - the city of Rome, the sanctuary of strength for paganism (the Roman Pantheon). See Dan 11:31

Dan 8:11

Dan 8:11 - Sanctuary (Miqdash) is the term for any shrine or sacred place used in pagan practices, specifically the Pantheon. The church, so recently persecuted, was now suddenly showered with favours: the construction of magnificent churches (Rome, Constantinople), donations and grants, exemptions from decurial duties for the clergy, juridical competences for the bishops, and exceptional promotions for Christian officials. Pagans were not persecuted, however, and Constantine retained the title of pontifex maximus. But he spoke of the pagan gods with contempt and forbade certain types of worship, principally nocturnal sacrifices. In 331 he ordered an inventory of pagan property, despoiled the temples of their treasure, and finally destroyed a few Eastern sanctuaries on the pretext of immorality. {Encyclopedia Britannica - Ancient Rome, The reign of Constantine}

Dan 8:11

Dan 8:11 - The Daily would be deposed when the 7 Barbarian Monarchs forsook paganism as their state sponsored religion for the Abomination of Desolation, the Papacy. The devil in essence took away the first abomination [paganism] to establish the second [papalism] (Heb 10:9)

Dan 8:12

Dan 8:12 - (Feminine) - the Little Horn, Papal Rome

Dan 8:12

Dan 8:12 - host was given him - the host here spoken are the armies of the former pagan Roman kings turned catholic, who pledged their allegiances to the Bishop of Rome and their military strength to oppose his enemies. See Dan 11:31

Dan 8:12

Dan 8:12 - by reason of transgression - the transgression committed by the abomination that maketh desolate (Mt 24:15) is the sin of fornication, where Babylon has had relations with all the kings and the merchants of the earth. See Rev 2:20-22, 18:3, 7-9.

Dan 8:12

Dan 8:12 - cast down the truth to the ground; and it practiced and prospered - the era here marked by truth being cast to the ground and it prospering is none other than the Dark Ages (AD538-1798). It is this era where the workers of iniquity rose up against God's holy covenant and placed God's two witness, the Old and New Testaments in bonds so that they gave their testimony in sackcloth. This era of spiritual darkness came in like a flood to overflow Bible truth and extinguish a knowledge of the True God and His precepts. See Dan 11:31, 32; Rev 12:13-15 The Church of Rome prospered while the Church of God suffered. As truth was cast to the ground, superstition, men's dogmas and rituals of pagan origin all took the helm. The church played upon pagan's belief in an immortal soul by introducing the concept of eternal torment in hell and purgatory. The priests' fables of individuals dead relatives suffering in incessant anguish, day and night until a monetary payment was made for their release and relief, enriched the church while leaving the peoples faith in a loving God bankrupt.

Dan 8:13

Dan 8:13 - one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake - THE TWO SAINTS 1. The two saints in conversation. The angel selected to especially instruct Dan, says to him, in chap. 10:21, "There is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince." Ju, verse 9, has the expression, "Michael the archangel." Archangel is the head over angels, as archbishop is head over bishops. BIAD 119.9 But who is the archangel? The apostle, in 1Thess 4:16, says, "The Lord himself shall descend from Heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God and the dead in Christ shall rise first." And Joh 5:25, proves that it is the voice of the Son of God that wakes the dead to life: "The dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live." These texts prove that Michael is the Son of God. Therefore the Son of God was one of the two heavenly beings. And as there were but two engaged in revealing to Dan the great facts of the vision, the angel Gabriel, mentioned in chapter 8:16; 9:21, is the other heavenly being. How beautifully grand the scene! The Son of God and the angel Gabriel in conversation! One inquires of the other, "How long the vision" concerning Persia, Grecia, and Rome? The other directs the answer to the prophet, "Unto two thousand and three hundred days, then shall the sanctuary be cleansed." BIAD 120.1

Dan 8:13

Dan 8:13 - How long shall be the vision concerning the daily - The vision concerning the daily speaks to the era from whence the daily (paganism) began to tread down both God's host and sanctuary. The COMPLETE answer to this question must include the initial scattering of the Northern and Southern Kingdoms by the Assyrians (723BC and 677BC respectively) which commenced the treading down of both God's host and sanctuary. This duration of 2,520years, is the complete and accurate answer to the question. However, the vision of the chapter deliberately begins with the Medo-Persian Empire to denote the kingdom associated with the starting point of the specific term of the daily (paganism) that would give understanding to the commencement of the partial answer of 2,300 years for which the sanctuary would be trodden down and would be cleansed.

Dan 8:13

Dan 8:13, 14 - The argument that the daily relates to Christ's ministerial work in the sanctuary is aimed at undermining the entire Adventist Church Movement. In truth, we understand that the culmination of the prophecy given in Dan 8:14, the cleansing of the sanctuary leading to the year 1844AD, was the event that catalyzed the Advent Movement. This prophecy has its starting point while the people of God were under pagan rule (the daily) by Medo-Persia, when the third and final decree to rebuild Jerusalem and its temple [(1st decree - Cyrus) Ezz 1:1-4; (2nd decree - Darius) Ezz 4:23, 24, 6:1-12; (3rd decree - Artaxerxes) Ezz 7:11, 25, 26] was issued in 457BC. The prophecy has its conclusion 2,300 years later in 1844AD when Christ entered the Most Holy place in the heavenly sanctuary to cleans it (the Antitypical Day of Atonement). However, the counter argument suggests that the 2,300 year prophecy has its starting point at the time when Christ began His ministerial work in the heavenly sanctuary as High Priest and King of Grace. This date occurred no sooner than 31AD, when Christ returned to heaven after His glorification. If the year 31AD is the actual starting point of the prophecy based on the interpretation "daily sacrifice", and time is projected 2,300 years into the future, we are brought to the year 2,331AD, the counterfeit time for the cleansing of the sanctuary. This theory and teaching destroys the entire Advent Movement, its message/doctrine (the Three Angel's Message) and its interpretations of time and prophecies. The actual answer to the question "how long the vision of the daily (paganism) and transgression of desolation (papalism) treading down God's people and sanctuary" must be viewed in light of the term of the captivity of the two houses of Israel and must encompass the terminus date October 22, 1844 given by the commencement of the cleansing of the sanctuary. Based on the two scatterings of the houses of Israel, separated by 46 years, we conclude that the answer to the question how long, must be 2520 years (seven times) in duration. THE TWO DESOLATIONS 3. The daily sacrifice and the transgression of desolation represent Rome in its pagan and papal forms. Leaving out the supplied words, the text would read, "The daily, and the transgression of desolation." These are two desolating powers; first, paganism, then, papacy. Of these, Paul, in 2Thess 2:3-8, says: "Let no man deceive you by any means; for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition, who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he, as God, sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God. Remember ye not that when I was yet with you I told you these things? And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time. For the mystery of iniquity doth already work; only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming." That which withheld the manifestation of the papacy in Paul's day was paganism. These are the two powers which have desolated the people of God, of which the angel speaks in the vision of Dan 8. BIAD 127.1

Dan 8:13 - daily - THE DAILY CONTRADICTED - The argument that the daily relates to Christ's ministerial work in the sanctuary is aimed at undermining the entire Adventist Church Movement. In truth, we understand that the culmination of the prophecy given in Dan 8:14, the cleansing of the sanctuary leading to the year 1844AD, was the event that catalyzed the Advent Movement. This prophecy has its starting point while the people of God were under pagan rule (the daily) by Medo-Persia, when the third and final decree to rebuild Jerusalem and its temple [(1st decree - Cyrus) Ezz 1:1-4; (2nd decree - Darius) Ezz 4:23, 24, 6:1-12; (3rd decree - Artaxerxes) Ezz 7:11, 25, 26] was issued in 457BC. The prophecy has its conclusion 2,300 years later in 1844AD when Christ entered the Most Holy place in the heavenly sanctuary to cleanse it (the Antitypical Day of Atonement). However, the counter argument suggests that the 2,300 year prophecy has its starting point at the time when Christ began His ministerial work in the heavenly sanctuary as High Priest and King of Grace. This date occurred no sooner than 31AD, when Christ returned to heaven after His glorification. If the year 31AD is the actual starting point of the prophecy based on the interpretation "daily sacrifice", and time is projected 2,300 years into the future, we are brought to the year 2,331AD, the counterfeit time for the cleansing of the sanctuary. This theory and teaching destroys the entire Advent Movement, its message/doctrine (the Three Angel's Message) and its interpretations of time and prophecies. The actual answer to the question "how long the vision of the daily (paganism) and transgression of desolation (papalism) treading down God's people and sanctuary" must be viewed in light of the term of the captivity of the two houses of Israel and must encompass the terminus date October 22, 1844 given by the commencement of the cleansing of the sanctuary. Based on the two scatterings of the houses of Israel, separated by 46 years, we conclude that the answer to the question how long, must be 2520 years (seven times) in duration. THE TWO DESOLATIONS 3. The daily sacrifice and the transgression of desolation represent Rome in its pagan and papal forms. Leaving out the supplied words, the text would read, "The daily, and the transgression of desolation." These are two desolating powers; first, paganism, then, papacy. Of these, Paul, in 2Thess 2:3-8, says: "Let no man deceive you by any means; for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition, who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he, as God, sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God. Remember ye not that when I was yet with you I told you these things? And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time. For the mystery of iniquity doth already work; only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming." That which withheld the manifestation of the papacy in Paul's day was paganism. These are the two powers which have desolated the people of God, of which the angel speaks in the vision of Dan 8. Dan 8:13

Dan 8:13 - transgression of desolation - the little horn" power has "cast truth down to the ground" and developed a "transgression of desolation."20 It has hidden Christ from clear view while professing to worship Him, and has substituted a far-away "Christ" who cannot save from sin. And billions do not know the switch that has happened. {Grace on Trail, R. Wieland pg 199}

Dan 8:13 - Sanctuary trodden under foot - the 2,300 Day Prophecy presents a partial answer to the time period in which the sanctuary would be trodden down by the enemies of God and His people, two desolators (the daily - paganism; and the Abomination of Desolation - Papal Rome from 538AD-1798AD) - Eze 7:21, 22; Isa 63:18. The culmination of the treading down is the rebuilding and cleansing of the sanctuary. The agents by which the sanctuary is trodden under foot are the daily, or continual desolation, and the transgression, or abomination of desolation. Dan. 8:13; 11:31; 12:11. These two desolations, as we have already seen, are paganism and papacy. It is often urged as a sufficient argument against the view of the sanctuary of God in Heaven that such a sanctuary is not susceptible of being trodden under foot. But we answer, This is not impossible, when the New Testament shows us that wicked men (apostates) tread under foot the Minister of the heavenly sanctuary, our Lord Jesus Christ. Heb. 10:29; 8:1, 2. If they can tread under foot the Minister of that sanctuary, then they can tread under foot the sanctuary itself. It is not impossible that the pagan and papal desolations should be represented as treading under foot the heavenly sanctuary, when the same vision represents the little horn as stamping upon the stars; Dan. 8:10; and when it is expressly predicted that the papal power 77 should war against the tabernacle of God in Heaven. Rev. 13:5-7. The language of this vision, that these blasphemous powers should cast down the truth to the ground, stamp upon the stars, and tread under foot the sanctuary and the host, is certainly figurative, as it would otherwise involve complete absurdities. {1872 JNA, S23D 76.2}

Dan 8:13

Dan 8:13 - the host trodden under foot - the conclusion of the first 2,520 time prophecy (723BC-AD1798) gives the point in which the host, God's holy city, His people are gathered together and re-established for the purpose of entering into covenant and becoming God's church triumphant. See Dan 12:7; Rev 11:1

Dan 8:13

Dan 8:13 - trodden under foot - See Isa 10:5, 6, 22:4, 5, 28:18, 58:13, 64:10-12; Mt 5:13; Lk 21:24; Ps 41:9

Dan 8:14

Dan 8:14 - And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed - "The preaching of a definite time for the judgment, in the giving of the first message, was ordered by God. The computation of the prophetic periods on which that message was based, placing the close of the 2300 days in the autumn of 1844, stands without impeachment."{GC 457.1}. See Rev 14:6

Dan 8:14

Dan 8:14 - Unto two thousand three hundred days - Protestantism's rejection of the 1st Angel's Message by April 19, 1844 led to the sounding of the 2nd Angel. However, the rejection was not made fully manifest until Oct 22, 1844, when the wise virgins enter into the Most Holy Place with Christ and the rebellious are left in the Holy Place- "I turned to look at the company who were still bowed before the throne; they did not know that Jesus had left it. Satan appeared to be by the throne, trying to carry on the work of God. I saw them look up to the throne, and pray, "Father, give us Thy Spirit." Satan would then breathe upon them an unholy influence; in it there was light and much power, but no sweet love, joy, and peace. Satan's object was to keep them deceived and to draw back and deceive God's children." - {EW 56.1}

Dan 8:14

Dan 8:14 - then shall the sanctuary be cleansed - the cleansing of the sanctuary is to save us, blotting out all records of sin, not to condemn us. Lev 16:29, 30; Tit 2:11-14; 2Pet 3:9; Dan 7:22 "When the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come." Christ is waiting with longing desire for the manifestation of Himself in His church. When the character of Christ shall be perfectly reproduced in His people, then He will come to claim them as His own. - {COL 69.1} Those who are living upon the earth when the intercession of Christ shall cease in the sanctuary above are to stand in the sight of a holy God without a mediator. Their robes must be spotless, their characters must be purified from sin by the blood of sprinkling. Through the grace of God and their own diligent effort they must be conquerors in the battle with evil. While the investigative judgment is going forward in heaven, while the sins of penitent believers are being removed from the sanctuary, there is to be a special work of purification, of putting away of sin, among God's people upon earth. This work is more clearly presented in the messages of Rev 14. - {GC 425.1} The cleansing of the sanctuary guarantees that there will be a people upon the earth that will receive heaven's blessings and will be purified of all of their sins, partaking of the divine nature while still in sinful flesh, just like our Great Exemplar, Jesus Christ. Faith will embrace this prophetic revelation of God and cooperate with the Great High Priest in His closing work of atonement. See 2Pet 1:4; 1Jo 4:1-3 The sanctuary will be cleansed when God has a people who no longer require the blood for remission of sins because they no longer sin. The first work of the cleansing of the sanctuary is the cleansing of the people. The stream of sin and iniquity "must be stopped at its fountain, in the hearts and lives of the worshippers, before the sanctuary itself could possibly be cleansed." {AT Jones, The Consecrated Way to Christian Perfection, pg 118}. See 1Jo 4:1-3 Had not Jacob previously repented of his sin in obtaining the birthright by fraud, God would not have heard his prayer and mercifully preserved his life. So, in the time of trouble, if the people of God had unconfessed sins to appear before them while tortured with fear and anguish, they would be overwhelmed; despair would cut off their faith, and they could not have confidence to plead with God for deliverance. But while they have a deep sense of their unworthiness, they have no concealed wrongs to reveal. Their sins have gone beforehand to judgment and have been blotted out, and they cannot bring them to remembrance. - {GC 620.1}

Dan 8:14 - the sanctuary (qodesh) refers to a sacred place the Holy Place in heaven. The 2,300 year period extends beyond the cross of Christ, therefore the reference can not be for the sanctuary of the Old Covenant but of the New Covenant in heaven, the sanctuary established upon better promises. With the cleansing of the records of men's sins during the antitypical Day of Atonement, man will stand faultless before God and therefore their own tabernacles, their bodies will also be and remain cleansed. See Heb 8:2, 6; 1Cor 6:19; Ps 56:13 The Cleansing of the Sanctuary = The Cleansing of God's people's hearts. It is the human temple that needs to be cleansed at the end of the 2300 years. We must be cleansed of all of the lies placed upon God, causing Him and His character to be on trial (Judgment hour has come - Rev 14:7) since Satan's rebellion. Mal 3:1-3 Sons of Levi are cleansed 1Pet 2:5 - the holy priesthood of believers Eph 2:19-22 - we are part of God's temple, built upon Apostles and Jesus, the Chief Cornerstone Heb 9: - God's temple not built by [man's] hands Zech 6:12, 13 - The BRANCH will build the temple of the Lord Rev 3:12 - We are pillars in God's temple Ps 23:6, 27:4 - I will dwell in God's house forever: I am a living representative forever of God's house (temple) no matter where I am

Dan 8:14

Dan 8:14 - cleansed - The mystery of Godliness (Mystery of God) is virtually one in the same as the message of the Cleansing of the Sanctuary, the mystery of the Most Holy Place in that the cleansing of the Most Holy Place signifies the hallowing of it and the cleansing of it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel (Lev 16:9). The uncleanness of the COI is caused by sin: So the Mystery of God and the Mystery of the Most Holy Place is the mystery of God's removal of sin from His people so that they are sealed, as if they had never sinned, and never to sin again. - See Dan 9:24 "From the Heb. sadaq, "to be just," "to be righteous." The verb occurs in the form here found (niph'al) only this once in the OT, which may suggest that a specialized meaning of the term is indicated. Lexicographers and translators suggest various meanings, such as "be put right," or "be put in a rightful condition," "be righted," "be declared right," "be justified," "be vindicated." . . . Thus the Heb. sadaq may convey the additional thought that God's character will be fully vindicated as the climax to "the hour of his judgment" (Rev. 14:7), which began in 1844." {SDA Bible Commentary} "Our key text, Daniel 8:14, has a much larger meaning than "cleansed." After the fulfillment of the time in 1844, His sanctuary was to be restored to its rightful place, to be consecrated again, to be purified and returned to the original state. Then the truth of God's government, the gospel itself, would be manifest to the whole universe. Christ will have imparted to "finite man the attributes which man would ever have possessed had he remained loyal and true to God."¹² Then it will be proven that the High Priest has ever had a work dealing with the heart of man and the blotting out of sin from that heart. Then it will be seen that God has not changed but man has been recreated. Then it will be understood that sin in reality is the will to kill God, and righteousness by faith truly equals the will to die to self. Then it will be plain that God has from eternity been willing to lay down His life for His children, and His children will be willing eternally to lay aside their self and proclaim, "worthy is the Lamb." Thus sin will not rise the[...]" {pg 135; Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed; Donald Karr Short}

Dan 8:16

Dan 8:16 - Gabriel - See Lk 1:19 It was Gabriel, the angel next in rank to the Son of God, who came with the divine message to Dan. It was Gabriel, "His angel," whom Christ sent to open the future to the beloved Joh; and a blessing is pronounced on those who read and hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things written therein. Rev 1:3 {Desire of Ages 234.2}

Dan 8:16

Dan 8:16 - understand the vision - vision (mar'eh) Gabriel is commanded by Jesus to make Dan understand the mar'eh vision of Jesus in the Most Holy Place of the sanctuary during the Antitypical Day of Atonement. In light of the mar'eh being juxtaposed with the chawzon, Jesus wants us to see His ministerial work in the Most Holy Place in light of the rise and fall of nations. His work in the Most Holy Place, besides reviewing the books includes blotting out sins and gathering in His everlasting Kingdom (Dan 2:44; 7:14; Isa 6:5-7) There are many precious truths contained in the Word of God, but it is "present truth" that the flock needs now. I have seen the danger of the messengers running off from the important points of present truth, to dwell upon subjects that are not calculated to unite the flock and sanctify the soul. Satan will here take every possible advantage to injure the cause. - {EW 63.1} But such subjects as the sanctuary, in connection with the 2300 days, the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus, are perfectly calculated to explain the past Advent movement and show what our present position is, establish the faith of the doubting, and give certainty to the glorious future.

Dan 8:17

Dan 8:17 - So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face - See Dan 10:9; Rev 1:17

Dan 8:18

Dan 8:18 - but he touched me, and set me upright - the first touch upon Dan. In each instance Dan is praying, making supplication or weakened by the presence (mar'eh) of the LORD. See Dan 9:21, 10:16, 18

Dan 8:19

Dan 8:19 - And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be - God would bring revelation to the prophet and those with understanding, by way of a riddle (Ezek 17:2), the following truths: 1. An identification of God's sacred remnant church movement, the literal continuation of Ancient Israel, identified by the termination of the two individual times of scattering 2. With the identification of God's chosen Movement, we also see God's endorsed methods of study identified by which He will teach knowledge 3. Affirmation of the principle of the establishment of a truth on the testimony two or three witnesses (Deut 19:15; Mt 18:16; 2Cor 13:1) by providing a second witness 1844 being the commencement of the Antitypical Day of Atonement) - See Also Dan 8:14

Dan 8:19

Dan 8:19 - last end of the indignation - conclusion of the second period of scattering (677BC-AD1844) Last implies a First, meaning there are two indignation's a first and a Last (See 1Cor 15:45) The era 1798AD-1844 was a sacred history bounded by the first and last end of the indignation. This era, which marks the conclusion of the two times of scattering, lasting 2,520 years is described as follows by Robert J. Wieland in the book Grace on Trial pg 20.2: "The 1840s movement was the first tie since the apostles that Jesus could find a community of believers on earth whose hearts were knit with His in joyful expectation of His soon return. They were among those of whom Jesus said, "Blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed".

Dan 8:19

Dan 8:19 - for at the time appointed the end shall be - See Dan 11:35, 36

Dan 8:20

Dan 8:20 - The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia - a reference to Darius the Mede and Cyrus the Persian. See Dan 5:31, 1:21

Dan 8:21

Dan 8:21 - And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king - the first and prominent king of the Greek Empire was Alexander.

Dan 8:22

Dan 8:22 - Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power - with the death of Alexander the Great, the empire would be divided among 4 of Alexander's prominent generals. The four divisions would like the glory of the empire once ruled by Alexander.

Dan 8:23

Dan 8:23 - a king of fierce countenance - Cruel and ruthless. See Deut 28:49-55 Jewish Bible translation of verse: "A king with impudent face and understanding deep schemes". A perfect description of the papacy in time.

Dan 8:23

Dan 8:23 - understanding dark sentences - speaking a strange or foreign language - See Num 12:6-8; 1Kin 10:1; Ps 49:1-4, 78:1-5; Prov 1:5-7; Isa 28:11, 29:15, 33:19; Eze 3:4, 5, 28:3-5; Dan 5:12;

Dan 8:23

Dan 8:23 - stand up - come to power. See Dan 11:2, 3

Dan 8:24

Dan 8:24 - but not by his own power - the Papacy would be mighty because arms would stand on his part. Papal Rome was empowered by the civil and military powers of the 7 kingdoms that converted to Catholicism See Dan 8:12, 11:31

Dan 8:24

Dan 8:24 - he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practice - Pagan Rome: The iron fist of Rome subdued all kingdoms in its path and prospered militarily, financially (through taxation) and in culture. Papal Rome: The Church of Rome prospered wonderfully in wealth as its wasteful bishops enriched merchants of the world through their lavish and extravagant living (Rev 13:7, 18:3, 9-13)

Dan 8:24

Dan 8:24 - and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people - Pagan Rome: rose up and persecuted Christ at His birth and death. Pagan Rome also martyred most of the apostles of Christ Papal Rome: Historians estimate that Papal Rome is responsible for the death, imprisonment and torture of 50-100million people who opposed its doctrine over a period of 1,260years

Dan 8:25

Dan 8:25 - through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand - Through cunning and craft, the Papacy brought world monarchs under its control, promoting its agenda of world dominance (Ezekiel. 28:2-5). The subtle and deceptive doctrinal lies introduced by the church of Rome was designed to keep the people in darkness to Scriptural truth while fleecing them of any and all of their wealth. See Mk 14:1; Eph 4:14; 2Cor 4:2

Dan 8:25

Dan 8:25 - craft - deceptive, flattering, underhanded, scheming works. See Ps 12:2, 3 casuistry - the use of clever but unsound reasoning, especially in relation to moral questions; sophistry. The resolving of moral problems by the application of theoretical rules to particular instances.

Dan 8:25

Dan 8:25 - he shall magnify himself in his heart - Pagan Rome: Caesars were revered as gods: building monuments auto their glory (arches, coliseums, sanctuaries for their pagan gods) Papal Rome: The self-exaltation of papal bishops, usurping the glory and praise due God, yet in the name of God, was prophesied by Jesus and the apostles (Mk 13:6; 2Thess 2:3, 4)

Dan 8:25

Dan 8:25 - by peace shall destroy many - Pagan Rome: Rome would wax strong and become the dread of all nations. Kings, rather than be subdued by the Roman armies, bequeathed their kingdoms and subjects to Rome after their death. In so doing, Rome would increase in an unprecedented manner. See Dan 11:24 Papal Rome: Bearing the outward frock of piety but inwardly vicious power mongers, the Roman bishops, ravenously hunted Protestant Christians who dwelt in remote mountain wildernesses in supposed obscure peace and safety. See Rev 12:6; Heb 11:36-38

Dan 8:25

Dan 8:25 - he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes - Pagan Rome: Jesus Christ was tried in a Roman court, condemned by a Roman governor, beaten by Roman guards, nailed to a Roman cross and pierced by a Roman spear Papal Rome: The boast of the pope is that he is Christ's vicar, representative or substitute, but God declares him a mere man who will be broken. See Ezekiel 28:1-10; 2Thess 2:3-9; 2Jo 1:7

Dan 8:25

Dan 8:25 - but he shall be broken without hand - God has assured the utter destruction of the papacy by God Himself. See Dan 7:26; Rev 16 especially 10-21; Rev 18:2-17; 19:20

Dan 9:1

Dan 9:1 - Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes - Darius apparently must have been born of his mother a Mede and Xerxes (Ahasuerus) a Persian.

Dan 9:2

Dan 9:2 - I understand by books - Dan was studying the law and prophets according to the prescribed method of God, line-up-line, precept-upon-precept (Isa 28:9-14) and he discovered that which God foretold would be the term of Israel's captivity. Dan first had to understand God's covenant and its provisions written in the Law, which determined God's blessings and curses (Lev 25:1-7; 26:33-35). He then read the writings of the prophets that gave God's judgments for His people. Jer 25:11; 51:59-64

Dan 9:2

Dan 9:2 - word of the Lord came to Jer the prophet - God would use Jer the prophet and priest to foretell the term of Israel's captivity. See Am 3:7; 2Chron 36:21

Dan 9:2

Dan 9:2 - he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem (See Jer 25:11)- God would base the punishment of Jerusalem according to the terms of the covenant He made with their forefathers. They would serve a year of captivity for every 7th year sabbath of the land they ignored. Israel disobeyed God's command due to: 1. Unbelief, not trusting that God could sustain them every seventh-year that the land would not be cultivated 2. Unbelief and rebellion, in being as the foolish virgins who did not make preparation in heeding the counsels of God to store up food for 6years and to watch God's provision in the 7th year 3. Unbelief and rebellion, in their desire for selfish gain and material wealth (worldliness) that they sought not to loose from letting the land rest every seventh-year. 4. Unbelief and rebellion, in refusing to become the peculiar people and holy nation, an example to the rest of the world, that the Lord desired that they become.

Dan 9:3

Dan 9:3 - seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes - Dan typifies those who seek the Lord during a time of judgment, the typical and antitypical Day of Atonement.

Dan 9:4

Dan 9:4 - And I prayed unto the Lord my God, and made my confession - Dan, after reading the covenant curses and blessings outlined in the Law, saw God's terms for reconciliation and made haste to follow them. See Lev 26:40

Dan 9:4

Dan 9:4 - keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him - Dan acknowledges God as the God of the Everlasting Covenant. He is the One who will deliver His people from their sins. God only asks that we believe Him, that He can keep us from falling and humbly walk with Him (denying ourselves, taking up our cross and following Him). We show our love for Him by: 1. Believing in Him, Believing on Him, and Believing Him. - Joh 6:29 2. Keep His commandments - Joh 14:15, 23

Dan 9:5

Dan 9:5 - We have sinned - As a proxy priest, Dan identifies himself with the people as transgressors of God's law. See Ps 106:6; Lam 1:18

Dan 9:6

Dan 9:6 - Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land - See 2Chron 36:15, 16

Dan 9:7

Dan 9:7 - through all the countries whither thou hast driven them - Dan understood the punishment for rebellion as outlined in the Law and has witnessed its fulfillment first hand. See Lev 26:30-39; 1Kin 8:46-53

Dan 9:8

Dan 9:8 - O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face - See Jer 7:18, 19

Dan 9:10 - Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets - See Deut 4:5-8

Dan 9:11

Dan 9:11 - therefore the curse is poured out upon us - Dan acknowledges God's justice in pouring out the curses upon the rebellious people. He in so doing "accepts the punishment of their iniquity" so that God may be justified when He judges and show mercy unto His people. See Lev 26:41, 42; Ps 51:4

Dan 9:11

Thus, while earnestly seeking to know and understand the truth, Dan was brought into communion with Heaven's delegated messenger. - {Pr 147.2} In answer to his petition, Dan received not only the light and truth which he and his people most needed, but a view of the great events of the future, even to the advent of the world's Redeemer. Those who claim to be sanctified, while they have no desire to search the Scriptures or to wrestle with God in prayer for a clearer understanding of Bible truth, know not what true sanctification is.—(The Sanctified Life, 46-49.) - {Pr 147.3} and sinners would be blotted out, nevermore to disturb the peace of heaven or earth. He bade the angelic host to be in accord with the plan that His Father had accepted, and rejoice that, through His death, fallen man could be reconciled to God. - {PP 65.2}

Dan 9:24 - seal up the vision and prophecy - the term has dual application in that Jesus would come and fulfill (finish/complete) the visions and prophecies written of Him in the Old Testament. However, the visions and prophecies would become sealed once again until the Time of the End when the little book of Dan again would be opened. - See 1. Seed of the Woman: Gen 3:15 2. The apostles received the overflowing oil from heaven that flowed from the beard and garments of Jesus at Pentecost - Ex 29:4-9; 40:9-16; Ps 133:2; Act 2:2-18

Jesus' baptism in the Jordan is being referenced here, when he is baptized with the Holy Spirit, commencing His earthly ministry (Joh 1:32-34, 41; Lk 3:21-23) See also: Ex 3:2; Dan 10:21, 12:1; Judges 13:15-23; Joshua 5:14 The Jews after Jesus pronounced a curse upon reading the words of Dan 9 to understand the time of the appearing of Messiah: "May the bones of the hands and the bones of the fingers decay and decompose, of him who turns the pages of the book of Dan, to find out the time of Dan 9:24-27, and may his memory rot from off the face of the earth forever." Dan 9:25

Dan 9:25 - Messiah the Prince - Messiah (Christ) the Lord (Prince or Ruler). See Lk 4:18; Gen 23:6; Act 2:36; Rev 1:5; Joh 1:41, 20:31; Eze 21:25-27; Mt 16:18; Lk 3:21-23 Anointed one is a designation given to kings, priests and prophets all of whom were anointed with oil in Israel. Jesus, However is unique, filling all three offices by Himself and the Anointed of God, His Son. Ps 45:7; Zech 6:12, 13 The Jews understood that Messiah would be the Son of God and God Himself. Joh again highlights the Jew's offense taken towards Jesus' profession (Joh 5:18), because they did not believe Him to be the Son of God, which He is. See Isa 7:14-16, 9:6, 7; Jer 23:5, 6; Zech 6:12, 13; Joh 8:58, 59 Greek meaning "Anointed One" and synonymous with Latin name, Christ, and Son of God (See Joh 1:41; Mt 16:16). He heard the tread of armies marshaling for war. He heard the voice of mothers and children crying for bread in the besieged city. Dan 9:27

Dan 9:27 - And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week - The Lord would complete the last week of the 70 Week prophecy, determined/cut-off for the Children of Israel where Jesus would cause sacrifices and oblations (offerings) to cease in the midst of the week through His death on the cross and would reserve 3.5 additional years for the COI (Act 13:46). Dan 9:27

*Dan 9:27 - The enemy of souls has waged war against God, His people and the Bible by perverting the understanding of this final week of the 70week prophecy. By taking the 70th week out of the sequence of the preceding 69wks, the Devil has devised a counterfeit doctrine and method of prophetic interpretation branded "futurism". First introduced by the Spanish Jesuit Theologian, Francisco Ribera in 1585, Evangelical Protestants have embraced the doctrine that inspired unbiblical teachings including the Secret Rapture, made popular by books and movies branded the "Left Behind" series. Further the teaching has been embraced by Zionistic Evangelicals based on the following teachings regarding the supposed works of the Antichrist, published by Ribera: *Persecute and blaspheme the saints of God. *Rebuild the temple in Jerusalem. *Abolish the Christian religion. *Deny Jesus Christ. *Be received by the Jews. *Pretend to be God. *Kill the two witnesses of God. *Conquer the world.

Jesus in leaving the temple for the last time pronounced their house was left desolate (Mt 23:37-39) in that the glory of the temple had departed (Ichabod - 1Sam 4:21), the Desire of the Nations had left the temple for the last time [Hag 2:7] 2. The Jews were to be made desolate by Pagan Rome. The hour of hope and pardon was fast passing; the cup of God's long-deferred wrath was almost full. The cloud that had been gathering through ages of apostasy and rebellion, now black with woe, was about to burst upon a guilty people; and He who alone could save them from their impending fate had been slighted, abused, rejected, and was soon to be crucified. When Christ should hang upon the cross of Calvary, Israel's day as a nation favored and blessed of God would be ended. {GC 20.3}

The mar'ah is to complete the "mystery of godliness", Christ in me, the hope of glory (Rev 10:7, Col 1:27)

Dan 10:2

Dan 10:2 - Dan mourns for 3 weeks, not anointing his head with oil, eating (clean) meats, pleasant breads, nor wine as he considers the visions.

Dan 10:3

Dan 10:3 - I ate no pleasant bread - Dan's fast for three weeks included bare necessities. He may have avoided yeast bread, he drank no refreshing grape juice (Isa 65:8), he fasted from all meats, and he refrained from anointing himself with oil and fragrant odours. Dan made preparation to meet God. Within the spans of his fast included the Passover, Feast of Unleavened Bread, and Feast of First Fruits. See Dan 10:4

Dan 10:4

Dan 10:4 - the Hiddekel is the Tigris river. The Tigris and the Euphrates both run into the Persian gulf but tell the story of two different fates.

Dan 10:5

Dan 10:5 - Certain Man that Dan sees is Jesus Christ above the Tigris river. See Rev 2:18, 1:13-15

Dan 10:5

Dan 10:5 - The linen Jesus is clothed in is His own righteousness that he calls us to buy from Him (Rev 3:18, Zech 3:1-4)

Dan 10:5

Dan 10:5 - the fine gold is the perfect faith that is refined in the fires of affliction (1Pet 1:7; Mal 3:2, 3; Isa 48:10, 11)

Dan 10:6

Dan 10:6 - Jesus' eyes are like lamps of fire that see through each person with perfect clarity. Jesus searches the hearts and tries the reigns of every heart to see if it is faithful (Jer 17:10; Ps 139:23, 24; Zeph 1:12). Jesus counsels us to buy of Him eye salve so that we may see our own wretchedness (Rev 3:18). See Rev 19:12

Dan 10:6

Dan 10:6 - and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude - See Rev 14:2; 17:15

Dan 10:7

Dan 10:7 - Dan alone saw the vision - foreshadowing those who are among the wise (Dan 12:10), who have understanding of the chawzon and mar'ah and will be able to stand in the

Day of the Lord and say "low, this is our God, we have waited for Him and He will save us" (Isa 25:9). In contrast the wicked, who have not made preparation will run in fear. This is a foreshadowing and fulfillment of the prophecy of Psa 1:5 that states "Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in judgment nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous" (Ps 1:5). 1Cor 2:14 Paul had the same experience where he saw a vision and those with him were blinded so they could not see but could hear (Act 9:1-8, 22:9). Joh records the experience of the wicked who will run in fear at the appearing of Jesus (Rev 6:13-17) These humble worshipers had not studied the prophecies in vain. But those who held positions as rulers and priests in Israel, though they too had before them the precious utterances of prophecy, were not walking in the way of the Lord, and their eyes were not open to behold the Light of life. - {DA 55.5}

Dan 10:8 - Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength - What is justification by faith?—It is the work of God in laying the glory of man in the dust, and doing for man that which it is not in his power to do for himself. When men see their own nothingness, they are prepared to be clothed with the righteousness of Christ. When they begin to praise and exalt God all the day long, then by beholding they are becoming changed into the same image. What is regeneration?—It is revealing to man what is his own real nature, that in himself he is worthless. - {SpTA09 62.2}

Dan 10:8

Dan 10:8 - for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength - Dan, beholding the glory of God, is humbled to the ground and any goodness he saw in himself (comeliness) was turned to corruption [his pride was zapped]. The same was experienced by the following: Job: Job 42:5, 6 Isa: Isa 6:1-8 Peter: Lk 5:8 Joh: Rev 1:17

Dan 10:9

Dan 10:9 - Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground - See Dan 8:17, 18; Rev 1:17

Dan 10:10

Dan 10:10 - a hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands - the third touch upon Dan. In each instance Dan is praying, making supplication or weakened by the presence (mar'eh) of the LORD. See Dan 8:18, 9:21, 10:16, 18

Dan 10:10

Dan 10:10 - Dan assumes a position of humility as he is about to be shown a vision of startling proportions. The position speaks of the attitude Dan had after having seen Christ in His glory, the gravity of the message and its solemnity. Dan is also approx. 88yrs old and has fasted for 3 weeks so physically he may be taxed as well.

Dan 10:11

Dan 10:11 - Dan was given affirmation by Gabriel of God and the heavenly hosts' love for him when given understanding of the starting point of the 490year and 2,300year prophecies (Dan 9:23). He is spoken to by Gabriel in the same manner in Dan 10:19

Dan 10:11

Dan 10:11 - Eze had a similar experience and when the Spirit of the Lord came upon him, he received strength to stand on his feet and to listen to the word of the Lord. Dan, who is made to stand-up, may typify the righteous who behold Christ in the Most Holy Place and receive the Seal of God. The Holy Spirit, spoken of as the Winds (4 directions), is He who causes the army of corpses in Eze's vision of the valley of dry bones, to come to life, standing upright. The four winds may allude to the 4 Winds of strife in Rev 7 that are being withheld until the Sealing takes place. The winds are likened to an angry horse seeking to break loose which is symbolic of Islam (Rev 9:7-11) Only at the command of Gabriel does Dan stand-up. He would have remained in that position had he not been commanded to stand. We must not run ahead of God but must seek the Lord's commands and promptings - in all our ways acknowledging Him and He will direct our paths (Prov 3:5)

Dan 10:11

Dan 10:11 - Dan's trembling shows the attitude we must have during this Antitypical Time of Judgment. Dan typifies those living in the last days who make preparation to receive the seal of God. Maranatha 240 - The Pure Mk of Truth, August 20 The Lord said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof. Eze 9:4. - {Mar 240.1} Mk this point with care: Those who receive the pure mark of truth, wrought in them by the power of the Holy Ghost, represented by a mark by the man in linen, are those "that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done" in the church. - {Mar 240.2} The class who do not feel grieved over their own spiritual declension, nor mourn over the sins of others, will be left without the seal of God.... - {Mar 240.3} Not all who profess to keep the Sabbath will be sealed. There are many even among those who teach the truth to others who will not receive the seal of God in their foreheads. They had the light of truth, they knew their Master's will, they understood every point of our faith, but they had not corresponding works.... - {Mar 240.4} Not one of us will ever receive the seal of God while our characters have one spot or stain upon them. It is left with us to remedy the defects in our characters, to cleanse the soul temple of every defilement. Then the latter rain will fall upon us as the early rain fell upon the disciples.... - {Mar 240.5} What are you doing, brethren, in the great work of preparation? Those who are uniting with the world are receiving the worldly mold and preparing for the mark of the beast. Those who are distrustful of self, who are humbling themselves before God and purifying their souls by obeying the truth—these are receiving the heavenly mold and preparing for the seal of God in their foreheads. When the decree goes forth and the stamp is impressed, their character will remain pure and spotless for eternity. - {Mar 240.6} Now is the time to prepare. The seal of God will never be placed upon the forehead of an impure man or woman. It will never be placed upon the forehead of the ambitious, world-loving man or woman. It will never be placed upon the forehead of men or women of false tongues or deceitful hearts. All who receive the seal must be without spot before God—candidates for heaven. - {Mar 240.7}

Dan 10:12

Dan 10:12 - Fear - {Heb yare': to reverence, stand in awe - compare phobéō in Rev 14:7}

Dan 10:12

Dan 10:12 - Dan followed a pattern of setting his heart to understand, and chastening himself before the Lord as directed in Leviticus 26:40-46. Dan did not rest on his laurels that he had experienced victory in Christ in chapter with his diet, had beheld visions of God in chapter 2, 7, 8 and 9, had been delivered from the lion's den. He humbly petitioned and sought the Lord through fasting and prayer and the Lord saw his sincerity from day 1, but tested him for 21 days. Ezer also set his heart to understand and do God's will so that he could then teach others (Ezer 7:10).

Dan 10:12

Dan 10:12 - chasten thyself - similar to the apostles in the upper room before Pentecost. Asking forgiveness, confessing sins, and petitioning the Lord with one accord for the power of the Holy Spirit with fasting and prayer.

Dan 10:13

Dan 10:13 - But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me - Satan was attempting to influence Cyrus against keeping his vow to restore and rebuild Jerusalem. See 1Thess 2:18

Dan 10:13

Dan 10:13 - withstood 21 days. Unlike the revelation of the prophecy given to Dan in chapter 9, Satan has made a special effort to thwart the revelation of this final prophecy to Dan. Delaying the work of rebuilding the temple in Jerusalem, Gabriel is stalled in bringing word to Dan of his prayer and the vision he received. Apparently the message is of such grave importance that Satan sought to thwart the writings of Dan chapters 11 and 12.

Dan 10:13

Dan 10:13 - Michael is He "Who is Like God?" See: a. Dan 9:25; 11:22; 10:21; 12:1; Act 3:15; 5:30, 31; Rev 1:5 b. Joh 5:25; 1Thess 4:15; Ju 9 c. Josh 5:13-15; Rev 12:7-9; Lk 10:18 d. Ex 3:1-6 and Rev 15:4 3. Judg 13:8-23

Dan 10:13

Dan 10:13 - one of: as Jesus is 1/3 of the Godhead, He is "One of the Chief Rulers" of heaven.

Dan 10:13

Dan 10:13 - chief - ri'shown {ree-shone'}; first, in place, time or rank (as adjective or noun)

Dan 10:13

Dan 10:13 - princes: a head person (of any rank or class):--captain (that had rule), chief (captain), general, governor, keeper, lord, ruler

Dan 10:14

Dan 10:14 - "thy people" may refer to the Jewish Nation but more specifically the people of God who will go through persecution (time of Christ, White, Red, Black and Pale horse eras).

Dan 10:14

Dan 10:14 - for yet the vision is for many days - the chawzon vision would span a large period of time and Daniel would go to his rest without seeing its fulfillment. See Dan 8:26, 12:13

Dan 10:15

Dan 10:15 - dumb: Dan retained no strength in himself and was unable to speak as stated n

Dan 10:16. Eze however, was made dumb by God so that he would no longer give reproof to the rebellious House of Israel who were to go into captivity (Eze 3:26, 27)

Dan 10:16

Dan 10:16 - One like the similitude of the sons of men sounds like Jesus, who touches Dan's mouth and unloosens his tongue that had become dumb. Rev 1:13

Dan 10:16

Dan 10:16 - touched my lip - Jer 1:9, God touched Jer's lips and placed in his mouth His words. See also Isa 6:6-8 the fourth touch upon Dan. In each instance Dan is praying, making supplication or weakened by the presence (mar'eh) of the LORD. See Dan 8:18, 9:21, 10:10, 18

Dan 10:17

Dan 10:17 - no strength: Dan was shown the chazown vision spanning the history of His people (490yr prophecy) and all the people of God down to the end of time. The rejection of Jesus by His people, the Jews, and their being rejected by God surely caused him great consternation. The plight of the Christian church (detailed in the 4 Horsemen) also gave him great pause. Christ in the Most Holy Place in Judgment must have given him great fear. Lastly, the ultimate battle of the remnant at the end of time, a Time of Trouble like never before, surely made him weary and scared.

Dan 10:18

Dan 10:18 - Then there came again and touched me - the fifth touch upon Dan. In each instance Dan is praying, making supplication or weakened by the presence (mar'eh) of the LORD. See Dan 8:18, 9:21, 10:10, 16

Dan 10:18

Dan 10:18 - appearance (mare'h)

Dan 10:20

Dan 10:20 - Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come - The angels of God in heaven, that have never fallen, do His will continually. In all that they do upon their busy errands of mercy to our world, shielding, guiding, and guarding the workmanship of God for ages—both the just and the unjust—they can truthfully say, “All is thine. Of Thine own do we give Thee.” Would that the human eye could catch glimpses of the service of the angels! Would that the imagination could grasp and dwell upon the rich, the glorious service of the angels of God and the conflicts in which they engage in behalf of men, to protect, to lead, to win, and to draw them from Satan’s snares. How different would be the conduct, the religious sentiment! - {1888 815.2}

Dan 10:21

Dan 10:21 - Scripture of Truth, Jesus is the Word of God (Joh 1:1) and all that will be conveyed by Gabriel will come from Jesus

Dan 10:21

Dan 10:21 - there is none that holdeth with me in these things - Gabriel is the angel to whom the Lord provides prophetic revelation to convey to the prophets. There is none other that can give counsel or can uphold in these things (prophecy) except Michael (Jesus). See Rev 22:6, 9, 19:10, 1:1; 1Pet 3:19; Am 3:7 The humble tasks before us are to be taken up by someone; and those who do them should feel that they are doing a necessary and honorable work, and that in their mission, humble though it may be, they are doing the work of God just as surely as was Gabriel when sent to the prophets. {3T 79.3}

Dan 10:21 - Michael your prince - Michael your Lord or Ruler. The name Michael means "One Who is Like God". Consider Ps 89:6

Dan 11:1

Dan 11:1 - I in the first year of Darius the Mede - the LORD through the angel Gabriel has given men a second witness to the exact time and era for which the narrative of Dan 11 is to commence. Darius the Mede would reign for 2years and then the kingdom would be ceded to his nephew Cyrus. Cyrus is the first of 7 kings under which the three decrees to restore and rebuild Jerusalem would be given. Therefore, Cyrus' reign parallels both 1798 and 1989, Times of the End, and therefore begins a sequence of events that would lead to the 3rd decree, paralleling Oct 22, 1844 and the issuing of a global Sunday Law. Dan's prayer had been offered "in the first year of Darius" (verse 1), the Median monarch whose general, Cyrus, had wrested from Babylonia the scepter of universal rule. The reign of Darius was honored of God. To him was sent the angel Gabriel, "to confirm and to strengthen him." Dan 11:1. Upon his death, within about two years of the fall of Babylon, Cyrus succeeded to the throne, and the beginning of his reign marked the completion of the seventy years since the first company of Heb had been taken by Nebuchadnezzar from their home to Babylon. - {PK 556.4}

Dan 11:1

Dan 11:1 - stood to confirm and to strengthen him - See 2 Tim 4:17

Dan 11:1

Dan 11:1 - to strengthen him - the angel Gabriel is presenting a parallel thought to his strengthening Dan in 10:19. Gabriel is saying I established and strengthened Darius the Mede just as I have strengthened you Dan.

Dan 11:2

Dan 11:2- yet - in addition or in the future. In other words beyond the current king, Cyrus the Persian, there shall stand up three kings...

Dan 11:2

Dan 11:2 - stand up yet three kings in Persia - Medo-Persia, a two horned power, like France, typifies the United States in end time history. Cyrus, the co-conquerer of Babylon with his uncle Darius is presently on the throne in the time of this account (See Dan 10:1). The three kings to stand up after Cyrus are as follows: 1. *Cambyses (530-522B.C.) 2. *False Smerdis (a.k.a. Gaumata or Bardiya [Babylonians language] a usurper 522B.C.) 3. *Darius I (522-486B.C.) 4. Xerxes the Great, Ahasuerus (husband of Esther) 5. Artabanus 6. Artaxerxes 7. Xerxes

Dan 11:2

Dan 11:2 - fourth shall be far richer than they all - The account speaks of Xerxes the Great, Ahaseurus. Consider that Ahaseurus, being persuaded by Haymen, passed the unrighteous decree against the people of God, paralleling the modern Sunday Law.

Dan 11:2

Dan 11:2 - he shall stir up all - the last president of the U.S. will awaken the world to war. See Joe 3:9-21

Dan 11:2

Dan 11:2 - realm of Grecia - Greece, according to the request by the Greeks to see Jesus (Joh 12:21) as recorded in the Desire of Ages, represents the world. Greece also was the popular or worldwide language in the time of Christ. Therefore, the realm of Grecia in the final history of Bible prophecy typifies the world. At this time Christ's work bore the appearance of cruel defeat. He had been victor in the controversy with the priests and Pharisees, but it was evident that He would never be received by them as the Messiah. The final separation had come. To His disciples the case seemed hopeless. But Christ was approaching the consummation of His work. The great event which concerned not only the Jewish nation, but the whole world, was about to take place. When Christ heard the eager request, "We would see Jesus," echoing the hungering cry of the world, His countenance lighted up, and He said, "The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified." In the request of the Greeks He saw an earnest of the results of His great sacrifice. - {DA 621.2}

Dan 11:3

Dan 11:3 - might king shall stand up - Speaking of Alexander the Great of the Greeks who would come against Darius II Conomannus of the Persians at the battle of Arbela (331BC). See Jer 49:34-38

Dan 11:4

Dan 11:4 - his kingdom shall be broken - After conquering the mighty Kingdoms of the world, Alexander would die of Alcohol poisoning.

Dan 11:4

Dan 11:4 - divided toward the four winds of the heavens - the Greek empire would be divided among four prominent generals, Ptolemy (south- Egypt, Lybia, etc.), Lysimachus (west - Thrace, Bithynia), Seleucus (east - Syria), Cassander (north - Greece and Macedon). See Dan 8:5-8

Dan 11:4

Dan 11:4 - toward the four winds of heaven - the four directions of the compass: N-S-E-W

Dan 11:4

Dan 11:4 - and not to his posterity - Alexander's children would not take part in the division of the kingdom but would rather be killed by the jealousy and ambition of rival generals within a few short years of Alexander's death.

Dan 11:5

Dan 11:5 - And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion - Ptolemy to the south would gain additional territories for Egypt (Cyprus, Phoenicia, Caria, Cyrene), but another of Alexander's princes would wax stronger, "above him". Through a series of conquests, Seleucus Nicator would gain the territories to the north and west and would rule 3/4 of Alexander's former territory. (NOTE: the terms "King of the North" and "King of the South" are identifiers for all successive kings mentioned in Dan 11 that occupy the territories once ruled by Ptolemy (south of Palestine) and Seleucus (north of Palestine). As the Bible reveals, the literal is followed by the spiritual, thus the spiritual Kings of the North and South will successively be interpreted as those after the death of Christ whose characters and works coincide with those of the prophetic kings of the north (Babylon) and South (Egypt).

Dan 11:6

Dan 11:6 - Years of warfare between successive kings of the North and South resulted in a truce between Ptolemy Philadelphus to the south (Egypt) and Antiochus II Theos (216-246BC), grandson of Seleucus I to the north. The condition of peace was that Antiochus renounce his wife and sister, Laodicea and their two sons, and marry the daughter of Ptolemy, Berenice.

Dan 11:6

Dan 11:6 - but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her - Once married, Antiochus shortly removes Berenice and restores his first wife, Laodicea. Laodicea, feeling slighted by her husband, has him poisoned and also kills Berenice, her handmaidens, and the son she bore to Antiochus II.

Dan 11:6

Dan 11:6 - and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times - coincidentally and not related, Berenice's father, Ptolemy Philadelphus would die around the time of her death, thus fulfilling the prophecy.

Dan 11:7

Dan 11:7 - But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail: - Ptolemy III Euergetes, brother of Berenice who recently assumed the throne after the death of his father Ptolemy Philadelphus, raised an army and attacked in vengeance the King of the North, Seleucus II Callinicus (246-226BC) and his mother Laodicea. Ptolemy prevailed, killing Laodicea, exiling Seleucus Callinicus and capturing the lands of Syria extending to Babylon and India. Ptolemy returned to his home upon word of an attempted sedition.

Dan 11:8

Dan 11:8 - And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north - As part of his conquest of the King of the North, Ptolemy III plundered 40K talents of silver, precious vessels and 2,500 images of gods, many of which were stolen from Egypt and returned. In gratitude, the Egyptians bestowed upon him the title "Euergetes" or the Benefactor. Ptolemy outlived the exiled Seleucus Callinicus by 4-5yrs who died from the fall from a horse.

Dan 11:10

Dan 11:10 - But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress - Elder son, Seleucus III Ceraunus and younger son, Antiochus III Magnus were zealous for restoring the territories lost to their father. After a brief reign by Seleucus Ceraunus who was poisoned by his generals, his more capable brother Antiochus (“one who shall certainly come, and overflow...”) began a campaign (219BC) and recovered Seleucia and Syria. Antiochus warred against the Egyptian general Nicolas under Ptolemy IV Philopater (222-204BC) and had thoughts of invading Egypt but rather entered into a treaty.

Dan 11:10

Dan 11:10 - overflow and pass through - see Dan 11:40; Isa 8:7, 8

Dan 11:11

Dan 11:11 - And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand - Ptolemy IV Philopater, moved with rage for the threat of his kingdom, met Antiochus at the Battle of Raphia near the Palestine-Egyptian boarder in 217BC. Both drew comparably sized, massive armies, but the defeat was greatly felt by Antiochus. Antiochus’ army was given into the hands of Ptolemy with over 14,000 casualties and 4000 prisoners of war taken as prophesied.

Dan 11:12

Dan 11:12 - And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it - Ptolemy IV, given to feasting and sensuality, did not further pursue he conquest over Antiochus and his territories, though he well could have assumed all of this lands, but drew a treaty and returned to his life of ease and pleasure seeking (“he shall not be strengthened [by it]”). Ptolemy’s heart was especially lifted up during a visit to Jerusalem where he sought to enter the Most Holy Place of the sanctuary and was barred. As a result, in his rage against the Jews, he massacred 40-60K Jews in Alexandria Egypt [“he shall cast down [many] ten thousands].

Dan 11:13

Dan 11:13 - For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches - Antiochus, “after certain years” (16 years), rebuilt his forces and began attacks on the eastern territories of Palestine to regain lost lands. Upon the death of Ptolemy IV (205?BC), his son, age 5 named Ptolemy V Epiphanes (204-180BC) assumed the throne. Cowardly seizing the opportunity to attack Egypt, Antiochus III returned with a greater army in 201BC

Dan 11:14

Dan 11:14 - And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall - This verse is written parenthetically between 13 and 15: Antiochus III Magnus was not the only one considering the opportunity to seize power from Ptolemy. The young Ptolemy’s self-seeking, proud, Prime Minister Agathocles, dissolute in exercising power, drew the hatred of the people in Egypt and revolts commenced. Agatholes, his mother, sister and associates were all killed. Lastly Philip of Macedon, anticipating a successful campaign with Antiochus, deter emend which lands he would seize as joint conqueror of Egypt. However, ROME (“the robbers of thy people” - meaning “the sons of the breakers of thy people” - Dan 2:40, 7:23, 8:11, 23-25; Nah 2:2)), protecting the interest of its allies (Rhodes, Athens, Pergamum, and Egypt) rose up on the side of the infant Ptolemy (Egypt) and subverted the aims of Antiochus and Philip (“they shall fall”). “The robbers of thy people”, Rome, is he who established the vision of Dan 8:11, 25 as the power that would exalt itself against the Prince of Princes (Pagan Rome). Both Pagan and Papal Rome, would break the people of God and would persecute, break, tread-upon and attempt to destroy God’s people in the last days (Modern Rome) yet, “they shall fall”, and none will help him. See Dan 11:45, Rev 18:4-18

Dan 11:14 - robbers of thy people - a reference to Rome, first pagan then Papal, that will trample upon the people once honored by God. See Isa 42:22-25; Mic 2:13; Dan 2:40, 7:23; Nah 2:2; Mt 24:15-20

Dan 11:14

Dan 11:14 - establish the vision - Rome establishes the vision.

Dan 11:15

Dan 11:15 - So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand - Scopas, a famous general in the Egyptian service was dispatched to raise an army (“arms”). He marched into Palestine and reduced all of Judea to the authority of Egypt. Antiochus, returning from a war with Attalus in Lesser Asia, met Scopas near the source of the Jordan and defeated him. Scopas was forced back to Sidon, one of the strongest (“fenced cities”) cities, where for famine, he was forced to surrender

Dan 11:16

Dan 11:16 - But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed - Antiochus Asiaticus would fall to the Rom under Pompey (“he that cometh”). In settling a dispute between two brothers, Hyrcanus and Aristobulus, rivals to the throne of Judea, Pompey of Rome would be offended by Aristobulus and place him in bonds of iron. Pompey marched upon Jerusalem, “the glorious land” in 63BC (Dan 8:9, Ezekiel 20:6, 15; Psa 105:42-45) and in a siege of 3 months, a breach was made in the wall and 12K people were slain. Pompey demolished the walls of the city, transferred several cities from the jurisdiction of Judea and imposed tribute upon the Jews. Therefore, Rome would conquer Syria and Judea. Rome would not however, conquer the religion of the “glorious land”.

Dan 11:16

Dan 11:16 - he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed - a reference to Pagan Rome under Pompey that shall venture to Palestine.

Dan 11:17

Dan 11:17 - He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him - With the death of Ptolemy Auletes (51BC), he left the throne in the hands of his son Ptolemy XII and his eldest daughter Cleopatra, who were to marry and reign jointly when a of age, but be under the guardianship of Pompey of Rome. A quarrel between Pompey and Julius Caesar broke out, resulting in the Battle of Pharsalus, where Pompey lost and fled to Egypt. Ptolemy incited the murder of Pompey and Julius Caesar assumed guardianship over he and Cleopatra. Julius Caesar at length decreed the siblings should jointly share the throne. However, the Chief Minister of State, Pothinus, who expelled Cleopatra, feared the result of her restoration and incited a revolt against Rome. The Egyptians, sought to destroy the Roman fleet, however, Caesar in turn set fire to the Egyptian fleet which mistakenly set building aflame, destroying the Alexandria Library. Antipater the Idumean, joined Caesar with 3000 Jews ("upright ones") in battling the Egyptians and were victorious (47BC). Caesar would bear a son with Cleopatra ("the daughter of women, corrupting her"), yet "she shall not stand [on his side], neither be for him", as she would later join herself to Mark Antony, the enemy of Augustus Caesar, nephew of Julius Caesar.

Dan 11:17

Dan 11:17 - daughter of women, corrupting her - Julius Caesar took Cleopatra as his mistress and had children by her.

Dan 11:18

Dan 11:18 - After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him - Caesar was drawn from Egypt to Asia Minor and Syria where Pharnaces, King of the Cimmerian Bosphorus in 49BC annexed Roman territories and waged war. Caesar immediately landed on the site and won a decisive victory where his famous phrase was coined: "Veni, vidi, vici!" - "I came, I saw, I overcame."

Dan 11:19

Dan 11:19 - Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found - After subduing the remaining portions of Pompey's party, Cato and Scipio in Africa, and Labienus and Varys in Spain, Caesar returned to Rome where he was made dictator for life. But the prophet states "he shall stumble and fall, and not be found", suggesting his death was sudden and unexpected, as a person stumbling in his walk. On the Ides of March, 44BC, Caesar, while sitting on the Senate was struck down by the statue of Pompey by those he had promoted, cared for, and spared, thus he suddenly stumbled and fell.

Dan 11:20

Dan 11:20 - Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle - Octavius ("a raiser of taxes" (Lk 2:1) - meaning 'one who causes an oppressor to pass through'), the adopted nephew of Julius, joined with Mark Antony, and Lepidus to form the Triumvirate government and to avenge the death of Julius Caesar. In short order, Cleopatra would set her affections on Mark Antony against Octavius. Octavius defeated the combined forces of Cleopatra and Antony in 31BC at the Battle of Actium and the following year, Antony and Cleopatra committed suicide (30BC), ending the Ptolemaic dynasty. The Roman Senate conferred on Octavius the title "Augustus". Augustus Caesar brought in an era of peace and prosperity for the Roman Empire. The Empire reached its zenith under his rule and taxation was greatly increased (the census of Augustus for the purpose of taxes is what drew Joseph and Mary to Bethlehem, where Jesus was born, the glory of the kingdom). Augustus Caesar would die peacefully in his bed at the age of 76 in 14AD.

Dan 11:21

Dan 11:21 - And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom - Reluctantly, upon the persistent petitions of his wife Livia, Augustus appointed Livia's son Tiberius from a prior marriage, as his successor. Reigning jointly with Augustus for 2yrs starting in August 12AD, Tiberius, a "vile and deceitful man", upon Augustus' death he declined the uncontested post of Emperor until repeatedly solicited by the servile ("flatteries") of the Senate. Tiberius would never be given the love, respect and "honor of the kingdom" bestowed upon Augustus.

Dan 11:22

Dan 11:22 - And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant - An alternate translation by Thomas Newton: "And the arms of the overflowed shall be overflown from before him, and shall be broken": Tiberius would be killed by suffocation by Macro and Caligula on March 16, 37AD. It is under the rule of Tiberius Caesar that Jesus Christ, Messiah, The Prince ("Prince of the Covenant") would confirm the covenant for the last week of the 70-week prophecy, and be cut-off (crucified) in the middle of the week

Dan 11:23

Dan 11:23 - after the league made with him - March 1, 158B.C. Suffering from oppression by the Syrians, the Jews formed an alliance with Rome, submitting themselves to this dominant power and gaining its protection from other threats. This was a deceitfully strategic move on the part of Rome. Rome, now the only world power, became "strong with a small people", namely the Jews. What was initially a peaceful agreement between "friends" became a not so subtle expectation of the stronger towards the weaker. INTERESTING COINCIDENCE: William Miller understood that the Bible introduces a kingdom or nation only when it is brought into contact with God's people. Believing that Pagan Rome was the first beast of Rev 13, the Beast from the sea, Miller ascribed the associated number 666 to that power. When 666 is added to 158BC, the year Israel enters into league with Rome, we arrive at 508A.D., the year the daily is taken away and the papacy set-up (Dan 12:12).

Dan 11:24

Dan 11:24 - He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: - Rome would grow and subdue the "fattest places" (Isa 25:6, 28:1), not through warfare but through inheritance. The strength and might of the Roman armies caused such fear that nations sought to make peace and establish treaties where Rome would inherit the lands, people, and wealth of provinces upon the death of the reigning monarch. Rome would "inherit" the richest places of the provinces by a means, never before seen. This practice would continue for a prophetic time, or 360 literal years commencing in 31BC with the Battle of Actium, when Rome was established as the seat of government for the empire. The 360years concludes as the sanctuary of strength for the kingdom, the city of Rome, begins to be forsaken as marked by then Emperor Constantine moving the capital of the Empire to Constantinople in 330AD. Thus began the breaking-up of the empire. See Dan 8:11, 11:31

Dan 11:24

Dan 11:24 - even for a time - the Bible forecasts the reign of Pagan Rome for a time, a prophet reference to 360 literal years. See Lev 26:18, 21, 24, 28; Dan 7:25

Dan 11:25

Dan 11:25 - And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him - A reference to the massive conflict of Octavius (King of the North) against Cleopatra and Mark Antony (King of the South) on September 2, 31BC, at the Battle of Actium. Mark Antony, as part of the Triumvirate to avenge Julius Caesar, married Augustus' sister, Octavia, and was sent into Egypt for a campaign. While there, he was enraptured with Cleopatra, forsook his wife Octavia and became espoused to the Egyptian interest. He celebrated triumphs on behalf of Egypt at Alexandria, instead of for Rome, and thus affronted the Roman people so that Augustus had no difficulty engaging Roman sympathies for war against Egypt. Both sides marshaled armies and naval flotillas to rival all time, but Augustus' army and navy were of chosen, proven men of war, whereas Antony enlisted artisans and men of all trades, not necessarily equipped for war. Cleopatra and Antony followed behind their navy in their own galleys. Rather than obeying the counsel of his generals who advised the stronger military campaign by land than the questionable naval array, Antony heeded the voice of Cleopatra who felt her navy was invincible. With the din of war, Cleopatra in fear retreated with her galley and 60 ships of war, and Mark Antony in his infatuation for her, followed behind, forfeiting the war to Octavius. Thus began the dominion of the King of the North from his stronghold of Rome for "a time", 360years, concluding in 330AD.

Dan 11:26

Dan 11:26 - Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain - The soldiers of Antony's army, feeling disgusted and betrayed by Antony's retreat and foolish infatuation for Cleopatra, sided with the Rom. When Antony arrived in Libya he found the garrisons he had placed for the frontier had sided with Octavius, and in Egypt, his troops had surrendered. Antony in rage and despair took his own life.

Dan 11:27

Dan 11:27 - And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed - Though Octavius and Antony once sat at one table as "friends", they were deceptively adversaries, seeking to outdo and overthrow the other. Their hypocrisy ("mischief" and "lies") was a veneer for the heated rivalry they felt. Octavia, Octavius' sister claimed she only married Antony in hopes it would bring their rivalry to an end but to no avail. Octavius emerged as the overwhelming victor in the battle of Actium in 31BC.

Dan 11:27

Dan 11:27 - See Ps 55:21, 62:4

Dan 11:28

Dan 11:28 - Then shall he return to his land with great riches - the verse marks the decisive end of the Greek empire and Octavius' (Augustus Caesar's) return from the battle of Actium with spoils from Egypt. The verse further describes the works of the new empire, Rome in the destruction of Jerusalem in 70AD at the hands of Tit. Though the destruction of Jerusalem was a result of the Nation of Israel's rejection of Christ and was prophesied by both Jesus and Moses (Deut 28:52-55), Rome was the fulfilled of the prophecy. During a siege that lasted almost 7yrs with casualties totaling over 1.5M, the entire city of Jerusalem and temple were leveled without "one stone left upon another" (Mt 24:21). The "holy covenant" (Isa 42:6, 49:8) is embodied in the person of Jesus Christ, Who has been given as a Covenant to both Jew and Gentiles alike. The verse here foretells Pagan Rome's exaltation (gadal - Hab 1:11; Deut 32:27; Joel 2:17) of paganism ("the daily") and its "standing-up" against the Prince of Princes at His birth and His death (Dan 8:11, 25).

Dan 11:28

Dan 11:28 - his heart shall be against the holy covenant - speaking of Pagan Rome, whose religion exalted itself against the knowledge of the true God. It is Pagan Rome that would eventually crucify Christ, the One who establishes the holy Covenant.

Dan 11:28

Dan 11:28 - he shall do exploits, and return to his own land - speaking again of Pagan Rome, Jesus foretells that Pagan Rome would be responsible for leveling Israel (Mt 24:2)

Dan 11:29

Dan 11:29 - at the time appointed - at the conclusion of "the time", the 360 years of unprecedented growth of Pagan Rome as noted in Dan 11:24

Dan 11:29

Dan 11:29 - but it shall not be as the former or as the latter - the honor and prestige of Rome at its end (when being divided) would not be as in the past or as the glory of its successor, Pagan Rome.

Dan 11:30

Dan 11:30 - ships of Chittim - the attack of the Vandals against Pagan Rome (AD428-477)

Dan 11:30

Dan 11:30 - therefore he shall be grieved - The one grieved is Pagan Rome who is being warred upon by the first 3 of 7 trumpets (Rev 8:6-11). He will have intelligence with the papacy who has forsaken the holy covenant. We have no time to lose. Troublous times are before us. The world is stirred with the spirit of war. Soon the scenes of trouble spoken of in the prophecies will take place. The prophecy in the eleventh of Dan has nearly reached its complete fulfillment. Much of the history that has taken place in fulfillment of this prophecy will be repeated. In the thirtieth verse a power is spoken of that "shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant." Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place. [Verses 31-36, quoted.] - {13MR 394.1, 2}

Dan 11:30

Dan 11:30 - have indignation against the holy covenant - the civil government [Rome with the religion of the daily - paganism], under the direction of the Bishops of Rome, confiscated the Bible as a book that was to be despised and not read. Further, church bishops were declared the sole interpreters of scripture and the ones alone who could understand its meaning. So too, the United States under the direction of the Papacy will play the role of "the daily" in persecuting (having indignation against) the people of God.

Dan 11:30

Dan 11:30 - have intelligence - policy (politics); craft; to have clandestine, covert relations with kings and influential people of the earth. See Dan 8:25

Dan 11:30

Dan 11:30 - them that forsake the holy covenant - the reference is to the papacy that had forsaken God's teachings and His laws found in the Bible [God's Two Witnesses] for the doctrines of men (traditions). As affirmed in the Rev, the church of Thyatira is said to cause God's people to commit fornication and worship idols.

Dan 11:31

Dan 11:31 - arms shall stand on his part - the military support of the 7 kings of Rome are the arms (host) that stand on the papacy's part. A transition in the narrative occurs here where the subject, the King of the North, ceases to be Pagan Rome but becomes spiritual Rome or the Papacy (1Cor 15:46). See Dan 8:12

Dan 11:31

Dan 11:31 - they shall pollute - the subject "they", are the arms, or the former pagan kings and their militaries turned catholic

Dan 11:31

Dan 11:31 - pollute the sanctuary of strength - the Pantheon would be deposed as paganism was taken away and the abomination of desolation exalted. See Dan 8:11, 12

Dan 11:31

Dan 11:31 - take away the daily - {Heb - cuwr, to call back, pluck away, put down} paganism will be deposed by the "arms". See Dan 8:11

Dan 11:32

Dan 11:32 - such as do wickedly against the covenant - speaking of the civil authorities who by their legislation forbade access to the Bible and would be the "arms" of enforcement for papal prelates who pronounced men, women, boys and girls offenders and heretics.

Dan 11:32

Dan 11:32 - corrupt by flatteries - the work of the papacy [Jesuit Order] is as a singing harlot (Isa 23:15-17) who uses flattery to gain favor with kings and merchants. Her wisdom is earthly, sensual, devilish (Jam 3:14, 15) as she uses subtlety to achieve her ends. See Dan 11:34; Prov 6:24-35, 7:5-27; Rev 2:20; 2Kin 9:22, 30, 31

Dan 11:32

Dan 11:31 - people that do know their God shall be strong and do exploits - See Rev 2:19; Jude 1:3 referring to the Church in the Wilderness and those who would come forth from the corrupt church of Rome to form a Protestant Reformation, that stood for the truth and opposed the corruptions of Rome (Rev 12:6, 13-17). These faithful people included: The Waldenses The Albigenses Reformers: Wycliffe, Huss, Luther; Tyndale; Calvin; Zwingly;

Malangthon

Dan 11:33

Dan 11:33 - they that understand among the people - "the wise". See Dan 12:3, 10

Dan 11:33

Dan 11:33 - shall instruct many - see Dan 12:3; 10

Dan 11:33

Dan 11:33 - shall fall by the sword - See Rev 6:9-11 Every indignity, reproach, and cruelty that Satan could instigate human hearts to devise, has been visited upon the followers of Jesus. And it will be again fulfilled in a marked manner; for the carnal heart is still at enmity with the law of God, and will not be subject to its commands. The world is no more in harmony with the principles of Christ today than it was in the days of the apostles. The same hatred that prompted the cry, "Crucify Him! crucify Him!" the same hatred that led to the persecution of the disciples, still works in the children of disobedience. The same spirit which in the Dark Ages consigned men and women to prison, to exile, and to death, which conceived the exquisite torture of the Inquisition, which planned and executed the Massacre of St. Bartholomew, and which kindled the fires of Smithfield, is still at work with malignant energy in unregenerate hearts. The history of truth has ever been the record of a struggle between right and wrong. The proclamation of the gospel has ever been carried forward in this world in the face of opposition, peril, loss, and suffering. - {AA 84.3}

Dan 11:33

Dan 11:33 - many days - exactly 1260 years. See Dan 7:25; Rev 12:6, 14

Dan 11:34

Dan 11:34 - Shall be holpen with a little help - this help that came to the early Christian church may be seen in the following: 1. The role of Islam (7/27/1299) playing a distraction to the Roman Crusades launched against the Church in the Wilderness as of A.D.1095 (Rev. 9:2) 2. The German Princes which aided the cause of the Reformation during the time of Martin Luther (see chapter "Protest of the Princes" in the book the Great Controversy)

Dan 11:34

Dan 11:34 - cleave to them with flatteries - the work of the papacy [Jesuit Order] is as a singing harlot (Isa 23:15-17) who uses flattery to gain favor within the Protestant Movement and those that support it. Her wisdom is earthly, sensual, devilish (Jam 3:14, 15) as she uses subtlety to achieve her ends. See Prov 6:24-35, 7:5-27 Throughout Christendom, Protestantism was menaced by formidable foes. The first triumphs of the Reformation past, Rome summoned new forces, hoping to accomplish its destruction. At this time the order of the Jesuits was created, the most cruel, unscrupulous, and powerful of all the champions of popery. Cut off from earthly ties and human interests, dead to the claims of natural affection, reason and conscience wholly silenced, they knew no rule, no tie, but that of their order, and no duty but to extend its power. (See Appendix.) The gospel of Christ had enabled its adherents to meet danger and endure suffering, undismayed by cold, hunger, toil, and poverty, to uphold the banner of truth in face of the rack, the dungeon, and the stake. To combat these forces, Jesuitism inspired its followers with a fanaticism that enabled them to endure like dangers, and to oppose to the power of truth all the weapons of deception. There was no crime too great for them to commit, no deception too base for them to practice, no disguise too difficult for them to assume. Vowed to perpetual poverty and humility, it was their studied aim to secure wealth and power, to be devoted to the overthrow of Protestantism, and the re-establishment of the papal supremacy. - {GC 234.2} When appearing as members of their order, they wore a garb of sanctity, visiting prisons and hospitals, ministering to the sick and the poor, professing to have renounced the world, and bearing the sacred name of Jesus, who went about doing good. But under this blameless exterior the most criminal and deadly purposes were often concealed. It was a fundamental principle of the order that the end justifies the means. By this code, lying, theft, perjury, assassination, were not only pardonable but commendable, when they served the interests of the church. Under various disguises the Jesuits worked their way into offices of state, climbing up to be the counselors of kings, and shaping the policy of nations. They became servants to act as spies upon their masters. They established colleges for the sons of princes and nobles, and schools for the common people; and the children of Protestant parents were drawn into an observance of popish rites. All the outward pomp and display of the Romish worship was brought to bear to confuse the mind and dazzle and captivate the imagination, and thus the liberty for which the fathers had toiled and bled was betrayed by the sons. The Jesuits rapidly spread themselves over Europe, and wherever they went, there followed a revival of popery. - {GC 235.1}

Dan 11:35 - them of understanding - those who during the Dark Ages were proclaiming the atrocities of the whore Babylon were tried, purified and made white. Their experience foreshadows the 144,000 who too are men and women of understanding and proclaim the atrocities of the whore Babylon given in the Latter Rain message (3 Angel's messages). See Dan 12:10; Rev 6:8, 10

Dan 11:35

Dan 11:35 - to purge - those who are purged will: 1. Cast down every idol - Isa 27:9 2. Be Purified - Dan 12:10; Mal 3:1-3 3. Be Sprinkled with water - latter rain - Eze 36:25 4. Be Given a new heart - Eze 36:26-28

Dan 11:35

Dan 11:35 - make them white - our sins will be made white as snow and our iniquities removed as we receive Jesus' robe of righteousness by faith. These who die in faith will reign with Christ in white robes. See Isa 1:18; Zech 3:1-5; Rev 3:5; 6:9-11; Rom 10:1-4

Dan 11:35

Dan 11:35 - it is yet for a time appointed - the desolations of God's people must extend for an appointed time of 1,260 years, until the Time of the End. See Dan 7:25; Rev 12:6, 14

Dan 11:36

Dan 11:36 - exalt himself - See 2Thess 2:3, 4; Dan 7:25; Rev 13:5

Dan 11:36

Dan 11:36 - magnify himself above every god - See 2Thess 2:3-4; Eze 28:2-10

Dan 11:36

Dan 11:36 - speak marvelous things against the God of gods - See Dan 7:25; Rev 13:1, 2; Eze

28:2-10

Dan 11:36

Dan 11:36 - till the indignation be accomplished - The indignation started in 723B.C. against the Northern Kingdom, spanning 2520 years and concluding in A.D.1798 is here referenced (Dan 8:19, compare Zech 1:12). This date not only marks the papal captivity when the papacy, the Beast from the Sea, receives a deadly wound, but it marks the time when God's host, His people would cease to be scattered (trodden down) and when God would raise up a new "Glorious Land" where religious tolerance and freedom of conscience would prevail, the U.S.A. See Dan 12:7 ; 8:13; Rev 13:11 70yr indignation spoken in Zech 1:12 ended ~536BC when Cyrus issued 1st of 3 decrees. Therefore the indignation of Dan 11:36 must not be the 70yrs of Babylonian captivity but something much greater to encompass the reign of the King of the North, namely the indignation of Lev 26:25, the "quarrel of [my] covenant"

Dan 11:36

Dan 11:36 - for that that is determined shall be done - the cessation of desolations by the abomination of desolation would come at an appointed time, namely A.D.1798 with the papal captivity. See Dan 7:25, 9:27; Lk 21:24; Rev 11:2; 12:6, 14; 13:5; Eze 28:6-10

Dan 11:37

Dan 11:37 - the God of his fathers - the God of the Old Testament and the predecessor churches; churches of the New Testament (Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamos), the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob is here referenced as not being regarded or heeded by this power.

Dan 11:37

Dan 11:37 - nor the desire of women - See Rom 1:27; 1Cor 9:5 || Mt 8:14; 1Tim 4:1-3 the A.D.1122 First Council of the Lateran established the catholic canon forbidding priests, deacons, subdeacons and monks to marry or have concubines. Later reinforced by 3rd Lateran Council (March A.D. 1179) [See 1Tim 4:1-3]. This prophecy may also relate to the fact that the church of Rome acknowledges no other churches as legitimate but declares herself to be the Mother of Churches [doctrine declared in A.D.1073]. She ignores the fact that God's true church is said to be given wings of an eagle that she may fly into the wilderness where she has a place prepared for her by God for 1,260 years. See Rev 12:6

Dan 11:37 - he shall magnify himself above all - See Eze 28:2; 2Thess 2:3, 4

Dan 11:38

Dan 11:38 - God of forces - a term given the mythological goddess Queen of Heaven, Semiramis. She is claimed to be both the mother and wife of Nimrod, grandson of Noah and founder of the ancient city of Babel. Nimrod, who was associated with the sun god, was said to father a son of Semiramis, Tammuz, who was said to die annually with the winter solstice and resurrected with the spring. Mythological depictions of Semiramis portray her either as a sword-wielding amazon or as a mother holding her infant son. This ancient pagan worship of the Queen of Heaven as part of a triumvirate of the sun god, and their heir, a son, was found in various cultures. See Jer 7:17, 18; 44:17-19

Dan 11:38

Dan 11:38 - whom his fathers knew not - the patriarchs, prophets, Disciples and Apostles of Christ neither knew nor acknowledged (Deut 32:17; Ps 106:37) that which the church of Rome endorsed, namely: 1. The divinity of Mary 2. The reverence of Mary as an intercessor 3. The worship and adoration of Mary 4. Mary as the female portion of the pagan trinity comprised of a mother god, father god, and male child god 5. Mary and the saints honored through idols - another abomination of God As Christ was made to be a man, not with our sinful, fallen nature, but with the perfect nature of Adam according to Catholic doctrine - we understand this to be the Spirit of Antichrist according to 1Jo 4:1-3; Galatians 4:4, 5. It would be required that Mary also be without sin to produce a sinless child. Through the Immaculate Conception, Mary was pronounced to be without what the Catholic Church has called "original sin" from the moment of her own conception in her mother's womb. Therefore, Mary would be deified as a god, to try to resolve a mystery, that is the virgin birth of Christ. It has been Satan's work always to get men to think that God is as far away as possible.... The great trouble with heathenism was to think that God was so far away.... Then the papacy came in,... and again puts God and Christ so far away that nobody can come near to them.... the false idea that He is so holy that it would be entirely unbecoming in Him to come near to us, and be possessed of such a nature as we have,—sinful, depraved, fallen human nature. Therefore Mary must be born immaculate ... and ... Christ must... take His human nature in absolute sinlessness from her.... {Grace on Trial, pg 188, R. Wieland}

Dan 11:38

Dan 11:38 - honour with gold and silver - See Eze 28:4, 5

Dan 11:38

Dan 11:38 - gold, and silver and precious things - the tribute offered to Mary and the saints as well as the countless statues covered with precious minerals is here noted. In the sequence of idolatrous worship prophesied during the reign of pagan king Belshazzar of Babylon (Dan 5:4), Mary plays the following part: 1. Gods of gold - Babylon - Dan 2:37, 38 2. Gods of silver - Medo-Persia - Dan 2:39; 8:20 3. Gods of brass - Greece - Dan 2:39; 8:21 4. Gods of iron - Pagan Rome - Dan 2:40, 41; 7:7, 8 5. Gods of wood and stone - Papal Rome (Mariolatry) - Deut 28:64; Hab 2:18, 19; Isa 44:6-20

Dan 11:39

Dan 11:39 - the most strong holds - a reference to the cathedrals, basilicas [derived from Greek Royal Stoa, the tribunal chamber of a king], churches and other ornate "fortresses" of idolatry erected in the name of Mary and the host of false gods worshipped under catholicism. Popes bestow certain ceremonial rights to certain buildings, making them basilicas and destinations for catholic pilgrimages. The strong holds are reminiscent of the Pantheon ("sanctuary of strength" - Dan 11:31), the House of the gods used by Pagan Rome.

Dan 11:39

Dan 11:39 - with a strange God - the idolatrous worship and deification of Mary (Mariolatry) is here spoken. Men ascribe meaning and homage to things God never intended. See Deut 32:17; Num 21:9 || 2Kin 18:4

Dan 11:39

Dan 11:39 - whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory - the church of Rome has exalted the station of Mary to co-regent with Jesus Christ and the Father. In fact, Mary has superseded Christ as mankind's intercessor in catholic theology. Misinterpreting the term

"fear of the LORD", catholics are taught that Jesus is an angry Judge Who will not acknowledge the prayers of men unless the man make petition to Jesus' earthly mother Mary, to whom Jesus has a compassionate heart. See Dan 2:10, 11 That Mary is exalted above Christ is seen in the countless Churches, Cathedrals and Basilicas dedicated to her around the world, rather than Jesus Christ Himself "We select another from this band of pioneers. Pavane, a native of Boulogne and disciple of Lefevre, was a youth of sweetest disposition, but somewhat lacking in constitutional courage. He held a living in the Church, though he was not as yet in priest's orders. Enlightened by the truth, he began to say to his neighbors that the Virgin could no more save them than he could, and that there was but one Savior, even Jesus Christ. This was enough: he was apprehended and brought to trial. Had he blasphemed Christ only, he would have been forgiven: he had blasphemed Mary, and could have no forgiveness. He must make a public recantation or, hard alternative, go to the stake. Terrified at death in this dreadful form, Pavane consented to purge himself from the crime of having spoken blasphemous words against the Virgin. On Christmas Eve (1524) he was required to walk through the streets bare-headed and barefooted, a rope round his neck and a lighted taper in his hand, till he came to the Church of Notre Dame. Standing before the portals of that edifice, he publicly begged pardon of 'Our Lady' for having spoken disparagingly of her. This act of penitence duly performed, he was sent back to his prison. "Returned to his dungeon, and left to think on what he had done, he found that there were things which it was more terrible to face than death. He was now alone with the Savior whom he had denied. A horror of darkness fell upon his soul. No sweet promise of the Bible could he recall: nothing could he find to lighten the sadness and heaviness that weighed upon him. Rather than drink this bitter cup he would a hundred times go to the stake. He who turned and look on Peter spoke to Pavane, and reproved him for his sin. His tears flowed as freely as Peter's did. His resolution was taken. His sighings were now at an end: he anew made confession of his faith in Christ. The trial of the 'relapsed heretic' was short; he was hurried to the stake. At the foot of the pile he spoke of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper with such force that a doctor said, 'I wish Pavane had not spoken, even if it had cost the Church a million of gold.' The fagots were quickly lighted, and Pavane stood with unflinching courage amid the flames till he was burned to ashes. ... "The martyrdom of Pavane was followed, after a short while, by that of the Hermit of Livry, as he was named. Livry was a small burgh on the road to Meaux. This confessor was burned alive before the porch of Notre Dame. Nothing was wanting which his persecutors could think of that might make the spectacle of his death terrible to the on-lookers. The great bell of the temple of Notre Dame was rung with immense violence, in order to draw out the people from all parts of Paris. As the martyr passed along the street, the doctors told the spectators that this was one of the damned who was on his way to the fire of hell. These things moved not the martyr; he walked with firm step and look undaunted to the spot where he was to offer up his life." J. A. Wylie, History of Protestantism, book 2, page 142.

Dan 11:39

Dan 11:39 - cause them to rule over many - a statement referring to the Papacy's endorsement, funding, and bankrolling of the European nations' [the "daily"] colonization of the world through the Papal Asiento.

Dan 11:39

Dan 11:39 - divide the land for gain - The triangular slave trade, subjugation of indigenous people groups, colonization of lands and other acts of exploitation and crimes against humanity are a hallmark of the whoredoms of the great harlot, Spiritual Babylon - see Nah 3:4, Rev 18:2, 3, 11-15; Eze 27:13 In the last days, when all the world has wondered after the beast, it will once again rule over all the kings of the world and will divide the world for its gain into 10 kingdoms. See Rev 17:12, 13

Dan 11:40

Dan 11:40 - time of the end - the year marking the commencement of the "time of the end" is 1798, the conclusion of the 1,260 years of papal rule and spiritual darkness. See Dan 12:7-9 The parallel to this history, given by another fulfillment of prophecy regarding the papacy occurred in 1989, when the United States (the False Prophet), in league with the papacy, combine to topple the USSR, leaving the head Russia.

Dan 11:40

Dan 11:40 - king of the south push at him - in 1796 France ends the 7-year French Revolution and appoints Napoleon Bonaparte as Commander in Chief over the first Communist government in history. Napoleon also begins a war against Italy that would span three years (1796-1799). France, under Napoleon Bonaparte was the King of the South that pushed against the King of the North at the commencement of the Time of the End. France, known for its atheistic beliefs during the French Revolution (one facet of the Beast that ascended from the Bottomless Pit, Spiritualism - Rev 11:7, 8) would be replaced by the Communist Soviet Union in 1917 as the King of the South as a result of the Bolshevik Revolution. The confiscation of church land and resources and the banning of formal religion marked the pushing against the King of the North.

Dan 11:40

Dan 11:40 - push at him - the term push means to war against, to charge, come up against, to attack, to stage an offensive against. See 1Kin 22:11; 2Chron 18:10; Ex 21:29 32, 36; Dan 8:4

Dan 11:40

Dan 11:40 - king of the north - in this verse, the king of the north is joined by an ally that grants him military power to rule over his enemies. The United States, playing the role of "the daily" joins league and becomes one with the papacy (1Cor 6:16) as it assumes the role of the False Prophet. The King of the North therefore, may be identified by its political (the U.S.A.) or its religious (the papacy) counterpart.

Dan 11:40

Dan 11:40 - chariots and with horsemen - military might against the King of the South would be furnished by the False Prophet, the United States by way of a Holy Alliance. The US and papacy joined forces against Communism and were instrumental in toppling it in the USSR and its satellite nations in 1989.

Dan 11:40

Dan 11:40 - many ships -

Dan 11:40

Dan 11:40 - enter into the countries - the overthrow of the Soviet Union was due in large part to the: 1. Soviet Union's depleted resources (military, finance, mental/emotional) and broken morale/will after fighting Islam in Afghanistan for 10years 2. The military and economic stratagem of the U.S. 3. The social instability caused by the Solidarity Movement and Parastroika (openness policy of Gorbachev), incited by the papacy

Dan 11:40

Dan 11:40 - overflow and pass over - Similar to the LORD holding His hand over a mistake in the 1843 chart (EW 74.1), God held His hand over understanding of the terms "overflow and pass over" and its significance in the narrative of the King of the North. The term is found in two other locations and shed light and understanding on its application here in this verse: (Background Principle) Isa 7:8, 8 - the head of a nation is its capital and the head of the capital is its king. The context of the verse gives the starting point of the 2,520 prophecy, a key doctrine of the Millerite Movement and for those who return to the Old Paths as mentioned in Jer 6:16, 17 Isa 8:7, 8 - The Assyrians will "overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck" of the Southern Kingdom in his attacks. That the Assyrians reached the neck and not the head, or the capital, signified that the capital (Jerusalem) will be delivered/spared from the destruction.

Dan 11:41

Dan 11:41 - He shall enter also - the entering in or conquest of the glorious land, the USA, will include the following: 1. Passage and enforcement of a domestic Sunday Law, leading to national ruin [compare Rome in A.D.321] 2. The overthrow of the many within Adventism, leaving a few, the remnant, the 144,000 3. The close of Adventism's probation where two classes are clearly distinguishable 4. The church militant has become the church triumphant [tares are removed by the 3 Angels - Mt 14:39, 49] bearing God's glory to the world - Dan 11:45; Joe 3:16, 17; Isa 52:1; Eze 13:9 5. The United States' government will be yielded to a One World Government comprised of 10 Kings under the moral leadership of the papacy - Rev 17:12-15 6. The US will be foremost among the 10 kings, causing them and the world to follow its example in passing a global Sunday Law - Rev 13:14, 15 The unrivaled mercies and blessings of God have been showered upon our nation, it has been a land of liberty, and the glory of the whole earth. But instead of returning gratitude to God, instead of honoring God and his law, the professed Christians of America have become leavened with pride, covetousness, and self-sufficiency. The love of money, which is the root of all evil, has had a large place in their hearts. Many whose names are upon the church records have oppressed the poor, and grasped every possible advantage over those who were under them. They have lived to gratify appetite, to make extravagant display; and pride is fast making a Sodom of our world. But God is keeping his reckoning. The treatment of the poor, the robbery of the widow and the fatherless by those who are lifted up against the weak and helpless, is all written in the book of heaven. The cries of those who are oppressed have reached the ears of him who judgeth righteously. - {RH May 2, 1893 Par. 10} Many were driven across the ocean to America and here laid the foundations of civil and religious liberty which have been the bulwark and glory of this country. - {GC 252.1} The "entering in" by the King of the North, the papacy, is accomplished through its slow but steady growth in popularity and prominence by an ecumenical movement. The movement promotes unity among the diverse faiths in the absence of unity in doctrine and establishment of the Bible as the single source of truth. The Bible speaks specifically against such unions (Am 3:3; 1Cor 6:15, 16 || Rev 17:1, 2; 2Cor 6:15)

Dan 11:41

Dan 11:41 - glorious land - Palestine (Canaan Land) for Ancient Israel and the United States for Modern Israel. The United States is a place where the gospel of Christ was promoted from its founding and countless numbers have come to know and fear Christ. The nation would become a hub for global evangelism based on the Word of God (the KJV Bible). This is the glory of this nation. See Ps 85:9

Dan 11:41 - many countries - the word "countries" is (italicized) applied and does not suite the context of the verse regarding the Glorious Land. The "many" who are overthrown are those that once kept faithful God's 4th Commandment but fall backward (Isa 28:13); they are the briars and thorns [scornful, self-righteous Laodiceans] who do not make peace with God in a time when they may find Him (Ps 32:6; Isa 5:18-21, 27:4, 5; Jer 13:12-20; 18:11-18); those who lack moisture and have shallow roots so that they may not endure the fiery trial (1Pet 4:12-17; Lk 8:6; Mk 4:6, 16, 17); they reject the counsel of the prophets, fail to discern and ask for the falling Latter Rains and therefore will fall away [2Thess 2:3; Isa 30:8-10, 28:9-13; Zech 10:1] as prey to the King of the North through the enforcement of a Sunday Law. See Isa 7:7-9, 8:13-15, 21, 22. The "many" here spoken were also spoken of by Christ when He counseled His disciples regarding the conditions of the last days (See Mt 24:9-12). Consider that the falling away and overthrow of the "many" precedes the gathering in of the world (Edom, Ammon, Moab), affirming the close of Adventism's probation before the rest of the world. Then I was shown a company who were howling in agony. On their garments was written in large characters, "Thou art weighed in the balance, and found wanting." I asked who this company were. The angel said, "These are they who once kept the Sabbath, and have given it up." I heard them cry with a loud voice, "We have believed in Thy coming, and taught it with energy." And while they were speaking, their eyes would fall upon their garments and see the writing, and then they would wail aloud. I saw that they had drunk of the deep waters, and fouled the residue with their feet,—trodden the Sabbath underfoot,—and that was why they were weighed in the balance and found wanting. - {CET 101.1}

Dan 11:41 - overthrown - See Jer 11:14, 18:23; Job 19:6-11

Dan 11:41

Dan 11:41 - escape out of his hand - See Eze 7:16. As the saints of God were "given into the hand" of the Little Horn to "wear out" for 1,260 years as noted in Dan 7:25, so those of Edom, Moab and the chief of the children of Ammon will "escape from the hand" of the King of the North through the power of the Holy Spirit given through the 3 Angel's Messages. See Isa 66:19 The LORD foretold that despite His scattering of the proud and rebellious people of Moab, he would redeem a remnant in the latter days. See Jer 48:47. The same applies to Elam - Jer 49:39

Dan 11:41

Dan 11:41 - even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon - As Babylon in the last days is represented as a three-fold power (Rev 16:13, 18:2), the three nations mentioned also typify Babylon from whom God calls out a remnant. These nations historically were persecutors and irritants to the COI. See Eze 25

Dan 11:41 - Edom, Moab and Ammon - Sons of fornication who were drunken by the strange wine of Babylon. See Isa 11:11-14; Jer 29:7-22. Edom or Esau was called a profane man by the Apostle Paul (Heb 12:16). He who once esteemed little the sacred things of God [like Belshazzar - See Dan 5:1-4] would be drawn out of Babylon when he hears the mighty words of the 3 Angels, joined by the 4th Angel from the 144,000. Edom historically is also known for refusing safe passage for the COI through the wilderness during their sojourn from Egypt (See Ex 15:14-16; Num 20:14-21) Among the heathen are those who worship God ignorantly, those to whom the light is never brought by human instrumentality, yet they will not perish. Though ignorant of the written law of God, they have heard His voice speaking to them in nature, and have done the things that the law required. Their works are evidence that the Holy Spirit has touched their hearts, and they are recognized as the children of God. - {DA 638.2} In heathen Africa, in the Catholic lands of Europe and of South America, in China, in India, in the islands of the sea, and in all the dark corners of the earth, God has in reserve a firmament of chosen ones that will yet shine forth amidst the darkness, revealing clearly to an apostate world the transforming power of obedience to His law.

Dan 11:41 - Moab - the Moabites were descendants of the people of Israel but born of drunkenness and fornication (Gen 19:37). The Ammonites and Moabites (Balak, king of Moab) called upon Balaam to curse the COI when sojourning through the wilderness from Egypt (Num 22:1-4). As a result, this people were not to enter into the congregation of the COI for 10 generations (Deut 23:3, 4). The Bible describes the Moabites as an idolatrous people, worshipping Chemosh and ones who were very proud, who took confidence in their works, treasures and possessions. God however, promised to save a remnant of Moab in the latter days. See Jer 48:7, 29, 47; Zeph 2:8-11

Dan 11:41

Dan 11:41 - children of Ammon - See Gen 19:38 the LORD foretold the redemption of a remnant of the Children of Ammon. See Jer 49:1-6 And in what religious bodies are the greater part of the followers of Christ now to be found? Without doubt, in the various churches professing the Protestant faith. {GC 382.3} Notwithstanding the spiritual darkness and alienation from God that exist in the churches which constitute Babylon, the great body of Christ's true followers are still to be found in their communion. {GC 390.1}

Dan 11:42

Dan 11:42 - stretch forth his hand -Just as the King of the North will stretch forth his hand against the inhabitants of the world, particularly those who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ, so Jeroboam "put forth his hand from the alter" against the man of God from Judah. See 1Kin 13:4

Dan 11:42

Dan 11:42- the land of Egypt shall not escape - the LORD foreshadowed the papacy's global conquest in Nebuchadnezzar, king of the northern country's utter destruction of the land of Egypt. See Rev 13:3; Jer 44:30; 46; Eze 29:1-20 (18-20)

Dan 11:43

Dan 11:43 - power over the treasures of gold - the Modern King of the North, the papacy will once again have power over global wealth (see Rev 18:12, 13; Eze 28:4, 5). He will be the moral caretaker of the financial systems of the world and will dictate who is worthy to buy or sell. Just as Egypt was given into Nebuchadnezzar's hands as payment for subduing God's enemy Tyrus, so the King of the North will conquer the world. See Eze 29:18-20; Rev 13:16, 17

Dan 11:43

Dan 11:43 - the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps - the two people groups here mentioned were once in league with Egypt against Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylon. God purposed to punish Egypt through Nebuchadnezzar, having given them into his hands Eze 29:18-20. The Ethiopians and Libyans were they who held the shield while the Lydians drew the bow (Jer 46:1-10). The allusion here referenced may signify all, rich and poor, strong/weak (militarily) will be at the steps of the papacy.

Dan 11:44

Dan 11:44 - tidings out of the east and out of the north - See Am 8:11, 12; Nah 1:15; Isa 27:13; Ezek 43:1, 2. The Loud Cry from the Lord, spoken by those empowered by the Latter Rain of the Holy Spirit (Rev 18:1-5). He Who is from the north and comes from the east is Jesus Christ. In fulfillment of His prophecy, "Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword." (Mt 10:34), Jesus divides the world, and once again stirs the ire of another earthly king who lays claim to His people, His blood-bought possessions. This group bears specific tidings to all corners of the earth embodied in the Three Angel's Messages of Rev 14, joined by the mighty Fourth Angel of Rev 18. The tidings from the east concern the Seal of God, God's character imparted to those who acknowledge Jesus as Creator, Lord of the Sabbath, and the One in Whom they find rest for their redemption (Heb 4:1-11; Mt 11:28-30). The message also speaks of God's atonement and the blotting out of sins by His shed blood, during the Antitypical Day of Atonement (Act 3:19). Lastly as the Sun of Righteousness, Jesus offers the experience of Righteousness by Faith, complete victory over sin, and physical healing and restoration through a Message of Health Reform to a sin-sick, dying world. The message of the east is borne or carried by the message of the "sons of the east", Islam. Islam, as a prophetic catalyst serves as a bellwether for the children of God to awaken them and to prepare them for the impending crisis. The tidings from the north speak of Jesus' completed works in settling the Great Controversy [the image of jealousy] with Satan, when He laid down His life towards the northsides of the temple, outside Jerusalem's gate. The Image of Jealousy is that which stands in the place of God, within the temple of God, and seeks to supplant man's righteous acts of confession to God, true repentance, and the acceptance of Christ's shed blood as atonement, blotting-out one's sins by faith (Act 3:19). In their place are exalted spurious rituals, holidays, and ceremonies, including Lent, the Sacrament of Penance (confession to a man), Easter, the adoration of saints, and Sunday worship. These manmade forms, all of pagan origin, embody Satan's "throne of iniquity" that he has set-up to counter and usurp God's "throne of righteousness". The tidings brought by God's faithful are more than suggestions, counseling men of the heresies and deceptions instituted by the earthly King of the North. They are rather, impassioned pleas from God for all to, "Come out of Her my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins and that ye receive not her plagues" Rev 18:4, 13:6-9. The final warning to the world through God's remnant church details the imminent doom of the condemned papal system; more so, it is the final revelation of God's love and desire to save every individual for whom His Son has died (1Tim 2:3-6). Watchmen, called to bear these tidings to the world, are to be quickened by the Spirit of God through the Testimony of Jesus Christ, the Spirit of prophecy. They are to be united, seeing eye-to-eye, as they stand under a common message, work, and banner (Isa 52:7, 8; Eze 37:1-10; Song of Solomon 6:10).

Dan 11:44

Dan 11:44 - great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many - See Dan 11:33

Dan 11:45

Dan 11:45 - tabernacles of his palace - the institutions of church and state are here referenced, giving evidence of the unholy relations/alliance (termed fornication) between the papacy and the kings of the earth (Rev 18:3). The tabernacle represents the house of the LORD and the gathering place for the saints (Lamentation 2:6, 7), the supposed seat of the papacy empowered by apostate Protestantism and all world religions, while the palace would be the abode for the 10 Kings that would give their power and authority to the whore Babylon for one hour. See Rev 17:12-14

Dan 11:45

Dan 11:45 - the unholy confederacy of papacy, world religions and kings of the earth will create a wedge, forming a division "between" the seas and the glorious holy mountain. See Ps 83:1-8

Dan 11:45

Dan 11:45 - Seas - nations, multitudes, and peoples. See Rev 17:

Dan 11:45

Dan 11:45 - glorious holy mountain - the holy mountain of God (Zion and Jerusalem) which are figures for God's people are made glorious as they are purified and made white (Joe 3:17). The glorious holy mountain reflects God's glory, having been made free from sin. These are they that as an ensign, will gather in the third part of Egypt and Assyria with Israel, God's final remnant church. See Rom 3:23; Ps 104:1, 2; Dan 2:35, 12:3; Mal 4:2; Rev 12:1; Isa 19:19-25; Mic 4:1, 2

Dan 11:45

Dan 11:45 - he shall come to his end - See Isa 33:1

Dan 11:45

Dan 11:45 - none shall help him - the utter destruction of the papacy is foretold. See also Isa 14:4-11, 30:33, 47:10-15; Rev 17:16, 19:19; 2Thess 2:8 When the people learned that Jesus had been put to death by the priests, inquiries were made regarding His death. The particulars of His trial were kept as private as possible; but during the time when He was in the grave, His name was on thousands of lips, and reports of His mock trial, and of the inhumanity of the priests and rulers, were circulated everywhere. By men of intellect these priests and rulers were called upon to explain the prophecies of the Old Testament concerning the Messiah, and while trying to frame some falsehood in reply, they became like men insane. The prophecies that pointed to Christ's sufferings and death they could not explain, and many inquirers were convinced that the Scriptures had been fulfilled. - {DA 776.4} The revenge which the priests had thought would be so sweet was already bitterness to them. They knew that they were meeting the severe censure of the people; they knew that the very ones whom they had influenced against Jesus were now horrified by their own shameful work.

Dan 12:1

*Dan 12:1 - with the close of mankind's probation, comes the punishment of God, embodied in the 7 last plagues, culminating in the 2nd Coming of Christ. As Christ leaves the holy place, He places the sins of his people upon the head of Satan, the scapegoat who is borne to the barren land, the earth. With the destruction of the wicked the earth will enjoy its rest for 1000yrs. See Eze 14:14; 22:30; Isa 59:16, 41:28, 63:5; Jer 5:1

Dan 12:1

Dan 12:1 - And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people - with the close of mankind's probation, comes the punishment of God, embodied in the 7 last plagues, culminating in the 2nd Coming of Christ. As Christ leaves the holy place, He places the sins of his people upon the head of Satan, the scapegoat who is borne to the barren land, the earth. With the destruction of the wicked the earth will enjoy its rest for 1000yrs. See Lk 13:25; Eze 14:14; 22:30; Isa 59:16, 41:28, 63:5; Jer 5:1

Dan 12:1

Dan 12:1 - Michael stand up - All is well until Michael stands-up. While Jesus bears His Priestly garments, there is still hope for repentance and salvation. However, once Michael Stands-up and dawns His Kingly garments, there is no more hope for the impenitent or unrighteousness. see Ps 119:126, 89:6; Isa 33:2-4, 10-16; 59:16-19, 26:21; Rev 15:8 Those who are living upon the earth when the intercession of Christ shall cease in the sanctuary above are to stand in the sight of a holy God without a mediator. Their robes must be spotless, their characters must be purified from sin by the blood of sprinkling. Through the grace of God and their own diligent effort they must be conquerors in the battle with evil. While the investigative judgment is going forward in heaven, while the sins of penitent believers are being removed from the sanctuary, there is to be a special work of purification, of putting away of sin, among God's people upon earth. This work is more clearly presented in the messages of Rev 14. - {GC 425.1} When He leaves the sanctuary, darkness covers the inhabitants of the earth. In that fearful time the righteous must live in the sight of a holy God without an intercessor. The restraint which has been upon the wicked is removed, and Satan has entire control of the finally impenitent. God's long-suffering has ended. The world has rejected His mercy, despised His love, and trampled upon His law. The wicked have passed the boundary of their probation; the Spirit of God, persistently resisted, has been at last withdrawn. Unsheltered by divine grace, they have no protection from the wicked one. Satan will then plunge the inhabitants of the earth into one great, final trouble. As the angels of God cease to hold in check the fierce winds of human passion, all the elements of strife will be let loose. The whole world will be involved in ruin more terrible than that which came upon Jerusalem of old. - {Mar 265.3} Then I saw that Jesus' work in the sanctuary will soon be finished. And after His work there is finished, He will come to the door of the first apartment, and confess the sins of Israel upon the head of the Scape Goat. Then He will put on the garments of vengeance. Then the plagues will come upon the wicked, and they do not come till Jesus puts on that garment, and takes His place upon the great white cloud. Then while the plagues are falling, the Scape Goat is being led away. He makes a mighty struggle to escape, but he is held fast by the hand that leads him. If he should effect his escape, Israel would lose their lives. I saw that it would take time to lead away the Scape Goat into the land of forgetfulness after the sins were put on his head. - {Spalding and Magan - SpM 2.1} The great white cloud I saw was not the holy place, but entirely separate from the holy and most holy {Spalding and Magan - SpM 2.2} Then Jesus will step out from between the Father and men, and God will keep silence no longer, but pour out His wrath on those who have rejected His truth. I saw that the anger of the nations, the wrath of God, and the time to judge the dead, were separate and distinct, one following the other; also that Michael had not stood up, and that the time of trouble, such as never was, had not yet commenced. The nations are now getting angry, but when our High Priest has finished His work in the sanctuary, He will stand up, put on the garments of vengeance, and then the seven last plagues will be poured out. - {CET 100.2} I saw that the four angels would hold the four winds until Jesus' work was done in the sanctuary, and then will come the seven last plagues. These plagues enraged the wicked against the righteous; they thought that we had brought the judgments of God upon them, and that if they could rid the earth of us, the plagues would then be stayed. A decree went forth to slay the saints, which caused them to cry day and night for deliverance. This was the time of Jacob's trouble. [1] Then all the saints cried out with anguish of spirit, and were delivered by the voice of God. The one hundred and forty-four thousand triumphed. Their faces were lighted up with the glory of God. - {CET 100.3}

Dan 12:1

Dan 12:1 - standeth for the children of thy people - people of the saints of the Most High.

See Dan 7:26, 27

Dan 12:1

Dan 12:1 - time of trouble - See Isa 24; Rev 16:1-12, 17-21; Mt 24:21; Job 38:22, 23; Ps 55:1-11 The Bible and Spirit of Prophecy speak of 3 times of trouble: 1. Little Time of Trouble at the Sunday Law for the people of God; 5T 81.1, 2; LDE 153.3, 4 2. Great Time of Trouble for all the world - Dan 12:1 3. Time of Jacob's trouble for the people of God - Jer 30:5-10; LDE 152.3-153.2 The remnant in the time of trouble will cry, My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken me? - {SpM 2.6} The "time of trouble, such as never was," is soon to open upon us; and we shall need an experience which we do not now possess and which many are too indolent to obtain. It is often the case that trouble is greater in anticipation than in reality; but this is not true of the crisis before us. The most vivid presentation cannot reach the magnitude of the ordeal. In that time of trial, every soul must stand for himself before God. "Though Noah, Dan, and Job" were in the land, "as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness." Eze 14:20. - {GC 622.4} In the time of trouble we all fled from the cities and villages, but were pursued by the wicked, who entered the houses of the saints with a sword. They raised the sword to kill us, but it broke, and fell as powerless as a straw. Then we all cried day and night for deliverance, and the cry came up before God. - {CET 95.1} The sun came up, and the moon stood still. The streams ceased to flow. Dark, heavy clouds came up, and clashed against each other. But there was one clear place of settled glory, whence came the voice of God like many waters, which shook the heavens and the earth. The sky opened and shut, and was in commotion. The mountains shook like a reed in the wind, and cast out ragged rocks all around. The sea boiled like a pot, and cast out stones upon the land. - {CET 95.2} The wrath of Satan increases as his time grows short, and his work of deceit and destruction will reach its culmination in the time of trouble. - {Mar 32.4} Satan will work his miracles to deceive; he will set up his power as supreme. The church may appear as about to fall, but it does not fall. It remains, while the sinners in Zion will be sifted out—the chaff separated from the precious wheat. This is a terrible ordeal, but nevertheless it must take place. None but those who have been overcoming by the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony will be found with the loyal and true, without spot or stain of sin, without guile in their mouths. - {Mar 32.5} In India, China, Russia, and the cities of America, thousands of men and women are dying of starvation. The monied men, because they have the power, control the market. They purchase at low rates all they can obtain, and then sell at greatly increased prices. This means starvation to the poorer classes, and will result in a civil war. There will be a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation. {5MR 305.4} The Saviour's prophecy concerning the visitation of judgments upon Jerusalem is to have another fulfillment, of which that terrible desolation was but a faint shadow. In the fate of the chosen city we may behold the doom of a world that has rejected God's mercy and trampled upon His law. Dark are the records of human misery that earth has witnessed during its long centuries of crime. The heart sickens, and the mind grows faint in contemplation. Terrible have been the results of rejecting the authority of Heaven. But a scene yet darker is presented in the revelations of the future. The records of the past,—the long procession of tumults, conflicts, and revolutions, the "battle of the warrior ... with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood" (Isa 9:5),—what are these, in contrast with the terrors of that day when the restraining Spirit of God shall be wholly withdrawn from the wicked, no longer to hold in check the outburst of human passion and satanic wrath! The world will then behold, as never before, the results of Satan's rule. - {GC 36.2} In his mission to Pharaoh, Moses was to be placed in a position of great peril; his life could be preserved only through the protection of holy angels. But while living in neglect of a known duty, he would not be secure; for he could not be shielded by the angels of God. {PP 255.5} In the time of trouble, just previous to the coming of Christ, the lives of the righteous will be preserved through the ministration of holy angels. But there will be no security for the transgressor. Angels cannot then protect those who are living in neglect of a known duty or an express command of Jehovah. { ST February 26, 1880, Art. A, par. 22 }

Dan 12:1 - thy people shall be delivered - See Ps 37:39; 27:1-5; Isa 28:5, 6, 16; 26:20, 21; Jer 30:7

Dan 12:1

Dan 12:1 - every one that shall be found written in the book - the Book of Life (the Book of Remembrance - Mal 3:16-18). See Isa 4:3; Rev 3:5, 13:8

Dan 12:2

Dan 12:2 - And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt - Job 7:21; Isa 26:19; Act 2:29; 1Thess 4:14; Job 17:13, 19:25-27 Graves are opened, and "many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth... awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt." Dan 12:2. All who have died in the faith of the third angel's message come forth from the tomb glorified, to hear God's covenant of peace with those who have kept His law. "They also which pierced Him" (Rev 1:7), those that mocked and derided Christ's dying agonies, and the most violent opposers of His truth and His people, are raised to behold Him in His glory and to see the honor placed upon the loyal and obedient. - {GC 637.1}

Dan 12:2

Dan 12:2 - some to everlasting life - the Special Resurrection of all who have died in the faith under the sounding of the 3rd Angel's Message [+1844A.D.]

Dan 12:2

Dan 12:4 - some to shame and everlasting contempt - the special resurrection of those who tried and persecuted Jesus is here mentioned (Mt 26:59-64, Rev 1:7).

Dan 12:3

Dan 12:3 - they that be wise - (wise = teachers) The wisdom of the wise is that they do not live solely for the present time but consider their latter end (Ps 73:1-28; Dan 12:3, 10; Prov 6:6-8). They make preparation for the times of trouble and make sure that their faith is moored to the Rock (Isa 28:16, 17). See Deut 32:29, 15; Jam 3:13

Dan 12:3 - shine as the brightness - (shine = to teach) the 144,000 who have been purged of their sins, are whitened and received the seal of God will like Moses, reflect the glory of God (Rom 1:23; Ps 104:1, 2; Rev 21:23). Able to stand before God without sin (Ju 24), these people shine as the firmament, whose characters are blameless, without rebuke (Jam 3:13), and they proclaim God's final warning message to the world. These are men wondered at (Zech 3:8). Similar to the faithful martyrs of the Red Horse era, they endure deprivation, scorn and trial without murmuring or disputing. See Phil 2:14, 15; Isa 60:1-4; Act 6:15; Rev 18:1; Isa 30:26 Servants of God, with their faces lighted up and shining with holy consecration (compare Ex 34:30-33), will hasten from place to place to proclaim the message from heaven. By thousands of voices, all over the earth, the warning will be given. Miracles will be wrought, the sick will be healed, and signs and wonders will follow the believers. Satan also works, with lying wonders, even bringing down fire from heaven in the sight of men. Rev 13:13. Thus the inhabitants of the earth will be brought to take their stand. - {GC 612.1} Just as Moses' face shined from the glory of GOD when he bore the commandments [which if made one's means of salvation brings death], much more those who bear the righteousness of Christ, they will shine with an exceeding greater glory. See 2Cor 3:7-9 Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 415.5} The light of the Sun of Righteousness is to shine forth in good works—in words of truth and deeds of holiness. - {COL 416.1}

Dan 12:3 - turn many to righteousness - the efforts of this last group will be empowered by the Holy Spirit, given without measure, in order to gather in God's heavenly garner. Those who go out mourning will come in rejoicing, bringing in the sheaves. The lips of the righteous feed many, but fools die for lack of wisdom. The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life and he that winneth souls is wise. See Isa 55:4, 5; 60:4, 5; Prov 1:7; 10:21; 11:30; Mt 13:52; Lk 5:10; Heb 13:7 I saw that God had children who do not see and keep the Sabbath. They have not rejected the light upon it. And at the commencement of the time of trouble, we were filled with the Holy Ghost as we went forth and proclaimed the Sabbath more fully. This enraged the churches and nominal Adventists, as they could not refute the Sabbath truth. And at this time God's chosen all saw clearly that we had the truth, and they came out and endured the persecution with us. I saw the sword, famine, pestilence, and great confusion in the land. The wicked thought that we had brought the judgments upon them, and they rose up and took counsel to rid the earth of us, thinking that then the evil would be stayed. - {CET 93.2}

Dan 12:4

Dan 12:4 - seal the book - the book would remained sealed (see Isa 29:9-12), indiscernible until the Lion of the Tribe of Judah would unseal its understanding. See Rev 5:5-6:17, 8:1

Dan 12:4

Dan 12:4 - time of the end - 1798 and onward. See Dan 8:17, 11:35, 11:40, 12:9

Dan 12:4

Dan 12:4 - run to and fro - to seek for understanding in the word of God. See Am 8:11, 12; Prov 25:2; Nah 2:3, 4

Dan 12:4

Dan 12:4 - knowledge shall be increased - An increase of knowledge would be a characteristic of the last days which makes possible coming events towards the end of time. Enforcement of a worldwide Sunday Law is made possible by the advancements in communications. The ability to restrict global commerce, buying and selling is made possible by advancements in security, banking and technologies that monitor and control. The last day deceptions of Satan will be facilitated again through modern communications media. The command to go spread the gospel to every tongue tribe and nation is facilitated by the increase of knowledge in transportation, communications and medicine (the health message). Nah foretold the increase of knowledge in his description of automobiles/trains running to and fro. See Nah 2:3, 4 In these last days, God will pour out His Holy Spirit upon men and cause the light of the sun (the Old Testament) to shine seven fold and the moon (the New Testament) to shine as the sun in order to repair the breach caused in His last day church, Laodicea (Isa 30:25, 26, Rev 18:1). See Prov 4:18 the "knowledge" here spoken is the sure word of prophecy (2Pet 1:19). See Spalding Magan pg 58 "We must not think, "Well, we have all the truth, we understand the main pillars of our faith, and we may rest on this knowledge." The truth is an advancing truth, and we must walk in the increasing light" {Counsels to Writers and Editors pg 33.2}

Dan 12:5 - there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side the bank of the river - the position of the angels relative to Jesus who stood above the waters is interesting. Jesus who stands above the waters having two angels at His side reflects the position He bore in the heaven of heavens, where He dwells with the father between the two cherubim. Also the river of life flowing from the throne of God, is reflected in the waters underneath His feet in the vision of Dan. Lastly, we see the devil's counterfeit of Jesus standing upon the waters in the harlot woman Babylon, who comes forth from the waters and sits upon many waters . See Ex 25:22; Rev 22:1, Rev 13:1, 17:15

Dan 12:6

Dan 12:6 - How long - the question How long speaks of duration and is a common question among God's saints and prophets: The Martyrs - Rev 6:10

Dan 12:7

Dan 12:7 - upon the waters of the river - Jesus stood upon the waters. See Mt 14:30

Dan 12:7

Dan 12:5 - the river - the angels are on either bank of the river Hiddekel (Tigris), while Jesus stands upon the waters of the River. See Dan 10:4, 5

Dan 12:7

Dan 12:7 - held up his right hand and his left hand - Jesus alone can swear because He is able to bring it to pass. See Rev 10:5, 6; Deut 32:39, 40; Heb 6:13; compare Jam 5:12, Mt 5:34-37

Dan 12:7

Dan 12:7 - swear by Him that liveth for ever and ever - Jesus swears by Himself. See Rev 1:8; Heb 6:13

Dan 12:7

Dan 12:7 - time, times and an half - See Dan 7:25; Rev 12:6, 14; 11:2

Dan 12:7

Dan 12:7 - accomplished to scatter - Jesus, the Man clothed in linen above the waters, here describes the "treading down of the host" for 1,260 years by the Second Desolator, Papal Rome. See Dan 8:13, 11:33-35 As in Dan 11:35, 36, this verse shows the convergence of two time prophecies at their terminus point. The conclusion of the 1,260yrs of papal dominion (AD538-1798) given by "a time, times and half" and the conclusion of the 2,520yrs of the scattering God's people, (the Northern Kingdom, 723BC-AD1798), both have their conclusion in A.D.1798 when "all these things shall be finished".

Dan 12:7

Dan 12:7 - power of the holy people - the power granted by the Holy Spirit to become a son of God in spirit and in truth and to spread the gospel of Christ to all the world was hampered by the scattering of God's people during the Dark Ages. See Joh 1:12; Act 1:8; Rev 11:1, 2

Dan 12:7

Dan 12:7 - all these things shall be finished - "the end of these wonders" (v6) takes the reader down to the time of the end, an appointed time by God given by: 1. The cessation of the scattering of the power of Gods holy people (see Dan 8:13) 2. The accomplishment of the indignation of God against His people (Dan 11:36) 723BC-AD1798 3. The wresting of power from the Man of Sin and Son of Perdition through a deadly wound (Dan 11:36; Rev 13:3)

Dan 12:8

Dan 12:8 - I understood not - Dan here typifies the wicked in the last days who have no understand of the "the end of these things". See Isa 29:9-12;

Dan 12:8

Dan 12:8 - end of these things - the final events of the great controversy as two classes of worshippers are developed. First, the wise, God's people who shine as the firmament and lead many sons to righteousness. Secondly, the wicked, who lack understanding of God's ways and are swallowed-up during a time of trouble as never was upon the earth. See Dan 12:1-3.

Dan 12:9

Dan 12:9 - the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end - See Rev 5:1-9

Dan 12:10

Dan 12:10 - many shall be purified, made white and tried - as those who remained faithful were sealed and were tested during the Dark Ages, so too the 144,000 will undergo the same experience. See Dan 11:33-35 3-step process: Purified, Made White, Tried: 1. Holy Spirit - Sin, Righteousness, Judgment 2. Outer Court, Holy Place, Most Holy Place 3. Justified, Sanctified, Glorified 4. 3 Angels of Rev 14 saw a company who stood well guarded and firm, and would give no countenance to those who would unsettle the established faith of the body. God looked upon them with approbation. I was shown three steps—one, two and three—the first, second and third angels' messages. Said the angel, Woe to him who shall move a block, or stir a pin in these messages. The true understanding of these messages is of vital importance. The destiny of souls hangs upon the manner in which they are received. I was again brought down through these messages, and saw how dearly the people of God had purchased their experience. It had been obtained through much suffering and severe conflict. Step by step had God brought them along, until he had placed them upon a solid, immovable platform. Then I saw individuals as they approached the platform, before stepping upon it examine the foundation. Some with rejoicing immediately stepped upon it.

Others commenced to find fault with the laying of the foundation of the platform. They wished improvements made, and then the platform would be more perfect, and the people much happier. Some stepped off the platform and examined it, then found fault with it, declaring it to be laid wrong. I saw that nearly all stood firm upon the platform, and exhorted others who had stepped off to cease their complaints, for God was the master-builder, and they were fighting against him. They recounted the wonderful work of God, which had led them to the firm platform, and in union nearly all raised their eyes to heaven, and with a loud voice glorified God. This affected some of those who had complained, and left the platform, and again they with humble look stepped upon it. - {1SG 168.2}

Dan 12:10 - purified - Purification involves being purged of sin by coming to Jesus who sits in judgment. See Isa 27:9; Mal 3:2, 3; 1Jo 3:3

Dan 12:10

Dan 12:10 - made white - See Zech 3:1-5; Rev 6:9-11; Mt 22:8-13 As the stones of the temple which Solomon built for the LORD were hewn and squared at the quarry before being brought for placement, we are to be chiseled, smoothed and prepared for Christ's return. It is not enough to accept the invitation to the wedding feast, we must put on Christ's robe of righteousness so that we may be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruptions of the world through lust. Let the youth and the little children be taught to choose for themselves that royal robe woven in heaven's loom, the "fine linen, clean and white" which all the holy ones of earth will wear. This robe, Christ's own spotless character, is freely offered to every human being. But all who receive it will receive and wear it here. - {AH 536.4}

Dan 12:10

Dan 12:10 - tried - See 1Pet 4:12, 13; Zech 13:9, Mal 3:3, 4; Jam 1:1-4, 12; Ps 17:13, 14; Job 23:10; Rev 2:10. The whole universe will have become witnesses to the nature and results of sin. And its utter extermination, which in the beginning would have brought fear to angels and dishonor to God, will now vindicate his love and establish his honor before a universe of beings who delight to do his will, and in whose heart is his law. Never will evil again be manifest. Says the Word of God, "Affliction shall not rise up the second time." [Nah 1:9.] The law of God, which Satan has reproached as the yoke of bondage, will be honored as the law of liberty. A tested and proved creation will never again be turned from allegiance to Him whose character has been fully manifested before them as fathomless love and infinite wisdom. - {GC88 504.1}

Dan 12:10

Dan 12:10 - but - though many within modern Israel (the SDA church) will be purified and made white, when the trial of a Sunday Law arrives, it will reveal who has made the necessary preparations (received the oil; built upon the Rock) to stand in that day. In this day, the two classes identified in and brought forth by the Everlasting Covenant will be revealed. Those who will be utterly scattered are the wicked and those to whom God will show mercy are the wise. See Gen 3:15; Hos 1:6, 6; Mal 1:1-3; 3:16-18; Isa 33:14, 66:5

Dan 12:10

Dan 12:10 - the wicked - the wicked are synonymous with the foolish virgins in Jesus' parable. The foolish virgins are they who say "Lord, Lord, Have we not prophesied in your name?" to which Jesus says "depart from Me you workers of iniquity..." See Mt 25:11, 12; Lk 13:24-28; Mal 3:18; Isa 33:14, 66:5

Dan 12:10

Dan 12:10 - shall do wickedly - see Joh 16:1-3; Mt 24:9, 10, 12; 1Tim 4:1, 2; 2Tim 3:1-5; Ju 3, 4; Isa 30:8-11, 32:5-7, 28:14, 15; Psa 50:16-20

Dan 12:10

Dan 12:10 - none of the wicked shall understand - See Hosea 4:6, 17; Isa 27:11, 29:9-14, 30:8-11; Ps 82:4, 5; Dan 2:10, 11; Rom 1:31, 10:1-4; 1Cor 2:14; 2Thess 2:10-12 Hos 4:6 - "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou be no priest to me (1Pet 2:9; Ex 19:5, 6 - a covenant with God) seeing thou has forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children". Anna also, a prophetess, came in and confirmed Simeon's testimony concerning Christ. As Simeon spoke, her face lighted up with the glory of God, and she poured out her heartfelt thanks that she had been permitted to behold Christ the Lord. - {DA 55.4} These humble worshipers had not studied the prophecies in vain. But those who held positions as rulers and priests in Israel, though they too had before them the precious utterances of prophecy, were not walking in the way of the Lord, and their eyes were not open to behold the Light of life. - {DA 55.5} So it is still. Events upon which the attention of all heaven is centered are undiscerned, their very occurrence is unnoticed, by religious leaders, and worshipers in the house of God. Men acknowledge Christ in history, while they turn away from the living Christ. Christ in His word calling to self-sacrifice, in the poor and suffering who plead for relief, in the righteous cause that involves poverty and toil and reproach, is no more readily received today than He was eighteen hundred years ago. - {DA 56.1} Not enough to read and hear the prophecies, we must eat them (intellectual and spiritual) and act upon them. See Heb 11:7; Ezr 7:10 The fate of the foolish virgins is to stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken. (Isa 8:15, 28:13) The darkness that had mantled the earth at the crucifixion was not more dense than that which still enveloped the minds of the priests and rulers. At His birth the star had known Christ, and had guided the wise men to the manger where He lay. The heavenly hosts had known Him, and had sung His praise over the plains of Bethlehem. The sea had known His voice, and had obeyed His command. Disease and death had recognized His authority, and had yielded to Him their prey. The sun had known Him, and at the sight of His dying anguish, had hidden its face of light. The rocks had known Him, and had shivered into fragments at His cry. Inanimate nature had known Christ, and had borne witness to His divinity. But the priests and rulers of Israel knew not the Son of God. - {DA 770.4}

Dan 12:10 - but the wise shall understand - See 1Jo 5:19, 20; 1Pet 2:7; Dan 2:21; Rev 17:9; Zeph 2:1-3; Mt 11:19, 24:45; Prov 8:8, 9; Ps 107:43, 111:10; Joh 8:47; Heb 11:3 "...the Gospel is making known of Christ in men. Or rather, the Gospel is Christ in men, and the preaching of it is the making known to men of the possibility of Christ's dwelling in them." {The Everlasting Covenant; E.J. Waggoner, pg 30} Not one of us will ever receive the seal of God while our characters have one spot or stain upon them. It is left with us to remedy the defects in our characters, to cleanse the soul temple of every defilement. Then the latter rain will fall upon us as the early rain fell upon the disciples on the day of Pentecost. - {2TT 69.1} Only those who are living up to the light they have will receive greater light. Unless we are daily advancing in the exemplification of the active Christian virtues, we shall not recognize the manifestations of the Holy Spirit in the latter rain. It may be falling on hearts all around us, but we shall not discern or receive it.—Testimonies to Ministers and Gospel Workers, 507 (1897). - {LDE 195.4} I also saw that many do not realize what they must be in order to live in the sight of the Lord without a high priest in the sanctuary through the time of trouble. Those who receive the seal of the living God and are protected in the time of trouble must reflect the image of Jesus fully. - {EW 71.1} I saw that many were neglecting the preparation so needful and were looking to the time of "refreshing" and the "latter rain" to fit them to stand in the day of the Lord and to live in His sight. Oh, how many I saw in the time of trouble without a shelter! They had neglected the needful preparation; therefore they could not receive the refreshing that all must have to fit them to live in the sight of a holy God. Those who refuse to be hewed by the prophets and fail to purify their souls in obeying the whole truth, and who are willing to believe that their condition is far better than it really is, will come up to the time of the falling of the plagues, and then see that they needed to be hewed and squared for the building. But there will be no time then to do it and no Mediator to plead their cause before the Father. Before this time the awfully solemn declaration has gone forth, "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still." I saw that none could share the "refreshing" unless they obtain the victory over every besetment, over pride, selfishness, love of the world, and over every wrong word and action. We should, therefore, be drawing nearer and nearer to the Lord and be earnestly seeking that preparation necessary to enable us to stand in the battle in the day of the Lord. Let all remember that God is holy and that none but holy beings can ever dwell in His presence. - {EW 71.2} Spiritual things are spiritually discerned. In the temple the Son of God was dedicated to the work He had come to do. The priest looked upon Him as he would upon any other child. But though he neither saw nor felt anything unusual, God's act in giving His Son to the world was acknowledged. This occasion did not pass without some recognition of Christ. "There was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the Consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him. And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ." - {DA 55.1} ... The spirit of prophecy was upon this man of God, and while Joseph and Mary stood by, wondering at his words, he blessed them, and said unto Mary, "Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against; (yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed." - {DA 55.3} "When they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary His mother, and fell down, and worshiped Him." Beneath the lowly guise of Jesus, they recognized the presence of Divinity. They gave their hearts to Him as their Saviour, and then poured out their gifts,—"gold, and frankincense, and myrrh." What a faith was theirs! It might have been said of the wise men from the East, as afterward of the Roman centurion, "I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel." Mt 8:10. - {DA 63.2} All wondered at His knowledge of the law and the prophecies; and the question passed from one to another, "How knoweth this Man letters, having never learned?" No one was regarded as qualified to be a religious teacher unless he had studied in the rabbinical schools, and both Jesus and Joh the Baptist had been represented as ignorant because they had not received this training. Those who heard them were astonished at their knowledge of the Scriptures, "having never learned." Of men they had not, truly; but the God of heaven was their teacher, and from Him they had received the highest kind of wisdom. - {DA 453.1} My teaching is not Mine," said Jesus, "but His that sent Me. If any man willeth to do His will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it be of God, or whether I speak from Myself." Joh 7:16, 17, R. V. The question of these cavilers Jesus met, not by answering the cavil, but by opening up truth vital to the salvation of the soul. The perception and appreciation of truth, He said, depends less upon the mind than upon the heart. Truth must be received into the soul; it claims the homage of the will. If truth could be submitted to the reason alone, pride would be no hindrance in the way of its reception. But it is to be received through the work of grace in the heart; and its reception depends upon the renunciation of every sin that the Spirit of God reveals. Man's advantages for obtaining a knowledge of the truth, however great these may be, will prove of no benefit to him unless the heart is open to receive the truth, and there is a conscientious surrender of every habit and practice that is opposed to its principles. To those who thus yield themselves to God, having an honest desire to know and to do His will, the truth is revealed as the power of God for their salvation. These will be able to distinguish between him who speaks for God, and him who speaks merely from himself. The Pharisees had not put their will on the side of God's will. They were not seeking to know the truth, but to find some excuse for evading it; Christ showed that this was why they did not understand His teaching.

Dan 12:11 - And from the time - the narrative takes us back to the discussion of Dan 8:13 regarding the daily and the transgression of desolation. In this prophetic account, the year AD508 is established.

Dan 12:11

Dan 12:11 - daily shall be taken away - the daily, paganism which would "let", or occupy the space of the desolator of God's people, would "let" until it is taken out of the way in A.D.508. See 2Thess 2:7

Dan 12:11

Dan 12:11 - set up - the "set up" of the papacy occurred when Clovis routed the Visigoths on behalf of catholicism in A.D.508, establishing the military/civil might ("power" - Rev 13:2) that would allow it to rule over church and state for 1,260years, starting 30yrs later in A.D.538.

Dan 12:12

Dan 12:12 - Blessed is he that waiteth - those who in patient perseverance come to April 19, 1844 and enter into the Tarrying Time without losing faith will be blessed. God will open to their understanding new revelations of present truth as He waits to be gracious to His faithful followers (Isa 30:18) The 12th chapter and 12th verse when multiplied yields 144, representing the blessed 144,000 who will reflect Jesus' image in the present history. "Blessed are the eyes which saw the things that were seen in 1843 and 1844. "The message was given. And there should be no delay in repeating the message, for the signs of the times are fulfilling; the closing work must be done. A great work will be done in a short time. A message will soon be given by God's appointment that will swell into a loud cry. Then Dan will stand in his lot, to give his testimony." Manuscript Releases, volume 21, 437.

Dan 12:12

Dan 12:12 - he that waiteth - See Isa 40:31, 30:15, 18; Ps 46:10

Dan 12:12

Dan 12:12 - cometh - [naga pronounced nawga] meaning "toucheth". To touch the end of the year April 19,1844 began the start of the new era for proclaiming the Tarrying Time and eventually the Midnight Cry. "The disappointed ones saw from the Scriptures that they were in the tarrying time, and that they must patiently wait the fulfillment of the vision. The same evidence which led them to look for their Lord in 1843, led them to expect Him in 1844." Early Writings, 247. "Those who by faith followed their great High Priest as He entered upon His ministry in the most holy place, beheld the ark of His testament. As they had studied the subject of the sanctuary they had come to understand the Saviour's change of ministration, and they saw that He was now officiating before the ark of God, pleading His blood in behalf of sinners." The Great Controversy, 433.

Dan 12:13

Dan 12:13 - till the end be - until the end of the sealing-up of the message should be, namely, the "time of the end"

Dan 12:13

Dan 12:13 - stand in thy lot - The term in its context can symbolize: 1. The fulfillment of a prophetic message, when it is shown to be true from God. Lk 10:23, 24; Mt 24:15 2. The time of reckoning and judgment 3. An appointed place of duty/rest where a person is to remain in order to fulfill his/her purposes. The prophet is said to stand in his lot at the "end of the days". This additional phrases shows that at the conclusion of each reform movement, the prophet's message can be shown to stand in its lot or prove true: 1. At the closing of the door of the ark (close of probation) and the occurrence of the flood, Noah's preaching for 120yrs stood in its lot 2. At the scattering of the northern kingdom in 723BC and southern kingdom in 677BC by the kings of Assyria and Babylon respectively, the prophets all stood in their lot 3. At the Cross of Calvary when all things prophesied concerning Christ and His passion had been fulfilled (including Dan 9:25-27), the prophets stood in their lot 4. At the time of the end (1798) when the book of Dan was unsealed by Jesus, the Lion of the Tribe of Judah (see Testimonies to Ministers pg 115) the Beast from the sea received a deadly wound leading down to the commencement of the cleansing of the sanctuary, Dan stood in his lot 5. From the commencement of the "Modern Time of the End" until the coming of Christ, all the prophets stand in their lot "When God gives a man a special work to do, he is to stand in his lot and place as did Dan, ready to answer the call of God, ready to fulfill His purpose." Manuscript Releases, volume 6, pg 108 The time has come for Dan to stand in his lot. The time has come for the light given him to go to the world as never before. If those for whom the Lord has done so much will walk in the light, their knowledge of Christ and the prophecies relating to Him will be greatly increased as they near the close of this earth's history (Manuscript 176, 1899). - {4BC 1174.4} Every individual has a soul to save or to lose. Each has a case pending at the bar of God. Each must meet the great Judge face to face. How important, then, that every mind contemplate often the solemn scene when the judgment shall sit and the books shall be opened, when, with Dan, every individual must stand in his lot, at the end of the days. - {GC 488.2}

Dan 12:13

Dan 12:13 - at the end of the days - the term refers to the conclusion of a reform era, commencing with a "time of the end", prophetically typifying the final end of the days when Jesus will appear.

Hos 2:7

Hosea 2:7 - And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now - See Lk 15:17-19

Hos 2:8

Hosea 2:8 - For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal - Gomer initially faired well after leaving Hosea but then began to be in want, like the prodigal son. See

Hos 2:13

Hos 2:13 - she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgot me - ancient Israel foreshadows the works of Babylon the Great, the Mother of Harlots (Isa 3:16-24; Hosea 3:1). Paul counsels women to dress modestly so as not to attract attention to themselves (1Tim 2:9). Further, God purposes to adorn His bride with jewels and fine apparel. However, it is inappropriate for one to do such things for themselves, for it is a sign of pride (Gen 11:4 compare Gen 12:2).

Hos 2:14

Hos 3:1

Hosea 3:1 - according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love flagons of wine - Hosea was to love Gomer selflessly, though she played the harlot with other men, just as we wander after other gods.

Hos 3:2

Hos 3:2 - So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an half homer of barley. - The price of Gomer's redemption, Hosea, her true husband paid to deliver her from her captors and debtors. So it is with Jesus and us. He to whom we are truly wed, has delivered us and paid the ransom for our salvation through His blood. See Jer 31:31; Rom 7:14; Gal 3:13; Rev 5:9; Rom 5:6-8; Col 2:13

See Jer 29:4-10

Hos 3:5

Hosea 3:5 - Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days - Eze 36:22-38; Jer 31:31-40

Hos 4:1

Hosea 4:1 - Hear the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land - See Isa 59:1-16

Hos 4:3

Hosea 4:3 - Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away - See Hosea 4:

Hos 4:4

Hosea 4:4 - Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that strive with the priest - the people strive against the one who makes intercession and confession for them. They are self-deceived (sottish) and rebellious

Hos 4:6

Hos 4:6 - My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge - See Isa 5:13; Dan 12:10 There were occasions when Jesus stood forth while in human flesh as the Son of God. Divinity flashed through humanity, and was seen by the scoffing priests and rulers. Was it acknowledged?

Some acknowledged that He was the Christ, but the larger portion of those who upon these special occasions were forced to see that He was the Son of God, refused to receive Him. Their blindness corresponded to their determined resistance of conviction. - {5BC 1129.4}

Hos 4:6 - thou hast rejected knowledge - See Mic 2:6, 11-13; Prov 1:29-32 The wrath of God is not declared against unrepentant sinners merely because of the sins they have committed, but because, when called to repent, they choose to continue in resistance, repeating the sins of the past in defiance of the light given them. If the Jewish leaders had submitted to the convicting power of the Holy Spirit, they would have been pardoned; but they were determined not to yield. In the same way, the sinner, by continued resistance, places himself where the Holy Spirit cannot influence him. - {AA 62.1}

Hos 4:6

Hosea 4:6 - I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God - God forsook and abandoned His people when they lost sight of His Law, His governing principles, and sought the ways of world. CONTRAST Ex 19:6

Hos 4:6

Hosea 4:6 - I will also forget thy children - God in the past vowed that He would in mercy, remember and save His peoples' children. However, with the extent of the rebellion He foresaw no change in any future generations of Israel. See Isa 49:25; Gen 6:5-7

Hos 4:7

Hosea 4:7 - As they were increased, so they sinned against me - See Deut 8:10-17

Hos 4:7

Hosea 4:7 - therefore will I change their glory into shame - See Ezek 16:14

Hos 4:12

Hos 4:12 - My people ask counsel at their stocks - See Isa 44:19, 8:19; contrast Isa 28:29

Hos 4:12

Hosea 4:12 - and their staff declareth unto them - the people divine with witchcraft. See 2Kin 18:4, 23:5, 24

Hos 4:13

Hosea 4:13 - They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery - See 1Kin 14:15, 22-24; 2Kin 17:9-12; Isa 66:15-17

Hos 4:17

Hos 4:17 - Ephraim is joined to idols: let him alone - these are frightful words as God has given a people wholly to their ways of rebellion. He no longer pleads for mercy on their behalf but has commanded His holy angels to depart from them, let him alone. Their seared consciences and selfish hearts would not permit them to respond to the promptings of God.

Therefore, Ephraim, like Dan, is not numbered among the righteous, the 144,000 in Rev 7 and would be overthrown (Jer 7:15). See Judges 18:30, 31; Gen 49:17; Rev 22:11; Dan 12:1; Jer 8:20; 2Thess 2:11, 12; 1Sam 16:14; Heb 6:4-6; 1Tim 4:1, 2; Deut 5:29; Rom 1:24; Ruth 1:15; Ps 78:9-11; Jer 6:8 God leads His people on, step by step. He brings them up to different points calculated to manifest what is in the heart. Some endure at one point, but fall off at the next. At every advanced point the heart is tested and tried a little closer. If the professed people of God find their hearts opposed to this straight work, it should convince them that they have a work to do to overcome, if they would not be spewed out of the mouth of the Lord. Said the angel: "God will bring His work closer and closer to test and prove every one of His people." Some are willing to receive one point; but when God brings them to another testing point, they shrink from it and stand back, because they find that it strikes directly at some cherished idol. Here they have opportunity to see what is in their hearts that shuts out Jesus. They prize something higher than the truth, and their hearts are not prepared to receive Jesus. Individuals are tested and proved a length of time to see if they will sacrifice their idols and heed the counsel of the True Witness. If any will not be purified through obeying the truth, and overcome their selfishness, their pride, and evil passions, the angels of God have the charge: "They are joined to their idols, let them alone," and they pass on to their work, leaving these with their sinful traits unsubdued, to the control of evil angels. (1T 187}

Hosea 4:19 - The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices - See Hos 8:17

Hos 5:6

Hos 5:6 - He hath withdrawn Himself from them - such was the experience of the Protestant churches in the fall of 1844 when Jesus shut the door to the Holy Place and entered the Most Holy Place to begin the 3rd phase of the Plan of Redemption. The Protestants were left in darkness because they rejected the light that shone upon them.

Hos 5:7

Hos 5:7 - they have begotten strange children - man made converts who are ignorant to the fact that the door to the Holy Place is shut. They will knock but the door has been closed and can not be opened. See Mt 25:11

Hos 5:14

Hos 5:14 - I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah - God declares He will destroy Ephraim (the Northern Kingdom) as a lion and Judah (the Southern Kingdom) as a young lion. This prophecy was fulfilled in that the Assyrians, the lion, routed Ephraim and Babylon, the young lion routed Judah. See Jer 50:17

Hos 6:1

Hos 6:1 - Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and He will heal us; He hath smitten, and He will bind us up - words spoken by ones who have been scattered and have repented of their rebellions that caused their scattering. They purpose to seek the LORD while He may be found that He may restore them (Ezra 7:10). This leads to the three step process, shown in Hos 6:2, where God fulfills the Everlasting Covenant in producing two classes of worshippers.

Hos 6:1

Hos 6:1 - Come, and let us return unto the LORD - a statement of repentance, humbling oneself and returning to God for mercy. The prophet includes himself in the counsel, "Come, let us return" (see Dan 9:5-11).

Hos 6:1

Hos 6:1 - for He hath torn, and He will heal us - God permits our sin to tear us: to endure hardship, breaking, tearing and abuse by the things in this world that we vainly place our trust in. Once torn and we realize there is no help in those things of the world, He heals us!

Hos 6:1

Hos 6:1 - He hath smitten - God has so ordered in his providence, that his children cannot have intercourse and associations with men of the world, and with the kingdoms of this earth, but that persecution, or loss of Christian character, is sure to follow. The prophet is showing the present state of the church, while the tares and wheat are growing together. The children of God shall be smitten - meaning they shall be chastised, persecuted, ruled over. See the Roman power, from the days of their connection with the Jews until the present time, ruling over, persecuting, and trampling under foot the church of God. Our text is not only showing us our duty to God, but it teaches us the sufferings of the church, the dealings of God with her, and her final redemption; the first and second coming of her Lord, her final deliverance from death and all enemies, and her glorified reign. It teaches us the manner of Christ's coming, and the time when all these things will be fulfilled. We are therefore now showing the sufferings of the church, and God's special care and providential dealings with her. {1842 WiM, MWV3 49.2}

Hos 6:1

Hos 6:1 - And he will bind us up - which is a promise of God, that, although the church should be torn and smitten, yet he would heal them, and bind them up. In due time he would gather them into one fold, he would bind up all their wounds, and heal them of all their maladies. He would visit their transgressions with a rod, and their iniquities with stripes; but his loving-kindness he would not take from them. These promises are brought to view in this part of our text. {1842 WiM, MWV3 49.3}

Hos 6:2

Hos 6:2 - After two days will He revive us - the three days here spoken in the verse parallel the three years of trial in Dan 1, that Dan and the three worthies were tested before being presented before Nebuchadnezzar and lastly the 46 years of Millerite history where the 3 Angels would be proclaimed and God would raise up a peculiar people (Joh 2:18-20). After the first two tests of Dan: 1. Appetite - Dan and the 3 boys purposed not to defile themselves with the king's meat and drink 2. Presumption - Dan and the 3 boys requested pulse so as not to presume upon God's graces in eating the corrupt foods. After being tested 10 days on pulse they appeared fairer than the other Hebrew boys. It is heard, after the 2nd test that God would bring a revival, as typified by the Midnight Cry of 1844.

Hos 6:2 - in the third day He will raise us up, and we shall live in His sight - The raising up here spoken typifies God's lifting up His people at the 3rd waymark (3rd Angel's Message) while casting down the wicked. We see it in the following: 1. Dan and the three worthies would be lifted up by God and before the king while the other Hebrew boys and Chaldeans would be cast down 2. God would lift up His people as an ensign upon the land (Zech 9:16) 3.

Jesus would be lifted up from the earth while Satan is cast down (Joh 12:31, 32, 2:18-20) 4. Elijah would be lifted up as the true prophet of God while the prophets of Baal would be cast down

Hos 6:3

Hos 6:3 - Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD - See Jer 29:13; Joh 7:17; Heb 11:6;

Hos 6:3

Hos 6:3 - if we follow on to know the LORD - a conditional statement showing that we must not draw back but continue on to know the Lord. See Joh 8:31; Jer 15:15-19; Heb 10:38, 39

Hos 6:3

Hos 6:3 - to know the LORD - It means, to believe in him, to have faith in his word, to understand his will, and be acquainted with his Spirit by a practical life of love and holiness. {1842 WiM, MWV3 51.1}

Hos 6:3

Hos 6:3 - His going forth is prepared as the morning - See 2Sam 23:4; Mal 4:2 this statement may give reference to God's consistency, that as the sun and moon rise in their circuit, so God is consistent (Jer 31:35-37). Further, the statement may suggest our knowledge of God, when we apply our hearts to know Him, will be ever increasing and progressive - the paths of the just shineth more and more unto the perfect day (Prov 4:18) His manner of imparting truth is illustrated in the words, "His going forth is prepared as the morning." Hosea 6:3. He who places himself where God can enlighten him, advances, as it were, from the partial obscurity of dawn to the full radiance of noonday. - {AA 564.2}

Hos 6:3

Hos 6:4 - He shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth - When God's Spirit enters in our hearts, it brings a refreshing, reinvigorating and life-giving power. It purifies and brings peace. See Zech 10:1; Hose 10:12

Hos 6:4

Hos 6:4 - your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away - See Isa 64:6

Hos 7:5

Hos 7:5 - he stretched out his hand with scorners - See Ps 1:1

Hos 7:8

Hos 7:8 - Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned - See Hos 4:17

Hos 7:8

Hos 7:8 - he hath mixed himself among the people - Ephraim, the Northern Kingdom, sought after strange gods, sought to emulate the works and practices of the nations and turned its back upon God. Because of its affinity for the nations, it would be to the nations as of 742B.C. Compare Num 23:9

Hos 7:8

Hos 7:8 - Ephraim is a cake not turned - Ephraim, the norther kingdom in its scattered state is unrepentant (unturned) and therefore is unconverted. See Hos 8:12; Jer 31:18

Hos 8:3

Hos 8:3 - Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him - See Lev 26:17, 29-39

Hos 8:4

Hos 8:4 - They have set-up kings; but not by Me: they have made princes, and I knew it not - Besides Jeroboam, God had no involvement in those who reigned over he land of Israel. Through their own devising, because they had forsaken the LORD, they set-up their kings and rulers. See 1Kin 12:31; Hos 8:5; contrast Isa 28:29; Dan 2:21

Hos 8:5

Hos 8:5 - Thy calf, O Samaria, hast cast thee off - the two golden calves set-up by Jeroboam in Bethel and Dan are the abominations that turned the LORD away from the Northern Kingdom See 1Kin 12:26-31; 2Kin 10:29

Hos 8:7

Hos 8:7 - For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind [tornado] - we so evil, we will reap destruction. See Job 4:8; Isa 33:1; Gal 6:7; Jer 6:19

Hos 13:11

Hos 13:11 - I gave thee a king in mine anger - It was never God's intention for Israel to have a man rule over them. He purposed to be their king and they His people. It was with their rejection of God that He permitted them to have an earthly king after much forewarning. See 1Sam 8:4-22

Joel

Joe 1:4

Back to Table of Contents

Joe 1:4 - That which the palmerworm hath left... - the four fold destruction by the four types of locust speak of the progressive judgment upon God's people (Adventism) until the fourth generation, marking the close of probation. See Ex 20:5; Gen 15:16; See 5T 208.1-211.1

Joe 1:5

Joe 1:5 - Awake, ye drunkards - the drunkards of Israel are they who will debate with the "new wine" (Early & Latter Rain) message when it is given. See Isa 28:1; Act 2:13-16

Joe 1:5

Joe 1:5 - weep and howl - Jam, speaking about the oppressive wealthy among Israel (Adventism), tells them to weep and howl because their destruction is imminent. See Jam 5:1

Joe 1:5

Joe 1:5 - all ye drinkers of wine - those who are intoxicated (deceived) by the doctrines of men. See Isa 29:9, 10; Mk 7:7, 8; Rev 18:3

Joe 1:5

Joe 1:5 - because of the new wine - the prophet foretells the outpouring of the Holy Spirit through the gospel message (new wine) in the time of the Apostles at Pentecost. The drunkards of Israel debate with the message and call those who proclaim it drunk, when in actuality, it is the accusers themselves who have become drunk (deceived) through corrupt doctrine (doctrines of men). See Act 2:13-16 The teaching of Christ, though it was represented by the new wine, was not a new doctrine, but the revelation of that which had been taught from the beginning. But to the Pharisees the truth of God had lost its original significance and beauty. To them Christ's teaching was new in almost every respect, and it was unrecognized and unacknowledged. - {DA 279.2} Wherever the truths of the gospel are proclaimed, those who honestly desire to do right are led to a diligent searching of the Scriptures. If, in the closing scenes of this earth's history, those to whom testing truths are proclaimed would follow the example of the Bereans, searching the Scriptures daily, and comparing with God's word the messages brought them, there would today be a large number loyal to the precepts of God's law, where now there are comparatively few. But when unpopular Bible truths are presented, many refuse to make this investigation. Though unable to controvert the plain teachings of Scripture, they yet manifest the utmost reluctance to study the evidences offered. Some assume that even if these doctrines are indeed true, it matters little whether or not they accept the new light, and they cling to pleasing fables which the enemy uses to lead souls astray. Thus their minds are blinded by error, and they become separated from heaven. - {AA 232.1}

Joe 1:5 - for it is cut off from you - the drunkards refuse to drink of the new wine and as a result, they will be trodden down by the Babylonians. See 2Chron 36:16-22

Joe 2:1

Joel 2:1 - Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh - See Isa 58:1

Joe 2:1

Joel 2:1 - the day of the LORD - the term the day of the LORD here references the day of the vengeance of the LORD (when His wrath is poured out in judgment). The day when the "quarrel of God's covenant" is vindicated, the scattering of Israel, typifies the Second Coming of Christ when the earth will melt away with fervent heat. See Joel 2:11; Mal 3:2; 2Pet 3:10-12; Rev 6:17

Joe 2:4

Joel 2:4 - The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses - See Rev 9:7

Joe 2:10

Joel 2:10 - the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining - speaking of swarms of destroying locusts whose approach darkens the skies

Joe 2:11

Joel 2:11 - for he is strong that executeth his word - See Isa 28:29

Joe 2:11

Joel 2:11 - for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it? - See Mal 3:2; Rev 6:17

Joe 2:12

Joel 2:12 - Therefore also now, saith the LORD, turn ye even unto Me - The LORD speaks words of warning to His people regarding the coming day of His vengeance and wrath. He therefore, counsels them to repent so that the day not come finding them undone. See 2Pet 3:14;

Joe 2:12

Joel 2:12- fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning - the works required of God's people during this probationary time denotes the works to be performed during a time of judgement (Day of Atonement). See Joel 2:15

Joe 2:13

Joel 2:13 - rend your heart and not your garments - This is the response to true revival and reformation. Those who were sincerely convicted by the first and second angel's messages forsook the world and eagerly awaited the coming of the LORD. So too, those in these days will be making preparation through renouncing sins and pursuing holiness, without which no man will see God.

Joe 2:13

Joel 2:13 - turn unto the LORD your God - God calls His people to repent. See Act 2:38;

Joe 2:13

Joel 2:13 - for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth Him of the evil - See Ex 34:5-8

Joe 2:14

Joel 2:14 - Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God? - See Jon 3:9

Joe 2:15

Joe 2:15 - Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly - the language speaks of the Day of Atonement (Oct 22 1844+) when a trumpet is sounded (Feast of Trumpets), a fast is called and the people gather together in humility to present themselves before the LORD for judgment (Day of Atonement). See Lev 16:29; 23:27-32; 25:9; Num 29:7

Joe 2:16

Joe 2:16 - sanctify the congregation - from the first day of the 7th month, a trumpet was blown (Feast of Trumpets) announcing the arrival of the Day of Atonement. This was a call for the people to sanctify themselves and repent of their sins so that they may be blotted out on that day, 9 days later. See Lev 23:24, 25; Num 29:16

Joe 2:16

Joe 2:16 - let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet - the time spoken is the era of the Midnight Cry, when the Bridegroom cometh and the bridesmaids trim their lamps to prepare for His soon arrival. The antitypical fulfillment is when Michael stands-up, leaving His chamber of Judgment and the bride comes from her hiding place (the hidden ones) to receive her Lord. See Mt 25:1-10; Dan 12:1; A possible reference to Laodiceans who in the last days are marrying and given in marriage and are not mindful of the urgency of the times. See Mt 24:37, 38

Joe 2:17

Joe 2:17 - Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God? - See Isa 22:12

Joe 2:17

Joel 2:17 - give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them - See Isa 4:1

Joe 2:20

Joe 2:20 - the northern army - also called "the devourer" in Mal 3:11, literally the plague of locusts, God's army (Joe 2:11), described in Joe 1:4 that consumes all the land. Spiritually, the northern army is the King of the North, Assyria and Babylon (Joe 1:6), both symbolizing the Papacy - Spiritual Babylon, that scatters God's people and desolates the land.

Joe 2:22

Joe 2:22 - pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength - See Isa 27:2, 6, 8, 9; Lk 21:29-32

Joe 2:23

Joel 2:23 - former rain moderately - the term "rain moderately" is interpreted "teacher of righteousness". Therefore, the former rains are to instruct us in godliness and righteous living. This work is done through the power and guidance of the Holy Spirit, Who convicts of sin, righteousness and judgment and is a revealer of things to come. The former rain or teacher of righteousness occurred at Pentecost

Joe 2:23

Joel 2:23 - moderately - interpreted "in righteousness", the latter rain, the "teacher of righteousness" is given "in righteousness" by the Holy Spirit, He Who guides us into all truth.

Joe 2:23

Joe 2:23 - he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain - a former teacher and a later teacher of righteousness in righteousness. the latter rain will be of the Holy Spirit by those who demonstrate Christ's righteousness by faith in their lives. See Isa 30:23-25

Joe 2:23

Joe 2:23 - in the first month - The first month in the Jewish calendar (Abib) is March/April, or springtime. The rains arrive in the spring and harvest occurs in the summer. Additionally, God will bring forth the rains, former and later rain in the same month, the first month, in other words with haste. Therefore, the barns will bring forth much wheat for bread, the vines will yield much wine for doctrine and the olive tree will bring forth much oil in the Spirit. God will make a quick work of sealing up visions and prophecies. The pouring out of His Spirit and the final acts of judgment will be rapid ones. See Rom 9:28 The first month of the Hebrew calendar (Abib) also featured three ceremonial festivals, typifying God's work in redeeming mankind and offering to us the blessings of a new life in Christ. The three festivals and what they typify are symbols of the Christian experience: 1. Passover - Jesus our Passover Lamb died for our sins as a part of the Plan of Redemption. We too are commanded to die and be crucified with Christ 2. Feast of Unleavened Bread - Jesus, the Unleavened Bread of life "would not rise" but remained in the grave, a symbol of death and burial. We too must bury the old man and not permit him to rise, but remain buried in the grave. 3. Feast of First Fruits - Jesus, our First Fruit, arose with power, having conquered death and the grave. As First Fruit of Redemption, Jesus came forth as a symbol of those who will come forth, free from sin and alive in Christ to offer a sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to God. See Ps 22:30, 31

Joe 2:24

Joe 2:24 - the floors shall be full of wheat, the fats shall overflow with wine and oil - See Isa 30:24

Joe 2:25

Joe 2:25 - I will restore to you - Just as God was merciful to Job and the end He purposed for him (Jam 5:11), God will restore all that was lost during the years of scattering and destruction from the judgments of the LORD. This promise is also to the 4th Generation of Adventism, that God will restore the Old Paths that have been covered over with falsehood. God will restore a pure Faith and religion that will be as the churches of Ephesus, and Philadelphia.

Joe 2:26

Joel 2:26 - that hath dealt wondrously with you - God's grace, mercy, long-suffering, patience, goodness, faithfulness, justice and kindness towards us, as demonstrated throughout the Plan of Redemption is here extoled.

Joe 2:26

Joel 2:26 - my people shall never be ashamed - God's people have kept their garments white and the shame of their nakedness has been covered by the righteousness of Christ, garments woven in the loom of heaven. See Rev 16:15; Isa 28:16, Rom 9:33, 5:5

Joe 2:27

Joel 2:27 - And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed - God has always wanted us to know that He is not a God afar off, but near at hand, dwelling with the humble and contrite among His people. See Ex 25:8, 33:14-16; Jer 23:23; Isa 7:14, 57:15

Joe 2:28

Joel 2:28 - And it shall come to pass afterward - God here states that in the process of time, after Israel's captivity that He will deliver them from Babylon (Zech 2:6-9; Rev 18:1-5) and will pour out His Spirit upon them to do a mighty work [1. The work in the time of Nehemiah, rebuilding Jerusalem and its walls; 2. The work in in the end time, to build God's temple, His glorious holy mountain]

Joe 2:28

Joel 2:28 - I will pour out my spirit on all flesh - the implication of "all flesh" must primarily refer to those who are of the household of faith that have consecrated themselves through fasting and prayer to receive the latter rains in order to present the gospel message (Joel 2:15-17; Act 1:4-2:36).

Joe 2:30

Joel 2:30 - I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke - that which the prophet foretold was fulfilled in January 1837 with the wonderful manifestations of the Aurora Borealis. See comments from the Great Second Advent Movement by J.N. Loughborough, pg113: On Jan. 25, 1837, there was a most magnificent display of the fiery aurora borealis, which seemed to lead the minds of many directly to the prophet Joel's prediction of what was to precede the great day of the Lord. The following description of the scene is from the New York Commercial Advertiser of Oct. 22, 1839. It agrees exactly with the scene as the writer witnessed it in Victor, Ontario County, N.Y.

Joe 2:31

Joe 2:31 - sun shall be turned to darkness - May 19, 1780 May 19, 1780, stands in history as "The Dark Day." Since the time of Moses no period of darkness of equal density, extent, and duration, has ever been recorded. The description of this event, as given by eyewitnesses, is but an echo of the words of the Lord, recorded by the prophet Joel, twenty-five hundred years previous to their fulfillment: "The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of the Lord come." Joel 2:31. - {GC 308.1}

Joe 2:31

Joel 2:31 - before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come - See Joel 2:11, 1; Mal 3:2, 3

Joe 2:32

Joe 2:32

Joel 2:32 - and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call - See Zeph 3:13

Joe 3:2

Joel 3:2 - Jehoshaphat - meaning Jehovah judged - The valley of God's judgment is the place where the wicked will be shown their unrighteous deeds and will be punished for their rebellion. - See Rev 16:1-21, 20:11-15

Joe 3:2

Joel 3:2 - will plead with them for my people and for my heritage Israel whom they have scattered - The day of restitution upon all who have harmed God's people. See Rev 16:4-6

Joe 3:7

Joel 3:7 - Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head - See Joel 3:3

Joe 3:9

Joe 3:9 - wake up the mighty men - the men of war will be awakened (stirred up) by the last president of the U.S. according to Dan 11:2

Joe 3:12

Joe 3:12 - Valley of Jehoshaphat - the Sunday Law at the Midnight Cry that identifies the Levites among Adventism.

Joe 3:13

Joe 3:13 - put ye in the sickle for the harvest is ripe - the harvest of the vine of the earth is here spoken, the destruction of the wicked in the 7 Last Plagues and culminating in Jesus' Second Coming. See Rev 14:17-20

Joe 3:14

Joe 3:14 - multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision - the great ingathering by the 144,000 is here mentioned as the message of the angel of Rev 18 calls God's people (his other flock) out of Babylon. See Rev 18:1-5, 7:9

Joe 3:15

Joel 3:15 - The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining - See Mt 24:29

Joe 3:16

Joe 3:16 - the LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter His voice from Jerusalem, and the heavens and the earth shall shake - the Great day of the LORD, His Second Coming, where Jesus will descend with a shout, with the voice of the Arch Angel and shall shake the earth once again. See 1Thess 4:16; Jer 25:30-38; Am 1:2; Heb 12:26-29

Joe 3:16

Joe 3:16 - utter His voice from Jerusalem, and the heavens and the earth shall shake - See Rev 18:5

Joe 3:16

Joel 3:16 - and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel - See Heb 12:26, 27

Joe 3:16

Joel 3:16 - but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel - See Isa 4:2-6

Joe 3:17

Joe 3:17 - then shall Jerusalem be holy - the church triumphant is here referred to after the passage and enforcement of a Sunday Law.

Joe 3:17

Joe 3:17 - and there shall no strangers pass through her any more - the strangers here spoken represent the Gentiles/heathen (See Lam 1:10) or the tares of Adventism who will be bound-up at the Sunday Law and will be separated from the wheat, who are also bound-up. See Isa 52:1; Eze 13:9 The time is not far distant when the test will come to every soul. The mark of the beast will be urged upon us. Those who have step by step yielded to worldly demands and conformed to worldly customs will not find it a hard matter to yield to the powers that be, rather than subject themselves to derision, insult, threatened imprisonment, and death. The contest is between the commandments of God and the commandments of men. In this time the gold will be separated from the dross in the church. True godliness will be clearly distinguished from the appearance and tinsel of it. Many a star that we have admired for its brilliancy will then go out in darkness. Chaff like a cloud will be borne away on the wind, even from places where we see only floors of rich wheat. All who assume the ornaments of the sanctuary, but are not clothed with Christ's righteousness, will appear in the shame of their own nakedness. - {5T 81.1}

Joel 3:18 - the mountains shall drop down new wine - there is a blessing in the cluster of the vine, the new wine which makes glad - See Isa 65:8

Amos

Am 1:2

Back to Table of Contents

Am 1:2 - The LORD will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither. - The Lord pronounces judgments upon the rebellious nations which have lifted up their hands against the Lord's anointed, against the apple of His eyes.

Am 1:11

Am 1:12 - For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever: - the works of Esau (Edom) in pursuing his brother Jacob would be played out in his descendants who persecuted the COI in the wilderness as they fled from Egyptian bondage. See Num 20:14-21; Mal 1:2-4

Am 3:2

Am 3:2 - You only have I known - See Ps 147:19, 20; Ex 19:4-6; Isa 51:1, 2; Jer 32:30; Rom 3:2

Am 3:3

Am 3:3 - Can two walk together, except they be agreed? - See Gal 5:17; 2Cor 6:14, 15; 1Cor 6:15-17; Mt 12:25; Mk 3:25; Lk 3:17; 1Jo 1:7 Holiness is constant agreement with God. Shall we not strive to be that which Christ so greatly desires us to be—Christians in deed and in truth—that the world may see in our lives a revelation of the saving power of truth? This world is our preparatory school. While here we shall meet with trials and difficulties. Continually the enemy of God will seek to draw us away from our allegiance. But while we cleave to Him who gave Himself for us we are safe. - {HP 33.4} After a long and severe conflict, the faithful few decided to dissolve all union with the apostate church if she still refused to free herself from falsehood and idolatry. They saw that separation was an absolute necessity if they would obey the word of God. They dared not tolerate errors fatal to their own souls, and set an example which would imperil the faith of their children and children's children. To secure peace and unity they were ready to make any concession consistent with fidelity to God; but they felt that even peace would be too dearly purchased at the sacrifice of principle. If unity could be secured only by the compromise of truth and righteousness, then let there be difference, and even war. - {GC 45.3}

Am 3:7 - Surely - guaranteed, without question, without a doubt, with no contest. Compared Ps 23:6; Isa 53:4

Am 3:8

Am 3:4, 8-12 - lion roars - the Assyrians, likened to a lion (Hos 5:14) would subdue the Northern Kingdom while its allies Egypt, Syria and Ashdod watched the carnage. The people would be scattered and torn apart such as when a shepherd takes two legs out of a lion's mouth or a piece of an ear.

Am 3:8

Am 3:8 - who can but prophesy? - As a lion roars and all hear the sound, so when God speaks all should take heed to His prophets. See Deut 18:18, 19; 1Cor 14:1-5, 12

Am 3:12

Am 4:7 - caused it to rain in one city... Caused it not to rain in another city - Only those who are living up to the light they have will receive greater light. Unless we are daily advancing in the exemplification of the active Christian virtues, we shall not recognize the manifestations of the Holy Spirit in the latter rain. It may be falling on hearts all around us, but we shall not discern or receive it.—Testimonies to Ministers and Gospel Workers, 507 (1897). - {LDE 195.4}

Am 4:7

Am 8:4-6 - Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail - the gains of oppression are here described. See Isa 33:15

Am 8:5

Am 8:5 - Saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat - they did not have worship of God and honoring of His holy Sabbath day in mind. They sought the gain of oppression and to afflict the poor (Isa 33:15). See Nehemiah 13:19-21

Am 8:5

Am 8:5 - making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit? - See Lev 19:35, 36

Am 8:10

Am 8:10 - feasts into mourning... sackcloth upon all loins - the Apostle Jam (Jam 4:4-11) counsels an adulterous generation, living in the Antitypical time of Judgment to: 1. Cleanse your hands 2. Purify your hearts 3. Be afflicted and mourn and weep 4. Let laughter be turned to mourning 5. Turn Joy to heaviness 6. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord 7. Speak no evil one of another This work of humiliation was scorned by those written here in Am. Therefore, they will be forced to mourn, weep, fast and dawn sackcloth in the time of the overflowing scourge, however, their will be no loving kindness or tender mercies from the Lord to blot out sins (Ps 51:1)

Am 8:11

Am 8:11 - Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD: - See Joh 7:34

Am 8:11

Am 8:11 - send a famine in the land - See Mic 7:1-7; Gen 41:27; Eze 22:24; Rev 15:8 Isa 8:21, 22: 21 And they shall pass through it, hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look upward. 22 And they shall look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness. I saw that many were neglecting the preparation so needful, and were looking to the time of "refreshing" and the "latter rain" to fit them to stand in the day of the Lord, and to live in His sight. Oh, how many I saw in the time of trouble without a shelter! They had neglected the needful preparation, therefore they could not receive the refreshing that all must have to fit them to live in the sight of a holy God. - {CET 112.3}

Am 8:11

Am 8:11 - but of hearing the words of the LORD - consider the land of Bethlehemjudah in the time of Ruth and in the time of Eli, when Eli's apostate sons were leading services in the sanctuary. See 1Sam 3:1; Ruth 1:1; Ps 74:9; Mic 3:5-7

Am 8:12

Am 8:12 - they shall wander from sea to sea... - See Isa 8:21, 22. The Lord in judgment will at the close of time walk through the earth, the fearful plagues will begin to fall. Then those who have despised God's word, those who have lightly esteemed it, shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the Lord and shall not find it.... The ministers of God will have done their last work, offered their last prayers, shed their last bitter tear for a rebellious church and an ungodly people. - {Mar 264.4}

Am 8:12

Am 8:12 - from the north even to the east - a reference to the paths of the just followed by the faithful, who shortly, prior to the close of probation proclaimed the message of the north [Dan 11:44] (the King of the North) and the east (the sons of the east - Islam) but the foolish virgins and young men would not hear. See Jer 6:16; Isa 28:12

Am 8:12

Am 8:12 - seek the word of the Lord and it shall not be found - God will hide His face from those who have forsaken His paths, have forsaken the peaceful waters of Shiloah and have put their trust in men. See Isa 8:6, 7, 17; Prov 1:22-33; Lk 19:42; Joh 7:36

Am 8:13

Am 8:13 - fair virgins - a reference to the foolish virgins of Mt 25:1-12

Am 8:13

Am 8:13 - faint for thirst - See Isa 8:11-13, 21, 22

Am 8:14

Am 8:14- sin of Samaria - setting up of idols as Jeroboam established two golden calves for the COI in the north (Dan and Bethel) to worship. See 1Kin 12:28, 29; Isa 44:9-20; Jer 44:2-10

Am 8:14

Am 8:14 - Thy god, O Dan, liveth - the false god, a golden calf, set up by Jeroboam but torn down by Josiah is here referenced. See 1Kin 12:29; 2Kin 10:29, 23:15

Am 8:14

Jonah

Jon 1:2Back to Table of Contents

Jonah 1:2 - Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me - See Nahum 1, 2, 3

Jon 1:3

Jon 1:3 - But Jon rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD - consider the folly of the prophet of God. Jon demonstrated the unconverted carnality of men (Jam 5:17) as his hatred for the Ninevites caused him to flee from the presence of the Lord and run in the opposite direction so that salvation may not come to this people. Consider His repentant proclamation in Jon 2:10 from the belly of the fish God prepared years in advance just for him.

Jon 1:3

Jon 1:3 - flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD - either Tarshish was a godless place where Jon sought to flee from God's presence or he assumed that running in the opposite direction from where God commanded him to go would discourage the Lord such that he may ask another. Whatever Jon's rationale, it was folly!

Jon 1:4

Jon 1:4 - But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken - the Lord's tempest was for the purpose of redeeming His wayward prophet, to set him on the right course while revealing Himself to the heathen mariners.

Jon 1:5

Jon 1:5 - Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god - the mariners were heathen men, ignorant of the knowledge of the True God of Heaven, the Creator of heaven, the earth, the seas and the fountains of water.

Jon 1:5

Jon 1:5 - But Jon was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep - Jon slept in peace despite being in rebellion to God's expressed command. He awoke to find God's response to his rebellion. See Jon 1:12

Jon 1:7

Jon 1:7 - And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jon - God used lots to expose the rebellion of his prophet. Though casting lots appears to be a work of chance, God worked with the men's ignorance of Himself to expose the truth of His prophet.

Jon 1:8

Jon 1:8 - Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou? - the mariners, fearful that the "gods" are vexed because of Jon, inquire of him the cause of their ill fate on the sea.

Jon 1:9

Jon 1:9 - And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land - Ah, the grace of the Lord! That we may stand in open rebellion towards Him, doing our own thing and can yet call Him our God. God used Jon's rebellion, taking the Lord's name in vain, as an opportunity to witness for Him. Jon at least had his elevator speech prepared for who he was and the God he served.

Jon 1:9

Jon 1:9 - the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land - Jon acknowledges the God that dwells in heaven, but has made all the things seen around us.

Jon 1:12

Jon 1:12 - for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you - Jon acknowledged that his sin caused the misfortune of others. He took responsibility and told the men to cast him overboard.

Jon 1:13

Jon 1:13 - Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them - the heathen mariners showed more compassion and regard for the life of the erring prophet of God than he showed for the entire nation of Ninevites. See Jon 4:2, 3

Jon 1:14

Jon 1:14 - Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee - Even the heathen, that have not a knowledge of God understand the terror of taking innocent blood and petition God to forgive them if by casting Jon into the water he should perish. See Ps 51:14; Jer 31:31-34

Jon 1:16

Jon 1:16 - Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows - God reached these heathen mariners through the rebellion of His prophet. God is AMAZING!!!

Jon 1:17

Jon 1:17 - the fish which swallowed Jon was prepared specifically by the Lord. The same will not be found in nature such that it can accommodate a man, but rather, this specific fish God designed for this purpose. God foresaw Jon's rebellion years in advance and prepared this fish just for him.

Jon 1:17

Jon 1:17 - And Jon was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights - See Joh 2:19-22

Jon 2:2

Jon 2:2 - And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice - See Jer 31:18-20

Jon 2:4

Jon 2:4 - Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward thy holy temple - See 1Kin 8:22-52

Jon 2:6

Jon 2:6 - the earth with her bars was about me for ever - Jon was in the belly of the fish for 3-days yet it felt as an eternity. This is a foreshadowing of the Second Death, eternal separation from God that Jesus bore for mankind and that the wicked, who scorn Jesus' substitutionary sacrifice will have to pay themselves.

Jon 2:6

Jon 2:6 - yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God - Jon is again giving a Messianic prophecy in showing that God would redeem Jesus' soul from corruption and deliver Him from the grave. See Ps 16:10

Jon 2:7

Jon 2:7 - When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple - See Ps 27:13

Jon 2:8

Jon 2:8 - They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy - See Mk 7:7, 8; 2Thess 2:10-12

Jon 2:9

Jon 2:9 - But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving - See Ps 27:6

Jon 2:9

Jon 2:9 - I will pay that that I have vowed - when we come to the Lord in contrition, with repentance, purposing to restore that which was broken and to pay that which we have vowed, the Lord hears our prayers and answers us.

Jon 2:9

Jon 2:9 - Salvation is of the LORD - See Ps 3:8

Jon 3:1

Jon 3:1 - And the word of the LORD came unto Jon the second time - God mercifully granted Jon a second chance to do that which he was appointed to do. God's grace to the erring is amazing. However, God will not strive forever if we remain in rebellion.

Jon 3:2

Jon 3:2 - that great city - insolent, proud and boastful city. Ninevah typifies the future city Babylon the Great, the great city who has been judged, weighed in the balances and found wanting.

Jon 3:3

Jon 3:3 - Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey - large, expansive city in size

Jon 3:4

Jon 3:4 - And Jon began to enter into the city a day's journey - Jon walked a days journey into the midst of the city and began his prophetic, ominous warning.

Jon 3:4

Jon 3:4 - Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown - from the day that Jon began his proclamation, the 40-day clock began to tick for the city.

Jon 3:5

Jon 3:5 - So the people of Nineveh believed God - the heathen people of Nineveh were more ready to listen and take heed to the voice of God than His own people. Jer 8:5-7 The warning message of Joh was in the same lines as the warning to Nineveh, "Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown" (Jonah 3:4). Nineveh repented, and called upon God, and God accepted their acknowledgment of Him. Forty years of probation was granted them in which to reveal the genuineness of their repentance and to turn from sin. But Nineveh turned again to the worship of images; her iniquity became deeper and more desperate than before, because the light had come and had not been heeded. - {2SM 149.1}

Jon 3:5

Jon 3:5 - and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them - all within the city, great and small participated in the fast from wickedness in light of the message from the prophet of God. See 2Chron 20:20

Jon 3:6

Jon 3:6 - For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes - the king dawned clothing of repentance. See Lk 10:13; Jon 3:8 Compare Jer 36:1-25

Jon 3:7

Jon 3:7 - And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water: - the command of the king perfectly mirrors the works of repentance the Lord spoke through the prophet Joel 2:12-18. Either the Holy Spirit spoke to the king the works of repentance that would find favor with the Lord or perhaps Jon communicated that in his broadcasts appeal.

Jon 3:8

Jon 3:8 - But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands - See 2Chron 7:14

Jon 3:9

Jon 3:9 - Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? - See Joel 2:14

Jon 3:10

Jon 3:10 - And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not - See Ezek 18:21-23

Jon 4:1

Jon 4:1 - But it displeased Jon exceedingly, and he was very angry - the book of Jon is written for the church of the last generation upon the earth. The Laodicean SDA church is perfectly typified by Jon: 1. Professing to be the chosen people of God, bearing the prophetic word, and yet cold and indifferent towards the people needing their counsels (Jon 1:9) 2. Showing a lack of compassion and concern for a people who are doomed if they do not repent (Jon 1:3, 4:1) 3. Running from their appointed duties and responsibilities (Jon 1:3) 4. Demonstrating far less righteousness than the heathen about them (Jon 1:13, 14, 3:5-9) 5. Envious when those outside of the faith repent and become God's people (Jon 4:1)

Jon 4:2

Jon 4:2 - for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil - See Ex 34:5-7; Ezek 18:23

Jon 4:3

Jon 4:3 - Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live - Jon was vexed that the Ninevites, his enemies repented and God found favor with their repentance. He was also vexed because he feared being called a false prophet. See Deut 18:22

Jon 4:4

Jon 4:4 - Then said the LORD, Doest thou well to be angry? - God asks Jon "Why are you angry? Is that a noble and upright thing you are doing?". The Lord seeks for us to be introspective to question why we have enemies, why we rejoice in iniquity and the chastisement of the wicked, why we may be vexed when those who we see as wicked repent and accept the Lord. God wants us to evaluate our hearts, minds and motives.

Jon 4:5

Jon 4:5 - sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city - Jon was waiting, anticipating the destruction of the despised city

Jon 4:9

Jon 4:8 - Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? - God asks Jon again: "Is it right for you to grieve over the death of the gourd, more so than the life of the people of Nineveh?"

Jon 4:11

Jon 4:11 - And should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle? - God asks if He should not spare Nineveh with its +120K inhabitants and cattle?

See Ps 37:29, 61:3; Prov 18:10; Eph 1:14 Satan, by means of his success in turning man aside from the path of obedience, became "the god of this world." 2 Corinthians 4:4. The dominion that once was Adam's passed to the usurper. But the Son of God proposed to come to this earth to pay the penalty of sin, and thus not only redeem man, but recover the dominion forfeited. It is of this restoration that Micah prophesied when he said, "O Tower of the flock, the stronghold of the daughter of Zion, unto Thee shall it come, even the first dominion." Micah 4:8. The apostle Paul has referred to it as "the redemption of the purchased possession." Ephesians 1:14. And the psalmist had in mind the same final restoration of man's original inheritance when he declared, "The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein forever." The divine Intercessor presents the plea that all who have overcome through faith in His blood be forgiven their transgressions, that they be restored to their Eden home, and crowned as joint heirs with Himself to "the first dominion." Satan in his efforts to deceive and tempt our race had thought to frustrate the divine plan in man's creation; but Christ now asks that this plan be carried into effect as if man had never fallen. See Isa 33:14; Ps 27:6, 86:17; Zech 5:6-11 The same spirit that prompted rebellion in heaven still inspires rebellion on earth. Satan has continued with men the same policy which he pursued with the angels. His spirit now reigns in the children of disobedience. Like him they seek to break down the restraints of the law of God and promise men liberty through transgression of its precepts. Reproof of sin still arouses the spirit of hatred and resistance. When God's messages of warning are brought home to the conscience, Satan leads men to justify themselves and to seek the sympathy of others in their course of sin. Instead of correcting their errors, they excite indignation against the reprover, as if he were the sole cause of difficulty. From the days of righteous Abel to our own time such is the spirit which has been displayed toward those who dare to condemn sin. - {GC 500.1}

Nah 1:9 - affliction shall not rise up the second time - See Rev 21:1-5, 22:11; Isa 26:10; Mt 13:41, 49; Job 27:10 The condition of eternal life is now just what it always has been,—just what it was in Paradise before the fall of our first parents,—perfect obedience to the law of God, perfect righteousness. If eternal life were granted on any condition short of this, then the happiness of the whole universe would be imperiled. The way would be open for sin, with all its train of woe and misery, to be immortalized. - {SC 62.1} It is no arbitrary decree on the part of God that excludes the wicked from heaven; they are shut out by their own unfitness for its companionship. The glory of God would be to them a consuming fire. They would welcome destruction, that they might be hidden from the face of Him who died to redeem them. - {SC 17.2} That the world could only tolerate 3.5yrs of the LORD's ministry before seeking to destroy Him shows that the wicked can not coexist with the righteous, they will never change their ways; destruction is the only logical end for them and sin will therefore, never rise up again: "Jesus had now given three years of public labor to the world. His example of self-denial and disinterested benevolence was before them. His life of purity, of suffering and devotion, was known to all. Yet this short period of three years was as long as the world could endure the presence of its Redeemer." - {DA 541.3} The Lord has given me a view of other worlds. Wings were given me, and an angel attended me from the city to a place that was bright and glorious. The grass of the place was living green, and the birds there warbled a sweet song. The inhabitants of the place were of all sizes; they were noble, majestic, and lovely. They bore the express image of Jesus, and their countenances beamed with holy joy, expressive of the freedom and happiness of the place. I asked one of them why they were so much more lovely than those on the earth. The reply was, "We have lived in strict obedience to the commandments of God, and have not fallen by disobedience, like those on the earth." Then I saw two trees, one looked much like the tree of life in the city. The fruit of both looked beautiful, but of one they could not eat. They had power to eat of both, but were forbidden to eat of one. Then my attending angel said to me, "None in this place have tasted of the forbidden tree; but if they should eat, they would fall." {EW 39.2} So with the apostasy at Sinai. Unless punishment had been speedily visited upon transgression, the same results would again have been seen. The earth would have become as corrupt as in the days of Noah. Had these transgressors been spared, evils would have followed, greater than resulted from sparing the life of Cain. It was the mercy of God that thousands should suffer, to prevent the necessity of visiting judgments upon millions. In order to save the many, He must punish the few. Furthermore, as the people had cast off their allegiance to God, they had forfeited the divine protection, and, deprived of their defense, the whole nation was exposed to the power of their enemies. Had not the evil been promptly put away, they would soon have fallen a prey to their numerous and powerful foes. It was necessary for the good of Israel, and also as a lesson to all succeeding generations, that crime should be promptly punished. And it was no less a mercy to the sinners themselves that they should be cut short in their evil course. Had their life been spared, the same spirit that led them to rebel against God would have been manifested in hatred and strife among themselves, and they would eventually have destroyed one another. It was in love to the world, in love to Israel, and even to the transgressors, that crime was punished with swift and terrible severity. - {PP 325.3} Satan had claimed that it was impossible for man to obey God's commandments; and in our own strength it is true that we cannot obey them. But Christ came in the form of humanity, and by His perfect obedience He proved that humanity and divinity combined can obey every one of God's precepts. - {COL 314.4} "As many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name." Joh 1:12. This power is not in the human agent. It is the power of God. When a soul receives Christ, he receives power to live the life of Christ. - {COL 314.5} God requires perfection of His children. His law is a transcript of His own character, and it is the standard of all character. This infinite standard is presented to all that there may be no mistake in regard to the kind of people whom God will have to compose His kingdom. The life of Christ on earth was a perfect expression of God's law, and when those who claim to be children of God become Christlike in character, they will be obedient to God's commandments. Then the Lord can trust them to be of the number who shall compose the family of heaven. Clothed in the glorious apparel of Christ's righteousness, they have a place at the King's feast. They have a right to join the blood-washed throng. - {COL 315.1} God carries with Him the sympathy and approval of the whole universe as step by step His great plan advances to its complete fulfillment.—Patriarchs and Prophets, 78, 79 (1890). - {LDE 30.2} The act of Christ in dying for the salvation of man would not only make heaven accessible to men, but before all the universe it would justify God and His son in their dealing with the rebellion of Satan.—Patriarchs and Prophets, 68, 69 (1890). - {LDE 30.3} The whole universe is watching with inexpressible interest the closing scenes of the great controversy between good and evil.—Prophets and Kings, 148 (c. 1914). - {LDE 30.4} Our little world is the lesson book of the universe.—The Desire of Ages, 19 (1898). “The happiness of heaven will be found by conforming to the will of God, and if men become members of the royal family of heaven, it will be because heaven has begun with them on earth.⁵ Every passing hour now is one of activity in the heavenly courts, to make ready a people upon the earth. . . . If we would be saints above, we must first be saints below.⁶” Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short This material may be protected by copyright. God has given us probationary time in order that it may be made manifest whether we will be loyal, obedient children, rendering obedience to his commandments, his statutes, and his laws, or whether we will persist in following a course of disobedience, and prove ourselves unworthy of eternal life. Those who will be doers of the words of Christ will have their names written in the Lamb’s book of life; but those who will not obey God’s law after light has come to them from the holy Scriptures, will be written among those whose fate is to perish. For those who choose to follow the traditions of men, and are willing to be turned from the truth of God unto fables, and who train themselves to walk away from the path of God’s commandments, and will not listen to the law of God, but take up with the vain excuses devised by man to continue in disobedience, would not listen to the voice of God in the heavenly courts, and would bring rebellion a second time into heaven. When the Father speaks, they hear him not; but their ears are open to hear the suggestions of the enemy of God and man. - {RH October 9, 1894 Par. 9}

Hab 1:11 - then shall his mind change... [he] offend, imputing this his power unto his gods - Chaldea will serve as God's weapon of chastisement, punishing Israel mercilessly for their iniquities. The reference to changing of mind may allude to Babylon's first king, Nebuchadnezzar, who after being humbled, accepted the True God of heaven versus Babylon's last king, Belshazzar, Nebuchadnezzar's grandson who profaned the God of heaven. For their excessively harsh treatment of God's people and for their ascribing their successes to their gods made of wood and stone under Belshazzar, God would punish Chaldea. Hab 2:1-3 - The prophecy had its fulfillment in April 1842 When Charles Fitch printed 300 copies of the 1843 charts [named such because the prophecies on the chart ended in 1843] that were used by Adventist Pioneers in their preaching of the Advent Message. The warning has come: Nothing is to be allowed to come in that will disturb the foundation of the faith upon which we have been building ever since the message came in 1842, 1843, and 1844. I was in this message, and ever since I have been standing before the world, true to the light that God has given us. We do not propose to take our feet off the platform on which they were placed as day by day we sought the Lord with earnest prayer, seeking for light. Do you think that I could give up the light that God has given me? It is to be as the Rock of Ages. It has been guiding me ever since it was given. - General Conference Bulletin April 6, 1903 The 1843 Chart is said to be the foundation of the faith of Adventism. Like all other cornerstones (foundations) it has become a point of contention. See Lk 20:17; Prophets and Kings 563, 564 "The enemy is seeking to divert the minds of our brethren and sisters from the work of preparing a people to stand in these last days. His sophistries are designed to lead minds away from the perils and duties of the hour. They estimate as of little value the light that Christ came from heaven to give to Joh for His people. They teach that the scenes just before us are not of sufficient importance to receive special attention. They make of no effect the truth of heavenly origin, and rob the people of God of their past experience, giving them instead a false science. 'Thus saith the Lord: Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein.' [Jer 6:16.] "Let none seek to tear away the foundations of our faith,—the foundations that were laid at the beginning of our work, by prayerful study of the Word and by revelation. Upon these foundations we have been building for more than fifty years. Men may suppose that they have found a new way, that they can lay a stronger foundation than that which has been laid; but this is a great deception. 'Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid.' [1Cor 3:11.] In the past, many have undertaken to build a new faith, to establish new principles; but how long did their building stand? It soon fell; for it was not founded upon the Rock." Testimonies, volume 8, 296-297. "The Word of the Lord has guided our steps since the passing of the time in 1844. We have searched the Scriptures; we have built solidly; and we have not had to tear up our foundations and put in new timbers." Manuscript Releases, volume 1, 55.

Zeph 1:1

Back to Table of Contents

Zeph 1:1 - Zeph - meaning God has concealed or God of Darkness.

Zeph 1:1

Zeph 1:1 - in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah - King Amon was notedly wicked as recorded in the prophetic record (2Kin 21:19-26) and ruled only 2yrs until the age of 24 when he was assassinated. Josiah his young son of 8yrs old assumed the throne and walked in the ways of the LORD. Josiah typifies the Adventist people in that he was one who discovered the book of the Law in the Lord's house (the sanctuary) and responded with humility, repentance and contrition, calling for a revival in the land. His seeking counsel of the prophetess (Hulda||EGW) also reflects the Adventist people.

Zeph 1:3

Zeph 1:3 - I will consume both man and beast - the message of Zeph is for those at the end of the world. The only other instance of God consuming both man and beast from the earth was during the time of the flood with Noah. See Gen 6:5-7

Zeph 1:3

Zeph 1:3 - consume the fowls of the heaven - the carrion eating birds will also be consumed in the great day of the LORD, Jesus' Second Coming. See Rev 19:17, 18

Zeph 1:3

Zeph 1:3 - the stumblingblocks with the wicked - the stumbling blocks of the wicked is their idolatrous practices that they place before the LORD (wealth, foreign gods, lewdness, etc.). See Eze 14:1-5, 7:19 The stumblingblocks mentioned in Mic 5:10-15, 6 are the abominations of Babylon, the three fold power of dragon, beast and false prophet in the last days. The stumblingblock mentioned in Zech 11:17 is the Beast power, the idol shepherd that causes the nations to walk in darkness and usurps the honor due to Jesus Christ alone. The stumblingblock mentioned in Zech 13:2 is the False Prophet, which has a name and is a lying prophet to God's people.

Zeph 1:4

Zeph 1:4 - I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah - God has a punishment for His people, the SDA church at the end of time who too have committed harlotries with Baal. In rejecting the truth, men reject its Author. In trampling upon the law of God, they deny the authority of the Law-giver. It is as easy to make an idol of false doctrines and theories as to fashion an idol of wood or stone. By misrepresenting the attributes of God, Satan leads men to conceive of Him in a false character. With many, a philosophical idol is enthroned in the place of Jehovah; while the living God, as He is revealed in His word, in Christ, and in the works of creation, is worshiped by but few. Thousands deify nature while they deny the God of nature. Though in a different form, idolatry exists in the Christian world today as verily as it existed among ancient Israel in the days of Elijah. The God of many professedly wise men, of philosophers, poets, politicians, journalists—the God of polished fashionable circles, of many colleges and universities, even of some theological institutions—is little better than Baal, the sun-god of Phoenicia. - {GC 583.1}

Zeph 1:4

Zeph 1:4 - cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemerims with the priests - See 2Kin 23:5

Zeph 1:4

Zeph 1:4 - Chemarims - idolatrous priests who wore black and bowed down before their graven idols and worshipped the sun, moon and stars (astrology).

Zeph 1:5 - worship and that swear by the LORD, and that swear by Malchem - The prophet hear describes a people who are halt between two opinions, double minded men as Jam calls them, that seek to serve God and mammon, and who are lukewarm, neither cold nor hot.

Zeph 1:5

Zeph 1:5 - Malcham - the national idol of the Ammonites, sons of Lot.

Zeph 1:6

Zeph 1:6 - have not sought the LORD, nor enquired for Him - See Ps 14:4

Zeph 1:6

Zeph 1:6 - nor enquired for him. -sons of God, the descendants of Seth, were said to call upon the name of the LORD.

Zeph 1:7

Zeph 1:8

Zeph 1:8 - all such as are clothed with strange apparel - all who have not dawned God's wedding garments, woven in the loom of heaven, and are not covered by the righteousness of Christ will be cut off in the day of God's sacrifice. See Mt 22:11-13; 2Kin 10:18-25; Contrast Isa 52:1

Zeph 1:10

Zeph 1:10 - the noise of a cry from the fish gate, and an howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills - the context suggests an unexpected, startling event will be the day of the LORD's coming.

See Dan 10:6; Rev 19:12 Though all nations are to pass in judgment before God, yet He will examine the case of each individual with as close and searching scrutiny as if there were not another being upon the earth. Everyone must be tested and found without spot or wrinkle or any such thing. - {GC 489.3}

Zeph 3:12 - afflicted - one's who afflict their souls. Lev 16:29, 30

Zeph 3:12 - poor - poor in spirit; humble and contrite. Mt 5:2, 3 Jesus had presented the cup of blessing to those who felt that they were "rich, and increased with goods" (Rev 3:17), and had need of nothing, and they had turned with scorn from the gracious gift. He who feels whole, who thinks that he is reasonably good, and is contented with his condition, does not seek to become a partaker of the grace and righteousness of Christ. Pride feels no need, and so it closes the heart against Christ and the infinite blessings He came to give. There is no room for Jesus in the heart of such a person. Those who are rich and honorable in their own eyes do not ask in faith, and receive the blessing of God. They feel that they are full, therefore they go away empty. Those who know that they cannot possibly save themselves, or of themselves do any righteous action, are the ones who appreciate the help that Christ can bestow. They are the poor in spirit, whom He declares to be blessed. - {MB 7.1} All who have a sense of their deep soul poverty, who feel that they have nothing good in themselves, may find righteousness and strength by looking unto Jesus. He says, "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy-laden." Mt 11:28. He bids you exchange your poverty for the riches of His grace. We are not worthy of God's love, but Christ, our surety, is worthy, and is abundantly able to save all who shall come unto Him. Whatever may have been your past experience, however discouraging your present circumstances, if you will come to Jesus just as you are, weak, helpless, and despairing, our compassionate Saviour will meet you a great way off, and will throw about you His arms of love and His robe of righteousness. He presents us to the Father clothed in the white raiment of His own character. He pleads before God in our behalf, saying: I have taken the sinner's place. Look not upon this wayward child, but look on Me. Does Satan plead loudly against our souls, accusing of sin, and claiming us as his prey, the blood of Christ pleads with greater power. - {MB 8.2}

Zeph 3:12 - they shall trust in the name of the LORD - the LORD our Righteousness. See Jer 23:6, 33:16; Act 2:21; Rom 10:13; Gen 4:26

Vast stores of treasure for this purpose had been collected by King David, and the plans for its construction were made by divine inspiration. 1 Chronicles 28:12, 19. Solomon, the wisest of Israel's monarchs, had completed the work. This temple was the most magnificent building which the world ever saw. Hag 2:13

Hag 2:13 - Then said Hag, If one that is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean - however, if a person is ceremonially unclean by having come into contact with a dead body, if he should touch an object in the sanctuary it would become unclean.

Hag 2:14

Hag 2:14 - Then answered Hag, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean - because we bear holy office, carry consecrated objects and do the work of the Lord, it does not make us clean. However, our defilement should do pollute the sanctuary and the things of the Lord.

Zech 2:4 - Jerusalem shall be inhabited - a message of comfort and assurance regarding Israel's restoration and the redemption of the righteous. See Ezek 36:22-38

Zech 2:4

Zech 2:4 - towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein - unbounded

Zech 2:5

Zech 2:5 - and will be the glory in the midst of her - See Zech 1:8; Hag 2:7, 9; Rev 1:10-13

Zech 2:6

Zech 2:6 - Ho, ho, come from the north - the statement echoes the message of the 2nd and 4th Angels of Rev 14 and 18 respectively, shouting, "Babylon is Fallen, is Fallen", come out of her my people. In a similar sense, the warning echoes the words of Christ that warned His faithful followers to flee from the doomed city of Jerusalem at the appointed time to escape the destruction that was to befall it by "Babylon", Rome. See Rev 14:8, 18:3; 1Pet 5:13 And now, many years later, the Lord was preparing the way for these thousands who had lingered, to return. A chain of circumstances was rapidly leading to the confirmation of the decree of Cyrus and the issuance of a second decree by Darius Hystaspes. The Lord foresaw the troublous times that would soon follow in the reign of Xerxes—the Ahasuerus of the book of Esther. And so, in a time of special favor and opportunity, the message was given through Zech: - {RH December 26, 1907 Par. 16} "Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the Lord: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the Lord. Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon. For thus saith the Lord of hosts: After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye. For, behold I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me." - {RH December 26, 1907 Par. 17}

Zech 2:6

Zech 2:6 - for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD - God has scattered His people towards the four winds. See Lev 26:14-39

Zech 2:7

Zech 2:7 - Deliver thyself O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon - a herald cry is given for the daughters of Zion (the remnant) to flee from Babylon, lest she partake of her destruction from the LORD. Rev 18:1-5

Zech 2:8

Zech 2:8 - for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye - See Isa 43:1-4, 49:25, 26

Zech 2:9

Zech 2:9 - I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants - God purposed to overturn, overturn, overturn successively [Medo-Persia, Greece, Rome], the nations that spoiled and oppressed His people. See Eze 21:27

Zech 2:9

Zech 2:9 - and they shall be a spoil to their servants - Babylon, the golden kingdom, will be spoiled by a people inferior (silver) than themselves. See Dan 2:37-39

Zech 2:10

Zech 2:10 - Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD - See Isa 7:14; Ex 33:14-16

Zech 2:11

Zech 2:11 - And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people - See Isa 49:6, 60:1-11; Act 13:47, 26:23; Rev 18:4; Col 1:20-29; Eph 2:1-22

Zech 2:11

Zech 2:11 - and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee - the prophet's ministry will be proven true when all these things have come to pass. See Zech 6:15; 1Kin 18:36; 2Chron 20:20

Zech 2:13

Zech 2:13 - Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation - See Hab 2:20

Zech 3:1

Zech 3:1 - And he shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him - the fourth of 8 visions given to Zech in the book of Zech: See Zech 1:8, 18, 2:1

Zech 3:1

Zech 3:1 - Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand - As Joshua (an embodiment of the people of God) stands before the Lord, he like a sheep stands on the right hand of the Lord, whereas Satan as a goat, stands to the Lord's left. This position of favor for Joshua shows that he is accepted of the Lord. See Ps 16:8, 11; Mt 25:33, 34 He was standing before the golden altar in the holy place of the sanctuary. The cloud of incense with the prayers of Israel was ascending before God. Suddenly he became conscious of a divine presence. An angel of the Lord was "standing on the right side of the altar." The position of the angel was an indication of favor, but Zacharias took no note of this. For many years he had prayed for the coming of the Redeemer; now heaven had sent its messenger to announce that these prayers were about to be answered; but the mercy of God seemed too great for him to credit. He was filled with fear and self-condemnation. - {DA 97.3}

Zech 3:1

Zech 3:1 - and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him. - Satan stands towards the left of the LORD, the position of disfavor. Satan is there to accuse Joshua, pointing out his sins and claiming he is not worthy to receive the kingdom and take the place he and his fallen angels once held. See Mt 25:33; Compare Ps 109:5-7; 1Kin 22:19-22; 1Tim 5:14 Satan has an accurate knowledge of the sins that he has tempted God's people to commit, and he urges his accusations against them, declaring, that by their sins they have forfeited divine protection, and claiming that he has the right to destroy them. He pronounces them just as deserving as himself of exclusion from the favor of God. "Are these," he says, "the people who are to take my place in heaven, and the place of the angels who united with me? They profess to obey the law of God; but have they kept its precepts? Have they not been lovers of self more than lovers of God? Have they not placed their own interests above His service? Have they not loved the things of the world? Look at the sins that have marked their lives. Behold their selfishness, their malice, their hatred of one another. Will God banish me and my angels from His presence, and yet reward those who have been guilty of the same sins? Thou canst not do this, O Lord, in justice. Justice demands that sentence be pronounced against them." - {PK 588.3}

Zech 3:2

Zech 3:2 - And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? - See Isa 33:22

Zech 3:2

Zech 3:2 - The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan - In judgment, the first thing God does is to rebuke satan, not man. He rebukes the arguments/charges against us based on Jesus' shed blood and because Christ is our Righteousness! See Ju 9; Isa 50:9, 54:17; Jer 33:16; Ps 24:3-5; Rom 3:23-26 Christ did not stoop to enter into controversy with Satan. He might have brought against him the cruel work which his deceptions had wrought in heaven, causing the ruin of a vast number of its inhabitants. He might have pointed to the falsehoods told in Eden, that had led to Adam's sin and brought death upon the human race. He might have reminded Satan that it was his own work in tempting Israel to murmuring and rebellion, which had wearied the long-suffering patience of their leader, and in an unguarded moment had surprised him into the sin for which he had fallen under the power of death. But Christ referred all to His Father, saying, "The Lord rebuke thee." Ju 9. The Saviour entered into no dispute with His adversary, but He then and there began His work of breaking the power of the fallen foe, and bringing the dead to life. Here was an evidence that Satan could not controvert, of the supremacy of the Son of God. The resurrection was forever made certain. Satan was despoiled of his prey; the righteous dead would live again. - {PP 478.4} As a people we must stand as did the world's Redeemer. When in controversy with Satan in regard to the body of Moses, Christ durst not bring against him a railing accusation. He had every provocation to do this, and Satan was disappointed because he could not arouse in Christ a spirit of retaliation. Satan was ready to misinterpret everything that was done by Jesus; and the Saviour would give him no occasion, not the semblance of an excuse. He would not turn from His straightforward course of truth in order to follow the wanderings and twistings and turnings and prevarications of Satan. - {9T 239.3}

Zech 3:2 - even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee - God is on the side of His people in judgment. God has chosen us to be holy, righteous and blameless and therefore, He rebukes the accuser of His people. See Eph 1:4; Phil 2:15; 2Pet 3:14

Zech 3:2

Zech 3:2 - is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? - a reference to the captives of Babylon who were in the fires of captivity in Babylon for their sins. Jesus rebukes Satan stating that Joshua is one who has repented of their past transgressions and has been plucked from his affliction. Jesus speaks of His people as a brand plucked out of the fire, and Satan understands what this means. The infinite sufferings of the Son of God in Gethsemane and on Calvary were endured that He might rescue His people from the power of the evil one. The work of Jesus for the salvation of perishing souls is as if He thrust His hand into the fire to save them. Joshua, who represents God's people, is clothed in filthy garments, and stands before the angel; but as the people repent before God for the transgression of His law, and reach up by the hand of faith to lay hold on the righteousness of Christ, Jesus says, "Take away the filthy garments from them, and clothe them with change of raiment" (see Zech 3:4). - {YRP 359.2} A reference to the 144,000 who were once dried bones but have been given life (Eze 37), a Laodecian who has been redeemed. Sons of Levi who according to Mal 3 were purified by fire. The gospel message reveals that God, our Advocate has plucked us from the fires of hell (active power of the gospel), not just from sin and its eternal penalty, but Christ saves us along the way, plucking us from the 'hell's fire' we put ourselves into during the course of our lives and giving us a more abundant life today (1Jo 2:1). In essence [the Investigative] judgment pulls us out of hell's fire rather than pushing us into it. See Rev 14:7

Zech 3:2

Zech 3:2 - is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? - a reference to the captives of Babylon who were in the fires of captivity in Babylon for their sins. Jesus rebukes Satan stating that Joshua is one who like Dan, has repented of his sins and the the past transgressions of his fathers and has been plucked from his affliction. See Rom 8:33, 34 Jesus speaks of His people as a brand plucked out of the fire, and Satan understands what this means. The infinite sufferings of the Son of God in Gethsemane and on Calvary were endured that He might rescue His people from the power of the evil one. The work of Jesus for the salvation of perishing souls is as if He thrust His hand into the fire to save them. Joshua, who represents God's people, is clothed in filthy garments, and stands before the angel; but as the people repent before God for the transgression of His law, and reach up by the hand of faith to lay hold on the righteousness of Christ, Jesus says, "Take away the filthy garments from them, and clothe them with change of raiment" (see Zech 3:4). - {YRP 359.2} A reference to the 144,000 who were once dried bones but have been given life (Eze 37), a Laodecian who has been redeemed. Sons of Levi who according to Mal 3 were purified by fire. In essence [the Investigative] judgment pulls us out of hell's fire rather than pushing us into it. See Rev 14:7

Zech 3:3

Zech 3:3 - clothed with filthy garments - all of man's righteousness, goodness, comeliness is as filthy rags before the throne of God (Isa 6:5; 64:6; Dan 10:8). We must run to Jesus, our City of Refuge, confessing our sins and acknowledging our waywardness so that our High Priest Who lives forever may abundantly pardon (Num 35:11-15; Heb 7:21-25).

Zech 3:4

Zech 3:4 - Take away the filthy garments from him - Jesus commands that the filthy garments be removed from us. We can not remove them ourselves because they are fused to our nature. As Jesus states, "I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee" so we must have a supernatural removal of the garments performed on our behalf. See Eze 36:24-28.

Zech 3:4

Zech 3:4 - I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee - the term "I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee" can be summarized by the name JESUS! This is all made possible by faith - righteousness by faith, the faith of Jesus Christ. See Mt 1:21; 12:32; 1Jo 3:5, 6

Zech 3:4

Zech 3:4 - I will clothe thee with a change of raiment - God will give us a change of clothing, woven from the loom of heaven. See Rev 3:18; Eze 16:14 This robe, woven in the loom of heaven, has in it not one thread of human devising. Christ in His humanity wrought out a perfect character, and this character He offers to impart to us. "All our righteousness are as filthy rags." Isa 64:6. Everything that we of ourselves can do is defiled by sin. But the Son of God "was manifested to take away our sins; and in Him is no sin." Sin is defined to be "the transgression of the law." 1Jo 3:5, 4. But Christ was obedient to every requirement of the law. He said of Himself, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God; yea, Thy law is within My heart." Ps 40:8. When on earth, He said to His disciples, "I have kept My Father's commandments." Joh 15:10. By His perfect obedience He has made it possible for every human being to obey God's commandments. When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life. This is what it means to be clothed with the garment of His righteousness. Then as the Lord looks upon us He sees, not the fig-leaf garment, not the nakedness and deformity of sin, but His own robe of righteousness, which is perfect obedience to the law of Jehovah. - {COL 311.4}

Zech 3:5

Zech 3:5 - let them set a fair mitre upon his head - God then sets a crown, a fair mitre on our head [the redeemed will sit and rule with a crown of life]. The High Priest once wore a mitre that read "Holiness to the LORD" - See Ex 28:36-39

Zech 3:5

Zech 3:5 - clothed him with garments - Once given Christ's forgiveness and garments of righteousness, we are to remain in the City of Refuge forever, never departing to our old ways. Jesus bids us to watch and keep our robes lest they become stained and we walk naked (Rev 16:15).

Zech 3:5

Zech 3:5 - And the angel of the Lord stood by - Notice, Joshua has not said a word at all in the entire judgment scene - reflective of God's Everlasting Promise (Gen 3:15). After God has done all this for us, He bids us go and sin no more (Joh 8:1-11).

Zech 3:6

Zech 3:6 - protested unto Joshua - the LORD admonishes Joshua

Zech 3:7

Zech 3:7 - Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by - the statement from the Lord after He has cleansed and purified Joshua is a conditional statement, based on Joshua's response and obedience. There is no absolute unless Joshua submit to the righteousness of Christ and obey, otherwise the promise will not be fulfilled. This is the essence of righteousness by faith. See Revelation 3:5

Zech 3:7

Zech 3:7 - then thou shalt also judge my house - a possible reference to the heavenly court scene during the Millennium. See Rev 20:4, 5

Zech 3:7

Zech 3:7 - and shalt also keep my courts - See Ps 27:4, 23:6, 84:4

Zech 3:7

Zech 3:7 - among these that stand by - the angels are they that stand by the LORD, seeking to do His bidding.

Zech 3:8

Zech 3:8 - thy fellows that sit before thee - the 24 elders or Levites that assist the high priest. We are to be a royal priesthood and holy nation. See Mal 3:3, 4; 1Pet 2:9

Zech 3:8

Zech 3:8 - men wondered at - Paul says that he, the Apostles were a spectacle to the world and to angels and to men. So too, those who will be lifted up as an ensign to the world will radiate the glory of God, shining like the firmament and leading many sons to righteousness. So too, these who are lifted up are wondered upon by the enemies of God to do them harm. See 1Cor 4:9; Dan 12:3; Ps 83:1-5, 48:4-6, 71:1-7; 1Jo 3:1 The saints will be glorified in the presence of those who have hated them for their loyal obedience to God's righteous commandments. - {SR 61.1}

Zech 3:8

Zech 3:8 - I will bring forth my servant the BRANCH - The True Vine (Joh 15:1-10) that shall build the temple of the LORD, will bear its glory, and shall sit and rule as priest upon His throne, Jesus. Jesus branches out from God to extend His grace and mercy to the inhabitants of the world. See Zech 6:12, 13; Jer 23:5, 6

Zech 3:9

Zech 3:9 - stone that I have laid before Joshua - A tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste (Isa 28:16). See Mic 5:2, 5; Zech 6:12, 13; Eph 2:19, 20; 1Pet 2:5-10; Isa 28:16; Act 4:10-12

Zech 3:9

Zech 3:9 - seven eyes - The Holy Spirit, the Seven Spirits of God that sees all things - See Zech 4:10; Rev 5:6, 1:4

Zech 3:9

Zech 3:9 - engrave the engraving - the Lord will write His name and character upon those who are sealed during the time when He will remove the iniquity of His people in one day, the Day of Atonement, the time of judgment. See Rev 3:12; Isa 49:16

Zech 3:9

Zech 3:9 - engrave the engraving - the Lord will write His name and character upon those who are sealed (God's signet) during the time when He will remove the iniquity of His people in one day, the Day of Atonement, the time of judgment. See Rev 3:12; Isa 49:16; Ex 28:36; Hag 2:23; Mal 3:17, 18

Zech 3:9

Zech 3:9 - remove the iniquity of that land in one day - The iniquity of the people will be blotted out on the Day of Atonement. The chapter begins with Joshua the High Priest standing before the Investigative Judgment where his garments were under inspection. Just as God rebukes Satan and calls to place His heavenly garments upon Joshua, we are protested (admonished) by the Lord to walk in His ways and keep His charge. Zech 3:7; Act 3:19

Zech 3:10

Zech 3:10 - ye call every man his neighbour - See Mt 22:37-40; Isa 52:6-12

Zech 3:10

Zech 3:10 - under the vine and under the fig tree - a statement meaning to be at peace and at rest, similar to the feast of Ingathering or Booths, where after atonement has been made, men dwell in peace and harmony with one another and with God. See 1Kin 4:25; Mic 4:4

Zech 4:1

Zech 4:1 - waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep - Zech is awakened at the Midnight Cry, just like all the virgins slept during the Tarrying Time and were awakened by the Midnight Cry. See Mt 25:6

Zech 4:2

Zech 4:2 - behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof - See Ex 37:17-24; Rev 1:12, 13

Zech 4:3

Zech 4:3 - two olive trees - Symbolizing the Old and New Testaments as well as the Bible and KJV Bible Commentary the writings of the Spirit of Prophecy (including the two charts, 1843 and 1850). See Zech 4:12-14; Rev 11:3-6

Zech 4:4

Zech 4:4 - What are these my lord - Zerubbable, a priest in Israel (Ezra 3:8), typifies both the Millerites and the Adventists at the end of time. The Millerites did not understand the sanctuary and the articles contained within, therefore, they mistook the earth to the sanctuary to be cleansed at the end of the 2,300 years. Similarly, at the end of time, Adventists will not understand that the Latter Rain is a message from the LORD, (the angel says "this is the word of the LORD"). Further, Adventists at the end of time will be waiting for the Latter Rain to prepare and cleanse them of all defilements, when that was a work to be done in cooperation with the Holy Sprit in order to receive the Latter Rain. See the quote below: "Not one of us will ever receive the seal of God while our characters have one spot or stain upon them. It is left with us to remedy the defects in our characters, to cleanse the soul temple of every defilement. Then the latter rain will fall upon us as the early rain fell upon the disciples on the Day of Pentecost." Testimonies, volume 5, 214.

Zech 4:6

Zech 4:6 - Zerubbabel - meaning "seed of Babylon". Zerubbabel was born in Babylon (the "gates of the gods") and is called out of Babylon (Rev 18:4) to rebuild the temple of the LORD. Zerubbabel was a progenitor of Christ (See Lk 3:27)

Zech 4:6

Zech 4:6 - not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the LORD of hosts - See John 6:63; Hos 1:7; 1Sam 17:45-47

Zech 4:7

Zech 4:7 - and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings - the headstone shall be excavated from the mountain that defies Zerubbabel

Zech 4:9

Zech 4:9 - the hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house - As a type of Christ, Zerubbabel has laid the foundations of the temple of the LORD through the Spirit of God. See Isa 28:16; 1Pet 2:6-8; Isa 44:24-28

Zech 4:9

Zech 4:9 - his hands shall also finish it - again typifying Christ, Zerubbabel, who was to complete the work of building God's house, symbolizes Jesus, Who Himself laid the foundation and is building up a spiritual house that He will preside over. See 1Pet 2:4-10; Rom 9:28; 2Cor 8:6

Zech 4:10

Zech 4:10 - who hath despised the day of small things - the day of small things is when a thing first began and it was viewed with contempt by the scorners and scoffers. This is seen in the time of Zerubbabel, where the ancient men who saw Solomon's original temple wailed and lamented at the foundation lain for the new temple (Ezra 3:12; Hag 2:3). In the time of Christ, the fledgling Christian church under the apostles were viewed with contempt by the Jews until its message encircled the world (see Mt 13:31, 32). In the time of the Millerites, the Protestant churches despised the faithful few who endured the disappointments, thinking that they would either return to their former Protestant churches or disband all together. In the present history of the 144,000, the day of small things is the contempt shown to early Adventism's use of the 1843/1850 charts in favor of the corrupted 1863 chart; the suggestion that William Miller was an ignorant, uneducated deist who fabricated his 14 rules without divine inspiration; the contempt felt for God's prescribed method of study, Proof Texting over Babylon's use of Hermeneutics, Exegesis, science and vain philosophies. The Lord, speaking through the prophet Eze, illustrates this same idea of small things becoming great with God and in time in the illustration of the stream emminating from the temple and swelling until it becomes a river that could be swim across and would empty into the sea (Eze 47:1-8) See Mk 3:13, 14 - Look upon the touching scene. Behold the Majesty of heaven surrounded by the Twelve whom He has chosen. He is about to set them apart for their work. By these feeble agencies, through His word and Spirit, He designs to place salvation within the reach of all. - {AA 18.2} With gladness and rejoicing, God and the angels beheld this scene. The Father knew that from these men the light of heaven would shine forth; that the words spoken by them as they witnessed for His Son, would echo from generation to generation till the close of time. - {AA 18.3}

Zech 4:10 - with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth - See Rev 5:6; Zech 3:9

Zech 4:12

Zech 4:12 - what be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of them? - The two olive branches typify the two witnesses that ever give the golden oil to God's faithful people: Time of Christ: Law and the Prophets Time of Miller: Old and New Testaments Today: Bible and Spirit of Prophecy

Zech 4:14

Zech 4:14 - the two anointed ones in the time of Zerubbabel was the Law and the Prophets, since the New Testament had not been written. In the time of the Millerites, the two anointed ones were the Old and New Testaments. In the time of the 144,000, the two anointed ones are the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy (which includes the two prophetic charts, 1843 and 1850). See Rev 11:3-6; Habakkuk 2:1-3

Zech 5:3

Zech 5:3 - This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it. - the flying roll that Zech beholds contains two curses written upon it to be administered upon the entire earth. On the one side a curse for stealing and on the other side, a curse for swearing falsely by the name of the LORD.

Zech 5:3

Zech 5:3 - every one that stealeth - those who steal include the following: 1. Those who are thieves, stealing from a neighbor 2. Those who rob God of tithes and offerings 3. Those who withhold the wages of the laborer 4. Those who use unjust weights when doing business 5. Showing preference or deference to one above another [a perversion of justice]

Zech 5:4

Zech 5:4 - sweareth falsely by my name - could possibly mean: 1. Those who take God's name in vain, calling themselves Christian when in word, life and deed they are otherwise 2. Those who swear by God's name, as in the proceedings of a court hearing, to tell the truth and deliberately lie 3. Those who prophesy falsely by the name of the LORD (Zech 13:3)

Zech 5:4

Zech 5:5 - and it shall remain in the midst of his house - the scroll will remain in the house as a witness against the two sins the Lord abhors.

Zech 5:4

Zech 5:4 - and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof. - God will bring utter destruction upon the houses of those who do wickedly, root and branch (Mal 4:1).

Zech 5:6

Zech 5:6 - This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth - the ephah (meaning: gloom or a measure of grain or liquid) that is shown the prophet was to be seen throughout the earth.

Zech 5:7

Zech 5:7 - this is a woman - the woman, representative of a false church system that sits in the ephah of lead is "Mystery Babylon". See Rev 17:1-5

Zech 5:8

Zech 5:8 - this is wickedness - compare 2Thess 2:3, 4, 7, 8; Rev 18:2. The wickedness being spoken of is the Papal system. Perhaps the traffic and trading of the woman in false swearing in God's name and in stealing is what brings the the curse throughout the world.

Zech 5:9

Zech 5:9 - came out two women - two women with wings of a stork (an unclean bird - Rev 18:2) bear the woman in the ephah (the Papacy) to Shinar. The two women that lift up the woman in the Ephah before heaven and earth are the Dragon (Spiritualism) and the False Prophet (apostate Protestantism). Just as Jesus was to be lifted up between heaven and earth so that He would draw all men to Himself (Joh 12:32), so the woman in the ephah is lifted up through unclean spirits, spirits of devils working miracles to draw all men to the papacy (Rev 16:13, 14, 13:11-14, 3, 4)

Zech 5:9

Zech 5:9 - wings of a stork - see Rev 18:2

Zech 5:9

Zech 5:9 - lifted up the ephah earth and heaven - A counterfeit lifting up as Jesus was lifted up to draw all people to itself. See Joh 12:32; Rev 13:3, 4

Zech 5:11

Zech 5:11 - house in the land of Shinar - Shinar was the place of rebellion where a tower (church) and city (state) were first erected by men (Gen 11:1-9). Because the imaginations of men were wicked and his self-exalting desires would not restrain him from doing anything he imagined to do, God confounded the languages. Shinar, once the cite of the gate of the gods [Babylon] is the place where the woman would be established (plant the tabernacles of his palace - Dan 11:45) and set upon her own base. See Rev 17:1-6

Zech 6:12

Zech 6:12 - the narrative of the BRANCH, Jesus was prefigured by Moses in type who: 1. Stood before God and spoke face-to-Face with Him 2. Left the presence of God and went to an evil task-master that held God's people in bondage 3. Delivered God's people from the evil task-master 4. Built the temple of God The typology is perfectly fulfilled in Christ Who: 1. Stood before the presence of His Father and spoke Face-to-Face 2. Left the presence of His Father and confronted the evil task-master Satan who held God's people in bondage (Heb 2:14-16) 3. Delivered God's people through His sacrifice and blood 4. Built the true tabernacle, He Himself being the Chief Cornerstone.

Zech 6:12

Zech 6:12 - He shall grow up out of His place - Jesus came to the earth, came to His own as a babe and grew in grace before God and man. He was from above, He was not of this world but He came to save this world. Isa 7:14, 9:6, 7; Joh 8:23; Lk 2:52

Zech 6:12

Zech 6:12, 13 - He shall build the temple of the LORD - Jesus is the Chief Cornerstone for the temple which He alone builds. His temple is made of living stones, the saints. - See 1Chron 17:11-13; Isa 28:16, 44:28; Jer 23:5, 6; Mt 16:15-18; 1Pet 2:4-8; Heb 9:11; 1Cor 6:19; Eph 2:19, 20

Zech 6:13

Zech 6:13 - Even He shall build the temple of the LORD - Jesus Himself is building His spiritual temple. See Mt 16:18; 1Pet 2:4-6

Zech 6:13

Zech 6:13 - He shall bear the glory - the glory of the second temple built in Jerusalem would exceed the glory of the first because Jesus Himself would bear the glory (Hag 2:3-9). Further, in the last days, Jesus is building a spiritual temple made up of living stones of which He bears the glory that radiates through the living stones (1Pet 2:4-6). See Isa 4:2; Mt 12:6

Zech 6:13

Zech 6:13 - shall sit and rule upon His throne - Jesus, the Branch and LORD, our Righteousness, will sit and reign as King of Kings eternally. See Jer 33:15, 17

Zech 9:9

Zech 9:9 - lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass - Jesus, the Mighty God and Everlasting Father, entered Jerusalem riding not a mighty horse or camel but the foal of an ass. See Gen 49:11; Mt 21:5

Zech 9:10

Zech 9:10 - And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem - God will take away those things that He explicitly told the COI not to put their trust in, but rather to put their trust in God. See Ps 20:7; Deut 20:1, 17:16; 2 Kings 18:24

Zech 9:10

Zech 9:10 - the battle bow shall be cut off - See Isa 2:4

Zech 9:10

Zech 9:10 - he shall speak peace unto the heathen: and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth - These are references to Jesus' eternal kingdom in the earth made new. See Rev 21:1-4

Zech 9:11

Zech 9:11 - by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water - See Heb 2:14, 15; Lk 4:18; 1Jo 1:7 God promises to recompense those who have died in hope of the resurrection and in God's redemption, "ye prisoners of hope"

Zech 9:12

Zech 9:12 - Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to day do I declare that I will render double unto thee - God declares today (present), that He will (future), render double unto them. No one except the first fruit of the dead taken with Christ at His resurrection and the two who were translated [Enoch and Elijah], have received this inheritance. This promise, based on the Everlasting Covenant spoken in the Garden of Eden (Gen 3:15), applies to all who die in the faith of Jesus Christ - sons of Abraham. See Isa 45:13

Zech 9:12

Zech 9:12 - I will render double unto thee - God will pour out His Spirit a second time and in double measure to the prisoners of hope, the wise. See Dan 12:3, 10;

Zech 9:14

Zech 9:14 - and the Lord GOD shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south - See 1Thess 4:16

Zech 9:15

Zech 9:15 - and as the corners of the altar - a possible reference to the blood flowing from the destruction of the Lord. The corners of the altar were daily dipped with blood. There is a reference to wine, a symbol of blood and, being filled with "liquid" as in a bowl. See Rev 9:13,14:20

Zech 9:16

Zech 9:16 - flock of his people - Jesus is here referring to one of two of His flocks. The flock of His people are the 144,000 but the other flock which Jesus has that is not of "this fold" (Joh 10:16) will be gathered in by the 144,000. Jesus makes a distinction that this is the "flock of His people" being spoken of in this verse.

Zech 9:16

Zech 9:16 - shall be as the stones of a crown - God exceeding goodness towards mankind will magnify humanity before the universe and honor the prodigal that went astray. See Mal 3:17; Isa 28:5 Of His people God says, "They shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon His land. For how great is His goodness, and how great is His beauty!" Zech 9:16, 17. The exaltation of the redeemed will be an eternal testimony to God's mercy. "In the ages to come," He will "show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us through Christ Jesus." "To the intent that ... unto the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places might be made known ... the manifold wisdom of God, according to the eternal purpose which He purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord." Ephesians 2:7; 3:10, 11, R. V. - {DA 26.1}

Zech 9:16

Zech 9:16 - lifted up as an ensign - They [the priests and Pharisees] had thought to find the apostles cowed with fear under the strong hand of oppression and murder, but they find them lifted above all fear and filled with the Spirit, proclaiming with power the divinity of Jesus of Nazareth. They hear them declaring with boldness that the One so recently humiliated, derided, smitten by cruel hands, and crucified, is the Prince of life, now exalted to the right hand of God. - {AA 42.2} See Isa 5:26, 18:3, 60:1-5; Song 6:10; Ps 28:9

Zech 10:1

Zech 10:1 - Ask ye the LORD rain - Mt 7:8; Heb 6:7 rain is interpreted "Teacher of Righteousness". We are to ask for the Holy Spirit to instruct us in all righteousness, even the righteousness of Jesus Christ. The former rain begins the process of spiritual growth and sanctification. The latter rain completes the work by the faith of Jesus Christ, that we may have the mind of Christ. Why do we not hunger and thirst for the gift of the Spirit, since this is the means by which we are to receive power? Why do we not talk of it, pray for it, preach concerning it? The Lord is more willing to give the Holy Spirit to us than parents are to give good gifts to their children. For the baptism of the Spirit every worker should be pleading with God. Companies should be gathered together to ask for special help, for heavenly wisdom, that they may know how to plan and execute wisely. Especially should men pray that God will baptize His missionaries with the Holy Spirit. - {8T 22.1}. See Hos 6:3; Joh 4:10 We may talk of the blessings of the Holy Spirit, but unless we prepare ourselves for its reception, of what avail are our works? Are we striving with all our power to attain to the stature of men and women in Christ? Are we seeking for His fullness, ever pressing toward the mark set before us—the perfection of His character? When the Lord's people reach this mark, they will be sealed in their foreheads. Filled with the Spirit, they will be complete in Christ, and the recording angel will declare, "It is finished." - {OHC 150.6} The lapse of time has wrought no change in Christ's parting promise to send the Holy Spirit as His representative. It is not because of any restriction on the part of God that the riches of His grace do not flow earthward to men. If the fulfillment of the promise is not seen as it might be, it is because the promise is not appreciated as it should be. If all were willing, all would be filled with the Spirit. Wherever the need of the Holy Spirit is a matter little thought of, there is seen spiritual drought, spiritual darkness, spiritual declension and death. Whenever minor matters occupy the attention, the divine power which is necessary for the growth and prosperity of the church, and which would bring all other blessings in its train, is lacking, though offered in infinite plenitude. - {AA 50.1} Since this is the means by which we are to receive power, why do we not hunger and thirst for the gift of the Spirit? Why do we not talk of it, pray for it, and preach concerning it? The Lord is more willing to give the Holy Spirit to those who serve Him than parents are to give good gifts to their children. For the daily baptism of the Spirit every worker should offer his petition to God. Companies of Christian workers should gather to ask for special help, for heavenly wisdom, that they may know how to plan and execute wisely. Especially should they pray that God will baptize His chosen ambassadors in mission fields with a rich measure of His Spirit. The presence of the Spirit with God's workers will give the proclamation of truth a power that not all the honor or glory of the world could give. - {AA 50.2}

Zech 10:1

Zech 10:1 - in the time of the latter rain - The time of the latter rain is noted when the trees begin to blossom, bud and fill the face of the world with fruit (Isa 28:6); when rivers and streams of water appear on the tops of the mountains and hills (Isa 30:25); when the light of God's Word shines brighter than ever before (Prov 4:18; Isa 30:26||Rev 12:1); when God heals the breach (bruising) of His people (Isa 30:26, 58:12); when God restores the old paths for His people to walk in (Isa 58:12; Jer 6:16, 17); when the foundational truths of many past generations are raised up as God's people employ His prescribed method of study (Isa 58:12, 28:9-13); when the east wind blows while God holds back the rough winds (Isa 27:8; Ps 48:7; Rev 7:1-4); when judgement moves to the living and God purifies His people, blotting out all record of their sins (Act 3:19; Mal 3:1-4; Isa 27:9); when God's people will be sealed with Christ's character and the Word of God by the Holy Spirit (Isa 8:16;) when God's people will shine as the brightness of the firmament and lead many sons to righteousness (Dan 12:3; Isa

58:10)

Zech 10:1

Zech 10:1 - so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field - See Isa 45:8; Eze 34:26

Zech 10:1

Zech 10:1 - to everyone, grass in the field - the showers will fall on all (grass - see Isa 40:6-8) who ask and pray for the latter rain

Zech 10:3

Zech 10:3 - and I punished the goats -

Zech 10:3

Zech 10:3 - and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle - the people of God are likened to a goodly horse in battle. This gives explanation to the 4 horsemen of the Rev (Rev 6:1-8) which depicts Christian Church history using broad strokes. The 7 Churches of the Rev give a more granular description of the church and its history.

Zech 10:7

Zech 10:7 - And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD - See Ezek 37:12

Zech 11:4

Zech 11:4 - Feed the flock of the slaughter - the goats, tares, briars and thorns. See Mt 25:33, 41-46

Zech 11:5

Zech 11:5 - Whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty - the flock of the slaughter are owned and kept by wicked shepherds who slay them and act as if they are upright. See Isa 58:1-3

Zech 11:7

Zech 11:7 - Bands - bands (bonds) of brotherhood between the Northern and Southern Kingdoms. See Zech 11:14

Zech 11:10

Zech 11:10 - And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people - God would break His covenant of giving beauty for ashes and the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness. Israel failed to prove themselves trees of righteousness, therefore the Lord would withdraw His covenant with them. See Isa 61:1-3; Zech 10:3

Zech 11:12

Zech 11:12 - If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver - the Lord foretold His price for betrayal before the time; the redemption price for an ox that has injured a servant (Ex 21:28-32). He further says, "a goodly price that I was prised at of them". See Mt 26:15, 16; Lk 22:5

Zech 11:13 - And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD - the Lord then foretells that the death money would be used for the purchase of the potter's field. See Mt 27:3-9; Act 1:18

Zech 11:15

Zech 11:15 - foolish - the term foolish, in context, is synonymous with wicked. See Zech 11:16, 17; Dan 12:10

Zech 11:17

Zech 11:7 - Woe to the idol shepherd that leaveth the flock - the idol shepherd, which causes men to worship him and usurps the praises due to God (antichrist) is none other than the papacy. See Jer 23:11-40; Rev 2:20

Zech 11:17

Zech 11:17 - his arm shall be clean dried up - the arm here spoken are the military and civil might granted to the Beast power. The rivers of the Euphrates (the multitudes in his support) are to be dried up under the 6th plague and when he comes to his end none shall help him. See Rev 16:16; Dan 11:45

Zech 11:17

Zech 11:17 - his right eye shall be utterly darkened - See Rev 16:10 These references are used by the occult in their twisted narrative to refer to Jesus, the Good Shepherd, rather than Satan, the destroyer and his henchman, the papacy.

Zech 12:2

Zech 12:2 - I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem - God will defend His people, the inhabitants of New Jerusalem, and make them a terror to those who seek to destroy them. See Zech 12:8, 9; Rev 20:7-15

Zech 12:3

Zech 12:3 - though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it - this is the time of the global confederacy against the people of God (Ps 83:1-5). In that day, right before Jesus' Second Coming (or perhaps after the Millennium when the wicked will gather to war against the Lamb and all who are with Him), God will be a defense and shield about His people. See Ps 27:1-5; Ps 91

Zech 12:10

Zech 12:10 - And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications - the spirit of supplications will be poured upon the elect when they cry day and night for deliverance during their time of Jacob's Trouble. The prayers will be "Thy Kingdom Come". See Lk 18:7; Jer 30:7; Rev 14:14, 15

Zech 12:10

Zech 12:10 - and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn - God's people will look upon Jesus who was bruised for their iniquities and transgressions and will weep for the pain we have caused Him. The wicked in contrast will look upon Jesus in fear and will be consumed by the brightness of His coming (Rev 1:7).

Zech 13:1

Zech 13:1 - In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness - Jesus is the Fountain of Living Water and the cleansing stream that cleanses the sin stained soul. See Jer 2:13, 17:13; Joh 3:3, 5, 4:14, 7:36-40; Rev 7:17, 21:6; Hymn #332 - The Cleansing Wave; #336 - There is a Fountain. See Joh 19:34

Zech 13:2

Zech 13:2 - cut off the names of the idols... cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land - the apostate Protestant churches, that will eat their own bread and wear their own garments (Isa 4:1) as they grab hold of the man of sin are here spoken of, the False Prophet. These churches, which each have a name that they have jealously borne in pride (Rev 3:2) at the expense of humbling themselves and submitting to the righteousness of christ.

Zech 13:2

Zech 13:2 - and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land - See Isa 8:19, 20; Zech 13:3

Zech 13:3

Zech 13:3 - And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth - righteousness will prevail such a that all will love the truth and hate a lie. Even the parents will be willing to take the life of their reprobate child who lies, deceives others and causes others to sin.

Zech 13:4

Zech 13:4 - neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive - the standard attire of the prophet was apparently rough garments which typified their lives of simplicity and the coarseness that they endured of men. See 2Kin 1:8; Mk 1:6; Mt 3:4, 11:7, 8

Zech 13:6

Zech 13:6 - what are these wounds in thy hands - the ark of the covenant, the temple/sanctuary shall be no more in the New Earth. There will be no remembrance of sin, neither will it come to mind. The only evidence of sin will be the scar marks in Jesus' hands. See Ps 22:16; Isa 49:15, 16, 53:5; Jer 3:16, Rev 21:22, 3-5; Christ is united to humanity forever: Heb 2:11; Joh 3:16 He will ever bear the marks of His earthly humiliation in man's behalf. While the redeemed host and the pure angelic throng shall do Him honor and worship Him, He will carry the marks of one that has been slain. The more fully we appreciate the infinite sacrifice made in our behalf by a sin-atonement Saviour, the more closely do we come into harmony with heaven. - {Con 92.4}

Zech 13:6

Zech 13:6 - Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends. - See Joh 3:16, 15:13, 20:21; Gal 2:20; Prov 18:24

Zech 13:7

Zech 13:7 - Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones - See Isa 63:1-3

Zech 13:7

Zech 13:7 - my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: - God the Father is calling for the sword to smite His Shepherd, a Man Who is God's Fellow. This is a reference to Jesus, Who by the expressed purpose of His Father, would suffer on mankind's behalf (Isa 53:10) in order to mankind's ransom from death and the grave.

Zech 13:7

Zech 13:7 - my fellow - God declares "To whom will ye liken Me, and make [Me] equal, and compare Me, that We may be like?" (Isa 46:5). Therefore the Fellow and Shepherd of God must be equal with God, and He is - Jesus! - See Heb 1:8, 9; Prov 8:30; Ps 90:1, 2; 1Jo 4:15, 5:6, 7; Joh 8:58; Rev 19:5

Zech 13:7

Zech 13:7 - smite the shepherd and the sheep will be scattered - See Mt 26:31; Mk 14:27

Zech 13:8

Zech 13 8 - And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein - See Isa 1:9

Zech 13:8

Zech 13:8 - the third shall be left - God will preserve a remnant who He will try, purify and make ready for His return. See Rom 11:5; 1Kin 19:10, 14, 18; Rev 12:17, Joe 2:32

Zech 13:9

Zech 13:9 - third part - the faithful who call God their God and God calls His people are but a third of the masses who claim to be God's people. This third (remnant) will replace the third of the angels in heaven that were expelled with Lucifer during their rebellion. See Rev 12:4, 17 God created man for His own glory, that after test and trial the human family might become one with the heavenly family. It was God's purpose to repopulate heaven with the human family. The vacancies made in heaven by the fall of Satan and his angels will be filled by the redeemed of the Lord. —The S.D.A. Bible Commentary 1:1082. - {TA - (The Truth about Angels) 48.7, 49.1}}

Zech 13:9

Zech 13:9 - through the fire - There are two fires the people of God must go through. The first is a fire of purification from the Lord and the second is a test to see who stands during the final time of testing. Peter past through the fire as he stood by the fire of inquiry while Jesus was being tried. Peter denied Jesus three times, symbolic of those in Adventism forbearing the present truth message who will deny the Three Angel's Messages and receive the Mk of the Beast.

Zech 13:9

Zech 13:9 - refine them as silver - See Mal 3:2, 3; 1Pet 1:7

Zech 13:9

Zech 13:9 - they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD is my God - the purpose of the trial is to prove what is in the heart. Those who call upon the name of the Lord will be acknowledged of Him and will be saved.

Zech 13:9

Zech 13:9 - I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD is my God - See Jer 31:33

Zech 14:4

Zech 14:4 - stand in that day upon the mount of Olives - As the place of His ascension, Jesus chose the spot so often hallowed by His presence while He dwelt among men. Not Mount Zion, the place of David's city, not Mount Moriah, the temple site, was to be thus honored. There Christ had been mocked and rejected. There the waves of mercy, still returning in a stronger tide of love, had been beaten back by hearts as hard as rock. Thence Jesus, weary and heart-burdened, had gone forth to find rest in the Mount of Olives. The holy Shekinah, in departing from the first temple, had stood upon the eastern mountain, as if loath to forsake the chosen city; so Christ stood upon Olivet, with yearning heart overlooking Jerusalem. The groves and glens of the mountain had been consecrated by His prayers and tears. Its steps had echoed the triumphant shouts of the multitude that proclaimed Him king. On its sloping descent He had found a home with Lazarus at Bethany. In the garden of Gethsemane at its foot He had prayed and agonized alone. From this mountain He was to ascend to heaven. Upon its summit His feet will rest when He shall come again. Not as a man of sorrows, but as a glorious and triumphant king He will stand upon Olivet, while Hebrew hallelujahs mingle with Gentile hosannas, and the voices of the redeemed as a mighty host shall swell the acclamation, Crown Him Lord of all! - {DA 829.2}

Zech 14:9

Zech 14:9 - And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one - Jesus will put an end to all the confusion in the Day of the LORD, when all other gods will be put down and the LORD of hosts, the Creator, Redeemer, and One True God will stand and reign over all!

Zech 14:16

Zech 14:16 - keep the feast of tabernacles - the Antitypical Feast of Tabernacles is to be celebrated in heaven or the New Earth. All who will not be present would not have received the rains, early and latter rains.

Malachi

Mal 1:2Back to Table of Contents

Mal 1:2 - Wherein hast thou loved us - Mal describes the impudence, ingratitude, spiritual blindness and arrogance of a people who believe they walk with God but are afar off. These qualities all typify Laodecia. The people ask God, how have you loved us, in arrogant disbelief and ingratitude.

Mal 1:2

Mal 1:1 - Was not Esau Jacob's brother... yet I loved Jacob - Jacob and Esau represented two nations, two classes of people spoken in the Everlasting Gospel. One would embrace the promises of God by faith and become the Israel of God, the other would seek to find righteousness with the sparks of his own kindling. See Gen 25:23; Rom 9:10-13; Isa 63:1

Mal 1:3

Mal 1:3 - I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness - God foresaw the careless, unrepentant, defiant spirit of Esau, just like that of Caine, and "hated" the fate they chose for themselves, rebellion over righteousness, death over life. See Heb 12:16, 17; Eze 35; Obadiah 1:1-21; Rom 9:10-16

Mal 1:4

Mal 1:4 - Edom saith, we are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places - speaking of a people who seek to establish themselves through their own works, merits and self-righteousness. Rather than embracing the promises of God by faith, they like Cain seek to worship God after the sparks of their own kindling. They have not submitted to the righteousness which is by faith in Jesus Christ. See Gen 4:3-5; Isa 9:9 10, 50:11; Rom 10:1-3

Mal 1:4

Mal 1:4 - they shall build but I will throw down - God will throw down the "high towers", the houses built upon the sand and the covenant with death and hell" that the wicked in Adventism erect. See Isa 28:15-18; Gen 11:1-8; Mt 7:26; Am 1:12

Mal 1:4

Mal 1:4 - The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever - Edom typifies those who reject God's covenant and call the sacrifice of Christ a worthless thing. These will be hated by God forever. See Obadiah 1:9-15; Rom 9:10-13; Heb 12:16, 17

Mal 1:5

Mal 1:5 - your eyes shall see - See Ps 91:8, 9

Mal 1:6

Mal 1:6 - A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name? - See Isa 43:23, 24

Mal 1:6

Mal 1:6 - saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name - See Ex 20:3

Mal 1:7

Mal 1:7 - polluted bread - corrupt doctrine, false worship.

Mal 1:7

Mal 1:7 - Wherein have we polluted thee? - again, in arrogant pride and disbelief, the people question God's judgments, asserting that God has erred in His assessment. They further assert that the table of the Lord is contemptible? See Jer 15:10

Mal 1:8

Mal 1:8 - And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? - See Deut 17:1; Mal 1:13, 14

Mal 1:11

Mal 1:11 - rising of the sun to the going down of the same - from east to west, God's name will be exalted among the Gentiles - See Ps 50:1, 113:3

Mal 2:5

Mal 2:5 - My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name - the sons of Levi did not take part in the rebellion at the base of Mt. Sinai. See Ex 32:25-28; Num 25:7-13

Mal 2:6

Mal 2:6 - and did turn many away from iniquity - See Dan 12:3; Jam 5:20

Mal 2:7

Mal 2:7 - For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts - the priests are to lead the people in the paths of truth, offering counsel to those who seek them in the way of the Lord. The priest is the messenger of the LORD to the people - See Ezra 7:10; CONTRAST Isa 59:1-15, 5:20-24

Mal 2:8

Mal 2:8 - But ye are departed out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts - See Mk 7:7-9

Mal 2:9

Mal 2:9 - Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people - God has made the Levites despised among the people for their rebellion. CONTRAST 1Cor 1:27, 28

Mal 2:10

Mal 2:10 - Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers? - See Act 17:26, 10:34; Gen 3:20

Mal 2:11

Mal 2:11 - Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god - Mal 2:4, 5, 9; Ezra 8:15, 9:1-3, 10:10-44; Nehemiah 10:28

Mal 2:17

Mal 2:17 - Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment? - See Isa 5:20

Mal 3:1

Mal 3:1 - Behold I will send my messenger - Early Writings pg 229, 233 (chpt 55) 1. Joh the Baptist was the "messenger of the LORD" in the time of Jesus' first coming - Mt 11:7-10; Lk 7:24-27 2. William Miller was the third Elijah, and second "messenger that goes before the LORD" proclaiming the day of the Lord's coming and a message of repentance for all inhabitants of the world 3. The 144,000 is the 4th Elijah and the third "messengers of the LORD" that prepare the way for Christ to come to His Spiritual temple, His bride, the Church.

Mal 3:1

Mal 3:1 - Early Writings pg 229, 233 (chpt 55) 1. Joh the Baptist was the "messenger of the LORD" in the time of Jesus' first coming - Mt 11:7-10; Lk 7:24-27 2. The 144,000 is the 4th Elijah and the third "messengers of the LORD" that prepare the way for Christ to come to His Spiritual temple, His bride, the Church.

Mal 3:1

Mal 3:1 - shall prepare the way before me - John the Baptist prepared the way before the Jesus so that the people would be ready to receive the Kingdom of God. We too are to prepare the hearts of the people to receive the Kingdom of God. See Isa 40:3-5; Lk 3:3-5

Mal 3:1

Mal 3:1 - whom ye seek - the messenger that goes before the Lord heralds His coming. This heightens the awareness of His soon approach so that the people seek Him. Such was the case in the time of Joh the Baptist and William Miller and now, for us. We each, individually are to seek Jesus, that He might come into our hearts in order to cleanse the soul temple of sin and defilement. See Mt 6:33; Heb 10:37; Act 3:19, 20; Col 1:27-29

Mal 3:1

Mal 3:1-4 - The Messenger of the Covenant, Jesus, comes to His Temple (Rev 10:1): 1. 40-days after Jesus' birth he was brought to the temple in Jerusalem to be dedicated. His arrival was unexpected and unnoticed by the masses, but God the Father would not allow this wonderful event to go unnoticed, he raised up Simeon and Anna to herald the Savior's arrival to His holy temple. 2. At His first coming when announced His arrival as Messiah by reading from Isa 61; when He cleansed the temple and caused the money changers to be expelled. Jesus was not expected and not welcomed. His arrival and cleansing of the temple demonstrated a fulfillment of prophecy and a manifestation of the power of God. 3. (the 2nd Apartment of the Heavenly Sanctuary, and His Spiritual House, the Church - 1Pet 2:5) in 1844 and near the End of Time (close of probation) to purify the Sons of Levi, those who do not worship the image. 4. 1888 commenced the outpouring of the Latter Rain (in measure) in preparation for Jesus' soon return. The Minneapolis camp meeting was to herald the final works to prepare for Jesus' return 5. Jesus will suddenly (unexpectedly) return to the earth to claim His spiritual body, bride, and temple, the Church. "The coming of Christ as our high priest to the most holy place, for the cleansing of the sanctuary, brought to view in Dan 8:14; the coming of the Son of man to the Ancient of Days, as presented in Dan 7:13; and the coming of the Lord to His temple, foretold by Mal, are descriptions of the same event; and this is also represented by the coming of the bridegroom to the marriage, described by Christ in the parable of the ten virgins, of Mt 25." The Great Controversy, 426.

Mal 3:1

Mal 3:1 - suddenly come to His temple - See John 1:11, 2:20, 21||Heb 10:5; Rev 10:8-11, 11:19; John 3:1-8, 19; Mt 6:10; 1Cor 6:19||John 2:20, 21, 3:16, 17 Lk 1:35 - And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. The Messenger of the Covenant, Jesus, comes to His Temple unexpectedly (Rev 10:1): 1. 40-days after Jesus' birth he was brought to the temple in Jerusalem to be dedicated. His arrival was unexpected and unnoticed by the masses, but God the Father would not allow this wonderful event to go unnoticed, he raised up Simeon and Anna to herald the Savior's arrival to His holy temple. 2. At His first coming when announced His arrival as Messiah by reading from Isa 61; when He cleansed the temple and caused the money changers to be expelled. Jesus was not expected and not welcomed. (the 2nd Apartment of the Heavenly Sanctuary, and His Spiritual House, the Church - 1Pet 2:5) in 1844 and near the End of Time (close of probation) to purify the Sons of Levi, those who do not worship the image. 4. 1888 commenced the outpouring of the Latter Rain (in measure) in preparation for Jesus' soon return. The Minneapolis camp meeting was to herald the final works to prepare for Jesus' return 5. Jesus through the Holy Spirit will unexpectedly come to His human temple - the wind bloweth where it listeth and we know not where it cometh or where it goeth - 1Cor 6:19, 3:16,17; John 3:7, 8) 6. Jesus will suddenly (unexpectedly) return to the earth to claim His spiritual body, bride, and temple, the Church. "The coming of Christ as our high priest to the most holy place, for the cleansing of the sanctuary, brought to view in Dan 8:14; the coming of the Son of man to the Ancient of Days, as presented in Dan 7:13; and the coming of the Lord to His temple, foretold by Mal, are descriptions of the same event; and this is also represented by the coming of the bridegroom to the marriage, described by Christ in the parable of the ten virgins, of Mt 25." The Great Controversy, 426.

Mal 3:1

Mal 3:1 - the messenger of the covenant - Jesus is the Angel (Messenger) of God that with

His broken body and blood, establishes the [Everlasting] covenant. See Gen 3:15; Mt 26:26-28; Dan 7:9, 10, 13, 14; Rev 14:7

Mal 3:1

Mal 3:1 - whom ye delight in - when we abide in Jesus and permit Him to abide in us, then we will be soft/pliable (delight ourselves) in His hands as in the Sabbath rest. See Isa 58:13, 14; Ps 37:4 "delight" "It can mean being delicate or soft or pliable, thus denoting submissiveness. The psalmist is saying that if we are soft and pliable in the Lord's hands, allowing Him to mold and shape us in accordance with His will, He will give us the very things our hearts desire." {Surrender, G.Jackson, pg 37, 38}

Mal 3:1

Mal 3:1 - behold - those who receive the regenerating power of the Holy Spirit are made new creations for all to behold. See 2Cor 5:17; Isa 60:1-3 Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 4:15.5}

Mal 3:1

Mal 3:1 - he shall come - A doubling of the statement, giving emphasis that Jesus will come to His temple, you and me, to take residence as the messengers go forth to prepare the way for His coming. See Habakkuk 2:2-4; 1Jo 4:1-3; Heb 10:37; Mt 6:10 the verse mentions two comings of Christ, typifying the two calls/judgments of Rev 18 and seen in: 1. Christ's two temple cleansings when here on earth - John 2:17; Mt 21:12, 14 2. The two temple cleansings in the time of the Millerites (the Protestants then the Millerites) - Dan 8:14; Mt 24:46-51; Jer 15:15-21 3. The two temple cleansings in the last days (Adventism, the world) - Dan 12:10, 12; Mal 3:1-5; Mt 10:16||Rev 18:4

Mal 3:2

Mal 3:2 - But who may abide the day of his coming? - Who shall stand and endure when Christ unexpectedly arrives at His temple? The question is asking who is righteous (clean) and can stand before the Lord? The prophet stated, "there are none righteous, no not one." This is referring to the mare'h vision that we must all experience that leaves us lifeless, where we see no comeliness within ourselves. See Ps 14:3, 53:3; Rom 3:10, 12; Isa 6:5, 33:14; Dan 10:7-10||Rev 1:12-17

Mal 3:3 - who shall stand - Mal like Joh the Revelator asks the same question, who shall be able to stand (Rev 6:17, Ps 130:3; Isa 33:14). This is where the redeemed will stand before the judgment seat of God according to scripture (Rom 14:10). The answer is "those who have clean hands, and a pure heart and hath not lifted up his soul to vanity, nor sworn deceitfully" (Ps 24:4); who despise the gain of iniquity and the shaking of hands for bribes (Isa 33:15-17) Joh, exiled upon the Isle of Patmos, ... hears a voice saying, "I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last" (Rev 1:11). At the sound of the voice Joh falls down in astonishment as if dead. He is unable to bear the sight of the divine glory. But a hand raises Joh up, and the voice he remembers as the voice of his Master. He is strengthened and can endure to talk with the Lord Jesus. - {That I May Know Him 360.2} So will it be with the remnant people of God who are scattered—some in the mountain fastnesses, some exiled, some pursued, some persecuted. When the voice of God is heard and the brightness of the glory is revealed, when the trial is over, the cross removed, they know they are in the presence of One who has redeemed them by His own blood. {TMK 360.3} The child of God will be terror-stricken at the first sight of the majesty of Jesus Christ. He feels that he cannot live in His holy presence. But the word comes to him as to Joh, "Fear not." Jesus laid His right hand upon Joh; He raised him up from his prostrate position. So will He do unto His loyal, trusting ones. [23] - {That I May Know Him 360.4} Only those who are clothed in the garments of His righteousness will be able to endure the glory of His presence when He shall appear with "power and great glory." - {Ye Shall Receive Power 364.3} I also saw that many do not realize what they must be in order to live in the sight of the Lord without a high priest in the sanctuary through the time of trouble. Those who receive the seal of the living God and are protected in the time of trouble must reflect the image of Jesus fully. - {EW 71.1} I saw that many were neglecting the preparation so needful and were looking to the time of "refreshing" and the "latter rain" to fit them to stand in the day of the Lord and to live in His sight. Oh, how many I saw in the time of trouble without a shelter! They had neglected the needful preparation; therefore they could not receive the refreshing that all must have to fit them to live in the sight of a holy God. Those who refuse to be hewed by the prophets and fail to purify their souls in obeying the whole truth, and who are willing to believe that their condition is far better than it really is, will come up to the time of the falling of the plagues, and then see that they needed to be hewed and squared for the building. But there will be no time then to do it and no Mediator to plead their cause before the Father. Before this time the awfully solemn declaration has gone forth, "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still." I saw that none could share the "refreshing" unless they obtain the victory over every besetment, over pride, selfishness, love of the world, and over every wrong word and action. We should, therefore, be drawing nearer and nearer to the Lord and be earnestly seeking that preparation necessary to enable us to stand in the battle in the day of the Lord. Let all remember that God is holy and that none but holy beings can ever dwell in His presence. - {EW 71.2}

Mal 3:2 - when he appeareth - Jesus appears at His temple to Judge. See Heb 12:29; 1Pet 4:13, 17; 1Jo 4:1-3; 2Tim 3:1

Mal 3:2

Mal 3:2 - He is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap - the cleansing of the temple of God is a fulfillment of a prophetic message. After Jesus' first temple cleansing, the disciples remembered that His work was a fulfillment of a prophecy given in Zech. See Joh 2:16, 17; Ps 69:9

Mal 3:2

Mal 3:2 - fuller or fulling - Fulling, also known as tucking or walking (Scots: waukin, hence often spelled waulking in Scottish English), is a step in woollen clothmaking which involves the cleansing of woven cloth (particularly wool) to eliminate (lanoline) oils, dirt, and other impurities, and to make it shrink by friction and pressure. The work delivers a smooth, tightly finished fabric that is isolating and water repellent. Fulling involves two processes: scouring (cleaning) and milling (thickening). Removing the oils encourages felting, and the cloth is pounded to clean it and to encourage the fibers to felt, so in practice the processes overlap. Felting, consolidation of certain fibrous materials by the application of heat, moisture, and mechanical action, causing the interlocking, or matting, of fibres possessing felting properties. Such fibres include wool, fur, and certain hair fibres that mat together under appropriate conditions because of their peculiar structure and high degree of crimp (waviness). Wool can produce felting even when mixed with other fibres. Unlike bonded fabrics, felts do not require an adhesive substance for their production.

Mal 3:3

Mal 3:3 - And He shall sit as a refiner - See Prov 17:3; Job 23:10; Zech 13:9; 1Cor 3:13

Mal 3:3

Mal 3:3 - sit - It is once the Ancient of Days has seated, the court has seated, and Jesus has been brought to the Father that judgment begins, and His people are purified. As long as Jesus remains seated, there is hope for the penitent. We may bring our sins to the Faithful and True Witness and He is Faithful and Just to forgive us our sins and cleans us of all unrighteousness. However, when Jesus stands up from Judgment, probation has closed. This scene depicts the Investigative Judgment where God is purifying His people as silver (Dan 7:9, 10, 13, 14). See Ps 9:4

Mal 3:3

Mal 3:3 - refiner and purifier - The Refiner and Purifier, through the baptism of the Spirit (Mt 3:11; Lk 3:16) begins with chiseling away the rough and course sediments that have attached themselves to the metal. He then places the raw ore in the crucible where heat is applied to burn away the dross and all impurities until He can see His own reflection in the purified metal. See Heb 12:7, 8; Zech 13:9; 1Pet 1:7; Jer 6:28-30; Isa 4:4; Ps 17:15; Isa 30:22 We desire to follow Christ and to be like Him; but we sometimes faint beneath trials, and remain at a distance from Him. Sufferings and trials bring us near to Jesus. The furnace consumes the dross and brightens the gold. - {1T 82.2}

Mal 3:3

Mal 3:3 - and he shall purify the sons of Levi - the purification work is a divine work that God alone can do. God alone can reveal sin, forgive sin, remove sin and make holy our earthen vessels. See Dan 12:10; Col 2:12

Mal 3:3

Mal 3:3 - sons of Levi - the sons of Levi proved faithful during the rebellion at Mt Sinai (Ex 32:26), and later Phinehas demonstrated a zeal for God's honor in slaying the man who committed fornication openly with the Moabite woman, staying the plague upon Israel (Num 25:7-13). The Levites served as a symbol of the last day remnant of God, God's priests and ministers (Jer 33:20, 21). However, later, they like Laodecia, became contemptible and base before the people, taking strange wives (Mal 2:4, 5, 9; Ezra 8:15, 10:10-44; Nehemiah 10:28). In the time of Moses, the Levites refused to bow and worship the golden calf [Image to a Beast]. They were then told to go kill all who were in rebellion. For their faithfulness and commitment to God, they were granted the Priesthood over the 1st born of Israel (Ex 13; Num 3:5-15) In the time of Elijah, the LORD preserved 7000 (Levites symbolically) who did not bow the knee or kiss Baal (1Kin 19:18) In the time of King Hezekiah, while the king sought to bring reform to both N. and S. Kingdoms, the priests, who were apparently steeped in corruption refused to sanctify themselves. The Levites, who were nobler therefore interceded and assisted with the sanctuary services (killing of the passover for the unclean, including the priests) and teaching the people God's statutes (2 Chron 29:34, 30:17, 22) Yet, God charges that people, who He covenanted to bless with "life and peace", with not keeping His ways, and being partial in the administration of the law. It is for this reason that Levi must be purified. See Jer 33:20, 21

Mal 3:3

Mal 3:3 - purge them as gold and silver - the Lord Himself is He who purges us of our sins through the blood of Jesus Christ (1Jo 1:7). The concept of purgatory, a place where purgation occurs through good works, prayers, and offerings is sacrilege and is antichrist. Christ's spilled blood alone is what removes and purges us from sin, not our works or even His good works. Without the shedding of blood, there is no remission of sins and thus His blood alone can purge us of sin. See Heb 9:22; 1Jo 1:7 Jesus reveals the idols in our lives that we may confess them as sin. When we do, He will dispose of them as a menstruous cloth - See Isa 30:22

Mal 3:3

Mal 3:3 - they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness - We are to present our bodies and lives, a living sacrifice unto the Lord, holy and acceptable, which is our reasonable service (Lk 17:10). See Ps 51:17, 19; Rom 8:4; 12:1, 2; Mt 10:39||16:25; "Lord Make Me an Instrument of Praise - holy, acceptable, worthy of praise"

Mal 3:3

Mal 3:3 - offering in righteousness - the offering in righteousness to the LORD is themselves, purified, purged living sacrifices who have been cleansed by the blood of the Lamb. The 144,000 bear the righteousness of Christ by faith and are called, chosen and faithful. See Ps 27:6, 51:17, 19; Rom 8:4, 12:1, 2; Rev 17:14

Mal 3:4

Mal 3:4 - Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD - the LORD does not desire the fat of rams and the blood of bulls, He desires obedience (righteousness by faith). We present ourselves living sacrifices, purified temples for the Lord to abide in. See 1Sam 15:22; Rom 12:1, 2; 1Cor 6:18-20, 3:16, 17, Also the sacrifice of praise and joy, our worship, will be acceptable to the LORD. See Ps 27:6; Isa 27:9

Mal 3:4

Mal 3:4 - as in the days of old, and as in former years - God speaks endearingly by virtue of the merits of Jesus Christ of His people, Jeshurun, "the upright ones" where His people seek Him with their whole hearts. See Deut 32:7-14; 2Chron 7:1-22; Isa 44:2

Mal 3:5

Mal 3:5 - And I will come near to you to judgment - Jesus comes to us through the agency of the Holy Spirit to prepare us during the last days, through judgment, to meet Him at His second coming. The hour of God's Judgment is to prepare a people to meet Jesus in peace so that we do not experience His executive judgment at the very end See (Rev 14:6; 7; 1Cor 11:32). John 14:18; Heb 10:35-37, 12:5-11; Col 1:27-29; 1Jo 4:1-3; Act 3:19, 20; Ps 7:11, 26:2; Lk 14:1-6 The preparation involved in the judgment consists of: 1. The conviction of sin, righteousness and judgement - Joh 16:8-11 2. Our response of zealous repentance - Rev 3:18, 19; 2Cor 7:10, 11; Act 3:19 3. Jesus' continual work of purification and refining - Philippians 3:12-15 4. Judging and casting out (binding-up) the prince of this world from the lives of Jesus' people - Joh 12:31, Eph 2:2; Heb 2:14, 15, 9:26; Mt 12:28, 29; Lk 11:21, 22; Joh 14:30; Lk 10:18; Act 3:19 5. Sealing His people in the Sabbath rest they have found in Him - their decision to follow Him wherever He leads for eternity - Heb 4:1-3, 9-11; The closer you come to Jesus, the more faulty you will appear in your own eyes; for your vision will be clearer, and your imperfections will be seen in broad and distinct contrast to His perfect nature. This is evidence that Satan's delusions have lost their power; that the vivifying influence of the Spirit of God is arousing you. - {SC 64.2} Jesus is not our condemning Judge, but a Judge who brings Deliverance from sin. Consider the Book of Judges which chronicles the COI persistent sin, them falling into the hands of an oppressor, and the Lord raising up a judge to deliver the COI. As long as the judge was alive, the COI walked with the Lord. When the judge died, the COI reverted to their sins. See Mal 3:5; Rom 9:28; Joh 5:26, 27; Rev 20:12 God leads His people on, step by step. He brings them up to different points calculated to manifest what is in the heart. Some endure at one point, but fall off at the next. At every advanced point the heart is tested and tried a little closer. If the professed people of God find their hearts opposed to this straight work, it should convince them that they have a work to do to overcome, if they would not be spewed out of the mouth of the Lord. Said the angel: "God will bring His work closer and closer to test and prove every one of His people." Some are willing to receive one point; but when God brings them to another testing point, they shrink from it and stand back, because they find that it strikes directly at some cherished idol. Here they have opportunity to see what is in their hearts that shuts out Jesus. They prize something higher than the truth, and their hearts are not prepared to receive Jesus. Individuals are tested and proved a length of time to see if they will sacrifice their idols and heed the counsel of the True Witness. If any will not be purified through obeying the truth, and overcome their selfishness, their pride, and evil passions, the angels of God have the charge: "They are joined to their idols, let them alone," and they pass on to their work, leaving these with their sinful traits unsubdued, to the control of evil angels. Those who come up to every point, and stand every test, and overcome, be the price what it may, have heeded the counsel of the True Witness, and they will receive the latter rain, and thus be fitted for translation. - {1T 187.1} "From the cross to 1844, for over 1800 years, Christ ministered His blood in the holy place and the human race through faith in Him had access to this salvation. The gospel provided for every known sin, when confessed, to be forgiven. There was a work done for the conscious mind of man. The blood of Christ provided this. However from 1844 onward a new and different work was to be done, just as surely as the ancient Day of Atonement was different from the daily service. After 1844 "the sins that would have been committed had there been an opportunity" were to be understood and the unconscious enmity against God was to be revealed. It is because Laodicea does not "know," that it remains in its wretched condition. When we come to "know," there will take place the repentance of the ages and sin will be blotted out." Mal 3:5

Mal 3:5 - near to you - Jesus wants to abide in each of us, His living temple that is being purified and cleansed of all defilement. The work of judgment is a "close work", where He searches His people with candles (Zeph 1:12) in order to purify us of defilement. His presence all the while brings peace, rest, and holiness. 1Cor 11:32; Ex 33:13-16; Ps 16:12; Jer 23:23; Isa 32:17

Mal 3:5 - and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts - Jesus will cut short His work in righteousness for those who believe. They will receive the righteousness of Christ and will shine as the brightness of the firmament while the wicked will do wickedly and not understand their end (Ps 73:17). See Deut 32:41; Ps 7:11, 12, 9:8; Rom 9:28; Dan 12:10; Heb 10:28-31; Rev 18:8

Mal 3:5

Mal 3:5 - the sorcerers - rebels and those who pervert the truth of God through strange arts, lying wonders. See Lev 19:31; Isa 8:19, 20; 1Sam 15:23

Mal 3:5

Mal 3:5 - the adulterers - See Mt 5:27, 28, 31, 32; Col 3:5; Eze 23:11

Mal 3:5

Mal 3:5 - false swearers - perjury - See Lev 19:16

Mal 3:5 - those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow and the fatherless - See Lev 19:13; Jam 5:1-6; Prov 22:16

Mal 3:5

Mal 3:5 - that turn aside the stranger from his right - Israel were once strangers and need the aid of others, thus they were commanded to honor the stranger and give aid whenever necessary and possible. See Lev 19:14; 1Kin 13:11-22; Gen 18:1-8, 19:1-9; Heb 13:2

Mal 3:7 - Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return? - See Isa 59:1-3; Jer 31:32

Mal 3:8 - Return unto me, and I will return unto you - Isa 1:18-20, 27:4, 5, 59:1, 2; Zech 1:3
 God's Remedy for Selfishness and Covetousness—The giving that is the fruit of self-denial is a wonderful help to the giver. It imparts an education that enables us more fully to comprehend the work of Him who went about doing good, relieving the suffering, and supplying the needs of the destitute. [11] - {AH 370.3} Constant, self-denying benevolence is God's remedy for the cankering sins of selfishness and covetousness. God has arranged systematic benevolence to sustain His cause and relieve the necessities of the suffering and needy.

Mal 3:7

Mal 3:7 - wherein shall we return - How sad the record, that in Mal's day the Israelites hesitated to yield their proud hearts in prompt and loving obedience and hearty co-operation! Self-vindication is apparent in their response, "Wherein shall we return?" - {PK 707.1}. See Mal 1:2, 1:6, 3:8, 3:13

Mal 3:8

Mal 3:8 - Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed Me - the COI robbed God of the tithes and offerings that was consecrated to the Lord from the very beginning, from the fall of mankind. Adam paid tithes, Noah paid tithes, Abraham paid tithes, all the patriarchs paid tithes. Tithing was a way for man to show gratitude for all that the Lord has done and is doing on our behalf. Yet Israel, which was rich and increased in goods and thought they had need of nothing, withheld the blessings of the Lord and their worship of Him through robbery. See Prov 3:9; Deut 8:2-18 All who refuse to give themselves wholly to God as their Creator and Redeemer, rob God. We were bought at an infinite price and we are not our own. Therefore, as we withhold ourselves from God, we rob Him of what is rightfully His own. 1Cor 6:19, 20; Ps 24:1 The rich man who had so many privileges is represented to us as one who should have cultivated his gifts, so that his works should reach to the great beyond, carrying with them improved spiritual advantages. It is the purpose of redemption, not only to blot out sin, but to give back to man those spiritual gifts lost because of sin's dwarfing power. Money cannot be carried into the next life; it is not needed there; but the good deeds done in winning souls to Christ are carried to the heavenly courts. But those who selfishly spend the Lord's gifts on themselves, leaving their needy fellow creatures without aid and doing nothing to advance God's work in the world, dishonor their Maker. Robbery of God is written opposite their names in the books of heaven. - {COL 266.2}

Mal 3:8

Mal 3:8- In tithes and offerings - Deut 14:22, 26:12, 13; Prov 3:9, 10; 1Chron 29:14 There are a few instances of tithes being mentioned in the Old Testament and fewer in the New Testament, but the Biblical principle still remains. Tithing in the Old Testament was for the support of the ministry and to give a living wage to the priests, the Levites, who did not receive a land inheritance like all the other tribes of Israel. Unfortunately, tithing today is a money-making scheme for many churches and their leaders and goes against the spirit of what God had intended. Here are a few instances in both Old and New Testaments that I recall: Gen 14:18-20 - Abraham paid tithes to Melchizedek Gen 28:20-22 - Jacob vowed to pay tithes to the Lord of all that he received Lev 27:30-34 - God establishes tithing as a statute for all of Israel (Natural and Spiritual) Nehemiah 10:38 - Tithes were collected after the Babylonian captivity to establish the priesthood once again Mal 3:8-11 - God rebukes Israel for withholding the tithes Lk 18:10-12 - the parable of Christ regarding the boastful Pharisee who boasted of all the "good works" he did, including paying tithes Heb 7:4-9: - A reference to Abraham paying tithes to Melchizedek and Jacob also paying tithes to Melchizedek who was (yet unborn) in the loins of his grandfather Abraham The book of Act shows that the followers of the early church were even more generous than merely giving a tithes. Many, such as Nicodemus, gave all of their wealth to build up and establish the early church, selling lands and possessions to distribute to many of the destitute followers of Christ who had been rejected by their Jewish family, friends, and society. The Bible gives account of a famine in Judea that greatly affected the Christian followers and collections being taken up to support them (Act 2:44-47, 11:27-30; 1 Corinthians 16:1-3). Systematic giving is a principle in the Bible that is geared to developing a spirit of liberality in us (2 Corinthians 8:1-5), something we don't naturally have. God doesn't need our tithes - He owns the cattle on 1000 hills (Ps 50:10). Further he gives us power to earn our wealth (Deuteronomy 8:18), so in truth, He owns not just 10%, but 100% of everything we own. We need to give tithes so that we learn to be self-less and give up being selfish.

Mal 3:9

Mal 3:9 - Ye are cursed with a curse - In contrast to the selfish conduct of Ancient Israel, the Macedonian Christians in the time of Paul showed great generosity towards their fellow men and towards the LORD. The secret to the success in their stewardship was their personal surrender to Christ first, then all things followed. See 2Cor 8:1-5 Hoarded wealth is not merely useless, it is a curse. In this life it is a snare to the soul, drawing the affections away from the heavenly treasure. In the great day of God its witness to unused talents and neglected opportunities will condemn its possessor. {COL 352.1} Mal 3:10 - and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts - God need not be proven because He has already been proven to be True and Faithful!! Nevertheless, He condescends to be tried and tested of men (so that we may loose our blindness, take hold of His strength and learn to trust in Him. God goes out of His way to save. Isa 1:18

Mal 3:11

Mal 3:11 - rebuke the devourer - God will not allow the plagues of locusts described in Joe 1:4 to come upon the land. God will drive back the "northern army" (the King of the North) from those who are faithful in returning that which belongs to God to Him (Joe 2:20).

Mal 3:12

Mal 3:12 - And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts - See Deut 4:5-9, 8:7-11

Mal 3:13

Mal 3:13 - Your words have been stout against me - God continues His words of reproof against Israel's ingratitude, haughtiness and projection of fault upon God, when they are truly at fault. See Ju 1:15; Isa 58:3, 59:1-15; Ps 78:19

Mal 3:13

Mal 3:13 - stout - hard, strong, obstinate. See Dan 7:20

Mal 3:14

Mal 3:14 - Ye have said, it is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept His ordinances - The complaint of the wicked here is born from an unconsecrated heart that desires not to do God's will. Their hollow excuse and murmurings are unlike the sighing and crying of the just who at times, lament the apparent prosperity of the wicked (Hab 1:13; Ps 73:1-17) and long for God's justice and judgment in the world.

Mal 3:15

Mal 3:15 - And now we call the proud happy and they that work wickedness are set up - The murmurers do not consider that the humble and meek are "happy" or blessed by the Lord [forever], but consider that the "proud" and arrogant enjoy good fortune and well-being in the world [for a short time] (see Isa 13:11) {SDA Bible Commentary vol 4, pg 1132}

Mal 3:15

Mal 3:15 - tempt God - the 3rd of a 3-fold apostasy seen in the wicked is presented. Those who tempt God [put God to the test] are set on evil because punishment for a wrong is not executed speedily (Eccl 8:11)

Mal 3:16

Mal 3:16 - those that feared the Lord - In contrast to those who speak stoutly against God, claiming it is vain to serve Him, those who fear the LORD counsel with one another and encourage one another in the LORD. Those who fear the Lord are they who give ear to the First Angel's message, reverencing God as Creator and humbling themselves during His time of judgment.

Mal 3:16

Mal 3:16 - book of remembrance - God makes record of the good works, as well as the sighing and crying of the righteous. See also Ps 87:4-6, 56:8, 112:6; Heb 12:23, 6:10; Eccl 12:14; Act 10:4; 1Cor 4:5; Mat 12:36, 37; Nehemiah 13:14; Job 14:13, 13:26; Act 10:1, 4

Mal 3:16

Mal 3:16 - them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon His name - When God makes up His jewels, the true, the frank, the honest, will be His chosen ones, His treasures. {The Review and Herald, December 29, 1896} - See Neh 5:19

Mal 3:17

Mal 3:17 - when I make up my jewels - God's jewels are the righteous who are gathered in by the 3 Angel's Messages before the close of probation. See Zech 9:16 There are in our world many who are nearer the kingdom of God than we suppose. In this dark world of sin the Lord has many precious jewels, to whom He will guide His messengers. Everywhere there are those who will take their stand for Christ. Many will prize the wisdom of God above any earthly advantage, and will become faithful light bearers. Constrained by the love of Christ, they will constrain others to come to Him. - {AA 140.3}

Mal 3:17

Mal 3:17 - I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him - In the Time of Trouble, the LORD will hide His people in the secret of His pavilion, in His tabernacle. See Isa 26:20, 21; Dan 12:1; Ps 27:5

Mal 3:18

Mal 3:18 - discern between the righteous and the wicked - The time spoken is during the Sunday Law Crisis and at the time of the close of probation, when the just shall remain just and the wicked will remain wicked. It is then that the hypocrites in Zion will be exposed. See 1Jo 3:10; Rev 22:11; Dan 12:10; Isa 33:14

Mal 4:1

Mal 4:1 - For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. - See Isa 5:24, 26:6; Nahum 1:10

Mal 4:1

Mal 4:1 - shall leave them neither root nor branch - the wicked will be consumed and will be as though they never existed. Obadiah 1:16

Mal 4:1

Mal 4:1 - root nor branch - the devil is the root and all those who follow in his footsteps of pride and wickedness are the branches.

Mal 4:2

Mal 4:2 - fear my name - all have sinned and come short of the glory of God (Rom 3:23) - all who have sinned fall short (have lost and do not measure up to) of the glory of God. The converse must be true as well, those who have not sinned reflect the glory of God. The glory of God is seen in His radiant beauty as garments of light covering His Holiness. Upon those who fear God's name will the Sun of Righteousness arise. In other words, we who receive Christ through baptism have put Him on upon us. See Ps 104:1, 2; Gal 3:27; Rev 12:1

Mal 4:2

Mal 4:2 - Sun of Righteousness - Jesus, the Messiah. 2Sam 23:4; Hos 6:3 Jesus, the Day Star and the Bright and Morning Star (Mal 4:2; Rev 2:28; 22:16) must become the abiding light within each son of God. His righteousness by faith, must become manifest (arise) in every life. 2Pet 1:19; Rev 2:28 The earth was dark through misapprehension of God. That the gloomy shadows might be lightened, that the world might be brought back to God, Satan's deceptive power was to be broken. This could not be done by force. The exercise of force is contrary to the principles of God's government; He desires only the service of love; and love cannot be commanded; it cannot be won by force or authority. Only by love is love awakened. To know God is to love Him; His character must be manifested in contrast to the character of Satan. This work only one Being in all the universe could do. Only He who knew the height and depth of the love of God could make it known. Upon the world's dark night the Sun of Righteousness must rise, "with healing in His wings." Mal 4:2. - {DA 22.1}

Mal 4:2

Mal 4:2 - grow up as calves of the stall - during the millennium, we will grow up as calves of the stall to resemble the image of the first Adam and that of the second Adam. All come forth from their graves the same in stature as when they entered the tomb. Adam, who stands among the risen throng, is of lofty height and majestic form, in stature but little below the Son of God. He presents a marked contrast to the people of later generations; in this one respect is shown the great degeneracy of the race. But all arise with the freshness and vigor of eternal youth.... - {CC 23.3} "The New Jerusalem shall have place upon the new earth, and the glory of God shall fill the earth as the waters fill the sea. The saints shall bear the image of the second Adam, as now they bear that of the first, and shall live for endless ages." {JN Andrews., The Judgement, It's Events and Their Order, Chapter 9 - The Saints Sitting in Judgment}

Mal 4:3 - shall be ashes under the soles of your feet - they shall be fully consumed. See Isa 47:14; Eze 26:19-21, 28:18; Ps 37:20, 59:13, 68:2, 104:35; Obadiah 1:16; Mt 25:41, 46 ANOTHER question which we wish to notice is this: "What shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?" 1 Pet. 4:17. The Bible answer to this, its own question, is: "They are the enemies of the cross of Christ; whose end is destruction." Phil. 3:18, 19. "Them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, . . . shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power." 2 Thess. 1:8, 9. Peter also tells of the "perdition of ungodly men." 2 Pet. 3:7. Perdition is defined to be "utter destruction." There would not be space in an article of reasonable length to quote the bare texts without note or comment, that destruction is the end of them that obey not the gospel of God. We can only give some indication of the evidence on this point by a summary. Nineteen times the word of God says they shall be "destroyed;" seven times it says they shall go to "perdition;" thirty-four times it says they shall "die," and this with reference alone to the second death; twenty times it says they shall "perish;" eight times it says they shall be "consumed;" four times it says they shall be "devoured;" seven times it says they shall come to an end; ten times it says they shall be burned up or "utterly burned;" three times it says they shall be as nothing; once it says "the wicked shall not be; yea thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be." Mal 4:5

Mal 4:5 - I will send you Elijah the prophet - God would send His messenger before Him in the Spirit and power of Elijah - Joh the Baptist, William Miller, 144,000 The messenger of the Lord, Elijah had the following message and experience that will be seen in God's remnant body: 1. Spoke boldly and unflinchingly to apostate power with no regard to his own safety or well being 2. Obeyed and followed the Lamb wherever He led (1Kin 17:5, 9, 10, 18:1, 2) 3. Was hunted mercilessly by the government and apostate powers because of his strait testimony. A global search was held to apprehend the messenger of God (1Kin 18:10; Rev 13:15-17) 4. As God's chosen vessel with a particular message of reproach for apostasy, Elijah was labeled "a troubler of the people" (1Kin 18:17, 18) 5. Felt as if he was one of God's only spokespersons given the widespread apostasy (1Kin 18:22) 6. His life was preserved by God under difficult conditions. He was fed and preserved by unlikely benefactors (raven, Zidonian widow) (1Kin 17:3-6, 9-16) 7. Sought to magnify, exalt and glorify the True God, Maker of heaven and earth 8. Sought to turn the hearts of the people back to God through this work and message (1Kin 18:21) From Elijah's experience during those days of discouragement and apparent defeat there are many lessons to be drawn, lessons invaluable to the servants of God in this age, marked as it is by general departure from right. The apostasy prevailing today is similar to that which in the prophet's day overspread Israel. In the exaltation of the human above the divine, in the praise of popular leaders, in the worship of mammon, and in the placing of the teachings of science above the truths of revelation, multitudes today are following after Baal. Doubt and unbelief are exercising their baleful influence over mind and heart, and many are substituting for the oracles of God the theories of men. It is publicly taught that we have reached a time when human reason should be exalted above the teachings of the Word. The law of God, the divine standard of righteousness, is declared to be of no effect. The enemy of all truth is working with deceptive power to cause men and women to place human institutions where God should be, and to forget that which was ordained for the happiness and salvation of mankind. - {PK

170.2} Yet this apostasy, widespread as it has come to be, is not universal. Not all in the world are lawless and sinful; not all have taken sides with the enemy. God has many thousands who have not bowed the knee to Baal, many who long to understand more fully in regard to Christ and the law, many who are hoping against hope that Jesus will come soon to end the reign of sin and death. And there are many who have been worshipping Baal ignorantly, but with whom the Spirit of God is still striving. - {PK 171.1}

Mal 4:5 - before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD - the prophecy of the coming of the great and dreadful day had its fulfillment in the time of Christ, the Millerite era and the present day: 1. Time of Christ: the great and dreadful day marked the close of Israel's probation, first stated by the proclaiming prophet Dan and repeated by the present truth prophet Joh the Baptist (Dan 9:24; Lk 3:3-14) Israel was to accept Joh the Baptist as the prophet of God that had a specific message from God (1Kin 18:36; Mk 11:30-33; Lk 20:3-8), namely, repent of your sins and "Behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sins of the world" 2. Millerite Era: the message of the Adventists was the coming of the Day of the LORD to cleanse the earth in judgment, the 1st Angel's Message (Rev 14:6, 7) 3. Present Day: we are the proclaim the 3 Angels' messages to the world to prepare for the Great Day of the LORD (Rev 14:6-12)

THE NEW TESTAMENT

Matthew

Mt 1:1Back to Table of Contents

Mt 1:1 - The book of the generation of Jesus Christ - the counting of the genealogy of Jesus is important in giving an authentic account of His lineage and claim to royalty and divinity. 42 generations are accounted from Abraham to Joseph, husband of Mary. The genealogy, though it mentions significant women as the mother of certain individuals, focuses on the male successions in reckoning generations.

Mt 1:1

Mt 1:1 - the son of David - as the son of David, Jesus would reign as King over God's people. The Lord, speaking through Isa the prophet makes known this fact (Isa 9:6, 7). See also 2Sam 7:13, 16; 2Chron 7:18; Mt 15:22; 20:30, 31; Mk 10:47, 48

Mt 1:5

Mt 1:5 - Rachab - Rahab - Jesus has a harlot in His lineage which shows He can identify with each of us. See Heb 11:31; Judges 11:1 meaning Rhacháb Noun Feminine hrakh-ab' from the same as (4460) from the same as ; Rachab, a Canaanitess:--Rachab. Rahab = "wide" a harlot of Jericho

Mt 1:11

Mt 1:11 - And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon - the genealogy confirms the historical Babylonian captivity affecting the Nation of Israel.

Mt 1:12

Mt 1:12 - Zorobabel - the rebuilder fo the temple of the Lord and forefather of Jesus Christ. His name means "born in Babylon". Zech 4:6-10; Hag 1:1, 2:23

Mt 1:16

Mt 1:16 - And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ - Jesus came from the lineage of Joseph, though not having any of Joseph's DNA since He was born of God. See Lk 1:35

Mt 1:17

Mt 1:17 - David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations - Israel was taken captive under the reign of Zedekiah, brother of Jeconiah. See Mt 1:11

Mt 1:21 - he shall save his people from their sins - See Jam 5:20; Joh 8:34-36; Jer 23:6; Zech 3:4; 1Jo 3:5; Lk 9:55, 56; Job 13:16; 1Tim 1:15; Tit 2:14; Heb 2:14-18; Act 3:26, 5:31 Three Things are Required in a Savior: 1. Deity - Heb 1:8 2. Humanity - Heb 4:4 3. Sinlessness - 1 Pet 2:22 "NOTE - Another has aptly put this important truth concerning the union of the human and divine Christ thus: "Divinity needed humanity that humanity might afford a channel of communication between God and man. Man needs a power out of and above himself to restore him to the likeness of God. There must be a power working from within, a new life from above, before men can be changed from sin to holiness. That power is Christ." {1SM 375.2}; See Rom 1:3, 4 Deliverance from sin comes through faith of Jesus Christ, faith in the blood of Christ that all the sins of the believer are canceled and the righteousness of God is put in their place to the believer's account {Christ our Righteousness, by A.G. Danls}: Rom 3:20-22, 25, 1:16, 17

Mt 1:22

Mt 1:22 - Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, - See Isa 7:14, 9:6, 7

Mt 1:23

Mt 1:23 - which being interpreted is, God with us - All false religions teach that Jesus is not with us. The concept of an Immaculate Conception is one such teaching where Jesus and Mary were both entirely divine and not One with us. This is the spirit of antichrist. See Isa 7:14; Compare Dan 2:11; 1Jo 4:1-3; Jer 23:23; Ps 46:7

Mt 1:24

Mt 1:24 - Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife: - an example of Righteousness by Faith. See Mt 2:14; Heb 11:7

Mt 2:1

Mt 2:1 - Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea - See Mic 5:2

Mt 2:1 - wise men - Outside of the Jewish nation there were men who foretold the appearance of a divine instructor. These men were seeking for truth, and to them the Spirit of Inspiration was imparted. One after another, like stars in the darkened heavens, such teachers had arisen. Their words of prophecy had kindled hope in the hearts of thousands of the Gentile world. - {DA 33.1} For hundreds of years the Scriptures had been translated into the Greek language, then widely spoken throughout the Roman Empire. The Jews were scattered everywhere, and their expectation of the Messiah's coming was to some extent shared by the Gentiles. Among those whom the Jews styled heathen were men who had a better understanding of the Scripture prophecies concerning the Messiah than had the teachers in Israel. There were some who hoped for His coming as a deliverer from sin. - {DA 33.2} The wise men from the east were wise for the following reasons: 1. They bring glad tidings that trouble a king. 2. They studied the prophecies and understood the time, location, and means to find Jesus - (Prophecies: Num 24:17, 19; Isa 9:6, 7, 2; Dan 9:25 - they learned of these prophecies during the Jewish captivity in Babylon) 2. They heard a message, prophesied by Balam the false prophet, received the message, acted by faith upon the message (the left and followed the star) and received the reward of the prophet (Mt 10:40, 41) - Righteousness by Faith (Abraham believed God: Rom 4:3; Noah became heir of Righteousness by faith: Heb 11:7) 3. Saw Jesus not as a typical earthly monarch, but as God Himself - KING of Kings and LORD of Lords 4. They made Jesus their personal God - they desired to see their Redeemer face-to-face 5. They brought 3 gifts unto the Lord - the wise bring three gifts to Jesus in the Last Days - 3 Angel's Message These wise men from the east (sons of the east - symbolizing Islam) were indeed wiser than the learned scholars of Israel who neither discerned the time, nor considered their duties to be fulfilled in welcoming the Messiah (Isa 29:9-13). They had a knowledge of the truth (they knew Messiah was to be born in Bethlehem of Jua) but had not allowed the truth to bring forth a change in the life (Am 8:1, 2 ,11-14; Jer 8:20)

Mt 2:1 - for we have seen his star in the east - See Num 24:17

Mt 2:3

Mt 2:3 - he was troubled - See Dan 11:44

Mt 2:3

Mt 2:3 - and all Jerusalem with him - See Rom 10:19 Now, as in former ages, the presentation of a truth that reproveth the sins and errors of the times, will excite opposition. "Every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reprov'd." [Joh 3:20.] As men see that they cannot maintain their position by the Scriptures, many determine to maintain it at all hazards, and with a malicious spirit they assail the character and motives of those who stand in defense of unpopular truth. It is the same policy which has been pursued in all ages. Elijah was declared to be a troubler of Israel, Jer a traitor, Paul a polluter of the temple. From that day to this, those who would be loyal to truth have been denounced as seditious, heretical, or schismatic. Multitudes who are too unbelieving to accept the sure word of prophecy, will receive with unquestioning credulity an accusation against those who dare to reprove fashionable sins. This spirit will increase more and more. And the Bible plainly teaches that a time is approaching when the laws of the State shall so conflict with the law of God that whoever would obey all the divine precepts must brave reproach and punishment as an evil-doer. - {GC88 458.2}

Mt 2:6

Mt 2:6 - And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel. - See Mic 5:2

Mt 2:8

Mt 2:8 - and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also - See Rev 12:3-5

Mt 2:9

Mt 2:9 - and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was - See Job 38:7; Rev 12:4

Mt 2:10

Mt 2:10 - When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy - the wise men from the east, led by the star prophesied by Balaam, shows by two witnesses that Islam was represented in type at the time of Christ's birth.

Mt 2:11

Mt 2:11 - gold - gold was given to the poor family to make provision for their travels to Egypt. God foresaw the wicked king Herod's attempts to kill Jesus and made provision that His son might escape. Herod, a representative of Pagan Rome (#10 symbolizes Pagan Rome - see Dan 7:7, 8, Rev 13:1) persecuted Jesus who fled into Egypt by the aid of men from the east. This parallels the experience of Joseph, who was to be killed by his 10 brothers, but whose life was spared by Ishmaelite merchants (sons of the east) and was sold into slavery in Egypt. The message of the sons of the east or the "ass" (Islam) is tied to the birth of Jesus.

Mt 2:13

Mt 2:13 - flee into Egypt - Jesus, Joseph and Mary were in Bethlehem, approximately 6 miles away from Jerusalem. The death decree to be issued by Herod would go out only for the lands of Bethlehem and nowhere else. God could have easily instructed Joseph and Mary to go 12 miles from Bethlehem and Jesus would have been perfectly safe from the death decree, yet God had a greater purpose in sending them almost 430 miles away to Egypt. God needed to fulfill all righteousness in having His son come forth from Egypt. Each of us as sons of God, must also be delivered from Egyptian bondage (mental and spiritual enslavement) to sin and captivity from Babylon in order to be able to keep God's commandments and have the faith of Jesus. See Ex 20:2; Rev 18:4, 5

Mt 2:14

Mt 2:14 - When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt: - an example of Righteousness by faith. See Mt 1:24

Mt 2:15

Mt 2:15 - that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my Son. Jesus became One with humanity. Though He Himself never partook of sin, He would become the embodiment of our sins in order to save us. He, like all mankind must be called forth from the bondage of Egypt, SIN. In order to follow Jesus, we must come out of Egypt. See Hos 11:1; Ex 20:2; Gal 3:13, 4:22-26;

Mt 2:16

Mt 2:16 - Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men - See Rev 12:3; 4

Mt 2:16

Mt 2:16 - from the Scriptures, the massacre of the innocents would be limited to Bethlehem and its coast. Therefore, practically speaking, Joseph, Mary and Jesus could have departed 10+miles from Bethlehem and would have been safe. Yet, God instructed Joseph to take himself, Mary and Jesus to Egypt. See Mt 2:13

Mt 2:17

Mt 2:17 - Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying - See Jer 31:15

Mt 2:23

Mt 2:23 - might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets - that Jesus was a Nazarene was spoken in type by the prophet Moses (Num 6:2-21) and through the LORD Himself to Monoah and his wife regarding their son Samson. See Act 2:22

Mt 2:23

Mt 2:23 - He shall be called a Nazarene - Jesus, like Samson, would be a Nazarene from birth in that He would be consecrated and holy unto the LORD for the specific work of delivering God's people from their sins (Mt 1:21). Jesus, from the Counsel of Peace with His Father, vowed to take up the appointed work of redeeming the human race. See Judges 13:4, 5; Num 6:2-21; Isa 7:15, 16; Act 2:22

Mt 3:3

Mt 3:3 - For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. - See Isa 40:3

Mt 3:3

Mt 3:3 - prepare ye the way of the Lord, make His paths straight - the path for the LORD were to be made straight not for the purpose of a smooth road for a king to travel upon as for earthly kings, but so that the lame, the weak, the aged, the women with children could find safe passage to their Redeemer!! See Jer 31:7-9

Mt 3:4

Mt 3:4 - the same Joh had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins - Joh came in the Spirit, power and even appearance of Elijah. See 2Kin 1:8

Mt 3:7

Mt 3:7 - Pharisees and Sadducees - the parallel scripture written in Lk 3:7 states that Joh gives warning to the multitude. In other words, Joh is giving warning to all of Ancient Israel, the leadership and people. The Jewish leaders thought themselves too wise to need instruction, too righteous to need salvation, too highly honored to need the honor that comes from Christ. The Saviour turned from them to entrust to others the privileges they had abused and the work they had slighted. God's glory must be revealed, His word established. Christ's kingdom must be set up in the world. The salvation of God must be made known in the cities of the wilderness; and the disciples were called to do the work that the Jewish leaders had failed to do. - {AA 16.1} Concerning the call of Andrew and Joh: Of one purpose only were they conscious. One presence filled their thought. They exclaimed, "Rabbi, ... where dwellest Thou?" In a brief interview by the wayside they could not receive that for which they longed. They desired to be alone with Jesus, to sit at His feet, and hear His words. - {DA 138.7} "He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where He dwelt, and abode with Him that day." - {DA 139.1} If Joh and Andrew had possessed the unbelieving spirit of the priests and rulers, they would not have been found as learners at the feet of Jesus. They would have come to Him as critics, to judge His words. Many thus close the door to the most precious opportunities. But not so did these first disciples. They had responded to the Holy Spirit's call in the preaching of Joh the Baptist.

Now they recognized the voice of the heavenly Teacher. To them the words of Jesus were full of freshness and truth and beauty. A divine illumination was shed upon the teaching of the Old Testament Scriptures. The many-sided themes of truth stood out in new light. - {DA 139.2} It is contrition and faith and love that enable the soul to receive wisdom from heaven. Faith working by love is the key of knowledge, and everyone that loveth "knoweth God." 1Jo 4:7. - {DA 139.3}

Mt 3:7 - generation of vipers - Joh here is dealing with the Everlasting Covenant and letting the people know that they have become the seed of the serpent and need to repent. Joh was raised up to give the "fourth generation" warning of the Old Paths that have been forsaken and the impending doom. See Gen 3:15; Prov 30:12-14

Mt 3:7

Mt 3:7 - who hath warned you - Joh is the present truth prophet giving warning to the people of the early warning prophecy given by Dan 9:24-27. Joh here typifies William Miller. See Early Writings 229

Mt 3:7

Mt 3:7 - flee from the wrath to come - the close of Israel's probation as foretold by Dan 9:24 would be with a flood

Mt 3:8

Mt 3:8 - Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance: - the Jews thought they had no need for repentance, being sons of Abraham, and that their offerings were sufficient, similar to Cain. Cain thought himself righteous, and he came to God with a thank offering only. He made no confession of sin, and acknowledged no need of mercy. But Abel came with the blood that pointed to the Lamb of God. He came as a sinner, confessing himself lost; his only hope was the unmerited love of God. The Lord had respect to his offering, but to Cain and his offering He had not respect. The sense of need, the recognition of our poverty and sin, is the very first condition of acceptance with God. "Blessed are the poor in spirit; for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." Mt 5:3. - {COL 152.1}

Mt 3:9

Mt 3:9 - think not to say within yourselves, we have Abraham to our father - See Lk 3:8 - Now pride and envy closed the door against the light. If the reports brought by the shepherds and the wise men were credited, they would place the priests and rabbis in a most unenviable position, disproving their claim to be the exponents of the truth of God. These learned teachers would not stoop to be instructed by those whom they termed heathen. It could not be, they said, that God had passed them by, to communicate with ignorant shepherds or uncircumcised Gentiles. They determined to show their contempt for the reports that were exciting King Herod and all Jerusalem. They would not even go to Bethlehem to see whether these things were so. And they led the people to regard the interest in Jesus as a fanatical excitement. Here began the rejection of Christ by the priests and rabbis. From this point their pride and stubbornness grew into a settled hatred of the Saviour. While God was opening the door to the Gentiles, the Jewish leaders were closing the door to themselves. - {DA 62.5}

Mt 3:9

Mt 3:9 - We have Abraham to our father - See Isa 56:5

Mt 3:10

Mt 3:10 - And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: - Compare Dan 4:14, 15; Job 14:7-9

Mt 3:10

Mt 3:10 - cast into the fire. - See Isa 27:11; Mt 7:19

Mt 3:11

Mt 3:11 - he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire: - See Act 1:8, 2:1-4; Isa 6:6, 7

Mt 3:12

Mt 3:12 - fan is in his hand - the winnowing fan (similar to a dirt brush) is used to separate the wheat from the chaff (Isa 30:24). In other words the winnowing fan in the hand of Christ (the Dirt Brush Man) will purify/purge His people. The winnowing fan is a message used to purify God's people during the time of the latter rain (Jer 15:5-7).

Mt 3:12

Mt 3:12 - He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire - the destruction of the wicked will be decisive and complete. See 1Sam 3:1-3, 11-14; Rev 14:10, 11; Dan 2:34, 35; Mt 13:30

Mt 3:15

Mt 3:15 - Suffer it to be so now - permit it to be so now. Jesus, the Prince of Peace and Righteousness, learned obedience through suffering - [a thing foreign to perfect heavenly beings] in order to fulfill [fill fully - fill the cup of] all righteousness. Jesus' fulfilling all righteousness allows God to look upon sinful men who fall short and see Christ's righteousness imputed unto us, fulfilling all righteousness in us and making us perfect such as He. See Phil 2:5-11; Heb 5:7-9; Rom 3:23

Mt 3:15

Mt 3:15 - fulfill all righteousness - fulfill {plērōō -Gk} means to: to make replete, i.e. (literally) to cram (a net), level up (a hollow), or (figuratively) to furnish (or imbue, diffuse, influence), satisfy, execute (an office), finish (a period or task), verify (or coincide with a prediction), etc.--accomplish, ? after, (be) complete, end, expire, fill (up), fulfil, (be, make) full (come), fully preach, perfect, supply. See Joh 1:16; Isa 42:1 Jesus' baptism was a corporate repentance of the sinful nature He shared with humanity. Though He Himself never sinned, He bore (adopted) our fallen human nature of which He offered repentance for the corporate human body as the Second Adam. His baptism is what satisfies the requirement of being born of water and the Spirit for the thief on the cross and any others for which baptism was an impossibility. Our baptism gives assent that we identify with Jesus' baptism as our Forefather, the Second Adam. Jesus' baptism would be a fulfillment of the prophecies outlined in Dan 9:24, 25 where Messiah would "bring in everlasting righteousness" and "anoint the most Holy". Jesus' baptism fulfills the righteous requirements (answer of a good conscience toward God - 1Pet 3:21; Isa 42:1) of the Law for all to be born of water and the Spirit for all in whom water baptism was an impossibility and for the entire world. God does not acknowledge our baptism beyond an act of obedience, similar to Noah taking of every one of the clean animals and sacrificing them as an act of obedience and re-consent to the covenant God previously confirmed to him. It is Jesus' baptism for the corporate human race that sanctifies us and cleanses us of sin. See Joh 17:19; Heb 5:9 Similarly, Jesus' life and death were corporate life and death that fulfills all righteousness. Christ repented of His sinful nature. Repentance is godly [God born] sorrow for sin (Rom 2:4; 2Cor 7:10, 11). As Adam and Paul lamented, "who shall save us from this body of death?" (Rom 7:24), Jesus repented of the sinful nature He assumed and mortified and crucified his flesh so that eternal life in the Spirit may reign forever. Jesus in the wilderness had to pass over the same ground that Adam did. He needed the victory against temptation that we all, from Adam onward, have failed to attain. And thus, by so doing, "Christ was to redeem Adam's failure" {DA 117}

Mt 3:16 - and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him - Jesus received the baptism of the Holy Spirit without measure in order to fulfill all righteousness. Jesus, Who is God in the flesh, gave a foretaste of the mystery held from the foundation of the world, that God purposed to dwell in flesh (through the Holy Spirit) for eternity. See John 1:26, 27, 32-34; 1Tim 3:16; 1Jo 4:1-3; Col 1:25-29 Godhead: Col 2:2, 9 2Cor 13:14 Rom 1:20 Act 17:29

Mt 3:17

Mt 3:17 - And lo a voice from heaven - See 2Sam 22:14; Deut 5:24, 26

Mt 3:17

Mt 3:17 - This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased - See John 1:32-34; Gen 22:2, 12; Heb 5:5, 7:9, 10; 2Cor 5:17-19 If through faith man becomes one with Christ, he can win life everlasting. God loves those who are redeemed through Christ, even as He loves His Son. What a thought! Can God love the sinner as He loves His own Son?—Yes; Christ has said it, and He means just what He says. He will honor all our drafts if we will grasp His promise by living faith, and put our trust in Him. Look to Him, and live. All who obey God are embraced in the prayer which Christ offered to His Father, "I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them" (Joh 17:26). Wonderful truth, too difficult for humanity to comprehend! - {1SM 300.1}

Mt 4:1

Mt 4:1 - led up of the Spirit into the wilderness - Jesus was directed to the wilderness to be tried and tested of the devil. Though Jesus was the Son of God, He learned obedience through the trials of suffering He faced. See Heb 5:8

Mt 4:1

Mt 4:1 - to be tempted of the devil - God tempts no man, but permits us to be tempted of the devil. See Jam 1:13

Mt 4:2

Mt 4:2 - when he had fasted forty days and forty nights - 40days or 1.33 months is significant in Biblical accounts: 1. Purifying rains fell upon the earth for 40days and nights during the flood (Gen 7:4, 12) 2. Jacob's body was embalmed for 40 days (Gen 50:3) 3. Moses' fast for 40days on Mt. Sinai with the LORD (Ex 24:18) 4. The 12 spies surveyed the land for 40days 5. Elijah's fast for 40days when fleeing Jezebel 6. The people of Nineveh were given 40days probation to repent

Mt 4:2

Mt 4:2 - he was afterward an hungred - unlike the fast of Moses upon Mt. Sinai while in the presence of the LORD, Jesus in His humanity was not sustained from hunger.

Mt 4:3

Mt 4:3 - If thou be the Son of God - suggesting doubt in that which Jesus heard directly from the Father from heaven (Mt 3:17), the devil questions Jesus' divinity to tempt Him to utilize His own divine power to relieve His suffering. So too were and are the works of the devil's sons, scoffers and unbelieving. See Mt 12:38; Isa 5:19; 2Pet 3:4, 5 Satan demanded of Christ a miracle as a sign of His divinity. But that which is greater than all miracles, a firm reliance upon a "Thus saith the Lord," was a sign that could not be controverted. So long as Christ held to this position, the tempter could gain no advantage. - {CTr 219.3} When Satan and the Son of God first met in conflict, Christ was the commander of the heavenly hosts; and Satan, the leader of revolt in heaven, was cast out. Now their condition is apparently reversed, and Satan makes the most of his supposed advantage. One of the most powerful of the angels, he says, has been banished from heaven. The appearance of Jesus indicates that He is that fallen angel, forsaken by God, and deserted by man. A divine being would be able to sustain his claim by working a miracle; "if Thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread." Such an act of creative power, urges the tempter, would be conclusive evidence of divinity. It would bring the controversy to an end. - {DA 119.2}

Mt 4:4

Mt 4:4 - Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God - Jesus is stating man's utter and complete reliance upon God for everything. We do not live because of the food we eat. We live because God has commanded life (Gen 2:5) and has made every provision for our lives - See Deuteronomy 8:3, 18; Job 23:12

Mt 4:5

Mt 4:5 - the devil taketh him up into the holy city - Jesus endured the irreverence of the devil in handling Him and taking Him up to the pinnacle of the temple in Jerusalem. Compare Act 8:39, 40 In the contest between Christ and Satan, during the Saviour's earthly ministry, the character of the great deceiver was unmasked. Nothing could so effectually have uprooted Satan from the affections of the heavenly angels and the whole loyal universe as did his cruel warfare upon the world's Redeemer. The daring blasphemy of his demand that Christ should pay him homage, his presumptuous boldness in bearing Him to the mountain summit and the pinnacle of the temple, the malicious intent betrayed in urging Him to cast Himself down from the dizzy height, the unsleeping malice that hunted Him from place to place, inspiring the hearts of priests and people to reject His love, and at the last to cry, "Crucify Him! crucify Him!"—all this excited the amazement and indignation of the universe. - {GC 501.1}

Mt 4:6

Mt 4:6 - If thou be the Son of God - the devil tried to test Jesus on the word "if". Jesus refused the temptation to prove His divinity and thus imperil His mission. {See DA 124.3} When Satan and the Son of God first met in conflict, Christ was the commander of the heavenly hosts; and Satan, the leader of revolt in heaven, was cast out. Now their condition is apparently reversed, and Satan makes the most of his supposed advantage. One of the most powerful of the angels, he says, has been banished from heaven. The appearance of Jesus indicates that He is that fallen angel, forsaken by God, and deserted by man. A divine being would be able to sustain his claim by working a miracle; "if Thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread." Such an act of creative power, urges the tempter, would be conclusive evidence of divinity. It would bring the controversy to an end.

- {DA 119.2}

Mt 4:6

Mt 4:6 - cast thyself down - the devil was powerless to cast Jesus down so he needed to tempt/trick/solicit/deceive Jesus into doing it Himself. "Unless Christ should consent to temptation, He could not be overcome." {DA 125.1}

Mt 4:6

Mt 4:6 - He shall give His angels charge concerning thee - the devil omits the part of the verse which says "to keep thee in all thy ways". He knew that the promise included God's protection for the obedient who cautiously did not presume upon God's care by placing themselves in harms way. This subtle omission was intended to prompt Jesus to prove His divinity and favor with God.

Mt 4:7

Mt 4:7 - thou shalt not tempt the LORD thy God - Jesus refused to put God to the test, considering God had already stated and shown that Jesus indeed was His beloved Son. The COI tempted (tested) God when in unbelief they questioned if God were with them when they were tested with a temporary want of water. See Ex 17:1-7

Mt 4:8

Mt 4:8 - again, the devil taketh Him up into an exceeding high mountain and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world - parroting the works of God (Christ Himself) when He commanded Moses to go to the top of Pisgah and showed him the Promised Land before his death and burial, the devil irreverently takes Jesus up and shows Him all the kingdoms of the earth. See Deut 34:1-4

Mt 4:9

Mt 4:9 - All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me - the devil still tempts men today with the allurements of the world. Unfortunately, many become ensnared in his diabolical trap. See Isa 14:13, 14

Mt 4:10

Mt 4:10 - Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve - See Ex 20:3-6

Mt 4:11

Mt 4:11 - Then the devil leaveth him - See Jam 4:7

Mt 4:11

Mt 4:11 - angels came and ministered unto him - See Heb 1:4

Mt 4:14

Mt 4:14 - That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying - Isa 9:1, 2, 60:1-3; Joh 5:39

Mt 4:17

Mt 4:17 - Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand - change your mind about how you have been functioning - See Mt 3:2

Mt 4:20

Mt 4:20 - And they straightway left their nets, and followed him - heirs of righteousness by faith. See Mt 1:24; 4:22; Heb 11:7. Compare Mt 8:21, 22; Lk 9:59, 60

Mt 4:22

Mt 4:22 - And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him - heirs of righteousness by faith. See Mt 4:20. Compare Mt 8:21, 22; Lk 9:59, 60

Mt 4:23

Mt 4:23 - And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people. - See Mt 9:35

Mt 5:2

Mt 5:2 - See Joh 6:45 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying, - There are most precious truths which the lapse of time and separation from God, the source of light, had displaced and disconnected from their true position. Their principles had become extinct. Christ came to remove the rubbish which had covered these truths from sight. He presented them as gems in a new framework of truth. He brought them before the people. He showed them that far from disdaining the repetition of old, familiar truths, He came to make them appear in their true force and beauty, the glory of which the people had never yet discerned. These truths He put in new settings and made them available by recalling them, clothing them with their original simplicity, and establishing them anew. - {1888 259.3}

Mt 5:3

Mt 5:3 - blessed are the poor in spirit - those who see their poverty in righteousness; those who are teachable, those who are humbled by their sins and seek God's purity. See Isa 57:15, 13, 66:2; Ps 51:17 those who are not self-exalted, but candid, and of a humble disposition, not too proud to be taught, not vain and ambitious for the honors of the world {2T631.1} The Pharisee and the publican represent two great classes into which those who come to worship God are divided. Their first two representatives are found in the first two children that were born into the world. Cain thought himself righteous, and he came to God with a thank offering only. He made no confession of sin, and acknowledged no need of mercy. But Abel came with the blood that pointed to the Lamb of God. He came as a sinner, confessing himself lost; his only hope was the unmerited love of God. The Lord had respect to his offering, but to Cain and his offering He had not respect. The sense of need, the recognition of our poverty and sin, is the very first condition of acceptance with God. "Blessed are the poor in spirit; for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." Mt 5:3. - {COL 152.1}

Mt 5:4

Mt 5:4 - mourn - those who are sorry for what their sins have done to God. Mourn for how we have offended God or how our waywardness has misrepresented God and failed to do Him service. This is godly sorrow which leads to repentance. See Ps 51:3, 4; 2Cor 7:10; Jer 31:18, 19 those who are penitential, submissive, and who grieve over their failures and errors because the Spirit of God is grieved {2T 631.1}

Mt 5:4

Mt 5:4 - for they shall be comforted. - Jesus will not allow us to suffer indefinitely, in torments because of the darkness our rebellion has brought. See Jer 31:20, 21; 1Jo 1:9; Isa 40:1, 2

Mt 5:5

Mt 5:5 - Blessed are the meek - complete and total surrender to God. Power under control. From outward appearances, it looks like weakness but inside we are under the complete control of God. Trusting that God will fight our battles for us. See Ps 119:23, 41, 42, 51; Isa 63:4; Rom 12:19; Jam 1:26; Prov 2:21 those who are gentle and forgiving, who, when reviled, will not revile again, but who manifest a teachable spirit, and do not hold themselves in high esteem {2T 631.1} While Jesus made it plain that He was under no obligation to pay the tribute, He entered into no controversy with the Jews in regard to the matter; for they would have misinterpreted His words, and turned them against Him. Lest He should give offense by withholding the tribute, He did that which He could not justly be required to do. This lesson would be of great value to His disciples. {DA 434.4}

Mt 5:5

Mt 5:5 - for they shall inherit the earth - See Ps 22:26, 37:9, 11, 115:16, 149:4

Mt 5:6

Mt 5:6 - Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. - See Ps 145:19 Since this is the means by which we are to receive power, why do we not hunger and thirst for the gift of the Spirit? Why do we not talk of it, pray for it, and preach concerning it? The Lord is more willing to give the Holy Spirit to those who serve Him than parents are to give good gifts to their children. For the daily baptism of the Spirit every worker should offer his petition to God. Companies of Christian workers should gather to ask for special help, for heavenly wisdom, that they may know how to plan and execute wisely. Especially should they pray that God will baptize His chosen ambassadors in mission fields with a rich measure of His Spirit. The presence of the Spirit with God's workers will give the proclamation of truth a power that not all the honor or glory of the world could give. - {AA 50.2} To the repentant sinner, hungering and thirsting for righteousness, the Holy Spirit reveals the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world. "He shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you," Christ said. "He shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you" (Joh 16:14; 14:26). - {YRP 11.5} The Spirit is given as a regenerating agency, to make effectual the salvation wrought by the death of our Redeemer. The Spirit is constantly seeking to draw the attention of men to the great offering that was made on the cross of Calvary, to unfold to the world the love of God, and to open to the convicted soul the precious things of the Scriptures.—The Act of the Apostles, 51, 52. - {YRP 11.6}

Mt 5:6

Mt 5:6 - hunger and thirst after righteousness - See Ps 119:10-16, 20

Mt 5:6

Mt 5:6 - thirst after righteousness - see Ps 42:1; Joh 4:14, 7:37

Mt 5:6

Mt 5:6 - for they shall be filled. - we will be satisfied as we pursue righteousness, as we pursue God. Jesus will give us living waters within. See Joh 7:38, 39; Eph 3:19; 2Pet 1:4

Mt 5:7

Mt 5:7 - merciful - the merciful are they who have themselves received mercy. They remember God's abounding and unmerited grace and forgiveness towards them so that they may show mercy to others. See Mt 18:32

Mt 5:7

Mt 5:7 - for they shall obtain mercy. - When we show mercy to others, we are also investing in ourselves because we shall receive mercy.

Mt 5:8

Mt 5:8 - Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God - Genuine in motives, without guile, sincerely desiring that which is good and pleasing before God, worshipping God in spirit and in truth; detesting sin and forsaking it and its fleeting pleasures. See Ps 24:3, 4; Joh 3:3, 5, 4:23; Isa 33:15-17; Rev 14:5 The pure in heart shall see God. Every impure thought defiles the soul, impairs the moral sense, and tends to obliterate the impressions of the Holy Spirit. It dims the spiritual vision, so that men cannot behold God. The Lord may and does forgive the repenting sinner; but though forgiven, the soul is marred. All impurity of speech or of thought must be shunned by him who would have clear discernment of spiritual truth. [158] Some will acknowledge the evil of sinful indulgences, yet will excuse themselves by saying that they cannot overcome their passions. This is a terrible admission for any person to make who names Christ. "Let everyone that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity." 2Tim 2:19. Why is this weakness? It is because the animal propensities have been strengthened by exercise until they have gained the ascendancy over the higher powers. Men and women lack principle. They are dying spiritually because they have so long pampered their natural appetites that their power of self-government seems gone. The lower passions of their nature have taken the reins, and that which should be the governing power has become the servant of corrupt passion. The soul is held in lowest bondage. Sensuality has quenched the desire for holiness and withered spiritual prosperity. [159] - {CCh 107.3}

Mt 5:8

Mt 5:8 - for they shall see God. - we will see God with our hearts. We must have pure hearts in order to see God in all things, and in all circumstances of our lives. In everything we give thanks; then shall we see God when He comes in His glory! 1Thess 5:18; Isa 33:17

Mt 5:9

Mt 5:9 - peacemakers - those who seek to bring peace into the lives of others. A minister who brings Jesus to others. One who seeks to cover the wound or offenses caused by another, not repeating the matter. See Prov 10:12, 17:9; 1Pet 4:8; Jam 3:17

Mt 5:10

Mt 5:10 - they which are persecuted - all who live godly lives will suffer persecution. Persecution comes to confirm that we are walking in righteousness. See 2Tim 3:12

Mt 5:11

Mt 5:11 - Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake - See Joh 3:19-21; Mt 11:6; Act 14:22; 1Pet 4:13, 14

Mt 5:12

Mt 5:12 - Rejoice, and be exceeding glad - persecution is God's way of perfecting us in areas we consciously could not reach. - See 1Pet 4:12, 13

Mt 5:12

Mt 5:12 - so persecuted they the prophets - See Heb 12:1, 2

Mt 5:13

Mt 5:13 - you are the salt of the earth - [See Lev 2:13]. In casting salt into the bitter spring, Elisha taught the same spiritual lesson imparted centuries later by the Saviour to His disciples when He declared, "Ye are the salt of the earth." Mt 5:13. The salt mingling with the polluted spring purified its waters and brought life and blessing where before had been blighting and death. When God compares His children to salt, He would teach them that His purpose in making them the subjects of His grace is that they may become agents in saving others. The object of God in choosing a people before all the world was not only that He might adopt them as His sons and daughters, but that through them the world might receive the grace that bringeth salvation. When the Lord chose Abraham, it was not simply to be the special friend of God, but to be a medium of the peculiar privileges the Lord desired to bestow upon the nations. - {PK 231.4} The world needs evidences of sincere Christianity. The poison of sin is at work at the heart of society. Cities and towns are steeped in sin and moral corruption. The world is full of sickness, suffering, and iniquity. Nigh and afar off are souls in poverty and distress, weighed down with a sense of guilt and perishing for want of a saving influence. The gospel of truth is kept ever before them, yet they perish because the example of those who should be a savor of life to them is a savor of death. Their souls drink in bitterness because the springs are poisoned, when they should be like a well of water springing up unto everlasting life. - {PK 232.1} Salt must be mingled with the substance to which it is added; it must penetrate, infuse it, that it may be preserved. So it is through personal contact and association that men are reached by the saving power of the gospel. They are not saved as masses, but as individuals. Personal influence is a power. It is to work with the influence of Christ, to lift where Christ lifts, to impart correct principles, and to stay the progress of the world's corruption. It is to diffuse that grace which Christ alone can impart. It is to uplift, to sweeten the lives and characters of others by the power of a pure example united with earnest faith and love. - {PK 232.2} In the ritual service, salt was added to every sacrifice. This, like the offering of incense, signified that only the righteousness of Christ could make the service acceptable to God. Referring to this practice, Jesus said, "Every sacrifice shall be salted with salt." "Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another." All who would present themselves "a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God" (Rom 12:1), must receive the saving salt, the righteousness of our Saviour. Then they become "the salt of the earth," restraining evil among men, as salt preserves from corruption. Mt 5:13. {Desire of Ages 439.2}

Mt 5:13

Mt 5:13 - but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing - See Lk 14:34; Mk 9:50

Mt 5:13

Mt 5:13 - to be trodden under foot of men - See Isa 58:13; Dan 8:13

Mt 5:14

Mt 5:14 - Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid - the light of the glory of God, shining forth in the face of Jesus Christ, as we behold Him, becomes the light that shines forth in us. We are to be devoid of self, as a mirror, so that we reflect the light of Christ. See Phil 2:15; 1Cor 13:12; 2Cor 4:6

Mt 5:16

Mt 5:16 - Let your light so shine before men - Jesus is the Light that lighteth every man that cometh into the world. See Mt 5:14, 15; John 1:4-9; 2Cor 4:6, 7; Philippians 2:14, 15; Ps 37:6; Lk 12:35; 1Pet 2:9; Isa 60:3

Mt 5:16

Mt 5:16 - they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven - our good works are to glorify God. We must refrain from taking any credit for the good works done through us by God's Holy Spirit. Our work is to lift up the name of Jesus, help to prepare the hearts of the people to receive Jesus. See 1Pet 4:11; Isa 43:7; Phil 2:13; Deut 4:5-9; Rev 14:7

Mt 5:16

Mt 5:16 - good works - See Titus 2:14 1. Believe in Jesus Christ - Joh 6:28, 29 2. Come to Him - humble oneself and yield to Jesus to live in us - Mt 11:28, 29; Lk 9:23 Gal 2:20,21 Then we may: 3. Do justly, love mercy, walk humbly with God - Mic 6:8 4. Trust the Lord with all our heart - Prov 3:4, 5 5. Keep His law and precepts - Deut 4:5-9; Eccl 12:13, 14 6. Love all men, even one's enemies - Mt 5:44-48 7. Submit to God in meekness and humility and resist the devil by not resisting or warring against the evil of men - Mt 5:39-42 8. Glorify God - Isa 43:7; John 1:12, 13

Mt 5:16

Mt 5:16 - glorify your Father which is in heaven - See Eph 3:21; Hymn #341 To God be the Glory To glorify God: to show/reveal/direct all eyes toward Jesus (John 1:8, 20, 23, 29, 3:30, 12:32) (The contrast is the spirit of antichrist - 1Joh 4:1-3; 2:18, 19; 2Thess 2:4)

Mt 5:17

Mt 5:17 - Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: - Jesus' pure principles and teachings, based on God's true and original purposes were in such stark contrast to the rituals and traditions of men practiced by the Jews that they accused Him of seeking to destroy the law and the prophets. The peoples' eyes were so blinded in the reading of the Old Testament (2Cor 3:14-16) that when truth came to them they could not recognize it nor comprehend it.

Mt 5:17

Mt 5:17 - come to destroy, but to fulfill - Jesus came to exalt the law and make it honorable. He had the law written in His heart, the essence of the New Covenant, and sought to demonstrate how the law could be upheld while in mortal flesh. See Ps 40:8; Isa 42:21; Jer

31:31-34

Mt 5:17

Mt 5:17 - fulfil - {Grk: to make full} - Jesus came to magnify the Law and make it honorable (Isa 42:21). In magnifying it, He spoke and demonstrated it in its true essence. He clearly expounded the meaning and the Spirit behind the commandments and taught us to uphold them, even as He did. See Mt 5:18-48, 6:1-34

Mt 5:18

Mt 5:18 - Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled - As permanent as the earth and as sure as the daily course of the sun, so are God's words and commandments that shall remain (Jer 31:35). See Ps 111:7, 8 God will in no way contradict Himself. He does not speak one thing and later speak its opposite. This would be confusion, of which God has no part. See Num 23:19; 1Cor 14:33, 36, 37; Isa 8:20; 1Jo 4:6; Rom 3:4; Mt 5:18

Mt 5:18

Mt 5:18 - one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled - See Ps 89:34, 12:6, 7; Joh 10:35

Mt 5:18

Mt 5:18 - fulfilled - [ginomai - Heb] to cause to be; to be established; to perform; to be brought to pass. Jesus is not doing away or bringing the law to an end (Mt 5:17), but rather demonstrating obedience to the law that we, His followers, might follow in His footsteps. See Joh 10:4, 5

Mt 5:19

Mt 5:19 - Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments - See Jam 2:10

Mt 5:19

Mt 5:19 - shall teach men so - See Mt 23:13; Rev 22:15; Rom 1:32

Mt 5:19

Mt 5:19 - but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven - See Rev 22:14; Ps 111:10; 2Tim 2:1-3

Mt 5:20

Mt 5:20 - That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven - this statement of Christ without doubt caused much perplexity among the people who held the Pharisees, the strictest sect in Judaism, in high esteem. The pharisees, full of self-righteousness when out of their way to demonstrate their self-piety, making a spectacle of themselves. Nevertheless, they set the standard for "holiness" among the Jews. Jesus' suggestion startled all who were deceived by the man-made righteous of the pharisees. See Act 26:5; Mt 23:2-39

Mt 5:22

Mt 5:22 - whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment - See Ps 64:2-6, 109:3

Mt 5:22

Mt 5:22 - Raca - {Aramaic} - a term of reproach meaning senseless one; empty headed man.

Mt 5:22

Mt 5:22 - Thou fool - a term of reproach meaning block head; stupid; dull; idiot

Mt 5:23

Mt 5:23 - Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar - Jesus speaks to the household of faith, who in faith claim God's forgiveness of sins by the blood of the Lamb. 1Jo 1:7

Mt 5:23

Mt 5:23 - ought against thee - the brother feels that you have wronged him, "you ought to have done the right thing towards him"; an apology and restitution is warranted. See Mt 5:24

Mt 5:24

Mt 5:24 - Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift - Jesus is here speaking to those who are in the faith. Those who have received the grace and forgiveness of God by faith are to operate under a different set of rules than those in the world, who have not experienced the transforming power of grace (Tit 2:11-14). The one who has Christ dwelling within, will humble himself and seek peace with his fellow man (whether that other person is in or out of the faith) before coming to God with an offering (Jam 5:16; Lk 19:8, 9; 2Cor 7:10, 11). To refuse to follow the prescribed protocol and yet offer one's sacrifice to God, is an offense to God and His character; it is rebellion as the sin of witchcraft, it is to offer strange fire, sparks of one's own kindling and an abominable sacrifice unto the LORD. Lev 10:1-9; Isa 50:11; Rom 10:3; 1Sam 15:23

Mt 5:24

Mt 5:24 - first be reconciled to thy brother - the people of God who have received the forgiveness of God and are reconciled to Him through the blood of Jesus Christ are appointed to be ambassadors of reconciliation to the world. We are to demonstrate in our lives the power of God to forgive, reconcile and save to others so that they too may be saved. See 2Cor 5:18-21; 1Jo 4:20, 21; Heb 12:14

Mt 5:25

Mt 5:25 - Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him - We are cautioned not to be obstinate and prideful, but to humble ourselves while the door of mercy and grace are still open. We are not to delay to reconcile and make things right when it is within our power to do so. Delay only prolongs the inevitable and may cause wounds to fester. Settle matters while grace may be found with your adversary, lest you lose the opportunity and they cease to have compassion for your cause. See Lk 12:58

Mt 5:28

Mt 5:28 - whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart - Jesus created men to be visual beings who admire a woman's beauty.

However, He speaks reproof to the carnal man (Rom 8:3-9; Prov 6:24-29, 32) with lust in his heart. The carnal man is enmity against God and His ways can not please God. Men must abide in the Spirit that they not fulfill the lusts of the flesh. We are to rule over the lustful, carnal nature by the Spirit of God. The same principle applies to women who are made emotional creatures. They too must not allow their carnal natures to rule over them, but must subdue the carnal woman by walking in the Spirit- exercising godly reason, temperance and self-control. See 2Pet 2:14; Job 31:1; Ps 119:9, 37; Prov 4:25

Mt 5:28

Mt 5:28 - hath committed adultery with her already in his heart - we are to keep our hearts with all diligence for out of them come the issues of life. What we look upon and meditate upon becomes our god. See Prov 4:23

Mt 5:29

Mt 5:29 - And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell - See Job 31:1; Ps 119:9, 37; Prov 4:25

Mt 5:30

Mt 5:30 - And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell - we are not to touch or handle any woman inappropriately - See 1Cor 7:36

Mt 5:32

Mt 5:32 - But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery. - See Mt 19:7-9; 1Cor 7:11

Mt 5:33

Mt 5:33 - Thou shalt not forswear thyself - to perjure oneself. To swear falsely. To commit perjury.

Mt 5:33

Mt 5:33 - but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths - See Col 3:23

Mt 5:34

Mt 5:34 - Swear not at all - See Jam 5:12

Mt 5:34

Mt 5:34 - neither by heaven; for it is God's throne - See Isa 57:15

Mt 5:35

Mt 5:35 - Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool - See Isa 66:1

Mt 5:37

Mt 5:37 - But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil - See Num 30:2; James 5:12

Mt 5:38

Mt 5:38 - Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth - The LORD made this provision of just and like hurt for hurt to avoid the spread of unbounded ruthlessness as exhibited by Lamech who killed a man for a mere slight or offense. See Ex 21:23-25; Gen 4:23; Rom 12:17-21

Mt 5:39

Mt 5:39 - But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil - We are to resist the devil by submitting humbly and in meekness to God, never retaliating against evil men. See Jam 4:7 "I had long before," he says, "observed the great seriousness of their behavior. Of their humility they had given a continual proof, by performing those servile offices for the other passengers which none of the English would undertake; for which they desired and would receive no pay, saying it was good for their proud hearts, and their loving Saviour had done more for them. And every day had given them occasion of showing a meekness which no injury could move. If they were pushed, struck, or thrown about, they rose again and went away; but no complaint was found in their mouth. There was now an opportunity of trying whether they were delivered from the spirit of fear, as well as from that of pride, anger, and revenge. {GC 255.1 - Joh Wesley speaks of the Moravians}

Mt 5:41

Mt 5:41 - And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain - The government under which Jesus lived was corrupt and oppressive; on every hand were crying abuses,—extortion, intolerance, and grinding cruelty. Yet the Saviour attempted no civil reforms. He attacked no national abuses, nor condemned the national enemies. He did not interfere with the authority or administration of those in power. He who was our example kept aloof from earthly governments. Not because He was indifferent to the woes of men, but because the remedy did not lie in merely human and external measures. To be efficient, the cure must reach men individually, and must regenerate the heart. - {DA 509.3}

Mt 5:44

Mt 5:44 - Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you - This is impossible for the carnal heart to achieve. Only after the Holy Spirit has established residence in the heart and mind can one love as God loves. Jesus is demonstrating to His followers the frailty of any human works compared to the standard that constitutes the righteousness of the Kingdom of God. Only in Jesus Christ can the words of Jesus be fulfilled. See Ps 35:11-15; Lk 6:28; Rom 12:14; Job 42:10 Jesus said He does not judge us but the words He has spoken will judge us. The words of Christ will bring a conviction of sin, righteousness, and judgement to the hearer which should compel them to seek the righteousness of God in Jesus Christ. See Joh 12:47, 48

Mt 5:45

Mt 5:45 - That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven - See Jer 9:23, 24

Mt 5:45

Mt 5:45 - for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust - See Eccl 8:14

Mt 5:46

Mt 5:46, 57 - For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so? - See Lk 17:7-10

Mt 5:46

Mt 5:46 - do not even the publicans the same - Jesus cites the publicans for effect, being highly despised among the Jews. Naturally, they were no more evil than any other man, but Jesus echos the peoples thoughts and sentiments of them being great sinners and yet show care and regard for those whom they love.

Mt 5:47

Mt 5:47 - do not even the publicans the same - Jesus cites the publicans for effect, being highly despised among the Jews. Naturally, they were no more evil than any other man, but Jesus echos the peoples thoughts and sentiments of them being great sinners and yet show care and regard for those whom they love.

Mt 5:48

Mt 5:48 - Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect. The Beatitudes were to bring about a conviction of sin, righteousness and judgment in the ears of all who heard. Upon hearing Jesus' words, we should all feel the conviction of sin (coming short - Rom 3:23) and exclaim as Isa, "Woe is me, for I am undone, a man of unclean lips and I dwell among a people of unclean lips" (Isa 6:5). This realization would evoke a longing for God's righteousness. Thus, all that Jesus said, that would make a man perfect in God's eyes must be fulfilled in and through Himself. The LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS alone can complete these things in us. See Jer 23:5, 6; Col 2:9, 10; Mt 5:44, 45; Lk 6:40; 2Cor 13:9 Satan had claimed that it was impossible for man to obey God's commandments; and in our own strength it is true that we cannot obey them. But Christ came in the form of humanity, and by His perfect obedience He proved that humanity and divinity combined can obey every one of God's precepts. - {COL 314.4} "As many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name." Joh 1:12. This power is not in the human agent. It is the power of God. When a soul receives Christ, he receives power to live the life of Christ. - {COL 314.5} God requires perfection of His children. His law is a transcript of His own character, and it is the standard of all character. This infinite standard is presented to all that there may be no mistake in regard to the kind of people whom God will have to compose His kingdom. The life of Christ on earth was a perfect expression of God's law, and when those who claim to be children of God become Christlike in character, they will be obedient to God's commandments. Then the Lord can trust them to be of the number who shall compose the family of heaven. Clothed in the glorious apparel of Christ's righteousness, they have a place at the King's feast. They have a right to join the blood-washed throng. - {COL 315.1}

Mt 6:1

Mt 6:1 - Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven - See Mt 23:5-7, 6:5

Mt 6:2

Mt 6:2 - Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men - See

Mt 6:2

Mt 6:2 - Verily I say unto you, They have their reward - the hypocritical Pharisees have exchanged righteousness, truth, integrity, genuineness, honesty, and godliness for their pretentious lives while receiving the praises of men. They have chosen their selfish lives and men's praise and admiration (husks) over life eternal. See Mt 16:26, 6:5, 16

Mt 6:3

Mt 6:3 - But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth - do not broadcast the good that you do. We are to act with humility and meekness in all things. God dwells with such. Isa 57:15

Mt 6:4

Mt 6:4 - and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly - See Isa 57:15

Mt 6:5

Mt 6:5 - And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men - See Lk 18:11, 12; Isa 58:4; Mk 12:38-40; Mt 6:16

Mt 6:5

Mt 6:5 - Verily I say unto you, They have their reward - See Mt 6:2, 16

Mt 6:6

Mt 6:6 - pray to thy Father which is in secret - See Ps 91:1

Mt 6:7

Mt 6:7 - But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking - our prayers should be sincere and frank, without show, presence or seeking to impress others.

Mt 6:7

Mt 6:7 - chanting the same statement over and over as if this will gain the attention of God. Our prayers ought to be a conversation with the Lord, as speaking to both our Heavenly Father and Friend.

Mt 6:8

Mt 6:8 - for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him - See Isa 65:24; Dan 9:23

Mt 6:9

Mt 6:9 - After this manner therefore pray ye: - Jesus gives a template for powerful, effective prayer that will: 1. Move God out of His Comfort Zone and prompt Him to do things outside of His appointed time: 2. Literally move heaven and earth 3. Cause power to flow forth from God without His consent Principles to powerful effective prayer: 1. Acknowledge God as our Father 2. Recognize His exalted position relative to our low position 3. Ask for His will to be done on earth in our lives as in heaven. Heaven and earth are connected through the Ladder, Jesus Christ With these principles established, we can then ask for: 1. Our daily bread of Himself and our physical needs 2. Forgiveness, predicated on our willingness to forgive others who have wronged us 3.

Mt 6:9

Mt 6:9 - Our Father which art in heaven - The Lord wants us to be specific with Whom we are speaking, our Father in heaven (Rev 4:1-3). We are to acknowledge God as superior and ourselves as subordinate. Yet, we must see Him as the loving Father that He is. See Ps 103:13; Isa 66:13; Jam 1:17 In Christ's day the religious leaders had so long presented human ideas before the people, that the teaching of Christ was in every way opposed to their theories and practice. His sermon on the mount virtually contradicted the doctrines of the self-righteous scribes and Pharisees. They had so misrepresented God that He was looked upon as a stern judge, incapable of compassion, mercy, and love. They presented to the people endless maxims and traditions as proceeding from God, when they had no "Thus saith the Lord" for their authority. Though they professed to know and to worship the true and living God, they wholly misrepresented Him; and the character of God, as represented by His Son, was as an original subject, a new gift to the world. Christ made every effort so to sweep away the misrepresentations of Satan, that the confidence of man in the love of God might be restored. He taught man to address the Supreme Ruler of the universe by the new name—"Our Father." This name signifies His true relation to us, and when spoken in sincerity by human lips, it is music in the ears of God. Christ leads us to the throne of God by a new and living way, to present Him to us in His paternal love.—The Review and Herald, September 11, 1894. - {FE 309.1}

Mt 6:9

Mt 6:9 - heaven - heaven is a real place where God dwells.

Mt 6:9

Mt 6:9 - hallowed be thy name - God's name is holy, just as the Sabbath day was made holy (Gen 2:3), the Bible, God's Word is Holy, and God's law is holy (Rom 7:12). We must live in a manner that recognizes/acknowledges His holiness and need to be revered. A converted person reverences God and His name, not taking them in vain. See Isa 57:15; Gen 28:13, 16-18; Ex 20:7

Mt 6:10

Mt 6:10 - Thy kingdom come - may the kingdom of God come into the hearts and minds of those who love and fear God. May we embrace our heavenly citizenship, joint heirs with Christ, and live as pilgrims while here on earth. Jesus informed us that "the kingdom of God is not in observation but is within us" (Lk 17:20, 21), therefore, the kingdom must be imparted to us by the indwelling Holy Spirit. Christ is to be manifested once again in human flesh through each of the believers (1Jo 4:1-3; Eph 1:19-23). Christ in you/me, the hope of glory. See Col 1:27-29; Joh 14:16-18, 17:14, 15; Heb 11:13-16 Thy Kingdom Come: Kingdom within you - Lk 17:20, 21 And He will send Jesus - Act 3:20 Christ in you the hope of glory - Col 1:28 Whom we preach - Col 1:29 Christ is come in the flesh - 1Jo 4:2, 3 The Holy Spirit "is the earnest of our inheritance" - Eph 1:14; 2Cor 5:5; 1Cor 1:22 A well spring unto eternal life (Joh 4:13, 14; 7:36-40)

Mt 6:10

Mt 6:10 - thy will be done in earth - May God's will be fulfilled in earth through me. May I be one who does the will of God. - See 1 John 5:14 The will of God is that: 1. 2. Our sanctification unto eternal life (Heb 10:35-39; Col 1:27; 1Thess 4:30; Rom 12:1, 2; Rom 4:1-4; Joh 6:28, 29) 2. None should perish but that all come to repentance (2Pet 3:9) 3. His name and His Son be glorified (Joh 12:28; Rev 18:1-4; Mat 26:39) All of these will be fulfilled in the lives of the righteous.

Mt 6:10

Mt 6:10 - in earth, as it is in heaven - Heaven and earth are connected. See Gen 28:15, 16; Joh 1:51

Mt 6:11

Mt 6:11 - Give us this day our daily bread - This is a command we can return to God when we have met the condition of our prayer. Great is God's faithfulness to us (Hymn 100) - See Isa 33:16; Ps 37:25, 19; 1Kin 17:6

Mt 6:11

Mt 6:11 - daily bread - Man does not live by bread alone but by ever word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. See Mt 3:4; Deut 8:3; Job 23:12; Joh 6:27 In feeding the five thousand, Jesus lifts the veil from the world of nature, and reveals the power that is constantly exercised for our good. In the production of earth's harvests God is working a miracle every day. Through natural agencies the same work is accomplished that was wrought in the feeding of the multitude. Men prepare the soil and sow the seed, but it is the life from God that causes the seed to germinate. It is God's rain and air and sunshine that cause it to put forth, "first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear." Mk 4:28. It is God who is every day feeding millions from earth's harvest fields. Men are called upon to co-operate with God in the care of the grain and the preparation of the loaf, and because of this they lose sight of the divine agency. They do not give God the glory due unto His holy name. The working of His power is ascribed to natural causes or to human instrumentality. Man is glorified in place of God, and His gracious gifts are perverted to selfish uses, and made a curse instead of a blessing. God is seeking to change all this. He desires that our dull senses shall be quickened to discern His merciful kindness and to glorify Him for the working of His power. He desires us to recognize Him in His gifts, that they may be, as He intended, a blessing to us. It was to accomplish this purpose that the miracles of Christ were performed. - {DA 367.3}

Mt 6:12

Mt 6:12 - And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors - a powerful request that requires true soul searching. We must forgive others entirely! Gen 50:15-21; Mt 6:14, 15

Mt 6:12

Mt 6:12 - as we forgive our debtors - See Mt 6:14, 15, 18:23-35

Mt 6:13

Mt 6:13 - lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil - God does not tempt nor does He lead us to a place where He knowingly directs us to fall. God however, does permit us to be tested so that our faith may increase (Lk 4:1, 2). We are tempted when we are drawn away by our own lusts and desires (Jam 1:13, 14). When we through our own hard-heartedness and rebellion grieve God's Holy Spirit, He gives us up to vile passions. See Ps

51:11, 34:7; Rom 1:26; Prov 4:14-17 God leads His people on, step by step. He brings them up to different points calculated to manifest what is in the heart. Some endure at one point, but fall off at the next. At every advanced point the heart is tested and tried a little closer. If the professed people of God find their hearts opposed to this straight work, it should convince them that they have a work to do to overcome, if they would not be spewed out of the mouth of the Lord. Said the angel: "God will bring His work closer and closer to test and prove every one of His people." Some are willing to receive one point; but when God brings them to another testing point, they shrink from it and stand back, because they find that it strikes directly at some cherished idol. Here they have opportunity to see what is in their hearts that shuts out Jesus. They prize something higher than the truth, and their hearts are not prepared to receive Jesus. Individuals are tested and proved a length of time to see if they will sacrifice their idols and heed the counsel of the True Witness. If any will not be purified through obeying the truth, and overcome their selfishness, their pride, and evil passions, the angels of God have the charge: "They are joined to their idols, let them alone," and they pass on to their work, leaving these with their sinful traits unsubdued, to the control of evil angels. Those who come up to every point, and stand every test, and overcome, be the price what it may, have heeded the counsel of the True Witness, and they will receive the latter rain, and thus be fitted for translation. - {1T 187.1}

Mt 6:13 - deliver us from evil - deliver us from evil men who seek to do us harm and the evil one. See Mt 5:39; Ps 27:2; 1Jo 3:5, 6

Mt 6:13

Mt 6:13 - For thine is the kingdom - the Kingdom of God is embodied in Jesus. Jesus is the fulness of the Godhead bodily and all the glory, honor, and power of God and His Kingdom are contained in Him - Col 2:9, 10; Dan 2:34, 35, 44, 7:14, 26, 27; 2Cor 4:7

Mt 6:13

Mt 6:13 - and the power, and the glory, for ever - God receives all the glory, power and honor. See Rev 14:7, 5:9-14; Eph 1:19-22; 2Cor 4:7; Ps 115:1

Mt 6:14

Mt 6:14 - For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you - See Mt 6:12; 18:23-35

Mt 6:15

Mt 6:15 - But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses - See Mt 18:23-35

Mt 6:16

Mt 6:16 - Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. - Jesus contrasts pure and false piety here and above. The hypocrites are they who do their service to be seen of men. The sincere do their service with discretion and in secret, to be seen of God alone. See Mt 6:5, 17, 18; Isa 33:14

Mt 6:16

Mt 6:16 - the hypocrites - the sinners in Zion - See Isa 33:14

Mt 6:16

Mt 6:16 - Verily I say unto you, They have their reward - See Mt 6:2, 5

Mt 6:18

Mt 6:18 - That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly - See Mt 6:1, 2

Mt 6:19

Mt 6:19 - Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: - See Joel 1:1-20; Hag 1:5-11; 2Cor 4:18; Col 3:1, 2; 1Tim 6:6-10

Mt 6:20

Mt 6:20 - But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven - the treasures to be stored up in heaven are an incorruptible character based on the mind of Christ and the fruit of the Spirit - See Heb 11:8-10

Mt 6:21

Mt 6:21 - For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also - God desires to be our Treasure and and exceedingly great Reward. Gen 15:1; 1Tim 6:9, 10

Mt 6:22

Mt 6:22 - The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light - See 1Jo 1:7; Eph 5:8

Mt 6:22

Mt 6:22 - single - The purpose of the eyes are to make one see. One can only walk where there is light, lest they stumble in the darkness. Therefore the eyes are to be whole and good in fulfilling their purpose of being focused upon the Light, Who is Jesus Christ - Joh 12:35-37, 46; Job 31:1; Ps 119:9, 37

Mt 6:23

Mt 6:23 - But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness! - See Prov 28:22; 1Tim 6:6-11; 1Thess 5:1-9; 1 John 2:11 If we permit our carnal desires, passions, and lusts to control us, they will seize the senses and control the mind. We are not abiding in Christ, the True Vine and the Light of the world but are walking in darkness. The darkness is bewitching and deceiving, not wanting to be exposed by the True Light that reveals darkness, so it masquerades the light through "good works" without love, a zeal for God not according to His righteousness, having a form righteousness but never coming to the knowledge of the Truth, criticism and judgment of others. Rom 10:1

Mt 6:23

Mt 6:23 - If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness! - Jesus may be speaking of one's who are dead in trespasses and sins and know it not. They think they do God service, when in reality they are motivated by a different spirit. They are not aware of the extent of the darkness within them. The darkness (evil) that men gaze upon and that which dwells in the hearts of men, even after the light of truth has come to expose the darkness, is that which brings their condemnation. See Joh 3:19, 16:3; Rev 3:16-19

Mt 6:24 - No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other - See 1Tim 6:9-11; Rom 6:20

Mt 6:24

Mt 6:24 - Ye cannot serve God and mammon - mammon is used by the god of this world (2Cor 4:4) to empower men to seek a life without God. Men of this world believe that they are all powerful based on their wealth, and thus can be god (Gen 3:5; Mt 13:22, Mk 4:19; Heb 3:13). Money and the love of it is thus the root of all evil. See 1Tim 6:9, 10, 17; Heb 4:10; Lk 16:13, 18:22, 23; Gal 1:10; Rom 6:16-22 We are to seek 1st the Kingdom of God, sanctify the Lord in our hearts and not be double minded. See Mt 6:33; 1Pet 3:15

Mt 6:25

Mt 6:25 - Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? - Jesus' counsel is that we are not to be concerned with the "necessities" of this life, because our Heavenly Father, Who is a Good Father, knows our needs and will supply our needs. See Lk 11:11-13

Mt 6:25

Mt 6:25 - Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? - Contrast Phil 3:19

Mt 6:26

Mt 6:26 - Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? - God's provision is here reflected in God feeding the birds of the air who are inferior to His beloved, crowning-act in creation, humanity. God's perfect knowledge and wisdom of us all should also be a source of comfort. See Mt 10:30; Ps 139; Isa 40:26

Mt 6:27

Mt 6:27 - Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature? - Just as Jesus says it is impossible to add to our stature by any thought or act of our own, so we are wholly reliant on the LORD for all things. Ps 37:1, 2 The statement may also relate to our spiritual lack in stature. We are too short spiritually, just as Zacchaeus was too short to see Christ (Lk 19:1-3). We like Zacchaeus must place ourselves in a vantage point where we may clearly see Jesus. We must scale the tree (the cross - Gal 3:13) in order to gain a view of our LORD.

Mt 6:30

Mt 6:30 - the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven - See Isa 40:6-8

Mt 6:31

Mt 6:31 - Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? - God has proven Himself to be Jehovah-Jireh, the LORD, Our Provider. See Gen 22:14; Isa 33:15, 16;

Mt 6:32

Mt 6:32 - for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things - The Father is He Who saw Adam's need for companionship, long before Adam saw it. If He sees our needs, He will provide for our needs. See Isa 65:24; Gen 2:18; Ps 34:10; Phil 4:19

Mt 6:33

Mt 6:33 - but seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness - "In the beginning, God" must be our waking thought and desire. We are to put God and His interests, first, last and best in our minds and that He might be seen in us - See 1Cor 1:30; Heb 12:2; Rom 14:17; Col 3:3 My brethren and sisters, you can individually subordinate eternal interests to those of eternal worth, but God is calling you to seek not for the bread that perisheth, but for that which endureth unto eternal life. Eternal riches are within your reach. The gold currency of heaven is offered you,—that which bears the image and superscription of the Infinite. Beware of the temptation to lavish your affections upon things unimportant. The world's Redeemer would disenchant the mind that is mistaking phantoms for realities and realities for phantoms. Minds are absorbed with earthly, temporal things, but God bids you leave not eternity out of your reckoning. He would have you extend your point of vision beyond the bounds of earth; for there is infinity beyond. - {RH July 8, 1909 Par. 4}

Mt 6:33

Mt 6:33 - first - in order of priority and precedence, God's Kingdom [within] and His righteousness [His holiness, a victorious life apart from the world - 1Jo 2:15-17, 5:4] is to be sought above all other matters of life.

Mt 6:33

Mt 6:33 - kingdom of God - the kingdom of God is not in observation but is inside of you. The Kingdom of God is about a relationship with Jesus who brings us to our Heavenly Father - See John 17:21; Dan 7:14, 27; Col 1:27; Lk 17:20, 21, 12:32; Mt 24:14 Jesus when He came to the earth declared, the Kingdom of God is at hand (here) - Mt 4:17; Lk 9:27-36 1. Jesus is the embodiment of God and God's Kingdom and all its glory - Col 2:9 2. God's Kingdom is inside of us - Lk 17:21 2. God is King over His kingdom and provides for all who are in His kingdom - Mt 6:33 3. We must become as little children to enter God's kingdom (teachable, humble, forgiving, loving) - Mt 18:3 4. We must be born again of the water and Spirit to see and enter into His kingdom - John 3:1-8 5. God has prepared the kingdom for all who believe in Jesus - Mt 25:34 6. God's kingdom is immovable and eternal - it will never pass away: - Heb 12:28 KINGDOMS OF WORLD VS. GOD'S Kingdoms of the World 1. Honor is given to those who are born to certain families, who have wealth, who have education, who live in certain places, who are of a certain race/class 2. The king has armies that go out to battle to fight for him. He sends men out to die for his own honor and glory 3. The king and his family believe God gave them the right to rule over everyone else 4. The people (subjects) of the kingdom, who are often themselves poor, must pay taxes to maintain the king's lavish (expensive) lifestyle: they must keep and maintain the king's palace; they must provide food for him, his family, and his friends; they must provide expensive clothing for he and his family to wear; no one gets to enjoy the lavish lifestyle the king lives except himself, his family, and his friends

Kingdom of God: 1. Honor is given to those who see the value in God's Kingdom and place it first above all other priorities in life. Those who seek/desire to be transformed by God to become like those in His Kingdom are honored 2. God Himself left heaven to fight for the people of His kingdom. He died for those in His kingdom in order to rescue them from harm and danger forever 3. God is King over His Kingdom, He created all things, He sustains (keeps everything alive) all things, and He has the right to rule 4. God has provided a mansion and a country home for every person in His kingdom to inhabit. God provides food for everyone in His Kingdom. God provides pure white raiment (clothing) for everyone to wear. God lives among His people, not apart from them

Mt 6:33 - and his righteousness - we are to strive to die to self so that Christ may abide in us. We must cooperate with the Holy Spirit in allowing God to shape, fashion and mold us into His likeness and image. Christ is our Righteousness and the Righteousness of God. See Rom 1:16, 17; Jer 23:5, 6; Mic 6:8; 1Cor 14:1; Rom 14:19; Rom 10:1-4; Mal 3:1

Mt 6:33

Mt 6:33 - and all these things shall be added unto you - what to wear, what to eat, what to drink, where to live. All these things will be added to us as we seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness. Jesus asked the disciples if they lacked anything when sent out to minister and they said, they lacked nothing. See Lk 22:35; Philippians 4:19; Isa 33:15-17 Our heavenly Father has a thousand ways to provide for us of which we know nothing. Those who accept the one principle of making the service of God supreme, will find perplexities vanish and a plain path before their feet. - {MH 481.2} Christ's followers have been redeemed for service. Our Lord teaches that the true object of life is ministry. Christ Himself was a worker, and to all His followers He gives the law of service—service to God and to their fellow men. Here Christ has presented to the world a higher conception of life than they had ever known. By living to minister for others, man is brought into connection with Christ. The law of service becomes the connecting link which binds us to God and to our fellow men. - {COL 326.3} To His servants Christ commits "His goods"—something to be put to use for Him. He gives "to every man his work." Each has his place in the eternal plan of heaven. Each is to work in co-operation with Christ for the salvation of souls. Not more surely is the place prepared for us in the heavenly mansions than is the special place designated on earth where we are to work for God. - {COL 326.4}

Mt 6:34

Mt 6:34 - Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof - We are to live for today, making no boast of tomorrow or the future. We must live in day-size compartments. See Jam 4:14, 15

Mt 6:34

Mt 26:34 - Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof - each day provides ample supply of tests and challenges for which God's graces are supply to meet. We need not bring projected worries, anticipated concerns, and imagined trials into our days. We are to live under the shadow of God's Almighty Grace and leave all unseen, unrealized and future problems in His hands.

Mt 7:2

Mt 7:2 - For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again - See Jam 4:11, 12

Mt 7:2

Mt 7:2 - with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again - the measure and standard that we hold others to will be held to us.

Mt 7:5

Mt 7:5 - Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye. - we are to be introspective and recognize the sins that are in our lives before pointing out the sins and faults in other's lives.

Mt 7:6

Mt 7:6 - give not that which is holy unto the dogs - See Prov 4:23; Isa 26:10

Mt 7:6

Mt 7:6 - neither cast ye your pearls before swine - See Prov 11:22

Mt 7:6

Mt 7:6 - lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you - the dogs and swine have no appreciation for the good in others. They will use and misuse the gifts of others for their benefit, and then turn on those same individuals. We must have discernment to know who are "dogs and swine" and to avoid them.

Mt 7:7

Mt 7:7 - Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: - See Lk 11:13; Zech 10:1; Jam 4:2; Joh 15:16

Mt 7:8

Mt 7:8 - For every one that asketh receiveth - We must ask in faith, believing that we will receive that which we ask for. See Jam 1:6, 7; Zech 10:1

Mt 7:8

Mt 7:8 - he that seeketh findeth - See Jer 29:13

Mt 7:11

Mt 7:11 - If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him? - See Jam 1:17

Mt 7:11

Mt 7:11 - how much more shall your Father which is in heaven - the comparison is made between we evil fathers and our Heavenly Father Who is all together Good. The Father wants to give us the very best gift, Himself through the Holy Spirit. See Jam 1:17, 18; Lk 11:13 To those that ask Him, Jesus imparts the Holy Spirit; for it is necessary that every believer should be delivered from pollution, as well as from the curse and condemnation of the law. Through the work of the Holy Spirit, the sanctification of the truth, the believer becomes fitted for the courts of heaven; for Christ works within us, and His righteousness is upon us. Without this no soul will be entitled to heaven. We would not enjoy heaven unless qualified for its holy atmosphere by the influence of the Spirit and the righteousness of Christ. - {YRP 65.3}

Mt 7:13

Mt 7:13 - strait gate - narrow and difficult The directions laid down in the word of God leave no room for compromise with evil. The Son of God was manifested that He might draw all men unto Himself. He came not to lull the world to sleep, but to point out the narrow path in which all must travel who reach at last the gates of the City of God. His children must follow where He has led the way; at whatever sacrifice of ease or selfish indulgence, at whatever cost of labor or suffering, they must maintain a constant battle with self. - {AA 565.3}

Mt 7:13

Mt 7:13 - for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: - Jesus gives commentary on placing too much trust in the (democratic or even moral) majority. The majority are they who follow the broad road which leads to destruction. Vain philosophy is employed in representing the path to hell as a path of safety. With the imagination highly wrought, and voices musically tuned, they picture the broad road as one of happiness and glory. Ambition holds before deluded souls, as Satan presented to Eve, a freedom and bliss for them to enjoy which they never conceived was possible. Men are praised who have traveled the broad path to hell, and after they die are exalted to the highest positions in the eternal world. { Con 86.3 } Riches, power, genius, eloquence, pride, perverted reason, and passion are enlisted as Satan's agents in doing his work in making the broad road attractive, strewing it with tempting flowers. {Con 86.4}

Mt 7:14

Mt 7:14 - Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way - other Bible translations beside the KJV translate the word "narrow" as difficult, but this is INCORRECT! Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life," Is Jesus the hard or "difficult" way? The Bible says, "the way of transgressors is hard." (Prov 13:15). Jesus also said, "for my yoke is easy, and my burden is light" (Joh 14:6; Mathew 11:30). The contradiction created by the translators here is obvious. This change in the NKJV supports penance and a multitude of other false teachings. Legalism or "salvation by works" are offered to us by the truck load, each with a different level of difficulty depending on how many pints of blood are available. The real Bible is clear, Jesus is not trying to make life "difficult" for us. Contrary to popular belief, it is the devil's agents that would make our lives difficult, and have us subject to the "ways" of their leader. Prov 14:12 says "there is a way that seemeth right unto a man but the end thereof are the ways of death." There are "difficult" ways but they shouldn't be confused with God's way. Does this NKJV rendition effectively dispose with a phrase that has been around for hundreds of years? Many have heard the expression, "the strait and narrow," which is understood to mean, even in the modern context, that the subject is moral living. This saying is an indelible part of the English language; Webster's has this definition, (with 'to keep to the' or 'to follow the') a morally and legally irreproachable way of living or behaving [adaptation of Mathew 7:14] (1988 edition). In the Bible, the "strait and narrow" lifestyle has been defined as the keeping of God's Commandments, I suppose the "narrow way" hits too close to home, even for some translators. 1Jo 5:3 says, "For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous." Can we find this "difficult" theory in other modern versions? Mk 10:24 in the Catholic based NIV supports the idea that the NKJV is trying to pass off, "How hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!" The connection "difficult" has to "penance" will make it easy for corrupt religious teachers to apply their craft. The Catholic Douay Version (1582) used the phrase "do penance" in place of repent signifying that there was a "difficult" or "hard" work to be performed for salvation. The Bible says that works are a result of conversion, not a replacement for it (Gal 5:22-3). Most modern Bibles have addressed this "do penance" corruption; however, some translators have chosen to accommodate this sacrament of the Roman Church in other places, an apparent smoke and mirrors tactic. {copied from What's New in the New King Jam Version by Max Klein}

Mt 7:14 - Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it - to walk the narrow path and enter through the strait gate requires strength and courage. We must be resolute in our walk with God, not turning to the right nor to the left, and must be willing and courageous to keep all of God's laws, no matter the trial, test, or consequence. See Josh 1:7-9; Isa 35:8

Mt 7:15

Mt 7:15 - Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves - See Act 20:29, 15:1, 5, 22-29

Mt 7:18

Mt 7:18 - A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit - See Jam 3:12

Mt 7:19

Mt 7:19 - Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire - See Mt 3:10; Isa 27:11; Rev 20:14, 15

Mt 7:21

Mt 7:21 - but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven - See 1Thess 4:3-12; Mic 6:8; Rom 2:13; Jam 1:22

Mt 7:22

Mt 7:22 - Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? - They boast of the great works they did in their own strength in Christ's name rather than the great works God did through them by way of the Holy Spirit in Christ's name. Their works were those of self-righteousness and thus devoid of the presence and power of God. See Lk 13:26; Contrast Lk 17:10

Mt 7:22

Mt 7:22 - have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? - God can use anyone or anything, including the wicked, to accomplish His greater purposes (Num 22:27-31; 1Kin 22:17-23). Those who will be rejected of Christ have, like their father the devil, done all things in their own strength by their own merits and not motivated by love by the faith of Jesus Christ. The boast of the wicked is that "we have prophesied in thy name", "we have cast out devils", "we have done wonderful works". It is true they've done it for their own glory and not for the glory of God (spirit of antichrist - 1Joh 4:1-3). See 1Cor 13:1-3; Gal 5:6

Mt 7:23

Mt 7:23 - And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity - See Lk 13:27

Mt 7:23

Mt 7:23 - I never knew you - to know, to have a relationship with; to commune with and abide with. Compare Gen 4:1, 25, 18:17-19; Job 1:8; Jer 1:4-9, 9:23, 24; Dan 9:22, 23; John 17:3; Heb 3:10 Christ never forces His company upon anyone. He interests Himself in those who need Him. Gladly will He enter the humblest home, and cheer the lowliest heart. But if men are too indifferent to think of the heavenly Guest, or ask Him to abide with them, He passes on. Thus many meet with great loss. They do not know Christ any more than did the disciples as He walked with them by the way. - {DA 800.3}

Mt 7:23

Mt 7:23 - ye that work iniquity - the workers of iniquity know not the Lord, neither does the Lord know them. if we seek to establish our own righteousness by the works of the law rather than by faith of Jesus Christ, the works themselves become works of iniquity - See Isa 64:6, 57:12; Gal 2:21; Rom 7:5; 10:1-4, 4:1-5

Mt 7:24

Mt 7:24 - Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them - faith without works is dead. We must hear, believe and practice God's counsels. See Jam 2:20-26

Mt 7:24

Mt 7:23 - I will liken him unto a wise man - Abraham was a wise man (Gen 12:1-4); Noah was a wise man (Heb 11:7);

Mt 7:24

Mt 7:24 - which built his house upon the Rock - the Sure Foundation that has been laid by the Lord is Jesus Christ (Isa 28:16). Prov 12:7; Ps 16:8; 1Cor 3:11; Eph 2:20; 1Pet 2:4-6

Mt 7:25

Mt 7:25 - floods came - the overflowing scourge of a Sunday Law will be as a flood upon the good and bad (Isa 28:15, 17). Those alone who have received the early and latter rains and have moisture (Christ's righteousness by faith - Isa 61:11), being Trees of Righteousness planted by the rivers (Ps 1:1-3; Isa 61:3), will endure the blast of the East Wind. See Isa 4:6

Mt 7:25

Mt 7:25 - winds blew - the winds of strife will blow upon the righteous and wicked but they shall not overflow the righteous who are grounded upon the Rock (Ps 91:3-12). See Ps 92:12

Mt 7:27

Mt 7:27 - rain descended - the early and latter rain fall but only those build on the Rock are profited by it. See Zech 10:1;

Mt 7:27

Mt 7:27 - floods came - unrighteous decree, overflowing scourge of a Sunday Law. See Isa 10:2, 28:15-20

Mt 7:27

Mt 7:27 - the winds blew - the East Wind followed by the Rough Winds, the winds of strife. See Isa 27:8; Rev 7:1-4

Mt 7:29

Mt 7:29 - For he taught them as one having authority - Jesus taught from a first hand knowledge and understanding of the things which He spoke. Every subject of doctrine and godliness He created. Jesus was fully imbued with the Holy Spirit and therefore spoke the truth with power and authority. See Mt 8:8, 9; Lk 7:8, 4:36

Mt 8:2

Mt 8:2 - there came a leper and worshipped him - there came a man who was robbed of his identity by the life-threatening illness that had befallen him. He was no longer a person with a name, but was a scourge to society who was merely identified as a leper. He came, bowed down and worshipped Jesus. See Lk 5:12-14

Mt 8:2

Mt 8:2 - worshipped him - we are to worship God alone. Jesus accepted the man's worship because of Who He knew Himself to be, God in the flesh, Immanuel. See Ex 20:3-6; Compare Rev 19:10

Mt 8:2

Mt 8:2 - Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean - the leper understood that his healing was predicated on the will of God. He came in humility with supplications and received that which both he and the Lord desired, his healing. See Joh 10:10, 11; Compare Mk 9:22-24

Mt 8:3

Mt 8:3 - And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him - He Who commanded with His words alone and things came into existence showed His loving compassion and tender care for His children in touching he who was a paria to society. Jesus demonstrated not only His power to heal but His power over all of man's maladies.

Mt 8:3

Mt 8:3 - I will - Jesus' will is to heal us, no matter what our circumstances or what has brought great pain and heartache to our lives. He wills to heal all who come to Him in faith. See Mt 7:7-11

Mt 8:4

Mt 8:4 - shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them - Jesus did not seek to disrupt the present order of things but to show God's purposes for the law in their correct light. The laws given to Moses were first spoken by Christ Himself, therefore there was no contradiction in His works and what the Law required. Further, so as not to cause a controversy with the Jewish Leadership and so that the person's healing would not be prejudiced by their hatred for Christ, He bid the man to tell no one of the healing until pronounced clean according to the Law of Moses. See Lev 14

Mt 8:5

Mt 8:5 - a Gentile, Roman officer with 100 men under his command.

Mt 8:6

Mt 8:9 - Lord - the centurion did not recognize Caesar as Lord by rather Jesus. CONTRAST Joh 19:15

Mt 8:6

Mt 8:6 - sick of the palsy - The loss or defect of the power of voluntary muscular motion in the whole body, or in a particular part; paralysis. When one side only of the body is affected, it is called hemiplegy. When the lower part of the body is paralytic, it is called paraplegy. Palsy may be a loss of the power of motion without a loss of sensation, or a loss of sensation without loss of motion, or a loss of both.

Mt 8:7

Mt 8:7 - And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him - Jesus made an extra effort to reach out to those who the COI saw as outside the household of faith. Unlike the nobleman whose son was sick also from Capernaum who Jesus merely spoke to his father, affirming that He healed his son from afar, Jesus was willing to make a personal visit to the Roman Centurion's home to grant him his wishes. Jesus wanted to show both the Jews and the Gentiles that God is no respecter of persons but loves all mankind alike, part of the mystery of God. See Isa 49:6; Joh 4:46-53, 40-43; Rev 10:7

Mt 8:8

Mt 8:8 - Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed - The centurion had a humble opinion of himself. He recognized the majesty of heaven and saw his lowliness before Him. See Mt 7:29, 2Pet 3:5; Dan 10:8; Isa 6:5, 6

Mt 8:8

Mt 8:8 - but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed - the centurion was fully aware of Jesus' authority to command life and death. He conceived of Jesus' creative power and requested in mercy that He look upon his ill servant, and "speak the word only". The centurion had Jesus and His words abiding in him already, such that he could ask anything of Jesus and it would be granted. John 15:7

Mt 8:9

Mt 8:9 - For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it - The Centurion, unlike most of the Jews, heard the glad tidings of Jesus and believed. He understood Jesus' power was creative power and His authority was supreme. Therefore, with faith and humility He came to the One Whose love could not be questioned.

Mt 8:10

Mt 8:10 - Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. Jesus is here identifying what constitutes faith more than a mere definition of faith - See Rom 9:30-33; Joh 12:20, 21

Mt 8:11

Mt 8:11 - many shall come from the east and west - See Gen 15:5, 6; Joh 12:20, 21; Mt 2:1-11; Isa 56:1-7; Rev 21:24 These men came from the West to find the Saviour at the close of His life, as the wise men had come from the East at the beginning. At the time of Christ's birth the Jewish people were so engrossed with their own ambitious plans that they knew not of His advent. The magi from a heathen land came to the manger with their gifts, to worship the Saviour. So these Greeks, representing the nations, tribes, and peoples of the world, came to see Jesus. So the people of all lands and all ages would be drawn by the Saviour's cross. So shall many "come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven." Mt 8:11. - {DA 621.3}

Mt 8:12

Mt 8:12 - But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth - See Act 13:42-48; Lk 16:22, 23, 20:16-18; Mt 21:41-45

Mt 8:12

Mt 8:12 - there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth - See Mt 22:13, 24:51, 25:30; Lk 13:28

Mt 8:13

Mt 8:13 - Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee - See Mk 10:51, 52; Lk 18:41-43

Mt 8:14

Mt 8:14 - And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever - Peter and his wife sought to honor her mother by having her live in their house. This is an example to be followed.

Mt 8:15

Mt 8:15 - And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them - as we receive blessings from the Lord, we in gratitude should seek to minister to others.

Mt 8:16

Mt 8:16 - and he cast out the spirits with his word - not only does Jesus' words have creative power, they have the power to cast out demons. See Mt 4:10, 11, 8:31, 32; Jude 1:9

Mt 8:16

Mt 8:16 - and healed all that were sick - During His ministry Jesus devoted more time to healing the sick than to preaching. His miracles testified to the truth of His words, that He came not to destroy but to save. His righteousness went before Him, and the glory of the Lord was His rearward. Wherever He went, the tidings of His mercy preceded Him. Where He had passed, the objects of His compassion were rejoicing in health, and making trial of their new-found powers. Crowds were collecting around them to hear from their lips the works that the Lord had wrought. His voice was the first sound that many had ever heard, His name the first word they had ever spoken, His face the first they had ever looked upon. Why should they not love Jesus, and sound His praise? As He passed through the towns and cities He was like a vital current, diffusing life and joy wherever He went. - {DA 350.3}

Mt 8:17

Mt 8:17 - That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses - See Isa 53:4 In taking upon Himself man's nature in its fallen condition, Christ did not in the least participate in its sin. He was subject to the infirmities and weaknesses by which man is encompassed, "that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses." He was touched with the feeling of our infirmities, and was in all points tempted like as we are. And yet He "knew no sin." He was the lamb "without blemish and without spot." Could Satan in the least particular have tempted Christ to sin, he would have bruised the Saviour's head. As it was, he could only touch His heel. Had the head of Christ been touched, the hope of the human race would have perished. Divine wrath would have come upon Christ as it came upon Adam. Christ and the church would have been without hope. - {5BC 1131.3}

Mt 8:19

Mt 8:19, 20 - A certain scribe, came and said unto Him, Master I will follow thee... - Unlike the other disciples that were called of Jesus, Judas Iscariot nominated himself and joined the group of 11 disciples. While Jesus was preparing the disciples for their ordination, one who had not been summoned urged his presence among them. It was Judas Iscariot, a man who professed to be a follower of Christ. He now came forward, soliciting a place in this inner circle of disciples. With great earnestness and apparent sincerity he declared, "Master, I will follow Thee whithersoever Thou goest." Jesus neither repulsed nor welcomed him, but uttered only the mournful words: "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay His head." Mt 8:19, 20. Judas believed Jesus to be the Messiah; and by joining the apostles, he hoped to secure a high position in the new kingdom. This hope Jesus designed to cut off by the statement of His poverty. - {DA 293.2}

Mt 8:20

Mt 8:20 - And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. - Jesus spoke as a stranger and pilgrim upon the earth. Like Abraham, He did not consider this His home, but a place of mission and ministry where He had an appointed work to accomplish before returning home. Jesus hoped to discourage Judas' desire for fame/fortune and notoriety by warning that He and His disciples had no place to lay their heads - See Ps 84:3, 4; 1Pet 2:11; Hymn #152 - Tell Me the Story of Jesus His life was one of constant self-sacrifice. He had no home in this world except as the kindness of friends provided for Him as a wayfarer. He came to live in our behalf the life of the poorest and to walk and work among the needy and the suffering. Unrecognized and unhonored, He walked in and out among the people for whom He had done so much. - {CSA 59.6}

Mt 8:21

Mt 8:21 - suffer me first to go and bury my father - The woud-be-disciple claimed that he would follow Jesus once his father is dead and buried. - See Ps 95:7, 8; Mk 1:20

Mt 8:22

Mt 8:22 - Follow Me - See Joh 12:35, 36

Mt 8:22

Mt 8:22 - let the dead bury their dead - Jesus says, "now that you have found life, follow life and let the dead bury their own dead." In other words, let those who are dead in their trespasses and sins bury their own dead who have died in their trespasses and sin. Those who are born again brethren of Christ and are separate from the world. See Prov 21:16; Eph 2:1; Col 2:13

Mt 8:24

Mt 8:24 - there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves - Satan works through the elements also to garner his harvest of unprepared souls. He has studied the secrets of the laboratories of nature, and he uses all his power to control the elements as far as God allows. When he was suffered to afflict Job, how quickly flocks and herds, servants, houses, children, were swept away, one trouble succeeding another as in a moment. It is God that shields His creatures and hedges them in from the power of the destroyer. {CH 461.1}

Mt 8:25

Mt 8:25 - And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish - The disciples lacked faith. Had they known and believed Who was in the boat, they would never have feared.

Mt 8:26

Mt 8:26 - And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? - The disciples were to learn from the lessons they had learned from the prior two days. They saw Jesus touch and heal a leper, making him clean, they saw Jesus speak the word and the Centurion's servant was healed. They saw Peter's mother-in-law healed instantly from her sickness and they saw all the town healed at night from demon possession, and all manner of sickness. The disciples like us lacked faith to believe God could do all things!

Mt 8:26

Mt 8:26 - rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm - See Mk 4:39

Mt 8:27

Mt 8:27 - What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him! - See Ps 104:9; Isa 54:9; Gen 9:11-15; Hymn # 461 Be Still My Soul

Mt 8:28

Mt 8:28 - Gergesenes - Gergesēnós Adjective gher-ghes-ay-nos' of Hebrew origin (01622) of Hebrew origin (); a Gergesene (i.e. Gergashite) or one of the aborigines of Palestine:--

Gergesene. Gergesenes = "a stranger drawing near" ?

Mt 8:29

Mt 8:29 - And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? - the devils recognized Jesus for Who He was. See Jam 2:19

Mt 8:29

Mt 8:29 - art thou come hither to torment us before the time? - See Mt 25:41; Ju 1:6; 1Cor 6:3; Rev 20:4, 11-15

Mt 8:31

Mt 8:31 - So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine - See Mt 8:16

Mt 8:34

Mt 8:3 - when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts - Jesus became a financial liability to those who owned the swine. Never mind that Jesus did a greater good in delivering men from their bondage to the devil. Therefore they bid Him depart from them. See Act 19:23-30 But the purposes of Christ were not thwarted. He allowed the evil spirits to destroy the herd of swine as a rebuke to those Jews who were raising these unclean beasts for the sake of gain. Had not Christ restrained the demons, they would have plunged into the sea, not only the swine, but also their keepers and owners. The preservation of both the keepers and the owners was due alone to His power, mercifully exercised for their deliverance. Furthermore, this event was permitted to take place that the disciples might witness the cruel power of Satan upon both man and beast. The Saviour desired His followers to have a knowledge of the foe whom they were to meet, that they might not be deceived and overcome by his devices. It was also His will that the people of that region should behold His power to break the bondage of Satan and release his captives. And though Jesus Himself departed, the men so marvelously delivered, remained to declare the mercy of their Benefactor. - {GC 515.1}

Mt 9:1

Mt 9:1 - And he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city - Jesus comes to His home town of Bethlehem.

Mt 9:2

Mt 9:2 - Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee. - the faith exhibited by the man and his friends who brought him to Jesus, moved the Lord with compassion and joy to forgive him. The forgiveness given was sufficient for the paralytic to go back home and die and peace; yet, God in His mercy had more abounding grace and blessings in store for him. See Mt 8:13, 9:22; Joh 6:37; 1Jo 1:9; Rom 5:1

Mt 9:3

Mt 9:3 - certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth - The scribes did not utter a word but spoke within themselves that Jesus had blasphemed. See Mk 2:6, 7

Mt 9:4

Mt 9:4 - Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? - The Holy Spirit revealed to Jesus the thoughts and intents of the hearts of the scribes listening. These men had seen Jesus' miracles and had heard the kingdom of God proclaimed by Him. As scribes, they were aware of the Scriptures and saw in Jesus the fulfillment of prophecy. Yet, their hardness of heart would not allow them to accept Him for Who He was. They therefore had the greater sin, knowing, perceiving and observing the Truth and rejecting it. Ps 139:1, 2, 23, 24; Heb 4:12; 1Cor 2:10, 11

Mt 9:6

Mt 9:6 - But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house - While on this earth Jesus taught us that the gifts He promises are ours if we believe. He healed many people of their illnesses and disabilities when they placed their faith in His power. That help in the physical realm gave them the confidence that they could trust Him for a similar miracle in the spiritual realm. - {AC 43.4} Do you recall the story of the paralytic at Bethesda? This man was helpless; he hadn't used his limbs for 38 years. Yet Jesus simply told him, "Stand up, take your bed and go to your home." Mt 9:6. This poor fellow could have come up with any number of arguments why He couldn't do that, based on 38 years of experience, but he believed Jesus, believed he could walk. He made the decision to try. And the moment he made the decision to be responsive to Jesus' words, God supplied the power! He walked! - {AC 44.1}

Mt 9:8

Mt 9:8 - But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men - The Pharisees warred against the Holy Spirit in defiance as they refused to join the multitude in giving glory to God for the wonderful works He had done. With each resistance of the Spirit's prompting, their were searing their own hearts and minds towards the truth and towards God. See Joh 10:25

Mt 9:9

Mt 9:9 - he saw a man, named Mt, sitting at the receipt of custom - Mt and other publicans were considered betrayers of the race as they took taxes of the Jews to give to the Rom. Many publicans had enriched themselves, taking more than was required, for their personal gain. Thus they were a despised people among their own. See Mt 9:11

Mt 9:9

Mt 9:9 - And he arose, and followed him - Mt saw greater reward in following Jesus than in the unfruitful works of unrighteousness. Though a publican, Mt was a man of integrity and uprightness who was looking for more than what his present life offered. The invitation from Jesus was immediately accepted and welcomed.

Mt 9:10

Mt 9:10 - And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples -

Mt 9:10

Mt 9:10 - publicans and sinners - publicans or Jewish tax collectors for the Rom were lumped into the same category as "sinners", prostitutes and other undesirables.

Mt 9:11

Mt 9:11 - And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners? - The Pharisees attempted to pit the disciples against their Master, Jesus. They called into question Jesus' judgment and character in sitting and eating with the tax collectors and "sinners".

Mt 9:12

Mt 9:12 - But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick - Jesus declares Himself the Great Physician Who has come to heal those who are sick. Ironically, the Pharisees, who were truly most sick and in need of healing, did not realize their condition.

Mt 9:13

Mt 9:13 - But go ye and learn what that meaneth - Jesus commands the self-righteous Pharisees to search the Scriptures and learn what they teach regarding God loving mercy and not sacrifice. See Joh 5:39; Mt 12:7

Mt 9:13

Mt 9:13 - I will have mercy, and not sacrifice - Jesus teaches the Pharisees that God is One Who delights in mercy based on His Own merits, and not on the works of (self-righteous) men and vain sacrifices of the impenitent. The publicans would not be sinners as they were had they been mercifully ministered to by the self-righteous Pharisees. The Pharisees' lack of mercy towards these wayward men found greater displeasure with God than the sins of the publicans. See Hosea 6:6; Mic 6:6-8; Mt 12:7

Mt 9:13

Mt 9:13 - for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance - Jesus came for all who recognize their unworthiness and need of a Savior, and not the self-righteous who feel no need of repentance. See Lk 15:7

Mt 9:14

Mt 9:14 - Then came to him the disciples of Joh, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not? - Joh's disciples were taken by the outward rites and rituals of the Pharisees as signs of holiness and righteousness. The fast of the Pharisees was an abomination of God and not worthy of being compared to. See Isa 58:1-7

Mt 9:15

Mt 9:15 - Can the children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? - we do not mourn while we have the blessed presence of a loved one. However, when that loved one is taken away, then we mourn.

Mt 9:15

Mt 9:15 - but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them - See Zech 13:7; Mt 26:31, Mk 14:27

Mt 9:16

Mt 9:16, 17 - No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse. 17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved - Jesus was teaching that He brought new wine of the gospel and it was not to be placed in the old-wine skins of men's traditions. Additionally, His doctrines were the new cloth that could not be bound to old garments, ready to be discarded. Jesus had truths both the disciples of Joh and the Pharisees needed to both listen and embrace.

Mt 9:17

Mt 9:17 - new wine - pure grape juice. See Isa 65:8

Mt 9:18

Mt 9:18 - My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live - the Jewish ruler believed that Jesus could raise his daughter from death. See Joh 11:11-15, 40

Mt 9:20

Mt 9:20 - twelve years - The number twelve is significant to the Lord as seen in the following: 1. 12 tribes of Israel 2. 12 Disciples and Apostles 3. 12 gates to the celestial city with 12 pearls as gates 4. 12 foundations to the celestial city made of precious stones 5. A boy was considered a man at the age of 12

Mt 9:20

Mt 9:20 - touched the hem of his garment - There was power in Jesus, even to the hem of His garment, as the Anointed High Priest after the order of Melchizadek. See Ps 133:2; Compare (Act 19:11, 12)

Mt 9:21

Mt 9:21 - For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole - her faith in Jesus and in His divine power allowed her to be made whole. She believed that there was healing in His wings and she sought with all her might to receive that power. See Mal 4:2

Mt 9:22

Mt 9:22 - thy faith hath made thee whole - See Mt 8:13, 9:29; Lk 8:48, 17:19; Mk 5:34

Mt 9:24

Mt 9:24 - the maid is not dead, but sleepeth - See Joh 11:11-14

Mt 9:24

Mt 9:24 - they laughed him to scorn - Jesus would be derided, mocked and scorned throughout His ministry and in His death. See Gen 17:17-19, 18:10-15; 2Kin 19:21; Job 12:4

Mt 9:25

Mt 9:25 - took her by the hand, and the maid arose - Mt continues to show the humanity combined with the divinity of Christ in His exhibition of power through the spoken Word and through touch: 1. Touching and healing the leper - Mt 8:2, 3 2. Healing the Centurian's servant by His words - Mt 8:13 3. Healing Peter's mother-in-law with the touch of His hands - Mt 8:14 4. Healing the paralytic by commanding him to rise, take up his bed and walk - Mt 9:2-7 5. Touching the maid and raising her from the dead - Mt 9:25 6. Healing all manner of sicknesses and diseases - Mt 4:23, 24

Mt 9:26 - Thou Son of David - The blind men who could not see with their physical eyes, saw with their spiritual eyes Jesus the Messiah, the Son of David, the root and offspring of David. See Joh 9; Mt 22:41, 42; Isa 11:1-5; Rev 22:16

Mt 9:28

Mt 9:28 - and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? - Do we have faith in believing that God is able to give us what we desire?

Mt 9:29

Mt 9:28 - According to your faith be it unto you. To believe Christ is to receive Him. Believing is receiving with God - "According to your faith be it unto you" - See Mt 8:13, 9:22; Lk 8:48, 17:19; Mk 5:34; Joh 9:39-41

Mt 9:30

Mt 9:30 - Jesus straitly charged them - despite Jesus' strict command not to publish the news of the miracle performed, those who were touched by the power of God and whose lives were changed could not but proclaim His glory!

Mt 9:30

Mt 9:30 - See that no man know it - Some of those whom Christ healed He charged to tell no man. He knew that the more the Pharisees and Sadducees and rulers heard of His miracles, the more they would try to hedge up His way. But notwithstanding His precautions, "so much the more went there a fame abroad of Him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by Him of their infirmities." Lk 5:15. Again and again He was followed by the priests, who expressed their violent sentiments against Him in order to stir up the enmity of the people. But when He could no longer safely remain in one place He went to another. - {CH 527.2}

Mt 9:33

Mt 9:33 - And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel - demon possession is seen in many ways that modern medicine is blind to. For its denial of the supernatural and spiritual things, modern medicine overlooks what the Bible clearly ascribes to demon possession. See Isa 35:6

Mt 9:34

Mt 9:34 - But the Pharisees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils. - See Ps 81:15

Mt 9:35

Mt 9:35 - And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. - See Mt 4:23, 24

Mt 9:36

Mt 9:36 - because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd - See Eze 34:2-6; Jer 10:21; 2Chron 18:16; 1Pet 2:25

Mt 9:37

Mt 9:37 - The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few - See Joh 4:34-36; Rev 14:15

Mt 9:38

Mt 9:38 - Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest - We should pray that the Lord send laborers and that He direct those laborers to the place where the harvest will be most bountiful. See Isa 32:20; 2Tim 2:2; Lk 10:2; Act 16:6-10 The work of building up the kingdom of Christ will go forward, though to all appearance it moves slowly and impossibilities seem to testify against advance. The work is of God, and He will furnish means, and will send helpers, true, earnest disciples, whose hands also will be filled with food for the starving multitude. God is not unmindful of those who labor in love to give the word of life to perishing souls, who in their turn reach forth their hands for food for other hungry souls. - {DA 370.2}

Mt 10:1

Mt 10:1 - disciples - Jesus disciples were to be disciplined in following Him wherever He led.

Mt 10:1

Mt 10:1 - he gave them power against unclean spirits - the power Jesus bestowed upon the disciples was the same power He had access to, the power of the Holy Spirit working within Him to perform the miracles He did. Jesus never utilized His own divine powers, but relied, through prayer and petitioning, for the Father's will to be done through Him. Jesus prayed for His disciples and counseled them to pray in His name and cast the demons out in His name so that the miracles may be wrought. See John 14:13, 14, 15:7, 16:24; Lk 10:17, 19, 20

Mt 10:1

Mt 10:1 - to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease - the Health Message is as much a part of the gospel message to go out to the ends of the earth. Just as Jesus healed all manner of infirmities, we too must preach this gospel message of renewed life and vigor in and through Jesus Christ. See Isa 20:5-7

Mt 10:2

Mt 10:2 - twelve apostles - the apostles were they who personally saw Jesus and were sent by Him to proclaim the gospel. Their work is evidenced by the might and character of Christ, with great signs and miracles - See 1Cor 9:1; 2Cor 12:12; Gal 1:1

Mt 10:3

Mt 10:3 - Mt the publican - See Mt 9:9, 10

Mt 10:5

Mt 10:5 - Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: - The gospel message was not to go to the world first, but to the House of Israel because their probation was to close first.

Mt 10:6

Mt 10:6 - the lost sheep of the house of Israel - Jesus, the Good Shepherd, sent his apostles to claim the lost sheep of the House of Israel to His fold. See Mt 9:36-38 The disciples on their first missionary tour were to go only to "the lost sheep of the house of Israel." If they had now preached the gospel to the Gentiles or the Samaritans, they would have lost their influence with the Jews. By exciting the prejudice of the Pharisees they would have involved themselves in controversy which would have discouraged them at the outset of their labors. Even the apostles were slow to understand that the gospel was to be carried to all nations. Until they themselves could grasp this truth they were not prepared to labor for the Gentiles. If the Jews would receive the gospel, God purposed to make them His messengers to the Gentiles. Therefore they were first to hear the message. - {DA 351.1}

Mt 10:7

Mt 10:7 - And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand - we are to take the gospel message of the Kingdom of God (Lk 17:21) to the ends of the earth. See Mt 28:19, 20

Mt 10:8

Mt 10:8 - cast out devils - there were those among the people of God who were afflicted with devils. More so, even one of the 12 who walked with Jesus was a devil. See Joh 6:7

Mt 10:8

Mt 10:8 - freely ye have received, freely give - we each have freely received the gospel and the grace of God so that we have eternal life (1Jo 5:11-13). As we have received of this marvelous light (1Pet 2:9, 10), we must share with others, freely and without cost. See Rom 3:24; 1Cor 2:12; Mt 9:30; 1Pet 4:9, 10; Joh 3:27; 2Cor 11:7; Rev 21:6, 22:17

Mt 10:9

Mt 10:9 - Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses - See Mt 6:33

Mt 10:10

Mt 10:10 - a small bag, a wallet, satchel

Mt 10:10

Mt 10:12 - for the workman is worthy of his meat - The minister of the gospel should be provided for by them to whom he ministers. Yet, the minister's desire should be such that the gospel go far and wide around the world so that he seeks to minister to others than to be ministered unto. In other words, he takes only what is necessary and seeks to bear the burdens of others. See Act 20:33-35

Mt 10:11

Mt 10:11 - enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence - inquiry is to be made of the upright in the towns visited. Those who honor God and give Him glory were to be the hosts of the apostles during their evangelistic mission. On this first tour the disciples were to go only where Jesus had been before them, and had made friends. Their preparation for the journey was to be of the simplest kind. Nothing must be allowed to divert their minds from their great work, or in any way excite opposition and close the door for further labor. They were not to adopt the dress of the religious teachers, nor use any guise in apparel to distinguish them from the humble peasants. They were not to enter into the synagogues and call the people together for public service; their efforts were to be put forth in house-to-house labor. They were not to waste time in needless salutations, or in going from house to house for entertainment. But in every place they were to accept the hospitality of those who were worthy, those who would welcome them heartily as if entertaining Christ Himself. They were to enter the dwelling with the beautiful salutation, "Peace be to this house." Lk 10:5. That home would be blessed by their prayers, their songs of praise, and the opening of the Scriptures in the family circle. - {DA 351.3}

Mt 10:14 - And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet - See Mt 18:6

Mt 10:15

Mt 10:15 - It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city - See Eze 16:45-50

Mt 10:17

Mt 10:17 - for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues; - See Joh 16:1-3 They will deliver you up to councils, ... yea and before governors and kings shall ye be brought for My sake, for a testimony to them and to the Gentiles." Mt 10:17, 18, R. V. Persecution will spread the light. The servants of Christ will be brought before the great men of the world, who, but for this, might never hear the gospel. The truth has been misrepresented to these men. They have listened to false charges concerning the faith of Christ's disciples. Often their only means of learning its real character is the testimony of those who are brought to trial for their faith. Under examination these are required to answer, and their judges to listen to the testimony borne. God's grace will be dispensed to His servants to meet the emergency. "It shall be given you," says Jesus, "in that same hour what ye shall speak. For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you." As the Spirit of God illuminates the minds of His servants, the truth will be presented in its divine power and preciousness. Those who reject the truth will stand to accuse and oppress the disciples. But under loss and suffering, even unto death, the Lord's children are to reveal the meekness of their divine Example. Thus will be seen the contrast between Satan's agents and the representatives of Christ. The Saviour will be lifted up before the rulers and the people. - {DA 354.2}

Mt 10:18

Mt 10:18 - And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles - See Joh 16:2; Lk 12:11; Act 24:1-17

Mt 10:19

Mt 10:19 - take not thought how or what ye shall speak - See Ps 81:10; Lk 12:12 The servants of Christ were to prepare no set speech to present when brought to trial. Their preparation was to be made day by day in treasuring up the precious truths of God's word, and through prayer strengthening their faith. When they were brought into trial, the Holy Spirit would bring to their remembrance the very truths that would be needed. - {DA 355.1}

Mt 10:19

Mt 10:19 - for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak. - See Ps 81:10; Lk 12:12; Isa 51:16; John 14:26 A daily, earnest striving to know God, and Jesus Christ whom He has sent, would bring power and efficiency to the soul. The knowledge obtained by diligent searching of the Scriptures would be flashed into the memory at the right time. But if any had neglected to acquaint themselves with the words of Christ, if they had never tested the power of His grace in trial, they could not expect that the Holy Spirit would bring His words to their remembrance. They were to serve God daily with undivided affection, and then trust Him. - {DA 355.2}

Mt 10:20

Mt 10:20 - For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you - See Lk 12:12, 21:15; 1Cor 2:1-5, 4:17, 6:19; Gal 2:20, 21; Act 4:13; John 15:7 In the training of the disciples the example of the Saviour's life was far more effective than any mere doctrinal instruction. When they were separated from Him, every look and tone and word came back to them. Often when in conflict with the enemies of the gospel, they repeated His words, and as they saw their effect upon the people, they rejoiced greatly. - {DA 349.2} - See 1Cor 4:17

Mt 10:21

Mt 10:21 - And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death - See 2Tim 3:1-5

Mt 10:22

Mt 10:22 - And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: - as like the name "Job", we will be hated and despised of men for being perfect and upright, fearing God and eschewing evil.

Mt 10:22

Mt 10:22 - he that endureth to the end shall be saved - only those who endure to the end can claim to be saved. To make such a boastful statement before, test and trial of one's life (see Heb 11:36-39) is presumptuous. See John 8:31; Jam 1:12; Rev 2:7, 11, 17, 26, 3:5, 12, 21

Mt 10:23

Mt 10:22 - the Son of man be come - Jesus "be come" into His glory within the disciples through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Acts 2

Mt 10:25

Mt 10:25 - It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household? - Jesus counsels His disciples before sending them out of that which He would be accused of. See Isa 51:7, 8; Mt 12:24; Joh 15:18

Mt 10:26

Mt 10:26 - for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known - See 1Cor 4:5; Eze 8:12, 9:9; Ps 101:7

Mt 10:27

Mt 10:27 - What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light - See Ps 25:14; Mt 6:6

Mt 10:28

Mt 10:28 - And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. - See Isa 51:12, 13; Jam 4:12; Gen 20:11; Prov 29:25; Heb 13:6

Mt 10:28

Mt 10:28 - but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell - See Rev 14:7; 2Cor 5:10, 11; Heb 10:31

Mt 10:28

Mt 10:28 - soul and body in hell - the wicked among men and the briars and thorns of Adventism will be consumed, body and soul in hell. See Isa 10:18; 51:12

Mt 10:30

Mt 10:30 - But the very hairs of your head are all numbered - God not only knows how many hairs are on our head, each hair is numbered and He knows when each fall from our head. See Isa 40:26

Mt 10:32

Mt 10:32 - Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men - See Rom 10:9; Jam 2:14-18 All who have truly repented of sin, and by faith claimed the blood of Christ as their atoning sacrifice, have had pardon entered against their names in the books of heaven; as they have become partakers of the righteousness of Christ, and their characters are found to be in harmony with the law of God, their sins will be blotted out, and they themselves will be accounted worthy of eternal life. The Lord declares, by the prophet Isa: "I, even I, am He that blotteth out thy transgressions for Mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins." Isa 43:25. Said Jesus: "He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before My Father, and before His angels." "Whosoever therefore shall confess Me before men, him will I confess also before My Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny Me before men, him will I also deny before My Father which is in heaven." Revelation 3:5; Mt 10:32, 33. - {GC 483.2}

Mt 10:32

Mt 10:32 - him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven - See Rev 3:5; Dan 7:9, 10, 13, 14

Mt 10:33

Mt 10:33 - But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven - See Lk 9:26; 22:57

Mt 10:33

Mt 10:33 - deny me before men - See Jam 1:6-8; Mk 14:30; 2Tim 2:12 The servant is not above his master. The Prince of heaven was called Beelzebub, and His disciples will be misrepresented in like manner. But whatever the danger, Christ's followers must avow their principles. They should scorn concealment. They cannot remain uncommitted until assured of safety in confessing the truth. They are set as watchmen, to warn men of their peril. The truth received from Christ must be imparted to all, freely and openly. Jesus said, "What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops." - {DA 355.4}

Mt 10:34

Mt 10:34 - I came not to send peace, but a sword - the nature of Jesus and His Kingdom is naturally at enmity with the world and its ways. There will be division by nature of the wicked repelling the righteous and vice versa. See Prov 29:27; Gen 3:15; Lk 12:51; Heb 4:12; Hosea 11:6 How, then, can the gospel be called a message of peace? When Isa foretold the birth of the Messiah, he ascribed to Him the title, "Prince of Peace." When angels announced to the shepherds that Christ was born, they sang above the plains of Bethlehem: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men." Lk 2:14. There is a seeming contradiction between these prophetic declarations and the words of Christ: "I came not to send peace, but a sword." Mt 10:34. But, rightly understood, the two are in perfect harmony. The gospel is a message of peace. Christianity is a system which, received and obeyed, would spread peace, harmony, and happiness throughout the earth. The religion of Christ will unite in close brotherhood all who accept its teachings. It was the mission of Jesus to reconcile men to God, and thus to one another. But the world at large are under the control of Satan, Christ's bitterest foe. The gospel presents to them principles of life which are wholly at variance with their habits and desires, and they rise in rebellion against it. They hate the purity which reveals and condemns their sins, and they persecute and destroy those who would urge upon them its just and holy claims. It is in this sense—because the exalted truths it brings occasion hatred and strife—that the gospel is called a sword. - {GC 46.3}

Mt 10:35

Mt 10:35 - For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law. - See Mic 7:6

Mt 10:36

Mt 10:36 - And a man's foes shall be they of his own household - See Mic 7:6; Ps 27:10; Prov 21:9, 19; Lk 21:16

Mt 10:37

Mt 10:37 - He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me - See Mt 19:29

Mt 10:38

Mt 10:38 - And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me - See Mt 16:24

Mt 10:39

Mt 10:39 - He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it - See Mt 16:25

Mt 10:39

Mt 10:39 - he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it - See Mt 6:33, 19:23-29; 1Jo 3:16
Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart. - Ps 37:4

Mt 10:40

Mt 10:40 - He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me - See Lk 10:15 He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth Him that sent me - All over the field of Christ's labor there were souls awakened to their need, and hungering and thirsting for the truth. The time had come to send the tidings of His love to these longing hearts. To all these the disciples were to go as His representatives. The believers would thus be led to look upon them as divinely appointed teachers, and when the Saviour should be taken from them they would not be left without instructors. - {DA 351.2}

Mt 10:41

Mt 10:41 - He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward - the one who receives a prophet recognizes that they are receiving the direct word of God and will receive the blessing of righteousness by faith, unto eternal life in believing and heeding the counsels given. See 2Peter 1:21; Heb 11:7; Isa 51:16; 2Chron 20:20; Jer 45:1-5

Mt 10:42

Mt 10:42 - And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward - See Mt 10:8-14; 1Jo 3:17||Jam 2:15, 16

Mt 11:4

Mt 11:4 - Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew Joh again those things which ye do hear and see: - in the gospel of Lk 7:19-22, Jesus performs several miracles in the same hour that Joh's disciples arrive with the inquiry. Based on what they beheld, Jesus bade them go tell Joh to affirm his faith.

Mt 11:5

Mt 11:5 - The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them - See Isa 61:1, 2; Joh 9:30-33

Mt 11:5

Mt 11:5 - the poor have the gospel preached to them - the poor in spirit are encouraged by the good news of the gospel.

Mt 11:6

Mt 11:6 - And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me - Jesus understands that His disciples will suffer reproach for their conviction in Him. Jesus pronounces a blessing upon all who bear that reproach in patience and in faith. This was the counsel Jesus sent to

Joh by way of Joh's disciples. See Mt 5:11; Isa 28:16 || Rom 9:33; Compare Isa 4:1

Mt 11:8

Mt 11:8 - they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses - the standard attire of the prophet was apparently rough garments which typified their lives of simplicity and the coarseness that they endured of men. See 2Kin 1:8; Zech 13:2-5; Mk 1:6; Mt 3:4 the man of sin, the son of perdition positions himself as a holy and righteous man of God, yet he is adorned with king's attire because he is a king, ruling with his father, the Prince of the Power of the air. See Rev 17:4, 18:7, 11-14; Eph 2:2

Mt 11:10

Mt 11:10 - Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee - See Mal 3:1; Isa 40:3-5; Lk 7:24-27

Mt 11:11

Mt 11:11 - Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than Joh the Baptist - Of all the prophets of the Bible, none have had a more honored role than Joh in personally heralding the arrival of the Anointed One, the Son of God. See Mt 13:17

Mt 11:11

Mt 11:11 - notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he - Though Joh personally heralded the arrival of Jesus and His Kingdom, Joh's work would be short lived as he was soon to be cut-off, facing a martyr's death. Yet we, unlike Joh, have every opportunity to take the gospel of Christ to the world as long as the Lord gives us breath and strength to serve Him. See Joh 14:12; 1Tim 1:15

Mt 11:12

Mt 11:12 - And from the days of Joh the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force - Joh would be the first martyr for the Christian Church (the Kingdom of Heaven), which Jesus established. Jesus was here declaring a new order as the Jewish religion was being passed by (Eph 2:20). Jesus is also forecasting His own as well as the suffering of those who would endure violence for the name of Jesus. With the great truth we have been privileged to receive, we should, and under the Holy Spirit's power we could, become living channels of light. We could then approach the mercy-seat; and seeing the bow of promise, kneel with contrite hearts, and seek the kingdom of heaven with a spiritual violence that would bring its own reward. We would take it by force, as did Jacob. Then our message would be the power of God unto salvation. Our supplications would be full of earnestness, full of a sense of our great need; and we would not be denied. The truth would be expressed by life and character, and by lips touched with the living coal from off God's altar. When this experience is ours, we shall be lifted out of our poor, cheap selves, that we have cherished so tenderly. We shall empty our hearts of the corroding power of selfishness, and shall be filled with praise and gratitude to God. We shall magnify the Lord, the God of all grace, who has magnified Christ. And he will reveal his power through us, making us as sharp sickles in the harvest-field. - {RH February 14, 1899 Par. 13}

Mt 11:13

Mt 11:13 - all the prophetic writings of Scripture [the Old Testament] pointed to the time of Joh and the coming Messiah. Joh was the personal, living fulfillment of those prophecies and herald for Jesus and His ministry.

Mt 11:14

Mt 11:14 - And if ye will receive it, this is Elias, which was for to come - See Mal 4:

Mt 11:15

Mt 11:15 - He that hath ears to hear, let him hear - the signature statement of Jesus calling all to take heed to the message and counsels given. Often those counsels were prophetic and spoke for the present and future. See Mt 13:9, 13:43; Rev 2:7, 2:11, 2:17, 2:29, 3:6, 3:13, 3:22, 13:9

Mt 11:16

Mt 11:16 - But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, - See Lk 14:16-24; Lk 7:31, 32

Mt 11:18

Mt 11:18 - For Joh came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil - Joh was a Nazarene from birth where neither his mother nor he were to drink fermented wine. See Lk 1:13-17

Mt 11:19

Mt 11:19 - a friend of publicans and sinners - the accusation against Jesus of fraternizing with those who they deemed outcasts and untouchables. See Mt 9:9-13; Mk 2:15, 16

Mt 11:19

Mt 11:19 - But wisdom is justified of her children - Wisdom, Who is Jesus [Prov 8; 1Cor 1:24], is justified (vindicated, proved correct, reveals, is demonstrated by) by the righteous. Those who will to do God's will, will have understanding and discernment from the Lord (Joh 7:17; Dan 12:10; Ezra 7:10). The purity of their lives and character will vindicate the righteous claims of Jesus Christ (Mt 18:11): 1. Wisdom speaks truth and not wickedness (Prov 8:7, 8) 2. Wisdom's words are plain to them with understanding [of God] and are correct to them who genuinely seek a knowledge of God (Prov 8:9; Joh 7:17) Christ had spoken a sacred, eternal truth regarding the relation between Himself and His followers. He knew the character of those who claimed to be His disciples, and His words tested their faith. He declared that they were to believe and act upon His teaching. All who received Him would partake of His nature, and be conformed to His character. This involved the relinquishment of their cherished ambitions. It required the complete surrender of themselves to Jesus. They were called to become self-sacrificing, meek and lowly in heart. They must walk in the narrow path traveled by the Man of Calvary, if they would share in the gift of life and the glory of heaven. - {DA 391.2} Mary knew not the full significance of her deed of love. She could not answer her accusers. She could not explain why she had chosen that occasion for anointing Jesus. The Holy Spirit had planned for her, and she had obeyed His promptings. Inspiration stoops to give no reason. An unseen presence, it speaks to mind and soul, and moves the heart to action. It is its own justification. - {DA 560.4}

Mt 11:20

Mt 11:20 - began to upraid those cities... they repented not - The LORD is gracious and merciful and will give liberally to all who ask of Him in faith and humility. The apostle Jam says God "upbraideth not" those who come to Him for wisdom without doubting, waivering or skepticism (Jam 1:5-8). Yet for the unrepentant, doubting, and proud Jesus has words of strong reproof for their hardness of hearts.

Mt 11:21

Mt 11:21 - Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes - Jesus states that the favored cities of Israel that were privileged to hear the gospel of the Kingdom of God will be judged more harshly than heathen nations who, if they had heard the wonderful words of life would have received them and repented with sackcloth and ashes. See Ezekiel 3:4-6; Lk 10:13

Mt 11:21

Mt 11:21 - Bethsaida - Bēthsaidá Noun Location bayth-sahee-dah' of Aramaic origin cf (01004) and (06719) of Chaldee origin (compare and); fishing-house; Bethsaida, a place in Palestine:- Bethsaida. Bethsaida = "house of fish" a small fishing village on the west shore of Lake Gennesaret, home of Andrew, Peter, Philip and Joh

Mt 11:22

Mt 11:22 - But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you - See Joel 3:2-8

Mt 11:23

Mt 11:23 - And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day - See Joh 6:40-42, 59; Lk 4:31-41

Mt 11:24

Mt 11:24 - But I say unto you, that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for thee - See Eze 16:45-50; Mt 10:15; 2Cor 5:10

Mt 11:25

Mt 11:25 - hast hid these things from the wise and prudent - the hidden things of God are not discernible to the carnal hearts and minds because they are not moved by the Spirit of God to understand the secret things of God (1Cor 2:12-15; Prov 8:8, 9; Dan 12:10). The prejudice, pride, hatred and self-sufficiency of the "wise" of this world is that which brings about their own blindness and ultimate destruction (Joh 9:35-41; Isa 42:18-25). The people whom God had called to be the pillar and ground of the truth had become representatives of Satan. They were doing the work that he desired them to do, taking a course to misrepresent the character of God, and cause the world to look upon Him as a tyrant. The very priests who ministered in the temple had lost sight of the significance of the service they performed. They had ceased to look beyond the symbol to the thing signified. In presenting the sacrificial offerings they were as actors in a play. The ordinances which God Himself had appointed were made the means of blinding the mind and hardening the heart. God could do no more for man through these channels. The whole system must be swept away. - {DA 36.2}

Mt 11:26

Mt 11:26 - Even so - meaning "as You see fit", "as Your will purposes", "Your will be done". See Rev 22:20

Mt 11:27

Mt 11:27 - All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son - See Mt 28:18-20; Isa 53:1

Mt 11:27

Mt 11:27 - and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son - "For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God." John 8:19, 10:30; 1Cor 2:11 Unity in the Godhead

Mt 11:27

Mt 11:27 - and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him - See Joh 6:44, 45, 14:6, 8-11

Mt 11:28

Mt 11:28 - Come unto Me - the invitation to "come" is straight from the heart of God! The invitation however, implies SURRENDER. We must be willing to give up our way, and yield to God's way. The Spirit is the One Who draws us to Jesus (John 6:65, 12:32; Rev 22:17), but we must be willing to yield, or surrender our will so that we might receive Life. John 5:39, 40; 1Jo 5:11-13 "Come": Isa 1:18, 19, 55:1-3 Mt 5:40, 11:28-30 Isa 1:18, 19 Heb 11:6 Rev 22:17 The first step in the path of obedience is to surrender the will to God. This may seem a difficult thing to do; for Satan will present every possible objection, and will manufacture difficulties, and magnify perplexities before the mind; but take the first step, and the next step on the ladder of progress will be easier. The ladder of progress must be climbed round by round; but God is above the ladder, and his glory will illuminate every step of advancement. The path of faith and self-denial is an upward path; its way is heavenward, and as you advance, the misleading clouds of doubt and evil will be left behind. - {RH October 9, 1894 Par. 6}

Mt 11:28

Mt 11:28 - that labour - Jesus here contrasts two types of laborers: those who are seeking to work the works of God in their own strength to earn salvation verses those who rest in His promises, labor to deny themselves in order to be found in Him and He in us (2Cor 5:9; Phil 3:9). See Ex 19:8, Joh 6:27-29; Eph 2:9, 10; Mt 19:16; Gal 2:20 The first, already dwelt upon, is that of looking to their own works, trusting to anything they can do, to bring themselves into harmony with God. He who is trying to become holy by his own works in keeping the law, is attempting an impossibility. All that man can do without Christ is polluted with selfishness and sin. It is the grace of Christ alone, through faith, that can make us holy. - {SC 59.4}

Mt 11:28

Mt 11:28 - heavy laden - to be weighed down, struggling to carry something that is too heavy to bear (guilt, shame, feelings of inadequacy). A cure for being heavy laden is to find and take upon oneself the meekness and lowliness of Christ. When we exalt Jesus, think highly of others and less of ourselves we have nothing to prove to others and can enjoy the spirit of humility (Phil 2:1-8). The Universal (Catholic) Church causes men to carry unbearable burdens rather than permitting Jesus to carry guilt and fears.

Mt 11:28

Mt 11:28 - I will give you rest. - Rest was the first work [of righteousness] mankind was made to do once the creation was complete. Mankind has lost its rest (confidence, faith, utter reliance) in God and seeks to establish its own righteousness through works of the flesh. See Gen 2:1-3; Rom 10:1-4; John 14:27 Jesus' work gives rest because it is a work of righteousness. The only work He asks us to do is to SURRENDER our will (Philippians 2:12, 13; Isa 32:17) and to believe (Joh 6:29). The rest Jesus offers is spiritual rest (John 4:24) which comes through the abiding presence of God. We enter God's rest however, as we too cease from our own labors just as God ceased from His labors . See Ex 33:14; Heb 4:9, 10; Gen 2:1-3 Those who take Christ at His word, and surrender their souls to His keeping, their lives to His ordering, will find peace and quietude. Nothing of the world can make them sad when Jesus makes them glad by His presence. In perfect acquiescence there is perfect rest. The Lord says, "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee: because he trusteth in Thee." Isa 26:3.

Mt 11:29

Mt 11:29 - Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me - In accepting Christ's yoke of restraint and obedience, you will find that it is of the greatest help to you. Wearing this yoke keeps you near the side of Christ, and He bears the heaviest part of the load. - {5BC 1090.4} "Learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart." To learn the lessons Christ teaches is the greatest treasure students can find. Rest comes to them in the consciousness that they are trying to please the Lord (Letter 144, 1901). - {5BC 1090.5} How to Wear the Yoke—Take hold of the arm of God, and say, "I am nothing, and Thou art everything. Thou hast said, 'Without me ye can do nothing.' Now, Lord, I must have Thee abiding in me, that I may abide in Thee." Then advance step by step, by living faith abiding in Jesus Christ. This is wearing His yoke, the yoke of obedience (Manuscript 85, 1901). - {5BC 1092.1} Wearing the yoke with Christ, means to work in His lines, to be a copartner with Him in His sufferings and toils for lost humanity. It means to be a wise instructor of souls. We shall be what we are willing to be made by Christ in these precious hours of probation. We shall be the sort of a vessel that we allow ourselves to be molded into. We must unite with God in the molding and fashioning work, having our wills submitted to the divine will (Letter 71, 1895). - {5BC 1092.2} A religion of externals is attractive to the unrenewed heart. The pomp and ceremony of the Catholic worship have a seductive, bewitching power by which many are deceived; and they come to look upon the Roman Church as the very gate of Heaven. None are proof against her influence but those who have planted their feet firmly upon the foundation of truth, and whose hearts are renewed by the Spirit of God. Thousands who have not an experimental knowledge of Christ will be swept into this deception. A form of godliness without the power is just what they desire. The Romanist feels at liberty to sin, because the church claims the right to pardon. To him who loves self-indulgence, it is more pleasing to confess to a fellow-mortal than to open the soul to God. It is more palatable to human nature to do penance than to renounce sin. It is easier to mortify the flesh by sackcloth and nettles and galling chains than to crucify fleshly lusts. Heavy is the yoke which the carnal heart is willing to bear rather than bow to the yoke of Christ. - {4SP 383.3}

Mt 11:29

Mt 11:29 - yoke - the yoke is the same thing as the cross as Jesus describes: "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it." Mt 16:24, 25 - See Joh 4:34, 5:30; Heb 3:7-9 "The yoke and the cross are symbols representing the same thing, the giving up of the will to God." (The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, Ellen G. White Comments, vol. 5, p. 1090)

Mt 11:29

Mt 11:29 - learn of me - we are to learn of Jesus by following His example. See 1Cor 11:1 The closer you come to Jesus, the more faulty you will appear in your own eyes; for your vision will be clearer, and your imperfections will be seen in broad and distinct contrast to His perfect nature. This is evidence that Satan's delusions have lost their power; that the vivifying influence of the Spirit of God is arousing you. - {SC 64.2} To learn of Christ means to receive His grace, which is His character. But those who do not appreciate and utilize the precious opportunities and sacred influences granted them on earth, are not fitted to take part in the pure devotion of heaven. Their characters are not molded according to the divine similitude. By their own neglect they have formed a chasm which nothing can bridge. Between them and the righteous there is a great gulf fixed. - {COL 271.1}

Mt 11:29

Mt 11:29 - meek and lowly in heart - Meekness and humility will characterize all who are obedient to the law of God, all who will wear the yoke of Christ with submission. And these graces will bring the desirable result of peace in the service of Christ (The Signs of the Times, April 16, 1912). - {5BC 1090.7}

Mt 11:29

Mt 11:29 - and ye shall find rest unto your souls - Those who take Christ at His word, and surrender their souls to His keeping, their lives to His ordering, will find peace and quietude. Nothing of the world can make them sad when Jesus makes them glad by His presence. In perfect acquiescence there is perfect rest. The Lord says, "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee: because he trusteth in Thee." Isa 26:3.

Mt 11:30

Mt 11:30 - For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light - Christ's yoke is easy and His burden is light because He does the heavy lifting. The yoke that He desire we bear is to stretch us by ennobling the mind and spirit to fit us for eternity. Therefore, the yoke is designed to bring us into conformity to the mind, character and will of Christ. The yoke will require meekness, self-denial and humility, but one will know that it is the will of God by the peace and rest that comes with the work. When you have a yoke that is galling to the neck, you may know it is not Christ's yoke; for He says His yoke is easy. What God wants of us is to be learning every day of our lives how to build our characters for time and for eternity. He does not want us to get into one channel and never turn out of that; to have fixed ideas, and hold them fast, whether they are right or wrong. He will place us amid trials and difficulties, and when we have learned to overcome obstacles in a right spirit, with high and holy purpose, He will give us another lesson. And if we have not the meekness of Christ to be constantly learning of Jesus in His school, then we must know that we have not the yoke of Christ (The Review and Herald, May 10, 1887). - {5BC 1091.3}

Mt 12:1

Mt 12:1 - pluck ears of corn - The law of God gave the poor a right to a certain portion of the produce of the soil. When hungry, a man was at liberty to go to his neighbor's field or orchard or vineyard, and eat of the grain or fruit to satisfy his hunger. It was in accordance with this permission that the disciples of Jesus plucked and ate of the standing grain as they passed through a field upon the Sabbath day. - {PP 531.1}

Mt 12:2

Mt 12:2 - But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day - the Jews made an idol of the Sabbath rather than worshipping the God of the Sabbath. Compares 2Kin 18:4

Mt 12:4

Mt 12:4 - eat the shewbread - David and his men in their hunger and need approached the High Priest for food and he gave them of the bread that was consecrated to his house, the priests alone (Lev 22:10-13, 24:5-9). See 1Sam 21:1-6

Mt 12:5

Mt 12:5 - on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless? - The priests minister and labor on the Sabbath day unlike any other day and yet are blameless before the Lord.

Mt 12:6

Mt 12:6 - one greater than the temple - Jesus is He Who sanctified the temple. The temple was made holy because of His presence. See Zech 6:12, 13; Hag 2:7, 9; Mt 23:16-21

Mt 12:7

Mt 12:7 - But if ye had known what this meaneth - Jesus reminds the Pharisees that they should have taken His counsel to learn what the Scriptures mean that God will have mercy and not sacrifice. See Mt 9:13

Mt 12:7

Mt 12:7 - I will have mercy, and not sacrifice - God preferred righteous living from His people, namely, mercy towards the poor, widow, stranger and afflicted rather than displays of worship through burnt offerings. Jesus teaches the Pharisees that God is One Who delights in mercy based on His Own merits, and not on the works of (self-righteous) men and vain sacrifices of the impenitent. The publicans would not be sinners as they were had they been mercifully ministered to by the self-righteous Pharisees. The Pharisees lack of mercy towards these wayward men found greater displeasure with God than the sins of the publicans. See Mic 6:6-8; Hos 6:6; 1Sam 15:1-22; Jer 9:23, 24; Mt 9:13

Mt 12:8

Mt 12:8 - For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day - See Isa 58:13, 14

Mt 12:12

Mt 12:12 - Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days - acts of mercy, kindness and compassion that are essential should be done on the Sabbath as they glorify our God Who loves mercy. Jesus came to set captives free. See Isa 42:7

Mt 12:14

Mt 12:14 - Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him - For a good work, they seek to kill Jesus (Joh 10:31-33) because He reproved their shallow piety and false religion.

Mt 12:18

Mt 12:18 - Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles. 19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets. 20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory. 21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust. - See Isa 42:1-6, 60:5

Mt 12:18 - he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles - See Isa 56:1-7

Mt 12:19

Mt 12:19 - He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets - Jesus did not sound a gong to let all know of the good deeds He did. In fact, He understood that the spreading of His fame at times would work against Him and He cautioned the recipients of His blessings not to make known the miracles performed in their lives. See Mt 6:1, 2

Mt 12:20

Mt 12:20 - A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory - Jesus will bring to pass judgment at the time of judgment, when He has conquered all His foes and will make them His footstool. He does not judge before the time. See 1Cor 4:5

Mt 12:21

Mt 12:21 - And in his name shall the Gentiles trust - See Isa 60:5, 56:1-7

Mt 12:23

Mt 12:23 - Is not this the son of David? - For the miracles' sake, many were forced to inquire whether Jesus was indeed the Messiah, the Son of David? Yet, many would be drawn away by the false accusations and rejection of the Pharisees. See Mt 12:24

Mt 12:24

Mt 12:24 - But when the Pharisees heard it - Just as the Holy Spirit is making impressions upon men's minds such that they exalt and delight in the light shown from God, the devil raises up men, typically those in leadership positions (pastors) to oppose the light and cast their doubts upon the works of God. See Joh 7:40-49; 2Pet 3:15-17

Mt 12:24

Mt 12:24 - This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils - Jesus counsels His disciples before sending them out of that which He would be accused of. See Mt 10:24, 25

Mt 12:25

Mt 12:25 - Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation - Through division and civil war a nation will come to ruin. A commentary for the present age in the United States. The ideological polarization and inability to reason together based on truth is an indicator of the impending collapse of this nation.

Mt 12:25

Mt 12:25 - every city or house divided against itself shall not stand - See Am 3:3

Mt 12:26

Mt 12:26 - And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand? - The willing subjects of Satan are faithful, active, and united in one object. And although they hate and war with one another, yet they improve every opportunity to advance their common interest. {1T 345.3}

Mt 12:27

Mt 12:27 - by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges - The professed miracle workers of the time either work by the Spirit of God or the spirit of Satan. Jesus places the Pharisees' accusation against Him on trial by those very ones they claim to be legitimate miracle workers.

Mt 12:28

Mt 12:28 - But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God - the Spirit of God is also referred to as the Finger of God, Who wrote the commandments on tables of stone. See Lk 11:20, Deut 9:10, Ex 31:18, 8:19, Dan 5:5

Mt 12:29

Mt 12:29 - Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house. - Jesus affirms that His miracles are the work of God and in so doing He has bound the devil who has threatened men all their lives with death. See Heb 2:14, 15; Joh 14:30; 1Jo 3:8; Jer 31:11

Mt 12:30

Mt 12:30 - He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad. - Jesus lays down the gauntlet and removes any claims to ambivalence. There is no neutral ground when it comes to Jesus, you are either 100% for Him or 100% against Him. See Lk 19:26; Rev 22:11; Joh 7:43; Mt 10:34; Rom 8:9

Mt 12:31

Mt 12:31 - but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost - to blaspheme the Holy Ghost is to reject through unbelief, His counsels, revelations, and promptings. The Holy Spirit is given to convict us of sin so that we, by repentance, may seek forgiveness and cleansing from Jesus. If we reject the Holy Spirit's promptings to acknowledge our sins and repent, we claim we have not sinned and thus, lie against God and blaspheme the Holy Spirit. See Heb 3:18, 19; Eph 4:30; 1Jo 1:10

Mt 12:31

Mt 12:31 - shall not be forgiven unto men - He, the Spirit of Truth (Joh 14:17, 15:26) is imparted to men to guide and lead us into all truth (Joh 16:13). Our rejection of Him and His promptings is a rejection of the very purposes of God for our lives. We are left in a state of rebellion, warring as enemies against God and His designs. See Heb 3:15-19

Mt 12:32

Mt 12:32 - but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him - The Holy Ghost is the Spirit of Truth (Joh 14:17, 16:13) Who reveals to us sin, points us to Jesus and will testify, for or against us based on our works (choices/decisions). Any who blaspheme the Truth, hates the Truth (Joh 14:6, Mt 12:36, 37) and rather loves a lie. They will be condemned (Joh 3:19). See 2Thess 2:9-12; Rev 22:15 Korah would not have taken the course he did had he known that all the directions and reproofs communicated to Israel were from God. But he might have known this. God had given overwhelming evidence that He was leading Israel. But Korah and his companions rejected light until they became so blinded that the most striking manifestations of His power were not sufficient to convince them; they attributed them all to human or satanic agency. The same thing was done by the people, who the day after the destruction of Korah and his company came to Moses and Aaron, saying, "Ye have killed the people of the Lord." Notwithstanding they had had the most convincing evidence of God's displeasure at their course, in the destruction of the men who had deceived them, they dared to attribute His judgments to Satan, declaring that through the power of the evil one, Moses and Aaron had caused the death of good and holy men. It was this act that sealed their doom. They had committed the sin against the Holy Spirit, a sin by which man's heart is effectually hardened against the influence of divine grace. "Whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man," said Christ, "it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him." Mt 12:32. These words were spoken by our Saviour when the gracious works which He had performed through the power of God were attributed by the Jews to Beelzebub. It is through the agency of the Holy Spirit that God communicates with man; and those who deliberately reject this agency as satanic, have cut off the channel of communication between the soul and Heaven. - {PP 404.4} God works by the manifestation of His Spirit to reprove and convict the sinner; and if the Spirit's work is finally rejected, there is no more that God can do for the soul. The last resource of divine mercy has been employed. The transgressor has cut himself off from God, and sin has no remedy to cure itself. There is no reserved power by which God can work to convict and convert the sinner. "Let him alone" (Hos 4:17) is the divine command. Then "there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries." Heb 10:26, 27. - {PP 405.1}

Mt 12:32

Mt 12:32 - neither in this world, neither in the world to come - the antediluvians are said to have grieved the Spirit of God. Their rejection of the light for their time not only brought about their condemnation and death but banishment for eternity. See Gen 6:3, 6

Mt 12:33

Mt 12:33 - for the tree is known by his fruit - It is possible to find a few palatable fruit on a bad tree, yet in totality, it's production is corrupt and not fit for use. In such cases it would be good to uproot and plant another tree in its stead. Such is the case with men who bear leaves of profession without true fruit of righteousness. See Mt 12:35, 21:19

Mt 12:34

Mt 12:34 - O generation of vipers - Jesus concurs with the charge of Joh the Baptist against the Jewish leadership and those who followed in their footsteps, that they were sons of the devil. See Lk 3:7; Joh 8:44; Gen 3:15

Mt 12:34

Mt 12:34 - how can ye, being evil, speak good things? - See Jer 13:23; Jam 3:12

Mt 12:34

Mt 12:34 - for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh - See Prov 4:23, 18:21; 1Cor 2:11; Mt 15:11, 18-20; Joh 7:38

Mt 12:35

Mt 12:35 - A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things - See Mt 12:33; Jam 3:12

Mt 12:36

Mt 12:36 - That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. - See Eccl 5:2, 12:4, 11:9; Rom 14:12; 1Pet 3:10; Jam 2:12; Ps 50:23

Mt 12:38

Mt 12:38 - Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee. - Despite all the works, teachings and miracles Jesus had shown up to this point in His ministry, the faithless and scornful scribes and Pharisees, like their father the devil, besought Jesus to work a miracle to prove His divinity. See Mt 4:3, 27:39-43; Lk 23:35-37, 16:27-31

Mt 12:39

Mt 12:39 - An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign - the generation of Jesus' day were known for their cruel and grinding oppression of the poor, failure to comfort the downtrodden and disregard for foreigners. Though by the conclusion of the Babylonian captivity, idolatry had been almost wholly rooted out, yet, the people erected gods of their rituals, ceremonies and selves in their hearts such that supreme love for God, the first great commandment, and love for one's neighbor, the second like it, was impossible. The heartless wickedness of the Jewish leadership is likened to the adulterous woman. See Prov 30:20; Mt 16:4

Mt 12:40

Mt 12:40 - For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly - See Jon 1:17-2:10; Mt 17:23

Mt 12:40

Mt 12:40 - so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. - Lk 22:52, 53 "Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves? When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness." It is at this hour when Jesus was placed in the "heart of the earth" or the "lower parts of the earth". He Who was from above, was now fully bound and given over to the forces of evil from below, even the devil and his imps (Joh 8:23)

Mt 12:41

Mt 12:41 - The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here - See Rom 2:27

Mt 12:41

Mt 12:41 - because they repented at the preaching of Jonas - See Jon 3:4-10

Mt 12:41

Mt 12:41 - and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here - Jesus is greater than a prophet of God.

Mt 12:42

Mt 12:42 - The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here - See 2Chron 9:5-9; 1Kin 10:6-9

Mt 12:42

Mt 12:42 - for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon - See 1Kin 10:1-10

Mt 12:42

Mt 12:42 - and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here - Jesus is greater than the wisest king of Israel.

Mt 12:43

Mt 12:43-45 - unclean spirit gone out of a man - we will either be filled with the Holy Spirit of God or an unclean spirit. Something will inhabit the space. We are born in sin and shapen in iniquity and by our sinful acts, the devils take up residence in our lives. Only after faith has been awoken through the Word of God and the Holy Spirit has entered in to clean the house, can the unclean spirits be cast out of a man (Mt 12:29). By right, those who have accepted Jesus through baptism belong to Him (Act 2:37, 38), Who made us new creatures in Himself. Yet, lest we yield to Him and He come in and sup with us through His Spirit, we have no part with Him. See Heb 3:6; Rev 3:20; 1Cor 3:16. Baptism is the legal act (sin is transgression of the law) which causes the angels, demons, Satan and the universe to recognize us as property of God and the home of the Holy Spirit (1Cor 3:16; 6:19). It is at baptism that our names are written in the Book of Life (Ex 32:31-33)

Mt 12:44

Mt 12:44 - he findeth it empty - Unless we fill the vacancy left when the strong man was bound and cast-out with God's presence through daily devotion, prayer, meditation, works of righteousness the vacuum will soon be re-inhabited by sins and bondage greater than the first state. If there is any way by which Satan can gain access to the mind, he will sow his tares and cause them to grow until they will yield an abundant harvest. In no case can Satan obtain dominion over the thoughts, words, and actions, unless we voluntarily open the door and invite him to enter. He will then come in and, by catching away the good seed sown in the heart, make of none effect the truth. [7] - {AH 402.2}

Mt 12:45

Mt 12:45 - the last state of that man is worse than the first - See Heb 6:4-6

Mt 12:48

Mt 12:48 - Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? - Jesus was denying any earthly familial ties that would suggest primacy of any sort. He affirms that all who do the will of His Father are His brothers, sisters, and mothers.

Mt 12:50

Mt 12:50 - Again, Jesus acknowledges no earthly father, only His Father Who is in heaven.

Mt 13:3

Mt 13:3 - Behold, a sower went forth to sow - That with which the parable of the sower chiefly deals is the effect produced on the growth of the seed by the soil into which it is cast.... - {CSA 20.3}

Mt 13:4

Mt 13:3 - And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up: - See Mt 13:19

Mt 13:5

Mt 13:5 - Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: - See Mt 13:20, 21

Mt 13:6

Mt 13:6 - because they had no root - those who are not built on the sure foundation of Jesus Christ (Isa 28:16; Mt 7:24; Jer 17:7, 8) are they who have roots/oil.

Mt 13:7

Mt 13:8 - some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them: - the cares of the world and riches were a snare that led those away from the light. Perhaps also, the seed found itself in the midst of briars and thorns who by whose negative influence, choked out the spiritual life of the plant. See Mt 13:22; Isa 27:4, 5

Mt 13:8

Mt 13:8 - But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold - See Mt 13:23

Mt 13:11

Mt 13:11 - mysteries of the kingdom of heaven - Jesus came to reveal the truths and knowledge of the kingdom of God, kept secret (obscured by man's "enmity" - selfishness/sinfulness) from the foundation of the world. See 1Cor 2:7-10

Mt 13:14

Mt 13:14 - And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive: - See Isa 6:9, 10 The Pharisees perceived the meaning of Christ's parable, but to them its lesson was unwelcome. They affected not to understand it. To the multitude it involved in still greater mystery the purpose of the new teacher, whose words had so strangely moved their hearts and so bitterly disappointed their ambitions. The disciples themselves had not understood the parable, but their interest was awakened. They came to Jesus privately and asked for an explanation. [37] - {CSA 19.7}

Mt 13:15

Mt 13:15 - For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them - See Isa 6:9, 10, 60:2

Mt 13:16

Mt 13:16 - But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear - See Rev 1:3

Mt 13:17

Mt 13:17 - For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. See Mt 11:11; Joh 8:56; Job 19:25; Num 24:16, 17; Lk 10:24; 1Pet 1:10-12; Act 3:24

Mt 13:18

Mt 13:18 - Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower - Throughout the parable of the sower, Christ represents the different results of the sowing as depending upon the soil. In every case the sower and the seed are the same. Thus He teaches that if the word of God fails of accomplishing its work in our hearts and lives, the reason is to be found in ourselves. But the result is not beyond our control. True, we cannot change ourselves; but the power of choice is ours, and it rests with us to determine what we will become. The wayside, the stony-ground, the thorny-ground hearers need not remain such. The Spirit of God is ever seeking to break the spell of infatuation that holds men absorbed in worldly things, and to awaken a desire for the imperishable treasure. It is by resisting the Spirit that men become inattentive to or neglectful of God's word. They are themselves responsible for the hardness of heart that prevents the good seed from taking root, and for the evil growths that check its development. - {CSA 23.4}

Mt 13:19

Mt 13:19 - When any one heareth the word of the kingdom - "The sower soweth the word." Christ came to sow the world with truth. Ever since the fall of man, Satan has been sowing the seeds of error. It was by a lie that he first gained control over men, and thus he still works to overthrow God's kingdom in the earth and to bring men under his power. A sower from a higher world, Christ came to sow the seeds of truth. He who had stood in the councils of God, who had dwelt in the innermost sanctuary of the Eternal, could bring to men the pure principles of truth. Ever since the fall of man, Christ had been the Revealer of truth to the world. By Him the incorruptible seed, "the word of God, which liveth and abideth forever," is communicated to men. 1Pet 1:23. In that first promise spoken to our fallen race in Eden, Christ was sowing the gospel seed. But it is to His personal ministry among men and to the work which He thus established that the parable of the sower especially applies. - {CSA 19.8} The seed sown by the wayside represents the word of God as it falls upon the heart of an inattentive hearer. Like the hard-beaten path, trodden down by the feet of men and beasts, is the heart that becomes a highway for the world's traffic, its pleasures and sins. Absorbed in selfish aims and sinful indulgences, the soul is "hardened through the deceitfulness of sin." Heb 3:13. The spiritual faculties are paralyzed. Men hear the word, but understand it not. They do not discern that it applies to themselves. They do not realize their need or their danger. They do not perceive the love of Christ, and they pass by the message of His grace as something that does not concern them. - {CSA 20.5}

Mt 13:21

Mt 13:21 - Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended- Many receive the gospel as a way of escape from suffering, rather than as a deliverance from sin. They rejoice for a season, for they think that religion will free them from difficulty and trial. While life moves smoothly with them, they may appear to be consistent Christians. But they faint beneath the fiery test of temptation. They cannot bear reproach for Christ's sake. When the word of God points out some cherished sin, or requires self-denial or sacrifice, they are offended. It would cost them too much effort to make a radical change in their life. They look at the present inconvenience and trial, and forget the eternal realities. [41] - {CSA 20.10}

Mt 13:22

Mt 13:22 - the deceitfulness of riches - money and the love of it are false gods that give people the illusion of having power - See 1Tim 6:9, 10; Heb 3:13; Mk 4:19

Mt 13:23

Mt 13:23 - But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty - See Jer 17:7, 8 When secret prayer and reading of the Scriptures are neglected today, tomorrow they can be omitted with less remonstrance of conscience. There will be a long list of omissions, all for a single grain sown in the soil of the heart. On the other hand, every ray of light cherished will yield a harvest of light. Temptation once resisted will give power to more firmly resist the second time; every new victory gained over self will smooth the way for higher and nobler triumphs. Every victory is a seed sown to eternal life. - {5T 120.3}

Mt 13:24

Mt 13:24 - The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: - the kingdom of heaven here described reflects the condition of the church, comprised of both wheat and tares who will grow together until the day of reaping. This is the church militant (Ps 55), that faces threats and challenges from without and from within. When the Latter Rain is poured out upon God's people, a separation will occur where the wheat will receive the rains and will bring forth their fruit in season (Ps 1:2, 3; Jer 17:5-8) while the tares will wither and dry-up by the heat of the sun-day law (Am 4:7; Lk 8:4-15). The separation will bring forth the Church Triumphant (Isa 52).

Mt 13:27

Mt 13:27 - from whence then hath it tares? - Amalgamation Brought Noxious Plants—Not one noxious plant was placed in the Lord's great garden, but after Adam and Eve sinned, poisonous herbs sprang up. In the parable of the sower the question was asked the Master, "Didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? how then hath it tares?" The Master answered, "An enemy hath done this." All tares are sown by the evil one. Every noxious herb is of his sowing, and by his ingenious methods of amalgamation he has corrupted the earth with tares (Manuscript 65, 1899) [published in F. D. Nichol, Ellen G. White and Her Critics]. - {1BC 1086.2}

Mt 13:28

Mt 13:28 - An enemy hath done this - the tares appear among the good crop to sow discord. See Act 20:28-30; 15:1, 5 Christ never planted the seeds of death in the system. Satan planted these seeds when he tempted Adam to eat of the tree of knowledge which meant disobedience to God. Not one noxious plant was placed in the Lord's great garden, but after Adam and Eve sinned, poisonous herbs sprang up. In the parable of the sower the question was asked the master, "Didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?" The master answered, "An enemy hath done this" (Mt 13:27, 28). All tares are sown by the evil one. Every noxious herb is of his sowing, and by his ingenious methods of amalgamation he has corrupted the earth with tares. - {2SM 288.2}

Mt 13:29

Mt 13:29 - lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them - damage can be done in trying to weed-out those who are contrary to the faith. The best and only solution is to let the two grow and allow the tares to reveal themselves in time.

Mt 13:30

Mt 13:30 - Let both grow together until the harvest: - There have ever been two classes among those who profess to be followers of Christ. While one class study the Saviour's life and earnestly seek to correct their defects and conform to the Pattern, the other class shun the plain, practical truths which expose their errors. Even in her best estate the church was not composed wholly of the true, pure, and sincere. Our Saviour taught that those who willfully indulge in sin are not to be received into the church; yet He connected with Himself men who were faulty in character, and granted them the benefits of His teachings and example, that they might have an opportunity to see their errors and correct them. Among the twelve apostles was a traitor. Judas was accepted, not because of his defects of character, but notwithstanding them. He was connected with the disciples, that, through the instruction and example of Christ, he might learn what constitutes Christian character, and thus be led to see his errors, to repent, and, by the aid of divine grace, to purify his soul "in obeying the truth." But Judas did not walk in the light so graciously permitted to shine upon him. By indulgence in sin he invited the temptations of Satan. His evil traits of character became predominant. He yielded his mind to the control of the powers of darkness, he became angry when his faults were reprov'd, and thus he was led to commit the fearful crime of betraying his Master. So do all who cherish evil under a profession of godliness hate those who disturb their peace by condemning their course of sin. When a favorable opportunity is presented, they will, like Judas, betray those who for their good have sought to reprove them. - {GC 43.2}

Mt 13:30

Mt 13:30 - Gather ye together first the tares - See Rev 14:14-20

Mt 13:30

Mt 13:30 - bind them in bundles to burn them - See Isa 27:11; Reve 20:12-15; Mt 3:12, 22:13; Lk 3:17

Mt 13:32

Mt 13:32 - Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof - That which starts as small and insignificant can become a thing of substance and abundance under the care of the Lord. See Zech 4:10; 1Cor 15:37

Mt 13:33

Mt 13:33 - The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened - the leaven of God's Holy Spirit will purge the soul of impurities and fill it with His presence. The same applies on a corporate level. There is a duality in certain words as used in Scripture that must be considered. It is always necessary to read Scripture in context to understand the use and meaning of words. For example: The two goats chosen on the Day of Atonement represents Jesus and Satan. The Lord's goat is slain for the sins of the people and is burned outside the camp. Whereas, the scapegoat has all the sins of the people placed upon its head and it is taken to a far place, away from the people of God to be destroyed. Leaven here is used as a symbol of the power of God's Holy Spirit upon the heart to cause one and the church to grow and mature in Christ. In contrast leaven is also used to denote false doctrine as in the leaven of the Pharisees (Mt 16:6, 11, 12) Serpent is used to denote the enemy of souls, Satan or the devil (Gen 3:1-15; Rev 12:7-9). However, Moses was instructed to make a brazen serpent (Num 21:9) that would provide healing for all who looked towards it in faith. The brazen serpent was used to symbolize Jesus Christ, who took on our sin in order to save our lives. Lion is used to denote the devil, our adversary, who stalks around seeking whom he may destroy (1Pet 5:8). However, Jesus is the Lion (King) of the tribe of Judah, the KING of Kings. Revelation 5:5-14 Lucifer was the name given to Satan when created because he bore the light of God upon himself. Jesus however, is also the Day Star and Bright and Morning Star which translates to Lucifer. Both Satan and Jesus claim to be the light of the world and both claim that all should follow them. Jesus however, laid down His life as a Good Shepherd of the sheep and Satan did not! The enmity that originates with Satan is against God and can not be reconciled to God. This was seen when God pled with Lucifer to repent but he refused to repent, but continued in his murderous schemes (Rom 2:4-6; see also Gen 4:2-6). The enmity of Satan is born of self and selfishness and seeks its own as opposed to yielding to God and His will for us. Paul calls this the carnal mind which is at enmity with God but friends with the world. Pilate and Herod, two worldly enemies were joined in friendship and in unity against Jesus when persecuting Him, showing that the forces of evil are all in confederacy against God. See Jam 4:4; Rom 8:5-7; Lk 23:12 God Himself stood as a Pillar of Light, to light the path of the COI while crossing the Red Sea, while serving as thick darkness to the Egyptians behind them. See Ex 14:19, 20

Mt 13:41

Mt 13:41 - gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity - sin shall not rise again because all things that offend will be gathered out. See Nah 1:9

Mt 13:43

Mt 13:43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father - See Dan 12:3; Rev 18:1

Mt 13:44

Mt 13:44 - treasure hid in a field - the Everlasting Gospel (Rev 14:6, 7) is the treasure hid in a field, the Word of God. There is a distinction in having God's Word and having the gospel. See Prov 2:4; Ps 119:162

Mt 13:44

Mt 13:44 - selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field - See Phil 3:8

Mt 13:46 - went and sold all that he had, and bought it - See Phil 3:8

Mt 13:47

Mt 13:47 - cast into the sea - the message that is to go into all the world as a witness is the gospel.

Mt 13:48

Mt 13:48 - sat down - those who sit down to gather and separate the good from the bad are they who are part of the heavenly court scene in Dan's vision (Dan 7:9, 10, 13, 14)

Mt 13:49

Mt 13:49 - angels shall come forth, sever - the angels in the last day which sever the wicked from the just are the 3 Angel's Messages. God's church militant will be purified through the message of the 3 Angel's which will serve as a cleaver to separate the wheat from the tare.

Mt 13:49

Mt 13:49 - the wicked from among the just - The Three Angel's Messages will separate the wicked (foolish virgins) from the just (the wise virgins). See Dan 12:10; Mt 25:1-10; Joe 3:17, 18

Mt 13:52

Mt 13:52 - which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven - One who has studied to show themselves approved unto God the Scriptures so that they may be wise unto salvation (2Tim 3:15), and has purged himself of all defilement that he might be a laborer for the Lord. See 2Tim 2:15, 21; Rom 1:16, 17

Mt 13:52

Mt 13:52 - kingdom of heaven - Kingdom of Grace and Kingdom of Glory both of which possess a throne where a King must sit. See GC 346.4; Mt 25:31, 32; Heb 4:16 Kingdom of Grace offers pardon, forgiveness and power to be victorious over sin. See Tit 2:11-14

Mt 13:52

Mt 13:52 - his treasure - both the word of God and one's spiritual experience (Mt 12:35). People are needing to hear our personal testimonies of victory in Christ. Rev 12:11

Mt 13:52

Mt 13:52 - new and old - See 2Cor 5:17 Christ as manifested to the patriarchs, as symbolized in the sacrificial service, as portrayed in the law, and as revealed by the prophets, is the riches of the Old Testament. Christ in His life, His death, and His resurrection, Christ as He is manifested by the Holy Spirit, is the treasure of the New Testament. Our Saviour, the outshining of the Father's glory, is both the Old and the New.... The Old Testament sheds light upon the New, and the New upon the Old. Each is a revelation of the glory of God in Christ. Both present truths that will continually reveal new depths of meaning to the earnest seeker. - {FLB 12.5}

Mt 13:55

Mt 13:55 - Is not this the carpenter's son - the people of Nazareth rejected truth because did not love the truth. The living embodiment of truth stood before them and proclaim the Kingdom of heaven to them, yet they hardened their hearts in prejudice, reasoning beyond the shown evidence, that this could not be the anticipated Messiah. They were ignorant of the Scriptures. See Joh 7:28; Deut 18:18

Mt 13:57

Mt 13:57 - And they were offended in Him - Those who had heard Jesus' message in His own country (Nazareth) were offended/scornful/ashamed/disappointed by it and therefore scorned and rejected Him. Rather than judging Jesus by His words and His works which were written of by Moses (Joh 5:46-48), they allowed doubt from the enemy to intervene, questioning all that evidence declared Him to be, "is not this the carpenter's son..." Jesus says, "blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me." Lk 7:23, 4:28

Mt 13:57

Mt 13:57 - A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house - the very prophecy concerning Jesus as the Prophet to the people, the same people were ignorant of. God said He would raise up a Prophet from among the brethren, and yet they were not prepared to receive Him. See Deut 18:18, 19; Lk 4:44, 24-27; Joh 7:5; Jer 11:21, 1:1

Mt 13:58

Mt 13:58 - And He did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief - that which stays the hand of the LORD is our unbelief. He can not work in the midst of doubt and questioning of His motives, His desires, His will or His ability to save. See Heb 11:6; Joh 12:37-40

Mt 14:1

Mt 14:1 - A Roman ruler over a 1/4 of a province.

Mt 14:5

Mt 14:5 - And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet - Herod's weak character is here demonstrated where he could be swayed by popular opinion.

Mt 14:6

Mt 14:6 - the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod - without doubt, the young woman's dancing was designed to allure and entice.

Mt 14:9

Mt 14:9 - And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her - a flagrant abuse of power is seen in the martyred death of Joh. Herod, in his drunkenness issued a vain oath that he felt compelled to uphold because of pride.

Mt 14:11

Mt 14:11 - the ruthless spirit of Herodious and Jezebel both typify the ruthless passion of the apostate church system that would rule the world for 1,260years. See Rev 2:20-23;

Mt 14:13

Mt 14:13 - When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: - Jesus undoubtedly was moved by the martyred death of His herald and forerunner. Jesus foresaw the martyrdom of countless millions for His sake and His own brutal death as the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world.

Mt 14:16

Mt 14:16 - They need not depart; give ye them to eat. - Jesus was testing the faith of His disciples whom He had sent out and had seen the power of God manifested in the healing of the sick, the preaching of the gospel and the casting out of evil spirits (Mt 10:1). Jesus' suggestion was not unreasonable, yet He knew His disciples still lacked faith in Him and His power to do what seemed impossible.

Mt 14:19

Mt 14:19 - looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude - Jesus seemingly performed a communion service with His disciples and the multitude.

Mt 14:19

Mt 14:19 - he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude - In Christ's act of supplying the temporal necessities of a hungry multitude is wrapped up a deep spiritual lesson for all His workers. Christ received from the Father; He imparted to the disciples; they imparted to the multitude; and the people to one another. So all who are united to Christ will receive from Him the bread of life, the heavenly food, and impart it to others. - {DA 369.3}

Mt 14:20

Mt 14:20 - And they did all eat, and were filled - God satisfies the hunger of every man. All who partake of His blessings never leave hungering but filled. This is a gospel message that applies to the Spirit as well. See Joh 4:10-14, 7:37, 38

Mt 14:20

Mt 14:20 - and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full - Nothing goes to waste in God's Kingdom. The extra food was distributed and given to those who had family at home needing food so that they too might receive a blessing. So too, we must take the gospel message home and to others after we have been fed. After the multitude had been fed, there was an abundance of food left. But He who had all the resources of infinite power at His command said, "Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost." These words meant more than putting the bread into the baskets. The lesson was twofold. Nothing is to be wasted. We are to let slip no temporal advantage. We should neglect nothing that will tend to benefit a human being. Let everything be gathered up that will relieve the necessity of earth's hungry ones. And there should be the same carefulness in spiritual things. When the baskets of fragments were collected, the people thought of their friends at home. They wanted them to share in the bread that Christ had blessed. The contents of the baskets were distributed among the eager throng, and were carried away into all the region round about. So those who were at the feast were to give to others the bread that comes down from heaven, to satisfy the hunger of the soul. They were to repeat what they had learned of the wonderful things of God. Nothing was to be lost. Not one word that concerned their eternal salvation was to fall useless to the ground. - {DA 368.1}

Mt 14:21

Mt 14:21 - And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children - The SoP states that the Passover was drawing near and bands of Jewish travelers sought to hear Jesus speak [See DA 364.1]. Supposing there was one woman for every man and perhaps two children with each woman, Jesus fed approximately 20,000 with five loaves and two fishes. Praise the Lord!! See Joh 6:10

Mt 14:22

Mt 14:22 - And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away - Jesus realized the zeal of the people and His disciples who had witnessed His miracles of healing, provision and love. They sought to make Him King of Israel by force which would thwart the true efforts of the Kingdom of Heaven. Jesus therefore dispatched His disciples to the other side of the lake, He disbanded the crowd and He went to a solitary place to pray for strength.

Mt 14:23

Mt 14:23 - And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone - When left alone, Jesus "went up into a mountain apart to pray." For hours He continued pleading with God. Not for Himself but for men were those prayers. He prayed for power to reveal to men the divine character of His mission, that Satan might not blind their understanding and pervert their judgment. The Saviour knew that His days of personal ministry on earth were nearly ended, and that few would receive Him as their Redeemer. In travail and conflict of soul He prayed for His disciples. They were to be grievously tried. Their long-cherished hopes, based on a popular delusion, were to be disappointed in a most painful and humiliating manner. In the place of His exaltation to the throne of David they were to witness His crucifixion. This was to be indeed His true coronation. But they did not discern this, and in consequence strong temptations would come to them, which it would be difficult for them to recognize as temptations. Without the Holy Spirit to enlighten the mind and enlarge the comprehension the faith of the disciples would fail. It was painful to Jesus that their conceptions of His kingdom were, to so great a degree, limited to worldly aggrandizement and honor. For them the burden was heavy upon His heart, and He poured out His supplications with bitter agony and tears. {DA 379.1}

Mt 14:25 - And in the fourth watch of the night - From 3AM-6AM

Mt 14:25

Mt 14:25 - Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea - See Ps 77:19, 104:3; Mk 6:49

Mt 14:29

Mt 14:29 - And he said, Come - Jesus, as an Awesome Teacher and Father, bids His inquiring children to come and experience the wondrous miracles He performs.

Mt 14:30

Mt 14:30 - But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid - Peter also walked on the water while he kept his focus on Jesus (Joh 14:12). However, Peter took his eyes off of Jesus and therefore perceived the winds and waves to be overwhelming, thus he began to doubt.

Mt 14:30

Mt 14:30 - Lord, save me. - Praise God that He hears the prayers of His children when they cry out to Him. The most earnest, solemn prayer that can be uttered registers with the Lord!

Mt 14:31

Mt 14:31 - And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him - See Ps 55:22

Mt 14:33

Mt 14:33 - Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God - Jesus' disciples acknowledge that indeed, He is the Messiah. See Joh 1:49

Mt 14:35

Mt 14:35 - And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased; - Imagine the excitement to think of all whom you know that are ailing from sickness and disease and to bring them to Jesus for healing. What a glorious day. Compare the caring concern of these heathen men to the cold indifference of the Jews under similar circumstances (Mt 20:30, 31; Lk 10:30-37). As the men of Genneserat sought to bless those who were sick and in need, so too we must perceive every soul that is estranged from God and outside the ark of safety, we must go get them and bring them to the Man who can bring healing. [Joh 1:49] - If Nathanael had trusted to the rabbis for guidance, he would never have found Jesus. It was by seeing and judging for himself that he became a disciple. So in the case of many today whom prejudice withholds from good. How different would be the result if they would "come and see"! - {DA 140.5}

Mt 14:36 - And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment - See Ps 133:2; Mt 9:21; Mk 5:28, 29; Lk 8:43, 44

Mt 15:1

Mt 15:1 - Then came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem - either the scribes and Pharisees had a distant appointment in Genessarat, approximately 76miles (123km) from Jerusalem, or these men made it a point to track Jesus and seek to pervert and thwart His work.

Mt 15:5

Mt 15:5 - It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me - the practice of deeding one's possessions to the church absolved the one of providing financial support to their elderly and needy parents. This selfish act robbed parents of the loving blessings of support from their children and enabled the selfish children to enjoy whatever means they possessed as long as they lived with the intent of giving it to the church at their death.

Mt 15:7

Mt 15:7 - Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you - See Job 13:16 Ye hypocrites," He said, addressing the wily spies, "well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto Me with their mouth, and honoreth Me with their lips; but their heart is far from Me. But in vain they do worship Me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." The words of Christ were an arraignment of the whole system of Pharisaism. He declared that by placing their requirements above the divine precepts the rabbis were setting themselves above God [Spirit of Antichrist]. - {DA 397.2}

Mt 15:8

Mt 15:8 - This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me - See Isa 29:13, 1:11-17, 58:1-5

Mt 15:9

Mt 15:9 - teaching for doctrines the commandments of men - The Prophet Isa states "their fear towards me is taught by the precept of men" (Isa 29:13). We are led to understand how to worship and honor God based on men's teachings, doctrines, superstitions, traditions, fables, and pagan beliefs rather than the pure word of God. See Mt 9:14; 15:1-9, 22-28; 17:10-13; 19:23-26; 23:1-39; 24:1, 2; Joh 4:19-24, 7:25-29; 9:1, 2; Act 1:6

Mt 15:11

Mt 15:11 - but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man - See Mt 12:34,15:18-20

Mt 15:12

Mt 15:12 - Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying? - The disciples of Christ struggled with wanting to conform with the new order and not wanting to vex the established leadership; however, Jesus came to set things in their proper order and if necessary, to replace the old guard with a new. This tension caused much problems with the disciples until the day of Pentecost. See Mt 10:25-28

Mt 15:13

Mt 15:13 - Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up - See Mt 13:38-42 Christ never planted the seeds of death in the system. Satan planted these seeds when he tempted Adam to eat of the tree of knowledge which meant disobedience to God. Not one noxious plant was placed in the Lord's great garden, but after Adam and Eve sinned, poisonous herbs sprang up. In the parable of the sower the question was asked the master, "Didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?" The master answered, "An enemy hath done this" (Mt 13:27, 28). All tares are sown by the evil one. Every noxious herb is of his sowing, and by his ingenious methods of amalgamation he has corrupted the earth with tares. - {2SM 288.2}

Mt 15:14

Mt 15:14 - Let them alone - See Hos 4:17

Mt 15:14

Mt 15:14 - they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch - See Isa 29:9-15, 9:14-16; Lk 11:44; Joh 16:3; Rom 3:13 A truth can be fully seen only in the light of other truths. It is known by its resemblances. A fact which is only partly known never reveals its thousand beautiful analogies to other facts. It stands alone, beclouded and barren—half fact and half phantom. The eye catches no fine resemblances, and the understanding finds no fruitful relations, linking it to the great body of truth. The imagination looks in vain for the light of some rich and beautiful simile to transfigure the truth seen only in dim outline, or known only in shapeless and imperfect fragments. Only amid facts vividly seen, and among truths clearly and splendidly conceived, are to be discovered the images of grander facts and the shadowy forms of wider truths. The power of illustration—that chief and central power in the teacher's art—comes only out of clear and familiar knowledge. The unknowing teacher is the blind trying to lead the blind with only an empty lamp to light the way. {The Seven Laws of Teaching: The Law of the Teacher - Pg 36, 37}

Mt 15:17

Mt 15:17 - draught - that which is drawn out (waste).

Mt 15:18

Mt 15:18 - But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man - See Mt 15:11, 12:34

Mt 15:19

Mt 15:19 - For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies: - See Jer 17:9; Joh 18:28||Mt 27:6-9

Mt 15:20

Mt 15:20 - These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man - See Joh 18:28; Mt 27:6; Act 4:1-21

Mt 15:21

Mt 15:21 - Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon - Jesus was drawn by the Holy Spirit to the land of Tyre and Sidon, (61km/38miles) northwest of Gennesarat, for the sake of a needy but faithful and worthy Canaanite woman.

Mt 15:22

Mt 15:22 - Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou Son of David - not only had the woman heard of Jesus, but she believed Him to be Who He proved to Be, Messiah, the son of David. See Jer 23:5, 6; Mt 8:10-12, 22:41, 42

Mt 15:23

Mt 15:23 - Send her away; for she crieth after us - Just as in Jesus' command to feed the 5000, the disciples default to the past of least resistance, to skirt the situation all together. Their prejudice for the Canaanite woman had much to do with their indifference towards her dire situation.

Mt 15:24

Mt 15:24 - I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel - When He said, "I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel," He stated the truth, and in His work for the Canaanite woman He was fulfilling His commission. This woman was one of the lost sheep that Israel should have rescued. It was their appointed work, the work which they had neglected, that Christ was doing. - {DA 402.3}

Mt 15:25

Mt 15:25 - Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me - See Mt 8:1, 2

Mt 15:26

Mt 15:26 - It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs - Jesus played into His disciples prejudice of which He was well aware, by suggesting His blessing her with her request would be as taking the children's food from them in order to feed the dogs. This supposed insult veiled Jesus' true intent which was to bless her with that which she sought.

Mt 15:27

Mt 15:27 - yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table - The great, persevering faith, and humility of the woman was such that she would bear the insult of being compared to a dog, so long as she could receive the blessing of healing for her daughter. Her perseverance prevailed! She became the Israel of God! See Gen 32:28; Mk 7:28; Lk 16:21

Mt 15:28

Mt 15:28 - O woman, great is thy faith - The Saviour is satisfied. He has tested her faith in Him. By His dealings with her, He has shown that she who has been regarded as an outcast from Israel is no longer an alien, but a child in God's household. As a child it is her privilege to share in the Father's gifts. Christ now grants her request, and finishes the lesson to the disciples. Turning to her with a look of pity and love, He says, "O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt." From that hour her daughter became whole. The demon troubled her no more. The woman departed, acknowledging her Saviour, and happy in the granting of her prayer. - {DA 401.3}

Mt 15:29

Mt 15:29 - And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee - This was the only miracle that Jesus wrought while on this journey. It was for the performance of this act that He went to the borders of Tyre and Sidon. He wished to relieve the afflicted woman, and at the same time to leave an example in His work of mercy toward one of a despised people for the benefit of His disciples when He should no longer be with them. He wished to lead them from their Jewish exclusiveness to be interested in working for others besides their own people. - {DA 402.1}

Mt 15:32

Mt 15:32 - I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way - Jesus presents a similar challenge as that in Bethsaida to the disciples in suggesting they feed the multitude. The challenge is however, gravely different in that these are a heathen people [Decapolis, near Gergesa - See DA 404.3] for whom Jesus had been ministering and His disciples would be called upon to serve them. Jesus was always looking to tear down the middle wall of separation between the Jews and Gentiles.

Mt 16:1

Mt 16:1 - The Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven - The Pharisees and Sadducees continue in the footsteps of their faithless father the devil, requesting a sign. See Mt 4:3, 27:39-43; Lk 23:35-37, 16:27-31

Mt 16:3

Mt 16:3 - O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times? - The Pharisees and Sadducees by their own rejection of Christ found themselves fighting God and opposing the Truth. They in their prideful, stubborn blindness became children of darkness. See 2Tim 2:25, 26; 1Thess 5:1-9; 2Pet 3:3-5; Joh 3:19-21

Mt 16:3

Mt 16:3 - the Pharisees and Sadducees were not as the children of Issachar, able to discern the times. See 1Chron 12:32

Mt 16:4

Mt 16:4 - A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas - Jesus repeats His prophetic sign that these hypocritical men should see and peradventure, believe and repent. They understood Jesus' words because they sought to secure the tomb where His body lay after His death, lest He come forth from the tomb in three days. See 1Cor 1:22; Mt 12:38-40; 2Tim 2:25, 26; Mt 27:62-66; Prov 30:20 Many are unwilling to accept of Christ until the whole mystery of the plan of salvation shall be made plain to them. They refuse the look of faith, although they see that thousands have looked, and have felt the efficacy of looking, to the cross of Christ. Many wander in the mazes of philosophy, in search of reasons and evidence which they will never find, while they reject the evidence which God has been pleased to give. They refuse to walk in the light of the Sun of Righteousness, until the reason of its shining shall be explained. All who persist in this course will fail to come to a knowledge of the truth. God will never remove every occasion for doubt. He gives sufficient evidence on which to base faith, and if this is not accepted, the mind is left in darkness. If those who were bitten by the serpents had stopped to doubt and question before they would consent to look, they would have perished. It is our duty, first, to look; and the look of faith will give us life. - {PP 432.2}

Mt 16:4 - wicked and adulterous generation - Jesus alluded to the Spiritual fornication among the Jewish leadership in conspiring with the state to kill Him [Image to the Beast], as well as the hearts of the people committing fornication with the world. See Ps 78:8; Prov 30:11-14

Mt 16:6

Mt 16:6 - Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees. - See Mt 16:12; Lk 12:1; Mk 8:15; 1Cor 5:6, 7 1Chronicles12:32 Rom13:11,12 5T81.1 GC607.

Mt 16:12

Mt 16:12 - Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees - We are not to follow the doctrine of men but to search the Scriptures, know them for ourselves and follow them. See Lk 12:1; Joh 5:39

Mt 16:16

Mt 16:16 - Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God - See Deut 18:18; Dan 9:24, 25; Joh 1:49, 6:69; Act 2:36; Lk 9:20

Mt 16:17

Mt 16:17 - flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee - See Joh 6:45, 64

Mt 16:18

Mt 16:18 - thou art Peter (Petros - pebble or piece of a rock)- See Gal 2:9; Act 15:19. Jam also bore his testimony with decision, declaring that it was God's purpose to bestow upon the Gentiles the same privileges and blessings that had been granted to the Jews. - {AA 194.2} The Holy Spirit saw good not to impose the ceremonial law on the Gentile converts, and the mind of the apostles regarding this matter was as the mind of the Spirit of God. Jam presided at the council, and his final decision was, "Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God." (Act 15:6-19) - {AA 194.3} This ended the discussion. In this instance we have a refutation of the doctrine held by the Roman Catholic Church that Peter was the head of the church. Those who, as popes, have claimed to be his successors, have no Scriptural foundation for their pretensions. Nothing in the life of Peter gives sanction to the claim that he was elevated above his brethren as the vicegerent of the Most High. If those who are declared to be the successors of Peter had followed his example, they would always have been content to remain on an equality with their brethren. - {AA 194.4} In this instance Jam seems to have been chosen as the one to announce the decision arrived at by the council. It was his sentence that the ceremonial law, and especially the ordinance of circumcision, should not be urged upon the Gentiles, or even recommended to them. Jam sought to impress the minds of his brethren with the fact that, in turning to God, the Gentiles had made a great change in their lives and that much caution should be used not to trouble them with perplexing and doubtful questions of minor importance, lest they be discouraged in following Christ. - {AA 195.1} When Peter, at a later date, visited Antioch, he won the confidence of many by his prudent conduct toward the Gentile converts. For a time he acted in accordance with the light given from heaven. He so far overcame his natural prejudice as to sit at table with the Gentile converts. But when certain Jews who were zealous for the ceremonial law, came from Jerusalem, Peter injudiciously changed his deportment toward the converts from paganism. A number of the Jews "dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation." This revelation of weakness on the part of those who had been respected and loved as leaders, left a most painful impression on the minds of the Gentile believers. The church was threatened with division. But Paul, who saw the subverting influence of the wrong done to the church through the double part acted by Peter, openly rebuked him for thus disguising his true sentiments. In the presence of the church, Paul inquired of Peter, "If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?" Gal 2:13, 14. - {AA 197.3} Peter saw the error into which he had fallen, and immediately set about repairing the evil that had been wrought, so far as was in his power. God, who knows the end from the beginning, permitted Peter to reveal this weakness of character in order that the tried apostle might see that there was nothing in himself whereof he might boast. Even the best of men, if left to themselves, will err in judgment. God also saw that in time to come some would be so deluded as to claim for Peter and his pretended successors the exalted prerogatives that belong to God alone. And this record of the apostle's weakness was to remain as a proof of his fallibility and of the fact that he stood in no way above the level of the other apostles. - {AA 198.1}

Mt 16:18 - upon this Rock (Petra) - a massive stone/Rock - Upon this Rock of revelation, that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the Living God, would Jesus build His eternal Kingdom. Jesus is the Chief Cornerstone upon which all must build Act 2:36, 4:11; Isa 28:16; Dan 9:25; 1Pet 2:7 Jesus Christ Himself and the truth that He is the Son of God, the Messiah (Mt 16:15). See 2Sam 22:32; Dan 9:24, 25; Act 2:36; 1Pet

Mt 16:18

Mt 16:18 - and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it - the devil could in no wise triumph over Jesus; therefore Jesus was the perfect sacrifice for sin and the grave could not hold Him captive. See Joh 14:30; Heb 2:14; Jer 15:20 The gates of hell triumphed against Peter, the pebble: 1. Peter was used of Satan to try to discourage Him from His mission of the cross - Mt 16:22, 23 2. Denied His Master and Lord 3x - Mt 26:69-75 3. Peter showed prejudice and dissembled towards the Gentile converts - Gal 2:11-19

Mt 16:19

Mt 16:19 - And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven - Jesus is speak of His church, which is His body and His only representation here upon the earth.

Mt 16:19

Mt 16:19 - whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven - God gives authority to the church to establish righteous guidelines in accordance with God and His character, and to judge by those guidelines so that order may be preserved in the church. When anyone goes against the church guidelines and judgements, their rebuke and judgment/charge is established both on earth and in heaven. See 1Cor 6:1, 2; Mt 18:15-18; Joh 20:23

Mt 16:20

Mt 16:20 - Then charged He His disciples that they should tell no man that He was Jesus the Christ - Jesus understood the prejudice of His accusers and did not want to incite their desire to destroy Him prematurely. Jesus still needed to reveal His greatest miracle, the resurrection of Lazarus, affirming that He had power over death and the grave. Jesus' works bore witness of His Messiahship and He desired the people to follow and worship Him in Spirit and in truth, not merely from man's profession and testimony. People must have a person experience with Him as had the Samaritans so that they would proclaim, "Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world" See Joh 9:39, 18:37, 4:42

Mt 16:20

Mt 16:20 - Jesus the Christ - Jesus, the Anointed One (Messiah) Modern translations omit the name Jesus, suggesting a dichotomy between Jesus and "The Christ". This is Gnostic heresies found in 1Jo 4:3, Joh 1:18 and Act 16:31 also. Wrestling Scriptures

Mt 16:21

Mt 16:21 - From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day - Jesus tried to inform the disciples of His fate but they were not in a position to receive His words. See Joh 16:12

Mt 16:22

Mt 16:23 - Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee - Just as the enemy tempted Jesus through His own disciple, by suggesting it was not necessary to bear a cross and endure scorn, shame, and pain, so too, he tempts Christians today in believing that the Christian life is to be a life of selfish ease with no trial, tribulation, sacrifice, or suffering.

Mt 16:23

Mt 16:23 - and said unto Peter - Peter did not realize the spirit that was working in him when he tried to convince Jesus that He should not die for the sins of the world. Jesus, though speaking to Peter was addressing Satan, who had taken possession of Peter as he yielded to the devil's suggestion. See Lk 9:53-55

Mt 16:23

Mt 16:23 - Get thee behind me, Satan - Peter loved his Lord; but Jesus did not commend him for thus manifesting the desire to shield Him from suffering. Peter's words were not such as would be a help and solace to Jesus in the great trial before Him. They were not in harmony with God's purpose of grace toward a lost world, nor with the lesson of self-sacrifice that Jesus had come to teach by His own example. Peter did not desire to see the cross in the work of Christ. The impression which his words would make was directly opposed to that which Christ desired to make on the minds of His followers, and the Saviour was moved to utter one of the sternest rebukes that ever fell from His lips: "Get thee behind Me, Satan: thou art an offense unto Me: for thou savorest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men." - {DA 415.4} Satan was trying to discourage Jesus, and turn Him from His mission; and Peter, in his blind love, was giving voice to the temptation. The prince of evil was the author of the thought. His instigation was behind that impulsive appeal. In the wilderness, Satan had offered Christ the dominion of the world on condition of forsaking the path of humiliation and sacrifice. Now he was presenting the same temptation to the disciple of Christ. He was seeking to fix Peter's gaze upon the earthly glory, that he might not behold the cross to which Jesus desired to turn his eyes. And through Peter, Satan was again pressing the temptation upon Jesus. But the Saviour heeded it not; His thought was for His disciple. Satan had interposed between Peter and his Master, that the heart of the disciple might not be touched at the vision of Christ's humiliation for him. The words of Christ were spoken, not to Peter, but to the one who was trying to separate him from his Redeemer. "Get thee behind Me, Satan." No longer interpose between Me and My erring servant. Let Me come face to face with Peter, that I may reveal to him the mystery of My love. - {DA 416.1}

Mt 16:23 - for thou savorest not the things that be of God - the devil did not desire God's will to be done, which would bring about his destruction. God's will and purpose was that Jesus should die for the sins of the world. The devil desired that Jesus should live a life of ease and not fulfill the Father's purposes. See Isa 53:10; Gal 3:13; Joh 17:1-5

Mt 16:23

Mt 16:23 - but those that be of men - the things that are of men is to live a life of peace and ease, refusing to bear one's cross and yet claiming the glory of God's kingdom unto themselves.

Mt 16:24

Mt 16:24 - If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me - See Mt 10:38, 26:39, 6:33; 2Cor 4:10, 11; Gal 2:20 Christ had spoken a sacred, eternal truth regarding the relation between Himself and His followers. He knew the character of those who claimed to be His disciples, and His words tested their faith. He declared that they were to believe and act upon His teaching. All who received Him would partake of His nature, and be conformed to His character. This involved the relinquishment of their cherished ambitions. It required the complete surrender of themselves to Jesus. They were called to become self-sacrificing, meek and lowly in heart. They must walk in the narrow path traveled by the Man of Calvary, if they would share in the gift of life and the glory of heaven. - {DA 391.2}

Mt 16:24

Mt 16:24 - let him deny himself - to reject and subdue the desires, passions, cravings, and inclinations of the heart, mind, and flesh in submission to the will of God. The flesh is naturally sinful and must therefore be rejected and denied (an act of the will) so that the Holy Spirit may impart power to be victorious over the flesh. See Mt 11:28, 29; Rom 7:14, 18, 3:10, 23 To those who, like the young ruler, are in high positions of trust and have great possessions, it may seem too great a sacrifice to give up all in order to follow Christ. But this is the rule of conduct for all who would become His disciples. Nothing short of obedience can be accepted. Self-surrender is the substance of the teachings of Christ. Often it is presented and enjoined in language that seems authoritative, because there is no other way to save man than to cut away those things which, if entertained, will demoralize the whole being. [31] - {CSA 15.7} We are in this world to lift the cross of self-denial. As we lift this cross we shall find that it lifts us. Let every Christian stand in his place, catching the inspiration of the work that Christ did for souls while in this world. We need the ardor of the Christian hero, who can endure the seeing of Him who is invisible. Our faith is to have a resurrection. The soldiers of the cross are to exert a positive influence for good. Christ says: "He that is not with Me is against Me; and he that gathereth not with Me scattereth abroad." Mt 12:30. Indifference in the Christian life is a manifest denial of the Saviour. - {8T 45.3}

Mt 16:24 - take up his cross - carry the burden, heavy load, grief, heartache, shame, trial or challenge appointed to a person. We are to carry this cross to Calvary to be crucified with Christ - See Gal 2:20; Rom 8:18; 1Pet 4:13

Mt 16:24

Mt 16:24 - follow me - become a disciple of Jesus Christ. See Mt 11:29, 10:38

Mt 16:25

Mt 16:25 - For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it - The Christian life is one of self-sacrifice. As we give of our will, passions, desires, we gain Jesus, and thus gain Eternal Life. To save one's life, to selfishly hold onto this world with its fleeting pleasures, is to choose death. See Mt 10:39; Lk 9:24; Mk 8:35; Joh 12:25; 1Jo 3:16

Mt 16:25

Mt 16:25 - whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it - Those who wisely dedicate their life and labor to the service of the Master, for His glory and not their own, shall reap of the Holy Spirit eternal life. See Mt 6:33, 19:23-29; Gal 6:8; Joh 10:18; Ps 126:6; Eccl 11:1; 1Jo 3:16, 5:11-13; COL 326.3

Mt 16:26

Mt 16:26 - For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? - Nothing in this world or this present life is to compare with the bounties of life eternal prepared for us. We are not to choose mammon over God. See Prov 23:4, 5; Lk 9:25, 18:25; Isa 64:4; 1Cor 2:9; Heb 11:16; Mt 6:2, 5, 16, 24-34; Jam 5:1-6; Jer 9:23, 24

Mt 16:27

Mt 16:27 - For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father - See Joh 17:4, 5

Mt 16:27

Mt 16:27 - with his angels - in the clouds of heaven. See Dan 7:13; Mt 24:30, 31

Mt 16:27

Mt 16:27 - reward every man according to his works - See Prov 24:12; Isa 3:11; Rev 2:23, 20:13, 22:11, 12

Mt 16:27

Mt 16:27 - works - Praxis - one's mode of action, their works, their conduct and deeds. We will be judged by our life actions and works, whether of God or of the enemy. See Isa 3:10, 11; Rev 22:12; Joh 6:28, 29 Joh 6:27 - Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed

Mt 16:28

Mt 16:28 - There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom - [Mt 17:1-5] The Saviour's promise to the disciples was now fulfilled. Upon the mount the future kingdom of glory was represented in miniature,—Christ the King, Moses a representative of the risen saints, and Elijah of the translated ones. - {DA 421.4}

Mt 16:28

Mt 16:28 - till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom - some would see Jesus revealed in the glory He had and will bear when again He returns to gather His jewels at His Second Coming. See 2Cor 5:16; Heb 9:28

Mt 17:2

Mt 17:2 - And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light - Moses upon the mount of transfiguration was a witness to Christ's victory over sin and death. He represented those who shall come forth from the grave at the resurrection of the just. Elijah, who had been translated to heaven without seeing death, represented those who will be living upon the earth at Christ's second coming, and who will be "changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump;" when "this mortal must put on immortality," and "this corruptible must put on incorruption." 1Cor 15:51-53. Jesus was clothed with the light of heaven, as He will appear when He shall come "the second time without sin unto salvation." For He will come "in the glory of His Father with the holy angels." Heb 9:28; Mk 8:38. The Saviour's promise to the disciples was now fulfilled. Upon the mount the future kingdom of glory was represented in miniature,—Christ the King, Moses a representative of the risen saints, and Elijah of the translated ones. - {DA 421.4}

Mt 17:2

Mt 17:2 - and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light - See Rev 1:12-16; Dan 10:5, 6

Mt 17:3

Mt 17:3 - Moses - Moses, one of the greatest figures in ancient Hebrew history, arrived to give testimony and endorsement to Christ as the Son of God and His ministry. As the "giver of the Law", Moses is one of three witnesses (including Enoch) that bear record to God's fulfilling His eternal Plan of Redemption. See Gen 3:15; Rev 11:4-12

Mt 17:3

Mt 17:3 - Moses - Moses, one of the greatest figures in ancient Hebrew history, arrived to give testimony and endorsement to Christ as the Son of God and His ministry. As the "giver of the Law", Moses is one of three witnesses (including Enoch) that bear record to God's fulfilling His eternal Plan of Redemption. See Gen 3:15; Rev 11:4-12

Mt 17:3

Mt 17:3 - Elias - Elijah, one of the greatest figures in ancient Hebrew history, arrived to give testimony and endorsement to Christ as the Son of God and His ministry. As the greatest prophet of the Old Testament who prayed and the rains failed for 3.5 years and prayed again and they returned, who also called down fire from heaven, Elijah is one of two witnesses that bear record to God's eternal Plan of Redemption. See 2Kin 2:11; Rev 11:4-12; Jam 5:17, 18

Mt 17:3

Mt 17:3 - Elias - Elijah, one of the greatest figures in ancient Hebrew history, arrived to give testimony and endorsement to Christ as the Son of God and His ministry. As the greatest prophet of the Old Testament who prayed and the rains failed for 3.5 years and prayed again and they returned, who also called down fire from heaven, Elijah is one of three witnesses (including Enoch) that bear record to God's faithfulness in fulfilling His eternal Plan of Redemption. See Gen 3:15; 2Kin 2:11; Rev 11:4-12; Jam 5:17, 18

Mt 17:4

Mt 17:4 - Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here - Peter spoke impulsively according to Lk 9:33

Mt 17:4

Mt 17:4 - let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias - tabernacles. Literally, "three booths," or "three tents." Practically no rain fell during the latter part of the summer (see Vol. II p. 110; see on ch. 17:1), and the only protection needed would be that from the heavy dew of the night. Whether Peter thought of the booths as protection from the elements only, or whether the suggestion came to his mind in connection with the Feast of Tabernacles—now but a short time away—is not certain. The expectation that Elijah would come to herald the Messianic kingdom (see on v. 10) may have reminded Peter of the predicted celebration of that feast in connection with the rulership of the Messiah (see Zech. 14:16-19). Perhaps he concluded that the appearance of Moses and Elijah at this time, so close to the Feast of Tabernacles, implied that they had come to participate in the celebration. {SDA Bible Commentary, vol. 5, pg 440}

Mt 17:5

Mt 17:5 - While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him - One of the few times mortal men heard directly from God the Father. See Mt 3:17; Joh 12:28

Mt 17:5

Mt 17:5 - a bright cloud overshadowed them - Reminiscent, perhaps, of the pillar of cloud in the wilderness (see on Ex. 13:21, 22), which was illuminated by the glory of God (see Num. 9:15, 16; see on Ex. 40:34). Compare the experience of Moses in the mount with God (see on Ex. 24:15-18), when he "went into the midst of the cloud" that shrouded the glory of God. This scene may have flashed into the minds of the disciples, as perhaps also the experience of Elijah upon Mt. Carmel (see on 1Kin 18:38; Lk 2:48; Joh 1:14). {SDA Bible Commentary, vol. 5, pg. 440}

Mt 17:5

Mt 17:5 - hear ye Him - a curse was pronounced through God's servant Moses, upon all who fail to give heed to Jesus and His words. See Deut 18:18, 19; Act 3:22

Mt 17:9

Mt 17:9 - Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead - Jesus' statement regarding rising from the dead was completely missed by the disciples who were not swift to understand all that Jesus said.

Mt 17:12

Mt 17:12 - Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed - See Mal 4:5, 6

Mt 17:14

Mt 17:14 - And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying - See Lk 9:38, 39

Mt 17:18

Mt 17:18 - And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour - Jesus commanded the demon to depart and he had to listen. See Mk 1:27

Mt 17:19

Mt 17:19 - Why could not we cast him out? - Unbelief in the hearts of the disciples prevented the Lord from moving and working through them. Unbelief in God's power, unbelief in God's transforming them to be transparent media of God's glory. Envy, division, and carnality in their hearts all were denials of the power of God in their lives. See Lk 9:46; Heb 4:1-5; 1Cor 3:3, 4

Mt 17:20

Mt 17:20 - And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you - Jesus is not suggesting that we "do" something more, but that we "be" something more, namely, we must be more "faith-filled". We must place 100% trust in God, put aside our self-seeking, and seek His divine purpose and will, losing sight of self and prayerfully wait upon God's providence to be fulfilled. See Mt 6:33

Mt 17:20

Mt 17:20 - and nothing shall be impossible unto you - Jesus speaks of a victorious faith, the faith of Jesus Christ that is able to do all things. As we have faith in Christ and abide in Him, we look to Him in faith to do that which is impossible for men to do. See Philippians 4:13; Ps 84:11

Mt 17:21

Mt 17:21 - this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting - The words of Christ pointing to His death had brought sadness and doubt. And the selection of the three disciples to accompany Jesus to the mountain had excited the jealousy of the nine. Instead of strengthening their faith by prayer and meditation on the words of Christ, they had been dwelling on their discouragements and personal grievances. In this state of darkness they had undertaken the conflict with Satan. - {DA 431.1} In order to succeed in such a conflict they must come to the work in a different spirit. Their faith must be strengthened by fervent prayer and fasting, and humiliation of heart. They must be emptied of self, and be filled with the Spirit and power of God. Earnest, persevering supplication to God in faith—faith that leads to entire dependence upon God, and unreserved consecration to His work—can alone avail to bring men the Holy Spirit's aid in the battle against principalities and powers, the rulers of the darkness of this world, and wicked spirits in high places. - {DA 431.2} "If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed," said Jesus, "ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove." Though the grain of mustard seed is so small, it contains that same mysterious life principle which produces growth in the loftiest tree. When the mustard seed is cast into the ground, the tiny germ lays hold of every element that God has provided for its nutriment, and it speedily develops a sturdy growth. If you have faith like this, you will lay hold upon God's word, and upon all the helpful agencies He has appointed. Thus your faith will strengthen, and will bring to your aid the power of heaven. The obstacles that are piled by Satan across your path, though apparently as insurmountable as the eternal hills, shall disappear before the demand of faith. "Nothing shall be impossible unto you." - {DA 431.3}

Mt 17:21 - prayer - We, too, must have times set apart for meditation and prayer and for receiving spiritual refreshing. We do not value the power and efficacy of prayer as we should. Prayer and faith will do what no power on earth can accomplish. {MH 510.1}

Mt 17:22

Mt 17:22 - And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men - Jesus repeats that which is to occur in Him to give the disciples warning so that they do not experience a great disappointment. See Lk 9:22

Mt 17:22

Mt 17:22 - shall be betrayed - See Ps 55:12-14

Mt 17:23

Mt 17:23 - And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again - See Mt 12:39, 40

Mt 17:24

Mt 17:24 - doth not your master pay tribute - See Ex 30:12-16; Nehemiah 10:32 But Peter only partially comprehended the purpose of his questioner. There were some classes who were held to be exempt from the payment of the tribute. In the time of Moses, when the Levites were set apart for the service of the sanctuary, they were given no inheritance among the people. The Lord said, "Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren; the Lord is his inheritance." Deut 10:9. In the days of Christ the priests and Levites were still regarded as especially devoted to the temple, and were not required to make the annual contribution for its support. Prophets also were exempted from this payment. In requiring the tribute from Jesus, the rabbis were setting aside His claim as a prophet or teacher, and were dealing with Him as with any commonplace person. A refusal on His part to pay the tribute would be represented as disloyalty to the temple; while, on the other hand, the payment of it would be taken as justifying their rejection of Him as a prophet. - {DA 433.2}

Mt 17:26 - Then are the children free - Jesus, Who is the Son of God, ought not pay tribute for His Father's House.

Mt 17:27

Mt 17:27 - Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee - Jesus, wanting to affirm to Peter that He indeed is the Divine Son of God, and Ruler over heaven and earth, had Peter go fish for the tribute money.

Mt 18:1

Mt 18:1 - At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven? - consider the spirit of Satan manifested that led to war in heaven, as exhibited through his agent Judas, one of Jesus' 12 disciples: From that time he expressed doubts that confused the disciples. He introduced controversies and misleading sentiments, repeating the arguments urged by the scribes and Pharisees against the claims of Christ. All the little and large troubles and crosses, the difficulties and the apparent hindrances to the advancement of the gospel, Judas interpreted as evidences against its truthfulness. He would introduce texts of Scripture that had no connection with the truths Christ was presenting. These texts, separated from their connection, perplexed the disciples, and increased the discouragement that was constantly pressing upon them. Yet all this was done by Judas in such a way as to make it appear that he was conscientious. And while the disciples were searching for evidence to confirm the words of the Great Teacher, Judas would lead them almost imperceptibly on another track. Thus in a very religious, and apparently wise, way he was presenting matters in a different light from that in which Jesus had given them, and attaching to His words a meaning that He had not conveyed. His suggestions were constantly exciting an ambitious desire for temporal preferment, and thus turning the disciples from the important things they should have considered. The dissension as to which of them should be greatest was generally excited by Judas. - {DA 719.2} Those to whom He has forgiven most will love Him most, and will stand nearest to His throne to praise Him for His great love and infinite sacrifice. It is when we most fully comprehend the love of God that we best realize the sinfulness of sin. When we see the length of the chain that was let down for us, when we understand something of the infinite sacrifice that Christ has made in our behalf, the heart is melted with tenderness and contrition. - {SC 35.4}

Mt 18:3

Mt 18:3 - Except ye be converted - to have a change of heart, mind and character, based on the mind of Christ. To see the wretchedness of one's past life and way of thinking; to forsake the past life and thoughts; and to embark upon the path of righteousness for God's sake. See Ps 51:10-13; Act 3:19; Phil 2:5-8; Jer 31:31-34

Mt 18:3

Mt 18:3 - become as little children - we are not to be childish as children, but to be child-like:

innocent, teachable, willing to be led, trusting in their Heavenly Father, accepting of all people, forgiving easily. This verse like Mk 10:15, speaks of the manner in which we accept truth. However, this verse differs in that it speaks to those who are converted and have accepted Christ unlike Mk 10:15 which may also apply to those without any prior knowledge of Jesus and are coming to the truth for the first time. In either case, whether a seasoned Christian or a person hearing for the first time, the attitude of humility is essential for receiving any light from the Scriptures. See Mt 18:4, 19:14; 1Cor 8:2 Children are: 1. Humble, willing to listen and to be taught - not proud or haughty 2. Inquisitive - they ask questions in order to understand 3. Trusting implicitly - a child trusts and believes in their parents strength completely 4. Forgiving - children forgive quickly in order to go back to loving and having fun The spirit in which you come to the investigation of the Scriptures will determine the character of the assistant at your side. Angels from the world of light will be with those who in humility of heart seek for divine guidance. But if the Bible is opened with irreverence, with a feeling of self-sufficiency, if the heart is filled with prejudice, Satan is beside you, and he will set the plain statements of God's word in a perverted light. - {GW92 127.3}

Mt 18:3 - ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven - See Joh 3:3, 5

Mt 18:4

Mt 18:4 - Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven - See Mt 23:11; Num 12:3

Mt 18:5

Mt 18:5 - And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me - all are to be received (gathered) into God's Kingdom, even little children. See Mt 19:14; Mk 10:14; Lk 18:16

Mt 18:6

Mt 18:6 - But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea - Jesus continues His dual application of "children" to be both literal children, as well as those who are new, or child-like in the faith of Jesus Christ. Jesus has a special regard for children, that they be handled properly because God places a close watch over them. See Mt 18:10; Eph 6:4; Gal 4:19; Mk 7:9; Rom 1:18, 14:7, 13; 1Cor 8:4-13; Rev 18:21; Isa 66:5, 6

Mt 18:7

Mt 18:7 - Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come - In this world we will have tribulation. See John 16:33; 1Jo 5:19

Mt 18:8

Mt 18:8, 9 - Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire. And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire - Jesus is not promoting self mutilation, as we are to guard and protect our bodies as the temple of the Holy Spirit. Rather, He is emphasizing the gravity of walking in the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus, rather than having the flesh have dominion over you. We must be willing to cut off all things that offend God and war against our salvation. See Gal 5:17; 1Pet 2:11; Rom 7:8, 8:5-9

Mt 18:10

Mt 18:10 - Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven - See Mt 18:6; Ps 34:7, 91:11

Mt 18:10

Mt 18:10 - That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven - the angels behold the glory of the LORD and themselves are sanctified and whose glory is changed from glory to glory. See 2Cor 3:18 The angels, that sit with the Father in judgment, are eyewitnesses to all that transpires here on earth. See dan 7:9, 10 No man has seen the Father but the angels behold the face of the Father. See 1Jo 4:12; Joh 1:18; Ex 33:20

Mt 18:11

Mt 18:11 - For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost - All who are lost, and realize that they are lost, and cry out to God, Jesus will save. See Mt 15:22-28; Mk 2:16, 17; Lk 18:10-14

Mt 18:12

Mt 18:12 - doth he not leave the ninety and nine and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray? - The shepherd who discovers that one of his sheep is missing, does not look carelessly upon the flock that is safely housed, and say, "I have ninety and nine, and it will cost me too much trouble to go in search of the straying one. Let him come back, and I will open the door of the sheepfold, and let him in." No; no sooner does the sheep go astray than the shepherd is filled with grief and anxiety. He counts and recounts the flock. When he is sure that one sheep is lost, he slumbers not. He leaves the ninety and nine within the fold; and goes in search of the straying sheep. The darker and more tempestuous the night, and the more perilous the way, the greater is the shepherd's anxiety, and the more earnest his search. He makes every effort to find that one lost sheep. - {ChS 245.3} With what relief he hears in the distance its first faint cry. Following the sound, he climbs the steepest heights, he goes to the very edge of the precipice, at the risk of his own life. Thus he searches, while the cry, growing fainter, tells him that his sheep is ready to die. At last his effort is rewarded; the lost is found. Then he does not scold it because it has caused him so much trouble. He does not drive it with a whip. He does not even try to lead it home. In his joy he takes the trembling creature upon his shoulders; if it is bruised and wounded, he gathers it in his arms, pressing it close to his bosom, that the warmth of his own heart may give it life. With gratitude that his search has not been in vain, he bears it back to the fold.—Christ's Object Lessons, 187, 188. - {ChS 245.4}

Mt 18:13

Mt 18:13 - he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray - the joy is in seeing something that was lost, ruined, dead in sins, restored to life anew!

Mt 18:14

Mt 18:14 - Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish. - See 2Pet 3:9; Isa 30:18

Mt 18:15

Mt 18:15 - go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone; if he shall hear thee, thou has gained thy brother - See 2Tim 2:25

Mt 18:15

Mt 18:15 - between thee and him alone - See Prov 17:9

Mt 18:17

Mt 18:17 - And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican - 1Cor 6:4-7

Mt 18:18

Mt 18:18 - whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven - God gives authority to the church to establish righteous guidelines in accordance with God and His character, and to judge by those guidelines so that order may be preserved in the church. When anyone goes against the church guidelines and judgements, their rebuke and judgment/charge is established both on earth and in heaven. See 1Cor 6:1, 2; Mt 16:18, 19; 2Cor 5:20; Joh 20:23 Jesus is giving His church authority to assess and reprove individual's conduct, or settle matters/disputes between individuals who are at odds or who may be exhibiting questionable conduct. In other words, as Jesus says in Mt 18:15-17, if you have an issue with another person, try to resolve it with them yourselves. If not possible, bring another witness. If still not possible, bring the matter before the church so that the church may determine fault and the correct course of action. The decisions given by the church is what will be acknowledged in heaven as the appropriate course of action. If the person fails to adhere to the conduct sanctioned by the church, the person will be liable before the Lord. The issue is how the church judges/legislates/rules in matters of disputes and the fact that God sees the counsels of the church as binding, where He expects us to live up to the terms given. In other words, the church speaks on behalf of God in such matters and God will hold a person accountable if they refuse to give heed to the church's decision.

Mt 18:19

Mt 18:19 - That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven - See Am 3:3; Ps 133:1, 2; Act 12:5;

Mt 18:21

Mt 18:21, 22 - Jesus reminded his disciples of the 490year probation of Dan 9:24 that was soon to close upon the Nation of Israel. Following the close of the time of probation in 34AD, God withheld punishment for 40yrs in mercy to the children of those who had rejected and crucified Christ. However, justice would reign in 70AD when God would punish the children of those who rejected Jesus. The land would rest after the destruction of Jerusalem

Mt 18:22

Mt 18:22 - I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven - Jesus reminded his disciples of the 490year probation of Dan 9:24 that was soon to close upon the Nation of Israel. Following the close of the time of probation in 34AD, God withheld punishment for 40yrs in mercy to the children of those who had rejected and crucified Christ. However, justice would reign in 70AD when God would punish the children of those who rejected Jesus. The land would rest after the destruction of Jerusalem

Mt 18:25 - But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made - See 2Kin 4:1-7

Mt 18:30

Mt 18:30 - And he would not - Such is the spirit of Satan, wanting good for himself and not for others. See Lk 8:30, 31

Mt 18:33

Mt 18:33 - Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee? - See Ps 109:12-16

Mt 18:35

Mt 18:35 - if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses - our hearts are deceitful and desperately wicked; no one knows it. Therefore we must pray the Lord reveal the true intentions and motives of the heart. Once revealed, we must submit to that which has been shown, not ignoring nor casting blame on others for what is resident in our hearts. We must as God to grant us the gift of forgiveness that we may see the persons who have offended us in a new light.

Mt 19:3

Mt 19:3 - Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? - to put away one's wife is to divorce her. See Isa 50:1; Mt 19:7

Mt 19:4

Mt 19:14 - Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, - Jesus' ready defense was always to quote Scripture and to direct His challengers to their arguments relative to the divine standard, the Word of God. See Gen 1:27

Mt 19:5

Mt 19:5 - And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? - See Gen 2:24

Mt 19:7

Mt 19:7 - Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away? - See Deut 24:1-3; Mt 5:31

Mt 19:8

Mt 19:8 - but from the beginning it was not so - God always directs us back to His original plan and purposes because that is what He purposes to restore and fulfill. Therefore, those who will follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth must be willing to submit to God and His divine purposes.

Mt 19:10

Mt 19:10 - His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry - See 1Cor 7:25, 26, 40

Mt 19:12

Mt 19:12 - and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake - some due to circumstances and that they might not dishonor God nor His Kingdom, have chosen to live a life of abstinence.

Mt 19:14

Mt 19:14 - for of such is the kingdom of heaven - See Mt 18:3-5 Children are: 1. Light hearted and they have a buoyant spirit 2. Children are teachable and willing to learn 3. Children are willing to forgive and make friends 4. Children are trusting

Mt 19:16

Mt 19:16 - what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? - the rich young ruler had no true desire for God, godliness nor His Kingdom, rather he sought a means to extend his present life of ease, pleasure, and status for eternity - See Joh 6:28; Ex 19:8

Mt 19:17

Mt 19:17 - there is none good but one, that is, God - "goodness isn't a thing but a Person, and that Person is God. Therefore, there was nothing he could do apart from God that was good." {Surrender, G. Jackson, pg 12.1} Whose Son is Messiah - Mt 22:42

Mt 19:17

Mt 19:17 - but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments - accepting Christ and allowing Him to live out the commandments in us brings us to eternal life. See Joh 5:40; Rev 22:14

Mt 19:18

Mt 19:18 - Thou shalt do no murder - Commandment #6. This includes hatred in one's heart towards another (Mt 18:35); murdering a person's will/esteem through discouragement; and murdering a person's character through gossip. See Ex 20:13; Deut 5:17; Mt 5:21, 22

Mt 19:18

Mt 19:18 - Thou shalt not commit adultery - Commandment #7. This includes lust, coveting and any inordinate affections. See Ex 20:15; Deut 5:18; Mt 5:27, 18; Col 3:5; Hebrew 13:5

Mt 19:18

Mt 19:18 - Thou shalt not steal - Commandment #8. This includes poor management of our health so that we rob God and our fellow men of the gospel service owed to them; this includes our time, lent by God, that we waste and squander; this includes the talents and resources entrusted to us for our development and use to God's glory. See Ex 20:15; Deut 5:19; Mal 3:8, 9

Mt 19:18

Mt 19:18 - Thou shalt not bear false witness - Commandment #9. This includes any hypocrisy and duplicity we exhibit (Mt 16:12); this includes not taking a stand for right when we ought to take a stand (sin of omission). See Ex 20:16; Deut 5:20

Mt 19:19

Mt 19:19 - Honour thy father and thy mother - Commandment #5. This includes supporting them in their old age and time of need (contrast Mk 7:10-13); this includes obeying their commands. See Ex 20:12; Deut 5:16; Rom 13:9

Mt 19:19

Mt 19:19 - Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself - the command to love our neighbor as ourselves seems to be likened to the 10th Commandment, not to cover that which belongs to our neighbor. In this comparison, we are told to express consideration and empathy towards our neighbor such that we do nothing to offend them as we would not want a similar offense to come to us. See Ex 20:17; Deut 5:21; Heb 13:5; Col 3:5

Mt 19:20

Mt 19:20 - All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet? - This young man had no assurance of his salvation though he had, in his opinion, kept the commandments from his youth. A legalistic can not have joy, peace and assurance. That comes to one who has had an experience with Jesus Christ. When persons claim that they are sanctified, they give sufficient evidence that they are far from being holy. They fail to see their own weakness and destitution. They look upon themselves as reflecting the image of Christ, because they have no true knowledge of Him. The greater the distance between them and their Saviour, the more righteous they appear in their own eyes. - {SL 8.1} While with penitence and humble trust we meditate upon Jesus, whom our sins have pierced and our sorrows have burdened, we may learn to walk in His footsteps. By beholding Him we become changed into His divine likeness. And when this work is wrought in us, we shall claim no righteousness of our own, but shall exalt Jesus Christ, while we hang our helpless souls upon His merits. - {SL 8.2} His claim that he had kept the law of God was a deception. He showed that riches were his idol. He could not keep the commandments of God while the world was first in his affections. He loved the gifts of God more than he loved the Giver.... Thousands are passing through this ordeal, weighing Christ against the world; and many choose the world. Like the young ruler, they turn from the Saviour, saying in their hearts, I will not have this Man as my leader.... - {CSA 15.5}

Mt 19:21

Mt 19:21 - If thou wilt be perfect - Jesus commands, if you will be perfect, if you will share in the same character as My Father and Me, do these things. Perfection did not come in what he refrained from doing by command of the law, but in what he would do, acts of kindness, grace and love towards God and our fellowmen. This is the new commandment that Jesus gave to His disciples, that we love one another, even as He has loved us. We overcome self and selfishness by faith of Jesus Christ, by self surrender and pouring ourselves into others. See Mt 5:48; 2Tim 3:16, 17; Lk 4:18, 19; Joh 13:34, 35 Christ's words were verily to the ruler the invitation, "Choose you this day whom ye will serve." Joshua 24:15. The choice was left with him. Jesus was yearning for his conversion. He had shown him the plague spot in his character, and with what deep interest He watched the issue as the young man weighed the question! If he decided to follow Christ, he must obey His words in everything.... - {CSA 15.2}

Mt 19:21

Mt 19:21 - go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me - See 1Cor 13:3 One thing thou lackest,” Jesus said. “If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow Me.” Christ read the ruler’s heart. Only one thing he lacked, but that was a vital principle. He needed the love of God in the soul. This lack, unless supplied, would prove fatal to him; his whole nature would become corrupted. By indulgence, selfishness would strengthen. That he might receive the love of God, his supreme love of self must be surrendered. - {DA 519.4} Christ gave this man a test. He called upon him to choose between the heavenly treasure and worldly greatness. The heavenly treasure was assured him if he would follow Christ. But self must yield; his will must be given into Christ’s control. The very holiness of God was offered to the young ruler. He had the privilege of becoming a son of God, and a coheir with Christ to the heavenly treasure. But he must take up the cross, and follow the Saviour in the path of self-denial. - {DA 519.5} Christ’s words were verily to the ruler the invitation, “Choose you this day whom ye will serve.” Joshua 24:15. The choice was left with him. Jesus was yearning for his conversion. He had shown him the plague spot in his character, and with what deep interest He watched the issue as the young man weighed the question! If he decided to follow Christ, he must obey His words in everything. He must turn from his ambitious projects. With what earnest, anxious longing, what soul hunger, did the Saviour look at the young man, hoping that he would yield to the invitation of the Spirit of God! - {DA 520.1} Christ made the only terms which could place the ruler where he would perfect a Christian character. His words were words of wisdom, though they appeared severe and exacting. In accepting and obeying them was the ruler’s only hope of salvation. His exalted position and his possessions were exerting a subtle influence for evil upon his character. If cherished, they would supplant God in his affections. To keep back little or much from God was to retain that which would lessen his moral strength and efficiency; for if the things of this world are cherished, however uncertain and unworthy they may be, they will become all-absorbing. - {DA 520.2}

Mt 19:22

Mt 19:22 - But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions - See Act 26:28 He was a member of the honored council of the Jews, and Satan was tempting him with flattering prospects of the future. He wanted the heavenly treasure, but he wanted also the temporal advantages his riches would bring him. He was sorry that such conditions existed; he desired eternal life, but he was not willing to make the sacrifice. The cost of eternal life seemed too great, and he went away sorrowful; “for he had great possessions.” [30] - {CSA 15.4}

Mt 19:23

Mt 19:23 - Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven - See 1Tim 6:5

Mt 19:24

Mt 19:24 - It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needl, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God - See 1Cor 1:26-28; Mk 10:25

Mt 19:25

Mt 19:25 - When His disciples heard it, the were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved? - The prosperity gospel doctrine is a long standing tradition among men. It was believed that wealth and prosperity were signs of the favor of God for the righteous, and poverty was His punishment for the less favored. As such, the pharisees were they who thought their gain as godliness (1Tim 6:5). Therefore, Jesus' statement flies in the face of the common belief of the preferred status of the wealthy and was a marvel to His disciples. See Mk 10:26, Lk 18:26; 1Tim 6:5-10; Jam 2:1-9

Mt 19:27 - Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore? - See Phil 3:8-11

Mt 19:28

Mt 19:28 - ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones - See Isa 32:1; 1Cor 6:3; Rev 20:4

Mt 19:29

Mt 19:29 - And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life - See Mt 10:37-39

Mt 19:30

Mt 19:30 - But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first - many that are first in this world, having preferred status, having wealth and the comforts of this life, will be lost. Whereas, those who have suffered and went without but maintained their integrity in God, will be honored. See Lk 16:19-31

Mt 20:1

Mt 20:1 - For the kingdom of heaven is like - The tenor, spirit and nature of God's Kingdom is as follows.

Mt 20:1

Mt 20:1 - man that is an householder - Jesus is the man that is an householder.

Mt 20:1

Mt 20:1 - the householder goes out during the four watches of the day to recruit laborers: 1st watch: 6-9AM 2nd watch: 9AM-Noon 3rd watch: Noon-3PM 4th watch: 3PM-5PM (11th hour) Work ends at evening: 6PM - (See Joh 11:9, 10)

Mt 20:3

Mt 20:3 - about the third hour - 9AM

Mt 20:5

Mt 20:5 - sixth and ninth hour - 12noon and 3PM.

Mt 20:6

Mt 20:6 - about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing idle - 5PM For long hours of agony, reviling and mockery have fallen upon the ears of Jesus. As He hangs upon the cross, there floats up to Him still the sound of jeers and curses. With longing heart He has listened for some expression of faith from His disciples. He has heard only the mournful words, "We trusted that it had been He which should have redeemed Israel." How grateful then to the Saviour was the utterance of faith and love from the dying thief! While the leading Jews deny Him, and even the disciples doubt His divinity, the poor thief, upon the brink of eternity, calls Jesus Lord. Many were ready to call Him Lord when He wrought miracles, and after He had risen from the grave; but none acknowledged Him as He hung dying upon the cross save the penitent thief who was saved at the eleventh hour. - {DA 750.3}

Mt 20:6 - Why stand ye here all the day idle? - Christ always encouraged industry. "Why stand ye here all the day idle?" He said to the indolent. "I must work ... while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work." - {CSA 62.6}

Mt 20:8

Mt 20:8 - even was come - see Deut 24:14, 15

Mt 20:10

Mt 20:10 - and they likewise received every man a penny - We all receive the same payment, the crown of life. See Jam 1:12

Mt 20:11

Mt 20:11 - And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house - the "goodman of the house" speaks of the nature and character of the One bestowing the gifts. He is Good, He is Generous, He is Gracious and Merciful, and He is Loving, not treating any of us as we deserve. That the works murmur against the "goodman of the house", speaks of their character.

Mt 20:12

Mt 20:12 - Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day - As we take our eyes off of Jesus and begin to compare ourselves with others, our sinful nature causes us to complain and murmur, as if dealt with unfairly. We should look to Jesus and with gratitude say, "we are unprofitable servants, this is the least that we could do" for all the great things you have done for us. See LK 17:10, 12-19; Rom 12:1, 2

Mt 20:12

Mt 20:12 - which have borne the burden and heat of the day - the worker's attitude is all wrong. They were chosen to work in the "good man of the house's" vineyard, showing favor being given to them. They speak as though their work was excessively hard and rigorous.

Mt 20:13

Mt 20:13 - But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny? - the "goodman of the house" clears His name of the accusations by reminding the workers that they willingly agreed to a penny and thus had no cause for complaint.

Mt 20:15

Mt 20:15 - Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? - God is Sovereign and can do as He pleases. He chooses to give the one who labored for a short time the same gift as the one who has labored all his life. The greater blessing is to the one who has been in the Master's service longer because he has seen, experienced and realized the goodness of God for a longer time.

Mt 20:15

Mt 20:15 - Is thine eye evil, because I am good? - Jesus here refers to carnal workers [carnal Christians], who despise God's goodness grace and mercy towards others and fail to see that they are more undeserving than the ones they are critical of. See 1Cor 3:1

Mt 20:16

Mt 20:16 - many be called, but few are chosen - See Mt 26:28 the Bible here suggests that those who are both "called and chosen" are they who do not murmur and complain against the "goodman of the house" but are: 1. Grateful for that which is allotted to them 2. Not mindful of what is given to others, not comparing themselves with others 3. Share in the joy of the "goodman" in that the work has been completed and many laborers have been gathered-in 4. Find the "goodman of the house" fair in His dealings to all and do not second guess or question Him or His motives 5. Have the mind of the Father

Mt 20:18

Mt 20:18 - the Son of man shall be betrayed - See Ps 41:9; Lk 22:48

Mt 20:19

Mt 20:19 - and the third day he shall rise again - See Mt 12:39, 16:4

Mt 20:21

Mt 20:21 - She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom - the two disciples doubled down on their attempt to be first among the other disciples by recruiting their mother to appeal to Jesus. Lord, forgive us for our selfishness, for having our own agenda when you were about to face the most trying time of Your life!

Mt 20:22

Mt 20:22 - But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able. - See Lk 12:50, 22:42; Joh 12:27 Jesus bears tenderly with them, not rebuking their selfishness in seeking preference above their brethren. He reads their hearts, He knows the depth of their attachment to Him. Their love is not a mere human affection; though defiled by the earthliness of its human channel, it is an outflowing from the fountain of His own redeeming love. He will not rebuke, but deepen and purify. He said, "Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" They recall His mysterious words, pointing to trial and suffering, yet answer confidently, "We are able." They would count it highest honor to prove their loyalty by sharing all that is to befall their Lord. - {DA 548.6} Soon after they had commenced their earnest cry, the angels, in sympathy, desired to go to their deliverance. But a tall, commanding angel suffered them not. He said, "The will of God is not yet fulfilled.

They must drink of the cup. They must be baptized with the baptism.” - {EW 272.2}

Mt 20:24

Mt 20:24 - And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren - the other 10 were indignant, not because the request was reprehensible, but because the two employed stratagem to achieve the very thing that they all coveted. Sad, but a bit funny!

Mt 20:25

Mt 20:25 - But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them - See Prov 18:23

Mt 20:28

Mt 20:28 - Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many - See Mk 10:45; Mt 23:111

Mt 20:28

Mt 20:28 - to give his life a ransom for many - See 1Tim 2:5, 6

Mt 20:30

Mt 20:30 - behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David - those who were blind were more perceptive than those who had sight to see. The blind men referred to Jesus as Lord, the Son of David, two references professing their belief in His Messiahship; while those with sight demanded a sign that He should prove who He was. Joh 9:39, 41

Mt 20:30

Mt 20:31 - Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David - The blind, who had never witnessed a miracle of Jesus, perceived in the reports they heard of Him that He indeed was the Messiah, the Son of God. However, those who had seen Jesus' miracles and failed to believe were the truly blind. See Jer 33:21; John 9:39-41

Mt 20:31

Mt 20:31 - the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace - the attitude of the multitude is in striking contrast to the counsels the Lord had given regarding the treatment of the poor, lame, blind and down trodden. Their lack of concern and compassion was indicative of their own spiritual blindness. Rather than be a source of encouragement, or better, a guide for these blind men to the One Who could give them their sight, the multitude sought to silence and discourage them. These blind men were themselves the lost sheep (victims) of the spiritually blind house of Israel. Compare the Jews' response towards the blind men to that of the heathens of Genneserat. See Mt 14:34-36; Isa 58

Mt 20:31

Mt 20:31 - thou Son of David - The blind, who had never witnessed a miracle of Jesus, perceived in the reports they heard of Him that He indeed was the Messiah, the Son of God. However, those who had seen Jesus' miracles and failed to believe were the truly blind. See

Jer 33:21; John 9:39-41 - See Jer 33:21

Mt 20:34

Mt 20:34 - immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him - so it is with all who genuinely seek to know the Lord and to do His will, their eyes are opened and they follow Him. See Joh 7:17; 1Pet 2:9

Mt 21:1

Mt 21:1 - Bēthphagé Noun Location bayth-fag-ay' of Aramaic origin cf (01004) and (06291) of Chaldee origin (compare and); fig-house; Beth-phage, a place in Palestine:--Bethphage. Bethphage = "house of unripe figs" the name of a hamlet between Jericho and Jerusalem, close to Bethany

Mt 21:2

Mt 21:2 - ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her - the tied (restrained) horse and colt were a "sign" for the disciples to recognize when they entered the village. That Jesus entered Jerusalem, riding upon an ass during the time of the judgment of the living among Israel (conclusion of the 490yr prophecy) symbolizes Islam as a "sign" that marks the judgment of the living and the time of the latter rain.

Mt 21:4

Mt 21:4 - that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying - See Zech 9:9

Mt 21:5

Mt 21:5 - Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass - Rulers, Judges and Leaders in Israel rode upon white asses. See Judges 5:9, 10

Mt 21:5

Mt 21:5 - sitting upon an ass - Jesus' righteousness is beheld by the people, many of whom were previously healed by Christ, who shed their robes of self righteousness to dawn Christ's robe of righteousness. As Jesus brings His message of righteousness to the people, He is carried by the ass, a message that introduces Christ's righteousness. What power must we have from God that icy hearts, having only a legal religion, should see the better things provided for them—Christ and his righteousness! A life-giving message was needed to give life to the dry bones.—Manuscript 24, 1888. - {3SM 177.2}

Mt 21:17

Mt 21:17 - And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany; and he lodged there - Jesus could always find rest in His friends' house, Martha, Mary and Lazarus. See Joh 12:36

Mt 21:19

Mt 21:19 - And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away - See 2Pet 1:5-8 Jesus cursed the fig tree bearing leaves of profession only. This was a strange act for Jesus, the Creator, Who came not to take life but to save. Yet, this instance was an object lesson to show that even the Creator will destroy that which He has made if it will not render its appointed fruit in season. See Lk 13:7 It was not the season for ripe figs, except in certain localities; and on the highlands about Jerusalem it might truly be said, "The time of figs was not yet." But in the orchard to which Jesus came, one tree appeared to be in advance of all the others. It was already covered with leaves. It is the nature of the fig tree that before the leaves open, the growing fruit appears. Therefore this tree in full leaf gave promise of well-developed fruit. But its appearance was deceptive. Upon searching its branches, from the lowest bough to the topmost twig, Jesus found "nothing but leaves." It was a mass of pretentious foliage, nothing more. - {DA 581.4} Christ uttered against it a withering curse. "No man eat fruit of thee hereafter forever," He said. The next morning, as the Saviour and His disciples were again on their way to the city, the blasted branches and drooping leaves attracted their attention. "Master," said Peter, "behold, the fig tree which Thou cursedst is withered away." - {DA 582.1}

Mt 21:22 - And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive - See Joh 14:13, 15:16, 16:23

Mt 21:23 - By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority? - Jesus had not been taught in the schools of the prophets and was therefore not recognized as one sanctioned by church leadership to teach and preach. Yet, His speech and doctrine bore a light of heavenly origin which the scribes and pharisees lacked. By what authority does Jesus these things? Such is the question asked of all men called of God but not called of men. See Mt 7:28, 29; Joh 3:2, 5:36-38, 1:25; Mk 11:28; Lk 20:2

Mt 21:25

Mt 21:25 - from heaven, or of men - was the command and works of Joh commissioned of God or were they the mere teachings of a man? The Jews were presented with the challenge of confessing that they were operating contrary to God. They chose to evade the question which was in essence an admission of guilt.

Mt 21:25

Mt 21:25 - If we shall say, From heaven - See Joh 5:33-35

Mt 21:27

Mt 21:27 - We cannot tell - This lying spirit within the Jewish leadership brought their condemnation and prevented them from entering the Kingdom of Heaven. Their unwillingness to humble themselves and accept the light that was before them brought their condemnation. They rather cavil and lie against the truth. They showed themselves to be true politicians rather than sincere followers of God. See Jam 3:14

Mt 21:31

Mt 21:31 - Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you - See 1Cor 1:25-29

Mt 21:32 - For Joh came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not - Jesus affirms the truth that Joh the Baptist was a prophet, sent of God that He posed to the Pharisees in a question.

Mt 21:37 - But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son - When remonstrance, entreaty, and rebuke had failed, He sent to them the best gift of heaven; nay, He poured out all heaven in that one Gift. - The Son of God Himself was sent to plead with the impenitent city. {GC 19.1, 2}

Mt 21:36 - This is the heir; come, let us kill him - speaking in the spirit and power of their father (demon possession), the devil, the wicked husbandman seek to destroy Jesus. See Joh 7:19, 20; 8:44; Heb 1:2, 3:6

Mt 21:41 - the fruits in their season - The righteous bring forth fruit of the Spirit in their season (time of harvest). See Gal 5:22, 23

Mt 21:42

Mt 21:42 - Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? - See Ps 118:22, 23; Lk 20:17, 18; Isa 8:14 In quoting the prophecy of the rejected stone, Christ referred to an actual occurrence in the history of Israel. The incident was connected with the building of the first temple. While it had a special application at the time of Christ's first advent, and should have appealed with special force to the Jews, it has also a lesson for us. When the temple of Solomon was erected, the immense stones for the walls and the foundation were entirely prepared at the quarry; after they were brought to the place of building, not an instrument was to be used upon them; the workmen had only to place them in position. For use in the foundation, one stone of unusual size and peculiar shape had been brought; but the workmen could find no place for it, and would not accept it. It was an annoyance to them as it lay unused in their way. Long it remained a rejected stone. But when the builders came to the laying of the corner, they searched for a long time to find a stone of sufficient size and strength, and of the proper shape, to take that particular place, and bear the great weight which would rest upon it. Should they make an unwise choice for this important place, the safety of the entire building would be endangered. They must find a stone capable of resisting the influence of the sun, of frost, and of tempest. Several stones had at different times been chosen, but under the pressure of immense weights they had crumbled to pieces. Others could not bear the test of the sudden atmospheric changes. But at last attention was called to the stone so long rejected. It had been exposed to the air, to sun and storm, without revealing the slightest crack. The builders examined this stone. It had borne every test but one. If it could bear the test of severe pressure, they decided to accept it for the cornerstone. The trial was made. The stone was accepted, brought to its assigned position, and found to be an exact fit. In prophetic vision, Isa was shown that this stone was a symbol of Christ. He says: - {DA 597.5} "Sanctify the Lord of hosts Himself; and let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread. And He shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offense to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken." Carried down in prophetic vision to the first advent, the prophet is shown that Christ is to bear trials and tests of which the treatment of the chief cornerstone in the temple of Solomon was symbolic. "Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste." Isa 8:13-15; 28:16. - {DA 598.1} In infinite wisdom, God chose the foundation stone, and laid it Himself. He called it "a sure foundation." The entire world may lay upon it their burdens and griefs; it can endure them all. With perfect safety they may build upon it. Christ is a "tried stone." Those who trust in Him, He never disappoints. He has borne every test. He has endured the pressure of Adam's guilt, and the guilt of his posterity, and has come off more than conqueror of the powers of evil. He has borne the burdens cast upon Him by every repenting sinner. In Christ the guilty heart has found relief. He is the sure foundation. All who make Him their dependence rest in perfect security. - {DA 598.2}

Mt 21:43

Mt 21:43 - The kingdom of God shall be taken from you and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof - See Lk 3:9, 20:16; 2Chron 5:1; Jer 18:9, 10; Act 13:37-52; Mk 6:11; Rom 9:1, 22-33

Mt 21:44

Mt 21:44 - And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: - Jesus gives hope that though Israel, God's firstborn (Ex 4:22) would be forsaken of Him as a Nation, those who choose to accept Jesus and fall on the Rock, will be broken, but will be made whole of Him.

In order to be born again, we must die first, repent and surrender our will to Jesus - See Jer 18:4-6; Rom 6:3 The Apostle Paul is one example of a Jew that was called of God, even after Israel's corporate rejection in A.D.34. See Gal 1:11-16; Rom 11:1

Mt 21:44 - but on whomsoever it shall fall it will grind him to powder - The Stone which the builders rejected is that which is cut out of a mountain without hands and will grind all earthly powers under His feet. See Dan 2:34, 35, 45

Mt 21:46

Mt 21:46 - But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet. - See Lk 19:48, 20:19

Mt 22:2

Mt 22:2-10 - gather for marriage supper - the time of gathering good and bad for the marriage supper of the King's son is the time that Jesus occupies the Holy Place where all who care to are gathered in.

Mt 22:2

Mt 22:2 - The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son, - The Kingdom of Heaven refers to the household of believers throughout time. The time of gathering good and bad for the marriage supper of the King's son (v2-10) is the time that Jesus occupies the Holy Place where all who care to are gathered in.

Mt 22:3

Mt 22:3 to call them that were bidden - those called to the marriage supper of the King's Son were initially the Jews, who were invited to share in a sacred covenant with God (Ex 19:3-6), yet they forsook it. See 1Pet 2:7).

Mt 22:4

Mt 22:4 - he sent forth other servants - Jesus here speaks of the prophets, whom He said the COI and their fathers killed. See Mt 23:29-39, 22:7; Lk 11:47, 48

Mt 22:6 - And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them - See 2Chron 36:15, 16; Jer 7:13

Mt 22:9 - Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage - See Rev 18:1-5

Mt 22:11

Mt 22:11-14 - had no wedding garment - the time that the King arrives and inspects the guests, whether they have a wedding garment or not is the time when Christ occupies the Most Holy Place of the heavenly sanctuary. Everyone who comes forth from the dead when Christ comes in the clouds of heaven, and those who are living, will stand before the judgment seat of Christ. The deeds and acts which we have thought to have been done in secret where no eye could see, are made known. There was an eye that saw and registered the deeds done by man. - {1SAT 27.2}

Mt 22:11

Mt 22:11-14 - had no wedding garment - the time that the King arrives and inspects the guests, whether they have a wedding garment or not is the time when Christ occupies the Most Holy Place of the heavenly sanctuary. Rev 14:7 Everyone who comes forth from the dead when Christ comes in the clouds of heaven, and those who are living, will stand before the judgment seat of Christ. The deeds and acts which we have thought to have been done in secret where no eye could see, are made known. There was an eye that saw and registered the deeds done by man. - {1SAT 27.2}

Mt 22:12

Mt 22:12 - how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? - See Zeph 1:8; 2 Kings 10:18-28; Rev 16:15

Mt 22:12

Mt 22:12 - And he was speechless - See Ps 119:6, 63:11; Rom 3:19, 14:12; Jam 2:10. In the final execution of the judgment it will be seen that no cause for sin exists. When the Judge of all the earth shall demand of Satan, "Why hast thou rebelled against Me, and robbed Me of the subjects of My kingdom?" the originator of evil can render no excuse. Every mouth will be stopped, and all the hosts of rebellion will be speechless. - {GC 503.2}

Mt 22:13

Mt 22:13 - Then said the king to the servants - See Ps 149:7-9 After the saints are changed to immortality and caught up together with Jesus, after they receive their harps, their robes, and their crowns, and enter the city, Jesus and the saints sit in judgment. The books are opened—the book of life and the book of death. The book of life contains the good deeds of the saints; and the book of death contains the evil deeds of the wicked. These books are compared with the statute book, the Bible, and according to that men are judged. The saints, in unison with Jesus, pass their judgment upon the wicked dead. "Behold ye," said the angel, "the saints, in unison with Jesus, sit in judgment, and mete out to the wicked according to the deeds done in the body, and that which they must receive at the execution of the judgment is set off against their names." This, I saw, was the work of the saints with Jesus through the one thousand years in the Holy City before it descends to the earth. {EW 52.2}

Mt 22:13

Mt 22:13 - Bind him hand and foot - See Mt 13:30, 3:12; Rev 20:1-3, 14:16-20; Joh 15:6

Mt 22:13

Mt 22:13 - their shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth - Mt 8:12, 24:51, 25:30; Lk 13:28

Mt 22:14

Mt 22:14 - many are called but few are chosen - here in the Bible, those who are both "called and chosen" are they who by faith have accepted the wedding garments and have obediently dawned them during the time of the wedding feast inspection (Investigative Judgment). Those who refuse to dawn the garments, after being treated like a friend by the King, have no excuse because the provisions were made available to them and they are therefore speechless. See Num 13:17-33

Mt 22:15

Mt 22:15 - Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk - The workers of iniquity were constantly seeking how they may entrap Jesus by His words. They knew not that they were condemning themselves through their works. Ps 56:5

Mt 22:16

Mt 22:16 - Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men - if these men knew what they said to be true, why hypocritically seek to entrap Jesus? See Mt 22:18

Mt 22:18

Mt 22:18 - But Jesus perceived their wickedness and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? - Jesus was being put to the test by selfish, self-exalting men. Jesus would later be tempted again through His disciples and converts by the same pharisees who sought to subvert the power of the gospel by men's dead works. See Mt 22:16; Ps 56:5; Act 15:10; Rom 10:1-4; James 2:15-18

Mt 22:21

Mt 22:21- Render therefore unto Caesar - Jesus here establishes a clear delineation of church and state. He makes known there are things that pertain to life here on earth that are to be upheld and the principles of heaven are equally to be upheld. The principle of a separation of church and state as it pertains to this world is a fundamental doctrine in scriptures. See 2Chron 26:16-21; Rom 13:1-10; Num 23:9; Gen 12:1; Heb 11:24, 25 "No faithful man ought to follow either the pope himself or any of the holy men, but in such points as he hath followed the Lord Jesus Christ; for Peter and the sons of Zebedee, by desiring worldly honor, contrary to the following of Christ's steps, did offend, and therefore in those errors they are not to be followed.... - {GC 91.3} "The pope ought to leave unto the secular power all temporal dominion and rule, and thereunto effectually to move and exhort his whole clergy; for so did Christ, and especially by His apostles. Wherefore, if I have erred in any of these points, I will most humbly submit myself unto correction, even by death, if necessity so require; and if I could labor according to my will or desire in mine own person, I would surely present myself before the bishop of Rome; but the Lord hath otherwise visited me to the contrary, and hath taught me rather to obey God than men." - {GC 91.4 - writings of Joh Wycliffe}

Mt 22:30

Mt 22:30 - For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven - though mankind was made a little lower than the angels, yet, the Lord has given us a glory which they do not possess, dominion over His creation and the ability to procreate. See Gen 1:28; Ps 8:4-9; Lk 20:34, 35; 1Cor 15:40

Mt 22:32

Mt 22:32 - Ex 3:15 - I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob - God is not a God of the dead but of the living. That He identifies Himself by these three men, though they sleep in Him, He calls them as those who will live forever. These men died in faith, believing the promises and their lives were hid in Christ, though they slept (Col 3:3, 4) See Ex 3:15; Mk 12:26, 27; Lk 20:38; Rom 4:17

Mt 22:32

Mt 22:32 - God is not the God of the dead, but of the living - Jesus speaks proleptically (Rom 4:17) of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob being alive because they live inside of Him Who is life eternal; our lives are hid in Christ (1Jo 5:11-14; Joh 11:25, 26, Joh 8:51, 52, 20:31; Col 3:3, 4; 1Thess 4:13, 14; Heb 12:23; 1Cor 15:45). Further, through Christ, we all will reign in life by His righteousness. See Rom 5:17, 18. Those who are not in Christ are living dead (Mt 8:22). They have not passed from death unto eternal life (Joh 5:24; 1Jo 3:14) and will die in their trespasses and sins unless they repent. To the believer, death is but a small matter. Christ speaks of it as if it were of little moment. "If a man keep My saying, he shall never see death," "he shall never taste of death." To the Christian, death is but a sleep, a moment of silence and darkness. The life is hid with Christ in God, and "when Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with Him in glory." Joh 8:51, 52; Col 3:4. - {DA 787.1}

Mt 22:37

Mt 22:37 - Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. - as the last 6 commandments of the Decalogue are summarized in loving one's neighbor as oneself (Mt 22:39; Rom 13:9, 10), so the first four commandments are summarized in loving God with all one's heart, soul and mind (Mt 22:38). God requires the training of the mental faculties. He designs that His servants shall possess more intelligence and clearer discernment than the worldling, and He is displeased with those who are too careless or too indolent to become efficient, well-informed workers. The Lord bids us love Him with all the heart, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and with all the mind. This lays upon us the obligation of developing the intellect to its fullest capacity, that with all the mind we may know and love our Creator. - {COL 333.2}

Mt 22:37

Mt 22:37 - thy heart - the heart is the seat of one's desire, one's convictions and beliefs. See Mt 12:34; Lk 6:45; Ps 73:25

Mt 22:37

Mt 22:37 - thy soul - all of our being. See 1Cor 10:31

Mt 22:37

Mt 22:37 - thy mind - one's thoughts and decisions. Phil 2:5, 6

Mt 22:38

Mt 22:38 - This is the first and great commandment - this great commandment can only be kept as God places His words in our minds and writes His commands upon the tablets of our hearts by the power of the Holy Spirit. Then and only then can this commandment be kept and fulfilled. See Heb 8:10

Mt 22:39

Mt 22:32 - And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself - as the last 6 commandments of the Decalogue are summarized in loving one's neighbor as oneself (Rom 13:9, 10), so the first four commandments are summarized in loving God with all one's heart, soul and mind.

Mt 23:4

Mt 23:4 - For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers - The pharisees ought to have led by example in their ministry, but rather, they taught by "do as I say, not as I do". See 2Tim 2:6

Mt 23:11 - But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant - See Mt 18:4, 20:28; Act 9:15; 1Cor 9:19-23

Mt 23:13

Mt 23:13 - But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in - See 3Jo 1:10; Joh 7:44-49; Rom 1:18; Lk 11:52; 1Thess 2:14-16; Act 13:44-52 The world is polluted, corrupted, as was the world in the days of Noah. The only remedy is belief in the truth, acceptance of the light. Yet many have listened to the truth spoken in demonstration of the Spirit, and they have not only refused to accept the message, but they have hated the light. These men are parties to the ruin of souls. They have interposed themselves between the heaven-sent light and the people. They have trampled upon the word of God and are doing despite to His Holy Spirit. - {TM 90.3}

Mt 23:14

Mt 23:14 - Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation. - The Pharisees dissemble in being pious when they are ravening wolves within, robbing widows of their wealth. See Gal 2:11-19; Jer 42:20; 2Pet 2:15

Mt 23:14

Mt 23:14 - for a pretence make long prayer - false piety in making long prayers.

Mt 23:23

Mt 23:23 - Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. - See Lk 16:15; Mt 27:6-8

Mt 23:24

Mt 23:24 - which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel - Among other things the people were required to strain all the water used, lest it should contain the smallest insect, which might be classed with the unclean animals. Jesus, contrasting these trivial exactions with the magnitude of their actual sins, said to the Pharisees, "Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel." - {DA 617.2}

Mt 23:25

Mt 23:25 - Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess - See Isa 29:15; Mt 23:14

Mt 23:27 - Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness - See Act 23:3

Mt 23:30 - If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers of them in the blood of the prophets - See 2Kin 9:7; 2Chron 36:15, 16; Lam 4:12, 13; Mt 27:25; Rev 16:6, 18:24 Look at the Jewish church, and mark how soon after it had rejected the Messiah at his first coming, they put him to a cruel death, and slew also many of his apostles and saints. They said indeed (Matt. xxiii) that had they lived in the days of their fathers, they would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. But when their "hour and the power of darkness" came upon them, how completely did it show them under the power of Satan! Lk xxii, 53; Joh vii, 30. [The Three Angels of Rev 14:6-12, pg 109, J.N. Mt 23:35

Mt 23:35 - unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar - the reference to Zacharias as the son of Barachias was probably added by the translators by error as the parallel reference in Lk 11:51 makes no reference to Zacharias' lineage. Also, the book 2Chronicles, which historically appeared as the last book of the Jewish Bible gave reference to the fact that from Abel, the first book, to Zacharias, the last book, the Jews would be guilty of the sin of all the innocents who were slain. See 2Chron 24:20-22; Zech 1:1

Mt 23:36 - Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation - Jesus spoke prophetically of the impending destruction that would befall Jerusalem in that generation, within the spans of 40 years. See Mt 24:14-20

Mt 23:37

Mt 23:37 - O Jerusalem, Jerusalem - the lamentation of Christ echoes the message of the 2nd Angel, Babylon is Fallen is Fallen, as He pronounces judgments upon those that have rejected His mercies and grace. See Hosea 11:8; Isa 21:9; Rev 14:8; Isa 65:2; Lk 13:34 When Christ saw in the Jewish people a nation divorced from God, he saw also a professed Christian church united to the world and the Papacy. And as he stood upon Mount Olivet, weeping over Jerusalem till the sun sank behind the western hills, so he is watching over and pleading with sinners in these last moments of time. Soon he will say to the angels who are holding the four winds, "Let the plagues loose; let darkness, destruction, and death come upon the transgressors of my law." Will he be obliged to say to those who have had great light and great knowledge, as he said to the Jews, "O that thou hadst known, even thou in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace. But now they are hid from thine eyes."? (D.E.R August 22, 1900). - {KC 153.3}

Mt 23:37

Mt 23:37 - thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee - 2Chron 36:15, 16; Lk 13:33, 34

Mt 23:37

Mt 23:37 - how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings - Jesus here foretells the impending destruction of Jerusalem, not only in AD70 at the hands of the Rom, but a forecast of the ultimate destruction of the wicked where those who have not made peace with God will be unsheltered from the plagues that fall when man's probation has closed. See Ps 91:1-9, 27:5 The messages of the prophets, the prophetic word was given to gather and align God's people to Himself that they may have life - See Ezekiel 37:7-10 Then the angel repeated these words, and said, "This is the time spoken of in Isa. He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor. He had no mediator between God and man, and these plagues could be withheld no longer, for Jesus had ceased to plead for Israel, and they were covered with the covering of the Almighty God, and then they could live in the sight of a holy God, and those who were not covered, the plagues fell upon them, for they had nothing to shelter or protect them from the wrath of God." Dorchester, [Mass.], October 23, 1850. - {SpM 2.3} Thousands who have not an experimental knowledge of Christ will be swept into this deception. A form of godliness without the power is just what they desire. The Romanist feels at liberty to sin, because the church claims the right to pardon. To him who loves self-indulgence, it is more pleasing to confess to a fellow-mortal than to open the soul to God. It is more palatable to human nature to do penance than to renounce sin. It is easier to mortify the flesh by sackcloth and nettles and galling chains than to crucify fleshly lusts. Heavy is the yoke which the carnal heart is willing to bear rather than bow to the yoke of Christ. - {4SP 383.3}

Mt 23:37 - and ye would not! - See Joh 5:40

Mt 23:38

Mt 23:38 - Behold, your house is left unto you desolate - See Mic 3:9-12; Hag 2:3-9; Zech 6:12, 13; 1Sam 4:21; Mt 21:43; Compare Lk 19:46 Throughout Jesus' earthly ministry, He declared the temple in Jerusalem as His Father's house that was being desecrated by men's selfishness and greed (Mt 21:13). Jesus, in this statement, has given a letter of divorce to the earthly sanctuary and all who would remain tied to its rites. Jesus revealed to the world that He was no longer to be sought after through Jewish rites and customs, and that His glorious presence had departed (Eze 24:21, 37:28). No longer would salvation be found through the works of Jewish statutes (established by God and perverted by men - Ecc 7:29) but through God's new order that He raised up through Jesus Christ (Heb 12:24; Mt 26:28; Mk 14:24). The former house, the sanctuary of the Old Covenant was pronounced desolate. Henceforth, Jesus would point all of His believers to the sanctuary of the New Covenant in the heavenly Jerusalem, the house of God not made with man's hands. See Heb 8:2, 6, 10:9, 12:22; Rev 21; 2Cor 5:1; Joh 14:2 That is the true purpose of God in the sanctuary and its service in all time: whether in the figure or in the true, whether for Jews or for Gentiles, whether on earth or in heaven. Seventy weeks or four hundred and ninety years, was the limitation set for the Jews to have this accomplished for and in themselves. To accomplish this, to that people, of all people, Christ Himself came in person to show to them the Way and to lead them in this Way. But they would not have it. Instead of seeing in Him the gracious One who would finish transgression and make an end of sins, and make reconciliation for iniquity, and bring in everlasting righteousness to every soul, they saw in Him only "Beelzebub the prince of the devils"; only One instead of whom they would readily choose a murderer; only One who as King they would openly repudiate and choose a Roman Caesar as their only king; only One whom they counted as fit only to be crucified out of the world. For such a people as that and in such a people as that, could He finish transgression and make an end of sins and make reconciliation for iniquity and bring in everlasting righteousness?--Impossible. Impossible by their own persistent rebellion. Instead of His being allowed by them to do such a gracious and wonderful work for them, from the depths of divine pity and sorrow He was compelled to say to them: "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate." "The kingdom of God shall be taken from you and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof." Matt. 23:37, 38; 21:43 {A.T. Jones, The Consecrated Way to Christina Perfection, Chapter XV The Cleansing of the Sanctuary, pg 116}

Mt 23:39

Mt 23:39 - Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the LORD - Jesus foretold that a veil of darkness that barred them from the the light of truth would remain upon the COI until they acknowledge Jesus as LORD and Savior. This veil is likened unto the veil which covered Moses' faith, blinding/vailing the people from the glory of God shining from Moses' face. See 2Cor 3:7-16; Hos 13:9, 14:1 In the apostasy, man alienated himself from God; earth was cut off from heaven. Across the gulf that lay between, there could be no communion. But through Christ, earth is again linked with heaven. With His own merits, Christ has bridged the gulf which sin had made, so that the ministering angels can hold communion with man. Christ connects fallen man in his weakness and helplessness with the Source of infinite power. - {SC 20.1}

Mt 23:39 - Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord - Jesus quotes the inspired words of David as well as that which the people and children sung as He made His triumphal entrance into Jerusalem (Ps 118:25, 26; Mt 21:8, 9; Lk 19:38). Until the Jews acknowledged Jesus as Christ and Lord singing, Hosanna, Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the LORD (Jehovah - The I Am) they would never see Jesus in peace.

Mt 24:1

Mt 24:1 - his disciples came for to shew him the buildings of the temple - See Lk 21:5; Jer 7:12-14 Early in His ministry Christ had said, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." In the figurative language of prophecy, He had thus foretold His own death and resurrection. "He spake of the temple of His body." Joh 2:19, 21. These words the Jews had understood in a literal sense, as referring to the temple at Jerusalem. Of all that Christ had said, the priests could find nothing to use against Him save this. By misstating these words they hoped to gain an advantage. The Rom had engaged in rebuilding and embellishing the temple, and they took great pride in it; any contempt shown to it would be sure to excite their indignation. Here Rom and Jews, Pharisees and Sadducees, could meet; for all held the temple in great veneration. {DA 705.3}

Mt 24:2

Mt 24:2 - See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down - That which took place under the Babylonians would be repeated under the Rom. See Eze 24:21

Mt 24:2

Mt 24:2 - There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down - This confused the Disciples and filled them with consternation as they contemplated God's promise to Solomon regarding the temple (1Kin 9:3). They thought, "surely the day the temple is destroyed, this must be the end of the world". See *Jer 7:1-14, 26:18; Micah 3:9-12; Hos 13:9, 14:1; Act 17:23, 24; Mt 24:3; Lk 19:44

Mt 24:3

Mt 24:3 - Tell us, when shall these things be? And what will be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? - The disciples, having been taught to reverence the sanctuary as the very presence of God as opposed to a mere type, a shadow of the true in heaven, thought 'surely, the aforementioned destruction of the temple in Jerusalem must mark the end of the world.' Prophecy not only foretells the manner and object of Christ's coming, but presents tokens by which men are to know when it is near. Said Jesus: "There shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars." Luke 21:25. "The sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory." Mark 13:24-26. The revelator thus describes the first of the signs to precede the second advent: "There was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood." Revelation 6:12. - {GC 304.1}

Mt 24:4

Mt 24:4 - Jesus answered and said unto them - the question posed by the Disciples was one which if answered directly would shake them to their core (Joh 16:12). In mercy Jesus answered their questions by illustrating and combining details of three prophetic histories, the destruction of Jerusalem, the Dark Ages and the Time of the End.

Mt 24:4

Mt 24:4 - Take heed that no man deceive you - Paul gives the same warning to the church of Thessalonica regarding the Second Coming of Christ. The warning is that falsehood and lies will abound in the last days - See 2Thess 2:1-3; Lk 21:8

Mt 24:5

Mt 24:5 - For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many - This is the spirit of antichrist, where many come professing Christ but are ravening wolves, seeking to destroy the flock - See Deut 18:21, 22; Mk 15:6, 7; Act 5:36, 37; 1Jo 2:18, 19 How to know the Spirit of Truth: Deut 18:21, 22; 1Jo 4:1-6 Pastors who wrest Scripture and cause saints to stumble and fall: 2Pet 3:15, 16; Rom 16:17, 18

Mt 24:5

Mt 24:5 - saying, I am Christ - On this point, the Church of Rome has excelled all in its boastful claims that include: "The Pope is not only the representative of Jesus Christ, he is Jesus Christ Himself hidden under the veil of flesh" - The Catholic National - July 1895 · "God Himself is obliged to abide by the judgements of His priests, and either not to pardon or to pardon, according as they refuse or give absolution. The sentence of the priest precedes and God subscribes to it" - Dignities and Duties of the Priest vol 12, pg 27 · "All names in the Scriptures which are applied to Christ, by virtue of which it is established that He is over the church, all the same names are applied to the pope." - Cardinal Bellarmine, "On the Authority of Councils", Vol 2, pg 266 · "We hold upon this earth the place of God Almighty" - The Great Encyclical Letters of Pope Leo XIII, Encyclical Letter, June 20, 1894 · "We define that the Holy Apostolic See and the Roman Pontiff holds the primacy over the whole world" - The Most Holy Councils, vol

Mt 24:7

Mt 24:7 - there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places - See 1Kin 17, 18 While appearing to the children of men as a great physician who can heal all their maladies, he will bring disease and disaster, until populous cities are reduced to ruin and desolation. Even now he is at work. In accidents and calamities by sea and by land, in great conflagrations, in fierce tornadoes and terrific hailstorms, in tempests, floods, cyclones, tidal waves, and earthquakes, in every place and in a thousand forms, Satan is exercising his power. He sweeps away the ripening harvest, and famine and distress follow. He imparts to the air a deadly taint, and thousands perish by the pestilence. These visitations are to become more and more frequent and disastrous. Destruction will be upon both man and beast. "The earth mourneth and fadeth away," "the haughty people ... do languish. The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant." Isa 24:4, 5. - {GC 589.3}

Mt 24:7 - pestilences - outbreaks of noxious diseases, infections, sicknesses - COVID, smallpox, monkey pox, leprosy

Mt 24:7

Mt 24:7 - earthquakes - What mean the awful calamities by sea—vessels hurled into eternity without a moment's warning? What mean the accidents by land—fire consuming the riches that men have hoarded, much of which has been accumulated by oppression of the poor? The Lord will not interfere to protect the property of those who transgress His law, break His covenant, and trample upon His Sabbath, accepting in its place a spurious rest day. - {LDE 27.4} The plagues of God are already falling upon the earth, sweeping away the most costly structures as if by a breath of fire from heaven. Will not these judgments bring professing Christians to their senses? God permits them to come that the world may take heed, that sinners may be afraid and tremble before Him.—Manuscript Releases 3:311 (1902). - {LDE 28.1} God has a purpose in permitting these calamities to occur. They are one of His means of calling men and women to their senses. By unusual workings through nature God will express to doubting human agencies that which He clearly reveals in His Word.—Manuscript Releases 19:279 (1902). - {LDE 28.2} How frequently we hear of earthquakes and tornadoes, of destruction by fire and flood, with great loss of life and property! Apparently these calamities are capricious outbreaks of disorganized, unregulated forces of nature, wholly beyond the control of man, but in them all God's purpose may be read. They are among the agencies by which He seeks to arouse men and women to a sense of their danger.—Prophets and Kings, 277 (c. 1914). - {LDE 28.3}

Mt 24:9

Mt 24:9 - Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you - See John 16:1-3

Mt 24:9

Mt 24:9 - ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake - those who stand for righteousness, demonstrating close fidelity to Christ have suffered persecution of men, even other professed Christians who do not walk in the light of truth. Such will be the case when the healing of the beast's wound occurs. The world will wonder after the beast, and the saints of God will be hated of all nations. See 1Kin 18; Rev 13:3, 4; 1Jo 3:

Mt 24:10

Mt 24:10 - many shall be offended - the many here spoken of are those who once kept faithful the commandments of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ. Unwilling to bear the strait testimony of the True Witness that their sins might be blotted out and that they receive the latter rain, and with the reproaches from the world and from the workers of iniquity, even within the church, many will be offended, and will betray one another and will hate one another. See Joh 6:53-66; PH016 10.1-12.1; DA 391.2, 3

Mt 24:10

Mt 24:10 - shall betray one another - On every occasion when persecution takes place, those who witness it make decisions either for Christ or against Him. Those who manifest sympathy for the ones wrongly condemned show their attachment for Christ. Others are offended because the principles of truth cut directly across their practice. Many stumble and fall, apostatizing from the faith they once advocated. Those who apostatize in time of trial will, to secure their own safety, bear false witness, and betray their brethren. Christ has warned us of this, that we may not be surprised at the unnatural, cruel course of those who reject the light. - {DA 630.2}

Mt 24:10

Mt 24:10 - and shall hate one another - See 1Jo 2:8-11

Mt 24:11

Mt 24:11 - many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many - in the time of Jesus' first advent, false prophets such as Barabbas (Mk 15:7), Theudas, Judas of Galilee (Act 5:36, 37), Barjesus (Act 13:6-12), Simon the sorcerer (Act 8:9-24) were prominent, deceiving and being deceived. See Deut 18:21, 22 Today, modern Evangelical leaders are filling this role in leading many to their destruction. Those who claim fidelity to Christ and speak of Christian values (Kenneth Copeland, Franklin Graham, Paula White, Jesse Duplantis, etc.), while supporting a vile leader such as Donald Trump who has pledged to do their biddings, fit the description of a false prophet.

Mt 24:11

Mt 24:11 - many who were once faithful will be deceived by false prophets and led astray. See Mt 24:24

Mt 24:12

Mt 24:12 - because iniquity shall abound - When men have forsaken all goodness, morality, and truth (Ps 12:8; Ezek 14:3, 4) and pressure is applied to those who claim to walk in the faith, then the base metal will be revealed from the purified gold. Those who once claimed fidelity to Christ will, for self-preservation, refute any allegiance to Him. I have been shown that the Spirit of the Lord is being withdrawn from the earth. God's keeping power will soon be refused to all who continue to disregard His commandments. The reports of fraudulent transactions, murders, and crimes of every kind are coming to us daily. Iniquity is becoming so common a thing that it no longer shocks the senses as it once did.—Letter 258, 1907. - {LDE 27.3}

Mt 24:12

Mt 24:12 - the love of many shall wax cold - because iniquities and offenses abound, many will become bitter and will lose the love of Christ. They will be offended and will cease to demonstrate the perfection of Christian character demanded by their Father in loving their enemies, praying for and doing good to those who spitefully use and abuse. They in turn will embrace the spirit and nature of Satan. See 1Pet 4:12, 13; Heb 10:35-39, *12:15; Mt 5:44-48

Mt 24:13

Mt 24:13 - he that shall endure to the end shall be saved - the race is not to the swift but to those who endure. We must run the race as those who are running for an imperishable crown. We must be as soldiers, faithfully committed to the One who has enlisted us. We must be overcomers, upholding the faith once delivered to the saints in order to inherit all things. See 2Tim 2:3-7; 1Jo 5:5; Ju 1:3; Rev 21:7, 2:7, 11, 17, 26-28, 3:5, 12; Rom 2:7

Mt 24:14

Mt 24:14- And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come - See Rev 14:6 this prophecy has dual application to the time of the destruction of Jerusalem and at the end of the world: Paul affirms that the gospel had gone to everyone under heaven prior to A.D.70 (Col 1:23; Mk 16:20) as a witness (Joh 12:47, 48), so that the end of the Nation of Israel would come at that time. This is to be repeated again at the end of the world according to the 3-Angel's Messages (Rev 14:6-12). In the prophecy of Jerusalem's destruction Christ said, "Because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come." This prophecy will again be fulfilled. The abounding iniquity of that day finds its counterpart in this generation. So with the prediction in regard to the preaching of the gospel. Before the fall of Jerusalem, Paul, writing by the Holy Spirit, declared that the gospel was preached to "every creature which is under heaven." Col 1:23. So now, before the coming of the Son of man, the everlasting gospel is to be preached "to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people." Rev 14:6, 14. {DA 633:3} More than eighteen centuries have passed since the apostles rested from their labors, but the history of their sacrifices for Christ is still among the most precious treasures of the church. As these messengers of the cross went forth to proclaim the gospel, there was such a revelation of the glory of God as had never before been witnessed. To every nation was the gospel carried in a single generation. - {TT 310.1} Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 415.5} The light of the Sun of Righteousness is to shine forth in good works—in words of truth and deeds of holiness. - {COL 416.1}

Mt 24:14

Mt 24:14 - this gospel of the kingdom - the gospel of the kingdom is abiding in Jesus and Jesus abiding in us continually - Christ in you the hope of glory. Experiencing heaven on earth; living for the highest calling. Becoming One with Jesus and revealing God the Father. COL 415.5; 1Tim 3:16; 1Jo 4:1-3; Col 1:25-29; Gal 2:20 Gospel: Rom 1:16; 1Cor 1:24, 25, 17, 18, 2:1-5 Kingdom: Lk 17:20, 21 the gospel to be preached in all the world for witness - spoken here is the gospel of Jesus, the Messiah and Prince (Dan 9:25) As well as of the two desolators, pagan and papal Rome.. Consider that Jesus preached the gospel of the Kingdom's arrival at the appointed time of the fulfillment of the prophecy given by Dan 9:24, after Jesus' baptism (Mk 1:14, 15). The gospel was indeed given to all the world in the time of the apostle's according to Paul (Col 1:23). There are many gospel messages revealed in Scripture, but the gospel for this time is embodied in the 3-Angel's Messages of Revelation 14:6-12. The messages proclaim the everlasting gospel, that Jesus Saves, and to worship the God of Creation. Other gospels shown throughout Scripture include: 1. The Everlasting Gospel - Gen 3:15 a. Honor is given to those who see the value in God's Kingdom and place it first above all other priorities in life. Those who seek/desire to be transformed by God to become like those in His Kingdom are honored 2. God Himself left heaven to fight for the people of His kingdom. He died for those in His kingdom in order to rescue them from harm and danger forever 3. God is King over His Kingdom, He created all things, He sustains (keeps everything alive) all things, and He has the right to rule 4. Mt 24:14

Mt 24:14 - for a witness unto all nations - the gospel message that has and will go out into all the world will stand as a witness in judgment, whether men's works are wicked or righteous based on their reception or rejection of the gospel message. The redeemed of the LORD are to proclaim this truth to all, whether they will or will not hear - See Joh 12:47-50; Prov 5:22; Ps 107:2 Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, "Behold your God." The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to

Rev 22:11; Jude 1:14, 15; Ecc 12:13, 14 "When the character of Christ shall be perfectly reproduced in His people, then He will come to claim them as His own." {Christ's Object Lessons pg 69}

Mt 24:15

Mt 24:15 - when ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation - See Lk 19:43 When ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. Then let them which are in Jua flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto. For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled." This warning was given to be heeded forty years [one generation] after, at the destruction of Jerusalem. The Christians obeyed the warning, and not a Christian perished in the fall of the city. - {DA 630.3} When the idolatrous standards of the Rom should be set up in the holy ground, which extended some furlongs outside the city walls, then the followers of Christ were to find safety in flight. When the warning sign should be seen, those who would escape must make no delay. Throughout the land of Judea, as well as in Jerusalem itself, the signal for flight must be immediately obeyed. He who chanced to be upon the housetop must not go down into his house, even to save his most valued treasures. Those who were working in the fields or vineyards must not take time to return for the outer garment laid aside while they should be toiling in the heat of the day. They must not hesitate a moment, lest they be involved in the general destruction. - {GC 25.4}

Mt 24:15

Mt 24:15 - spoken of by Dan the prophet, stand in the holy place - See Dan 9:26, 27, 8:23-25

Mt 24:16

Mt 24:16 - Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains - the Lord gave His sheep the sign for them to leave the cities and resort to country living in the mountains. Not one Christian perished in the destruction of Jerusalem. Christ had given His disciples warning, and all who believed His words watched for the promised sign. "When ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies," said Jesus, "then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. Then let them which are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out." Lk 21:20, 21. After the Rom under Cestius had surrounded the city, they unexpectedly abandoned the siege when everything seemed favorable for an immediate attack. The besieged, despairing of successful resistance, were on the point of surrender, when the Roman general withdrew his forces without the least apparent reason. But God's merciful providence was directing events for the good of His own people. The promised sign had been given to the waiting Christians, and now an opportunity was offered for all who would, to obey the Saviour's warning. Events were so overruled that neither Jews nor Rom should hinder the flight of the Christians. Upon the retreat of Cestius, the Jews, sallying from Jerusalem, pursued after his retiring army; and while both forces were thus fully engaged, the Christians had an opportunity to leave the city. At this time the country also had been cleared of enemies who might have endeavored to intercept them. At the time of the siege, the Jews were assembled at Jerusalem to keep the Feast of Tabernacles, and thus the Christians throughout the land were able to make their escape unmolested. Without delay they fled to a place of safety—the city of Pella, in the land of Perea, beyond Jordan. - {GC 30.2}

Mt 24:17 - Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house: 18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes. - In other words, "Don't Look Back!" What we do not have, we do not need. The Lord will provide for us in the day we must leave all behind.

Mt 24:19

Mt 24:19 - And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days! - Jesus speaks of the physical and spiritual trials that are to befall the saints during the Time of Trouble and tribulation. The strain of hunger, the feelings of fear will all be heightened in the one having to care or nurse a child or infant. See 1Cor 7:29

Mt 24:20

Mt 24:20 - But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day - it is possible that the Time of Trouble, spoken by Daniel the Prophet, will span no more than a week, given the counsel to pray that our flight not be on the Sabbath - See Dan 12:1

Mt 24:20

Mt 24:20 - flight be not in the winter - Jesus, ever the Good Shepherd and mindful of His sheep, counsels that we pray that our flight not be in inclement weather for our physical safety. Jesus then compliments His concern for our spiritual well being, that we may enjoy the rest of the Sabbath and receive God's rest and refreshing from above to endure the trial that lies before us. This verse reveals God's concern for both our physical and spiritual well being. The counsel regarding the Sabbath is not merely about the need to honor God's holy commandment, but as the Sabbath was made for man to be a blessing, Jesus desires that His sheep not be restrained from receiving the blessing and sanctification that comes from worshipping Him. See 3Jo 1:2; Mk 2:27

Mt 24:20

Mt 24:20 - neither on the sabbath day - Jesus, speaking of future events instructs His followers to pray that their flight from destruction not occur on the Sabbath, so that they may honor and reverence the day. It was prohibited to travel long distances on the Sabbath as that would be considered work [See Act 1:12; contrast Act 20:7-15; Lk 24:13]. Jesus' intention was that His followers keep the seventh-day Sabbath, memorialized in the fourth commandment forever. Traveling on the Sabbath If we desire the blessing promised to the obedient, we must observe the Sabbath more strictly. I fear that we often travel on this day when it might be avoided. In harmony with the light which the Lord has given in regard to the observance of the Sabbath, we should be more careful about traveling on the boats or cars on this day. In these matters we should set a right example before our children and youth. In order to reach the churches that need our help, and to give them the message that God desires them to hear, it may be necessary for us to travel on the Sabbath; but so far as possible we should secure our tickets and make all necessary arrangements on some other day. When starting on a journey we should make every possible effort to plan so as to avoid reaching our destination on the Sabbath. - {6T 359.4} When compelled to travel on the Sabbath we should try to avoid the company of those who would draw our attention to worldly things. We should keep our minds stayed upon God and commune with Him. Whenever there is opportunity we should speak to others in regard to the truth. We should always be ready to relieve suffering and to help those in need. In such cases God desires that the knowledge and wisdom He has given us should be put to use. But we should not talk about matters of business or engage in any common, worldly conversation. At all times and in all places God requires us to prove our loyalty to Him by honoring the Sabbath. - {6T 360.1}

Mt 24:21 - For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be - See Dan 12:1-3

Mt 24:22

Mt 24:22 - except those days be shortened - the period of persecution during the Dark Ages concluded in 1773, 25 years prior to the papacy receiving a deadly wound in fulfillment of this prophecy. The persecution of the church did not continue throughout the entire period of the 1260 years. God in mercy to his people cut short the time of their fiery trial. In foretelling the "great tribulation" to befall the church, the Saviour said, "Except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved; but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened." [Mt 24:22.] Through the influence of the Reformation, the persecution was brought to an end prior to 1798. - {GC88 266.3}

Mt 24:24

Mt 24:24 - shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders - See Rev 13:13-15, 19:20

Mt 24:24

Mt 24:24 - great signs and wonders - Spiritualism, the working of devils, embodies this prophecy [miraculous healings, various articles being transported from place to place, beautiful and detestable music produced independent of human agency, persons carried through the air in the presence of others, tables suspended in the air with people upon them, spirits presenting themselves in bodily form and talking with an audible voice - Taken from Dan and the Rev, 586, Uriah Smith]. See Rev 16:13, 14

Mt 24:24

Mt 24:24 - elect - the elect are sons of Abraham (Gal 3:29) who are elect because they abide in God's Elect, Jesus Christ - See Isa 42:1-4; 1Pet 2:6; Eph. 1:4, 5; 2Thess 2:10, 13; Rom 8:33, 11:5-8

Mt 24:26

Mt 24:26 - go not forth - See Jer 23:21

Mt 24:26

Mt 24:26 - secret chambers - a reference to Spiritualism, mysticism [prayer labryinths, soaking prayers, transcendental meditation, spiritual exercises - spiritual formation]. See Eze 8:10-12

Mt 24:27

Mt 24:27 - For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be - Christ will come from the east and fill the heavens with His glory, across all the earth. See Rev 1:7; 16:12; Jude 1:14

Mt 24:28

Mt 24:28 - For wheresoever the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered together - a possible reference to the feast of the birds that figuratively will occur at the Second Coming of Christ. See Rev 19:17, 18

Mt 24:29

Mt 24:29-31 - Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: - The Millerites beheld all the signs and fulfilled the prophecies spoken by Jesus in their era: 1. The signs in the sun, moon and stars where the heavens were shaken with the falling of the stars on November 13, 1833 2. The distress of nations with the Ottoman Empire being restrained on August 11, 1840 by the four European Powers 3. Jesus coming in the clouds to the Ancient of Days to begin the Judgment; Dan 7:13, 14

Mt 24:29

Mt 24:29 - after the tribulation of those days - The LORD presents multiple understandings/fulfillments of His prophecies for His sons to understand: 1. The tribulation of those days first refers to the tribulations held under the church of Thyatira, the Dark Ages under the church of Rome. The 1235yrs of open persecution and martyring of the saints was a time of great tribulation for the sincere people of God. 2. The tribulations of the Time of Trouble, such as was never till that day nor ever shall be is the secondary fulfillment of the prophecy. The era of earths history when the Holy Spirit will have been fully withdrawn and the devil will have full sway over the masses that have not received the seal of God, will be the time of great trouble, tribulation and peril for the saints of God.

Mt 24:29

Mt 24:29 - shall the sun be darkened - See Rev 6:12; Joe 2:10, 31 In the Diary of the American Revolution, Frank Moore noted that 2 o'clock in the afternoon was the darkest period, when a candle was needed to see anything. "The dunghill fowls went to their roost, cocks crowed in answer to each other as they commonly do in the nights; wood-cocks, which are night birds whistled as they do only in the dark; frogs peeped; in short there was the appearance of midnight." By four o'clock, "there appeared quick flashes or coruscations, not unlike the aurora borealis." {The Massachusetts Society Sons of the American Revolution, Paul N. Herbert, March 9, 2013}

Mt 24:29

Mt 24:29 - the moon shall not give her light - The moon will be turned to blood. See Rev 6:12; Joe 2:10

Mt 24:29

Mt 24:29 - stars fall from heaven - The fulfillment of the stars falling from heaven occurred on November 13, 1833 and was a fulfillment of the prophecies of Joe and Jesus. This event empowered William Miller's preaching of the soon return of Jesus, who was ordained a minister of the gospel earlier in the year. In the New York Journal of Commerce of November 14, 1833, appeared a long article regarding this wonderful phenomenon, containing this statement: "No philosopher or scholar has told or recorded an event, I suppose, like that of yesterday morning. A prophet eighteen hundred years ago foretold it exactly, if we will be at the trouble of understanding stars falling to mean falling stars, ... in the only sense in which it is possible to be literally true." - {GC 334.1} Thus was displayed the last of those signs of His coming, concerning which Jesus bade His disciples: "When ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors." Mt 24:33. After these signs, Joh beheld, as the great event next impending, the heavens departing as a scroll, while the earth quaked, mountains and islands removed out of their places, and the wicked in terror sought to flee from the presence of the Son of man. Rev 6:12-17. - {GC 334.2} Many who witnessed the falling of the stars, looked upon it as a herald of the coming judgment, "an awful type, a sure forerunner, a merciful sign, of that great and dreadful day."—"The Old Countryman," in Portland Evening Advertiser, November 26, 1833. Thus the attention of the people was directed to the fulfillment of prophecy, and many were led to give heed to the warning of the second advent. - {GC 334.3}

Mt 24:29

Mt 24:29 - stars fall from heaven - See Rev 6:13. The fulfillment of the stars falling from heaven occurred on November 13, 1833 and was a fulfillment of the prophecies of Joe and Jesus. Mt 24:29

Mt 24:29 - powers of the heavens shall be shaken - the great celestial manifestations that ushered in a time of spiritual awakening for the prophecies of the Bible is here spoken. The shaking of the heavens was to draw men's attention to the great and dreadful day of the LORD. The secondary fulfillment of this prophecy will be in the shaking of the earth and heavens by the LORD when the LOUD CRY of the 4th Angel is sounded causing many to be shaken out Of the faith, while others are gathered in (Heb 12:25-26).

Mt 24:30

Mt 24:30 - appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven - the primary fulfillment of this prophecy is seen in the events leading up to Jesus, coming in the clouds to the Ancient of Days on October 22, 1844 to begin His work as High Priest in the Most Holy Place of the sanctuary, namely the Seven Thunders (Rev 10:3, 4).

Mt 24:30

Mt 24:30 - then shall all the earth mourn - the mourning here saw its first fulfillment in the distress of nations with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring because of Islam (Lk 21:24) - 1838-1840. The mourning may also refer to the contrition exhibited by the righteous in anticipation of Jesus' assumed Second Coming in the time of 1832-1843. The secondary fulfillment is seen today as Islam angers the nations and causes men's hearts to fear for the things coming upon the earth (Rev 11:18). The sighing and crying among the righteous is also perhaps a fulfillment of the mourning taking place (Eze 9:4). Finally, the kings of the earth and all the unrighteous will mourn the appearing of Jesus Christ (Rev 6:16) - See Rev 1:7

Mt 24:30

Mt 24:30 - Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory - The first fulfillment of this prophecy was on October 22, 1844 when Jesus entered the heavenly court scene to officiate as Judge and Advocate in judgment. During this time the Bible states that Jesus receives dominion, glory, and a kingdom (Dan 7:13, 14; Lk 19:12-15). The secondary fulfillment of this verse is seen in the great Second Coming of Christ when He will come with clouds and great glory to receive His kingdom and take His people to heaven.

Mt 24:31

Mt 24:31 - he shall send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet - the first fulfillment of this prophecy is seen in the Seventh Trumpet beginning to sound on October 22, 1844, heralding the start of Judgment in Heaven, the heavenly and great Day of Atonement. The LORD would send out His angels, the 3 Angel's Messages joined by the 4th to sound the trumpet and gather His people from the four corners of the earth (Rev 14:6-12, 16; 18:1-4). The second fulfillment is when Jesus comes with the voice of the Archangel and trumpet of God to separate the wheat from the tares (Mt 13:36-43) and to gather the dead and living saints into His heavenly garner (1Thess 4:16, 17; Joh 5:25; Rev 14:14-16; Zech 9:14-16)

Mt 24:32

Mt 24:32 - putteth forth leaves - See Isa 27:8

Mt 24:32

Mt 24:32 - summer is night - summer is the time of harvest when the fruit are gathered in. See Dan 2:35; Mt 9:38

Mt 24:34

Mt 24:34 - This generation shall not pass - the Bible at times speaks of a generation as approximately 40years. Though time is no more, those who behold the budding leaves of spring will also see the coming of the Son of Man.

Mt 24:35

Mt 24:35 - Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away - See Ps 12:6,

7; Isa 40:8; Ps 33:11; Lk 21:33; Mk 13:31; 1Pet 1:23

Mt 24:36

Mt 24:36 - But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only. - No man, no angel, not even Christ maketh known the day nor the hour, only the Father in heaven. None can declare the day or hour, not even Jesus Christ Who, like the Father, knows all things. Though none may know the day or the hour, we are to be children of light who are not caught unaware by Christ's coming. As we see the events foretelling Jesus' 2nd Coming we may know that it is near, even at the doors (Mt 24:33). This is neither saying that we will never know the day nor the hour, it is only saying it is not for man, angel or Christ to reveal this mystery, only the Father in heaven. See Zech 14:7-9; Mk 13:32; 1Thess 5:1-9 One saying of the Saviour must not be made to destroy another. Though no man knoweth the day nor the hour of His coming, we are instructed and required to know when it is near. We are further taught that to disregard His warning, and refuse or neglect to know when His advent is near, will be as fatal for us as it was for those who lived in the days of Noah not to know when the flood was coming. {GC370.2}. See 1Thess 5:1-8 Soon we heard the voice of God like many waters, which gave us the day and hour of Jesus' coming. The living saints, 144,000 in number, knew and understood the voice, while the wicked thought it was thunder and an earthquake. When God spoke the time, He poured upon us the Holy Ghost, and our faces began to light up and shine with the glory of God, as Moses' did when he came down from Mount Sinai. - {CET 58.1}

Mt 24:36

Mt 24:35 - knoweth - meaning "maketh known" - 1Cor 2:2; DA 632

Mt 24:37

Mt 24:37 - But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be - So it is today. Men are rushing on in the chase for gain and selfish indulgence as if there were no God, no heaven, and no hereafter. In Noah's day the warning of the flood was sent to startle men in their wickedness and call them to repentance. So the message of Christ's soon coming is designed to arouse men from their absorption in worldly things. It is intended to awaken them to a sense of eternal realities, that they may give heed to the invitation to the Lord's table. - {COL 228.2}

Mt 24:38

Mt 24:38 - they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage - Jesus is not suggesting that any of these acts were sinful, but on the contrary, they were normal acts which God had blessed and ordained for men. Yet, Jesus states that men did not give heed to the times in which they were living and ignored the counsels being given by the prophet of the Lord that destruction would soon disrupt the normalcy to which all were accustomed. The people were lulled into a sense of false security by a Peace & Safety message given by the men of science and pundits. See 1Thess 5:3

Mt 24:39

Mt 24:39 - And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be - Jesus speaks of the unexpected nature of His Second Coming. Life and its day to day challenges will continue to occur and Jesus will bring an abrupt end to time and replace it with eternity. This is what is meant that Jesus comes as a thief in the night. See Mt 24:42-44, 50; 1Thess 5:2; 2Pet 3:10; Lk 12:39

Mt 24:40

Mt 24:40 - Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left - if the statement is consistent with the prior comparison to the days of Noah, the one taken will be spared, while the one left behind will be destroyed. See Mt 25:10, 30, 46, 24:39, 50, 51

Mt 24:41

Mt 24:41 - Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left - Similarly, if the statement is consistent with the prior comparison to the days of Noah, the one taken will be spared, while the one left behind will be destroyed. See Mt 25:10, 30, 46, 24:39, 50, 51

Mt 24:42

Mt 24:42 - Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come - See Mt 25:13; 1Thess 5:1-9

Mt 24:43

Mt 24:43 - But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up - See Lk 12:39; 1Thess 5:2; 2Pet 3:10

Mt 24:44

Mt 24:44 - Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh - Since we do not know when the Son of man cometh, it behooves us to be in a constant state of readiness. There is not time to let down our guards or remove our armor while in a foreign land. See Mt 24:42; 1Thess 5:3; Eph 6:10-18; 1Kin 13 Jesus Comes NOW and later: John 14:16-20 - Jesus comes to us through the Holy Spirit and we see Him and we know He is in us 1Cor 2:9, 10, 14, 15 - We receive the Spirit of God Acts 1:8||Acts 3:20 - Jesus sends the Holy Spirit and Jesus comes to us Malachi 3:5 - Jesus comes now for judgment John 14:18 - Jesus comes to comfort us through the Holy Spirit Col 1:25-29 - Christ in us, the hope of glory 1Jo 4:1-3 - Jesus IS come in the flesh

Mt 24:45

Mt 24:45 - wise servant - See Dan 12:3, 10

Mt 24:45

Mt 24:45 - whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season? - Those whom the Lord has entrusted leadership over the flock of God who bring forth things old and new out of the storehouse of truth. More specifically, those wise servants and watchmen that sound the trumpet appropriately for this time are they who give meat in due season. See Mt 13:52; Ezek 3:17-21

Mt 24:45

Mt 24:45 - give them meat in due season - the meat here does not suggest flesh food but rather solid food as opposed to breast milk. God's people need to be fed with solid food (Present Truth) that they must chew-upon (consider, meditate upon) in order to digest. This implies the Lord expects His people to have attained to a certain spiritual maturity that they require more than milky sermons. The servant must be a diligent watchman, sounding the trumpet of truth in a certain manner to equip God's people for the battle ahead. See Ezek 3:17-21; Heb 5:12-14; 2Pet 1:12; 1Cor 14:8; Isa 58:1

Mt 24:46

Mt 24:46 - Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing - See 1Jo 2:28

Mt 24:47

Mt 24:47 - That he shall make him ruler over all his goods - As we abide in Christ, we are partakers of His divine nature and we are one with Christ. This is what the Father tried to teach the elder brother in the story of the prodigal son. The Father said: "Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine" (Lk 15:31). We have the storehouse of heaven at our disposal today to be a Kingdom Builder. See Mt 6:33, 25:21, 23; Rev 20:4 Christ's followers have been redeemed for service. Our Lord teaches that the true object of life is ministry. Christ Himself was a worker, and to all His followers He gives the law of service—service to God and to their fellow men. Here Christ has presented to the world a higher conception of life than they had ever known. By living to minister for others, man is brought into connection with Christ. The law of service becomes the connecting link which binds us to God and to our fellow men. - {COL 326.3} To His servants Christ commits "His goods"—something to be put to use for Him. He gives "to every man his work." Each has his place in the eternal plan of heaven. Each is to work in co-operation with Christ for the salvation of souls. Not more surely is the place prepared for us in the heavenly mansions than is the special place designated on earth where we are to work for God. - {COL 326.4}

Mt 24:48

Mt 24:48 - But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming - the evil servant has not experienced conversion and the daily/continual baptism of the Holy Spirit such that he might say, the Kingdom of God is in me, and Jesus IS COME in the flesh. The evil servant is not experiencing the reviving power of Righteousness by Faith - Christ in you, the hope of glory and is thus carnal, dead in his trespasses and sins (Rom 8:5-8; Gal 6:8). See Lk 12:42-45, 17:20, 21; 1Jo 4:1-3; Col 1:27-29; Philippians 3:7-11 Contrast 1Pet 4:12, 13; 1Jo 4:1-3; Zeph 1:12; Heb 10:35-37 Watch ye therefore: ... lest coming suddenly He find you sleeping." Mark 13:35, 36. Perilous is the condition of those who, growing weary of their watch, turn to the attractions of the world. While the man of business is absorbed in the pursuit of gain, while the pleasure lover is seeking indulgence, while the daughter of fashion is arranging her adornments—it may be in that hour the Judge of all the earth will pronounce the sentence: "Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting." Daniel 5:27. - {GC 491.2} But as the spirit of humility and devotion in the church had given place to pride and formalism, love for Christ and faith in His coming had grown cold. Absorbed in worldliness and pleasure seeking, the professed people of God were blinded to the Saviour's instructions concerning the signs of His appearing. The doctrine of the second advent had been neglected; the scriptures relating to it were obscured by misinterpretation, until it was, to a great extent, ignored and forgotten. Especially was this the case in the churches of America. The freedom and comfort enjoyed by all classes of society, the ambitious desire for wealth and luxury, begetting an absorbing devotion to money-making, the eager rush for popularity and power, which seemed to be within the reach of all, led men to center their interests and hopes on the things of this life, and to put far in the future that solemn day when the present order of things should pass away. - {GC 309.1}

Mt 24:49

Mt 24:49 - begin to smite his fellow servants - See Jer 18:18; Lk 12:45. The fulfillment of this prophecy occurred after the first disappointment of 1844 where the halfhearted among the Advent Movement began to speak words of derision against the sincere who truly awaited the coming of Jesus. Evil Servants Developed - When the last of March came, and passed by, and the Lord did not come, those who had previously labored with the Lord's messengers, but had not from the heart fully consecrated their lives to the message, turned against it, began to oppose the work, and to do all in their power to hedge up the way of those who still continued teaching the doctrine of the Lord's near coming and the judgment hour message. "In their hearts" they said, "My Lord delayeth his coming." With their lips they now taught that all the world must be converted before the Lord would come; that the Jews must all return to Palestine, and establish their temple service in Jerusalem, before Messiah would come. Some even taught that Christ's coming was a "spiritual coming," that it took place at conversion, and also at the death of his people. {Great Second Advent Movement pg 151}

Mt 24:49

Mt 24:49 - eat and drink with the drunken - the wicked servant begins to fellowship with the world, those who are drunken with false doctrine and eat the fruit of disobedience. Church Feasting - While they were doing this there began what was before unknown in Protestant churches - the calling of the people together in the church for feasting and "making of sport." All who would come were invited to partake with them of their dainties. The first we ever heard of anything of this kind in America was in the month of May, 1844, just after the disappointment. It was on this wise: While William Miller, in a hall in Rochester, N.Y., was instructing and exhorting several hundred Adventists, telling them, "We are in the tarrying time of Mt twenty-five; hold fast your faith; we shall soon have more light on this matter," there was appointed in the basement of one of the largest meeting-houses in Rochester, "a festival." A crowd of people came together, both church members and unbelievers, and while the president of a theological college made fun for the crowd by ridiculing William Miller, they sold to them oysters, ice-cream, sweetmeats, and for twenty-five cents a small pamphlet which this man had prepared. The book was called An Expose of Millerism. In less than a fortnight from that time another denomination in the same city appointed "a festival" in a public hall, charging twenty-five cents admission, and inviting all who would to come and partake with them of their oysters, ice-cream, cake, and sweets. Then and there began this modern feasting in churches, which has developed into "crazy socials," "grab bags," "fish ponds," "kissing bees," and so on. This feature of feasting in churches has grown to that extent that now a modern church building is not up to the standard unless it has its kitchen, pantry, and dining-room. This state of things is that which began in the "tarrying time," just as designated in the parable. {Great Second Advent Movement pg 152}

Mt 24:50

Mt 24:50 - The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of - If we do not permit Jesus to come to us today for judgment (Mal 3:5), we will not be ready later when Jesus comes at an unexpected time to separate the wheat from the tares. See Mt 24:39, 42; 1Thess 5:2-4; Zeph 1:12

Mt 24:51

Mt 24:51 - And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth - See Lk 19:27; Isa 33:14

Mt 24:51

Mt 24:51 - there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth - See Mt 22:13, 8:12, 25:30; Lk 13:28

Mt 25:1

Mt 25:1 - likened unto ten virgins - I am often referred to the parable of the ten virgins, five of whom were wise, and five foolish. This parable has been and will be fulfilled to the very letter, for it has a special application to this time, and, like the third angel's message, has been fulfilled and will continue to be present truth till the close of time. In the parable, the ten virgins had lamps, but only five of them had the saving oil with which to keep their lamps burning. This represents the condition of the Church. The wise and the foolish have their Bibles, and are provided with all the means of grace; but many do not appreciate the fact that they must have the heavenly unction. They do not heed the invitation, "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." - {RH August 19, 1890 Par. 3}

Mt 25:1

Mt 25:1 - went forth to meet the bridegroom - all the virgins anticipated meeting the bridegroom and professed to be desiring to enter into the marriage feast.

Mt 25:2

Mt 25:2 - And five of them were wise, and five were foolish - See Ruth 1:14

Mt 25:2

Mt 25:2 - five of them were wise - the wise are they in Adventism that have understanding (march and chazown visions) and have returned to the Old Paths of Adventism; they are disciplined and temperate in all things, having gotten the mastery over the lust of the eyes, lust of the flesh and pride of life lest they become a castaway; they have their eyes enlightened and are become teachers, leading many sons to righteousness; they sigh and cry for the abominations done in Israel; they eat butter and honey for sweetness [eat the little book] so that they can discern and know to choose the good over the evil; they have the mind of Christ, are sons of The Father and have mastered humility and forgiveness; they are purified, made white [sins are purged] and tried from within (by foolish virgins/briers and thorns) and without; their wisdom is from above and they are peaceable and easily entreated; they have peace, assurance and dwell in safety because they have learned to make God their strength; they have been sealed with God's commandments and have God's covenant written in their hearts. See Ps 14:2; Dan 12:3; 1Sam 14:26, 27; Isa 58:11, 12; 1Jo 2:15-17; 1Cor 9:24-27; Isa 32:20; Eze 9:4; Isa 7:15; Eze 3:1-8; Rev 10:10, 11; Phil 2:1-8; Gen 45:1-8; Isa 6:6, 7; Dan 12:10; Mal 3:2-4; Jam 3:17, 18; Isa 7:9, 28:16, 32:17-20; Jer 17:7, 8; Isa 26:20, 21; Ps 91; Ps 27:1-5; Isa 8:16; Jer 31:31-34

Mt 25:2

Mt 25:2 - five were foolish - The term "foolish" is at times synonymous with the word "wicked" (see Zech 11:15-17; Dan 12:10). The foolish lack understanding though the eyes of some have been enlightened to know present truth; they are seduced with flatteries and sensuality; they are silly women laden with sin, ever learning and never coming to the knowledge [love] of the truth; they are lukewarm and Laodicean; they have a covering but not by God's Spirit; they have the character of Babylon - envy, strife, wrath and confusion. See Prov 7:7, 10-18; Dan 12:10; 2Tim 3:6; 2Thess 2:10-12; Isa 30:1; Jam 3:13-16

Mt 25:3

Mt 25:3 - took their lamps - all the virgins had lamps, the Word of God (Ps 119:105). Meaning, KJV Bible Commentary www.lifemoreabundantpa.com/event-bible-study all had a head knowledge of the truth, however, those who took oil were those who had received the Spirit of God [Zech 4:11-14] and had hid Him in their hearts. The foolish assumed the oil would be supplied whereas the wise sought means to acquire oil for the journey. They vigilantly made preparation in the event/in case there is a delay. The process by which oil was to be acquired was to go buy daily of the heavenly Merchant Man, Who graciously gives His supply of blessings to those who ask in faith. See 1Thess 5:6; Lk 11:9-13; Rev 3:18

Mt 25:4

Mt 25:4 - But the wise took oil - The process by which oil was to be acquired was to go buy daily of the heavenly Merchant Man, Who graciously gives His supply of blessings to those who ask in faith. See 1Thess 5:6; Lk 11:9-13; Rev 3:18

Mt 25:4

Mt 25:4 - in their vessels - the wise have the Holy Spirit in their hearts, an earthen vessel. See 2Cor 4:7

Mt 25:5

Mt 25:5 - While the bridegroom tarried - See Hab 2:3, 4 It is in a crisis that character is revealed. When the earnest voice proclaimed at midnight, "Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him," and the sleeping virgins were roused from their slumbers, it was seen who had made preparation for the event. Both parties were taken unawares; but one was prepared for the emergency, and the other was found without preparation. So now, a sudden and unlooked-for calamity, something that brings the soul face to face with death, will show whether there is any real faith in the promises of God. It will show whether the soul is sustained by grace. The great final test comes at the close of human probation, when it will be too late for the soul's need to be supplied. - {COL 412.1} They did not anticipate so long a delay, and they have not prepared for the emergency. In distress they appeal to their wiser companions saying, "Give us of your oil; for our lamps are going out." (Margin.) Event vs Emergency: Event - the arrival of the Bridegroom which all anticipated Emergency - the delay for which only the wise had made preparation

Mt 25:5

Mt 25:5 - With the disappointment of March 22, 1843, the charts which all pointed to Christ's 2nd Coming in that year were discarded. Many of the Adventists turned from the movement all together, casting shame on the effort as a hoax. Others turned to fanaticism, claiming Christ had actually come but in the Spirit, and demonstrated erratic behaviors that brought reproach upon the movement. While others tried to rationalize the cause for the error, found on the chart itself. Samuel Snow was one who recognized the error was in first failing to see that a delay (tarrying) was foretold in each of the prophecies given for the time period. Further he identified an error in the understanding of the time/season of the Jewish holiday, Day of Atonement, that it was a harvest time event and not a spring time event. Also he understood that the decree to rebuild Jerusalem occurred in the fall of 457BC. Therefore, the fullness of the year needed to be accounted in the reckoning. This Tarrying Time would continue until the Midnight Cry at the Exeter Camp Meeting

Mt 25:5

Mt 25:5 - slept - all of Adventism, since the Millerite Movement have fallen away, their eyes have become heavy and have slept, thus leaving them in a Laodicean condition. The cry among the virgins has gone out to rise up and make preparation because the Bridegroom cometh as well as a time of famine and trial. See Isa 32:9-15 Here we are in the waiting time, in the day of God's preparation. Here in this world we are to fit up for these great trials that are soon coming upon us. And yet some of us act as though we had a whole millennium before us in which to accomplish the work. But, says the text, "Watch and pray; for ye know not when the time is." And what Christ said to his disciples, I say unto you, "Take ye heed, watch and pray," that when the Master comes to reckon with his servants, you may receive from him the crown of life laid up for the overcomer, and rejoice with him in his kingdom. - {RH August 18, 1885 Par. 14}

Mt 25:6

Mt 25:6 - at midnight - The glory of the Lord is to be risen upon His people (Isa 60:1-3) when darkness covers the earth and gross darkness the people. See Isa 60:2 the Exeter Camp Meeting (August 12-17, 1844) was where the actual date, October 22, 1844 was first preached by Samuel Snow as the definitive date of Jesus Second Coming, based on the Jewish calendar's account of the Day of Atonement. Here, the midnight cry, "The Bridegroom cometh, go ye out to meet him" was first used. Following the camp meeting in August 1844, the movement, empowered by the Holy Spirit, was able to spread the Midnight Cry to the world within 3 months.

Mt 25:6

Mt 25:6 - midnight - midnight is the darkest part of night and so Christ will return when the world is at its darkest state. While the world is in darkness the command is given to the people of God: "Arie shine for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee." Isa 60:1, 2 The glory of the Lord is to be risen upon His people (Isa 60:1-3) when darkness covers the earth and gross darkness the people. See Isa 60:2 The Exeter Camp Meeting (August 12-17, 1844) was where the actual date, October 22, 1844 was first preached by Samuel Snow as the definitive date of Jesus Second Coming, based on the Jewish calendar's account of the Day of Atonement. Mt 25:6

Mt 25:6 - there was a cry made - a watchful Watchman stood guard while the virgins slept.

Someone needed to be watching, praying, studying to recognize the sign of the Bridegroom's approach

Mt 25:6

Mt 25:6 - go ye out to meet Him - The command to "go out to meet Him" implies a Movement, that they must actively move in the direction of the Bridegroom. Unlike the deceptive cry of the false prophets stating, the Lord is in the wilderness or the secret places (Mt 24:23-27), the wise virgins discern the cry/message of the faithful servant/watchman and make preparation to meet the Bridegroom. See Joh 7:17

Mt 25:7

Mt 25:7 - trimmed their lamps - At the call, "The Bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him," the waiting ones "arose and trimmed their lamps;" they studied the word of God with an intensity of interest before unknown. Angels were sent from Heaven to arouse those who had become discouraged, and prepare them to receive the message. The work did not stand in the wisdom and learning of men, but in the power of God. It was not the most talented, but the most humble and devoted, who were the first to hear and obey the call. Farmers left their crops standing in the fields, mechanics laid down their tools, and with tears and rejoicing went out to give the warning. Those who had formerly led in the cause were among the last to join in this movement. The churches in general closed their doors against it, and a large company who had the living testimony withdrew from their connection. In the providence of God, this cry united with the second angel's message, and gave power to that work. - {4SP 250.2}

Mt 25:8

Mt 25:8 - Give us of your oil - The Holy Spirit will be sprinkling on hearts all around but some will not take note whatsoever. See Am 4:7-8; Testimonies to Ministers, 507

Mt 25:10

Mt 25:10 - while they went to buy - the Bible states that the purchase money used to buy wisdom by the foolish is in vain since "they have no heart for it" Prov 17:16 Though going to pursue the oil, the foolish virgins are not aware of the famine or want of oil. They are not aware that it is too late, and their probation has already closed. See Am 8:11-14 In that memorable year when the cry, "Behold the Bridegroom cometh," was moving with railroad speed, the mighty messenger with a voice of thunder, his hands upraised to heaven, his feet upon the land and sea, declaring by him that liveth forever, there should be no longer delay. The message was literally declared on land and sea, and was so clear that all the virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. Time was seen clearly then. How? Where? Why, the first point was to the sounding of the seventh trumpet, on the 12th of Oct. 1844. With what intense interest we approached it. Where, I ask, is the advent believer who was then in Boston, Providence, New Bedford, Fairhaven, Nantucket, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, etc. etc., that did not hear the sounding of the "seventh angel," viz: "The mystery of God is finished," "The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord," and also remember distinctly (as it was afterwards stated) the simultaneous movement among them even in the first 48 hours. What a raging among the wicked, and breaking up of the advent meetings! But more striking still was the development of character among the "virgins." During the ten days to the 22nd of October, the sounding of the seventh message caused simultaneous dispersion among the virgins. Disgust, dismay, disappointment, grief, contempt, scorn, and evil surmisings, on the one hand, while others were boldly declaring that the message was just what we believed, although we were surprised at the effect it was producing. {1847 JB, BP2 82.1} Here was the point and peculiar time (don't forget it,) where the division of the virgins took place. They began to go away for oil, or to look for it from a different source. {1847 JB, BP2 82.2} Here is another strong proof of the fulfilment of the parable of the 10 virgins. Sounding of trumpets denotes generally the cause of some mighty movement in gathering and dispersion. When the multitude shut up in Jericho were given up to death, the sounding of the trumpets the seventh time caused the walls to fall and leave them defenseless. When Gideon's peculiarly reduced little army sounded the trumpet, "the host ran, and cried, and fled." Confusion, dismay, and death followed in the track. {1847 JB, BP2 82.3} 83 "Shall a trumpet be blown in the city and the people not be afraid? Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets." Am. Then surely the sounding of the seventh trumpet has been revealed, and who is there that is not fast asleep that needs to be told of the divisions and sub-divisions of the once united band that arose and trimmed their lamps for the coming of the Bridegroom, and began immediately to dissolve this union at "the sounding of the seventh angel" on the 12th day of October, 1844. But it is said there were men that did this work. Certainly - so they were men that sounded the first six trumpets. See the effect produced by the trumpet of Joab, 2 Sam. 18:16, and 20:22. {1847 JB, BP2 83.1} I am aware that there are thousands of living witnesses to this stupendous and mighty work that have no faith in this part of it, while many say it was false and of the devil! My reply to all such is, that if men and women making their sacrifices and such pretensions to holiness of heart, anxiously waiting in expectation of their coming Savior within ten days, will yield up what then was certainly the most pious effort of their lives, and give all this experience to mesmerism and the devil, they are welcome. If such is our dependence for the kingdom of heaven, farewell all other efforts to obtain it. I would rather ten thousand times believe that their heavy burden was fear and hypocrisy. I praise God that this awful delusion was not universal. Many believed in that day, and I trust they do still. For myself I can truly say it was the most triumphant and soul-stirring point in all my christian experience. Draw back because we were disappointed in our expectations? No; the watchword is onward to victory. {1847 JB, BP2 83.2}

Mt 25:10 - they that were ready - See Rev 19:7, 16:15. The preparation required to enter in when the Bridegroom appears is not readily discernible through outward appearances. As in the parable, the virgins were all similarly adorned with lamps and went forth to meet the Bridegroom at the appointed time. However, the distinction is noted in the tarrying time and the call for revival by the watchman. All rise and trim their lamps but the light of the foolish grows dim for want of preparedness. The preparation required involves watching (v13) for the signs of the LORDS approaching, buying of He who sells (See Isa 55:1-7), and earnestly praying for more (a double portion) of the Spirit (oil) so that we may have more than enough to sustain us until Jesus comes.

Mt 25:10

Mt 25:10 - door was shut - See Am 8:11-13; Jer 8:20; Lk 13:25

Mt 25:11

Mt 25:11 - Lord, Lord - The foolish virgins are those who say "Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name..." These are they who were lighting sparks of their own kindling rather than humbly seeking the wisdom of God. See Lk 13:24-28; Mt 7:21, 22; Isa 50:11, 27:11; Dan 12:10; Am 8; 2Thess 2:10, 11 It is a fearful thing to have great light and blessing, to have many opportunities and privileges, and yet make no saving use of them. Those who do not make a saving use of their opportunities, will be condemned by the privileges God has granted to them; but those who walk in the light will have increased light. Those who have had the light of truth, and yet have failed to walk in the light, are under the same sentence of condemnation as were Chorazin and Bethsaida. Shall not these warnings be heeded? Shall not these admonitions have weight with us? In the near future it will be seen just who have been walking humbly with God, and who have been obeying his orders. Those who have been walking in the sparks of their own kindling will lie down in sorrow. It will be seen that they have made a terrible mistake. O let us awake! light is now shining; let the windows of the mind and heart be open to welcome the heaven-sent rays. {Christian Education, 141}

Mt 25:12 - Verily I say unto you, I know you not - Those with whom the Holy Spirit does not abide are not known of God. As a result, they do not bear the fruit of the Spirit and though they may perform good and noble works, their works are not stamped with the seal of heaven, are not born of faith and are therefore, iniquitous. See Rom 8:9; Lk 13:26-28; 7BC 963.1-4 if we seek to establish our own righteousness by the works of the law rather than by faith of Jesus Christ, the works themselves become works of iniquity - See Gal 2:21; Isa 64:6, 57:12; Rom 10:1-4, 4:1-5

Mt 25:13

Mt 25:13 - Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh - See Mt 24:36, 42; 1Thess 5:1-9

Mt 25:14

Mt 25:14 - a man travelling into a far country - Jesus is that Man Who has traveled to the far country of heaven. See Isa 33:17; Act 1:9-11

Mt 25:14

Mt 25:14 - delivered unto them his goods - Man broke God's law, and through the Redeemer new and fresh promises were made on a different basis. All blessings must come through a Mediator. Now every member of the human family is given wholly into the hands of Christ, and whatever we possess—whether it is the gift of money, of houses, of lands, of reasoning powers, of physical strength, of intellectual talents—in this present life, and the blessings of the future life, are placed in our possession as God's treasures to be faithfully expended for the benefit of man. Every gift is stamped with the cross and bears the image and superscription of Jesus Christ. All things come of God. From the smallest benefits up to the largest blessing, all flow through the one Channel—a superhuman mediation sprinkled with the blood that is of value beyond estimate because it was the life of God in His Son. - {1888 814.2}

Mt 25:15

Mt 25:15 - five talents - The power of speech is a talent that should be diligently cultivated. Of all the gifts we have received from God, none is capable of being a greater blessing than this. With the voice we convince and persuade, with it we offer prayer and praise to God, and with it we tell others of the Redeemer's love. How important, then, that it be so trained as to be most effective for good. - {COL 335.2} We should look to Jesus, the perfect pattern; we should pray for the aid of the Holy Spirit, and in His strength we should seek to train every organ for perfect work. - {COL 336.2} So it should be with us. Wherever we are, we should watch for opportunities of speaking to others of the Saviour. If we follow Christ's example in doing good, hearts will open to us as they did to Him. Not abruptly, but with tact born of divine love, we can tell them of Him who is the "Chiefest among ten thousand" and the One "altogether lovely." Song 5:10, 16. This is the very highest work in which we can employ the talent of speech. It was given to us that we might present Christ as the sin-pardoning Saviour. - {COL 339.1}

Mt 25:15

Mt 25:15 - to every man according to his several ability - The one talent which all possess in equal measure is time. See Rom 12:6; Eccl 9:10-12; Mk 1:14, 15; Mt 10:7; Lk 10:9; 1Cor 12:11 Our time belongs to God. Every moment is His, and we are under the most solemn obligation to improve it to His glory. Of no talent He has given will He require a more strict account than of our time. - {COL 342.1} The value of time is beyond computation. Christ regarded every moment as precious, and it is thus that we should regard it. Life is too short to be trifled away. We have but a few days of probation in which to prepare for eternity. We have no time to waste, no time to devote to selfish pleasure, no time for the indulgence of sin. It is now that we are to form characters for the future, immortal life. It is now that we are to prepare for the searching judgment. - {COL 342.2}

Mt 25:16

Mt 25:16 - went and traded with the same - the currency of heaven is the truth of God's Word in which He has stamped His image and superscription. It is to be presented to the hearer with the Spirit of Christ, with all grace, tact, humility, and love. See DA 353.2

Mt 25:19

Mt 25:19 - After a long time the lord of those servants cometh - after a long time, the Nobleman or Lord, having received His kingdom returns to His servants. See Lk 19:15

Mt 25:20

Mt 25:20 - Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more - Talents used are talents multiplied. Success is not the result of chance or of destiny; it is the outworking of God's own providence, the reward of faith and discretion, of virtue and persevering effort. The Lord desires us to use every gift we have; and if we do this, we shall have greater gifts to use. He does not supernaturally endow us with the qualifications we lack; but while we use that which we have, He will work with us to increase and strengthen every faculty. By every wholehearted, earnest sacrifice for the Master's service our powers will increase. While we yield ourselves as instruments for the Holy Spirit's working, the grace of God works in us to deny old inclinations, to overcome powerful propensities, and to form new habits. As we cherish and obey the promptings of the Spirit, our hearts are enlarged to receive more and more of His power, and to do more and better work. Dormant energies are aroused, and palsied faculties receive new life. - {COL 353.1}

Mt 25:21

Mt 25:21 - good and faithful servant - the servant of the Lord is one who has placed his faith, trust and confidence in his Master, Who is his Righteousness, and serves Him with a true and sincere heart. That is what makes the servant good and faithful. See Jer 23:5, 6; Num 12:7

Mt 25:21 - joy of thy lord - See Heb 12:2; Isa 53:11

Mt 25:24

Mt 25:24 - I knew thee that thou art an hard man - the perception of the wicked towards God is one of hatred and contempt. They see God as hard and exacting and desiring that which does not belong to Him, though it was He who initiated the good and equitable works of distributing talents to all according to their ability.

Mt 25:25

Mt 25:25 - I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine - the earth may be a symbol of humanity and thus the evil servant spent the talent upon himself and his selfish desires (wealth, popularity, etc.) rather than seeking to build and enrich the Kingdom of God. It was the one with the smallest gift who left his talent unimproved. In this is given a warning to all who feel that the smallness of their endowments excuses them from service for Christ. If they could do some great thing, how gladly would they undertake it; but because they can serve only in little things, they think themselves justified in doing nothing. In this they err. The Lord in His distribution of gifts is testing character. The man who neglected to improve his talent proved himself an unfaithful servant. Had he received five talents, he would have buried them as he buried the one. His misuse of the one talent showed that he despised the gifts of heaven. - {COL 355.3}

Mt 25:27

Mt 25:27 - Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury - Our Saviour is constantly working to save men from the devices of Satan, that they may not cheat themselves out of eternal happiness by setting their hearts upon earthly gain. He whose heart is centered upon the treasures of eternal interest, will have a right hold from above, and will appreciate every earthly good as a gift from God, and will enjoy earthly blessings with a superior relish. The only safe place to deposit our treasures is in the bank of heaven. Every deposit made in this bank will accumulate abundant interest; you will be laying up in store for yourselves against the time to come. - {RH July 1, 1890 Par. 7}

Mt 25:30 - And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth - See Mt 24:51

Mt 25:30

Mt 25:30 - there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth - See Mt 22:13, 24:51, 8:12; Lk 13:28

Mt 25:31

Mt 25:31 - When the Son of man shall come in his glory - See Ps 24:7-10; Ju 1:14, 15

Mt 25:31

Mt 25:31 - sit upon the throne of His glory - the kingdom of glory is established at Jesus' Second Coming when He will gather all who have kept His word and embraced His covenant. Jesus is yet a King today, sitting upon His throne of grace. See Heb 4:16; Ps 24:7 So the throne of glory represents the kingdom of glory; and this kingdom is referred to in the Saviour's words: "When the Son of man shall come in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then shall He sit upon the throne of His glory: and before Him shall be gathered all nations." Mt 25:31, 32. This kingdom is yet future. It is not to be set up until the second advent of Christ. - {GC 347.1}

Mt 25:33

Mt 25:33 - And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left - Jesus divides the world (Joh 7:43). Some will either take Him (Joh 7:44) to make Him King (figuratively - Joh 6:15) while others will take Him by force to destroy Him (Joh 7:45, 46). See Mt 27:38; Eccl 10:2

Mt 25:33

Mt 25:33 - set the sheep on his right hand - See Ps 16:11; Zech 3:1-4

Mt 25:33

Mt 25:33 - but the goats on the left - the goats are the flock of the slaughter. See Zech 11:4, Mt 25:41-46; 1Kin 22:19

Mt 25:34

Mt 25:34 - Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world - See Lk 12:32; Dan 7:27, 22; Rev 22:12

Mt 25:35

Mt 25:35 - For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink - The more means we expend in display and self-indulgence, the less we can have to feed the hungry and clothe the naked. Every penny used unnecessarily deprives the spender of a precious opportunity of doing good. It is robbing God of the honor and glory which should flow back to Him through the improvement of His entrusted talents. - {COL 352.3}

Mt 25:40

Mt 25:40 - And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me - Jesus here identifies Himself with His suffering people. It was I who was hungry and thirsty. It was I who was a stranger. It was I who was naked. It was I who was sick. It was I who was in prison. When you were enjoying the food from your bountifully spread tables, I was famishing in the hovel or street not far from you. When you closed your doors against Me, while your well-furnished rooms were unoccupied, I had not where to lay My head. Your wardrobes were filled with an abundant supply of changeable suits of apparel, upon which means had been needlessly squandered, which you might have given to the needy. I was destitute of comfortable apparel. When you were enjoying health, I was sick. Misfortune cast Me into prison and bound Me with fetters, bowing down My spirit, depriving Me of freedom and hope, while you roamed free. What a oneness Jesus here expresses as existing between Himself and His suffering disciples! He makes their case His own. He identifies Himself as being in person the very sufferer. Mark, selfish Christian: every neglect of the needy poor, the orphan, the fatherless, is a neglect of Jesus in their person. - {CSA 60.5}

Mt 25:41 - everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels - the reason there is no salvation for the devil and his angels is because they were created perfect (Ezekiel 28:15), they beheld and dwelt in the midst of perfection. It is for this reason that there is no excuse for their rebellion and therefore, no remedy for the treason that lies in their hearts. They rebelled against perfection so they could never be satisfied or redeemed. See Isa 30:33, 26:11; Ju 1:6, 7; 2Pet 2:4, 6

Mt 25:46

Mt 25:46 - Mt 25:46 - Everlasting Punishment vs. Everlasting Punishing The results of the punishment are everlasting versus punishment that goes on without ceasing, everlasting. See 2Thess 1:9; Obadiah 1:15, 16; 2Pet 2:6; Mal 4:1, 3; Jude 1:7; Lam 4:6

Mt 25:46

Mt 25:46 - Everlasting Punishment (noun) vs. Everlasting Punishing (gerund) The results of the punishment are everlasting versus punishment that goes on without ceasing

Mt 26:3

Mt 26:3 - Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas - a confederacy of evil gathered to entrap and kill Jesus, just as was done to Daniel the prophet. See Dan 6:4-9; Prov 2:1-3

Mt 26:4

Mt 26:4 - And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him - the murderous Jews were sons of their father, Satan. See Joh 8:44

Mt 26:6

Mt 26:6 - Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper - See Joh 12:1, 2

Mt 26:7

Mt 26:7 - a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment - the woman, Mary Magdalene, exercised faith in purchasing and anointing Jesus in preparation for His glorification upon the cross. She understood His mission and made ready that which would remind Him of the value of His eternal sacrifice while on the cross. Jesus could smell the ointment on His hair as He hung on the cross and knew His work was not in vain!

Mt 26:8

Mt 26:8 - they had indignation - in shame for their own callousness, ingratitude and insensitivity towards Jesus for what He had done and what He was going to do, the disciples reprove the woman for her pricey offering to Jesus.

Mt 26:9

Mt 26:9 - For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor - See Joh 12:4-6

Mt 26:11

Mt 26:11 - For ye have the poor always with you - See Mk 14:7; Joh 12:8; Deut 15:11

Mt 26:11

Mt 26:11 - but me ye have not always - the disciples were completely unmindful of the forewarnings Jesus had given regarding His betrayal and crucifixion. Had they truly believed His words, they too would have sought how best to honor their Lord during the time He had left with them. See Mt 26:2

Mt 26:13

Mt 26:13 - Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her - God glorifies acts of kindness and benevolence towards Him. Just as Mary honoring Jesus by anointing Him, so too the woman who gave her two mites has been memorialized in Scripture (Mk 12:42-44). It is the motive that gives character to our acts, stamping them with ignominy or with high moral worth. Not the great things which every eye sees and every tongue praises does God account most precious. The little duties cheerfully done, the little gifts which make no show, and which to human eyes may appear worthless, often stand highest in His sight. A heart of faith and love is dearer to God than the most costly gift. The poor widow gave her living to do the little that she did. She deprived herself of food in order to give those two mites to the cause she loved. And she did it in faith, believing that her heavenly Father would not overlook her great need. It was this unselfish spirit and childlike faith that won the Saviour's commendation. - {DA 615.3} When Jesus said of the widow, She "hath cast in more than they all," His words were true, not only of the motive, but of the results of her gift. The "two mites which make a farthing" have brought to God's treasury an amount of money far greater than the contributions of those rich Jews. The influence of that little gift has been like a stream, small in its beginning, but widening and deepening as it flowed down through the ages. In a thousand ways it has contributed to the relief of the poor and the spread of the gospel. Her example of self-sacrifice has acted and reacted upon thousands of hearts in every land and in every age. It has appealed to both the rich and the poor, and their offerings have swelled the value of her gift. God's blessing upon the widow's mite has made it the source of great results. So with every gift bestowed and every act performed with a sincere desire for God's glory. It is linked with the purposes of Omnipotence. Its results for good no man can measure. - {DA 616.1}

Mt 26:14

Mt 26:14 - Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests - the open rebuke of Jesus towards Judas and the other disciples which sided with him against Mary's act of love, was the straw that broke the camel's back for Judas. He saw no future with Jesus and his selfish pride was offended by Jesus' denunciation of his hard heartedness.

Mt 26:15

Mt 26:15 - they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver - See Zech 11:12

Mt 26:16

Mt 26:16 - And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him - See Joh 13:1, 2

Mt 26:18

Mt 26:18 - My time is at hand - See Joh 13:1

Mt 26:21

Mt 26:21 - Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me - See Mt 26:14, 15; Joh 13:1, 2

Mt 26:22

Mt 26:21 - Lord, is it I? - the question, genuinely asked by the disciples other than Judas, was of self-loathing, self-distrust, and fear that one could be so base as to betray his Lord, God, and Best Friend. See Ps 139:23, 24; Jer 17:9, 10

Mt 26:24

Mt 26:24 - The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: - See Isa 53; Ps 22:1-21; Gen 22:8

Mt 26:24

Mt 26:24 - but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! - See Mt 27:5

Mt 26:24

Mt 26:24 - it had been good for that man if he had not been born - as those that cause offense a little one, so a curse was pronounced upon Jesus' betrayer. See Mt 18:6

Mt 26:25

Mt 26:25 - Thou hast said - Judas shamelessly inquires if it is he who would betray Jesus, knowing he had already done so. Jesus revealing openly to Judas His knowledge of his betrayal was to convince Him for the last time of His divinity. See Joh 6:64

Mt 26:26

Mt 26:26 - And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body - As Jesus and His disciples celebrated the Passover meal, it is striking the absence of the Passover lamb that was to be eaten with unleavened bread and bitter herbs (Ex 12:1-10). Jesus, the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world, represented the Lamb in their service and further, Jesus was instituting perhaps another reality, that the Lamb needed to be slain once and henceforth, our food/meat must be the simple, unleavened bread representing the undefiled Bread of Heaven. Jesus may have been showing that a plant based diet was the course for His church henceforth. See Joh 6:33, 35, 48, 50, 51, 53-58; Lk 24:31, 32; 1Cor 11:24

Mt 26:28

Mt 26:28 - For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. Jesus' body was to be represented by broken bread, no longer flesh food in a slain lamb. See Joh 6:55, 56

Mt 26:28

Mt 26:28 - which is shed for many for the remission of sins - See 1Pet 1:18, 19; Heb 10:4-10

Mt 26:28

Mt 26:28 - many - the many here speaks of the entire world; no exceptions. See Mt 20:26; Joh 4:42

Mt 26:29

Mt 26:29 - But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom - Jesus will not partake of the blessings of pure grape juice, until He will drink it in celebration with the saints in His Kingdom. There will not be anything that defiles or causes intoxication in the Kingdom of God, so surely, Jesus here speaks of pure grape juice. See Isa 65:8

Mt 26:31

Mt 26:31 - sheep of the flock shall be scattered - See v56, Zech 13:7

Mt 26:33

Mt 26:33 - yet will I never be offended - Peter was not self-aware; he had not learned to be humble and self-distrustful.

Mt 26:35

Mt 26:35 - Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples - all of the disciples were incredulous of Jesus' words that the Shepherd would be struck and all the sheep scattered. See Mt 26:31

Mt 26:36

Mt 26:36 - Gethsemane - meaning "oil-press", it was prophesied that Jesus would tread the winepress alone. See Isa 63:2, 3

Mt 26:38

Mt 26:38 - My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death - Jesus spoke no hyperbole. When He said his life was at the point of death He spoke the truth. Yet God strengthened Him so that He would not experience death in the garden, but so that His soul might become a ransom for sin and bear its curse, He was preserved for the death of the cross. What great love for mankind!!

Mt 26:39

Mt 26:39 - O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt - The Son pleads with the Father whether there were any other ways to work mankind's salvation.

Mt 26:39

Mt 26:39 - nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt - Jesus came not to do His own will, but exercise willing submission to the will of His Father. See Heb 10:5-7; Lk 9:23

Mt 26:40

Mt 26:40 - They did not intend to forsake their Lord, but they seemed paralyzed by a stupor which they might have shaken off if they had continued pleading with God. They did not realize the necessity of watchfulness and earnest prayer in order to withstand temptation. And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour? - The experience of the disciples in the Garden of Gethsemane contains a lesson for the Lord's people today.... They did not realize the necessity of watchfulness and earnest prayer in order to withstand temptation. Many today are fast asleep, as were the disciples. They are not watching and praying lest they enter into temptation. Let us often read and give careful study to those portions of God's Word that have special reference to these last days, pointing out the dangers that will threaten God's people.—(In Heavenly Places, 97.) - {Pr 18.1}

Mt 26:41

Mt 26:41 - the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak - Jesus here spoke of Himself and of His sleeping disciples. Jesus did not pray the prayer that the Father "take away this cup" because His Spirit was not willing to accept the death, rather, Jesus prayed the prayer because the sinful flesh He had taken upon Himself in order to save us was not willing to accept this death. See Rom 8:3-6. {from The Abiding in Jesus Bible Study, Lesson #6 - The Truth about Entering God's Rest - Pt 1, by Pastor Gregory Jackson}

Mt 26:45

Mt 26:45 - the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners - This is the heyday of the powers of darkness (Eph 2:2). Jesus would give Himself over to the powers of the earth, to all that the devil could do unto Him and yet, triumph in doing so. See Mt 12:40; Lk 22:53;

Mt 26:47

Mt 26:47 - Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people. - See Ps 55:12-14

Mt 26:50

Mt 26:50 - Friend - Jesus spoke no words of sarcasm (Mt 5:37) but only that which was faithful and true. As he called Judas "Friend" while he was being betrayed, he sincerely meant it! The loving compassion demonstrated Adam and Eve in the Garden when the Lord asked, "Adam, where art thou?" (Gen 3:9) is shown Judas - "Friend, wherefore art thou come?" Lord help me to love like you love, live like you lived, trust like you trusted.

Mt 26:52

Mt 26:52 - for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword - See Rev 13:10

Mt 26:53

Mt 26:53 - twelve legions of angels - a legion to replace each of the 12 disciples. A Roman legion comprised of 3-6 thousand soldiers.

Mt 26:54

Mt 26:54 - how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled - With perfect knowledge of all that was and is to happen, Jesus moved forward to His death. For the joy set before Him, He endured the Cross and the shame for me (Heb 12:2)! Isa 53:7

Mt 26:55

Mt 26:55 - In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? - Jesus was counted among the transgressors and was made to be viewed as a troubler of the people.

Mt 26:56

Mt 26:56 - that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled - See Lam 4:20; Isa 53:7, 8; Job 24:13, 14

Mt 26:56

Mt 26:56 - the all the disciples forsook him - See Mt 26:31; Zech 13:7

Mt 26:57

Mt 26:57 - And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled - All the workers of iniquity had gathered to try Jesus in the cover of night's darkness. See Ps 22:16

Mt 26:59

Mt 26:59 - sought false witness - the greatest sham, kangaroo court and corruption of justice the universe had ever beheld was seen in the trial of Jesus Christ. No greater offense to justice had or will ever be seen as the mock trial by the chief priests, elders and council of Israel against the Prince of the Universe. - See Act 6:11-13

Mt 26:61

Mt 26:61 - This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days - The charge made against Jesus was hardly sufficient reason to condemn Him and put Him to death, yet Caiaphas and his band, in feign piety, seized the moment.

Mt 26:62

Mt 26:62 - And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? - In fulfillment of the prophecy, Jesus was led as a lamb unto the slaughter, yet He opened not His mouth. Jesus did not show any response to the kangaroo court He was subjected to. See Isa 53:7

Mt 26:63

Mt 26:63 - I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God - The learned had eyes to see and could not see and ears to hear and could not hear (Isa 6:10); whereas the simple could discern and proclaim, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God." Mt 16:16

Mt 26:63

Mt 26:63 - I adjure thee by the Living God - Caiaphas' appeal to Jesus to answer according to the order of the Living God drew Jesus' response. Not that Caiaphas was righteous and could make request of God, because he had purposed in his heart to deny both the Spirit of God which made testimony of Jesus as well as Jesus' own testimony, regardless of Jesus' response to his question.

Mt 26:64

Mt 26:64 - Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. - See Lk 22:69, 70

Mt 26:64

Mt 26:64 - Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power - Jesus was quoting the Scripture from the Pss that He should sit at His Father's right hand until He made all His enemies His footstool. See Ps 110:1; Mt 22:43, 44; Rev 6:16, 17

Mt 26:64

Mt 26:64 - coming in the clouds of heaven - Jesus referred to the Special Resurrection that the scribes, leaders and High Priest would partake of at His Second Coming (Rev 1:17). They would see Christ coming in His Father's, the angel's, and His own glory (light, majesty and power) to take vengeance upon His enemies and to redeem His elect.

Mt 26:65

Mt 26:65 - rent his clothes - the High Priest in Israel was to be one fully composed and an example to the rest of the people. He at no time was to rend his garments, consecrated and anointed for sacred use. Caiphas rending his clothes and charging Jesus was an example of the guilty charging the innocent. See Lev 10:6, 21:10; Mk 14:63

Mt 26:65

Mt 26:65 - He hath spoken blasphemy - the false accusation and act of offended piety was a contemptuous act against God, Who had proven on several occasions His divinity. See Joh 10:25, 14:10, 11; Mk 2:7-12

Mt 26:66

Mt 26:66 - The High Priest and all of his stooges consent to the death of Jesus. Ignoring all of His works which affirmed His claim, they all rejected the light because their motives and deeds were evil. See Joh 10:37, 38, 3:18-20, 36

Mt 26:67

Mt 26:67, 68 - buffeted him - see Job 16:10, 11; Isa 50:6

Mt 26:70

Mt 26:70 - But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest - fear and the desire for self-preservation were the things that caused Peter to deny His Lord. We must learn to trust and rely on the Lord and His providence in our lives daily, lest when tested, we also deny our God! We must learn to die daily so that when a test comes for crucifying self and the flesh, we will not deny the Lord! Help ME Jesus!! Gal 2:20; Mt 10:28

Mt 26:74

Mt 26:74 - Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man - when we curse and swear, we, like Peter, deny that we know Jesus. See Eph 4:29

Mt 27:1

Mt 27:1 - When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: - all the Jewish leadership, barring Joseph of Aramethia and Nicodemus, conspired and sought Jesus' death. This confederacy was of the devil. See Lk 23:50-53; Joh 19:38-42; Ps 2:1-3

Mt 27:3

Mt 27:3 - Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself - As the trial drew to a close, Judas could endure the torture of his guilty conscience no longer. Suddenly a hoarse voice rang through the hall, sending a thrill of terror to all hearts: He is innocent; spare Him, O Caiaphas! - {DA 721.4} The tall form of Judas was now seen pressing through the startled throng. His face was pale and haggard, and great drops of sweat stood on his forehead. Rushing to the throne of judgment, he threw down before the high priest the pieces of silver that had been the price of his Lord's betrayal. Eagerly grasping the robe of Caiaphas, he implored him to release Jesus, declaring that He had done nothing worthy of death. Caiaphas angrily shook him off, but was confused, and knew not what to say. The perfidy of the priests was revealed. It was evident that they had bribed the disciple to betray his Master. - {DA 721.5} "I have sinned," again cried Judas, "in that I have betrayed the innocent blood." But the high priest, regaining his self-possession, answered with scorn, "What is that to us? see thou to that." Mt 27:4. The priests had been willing to make Judas their tool; but they despised his baseness. When he turned to them with confession, they spurned him. - {DA 722.1} Judas now cast himself at the feet of Jesus, acknowledging Him to be the Son of God, and entreating Him to deliver Himself. The Saviour did not reproach His betrayer. He knew that Judas did not repent; his confession was forced from his guilty soul by an awful sense of condemnation and a looking for of judgment, but he felt no deep, heartbreaking grief that he had betrayed the spotless Son of God, and denied the Holy One of Israel. Yet Jesus spoke no word of condemnation. He looked pityingly upon Judas, and said, For this hour came I into the world. - {DA 722.2}

Mt 27:3

Mt 27:3 - and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders - Jesus said we can not serve God and Mammon, we will love the one and despise the other. See Mt 6:24; Zech 11:12, 13

Mt 27:4

Mt 27:4 - Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood - See Prov 6:17; Heb 10:26, 27

Mt 27:5

Mt 27:5 - And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself - See Mt 26:24; Lk 22:22

Mt 27:6

Mt 27:6 - And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood - the priests' self-righteous and twisted piety is reflected in that they don't want to cause offense in one regard, using the money, the price of blood, in the treasury of God, while openly acknowledging the more heinous guilt of murder upon their hands. This reflects those with a seared conscience where they are under the control of another spirit and can not see their own spiritual blindness. See Mt 23:23; Joh 16:1-3, 18:28; Act 1:18, 4:1-21; Jam 4:17; Zech 11:12, 13

Mt 27:7 - And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in - See Zech 11:13

Mt 27:9

Mt 27:9 - Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value - See Zech 11:12, 13

Mt 27:11

Mt 27:11 - And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest - See Isa 9:6, 7; Jer 23:5, 6;

Mt 27:12

Mt 27:12 - And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing - See Isa 53:7

Mt 27:13

Mt 27:13 - Then said Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee? - Pilate marveled at Jesus' composure while accused of the Jewish leadership. This power and self-control (meekness, with no trace of fear, but rather, as One in control of the situation), made an impression upon Pilate. See Joh 19:10-12

Mt 27:14

Mt 27:14 - And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly - Jesus maintained a divine dignity that could not be reproached. Pilot himself, wondered at Jesus' composure without any sign of scorn, malice, or anger towards His accusers. God's name was being glorified in Christ before the world. See Joh 12:28; 1Pet 2:21-24; Isa 53:7; Ps 46:10

Mt 27:15

Mt 27:15 - Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would - See Act 12:4 - this ritual abode by no moral or logical sense of justice, but was merely an appeasement to the haughty Jews. The farce was perhaps a base, pagan copy of the selection of the Lord's goat and the scapegoat. See Act 12:1-5

Mt 27:16

Mt 27:16 - Barabbas - the name Barabbas meaning "son of the father", Barabbas was a counterfeit Christ who sought to take God's kingdom by force. See 1Jo 2:18

Mt 27:17

Mt 27:17 - Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ? - the practice of randomly releasing a prisoner based on popular opinion and without any due process, ethics, or regards for law and order. Such will be the fate of God's people in the last days. Joh 15:20

Mt 27:18

Mt 27:18 - For he knew that for envy they had delivered him - the hatred towards Jesus among the Jewish leadership was not concealed but out in the open such that a foreigner could clearly see their motives. This was greater reason for Pilot to dismiss the false accusations and release Jesus, adding condemnation to his cowardly act of caving to the mob - See Jam 3:14-16

Mt 27:19

Mt 27:19 - his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man - The Holy Spirit was appealing directly to Pilate through his wife. Pilate was to decide for himself whether he would accept the visual testimony of Christ and now the appeals of his wife, or would he reject the LORD of glory. Because God's witnesses in the Jews had forsaken Him, the rocks were crying out (Lk 19:40) to His defense and glory.

Mt 27:19

Mt 27:19 - Have thou nothing to do with that just man - the Holy Spirit was pleading for the last time with Pilate not to take part in other men's sins by condemning the innocent. See 1Tim 5:22

Mt 27:19

Mt 27:19 - for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him - the Holy Spirit imbued Pilot's wife with prophetic revelation of the righteousness of Christ and the danger in rejecting Him. She was so moved by the dream given her that she felt compelled to write to her husband not to partake of shedding the blood of Jesus. All of this was done in attempts to bring salvation to Pilate and his household. See Mt 27:24

Mt 27:20

Mt 27:20 - But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude - wholly given over to the control of Satan, the Jewish leadership persuaded the torn multitude to request a murderer in exchange for the King of Glory. This was the final rejection of the leadership towards Jesus Christ; their consciences were seared henceforth so that they would not accept truth no matter its form. See Mk 15:11; Joh 7:45-49, 19:12-16; Mt 27:23; Act 4:8-18 This verse illustrates the consequences of a warning given to to the saints, not to be deceived by leading men/women through vain philosophy, false science, and the traditions of men. We must stand for principle, though all the heavens may fall. See Joh 7:45-49; 1Tim 6:20; Col 2:8; Mk 7:7-9

Mt 27:21

Mt 27:21 - The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas - See Mt 27:17

Mt 27:22

Mt 27:21 - What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? - the question asked by Pilot of the rabble mob is the same question asked of every individual in every generation. For the righteous, their response would suitably be "Hosanna to the King of glory" (Ps 118:25; 24:7-10). But for the wicked, as in the time of Christ and during the French Revolution, the cry was "Crush the Wretch!" See GC 273.1

Mt 27:22 - Let him be crucified - At the crucifixion of Christ, those who had thus been healed did not join with the rabble throng in crying, "Crucify Him, crucify Him." Their sympathies were with Jesus; for they had felt His great sympathy and wonderful power. They knew Him to be their Saviour; for He had given them health of body and soul. They listened to the preaching of the apostles, and the entrance of God's word into their hearts gave them understanding. They became agents of God's mercy, and instruments of His salvation. - {DA 163.3}

Mt 27:23

Mt 27:23 - Why, what evil hath he done? - here we see a heathen and Gentile is not devoid of human sympathy and a sense of justice. Pilate's inquiry later affirms his and the Jews's guilt when they condemned Jesus to death.

Mt 27:24

Mt 27:24 - Pilate, fearing the claim by the Jewish leadership that Jesus made Himself a King in defiance of Caesar, "washed his hands" of the situation. See Joh 19:12-16

Mt 27:24

Mt 27:24 - he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it - though Pilate seemingly washed his hands of all responsibilities in the death of Christ, as a leader - vested with power and authority, and as a member of the human race, being created in God's image, he had not fulfilled that which God required of him, "to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with his God" (Mic 6:8). Pilate did not fulfill the following command: "Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it", but rather, he made himself an oppressor of the just. The sin of omission includes not speaking against evil as we must and not acting for good as we are expected - Prov 3:27. See also Jam 4:17; Joh 19:11

Mt 27:25

Mt 27:25 - Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children - this is an example of true demon possession. Satan and his imps were among the crowd of Jews and incited this chant.

Mt 27:25

Mt 27:25 - His blood be on us, and on our children - See 2Chron 36:15, 16; Mt 23:29-31; Act 5:28; Isa 30:11 the decree that Jesus' blood be charged to the Jews and their children would be fulfilled in the besiegement and destruction of Jerusalem from A.D.66-70. In mercy, God gave the children of that generation time to decide for themselves whether they would accept or reject Jesus. See Eze 18:1-4, 20; Act 13:43-47 For nearly forty years after the doom of Jerusalem had been pronounced by Christ Himself, the Lord delayed His judgments upon the city and the nation. Wonderful was the long-suffering of God toward the rejectors of His gospel and the murderers of His Son. The parable of the unfruitful tree represented God's dealings with the Jewish nation. The command had gone forth, "Cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?" (Lk 13:7) but divine mercy had spared it yet a little longer. There were still many among the Jews who were ignorant of the character and the work of Christ. And the children had not enjoyed the opportunities or received the light which their parents had spurned. Through the preaching of the apostles and their associates, God would cause light to shine upon them; they would be permitted to see how prophecy had been fulfilled, not only in the birth and life of Christ, but in His death and resurrection. The children were not condemned for the sins of the parents; but when, with a knowledge of all the light given to their parents, the children rejected the additional light granted to themselves, they became partakers of the parents' sins, and filled up the measure of their iniquity. - {GC 27.3}

Mt 27:26 - Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified - this verse embodies the gospel, a strange exchange, where the guilty is set free and the Innocent is condemned. This is the Lord's doing and it is marvelous in our eyes!! See Ps 118:23; Mt 21:42, Mk 12:11; 2Cor 8:9; Joh 3:16; 2Cor 5:21; Gal 3:13; Heb 2:9; 1Jo 2:2; Isa 53:6

Mt 27:27

Mt 27:27 - Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers - Scripture only reveals what would be decent to disclose of the suffering of Christ. Only heaven knows that which Jesus endured at the hands of men possessed with the spirit of Satan and given over to their vile lusts and passions.

Mt 27:29

Mt 27:29 - And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! - though in mockery, the Rom had actually made Jesus a King: they placed on Him a robe, they plated a crown and they gave Him a reed for scepter. They made Jesus King in spite of their mockery. - Hymn #155 verse 2 When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

Mt 27:30

Mt 27:30 - And they spit upon him - See Isa 50:6

Mt 27:33

Mt 27:33 - And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull - See Lk 23:33

Mt 27:34

Mt 27:34 - They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink - Jesus did not want His mind clouded by the strong drink, knowing He was to face a great trial upon the cross with the prince of evil. See 1Pet 5:8; Num 6:1-4; Mt 2:23; Judges 13:7; Lk 1:15; Mt 27:48

Mt 27:35

Mt 27:35 - And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots - See Ps 22:16, 18; Gen 3:15

Mt 27:36

Mt 27:36 - And sitting down they watched him there - See Job 16:10; Ps 22:13

Mt 27:37

Mt 27:37 - THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS - Pilot meant not to directly insult the Jewish leaders who had renounced their claims to be Jews, stating that "we have no king but Caesar" (Joh 19:15; Mt 27:25) but he was moved by divine hands to pronounce this declaration to all who would see.

Mt 27:38

Mt 27:38 - Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left. - Jesus stood between the living and the dead. One of the thieves would repent and accept Jesus' gift of redemption while the other would remain dead in his trespasses and sins. See Mt 25:31-46 Jesus was numbered among the transgressors: See Isa 53:9, 12; Mk 15:28

Mt 27:39

Mt 27:39 - And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads - See Isa 53:3, 4; Ps 22:8

Mt 27:40

Mt 27:40 - Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself - misinterpreting Jesus' words, the crowd sneered at Him with His own words as He died on the cross. See Joh 2:19

Mt 27:42

Mt 27:42 - He saved others; himself he cannot save - the hateful and malicious scribes and Pharisees unknowingly spoke a truth that they could not fathom. Jesus once declared that no man taketh His life but rather He laid it down for the sins of the world (Joh 10:18, 15:13). So too, Jesus could not save humanity and save Himself also. Therefore, Jesus chose to save mankind and yield His own life possibly for eternity so He thought in His humanness. His willing submission to God's plan for the sake of humanity has endeared Jesus all the more to His Father (Joh 10:17; Gen 22:8-18).

Mt 27:42

Mt 27:42 - If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him - Jesus stated that even if one come from the dead, the hardened Jews would not receive the light and believe. They received a seared conscience (1Tim 4:2) and refused to believe the truth even when abundantly obvious. See Lk 16:30, 31

Mt 27:43

Mt 27:43 - He trusted in God, let Him deliver Him now - See Ps 22:8; Isa 53:4; Lam 1:12

Mt 27:43

Mt 27:43 - let him deliver him now, if he will have him - the chief priests and scribes saw Jesus accursed of God as He hung upon the tree. They did not realize this was the Father's divine purpose and plan for His Son, so that the very ones who mocked Him might be saved.

See Gal 3:13; 2Cor 5:21; Rom 8:3

Mt 27:44

Mt 27:44 - The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth - even the guilty and condemned jeered at Jesus. He walked the winepress alone and there was none with Him. See Isa 63:3, 53:6

Mt 27:45

Mt 27:45 - Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour - the earth and nature were in an uproar as they beheld their Creator shamefully hanging from a cross. From 12noon until 3PM this spectacle horrified the creation as it in revolt was covered in darkness. This darkness encased the Father and His angels Who observed the dying Sacrifice for humanity. See Ps 97:2; Isa 54:7; 2Sam 22:12

Mt 27:46

Mt 27:46 - And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? - See Ps 22:1; Isa 54:7 The history of the condescension, humiliation and sacrifice of our divine Lord does not with many stir the soul, and affect the life any more, nor awaken deeper interest, than to read of the death of the martyrs of Jesus. Many have suffered death by slow tortures. Others have suffered death by crucifixion. In what does the death of God's dear Son differ from these? It is true he died upon the cross a most cruel death; yet others, for his dear sake, have suffered equally, as far as bodily torture is concerned. Why was the suffering of Christ more dreadful than that of other persons who have yielded their lives for his sake? If the sufferings of Christ consisted in physical pain alone, then his death was no more painful than that of some of the martyrs. Bodily pain was but an item in the agony of God's dear Son. The sins of the world were upon him, also the sense of his Father's wrath as he suffered the penalty of the law. It was these that crushed his divine soul. It was the hiding of his Father's face, a sense that his own dear Father had forsaken him, which brought despair. The separation that sin makes between God and man was fully realized and keenly felt by the innocent, suffering Man of Calvary. He was oppressed by the powers of darkness. He had not one ray of light to brighten the future. And he was struggling with the power of Satan, who was declaring that Christ was in his hands, that he was superior in strength to the Son of God, that God had disowned his Son, and that he was no longer in the favor of God any more than himself. If he was indeed still in favor with God, why need he die? God could save him from death. Christ yielded not in the least degree to the tormenting foe, even in his bitterest anguish. Legions of evil angels were all about the Son of God. Yet the holy angels were bidden not to break their ranks and engage in conflict with the taunting reviling foe. Heavenly angels were not permitted to minister unto the anguished spirit of the Son of God. It was in this terrible hour of darkness, the face of his Father hidden, legions of evil angels enshrouding him, the sins of the world upon him, that the words were wrenched from his lips, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me." - {PH169 14.3}

Mt 27:46

Mt 27:46 - My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me - God was cut off, dismembered, ripped apart from His Father based on the covenant established from the beginning and revealed to Abram. See Gen 15:9, 17; Isa 54:7, 8 Upon Christ as our substitute and surety was laid the iniquity of us all. He was counted a transgressor, that He might redeem us from the condemnation of the law. The guilt of every descendant of Adam was pressing upon His heart. The wrath of God against sin, the terrible manifestation of His displeasure because of iniquity, filled the soul of His Son with consternation. All His life Christ had been publishing to a fallen world the good news of the Father's mercy and pardoning love. Salvation for the chief of sinners was His theme. But now with the terrible weight of guilt He bears, He cannot see the Father's reconciling face. The withdrawal of the divine countenance from the Saviour in this hour of supreme anguish pierced His heart with a sorrow that can never be fully understood by man. So great was this agony that His physical pain was hardly felt. - {DA 753.1}

Mt 27:48 - And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink - See Num 6:1-8; Mt 27:34, 2:23;

Mt 27:50

Mt 27:50 - Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost - See Eccl 12:7

Mt 27:51

Mt 27:51 - the veil of the temple was rent in twain from top to bottom - the Lord tearing the veil with His hands signaled the enmity that had existed in mankind from the transgression of Adam, had been broken through the Cross of Jesus Christ. (Ephesians 2:11-18; 2Cor 3:14) Further, it signified the end of the earthly sanctuary services and its ceremonial rites. No longer would the services have any significance as a new dispensation was introduced with the communion and was to be inaugurated at Pentecost, when Jesus would consecrate the heavenly sanctuary for His mediation for men. That was a never-to-be-forgotten Sabbath to the sorrowing disciples, and also to the priests, rulers, scribes, and people. At the setting of the sun on the evening of the preparation day the trumpets sounded, signifying that the Sabbath had begun. The Passover was observed as it had been for centuries, while He to whom it pointed had been slain by wicked hands, and lay in Joseph's tomb. On the Sabbath the courts of the temple were filled with worshipers. The high priest from Golgotha was there, splendidly robed in his sacerdotal garments. White-turbaned priests, full of activity, performed their duties. But some present were not at rest as the blood of bulls and goats was offered for sin. They were not conscious that type had met antitype, that an infinite sacrifice had been made for the sins of the world. They knew not that there was no further value in the performance of the ritual service. But never before had that service been witnessed with such conflicting feelings. The trumpets and musical instruments and the voices of the singers were as loud and clear as usual. But a sense of strangeness pervaded everything. One after another inquired about a strange event that had taken place. Hitherto the most holy place had been sacredly guarded from intrusion. But now it was open to all eyes. The heavy veil of tapestry, made of pure linen, and beautifully wrought with gold, scarlet, and purple, was rent from top to bottom. The place where Jehovah had met with the high priest, to communicate His glory, the place that had been God's sacred audience chamber, lay open to every eye,—a place no longer recognized by the Lord. With gloomy presentiments the priests ministered before the altar. The uncovering of the sacred mystery of the most holy place filled them with dread of coming calamity. - {DA 774.2} The rending of the veil of the temple showed that the Jewish sacrifices and ordinances would no longer be received... the Holy Spirit which descended on the day of Pentecost carried the minds of the disciples from the earthly sanctuary to the heavenly, where Jesus had entered by His own blood, to shed upon His disciples the benefits of His atonement. But the Jews were left in total darkness. They lost all the light which they might have had upon the plan of salvation, and still trusted in their useless sacrifices and offerings. The heavenly sanctuary had taken the place of the earthly, yet they had no knowledge of the change. Therefore they could not be benefited by the mediation of Christ in the holy place. {Early Writings pg 259.1}

Mt 27:51

Mt 27:50 - and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent - all of nature was in an uproar as He Who sustains all things by the power of His word, had yielded His life a sacrifice for sin. The earth will once again be in a commotion when Jesus returns the Second Time, apart from sin, to claim His prized possessions. See Heb 1:3; Col 1:16, 17; Act 17:28; Heb 9:28

Mt 27:52

Mt 27:52 - many bodies of the saints which slept arose - As Christ arose, He brought from the grave a multitude of captives. The earthquake at His death had rent open their graves, and when He arose, they came forth with Him. They were those who had been co-laborers with God, and who at the cost of their lives had borne testimony to the truth. Now they were to be witnesses for Him who had raised them from the dead. - {DA 786.1} During His ministry, Jesus had raised the dead to life. He had raised the son of the widow of Nain, and the ruler's daughter and Lazarus. But these were not clothed with immortality. After they were raised, they were still subject to death. But those who came forth from the grave at Christ's resurrection were raised to everlasting life. They ascended with Him as trophies of His victory over death and the grave. These, said Christ, are no longer the captives of Satan; I have redeemed them. I have brought them from the grave as the first fruits of My power, to be with Me where I am, nevermore to see death or experience sorrow. - {DA 786.2}

Mt 27:53

Mt 27:53 - And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many - During His ministry, Jesus had raised the dead to life. He had raised the son of the widow of Nain, and the ruler's daughter and Lazarus. But these were not clothed with immortality. After they were raised, they were still subject to death. But those who came forth from the grave at Christ's resurrection were raised to everlasting life. They ascended with Him as trophies of His victory over death and the grave. These, said Christ, are no longer the captives of Satan; I have redeemed them. I have brought them from the grave as the first fruits of My power, to be with Me where I am, nevermore to see death or experience sorrow. - {DA 786.2} These went into the city, and appeared unto many, declaring, Christ has risen from the dead, and we be risen with Him. Thus was immortalized the sacred truth of the resurrection. The risen saints bore witness to the truth of the words, "Thy dead men shall live, together with My dead body shall they arise." Their resurrection was an illustration of the fulfillment of the prophecy, "Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead." Isa 26:19. - {DA 786.3}

Mt 27:54

Mt 27:54 - Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God - the thief on the cross and the Centurion both gave witness to Jesus' divinity while others scorned or doubted through unbelief and disappointment. See Lk 23:47; Isa 53:1; Ps 46:10 But although Christ's divine glory was for a time veiled and eclipsed by His assuming humanity, yet He did not cease to be God when He became man. The human did not take the place of the divine, nor the divine of the human. This is the mystery of godliness. The two expressions "human" and "divine" were, in Christ, closely and inseparably one, and yet they had a distinct individuality. Though Christ humbled Himself to become man, the Godhead was still His own. His deity could not be lost while He stood faithful and true to His loyalty. Surrounded with sorrow, suffering, and moral pollution, despised and rejected by the people to whom had been intrusted the oracles of heaven, Jesus could yet speak of Himself as the Son of man in heaven. He was ready to take once more His divine glory when His work on earth was done. - {5BC 1129.3}

Mt 27:57 - When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathaea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: - the eve of the Sabbath had arrived when Joseph of Arimethia asked Pilate for Jesus' body. God is specific in giving the account of time for future generations to show that His words are true, that indeed, Jesus was in the heart of the earth for three days.

Mt 27:60

Mt 27:60 - And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed - Jesus, though numbered with the transgressors, was buried among the rich in death. See Isa 53:9

Mt 27:62

Mt 27:62 - Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation - the day that weekly follows the preparation is the Sabbath day itself. As pious and sanctimonious as the Pharisees sought to appear, they had no problem breaking the Sabbath to secure the grave where Jesus laid in death.

Mt 27:62

Mt 27:62 - the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate - though overly meticulous in observing every Sabbath regulation, those made of God and man-made, yet the Pharisees took it upon themselves in violation of the laws to petition Pilate to secure the sepulcher where Jesus was laid.

Mt 27:64

Mt 27:64 - Command therefore that the sepulcher me made sure - So weak men counseled and planned. Little did these murderers realize the uselessness of their efforts. But by their action God was glorified. The very efforts made to prevent Christ's resurrection are the most convincing arguments in its proof. The greater the number of soldiers placed around the tomb, the stronger would be the testimony that He had risen. Hundreds of years before the death of Christ, the Holy Spirit had declared through the psalmist, "Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against His anointed.... He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision." Ps 2:1-4. Roman guards and Roman arms were powerless to confine the Lord of life within the tomb. The hour of His release was near. - {DA 778.2}

Mt 27:64

Mt 27:64 - so the last error shall be worse than the first - the Pharisees were often motivated by the Holy Spirit to speak prophetic words of condemnation for themselves and those who follow in their footsteps. The fulfillment of their prophecy is seen today, as Evangelicals are blinded by a false "Jewish nationalism" such that they will risk everything to see a false prophecy come to fruition. Just as the Jewish people en mass had been deceived by their leadership who wrested Scripture and Prophecy, causing them to reject Jesus at His First

Coming, so today, Christendom has been deceived by their leaders who wrest Scripture and prophecy and will cause Jesus to be missed at His Second Coming. The last error shall be worse than the first. See Act 1:6, 7; Lk 24:18-21

Mt 27:65 - Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can - The Jews were given a dispatch of Roman soldiers who were under their command to uphold their laws. See Joh 7:44-49

Mt 27:66

Mt 27:66 - So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch - The Jewish leadership, inspired by the chief rebel, sought in vain to keep Jesus within the tomb. See Ps 2:1

Mt 28:1

Mt 28:1 - In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre - again the Lord is very explicit in showing the sequence of events and timeline leading to the fulfillment of Jesus' prophecy, stating that He would rise from the dead on the third day. See Lk 24:1, 2; Mk 16:1; Joh 20:1

Mt 28:2

Mt 28:2 - And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it - the awesome power of the angel that descended from heaven shook the earth.

Mt 28:3

Mt 28:3 - His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow - this same angel, who veiled his glory to bring glad tidings to Mary that she would carry the Son of God, came in his majestic radiance such that the guards around Jesus' tomb fell as dead men.

Mt 28:4

Mt 28:4 - And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men - See Mt 28:11-15

Mt 28:6

Mt 28:6 - He is not here: for he is risen, as he said - See Joh 2:19; Mt 16:21

Mt 28:10

Mt 28:10 - Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me - See Mt 28:16, 17

Mt 28:12

Mt 28:12 - the vain Pharisees used bribery to pervert the truth and to maintain their power and influence upon the people. Such will not be in the kingdom of God. See Isa 33:15-17

Mt 28:14

Mt 28:14 - And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you - Compare Act 12:19 Meanwhile the report of Christ's resurrection had been carried to Pilate. Though Pilate was responsible for having given Christ up to die, he had been comparatively unconcerned. While he had condemned the Saviour unwillingly, and with a feeling of pity, he had felt no real compunction until now. In terror he now shut himself within his house, determined to see no one. But the priests made their way into his presence, told the story which they had invented, and urged him to overlook the sentinels' neglect of duty. Before consenting to this, he himself privately questioned the guard. They, fearing for their own safety, dared not conceal anything, and Pilate drew from them an account of all that had taken place. He did not prosecute the matter further, but from that time there was no peace for him. - {DA 782.3}

Mt 28:15

Mt 28:15 - So they took the money, and did as they were taught - The Roman soldiers sold their integrity to the Jews for money. They came in before the priests burdened with a most startling message of truth; they went out with a burden of money, and on their tongues a lying report which had been framed for them by the priests. - {DA 782.2}

Mt 28:15

Mt 28:15 - and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day - the Jews willingly accepted the false tale given by the Roman guards and the Pharisees. Willing to accept that which flew starkly in the face of reason in order to believe a lie, the Jews' hatred for Jesus drove them to utter darkness. Their unwillingness to submit themselves to the truth left them open to believing a lie. Rom 10:1-5; 2Thess 2:8-12

Mt 28:18

Mt 28:18 - All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth - All "power" speaks of the same power that created the heavens and the earth, creative power. It is Jesus' creative power, made available through His shed blood, that causes us to be born again, a new creation, and that translates us into His Kingdom. See Col 1:13, 14, 16, 17; Ps 110:1, 2; 1Cor 15:24-28 "If Thou canst do anything, have compassion on us, and help us." How many a sin-burdened soul has echoed that prayer. And to all, the pitying Saviour's answer is, "If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth." It is faith that connects us with heaven, and brings us strength for coping with the powers of darkness. In Christ, God has provided means for subduing every sinful trait, and resisting every temptation, however strong. But many feel that they lack faith, and therefore they remain away from Christ. Let these souls, in their helpless unworthiness, cast themselves upon the mercy of their compassionate Saviour. Look not to self, but to Christ. He who healed the sick and cast out demons when He walked among men is the same mighty Redeemer today. Faith comes by the word of God. Then grasp His promise, "Him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out." Joh 6:37. Cast yourself at His feet with the cry, "Lord, I believe; help Thou mine unbelief." You can never perish while you do this—never. - {DA 429.1}

Mt 28:19

Mt 28:19 - teach all nations - all are to receive the gospel light that shines from the cross of Jesus in order to become a disciple of Christ. We are to make disciples through teaching, repeating, reaffirming and rehearsing. See Rev 14:6; See Col 2:7; Phil 4:9

Mt 28:19

Mt 28:19 - baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost - the Godhead is fitly described here in Jesus counsel regarding baptism. See Mt 3:16, 17; 1Jo 5:7; Act 8:37

Mt 28:20

Mt 28:20 - Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you - the commission of Christ is for His church to be as prophets to the world, declaring/proclaiming His divine truths to warn and gather His people. We are to make disciples through teaching, repeating, reaffirming, demonstrating and rehearsing the gospel. See 1Pet 2:9; Rev 14:6; Col 2:7, 3:16; Phil 4:9

Mt 28:20

Mt 28:20 - whatsoever I have commanded you - 1Cor 15:3 "Paul is referring to the regulations he had given the Corinthians concerning public worship and private conduct. He did not preach the gospel to them and then leave them to formulate their own rules of church order and social life. He did thorough work in the churches that he established, and gave instruction that enabled the new Christians to be confident in their worship and in their daily lives that they were living according to the will of their Lord (see 1 Cor. 4:17; 7:17; 2 Thess. 2:15). By so doing he left an example for all ministers of the gospel to follow. Converts to the faith should be thoroughly instructed concerning all phases of church activity and the affairs of social and domestic life, in order that they may be sure that they are carrying out the desires of the Lord for their well-being in all respects (see Ev 337-339)." {SDA Bible Commentary vol 6 on 1Cor 11:2}

Mt 28:20

Mt 28:20 - lo, I am with you alway - See Zeph 3:17; Heb 13:5 He that loveth Me shall be loved of My Father, and I will love him, and will manifest Myself to him." Jesus read the future of His disciples. He saw one brought to the scaffold, one to the cross, one to exile among the lonely rocks of the sea, others to persecution and death. He encouraged them with the promise that in every trial He would be with them. That promise has lost none of its force. The Lord knows all about His faithful servants who for His sake are lying in prison or who are banished to lonely islands. He comforts them with His own presence. When for the truth's sake the believer stands at the bar of unrighteous tribunals, Christ stands by his side. All the reproaches that fall upon him, fall upon Christ. Christ is condemned over again in the person of His disciple. When one is incarcerated in prison walls, Christ ravishes the heart with His love. When one suffers death for His sake, Christ says, "I am He that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive forevermore, ... and have the keys of hell and of death." Rev 1:18. The life that is sacrificed for Me is preserved unto eternal glory. - {DA 669.3} At all times and in all places, in all sorrows and in all afflictions, when the outlook seems dark and the future perplexing, and we feel helpless and alone, the Comforter will be sent in answer to the prayer of faith. Circumstances may separate us from every earthly friend; but no circumstance, no distance, can separate us from the heavenly Comforter. Wherever we are, wherever we may go, He is always at our right hand to support, sustain, uphold, and cheer. - {DA 669.4}

Mt 28:20

Mt 28:20 - even unto the end of the world - the end of the world will be marked by: 1. The gospel being preached in all the world: Mt 24:14 2. Jesus Judging the world in righteousness: Act 17:30, 31; Mt 13:24-30 3. Jesus Second Coming when He will separate the wheat from the tares and gather in His children: Mt 13:36-43

Mark

Mk 1:2Back to Table of Contents

Mk 1:2 - As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee - See Mal 3:1

Mk 1:3

Mk 1:3 - The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight - See Isa 40:3, 45:2

Mk 1:5

Mk 1:5 - And there went out unto him all the land of Judaea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins - Joh, the forerunner of Jesus, was a preacher of righteousness, empowered by the Holy Spirit to convict of sin, righteousness and judgment. The people were moved to confess their sins, repent and be baptized for the remission of their sins. This was the very work required to meet the Lord of glory. Joh foreshadowed the same work to be manifested before Jesus Second Coming.

Mk 1:6

Mk 1:6 - And Joh was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins - the standard attire of the prophet was apparently rough garments which typified their lives of simplicity and the coarseness that they endured of men. See 2Kin 1:8; Zech 13:2-5; Mt 3:4, 11:7, 8

Mk 1:7

Mk 1:7 - There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose - Joh, like Dan, was one who God could trust with a message of light. Joh's desire was to uplift Jesus and not self. His message was singular in directing attention to the One who was to come and make men new.

Mk 1:8

Mk 1:8 - I indeed have baptized you with water - Mk affirmed that his baptism was good and necessary, but there was a baptism still to be received by all men that would bring a transformation of life. This is what Joh directed the people to receive. See Joh 3:5-8, 14-21

Mk 1:8

Mk 1:8 - but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost - See Act 1:8; John 1:26, 27, 33; Zech 10:1

Mk 1:10

Mk 1:10, 11 - And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him: 11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. - See Isa 48:16

Mk 1:13

Mk 1:13 - And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan- Jesus did not seek trial but was directed by the Holy Spirit to the wilderness for a deeper communion with God. During this time of communion, the devil sought to tempt, distract and derail the Lord's time with His Father (Jam 1:13). So it is with us in every season of fasting, prayer, devotion or soul seeking.

Mk 1:13

Mk 1:13 - forty days - 40days or 1.33 months is significant in Biblical accounts: 1. Purifying rains fell upon the earth for 40days and nights during the flood (Gen 7:4, 12) 2. Jacob's body was embalmed for 40 days (Gen 50:3) 3. Moses' fast for 40days on Mt. Sinai with the LORD (Ex 24:18) 4. The 12 spies surveyed the land for 40days 5. Elijah's fast for 40days when fleeing Jezebel 6. The people of Nineveh were given 40days probation to repent

Mk 1:13

Mk 1:13 - and was with the wild beasts - the Lord purposed to add this additional detail to show that God's ministering angels watched over Jesus, just like Dan in the lion's den (Dan 6:22), while in the wilderness. Jesus, our Good Shepherd's rod and staff will protect His sheep when in times of peril among wild beasts. Ps 23:4

Mk 1:13

Mk 1:13 - and the angels ministered unto him - See Heb 1:14

Mk 1:14

Mk 1:14 - Now after that Joh was put in prison - consider the irony, the preacher of righteousness, pointing men to the path of salvation is evil treated and placed in prison. Such is the love the world has for the messengers of God. See Gen 3:15

Mk 1:15

Mk 1:15 - The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel - the time that Jesus spoke of was specifically forecasted by the prophet Dan. Dan 9:24-27

Mk 1:18

Mark 1:18 - And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him - John the Baptist fulfilled his work in preparing the hearts of the people to receive Jesus. Peter and Andrew heard John's message of One greater than he to come, and immediately responded to Jesus' invitation. Andrew and Peter were also honored to be chosen as disciples of a man of high esteem and jumped at the opportunity.

Mk 1:20

Mk 1:20 - they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him - familial relationships and our love for them must not hinder Jesus' call to follow Him. The disciples did not consider how the family would fair and how expenses would be met. They heeded God's call and followed Him, leaving the outcome to Him. See Lk 9:59; Mt 8:21, 22

Mk 1:21

Mk 1:21 - straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught - as was Jesus' custom, He went immediately to the synagogue and taught on the Sabbath day.

Mk 1:22

Mk 1:22 - And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes - Jesus spoke the pure, unadulterated word in spirit and in truth. Because He made no attempts to wrest Scripture from their intended meaning (2Pet 3:16; Ps 56:5), the Holy Spirit's power accompanied His words so that they were as new wine to those hearing and tasting for the first time.

Mk 1:23

Mk 1:23 - And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out - the unclean spirits seek to be in church and cause confusion among the saints. At times they cry out, causing confusion; at times they speak with a caviling, scornful spirit; at times they bring up vain arguments and disputes; at times they speak man's wisdom and philosophy. See Eph 5:6; Col 2:8; 1Tim 6:20; 2Tim 2:16, 17, 23-26; Gal 5:19, 20

Mk 1:24

Mk 1:24 - thou art, the Holy One of God - the holiness that Jesus assumed with His incarnation was unlike that of the Father and Holy Spirit, a holiness which He laid down. The holiness of the Father and Holy Spirit is above sin so that they can not be tempted. Jesus however, assuming our humanity, could be tempted by sin but remained unspotted by sin. Jesus' holiness is a victorious holiness producing righteousness. See Jam 1:13; Heb 4:15; Hab 1:12; Lk 4:34

Mk 1:25

Mk 1:25 - Jesus rebuked him say, hold thy peace - The devils were speaking truth in acknowledging Jesus for Who He is, however, it was in the wrong spirit. One can say the right things with the wrong spirit working within. Therefore Jesus told the devils to be silent. See Act 16:16-18; Mk 3:11, 12 Jesus delivered this captive of Satan, being superior over the devil and his hosts. See Isa 49:24, 25

Mk 1:26

Mk 1:26 - And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him - interestingly the unclean spirits never leave without a fight or a performance. See Mk 9:26

Mk 1:27

Mk 1:27 - for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him - See Mt 17:18

Mk 1:28

Mk 1:28 - And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee - See Mk 1:45

Mk 1:31

Mk 1:31 - And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them - So was Dorcas/Tabitha who was raised from the dead. Her good works preceded her and the Lord knew she would be of good service to His kingdom as long as she lived, so He raised her up from her death sleep to minister to the needs of the poor and needy. See Act 9:36-41

Mk 1:32

Mk 1:32 - And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils - for fear of the Jewish leadership who would be opposed to Jesus healing on the Sabbath, the people waited until the close of the Sabbath to bring their sick and halt to Jesus.

Mk 1:34

Mk 1:34 - and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him - See Mk 1:24, 25, 3:11, 12; Lk 10:18

Mk 1:35

Mk 1:35 - And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed - See Isa 50:4, 5

Mk 1:38

Mk 1:38 - Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth - our ministry is not to be limited to our immediate surroundings and comfort zone where we have already experienced successes. We are to branch out and bring healing, restorative messages and counsel to all the world. See Mt 28:19, 20

Mk 1:40

Mk 1:40 - And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean - See Mt 8:2

Mk 1:40

Mk 1:40 - If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean - In this statement is a confession of faith and a humble petition of mercy. The Leper in faith approached Jesus, recognizing all power belonged to Him and He alone could make him clean. The leper also in humility submitted himself to the will and mercy of God, petitioning His grace to heal him of his death sentence. Jesus responded to both the profession of faith and the petition for mercy. THANK YOU JESUS!!!!

Mk 1:44

Mk 1:44 - See thou say nothing to any man - Had the priests known the facts concerning the healing of the leper, their hatred of Christ might have led them to render a dishonest sentence. Jesus desired the man to present himself at the temple before any rumors concerning the miracle had reached them. Thus an impartial decision could be secured, and the restored leper would be permitted to unite once more with his family and friends. - {DA 264.2}

Mk 1:44

Mk 1:44 - but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them - the law of health and hygiene contained in the Law of Moses was emphasized by Jesus. Lev 13:1-10 Every act of Christ's ministry was far-reaching in its purpose. It comprehended more than appeared in the act itself. So in the case of the leper. While Jesus ministered to all who came unto Him, He yearned to bless those who came not. While He drew the publicans, the heathen, and the Samaritans, He longed to reach the priests and teachers who were shut in by prejudice and tradition. He left untried no means by which they might be reached. In sending the healed leper to the priests, He gave them a testimony calculated to disarm their prejudices. - {DA 265.1}

Mk 1:45

Mk 1:45 - But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter - See Mk 1:28

Mk 2:2

Mk 2:2 - and he preached the word unto them - See Act 5:42

Mk 2:5

Mk 2:5 - When Jesus saw their faith - the faith of the paralytic's friends, not that of the paralytic, was the key that unlocked the door to the LORD's blessings. Jesus was surrounded in the house by scoffers and those ridden with unbelief. The Bible speaks of other instances where unbelief was prevalent: "And he did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief." Mt 13:58. God requires a channel by which His mercies may come forth and shine through. When we speak statements such as "I can't", "I'm not able" it grieves the LORD. The LORD assures us that "I can do all things through Christ, which strengtheneth me." Phil 4:13. This states that anything that strengthens my faith and my walk with Jesus, I can do with Christ's aid. What we are actually saying is "I won't" or "I am not willing". This is unbelief, where the LORD can not work.

Mk 2:7

Mk 2:7 - Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only? - See Lk 5:21, 7:49; Joh 10:33; Rev 13:5; Dan 7:25

Mk 2:10

Mk 2:10, 11 - But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house. - Jesus through His miracle of healing the paralytic affirmed the indwelling power of God to forgive sins. The Jewish leadership's future accusations of Jesus speaking blasphemies was from a lying spirit. See Joh 10:25, 14:10, 11; Mt 26:65

Mk 2:12

Mk 2:12 - We never saw it on this fashion - See Joh 7:44-46

Mk 2:14

Mk 2:14 - And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him - See Lk 15:1

Mk 2:15

Mk 2:15 - And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him - See Lk 15:1

Mk 2:16

Mk 2:16 - How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners? - The Jewish leaders thought, "surely this can not be an upright man who eats with sinners and publicans." Many of those sinners were so because of the very coldness and hypocrisy of the same leaders. Mt 11:16-19; Lk 15:2

Mk 2:17

Mk 2:18 - I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance - The Bible declares that there are none righteous (Isa 53:6; Rom 3:10) therefore, Jesus is implying to the Pharisees that their self-righteousness is as filthy rags (Isa 64:6). Jesus, the True Witness, was seeking to point out that they, as Joh the Baptist declared, must repent and bring forth fruit of righteousness as the publicans and sinners they despised were doing, or be cut off. Isa 27:4, 5

Mk 2:20

Mk 2:20 - But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days - See Joh 20:19; Act 1:12-26

Mk 2:22

Mk 2:22 - And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles - Jesus spoke of Himself and His doctrine as new wine, wherein there is a blessing (Isa 65:8). His new wine which He gives must be placed in new vessels (new, converted creations), ready to receive Him and His messages, spoken in Spirit and in Truth. An old (unconverted) vessel can not receive it because the new wine will rend it (cause division).

Mk 2:23

Mk 2:23 - and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn - in hunger and homelessness given their itinerant lifestyle of daily sharing blessings with Jesus, the disciples were not negligent in making preparation for the Sabbath, but rather were in no position to do so. The daily bread which they ate was neither gathered nor planned, but as the Lord provided. Walking through the corn field, it was customary for them to eat according to their immediate needs, but not to plunder.

Mk 2:24

Mk 2:23 - Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful? - The Jews made an idol of the Sabbath, worshipping the day rather than the God of the day See Ex 16:16-30; 2Kin 18:4

Mk 2:25

Mk 2:25 - Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him? - See 1Sam 21:1-6

Mk 2:26

Mk 2:26 - How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him? - See 1Sam 21:11-6

Mk 2:27

Mk 2:27 - The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath: - the Sabbath was made to be a blessing to mankind and all of the creatures of God (Ex 20:8-11). The day was to be for the service of restoring, healing, fortifying, empowering and reminding men in their walk with, and faith in God. The Sabbath was not intended to be a burden, drudgery, and time spent in vain ritualism, but a blessing of refreshing. See Isa 58:13 "God determines what is lawful more by one's motive than by one's action: I the motive for doing the action is in tune with God's purpose for giving the law, the action is lawful; if the motive is not in tune with God's purpose for giving the law, the action is unlawful (see Mark 2:25, 26)" {from The Abiding in Jesus Bible Study: Lesson Seven: The Truth about Entering God's Rest - Part Two, by Pastor Gregory Jackson}

Mk 2:28

Mk 2:28 - Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath - See Isa 58:13; Ex 20:10

Mk 3:4

Mk 3:4 - Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? - The Sabbath was made to be a blessing to man, and not a burden for which men must serve. See Mk 2:27

Mk 3:4

Mk 3:4 - But they held their peace - the desire to find fault and accuse Jesus outweighed the Spirit of the Law which Christ spoke. They denied the conviction of the Holy Spirit which comes when truth is spoken so that they might fulfill their blood-thirsty aims.

Mk 3:5

Mk 3:5 - And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts - Jesus was grieved with men's cold indifference to the suffering of others. See Am 8:4-7; See Lk 14:4

Mk 3:6

Mk 3:6 - Herodians - The name of a group mentioned in the NT, which on two occasions joined the Pharisees in an attempt to trap Jesus (Mt 22:16; Mk 3:6; 12:13). No political party by that name is known, so it is usually thought they were people who supported Herod

Antipas, who did much to please the Jews by living an orthodox Jewish life and must therefore have had Jewish sympathizers. It is possible they were in favor of the Hellenization movement supported by the Herods. They may also have been wealthy people to whom the stable government of the Herods meant continued prosperity and security. Jerome thought that the Herodians were Herod's soldiers, whereas other commentators have seen in them court officials of Herod. {SDA Bible Dictionary}

Mk 3:8

Mk 3:8 - Idumea - The name used by the Greeks and Rom for Edom (Mk 3:8). In the KJV OT the term occurs several times for Edom, the land area between the Dead Sea and the Gulf of Aqabah. In the intertestamental and NT periods the name Idumea designated an area to the west and northwest of old Edom in southern Judah (Geographic Regions of Palestine). This area received the name Idumea from the Edomites because they had moved into the south of Judah after the fall of Jerusalem in 586 b.c., and again after being driven out from their former homeland by the Arabic Nabataeans in the 4th cent. b.c. In Maccabean times the Edomites held such important Hebrew cities as Beth-zur and Hebron (1 Macc 4:29; 5:65). The Maccabean ruler Joh Hyrcanus finally subjugated them and forced them to accept the Jewish religion (Jos. Ant. xiii. 9. 1). As Jewish proselytes they thus technically became Jews and were regarded as part of the Jewish nation. The Herods were of Idumean descent.

Mk 3:11

Mk 3:11 - And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God - See Mk 1:24, 25, 34

Mk 3:14

Mk 3:14 - And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach - It was at the ordination of the Twelve that the first step was taken in the organization of the church that after Christ's departure was to carry on His work on the earth. Of this ordination the record says, "He goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto Him whom He would: and they came unto Him. And He ordained twelve, that they should be with Him, and that He might send them forth to preach." Mk 3:13, 14. - {AA 18.1}

Mk 3:17

Mk 3:17 - he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder: - See Lk 9:51-56

Mk 3:22

Mk 3:22 - And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils - a delegation of Pharisees continually pursued Jesus to heckle His works and to spy on His words.

Mk 3:25

Mk 3:25 - And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand - See Am 3:3; 2Cor 6:14, 15; Mt 12:25; Lk 11:15, 18

Mk 3:26

Mk 3:216 - And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end. - The willing subjects of Satan are faithful, active, and united in one object. And although they hate and war with one another, yet they improve every opportunity to advance their common interest. {1T 345.3}

Mk 3:27

Mk 3:27 - No man can enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house - Jesus here speaks of the work appointed to Him, to bind up the enemy, set the captives free and break the power of sin over the sons of men. See Isa 61:1; Heb 2:14

Mk 3:28

Mk 3:28 - Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme: - See Act 2:39

Mk 3:29

Mk 3:29 - But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation: - those who willfully and scornfully deride the works and power of the Holy Spirit, grieve the Spirit of Truth Who is appointed to open the eyes of our understanding to truth. They chose darkness over light, a depraved mind over an enlightened mind, and therefore, find themselves under God's condemnation and wrath. See Rom 1:18-32 God does not compel men to give up their unbelief. Before them are light and darkness, truth and error. It is for them to decide which they will accept. The human mind is endowed with power to discriminate between right and wrong. God designs that men shall not decide from impulse, but from weight of evidence, carefully comparing scripture with scripture. Had the Jews laid by their prejudice and compared written prophecy with the facts characterizing the life of Jesus, they would have perceived a beautiful harmony between the prophecies and their fulfillment in the life and ministry of the lowly Galilean. - {DA 458.3} - DA 458.3

Mk 3:30

Mk 3:30 - Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit - Those who saw Jesus' works were convinced that His was the power of God (See . Yet they, denied the truth and called it a lie and called light darkness. See Isa 5:20; Jam 4:17; Act 2:22

Mk 3:31

Mk 3:31 - There came then his brethren and his mother, and, standing without, sent unto him, calling him - Mary and Jesus' brothers (the sons of Joseph), fearing the rumors they heard of Jesus, came to censor Him. All this displeased His brothers. Being older than Jesus, they felt that He should be under their dictation. They charged Him with thinking Himself superior to them, and reproved Him for setting Himself above their teachers and the priests and rulers of the people. Often they threatened and tried to intimidate Him; but He passed on, making the Scriptures His guide. - {DA 87.2} She looked upon the associations of the home, and the mother's tender watchcare over her children, as of vital importance in the formation of character. The sons and daughters of Joseph knew this, and by appealing to her anxiety, they tried to correct the practices of Jesus according to their standard. - {DA 90.1}

Mk 3:33

Mk 3:33 - Who is my mother, or my brethren? - Jesus once again emphasizes the nature of His Kingdom, where familial relations, heredity or any other "privileges" have no bearing. God has no grandchildren, only sons and daughters. All are Christ's brothers, sisters, mothers, etc. See Lk 3:8; AA 20.1

Mk 4:2

Mk 4:2 - And he taught them many things by parables - See Ps 78:1-3

Mk 4:6

Mk 4:6 - but when the sun was up - the seed that fell on stony ground had n roots and therefore in the day of the Sunday Law, when the heat is applied as with the three Hebrew boys in Dan 3, these will be scorched because they had no moisture in them (Mk 4:16, 17; Lk 8:6)

Mk 4:7

Mk 4:7 - And some fell among thorns - those which fell among briars and thorns were swayed by their scoffing, ungodly, critical, un-Christlike influence. See Isa 27:4, 5

Mk 4:8

Mk 4:8 - And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred. - See Heb 6:7

Mk 4:8

Mk 4:8 - and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred - See Mt 25:15

Mk 4:11

Mk 4:11 - Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables - See 1Cor 2:12-14

Mk 4:12

Mk 4:12 - That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them - See Isa 6:9, 10

Mk 4:15

Mk 4:15 - Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts - Satan creates a distraction that robs the person of the prospect of hearing and walking in the light. The distraction may be that they see the cost, the sacrifice required to follow the paths of righteousness and Satan makes it appear impossible or unreasonable. Satan invents unnumbered schemes to occupy our minds, that they may not dwell upon the very work with which we ought to be best acquainted. The archdeceiver hates the great truths that bring to view an atoning sacrifice and an all-powerful mediator. He knows that with him everything depends on his diverting minds from Jesus and His truth. - {GC 488.1}

Mk 4:17

Mk 4:17 - when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended - when family, peer or social pressures arise for the truth embraced, many draw back to perdition. See Heb 10:39

Mk 4:19

Mk 4:19 - And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful - See 1Jo 2:16

Mk 4:19

Mk 4:19 - the deceitfulness of riches - money and the love of it are false gods that give people the illusion of having power - See 1Tim 6:9, 10; Heb 3:13; Mt 13:22

Mk 4:20

Mk 4:20 - And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred - See Mk 4:8; Heb 6:7

Mk 4:22

Mk 4:22 - For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad - See Joh 3:19-21; Eph 5:13

Mk 4:23

Mark 4:23 - If any man have ears to hear, let him hear - a statement of admonition for all to take heed.

Mk 4:24

Mk 4:24 - Take heed what ye hear - be careful to listen and apply all that you hear.

Mk 4:24

Mk 4:24 - with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you - the extent to which we hear, embrace, and apply ourselves to a matter, it will be rewarded unto us.

Mk 4:24

Mk 4:24 - and unto you that hear shall more be given - those who hear and apply, more will be given to them.

Mk 4:29

Mk 4:29 - But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come - See Rev 14:15

Mk 4:29

Mk 4:29 - immediately he putteth in the sickle - See Rev 14:15

Mk 4:30

Mk 4:30 - Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it? - See AA 12.2

Mk 4:33

Mk 4:33 - And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it - See Joh 16:12

Mk 4:39

Mk 4:39 - And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea - See Ps 77:16, 89:9, 107:23-30

Mk 4:39

Mk 4:39 - Peace be Still - Jesus restrains the Four Winds of strife upon the boats on the Sea of Galilee. Galilee (meaning "a hinge") marked a turning point in Jesus' Ministry. See Ps 65:7

Mk 4:40

Mk 4:40 - Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith? - Jesus marveled that we have fear while knowing our Heavenly Father is sitting on the throne. Jesus is trying to teach on object lesson of finding peace in God by trusting in Him and in His promises. See Heb 2:11, 13; Ps 91:11; Mk 5:36 Joh and Charles Wesley, after being ordained to the ministry, were sent on a mission to America. On board the ship was a company of Moravians. Violent storms were encountered on the passage, and Joh Wesley, brought face to face with death, felt that he had not the assurance of peace with God. The Germans, on the contrary, manifested a calmness and trust to which he was a stranger. - {GC 254.3} "I had long before," he says, "observed the great seriousness of their behavior. Of their humility they had given a continual proof, by performing those servile offices for the other passengers which none of the English would undertake; for which they desired and would receive no pay, saying it was good for their proud hearts, and their loving Saviour had done more for them. And every day had given them occasion of showing a meekness which no injury could move. If they were pushed, struck, or thrown about, they rose again and went away; but no complaint was found in their mouth. There was now an opportunity of trying whether they were delivered from the spirit of fear, as well as from that of pride, anger, and revenge. In the midst of the psalm wherewith their service began, the sea broke over, split the mainsail in pieces, covered the ship, and poured in between the decks as if the great deep had already swallowed us up. A terrible screaming began among the English. The Germans calmly sang on. I asked one of them afterwards, 'Were you not afraid?' He answered, 'I thank God, no.' I asked, 'But were not your women and children afraid?' He replied mildly, 'No; our women and children are not afraid to die.'"—Whitehead, Life of the Rev. Joh Wesley, page 10. - {GC 255.1}

Mk 4:41

Mk 4:41 - What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him? - Hymn #461 Be Still My Soul verse 2

Mk 5:7

Mk 5:7 - What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? - Even the demons recognize and fear Jesus, the Son of God. These beings recognize Jesus as the God that He is. See Jam 2:19; Lk 10:18; Rev 12:4

Mk 5:7

Mk 5:7 - I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not - the unclean spirit sought from Jesus that which he was not willing to grant his victim, mercy. He pled that Jesus not begin the torments that are reserved for it and the devil in the Lake of Fire. See Mt 25:41; Rev

20:10, 14, 15

Mk 5:9

Mk 5:9 - My name is Legion: for we are many - a Roman Legion at the time of Christ was comprised of 500 cavalry men and 6 thousand infantry men. Therefore, this man was possessed by approximately 6,500 demons. See act 19:16

Mk 5:18

Mk 5:18 - And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him. - The man feared that the devils may return and desired to remain close to Christ. However, Jesus said, "He whom the Son has set free is free indeed". Jesus cast the demons out for good and knew the man, in gratitude to God, would be willing to pursue a life of obedience. See Joh 8:36; Act 3:11 During His ministry Jesus devoted more time to healing the sick than to preaching. His miracles testified to the truth of His words, that He came not to destroy but to save. His righteousness went before Him, and the glory of the Lord was His rearward. Wherever He went, the tidings of His mercy preceded Him. Where He had passed, the objects of His compassion were rejoicing in health, and making trial of their new-found powers. Crowds were collecting around them to hear from their lips the works that the Lord had wrought. His voice was the first sound that many had ever heard, His name the first word they had ever spoken, His face the first they had ever looked upon. Why should they not love Jesus, and sound His praise? As He passed through the towns and cities He was like a vital current, diffusing life and joy wherever He went. - {DA 350.3}

Mk 5:19

Mk 5:19 - Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee - We are often reluctant to go to those who know us best and give our testimony of God's deliverance, but this exactly who Jesus directed the former demoniac to engage. His testimony prepared the hearts of the people to receive Jesus the next time He came to that land. See Joh 1:41

Mk 5:25

Mk 5:25 - which had an issue of blood twelve years - the woman had an issue of blood for 12yrs and Jairus' daughter was 12years old. Mk 5:42

Mk 5:27

Mk 5:27 - When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment - See Ps 133:2

Mk 5:30

Mk 5:30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes? - Jesus can differentiate the touch of faith versus the shoves and pushes of the thronging mob. The prayer of faith from the woman with the issue of blood caused power/virtue to come forth from God without His direct permission.

Mk 5:33

Mk 5:33 - came and fell down before Him, and told Him all the truth - The woman's healing would not be complete until Jesus conveyed to her that it was the Father's desire and good pleasure to bring healing to her body. She need the assurance and peace of mind in knowing that not only was she accepted of the Lord but beloved. See Ps 50:23

Mk 5:34

Mk 5:34 - Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague - Jesus desired to give the woman assurance that her healing was for her and the Father's desire for her. Jesus also desired that the woman share her testimony for all generations to hear and give glory to God! See Lk 8:48, 17:19; Mt 9:22, 29, 8:13

Mk 5:36

Mk 5:36 - Be not afraid, only believe - once again, Jesus counsels one not to fear death but only to believe in Him, the Resurrection and the Life. See Mk 4:33; Joh 11:21-27; Heb 2:14, 15, 11:6

Mk 5:39

Mk 5:39 - the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth - See Joh 11:11-15; Act 20:10

Mk 5:40

Mk 5:40 - And they laughed him to scorn - those pretentious mourners neither knew the Scriptures nor the power of God, therefore, they laughed the Life Giver to scorn. Mk 12:24

Mk 5:41

Mk 5:41 - And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise. - Jesus' voice pierced the cask of death and delivered the captive. See Joh 5:25, 11:43; Lk 4:18;

Mk 5:43

Mk 5:43 - and commanded that something should be given her to eat - God pays attention to every detail. Jesus knew the girl needed food after several hours and perhaps days of suffering before her death. God is concerned with the small details of each of our lives. Praise God! See Lk 8:41; Joh 20:7; Lk 24:12; Mt 6:28-34

Mk 6:2

Mk 6:2 - And when the sabbath day was come, He began to teach in the synagogue - See Lk 4:16

Mk 6:2

Mk 6:2 - From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands? - the people were amazed by both Jesus' words and His works. Jesus, never having studied in the Rabbinical schools, was an "outsider" and therefore, considered unlearned (Lk 2:46, 47; Joh 7:15, 6:45). Yet, His depth of understanding, clarity and authority with which He spoke was unlike anything the people had ever heard. His miracles, equally testified of the power that worked within Him. Jesus was God on earth and the people knew it not!

Mk 6:3

Mk 6:3 - And they were offended at him - the people scorned and scoffed at Jesus for not having been educated among the "learned", despite marveling at the wisdom that He possessed.

Mk 6:4

Mk 6:4 - A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house - See Jer 11:21, 1:1

Mk 6:5

Mk 6:5 - And he could there do no mighty work - the people's unbelief stayed the hand of the Lord so that He could do no mighty works. Lord, Please remove ALL unbelief from me!

Mk 6:6

Mk 6:6 - And he marvelled because of their unbelief - Jesus was awe struck by the depth and extent of the people's unbelief; their rejection of truth and lack of faith in God.

Mk 6:8

Mk 6:8 - scrip - a small bag, wallet or satchel.

Mk 6:11

Mk 6:11 - It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city - See Mt 12:42; Lk 11:32

Mk 6:12

Mk 6:12 - And they went out, and preached that men should repent - See Act 3:19; Lk 3:3

Mk 6:13

Mk 6:13 - and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them - See Jam 5:14, 15

Mk 6:15

Mk 6:15 - Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets - there was great debate and inquiry regarding Jesus and His origin. All saw Him as a righteous man, though few recognized Him as Messiah. See Mt 16:13-16

Mk 6:16

Mk 6:16 - But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is Joh, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead. - Herod was continually haunted by his dastardly work of killing Joh the Baptist, the one who reproved his sins. See Mk 6:17, 18; Heb 10:26, 27

Mk 6:20

Mk 6:20 - For Herod feared Joh, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly - Herod had a reverence for the man of God and would have released him from his bondage were it not for the ruthless Herodias. Another example of a weak King, and strong Queen, as with Ahab and Jezebel.

Mk 6:22

Mk 6:22 - Salome, the daughter of Herodias, danced seductively, entrancing the lustful men.

Mk 6:23

Mk 6:23 - And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom. - The innumerable, priceless tragedies caused by drunkenness will be revealed only in judgment. See Mk 6:26; Prov 20:1; Prov 23:31-33; Rev 12:9; Mt 5:34

Mk 6:25

Mk 6:25 - I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of Joh the Baptist - Heroditous had an evil bent as she sought the life of her "enemy", her reprover. See Num 35:31

Mk 6:26

Mk 6:26 - yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her - See Mt 5:34

Mk 6:27

Mark 6:27 - And immediately the king sent an executioner - Herod, as an agent of Rome, was vested with the authority to take life as he chose. Compare

Mk 6:31

Mk 6:31 - rest a while - Jesus called the disciples of Joh and His own to rest for a short time in anticipation of a great work which lie ahead. they occupied their time discussing how to better engage in the work of building the Kingdom of God. Christ's words of compassion are spoken to His workers today just as surely as to His disciples. "Come ye yourselves apart, ...and rest awhile," He says to those who are worn and weary. It is not wise to be always under the strain of work and excitement, even in ministering to men's spiritual needs; for in this way personal piety is neglected, and the powers of mind and soul and body are overtaxed. Self-denial is required of the servants of Christ, and sacrifices must be made; but God would have all study the laws of health, and use reason when working for Him, that the life which He has given may be preserved. - {GW 243.2} Though Jesus could work miracles, and had empowered His disciples to work miracles, He directed His worn servants to go apart into the country and rest. When He said that the harvest was great and the laborers were few, He did not urge upon His disciples the necessity of ceaseless toil, but said, "Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He will send forth laborers into His harvest." [Mt 9:38.] God has appointed to every man his work, according to his ability; and He would not have a few weighted with responsibilities, while others have no burden, no travail of soul. - {GW 243.3}

Mk 6:34

Mk 6:34 - because they were as sheep not having a shepherd - See Eze 34:1-10

Mk 6:35

Mk 6:35 - And when the day was now far spent - as the crowds sat and listened to Jesus, time flew by and Jesus, the Good Shepherd would not permit them to depart without being fed. Jesus was concerned about our temporal health and well being as for our eternal life.

Mk 6:37

Mk 6:37 - Give ye them to eat - See Mt 14:16

Mk 6:41

Mk 6:41 - And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all - In Christ's act of supplying the temporal necessities of a hungry multitude is wrapped up a deep spiritual lesson for all His workers. Christ received from the Father; He imparted to the disciples; they imparted to the multitude; and the people to one another. So all who are united to Christ will receive from Him the bread of life, the heavenly food, and impart it to others. - {DA 369.3}

Mk 6:45

Mk 6:45 - Bethsaida - meaning "house of fish"

Mk 6:46

Mk 6:46 - And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray - after a full day of activities and powerful demonstrations of the power of God, Jesus went to a solitary place to commune with the Lord. He prayed for His disciples who with the crowd, sought to make Him their earthly king, not understanding the course of His mission.

Mk 6:48

Mk 6:48 - And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: - The LORD gave the disciples a test to occupy their minds as they groveled over not placing Jesus on the throne.

Mk 6:48

Mk 6:48 - he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea - See Ps 77:19, 104:3; Isa 43:16

Mk 6:49

Mk 6:49 - But when they saw him walking upon the sea - See Ps 77:19

Mk 6:51

Mk 6:51 - And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered - See Mk 4:37-41

Mk 6:52

Mk 6:52 - For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened - We overlook the Lord's blessings and wonders while we selfishly ponder our own agendas.

Mk 6:53

Mk 6:53 - Gennesaret - meaning "a garden of riches"

Mk 6:55

Mk 6:55 - And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was - See Mt 14:34-36

Mk 7:1

Mk 7:1 - Then came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem - See Mt 15:1

Mk 7:6

Mk 7:6 This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me - the people were steeped in traditions, rituals, the doctrines of men and had no true knowledge of Gods doctrine nor a knowledge of God Himself. Through miseducation of the spiritual leaders, the people had a form of godliness but no knowledge of its power and purpose. See Joh 7:16, 17, 26, 27; Jer 12:2; Isa 29:13, 1:11-17, 58:1-5

Mk 7:7

Mk 7:7 - Howbeit in vain they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men - See Isa 29:13; Jer 7:1-12 There are many beliefs that the mind has no right to entertain. In the days of Christ the rabbis put a forced, mystical construction upon many portions of Scripture. Because the plain teaching of God's Word condemned their practices, they tried to destroy its force. The same thing is done today. The Word of God is made to appear mysterious and obscure in order to excuse transgression of His law. Christ rebuked these practices in His day. He taught that the Word of God was to be understood by all. He pointed to the Scriptures as of unquestionable authority, and we should do the same. The Bible is to be presented as the word of the infinite God, as the end of all controversy and the foundation of all faith. - {LHU 108.4} "But faith, fanatic faith, once wedded fast To some dear falsehood, hugs it to the last." {Moore}

Mk 7:7

Mk 7:7 - vain - Empty; worthless; having no substance, value or importance. 1 Peter 1:18.

Mk 7:7

Mk 7:7 - teaching for doctrines the commandments of men - See Col 2:8; Mt 16:6, 11, 12; Mk 7:13 With a great show of prudence the rabbis had warned the people against receiving the new doctrines taught by this new teacher; for His theories and practices were contrary to the teachings of the fathers. The people gave credence to what the priests and Pharisees taught, in place of seeking to understand the word of God for themselves. They honored the priests and rulers instead of honoring God, and rejected the truth that they might keep their own traditions. Many had been impressed and almost persuaded; but they did not act upon their convictions, and were not reckoned on the side of Christ. Satan presented his temptations, until the light appeared as darkness. Thus many rejected the truth that would have proved the saving of the soul. - {DA 489.4} The reason many in this age of the world make no greater advancement in the divine life is because they interpret the will of God to be just what they will to do. While following their own desires, they flatter themselves that they are conforming to God's will. These have no conflicts with self. {AA 565.2} Identifying Feature of A Cult #2: The cult leader's word, or his teachings, become absolute truth As the condition of the people began to open to His mind, He saw that the requirements of society and the requirements of God were in constant collision. Men were departing from the word of God, and exalting theories of their own invention. They were observing traditional rites that possessed no virtue. Their service was a mere round of ceremonies; the sacred truths it was designed to teach were hidden from the worshipers. He saw that in their faithless services they found no peace. They did not know the freedom of spirit that would come to them by serving God in truth. Jesus had come to teach the meaning of the worship of God, and He could not sanction the mingling of human requirements with the divine precepts. He did not attack the precepts or practices of the learned teachers; but when reproved for His own simple habits, He presented the word of God in justification of His conduct. - {DA 84.2}

Mk 7:8 - For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men - Jesus speaks of a group who are not ignorant of the truth but have willfully cast the truth aside to uphold their traditions. See Jer 7:8-12; Mal 2:7, 8; 2Thess 2:10-12; Rom 10:1-3

Mk 7:9

Mk 7:9 - Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition - See Mt 18:6; Rom 1:18; Jer 7:1-12 By the pride of human wisdom, by contempt for the influence of the Holy Spirit, and by disrelish for the truths of God's word, many who profess to be Christians, and who feel competent to teach others, will be led to turn away from the requirements of God. Paul declared to Timothy, "The time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables." - {AA 504.2} The apostle does not here refer to the openly irreligious, but to the professing Christians who make inclination their guide, and thus become enslaved by self. Such are willing to listen to those doctrines only that do not rebuke their sins or condemn their pleasure-loving course. They are offended by the plain words of the faithful servants of Christ and choose teachers who praise and flatter them. And among professing ministers there are those who preach the opinions of men instead of the word of God. Unfaithful to their trust, they lead astray those who look to them for spiritual guidance. - {AA 504.3}

Mk 7:11

Mk 7:11 - It is Corban - See Deut 27:16 They [the Pharisees] taught the people that the devotion of their property to the temple was a duty more sacred than even the support of their parents; and that, however great the necessity, it was sacrilege to impart to father or mother any part of what had been thus consecrated. An undutiful child had only to pronounce the word "Corban" over his property, thus devoting it to God, and he could retain it for his own use during his lifetime, and after his death it was to be appropriated to the temple service. Thus he was at liberty, both in life and in death, to dishonor and defraud his parents, under cover of a pretended devotion to God. - {DA 396.4}

Mk 7:12

Mark 7:12 - And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother - See 1Tim 5:4, 8

Mk 7:13

Mk 7:13 - Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition - the words and commandments of God are undermined by the traditions of men. See Mk 7:7

Mk 7:14

Mk 7:14 - And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand: 15 There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man - Context is essential when reading the words of Scripture. Jesus, speaking to a group of Jews, they all understand that the exception to “nothing from without” must include the things strictly prohibited by God for consumption (Lev 11). Else, Dan and his three friends were out of order in refusing to eat of the king's foods, which most likely included unclean animals and foods offered to idols. See Dan 1:8

Mk 7:15 - There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him - nothing that we eat will enter into the heart (mind, conscience, soul, will) but rather the stomach. See Mk 7:19

Mk 7:15

Mk 7:15 - but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man - See Mk 7:18-23; Eph 4:29-31

Mk 7:22

Mk 7:22 - an evil eye - jealousy, covetousness, evil surmising.

Mk 7:29

Mk 7:29 - for this saying go thy way - The Saviour is satisfied. He has tested her faith in Him. By His dealings with her, He has shown that she who has been regarded as an outcast from Israel is no longer an alien, but a child in God's household. As a child it is her privilege to share in the Father's gifts. Christ now grants her request, and finishes the lesson to the disciples. Turning to her with a look of pity and love, He says, “O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt.” From that hour her daughter became whole. The demon troubled her no more. The woman departed, acknowledging her Saviour, and happy in the granting of her prayer. - {DA 401.3}

Mk 7:33

Mk 7:33 - And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue - Jesus did not, according to His custom, restore the man by a word only. Taking him apart from the multitude, He put His fingers in his ears, and touched his tongue; looking up to heaven, He sighed at thought of the ears that would not be open to the truth, the tongues that refused to acknowledge the Redeemer. At the word, “Be opened,” the man's speech was restored, and, disregarding the command to tell no man, he published abroad the story of his cure. - {DA 404.2}

Mk 7:34

Mk 7:33 - he sighed - Jesus did not, according to His custom, restore the man by a word only. Taking him apart from the multitude, He put His fingers in his ears, and touched his tongue; looking up to heaven, He sighed at thought of the ears that would not be open to the truth, the tongues that refused to acknowledge the Redeemer. At the word, “Be opened,” the man's speech was restored, and, disregarding the command to tell no man, he published abroad the story of his cure. - {DA 404.2}

Mk 7:37 - He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak. - Hymn #516 All the Way v1

Mk 8:3

Mk 8:3 - And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far - Jesus speaks as a Good Shepherd, as He has concern for the well-being of His flock. See Joh 10:14-16

Mk 8:12 - And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation. See Mt 12:39, 40

Mk 8:15

Mk 8:12 - Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod - false teaching of the Pharisees and of Herod. - the false teachings of the Pharisees and the Herodians.

Mk 8:24

Mk 8:24 - And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking - Jesus may have momentarily given the once blind man spiritual eyes to behold the things which natural eyes can not perceive. See 2 Kings 6:16, 17; 2Cor 12:2-4

Mk 8:29

Mk 8:29 - Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ - See Act 2:36

Mk 8:31

Mk 8:31 - be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes - all the Jewish authority would reject Jesus and pronounce Him a heretic. This would pose a bad example that the rest of the Jews would follow. See Joh 7:45-48

Mk 8:33

Mk 8:33 - Get thee behind me, Satan - Peter loved his Lord; but Jesus did not commend him for thus manifesting the desire to shield Him from suffering. Peter's words were not such as would be a help and solace to Jesus in the great trial before Him. They were not in harmony with God's purpose of grace toward a lost world, nor with the lesson of self-sacrifice that Jesus had come to teach by His own example. Peter did not desire to see the cross in the work of Christ. The impression which his words would make was directly opposed to that which Christ desired to make on the minds of His followers, and the Saviour was moved to utter one of the sternest rebukes that ever fell from His lips: "Get thee behind Me, Satan: thou art an offense unto Me: for thou savorest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.” - {DA 415.4} Satan was trying to discourage Jesus, and turn Him from His mission; and Peter, in his blind love, was giving voice to the temptation. The prince of evil was the author of the thought. His instigation was behind that impulsive appeal. In the wilderness, Satan had offered Christ the dominion of the world on condition of forsaking the path of humiliation and sacrifice. Now he was presenting the same temptation to the disciple of Christ. He was seeking to fix Peter’s gaze upon the earthly glory, that he might not behold the cross to which Jesus desired to turn his eyes. And through Peter, Satan was again pressing the temptation upon Jesus. But the Saviour heeded it not; His thought was for His disciple. Satan had interposed between Peter and his Master, that the heart of the disciple might not be touched at the vision of Christ’s humiliation for him. The words of Christ were spoken, not to Peter, but to the one who was trying to separate him from his Redeemer. “Get thee behind Me, Satan.” No longer interpose between Me and My erring servant. Let Me come face to face with Peter, that I may reveal to him the mystery of My love. - {DA 416.1}

Mk 8:33

Mk 8:33 - for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men - the devil does not seek to fulfill God’s will but will promote his agenda upon men. Just as the enemy tempted Jesus by suggesting it was not necessary to bear a cross and endure scorn, shame and pain, so too, he tempts Christians today into believing that the Christian life is to be a life of ease with no suffering.

Mk 8:34

Mk 8:34 - Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me - See Mt 16:24

Mk 8:34

Mk 8:34 - let him deny himself - To those who, like the young ruler, are in high positions of trust and have great possessions, it may seem too great a sacrifice to give up all in order to follow Christ. But this is the rule of conduct for all who would become His disciples. Nothing short of obedience can be accepted. Self-surrender is the substance of the teachings of Christ. Often it is presented and enjoined in language that seems authoritative, because there is no other way to save man than to cut away those things which, if entertained, will demoralize the whole being. [31] - {CSA 15.7} We are in this world to lift the cross of self-denial. As we lift this cross we shall find that it lifts us. Let every Christian stand in his place, catching the inspiration of the work that Christ did for souls while in this world. We need the ardor of the Christian hero, who can endure the seeing of Him who is invisible. Our faith is to have a resurrection. The soldiers of the cross are to exert a positive influence for good. Christ says: “He that is not with Me is against Me; and he that gathereth not with Me scattereth abroad.” Mt 12:30. Indifference in the Christian life is a manifest denial of the Saviour. - {8T 45.3}

Mk 8:37

Mk 8:37 - Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? - See Heb 12:16, 17

Mk 8:38

Mk 8:38 - Jesus will come in His own glory, and the glory of the Father and the angels. See Rev 8:1

Mk 9:1

Mk 9:1 - till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power - Jesus and the Father purposed to give a foretaste of the glory to be revealed when Jesus will return with power and honor at His Second Coming. God the Father would glorify His Son before the disciples in order to build their faith in preparation for the great trial that lie before them. See Lk 9:27-35; Mt 17:1-8

Mk 9:3

Mk 9:3 - And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them - See Rev 16:15; Zech 3:3-5

Mk 9:4

Mk 9:5 - Elias with Moses - two of the redeemed who have already partaken of the inheritance of eternal life. Elias (Elijah) represents those who would never have tasted death but will be translated to heaven, whereas, Moses represents those who died the sleep of death and are resurrected to the eternal inheritance. The two persons typify the righteous, all of whom will be gathered into Jesus' Eternal Kingdom.

Mk 9:7

Mk 9:7 - and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him - The Everlasting Father spoke from heaven regarding His Son, Jesus. See Mt 17:5

Mk 9:7

Mk 9:7 - hear him - a curse was pronounced through God's servant Moses, upon all who fail to give heed to Jesus and His words. See Deut 18:18, 19; Mt 17:5

Mk 9:10

Mk 9:10 - And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean - The disciples did not take heed to Jesus' and Joh's words previously spoken (Mk 8:31; Joh 1:29, 36) and the rebuke given to Satan for trying to dissuade Him from completing His appointed mission.

Mk 9:12

Mk 9:10 - and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things - See Ps 16:10, 22:1-22; Isa 53; Zech 11:12, 13, 13:6, 7

Mk 9:19

Mk 9:19 - O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? - Jesus looked about Him upon the awe-stricken multitude, the caviling scribes, the perplexed disciples. He read the unbelief in every heart; and in a voice filled with sorrow He exclaimed, "O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you?" Then He bade the distressed father, "Bring thy son hither." - {DA 428.2}

Mk 9:20

Mk 9:20 - straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming - the evil spirit was not going to leave without putting on a performance. The evil spirit recognized God in the flesh and knew that its time was short. See Jam 2:19

Mk 9:22

Mk 9:22 - but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us - unlike the leper who came to Jesus, worshipping him and knowing Jesus had full authority and power to make him whole, this man's words revealed the doubt in his mind. See Mt 8:1, 2

Mk 9:23

Mk 9:23 - Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth - See 2Chron 20:20 God is able, the question is, "whether we are we willing to submit and to trust God in faith?" 1. God is able to subdue all things in our lives - Philippians 3:21 2. God is able to keep that which I have committed to Him (my salvation, my hope, my life) - 2Tim 1:12; 1Pet 4:19 3. God is able to assist (succor) those who are tempted - Heb 2:18 4. God is able to save to the uttermost (completely, entirely, fully) those that come to Him by faith of Jesus Christ 5. God is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think - Eph 3:20 6. God is able to keep us from falling - Jude 1:24

Mk 9:24

Mark 9:24 - Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief - the father confessed his frailty and sinfulness in doubting and not fully taking God at His Word. More so, the question of unbelief had more to do with Who the Father perceived Jesus to be. Was Jesus God in the flesh and therefore, fully capable of doing the impossible, or was He not? Jesus understood the long years of trial endured by the father and his son and had compassion upon their woeful state.

Mk 9:26

Mk 9:26 - And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead - See Mk 1:26

Mk 9:29

Mk 9:29 - this kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting - See Mk 9:34 The words of Christ pointing to His death had brought sadness and doubt. And the selection of the three disciples to accompany Jesus to the mountain had excited the jealousy of the nine. Instead of strengthening their faith by prayer and meditation on the words of Christ, they had been dwelling on their discouragements and personal grievances. In this state of darkness they had undertaken the conflict with Satan. - {DA 431.1} In order to succeed in such a conflict they must come to the work in a different spirit. Their faith must be strengthened by fervent prayer and fasting, and humiliation of heart. They must be emptied of self, and be filled with the Spirit and power of God. Earnest, persevering supplication to God in faith—faith that leads to entire dependence upon God, and unreserved consecration to His work—can alone avail to bring men the Holy Spirit's aid in the battle against principalities and powers, the rulers of the darkness of this world, and wicked spirits in high places. - {DA 431.2} "If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed," said Jesus, "ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove." Though the grain of mustard seed is so small, it contains that same mysterious life principle which produces growth in the loftiest tree. When the mustard seed is cast into the ground, the tiny germ lays hold of every element that God has provided for its nutriment, and it speedily develops a sturdy growth. If you have faith like this, you will lay hold upon God's word, and upon all the helpful agencies He has appointed. Thus your faith will strengthen, and will bring to your aid the power of heaven. The obstacles that are piled by Satan across your path, though apparently as insurmountable as the eternal hills, shall disappear before the demand of faith. "Nothing shall be impossible unto you." - {DA 431.3}

Mk 9:32

Mk 9:32 - But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him - again, the miseducation of the disciples caused them to question Jesus' words and doubt Him. This would result in a greater disappointment than had they taken heed to His words. There are many beliefs that the mind has no right to entertain. In the days of Christ the rabbis put a forced, mystical construction upon many portions of Scripture. Because the plain teaching of God's Word condemned their practices, they tried to destroy its force. The same thing is done today. The Word of God is made to appear mysterious and obscure in order to excuse transgression of His law. Christ rebuked these practices in His day. He taught that the Word of God was to be understood by all. He pointed to the Scriptures as of unquestionable authority, and we should do the same. The Bible is to be presented as the word of the infinite God, as the end of all controversy and the foundation of all faith. - {LHU 108.4}

Mk 9:35

Mk 9:35 - And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all - See 1Cor 9:16-23

Mk 9:37

Mk 9:37 - Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me - Jesus taught that we ought to regard all men and even children with respect. We should receive them as a son of God, worthy of salvation and our best efforts to save them. This requires humility on the part of the messengers of God.

Mk 9:37

Mk 9:37 - whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me - See Joh 14:6-9

Mk 9:38

Mark 9:38 - And Joh answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbad him, because he followeth not us - Joh and his brother were being cliquish, forbidding one who believed in Christ from exercising the prerogatives belonging to those who believe. See Joh 14:12

Mk 9:39

Mk 9:39 - forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me - Jesus recognizes there are believers in Him who do not openly follow Him as his disciples and he warned His disciples of stifling their witness. This counsel of Jesus does not apply generally today where Christianity is splintered beyond recognition. Jesus calls his sheep who hear His voice and will join His one fold, under One Shepherd. The call, made by Jesus' last day disciples, is based on the gospel of Jesus Christ and Present truth. See 1Jo 4:15; 1Cor 12:3; Rev 12:17; 2Pet 1:12

Mk 9:39

Mk 9:39 - that can lightly speak evil of me - that can easily speak evil of me

Mk 9:42

Mk 9:42 - And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea - Jesus continues His dual application of "children" to be both literal children, as well as those who are new, or child-like in the faith of Jesus Christ. Jesus has a special regard for children, that they be handled properly because God places a close watch over them (Mt 18:10; Eph 6:4; Gal 4:19). See Mk 7:9; Rom 1:18, 14:7, 13; 1Cor 8:4-13; Rev 18:21

Mk 9:43

Mk 9:43 - into the fire that never shall be quenched: - the fires of hell can not be put out once started. However, the fuel for the fire, the wicked will be consumed, causing the fires to cease.

Mk 9:46

Mk 9:46 - Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched - See Rev 14:11; Mal 4:3

Mk 9:50

Mk 9:50 - Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? - See Lk 14:34; Mt 5:13

Mk 9:50

Mk 9:50 - Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another - we are to evaluate ourselves to make sure we are in the faith. We are to make sure our own house is in order and not be critical of others. We are not to cause offense to others but to strive for peace with all men. See 2Cor 13:5; Heb 12:14; Rom 12:18;

Mk 10:1

Mk 10:1 - and, as he was wont, he taught them again - as He was accustomed, Jesus taught the people. See Mt 28:18-20

Mk 10:3

Mk 10:3 - What did Moses command you? - Jesus often responded to a question with the question, "what is written in the law? How reddest thou?" See Lk 10:26

Mk 10:6

Mk 10:6-9 - But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female. 7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife; 8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh. 9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. - Gen 2:24, 25

Mk 10:11

Mk 10:11, 12 - And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her. 12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery. - See Rom 7:2, 3

Mk 10:13

Mk 10:13 - And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. - Mt 19:13-15

Mk 10:14

Mk 10:14 - of such is the kingdom of God - Children are: 1. Light hearted and they have a buoyant spirit 2. Children are teachable and willing to learn 3. Children are willing to forgive and make friends 4. Children are trusting

Mk 10:15

Mk 10:15 - Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein - We are not to be childish in conduct, but to have the simplicity of a child, believing that which God has said implicitly. Some may reason that this counsel pertains only to the new believer in Christ, however, the text in Mt 18:1-3 speaks of those who have received conversion as requiring the same humble, teachable disposition in order to gain the kingdom of heaven. See Mt 18:1-3; 1Cor 8:2; Lk 18:17; Isa 8:20; 2Tim 3:16, 17 The spirit in which you come to the investigation of the Scriptures will determine the character of the assistant at your side. Angels from the world of light will be with those who in humility of heart seek for divine guidance. But if the Bible is opened with irreverence, with a feeling of self-sufficiency, if the heart is filled with prejudice, Satan is beside you, and he will set the plain statements of God's word in a perverted light. - {GW92 127.3}

Mk 10:17

Mk 10:17 - Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? - the rich young ruler had no true desire for God, godliness nor His Kingdom, rather he sought a means to extend his present life of ease, pleasure, and status for eternity.

Mk 10:18

Mk 10:18 - There is none good but one, that is, God - Christ cannot deny Himself (2Tim 2:13), therefore He could not say that He was not good. He is and was absolutely good, the perfection of goodness. And since there is none good but God, and Christ is good, it follows that Christ is God, and that this is what He meant to teach the young man. {Christ Our Righteousness pg. 29 by Waggoner}

Mk 10:18

Mk 10:18 - but one, that is, God - The One alone Who is good is the Godhead, Father, Son, Holy Spirit. See Deut 6:4; Mk 12:29; Gal 3:20

Mk 10:20

Mk 10:20 - Master, all these have I observed from my youth - The young man was self-deceived and thought his adherence to the letter of the law would be sufficient for salvation. His finding no peace in his works of righteousness, he came to Christ seeking affirmation from the Good Master that all was well with his soul. See Rom 7:7-12

Mk 10:21

Mk 10:21 - Then Jesus beholding him loved him - Jesus saw within the rich young ruler's heart and desired his good. See Joh 2:24

Mk 10:21

Mk 10:22 - go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me. - This summary of the last 6 commandments is the new commandment that Jesus gave to His disciples, that we love one another, even as He has loved us. See Joh 13:34, 35

Mk 10:22

Mk 10:22 - Jesus spoke the truth in righteousness and love, but the young man's heart was not inclined to obey. See Joh 6:56-66

Mk 10:23

Mk 10:23 - How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! - The deceitfulness of riches and the love of money (pride of life) which is sin, was what prevented the young man from receiving the peace he sought. See Mt 13:22; Mk 4:19; Heb 3:13

Mk 10:24

Mk 10:24 - how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! - See Heb 3:13; 1Jo 2:16

Mk 10:25

Mk 10:25 - It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God - See 1Cor 1:26-28; Mt 19:24

Mk 10:26

Mk 10:26 - And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved? - The prosperity gospel doctrine is a long standing tradition among men. It was believed that wealth and prosperity were the favor of God for the righteous and poverty was His punishment for the wicked. Therefore, Jesus' statement flies in the face of the common belief of the preferred status of the wealthy and was a marvel to His disciples (Jam 2:5). Zacchaeus, the chief of the publicans however, was an exception of this thought, showing that the wealthy could indeed inherit eternal life. Salvation had come to him and his household as he repented of his sinful life and sought the higher calling in Christ. See Lk 18:26, 19:8; Mt 19:25; 1Tim 6:5-10; Jam 2:1-9

Mk 10:27

Mk 10:27- for with God all things are possible - See Mt 19:26, 21:22; Mk 9:23, 14:36

Mk 10:29

Mk 10:29, 30 - And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, 30 But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life. - Jesus conveys that whatever sacrifice is made for Him and His Kingdom will be exceedingly repaid. No one who comes to God takes a loss. See Phil 3:7-11; Lk 18:29, 30

Mk 10:30

Mk 10:30 - But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time - The household of faith becomes the family to those who have forsaken their biological relatives to follow Christ.

The church (the body of Christ) and its storehouse become the possessions of those who have made sacrifices for the Kingdom of God. See Ps 27:13; Act 2:44-47

Mk 10:33

Mk 10:33 - the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles: - See Ps 27:12; Lk 24:1-7

Mk 10:33

Mk 10:33 - shall deliver him to the Gentiles - the Rom (Italians) would tread down the church of God, first as Pagan Rome and then through Papal Rome. See Lk 21:24

Mk 10:39

Mk 10:39 - Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of - See Mk 14:36

Mk 10:39

Mk 10:39 - and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized: - See Lk 12:50
Soon after they had commenced their earnest cry, the angels, in sympathy, desired to go to their deliverance. But a tall, commanding angel suffered them not. He said, "The will of God is not yet fulfilled. They must drink of the cup. They must be baptized with the baptism." - {EW 272.2}

Mk 10:40

Mk 10:40 - but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared - The one who stands nearest to Christ will be he who on earth has drunk most deeply of the spirit of His self-sacrificing love,—love that "vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, ... seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil" (1Cor 13:4, 5),—love that moves the disciple, as it moved our Lord, to give all, to live and labor and sacrifice, even unto death, for the saving of humanity. This spirit was made manifest in the life of Paul. He said, "For to me to live is Christ;" for his life revealed Christ to men; "and to die is gain,"—gain to Christ; death itself would make manifest the power of His grace, and gather souls to Him. "Christ shall be magnified in my body," he said, "whether it be by life or by death." Phil 1:21, 20. - {DA 549.3}

Mk 10:41

Mk 10:41 - And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with Jam and Joh - the other 10 were vexed with Jam and Joh because they preemptively did that which the others desired to do, ask Jesus for 1st and 2nd seats. None of their hearts were right.

Mk 10:45

Mk 10:45 - For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister - See Lk 22:27; Mt 20:28, 23:11

Mk 10:45

Mk 10:45 - give his life a ransom for many - See Gal 3:13; 1Tim 2:6

Mk 10:46

Mk 10:45 - Blind Bartimaeus - Blind Bartimaeus, who was wretched, miserable, poor, blind and who cast away his garment and became naked, is a fitting description of the Church of Laodicea. The blind in the Bible represent Laodicea (Rev 3:15-18; Joh 9).

Mk 10:47

Mk 10:47 - he began to cry out, and say - See Ps 27:7

Mk 10:47

Mk 10:47 - Jesus, thou Son of David - a blind man recognized that which those with sight could not, or refused to see - Jesus is Messiah, the Son of David. See Lk 18:38

Mk 10:48

Mk 10:48 - And many charged him that he should hold his peace: - the insensitivity of the Jews frustrated Jesus. Rather than leading the blind man to Jesus, they told him to 'shut-up'. See Mk 3:1-5

Mk 10:50

Mk 10:50 - And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus. - See Ps 27:8

Mk 10:51

Mk 10:51 - What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? - Interesting that God does not just heal that which appears to be most obvious but asks us what is our desire. I believe this means we must be specific and detailed in our requests and He will answer according to His good will towards us.

Mk 10:52

Mk 10:52 - Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way - See Mt 8:13; Lk 18:41-43

Mk 11:7

Mk 11:7 - And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him - See Zech 9:9

Mk 11:9

Mk 11:9 - Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord - See Ps 118:25, 26

Mk 11:10

Mk 11:10 - The Jews were hailing the promise of God that there would never fail to be one of David's seed upon the throne of [spiritual] Israel. They were calling Jesus the Messiah, the Son of David Who was to reign in righteousness. See Jer 33:17; 2Kin 7:4-17; 1 Chronicles 17:3-15

Mk 11:13

Mk 11:13 - And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet. - There needs to be much more close investigation of the week past. Review it and see if, as a branch of the living Vine, you have drawn nourishment from the parent Vine to bear much fruit to the glory of God. If there has been feverish excitement, if hasty words have been spoken, if passion has been revealed, these have surely been the working on Satan's side of the question. Clear the heart by confession. Sincerely make everything right before the Sabbath. Examine your own selves, whether ye be in the faith. We need to guard our own souls constantly, lest we make a great profession but, like the flourishing fig tree spreading its branches in pretentious foliage, reveal no precious fruit. Christ is hungering to see and receive fruit. Leaves of profession without fruit are to Christ just as worthless as those of the fig tree which He cursed.... - {TMK 147.3}

Mk 11:15 - And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves - See Joh 2:14-17; Ps 69:9; Mt 21:12, 13; Isa 56:7

Mk 11:16

Mk 11:16 - And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple - the zeal for God and His holy Sabbath was seen also in Nehemiah. See Nehemiah 13:19-22

Mk 11:17

Mk 11:17 - Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? - See Isa 56:7

Mk 11:17

Mk 11:17 - but ye have made it a den of thieves - See Jer 7:11; Ps 69:9; Ezekiel 34:2-6, 22:25-29;

Mk 11:20

Mk 11:20 - they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots - the tree that had been cursed was utterly consumed, no chance for life again. A symbol of the fate of the wicked. See Lk 3:9; Compare Job 14:7-9

Mk 11:22

Mk 11:22 - Have faith in God - Jesus revealed to His disciples the power behind His spoken words, "Have faith in God". See Mk 11:23

Mk 11:24 - Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them - See Joh 20:31

Mk 11:28

Mk 11:28 - By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things? - a common preoccupation of many in leadership when the Lord does a great work through laymen is, "by what authority do you have to do what you do?" This prideful, self-exalting position of being the caretakers of truth is seen in those whose religion is governed by their status, knowledge, and/or themselves. Such is the question asked of all men called of God but not called of men. See Mt 7:28, 29; Joh 5:36-38, 1:25; Lk

20:2; Joh 7:47-49

Mk 11:30

Mk 11:30 - The baptism of Joh, was it from heaven, or of men? - Joh's baptism pointed men to the need for repentance in preparation of meeting the Lord of Grace, Jesus Christ. Joh's baptism pronounced a curse on the false claim to righteousness by works and by inheritance and the need to repent, be converted so one's sins may be blotted out so that they may receive of God's Holy Spirit. Joh's baptism also heralded the coming of He, Whose shoelaces Joh claimed to be unworthy to unloose. The question posed would expose the Jew's rejection of truth, both in Joh's profession and of Christ Himself. See Lk 3:3-18

Mk 11:31

Mk 11:31 - rather than giving a truthful, straight answer, the rulers employed stratagem and craft.

Mk 12:1

Mk 12:1 - And he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country - See Lk 20:9-18; Isa 5:1-7

Mk 12:1

Mk 12:1 - went into a far country - See Joh 14:1-3, 7:33-36

Mk 12:5

Mk 12:5 - And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some - See Mt 23:33-35

Mk 12:6

Mk 12:6 - Having yet therefore one son, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son - When remonstrance, entreaty, and rebuke had failed, He sent to them the best gift of heaven; nay, He poured out all heaven in that one Gift. - The Son of God Himself was sent to plead with the impenitent city. {GC 19.1, 2}

Mk 12:7

Mk 12:7 - This is the heir - See Heb 3:6

Mk 12:9

Mk 12:11 - will give the vineyard unto others - See 1Sam 2:30-36

Mk 12:10

Mk 12:10 - The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner: - See Ps 118:22, 23; Isa 28:16

Mk 12:13

Mark 12:13 - the Pharisees and Herodians wanted to back Jesus into a corner through a legal conundrum, to hear Jesus make a decision that could be held against Jesus - Jesus understood how to turn a question on its head

Mk 12:14

Mk 12:14 - Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not? - these devilish men condemned themselves with their own words in that they confessed that Jesus was a Teacher of righteousness, yet they sought to entrap him. See Mk 12:15; James 3:14, 15

Mk 12:15

Mk 12:15 - Why tempt ye me? - Jesus was being put to the test by selfish, self-exalting men. Jesus would later be tempted again through His disciples and converts by the same pharisees who sought to subvert the power of the gospel by men's dead works. See Mt 22:16; Ps 56:5; Act 15:10; Rom 10:1-4; Jam 2:15-18

Mk 12:17

Mk 12:17 - Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's - Render therefore unto Caesar - Jesus here establishes a clear delineation of church and state. He makes known there are things that pertain to life here on earth that are to be upheld and the principles of heaven are equally to be upheld. See 2Chron 26:16-21; Rom 13:1-10; Mt 22:21; Lk 20:25; Num 23:9 "No faithful man ought to follow either the pope himself or any of the holy men, but in such points as he hath followed the Lord Jesus Christ; for Peter and the sons of Zebedee, by desiring worldly honor, contrary to the following of Christ's steps, did offend, and therefore in those errors they are not to be followed.... - {GC 91.3} "The pope ought to leave unto the secular power all temporal dominion and rule, and thereunto effectually to move and exhort his whole clergy; for so did Christ, and especially by His apostles. Wherefore, if I have erred in any of these points, I will most humbly submit myself unto correction, even by death, if necessity so require; and if I could labor according to my will or desire in mine own person, I would surely present myself before the bishop of Rome; but the Lord hath otherwise visited me to the contrary, and hath taught me rather to obey God than men." - {GC 91.4 - writings of Joh Wycliffe}

Mk 12:18

Mk 12:18 - Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection - The Sadducees not only did not believe in a resurrection, they did not believe in angels nor spirits. See Act 23:6-8

Mk 12:19

Mk 12:19 - that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother - See Gen 38:8-10

Mk 12:24

Mk 12:24 - Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God? - men, unskilled in the word of God wrest Scripture or create foolish contentions which undermine the faith. These men who denied the possibility of a resurrection, openly denied the truths of Scripture that can plainly be seen through eyes of faith. See 1Tim 6:20, 21; 2Tim 2:16; 2Pet 3:16, 17; Mk 12:26, 27; Heb 11:11, 12||Gen 18:10-15, 21:1, 2 The truths most plainly revealed in the Bible have been involved in doubt and darkness by learned men, who, with a pretense of great wisdom, teach that the Scriptures have a mystical, a secret, spiritual meaning not apparent in the language employed. These men are false teachers. It was to such a class that Jesus declared: "Ye know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God." Mark 12:24. The language of the Bible should be explained according to its obvious meaning, unless a symbol or figure is employed. Christ has given the promise: "If any man will do His will, he shall know of the doctrine." Joh 7:17. If men would but take the Bible as it reads, if there were no false teachers to mislead and confuse their minds, a work would be accomplished that would make angels glad and that would bring into the fold of Christ thousands upon thousands who are now wandering in error.... - {DD 38.4}

Mk 12:25 - For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven - See Mt 22:24

Mk 12:26

Mk 12:26 - how in the bush God spake unto him- Jesus believed in the Scripture and testified of God speaking to Moses in the burning bush. See Ex 3:2-5

Mk 12:26

Mk 12:26, 27 - I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob - God is not a God of the dead but of the living. That He identifies Himself by these three men, though they sleep, He calls them as those who will live forever. See Mt 22:31, 32; Ex 3:15; Lk 20:38; Rom 4:17

Mk 12:27

Mk 12:27 - He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err - Jesus speaks of the patriarchs Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, whose lives were hid in Himself, and thus had eternal life (1Joh 5:11-14, 20). Jesus, speaking with the authority belonging to Divinity alone, declares those things that be not as though they were (Rom 4:17; Isa 46:9, 10, 44:7) in stating that these patriarchs, though dead in their graves, have their names registered in the Book of Life in heaven, and therefore have passed from death to life (Joh 5:24; see also Act 2:29, 34). They will be resurrected at the "last day" with all the redeemed to inherit the crown of life prepared for them. Joh 11:21-27

Mk 12:28

Mark 12:28 - scribes - a scribe was as a lawyer, one who was well versed in the Jewish law.

Mk 12:28

Mark 12:28 - having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all? - The scribe heard Jesus' response to the Pharisees, Herodians, and Saducees and was impressed. He came asking a sincere question of Jesus to hear His response.

Mk 12:29

Mk 12:29 - The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord: - See Deut 6:4, 5

Mk 12:30

Mark 12:30 - And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment - The command to love God with all the heart, soul, mind and strength is a command to love God with all one's being, singularity of mind. There is no room to love anything else in this command. Thus falling short in this command in any way makes a man double minded and unstable in all of his ways. See Lk 10:27; Deut 6:4, 5; Lev 19:18

Mk 12:30

Mk 12:30 - with all thy heart - God's law is written upon the heart and thus I love the Lord. The heart is the seat of the desires/issues/abundance of life - See Ps 37:21; Jer 31:31-34; Prov 4:23

Mk 12:30

Mk 12:30 - with all thy soul - with all one's being. With our bodies, our passions, our thoughts, our possessions, our

Mk 12:30

Mk 12:30 - with all thy mind - our desire, our passions, our musings, our delights, our mental goals, our cogitation, our will.

Mk 12:30

Mk 12:30 - with all thy strength - our efforts, our applications, our focus, our determinations

Mk 12:31

Mk 12:31 - And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these - See Lev 19:18; Rom 13:9

Mk 12:31

Mark 12:31 - love thy neighbour as thyself - we should consider our neighbor in their time of need, in their struggles, in their joy, in their hardship as ourselves. This is speaking of being empathetic and acting in a manner towards my neighbor that I would act if I were in the circumstance. See Isa 58:6-10

Mk 12:31

Mark 12:31 - There is none other commandment greater than these - these two commandments do not supersede the 10 Commandments, they are the 10 Commandments, love to God and love to one's neighbor summarize the first 4 and last 6 commandments respectively.

Mk 12:32

Mk 12:32 - there is one God; and there is none other but he: - See Isa 46:9

Mk 12:33

Mk 12:33 - and to love his neighbour as himself - See Rom 13:9

Mk 12:33

Mk 12:33 - is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices - more than a show or profession of faith is the life of faith, loving God and one's neighbor as oneself. See 1Sam 15:22; Heb 10:5-7

Mk 12:34

Mk 12:34 - discreetly - Prudently; circumspectly; cautiously; with nice judgment of what is best to be done or omitted.

Mk 12:34

Mk 12:34 - Thou art not far from the kingdom of God - Our understanding and application of love being supreme brings us close to the Kingdom of God. Jesus saw that the scribe was sincere in his response, recognizing the truth and acknowledging the truth and affirmed his faith. See Joh 8:31, 32

Mk 12:35

Mk 12:35 - And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the Son of David? - See Jer 33:17, 21

Mk 12:35

Mk 12:35 - Mk 12:35 - How say the scribes - Jesus is expecting us to give an answer for the truths and the light that we have received. We are not to be blind or led by blind guides but are to know the Scriptures of truth that we may be set free - See 2Tim 2:15; John 5:38-40

Mk 12:35

Mk 12:35 - How say the scribes - Jesus is expecting us to give an answer for the truths and the light that we have received. We are not to be blind or led by blind guides but are to know the Scriptures of truth that we may be set free - See 2Tim 2:15; Joh 5:38-40

Mk 12:36

Mk 12:36 - For David himself said by the Holy Ghost - See 2Pet 1:21

Mk 12:36

Mk 12:36 - The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool - See Ps 110:1; Heb 1:13, 10:13

Mk 12:37

Mk 12:37 - And the common people heard him gladly - the gospel of peace was to be proclaimed to all people, rich and poor, Jew and Gentile. The poor were often made to feel that they were beyond God's approval and favor, but Jesus came to show that His gospel transcends time and space and is for all the children of Adam.

Mk 12:38

Mk 12:38 - and love salutations in the marketplaces And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts: - See Prov 28:21

Mk 12:40

Mk 12:40 - Which devour widows' houses - See 2Tim 3:5, 6

Mk 12:40

Mk 12:40 - and for a pretence make long prayers - The heathen looked upon their prayers as having in themselves merit to atone for sin. Hence the longer the prayer the greater the merit. If they could become holy by their own efforts, they would have something in themselves in which to rejoice, some ground for boasting. This idea of prayer is an outworking of the principle of self-expiation which lies at the foundation of all systems of false religion. The Pharisees had adopted this pagan idea of prayer, and it is by no means extinct in our day, even among those who profess to be Christians. The repetition of set, customary phrases when the heart feels no need of God is of the same character as the "vain repetitions" of the heathen.—Thoughts from the Mount of Blessing, 86 (1896). - {1MCP 276.2}

Mk 12:40

Mk 12:40 - these shall receive greater damnation - Lk 12:47, 48

Mk 12:41

Mark 12:41 - and many that were rich cast in much - The most splendid offerings may be laid upon the altar of God, and men will praise, exalt, and laud the giver because of his liberality. In what? "All things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee." No work of man can merit for him the pardoning love of God, but the love of God pervading the soul will lead him to do those things which were always required of God and that he should do with pleasure. He has done only that which duty ever required of him. - {1888 815.1}

Mk 12:43

Mk 12:43 - this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury - Thus He taught that the value of the gift is estimated not by the amount, but by the proportion that is given and the motive that actuates the giver. - {AA 342.1}

Mk 12:44

Mk 12:44 - but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living - the widow's two mites were offered in love and worship for God. She gave of her best and of all that she had and it was noted and accepted of God.

Mk 13:1

Mk 13:1 - Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here! - The disciples had been filled with awe and wonder at Christ's prediction of the overthrow of the temple, and they desired to understand more fully the meaning of His words. Wealth, labor, and architectural skill had for more than forty years been freely expended to enhance its splendors. Herod the Great had lavished upon it both Roman wealth and Jewish treasure, and even the emperor of the world had enriched it with his gifts. Massive blocks of white marble, of almost fabulous size, forwarded from Rome for this purpose, formed a part of its structure; and to these the disciples had called the attention of their Master, saying: "See what manner of stones and what buildings are here!" Mark 13:1. - {GC 24.3}

Mk 13:2

Mk 13:12 - Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down - this prophecy of Jesus was fulfilled in the destruction of Jerusalem in 70A.D.

Mk 13:6

Mk 13:11

Mk 13:11 - But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost - See Lk 12:12

Mk 13:11

Mk 13:11 - for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost - See Ps 81:10; 2Pet 1:21

Mk 13:22

Mk 13:22 - For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect - 2Cor 11:14, 15

Mk 13:22

Mk 13:22 - shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect - See Rev 16:13, 14; 2Thess 2:8-12 In the great final conflict, Satan will employ the same policy, manifest the same spirit, and work for the same end as in all preceding ages. That which has been, will be, except that the coming struggle will be marked with a terrible intensity such as the world has never witnessed. Satan's deceptions will be more subtle, his assaults more determined. If it were possible, he would lead astray the elect. Mark 13:22, R.V. - {GC xi.1}

Mk 13:23

Mk 13:23 - I have foretold you all things - as a Prophet of God, Jesus foretold the tribulations His people would endure so that we might beware. Isa 41:21-23; See 2Thess 2:5; 1Thess 5:1-9

Mk 13:25

Mk 13:25 - the stars of heaven shall fall - August 11, 1833

Mk 13:26

Mk 13:26 - a prophecy with dual interpretations. Jesus was seen coming in the clouds of heaven to the Ancient of Days on October 22, 1844 according to Dan 8:14, 7:13, 14. Jesus will soon come to earth with the clouds of heaven with the glory of His Father and His own glory to receive His children. Rev 19:11-16; Mt 16:27; Mk 8:38, 14:62

Mk 13:27

Mk 13:27 - And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven - A prophecy having two applications. And, when Christ comes again, the angels of heaven will gather the righteous to ascend to heaven with Jesus. See Rev 14

Mk 13:32

Mk 13:32 - But that day and hour no man maketh known, neither the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father. (An old English version of the passage)

Mk 13:32

Mk 13:32 - But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father - though none may know the day or the hour, we are to be children of light who are not caught unaware by Christ's coming. As we see the events foretelling Jesus' 2nd Coming we may know that it is near, even at the doors (Mt 24:33) - See Zech 14:7-9; Mt 24:36 One saying of the Saviour must not be made to destroy another. Though no man knoweth the day nor the hour of His coming, we are instructed and required to know when it is near. We are further taught that to disregard His warning, and refuse or neglect to know when His advent is near, will be as fatal for us as it was for those who lived in the days of Noah not to know when the flood was coming. {GC370.2}. See 1Thess 5:1-8

Mk 13:33

Mk 13:33 - Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is - See 1Thess 5:1-8

Mk 13:37

Mk 14:1

Mk 14:1 - and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death - the Jewish leadership, under the influence of Satan, employed subtlety and craft to entrap Jesus. In time, another power under the same influence would wage war against God's saints in a similar manner. See Dan 8:25

Mk 14:3

Mk 14:3 - And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head - Mary in gratitude to Jesus for all that He did for her, anointed His head, believing He was soon to be crowned the King of the Jews. However, Jesus made known that the kind act was for another purpose, that as the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world, the anointing was to be for His burial.

Mk 14:4 - indignation - Anger or extreme anger, mingled with contempt, disgust or abhorrence.

Mk 14:5

Mk 14:5 - For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor - the very thief who had no regard for the poor or the work of God, was he who suggested Mary's act of generosity towards Jesus was wastefulness.

Mary demonstrated righteousness by faith as she: 1. Had her eyes on the Cross, the bruising of Jesus 2. Believed in Who Jesus was 3. Wanted to give Jesus her best when and while He could appreciate it

Mk 14:10

Mk 14:10 - And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them - the reproof of Jesus against Judas' selfishness was all that he could take. He would 'punish' Jesus for exposing him and for not appreciating what he thought were his wise, ennobling contributions to the group.

Mk 14:11

Mk 14:11 - and promised to give him money - See Zech 11:12

Mk 14:62 - and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power - You will see Jesus sitting at God's side of favor, His right hand of power. See Heb 1:3

Mk 14:62

Mk 14:62 - coming in the clouds of heaven See Mk 13:26, 27, 8:38

Mk 14:63

Mk 14:63 - the high priest rent his clothes - the High Priest in Israel was to be one fully composed and an example to the rest of the people. He at no time was to rend his garments, consecrated and anointed for sacred use. Caiphas rending his clothes and charging Jesus was an example of the guilty charging the innocent. See Lev 10:6, 21:10; Mk 14:63 A high priest was not to rend his garments. By the Levitical law, this was prohibited under sentence of death. Under no circumstances, on no occasion, was the priest to rend his robe. It was the custom among the Jews for the garments to be rent at the death of friends, but this custom the priests were not to observe. Express command had been given by Christ to Moses concerning this. Lev 10:6. - {DA 708.4} Everything worn by the priest was to be whole and without blemish. By those beautiful official garments was represented the character of the great antitype, Jesus Christ. Nothing but perfection, in dress and attitude, in word and spirit, could be acceptable to God. He is holy, and His glory and perfection must be represented by the earthly service. Nothing but perfection could properly represent the sacredness of the heavenly service. Finite man might rend his own heart by showing a contrite and humble spirit. This God would discern. But no rent must be made in the priestly robes, for this would mar the representation of heavenly things. The high priest who dared to appear in holy office, and engage in the service of the sanctuary, with a rent robe, was looked upon as having severed himself from God. By rending his garment he cut himself off from being a representative character. He was no longer accepted by God as an officiating priest. This course of action, as exhibited by Caiaphas, showed human passion, human imperfection. - {DA 709.1} By rending his garments, Caiaphas made of no effect the law of God, to follow the tradition of men. A man-made law provided that in case of blasphemy a priest might rend his garments in horror at the sin, and be guiltless. Thus the law of God was made void by the laws of men. - {DA 709.2}

Mk 14:64

Mk 14:64 - Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? - blinded by their lust to kill Jesus, the people did not behold any blasphemy in Jesus but in the high priest, when he self-righteously rent his garments. Jesus had proven His words, that He was the Son of God, time and again and they all beheld it. Yet, their denial of Him is what brought their condemnation. See Joh 12:47, 48

Mk 14:64

Mk 14:64 - And they all condemned him to be guilty of death - ironically, the only one worthy of death was Caiaphus, the High Priest, when he rent his garment. See Lev 10:6

Mk 14:67

Mk 14:67 - And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth - this was the hour of trial and temptation for Peter. The accusation was that he was with Jesus of Nazareth and was worthy of the same condemnation as his Master. Peter was not ready to die for Jesus as he previously claimed (Mk 14:29, 30) and therefore denied Him during this hour of trial.

Mk 14:71

Mk 14:71 - But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak - Peter, under stress, permitted the "old man" to rise up and take control of his emotions. He not only denied Jesus in word but in action. Help me Lord!!

Mk 15:2

Mk 15:2 - Art thou the King of the Jews? - the question is regarding the Jew's Messiah, whether Jesus professed to be He. Pilate, as others understood the Jew's concept of their Messiah and inquired if this simple man with no comeliness or worldly honor could be their Messiah?

Mk 15:4

Mk 15:3 - Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee - Pilate was beginning to perceive the divine qualities of Christ's character that were veiled by His outward appearance. His poise, humility, meekness and self-control were the greatest evidence of Jesus' identity. See Isa 53:7

Mk 15:6

Mk 15:6 - Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired - this practice violated the laws of justice and was obviously to curry favor with the people.

Mk 15:7

Mk 15:7 - Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection - Barabbas, whose name means "son of the father" was in many respects an "antichrist" at the time of Jesus' earthly walk (See Barjesus in Act 13:6-12; 1Jo 2:18). Jesus, the Son of the Heavenly Father, came not to overthrow earthly governments but to establish an eternal kingdom through His loving sacrifice (Joh 12:24, 32, 44-50). Jesus came not as a thief who steals and takes life as did Barabbas (Joh 18:40), but to give life and to give it more abundantly (Joh 10:10). Jesus came not as a rabble rouser to stir up a movement in self-interest, but called people to seize hold of eternal life by revealing the righteousness of His Father's Kingdom and through self-denial (Mt 5:1-12)

Mk 15:10

Mk 15:10 - the Jewish leader could not contain their true motives and Pilate, with disdain for them, sought to pervert their aims.

Mk 15:11

Mk 15:11 - But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them - See Mt 27:20

Mk 15:14

Mk 15:14 - Why, what evil hath he done? - Even the hardened pagan had a sense of justice when he pled with the crowd, asking, why should I kill an innocent man?

Mk 15:17

Mk 15:17 - they clothed him with purple - they mockingly placed on Jesus garments of purple, mocking Him as the King of the Jews.

Mk 15:22

Mk 15:22 - place of a skull - the hill Golgotha where Jesus was crucified appears as a skull. This is a figurative depiction and fulfillment of the Everlasting Gospel in that Jesus' crucifixion crushed the head of Satan (Gen 3:15; Joh 12:31, 32). Satan's skull will be crushed by Jesus through the feet of the saints according to Rom 16:20. Those who take the glad tidings of salvation, the tidings from the east and the north (Rom 10:15; Dan 11:44) are stomping upon the head of Satan.

Mk 15:24

Mk 15:24 - And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take - See Ps 22:18

Mk 15:28

Mk 15:28 - And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors - See Isa 53:9, 12

Mk 15:29 - And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days. Save thyself, and come down from the cross - See Ps 22:12, 13; Lk 23:35

Mk 15:31 - He saved others; himself he cannot save - these blasphemous scorers unwittingly were declaring the Everlasting Gospel. That God would lay down His life for humanity, not sparing His own. See Heb 12:2

Mk 15:33

Mark 15:33 - there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour - See Ps 97:2; Ex 19:16; Mt 27:45; Lk 23:44, 45; 2Sam 22:12

Mk 15:34

Mk 15:38

Mk 15:38 - And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom - supernatural hands tore the veil

Mk 15:39

Mk 15:39 - And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God - Jesus' crucifixion and death on the Cross appealed to the Roman Centurion so that he gave testimony of the present truth. See Dan 9:25; Act 2:36; Joh 12:20-23

Mk 15:42

Mk 15:42 - And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath - Friday, the day before the Sabbath is called the Preparation day.

Mk 16:7

Mk 16:7 - But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you - The Lord directed the angels to mention Peter specifically so that he knew he was not an outcast and that his sin of denying Jesus had been forgiven.

Mk 16:12

Mk 16:12 - After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country - See Lk 24:13-32

Mk 16:13

Mk 16:13 - And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them - See Lk 24:33-36

Mk 16:14

Mk 16:14 - upbraided - To charged with something wrong or disgraceful; reproached; reproved.

Lk 1:5 - the course of Abia - The course of Abia. David divided the priesthood into 24 courses (1 Chron. 24:1-18; 2 Chron. 8:14), of which the course of Abijah (or Abia) was the eighth (1 Chron. 24:10). Sixteen of the courses were made up of descendants of Eleazar, and eight, of descendants of Ithamar, both sons of Aaron. Only four of the courses were represented by the priests who returned from Babylon after the Captivity, and Abijah was not among these (see on Ezra 2:36). But those who did return were nevertheless divided into 21 or 22 courses (expanded to 24 in NT times), and were assigned the names of the original courses (see on Neh. 12:1). According to Josephus, each course of priests was expected to serve for a week, from Sabbath to Sabbath (Antiquities vii. 14. 7 [365, 366]), semiannually. At the Feast of Tabernacles all 24 courses were expected to be present. Attempts to determine the time of year at which the course of Abijah came up for service, based on the course serving at the time the Rom destroyed the Temple in a.d. 70, are apparently of little or no value as far as the dating of Lk's narrative is concerned. {SDA Bible Commentary vol 5, pg 671}

Lk 1:35 - And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God - the true Christmas Story is that God's Holy Spirit is to bring forth not only in Mary, but in every son of God, a Holy Thing, a Savior, which is Christ the Lord - Christ in you and me, the hope of glory! Act 2:4, 10:44; Col 1:27; 1Tim 3:16 From this case, therefore, we learn most conclusively that the seed which God promised to Abraham, which should be as the sand of the sea and the stars of heaven for number, and which should inherit the land is only a spiritual seed. That is, it isa a seed which comes through the agency of the Spirit of God. The birth of Isaac, like that of the Lord Jesus, was miraculous. It was supernatural. Both were brought about through the agency of the Spirit. In both we have an illustration of the power by which we are to become sons of God, and thus heirs of the promise. {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 71}

The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them. - {COL 415.5} The light of the Sun of Righteousness is to shine forth in good works—in words of truth and deeds of holiness. - {COL 416.1}

Lk 1:35

Lk 1:35 - therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God - See Act 3:19, 20; 1Jo 4:1-3; Col 1:27; Isa 49:1; Rom 1:3, 4; Mal 3:5 Holiness is constant agreement with God. Shall we not strive to be that which Christ so greatly desires us to be—Christians in deed and in truth—that the world may see in our lives a revelation of the saving power of truth? This world is our preparatory school. While here we shall meet with trials and difficulties. Continually the enemy of God will seek to draw us away from our allegiance. But while we cleave to Him who gave Himself for us we are safe. - {In Heavenly Places 33.4}

Joh was the forerunner of Jesus Christ and gathered the attention of the people so that they might welcome Christ.

Lk 1:70

Lk 1:70 - As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began: - the angels as prophets (Rev 19:10) helped to convey the messages of warning to Adam and Eve. See Isa 59:8; Rom 3:16

Lk 1:80

Lk 2:10 - which shall be to all people - The mystery of the gospel was being proclaimed as a blessing to all people, rich and poor (Mk 12:37). See John 3:16, 17; Gen 12:3; Isa 56:7

Lk 2:11

Lk 2:11 - For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord - See Isa 9:6

Lk 2:11

Lk 2:11 - in the city of David - all of Israel knew that David was born in Bethlehem. See Lk 2:15

Lk 2:11

Lk 2:11 - Christ the Lord - Messiah the Prince according to Daniel 9:25. See Act 2:36

Lk 2:13

Lk 2:13 - And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying - God permitted the shepherds to see the glorious angelic host praising the newborn King while the rest of the world remained in darkness. The same host rejoiced at the creation of the world. See Job 38:4-7

Lk 2:14

Lk 2:14 - Glory to God in the highest - thee angels sing Glory to God in the highest because the very image of God had come to the earth. See 1Cor 11:7

Lk 2:14

Lk 2:15 - and on earth peace - in contrast to the woeful lamentation uttered upon the inhabitants of the earth with the expulsion of Satan, peace on earth was proclaimed with the arrival of Jesus Christ. See Rev 12:12

Lk 2:14

Lk 2:14 - good will toward men - God's plans towards mankind are all good. God desires our redemption. See Jer 29:11

Lk 2:15

Lk 2:14 - Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us - the shepherd received the prophetic message of the birth of Christ and moved with joy and godly fear to see Jesus.

Lk 2:22

Lk 2:22 -And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished - See Lev 12:2

Lk 2:23

Lk 2:23 - Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord - every male was to serve as a priest of God over their household and in the service of the Lord. - See Ex 34:19, 20; Lev 12:3; Gen 17:10-14; Deut 15:19-23

Lk 2:24

Lk 2:24 - And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons - See Lev 12:8

Lk 2:27

Lk 2:27 - and he came by the Spirit into the temple - Simeon and the priests represent two classes,—those who are guided by the Spirit of God because they are willing to be instructed, and those who, refusing to receive the light which would lead them into all truth, are guided by the spirit of the power of darkness, and are daily being led into deeper darkness. - {RH April 2, 1901 Par. 7} By divine illumination Simeon understood Christ's mission. The Holy Spirit impressed his heart. But the priests and rulers were imbued with the spirit of the enemy of God; and today the same spirit influences human minds, controlling with power the hearts of men, and making of none effect the appeals of the Spirit. - {RH April 2, 1901 Par. 8}

Lk 2:30

Lk 2:30 - For mine eyes have seen thy salvation - Salvation is the Person, Jesus Christ. See 1Jo 5:11; Joh 11:25, 26

Lk 2:31

Lk 2:31 - Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people - See Lk 3:6; Titus 2:11; Isa 40:5

Lk 2:32

Lk 2:32 - A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel - Simeon declared the mystery of God. See Isa 49:6; Eph 3:4-6; Act 15:14

Lk 2:32

Lk 2:32 - and the glory of thy people Israel - See Hag 2:9

Lk 2:34

Lk 2:32 - this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel - As the Bible is the great cleaver of truth, Jesus, the Seed of the woman, would divide Israel and the world. Heb 4:12 But One greater than Moses lay in the priest's arms; and when he enrolled the child's name, he was enrolling the name of One who was the foundation of the whole Jewish economy. That name was to be its death warrant; for the system of sacrifices and offerings was waxing old; the type had almost reached its antitype, the shadow its substance. - {DA 52.2} Behold," Simeon had said, "this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against." They must fall who would rise again. We must fall upon the Rock and be broken before we can be uplifted in Christ. Self must be dethroned, pride must be humbled, if we would know the glory of the spiritual kingdom. The Jews would not accept the honor that is reached through humiliation. Therefore they would not receive their Redeemer. He was a sign that was spoken against. - {DA 56.5}

Lk 2:34

Lk 2:34 - and for a sign which shall be spoken against - Jesus, the Chief Cornerstone who the builders rejected was the sign of offense for Ancient Israel. See Isa 28:16

Lk 2:35

Lk 2:35 - Yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) - Through Simeon it is revealed that the Messiah is to have no unobstructed passage through the world. In the words to Mary, "A sword shall pierce through thy own soul also," God in His tender mercy gives to the mother of Jesus an intimation of the anguish that already for His sake she had begun to bear. - {DA 56.4}

Lk 2:35

Lk 2:35 - that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed - Jesus will divide the world and will reveal the true heart, thoughts and motives of men: The Righteous: Joh 11:21, 22; The Wicked: Joh 11:47-50 In the light of the Saviour's life, the hearts of all, even from the Creator to the prince of darkness, are revealed. Satan has represented God as selfish and oppressive, as claiming all, and giving nothing, as requiring the service of His creatures for His own glory, and making no sacrifice for their good. But the gift of Christ reveals the Father's heart. It testifies that the thoughts of God toward us are "thoughts of peace, and not of evil." Jeremiah 29:11. It declares that while God's hatred of sin is as strong as death, His love for the sinner is stronger than death. {DA 57.1} By the life and the death of Christ, the thoughts of men also are brought to view. From the manger to the cross, the life of Jesus was a call to self-surrender, and to fellowship in suffering. It unveiled the purposes of men. Jesus came with the truth of heaven, and all who were listening to the voice of the Holy Spirit were drawn to Him. The worshipers of self belonged to Satan's kingdom. In their attitude toward Christ, all would show on which side they stood. And thus everyone passes judgment on himself. - {DA 57.3}

Lk 2:36

Lk 2:30 - Phanuel - meaning "the face of God"

Lk 2:40

Lk 2:40 - And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him - See Prov 8:12

Lk 2:41

Lk 2:41 - Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover - the celebration of passover was a required/mandatory holiday to be celebrated among the COI.

Lk 2:46

Lk 2:46 - they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions - See Ps 119:98-100, 102

Lk 2:47

Lk 2:47 - And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers - See Ps 119:99, 100; Isa 50:4

Lk 2:48

Lk 2:48 - Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing - As Adam and Eve blamed God in the Garden of Eden, so Mary and Joseph seek to cover-up their guilt of negligence by accusing Jesus of a fault.

Lk 2:49

Lk 2:49 - And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business? - Jesus graciously does not return evil for evil by reproving Mary, but merely gives she and Joseph a sacred message. Jesus informed both Joseph and Mary Who His actual Father was and to Whom He owed ultimate homage and allegiance. Jesus informs them that His business on earth is greater than merely being their Son, though He returned with Joseph and Mary to their home in Nazareth and was subject to them.

Lk 2:51

Lk 2:51 - And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them - though Jesus knew Who He was and His calling, He subjected Himself to His earthly parents in obedience and in carrying out his duties as a Son.

Lk 2:52

Lk 2:52 - And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man - See Prov 3:3, 4; Lk 2:40

Lk 3:1

Lk 3:1 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar - there existed a one world government in the time of Jesus' first advent and there will be again a one world government prior to His second advent. When the fullness of the time was come, God sent forth His Son." Providence had directed the movements of nations, and the tide of human impulse and influence, until the world was ripe for the coming of the Deliverer. The nations were united under one government. DA 32.2

Lk 3:1

Lk 3:1 - tetrarch - a governor of a 4th part of a region.

Lk 3:2

Lk 3:2- the word of God came unto Joh the Baptist - despite the mention of the High Priests, the word of God is given to His appointed agent, the one who would herald the coming King. This verse gives reason to the fact that the leadership in Israel had been bypassed for a new leadership. Had the leaders in Israel been true to their trust, they might have shared the joy of heralding the birth of Jesus. But now they are passed by. - {DA 47.1}

Lk 3:2

Lk 3:2 - Joh the son of Zacharias - Joh the Baptist, so called because he made popular a new order of outwardly demonstrating consecration to God through the rite of baptism. Just as circumcision of the flesh was to be a sign of the inward circumcision of the heart, Joh instituted baptism, the washing away of past sins in the blood of the Lamb, to all who would receive the rite by faith. See Rom 2:28, 29; Deut 10:16 The rite of baptism may be seen foreshadowed in: COI crossing the Red Sea: Ex 14:13-16; 1Cor 10:1-4 COI crossing the Jordan: Joshua 3:14-17, 5:1-7 Naaman the leper: 2Kin 5:1-15

Lk 3:3

Lk 3:3 - And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins - Joh the Baptist, a prophet and preacher of righteousness, came proclaiming a new order and work of righteousness. Joh came proclaiming the Kingdom of God to all who would repent and be baptized for the remission of their sins. Joh instituted baptism as the new sign of the covenant between God and men, superseding the Jewish rite of circumcision which excluded all who were not blood descendants of Abraham (see v10-14). Joh's new order was an offense to many because of their prejudice and pride in the rituals they religiously upheld as a cloak of righteousness, while their hearts remained uncircumcised. Deut 10:16; Rom 10:1-4 The rite of baptism may be seen foreshadowed in: COI crossing the Red Sea: Ex 14:13-16; 1Cor 10:1-4 COI crossing the Jordan: Joshua 3:14-17, 5:1-7 Naaman the leper: 2Kin 5:1-15 And all went forth into the wilderness to hear him. Unlearned fishermen and peasants came from the surrounding countries and from regions nigh and afar off. The Roman soldiers from the barracks of Herod came to hear. Chieftains came with their swords girded by their sides, to put down anything that savored of riot or rebellion. The avaricious tax gatherers came from the regions round about; and from the Sanhedrim came forth the phylacteried priests. All listened as if spellbound; and all came away, even the Pharisee, the Sadducee, and the cold, unimpressionable scoffer of the age, with the sneer gone, and cut to the heart with a sense of their sin. There were no long arguments, no finely cut theories, elaborately delivered in their "firstly," "secondly," and "thirdly." But pure native eloquence was revealed in the short sentences, every word carrying with it the certainty and truth of the weighty warnings given. - {2SM 148.3}

Lk 3:4

Lk 3:6 - the voice of one crying in the wilderness - See Isa 40:1-5

Lk 3:4

Lk 3:4 -Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight - We, the sons of God, are to be as Joh the Baptist (Mal 4:5, 6), whose lifestyle, works, and ministry prepared the way, made straight the way for others to see Jesus and for Him to enter their hearts. See Isa 40:1-5, 45:2; Mal 4:5, 6

Lk 3:5

Lk 3:5 - Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth - our ministry should make a highway for the Lord to passover and enter into the hearts of those who hear. By the power of the Holy Spirit, we are to bring low all that is high, fill in all that is cavernous and make straight that which is crooked.

Lk 3:6

Lk 3:6 - And all flesh shall see the salvation of God - Isa describes the salvation of the Lord as the "glory of the Lord", Jesus Christ, the glory that fills Go'd holy temple. See Hag 2:9; Lk 2:25, 30, 31; Titus 2:11

Lk 3:7

Lk 3:7 - O generation of vipers - Joh is calling the Pharisees and leadership the seed of the serpent. See Gen 3:15; Isa 1:4; Joh 8:44; Mt 12:34, 23:33

Lk 3:7

Lk 3:7 - who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? - Commenting upon Israel's rejection of Christ and in consequence their utter destruction, Joh draws the attention of the Jewish Leadership to the prophecy of Dan 9:26, forecasting Ancient Israel's end. See Lk 7:30, 13:1-9; Act 13:40, 41; Habakkuk 1:5 It was well known that the seventy weeks of Dan's prophecy, covering the Messiah's advent, were nearly ended; and all were eager to share in that era of national glory which was then expected. Such was the popular enthusiasm that the Sanhedrin would soon be forced either to sanction or to reject Joh's work. Already their power over the people was waning. It was becoming a serious question how to maintain their position. In the hope of arriving at some conclusion, they dispatched to the Jordan a deputation of priests and Levites to confer with the new teacher. - {DA 133.3}

Lk 3:8

Lk 3:8 - Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance - See Jon 3:6, 8

Lk 3:8

Lk 3:8 - and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham - See Eze 33:24-26; Mk 3:31-35; Joh 8:39

Lk 3:8

Lk 3:8 - Joh is emphasizing the worthlessness of biological descent in matters of God. Joh affirms that ones born biologically of Abraham are no more worthy of salvation than stones, of which God can make into sons of Abraham if He chooses. See Joh 1:12, 13; Rom 9:6-8, 2:28, 29; Gal 3:27-29; AA 20.1

Lk 3:9

Lk 3:9 - And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: - See Mt 21:43, 15:13; Mk 11:20; Compare Job 14:7-9; Ezekiel 5:8-17

Lk 3:13

Lk 3:13 - Exact no more than that which is appointed you - the publicans were not to extort or steal from the people, taking more than was required for personal gain.

Lk 3:14

Lk 3:14 - neither accuse any falsely - See 2Tim 3:3; Tit 2:3

Lk 3:16

Lk 3:16 - he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire - the Holy Spirit gave tongues of fire to the apostles on the day of Pentecost so that the gospel might go to the ends of the earth. The baptism of fire Jesus also spoke about was to include the fiery trials that would assail all those who seek to serve Jesus. See Mt 20:22, 23; Act 11:16

Lk 3:17

Lk 3:17 - Whose fan is in His hand, and He will throughly purge His floor - See Dan 2:35
Miller's Dream: Immediately the door opened, and a man entered the room, when the people all left it; and he, having a dirt brush in his hand, opened the windows, and began to brush the dirt and rubbish from the room. - {EW 83.2} I cried to him to forbear, for there were some precious jewels scattered among the rubbish. - {EW 83.3} He told me to "fear not," for he would "take care of them". - {EW 83.4}

Lk 3:17

Lk 3:17 - will gather the wheat into his garner - See Rev 14:15

Lk 3:17

Lk 3:17 - but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable - See Isa 27:4; Dan 2:34; Mal 4:1, 3; Rev 14:10, 11

Lk 3:20

Lk 3:20 - Added yet this above all, that he shut up Joh in prison - to all things Herod was chargeable for, he added the additional grievance of imprisoning Joh.

Lk 3:21

Lk 3:20 - being baptized, and praying - as Jesus was being baptized he prayed for the Spirit of God to descend upon Him.

Lk 3:21

Lk 3:21 - the heaven was opened - It was believed also that before the Messiah's advent, Elijah would personally appear. This expectation Joh met in his denial; but his words had a deeper meaning. Jesus afterward said, referring to Joh, "If ye are willing to receive it, this is Elijah, which is to come." Mt 11:14, R. V. Joh came in the spirit and power of Elijah, to do such a work as Elijah did. If the Jews had received him, it would have been accomplished for them. But they did not receive his message. To them he was not Elijah. He could not fulfill for them the mission he came to accomplish. - {DA 135.3} Many of those gathered at the Jordan had been present at the baptism of Jesus; but the sign then given had been manifest to but few among them. During the preceding months of the Baptist's ministry, many had refused to heed the call to repentance. Thus they had hardened their hearts and darkened their understanding. When Heaven bore testimony to Jesus at His baptism, they perceived it not. Eyes that had never been turned in faith to Him that is invisible beheld not the revelation of the glory of God; ears that had never listened to His voice heard not the words of witness. So it is now. Often the presence of Christ and the ministering angels is manifest in the assemblies of the people, and yet there are many who know it not. They discern nothing unusual. But to some the Saviour's presence is revealed. Peace and joy animate their hearts. They are comforted, encouraged, and blessed. - {DA 136.1}

Lk 3:22 - And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove... and a voice came from heaven - We see all persons of the God-head represented here at Jesus' baptism. See also 2Cor 13:14; Dan 9:25, 26

Lk 3:23

Lk 3:23 - And Jesus himself began to be about thirty years of age - Jesus began His ministry at the age of 30 like all priests in Israel. See Dan 9:25, 26; Num 4:3, 47

Lk 3:23 - being (as was supposed) the son of Joseph - See Mt 13:55; Joh 8:41

Lk 3:38

Lk 3:38 - Adam, which was the son of God - not only was Adam God's son who He created, Adam was once the head of the earth, appointed as its caretaker. See Job 1:6

Lk 4:1

Lk 4:1 - being full of the Holy Ghost - Jesus received of the Spirit without measure. I desire the same! May I die that you may fill me Lord!! See Joh 3:34; Gal 2:20; Rom 6:6

Lk 4:1

Lk 4:1 - led by the Spirit - the Time of Israel's Visitation commenced with the Baptism of Jesus Christ according to the prophecy of Dan 9:24, 25. -- If the leaders in Israel had received Christ, He would have honored them as His messengers to carry the gospel to the world. To them first was given the opportunity to become heralds of the kingdom and grace of God. But Israel knew not the time of her visitation. The jealousy and distrust of the Jewish leaders had ripened into open hatred, and the hearts of the people were turned away from Jesus. - {DA 231.3} The Sanhedrin had rejected Christ's message and was bent upon His death; therefore Jesus departed from Jerusalem, from the priests, the temple, the religious leaders, the people who had been instructed in the law, and turned to another class to proclaim His message, and to gather out those who should carry the gospel to all nations. - {DA 232.1}

Lk 4:2

Lk 4:2 - Being forty days tempted of the devil - 40days or 1.33 months is significant in Biblical accounts: 1. Purifying rains fell upon the earth for 40days and nights during the flood (Gen 7:4, 12) 2. Jacob's body was embalmed for 40 days (Gen 50:3) 3. Moses' fast for 40days on Mt. Sinai with the LORD (Ex 24:18) 4. The 12 spies surveyed the land for 40days 5. Elijah's fast for 40days when fleeing Jezebel 6. The people of Nineveh were given 40days probation to repent

Lk 4:3

Lk 4:3 - If thou be the Son of God - The devil knew exactly Who Jesus was because the demons often declared His identity. This was a direct challenge to God's profession from heaven regarding Jesus and to test Jesus' faith. When Satan and the Son of God first met in conflict, Christ was the commander of the heavenly hosts; and Satan, the leader of revolt in heaven, was cast out. Now their condition is apparently reversed, and Satan makes the most of his supposed advantage. One of the most powerful of the angels, he says, has been banished from heaven. The appearance of Jesus indicates that He is that fallen angel, forsaken by God, and deserted by man. A divine being would be able to sustain his claim by working a miracle; "if Thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread." Such an act of creative power, urges the tempter, would be conclusive evidence of divinity. It would bring the controversy to an end. - {DA 119.2}

Lk 4:4

Lk 4:4 - It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God - See Deut 8:3

Lk 4:4

Lk 4:4 - but by every word of God - man can and must live and be sustained by every word that proceeds from the mouth of the Lord. See Job 23:12

Lk 4:5

Lk 4:5 - And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain - the devil blasphemously handled Jesus in taking Him to a high mountain

Lk 4:5

Lk 4:5 - shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time - Just as the devil has power to show all the kingdoms of the world before Jesus, God will show the wicked their life record in a moment in the final judgment before He rains down fire from heaven to destroy them. See Rev 20:

Lk 4:6

Lk 4:6 - All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them - See 1Jo 2:6, 7

Lk 4:6

Lk 4:8 - for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it - the devil believes that the things of this world are his. He feels that after usurping authority from Adam, he had a right to rule and bless or curse whom he chooses (Job 1:6, 7). This couldn't be further from the truth. See Joh 12:31

Lk 4:7

Lk 4:7 - If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine - See Isa 14:12-14; Ezekiel 28:12-19

Lk 4:8

Lk 4:8 - Get thee behind me - See Mt 16:23; Mk 8:33

Lk 4:16

Lk 4:16 - And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up - Jesus would meet with contempt from the people of Nazareth with Whom He was most familiar and they with Him. See Joh 6:42, 59

Lk 4:16

Lk 4:16 - and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read - See Lk 4:31, 6:6; Act 13:42-48

Lk 4:17

Lk 4:16 - He opened the book - Jesus opening the book to read the passage from Isa 61 is reflective of the heavenly court scene where the court is seated and the books are opened.

While the book is open, Jesus desires to write His law in our hearts, have us embrace the everlasting gospel, preach salvation to the poor, heal the broken hearted, set the captives free and bring recovery of sight to the blind, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.

Lk 4:18

Lk 4:18, 19 - The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, 19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord - See Isa 61:1, 2, 42:1; Act 10:38

Lk 4:18

Lk 4:18 - to preach deliverance to the captives - See Heb 2:14, 15; Isa 25:8; Zech 9:12

Lk 4:18

Lk 4:18 - recovering of sight to the blind - See Isa 29:9-11

Lk 4:20

Lk 4:20 - He closed the book - Jesus stopped short of the part of the text that the Jews delighted to hear, God taking vengeance. Jesus was trying to show them a reality they were not aware of and had been misinformed of. Jesus as Messiah had not come to take vengeance on mankind (especially the Rom) but to bring healing to man's sin-sick soul.

Lk 4:21

Lk 4:21 - This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears - Jesus, the Author of our Salvation and the Inspiration behind Scriptures, foretold of His work and then confirmed its fulfillment. Jesus is the God of Prophecy. Joh 13:19

Lk 4:22

Lk 4:22 - and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth - See Joh 1:14

Lk 4:22

Lk 4:22 - And they said, Is not this Joseph's son? - the spirit of doubt and contempt entered the minds of the people so that they saw Jesus' wonderfully gracious words and works and yet could not perceive His true identity.

Lk 4:29

Lk 4:29 - And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong. - The same blasphemous spirit that filled Satan, having him mishandle Jesus, filled his children. See Lk 4:5, 9; Joh 8:44; Act 7:57-60

Lk 4:30

Lk 4:30 - But he passing through the midst of them went his way - God gave His angels charge over Jesus to watch over Him until the appointed time that He should be glorified. Jesus must die at an appointed time in an appointed manner according to the Scriptures (Ps 22:6-19; Dan 9:25, 26). See Ps 91:11, 12

Lk 4:31

Lk 4:31 - And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days - See Lk 4:16, 6:6; Act 13:42-48

Lk 4:32

Lk 4:32 - And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power - See Joh 7:45, 46

Lk 4:33

Lk 4:35 - there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice - devils desire to inhabit a human host and cause pain, suffering and death to the host and all around them. See Rev 16:13, 14; Mt 12:29; Mk 3:27

Lk 4:34

Lk 4:34 - art thou come to destroy us? - See Mt 25:41; Jude 1:6; Jam 2:19

Lk 4:34

Lk 4:34 - who thou art; the Holy One of God - the holiness that Jesus assumed with His incarnation was unlike that of the Father and Holy Spirit, a holiness which He laid down. The holiness of the Father and Holy Spirit is above sin so that they can not be tempted. Jesus however, assuming our humanity, could be tempted by sin, but remained unspotted by sin. Jesus' holiness is a victorious holiness producing righteousness. See Jam 1:13; Heb 4:15; Hab 1:12; Mk 1:24

Lk 4:35

Lk 4:35 - And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him - Jesus doesn't need unclean spirits proclaiming Who He is and declaring Him to men. Men must see Jesus for Who He is through the conviction of the Holy Spirit. See Lk 4:41; Mt 16:23; Act 16:17, 18

Lk 4:36

Lk 4:36 - for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out - in time, all of creation must give heed to the command of its Creator - See Philippians 2:5-11

Lk 4:39

Lk 4:40 - rebuked the fever - interesting that God speaks to all things and they must heed His words. Sickness and illness, the result of sin, must stand down as God speaks judgments against them. This is the power of God!

Lk 4:41

Lk 4:41 - And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ - See Lk 4:34, 35; Jam 2:19

Lk 4:41

Lk 4:41 - Thou art Christ the Son of God - The demons acknowledged what men failed to acknowledge. The demons saw Jesus for Who He was, is, and will ever be, God Almighty! See Lk 4:35; James 2:19

Lk 4:41

Lk 4:41 - for they knew that he was Christ - See Lk 10:18; Rev 12:9

Lk 4:42

Lk 4:42 - And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place - Jesus often retreated to a solitary place to reflect, pray and ask for strength for the next set of trials He must face. So too, we must come aside and allow the Holy Spirit to recharge us. See Lk 5:16, 6:12

Lk 4:44

Lk 4:44 - And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee- Jesus went about the synagogues of Galilee, preaching to all the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

Lk 5:3

Lk 5:3 - And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship - The voice of God is one which will call forth the dead and is as a lion's roar (Rev 10:3). All who have ears to hear and are among His sheep, hear His voice and follow Him. See Joh 5:25, 10:4, 5

Lk 5:5

Lk 5:6 - Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net - Jesus was testing the faith of His disciple Peter. Peter, who toiled all night and caught no fish, did not think the effort would amount to much, yet in obedience to Jesus, he humbly let down the net to his grandest surprise. I believe God is seeking to move us to the place where we anticipate and expect bountiful blessings when in His presence and abiding in Him. We must develop the spiritual discipline of hoping all things, believing all things and trusting that God is working out all things for our good. See

1Cor 13:7; Rom 8:28

Lk 5:8

Lk 5:8 - When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord - Simon recognized divinity clothed in humanity as he bowed in worship and in humility, recognizing his unworthiness in standing in God's presence. This was in Peter a teachable disposition. See Lk 7:6, 7; Mt 8:8 What is justification by faith?—It is the work of God in laying the glory of man in the dust, and doing for man that which it is not in his power to do for himself. When men see their own nothingness, they are prepared to be clothed with the righteousness of Christ. When they begin to praise and exalt God all the day long, then by beholding they are becoming changed into the same image. What is regeneration?—It is revealing to man what is his own real nature, that in himself he is worthless. - {SpTA09 62.2}

Lk 5:10

Lk 5:10 - And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men - The Lord assured Peter of His acceptance of him as he was, and declared Peter's new assignment, a fisher of men. Just as Jesus would cause him to catch two boatload of fish, so would he bring success to Peter's ministry for men. - See Dan 12:3

Lk 5:11

Lk 5:11 - And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him - Not concerned with the bumper-catch they had received, the disciples left the boatload of fish to others as they chose to follow Jesus. No need in holding onto peanuts when you are walking with the Master Chef Who can daily provide a bounty of blessings.

Lk 5:12

Lk 5:12 - Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean - the leper came to Christ, acknowledging his deep need. He also saw Him as One Who had the answer to his problem, if it were His will. In respect for Jesus' will, he speaks a statement of fact encased in a request for His blessings. See Mt 8:1-4

Lk 5:13

Lk 5:13 - And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him - It is just like Jesus to go the extra mile. Jesus could have pronounced the man clean and healed without touching Him. But to show that not only did He have power over the illness, of which He had no fear (Lk 4:39), Jesus showed, "I take you just as you are and will make you whole from your brokenness." Thank you Lord!!

Lk 5:15

Lk 5:15 - and to be healed by him of their infirmities - No person that has been in Jesus' presence can leave the same way. Those who were healed of sickness and infirmities bore the constant evidence God's power in their lives. Their peace and happiness was the direct interposition of Jesus.

Lk 5:16

Lk 5:16 - And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed - as was His custom, after being used mightily of His Father in works of healing and preaching the gospel, Jesus retreated to a deserted place for prayer for those whom He ministered to and for strength for Himself. See Lk 4:42, 6:12

Lk 5:17

Lk 5:17 - And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judaea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them - the very ones who pitted themselves against Jesus and sought every opportunity to subvert His ministry (Lk 5:21), were being drawn to Him by the power of the Holy Spirit for their salvation. The power to heal them of their sin sickness (self-righteousness due to separation from God) was present if they would in faith and humility take hold of His strength (Isa 27:4, 5). 2Pet 3:9

Lk 5:18

Lk 5:18 - And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him - speaking of friends helping to carry your burden, these friends carried their friend, who felt he was a burden to the world. The faith and commitment to their friend is what moved the heart of God.

Lk 5:20

Lk 5:20 - the one who went to great lengths to be in Jesus' presence received that which he came seeking. While those who stood closest by with the greatest opportunity to receive a blessing, left unchanged and rather, cursed in their hardness of heart.

Lk 5:21

Lk 5:21 - And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone? - The power of the Holy Spirit was present to heart the scribes and Pharisees of their sin sickness, and yet they denied the power that would evidently manifest as Jesus not only forgave, but healed the man. See Mk 2:7; Joh 10:33; Lk 7:49

Lk 5:23

Lk 5:23 - Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk? - which is easier for God to do, to forgive sins or cause the lame to walk? Either is within the realm of His control.

Lk 5:24

Lk 5:24 - But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house - Jesus affirmed that His powers were not limited to relieving men of their physical maladies, but that He had power to forgive sins also as He first forgave, then healed the paralytic man. See Act 9:33, 34

Lk 5:27

Lk 5:27 - And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me - To this class belonged Levi-Mt, who, after the four disciples at Gennesaret, was the next to be called to Christ's service. The Pharisees had judged Mt according to his employment, but Jesus saw in this man a heart open for the reception of truth. Mt had listened to the Saviour's teaching. As the convicting Spirit of God revealed his sinfulness, he longed to seek help from Christ; but he was accustomed to the exclusiveness of the rabbis, and had no thought that this Great Teacher would notice him. [32] - {CSA 15.9}

Lk 5:28 - And he left all, rose up, and followed him - publicans were well-off people in Jewish society for their work and often the kick-backs which they received. Yet, Levi was willing to leave all and follow this itinerant Teacher of righteousness. Compare Levi's response to the rich, young ruler who also had many possessions. Levi counted the cost and saw God's Kingdom and the privilege to learn from this divine Teacher greater riches than all the world possessed. See Joh 10:4, 5, 14 Mt "left all, rose up, and followed Him." There was no hesitation, no questioning, no thought of the lucrative business to be exchanged for poverty and hardship. It was enough for him that he was to be with Jesus, that he might listen to His words, and unite with Him in His work. - {CSA 16.2} So it was with the disciples previously called. When Jesus bade Peter and his companions follow Him, immediately they left their boats and nets. Some of these disciples had friends dependent on them for support; but when they received the Saviour's invitation, they did not hesitate, and inquire, How shall I live, and sustain my family? They were obedient to the call; and when afterward Jesus asked them, "When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye anything?" they could answer, "Nothing." Lk 22:35.... - {CSA 16.3}

Lk 5:29

Lk 5:29 - And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them - birds of a feather, flock together. Levi invited his despised and scorned publican friends (perhaps including Zaccheus) to a lavish and costly feast for his new Master and brethren. This was an outreach opportunity the Lord impressed upon Levi to do to win those who were marginalized in the Jewish society. Among the publicans a widespread interest was created. Their hearts were drawn toward the divine Teacher. In the joy of his new discipleship, Mt longed to bring his former associates to Jesus. Accordingly he made a feast at his own house, and called together his relatives and friends. Not only were publicans included, but many others who were of doubtful reputation, and were proscribed by their more scrupulous neighbors. - {CSA 16.4}

Lk 5:30

Lk 5:30 - But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners? - Those who are outside the Kingdom of God often have the greatest criticisms and opinions regarding how the people of God ought to live and behave. Since they claim to know the truth and do not do the truth, they are doubly guilty and more accountable than the ones who they charge with sin. The entertainment was given in honor of Jesus, and He did not hesitate to accept the courtesy. He well knew that this would give offense to the Pharisaic party, and would also compromise Him in the eyes of the people. But no question of policy could influence His movements. With Him external distinctions weighed nothing. That which appealed to His heart was a soul thirsting for the water of life. - {CSA 16.5} But although the Pharisees thought so highly of themselves, they were really in a worse condition than the ones they despised. The publicans were less bigoted and self-sufficient, and thus were more open to the influence of truth. Jesus said to the rabbis, "Go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice." Thus He showed that while they claimed to expound the word of God, they were wholly ignorant of its spirit. [34] - {CSA 16.10}

Lk 5:31

Lk 5:31 - a person who is not sick does not go seeking a physician. Jesus is speaking of the blindness of the Pharisees in not seeing their own spiritual depravity and need of a physician.

Lk 5:32

Lk 5:32 - I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance - Jesus is speaking of those who recognize their own poverty and need of a Savior. They are they who Jesus came to save, not the self-righteous and "whole". See Mt 5:3

Lk 5:33

Lk 5:33 - And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of Joh fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink? - Emphasizing the outward "signs of piety" the Pharisees question Jesus regarding the conduct of His disciples; an indirect attack upon the disciples and Jesus as their Master. This attack but he devil was to weaken the faith of the disciples by questioning their sincerity and god-likeness according to the doctrine of men.

Lk 5:34

Lk 5:34 - And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? - while the bridegroom is present, there is happiness and rejoicing. When He is taken away, there should be fasting, waiting and longing for His return. Contrast the evil steward in Mt 24:48-51

Lk 5:35

Lk 5:35 - But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days - Jesus forecasted the time of the disciples in the upper room, immediately after His glorification and as they prepared for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Prayer and fasting would be appropriate when in peril and they do not have the source of their joy immediately at hand. Act 1

Lk 5:36

Lk 5:36 - No one buys a pair of new jeans, cuts the knees out and places it upon a tattered old pair of jeans...

Lk 5:37

Lk 5:37 - Old wine skin bottles become dry and brittle and would burst as new wine was poured into them

Lk 5:37

Lk 5:37 - And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish - Old wine skin bottles become dry and brittle and would burst as new wine was poured into them Priests and scribes and rulers were fixed in a rut of ceremonies and traditions. Their hearts had become contracted, like the dried-up wine skins to which He had compared them. While they remained satisfied with a legal religion, it was impossible for them to become the depositaries of the living truth of heaven. They thought their own righteousness all-sufficient, and did not desire that a new element should be brought into their religion. The good will of God to men they did not accept as something apart from themselves. They connected it with their own merit because of their good works. The faith that works by love and purifies the soul could find no place for union with the religion of the Pharisees, made up of ceremonies and the injunctions of men. The effort to unite the teachings of Jesus with the established religion would be vain. [35] - {CSA 16.11}

Lk 5:38 - New wine (new doctrine/teachings) must be put into new (Born again) wine skins. We must be made new and become teachable as children in order to receive the new doctrine of Jesus Christ, otherwise we in our unconverted state can not receive His teachings and will prefer our lives of sin.

Lk 5:38

Lk 5:38 - But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved. - New wine (new doctrine/teachings) must be put into new (Born again) wine skins. We must be made new and become teachable as children in order to receive the new doctrine of Jesus Christ, otherwise we in our unconverted state can not receive His teachings and will prefer our lives of sin.

Lk 5:39

Lk 5:39 - No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better - Jesus speaks of the natural, human prejudice within men to prefer the things which they have known and have been taught, rather than to accept the new truths that may come their way. Those who drink old wine become "inebriated" and can not wisely discern the wisdom in the new wine. See Isa 65:8

Lk 6:2

Lk 6:2 - Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days? - it is true that men were not to gather on the Sabbath day as made clear in the Laws of Moses (Ex 16). Those who willfully disobeyed this command were put to death (Num 15:30-36). However, the disciples became as their Master, with no roof over their heads and no means to make provision for the Sabbath as those who dwelt carelessly in their homes. Rather than recognize the disciples needs and seek to meet them by inviting them to their homes, the Pharisees criticized and condemned. They who chastised Jesus and His disciples for eating with publicans and sinners should have rolled-out the red carpet in their homes for the hungry disciples and Jesus. See Lk 5:29, 30, Isa 58:7,10

Lk 6:4

Lk 6:4 - How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone? - See 1Sam 21:3-6;

Lk 6:5

Lk 6:5 - the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath - See Isa 58:13

Lk 6:6

Lk 6:6 - And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught - See Lk 4:16, 31; Act 13:42-48

Lk 6:7

Lk 6:7 - And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him - The scribes and Pharisees, though they sought God daily as ones who desired to do His will, their hearts were far from Him. They sought to strive with Jesus and debate with His acts of grace and kindness. See Isa 58:1-12

Lk 6:8

Lk 6:8 - But he knew their thoughts - 1Cor 2:10-12

Lk 6:9

Lk 6:9, 10 - Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it? - Jesus sought to set straight the true meaning of the Sabbath, a day of rest and gladness for all of God's creation, especially humanity. Jesus was grieved by the hardness of hearts among the people, who answered not a word to His questions. The mass of people had adopted the pharisaical spirit so that they criticized that which was good. Similarly, others feared the reproof of the leadership if they took a stand for the good. See Mk 3:4, 5; Joh 9:22

Lk 6:10

Lk 6:10 - And looking round about upon them all - Jesus looked to see if there was one who consented to the man being healed on the Sabbath, who exercised righteous judgment, and mercy towards this crippled man, son of Abraham and of God. See Mk 3:4, 5; Mt 12:13; Isa 59:13-16; Mic 6:8

Lk 6:11

Lk 6:11 - And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus - the unconverted legalist can find no joy in the conversion, blessing, and healing of men, only whether things were done correctly or properly in their own eyes. They lack the heart and mind of Christ to recognize that one who was bound by Satan and had been set free.

Lk 6:12

Lk 6:12 - Jesus regularly sought refuge in a deserted area for prayer. See Lk 4:42, 5:16

Lk 6:13

Lk 6:13 - and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles - the 12 disciples were chosen to follow Jesus, learn of Him and become like Him. They were also commissioned to go as apostles and take the good news to the ends of the earth.

Lk 6:16

Lk 6:16 - and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor - See Joh 17:12

Lk 6:18

Lk 6:18 - And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed - See Mk 1:27

Lk 6:20

Lk 6:20 - Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God - Jesus saw and sympathized with the poor and down-trodden of the earth. He understood the unfairness of men towards the poor and weak and saw their longings for something better than their present life offered them. His message of hope and salvation enabled the poor, weak, and mistreated to become rich in faith, in looking forward to a better world wherein righteousness abounded. The poor, for their poverty, were also humbled by the proud and wealthy. It is with the humble and contrite ones that God finds company. See Isa 57:15 the poor in Spirit are those who see their wretchedness and need of a Savior. See Mt 5:3

Lk 6:21

Lk 6:21 - Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled - those who hunger and thirst for righteousness will be filled. See Mt 5:6; Ps 42:1

Lk 6:21

Lk 6:21 - Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh - those who mourn for the pain they've caused God will rejoice in His salvation and as they become co-laborers with Him, brining in the sheaves.

Lk 6:22

Lk 6:22 - Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake - See Mt 5:11; Jer 15:15-21

Lk 6:23

Lk 6:23 - Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven - Jesus is teaching us that we should rejoice in persecutions for His sake because we share in the same company as the prophets who are highly esteemed in heaven. See Act 5:37-42; 1Pet 4:12, 13

Lk 6:24

Lk 6:24 - But woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation - Those who are rich in this world but not rich towards God and their fellow men have received all the rewards they ever will receive. Their selfish lives prohibit them from partaking of God's kingdom. See Lk 16:25; Jam 2:6, 7

Lk 6:25

Lk 6:25 - Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep - See Mt 24:51; Lk 13:28

Lk 6:26

Lk 6:26 - Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets - Compare 1Pet 4:14; 1Thess 2:15

Lk 6:27

Lk 6:27, 28 - Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you - See Ps 35:11-15; Mt 5:44; Lk 6:40

Lk 6:28

Lk 6:28 - Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you - See Mt 5:44; Job 42:10

Lk 6:32

Lk 6:32 - For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them - See Mt 5:46

Lk 6:35

Lk 6:35 - for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil - Rom 5:8

Lk 6:37

Lk 6:37 - Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: - See Rom 14:13; 1Cor 11:31; Jam 4:11

Lk 6:38

Lk 6:38 - Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over - See Ps 23:5; Isa 32:8 God declares, "Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters." Isa 32:20. A continual imparting of God's gifts wherever the cause of God or the needs of humanity demand our aid, does not tend to poverty. "There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty." Proverbs 11:24. The sower multiplies his seed by casting it away. So it is with those who are faithful in distributing God's gifts. By imparting they increase their blessings. "Give, and it shall be given unto you," God has promised; "good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom." Lk 6:38. - {AA 345.1}

Lk 6:38

Lk 6:38 - running over - See Ps 23:5

Lk 6:38

Lk 6:38 - For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again - See Heb 12:15

Lk 6:40

Lk 6:40 - The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master - See Mt 5:48; 2Cor 3:18

Lk 6:41

Lk 6:41 - And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye? - See Mt 7:3-5

Lk 6:42

Lk 6:42 - Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye - the hypocrite is the one who refuses to see their own sins and faults and seeks to point out the faults of others. They are willfully ignorant of their corrupted condition. They pacify the heinousness of their own sins while exaggerating the errors of others. See 2Pet 3:4, 5; Mk 7:6-8

Lk 6:43

Lk 6:43 - For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit - See Jam 3:12; Jer 24:1-10

Lk 6:45

Lk 6:45 - A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh - See Mt 12:34; Act 3:19; Jam 3:10-12

Lk 6:46

Lk 6:46 - And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? - Those who highly esteem the name of Jesus, calling Him Lord, Lord, must especially do His words, otherwise they will be as those whom Isa spoke of (Isa 6:9-11, 58:1-3). See Psa 138:2

Lk 6:48

Lk 6:48 - digged deep - we are to dig deep into the Word of truth as for hidden treasure - Heb 11:6; Mt 13:44 We are to dig deep in searching the will of God and doing it - Ezra 7:10 The apostle says, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." [2 Timothy 3:16, 17.] This is broad enough. Let all seek to comprehend, to the full extent of their powers, the meaning of the word of God. A mere superficial reading of the inspired word will be of little advantage; for every statement made in the sacred pages requires thoughtful contemplation. It is true that some passages do not require as earnest concentration as do others; for their meaning is more evident. But the student of the word of God should seek to understand the bearing of one passage upon another until the chain of truth is revealed to his vision. As veins of precious ore are hidden beneath the surface of the earth, so spiritual riches are concealed in the passages of Holy Writ, and it requires mental effort and prayerful attention to discover the hidden meaning of the word of God. Let every student who values the heavenly treasure put to the stretch his mental and spiritual powers, and sink the shaft deep into the mine of truth, that he may obtain the celestial gold,—that wisdom which will make him wise unto salvation. - {CE 100.2}

Lk 6:48

Lk 6:48 - laid the foundation on a rock - Prov 18:10; Ex 33:21-23; Ex 17:6

Lk 6:48

Lk 6:48 - and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house - only those who believe in the sure foundation, the Stone in Zion will endure the overwhelming flood that will arise. See Isa 28:16-18

Lk 6:48

Lk 6:48 - and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock - That which is founded upon the rock will not be shaken by the overwhelming flood, but will stand in that day when God will shake heaven and earth. See Heb 12:26, 27

Lk 7:2

Lk 7:2 - And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die
- See Mt 8:5-13

Lk 7:4

Lk 7:4- That he was worthy for whom he should do this: - the leaders of the Jews determined that the Centurion and his request were worthy because he acknowledge their faith and blessed them with funds to build a synagogue. Without such, he might not have received their commendations. See Joh 7:48

Lk 7:5

Lk 7:5 - For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue - The Jewish leadership should have taken this as an evident token that God loved all people and purposed to save all who would come to Him in faith. The Jews came to associate righteousness with the the abundance of alms given. The Jews hypocritically accepted the Gentile's gift and kindness but still rejected he and his people as outcasts. See Act 10:1, 2

Lk 7:6

Lk 7:6 - Then Jesus went with them - Jesus came to break down the middle wall of formalism and separation created by the Jews and to declare the true character of God, that God wanted to save not only themselves but Gentiles and the world. Lk 7:6

Lk 7:6 - Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof: - the centurion's humility and acknowledgement of Jesus as Lord spoke volumes. Jesus came to His own and they did not acknowledge Him, but as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God! Joh 1:11, 12

Lk 7:7

Lk 7:7 - Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: - See Lk 5:8

Lk 7:7

Lk 7:7 - but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed - The centurion understood the power of God and the power in His words. He was not ignorant of the fact that by His words, the heavens were of old and the earth stood fast out of the waters. See 2Pet 3:5-7

Lk 7:9

Lk 7:9 - I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel - Foreigners who were not naturally of the "household of faith" will rise up to condemn the faithless Jews. See Mt 12:42; Lk 11:31

Lk 7:12

Lk 7:12 - behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: - Jesus had compassion on the widow and her plight. God cares for the poor, widow, fatherless, stranger and outcasts! What a Great God You are LORD!! See Ex 22:22; Deut 10:17-19, 24:19-21; Ps 146:9; Jer 7:6, 7; Zech 7:10

Lk 7:15

Lk 7:15 - And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother - What was intended to be a funeral became a celebration of life. Everyone that encounters Jesus, their lives are never the same.

Lk 7:16

Lk 7:16 - That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, That God hath visited his people - See Deut 18:18 19

Lk 7:18

Lk 7:18 - And the disciples of Joh shewed him of all these things - the disciples of Joh conveyed to him, who was held in prison, all the good works and miracles that were performed by Jesus. See Lk 3:19, 20

Lk 7:19

Lk 7:19 - And Joh calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another? - Depression and our dreadful condition can weigh upon our minds and cause us to doubt or question God. Joh had proven faithful and yet could not understand why he would not be permitted to behold the wonders wrought by the One he heralded. Joh needed assurance that he had not been mistaken so that his faith not fail him. God understands and gave him the assurance he needed to be faithful until the end.

Lk 7:20

Lk 7:20 - Art thou he that should come? or look we for another? - Joh needed to be reassured of his faith in Jesus Christ. Circumstances can bring us to the place where we question the thing that we once have felt most certain of. Jesus affirms Him not to lose sight of His first love and to keep the faith.

Lk 7:21

Lk 7:20 - he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits - See Isa 61:1, 2

Lk 7:21

Lk 7:21 - and unto many that were blind he gave sight - See Isa 42:6, 7

Lk 7:22

Lk 7:22 - Go your way, and tell Joh what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached - The works of Jesus testified to Who He was. Jesus loved Joh and wanted the message of the Kingdom having come to be reminded to His faithful servant. See

Isa 61:1-2; Lk 4:18-21; Joh 10:37, 38

Lk 7:23

Lk 7:23 - blessed is he, whosever shall not be offended in me - Jesus pronounces a blessing upon all who accept the gospel of Jesus in His humble glory. They see with godly vision and perception, Jesus as the Savior of the world, and accept Him, though others may scorn Him. They see all the prophecies fulfilled in Him for they all testify of Him - See Joh 5:39, 15:26

Lk 7:24

Lk 7:24 - A reed shaken with the wind? - Jesus is affirming His servant Joh, who in his moment of weakness, demonstrated concern but was faithful to his calling. Jesus says that Joh was not as a reed shaken by the wind, easily moved. Joh was a giant in the Kingdom of God and Jesus wanted His disciples to recognize that Joh fulfilled His calling when none others believed! See Heb 12:27

Lk 7:25

Lk 7:25 - A man clothed in soft raiment? - Joh was a simple man with a mind singular to the word and works of God. He did not have gay apparel (Jam 2:3) for which people would admire him. His clothing and lifestyle were rough and simple, indicative of his calling and message which He spoke to herald the coming of the Great King!

Lk 7:25

Lk 7:25 - Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts - See Rev 17:4; 18:7

Lk 7:27

Lk 7:24 - Behold, I send my messenger before Thy face, which shall prepare thy way before Thee - See Mal 3:1

Lk 7:28

Lk 7:28 - Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than Joh the Baptist - None compared in ministry to that of Joh the Baptist. Joh was the herald before there was any other herald. He declared the day of the Lord and made Jesus' paths straight. He made the mountains low and the valleys high for Jesus to come forth with power and might to declare the Kingdom of God. Joh was well beloved and honored in heaven and Jesus wanted His disciples to see him in that light. Though Joh lay, languishing in prison, Jesus's affirmation was to assure His disciples that God does not forget His own!!

Lk 7:28

Lk 7:28 - but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he - those who have all their lives to serve God and build His Kingdom have opportunity to do a work of far broader scope than Joh. Joh's ministry was cut short. We should strive to give our all for Jesus and the building of His Kingdom.

Lk 7:29

Lk 7:29 - And all the people that heard Him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of Joh - God's conviction of sin, righteousness and judgment through the Holy Spirit, spoken by Jesus did not return unto Him void, but accomplished what it was sent forth to do. Those who heard and received the message, responded in a godly and righteous manner by being baptized. See 1Pet 3:21

Lk 7:29

Lk 7:29 - justified God, being baptized with the baptism of Joh - affirmed their need for repentance from their fallen, wayward condition and their need of a Savior. Israel never lived up to its calling and were a reproach to God Who did everything in His power to bring their success, including sending prophets such as Joh. There was a corporate and individual need for repentance, justifying God's righteousness and their shame of faith. See Dan 9:4-7

Lk 7:30

Lk 7:30 - But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him - The Pharisees and lawyers in rejecting Jesus' counsels, rejected God's counsels, spoken through His Son. To their own hurt they rejected truth and light because of pride, seeing no need for repentance. See Lk 3:8, 9, 5:17

Lk 7:30

Lk 7:30 - rejected the counsel of God against themselves - In rejecting the counsels of Joh, sent by God, the leadership were rejecting God. See Lk 3:7-9; 1Sam 8:5-7; 2Chron 20:20 I was pointed back to the proclamation of the first advent of Christ. Joh was sent in the spirit and power of Elijah to prepare the way of Jesus. Those who rejected the testimony of Joh were not benefited by the teachings of Jesus. Their opposition to the message that foretold His coming placed them where they could not readily receive the strongest evidence that He was the Messiah. Satan led on those who rejected the message of Joh to go still farther, to reject and crucify Christ. In doing this they placed themselves where they could not receive the blessing on the day of Pentecost, which would have taught them the way into the heavenly sanctuary. {EW 259.1} Instead of apologizing for the act of which they complained, or explaining His purpose in doing it, Jesus turned upon the rulers, and the accused became the accuser. He rebuked them for the hardness of their hearts, and their ignorance of the Scriptures. He declared that they had rejected the word of God, inasmuch as they had rejected Him whom God had sent. "Ye search the Scriptures, because ye think that in them ye have eternal life; and these are they which bear witness of Me." Joh 5:39, R. V. - {DA 211.4}

Lk 7:32

Lk 7:32 - They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept - See Lk 14:16-24; Proverbs 1:24, 25

Lk 7:35

Lk 7:35 - wisdom is justified of her children - Wisdom, which dwells with God and founded the heavens and earth is justified by those who surrender and submit to her. Those who with godly perception see Christ as Messiah justify His words, His works, and the Spirit of Truth that testifies of Him. The wise shall understand! See Prov 8:12-31, 1:33; Dan 12:3, 10; Joh 1:11-13

Lk 7:36

Lk 7:36 - And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him - Simon the leper, the uncle of Mary Magdalene was the Pharisee.

Lk 7:37

Lk 7:37 - behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner - See Joh 8:1-11

Lk 7:37

Lk 7:37 - brought an alabaster box of ointment - See Ps 45:8

Lk 7:38

Lk 7:38 - And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment - an act of total self-abandonment and worship. Her's was a heart full of appreciation for the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world. She had been made free from the bondage of sin (7-devils) and reveled in her new life of freedom. She understood Who Jesus was and gave her best and her all to His glory!

Lk 7:39

Lk 7:39 - This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner - Simon contemptuously looked down on both Jesus and Mary as he smugly looked upon the scene of Mary anointing and kissing Jesus' feet.

Lk 7:42

Lk 7:42 - And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both - See Rom 5:8

Lk 7:45

Lk 7:45 - Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet - See Mk 1:7; Lk 3:16; Joh 1:27

Lk 7:47

Lk 7:47 - Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little. - The poor publican who prayed, "God be merciful to me a sinner" (Lk 18:13), regarded himself as a very wicked man, and others looked upon him in the same light; but he felt his need, and with his burden of guilt and shame he came before God, asking for His mercy. His heart was open for the Spirit of God to do its gracious work and set him free from the power of sin. The Pharisee's boastful, self-righteous prayer showed that his heart was closed against the influence of the Holy Spirit. Because of his distance from God, he had no sense of his own defilement, in contrast with the perfection of the divine holiness. He felt no need, and he received nothing. - {SC 30.2}

Lk 7:47

Lk 7:47 - Her sins, which are many, are forgiven. See Lk 7:39, 48, 50

Lk 7:47

Lk 7:47 - for she loved much - love is demonstrated, not spoken. See Lk 7:37, 38

Lk 7:47

Lk 7:47 - but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little - Those who retain their sins, not having laid them at the foot of the cross of Christ, and in turn offering themselves on the alter of gratitude as a living sacrifice, love little. They do not have an understanding or appreciation of the grace their lives exist under and the cost for that Amazing Grace. They, like Judas, see any sacrifice for Christ as a waste that could have been used for more selfish and self-exalting purposes. Compare Joh 9:38; Phil 3:7-11

Lk 7:49

Lk 7:49 - Who is this that forgiveth sins also? - See Joh 10:33; Lk 5:21; Mk 2:7

Lk 8:1

Lk 8:1 - Jesus called and ordained 12 disciples but many women accompanied Him in the work of ministry. Similarly at Pentecost, the Holy Spirit fell on all who were present, including women (Act 2:1-3, 1:13-26), yet only those called and ordained by God went out and preached the gospel. Also notice that in Act 1:21, when the disciples needed to appoint a replacement for Judas, they sought another capable man among those gathered to assume Judas' bishoprick.

Lk 8:1

Lk 8:1 - and the twelve were with him - Jesus called and ordained 12 men as His disciples, yet many women accompanied Him in the work of ministry. Similarly at Pentecost, the Holy Spirit fell on all who were present, including women (Act 2:1-3, 1:13-26), yet only those called and ordained by God went out and preached the gospel. Also notice that in Act 1:21, when the disciples needed to appoint a replacement for Judas, they sought another capable man among those gathered to assume Judas' bishoprick.

Lk 8:2

Lk 8:2 - And certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils - See Lk 8:35

Lk 8:3

Lk 8:3 - which ministered unto him of their substance - Jesus Christ, Himself is an example of independent ministries, outside of the establishment, that are supported by the saints and of their substance.

Lk 8:5

Lk 8:5 - some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it - the seed never was able to take root. The soil was fully infertile and the birds (enemy) came and stole it away. See Lk 8:12

Lk 8:8

Lk 8:8 - He that hath ears to hear, let him hear - See Mt 24:15; Rev 2:7, 11, 17, 29, 3:6, 13, 22

Lk 8:10

Lk 8:10 - Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God - Jesus had known and chosen His apostles (barring Judas Iscariot) and He ordained that they should become wise in the Kingdom of God and bear much fruit (Joh 15:7-9). Jesus foresaw in their sincere characters, that with the proper training, they would be powerful forces for His Kingdom. See Joh 7:17

Lk 8:10

Lk 8:10 - mysteries of the kingdom of God - Jesus Himself is the Mystery of Godliness. See 1Tim 3:16

Lk 8:10

Lk 8:10 - but to others in parables - See Ezek 17:2

Lk 8:10

Lk 8:10 - that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand - See Isa 6:9

Lk 8:12

Lk 8:12 - then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved - Jesus here speaks of those who have received new light and do not readily embrace it. Their delay or reticence to receive it will cause the devil to come and take it away. Their eventual denial of the conviction of the Holy Spirit will bring condemnation. See 2Cor 4:4; Lk 12:10

Lk 8:12

Lk 8:12 - lest they should believe and be saved - See Isa 6:10

Lk 8:13

Lk 8:13 - time of temptation fall away - when tested by scorn and ridicule of friends and family.

Lk 8:14

Lk 8:14 - choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection - See 1Jo 2:16;

Lk 8:15

Lk 8:15 - which in an honest and good heart - answer to a good conscience towards God - 1Pet 3:21 The "honest and good heart" of which the parable speaks, is not a heart without sin; for the gospel is to be preached to the lost. Christ said, "I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance." Mark 2:17. He has an honest heart who yields to the conviction of the Holy Spirit. He confesses his guilt, and feels his need of the mercy and love of God. He has a sincere desire to know the truth, that he may obey it. The good heart is a believing heart, one that has faith in the word of God. Without faith it is impossible to receive the word. "He that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him." Heb 11:6. [44] - {CSA 24.5}

Lk 8:17

Lk 8:17 - For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad - God will reveal the hidden works of darkness in the judgment. See Joh 3:20, 21; Eph 5:11

Lk 8:18

Lk 8:18 - Take heed therefore how ye hear - the same seed was sown by the same sower. All heard the message but their hearts determined how they ultimately responded to the message. See Joh 8:30-32

Lk 8:18

Lk 8:18 - for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have - With God it is all or nothing. In judgment the righteous will have their sins blotted away and will be credited with the righteousness of Christ. The wicked on the other hand, any good they have done will be taken away and they will be only known for their unrighteousness. See Ezekiel 18:21, 24

Lk 8:21

Lk 8:21 - My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it - Jesus establishes that our citizenship is in heaven as we follow Him and our family are those who also hear and do the will of God. Jesus is downplaying any claims Mary or his relatives may have due to "natural", familial origin but He is affirming that all who become part of the Kingdom of God are family. See Lk 11:27, 28

Lk 8:23

Lk 8:23 - But as they sailed he fell asleep: - in His humanity, Jesus was exhausted and fell asleep with utter peace of mind. When awoken, He came forth with the same peace of mind and told the storm to "shut up"!

Lk 8:25

Lk 8:25 - And he said unto them, Where is your faith? - As long as we abide in Christ, storms will come but they will not overflow us. We must always remember the Captain of our Salvation is in the vessel with us and whatever befalls us, He has made provision. See Isa 43:1, 2

Lk 8:25

Lk 8:25 - What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him - Hymn #461 v2 Be Still My Soul; The Lion and the Lamb by Crystal Lewis

Lk 8:28

Lk 8:28 - What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not. See Jam 2:19; Jude 1:6; Mk 5:7

Lk 8:30

Lk 8:30 - Legion - In Roman antiquity, a body of infantry consisting of different numbers of men at different periods, from three to five thousand. Each legion was divided into ten cohorts, each cohort into ten companies, and each company into two centuries. See Mk 5:9

Lk 8:31

Lk 8:31 - And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep - the demons, who showed no mercy to mankind and tormented them until their death, now plead for mercy. Such is the spirit of Satan, wanting good only for himself and not for others. See Mt 18:28-32

Lk 8:35

Lk 8:35 - sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind - This is what Jesus does for all Who come to Him in need. He sets the captive free so that they may sit and learn of Him in their right minds. Only when we are at Jesus' feet are we in our right minds. See Lk 8:2, 3

Lk 8:37

Lk 8:37 - Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again - Jesus did not contest with those whose hearts were as seed falling along the wayside, did not receive Him. Jesus merely departed and would seek another opportunity at a later date after the man, once a demoniac, now a follower of Christ had time to work the ground of the hearts of the people. We sometime have to leave people for a later, more opportune time while the Holy Spirit does His work. See Lk 8:12

Lk 8:38

Lk 8:38 - Now the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him - Jesus' saying in Lk 7:41-50 regarding those who have received much grace from God, love much, is pertinent here, as the man, once a demoniac, desires wholeheartedly to become a disciple of Jesus Christ. In contrast, the rich, young, ruler, who sought to know the way to eternal life was not willing to leave all and follow Jesus Christ (Lk 18:18-24). The man once a demoniac received much grace from Jesus and loved Him much, whereas the rich young ruler, who was increased with goods, did not see his privilege, blessedness and opportunity because of his great wealth, and loved little.

Lk 8:39

Lk 8:39 - Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him - In mercy, God did not leave the people of the Gaderenes to their initial position towards Jesus, but sent a messenger of mercy to minister to them and to teach them the wonderful power of God. The man, once a demoniac, but now a follower of Christ in his right mind, would transform the city so that the next time Jesus returned, they welcomed Him with open arms. See Lk 8:40

Lk 8:40

Lk 8:40 - And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him - Praise God for the ministry of the once demoniac!! The city was waiting to receive Jesus the next time He came. Lord make me an instrument of praise like that once demoniac!

Lk 8:41

Lk 8:41 - And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house: - the ruler in the synagogue of the household of faith lacked the faith of the Roman Centurion who said to Jesus, just speak the word and my servant will be healed. See Lk 7:2-9

Lk 8:44

Lk 8:44 - Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanch'd - See Ps 133:2, 3

Lk 8:46

Lk 8:46 - And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me - the woman's touch was not an ordinary touch. Hers was a touch of faith, grounded in hope and desperation, in reaching out to God for deliverance. Jesus recognized this touch among all the others. Becoming one of us, He is well acquainted with our griefs and He bore our sorrows. See Isa 53:3, 4; Heb 2:9-18

Lk 8:46

Lk 8:46 - Somebody hath touched me - Jesus would not permit the blessing to go by without a testimony being given and God receiving the glory.

Lk 8:46

Lk 8:46 - for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me - The woman's prayer and acts of faith caused virtue/power to come forth from God without His direct consent.

Lk 8:48

Lk 8:48 - Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace - It was the Father's good pleasure to deliver her! See Lk 17:19; Mk 5:34; Mt 9:22, 29, 8:13

Lk 8:48

Lk 8:49 - thy faith hath made thee whole - exercise of faith (acting upon belief and trust) is what brings virtue from God. See Lk 18:35-43

Lk 8:50

Lk 8:50 - But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole - Jesus counsels Jairus to Fear not. The greatest of fears for men (Heb 2:14, 15) had arrived to Jairus and Jesus' counsel is, Fear not. Praise God, Who is the Resurrection and the Life! See Joh 11:25

Lk 8:50

Lk 8:50 - believe only - Jesus says to the father that has just heard of the death of his daughter and has been counseled by Jesus to Fear not, to "believe only". In place of fear, God tells us to "believe only".

Lk 8:51

Lk 8:51 - he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and Joh, and the father and the mother of the maiden - Jesus took only Peter, James and Joh, His foremost disciples, and the parents of the maiden alone who had the greatest interest in the matter to behold the miracle (Lk 8:54). Those who were not earnest and lacked faith (Lk 8:52, 53) would be a hindrance to the Spirit of God working (Lk 8:54, 55), such that Jesus could do not many works because of their unbelief. See Mt 13:58

Lk 8:52

Lk 8:52 - Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth - death is but a mere sleep to the Life Giver. See Joh 11:11-14, 23, 5:21, 25

Lk 8:53

Lk 8:53 - And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead - Thank God for His patience with our unbelief. Abraham and Sarah also laughed at God, but He proved them wrong!! See Gen 17:17-19, 18:10-13. Praise You LORD!! - Hymn #524 'Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus - Oh for grace to trust Him more!

Lk 8:54

Lk 8:54 - And he put them all out - God must remove the scoffing, unbelieving, scornful before works. Unbelief is the one sin Jesus did not die for. See Mt 13:58

Lk 8:55

Lk 8:55 - and he commanded to give her meat - God pays attention to every detail. Jesus knew the girl needed food after several hours and perhaps days of suffering before her death. God is concerned with the small details of each of our lives. Praise God! See Mk 5:22; Joh 20:7; Lk 24:12; Mt 6:28-34

Lk 8:56

Lk 8:56 - And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done - Jesus, knowing His mission, His limited time and the possible excitement the miracle would stir among the masses as well as the hatred it would inspire among the leadership, cautioned the parents not to spread the knowledge of the miracle abroad. Jesus wanted people to recognize and accept Him, not merely for the wonderful works He performed, but for the message and character of the Kingdom of heaven that He demonstrated. Jairus' position and influence (Lk 8:41) would have quickly caused Jesus' popularity to spread in a manner He did not seek.

Lk 9:1

Lk 9:1 - and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases - Jesus gave men power and authority to preach the gospel and to promote the Kingdom of God (Lk 9:2). Men however, desire the power and authority for their own self-glorification and gain. Therefore, we do not receive the manifold gifts of God. See Mt 28:18-20; Mk 16:17; Jam 4:3; Act 8:18-24

Lk 9:2

Lk 9:2 - And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick - See Act 1:8

Lk 9:3

Lk 9:3 - scrip - A small bag; a wallet; a satchel.

Lk 9:5

Lk 9:5 - And whosoever will not receive you - those who rejected the disciples were rejecting Jesus, Who sent them. This did not mean that the city was wholly condemned without hope of redemption. The Holy Spirit may return and water the soil and find the people receptive once again. This makes note of the fact that the Holy Spirit must lead the disciples at all time and that the timing of His work is as the wind, we do not know when He will change hearts and make the soil fertile for sowing. See Mt 25:45; Mt 10:41; Lk 9:48 Contrast Lk 8:26-40, Act 16:5-7

Lk 9:7

Lk 9:7 - tetrarch- A Roman governor of the fourth part of a province; a subordinate prince. In time, this word came to denote any petty king or sovereign.

Lk 9:8

Lk 9:8 - Elias had appeared - See Mal 4:5, 6

Lk 9:9

Lk 9:9 - And Herod said, Joh have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him - See Lk 23:7-12

Lk 9:9

Lk 9:9 - And he desired to see him - Herod had a respect for Joh the Baptist and feared bringing harm unto him until his hand was forced to betray his conscience and he sent to execute him (Mt 14:8-11). Herod may have feared Jesus as he did Joh, and perhaps sought to see a sign that he might believe on Him.

Lk 9:10

Lk 9:10 - And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida - Jesus commands His disciples to come aside and rest for a while after going out and contending with the enemy. The time of sharing, rest and prayer is necessary.

Lk 9:11

Lk 9:11 - And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them - Jesus never turned anyone away.

Lk 9:11

Lk 9:11 - and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing - Jesus wasted no opportunity to entertain those who came to Him. His message was always to bring understanding of God's Kingdom and to deliver them of their infirmities, physical and spiritual.

Lk 9:12

Lk 9:12 - Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place - See Mt 14:15

Lk 9:13

Lk 9:13 - But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat - God at times stretches us to see beyond what we can imagine. He gives us a question or a challenge that makes us consider, "Is God truly, God? Is He Who He says He is? Can He prepare a table in the wilderness and bring forth honey, oil and waters from the flinty rock indeed?". See Ps 78:19; Deut 32:13

Lk 9:14

Lk 9:14 - For they were about five thousand men - the multitude undoubtedly consisted of men, women, boys, and girls. Thus one could reasonably estimate that there were actually anywhere from 5000-20,000+ persons present. This multitude was made up of Jews, however, later, the same miracle would be performed among 4000+ Gentiles. See Mt 15:38; Mk 8:19, 20

Lk 9:14

Lk 9:14 - Make them sit down by fifties in a company - there were 100 to 400 companies of 50 seated, awaiting the blessings of God. When God is in the midst, a logistical challenge such as this becomes a cake-walk. God is a God of order and decency. See Lk 9:15; 1Cor 14:33, 40

Lk 9:16

Lk 9:15 - and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude - a disciple is one who is willing to roll-up his sleeves, serve other in service for the Master. See Joh 8:31, 32

Lk 9:17

Lk 9:17 - When we eat from the Lord, (literally and spiritually), we never leave hungry but full, with some to spare.

Lk 9:19

Lk 9:19 - some say, Elias - a possible reference to the prophecy in Malachi 4:9 that Elijah would come before the great and dreadful day of the Lord.

Lk 9:20

Lk 9:20 - But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ of God - Mt 16:16; Dan 9:25; Gen 3:15

Lk 9:22

Lk 9:22 - The Son of man must suffer many things - See Heb 5:8

Lk 9:22

Lk 9:22 - and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes - Jesus would be rejected by the established religion, causing a rift between Himself and the people who thought allegiance to the leadership, traditions and customs were the keys to the kingdom. See Joh 7:48, 11:47-50

Lk 9:22

Lk 9:22 - and be raised the third day - See Mt 12:39, 40

Lk 9:23

Lk 9:23 - let him deny himself - See Lk 14:33; 2Cor 7:10, 11; 1Cor 15:31 To those who, like the young ruler, are in high positions of trust and have great possessions, it may seem too great a sacrifice to give up all in order to follow Christ. But this is the rule of conduct for all who would become His disciples. Nothing short of obedience can be accepted. Self-surrender is the substance of the teachings of Christ. Often it is presented and enjoined in language that seems authoritative, because there is no other way to save man than to cut away those things which, if entertained, will demoralize the whole being. [31] - {CSA 15.7} We are in this world to lift the cross of self-denial. As we lift this cross we shall find that it lifts us. Let every Christian stand in his place, catching the inspiration of the work that Christ did for souls while in this world. We need the ardor of the Christian hero, who can endure the seeing of Him who is invisible. Our faith is to have a resurrection. The soldiers of the cross are to exert a positive influence for good. Christ says: "He that is not with Me is against Me; and he that gathereth not with Me scattereth abroad." Mt 12:30. Indifference in the Christian life is a manifest denial of the Saviour. - {8T 45.3}

Lk 9:23 - take up his cross daily - See Gal 2:20; Contrast: Habakkuk 2:4; Heb 10:38, 39 But Jesus bade His followers take up the cross and bear it after Him. To the disciples His words, though dimly comprehended, pointed to their submission to the most bitter humiliation,— submission even unto death for the sake of Christ. No more complete self-surrender could the Saviour's words have pictured. But all this He had accepted for them. Jesus did not count heaven a place to be desired while we were lost. He left the heavenly courts for a life of reproach and insult, and a death of shame. He who was rich in heaven's priceless treasure, became poor, that through His poverty we might be rich. We are to follow in the path He trod. - {DA 416.3}

Lk 9:24

Lk 9:24 - For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it - the one who will put away the works of the flesh, will seek the mind of Christ and will walk in the Spirit of life will save his life. The one who seeks to gain the things of this world, to partake and enjoy of its pleasures, will lose his life. See Lk 9:25; 1Jo 2:16, 17; Prov 11:24

Lk 9:24

Lk 9:24 - but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it - See Prov 11:25; Lk 14:26; Philippians 3:10; Gal 2:20

Lk 9:25

Lk 9:25 - For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself or be cast away? - See Mt 16:26; Lk 18:25; 1Tim 1:19, 20; Rev 3:17

Lk 9:26

Lk 9:26 - For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed - See Mt 10:33; Rev 3:5; Contrast Isa 28:16; 1Jo 2:28

Lk 9:26

Lk 9:26 - of him shall the Son of man be ashamed - See Rev 3:5

Lk 9:26

Lk 9:26 - when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels - See Rev 6:15-17

Lk 9:27

Lk 9:27 - till they see the kingdom of God - the Kingdom of Glory would be typified before some of the disciples through Jesus' transfiguration. In the transfiguration, the following would occur: 1. A cloud would descend and enshroud Jesus, typifying the clouds that Jesus will return to the earth. Jesus told the scoffing Pharisees, they would see Him coming in the clouds - Mt 24:30, 26:64 2. Jesus shown the disciples the glory He once had with the Father before His incarnation. Jesus said He would return with the glory of His Father and the angels - Mt 16:27; Mk 8:38 3. Moses represents the redeemed who sleep in their graves who will be awoken by the shout and trumpet of Jesus, the Archangel - 1Thess 4:16 4. Elijah represents the redeemed who are alive and remain and will be caught up to meet the LORD in the air - 1Thess 4:17 Thus, Peter, Jam and Joh saw Jesus as He will once again come in His Kingdom.

Lk 9:29

Lk 9:29 - And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistening - See Dan 10:5, 6; Rev 1:13-16

Lk 9:30

Lk 9:30 - Moses - Moses was resurrected by Michael (Jesus) shortly after his death. Moses is a "witness" to the resurrection of the dead in Christ. See Jude 1:9; Rev 11:6; 1Thess 4:15, 16

Lk 9:30

Lk 9:30 - Elias - Elijah was taken up by chariots of fire in a whirlwind to heaven. Elijah is a "witness" to the translation of the righteous living at the second coming of Jesus Christ. See 2Kin 2:11, 12; Rev 11:5, 6; 1Thess 4:17, 18; 1Cor 15:51

Lk 9:31

Lk 9:31 - Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem - the patriarchs Moses and Elijah appear with Jesus Christ in glory [heaven] to encourage and support Jesus in His mission outlined in Isa 53. See Lk 13:33

Lk 9:33

Lk 9:33 - And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said. - Peter was ever impetuous, speaking hastily, without thought.

Lk 9:35

Lk 9:35 - And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him - See Mt 3:16, 17; Deut 18:15, 18; Joh 12:28, 29

Lk 9:38

Lk 9:38 - And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child - See Mt 17:14, 15

Lk 9:43

Lk 9:43 - And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God - See Joh 17:4; Lk 5:25, 26, 7:15-17, 29

Lk 9:44

Lk 9:44 - Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men - Jesus foresaw the great disappointment that would overtake His disciples and strove to realign their perspectives regarding His works and His mission. The disciples were enthralled by Jesus' miracles and the people's response to the sight of those miracles, as they bred in them pride and a desire to see Jesus assume the throne of David. See Lk 9:22; Mt 17:22

Lk 9:48

Lk 9:48 - And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: - See Lk 9:5

Lk 9:48

Lk 9:48 - for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great. - Paul declared himself to be least among men and will therefore be great in God's kingdom. We must strive for the mind of Christ. See 1Tim 1:15; Phil 2:5-8

Lk 9:50

Lk 9:50 - forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us - See 1Cor 12:3

Lk 9:54

Lk 9:54 - Lord, wilt Thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did? - See 2Kin 1:1-14; Mk 3:17

Lk 9:55

Lk 9:55 - Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of - See Mt 16:22, 23; 2Cor 13:5

Lk 9:56

Lk 9:56 - For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them - See Mt 1:21

Lk 9:57

Lk 9:57 - And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest - the certain was most likely Judas of Iscariot.

Lk 9:58

Lk 9:58 - His life was one of constant self-sacrifice. He had no home in this world except as the kindness of friends provided for Him as a wayfarer. He came to live in our behalf the life of the poorest and to walk and work among the needy and the suffering. Unrecognized and unhonored, He walked in and out among the people for whom He had done so much. - {CSA 59.6}

Lk 9:59

Lk 9:59 - Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father - The would-be-disciple claimed that he would follow Jesus once his father is dead and buried. - See Ps 95:7, 8; Mk 1:20

Lk 9:62

Lk 9:62 - No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God - the pressures of friends and associates and the cares of the world will draw one who looks back away from the plow. Anyone who regrets their former life and lifestyle is not worthy of the kingdom of God. See Lk 8:6, 7

Lk 10:2

Lk 10:2 - pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest - See Isa 32:20; 2Tim 2:2; Mt 9:38

Lk 10:6

Lk 10:6 - son of peace - A typical Hebraism, to describe the head of a household if he is a congenial man ready to receive them and entertain them {SDABC 5}

Lk 10:7

Lk 10:7 - And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house - Apostles were not to give the impression of being freeloaders and vagabonds, hopping from house to house. See 1Tim 5:18

Lk 10:8

Lk 10:8 - And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: - naturally the prohibition regarding clean and unclean foods apply in Jesus' words, however, we are not to refuse anything offered to us, even if by foreigners. See 1Cor 10:23-28

Lk 10:11

Lk 10:11 - notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you - nevertheless, be assured that God came to you and you turned Him away. The words are words of woe, that light has come into the world but men loved darkness rather than light. See Joh 3:19, 20; Mt 25:44-46

Lk 10:13

Lk 10:13 - Bethsaida - Bēthsaidá Noun Location bayth-sahee-dah' of Aramaic origin cf (01004) and (06719) of Chaldee origin (compare and); fishing-house; Bethsaida, a place in Palestine:- Bethsaida. Bethsaida = "house of fish" a small fishing village on the west shore of Lake Gennesaret, home of Andrew, Peter, Philip and Joh

Lk 10:13

Lk 10:13 - repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes - Jesus states that the favored cities of Israel that were privileged to hear the gospel of the Kingdom of God will be judged more harshly than heathen nations who, if they had heard the wonderful words of life would have received them and repented with sackcloth and ashes. See Ezekiel 3:4-6 Clothing of repentance and contrition. See Jon 3:6, 8;

Lk 10:14

Lk 10:14 - But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you - to whom much is given, much is required. See Lk 12:48; Rev 22:12

Lk 10:15

Lk 10:15 - And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell - See Isa 14:12-15; Lk 4:31-41, 14:11; Joh 6:42, 59, 8:44

Lk 10:16

Lk 10:16 - He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me - See Mt 10:40

Lk 10:16

Lk 10:16 - he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me - See Joh 16:1-3, 5:23

Lk 10:17

Lk 10:17 - And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name - See Joh 14:13, 14, 16:23, 24; Act 4:8-10

Lk 10:18

Lk 10:18 - I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven - Jesus speaks proleptically (Rom 4:17) as the adversary and accuser of the brethren was cast out/down from the minds of the inhabitants in heaven, so that they no longer bore any sympathies for Satan after the cross of Jesus. See Mk 1:24, 25, 34; Rev 12:4, 9; Joh 12:31 It was the marvel of all the universe that Christ should humble Himself to save fallen man. That He who had passed from star to star, from world to world, superintending all, by His providence supplying the needs of every order of being in His vast creation—that He should consent to leave His glory and take upon Himself human nature, was a mystery which the sinless intelligences of other worlds desired to understand. When Christ came to our world in the form of humanity, all were intensely interested in following Him as He traversed, step by step, the bloodstained path from the manger to Calvary. Heaven marked the insult and mockery that He received, and knew that it was at Satan's instigation. They marked the work of counteragencies going forward; Satan constantly pressing darkness, sorrow, and suffering upon the race, and Christ counteracting it. They watched the battle between light and darkness as it waxed stronger. And as Christ in His expiring agony upon the cross cried out, "It is finished" (Joh 19:30), a shout of triumph rang through every world and through heaven itself. The great contest that had been so long in progress in this world was now decided, and Christ was conqueror. His death had answered the question whether the Father and the Son had sufficient love for man to exercise self-denial and a spirit of sacrifice. Satan had revealed his true character as a liar and a murderer. It was seen that the very same spirit with which he had ruled the children of men who were under his power, he would have manifested if permitted to control the intelligences of heaven. With one voice the loyal universe united in extolling the divine administration. - {PP 69.3}

Lk 10:19

Lk 10:19 - Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you - See Act 16:18, 28:3-6; 1Jo 4:4

Lk 10:20

Lk 10:20 - rejoice because your names are written in heaven - See Jer 9:23, 24; Phil 4:3; Rev 3:5, 13:8; Heb 12:23

Lk 10:21

Lk 10:21 - that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes - See 1Cor 2:12-15; Rom 1:21, 22, 28; Joh 9:39-41

Lk 10:21

Lk 10:21 - even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight - God dwells in heaven and with those of a humble and contrite spirit. He exalts the humble and abases the proud. See Isa 57:15; Dan 4:37; Jam 2:5

Lk 10:22

Lk 10:22 - All things are delivered to me of my Father - The entire Plan of Redemption has been handed over to the Son to fulfill. Therefore, there is no other name in heaven or earth by which men may be saved. Further, no One else is worthy to unseal the scroll found in the Father's hands. Jesus is the embodiment of the Plan of Redemption and God has commissioned the Son to be the Author and Finisher of mankind's salvation. All things have been given over to the Son, yet in time, all things will be given back to the Father so that He may be All in All. Praise God for His infinite wisdom!! See Act 4:12; Rev 5; Ps 8:6; 1Cor 15:27, 28; Eph 1:22; Heb 2:8; Joh 5:22

Lk 10:22

Lk 10:22 - and he to whom the Son will reveal him - Jesus, through the Holy Spirit will anoint our eyes so that we behold the glory and character of the Father. Similarly, no one can come to the Son unless the Father draws them to Him. See Joh 6:44, 14:6-11; Rev 3:18

Lk 10:23

Lk 10:23 - Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see - blessed are those living in the time of Christ to see the fulfillment of prophecies long closed-up for which men and angels sought to look into. Blessed are the eyes which see the same things by faith. See Mt 13:17; 1Pet 1:10-12 "Blessed are the eyes which saw the things that were seen in 1843 and 1844. The message was given. And there should be no delay in repeating the message; for the signs of the times are fulfilling; the closing work must be done. A great work will be done in a short time. A message will soon be given by God's appointment that will swell into a loud cry. Then Daniel will stand in his lot, to give his testimony." {Lt 54, 1906, par. 8}

Lk 10:24

Lk 10:24 - For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them - Through study, prayer, meditation, the prophets of old had a conception of Jesus and His ministry that they longed to see fulfilled (Heb 11:13). Even Abraham, the father of the faithful saw Jesus' day proleptically and was glad (Joh 8:56). The disciples, who were privileged to walk with Christ had become so blinded by traditions of men (Isa 29:9-13; Mk 7:7, 8) that they could not perceive Who He truly was. Help me Lord! Take away the blinders from my eyes so that I may behold You in Your glory, that I might be transformed from glory to glory (2Cor 3:18), live for You and Love You!!! See Mt 13:17; 1Pet 1:10-12; Dan 12:13; Joh 8:56; Num 23:9, 24:17; Act 3:24

Lk 10:25 - what shall I do to inherit eternal life? - Interesting the lawyer asked what must be done to "inherit" eternal life. Nothing need be done if it is an inheritance which comes from being an heir. Yet, the lawyer understood that being mere sons of Abraham would not suffice for receiving the gift of eternal life or truly being an heir. See 1Jo 5:11-13; Joh 5:39, 11:25

Lk 10:26

Lk 10:26 - What is written in the law? how readest thou? - See Mk 10:3; Joh 5:39; 2Tim 3:14, 15 Jesus inquires of the one asking a doctrinal truth, what is written in the law and how do you interpret it? Jesus shows that He expects His followers who will inherit eternal life to be diligent students of the Bible. We can not rely upon the thoughts of other men and their interpretations of Scripture, we are to "Study to show ourselves approved unto God, workmen that needeth not be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth" - 2Tim 2:15. We are to "bind up [gather and tie together] the testimony and seal the law" in our hearts - Isa 8:16; we are to test all things and prove all things - Isa 8:20, 1Thess 5:21; We are admonished to know "what is the breadth, and length, and depth and height" of God's work in our salvation - Eph 3:17-19; Joh 5:39; Rom 4:3

Lk 10:26

Lk 10:26 - how readest thou? - we must have a personal knowledge and understanding of the Scriptures, not mere parrots, regurgitating that which we have heard from others. See 2Tim 2:15; Rom 4:3; Joh 5:39

Lk 10:27

Lk 10:28 - Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself - See Deut 6:4, 5; Lev 19:18

Lk 10:29

Lk 10:29 - But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour? - The lawyer inquired of Jesus, not seeking the counsels of God for finding eternal life, but to exalt his self-righteousness and smug assurance of his own goodness, uprightness and knowledge of truth. Jer 6:

Lk 10:30

Lk 10:30 - A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves - the certain man represents the human race, that fell victim to the ultimate robber, Satan (Joh 10:10). Jesus is the Good Samaritan that goes out of His way to show kindness and mercy to the abused human race.

Lk 10:30

Lk 10:30 - fell among thieves - the ultimate thief and robber is Satan himself. Adam fell among thieves and was stripped of his garments. See John 10:10, 1

Lk 10:30

Lk 10:30 - stripped him of his raiment - Satan caused our robes of righteousness to be stripped from us. See Gen 3:7

Lk 10:33

Lk 10:33 - But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him - Jesus is the Good Samaritan, that took note of mankind's wretched situation and had compassion upon us.

Lk 10:34

Lk 10:34 - bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine - wine is an antiseptic and the wine helps to sooth, make supple to promote the healing process. See Ps 104:15; Prov 21:17; Rev 6:6

Lk 10:34

Lk 10:34 - pouring in oil - the Holy Spirit and the blood of Jesus Christ, the wine, mends the wounds of humanity. See Lk 22:19; Mt 25:1-12

Lk 10:34

Lk 10:34 - and wine - the blood of Christ (wine) and the Holy Spirit (oil) mends the wounds of humanity. See Lk 22:20; Mt 25:1-12

Lk 10:34

Lk 10:34 - brought him to an inn, and took care of him - Jesus takes the bruised and wounded soul whose not yet healed to the church and puts him under the pastor's care until he is made well.

Lk 10:35

Lk 10:35 - he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee - Jesus gives resources to the church to take care of those who are sick, wounded and hurting.

Lk 10:35

Lk 10:35 - when I come again, I will repay thee - Jesus here speaks of His Second Coming, where He will repay any good works done that were unpaid. See Rev 22:12

Lk 10:36

Lk 10:36 - Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves? - Jesus used parables to illustrate the deep truths already presented in Scripture. See Lk 10:26; Mt 13:13; Ps 78:2

Lk 10:37

Lk 10:37 - He that shewed mercy on him - See Mic 6:8

Lk 10:37

Lk 10:37 - Go, and do thou likewise - See Is 58:6-12

Lk 10:40

Lk 10:40 - But Martha was cumbered about much serving - Martha sought to be hospitable, but forsook the greater blessing which was hers, to sit at the feet of Jesus. Lord let me not be a Martha, but receive of Your blessings, so that I may be equipped to serve.

Lk 10:40

Lk 10:40 - Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone - Martha had a bit of the Elijah-syndrome, claiming to be working all alone with no one to aid. See 1Kin 19:18

Lk 10:40

Lk 10:40 - Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me - In Martha's frustration with Mary's apparent lack of hospitality and not being a busybody such as herself, she took her anxiety out upon Jesus, scolding Him for not scolding Mary.

Lk 10:41

Lk 10:41 - thou art careful and troubled about many things - Martha was full of cares and troubled because she did not seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, but sought to perform the works of righteousness in her own strength. She failed to set the right priority, which was to learn from the Master first. He then would grant efficiency and help in the work that she purposed to do.

Lk 10:42

Lk 10:42 - But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her - See Lk 10:39, 11:28; Job 23:12; Ps 27:4

Lk 10:42

Lk 10:42 - which shall not be taken away from her - all the lessons we learn at the feet of Jesus will not be taken from us, but will be as a well, springing forth unto eternal life.

Lk 11:1

Lk 11:1 - And it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as Joh also taught his disciples - the disciple saw the power of God working in His life and sought to know the hidden mysteries to effectual and fervent prayers. The prayers of Jesus brought answers every time because He always prayed and maintained a mind that was in harmony and in the will of His Father. See Philippians 2:5-11

Lk 11:2

Lk 11:2 - When ye pray, say - The Model Prayer from the Lord. See Mt 6:9

Lk 11:2

Lk 11:2 - Our Father which art in heaven - we are to acknowledge and see God the Father as our True Father, abiding in heaven. The love and affection we receive and desire from an earthly father, God gives that to us and much more.

Lk 11:2

Lk 11:2 - hallowed be thy name - God's name is holy, just as the Sabbath day was made holy (Gen 2:3), the Bible, God's Word is Holy, and God's law is holy (Rom 7:12). We must live in a manner that recognizes/acknowledges His holiness and need to be revered. A converted person reverences God and His name, as he is God's ambassador and representative here on earth (2Cor 5:20; Ex 20:7). See Gen 28:13, 16-18; Ex 20:7; Ps 148:13, 138:2

Lk 11:2

Lk 11:2 - Thy kingdom come - Thy kingdom come - may the kingdom of God come into the hearts and minds of those who love and fear God. May we embrace our heavenly citizenship and live as pilgrims while here on earth. See Lk 17:20, 21; Joh 14:16-20, 17:14, 15; Heb 11:13-16; Col 1:27; Mt 24:14

Lk 11:2

Lk 11:2 - Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth - the devil, the prince of the power of the air, claims rulership of the earth and the sons of disobedience who live in it (Eph 2:2,-4). Only through those who are born again, born of the Spirit of God, may God's will be fulfilled in earth (Eph 3:15). May I be one who does the will of God. The will of God is that: 1. None should perish but that all come to repentance (2Pet 3:9) 2. Our sanctification (1Thess 4:30; Rom 12:1, 2) 3. His name and His Son be glorified in all the world (Joh 12:28; Rev 18:1-4; Mat 26:39; Num 14:21) All of these will be fulfilled in the lives of the righteous.

Lk 11:2

Lk 11:3 - so in earth - God's will shall be done in all who make a full surrender of their will to God. See Mt 26:39; Lk 22:42; Gal 2:20

Lk 11:3

Lk 11:3 - Give us day by day - Give us this day our daily bread - This is a command we can return to God when we have met the condition of our prayer. Great is God's faithfulness to us (Hymn 100)

Lk 11:3

Lk 11:3 - daily bread - Man does not live by bread alone but by ever word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. See Mt 3:4; Deut 8:3; Job 23:12 In feeding the five thousand, Jesus lifts the veil from the world of nature, and reveals the power that is constantly exercised for our good. In the production of earth's harvests God is working a miracle every day. Through natural agencies the same work is accomplished that was wrought in the feeding of the multitude. Men prepare the soil and sow the seed, but it is the life from God that causes the seed to germinate. It is God's rain and air and sunshine that cause it to put forth, "first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear." Mk 4:28. It is God who is every day feeding millions from earth's harvest fields. Men are called upon to co-operate with God in the care of the grain and the preparation of the loaf, and because of this they lose sight of the divine agency. They do not give God the glory due unto His holy name. The working of His power is ascribed to natural causes or to human instrumentality. Man is glorified in place of God, and His gracious gifts are perverted to selfish uses, and made a curse instead of a blessing. God is seeking to change all this. He desires that our dull senses shall be quickened to discern His merciful kindness and to glorify Him for the working of His power. He desires us to recognize Him in His gifts, that they may be, as He intended, a blessing to us. It was to accomplish this purpose that the miracles of Christ were performed. - {DA 367.3}

Lk 11:4 - And forgive us our sins for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us - a powerful request that requires true soul searching. We must forgive others. Gen 50:15-21; Mt 6:14, 15

Lk 11:4

Lk 11:4 - for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us - The Lord admonishes the Christian not to owe any man anything, but to love one another (Rom 13:8). We must be willing to admit our faults, one to another, and ask forgiveness so that there be no division or root of bitterness amongst us. See Mt 5:23, 24; Jam 5:16; Heb 12:14, 15

Lk 11:4

Lk 11:4 - And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil - God does not tempt nor does He lead us to a place where He knowingly directs us to fall. God however, does permit us to be tested so that our faith may increase (Lk 4:1, 2). We are tempted when we are drawn away by our own lusts and desires (Jam 1:13, 14). When we through our own hard-heartedness and rebellion grieve God's Holy Spirit, He gives us up to vile passions. See Ps 51:11, 34:7; Rom 1:26, 16:19; Prov 4:14-17

Lk 11:7

Lk 11:7 - And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee - the friend of the parable contrasts the LORD through his self-interest and indifference to his friends needs and petitions.

Lk 11:8

Lk 11:8 - yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth - for his persistence and insistence the neighbor will lend to the requestor - See Lk 18:1-5

Lk 11:9

Lk 11:9 - And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you - Jesus continues to speak of the manner in which we should pray and he says we must do so importunately, without ceasing and persistently.

Lk 11:10

Lk 11:10 - For every one that asketh receiveth - we must ask for that which is in line with the will of God. God's will is best for us. See Jam 4:3, Lk 11:13

Lk 11:10

Lk 11:10 - and he that seeketh findeth - See Jer 29:13; Mt 6:33

Lk 11:13

Lk 11:13 - how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him? - The Holy Spirit is the Manager of all that belongs to God and therefore is the best gift that the Father could give to us. It is the Holy Spirit that we should ask for! See 1Tim 2:1-4; Zech 10:1; Act 1:8 Holy Spirit is He Who gives power to become sons of God - Gen 1:2; Joh 1:12, 13 Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Truth - Joh 15:16 Holy Spirit is another Comforter - Joh 15:16 Holy Spirit leads us into all truth - Joh 16:13 Holy Spirit will convince us that we are children of God - Rom 8:16 Holy Spirit will speak in our defense through us, for us - Mt 10:20; Lk 12:12 Holy Spirit prays and makes intercession for us with groaning - Rom 8:26 Holy Spirit is our Down-payment, Earnest of our redemption - Eph 1:13, 14 To those that ask Him, Jesus imparts the Holy Spirit; for it is necessary that every believer should be delivered from pollution, as well as from the curse and condemnation of the law. Through the work of the Holy Spirit, the sanctification of the truth, the believer becomes fitted for the courts of heaven; for Christ works within us, and His righteousness is upon us. Without this no soul will be entitled to heaven. We would not enjoy heaven unless qualified for its holy atmosphere by the influence of the Spirit and the righteousness of Christ. - {YRP 65.3}

Lk 11:14

Lk 11:14 - And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake - See Mt 9:32, 33, 12:22, 15:31; Mk 9:17-25

Lk 11:14

Lk 11:14 - and the people wondered - Compare Rev 13:3, 4

Lk 11:15

Lk 11:15 - But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils - Those who in pride denied the power of God and spoke against the Spirit of God working through Christ were kicking against the pricks, rejecting the Spirit and would in time grieve away the Spirit of God. The very Spirit that is given to lead us to all Truth, to point us to Christ, when His power is denied and ascribed to the workings of the devil, leaves a person without an anchor or rope to moor oneself. See Mt 12:24

Lk 11:16

Lk 11:16 - sought of him a sign from heaven - the scoffers who bought into the false claim that Jesus cast out devils by Beelzebub demanded that Jesus perform some sign that confirmed His miracle was from heaven. See Lk 11:29; 1Cor 1:22

Lk 11:17

Lk 11:17 - Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation - See Mt 12:25

Lk 11:17

Lk 11:17 - and a house divided against a house falleth - See Am 3:3; Mk 3:25

Lk 11:18

Lk 11:18 - If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub - See Lk 11:15; Mk 3:25

Lk 11:20

Lk 11:20 - But if I with the finger of God cast out devils - the Finger of God is also referred to as the Spirit of God. See Mt 12:28, Deut 9:10, Ex 31:18, 8:19; Dan 5:5

Lk 11:20

Lk 11:20 - no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you - if the work is of the devil, then Satan wars against himself and his kingdom is divided and will fall, otherwise, with all certainty, God's Kingdom is come and Messiah the Prince is here. See Dan 9:25, 26; Mk 1:15

Lk 11:22

Lk 11:22 - But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils - Jesus is that Stronger Man than the devil, who overcomes him, takes his armor and divides his spoil. See 1Jo 4:4; Heb 2:14, 15

Lk 11:25

Lk 11:25 - he findeth it swept and garnished - the devils find the house swept clean, but not inhabited by the Spirit of God. They therefore, move back in.

Lk 11:26

Lk 11:26 - Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first - See 2Pet 2:20

Lk 11:27

Lk 11:27 - Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked - a feminist in the crowd gave a shout-out to Mary. The desire to laud over Mary was prevalent even in that day - the beginnings of Mariolity. See Lk 1:48

Lk 11:28

Lk 11:28 - Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it - Jesus would not give credit to any familial ties but showed that all were equal in God's kingdom. Those who heard and kept His words were worthy of blessings. See Lk 8:20, 21; John 20:29

Lk 11:29

Lk 11:29 - This is an evil generation: they seek a sign - the people had an evil heart of unbelief. See Lk 11:16; Heb 3:8-12

Lk 11:29

Lk 11:29 - they seek a sign - Jesus' life, His character and His works all gave evidence of the Source and Spirit that worked in Him, yet the people persisted in seeing "evidence", a sign to prove Who He was. They lacked faith, which is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

Lk 11:30

Lk 11:30 - For as Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation - As Jon's prophecy and warning to the Ninevites were signs, so Jesus' words would be a sign to that generation of judgments to come. See Mt 24:4-22

Lk 11:31

Lk 11:31 - the Queen of Sheba will be among the redeemed and will judge thee people of Jesus' generation. She came from afar to see and hear the wisdom of Solomon, and the people in the time of Christ completely ignored Him, Who is greater than Solomon. Jesus is giving the same rebuke to the men of that generation as He gave to His disciples. See 1Kin 10:1-10; Lk 10:23-25

Lk 11:31

Lk 11:31 - behold, a greater than Solomon is here - See Hag 2:7-9; Deut 18:18, 19

Lk 11:32

Lk 11:32 - The men of Nineve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas - the Ninevites repented with sackcloth and ashes upon hearing of the impending judgments upon their city and yet, Jesus would speak the same warnings to no effect. Though Jesus gave warning and the people rejected it, He succeeded where Elijah failed. Elijah thought his words and works would bring about a revival and reformation among Israel, casting down idols and removing all things which offended (including Jezebel), and yet, Jezebel still sat on the throne and threatened Elijah's life to his dismay. Jesus wept over Israel and would give them 3.5yrs more to repent and surrender before He would sign the divorce papers they had been handing Him for over 1500years.

Lk 11:32

Lk 11:32 - for they repented at the preaching of Jonas - See Rev 3:19

Lk 11:32

Lk 11:32 - and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here - See Hag 2:7-9; Deut 18:18, 19

Lk 11:34

Lk 11:34 - therefore when thine eye is single - when our vision is pure, simple and uncorrupted. When our focus is upon things above and not things of this earth. Compare 2Pet 2:14; Ps 119:37

Lk 11:34

Lk 11:35 - but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness - Filled with hatred, envy, malice, selfishness, covetousness, avarice, greed, wicked intent - See Deut 28:56, 57; Prov 28:22; Lk 11:39; Ps 119:37

Lk 11:35

Lk 11:35 - Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness - See 2Pet 2:12-19

Lk 11:36

Lk 11:36 - If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light - See Isah 60:1-3; Eph 5:27

Lk 11:37

Lk 11:37 - And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat - See Lk 14:1

Lk 11:38

Lk 11:38 - And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner - Jesus made no attempt to uphold the vain traditions of men. The Pharisee in self-righteousness, was critical of the One Who was fully above reproach. See Mt 15:2; Mk 7:8

Lk 11:39

Lk 11:39 - Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness - See Mk 7:7-9

Lk 11:39

Lk 11:39 - but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness - See Jam 3:14, 15; Lk 14:3, 4

Lk 11:41

Lk 11:41 - But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you - if you give gifts of your possessions to the poor then are you clean. The gifts and possessions to be given include the gifts of godly knowledge and wisdom, righteousness, sympathy, compassion, selfless service and one's goods as required. Then shall we be clean.

Lk 11:42

Lk 11:42 - for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs - the Pharisees were hypocritically majoring in the minors while overlooking the most important things. See Mt 23:23, 24

Lk 11:42

Lk 11:42 - and pass over judgment and the love of God: - the Pharisees forsake justice, fairness and the Love of God - See Isa 59:1-15

Lk 11:43

Lk 11:43 - Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets - the prideful Pharisees loved the pride of life and the praises of men. See Mt 23:6, 7; 1Jo 2:16; Lk 14:7-11

Lk 11:44

Lk 11:44 - for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them - they are as deceptive traps, snares and pits that men fall into. See Mt 15:14; Rom 3:13

Lk 11:45

Lk 11:45 - Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also - See Lk 14:3

Lk 11:46

Lk 11:46 - Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers - See Mt 23:4

Lk 11:47

Lk 11:47 - Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them - See Mt 23:29

Lk 11:48

Lk 11:48 - Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres - See Mt 23:30, 31

Lk 11:49

Lk 11:49 - Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute: - Mt 23:34; See 2Chron 36:15, 16; Heb 11:36, 37

Lk 11:50

Lk 11:50 - That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation - Abel in his obedience and faith offered a righteous offering, testifying of God's Everlasting Covenant. See 2Kin 9:7; Lam 4:12, 13; Mt 23:30, 35; Rev 16:6, 18:24; Heb 11:4

Lk 11:51

Lk 11:52 - blood of Abel - See Heb 11:4

Lk 11:51

Lk 11:51 - It shall be required of this generation - just as in Spiritual Israel at the end of the world, all the oracles of the Old Testament were written for the Jew's admonition when their final judgment in 34A.D. came due.

Lk 11:52

Lk 11:52 - Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered - See Mt 23:13; 3Jo 1:10; Joh 7:44-49; Rom 1:18; 3Jo 1:9

Lk 11:54

Lk 11:54 - Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him - See Lk 14:1

Lk 12:1

Lk 12:1 - Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy - See Job 15:34; Mt 15:7, 8, 23:13-29

Lk 12:2

Lk 12:2 - For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known - God will search His people with candles, meaning a very close inspection to see what lies within. See Zeph 1:12; Jer 17:10

Lk 12:4

Lk 12:4 - Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do - See Heb 2:14, 15

Lk 12:5

Lk 12:5 - But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him - See Mt 10:28; Rev 14:7; 2Cor 5:10, 11

Lk 12:7

Lk 12:7 - But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered - God not only knows how many hairs are upon our head, He has numbered them all. He knows everything about us intimately and still loves us. What a mighty God we serve!! See Ps 139

Lk 12:8

Lk 12:8 - Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God: - See Rev 3:5

Lk 12:9

Lk 12:9 - But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God - See Mt 10:32

Lk 12:10

Lk 12:10 - And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him - In our ignorance, we may speak profane words against Jesus and the knowledge of His salvation. However, when we are convicted of truth and we lie against that conviction, we risk grieving the Holy Spirit.

Lk 12:10

Lk 12:10 - but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven - the Spirit of Truth Who declares and proclaims truth must not be grieved because there will be no other Comforter or One to direct one to a knowledge of truth. To deny the witness of the Faithful & True Witness by the Spirit of Truth would be to deny the very counsels given to bring salvation. Our condemnation comes because we had not a love for the truth that we might be saved. See Eph 4:30; Lk 8:12; 11:13-26; Rev 3:14, 18; 2Thess 2:11, 12

Lk 12:11

Lk 12:11 - and when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates - See Prov 16:1; Jer 26:7-11; Joh 16:1-3; Mk 13:11

Lk 12:12

Lk 12:12 - the Holy Ghost shall teach you... what ye ought to say - See Ex 4:12, 14, 15; Joh

14:10, 26; Ps 81:10; 119:11; Eph 6:18-20; Rev 12:11; Jer 26:11-16; Lk 21:12-15; Mk 13:11; Mt 10:19, 20 In the natural order of things, the son of Zacharias would have been educated for the priesthood. But the training of the rabbinical schools would have unfitted him for his work. God did not send him to the teachers of theology to learn how to interpret the Scriptures. He called him to the desert, that he might learn of nature and nature's God. - {DA 101.3} Joh had not learned in the schools of the rabbis. Yet kings and nobles, Pharisees and Sadducees, Roman soldiers and officers, trained in all court etiquette, wily, calculating taxgatherers, and world-renowned men, listened to his words. They had confidence in his plain statements, and were convicted of sin. They asked of him, "What shall we do?" (Lk 3:14).... - {2SM 152.2}

Lk 12:13 - And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me - apparently one sought justice of his brother who perhaps wrongfully claimed an inheritance, defrauding his brother. Jesus sensed the covetousness in the man's own heart, seeking worldly riches and gain over the Kingdom of heaven which Jesus preached. Jesus would not assume the role of a judge and entangle Himself in the matter since this was not His mission. His mission was to bring the gospel of salvation to all men that would cause any wrong in one's heart to be rooted out and addressed. There would be a time when Jesus would stand as Judge of all men, but that was not the time. Rom 14:10; 1Tim 2:5

Lk 12:14

Lk 12:15 - Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you? - Though fully capable and within His divine prerogative to be a righteous Judge, Jesus purposed not to become entangled with the affairs of this world. When offered the kingdoms of this world (Mt 4:8, 9) or sought to be made a king, Jesus withdrew from the crowd, recognizing His kingdom was not of this world. Jesus came to proclaim the Truth and Gospel of the Kingdom of God whose principles and doctrine when heeded would convert the soul and thus settle any grievances among men.

Lk 12:15

Lk 12:18 - Take heed, and beware of covetousness - beware of inordinate lust for wealth, acquisition of things or selfish withholding of those things when you can be a blessing to others. Covetousness is idolatry. See Col 3:5

Lk 12:15

Lk 12:15 - for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth - all the things of the world are passing away and the lusts thereof, therefore, how we ought to live circumspectly in the world. See 1Jo 2:16

Lk 12:16

Lk 12:16 - The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully - the man in the parable was already highly blessed of the Lord, being rich and receiving a bountiful harvest of which he labored not.

Lk 12:17

Lk 12:17 - And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits? - See Deut 8:17

Lk 12:18

Lk 12:18 - And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods - the man was already rich and increased with goods and yet, he purposed to tear down of the abundance which he already had and build bigger barns for himself.

Lk 12:19

Lk 12:19 - And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry - selfish, confidence in his wealth drew the rich landowner to ignore the needs of the poor and selfishly hoard riches for himself.

Lk 12:20

Lk 12:20 - Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee, then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided? - the selfish rich man's probation had ended and all of his riches he refused to share when it was within his power to do so, would be distributed without his consent. See 1Tim 6:17

Lk 12:21

Lk 12:21 - So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God - Rich towards God involves caring for the things that God cares about: feeding the poor, widow, homeless and fatherless. See Mt 25:34-40; Lk 16:19-31

Lk 12:22

Lk 12:22 - And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on - See Mt 6:31-34

Lk 12:24

Lk 12:24 - Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls? - God does not expect us to make no provisions for our present and near future sustenance. However, we must always remember from where our daily provisions come. God provides daily for the birds and animals of the forest, just as He made provision for the COI in the wilderness. We need not worry about our lives because they are in His watchful hands.

Lk 12:27

Lk 12:27 - Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these - See Mt 6:28

Lk 12:29

Lk 12:29 - neither be ye of doubtful mind - the Christian of all people should be most hopeful in this world. We have a Faithful Friend and Father Who cares for us. As we remain in His will, we have nothing to fear or be concerned for. Lord help me to exercise greater faith and never doubt or question you. See Lk 12:32

Lk 12:31

Lk 12:31 - But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you - We are to occupy the mind, interests, and thoughts for God's Kingdom, a life of self-surrender, trusting faith and faithful obedience so that we remain under God's protective care. See Mt 6:33

Lk 12:32

Lk 12:32 - Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom - It is the Father's desire to give us the Kingdom of God. The Kingdom of God is not in observation but is in us. God's peace, His power, His blessings, His rest, His joy, His patient assurance is the Kingdom of God. See Dan 7:18, 27, 22; Ps 133:3; Mt 6:33, 25:34; Lk 17:21, 22:28, 29; Rev 21

Lk 12:33

Lk 12:33 - Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth - We are not to stockpile wealth in this life but to sell and give to those who are in need. We may accumulate blessed wealth in heaven, where moth does not corrupt and where thieves do not break in and steal. See Mt 6:31, 32

Lk 12:34

Lk 12:34 - For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also - See Mt 6:21, 24

Lk 12:35

Lk 12:35 - Let your loins be girded about - See Eph 6:14; Mt 25:1-10

Lk 12:35

Lk 12:35 - and your lights burning - our lamps should be constantly trimmed and burning. See Mt 25:7, 5:16

Lk 12:36

Lk 12:36 - And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately - See Mt 25:6-12; Rev 19:7-9

Lk 12:37

Lk 12:37 - Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them - We are in need of patience, so that we may remain vigilant and dutiful in serving the LORD until His glorious appearance. See Rev 2:25, 3:5, 14:12

Lk 12:37

Lk 12:37 - make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them - the Lord will serve us in the New Jerusalem. Behold what manner of love the Father has given unto us! See Rev 7:14-17; 1Jo 3:1; Phil 2:5-8 Compare Lk 17:7-9

Lk 12:38 - third watch - Midnight-3AM

Lk 12:39

Lk 12:39 - And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through - See 1Thess 5:2-6; 2Pet 3:10

Lk 12:40

Lk 12:40 - Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not - See 1Thess 5:1-6

Lk 12:42

Lk 12:42 - Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season? - See Mt 25:20-23

Lk 12:45

Lk 12:45 - But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken - The evil servant is one who ceases to abide in Christ and can not perceive the arrival of the Kingdom of God within him. He is not partaking daily of the hidden Manna, the Bread from Heaven Who imparts His, mercy, grace and power in their lives such that they may say, "The Lord delayeth His coming" See Rev 2:25. Contrast 1Pet 4:12, 13; 1Jo 4:1-3 Watch ye therefore: ... lest coming suddenly He find you sleeping." Mark 13:35, 36. Perilous is the condition of those who, growing weary of their watch, turn to the attractions of the world. While the man of business is absorbed in the pursuit of gain, while the pleasure lover is seeking indulgence, while the daughter of fashion is arranging her adornments—it may be in that hour the Judge of all the earth will pronounce the sentence: "Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting." Daniel 5:27. - {GC 491.2}

Lk 12:45

Lk 12:45 - begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunk - See Jer 18:18; Mt 24:49. William Miller wrote the following concerning the ill treatment the Advent believers received from the Protestant churches shortly after March 1844: One of the D.D.'s in Rochester, Mr._____, of the _____ church, wrote a pamphlet against Millerism, called his lords and ladies into the house of the Lord, made a great feast of oysters and other 'picnics,' Belshazzar-like, drank their coffee and tea, ate their costly delicacies and sold their ice-cream and sweetmeats, and his pamphlet against the second advent of the dear Saviour. "The night before I left, another of the reverend gentlemen had a picnic feast at a public house, or hall, and sold as above, his tickets, ice-cream, and sweetmeats. I was happy to hear that some of the churches of the different sects did not approve of such Babylonian feasts; and I do hope, in my soul, that not all of these sectarian churches will be found 'eating and drinking with the drunken' when Christ shall come. I am astonished that these reverend gentlemen do not see themselves in the glass of God's word; and I would recommend them to read Lk 14:12-14; Matt. 24:48-51; Lk 13:25-28; 2Pet 2:13; Ju 10-21. These are the last times surely."

Lk 12:46

Lk 12:46 - The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him - See 1Thess 5:4, 5

Lk 12:46

Lk 12:46 - and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers - See Rev 21:8, 22:

Lk 12:47

Lk 12:47, 48 - And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more - See Rom 2:6, 8, 9, 12; Lk 20:47; Joh 19:11; Mk 12:38-40

Lk 12:48

Lk 12:48 - For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more. - See Lk 10:13, 14; Rom 3:1, 2; Am 3:2 The church cannot measure herself by the world nor by the opinion of men nor by what she once was. Her faith and her position in the world as they now are must be compared with what they would have been if her course had been continually onward and upward. The church will be weighed in the balances of the sanctuary. If her moral character and spiritual state do not correspond with the benefits and blessings God has conferred upon her, she will be found wanting. The light has been shining clear and definite upon her pathway, and the light of 1882 calls her to an account. If her talents are unimproved, if her fruit is not perfect before God, if her light has become darkness, she is indeed found wanting. The knowledge of our state as God views it, seems to be hidden from us. We see, but perceive not; we hear, but do not understand; and we rest as unconcerned as if the pillar of cloud by day, and the pillar of fire by night, rested upon our sanctuary. We profess to know God, and to believe the truth, but in works deny Him. Our deeds are directly adverse to the principles of truth and righteousness, by which we profess to be governed. - {5T 83.2} Though all nations are to pass in judgment before God, yet He will examine the case of each individual with as close and searching scrutiny as if there were not another being upon the earth. Everyone must be tested and found without spot or wrinkle or any such thing. - {GC 489.3}

Lk 12:50

Lk 12:50 - But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished! - Jesus knew He had to bear the cross, literally, and it was a grievous thought to bear until it was done. See Joh 12:27; Heb 12:2, 3

Lk 12:51

Lk 12:51 - Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division - See Mt 10:34; Heb 4:12

Lk 12:51

Lk 12:51 - but rather division - the gospel of Christ produces two classes of worshippers - no middle ground. The Word of God and Christs' strait testimony will draw some and repel others. See Heb 4:12

Lk 12:53

Lk 12:53 - The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law - See Mic 7:6; Ps 27:10

Lk 12:56

Lk 12:56 - how is it that ye do not discern this time? - Jesus was making plain that the time of Messiah's arrival had arrived, yet they were oblivious to His presence (Dan 9:24-27). They, in their willful ignorance were fulfilling the prophecy of Isa 6 and 29 where they had a spirit of blindness and drunkenness. See Isa 29:9-14, 6:9-12

Lk 12:57

Lk 12:57 - Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right? - See 1Cor 6:1, 2, 4-6

Lk 12:58

Lk 12:58 - When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison - See Mt 5:25; Lk 12:2, 3

Lk 13:1

Lk 13:1 - whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices - here the heavy-handed cruelty of the Rom is spoken. Pilate, apparently had certain Jews massacred while presenting their offering in the sanctuary.

Lk 13:2

Lk 13:1 - Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things? - Jesus is asking if you think these Galileans upon whom such cruelty was inflicted were any greater sinners than any others. In other words, this did not befall them because they are greater sinners, but the same can happen to any person.

Lk 13:3

Lk 13:3 - I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish - Jesus is again warning the COI of the near close of their 3rd term of probation lasting 490years. Jesus is warning of the impending judgment upon Israel as prophesied by the prophet Dan. See Dan 9:26, 27; Lk 3:7, 8 13:5

Lk 13:5

Lk 13:5 - I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish - Jesus is again warning the COI of the near close of their 3rd term of probation lasting 490years. Jesus is warning of the impending judgment upon Israel as prophesied by the prophet Dan. See Dan 9:26, 27; Lk 3:7, 8, 13:3

Lk 13:6

Lk 13:6 - A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard - a very familiar parable to the COI who knew the vineyard referred to Israel. See Isa 5:1-7

Lk 13:7

Lk 13:7 - I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground - See Mt 21:19, 20 Many are deceived as to their true condition before God. They congratulate themselves upon the wrong acts which they do not commit, and forget to enumerate the good and noble deeds which God requires of them, but which they have neglected to perform. It is not enough that they are trees in the garden of God. They are to answer His expectation by bearing fruit. He holds them accountable for their failure to accomplish all the good which they could have done, through His grace strengthening them. In the books of heaven they are registered as cumberers of the ground. Yet the case of even this class is not utterly hopeless. With those who have slighted God's mercy and abused His grace, the heart of long-suffering love yet pleads. "Wherefore He saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, ... redeeming the time, because the days are evil." Eph 5:14-16. - {DD 39.2}

Lk 13:8

Lk 13:8, 9 - let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: 9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down - The parable demonstrates vicarious grace, where the faith and interests of the one seeking to preserve the tree acts as an intercessor and the LORD grants grace to the tree on the person's behalf. As we pray on behalf of others who are outside the Ark of Safety, God moves in their lives on behalf of our prayers. For nearly forty years after the doom of Jerusalem had been pronounced by Christ Himself, the Lord delayed His judgments upon the city and the nation. Wonderful was the long-suffering of God toward the rejectors of His gospel and the murderers of His Son. The parable of the unfruitful tree represented God's dealings with the Jewish nation. The command had gone forth, "Cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?" (Lk 13:7) but divine mercy had spared it yet a little longer. There were still many among the Jews who were ignorant of the character and the work of Christ. And the children had not enjoyed the opportunities or received the light which their parents had spurned. Through the preaching of the apostles and their associates, God would cause light to shine upon them; they would be permitted to see how prophecy had been fulfilled, not only in the birth and life of Christ, but in His death and resurrection. The children were not condemned for the sins of the parents; but when, with a knowledge of all the light given to their parents, the children rejected the additional light granted to themselves, they became partakers of the parents' sins, and filled up the measure of their iniquity. - {GC 27.3}

Lk 13:9

Lk 13:9 - Jesus is confirming the last week of the 490yr prophecy with Israel and then they will be cut down and cut-off at the roots. See Lk 3:7, 8; Dan 9:26, 27

Lk 13:11

Lk 13:11 - And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself - See Ps 146:8

Lk 13:13

Lk 13:13 - And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God - Praise God! Jesus cares about what pains us and was not going to allow the woman to suffer a moment longer than necessary.

Lk 13:14

Lk 13:14 - And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day - The hypocritical ruler chastised Jesus, the woman and all who sought any healing from the Master on Sabbath. The hatred for Jesus, the blind zeal and hypocrisy for the Sabbath without a love for God or their fellow man caused great pain and anger to Jesus.

Lk 13:16

Lk 13:15 - And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day? - Especially on the Sabbath, this daughter of the King should be loosed from her bondage of affliction. The Sabbath means rest for all who enter it by faith in Jesus Christ. See Lk 14:2, 3

Lk 13:17

Lk 13:17 - and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him - the people recognized true righteousness and godliness and rejoiced in Jesus' works, to the shame of the proud, self-righteous and hypocritical Pharisees.

Lk 13:19

Lk 13:19 - It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it - The work of the Holy Spirit may appear small at its beginning, but in time it becomes much when cultivated by faith and continual abiding in Jesus. We are not to despise the day of small things. As we remain steadfast, day-by-day attending to the small works of faith, God will bring the increase in His time. See Mt 13:31, 32; Zech 4:10; 1Cor 3:6 In the multitude that listened to Christ's teaching there were many Pharisees. These noted contemptuously how few of His hearers acknowledged Him as the Messiah. And they questioned with themselves how this unpretending teacher could exalt Israel to universal dominion. Without riches, power, or honor, how was He to establish the new kingdom? Christ read their thoughts and answered them: - {COL 76.1}

Lk 13:21

Lk 13:21 - It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened - the work of the Holy Spirit is such that it spreads and saturates the entire lump when actuated by faith of Jesus Christ. See Gal 5:9 A legal religion is insufficient to bring the soul into harmony with God. The hard, rigid orthodoxy of the Pharisees, destitute of contrition, tenderness, or love, was only a stumbling block to sinners. They were like the salt that had lost its savor; for their influence had no power to preserve the world from corruption. The only true faith is that which "worketh by love" (Gal 5:6) to purify the soul. It is as leaven that transforms the character. - {MB 53.2}

Lk 13:24

Lk 13:24 - Strive - the word strive, according to Ps 35, is synonymous with pleading and fighting. We must with earnestness, plead for the LORD's strength to fight the Christian warfare. We must fight with zeal to be victorious over self and the sins that so easily beset us. We must endeavor and purpose to enter into the Kingdom of God and to be among the 144,000. We are to copy no human being. There is no human being wise enough to be our criterion. We are to look to the man Christ Jesus, who is complete in the perfection of righteousness and holiness. He is the author and finisher of our faith. He is the pattern man. His experience is the measure of the experience that we are to gain. His character is our model. Let us, then, take our minds off the perplexities and the difficulties of this life, and fix them on Him, that by beholding we may be changed into His likeness. We may behold Christ to good purpose. We may safely look to Him; for He is all-wise. As we look to Him and think of Him, He will be formed within, the hope of glory. - {Mar 241.8} Let us strive with all the power that God has given us to be among the hundred and forty-four thousand. - {Mar 241.9}

Lk 13:24 - strait gate - the difficult gate; the toilsome gate; the gate marked by our pursuit of holiness in a perverse world.

Lk 13:25

Lk 13:25 - When once the Master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door - See Dan 12:1; Mt 25:10-12; Rev 3:

Lk 13:25

Lk 13:25 - ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door - See Mt 25:10-12

Lk 13:25

Lk 13:25 - I know you not whence ye are - See Mt 25:12

Lk 13:26

Lk 13:26 - Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets - See Mt 7:22 Contrast Lk 17:10

Lk 13:27

Lk 13:27 - But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity - See Mt 7:23

Lk 13:27

Lk 13:27 - I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity - this scene may occur at the White Throne Judgment. See Rom 8:9||Gal 2:21; Rev 20:11-15 Christ never forces His company upon anyone. He interests Himself in those who need Him. Gladly will He enter the humblest home, and cheer the lowliest heart. But if men are too indifferent to think of the heavenly Guest, or ask Him to abide with them, He passes on. Thus many meet with great loss. They do not know Christ any more than did the disciples as He walked with them by the way. - {DA 800.3}

Lk 13:27

Lk 13:27 - depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity - See Ps 6:8

Lk 13:27

Lk 13:27 - workers of iniquity - the workers of iniquity know not the Lord, neither does the Lord know them. If we seek to establish our own righteousness by the works of the law rather than by faith of Jesus Christ, the works themselves become works of iniquity - See Isa 64:6, 57:12; Gal 2:21; Rom 7:5; 10:1-4, 4:1-5

Lk 13:28

Lk 13:28 - there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth - See Jer 8:20; Am 8:11-14; Mt 22:13, 24:51, 25:30, 8:12

Lk 13:28

Lk 13:28 - when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out - See Lk 16:22, 23

Lk 13:29

Lk 13:29 - And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God - See Isa 56:3-8

Lk 13:31

Lk 13:31 -The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Herod will kill thee - See Mt 14:1-12

Lk 13:32

Lk 13:32 - and the third day I shall be perfected - speaking of His glorification. See Joh 12:27-33

Lk 13:33

Lk 13:33 - it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem - Jesus is not speaking facetiously, but is declaring that all the prophets were to be killed by their own. The world would listen to the prophets before God's people would hear. 2Chron 36:15, 16; Heb 11:36; Jam 5:10; Lk 9:31

Lk 13:34

Lk 13:34 - O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not! - See Mt 23:37

Lk 13:35

Lk 13:35 - Behold, your house is left unto you desolate - See Mic 3:9-12; Hag 2:3-9; Zech 6:12, 13; 1Sam 4:21 Throughout Jesus' earthly ministry, He declared the temple in Jerusalem as His Father's house that was being desecrated by men's selfishness and greed. Jesus, in this statement, has given a letter of divorce to the earthly sanctuary and all who would remain tied to its rites. Jesus revealed to the world that He was no longer to be sought after through Jewish rites and customs, and that His glorious presence had departed (Eze 24:21, 37:28). No longer would salvation be found through the works of Jewish statutes (established by God and perverted by men - Ecc 7:29) but through God's new order that He raised up through Jesus Christ (Heb 12:24; Mt 26:28; Mk 14:24). The former house, the sanctuary of the Old Covenant was pronounced desolate. Henceforth, Jesus would point all of His believers to the sanctuary of the New Covenant in the heavenly Jerusalem, the house of God not made with man's hands. See Heb 8:2, 6, 12:22; Rev 21; 2Cor 5:1; Joh 14:2

Lk 13:35

Lk 13:35 - Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the LORD - Jesus foretold that a veil of darkness that barred them from the light of truth would remain upon the COI until they acknowledge Jesus as LORD and Savior. This veil is likened unto the veil which covered Moses' faith, blinding/vailing the people from the glory of God shining from Moses' face. See 2Cor 3:7-16; Hos 13:9, 14:1 In the apostasy, man alienated himself from God; earth was cut off from heaven. Across the gulf that lay between, there could be no communion. But through Christ, earth is again linked with heaven. With His own merits, Christ has bridged the gulf which sin had made, so that the ministering angels can hold communion with man. Christ connects fallen man in his weakness and helplessness with the Source of infinite power. - {SC 20.1}

Lk 13:35

Lk 13:35 - Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord - Jesus quotes the inspired words of David as well as that which the people and children sung as He made His triumphal entrance into Jerusalem (Ps 118:26; Mt 21:18). Until the Jews acknowledged Jesus as Christ and Lord singing, Hosanna, Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the LORD (Jehovah - The I Am) they would never see Jesus in peace.

Lk 14:1

Lk 14:1 - And it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him - though seeking His harm and ruin, Jesus did not resist the invitation to mingle with His enemies, while seeking to draw close to them in judgment so that they may repent and be saved. See Lk 11:37

Lk 14:1

Lk 14:1 - that they watched him - Jesus' enemies did not give Him a moment of peace and rest without watching Him and seeking to misconstrue His words or some one of His acts. See Lk 11:37-39, 53, 54

Lk 14:3

Lk 14:3, 4 - And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? And they held their peace - the self-righteous, hypocritical Pharisees would not exercise righteous judgment, giving consent to that which was upright, lawful and good. Jesus drew near to them in judgment, in order to reveal the true condition of their heart and even their motives (Mal 3:5). This guile was a stain upon their character. See Lk 13:11-16 God is more interested in our motives for what we do, more so than the act itself. We must show our fidelity to God and and the "spirit" of His principles, more so than the letter of the law. See Joh 7:24; Rom 2:27

Lk 14:3

Lk 14:2 - spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees - See Lk 11:42-52

Lk 14:4

Lk 14:4 - And they held their peace - These hypocritical men would not take a stand for truth but banded together in silent unrighteousness. They were being judged in this scene by the King of the universe and knew it not. See Mk 3:5; Mic 6:8; Am 8:4-7; Lk 14:6; 18:21 CONTRAST Ex 32:26 The people answer him not a word. Not one in that vast assembly dare reveal loyalty to Jehovah. Like a dark cloud, deception and blindness had overspread Israel. Not all at once had this fatal apostasy closed about them, but gradually, as from time to time they had failed to heed the words of warning and reproof that the Lord sent them. Each departure from rightdoing, each refusal to repent, had deepened their guilt and driven them farther from Heaven. And now, in this crisis, they persisted in refusing to take their stand for God. - {PK 147.3} The Lord abhors indifference and disloyalty in a time of crisis in His work. The whole universe is watching with inexpressible interest the closing scenes of the great controversy between good and evil. The people of God are nearing the borders of the eternal world; what can be of more importance to them than that they be loyal to the God of heaven? All through the ages, God has had moral heroes, and He has them now—those who, like Joseph and Elijah and Daniel, are not ashamed to acknowledge themselves His peculiar people. His special blessing accompanies the labors of men of action, men who will not be swerved from the straight line of duty, but who with divine energy will inquire, “Who is on the Lord’s side?” (Ex 32:26), men who will not stop merely with the inquiry, but who will demand that those who choose to identify themselves with the people of God shall step forward and reveal unmistakably their allegiance to the King of kings and Lord of lords. Such men make their wills and plans subordinate to the law of God. For love of Him they count not their lives dear unto themselves. Their work is to catch the light from the Word and let it shine forth to the world in clear, steady rays. Fidelity to God is their motto. - {PK 148.1}

Lk 14:5 - And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day? - By contrast, Jesus revealed the cold darkness of their hearts. Jesus showed them that they had more regard for a brute beast which they paid money to purchase, than they had for this son of Abraham that was afflicted with a condition needing deliverance. See Lk 13:15

Lk 14:6

Lk 14:6 - And they could not answer him again to these things - See Lk 18:21; CONTRAST Ex 32:26 The people answer him not a word. Not one in that vast assembly dare reveal loyalty to Jehovah. Lk 14:7

Lk 14:7 - And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms - the Pharisees were self-exalting, so Jesus graciously gave them some counsel. Jesus is the Savior of the entire world, even those who most vehemently opposed Him and His mission. Jesus sought to win the hearts of all men that we might repent, be converted, and be saved. See Prov 25:7; Lk 14:11, 18:14

Lk 14:8

Lk 14:8 - When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him - see Lk 11:43

Lk 14:10

Lk 14:10 - But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee - See Prov 25:7; Phil 2:5-8

Lk 14:10

Lk 14:10 - then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee - then shall you be highly esteemed by those which sit and eat with you.

Lk 14:11

Lk 14:11 - For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased - See Lk 18:14; Jam 4:6; 1Pet 5:5; Habakkuk 2:4

Lk 14:11

Lk 14:11 - and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted - See 1Pet 5:6; Ps 138:6; Isa 57:15

Lk 14:12

Lk 14:12 - Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee - do not invite those who have the means to return the favor.

Lk 14:13

Lk 14:13 - But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: - Jesus was describing the character of heaven. To bless those who are all the time passed over and scorned; seeking nothing of them in return is the Spirit of Grace that is harmony with heaven - See Lk 14:21

Lk 14:14

Lk 14:14 - And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee - See Mt 10:8;

Lk 14:14

Lk 14:14 - for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just - See Joh 5:24-29; 1Thess 4:16-18; Joh 11:24; Rev 22:12

Lk 14:15

Lk 14:15 - And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God - so the self-righteous Pharisees thought of themselves, that surely, they would be counted worthy to enter the kingdom of God and eat bread. See Rev 19:6-9

Lk 14:16

Lk 14:16 - A certain man - See Dan 8:13

Lk 14:16

Lk 14:16 - great supper - the great supper (last meal of the day) of the Lamb [Rev 19:9] is being referenced and three appeals are made to those bidden, symbolizing the Three Angel's Messages

Lk 14:17

Lk 14:17 - And sent his servant at supper time - this is the first cry to the marriage supper of the Lamb, the 1st Angel's cry during the Millerite era. See Rev 19:9; Lk 22:30

Lk 14:17

Lk 14:17 - them that were bidden - the invitation goes out first to those who claimed to have accepted the call to be followers of God/Christ. First the Jews in the time of Christ and then the Christian Churches in the time of the Advent Movement.

Lk 14:18

Lk 14:18 - And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused - The banquet was set and all who were bidden, though it should be an honor for them to attend, made excuses why they could not come. This experience of Ancient Israel is a parallel to the 2nd Angel's message to the Christian church.

Lk 14:21

Lk 14:21 - lanes and city - the inhabitants of the city are to be called to the supper. Similarly, the 2nd Angel's message refers to the "great" apostate "city" Babylon as having fallen (Rev 14:8, 18:3, 4) and for those who are faithful to the Lord to come out of her. The people once claiming to be of God are in both cases called out of the city and bidden to attend the marriage supper. Just as God called the Apostolic Christians to separate from the Jews for their rejection of the gospel (Act 13:46), so it was necessary for the faithful during the Advent Movement to separate from the apostate churches

Lk 14:21

Lk 14:21 - the poor, and the maimed, and the halt and the blind - those who were gathered into one spiritual fold are spoken of as the "maimed," "the halt," and "the blind," which strongly suggests the ill treatment they had received from the "smiting" of their "fellow-servants," from whom they had been separated. {The Great Second Advent Movement, pg 122, JN Loughborough}; Mt 24:

Lk 14:22

Lk 14:22 - and yet there is room - God has ample room in His kingdom for all who choose to attend. See Rev 7:9; Joh 14:2

Lk 14:23

Lk 14:23 - compel them to come in - Augustine wrote: "It is indeed better that men should be brought to serve God by instruction than by fear of punishment, or by pain. But because the former means are better, the latter must not therefore be neglected... Many must often be brought back to their Lord, like wicked servants, by the rod of temporal suffering, before they attain to the highest grade of religious development."—(Schaff 's Church History, vol. 2, sec. 27). Of this theory Neander remarks:— It was by Augustine, then, that a theory was proposed and founded, which... contained the germ of that whole system of spiritual despotism, of intolerance and persecution, which ended in the tribunals of the Inquisition.—(Church History, p. 217).

Lk 14:24

Lk 14:24 - none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper - None who were first to be invited by my grace and mercy and rejected, will taste of God's supper. See Rev 19:6-9; Act 13:46; Mt 11:16, 17; Lk 7:31, 32

Lk 14:26

Lk 14:26 - If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters - Jesus speaks of the need to love, prefer and place God with all the heart, soul, mind, and strength, which leaves no room for any other affections. He is not stating that we must have hatred towards these individuals, but we must not permit familial or any other relations to come in the way of our relationship with God. See Gal 1:15, 16

Lk 14:26

Lk 14:26 - and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple - unless we are willing to deny ourselves and live out the life that the Lord has appointed to us, we can not be His disciples. We must be willing to walk away from any and everything if so called, to follow Christ, and thus we will be His disciple. See Lk 9:23, 24; 18:18-24, 14:33; Act 20:24

Lk 14:27

Lk 14:27 - And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. See Lk 9:23; Mk 8:34; Mt 16:24

Lk 14:28

Lk 14:28 - counteth the cost - we must count the cost of walking with Christ - what we are willing to forsake, turn away from and yield in order to gain eternal life.

Lk 14:28

Lk 14:28 - whether he have sufficient to finish it? - we must assess if it is worth investing in, starting so that we may have the work finished, before we begin. We must evaluate if heaven, the mind of Christ, the fellowship with God and the holy angels, the bliss of eternal life and the unseen bounties God has prepared for us is worth the things of this world.

Lk 14:29

Lk 14:29 - Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it - he does not permit Christ to finish the work He has started in him; he draws back to perdition. See

Heb 10:39; Habakkuk 2:

Lk 14:33

Lk 14:33 - So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple - See Lk 14:26; Mt 19:21-23

Lk 14:34

Lk 14:34 - Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned? - Salt not only brings out the flavor in other things, enhancing, but it is a preservative, keeping other things from decay. See Mt 5:13; Mk 9:50

Lk 15:1

Lk 15:1 - Then drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him - Jesus found an audience with all the marginalized and outcasts of society. True to His counsels, Jesus invited all, especially those who would never be invited and as a result, he won their love. See Mt 11:28-30; Lk 14:12-14;

Lk 15:1

Lk 15:1 - publicans - the people appointed as tax collectors by the despised Rom, to collect taxes from their own, the Jews. The publicans were seen as traitors and were themselves often extortioners and thieves, taking more than they ought to take for personal gain - See 1Cor 6:10

Lk 15:1

Lk 15:1 - sinners - See 1Cor 6:9, 10 homosexuals (LGBTQ+), thieves, adulterers, fornicators, drunkards, prostitutes and those who patronize them; the vile; even the poor (see Mt 19:24, 25; Mk 10:25, 26; Lk 18:25, 26)

Lk 15:2

Lk 15:2 - And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them - The leadership had not learned of the very counsels Jesus offered them. See Isa 65:5; Lk 14:7-14; Mk 2:16, 17

Lk 15:2

Lk 15:2 - murmured - criticized Jesus for entertaining those who they viewed as sinners.

Lk 15:2

Lk 15:2 - This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them - How different are Christians, the ones who claim to be followers of Jesus today! Most Christians shun the presence of such "sinners", when Jesus calls us to be the salt of the earth, to welcome and embrace them so that we might win them to Jesus Christ - See 1Cor 9:19-23

Lk 15:4

Lk 15:4 - What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness - a possible reference to the number of worlds God has created and this earth is the one lost world that has gone astray.

Lk 15:4

Lk 15:4 - What man of you..? - Jesus asks the question, which of you would not do this same thing that I am about to describe. Jesus is asking us to think about ourselves and see if we think this same way. If so, praise the Lord, if not, we must ask Jesus for a new heart so that we might think as He thinks.

Lk 15:4

Lk 15:4 - if he lose one of them - the Shepherd is very attentive and knows if even one of His sheep are missing. He numbers them and calls them all by name. See Ps 119:176; Isa 40:26

Lk 15:4

Lk 15:4 - go after that which is lost, until he find it? - The limited application of this parable is when a person has fallen away from the church, a pastor, elder or someone ought to go after that person and seek to bring them back to the fold. The broader application applies to the entire world which has gone astray and Jesus has sought after us to redeem us. See Ps 119:176; Ezek 34:12-16; Jesus made worlds: Heb 1:2, 11:3; Rev 12:12

Lk 15:5

Lk 15:5 - And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing - the shepherd realized that he was in a race against time and the elements [predators, the sheep wandering off into an unsolvable situation] that would seek to take His sheep's life. When He finds His sheep alive and unharmed, He rejoices for God's mercy upon it.

Lk 15:6

Lk 15:6 - he calleth together his friends and neighbours - representing the angels, elders and heads of the worlds

Lk 15:6

Lk 15:6 - Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost - The Shepherd of our souls, Jesus and the Father's greatest desire is to receive their sheep safe and sound. See Lk 15:27

Lk 15:7

Lk 15:7 - I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth - heaven resounds with shouts of praise to God for His wonderful works towards the children of men as we individually accept Jesus and purpose to live for Him. The angel's which delight to look into the Science of Salvation (1Pet 1:12), lift their harps and voices while the seraphim continually sing holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts. See Isa 6:3; Rev 5:9-14; Lk 15:10, 23

Lk 15:7

Lk 15:7 - one sinner that repenteth - 1. A person acknowledges that they are a sinner; they have not abided in Jesus and have sinned against God and His Law - Rom 3:23 2. A person acknowledges that they are guilty and deserve death - Rom 6:23 3. A person recognizes that they can not save themselves, but need a Savior - Eph 2:1-5 4. A person confesses their sin and asks Jesus for forgiveness - 1Jo 1:9 5. A person accepts Jesus' forgiveness by faith and asks Jesus to help them forgive themselves - 1Jo 1:7, 9; Zech 3:1-5 6. A person yields to Jesus and asks Him into his/her heart to abide in Him - Eph 1:13, 14; Act 2:38, 39; Rom 5:5 7. A person walks in newness of life, believing God and His promises - 2Cor 5:17;

Lk 15:8

Lk 15:8 - ten pieces of silver - The 10 Commandments. Ex 20:1-17

Lk 15:8

Lk 15:8 - light a candle - search the scriptures. See Ps 119:105

Lk 15:8

Lk 15:8 - sweep the house - humble oneself, confess sins and seek God's grace and mercy to purify. See Mt 12:44

Lk 15:8

Lk 15:8 - seek diligently - blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness. We are to seek God's word as for hidden treasures and we will find what we desire and much more! - Mt 5:6; Heb 11:6

Lk 15:9

Lk 15:9 - And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together - the glad tidings of truth are to be shared with friends and neighbors as we find them.

Lk 15:9

Lk 15:9 - Rejoice with me - The comprehension of truth, the glad reception of the message is represented in the eating of the little book. 1MR 100.1

Lk 15:10

Lk 15:10 - I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth - heaven resounds with shouts of praise to God for His wonderful works towards the children of men as we individually accept Jesus and purpose to live for Him. The angel's which delight to look into the Science of Salvation (1Pet 1:12), lift their harps and voices while the seraphim continually sing holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts. See Isa 6:3; Rev 5:9-14; Lk 15:7, 23

Lk 15:12

Lk 15:12 - Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me - the arrogance of the son to ask for his portion of the father's inheritance he should receive when the father dies, even while the father is still living speaks of the young son's selfish nature.

Lk 15:13

Lk 15:13 - and there wasted his substance with riotous living - See Jer 31:18, 19; Mic 7:9

Lk 15:15

Lk 15:15 - And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine - context is key in the parable. We are to assume that Jesus is speaking to Jews and therefore, swine were not only unclean but an abomination for anyone to handle. Jesus thus placed the young Jewish man in the parable in a deplorable and shameful position. Lev 11:7, 8; Deut 14:8; Isa 66:17; Mt 8:30-33

Lk 15:16 - to do something gladly under some kind of necessity.

Lk 15:17

Lk 15:17 - And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! - See Hosea 2:7 The love of God still yearns over the one who has chosen to separate from Him, and He sets in operation influences to bring him back to the Father's house. The prodigal son in his wretchedness "came to himself." The deceptive power that Satan had exercised over him was broken. He saw that his suffering was the result of his own folly, and he said, "How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father." Miserable as he was, the prodigal found hope in the conviction of his father's love. It was that love which was drawing him toward home.... - {CSA 12.6}

Lk 15:17

Lk 15:17 - How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare - In our Father's house, there plenty enough of everything, and to spare. God always makes provisions and an over abundance so that all may be included. See Lk 14:22

Lk 15:18

Lk 15:18 - I have sinned against heaven, and before thee - the son comes confessing that he was wrong and has sinned. This is right and appropriate but it alone is not which opens the father's heart of compassion. The father was anticipating and desiring his return each day for he knew his son was not safe while away from home. The father's only concern was for his son's safety and well being, just like the Good Shepherd. See Lk 15:4, 5; Ps 32:5

Lk 15:20

Lk 15:20 - But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him - the Father was actively looking and waiting to see the arrival of His wayward son. - See Jer 31:3

Lk 15:21

Lk 15:21 - and am no more worthy to be called thy son - the son spoke in the spirit of men, who would disown such a wayward son, if not kill him.

Lk 15:22

Lk 15:22 - But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: - The father will permit no contemptuous eye to mock at his son's misery and tatters. He takes from his own shoulders the broad, rich mantle, and wraps it around the son's wasted form, and the youth sobs out his repentance, saying, "Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son." [25] - {CSA 13.3} Love covers over a multitude of sins - 1Pet 4:8

Lk 15:23

Lk 15:23 - let us eat, and be merry: - See Lk 15:7, 10

Lk 15:24

Lk 15:24 - For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found - the Father gives the reasons for celebration, he who was dead is made alive and lost, found. This should kindle in the hearts of men a sense of compassion, empathy and joy for the restoration of one that was lost. - See Eph 2:1-5

Lk 15:27

Lk 15:27 - because he hath received him safe and sound - This is the Father's greatest desire, to receive all of His children safe and sound. See Lk 15:4, 5

Lk 15:28

Lk 15:28 - And he was angry - the elder brother was angry because: 1. His younger brother was received safely without a public shaming as he thought he deserved 2. He, the older brother thought his younger brother was not entitled to anything more because he took his portion of the inheritance and wasted it, while "lowering" the quality of life, standard and potential for everyone else. He had no love for his brother or his fate. 3. He, the older brother thought he deserved the fatted calf 4. He, the older brother thought he should be celebrated by his father for his "loyalty" and not his reprobate brother (See Rom 4:3-6) 5. He, the older brother, failed to realize that he was as much a debtor and a direct beneficiary of the Father's love, grace and mercy. He couldn't see his own wretchedness for constantly looking at the wretchedness of others 6. He, the older brother was blind to his condition, not able to give heed to the bigger picture due to his own selfishness. The redemption of his brother is of greater value than anything else in the world, yet, his selfish blindness would not permit him to see anything beyond his own self-interests. The older brother lacked the "kingdom of God" mindset whose sole desire is to glorify God the Father and see God the Father glorified!

Lk 15:29

Lk 15:26 - Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment - the older son's service was not out of loving gratitude for his father and all that he abundantly provided, but was out of selfish gain. He did not realize that his life and living conditions were sustained from the grace of his loving father, but thought he was owed, or rather he was earning his right to remain in the home and receive an inheritance. The attitude of the older son was pagan, selfish in nature. See Rom 4:3, 4; Gal 5:5, 6 But in heaven, service is not rendered in the spirit of legality. When Satan rebelled against the law of Jehovah, the thought that there was a law came to the angels almost as an awakening to something unthought of. In their ministry the angels are not as servants, but as sons. There is perfect unity between them and their Creator. Obedience is to them no drudgery. Love for God makes their service a joy. So in every soul wherein Christ, the hope of glory, dwells, His words are re-echoed, "I delight to do Thy will, O My God: yea, Thy law is within My heart." Ps 40:8. - {MB 109.2}

Lk 15:31

Lk 15:31 - And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine - See Mt 24:47

Lk 15:32

Lk 15:32 - for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found - See Eph 2:1; Col 2:13

Lk 16:1

Lk 16:1 - There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods - the parable is spoken against the Pharisees and all who are entrusted with their Master's goods, all the oracles of God and the light regarding mankind's salvation. The unjust stewards wasted God's wealth on pride, self-seeking, the love of money and power. They in turn, in their shrewdness, gained riches for themselves and made a covenant with their riches (death and hell - Isa 28:15, 18) so that when hard times arise, they thought they would be secure. Jesus warns that if they have not been faithful in another's wealth and possessions, how will they be faithful to that which is entrusted to them.

Lk 16:4

Lk 16:4 - when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses - the shrewd servant would gain favor the master's debtors so that they would think kindly of him in the future.

Lk 16:8

Lk 16:8 - And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely - the lord apparently had no clue of that which was owed to him, so by collecting even a fraction of that which was owed, was commendable to the steward by the Lord. This was true shrewdness on the part of the unjust steward!

Lk 16:8

Lk 16:8 - for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light - The children of the world are more shrewd, cunning, subtle than the sons of light. See Gen 3:1 || Jam 3:15, 16; Ezek 28:3; 1Cor 3:18-20; Jer 4:22; Compare Rom 16:19

Lk 16:8

Lk 16:8 - wiser - the wisdom of the children of the earth is not from above but from beneath. See Jam 3:15-17

Lk 16:9

Lk 16:9 - Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations - this statement almost appears as sarcasm. Jesus is showing the futility in wealth, riches, status and anything of this world. Any covenant we make with death and the grave will be disannulled. See Isa 28:15, 18

Lk 16:10

Lk 16:10 - and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much - See Mal 3:8

Lk 16:11

Lk 16:11 - the unrighteous mammon - all the wealth and riches of this world are unrighteous because they are corruptible, are passing away and the lusts of them. See Mt 6:19, 20; 1Jo 2:16

Lk 16:11

Lk 16:12 - who will commit to your trust the true riches? - the true riches begin with the mind and character of Jesus Christ [selflessness and Kingdom focused] and include the fruit of the Holy Spirit, the righteousness of Jesus Christ and the gift of salvation which opens the storehouse to eternal blessings!!

Lk 16:12

Lk 16:12 - And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own? - that which is ours to claim is the crown of eternal life which we are counseled to guard diligently and not permit that someone else rob us of. Yet, if we steal from another that which is theirs, we will not receive that which is ours. See Mal 3:8-11

Lk 16:13

Lk 16:13 - Ye cannot serve God and mammon - we can not love and serve the riches of this world while claiming to love God. It's either or. See Jam 5:1-6

Lk 16:14

Lk 16:14 - And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him - the apostle Lk sets-up the central theme of Jesus' parables to follow by referencing the unfaithfulness and covetousness of the Pharisees who loved money. See Col 3:5; James 5:1-6

Lk 16:15

Lk 16:15 - Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God - Pride of life, seeking to gain the approval of men at the expense of integrity, uprightness, justice, etc. See Joh 12:43; Job 9:20; Isa 64:6; Lk 16:25

Lk 16:15

Lk 16:15 - but God knoweth your hearts - See 1Chron 28:9; Ps 7:9

Lk 16:15

Lk 16:15 - for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God - the Pharisees were known for their meticulousness in paying tithes, even down to the leaves of the herbs they grew, while neglecting the weightier matters of the law like judgment (fairness), mercy, and faith. See Mt 23:23, 24; Prov 6:16-19

Lk 16:16

Lk 16:16 - The law and the prophets were until Joh - the Old Covenant message described in the Law and the Prophets, which was a school teacher for the Jews was relevant until the coming of Joh the Baptist. Joh introduced the New Covenant message and the Kingdom of God at hand. See Gal 3:23, 24;

Lk 16:16

Lk 16:16 - since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it - See Gal 3:22-26

Lk 16:17

Lk 16:17 - And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail - heaven and earth must cease to exist before the crossing of a "t" is removed from the law. Therefore, since the law remains, we must refrain from sin though under grace. See Rom 6:15

Lk 16:18

Lk 16:18 - Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery. - See Mk 10:5; 19:8

Lk 16:19

Lk 16:19-31 - Rich man and Lazarus is a parable given by Jesus with the purpose of contrasting the fait of those who love riches on the earth and the poor in spirit. The following challenges exist with claiming the parable justifies life after death and an immediate translation to heaven or hell: 1. The dead will not be carried to the bosom of Abraham but to the bosom of the Father (Joh 1:18). The Jews claimed to be heirs of Abraham and therefore felt that they were entitled to salvation and heaven. Jesus is playing upon this false belief in suggesting the man Lazarus is taken to Abraham's bosom 2. The communication of the dead is used for effect to illustrate the arrogant, unrepentant disposition of the rich man, who while in hell, still feels superior to Lazarus, though abiding in the bosom of Abraham 3. The Jews over time had adopted false, pagan teachings of death that Jesus did not spend time trying to address. Included in these false doctrines was the teaching that one's spirit continued to hover over one's body in death for up to three days after one has died. This Jesus sought to accommodate by remaining a forth day away from Lazarus' dead body before raising him from the dead so there would be no suspicion of Jesus' miracle. 4. Jesus accuses the Pharisees that even if one were raised from the dead and communicated with the living about the gospel, they still would not believe in Him. Thus was the case with the Pharisees towards Jesus' miracle with the literal man Lazarus, of which the parable was an allegory.

Lk 16:19

Lk 16:19-31 - There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores - See Lk 12:16-21; Jam 5:1-6 Rich man and Lazarus is a parable given by Jesus with the purpose of contrasting the fait of those who love riches on the earth [the covetous - Lk 12:15] and the poor in spirit. Jesus does not seek to correct every error of the Jews, but uses them and in certain cases contrasts them to present object lessons. The following challenges exist with claiming the parable justifies life after death and an immediate translation to heaven or hell: 1. The dead will not be carried to the bosom of Abraham but to the bosom of the Father (Joh 1:18). The Jews claimed to be heirs of Abraham and therefore felt that they were entitled to salvation and heaven. Jesus is playing upon this false belief in suggesting the man Lazarus is taken to Abraham's bosom 2. The communication of the dead is used for effect to illustrate the arrogant, unrepentant disposition of the rich man, who while in hell, still feels superior to Lazarus, though abiding in the bosom of Abraham 3. The Jews over time had adopted false, pagan teachings of death that Jesus did not spend time trying to address. Included in these false doctrines was the teaching that one's spirit continued to hover over one's body in death for up to three days after one has died. This Jesus sought to accommodate by remaining a forth day away from Lazarus' dead body before raising him from the dead so there would be no suspicion of Jesus' miracle. 4. Jesus accuses the Pharisees that even if one were raised from the dead and communicated with the living about the gospel, they still would not believe in Him. Thus was the case with the Pharisees towards Jesus' miracle with the literal man Lazarus, of which the parable was an allegory.

Lk 16:19

Lk 16:19 - fared sumptuously every day - See Rev 18:9

Lk 16:20

Lk 16:20 - And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores - the rich man can make no claim to ignorance sins Lazarus was laid at his gate. The very same thing is occurring today around places of affluence in major cities, where the rich seek to have the homeless removed from sight so that they do not feel any accountability to assist. See Mt 25:31-46; Prov 29:7

Lk 16:21

Lk 16:21 - And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table - See Mt 15:27; Mk 7:28

Lk 16:21

Lk 16:21 - moreover the dogs came and licked his sores - Jesus suggests that the beasts have more compassion for the poor beggar than this rich man, full of means.

Lk 16:22

Lk 16:22 - And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried - Jesus plays upon the popular misconception at the time and today, that the wealthy are so, because of the favor of God. Jesus deliberately shoots down this self-serving fable of the wealthy to reveal their true condition and fate if they do not repent and act generously towards God and men. The Bible in Rev 14:14-16 specifies a time in which the earth will be reaped of its harvest, the precious fruit of the earth (Jam 5:7), when Jesus will gather in all of His children into His garner. This reveals that the statements of Christ are again a parable, where the dead are taken to heaven or hell at death. The Bible never speaks of heaven as the bosom of Abraham so it is to be understood that this is a parable, where Jesus again plays upon the self-righteous pride of the Jews who claimed to be Abraham's descendants and therefore, did not need repentance and forgiveness of sins. See Mt 19:24-30, Mt 12:15-21, 8:11, 12; Joh 8:33, 9:28; Lk 3:7-9, 13:28 Nowhere in the Sacred Scriptures is found the statement that the righteous go to their reward or the wicked to their punishment at death. The patriarchs and prophets have left no such assurance. Christ and His apostles have given no hint of it. The Bible clearly teaches that the dead do not go immediately to heaven. They are represented as sleeping until the resurrection. 1 Thessalonians 4:14; Job 14:10-12. In the very day when the silver cord is loosed and the golden bowl broken (Ecclesiastes 12:6), man's thoughts perish. They that go down to the grave are in silence. They know no more of anything that is done under the sun. Job 14:21. Blessed rest for the weary righteous! Time, be it long or short, is but a moment to them. They sleep; they are awakened by the trump of God to a glorious immortality. "For the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible.... So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory." 1 Corinthians 15:52-54. As they are called forth from their deep slumber they begin to think just where they ceased. The last sensation was the pang of death; the last thought, that they were falling beneath the power of the grave. When they arise from the tomb, their first glad thought will be echoed in the triumphal shout: "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" Verse 55. - {GC 549.3}

Lk 16:23 - And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom - See Mt 19:23-30

Lk 16:24

Lk 16:23 - Father Abraham - Again, Jesus uses the Pharisees' false claim of being sons of Abraham because of their lineage alone. Both Joh the Baptist and the Apostle Paul plainly affirm that the sons of Abraham are those who enter into the Kingdom of God by faith of Jesus Christ. See Lk 3:1-10; Rom 4:1-17; Gal 3:26-29 This indeed is truly a parable, because the Bible affirms that there is only one Mediator between God and man, the Man, Christ Jesus: 1Tim 2:5 In the apostasy, man alienated himself from God; earth was cut off from heaven. Across the gulf that lay between, there could be no communion. But through Christ, earth is again linked with heaven. With His own merits, Christ has bridged the gulf which sin had made, so that the ministering angels can hold communion with man. Christ connects fallen man in his weakness and helplessness with the Source of infinite power. - {SC 20.1}

Lk 16:24

Lk 16:24 - send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue - the prideful, arrogant, privilege, self-exaltation, and demanding of the rich is portrayed here by Christ, even in this one who is in the torments of hell.

Lk 16:25

Lk 16:25 - remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things - Jesus restates that the wicked already have their reward in this life, including the praises of men, and will receive no more reward. See Mt 6:2-6, 16-18; Lk 16:15; Isa 65:13-15; Jam 5:1-8; Ps 73:1-19

Lk 16:25

Lk 16:25 - but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented - The first will be last and the last will be first. See Mt 19:30, 20:16; Isa 65:16-25; Ps 73:1-17

Lk 16:26

Lk 16:26 - between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence - there is a great gulf fixed between heaven and earth caused by sin. Jesus has bridged the gap as the ladder from heaven to earth, reconciling us to the Father through His blood. Gen 28:12; Joh 1:50, 51, 7:34, 8:21; 2Cor 5:18-21; Col 1:20

Lk 16:27

Lk 16:27 - Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: - still arrogantly not addressing Lazarus, though asking a favor of him, the rich man appeals to Abraham to have Lazarus appear from the dead to his brothers so they not end up in hell. This again is a parable because the dead know not anything, yet, Jesus again appeals to the pagan beliefs adopted by the Jews regarding the dead, that their spirit hover above the body for 3days before going to heaven. See Joh 11:13-17

Lk 16:28

Lk 16:28 - For I have five brethren - the rich man plus his five brothers totals 6, the number of a sinful man.

Lk 16:29

Lk 16:29 - They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them - See John 1:45; 5:38-40 Jesus asserts that if the wicked would take heed to the Law and the testimonies (Moses and the Prophets - Isa 58:6-14), they would not have to worry about being in torments in hell. In the parable, Abraham would not honor the request of the rich man in torments, stating, if they would not listen to the word of God, they would not honor one's counsel, even if he came from the dead. Here, Jesus puts the capstone on the Jew's hard heartedness. He shows that they reject the testimony of the true man Lazarus, who Jesus resurrected from the grave (Joh 11:14-44) as well as the Law and the Prophets, leaving themselves without hope of salvation.

Lk 16:30

Lk 16:30 - And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent - If one arose from the dead, the wicked would supposedly repent. This was not the case with the Pharisees, who plotted to kill not only Jesus, but Lazarus who He raised from the dead. See Joh 11:46-53, 12:9-11

Lk 16:31

Lk 16:31 - If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead - Jesus affirms that the very ones who refuse to give heed to the Law and Testimonies (Moses and the prophets) which all give testimony of Him, will still not repent and believe in Jesus even after He performs His greatest feat in resurrecting His friend and follower Lazarus. See Joh 11, 4:48

Lk 17:1

Lk 17:1 - Then said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come! - In the world we will have trouble and will be offended by the selfishness and callousness of others. Jesus however, laments the fait of those who bring the offenses without repentance. See Joel 3:2-17; Lk 18:7, 8

Lk 17:2

Lk 17:2 - It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones - God is particularly vexed at those who corrupt, take advantage of or abuse an innocent child. Jesus continues His dual application of "children" to be both literal children, as well as those who are new, or child-like in the faith of Jesus Christ. Jesus has a special regard for children, that they be handled properly because God places a close watch over them (Mt 18:10; Eph 6:4; Gal 4:19). See Mk 7:9; Rom 1:18, 14:7, 13; 1Cor 8:4-13; Rev 18:21

Lk 17:3

Lk 17:3 - Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him - we are to forgive when others ask for forgiveness. We are to forgive if others do not ask for forgiveness, however, the relationship may be harmed.

Lk 17:4

Lk 17:4 - And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him - Jesus is teaching that there ought be no bounds to our forgiveness, just as our Father freely forgives us. See Mic 6:8 The Father's forgiveness: Isa 43: - blot out our transgressions for His name sake

Lk 17:5

Lk 17:5 - And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith - The disciples made a request that would provide Christ an opportunity for giving an object lesson. We must eternally see ourselves as beneficiaries of Christ's mercy and grace and thus maintain an attitude of gratitude, willing submission and free service to His honor and glory.

Lk 17:6

Lk 17:6 - And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you - true faith moves mountains, casts down strongholds, removes obstacles that hinder our growth in God and sanctification.

Lk 17:6

Lk 17:5 - Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you - just as Jesus cursed the unprofitable fig tree and it immediately died, so we too may speak to those things which do not bear fruit in our lives and by the power of God, cause it to die - "cast down every idol break down every foe". See Mk 11:13-20 - See Hymn #318 Whiter than Snow

Lk 17:7

Lk 17:7 - Go and sit down to meat? - See Lk 12:37

Lk 17:9

Lk 17:9 - Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not - Are we to be thanked and praised for performing the things that are reasonably required of us? No, I think not, Jesus says. See Lk 17:10

Lk 17:10

Lk 17:10 - So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you - We need the mind of Christ that sees any service for God as a privilege and our reasonable service for all that the Lord has done for us. This attitude wars against the flesh, self-righteousness and pride. See Gal 6:9; Lk 17:12-19; Mt 5:46-48; Rom 12:1, 2; Phil 2:5-8; Mic 6:8

Lk 17:10

Lk 17:10 - We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do - We are "good for nothing" servants after we have done all that we have been commanded to do. In other words, we are to have a humble conception of any good works we have done and recognize it is the least we can do, our reasonable service. See Rom 12:1, 2; Phlm 1:18-21

Christ's followers have been redeemed for service. Our Lord teaches that the true object of life is ministry. Christ Himself was a worker, and to all His followers He gives the law of service—service to God and to their fellow men. Here Christ has presented to the world a higher conception of life than they had ever known. By living to minister for others, man is brought into connection with Christ. The law of service becomes the connecting link which binds us to God and to our fellow men. - {COL 326.3} The most splendid offerings may be laid upon the altar of God, and men will praise, exalt, and laud the giver because of his liberality. In what? "All things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee." No work of man can merit for him the pardoning love of God, but the love of God pervading the soul will lead him to do those things which were always required of God and that he should do with pleasure. He has done only that which duty ever required of him. - {1888 815.1};

Lk 17:12

Lk 17:12 - And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off - Jesus passed by a leper colony, seeking whom He might bless.

Lk 17:14

Lk 17:14 - And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed - as we exercise faith, trusting in God's word and promises, we receive our blessing. See Ex 14:15-21; Joshua 3:13-17; Rom 4:2-5

Lk 17:15

Lk 17:15 - And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God - only one in ten, himself being a Samaritan, turned back to give God thanks for His wonderful works towards him.

Lk 17:17

Lk 17:19 - Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine? - Jesus shows that ministry can be a thankless job. We should not be surprised when we are not shown the gratitude that should be expected of our good works towards others. God shows mercy to the masses for the sake of the remnant. This will not always be the case, but rather, God will eventually deliver the remnant and destroy the wicked. See Lk 17:27, 29; Eze 18:20

Lk 17:18

Lk 17:18 - save this stranger - For the sake of this one man, who would make a right use of the blessing of health, Jesus healed the whole ten. The nine passed on without appreciating the work done, and rendered no grateful thanks to Jesus for doing the work. - {3T 180.1}

Lk 17:19

Lk 17:19 - thy faith hath made thee whole - See Mt 9:22, 29, 8:13; Mk 5:34; Lk 8:48

Lk 17:20

Lk 17:20 - And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come - the Pharisees inquired of the Lord when will God's Kingdom come. Their desire was for an earthly kingdom, when Messiah would come and rule with a rod of iron and tread down upon all of their enemies. Their perversion of the prophecies of God is not unlike the perversions of the prophecies of God today, teaching of a "Secret Rapture" that will leave the wicked behind to endure tribulation while the righteous are saved in heaven. See Lk

17:34-37

Lk 17:20

Lk 17:20 - The kingdom of God cometh not with observation - See Joh 6:29, 30; Mt 6:33, 34; Mk 10:15 The kingdom of God comes not with outward show. The gospel of the grace of God, with its spirit of self-abnegation, can never be in harmony with the spirit of the world. The two principles are antagonistic. "The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." 1 Corinthians 2:14. - {DA 509.1} But today in the religious world there are multitudes who, as they believe, are working for the establishment of the kingdom of Christ as an earthly and temporal dominion. They desire to make our Lord the ruler of the kingdoms of this world, the ruler in its courts and camps, its legislative halls, its palaces and market places. They expect Him to rule through legal enactments, enforced by human authority. Since Christ is not now here in person, they themselves will undertake to act in His stead, to execute the laws of His kingdom. The establishment of such a kingdom is what the Jews desired in the days of Christ. They would have received Jesus, had He been willing to establish a temporal dominion, to enforce what they regarded as the laws of God, and to make them the expositors of His will and the agents of His authority. But He said, "My kingdom is not of this world." Joh 18:36. He would not accept the earthly throne. - {DA 509.2} The government under which Jesus lived was corrupt and oppressive; on every hand were crying abuses,—extortion, intolerance, and grinding cruelty. Yet the Saviour attempted no civil reforms. He attacked no national abuses, nor condemned the national enemies. He did not interfere with the authority or administration of those in power. He who was our example kept aloof from earthly governments. Not because He was indifferent to the woes of men, but because the remedy did not lie in merely human and external measures. To be efficient, the cure must reach men individually, and must regenerate the heart. - {DA 509.3}

Lk 17:21

Lk 17:21 - for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you - this statement was an utter disappointment and "hard saying" to the Pharisees and people (see Joh 6:53-66) who desired a kingdom where Messiah would subdue all of their enemies and place Israel as the ruling people over all others upon the earth. - See Isa 57:15; Philippians 3:20; Eph 1:14, 18, 19, 2:6, 19; Rom 5:5; 2Cor 5:17; Mk 10:15; Col 1:13, 14 The Kingdom of God is come as Jesus is come in the flesh, my mortal flesh, by faith of Jesus Christ. See 1Jo 4:1-4; Act 1:8, 3:20; 2Cor 4:16; Col 1:25-29 Jesus when He came to the earth declared, the Kingdom of God is at hand (here) - Mt 4:17; Lk 9:27-36 1. Jesus is the embodiment of God and God's Kingdom and all its glory - Col 2:9 2. God's kingdom is immovable and eternal - it will never pass away: - Heb 12:28 KINGDOMS OF WORLD VS. GOD'S Kingdoms of the World 1. Honor is given to those who are born to certain families, who have wealth, who have education, who live in certain places, who are of a certain race/class 2. The king has armies that go out to battle to fight for him. He sends men out to die for his own honor and glory 3. The king and his family believe God gave them the right to rule over everyone else 4. The people (subjects) of the kingdom, who are often themselves poor, must pay taxes to maintain the king's lavish (expensive) lifestyle: they must keep and maintain the king's palace; they must provide food for him, his family, and his friends; they must provide expensive clothing for he and his family to wear; no one gets to enjoy the lavish lifestyle the king lives except himself, his family, and his friends Kingdom of God: 1. Honor is given to those who see the value in God's Kingdom and place it first above all other priorities in life. Those who seek/desire to be transformed by God to become like those in His Kingdom are honored 2. God Himself left heaven to fight for the people of His kingdom. He died for those in His kingdom in order to rescue them from harm and danger forever 3. God is King over His Kingdom, He created all things, He sustains (keeps everything alive) all things, and He has the right to rule 4. God has provided a mansion and a country home for every person in His kingdom to inhabit. God provides food for everyone in His Kingdom. God provides pure white raiment (clothing) for everyone to wear. God lives among His people, not apart from them

Lk 17:22 - The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it - a similar statement is spoken by Jesus to those who rejected Him, but with a totally different meaning (Joh 8:21). Jesus stated that the disciples would long for Jesus' personal counsel, assurance and comfort that they enjoyed while He walked the earth, but would not be able to find it. On the contrary, when speaking to those who rejected Him, Jesus stated that they would seek for Him, recognizing their lost and desperate condition and would not be able to find Him. See Am 8:11-14

Lk 17:23

Lk 17:23 - And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: go not after them, nor follow them - See Mt 24:26

Lk 17:24

Lk 17:24 - For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day - every eye will see Jesus coming in the clouds of glory - See Rev 1:7, 6:12-17

Lk 17:25

Lk 17:25 - But first must he suffer many things - the prophet Isa described Jesus as "despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed" (Isa 53:3-5).

Lk 17:25

Lk 17:25 - and be rejected of this generation - Jesus forespoke of Israel's rejection of Him, the Desire of the Nations (Hag 2:7), leading to their close of probation and utter destruction. See Joh 1:11, 5:46, 7:26, 45-48, 19:15; Mt 17:17; Lk 9:41

Lk 17:27

Lk 17:27 - They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage - Jesus states the course of life will continue as always, but sudden destruction will seize those who were unaware, not heeding the warnings nor making preparation for the things which were to come.

Lk 17:27

Lk 17:27 - until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all - God's retributive judgment upon the wicked will fall suddenly, unexpectedly and decisively. See Lk 17:17

Lk 17:29

Lk 17:29 - But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all - God's retributive judgment upon the wicked will fall suddenly, unexpectedly and decisively. See Lk 17:17; Gen 19:1-29

Lk 17:30

Lk 17:30 - Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed - when Jesus returns, men will continue with the things of life as normal, but the end of all things will come upon them unaware.

Lk 17:31

Lk 17:31 - In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back. - Jesus juxtaposes the destruction of Jerusalem with His Second Coming in the prior and subsequent verses.

Lk 17:32

Lk 17:32 - Remember Lot's wife - Lot's wife failed to show gratitude for the deliverance wrought in her life. She selfishly looked back, bemoaning the loss of the things she had accumulated, including her children, rather than thankfully running to the hills for her life - See Isa 43:18; Phil 3:13 While her body was upon the plain, her heart clung to Sodom, and she perished with it. She rebelled against God because His judgments involved her possessions and her children in the ruin. Although so greatly favored in being called out from the wicked city, she felt that she was severely dealt with, because the wealth that it had taken years to accumulate must be left to destruction. Instead of thankfully accepting deliverance, she presumptuously looked back to desire the life of those who had rejected the divine warning. Her sin showed her to be unworthy of life, for the preservation of which she felt so little gratitude. - {PP 161.2}

Lk 17:33

Lk 17:33 - and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it - As we surrender this life to the Lord and for His kingdom, we gain eternal life which is in Christ Jesus. See Gal 2:20; Rom 6:1-5; Joh 11:25; 1Jo 5:11-13

Lk 17:34

Lk 17:34 - I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left - the verse speaks of the fact that salvation is a personal thing. Though we all may have similar life experiences including perhaps our professions and share places to dwell, we individually must decide our eternal fate in Christ Jesus.

Lk 17:34

Lk 17:34 - in that night - in the day/night when Christ shall return. Jesus is likened to a thief that comes at night in that His arrival is unexpected, not so much that it must come at night.

Lk 17:34

Lk 17:34 - and the other shall be left - the other that is left will be left as a corpse for the birds to consume - See Lk 17:35-37; Rev 19:17, 18, 21; Jer 4:23-27

Lk 17:35

Lk 17:35 - and the other shall be left - the other that is left will be left as a corpse for the birds to consume - See Lk 17:34, 36, 37; Rev 19:17, 18, 21; Jer 4:23-27

Lk 17:36

Lk 17:36 - and the other left - the other that is left will be left as a corpse for the birds to consume - See Lk 17:34, 35, 37; Rev 19:17, 18, 21; Jer 4:23-27

Lk 17:37

Lk 17:37 - And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together - the fate of those left behind will be food for the birds. See Heb 12:29; 2Thess 2:8; Rev 19:17, 18, 21; Jer 4:23-26

Lk 18:1

Lk 18:1 - And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint - We must not grow weary in well doing and in prayer. Prayer unlocks the storehouse of God's blessings - See Lk 1:8-10 1Thess 5:17; Ex 30:8; 1Thessalonians 5:25; Eph 6:18-20; As the praying ones continued their earnest cries, at times a ray of light from Jesus came to them, to encourage their hearts and light up their countenances. Some, I saw, did not participate in this work of agonizing and pleading. They seemed indifferent and careless. They were not resisting the darkness around them, and it shut them in like a thick cloud. The angels of God left these and went to the aid of the earnest, praying ones. I saw angels of God hasten to the assistance of all who were struggling with all their power to resist the evil angels and trying to help themselves by calling upon God with perseverance. But His angels left those who made no effort to help themselves, and I lost sight of them. - {EW 270.1}

Lk 18:1

Lk 18:1 - and not to faint - See Heb 10:35, 36

Lk 18:2

Lk 18:2 - Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man - the unjust, carefree judge draws our minds to God by contrast in that he represents the antithesis, the polar opposite of Who God is. Jesus honored God and others above Himself. See Lk 19:20, 21; John 10:1-18

Lk 18:3

Lk 18:3 - And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying - the widow in the parable represents God's people the church who are being oppressed by an adversary.

Lk 18:3

Lk 18:3 - Avenge me of mine adversary - the church's adversary is the devil, who walks around as a lion, seeking whom he may devour. See 1Pet 5:8

Lk 18:5

Lk 18:5 - Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me - the woman had the spirit of Jacob, who was persistent and would not let the LORD go until He pronounced a blessing - Gen 32:24-28; Lk 11:8

Lk 18:7

Lk 18:7 - And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them? - the elect of God cry day and night as the persecutions of the wicked weigh heavily upon them. The literal cry of the elect is for God to "Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe" (Rev 14:14, 15). God however, will avenge His elect. See Rev 6:9-11, 13:10; Zech 12:8, 9; Lk 17:1

Lk 18:7

Lk 18:7 - which cry day and night unto him - speaking of the time of Jacob's Trouble when the elect will cry day and night for deliverance. Our prayers will be "Thy Kingdom Come!" See Jer 30:7; Zech 12:10; Rev 14:14, 15

Lk 18:8

Lk 18:8 - he will avenge them speedily - See Ps 146:7

Lk 18:8

Lk 18:8 - Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth? - Will Jesus find those who persevere in prayer, praying without ceasing, seeking Him continually in all things? Jesus has reserved a remnant who reflect His character and have the faith of Jesus Christ when He returns. A characteristic of those who exhibit Jesus' faith is that they pray without ceasing and not give up. See Rev 14:12; Prov 20:6; Lk 18:1; Mal 3:2; Hymn #533 O for a Faith

Lk 18:9

Lk 18:9 - And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: - See Lk 18:21; Prov 30:11-14; Rev 3:17; Isa 65:5

Lk 18:9

Lk 18:9 - trusted in themselves that they were righteous - we must place no confidence in flesh, especially our own. The LORD alone is our Righteousness - Jer 23:5, 6

Lk 18:10

Lk 18:10 - the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican - the one, a Pharisee, was admired of men; the other, the publican, was despised of men.

Lk 18:11

Lk 18:11 - The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself - Mt 6:5 Mark you, it was the self-righteous Pharisee who was not in a position of humility and reverence before God; but standing in his haughty self-sufficiency, he told the Lord all his good deeds. "The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself" (Lk 18:11); and his prayer reached no higher than himself. - {2SM 313.4}

Lk 18:11

Lk 18:11 - I thank thee, that I am not as other men are - This is a statement by one who is self-deceived (Rom 2:1; Rev 3:15-17)! The Bible says: "There is none righteous, no, not one: There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips: Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: Their feet are swift to shed blood: Destruction and misery are in their ways: And the way of peace have they not known: There is no fear of God before their eyes. (Rom 3:10-18) The Pharisee's boastful, self-righteous prayer showed that his heart was closed against the influence of the Holy Spirit. Because of his distance from God, he had no sense of his own defilement, in contrast with the perfection of the divine holiness. He felt no need, and he received nothing. - {SC 30.2}

Lk 18:11

Lk 18:11 - extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican - this self justifying Pharisee was dutiful to uphold the letter of the law, but not the Spirit of the Law. Unless we be married to Christ and walk in the newness of His life by faith, we will vainly seek to fulfill the law of God and never find peace with God. See Rom 7:4-12

Lk 18:11

Lk 18:11 - Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man - See Mt 5:27-30

Lk 18:12

Lk 18:12 - fast twice in the week - fasting is good of itself and Scriptural. Yet, fasting will not earn "credit" with God of itself. Fasting is to be a means to an end. We fast with the intention of: 1. Seeking a closer walk with the Lord; to commune with Him, to share in His suffering (Heb 5:8; Phil 3:10) 2. Getting to know His will (Isa 58:3-12) 3. To develop the discipline of self-denial so that we learn greater reliance and trust in Him (Heb 5:8) 4. Seek divine favor/intervention from the Lord (Mt 17:20, 21)

Lk 18:12

Lk 18:12 - I give tithes of all that I possess - tithing as a principle is Scriptural and upright. God has instituted the tithing principle to knit our hearts to Him, to His divine mission and the promotion of the work associated with His earthly Kingdom. Tithing helps us to recognize the source of our blessings so that we never become covetous thieves, robbing God of that which is His (Deut 8:11-17; Mal 3:8-12).

Lk 18:13

Lk 18:13 - And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. - The poor publican who prayed, "God be merciful to me a sinner" (Lk 18:13), regarded himself as a very wicked man, and others looked upon him in the same light; but he felt his need, and with his burden of guilt and shame he came before God, asking for His mercy. His heart was open for the Spirit of God to do its gracious work and set him free from the power of sin. The Pharisee's boastful, self-righteous prayer showed that his heart was closed against the influence of the Holy Spirit. Because of his distance from God, he had no sense of his own defilement, in contrast with the perfection of the divine holiness. He felt no need, and he received nothing. - {SC 30.2}

Lk 18:13

Lk 18:13 - smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner - See Ps 51:17; Jer 31:18, 19; Rom 4:3, 4;

Lk 18:14

Lk 18:14 - I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other - See Isa 57:15; Ps 34:18

Lk 18:14

Lk 18:14 - justified - pardoned

Lk 18:14

Lk 18:14 - for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased - See Joh 7:18; Lk 14:11; Jam 4:6; 1Pet 5:5

Lk 18:14

Lk 18:14 - and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted - See 1Peter 5:6; Isa 57:15; Ps 34:18

Lk 18:16

Lk 18:16 - Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God - children, women and widows, were often marginalized, looked down upon for their weakness (Lk 18:9). Jesus elevated each group during His ministry, instructing us to acknowledge them, respect them, include them, and treat them with kindness and concern. See Mt 18:5 Children are: 1. Light hearted and they have a buoyant spirit 2. Children are teachable and willing to learn 3. Children are willing to forgive and make friends 4. Children are trusting and believe what you say to them

Lk 18:17

Lk 18:15 - Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein - Little children are trusting, inquisitive, and have implicit faith in their parents. Children cherish friendships and relationships and are quick to forgive and forget. Children, when challenged with a problem, bring their problems to their parents who they believe can solve any problems. So we must be as children, meek and lowly, and always eager to learn towards our Heavenly Father. Further, we must receive all new babes in the faith as little children, gently, with care, tenderness and compassion.

Lk 18:18

Lk 18:18 - And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? - the ruler was rich and young, all that the world desires: wealth, youth and respect.

Lk 18:18

Lk 18:18 - Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? - the rich young ruler had no true conception of God and His Kingdom, and thus, no true or genuine desire, rather he sought a means to extend his present life of ease, pleasure, and status for eternity. See Joh 6:28, 29, 5:39, 40; Ex 19:8

Lk 18:19

Lk 18:19 - Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God. - See Rom 3:10-18, 23; 21, 22;

Lk 18:19

Lk 18:19 - none is good, save one, that is, God - See Neh 9:6; Ps 86:10

Lk 18:19

Lk 18:20 - none is good - See Rom 3:10-17, 23

Lk 18:20

Lk 18:20 - Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother - Jesus directs the rich, young ruler, filled with a desire for this world and his conception of heaven to consider the commandments, that which men felt would “earn” them eternal life. Jesus purposely omitted the tenth commandment which speaks of covetousness, the want and lustful desire for the things of this world. Covetousness speaks of our relationships with one another, do I seek to bless others or do I covet for myself. See Col 3:5

Lk 18:21

Lk 18:21 - All these have I kept from my youth up - coincidentally, Lk continues his description of those who “trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others” Lk 18:9 in citing the incident of the rich, young, ruler.

Lk 18:22

Lk 18:22 - Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing - Jesus spoke as the True Witness into the life of the rich, young, ruler. Jesus made plain, and laid bare, the true defects in his character and the rich young ruler was not willing to permit Jesus to correct it.

Lk 18:22

Lk 18:22 - sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor - Jesus revealed to the man who or what was his god, namely, his riches (Mt 6:24). The thought of selling all the wealth he possessed or perhaps, giving that which he thought was his by right to the undeserving poor, for whom he may have despised or had little regard for, was the rich man’s downfall.

This summary of the last 6 commandments is the new commandment that Jesus gave to His disciples, that we love one another, even as He has loved us. Jesus was also counseling him to trust in God for your life and necessities and He will provide, rather than putting trust in your wealth. See Mt 6:25-34; Joh 13:34, 35

Lk 18:22 - thou shalt have treasure in heaven: - Jesus told the man exactly what was required of him to have eternal life, to have treasures in heaven and yet it was too much for him to do - Mt 6:25-34

Lk 18:22

Lk 18:22 - and come, follow me - Jesus extended the highest honor to this rich, wealthy man, to become His disciple and to be numbered among those who are the foundation of His church.

Lk 18:23

Lk 18:23 - And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich - See Mt 6:24

Lk 18:24

Lk 18:24 - And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! - Jesus showed the rich, young, ruler the true god of his life, his wealth and possessions. His profession of faith to God was merely a veneer for the covetousness and idolatry that was within his heart. See James 5:1-5

Lk 18:26

Lk 18:26 - Who then can be saved? - The prosperity gospel doctrine is a long standing tradition among men. It was believed that wealth and prosperity were the favor of God for the righteous (gain is godliness - 1Tim 6:5-10), and poverty was His punishment for the less favored, the patriarchal roots of Prosperity Doctrine. Therefore, Jesus' statement flies in the face of the common belief of the preferred status of the wealthy and was a marvel to His disciples. See Mt 19:25; Mk 10:26; 1Tim 6:5-10; Jam 2:1-9

Lk 18:27

Lk 18:27 - The things which are impossible with men are possible with God - we can never save ourselves. No amount of wealth, culture, status, earthly rank or men's commendations can qualify us for salvation. Only the blood of the Lamb, Jesus Christ and His righteousness, can be the claim for our salvation. See Lk 1:37; Mt 19:25; Mk 10:27;

Lk 18:29

Lk 18:29 - And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake... - See Mk 10:29, 30; Phil 3:7-11

Lk 18:30

Lk 18:30 - Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting - The household of faith becomes the family to those who have forsaken their biological relatives to follow Christ. The church (the body of Christ) and its storehouse become the possessions of those who have made sacrifices for the Kingdom of God. See Ps 27:13; Act 2:44-47

Lk 18:31

Lk 18:31 - all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished - See Dan 9:24; Act 2:22-36; Ps 22; Isa 53, 61:1-3

Lk 18:32

Lk 18:32 - For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles - those who would deliver Him to the Gentiles would be His own (Joh 16:1-3, 19:12-15, 1:10, 11) - See Rev 11:2; Dan 8:13

Lk 18:33

Lk 18:33 - And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: - the same treatment would be given God's Two Witnesses during the era of the Dark Ages. See Ps 22:1-22; Rev 11:7-9; Lk 24:1-7

Lk 18:34

Lk 18:34 - And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken - the minds of the disciples and their understanding of the prophecies regarding Messiah (Dan 9:25-27) had been darkened by the lies, fables, and misinterpretation of Scripture by the Jewish leadership.

Lk 18:35

Lk 18:35 - a certain blind man sat by the way side begging - See Mk 10:46

Lk 18:38

Lk 18:38 - And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou Son of David, have mercy on me - a blind man recognized that which those with sight could not, or refused to see - Jesus is Messiah, the Son of David- See Mk 10:47

Lk 18:39

Lk 18:39 - And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: - the insensitivity of the Jews frustrated Jesus. Rather than leading the blind man to Jesus, they told him to 'shut-up'.

Lk 18:39

Lk 18:40 - Thou Son of David, have mercy on me - See Jer 23:5, 6

Lk 18:40

Lk 18:40 - And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him - See Ps 22:24

Lk 18:41

Lk 18:41 - And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight - Bartameus desired to receive physical sight so that he might walk and not stumble. Lord grant me your eye salve that I may be able to see, walk and not stumble in this dark world. See Rev 3:18; Ps 119:18

Lk 18:42

Lk 18:42 - And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath saved thee - See Mk 10:41-43; Mt 8:13

Lk 18:42

Lk 18:42 - thy faith hath saved thee - according to thy faith, be it unto you. The blind man believed in the Son of God and in His power to save. The blind man received more than he asked for when he came to Jesus in faith. See Mt 9:29; Rom 10:6-8; 1Jo 5:14, 15

Lk 18:43

Lk 18:43 - And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God - Jesus loved the faith in Bartemaus and granted him his petition based on that faith. Jesus delighted in the Father being glorified. See Joh 17:4

Lk 19:2

Lk 19:2 - which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich - Zacchaeus was chief among those who were despised of the Jews. He was rich, not wholly by wholesome means - See Lk 18:11

Lk 19:5

Lk 19:5 - he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchaeus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house - he who sought the Lord was found of Him. The truth is that the Lord seeks after us and seeks to gain our attention. When we at last respond to His seeking, make an effort to see and know Him, God seizes the opportunity to reveal Himself to us and sup with us. See Heb 11:6; Jer 29:13; Rev 3:20

Lk 19:7

Lk 19:7 - And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner - the Jews' self-righteousness criticized Jesus for fellowshiping with one whom they thought to be a sinner. Their supposed righteousness was one that would be contaminated by the presence of a sinner; whereas Jesus' righteousness was impervious to contamination and had the effect of making holy everything around it. Such is the difference in our righteousness which is as filthy rags and Jesus' perfect righteousness. See Joh 18:28; Isa 65:5

Lk 19:8

Lk 19:8 - And Zacchaeus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold - Zacchaeus demonstrated the true fruit of repentance in his desire to do that which was godly and right henceforth. See 2Cor 7:10, 11; Jam 5:16

Lk 19:9

Lk 19:9 - This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of Abraham - See Rom 9:6-8; John 14:18; Act 3:20; 1Jo 4:1-3; 1Tim 3:16 {The Everlasting Gospel, E.J. Waggoner, pg31} 1. The Gospel is the power of God unto salvation. Salvation is only by the power of God, and wherever the power of God is, there is salvation. 2. Christ is the power of God 3. But Christ's salvation comes through the cross; therefore, the cross of Christ is the power of God. 4. So the preaching of Christ and Him crucified is the preaching of the Gospel.

Lk 19:10

Lk 19:10 - For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost - See 1Tim 1:15; Lk 1:31; Mt 1:21

Lk 19:11

Lk 19:11 - because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear - the followers of Christ thought that the time was at hand for Jesus to assume the throne of His forefather David and restore the kingdom of Israel here on earth. Thus was the purpose of the parable of the nobleman (Himself), who would go to a far country to receive unto Himself a kingdom.

Lk 19:11

Lk 19:12 - they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear - the Jews had been misled by their leaders to misinterpret Scripture and read into it things that were not true. The Messiah came not to establish His eternal Kingdom but to lay His life down a ransom for the world.

Lk 19:12

Lk 19:12 - A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return - The Gospel of Mat describes the same Nobleman, Jesus as returning from the far country after a long time. He returns with rewards for His stewards, based on their works See Dan 7:13, 14; Lk 20:9; Mt 25:14, 19; Rev 22:12

Lk 19:13

Lk 19:13 - Occupy till I come - this is not a suggestion of the nobleman to his stewards but a command. They are to act and work as though their master were present, engaging in labor, building, improving upon the things entrusted to them. They were not to be idle, but diligent while their master was away.

Lk 19:15

Lk 19:15 - And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom - Jesus is gathering the subjects of His Kingdom while away in heaven. He is seeing who will be part of His eternal family by their works. The righteous will receive the kingdom prepared for them before the foundation of the world. See Dan 7:13, 14; Rev 22:12; Mt 25:34

Lk 19:15

Lk 19:15 - that he might know how much every man had gained by trading - There has been too little educating in clear lines upon this point. The Lord has lent man His own goods in trust—means which He requires be handed back to Him when His providence signifies and the upbuilding of His cause demands it. The Lord gave the intellect. He gave the health and the ability to gather earthly gain. He created the things of earth. He manifests His divine power to develop all its riches. They are His fruits from His own husbandry. He gave the sun, the clouds, the showers of rain to cause vegetation to flourish. As God's employed servants you gathered in His harvest, to use what your wants required in an economical way and hold the balance for the call of God. You can say with David, "For all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee." 1 Chronicles 29:14. So the satisfaction of creature merit cannot be in returning to the Lord His own, for it was always His own property to be used as He in His providence should direct. - {1888 813.1}

Lk 19:20 - here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin - the wicked servant did nothing to improve the gifts entrusted to him. It is not that he was a flagrant breaker of God's Law, it is that he did not see the value in the gifts, sought not to be rich towards God, and made no use of the things entrusted to him. He thought faith in God alone was meritorious of salvation without works of faith to demonstrate God's power within. See James 2:18-24

Lk 19:21

Lk 19:21 - For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow - the wicked servant saw his Master in the same light as the wicked judged who Jesus spoke of in the parable. See Lk 18:2 "Once man chose to serve "self" instead of the Creator, he would know something he had not known before. What he came to know by his rebellion was guilt. This guilt has caused the human race to invent countless different cults and philosophies. It is the cornerstone of every pagan concept of God and the root of all the expiation doctrines of appeasement and vain hope of placating deity. It plagues the life of every unrepentant sinner and creates the desire for freedom from the oppression it brings. It is the root of much physical and mental suffering and plays a prominent part in producing neuroses. This mental suffering of guilt was the reason Adam charged his wife with his transgression. The one he loved most dearly became the object of his accusation, for his guilt burdened his mind and pressed down his soul (Gen 3:12, 13). His beloved Eve was caught in the same trap and sought to relieve her anguish of soul by accusing the serpent." {Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short; pg 114}

Lk 19:21

Lk 19:21 - austere - Severe; harsh; rigid; stern; applied to persons; as an austere master; an austere look.

Lk 19:22

Lk 19:22 - Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant - the wicked servant sees his Master as a severe and unjust Person, takes what He did not lay down and reaps what He did not sow. Such is the mind of those who rob God and see it pointless to serve God, seeing the wicked meet the same fate as the righteous, according to the prophet Malachi (Malachi 3:7-18). Thus, the Master, after showing all the love and blessings He could possibly show to the wicked servant, must judge the servant according to his own reasoning. See Mt 24:48-50

Lk 19:26

Lk 19:26 - For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him - it is all or nothing with the Lord. You either have oil or you do not, no middle ground. So shall it be in the final analysis of the judgment, you will either be 100% in Christ or you will not. A double minded man is unstable in all of his ways. See Mt 12:30; Rev 22:11; James 1:8, 4:8

Lk 19:27

Lk 19:27 - But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me - those who refuse to pay Jesus homage and to allow Him to rule in their hearts, will have destroyed themselves. See 1Sam 8:7-9; Isa 60:12; Mt 24:48-51, 26:63-65, 27:11

Lk 19:29

Lk 19:29 - Bethphage - meaning: House of the unripe fig, a village on the Mount of Olives, on the road from Jerusalem to Jericho (Mt 21:1; Mark 11:1; Lk 19:29), and very close to Bethany. It was the limit of a Sabbath-day's journey from Jerusalem, i.e., 2,000 cubits. It has been identified with the modern Kefr-et-Tur.

Lk 19:29

Lk 19:29 - Bethany - A village on the south-eastern slope of the Mount of Olives (Mark 11:1), about 2 miles east of Jerusalem, on the road to Jericho. It derived its name from the number of palm-trees which grew there. It was the residence of Lazarus and his sisters. It is frequently mentioned in connection with memorable incidents in the life of our Lord (Mt 21:17; 26:6; Mark 11:11,12; 14:3; Lk 24:50; Joh 11:1; 12:1).

Lk 19:30

Lk 19:30 - Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither - the Holy Spirit revealed the thing to Jesus so that He might instruct His disciples to fulfill the prophecy written in Zech 9:9

Lk 19:30

Lk 19:30 - ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat - Jesus would once again demonstrate His power over all creation in saddling and mounting a colt that had never been broken. Such animals will resist, running, bucking, charging and doing anything necessary to resist having someone mount them, until broken and trained to be calm as an individual mounts it.

Lk 19:30

Lk 19:30 - ye shall find a colt tied - Jesus was given revelations by the Holy Spirit to see things that the naked eye could not see: 1. He saw Nathaniel praying beneath the tree - Joh 1:47-49 2. Jesus read the hearts of the scornful men who saw Him as a blasphemer - Mt 9:3-7 3. He saw the fish with the coin in its mouth that would be led to Peter's hook - Mt 17:27

Lk 19:31

Lk 19:31 - And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him - See Lk 19:33, 34

Lk 19:33

Lk 19:33 - And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt? - See Lk 19:30, 31

Lk 19:37

Lk 19:37 - And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen - the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem was God's way of having the COI recognize their God and King, lowly riding upon a an ass, and upon a cold, the foal of an ass. The disciples thought Jesus was going to assume the throne of David at this time and therefore took great delight in the occasion. Jesus wanted Israel to acknowledge Him as their King, though He was bound for an ignominious death, the true triumph that mortal eyes could not see. See Zech 9:9; Lk 19:11

Lk 19:38

Lk 19:38 - Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest - See Ps 118:26; Mt 21:8, 9; Zech 9:9

Lk 19:39

Lk 19:39 - And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples - the contingency of Pharisees that followed Jesus everywhere He went, seeking to make reviling accusations against Him and to turn the hearts of the people from Him (Lk 20:20), told Jesus to rebuke those who were calling or acknowledging Him as Messiah as He entered the city. Interestingly, the Pharisees acknowledged Jesus as a Great Teacher, calling Him Master, but they would not acknowledge Him as Lord.

Lk 19:40

Lk 19:40 - the stones would immediately cry - God is above nature. Natural Law is subject to God. Therefore if God should command rivers of life to spring from a flinty rock, He can cause the rocks to cry out to His glory. Natural Law will be completely over-turned at the Second Coming of Jesus Christ: 1. The sky will roll back as a scroll 2. The dead in Christ will rise first 3. We who are alive and remain will be caught-up to meet Him in the clouds 4. This mortal will put on immortality

Lk 19:40

Lk 19:40 - God is above nature. Natural Law is subject to God. Therefore if God should command rivers of life to spring from a flinty rock, He can cause the rocks to cry out to His glory. Lk 19:41

Lk 19:41 - and wept over it - Jesus wept over the city and its impending destruction. He wept for those who would spurn His salvation and meet the ultimate destruction.

Lk 19:42

Lk 19:42 - If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! - Jesus laments for the people that He wish they had known and understood the things that would bring peace, rest, and assurance of salvation to their lives.

Lk 19:42

Lk 19:42 - but now they are hid from thine eyes - Like Laodicea, the Jews did not realize their true, desperate condition of blindness. See Am 8:12; Joh 9:39-41; Rev 3:17

Lk 19:43

Lk 19:43 - For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side - See Mt 24:15; Dan 9:26

Lk 19:44

Lk 19:44 - And shall lay thee even with the ground - people will be cut down to the ground during the siege.

Lk 19:44

Lk 19:44 - and thy children within thee - speaking of the unborn child being slain with its mother in the siege.

Lk 19:44

Lk 19:44 - and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another - See Mt 24:1, 2; Dan 9:26

Lk 19:44

Lk 19:44 - because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation - you knew not or did not recognize the window of opportunity [probationary time] you had to be saved and the judgment that would follow. See Lk 19:42

Lk 19:45

Lk 19:45 - And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought - This is the 2nd temple cleansing, paralleling that which took place at the commencement of His ministry. See Joh 2:13-17; Mt 21:13; Mk 11:17

Lk 19:46

Lk 19:46 - My house is the house of prayer: - See Isa 56:7

Lk 19:46

Lk 19:40 - but ye have made it a den of thieves - See Jer 7:11; Ps 69:9; Ezekiel 34:2-6, 22:25-29;

Lk 19:47

Lk 19:47 - But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him - See Lk 20:19

Lk 19:47

Lk 19:47 - and the chief of the people - the Pharisees

Lk 19:48

Lk 19:48 - And could not find what they might do - the chief priests and scribes found no opportunity to carry out their dastardly works because the people were always thronging Jesus.

Lk 20:2

Lk 20:2 - And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority? - The need to have man's endorsement has been a constant challenge to simple men, filled with the Holy Spirit who seek to spread the gospel. Jesus' qualification, credentials, endorsement, and commission as with the sincere Christian, comes originally from God. Such is the question asked of all men called of God but not called of men. Jesus is worthy because He is Creator, Redeemer and because He died and rose again for our sins. These are the tokens of His credentials. See Mt 7:28, 29; Joh 5:36-38, 1:25; Lk 20:2; Joh 7:45-49; Rev 5:1-14

Lk 20:4

Lk 20:4 - The baptism of Joh, was it from heaven, or of men? - The baptism of Joh, calling men to repentance, was the gospel heralds cry, preparing the way for Jesus' reception. Joh himself said that anything he taught and demonstrated, could not come from himself but was from above. See Joh 3:26-28

Lk 20:5

Lk 20:5 - And they reasoned with themselves - the reasoning of the chief priests and scribes was evidence that a disingenuous answer would follow.

Lk 20:5

Lk 20:5 - Why then believed ye him not?- the Pharisees devised their own destruction. They knew the truth but denied it to their own condemnation (Rom 1:21, 25).

Lk 20:6

Lk 20:6 - But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that Joh was a prophet - those seeking to entrap Jesus found themselves snared.

Lk 20:7

Lk 20:7 - And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was - the Pharisees, full of guile, lied and said they could not give an answer though the truth was in their hearts and minds.

Lk 20:8

Lk 20:8 - Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things - Jesus trapped them in their own trap.

Lk 20:9

Lk 20:9 - A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time - See Isa 5:1-7; Ps 80:14, 15

Lk 20:9

Lk 20:9 - and went into a far country for a long time - See Lk 19:12

Lk 20:10

Lk 20:10 - sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty - a reference to the many prophets sent to Israel to give warning and to bring reform who were often mistreated, if not killed. See 2Chron 36:15, 16; Ezek 3:4-9; Lk 13:33

Lk 20:13

Lk 20:13 - I will send my beloved son - When remonstrance, entreaty, and rebuke had failed, He sent to them the best gift of heaven; nay, He poured out all heaven in that one Gift. - The Son of God Himself was sent to plead with the impenitent city. {GC 19.1, 2} See Joh 3:16; Isa 48:16

Lk 20:14

Lk 20:14 - This is the heir - the promises were to Abraham and the Seed, the heir, Jesus Christ. See Gal 3:16; Heb 3:6

Lk 20:14

Lk 20:14 - come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours - the wicked stewards not only despised serving their Master, they sought to unseat him, taking his possession from him and his heir. See Isa 14:12-14

Lk 20:16

Lk 20:16 - He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid - Self condemnation of the Pharisees. See Mt 21:41; Rev 3:16 I asked the meaning of the shaking I had seen, and was shown that it would be caused by the straight testimony called forth by the counsel of the True Witness to the Laodiceans. This will have its effect upon the heart of the receiver, and will lead him to exalt the standard and pour forth the straight truth. Some will not bear this straight testimony. They will rise up against it, and this is what will cause a shaking among God's people. - {CET 176.1} I saw that the testimony of the True Witness has not been half heeded. The solemn testimony upon which the destiny of the church hangs has been lightly esteemed, if not entirely disregarded. This testimony must work deep repentance; all who truly receive it will obey it, and be purified. - {CET 176.2}

Lk 20:16

Lk 20:16 - shall give the vineyard to others - the rending of the kingdom from Israel is foreshadowed in the experience of Saul. See 1Sam 2:30-36, 15:28; Mt 21:41; Rev 3:16 I asked the meaning of the shaking I had seen, and was shown that it would be caused by the straight testimony called forth by the counsel of the True Witness to the Laodiceans. This will have its effect upon the heart of the receiver, and will lead him to exalt the standard and pour forth the straight truth. Some will not bear this straight testimony. They will rise up against it, and this is what will cause a shaking among God's people. - {CET 176.1} I saw that the testimony of the True Witness has not been half heeded. The solemn testimony upon which the destiny of the church hangs has been lightly esteemed, if not entirely disregarded. This testimony must work deep repentance; all who truly receive it will obey it, and be purified. - {CET 176.2} The numbers of this company had lessened. Some had been shaken out and left by the way. The careless and indifferent, who did not join with those who prized victory and salvation enough to perseveringly plead and agonize for it, did not obtain it, and they were left behind in darkness, and their places were immediately filled by others taking hold of the truth and coming into the ranks. Evil angels still pressed around them, but could have no power over them. - {EW 271.1}

Lk 20:16

Lk 20:16, Mt 21:33-41 - God forbid! - the COI placed their trust in the form and not the substance. They were content in going through the motions and honoring the relics of God rather than worshipping God Himself. Such was the condition of the COI in the time of Christ who thought assuredly that God would never forsake His temple, nor His people. Jer 7:14; Mt 24:1-3; Joshua 24:15, 16. Unwittingly they had pronounced their own doom. Jesus looked upon them, and under His searching gaze they knew that He read the secrets of their hearts. His divinity flashed out before them with unmistakable power. They saw in the husbandmen a picture of themselves, and they involuntarily exclaimed, "God forbid!" - {PK 712.1}

Lk 20:17

Lk 20:17 - The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner? - See Ps 118:22; 1Pet 2:6, 7; Mt 21:42-44; Isa 28:16, 17 In quoting the prophecy of the rejected stone, Christ referred to an actual occurrence in the history of Israel. The incident was connected with the building of the first temple. While it had a special application at the time of Christ's first advent, and should have appealed with special force to the Jews, it has also a lesson for us. When the temple of Solomon was erected, the immense stones for the walls and the foundation were entirely prepared at the quarry; after they were brought to the place of building, not an instrument was to be used upon them; the workmen had only to place them in position. For use in the foundation, one stone of unusual size and peculiar shape had been brought; but the workmen could find no place for it, and would not accept it. It was an annoyance to them as it lay unused in their way. Long it remained a rejected stone. But when the builders came to the laying of the corner, they searched for a long time to find a stone of sufficient size and strength, and of the proper shape, to take that particular place, and bear the great weight which would rest upon it. Should they make an unwise choice for this important place, the safety of the entire building would be endangered. They must find a stone capable of resisting the influence of the sun, of frost, and of tempest. Several stones had at different times been chosen, but under the pressure of immense weights they had crumbled to pieces. Others could not bear the test of the sudden atmospheric changes. But at last attention was called to the stone so long rejected. It had been exposed to the air, to sun and storm, without revealing the slightest crack. The builders examined this stone. It had borne every test but one. If it could bear the test of severe pressure, they decided to accept it for the cornerstone. The trial was made. The stone was accepted, brought to its assigned position, and found to be an exact fit. In prophetic vision, Isa was shown that this stone was a symbol of Christ. He says: - {DA 597.5} "Sanctify the Lord of hosts Himself; and let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread. And He shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offense to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken." Carried down in prophetic vision to the first advent, the prophet is shown that Christ is to bear trials and tests of which the treatment of the chief cornerstone in the temple of Solomon was symbolic. "Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste." Isa 8:13-15; 28:16. - {DA 598.1} In infinite wisdom, God chose the foundation stone, and laid it Himself. He called it "a sure foundation." The entire world may lay upon it their burdens and griefs; it can endure them all. With perfect safety they may build upon it. Christ is a "tried stone." Those who trust in Him, He never disappoints. He has borne every test. He has endured the pressure of Adam's guilt, and the guilt of his posterity, and has come off more than conqueror of the powers of evil. He has borne the burdens cast upon Him by every repenting sinner. In Christ the guilty heart has found relief. He is the sure foundation. All who make Him their dependence rest in perfect security. - {DA 598.2}

Lk 20:18

Lk 20:18 - Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken - those who permit the Holy Spirit to convict their hearts and are willing to yield to His promptings, are they who fall on the Rock and are broken. The word of God is sharper than any two-edged sword and it cuts us down, but also builds us up. Mt 21:44; Lk 19:8, 9; Act 2:37-41; Heb 4:12; Rev 3:19, 20 Jesus speaks of the corporate rejection of Ancient Israel in the parable, but specifies "whosoever shall fall upon the stone", meaning individually, any from among Israel may seek Him and He will in no wise cast them off. See John 6:37; Rom 11:1

Lk 20:18

Lk 20:18 - but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder - those who are convicted by the Holy Spirit but harden their hearts, not willing to yield to His promptings, are they who the Rock falls upon and are ground to powder. These receive the Mark of the Beast. See Act 7:54; Joh 6:66

Lk 20:19

Lk 20:19 - And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people - See Lk 19:47, 48

Lk 20:19

Lk 20:19 - and they feared the people - the Pharisees sought to destroy Jesus, however, they feared the response of the people if they should carry out their dastardly deed. They also realized that they were exposed and wanted to hide their exposure from the people. See Lk 20:6, 19:47, 48

Lk 20:20

Lk 20:20 - so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor - The Jews set the example for what would become the papacy as they sought the power of the state to enforce and punish that which they deemed heresy. The Rom had no interest in meddling with Jewish doctrinal affairs, so they needed to charge Jesus with some grievance against the state. See Joh 18:28-31, 19:7-12; Rev 13:2

Lk 20:21

Lk 20:21 - Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly: - the hypocrisy of those who sought to entrap Jesus is almost laughable. They extol Him for being upright, true, honest and godly in all of His ways and teachings while seeking to ensnare Him. Their own words condemned them as they sought to entrap a righteous man. They were completely blind to the spirit that was working in them! See Isa 33:15, 16;

Lk 20:22

Lk 20:22 - Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Caesar, or no? - Is it right for us to pay taxes to Caesar.

Lk 20:23

Lk 20:23 - But he perceived their craftiness - The deceptive men sought to pit Jesus against all the factions of Jewry and even Rome. The people detested the Rom and the fact they must pay exorbitant taxes. The Herodians were loyalists to Caesar and would accuse Jesus if He misspoke in their estimation in any way. The Rom would prosecute Jesus of sedition if he spoke in any way against the government. See Lk 16:8; Dan 8:25 Jesus was being put to the test by selfish, self-exalting men. Jesus would later be tempted again through His disciples and converts by the same pharisees who sought to subvert the power of the gospel by men's dead works. See Mt 22:16; Ps 56:5; Act 15:10; Rom 10:1-4; James 2:15-18

Lk 20:25 - Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesars's - Mt 22:21- Jesus here establishes a clear delineation of church and state. He makes known there are things that pertain to life here on earth that are to be upheld and the principles of heaven are equally to be upheld. See 2Chron 26:16-21; Rom 13:1-10; Mt 22:21; Num 23:9 "No faithful man ought to follow either the pope himself or any of the holy men, but in such points as he hath followed the Lord Jesus Christ; for Peter and the sons of Zebedee, by desiring worldly honor, contrary to the following of Christ's steps, did offend, and therefore in those errors they are not to be followed.... - {GC 91.3} "The pope ought to leave unto the secular power all temporal dominion and rule, and thereunto effectually to move and exhort his whole clergy; for so did Christ, and especially by His apostles. Wherefore, if I have erred in any of these points, I will most humbly submit myself unto correction, even by death, if necessity so require; and if I could labor according to my will or desire in mine own person, I would surely present myself before the bishop of Rome; but the Lord hath otherwise visited me to the contrary, and hath taught me rather to obey God than men." - {GC 91.4 - writings of Joh Wycliffe}

Lk 20:25

Lk 20:25 - and unto God the things which be God's - God's 4th Commandment bears His name, title and jurisdiction and thus we ought to render to God reverence, honor and worship which belong to Him as our Creator, Redeemer, Savior and LORD (Ex 20:8-11; Deut 5:12-15; Ezek 20:12, 20; Isa 58:13, 14). See Mic 6:8; Rom 12:1, 2; Heb 10:7, 9

Lk 20:26

Lk 20:26 - and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace - Jesus shut them down!
See Lk 21:15, 20:40

Lk 20:27 - which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him - See 1Cor 15:12-14; Act 23:8

Lk 20:28

Lk 20:28 - raise up seed unto his brother - the seed born will be the successor to the brother who has died according to the law of the Kinsman redemption. See Num 27:11; Ruth 2:1-4:22; Deut 25:5-9

Lk 20:29

Lk 20:29 - There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children - The dissembling Sadducees tried to catch Jesus in what they thought was a conundrum. See Deut 25:5-10

Lk 20:34

Lk 20:34 - The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage - See Mt 24:37, 38

Lk 20:35

Lk 20:35 - But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage: - They that be worthy to obtain that world are they which overcome by the blood of the Lamb. They purpose to follow God's words, His promises, His Everlasting Covenant and Him. Procreation was to fill the earth so that the sons of God may repopulate heaven. See Mt 22:29, 30 God created man for His own glory, that after test and trial the human family might become one with the heavenly family. It was God's purpose to repopulate heaven with the human family.—The S.D.A. Bible Commentary 1:1082. - {TA 48.7} The vacancies made in heaven by the fall of Satan and his angels will be filled by the redeemed of the Lord.—The Review and Herald, May 29, 1900. - {TA 49.1} Satan has an accurate knowledge of the sins that he has tempted God's people to commit, and he urges his accusations against them, declaring, that by their sins they have forfeited divine protection, and claiming that he has the right to destroy them. He pronounces them just as deserving as himself of exclusion from the favor of God. "Are these," he says, "the people who are to take my place in heaven, and the place of the angels who united with me? They profess to obey the law of God; but have they kept its precepts? Have they not been lovers of self more than lovers of God? Have they not placed their own interests above His service? Have they not loved the things of the world? Look at the sins that have marked their lives. Behold their selfishness, their malice, their hatred of one another. Will God banish me and my angels from His presence, and yet reward those who have been guilty of the same sins? Thou canst not do this, O Lord, in justice. Justice demands that sentence be pronounced against them." - {PK 588.3}

Lk 20:36

Lk 20:36 - for they are equal unto the angels - See Rev 22:9, 19:10 The Father consulted His Son in regard to at once carrying out their purpose to make man to inhabit the earth. He would place man upon probation to test his loyalty before he could be rendered eternally secure. If he endured the test wherewith God saw fit to prove him, he should eventually be equal with the angels. He was to have the favor of God, and he was to converse with angels, and they with him. He did not see fit to place them beyond the power of disobedience. - {SR 19.2}

Lk 20:36

Lk 20:36 - being the children of the resurrection - See Joh 5:24, 29; Rev 20:4, 6

Lk 20:37

Lk 20:37, 38 - the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob - God is not a God of the dead but of the living. That He identifies Himself by these three men, though they sleep, He talks of them as those who have eternal life and will live forever. See Mt 22:31, 32; Mk 12:26, 27; Ex 3:15; Rom 4:17

Lk 20:40

Lk 20:40 - And after that they durst not ask him any question at all - See Lk 20:26

Lk 20:42

Lk 20:42 - Jesus shows the authenticity and credibility of Scriptures by quoting them. See Ps 110:1

Lk 20:44

Lk 20:44 - David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son? - Blind Bartimaeus obviously understood the mystery as He cried to Jesus: "Thou son of David, have mercy on me". See Mk 10:46-48; Lk 18:35-39

Lk 20:46

Lk 20:46, 47 - Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts; Which devour widows' houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation - Those outside of the city are among the most confident, boastful, and apparently zealous ones who love in word, but not in deed and in truth. Their hearts are not right with God. His fear is not before them. The fearful and unbelieving, who are punished with the second death, are of that class who are ashamed of Christ in this world. They are afraid to do right and follow Christ, lest they should meet with pecuniary loss. They neglect their duty, to avoid reproach and trials, and to escape dangers. Those who dare not do right because they will thus expose themselves to trials, persecution, loss, and suffering are cowards, and, with idolaters, liars, and all sinners, they are ripening for the second death. - {2T 630.1}

Lk 20:47

Lk 20:47 - and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation - See Mt 23:14; Lk 12:47, 48; Rom 2:6, 8, 9, 12

Lk 21:1

Lk 21:2 - and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury - The most splendid offerings may be laid upon the altar of God, and men will praise, exalt, and laud the giver because of his liberality. In what? "All things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee." No work of man can merit for him the pardoning love of God, but the love of God pervading the soul will lead him to do those things which were always required of God and that he should do with pleasure. He has done only that which duty ever required of him. - {1888 815.1}; See Lk 17:10

Lk 21:3

Lk 21:3 - that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all: - Thus He taught that the value of the gift is estimated not by the amount, but by the proportion that is given and the motive that actuates the giver. - {AA 342.1}

Lk 21:4

Lk 21:4 - For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had - the rich merely contribution an offering or donation whereas the widow made a sacrifice. Jesus applauded her liberality and it would inspire countless millions of the poor and indigent in centuries to come to give of their mite, thus multiplying her offering all the more.

Lk 21:5

Lk 21:5 - And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts - the people missed the true glory of the temple in He Who walked through its halls, Jesus. The temple was to be left desolate as Jesus would leave the temple for the last time. See Mt 24:1; Hag 2:3, 7-9

Lk 21:5

Lk 21:5 - adorned with goodly stones and gifts - See Hag 2:8

Lk 21:6

Lk 21:6 - As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. - Early in His ministry Christ had said, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." In the figurative language of prophecy, He had thus foretold His own death and resurrection. "He spake of the temple of His body." Joh 2:19, 21. These words the Jews had understood in a literal sense, as referring to the temple at Jerusalem. Of all that Christ had said, the priests could find nothing to use against Him save this. By misstating these words they hoped to gain an advantage. The Rom had engaged in rebuilding and embellishing the temple, and they took great pride in it; any contempt shown to it would be sure to excite their indignation. Here Rom and Jews, Pharisees and Sadducees, could meet; for all held the temple in great veneration. {DA 705.3}

Lk 21:7

Lk 21:8 - and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass? - the same question is asked in the gospel of Mt and the inquiry was made, "and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?". In the Jews' mind, the destruction of the temple surely marked the end of the world. See Mt 24:3

Lk 21:8

Lk 21:8 - Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them - See Mt 24:4, 5; 1Jo 4:1

Lk 21:9

Lk 21:9 - But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass - the 20th and beginning of the 21st centuries have seen more wars of global scale than in any other era of earth's history. See Lk 21:10

Lk 21:11

Lk 21:11 - And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven. - See Mt 24:7

Lk 21:12

Lk 21:12 - but before all these, they shall lay their hands on you - before the era of great wars, earthquakes, famines, pestilences, great signs from the heavens in divers places, there shall be persecution of God's people. The era of persecution must include the Apostolic era leading through the Dark Ages, where millions would be slain for their faith (Rev 6:9-11). Following this time, namely, the Time of the End, we would find the earthquakes, famines, pestilences, and great signs in the heavens in diverse places. See Joh 16:1-3; 2Cor 6:4-6, 8-10

Lk 21:12 - being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake - See Rev 1:9; Act 25, 26

Lk 21:13

Lk 21:13 - it shall turn to you for a testimony - the opportunity will be presented to stand in our lot, to give a testimony for the hope that lies within us. See 1Pet 3:15; Ps 119:46; 1Cor 16:9; Act 26

Lk 21:14

Lk 21:14 - Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer - See Ps 81:10

Lk 21:15

Lk 21:15- For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist. See Mt 10:19, 20; Lk 12:11, 12, 20:22-26; Ps 81:10; 119:11; Act 4:13-16, 6:9, 10; Eph 6:18-20; Rev 12:11; Jer 26:11-16; Isa 50:4

Lk 21:15

Lk 21:15 - which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist - See 2Tim3:8, 9; Act 6:9, 10

Lk 21:16

Lk 21:16 - And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death - As the love of men wax cold, many will lack natural affection and will betray loved ones into the hands of enemies. See Mic 7:6; Mt 10:36; 2Tim 3:1-5

Lk 21:16

Lk 21:16 - and some of you shall they cause to be put to death - some will die a martyr's death, yet and still, not an hair of their head will perish in the Second Death. See Act 7:54-60; Rev 2:13

Lk 21:17

Lk 21:17 - And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake - Job typifies and foreshadows this prophecy of God's faithful people under trials. Job's name means "despised" because he was upright and perfect in all of his ways, eschewing evil. All must be willing to bear the reproach of Christ and follow Him outside the gates of the city. See Job 1:1, 2; Heb 13:13; Lk 6:22

Lk 21:18

Lk 21:18 - but there shall not an hair of your head perish - those who stand faithful for Jesus, not one hair will be cast into eternal fire, but they have passed from death unto eternal life. See Joh 3:16; 5:24, 11:25, 26; Rev 20:12-15;

Lk 21:19

Lk 21:19 - In your patience possess ye your souls - Keep the blessed hope of Jesus in our hearts; consider the cloud of witnesses that have suffered persecution before you so that your faith may be encouraged. Embrace Jesus' faith to carry you through the storm. See *Lam 3:26; Ex 14:14; Rev 3:9, 10; 13:10; 14:12; Mk 14:61; Isa 33:17; Ps 107:30 Christ's indignation was directed against the hypocrisy, the gross sins, by which men were destroying their own souls, deceiving the people and dishonoring God. In the specious deceptive reasoning of the priests and rulers He discerned the working of satanic agencies. Keen and searching had been His denunciation of sin; but He spoke no words of retaliation. He had a holy wrath against the prince of darkness; but He manifested no irritated temper. So the Christian who lives in harmony with God, possessing the sweet attributes of love and mercy, will feel a righteous indignation against sin; but he will not be roused by passion to revile those who revile him. Even in meeting those who are moved by a power from beneath to maintain falsehood, in Christ he will still preserve calmness and self-possession. - {DA 619.5}

Lk 21:20

Lk 21:20 - Jerusalem compassed with armies - first Cestius waged war on Israel in 66AD then his son Tit completed the siege in 70AD, leveling the city and destroying the temple. The prophecy has a second meaning in that the papacy would encompass God's people (His holy city) and waste them for 1260 years During the Dark Ages. See Dan 7:25, 21 When the idolatrous standards of the Rom should be set up in the holy ground, which extended some furlongs outside the city walls, then the followers of Christ were to find safety in flight. When the warning sign should be seen, those who would escape must make no delay. Throughout the land of Judea, as well as in Jerusalem itself, the signal for flight must be immediately obeyed. He who chanced to be upon the housetop must not go down into his house, even to save his most valued treasures. Those who were working in the fields or vineyards must not take time to return for the outer garment laid aside while they should be toiling in the heat of the day. They must not hesitate a moment, lest they be involved in the general destruction. - {GC 25.4}

Lk 21:21

Lk 21:21 - flee to the mountains - as the angels warned Lot and his family to flee to the mountains, so Jesus warns all who are in Judea and its cities to flee to the mountains. See Gen 19:17 Not one Christian perished in the destruction of Jerusalem. Christ had given His disciples warning, and all who believed His words watched for the promised sign. "When ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies," said Jesus, "then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. Then let them which are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out." Lk 21:20, 21. After the Rom under Cestius had surrounded the city, they unexpectedly abandoned the siege when everything seemed favorable for an immediate attack. The besieged, despairing of successful resistance, were on the point of surrender, when the Roman general withdrew his forces without the least apparent reason. But God's merciful providence was directing events for the good of His own people. The promised sign had been given to the waiting Christians, and now an opportunity was offered for all who would, to obey the Saviour's warning. Events were so overruled that neither Jews nor Rom should hinder the flight of the Christians. Upon the retreat of Cestius, the Jews, sallying from Jerusalem, pursued after his retiring army; and while both forces were thus fully engaged, the Christians had an opportunity to leave the city. At this time the country also had been cleared of enemies who might have endeavored to intercept them. At the time of the siege, the Jews were assembled at Jerusalem to keep the Feast of Tabernacles, and thus the Christians throughout the land were able to make their escape unmolested. Without delay they fled to a place of safety—the city of Pella, in the land of Perea, beyond Jordan. - {GC 30.2}

Lk 21:22 - days of vengeance - the hour of Israel's visitation had arrived when judgement would be laid to the line (justice will be made straight after centuries of crooked dealings - Isa 59:1-15). See Lk 19:44; Dan 9:27

Lk 21:23 - and wrath upon this people - See Rom 5:9

Lk 21:24

Lk 21:24 - Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles - Jerusalem will be leveled by the Italians (Gentiles) in 70AD, a foreshadowing of the treading down upon God's people to occur by the same race of people but under a different administration during the second time of the Gentiles, the papal See. See Rev 11:12

Lk 21:24

Lk 21:24 - until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled - A possible reference to the 2520 prophecy where God's people (the host) and sanctuary are trodden down by two desolator, "the daily" (paganism) and the transgression of desolation (papalism). See Dan 8:13; Rev 11:1, 2; Mk 10:33

Lk 21:25

Lk 21:25 - distress of nations with perplexity - the scourge of Islam was responsible for distressing the nations and causing great perplexity when Egypt sought to resume the jihad that had been waging for over 391years. on August 11, 1840, the 4 world empires put a restraint on Islam, causing the distresses to be subsided.

Lk 21:30

Lk 21:30 - Summer is nigh at hand - See Jer 40:10; Mt 13:39; Rev 14:15-20

Lk 21:31

Lk 21:31 - know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand - the Kingdom of God was declared to be within the believers according to Jesus (Lk 17:20, 21). Further Jesus stated that He and His Father through the agency of the Holy Spirit would come to Their people but not appear to the world (Joh 14:21-23; Rev 10:7) - Christ in you, the hope of glory (Col 1:27; Rev 14:12)!

Lk 21:32

Lk 21:32 - this generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled - Jesus, in speaking to the "fourth generation" of Ancient Israel which would behold the judgments of God poured out (Gen 15:13-16), warned that they would see the rains [time of refreshing] that causes the trees to bud (Pentecost) and the arrival of the Kingdom of God. The promise is that this generation will not pass away, meaning those who remain faithful and behold the budding leaves of spring will not see death but will live forever, having passed from death unto eternal life.

Lk 21:32

Lk 21:32 - till all be fulfilled - all the prophecies of God should be fulfilled: 1. The 2nd Coming of Christ 2. The saints sitting in judgment 3. The 3rd Coming of Christ 4. The destruction of the wicked 5. The creation of a new heaven and new earth 6. The meek inheriting the earth 7. God and man dwelling together in peace- The restoration of all things...

Lk 21:33

Lk 21:33 - Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away - the word of the Lord stands forever. See Isa 40:8; Mk 13:31; Mt 24:35; Ps 33:11; Lk 16:17

Lk 21:34

Lk 21:34 - And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. - See Isa 22:12-14; Lev 23:27, 29 When the Saviour pointed out to His followers the signs of His return, He foretold the state of backsliding that would exist just prior to His second advent. There would be, as in the days of Noah, the activity and stir of worldly business and pleasure seeking—buying, selling, planting, building, marrying, and giving in marriage—with forgetfulness of God and the future life. For those living at this time, Christ's admonition is: "Take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares." "Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man." Luke 21:34, 36. - {GC 309.2}

Lk 21:34

Lk 21:34 - surfeiting - to do something in excess until you desire it no more; over-indulge, engorge oneself.

Lk 21:34

Lk 21:34 - drunkenness - both literal and spiritual drunkenness, being consumed with false teachings. See Isa 29:9, 10

Lk 21:34

Lk 21:34 - cares of this life - "Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Where-withal shall we be clothed? See Mt 6:31-34

Lk 21:34

Lk 21:34 - so that day come upon you unawares - the day of the close of mankind's probation. We must not be caught unawares of the judgments that are taking place in heaven under the 7th Trumpet that will seal our eternal destiny, whether we may be able to escape the destructions to come upon the earth and accounted worthy to stand before the Son of man, or not. See Rev 10:7, 14:6-20; 1Thess 5:4-9

Lk 21:35

Lk 21:35 - For as a snare, shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth - the snare is not what occurs on the day of Christ's coming, but the mindset that lulls people into a state of complacency such that they are not mindful of the times, and the needed preparation. See 1Tim 6:9; 1Thess 5:2, 3; Prov 29:18

Lk 21:36

Lk 21:36 - Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man - Pray to be among the 144,000, who will go through the earth's tribulations unharmed. See Lk 20:35; 1Thess 5:17; Dan 12:1, 2; Ps 91, 27:5

Lk 21:36

Lk 21:36 - worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass - to escape the destruction is based on one's worthiness in Christ. To be hid under the shadow of the Almighty requires that He knows us and we know Him. That we have learned to make Him our covert in our personal times of test and trial. LORD help Me!

Lk 21:36

Lk 21:36 - and to stand before the Son of man - See Jude 1:24, 25

Lk 21:37

Lk 21:37 - and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives - a key to Jesus' watchfulness and prayer was His abiding in the mount of Olives at night. He sought a quiet solitary place where He could speak, meditate and hear from His Heavenly Father.

Lk 22:2

Lk 22:2 - And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people - See Joh 7:30, 8:37, 40; Lk 22:6

Lk 22:3

Lk 22:3 - Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve - Satan entered into Judas as he left the door to his heart open through: 1. Pride1 - being openly scorned of Jesus for his hardness of heart and selfishness towards his lord when compared to Mary who selflessly anointed Jesus. Mt 26:7-15 2. Pride2 - thinking his way is better than Jesus' and wanting to force His hand into declaring Himself Messiah and assuming the throne of David

Lk 22:5

Lk 22:5 - And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money - the workers of iniquity find joy in doing evil and in those who share their evil aims. See Mt 26:15; Zech 11:12; Act 12:1-3

Lk 22:6

Lk 22:6 - And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude - Judas schemed a way to hand Jesus over in the absence of the multitudes which followed Him.

Lk 22:7

Lk 22:7 - Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed - See Ex 12:1-28

Lk 22:10

Lk 22:10 - Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in... - The Spirit of Prophecy, the Holy Spirit revealed the purposes of the Father to Jesus. The Lord had already laid the plan, it was for His disciples to act in faith and execute the plan. May we trust that our steps are ordered of the Lord and all we must do is trust and obey! See Isa 1:19

Lk 22:13

Lk 22:13 - And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover - the acts of obedience, faith, and God's provision are to encourage us that we may trust in God and in His leading.

Lk 22:15

Lk 22:15 - With desire I have desired to eat this passover - See Ps 41:9 Christ was standing at the point of transition between two economies and their two great festivals. He, the spotless Lamb of God, was about to present Himself as a sin offering, that He would thus bring to an end the system of types and ceremonies that for four thousand years had pointed to His death. As He ate the Passover with His disciples, He instituted in its place the service that was to be the memorial of His great sacrifice. The national festival of the Jews was to pass away forever. The service which Christ established was to be observed by His followers in all lands and through all ages. - {DA 652.2}

Lk 22:16

Lk 22:16 - I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God - Jesus would not partake of the fruit of the vine until He does so with the redeemed in the Kingdom of Heaven. See Rev 19:7-9

Lk 22:17

Lk 22:17 - And he took the cup, and gave thanks - Jesus gives thanks for all things that He partakes of. This is an object lesson for us all!

Lk 22:18

Lk 22:18 - For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come - Unfermented grape juice. - See Isa 65:8 Jesus will partake of the fruit of the vine once again in His heavenly kingdom. Jesus was headed back to heaven to minister in the inner court of the heavenly sanctuary and therefore was not permitted, as a priest, to partake of wine. See Ezekiel 44:21; Lev 10:1-9

Lk 22:19

Lk 22:19 - And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me - the Communion Service with its emblems of bread and wine (grape juice), are a memorial of Jesus' broken body and shed blood He gave as a Passover offering. See John 6:48

Lk 22:19

Lk 22:19 - This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me - See Gen 3:21; Joh 6:33-35, 50, 51

Lk 22:20

Lk 22:20 - This cup is the new testament in my blood - The New Testament or New Covenant was established by Jesus' blood- not the blood of bulls and rams. See Heb 9:11-14; Jer 31:31-34

Lk 22:20 - which is shed for you - See 1Jo 2:2; 1Jo 1:7

Lk 22:22 - but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed! - See Lk 22:3-6; Mt 27:1-5; Rev 21:8

Lk 22:23

Lk 22:23 - And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing - The disciples, except Judas, in their innocence inquired if it were themselves that could betray their Master to death. So we must examine ourselves to see if we be in the faith. See Mt 26:22-25; 2Cor 13:5

Lk 22:24

Lk 22:24 - And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest - Contrast Philipians 2:1-5; Mt 18:2-4

Lk 22:25

Lk 22:25 - Jesus here contrasts the way of the world to members of the Kingdom of heaven, where people in authority here laud over those who are subject to them. It is not so with those who are part to the Kingdom of Heaven. We are to seek to please one another and not ourselves. We are to serve one another and not ourselves. We are to be ministers towards one another. See Phil 2:1-4

Lk 22:26

Lk 22:26 - the members of the kingdom of heaven are not to seek lordship over others, neither to rule others in heaven, nor here on earth, where we are merely ambassadors on errand for our King. We should avoid any attempts to assume positions of authority or power over others.

Lk 22:26

Lk 22:26 - but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve - God's Kingdom's principles are opposite to this corrupted world. See Phil 2:5-8; Isa 33:23

Lk 22:27

Lk 22:28 - but I am among you as he that serveth - See Joh 13:3-12; Phil 2:1-8; Mk 10:45; Mt 20:28

Lk 22:32

Lk 22:32 - But I have prayed for thee - Jesus is the Supreme Intercessor for mankind; the Holy Spirit is a close 2nd. Jesus prayed that Peter would take hold of His strength and hold onto the Father. See Joh 17:9, 15; Rom 8:34, 26, 27; Isa 41:10

Lk 22:32

Lk 22:32 - that thy faith fail not - Jesus prays that we should be victorious through His strength in our Christian walk (Isa 41:10; 27:5). He knew Peter would fall, yet that did not prevent Him in praying for him. Jesus sees good in us even when the good has not yet been made manifest! Praise the Lord!! See Rom 4:17

Lk 22:32

Lk 22:32 - and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren - See 1Pet, 2Pet Many young men are sent forth to labor, who do not understand the plan of salvation and what true conversion is; in fact they need to be converted. We need to be enlightened on this point, and the ministers need to be educated to dwell more particularly upon subjects which explain true conversion. All who are baptized are to give evidence that they have been converted. There is not a point that needs to be dwelt upon more earnestly, repeated more frequently, or established more firmly in the minds of all, than the impossibility of fallen man meriting anything by his own best good works. Salvation is through faith in Jesus Christ alone. - {1888 811.2}

Lk 22:32 - and when thou art converted - See Hos 14:4

Lk 22:33

Lk 22:33 - Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death - Peter was not being braggadocios but was sincere in his desire to stand for Jesus. He however, did not know his own heart.

Lk 22:34 - And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me. - See Lk 22:55-60

Lk 22:35

Lk 22:35 - And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing - Jesus is assuring them that they lacked nothing when sent on errands of mercy at His command. We must take those experiences of God's provision and protection as we will soon be commissioned to stand without His immediate presence. See Lk 9:1-6; 10:1-17; Mt 6:33, 34; Isa 33:15-17; Dan 12:1; Philippians 4:19

Lk 22:36

Lk 22:36 - But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one - Jesus is letting them know that the time has come when they will not be under His immediate protection and they will need to be girded to stand in the world. The time they had with Him was to build their faith that as long as they abided in Him, they lacked nothing.

Lk 22:37

Lk 22:37 - For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end - The Scriptures needed to be fulfilled. Isa 53:8, 9; Lk 24:44, 45

Lk 22:42

Lk 22:42 - if thou be willing, remove this cup from me - the cup of God's wrath against sin Jesus was to drink down to the dregs for humanity. See Rev 14:10; Lk 12:50; Mt 20:22

Lk 22:42

Lk 22:42 - nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done - even if you do not remove the cup from me, I still will trust in You. See Joh 12:28; Mt 6:10, Job 13:15

Lk 22:43

Lk 22:44

Lk 22:44 - And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: - Jesus was beginning to experience the 2nd Death, separation from His Father which He had never experienced before.

Lk 22:44

Lk 22:44 - and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground. - Blood vessels were rupturing in His face as He bore the weight of sin upon Himself. Jesus began to experience the Second Death, the true effects of sin never borne by any man before [guilt, shame, fear, anxiety, and separation from God], for all of humanity "... No foreboding of His own superhuman anguish clouded that unselfish spirit..." - {GC 18.1}

Lk 22:45

Lk 22:45 - he found them sleeping for sorrow - in their depression, the disciples after praying for a time, fell asleep.

Lk 22:47

Lk 22:47 - and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him - See Mt 26:48, 49

Lk 22:48

Lk 22:48 - Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss? - the kiss was the sign given to identify Jesus. The kiss was the sign of Judas' rebellion. Mt22:18

Lk 22:49

Lk 22:49 - When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword? - Peter who was neither a fighter nor a soldier thought the scene was to be a showdown so he took the first strike with the sword.

Lk 22:50

Lk 22:49 - And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear - Mt 26:51-53

Lk 22:51

Lk 22:51 - And he touched his ear, and healed him - even when being taken by His enemies, Jesus sought to heal and save. What a Wonderful Savior! Rom 5:8-10

Lk 22:52

Lk 22:52 - Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves? - Jesus questions why the heavy arms for apprehending a man of peace? Their show of force was a farce. The true insurrectionists put on a show to suggest Jesus was dangerous and required arms to suppress.

Lk 22:53

Lk 22:53 - When I was daily with you in the temple - See Joh 7:30, 8:20; Lk 4:16, 22:2

Lk 22:53

Lk 22:53 - but this is your hour, and the power of darkness - this is the time in which Jesus was placed in the "heart of the earth". Jesus was now subject to all the assaults and torments of the devil and those under his possession. This was Jesus' "Time of Trouble". See Mt 12:40, 26:45; Dan 12:1

Lk 22:56

Lk 22:56 - But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire - the enemy uses the weak vessels to seek to humiliate, and persecute God's people.

Lk 22:56

Lk 22:55 - This man was also with him - here was the hour of temptation for Peter. A damsel began to harass him as one of Jesus' followers. Peter, who said he was ready to go anywhere with His Master, even death, now wished this damsel would stop exposing him. Lord help me to stand in my hour of temptation. See Lk 22:33

Lk 22:57

Lk 22:57 - And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not - had Peter not repented of his denial of Jesus, he would be under a curse. See Mt 10:33; Rev 3:5; 2Tim 2:12

Lk 22:60

Lk 22:60 - And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew - See Lk 22:34

Lk 22:61

Lk 22:61 - And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter - This was a hard trial for Jesus, to be denied by His friend and disciple.

Lk 22:61

Lk 22:61 - And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice - See Lk 22:34

Lk 22:62

Lk 22:62 - And Peter went out, and wept bitterly - in self loathing and guilt, Peter ran and wept bitterly for betraying his Best Friend and Master.

Lk 22:66

Lk 22:66 - And as soon as it was day - Friday (Preparation Day) morning.

Lk 22:67

Lk 22:67 - If I tell you, ye will not believe - See Joh 8:42-47; Tit 1:15

Lk 22:68

Lk 22:68 - And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me - Jesus was letting them know they were not operating justly. They would neither listen to His genuine arguments, neither would they humble themselves to confess the truth as presented to them by the Holy Spirit. See Lk 20:1-8

Lk 22:68

Lk 22:68 - nor let me go - again Jesus affirmed His understanding of their motives when He said "nor let me go". Though shown to be perfectly innocent, they would not let Him go. They were hardened in heart like Pharaoh (the dragon) and determined to see Jesus die. See Lk 22:53

Lk 22:69

Lk 22:69 - Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God - See Heb 1:1-3; Act 2:33; Rom 8:34; Col 1:1; Heb 8:1, 10:12, 12:1; Rev 3:21; Eph 1:20; Mt 26:64; Mk 16:19

Lk 22:70

Lk 22:70 - Art thou then the Son of God? - See Gen 22:8; Dan 9:25; Isa 9:6, 7, 7:15,16; Joh 9:30-41

Lk 22:70

Lk 22:70 - Ye say that I am - Jesus can not deny Himself. When asked if He is the Son of God, He must give an answer in the affirmative. 2Tim 2:13

Lk 22:71

Lk 22:71 - for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth - God can not deny Himself. See

Heb 6:17, 18; 2Tim 2:13

Lk 23:1

Lk 23:1 - And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate - See Lk 20:20

Lk 23:2

Lk 23:2 - The Jews could not bring charges related to their religion against Jesus to Pilate. They needed to present charges that suggested that Jesus warred against the state. They therefore, charged him with sedition, the very thing Barabbas committed who they demanded be released in exchange for Jesus. See Lk 23:18, 19, 25

Lk 23:2

Lk 23:2 - forbidding to give tribute to Caesar - this was a boldfaced lie as Jesus explicitly stated that what belonged to Caesar should be returned to him. But so Pilate might have an argument to condemn Him, they presented the lie of Jesus seeking to cause an insurrection, failing to pay taxes and declaring Himself a King, a rival to Caesar. See Lk 20:25; Mk 12:17; Mt 22:221

Lk 23:2

Lk 23:2 - Christ a King - Messiah was to be a King and rule upon the throne of His forefather David in righteousness. See Dan 9:24-26; Jer 23:5, 6; Rev 19:16

Lk 23:3

Lk 23:3 - Art thou the King of the Jews? - Are you Messiah, the Anointed One, the King of the Jews? - Joh 4:25, 26

Lk 23:3

Lk 23:3 - Thou sayest it - Jesus again can not deny Himself. He must speak the truth when asked. See 2Tim 2:13; Lk 22:70

Lk 23:4

Lk 23:4 - Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man - Pilate's motion that "I find no fault in this man" should have been more than sufficient to let Jesus go, unharmed and unscathed. However, despite this proclamation, He was led to the cross of Calvary (Isa 53:1-8). Pilate himself was beholding the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world and could find no fault in Him. The divinity, majesty and honor inherent in Jesus shined forth without Him speaking a word. So must the children of God become. See Act 6:15; Lk 23:14 Our great Teacher, in His lessons to erring, fallen man, presents the life-giving power of His grace, declaring that through this grace men and women may live the new life of holiness and purity. He who lives this life works out the principles of the kingdom of heaven. Taught of God, he leads others in straight paths. He will not lead the lame into paths of uncertainty. The working of the Holy Spirit in his life shows that he is a partaker of the divine nature. Every soul thus worked by the Spirit of Christ receives so abundant a supply of the rich grace that, beholding his good works, the unbelieving world acknowledges that he is controlled and sustained by divine power, and is led to glorify God.—God's Amazing Grace, 138. - {YRP 70.2}

Lk 23:5

Lk 23:5 - He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place - Jesus again was being accused of fomenting strife and insurrections.

Lk 23:7

Lk 23:7 - Pilate in cowardice, not wanting to vex the Jews, saw Jesus' case as a "hot potato" that he wanted to rid himself of. It was convenient to send Jesus to Herod, the so-called "king of the Jews" in whom was granted the authority of Rome to execute judgment, including the death penalty.

Lk 23:7

Lk 23:7 - he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time - Herod was in Jerusalem to attend to the feasts of the Jews, the Passover.

Lk 23:8

Lk 23:8 - And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him - Herod was intrigued by all that he had heard of Jesus, fearing that Jesus may be Joh the Baptist, whom he had killed, resurrected from the dead. See Mt 14:1, 2

Lk 23:8

Lk 23:8 - because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him - Herod sought a spectacle of Jesus; that He might work some miracle as a magician. So it is that many still seek entertainment and a spectacle rather than to know the Man Who is the Way the Truth, and the Life. See 1Cor 1:22

Lk 23:9

Lk 23:9 - Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing - Jesus spoke no words in His defense and this was the greatest defense He could give. His meekness and humility showed His true character and strength which enraged the haughty Herod. Help me Lord! See Isa 53:7

Lk 23:11

Lk 23:11 - set him at nought - to have a disregard or scorn for; disdain

Lk 23:12

Lk 23:12 - And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves. - A confederacy of evil is established while Jesus is deposed. Though the demons hate one another, they are in agreement in mutually hating God. So it is with the children of disobedience. - See Ps 2:1-4, 83:1-5

Lk 23:14

Lk 23:14 - Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him: - Pilate restates his position of innocence with regards to the character of Jesus Christ. See Lk 23:4

Lk 23:14

Lk 23:14 - I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him - The testimony of Pilate affirms that the Just was unjustly numbered among the transgressors, declared to be evil. See Isa 53:12

Lk 23:15

Lk 23:15 - No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him - Pilate attests that neither he nor Herod found anything worthy of death in Jesus. Though men's judgment is often skewed or tainted with prejudice, no fault could be found in Jesus worthy of death by these often fickle tribunals. This fact before heaven and earth was added evidence of Satan's unjust treatment towards Jesus.

Lk 23:16

Lk 23:16 - I will therefore chastise him, and release him - again, showing weakness of character, Pilate was willing to chastise Jesus, a completely innocent man, as an appeasement to the Jews' rage against Him and to show that he had been tough on the One Who they despised.

Lk 23:18

Lk 23:18 - Barabbas - the name means: Bar - son of Abbas - the father Barabbas, in life, character, and works was a counterfeit of Jesus, the true Son of the Father.

Lk 23:19

Lk 23:19 - Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison - the very things the Jews accused Jesus of committing, they were willing to excuse in Barabbas who they demanded be released in exchange for Jesus. See Lk 23:2, 25

Lk 23:19

Lk 23:19 - sedition - A factious commotion of the people, a tumultuous assembly of men rising in opposition to law or the administration of justice, and in disturbance of the public peace. Sedition is a rising or commotion of less extent than an insurrection, and both are less than rebellion; but some kinds of sedition, in Great Britain, amount to high treason. In general, sedition is a local or limited insurrection in opposition to civil authority, as mutiny is to military.

Lk 23:21

Lk 23:21 - But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him - the chief priests would not be satisfied until Jesus was hung as a common thief upon a tree. Unbeknownst to them, this was the will of the Father, that Jesus would be made an offering for mankind's sin. See Gal 3:13; Isa 53:10; Deut 21:21-23; Heb 5:7-9

Lk 23:22

Lk 23:22 - And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go - even the sense of right and wrong from the Holy Spirit, so often suppressed in Pilate, cried for justice and mercy on the part of Jesus.

Lk 23:23

Lk 23:23 - And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed - the voices of the rabble, incited by the chief priests over-ruled Pilate's better judgment and he yielded to the pressure. When the suggestion was made that freeing Jesus was an offense against Caesar, Pilate feared for his own position and quickly yielded his defense of Jesus. See Joh 19:12

Lk 23:25

Lk 23:25 - And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired - Similar to modern politics, men tolerate and endorse the most debased, unscrupulous, immoral and reprobate men because they suit their needs or fulfill their objectives. Here the guilty went free and the innocent was condemned; the logical end when the wicked are given positions of power. See Ps 12:8; Isa 59:8, 9, 14, 15

Lk 23:26

Lk 23:26 - Cyrenian - an ancient city of Libya founded in 631BC.

Lk 23:28

Lk 23:28, 29 - Jesus, speaking to the women mourning over His eminent death are warned to weep for themselves as Jesus pronounces woe upon the women with children of that time, who will be caught in the destruction of Jerusalem in 70AD (Mt 24:19)

Lk 23:28

Lk 23:28 - Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. - Not all the daughters of Jerusalem who weeped for Jesus were His followers, but in human sympathy, many bewailed the fate of the Redeemer. Jesus, speaking to the women mourning over His eminent death are warned to weep for themselves as He pronounces woes upon the women with children of that time, who will be caught in the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70 (Mt 24:19). See Lk 3:8, 9

Lk 23:28

Lk 23:27 - weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children - Jesus foresaw the destruction that would befall Jerusalem and the difficulty for women with young. The Rom would not spare old nor young, male nor maiden in the destruction of the city. See Mt 24:19

Lk 23:29

Lk 23:29 - Blessed are the barren, and the womb that never bare, and the paps that never gave suck - Isa 54:1-8 Jesus foresaw the utter destruction of Jerusalem and the even worst fate of the world in the last days. He saw that: 1. Men's enemies will be within their household (Mic 7:6; Mk 13, 12; Lk 12:53) 2. Widespread famine and pestilence that will prey upon the lives of the weak, the young and old

Lk 23:30

Lk 23:30 - Jesus, predicting the conclusion of Earth's final probation and the conclusion of the 7 Last Plagues shows the wicked calling for the rocks to hide them from the face of He Who sits on the throne (Rev 6:14-17)

Lk 23:30

Lk 23:30 - Jesus, predicting the conclusion of Earth's final probation and the conclusion of the 7 Last Plagues shows the wicked calling for the rocks to hide them from the face of He Who sits on the throne (Rev 6:14-17)

Lk 23:31

Lk 23:31 - a green tree - a tree of righteousness, watered by the rivers and bringing forth its fruit in season. See Ps 1:3, 52:8; Jer 17:7, 8

Lk 23:31

Lk 23:31 - what shall be done in the dry? - Jesus refers to the trees for which the axe is laid to the root as well as the withered boughs who will be left to be burned in the Lake of Fire. See Lk 3:8, 9; Isa 27:11; Rev 20:15

Lk 23:32

Lk 23:32 - And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death - See Isa 53:9, 12

Lk 23:33

Lk 23:33 - called Calvary - kraníon Noun Neuter kran-ee'-on diminutive of a derivative of the base of (2768) diminutive of a derivative of the base of ; a skull ("cranium")--Calvary, skull. a skull the Latin translation of the Hebrew Galgotha, meaning skull - See Mt 27:33

Lk 23:33

Lk 23:33 - one on the right hand, and the other on the left - See Mt 25:31-46

Lk 23:34

Lk 23:34 - Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them - See Act 7:60

Lk 23:34

Lk 23:34 - for they know not what they do - The devil has deceived the whole world. Those who crucified Jesus did not understand what they were doing, and to Whom. See Rev 12:9; Act 2:36, 37, 3:14, 15, 17, 7:60; 1Cor 2:8

Lk 23:34

Lk 23:34 - And they parted his raiment, and cast lots - See Ps 22:18; Joh 19:23, 24

Lk 23:35

Lk 23:35 - And the people stood beholding - See Ps 22:13; Mk 15:29-32

Lk 23:35

Lk 23:35 - the rulers also with them derided him - If Thou be the Son of God," they said, "come down from the cross." "Let Him save Himself, if He be Christ, the chosen of God." In the wilderness of temptation Satan had declared, "If Thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread." "If Thou be the Son of God, cast Thyself down" from the pinnacle of the temple. Mt 4:3, 6. And Satan with his angels, in human form, was present at the cross. The archfiend and his hosts were co-operating with the priests and rulers. The teachers of the people had stimulated the ignorant mob to pronounce judgment against One upon whom many of them had never looked, until urged to bear testimony against Him. Priests, rulers, Pharisees, and the hardened rabble were confederated together in a satanic frenzy. Religious rulers united with Satan and his angels. They were doing his bidding. - {DA 746.4}

Lk 23:38 - letters of Greek - One language was widely spoken, and was everywhere recognized as the language of literature. From all lands the Jews of the dispersion gathered to Jerusalem to the annual feasts. As these returned to the places of their sojourn, they could spread throughout the world the tidings of the Messiah's coming. - {DA 32.2} For hundreds of years the Scriptures had been translated into the Greek language, then widely spoken throughout the Roman Empire. The Jews were scattered everywhere, and their expectation of the Messiah's coming was to some extent shared by the Gentiles. - {DA 33.2}

Lk 23:38

Lk 23:38 - THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS - Jesus is the King for all who call upon Him in faith, not the biological Jews. Their claim was that they had not king but Caesar. See Joh 19:13-15 As soon as Jesus was nailed to the cross, it was lifted by strong men, and with great violence thrust into the place prepared for it. This caused the most intense agony to the Son of God. Pilate then wrote an inscription in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin, and placed it upon the cross, above the head of Jesus. It read, "Jesus of Nazareth the King of the Jews." This inscription irritated the Jews. In Pilate's court they had cried, "Crucify Him." "We have no king but Caesar." Joh 19:15. They had declared that whoever should acknowledge any other king was a traitor. Pilate wrote out the sentiment they had expressed. No offense was mentioned, except that Jesus was the King of the Jews. The inscription was a virtual acknowledgment of the allegiance of the Jews to the Roman power. It declared that whoever might claim to be the King of Israel would be judged by them worthy of death. The priests had overreached themselves. When they were plotting the death of Christ, Caiaphas had declared it expedient that one man should die to save the nation. Now their hypocrisy was revealed. In order to destroy Christ, they had been ready to sacrifice even their national existence. - {DA 745.2} A higher power than Pilate or the Jews had directed the placing of that inscription above the head of Jesus. In the providence of God it was to awaken thought, and investigation of the Scriptures. The place where Christ was crucified was near to the city. Thousands of people from all lands were then at Jerusalem, and the inscription declaring Jesus of Nazareth the Messiah would come to their notice. It was a living truth, transcribed by a hand that God had guided. - {DA 745.4}

Lk 23:39

Lk 23:39-43 - The assurance given by Jesus to the thief on the cross was that he "shall be with Him in paradise". The placement of the comma in the sentence makes all the difference in the reading of the verse. Jesus, had not ascended to heaven until after His resurrection as He told Mary "Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father:" - Joh 20:16, 17

Lk 23:40

Lk 23:40 - Dost not thou fear God - There is no question now. There are no doubts, no reproaches. When condemned for his crime, the thief had become hopeless and despairing; but strange, tender thoughts now spring up. He calls to mind all he has heard of Jesus, how

He has healed the sick and pardoned sin. He has heard the words of those who believed in Jesus and followed Him weeping. He has seen and read the title above the Saviour's head. He has heard the passers-by repeat it, some with grieved, quivering lips, others with jesting and mockery. The Holy Spirit illuminates his mind, and little by little the chain of evidence is joined together. In Jesus, bruised, mocked, and hanging upon the cross, he sees the Lamb of God, that taketh away the sin of the world. Hope is mingled with anguish in his voice as the helpless, dying soul casts himself upon a dying Saviour. "Lord, remember me," he cries, "when Thou comest into Thy kingdom." - {DA 750.1}

Lk 23:41 - And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: - the righteous thief acknowledge his sins and repented of them. He was then in a position to receive the full blessings of God, forgiveness, justification, and Christ's imputed and imparted righteousness. See Act 3:19

Lk 23:41

Lk 23:41 - but this man hath done nothing amiss - The righteous thief so the purity in Jesus and sought forgiveness of sin from Him. See Lk 23:4, 14

Lk 23:42

Lk 23:42 - Lord - that word alone was music to Jesus' ear as He was dying. One man among the scoffing, unbelieving hosts, recognized Him for Who He was, God in the flesh, the Savior of the world! See Isa 53:10, 11

Lk 23:42

Lk 23:42 - remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom - This is my prayer!! Please remember me while on others you are calling!

Lk 23:43

Lk 23:43 - And Jesus said unto him - Jesus, hearing the distinct voice of His beloved son who He created, stopped the death process taking hold in His own flesh, to save that one lamb who cried out for mercy.

Lk 23:43

Lk 23:43 - Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise. - Jesus' arms were not too short to save the dying thief on the cross. See Isa 59:1 Jesus, Himself would not ascend to heaven until lying in the grave until the third day. Jesus assured the redeemed thief that day that "he would be with Him (in the resurrection of the just) in paradise". See Joh 20:17

Lk 23:44

Lk 23:44 - there was a darkness over all the earth - See Ps 22:19; 1Kin 8:12; 2Sam 22:12. With amazement angels witnessed the Saviour's despairing agony. The hosts of heaven veiled their faces from the fearful sight. Inanimate nature expressed sympathy with its insulted and dying Author. The sun refused to look upon the awful scene. Its full, bright rays were illuminating the earth at midday, when suddenly it seemed to be blotted out. Complete darkness, like a funeral pall, enveloped the cross. "There was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour." There was no eclipse or other natural cause for this darkness, which was as deep as midnight without moon or stars. It was a miraculous testimony given by God that the faith of after generations might be confirmed. - {DA 753.3} In that thick darkness God's presence was hidden. He makes darkness His pavilion, and conceals His glory from human eyes. God and His holy angels were beside the cross. The Father was with His Son. Yet His presence was not revealed. Had His glory flashed forth from the cloud, every human beholder would have been destroyed. And in that dreadful hour Christ was not to be comforted with the Father's presence. He trod the wine press alone, and of the people there was none with Him. - {DA 753.4}

Lk 23:44 - until the ninth hour - until 3PM

Lk 23:45

Lk 23:45 - And the sun was darkened - a supernatural darkness covered the sky, blotting out all traces of the sun. This darkness, concealed the brightness and glory of the Father, Who is loving compassion could not bear to see His beloved Son suffering alone. The Father descended to veil the shame of His Sons nakedness and to protect the wayward, undeserving world from instantaneous and utter destruction from His glory.

Lk 23:45

Lk 23:45 - the veil of the temple was rent in the midst - the Lord in this act showed the culmination of the entire ceremonial services.

Lk 23:46

Lk 23:46 - into thy hand I commend my spirit - See Ps 31:5

Lk 23:47

Lk 23:47 - Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man - the centurion gave testimony to Jesus' character like Pilate, Herod and the thief on the cross. See Mt 27:54

Lk 23:48

Lk 23:48 - And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned - The astonished throng began to withdraw, and grope their way in the darkness, to the city. They smote upon their breasts as they went, and in terror, speaking scarcely above a whisper, said among themselves, "It is an innocent person that has been murdered. What if, indeed, he is, as he asserted, the Son of God?" - {PH169 11.1}

Lk 23:50

Lk 23:50 - there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just: - Nicodemus, when he saw Jesus lifted up on the cross, remembered His words spoken by night in the Mount of Olives: "As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have eternal life." Joh 3:14, 15. On that Sabbath, when Christ lay in the grave, Nicodemus had opportunity for reflection. A clearer light now illuminated his mind, and the words which Jesus had spoken to him were no longer mysterious. He felt that he had lost much by not connecting himself with the Saviour during His life. Now he recalled the events of Calvary.

The prayer of Christ for His murderers and His answer to the petition of the dying thief spoke to the heart of the learned councilor. Again he looked upon the Saviour in His agony; again he heard that last cry, "It is finished," spoken like the words of a conqueror. Again he beheld the reeling earth, the darkened heavens, the rent veil, the shivered rocks, and his faith was forever established. The very event that destroyed the hopes of the disciples convinced Joseph and Nicodemus of the divinity of Jesus. Their fears were overcome by the courage of a firm and unwavering faith. - {DA 775.2}

Lk 23:51 - The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them - See Joh 11:47-53

Lk 23:51

Lk 23:53 - And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid - See Isa 53:9

Lk 23:54

Lk 23:54 - And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on - The crucifixion of Jesus was done on a Friday, the preparation day before the Sabbath.

Lk 23:55

Lk 23:55 - And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid - there were ample eyewitnesses to Jesus' death and burial such that His resurrection in power and glory could not be contested when He was seen walking through Jerusalem days before departing His disciples for heaven.

Lk 23:56

Lk 23:56 - rested the sabbath day according to the commandment - Consider that the followers of Jesus were not aware of any alteration or abolition of the Sabbath after His death. According to the commandment, the Sabbath was kept even after the death of Christ. See Ex 20:8-11; Deut 5:12-15; Lk 24:13

Lk 24:1

Lk 24:1 - Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning - Sunday morning, after the Sabbath had passed.

Lk 24:4

Lk 24:4 - two men stood by them in shining garments - the angels appeared to the women and those present as men in shining garments. So will we be when Jesus returns!

Lk 24:5

Lk 24:5 - And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them - in fear, the women bowed to the angels.

Lk 24:5

Lk 24:5 - Why seek ye the living among the dead? - Why are you looking for One Who is alive in the place where the dead are found?

Lk 24:6

Lk 24:6 - He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee - See Mt 12:40; Joh 2:19

Lk 24:7

Lk 24:7 - Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again - See Mk 10:34; Lk 18:33

Lk 24:13

Lk 24:13 - threescore furlongs - 7.5miles. Sunday could not have been kept as a Sabbath day of rest by either Jesus or the disciples who walked with Him on the road to Emmaus as it would have been a violation according to their upheld law and custom. Jesus traveled 7.5miles, but the disciples would have traveled 15miles as they ran back to Jerusalem with the news of Jesus' resurrection. Consider also Paul at Troas for the same reasons. See Act 20:7-15; Lk 23:56

Lk 24:16

Lk 24:16 - But their eyes were holden that they should not know him - The Lord somehow concealed Himself to them that they did not perceive who He was. Perhaps similar to God holding His hand over a mistake in the 1843 chart so that the people of the time could not recognize the error. See Lk 24:31; Joh 21:12

Lk 24:19

Lk 24:19 - Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people: - Cleopas nor any of the other disciples were convinced of Jesus being the Messiah. Because of their miseducation concerning the nature of the Messiah, they missed Him, doubted and rejected Him as He. See Lk 24:21; 2Cor 3:14

Lk 24:21

Lk 24:21 - But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel - The disciples misunderstanding of Messiah and His works led them to miss the fulfillment of all of their hopes and dreams in Jesus. The Evangelicals of today have placed their hopes in a false understanding of Israel, just as the Jews in the time of Christ. Jesus indeed is He Who has redeemed Israel, but not the Israel born of the flesh (1Cor 10:18) but rather the Israel born of the Spirit of God (Joh 1:12, 13, 3:6; Gal 4:23)

Lk 24:21

Lk 24:21 - and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done - See Lk 24:1

Lk 24:22

Lk 24:22 - Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre - See Lk 24:9-11

Lk 24:25

Lk 24:25 - O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken - the disciples and all of Christ's followers failed to give counsel to the words of the prophets. See 2Chron 20:20

Lk 24:25

Lk 24:25 - slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken - Contrast - See Act 17:11

Lk 24:26

Lk 24:26 - Ought not Christ to have suffered these things - See Isa 53; Dan 9:25-27

Lk 24:26

Lk 24:26 - and to enter into his glory? - Jesus and the Godhead were glorified, Their character vindicated and the perfect law and government of God magnified at the cross of Jesus Christ. See Gen 3:15; Joh 12:27, 28

Lk 24:27

Lk 24:27 - And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning Himself - See Act 3:18, 22-24, 7:1-53, 28:23; Deut 18:18; Lk 24:44; Act 15:15 Prophecies Concerning Jesus Birthplace: Mic 5:2; Matt 2:1, 6 Mother: Isa 7:14; Mt 1:18-23 Tribe: Gen 49:10; Heb 7:14 His work: Isa 61:1-3; Lk 4:16-21 A Healer: Isa 53:4; Mt 8:16, 17 Teach in Parables: Ps 78:2; Mt 13:34, 35 Triumphant Entry: Zech 9:9; Mt 21:1-11 Betrayer: Ps 41:9; Joh 13:18, 19, 26 Price sold for: Zech 11:12; Mt 26:14-16 How money used: Zech 11:13; Mt 27:3-8 Disciples forsake: Zech 13:7; Mt 26:31 Spit upon: Isa 50:6; Mt 26:67 Smitten with rod: Mic 5:1; Mt 27:30 Silent in Persecution: Isa 53:7; Mt 27:12-14 Manner of death: Zech 12:10; Joh 19:18, 34-37 Location of wounds: Psa 22:16; Joh 20:25 Taunting words: Ps 22:7, 8; Mt 27:39, 41-44 With criminals: Isa 53:9, 12; Mk 15:27, 28 Agonizing cry: Ps 22:1; Mt 27:46 Prayer for enemies: Ps 53:12; Joh 19:28-30 Drink offered: Ps 69:21; Joh 19:28-30 Garments: Ps 22:18; Joh 19:23, 24 No bones broken Ps 34:20; Joh 19:36 His burial: Isa 53:9; Mt 27:57-60 His resurrection: Ps 16:10; Act 2:30, 31 His ascension: Ps 24:7-10; 1Pet 3:22

Lk 24:29

Lk 24:29 - But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them - had the disciples not extended hospitality to the undisclosed traveler, they would have missed the blessing of Jesus fully revealing Himself to them. See Heb 13:2

Lk 24:30

Lk 24:31 - as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them - See Mt 26:26

Lk 24:31

Lk 24:31 - And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight - only after the disciples invited Jesus in to commune and sup with them, were their eyes open to see Him as He was (Rev 3:21, 22). As we open the door to our hearts to Jesus, He continually reveals more and more of Himself to us, removing the blinders so that we may perceive His character and glory. See Ex 33:23; See Hymn 326

Lk 24:32 - Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures? - See Jer 15:16

Lk 24:36

Lk 24:38 - Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you - Jesus' glorified body could transcend time and space and appear wherever and whenever He pleased.

Lk 24:36

Lk 24:36 - Peace be unto you - See Joh 14:27

Lk 24:37

Lk 24:37 - But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit - what we think or believe influences how we feel. The apostles felt fear because they believed they had seen a ghost when it was in fact Jesus, risen from the grave. Later in verse 41, the disciples were led to believe that it was indeed Jesus and not a ghost and thus felt joy. Our feelings are directly affect by what we believe and think. See Lk 24:38, 41

Lk 24:39

Lk 24:39 - Behold my hands and my feet - See Ps 22:16

Lk 24:39

Lk 24:39 - for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have - Indeed, God the Father has given His Son to humanity forever! Praise You LORD!! - See Joh 3:16 Angels are ministering spirits, another order of creation from humans who do not have flesh and blood. See Ps 8:5; Heb 1:14

Lk 24:40

Lk 24:40 - he shewed them his hands and his feet - See Zech 13:6

Lk 24:41

Lk 24:41 - And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered - See Rom 6:10; Heb 7:27, 9:28, 10:10;

Lk 24:42

Lk 24:42 - And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb - two things were offered to Jesus but only one was eaten, the honeycomb.

Lk 24:43

Lk 24:43 - And he took it, and did eat before them - the statement implies that Jesus took of one of the two things offered to Him, not both. Based on His possible inauguration of a plant based diet at the last Passover, it would be fair to assume that Jesus ate of the honeycomb. See Isa 9:

Lk 24:44

Lk 24:44 - These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me - See Dan 9:24; Lk 22:37, 24:27

Lk 24:44

Lk 24:44 - that all things must be fulfilled - See Lk 21:22

Lk 24:45

Lk 24:45 - Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures - For forty days Christ remained on the earth, preparing the disciples for the work before them and explaining that which heretofore they had been unable to comprehend. He spoke of the prophecies concerning His advent, His rejection by the Jews, and His death, showing that every specification of these prophecies had been fulfilled. He told them that they were to regard this fulfillment of prophecy as an assurance of the power that would attend them in their future labors. "Then opened He their understanding," we read, "that they might understand the Scriptures, and said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem." And He added, "Ye are witnesses of these things." Lk 24:45-48. - {AA 26.2}

Lk 24:47

Lk 24:47 - And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem - See Rom 2:3, 4; Rev 3:19, 14:6

Lk 24:48 - And ye are witnesses of these things - See 1Pet 1:16-21

Lk 24:49

Lk 24:49 - I send the promise of my Father upon you - See Act 1:7, 8, 2:33; Joh 14:16, 16:7

Lk 24:49

Lk 24:49 - until ye be endued with power from on high - See Act 2:1-4; Lk 1:35

Lk 24:50

Lk 24:50 - Bethany - Bēthanía Noun Location bay-than-ee'-ah of Aramaic origin of Chaldee origin; date-house; Beth-any, a place in Palestine:--Bethany. Bethany = "house of dates" or, "house of misery" a village at the Mount of Olives, about two miles (3 km) from Jerusalem, on or near the normal road to Jericho a town or village on the east bank of the Jordan, where Joh was baptising

Lk 24:53

Lk 24:53 - And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen - once they had their encounter with Christ and received power from the Holy Spirit, fear was taken away and they spoke with boldness, the gospel of Jesus Christ!

John

Joh 1:1Back to Table of Contents

Joh 1:1 - In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
- See Ps 90:2

Joh 1:1

John 1:1 - the Word - What speech is to thought, so is Christ to the invisible Father. He is the manifestation of the Father, and is called the Word of God. God sent His Son into the world, His divinity clothed with humanity, that man might bear the image of the invisible God. He made known in His words, His character, His power and majesty, the nature and attributes of God. Divinity flashed through humanity in softening, subduing light. He was the embodiment of the law of God, which is the transcript of His character (Manuscript 77, 1899). - {5BC 1131.6}

Joh 1:1

Joh 1:1 - and the Word was with God - better translated, "the Word was of God", just as my arm is of my body - of the same nature, essence, and origin. See Prov 8:22-30

Joh 1:1

John 1:1 - and the Word was God - See Rev 1:8, 10-15; Ps 91:1

Joh 1:2

Joh 1:2 - The same was in the beginning with God - The Word was together with God in the beginning. There was never a time that the Word was not with God. The Word, like God, predates all things. See Col 1:17; Prov 8:22-30

Joh 1:3

Joh 1:3 - All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made - Eph 3:9; Col 1:16, 17; Heb 3:4; Ps 33:6, 9 Jesus was the active Agent in the Creation (Gen 1, 2). It was Jesus Who under the direction of the Father (Joh 14:10) and employing the power of the Holy Spirit, made all things in 6 days and rested, blessed, and was refreshed on the 7th day (Gen 2:3; Ex 31:17, 20:8-11). It is Jesus Who numbers all the stars and calls them all by name (Ps 147:4). It is Jesus that sustains all things by the power of His word (Heb 1:3; Col 1:16, 17). In Jesus is the beginning of all that has been created (the creation). Creation has its beginning in Him. See Col 1:16, 17; Rev 3:14 The Father then made known that it was ordained by Himself that Christ, His Son, should be equal with Himself; so that wherever was the presence of His Son, it was as His own presence. The word of the Son was to be obeyed as readily as the word of the Father. His Son He had invested with authority to command the heavenly host. Especially was His Son to work in union with Himself in the anticipated creation of the earth and every living thing that should exist upon the earth. His Son would carry out His will and His purposes but would do nothing of Himself alone. The Father's will would be fulfilled in Him. - {SR 13.2} Creative power is the distinguishing mark of divinity. The Word is divine! See Col 1:16, 17; Heb 1:2, 3; Ps 33:6-9, 95:4-7; Jer 10:10-12 Man is made in the image of God, but he has no creative power. In his breath there can be only the forms of living things; but in the breath of God there are not only the forms, but the very living things themselves, for He is the living God, and with Him is "the fountain of life." When He speaks, the word which names the thing, contains the very thing itself. Whatever the word describes exists in living form in that word. {The Gospel of Creation, by E.J. Waggoner}

Joh 1:4 - In him was life; and the life was the light of men - the self-existent life that abides in Jesus, the Word, He imparts to us so that we may live and move and have our being. Jesus' life is un-borrowed and underived eternal life. See Ps 36:9; Act 17:28, Col 1:17, 3:3; 1Jo 5:11; Joh 17:3, 11:25, 5:26; Mt 5:45 "In Him was life; and the life was the light of men." It is not physical life that is here specified, but eternal life, the life which is exclusively the property of God. The Word, who was with God, and who was God, had this life. Physical life is something which each individual received. It is not eternal or immortal; for God, the Lifegiver, takes it again. Man has no control over his life. But the life of Christ was un-borrowed. No one can take this life from Him. "I lay it down of myself," He said. In Him was life, original, un-borrowed, underived. This life is not inherent in man. He can possess it only through Christ. He cannot earn it; it is given him as a free gift if he will believe in Christ as his personal Saviour. "This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent." John 17:3. This is the open fountain of life for the world (The Signs of the Times, February 13, 1912). - {5BC 1130.3} 12, 13. See EGW comment on 2 Corinthians 5:17. - {5BC 1130.4}

Joh 1:5

Joh 1:5 - And the light shineth in darkness - See Gen 1:2-4; Isa 60:2

Joh 1:5

Joh 1:5 - and the darkness comprehended it not - the darkness could not understand, become in agreement with, accept the light. Due to the deceivableness of unrighteousness within man (2Thess 2:10), our eyes are blinded to the Light. See Joh 1:10, 11, 3:19-21

Joh 1:6

Joh 1:6 - There was a man sent from God, whose name was Joh - See Isa 40:3-9; Joh 1:8; Lk 3:2-6; Mk 1:2-8; Mal 3:1

Joh 1:7

Joh 1:7 - The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe - Joh came to direct all people to Jesus Christ so that they would all believe in Him. Those who rejected Joh, could not be benefited by Jesus. See Lk 20:4-7; Joh 5:33, 35

Joh 1:8

Joh 1:8 - He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light - As Jesus came to bear witness and glorify His Father, so John was sent of the Father to bear witness and glorify Jesus - See Isa 40:3, 4; Joh 1:6

Joh 1:9

Joh 1:9 - That was the True Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world - See Joh 3:19, 20; Ps 36:9; Heb 9:2

Joh 1:9

Joh 1:9 - lighteth every man that cometh into the world - Jesus, the Light of the world (Joh 8:12), through the Holy Spirit enlightens the conscience of everyman, bringing conviction of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment. See Joh 16:8-11; 1Cor 4:5 If a comma is added after the word "man", it then speaks of Jesus, the Light, that cometh into the world; a statement signifying His divinity and Messiahship. See Heb 10:5; Joh 11:27 We may have flattered ourselves, as did Nicodemus, that our life has been upright, that our moral character is correct, and think that we need not humble the heart before God, like the common sinner: but when the light from Christ shines into our souls, we shall see how impure we are; we shall discern the selfishness of motive, the enmity against God, that has defiled every act of life. Then we shall know that our own righteousness is indeed as filthy rags, and that the blood of Christ alone can cleanse us from the defilement of sin, and renew our hearts in His own likeness. - {SC 28.3}

Joh 1:10

Joh 1:10 - He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not - See Joh 1:14

Joh 1:10

Joh 1:10 - and the world was made by him - See Joh 1:3, 14; Col 1:16, 17

Joh 1:10

Joh 1:10 - and the world knew him not - This speaks of the depraved condition men had fallen to. Man, who was made in the image of God and once communed face to face with God, could no longer identify God in the person of the Son. See Joh 1:5, 26; Isa 60:2

Joh 1:11

Joh 1:11 - He came unto his own, and his own received him not - one of the saddest statements in the Bible, that God came to the ones He established and ordained to be His ambassadors, a peculiar treasure, and they received Him not. See Isa 53:3; Joh 1:5, 5:46, 7:1, 26, 45-48, 19:15; Isa 53:2

Joh 1:12

Joh 1:12 - but as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God - Jesus did not attempt to explain the mystery of His birth. He made no answer to the questionings in regard to His having come down from heaven, as He had made none to the questions concerning His crossing the sea. He did not call attention to the miracles that marked His life. Voluntarily He had made Himself of no reputation, and taken upon Him the form of a servant. But His words and works revealed His character. All whose hearts were open to divine illumination would recognize in Him “the Only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.” Joh 1:14. - {DA 387.2} “When we learn to stop. wishing we could do right or trying to do God’s will with our own strength and begin giving to Jesus a firm decision to do whatever He desires of us, we’ll then find all the power we need to do what is pleasing to God.” {Surrender, G. Jackson, pg. 576}

Joh 1:12 - received Him - to receive Jesus is to believe on Him. To yield the heart and will in faith to God. Believing is receiving with God - “According to your faith be it unto you” (Mt 9:29). See Act 15:11, 16:31; Rom 10:9; Gal 3:22; Mt 8:13, 9:22; Lk 8:48, 17:19; Mk 5:34; 1Tim 4:10

Joh 1:12

Joh 1:12 - power to become the sons of God - the grace of God that brings salvation, equips the saints with the abiding Holy Spirit (2Tim 1:7) Who gives power to all who believe in Jesus Christ. This power accomplishes the following: 1. Breaks the power of darkness in our lives and translates us into the eternal kingdom of Christ (Col 1:13; Eph 1:18; 1Pet 2:9) 2. Power to live soberly, righteously and godly in the present world (Tit 2:12) 3. Power to become partakers of Jesus' divine nature, escaping the corruptions in the world through lust (2Cor 5:17; Eph 1:19, Col 1:27-29; Isa 40:29-31) God was to be manifest in Christ, “reconciling the world unto himself” (2 Corinthians 5:19). Man had become so degraded by sin that it was impossible for him, in himself, to come into harmony with Him whose nature is purity and goodness. But Christ, after having redeemed man from the condemnation of the law, could impart divine power to unite with human effort. Thus by repentance toward God and faith in Christ the fallen children of Adam might once more become “sons of God.” When a soul receives Christ, he receives power to live the life of Christ. {God’s Amazing Grace - February 14} Satan had claimed that it was impossible for man to obey God’s commandments; and in our own strength it is true that we cannot obey them. But Christ came in the form of humanity, and by His perfect obedience He proved that humanity and divinity combined can obey every one of God’s precepts. - {COL 314.4} “As many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name.” Joh 1:12. This power is not in the human agent. It is the power of God. When a soul receives Christ, he receives power to live the life of Christ. - {COL 314.5}

Joh 1:12

Joh 1:12 - the gospel of Christ produces sons whereas Babylon produces daughters. See Rev 17:5; Rom 8:14; Gal 4:23

Joh 1:12

Joh 1:12 - even to them that believe on his name - To believe Christ is to receive Him. Believing is receiving with God - “According to your faith be it unto you” (Mt 9:29). See Act 15:11, 16:31; Rom 10:9; Gal 3:22; Mt 8:13, 9:22; Lk 8:48, 17:19; Mk 5:34

Joh 1:12

Joh 1:12 - believe on his name - See Ex 20:24 The belief in Jesus’ name must compel us to

Good works (Jam 2:20-26): 1. A heart surrender 2. Repentance of sin 3. Befriending God in Love/Gratitude/Appreciation 4. Obedience

Joh 1:13

Joh 1:13 - Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God - Jesus is speaking of the New Birth, being born of the Spirit and also being born of the will of God - His eternal purposes for all of us individually. See 1Pet 1:23; Isa 43:7, 15, 21; Gal 1:1; Rom 9:6-8; 1Joh 5:4, 5

Joh 1:13

Joh 1:13 - but of God - See Jam 1:18; 1Jo 3:9 Sons of God are: 1. Born of Promise - Gen 3:15, 12:1-3, 15:1-6; Rom 9:6-8; Gal 4:22-31 2. Born of the Spirit - Rom 8:14; Lk 1:35; John 3:1-8 3. A creation of God - 2Cor 5:17 4. A miracle of God - Lk 1:35; John 3:1-8

Joh 1:14

Joh 1:14 - And the Word was made flesh - The Spirit of God testifies that Jesus Christ has come in fallen human flesh. See Eph 3:9; Heb 2:14-18; 1Jo 4:2; Gal 4:4 The Ten Commandments were spoken by God Himself, and were written by His own hand. They are of divine, and not of human composition. But the Bible, with its God-given truths expressed in the language of men, presents a union of the divine and the human. Such a union existed in the nature of Christ, who was the Son of God and the Son of man. Thus it is true of the Bible, as it was of Christ, that "the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us." Joh 1:14. - {GC v.4}

Joh 1:14

Joh 1:14 - and dwelt among us - See Isa 7:14, 9:6, 7; Mt 1:23; Joh 1:10

Joh 1:14

Joh 1:14 - the glory as of the only begotten of the Father - See Heb 1:3

Joh 1:14

Joh 1:14 - full of grace and truth - See Joh 1:17 He [Satan] had declared that the principles of God's government make forgiveness impossible. Had the world been destroyed, he would have claimed that his accusations were proved true. He was ready to cast blame upon God, and to spread his rebellion to the worlds above. But instead of destroying the world, God sent His Son to save it. Though corruption and defiance might be seen in every part of the alien province, a way for its recovery was provided. At the very crisis, when Satan seemed about to triumph, the Son of God came with the embassy of divine grace. Through every age, through every hour, the love of God had been exercised toward the fallen race. Notwithstanding the perversity of men, the signals of mercy had been continually exhibited. And when the fullness of the time had come, the Deity was glorified by pouring upon the world a flood of healing grace that was never to be obstructed or withdrawn till the plan of salvation should be fulfilled. - {DA 37.2}

Joh 1:15

Joh 1:15 - He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me - See Mic 5:2; Ps 90:1, 2; Joh 8:58

Joh 1:16

Joh 1:16 - And of his fulness have all we received - every person and thing are debtors of God's loving kindness, grace and mercy. Jesus came to fulfill all righteousness thus, we have all received of the fullness of God through Jesus Christ, every spiritual blessing in Jesus Christ. See Eph 1:3; Col 2:9, 10

Joh 1:16

Joh 1:16 - grace for grace - Probably meaning, "grace added to grace." Day by day every true believer goes to the heavenly storehouse for divine grace sufficient to meet the needs of the day. Daily he grows in grace and in understanding God's purpose for his life (cf. 2Pet 3:18). He advances steadily toward the goal of a perfect character (see Matt. 5:48). {SDA Bible Commentary vol 5}. See Ex 33:13; Rom 5:20

Joh 1:17

Joh 1:17 - For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ - the Law, both moral and ceremonial, which was our school master and tutor was given through Moses (Gal 3:23-25). But Jesus came to give us power by His grace to walk in righteousness by the faith of Jesus Christ. See Rom 3:21, 22; Gal 2:21

Joh 1:17

Joh 1:17 - but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ - See Joh 1:14, 14:6; Eph 2:4

Joh 1:18

Joh 1:18 - No man hath seen God at any time - See Deut 4:12, 15; 1Jo 4:12, 20; Joh 5:37, 6:46; Ex 33:20; 1Tim 6:16; Mt 11:27 Similarly, no man can receive or perceive the Son unless the Father send them to Him. Joh 6:44

Joh 1:18

Joh 1:18 - the only begotten Son - See Ps 2:7

Joh 1:18

Joh 1:18 - which is in the bosom of the Father - Jesus, the Word is of [with] God. See Joh 1:1 He [Jesus] has His abode there, and He is there as a part of the God-head, as surely when on earth as when in heaven. The use of the present tense implies continued existence. It presents the same idea that is contained in the statement of Jesus to the Jews (Joh 8:58), "Before Abraham was, I am." {Christ our Righteousness pg. 33 by Waggoner}

Joh 1:18

Joh 1:18 - he hath declared him - Jesus came to reveal the Father's true character to humanity. See Mt 11:27; 2Tim 2:5; Joh 14:6, 8, 9

Joh 1:19

Joh 1:19 - when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou? - the Jewish establishment were threatened by Joh's fame and popularity and sought to know who Joh claimed to be (Joh 1:24). They would accept him if he came under their authority as a traditional Jewish teacher or even prophet. But the fact that God raised Joh up, training and educating him in the wilderness by angels and not in the traditional schools of the Jews was cause for the Jews rejecting him. See Joh 1:22

Joh 1:21

Joh 1:21 - Art thou Elias - Reflecting upon the words of Mal, Jews inquired if Joh was Elias who was prophesied to come before the great and dreadful day of the LORD. See Mal 4:5, 6

Joh 1:21

Joh 1:21- Arth Thou that prophet - The Jews inquired if Joh was the Prophet spoken of by God Who was to be Messiah. See Deut 18:18, 19; Joh 12:47-50, 6:14, 5:45-57, 13:19

Joh 1:23

Joh 1:23 - He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias - See Isa 40:3, 4

Joh 1:24

Joh 1:24 - And they which were sent were of the Pharisees - the Jewish leaders dispatched spies to inquire of Joh. See Joh 1:19, 21, 22, 5:33; Lk 20:20

Joh 1:25

Joh 1:25 - Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet? - the question is one of authority. By what authority does Joh baptize if he is none of the persons mentioned? Such is the question asked of all men called of God (Joh 1:33) but not called of men's wisdom and authority. See Mt 21:23; Mk 11:28; Lk 20:2; The Jews understood baptism as it was portrayed in the Exodus from Egypt and the crossing of the Jordan into the Promised Land. See Ex 14:16-22; 1Cor 10:1-6; Heb 11:29

Joh 1:25

Joh 1:25 - that Christ - See Joh 1:41; Dan 9:25; Ps 45:7

Joh 1:25

Joh 1:25 - nor Elias - See Mal 4:5, 6

Joh 1:25

Joh 1:25 - neither that prophet - See Deut 18:18; Joh 1:45

Joh 1:26

Joh 1:26 - but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not - See Joh 1:5, 10

Joh 1:28

Joh 1:28 - Bethabara - "ferry-house"

Joh 1:29

Joh 1:29 - Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world - See Joh 1:36; Isa 53:10; Gal 3:13

Joh 1:29

Joh 1:29 - Behold - {Heb. íde}. used as an interjection to denote surprise; lo!--behold, lo, see.

Joh 1:29

Joh 1:29 - taketh away the sin of the world - Jesus has made provision to save the entire world. See Joh 4:42

Joh 1:30

Joh 1:30 - for he was before me - Though Joh was conceived in his mother Elizabeth 6-months before Jesus was conceived in Mary, Joh makes note of the fact that Jesus is eternal, the Everlasting God, the Great I AM that I AM. See Prov 8:22-30; Ps 90:1, 2; Joh 1:34, 8:58

Joh 1:31

Joh 1:31 - but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water - Joh, as Jesus' forerunner, came baptizing so that He might point Israel to Jesus, the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world.

Joh 1:32

Joh 1:32 - And Joh bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him - See Mt 3:16, 17

Joh 1:33

John 1:33 - And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost - John's baptism was supposed to prepare the way for God's people to receive Jesus and receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit (Mal 3:1). Water baptism foreshadowed the baptism of the Holy Spirit that we are to receive from Jesus by faith, a work of God (John 3:1-8; Col 2:12;).

Joh 1:33

Joh 1:33 - the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost - See Act 1:5, 8; Joh 3:5-8, 20:20-22

Joh 1:34

Joh 1:34 - And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God - See Dan 9:25; Joh 1:49

Joh 1:36

Joh 1:36 - Behold the Lamb of God! - See Joh 1:29

Joh 1:37

Joh 1:37 - And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus - the two disciples which left Joh understood Joh's message and accepted the command to follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth.

Joh 1:38

Joh 1:38 - They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou? - unknowingly, the soon to be disciples were requesting to abide in the secret place of the Most High! See Ps 91:1

Joh 1:41

Joh 1:41 - He first findeth his own brother - we should seek to win those closest to us first. See Mk 5:19

Joh 1:41

Joh 1:41 - We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ - See Dan 9:25; Ps 45:7

Joh 1:45

Joh 1:45 - We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph - Deut 18:18, 19

Joh 1:46

Joh 1:46 - Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? - a telling statement of the town and environment in which Jesus was raised. Despite the corruptions of this despised town, Jesus grew up as a lily, untainted and unmarred by the muck about Him.

Joh 1:46

Joh 1:46 - Come and see - See Ps 34:8

Joh 1:47

Joh 1:47 - guile - craft, cunning, artifice, duplicity, deceit. See 2Tim 1:5; Rev 14:5

Joh 1:49

Joh 1:49 - Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel - See Mt 14:33; Joh 1:34; Compare Joh 20:28 If Nathanael had trusted to the rabbis for guidance, he would never have found Jesus. It was by seeing and judging for himself that he became a disciple. So in the case of many today whom prejudice withholds from good. How different would be the result if they would "come and see"! - {DA 140.5}

Joh 1:51

Joh 1:51 - Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man - See Gen 28:11-15; Joh 14:6; Lk 16:26 In the apostasy, man alienated himself from God; earth was cut off from heaven. Across the gulf that lay between, there could be no communion. But through Christ, earth is again linked with heaven. With His own merits, Christ has bridged the gulf which sin had made, so that the ministering angels can hold communion with man. Christ connects fallen man in his weakness and helplessness with the Source of infinite power. - {SC 20.1}

Joh 2:1

Joh 2:1 - And the third day - third day after calling His disciples Andrew, Peter, Philip, Nathanael

Joh 2:1

Joh 2:1 - Cana of Galilee - Cana of Galilee was a village in Galilee about 5 miles (8 km) NW from Nazareth. The city was made up of both Jews and Samaritans.

Joh 2:3

Joh 2:3-5 - the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine - But though Mary had not a right conception of Christ's mission, she trusted Him implicitly. To this faith Jesus responded. It was to honor Mary's trust, and to strengthen the faith of His disciples, that the first miracle was performed. [19] - {CSA 11.3}

Joh 2:8

Joh 2:8 - And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it - The gift of Christ to the marriage feast was a symbol. The water represented baptism into His death; the wine, the shedding of His blood for the sins of the world.... - {CSA 11.6}

Joh 2:9

Joh 2:9 - When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was - The gift of Christ to the marriage feast was a symbol. The water represented baptism into His death; the wine, the shedding of His blood for the sins of the world.... - {CSA 11.6}

Joh 2:10

Joh 2:10 - but thou hast kept the good wine until now - Jesus' wine was the best tasting wine the governor tasted. See Isa 65:8 The Bible nowhere sanctions the use of intoxicating wine. The wine that Christ made from water at the marriage feast of Cana was the pure juice of the grape. This is the "new wine ... found in the cluster," of which the Scripture says, "Destroy it not; for a blessing is in it." Isa 65:8. - {MH 333.1} It was Christ who, in the Old Testament, gave the warning to Israel, "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise." Proverbs 20:1. He Himself provided no such beverage. Satan tempts men to indulgence that will becloud reason and benumb the spiritual perceptions, but Christ teaches us to bring the lower nature into subjection. He never places before men that which would be a temptation. His whole life was an example of self-denial. It was to break the power of appetite that in the forty days' fast in the wilderness He suffered in our behalf the severest test that humanity could endure. It was Christ who directed that Joh the Baptist should drink neither wine nor strong drink. It was He who enjoined similar abstinence upon the wife of Manoah. Christ did not contradict His own teaching. The unfermented wine that He provided for the wedding guests was a wholesome and refreshing drink. This is the wine that was used by our Saviour and His disciples in the first Communion. It is the wine that should always be used on the Communion table as a symbol of the Saviour's blood. The sacramental service is designed to be soul-refreshing and life-giving. There is to be connected with it nothing that could minister to evil. - {MH 333.2}

Joh 2:11

Joh 2:11 - This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him - At the first feast He attended with His disciples, Jesus gave them the cup that symbolized His work for their salvation. At the last supper He gave it again, in the institution of that sacred rite by which His death was to be shown forth "till He come." 1Cor 11:26. [21] - {CSA 11.7}

Joh 2:13

Joh 2:13 - the Jew's passover was at hand - Passover of A.D.28, 6-months after Jesus' baptism and the start of His ministry.

Joh 2:14

Joh 2:14 - And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: - the solemn festival commemorating God's deliverance of His people from the bondage of sin and the world and foreshadowing Jesus' sacrificial death was being profaned by money hungry grifters, employed by the Jewish leadership.

Joh 2:15

Joh 2:15 - And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple - this is the first temple cleansing that took place at the start of Jesus' ministry. It would be paralleled by a second temple cleansing at the end of His ministry. See Lk 19:45; Rev 6:15-17

Joh 2:16

Joh 2:16 - And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise. - See Mal 3:1-3 "In cleansing the temple from the world's buyers and sellers, Jesus announced His mission to cleanse the heart from the defilement of sin... The courts of the temple at Jerusalem, filled with the tumult of unholy traffic, represented all too truly the temple of the heart, defiled by the presence of sensual passion and unholy thoughts. In cleansing the temple from the world's buyers and sellers, Jesus announced His mission to cleanse the heart from the defilement of sin,—from the earthly desires, the selfish lusts, the evil habits, that corrupt the soul. {DA 161.1}

Joh 2:16

Joh 2:16 - make not my Father's house an house of merchandise - See Jer 7:11; Mt 21:12, 13; Ps 69:9; Ezekiel 34:2-6, 22:25-29;

Joh 2:17

Joh 2:17 - zeal of thine house - see Ps 69:9

Joh 2:18

Joh 2:18 - Then answered the Jews - Above all others the priests and rulers should have seen in Jesus the anointed of the Lord; for in their hands were the sacred scrolls that described His mission, and they knew that the cleansing of the temple was a manifestation of more than human power. Much as they hated Jesus, they could not free themselves from the thought that He might be a prophet sent by God to restore the sanctity of the temple. With a deference born of this fear, they went to Him with the inquiry, "What sign showest Thou unto us, seeing that Thou doest these things?" - {DA 164.1}

Joh 2:19

Joh 2:19 - Destroy this temple - He answered them by a parable, showing that He read their malice, and saw to what lengths it would lead them. "Destroy this temple," He said, "and in three days I will raise it up." - {DA 164.2} In these words His meaning was twofold. He referred not only to the destruction of the Jewish temple and worship, but to His own death, —the destruction of the temple of His body. This the Jews were already plotting. As the priests and rulers returned to the temple, they had proposed to kill Jesus, and thus rid themselves of the troubler. Yet when He set before them their purpose, they did not understand Him. They took His words as applying only to the temple at Jerusalem, and with indignation exclaimed, “Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt Thou rear it up in three days?” Now they felt that Jesus had justified their unbelief, and they were confirmed in their rejection of Him. - {DA 164.3}

Joh 2:19 - in three days I will raise it up - The words of Christ point to the raising up spoken by the prophets Hos 6:2 and Jon 1:17 where on the third day there would be a raising/lifting up of God's people.

Joh 2:20

Joh 2:20 - Forty and six years was this temple in the building - Herod began rebuilding the temple in 19BC. The verse gives a second witness to the three step process paralleled in the Millerite movement of 1798 to 1844 and in the three years of Dan and the 3 Hebrew worthies preparation before appearing before the king, and in the raising up on the third day spoken by Hos the prophet (Hos 6:1, 2). 1. 46yrs to rebuild God's temple 2. 46yrs to rebuild God's spiritual temple between 1798 and 1844

Joh 2:21

Joh 2:21 - But he spake of the temple of his body - Every human body is comprised of 46 chromosomes. Thus our bodies are the temple of the Holy Spirit. See 1Cor 6:19

Joh 2:22

Joh 2:22 - When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said - When we see prophecy confirmed it is to strengthen our faith in the Scriptures See Jon 1:17, 2:6; Joh 14:29

Joh 2:23

Joh 2:23 - many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did - the miracles shown by Jesus attested to the character and claim He made to being the Son of God. Jesus however, understood human frailty and knew that under pressure, many who once professed Him as Messiah would deny him vehemently.

Joh 2:24

Joh 2:24 - But Jesus did not commit himself unto them - Jesus neither disclosed His identity to the people nor placed much trust or credit in them as He did with His disciples and close friends such as Mary, Martha and Lazarus. Jesus understood the frailty and fickleness of men.

Joh 2:25

Joh 2:25 - And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man - Jesus knew how fickle mankind can be, one instance they praise you and the next they condemn you. He did not seek man's approval. See Jer 17:9; Joh 5:34; Ps 139; Rom 8:27

Joh 3:1

John 3:1 - There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews - Nicodemus, a Pharisee, among the strictest sect of the Jews, was one who was respected and honored for his wisdom and wealth. See Act 26:5; John 7:48-53, 3:10

Joh 3:2

Joh 3:2 - The same came to Jesus by night - though coming in the cover of night, Nicodemus had a personal interest that needed to be satisfied, despite the rejection of the other Pharisees. Though in a cowardly manner, he was willing to seek personal knowledge of Jesus and His character. Nicodemus, based on his encounter with the Lord, would come to His defense when the Jews sought to take Him by force and try Him. See Joh 7:45-53

Joh 3:2

Joh 3:2 - Rabbi - Nicodemus was not willing to confess Him as Master or Lord (Messiah) but only as Rabbi, a Teacher.

Joh 3:2

Joh 3:2 - we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him - Nicodemus spoke the sentiments of all the Pharisees who would not, however, openly confess or acknowledge Jesus' authority. He sought to know the source of Jesus' power without yielding any acknowledgment of his own lack or need of God. See Mt 21:11, 23; Joh 9:30-32, 10:37, 38, 15:22

Joh 3:3

John 3:3 - Verily, verily, I say unto thee - Jesus' doubles the word "verily", indicating that what is to come forth from His mouth is truth upon the testimony of 2 witnesses.

Joh 3:3

Joh 3:3 - Except a man be born again - A person must deny the life they presently have and permit the Lord to give them second birth through the power of the Holy Spirit. We must be born of the waters of baptism and through baptism of the Holy Ghost. This is the most essential part of our Christian walk, we must permit God to take residence and preeminence in us as we abide in Him (Joh 15). When we speak of faith, there is a distinction that should be borne in mind. There is a kind of belief that is wholly distinct from faith. The existence and power of God, the truth of His word, are facts that even Satan and his hosts cannot at heart deny. The Bible says that "the devils also believe, and tremble;" but this is not faith. James 2:19. Where there is not only a belief in God's word, but a submission of the will to Him; where the heart is yielded to Him, the affections fixed upon Him, there is faith—faith that works by love and purifies the soul. Through this faith the heart is renewed in the image of God. And the heart that in its unrenewed state is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be, now delights in its holy precepts, exclaiming with the psalmist, "O how love I Thy law! it is my meditation all the day." Psalm 119:97. And the righteousness of the law is fulfilled in us, "who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit." Romans 8:1. - {SC 63.2} Rom 7:18 - For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not - Rom 3:9-18; Gal 5:17 Lk 1:35 - The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. - See Rom 5:5; Col 1:27, 28 Act 3:19, 20 - Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you: - Lk 1:35; Lk 14:26, 27 - If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. - we must have no other gods before the LORD. He must have preeminence in our minds, heart, body and soul. - Joh 21:18-22 2Cor 5:17 - Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. 1Jo 4:1-3 - Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world. Rom 6:4, 5 - Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: 1Cor 15:31 - I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily Gal 2:20 - I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Eph 1:13, 14 - In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory. Ps 51:11-13 - Create in me a clean heart, and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from Thy presence... Then will I teach transgressors thy ways and sinners shall be converted unto thee." See Joh 3:5; 1Jo 5:1; 1Pet 3:21

Joh 3:3 - he cannot see the kingdom of God - he can not perceive nor enter the Kingdom of God. The Kingdom of God does not come through observation, but abides inside of each individual that has accepted and surrendered to Jesus Christ. Spiritual things are spiritually discerned (revealed - 1Cor 2:14; 1Pet 4:12, 13; John 8:43, 47), therefore, a natural person can not perceive the Kingdom of God. The Kingdom of God is seen and is here as Christ abides in each person through the Holy Spirit (Col 1:27, 28; Gal 2:20). See Joh 6:40; Lk 17:20, 21; Mt 5:8; 1Pet 4:12, 13; Rev 3:17

Joh 3:4

Joh 3:4 - Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? - Nicodemus was offended by Jesus' blunt answer stating that He needed spiritual renewal. Nicodemus was accustomed receiving the praises of men and here was Jesus, suggesting that he was far from the kingdom of God. This offended his carnal nature. But the carnal nature needed to die and Nicodemus did not even know that he was in a lost condition; he was as a Laodicean - rich and increased with goods and thought he needed nothing but did not realize his true condition. Gal 1:15||John 1:12, 13; 1Cor 8:2; Rev 3:14-22 Many young men are sent forth to labor, who do not understand the plan of salvation and what true conversion is; in fact they need to be converted. We need to be enlightened on this point, and the ministers need to be educated to dwell more particularly upon subjects which explain true conversion. All who are baptized are to give evidence that they have been converted. There is not a point that needs to be dwelt upon more earnestly, repeated more frequently, or established more firmly in the minds of all, than the impossibility of fallen man meriting anything by his own best good works. Salvation is through faith in Jesus Christ alone. - {1888 811.2}

Joh 3:5

Joh 3:5 - Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God - See Zech 13:1; Mt 18:3 When we speak of faith, there is a distinction that should be borne in mind. There is a kind of belief that is wholly distinct from faith. The existence and power of God, the truth of His word, are facts that even Satan and his hosts cannot at heart deny. The Bible says that "the devils also believe, and tremble;" but this is not faith. James 2:19. Where there is not only a belief in God's word, but a submission of the will to Him; where the heart is yielded to Him, the affections fixed upon Him, there is faith—faith that works by love and purifies the soul. Through this faith the heart is renewed in the image of God. And the heart that in its unrenewed state is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be, now delights in its holy precepts, exclaiming with the psalmist, "O how love I Thy law! it is my meditation all the day." Psalm 119:97. And the righteousness of the law is fulfilled in us, "who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit." Romans 8:1. - {SC 63.2} Jesus here established a new order, based on the New Covenant. The Old Covenant was passing away with its rites and ordinances as it met it's antitype, Jesus, the fulfillment (end) of the Law (Rom 10:4; Gal 3:23, 24). Jesus was introducing His New Covenant (a restatement of the Everlasting Covenant) that is made possible through faith of Jesus Christ (Gal 3:22). As Paul states, to be born of the Spirit is to believe in the promises of God and to walk by faith, not wavering (Rom 4:17-25; Gal 3:11). Unless we have been freed from the works of unrighteousness (all "works" of the flesh) and embrace and walk in God's promises by faith of Jesus Christ, we will not enter God's kingdom (Gal 4:30, 31). See 1Jo 5:8

Joh 3:5

Joh 3:5 - and of the Spirit - Jesus is He Who baptizes with the Holy Ghost. We receive the Holy Spirit as a gift at baptism or thereafter upon our sincere asking for Him (Act 2:38, 39; 19:1-6; Lk 11:9-13; John 15:1-5). See John 1:33; Lk 1:35, 38; Rev 10:7; Col 1:27, 28; Eph 1:13, 14; Rom 5:5; Gal 2:20, 4:6; 1Jo 3:24, 4:1-4; 2Pet 1:1-4; Heb 10:35-39; Mal 3:5; 1Pet 1:23, 4:12, 13; Joh 14:18

Joh 3:5

John 3:5 - he cannot enter into the kingdom of God - When this question is investigated, we are pained to the heart to see how trivial are the remarks of those who ought to understand the mystery of godliness. They speak so unguardedly of the true ideas of our brethren who profess to believe the truth and teach the truth. They come far short of the real facts as they have been laid open before me. The enemy has so entangled their minds in the mist and fog of earthliness and it seems so ingrained into their understanding, that it has become a part of their faith and character. It is only a new conversion that can change them, and cause them to give up these false ideas—for this is just what they are shown to me to be. They cling to them as a drowning man clings to a life preserver, to keep them from sinking and making shipwreck of faith. - {1888 811.3} Christ has given me words to speak: "Ye must be born again, else you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." Therefore all who have the right understanding of this matter should put away their controversial spirit and seek the Lord with all their hearts. Then they will find Christ and can give distinctive character to their religious experience. They should keep this matter—the simplicity of true godliness—distinctly before the people in every discourse. This will come home to the heart of every hungering, thirsting soul who is longing to come into the assurance of hope and faith and perfect trust in God through our Lord Jesus Christ. - {1888 812.1}

Joh 3:6

Joh 3:6 - That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit

- If we sow to the flesh we reap corruption, if we sow to the spirit, we will of the Spirit reap eternal life. The flesh is "antichrist", warring against the Spirit of God and thus must be mortified. See Rom 8:5, 6; Gal 4:22-29, 1:13; 6:8; Jam 3:15, 16 The flesh can only yield the flesh [sin will only produce more sin and sinfulness], it can not yield the Spirit [Truth, Righteousness]. Therefore, we must be born of the Spirit to a new (spiritual) life with Christ dwelling within.

Joh 3:6

Joh 3:6 - that which is born of the Spirit is spirit - The Holy Spirit gives new birth which is Spiritual (Eph 2:1, 4-6). The Spiritual birth is the TRUE LIFE that was lost (died) when Adam and Eve sinned. This life is supernatural, a miracle (as in the birth of Isaac and Jesus) and comes by faith, believing the promise of God (Compare Gen 2:25, 3:7). See Gen 21:1-3, 12; Lk 1:30-33, 35; Rom 7:6; 1Cor 2:14; Gal 4:29

Joh 3:7

Joh 3:7 - Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again - See Joh 3:4; 1Pet 1:23

Joh 3:8

Joh 3:8 - The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit - Jesus likens the new birth experience to the actions of the wind, which we neither see, nor know its course; yet we see the effects of it upon those things around it. The Holy Spirit is constantly blowing upon us to will and to do of God's good pleasure. See Act 2:1, 2; 1Sam 10:6, 9; Mt 5:13-16; Heb 6:7, 10:35-39; Phil 2:13; Eccl 11:5; Mal 3:1;

Joh 3:8

Joh 3:8 - so is every one that is born of the Spirit - everyone born of the Spirit is born of faith of Jesus Christ. They have submitted to the righteousness of God by faith (Rom 10:1-3; Gen 15:6), they have chosen to believe God against all odds (Rom 4:16-19). They become agents of positive change in the lives of others, as salt giving flavor and as light shining their lights upon the paths of truth. See Lk 1:35, 38; Eph 3:17; Gal 3:26; Mt 5:13-16 Those who abide in Jesus will be happy, cheerful, and joyful in God. A subdued gentleness will mark the voice, reverence for spiritual and eternal things will be expressed in the actions, and music, joyful music, will echo from the lips, for it is wafted from the throne of God. This is the mystery of godliness, not easily explained, but nonetheless felt and enjoyed. - {FLB 226.4}}

Joh 3:10

Joh 3:10 - Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things? - Jesus reproved Nicodemus for his ignorance of spiritual matters. Compare Zerubbabel who was commissioned to rebuild the temple of God and knew not, nor understood the details of the temple's contents and structure. See John 3:1; Zech 4:1-5; Heb 5:12, Compare: 1Jo 2:27

Joh 3:11

Joh 3:11 - We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness - Jesus speaks of Himself, the Spirit of God, and the Father Who All bear witness to the Truth in Jesus Christ. Jesus then tells Nicodemus the impossibility of knowing heavenly things if he is not willing/able to grasp earthly things. See Joh 3:32; Gen 1:26; 1Jo 5:7, 8; Isa 48:16; 1Cor 2:6-14 When Christ's indwelling glory flashed forth, it was too intense for His pure and perfect humanity entirely to conceal. The scribes and Pharisees did not speak in acknowledgment of Him, but their enmity and hatred were baffled as His majesty shone forth. The truth, obscured as it was by a veil of humiliation, spoke to every heart with unmistakable evidence. This led to the words of Christ, "Ye know who I am." Men and devils were compelled, by the shining forth of His glory, to confess, "Truly, this is the Son of God." Thus God was revealed; thus Christ was glorified (The Signs of the Times, May 10, 1899). - {5BC 1129.5} Witnessing is telling what we have heard, seen and experienced. Our part is not to force people to receive, our part is to witness what I have seen, heard, and experienced.

Joh 3:12

Joh 3:12 - If I have told you earthly things - the things which God has revealed to us through His Word and in nature are His evidence of: 1. Who He is, the Creator of heaven and earth 2. His love for us These earthly things are more than enough for us to seek to comprehend and many exhaust their lives pursuing a knowledge of the things of nature. Yet, we must also grasp the things of heaven that are required for our salvation, the Science of Salvation. See Deut 29:29; Eph 3:16-19 This statement embodies a principle, that to understand the spiritual, we must grasp the natural. Similarly an Antitype is understood best by understanding its type.

Joh 3:12

Joh 3:12 - If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? - The principle is seen in the understanding of the typical Day of Atonement in the earthly sanctuary which leads to the understanding of the antitypical Day of Atonement in the heavenly. See 1Cor 15:45-47; Lev 16; Dan 8:14, 19; Act 3:19; Rev 11:19

Joh 3:12

Joh 3:12 - how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? - If we do not grasp or seek to comprehend the things readily seen in nature, then we can not understand the hidden things of redemption and eternal life revealed in Christ. Jesus speaks of the wind and its motions. We can see the wind move the tress, we can feel the wind upon ourselves, yet we can not see the wind itself. Because we can not see, should not make us doubt that the wind exists. We must walk by faith. See Joh 20:29; 1Cor 15:48

Joh 3:13

Joh 3:13 - Ascended up to heaven - That is, no human being has gone to heaven to learn of "heavenly things" (v. 12). Only the Son of man, who came from heaven, has ever been there, and He alone can reveal the things of heaven. There is no reference here to Christ's ascension to heaven following the resurrection. {SDA Bible Commentary volume 5}

Joh 3:13

Joh 3:13 - but he that came down from heaven - See Isa 7:14; Joh 8:23, 18:33-36

Joh 3:13

Joh 3:13 - even the Son of man which is in heaven - Which is in heaven. Important textual evidence may be cited (cf. p. 146) for the omission of this clause. If retained, it refers to the timeless existence of Jesus in heaven, His permanent abode. Possibly, however, the phrase was added by a later scribe, and thus at a time when Jesus was once more "in heaven." (SDA Bible Commentary vol 5) - See Isa 57:15

Joh 3:14

Joh 3:14 - And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:- See Num 21:6-9; Joh 12:32, 33; 2Kin 18:4

Joh 3:15

Joh 3:15 - whosoever - the word is an open invitation to all who should choose to accept. See Rev 22:17, 3:20

Joh 3:15

Joh 3:15 - believeth in him - Our faith in God, Who He is, What He has done, and What He says and promises, is that which constitutes our belief. Our belief and faith must influence our behavior, for faith without works is dead (Jam 2:20-26). See Gen 15:5, 6; Rom 4:16-22; 2Chron 20:20

Joh 3:15

Joh 3:15 - should not perish - the destruction of the unbelieving, who are grouped with the fearful, abominable, murderers, whoremongers, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars will be met out in the lake of fire, which is the second death. See Mk 16:16; Rev 21:8, 20:11-15, 22:15; Mt 10:28; Mal 4:1, 3

Joh 3:15

Joh 3:15 - have eternal life - the gift of God through Jesus Christ is eternal life. See Rom 6:23; 1Jo 5:11-13; Joh 5:24

Joh 3:16

Joh 3:16 - so loved the world - See Eph 2:4

Joh 3:16

Joh 3:16 - he gave His only begotten Son - the statement made to Nicodemus was not a foreign concept, that God's Messiah would be His very Son. The illustration and object lesson of Abraham slaying Isaac was to awaken this reality to the COI. See Gen 22; Isa 48:16; 1Jo 4:14; Rom 8:32 "In giving up His Son, He [The Father] has poured out to us all heaven in one gift." {SC 21.2} The gift of God to man is beyond all computation. Nothing was withheld. God would not permit it to be said that He could have done more or revealed to humanity a greater measure of love. In the gift of Christ He gave all heaven. {God's Amazing Grace - February 14} God the Father gave His Son Jesus to the human race for eternity. Jesus will eternally be married to our human nature. Amazing Love!! See Lk 24:39; Isa 9:6, 7; Heb 2:17 Christ ascended to heaven, bearing a sanctified, holy humanity. He took this humanity with Him into the heavenly courts, and through the eternal ages He will bear it, as the One who has redeemed every human being in the city of God (The Review and Herald, March 9, 1905). - {6BC 1054.1} (Joh 12:45; Col 1:15; Heb 1:3.) Cumbered with humanity, Christ could not be in every place personally. Therefore it was for their interest that He should go to the Father, and send the Spirit to be His successor on earth. {DA 669} Christ took with Him to the heavenly courts His glorified humanity. {8T 267.4} In taking our nature, the Saviour has bound Himself to humanity by a tie that is never to be broken. Through the eternal ages He is linked with us. "God so loved the world, that He gave His only-begotten Son." Joh 3:16. He gave Him not only to bear our sins, and to die as our sacrifice; He gave Him to the fallen race. To assure us of His immutable counsel of peace, God gave His only-begotten Son to become one of the human family, forever to retain His human nature. This is the pledge that God will fulfill His word. "Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon His shoulder." God has adopted human nature in the person of His Son, and has carried the same into the highest heaven. It is the "Son of man" who shares the throne of the universe. It is the "Son of man" whose name shall be called, "Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace." Isa 9:6. The I AM is the Daysman between God and humanity, laying His hand upon both. He who is "holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners," is not ashamed to call us brethren. Heb 7:26; 2:11. In Christ the family of earth and the family of heaven are bound together. Christ glorified is our brother. Heaven is enshrined in humanity, and humanity is enfolded in the bosom of Infinite Love. - {DA 25.3}

Joh 3:16 - only begotten Son - See Ps 2:7

Joh 3:16

Joh 3:16 - that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life - See Joh 3:36; 1Jo 5:11-13

Joh 3:16

Joh 3:16 - whosoever - this means ALL to God, Who has predestined the entire human race to salvation through His Son, Jesus Christ. Though predestined, each individual has to choose for themselves, exercising their free will to accept God's gracious offer or reject it. See Lk 2:10, 11; Eph 1:3-5; 1Tim 2:3, 4; 2Pet 3:9; Joh 4:41, 6:40; Heb 2:9

Joh 3:16

Joh 3:16 - perish: suffer complete, ruin or destruction; disappear, vanish, fade, dissolve, evaporate, wither, melt away, expire. See Joh 10:28; 2Thess 1:9; Ps 1:6; Mal 4:3

Joh 3:16

Joh 3:16 - have everlasting life - eternal or everlasting life is a gift from God to the righteous alone (Eph 2:8; Tit 2:11). No wicked person will be found in the congregation of the righteous, and no wicked person will have everlasting life anywhere. Ps 1:4-6; Joh 5:24; 1Jo 5:11-13

Joh 3:17

Joh 3:17 - For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved - See 2Cor 5:17-20; Joh 8:11, 12:47; Rom 8:1, 2 He had declared that the principles of God's government make forgiveness impossible. Had the world been destroyed, he would have claimed that his accusations were proved true. He was ready to cast blame upon God, and to spread his rebellion to the worlds above. But instead of destroying the world, God sent His Son to save it. Though corruption and defiance might be seen in every part of the alien province, a way for its recovery was provided. At the very crisis, when Satan seemed about to triumph, the Son of God came with the embassy of divine grace. Through every age, through every hour, the love of God had been exercised toward the fallen race. Notwithstanding the perversity of men, the signals of mercy had been continually exhibited. And when the fullness of the time had come, the Deity was glorified by pouring upon the world a flood of healing grace that was never to be obstructed or withdrawn till the plan of salvation should be fulfilled. - {DA 37.2}

Joh 3:17

Joh 3:17 - but that the world through him might be saved - See Joh 4:42; 1Jo 4:14; Lk 2:10, 11

Joh 3:18

Joh 3:18 - He that believeth on him is not condemned - See Joh 5:24, 8:12; Rom 8:1-5

Joh 3:18

Joh 3:18 - but he that believeth not is condemned already - See Joh 3:19, 36; Rom 3:10-18, 23, 9:1, 2, 10:1-4; Eph 2:1-3

Joh 3:18

Joh 3:18 - because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God - the one has not received and appreciated receiving Christ's grace. See Act 2:36; Dan 9:25

Joh 3:18

Joh 3:18 - only begotten Son of God - See Ps 2:7

Joh 3:19

Joh 3:19 - And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil - Jesus is the Light which lighteth the world. Men are constantly being shown Jesus and His truths through the Holy Spirit and yet, they continue to reject the Chief Cornerstone. Many professed Christians are "ever learning and never coming to the knowledge of the truth (2Tim 3:7)". See Joh 1:6-9, 12:36; Rom 8:1, 7; Zech 7:11, 12 Our condemnation in the judgment will not result from the fact that we have been in error, but from the fact that we have neglected heaven-sent opportunities for learning what is truth. - {DA 489.5}

Joh 3:19

Joh 3:19 - light is come into the world - Jesus is the Light of Life and the Light of the World. He has come to the world, but only the few righteous among men desired to walk in the Light. His Light and Truth are evident to all men, yet most choose not to believe. See Joh 12:46; Ps 97:11; Rom 1:18-32; Heb 4:12, 13 God does not compel men to give up their unbelief. Before them are light and darkness, truth and error. It is for them to decide which they will accept. The human mind is endowed with power to discriminate between right and wrong. God designs that men shall not decide from impulse, but from weight of evidence, carefully comparing scripture with scripture. Had the Jews laid by their prejudice and compared written prophecy with the facts characterizing the life of Jesus, they would have perceived a beautiful harmony between the prophecies and their fulfillment in the life and ministry of the lowly Galilean. - {DA 458.3} - DA 458.3

Joh 3:19

Joh 3:19 - men loved darkness rather than light - See Jer 6:16, 17; Rom 8:7, 8

Joh 3:20

Joh 3:20 - For every one that doeth evil hateth the light - See Prov 29:27 Now as in former ages, the presentation of a truth that reproves the sins and errors of the times will excite opposition. "Everyone that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved." Joh 3:20. As men see that they cannot maintain their position by the Scriptures, many determine to maintain it at all hazards, and with a malicious spirit they assail the character and motives of those who stand in defense of unpopular truth. It is the same policy which has been pursued in all ages. Elijah was declared to be a troubler in Israel, Jeremiah a traitor, Paul a polluter of the temple. From that day to this, those who would be loyal to truth have been denounced as seditious, heretical, or schismatic. Multitudes who are too unbelieving to accept the sure word of prophecy will receive with unquestioning credulity an accusation against those who dare to reprove fashionable sins. This spirit will increase more and more. And the Bible plainly teaches that a time is approaching when the laws of the state will so conflict with the law of God that whosoever would obey all the divine precepts must brave reproach and punishment as an evildoer. - {GC 458.2}

Joh 3:20 - neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reprov'd - That generation had their day of opportunity and privilege while Noah was sounding the note of warning of the coming destruction; but they yielded their minds to the control of Satan rather than of God, and he deceived them, as he did our first parents. He set before them darkness and falsehood in the place of light and truth; and they accepted his sophistry and lies, because they were acceptable to them, and in harmony with their corrupt lives, while truth that would have saved them was rejected as a delusion.—The Signs of the Times, April 1, 1886. - {YRP 254.5}

Joh 3:21

Joh 3:21 - But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God - truth speaks of genuineness, honesty, sincerity, realness, alignment with God. See Eph 5:13; Ps 97:11; Isa 62:10 Light makes manifest and reprov's the errors that were concealed in darkness; and as light comes, the life and character of men must change correspondingly, to be in harmony with it. Sins that were once sins of ignorance, because of the blindness of the mind, can no more be indulged in without incurring guilt. As increased light is given, men must be reformed, elevated, and refined by it, or they will be more perverse and stubborn than before the light came. - {GW 162.2}

Joh 3:21

Joh 3:21 - that they are wrought in God - See Joh 15:5; Rom 7:4

Joh 3:23

Joh 3:23 - the Bible is clear regarding the only manner of baptism known and practiced, baptism by immersion where there was plenteous water.

Joh 3:25

Joh 3:25 - Then there arose a question between some of Joh's disciples and the Jews about purifying - the devil used the Jewish leadership to pit the disciples of Joh against Jesus and His disciples. The devil was seeking to undermine the Kingdom of God but Joh would not give way to any of the devil's insinuations. Joh understood his calling and stayed in his lane. Though Jesus had begun His ministry, Joh continued in his work of baptizing and drawing men to Jesus. Joh showed great spiritual fortitude.

Joh 3:26

Joh 3:26 - the same baptizeth, and all men come to him - the disciples of Joh had not received conversion and were thinking and acting carnally, taking envy for the popularity shown to Jesus and His disciples. See 1Cor 3:1-7

Joh 3:27

Joh 3:27 - A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven - See 1Chron 29:14; Jam 1:17; 1Pet 4:9, 10; Joh 6:45, 15:5; 1Cor 4:7, 3:21-23,

Joh 3:28

Joh 3:28 - Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him - See Lk 3:16, 17; Mt 3:1-3; Joh 1:19-23

Joh 3:29

Joh 3:29 - He that hath the bride is the bridegroom - We are Christ's Bride and He is the Bridegroom. See Rev 12:1;

Joh 3:29

Joh 3:29 - but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice - As the friend of the Bridegroom, Jesus, we are to rejoice in seeing others come to the Kingdom of God to become the Bride of Christ. See 2Cor 11:2

Joh 3:29

Joh 3:29 - this my joy therefore is fulfilled - Joh, like Paul found joy in the edification and expansion of the Kingdom of God. See Phil 2:2

Joh 3:30

Joh 3:30 - He must increase, but I must decrease - See Phil 2:5-8 Do you think that Joh had no human feelings?—Of course he did, but he determined that they should have no control over him. When he had seen Jesus on the banks of the Jordan, he had said, "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world!" He directed the attention of the people to Christ, and two of his disciples turned and followed Jesus. {RH March 18, 1890 par 2}

Joh 3:31

John 3:31 - He that cometh from above is above all - Jesus, Who descended from above, is above all things and is our Exemplar in all things. There is no comparing our ways to His. He is perfect, pure and holy, while we are corrupt blind and naked. By His grace, He offers us His righteousness by faith and belief in His word. See Jer 23:5, 6;

Joh 3:31

Joh 3:31 - he that is of the earth - See Joh 8:23

Joh 3:32

Joh 3:32 - And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony - See Joh 3:11, 5:38-40 Joh was a witness of God and His Christ and yet the people did not receive his witness.

Joh 3:32

John 3:32 - and no man receiveth his testimony - See Isa 53:1

Joh 3:33

John 3:33 - He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true - See Mt 11:19; Lk 7:35

Joh 3:34

Joh 3:34 - Jesus received the outpouring of the Holy Spirit without measure. We too must pray and ask for the Holy Spirit (Lk 11:13), allow the Lord to put an end to sin, and make reconciliation for iniquity in our lives so that we too in time may receive the Spirit without measure.

Joh 3:34

John 3:34 - For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him - God gave the Holy Spirit to Jesus without measure, and so will He do in those who receive and proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. - See Col 1:25-29, 2:9 10; 2Cor 12:9

Joh 3:34

John 3:34 - speaketh the words of God - See 1Jo 4:1-3

Joh 3:34

Joh 3:34 - for God giveth not the Spirit in measure - Jesus, when baptized of the Holy Spirit did not receive the Spirit in measure but without measure. This is affirmed in the next verse where it states that "The Father loves the Son and has given all things into his hand". Further Jesus later affirms this truth after His glorification in Mt 28:18 when He says "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth". In contrast, the disciples only received the Spirit initially "in measure" because of their unbelief. See Joh 20:21, 22; Act 1:4-8; Isa 60:1-3

Joh 3:35

Joh 3:35 - and hath given all things into his hand - See 1Cor 15:24-28

Joh 3:36

Joh 3:36 - He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life - See Joh 3:16, 1Jo 5:11-13

Joh 3:36

Joh 3:36 - shall not see life - even the life we live is does not belong to us in that we have given it and ourselves in the power of Satan. And because sinners are condemned to death, - have forfeited their life, -the Scripture says that "he that believe that not the Son shall not see life." Joh 3:36. He never has any life of his own. {E.J. Waggoner, Baptism: It's Significance, pg 6}

Joh 3:36

Joh 3:36 - but the wrath of God abideth on him - See Joh 3:18; 1Thess 5:9; Jude 1:15, 16

Joh 4:1

Joh 4:1 - When therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than Joh - Jesus avoided conflict and contention with His adversaries who would seek to derail His ministry at all costs.

Joh 4:4

Joh 4:4 - And he must needs go through Samaria - Jesus was aware that there was a divine appointment awaiting Him in Samaria.

Joh 4:6

Joh 4:6 - Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey - See Heb 2:11, 14

Joh 4:6

Joh 4:4 - and it was about the sixth hour - almost the hottest time of the day, around noon, Jesus sat at Jacob's well.

Joh 4:7

Joh 4:7 - There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water - the Samaritan woman comes to draw water an an hour when no one else would think to do so, given the heat of the day. She apparently is avoiding contact with those of the town for fear and for shame. But this is exactly when God would meet her, when she is alone and not distracted by the affairs of life. See Gen 32:24; 2Kin 17:23-29

Joh 4:7

Joh 4:7 - Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink - Like Elijah to the woman at Zarapeth, Jesus sought to break-down prejudice by requesting a kindness of the woman. See 1Kin 17:10

Joh 4:9

Joh 4:9 - How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans - See Joh 8:48

Joh 4:9

Joh 4:9 - the pride and prejudice of the Jews caused them to scorn the people of Samaria who settled in the land formerly belonging to the northern tribes of Israel. The Samaritans were partial Jews at best, imported into the land when the Northern Kingdom was scattered (723BC) by the Assyrians, having only been taught some of the teachings and traditions of the Jews but blending them with their pagan beliefs and rituals. See 2Kin 17:18-35

Joh 4:10

Joh 4:10 - If thou knewest the gift of God - See Joh 3:16; Rom 5:7, 8

Joh 4:10

Joh 4:10 - thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water - Jesus says, had you understood Who was speaking to you, the tables would have turned and you would have asked Me for Living Water - the Holy Spirit. Jesus deftly moves the woman from the natural to the spiritual. See Joh 6:35, 7:37; Zech 10:1; Isa 30:25; Mt 5:6; Ps 36:9; Eze 47:8-12

Joh 4:11

Joh 4:11 - The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water? - The woman is still speaking in the natural, not realizing Jesus has moved her to the Spiritual. See Joh 3:3-12

Joh 4:12

Joh 4:12 - Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle? - little did the woman know that it was He Who wrestled with Jacob and prevailed with him. See Gen 32:24-29

Joh 4:14

Joh 4:14 - But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst - See Joh 6:35

Joh 4:14

Joh 4:14 - well of water springing up into everlasting life - See Joh 7:36-40; Mt 5:6; Ps 36:9; Eze 47:8-12

Joh 4:15

Joh 4:15 - The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw - the woman longed for what Jesus was asking but doubted whether it could be true, taking it as another hollow promise of men. She not only wanted to be freed from the daily toil of drawing water, but she needed to be revived within; this was the true longing of her heart.

Joh 4:16

Joh 4:16 - Go, call thy husband, and come hither - Jesus hits the topic she least would like to talk about. This is what it means to have a conversation with God. He meets us alone when the diversions and distractions are away so He can speak of the sins in our lives, convicting us of sin as the Holy Spirit does. Gen 32:24

Joh 4:17

Joh 4:17 - The woman answered and said, I have no husband - the woman easily could have lied to this stranger, asserting that the man she now had was her husband, but she did not do so. She was being honest with herself and before God, not knowing it was God Himself before Whom and with Whom she spoke.

Joh 4:17

Joh 4:17 - Thou hast well said - a word of commendation is not to be overlooked, even in the midst of this very delicate conversation. Jesus affirms that she has spoken honestly. This is important because God despises a liar. We must be truthful with ourselves and with God so that God can begin His work of restoration. See Prov 6:16, 17

Joh 4:18

Joh 4:18 - For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly - Jesus reads to her the story of her life. She is as naked as the woman caught in adulterer and has nowhere to hide. See Joh 8:4, 10, 11

Joh 4:18

Joh 4:18 - in that saidst thou truly - Jesus can work with her because she is being honest with herself and with God. He gives her commendation for not lying, trying to conceal or cover-up her sin. She spoke the truth and He is willing to offer her help at this point.

Joh 4:19

Joh 4:19 - The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet - she is either offering a compliment, or is seeking affirmation of an inquiry.

Joh 4:20

Joh 4:20 - Our fathers worshipped in this mountain - Indeed, her forefathers worshipped idols as well as the true God on mountains and groves. See 2Kin 17:18-41

Joh 4:21

Joh 4:21 - the hour cometh - the time is quickly approaching when God would pour out His Holy Spirit upon His people so that they would worship Him in spirit and in truth. The Holy Spirit had not been yet given as God had purposed (mystery of godliness) because Jesus had not yet been glorified. See John 7:39; Col 1:27-29

Joh 4:21

John 4:21 - when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father - the giving of the Spirit of God will not be constrained to a particular location or consecrated place, because He will dwell within us and will be with us whithersoever we go. This precludes the need for pilgrimages to see any holy shrine or temple. See Jer 31:31-34; 1Cor 3:17, 6:19

Joh 4:22

Joh 4:22 - Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews - See Eph 2:12; Rom 3:1, 2

Joh 4:22

Joh 4:24 - we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews - See Joh 3:3-18

Joh 4:22

Joh 4:22 - for salvation is of the Jews - unto the Jews were all the oracles of God conveyed, particularly a knowledge of salvation. See Rom 3:2; Isa

Joh 4:23

John 4:23 - when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth - true worshippers of God must worship Him as Jesus prescribed, in Spirit and in Truth. See John 8:31, 32, 36; Mt 18:3; Ps 145:18

Joh 4:23

Joh 4:23 - in spirit - by the power and enabling of the in-dwelling Holy Spirit. It is only as the Spirit of God abides in us that we may rightly divide the words of truth (spiritual things are spiritually discerned- 1Cor 12:): reading and understanding things in their true essence; not the letter of the law but in the spirit of the law. Applying the true meaning and intent of the word of God; judging and discerning things uprightly by the power of the Holy Spirit. See Joh 3:3-6, 6:45, 63, 7:17, 24; 1Cor 2:13-16; Rom 2:29 Paul says that as “touching the righteousness which is in the law”—as far as outward acts were concerned—he was “blameless” (Phil 3:6); but when the spiritual character of the law was discerned, he saw himself a sinner. Judged by the letter of the law as men apply it to the outward life, he had abstained from sin; but when he looked into the depths of its holy precepts, and saw himself as God saw him, he bowed in humiliation and confessed his guilt. He says, “I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.” Rom 7:9. When he saw the spiritual nature of the law, sin appeared in its true hideousness, and his self-esteem was gone. - {SC 29.3}

Joh 4:23

John 4:23 - in truth - the true worshipper of God is one who loves and abides in the Truth. They are not of those who are ever learning and never coming to an [experiential] knowledge of the truth, but those who embrace truth and put God's words of truth into action by faith and love for Jesus Christ - John 8:31, 32, 36, 14:6, 17:17; Mark 12:28-34; Gal 5:6; CONTRAST 2Tim 2:25, 26, 3:7; 2Thess 2:8-12; 2Tim 3:5; 2Pet 3:16

Joh 4:23

Joh 4:23 - for the Father seeketh such to worship Him - See Joh 8:49-51

Joh 4:24

Joh 4:24 - God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth - See Rom 7:14; 1Cor 2:10-16; Compare 1Cor 15:42-46; Heb 1:14; Philippians 3:3

Joh 4:24

John 4:24 - they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth - IN SPIRIT: by the power and enabling of the in-dwelling Holy Spirit. It is only as the Spirit of God abides in us that we may rightly divide the words of truth (spiritual things are spiritually discerned- 1Cor 12:): reading and understanding things in their true essence; not the letter of the law but in the spirit of the law. Applying the true meaning and intent of the word of God; judging and discerning things uprightly by the power of the Holy Spirit. See Joh 3:3-6, 6:45, 63, 7:17, 24; 1Cor 2:13-16; Rom 2:29 Paul says that as “touching the righteousness which is in the law”—as far as outward acts were concerned—he was “blameless” (Phil 3:6); but when the spiritual character of the law was discerned, he saw himself a sinner. Judged by the letter of the law as men apply it to the outward life, he had abstained from sin; but when he looked into the depths of its holy precepts, and saw himself as God saw him, he bowed in humiliation and confessed his guilt. He says, “I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.” Rom 7:9. When he saw the spiritual nature of the law, sin appeared in its true hideousness, and his self-esteem was gone. - {SC 29.3} IN TRUTH: the true worshipper of God is one who loves and abides in the Truth. They are not of those who are ever learning and never coming to an [experiential] knowledge of the truth, but those who embrace truth and put God's words of truth into action by faith and love for Jesus Christ - John 8:31, 32, 36, 14:6, 17:17; Mark 12:28-34; Gal 5:6; CONTRAST 2Tim 2:25, 26, 3:7; 2Thess 2:8-12; 2Tim 3:5; 2Pet 3:16

Joh 4:25

Joh 4:25 - The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things - the woman and all the world were anticipating and looking for the Messiah. See Hag 2:7

Joh 4:25

Joh 4:28 - I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things - The Jews, just like this Samaritan woman, prayed for the arrival of the Messiah. However, when the Messiah actually arrived, the Jews rejected Him. Similarly, the SDAs were praying for the outpouring of the latter rain from 1853 to 1888 and when it actually came in 1888, the rejected it. {Grace on trial by Wieland, pg 26}

Joh 4:26

Joh 4:26 - Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he - One of the few instances recorded of Jesus openly making this profession. To the Jews who had all the oracles of God (Rom 3:2), it was important for them to make this declaration by faith, based on all of His works and His lifestyle. For the Samaritan woman who had not the light of the Jews, Jesus told her plainly Who He was. See Joh 9:35-37

Joh 4:28

Joh 4:28 - The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city - the woman forgot about her original purpose in coming to the well in order to take the good news of the Messiah found to the men of the city. Lord, please fill me with that zeal!

Joh 4:29

Joh 4:29 - Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ? - The woman had already begun to partake of the waters of life and was compelled to be a blessing to others, sharing the same blessed waters with them. See Eze 47:8-12; See AA 13.2

Joh 4:32

Joh 4:32 - I have meat to eat that ye know not of - it is a fact that when engulfed with the Lord's work, He sustains you and fills you with a blessed joy such that earthly food becomes an afterthought.

Joh 4:34

Joh 4:34 - My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work - See Joh 17:1-8, 5:30

Joh 4:36

Joh 4:36 - that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together - See 1Cor 3:6

Joh 4:37

John 4:37 - And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth - See 1Cor 3:6

Joh 4:39

Joh 4:39 - And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman - many heard her testimony and believed. Other's, who were compelled to come see, heard Jesus for themselves and believed. See Joh 4:41, 42

Joh 4:40

Joh 4:40 - So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days - During His earthly ministry Christ began to break down the partition wall between Jew and Gentile, and to preach salvation to all mankind. Though He was a Jew, He mingled freely with the Samaritans, setting at nought the Pharisaic customs of the Jews with regard to this despised people. He slept under their roofs, ate at their tables, and taught in their streets. - {AA 19.2}

Joh 4:41

Joh 4:41 - And many more believed because of his own word - See Eph 2:13-19

Joh 4:42

Joh 4:42 - Now we believe - See 2 Kings 5:15; Isa 65:1

Joh 4:42

Joh 4:42 - for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ - the Samaritans exhibited the spirit of the Bereans, being noble minded, willing to hear the words of truth and once they have heard for themselves, choosing to believe. See Act 17:10, 11

Joh 4:42

Joh 4:42 - and know that this is indeed the Christ - the Samaritans, a foreign people from Israel, recognized Jesus as Messiah, the Christ, not by His miracles but the very words that He spoke. See Dan 9:25

Joh 4:42

Joh 4:42 - Saviour of the world - The Samaritans understood that Jesus came to save the world. The Jews were the only ones who apparently did not receive nor understand that truth. See Isa 49:6, 40:5, 56:1-7, 60:1-7; Rom 5:12-18, 10:12-21; Joh 1:29, 3:17; Act 13:47; 2Cor 5:14, 15, 19; 1Tim 4:10; Eph 1:4; Heb 2:9; Titus 2:11; Col 1:26-29; Am 9:11, 12; 1Jo 2:2

Joh 4:43

Joh 4:43 - Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee - Jesus spent two and half days at least in the land of the people the Jews would consider heathen. Jesus was instructing His disciples that no man ought to be called common, but all were sons of the Living God Whom He loves. See Act 10:28, 29

Joh 4:44

Joh 4:44 - For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country - See Mt 13:54-58; Jer 11:21, 1:1

Joh 4:45

Joh 4:45 - having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast - the Galilean witnessed Jesus' temple cleansing in Jerusalem and were convinced of Him being a prophet or the Messiah.

Joh 4:47

Joh 4:47 - the father walked 16.5 miles to inquire if Jesus would come to heal his son. Not having the type of faith as the Centurion who merely requested that Jesus speak the word, the father had a measure of faith none the less. See Mt 8:8

Joh 4:48

Joh 4:48 - Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe - Jesus was either making a statement, to reveal the condition of the hearts of the people or testing the man who came to Him requesting He go and heal his son.

Joh 4:50

Joh 4:50 - And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way - the man had no evidence of Jesus' words but chose to believe them and went his way, receiving that which he had come looking for by faith. This is righteousness by faith. See Heb 11:1, 13; Gen 15:6

Joh 4:52

Joh 4:52 - Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him - the very hour the father chose to believe Jesus' words, his son was restored and made whole. See Mt 9:29

Joh 4:52

Joh 4:52 - seventh hour - 1PM

Joh 5:1

Joh 5:1 - After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem - The city would be bustling with travelers who made the trek to Jerusalem in celebration of the feast.

Joh 5:2

Joh 5:2 - called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda - House of Mercy

Joh 5:2

Joh 5:2 - having five porches - a portico, a covered colonnade where people can stand or walk protected from the weather and the heat of the sun

Joh 5:3

Joh 5:3 - impotent - Weak; feeble; wanting strength or power; unable by nature, or disabled by disease or accident to perform any act.

Joh 5:4

Joh 5:4 - For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had - this was most likely a fable told that the superstitious Jews believed. God does not operate by random act or lottery. This fable also would suggest that the Lord operates on the principle that the strong will survive and the weak will perish (Joh 5:7), which is contrary to the gospel, which is given to every man impartially.

Joh 5:6

Joh 5:6 - Jesus came to the most desperate case among those awaiting the fabled troubling of the waters.

Joh 5:6

Joh 5:6 - Wilt thou be made whole? - Jesus asks those who are able to answer for themselves if their desire is to be made whole. God does not force His will, even if it would be for the persons benefit. God asks, allowing us to exercise free will.

Joh 5:7

John 5:7 - The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me - the impotent man had been so long in his hopeless condition that he had lost hope of any change. Rather than saying "yes, I desire to be made whole", he made excuses for why it was impossible for him to be made whole. He did not know God or the power of God. See Mk 12:24

Joh 5:8

Joh 5:8 - Rise, take up thy bed, and walk - the command of God was to be honored by obedient faith.

Joh 5:9

Joh 5:9 - And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked - the impotent man united his will to the will and strength of omnipotence and was made whole.

Joh 5:9

Joh 5:9 - and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath - Joh presents the "challenge" in the narrative, that the man was healed, bore his bed, all on the Sabbath day. The day intended for rest from the burdens of life was made to be a burden through the exacting rules of the Jewish leadership. See Joh 5:10

Joh 5:11

Joh 5:11 - He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk - not seeking to accuse Jesus nor to deflect guilt/responsibility, but to highlight that a miracle of God had just taken place in his life. Surely, if the Jewish leadership were God-fearing, reasonable men, they would give glory to God for the miracle, not ignoring the Sabbath, but realizing something wonderful of God had just transpired. Surely, the same God that ordained the Sabbath, a time of rest, could not be opposed to making his impotent son whole and thus causing no violation to the Sabbath day. The man's response spoke to the Spirit of the Law that the Jews were not willing to listen nor live according to.

Joh 5:12

Joh 5:12 - Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk? - ignoring the obvious miracle that had transpired, the Jewish leadership persist in seeking who would violate their concept of the Sabbath commandment.

Joh 5:14

Joh 5:14 - Behold, thou art made whole - See Joh 5:6

Joh 5:14

Joh 5:14 - sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee - Jesus reproves the man of sin, commanding him to go and sin no more. This suggests that his impotence may have been at the least, partially self-inflicted. See Joh 8:11

Joh 5:16

Joh 5:16 - And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day - heedless of the miracle that could only have come from God and ravenous with malice and hatred, the Jews sought to stone Christ for their shallow self-righteousness.

Joh 5:17

Joh 5:17 - My Father worketh hitherto, and I work - The God of the universe is constantly at work, sustaining life, keeping watch over His precious treasures and guarding the lives of all creation. Jesus asserts that His efforts are in agreement and alignment with that of His Father. See Joh 5:19

Joh 5:18

Joh 5:18 - because he not only had broken the sabbath - Jesus, Who created the Sabbath, is above the Sabbath, yet, He in no way violated the spirit of the Sabbath. Joh speaks of Jesus breaking the Sabbath according to the customs of the Jews, not according to God and His Spirit. See Joh 8:15, 16

Joh 5:18

Joh 5:20 - but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God - The Jews understood that Messiah would be the Son of God and God Himself. Joh again highlights the Jew's offense taken towards Jesus' profession, because they did not believe Him to be the Son of God, which He is. See Dan 9:25; Isa 7:14-16, 9:6, 7; Jer 23:5, 6; Zech 6:12, 13

Joh 5:19

Joh 5:19 - The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise - See Joh 5:17, 30, 14:7-11

Joh 5:20

Joh 5:20 - For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth - See Joh 5:17

Joh 5:20

Joh 5:20 - He will shew Him greater works than these that ye may marvel - The raising of Lazarus was the crowning act of Jesus' ministry, affirming His Messiahship. See Joh 11:1-46

Joh 5:21

Joh 5:21 - Jesus is speaking proleptically of His own resurrection. The Father will call Jesus from the grave and so Jesus will do the same. See 1Thess 4:14-16 And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven." Clothed with the panoply of God, this angel left the heavenly courts. The bright beams of God's glory went before him, and illuminated his pathway. "His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: and for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men." - {DA 779.2} Now, priests and rulers, where is the power of your guard? Brave soldiers that have never been afraid of human power are now as captives taken without sword or spear. The face they look upon is not the face of mortal warrior; it is the face of the mightiest of the Lord's host. This messenger is he who fills the position from which Satan fell. It is he who on the hills of Bethlehem proclaimed Christ's birth. The earth trembles at his approach, the hosts of darkness flee, and as he rolls away the stone, heaven seems to come down to the earth. The soldiers see him removing the stone as he would a pebble, and hear him cry, Son of God, come forth; Thy Father calls Thee. They see Jesus come forth from the grave, and hear Him proclaim over the rent sepulcher, "I am the resurrection, and the life." As He comes forth in majesty and glory, the angel host bow low in adoration before the Redeemer, and welcome Him with songs of praise. - {DA 779.3}

Joh 5:21 - even so the Son quickeneth whom He will - See Joh 6:44

Joh 5:22

Joh 5:22 - For the Father judgeth no man - God the Father has committed all judgment to His Son, Jesus Christ. The Father will execute judgment in the 7 Last Plagues and in the 2nd Death. See Rev 14:9-11

Joh 5:22

Joh 5:22 - but hath committed all judgment unto the Son - God justly has committed all judgment to Jesus, the Son of man who has partaken of flesh and blood so that He might be a compassionate High Priest and a just Judge, having been tempted in all points as we, and yet without sin (See Joh 9:39; Rev 16:7; Lk 10:22). Further, Jesus does not Judge those who do not believe Him but rather they are judged by the words which Jesus has spoken and which they have rejected (See Joh 12:47, 48; 8:15, 16). Therefore, Jesus only judges those who believe in Him and do His will and His judgement is in favor of the saints (Dan 7:26, 27; Zech 3:1-5; Joh 8:10, 11) Who can measure the responsibilities of the influence of every human agent whom our Redeemer has purchased at the sacrifice of His own life? What a scene will be presented when the judgment shall sit and the books shall be opened to testify the salvation or the loss of all souls! It will require the unerring decision of One who has lived in humanity, loved humanity, given His life for humanity, to make the final appropriation of the rewards to the loyal righteous, and the punishment of the disobedient, the disloyal, and unrighteous. The Son of God is entrusted with the complete measurement of every individual's action and responsibility. To those who have been partakers of other men's sins and have acted against God's decision, it will be a most awfully solemn scene. - {1888 810.2} It was not part of the mission of Christ to exercise His divine power for His own benefit, to relieve Himself of suffering. This He had volunteered to take upon Himself. He had condescended to take man's nature, and He was to suffer the inconveniences, ills, and afflictions of the human family. He was not to perform miracles on His own account; He came to save others. The object of His mission was to bring blessings, hope, and life to the afflicted and oppressed. {Confrontation 42.3}

Joh 5:22

Joh 5:22 - judgment - the judgment granted Jesus is power and authority to pronounce men blameless or guilty according to their works. See Joh 17:2 2920 3:941,469 κρίσις krisis Noun Feminine kree'-sis perhaps a primitive word decision (subjectively or objectively, for or

Joh 5:23

Joh 5:23 - He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him - See Lk 10:16; Joh 14:9-11

Joh 5:23

Joh 5:23 - the Father which hath sent him - See Joh 5:30, 36, 38; Isa 48:16

Joh 5:24

Joh 5:24 - He that heareth my word and believeth on him that sent, hath everlasting life - The Father testifies of the Son and the Son testifies of the Father. In Jesus' words, those who hear and embrace His words and believe in the Father and Holy Spirit, have everlasting life. Similarly, the Father states that He has given men eternal life and that life is in His Son, Jesus. Thus the Father and the Son are One and both have eternal life within Themselves (John 1:4, 10:30). See Joh 3:16, 6:47, 17:3; 1Jo 5:10-13, 20; Isa 48:16 Compare Joh 5:38

Joh 5:24

John 5:24 - my word - Jesus' words are spirit and eternal life - John 6:63

Joh 5:24

John 5:24 - believeth on him that sent me - See Isa 48:16; John 8:42

Joh 5:24

Joh 5:24 - and shall not come into condemnation - the "law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus" frees us from the "law of sin and death" in our members (flesh) - See Rom 8:1, 5:18; Joh 3:18, 19

Joh 5:24

Joh 5:24 - but is passed from death unto life - Those who have accepted Christ have passed from dead in trespasses and sins, moved from a temporary death-life (walking dead) to eternal life in the Son (1Jo 5:11-13; Col 1:13). Their lives are hid in Christ (Col 3:3, 4) and they can not die because they are alive in Christ (Mt 22:32), and they sleep in Christ, though their mortal bodies may die. See Rom 6:1-13; Joh 3:5, 18, 8:5, 11:25, 26; Rev 20:6, Eph 2:1

Joh 5:25

Joh 5:25 - The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live - speaking both prophetically and literally, Jesus foretold the resurrection of the dead at His Second coming, to be demonstrated shortly in the resurrection of Lazarus. However, Jesus spoke also of the Spiritual rebirth where the dead hear the voice of the Son of God and are raised from their spiritually dead condition to newness of life in Christ Jesus (Eph 2:1) See Mk 5:41; Joh 5:21, 11:23-26; 1Cor 15:22, 23; Act 24:15; 1Thess 4:16

Joh 5:25

Joh 5:25 - and they that hear shall live - the voice of Jesus, the voice of the Archangel and Creator, pierces death and calls forth those who are summoned of God. This speaks both of the resurrection of the dead (literal/natural) and the new birth experience (spiritual). - See Rev 2:7, 11. 17, 29, 3:6, 13, 22

Joh 5:26

Joh 5:26 - so hath he given to the Son to have life in Himself - Jesus is the Everlasting God Who has always had life in Himself. However, as part of the plan of redemption, when Jesus took on humanity, God ordained that He Jesus should also have life in Himself with His victory over sin, death and the grave. See Joh 1:1-4, 14; 1Cor 6:14; 2Cor 4:14 Jesus received the following declarations of His Father at His incarnation: 1. Jesus is forever a priest after the order of Melchizedek - Heb 5:10, 7:17 2. Jesus has eternal life in Himself - Joh 5:26 3. He has power to lay down His life and take it up again - Joh 10:18 4. Jesus as a prophet, will speak only the words that His Father has given Him to speak - Joh 12:49, 50 5. God has commanded everlasting life to be established in His Son - Joh 12:50; 1Jo 5:9-13

Joh 5:27

Joh 5:27 - given him authority to execute judgment also, because He is the Son of man - See Isa 33:22; Ps 50:1-6; Joh 9:39; Dan 7:9, 10, 13, 14; Act 10:42; Mal 3:2, 3

Joh 5:27

Joh 5:27 - because he is the Son of man - God is just and will permit He Who has become One with the human race to judge us based on His knowledge of the challenges that humanity faces. See Heb 2:14-18

Joh 5:28

Joh 5:28 - all that are in the graves shall hear the His voice, And shall come forth - Jesus conquered the grave for all men. The grave represents bondage to sin and death, which Jesus has conquered and has the keys over. See Joh 5:25; 1Cor 15:22, 23; Heb 2:14, 15; Act 24:15; Rev 1:18

John 5:29 - And shall come forth - See John 11:38-44

Joh 5:29

Joh 5:26 - they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life - See Lk 14:12-14; Rev 20:5, 6; Act 24:15 Those who in the judgment are "accounted worthy" will have a part in the resurrection of the just. Jesus said: "They which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, ... are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.” Lk 20:35, 36. And again He declares that “they that have done good” shall come forth “unto the resurrection of life.” Joh 5:29. The righteous dead will not be raised until after the judgment at which they are accounted worthy of “the resurrection of life.” Hence they will not be present in person at the tribunal when their records are examined and their cases decided. - {GC 482.3}

Joh 5:30

Joh 5:30 - I can of mine own self do nothing - Jesus showed His total dependence upon His Father. Jesus shows us that without Himself dwelling in us, we have no connection with the Father (Joh 14:6) and can of ourselves do nothing. Joh 5:19, 15:5

Joh 5:30

Joh 5:30 - as I hear, I judge - the Father speaks to Jesus through the Holy Spirit and pronounces righteous judgment. See Rev 1:1

Joh 5:32 - There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true. - Joh the Baptist bore witness of Jesus but the Father, the Holy Spirit, the water, the blood and the very works of Christ all bear witness to Jesus' divinity, His humanity, and His Lordship. See Isa 48:16; 1Jo 5:9; Joh 5:36, 37

Joh 5:36 - the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me - the very works that Jesus did bore witness of Who sent Him. See Joh 10:38

Joh 5:37

Joh 5:37 - Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape - See Joh 1:18, 6:46, 1Tim 6:16; 1Jo 4:12, 20; Ex 33:20; Mt 11:27 Jesus, speaking as a Royal Messenger of His Father makes the declaration that none have ever seen nor heard the Father. Royal messengers in the ancient Near East had numerous responsibilities and roles granted to them such as being a vassal king, a prophet, a vizier, or one who intercedes on behalf of the people. All of these roles are initiated with the legality of being sent" with all the king's authority. The training of the RM was intense and lifelong. The RM was usually the son of the king, and had to learn every mannerism of the king, as well as the very mood and nuance of the message. He came, "Not speaking his own words, but the Father's". Kings never physically met. The RM was the contact, and he carried all the authority of the king, and had to be treated as such. This concept helps to clarify Yeshua in the Tenakh, and answer the verses that state that "No man has ever seen nor heard the Father". The YHWH in the Tenakh is most often the RM coming in the "name of the Father". This was a bit of a side note, but the information is needed in the complete understanding of the covenant function. {by Brian Keith Hudson: from <http://ancient-hebrew.org/culture/suzerain-vassal-covenants.htm>}

Joh 5:38

Joh 5:38 - And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not - God's Word abiding within purifies and purges us of sin. See Joh 5:24, 3:16, 15:7; Rom 10:10; Ps 119:11 CONTRAST John 15:3

Joh 5:38

Joh 5:38 - for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not - See Joh 5:23, 30, 36; Isa 48:16

Joh 5:39

Joh 5:39 - Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life and these are they which testify of Me - Jesus commands the Pharisees once again to search the Scriptures to find the light of truth they were missing. See Joh 10:25; Lk 10:25, 26; Mt 9:13, 12:7, 16:12; Rom 4:3, 10:17 Jesus said of the Old Testament Scriptures—and how much more it is true of the New—"They are they which testify of me" (Joh 5:39).... Yes, the whole Bible tells of Christ. From the first record of creation, for "without him was not any thing made that was made" (Joh 1:3), to the closing promise, "Behold, I come quickly" (Rev 22:12), we are reading of His works and listening to His voice. If you would become acquainted with the Saviour, study the Holy Scriptures. - {FLB 12.6}. -See Joh 5:47 God does not compel men to give up their unbelief. Before them are light and darkness, truth and error. It is for them to decide which they will accept. The human mind is endowed with power to discriminate between right and wrong. God designs that men shall not decide from impulse, but from weight of evidence, carefully comparing scripture with scripture. Had the Jews laid by their prejudice and compared written prophecy with the facts characterizing the life of Jesus, they would have perceived a beautiful harmony between the prophecies and their fulfillment in the life and ministry of the lowly Galilean. - {DA 458.3} - DA 458.3 Many are deceived today in the same way as were the Jews. Religious teachers read the Bible in the light of their own understanding and traditions; and the people do not search the Scriptures for themselves, and judge for themselves as to what is truth; but they yield up their judgment, and commit their souls to their leaders. The preaching and teaching of His word is one of the means that God has ordained for diffusing light; but we must bring every man's teaching to the test of Scripture. Whoever will prayerfully study the Bible, desiring to know the truth, that he may obey it, will receive divine enlightenment. He will understand the Scriptures. "If any man willeth to do His will, he shall know of the teaching." Joh 7:17, R. V. - {DA 459.1} - DA 459.1 Jesus shows that many search the Scriptures to understand what they must do in order to earn eternal life, when the Scriptures merely testify that He Himself is eternal life (1Jo 5:11-14). Wresting Scriptures: The NKJV rendering of the command to "Search the Scriptures" reads, "You search the Scriptures". This is INCORRECT! This alters the verse from a command to an observation [a command is a directive whereas an observation is optional and implies possibly one of many sources for observation (i.e. tradition as another source). Further, with the observation, it is subject to opinion/interpretation]. The change appeared in the 1881 Revised Version which followed the 1582 Catholic Douay Version. A Catholic publication had this to say regarding the change, "But perhaps the most surprising change of all is Joh 5:39. It is no longer 'Search the Scriptures,' but 'Ye search;' and thus Protestantism has lost the very cause of its being" (Dublin Review, July, 1881). The Catholic Church had promoted the idea that tradition was equal to the Bible, and condemned the belief that Scripture alone should guide the Christian. Naturally they were quite elated with the new rendering of this verse, especially since this translation was considered to be Protestant. One of the main principles of the Protestant Reformation was Sola Scriptura, (only scripture), and this new "Protestant" (old Catholic) rendering of Joh 5:39 has only succeeded in reinforcing the arguments against the Reformation. See Eph 3:9; 1Tim 3:16

Joh 5:39 - for in them ye think ye have eternal life - A knowledge of the Scriptures alone can not save. The Scriptures are given to lead us to the Source of Life, Jesus Christ. Many search the scriptures to answer the question that establishes the Old Covenant: "what good works must we do to do the works of God". See Ex 19:3-8; John 6:28, 29

Joh 5:39

Joh 5:39 - they are they which testify of me - The Scriptures give a revelation of Jesus Christ. The written word is designed to lead us to the Living Word. When we search the Scriptures in faith with this pursuit, we shall find the LORD. See Gen 3:15; Ps 40:7; Heb 10:7, 11:6; Act 10:42, 43; Eph 3:19; 2Cor 3:14-17; 2Tim 3:15; Rom 10:17

Joh 5:40

Joh 5:40 - And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life - Jesus invites all to come to Him that they may have a new life of obedience to God and His commandments through Christ's power and strength (Mt 19:17; Gal 2:20; Joh 1:12; Rev 22:14). Yet, He also foresaw the people's prejudice and ultimate rejection of Him. See Mt 23:37-39; Joh 3:19-21, 10:26; Isa 30:15; 1Jo 5:11, 12 The first step in the path of obedience is to surrender the will to God. This may seem a difficult thing to do; for Satan will present every possible objection, and will manufacture difficulties, and magnify perplexities before the mind; but take the first step, and the next step on the ladder of progress will be easier. The ladder of progress must be climbed round by round; but God is above the ladder, and his glory will illuminate every step of advancement. The path of faith and self-denial is an upward path; its way is heavenward, and as you advance, the misleading clouds of doubt and evil will be left behind.

Joh 6:2

Joh 6:2 - And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased - Jesus performed more works of healing during His earthly ministry than preaching. These all gave evidence to Who He was. See Joh 5:36, 6:14

Joh 6:5

Joh 6:5 - he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat? - Jesus sought to prove Philip's faith. Apparently Philip had a problem with faith and seeing beyond the immediate. Apparently, he and Thomas were kindred spirits. See Joh 6:7, 14:5-12, 11:16

Joh 6:9

Joh 6:9 - There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes - the child must have been in the proximity of Jesus and Philip when Jesus asked Philip the question about food for the crowd. The child, observing the apparent dilemma and having concern for all people above himself, offered his scanty meal to be shared among the crowds. We must become as little children to enter the Kingdom of God.

Joh 6:10

Joh 6:10 - And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand - He who taught the people the way to secure peace and happiness was just as thoughtful of their temporal necessities as of their spiritual need. The people were weary and faint. There were mothers with babes in their arms, and little children clinging to their skirts. Many had been standing for hours. They had been so intensely interested in Christ's words that they had not once thought of sitting down, and the crowd was so great that there was danger of their trampling on one another. Jesus would give them a chance to rest, and He bade them sit down. There was much grass in the place, and all could rest in comfort. - {DA 365.4} Christ never worked a miracle except to supply a genuine necessity, and every miracle was of a character to lead the people to the tree of life, whose leaves are for the healing of the nations. The simple food passed round by the hands of the disciples contained a whole treasure of lessons. It was humble fare that had been provided; the fishes and barley loaves were the daily food of the fisher folk about the Sea of Galilee. Christ could have spread before the people a rich repast, but food prepared merely for the gratification of appetite would have conveyed no lesson for their good. Christ taught them in this lesson that the natural provisions of God for man had been perverted. And never did people enjoy the luxurious feasts prepared for the gratification of perverted taste as this people enjoyed the rest and the simple food which Christ provided so far from human habitations. - {DA 366.1} If men today were simple in their habits, living in harmony with nature's laws, as did Adam and Eve in the beginning, there would be an abundant supply for the needs of the human family. There would be fewer imaginary wants, and more opportunities to work in God's ways. But selfishness and the indulgence of unnatural taste have brought sin and misery into the world, from excess on the one hand, and from want on the other. - {DA 367.1} Jesus did not seek to attract the people to Him by gratifying the desire for luxury. To that great throng, weary and hungry after the long, exciting day, the simple fare was an assurance not only of His power, but of His tender care for them in the common needs of life. The Saviour has not promised His followers the luxuries of the world; their fare may be plain, and even scanty; their lot may be shut in by poverty; but His word is pledged that their need shall be supplied, and He has promised that which is far better than worldly good,—the abiding comfort of His own presence. - {DA 367.2} In feeding the five thousand, Jesus lifts the veil from the world of nature, and reveals the power that is constantly exercised for our good. In the production of earth's harvests God is working a miracle every day. Through natural agencies the same work is accomplished that was wrought in the feeding of the multitude. Men prepare the soil and sow the seed, but it is the life from God that causes the seed to germinate. It is God's rain and air and sunshine that cause it to put forth, "first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear." Mark 4:28. It is God who is every day feeding millions from earth's harvest fields. Men are called upon to co-operate with God in the care of the grain and the preparation of the loaf, and because of this they lose sight of the divine agency. They do not give God the glory due unto His holy name. The working of His power is ascribed to natural causes or to human instrumentality. Man is glorified in place of God, and His gracious gifts are perverted to selfish uses, and made a curse instead of a blessing. God is seeking to change all this. He desires that our dull senses shall be quickened to discern His merciful kindness and to glorify Him for the working of His power. He desires us to recognize Him in His gifts, that they may be, as He intended, a blessing to us. It was to accomplish this purpose that the miracles of Christ were performed. - {DA 367.3}

Joh 6:10 - So the men sat down, in number about five thousand - The Bible states that the Passover was drawing near and bands of Jewish travelers sought to hear Jesus speak [See DA 364.1]. Supposing there was one woman for every man and perhaps two children with each woman, Jesus fed approximately 20,000 with five loaves and two fishes. Praise the Lord!! See Mt 14:21

Joh 6:11

Joh 6:11 - And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes - After Jesus blessed the food, it was made abundant by the Father.

Joh 6:11

Joh 6:11 - as much as they would - the Bible states that the people ate to their full, as much as they would. There is no want in God's Kingdom or in His provisions for His people. See Lk 6:38; 15:15-18

Joh 6:12

Joh 6:12 - Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost - God is a God of efficiency and not of waste. He sees value in all things and desires that nothing be wasted but shared among others who may need.

Joh 6:13

Joh 6:13 - Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten - After the multitude had been fed, there was an abundance of food left. But He who had all the resources of infinite power at His command said, "Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost." These words meant more than putting the bread into the baskets. The lesson was twofold. Nothing is to be wasted. We are to let slip no temporal advantage. We should neglect nothing that will tend to benefit a human being. Let everything be gathered up that will relieve the necessity of earth's hungry ones. And there should be the same carefulness in spiritual things. When the baskets of fragments were collected, the people thought of their friends at home. They wanted them to share in the bread that Christ had blessed. The contents of the baskets were distributed among the eager throng, and were carried away into all the region round about. So those who were at the feast were to give to others the bread that comes down from heaven, to satisfy the hunger of the soul. They were to repeat what they had learned of the wonderful things of God. Nothing was to be lost. Not one word that concerned their eternal salvation was to fall useless to the ground. - {DA 368.1}

Joh 6:14

Joh 6:14 - Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world - See Joh 5:36

Joh 6:14

Joh 6:14 - This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world - Beholding the miracle of Christ and likening His feeding the multitude to the miracle of manna in the wilderness, the men rightly reasoned that Jesus was the foretold prophet, spoken by Moses. See Deut 18:18, 19; Joh 12:47-50, 1:21, 13:19, 5:45-47, 3:18-21; Ps 146:7

Joh 6:15

Joh 6:15 - When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force - [Christian Dominionism] - But today in the religious world there are multitudes who, as they believe, are working for the establishment of the kingdom of Christ as an earthly and temporal dominion. They desire to make our Lord the ruler of the kingdoms of this world, the ruler in its courts and camps, its legislative halls, its palaces and market places. They expect Him to rule through legal enactments, enforced by human authority. Since Christ is not now here in person, they themselves will undertake to act in His stead, to execute the laws of His kingdom. The establishment of such a kingdom is what the Jews desired in the days of Christ. They would have received Jesus, had He been willing to establish a temporal dominion, to enforce what they regarded as the laws of God, and to make them the expositors of His will and the agents of His authority. But He said, "My kingdom is not of this world." Joh 18:36. He would not accept the earthly throne. - {DA 509.2} - DA 509.2 Some would have taken Jesus by force to crown Him King, while others would take Him by force to put Him to death. Like time itself, the nation was divided by this One Man. See Joh 7:44

Joh 6:19

Joh 6:19 - rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs - 3.25 nautical miles

Joh 6:19

Joh 6:119 - they see Jesus walking on the sea - Yet one more example of God not being subject to, but being above and governing nature and its "laws". Jesus is able to cause the seemingly weightless air and the unstable waters to perfectly buoy Him up. God is SuperNatural in all His ways! See Mt 14:22-29

Joh 6:21

Joh 6:21 - Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went - as the disciples permitted Jesus to enter the ship, immediately they were taken to their destination, after several hours of rowing and making no progress. The same principle applies to us. When we acknowledge God and let Him into our planning, immediately we are taken to our desired end. Help me Lord not to loose sight of this object lesson. See Prov 3:5, 6

Joh 6:21

John 6:21 - and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went - See Act 8:38-40

Joh 6:25

Joh 6:25 - And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither? - And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither? - Though some were convinced that surely Jesus was "that Prophet" that Moses wrote of, signifying the Messiah, they did not refer to Him as such but as a Teacher, Rabbi. See Joh 6:14; Deut 18:18, 19

Joh 6:26

Joh 6:25 - Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles - the miracles, signs and wonders performed by Jesus gave evidence of His Messiahship, yet the people were still skeptical and sought for greater signs (Joh 6:30). Jesus rebukes the people and instructs them to work the works of God by believing in He Whom God had sent (Joh 6:29).

Joh 6:27

Joh 6:27 - Labour not for the meat which perisheth - we are not to labor/work to acquire the bread which will pass away (food, earthly wealth and possessions, lusts of the flesh and eyes, pride of life - man's praise), but for the meat (food) which is unto eternal life, Jesus Christ Himself, the Bread from heaven. See Joh 6:63; Isa 55:1-5;

Joh 6:27

John 6:27 - Labour - Man's works of the flesh to feed and save himself are here highlighted. We are to labour for the meat that endures to everlasting life, Jesus, the Bread of Heaven. See Mt 11:28-30

Joh 6:27

Joh 6:27 - but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life - Jesus gives Himself, the Bread of Life, to dwell inside of us through the Holy Spirit. Not milk, but the solid food from the Word of God that will feed the soul and draw us close to the Bread from heaven, Jesus. Jesus spoke of His body as Bread, that would be broken for those who are willing to partake of It. See Heb 5:12-14; Joh 6:33-35 We acquire the meat that endureth unto everlasting life by the work of denying ourselves, seeking first the kingdom of God and His righteousness. Mt 6:25-34; Lk 9:23; Philippians 2:12, 13

Joh 6:27

Joh 6:27 - for Him hath God the Father sealed - Jesus was glorified twice by the Father, at His baptism and at the mount of transfiguration. See Lk 3:21, 22; Mt 17:1, 2

Joh 6:27

Joh 6:27 - sealed - Jesus has been affirmed and declared of God; He is God's Chosen and Anointed One to Whom we must hear and give an account. See Lk 3:21, 22; 1Jo 5:7-11; Dan 9:24, 25

Joh 6:28

Joh 6:28 - What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? - See Mt 19:16; Lk 18:18; Mk 10:17; Ex 19:8 For the moment the interest of the hearers was awakened. They exclaimed,

“What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?” They had been performing many and burdensome works in order to recommend themselves to God; and they were ready to hear of any new observance by which they could secure greater merit. Their question meant, What shall we do that we may deserve heaven? What is the price we are required to pay in order to obtain the life to come? - {DA 385.1} “This longing for freedom from guilt has pushed the human race to search unceasingly for the right things to do in order to be freed from this complex. This guilt has become the engine of driving force to create "righteousness by works." It is an insatiable motivation as long as guilt remains. This is where the gospel becomes the cure. The freedom which the gospel brings is by a confrontation with it.” {Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short; pg 114} “If he’d had [Rich, Young Ruler - Mt 19:16] a correct understanding of the cross, he would have realized he could never do anything to earn eternal life. The cross tells us we must stop doing and start surrendering so that the One who is good can work in us that which is good.” {Surrender, G. Jackson, pg 11.4} Through heathenism, Satan had for ages turned men away from God; but he won his great triumph in perverting the faith of Israel. By contemplating and worshiping their own conceptions, the heathen had lost a knowledge of God, and had become more and more corrupt. So it was with Israel. The principle that man can save himself by his own works lay at the foundation of every heathen religion; it had now become the principle of the Jewish religion. Satan had implanted this principle. Wherever it is held, men have no barrier against sin. - {DA 35.2}

Joh 6:29

Joh 6:29 - This is the work of God, that ye believe on Him whom He hath sent - See John 15:4, 5; CTr 220.1-6 Jesus took the devil’s lie that man can be God, and the Old Covenant concept of man’s “works” to save himself (Ex 19:3-8; Gen 3:4, 5, 4:3) and applied it to the New Covenant (Jer 31:31-34), based on faith of Jesus Christ. This truth of righteousness by faith was taught by all of the prophets. Rom 3:23-26; Act 10:43; Rom 4:1-4, 5:18; Hab 2:4; Heb 10:38

Joh 6:30

Joh 6:30 - What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work? - a wicked and adulterous generation sought after a sign See Ps 78:18-22; Mt 12:39, 16:4; 1Cor 1:22

Joh 6:31

Joh 6:31 - Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat - the people imply the question, “are you greater than Moses?”, who they claim gave them Manna to eat for 40yrs in the desert

Joh 6:32

Joh 6:30 - Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven - the Jews were asking art thou greater than Moses (Deut 34:10-12)? Jesus wanted them to know it was not Moses that fed them in the wilderness but Himself.

Joh 6:32

Joh 6:32 - but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven - See Isa 55:1-3

Joh 6:33

Joh 6:33 - the bread of God is He which cometh down from heaven - Jesus is the Unleavened

Bread from heaven that is celebrated as part of the Passover Service. This bread, devoid of leaven (sin), is what gives life unto the world. See Joh 6:35, 48; Rev 2:17

Joh 6:33

Joh 6:33 - giveth life unto the world - speaking of the Creation, Jesus is He Who spoke all things into existence and imparted life. Speaking of redemption, all will come forth from the grave as Jesus has conquered the grave for all men. See Joh 1:3, 4, 5:24-26, 28, 29

Joh 6:34

Joh 6:34 - Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread - The Jews, thinking naturally, did not perceive the gospel truth Jesus was attempting to convey to them. Once again, they requested a natural bread that would fill them, but as Jesus suggested, one better than that which fell daily in the wilderness, in the time of Moses,- a bread for which they would hunger no more, giving life to the world. The same message was given to the Samaritan woman Jesus met at the well, however, her ignorance was acceptable, not being a Jew and unfamiliar with the oracles of God (Joh 4:9-15). These Jews, however, who had received the counsels of the prophets (Isa 58:1-12; 55:1-3) should have understood that Jesus was proclaiming spiritual sustenance that would feed their souls so that they would no longer hunger for the things of this world. It is this message that they would eventually come to realize/understand, that Christ was not speaking literally but spiritually (Joh 6:63), and many would be offended by it- preferring and rather having the things/ways of the world and to rule over their oppressors than to be filled with Christ and to learn to love, even their oppressors - Joh 6:66 "When Moses was about to build the sanctuary as a dwelling- place for God, he was directed to make all things according to the pattern shown him in the mount. . . . So to Israel, whom He desired to make His dwelling-place, He had revealed His glorious ideal of character. The pattern was shown them in the mount when the law was given from Sinai. . . . Israel had chosen their own ways. They had not builded according to the pattern; but Christ, the true temple for God's indwelling, moulded every detail of His earthly life in harmony with God's ideal. . . . So our characters are to be builded "for an habitation of God through the Spirit. Excerpt From Then Shall the Sanctuary Be Cleansed Donald Karr Short This material may be protected by copyright.

Joh 6:35

Joh 6:35 - I am the bread of life - The figure which Christ used was a familiar one to the Jews. Moses, by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, had said, "Man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord." And the prophet Jer had written, "Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and Thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart." Deut 8:3; Jer 15:16. The rabbis themselves had a saying, that the eating of bread, in its spiritual significance, was the study of the law and the practice of good works; and it was often said that at the Messiah's coming all Israel would be fed. The teaching of the prophets made plain the deep spiritual lesson in the miracle of the loaves. This lesson Christ was seeking to open to His hearers in the synagogue. Had they understood the Scriptures, they would have understood His words when He said, "I am the bread of life." Only the day before, the great multitude, when faint and weary, had been fed by the bread which He had given. As from that bread they had received physical strength and refreshment, so from Christ they might receive spiritual strength unto eternal life. "He that cometh to Me," He said, "shall never hunger; and he that believeth on Me shall never thirst." But He added, "Ye also have seen Me, and believe not." - {DA 386.2}

Joh 6:42

Joh 6:42 - And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven? - familiarity often breeds contempt. Thus was the response in Capernaum (Joh 6:59) towards Jesus as it was in His hometown of Nazareth. See Lk 4:16-29

Joh 6:44

Joh 6:44 - No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him - Jesus emptied Himself of His divine nature and glory, such that only those who were led by the Spirit of God would see and perceive the good in Him. See Isa 53:2; Joh 14:6, 6:37, 65; Mt 11:27; Lk 10:22 While we were yet enemies, God sent His Son to die for us. Jesus has broken the enmity that was within us so that we may be drawn to Him and the Father - See Rom 5:8-10; Eph 2:14, 15 No man can know or come to the Father unless through Christ - See Joh 1:18

Joh 6:45

Joh 6:45 - and they shall be all taught of God - Isa 54:13 Though God uses human instruments to convey His gospel message, He is responsible for teaching, guiding and instructing each person into all truth through His Holy Spirit. See Joh 3:27, 7:17, 14:26, 16:13, 6:64; Mt 5:2, 16:16, 17; Eph 4:21; Act 2:7-12; Isa 28:9, 10 If we keep the Lord ever before us, allowing our hearts to go out in thanksgiving and praise to Him, we shall have a continual freshness in our religious life. Our prayers will take the form of a conversation with God as we would talk with a friend. He will speak His mysteries to us personally. Often there will come to us a sweet joyful sense of the presence of Jesus. Often our hearts will burn within us as He draws nigh to commune with us as He did with Enoch. When this is in truth the experience of the Christian, there is seen in his life a simplicity, a humility, meekness, and lowliness of heart, that show to all with whom he associates that he has been with Jesus and learned of Him.—(Christ's Object Lessons, 129, 130.) - {Pr 12.2} In the natural order of things, the son of Zacharias would have been educated for the priesthood. But the training of the rabbinical schools would have unfitted him for his work. God did not send him to the teachers of theology to learn how to interpret the Scriptures. He called him to the desert, that he might learn of nature and nature's God. - {DA 101.3} It is a deplorable fact that men have connected with men, looked up to them, placed them where God should be, regarded their words and works as inspired, their interpretation of Scripture inspired, and they have become copies of men. They are dwarfed in their religious experience. They do not lead out.

They are letting other men be brains for them, letting another man search the Scriptures for them, and accepting his decisions as authority; and yet that man, whom they depend on and trust in, is compassed with the same human infirmities and weaknesses, and his defects really are regarded to be virtues to be copied. The Lord wants ministers of the gospel to search the Scriptures. Make no living man a channel. Accept not the work he does as without a flaw. Do not let him do the work God has told you to do. If you do, how are you occupying a safe position? Jesus bids you come to Him, the great Teacher, and learn of Him, and you should find rest to your souls. Let no man stand between your soul and Jesus Christ, thinking that the Lord tells him that which He refuses to tell you. Give God a chance, ministering brethren, to operate on your mind. Place yourself before Him as one who wants to learn of Him. You must place yourself before the Lord in diligently searching His Word that He may communicate ideas to you. He does not design that you shall be dependent on human minds. He would have you look to Him in faith to do large things for you, not through another man, but to you. - {1888 836.1}

Joh 6:45

Joh 6:45 - Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me - the Father, the Spirit and the Bride say "Come". All who have heard, learned of the Father and are moved of the Holy Spirit to obey the command of the Father (eternal life), come to Jesus for healing. See Rev 22:17; Joh 12:50

Joh 6:50

Joh 6:50 - This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die - speaking of the 2nd Death primarily but also for those who are fortunate to see Jesus coming, they will never die, even the 1st Death. See Rev 20:5, 6; Joh 5:24, 11:24-27

Joh 6:51

Joh 6:51 - I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: - You may have the witness of the Spirit that your ways please God. This is obtained by believing in the Word of God, by appropriating that Word to your own soul. This is eating the bread of life, and this will bring eternal life. Compare scripture with scripture. Study the representation of the life of a true Christian as delineated in the Word of God. - {HP 144.2}. See Rom 8:16

Joh 6:51

Joh 6:51 - the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world - See

1Cor 6:20; 1Pet 1:18, 19 The people had referred Christ to the manna which their fathers ate in the wilderness, as if the furnishing of that food was a greater miracle than Jesus had performed; but He shows how meager was that gift when compared with the blessings He had come to bestow. The manna could sustain only this earthly existence; it did not prevent the approach of death, nor insure immortality; but the bread of heaven would nourish the soul unto everlasting life. The Saviour said, "I am that bread of life. Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live forever." To this figure Christ now adds another. Only through dying could He impart life to men, and in the words that follow He points to His death as the means of salvation. He says, "The bread that I will give is My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world." - {DA 388.2} The Word of Christ is the bread of life that is furnished for every soul that liveth. To refuse to eat this bread is death. He that neglects to partake of the Word of God shall not see life. Receiving the Word is believing the Word, and this is eating Christ's flesh, drinking His blood. To dwell and abide in Christ is to dwell and abide in His Word; it is to bring heart and character into conformity to His commands. {SW 52.1}

Joh 6:53 - Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man - See Mt 26:26,

Joh 6:53 - and drink his blood - See Mt 26:27, 28

Joh 6:54

Joh 6:54 - whoso eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life - To eat the flesh and drink the blood of Christ is to receive Him as a personal Saviour, believing that He forgives our sins, and that we are complete in Him. It is by beholding His love, by dwelling upon it, by drinking it in, that we are to become partakers of His nature. What food is to the body, Christ must be to the soul. Food cannot benefit us unless we eat it, unless it becomes a part of our being. So Christ is of no value to us if we do not know Him as a personal Saviour. A theoretical knowledge will do us no good. We must feed upon Him, receive Him into the heart, so that His life becomes our life. His love, His grace, must be assimilated. - {DA 389.3}. See Col 2:9, 10

Joh 6:60

Joh 6:60 - This is an hard saying; who can hear it? - these are difficult words, who can abide or live up to them? This was the sentiments of many who the day before sought to make Jesus King of Israel by force. Their hopes disappointed and understanding that Jesus spoke of establishing a heavenly kingdom where righteousness abounded, the same turned away in scorn and rejection of Jesus.

Joh 6:61

Joh 6:62 - Doth this offend you? - The strait testimony of the True Witness causes offense. See Mt 24:10 Christ had spoken a sacred, eternal truth regarding the relation between Himself and His followers. He knew the character of those who claimed to be His disciples, and His words tested their faith. He declared that they were to believe and act upon His teaching. All who received Him would partake of His nature, and be conformed to His character. This involved the relinquishment of their cherished ambitions. It required the complete surrender of themselves to Jesus. They were called to become self-sacrificing, meek and lowly in heart. They must walk in the narrow path traveled by the Man of Calvary, if they would share in the gift of life and the glory of heaven. - {DA 391.2} The test was too great. The enthusiasm of those who had sought to take Him by force and make Him king grew cold. This discourse in the synagogue, they declared, had opened their eyes. Now they were undeceived. In their minds His words were a direct confession that He was not the Messiah, and that no earthly rewards were to be realized from connection with Him. They had welcomed His miracle-working power; they were eager to be freed from disease and suffering; but they would not come into sympathy with His self-sacrificing life. They cared not for the mysterious spiritual kingdom of which He spoke. The insincere, the selfish, who had sought Him, no longer desired Him. If He would not devote His power and influence to obtaining their freedom from the Rom, they would have nothing to do with Him. - {DA 391.3}

John 6:62 - What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before? - See John 17:5

Joh 6:63

Joh 6:63 - It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing - Jesus was using figurative language to show that our spiritual life and its sustenance is of exceeding greater importance than the flesh (See Joh 6:27). It is however, easy to see how unstable men such as the Nicolaitans could pervert this statement to suggest that whatever we do in the flesh has no bearing upon our spirit and eternal life. See Zech 4:6; John 3:6; 2Cor 3:6; Rev 2:6, 15; Eph 2:1; 1Pet 3:18, 19

Joh 6:63

John 6:63 - the flesh profiteth nothing - it is a vain thing to put our trust in the flesh. See Isa 57:12; Jer 17:5, 6; Philippians 3:3; Zech 4:6; Gal 6:5, 4:22, 23; Ps 20:7; Tit 3:5; Eph 2:8, 9; Rom 3:26, 27

Joh 6:63

Joh 6:63 - the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life - Jesus' words conveyed the essence of Christianity and godliness which, when practiced of men yields life eternal and life more abundantly. His words were Spiritual, so the carnal man can not receive the things of the Spirit of God because they are spiritually discerned See Joh 3:6, 4:23, 24, 6:68, 10:10, 12:49, 50, 15:3; Rom *7:14, 8:10; 1Cor 2:14 The word of God is the seed. Every seed has in itself a germinating principle. In it the life of the plant is enfolded. So there is life in God's word. Christ says, "The words that I speak unto you, they are Spirit, and they are life." Joh 6:63. "He that heareth My word, and believeth on Him that sent Me, hath everlasting life." Joh 5:24. In every command and in every promise of the word of God is the power, the very life of God, by which the command may be fulfilled and the promise realized. He who by faith receives the word is receiving the very life and character of God. - {CSA 19.9}

Joh 6:64

Joh 6:64 - But there are some of you that believe not - See Heb 3:16-4:3

Joh 6:64

Joh 6:64 - For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him - flesh and blood did not reveal this to Jesus but His Father in heaven made known to Him who would believe and who would reject Him. See Mt 16:17; Joh 6:66, 70, 71; 1Cor 2:10; Joh 16:13; Act 5:1-20

Joh 6:65

Joh 6:65 - Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father - Jesus' words were the gauntlet, the dividing line that caused many to draw back to perdition (Prov 16:4) and others to seek Him unto eternal life. See Joh 6:37, 44, 45, 14:6; Rom 9:8-23; Rev 22:17; Heb 10:38, 39

Joh 6:65

John 6:65 - except it were given unto him of my Father - All of humanity has been chosen of God in the Beloved, Jesus Christ (Eph 1:1-7). However, the Father gives us all time to prove what manner of spirit lies within us. Those who are willing to humble themselves and yield to God's wooing will be drawn to Jesus. Those, who in pride and selfishness, seek their own way will harden their own hearts to God's Holy Spirit. Mt 18:1-5; Rom 12:3; Josh 24:15; 2Pet 3:9

Joh 6:66

Joh 6:66 - from that time many of His disciples went back, and walked no more with Him - The hard saying or straight testimony of Jesus is that which caused many to turn back and walk no more with Him. So too, the straight testimony of the 3rd Angel's Message will cause a shaking among the household of God today. Those who turn back will receive the Mk of the Beast, 666. See 1Jo 2:19 By the public rebuke of their unbelief these disciples were still further alienated from Jesus. They were greatly displeased, and wishing to wound the Saviour and gratify the malice of the Pharisees, they turned their backs upon Him, and left Him with disdain. They had made their choice,—had taken the form without the spirit, the husk without the kernel. Their decision was never afterward reversed; for they walked no more with Jesus. - {DA 392.1} Christ's discourse in the synagogue concerning the bread of life was the turning point in the history of Judas. He heard the words, "Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink His blood, ye have no life in you.” Joh 6:53. He saw that Christ was offering spiritual rather than worldly good. He regarded himself as farsighted, and thought he could see that Jesus would have no honor, and that He could bestow no high position upon His followers. He determined not to unite himself so closely to Christ but that he could

Joh 6:67 - Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away? - Jesus sought to test their commitment and resolve to follow Him. Jesus' question was one which beckoned the hearer to count the cost of discipleship.

Joh 6:68

Joh 6:68 - to whom shall we go? - The 12 disciples (actually 11) had a personal encounter with Jesus that changed their lives. Prior to their encounter, they believed the words and ministry of Jesus' forerunner, Joh the Baptist who was sent by God to proclaim the arrival of the Kingdom of God. The disciples were convinced of Christ, had sacrificed all and needed no other evidence of His Messiahship. “To whom shall we go?” The teachers of Israel were slaves to formalism. The Pharisees and Sadducees were in constant contention. To leave Jesus was to fall among sticklers for rites and ceremonies, and ambitious men who sought their own glory. The disciples had found more peace and joy since they had accepted Christ than in all their previous lives. How could they go back to those who had scorned and persecuted the Friend of sinners? They had long been looking for the Messiah; now He had come, and they could not turn from His presence to those who were hunting His life, and had persecuted them for becoming His followers. - {DA 393.5}

Joh 6:68

Joh 6:68 - thou hast the words of eternal life - See Joh 6:54, 57, 63; 12:46-50, 17:3; 1Jo 5:10-13; Philippians 2:15, 16

Joh 6:69 - And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God. See Mt 16:16, 17; Joh 1:49, 11:27; Dan 9:24-27

Joh 6:70

Joh 6:70 - Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil - the scribe who approached Jesus, beckoning that he become one of His disciples (Mt 8:19; Lk 9:57, 58) was Judas Iscariote. See Joh 6:64, 13:2, 11, 18 In all that Christ said to His disciples, there was something with which, in heart, Judas disagreed. Under his influence the leaven of disaffection was fast doing its work. The disciples did not see the real agency in all this; but Jesus saw that Satan was communicating his attributes to Judas, and thus opening up a channel through which to influence the other disciples. This, a year before the betrayal, Christ declared. “Have not I chosen you twelve,” He said, “and one of you is a devil?” Joh 6:70. - {DA 720.1}

Joh 6:70

Joh 6:70 - and one of you is a devil? - One of the disciples was a seed of the serpent - See Joh 6:64; Gen 3:15; Lk 3:7

Joh 6:71 - He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve - See Ps 55:12-14; Act 1:16-18; Zech 11:12, 23

Joh 7:1

Joh 7:1 - After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him - Jesus came to His own and His own received Him not. Jesus was forced to walk among foreigners for the Jews sought His life. The Day of Atonement had just passed where their sins were to have been blotted out, and yet, the Jews sought to kill Jesus. Joh 1:11, 7:2 We are to work as long as possible for the Lord and not seek out harm unless explicitly directed by the Holy Spirit. The mission field is broad and we need not put ourselves in unnecessary harm and hinder the work as Jesus gave example.

Joh 7:2

Joh 7:2 - Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand - the final Fall feast, 5 days after the Day of Atonement.

Joh 7:4

Joh 7:4 - For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly - Jesus' brothers speak of the natural course of men who seek the praises of men and to be seen of men for selfishness and self-glorification. This was the way of the Pharisees who made a public display of their acts of self-righteousness and false piety (Mt 23:5-7). Jesus however, counsels us to do our good deeds in secret and our heavenly Father that sees us in secret will reward us openly (Mt 6:3, 4). See Mk 12:38, 39; Lk 20:46; Joh 7:18, 8:50

Joh 7:4

Joh 7:4 - if thou do these things - The "if" expressed doubt and unbelief. They attributed cowardice and weakness to Him. If He knew that He was the Messiah, why this strange reserve and inaction? If He really possessed such power, why not go boldly to Jerusalem, and assert His claims? Why not perform in Jerusalem the wonderful works reported of Him in Galilee? Do not hide in secluded provinces, they said, and perform your mighty works for the benefit of ignorant peasants and fishermen. Present yourself at the capital, win the support of the priests and rulers, and unite the nation in establishing the new kingdom. - {DA 450.2} These brothers of Jesus reasoned from the selfish motive so often found in the hearts of those ambitious for display. This spirit was the ruling spirit of the world. They were offended because, instead of seeking a temporal throne, Christ had declared Himself to be the bread of life. They were greatly disappointed when so many of His disciples forsook Him. They themselves turned from Him to escape the cross of acknowledging what His works revealed—that He was the Sent of God. - {DA 451.1}

Joh 7:5

Joh 7:5 - For neither did his brethren believe in him - those who shared the same household with Jesus and beheld His impeccable character were swayed by the doubts of others and denied Him. See Mt 13:57; Mk 6:4; Lk 4:24; Joh 4:44

Joh 7:6

Joh 7:6 - My time is not yet come - the time of Jesus' glorification had not yet arrived, when He would be lifted up before all men to demonstrate the character of God. God has a divine schedule and time for everything, yet He is willing to alter His schedule to attend to the fervent, selfless prayer of one of His children (Joshua 10:12, 13). See Joh 3:14, 12:23, 27, 31, 32

Joh 7:6

Joh 7:6 - but your time is always ready - we are always in a position to take a stand, be seen of men in order to glorify God the Father. Consider Joh the Baptist. See Joh 5:35

Joh 7:7

Joh 7:7 - The world cannot hate you - Jesus is speaking to His brothers that were unconverted and unbelieving. They were in harmony with the world and could not be reproved by the world for righteousness sake. Jesus however, was a reproof to the world and was reproved by the world for righteousness sake.

Joh 7:7

Joh 7:8 - but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil - See Joh 3:19-21, 15:23

Joh 7:10

Joh 7:10 - then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret - Meanwhile Jesus had quietly arrived at Jerusalem. He had chosen an unfrequented route by which to go, in order to avoid the travelers who were making their way to the city from all quarters. Had He joined any of the caravans that went up to the feast, public attention would have been attracted to Him on His entrance into the city, and a popular demonstration in His favor would have aroused the authorities against Him. It was to avoid this that He chose to make the journey alone. - {DA 452.1}

Joh 7:12

Joh 7:12 - others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people - people were prejudiced by the false reports of the Jewish leadership and blindly followed their counsel.

Joh 7:13

Joh 7:13 - Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews - people feared being put out of the temple by the Jews. The Jews modeled the same spirit later adopted by the papacy, that if you went against the teachings of the leadership you would be banished from the temple, its services and heaven. See Joh 9:22, 7:45-49, 19:38

Joh 7:15

Joh 7:15 - And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? - it was understood that Jesus was a carpenter and not trained in the 'Schools of the Prophets'. The Jews were therefore astounded by His wisdom, the power and clarity of His words and the meek, composed authority with which He taught. See Isa 7:15; Lk 2:46, 47

Joh 7:16

Joh 7:16 - My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me - the same statement applies to the followers of Christ, we are sent to preach and teach the gospel and we are to promote the doctrine of Christ. See Deut 18:18; Mt 28:19, 20; Joh 6:45 "My teaching is not Mine," said Jesus, "but His that sent Me. If any man willeth to do His will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it be of God, or whether I speak from Myself.” Joh 7:16, 17, R. V. The question of these cavilers Jesus met, not by answering the cavil, but by opening up truth vital to the salvation of the soul. The perception and appreciation of truth, He said, depends less upon the mind than upon the heart. Truth must be received into the soul; it claims the homage of the will. If truth could be submitted to the reason alone, pride would be no hindrance in the way of its reception. But it is to be received through the work of grace in the heart; and its reception depends upon the renunciation of every sin that the Spirit of God reveals. Man’s advantages for obtaining a knowledge of the truth, however great these may be, will prove of no benefit to him unless the heart is open to receive the truth, and there is a conscientious surrender of every habit and practice that is opposed to its principles. To those who thus yield themselves to God, having an honest desire to know and to do His will, the truth is revealed as the power of God for their salvation. These will be able to distinguish between him who speaks for God, and him who speaks merely from himself. The Pharisees had not put their will on the side of God’s will. They were not seeking to know the truth, but to find some excuse for evading it; Christ showed that this was why they did not understand His teaching. - {DA 455.3}

Joh 7:17 - iff any man willeth to do His will, he shall know of the doctrine/teaching - The statement made by Jesus is conditional, “if any man wills to do His will”, applying only to those who have a genuine desire to do God’s will and not their own. All who desire to know the truth and to live by the truth will be instructed of God through His Holy Spirit and Word. The Holy Spirit is promised to teach and give discernment to all who sincerely desire to do God’s will. See Ezra 7:10; Isa 28:26; Mic 4:2; 1Jo 4:5, 6; Joh 6:45, 8:31, 32, 47, 16:8, 13, 18:37; 1Cor 2:12-14 Many are deceived today in the same way as were the Jews. Religious teachers read the Bible in the light of their own understanding and traditions; and the people do not search the Scriptures for themselves, and judge for themselves as to what is truth; but they yield up their judgment, and commit their souls to their leaders. The preaching and teaching of His word is one of the means that God has ordained for diffusing light; but we must bring every man’s teaching to the test of Scripture. Whoever will prayerfully study the Bible, desiring to know the truth, that he may obey it, will receive divine enlightenment. He will understand the Scriptures. “If any man willeth to do His will, he shall know of the teaching.” Joh 7:17, R. V. - {DA 459.1} - DA 459.1 As we near the end of time, falsehood will be so mingled with truth, that only those who have the guidance of the Holy Spirit will be able to distinguish truth from error. We need to make every effort to keep the way of the Lord. We must in no case turn from His guidance to put our trust in man. The Lord’s angels are appointed to keep strict watch over those who put their faith in the Lord, and these angels are to be our special help in every time of need. Every day we are to come to the Lord with full assurance of faith, and to look to Him for wisdom.... Those who are guided by the Word of the Lord will discern with certainty between falsehood and truth, between sin and righteousness. - {Mar 192.6}

Joh 7:17

Joh 7:17 - he shall know of the doctrine - The Holy Spirit will confirm and affirm the words of truth to the sincere believer (Rom 8:14, 16; 1Cor 2:12-15). See Joh 6:45; 2Tim 3:10; Mt 11:19

Joh 7:17

Joh 7:17 - whether I speak of myself - whether the words spoken are of one's devising, one's opinion, for one's self-glorification or whether they are of God.

Joh 7:18

Joh 7:18 - He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory - those who are self promoting and promote their own ideas and opinions seek their own glory, the praises of men. By the pride of human wisdom, by contempt for the influence of the Holy Spirit, and by disrelish for the truths of God's word, many who profess to be Christians, and who feel competent to teach others, will be led to turn away from the requirements of God. Paul declared to Timothy, "The time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables." - {AA 504.2} The apostle does not here refer to the openly irreligious, but to the professing Christians who make inclination their guide, and thus become enslaved by self. Such are willing to listen to those doctrines only that do not rebuke their sins or condemn their pleasure-loving course. They are offended by the plain words of the faithful servants of Christ and choose teachers who praise and flatter them. And among professing ministers there are those who preach the opinions of men instead of the word of God. Unfaithful to their trust, they lead astray those who look to them for spiritual guidance. - {AA 504.3}

Joh 7:18

Joh 7:18 - but he that seeketh His glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him - See Ps 92:15 In Jesus, there is no unrighteousness, Who came to testify and give glory to His Father. Joh the Baptist said "He [Christ] must increase, but I must decrease" (Joh 3:30). Paul says I will boast in Jesus Christ and Him crucified. Such should be the boast of all the followers of Christ. See Phil 3:8-14; 1Cor 2:1, 2; Jer 9:23, 24; Dan 2:27, 30

Joh 7:19

Joh 7:19 - Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me? - Those who boast in the Law and speak of its merits are the very one's that break the law. See Mt 26:3, 4; Jam 2:8-12; Rom 3:19-26; Joh 8:20

Joh 7:20

Joh 7:20 - Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee? - Jesus read and exposed their very thoughts and they fain as if Jesus is mad, being possessed by a devil, speaking lies in paranoia. They should have been fearful of Christ as He read perfectly their thoughts and motives. - See Jam 3:14-16

Joh 7:21

Joh 7:20 - I have done one work, and ye all marvel - that which captured the Pharisee's ire was Jesus' healing of the man at the pool of Bethesda on the Sabbath (Joh 5). This healing pitted Jesus' claims to be the Son of God, and His works against the self-righteousness of the Pharisees. Compare Joh 7:22, 23

Joh 7:22

Joh 7:22 - Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man - See Gen 17:10-14; Lev 12:3

Joh 7:23

Joh 7:23 - that the law of Moses should not be broken - it was required that on the 8th day a male child be circumcised according to the Law of God spoken to Abraham and recorded by Moses. See Gen 17:12

Joh 7:23

Joh 7:23 - are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day? - Jesus has restored life, making the man whole on the Sabbath, a work of God just as much as circumcision and yet the Jews were angry with Him. See Joh 5:1-16

Joh 7:24

Joh 7:24 - Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment - Jesus is calling the Pharisees higher, to judge not by the letter of the Law but by the Spirit of the Law. Jesus, through the Holy Spirit was trying to appeal to their hard hearts to see if they would respond (compare the scribe of Lk 20:27-39). See 2Cor 3:6; Isa 11:3, 4; Jer 11:20; Rev 16:7; Joh 5:22, 27, 4:23, 24, 6:63, 8:15; Rom 7:9; 1Sam 16:7; Jam 2:2-4 God does not regard all sins as of equal magnitude; there are degrees of guilt in His estimation, as well as in that of man; but however trifling this or that wrong act may seem in the eyes of men, no sin is small in the sight of God. Man's judgment is partial, imperfect; but God estimates all things as they really are. The drunkard is despised and is told that his sin will exclude him from heaven; while pride, selfishness, and covetousness too often go unrebuked. But these are sins that are especially offensive to God; for they are contrary to the benevolence of His character, to that unselfish love which is the very atmosphere of the unfallen universe. He who falls into some of the grosser sins may feel a sense of his shame and poverty and his need of the grace of Christ; but pride feels no need, and so it closes the heart against Christ and the infinite blessings He came to give. - {SC 30.1}

Joh 7:24

John 7:24 - but judge righteous judgment - See Rom 2:5; 2Thess 1:4, 5

Joh 7:25

Joh 7:25 - Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill? - the Pharisees' hatred of Christ and desire to kill Him was obvious to those living in Jerusalem. See Joh 5:16

Joh 7:26

Joh 7:26 - Do the rulers no indeed that this is the very Messiah - See Joh 5:39, 7:40; Deut 18:18, 19; Dan 9:24, 25. As a nation, the people of Israel, while desiring the advent of the Messiah, were so far separated from God in heart and life that they could have no true conception of the character or mission of the promised Redeemer. Instead of desiring redemption from sin, and the glory and peace of holiness, their hearts were fixed upon deliverance from their national foes, and restoration to worldly power. They looked for Messiah to come as a conqueror, to break every yoke, and exalt Israel to dominion over all nations. Thus Satan had succeeded in preparing the hearts of the people to reject the Saviour when He should appear. Their own pride of heart, and their false conceptions of His character and mission, would prevent them from honestly weighing the evidences of His Messiahship. - {PK 709.2}

Joh 7:27

Joh 7:27 - Howbeit we know this man whence he is - the people were deceived by the teachings and traditions of men to suggest that the coming of the Messiah would be a mystical mystery. It was plainly prophesied that God would raise up a Prophet from among the brethren, and yet they were led to believe in a false doctrine and thus reject Jesus Christ. See Mt 13:55, 56; Deut 18:18; Heb 2:9-18 Many among Christ's hearers who were dwellers at Jerusalem, and who were not ignorant of the plots of the rulers against Him, felt themselves drawn to Him by an irresistible power. The conviction pressed upon them that He was the Son of God. But Satan was ready to suggest doubt; and for this the way was prepared by their own erroneous ideas of the Messiah and His coming. It was generally believed that Christ would be born at Bethlehem, but that after a time He would disappear, and at His second appearance none would know whence He came. There were not a few who held that the Messiah would have no natural relationship to humanity. And because the popular conception of the glory of the Messiah was not met by Jesus of Nazareth, many gave heed to the suggestion, "Howbeit we know this Man whence He is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence He is." - {DA 457.2}

Joh 7:27

Joh 7:27 - but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence He is - It was generally believed that Christ would be born at Bethlehem, but that after a time He would disappear, and at His second appearance none would know whence He came. There were not a few who held that the Messiah would have no natural relationship to humanity. And because the popular conception of the glory of the Messiah was not met by Jesus of Nazareth, many gave heed to the suggestion, "Howbeit we know this Man whence He is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence He is." - {DA 457.2}. See Joh 7:27 a doctrine of man was made mainstream among the Jews who did not no the scriptures nor the power of God (Mk 12:24). They perhaps misinterpreted the prophetic likening of Messiah to Melchizadek, having no beginnings or ends [no record of his lineage or what of his life and heritage after his encounter with Abraham] to suggest that the Messiah would "appear", just as Melchizadek. However, Scripture also made plain that Messiah would be born of a virgin, He would be raised up among the brethren and he would be One with the people He came to save. The Bible gave specific revelations regarding the Messiah and His coming: 1. The place of His birth, Bethlehem (Mic 5:2) 2. The time of His arrival (Dan 9:24, 25) 3. The place of His early life and lifestyle, a Nazarite (Judges 13:5) 4. His ministry and work (Isa 61:1-4)

Joh 7:28

John 7:28 - Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not - There were occasions when Jesus stood forth while in human flesh as the Son of God. Divinity flashed through humanity, and was seen by the scoffing priests and rulers. Was it acknowledged? Some acknowledged that He was the Christ, but the larger portion of those who upon these special occasions were forced to see that He was the Son of God, refused to receive Him. Their blindness corresponded to their determined resistance of conviction. - {5BC 1129.4} When Christ's indwelling glory flashed forth, it was too intense for His pure and perfect humanity entirely to conceal. The scribes and Pharisees did not speak in acknowledgment of Him, but their enmity and hatred were baffled as His majesty shone forth. The truth, obscured as it was by a veil of humiliation, spoke to every heart with unmistakable evidence. This led to the words of Christ, "Ye know who I am." Men and devils were compelled, by the shining forth of His glory, to confess, "Truly, this is the Son of God." Thus God was revealed; thus Christ was glorified (The Signs of the Times, May 10, 1899). - {5BC 1129.5}

Joh 7:28

Joh 7:30 - whom ye know not - See Joh 16:1-3

Joh 7:29

Joh 7:29 - and he hath sent me - See Isa 48:16

Joh 7:30

Joh 7:30 - Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come - the hour for Jesus to be glorified had not yet arrived. See Joh 12:23, 7:39, 8:20; Lk 22:52, 53

Joh 7:32

Joh 7:32 - The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him - incensed by the people's conviction that Jesus was indeed Messiah, Christ the Lord, the Pharisees sent soldiers to capture Him. These same soldiers would themselves become convinced of Jesus after hearing the words He spoke. See Joh 7:45, 46

Joh 7:34

Joh 7:34 - Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me - Jesus speaks of the Jews' ultimate rejection of Him. The day will come when there would be a famine in the land for hearing the word of God and they will seek for Jesus but will not find Him. See Am 8:11

Joh 7:34

Joh 7:34 - where I am, thither ye cannot come - See Lk 16:26; Joh 8:21

Joh 7:36

Joh 7:36 - What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come? - Jesus forecasted a time when the Spirit of God would depart from men and they would search from the north to the east to hear the Word of God, but not find it. See Amos 8:11-14

Joh 7:37

Joh 7:37 - In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. See Ps 36:9; Rev 22:17, Joh 6:35, 4:10, 11; Rev 7:17

Joh 7:38

Joh 7:38 - He that believeth in me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water - Jesus was declaring His Messiahship, the LORD, the Fountain of Living Waters. If we drink living waters, living waters will come out of us. If we feed on impure or poisonous thoughts, those same thoughts will come out of us. Ps 36:9; Jer 17:13; Gal 5:22, 23; Joh 4:10, 14; Mt 12:34; 1Cor 15:33; Rev 7:17

Joh 7:39

Joh 7:39 - But this spake he of the Spirit - The Holy Spirit is likened to Living Waters, Rains, early and latter. See Jam 5:7; Joel 2:23; Jer 17:13; Gal 5:22, 23; Joh 4:10, 14

Joh 7:39

Joh 7:39 - which they that believe on him should receive - See Act 1:8, 10:45-48; Jer 31:31-34

Joh 7:39

Joh 7:39 - for the Holy Ghost was not yet given - God does all things with perfect order. The Holy Spirit had not been given as another Comforter, like Jesus had come, until Jesus' glorification and ascension (Joh 16:6-15), and to dwell within men in fullness (1Cor 6:19). However, the Holy Spirit had always fulfilled, and continued to function in His appointed task of guiding and directing men to worship God, their Creator. After Jesus' glorification, believers would be imbued with the living presence of the Holy Spirit to empower the life and give the believer the unction to preach the gospel of a risen Savior! - See John 4:21; Nehemiah 9:20; 1Sam 10:6, 9; Act 7:51; 1Pet 3:18, 19; 1Kin 18:36, 37; Eph 3:1-5 During the patriarchal age the influence of the Holy Spirit had often been revealed in a marked manner, but never in its fullness. Now, in obedience to the word of the Saviour, the disciples offered their supplications for this gift, and in heaven Christ added His intercession. He claimed the gift of the Spirit, that He might pour it upon His people. - {AA 37.3} From the beginning, God has been working by His Holy Spirit through human instrumentalities for the accomplishment of His purpose in behalf of the fallen race. This was manifest in the lives of the patriarchs. To the church in the wilderness also, in the time of Moses, God gave His "good Spirit to instruct them." Nehemiah 9:20. And in the days of the apostles He wrought mightily for His church through the agency of the Holy Spirit. The same power that sustained the patriarchs, that gave Caleb and Joshua faith and courage, and that made the work of the apostolic church effective, has upheld God's faithful children in every succeeding age. It was through the power of the Holy Spirit that during the Dark Ages the Waldensian Christians helped to prepare the way for the Reformation. It was the same power that made successful the efforts of the noble men and women who pioneered the way for the establishment of modern missions and for the translation of the Bible into the languages and dialects of all nations and peoples. - {AA 53.1}

Joh 7:40

Joh 7:40 - Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet - The COI were being tested to see if they would believe in Him Who they heard and saw God's glory revealed through. See Jer 17:13

Joh 7:40

Joh 7:40 - Of a truth this is the Prophet - See Deut 18:18, 19

Joh 7:41

Joh 7:41 - Others said, This is the Christ - apparently the people were not aware that the Prophet spoken by Moses (Deut 18:18) was also the Messiah, spoken by Dan (Dan 9:25). See Mt 16:14

Joh 7:41

Joh 7:41 - Shall Christ come out of Galilee? - The Jews knew that out of Bethlehem Judea would come the Messiah. See Mic 5:2

Joh 7:42

Joh 7:42 - Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was? - Jesus made no attempt to justify Himself, to prove His lineage, nor to reveal His miraculous birth that fulfilled all prophecies to the letter.

In meekness, Jesus permitted men to make decisions about Him based upon the evidence they saw, not on what they did not see or could not understand. So it is today, we are to walk by faith based on the light that has been entrusted to us. See Mic 5:2; Isa 11:10; Gen 49:10

Joh 7:43 - So there was a division among the people because of him - Jesus divides the world into two camps. See Gen 3:15; Mt 10:34, 12:30; Heb 4:12; Joh 9:16

Joh 7:44

Joh 7:44 - And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him - some would have taken Jesus by force to crown Him King, others would have taken Him by force to put Him to death. There is no middle ground with Jesus. The nation and the world is divided by this One Man. See Joh 6:15, 7:45, 46

Joh 7:46

Joh 7:46 - Never man spake like this man - the convicted guards were powerless to apprehend One whose words cut to their soul. Their testimony was a rebuke to the Jewish leadership, where the rocks were crying out. The Roman guards had sufficient fear, not to touch the Lord's Anointed. See Lk 19:40; Mk 2:11, 12; Lk 4:32; Joh 7:32; 1Sam 22:17

Joh 7:47

Joh 7:47 - Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived? - Just as the Holy Spirit is making impressions upon men's minds such that they exalt and delight in the light shown from God, the devil raises up men, typically those in leadership (pastors) to oppose the light and cast their doubts upon the works of God. See Mt 12:23, 24

Joh 7:48

Joh 7:48 - Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him? - The question points to the standard, authority and source of religion advocated by the Jewish Leadership, the religion of men (Jer 17:5-8; Mk 7:7, 8, 11:28; Mt 23:13; Lk 20:2). No different today! Modern Israel looks to be led by their earthly leaders as opposed to being led by God, His Spirit, and His Word. See Lk 9:22 Those to whom the message of truth is spoken seldom ask, "Is it true?" but, "By whom is it advocated?" Multitudes estimate it by the numbers who accept it; and the question is still asked, "Have any of the learned men or religious leaders believed?" Men are no more favorable to real godliness now than in the days of Christ. They are just as intently seeking earthly good, to the neglect of eternal riches; and it is not an argument against the truth, that large numbers are not ready to accept it, or that it is not received by the world's great men, or even by the religious leaders. - {DA 459.5} - DA 459.5 With a great show of prudence the rabbis had warned the people against receiving the new doctrines taught by this new teacher; for His theories and practices were contrary to the teachings of the fathers. The people gave credence to what the priests and Pharisees taught, in place of seeking to understand the word of God for themselves. They honored the priests and rulers instead of honoring God, and rejected the truth that they might keep their own traditions. Many had been impressed and almost persuaded; but they did not act upon their convictions, and were not reckoned on the side of Christ. Satan presented his temptations, until the light appeared as darkness. Thus many rejected the truth that would have proved the saving of the soul. - {DA 489.4} Many are deceived today in the same way as were the Jews. Religious teachers read the Bible in the light of their own understanding and traditions; and the people do not search the Scriptures for themselves, and judge for themselves as to what is truth; but they yield up their judgment, and commit their souls to their leaders. The preaching and teaching of His word is one of the means that God has ordained for diffusing light; but we must bring every man's teaching to the test of Scripture. Whoever will prayerfully study the Bible, desiring to know the truth, that he may obey it, will receive divine enlightenment. He will understand the Scriptures. "If any man willeth to do His will, he shall know of the teaching." Joh 7:17, R. V. - {DA 459.1} - DA 459.1 But God will have a people upon the earth to maintain the Bible, and the Bible only, as the standard of all doctrines and the basis of all reforms. The opinions of learned men, the deductions of science, the creeds or decisions of ecclesiastical councils, as numerous and discordant as are the churches which they represent, the voice of the majority,—not one or all of these should be regarded as evidence for or against any point of religious faith. Before accepting any doctrine or precept, we should demand a plain "Thus saith the Lord" in its support. - {4SP 413.2} Satan is constantly endeavoring to attract attention to man in the place of God. He leads the people to look to bishops, to pastors, to professors of theology, as their guides, instead of searching the Scriptures to learn their duty for themselves. Then by controlling the minds of these leaders he can influence the multitudes according to his will. - {4SP 413.3} When Christ came to speak the words of life, the common people heard him gladly; and many, even of the priests and rulers, believed on him. But the chief of the priesthood and the leading men of the nation were determined to condemn and repudiate his teachings. Though they were baffled in all their efforts to find accusations against him, though they could not but feel the influence of the divine power and wisdom attending his words, yet they encased themselves in prejudice; they rejected the clearest evidence of his Messiahship, lest they should be forced to become his disciples. These opponents of Jesus were men whom the people had been taught from infancy to reverence, to whose authority they had been accustomed implicitly to bow. "How is it," they asked, "that our rulers and learned scribes do not believe on Jesus? Would not these pious men receive him if he were the Christ?" It was the influence of such teachers that led the Jewish nation to reject their Redeemer. - {4SP 414.1}

Joh 7:49 - But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed - those who claimed to be the defenders of the faith and shepherds of the flock of God displayed an utter contempt for those who they claimed to watch over. See Zech 11:4, 5, 17; Joh 9:34

Joh 7:50

Joh 7:50 - Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,) - Nicodemus' encounter with Jesus was not without effect. Jesus left an impression upon him that caused him to take a stand in His defense against the other Pharisees. Nicodemus, like Joseph of Arimathaea, would be scorned and left out of further plottings to take Jesus as the Pharisees were aware of their sympathies towards Him. See Joh 3:2-21

Joh 7:51

Joh 7:51 - Doth our law judge - the Jewish Law presumed a person innocent until proven guilty, unlike Roman Law, which would imprison a person without due process, presuming them to be guilt until proven innocent. The individuals burden would then be to prove their innocense, a nearly impossible feat as confirmed in the mock trials of Jesus. See Josh 20:9 In the instructions communicated by the pontiff to this official, it was stated that Luther had already been declared a heretic. The legate was therefore charged "to prosecute and constrain without any delay." If he should remain steadfast, and the legate should fail to gain possession of his person, he was empowered "to proscribe him in every part of Germany; to banish, curse, and excommunicate all those who are attached to him.”—Ibid., b. 4, ch. 2. And, further, the pope directed his legate, in order entirely to root out the pestilent heresy, to excommunicate all, of whatever dignity in church or state, except the emperor, who should neglect to seize Luther and his adherents, and deliver them up to the vengeance of Rome. - {GC 133.3} Here is displayed the true spirit of popery. Not a trace of Christian principle, or even of common justice, is to be seen in the whole document. Luther was at a great distance from Rome; he had had no opportunity to explain or defend his position; yet before his case had been investigated, he was summarily pronounced a heretic, and in the same day, exhorted, accused, judged, and condemned; and all this by the self-styled holy father, the only supreme, infallible authority in church or state! - {GC 134.1}

Joh 7:52

Joh 7:52 - Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet - False Teachers Misplace Prophecy—In our day as in Christ’s day, there may be a misreading and misinterpreting of the Scriptures. If the Jews had studied the Scriptures with earnest, prayerful hearts, their searching would have been rewarded with a true knowledge of the time, and not only the time, but also the manner of Christ’s appearing. They would not have ascribed the glorious second appearing of Christ to His first advent. They had the testimony of Dan; they had the testimony of Isa and the other prophets; they had the teachings of Moses; and here was Christ in their very midst, and still they were searching the Scriptures for evidence in regard to His coming. And they were doing unto Christ the very things that had been prophesied they would do. They were so blinded they knew not what they were doing. { Ev 612.4} And many are doing the same thing today, in 1897, because they have not had experience in the testing messages comprehended in the first, second, and third angel’s messages. There are those who are searching the Scriptures for proof that these messages are still in the future. They gather together the truthfulness of the messages, but they fail to give them their proper place in prophetic history. Therefore such are in danger of misleading the people in regard to locating the messages. They do not see and understand the time of the end, or when to locate the messages. The day of God is coming with stealthy tread, but the supposed wise and great men are prating about “higher education.” They know not the signs of Christ’s coming, or of the end of the world.—Manuscript 136, 1897. { Ev 613.1}

Joh 8:1

Joh 8:1 - Jesus went unto the mount of Olives - Jesus' frequent site for prayer, communion and meditation with His Father before the start of the day. As the close of the Feast of Ingathering came to a close, Jesus may have prayed for the Holy Spirit to proclaim His mission and calling to the wondering people.

Joh 8:2

Joh 8:2 - And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them - Jesus came to the temple, Himself the fresh bread from heaven to provide breakfast for the people who desired to hear His teachings.

Joh 8:3

Joh 8:3 - And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst - the Law of Moses required her husband bring she and her accomplice to the leadership. With all their professions of reverence for the law, these rabbis were disregarding its provisions. It was the husband’s duty to take action against the woman; and the guilty parties were to be punished equally. The action of the accusers was unauthorized. Jesus, however, met them on their own ground. The law specified that the witnesses in the case should be the first to cast a stone. Now rising and fixing His eyes on the plotting elders, Jesus said, "He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her." And He continued writing on the ground. - {HLv 311.2}

Joh 8:5

Joh 8:5 - Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned - See Lev 20:10

Joh 8:5

Joh 8:5 - but what sayest thou? - Seeking to accuse Jesus of breaking and teaching others to break the Law of Moses, or to stone the woman to death which was an offense against Roman Law (Joh 18:31), the Jews set up a trap to ensnare Him.

Joh 8:6

Joh 8:6 - This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him - the Jews continually sought to trap Jesus. If he should condone their murderous act, He would be referred to the Rom for killing a person, which was illegal. If he should defend the woman, Jesus would be accused of seeking to make void the Laws of Moses. They thought they had Jesus in a no-win situation. See Mt 22:15-22; Mk 12:13-16; Lk 20:20-26

Joh 8:6

Joh 8:6 - Jesus stooped down , and with His finger wrote on the ground - on three occasions God writes in the Bible and with each it pertains to the conviction of sin: 1. God issued the 10 Commandments and wrote them with His fingers (Ex 20:1-17) 2. God's hand writes on the palace walls of Belshazzar, pronouncing judgment upon the king and the Empire 3. Jesus writes in the sand, judging those who brought judgment upon the woman caught in adultery. Jesus delineated the sins of each man, from the eldest to the youngest so that they individually saw their own condemnation (v9) and left the scene. Ps 90:8

Joh 8:7

Joh 8:9 - He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her - Jesus showing His consent with the law of Moses commands those who have no sin for which they themselves are not worthy of death, to cast the first stone against her. As Jesus noted the sins of those men in the sand, many of whom may have at one time had relations with the same woman, or were criminal to sins more heinous than that for which they charged the woman, they were condemned by their own charges. See Rom 2:3

Joh 8:10

Joh 8:10 - Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee? - The only one left before the woman who could justly accuse and condemn her was Jesus Himself.

Joh 8:11

Joh 8:11 - No man, Lord - the woman, convicted of sin and shown great mercy is covered in the righteousness of Christ. She calls Him Lord, just as the thief on the cross! See Lk 23:42

Joh 8:11

Joh 8:11 - Neither do I condemn thee - Joh 3:17; Rom 8:1, 2

Joh 8:11

Joh 8:11 - go, and sin no more - that which Jesus commanded the then, justified woman, to do was not an impossibility, but one that He, through the Holy Spirit had empowered her to achieve. The statement implies that God has given you power to be victorious over sin and that is what is expected of you. Sin not, lest you be found guilty once again in your sins and be judged for them. See 1Jo 2:1

Joh 8:12

Joh 8:12 - I Am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life - See Joh 1:9, 3:19-21, 9:4, 5; 1Jo 1:5;

Joh 8:12

Joh 8:11 - he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness - See 1Thess 5:4-9

Joh 8:12

Joh 8:11 - but shall have the light of life - Joh declares that "In Him was life, and the life was the light of men". Jesus is both light to the world and the light that shines along the path to eternal life. And He Himself is eternal life. See Joh 11:25, 17:3; Ps 36:9; 1Jo 5:11-14 They had a bright light set up behind them at the beginning of the path, which an angel told me was the "midnight cry." [See Mt 25:6.] This light shone all along the path, and gave light for their feet, so that they might not stumble. - {CET 57.2} If they kept their eyes fixed on Jesus, who was just before them, leading them to the city, they were safe. But soon some grew weary, and said the city was a great way off, and they expected to have entered it before. Then Jesus would encourage them by raising His glorious right arm, and from His arm came a light which waved over the advent band, and they shouted "Alleluia!" Walk continually in the light of God. Meditate day and night upon His character. Then you will see His beauty and rejoice in His goodness. Your heart will glow with a sense of His love. You will be uplifted as if borne by everlasting arms. With the power and light that God imparts, you can comprehend more and accomplish more than you ever before deemed possible.—(The Ministry of Healing, 514.) - {Pr 16.2}

Joh 8:13

Joh 8:13 - Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true - as the seed of the serpent, the Pharisees continued the warfare [Grk: pólemos] started in heaven by their rebel father Lucifer, suggesting God's claims about Himself were false. Consider the arrogance of the fallen creation, reviling its Perfect Creator; such is the nature of sin. See Rev 12:7-9; Heb 12:3; CONTRAST 2Cor 10:12

Joh 8:15

Joh 8:15 - Ye judge after the flesh - we who are flesh can not judge justly because we can only see that which is outward, we know not the spirit of men. See Joh 7:24; 1Cor 2:10-12

Joh 8:15

Joh 8:15 - I judge no man - Jesus is saying His judgment is not of the flesh, as a human. Jesus, as the Son of Man has come to be the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world. Jesus did not come to condemn the world but to give life (Joh 3:17; Act 17:31).

Joh 8:16

Joh 8:16 - And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me - Jesus, the Father and the Holy Spirit all agree as One in their thoughts and judgment. See Joh 10:30; 1Jo 5:7, 8; Ps 19:9

Joh 8:21

Joh 8:21 - ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins - Jesus speaks of the days when there would be a famine in the land for hearing the word of God. This prophecy would be fulfilled immediately after the death of Christ. The people came from far and wide, seeking the Master for healing and the only report that could be given was that He was killed the prior day at the hands of the Pharisees. This would begin the fulfillment of this prophecy which would haunt the religious leaders and their followers for the rest of their lives. See Am 8:11-14; Joh 14:19; Ezekiel 18:20 Never had Christ attracted the attention of the multitude as now that He was laid in the tomb. According to their practice, the people brought their sick and suffering ones to the temple courts, inquiring, Who can tell us of Jesus of Nazareth? Many had come from far to find Him who had healed the sick and raised the dead. On every side was heard the cry, We want Christ the Healer! Upon this occasion those who were thought to show indications of the leprosy were examined by the priests. Many were forced to hear their husbands, wives, or children pronounced leprous, and doomed to go forth from the shelter of their homes and the care of their friends, to warn off the stranger with the mournful cry, "Unclean, unclean!" The friendly hands of Jesus of Nazareth, that never refused to touch with healing the loathsome leper, were folded on His breast. The lips that had answered his petition with the comforting words, "I will; be thou clean" (Mt 8:3), were now silent. Many appealed to the chief priests and rulers for sympathy and relief, but in vain. Apparently they were determined to have the living Christ among them again. With persistent earnestness they asked for Him. They would not be turned away. But they were driven from the temple courts, and soldiers were stationed at the gates to keep back the multitude that came with their sick and dying, demanding entrance. - {DA 776.1} The sufferers who had come to be healed by the Saviour sank under their disappointment. The streets were filled with mourning. The sick were dying for want of the healing touch of Jesus. Physicians were consulted in vain; there was no skill like that of Him who lay in Joseph's tomb. - {DA 776.2} The mourning cries of the suffering ones brought home to thousands of minds the conviction that a great light had gone out of the world. Without Christ, the earth was blackness and darkness. Many whose voices had swelled the cry of "Crucify Him, crucify Him," now realized the calamity that had fallen upon them, and would as eagerly have cried, Give us Jesus! had He still been alive. - {DA 776.3} When the people learned that Jesus had been put to death by the priests, inquiries were made regarding His death. The particulars of His trial were kept as private as possible; but during the time when He was in the grave, His name was on thousands of lips, and reports of His mock trial, and of the inhumanity of the priests and rulers, were circulated everywhere. By men of intellect these priests and rulers were called upon to explain the prophecies of the Old Testament concerning the Messiah, and while trying to frame some falsehood in reply, they became like men insane. The prophecies that pointed to Christ's sufferings and death they could not explain, and many inquirers were convinced that the Scriptures had been fulfilled. - {DA 776.4} The revenge which the priests had thought would be so sweet was already bitterness to them. They knew that they were meeting the severe censure of the people; they knew that the very ones whom they had influenced against Jesus were now horrified by their own shameful work. These priests had tried to believe Jesus a deceiver; but it was in vain. Some of them had stood by the grave of Lazarus, and had seen the dead brought back to life. They trembled for fear that Christ would Himself rise from the dead, and again appear before them. They had heard Him declare that He had power to lay down His life and to take it again. They remembered that He had said, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." Joh 2:19. Judas had told them the words spoken by Jesus to the disciples while on the last journey to Jerusalem: "Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn Him to death, and shall deliver Him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify Him: and the third day He shall rise again." Mt 20:18, 19. When they heard these words, they had mocked and ridiculed. But now they remembered that Christ's predictions had so far been fulfilled. He had said that He would rise again the third day, and who could say that this also would not come to pass? They longed to shut out these thoughts, but they could not. Like their father, the devil, they believed and trembled. - {DA 777.1}

Joh 8:20 - whither I go, ye cannot come - Those who reject the Son do not abide in Him, nor He in them. Thus they will not be with Him always and cannot go where He goes - See Lk 16:26; Joh 7:34, 13:33, 14:16-18, 23, 26

Joh 8:23

Joh 8:24 - ye are from beneath - See Joh 3:31; Jam 3:14-16

Joh 8:23

Joh 8:23 - I am not of this world - See Zech 6:12; Joh 17:14, 18:36, 37; 1Jo 4:4-6

Joh 8:24

Joh 8:24 - I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins - Jesus was here proclaiming His Messiahship and the fulfillment of the prophecy of Dan 9:25, Gen 22:8; Joh 1:36. See Act 2:36; Joh 16:9; 1Jo 5:10-12 The only safety for the Israelites was blood upon the doorposts. God said, "When I see the blood, I will pass over you" (Ex 12:13). All other devices for safety would be without avail. Nothing but the blood on the doorposts would bar the way that the angel of death should not enter. There is salvation for the sinner in the blood of Jesus Christ alone, which cleanseth us from all sin. The man with a cultivated intellect may have vast stores of knowledge, he may engage in theological speculations, he may be great and honored of men and be considered the repository of knowledge, but unless he has a saving knowledge of Christ crucified for him, and by faith lays hold of the righteousness of Christ, he is lost. Christ "was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed" (Isa 53:5). "Saved by the blood of Jesus Christ," will be our only hope for time and our song throughout eternity. - {3SM 172.4}

Joh 8:25

Joh 8:25 - Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning - Jesus bore witness of Himself when He stood and read from the prophet Isa in the Temple: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, To preach the acceptable year of the Lord. See Lk 4:16-19

Joh 8:26

Joh 8:26 - and to judge of you - Jesus is forecasting His future work of judgment, once He has entered the Most Holy Place to cleanse the sanctuary. Jesus' work while on earth was not to judge or condemn men but to save as the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world. See Joh 5:22, 23, 30; Dan 8:14

Joh 8:26

Joh 8:26 - and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him - See Joh 17:4, 6, 8; Ps 22:22

Joh 8:28

Joh 8:28 - When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am He - Jesus declares that the revelation of His Messiahship will be made abundantly plain when He is made a ransom for mankind's sins. The heavens and earth will declare His majesty, the empty grave will speak of His power, the transformed lives of His followers will give glory to His divinity and the moving of the Holy Spirit will prick the hearts of all men. See Mt 27:45, 50-54; Joh 3:14-16, 13:19, 12:31, 32; Act 2:36, 37, 3:12-18; Num 21:8, 9

Joh 8:28

Joh 8:28 - that I do nothing of myself but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things - Jesus did not seek to exalt Himself, nor to perform anything of Himself. Jesus always kept His mind connected with the Father and thus sought to do the will of His Father Who sent Him. See Joh 14:10, 11, 5:19-22, 36, 14:11

Joh 8:29

Joh 8:29 - And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone - See Isa 63:3; 2Tim 4:16, 17

Joh 8:29

Joh 8:29 - for I do always those things that please him - See Heb 10:9, Ps 40:8; 2Tim 2:5

Joh 8:31

Joh 8:31 - If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed - the mark of discipleship is to follow in the words of Christ without drawing back. See Isa 8:31; Mt 10:22; Act 13:43; Heb 10:38, 39; Hos 6:3; Joh 14:23, 24, 15:8, 18:37; Lk 9:16; 2Tim 3:14; James 1:25 "I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them." Hebrews 10:16. And if the law is written in the heart, will it not shape the life? Obedience—the service and allegiance of love—is the true sign of discipleship. Thus the Scripture says, "This is the love of God, that we keep His commandments." "He that saith, I know Him, and keepeth not His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him." 1 John 5:3; 2:4. Instead of releasing man from obedience, it is faith, and faith only, that makes us partakers of the grace of Christ, which enables us to render obedience. - {SC 60.2}

Joh 8:32

Joh 8:32 - And ye shall know the truth - Those who are taught of God, who are directed by the Holy Spirit will know the truth and will follow Christ. Jer 9:23, 24; Joh 7:17; 1Cor 2:14, 15; Philippians 3:10; 1Jo 2:21

Joh 8:32

Joh 8:32 - the truth - Jesus is the Truth, the wisdom (special knowledge - 1Cor 1:24) of God

Joh 8:32

Joh 8:32 - the truth shall make you free - the Son is the "Truth" who makes us free indeed - See Joh 8:36; Rom 8:2-4; Prov 16:6; Ps 91:4 Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life. As we continue in His ways, keeping His words and living by the grace of His indwelling Spirit, the LORD will cleanse/deliver us (Joh 15:3) from: 1. The bondage of sin - Joh 8:34-36; Gal 2:20, 21 2. Deception leading to perdition - 2Thess 2:9-12; Col 2:8, 18; 1Tim 6:20 3. False gods and false worship - Joh 18:37; Mk 7:7-9; Col 2:18 4. Works of the flesh - See Rom 6:12-16 5. Self-delusion - See Prov 3:7; Rom 12:16; 2Cor 10:12

Joh 8:33

Joh 8:33 - We be Abraham's seed - though biological descendants of Abraham, this did not make them the seed of Abraham. The very Seed for Whom the promises were made along with Abraham, stood before the Jews and they did not recognize Him. In their carnal pride, they rejected the One in Whom all the promises granted to Abraham lie. See Gal 3:16, 26-29; Joh 9:28, 29; 1Cor 3:3, 4 The boast of Jews as being the seed of Abraham was the marker of pride that separated them from all people and prevented them from fulfilling the work appointed to them. The mystery of God became a mystery because of this self pride that excluded all others who were not biological descendants of Abraham. See Eph 2:11-22,

Joh 8:33

Joh 8:33 - never in bondage - compare the Jew's boast to their true condition, once subjects of Pharaoh and then the king of Babylon, subjects of Rome and of Caesar and worst of all, subjects of sin (Deut 5:6; Ex 20:1, 2; Joh 8:34, 19:12, 15). See also Neh 9:32-38. Of the Roman officials in Palestine, none were more hated than the publicans. The fact that the taxes were imposed by a foreign power was a continual irritation to the Jews, being a reminder that their independence had departed. And the taxgatherers were not merely the instruments of Roman oppression; they were extortioners on their own account, enriching themselves at the expense of the people... - {CSA 15.8} A detachment of the Roman troops was encamped near by, on the sea-shore, and Jesus is now interrupted by the loud blast of the trumpet which is the signal for the soldiers to assemble on the plain below. They form in the regular order, bowing in homage to the Roman standard which is uplifted before them. With bitterness the Jews look upon this scene which reminds them of their own degradation as a nation. Presently messengers are dispatched from the army, with orders to various distant posts. As they toil up the abrupt bank that borders the shore, they are brought near to the listening crowd that surrounds Jesus, and they force some of the Jewish peasants to carry their burdens for them up the steep ascent. The peasants resist this act of oppression, and address their persecutors with violent language; but they are finally compelled to obey the soldiers, and perform the menial task required of them. This exhibition of Roman authority stirs the people with indignation, and they turn eagerly to hear what the great Teacher will say of this cruel act of oppression. With sadness, because of the sins which had brought the Jews into such bondage, Jesus looks upon the shameful scene. He also notes the hatred and revenge stamped upon the faces of the Jews, and knows how bitterly they long for power to crush their oppressors. Mournfully he says:— - {2SP 222.2}

Joh 8:34

Joh 8:34 - Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin - sin is one's master. Mt 6:24; Rom 6:16

Joh 8:35

Joh 8:35 - And the servant abideth not in the house for ever - As Ishmael, who was born of the flesh and not of the Spirit was cast out so that he was not numbered with Isaac, the son of promise and the heir (a foreshadowing of Jesus, the Promised Seed), so all who are not born of the Spirit will be cast out. An unfaithful servant who has not been grafted into the body of Christ will be cast out. See Joh 15:15; Mt 25:24-30; Gen 17:18, 21:9-12; Gal 4:26-31 Jesus describes three types of "servants" who will not abide in the house forever: 1. Those sons of the kingdom who bear leaves of profession alone without bearing fruit of righteousness. Mt 8:11, 12; Lk 13:24-28 2. Those who were hired servants that proved to be unprofitable, lazy, and despising of their Master's character. Mt 24:44-51, 25:24-30 3. Those who are gathered in as part of the harvest but are to be cast away for their rejection of Christ's righteousness, and for unbelief. Mt 22:12, 13

Joh 8:35

Joh 8:35 - but the Son abideth ever - Jesus' statement has dual significance. First He is asserting that He is the Son of God Who, like His Father, abides forever. Secondly He is establishing the means by which the righteous can become partakers of His divine nature and can share in His works of redemption. As the Apostle Paul later would state, I am crucified with Christ, nevertheless, I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of Him who loved me and gave Himself for me. We are dead to sin but alive in Christ and joint heirs with Christ. Gen 21:9, 10; Gal 2:20, 21, 4:28-30; Rom 6:9-11, 8:17

Joh 8:36

Joh 8:36 - If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed - Our deliverance is actuated by faith in Him Who is Faithful. We must believe that we receive, not wavering, and thus we will have the petitions we ask of the Lord. See Rom 8:2-4; John 8:31, 32; 1Jo 1:7, 5:14, 15; Heb 2:14-18; Mt 9:22 Every soul that refuses to give himself to God is under the control of another power. He is not his own. He may talk of freedom, but he is in the most abject slavery. He is not allowed to see the beauty of truth, for his mind is under the control of Satan. While he flatters himself that he is following the dictates of his own judgment, he obeys the will of the prince of darkness. Christ came to break the shackles of sin-slavery from the soul. "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." "The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus" sets us "free from the law of sin and death." Rom 8:2. - {DA 466.3} In the work of redemption there is no compulsion. No external force is employed. Under the influence of the Spirit of God, man is left free to choose whom he will serve. In the change that takes place when the soul surrenders to Christ, there is the highest sense of freedom. The expulsion of sin is the act of the soul itself. True, we have no power to free ourselves from Satan's control; but when we desire to be set free from sin, and in our great need cry out for a power out of and above ourselves, the powers of the soul are imbued with the divine energy of the Holy Spirit, and they obey the dictates of the will in fulfilling the will of God. - {DA 466.4} The only condition upon which the freedom of man is possible is that of becoming one with Christ. "The truth shall make you free;" and Christ is the truth. Sin can triumph only by enfeebling the mind, and destroying the liberty of the soul. Subjection to God is restoration to one's self,—to the true glory and dignity of man. The divine law, to which we are brought into subjection, is "the law of liberty." James 2:12. - {DA 466.5} Isaac was freeborn; and none but those who are free are the children of Abraham. "So, then, brethren, we are not children of the bond woman, but of the free." Gal 4:31. What this redon is, the Lord showed in His talk to the Jews, recorded in the eight of John. "If ye abide in My word, then are ye truly My disciples, and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. They answered unto Him, We are Abraham's seed, and have never yet been in bondage to any man; how sayest Thou, Ye shall be made free? Jesus answered the most, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Everyone that committeeth the sin is the bondservant of sin. And the bondservant abideth not in the house for ever; but the son abideth for ever. If therefore the son shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 71, 72}

Joh 8:37 - but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you - The Pharisees perceived that Jesus read their hearts and minds and were at a cross-road when the conviction of their sins presented itself to them. Yet they chose to harden their hearts and pursue the course of condemnation. See Ps 85:15, 16

Joh 8:37

Joh 8:37 - because my word hath no place in you - Contrast Joh 14:23, 16:1-3, 17:17

Joh 8:38

Joh 8:38 - I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father - Jesus is highlighting the two classes, the two seeds. See Gen 3:15; John 8:44; Ezekiel 28:1-19

Joh 8:39

Joh 8:39 - They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father - See Lk 3:8

Joh 8:39

Joh 8:39 - If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham - Abraham's works were works of faith and righteousness, to believe God, surrender his will to the Lord, keep His commandments through obedience, and to trust in His promises. Abraham saw Jesus' day and was glad (Joh 8:56). By their works of malice, according to Jesus, the Jewish leaders proved that they were not sons of Abraham. See Gen 15:6; Gal 3:29; Rom 4:3, 13-16; Joh 6:29, 15:8

Joh 8:40

Joh 8:40 - But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth - See Ps 109:1-5

Joh 8:41

Joh 8:41 - Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication - See Joh 8:19; Lk 3:23

Joh 8:41

Joh 8:41 - we have one Father, even God - See Joh 8:54, 55

Joh 8:42

Joh 8:42 - If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me - See Joh 5:23, 13:20

Joh 8:42

Joh 8:42 - for I proceedeth forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but He sent me. Why do ye not understand my speech? See Dan 9:24, 25; Isa 48:16; Prov 8:22

Joh 8:42

Joh 8:42 - neither came I of myself, but he sent me - See Isa 48:16; John 5:24

Joh 8:43

Joh 8:43 - Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word. - See Isa 29:10-14; Joh 8:47; Act 3:17, 18

Joh 8:43

Joh 8:43 - even because ye cannot hear my word - See Isa 6:9, 10

Joh 8:44

Joh 8:44 - your father the devil - The seed of evil (sin) is manifest in the sons of disobedience. See Isa 1:4, 57:4; Lk 3:7; Gen 3:15, 6:2; Ps 57:4; Isa 9:15; 1Jo 8:10; Rom 3:13

Joh 8:44

Joh 8:44 - and the lusts of your father ye will do - The works of wickedness done by the wicked are a mere reflection of the thoughts, desires, and lusts of their father the devil. The story of Absalom in the Bible is given to illustrate the spirit of Satan played out in his rebellion in heaven. See Mt 26:3, 4; Lk 4:5, 9, 29; 1Kin 21:9-14

Joh 8:44

Joh 8:44 - He was a murderer from the beginning - The Bible states that Lucifer was perfect in all of his ways until iniquity was found in him. It is at the point where he rebelled in his heart and sought to exalt himself above His Maker, seeking His death, that Lucifer became a murderer. See 1Jo 3:8; Eze 28:12-19; Isa 14:12-14 Through his lies and deceptions (inciting a lust for ungodly power and wisdom outside of God) in the Garden of Eden, the serpent murdered the spirit of love in Eve's heart towards her loving Father.

Joh 8:44

Joh 8:44 - because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own - lies are the creation of Satan. If there was one thing he can claim authorship for, it is pain, suffering, lies and death. His first lie spoken on earth "Ye shall not surely die" had not truth in it and yet many adhere to this false statement as if there were virtue in it. See Gen 3:4 COMPARE Isa 45:19 Error is never harmless. It never sanctifies, but always brings confusion and dissension. It is always dangerous. The enemy has great power over minds that are not thoroughly fortified by prayer and established in Bible truth. - {5T 292.2}

Joh 8:44

Joh 8:44 - for he is a liar, and the father of it - See Isa 57:4; 1Jo 5:10, 11

Joh 8:45

Joh 8:45: - And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not - Only those who love the truth will respond to, and be drawn by the truth (John 8:47, 10:3, 4, 14-16). Those who war against the truth by caviling, staging ad hominem attacks against the speaker of truth, and being scornful, remain under the devil's deception (John 8:43). See 2Thess 2:10-12; Mk 12:28-34; Rev 22:15

Joh 8:46

Joh 8:46 - convinceth - to reprove. Who can fault Jesus with committing a sin? See Joh 16:8

Joh 8:46

Joh 8:46 - And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me? - everything that is true and upright points to Jesus (John 14:6, 9-11; Jam 1:17; 1Jo 1:5; Rev 3:14). Those who desire to do the will of God will hear truth, will give heed and believe in the Son of God (Mk 12:28-34). However, Jesus knew the Jews who had not the love of God within, would not give heed to truth, and would therefore reject Jesus. See Joh 5:42; Isa 6:9, 10; 2Thess 2:10-12

Joh 8:47

Joh 8:47 - He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God - He that is drawn by God's Spirit from a pure heart (Ps 24:4 - genuine and sincere motives) responds to God's words. See Joh 7:17, 10:14-16, 9:39-41; Rev 1:3; Dan

12:10; 3Jo 1:11; *1Jo 4:6

Joh 8:48

Joh 8:48 - thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil - In arrogant prejudice and pride, the Jews disparage the Samaritans as an accursed people and state that Jesus is one of them. Yet, these so-called people with devils readily accepted Jesus as the Savior of the world. See Joh 4:9; Mt 11:25; Act 10:10-20

Joh 8:49

Joh 8:49 - ye do dishonour me - See Joh 5:22, 23

Joh 8:50

Joh 8:50 - And I seek not mine own glory - The way of the Godhead is to exalt the other, not themselves: Jesus says He came to give testimony about His father: Jesus points us to the Father [Jesus->Father] (Joh 17:4, 5:19, 30) Jesus says The Holy Spirit will give testimony of Him, Jesus: Holy Spirit points us to Jesus [Holy Spirit -> Jesus] (Joh 16:13, 14, 8:54) The Father glorifies His Son: The Father points us to His Son, Jesus [Father->Son] (Heb 1:8-12, 6; Phil 2:9-11) Contrast Joh 7:3-5

Joh 8:50

Joh 8:50 - there is one that seeketh and judgeth - The Father seeks for those who will do His will and glorify Him. See Joh 4:23, 5:22, 27

Joh 8:51

Joh 8:51 - If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death - See Joh 5:24, 11:25, 26; Col 3:3, 4; Rev 20:6; 1Cor 15:45

Joh 8:52

Joh 8:53 - Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death - though the Pharisees believed in the resurrection of the dead, they did not understand in Whom resurrection power stemmed. They did not understand that the very person they contested with was the Author of Life and of their own salvation. Jesus spoke a truth in that all who believe in Him will not see dead because He is not the God of the dead but of the living. Abraham, though he be dead, will live again. See Joh 11:25, 26; Rom 4:17; Mt 22:32; Mk 12:27, Lk 20:38

Joh 8:53

Joh 8:53 - Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself? - Joh the Baptist's testimony gave answer to the Pharisee's unbelieving inquiry: "This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me. He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose." Joh 1:30, 27. The same question was asked of Jesus by the woman at the well, "Art thou greater than our father Jacob..." Her heart was willing however, to be touched and changed by God.

Joh 8:54

Joh 8:54 - If I honour myself, my honour is nothing - See Gen 11:4

Joh 8:54

Joh 8:54 - it is my Father that honoureth Me - See Lk 3:22, 9:35; Mt 17:5; 2Pet 1:17

Joh 8:54

Joh 8:54 - of whom ye say, that he is your God - See Joh 8:41

Joh 8:55

Joh 8:55 - Yet ye have not known him - See Joh 8:47, 16:1-3

Joh 8:55

Joh 8:55 - I shall be a liar like unto you - Jesus informs the Pharisees that they are liars and know not the God they claim as their Father. See Joh 16:1-3

Joh 8:55

Joh 8:55 - but I know him, and keep his saying - See Joh 14:23

Joh 8:56

Joh 8:56 - rejoiced to see my day - See Gen 12:3; 22:8, 14:18, 19||1Cor 11:26; 1Pet 1:10, 11. The hope of Israel was embodied in the promise made at the time of the call of Abraham, and afterward repeated again and again to his posterity, "In thee shall all families of the earth be blessed." Gen 12:3. As the purpose of God for the redemption of the race was unfolded to Abraham, the Sun of Righteousness shone upon his heart, and his darkness was scattered. And when, at last, the Saviour Himself walked and talked among the sons of men, He bore witness to the Jews of the patriarch's bright hope of deliverance through the coming of a Redeemer. "Your father Abraham rejoiced to see My day," Christ declared; "and he saw it, and was glad." Joh 8:56. - {PK 683.1} Jesus is the hope and desire of the ages - THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS - See Jer 23:6

Joh 8:56

Joh 8:56 - he saw it, and was glad - Abraham beheld the innumerable multitude that would stand on the sea of glass that would come from him (Gen 15:4-6; Rev 7:9, 10; Gal 3:6-9), and he also beheld the glorification of Christ in His ministry and upon the cross (Gen 22:8-14; Joh 1:36; 3:14, 7:39, 12:32, 17:5; Lk 10:23, 24) The thoughtful reader will scarcely fail to be struck with the fact that Melchizedek, who was king of righteousness and peace, and priest of the Most High God, brought out to Abraham bread and wine. the emblems of the body and blood of our Lord... Melchizedek came out in his capacity of king and priest, and Abraham recognized him as such. Note the connection in Gen 14:18, 19... It is quite evident that the bread and wine which Melchizedek brought forth acquired special significance from the fact that he was the priest of the Most High God. The Jews in the days of Christ scoffed at the statement that Abraham rejoiced to see His day. They could see no evidence of the fact. May we not see in this transaction one evidence that Abraham saw Christ's day, which is the day of salvation? {The Everlasting Covenant, E.J. Waggoner, pg 61}

Joh 8:58

Joh 8:57 - Verily, verily I say unto you - the repetition of the statement of truth is used frequently, but only in the gospel of the Apostle Joh. The statement shows that with full and godly assurance and confidence, that which is being stated is true.

Joh 8:58

Joh 8:58 - I AM - Jesus declares His divinity as the Eternal, Everlasting God. See Ex 3:14; Mt 9:1-8; Lk 5:19-26, 11:39-44; Joh 1:15, 30; Mic 5:2

Joh 8:58

Joh 8:58 - I am - See Ex 3:14, 15

Joh 8:59

Joh 8:59 - then took they up stones to cast at Him - See Jer 26:8; Joh 10:31, 36-38; 1Kin 21:13

Joh 8:59

Joh 8:59 - but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by - God gave the angels charge over Jesus to keep Him, lest He dash His foot against a stone. The angels of God escorted Jesus away from harm to safety because His time had not yet come to be glorified. See Ps 91:11, 12

Joh 9:2

Joh 9:2- who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? - life in Ancient Israel was difficult as men had adopted teachings and philosophies that made the burden of the sick and down-trodden even more burdensome. The teaching that illness, sickness or handicaps were a scourge from the Lord caused many to feel forsaken of God and without hope. See Joh 9:34; Job 4:7

Joh 9:3

Joh 9:3 - Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him - Jesus came to declare the love of the Father and to reveal His Messiahship. His works were an evidence of Who He was and were to strengthen the faith of those whom the Father had entrusted to Him. See Ex 4:11; Joh 11:15, 17:1-8

Joh 9:4

Joh 9:4 - I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work - Jesus provides counsel regarding a divine principle and health law, the need for proper rest at night. We should avoid work which can not be performed during daylight hours. We should use the dusk and night hours for reading, prayer, devotion and sleep. See Joh 11:9, 10

Joh 9:5

Joh 9:5 - As long as I am in the world, I am the Light of the world - See Joh 1:9

Joh 9:6

Joh 9:6 - When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay - Unlike other healings where Jesus spoke the word or laid hands upon a person, Jesus made clay from spittle to anoint the eyes of this blind man's. As Jesus formed Adam of the dust of the earth, Jesus figuratively recreated the eyes of the man born blind so that he might receive sight. Gen 2:7

Joh 9:6

Joh 9:6 - spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay - Jesus has an eye salve that can open the eyes of the blind, literally and figuratively. See Rev 3:18

Joh 9:7

Joh 9:7 - Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing - Like Naaman the Syrian, Jesus commanded the blind man to exercise faith and share in the miracle of his healing. Unlike others who Jesus merely commanded they be healed, Jesus anointed the eyes of the blind man and commanded he go wash in the river Siloam.

Joh 9:7

Joh 9:7 - He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing - Jesus demonstrated an object lessons that our blessings at times will require our obedient acts of faith, cooperating with the Divine will.

Joh 9:10

Joh 9:10 - How were thine eyes opened? - the question every Christian should be ready to give an answer for with meekness and fear. See 1Pet 3:15;

Joh 9:14

Joh 9:14 - And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes - Jesus continued to do His Father's work, even on the Sabbath to the utter contempt and anger of the Jewish leadership. See Mt 12:1-14

Joh 9:16

Joh 9:16 - This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day - The Jews established their own method of righteousness based on works and things seen of men rather than a pure and consecrated life unto God. See Rom 10:2, 3

Joh 9:16

Joh 9:16 - How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them - though Jesus' works spoke of Himself and the character He demonstrated made known Who was ordering His life, the Jews refused to accept Him as a righteous man because He did not fit their mold and because He exposed their shallow "righteousness" as powerless and worthless.

Joh 9:16

Joh 9:16 - And there was a division among them - Jesus divides the world. No one can sit on the fence but all must make a decision regarding Who He is and where we stand with Him. See Joh 7:43, 10:19-22; Mt 10:34, 12:30; Heb 4:12

Joh 9:17

Joh 9:19 - He said, He is a prophet - The man born blind and healed spoke correctly in stating that Jesus was a Prophet. As King David was anointed 3 times, so Jesus too would be anointed 3x. As a Prophet and Messiah, He was anointed by the Holy Spirit at His baptism. Jesus would be anointed 50days after His resurrection as the High Priest of the heavenly sanctuary. Jesus will be anointed King of kings and Lord of lords at His Second Coming. See Deut 18:17-19; Mt 21:11; Joh 12:44-50

Joh 9:18

Joh 9:18 - But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight - the same Jews who daily passed the once blind man begging were incredulous because they did not want to believe that Jesus had given him his sight. Choosing to believe a lie, God would eventually give them over to a reprobate mind to be lost and condemned.

Joh 9:19

Joh 9:19 - And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see? - the Jewish leadership persisted in the charade to condemn the guiltless. See Job 34:17, 40:8; Mt 12:7

Joh 9:20

Joh 9:20 - We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind - the incredulity of the Jewish Leadership should have finally been shut down at this time, once and for all, and they should, like the once blind man, give praises to God and glorify Him for the wonderful works that were done. They, in their own blind hatred for Jesus were taking a cause for rejoicing and seeking to make it a burdensome curse, in the spirit of antichrist, robbing God of the glory due His name.

Joh 9:21

Joh 9:21 - or who hath opened his eyes, we know not - this statement the parents had spoken is questionable, given the popularity that had spread regarding the itinerant prophet Who healed all who came to Him. Again, due to fear of the Jew's reprisal for acknowledging Jesus as Christ, the people's praises of and for God and His beloved Son were being suppressed. This was the spirit of antichrist at work. See 1Jo 4:2

Joh 9:21

Joh 9:21 - he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself - this is the figurative "throwing their son under the bus".

Joh 9:22

Joh 9:22 - These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue - Joh 7:13, 12:42, 19:38

Joh 9:24

Joh 9:24 - Give God the praise - the Jews were adamant in silencing the once blind man's praises for Jesus. Jesus' profession of unity and equality with His Father, and that He only did that which His Father desired should have resonated with the blasphemous, self-exalting Jews.

Joh 9:24

Joh 9:24 - we know that this man is a sinner - based on the Pharisee's standard of righteousness, Jesus was a sinner. See Joh 9:16, 7:45-49

Joh 9:25

Joh 9:25 - Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see - the once blind man is one for whom Jesus had done something. He was immovable, unshakable in his position and opinion of Christ. He left the Jews to squabble over their opinions but his mind was made up. Lord may I be fully sold out, knowing all that You have done for me!!

Joh 9:26

Joh 9:26 - Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes? - as if seeking to catch the once blind man in a lie, they ask him the same question again in hardened unbelief. See Joh 9:15

Joh 9:27

Joh 9:27 - He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples? - the once blind man, with heavenly boldness rebuked the self-righteous accusers of the Guiltless One. See Lk 12:11, 12; Joh 9:30

Joh 9:28

Joh 9:28 - but we are Moses' disciples - the same carnal self-exalting spirit is seen again from the Pharisees who boasted of being sons of Abraham, now disciples of Moses. See Joh 8:33; 1Cor 3:3, 4

Joh 9:29
